

Clean And Unclean In Scripture

There are many references in Scripture to the clean and the unclean, and to the pure and the impure. But most people don't understand the significance of these terms in regard to the teachings of Scripture. They're lost in the fog of "washing-vs-not washing", etc.

However, there is indeed great significance attached to these terms. They do not, in most cases, refer to physical cleanliness. They refer most often to moral cleanliness - or the lack thereof. And they range from the concept of being "pure" to that of being "filthy". There are multiple variations related to the nuances of a particular concept, but at the heart of all this are some very foundational concepts.

When understood from this perspective the terms take on a different connotation. Clean (in all its various forms) actually refers to a state of "undefilement". Unclean (in all its various forms) actually refers to a state of "defilement".

Scripturally defilement, or, in its absence, undefilement, has to do with one's status in relationship to YAHWEH, The Elohim (God) of Scripture.

If one is defiled they're seen as "contaminated" - typically the result of following the ways of the world. If they are undefiled, however, they are seen as "uncontaminated" - typically the result of following the ways of YAHWEH.

We need to remember that no one with a significant defect was allowed into YAHWEH's presence (The Tabernacle or The Temple - His "dwelling place"). A defect was also viewed as a defilement. With It one was not "pure", i.e., "uncontaminated".

This included one who was "damaged" (broken bones, etc.)

as well as one that was "defective" from birth.
With this in mind, every defilement is a "defect".
Sin (rebellion against YAHWEH)
was seen as a defilement.
YAHWEH does not tolerate sin in His presence.

The consequences of one's defilement,
or their undefilement,
have to do with one's privilege to enter into the very presence of YAHWEH Himself.

If you are undefiled - and thus following His ways
- you are granted access to Him.
If you are defiled - and thus following the ways of the world
- you are not granted access to Him.
It's really just that simple.
It's profoundly important to understand what's at stake (symbolically, but also quite literally, it's the torture stake of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah).

Tradition, however,
has greatly confused the heart of the matter.
Tradition is what human beings have passed on to other human beings.
It's the "practice" of doing things
the way our predecessors have done them.
And tradition has given us multiple "words"
that are used to convey "cleanliness", or "uncleanliness";
hence, defilement or undefilement.

The result, at the very least, is a bewildering lack of clarity concerning what Scripture really intends.
At worst, it deceives us into thinking "cleanliness"
is merely a "physical" matter, and therefore has little to do with our mental and moral attitudes, beliefs, and actions.

Yet everything in Scripture is connected to "cleanliness"
- to being uncontaminated, unsoiled and undefiled before YAHWEH.
Without this lack of defilement your relationship with YAHWEH is far less than He desires.
In fact, without it you cannot have a relationship with Him at all.

This presents a real problem for us.
If we can't have a relationship with Him because we are defiled

why even bother to try to be or to become undefiled?
It seems like an impossible task.

This is precisely where Scripture, YAHWEH's Word to us,
comes to our rescue.
(Read that as "our salvation", or "our redemption".)
YAHWEH has provided the means by which we,
through no real effort on our own,
can become undefiled.

Once we are seen by Him as undefiled
we can receive the gift (privilege, not a "right") of being able to enter into His presence.

Indeed, THIS is the entire point and focus of Scripture!
Without a relationship with YAHWEH
there is NO rescue,
there is NO deliverance,
there is NO "salvation"!

Scripture provides the details:
- on how we can become undefiled!
Scripture provides the reasons
- why we should become undefiled!
Scripture provides the teachings
- on how to be seen by YAHWEH as undefiled!

But - you will never understand this Truth unless you commit your entire life to YAHWEH and dedicate yourself to seeking His ways above everything else in your life
- so you can live according to His desires.

Given below are many references to "clean" and "unclean".
Also provided are the Hebrew and Greek terms used to help us understand the meaning of these concepts (not just the words).

The profusion of different terms
at first looks somewhat overwhelming.
But once you comprehend the basic concepts of undefiled and defiled you'll have little trouble grasping the real meanings involved.
And you'll begin to comprehend that everything in Scripture is connected to these concepts.

There are a number of Hebrew terms that have no equivalent in Greek. A comparison of the Hebrew text and the Greek Septuagint (a very old Greek "translation" of the text) quickly reveals the places where this affects what is translated.

The Greek terms used attempt to convey the Hebrew concepts, but because they're less than accurate in portraying accurately the Hebrew concepts they leave us with a serious lack of comprehension of what the original terms intended to convey. This is particularly true where there is no equivalent term in the Greek language.

This quickly reveals the significant difficulty of trying to transfer Hebrew understandings into the Greek language. Where this becomes vitally important is in The New Covenant. The Hebraic meaning is often completely lost in the "translation" - first into Greek, and then into English - which further compounds the problem.

Perhaps the only way to truly "get it right" would be to become an expert in Hebrew, Greek, and English. Yet even then some concepts would be missed. This is due in part to the movement from ancient Hebrew to contemporary Hebrew, and the shift in the meanings of certain terms that is known to have taken place.

Some individual Greek terms are used to "translate" several Hebrew ones, the Hebrew terms being combined under one Greek concept. This is often very misleading and confusing. One term represents several others. It is not properly "translating" the terms.

The one thing that becomes pretty clear, however, is that clean means undefiled and unclean means defiled.

Remember, the main focus is one's relationship with YAHWEH.

Are you undefiled, or defiled?
If you are undefiled
you are permitted access to Him.
If you are defiled
you are excluded from Him
- and even from "The Camp"
(the congregation).

Most of the defilement/undefilement has to do with one's moral state.
By violating, or rejecting YAHWEH's instructions (commands, rules, teachings, etc.)
one becomes "contaminated" - defiled.
By faithfully following His desires one lives within a state of being undefiled.

Hence, cleanness or uncleanness is typically determined by the manner in which you respond to YAHWEH's words.
If you place Him first and foremost in your life
you tend to remain "uncontaminated" - undefiled:
- clean, pure, etc.

If you place Him in any other position
you tend to remain "contaminated" - defiled:
- unclean, impure, filthy, corrupt, etc.

Some Hebrew terms are bewildering to the western mind.
It's difficult for us to comprehend
how the Hebrews arrived at the interpretation they held of certain terms.
Even to modern day Jews there are a number of terms that are "of uncertain meaning".
We can only guess at what they may mean by looking at the context in which they appear
- and even then we may well miss the full intent.

Fortunately, many of these are not critical to our faith or belief in YAHWEH.
They don't change our essential perceptions of Him or of His desires for us.
They only affect our understanding of the precise meaning of the terms in question.

The primary goal of this study,
and others like it that are being prepared,
is to help eliminate confusion within The Scriptures.
The current state of affairs has left us with innumerable "translations" that are not really "translations" at all.

Instead, they are misleading presentations of the "traditions of men".

There's a special term for this.

It's called eisegesis.

It means placing one's own ideas into a text to make it conform to one's own world view or belief system.

Exegesis, on the other hand, is seeking to discover what the text actually says, and means.

In this word study the following conventions will be used:

term = proper or best translation

{ } = Writer's insertions for purposes of clarity.

[not used] = the term is not translated in the KJV as the key word for this study.

The primary definitions are from Strong's Exhaustive Concordance.

Everything after the (--) is a word that's used in the KJV to "translate" the Hebrew or Greek term into English. You'll see a number of rather confusing "translations" as you review these. Just remember, these are not part of the definition itself.

W: = Wilson's Old Testament Words meanings.

[G-] = Greek equivalent terms (some of them are not included)

Note: The list of Greek terms precedes The New Covenant Section

HEBREW TERMS:

If you look closely at the words you'll note various connections between them. Many are simply the same term with different vowel pointings - and thereby have been given "different meanings".

Keep in mind that in the original Hebrew there were no vowel pointings. Thus, these are really the same word. But our present understanding of them has been impacted by these vowel pointings.

Also take note of the root words involved. They are important guides to fundamental meanings.

Now you have a sense of the bewildering number of Hebrew terms "translated" as clean/pure, or unclean/impure. The terms that occur infrequently have less impact, but they are still important to our understanding of the concepts of "undefiled" and "defiled".

It's obvious that there are different types of "cleansing" - for which there are some very specific terms to help make the distinction. It's also evident that the English words used to "translate" the text of the KJV Bible often cause much confusion because of the inconsistencies in the way things are "translated".

What's given below seeks to provide more consistency and clarity in the terms.
This is part of an effort to prepare a new version of The Old Covenant text with language that is more easily understood.
While some revisions have been made there is much yet to be done.

Please recognize that almost every reference to clean and unclean,
to pure and impure,
to holy and profane, etc.
all could well be translated as undefiled or defiled,
and you would still correctly understand the fundamental meaning of the text.

H2889 - pure - [Undefile]

Note: Virtually every place this term is used it refers to something that is undefiled, uncontaminated.

Gen. 7:2 You shall take with you seven each of every pure animal, a male and his female; two each of animals that are not pure, a male and his female;

Gen. 7:8 Of pure animals, of animals that are not pure of birds, and of everything that creeps on the earth,

Gen. 8:20 Then Noah built an altar to YAHWEH, and took of every pure animal and of every pure bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

Note: One must ask, "How did Noah know what was "pure" and what was "impure"?"

Nothing in the text provides a clue concerning this knowledge.

And this was pre-flood knowledge.

Ex. 25:11 And you shall overlay it with pure gold, inside and out you shall overlay it, and shall make on it a molding of gold all around.

Ex. 25:17 "You shall make a mercy seat of pure gold; two and a half cubits shall be its length and a cubit and a half its width.

Ex. 29:36 And you shall offer a bull every day as a sin offering for atonement. You shall [cleanse - 2398 - to miss; to sin - in the piel form, to cleanse or purify] have made amends for the altar by making atonement upon it, and you shall anoint it to sanctify (consecrate) it.

This is a difficult concept for the Western mind to grasp.
The sin offering was made to obtain atonement for one's sin.
That act brought with it the state of being undefiled.
The altar was defiled.
It, as well as the person who sinned,
needed to become undefiled.
The sin offering acted as that which "made amends"
for the defilement that was on the altar, thereby "purifying" (undefiling) it.
Although two different Hebrew terms are used (one of them twice)
each one essentially brings about atonement (making amends with YAHWEH
- satisfying His requirements for becoming undefiled.).

Gen. 35:2 And Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, "Put away the foreign gods that are among you, undefile (2891) yourselves, and change your garments.

This is the first usage of 2891. Properly it means to be bright - pure, or unadulterated. To cleanse yourself misses the concept of becoming undefiled. It merely suggests something on the order of taking a bath/washing. But such "cleansing" does not make you undefiled.

What makes you undefiled is doing the will of YAHWEH - doing what is right in His "eyes" (in what He observes).

While there was often a ritual washing involved in Hebrew worship practices it is not the washing of the exterior that makes one undefiled. It is a symbolic act, much the same as baptism.

The water cannot remove the defilement because every defilement is related to one's relationship with YAHWEH - as noted in the opening paragraphs above.

Lev. 11:32 And upon whatever any of them, when they are dead, does fall, it shall be defiled (2930); whether it is any vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack, whatever vessel it is, wherein any work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be defiled (2930) until the evening; so it shall be purified.

This term occurs 172 times.

It typically is translated as "sanctify".

Sanctification, or consecration, is a form of purifying, of making undeiled.

As such all 172 occurrences could be properly translated as "undeile" (and its variants).

Also, sanctifying has to do with making "holy", setting one apart for a special purpose - typically to serve YAHWEH.

To be "holy" (set apart for YAHWEH's service) one must be 'clean', 'pure' - undeiled!

Due to the number of occurrences the references are not listed here.

H8562 - a scouring; cleanse - [Undefined]

Esth. 2:3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of Hege the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for cleansing be given them:

Esth. 2:9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for cleansing, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

Esth. 2:12 Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the cleansing of the women;)

Prov. 20:30 The blueness of a wound cleanses away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

Now you can understand the confusion caused by the use of multiple terms. Many of these could be replaced quite readily with a few simple terms. This would reduce the confusion and provide consistency of understanding. There are different types of "cleansing", but it really comes down to two simple concepts. The physical cleansing and the non-physical cleansing.

Either you are undefiled, or you are defiled. That's real issue in the teachings of Scripture. If you can grasp that concept and keep it before you it will greatly reduce your confusion.

The New Covenant

The New Covenant terms are all in Greek. There are some corresponding Hebrew terms, but not for every Greek term. Wherever there is no Greek equivalent for a Hebrew term there will be confusion. Some of the equivalent terms are noted. However, a careful search to discover all equivalents has not been made.

Ideally, we could match every word to its Hebrew counterpart. This would improve the accuracy and the consistency of Scripture. It would also eliminate much confusion.
