THE OLD COVENANT

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Introduction

This is The Word of YAHWEH!
YAHWEH is God's ONLY personal Name!
Do not treat it with disrespect!

God's proper NAME occurs 6821 times in The Old Covenant manuscripts.
Yet, it NEVER APPEARS in most Bibles.
This is despicable!
It violates the Third Word (Commandment) of Scripture.

This text will use the proper Hebrew Name of The Creator, YAHWEH.
It will not use the other "names" that traditional texts use, such as: "The LORD, Jehovah, Ha Shem, G-d, God, etc."
These are ALL incorrect!

The text will also use the proper Hebrew Name, YAHUSHUA, for The Messiah.
This Name has a very specific Hebrew meaning.
It means: YAH is Deliverer. (rescuer, savior, etc.)
YAH is a short form of YAHWEH.

The Hebrew Messiah would NEVER have been given a Greek name.
His Name is not "Jesus"!
"Jesus" is a Greek corruption of Yahoshua, traditionally, Joshua.
It is inconceivable that YAHWEH would have given His Only Son a GREEK name!

The Scriptures are a Hebrew text.
The Old Covenant was written in Hebrew for Hebrew people by The Hebrew Elohim (God).
That characteristic is foundational to one's understanding of Scripture.
It should never be ignored.

It's highly likely that a Hebrew text of The New Covenant existed at some point.
Unfortunately the Greek versions we have available make it very difficult to maintain a Hebrew perspective on the life of The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

Why is this Bible called "The Aleph-Tav Bible"?

The Old Covenant Hebrew text features a unique element.
It is the usage of אָ.
These letters read aleph-tav in Hebrew. (read from right to left).
א is the first letter,
ת is the last letter of the Hebrew 'aleph-bet'.
It is from this Hebrew construct that the name for this Bible is derived.
These letters have extreme significance in the text.
That significance is rediscovered and revealed in this version of Scripture.

YAHWEH and YAHUSHUA are both identified in Scripture
as The First and The Last, The Aleph א and The Tav ת.
Hebrew reads from the right side to the left side.
In The New Covenant these show up as Greek, Alpha and Omega.

The appearances of these letters in The Old Covenant have vitaly important significance for the text.
However, they are vitrually never indicated in other English bibles.
They are provided in this text for your consideration.

These letters actually provide a form of special emphasis for the terms to which they are connected.
In The Aleph-Tav Bible you are now able to see each occurrence within the Hebrew text.
You can see for yourself how they affect the impact of the text.
The terms and concepts they are connected to are underlined to show the emphasis.
Think of אָ as an attention sign:
AT-tention, something important is happening here!

Traditionally these are treated as representing "a marker for the direct object of a verb".
This is not correct!
It is a misrepresentation of their purpose and function.
There is no language on earth that uses a "marker" for the direct object of a verb.
To claim that this is the purpose of this term is false teaching.

Book order:
The book order for The Old Covenant is that of The Tanakh.
The Tanakh is the Hebrew version of The Old Covenant.
There's a profound logic to its order that's lost when this order is altered.

A NEW book order is given for The New Covenant.

Based on the material presented in The New Covenant a more Hebraic order for the books is provided.
A few minor changes have been made to the book order.
An explanation is given in the New Covenant notes for the text.

New Format:

The format of The Aleph-Tav Bible is different.

It's designed to be read out loud!

Hebrew is a "vocal" language.
The Hebrews were taught their Scriptures by having them read out loud to them.
They didn't have a written copy from which to read.
We ought not overlook this element.
The impact on the mind of reading out loud is very dramatic.
The mind absorbs the material much more effectively.

The format is also designed to focus on the individual elements of the text.
The impact is far different than those using standard paragraph structures.
The Hebrews thought in concrete terms, not abstract ones.
This is lost in other formats.
This new format helps to delineate their concrete thinking more clearly.

Hebrew Names Used:

Hebrew names are used instead of "English" names in order to restore and maintain the Hebrew character of the text.
Hebrew names carry great significance.
They have explicit meanings in most cases that are pertinent to the text itself.
This will challenge you a bit.
However, it's important that you THINK about what you're reading and take it very seriously.
The meanings for the names are provided in the notes.
The meanings are not always certain.
They are compiled from multiple sources.

Preparation of The Text:

This work was created differently than most.
It's been prepared in a manner that YOU could do yourself, using the resources that are available today.
Accordance Bible Software (www.accordancebible.com) has been used in its preparation, as well as countless other resource materials.

Every single word of the Hebrew or Greek text has been researched using the Masoretic Hebrew text in an effort to determine an accurate rendering.
The context may shift the nuance of the word slightly, but the fundamental concepts always remain.

While this has the character of a new "translation" this is, more accurately, an "edited" text.
It's the result of an extensive review of each word and phrase in an attempt to determine the best way to present the concepts within the text itself.
Putting these into English has many challenges.
There are often many ways to express the same idea.
The general approach is to use the most literal sense of the text.
This is not always the best "translation", but it does give a fairly accurate sense of the textual meanings.

The notes (in Blue) are essential to a proper understanding of this text.

Without them you'll miss much of the meaning within it.
There are detailed explanations of many of the terms used in order to help you better understand the text.

A very careful study of what we know about the words used and their meanings is the foundation.
Not everything is clear.
Much of the Hebrew character of the work is lost in any translation into English.
This is unavoidable.
However, every attempt has been made to place as much Hebraic influence into this text as possible.

This text has been prepared by a seminary trained former pastor with over 65 years of Bible study and teaching experience.

Note: This text will challenge the traditional views of your faith.
What we've been taught by traditional means is often far different than what The Word of YAHWEH actually teaches.

Are you prepared to LEARN?
Do not be 'stiff-necked' like the Yisra'elites - and the "traditionalists"?

May you be blessed in your study of The Word of YAHWEH!

1. Genesis - B'RESHEETH

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Gen. 1:1 In the beginning The Elohim created the skies themselves תָּא and the earth itself תָּא.

Because this is the first portion of Scripture many terms and concepts are new.
These terms form a foundation for everything that follows.
Extra notes are needed to help facilitate a good understanding of the text.
The notes will be in blue, like this, to distinguish them from the text itself.
Please be patient. There are numerous notes, for specific reasons.

"The Elohim" is used to distinguish YAHWEH from all other "elohim".
This term is traditionally translated as "God".
However, this term is also used of 'angels',
(This is an incorrect interpretation - it actually means a deputy or a messenger), judges, etc., and is not exclusive to The Creator.

"In the beginning The Elohim..."
This first statement provides the absolute foundation for YAHWEH's Word.
Before everything else exists there is The Elohim!
Without Him - nothing happens!
Please do not miss this essential Truth!

elohim means gods; it is a plural term in Hebrew,
but it is often used as a singular term.
It is most often used for The One True God (YAHWEH).
Its basic meaning is "mighty one".

NOTE: There is convincing evidence later in Scripture that YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, was WITH YAHWEH
at the creation of the skies and the earth.
(See John 1.1-3)

תָּא, et, is a combination of the first and last letters of the Hebrew aleph-bet,
the letters of the Hebrew language.
(By way of the Greek we have ended up with 'alphabet' yet the origin is actually Hebrew.)

א is aleph.
ת is tav.
aleph is the first Hebrew letter.
tav is the last Hebrew letter.
The letters are read from right to left.
This is the opposite of English writing which is read from left to right.

YAHWEH is identified in Scripture as "The First and The Last".
These two letters are directly tied to that identification.
The Messiah, YAHUSHUA (commonly, but incorrectly, Jesus) is identified in Greek as The Alpha & Omega.
This is the Greek equivalent to Aleph & Tav.
If The New Covenant was written in Hebrew
it would be given as such.
Therefore, when they occur in the text
we need to pay very careful attention.
And note that these characters occur on virtually every page of The Old Covenant.

The use of תָּא precedes
"the skies" and "the earth" in the Hebrew text
yet in English translations this is ignored.
It's left untranslated and is not noted in most instances.

Tradition, not Scripture, has taught that this is purportedly:
"a marker for a direct object of a verb."
While this "sign" often occurs in close connection with verbs
it is not used consistently for this purpose.
Most verbs in the text do not have it used with them.
Therefore, the concept of this "word" acting as
"the direct objective of a verb" cannot be its purpose.

YAHWEH, The Elohim, does nothing without a purpose.
Therefore, it's inserted where He wants it - for a reason.
The reason is to draw special AT-tention to something in the text.
He leaves it out where this is not desired.

The true significance of תָּא, AT in Hebrew, is to identify the "selfness" of a term (itself, himself, herself, etc.).

In essence it refers to "this specific one/topic".

This instinctively draws our attention to the places where it is used
IF it is included in the text,
as it indeed is in the Hebrew text.
Doing so adds special emphasis to each occurrence.

At times putting this into English is awkward.
An effort will be made to allow a reasonably comfortable
reading of the text where possible.

This function of the nx is newly re-discovered.
As a result some refinement will need to take place
as we get used to including it in the text.

For the first editions of the text
using this in its proper perspective
we'll use a combination of the Hebrew letters combined with an underline to reflect what it appears to emphasize.
Each occurrence will be noted as above
with the "sign" nx and underlining in the text.
This will open up entirely new insights into the text.

The term "created" is from the Hebrew bara.
It means to bring into being out of nothing.
This is different from "made"
which is typically translated as "created" also,
but in essence means to make by forming or assembling it from something else that already exists.
The Hebrew uses the definite article twice in this text, thereby emphasizing each distinctly.

The reference appears to be to the first creation of "the original heavens, and the original earth".
There are a number of scholars who believe there is a gap,
a significant span of time,
that occurred between verse one and verse two.
They suggest there were two creations:
one original creation which became "waste and empty",
and then a re-creation,
which had its basic foundations in the original one.
The original one is only hinted at,
and we're not given much information about it,
probably since it is not important for us to understand what took place then.
Too much information about it would most likely cause confusion for our minds today.
Yet Elohim does give some glimpses into the possibilities.
But for our purposes our focus is to be on the story
of our own history of this creation,
not on some previous situation,
of which we can know very little.

One item of interest is the "fall" of Lucifer, and this appears to be connected with v. 2 -
"the earth (literally and more accurately) became waste and empty".
The Hebrew here is tohu va bohu,
and waste and empty is its literal meaning.
Apparently because of sin (in this case involving Lucifer)
the original creation was destroyed;
it became waste and empty.
Then there was a time gap
before YAHWEH decided to re-create the earth
as we now know it, and to place man upon it, thereby establishing a new order of things.
It is this new order which is the content and focus of all of scripture.

Note: All terms used have their first mention here.
There is a principle that suggests that a "first use"
in Scripture "sets the meaning of the term for the rest of Scripture."
This is a general guideline,
but should not be used "exclusively".

And one more comment -
many Hebrew words have multiple meanings.
It is sometimes difficult to determine which meaning should be used.
Our practice will be to consider very carefully
the basic root meanings of the terms we encounter,

the "literal sense".
We will try to utilize this literal sense
wherever the context confirms such usage.
Remember, the context of a passage is crucial when attempting to discover the real meaning of the text.
Always look carefully at the surrounding "verses"
(and remember these are artificial separations that were not in the original text) when you study scripture.
Those verses will typically add to your understanding of what is being said.
Without the context, of the surrounding verses,
or of scripture as a whole,
your studies can become rather confusing at times.

Gen. 1:2 And the earth existed desolate and empty.
And darkness existed upon the face of the depths.
And The Divine Nature of The Elohim
was brooding above the face of the waters.

Great debates have been had over the meaning of this verse.

Every word has significance to The Elohim.
He put it there for a reason.
It is up to us, under the guidance of His Divine Nature,
to discern its purpose and meaning in the text.
Probably the most important consideration for understanding a particular word's usage
will be the context in which it occurs.

The terms imply something truly empty - without tracks.
This suggests no life forms existed
to "make their mark" upon the ground - desolate.
The term for earth can refer to the whole planet or to the ground, or even to a particular portion of the ground.

There is much debate over "was" or "became",
but the term used implies existence,
however that might "happen"
(which is yet another common "translation" of the term).
The context simply suggests
the land existed with nothing in it or on it, perhaps including no shape to it.

The existence (implied) of darkness upon, or over, the depths
- referring apparently to deep waters of some type -
must not be under estimated.
This was a complete darkness.
There was no light at all.

This can be taken both literally and figuratively.
Indeed, this may be related to the darkness that existed in Mitsraim (Hebrew for Egypt) at the time of The Exodus, which could be "felt" (experienced personally).
Thus, not only do you have desolateness and emptiness
but you also have a penetrating darkness.

We also encounter the first use of "face".
This is a key word that occurs throughout Scripture.
It expresses a "presence" - in front of, that which is viewable.
From it we get sur-face, which means "upon the face".

ruach is typically "translated" as "spirit".
It means breath or wind.
It does not mean 'spirit',
which is a strictly Greek term, not Hebrew.
The Hebrews had no concept of 'spirit'.
They viewed the breath as the wind of man.
In doing so it represented one's very "nature" or "character", that which flowed in and out of the "inner depth" of a person.

In this specific instance it represents The Divine Nature.
It is this same Divine Nature that was "poured forth" at Shavuot, otherwise known as Pentecost in The New Covenant.
Traditional texts call this "The Holy Spirit".
That's not a proper translation of the terms used.
Properly, this is "The Divine Nature of YAHWEH".

The New Covenant books in this text contain many notes correcting this identification.
There a series of notes will demonstrate more clearly how this is to be interpreted and why.
Think of it in terms of the "old man" and the "new man", or "new nature", that one receives upon believing in The Messiah.

The Divine Nature of YAHWEH was brooding over the face of the waters. Notice that 'waters' replaces 'depths' but symbolizes the same thing.

This brooding is seen to be much like that of a mother bird carefully and gently tending to her nestlings. It suggests YAHWEH's tender watching above the waters.

Gen. 1:3 And The Elohim said, "Light exist!"
And light existed.

'owr - illumination; light; brightness, etc.
yehi is the jussive form of hayah.
Hayah means to exist, to be, to become, to happen.
The jussive form is an expression of a desire, a wish, or a command; direction.
it's often stated as "let light exist".

However, it's more fitting for us to recognize that as YAHWEH speaks something happens. Here He speaks light into existence. He tells light to exist. It's more that "permitting it" to happen. The simple literal sense is given here.

Most importantly, YAHWEH spoke - and what He spoke happened.

This is a crucial understanding in Scripture. Whatever He speaks He does. This first "spoken word" establishes His reliability, showing Him to be trustworthy. Also note that light is the first thing spoken into existence by The Elohim. This light is not the sun. Be careful not to make that assumption. The sun is not yet mentioned. This is a different kind of light. This speaks more of "illumination itself", the ability to perceive something.

This movement becomes a theme of Scripture. Darkness existed, THEN light was provided. There is a consistent movement - FROM darkness TO light.

As you review this first chapter of Scripture you'll notice frequent references to "existence". While most texts use "it was so", "it happened", etc. the literal sense is "to exist"; "to be".

Many will try to tell you Hebrew has no verb meaning "to be", yet here it is, right in the first verses of Genesis. If hayah does not mean "to be" then we have a very serious problem to address.

Many consider this term to be the fundamental core of the name, YAHWEH (YHWH). While they use many divergent arguments about what this name means they sidestep the plain indication that it is about existence. It appears to mean "I am existence itself!"

When viewed in this manner it fits perfectly with the declared nature and work of The Elohim. (See Exodus 3.15-16 for a more complete explanation.)

Gen. 1:4 And The Elohim saw the light itself nx, that it was valuable.

And The Elohim separated the light from the darkness.

The Elohim saw, observed or considered. This gives us another key term in Scripture. The word ra'ah means "to see". It becomes a primary theme of Scripture. But to "see" means many things: see, look, observe, perceive, recognize, understand, etc.

The light is seen as valuable. Tov does not merely mean "good". It means something has purpose, value, and is beneficial (good), even beautiful.

Light as the first thing spoken into existence to be useful within the creation has very powerful implications
It illuminates whatever it contacts.
It allows one to perceive what is before you or what is presented to you.

Since YAHWEH "dwells in inapproachable light"
we must consider very carefully
the meaning and purpose involved in its creation.
Without it we are lost in darkness,
unable to find our way.

The Elohim separated the light from the darkness.
The separation literally says,
"from the light and from the darkness".
In the Hebraic sense this means
"between the light and the darkness".

The light comes into existence
in the midst of the darkness.
It is then separated from the darkness.
The symbolism alone is very powerful.
Without the light
the darkness remains impossible to navigate.

Darkness and light are key terms throughout Scripture.
The movement is virtually always seen as being from darkness to light.
This pattern is repeated in Scripture
from the very beginning to the very end.

Gen. 1:5 And The Elohim proclaimed to the light, 'day'
and to the darkness He proclaimed, 'night.'
And evening existed and morning existed,
first day.

qara means to call out to; to address by name.
It's also used to mean cry out or proclaim.

This same term is used in Gen. 2:19
where the man he created
"called out to" the other creatures their unique "designations".
It's like saying, "This is how it will be designated."

Next we see the concept of evening and morning existing.
It didn't "become" evening or morning,
they simply were created - caused to exist.

Please note that the sun, moon and stars do not yet exist,
so they're not part of what determines evening and morning.
It's the darkness and the light that determines this.

This order became the standard for Hebrew culture.
Evening begins their day, not sunrise.

yom is the Hebrew word for "day".
boqer is the Hebrew word for "morning".
layil is the Hebrew word for "night".
erev is the Hebrew word for "evening".

Gen. 1:6 And The Elohim said,
"Expanse, exist in the midst of the waters,
and exist separating between waters and waters."

There are many conjectures about this verse.
The expanse is referred to as a "firmament",
a strengthening of some sort.
There is a view that the Hebrews considered this to be an arch or vault of some kind, perhaps even a dome, that more or less held the waters of the skies in suspension,
separate from the waters of the earth.
The text does support this possible viewpoint.
- Interestingly, "in the midst" appears to mean
in the very center.

Gen. 1:7 And The Elohim made the expanse itself nx.
And He caused a separation between the waters which were under the expanse
and the waters which were above the expanse.
And it existed as such.

asah - made, accomplished, completed.
This is different from bara - created.

This implies something "assembled"
from things that already exist,
so this is a new term.

We now have a second separation occur,
waters above from waters below the expanse.

Even more important is the concept that what ever The Elohim speaks exist. It happens.
The groundwork is laid for the concept of trust.

Gen. 1:8 And The Elohim proclaimed the expanse 'skies.'
And evening existed and morning existed,
second day.

Gen. 1:9 And The Elohim said,
"Waters under the skies,
be collected to one place,
and dry ground, be seen."
And it existed as such.

This collecting of the "lower" waters represents a third separation of sorts.
The wet is separated from the dry.
This is interesting
because of what it suggests about the waters
that will now be referred to as "seas".
It appears there was one great "ocean" established.
We have no other description of what it was.

Note also that the dry ground is now to be "seen".
It's been covered with the waters of the deep.

Gen. 1:10 And The Elohim
proclaimed the dry ground 'earth.'
And the collection of the waters
He proclaimed 'seas.'
And The Elohim saw that it was valuable.

Gen. 1:11 And The Elohim said to the earth,
"Sprout forth sprouts, plant seeding seed and fruit tree producing fruit
according to their species
of which their seed is in them upon the earth."
And it existed as such.

This is the first "directive" given to one of the things The Elohim has created.
It marks a change in the flow of the text,
which is always important to observe.
Notice in the next verse that the earth responds to this "directive", a supposed "inanimate" object
doing the will of The Elohim.

There's a rhythm in the Hebrew
that comes through partially in this verse.
Repetition of terms
is a regular part of Hebrew literature.
It contributes to the rhythm, but it also serves as an emphasis,
an intensifying of the concept involved.

The terms for fruit and tree are in the singular,
and are so translated here,
but it surely represents a collective understanding that applies to all plants and trees.

Note the first mention of seed.
There are two types.
The "herbs", or grass-type plants,
produce seed as they grow to maturity.
They can actually re-seed themselves.
The fruit trees produce the seed "within the fruit".
This makes a distinction between the types of plants.
This also establishes a very well-known Scriptural principle;
"What you sow is what you reap." (Gal. 6.7)
When you plant corn
you can expect to obtain corn as the "produce".
When you 'plant' seeds of trust

you expect to harvest trust.
If you plant seeds of doubt..."

There is also a spiritual order being laid down here.
The concepts of sowing and reaping
are tied to this text.
What you sow is what you reap. (Gal 6.7)
This is a master principle of scripture.
The principle is used by The Messiah Himself to teach us about spiritual things.
A study of these two terms will quickly reveal how important these concepts are to our spiritual understanding.
And there are more spiritual lessons to be learned in this passage
as we shall see below.

There is another interesting thought here.
The phrase we want to look at is,
"of the species of seed that is within itself."
This phrase can be translated into English
as "after his own kind".
In the version above "itself" can also be "himself".
If we consider this spiritually
we can connect it to Elohim,
and thereby to Messiah YAHUSHUA.

In Genesis we learn of the "seed of Abraham" (Who is The Messiah).
Later we learn that all believers
are of the "seed of Abraham".
And we also learn that those who believe in Messiah
are of His seed.
They are reproduced after His species,
His own kind.
They are the same as He is.
They are just like Him.

Again, what you sow is what you reap.
Righteousness begets righteousness.
Sin begets sin.
This principle is presented right here,
in the very first verses of Genesis.
It's an exciting concept to grasp.
Its real fulfillment is found in Revelation.

There's another very powerful spiritual lesson to be seen also.
The tree (which produces fruit
after its own species)
can be seen as The Cross (the Tree)
on which The Messiah died.
That Tree produces fruit of only one kind,
Eternal Life.
(Note the life-giving nature of its fruit also.)
The fruit which it produces has its seed also "contained within itself".
It can only reproduce its essence.
Without The Cross there is no Eternal Life.

The fruit of The Cross is redemption.
Without the redemption from the power of sin that it brings to us
we have no way to live
in YAHWEH's presence forever.
Every Believer is "fruit", produced by The Cross.
Every Believer is then
to "go and produce more fruit",
to be fruitful and multiply.
The references to these concepts abound in Scripture.
This first Instruction related to reproduction
is connected to the Tree,
and it reflects that YAHWEH's desire is always to have righteous man produce more "fruit" of the same kind.

Now, take note of the ordering in this verse.
The first thing the earth produces is the grass, or herbs.

Along with these come the fruit trees,
that make fruit.
Each of these things is essential for nourishment of the animals that will be created after this,
and for the human beings that follow that.
Each of these needs food to eat,
and the things here created
are the basis for that food.
And The Cross, as a fruit tree,
is essential in providing the Believer with 'food' to sustain him throughout life.

Gen. 1:12 And the earth sprouted sprouts,
the plant producing seed
according to its species,
and the tree producing fruit whose seed is in them
according to its species.
And The Elohim saw that it was valuable.
Gen. 1:13 And evening existed
and morning existed,
third day.

Gen. 1:14 And The Elohim said,
"Lights, exist in the expanse of the skies
to make a distinction between the day and between the night,
and to exist for the sake of signs,
and for appointed times,
and for days and years,
Gen. 1:15 and to exist as lights
in the expanse of the skies to cause illumination upon the earth."
And it existed as such.

Now we have lights,
luminous bodies, (sources of light)
spoken into existence in the expanse of the skies.
They are to separate (again),
to make a distinction, between day and night.

They are also to serve as signs, signals.
What we call "time" is now established,
with signals to help determine when specific things are to happen or be done.

Hidden within these words
is something vitally important.
תּוֹ is the Hebrew word for signs.
Note the letters used.
תּוֹ is considered to be a contraction of this word.
That means the תּוֹ "sign"
that occurs frequently in The Hebrew text is indeed a sign, or signal, of something very important.

What's not immediately noticed is that these signs,
indicated by the lights in the skies,
will become the identifiers
that will enable The Children of Yisra'el (Note: This is the correct name, NOT 'Israel'.)
to observe their "appointed times",
The Festivals, The Sabbaths, The New Moons, etc.

We're witnessing their establishment
in these opening verses of Genesis.
And this is an indication that from the very beginning YAHWEH's created beings
had knowledge of these "appointed times", even though Scripture itself is silent concerning their usage
in the earliest portions of the text.

Also of significance is the designation that these lights
are to cause illumination upon the earth.
Again, there is an apparent difference between "the light" and "the darkness" of v. 3
and these lights.

YAHWEH is later identified as "the light of the world",
as is The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.
It appears from the text
that this is the kind of distinction presented.
There are two different kinds of "illumination", "light".

Gen. 1:16 And The Elohim made
the two great lights themselves תא,
the greater light itself תא
to have dominion over the day, and the lesser light itself תא
to have dominion over the night,
and the stars themselves תא.

ma'owrot means luminous body or luminary;
something that gives off light.
memsalot means to rule, have dominion over.

Not all luminous bodies are "lights",
i.e. a source of light.

These bodies are "made" (ashah), not created.
We don't know why this distinction exists here,
but it does.

In this one verse
we have four instances of תא - aleph-tav.
We can now observe the special emphasis that's placed on the individual items, each of which have specific roles
to play within Scripture.
When the תא is left out without "translating" it we are left with less significance for these items in the created order.

Unrecognized also is the teaching concerning The Mazzeroth within Hebrew culture.
It is the teaching of the meaning of the stars and their constellations.
Within this teaching the coming of The Messiah Himself is revealed.

Gen. 1:17 And The Elohim placed they themselves תא
in the expanse of the skies for lights above the earth, 1:18 and to have dominion in the day and the night,
and to make a distinction between the light and between the darkness.

And The Elohim saw that as valuable.

The Elohim placed them.
They did not just end up
in some random arrangement.
He specifically chose the spot for each one.

If they're to serve as signs to denote days, years, and appointed times
they needed to be placed in a specific order.

They are given specific functions,
light, dominion (control),
and separation of light and darkness.
No wonder The Elohim saw it as valuable.

Gen. 1:19 And evening existed and morning existed,
fourth day.

Gen. 1:20 And The Elohim said,
"Waters, swarm with a swarm of breathing beings, alive.
And flying things, fly above the earth
amidst the face of the expanse, the skies."

This again must draw our careful attention.
The Elohim directs the waters to produce a swarm,
an abundance, of breathing beings, alive.
The focus of "life" is targeted as that which breathes.
This proves most significant.

He directs the flying things to fly above the earth.
This is not merely a reference to "birds".
It includes everything that flies.

What you won't recognize unless you research the Hebrew is that chay is the word in Hebrew for life in all its forms.

It's used here as an adjective.

Also, nephesh is used, referring to a being with breath.

Gen. 1:21 And The Elohim created
the great monsters themselves נח
and all the live breathing beings themselves נח,
the moving ones which swarm the waters,
according to their species,
and all winged flying things themselves נח,
each according to its species.

And The Elohim saw that as valuable.

Included in the living breathing creatures of v. 20
are the great monsters.

Are these perhaps dinosaurs and the like?

This concept of species is a very crucial issue today.

Each is separate and distinct.

Each reproduces after its own type, or species.

Yet in our time we are witnessing the cross-breeding of the things YAHWEH created

into something new or different from what YAHWEH, intended.

Genetic engineering of creation to produce what man thinks is good is against His order.

Mankind is seeking to be YAHWEH,

to act as He does, in this process.

It is precisely this sin

for which Satan was so severely judged.

The concept of the corruption of the species is exactly what Satan tried to compromise

when the sons of The Elohim came to earth and married the daughters of men

prior to the flood of Noah. (See Genesis 6.1–6.)

This perversion of the natural order was an attempt to corrupt the genetic line of man and thereby to prevent the coming of The Messiah

from the seed of woman (Gen 3.15).

The result was the need for YAHWEH

to destroy the entire population of the earth,

all except eight people,

because of its genetic corruption.

We are living in the midst of another attempt by Satan

to corrupt the genetic purity

of the human race,

and the rest of the earth for that matter.

Cloning, genetic engineering, organ transplantation,

artificial insemination, etc. are all part of this seduction.

Done in the "interests of science"

and "for the benefit of mankind" (not YAHWEH),

these things are leading us into great moral peril.

They are contrary to YAHWEH's ordering of things.

It ought not be so.

We do them at great risk to ourselves and to future generations.

The sins of the fathers will be "visited upon the children"

to the third and fourth generations (Ex. 20.5).

When will we ever learn?

Gen. 1:22 And The Elohim
blessed they themselves נח saying,

"Bear fruit and increase

and fill the waters in the seas themselves נח,

and let the flying things increase upon the earth!"

This verse contains the first blessing of Scripture.

It has great significance.

The term is barak. It means to kneel.

Generally, it means to kneel in respect to another.

It's considered a wish of well-being (blessing) in Hebrew culture.

Our concept of blessing is not the same.

We tend to think in terms of blessing a meal,

praying for it to sanctify it.

We also use it to say "thank you" (bless you).

It can, indeed, be used as an expression of thanks

in the Hebrew culture as well.

Again we see the נא show up twice.
The first is in relation to The Elohim's blessing.
The second is part of the directive
to increase and fill the waters themselves.
The concepts of 'bear fruit and increase'
will show up again and again as key terms in Scripture.
They are always connected to YAHWEH's blessing
in the context of bearing fruit (producing).

Notice that this verse is in the imperative tense.
It's not merely a good wish, it's a directive.

Gen. 1:23 And evening existed and morning existed,
fifth day.

Gen. 1:24 And The Elohim said,
"Let the earth bring forth the live breathing being
according to its species,
animals and crawling things and wildlife upon the earth,
each according to its species."
And it existed as such.

Gen. 1:25 And The Elohim made
the living beings of the earth themselves נא
according to their species,
and the animals themselves נא
according to their species,
and all the crawling things of the earth themselves נא
according to their species.

And The Elohim saw that as valuable.

If you're paying attention to the details of Scripture
you'll recognize The Elohim is repeating Himself.
He tells us in repeated forms what He has done,
thereby confirming the validity of this process.

We're told later in Scripture that on the basis of two or three witnesses
a thing is confirmed.
That's the principle involved here.

This repetition adds emphasis to the point being made.
The Elohim does not want us to miss the fact that HE is The One Who made these things.
It was His personal actions that brought them into being.
It was not some other process, such as 'evolution'.
It was The Elohim Himself!

Gen. 1:26 And The Elohim said,
"Let Us make a human being in Our image,
according to Our likeness.
And let him have dominion
with the fish of the sea,
and with the flying things of the skies,
and with the animals,
and with all the land
and with all the crawling things that crawl upon the land."

A discussion about a human being is provided here.
But you'll note that the actual record of the creation of the human being is not presented until Gen. 2.7.

The ancient Hebrews had no concept of chronology.
Eastern thought is not like ours.
Time is a process, not a sequence for them.
The elements of these first chapters
are not to be considered as consecutive events.
This is evident as you read the account.

'Us' and 'our' are terms
we really do not understand clearly as they occur within this account.
They refer to more than one,
but to what do they actually refer?
We can only speculate.
Most understand this to mean "divine beings",
but which ones we simply do not know.
What we observe in the text is that only in the making of a human being is this aspect mentioned.

This "person" is to be made (not created, but 'made', assembled from what exists
- the dust of the ground)
in resemblance to The Elohim
and whoever is with Him.

The person is to have a similar image, or form.
In some way the human being is to be "like" The Elohim.

We also observe that this human being is to be given dominion with the fish, the flying things, the animals, the land and the creeping things
- all of life on earth.
That is now his "domain".
He's in charge,
and is given the ability to manage these beings.

Gen. 1:27 And The Elohim created
the human being himself נח in His image.
In the image of The Elohim He created he himself נח.
Male and female He created they themselves נח.

We see here a threefold use of bara - created.
With a triple occurrence
we're given an intense "witness"
to the validity of this event.

There's a double occurrence of 'image',
one immediately following the other.
This is a Hebraic way of writing designed to give extreme emphasis to the subject.
This is most profound!

Notice that both male and female
are stated as being created.
Then the next section of the text states it a bit differently.
Remember, try not to think "chronologically" here.
An overview is presented,
not a perfect sequence of events.

Gen. 1:28 And The Elohim blessed they themselves נח.
And The Elohim said to them,
"Bear fruit
and increase,
and fill the earth itself נח
and subdue it!
And have dominion
with the fish of the sea,
and with the flying things of the skies,
and with every living thing that crawls upon the land!"

We now encounter the second blessing of Scripture.
It's given to the human beings.
The first one was to the things of the waters (v. 22).
There The Elohim said "increase and fill".

Here The Elohim says "increase and fill and subdue".
Mankind is also given the directive to have dominion
with the fish of the sea, the flying things of the skies,
and every living thing that crawls upon the earth.
Not mentioned, however, are the animals of v. 26.

The statements are in the imperative form,
causing them to be emphatic.
The blessings given are very specific,
with vital consequences
for each part of the created order that's placed under the care and stewardship of the human beings.

There's another aspect of this verse
we must now consider.
Human beings, as created by The Elohim
in this portion of Genesis,
are not given authority over other human beings.
There is no directive to subdue or have dominion
over other human beings.
That's The Elohim's domain, not ours.

We are never given that role in His original design.
He was to rule over mankind.
He was to bring mankind into subjection
to His authority and power.
Any movement away from this would be inappropriate.
The Elohim has not suggested such a thing.

Gen. 1:29 And The Elohim said,
"Behold! I have given to you every seed producing plant itself nx which is on the face of all the land,
and every tree itself nx which is in it,
a fruit tree producing seed.

To you it will exist for eating,
The human beings are created.
Now they are given food to eat to sustain them
- by The Elohim Himself!
It is a GIFT!
Food should always be considered as a gift from YAHWEH.

Did you notice this is a vegetarian diet, no meat?

"Behold!" appears for the first time.
It's among the first things said to the human beings.
It's always emphatic.
It means, in effect, stop what you're doing and pay careful attention to what follows!
Every time you see "Behold!" (or "Lo!") in Scripture something important is happening.

Gen. 1:30 and to every living animal of the earth,
and to every flying thing of the skies,
and to every crawling thing on the land
in which there is life breath, every green plant itself nx for eating."
And it existed as such.

Gen. 1:31 And The Elohim observed
everything itself nx that He had made.
And behold!
It was extremely valuable.

And evening existed and morning existed,
the sixth day.

The Elohim considers everything He Himself has created and declares it to be extremely valuable.
All has been done according to His perfect design and purpose.
He is pleased with it all.

There's a subtle change to be noted.
This day is specifically referred to as 'the sixth day'.
Every other day thus far has just been ...day.
This one marks the completion of the creating process.
Specific attention is drawn to this day
which marks this completion.
For every word there is a purpose.

Chapter 2

Gen. 2:1 And the skies and the earth and all their assembly were completed.

tsaba is typically translated as "host".
It means mass of persons, i.e. an assembly.
Apparently it also means service,
as involving the service performed by such a group.
It's often used of military groups
and is often translated as "army".
In this context we could consider it to be an assembly of all the created things, or we could perhaps consider it to refer to the service of preparing them.

In either case this marks the completion of the initial phase called "creation".
There are more things "created" after this,
but they are typically the "produce"
of the initial creation, its "fruit".

Gen. 2:2 And The Elohim completed
by the seventh day
His workmanship that He had made.
And He ceased
by the seventh day
from all His workmanship that He had made.

By the seventh day The Elohim finished all His workmanship (not His 'work') and He ceased from His workmanship
by the seventh day.
The workmanship was actually completed
on day six.
The text states this plainly.

Most translations suggest
it was completed on the seventh day.
However, this would make at least a portion of the seventh day a work day also,
and this is nowhere seen to fit
with the concept of the shabbat (Sabbath) found in Scripture.

Note also that He ceased from what He had made.
This does not mean He ceased from doing anything.
This is only an "interruption", not a total cessation.
It's a pause, within which one can contemplate
what they have been doing.
That's the true concept of The Sabbath.

We should take a moment to realize that all of YAHWEH's work is, in reality,
the creation or the re-creation of perfect fellowship with Him.
In this we must recognize that the initial created order provided for this perfect fellowship.

Yet He also knew, from the very beginning,
that the human beings He created would not remain in that perfect fellowship.
Instead, they would choose,
through the free will He granted to them,
to break that fellowship
as they sought to assume the very role of Elohim for themselves.

Because He knew this would take place
even salvation
from this rejection of fellowship with Him was completed by (before) the Seventh Day.
It is, in Truth, the reason that any person who believes YAHWEH can experience salvation through their faith in Him.
Read Hebrews Chapter 11
and you will see this concept revealed.

It does not matter whether people were under the Old Covenant or the New Covenant (Actually this is a renewed covenant, and not a brand new one.
It is an extension of the old one.),
for even those who lived prior to Messiah could indeed have fellowship with YAHWEH
through faith and belief in Him.
Noah is one of the first important examples.
Enoch is another,
These are followed by Abraham,
Yitzhak, Ya'akov, David, and countless others.
Salvation, redemption from sin of every kind,
is provided by having faith,
complete trust and belief, in YAHWEH;
in His Word, and in His provisions for our forgiveness and redemption.

Remember, The Word of YAHWEH is a message
- in its entirety.
It is a message about YAHWEH to mankind.
It is a message about humans
in their relationship to Him.
It is a message that proclaims His will,
His desire and His intentions, to mankind.
It is a message that proclaims man's rejection and rebellion against Him, specifically against the message of YAHWEH

- His Word.

Everything in your life centers around this message
and how you personally and individually respond to it.
There are only two choices.

1. You believe it.
2. You refuse to believe it.

The choice is entirely up to you.

You must choose one or the other.

And even to make no choice is, in effect, to make one.

To make no choice is to reject His Word.

Do you believe YAHWEH's Word?

Now, YAHWEH is also establishing a pattern
for those who desire to live in fellowship with Him.

Six days you shall work,
and the on seventh day you shall rest,
cease from your work.

The seventh day is to be a day for the contemplation of your "work" (or workmanship
- of what you have produced).

For humans it is also to be a celebration of what He has done,
not merely what we have done.

Keep in mind that you can do nothing whatsoever without YAHWEH.

If He had not created you,
and the world in which you live
- with all its multiple provisions,
you would even exist.

And Shabbath is ordained by YAHWEH
as one day in seven

that we are to focus completely on Him
and on His marvelous provision,
His Divine favor and compassion on us.

Shabbath is a day of rest and rejoicing.

YAHWEH treats it very specially.

Gen. 2:3 And The Elohim blessed
the seventh day itself nx.

And He set apart it itself nx

because in it He rested from all His workmanship, that which The Elohim was making.

This is the third blessing. (See Gen 1.22, 28)

This blessing specifically applies to the seventh day.

The text clearly emphasizes this.

In addition He sets this specific day apart from the rest of the days of 'the week' of creation.

The very first use of the term, qadash, is most important.

It means to declare as set apart, consecrated.

In most texts it's translated as "holy".

To be holy means to be set apart, separated.

It also means to make "clean" (undefiled, purified), set apart for YAHWEH's purposes alone.

This is the last of the "separations" of creation.

This specific day is set apart because in it
The Elohim rested from His work of creating.
He did not 'cease' His 'work' permanently.
He merely finished the task at hand.

The term used is shabath,
from which comes the term, shabbath,
and the term shabbathown.

Both are associated with the concept of rest from one's labors.

The Sabbath Day is the only day that is specifically set aside by YAHWEH
and called "My Holy (set apart) Day" (Is 58.13).

This day is to be respected and honored
because He said so!
It's a primary principle.

It's set apart to grant us time to consider all that He alone has created - and to remember that He has done everything for our sakes.

Note: There is no mention of evening or morning for this seventh day.
There is no apparent concern for the when the day begins or ends.
The entire 24 hours is to be blessed by YAHWEH and set aside by Him for special purposes.
To be set aside is to be made "holy".

There's another idea that also presents itself here.
It's the idea of Eternity,
in which there is no day or night.
It's the spiritual idea that when we "enter into YAHWEH's rest",
in Eternity,
we also shall cease from our "work".
We enter into His eternal peace, joy, and blessing,
into eternal purity,
where day and night do not matter.
The only thing that matters is YAHWEH,
and serving Him with joy and praise forever.
This is truly a state of blessing.
Thus we have, at the beginning,
in the creation story,
a glimpse of eternity presented to us;
a hint at what is to come for those who believe YAHWEH
and His Word of Truth.

Gen. 2:4 These are the generations of the skies and the earth,
in their being created in the day of YAHWEH The Elohim's making of earth and skies,

יהוה YHWH - YAHWEH
- the very first occurrence in Scripture.
This is extremely important!

Since YHWH and its translation as YAHWEH
have been removed intentionally from most texts
you would not know this occurs.

"The LORD" has been substituted.
This is horrible "scholarship"!
It distorts the text,
which is "not to be added to or subtracted from".

It dishonors the sacred Name of YAHWEH.
It violates the Third Word of The Torah.
(Traditionally, the "third commandment" of The Ten Commandments.)

Note: The Hebrews do not refer to these as "commandments".
They are called "The Ten Words".
They are perceived as words of Instruction,
not orders or "commandments".)

Most scholars believe the root of YHWH is היה - hayah.
This word means "to exist, to be, to become".

This first appearance of YAHWEH
right here in Genesis 2 is most notable.
It appears in direct connection to the existence of creation
as YAHWEH established it.

YHWH Elohim occurs in the text with no article indicated.
When two words occur in this fashion
they are often translated as "... of ...",
in this case, "YHWH of Elohim".
It's not entirely clear what this may indicate.
However, it's given to you in this version of Scripture
as YAHWEH, The Elohim, because this appears to this editor
to be the best rendering of the text.
An alternative might be 'YAHWEH of The Elohim'
since elohim is a plural term.

Since the root proclaims the concept of existence
it is most appropriate for the personal and eternal Name of The Creator, YAHWEH, The Elohim, to appear in the text

at the very beginning of the toledot -
the generations, or history,
of the origins of the earth and the skies.

Now, for the sake of convention and consistent reference
we will use the term YAHWEH to refer to The Elohim, except where specific designations are identified in the text.
We choose this term because of its specific uniqueness
to The "God of Abraham, Yitzhak, and Ya'akov,
The God of Yisra'el.

Elohim can mean just any so-called "god".
The world is full of imitation "gods".
We want to be careful to refer to YAHWEH
as separate and distinct from any other "god".

He is not the same as Allah, Buddah, Krishna, etc., etc.
The One we refer to in The Bible is YAHWEH,
The Only True and Living Deity;
The only Creator;
The only Eternally Existing One.
When you speak of Him
use His Name as given in scripture.
YAHWEH is His "memorial name"
(Exodus 3.15) for all generations.

Gen. 2:5 and before any shoot of the field
existed in the land,
and before any plant of the field had sprouted,
because YAHWEH, The Elohim, had not sent rain on the land,
and there was no human being
to work the soil itself nx.

This is a continuation of verse 4.
It's identifying that the history begins
prior to the existence of any vegetation.
This vegetation could not exist without the rain,
and it needed someone to care for it.

Take note of the shift in terminology.
It's not 'earth' or 'land' that's used.
It's adamah.
It means soil, dirt.
It is the material from which the first human being was made.

And it is this human being who is given the responsibility, the stewardship, of taking care of the gift he is given, the soil.
Out of that soil comes his food to sustain his life.

This term is also the source for his "name", Adam.

There are many word plays in Hebrew
that are connected directly to these terms, often reminding the Hebrews (and us)
they were but "dirt".

The word used for plant is the Hebrew word siyach.
It is translated as bush, shrub, or plant.
But what's really interesting about this word is that the root word it comes from is identical to it,
and means 'to communicate, to talk, to speak, etc.'

Is it possible that this is a hidden reference to the 'burning bush' that Moses encountered
- a bush that spoke to him?

The following portion of the text is,
if you will examine it carefully,
an expansion of the record in Gen 1.1-2.3.
It repeats much of the introductory overview of the creation process in a more detailed fashion.
With this in mind it will become evident that there are no contradictions to be found here.
It is all the same story,
simply told from two different perspectives
as a means of providing more clarity for the reader.

As yet there was NO vegetation on the earth

(it had not yet sprouted),
for God had not sent rain
upon the earth yet to water it.
AND, the reason He had not done so was that there was no man to till (serve, to be a servant to) the ground.
There was no 'caretaker' to tend the growing things.
This can be seen
as God's intended responsibility for man
- to 'till' the earth, to serve as its caretaker.

In this role man was NOT seen to be 'working'.
It was a joyous and loving care
for what Yahweh had created.
It occupied his time somewhat without being a 'burden'.
After sin entered into the creation
such 'work' became a burden.
Yahweh placed a 'curse' upon the land
because of sin,
causing man to "work" by the sweat of his brow.

Gen. 2:6 And no mist went up from the ground to water the whole face of the soil itself נח.

There are two different words for ground and soil.
It's very easy to overlook this distinction.

The Companion Bible identifies a mis-translation of this text.
Through a structural analysis of the language in this passage
it was determined that this verse should read 'no mist',
in agreement with the preceding verses.
A figure of speech known as ellipsis is the rationale for this change.
Thus, NO MIST went up from the ground and watered the whole 'face' of the earth.

We've seen the use of the term 'face' already.
The term refers to the 'presence', the sight,
the surface - note: sur-face.
It is used of the heavens, of the waters,
of the deep, of the earth, etc.
We might say it refers to the boundary area that presents itself to our own vision of these things
- it's what we "see" when we look at something.

Gen. 2:7 And YAHWEH, The Elohim, formed the human being himself נח
of dust from the soil.

And He blew into his nostrils a breath of life.
And the human being existed
as a being with life.

This is among the most important verses in Scripture.

It proclaims a Truth
that exceeds any conjecture by human beings.

YAHWEH, The Elohim

- formed the human being!
- blew into his nostrils a breath of life!
- caused the human being to exist!

YAHWEH, Whose very Name means
The Existing One, or, Existence Itself,
He alone is the source of existence
- for the creation and everything in it.

NOTE: YAHWEH, The Elohim, formed man!
Man did NOT evolve from some other life form.
He came from DUST!
He returns to dust!
Evolution is a LIE!
YAHWEH's WORD proclaims this profoundly!

There's another play on words
in the Hebrew text that's significant:
adam = human being.
adamah = soil

Gen. 2:8 And YAHWEH, The Elohim,
planted a garden in Eden, eastward.
And there He put the human being himself נח whom He had formed.

Note: verses 8-15 form an 'aside',
a parenthetical phrase inserted into the text
for an explanation of some detail.

YAHWEH planted the garden
- before He put the human being in that place.
The garden is a gift.

Eden means delight, pleasure.
This was surely a very beautiful and pleasant place.
In it was perfect fellowship with YAHWEH.

The reference to "eastward"
has many connections to "east" in Scripture.
The Eastern Gate was the way
YAHWEH entered The Temple - and left it.

East typically represents being before YAHWEH.
Going to the east
typically refers to going away from God.

The term translated as "garden"
means an enclosure, a protected space.
This is confirmed when the cherubim are placed at the entrance to this "enclosed space"
after Adam and Chavvah (Eve) are ejected from it.

Placing the human being in a "protected space" implies there is something from which he needs to be protected.
It also establishes a distinction
from "the open country, or field."

Gen. 2:9 And YAHWEH, The Elohim,
caused to sprout from the soil every tree
that is pleasing to see and valuable for eating, and The Tree of The Life
in the center of the garden;
also the tree of the knowledge of good and bad.

YAHWEH planted the garden.
YAHWEH caused the trees to sprout.
The human being has done nothing.

Every tree in this garden is pleasing to look at,
and it is valuable (useful) for food.

In the center of the garden is The Tree of The Life.
This is not normally capitalized, but it should be.
It is typically presented as "The Tree of Life"
- without "The" preceding "Life".
"The" needs to be there.

"The Life" is Eternal Life.
It's an extremely important Scriptural concept.
To leave this out is to do injustice to the text.
The Tree of The Life is also a metaphor for The Torture Stake of The Messiah
- which provides for us "New Life".

Also in the garden is another special tree.
It's location is not specified.
The text does not say it was in the center
where The Tree of The Life is.
It only states that it exists in the garden.

This tree is a source for the knowledge (discernment, understanding) of good and bad, (usefulness or harmfulness to the Hebrew mind, not "evil" as we conceive it).

Gen. 2:10 And a river went out of Eden
to irrigate the garden itself תָּךְ.
And from that place it divided and existed as four heads.

Gen. 2:11 The name of the first is Pishon.
It is the one surrounding the entire land of Havilah itself תָּךְ
where there is a thing called gold.

Pishon means increase, spread.
Havilah means circular.

Gen. 2:12 And the gold of that land is valuable.
Also there is bdellium and the shoham stone.
The gold is valuable.

It's a symbol of purity, especially in worship.
There are numerous references to its use throughout Scripture.

Bdellium comes from a root word which means 'to separate'.
It is a resin or gum.
It's associated with manna,
which was considered to be of the same color.
Some think it may have been a pearl (white).
One can see it's connection with the idea of separation - holiness, sanctification.

Shoham stone is thought to be onyx.
Many of its varieties are white while some are black.

The word 'stone' in the Hebrew carries with it
the concept of 'building', 'to build up'.
We also see it used of The Messiah
(the chief cornerstone).

Each of the three terms used are identified with worship in Scripture.
Because of the mention of these two stones
it's possible we have a connection to the Urim and the Thummim used by The Great Priest.

Gen. 2:13 And the name of the second river is Gihon.
It is surrounding the entire land of Kush itself תח.

Gihon means to gush forth.
Kush means black. This is Ethiopia.

Gen. 2:14 And the name of the third river is Hiddekel.
It is the one going east of Assyria.

And the fourth river is The Euphrates.

Hiddekel means 'rapid'.
This is the Tigris River.
Assyria means a step.
Euphrates means fruitfulness.

Gen. 2:15 And YAHWEH, The Elohim,
took the human being himself תח
and He settled him in the garden of Eden
to work it and to protect it.

YAHWEH actively took the human being.
This was a very explicit and intentional act.

This also means that prior to this the human being was not in the garden which YAHWEH Himself had planted for the human being.

The human being was to work it (as a servant works for his master) and to protect it.

The term used for 'protect' is shamar.
It means to hedge about, to guard, to protect.
It's often 'translated' as keep,
but this is actually misleading,
since guarding and protecting are the primary meanings of the term.
As a result of this recognition many passages which follow will need to be corrected to reflect this concept.

Now this immediately raises a question.
From what is he to protect it?
He's the only one there.
Or is he?
In coming verses the text will reveal
there is an opponent that exists.
There is a reason for a "protected space",
known as a garden, an enclosure.

The human being is to care for the garden and protect it.
It's his role as steward (manager)
of what YAHWEH has given to him.
He does not own the land.
YAHWEH does.

This one small verse
establishes another vital principle of Scripture.
What YAHWEH gives to us
we are to take good care of
and we are to protect it,
whether it's a "thing", or His Word.

Gen. 2:16 And YAHWEH, The Elohim,
gave direction to the human saying,
"From every tree of the garden,
eating, you are to eat.
Gen. 2:17 But from the tree of the knowledge of good and bad
you are not to eat
because in the day of your eating from it, dying, you will die."

These two verses are critically important!
They include the first instruction/direction.
They include the first warning.
They include the first promise.
They include the first test of the human being.

It's critical that you understand:
This is an INSTRUCTION
- NOT A COMMAND!

Why is this so important?
It forms the foundation of the understanding of what it means to have YAHWEH 'speak', thereby revealing what He desires.
Every aspect of Scripture is tied to this!

The human being is given an instruction.
This human has the freedom to choose whether or not he will follow that instruction.

If there is not any freedom to choose
he can do nothing except what he is told.
He has no "will" of his own - no choice to make.
He is an "automaton" (a kind of robot).

In one's relationship with YAHWEH
the freedom to make a choice is absolutely critical to everything a person does!

YAHWEH tells this human being there will be certain consequences
if he does not choose to do
as he is instructed, given direction.

The concept of direction fits perfectly with the concept of walking on the pathway YAHWEH has laid out for us.
Deviating from the "pathway" is "sin" (rebellion).
It is a refusal to follow the instructions
YAHWEH has set before us.
Because it's a refusal to follow His directions
it is an offense against Him.

(Because 'sin' has become so over used and misunderstood this text will use "offense" in its place so you will think about how your actions offend YAHWEH,
and also what the consequences are of that offense.)

There is no compulsion involved in this scenario.
The human being is free to do as he chooses
- but he must also accept the consequences of his actions.
This is the entire basis of our relationship with YAHWEH.

Offenses and redemption by means of faith
are completely dependent upon one's ability to choose.
Without that ability the whole concept is meaningless.
You must choose to trust YAHWEH,
and follow His instructions,
OR you must choose to reject His instructions
- and then deal with the consequences of your choice.

Many will want to argue with this concept.
They've been spoon fed the "human tradition" of "commandments".
Yet when you seriously study the meaning of torah
you discover it's all about instruction, teaching, and direction.

There's not one "jot or tittle" of "commandment"
in the meaning of torah.

In this version of Scripture you'll discover that the concept of command is relegated to those who are in a position of legal authority to demand certain actions as a result of their decrees.

To be sure, the instruction includes a warning.
This is the first warning of Scripture.
If you refuse to follow the instructions you will end up dying.
It is the penalty imposed upon ALL failures to follow YAHWEH's instructions.
It is open rebellion, refusal to do as He has instructed you.

The result requires death
- which really results in separation from YAHWEH.

When you study Scripture carefully with an open heart and mind you recognize that YAHWEH NEVER gives an instruction that is, or will be, harmful to you! NEVER!
He created you.
He loves you.
His most precious desire is that you are enabled to receive all that He has prepared for those who choose to willingly follow His teaching and instruction.
He wants to bless you with everything that belongs to Him.

However - it's ALL about YOUR CHOICE!

There are two double word sets in these verses.
Once again we see the "two witnesses" concept.
One is for eating and one is for dying.
The English feels awkward.
But that's not all bad because it forces you to think about what's being said.

A double mention in Hebraic thinking is one of the ways concepts are made emphatic within the language.

Also, this is the first "promise" of Scripture.
"If you eat from it you will die!
In the Hebrew mind the action was not sequential.
Every action is seen as either on-going, in process, or completed.
There is no "future tense" in Hebrew.
An action that is certain to happen is often treated as if it has already happened, linguistically.

We think the death must occur in the very day one eats of this tree.
But to the Hebrew mind it simply means he will be put to death, at some point, for his choice to not follow the instruction.
"You're as good as dead already!"

The distinction between good and bad is also significant.
To the Hebrews "good" is that which is of value, useful, beneficial.
"Bad" is that which is of no value, useless, harmful.
These terms include the entire gamut of that which is good and that which is bad - which can include the extremely good and beautiful or the horribly bad and morally evil.

It's important to understand how they viewed these terms.
If you consistently think of these in terms of helpful or harmful you'll be on the right track.

Gen. 2:18 And YAHWEH, The Elohim, said,
"It is not beneficial for the human being to be existing as separate.
I will make for him assistance,
like an opposite of him."

We all know the insidious debates over what this verse means and its implications for "the woman".
It's time to get beyond all that and look at the text to understand what is really stated.

First, YAHWEH declares it is not beneficial "for the human being, in this case the first male, to be existing as separate."
That's the literal sense of the words.

This is not merely about "loneliness".
He cannot reproduce himself.
He needs a "mate", a partner.
A "woman" would need the same.

This partner, one that is opposite himself
yet also human,
is not there just to "help" him do the work
of looking after the garden.

'ezer is a noun,
not a verb, or an adverb, or an adjective.
It means help, assistance.
This "partner" is to assist in every aspect of his existence,
including reproduction.
Without such a partner everything stagnates with the man.
It is not valuable, beneficial, or good for him to exist by himself.

Note what immediately follows.
The first forms of "assistance" that are created are the non-human creatures of the earth.
"Woman" was not YAHWEH's first thought.

Gen. 2:19 And from the soil YAHWEH, The Elohim, formed all the live things of the open country
and all the flying things themselves nx of the skies.
And He brought them to the human being
to see what he would call them.
And whatever the human being called each living thing,
that was its designation.
Gen. 2:20 And the human being called out designations
to each animal,
and to each flying thing of the skies,
and to each living thing of the open country.

But for the human being
there was not found assistance,
like an opposite of him.

YAHWEH formed from the soil, adamah,
exactly in the same manner the human being was formed,
all the living things on the land and all the flying things.
(Water creatures are not included in this.)

The human being is ha'adam.
Note the word play shown here to give a sense of this.
These creatures are "soil" just as the human being is "soil".
From the soil we come and to the soil we return.

Note also the identification of the open country,
as opposed to the enclosed space of the garden.
All these creatures were the initial attempt at finding "assistance" for the human being.
YAHWEH brought them to the human being
to see what he would call them.

YAHWEH did not specify what they would be called,
as He did with day, night, sun, moon, stars, etc.
He granted the human being the right to "designate" what they are to be called.
This is very significant!

He has granted dominion to the human being in relation to the creatures.
Since they are in his domain
he gets to call them what he chooses.

We need to examine the concept of "name".
A name is a designation.
So is a title.
They are different however.
They serve different purposes.

The human being did not give thousands of "names" to each individual being.
He gave a generic "designation", a title,
that identified all of those of any given kind.

A name, on the other hand,
is specific and unique to each individual.

In Hebrew culture the name is extremely important.

It identifies the very essence of that person, including their authority, and their character. No one else in a family, tribe, etc. has that "name". Otherwise you can't distinguish one from another.

For the Hebrews, to mention one's name was to invoke their actual presence. A name spoken meant they viewed the person as being right there with them. This is vitally important if one is to properly understand names in Scripture. Many so-called "names" are not "names" at all - they are titles or designations. Be extremely careful to make this distinction. Many "scholars" have completely failed in this area.

Now, in all of these beings that YAHWEH formed in an effort to locate "assistance" for the human being there was not one found.

In other words, "a dog (or other pet) is not man's "best friend"! It does not meet the criteria of being "assistance".

Each one is a different type of creature. Only another human creature will satisfy this desire on the part of YAHWEH for one to assist the human being.

Gen. 2:21 And YAHWEH, The Elohim, caused a deep sleep to fall upon the human being. And he slept. And He took one of his ribs. And He closed up the flesh in its place. Gen. 2:22 And YAHWEH, The Elohim, built the rib itself אָרָץ which He had taken from the human being into a woman. And He caused her to come to the human being.

Here we find the very first use of the term "woman". From the rib taken from Adam YAHWEH built (This is a very different term than the one used in regard to 'making/forming' Adam) a woman. It actually refers to a process of building, assembling from parts, and is normally the term used of constructing a building.) This again reinforces the idea that this is a very different process from the forming of Adam. (Woman means 'out of man'.)

NOTE: The concept of 'being built' has some very interesting connections with 1 Peter 2.5, where Believers are being 'built up into a spiritual house'. This 'spiritual house' is The Body of The Messiah. The concept is also used of Israel as the Bride of Christ, the 'wife of YAHWEH', if you will (an adulterous one at that in many cases). Since we know Adam is tied closely to The Messiah (1st Adam, 2nd Adam) as a type of The Messiah, the reference here to 'building' suddenly takes on new meaning and significance. God is showing us a picture of The Messiah and Israel as His bride.

This is very important. The woman was not of the ground, as were all other creations, including Adam. She was out of man - of the same kind, created in a unique manner for a specific purpose - companionship, fellowship, to be helper and benefactor.

Also of importance is the term used for 'woman'. It is translated 'wife' almost as often as it is translated 'woman'. The terms become, in some sense, literally interchangeable. The only clear indication you may have for the usage is the context of the scripture where it is used.

Given this reality,
we may very well classify this usage as 'wife'
rather than simply 'woman',
for that is in fact what Eve became to Adam.

YAHWEH "built" her,
then brought her to Adam.
Again, a gift, from the Divine Giver!
YAHWEH gave to Adam a helper, a helpmate.

Gen. 2:23 And the human being said, "This time,
bone from my bones and flesh from my flesh."

This one he designated 'woman', because from the man this was taken.

There are word plays throughout this story.
Note the man/woman words as an example.

This is the first time the term ish is used to designate
"a man", as opposed to a human being, adam.

In contrast the term isha is used for the woman.
It means "a woman".
(It would perhaps have been better to use 'female' here, or 'non-male',
but you'd still have people trying to argue against any use of 'male' or 'man' in such a designation.)

Now we have the creation of a partner for the man, assistance; one opposite him.
This does not mean opposed to him,
but more like one standing before him.

This process is different than any we've seen thus far.
The man was formed from the dust of the ground.
The 'woman' is formed from "the side" (a rib) of the man.

Scripture declares she is made "in his likeness", not in the likeness of YAHWEH, as he was.
This is worthy of our special notice.

She was "built" from him and for him.
And the man declares that she is bone from his bones
and flesh from his flesh - she is like him.
She is a complimentary creation,
made to join together with him in all of life (see v. 24).

Note the intensity of "this time",
and "this one", and "this was".
This form of repetition is common in Hebrew.
As it occurs it forms a linkage between items in the text.

Gen. 2:24 For this cause
a man is to let loose of his father himself אָב
and his mother herself. אִמּוֹ

And he is to adhere to his woman.

And they are to exist as one flesh.

The text literally says,
"upon such circumstances",
that of having assistance for his life,
a man is to, literally, let loose of his parents.
He is no longer to depend on them as his "help".

Further, he is to adhere to his woman.
He is to "stick like glue" to her.
She is now his "assistance"
as a partner in his ventures.

Note: There's no discussion of marriage,
and the text does not say "wife".
To use that term is to inject something into the text that's not there.
Nothing has been set forth concerning a marriage contract, etc., which show up much later in Scripture.

However, the text does declare that the two are to exist as one flesh.
They are no longer to be two separate entities,
but have joined together as if they are one person.
THAT is how closely they are to join with one another.

Even the term used for "one" leads in this direction.
It is 'echad'. It means united, one.
It's the specific term used to refer to YAHWEH as The One God.

Gen. 2:25 And both of them were naked,
the human being and his woman,
yet they were not ashamed.

Here we have two new concepts introduced.
Naked is, literally, 'bare', uncovered.
There was no need for the man or the woman to attempt to 'hide' themselves from each other.
Indeed, YAHWEH did not want them to do so.

You cannot be a helpmate to another
if you are 'hiding' something from them.
There is implied guilt and shame when this is done.
It is also a sign of selfishness,
which is often used in an attempt to 'contol' the other person.
This does not belong in marriage.

Ashamed is pretty self-explanatory.
We know what it means to be ashamed
or to be put to shame.
It is connected with wrong-doing, guilt, and sin.
In order to be ashamed
there must be a reason for shame to exist.
This was also something YAHWEH
did not intend to exist in marriage.

Oh, how far we have fallen from these concepts which are plainly presented as YAHWEH's desire for us.
Would that we would humble ourselves before Him
and confess our sin,
especially in this area of our lives,
and ask Him to restore our innocence
and openness in our marriages.

Being naked carries no shame
in the proper relationship.
Within the concept of marriage
it is perfectly natural, and even necessary.
YAHWEH intended the man and woman
to enjoy each other in every way.
It is only when we are acting sinfully
that nakedness is to be seen as shameful.
There is a proper place for nakedness.
It is in marriage.
It is in innocence, where no sin exists.
It is not on TV, videos, etc.
None of this is YAHWEH's intended place for nakedness.

Chapter 3

Gen. 3:1 Now The Shining One was more shrewd than any living being of the open country which YAHWEH, The Elohim, had made.
And he said to the woman,
"Indeed, because The Elohim has said,
'You are not to eat from every tree of the garden...'"

It's important to remember the setting.
The man and the woman
are within the garden
YAHWEH has given to them.
It is an enclosure, a protected space.
Here reference is made to the beings living in "the open country", pointing out the separation.

Into this setting comes "The Shining One" - not a snake!
There are eight words in Hebrew that come from the same root letters נחש.
These words refer to divination and to copper.
Divination is the specialty of The Adversary.
Copper is bright and shiny.
A misreading or copying error
could take you either direction.

What's fascinating is the seeming combination of the two concepts in one supernatural being who now is seen by the woman.

E. W. Bullinger,

in The Companion Bible, Appendix 19, gives a thorough analysis
of the Hebrew term, nachash.
It refers to copper which shines.
There are also references
to other "serpents" that "shine" - seraphs.

His analysis of the words and structure of Gen. 3 makes it clear this is a metaphorical reference to The Adversary, who disguises himself as "a messenger of light"
in order to deceive YAHWEH's created people.
(2Cor 11.14)

He was the "anointed cherub",
a far cry from a snake.
"Lucifer" means "light bearer."

It makes little sense for the woman to be beguiled
by a creature with no vocal cords
that crawls on the ground.

It does make sense, however,
to recognize this as a "shining one",
dazzling in appearance,
and exhibiting an apparently superior knowledge
compared to the woman.
Simply ask yourself,
which would you pay attention to,
a snake, or a dazzling supernatural being?

Now this testing makes more sense.
Testing is his specialty.
He even tested The Messiah.

The existence of a protected space
also suddenly makes sense?
There is an adversary, indeed.
Only in relation to the creatures of the open space
does the "shining one" appear more shrewd.
This "shining one" is not one of them.
He is drastically different.
The only comparison with them is the level of shrewdness.

There is much of significance in these words.

This is The Shining One's first speech to humans.
He chooses the woman.
She was not present
when the man was given the directions.
Hers is second hand information,
making subtle deceptions a bit easier.

The Shining One begins with a an open-ended statement,
not a question.
The Shining One is Satan,
as identified later in Scripture.

This is the first recorded "word of Satan"
in Scripture.

This is VITALLY IMPORTANT!
It establishes the pattern Satan uses against all of his "adversaries".
He plants a "seed of doubt"
concerning The Word of YAHWEH.

There's no indicator in the text
that a question is being asked,
as is traditionally done.
Everett Fox in his work,
"The Five Books of Moses", identifies this as a common practice in Hebrew literature.
The reader is left to complete the thought.
In Scripture such statements typically end with a threat or an oath.
This leaves an opening for the woman's response.
She gets to put her own thought into finishing this statement.

Notice also something else of interest to us.

He does NOT approach Adam,
to whom YAHWEH spoke directly and to whom He gave the Instruction.
He speaks to Eve,
who heard it 'second hand' from Adam.
There is an inherent weakness here.
For Eve, this is 'hearsay'.
It doesn't carry as much weight
as first hand revelation for her.
She can be more easily tempted because of this.
We are 'second hand' Believers
- heresay, not eye witnesses.
Satan counts on this as a weak point in our faith.
The ONLY thing that can protect us is an absolute faith, belief,
in the Word of YAHWEH

Now let's look at what Satan says to Eve.
The Hebrew actually can be seen to say,
"Is that so?"
How many times have you been asked this very same question?
It means, 'Is that TRUE?' Then he asks,
"Did YAHWEH REALLY say that?"
Is that REALLY what YAHWEH meant?
Surely you've misunderstood YAHWEH!

My friend,
do you see the subtlety of the enemy revealed here?
YAHWEH is showing you the Truth about Satan
and his approach to you
- he is a LIAR and a DECEIVER!
It is ALWAYS his way!

But there is yet ANOTHER device
used by Satan here.
It is the ADDITION of the word 'not'
to what YAHWEH originally said.
He had said, "Of every tree of the garden
you may surely eat:
BUT of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil,
you shall not eat:
for in the day you eat of it you shall surely die."

Note what Satan leaves out,
and how he changes the idea
by adding a different thought.
YAHWEH warns us that we are not to add OR subtract anything from His Word.
We are to accept it just as it is (in its original form
- not in our modern so-called translations).
His Word is final and complete.
It needs nothing added.
And it should not be altered
by removing things from it either.

Gen. 3:2 And the woman said to The Shining One,
"From the fruit of the trees of the garden
we are to eat,

Gen. 3:3 but from the fruit of the tree
which is in the center of the garden
The Elohim has said,
'You are not to eat from it
and you are not to lay your hand on it lest you die.'

The woman knows she is not to eat of this one tree.
She also knows the consequence for doing so - death.
But notice the addition to the Instructions given to the man.
YAHWEH said nothing about touching it.

Adding to The Word of YAHWEH is forbidden!
It has extremely serious consequences.
Chavvah (Eve) has added to it.

Gen. 3:4 And The Shining One said to the woman,
"Dying? You will not die.

The word used for dying is muwth.
It can refer to either a natural death,
or to being put to death by someone else.

YAHWEH stated plainly
the consequences of "rebellion",
failure to follow His Instructions.
The punishment is death.
The Shining One lies once again,
contradicting The Word of YAHWEH.

Gen. 3:5 Indeed, The Elohim knows that in the day of your eating from it your eyes also will be opened and you will be like The Elohim, knowing good and bad."

The Shining One uses
the same words YAHWEH used in Gen. 2.17 regarding dying.

How would a snake know such a unique phrase?
But The Shining One...?
And how does this supposed-serpent know
she will not die the instant she eats from this tree
- unless he has access to YAHWEH
as The Adversary does in the Book of Iyowb.
Clearly, this is something far different than a snake.

Here the concept used for eyes is 'inner eyes',
the eyes of the inner nature,
not the physical eyes.
Eve's physical eyes were open already.
She was looking at the fruit,
and at the 'shining one'.
It was the 'eyes of her understanding'
that were being referred to here by Satan.
This is clearly a figure of speech
used to convey a concept.
The concept of a figure of speech is found extensively in scripture.
It is the idea of 'similitude'.

We are to use the "whole counsel of YAHWEH" in our studies, not just "convenient" parts of it that suit our own interests.
That kind of separation into parts is the tactic used here.
It is the way of The Adversary.

This provides important insights into his approach to us.
Always there is the effort
to put doubt into the mind of his targets.
Then he presents himself as one knowing something
the one being attacked does not know.

Present something "attractive" and "believable".
Offer something that is enticing for the one under attack
- especially the enticement to "be like The Elohim!"

This is the exact sin (offense) of Lucifer?

The temptation here to become just like The Elohim
- to be able to know both good and evil.
This is always the temptation Satan offers,
because it is his offense
- he tried to become The Elohim.
And he is constantly inviting and encouraging man to do likewise
- to join him in his offense
so he is not left alone in his offense.

His desire is,
because of his incredible pride and arrogance,
to draw people away from following YAHWEH
to follow him instead.
To put this in the vernacular,
Satan is on a huge ego trip!
His only interest is in seeing you do things his way.
Or, to put it in the terms of Scripture,
he would have you believe HIM,
instead of YAHWEH!!
This is the ENTIRE focus of his activity - always!

Gen. 3:6 And the woman saw that the tree was good for eating,
and that it was desirable to the eyes.
And she was desiring the tree
for the sake of being made wise.

And she took from its fruit.

And she ate.

And she also gave to her man, beside her.

And he ate.

After the seed of doubt is planted by The Shining One
the woman looks on the tree differently.
She perceives that it's good for eating, desirable to the eye,
and it can make one wise.

One might see implied here
the lust of the eyes,
the lust of the flesh,
and the pride of life.
It's the essence of the false messiah (anti-christ.)

In The New Covenant we're told that the essence of false messiah is already in the world.
Indeed, it has been here since the very beginning.

She desires the fruit of this tree
- and what it will do for her.
The act is entirely selfish.
Selfish desire leads to offense!

Temptation is not an offense!
The offense is acting upon the temptation,
giving in to it.

She disregards YAHWEH
(and the man as well, for it was his responsibility to instruct her in these things)
and takes of the fruit of the tree and eats it.
She commits the offense of self will
- rebellion - rejecting YAHWEH's instruction,
refusing to trust Him,
and denying Him His rightful place in her life.

Not only that, she gives the fruit to the man also.
She thus invites him to participate in her offense.

This is a very common scenario.
When we offend we often invite others to participate in our offense.
Somehow it seems to assuage our guilt
if someone else is doing the same thing we are.
In reality it does nothing to our guilt,
except perhaps compound it,
because we have also now led someone else astray
from following The Word of YAHWEH.

And now we must also deal with the man.
He did not have to eat the fruit.
He knew the instructions YAHWEH had given to him.
He could have chosen to refuse to eat the fruit.
But he did not.
He ate it, just as the woman did.

We need to recognize something stated later in Scripture.
It was the woman who was deceived, not Adam. (1Tim 2:14).
The man was not deceived!
The man knew precisely what he was doing.
We don't know why he did it,
but he was not deceived.
The woman was!

There's one more thing to take note of.
Each of these actions is placed as a discreet statement
in this version of Scripture.
This is not the "traditional" way of doing things.
Tradition places this series of statements
in long complicated sentences filled with commas.
Doing that removes the critical emphasis that occurs with separate statements.
These individual statements
bring a profound reality to the events
that's otherwise overlooked.

Gen. 3:7 And the eyes of the two of them were opened.

And they knew that they were naked.

And they sewed fig leaves together.

And they made for themselves loin cloths.

The result of eating from the forbidden tree was instant knowledge.
By direct observation they were naked.

To be naked is to be exposed.
Their offense has become evident to them.
Their offense is exposed.
For the first time they perceive each other differently.

In an attempt to "cover themselves",
having lost the protective covering of innocence,
they made coverings of fig leaves,
loin cloths, to cover their "nakedness".
(This term is most often connected to the exposure of one's genitals.)

Note that it was self-effort involved in this attempt to cover their exposure
- to hide themselves.
Interestingly, it was fig leaves they used,
an image that occurs frequently in Scripture.

Gen. 3:8 And they heard the sound itself נח of YAHWEH, The Elohim, coming into the garden
at the breezy time of the day.

And the human being and his woman hid themselves
from the face of YAHWEH, The Elohim,
in the middle of the trees of the garden.

Their eyes are opened,
and so are their ears.
They hear YAHWEH coming into the garden.
The word means to come or to go, to walk on a path.

When they hear YAHWEH's sound
(note the return to the use of YAHWEH here.)
they hide themselves from His face.
(His face represents His presence.)

They know they've violated His instructions.
They understand they are guilty,
and therefore subject to the death penalty.
They are AFRAID!
They've been told this will mean their death.
And in the fear of the consequences
they attempt to hide themselves.

Gen. 3:9 And YAHWEH, The Elohim,
called to the human being.

And He said to him, "Where are you?"

Take very careful note of YAHWEH's first words
to the human after his offense.
It's not an accusation,
but rather, it's a question - and a vital one.

It's not a question about his "location".
It's about his condition
in relation to YAHWEH and His word.
The question offers an opportunity to acknowledge the offense
- before any condemnation is pronounced.
The response determines the outcome.

Gen. 3:10 And he said,
"I heard the sound of You itself נח in the garden
and I was afraid because I am naked.
And I hid."

The human being responds to YAHWEH, acknowledging he heard Him coming.
He states, for the first time, that he was afraid.
But he conditions this by stating it's because he was naked, exposed.
His offense was "uncovered".
And he acknowledges that he hid himself.
Yet this is something one can never do,
hide, anywhere, from YAHWEH.

Gen. 3:11 And He said,
"Who explained to you
that you yourself נח are naked?
From the tree of which I gave direction to you about not eating from it, have you eaten?"
Notice that YAHWEH asks who, what being,

explained to the human that he is naked (current tense, he exists this way now).
Then He asks if he has violated
the Instructions given to him by YAHWEH Himself.

YAHWEH's two responses involve questions.
They provide the opportunity to acknowledge one's offense.
What's not initially evident
is that confession of one's offense leads to forgiveness.
Refusal to acknowledge it results in condemnation.
We're always offered the opportunity to accept personal responsibility for our actions.

Gen. 3:12 And the human being said,
"The woman whom You gave to be beside me,
she gave to me from the tree.
And I ate."

The human being now responds.
What he identifies we must scrutinize very carefully
lest we misunderstand what's said.

"The woman "...You gave to be beside me..."
- note the identification that she was given to him by YAHWEH Himself.
That's like blaming God for his error.
He avoids direct personal responsibility for the act.
He did not take it himself!
She took it!
And then she gave it to him.
Only then did he eat.

There are three things to note.
- He indirectly blames YAHWEH.
- He blames the woman.
- And only then does he admit he ate from the tree.

In this he acknowledges his offense, yet does so only while seeking to put the blame elsewhere.
This is less than a forthright confession of his offense.
It's an excuse.
Now we'll see the woman's response.

Gen. 3:13 And YAHWEH, The Elohim,
said to the woman,
"What is this you have done?"
And the woman said,
"The Shining One deceived me.
And I ate."

This is YAHWEH's first word to the woman
that's recorded in Scripture.

He also asks her what she has done,
offering the opportunity for confession,
repentance, and forgiveness.
The woman blames The Shining One.

This marks the first use of the concept of deception.
This is not the act of a snake.
This takes intelligence and shrewdness.

The woman acknowledges she ate, thereby admitting
her own responsibility for her actions.
Yet in neither case, the man nor the woman,
do we see "repentance",
regret for what they have done.
Without that forgiveness
is not available at this point
as is revealed in the coming verses.

Gen. 3:14 And YAHWEH, The Elohim,
said to The Shining One,
"Because you have done this you yourself nx are bitterly cursed among all the animals and among every living being of the open country.
On your belly you will travel,
and dust you will eat all the days of your life.

Now we have the first mention of a bitter curse,
an intense one.
This is put in place by YAHWEH Himself.

Take note!

And notice, it is not "above" all animals, but among them, and among the living beings of the open space - the unprotected area. There's a distinction, involved.

Traveling on the belly may in fact be true of a serpent, but it is not true of Lucifer, The Shining One. This is a metaphor. It means he will be lower in stature than anything created. In humility and disgrace he will travel the rest of his days.

Prostration is the sign of humility. The humiliation identified here is part of the curse. It's a permanent and enduring prostration in effect. The Shining One becomes "the lowest of the low."

Most likely this portion of the text has been edited to fit the concept of a snake. Since that's the traditional view we must assume the text has been "adjusted". It would not be surprising to find everything after "cursed" is added or significantly changed.

Gen. 3:15 And I establish hostility between you and the woman and between your seed and her seed. He Himself will bruise your head. And you yourself will bruise His heel."

The first concept of hostility is introduced. This involves being opponents, adversaries. This is the eternal source of the concept of The Shining One, Lucifer, as "The Adversary."

The hostility is between The Shining One and the woman. The man is not included in this statement. And the hostility is further extended by the term "seed", meaning offspring. The seed of woman will be an enemy of the seed of The Shining One.

We have here the second, third and fourth PROMISES and the second, third and fourth PROPHECIES: #2 - I will put..., #3 - He shall bruise... #4 - and you shall be bruised...) of Scripture, coupled with the first hatred, all connected to the first offense. This makes this a very profound verse.

The promise is that YAHWEH will establish hatred between the two types of 'seeds'. These two types of seed need to be considered carefully. There are some wondrous surprises involved.

Let's first deal with "your seed", the seed of the "shining one". This tells us immediately there are "offspring" of the shining one. Throughout scripture, as you study carefully, you see references to the "children of the devil". Those who "follow" the ways of the devil are "offspring" of his. Those who follow YAHWEH are His offspring.

This is not our normal concept of offspring. We think in terms of the physical birth and physical lineage. YAHWEH sees things in terms of the "spiritual" birth, the mental decision to follow one route or the other. It is this spiritual dimension that's in view here. And those two lineages will now affect the remainder of world history.

Perhaps this is most clearly seen in the concept of the "seed of the woman".
Physically, women do not carry "seed".
That role belongs to the male.
His "seed" is implanted
within her "egg" to fertilize it,
thus leading to the birth of a child.
But here we have the "seed of the woman",
which shall encounter hostility
from the "seed of the shining one".
In spiritual terms this is right on target.
In physical terms this is odd.
This means we need to pay very close attention.
YAHWEH is teaching something unusual here.

Many identify the "seed of woman"
as signifying is the coming of Messiah.
Thus, signified here, in the third chapter of Genesis,
is the prophecy that there will be a "seed of woman",
a child born without the normal sexual relations between a man and a woman, who will be at odds with the seed of the shining one.

How vitally true this proves to be.
The "battle" between these two offspring
will be a very significant one.
And that relates to the rest of this verse.
YAHWEH teaches us that two kinds of seed
are not to be mixed together. (See Deut 22.9)
This is finds its truest significance right here, and forms the basis
for the principle in Deuteronomy.

The seed of the woman, The (MESSIAH) shall bruise your (the shining one) head (rosh - the head, but can also mean captain, chief, ruler, principal, top, etc.).

This is yet another figurative sense of the terms.
It's not so much the specific head of the shining one
as it is his dominion,
his leadership role, over his offspring
(remember the spiritual nature involved here).
Later in Scripture we see references to "the principalities and powers", and this refers to the demonic realm of Lucifer (light bearer, or shining one),
also known as Satan and the Devil.

Messiah will "bruise" your "head",
leadership or dominion.
The term for bruise is shuwph.
It means to gape, that is, to snap at.
Figuratively it means to overwhelm, break, bruise, or cover.
Messiah will ultimately overwhelm Satan,
and break his powers of sin and death.
With this perspective
this passage now takes on new meaning.

And you shall bruise His heel.
This is another interesting term.
The Hebrew is 'aqeb.
It means heel, track,
or figuratively the rear of an army,
the last, or a footstep.

The shining one will indeed have an impact on the rear of YAHWEH's army,
the stragglers in The Kingdom.
We could also see that he would affect the "footsteps" of YAHWEH, diverting careless ones
from the "path" or way of YAHWEH.
The terms are thus confirmed
as figurative by their context,
and revealed as having powerful symbolism.

Scripture indicates that Satan
will be crushed by Messiah, subjugated to Him.
(See Ps 8.6, 1 Cor 15. 25-27, Eph 1.22, Heb 2.8, etc.)

Hence, what is in view here is the Victory of Messiah over Satan.
Scripture also notes that the followers of Messiah shall trample the enemy under their feet. (Look it up.)

Before the foundation of the world YAHWEH prepared a plan to deal with the entrance of offenses into the creation.
He knew it would come,
and He prepared for it before it ever happened.
Here we see the beginning of the revelation of that plan.
he Promise of Messiah is indeed glorious!
Praise be to YAHWEH, The Elohim!!!

Many believe this is a "hidden" reference to The Messiah,
as "The Seed" of a woman.
But what, then, is the seed of The Shining One?
It would seem to indicate The Anti-Messiah, actually, False Messiah.

The head represents the role of leader,
the authority and power of an individual.
The heel represents the least of the "rear" side.
Damage to the head is always serious.
Damage to the heel
only tends to slow one down a bit.

Gen. 3:16 To the woman He said,
"I increase, increase your pain, also your pregnancy.
With pain you will bring forth children,
yet your longing (sexual) will be for your man.
And he will have authority over you."

Longing - tshuwqah - used only twice.
Here and in Gen 4.7.
It seems to imply an intensive kind of desire,
an overflowing craving.

The woman was not careful to do as her man had instructed her.
The result was an offense.
Now among the consequences of that offense
are significantly increased pain,
especially in pregnancy and childbirth.
Yet her sexual longing for her man would remain strong.

Further, she is no longer completely free
to make her own choices.
Instead, she is now under the authority of "her man".
This has never been stated prior to this.
She's made directly responsible to him,
instead of to YAHWEH.
The order of authority in her life
is changed because of her offense.
She enticed her man to offend,
but now she must answer to him
in everything she does. (See Eph 5.22, etc.)

For those who object to this concept
there is but one thing to remember:
This is The Word of YAHWEH Himself!
It's not created by anyone else.

But there is something more here.
YAHWEH states He is going to 'greatly multiply
the woman's 'distress' and her 'conception'.
He goes on to explain to us what is meant here.
Note that there are two things in view,
and they fit perfectly
with the two explanations that follow.
1. Distress,
2. Conception - pregnancy.
In the explanation YAHWEH reverses the order,
so the pregnancy comes first,
and then the distress of another kind.
Pregnancy and childbirth will be accompanied by 'greatly multiplied' distress, discomfort, pain, etc.
This is no surprise to any woman who has given birth to a child.

But there is also to be 'greatly multiplied'

distress in relation to her husband.
No longer will Eve be the 'free spirit'
she apparently has been to this point.
It was in this state that she was tempted by The Shining One and offended against YAHWEH.
From now on
she will be under the authority of her husband
- he will 'rule over' her.
She is to be in complete subjection to her husband.
This, as we know,
will also cause all manner of distress and sorrow!!

Gen. 3:17 And to the human being He said,
"Because you have listened attentively
to the voice of your woman and have eaten from the tree of which I gave direction to you saying,
'You are not to eat from it!'
the soil has been bitterly cursed because of you.
In pain you will eat from it all the days of your life.

Because you obeyed your wife, rather than Me...!
This is the first mention of 'listened'.
It is the kind of 'listening' that leads to faithfulness
- paying careful attention to.
It is not merely hearing a sound.
It is connected to her voice - her word, or speech.
YAHWEH, in fact, reminds Adam of His word
in contrast to the word of the woman.

Now we learn
the consequences of offense - work!
Notice that due to his offense
Adam would now have to 'work' to eat.
YAHWEH placed a curse upon the ground.
This curse was the result of Adam's offense!

Note: It is worth your time to explore this concept further.
Yisra'el was punished by Yahweh for their offenses,
and it is identified that their offenses
brought consequences to the land.
This is exactly what we see here with Adam's offense
- the land suffers
as a result of the offense of a human being!

Adam would no longer have the free gift of the fruit of the Garden, provided without cost to him by YAHWEH.
Instead he would have difficult labor fraught with pain and nuisances
With sweat - hard effort
- he would 'earn' his food until he dies.

Gen. 3:18 And thorns and thistles
will be caused to sprout for you.
And you will eat the plants themselves nx
of the open space.

Gen. 3:19 With the sweat of your brow you will eat food
until you return to the soil,
because out of it you were taken.

Since you yourself nx are dust
even to dust you will return."

YAHWEH now directs His attention to the first human being, Adam.
He identifies that this being "listened attentively" to the voice of the woman,
instead of to the voice of YAHWEH.
That's the first issue.
Then he ate from the tree
in direct violation of The Word of YAHWEH.
He rebelled!
This is offense (sin) in its essence!

Whenever we are more willing to do what "someone" other than YAHWEH invites us to do we are breaking or violating His directions.
We are acting contrary to His stated desires.

Next comes the immediate consequences.

And note very carefully what's stated.
First - the soil adamah has been bitterly cursed.
This is identified as a very strong curse, not a mild one.
It's already been done so there's an immediate result.
It remains in effect for every human being,
ha'adam, that follows.

Second - pain will be involved in the production of food to eat
from this time forward.
Prior to this there was no work,
and therefore no pain.

There was stewardship of the garden,
tending for it with love and care,
but there was no difficult effort involved in it.

From now on there will be difficult work,
causing sweat upon one's face.
The food will no longer be free and easy to get.
And there will be pain
- just like the woman's pain in child birth and pregnancy.

These are each identified as a result of offending YAHWEH
by refusing to follow His directions for living in close personal relationship with Him.

Third - thorns and thistles,
things that poke and hurt, will be caused to sprout
- "weeds" will grow!
These add discomfort to the labor that will now exist.

Fourth - food will now come from plants of the ground,
not from the fruit of the trees in the garden.
This will require hard work.
Prior to this the food was simply provided by YAHWEH
in the form of the fruit on the trees.
No work was required to produce it.

Fifth - He will return to dust.
He will now DIE!

Note that in the day of their eating (rebellion)
they became condemned to death.
In the Hebrew mind it's a determined outcome
so it's seen as if it has already happened.
In the Hebrew minds these two have already died,
"in the day of your eating..."

YAHWEH closes with a reminder
- "You yourself are dust!"
You are nothing but a bunch of soil.
From it you were taken.
To it you will return.
You will die!

A portion of the word plays is identified.
Some is not shown.
- the pain of the woman, the pain of the man,
- from soil, working the soil, returning to the soil
- from dust to dust.
Each repetition has a function.
It serves as a "witness"
that serves to confirm the outcome.

3:20 And the human being called his woman's name Chavvah
because she became the mother of all humans alive.

Chavvah means life-giver.
It's translated traditionally as Eve.
As the first woman she became the "life-giver".
She in effect "gave life"
to every human that was born after this.

Chavvah is your "mother", not the soil.
There is no "mother earth".
That concept is a total lie!

"Mother" in this sense is meant as "foremother"
just the same as we use forefather
- a historical progenitor.

And this means every human being is from only one source.
We are all "related" to one another as "family".

Gen. 3:21 And YAHWEH, The Elohim,
made tunics of skin
for the human being and his woman.
And He clothed them.

It is YAHWEH Who makes the tunics.
It is not the human and his woman,
as with the fig leaves.
He makes them of skins (of a lamb?)
- which requires the sacrifice of animals
and therefore the shedding of blood.

He made them for both of them.
Then, He personally clothed them.
They did not "cover" themselves.

It's extremely important to recognize this.
In doing these things YAHWEH covered their offenses
by means of the shed blood.

This is a foreshadowing of exactly how
He covers our offenses by means of The Messiah's death and His shedding of His own blood on our behalf on the torture stake.
Without the shedding of blood
there is no forgiveness! (Heb 9.22)

We cannot cover our own offenses - by any means.
"We can run, but we can't hide."
We can pretend, but it's worthless.

The covering results in YAHWEH's
"passing over" our offenses
and the required penalty of death.

Gen. 3.21 proclaims the story of our redemption!

Gen. 3:22 And YAHWEH, The Elohim, said,
"Behold!
The human being exists like one of Us,
knowing good and bad.
And now lest he put out his hand and take also from The Tree of The Life and eat and live forever...!"

YAHWEH spoke.
The question is, to whom did He speak?
There are many conjectures,
but we simply do not know.
Since we do know there are other divine beings
we might consider
it was to some of them that He spoke.
It may have been to the cherubim
that are identified in the next verse.

Contrary to what tradition teaches,
there is no "trinity"
so it cannot be to members of "the trinity"
that He is speaking (of which He would be one anyway).

This will be difficult for many to accept because "tradition" has indoctrinated them into thinking there is a "trinity".
However, the so-called "Holy Spirit"
does not exist as a 'person'.
It is, in fact, a reference to The Divine Nature of YAHWEH Himself.
It's crucial that you do your homework on this.

The only two "persons" identified as connected to the "god-head"
are YAHWEH and YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

It's likely you won't believe this until you've confirmed for yourself
what Scripture actually says,
not what someone else told you it says.

Your "belief", your "faith", is not your own unless you have personally researched the ideas and confirmed the validity of them for yourself.

Anything less than this becomes someone else's faith, not yours.

What this verse really tells us is that there was someone else present with YAHWEH, to whom He spoke.
It should most likely be considered to be YAHUSHUA.

Also, it tells us that we human beings
now exist as "like" (similar to) "them"
- whoever "them" is.

The important element is that we now know the difference between good and bad, just as they do.

Now, the next portion of the verse is very important.
YAHWEH did not want the human and his woman to take fruit from The Tree of The Life (Eternal Life)
and eat it, thus perpetuating
their current state of offense.

If they did this,
without having their offense properly dealt with, (meaning having The Messiah give His life to permanently eliminate the offense debt)
each human being would live "to olam", to forever
- in their offenses!

YAHWEH could not allow this to happen.
It would mean they would never be able to enter into a perfect relationship with Him for Eternity.

The Hebrew word, olam, means to time out of visibility.
The ancient Hebrews perceived "time" as a continuum.
The "present" was what they could see, touch, or feel.
This included what we term "the past",
because they had experienced it already.
They knew what they had done.

The so-called "future" was unknown,
and unknowable.
They would not know it until they got there.
Thus, "to olam" meant into time out of view
- beyond the horizon.
This was to them what we call "forever", or "eternity".

Note the use of the incomplete sentence once again.
You are left to "fill in the blank" yourself.

Gen. 3:23 And YAHWEH, The Elohim,
sent him out of the garden of Eden
to work the soil itself nx
from which he had been taken,
from there.

The language of this verse
is quite striking in its literal sense.
YAHWEH sent him out of the garden;
sent him out of the enclosed protected space;
sent him out into the open country
where he lost his protection.
He also lost access to the fruit of the trees of the garden
for which he did not have to work.

Now he is sent out to work the soil.
He will now have to plant, cultivate,
harvest, and process his food.

But notice even more profoundly that he is sent to the very place from which the substance of his being was formed.

This was a severe rebuke
and a constant reminder of what he was,

where he came from,
and what he had lost
by failing to follow the Instructions given to him by YAHWEH, His Creator.
The lessons are multiple and profound indeed!

Gen. 3:24 And He drove out the human being himself nx.
And He established at the front of the garden of Eden
the cherubim themselves nx
and the flaming sword itself nx which turned every way to protect the way itself nx to The Tree of The Life.

You'll notice immediately the intensity of this verse
by the repeated use of the nx construct.
The human being is driven out (or cast out).
He does not leave of his own choosing.

At the front of the garden, apparently the entrance, YAHWEH establishes His cherubim;
literally causes them to take up permanent residence.
He also does the same
with a flaming, or flashing, sword.
These will now protect the way itself,
the only way, to The Tree of The Life.

No one is to have access to it,
least of all an offending human being.

Most translations will give this as
"to the east" of the Garden.
It may, indeed, be that the entrance was on the east side.
But the term literally means at the front,
which in Hebrew thought
is considered to be the east.

This is the way The Temple in Jerusalem faced and was known to be the way YAHWEH entered and left The Temple.
The Tabernacle was also oriented in this same manner.

But perhaps most important here
is that the cherubim
are placed in front of the entrance,
blocking access to it,
and to The Tree of The Life.

We have little definitive information about the cherubim.
We know they have
some special connection to YAHWEH
as observed in Ezekiel and Revelation.
They are associated with YAHWEH's throne.
But beyond that
we really know very little about them.

They are established, settled down,
as permanent "dwellers" at this entrance,
along with the flaming or flashing sword.

We really don't know what the flaming sword is.
Perhaps it's The Word of YAHWEH, for by His Word
all of His adversaries will be destroyed.
We do know there are many references to "The Sword of YAHWEH"
in the rest of Scripture.

The point is, there is no longer any access by human beings to The Tree of The Life.
They're not allowed to eat of its fruit
and live forever in a state of offense.

Praise YAHWEH that He made this provision!
The consequences of such would be unthinkable.

But we must also observe that there is a way to The Tree of The Life.
The "Way" still exists.
It's merely protected
so offending (unredeemed) human beings
cannot have access to it.

The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, said,
"I am the way!"

Chapter 4

Gen. 4:1 And the human being knew intimately
Chavvah herself תא, his woman.

And she conceived.

And she gave birth to Kayin himself תא.

And she said,

"I have acquired a male from YAHWEH Himself תא."

There are some interesting things
to note in this verse.

The first human being is still referred to as "the human being".

His "name", Adam,
is only used twice in the Hebrew text,
although the term used for "human being"
is often "translated" as Adam in most English texts.

There are six things noted for the first time here:

- first act of man outside the garden
- first sexual intercourse
- first conception
- first childbirth
- first child, a male
- first words spoken by Chavvah
after she is given her name.

Each of these are related to humans.

Three things are specifically noted with emphasis.

Each calls attention to an individual.

Chavvah notes that it is from YAHWEH Himself that she has "acquired" this male.

She acknowledges

that she could not do this by herself.

There is something of interest in the manner in which Eve's statement is made.

It is put in the terms of 'I have acquired....'

Eve sees this as a gift,

but also as 'something acquired', a 'possession'.

Kayin means possession, acquired.

It's interesting to consider

there was no mention of these things while Adam and Eve were in the garden.

It could be inferred that sexual intercourse (intimacy)

was not needed

in their perfect fellowship with YAHWEH.

Their intimacy was with Him.

There is much connected with physical intercourse in Scripture

that is also connected to sin

and rebellion against YAHWEH. (selfishness)

Consider how many references there are to adultery and whoredom.

In some sense this act

becomes directly associated with sin,

and this is suggested here

by its very positioning and recording

as the first act of man

outside the garden of YAHWEH!

Chavvah means life-giver.

Kayin means acquired.

YAHWEH means The Eternally Existing One, or, Existence Itself.

The Hebrew names are used because certain actions are connected to the meaning of the names.

These meanings

are very important in Hebrew culture.

Using English "equivalent" names

loses all of the significance of the Hebrew names.

Gen. 4:2 And she added by giving birth to his brother himself תא, Hebel, himself תא.

And Hebel existed as one tending flocks.
And Kayin existed as a worker of the soil.

You'll note a bit of awkwardness
in the use of the aleph-tav emphasis.
It's possible to state these things
in different ways.
But since this is a new feature in comparison to other texts an attempt is made to keep things reasonably consistent.

If you're paying careful attention to the text
you'll recognize why these things are emphasized.
Each item/person serves an important role in Scripture
at some point in the record.

Hebel means vanity, meaninglessness; or, transitory.
It connects to his shortened life.
Coupled with Kayin you get "vanity-acquired".

Here we see the first identification of "job descriptions".
One keeps flocks
and the other works the soil.

Note the order of mention in part two of the verse.
Hebel, the second child, is placed first
- before the firstborn.
This is a pattern we see repeated in Scripture.
In fact, it's a principle of Scripture stated plainly
- 'the first will be last,
and the last will be first!' (Matt. 19.30)
Already, in the 4th chapter of Genesis,
in the first family on earth,
we see this principle demonstrated.

A special note is needed here:

Aleph is first.

Tav is last.

YAHWEH is The First AND The Last.

He is both.

He is FIRST in Genesis 1.1.

He is The LAST in Revelation.

No matter how you arrange things

YAHWEH IS GOD!!!!

We also have the first reference to 'brother'.
While this may seem like merely a natural term to use we might consider that it actually did not have to be used.
We would have known they were brothers from simple observation
of the events recorded.
Because it is supplied we can understand that YAHWEH has a message for us related to the concept of brotherhood.
The ensuing verses confirm this truth.

Gen. 4:3 And it was after the end of some days.
And Kayin brought from the fruit of the soil
a portion for YAHWEH.

Kayin brings the first 'gift',
a portion, to YAHWEH.
It's from the produce of the soil,
soil which has been cursed by YAHWEH
because of the offenses of his parents.

Note that thus far there is no mention of "offense" (sin) in the Hebrew text.
The reference is used only because we've been so indoctrinated to think about 'sin'
that we quickly recognize what it characterizes.

The gift is brought at the "end of some days."
No number of days is indicated,
but there is the sense
that there is a special timing involved.

The term for this "portion" is minchah.
It's interpreted as meaning several things:
portion, gift, tribute, offering.
These understandings are derived from observing its usage

within later portions of the text.
In later usage
it commonly refers to an offering,
often a grain offering.

However, at this point
there is no Instruction given in the text to identify any special connotation.
We have only later history
to help us understand what this may suggest.
At the very least
the text suggests the presentation of a gift of thanksgiving to YAHWEH.

Interestingly, The offering Kayin brought is not identified as the 'firstfruits' of the ground.
In this we see that Kayin
was not giving YAHWEH his best.
But it is also very important to note that it is 'of the ground'.
This denotes two things:
1. It is the product of man's labors, and becomes an offering of self-effort.
2. It is 'of the ground', and YAHWEH has just placed a curse upon the ground
because of man's offense.
This makes this offering a cursed offering.

Gen. 4:4 And Hebel brought, even he himself,
from the female firstborn of his flock,
even from their fat.

And YAHWEH looked with favor toward Hebel and his portion.

The second-born brings the best of the flock,
the firstborn, including the fat portions.
These were considered to be the choicest parts.
He brought the best he had.
And the text indicates
it was a very personal and intentional act.

YAHWEH gazed,
looked with favor, upon his portion.
The term used reflects an extended looking,
a contemplation.
It is used of both favor and disfavor, however,
so one needs to pay attention to the context.

Further, YAHWEH respected that choice
as being His desire,
and as being from the faithful heart of Abel.
The first of everything belongs to Him.

Hebel was faithful.
Hebel worshipped YAHWEH
'in Divine Nature and in truth',
for only those who worship Him in this manner
are acceptable to Him. (John 4.24)
And Heb 11.4 declares that Hebel presented his offering by faith.
He believed YAHWEH.

Gen. 4:5 But He did not look with favor toward Kayin and his portion.

And Kayin was vehemently inflamed.
And his face fell.

The firstborn's gift
YAHWEH did not look upon with favor.
Why?
It's not specified as the best of the produce.
It's also from the cursed soil.
Each of these may be factors in the rejection.
More likely, however,
is Kayin's attitude in bringing it.
His does not appear to be a personal approach.
Perhaps we might see his action
as a matter of "ritual",
and therefore it is relatively meaningless.

Tradition teaches this is the beginning of the "sacrificial system".

But there's a problem.
Under The Torah of Moshe,
where the principles of sacrificial offerings are presented,
grain was a vital part of them.
Thus what takes place here
does not agree with that teaching.

At the very least we must question whether this was the first establishment of any "system" of "offerings".
Both men bring portions to YAHWEH.
They had some basis for doing so.
We're simply not told what that basis was.
One could infer they had already been taught the meaning of these acts.
Otherwise, why would they do this?

This does teach the principle of bringing the best of the best to YAHWEH
as our thanksgiving portion for Him.
On such gifts He looks with favor.
But if we're careless in what we bring to Him
He is offended.

Also, if you pay careful attention,
you'll note that the "offering" of the firstborn
is established here for the first time.
That's a vital concept in Scripture.
It ends up being a central part of the entire story of redemption.

The same is true of the fat portions.
This constitutes their first mention.
They later become identified as specifically belonging to YAHWEH
and not to humans.
First mentions are always significant.
They establish a pattern for us.

Kayin's response is interesting.
It reveals his character.
He is intensely angry, a very selfish reaction.
He is also jealous of his brother's acceptance.
It leads to trouble.
His face fell.
One could say, "his countenance fell".
It means the same thing.
Face is used because it is a crucial element of Scripture, recurring very often.

Gen. 4:6 And YAHWEH said to Kayin,
"Why are you inflamed concerning yourself?
And why has your face fallen?
4:7 Is it not true that if you do what is pleasing it's up-lifting?
But if you do not do what is pleasing an offense is lying down at the entrance and toward you is its intense desire.
But you yourself נָח are to have dominion over it."

YAHWEH speaks directly to Kayin.
Actions that are pleasing are up-lifting.
But those that are not result in risking
the commission of an offense.

Note the contrast between
"up-lifting" and "lying-down".

chatt'ah is traditionally translated as 'sin' (offense).
This is its first mention in Scripture.
It's from this event that an offense has become characterized,
even though the act of committing an offense
has already taken place in The Garden of Eden.
Whatever offends YAHWEH
causes us to bear a debt to Him.
We owe it to Him to make things right.
This is the concept behind an "offense debt".

When we do what is not pleasing to YAHWEH
we are at risk.
The opportunity for offending

is right in front of us,
at the entrance to our lives,
waiting to attack us.
The offense intensely desires to take control of our lives.
But take careful note of YAHWEH's teaching.
"You, yourself, are to have dominion over it,
to control it."

Most importantly, this is the first teaching on what we are to do about an offense to YAHWEH.

The term is characterized by the concept of "missing the mark",
the target at which you are aiming.
It essentially means to go off the intended path,
the one which YAHWEH
has instructed you to take.

It is up to us to control it,
to have dominion over it.
This is most important
for it teaches us that we have this ability.
This validates the concept of freedom of choice.

Yet we also need to remember
we have YAHWEH to help us,
if we'll ask Him to do so.

Gen. 4:8 And Kayin spoke to Hebel, his brother.
And it was in their being in the open country.
And Kayin rose up against Hebel, his brother,
and he murdered him.

The Septuagint and other ancient manuscripts suggest Kayin said to Hebel,
"Let us go into the open country."
If this is correct it means Kayin is guilty of pre-meditated murder.

This is the first violent act of Scripture,
and it involves two brothers.

Gen. 4:9 And YAHWEH said to Kayin,
"Where is Hebel, your brother?"
And he said, "I do not know.
Am I my brother's protector?"

Once again YAHWEH poses a question in regard to the actions.
He invites Kayin to admit his guilt.
Kayin responds with an outright lie!
Then he excuses himself
by asking if he is his brother's personal protector.
Do you see anything familiar here?

Also, as the firstborn,
he actually does have a duty
to look out for the welfare of his brother.
He is to become the "head of the family"
when his father dies,
thereby becoming responsible for the entire family.

Gen. 4:10 And He said, "What have you done?
The sound of your brother's blood cries out to Me from the soil.

blood, cries out - first mention.

Again we see YAHWEH asking, not accusing.
He is offering Kayin the opportunity again
to acknowledge his guilt.
His patience is revealed in this story
as we see Him offer, more than once or twice,
the opportunity for Kayin to confess his offense.

Given what has been identified already about the probability that Adam and Eve had already been given the entire sacrificial worship system and its related teaching on offenses
this is no small matter.
Hebel must certainly have known these things,
for if he had not heard
The Word of YAHWEH on these matters
there would be no offense,

and he would have no reason to be held accountable by YAHWEH
for what he had done.

We also have
the first introduction of the word 'blood'.
We've noted that it has been shed before in relation to animal sacrifices
for the purpose of covering offenses,
but it was not identified in that act.
Here it is used in an entirely different manner.
Here it is blood shed as an act of offense,
not in order to cover an offense.

And YAHWEH now states that Hebel's blood cries out to Him from the soil.
In doing this He declares that the shedding of blood immediately gets His attention.

Later teaching of Scripture gives us more detail.
The soil is defiled by blood that is shed.
The shed blood remains in the soil, defiling the land.

The importance of blood in Scripture
cannot be overstated.
It's a critical element.
Within the blood
is where life itself resides. (Lev. 17.11)

Gen. 4:11 And now you yourself תא
are bitterly cursed from the soil which has opened its mouth itself תא
to receive your brother's blood itself תא
from your hand.

Kayin is personally "cursed".
Previously it was the soil that was cursed.
Now it's Kayin himself.
Interestingly he is cursed "from the soil"
- from the blood of his brother.

The soil is characterized as having a mouth,
thus receiving by swallowing
the blood of Hebel.

Now Kayin "has blood on his hands",
because it was from his hands
that Hebel's blood was caused to flow into the soil.
This is the source of that common idiom.

Two of the times the תא is present
it has the same meaning,
but it's phrased slightly differently
to read more fluently.
The Hebrew makes it awkward.

Note the recurring theme of "you/your" in the text.
Also, keep in mind that Kayin
is "a man of the soil".
It's his occupation.
Now he is cursed
in direct connection with his daily work.

Gen. 4:12 When you work the soil itself תא
no longer will it give its vigor to you.
You will be staggering
and wandering in the land."

Now we see the details of the curse.
His work will no longer give vigorous produce.
And he will be staggering,
wandering, in the land.

This is a different term for land, eretz.
It does not refer to the soil,
but to the land, as a territory,
or even the whole earth.

Gen. 4:13 And Kayin said to YAHWEH,
"My perversity is too great to bear!

NOTE: The Septuagint

and a number of other manuscripts
put this in the form of a question:
"Is my iniquity too great to be forgiven?"

Punishment appears to be the wrong term here.
The term should be 'perverseness', or 'iniquity'.
YAHWEH provides a way for us to deal with our punishments.
This is seen in the very next verses.
But our perversity
(and the related burden of guilt)
is often very difficult for us to bear.

"Perversity" is traditionally translated as "iniquity".
This is a term few understand properly today.
It has to do with "crookedness",
not travelling in the straight path
YAHWEH has set forth.
Perversity actually carries
the same implicit connotation,
but is a more familiar term.
Our own perversity
(and the related burden of guilt)
is often very difficult for us to bear.
Like Kayin, the tendency is to feel sorry for oneself.

Note how Kayin whines about his "lot" in life.
This is so typical of us it's striking to find it here in the beginning of human life on the earth.

Also note that he recognizes
he is now excluded from the face,
the presence, of YAHWEH
as a result of his offense.
This is the direct result of every offense.

But even in the light of his offense
YAHWEH provides a way for him to 'survive'.

Gen. 4:14 Behold!
You have driven me out,
me myself אני, this very day
from upon the face of the soil.
And from your face I will be concealed.
And I will exist staggering and wandering in the land.
And it will be that anyone who finds me will murder me."

It does not make sense to say that 'everyone who finds me will murder me.'
This is an absurdity.
Cain can only be killed once.
So the thought here must be that whoever discovers that he is a murderer (finds him out) will seek to kill him.
Death was the penalty for murder
under The Instruction of YAHWEH.

Kayin also recognizes, somehow,
that what he has done will be done to him.
This affirms the Scriptural principle that "what you sow is what you reap."

Gen. 4:15 But YAHWEH said to him,
"Not so!
If anyone murders Kayin,
sevenfold is his punishment."

And YAHWEH put a sign upon Kayin, lest anyone finding him might strike he himself אני.
It's important to see
that the language shifts here.
Some want to put, "kills Kayin",
instead of murders,
and "kills him" instead of "strike him".
There are different terms used.
A distinction needs to be made.

YAHWEH provides protection for Kayin
in the form of a sign, or a mark.
The term is אוֹת.

It means a signal, a sign.
It can take many forms.

This is the first "sign"
placed upon a human being in Scripture.

It's a "sign" from YAHWEH.
He determines what constitutes this sign.

It's worthy to note that this is the very term
from which the nx comes - note the letters.
This gives it the same meaning,
a "sign" - from YAHWEH Himself
- within His Word -
that we are to pay very careful attention
every time it is used.

But this mark, or sign,
was a warning to others
that they should not kill Cain.
YAHWEH granted him his very life.
He is merciful!
He allows time for us to contemplate our sin,
and hopefully confess it to Him
and turn away from it.

He did not take his life away from him.
Kayin was protected from being murdered with a promise that whoever murdered Kayin would receive seven times more vengeance than Kayin would receive.

Romans 12.19 identifies that vengeance belongs to YAHWEH, not to man!

There's another issue to address.
The concept of sevenfold punishment is found in other locations in Scripture.
It's the direct result of failing to follow YAHWEH's instructions.
One failing to do so is subject to punishment seven times greater because they knew not to offend,
but did so anyway.
It's a fearsome concept to consider.
(See Leviticus 26.)

Note: Punishment, or vengeance, is administered to the nation of Yisra'el
when they sin against YAHWEH
- as a nation,
not just as individuals.
See Lev 26.21-28.

Gen. 4:16 And Kayin went out
from the face of YAHWEH.
And he settled in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

Kayin leaves YAHWEH.
This is significant
because it actually indicates he "apostatized",
he turned his back to YAHWEH.
He turned away from Him.

This the first instance of apostasy in Scripture,
even though it's not called that in the text.
It's the action that matters.
It sets the principle into action.

Leaving YAHWEH's presence, His face, is something any human being
has the freedom to choose to do.
But doing so has major consequences.

He settled, sat down, in the land of Nod.
Nod means wandering.
Nod is east of Eden,
which is the same direction
Adam and Eve were moved
when they were expelled from the garden.
Going east typically indicates metaphorically
one is going away from YAHWEH
rather than towards Him.

Gen. 4:17 And Kayin knew intimately
his woman herself תָּא.

And she conceived.

And she gave birth to Hanok himself תָּא.

And he was building a city.

And he called the name of the city
after the name of his son, Hanok.

This verse causes great consternation for many.
The question is, "Where did Kayin get a woman?"
We simply do not know.
The assumption is that she was an offspring of Adam and Eve,
but the text does not tell us this specifically.

The concern centers around the issue of incest that arises as a problem later in Scripture.

There are "mysteries" in Scripture
to which we do not have answers at present.
We must simply trust YAHWEH.
He knows what He is doing and it's up to Him to deal with these issues, not us.

The term translated as "city"
can mean any guarded or protected place.
It can range from a small encampment to a large city.
Don't assume there were lots of people in this place
just because it's called a city.

Kayin names this guarded place
after his son, Hanok.
Given the previous comments by Kayin about being killed by anyone he meets the concept of a guarded place seems quite appropriate.

The תָּא intensifiers indicated can be read,
"his own woman",
and "this very one, Hanok".

Hanok supposedly means initiated.
But his name comes from a root word meaning to narrow, perhaps to discipline.
It's from the concept of discipline that the idea of 'initiated' comes.
It doesn't refer to starting something,
but rather to training someone in a matter.

Hanok is traditionally translated as Enoch.

Gen. 4:18 And to Hanok was born Irada himself תָּא.

And Irada fathered Mehuya'el himself תָּא,

and Mehuya'el fathered Metusha'el himself תָּא.

and Metusha'el fathered Lemek himself תָּא.

We're being given the lineage of Kayin.
Not all lineages are given in Scripture,
only those that have a particular significance
to the main themes of Scripture,
or perhaps contain a central figure of Scripture.

Hanok means initiated.
Irada means fugitive.
Mehuya'el means smitten by El (God).
Metusha'el means man who is of El.
Lemek means - (uncertain)
strong youth; rest; teaching.

Gen. 4:19 And Lemek took for himself two women.

The name of the first was Adah,
and the name of the second was Tzillah.

Lemek is the first polygamist.
Adah means pleasure or beauty, ornament.
Tzillah means shade; protection.

Gen. 4:20 And Adah gave birth to Yabal himself תָּא.

He was the forefather of those who dwell among tents and livestock.

Yabal means a stream, to flow.
He is the first "nomad",
dwelling in tents, and tending livestock.

Gen. 4:21 And his brother's name was Yubal.

He was the forefather of all those who manipulate the lyre and flute.

Yubal means to carry.
He's the first musician.
It's possible his name
is actually Yobel, a ram's horn.
The Hebrew word for flute means "wind organ".
They are spelled the same.
Only vowel pointings
would cause a different pronunciation,
leading to a different meaning.

Gen. 4:22 And Tzillah, she also gave birth, to Tubal-Kayin himself תא,
an instructor of all craftsmen in copper and iron.
And the sister of Tubal-Kayin was Na'amah.

Tubal-Kayin means you will be brought to acquire.
Na'amah means pleasantness.
First mention of sister.
This is the first mention of copper and iron.
Traditionally, it's translated as brass,
but the Hebrew word means copper.

It's known that most items identified as brass or bronze in Scripture are actually made of copper.
Copper is pure.
Bronze is not.
Purity is a central theme of Scripture.

The term for The Shining One who caused Chavvah (Eve) to offend has the same root as this word.

Gen. 4:23 And Lemek said to his women,
"Adah and Tzillah, listen attentively to my voice!
Women of Lemek, give ear to what I say because I have killed a man for wounding me,
even a young man for injuring me!

Gen. 4:24 If Kayin is to be avenged seven fold,
then Lemek seventy seven fold!"

Lemek wants to be certain his wives
listen to him, and not to someone else.
He's had a problem
and he apparently doesn't want them
to believe something they may hear elsewhere.

It appears as if Lemek
is actually boasting of his act.
If, indeed, he is boasting, this is the first case of it in Scripture.
Lemek's proclamation
is of his own doing, not YAHWEH's.
He declares he has killed someone,
supposedly in self-defense.

Gen. 4:25 And the human being
knew intimately again his woman herself תא.
And she gave birth to a son.

And she called his name itself תא Shet,
"Because The Elohim has established for me another seed instead of Hebel
because he was murdered by Kayin."

The significance of this verse lies in the recognition that Hebel is dead
and Kayin has left in shame, leaving no "undefiled" offspring
to the first two human beings.

Now they have another son - a "seed"
(a term specifically used to refer to Shet).
From him will come The Messiah,
also known as The Seed of Woman referred to previously in the encounter with The Shining One.

Of interest is the naming of this child.
It is Chavvah who names him, not "Adam".
Once again the reference to the first human being is left in those terms, not as his name.

Shet means established; appointed.
(This is traditionally "Seth".)

Unseen in the Hebrew is a very interesting word play.
shem / shet / shat - name / Shet / established.

Gen. 4:26 And Shet, to him also a son was born.
And he called his name itself Enosh אֵנוֹשׁ.

At that time they proclaimed defilement
upon the Name of YAHWEH.

Enosh means mortal, finite.
It's of interest to see this name
established in this particular verse.
The Hebrew declares that from this point in history people proclaimed defilement
upon the Name of YAHWEH.
To defile His Name is certain to result in the end of one's life.
Mortality becomes a reality.

The traditional translation of this verse
is not faithful to the Hebrew.
The Hebrew text does not say,
"they began to call upon the Name of YAHWEH,"
as if in an honorable way.
The term used, chalal, means to bore, to pierce,
to wound; to defile.
Think about the connection to The Messiah
made by such concepts.

This marks a very significant point in the history of the creation
as is seen in what follows.
The text now moves us quite directly to the flood of Noah
in which all those who disrespected YAHWEH
were destroyed.

Chapter 5

Gen. 5:1 This is the book of the generations of the human being in the day of The Elohim's creating of the human being.
He made him.

In the likeness of The Elohim
He made he himself אָדָם.

Gen. 5:2

Male and female He created.

And He blessed they themselves אָדָם.

And He called their designation itself אָדָם

'human being' in the day of their being created.

Generations means the record
of descendants and their history.

Most translations use "Adam" here.
However, that name cannot be applied to both the man and the woman that are identified in v. 2.

This is the record of not merely "Adam",
but of the initial history of the human race.
Their own designation (label, title - but not "name")
is "human being".
If you use "adam" you pervert the text.

Beginning in the next verse
the use of the proper name, Adam,
even though it is properly translated as "human being" simply helps us to separate him from other human beings.

The one we call Adam was, in fact,
the father of Shet.

Gen. 5:3 And Adam lived thirty years
and one hundred years.
And he fathered a son in his own likeness,
in his own image.
And he called his name itself אָדָם Shet.

This birth is to be very specially noted.
Kayin and Hebel are not mentioned,

even though they were the first offspring of Adam and Chavvah.
The events involved in the death of Hebel have "removed" both Kayin and Hebel from these historical records.
This is most important and must be noted.

This chapter identifies a new record that eventually leads to The Messiah through the line of Shet.

Shet means to put, to establish.

The format here also becomes a pattern for The Old Covenant records.
Throughout them are records of generations that provide a link to the coming Messiah.
However, there are many individuals that get left out.
Also, many times the "firstborn" (Kayin) is replaced by one who comes after him.

This reveals how crucial it is to study Scripture, and not merely "read" it.
It reveals how the context becomes a critical element in understanding the events.

Taken out of context one cannot properly understand what is intended by the text.

Take note that it is stated of this child that he was made in the likeness of Adam, and in his image.
This repeats the identical terms used in the creation of Adam himself
- except that Adam was created in the image and likeness of The Elohim
- without offense.

Shet is "created" in the image and likeness of Adam
- after he offended.
Shet is therefore "born with an offense nature".

Both of his parents had offended.
Shet could not escape being born "in offense".
THIS is the true meaning of 'original sin'.
It means being endowed with an "offense nature", which is now identified as our "human nature".

Only by means of a supernatural re-birth can one be restored to the likeness and image of The Elohim.

When that happens one receives the "new nature", which is actually The Divine Nature.
This "Divine Nature" is the indwelling presence of YAHWEH.

It is incorrectly taught as being "The Holy Spirit".
This is not a "third person of the trinity", but it is, instead,
the very nature of YAHWEH Himself.

This is one of the most misunderstood concepts in all of Scripture.

Gen. 5:4 And the days of Adam after fathering Shet himself תא were eight hundred years.

And he fathered sons and daughters.

Gen. 5:5 And all the days which Adam lived were nine hundred years and thirty years.

And he died.

Note that none of the other sons and daughters of Adam are mentioned.
One must assume over that period of time there were indeed many of them.
This holds true for each of the persons noted in this record.

There's a pattern that will be seen in the following verses that follows this one.
Pay specific attention to the last line - "And he died."

This is the result of his having obtained an "offense nature".
Death is the consequence of an offense, or of having "an offense nature", a "human nature" as opposed to receiving The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.
It plays a critical role in this history.

Gen. 5:6 And Shet lived five years and one hundred years.

And he fathered Enosh himself אָן.
Enosh means mortal.

Gen. 5:7 And Shet lived after he fathered Enosh himself אָן seven years and eight hundred years.
And he fathered sons and daughters.

Gen. 5:8 And all the days Shet lived were twelve years and nine hundred years.
And he died.

Shet died, as did Adam.
Every person born after Adam and Chavvah must die because they are under the condemnation of death given to Adam and Chavvah because of their offense.
All of their offspring INHERIT the corrupt human nature.
There is a principle in Scripture that like begets like - of the same kind.
(What you plant is what you harvest.)
The offspring of Adam and Chavvah could not exist without the death penalty dominating their lives because of the sin (offense) of both Adam and Chavvah.

All of "the seed of Adam" was still in his loins at the time of his offense.
All his offspring were thereby condemned along with him.

THIS is how "original sin" was conveyed. It is not by one's own actions. It was a universal condemnation created by the offense of Adam and Chavvah.

Gen. 5:9 And Enosh lived ninety years.
And he fathered Kenan himself אָן.
Kenan means nest, fixed dwelling.

Gen. 5:10 And Enosh lived after he fathered Kenan himself אָן fifteen years and eight hundred years.
And he fathered sons and daughters.

Gen. 5:11 And all the days of Enosh were five years and nine hundred years.
And he died.

Gen. 5:12 And Kenan lived seventy years.
And he fathered Mahalal'el himself אָן.
Mahalal'el means praise of El.

Gen. 5:13 And Kenan lived after he fathered Mahalal'el himself אָן forty years and eight hundred years.
And he fathered sons and daughters.

Gen. 5:14 And all the days of Kenan were ten years and nine hundred years.
And he died.

Gen. 5:15 And Mahalal'el lived sixty five years.
And he fathered Yered himself אָן, Yered means descent, to go down.

Gen. 5:16 And Mahalal'el lived after he fathered Yered thirty years and eight hundred years.
And he fathered sons and daughters.

Gen. 5:17 And all the days of Mahalal'el were ninety five years and eight hundred years.
And he died.

Gen. 5:18 And Yered lived sixty two years and one hundred years.
And he fathered Hanok himself אָן.
Hanok (Traditionally, Enoch) means disciplined, initiated or taught.

He is the seventh male noted in the lineage of Adam.

Gen. 5:19 And Yered lived after he fathered Hanok himself תא
eight hundred years.

And he fathered sons and daughters.
Gen. 5:20 And all the days of Yered
were sixty two years and nine hundred years.
And he died.

Gen. 5:21 And Hanok lived sixty five years.
And he fathered Metushelah himself תא.
Metushelah means man of the spear, or missile of attack.
(Traditionally this is Methuselah.)

Gen. 5:22 And Hanok himself walked with The Elohim Himself תא
after he fathered Metushelah himself תא
three hundred years.

And he fathered sons and daughters.
Gen. 5:23 And all the days of Hanok
were sixty five years and three hundred years.

Gen. 5:24 And Hanok himself walked with The Elohim Himself תא.
Then he existed no more because he himself תא was taken by The Elohim.

[This introduces a totally new experience into the history of the offspring of human beings.
Hanok was different.
He himself \(the verb is reflexive and intensive,
giving it great significance\)
walked with The Elohim Himself!
Note that this is repeated twice.](#)

[This certainly suggests he had a very close personal relationship with The Elohim, much the same as what the first human being experienced in the garden in Eden
yet under the influence of an offense.](#)

[His life span is far shorter than the others in this list.
It appears that he alone in this list of people
did not die like the others.
We note this because there is no statement
like there is with the rest, "And he died."](#)

[We do not know what took place.
We are left with mere speculation.
But the text does state that he himself
walked with The Elohim,
which it says of no other in this list.](#)

[It also states The Elohim took him
at the age of 365.
This number may be seen
as some type of "sign",
given the length of a year
as we know it after the flood.](#)

[He is "taken" prior to the judgment that comes upon the world.
That's all we know.](#)

[Note: Hanok and Eliyah are the only two men in Scripture who were taken by YAHWEH, The Elohim,
from earth as mortal men,
who did not die a natural death.
Are they to be the two witnesses in Revelation?](#)

Gen. 5:25 And Metushelah lived
eighty seven years and one hundred years.
And he fathered Lemek.
Lemek means - uncertain; strong youth; rest; teaching

Gen. 5:26 And Metushelah lived
after he fathered Lemek himself תא
eighty two years and seven hundred years.
And he fathered sons and daughters.
Gen. 5:27 And all the days of Metushelah were sixty nine years and nine hundred years.

And he died.

The longest living man recorded in scripture!

Gen. 5:28 And Lemek lived eighty two years
and one hundred years.

And he fathered a son.

Gen. 5:29 And he called his name itself נח Noah saying,
"This one will relieve us from our work and from the pain of our hands because of the soil which YAHWEH has bitterly cursed."

Note the transition in the dialogue.

Noah means relief, consolation.

The root from which it comes means rest,
and relief is similar to rest.

It's highly unlikely they had any clue
as to how that "relief" would come.

Not only were they relieved,
their toil was ended, totally.

The soil is under a bitter curse by YAHWEH
because of the rejection of His ways by human beings,
the real subject of this list of generations.

Note the reiteration of pain and effort
from the Garden of Eden, continuing the theme.

Gen. 5:30 And Lemek lived
after he fathered Noah himself נח
ninety five years and five hundred years.

And he fathered sons and daughters.

Gen. 5:31 And all the days of Lemek
were seventy seven years and seven hundred years.
And he died.

Note the similarity between the offspring of Kayin
who was banished from the face of YAHWEH, including the first Lemek mentioned in Scripture.
His vengeance was established as seventy times seven.

Now we have this Lemek who lives 777 years.
YAHWEH does nothing without a purpose.

Also note the similarity of the other names noted in Kayin's offspring.
The challenge for us is to try to comprehend
the significance of these things.

Like all the others, except Hanok, Lemek died.
And his death is connected not only to the curse upon the soil
but also, by death, to the offense of Chavvah and Adam.

Seven is the number of completion or fulness in Scripture.

Gen. 5:32 And Noah was five hundred years old.
And Noah fathered
Shem himself נח,
Ham, himself נח,
and Yepheth himself נח.

Shem means a designation of individuality,
character and authority; a name; fame.

Ham means hot.

Yepheth means expansion.

Shem, when not used as a personal name,
means the same thing as above.
But for the Hebrew it also carries the understanding of representing one's own unique character.
It does not, as is so frequently taught,
simply mean "name".

We also note yet another shift in the dialog.
The births of Shem, Ham, and Yepheth are not listed as the other births are.

First of all, there are three of them, not merely one,
through whom the blood line of Adam will continue until the birth of The Messiah.

Second, they are listed in reverse order of their birth.
Yepheth was the oldest, and Shem the youngest.

On many occasions YAHWEH reverses the normal birth order as He guides us through His plan for redemption. The first will be last, and the last will be first. This principle of Scripture appears often.

YAHWEH's ways are not man's ways.

Chapter 6

Gen. 6:1 And it was as the human beings brought defilement by increasing on the face of the soil. And daughters were born to them.

Gen. 6:2 And the divine beings saw the daughters themselves ~~nx~~ of the human beings, that they themselves were beautiful. And they took for themselves women, any whom they chose.

This event is among the most important in Scripture because it reveals to us some extremely important information - IF one examines these words very carefully.

There are several things to note. First - the term in v.1, chahal, is the same one used in Gen. 4.26, referring to defiling the Name of YAHWEH. It does not mean "began".

A careful reading of the text suggests that the increasing population caused defilement to the soil. This is very easy to comprehend. We simply need to look at our current world status. Everything has been corrupted, defiled.

Now, as daughters were being born to the human beings something very unique happened. The "sons of The Elohim", benai ha'elohim in Hebrew, saw the daughters of human beings as beautiful.

This term benai ha'elohim, is only used in Scripture to refer to a divinely created being.

Adam was such a being prior to his offense. The messengers (traditionally, 'angels') of YAHWEH are included in this category as well.

These divine beings "took for themselves women" from the daughters of human beings. They took whomever they "chose"

Now this last term is quite interesting in itself. BDB Dictionary identifies this as related to divine choice.

Scripture records the "fall" (failure) of Lucifer and one-third of the messengers in The Heaven. They were cast out of The Heaven for their rebellion. They were cast down to the earth.

These were in fact part of the benai ha'elohim. It is this specific group that must be viewed as the acting participants in this event.

They take the daughters of human beings for themselves. They "father" children with them. These offspring of the benai ha'elohim become The Nephilim (which means fallen ones), from whom the "giants" of the earth develop. These are the "mythological heroes" of ancient times - who actually became objects of worship for human beings.

Notice also that they did not take these women as "wives". That's plain foolishness. Divine beings do not marry. (Mark 12.25)

There is no concept of marriage yet given in Scripture. The only statement that is taken by many in this way is the instruction for a man to leave his parents and cling to his woman.

This defilement of the human race becomes the trigger for the deluge, The Flood of Noah.

Gen. 6:3 And YAHWEH said,
"My breath will not remain in a human being forever
inasmuch as he exists as flesh.

Now his days will be one hundred and twenty years."

Note the use of YAHWEH, The Eternally Existing One,
in contrast to the human being who will not exist forever.

The text does not say "My Spirit...".
The term is ruach. It means breath or wind.

What's being stated is simply that YAHWEH
will bring an end to human beings
at the end of 120 years
- the precise length of time it took Noah
to build the protective building in which he and all the creatures of the earth were spared from The Flood.

The later text clearly reveals to us that lifespans were not limited to 120 years after the flood,
so this is not a reference to lifespans.

Gen. 6:4 The Nephilim existed on earth
in those days,
and also after that,
when the divine beings went in to the daughters of human beings.
And they bore to these same ones
the mighty ones of old,
men of "ha-shem".

Nephilim means fallen ones, or cast out ones.
These are the "fallen divine beings".
They were large beings, "giants".
The terms are interchangeable.

Please note very carefully
that they existed on earth "in those days"
"and also after that".
They came back after the flood of Noah.

These divine beings had sexual relations with the daughters of human beings.
This is very difficult for us to conceive.
However, consider the reports of "space aliens"
who supposedly have had sexual relations with humans in our time.

Are these in fact the same beings,
revealed once again?
This is very likely!

The offspring of these unions are "hybrids".
(How many times have you been provided with that term in these days?
Things are being prepared...)

They are part human, part "divine".
And these hybrid beings existed
as the powerful males,
not human beings however,
of ancient times.
They are the "heroes" of folklore.

They are referred to as men of "ha-shem" - the name.

NOTE: Do you see this?
This is the very same term
being used by The "Jews" (Yisra'elites) today to purportedly represent YAHWEH!
It's the "replacement"
for His proper personal and eternal Name
in their Scriptures and in their prayers!

He is called "Ha-Shem", or, "Adonai", instead of using His ONLY proper personal Name, YAHWEH!

If you grasp the significance of this you recognize just how perverse this really is,
and how it is a direct violation of what's called the Third Word.
(Traditionally, commandment.)
That "Word" speaks of taking/using the Name of YAHWEH in a disrespectful manner (including replacing it with a false "name").

Gen. 6:5 And YAHWEH saw that abundant harm
of the human being was in the land, and that every form of the contrivances of his heart was only hurtful all the day.

ra - traditionally translated as evil or wickedness.
The term literally means "bad", in all its forms.
It comes from a root that means to break in pieces
or make something worthless - to do harm, damage.

We need to re-think our concepts of "evil" and "wickedness".
To help us do this the use of "harm"
or "harmfulness" is helpful.

We need to recognize that "evil"
is actually anything that causes harm or damage to others or to YAHWEH's creation
- even to His Word, His Instructions to us.

It's not only the "really terrible stuff"
that fits this category.
It's everything that harms another.

What's given above, "great harm of the human being,"
is the literal sense of the Hebrew.
Their thinking was so corrupted that every thought, every intent, every imagination was focused on harm to someone or some thing.

In the next verses we see YAHWEH's reaction to this reality.

Gen. 6:6 And YAHWEH regretted that He had made the human being himself אָדָם
upon the earth!

And it caused pain to His own heart!

Consider this - very carefully:
YAHWEH regretted
that He ever created human beings!
It caused pain to YAHWEH's 'heart'.

The term used for regretted
literally means to breathe hard, to sigh or groan.
The concept is that of sorrow or regret.

Having "personally" created the human being YAHWEH is directly responsible to Himself (if we can consider such a thing)
for creating them.

We might consider this to mean
He took it as "His fault" that He made them.
This caused Him to be grieved,
to feel pain, in His 'heart'
- which to the Hebrew person is the very center of one's being.
This is truly intense pain.
The ramifications are very far reaching.

Gen. 6:7 And YAHWEH said,
"I will wipe off the human beings themselves אָדָם
whom I have created
from upon the face of the soil,
from human being to living animals,
to crawling beings,
even to the flying things of the skies,
because I regret that I have made them."

There are several things to note.
YAHWEH is literally going to wipe off
all that lives on the face of the soil.
That which was made from the soil itself,

He will now wipe off the face of the soil.
The imagery is extremely intense.

While many translate this as "blot out"
it more literally means to wipe, as in wiping clean.
And not only the human beings,
but all the living things will be affected.

While we may wonder how Noah avoids this all we need to do is to realize he and those with him will not be upon the face of the soil as this happens.

YAHWEH's regret is restated, giving us two witnesses
to the truth of what He is saying.
It's a legal concept.
Two witnesses are required
for the death of a person for their offenses.

One may wonder why the other living creatures were also to be wiped off the soil.
It may have to do with what we see later in the worship of "idols"
made in the form of all the created things.
While there is no mention of it here
the likelihood that this was going on,
especially with the Nephilim in the land,
is extremely probable.

Gen. 6:8 But Noah attained favor
in the eyes of YAHWEH.

Noah means rest, or peacefulness.
Noah was able to attain favor from YAHWEH,
and the reasons are only discovered
in the coming verses.

Also take note of the use of "in the eyes".
This is often translated as "in the sight of".
"eyes" is the correct term to use
if one is translating this literally.

This makes an important connection to one of the most prominent themes of Scripture, that of seeing or being seen.
It is the eyes that are involved in this.
Wherever it fits the context "eyes" will be used.

Gen. 6:9 These are the generations of Noah.
Noah was a just man.
He was without fault in his age.

And The Elohim Himself נח walked with Noah.

Noah is seen by YAHWEH as special.
YAHWEH shows favor to him
like few others in Scripture.
This is based on the fact that Noah was "just",
he did what is right "in the eyes of YAHWEH."

This is what "righteousness" really means.
His actions, his whole lifestyle,
is in effect "justified" by this.
It's like saying "Noah was without offense."

The words in the text
are a bit difficult to translate accurately.
Some say "without blemish", some say "complete".
While those are close,
"without fault" is closer to the real meaning.
Consider the term "justice".
This refers to that which is "right", correct, proper - especially Scripturally, in the eyes of YAHWEH.

Also, there's a term that's sometimes translated as "generations",
the same English word used for his family structure in the first line.
Here the concept is that of "in his time".
The term literally means "a revolution of time".
Thus, it means the age in which he lived
- which was a pretty awful age
from the indications we have.

Now, the last portion of the verse in Hebrew is unusual.
It's arrangement does not suggest that "Noah walked with The Elohim.",

but instead, given its arranged order in the text,
says that "The Elohim Himself walked with Noah."

This reversal of the typical order is very significant,
given the context.

Noah, alone, is seen as "just".
He alone has attained favor in the eyes of YAHWEH.
In the midst of an apparently extremely perverse culture
Noah stands out from all the rest.

It makes sense, then, to have the text state the reverse of what we normally expect to find.
The Elohim walked with Noah
- because he was apparently the only one
The Elohim found worthy of His presence.
Even the emphasis of the aleph-tav in the text points this direction.

Noah is placed in parallel with Iyowb (Job) and Dani'el in Scripture
as ones in whom The Elohim found "justness".

Gen. 6:10 And Noah fathered three sons,
Shem himself תנ,
Ham himself תנ,
and Yepheth himself תנ.

Gen. 6:11 And the earth was corrupted
before the face of The Elohim.
And the earth was filled with violence.

shachath means to decay,
to become spoiled or ruined; corrupted.

"Corruption" is used of a dead body.
In its state of corruption, decay, it is "defiled".
Although the word used for "defilement"
is not used here that is certainly what is implied by the corruption.

Defilement is another primary theme of Scripture.
Nothing defiled is permitted to remain
in YAHWEH's presence.
Only that which is undefiled is allowed.

Noah is just.
He is undefiled.
He is therefore permitted to stand
before the face of The Elohim.

The earth is defiled by its corruption.
It's not localized corruption, it's total corruption.
The earth is filled with violence.

This should be a warning to us!
We are witnessing the exact same thing
in our own "age".

Gen. 6:12 And The Elohim observed the earth itself תנ.
And behold, it was corrupted
because all flesh had corrupted
its own way itself תנ upon the earth.

There's special emphasis here to call attention to the extent of the corruption that had taken place.

"And behold!" is always emphatic
and always tells us to pay very careful attention.

All flesh - every form of living being
- had corrupted its own way upon the earth.
Even the animals had become perverted,
leading even to their destruction.

Gen. 6:13 And The Elohim said to Noah,
"Termination of all flesh is coming before My face
because the earth is filled with violence
amidst their faces.
And behold!
I will cause them to be corrupted
with the earth itself תנ."

The Elohim, The Creator Himself,
now speaks directly to Noah.
He tells Him what is going to happen.

Notice the play on words
that's even evident in the English.

All flesh has corrupted the earth
so I'm going to corrupt them.
And, "before My face" vs "among their faces."
The English is awkward,
but it's important to see this context.

The primary theme of "face" needs to be kept before us.
It means being in one's presence.
The Hebraic "flavor" of the text is essential to YAHWEH's purposes.

All flesh and all the soil,
the entire earth itself,
is going to be corrupted, defiled.
And then it will be cleansed - undefiled.

Gen. 6:14 "Make yourself a container of gopher trees!
Make nesting places for the container itself תא
and cover it itself תא
from within and from without with a covering!

Special Note:

This verse is filled with very special meanings.
Please take time to think about this very seriously.
The terms used are extremely important,
both in terms of what's taking place
and in terms of its prophetic meaning.
(Noah is noted in Scripture as a prophet.)
Everything in the verse is in the imperative form, making all these statements emphatic.
The terms have significant hidden meanings
that are connected to the rest of Scripture.
These meanings are only discovered
by studying the rest of Scripture.
What's before us is not only the actual facts
but also the symbolic meaning of those facts, foreshadowing the future.

Noah is to make a container.
This is NOT a boat.
It's literally a box or chest.
It's thought that the word comes from a Mitsraite (Egyptian) word used for a "coffin".

He's to make it of gopher trees.
This is an unknown species,
though it's thought to be cypress trees.

The reference to "tree" is crucial.
It is "upon" 'the tree' that Noah and his family will be lifted up, like The Messiah, bringing deliverance to them from certain destruction,
also like The Messiah.
It's a 'picture', a foreshadowing, of the torture stake.

Noah is to make "nesting places" inside.
A nesting place is a place of rest, comfort,
protection, and provision.
Future "nesting places" are being prepared by the Risen Messiah in His Father's House for those who are trusting in His deliverance.

This same imagery is involved in the wedding preparations of the Hebrews later in history.

Noah is to cover the container
inside and outside with a covering.
This concept involves a hidden message
that's only seen when you study the Hebrew words used.

There's another container in Scripture with which most are all familiar.
The term used is the same one used here.
It's traditionally been called "The Ark of The Covenant".
However, this is not correct.
Its proper designation is "The Chest of The Testimony".
It is not an "ark", which implies some type of boat.

It is a container, a box or a chest.
And what was placed inside
is more properly called "The Testimony"
based on the Hebrew terms used.

That container (Chest) was made of acacia wood, a tree.
This container is made of trees.
That container was covered within and without with pure gold.
This one is also covered within and without.
Noah is to cover it - from within, and from without,
with pitch (bitumen).
But what you don't see
is the meaning of the term "cover".
It is kopher.
(Note the word play with gofer.)

It's simple meaning is a cover.
But it's figurative meaning is a redemption price, a ransom.

It's the same root word as that used for "covering one's offenses", kaphar,
by means of a sacrificial offering.
It means to make atonement.

Remember, the land is corrupted
by offenses and violence.
It is defiled!
An Offense defiles us!
The wood in this instance
is to be completely covered,
thereby covering its own "corruption",
and atoning for its "corruptness".
The torture stake was "covered"
with the blood of The Messiah.

As He was "lifted up",
so will Noah and his family be "lifted up"
- by the "cleansing flow",
there of The blood of The Messiah,
and here by the flood of waters,
all defilement will be eliminated.

The connection to The Messiah is unmistakable!
PRAISE YAHWEH!

Gen. 6:15 And this is how you are to make it itself תא.
Three hundred cubits is the length of the container,
fifty cubits its breadth
and thirty cubits its height.

Gen. 6:16 Make a skylight for the container
and complete it to a cubit above.
And the entrance for the container
place in its side.
Make it with lower, second, and third levels.

Gen. 6:17 And behold!
I Myself am bringing the flood waters themselves תא over the land, destroying all flesh
in which exists a breath of life
from under the skies.
All that is on the land will breathe out.

This verse brings the first use of the intensive pronoun, "I Myself".
It's a very emphatic form.
It declares explicitly
that this is the will of YAHWEH Himself.

He is bringing, in His own time, the flood waters.
He's preparing Noah for an event that is yet to happen.
He has now given him instructions
on what he is to do to prepare for it.

The flood waters will destroy all life
in which exists a breath of life.
The term used is ruach.

A different term is used to say "breathe out".

That term is normally translated as "die",
and that is indeed what it means,
but the connection to the breath of life is important here.
The connection needs to be made between these two terms, yet most translations fail to do so.
All that is on the land will end up dead.
What's not on the land will not die.
This includes the living creatures in the sea.
They are not listed with the other things that will die,
nor is provision made for them within the container.

Gen. 6:18 And I am establishing My covenant itself נח
with you yourself נח.

And you are to go into the container,
you,
and your sons,
and your woman,
and your sons' women,
you yourself נח.

This is the first covenant in Scripture.
It's a covenant of promise,
just like the later covenant with Abraham will be.

YAHWEH is the One Who establishes it.
In the mind of a Hebrew it's an act already completed simply because YAHWEH's Word has been spoken concerning it.
It is guaranteed!

Notice the emphasis.
This is My personal covenant
- with you personally (twice).
Specific, emphatic.

They are not to "come into the container".
YAHWEH is not standing inside inviting them in.
It hasn't been built yet.
They are to go into this container,
when it's completed,
and at the time YAHWEH indicates to them.
This is not a typical Scriptural covenant.
There's no "cutting the covenant" as is normally done.
This one requires no specific action on Noah's part.
This is a one sided covenant,
established by YAHWEH Himself.
It depends only upon YAHWEH.

We might consider it more properly to be a promise,
given in the form of a covenant, or contract,
which is backed by The Word of YAHWEH Himself.

Gen. 6:19 And from everything alive,
from all flesh,
two from each you are to cause
to come into the container to keep alive,
you yourself נח.

Male and female they are to be.
Gen. 6:20 From the flying things
according to their species,
and from the animals
according to their species,
and from all crawling things of the land
according to their species,
two from each are to come to you
in order to live.

Gen. 6:21 And you yourself נח,
take for yourself
from all edible things which are eaten
and gather it to yourself.
And it will be for you and for them for food.

Gen. 6:22 And Noah did according to everything that was given as directions to he himself נח by The Elohim.
Thus he did.

This closing verse reveals that Noah followed faithfully

The Word of YAHWEH.
He did as he was instructed.
This is not insignificant
in the light of the "corruption of creation and the violence" which exists all around him.
He's not acting "like one of the crowd."

In this he is an excellent example for us.
Our focus is to be on the things of YAHWEH,
things above, not on the things of the earth.
Noah did these things willingly,
with no compulsion on YAHWEH's part.

Chapter 7

Gen. 7:1 And YAHWEH said to Noah,
"Go, you yourself תָּא, and all your household,
into the container
because you yourself תָּא
I have seen as just before My face
within this very age!

The time has arrived.
YAHWEH directs Noah to enter the container.
Once again he is identified as "just"
before the face of YAHWEH.
The emphasis points to Noah alone
as a just person in his generation.

Gen. 7:2 From all the animals, the undefiled ones,
take to yourself seven,
seven males and his female,
and from the defiled two,
a male and his female,

Gen. 7:3 also from the flying things of the skies
seven, seven, male and female,
to live as seed upon the face of all the soil,

Much has been debated over the meaning of these verses.
However, there are things we simply don't know about this situation.
From appearances, and from later teachings in Scripture,
we sense that there is indeed an understanding of defiled and undefiled in the mind of Noah.
The terms used here
are the same ones used later
for the "clean and unclean" animals in their relation to the sacrifices offered to YAHWEH.

While we don't know how,
it appears Noah understood these things.
Clean and unclean,
from the strictly Scriptural point of view absolutely means defiled or undefiled.

We could greatly clarify the teachings of Scripture
by using these terms consistently in every place where being or becoming defiled is at the heart of the issue.
An attempt will be made in this work to do so,
thereby removing much misunderstanding about these matters.

Note the continuing repetition of seed, face, soil, etc.
These are extremely important themes of Scripture.

Gen. 7:4 because in seven more days
I Myself am causing rain upon the land,
forty days and forty nights.

And I will wipe all the substance itself תָּא
that I have made from off the face of the soil."

YAHWEH proclaims He is now ready to act.
He declares He will now wipe off from the face of the soil
all of the "substance" He has made
- every last part of it.

He had already told Noah what's coming.
But we need to recognize this new statement comes after 120 years of preparation working on this container.
It was a very long time from its first announcement.

YAHWEH tells Noah what to expect - precisely!

This is typical of YAHWEH's ways with His people. He provides precise details and advance warning so that those who are faithfully walking with Him are not unaware of what He's doing (1Thess 5.4).

When The Messiah was revealed in Yerushalaim, on what we refer to as Palm Sunday, it was seven days before the Resurrection.

In the Book of Revelation

YAHWEH gives Yisra'el seven years, warning that the final judgment is coming.

YAHWEH does not want us to be in darkness concerning the things that are important to Him.

And just like in the days of Noah,

YAHWEH will cleanse the entire earth of its corruption, the next time with FIRE!

Gen. 7:5 And Noah did according to everything that YAHWEH had instructed him.

Instant action,
based on what YAHWEH spoke to him.
Noah precedes Abraham in this regard.
We forget.

His faith (trust) in YAHWEH
was every bit as great as that of Abraham.
He acted willingly, and faithfully
in response to YAHWEH's instruction.

tsavah means to enjoin, to charge; urge.
But it does not mean to "command/demand".
We must get this right!

Without the freedom to choose

there is no "faith",

there is no "belief",

there is no "trust".

There is only robotic obedience!

That was never part of YAHWEH's plan for the human being.

Gen. 7:6 And Noah was six hundred years old.
And the flood waters existed upon the earth.

Gen. 7:7 And Noah went,

he himself נח,

and his sons,

and his woman,

and his sons' women,

into the container,

away from the face of the waters, the flood.

Gen. 7:8 From the undefiled animals
and from the animals which are defiled,
and from the flying things,
and from all that crawls upon the soil,

Gen. 7:9 two, two came to Noah, to the container,
male and female,

exactly as The Elohim

had instructed Noah himself נח.

Gen. 7:10 And it was after the seven days.

And the waters of the flood existed upon the earth.

Gen. 7:11 In the year, the six hundredth year

according to Noah's life,

in the second month,

on the seventeenth day of the month,

on that very same day

all the springs of the deep burst open and the floodgates of the skies were opened.

It's particularly interesting to note the precision with which YAHWEH records the timing of the events in this story.

This is the exact day Noah entered the container

and the flood began.
It establishes a chronology that's precise.
It allows us to connect this day
with other days that are also specific.

This also makes the 10th day of the second month
the precise day on which YAHWEH told Noah
the flood was about to happen (Gen 7.4)
There's a significance about this date
that is rather remarkable when compared to Passover.
The Passover Lamb was selected
on the 10th day of the first month,
it was killed on the 14th day of the first month,
and The Messiah was resurrected
on the 17th day of the first month.
In the case of Passover
it's identified as the first month of the year,
however, and not the second.

However, there was a special provision given for a "Second Passover" in the Second Month.
Passover is all about deliverance from judgment.
The celebration of Passover was permitted
in the Second Month - if you were defiled!
And we know the whole earth was defiled in Noah's day!

Gen. 7:12 And the rain existed upon the land
forty days and forty nights.

Gen. 7:13 On the very same day Noah went in,
and Shem, and Ham, and Yepheth, sons of Noah,
and Noah's woman,
and the three women of Noah's sons,
they themselves nx, went into the container,

Gen. 7:14 they and all the living beings
according to their species,
and all the animals according to their species,
and all the crawling things that crawl upon the land
according to their species, and all the flying things
according to their species, all winged beings.

Gen. 7:15 And they went to Noah, into the container,
two, two from all the flesh
in which exists the breath of life.

Gen. 7:16 And the ones going in, male and female of all flesh, went in just as The Elohim had instructed he himself nx.

And YAHWEH closed it up behind them.

Once again we see the direct action of YAHWEH, The Elohim, Himself.
He gave the instructions.
Noah followed them.
Then He "personally" closed the container behind them.

Gen. 7:17 And the flood existed
forty days upon the earth.
And the waters increased.
And they lifted up the container itself nx.

And it was high above the earth.
Gen. 7:18 And the waters were mighty.
And they increased greatly upon the earth.
And the container moved
upon the face of the waters.

Gen. 7:19 And the waters were mighty exceedingly,
exceedingly upon the land.

And they covered all the mountains,
the high mountains
which were under all the skies,
Gen. 7:20 fifteen cubits above them
were the mighty waters.
And they covered the mountains.

Gen. 7:21 And all flesh breathed out,
that which was moving upon the earth,
among flying things,
and among animals,

and among living beings,
and among all the swarming things
that crawl upon the ground,
and all the human beings.

Gen. 7:22 Everything in which the breath of life was in their nostrils
among everything that existed upon dry ground died.

Notice once again the use of "breath of life"
and "breathed out" (as the expression for 'expired'),
and then the use of died here in v.22.

Everything died that was on dry land.
But this leaves out the water creatures.
This is something that is often ignored
by scholars and Scripture teachers alike.

There is an apparent exception for the water creatures.
We don't know why this exception was granted.
We might speculate that it was because they had not yet been corrupted
like the rest of the creatures.
But we really don't know this for sure.
What we do know is that death
is the result of an offense.

Gen. 7:23 And He wiped away
all the substance itself נא
which was on the face of the soil,
from human being to living animal,
to crawling things,
and to flying things of the skies.
And they were wiped away from the earth.

And only Noah remained
and that itself נא which was in the container.

Gen. 7:24 And the waters were mighty upon the earth
fifty and one hundred days.

It's astonishing to consider this event,
even from our distant position.
We have no comprehension what this was like.
Only Noah and his family
ever saw the results of this act.
And only YAHWEH Himself
understood the total extent of the devastation.

There's another similar event foretold in prophecy.
It will be different, however,
for it will include the creatures of the waters as well.
And next time it will be "fire" (whatever that really signifies)
that will be used to undefile, purify, this earth.

There are those who claim stories such as these within The Word of YAHWEH are "myths", "fables", created to provide at least some way to understand our world.
However, if this event did not happen
then YAHWEH is a liar,
and the entire rest of Scripture is worthless.

No one who seeks to know the heart of YAHWEH
wants to (or should) believe a lie.
No one who is earnestly seeking Truth wants to be given a bunch of nonsensical stories, fables, myths, etc.
If you're seeking Truth then you want Truth.
If you are seeking a foundation for your life,
something to believe in,
you want The Truth
- not lies, theories, conjectures, and speculations.

Either YAHWEH speaks The Truth,
or He does not speak The Truth.
If He does not speak The Truth He lies.
His own word, Scripture,
proclaims that YAHWEH does not lie!
Indeed, He can not lie (Titus 1.2)
because it's contrary to His very essence, His nature.

The "Shining One" in The Garden is The Liar.

Chapter 8

Gen. 8:1 And The Elohim took note

of Noah himself אָנְכֶם

and all the living beings themselves אֲנֵיהֶם

and all the animals themselves אֲנֵיהֶם,

they themselves אֲנֵיהֶם that were in the container.

And The Elohim caused a wind

to pass over the land.

And the waters decreased.

The term used for "take note of" is זָכַר.

It means to mark, to take note of.

With the use of four emphatic pronouns

this needs to be considered as most significant.

The Elohim did not "forget"

about Noah and His created beings.

YAHWEH does not forget about what He creates.

Thus, to translate this as "remembered" is misleading.

The wiping off of all life

from the face of the soil is now complete.

It's under these circumstances that YAHWEH

now takes special note

of every living thing within the container.

They are His "seed stock" for re-populating the land.

abar is the term used for "pass over".

In BDB it's primary meaning is "pass over".

In Strong's it is "cross over".

More significantly, the root for this word

is the same as the root for the word "Hebrew", meaning one who "passed over or crossed over".

The root is eber.

What's very important to recognize

is the concept of "pass over".

With all the word plays in the Hebrew text

this becomes an instant connection to The Passover

which is yet a great many years in the future,

and is the foreshadowing of the coming redemption

by YAHWEH's promised The Messiah

Add to that the use of ruach.

The term means wind, breath.

It's used to refer to "the breath of man",

the 'wind' that flows in and out of a person.

In Hebrew thought this is their "nature" or essence.

Ruach is often incorrectly translated as 'spirit'.

This cannot be correct because 'spirit' is a Greek term,

not a Hebrew term.

The Hebrews had no concept of "spirit" in their culture.

If you used its typical "translation" as 'spirit' here

you'd have The Elohim causing a 'spirit'

to pass over the land,

thereby causing the waters to decrease.

That's not how waters decrease.

But they most certainly do by means of a wind.

The Elohim is drying the land.

Gen. 8:2 And the springs of the deep and the floodgates of the skies were shut.

And the rain from the skies was restrained.

Gen. 8:3 And the waters were turned back from over the land,

going, even turning back.

And the waters were diminishing

from the end of fifty and a hundred days.

Gen. 8:4 And the container settled down

in the seventh month,

on the seventeenth day of the month,

upon the mountains of Ararat.

It you think in terms of YAHWEH's appointed times,

this day would fall during the Feast of Sukkot (Tabernacles)

- temporary dwelling places.

Gen. 8:5 And the waters were going and were diminishing

until the tenth month.
In the tenth month,
on the first day of the month,
the tops of the mountains were seen.

ra'ah is the word translated as 'seen'.
This is the proper translation of the term.
It means "to see".
It's among the most important words of Scripture.
It's used extensively.
However, it's often translated with other terms,
including "appeared".
That's a common translation used in this verse,
and it does carry a similar connotation.
But this term is also used in many passages where YAHWEH or one of His messengers
"is seen" by (appears to) someone.

A more consistent use of "seen" is important.
It maintains the key linkage provided in the text to the concept of seeing,
whether it is YAHWEH Who is seeing,
or Who is seen by another, or it is what we "see".

The implications of "seeing" are many
- perception, recognition, contemplation, observation, etc.
These are all considered (seen)
to be different forms of "seeing".
Even The Old Covenant Prophets
at one time were called seers, ones who see.

Gen. 8:6 And it was after the end of forty days.
And Noah opened the skylight itself נא
of the container which he had made.
Gen. 8:7 And he sent out the raven itself נא.
And it went out, going out and returning,
until the waters had dried up from over the land.

Gen. 8:8 And he sent out the dove itself נא
from he himself נא
to see if the waters were diminished from over the face of the soil.

The raven, being carnivorous, would indicate
if the land was contaminated with decaying matter.
It went back and forth until the waters had diminished
because it did not find food.
Noah knew by this that it was not yet
time to leave the container.

Then he sent the dove,
which does not eat flesh,
to see if it would find food for itself.

Also note the subtle shift from "the land" in v. 7
to "the soil" in v. 8,
along with the use of "face" once more.

Gen. 8:9 But the dove did not find a resting place for the sole of her foot.
And she came back to him, to the container,
because the water was over the face of all the land.
And he put out his hand.
And he took her.
And he caused her to come in,
she herself נא, to himself,
into the container.

Observe the personalized action here,
specifically emphasized in the text.
Noah personally sent her out and personally took her back inside
- to himself.
He apparently had developed a close relationship with this dove.
Was she a "pet"?

Gen. 8:10 And he waited until seven days later.
And again he sent out the dove itself נא
from the container.
Gen. 8:11 And the dove came to him
at the time of the evening.
And behold!

An olive leaf, freshly plucked off, was in her mouth.
And Noah knew that the waters had receded
from upon the land.

Gen. 8:12 And he waited seven more days after that.
And he sent out the dove itself תא.
But she did not return to him again any more.

Gen. 8:13 And it was in the six hundred and first year,
in the first month,
on the first of the month.
The waters were dried up from over the land.
And Noah removed
the covering itself תא of the container.
And he looked.
And behold!
The face of the soil was dry.
Gen. 8:14 And in the second month,
on the twenty seventh day of the month
the land was dried up.

Gen. 8:15 And The Elohim spoke to Noah saying, Gen. 8:16 "Go out of the container,
you yourself תא,
and your woman,
and your sons,
and your sons' women,
you yourself תא.

Gen. 8:17 All living things which are with you yourself תא,
from among all flesh, among flying things, among animals
and among all the crawling things
that crawl upon the ground,
bring them out, you yourself תא!
And they are to swarm upon the earth.
And they are to bear fruit.
And they are to increase upon the land."
Now we see The Elohim direct Noah to bring out all that has been in the container with him.
They are to fill the land, replenish it.

Note, this is only upon the land,
and not in the waters.
This has been specific
since the start of the flood.
What's in the waters
was apparently not affected by the flood.

Gen. 8:18 And Noah went out,
also his sons,
also his woman,
also his sons' women,
he himself תא.

Gen. 8:19 All the living animals,
all the crawling things,
and all the flying things,
all that moves upon the land
according to their families
went out from the container.
Note the first use of the term "families" here.
These creatures had reproduced
during the time they were in the container.
They already had "families".
This is very noteworthy.
Because of the way most translations are done
this distinction is often missed.

Gen. 8:20 And Noah built a slaughter site to YAHWEH.
And he took from every undefiled animal
and from every undefiled flying thing.
And he caused an olah
to ascend upon the slaughter site.
The first thing Noah does when he comes out

is to build a slaughter site to YAHWEH.
This is the first slaughter site identified in Scripture.

It was not likely the first one built, however,
since Kayin and Hebel presented portions to YAHWEH also,
and many believe that act
was the beginning of the "sacrificial system"
that was later developed in Yisra'el.

However, their offerings are identified
by the term minchah,
not by 'olah, which is used here.

The traditional translations use 'altar'.
But what is an altar?
It's not merely a memorial structure.
An altar is a place of sacrifice,
literally a place of slaughter.
The animals are killed and butchered right there
as they are prepared to be offered up.

For this reason we have chosen to use "slaughter site" to remind us that this was a place where blood was shed, which then served as a "covering"
for one's offenses.

That brings us to the terms used.
The first is 'alah. It means to ascend.

The second is virtually identical except for the vowel pointings. It is 'olah.
'olah means a step, an ascent, that which goes up.

Olah is traditionally translated as "burnt offering".
But this idea comes from the practice
of burning the complete offering presented,
causing it to 'go up' in smoke.
This is not contained within the meaning of the word used.

In actual practice it's a consecration offering,
an offering of complete surrender.
It was used to make atonement for one's offenses.

In many ways it's unfortunate
that this has been taught as a burnt offering
because it represents far more.
Everything is consumed.
It represents committing everything to YAHWEH.

This leads to the next question.
What is an "offering"?
It is defined as an act of worship,
or as an act of telling another you will do something.
Clearly here it represents an act of worship.

This slaughter site and this "offering"
signify that Noah understood there is no deliverance
without the shedding of blood.
Also, there is no true worship of YAHWEH
without this recognition.

We now face the question of how Noah knew enough to take this action.
Scripture does not tell us.
We simply do not know
how Noah understood these things.
We can only assume YAHWEH taught them to him,
even prior to the flood.
Then the reference to the undefiled
and defiled animals would make sense.
Noah would understand the differences,
and their purposes in worship.
In this account we are not given this information.
It's simply not necessary for the telling of the story.
YAHWEH will provide more detail later.

Gen. 8:21 And YAHWEH smelled
the pleasing odor itself תא.
And YAHWEH said in His heart,
"I will not add the bitter curse again to the soil itself תא on account of the human being,
because the formation of the heart of a human being is harmful from his youth.

And I will not add any more the striking of all living things themselves אַתָּא
as I have done.

YAHWEH smelled
the pleasing aroma of the sacrifice.
Why is it pleasing?
Because it represents total submission to YAHWEH
of everything offered up.

Such an offering touches
the very "heart" of YAHWEH Himself.
It comes as part of a sacrifice
- which involves the shedding of blood.

The blood acts as a covering for the offense (its guilt).
That covering enables YAHWEH
to "pass over" the offense debt owed to Him for our rebellion.
Since it is "covered" it is no longer "seen".
It is considered to be non-existent.

Implied by the text
is the importance of accountability before YAHWEH.

There are two very special "promises"
given in this one verse.
They both involve YAHWEH's decision, and the promise to not duplicate (add to)
what's just been done.
He states He will not do these things "again".
His spoken Word is absolutely reliable!

Note, He does not remove the existing curse on the soil.
He only promises not to add to it again
any additional cursing of it.
He also promises not to strike
all living things as He has just done.
This is most reassuring,
because it provides for the redemption
of at least a "remnant",
a portion, of all living things.

Gen. 8:22 As long as all the days of the earth,
seedtime and harvest,
and cold and heat,
and winter and summer,
and day and night
will not rest."

shabath - rest.
This is the very same term used
in relation to the seventh day of Creation.
These things will not "rest"
as long as there are still days of the earth left.
Yet there will come a time
when even those days will end.

Chapter 9

Gen. 9:1 And The Elohim blessed Noah himself אַתָּא
and his sons themselves אַתָּא.

And He said to them,
"Bear fruit
and increase
and fill the land itself אַתָּא.

This is similar to the earlier blessing of Adam and Chavvah,
but it lacks the instruction to subdue the land.
Also, it does not include the women.
This is after the offense of Chavvah,
which drastically changed the role of the woman.
She is now subject to the dominion of her man.
You may not like this,
but it is YAHWEH's choice, not yours.

Gen. 9:2 And awe of you and terror of you will exist upon all living things of the land,
on all the flying things of the skies,
on all that crawls on the soil,
and on all the fish of the sea.
Into your hand they have been given.

There's new instruction given concerning the relationship between the human beings and the other created beings.
The human is now granted authority,
and responsibility, over all of them,
this time including even the fish of the sea.

It needs to be noted that the hand represents both one's authority and one's responsibility.
With the hand one cares for and/or directs the lives within it's sphere of authority.

With this gift of authority,
given by YAHWEH Himself,
comes the institution of respect and terror
within the other created beings.
This also is a dramatic change from the initial blessing.

Gen. 9:3 Every crawling thing which itself has life will exist as food for you just like the green plants.
I have given to you
all of these selfsame things וְכָל.

Even the diet for humans is now changed.
Instead of eating only from the soil,
which was under a bitter curse
involving heavy toil and pain,
they may now eat from the animals as well.
This is a major change.

With all living things
under the authority, and care, of humans
they will now be charged with some additional responsibilities.
These new instructions most certainly come from YAHWEH's response to the previous corruption and violence that covered the land.

We really do not comprehend
what all those things involved.
We simply do not have enough information to help us do that.
That it was significant enough for YAHWEH
to change His instructions to the humans is enough to tell us something major needed to be changed.

Gen. 9:4 However, flesh with breath,
its blood you are not to eat!

This is extremely important!
It's in the imperative mood.
It's a strong directive!
Further, it includes a term
that's absolutely essential to understand if you're going to recognize what YAHWEH teaches concerning one's "existence".

The term is nephesh.
It means a breathing creature which has vitality in it.

It represents existence itself
as identified with the first human being.
The Elohim breathed into his nostrils
"the breath of life"...

It does not represent one's "soul",
which is a Greek corruption of a Hebrew concept.

Life itself is found within the blood.
Scripture declares that the blood is the life.
It is precious to YAHWEH.
Indeed, it's sacred to Him.
It is not to be eaten (consumed).
That includes drinking it,
as is done in many pagan ceremonies.
The following verses
lay out more instructions concerning the blood.

Gen. 9:5 And surely your blood itself וְכָל
for your lives I will seek.
From the hand of every living being I will seek it.
And from the hand of a human being,
from the hand of every man's fellow man,
I will seek the life itself וְכָל of the human being.

The emphasis in this verse is dramatic.
The concept of restatement for emphasis is clear.
This is a point YAHWEH does not want us to miss.

The Hebrew term for 'seek' is used for the first time.
It implies a diligent seeking.
It implies discovering what took place,
and then, holding one accountable for the blood.

It's very clear that YAHWEH
will not treat lightly the shedding of blood.
The entire balance of Scripture confirms this truth.
There are few things presented that are so important to Him.

We can understand this better
if we take time to think about the concept of substitutionary atonement, fulfilled in The Messiah.

As you go through life
there are many ways you could violate this instruction
to abstain from eating or taking the blood of another.

No matter who you are,
no matter where you live,
no matter how good your life has been,
you are at the very least responsible for the shedding of the blood of YAHUSHUA of Nazareth, The Messiah.

His precious blood was allowed to flow in order to provide forgiveness,
covering, for your offense debt,
a substitutionary atonement
for every instruction and desire of YAHWEH
that you have violated.
If in no other way than this you've violated this instruction
you are still guilty,
and you will still be required to give an accounting to Him for your contribution to the shedding of The Messiah's precious blood.

Gen. 9:6 Whoever spills forth blood of a human being,
by a human being
his blood is to be spilled forth, because in the image of The Elohim
he was made,
the human being himself אָדָם.

This is very definitive.
YAHWEH leaves no room for doubt as to what is to be done
when one human being spills forth
the blood of another human being.

His own blood is to be spilled forth.
He is to die!
(The life, the existence, is in the blood itself.)
And he is to die at the hand of another human being.

No one is to allow the blood of another human to be spilled forth without acting to put to death
the one who did it.

Gen. 9:7 And you yourselves אָדָם,
bear fruit and increase!
Swarm in the land and increase in it!"

Gen. 9:8 And The Elohim spoke to Noah
and to his sons,
to he himself אָדָם saying,

Gen. 9:9 "And I Myself, behold!

I am establishing My covenant itself אָדָם
with you yourselves אָדָם

and with your seed itself אָדָם after you,

Gen. 9:10 and with every living being itself אָדָם
which is with you yourself אָדָם,

of flying things,
of animals,
and of every living thing of the land,
you yourselves תַּא,
among all that are going out of the container,
for the sake of every living thing of the land.

The powerful emphasis placed in v. 9 and v. 10 is dramatic.
There are few other passages in which this type of emphasis is placed,
and rightly so.

This is among the most important concepts in Scripture!

It's directly connected to the account of the flood.

All except eight people
have just been obliterated from the planet.
Now YAHWEH declares that He Himself is "personally" establishing His own covenant
- it's done entirely by Him.

The term is briyth (ber-eet).
It means an agreement, treaty, or covenant.
It's almost always translated as "covenant" in the KJV Bible.

In reality, we should consider this as a promise,
not a "covenant" in the traditional sense.
Noah and his seed are merely the recipients of this covenant.
And not only them, but also every living thing
on the entire earth after them receives it.
There is nothing required by them as part of this "covenant".
Therefore it is not really a "covenant".

It certainly is an agreement, a one-sided one.
That makes it a promise.

Since The Old Covenant, and all of Scripture, deals with covenants as a major theme an exception will be made here
to permit this to be called a covenant.
It's not technically correct, but it is well understood as such.

Most importantly,
it's guaranteed by YAHWEH Himself!
You simply cannot get anything better than this.

Gen. 9:11 Even I am establishing My covenant itself תַּא
with you yourselves תַּא.

And I will not cut off all flesh again
with the waters of a flood.
And there will not exist again
a flood to destroy the earth."

The promises are made guaranteeing that no flood will be used again
to destroy the whole land, nor will all flesh be cut off
by means of a flood.

YAHWEH has spoken.
It will be done in this manner.
He never speaks
without performing what He says He will do.

karat is used here for the first time.
It means to cut off, cut down, or cut asunder.
It's the very same term used
in relation to The Messiah,
Who is Himself "cut off", destroyed,
by His own people.

Gen. 9:12 And The Elohim said,
"This is the sign of the covenant
which I Myself am placing between Me and you
and among all living beings
which are with you yourselves תַּא
for perpetual generations.

Gen. 9:13 My bow itself תַּא I have placed in the cloud.
And it will exist for a sign of the covenant
between Me and the earth.

Gen. 9:14 And it will exist amidst My bringing a cloud over the land.

And the bow will be seen in the cloud.
Gen. 9:15 And I will take note of My covenant itself נח which is between Me and you and every living being,
with all flesh.

And there will not exist any more
the waters of the flood to corrupt all flesh.

Gen. 9:16 And the bow will exist in the cloud.
And I will see it,
taking note of the perpetual covenant
between The Elohim and every living being,
with all flesh which is upon the earth.”

Gen. 9:17 And The Elohim said to Noah,
“This is the sign of the covenant
which I have established between Me and all flesh which is on the earth.”
*We often miss the most important aspect of the bow.
Yes, it causes us to remember YAHWEH's promise,
as it should.
But it also is there to cause Him
to consider the promises involved.
He will take note of it every time the bow is seen!*

Gen. 9:18 And the sons of Noah going out of the container were Shem and Ham and Yepheth.

And Ham himself was the forefather of Kena'an.
*Kena'an means humiliated. (Canaan)
Ham is the source of the Kena'anites that later are found in the area
Yisra'el conquers (humiliates).*

*Noah's sons are once again named,
in the same order in which they occurred previously,
with the youngest listed first and the eldest last.*

Gen. 9:19 These three were the sons of Noah.
And from these people were dispersed over all the earth.
*The concept of dispersion runs throughout Scripture.
The reasons for it vary,
but the reality of it does not.*

YAHWEH has His own approach to getting people where He wants them

*Note the obvious editorial notes in these two verses.
They are clearly notations added to the text to explain things that did not occur until many years later.*

Gen. 9:20 And Noah began, a man of the soil.
And he planted a vineyard.
Gen. 9:21 And he drank from the wine.
And he was drunk.
And he uncovered himself
in the midst of his tent.

*This is a disconcerting event.
Having been seen by YAHWEH
as one who did what was right in His eyes,
Noah now makes a big error in judgment.*

*It's not evident in the text overtly.
The concept of uncovering himself
means he was naked.
It's also a Hebraism for having sexual activity.
It appears the full story has been edited.
This is particularly noted
through whom he ends up cursing.*

Gen. 9:22 And Ham, the father of Kena'an, saw the nakedness itself נח of his father.
And he declared it
to his two brothers on the outside.
nagad is the term used for "declared".

This is a strong verb.
It's not used for casual things.
It presents Kena'an as virtually shouting,
exclaiming this to his brothers.

The sense of the text and its context suggest there was far more than an awkward casual glance.
Some even suggest he molested his own father.
However, it appears more likely that it was actually Kena'an who did so.

Gen. 9:23 And Shem and Yepheth took the garment itself תא.
And they put it on the shoulders of both of them.
And they walked backwards.
And they covered
the nakedness itself תא of their father.
But their faces were backward.
And the nakedness of their father they did not see.

The text reads literally as it's given here.
Apparently Ham had brought his father's garment
out of the tent with him.
Shem and Yepheth took this garment back to their father in the manner described.
Their action was the appropriate way
to deal with their father's nakedness.

Gen. 9:24 And Noah awoke from his wine.
And he knew what itself תא
his (Kena'an's) young son had done to him.

The text is explicit.
Noah was keenly aware what had happened.
This, also, suggests it was more than "looking" at him,
otherwise why does it say "had done to him".

Also, the term for 'son' can also mean grandson.
Verse 25 suggests this is more likely.
The positioning of the aleph-tav sign תא
in this instance appears to apply to the whole phrase.
For this reason it's awkward to try to use
a reference to "selfsameness".
It does reflect the emphasis intended however.

Gen. 9:25 And he said, "Cursed is Kena'an.
A servant of servants he will be to his brothers."

Here it is Kena'an who is cursed by Noah, not Ham.
Is this due to a mis-translation of the original text?
Was it perhaps Kena'an
who was guilty all along, and not Ham?
If that's what really happened
then the cursing of Kena'an makes sense.
Otherwise, it does not.

It's a principle of Scripture
that a child is not responsible for a parent's offenses, nor is a parent responsible for a child's offenses.
Each one is responsible for their own offenses.
Since this is consistent throughout Scripture
it makes little sense to have Kena'an cursed by Noah
if he was not the guilty party.
Further, Kena'an is the youngest of Ham's children,
not his firstborn.
So why would he be singled out rather than Ham?

Gen. 9:26 And he said,
"Blessed be YAHWEH, The Elohim of Shem.
And let Kena'an be a slave for them.
Gen. 9:27 Let The Elohim expand Yepheth.
And let him dwell among the tents of Shem.
And let Kena'an be a slave to them."

Gen. 9:28 And Noah lived after the flood three hundred years and fifty years.
Gen. 9:29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred years and fifty years.
And he died.

This, of itself, demonstrates that lifespans were not restricted to 120 years after the flood.
Noah lived for 350 years afterwards.
But like everyone else he died
as the result of the offense-nature.

Chapter 10

Gen. 10:1 And these are the generations of the sons of Noah:

Shem, Ham, and Yepheth.

And sons were born to them after the flood.

The reverse birth order is restated.

But in the listing that follows the order is corrected.

Gen. 10:2 The sons of Yepheth:

Gomer, and Magog, and Madai,

and Yavan, and Tubal,

and Meshek, and Tiras.

Yepheth means expansion.

Gomer means completion

Magog means covering; fear - uncertain.

Madai means sufficiency.

Yavan means effervescing one.

Tubal means brought back.

Meshek means to draw off.

Tiras means to distress.

Gen. 10:3 And the sons of Gomer:

Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

Ashkenaz means a fire that spreads.

Riphath means slander; fault.

Togarmah means bone of sorrow - uncertain.

Gen. 10:4 And the sons of Yavan:

Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

Elishah means my El is deliverance.

Tarshish means he will shatter.

Kittim means my mark; crushers.

Dodanim means nipples - uncertain

Gen. 10:5 From these were separated into their lands the regions of the nations,

each one according to its language

according to their families by their nations.

It's interesting to note that the term for nations is goyim.

This later becomes the "generic" reference for non-Hebrews.

It appears this is an improper use of the term,

since it applies to all nations,

in this case, those separated as the offspring of Yepheth.

Gen. 10:6 And the sons of Ham:

Kush, and Mitzraim, and, and Put, and Kena'an.

Ham means hot.

Kush means black, dark; terror.

Mitzraim means double straits. (This is Egypt.)

Put means afflicted.

Kena'an means humiliated.

Gen. 10:7 And the sons of Kush:

Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah,

and Ra'mah, and Sabteka.

And the sons of Ra'mah:

Sheba and Dedan.

Seba means drunk.

Havilah means circular.

Sabtah means to encompass.

Ra'amah means thunder; trembling.

Sabteka means encompass the striking.

Sheba means seven; oath.

Dedan means their love.

Gen. 10:8 And Kush fathered Nimrod himself נִמְרוֹד.

He was made profane,

existing as a mighty one in the land.

Nimrod means rebellion.

chahal means to bore or pierce, wound; to profane.

The combination of these two terms

within the context of these verses suggests a very different translation

than the one that is normally given.

There are other sources

that add information concerning Nimrod,

also identifying him as one who rebelled against YAHWEH,

and as a hunter of people lives.
As the founder of Babel,
where rebellion against YAHWEH began after the flood,
we can even see a possible connection with the Nephilim.
The same terminology is used of them.
From them came "the mighty men of old", "heroes".
This is exactly how Nimrod is characterized.

Gen. 10:9 He himself existed as a mighty hunter
against the face of YAHWEH.

Therefore it is said,

"Like Nimrod the mighty hunter
against the face of YAHWEH."

E. W. Bullinger in Appendix 28 of The Companion Bible lists the sources that state Nimrod rebelled against YAHWEH,
even shedding innocent blood.

He identifies that "before YAHWEH", because of its specific textual arrangement,
actually means "against YAHWEH"
- literally, "toward the face of YAHWEH".

It does not say, "in the presence of...",
but sets it as a rebellion,
like shaking one's fist in the face of YAHWEH.

It's suggested that he was actually hunting the lives of those who were faithful to YAHWEH
in order to establish himself as the dominant leader of Babel
- and the rest of his kingdom.

Gen. 10:10 And the beginning of his dominion was Babel, and Erech, and Akkad, and Calneh
in the land of Shin'ar.

Babel means confusion.
Erech means long, length.
Akkad means to strengthen; fortress.
Calneh - meaning uncertain.
Shin'ar means him who sleeps.

Gen. 10:11 From that land
he himself went out to Assyria and built Nineveh itself תא, and Rehoboth Ir itself תא,
and Calah itself תא,

Assyria means to be straight.
Nineveh means offspring of ease.
Rehoboth means city of open spaces.
Calah means complete, mature.

Gen. 10:12 and Resen itself תא,
between Nineveh and Calah, the great city.

Resen means restraint, bridle.

Gen. 10:13 And Mitsraim fathered
the Ludim themselves תא,
and the Anamim themselves תא,
and the Lehabim themselves תא,
and the Naphtuhim themselves תא,

Ludim means firebrands.
Anamim means afflictions.
Lehabim means flames.
Naphtuhim means struggles, wrestlings.

Gen. 10:14 and the Pathrusim themselves תא,
and the Casluhim themselves תא,

from whom came the Philistim and the Caphtorim.

Pathrusim means morsels.
Casluhim means foolish ones - uncertain.
Philistim means overturners; sojourners - uncertain.
Kaphtorim means bindings.

Gen. 10:15 And Kena'an fathered Tzidon himself תא,
his firstborn, and Heth himself תא,

Tzidon means fishery.
Heth means terror.

Gen. 10:16 and the Yebusite themselves תא,
and the Amorite themselves תא,
and the Girschite themselves תא,

Yebusite means trampled.
Amorite means a proclaimer.
Girgashite means stranger.

Gen. 10:17 and the Hivite themselves תא,
and the Arkite themselves תא,
and the Sinite themselves תא,

Hivite means a villager.
Arkite means gnawing.
Sinite means thorns.

Gen. 10:18 and the Arvadite themselves תא,
and the Tzemarite themselves תא,
and the Hamathite themselves תא.

Arvadite means fugitive, wanderer.
Tzemarite means wool; shaggy.
Hamathite means warmth; enclosure.

And afterward the families of the Kena'anites were dispersed.

These emphatically identified groups
are all part of Ham's offspring, including Kena'an.
It's important to remember the curse of Noah placed on "Kena'an", even though Ham is identified as the one who "saw his father's nakedness".

Gen. 10:19 And the border of the Kena'anites was from Tzidon

as you go toward Gerar, as far as Azzah,
as you go toward Sedom and Amorah,
and Admah and Tzeboyim, as far as Lasha.

Gerar means to escape, drag.
Azzah means vehement, harsh. (This is Gaza of today.)
Sedom (Sodom) means scorched.
Amorah (Gomorra) means treat harshly.
Admah means earthly, ruddy.
Tzeboyim means gazelles.
Lasha means to break through.

Gen. 10:20 These are the sons of Ham
according to their families,
according to their languages,
in their lands,
in their nations.

Gen. 10:21 And Shem also fathered.
He is the forefather of all the children of Eber.
His brother, Yepheth, was the elder.

Eber means one who crosses over (passes over).
He is the father of Abram.
His name, Eber, is the foundation for the term 'Hebrew' (Eberim), which also means he who crosses over.

Here we're told that Yehpeth was the elder.
This has been identified before in the notes,
but not in the text.

It's being made clear that Shem has replaced his oldest brother
in regard to the birthright,
the first position of authority in the family.
By way of reminder:
Shem means designation, name; renown, fame.
Eber means one who crosses over.
Yepheth means expansion.

Gen. 10:22 The sons of Shem:
Elam, and Asshur, and Arpakshad, and Lud, and Aram.

Elam means hidden, distant.
Asshur means straight step.
Arpakshad means spread out - uncertain.
Lud means firebrand; dry, thirsty.
Aram means high, exalted.

Gen. 10:23 And the sons of Aram:
Uts, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.

Aram is the youngest, but the first listed.
Uts means counsel, advice.
Hul means dance, whirl, twist.
Gether means wine press - uncertain.
Mash means burden; drawn out.

Gen. 10:24 And Arpakshad fathered Shelah himself תא, and Shelah fathered Eber himself תא.

Arpakshad is the third in the birth order.
Elam, Asshur, and Lud
are not listed here with their offspring.
The history moves to Eber.
As the founder of the Hebrews
he becomes the focus and sets the stage for the next portion of the history of The Hebrews.
Shelah means to send away.

Gen. 10:25 And to Eber were born two sons.
The name of one was Peleg,
for in his days the earth was split.
And his brother's name was Yoktan.

Peleg means earthquake,
from a root that means to split.
Apparently there was a significant earthquake near the time of his birth.

The second part of this verse belongs in verse 26.

Gen. 10:26 And Yoktan fathered Almodad himself תא,
and Sheleph himself תא,
and Hatzarmaveth himself תא,
and Yerah himself תא,

Yoktan means diminished, made little.
Almodad means desolate - uncertain.
Sheleph means extract, draw out.
Hatzarmaveth means village of death.
Yerah means month, moon.

Gen. 10:27 and Hadoram himself תא,
and Uzal himself תא,
and Diklah himself תא,

Hadoram means honor - uncertain.
Uzal means desired, of El?
Diklah means crushed.

Gen. 10:28 and Obal himself תא,
and Abima'el himself תא,
and Sheba himself תא,

Obal means cover with a cloud - uncertain.
Abima'el means El is my father.
Sheba means oath, or seven.
To "seven oneself" was to swear an oath.

Gen. 10:29 and Ophir himself תא,
and Havilah himself תא,
and Yobab himself תא.

Ophir means fruitful - uncertain.
Havilah means circular.
Yobab means howler, cry out.

All these were sons of Yoktan.

Gen. 10:30 And their location was from Mesha
as you go toward Sephar, a mountain of the east.

Mesha means debt, burden.
Sephar means book, scroll.

Gen. 10:31 These were the sons of Shem,
according to their families,
according to their languages,
in their lands according to their nations.

Gen. 10:32 These were the families of the sons of Noah,
according to their generations, in their nations.
And from these the nations
were spread out on the land after the flood.

Chapter 11

Gen. 11:1 And all the land was of one language
and of one dialect.

This is the first time language is specifically mentioned.
It calls attention to what follows with the institution of multiple languages and dialects
after the Tower of Babel incident.
The text literally reads "one lip and one word".
This could mean one language and one aleph-bet,
or one language and one dialect.
The important implication is that everyone could easily understand everyone else.

Gen. 11:2 And they were journeying eastward.
And they came to a valley in the land of Shin'ar.
And they settled down there.

It's of interest to note they were traveling eastward.
Going this direction frequently indicates movement away from YAHWEH in Scripture.
Given the context this idea fits perfectly with the text.
Shin'ar is believed to be Babylonia by most,
but there are some who see a connection to China,
in the sense of "Sinar" (Sino).
Shin'ar - meaning uncertain.

Gen. 11:3 And they said one to another of them,
"Come now with bricks and we will fire them!"
And they had brick for stone.
And they had bitumen for mortar.

Traditional translations speak of making bricks,
but the language does not really provide for that interpretation except perhaps by inference.
It really says what is given above.

They decided to use bricks and fire them to make them harder for the purpose of building with them.
Fire-tempered bricks
are much harder than sun-dried ones.

Gen. 11:4 And they said,
"Come now!
We'll build for us a city and a tower
and its top amongst the skies.
And we'll make a name for ourselves lest we be scattered over the face of the whole earth."

There's some disagreement
with the translation and its interpretation.
Various Bible scholars have debated the issue for many years.

Some include the idea that this tower
was actually a "temple" of sorts,
built to worship the host of heaven, the Zodiac.
This is based upon archaeological finds
in the area of Babylon,
including the base for this tower.
Among the ruins artifacts have been discovered that indicate this tower was, first, not that tall, and second, was a place where the host of heaven
was indeed worshipped.

Thus, this first tower becomes identified as the first place (after the flood at least) where worship of the host of heaven was established as a practice of the people who lived there.

Gen. 11:5 And YAHWEH descended to see the city itself תָּא
and the tower itself תָּא which the children of the human beings had built.

YAHWEH descended!
He came down from His abode in The Heaven
to see this very city and this very tower.

It's the work of the hands of "the sons of men", humans.
This is an interesting phrase, benei ha'adam.
It has a connection to the benai ha'elohim (literally "sons of the gods") that took human women for themselves and mated with them.
That led to the flood of Noah.

Now we have the benei ha'adam
building a tower and a city
to "make a name for themselves".

These humans are in effect worshipping the works of their own hands
- which is idolatry!
They built this to "make a name" for themselves
- become self important.

This is the first indication of YAHWEH visiting the earth after the flood. He was in the garden with Adam and Chavvah, but has not been identified as being on the earth since then. This calls for our very special attention.

Gen. 11:6 And YAHWEH said, "Behold! The people are one, and their language is one amidst all of them, and this they are beginning to do.

And now nothing will be cut off from them, nothing which they plan to do.

The term for one is echad. It means one, but is also widely used for the concept of unity.

The text could well read, "The people are united." YAHWEH indicates that when working in unity there is virtually nothing that they might plan to do that they will not be able to accomplish.

The idea of unity gives us a very powerful insight into the "unity" of The Elohim and His "divine beings".

Gen. 11:7 Come now! We will descend. And there We will mix up their language so that they will not comprehend one another's language."

The use of the plural "We" is an identification of YAHWEH and someone else. We do not know who else was present, but might consider it to be the divine beings, or YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, as has been considered previously where this language is used in the text.

Note that YAHWEH has apparently returned to The Heaven, because He now says, "We will descend...", implying that He is not on the earth when He says this.

He further identifies that "there", in that very place, "we will mix up their language." By doing so they will no longer be able to "listen attentively" to one another (literally). This means they won't be able to comprehend what another is saying. Also note that the term "language" is used twice. Many translations use two different terms. However, this provides a double witness that it is their languages that will be mixed up, not simply their dialects. They will end up with different languages, making it very difficult to communicate, and this will destroy their unity.

Gen. 11:8 And YAHWEH dispersed they themselves nx from that place over the face of the whole earth. And they quit building the city.

Once again we see a reference to dispersion (diaspora in the Septuagint). This is another recurring theme in Scripture, and a very important one. When human beings fail to do as YAHWEH instructs them to do He often disperses them.

Gen. 11:9 Upon this being so, its name was called Babel, because in that place YAHWEH mixed up the language of all the land. And from that place YAHWEH dispersed them over the face of all the earth.

Babel means confusion, to mix up.

Gen. 11:10 These are the generations of Shem. Shem was a hundred years old. And he fathered Arpakhshad himself nx two years after the flood.

Arpakshad - meaning unknown.

Gen. 11:11 And after he fathered Arpakshad
Shem lived five hundred years.
And he fathered sons and daughters.

Gen. 11:12 And Arpakshad lived thirty five years.
And he fathered Shelah himself תא.

Shelah means missile of attack, or one sent.

Gen. 11:13 And Arpakshad lived after fathering Shelah himself תא
three years and four hundred years.
And he fathered sons and daughters.

Gen. 11:14 And Shelah lived thirty years.

Nahor himself תא, and Haran himself תא.

Abram means exalted father.

Haran means mountaineer; their mountains.

Note the shift in the records.

[We've now reached the first mention of Abram,
and it is his specific lineage
that now becomes central to the text.](#)

There are some qualifying details inserted to help establish the proper perspective for the next section.

Gen. 11:27 And these are the generations of Terah.
Terah fathered Abram himself תא,

Nahor himself נח,
and Haran himself נח.

And Haran fathered Lot himself נח.
Lot means veiled, covering.

Gen. 11:28 And Haran died in the presence of his father, Terah,
in the land of his birth,
in Ur of the Chaldeans.

This verse presents another first.
It tells us Haran died, but not in a normal manner.
The text literally says "over before the face" of his father.
This phrasing normally suggests "against", not in front of.

While we don't know exactly what took place
it appears he may have even been put to death
at his father's direction.
From this we know that he never left Ur.

Ur means flame or light.
Chaldeans means astrologers, wise men.
The Chaldeans are also known as The Kasdim.

Gen. 11:29 And Abram and Nahor
took for themselves wives.
The name of Abram's wife was Sarai,
and the name of Nahor's wife was Milkah,
the daughter of Haran.
He was the father of Milkah
and the father of Yiskah.

In v. 31 the first references are made to a "bride".
That is the correct translation of the term,
rather than "daughter-in-law".

This is the first Scriptural reference to the concept.
Hence, from here on we can use the term "wife".
But we still do not have any information on the concept of a "marriage" other than this.

Sarai means chief person; my princess.
Milkah means queen.
Yiskah means to watch, observant.

Gen. 11:30 And Sarai was sterile.
For her there was no child.

Gen. 11:31 And Terah took his son, Abram himself נח,
and Lot himself נח, son of Haran, his son's son,
and Sarai herself נח, his daughter-in-law,
wife of Abram.
And they went out with he himself נח
from Ur of the Chaldeans,
going to the land of Kena'an.
And they went as far as Haran.
And they settled down in that place.

Gen. 11:32 And the days of Terah
were five years and two hundred years.
And Terah died at Haran.

Terah had set out to go to the land of Kena'an.
But he never made it that far.
Abram and Lot are close,
and it will be these two and their families who enter that land.

We should also note the record of the longevity of those listed above.
It's evident that they were not limited to 120 years,
as many have claimed happened after the flood,
and as a result of YAHWEH's specific words concerning this time period.

Once again we have evidence that that period related to the time left before the flood came,
time during which Noah prepared the container.

Chapter 12

Gen. 12:1 And YAHWEH said to Abram,
"You yourself,
go from your land,
and from your kindred,
and from your father's house
to the land which I will cause you to see!
Gen. 12:2 And I will make of you a great nation.
And I will bless you.
And I will make your name great.
And you are to exist as a blessing!

Gen. 12:3 And blessed is he who is blessing you.
And treated with contempt is he who is cursing you.
And blessed by means of you are all the families of the soil."

Abram is directed by YAHWEH
to leave his home, his family, and his father's house.
Everything after this is stated as an accomplished fact.
This is based on the concept that YAHWEH does what He says.
It's already a reality in the Hebrew mind.

These things are promises to Abram.
They are, in effect, the first promises given to Abram.
1. I will bless you.
2. I will make your name great
(your authority and your character)
3. Whoever blesses you is blessed.
4. Whoever disrespects you is cursed.
5. By means of you all the families of the soil are blessed.

Note the use of the term "soil", instead of land or earth.
It is the soil from which the human being was taken.
Now, through Abram,
those human beings become blessed.

How does this happen? By faith!
By choosing the faith of Abram
we are enabled to receive the promises YAHWEH makes to him.
We become "the seed of Abraham". (Rom. 9.6-9)

Gen. 12:4 And Abram went according to that which was spoken to him by YAHWEH.
And Lot went with he himself אָבְרָם.

And Abram was five years and seventy years old
at his going out from Haran.

Gen. 12:5 And Abram took Sarai herself אָבְרָם, his wife, and Lot himself אָבְרָם, his brother's son,
and all their possessions themselves אָבְרָם
which they possessed, and the lives themselves אָבְרָם
which they had produced in Haran.
And they went out, going toward the land of Kena'an.

And they went into the land of Kena'an.
Gen. 12:6 And Abram passed over into the land
as far as the place of Shekem,
as far as the oak tree of Moreh.

And the Kena'anites were in the land at that time.

The term for "passed over"
is often translated as passed through.
This is unfortunate.

Eber means one who crossed over.
The term used has "passed over" as a primary meaning,
and given all the Scripture references to "Passover"
it seems most appropriate to use that language here,
as Abram passes over,
first into the land of Kena'an,
and now over some of that land to Shekem.

Shekem means ridge, shoulder.
Moreh is uncertain,
perhaps meaning teacher, early rains, razor.
That of teacher seems quite possible

since that type of thing often took place under a tree in the community.

This verse identifies the existence of the Kena'anites in the land, meaning they already occupied it. These are the cursed offspring of Ham. This is the same group YAHWEH will later instruct the Yisra'elites to destroy entirely.

Gen. 12:7 And YAHWEH was seen by Abram. And He said, "To your seed I am giving this land itself ארץ."

And he built there a slaughter site to YAHWEH, Who had been seen by him.

This is yet another promise to Abram. The "seed" is singular, not plural. Paul makes the point that this "seed" is The Messiah Himself. (Gal 3.16)

This has very significant ramifications, for it means that one day The Messiah will be King over this specific land. It will be His land. YAHWEH has said so. That guarantees it will happen.

This is the first slaughter site Abram builds, and it's in the land of Kena'an, at Shekem. It is a place of sacrifice. It's a place where blood is spilled out and flesh offered up to YAHWEH - in thanksgiving. The location is specific. It's the scene of future worship of YAHWEH in this land.

This also marks the first time YAHWEH "is seen" by Abram. While this is traditionally translated as "appeared", the verb literally means "to see". Since this is a key concept in all of Scripture the phrase "was seen" is used.

We don't know how YAHWEH was "seen" by Abram. The text does not specify a physical seeing, nor does it specify seeing in a vision. And since no one is able to see YAHWEH's face and live, we must assume that something else took place here - and in every other place where this terminology is used.

There is a Hebraism using these terms that means "he experienced", in this case YAHWEH. To experience means many things. We'll have to trust YAHWEH concerning what actually took place.

Gen. 12:8 And he proceeded from there to the mountain on the east of Bayit El. And he stretched out his tent. Bayit El was toward the west and Ai was toward the east.

And he built there a slaughter site to YAHWEH. And he proclaimed the Name of YAHWEH.

Abram stretched out his tent. This is the first reference to doing so. It tells us he settled there. His tent was his home. This became his first "abiding place" in the land.

Second, he called out, or proclaimed, the Name of YAHWEH. This means to proclaim The Word of YAHWEH.

This makes an interesting connection to Noah, who is referred to as a proclaimer of righteousness (justice).

Abram declares his faith in YAHWEH
by both building a slaughter site to worship Him,
and by verbally bearing witness to Him.

This is also the first place where references to both east and west are included in the same verse.

When you plug in the meanings for the names of the two places identified things get interesting.
In the center, between east and west,
is the slaughter site of YAHWEH.
It becomes a mediator, the one in between.

And it's between "the House of El"
and "a heap of ruins."
It's a foreshadowing
of The Messiah as our Mediator, between The House of YAHWEH
and us, as the heap of ruins.

Bayit El means House of El (God).
Ai means heap of ruins.

Gen. 12:9 And Abram journeyed, going and journeying toward The Negev.

The Negev is a specific area of the land.
It's often referred to as "the south"
because that's the part of the land it is in.

In Scriptural parlance,
if one were standing at the Temple in Jerusalem,
facing eastward,
it is considered to be toward the right hand.

Gen. 12:10 And a famine existed in the land.
And Abram descended to Mitsraim to sojourn there because the famine was heavy in the land.

This is the first famine mentioned in Scripture.
It causes Abram to descend,
go down, to Mitsraim (Egypt)
to stay temporarily until the famine passes.

Later Yitzhak and his family will go to Mitsraim because of a famine.

There's nothing to indicate YAHWEH told him to do this.
Therefore, we must assume it was his own choice.
That makes this significant,
because it means
he was not relying fully on YAHWEH.
Even the use of the term "descended"
carries a negative connotation in this instance.

On several occasions
this same reference is made,
going down to Egypt.
In virtually every case
it meant trouble of some kind was involved.

Mitsraim is a son of Ham.
Ham's family line is cursed because of the situation with Noah.
We tend to forget this connection,
yet it's important in our understanding of Scriptural events.

Gen. 12:11 And it was when he was close to entering Mitsraim.
And he said to Sarai, his wife,
"Behold now!

I know that you yourself nx
are a woman of beautiful appearance.

Gen. 12:12 And it will exist when the Mitsraites
see you yourself nx they also will say,
'This is his wife, she herself nx.'

And they will murder me myself nx.

But you yourself nx will live.

With the textual emphasis in place,
utilizing the concept of "self-ness",

we get a striking Hebraic sense in the English.
The word play, the sounds even,
actually come through at a perceptible level,
although not in the full sense.

We must notice that Abram is focused on himself!
This seems to affirm
that he's not depending totally on YAHWEH.
He's gone to Mitsraim
with no apparent direction from YAHWEH.
Now he's "covering his back side",
encouraging his wife to conceal the truth.
These are not the actions of one who is depending 100% on YAHWEH.

Gen. 12:13 Say, please, that you are my sister herself תא
in order that it will be well with me on account of you.
And my life will live on account of you."

Gen. 12:14 And it was as Abram was coming to Mitsraim.
And the Mitsraites saw the woman herself תא,
that she herself was exceedingly beautiful.

Gen. 12:15 And the chief people of Pharaoh saw her,
they themselves תא.
And they praised she herself תא to Pharaoh.
And they took the woman to Pharaoh's house.

Gen. 12:16 And for Abram it went well on account of her.
And to him existed flocks and herds, and male asses,
and male servants, and female servants,
and female asses, and camels.

Gen. 12:17 But YAHWEH laid a hand upon Pharaoh himself תא
and great blows upon his household itself תא
on account of Sarai, Abram's wife.

Gen. 12:18 And Pharaoh called out to Abram.
And he said, "What is this you have done to me?
Why did you not reveal to me
that she herself is your wife?
Gen. 12:19 Why did you say,
'She herself is my sister'?
And I took her herself תא to myself for a wife.

And now, behold!
Here is your wife.
Take her and go!"

Gen. 12:20 And Pharaoh gave orders to his men.
And they sent away he himself תא
with his wife herself תא
and all that belonged to he himself תא.

Chapter 13

Gen. 13:1 And Abram went up
from Mitsraim to The Negev,
he himself and all that was his.
And Lot accompanied him.
Gen. 13:2 And Abram was very heavy with livestock, with silver, and with gold.

Gen. 13:3 And he went on his journeys from The Negev as far as Bayit El,
as far as the place where his tent
had been at the beginning,
between Bayit El and Ai,
Gen. 13:4 to the place of the slaughter site
which he had made there at the beginning.

And there Abram called out in the Name of YAHWEH.
After the events in Mitsraim
this symbolizes his return to depending on YAHWEH.

Once again he proclaims, calls out,
in the Name of YAHWEH.
He is worshipping and witnessing.

His claim to the land of Kena'an is thus confirmed,
as is his faith in YAHWEH, by this second "witness".

Gen. 13:5 And also for Lot,
who was walking with Abram himself nx,
were flocks and herds and tents.

Gen. 13:6 And the land was not able to carry they themselves nx settling down together because their possessions were great.

And they were not able to settle down together.

Gen. 13:7 And there was contention between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock.

And the Kena'anites and the Perizzites were then dwelling in the land.

Now we have the first instance of contention since the flood.
It's focused on the herds of Abram and Lot.
This gives the detail concerning why they were not able to settle down together.

The mention of the Kena'anites and Perizzites has two points of significance.
The Kena'anites have been mentioned before
as being in the land.
Now we also note that the Perizzites are there as well.

Why mention this
in the midst of this reference to contention?
If they can't get along with each other,
how are they going to get along with those who already dwell there.
It's a point of weakness
that could lead to serious trouble with their neighbors.

Perizzite means village dwellers.

Gen. 13:8 And Abram said to Lot,
"Please! Let there be no contention between you and me
and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen
because we men are kindred.

Gen. 13:9 Is not all the land before you?

Please, separate from me!

If to the left hand I will turn to the right,
and if to the right hand I will turn to the left."

Gen. 13:10 And Lot lifted up his eyes themselves nx.
And he observed

the whole circle itself nx of The Yarden, that all of it was well watered before YAHWEH destroyed Sedom and Amorah, like the garden of YAHWEH,
like the land of Mitsraim as you go toward Tzo'ar.

This indicates either
an editorial insertion into the text, or that it was not written until after Sedom and Amorah had been destroyed.

Yarden means descent, to go down.
Tzo'ar means little.

Gen. 13:11 And Lot chose all the circle of The Yarden
for he himself nx.

And Lot journeyed eastward.

And they separated, one man from his kindred.

The terminology is interesting.
The "circle of The Yarden" suggests all the surrounding territory.

Gen. 13:12 Abram settled in the land of Kena'an.
And Lot settled in the cities of the circle.
And his tent was at Sedom.

Gen. 13:13 Now the men of Sodom were evil,
even exceedingly offensive toward YAHWEH.

"Evil" is anything that hurts another.

"Sin" is an offense against YAHWEH.

Traditional translations don't give a proper sense of these concepts.

Indeed, the words have become cliché's.

Gen. 13:14 And YAHWEH spoke to Abram
after Lot had separated from him.

"Now, lift up your eyes and look
from the place where you yourself נא are there,
northward, and southward,
and eastward, and westward.

Gen. 13:15 Indeed, all the land itself נא
which you yourself נא are seeing נא

I Myself נא am giving to you and to your seed as far as eternity.

The emphases in this verse are very important.

They're missed in virtually all other English translations.

1. "from the place where you yourself are"

- everything he could see.

2. "all the land itself"

- this very land, and no other.

3. "which you yourself are seeing"

- no one else is there,

and the promise is to no one else

except to you and your seed.

4. "I Myself" am giving

- YAHWEH's direct action.

By His authority alone this is given.

Add to these add the concept of

"as far as forever".

The Hebrew word is olam.

It means indefinite duration;

that which is veiled from sight

(cannot be seen, and therefore cannot be known).

Literally this says

"as far as the unforeseeable, the unknown."

To the Hebrew mind anything beyond the horizon

was unknown and unknowable

- it could not be seen or touched.

We call it "eternity", or "forever".

Gen. 13:16 And I am establishing your seed itself נא
like the dust of the land,

so that if a man is able to count

the dust itself נא of the land

so also may your seed be counted.

This is yet another promise to Abram.

No conditions are imposed upon him

for this to happen.

All of the action belongs to YAHWEH.

The land was promised before this,

but now it is specifically identified

by what Abram can personally see.

The promise of blessings has been given before,

but now YAHWEH promises to establish his seed

so that it is as great in number

as the dust particles of the land.

And all of this is spoken to a man whose wife is sterile.

He has not one child thus far.

Gen. 13:17 Rise up!

Walk on the land according to its length and according to its width.

Indeed, to you I Myself נא am giving it!"

YAHWEH tells Abram to rise up and to walk on the land.

Both are in the imperative tense.

He is to walk on its length and its width.

Why is this aspect important?

Because it is the ancient means of "staking his claim" to the land.

He is claiming the gift that YAHWEH is giving
to him and to his seed.
This is a legal taking of possession
in relation to YAHWEH.

The actual physical possession
will not happen for a very long time,
but this is an extremely important symbolic act.

Once again YAHWEH states this is a gift,
a part of His promises to Abram
for his faithfulness in leaving Ur,
his native land, and his family,
and following the instructions
YAHWEH has given to him.
It's very easy to lose sight of this truth.

Gen. 13:18 And Abram moved his tent.
And he went and settled at the oaks of Mamre which are in Hebron.
And there he built a slaughter site to YAHWEH.

Once more Abram builds
a slaughter site to YAHWEH.

Mamre means bitterness.
Hebron means association.

Chapter 14

Gen. 14:1 And it was in the days of Amraphel,
king of Shin'ar, Aryok, king of Ellasar, Kedorla'omer, king of Eylam, and Tid'al, king of Goyim.

Amraphel means powerful people - uncertain
Shin'ar means city of change - uncertain
Aryok means lion-like Ellasar means - uncertain
Kedorla'omer means binding of the sheaf.
Eylam means hidden, distant.
Tid'al means - uncertain.
Goyim means people, tribes.

Gen. 14:2 They made war against Bera himself, תא king of Sedom, Birsha himself, תא king of Amorah,
Shinab, king of Admah, Shem'eber, king of Tzeboyim,
and the king of Bela, that is Tzo'ar.

Note that only Sedom and Amorah receive the emphasis here.

Bera means lightning - uncertain.
Sedom means scorched.
Birsha means moral wrong.
Amorah means treat harshly.
Shinab means father of change.
Admah means earthy, ruddy
Shem'eber means name of one who crosses - uncertain
Tzeboyim means gazelles; or, servants
Bela means consume, swallow.
Tzo'ar means little.

Gen. 14:3 All these joined together
in the Valley of Siddim,
which is the salt sea.
Siddim means fields, open country.

Gen. 14:4 Twelve years they served Kedorla'omer himself תא.

But in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

Gen. 14:5 And in the fourteenth year Kedorla'omer
and the kings that were with he himself תא
came and struck the Repha'im themselves תא
at Ashteroth Karnaim,
and the Zuzim themselves תא at Ham,
and the Emim themselves תא at Shaveh Kiriathaim,

Rephaim means giant.
Ashteroth Karnaim means Ashteroth of the double horns.
Zuzim means prominent, conspicuous.
Ham means hot.
Emim means terrors.
Shaveh Kiriathaim means plain of a double city.

We now encounter the Rephaim, the Zuzim, and The Emim.
This is the first mention of these groups.
Their locations are also given.
But just who are these people and what's the significance of their being mentioned in connection with the kings of the valley of Siddim?

Rephaim means giants,
sometimes referred to as the Titans.
The Rephaim are mentioned in several other passages.
We learn that the term should not really be translated as giants, as it often is,
but should be left as the proper name of this group.

They were a part of the Nephilim of Genesis 6
who reappeared on earth after the flood of Noah,
and apparently only in the land of Kena'an.

They lived in Ashteroth Karnayim.
It means Ashteroth (Astarte) of the two horns,
peaks, or crescent moons.
Astarte was the Phoenician goddess of love, fertility, and war.

The Zuzim were in Ham.
Zuzim means prominent or conspicuous.
They're also identified as "giants" (conspicuous),
and people were terrified of them.

The Emim were in Shaveh Kiriathaim.
Their name means fright, or terror.
They also, were "giants",
and instilled terror in their opponents.
With their identification
we have a third group of Nephilim identified.

Gen. 14:6 and the Horites themselves תא
in their mountain of Se'ir,
as far as El Paran which is by the wilderness.
Horites means cave-dwellers.
Se'ir meant rough, shaggy; goat.
El Paran means mighty ones of the wilderness.

Gen. 14:7 And they turned back.
And they came to En Mishpat, that is Kadesh.
And they struck all the country itself תא of the Amalekites,
and also the Amorites themselves, תא,
the ones dwelling in Hatzetzon Tamar.
En Mishpat means fountain (or eye) of judgment.
Kadesh means sanctuary, sacred, separated.
Amalekites means a people that licks up, troublemakers.
Amorite means prominence; sayers.
Hatzetzon Tamar means division or row of palm trees.

Gen. 14:8 And the king of Sedom,
and the king of Amarah,
and the king of Admah,
and the king of Tzeboyim,
and the king of Bela, which is Tzo'ar, went out.
And they themselves תא arranged for battle
in the Valley of Siddim
Gen. 14:9 with Kedorla'omer himself תא, king of Elam, and Tid'al, king of Goyim,
and Amraphel, king of Shin'ar,
and Aryok, king of Ellasar,
four kings against the five themselves תא.

Gen. 14:10 And the Valley of Siddim had pits, pits of bitumen.
And the kings of Sedom and Amarah fled.
And they fell there.
But the remaining ones fled to the mountains.
Gen. 14:11 And they took all the substance itself תא
of Sedom and Amarah, and all their food itself תא.
And they went away.
Gen. 14:12 They also took Lot himself תא
and his substance itself תא.
And they went away.
He was Abram's brother's son
and he lived in Sedom.

Gen. 14:13 And one who had escaped came.
And he declared it to Abram, the Hebrew,
because he lived by the oak trees
of Mamre, the Amorite,
brother of Eshcol and brother of Aner.
And they were owners of a covenant with Abram.

Hebrew means a descendant of Eber, Eberite.
Eber of course means one who passes over.
Eshcol means cluster.
Aner means sprout, youth.
This is also first time we encounter the term Hebrew.
Why does YAHWEH bring this concept
to our attention at this moment in the story?
Something of great significance is happening.
The Hebrew "kingdom", if you will,
is about to be established.

Abram is being identified as separate from all the others in this story.
He does not belong to the "kings of the east".
He does not belong to the Kena'anite kings of the Valley of Siddim.
And he does not belong to the people in Mamre.
He is a separate entity from all of them, a Hebrew.

Abram is living in Mamre,
a town named after its king, who is an Amorite.
This is the second place in which he settled
after entering the land.
It's the second place
he built a slaughter site to YAHWEH
in the land of Kena'an and proclaimed His Name.
And this place is the focus of several important events in his life.

But he is still a "foreigner" in the land, a sojourner.
He's made a covenant with Mamre, Eshcol, and Aner.
He's living at peace with them.

Note: What you don't see in English translations is the word for "owners".

It is ba'al.
It means lord, husband, owner or possessor.

This could just as easily be translated as "Lords of a Covenant with Abram."

This is the first time this term appears in Scripture.
But it's certainly not the last.

Ba'al was the name of a pagan idol (no-god).

The use of "Lord" in Scripture is an extremely grievous error.
It allows a connection with this pagan "deity"
and ends up defiling the Name of YAHWEH.

The Amorites were known for their strength in battles.
And although they're among the groups that will latter become enemies of Yisra'el,
at this point they're in league with Abram
and he is living among them.

Surely they know his religious beliefs,
since he's built a slaughter site to YAHWEH among them.

We might consider that Abram is "in the world, but not of it".
He is a living witness to YAHWEH
among the unbelievers of the land.
And he's apparently well respected by them.

Gen. 14:14 And Abram heard that his relative
had been taken captive.
And he caused to empty out his trained men themselves ~~nx~~,
those born of his household,
eighteen and three hundred.
And he pursued as far as Dan.
Dan means judge.

Gen. 14:15 And he separated himself and his servants against them by night. And he struck them. And he pursued them as far as Hobah which is on the left hand of Damascus.

Hobah means hiding place.
Damascus means sackcloth.
The left hand represents north in Scripture.
The compass points were all designated in regard to one facing the rising sun - east.

Gen. 14:16 And he returned all the substance itself נא, and also Lot himself נא, his relative. And he returned the substance, and also the women themselves נא, and the people themselves נא.

This verse appears to be an edited portion of the text. The duplication of the reference to the substance, the reference to the women, as separate from the people, and the implication that they were returned to an unstated location all point to a confused editing of the verse.

Gen. 14:17 And the king of Sedom went out to meet him after his return from striking Kedorla'omer himself נא and the kings themselves נא who were with he himself נא, at the Valley of Shaveh, which is The Valley of The Kings.

Shaveh means plain.

Gen. 14:18 And Malki-Tzedek, king of Shalem, brought out bread and wine. And he was a priest of The El Elyon.

Malki-Tzedek means king of what is right.
Shalem means peace, well-being.
El Elyon means Elevated Mighty One.
It is generally translated as The Most High God.

This is the first appearance of Malki-Tzedek. He will play a very significant role in Abram's life again, but there is no explanation given here for why he has come out to meet these people. His role of "priest" is also unexplained. And he is the king of Shalem, which is Yerushalaim. As both king and priest he is a foreshadowing of The Messiah Who also serves both roles. And he is king of both what is right and of peace, also pointing toward The Messiah.

Not explained is the presentation of bread and wine. The symbolism points clearly to The Messiah. The following verses raise even more questions.

Gen. 14:19 And he blessed him and said, "Blessed be Abram by El Elyon, builder of skies and land.

qanah - to erect; i.e. create;
by extension, to procure, especially purchase.

Gen. 14:20 And blessed be El Elyon Who has delivered your enemies into your hand."

And he gave to him tithes from everything.

Malki-Tzedek blesses Abram. Why? What part does Malki-Tzedek have in all of this? Abram was not fighting on his behalf at all. And his kingdom was not directly involved in this battle.

Further, he knows El Elyon, The Most High God. He is a priest to Him. But how did he get designated as such? And why is he blessing Abram, whom it appears he has never met before? And note that he attributes Abram's success to El Elyon.

Is all of this tied to Abram's proclaiming The Name of YAHWEH

in Bayit El and in Hebron?
It appears to be so.

Note Abram's response.
He gives tithes to Malki-Tzedek,
as a priest of El Elyon.
He is offering thanksgiving to YAHWEH
by means of Malki-Tzedek, His priest.

All of this calls very powerful attention to this entire scenario.
It also sets the stage
for Abram's future encounter with Malki-Tzedek.

Gen. 14:21 And the king of Sedom said to Abram,
"Give to me the lives,
but take the substance for yourself."
Gen. 14:22 But Abram said to the king of Sedom,
"I have raised my hand to YAHWEH,
El Elyon, builder of skies and land,
Gen. 14:23 if from a thread
even to a shoelace of a sandal...
if I take from anything which is yours...

Also, you will not say,
'I myself have made Abram himself אך rich.'

Gen. 14:24 Apart from that which the young men have eaten,
and the portion for the men who went with me myself אך, Aner, Eshkol, and Mamre...
They will take their portion."
Abram declares he is not the least bit interested in the spoils he has recovered.
He appears to understand well
the character of the king of Sedom.
He reserves only a fair portion for the men who accompanied him on this mission.

The open ended sentences
are common in Hebrew practice.
In Scripture they were typically associated with an oath or a curse
that affected the participants in some serious manner.
They are left open-ended
so the hearer can "fill in the blanks"
for the potential consequences.

Chapter 15

Gen. 15:1 After these matters
the word of YAHWEH existed for Abram in a vision saying,
"Do not be afraid, Abram!
I Myself am your shield,
your exceedingly great compensation."

Traditionally this says,
"The Word of The LORD came to Abram..."
The verb is hayah, to exist, to be,
become, or come to pass (happen).
It is not the word for come or go.

The Word existed for Abram - in a vision.
Inserting "came" into the text is somewhat misleading.
It would be better to say the word...happened to Abram.

The particle that precedes 'Abram' has multiple meanings,
generally indicating direction or intention.
In this instance the message is clearly intended for Abram.

There is no verb in the text that permits "your reward is..."
Instead, the text literally states what is given above.

YAHWEH is both Abram's shield
AND his exceedingly great compensation.
Take careful note of the word compensation.
The Hebrew term is sekhar.
It means wages paid
as part of an agreement between two parties.

It's not a gift (a reward)
made because of "good behavior" on Abram's part.
It's his compensation, his wages,
for trusting fully in YAHWEH's Word!

YAHWEH is his shield, his protection!
And YAHWEH Himself is his compensation.

Remember the context.
This is after his defeat of Kedorla'omer.
To the victor belongs the spoils,
yet he has rejected what is rightfully his.
And YAHWEH is telling him that he need not be concerned about the rewards of victory,
for what He offers to Abram is of far greater value.

Remember, the wages of an offense is death.
Therefore, by comparison, the wages of faith,
complete trust in YAHWEH,
is YAHWEH Himself
- and eternal life in His very presence!

Gen. 15:2 And Abram said,
"My Sovereign, YAHWEH,
why do You give to me,
but I myself am walking childless.
And the son of possession of my household is this Eli'ezer of Damascus?"

Eli'ezer means My God is help.
Damascus means sackcloth.

Adonay (adonai) is generally translated as "the Lord".
This is not correct.
It is an emphatic form of adown,
which means: to rule, sovereign; i.e. controller.

James Strong incorrectly calls it "a proper "name" of God"
It most certainly is not!
Indeed, it is a reference to His sovereignty,
His control over us as King of Kings.
He alone is our Ruler!
Properly, then, this is translated as "My Sovereign".

Abram asks YAHWEH why (not what) He is giving to him.
He has no offspring
to whom he can pass anything he is given.
Without any children one's inheritance passed to the "steward" of one's household.
He was declared "the son of possession",
"the heir", of the entire household.

Gen. 15:3 And Abram said, "Behold!
You have not given seed to me.
And behold!
A son of my household will be inheriting
from me myself nx."

Gen. 15:4 And behold!
The word of YAHWEH existed to him saying,
"This one will not inherit from you because, behold,
that which comes from your own abdomen,
he will inherit from you!"

Gen. 15:5 And He brought he himself nx outside.
And He said, "Look now intently at the skies.
And count the stars if you are able to number they themselves nx!"
And He said to him, "Like this will your seed exist!"

Gen. 15:6 And he trusted in YAHWEH.
And He attributed it to him as justness.
aman is the word used for trusted.
It means to build up or support.
Figuratively it means to render or to be firm or faithful.

There are six different Hebrew words similar to this,
all spelled with the same characters.
The only differences are the vowel pointings.

Their meanings include: to believe,
take the right hand road, an expert, truth, etc., including the very familiar Amen,
which means truly, or so be it (may it be so).

Abram in essence agreed with YAHWEH, accepted Him at His Word, supported Him.
He trusted that what He had said would most certainly happen.

Tradition states this was accounted to him as "righteousness".
Righteousness means the condition of doing what is right, rightness.

However, this term is greatly misunderstood.
It is not holiness or perfection,
it's simply doing what is right in the sight of YAHWEH.
And this means doing what YAHWEH instructs us to do.

When one does this
it is attributed to that person as "rightness",
doing what is right.
This is very pleasing to YAHWEH!
It is what He desires most of us!

Gen. 15:7 And He said to him,
"I Myself am YAHWEH
Who caused you to come out
from Ur of the Chaldeans
to give to you this land itself nx,
for the sake of inheriting it."

Please pay very careful attention to what this verse actually states!
There are many who claim the Name, YAHWEH,
was not known prior to The Exodus.
This demonstrates they are absolutely wrong!

YAHWEH declares His personal Name!
He also declares His specific purpose
in bringing Abram out of Ur of the Chaldeans.
Abram was chosen before he ever left Ur.

YAHWEH Himself selected Abram for the purpose of giving to him
the land of Kena'an!
Now He is very specific in stating that He is giving this land,
this very land itself,
as an inheritance to Abram
and to his seed.

Gen. 15:8 And he said, "My Sovereign, YAHWEH, by what will I know that I am to inherit it?"
Abram is still a mortal human being.
Though he trusts in YAHWEH as his Sovereign
he requests confirmation of the promise.

Gen. 15:9 And He said to him,
"Take for Me a three year old heifer,
and a three year old female goat,
and a three year old ram,
and a turtledove, and a nestling."

Gen. 15:10 And he took to Him
all of these themselves nx.
And he cut they themselves nx in the middle.
And he placed each section,
one opposed to another.
But the birds themselves nx he did not cut.

Gen. 15:11 And the birds of prey came down upon the carcasses.
And Abram dispersed they themselves nx.

Gen. 15:12 And it was at the going down of the sun.
And a deep sleep fell upon Abram.
And behold!
Fright, great darkness, was falling upon him.

Gen. 15:13 And He said to Abram, “Know absolutely that your seed will be sojourners
in a land that is not theirs.
And they will serve.
And they will be afflicted, they themselves תא,
four hundred years.

Gen. 15:14 And also, the nation itself תא
which they will serve | Myself am judging.
And immediately afterward
they will come out with great substance.

Now we have a prophecy
given by YAHWEH Himself to Abram.
His seed will be servants
in a foreign nation for 400 years.
YAHWEH will personally judge that nation,
and afterward Abram’s offspring
will come out with great substance.

Gen. 15:15 And you yourself תא
will go to your forefathers amidst total well being.
You will be buried at a good old age.

There are two things to note here.
The first is “go to your fathers”.
It is the custom in Yisra’el to bury one’s bones
in the same tomb as your ancestors.
This is referred to as “go to your fathers”.

The second thing is the use of shalom
to comment on this process.
This word is traditionally translated as “peace”.
However, in Hebrew culture it means far more than this.
It means complete and total well being,
in every dimension of one’s life.
This is very important to understand. and remember.

Gen. 15:16 And in the fourth generation
they will return here, because the perversity of the Amorites
is not yet complete.”

Gen. 15:17 And it was as the sun went down.
And it was twilight.
And behold!
A smoking fire pot and a torch of fire which passed between these pieces.

The sealing of a covenant involved the two parties passing between the pieces of the animals that were sacrificed (blood shed) to validate the covenant.

The implication was that if either party violated the terms of the covenant
the other would cut them in half like these pieces were cut in half,
thereby killing them.
It notes a serious commitment by both parties.

However, this covenant is unique.
The smoking fire pot
and the flaming torch
both represent YAHWEH, and not Abram.
Abram is not required to walk between the pieces to seal his part of this.
This makes this a one-sided covenant,
sustained entirely by YAHWEH Himself.

This, once again, is more of a promise
than it is a covenant,
even though that term is used in the next verse.

Gen. 15:18 On the very same day
YAHWEH cut a covenant with Abram himself תא saying, “To your seed I have given this land itself תא,
from the river of Mitsraim to the great river,
the River Euphrates;

Gen. 15:19 the Kenites themselves תא,

and the Kenizzites themselves תא,
and the Kadmonites themselves תא,
Gen. 15:20 and the Hittites themselves תא,
and the Perizzites themselves תא,
and the Repha'im themselves תא,
Gen. 15:21 and the Amorites themselves תא,
and the Kena'anites themselves תא,
and the Gergashites themselves תא,
and the Yebusites themselves תא.”

Notice the emphasis on these nations.
This is very specific.

Kenites means of Cain, acquired.
Kenizzites means of Kenaz, hunt, hunter.
Kadmonites means of the East, oriental.
Hittites means descendant of Heth, terror.
Perrizzites means of the field.
Repha'im means giant.
Amorites means conspicuous.
Kena'anites means humiliated.
Gergashites means strangers.
Yebusites means trodden, threshing place.

It's important to take very careful note of the extent of the land and the people groups
YAHWEH has promised to Abram and his seed.
It extends significantly far beyond
the traditional borders of Yisra'el.
It is yet to be fulfilled in its entirety.

Chapter 16

Gen. 16:1 And Sarai, wife of Abram,
had given birth to no child for him.
And she had a female slave, a Mitsraite.
And her name was Hagar.

Hagar means to flee; wandering.
Mitsraite means an Egyptian.

Gen. 16:2 And Sarai said to Abram, “Behold, please!
YAHWEH has restrained me from bearing children.
Please, go in to my female slave.
Perhaps I will be built up through her.”
And Abram listened attentively to the voice of Sarai.

Abram listened to Sarai, instead of to YAHWEH.
This is often the way of human beings.
We listen to our partners
when we should be listening to YAHWEH.
Abram surely loves Sarai
and wants to help her and please her.
But this exact type of concern
can lead us to make bad decisions.

Hagar is a "foreigner" to Abram and Sarai,
an Egyptian (Mitsraite) at that.
These are the very ones who will place the seed of Abram in bondage for 400 years.
Also, this sets up a pattern
that is followed by others in Scripture.
We need to be paying attention to this.

Gen. 16:3 And Sarai, wife of Abram,
took Hagar herself תא,
her female slave, the Mitsraite,
after Abram had lived ten years
in the land of Kena'an.
And she gave she herself תא
to her husband Abram for a wife to him.
Gen. 16:4 And he went in to Hagar.
And she became pregnant.
And she saw that she was pregnant.
And she mocked her mistress in her eyes.

Gen. 16:5 And Sarai said to Abram,
“My wrongful treatment be upon you!
I myself gave my female slave into your embrace.
And she saw that she was pregnant.
And I was treated wrongfully in her eyes.
May YAHWEH judge between me and you.”

Sarai is laying the responsibility for Hagar's actions upon Abram. Indeed, he is responsible, as the head of the household, to see that these things are handled properly. She asks that YAHWEH judge this matter.

Gen. 16:6 And Abram said to Sarai, "Behold! Your female slave is in your hand. Do to her what is good in your eyes."

And Sarai treated her harshly. And she ran away from her presence. "In your hand" means under your authority. "In your eyes" means from your perspective.

Gen. 16:7 And a messenger of YAHWEH came to her by a spring of water in the wilderness, by the spring on the road to Shur. Shur means a wall; journey; enemy - uncertain.

Note: What follows is extremely important!

malak is the term traditionally translated as "angel". However, this term does not mean "angel" in Hebrew. It means messenger, and it carries the connotation of an ambassador - one delegated by another to carry a message on their behalf, and as one who carries with them the full authority of the sender.

This is the first occurrence of the term in Scripture, so its usage here sets the principle for its usage in the rest of Scripture.

There's no article attached to this term in this verse. Hence, it is 'a messenger,' not 'the messenger' of YAHWEH.

The term, angel, comes from the Greek word aggelos, which is pronounced 'on-geh-los'. It's a transliteration, not a translation, and it is GREEK in origin, not Hebrew.

The Greek word also means messenger. Calling it an 'angel' corrupts the Hebrew and has led to many false impressions concerning "angels".

There are those who also turn this into a "theophany", meaning a personal appearance of YAHWEH in physical form.

Since no human being has EVER seen YAHWEH, and cannot see His face and live, such an idea is contrary to Scripture.

In this story about Hagar there is indeed a messenger of YAHWEH sent to her with a vital message. But this does not make this being, whether human or divine, "The Angel of YAHWEH".

Gen. 16:8 And he said to Hagar, Sarai's female slave, "From where have you come, and where are you going?" And she said, "From the presence of Sarai, my female owner, I myself am running away."

gbereth is the Hebrew term often translated as "mistress".

Mistress is an Olde English term that is not clearly understood today. For many a mistress is "a lover". For this reason it will be translated as "female owner" in order to convey the correct meaning of the term.

Gen. 16:9 And the messenger of YAHWEH said to her, "Return to your female owner and humble yourself under her hand."

Gen. 16:10 And the messenger of YAHWEH said to her,
"Your seed itself תא
will be made to increase exceedingly.
And it will not be numbered because of abundance."

A messenger of YAHWEH
does not have the ability to increase the offspring of Hagar.
(Also, she does not have 'seed'.
The term refers figuratively to offspring, fruit.)
It is YAHWEH Who will provide the increase in offspring for her.
He is The Creator.

Gen. 16:11 And the messenger of YAHWEH said to her,
"Behold!
You are pregnant.
And you will give birth to a son.
And you are to call his name Yishma'el because YAHWEH has listened attentively to your affliction.

Yishma'el means El will hear.

Gen. 16:12 And he himself will be a wild ass human being,
his hand against everyone
and the hand of everyone against him.
And against the face of all his kindred he will live."

Gen. 16:13 And she called
the designation of YAHWEH,
to the one speaking to her, "Attah El Ro'i"
because, she said,
"Am I even here seen after His seeing me? "

Attah El Ro'i means
"You Yourself, El I have seen."

This is a very difficult verse to translate.
The language is not at all clear.
It's uncertain whether it's been altered
from its original form.

There is great diversity in how it's understood.
Hagar calls out a 'designation' for YAHWEH.
She does not intend this as His "name".
If she did, why use YAHWEH at all?

She's attempting to respond to a wondrous encounter.
She knows YAHWEH has heard her
by the instruction to call the child's name Yishma'el.
It appears she believes
she has seen YAHWEH Himself,
and is wondering why she's still alive.
However, since no human being has ever seen YAHWEH and lived
this simply cannot be so.
She has had an encounter with one of His messengers.

However, we also fail to grasp the concept of the messenger as an "ambassador" of YAHWEH, one who bears His authority
to "transact His business", so-to-speak.
It's no wonder she may perceive this to be YAHWEH Himself.

Gen. 16:14 Therefore the well was called Be'er Lahai Ro'i.
Behold!
it is between Kadesh and Bered.

Beer Lahai Ro'i means
well of the living one who sees.
Kadesh means sanctuary.
Bered means hail.

Most translations will provide confusing information between this verse and the previous one.
What Scripture identifies here is that Hagar gives the well
where she is located a new title.
She calls it Be'er Lahai Ro'i.

Effectively, this well becomes a monument
to the activity of the messenger of YAHWEH.
It becomes a permanent witness to this event.

Gen. 16:15 And Hagar bore Abram a son.
And Abram called the name of his son whom Hagar bore, Yishma'el.

Gen. 16:16 And Abram was eighty years and six years old when Hagar gave birth to Yishma'el himself nx, to Abram.

Chapter 17

Gen. 17:1 And Abram was
ninety years and nine years old.
And YAHWEH was seen by Abram.
And He said to him,
"I Myself am The Mightiest El!
Walk before My face and be whole!

At the age of 99
Abram sees (experiences) YAHWEH.
We know he did not physically see Him,
because, again, no human
can see YAHWEH's face and live.

Moses, at Sinai, could only view
"the back side" of YAHWEH as He passed by him.
Therefore this cannot be "an appearance"
in the literal sense.
While the Hebrew literally says "was seen by Abram",
the term is also understood to mean "experienced".
It's a Hebraism that's well understood in Hebrew culture.

The concept presented here (and in all other instances of "appearances" of YAHWEH) permits us to remain faithful to the concept that no human being can see YAHWEH and live.

And this we must do
if we're going to trust that YAHWEH does not lie.
Otherwise we destroy the integrity of His Word.
That He speaks to individuals is not a problem.
But the physical "appearance" is a problem.

He tells Abram that He, Himself, is "El shaddai".
It is translated here as "The Mightiest El."

Most scholars claim El shaddai is a divine "name".
However, YAHWEH has only one personal Name, just as each individual human being has only one personal name.
It is unique to Him alone!
It's the only means by which one can call out to Him without error.
Otherwise, to whom are you praying?
Whom are you worshipping?
Whom are you praising?

El Shaddai is a title,
a designation of one of His divine attributes.
The term "El" means mighty one, or supreme being,
and is traditionally translated as "God".
"Shaddai" is far more difficult to translate.
It's origins and meaning are less than clear.
Most tend to suggest it means strong,
powerful, or most powerful.
It appears from its usage throughout Scripture to be most properly translated as
"The God of all power, The Mightiest El."

The last term we need to look at is tamiym.
It means entire, complete, whole.
The concept of wholeness
is the best way to view this term in this context.
Traditionally it's translated as "perfect".
But that term is incompatible with human existence
within its normal understandings.
The only "perfect" human being was The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

YAHWEH speaks in the imperative to Abram.
Literally, "Walk before My face
(in My presence) and be whole!"

First, He is instructing Abram to walk before His face
- implying in His presence.
That's the most crucial element.

But He is also instructing him to be whole.
The implication is that by walking in His presence
Abram will experience wholeness.
This is affirmed by countless Scripture passages.

Walking in the presence of YAHWEH
brings with it blessing upon blessing, provisions for all of one's needs,
healing, protection, etc., etc. - wholeness!
Or, to use another Hebrew term, shalom!
- complete well being in every aspect of one's life.

Gen. 17:2 And I have given My covenant
between Me and you.
And I have increased your sign with exceeding abundance."

There are important changes in this verse.
Once again we find the 'Vav' before the Hebrew verbs,
which is supposed to change the "action" of the verbs,
in this case from "will" to "have".
Traditional translators are inconsistent with this,
apparently to suit their preconceived view
of how the text should read.
However, this changes the sense of the text significantly.

In both cases it makes this an accomplished reality.
This fits with Hebrew thought.
Since YAHWEH has spoken
it is understood that it will be done, without fail.

Also, one of the words has been incorrectly translated.
And it's a very significant word
when you understand what it should say.
The term is 'owth.
It means a signal, an 'omen', miracle, evidence, etc.
It's the same term used for the 'mark' of Kayin.
It's the same term used to note the "signs",
or "miracles" YAHWEH used in Mitsraim
to get the attention of the Mitsraites.

Therefore, it makes no sense here
to translate this same term as "you".
It means much more than this.
In the context of this passage
it denotes a sign of Abram,
in this case "your sign".

This passage is establishing the "sign of the covenant" - circumcision
- that YAHWEH is establishing with Abram and his seed after him.
With this in mind
the concept of "your sign" (circumcision)
makes an indelible impression.

This is not merely about Abram.
It's about his sign, circumcision,
as a sign of YAHWEH's eternal covenant.

And this sign will be increased exceedingly abundantly
as the seed of Abram develops over the centuries.
It's not referring simply to Abram's offspring
as being a great number.
That's been stated elsewhere.
This is definitely different.

Gen. 17:3 And Abram fell on his face.
And The Elohim spoke with he himself nx saying,
Gen. 17:4 "Behold, I Myself!
My covenant is with you yourself nx.
And you will exist as father of many nations.

Gen. 17:5 And no longer
will your name itself אַתָּא be called Abram.
Now your name is Abraham,
because as father of many nations
I have established you.

Abram means exalted father.
Abraham means father of a multitude.

Abram is the first person in Scripture to have his name changed.

It is changed by The Elohim Himself, The Creator.
The significance of this cannot be overstated.
This is extremely important!

This addresses the concept of one's name in Scripture also.
His original name had the meaning of exalted father.
His new name means father of a multitude.
Keep in mind that Abram, now Abraham,
is still childless.

His former name,
in light of the change YAHWEH is bringing into his life,
will no longer have a meaning that characterizes his "new nature",
a father of many offspring.
Little do we perceive at this point
just how extensive those offspring will become.

As with all changes of names in Scripture,
this marks a dramatic shift in the life of the one to whom it is applied.
Nothing will be the same again.

And YAHWEH speaks as though this is an already accomplished thing.
It's not something He is "going to do".
It's something He has already "done!"
He is declaring it to be so.

Gen. 17:6 And I will cause you yourself אַתָּא
to bear fruit in exceeding abundance.
And I will give nations to you.
And kings will go forth from you.

Notice, this is different from v. 2.
There it was his "sign".
Here it is his "fruit", his offspring.
They are separate concepts.
The double mention of 'abundance'
is an emphatic statement indicating great abundance.

Gen. 17:7 And I will establish My covenant itself אַתָּא
between Me and you
and your seed after you
according to their generations
for an eternal covenant,
to exist as The Elohim to you
and to your seed after you.

Gen. 17:8 And I will give to you
and to your seed after you
the land of your sojournings itself אַתָּא,
all the land of Kena'an itself אַתָּא,
for an eternal possession.
And I will be to them as The Elohim."

Take special note of the promise of the land.
One of the key elements of this covenant
is the land promise.
It's an eternal possession.
It never has an end.

We often fail to remember
this aspect of the covenant.
It has extremely far reaching implications.

We also tend to overlook
the concept of the "seed of Abraham".
This concept is carried over into The New Covenant teachings.
It applies, literally,

to all who place their trust in YAHWEH,
even as Abram did.
It is not restricted to "Hebrews".

Gen. 17:9 And The Elohim said to Abraham,
"You yourself נָךְ are to protect My covenant itself נָךְ,
you yourself נָךְ and your seed after you
according to their generations.

The term used here for "protect" is shamar.
It means to hedge about, to guard, to protect.
It does not mean to "keep" it.
This is a sacred covenant, for eternity.
It is not to be treated with disrespect.

Gen. 17:10 This is My covenant
which you are to protect between Me and you and your seed after you.
Every male of yours is to be circumcised.

Gen. 17:11 And you are to circumcise
the flesh itself נָךְ of your foreskin.
And it will be for a sign of the covenant
between Me and you.

The circumcised flesh of the foreskin is the "sign of the covenant"! (See v2.)
This sign is permanent.

This is a constant permanent reminder to every male who undergoes this procedure that they have entered into this covenant with YAHWEH.

It was a distinctive "mark" (sign)
that no other nation was required to do.
It separated those who agreed to the covenant
from those who did not.

Unfortunately, this is no longer true.
Now it's done for "medical reasons",
and not to mark one as a covenant person.
The hand of The Adversary is seen plainly
in this attempt at corruption of the sign.

Gen. 17:12 And a son of eight days
is to be circumcised by you, every male according to your generations
born in your household or bought with silver
from any son of a foreigner
who is not from your seed itself.

Gen. 17:13 To be circumcised,
to be circumcised is one born in your household
and one bought with your silver.

And My covenant will be in your flesh
as an eternal covenant.

The Hebrew is quite intensive in this verse.
The double mention is emphatic.
Circumcision is not to be treated lightly.
It is to be applied to every male within one's household whether one's own son or the son of one who has been purchased as a possession.

YAHWEH Himself declares that "My covenant"
will be "in your flesh" - a permanent sign!
The covenant is unending - right into eternity itself.

Gen. 17:14 And an exposed male who has not been circumcised
in the flesh itself נָךְ of his foreskin,
the life of that very one will be cut off from his people.
My covenant itself נָךְ he has broken."

Few translations give an accurate rendering of the terms of this verse.
What's given here is more proper.
In this form this verse
takes on very powerful significance.

Note where the emphasis lies.
The term for "life" is nephesh.
It's normally translated, incorrectly, as "soul".
It's understood to be the life essence,
the living breath of the person.
Without it you have no life.

There's also a play on words here
that's unseen in English.
The actual word used for circumcision is muwl.
It means to cut short.
This is the actual physical nature of circumcision.
Thus, you have the concept of "cut short"
as opposed to "cut off".
That term is karath.
It is used in reference to one who is killed or destroyed.

But the most important aspect of this verse
is the last sentence.
YAHWEH is absolutely intolerant
of those who break "My covenant".

One who does so
is rejecting YAHWEH's agreement with him.
It is an act of overt rebellion.
It's like tearing up the contract and throwing it in His face.
YAHWEH views this as a very personal action.

Gen. 17:15 And The Elohim said to Abraham,
"Sarai, your wife, is not to be called by the name Sarai itself nx.
Indeed, Sarah is her name.
Sarai means my princess.
Sarah means female noble, queen.

There are six Hebrew words spelled exactly like Sarah.
Without vowel pointings you cannot tell the difference.

There are two different words for Sarai.
The meaning of these names is not entirely clear.
Some make them equivalent, princess, or my princess.
The meaning given above
may give the best sense of the meanings,
but even it is not certain.

Sarai is the first female in Scripture
to have her name changed.
Naomi, in the book of Ruth, is another.
But Sarai's name is changed
by YAHWEH himself.
Naomi's is not.

This follows the change of name for Abram very closely.
Because of these things it becomes vitally important.
She is also given a new role in YAHWEH's plan.

Gen. 17:16 And I will bless her herself nx.
And also I will give to you a son from her.
And I will bless her.
And she will exist for the sake of nations.
Kings of peoples will exist by means of her."

Gen. 17:17 And Abraham fell upon his face.
And he laughed.
And he said in his heart,
"Is a child born to a man who is a hundred years old?
And will Sarah who is ninety years old give birth?"

Take note of Abraham's reaction to this announcement.
It becomes the very basis of the name of the son who will be born to him.
It also prefigures Sarah's own reaction to the news she will give birth.

Further, it reminds us that Abraham is human,
just like you and me.
He is subject to doubt and error.

Gen. 17:18 And Abraham said to The Elohim,
"If only Yishma'el might live before Your face!"

Gen. 17:19 And The Elohim said,
"No!
Sarah, your wife, will bear a son to you.
And you are to call his name itself תא Yitzhak.

And I will establish My covenant itself תא
with he himself תא, for an eternal covenant to his seed after him.

Yitzhak means laughter.
It will serve as a permanent reminder to Abraham of his reaction to this news from YAHWEH.

YAHWEH now promises to establish His covenant
with Yitzhak and with his seed after him.

This is significant!
It will transfer the covenant
directly to Yitzhak - and to his seed.
It is obviously intended to be an on-going covenant relationship.

Gen. 17:20 And concerning Yishma'el,
I have listened attentively to you.
Behold!

He himself תא is blessed.

And he himself תא will bear fruit.

And I will increase he himself תא exceedingly, exceedingly!

Twelve exalted ones will be born to him.

And I will give to him a great nation.

We're already well into Genesis,
yet little has been said about "bearing fruit".
It's a key theme of Scripture, especially in Genesis.
Obviously, it's a Hebraism
for producing offspring, the fruit of the womb.
Unfortunately, many translations
use that concept instead of "fruit".
This disconnects us
from the whole concept in a sense.

Fruit is vital to YAHWEH.
It is the "first fruits" that belong to Him,
whether it's from the ground
or from human beings and animals.
We need to keep this before us.
It's a primary concept of Scripture.

Gen. 17:21 But My covenant itself תא
I will establish with Yitzhak himself תא whom Sarah will bear to you according to this appointed time
at the next year."

YAHWEH's covenant will be given to Yitzhak himself.
Yishma'el has a Mitsraite mother, a slave woman.
Yitzhak is to be born of Sarah, a free woman.
We're reminded of this thousands of years later in The New Covenant writings.
The Covenant is with the son of the free woman.
YAHWEH is very specific about this.

Also, we must take note
of another very important term that's used here.
It is mo'ed.
It is the term used to identify
"YAHWEH's appointed times",
His festivals.

This term was first used in Gen. 1.14.
Since the term is used here it's quite likely
it was directly connected to one of these times.
Regardless of which one it may have been,
the specific time is set by YAHWEH Himself.

There are other births connected to "The Appointed Times of YAHWEH".
Yahonathan The Baptizer is one of them,
as is The Messiah Himself.

Gen. 17:22 And when He had ended speaking with he himself אָ,
The Elohim ascended from before Abraham.

Gen. 17:23 And Abraham took Yishma'el himself אָ, his son,
and all those themselves אָ
born of his household
and all those themselves אָ .
bought with his silver,
every individual male of Abraham's household,
and he circumcised
the flesh itself אָ of their foreskins
in that very same day in which The Elohim had spoken to he himself אָ.

Abraham immediately did
as YAHWEH had instructed him.
He did not hesitate.
He did not question YAHWEH about anything.
He simply followed His instructions.

This is the character of Abraham that is most important for us to see.
This type of response is what is accounted to him
as right action by YAHWEH.
He trusted YAHWEH 100%.

We are called to do no less
if we are going to consider ourselves to be
"of the faith of Abraham."

Gen. 17:24 And Abraham was nine and ninety years old
at his being circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

Gen. 17:25 And Yishma'el, his son,
was thirteen years old at his being circumcised
in the flesh itself אָ of his foreskin.

Perhaps the most important concept found in this verse is the reality that Yishma'el was also circumcised.
It's extremely easy for us to lose sight of this truth.

Yishma'el will soon leave Abraham and Sarah and go to live in another place.
Yet YAHWEH always has a special place for Yishma'el and will deal with him in ways that later seem rather surprising and strange to us.

It's important that we recognize Yishma'el is "of the circumcision".
It provides significant insights into YAHWEH's later treatment of the Yishma'elites.

To this day the custom persists
among the Yishma'elites (the Arabs).
They perform it at the age of 13
instead of at the eighth day of life.

Yet Yishma'el is not the one through whom The Covenant will be fulfilled.
He's allowed to be "covered" by The Covenant,
but it's fulfillment comes through Yitzhak.

This is a foreshadowing
of the acceptance of "the gentiles" into The Covenant.

Gen. 17:26 In the very same day
Abraham and Yishma'el, his son, were circumcised.

Gen. 17:27 And all the males of his household,
born of his household or bought with silver
from a son of a stranger himself אָ,
were circumcised with he himself אָ.

Chapter 18

Gen. 18:1 And YAHWEH was seen by him
at the oaks of Mamre.

And he himself was sitting by the entrance of the tent
in the heat of the day.
Gen. 18:2 And he lifted up his eyes and looked.
And behold!
Three individuals were standing opposite him.
And he looked.
And he ran from the tent door to meet them.
And he bowed himself to the ground.
Gen. 18:3 And he said,
"My masters,
if I have now found favor in your eyes,
please do not pass over
from opposite your servant.

This passage is among the more challenging ones
in all of Scripture.
Countless debates have been held concerning its meaning.

The text begins in v 1, stating YAHWEH was seen by him.
V 3 refers to these visitors
with a plural form of adown, Sovereign,
- although it's translated as "the Lord"
in many translations, causing great confusion
in a text that uses The LORD in v 1.

Reference has already been made to ba'al,
which means lord, master, owner.
This only adds to the problem of the corruption of the text.

There are three "men", individuals.
The term used means "male, a man".
It comes from a root word that means "mortal".
Yet none of the three portrayed here are "men" or "mortals"
in the traditional sense of the terms.
The context reveals these three are 'divine beings'.
They are not human beings.
And one of them is identified as being YAHWEH Himself.

But how can this be?
How can we maintain the integrity of Scripture which proclaims no human being has ever seen the face of YAHWEH and lived?
It seems we need to assume this was an ambassador/messenger of YAHWEH, acting in His behalf.
Otherwise it's almost impossible to reconcile this with other statements of Scripture.
Abraham's response to the three visitors is typical of Eastern hospitality.
This was expected behavior
for anyone in that culture.

As we explore this story further
we need to look very carefully at the details
as we try to understand what's taking place.

Gen. 18:4 Please let a little water be brought.
And wash your feet and recline beneath the tree!
Gen. 18:5 And I will bring a bit of food.
And you, refresh your hearts!
Afterward, pass over.
Indeed, for this purpose
you have passed over before your servant."
And they said therefore,
"Do just as you have spoken."

Pass over is repeated three times in these 3 verses.
It's not seen in most English translations.
Yet the theme of "pass over" is continued.

Gen. 18:6 And Abraham hurried to the tent,
to Sarah.
And he said, "Hurry,
knead three measures of fine flour
and make cakes."

Gen. 18:7 And Abraham ran to the herd.

And he took a son of a calf, tender and good.
And he gave it to the servant.
And he hurried to prepare it itself וּנְחָ.
Gen. 18:8 And he took butter and milk
and the son of a calf which had been prepared.
And he set it before them.
And he stood opposite them under the tree.
And they ate.

Gen. 18:9 And they said to him,
“Where is Sarah, your wife?”
And he said, “Behold!
She is in the tent.”

Gen. 18:10 And he said, “I am returning.
I will return to you at the time of life.
And behold, a son to Sarah, your wife!

And Sarah was listening at the tent door.
And she was behind it.

There's a subtle shift in the text from v. 9.
There it was “they said”.
Here it is “he said.”
There's no specific indication concerning who was speaking,
but it is typically assumed
it was YAHWEH that spoke.
However, it must be an ambassador of YAHWEH
given the context.

Go back to Gen 17.15-21.
There we find the same comments about Sarah giving birth to a son, and the reference to “this time next year”.

An educated guess would suggest
these portions of text have been edited, combining, perhaps, portions of the text
from other copies that may have been damaged, separated, and recombined.

This would provide a basis for YAHWEH
being seen by Abraham,
there in a vision,
whereas here no vision is mentioned.

We know numerous alterations were made in these texts
based on the evidence available to us.
It appears this story is among those alterations,
and that certain portions have been inserted incorrectly.

It is entirely possible that the portion concerning a child for Abraham and Sarah was in fact separate from the story of Sodom and Amorah,
but got blended together
in a reconstruction of a damaged text.

There are elements repeated that otherwise are not needed here.
If verses 9-15 were removed from here and inserted after Gen. 17.17 they would fit nicely, and that would leave the story of the three visitors and their connection to Sodom and Amorah
as one uninterrupted story.

Gen. 18:11 And Abraham and Sarah were old,
advanced in days.
Sarah had ceased to exist
according to the manner with women.

Gen. 18:12 And Sarah laughed within herself, saying, “After my becoming old and worn out will pleasure happen for me, my master being old also?”

Remember Gen. 17.17.
There it was Abraham who laughed within himself.
Now it's Sarah's turn.
Is it possible these two things

actually happened at the very same time?
And would not the meaning of Yitzhak, laughter,
make an even more startling statement
if that were true?
The evidence points strongly in that direction.
An edited text would account for this problem.

Gen. 18:13 And YAHWEH said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh at this, saying,
‘Will I indeed bear a child,
I myself having become old and worn out?’

Gen. 18:14 Is a difficult thing beyond YAHWEH?
According to the appointed time
I will return to you,
at the time of life,
and to Sarah, a son.”

Again the text declares YAHWEH
is the one speaking to Abraham.
He reiterates the promise of a son
that we saw in Gen. 17.
This also would be accounted for
if the text has been incorrectly edited.

Gen. 18:15 But Sarah denied it saying,
“I did not laugh!”,
because she was afraid.
And He said, “No, certainly you laughed!”
YAHWEH, Who knows the thoughts of every person’s heart and mind,
now speaks directly to Sarah.
He knows full well what she did.
She cannot hide it from Him.

Gen. 18:16 And the individuals
rose up from their place.
And they looked over toward Sodom.
And Abraham walked with them
to send them away.

Gen. 18:17 And YAHWEH said,
“Should I Myself be concealing from Abraham that which I Myself am doing?
Gen. 18:18 Also, Abraham is certainly going to be a great and powerful nation.
And all the nations of the earth
will be blessed by means of him.

Gen. 18:19 Indeed, I know him.
According to purpose he will direct his children themselves אָהֵם
and his household itself אִתּוֹ after him.

And he will protect the way of YAHWEH,
by doing justice and right judgment in order that YAHWEH may bring upon Abraham himself אֵלָיו
that which He has spoken concerning him.”

Again we observe an anomaly in the text.
Note that in v. 17 it says,
“And YAHWEH said...”
But here in v. 19 an indirect reference is made to “the way of YAHWEH”, instead of “My way”, and then, “in order that YAHWEH may bring...”,
and not, “that I Myself may bring.”

This is the dialog of a third party, separate from YAHWEH.
It is not placed in the first person
as one would expect if it's truly YAHWEH Who is speaking.

It's these out-of-character statements that lead to uncertainty with who is really speaking.
In light of this it's worth considering that this is not YAHWEH Himself,
but is instead His “personal messenger”.

A damaged and incorrectly edited text would account for these problems.

We have numerous other instances of "the angel of YAHWEH" making visits to people in the text of various books.

And we must also remember that any "messenger of YAHWEH" (typically called an angel) is His delegate, his ambassador. These messengers come in the Name of YAHWEH, bringing with them His power and authority. They speak and act "as Him", as if He Himself were the one speaking or acting.

It's within this concept that many improper understandings develop through those who may not correctly understand this aspect of Hebrew thought.

Gen. 18:20 And YAHWEH said,
"Because the outcry of Sodom and Amorah is great,
and because their offense is very burdensome,
Gen. 18:21 I will go down now.
And I will see whether their outcry which has come to Me is made accurately.
And if not I will know."

kalah is the term translated here as "accurately".
It means complete or accomplished.
Accurately has been used to convey the idea of "completely correct".

Gen. 18:22 And the individuals
turned away from there.
And they went toward Sodom.

But Abraham himself was still standing
before the face of YAHWEH.

The literal sense of the text is as given.
But this, once again, presents the issue of "seeing the face" of YAHWEH and living.

While there is the Hebraic sense of "in the presence" for "before the face",
it ultimately makes no difference.
If you are in someone's presence
you are with them, before their face.
You see them!

This leaves us with the only logical result.
This was not YAHWEH Himself,
but had to be His messenger,
a divine being sent as His ambassador,
and therefore speaking and acting
"in the name of" and with the authority
of YAHWEH Himself.

If this is not true then there is an extremely serious problem with Scripture.
It is not consistent.
It makes YAHWEH appear to be a liar,
which we know simply cannot be true.

Gen. 18:23 And Abraham came near.
And he said,
"Will You also sweep away the just
with the morally wrong?
Gen. 18:24 Perhaps there are fifty just within the city.
Will You also sweep them away
and not spare the place for the sake of the fifty just who are in it?"

The term translated as "spare" is tisa'.
It means to lift up.
The concept is that of lifting one's hand from them,
relieving them from destruction.

Gen. 18:25 Far be it from You to do according to this manner,
to kill the just with the morally wrong!
And are the just to be treated
the same as the morally wrong?

Far be it from You!
Does The Judge of all the earth
not do what is right?"
Gen. 18:26 And YAHWEH said,
"If I find in Sedom fifty just within the city,
I will even spare the entire place
on account of them."
Gen. 18:27 And Abraham responded and said,
"Behold now!
I who am but dust and ashes
have taken it upon myself
to speak to my Sovereign.
Gen. 18:28 Perhaps five are lacking of the just, five.
Will You ruin the entire city itself ~~nx~~ because of five?"
And He said, "If I find there forty five
I will not ruin it."
*There is a change here from "sweep away" to "ruin".
It's a small thing, and many translations
do not identify this shift in terminology.
However, even small changes call attention to a shift in emphasis within the text and should be noted.*

Gen. 18:29 And he spoke to Him yet again and said,
"Perhaps forty are found there."
And He said, "I will not do it on account of forty."
Gen. 18:30 And he said, "Behold now!
Do not be furious with me, my Sovereign,
and I will speak.
Perhaps thirty are found there."
And He said, "I will not do it if I find thirty there."
Gen. 18:31 And he said, "Behold now!
I have taken it upon myself
to speak to my Sovereign.
Perhaps there are found twenty?"
And He said, "I will not ruin it
on account of twenty."
Gen. 18:32 And he said, "Please now!
Do not be angry with me, my Sovereign and I will speak but once more.
Perhaps ten are found there."
And He said, "I will not ruin it
on account of the ten."

Gen. 18:33 And YAHWEH went away
in as much as He had finished speaking to Abraham.
And Abraham returned to his place.

Chapter 19

Gen. 19:1 And the two messengers
came to Sedom in the evening.
And Lot was sitting in the gate of Sedom.
And Lot saw them.
And he rose up to meet them.
And he bowed his face toward the ground.
Gen. 19:2 And he said, "Behold now, my masters!
Please turn aside to the house of your servant
and stop for the night and wash your feet.
And rise early and go your way."
But they said, "No indeed.
We will stop for the night in the square."

Gen. 19:3 And he pressed upon them greatly.
And they turned aside to him.
And they came to his house.
And he made them a banquet.
And he baked unleavened bread.
And they ate.

*All of Lot's actions thus far
are a normal part of Eastern hospitality.
They would never think
to leave a stranger outside over night.
It's the "Code of the East" to do everything you can to assist a stranger in your midst.*

Gen. 19:4 Before they lay down even men of the city, the men of Sodom, completely surrounded the house,
from young to old,
all the people from every extreme.
Gen. 19:5 And they called to Lot.
And they said to him,
“Where are the individuals who came to you tonight?
Bring them out to us
and let us know carnally they themselves תא.”

Gen. 19:6 And Lot went out of the entrance to them.
And he shut the door behind himself.
Gen. 19:7 And he said, “Please now, my brothers,
do not cause harm!

tare'u is the Hebrew word
that is typically translated as “wickedly”, or “evil”.
Its root form is ra'a.
It means to spoil, primarily by breaking in pieces.
Ultimately it means to harm or to damage.

Gen. 19:8 Behold now!
I have two daughters
who have not known a man carnally.
Please, let me bring out to you they themselves תא,
these very ones.
And do to them as is pleasing in your sight!
However, to these individuals
do absolutely nothing because for this reason they have come under the shadow of my roof!”

This portion of the story is extremely difficult to understand
for one who is not familiar with Eastern culture.

The “Law of Hospitality” which is well understood by everyone in such a culture meant that if someone came under your roof
they came under your personal authority and protection.
If you let anything bad happen to them
you were held responsible, personally.

It became your responsibility to protect them
at whatever cost to you or to your family!
Only in this context does Lot's action appear acceptable to the Western mind.

Lot's statements to them are emphatic.
He is fulfilling his obligation, as their host,
to do everything in his power to protect them.

“The shadow of my roof”
is a Hebraism for “under my protection.”

Gen. 19:9 But they said, “Stand back!”
And they said, “This one came in to sojourn and he has judged, judging us!
Now we will do harm to you instead of to them.”
And they pressed violently against the man, Lot.
And they came near to break apart the door.

Gen. 19:10 But the individuals put forth the hands of they themselves תא.
And they brought Lot himself תא to them,
into the house.
And they shut the door itself תא.

Gen. 19:11 And the men themselves תא
who were at the entrance to the house
they struck with blindness, from small to great.
And they wearied themselves finding the door.

Gen. 19:12 And the individuals said to Lot,
“Have you anyone else here?
A son-in-law,
and your sons,
and your daughters,
and all you have in the city,

bring them out of this place
Gen. 19:13 because we ourselves are going to destroy this place itself נא
because their outcry is great against the face itself נא of YAHWEH.
And YAHWEH has sent us to destroy it!"

shacath is the term used for "ruin".

It means literally to decay.

Decay is understood to be "corruption".

This is a very common form of defilement within Scripture.

Decayed, or decaying things, like dead carcasses,
are a source of defilement.

The defilement represented by the actions of those within Sodom is apparently extremely great.

The actions indicated
by the individuals who live there gives us a bit of insight into the problem,
but only a small glimpse.
The totality of their "corruption" is not known.

The outcry (literally, shriek) of these acts
has come "to the face",
into the very presence itself, of YAHWEH.
YAHWEH has determined to bring it to an end.

Gen. 19:14 And Lot went out.
And he spoke to his sons-in-law
who had taken his daughters.
And he said, "Get up!
Get out of this place because YAHWEH
is going to destroy the city itself נא!"
But it was like joking
in the eyes of his sons-in-law.

Gen. 19:15 And as the dawn arose
the messengers urged Lot saying, "Get up!
Take your wife herself נא
and your two daughters themselves נא,
those found here,
lest you be swept away
with the perversion of the city!"

Gen. 19:16 But he delayed.
And the individuals firmly took hold on his hand,
and on his wife's hand,
and on the hands of his two daughters
with the compassion of YAHWEH toward him.
And they brought him out.
And they set him outside the city.

Gen. 19:17 And it was as he was bringing they themselves נא to the outside.
And he said, "Escape for your life!
Do not look behind you!
And do not stand anywhere in the valley!
Escape to the hills lest you be swept away!"

Gen. 19:18 But Lot said to them,
"Please, no, my masters!

Gen. 19:19 Behold now!
Your servant has found favor in your eyes.
And your kindness has been great which you have done with me
by keeping alive my life itself נא.

But I am not able to escape to the mountains
lest calamity overtakes me and I am killed.

Gen. 19:20 Behold now!
This city is nearby to flee to and it is small.
Please! Let me escape there.
It is a small thing, and my life will live?"

Gen. 19:21 And he said to him, "Behold!
I have lifted up your face concerning this matter also,

concerning my not overthrowing the city itself nx
of which you have spoken.

The phrase, "lifted up your face"
is a Hebraic way of saying,
"I have granted favor to you."
or, "I have accepted your request."

The concept of face is left in the text
because it's a key term in Scripture that links actions together in many ways that otherwise are lost in translation.

Gen. 19:22 Hurry! Escape to the place designated because I am not able to do the matter until you arrive at the designated place."

On account of this

the name of the city was called Tzo'ar.

Again we find an interesting idiom.
The term shem is used twice.
It means "name", a title, or a designation.
In most translations it is rendered simply as "there".
But the reference is to a designated place.
Interestingly, we see that Lot's comment
about it being small becomes its name, Tzo'ar, which means little.

Gen. 19:23 The sun had risen over the land
as Lot entered Tzo'ar.

Gen. 19:24 And YAHWEH rained
upon Sodom and Amorah brimstone and fire out of the skies
from YAHWEH Himself nx.

Brimstone literally means burning stone.
It's generally identified as sulfur.

Lot chose this valley because it was well-watered,
like the garden in Eden.
Sulfur ignites on contact with water.
Thus the very water that made the place beautiful was now used to obliterate everything in it.

Also, while the text appears to indicate "out of the skies"
it may indeed be more directly saying "from The Heaven", meaning the very abode of YAHWEH.

Gen. 19:25 And He overthrew
these cities themselves nx,
and all the valley itself nx,
and all those themselves nx living in the cities,
and that which sprouted from the soil.

Gen. 19:26 And his wife
looked intently from behind him.
And she became a column of salt.

This was not a casual glance back,
but an intense looking.

Gen. 19:27 And Abraham started early in the morning toward the place where he had stood,
there, by the face itself nx of YAHWEH.

Gen. 19:28 And he looked down at the face of Sodom and Amorah,
and at the face of all the land of the valley.
And he observed.

And behold!

Thick smoke ascended from the land
like thick smoke from the smelting furnace.

The symbolism is important here.
The smelting furnace was used for purifying things.
This is what was happening before Abraham's eyes.
The entire landscape was being purified from its defilement.
This should serve as a serious warning to us.
YAHWEH has promised
there will never be another flood to destroy all flesh that's upon the land.
But He has also told us
that next time it will be purged by fire.

Note the continuing use of 'face'.

Gen. 19:29 And it was at The Elohim's destroying of the cities themselves תא of the valley.

And The Elohim took notice of Abraham himself תא.
And He sent Lot himself תא
out of the midst of the overthrow,
in overthrowing the cities themselves תא
in which Lot himself had dwelt.

Gen. 19:30 And Lot went up out of Tzo'ar.
And he lived on a mountain,
and his two daughters with him,
because he was afraid to live in Tzo'ar.
And he lived in a cave,
he and his two daughters.

Once again we see that Lot's choices are not the best.
He begged YAHWEH's messengers
to let him live in Tzo'ar.
Then he was afraid of the place,
so he ended up living exactly where the messengers of YAHWEH
had directed him to go in the first place.

How often we're just like Lot.
We think we know what's best for us,
only to find out it was a big mistake.

Gen. 19:31 And the firstborn said to the younger,
"Our father is old and there is no man in the land
to come in to us

as is the manner of the whole land.

Gen. 19:32 Come!

Let us make our father drink wine.

And we will lie with him

and cause the seed of our father to live."

Gen. 19:33 And they caused their father himself תא
to drink wine that very night.

And the firstborn went in.

And she laid down with her father himself תא.

And he did not perceive when she laid down
or when she arose.

Gen. 19:34 And it was the next day.

And the firstborn said to the younger,

"Behold!

I laid down with my father himself תא last night.

Let us cause him to drink wine tonight also.

And you go in to lie with him.

And we will keep alive the seed of our father."

Gen. 19:35 And they caused their father himself תא
to drink wine that night also.

And the younger arose and laid with him.

And he did not perceive when she laid down

or when she arose.

Gen. 19:36 And both the daughters of Lot became pregnant by their father.

Gen. 19:37 And the firstborn gave birth to a son.

And she called his name Mo'ab.

He is the father of the Mo'abites to this day.

Mo'ab means from her father.

Gen. 19:38 And the younger,

she also gave birth to a son.

And she called his name Ben-Ammi.

He is the father of the children of Ammon to this day.

Ben-Ammi means son of my people.

Chapter 20

Gen. 20:1 And Abraham set out from there to the land of The Negev.

And he settled between Kadesh and Shur, sojourning at Gerar.

Kadesh means sanctuary.
Shur means a wall.
Gerar means drag off roughly.

Gen. 20:2 And Abraham said
concerning Sarah his wife,
“She is my sister.”

And Abimelek, king of Gerar, sent and took away Sarah herself תָּקַח.

Abimelek means my father is king.

Gen. 20:3 But The Elohim came to Abimelek
in a dream of the night.

And He said to him, “Behold!

You are going to die

because of the woman whom you have taken and her being married to a husband.”

The last line of this verse is fascinating.

The Hebrew is be’ulat ba’al.

A ba’al is a master, a husband, or an owner.

Both terms come from this word.

The first, “being married”,
is a participle form of the second.

More importantly, this is the same term used to identify the Phoenician “god”, Ba’al.

It is often translated as “lord”.

Gen. 20:4 But Abimelek had not approached her.

And he said,

“My Sovereign,
will you put to death even a just nation?

Gen. 20:5 Did he not say to me,

‘She is my sister’?

And she herself also said,

‘He is my brother.’

In the integrity of my heart and in the innocence of my hands

I have done this.”

Gen. 20:6 And The Elohim said to him in a dream,

“Yes! I Myself also know that with the integrity of your heart

you did this very thing.

And I also, I Myself,

have restrained you yourself תָּקַח

from offending against Me.

Because of this I did not permit you to reach out toward her.

Most translations do not provide a correct rendering of this verse.

It’s important to recognize that YAHWEH, The Elohim, emphatically told Abimelek that,
“I, even I Myself, restrained you yourself...”

Abimelek was not merely acting out of the integrity of his heart.

He had Divine assistance in staying away from Sarah.

YAHWEH Himself prevented Abimelek

from “offending against Me”.

This is noteworthy.

Abimelek’s actions would constitute

an offense against YAHWEH.

This is now explained to him,
personally and directly.

He is now responsible to YAHWEH for his actions.

What we normally call ‘sin’
is anything that offends YAHWEH.

This also raises a question for us to consider.

How often does YAHWEH intervene in our lives
and we simply don’t recognize it?

Gen. 20:7 And now,
return the wife of the man

because he himself is a prophet!
And he will intercede for you.
And you will live!

But if she is not returned to the man
then know that you are dying.
You yourself תא will die
and all who are yours.”

Gen. 20:8 And Abimelek rose at dawn.
And he called for all his servants.
And he told them all these matters themselves תא
in their hearing.
And the men were greatly afraid.

Gen. 20:9 And Abimelek called Abraham.
And he said to him, “What have you done to us?
How have I offended against you that you have brought upon me and upon my kingdom
this great offense?
Actions which are not to be done
you have done to me!”
Gen. 20:10 And Abimelek said to Abraham,
“What did you see that you did this thing itself תא?”
Gen. 20:11 And Abraham said,
“Indeed, I said there is no reverence of The Elohim in this place.
And they will murder me because of my wife.
Gen. 20:12 And also, she is truly my sister.
She is the daughter of my father,
only not the daughter of my mother.
And she became a wife to me.

Gen. 20:13 And it was as The Elohim caused me myself תא
to wander from my father’s house.
And I said to her,
‘This is your kindness which you will do for me.
At every place to which we come,
there say of me, “He is my brother.”’

Gen. 20:14 And Abimelek took sheep, and oxen,
and male slaves and female slaves.
And he gave them to Abraham.
And he returned to him
Sarah herself תא, his wife.

Gen. 20:15 And Abimelek said, “Behold!
My land is before your face.
Dwell in what is good in your eyes.”

Gen. 20:16 And to Sarah he said, “Behold!
I have given your brother
a thousand pieces of silver.
Behold!
It is to you a covering of the of eyes
for all who are with you yourself תא,
and with everyone themselves תא.
And you are absolved.

Gen. 20:17 And Abraham prayed to The Elohim.
And The Elohim healed Abimelek himself תא,
and his wife herself תא,
and his female slaves.
And they brought forth children.
Gen. 20:18 Indeed, with restraining YAHWEH had closed up all the wombs of the household of Abimelek
because of the matter of Sarah, wife of Abraham.

This is different than other translations.
Most of them simply say 'because of Sarah'.
That is not what the text actually says.
And what it does say raises some interesting possibilities.

He restrained the wombs
"because of the word of Sarah."
What that word may have been is not revealed.
But it appears that Sarah was likely doing a bit of praying herself
in the midst of all this.
It would be highly likely for her to do so.

Chapter 21

Gen. 21:1 And YAHWEH visited Sarah herself תא
just as He had said.
And YAHWEH did with Sarah
just as He had spoken.

Gen. 21:2 And Sarah became pregnant.
And she bore to Abraham
a son in his old age
at the appointed time
of which The Elohim
had spoken to he himself תא.

Gen. 21:3 And Abraham called
the name itself תא of his son,
the one born to him
whom Sarah bore to him, Yitzhak.
Yitzhak means laughter.
It's important to pay close attention to what's really said in this verse.
Many translations fail to make it this explicit.

The focus is on the name of this child.
We are told it is the child born to Abraham
by Sarah - not Hagar.
There is to be absolutely no confusion about this specific child and his lineage.

Gen. 21:4 And Abraham circumcised Yitzhak himself תא, his son,
when he was eight days old,
just as The Elohim had directed he himself תא.

Gen. 21:5 And Abraham was one hundred years old when his son, Yitzhak himself תא, was born to him.

Gen. 21:6 And Sarah said,
"The Elohim has made me a laughing stock.
Everyone who is hearing of it will make fun of me."

This verse is translated differently than most versions have it.
To call attention to the contrast look at the KJV.
"And Sarah said,
"The Elohim has made me to laugh,
so that all that hear will laugh with me."

Note the dramatic difference between these two renderings of this verse.

Surely you'll ask why the verse is translated in this manner,
and rightly you should.
Such a change seems to alter the text of Scripture,
which is not something YAHWEH wants us to do.

Yet it appears those who provided us with the KJV gave "their own opinion"
of what this verse said, not what YAHWEH intended it to convey
- or Sarah for that matter.

It's crucial to take a very close look at the Hebrew terms used in a passage and only then consider its potential meanings, including alternate meanings.

Next, one must look at the context
- not only of this passage,
but of all the rest of Scripture as well.
This is often referred to as "the whole counsel of YAHWEH".

The first Hebrew term for "laugh" means, literally, laughter or scorn, a laughing stock.

The second term, "make fun of", means to laugh, to mock, to play or make sport of, to jest.

Now, go back to Gen. 17.17 and Gen. 18.12-13. Both Abraham and Sarah mocked YAHWEH (they "laughed") when He told them they would have a child in their old age - after Sarah was past the child-bearing possibilities in their minds.

In reality they both mocked YAHWEH! This was no joke. They did not "laugh", as in joyful laughter. This was not funny to them.

They had waited many years for a child and had not been able to conceive. The irony of YAHWEH coming to them at this point in their lives and telling them they would have a child caused them to question Him, and to respond to Him as though this was foolishness. These were responses of ridicule, of mocking, of "making sport" of YAHWEH. (See also Ezek. 23.32)

When Sarah has this child and Abraham names him Yitzhak, as YAHWEH had instructed him to do, there is the absolute recognition that He has now "made a laughing stock" of both of them.

The context of Scripture causes the recognition that He has firmly reminded Sarah that she was wrong.

Gen. 21:7 And she said,
"Who would have said to Abraham
'Sarah will nurse children.?'
Yet I have born a son in his old age."

Gen. 21:8 And the child grew and was weaned.
And Abraham made a great banquet
on the day Yitzhak himself נא was weaned.

Gen. 21:9 And Sarah saw the son himself נא
of Hagar, the Mitsraite,
which she had born to Abraham.
He was mocking.

Gen. 21:10 And she said to Abraham,
"Drive out this female slave herself נא
and her son himself נא
because the son of this female slave herself נא
will not inherit with my son, with Yitzhak."

Gen. 21:11 And the matter was exceedingly bad
in the eyes of Abraham on account of his son.
Yishma'el is Abraham's son also.
He is, in fact, his firstborn.
This demand on the part of Sarah placed him under great stress
because it means sending away
the only son he had up to this point.

Gen. 21:12 But The Elohim said to Abraham,
"Let it not be hurtful in your eyes concerning the young man
and concerning your female slave.
All that Sarah has said to you,
listen attentively to her voice.
Indeed, in Yitzhak your seed will be called after you.

Gen. 21:13 And even of the son himself נא
of the female slave I will make a nation,
because he himself is your seed."

It's easy to lose sight of the reality here.
Yishma'el is indeed Abraham's son.
He is the firstborn,
although he is not from Sarah.

He has been circumcised, just like Abraham.
He is thereby marked
as a "child of the covenant" forever.

Gen. 21:14 And Abraham rose up
early in the morning.
And he took food and a skin of water.
And he gave them to Hagar,
putting them on her shoulder,
and the young man himself וְהַיְשָׁמָאֵל.
And he sent her away.
And she went out and wandered in the Wilderness of Be'ersheba.

Yishma'el was thirteen
when he was circumcised.
He is not a young child.
He is fourteen now.
Culturally he's an adult.
He's Abraham's son as well as Hagar's.
The point is made that he gave Hagar food and water and the young man, Yishma'el himself.
It was both of them he sent away
in immediate response to YAHWEH's message to him.

Gen. 21:15 And the water in the skin was used up.
And she threw the young man himself וְהַיְשָׁמָאֵל
under one of the shrubs.

Gen. 21:16 And she went and sat down by herself
a bowshot away because she said,
"Let me not see the death of the young man."
And she sat far away.
And she lifted up her voice וְהִיא and wept.

Gen. 21:17 And The Elohim listened attentively to the voice וְהִיא of the young man.

And a messenger of The Elohim called to Hagar from The Heaven.
And he said to her, "What is with you, Hagar?
Do not be afraid!
Indeed, The Elohim has listened attentively
to the voice of the young man
at that spot, there.

Observe these words very carefully.
The Elohim listened attentively
to the voice of the young man.

Hagar is caught up in self-pity.
Her focus is not on what The Elohim wants.
She's not caring for her child,
she's looking out for herself.
All her weeping and wailing is to no avail from The Elohim's perspective.

Hagar knew The Elohim.
She'd encountered Him
in her previous experience in the wilderness.
But she'd forgotten Him.

Indeed, there's nothing in these verses to suggest Hagar was crying out to YAHWEH
or praying for the young man at all.

She doesn't want to watch him die.
The focus is on herself.
The "prayers" of such people are not heard by YAHWEH,
for they are prayers of selfishness - an offense.

The Elohim listened attentively
to the cries of the young man.
And now He directs his response to Hagar,
who is responsible for him.

He asks her what her problem is.
But the focus is the young man, not Hagar.
From this point on Hagar is mentioned
only one more time in all of Scripture.

Gen. 21:18 Get up!
Lift up the young man himself אָ
and put your hand itself אָ on him because I will establish a great people
on account of him.”

Hagar is chastised for her neglect.
She is also reminded of the earlier promise
she was given concerning the young man.

Now, note the language of “the messenger of The Elohim”.
It is first person singular, “I”!
Is it the messenger, speaking as The Elohim?
Or is it The Elohim Himself?
A messenger does not have the ability to make of one a great people.
Only YAHWEH has that power and authority.

Thus, the language of the text,
including the next verse, suggests this was not merely a messenger of The Elohim,
but The Elohim Himself.

Once again there is a question raised about the text that we cannot answer, unless we accept that the messenger
is speaking “as if” he is The Elohim
- as His delegated representative,
bringing with him The Elohim’s authority and power.

Gen. 21:19 And The Elohim opened her eyes themselves אָ.
And she saw a well of water.
And she went.
And she filled the skin itself אָ with water.
And she caused the young man himself אָ to drink.

Gen. 21:20 And The Elohim
was with the young man himself אָ.
And he grew up.
And he settled in the wilderness.
And he was an archer, a bowman.
Gen. 21:21 And he settled in the Wilderness of Paran.
And his mother took a wife for him
from the land of Mitsraim.
Paran means beauty, ornamental.
Mitsraim means double straits. This is Egypt.

Gen. 21:22 And it was at that time that Abimelek and Pikhol,
the commander of his army,
spoke to Abraham saying,
“The Elohim is with you
in everything that you yourself אָ are doing.
Abimelek means my father is king.
Pikhol means mouth of all; or, all mouth.

Gen. 21:23 And now,
swear to me here by The Elohim.
If you deal falsely with me, or with my son,
or with my son’s sons...
According to the kindness that I have done to you,
you will do with me
and with the land in which you have sojourned.”
Gen. 21:24 And Abraham said, “I swear.”

Gen. 21:25 But Abraham reproved Abimelek himself אָ
concerning the well of water which Abimelek’s slaves had taken by force.
Gen. 21:26 And Abimelek said,
“I do not know who has done
this very matter itself אָ.”

Also, you yourself אָנ did not reveal it to me.
And I have not heard of it except this day.”

Gen. 21:27 And Abraham took sheep and cattle.
And he gave them to Abimelek.
And the two of them cut a covenant.
*A covenant was sealed by cutting animals in two and walking between them.
It involved a solemn oath that if either broke the covenant
they would be cut in two
by the other party to the covenant.*

Gen. 21:28 And Abraham stood seven specific ewe lambs themselves אָנ of the flock
by themselves.

Gen. 21:29 And Abimelek said to Abraham,
“What are these seven ewe lambs, these which you have stood by themselves?”
Gen. 21:30 And he said,
“Because these seven specific אָנ ewe lambs
you are to take from my hand for the sake of being for me the witness that I have dug this well itself אָנ.”

Gen. 21:31 Because of this
he himself called that place Be’ersheba,
because the two of them swore an oath there.
*Be’ersheba means well of the seven;
or well of the oath.*

Gen. 21:32 And they cut a covenant at Be’ersheba.
And Abimelek rose up.
And Pikhol, the commander of his army, rose up.
And they returned to the land of the Philistines.
Philistines means wandering, migratory.

Gen. 21:33 And he planted
a tamarisk tree at Be’ersheba.
And he proclaimed there the Name of YAHWEH,
The Eternal El.
*A tree or a grove was often planted
at sacred sites in the Eastern cultures.
Abraham established a “shrine” to YAHWEH.
He did not merely call upon the Name of YAHWEH, he proclaimed it,
by his very actions,
and by his acts of worship
that most likely took place here also.
He made known that YAHWEH
is his Eternal El (God).*

Gen. 21:34 And Abraham sojourned
in the land of the Philistines many days.

Chapter 22

Gen. 22:1 And it was after these matters.
And The Elohim tested Abraham.
And He said to him, “Abraham!”
And he said, “I am here!”
Lit. - Behold, ME!
Gen. 22:2 And He said,
“Take now your son himself אָנ,
your only one himself אָנ whom you love,
Yitzhak himself אָנ.
And go with him to the land of Moriyah.
And offer him up there as an olah
on one of the mountains which I will say to you.”
*Moriyah means seen by YAH.
The Hebrew is extremely intensive in this verse.
Few translations even come close
to rendering it’s potent significance.*

*Three times YAHWEH emphasizes Yitzhak specifically,
in three different ways.
And three times He gives to us
a foreshadowing of His own Son,*

Whom He loves,
His only Son, YAHUSHUA
Who would be sacrificed
in this very same place
thousands of years later.

An olah is an offering of complete surrender or submission.
It was entirely consumed by fire.
Nothing was left of it but ashes.

Gen. 22:3 And Abraham rose early in the morning.
And he saddled his male ass itself תא.
And he took two of his young men themselves תא,
he himself תא, and Yitzhak himself תא, his son.
And he split the wood for the olah.
And he rose up.
And he went to the place
of which The Elohim had spoken to him.

Traditional translations overlook
several aspects of this verse.
They tend to run the dialog together with one comma after another.

These are separate actions.
Each has its very own special significance,
as we see later in the story.
The emphasis in the Hebrew
is once again profoundly important.

Gen. 22:4 And on the third day
Abraham lifted up his eyes themselves תא.
And he saw the place itself תא from a distance.

Gen. 22:5 And Abraham said to his young men, “Stay here with the male ass.
And I myself and the young man will go as far as that and worship.
And we will return to you.”

Now we see the young men
given the task of watching the male ass
while Abraham and Yitzhak go to worship
on the distant mountain.
And Abraham declares, “We will return...”, indicating his complete faith in YAHWEH
that Yitzhak will somehow return with him.
What astounding faith!

Gen. 22:6 And Abraham took
the wood itself תא of the olah.
And he laid it upon Yitzhak, his son.
And he took the fire itself תא in his hand,
and the knife itself תא.
And the two of them journeyed in unity.

Note the three items emphasized.
The wood, the fire, and the knife,
the essential elements needed for a sacrifice.

Yitzhak carries the wood
(the tree - his own “torture stake”).
His own father lays it upon him.
Abraham, the father, takes the fire and the knife.
And they journey in unity.

Do you have any doubt about the symbolism
and its connection to The Messiah?

Gen. 22:7 And Yitzhak spoke to Abraham, his father,
and he said, “My father!”
And he said, “I am here, my son!”
And he said, “Behold, the fire and the wood,
but where is the lamb for an olah?”

Gen. 22:8 And Abraham said,
“The Elohim will see to it,
a lamb for an olah, my son.”

And the two of them journeyed in unity.
Once again we find faulty English in most translations.

The word is yi'reh.
It means to see, literally or figuratively.
The Hebrew literally says "see to it".

The Elohim will take care of providing the lamb.
This is yet another foreshadowing of future events
that will take place in this very spot.
YAHWEH takes care of arranging for
"The Lamb of God".

Gen. 22:9 And they came to the place
of which The Elohim had spoken to him.
And Abraham built there
the slaughter site itself נא.

And he arranged in order the wood itself נא.

And he bound Yitzhak himself נא, his son.

And he placed he himself נא
upon the slaughter site,
upon the wood.

The specifics of this verse are critical to its proper understanding.
They came to the place,
the very place YAHWEH had indicated to Abraham.
In that place Abraham (the father)
built the slaughter site *itself.
Then the father arranged the wood *itself.
And the father bound Yitzhak *himself.
Bound - the only place this term is used in Scripture.

And the father put he *himself (Yitzhak, the son)
upon the slaughter site - upon the wood.

The connection to the sacrifice of The Messiah
by The Father - is unmistakable!
Every aspect "prophesies"
the sacrifice of The Messiah!

Gen. 22:10 And Abraham put forth his hand itself נא.
And he took the knife itself נא
for the sake of killing his son himself נא.

Gen. 22:11 And a messenger of YAHWEH
called to him from The Heaven.

And he said, "Abraham, Abraham!"

And he said, "I am here!"

Gen. 22:12 And he said,

"Do not extend your hand upon the young man!

And do not a thing to him

because now I know that you yourself נא revere The Elohim!

And you have not withheld

your son himself נא,

your only one himself נא, from Me."

A reminder.
Abraham has another son, Yishma'el.
But this is the only one
"begotten" by Abraham with his wife, Sarah.

Gen. 22:13 And Abraham lifted up
his eyes themselves נא.

And he looked.

And behold!

Behind him was a ram

caught in a thicket by its horns.

And Abraham went.

And he took the ram itself נא.

And he offered it up for an olah
instead of his son.

Gen. 22:14 And Abraham called
the name of that place,

'YAHWEH Yireh,' as it is said this day,

"On the mountain of YAHWEH it will be seen."

YAHWEH Yireh means YAHWEH will see,
or, YAHWEH sees, or is seeing.

The recurring use of "see" and "eyes" throughout Scripture connects directly to this. In this instance YAHWEH "sees to the lamb". In the future He does this again - in the very same place.

This is the only place Yireh is found in Scripture. It is the name of this very place, not a "name of God". Those who teach this is a "name of God" are teaching against The Word of YAHWEH!

Gen. 22:15 And a messenger of YAHWEH called to Abraham a second time from The Heaven.

Gen. 22:16 And he said,
"By Myself I have sworn,"
- A declaration of YAHWEH.-
"that because of what you have done,
this matter itself nx,
and have not withheld your son himself nx,
your only one himself nx,
Gen. 22:17 indeed, blessing, I will bless you!
And increasing, I will increase your seed itself nx
like the stars of the skies
and like the sand
that is upon the shore of the sea.
And your seed will occupy
the gate itself nx of its adversaries.

Again the promise is reaffirmed to Abraham following this test.
He has proven himself worthy of honor by doing what YAHWEH had instructed him to do - without hesitating.

Note: The gate of the city was its "headquarters". Official business was done here, much like the court houses of today. To "possess" a gate was to conquer the city. Everything within it was ruled from this place.

Gen. 22:18 And by your seed will all the peoples of the earth be blessed as a consequence of your listening attentively to My voice."

shama' is the Hebrew word that is often translated as "obey". It literally means to listen attentively (intensely).

When one listens attentively to what YAHWEH speaks to us we are often moved to respond by doing what He tells us we are to do.

While this is given the connotation of obedience, it is, more properly, a willing response on our part to do as He has said. If it were otherwise we would have no "freedom".

Obedience is the result of listening very carefully to what one is told and then acting in accordance with it. It involves no "command", no "requirement", but instead evokes a response from those with whom it "resonates".

Gen. 22:19 And Abraham returned to his young men. And they rose up. And they went in unity to Be'ersheba. And Abraham settled at Be'ersheba.

Gen. 22:20 And it was after these matters. And it was told to Abraham saying, "Behold! Milkah, even she, has also given birth to children, to Nahor your brother:
Milkah means queen.

Gen. 22:21 Utz himself תא his firstborn,
and Buz himself תא his brother,
and Kemu'el himself תא, father of Aram, Gen. 22:22 and Kesed himself תא,
and Hazo himself תא,
and Pildash himself תא,
and Yidlaph himself תא,
and Bethu'el himself תא.”

Utz means counsel.

Buz means disrespect.

Kemu'el means raised of El, or by El.

Aram means elevated, high.

Kesed means increase.

Hazo means seer; vision.

Pildash means flame of fire.

Yidlaph means tearful, a drip; melting away.

Bethu'el means destroyed of EL; separated by El.

Gen. 22:23 And Bethu'el fathered Ribkah herself תא.

Ribkah means fettering.

These eight Milkah bore
to Nahor, Abraham's brother.

Gen. 22:24 And his concubine's name was Re'umah.

And she also bore Tebah himself תא,

and Gaham himself תא,

and Tahash himself תא,

and Ma'akah himself תא.

Re'umah means raised, lifted up.

Tebah means massacre, slaughter.

Gaham means to burn, flame.

Tahash means a clean animal with fur; badger.

Ma'akah means depression; pressure.

Chapter 23

Gen. 23:1 And Sarah was one hundred years
and twenty years and seven years,
the years of the life of Sarah.

Sarah is the only woman in Scripture
who's life span is recorded.

Gen. 23:2 And Sarah died at Kiryat Arba, that is Hebron, in the land of Kena'an.

And Abraham went to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

Kiryat Arba city of Arba.

Arba means four.

Hebron means friend; communion.

Kena'an means humiliated.

Abraham was living at Be'ersheba.

It's not specified why they may have been separated.

Gen. 23:3 And Abraham rose up
from beside his dead.

And he spoke to the sons of Heth saying,

Heth means terror.

Gen. 23:4 "I am a foreigner
and a sojourner among you.

Give to me possession
of a burying place among you,
and I will bury my dead away from my sight."

Gen. 23:5 And the sons of Heth answered Abraham himself תא, saying to him,

Gen. 23:6 "Listen attentively to us, my master.
Exalted by The Elohim

are you yourself תא in our midst.

In our best burying places bury your dead herself תא.

Not a man from us will restrain you from his own burying place, תא

from burying your dead."

Gen. 23:7 And Abraham rose up.

And he bowed himself to the people of the land,
to the sons of Heth.

Gen. 23:8 And he himself תא spoke with them saying,
"If it is by your life itself תא

to let me bury my dead herself תא out of my sight
listen attentively to me
and meet for me with Ephron, son of Tzohar, Gen. 23:9 and grant to me
the cave of Makpelah itself תא
which he has which is at the end of his field.
At the full money's worth grant it to me in your midst
as a possession for a burying place."

Ephron means dust.

Tzohar means whiteness.

Makpelah means double.

Gen. 23:10 And Ephron was sitting in the midst of the sons of Heth.
And Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham himself תא
in the hearing of the sons of Heth,
all entering into the gate of his city, saying,
Gen. 23:11 "No, my master!
Listen attentively to me!
I give you the field and the cave that is in it.
To you I give it in the eyes of the sons of my people.
I give it to you.
Bury your dead!"

Gen. 23:12 And Abraham bowed himself
before the people of the land.
Gen. 23:13 And he spoke to Ephron
in the hearing of the people of the land, saying,
"If only you yourself תא
will listen attentively to me.
I give to you silver for the field.
Take it from me,
and I will bury my dead herself תא there."

Gen. 23:14 And Ephron answered Abraham himself תא, saying to him,
Gen. 23:15 "My master, listen attentively to me!
The land is worth four hundred shekels of silver.
What is that between you and me?
Now, bury your dead herself תא."

Gen. 23:16 And Abraham listened attentively to Ephron.
And Abraham weighed to Ephron
the silver which he had declared
in the hearing of the sons of Heth,
four hundred shekels of silver which passes with a merchant.

Gen. 23:17 And it was established.
The field of Ephron which was in Makpelah, which was before Mamre,
the field and the cave which was in it and all the trees that were in the field which were within all the surrounding borders
Gen. 23:18 were deeded to Abraham
as a purchased possession
in the eyes of the sons of Heth,
before all who were entering the gate of his city.

Gen. 23:19 And after this Abraham buried
Sarah herself תא, his wife,
in the cave of the field of Makpelah,
before Mamre, which is Hebron,
in the land of Kena'an.

Gen. 23:20 And the field and the cave that is in it were established to Abraham as a possession,
for a burying place,
by the sons of Heth themselves תא.

Chapter 24

Gen. 24:1 And Abraham was old,
advanced in days.

And YAHWEH had blessed Abraham himself אַבְרָהָם
in all things.

Gen. 24:2 And Abraham said
to the oldest servant in his household,
the one who ruled in all that was his,
“Please put your hand under my thigh.

Gen. 24:3 And I will cause you to swear by YAHWEH,
The Elohim of The Heaven
and The Elohim of the earth,
that you will not take a wife for my son
from the daughters of the Kena'anites,
whom I dwell in the midst of.

Gen. 24:4 Instead, to my land and to my relatives you are to go and take a wife for my son, for Yitzhak.”

Gen. 24:5 And the servant said to him, “Perhaps the woman may not be willing to come after me to this land itself אֶרֶץ.
Am I to take your son himself אֶבְרָהָם back to the land from which you have come out?”

Gen. 24:6 And Abraham said to him, “Be careful that you do not take my son himself אֶבְרָהָם back there!

Gen. 24:7 YAHWEH, The Elohim of The Heaven,
Who took me from the household of my father and from the land of my kindred,
and Who spoke to me,
and Who swore to me saying,
‘To your seed I will give this land itself אֶרֶץ.’,
He Himself will send His messenger before you.
And you will take a wife for my son from there.

Gen. 24:8 And if the woman is not willing to come behind you,
then you will be released from this, my oath.
However, do not take my son himself אֶבְרָהָם back there!”

Gen. 24:9 And the servant put his hand itself אֶת יָדוֹ
under the thigh of Abraham his master.
And he swore to him concerning this word.

*It's not clear what the significance of this form of swearing an oath involved.
It's obviously a serious form of contract,
but its exact meaning is not known.*

*The thigh is used as a euphemism
for the reproductive organs on occasion,
so it's likely connected to the concept of the seed of Abraham.*

Gen. 24:10 And the servant took ten camels
of the camels of his master.
And he went.
And all the goodness of his master was in his hand.
And he arose and went to Aram Naharaim,
to the city of Nahor.

*Aram Naharaim means city of the two rivers (Tigris and Euphrates).
It was in Mesopotamia, modern day Iraq.*

Gen. 24:11 And he caused his camels
to kneel down outside the city
by a well of water at the time of the evening,
the time when women go out to draw.

Gen. 24:12 And he said,
“YAHWEH, The Elohim of my master, Abraham,

please cause it to happen before me this day
and do kindness to my master, Abraham.
Gen. 24:13 Behold!
I am standing by the spring of water and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.
Gen. 24:14 And let it be the young woman to whom I will say,
'Please extend your pitcher that I may drink.'
and she answers, 'Drink!
And I will also water your camels.'
may she herself nx be the one You have decided for Your servant Yitzhak.
And by this I will know that You have done kindness to my master."

Gen. 24:15 And it was before he had ended speaking.
And behold!
Ribkah, who was born to Bethu'el, son of Milcah,
the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, came out.
And her pitcher was upon her shoulder.
Ribkah means fettered. Bethu'el means destroyed by El. Milcah means queen.
Nahor means snorter.
Abraham means father of a multitude.

Gen. 24:16 And the young woman was exceedingly pleasant to look at,
a virgin who had not known a man.

And she descended to the spring.
And she filled her pitcher.
And she ascended.

Gen. 24:17 And the servant ran to meet her.
And he said,
"Please let me swallow
a little water from your pitcher."

Gen. 24:18 And she said, "Drink, my master."
And she hurried.
And she let down her pitcher upon her hand.
And she gave him a drink.

There are two forms of the words used for drink.
The first, shatah, implies to drink heartily,
not just a little sip.
She's offering him more than he requests,
showing her generosity and kindness.
The second term, shaqah, refers to "to drink",
she gave him water "to drink" \(gave him a drink\).
The first is a verb.
The second is a noun.
The terms are different
in their construct and in their usage.
This is less obvious to the English reader
than to the Hebrew reader.
It's these subtle distinctions we often miss
when we don't do our homework.

Also, please note the play on words
involved in the Hebrew.
They sound very much alike.

Gen. 24:19 And she finished giving him to drink.
And she said, "I will draw for your camels also until they have finished drinking."

Gen. 24:20 And she hurried.
And she emptied her pitcher into the trough.
And she ran again to the well to draw.
And she drew for all his camels.

Gen. 24:21 And the man,
being astonished by her,
was itching to know whether YAHWEH
had caused his journey to succeed or not.

There is some uncertainty
concerning the term used in line two.
Some say it means to gaze in wonder.

But the underlying term, sha'ah, means to break out suddenly, as a storm; to devastate or stun. The basic idea is that of astonishment.

charash is the term used for "itching". It means to scratch, cut, or engrave. This appears to be a Hebrew idiom parallel to our concept of "itching to know". Others use "waiting in silence", which does not flow easily from the definition of the word.

Gen. 24:22 And it was as the camels had finished drinking.

And the man took a gold ring of a half shekel weight and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold.

Gen. 24:23 And he said, "Whose daughter are you? Please tell me.

Is there room in your father's house for us to spend the night?"

Gen. 24:24 And she said to him, "I am the daughter of Bethu'el, the son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor."

Gen. 24:25 And she said to him, "We have both straw and fodder in abundance, and also room to lodge in."

Gen. 24:26 And the man bowed his head. And he worshipped YAHWEH.

Gen. 24:27 And he said, "Blessed be The Elohim of my master Abraham, Who has not forsaken His kindness and His faithfulness to my master. I, upon the way, have been guided by YAHWEH to the household of my master's kindred."

Gen. 24:28 And the young woman ran. And she reported these matters to her mother's household.

Gen. 24:29 And Ribkah had a brother whose name was Laban.

And Laban ran out to the man, to the spring.

Laban means white.

Gen. 24:30 And it was at his seeing the ring itself תא and the bracelets themselves תא upon the hands of his sister, and having heard the words themselves תא of Ribkah, his sister, saying, "After this manner the man spoke to me.", he also went out to the man. And behold!

He was standing by the camels at the spring.

Gen. 24:31 And he said, "Come, blessed of YAHWEH! Why do you stand outside?

Also, I have prepared the house and a place for the camels."

Gen. 24:32 And the man came into the house. And he unloaded the camels.

And he gave straw and fodder for the camels and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with he himself תא.

Gen. 24:33 And he set food before him to eat. But he said,

"I will not eat until I have said my words." And he said, "Speak!"

Gen. 24:34 And he said, "I am a servant of Abraham.

Gen. 24:35 And YAHWEH has blessed exceedingly my master himself תא.

And he has become great.
And He has given to him flocks and herds,
and silver and gold,
and male and female servants,
and camels and asses.

Gen. 24:36 And Sarah, wife of my master,
bore a son to my master after she was old.
And he has given to him
everything itself nx that is his.

Gen. 24:37 And my master made me swear saying,
'You are not to take a wife for my son
from the daughters of the Kena'anites
in whose land I dwell,

Gen. 24:38 but you are to go to my father's household and to my kindred and take a wife for my son.'

Gen. 24:39 And I said to my master,
'Perhaps the woman will not come behind me?'

Gen. 24:40 And he said to me,
'YAHWEH, before Whom I walk,
will send His messenger with you yourself nx.
And He will cause your way to succeed.
And you are to take a wife for my son
from my relatives
and from the household of my father.

Gen. 24:41 And you will be innocent concerning my oath
when you come to my kindred
and if they do not give one to you.
Even you will be innocent concerning my oath.'

Gen. 24:42 And I came today to the spring.
And I said,
'YAHWEH, Elohim of my master, Abraham,
if you will be pleased,
cause to succeed the way in which I am going.

Gen. 24:43 Behold!
I myself am standing by the spring of water.
And may it be the young woman,
the one coming out to draw, and I say to her,
'Please, let me drink a little water from your pitcher.',
Gen. 24:44 and she says to me,
"Even so. You yourself drink and I will also draw for your camels.', may she be the woman whom YAHWEH has decided for the son of my master.'

Gen. 24:45 Before I was done speaking in my heart, behold! Even Ribkah came out.
And her pitcher was on her shoulder.
And she went down to the spring and drew.
And I said to her, 'Please, let me drink a little!'

Gen. 24:46 And she hurried and let down her pitcher from upon her and said, 'Drink a little!
And I will also give a drink to your camels.'
And I drank and the camels drank also.

Gen. 24:47 And I asked her herself nx.
And I said, 'Whose daughter are you yourself nx?'
And she said,
'The daughter of Bethu'el, son of Nahor, whom Milcah bore to him.'

And I put the ring on her face and the bracelets on her hands.
Gen. 24:48 And I bowed my head.
And I worshipped YAHWEH.
And I blessed YAHWEH Himself nx,
The Elohim of my master, Abraham,
Who had guided me in the way of faithfulness

to take the daughter herself תא
of my master's kindred for his son.

Gen. 24:49 And now, if you will do kindness and truthfulness to my master himself תא
declare it to me.
And if you will not declare it to me
then I will turn to the right hand or to the left hand.”

Gen. 24:50 And Laban and Bethu'el responded.
And they said,
“The matter proceeds from YAHWEH.
We are not able to speak to you bad or good.
Gen. 24:51 Behold!
Ribkah is before you.
Take her and go!
And let her be the wife of your master's son
just as YAHWEH has spoken.”

Gen. 24:52 And it was as the servant of Abraham listened attentively to their words themselves תא.
And he bowed himself to the earth before YAHWEH.

Gen. 24:53 And the servant brought out articles of silver,
and articles of gold,
and garments.
And he gave them to Ribkah.
He also gave costly gifts
to her brother and to her mother.
*There's an odd thing to note here.
The gifts are given to Ribkah, to her brother,
and to her mother, but not to her father, Bethu'el.
It's not clear what this means,
but it is not the normal way of doing things in the midst of Hebrew marriage arrangements.*

Gen. 24:54 And they ate and they drank,
he and the men who were with him.
And they spent the night.

And they rose up in the morning.
And he said, “Send me away to my master!”
Gen. 24:55 But her brother and her mother said, “Let the young woman remain with us ourselves תא
for at least ten days.

Afterward she may go.”
Gen. 24:56 But he said to them,
“Do not delay me myself תא!
YAHWEH has caused my way to succeed.
Send me away and I will go to my master.”

Gen. 24:57 And they said,
“We will call the young woman and ask from her own mouth תא.”

Gen. 24:58 And they called Ribkah.
And they said to her,
“Will you go with this man?”
And she said, “I will go.”

Gen. 24:59 And they sent away Ribkah herself תא,
their sister, and her nurse herself תא,
and Abraham's servant himself תא,
and his men themselves תא.

Gen. 24:60 And they blessed Ribkah herself תא.
And they said to her,
And may your seed itself תא possess the gate
of any hating him.”

Gen. 24:61 And Ribkah rose up,
and her young women.
And they rode upon the camels.
And they journeyed behind the man.
And the servant took Ribkah herself תא and went.

Gen. 24:62 And Yitzhak had come from going to Be'er Lahai Ro'i.
And he settled in the country of The Negev.

Be'er Lahai Ro'i means
The Well of The Living One who sees.

Gen. 24:63 And Yitzhak went out to meditate in the field as it turned to evening.
And he lifted his eyes and looked.
And behold!
Camels were coming.

Gen. 24:64 And Ribkah lifted up
her eyes themselves תא.
And she saw Yitzhak himself תא.

And she dismounted from the camel.
Gen. 24:65 And she had said to the servant,
"Who is this man walking in the field to meet us?"
And the servant said, "It is my master."
And she took a veil and covered herself.

Gen. 24:66 And the servant recounted to Yitzhak
all the matters themselves תא which had been done.

Gen. 24:67 And Yitzhak brought her into the tent of his mother, Sarah.
And he took Ribkah herself תא.
And she became his wife.
And he loved her.
And Yitzhak was comforted after his mother's death.

Chapter 25

Gen. 25:1 And Abraham added.
And he took a wife.
And her name was Keturah.
Gen. 25:2 And she bore to him Zimran himself תא,
and Yokshan himself תא,
and Medan himself תא,
and Midyan himself תא,
and Yishbak himself תא,
and Shuah himself תא.

Keturah means perfume, incense.
Zimran means musical; celebrated.
Yokshan means insidious; ensnare.
Medan means discord, strife; judgment.
Midyan means brawling, contentious.
Yishbak means he will leave.
Shuah means to sink; bow down.

Gen. 25:3 And Yokshan fathered Sheba himself תא
and Dedan himself תא.
And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim,
and Letushim, and Le'ummim.
Sheba means seven, oath.
Dedan means low, depressed.
Asshurim means to go straight on, level.
Letushim means hammered, oppressed ones.
Le'ummim means communities, to gather.
Note the missing emphasis from the sons of Dedan.

Gen. 25:4 And the sons of Midyan
were Ephah, and Epher,
and Hanok, and Abida, and Elda'ah.
All these were the children of Keturah.
Ephah means obscurity, darkness.
Epher means dust; fawn.
Hanok (Enoch) initiated; teacher; dedicated.
Abida means father of knowledge.
Elda'ah means whom God calls/has known.
Note the missing emphasis with these names.

Gen. 25:5 And Abraham gave everything itself תא that was his to Yitzhak.

Gen. 25:6 And to the sons of the concubines which Abraham had Abraham gave presents.
And he sent them away from Yitzhak, his son,
while he was still alive,
eastward, to the land of the east.

Gen. 25:7 And these are the days of the years of the life of Abraham which he lived, a hundred years and seventy years and five years.
Gen. 25:8 And Abraham breathed his last. And he died in a good old age, elderly and satisfied. And he was gathered to his people.

Gen. 25:9 And his sons, Yitzhak and Yishma'el, buried he himself nx in the cave of Makpelah, in the field of Ephron, the son of Tzohar, the Hittite, which faces Mamre,
Gen. 25:10 the field which Abraham purchased from the sons of Heth themselves nx. There Abraham was buried with Sarah, his wife.

Gen. 25:11 And it was after the death of Abraham. And The Elohim blessed Yitzhak himself nx, his son. And Yitzhak dwelt at Be'er Lahai Ro'i.

Gen. 25:12 And these are the generations of Yishma'el, the son of Abraham whom Hagar, the Mitsraite, Sarah's female slave, bore to Abraham,
Gen. 25:13 and these are the names of the sons of Yishma'el, by their names, according to their generations. The first born of Yishma'el, Nebayoth, and Kedar, and Abde'el, and Mibsam,
Gen. 25:14 and Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa,
Gen. 25:15 Hadar, and Tema, Yetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.

Yishma'el means El will hear.
Nebayoth means fruitfulness.
Kedar means dusky, blackness.
Abde'el means servant of El, or, disciplined of El.
Mibsam means fragrant, sweet odor.
Mishma means a report, fame.
Dumah means to be dumb; silence.
Massa means burden; oracle.
Hadar means chamber, enclosure.
Tema means right hand, or south.
Yetur means encircled, enclosed.
Naphish means refreshed; breath.
Kedemah means precedence, project oneself.
Again, no emphasis is given to any of these names.

Gen. 25:16 These are the sons themselves of Yishma'el, and these are their names, by their villages, and in their walled towns, twelve leaders according to their communities.

Gen. 25:17 And these are the years of the life of Yishma'el, one hundred years and thirty years and seven years. And he breathed his last. And he died. And he was gathered to his people.

Gen. 25:18 And they settled from Havilah as far as Shur, which faces Mitsraim, going toward Asshur.

And he fell in the presence of all his kindred.

This provides the location for the tribes of Yishma'el. They lived in what we might now call Saudi Arabia, Jordan, and Iraq. These areas are ascribed to Havilah and Shur, even though the exact locations of these two places seem uncertain.

Perhaps the most interesting term to note in this verse is that of "fell". The KJV translates this as "died". This is not the same term we've seen used in reference to one's death prior to this. If you look at the actual Hebrew term used it's quickly evident that this term is not typically translated as "died".

Rather, the term is considered to mean failed, fell down, prostrated oneself, etc.

In the previous eight uses it refers to one who fell,
as in one who was killed
- either by YAHWEH or by man, or one who fell down before someone else.
as in surrender or submission.

Given that we know the nature of Yishma'el (he was against every man)
it appears he was defeated
at the hand of another.

Perhaps it suggests Yishma'el
was a failure in the end.
His constant antagonism toward others proved fateful perhaps.

This doesn't negate his prominence
in becoming a large nation of people,
only his attitude toward others.
There's the sense that he was humbled
before his family members.

Gen. 25:19 And these are the generations
of Yitzhak, Abraham's son:

Abraham fathered Yitzhak himself תן.

Gen. 25:20 And Yitzhak was forty years old when he took Ribkah herself תן,
the daughter of Bethu'el,
the Aramean of Paddan Aram,
the sister of Laban, the Aramean,
to himself for a wife.

Gen. 25:21 And Yitzhak made a humble request to YAHWEH
on behalf of his wife because she was barren.
And YAHWEH granted his humble request.
And Ribkah, his wife, conceived.

Gen. 25:22 And the children were crushed within her.
And she said, "Why is this so?
For what purpose am I thus?"

And she went to ask YAHWEH Himself תן.

Gen. 25:23 And YAHWEH said to her,
"Two nations are in your womb,
and two peoples will break through from your inward parts.
And one people will be stronger than the other people.
And the older will serve the younger."

Gen. 25:24 And the days were fulfilled
for her to give birth.
And behold!
Twins were in her womb!

This is the first set of twins in Scripture.

Gen. 25:25 And the first came out reddish,
all of him being like a hairy robe.
And they called his name Esau.

Esau means rough, shaggy.

Gen. 25:26 And after this was so
his brother came out,
his hand holding on to the heel of Esau.
And they called his name Ya'akov.

And Yitzhak was sixty years old when she gave birth to they themselves תן.
Ya'akov means heel catcher, restrainer.

Gen. 25:27 And the children grew up.
And Esau was a knowledgeable hunter,
a man of the open country.
But Ya'akov was a man of integrity,
remaining in tents.

Gen. 25:28 And Yitzhak loved Esau himself אָת because he ate of his wild game.
But Ribkah loved Ya'akov himself אָת.

Gen. 25:29 And Ya'akov boiled a thick soup.
And Esau came from the open country.
And he was weary.
Gen. 25:30 And Esau said to Ya'akov,
“Let me devour now this very same red stuff because I am weary.”

For this reason his name was called Edom.
*Edom means red, rosy;
to flush or get red in the face.*

Gen. 25:31 And Ya'akov said,
“Sell this day your birthright itself אָת to me!”

Gen. 25:32 And Esau said, “Behold!
I am going to die!
What is this birthright to me?”

Gen. 25:33 And Ya'akov said,
“Swear to me today!”
And he swore to him.
And he sold his birthright itself אָת to Ya'akov.

Gen. 25:34 And Ya'akov gave Esau bread and lentil soup.
And he ate and drank.
And he rose up and went.

Thus Esau held in contempt
his birthright itself אָת.

Chapter 26

Gen. 26:1 And there was a famine in the land,
besides the former famine
that had existed in the days of Abraham.
And Yitzhak went to Abimelek,
king of the Philistines, to Gerar.

Gen. 26:2 And YAHWEH was seen by him.
And He said, “Do not go down to Mitsraim.
Settle in the land which I say to you.
Gen. 26:3 Sojourn in this land.
And I will be with you.
And I will bless you.
Indeed, to you and to your seed
I will give all these lands themselves אָת.

And I have established the oath itself אָת
which I swore to Abraham, your father.
Gen. 26:4 And I will increase your seed itself אָת
like the stars of the skies.
And I will give to your seed
all these lands themselves אָת.
And by your seed
all the nations of the earth will be blessed Gen. 26:5 as a consequence of Abraham, who listened attentively to My voice
and protected My charge,
My directives,
My rules,
and My teachings.”

*The emphasis provided by אָת
in the preceding three verses is dramatic.
“this very land”
“these lands themselves”
“the oath itself”
“your seed itself”*

The seed of Abraham is now the seed of Yitzhak.

The Messiah will come from his lineage,
even as He does from that of Abraham.

In v. 5 we have several terms that need to be clarified.

Listened attentively

- typically translated "obeyed".
However, the term means to listen so carefully that one does what they are told
as a result of listening attentively.

Protected - typically translated as "keep".
However, the term means to guard or protect.
It does not mean simply "to do",
but rather means to watch over them
so that they are properly observed, followed.

My watch - typically translated as "my charge".
It means to watch like a sentry;
to do whatever duties are given to you as a sentry.
It's part of protecting His teachings.

My directives - typically, "My commandments."
However, there is no freedom in a command.
It has a required action.
Directives on the other hand do not.
One may choose to follow or ignore them.

My appointments - typically, "My statutes".
It means something prescribed, enacted; appointed.
This same term is used to refer to "YAHWEH's Appointed Times",
the festivals He established as "appointments with YAHWEH"
in dress rehearsal for eternity.

My teachings - typically, "My laws".
The word is towrah.
It means direction, instruction, or teaching.
To call it "law" is misleading.
A "law" is a legally binding principle.
Following it is mandatory.

But to be free to choose whom or what you will follow
an "instruction" cannot be mandatory.
It must be voluntary.

However, when you take an oath
that you will do these it does become mandatory,
an obligation that you are required to fulfill.

Ultimately, this is the result of entering into The Covenant with YAHWEH.
However, the teachings come first.
You must be taught the principles
before you are able to decide whether or not you will agree to do them.

Gen. 26:6 And Yitzhak remained in Gerar.

Gen. 26:7 And the men of the place asked concerning his wife.
And he said, "She is my sister."
because he was afraid to say, "She is my wife."
lest the men of the place kill me on account of Ribkah
because she is beautiful in appearance.

The text has apparently been edited.
The tenses and gender references don't match,
and the quotations are not consistent in most translations.

But perhaps what's most interesting is to see that he is repeating the same technique used by his own father,
with virtually the same people,
in the same place.
Even the response of Abimelek ends up being virtually identical to that which he made to Abraham.

Gen. 26:8 And it was when he had been there a long time.
And Abimelek, king of the Philistines, looked out from behind a lattice.
And he looked.
And behold!
Yitzhak was playing sensually
with Ribkah herself תא, his wife.

Gen. 26:9 And Abimelek called Yitzhak.
And he said, "Behold!
Surely she is your wife!
How is it you said, 'She is my sister'?"
And Yitzhak said to him,
"Indeed, I said it lest I die on account of her."

Gen. 26:10 And Abimelek said,
"What is this you have done to us?
One of the people might easily have lain carnally
with your wife herself תא.
And you would have brought guilt upon us."

Gen. 26:11 And Abimelek commanded
all his people themselves תא saying,
"He who touches this man or his wife
will be put to death,
put to death!"

The double mention
is a common form of emphasis.
It is often stated as "will certainly be..."

Gen. 26:12 And Yitzhak planted seed in that land.
And he received in the same year a hundredfold.

And YAHWEH blessed him.

Gen. 26:13 And the man became great.
And he went on, going on and becoming greater until he was very great.

Gen. 26:14 And he had possessions of flocks and possessions of herds
and a multitude of servants.

And the Philistines envied he himself תא.

Gen. 26:15 And all the wells which had been dug by the servants of his father
in the days of Abraham, his father,
had been stopped up by the Philistines.
And they had filled them with dirt.

Gen. 26:16 And Abimelek said to Yitzhak,
"Go away from us!
Indeed, you are much mightier than us."

Gen. 26:17 And Yitzhak went from there.
And he encamped in the river valley of Gerar.
And he settled there.

Gen. 26:18 And once again Yitzhak dug the wells of water themselves תא
which had been dug
in the days of Abraham his father.
However, the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham.

And he called their names after the names
that his father had called them.

Gen. 26:19 And Yitzhak's servants
dug in the river valley.
And they found there a well of living water.

Wells of "living water"
are rare in the desert south.
This means there is running water, not static water.
This is a major discovery.

Gen. 26:20 And the herdsmen of Gerar contended with Yitzhak's herdsmen saying, "The water is ours."

And he called the name of the well Esek because they quarreled with him.
Esek means strife; to press upon, to quarrel.

Gen. 26:21 And they dug another well. And they contended over that one also. And he called its name Sitnah.
Sitnah means opposition.

Gen. 26:22 And he withdrew from there. And he dug another well. And they did not contend over it. And he called the name of it Rehoboth. And he said, "Assuredly at this time YAHWEH has made space for us and we will be fruitful in the land."
Rehoboth means a wide place.

Gen. 26:23 And he went up from there to Be'ersheba. Gen. 26:24 And YAHWEH was seen by him that very night.

Remember, this is understood to be a Hebraism that means "was experienced" by him. Since "to see" is a major theme of Scripture it's been left in this form. Yet it's important to recognize that to the Hebrew mind this meant Yitzhak "experienced" YAHWEH in some manner. We don't know what that manner really was.

And He said, "I am The Elohim of Abraham, your father. Do not be afraid! Indeed, I am with you yourself nx! And I will bless you. And I will increase your seed itself nx on account of My servant, Abraham."

Gen. 26:25 And he built a slaughter site there. And he called out in the Name of YAHWEH.

And he spread out his tent there. And the servants of Yitzhak dug a well there.

Gen. 26:26 And Abimelek came to him from Gerar, with Ahuzzath, his advisor, and Pikol, commander of his army.
Ahuzzath means possession.
Pikol means mouth of all, or, all mouth.

Gen. 26:27 And Yitzhak said to them, "Why do you come to me. You even hated me myself nx. And you sent me away from you yourself nx?"

Gen. 26:28 And they said, "Observation! We have observed that YAHWEH is with you. And we said, "Now let there be an oath between us, between us and you." And let us cut a covenant with you Gen. 26:29 that you will do no harm to us, just as we have not touched you and have done to you only good, and have sent you away in peace. You yourself nx are now being blessed by YAHWEH."

Gen. 26:30 And he made them a banquet. And they ate and drank. Gen. 26:31 And they rose up early in the morning. And they swore an oath one to another. And Yitzhak sent them away. And they went from he himself nx in peace.

Gen. 26:32 And it was on that very day.
And the servants of Yitzhak came.
And they reported to him
concerning the well which they had dug.
And they said to him,
"We have found water!"
Gen. 26:33 And he called it itself תָּא Shebah.
Therefore the name of the city is Be'ersheba to this day.

Gen. 26:34 And Esau was forty years old.
And he took to wife Yehudith herself תָּא,
daughter of Be'eri, the Hittite, and Basemath herself, תָּא
daughter of Elon, the Hittite.

Yehudith means celebrated.
Be'eri means my well.
Hittite means descendant of terror.
Basemath means fragrance.
Elon means oak grove.

Gen. 26:35 But they were a bitterness of character to Yitzhak and Ribkah.

The term for bitterness occurs only here in all of Scripture.
The term for character is ruach.
Literally it means breath.
It represents the "vital essence",
or character (nature), of Yitzhak and Ribkah.

Esau married "outside the family"
- Hittite women, foreigners.
His action was intentional.

Chapter 27

Gen. 27:1 And it was as Yitzhak was old.
And his eyes were dim from seeing.
And he called Esau himself תָּא, his elder son.
And he said to him, "My son."
And he said to him, "I am here."
Gen. 27:2 And he said, "Behold now! I am old.
I do not know the day of my death.
Gen. 27:3 Now then please take your weapons,
your quiver and your bow,
and go out to the field and hunt food for me.
Gen. 27:4 And make me tasty food,
like that which I love.
And bring it to me and I will eat
in order that my life blesses you before I die."

The last sentence contains an interesting concept.
The word for "life" is nephesh.
It means a breathing creature, or, one's life-breath.
The root word from which it comes means simply to breathe.
Thus it represents Yitzhak's life itself
since without it he is dead.
Most translate this as "may bless you before..."
But the form of the verb suggests an intensive incomplete action.
It's not a matter of "may",
but a matter of choice to do so - before he dies.
And it's his "life-breath" that is to do the blessing.

Gen. 27:5 And Ribkah was listening as Yitzhak spoke to Esau, his son.
And Esau went to the field
to hunt game to bring it.

Gen. 27:6 And Ribkah spoke to Ya'akov,
her son, saying, "Behold!
I heard your father himself תָּא
speak to Esau, your brother, saying,
Gen. 27:7 'Bring me game and make me tasty food.
And I will eat it.
And I will bless you before the face of YAHWEH
before my death.'

Gen. 27:8 Now, my son, listen attentively
to that which I myself direct you yourself תא.

Gen. 27:9 Go now to the flock.

And bring me from there

two excellent kids of the goats!

And I will make of they themselves תא

tasty food for your father,

like that which he loves.

Gen. 27:10 And you are to take it to your father.

And he will eat in order that he blesses you before his death.”

Note the repeat here

of the same term for "blesses" found in v. 4.

This appears to be a truly odd sort of behavior for Ribkah.

[But keep in mind that Esau
sold his birthright to Ya'akov.](#)

The blessing involved is that of the firstborn, because of the birthright.

[Ribkah is acting to protect for Ya'akov
the blessing he has rightfully obtained
as a result of Esau's
"despising" of the birthright
- for a pot of stew.](#)

Gen. 27:11 But Ya'akov said to Ribkah, his mother,
“Behold!

Esau my brother is a hairy man.

But I am a smooth man.

Gen. 27:12 Perhaps my father will feel me and I will be seen by him as a deceiver,

and I will bring upon me a curse,

and not a blessing.”

Gen. 27:13 But his mother said to him,

“Upon me be your curse, my son.

Nevertheless, listen attentively to my voice!

And go!

Bring them to me!”

Gen. 27:14 And he went.

And he took them.

And he brought them to his mother.

And his mother made tasty food,

like that which his father loved.

Gen. 27:15 And Ribkah took desirable garments themselves תא

of her eldest son, Esau,

which were with her herself תא

in the house.

And she clothed Ya'akov himself תא, her younger son.

Gen. 27:16 And the skins themselves תא

of the kids of the goats she placed over his hands

and over the smooth part of his neck.

Gen. 27:17 And she gave the tasty food itself תא

and the bread itself תא which she had prepared into the hand of Ya'akov, her son.

Gen. 27:18 And he went to his father.

And he said, “My father.”

And he said, “I am here.

Who are you, my son?”

Gen. 27:19 And Ya'akov said to his father,

“I am Esau, your first born.

I have done as you spoke to me.

Please rise up to sit and eat of my game

in order that your life blesses me.”

Gen. 27:20 And Yitzhak said to his son,

“How is it you have found it so quickly, my son?”

And he said, “Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim, brought it about for me.”

Gen. 27:21 Then Yitzhak said to Ya'akov,

“Please come near and let me feel you, my son,

whether you truly are my son Esau or not.”

Gen. 27:22 And Ya'akov went near to Yitzhak, his father.
And he felt him.
And he said,
"The voice is the voice of Ya'akov,
but the hands are the hands of Esau."
Gen. 27:23 And he did not recognize him because his hands were hairy
like his brother Esau's hands.

And he blessed him.
Gen. 27:24 And he said, "Is this my son, Esau?"
And he said, "I am."
Gen. 27:25 And he said,
"Come near to me
and I will eat of my son's game
in order that my life blesses you."
And he brought it near to him.
And he ate.
And he brought him wine.
And he drank.

Gen. 27:26 And his father, Yitzhak, said to him,
"Please come near and kiss me, my son."
Gen. 27:27 And he came near and kissed him.
And he smelled the aroma itself נח of his garments.
And he blessed him and said, "Behold!
The aroma of my son is like the aroma of a field which YAHWEH has blessed.
Gen. 27:28 Now may The Elohim give to you of the dew of the skies,
of the fatness of the land,
and an abundance of grain and new wine.

Gen. 27:29 Peoples will serve you.
And nations will bow down to you.
You will be master to your kindred.
And your mother's sons will bow down to you.
Cursed be those cursing you and blessed be those blessing you!"

Gen. 27:30 And it was as Yitzhak completed blessing Ya'akov himself נח.
And Ya'akov had just gone out from the face itself נח of Yitzhak, his father.
And Esau, his brother,
came in from hunting his game.
Gen. 27:31 And he also made tasty food.
And he brought it to his father.
And he said to his father,
"Rise up, my father and eat of his son's game
in order that your life blesses me."

Gen. 27:32 And Yitzhak, his father, said to him,
"Who are you?"
And he said, "I am your son, your firstborn, Esau."

Gen. 27:33 And Yitzhak trembled with an exceedingly great trembling!
And he said, "Who was it then who hunted wild game and brought it to me?
And I ate all of it before you came.
And I have blessed him.
Yes, blessed he will be."

Gen. 27:34 As Esau listened attentively to the words themselves נח of his father
he cried out with a great and bitter cry.
And he said to his father,
"Bless me,
even me also, my father!"

Gen. 27:35 And he said,
"Your brother came with deceit.

And he has taken away your blessing.”
Gen. 27:36 Then he said, “Rightly his name was called Ya’akov,
and heel catcher.
That time he took away my birthright itself תא.
And behold!
Now he has taken away my blessing!”
And he said,
“Have you not reserved a blessing for me?”

Gen. 27:37 Then Yitzhak responded.
And he said to Esau, “Behold!
I have established him master over you.
And all his kindred themselves תא
I have given to him as servants.
And with grain and new wine I have sustained him.
And what will I do now for you, my son?”
Gen. 27:38 And Esau said to his father,
“Have you only one blessing, my father?
Bless me, even me also, my father!”

And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.

Gen. 27:39 And Yitzhak, his father, answered.
And he said to him,
“Behold!
Your dwelling place will be away from the fatness of the land,
and away from the dew of the skies above.
Ya’akov has already received these things in his blessing.
Esau will not be able to receive these same blessings.
His must be different.
Therefore, he would become a desert dweller.

Gen. 27:40 And you will exist by your sword.
And you will serve your brother himself תא.
And it will be that he has dominion.
But you will break off his yoke from your neck.”

Gen. 27:41 And Esau carried a grudge against Ya’akov himself תא because of the blessing
with which his father blessed him.
And Esau said in his heart,
“The days approach for mourning my father.
Then I will murder Ya’akov himself תא, my brother.”

Gen. 27:42 And the words themselves תא of Esau,
her older son, were reported to Ribkah.
And she sent and called Ya’akov, her younger son.
And she said to him,
“Behold!
Your brother, Esau, consoles himself concerning you,
intending to murder you.
Gen. 27:43 And now, my son,
listen attentively to my voice and get up!
Flee for your sake
to Laban, my brother, to Haran!
Gen. 27:44 And remain with him a few days
until your brother’s wrath turns aside,
Gen. 27:45 until your brother’s anger turns aside from you and he forgets that itself תא
which has been done to him.
Then I will send and bring you from there.
Why should I be bereaved of you both in one day?”

Gen. 27:46 And Ribkah said to Yitzhak,
“I loathe my life because of the presence of the daughters of Heth.
If Ya’akov takes a wife like these
from the daughters of Heth,
from the daughters of the land,
what good to me is life?”

Chapter 28

Gen. 28:1 And Yitzhak called Ya'akov.

And he blessed he himself תא.

And he gave direction to him.

And he said to him,

“Do not take a wife from the daughters of Kena'an.

Gen. 28:2 Get up!

Go to Paddan Aram, to the house of Bethu'el,

your mother's father,

and take a wife for yourself from there,

from the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother!

Gen. 28:3 And The Mightiest El bless you yourself תא,

and make you fruitful, and increase you!

And you will become an assembly of peoples.

El Shaddai means the mightiest El.

It has been treated as a “name of God”.

This is NOT correct.

God has only one personal name, YAHWEH.

The root from which the term comes is shadad.

It means to be burly; i.e. powerful; to ravage, to destroy.

*According to BDB it means to deal violently with,
to despoil, to devastate.*

Gen. 28:4 And may He give to you

the blessing itself תא of Abraham,

to you and to your seed, you yourself תא,

for the sake of inheriting

the land itself תא of your sojournings,

which The Elohim has given to Abraham.”

Gen. 28:5 And Yitzhak sent away Ya'akov himself תא.

And he went to Paddan Aram, to Laban,

son of Bethu'el the Aramean, the brother of Ribkah,

the mother of Ya'akov and Esau.

Gen. 28:6 And Esau saw that Yitzhak

had blessed Ya'akov himself תא

and sent away he himself תא to Paddan Aram

to take himself a wife from there.

As he blessed him

he put a directive upon him, saying,

“Do not take a wife

from the daughters of Kena'an!”

Gen. 28:7 And Ya'akov listened attentively

to his father and his mother.

And he went to Paddan Aram.

Gen. 28:8 And Esau observed that the daughters of Kena'an were bad

in the eyes of Yitzhak, his father.

Gen. 28:9 And Esau went to Yishma'el.

And he took Mahalath herself תא,

the daughter of Yishma'el, Abraham's son,

the sister of Nebayoth,

to be his wife besides the wives he had.

Mahalath means sickness.

Mahalath is also called Basemath.

Taking a wife from Yishma'el's family was not intended to be hurtful,

like his previous acts.

Yishma'el is a relative,

and even a circumcised relative.

Gen. 28:10 And Ya'akov went out from Be'ersheba.

And he went toward Haran.

Gen. 28:11 And he arrived at a place.

And he spent the night there because the sun had gone down.

And he took one of the stones of the place.

And he set it under his head.

And he laid down in that place.

Gen. 28:12 And he dreamed.
And behold!
A ladder was set up on the ground.
And the top of it reached to The Heaven.
And behold!
Messengers of The Elohim
were ascending and descending upon it.

Gen. 28:13 And behold!
YAHWEH was standing above it.
And He said, "I am YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Abraham, your forefather,
and The Elohim of Yitzhak.
The land on which you yourself נָא are lying,
to you I will give it, and to your seed.

Gen. 28:14 And your seed will be like the dust of the ground.
And you will break out
to the west and to the east,
and to the north and the south.

And in you and in your seed
all the families of the earth will be blessed.

Gen. 28:15 And behold!
I am with you!
And I will protect you
in every place where you will go!
And I will bring you back to this land itself נָא.

Indeed, I will not leave you until I have done
whatever itself נָא I have spoken to you."

Gen. 28:16 And Ya'akov awoke from his sleep.
And he said, "Surely YAHWEH exists
in this very place.
And I did not know it."
Gen. 28:17 And he was afraid.
And he said, "How awesome is this place!
This is nothing except a house of The Elohim.
And that is the entrance to The Heaven."

Gen. 28:18 And Ya'akov rose early in the morning.
And he took the stone itself נָא
which he had put under his head.
And he placed it itself נָא as a standing column.
And he poured oil on top of it.

Gen. 28:19 And he called the name of that place itself נָא Bayit El.
However, the name of that city
had been Luz previously.
Bayit El means house of El.
Luz means nut-tree; almond.

Gen. 28:20 And Ya'akov vowed a vow saying,
"If The Elohim will be with me and will protect me in this way that I am going,
and will give me food to eat
and a garment to put on,
Gen. 28:21 and if I return
to my father's house in peace,
then YAHWEH will be my Elohim.

Gen. 28:22 And this stone itself נָא
which I have set up for a memorial will be the house of The Elohim.
And of everything which You give to me
I will surely give a tenth to You."

Chapter 29

Gen. 29:1 And Ya'akov lifted up his feet.

And he went to the land
of the children of the east.

This presents an interesting contrast.
The Hebrew uses "children"
rather than the word used for nations or tribes.
Since Ya'akov will become Yisra'el, and his offspring will be known as the "Children of Yisra'el",
there is a unique play on the phrasing here.

Gen. 29:2 And he looked.
And behold!

A well was in the field.

And behold!

There were three flocks of sheep lying beside it because from that well the flocks were watered.
And a large stone was on the mouth of the well.

Gen. 29:3 And all the flocks were gathered there.

And they rolled the stone itself תא
from the mouth of the well and watered
the sheep themselves תא.

And they returned the stone itself תא
to its place on the mouth of the well.

Gen. 29:4 And Ya'akov said to them,
"My brothers, where are you from?"

And they said, "We are from Haran."

Gen. 29:5 And he said to them,

"Do you know Laban himself תא, son of Nahor?"

And they said, "We know him."

Gen. 29:6 And he said to them, "Is it well with him?"

And they said, "It is well.

And behold!

Rachel, his daughter, is coming with the sheep."

Gen. 29:7 And he said,

"Behold! It is still high day,
not the time for the herds to be gathered.
Water the sheep and go pasture them."

Gen. 29:8 But they said, "We are not able to until all the flocks are gathered and they have rolled the stone itself תא
from the mouth of the well.

Then we water the sheep."

Gen. 29:9 And while he was still speaking with them Rachel came with the sheep which were her father's because she pastured them.

Gen. 29:10 And it was as Ya'akov saw Rachel herself תא,
the daughter of Laban, his mother's brother,
and the sheep themselves תא of Laban,
his mother's brother.

And Ya'akov came near.

And he rolled the stone itself תא
from the mouth of the well.

And he watered the flock itself תא of Laban,
his mother's brother.

Gen. 29:11 And Ya'akov kissed Rachel.

And he lifted up his voice itself תא.

And he wept.

Gen. 29:12 And Ya'akov told Rachel that he was her father's kindred

and that he was Ribkah's son.

And she ran and told her father.

Gen. 29:13 And it happened that Laban heard the report itself תא concerning Ya'akov, his sister's son.

And he ran to meet him.

And he embraced him.

And he kissed him.
And he brought him to his house.
And he recounted to Laban
all these matters themselves תא.
Gen. 29:14 And Laban said to him,
"Surely you are my bone and my flesh,
you yourself תא."
And he remained with him a month of days.

Gen. 29:15 And Laban said to Ya'akov,
"Because you are my kindred should you yourself תא serve me for nothing?
Tell me what your wages will be."

Gen. 29:16 Now Laban had two daughters.
The name of the elder was Le'ah,
and the name of the younger was Rachel.
Le'ah means weary.
Rachel means ewe, female sheep.

Gen. 29:17 And Le'ah's eyes were delicate.
But Rachel was beautiful of form
and beautiful of appearance.

Gen. 29:18 And Ya'akov loved Rachel herself תא.
And he said,
"I will serve you seven years for Rachel,
your younger daughter."

Gen. 29:19 And Laban said,
"It is better that I give her to you yourself תא
than for me to give her herself תא to another man.
Remain with me."

Gen. 29:20 And Ya'akov served
seven years for Rachel.
But they were in his eyes like a few days
because of the love he had for her herself תא.

Gen. 29:21 Then Ya'akov said to Laban,
"Give me my wife herself תא,
since my days are fulfilled.
And I will go in to her."

Gen. 29:22 And Laban gathered
all the men themselves תא of the place.
And he made a banquet.

Gen. 29:23 And it was at sunset.
And he took Le'ah herself תא, his daughter,
and brought her herself תא to him.
And he went in to her.

Gen. 29:24 And Laban gave to her Zilpah herself תא, his female servant,
to Le'ah, his daughter, for a female servant.
Zilpah means to trickle, as myrrh; fragrant dropping.

Gen. 29:25 And it was at daylight.
And behold!
It was Le'ah.
And he said to Laban,
"What is this itself תא you have done to me?
Did I not serve with you for Rachel?
And why have you deceived me?"

Gen. 29:26 And Laban said,
"It is not done this way in our place,
to give the younger before the firstborn.
Gen. 29:27 Fulfill the week of this one herself תא,
and we will also give to you that one herself תא,
for the service which you will serve with me,
for another week of years."

Gen. 29:28 And Ya'akov did so.
He also fulfilled her week itself תא.
And he gave to him Rachel herself תא,
his daughter, for his wife.
Gen. 29:29 And Laban gave to Rachel, his daughter,

Bilhah herself תַּךְ, his female servant,
as a female servant for her.
Bilhah means to palpitate, to terrify; to tremble.

Gen. 29:30 And he went in also to Rachel.
And he also loved Rachel herself תַּךְ
more than Le'ah.
And he served with him yet another seven years.

Gen. 29:31 And YAHWEH saw that Le'ah was being hated.
And He opened her womb itself תַּךְ.
But Rachel was barren.

Gen. 29:32 And Le'ah conceived and bore a son.
And she called his name Re'uben,
because she said,
"Surely YAHWEH has looked upon my humiliation.
Therefore, now my husband will love me."
Re'uben means behold, a son.

Gen. 29:33 And she conceived again.
And she bore a son.
And she said, "Indeed, YAHWEH has heard that I was being hated.
And He has also given to me this son himself תַּךְ."
And she called his name Shim'on.
Shim'on means hearing, to listen attentively.

Gen. 29:34 And she conceived again.
And she bore a son.
And she said, "Now this time my husband will be attached to me because I have born him three sons."
Because of this his name was called Levi.
Levi means attached.

Gen. 29:35 And she conceived again.
And she bore a son.
And she said,
"Now I praise YAHWEH Himself תַּךְ!"
And she called his name Yahudah.
And she ceased bearing.
Yahudah means YAH be praised.

Chapter 30

Gen. 30:1 And Rachel saw that she did not bear young to Ya'akov.
And Rachel was jealous of her sister.
And she said to Ya'akov,
"Give me children!
And if not I am going to die!"
Gen. 30:2 And Ya'akov's anger was kindled against Rachel.
And he said,
"Am I in the position of The Elohim
Who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?"

Gen. 30:3 And she said, "Behold!
Here is my female servant, Bilhah.
Go in to her.
And she will bear upon my knees.
And I will also be built up by her."
Gen. 30:4 And she gave to him Bilhah herself תַּךְ,
her female servant, as a wife.
And Ya'akov went in to her.
Gen. 30:5 And Bilhah conceived.
And she bore Ya'akov a son.

30:6 And Rachel said,
"The Elohim has judged me,
and also has heard my voice.
And He has given to me a son."
So she called his name Dan.
Dan means judge.

Gen. 30:7 And Bilhah, Rachel's female servant, conceived again.

And she bore to Ya'akov a second son.

Gen. 30:8 And Rachel said,

"The wrestlings of The Elohim.

I have wrestled with my sister and I have indeed prevailed."

And she called his name Naphtali.

Naphtali means my wrestlings, struggles.

Gen. 30:9 And Le'ah saw that she had stopped bearing.

And she took Zilpah herself נָא,

her female servant.

And she gave her herself נָא to Ya'akov for a wife.

Gen. 30:10 And Zilpah, Le'ah's female servant bore a son to Ya'akov.

Gen. 30:11 And Le'ah said,

"I have come into fortune!"

And she called his name itself נָא Gad.

Gad means good fortune; victory.

Gen. 30:12 And Zilpah, Le'ah's female servant, bore a second son to Ya'akov.

Gen. 30:13 And Le'ah said,

"Because of my happiness

the daughters will call me happy."

And she called his name itself נָא Asher.

Asher means happiness.

Gen. 30:14 And Re'uben went out in the days of wheat harvest.

And he found mandrakes in the field.

And he brought they themselves נָא

to Le'ah, his mother.

And Rachel said to Le'ah,

"Please give me from your son's mandrakes!"

Mandrakes are an aphrodisiac.

Gen. 30:15 But she said to her,

"Is it a small matter

that you have taken my husband himself נָא?

Would you also take

my son's mandrakes themselves נָא?"

And Rachel said, "For this cause

he will lie with you tonight,

in place of your son's mandrakes."

Gen. 30:16 And Ya'akov came out of the field at sunset.

And Le'ah went out to meet him.

And she said,

"You will come in to me because I have hired,

hired you, with my son's mandrakes."

And he lay with her that night.

Gen. 30:17 And The Elohim

listened attentively to Le'ah.

And she conceived.

And she bore to Ya'akov a fifth son.

Gen. 30:18 And Le'ah said, "The Elohim

has given me my compensation

because I have given my female servant

to my husband."

And she called his name Yissaskar.

Yissaskar means he will bring a reward.

Gen. 30:19 And Le'ah conceived again.

And she bore a sixth son to Ya'akov.

Gen. 30:20 And Le'ah said, "The Elohim has given to me myself נָא a good gift.

Now my husband will reside with me

because I have born to him six sons."

And she called his name itself נָא Zebulun.

Zebulun means dwelling.

Gen. 30:21 And afterward she bore a daughter.
And she called her name itself תא Dinah.
Dinah means justice, judgment.

Gen. 30:22 And The Elohim took note
of Rachel herself תא.
And The Elohim listened attentively to her.
And He opened her womb itself תא.
The Hebrew word for "listened attentively" is shama'.
What's not seen here is that this term
is traditionally translated as "obeyed".
This points out the confusion that results
from improper translations.
Using the traditional "translation"
would have The Elohim "obeying" Rachel.

Gen. 30:23 And she conceived.
And she bore a son.
And she said, "The Elohim has taken away
my reproach itself תא."
'acaph is the Hebrew term used for "taken away".
It means to gather,
and is also used to refer to harvesting.

Gen. 30:24 And she called
his name itself תא Yoseph.
And she said,
"YAHWEH adds to me another son."
Yoseph means he will add.

Gen. 30:25 And it was when Rachel had given birth to Yoseph himself תא.
And Ya'akov said to Laban, "Send me away,
and I will go to my place and to my land.
Gen. 30:26 Give to me my wives themselves תא
and my children themselves תא
for whom I have served you yourself תא
and I will go.
Indeed, you yourself תא know my service itself תא
with which I have served you."

Gen. 30:27 And Laban said to him,
"If I have found favor in your eyes please stay.
Indeed, I have learned by divination that YAHWEH has blessed me on account of you."
Gen. 30:28 And he said,
"Designate your compensation for me.
And I will give it."

Gen. 30:29 And he said to him,
"You yourself תא know
how I have served you,
and how your property itself תא
has been with me myself תא.
This verse presents a unique instance of the aleph-tav influence.
While it normally represents an item "itself"
there are places where it appears to place the emphasis on the entire phrasing
that accompanies that subject matter.
Since this is a relatively new concept
it's not always evident just how it's to be considered.

Gen. 30:30 Certainly little existed for you
before my face.
But now it is spread out into a multitude.
And YAHWEH has blessed you yourself תא
on account of my coming.
But now,
when will I also work for my household?"
The first sentence is awkward,
but expresses exactly what's in the text.
When Ya'akov came
Laban had little "before my face".
There are several ways one could interpret this,
but the point is made by the plain text.

Gen. 30:31 And he said, "What shall I give you?"
And Ya'akov said,

“You will not give to me a thing!
If you will do this matter for me
I will again pasture and protect your flock.
Gen. 30:32 I will pass through all your flock today, separating from there
all the speckled and spotted sheep,
and all the dark colored among the sheep,
and the spotted and speckled among the goats.
And these will be my compensation.

Gen. 30:33 And my right action will witness against me in the days to come when you bring up my compensation before you.
Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats,
and dark colored among the lambs,
it is being stolen by me myself תא.”

Gen. 30:34 And Laban said, “Behold!
May it be according to your word!”

Gen. 30:35 And that very day
they removed the male goats themselves תא
that were streaked and spotted,
and all the female goats themselves תא
that were speckled and spotted,
and all that had some white in it,
and all the dark colored among the sheep.
And they gave them into the hand of his sons.
Gen. 30:36 And they put three days’ journey
between himself and Ya’akov.
And Ya’akov pastured
the remaining flocks themselves תא of Laban.

Gen. 30:37 And Ya’akov took for himself sticks of fresh poplar, and almond tree,
and chestnut tree.
And he peeled white stripes in them.
And he exposed the white which was in the sticks.
Gen. 30:38 And he placed the sticks themselves תא
which he had peeled in the channels,
in the watering troughs
from which the flocks came to drink.
And they mated when they came to drink.
Gen. 30:39 And the flocks mated by the sticks.
And the flocks brought forth streaked, speckled, and spotted.

Gen. 30:40 And Ya’akov separated the lambs.
And he set the faces of the flocks toward the streaked and all the dark colored in the flock of Laban.
But he put his flocks by themselves.
And he did not put them with the flocks of Laban.

Gen. 30:41 And it existed
as all the stronger flocks mated.
And Ya’akov placed the sticks themselves תא
before the eyes of the flocks in the channels
so they would mate by the sticks.
Gen. 30:42 But when the flocks were weak
he did not put them in.
Thus the weak ones were Laban’s
and the strong were Ya’akov’s.

Gen. 30:43 And the man expanded exceedingly, exceedingly.
And he had many flocks,
and female servants, and male servants,
and camels, and asses.

Chapter 31

Gen. 31:1 And he heard the words themselves תא
of Laban’s sons saying,

“Ya'akov has taken everything itself נא
that was our father's.
And from that which was our father's
he has made all this abundance itself נא.”

Gen. 31:2 And Ya'akov observed
the face itself נא of Laban.
And behold!
It was not with him as previously in times past.

Gen. 31:3 And YAHWEH said to Ya'akov, “Return to the land of your fathers and to your birth place.
And I will be with you.”
Laban is not "with him",
but YAHWEH "has been with him", and still is.
That's a far more important issue for Ya'akov.

This is a most interesting verse
because of the word ehyeh.
It's the very same word translated in Ex. 3:14 as "I AM".
But what's most interesting is that here
it's typically translated as "I will be", not as "I am".

Gen. 31:4 And Ya'akov sent.
And he called Rachel and Le'ah to the field,
to his flock.
Gen. 31:5 And he said to them,
“I myself am seeing that the face itself נא of your father is not toward me as previously.
And The Elohim of my father has been with me.
Gen. 31:6 And you yourselves נא know that with all my strength I have served your father himself נא.
Gen. 31:7 And your father was deceptive with me.
And he has changed
my wages themselves נא ten times.
But The Elohim did not permit him to do harm to me.

Gen. 31:8 If he said thus,
‘The speckled are your wages,’ then all the flocks bore speckled.
And when he said this,
‘The streaked are your wages,’
then all the flocks bore streaked.

Gen. 31:9 And The Elohim has taken the livestock themselves נא of your father.
And He has given them to me.

Gen. 31:10 And it was at the time the flocks mated.
And I lifted up my eyes and observed in a dream.
And behold!
The rams which climbed upon the flocks
were streaked, speckled, and spotted.
Gen. 31:11 And a messenger of The Elohim spoke to me in a dream saying, ‘Ya'akov!’
And I said, ‘I am here!’
Gen. 31:12 And He said, ‘Please now!
Lift up your eyes and observe!
All the rams which leap on the flocks are streaked, speckled, and spotted.
Indeed, I have seen everything itself נא
which Laban is doing to you.

Gen. 31:13 I am The El of Bayit El,
where you anointed a standing column
and where you vowed a vow to Me.
Now, get up!
Get out of this land itself נא,
and return to the land of your birth.’ ”

Gen. 31:14 And Rachel and Le'ah responded.
And they said to him, "Is there any longer a portion or inheritance for us
in our father's household?
Gen. 31:15 Are we not counted as strangers to him,
since he has sold us.
And he has also entirely devoured
our money itself תא.

Gen. 31:16 Therefore all the wealth
that The Elohim has taken from our father,
it is ours and our children's.
Now do all that The Elohim has said to you!"

Gen. 31:17 So Ya'akov got up.
And he lifted up his sons themselves תא
and his wives themselves תא onto the camels.
Gen. 31:18 And he drove away
all his livestock itself תא
and all his possessions themselves תא which he had acquired in Paddan Aram,
for the sake of going to Yitzhak, his father,
to the land of Kena'an.

Gen. 31:19 And Laban went to shear his flock itself תא.
And Rachel stole the household idols themselves תא
that were her father's.
Gen. 31:20 And Ya'akov stole the heart itself תא of Laban, the Aramean
in that he did not tell him he was fleeing.

There is a Hebrew idiom here.
Literally it says as stated above.
It implies he removed from Laban
the ability to know what he was doing.

Gen. 31:21 And he himself fled
with all that he had.
And he got up.
And he passed over the river itself תא.
And he set his face itself תא
toward the mountains of Gil'ad.

Gil'ad means heap of witness.

It's worth noting the terminology used here.
He "passed over".
This is a major theme of Scripture.
Every time you see it
there is a connection to Passover!

Here it symbolizes Ya'akov's deliverance from Laban
AND his return "to the father".

Note the references to the third day and the seventh day in the next two verses also.
These are significant references
found throughout Scripture.

Gen. 31:22 And Laban was told
on the third day
that Ya'akov had fled.
Gen. 31:23 And he took his kindred themselves תא with him.
And they pursued him
a journey of seven days.
And they caught him
at the mountains of Gil'ad themselves תא.

Gen. 31:24 And The Elohim came to Laban, the Aramean,
in a dream of the night.
And he said to him,
"Be careful, lest you speak to Ya'akov concerning good or harm."

Gen. 31:25 And Laban reached Ya'akov.
And Ya'akov himself תא
had pitched his tent itself תא on a mountain.
And Laban pitched with his kindred themselves תא
on the mountain of Gil'ad.

Gen. 31:26 And Laban said to Ya'akov,
"What have you done?
You have even stolen my heart itself תא
and driven forth my daughters themselves תא
like captives of the sword!
Gen. 31:27 For what reason did you flee secretly and deceive me myself תא, and not tell me?
I would even have sent you away
with joy, and with singing,
with the tambourine, and with the harp!

Gen. 31:28 And you did not permit me to kiss
my grandsons and my daughters.
Now you have done foolishly.
Gen. 31:29 It is in the power of my hand
to do harm to you.

But The Elohim of your father spoke to me last night saying,
'Be careful of yourself
not to speak with Ya'akov either good or bad.'

Gen. 31:30 And now you have gone, gone because you have longed, indeed longed,
for your father's household.
But why have you stolen my gods themselves תא?"
*elohim is the term used for "gods" in this story.
It is the same term translated as "God".
It means mighty ones.*

Gen. 31:31 And Ya'akov responded.
And he said to Laban,
"Because I was afraid indeed I said perhaps you will take your daughters themselves תא
away from me by force.

Gen. 31:32 With whomever you find your gods themselves תא, they will not live.
In front of our kindred discern for yourself what is with me,
and take it for yourself."

And Ya'akov did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

Gen. 31:33 And Laban went into Ya'akov's tent,
and into Le'ah's tent,
and into the tents of the two female servants.
But he did not find them.
And he came out of Le'ah's tent.
And he entered Rachel's tent.
Gen. 31:34 Now Rachel had taken the idols themselves תא
and put them in the camel's saddle basket.
And she sat on them.
And Laban felt around the whole tent itself תא,
but he did not find them.
Gen. 31:35 And she said to her father,
"Let there be no anger in the eyes of my master
that I am unable to rise up before you because the way of women is upon me."
And he searched.
But he did not find the idols themselves תא.

Gen. 31:36 And Ya'akov was angry.
And he contended with Laban.
And Ya'akov responded and said to Laban,
"What is my unfaithful act?"

What is my offense
that you have hotly pursued after me?
Gen. 31:37 Since you have felt through all my articles themselves תא
what have you found
of all your household articles?
Set it here before my kindred and your kindred.
Then they will decide between the two of us!

Gen. 31:38 This twenty years I have been with you.
Your ewes and your female goats
have not miscarried
and the rams of your flock I have not eaten.

Gen. 31:39 That which was torn by wild animals
I did not bring to you.
I myself bore the loss of it.

From my hand you required it,
whether stolen by day or stolen by night.

Gen. 31:40 Thus I was!

By day the heat consumed me,
and the frost by night.
And my sleep departed from my eyes.

Gen. 31:41 It is for me twenty years
I have been in your household.
I served you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flock.
And you have changed my wages themselves תא
ten times.

Gen. 31:42 Unless The Elohim of my father,
The Elohim of Abraham
and The Reverence of Yitzhak, had been with me
surely you would now
have sent me away empty.

The Elohim has seen my affliction itself תא
and the labor itself תא of my hands.
And He rebuked you last night!"

Gen. 31:43 And Laban responded.
And he said to Ya'akov,
"The daughters are my daughters,
and the children are my children,
and the flock is my flock,
and all that you see, it is mine!
But to my daughters what can I do this day,
or to their children whom they have born?"

Gen. 31:44 And now, come!
Let us cut a covenant, I myself and you yourself.
And it will be a witness between you and me."

Gen. 31:45 And Ya'akov took a stone.
And he set it up as a standing column.

Gen. 31:46 And Ya'akov said to his kindred,
"Gather stones!"

And they took stones and made a heap.
And they ate here upon the heap.

The normal details involved in cutting a covenant
are not given here.

The meal is apparently a "fellowship meal"
that was used to seal the covenant.

It's an Eastern tradition that if you eat with someone you cannot treat them with hostility afterward.

Gen. 31:47 And Laban called it Yegar Sahadutha,
but Ya'akov called it Gal'ed.

Yegar Sahadutha means heap of the testimony.
Gal'ed means a heap of stone.

Gen. 31:48 And Laban said,
"This heap is a witness between you and me this day."
Therefore the name of it is called Gal'ed,

Gen. 31:49 also Mitzpah, because he said,
"YAHWEH is keeping watch between me and you
as we are hidden, one man from another.
Mitzpah means an observatory; watch tower.

Gen. 31:50 If you afflict my daughters themselves תן,
or if you take other wives besides my daughters,
no man is with us.
Behold!
The Elohim is witness between me and you!"

Gen. 31:51 And Laban said to Ya'akov,
"Behold this heap
and behold this standing column
which I have thrown between me and you!

Gen. 31:52 This heap is a witness, and this standing column is a testimony that I myself will not pass over this heap itself תן toward you,
and you yourself will not pass over this heap itself תן or this standing column itself תן toward me for the sake of harm.

Once again we encounter the concept of "pass over".
Again we find it connected to Ya'akov's deliverance from Laban.
But now we approach his deliverance from Esau also.

Gen. 31:53 The Elohim of Abraham, and the god of Nahor judge between us,
the gods of our fathers."

And Ya'akov swore
by The Reverence of his father, Yitzhak.

This is a most fascinating passage.
We know Who The Elohim of Abraham is.
But we do not know who the god of Nahor was.

The text, as given above,
is the literal rendering of the Hebrew text.

These two gods are identified as
"the gods of our fathers".
It's quite possible YAHWEH
was also the god of Nahor.
But Scripture does not confirm this for us.

And Ya'akov swears by "The Reverence of Yitzhak".
This term is traditionally given as "The Terror of Yitzhak."
The term used can mean fear, terror,
or it can mean awe, reverence.
The context suggests that "reverence"
it a far more appropriate rendering of the term in this instance.

Gen. 31:54 And Ya'akov offered
a sacrifice on the mountain.
And he called his kindred to eat food.
And they ate food.
And they stayed all night on the mountain.

Gen. 31:55 And Laban rose up early in the morning.
And he kissed his sons and daughters.
And he blessed they themselves תן.
And Laban left.
And he returned to his place.

Chapter 32

Gen. 32:1 And Ya'akov went on his way.
And messengers of The Elohim met with him.
Gen. 32:2 And Ya'akov said as he saw them,
"This is the camp of The Elohim."
And he called the name of that place Mahanaim.

Mahanaim means double camp.

Gen. 32:3 And Ya'akov sent messengers before him
to Esau, his brother,
in the land of Se'ir, the country of Edom.

Se'ir means rough.
Edom means reddish.

Both refer to Esau,
which also means rough; shaggy.

Gen. 32:4 And he directed they themselves תא saying,
"Thus you are to say to my master, Esau.
Thus says your servant Ya'akov,
'I have sojourned with Laban.
And I have remained there until now.
Gen. 32:5 And I have bulls, and donkeys, flocks,
and male servants, and female servants.
And I have sent to tell my master
for the sake of finding favor in your sight.' "

Gen. 32:6 And the messengers
returned to Ya'akov saying,
"We went to your brother, to Esau.
And he also is coming to meet you.
And four hundred men are with him."
Gen. 32:7 And Ya'akov was greatly afraid and distressed.

And he divided into two companies
the people themselves תא
that were with he himself תא,
and the flocks themselves תא,
and the herds themselves תא,
and the camels.

Gen. 32:8 And he said,
"If Esau comes to the one company and attacks it then the other company will be left to escape."

Gen. 32:9 And Ya'akov said,
"Elohim of my father, Abraham and Elohim of my father, Yitzhak, YAHWEH, Who said to me,
'Return to your land and to your kindred and I will deal well with you.'

Gen. 32:10 I am insignificant compared to all the kindnesses and all the faithfulness which You have shown to Your servant himself תא.
Indeed, with my staff I passed over
this Yarden itself תא.

And now I have become two companies.

Gen. 32:11 Deliver me, please,
from the hand of my brother,
from the hand of Esau,
for I fear he himself תא,
lest he come and strike me,
mother and children alike.

Gen. 32:12 And You Yourself have said,
'I will deal well, well with you.
And I will establish your seed itself תא
like the sand of the sea
which cannot be numbered on account of abundance.'

Gen. 32:13 And he himself stayed there that night.
And he took from what came to his hand
as an offering for Esau, his brother;

Gen. 32:14 two hundred female goats
and twenty male goats,

two hundred ewes and twenty rams,
Gen. 32:15 thirty nursing camels with their young,
forty cows and ten bulls,
twenty female asses, and ten foals.

Gen. 32:16 And he gave them into the hand of his servants,
herd by herd separately.
And he said to his servants,
"Pass over before me.
And put an interval between each group."

Gen. 32:17 And he directed the first one himself תא saying,

“When Esau, my brother, meets you,
and he asks you saying,
‘To whom do you belong
and where are you going?
And whose are these in front of you?’
Gen. 32:18 then you are to say,
‘They are your servant Ya’akov’s.
It is an offering sent to my master, Esau.
And behold!
Even he is behind us.’ ”

minchah is the Hebrew word used for gift.
It’s most commonly associated with an offering.
In this case it would represent a peace or shelem offering.

Gen. 32:19 Likewise he directed the second himself תָּא, likewise the third himself תָּא,
likewise all who followed the groups themselves תָּא, saying, “According to this word
you are to speak to Esau
when you meet he himself תָּא.

Gen. 32:20 And say also, ‘Behold!
Your servant, Ya’akov, is behind us.’ ”,
because he said,
“I will make an atonement before his face
with the offering going before my face.
And therefore afterward I will see his face.
Perhaps he will lift up my face.”

kaphar is the word used here for “atonement”.
This is rather humorous if you take it literally because it means to cover, specifically with bitumen.
It’s the very same term used
when Noah was instructed to cover the container inside and out.

The concept is that of covering - with an offering!
It’s the intent of the offering to make atonement for one’s offenses.

The literal sense is given to the text,
specifically including the concept of ‘face’.
This is normally given as “presence”,
which is indeed a Hebraism
used in connection to one’s face, meaning to be in their presence.
Yet here, the repetition of the term adds emphasis and character to the story, tying it together in a manner
English does not normally do.

The final line, “lift up my face”
means Hebraically, “accept me”.

Gen. 32:21 And the offering passed over before him.
But he himself stayed overnight in the camp.
Note the offering “passed over”.
Again we find the connection to Passover
- and this time even with an offering from the flock.

Gen. 32:22 And he himself rose up that night.
And he took his two wives themselves תָּא,
and his two female servants themselves תָּא,
and his eleven sons themselves תָּא,
and he passed over
the ford of The Yabbok itself תָּא.

Yabbok means pouring forth.

Gen. 32:23 And he took them.
And he caused them to pass over the stream itself תָּא.
Then he caused that itself תָּא which was his
to pass over.

Gen. 32:24 And Ya’akov remained by himself.
And he wrestled with an individual until the rising of the dawn.

Gen. 32:25 And he saw that he did not prevail against him.

And he struck him in the hollow of his thigh.
And he dislocated the hollow of of Ya'akov's hip
as he wrestled with him.
Gen. 32:26 And he said,
"Let me go because the dawn rises!"
But he said, "I am not letting you go unless You bless me!"
Gen. 32:27 And he said to him,
"What is your name?"
And he said, "Ya'akov."

Gen. 32:28 And he said,
"Your name will no longer be called Ya'akov,
but instead, Yisra'el,
because you have prevailed
with divine beings and with men.
And you were capable."

Yisra'el means he who is right with El.
This is the very first time Yisra'el
is mentioned in Scripture.
It has extremely powerful significance.

Remember, a change of name means a change of the person's character and authority.
From here on this man becomes the focal point of YAHWEH's plan.

Gen. 32:29 And Ya'akov asked.
And he said, "Declare, please your name."
And he said,
"Why is it that you ask about my name?"
And he blessed there he himself nx.

Gen. 32:30 And Ya'akov called
the name of the place Penu'el, because I have seen an elohim face to face,
but my life is delivered.

There are some things
to observe very carefully.

Ya'akov speaks of seeing "an elohim".
There is no article before it in the text,
so it does not appear to refer to The Elohim.

There were many 'elohim',
including false gods, idols.
An elohim is a mighty one.
It includes those we commonly call (incorrectly) 'angels'.

Nowhere is a name given for this individual with whom he wrestled.
Many assume it was "God Himself"
because of the way it's typically translated.
However, the text never makes this declaration.

There are other portions of Scripture that declare no human being has ever seen the "face of YAHWEH".

Every human being has an "offense nature".
Because of this one cannot live while "facing" YAHWEH.

One can, however, encounter one of YAHWEH's "messengers",
(the true meaning of what's typically translated as "angel") and live.
Several persons in scripture have had such encounters.

To remain faithful to "the whole counsel of YAHWEH"
we must accept that this was not YAHWEH Himself,
but was one sent by Him, as an ambassador,
with His authority, and "in His Name", thereby acting on His behalf - as if it was He Himself!
That's the role an ambassador fulfills.

Penu'el means the face of el.

Gen. 32:31 And the sun rose on him
as he passed over Penu'el itself nx.
And he limped on his hip.

This verse raises a question.
The stream was called Yabbok.
Ya'akov sent everyone and everything across this stream

and remained on the original side by himself.
Did he rename the stream,
or did he name the place where he crossed?
It appears he actually renamed the stream,
because that is what he crosses at this point.

Gen. 32:32 On account of this
the children of Yisra'el
do not eat the tendon itself תא,
the one that failed,
which is on the hollow of the thigh,
to this very day
because he struck the hollow of Ya'akov's thigh
in the tendon that failed.
This is an obvious editorial addition to the text to explain this custom in Yisra'el.
Even the verse numberings of the chapter reflect an alteration of the text
in the Hebrew version.

Chapter 33

Gen. 33:1 And Ya'akov lifted up his eyes.
And he looked.
And behold!
Esau was coming.
And with him were four hundred men.
And he divided the children themselves תא
according to Le'ah, and according to Rachel,
and according to the two female servants.
Gen. 33:2 And he put the female servants themselves תא and their children themselves תא first,
then Le'ah herself תא,
and her children themselves תא behind them,
then Rachel herself תא
and Yoseph himself תא behind them.

Gen. 33:3 And he himself passed over before them.
And he bowed to the ground seven times
until he came near to him, to his brother.

Gen. 33:4 And Esau ran to meet him.
And he embraced him.
And he fell on his neck.
And he kissed him.
And they wept.

Gen. 33:5 And he lifted his eyes themselves תא.
And he saw the women themselves תא
and the children themselves תא.
And he said, "Who are these with you?"
And he said, "The children with whom
The Elohim has favored your servant himself תא."

Gen. 33:6 And the female servants came near,
they and their children.
And they bowed themselves.
Gen. 33:7 And Le'ah also came near with her children.
And they bowed themselves.
And afterward Yoseph and Rachel came near.
And they bowed themselves.

Gen. 33:8 And he said, "What do you mean
by all this company which I met?"
And he said, "To find favor in the eyes of my master."
Gen. 33:9 And Esau said,
"I have an abundance, my brother.
Let what you have be for yourself."
Gen. 33:10 But Ya'akov said, "No, please!
If I have now found favor in your eyes
then accept my offering from my hand
because I have therefore seen your face,
like seeing the face of an elohim.
And you have accepted me favorably.
Once again tradition must be challenged.
Reference is made to the "face of God".
Yet the text does not say "The Elohim", meaning God.

It simply states "elohim", meaning an elohim, perhaps a messenger.

Remember, one cannot see the face of The Elohim and live.

Gen. 33:11 Please accept my blessing itself תא that has been brought to you. Indeed, The Elohim has shown favor to me. And indeed, I have all I need." And he pressed it on him. And he accepted it.

Gen. 33:12 And he said, "Let us pull up our tent stakes and we will go. And I will go before you." Gen. 33:13 But he said to him, "My master knows that the children are fragile. And the flock and the herds with me are nursing. And if they are pressed hard even one day the whole flock will die." Gen. 33:14 Please let my master pass over before the face of his servant. And I myself will lead gently according to the pace of the business which is before my face and at the pace the children are able to go to my master at Se'ir."

Gen. 33:15 And Esau said, "Please let me leave with you from the people which are of me myself תא." But he said, "For what purpose is this since I have found favor in the eyes of my master?"

Gen. 33:16 And Esau turned back that very day on his way to Se'ir. Gen. 33:17 And Ya'akov journeyed to Sukkot. And he built a house for himself. And made booths for his livestock. Therefore the name of the place is called Sukkot. Sukkot means booths.

Gen. 33:18 And Ya'akov came with peace to the city of Shekem which is in the land of Kena'an as he came from Paddan Aram. And he pitched his tent before the city itself תא. Shekem means ridge.

Gen. 33:19 And he bought a portion itself תא of the field where he had spread out his tent from the hand of the children of Hamor, Shekem's father, for one hundred pieces of money. Hamor means an ass.

Gen. 33:20 And he set up a slaughter site there. And he called it El Elohe Yisra'el. El Elohe Yisra'el means El, The Mighty One of Yisra'el. This occurs only here in Scripture. It's the name of the slaughter site, not a name of God. It's important to keep in mind his recent experiences at the Yabbok, where he struggled with the unnamed visitor. One can see in the name of this slaughter site a recognition of The El \(Mighty One\), as perhaps an identification of The El as The Mightiest One of All \(Elohe\).

Chapter 34

Gen. 34:1 And Dinah, the daughter of Le'ah whom she had born to Ya'akov, went out to see the daughters of the land. Gen. 34:2 And Shekem, son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the land, saw her herself תא. And he took her herself תא.

And he laid carnally with her herself תא.
And he defiled her.

Gen. 34:3 And his life clung to Dinah,
the daughter of Ya'akov.
And he loved the young woman herself תא.
And he spoke kindly to the girl.
Gen. 34:4 And Shekem spoke to his father, Hamor, saying, Take for me this young woman herself תא
for a wife."

Gen. 34:5 And Ya'akov heard that he had defiled Dinah herself תא,
his daughter.
But his sons were with his livestock itself תא
in the field.
And Ya'akov kept silent until they came.

Gen. 34:6 And Hamor, the father of Shekem, went out to Ya'akov to make arrangements
with he himself תא.

Gen. 34:7 And the sons of Ya'akov
came out of the field when they heard it.
And the men were grieved.
And they were extremely angry at them because he had committed a disgrace against Yisra'el
by lying carnally with Ya'akov's daughter herself תא.
And thus it should not be done.

There's a tendency for many translations
to put "in Yisra'el" into this verse.

This is not correct.

Yisra'el is not a nation at this point,
only a man.

The offense is against Yisra'el,
as Dinah's father.

And note the odd shift
back to the use of Ya'akov in the same sentence.
This change in usage also seems improper.

Gen. 34:8 And Hamor negotiated with they themselves תא saying,
"My son, Shekem, delights in your daughter
with his life.
Please give her to he himself תא for a wife.
Gen. 34:9 And make marriage alliances
with us ourselves תא.
Give your daughters to us
and take our daughters themselves תא for yourselves.
Gen. 34:10 And dwell with us ourselves תא.
And the land will be before you.
Dwell and travel about in it and take possessions in it."

Gen. 34:11 And Shekem said
to her father and her brothers,
"Let me find favor in your eyes.
And whatever you say to me I will give.
Gen. 34:12 Ask an extreme dowry and gift
and I will give according to what you say to me.
But give me the young woman herself תא
for a wife."

Gen. 34:13 But the sons of Ya'akov answered Shekem himself תא
and Hamor himself תא, his father, with deceit.
And they spoke to him
who had defiled Dinah herself תא,
their sister.

Gen. 34:14 And they said to them,
"We are not able to do this thing itself,

to give our sister herself תא
to one who is uncircumcised.
Indeed, it is a disgrace among us.

Gen. 34:15 Only in this would we consent to you,
if you become like us,
having every male among you circumcised.
Gen. 34:16 Then we will give our daughters themselves תא to you and your daughters themselves תא
we will take to us.
And we will dwell with you yourselves תא.
And we will become one people.
Gen. 34:17 But if you will not listen attentively to us to be circumcised
then we will take our daughter herself תא and go.”

Gen. 34:18 And their words pleased Hamor
and Shekem, Hamor's son.
Gen. 34:19 And the young man did not delay to do the thing
because he delighted in Ya'akov's daughter.
And he was more significant
among all the household of his father.

Gen. 34:20 And Hamor and Shekem, his son, went to the gate of their city.
And they negotiated
with the men of their city saying, Gen. 34:21 "These men, they are at peace
with us ourselves תא.
And they will dwell in the land.
And they will trade with us ourselves תא.
And behold!
The land is big enough
for them to be among us.
We will take their daughters themselves תא
to us for wives and we will give our daughters themselves תא to them.

Gen. 34:22 However,
they will only agree to this with us,
to dwell with us ourselves תא
for the sake of becoming one people if every male among us is circumcised
as they are circumcised.
Gen. 34:23 Will not their livestock,
and their possessions,
and all their animals be ours?
Only let us agree with them and they will dwell with us ourselves תא.”

Gen. 34:24 And all who went out of the gate of his city listened attentively to Hamor
and Shekem, his son.
And every male was circumcised,
all who went out of the gate of his city.
Gen. 34:25 And it was on the third day,
when they were in pain.
And two of the sons of Ya'akov, Shim'on and Levi, Dinah's brothers,
each one, took his sword.
And they came confidently upon the city.
And they murdered all the males.
Gen. 34:26 And they murdered Hamor himself תא
and Shekem himself תא, his son,
with the edge of the sword.

And they took Dinah herself תא from Shekem's house.
And they went out.

Gen. 34:27 The sons of Ya'akov came upon the slain.

And they plundered the city
which had defiled their sister.
Gen. 34:28 Their flocks themselves תא,
and their oxen themselves תא,
and their asses themselves תא,
and that itself תא which was in the city,
and that itself תא which was in the field they took.
Gen. 34:29 And all their wealth itself תא,
and all their children themselves תא,
and their wives themselves תא they took captive.
And they plundered everything itself תא
which was in the houses.

Gen. 34:30 But Ya'akov said to Shim'on and Levi,
"You have troubled me myself תא
by making me offensive among the inhabitants of the land,
among the Kena'anites
and among the Perizzites.
And I myself am few in number.
And they will gather together against me.
And they will strike me.
And I will be destroyed,
I myself and my household."

Gen. 34:31 But they said,
"Should he do to our sister herself תא
as to a whore?"

Chapter 35

Gen. 35:1 And The Elohim said to Ya'akov,
"Get up!
Go up to Bayit El and dwell there!
And make a slaughter site there to El,
Who has been seen by you in your fleeing from the presence of Esau, your brother."

Gen. 35:2 And Ya'akov said to his household and to everyone with him,
"Put away the foreign gods themselves תא
that are in your midst!
And purify yourselves!
And change your garments!

Ya'akov clearly comprehends
the significance of purification.
This is not about physical cleanliness.
It's entirely about becoming "undefiled",
pure in the sight of YAHWEH.

We're witnessing the process of "sanctification", preparing oneself to be in the right frame of mind
and state of undefilement
in order to properly worship YAHWEH.

Gen. 35:3 Then we will get up.
And we will go up to Bayit El.

And I will make a slaughter site there for The El Who answered me myself תא
in the day of my distress and Who has been with me on the path which I have traveled."

Gen. 35:4 And they gave to Ya'akov
all the foreign gods themselves תא
that were in their hands, and the rings themselves תא
that were in their ears.
And Ya'akov hid these themselves תא
under the oak that is at Shekem.

The word for these foreign gods is elohim.
It's the very same term used to refer to YAHWEH.
It's important to see
that this is NOT their name!
It is a description of their character or attributes, a title.

The rings were items typically used in idol worship

- hence the need to get rid of them.
They're in the same class as the idols themselves.

Gen. 35:5 And they set out.
And the terror of The Elohim
was upon the cities that were around them.
And they did not pursue after the sons of Ya'akov.

Gen. 35:6 And Ya'akov came to Luz which is in the land of Kena'an, that is Bayit El,
he and all the people who were with him.
Gen. 35:7 And he built a slaughter site there.
And he called the place El Bayit El because there The Elohim had been revealed to him
in his fleeing from the face of his brother.

Gen. 35:8 And Deborah, Ribkah's nursemaid, died.
And she was buried at lower Bayit El under the oak.
And its name was called Allon Bakuth.

Deborah means bee.
Allon Bakuth means oak of weeping.

Gen. 35:9 And The Elohim was seen by Ya'akov
once again as he came from Paddan Aram.

And He blessed he himself תא.

Gen. 35:10 And The Elohim said to him,
"Your name is Ya'akov.

Your name is no longer to be called Ya'akov.
Indeed, now Yisra'el will be your name."

And He called his name itself תא Yisra'el.

This portion of the text gives evidence of editorial revision.
We've already had the story of Penu'el
where this change of name took place.
It's apparently repeated here in order to help clarify what follows.

Gen. 35:11 And The Elohim said to him,
"I Myself am The Mightiest El.
Bear fruit and increase!
A people, even a great assembly of people,
will exist from you.

And kings will come from your loins.

Gen. 35:12 And the land itself תא
which I gave to Abraham and to Yitzhak, to you I will give it.

And to your seed after you
I will give the land itself תא."

The focus of this verse is very significant.
There are "two witnesses"
from The Elohim, El Shaddai Himself, that He will give the very land which was promised to Abraham and to Yitzhak to Yisra'el (Ya'akov).
Now the reason for the insertion of the re-naming of Ya'akov takes on new significance.

It's crucial to see the connection of Yisra'el
to the land itself, this very specific land!

Gen. 35:13 And The Elohim
ascended from beside him at the place
where He had spoken with he himself תא.

Gen. 35:14 And Ya'akov stationed a standing column at the place
where He had spoken with he himself תא,
a standing column of stone.

And he poured a drink offering on it.
And he poured oil on it.

These are both acts of dedication or consecration.

Gen. 35:15 And Ya'akov called
the name of the place where The Elohim spoke with he himself תא Bayit El.

Gen. 35:16 And they set out from Bayit El.
And it was still some way to go to Ephrath.
And Rachel gave birth.
But she had a difficult birth process.

Ephrath means fruitfulness.

Gen. 35:17 And it happened,
as she was in difficult labor,
that the midwife said to her,
"Do not be afraid
because this one also is a son for you."

Gen. 35:18 And it was as her life as going out,
when she died.

And she called his name Ben-Oni.
But his father called him Binyamin.

Ben Oni means son of my sorrow.
Binyamin means son of the right hand,
son of favor.

Gen. 35:19 And Rachel died.

Chapter 37

Gen. 37:1 And Ya'akov dwelt in the land of the sojournings of his father, in the land of Kena'an.

Gen. 37:2 And these are the generations of Ya'akov: Yoseph, seventeen years old, was tending the flock with his brothers themselves אָת. And the young man was with the sons of Bilhah themselves אָת and the sons of Zilpah themselves אָת, his father's wives.

And Yoseph brought a bad report itself אָת of them to their father.

Gen. 37:3 Now Yisra'el loved Yoseph himself אָת more than all his children because he was the son of his old age. And he made for him a tunic of many colors.

There's more than one possibility for this garment Yoseph had. It was likely a long-sleeved tunic. Special ones were adorned with embroidery or other ornamentation.

Gen. 37:4 And his brothers saw that he himself אָת was loved by their father more than all his brothers. And they hated he himself אָת. And they were not able to speak peaceably to him.

Gen. 37:5 And Yoseph dreamed a dream. And he told it to his brothers. And they hated he himself אָת even more.

This line appears to be out of place, likely due to fragments being assembled improperly. See how it appears more properly at v. 8.

Gen. 37:6 And he said to them, "Please listen to this dream which I have dreamed.

Gen. 37:7 Behold! We ourselves were binding sheaves in the middle of the field. And behold! My sheaf stood up. And it even stood upright. And behold! Your sheaves surrounded it. And they bowed down to my sheaf."

Gen. 37:8 And his brothers said to him, "Will you indeed reign over us? Will you indeed have dominion over us?"

And they hated he himself אָת even more because of his dreams and because of his words.

Gen. 37:9 And he dreamed yet another dream. And he himself אָת related it to his brothers. And he said, "Behold! I have dreamed another dream. And behold! The sun and the moon and the eleven stars bowed down to me."

Gen. 37:10 And he related it to his father and his brothers. And his father rebuked him. And he said to him, "What is this dream which you have dreamed? Will I myself and your mother and your brothers

indeed come to bow down
to the earth before you?"

Gen. 37:11 And his brothers envied him.
But his father noted the saying itself נא.

Gen. 37:12 And his brothers went to tend the flock itself נא of their father in Shekem.

Gen. 37:13 And Yisra'el said to Yoseph,
"Are not your brothers pasturing in Shekem?
Come, and I will send you to them."
And he said to him, "I am here."

Gen. 37:14 And he said to him, "Please go!
See if it is shalom itself נא with your brothers,
and shalom itself נא is with the flock.
Then bring back word to me."

And he sent him out of the Valley of Hebron.
And he went to Shekem.

Gen. 37:15 And a certain man found him.
And behold!

He was wandering in the countryside.
And the man asked him saying,
"What are you searching for?"

Gen. 37:16 And he said,
"I am searching for my brothers themsel/ves נא.
Please tell me where they are pasturing."

Gen. 37:17 And the man said,
"They have journeyed from here.
Indeed, I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.' "

And Yoseph went after his brothers.
And he found them at Dothan.

Gen. 37:18 And they saw he himself נא
from a distance,
even before he came near to them.
And they conspired against he himself נא,
for the sake of killing him.

Gen. 37:19 And they said to each other,
"Behold!
This master of the dream is coming!
Note the beautiful subtlety in the "master of the dream" statement.

Gen. 37:20 And now, come!
And we will murder him
and throw him down into one of the pits.
And we will say
some wild beast has devoured him.
And we will see what will become of his dreams"

Gen. 37:21 But Re'uben listened attentively.
And he delivered him from their hands.
And he said, "Do not strike him!"

Gen. 37:22 And Re'uben said to them,
"Shed no blood!
Throw he himself נא into this pit
which is in the wilderness.
But do not lay a hand on him!"
for the sake of causing he himself נא to be delivered from their hands
for the sake of returning him to his father.

Gen. 37:23 And it was as Yoseph
came to his brothers.

And they stripped Yoseph himself תא
of his tunic itself תא,
his tunic itself תא of many colors
which was on him.

Gen. 37:24 And they took him.
And they threw he himself תא
down into a pit.
And the pit was empty.
No water was in it.

Gen. 37:25 And they sat down to eat a meal.
And they lifted their eyes.
And they looked.
And behold!
A company of Yishma'elites,
was coming from Gil'ad with their camels,
bearing spices, and balm, and myrrh,
going down to Mitsraim.

Gen. 37:26 And Yahudah said to his brothers,
"What profit is there
if we murder our brother himself תא
and conceal his blood itself תא?"

Gen. 37:27 Come!
We will sell him to the Yishma'elites.
But our hands will not be against him.
Indeed, he is our brother, our flesh."
And his brothers listened attentively.

Gen. 37:28 And the Midyanite merchant men were passing by.
And they pulled Yoseph himself תא up out of the pit.
And they sold Yoseph himself תא to the Yishma'elites
for twenty pieces of silver.

And they took Yoseph himself תא to Mitsraim.

Gen. 37:29 And Re'uben returned to the pit.
But behold!
Yoseph was not in the pit.
And he tore his clothing itself תא.

Gen. 37:30 And he returned to his brothers.
And he said, "The young man is gone!
And I, where am I to go?"

Gen. 37:31 And they took Yoseph's tunic itself תא.
And they killed a kid of the goats.
And they dipped the tunic itself תא in the blood.

Gen. 37:32 And they sent
the tunic of many colors itself תא.
And they brought it to their father.
And they said, "We have found this.
Please examine it.
Is this itself תא the tunic of your son or not?"

Gen. 37:33 And he examined it.
And he said,
"It is my son's tunic.
A harmful animal has devoured him.
Yoseph is torn, torn to pieces."

Gen. 37:34 And Ya'akov tore his clothes.
And he put sackcloth on his loins.
And he mourned for his son many days.

Gen. 37:35 And all his sons and all his daughters
rose up to comfort him.
But he refused to be comforted.

And he said, "Now let me go down to my son mourning, to the grave."
And his father wept for he himself תא.

Gen. 37:36 And the Midyanites sold he himself תא in Mitsraim to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh and captain of the guard.

Chapter 38

Gen. 38:1 And it was at that time that Yahudah went down from his brothers תמשלם תא.
And he turned aside to a man, an Adullamite.
And his name was Hirah.

Hirah means splendor.
There is great significance in this move.
It takes place after Yoseph is sold into bondage by his own brothers.

Yahudah leaves them.
He went down,
signifying perhaps a moral decline,
and joined with a foreigner.

Gen. 38:2 And Yahudah saw there a daughter of a Kena'inite man.
And his name was Shua.
And he took her.
And he went in to her.

Shua means cry out, shout.

Gen. 38:3 And she conceived.
And she bore a son.
And he called his name itself תא Er.

Er means watchful.

Gen. 38:4 And she conceived again.
And she bore a son.
And she called his name itself תא Onan.

Onan means strong, capable.
It's to be noted that Yahuda named Er,
but Shua names Onan.
She also names Shelah in the next verse.

Gen. 38:5 And she conceived yet again.
And she bore a son.
And she called his name itself תא Shelah.
And he was at Kezib
when she bore he himself תא.

Shelah means request, a petition.
Kezib means falsified.

Gen. 38:6 And Yahudah took a wife for Er, his firstborn.
And her name was Tamar.
Tamar means to be erect, palm tree.

Gen. 38:7 But Er, Yahudah's firstborn, was bad in the eyes of YAHWEH.
And YAHWEH put him to death.

Gen. 38:8 And Yahudah said to Onan, "Go in to your brother's wife and marry she herself תא.
And raise up seed for your brother."

Gen. 38:9 But Onan knew that the seed would not be his.
And it was when he went in to the wife of his brother.
And he destroyed it on the ground, failing to give seed to his brother.

Gen. 38:10 And he was worthless in the eyes of YAHWEH.
And He also put to death he himself תא.

Gen. 38:11 And Yahudah said to Tamar, his daughter-in-law, “Remain a widow in your father’s house until Shelah, my son, is grown.”

He said this lest he also died like his brothers did.
And Tamar went and dwelt at her father’s house.

Gen. 38:12 And after many days
the daughter of Shua, Yahudah’s wife, died.
And Yahudah was comforted.
And he went up to his sheep shearers,
he and his friend Hirah, the Adullamite, to Timnah.
Timnah means a portion assigned.

Gen. 38:13 And it was reported to Tamar saying,
“Behold!
Your father-in-law is going up to Timnah
to shear his sheep.”
Gen. 38:14 And she put off her widow’s garments.
And she clothed herself with a veil.
And she covered herself.
And she sat at the entrance to Enaim
which was on the way to Timnah because she saw that Shelah was grown but she was not given to him for a wife.
Enayim means double fountain.

Gen. 38:15 And having seen her Yahudah reckoned she was a prostitute
because she had covered her face.
Gen. 38:16 And he reached out to her by the road.
And he said to her,
“Please let me come in to you.”
Indeed, he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law.

And she said, “What will you give me that you may come in to me?”
Gen. 38:17 And he said,
“I will send you a kid from the flock.”
And she said, “Will you give me a pledge until you send it?”
Gen. 38:18 So he said,
“What pledge am I to give you?”
And she said, “Your seal and your cord and your staff that is in your hand.”
And he gave them to her.
And he went in to her.
And she conceived by him.

Gen. 38:19 And she rose up and went away.
And she removed her veil from over her.
And she put on the garments of her widowhood.

Gen. 38:20 And Yahudah sent the kid itself תא
by the hand of his friend, the Adullamite,
to receive his pledge from the woman’s hand.
But he did not find her.

Gen. 38:21 And he asked the men themselves תא
of that place saying, “Where is the cult prostitute who was by the road at Enaim?”
And they said,
“There was no cult prostitute in this place.”

Gen. 38:22 And he returned to Yahudah.
And he said, “I cannot find her.
And also the men of the place said
there was no cult prostitute in this place.”
Gen. 38:23 And Yahudah said, “Let her take it for herself
lest we are disrespected.
Behold!
I sent this kid.
But you yourself have not found her.”

Gen. 38:24 And it was at three months.
And it was reported to Yahudah saying, “Tamar, your daughter-in-law,
has committed adultery.
And behold!
She is pregnant by adultery.”
And Yahudah said,
“Bring her out and let her be burned!”
Gen. 38:25 She was brought out.
And she sent to her father-in-law saying,
“By the man to whom these belong
I am pregnant.”
And she said, “Discern now
to whom these belong,
the seal and the cord and the staff.”
Gen. 38:26 And Yahudah examined them.
And he said,
“She has been more just than I.
Indeed, I did not give her to Shelah, my son.”

And he never knew her carnally again.

Gen. 38:27 And it was at the time for her giving birth.
And behold!
Twins were in her womb.
Gen. 38:28 And it was as she was giving birth.
And one put out his hand.
And the midwife took and tied upon his hand
a scarlet thread saying,
“This one came out first.”

Gen. 38:29 And it was as he drew back his hand.
And behold!
His brother came out!
And she said, “How have you broken out?
On you is a breach!”
And his name was called Perets.
Perets means a breaking forth.

Gen. 38:30 And afterward his brother came out on whose hand was the scarlet thread.
And she called his name Zerah.
Zerah means a rising of light.

Chapter 39

Gen. 39:1 And Yoseph was taken down to Mitsraim.
And Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh,
captain of the guard, a Mitsraite,
bought him from the hands of the Yishma'elites
who had brought him down there.

Gen. 39:2 But YAHWEH was with Yoseph himself תא.
And he became a successful man.
And he was in the house
of his master, the Mitsraite.
Gen. 39:3 And his master observed that YAHWEH was with he himself תא.
And all that he did
YAHWEH was causing to prosper in his hand.
Under his authority.

Gen. 39:4 And Yoseph found favor in his eyes.
And he became a servant of he himself תא.
And he appointed him over his household.
And all that was his he put under his authority.

Gen. 39:5 And it was from the time
he himself תא was appointed over all that he had in his household that YAHWEH blessed the household itself תא
of the Mitsraite for the sake of Yoseph.
And the blessing of YAHWEH
was upon all that he had in the household and in the field.

Gen. 39:6 And he left all he had in Yoseph's authority.
And he himself nx knew of nothing except the food which he ate.

Now Yoseph was handsome in form and appearance.

Gen. 39:7 And it was after these things.
And his master's wife lifted up her eyes themselves nx toward Yoseph.
And she said, "Lie with me!"
Gen. 39:8 But he refused.

And he said to the wife of his master,
"Behold!

My master, he himself nx,
does not know what is in his household.
And everything he has
he has placed in my authority.

Gen. 39:9 No one is greater
in this household than me.
And he has not withheld from me anything except you yourself nx,
because you are his wife itself nx.
And why will I do this great harm
and offend against the gods?"

In Mitsraite culture this must surely have been a reference to "the gods" of Mitsraim, not to "The Elohim" of Yoseph.

Gen. 39:10 And it was as she spoke to Yoseph day after day.

And he did not listen attentively to her about lying with her or about being with her.

Gen. 39:11 And it was at this time
he went into the house
for the sake of doing his work.

And none of the men from the men of the household
were there in the house.

Gen. 39:12 And she seized him by his garment, saying, "Lie with me!"

But he left his garment in her hand.
And he went out to the outside.

Gen. 39:13 And it was at her seeing that he had left his garment in her hands and had fled outside.

Gen. 39:14 And she called to the men of her household.
And she spoke to them saying,
"Behold!

This Hebrew man
has come to us to make sport of us.
He came in to me to lie with me.
And I cried out with a loud voice.

*The term translated "to make sport"
means literally to laugh at or mock.
But it's also a Hebraism for sexual intercourse.*

Gen. 39:15 And it was at his hearing that I lifted my voice and cried.
And he abandoned his garment beside me and fled.
And he went outside."

Gen. 39:16 And she laid his garment beside her until his master came to his home.

39:17 And she spoke to him
according to these things saying,
"The Hebrew servant whom you brought to us
came in to me to make sport of me.

Gen. 39:18 And it was as I was lifting up my voice,
and I was crying out.
And he abandoned his garment with me.
And he fled outside."

Gen. 39:19 And it was as his master was listening attentively to the words themselves תא
which she spoke to him saying,
“Your servant did to me according to these things.”
And his anger was kindled.
Gen. 39:20 And his master took Yoseph,
he himself תא.
And he gave him to the prison house,
the place in which the king's prisoners were bound.
And he was there in the prison house.

Gen. 39:21 But YAHWEH
was with Yoseph himself תא.
And He extended kindness to him.
And He gave him favor in the eyes of the captain of the prison house.

Gen. 39:22 And the captain of the prison house put the prison house
under the authority of Yoseph,
all the prisoners themselves תא
that were in the prison house.
And everything itself תא being done there
he himself did.

Gen. 39:23 The captain of the prison house did not look after anything itself תא
that was under his authority,
in which YAHWEH was with he himself תא.
And whatever he did
YAHWEH caused to succeed.

Chapter 40

Gen. 40:1 And it was after these things.
And the cupbearer to the king of Mitsraim
and the baker offended against their master,
the king of Mitsraim.

Gen. 40:2 And Pharaoh was enraged against his two officers, against the chief cupbearer
and against the chief baker.

Gen. 40:3 And he put they themselves תא
in custody in the house
of the captain of the guard,
in the prison house in which Yoseph was bound.

Gen. 40:4 And the captain of the guard appointed Yoseph himself תא to they themselves תא.
And he attended to they themselves תא.
And they were in custody many days.

Gen. 40:5 And the two of them dreamed a dream,
each man his dream in the same night,
each man according to
the interpretation of his dream,
the cupbearer and the baker,
whom the king of Mitsraim
had bound in the prison house.

Gen. 40:6 And Yoseph came in to them
in the morning.

And he observed they themselves תא.
And behold!

They were upset.

Gen. 40:7 And he asked Pharaoh's officers themselves תא
who were with he himself תא in custody
in his master's house saying,

“Why do you look so distressed today?”

Gen. 40:8 And they said to him,
“We have dreamed a dream
but there is no one to interpret it itself תא.”

And Yoseph said to them,
“Are not interpretations from The Elohim?”

Describe them to me, please!”
Gen. 40:9 And the chief cupbearer described his dream itself תא to Yoseph.
And he said to him, “In my dream, behold!
A vine was in front of me.
Gen. 40:10 And in the vine were three tendrils.
And as it was budding it raised up blossoms and ripened clusters of grapes.
Gen. 40:11 And Pharaoh’s cup was in my hand.
And I took the grapes themselves תא.
And I squeezed they themselves תא into Pharaoh’s cup.
And I put the cup itself תא in the hand of Pharaoh.”

Gen. 40:12 And Yoseph said to him, “This is the interpretation of it.
The three tendrils are three days.
Gen. 40:13 In three more days Pharaoh will lift up your head itself תא.
And he will restore you to your position.
And you will place Pharaoh’s cup in his hand according to the former regulation when you were his cupbearer.

Gen. 40:14 Be sure to remember me, you yourself תא, when it is well with you.
And show kindness to me.
And cause me to be remembered to Pharaoh.
And cause me to be brought out of this house
Gen. 40:15 because I indeed was wrongfully taken from the land of the Hebrews.
And here also I have not done anything that they should put me myself תא in prison.”

Gen. 40:16 And the chief baker saw that the interpretation was favorable.
And he said to Yoseph, “I myself also was in a dream.
And I saw three white baskets upon my head.
Gen. 40:17 And in the uppermost basket was all manner of edible food for Pharaoh.
But the birds ate, they themselves תא, from the basket on my head.”

Gen. 40:18 And Yoseph answered. And he said, “This is the interpretation.
The three baskets are three days.
Gen. 40:19 In three more days Pharaoh will lift up your head itself תא off of you.
And he will hang you yourself תא on a tree.
And the birds will consume your flesh itself תא from upon you.”

Gen. 40:20 And on the third day it was the birthday of Pharaoh himself תא.
And he made a banquet for all his servants.

And he lifted up the head itself תא of the chief cupbearer and the head itself תא of the chief baker in the midst of his servants.
Gen. 40:21 And he restored the chief cupbearer himself תא as his cupbearer to place the cup in Pharaoh’s hand.
Gen. 40:22 But the chief baker himself תא he hung, just as Yoseph had interpreted to them.

Gen. 40:23 But the chief cupbearer did not remember Yoseph himself תא.
And he forgot him.

Chapter 41

Gen. 41:1 And it was at the end of two full years.
And Pharaoh was dreaming.
And behold!
He was standing by The Nile.
Gen. 41:2 And behold!
There came up from The Nile seven cows,
beautiful in appearance and fat of flesh.
And they grazed among the reeds.
Gen. 41:3 And behold!
Another seven cows
were coming up behind them from The Nile, distressed in appearance and thin fleshed.
And they stood beside the other cows
on the bank of The Nile.
Gen. 41:4 And the distressed and thin fleshed cows ate up the seven beautiful looking and fat cows themselves תא.
Then Pharaoh woke up.

Gen. 41:5 And he slept.
And he dreamed a second time.
And behold!
Seven ears of grain were coming up on one stalk, full and good.
Gen. 41:6 And behold!
Seven thin ears of grain and a scorching east wind sprung up behind them.
Gen. 41:7 And the thin ears of grain devoured the seven full and good ears of grain themselves תא.

Then Pharaoh woke up.
And behold!
It was a dream.

Gen. 41:8 And it was at dawn.
And his breath was agitated.
And he sent and called for all the magicians of Mitsraim themselves תא
and all its wise men themselves תא.
And Pharaoh described to them
his dream itself תא.
But none was interpreting they themselves תא
for Pharaoh.

There's a switch in pronouns here
from singular to plural.
The one suggests only one dream,
but we know there were two.
Thus, the second form includes both dreams,
neither of which were able to be interpreted by his "specialists".
It is perhaps a copyist error.

Gen. 41:9 Then the chief cupbearer spoke to Pharaoh himself תא saying,
"I myself am reminded of my offenses themselves תא this day.
Gen. 41:10 Pharaoh was enraged
against his servants.
And he put me myself תא in custody
in the house of the captain of the guard,
I myself תא and the chief baker himself תא.
Gen. 41:11 And each of us dreamed a dream
in the same night,
I myself, and he himself.
Each of us dreamed according to
the interpretation of his dream.
Gen. 41:12 And there was with us ourselves תא
a Hebrew youth,
a servant to the captain of the guard.
And we described it to him.

And he interpreted to us our dreams themselves תא,
each according to his dream he interpreted.
Gen. 41:13 And it happened
in the manner he interpreted to us.
Thus, my position was restored to me myself תא,
and he himself תא was hung.”

Gen. 41:14 Then Pharaoh sent.
And he called Yoseph himself תא.

And they brought him hastily out of the dungeon.
And he shaved.
And he changed his garments.
And he came to Pharaoh.

Gen. 41:15 And Pharaoh said to Yoseph,
“I have dreamed a dream.
But it itself תא is not being interpreted.
And I have heard it said about you that you listen carefully to a dream
for the sake of interpreting it itself תא.”

Gen. 41:16 And Yoseph responded to Pharaoh saying, “Not at all!
The Elohim will respond with well-being itself תא to Pharaoh.”

Gen. 41:17 And Pharaoh said to Yoseph,
“In my dream, behold!
I stood on the bank of The Nile.
Gen. 41:18 And behold!
Seven cows were coming up from the river,
fat of flesh and beautiful looking.
And they grazed among the reeds.
Gen. 41:19 And behold!
Seven other cows were coming up behind them,
thin and awful in appearance and lean of flesh.
Never had I seen this kind of awfulness
in all the land of Mitsraim.
Gen. 41:20 And the lean and awful looking cows consumed the first seven fat fleshed cows themselves תא.
Gen. 41:21 And they consumed them into their bellies.
But it could not be seen that they had consumed them into their bellies.
And they looked as awful as at the beginning.
Then I woke up.

Gen. 41:22 And I saw in my dream.
And behold!
Seven ears of grain
were coming up on one stalk, full and good.
Gen. 41:23 And behold!
Seven ears of grain, withered, thin,
scorched by an east wind,
were sprouting after them.
Gen. 41:24 And the thin ears of grain devoured
the seven good ears of grain themselves תא.

And I described this to the magicians.
But they could not explain it to me.”

Gen. 41:25 And Yoseph said to Pharaoh,
“The dream of Pharaoh is one.
That itself תא which The Elohim is going to do
He has shown to Pharaoh.

Gen. 41:26 The seven good cows,
they are seven years.
And the seven good ears of grain,
they are seven years.
The dream is itself one.
Gen. 41:27 And the seven cows, thin and awful looking,

coming up after them,
they are seven years.
And the seven empty ears of grain
scorched by an east wind,
they will be seven years of famine.

Gen. 41:28 This is the matter
which I have declared to Pharaoh.
What The Elohim is about to do
He has revealed to Pharaoh himself nx.

Gen. 41:29 Behold!
Seven years of exceeding abundance
are coming in all the land of Mitsraim.
Gen. 41:30 Then there will arise
seven years of famine after them.
And all the abundance will be forgotten
in the land of Mitsraim.
And the famine will destroy the land itself nx.
Gen. 41:31 And the abundance will not be seen in the land
because of the presence of the famine,
that coming afterward.
Indeed, it will be exceedingly severe.

Gen. 41:32 And the dream
was repeated to Pharaoh twice
because the word is established by The Elohim,
And The Elohim is hastening to do it.
*Special attention should be paid to this verse.
The dream is repeated twice.
This is in conformity with the Scriptural principle that by 'two witnesses' a matter is confirmed.
The dreams serve this very purpose.*

Gen. 41:33 And now let Pharaoh look for a man of understanding and wisdom.
And place him over the land of Mitsraim.
Gen. 41:34 Let Pharaoh do it.
And let him appoint overseers over the land,
and tax the fifth part of the land of Mitsraim itself nx
in the seven abundant years.
Gen. 41:35 And collect all the food itself nx
of these good years that are coming.
And store up grain under the authority of Pharaoh.
And guard the food in the cities.
Gen. 41:36 And the food will be deposited on behalf of the land against the seven years of famine
that will exist in the land of Mitsraim.
Then the land will not be destroyed by famine.”

Gen. 41:37 And the word was good
in the eyes of Pharaoh
and in the eyes of all his servants.
Gen. 41:38 And Pharaoh said to his servants, “Can we find a man like this,
a man who has
the nature of The Elohim in him?”

Gen. 41:39 And Pharaoh said to Yoseph,
“Since The Elohim has revealed to you yourself nx
all this itself nx no one is as understanding and wise as you.
Gen. 41:40 You yourself nx are over my house!
And according to your word
will all my people be touched.
Only in the throne will I be greater than you.”
Gen. 41:41 And Pharaoh said to Yoseph,
“Behold!
I have placed you yourself nx
over all the land of Mitsraim.”

Gen. 41:42 And Pharaoh took off his signet-ring itself nx from his hand.

And he placed it itself תא upon Yoseph's hand.
And he arrayed he himself תא
in garments of fine linen.
And he put the gold chain upon his neck.
Gen. 41:43 And he caused he himself תא
to ride in the second chariot which was his.
And they cried out before him, "Kneel!"
And he set he himself תא
over all the land of Mitsraim.

Gen. 41:44 And Pharaoh said to Yoseph,
"I myself am Pharaoh.
But without you
no man will lift his hand itself תא
or his foot itself תא in all the land of Mitsraim."

Gen. 41:45 And Pharaoh called Yoseph's name
Zaphnath-Pa'neah.
And he gave to him Asenath herself תא,
daughter of Poti Pherah, priest of On, for a wife.

And Yoseph went out over all the land of Mitsraim.
[Zaphnath-Pa'neah means Savior of the Age,
or revealer of a secret.](#)
Poti Pherah means priest of the sun.
Asenath means favorite of Neith.

Gen. 41:46 Now Yoseph was thirty years old as he stood in the presence of Pharaoh,
king of Mitsraim.

And Yoseph went out from the face of Pharaoh.
And he passed over into all the land of Mitsraim.
There are two things to note here.
Yoseph was seventeen when he was sold into bondage.
It's been thirteen years since he came here.
Now he's second only to Pharaoh.

The second thing is the use of the term "passed over". Yoseph is a metaphor for The Messiah.
He "passed over" Mitsraim
as he prepared to deliver the country from disaster.
In this he is a "type" of The Messiah,
and foreshadows Yisra'el's deliverance
some 400 years later.

Gen. 41:47 And the land produced abundantly
in the seven years of fullness, by handfuls.
Gen. 41:48 And he collected all the food itself תא
of the seven years
which was in the land of Mitsraim.
And he put the food in the cities.
The food of the field which surrounded each city
he put into its midst.

Gen. 41:49 And Yoseph gathered grain
like the sand of the sea,
exceedingly abundant,
until he stopped recording
because it was without number.

Gen. 41:50 And to Yoseph were born two sons
before the years of famine came,
whom Asenath bore to him,
the daughter of Poti Pherah, priest of On.
Gen. 41:51 And Yoseph called the name itself תא
of the firstborn, Menashe,
because The Elohim has made me forget all my trouble itself תא
and all my father's household itself תא.

Menashe means causing to forget.

Gen. 41:52 And the name itself תא of the second
he called Ephraim,
because The Elohim has caused me to bear fruit
in the land of my affliction.
Ephraim means double fruit.

Gen. 41:53 And the seven years were completed for the abundance
which was in the land of Mitsraim.

Gen. 41:54 And the seven years of famine began to come as Yoseph had said.
And the famine was in all the lands.
But in the whole land of Mitsraim
there was food.

Gen. 41:55 And all the land of Mitsraim was hungry.
And the people cried to Pharaoh for food.
And Pharaoh said to all the Mitsraitites,
"Go to Yoseph!
What he says to you, do!"

Gen. 41:56 And the famine
was over the face of the whole land.
And Yoseph opened all that was in them.
And he sold grain to the Mitsraitites.
And the famine seized upon the land of Mitsraim.
Gen. 41:57 And all the lands
came into Mitsraim to buy grain,
to Yoseph,
because the famine was severe in all the lands.

Chapter 42

Gen. 42:1 And Ya'akov observed
that there was grain in Mitsraim.
And Ya'akov said to his sons,
"Why are you looking at each other?"
Gen. 42:2 And he said, "Behold!
I have heard that there is grain in Mitsraim.
Go down there
and buy grain for us from there,
and we will live and not die."

Gen. 42:3 And Yoseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain in Mitsraim.
Gen. 42:4 But Binyamin himself תא, Yoseph's brother, Ya'akov did not send with his brothers themselves תא
because he said,
"Perhaps he will encounter harm."

Gen. 42:5 And the sons of Yisra'el went to buy grain among those going because the famine was in the land of Kena'an.

Gen. 42:6 And Yoseph himself was the governor over the land.
He was the one selling grain
to all the people of the land.

And Yoseph's brothers came.
And they bowed down before him
with their faces to the ground.

Gen. 42:7 And Yoseph saw
his brothers themselves תא.
And he recognized them.
And he looked intently at them.
And he spoke to they themselves תא harshly.
And he said to them,
"From where have you come?"

This is significantly different from traditional translations.
One verb is used twice.
"recognized" and "looked intently"
are from the same verb.
Yet most translate the second usage as "he disguised himself".
It's the direct opposite of looking intently at something,
and therefore makes no sense.

And they said, "From the land of Kena'an
for the sake of buying grain for food."

Gen. 42:8 And Yoseph recognized
his brothers themselves תא,
but they did not recognize him.

Gen. 42:9 And Yoseph remembered the dreams themselves תא
that he had dreamed about them.

And he said to them, "You are spies!
You have come for the sake of seeing the nakedness of the land itself תא!"

Gen. 42:10 And they said to him,
"No, my master!

But your servants have come
to buy grain for food.

Gen. 42:11 We are all one man's sons.
We are honest men.

Your servants are not spies."

Gen. 42:12 But he said to them, "No!
Surely you have come to see the nakedness of the land."

Gen. 42:13 And they said,

"Your servants are twelve brothers,
the sons of one man in the land of Kena'an.
And behold!

The youngest is with our father himself תא
this very day.

And the other one, he does not exist."

Gen. 42:14 But Yoseph said to them,
"It is as I spoke to you saying,
'You yourselves תא are spies!'

Gen. 42:15 By this you will be tested.

As Pharaoh lives,

you will not go out from this place
unless your youngest brother comes here.

Gen. 42:16 Send one among you and bring your brother himself תא!

And you yourselves תא will be bound.

And your words will be tested,

the truth of you yourselves תא.

And if not, as Pharaoh lives,
surely you are spies!"

Gen. 42:17 And he gathered they themselves תא
into custody for three days.

Gen. 42:18 And Yoseph said to them
the third day,

"Do this and live!

I revere The Elohim Himself תא.

Gen. 42:19 If you yourselves תא are honest
one of your brothers

will be bound in your prison house.

But you yourselves תא, go!

Go with grain for the famine to your households.

Gen. 42:20 But your youngest brother himself תא
you are to bring to me.

Then your words will be trusted

and you will not die!"

And they did so.

Gen. 42:21 And they said to each other,

"Truly, we are guilty, we ourselves,

concerning our brother,

with whom we saw the distress of his life

in his seeking favor from us.

But we would not listen.

Therefore this distress itself תא has come to us."

Gen. 42:22 And Re'uben responded to they themselves תא saying,

“Did I not speak to you saying,
‘Do not offend against the young man!’?
But you would not listen.
And behold!
Even his blood has been required.”

Gen. 42:23 And they did not know that Yoseph was understanding because a mediator was between them.

Gen. 42:24 And he turned around from before them.
And he wept.
And he returned to them.
And he spoke to them.
And they took from they themselves תא
Shim'on himself תא.
And they bound he himself תא before their eyes.

Gen. 42:25 And Yoseph ordered them.
And they filled their sacks themselves תא with grain.
And they returned each man's silver to his bag.
And they gave to them food for the journey.
Even thus it was done to them.
Gen. 42:26 And they lifted the grain itself תא
onto their asses.
And they went out from there.

Gen. 42:27 And one of them opened his bag itself תא
to give fodder to his ass at the lodging place.
And he saw his silver itself תא.
And behold!
It was in the mouth of his bag.
Gen. 42:28 And he said to his brothers,
“My silver has been returned to me.
And also behold!
It is in my bag!”
And their hearts failed.
And they were terrified, saying to one another,
“What is this itself תא
that The Elohim has done to us?”

Gen. 42:29 And they came to Ya'akov, their father,
to the land of Kena'an.
And they explained to him everything itself תא
that happened to they themselves תא saying, Gen. 42:30 “The man, the master of the land,
spoke harshly to us ourselves תא.
And he himself תא took us
as spies of the land itself תא.
Gen. 42:31 But we said to him,
‘We are honest.
We are not spies.
Gen. 42:32 We are twelve brothers, sons of our father.
One is no more.
And the youngest is this day
with our father himself תא
in the land of Kena'an.’

Gen. 42:33 And the man,
the master of the land, said to us,
‘By this itself תא I will know if you yourselves תא are honest.
One of your brothers
will remain with me myself תא.
And you will take food for the famine
for your households and go!
Gen. 42:34 But you are to bring your youngest brother himself תא to me.
Then I will know
that you yourselves תא are not spies,
but you yourselves תא are honest men.

I will give to you your brother himself תא.
And you will trade in the land itself תא.' ”

Gen. 42:35 And it was as they emptied their sacks.
And behold!
Each man's package of silver was in his sack!
And they and their father saw
the packages of silver themselves תא.
And they were afraid.

Gen. 42:36 And Ya'akov, their father, said to them,
“I myself תא you have bereaved!
Yoseph does not exist.
And Shim'on does not exist.
And Binyamin himself תא you want to take.
All these are against me.”

To better understand this statement
it helps to recognize that for the Hebrews anything that was not right there with them did not exist.
The only things that existed
were what they could see, touch, feel, or hear.

Gen. 42:37 And Re'uben spoke to his father saying, “Kill my two sons themselves תא
if I do not bring him to you.
Place he himself תא in my authority.
And I will return him to you.”
Gen. 42:38 But he said,
“My son will not go down with you.
Indeed, his brother is dead.
And he alone remains.
If any harm happens to him along the way as you are going then you will bring down
my grey hairs themselves תא
with grief to death.”

Chapter 43

Gen. 43:1 Now the famine was severe in the land.
Gen. 43:2 And it was as they finished eating the grain itself תא
which they had brought from Mitsraim.
And their father said to them, “Return!
Buy grain for us, a little food.”
Gen. 43:3 But Yahudah spoke to him saying,
“The man repeated, repeated to us saying,
‘You will not see my face unless your brother
is with you yourselves תא.’”

Gen. 43:4 If you are sending our brother himself תא
with us ourselves תא we will go down and buy grain for you for food.
Gen. 43:5 But if you are not sending him
we will not go down
because the man said to us,
‘You will not see my face unless your brother
is with you yourselves תא.’”

Gen. 43:6 And Yisra'el said, “Why did you do harm to me
by declaring to the man that you had another brother?”
Gen. 43:7 And they said, “He was asking.
The man asked about us
and about our kindred saying, ‘Is your father still alive?
Do you have another brother?’
And we told him these things
according to the words from his mouth.
Could we certainly know that he would say,
‘Bring down your brother himself תא?’”

Gen. 43:8 And Yahudah said to Yisra'el, his father,
"Send the young man with me myself תא,
and we will get up and go.
Then we will live and not die,
even we ourselves,
and you yourself תא,
and our families.

Gen. 43:9 I will be an exchange for him.
From my hand you may require it.
If I do not bring him to you
and set him before your face
I will be guilty toward you every day.

Gen. 43:10 Indeed, if we had not delayed
by now would have been back twice."

Gen. 43:11 And their father, Yisra'el said to them,
"If it be so then do this.

Take the best fruits of the land in your vessels and carry down an offering to the man,
a little balm and a little honey,
spices and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds.

Gen. 43:12 And take double silver in your hand and the silver itself תא that was brought back in the mouth of your sacks.

Carry it back in your hand.

Perhaps it was an error.

Gen. 43:13 And take your brother himself תא
and get up!

Return to the man!

Gen. 43:14 And may The Mightiest El grant you compassion before the man that he may send away with you your other brother himself תא
and Binyamin himself תא.

And I myself, if I am bereaved, I am bereaved!"

Gen. 43:15 And the men took this offering itself תא.

And they took double silver in their hand,

and Binyamin himself תא.

And they got up.

And they went down to Mitsraim.

And they stood before Yoseph.

Gen. 43:16 And Yoseph saw Binyamin himself תא
with they themselves תא.

And he said to him who was over his household,
"Bring the men themselves תא to the house.

And slaughter abundantly and prepare it.

Indeed, I myself תא will eat with the men at noon."

Gen. 43:17 And the man did as Yoseph said.

And the man brought the men themselves תא
into Yoseph's house.

Gen. 43:18 And the men were afraid
because they were brought into Yoseph's house.

And they said, "On account of the silver, that was returned into our sacks at the first we are brought in to seek occasion against us
and fall on us,

and take us ourselves תא as slaves,

and our asses themselves תא."

Gen. 43:19 And they approached the man who was over the household of Yoseph.

And they spoke with him

at the entrance of the house.

Gen. 43:20 And they said,

"My master, we indeed came down at the first
to buy grain for food.

Gen. 43:21 And it was

as we came to the lodging place.

And we opened our sacks themselves תא.

And behold!
Each man's silver was in the mouth of his sack,
our silver in full weight.
And we have brought back it itself א in our hand.
Gen. 43:22 And other silver we have brought down
in our hands to buy grain for food.
We do not know who put our silver into our sacks."

Gen. 43:23 And he said, "Shalom to you!
Do not be afraid!
Your Elohim, even The Elohim of your father,
has given you treasure in your sacks.
Your silver came from me."

And he brought out to them Shim'on himself א.
Gen. 43:24 And the man brought the men themselves א
into Yoseph's house.
And he gave them water.
And they washed their feet.
And he gave fodder to their asses.

Gen. 43:25 And they prepared the offering itself א
for Yoseph's coming at noon
because they had heard that they were to eat food there.

Gen. 43:26 And Yoseph came to the house.
And they brought him the offering itself א
which was in their hand, into the house.
And they bowed down to him,
to the ground.

Gen. 43:27 And he asked them
concerning their welfare.
And he said, "Is your father well,
the old man of whom you spoke?
Is he still alive?"

Gen. 43:28 And they said,
"Your servant our father is in good health.
He is still alive."
And they bowed down.
And they prostrated themselves.

Gen. 43:29 And he raised his eyes.
And he saw Binyamin himself א, his brother,
son of his mother.
And he said, "Is this your younger brother of whom you spoke to me?"
And he said,
"The Elohim show favor to you, my son."

Gen. 43:30 And Yoseph hurried because his compassions
were deeply kindled toward his brother.
And he sought to weep.
And went into a room.
And he wept there.
Gen. 43:31 And he washed his face.
And he came out.
And he restrained himself.
And he said, "Set out food!"
Gen. 43:32 And they set for him a separate place,
and for them a separate place,
and the Mitsraites who ate with he himself א
a separate place
because the Mitsraites are not able to eat food with the Hebrews themselves א
because that is detestable to the Mitsraites.

Gen. 43:33 And they were seated before him,
the firstborn according to his birthright
and the youngest according to his youth.
And each man was astonished concerning the other.

Gen. 43:34 And he had portions taken from before he himself תא for them.
And Binyamin's portions were greater than all theirs,
five times as much.
And they drank.
And they became drunk with him.

Chapter 44

Gen. 44:1 And he himself תא
who was over his house
he ordered saying,
"Fill the men's sacks themselves תא with food,
as much as they can carry.
And put each man's silver in the mouth of his sack.
Gen. 44:2 And put my cup itself תא, the silver cup,
in the mouth of the sack of the youngest,
and his silver itself תא with the grain."
And he did according to the word of Yoseph
that he had spoken.

Gen. 44:3 The morning was light.
And the men were sent away,
they and their asses.
Gen. 44:4 They went out of the city itself תא.
They had not gone far.
And Yoseph said to him who was over his house,
"Get up!
Pursue the men and overtake them!
And say to them,
'Why have you rendered harm
in the place of good?"

Gen. 44:5 Is it not this from which my master drinks?
And he indeed tells the future with it.
You have done harm by what you have done.' "

*This verse appears to be out of order.
It appears it should be placed at the end of verse 44.12.
This is likely due to a fragmented text being pieced together incorrectly.*

Gen. 44:6 And he overtook them.
And he spoke to them
these very words themselves תא.

Gen. 44:7 And they said to him
"Why does my master speak
according to these words?
Far be it from us for your servants
to do according to these words.

Gen. 44:8 Behold!
The silver which we found in the mouth of our sacks
we returned to you from the land of Kena'an.
Why would we steal from your master's house
silver or gold?"

Gen. 44:9 Whomever of your servants
with which it itself תא is found will die.
And we will also become slaves for your master."

Gen. 44:10 And he said, "Indeed now,
according to your words, so will it be!
He with whom it is found,
he himself תא will be my slave.
But you yourselves תא will be innocent."

Gen. 44:11 And they hurried and lowered
each man's sack itself תא to the ground,
And each man opened his sack.
Gen. 44:12 And he searched.

He began at the eldest and ended at the youngest.

And the cup was found in Binyamin's sack.

Gen. 44:13 And they tore their garments.
And each man loaded his ass.
And they returned to the city.

Gen. 44:14 And Yahudah and his brothers came to Yoseph's house.
And he was still there.
And they fell before him on the ground.

Gen. 44:15 And Yoseph said to them,
"What is this deed you have done?
Did you not know that a man like me
can certainly practice divination?"

Gen. 44:16 And Yahudah said,
"What shall we say to my master?
What shall we speak,
and how can we be justified?
The Elohim has uncovered
the perversity itself nx of your servants.
Behold!

We are servants for my master,
both us and also he
in whose hand the cup was found."

Gen. 44:17 But he said,
"Far be it from me to do this.
The man in whose hand the cup was found,
he will be a slave to me.
But you yourselves nx,
go up in peace to your father."

Gen. 44:18 And Yahudah came near to him.
And he said, "Oh my master,
please let your servant speak a word
in my master's ears!
And do not let your anger
burn against your servant,
because you are as Pharaoh.

Gen. 44:19 My master asked his servants themselves nx saying,
'Do you have a father or a brother?'

Gen. 44:20 And we said to my master,
'We have a father, an old man,
and a child of his old age, a young one.
And his brother is dead.

And he alone is left of his mother.
And his father loves him.'

Gen. 44:21 And you said to your servants,
'Bring him down to me
and let me set my eyes upon him.'

Gen. 44:22 And we said to my master,
'The young man is not able to leave his father himself nx.

Were he to leave his father himself nx will die.'

Gen. 44:23 But you said to your servants,
'If your youngest brother does not come down
with you yourselves nx
you will not see my face again.'

Gen. 44:24 And it existed that we went up to your servant, my father.
And we told him
the words themselves nx of my master.

Gen. 44:25 And our father said,
'Go back!
Buy grain for us, a little food.'

Gen. 44:26 But we said,
'We are not able to go down.
If our youngest brother is with us ourselves תא
we will go down, because we are not able to see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us ourselves תא.'

Gen. 44:27 And your servant, my father, said to us,
'You know that my wife bore me two.
Gen. 44:28 And the one has gone out from me myself תא.
And I said, 'Surely he is torn, torn to pieces!'
And I have not seen him since.
Gen. 44:29 And if you also take this one himself תא from me and harm happens to him
you will bring down my gray hairs
with grief to the grave.'

Gen. 44:30 And now when I come
to your servant, my father,
and the young man is not with us ourselves תא,
his life being bound up in the young man's life,
Gen. 44:31 it will happen when he does not see the young man with us that he will die.
And your servants will bring down
the gray hairs themselves תא
of your servant, our father,
with grief to the grave.

Gen. 44:32 Indeed,
your servant became an exchange
for the young man himself תא for my father saying,
'If I do not bring him to you then I am guilty of offending against my father every day.'
Gen. 44:33 And now please let your servant remain
instead of the boy as a servant to my master.
And let the young man go up with his brothers.
Gen. 44:34 Indeed, how can I go up to my father and the young man is not with me myself תא, lest I watch as grief comes upon my father himself תא?"

Chapter 45

Gen. 45:1 And Yoseph was not able to restrain himself
before all who stood by him.
And he called out,
"Cause everyone to go out from me!"

And no one stood with he himself תא
as Yoseph made himself known to his brothers.

Gen. 45:2 And he himself תא wept aloud.
And the Mitsraites heard.
And the house of Pharaoh heard.

Gen. 45:3 And Yoseph said to his brothers,
"I am Yoseph.
Is my father still alive?"
But his brothers were not able to respond to he himself תא.
Indeed, they trembled before him.

Gen. 45:4 And Yoseph said to his brothers,
"Please come near to me."
And they came near.
And he said, "I am Yoseph,
your brother whom you sold, I myself תא,
into Mitsraim.

This is a prime example of the failure of the concept of the aleph-tav
marking the direct object of a verb.

In this form within the text
it's normally translated as "me", or "with me".
In this verse it's not even translated in traditional texts.
It's left completely out.

But noting it as an emphatic identification of Yoseph
in this verse makes perfect sense.
It is no longer a "worthless set of characters" within the text.

Gen. 45:5 And now, do not be grieved.
And do not be angry with yourselves
because you sold me myself אני here.
Indeed, The Elohim has sent me before you for the sake of preserving life.

Gen. 45:6 Indeed, these two years
the famine has been in the land.
But there are still five years in which there will be no plowing or harvesting.

Gen. 45:7 And The Elohim has sent me before you to preserve a remnant for you on the earth.
And He is causing you to live
by a great deliverance.

Gen. 45:8 And now, it was not you that sent me myself אני here, but rather, The Elohim.

And He has appointed me as father to Pharaoh
and master of all his house.
And He has made me ruler
in all the land of Mitsraim.

Gen. 45:9 Hurry and go up to my father!
And say to him, 'Thus says your son, Yoseph,
"The Elohim has appointed me
master of all Mitsraim.
Come down to me!
Do not stand still!
Gen. 45:10 And you will dwell in the land of Goshen.
And you will be near to me,
you yourself אני
and your children,
your children's children,
your flocks,
and your herds,
and all that is yours.

Goshen means drawing near.

Gen. 45:11 And there I will sustain you yourself אני
because there are still five years of famine,
lest your inheritance is taken from you yourself אני,
even your household, and all that is yours."

Gen. 45:12 Now behold!
Your eyes are seeing,
and the eyes of my brother, Binyamin,
that it is my mouth that is speaking to you.
Gen. 45:13 And you are to explain to my father
all my honor itself אני in Mitsraim,
and everything itself אני which you have seen.
And you are to hurry and bring down here
my father himself אני!"

Gen. 45:14 And he fell upon the neck
of Binyamin, his brother.
And he wept.
And Binyamin wept upon his neck.
Gen. 45:15 And he kissed all his brothers.
And he wept over them.
And afterwards his brothers
talked with he himself אני.

Gen. 45:16 And the sound was heard in the household of Pharaoh saying,
“The brothers of Yoseph have come.”
And it was pleasing in the eyes of Pharaoh
and in the eyes of his servants.

Gen. 45:17 And Pharaoh said to Yoseph,
“Say to your brothers, ‘Do this!
Load your animals themselves את
and go to the land of Kena'an.
Gen. 45:18 And get your father himself את
and your households themselves את
and come to me!
And I will give to you the goodness itself את
of the land of Mitsraim.
And you will eat the best itself את of the land.

Gen. 45:19 And you yourselves את
have been commanded.
Do this!
Take for yourselves wagons
from the land of Mitsraim
for your little ones and for your wives.
And bring your father himself את and come.
Gen. 45:20 And do not let your eyes be concerned about your goods
because the goodness of all the land of Mitsraim is yours.’ ”

Gen. 45:21 And the children of Yisra'el did so.
And Yoseph gave to them wagons
according to the command of Pharaoh.
And he gave them provisions for the journey.
Gen. 45:22 To all of them he gave,
to each man, changes of clothing.
But to Binyamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of clothing.
Gen. 45:23 And to his father he sent these,
ten male asses loaded with the goodness of Mitsraim,
and ten she asses loaded with grain and bread,
and food for his father for the journey.

Gen. 45:24 And he sent away
his brothers themselves את.
And they departed.
And he said to them,
“Do not be agitated along the way.”

Gen. 45:25 And they went up from Mitsraim.
And they came to the land of Kena'an,
to Ya'akov, their father.

Gen. 45:26 And they told him, saying, “Yoseph is still alive!
And he is governor over all the land of Mitsraim.”
And Ya'akov's heart fainted.
Indeed, he did not believe them.

Gen. 45:27 But they told him
all the words of Yoseph himself את
which he had spoken to them.
And he saw the wagons themselves את
which Yoseph had sent to carry he himself את.

And the breath of Ya'akov, their father, revived.
Gen. 45:28 And Yisra'el said, “Enough!
Yoseph, my son, is still alive.
I will go and see him before I die.”

Chapter 46

Gen. 46:1 And Yisra'el set out
with all that he had.
And he went to Be'ersheba.

And he offered sacrifices to The Elohim
of his father, Yitzhak.
Gen. 46:2 And The Elohim spoke to Yisra'el
in the visions of the night.
And He said, "Ya'akov! Ya'akov!"
And he said, "I am here."
Gen. 46:3
And He said, "I am El,
The Elohim of your father.
Do not be afraid of going down to Mitsraim!
Indeed, I will establish you as a great nation there.

Gen. 46:4 I Myself
am going down with you to Mitsraim.
And I Myself
will certainly bring you up.
And Yoseph will place his hand upon your eyes."

Gen. 46:5 And Ya'akov rose up from Be'ersheba.
And the sons of Yisra'el carried Ya'akov himself תא, their father,
and their little ones themselves תא,
and their wives themselves תא
in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry he himself תא.

Gen. 46:6 And they took their livestock itself תא
and their goods themselves תא
that they had acquired in the land of Kena'an.
And they went to Mitsraim,
Ya'akov and all his seed with he himself תא,
Gen. 46:7 his sons, and his sons' sons,
with he himself תא,
his daughters,
and his sons' daughters,
even all his seed,
he brought with he himself תא to Mitsraim.

Gen. 46:8 And these were the names of the of children of Yisra'el, Ya'akov and his sons who came to Mitsraim:
Re'uben, Ya'akov's firstborn.
Most of these names

Gen. 46:9 And the sons of Re'uben:
Hanoch, and Pallu, and Hetzron, and Carmi.

Gen. 46:10 And the sons of Shim'on:
Yemu'el, and Yamin, and Ohad,
and Yakhin, and Tzohar,
and Sha'ul, son of a Kena'anite woman.

Gen. 46:11 And the sons of Levi:
Gershon, Kohat, and Merari.

Gen. 46:12 And the sons of Yahudah:
Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Peretz, and Zerah.
But Er and Onan died in the land of Kena'an.

And the sons of Peretz were Hetzron and Hamul.

Gen. 46:13 And the sons of Yissaskar:
Tola, and Phuvah, and Yob, and Shimron.

Gen. 46:14 And the sons of Zebulun:
Sered, and Elon, and Yahl'el.

Gen. 46:15 These were the sons of Le'ah whom she bore to Ya'akov in Paddan Aram. And Dinah herself תא, his daughter. All the lives, his sons and his daughters, were thirty three.

Gen. 46:16 And the sons of Gad: Tziphion and Haggi, Shuni and Etzbon, Eri and Arodi, and Areli.

Gen. 46:17 And the sons of Asher: Yimnah, and Yishvah, and Yishvi, and Beri'ah, and Serah, their sister. And the sons of Beri'ah: Heber and Malki'el.

Gen. 46:18 These were the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Le'ah, his daughter. And these themselves תא she bore to Ya'akov, sixteen lives.

Gen. 46:19 The sons of Rachel, Ya'akov's wife: Yoseph and Binyamin.

Gen. 46:20 And to Yoseph, in the land of Mitsraim, were born, born to him by Asenath, daughter of Poti Phera, priest of On, Menashe himself תא and Ephraim himself תא.

Gen. 46:21 And the sons of Binyamin: Belah, and Beker, and Ashbel, Gera and Na'aman, Ahi and Ro'sh, Muppim and Huppim, and Ard.

Gen. 46:22 These were the sons of Rachel who were born to Ya'akov. All the lives were fourteen.

Gen. 46:23 And the son of Dan: Hushim.

Gen. 46:24 And the sons of Naftali: Yahtze'el, and Guni, and Yetzer, and Shillem.

Gen. 46:25 These were the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel, his daughter. And she bore these themselves תא to Ya'akov. All the lives were seven.

Gen. 46:26 All the lives who went with Ya'akov to Mitsraim, coming out from his loins, separate from the wives of Ya'akov's sons, all the lives were sixty six.

Gen. 46:27 And the sons of Yoseph who were born to him in Mitsraim were two lives. All the lives of the household of Ya'akov who went to Mitsraim were seventy.

Gen. 46:28 And Yahudah himself תא he sent before him to Yoseph to direct his presence to Goshen. And they went to the land of Goshen.

Gen. 46:29 And Yoseph prepared his chariot. And he went up to meet Yisra'el, his father. And he appeared before him. And he fell on his neck.

And he wept on his neck a long time. Gen. 46:30 And Yisra'el said to Yoseph, "Now I will die having seen your face itself תא since you are still alive."

Gen. 46:31 And Yoseph said to his brothers and to his father's household,

"I will go up and explain to Pharaoh.
And I will say to him,
'My brothers and my father's household
that were in the land of Kena'an have come to me.
Gen. 46:32 And the men are shepherds.
Indeed, the men have been keepers of livestock.
And they have brought their flocks and their herds,
and all that is theirs.'

Gen. 46:33 And it will exist
when Pharaoh calls you and says,
'What is your occupation?'
Gen. 46:34 that you are to say,
'Your servants have been men of livestock from our youth even until now, both we and also our fathers,'
in order that you may dwell in the land of Goshen, because every shepherd is detestable to the Mitsraites."

Chapter 47

Gen. 47:1 Then Yoseph went.
And he declared it to Pharaoh.
And he said, "My father and my brothers,
and their flocks and their herds
and all that is theirs
have come from the land of Kena'an.
And behold!
They are in the land of Goshen."

Gen. 47:2 And from the circle of his brothers
he took five men.
And he placed them before the face of Pharaoh.
Gen. 47:3 And Pharaoh said to his brothers,
"What is your occupation?"
And they said to Pharaoh,
"Your servants are shepherds of flocks,
both we and our fathers."
Gen. 47:4 And they said to Pharaoh,
"We have come to sojourn in the land
because your servants
have no pasture for their flocks
because the famine is severe in the land of Kena'an.
Now therefore, please let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen."

Gen. 47:5 And Pharaoh spoke to Yoseph saying,
"Your father and your brothers
have come to you.
Gen. 47:6 The land of Mitsraim is before you.
Settle your father himself תא
and your brothers themselves תא
in the best of the land.
Let them dwell in the land of Goshen.
And you know whether there are able men among them.
Even make them chief rulers over my livestock."

Gen. 47:7 And Yoseph brought in Ya'akov himself תא, his father.
And he placed him before Pharaoh.
And Ya'akov blessed Pharaoh himself תא.

Gen. 47:8 And Pharaoh said to Ya'akov,
"How old are you?"
Gen. 47:9 And Ya'akov said to Pharaoh,
"The days of the years of my sojournings are thirty and one hundred years.
Few and hurtful have been the days
of the years of my life.
And they have not attained
the days of the years themselves תא
of the life of my fathers
in the days of their sojournings."

Gen. 47:10 And Ya'akov blessed Pharaoh himself תא.
And he went out from before of Pharaoh.

Gen. 47:11 And Yoseph settled
his father himself תא
and his brothers themselves תא.
And he gave them a possession
in the land of Mitsraim,
in the best of the land,
in the land of Ra'meses,
as Pharaoh had commanded.
Ra'meses means child of the sun.

Gen. 47:12 And Yoseph provided
his father himself תא
and his brothers themselves תא
and all his father's household itself תא
with food according to their families.

Gen. 47:13 And no food existed in all the land
because the famine was very severe.
And the land of Mitsraim
and all the land of Kena'an were weakened by the face of the famine.

Gen. 47:14 And Yoseph gathered up all the silver itself תא
that was found in the land of Mitsraim
and in the land of Kena'an
for the grain which they bought.
And Yoseph brought the silver itself תא
into Pharaoh's house.

Gen. 47:15 And the silver was exhausted
in the land of Mitsraim
and in the land of Kena'an.

And all the Mitsraitites came to Yoseph saying,
"Give us food!"
And, "Why should we die in front of you because the silver is gone?"

Gen. 47:16 And Yoseph said,
"Give me your livestock and I will give you food for your livestock
if the silver is gone."

Gen. 47:17 And they brought their livestock itself תא to Yoseph.
And Yoseph gave them food for the horses, and for the flocks,
and for the livestock of the herds,
and for the asses.
And he sustained them with food
in exchange for all their livestock in that year.

Gen. 47:18 And the year ended.
And they came to him in the next year.
And they said to him,
"We will not hide from my master
that our silver is gone.
And my master also has our herds of livestock.
There is nothing left in the presence of my master except perhaps our bodies and our soil."
Gen. 47:19 Why should we die before your eyes,
both we and our soil?
Buy us ourselves תא
and our soil itself תא for food.
And we and our soil will be slaves to Pharaoh.
But give us seed that we may live and not die,
and the soil will not be desolate."

Gen. 47:20 And Yoseph bought all the soil of Mitsraim itself תא for Pharaoh

because the Mitsraites sold,
every man, his field,
because the famine was severe upon them.
And the land became Pharaoh's.

Gen. 47:21 And the people themselves אָנ
he transferred, they themselves אָנ, to the cities
from one end of the borders of Mitsraim
even to the other end of it.

Gen. 47:22 Only the soil of the priests did he not buy
because the priests had a portion given by Pharaoh himself אָנ.
And they ate their portion itself אָנ
which Pharaoh gave them.
Therefore they did not sell their soil itself אָנ.

Gen. 47:23 And Yoseph said to the people,
"Behold!

I have bought you yourselves אָנ
and your soil itself אָנ today for Pharaoh.

Behold!

Here is seed for you.

And you are to sow the soil itself אָנ.

Gen. 47:24 And it will be that from the produce
you will give one fifth to Pharaoh.

And four parts will be yours for seed for the field
and for your food,

and for those of your households,
and food for your families."

Gen. 47:25 And they said,

"You have acquired our lives.

Let us find favor in the eyes of my master,
and we will be slaves to Pharaoh."

Gen. 47:26 And Yoseph established it itself אָנ
as a custom to this day over the land of Mitsraim that to Pharaoh belongs one fifth.
Only the soil of the priests alone
was not to be Pharaoh's.

Gen. 47:27 And Yisra'el dwelt in the land of Mitsraim,
in the region of Goshen.

And they had possessions in it.

And they were fruitful.

And they increased exceedingly.

Gen. 47:28 And Ya'akov lived in the land of Mitsraim
seventeen years.

And the days of Ya'akov's living was seven years
and one hundred and forty years.

Gen. 47:29 And the time for Yisra'el to die drew near.

And he called his son, Yoseph.

And he said to him,

"If I have now found favor in your eyes

please put your hand under my thigh,

and do kindness and truth to me.

Please do not bury me in Mitsraim.

Gen. 47:30 And I will lie with my fathers.

And you will carry me out of Mitsraim

and bury me in their burial place."

And he said, "I will do as you have said."

Gen. 47:31 And he said, "Swear to me."

And he swore to him.

And Yisra'el bowed himself

upon the head of the bed.

Chapter 48

Gen. 48:1 And it was after these things.

And Yoseph was told, "Behold!

Your father is weak."

And he took with him
his two sons themselves תא, Menashe himself תא
and Ephraim himself תא.

Gen. 48:2 And Ya'akov was told,
"Look, your son Yoseph has come to you."
And Yisra'el strengthened himself.
And he sat upon the bed.
Gen. 48:3 And Ya'akov said to Yoseph,
"The Mightiest El was seen by me at Luz
in the land of Kena'an.
And He blessed me myself תא.
Gen. 48:4 And He said to me, 'Behold!
I will make you fruitful and increase you.
And I will make of you an assembly of people.
And I will give this land itself תא
to your seed after you
for an eternal possession.'

Gen. 48:5 And now, your two sons who were born to you in the land of Mitsraim
before I came to you in Mitsraim, they, like Re'uben and Shim'on, will be mine.
Gen. 48:6 But your lineage which you bear after them will be yours and will be called after the name of their brothers
in their inheritance.

Gen. 48:7 And as I was coming from Paddan Aram
Rachel died beside me
in the land of Kena'an on the way,
yet a little distance from Ephrath.
And I buried her there on the way to Ephrath.
It is Bayit Lechem."
Ephrath means fruitful.
BayitLechem means house of food.

Gen. 48:8 And Yisra'el saw
Yoseph's sons themselves תא.
And he said, "Who are these?"
Gen. 48:9 And Yoseph said to his father,
"They are my sons, whom The Elohim has given to me in this place."
And he said, "Please bring them to me and I will bless them."

Gen. 48:10 Now the eyes of Yisra'el
were dim from age.
He was not able to see.
And he brought they themselves תא near to him.
And he kissed them.
And he embraced them.
Gen. 48:11 And Yisra'el said to Yoseph,
"I had determined I would not see your face.
But behold!
The Elohim has also caused me myself תא
to see your seed themselves תא."

Gen. 48:12 And Yoseph brought they themselves תא
from between his knees.
And he bowed down with his face to the ground.
Gen. 48:13 And Yoseph took
the two of them themselves תא, Ephraim himself תא with his right hand toward Yisra'el's left hand, and Menashe himself תא with his left hand toward Yisra'el's right hand.
And he brought them close to him.

Gen. 48:14 And Yisra'el put forth
his right hand itself תא.

And he laid it upon the head of Ephraim,
yet he is the youngest,
and his left hand itself תא
upon the head of Menashe,
consciously directing his hands themselves תא,
even though Menashe was the firstborn.

Gen. 48:15 And he blessed Yoseph himself תא.

And he said,

“The Elohim before Whom my fathers walked,
Abraham and Yitzhak,
The Elohim Who has been the shepherd of me myself תא

from long ago until this day,

Gen. 48:16 The Heavenly Messenger
redeeming me myself תא from all harm, bless the lads themselves תא!

And let my name be named upon them,

and the name of my fathers, Abraham and Yitzhak.

And let them increase with abundance on the earth.”

mal'ak means to dispatch as a deputy, a messenger.
It is not an 'angel'.

That very word itself
comes from the Greek term for messenger, aggelos, which is pronounced ahn-geh-los.

There is no such thing as an 'angel' in Hebrew thought prior to the Greek culture dominating the world.

A messenger from YAHWEH is a YAH-messenger,
as distinct from any other kind of messenger.

Gen. 48:17 And Yoseph saw that his father had placed his right hand upon the head of Ephraim.
Ant it was bad in his sight.

And he took hold of his father's hand to turn it itself תא aside from the head of Ephraim toward the head of Menashe.

Gen. 48:18 And Yoseph said to his father,
“Not so, my father, because this is the firstborn.
Place your right hand upon his head.”

Gen. 48:19 But his father refused.

And he said, “I know, my son, I know.

He will also become a people.

And he will also be great.

But surely his younger brother will be greater than he.

And his seed will become the fulness of the nations.”

Gen. 48:20 And he himself
blessed them that day saying,
“In you will Yisra'el be blessed, saying,
'May The Elohim establish you like Ephraim and Menashe!' ”

And he placed Ephraim himself תא before Menashe.

Gen. 48:21 And Yisra'el said to Yoseph,
“Behold!

I am dying.

But The Elohim will be with you.

And He will return you yourself תא
to the land of your fathers.

Gen. 48:22 And I have given to you
one portion above your brothers, which I took from the hand of the Amorite
with my sword and with my bow.”

It's not readily apparent to the Western mind,
but Yisra'el is giving to Yoseph
the rights of the firstborn by this action.
The firstborn was entitled to a double portion of his father's inheritance.

Chapter 49

Gen. 49:1 And Ya'akov called for his sons.
And he said, "Gather together and I will reveal to you
what itself תא you will encounter,
you yourselves תא, at the end of the days.

Gen. 49:2 Assemble yourselves and listen carefully,
you sons of Ya'akov.

Now listen carefully to Yisra'el, your father.

This is an unusually emphatic statement.
Ya'akov wants to be certain his sons pay very careful attention to the details of what he is about to set forth.
We will do well to do the same.

Gen. 49:3 Re'uben, you yourself תא
are my firstborn,
my vigor and the first of my generative power;
superior in loftiness
and superior in fierceness,
Gen. 49:4 uncontrollable like water.
You will not be superior
because you went up on your father's bed,
and you defiled it.

My bed he went up on!

Gen. 49:5 Shim'on and Levi are brothers,
Their swords are instruments of violence.

Gen. 49:6 Into their confidence
my life will not come.

My honor will not be joined with their assembly
because in their anger they murdered a man,
and in their pleasure they hamstringed an ox.

Gen. 49:7 Cursed be their anger because it was fierce,
and their rage
because it is cruel!

I will divide them in Ya'akov
and scatter them in Yisra'el.

Gen. 49:8 Yahudah, you yourself תא
will be praised by your brothers.
Your hand will be on the neck of your enemies.
The sons of your father will bow down to you.

Gen. 49:9 Yahudah is a lion's cub.
From the prey, my son, you rise up!
He knelt down.
He crouched like a lion,
even like a lioness.
Who will rouse him?

Gen. 49:10 The rod will not be turned aside from Yahudah, nor a lawgiver turned aside
from between his feet until Shiloh comes.
Then the people will be submissive to Him.

It's well accepted that this is a powerful prophecy of The Messiah.
The symbols are many and most significant.

The rod is the shepherd's staff,
the means of control,
and symbolizes rule and authority.

It will not be turned aside,
or separated, from Yahudah.
Neither will a lawgiver, a scribe,
be turned aside from between his feet,
a euphemism for his loins,
until Shiloh comes.

Shiloh is extremely important.

It means peace, tranquility, security.
It also is understood to mean he whose right it is.

The source of the later part is uncertain.
But it is understood to be a title of The Messiah.

All of this points to The Messiah coming from the loins of Yahudah
to rule legally over the children of Yisra'el, and their acceptance of His rule
by means of their obedience to Him.

Gen. 49:11 Tying his foal of an ass to the vine,
even the choicest vine, the colt of His ass.

He washes his garments in wine,
and his robe in the blood of grapes.

Gen. 49:12 His eyes are darker than wine,
and his teeth whiter than milk.

Yisra'el is the choicest vine of YAHWEH's vineyard.

Gen. 49:13 Zebulun will dwell
by a haven of the sea.
And he will be a haven for ships.
And his border will be toward Tzidon.

Gen. 49:14 Yissaskar is a strong boned ass lying down between two burdens.

Gen. 49:15 And he looked for quiet.
Indeed, even the land itself nx was good.
Indeed, it was pleasant.

And he bent his shoulder to carry.
And he became a slave to tribute.

Gen. 49:16 Dan will judge his people
as one of the tribes of Yisra'el.

Gen. 49:17 Dan is a serpent by the way,
an adder by the path
that bites the horse's heels
so that its rider falls backward.

Gen. 49:18 I have waited for your deliverance, YAHWEH!

Gen. 49:19 Gad, a band will attack him.
But he will attack its heel.

Gen. 49:20 Asher, rich is his food.
And he will give delicacies to the king.

Gen. 49:21 Naftali is a doe
sending the gift of beautiful sayings.

Gen. 49:22 A fruitful son is Yoseph,
a fruitful son to the eye.
His daughters will march upon the wall.

Gen. 49:23 But the masters of arrows were bitter.
They shot at him and harassed him.

Gen. 49:24 Yet his bow was established securely,
and the arms of his authority were made agile
by the authority of The Mighty One of Ya'akov.

From there The Rock of Yisra'el will be shepherding,
Gen. 49:25 from The Mighty One of your father.
And The Mightiest One Himself nx will protect you!
And He will bless you with blessings of the skies above,
blessings of the deep lying beneath,
blessings of the breasts and the womb.

Gen. 49:26 The blessings of your father have prevailed over the blessings of those conceiving me
unto the utmost boundary of the eternal hills.
They will exist for the head of Yoseph,

even the top of the head
of one separate from his brothers.

Gen. 49:27 Binyamin is a wolf tearing to pieces.
In the morning he consumes the prey.
And at evening he divides the spoil.

Gen. 49:28 All these are tribes of Yisra'el.
Twelve.
And this is what their father said to them.
And he blessed they themselves תא.
Each according to his blessing
he blessed they themselves תא.

Gen. 49:29 And he directed they themselves תא.
And he said to them,
"I am being gathered to my people.
Bury me myself תא among my forefathers
in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, Gen. 49:30 in the cave
that is in the field of Makpelah,
which is before Mamre in the land of Kena'an,
which Abraham bought, the field itself תא,
from Ephron, the Hittite, himself תא
as a possession, a grave.
Gen. 49:31 There they buried Abraham himself תא,
and Sarah herself תא, his wife.
There they buried Yitzhak himself תא,
and Ribkah herself תא, his wife.
And there I buried Le'ah herself תא,
Gen. 49:32 the field purchased,
and the cave which is in it,
from the sons of Heth themselves תא."

Gen. 49:33 And Ya'akov finished directing his sons themselves תא.

And he gathered his feet into the bed.
And he breathed his last.
And he was gathered to his people.

Chapter 50

Gen. 50:1 And Yoseph fell on his father's face.
And he wept over him.
And he kissed him.
Gen. 50:2 And Yoseph directed
his servants themselves תא,
the physicians themselves תא,
to embalm his father himself תא.
And the physicians embalmed Yisra'el himself תא.

Gen. 50:3 And forty days were fulfilled for him because in this manner they fulfill the days of embalming.

And the Mitsraites themselves תא
mourned for seventy days.
Gen. 50:4 And the days of his mourning ended.

And Yoseph spoke to the household of Pharaoh saying,
"If now I have found favor in your eyes
please speak in the ears of Pharaoh saying,
Gen. 50:5 'My father made me swear saying,
'Behold!
I myself am dying.
In my grave which I dug for myself
in the land of Kena'an,
there you are to bury me.'
Now therefore please let me go up and bury my father himself תא.
Then I will return.'"
Gen. 50:6 And Pharaoh said,

“Go up and bury your father himself אָת according to what you have sworn.”

Gen. 50:7 And Yoseph went up for the sake of burying his father himself אָת. And with he himself אָת went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Mitsraim, Gen. 50:8 and all the household of Yoseph, and his brothers, and his father’s household. Only their little ones and their flocks and their herds did they leave in the land of Goshen.

Gen. 50:9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen. And it was a very great assembly. Gen. 50:10 And they came to the threshing floor of Atad which is beyond The Yarden. And there they mourned with a great and very grievous mourning. And he mourned for his father seven days.

Gen. 50:11 And the inhabitants of the land, the Kena’anites, saw the mourning itself אָת at the threshing floor of Atad. And they said, “This is a grievous mourning for the Mitsraites.” Therefore the name of it was called Abel Mitsraim, which is beyond The Yarden.

Gen. 50:12 And his sons did to him as he had directed them. Gen. 50:13 And his sons carried he himself אָת to the land of Kena’an. And they buried he himself אָת in the cave of the field of Makpelah, which Abraham bought, the field itself אָת, as a possession for a grave from Ephron, the Hittite himself אָת before Mamre.

Gen. 50:14 And Yoseph returned to Mitsraim, he and his brothers and all who went up with he himself אָת to bury his father himself אָת, after he had buried his father himself אָת.

Gen. 50:15 And Yoseph’s brothers saw that their father was dead. And they said, “Perhaps Yoseph will hold a grudge against us and will turn back, yes, turn back upon us all the harm itself אָת that we did to he himself אָת.” Gen. 50:16 And they instructed Yoseph, saying, “Your father instructed before he died saying, Gen. 50:17 ‘Thus you are to say to Yoseph, “Alas now! Forgive the rebellion of your brothers and their offense. Indeed, they treated you harmfully.” But now, please forgive the rebellion of the servants of The Elohim of your father.”

And Yoseph wept as they spoke to him.

Gen. 50:18 And his brothers also came. And they fell down before his face. And they said, “Behold! We are your servants.” Gen. 50:19 But Yoseph said to them, “Do not be afraid! Indeed, am I in the place of The Elohim?

Gen. 50:20 Now you yourselves תא, you intended harm against me. The Elohim intended it for good, in order to do as it is this day, for the sake of keeping alive many people.

Gen. 50:21 And now, do not be afraid! I myself will provide for you yourselves תא and for your families themselves תא.”

And he comforted they themselves תא. And he spoke kindly to them.

Gen. 50:22 And Yoseph dwelt in Mitsraim, he and his father's household. And Yoseph lived one hundred and ten years.

Gen. 50:23 And Yoseph saw Ephraim's children to the third generation. Also, the children of Makhir, the son of Menashe, were brought up on Yoseph's knees.
Makhir means seller.

Gen. 50:24 And Yoseph said to his brothers, “I myself am dying. But The Elohim will visit, visit you yourselves תא. And He will bring you yourselves תא out of this land to the land which He swore to Abraham, to Yitzhak, and to Ya'akov.”

Gen. 50:25 And Yoseph took an oath from the children of Yisra'el themselves תא saying, “The Elohim will visit, visit you yourselves תא. And you are to carry my bones themselves תא out of this place.”

Gen. 50:26 And Yoseph died at one hundred and ten years old. And they embalmed he himself תא. And they placed him in a coffin in Mitsraim.

2. Exodus – Sh'moth

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Ex. 1:1 And these are the names of the children of Yisra'el who went to Mitsraim. Ya'akov himself תא, a man and his household went.

Ex. 1:2 Re'uben, Shim'on, Levi, and Yahudah,

Ex. 1:3 Yissaskar, Zebulun, and Binyamin,

Ex. 1:4 Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher.

Ex. 1:5 And it was all the lives going out from the loins of Ya'akov. Seventy lives.

And Yoseph existed in Mitsraim.

Ex. 1:6 And Yoseph died, and all his brothers, and all of that generation.

Ex. 1:7 And the children of Yisra'el bore fruit and abounded and increased and became powerful to exceedingly, exceedingly.

And they themselves תא filled the land.

Ex. 1:8 And a new king arose over Mitsraim who did not know Yoseph himself תא.

Mitsraim is Egypt.

Mitsraim is a son of Ham, son of Noah.

It's important to retain this identification.

For this reason

Mitsraim will be used instead of Egypt.

Ex. 1:9 And he said to his people, "Behold!

The people of the children of Yisra'el are many and powerful compared to us.

Ex. 1:10 Come now!

Be wise toward them lest they increase, and it exists that we encounter battles and they even join up with our enemies and even fight against us, and they go up out of the land."

yahab is the term used for "Come now!".

It literally means to give.

It's used idiomatically in the imperative form

to mean "give attention",

and is translated as such above.

The text also uses the third person

singular pronoun, "it", to refer to the children of Yisra'el.

They are treated like an object,

not as human beings.

Idiomatically it's a way of referring to a collective entity.

We'll use 'them' for better understanding,

but don't forget the actual language here.

Ex. 1:11 And they placed over them leaders of forced labor for the sake of humiliating them with their burdens. And they built storehouses for Pharaoh, Pithom itself תא and Ra'amses itself תא.

Ex. 1:12 But as they humiliated they themselves תא they increased more and truly expanded.

And they were in dread because of the faces of the children of Yisra'el.

The language of the text leaves some room for various ways of expressing the conditions.

What's given here is quite literal.

While the traditional texts use "afflicted"

the term means to depress or humiliate.

It is indeed humiliating to be treated as a slave.

But notice the result.

The Yisra'elites flourished.

The Mitsraites dreaded having to even look at the faces of the children of Yisra'el.

Ex. 1:13 And the Mitsraites worked the children of Yisra'el themselves תא with severity.

Ex. 1:14 And they embittered their lives themselves תא

with severe labor with mud, and with brick,

and with all the work of the country;

all their work itself תא.

by which they served with severity.

Ex. 1:15 And the king of Mitsraim said to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah and the other Puah, Shiphrah means brightness.

Puah means brilliancy.

Ex. 1:16 "When you are being midwife to the women themselves תא

and you look upon the birthstones,

if it is a son you are to kill he himself תא.

But if it is a daughter she is even to live.”

Ex. 1:17 But the midwives
revered The Elohim Himself נא.
And they did not do
as the king of Mitsraim said to them.
And the male children themselves נא lived.

Ex. 1:18 And the king of Mitsraim called for the midwives.
And he said to them,
“Why have you done this matter?
Even the male children themselves נא are alive”
Ex. 1:19 And the midwives said to Pharaoh,
“Because the women
are not like the Mitsraite women.
Indeed, they themselves are vigorous.
At the time of going in to them they are giving birth and bearing young.”

Ex. 1:20 And The Elohim
was pleased with the midwives.
And the people increased.
And they became very powerful.
There's a Hebraism involved here. yatab is used to identify
The Elohim's pleasure with the midwives.
The term normally means to make well,
sound, happy, etc.
But they're not needing "healing".
Hence, the idiom.

Ex. 1:21 And it was because the midwives
revered The Elohim himself נא.
And He made households for them.

Ex. 1:22 And Pharaoh gave a charge
to all his people saying, “All the sons born
are to be thrown out into The Nile.
But all the daughters are to live.”

Chapter 2

Ex. 2:1 And a man traveled from the household of Levi.
And he took a daughter of Levi.
Ex. 2:2 And the woman conceived.
And she gave birth to a son.
And she saw he himself נא,
that he was a good child.
And she hid him three months.
Ex. 2:3 And she was not able to hide him any longer.
And she took for him
a container of papyrus.
And she smeared it with bitumen and pitch.
And she placed in it the boy himself נא.
And she placed it among the reeds
on the edge of The Nile.

The word for the papyrus container is tebah.
It means a box or a chest, a container.
It's the very same term used for Noah's "container", and for "The Chest of The Covenant"
- traditionally, "ark".

Ex. 2:4 And his sister stood at a distance
to know what would be done to to him.

Ex. 2:5 And the daughter of Pharaoh
went down to wash at The Nile.
And her girls were walking
by the side of The Nile.
And she saw the container itself נא
in the midst of the reeds.
And she sent her female servant herself נא
to take it.

Ex. 2:6 And she opened it.
And she saw the boy himself תא.
And behold!
The boy was crying.
And she had compassion on him.
And she said,
"This one is from the children of the Hebrews."

Ex. 2:7 And his sister
said to the daughter of Pharaoh,
"Shall I go and call for you
a nursing woman from the Hebrews
even to nurse for you the boy himself תא?"

Ex. 2:8 And the daughter of Pharaoh
said to her, "Go!"

And the young woman went.
And she called the mother herself תא
of the boy.

Ex. 2:9 And the daughter of Pharaoh said to her,
"Go with this child himself תא
and nurse him for me.
And I will give your compensation itself תא."

And the woman took the boy.
And she nursed him.

Ex. 2:10 And the boy grew up.
And she brought him
to the daughter of Pharaoh.
And he became a son to her.
And she called his name Moshe.
And she said,
"Because from the water I pulled him out."
Moshe means drawing out.

Ex. 2:11 And it was in those days.
And Moshe was grown up.
And he went out to his kindred.
And he observed their burdens.

And he saw a Mitsraite man striking a Hebrew man from his kindred.
Ex. 2:12 And he turned this way and that way.
And he saw no man.
And he struck the Mitsraite himself תא.
And he hid him in the sand.

Ex. 2:13 And he went out on the second day.
And behold!
Two Hebrew men were quarreling.
And he said to the one who did the wrong,
"Why do you strike your neighbor?"
Ex. 2:14 And he said,
"Who made you a leader
and a judge over us?
Do you intend to murder me
like you murdered the Mitsraite himself תא?"

And Moshe was afraid.
And he said, "Surely the matter is known!"

Ex. 2:15 And Pharaoh heard of this matter itself תא.
And he sought to kill Moshe himself תא.

But Moshe fled from the face of Pharaoh.
And he settled in the land of Midyan.
And he sat down by a well.

Ex. 2:16 And the priest of Midyan had seven daughters.
And they came and drew water.
And they filled the troughs themselves תא
to water the flock of their father.

Ex. 2:17 But the shepherds came and drove them away.
Then Moshe stood up.
And he delivered them.
And he watered their flock.
Moshe is being revealed as a "deliverer".
He delivered his Hebrew kindred from the Mitsraite.
Now he delivers these women from the shepherds.

Ex. 2:18 And they came to Re'uel, their father.
And he said, "How is it
you have come so quickly today?"
Re'uel means friend of El.

There's an interesting thing to consider when reviewing the Scripture references to Re'uel.
He is also called Jethro (his excellence),
who is also identified as the priest of Midyan.
He is also called Hobab (cherished).
It's unclear why he's referred to in a different manner in other places in Scripture.

Ex. 2:19 And they said,
"A Mitsraite man delivered us
from the hand of the shepherds.
And he also drew water.
The Mitsraite drew water
and caused the flock itself נא to drink."

Ex. 2:20 And he said to his daughters,
"And where is he?
Why did you leave the man?
Call him to us and let him eat food."

Ex. 2:21 And Moshe agreed to dwell
with the man himself נא.

And he gave Tzipporah herself נא,
his daughter, to Moshe.
Tzipporah means little bird.

Ex. 2:22 And she bore a son.
And he called his name itself נא Gershom,
because he said,
"A sojourner I have become in a strange land."
Gershom means sojourner.

Ex. 2:23 And it was after many, many days.
And the king of Mitsraim died.
And the children of Yisra'el
groaned because of the work.
And they cried out from anguish.
And their cry ascended to The Elohim concerning the work.

Ex. 2:24 And The Elohim listened attentively
to their groaning itself נא.
And The Elohim took note of His covenant itself נא
with Abraham himself נא,
with Yitzhak himself נא,
and with Ya'akov himself נא.
zakar means to mark so as to be recognized.
While it's typically translated as "remembered",
such a concept is unfit for The Elohim.
He does not forget!
Hence, there is no need to "remember".
But He does "take note of"
what He has promised previously when the circumstances call for such action.

Ex. 2:25 And The Elohim observed
the children of Yisra'el.
And The Elohim knew!

Chapter 3

Ex. 3:1 And Moshe was shepherding
the flock itself נא of Yithro, his father-in-law, priest of Midyan.

And he drove the flock itself nx
to the back of the wilderness.

And he came to the mountain of The Elohim,
to Horeb.

Yithro means his excellence.
Midyan means contention.
Midyan was a son of Abraham.
Horeb means desolate.
There's no explanation why this is called the mountain of The Elohim.
It appears this is a "look back"
at the same mountain on which The Elohim is going to reveal Himself to The Children of Yisra'el
and make of them a 'nation'.

Ex. 3:2 And a messenger of YAHWEH
was seen by him in a flame of fire from the center of a bush.

And he looked.

And behold!

The bush was burning with fire,
but the bush itself was not being consumed.

Note first of all the shift to YAHWEH, from The Elohim.
The change in terminology accompanies a shift
of major importance in the text.
This Name will take on primary significance in this chapter.

There are no 'angels' in Scripture.

The Hebrew word used here is mal'ak.
It means to dispatch as a deputy, a messenger.
It's also translated as 'ambassador',
one who legally represents another,
carrying with them the full authority
of their name and office.

'Angel' is from the Greek word, aggelos
- pronounced ahn-geh-los.
It also means a messenger.

The messenger was seen by Moshe.
This can also be a Hebraism meaning he was "experienced by" Moshe,
in whatever manner that experience may involve.

The bush is thought to be a thorny bush of the type often used to make fires
in a remote location.
To see flames coming from it without it being consumed was most unusual.

Ex. 3:3 And Moshe said,
"Now I will turn aside and see
this great sight itself nx.
Why is the bush not consumed?"

Ex. 3:4 And YAHWEH saw that he turned aside to see.
And The Elohim called to him
from the center of the bush.
And He said, "Moshe! Moshe!"
And he said, "I am here."

Rarely in Scripture do we see a "double call"
on the part of YAHWEH, The Elohim.
When it happens you can be certain something extremely important is taking place.

Also take very special note of the use of both YAHWEH and The Elohim
in this same verse.
The two are being equated
as representing the very same being.
They are two different designations for "God".
This is confirmed
in a very special manner in v. 14-16.

"I am here." is literally "behold, I/me".
It's a Hebraism meaning, "Yes, I'm paying attention."

Ex. 3:5 And He said, "Do not approach this place.

Take off your sandals from upon your feet
because the place
on which you yourself are standing,
it is set apart ground."

qodesh - a sacred place or thing.
This means something set apart (holy, sanctified, consecrated), especially for YAHWEH's purposes.

Ex 3:6 And He said,
"I Myself am
The Elohim of your father,
The Elohim of Abraham,
The Elohim of Yitzhak,
and The Elohim of Ya'akov."

And Moshe hid his face because he was afraid to look intently toward The Elohim.

There's a different verb used here
instead of the normal one for "seeing".
This one implies looking intently at something,
gazing at it for an extended period of time.

The text also states to look "toward"
rather than "at".
Certainly in this situation
one would have great curiosity and want to see more.
Yet Moshe shows
the utmost respect toward YAHWEH.

Note also the confirmation that The Elohim
of those mentioned is indeed YAHWEH.

Ex. 3:7 And YAHWEH said,
"I have seen,
seen the humiliation itself nx
of My people who are in Mitsraim.
And their cry itself nx I have listened to attentively
because of the faces of those oppressing them.
Indeed, I have known their anguish.

Ex. 3:8 And I have descended to snatch them away
from the hand of the Mitsraites
and to cause them to ascend from that very land
to a good and spacious land,
to a land flowing with milk and honey,
to the place of the Kena'anites
and the Hittites,
and the Amorites,
and the Perizzites,
and the Hivvites,
and the Yebusites.

There are some very significant concepts revealed here that are normally by-passed.

First, YAHWEH descends,
fore-shadowing the descent of The Messiah.

Second, He has come to "snatch them away"
from those who are oppressing them, fore-shadowing the rescue of His people from the adversary.

Third, He will cause them to ascend to a good land filled with good things, fore-shadowing His Eternal Kingdom.

The usual terms of 'come down',
'deliver', and 'bring them up'
just don't provide the fore-shadowing
He places here.

And the "nations" (tribes, races, etc.)
that He is replacing have a history which causes them
to be thrown out of this land.

The reference to "the faces of those" is the literal sense of the term used.

The face is a vital concept in The Old Covenant Scriptures. This literal sense will be used often to keep the continuity of its usage in the forefront. The terminology is also used to represent the "presence" of someone.

Interestingly, traditional texts use "because of their taskmasters", which misses both senses.

Ex. 3:9 And now, behold!
The cry of the children of Yisra'el has come to Me.
And I have also seen the distress itself את,
how the Mitsraites
are distressing they themselves את.

Ex. 3:10 And now, go!
Even I am sending you to Pharaoh.
And you are to bring out
My people themselves את,
the children of Yisra'el, from Mitsraim."

Ex. 3:11 And Moshe said to The Elohim,
"Who am I myself
that I am to go to Pharaoh and that I am to bring out the children of Yisra'el themselves את
from Mitsraim?"

Ex. 3:12 And He said,
"Indeed, I will be with you.
And this will be the sign to you that I Myself have sent you.
In your bringing forth
the people themselves את from Mitsraim you will serve The Elohim Himself את
on this mountain."

There's a crucial verb used here that occurs again three times in verse 14. It's translated in almost every instance where it occurs in the Hebrew text as "I will be".

Here are the details of that word:

ʾehyeh יהיה hyh,

Verb qal imperfect first common singular
to be (Predicate)

We'll return to this in verse 14 because it has extreme importance in that verse.

Ex. 3:13 And Moshe said to The Elohim,
"Behold!
I myself am going to the children of Yisra'el.
And I will say to them,
'The Elohim of your fathers has sent me to you.'

And they will say to me,
'What is His Name?'
What am I to say to them?"

Ex. 3:14 And The Elohim said to Moshe,
"I cause to exist
whatever I cause to exist."

And He said,
"Thus you are to say to the children of Yisra'el,
'I Who am existing has sent me to you.'

Three times אהיה 'ehyeh, from the verb hyh occurs. It means to exist, to cause to happen, to bring into being.

Traditionally this has been translated as, "I AM THAT I AM".
From this we've been given the concept of 'the' "I AM".

Much ado has been made over this.
But - is this correct?
Is that what the text says or intends?
As noted in v. 12
the term used is virtually always translated as "I will be"
in the other places where it occurs.
Only here is it traditionally given as "I AM".

This verse can be interpreted as:
I will be what I will be.
I will be who I will be.
I exist as who I am.
I exist as what I am.
I cause to exist what I cause to exist.
So how does one decide what to use here?

Further, someone has declared this to be
"The Name" of God.

However, what follows
teaches something quite different from that.
It is certainly not His Name.

There are countless speculations.
At the very least,
it expresses existence in some form
because the root word, hyh, hayah, means to exist.

However we interpret the words themselves
the text points us to The One Who is responsible for existence itself
- The Eternally Existing One.

It's this editor's view that what's given above represents the most consistent understanding of these terms we have available to us.
You'll have to decide for yourself.

Ex. 3:15 And The Elohim said more to Moshe.

"Thus you are to say to the children of Yisra'el.

'YAHWEH, The Elohim of your fathers,

The Elohim of Abraham,

The Elohim of Yitzhak,

and The Elohim of Ya'akov,

has sent me to you.

This is My Name forever!

And this is My mark of identification
from generation to generation.'

YAHWEH declares that this is His personal and eternal Name
- generation to generation.
THIS is how He is to be known!

Sadly, it's been INTENTIONALLY STRIPPED from most "Bibles" (biblos - scroll, book, writing).

There are two terms spelled identically in Hebrew,
zakar and zeker.

The only difference is the vowel pointing.

The one "supposedly" used here is zeker.

It means a memento,
a commemoration, a memorial.

zakar on the other hand means
to mark so as to be recognized, to remember.
To remember means to have in or be able to bring to one's mind an awareness of...

The point of having a personal name
is to be able to properly identify someone,
without confusing them with another.

The understanding of zakar
has been used in this translation
because it appears to more accurately

help us understand the text.

Note Who makes this declaration!

Ex. 3:16 Go!
And you are to gather
the elders of Yisra'el themselves תא.
And you are to say to them,
YAHWEH, The Elohim of your fathers,
was seen by me,
The Elohim of Abraham,
of Yitzhak,
and of Ya'akov,
saying,
"I have watched over,
watched over you yourselves תא .
and what itself תא is being done to you in Mitsraim!

Ex. 3:17 And I say I will cause you yourselves תא
to ascend from the humiliation of Mitsraim to the land of the Kenna'anite,
and the Hittite,
and the Amorite,
and the Perizzite,
and the Hivvite,
and the Yebusite,
to a land flowing with milk and honey."
*This is a repeat of the earlier statement to Moshe.
A thing is confirmed by two witnesses.
The promise to Moshe is assured.*

Ex. 3:18 And they will listen attentively
to your voice.
And you are to go, you yourself תא
and the elders of Yisra'el,
to the king of Mitsraim.
And you are to say to him,
'YAHWEH, The Elohim of the Hebrews,
has happened upon us.
And now then let us go
a journey of three days into the wilderness.
And we will sacrifice to YAHWEH, our Elohim.'

Ex. 3:19 And I know that the king of Mitsraim will not permit you yourselves תא to go,
not even with a strong hand.

Ex. 3:20 And I will send out My hand itself תא.
And I will strike Mitsraim itself תא
by means of all My doing of extraordinary acts which I am going to do in the midst of it.
And after such things
he will send out you yourselves תא.

pala - is the word for
"doing of extraordinary acts".
This is a very difficult word to translate.
It's basic meaning is to separate or distinguish.
In the context of this story
it speaks of the separation between "My people" and 'the Mitsraites'.

The word is a verb, not a noun.
It's in a passive form indicating things which are done by YAHWEH, not to or for Him.
It's typically translated as "wonders" or "miracles"
- but that puts it in the form of a noun,
not an action.

Also note that when YAHWEH has finished
it's not a matter of Pharaoh "letting them go",
it's a matter of him begging them to leave
- actively sending them away.

Ex. 3:21 And I will give favor itself תא
to this people

in the eyes of the Mitsraites.

And it will be that when you go
you will not go empty handed.
Ex. 3:22 And a woman is to ask from her neighbor and from a sojourner
her household objects of silver,
and objects of gold, and garments.
And you are to put them upon your sons
and upon your daughters.
And you will snatch them away from the Mitsraites themselves תא.

Chapter 4

Ex. 4:1 And Moshe responded.
And he said,
"But behold!
They will not trust me.
And they will not listen attentively to my voice
because they will say,
'YAHWEH has not been seen before you?'"

Ex. 4:2 And YAHWEH said to him,
"What is that in your hand?"
And he said, "A staff."

There are several interpretations of the word used for 'staff'.
It literally means a branch
(a symbol of The Messiah), but it's also translated as a rod, a staff, or a sceptre.

Moshe was a shepherd.
It's logical to assume
this was his shepherd's staff.

Ex. 4:3 And He said, "Throw it down to the ground."
And he threw it down to the ground.
And it became a snake.
And Moshe escaped from its presence.
"from its presence" literally means
"from before its face."

Ex. 4:4 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Send out your hand and seize it by the tail!"
And he sent out his hand and grabbed it.
And it became a staff in his hand.

Ex. 4:5 "In order that they will trust that YAHWEH, The Elohim of their fathers,
The Elohim of Abraham,
The Elohim of Yitzhak,
and The Elohim of Ya'akov
has been seen by you..."

Ex. 4:6 And YAHWEH spoke to him again.
"Now put your hand onto your chest."
And he put his hand onto his chest.
And he pulled it out.
And behold!
His hand was leprous, like snow.

Ex. 4:7 And He said,
"Return your hand to your chest."
And he returned his hand to his chest.
And he drew it out from his chest.
And behold!
It was changed back like his flesh.

Ex. 4:8 "And it will be if they do not trust you nor listen attentively to the voice of the first sign itself תא,
they will trust the voice of the last sign itself תא.

The word for 'voice' is qowl.
It means to call aloud; a voice or a sound.
It's use is obviously metaphorical here,
representing the "speaking" ability of the signs themselves.

They are "calling out loud" a message to those who observe them.
Also, the word for 'trust' is 'aman'.
It's the word from which we get 'Amen.'
It means to build up or support;
to be faithful, to trust or to believe.
It's typically translated as 'believe',
but there is no belief without trusting that in which you are 'believing'.

Ex. 4:9 And it will be if they do not trust
even these two signs themselves nx, or will not listen attentively to your voice
then you are to take water from The Nile and spill it forth on the dry ground.
And the water which you take from The Nile
will become blood on the dry ground."

Ex. 4:10 And Moshe said to YAHWEH,
"Alas, my Sovereign,
I myself am not a man of words,
even from yesterday or the day before,
from the time of Your speaking to Your servant.
Indeed, I myself am burdensome of mouth
and burdensome of tongue."

There are many who believe Moshe
had a speech impediment,
based on this verse
and other observations made.
The word used means heavy, burdensome.
Whatever the actual reality was Moshe is using it as an excuse for not doing what YAHWEH
is instructing him to do.

Ex. 4:11 And YAHWEH said to him,
"Who has placed a mouth for a human being?
Or Who places speechlessness,
or deafness,
or vision,
or blindness?
Is it not I Myself, YAHWEH?"

Ex. 4:12 And now, go!
And I Myself, I will be with your mouth.
And I will teach you what to say."
ehyh - "I will be" - the exact same word
as that used in Ex 3.14
is used again here.

It could perhaps be stated,
"I AM is with your mouth."
Yet the context points clearly to YAHWEH, not "I AM".

yarah - to flow like water,
to point out, to teach.
This is the root word for torah,
which means instruction, not 'law'.

YAHWEH is the One Who teaches us what to say and what to do
- on His behalf.

Ex. 4:13 But he said, "Alas, My Sovereign!
Send now by the hand of whomever else You would send."

There is a Hebraism involved here
that's not entirely clear.
The italics phrase is inserted to reflect the intent of Moshe.
He obviously does not want to go.

Ex. 4:14 And YAHWEH's anger
flared up against Moshe.
And He said,
"Is not Aharon, the Levite, your brother?
I know concerning speaking
he himself speaks well."

And also behold!
He himself is coming out to meet you.
And he will see you.
And he will be glad in his heart.
Ex. 4:15 And you will speak to him.
And you will put the words themselves תא
into his mouth.

And I Myself, I will be with your mouth
and with his mouth.
And I will teach you yourself תא
what itself תא you are to do.

Ex. 4:16 And he himself
will speak for you to the people.
And it will be that he himself
will be a mouth for you.
And you yourself
will be to him as The Elohim.
This is a very interesting verse.
Since Moshe does not want to speak
Aharon will serve as his mouth.
Moshe will in turn serve as The Elohim for Aharon, relaying the instructions to Aharon
as if it were The Elohim Himself speaking.

In other words, Moshe will act as an Ambassador to Aharon
on behalf of YAHWEH.

Ex. 4:17 And this staff itself תא
you are to take in your hand
with which you will do the signs themselves תא.”

Ex. 4:18 And Moshe went.
And he returned to Yithro, his father-in-law.
And he said to him, “Please let me go and return to my kindred who are in Mitsraim
to see whether they are still alive.”
And Yithro said to Moshe, “Go with shalom.”
shalom - safe, i.e. (figuratively) well, happy, friendly
also (abstractly) welfare, i.e. health, prosperity, peace.
Shalom means far more than 'peace'.
In Hebrew thought it means complete well being
in every aspect of one's life.
It's also used as a greeting of blessing
by the Hebrews to wish another well being.

Ex. 4:19 And YAHWEH said to Moshe in Midyan, “Go!
Return to Mitsraim!
Indeed, all the men are dead
who were seeking your life.”

Ex. 4:20 And Moshe took his wife herself תא
and his sons themselves תא.
And he placed them on a male ass.
And he returned to the land of Mitsraim.

And Moshe took the staff itself תא of The Elohim
in his hand.
This presents an interesting change.
The staff is now identified as the staff of The Elohim.
This was originally Moshe's shepherding staff.
Now it becomes the staff of The Elohim,
to shepherd His people out of Mitsraim.

Ex. 4:21 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
“In your going to return to Mitsraim
you will see all the awesome displays which I have placed in your hand.
And you are to do them
before the face of Pharaoh.

But I am going to strengthen his heart itself תא,
And he will not send out the people themselves תא.

Ex. 4:22 And you are to say to Pharaoh,
'Thus says YAHWEH,

"Yisra'el is My son, My firstborn.

Ex. 4:23 And I say to you,

'Send forth My son himself nx

and let him serve Me!

And if you refuse to send him forth, behold!

I Myself am going to kill your son himself nx,
your firstborn."

Ex. 4:24 And it was on the way,
at the lodging place.

And YAHWEH encountered him.

And He sought to kill him.

Ex. 4:25 And Tzipporah took a sharp stone.

And she cut off the foreskin itself nx of her son.

And she touched it to his feet.

And she said, "Indeed, you yourself are a husband of blood to me!"

Ex. 4:26 And He released him.

Then she said, "You are a husband of blood
because of the circumcision."

This is a strange incident.

It's place in the overall story is not clear.

YAHWEH apparently sought to kill Moshe
because of his refusal to serve Him freely.

Tzipporah's act of circumcision

is totally out of character.

This would have been the Moshe's role.

But it's obvious that Moshe

had not yet circumcised his son

in accord with the covenant with Abraham.

This is likely the reason YAHWEH sought to kill him.

He was in a state of rebellion,

failing to follow YAHWEH's instructions.

Note: The shedding of blood,

"sprinkled on the feet of Moshe.

Blood covers our offenses.

This is an act of redemption for Moshe.

The "blood of the son" is the redeeming element, foreshadowing The Cross.

Ex. 4:27 And YAHWEH said to Aharon,

"Go to meet Moshe in the wilderness!"

And he went.

And he met him at the mountain of The Elohim.

And he kissed him.

Ex. 4:28 And Moshe told to Aharon

all the words themselves nx of YAHWEH

Who had sent him,

and all the signs themselves nx

with which He had instructed him.

Ex. 4:29 And Moshe and Aharon went.

And they gathered all the elders themselves nx
of the children of Yisra'el.

Ex. 4:30 And Aharon spoke

all the words themselves nx

which YAHWEH had spoken to Moshe.

And he did the signs in the eyes of the people.

Ex. 4:31 And the people believed.

And they listened attentively

because YAHWEH had visited

the children of Yisra'el themselves nx,

even because He had seen their humiliation itself nx.

And they bowed their heads.
And they prostrated themselves.

Chapter 5

Ex. 5:1 And afterwards Moshe and Aharon went in.
And they said to Pharaoh,
"Thus said YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el,
'Send forth My people themselves תא.
And they are to hold a festival to Me
in the wilderness.' "

Ex. 5:2 And Pharaoh said, "Who is YAHWEH
that I should listen attentively to His voice to send out Yisra'el itself תא?
I do not know YAHWEH Himself תא.
And also Yisra'el itself תא I will not send forth!"

Ex. 5:3 And they said,
"The Elohim of the Hebrews
has happened upon us.
Please let us go a journey of three days
into the wilderness.
And we are to sacrifice
to YAHWEH, our Elohim lest He inflict us with a pestilence or with a sword."

Ex. 5:4 But the king of Mitsraim said to them,
"Why, Moshe and Aharon,
do you release the people themselves תא
from their tasks?
Go to your burdens!"

Ex. 5:5 And Pharaoh said, "Behold!
The people are now many in the land.
And you would cause they themselves תא
to cease from their burdens!"

Ex. 5:6 And that same day Pharaoh charged the taskmasters themselves תא of the people and their officers themselves תא saying, Ex. 5:7 "You are no longer to give straw to the people for the sake of making the bricks
as yesterday and the day before.
They are to go and gather straw for themselves.

Ex. 5:8 And the proportion itself תא
of the bricks which they were making yesterday and the day before
is to be placed upon them.
You are not to reduce it from them.
Indeed, they are slackers.

They, on account of this,
they are crying out saying,
'Let us go to sacrifice to our Elohim.'

Ex. 5:9 The work is to be heavy upon the men.
And they are to do it.
And they are not to pay attention to empty words."

Ex. 5:10 And the taskmasters of the people and their officers went out.
And they spoke to the people saying,
"Thus said Pharaoh, 'I will not give to you straw.
Ex. 5:11 You yourselves go!
Take straw for yourselves wherever you find it.
Indeed, your arranged work is not to be reduced.' "

Ex. 5:12 And the people were dispersed into all the land of Mitsraim
for the sake of gathering stubble for straw.
Ex. 5:13 And the taskmasters
were pressing them saying,

“Finish your tasks, your daily order according to when there was straw.”

Ex. 5:14 Also the officers struck the children of Yisra'el, whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them. And they were asked, “Why have you not finished your assignment of bricks like yesterday and the day before? Like yesterday, so also today.

Ex. 5:15 And the officers of the children of Yisra'el came. And they cried out toward Pharaoh saying, “Why do you do thus to your servants?

Ex. 5:16 No straw is being given to your servants. Yet they are saying to us, ‘Make bricks!’ And behold!

Your servants are being beaten, but the offense is by your people.”

Ex. 5:17 But he said, “You are slacking! You yourselves are slacking! For this reason you yourselves are saying, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to YAHWEH.’

Ex. 5:18 And now go, work! And straw will not be given to you. Yet the quantity of bricks is to be given.”

Ex. 5:19 And the officers of the children of Yisra'el saw that they themselves nx were in danger, him having said, “You are not to reduce your daily order for bricks each day.”

Ex. 5:20 And they met Moshe himself nx and Aharon himself nx, who were standing in their way as they came out from Pharaoh.

Ex. 5:21 And they said to them, “May YAHWEH look on you and judge because you have caused our odor to stink in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants, giving a sword into their hand to kill us.”

Ex. 5:22 And Moshe returned to YAHWEH. And he said,

“My Sovereign, why have You done harm to this people? Why did You send me for this?

Ex. 5:23 Even from the time I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your Name he has done harm to this people. And You have not snatched away Your people themselves nx.”

Chapter 6

Ex. 6:1 And YAHWEH said to Moshe, “Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh.

Indeed, with a strong hand he will send them out. Even with a strong hand he will drive them out from his land.”

Ex. 6:2 And The Elohim spoke to Moshe. And He said to him, “I am YAHWEH!

6:3 And I was seen by Abraham, by Yitzhak, and by Ya'akov as The Mightiest El.

But with My Name, YAHWEH,
I was not known to them.

Mightiest EL = El Shaddai
This may seem confusing
because His Name does in fact occur
as early as Genesis Chapter 2.
We must assume that this occurs because of the time frame
in which Genesis was written,
at which point His Name was most certainly understood to be YAHWEH.

Ex. 6:4 And I also established My covenant itself אַ
with they themselves אַ,
to give to them the land of Kena'an itself אַ,
the land of their sojournings themselves אַ,
in which they were strangers.

Ex. 6:5 And I have also listened attentively to the groaning itself אַ
of the children of Yisra'el
whom the Mitsraites have worked,
they themselves אַ.

And I have taken note of My covenant itself אַ.

Ex. 6:6 For this reason
say to the children of Yisra'el,
'I am YAHWEH!
And I will bring out you yourselves אַ
from under the burdens of the Mitsraites!
And I will snatch away you yourselves אַ
from their work!
And I will redeem you yourselves אַ with an arm stretched out and with great judgments!

Ex. 6:7 And I will take you yourselves אַ to Me for a people!
And I will be to you as The Elohim!

And you will know that I, YAHWEH, your Elohim, am bringing out you yourselves אַ
from under the burdens of the Mitsraites!

Ex. 6:8 And I will bring you yourselves אַ to the land of which I have lifted in oath My hand itself אַ
to give to they themselves אַ,
to Abraham, to Yitzhak, and to Ya'akov,
to give it itself אַ to you as an inheritance.

I am YAHWEH!' ”

As you observe the powerful nature of this statement from YAHWEH Himself
a sense of awe sweeps over you.

It's difficult to imagine such promises
being delivered to the children of Yisra'el.
Yet observe their response.

Ex. 6:9 And Moshe spoke in this manner
to the children of Yisra'el.
But they did not listen attentively to Moshe
because of their impatient nature and because of the severe work.

There is a principle here that is important.
People who are under severe bondage do not, or perhaps cannot, hear someone who brings them good news.

Ex. 6:10 And YAHWEH spoke
to Moshe, saying,

Ex. 6:11 “Go in!

Speak to Pharaoh, king of Mitsraim.

Then he will send out
the children of Yisra'el themselves נא
from his land!"

Ex. 6:12 And Moshe spoke
before the face of YAHWEH saying,
"Behold!

The children of Yisra'el
have not listened attentively to me.
And why would Pharaoh listen attentively to me?
Also, I am of uncircumcised lips."

Ex. 6:13 And YAHWEH spoke
to Moshe and to Aharon.
And He gave them a charge
for the children of Yisra'el
and for Pharaoh, king of Mitsraim, to send out the children of Yisra'el themselves נא
from the land of Mitsraim.

This is a virtual duplicate of v. 12.
It appears to be inserted after the genealogy
to return us to the story line itself.

Chapter 7

Ex. 7:1 And YAHWEH said to Moshe, “See, I have placed you
as The Elohim to Pharaoh.
And Aharon, your brother, is your prophet.
Moshe is to act “as The Elohim”.
Aharon is to act as his prophet.
Moshe is empowered to act as YAHWEH Himself!
He is His designated Ambassador.
Do not miss this point.

Aharon is to serve as His prophet Moshe is acting on YAHWEH's behalf).
Here we see the function of a prophet revealed.
Aharon is to speak whatever word is spoken to him by Moshe (YAHWEH).

Being a prophet does not simply mean telling the future.
It means speaking The Word of YAHWEH,
The Word one has received from Him,
to another.

Ex. 7:2 You are to speak everything itself תא
that I will give as direction to you.
And Aharon, your brother,
is to speak to Pharaoh.
And he will send forth
the children of Yisra'el themselves תא from his land.

Ex. 7:3 But I will strengthen the heart of Pharaoh itself תא.
And I will increase My signs themselves תא and My awesome displays themselves תא
in the land of Mitsraim.

It's difficult for us to understand that it is YAHWEH
Who strengthens Pharaoh's heart
- not Pharaoh, in a sense.
He reveals here that He does this
in order to reveal His mighty power.

Perhaps there is a clue here for us
- to recognize that YAHWEH sets up certain difficult circumstances in our lives
in order to reveal His mighty power.
Unfortunately, like Pharaoh,
we often miss the fact that YAHWEH
is revealing Himself to us so we will repent of our hardness of heart and turn to Him.

Ex. 7:4 And Pharaoh will not listen attentively to you.
And I will put My hand itself תא upon Mitsraim.

And I will bring out
My assemblies themselves תא,
My people themselves תא,
the children of Yisra'el,
from the land of Mitsraim
with great judgments.

Ex. 7:5 And the Mitsraites will know
that I am YAHWEH
in My stretching forth
My hand itself תא over Mitsraim.

And I will bring out
the children of Yisra'el themselves נא
from the midst of them.”

Ex. 7:6 And Moshe and Aharon did
according to what YAHWEH directed
they themselves נא.
According to this they did.

Ex. 7:7 And Moshe was eighty years old and Aharon eighty-three years old when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Ex. 7:8 And YAHWEH spoke
to Moshe and to Aharon saying,
Ex. 7:9 “Now Pharaoh will speak to you saying,
'Give an awesome display for yourselves.'

And you are to say to Aharon,
'Take your staff itself נא and throw it down
before the face of Pharaoh.'
And it will become a monster.”

tanniyn means a marine or land monster.
It likely represents a crocodile or alligator.
It does not represent a snake.
There's an entirely different term
for snake or serpent.
Why it's been translated as a snake
is uncertain.

This is not the same term used with Moshe at the burning bush incident.

Ex. 7:10 And Moshe and Aharon
went in to Pharaoh.
And they did according to what YAHWEH directed.
And Aharon threw down his staff itself נא
before the face of Pharaoh
and before the face of his servants.
And it became a monster.

Ex. 7:11 And Pharaoh also called wise men and sorcerers.
And they also did so,
the diviners of Mitsraim, with their magic.
Ex. 7:12 And they threw down,
each man, his staff.
And they became monsters.
But the staff of Aharon swallowed up their staffs themselves נא.

Ex. 7:13 But Pharaoh's heart was strengthened.
And he did not listen attentively to them
according to what YAHWEH had said.

Ex. 7:14 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
“The heart of Pharaoh is heavy.
He refuses to send forth the people.
There are shifting terms used to refer to Pharaoh's heart.
Some suggest strengthened, some hardened,
and here it's heavy - weighty or burdened.
The text does not always use "hardened"
as most English translations present it.

Ex. 7:15 Go to Pharaoh in the morning!
Behold!
He is going out to the water.
And you are to stand to meet him
at the edge of The Nile.
And the staff which turned to a serpent
you are to take in your hand.

Here we have the term for snake, nachash.
This is the term used at the burning bush.
It's associated with copper, which is shiny.

Ex. 7:16 And you are to say to him,
‘YAHWEH, The Elohim of the Hebrews,
has sent me to you saying,
“Send forth My people themselves אֲנִי
and let them serve Me in the wilderness!”
But behold!
You have not listened attentively
up to this point.

Ex. 7:17 YAHWEH has said thus:
“According to this you will know that I am YAHWEH!”
“Behold!
I myself am striking
with the staff that is in my hand
upon the waters which are in The Nile.
And they will be turned to blood.
Ex. 7:18 And the fish which are in The Nile
will die.
And The Nile will stink.
And the Mitsraites will be disgusted
to drink the water from The Nile.”

Ex. 7:19 And YAHWEH said to Moshe.
“Say to Aharon,
‘Take your staff and stretch out your hand
over the waters of Mitsraim,
over their streams,
over their rivers,
over their ponds,
and over all their pools of water.
And they will become blood.
And there will be blood
in all the land of Mitsraim,
even in wooden and in stone containers.’ ”

Ex. 7:20 And Moshe and Aharon did so
according to what YAHWEH had directed.
And he raised the staff.
And he struck the waters themselves אֲנִי
that were in the river
in the eyes of Pharaoh
and in the eyes of his servants.

And all the waters that were in the river
were turned to blood.

Ex. 7:21 And the fish that were in The Nile died.
And The Nile stank.
And the Mitsraites were not able to drink
the water from The Nile.
And there was blood
in all the land of Mitsraim.

Ex. 7:22 And the diviners of Mitsraim
did the same with their magic.
And the heart of Pharaoh was strengthened.
And he did not listen attentively to them,
according to what YAHWEH had said.

Ex. 7:23 And Pharaoh turned.
And he went to his house.
And he did not place in his heart even this.

Ex. 7:24 And all the Mitsraites dug all around The Nile for water to drink because they were not able to drink
the water from The Nile.

Ex. 7:25 And seven days were completed
after YAHWEH had struck The Nile itself אֲנִי.
While the text can be translated as "the river",
there is value in having it refer directly to The Nile.

It is "the life" of Mitsraim.
Without The Nile Mitsraim would be a wasteland.
Because of its importance to the story
it's worth using the specific terminology to call attention to it.

Note: The verse notations in the Hebrew text
do not break at this point.
Chapter 7 continues through verse 4
of what's normally viewed as Chapter 8.

Chapter 8

Ex. 8:1(H 7.26)

And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Go to Pharaoh and say to him,
'Thus said YAHWEH.

"Send forth My people themselves אֲנִי
and let them serve Me.

Ex. 8:2 (H 7.27)

And if you yourself
refuse to send them forth,
behold!

I Myself am smiting
all your territory with frogs.

Ex. 8:3 (H 7.28)

And The Nile will swarm with frogs.

And they will climb up.

And they will come into your house,
and into your bedroom, and on your bed,
and into the houses of your servants,
and onto your people,
and into your ovens,
and into your kneading bowls.

Ex. 8:4 (H 7.29)

Even on you
and on your people
and on all your servants
the frogs will climb up.' ' "

Note: Chapter 8 begins with the next verse in the Hebrew text.

Ex. 8:5 (H 8.1)

And YAHWEH said to Moshe,

"Say to Aharon,

'Stretch forth your hand itself אֲנִי with your staff
over the streams,
over The Nile,
and over the ponds.

And cause the frogs themselves אֲנִי
to climb up upon the land of Mitsraim.' ' "

Ex. 8:6 (H 8.2)

And Aharon stretched forth his hand itself אֲנִי
over the waters of Mitsraim.

And the frogs climbed up.

And they covered the land of Mitsraim itself אֲנִי.

Ex. 8:7 (H 8.3)

And the diviners did so with their magic.

And they brought up the frogs themselves אֲנִי
on the land of Mitsraim.

Ex. 8:8 (H 8.4)

And Pharaoh called for Moshe and Aharon.

And he said, "Intercede with YAHWEH
and let the frogs be removed from me
and from my people.

And I will send forth the people themselves אֲנִי.

And they may sacrifice to YAHWEH."

Ex. 8:9 (H 8.5)

And Moshe said to Pharaoh,

"Honor yourself above me.

When shall I intercede for you and for your servants,

and for your people,

to cut off the frogs from you

and from your houses
to remain only in The Nile?”

There is a term worth noting.
It is karath. It means to cut off,
but it can also mean to destroy or consume.

It's a term used in relation to The Messiah being cutoff (See Dan. 9.26).

While it can certainly be used in the sense of “destroy”
it seems the concept of cutting off is quite appropriate in light of the coming deliverance
from the plague of frogs.
They will be cut off,
and this will happen at a very specific time.
Hence the idea
of cutting off (ending) the plague
in a decisive manner is appropriate.

Ex. 8:10 (H 8.6)

And he said, “Tomorrow.”

And he said, “Let it be according to your word in order that you know that there is no one
like YAHWEH, our Elohim.

Ex. 8:11 (H 8.7)

And the frogs will depart from you,
and from your houses,
and from your servants,
and from your people,
to remain only in The Nile.”

Ex. 8:12 (H 8.8)

And Moshe and Aharon
went out from Pharaoh.
And Moshe cried out to YAHWEH
concerning the word, concerning the frogs
which He had appointed against Pharaoh.

Ex. 8:13 (H 8.9)

And YAHWEH did
according to the word of Moshe.
And He killed the frogs from the houses,
from the courtyards,
and from the fields.

This is a remarkable statement.
In verse 12 Moshe cries out to YAHWEH.
In this verse we are told that YAHWEH DOES
ACCORDING TO the word of Moshe.
YAHWEH actually, in a sense, subjects Himself to the desire/request of man.
How marvelous that YAHWEH
would even consider to do such a thing.
Surely the request was in agreement with the will of YAHWEH,
but it is remarkable nonetheless
that YAHWEH responds to His followers.

Ex. 8:14 (H 8.10)

And they piled together heaps,
heaps of they themselves nx.
And the land stank.

Ex. 8:15 (H 8.11)

And Pharaoh saw that there was relief.
And he made heavy his heart itself nx.
And he did not listen attentively to them,
according to what YAHWEH had said.

Ex. 8:16 (H 8.12)

And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
“Say to Aharon, ‘Stretch forth your staff itself nx
and strike the dust itself nx of the land.

And it will become gnats
in all the land of Mitsraim.' ”

Ex. 8:17 (H 8.13)

And they did so.
And Aharon stretched forth
his hand itself אָנְךָ with his staff.
And he struck the dust itself אָנְךָ of the ground.
And the gnats were on human being and animal.
All the dust of the land became gnats
in all the land of Mitsraim.

Ex. 8:18 (H 8.14)

And the diviners did so with their magic
to bring forth the gnats themselves אָנְךָ.
But they were not able.

And there were gnats
on human being and on animal.

This fourth miracle the magicians of Egypt
could not duplicate.
It may have something to do with the fact that lice are one of the gods of Egypt.

Ex. 8:19 (H 8.15)

And the diviners said to Pharaoh,
“It is the finger of The Elohim!”
But Pharaoh strengthened his heart.
And he did not listen attentively to them,
according to what YAHWEH had said.

Ex. 8:20 (H 8.16)

And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
“Rise early in the morning
and stand before the face of Pharaoh.
Behold!
He is going out to the water.

And say to him, ‘Thus said YAHWEH,
“Send forth My people
and let them serve Me!

Ex. 8:21 (H 8.17) Indeed,
if you do not send forth
My people themselves אָנְךָ, behold!
I am sending on you,
and on your servants,
and on your people,
and into your houses
the mosquitoes themselves אָנְךָ.

And the houses of the Mitsraites will be filled with the swarms themselves אָנְךָ,
and even the ground on which they stand.

As with some of the other plagues
there is a debate about what these were.
Some suggest biting flies.

Ex. 8:22 (H 8.18)

And in that day
I will make a separation
for the land of Goshen itself אָנְךָ
in which My people dwell.
Upon them there will be no swarms
in order that you may know that I Myself, YAHWEH,
am in the midst of the land.

Ex. 8:23 (H 8.19)

And I will put a distinction between My people and your people.
Tomorrow this sign itself אָנְךָ will exist.” ’ ”

Ex. 8:24 (H 8.20) And YAHWEH did so.
And heavy swarms came into the house of Pharaoh,
and into his servants' houses,
and into all the land of Mitsraim.

The land was corrupted
by the face of the swarm.

Ex. 8:25 (H 8.21)
Pharaoh then called for Moshe and Aharon.
And he said, "Go!
Sacrifice to your Elohim in the land."

Ex. 8:26 (H 8.22)
But Moshe said,
"It is not right to do so because we will sacrifice something disgusting to the Mitsraites for YAHWEH, our Elohim.
Behold!
We will sacrifice something disgusting itself תא
to the Mitsraites before their eyes.
And will they not stone us?

Ex. 8:27 (H 8.23)
A journey of three days
we will go into the wilderness.
And we will sacrifice to YAHWEH, our Elohim,
according to what He tells us."

Ex. 8:28 (H 8.24)
And Pharaoh said,
"I myself am sending forth you yourselves תא.
And you can sacrifice to YAHWEH, your Elohim,
in the wilderness.
Only, do not go very far, very far away!
Intercede for me!"

Ex. 8:29 (H 8.25)
And Moshe said, "Behold!
I myself am going out from your people.
And I will intercede with YAHWEH.
And the swarms will depart from Pharaoh,
from his servants,
and from his people tomorrow.

But let Pharaoh not again be arrogant
by not sending forth the people themselves תא
for the sake of sacrificing to YAHWEH!"

Ex. 8:30 (H 8.26)
And Moshe went out from Pharaoh.
And he interceded with YAHWEH.

Ex. 8:31 (H 8.27)
And YAHWEH did
according to the word of Moshe.
And He removed the swarms from Pharaoh,
from his servants,
and from his people.
Not one remained.

Ex. 8:32 (H 8.28)
But Pharaoh made his heart itself תא heavy also at this time.
And he did not send forth
the people themselves תא.

Chapter 9

Ex. 9:1 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Go in to Pharaoh and say to him,
'Thus said YAHWEH,
The Elohim of the Hebrews.

"Send forth My people themselves תא
and let them serve Me.

Ex. 9:2 Indeed, if you are refusing to send them forth,
and you continue holding on to them,

Ex. 9:3 behold!

The hand of YAHWEH is going to be on your livestock in the field,
on the horses, on the asses,
on the camels, on the cattle,
and on the sheep,
a very grievous pestilence.

Ex. 9:4 And YAHWEH will distinguish between the livestock of Yisra'el
and the livestock of Mitsraim.
And nothing will die
of all that belongs to the children of Yisra'el." ' "

Ex. 9:5 And YAHWEH established an appointed time saying,
"Tomorrow YAHWEH is going to do this very word in the land."

Ex. 9:6 And YAHWEH did this very word itself nx
on the next day.

And all the livestock of Mitsraim died.
But of the livestock of the children of Yisra'el,
not one died.

Ex. 9:7 And Pharaoh sent one out.
And behold!
Nothing was dead
from the livestock of the Yisra'elites.
Not even one.

But the heart of Pharaoh was made heavy.
And he did not send forth the people themselves nx.

Ex. 9:8 And YAHWEH said to Moshe and Aharon,
"Take for yourselves.
Fill your hands with ashes of a smelting furnace.
And Moshe is to scatter it toward the skies
before the eyes of Pharaoh.

The symbolism
of the smelting furnace is powerful.
This distinguishes it from a common furnace that would be used for other purposes.
These are ashes of "the refiner's fire",
a purifying fire.
This connects to the concept of judgment in Scripture.
It connects to Sedom and Amorah,
and to Mount Sinai.
It occurs only four times in The Old Covenant.

Ex. 9:9 And it will become powder
in all the land of Misraim.
And it will be upon the human being and upon the animal
as boils breaking forth that break out, blisters in all the land of Mitsraim."

Ex. 9:10 And they took the ashes themselves nx
of the smelting furnace.
And they stood before the face of Pharaoh.
And Moshe scattered they themselves nx
toward the skies.
And they became boils,
blisters breaking out on human being and on animal.

Ex. 9:11 And the diviners were not able to stand before the face of Moshe because there were boils on the diviners
and on all the Mitsraites.

Ex. 9:12 And YAHWEH strengthened
the heart itself nx of Pharaoh.

And he did not listen attentively to them,
according to what YAHWEH had said to Moshe.

Ex. 9:13 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Rise early in the morning.
And stand before the face of Pharaoh.
And say to him,
'Thus said YAHWEH, The Elohim of the Hebrews.
"Send forth My people themselves אנ
and let them serve Me.
Ex. 9:14 Indeed, at this time
I Myself am sending
all My pestilences themselves אנ
into your heart,
and onto your servants,
and onto your people.

You will know that there is none like Me
in all the earth!

Ex. 9:15 Indeed now,
had I stretched forth My hand itself אנ
and struck you yourself אנ
and your people themselves אנ with pestilence
then you would have been destroyed from the earth.

Ex. 9:16 However, for this reason
I have established you,
in order to cause you
to see My power itself אנ, and in order to declare My Name
in all the earth.

Ex. 9:17 You are still exalting yourself against My people without sending them forth!

Ex. 9:18 Behold!
Tomorrow at this time
I am causing it to rain exceedingly heavy hail such as has not existed in Mitsraim from the day of its founding even until this time.

Ex. 9:19 And now, send out.
Bring to safety your livestock itself אנ
and everything itself אנ that is yours in the field.
Every human being and every animal which is found in the field
and is not gathered at home,
the hail will come down upon them.
And they will die!" ' "

Ex. 9:20 Those who feared
The Word of YAHWEH
among the servants of Pharaoh caused their servants themselves אנ
and their livestock itself אנ to flee to the houses.

Ex. 9:21 But those who did not set their heart on the word of YAHWEH
even left their servants themselves אנ
and their livestock itself אנ in the field.

Ex. 9:22 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Stretch out your hand itself אנ toward the skies.
And let there be hail in all the land of Mitsraim,
on the human being,
and on the animal,
and on every plant of the field
in the land of Mitsraim."

Ex. 9:23 And Moshe stretched forth
his staff itself אנ toward the skies.

And YAHWEH gave thunder, and hail,
and fire going along the ground.
And YAHWEH rained hail
on the land of Mitsraim.
Ex. 9:24 And there was hail,
and fire mingled with the hail,
extremely grievous fire,
such as had not existed in all the land of Mitsraim
from the time it became a nation.

Ex. 9:25 And the hail struck
in all the land of Mitsraim,
everything itself nx that was in the field,
from human being to animal.
And the hail struck
every plant itself nx of the field.
And every tree itself nx of the field was broken.

Ex. 9:26 Only in the land of Goshen,
where the children of Yisra'el were,
there was no hail.

Ex. 9:27 And Pharaoh sent.
And he called for Moshe and for Aharon.
And he said to them,
"I have offended this time.
YAHWEH is just,
and I and my people are morally wrong.
Ex. 9:28 Intercede with YAHWEH!
And on account of there being abundant mighty thunder and hail
I am even sending forth you yourselves nx.
And no longer are you to stay."

Ex. 9:29 And Moshe said to him,
"As I go out of the city itself nx
I will spread out
my hands themselves nx to YAHWEH.
The thunder will cease.
And the hail will exist no more,
in order that you will know that the earth belongs to YAHWEH.

Ex. 9:30 But as for you yourself
and your servants,
I know that you do not yet fear
before YAHWEH, The Elohim."

Ex. 9:31 Now the flax and the barley were smitten
because the barley was in the head and the flax was in bud.

Ex. 9:32 But the wheat and the spelt were not smitten
because they were late crops.

Ex. 9:33 And Moshe went out of the city itself nx,
from Pharaoh.
And he spread out his hands to YAHWEH.
And the thunder and the hail ceased.
And the rain was not poured on the earth.

Ex. 9:34 And Pharaoh saw that the rain, and the hail,
and the thunder had ceased.
And again he offended.
And he made his heart heavy,
he and his servants.
Ex. 9:35 And the heart of Pharaoh was strengthened.
And he did not send forth
the children of Yisra'el themselves nx,
according to what YAHWEH had said
by the hand of Moshe.

Chapter 10

Ex. 10:1 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Go in to Pharaoh

because I Myself have made heavy

his heart itself אָן

and the hearts themselves אָן of his servants

in order that I might place these signs of Mine
in his inner being,

qereb is the term used for "inner being".

It's apparently a Hebraism,

based on the meaning of the word being the nearest part, i.e. the center.

It's used in Scripture to refer to the middle, interior,

inner part, even inner thoughts.

While it's normally translated as

"in his midst" or "among them",

"before him", etc.,

those all seem to fall short of what's implied by the context.

YAHWEH has chosen to make a direct impact upon Pharaoh himself with these signs.

This is clearly demonstrated by the final one,
the death of the firstborn.

These signs leave

an indelible impact upon Pharaoh.

Ex. 10:2 and in order that you can recount

in the ears of your son and your son's son that itself אָן which I have accomplished in Mitsraim, and My signs themselves אָן

which I have placed on them.

And you will know that I am YAHWEH!"

It's not only Pharaoh

that YAHWEH wants to impact by His signs.

It's also to serve as a lasting memory

to the children of Yisra'el and their offspring.

It's a clear demonstration of YAHWEH's love and faithfulness to His people.

Ex. 10:3 And Moshe and Aharon
went in to Pharaoh.

And they said to him,

"Thus said YAHWEH,

The Elohim of the Hebrews.

'Until when will you refuse to humble yourself before My face?

Send forth My people

and they will serve Me.

Ex. 10:4 However, if you refuse to send forth

My people themselves אָן, behold!

Tomorrow I am bringing locusts into your territory.

Ex. 10:5 And they will cover

the face itself אָן of the ground.

And no one will be able to see the ground itself אָן.

And they will eat the rest itself אָן

of what has escaped,

what remains for you from the hail.

And they will eat every tree itself אָן

which sprouts for you from the field.

Ex. 10:6 And they will fill your houses,

and the houses of all your servants,

and the houses of all the Mitsraites,

such as neither your fathers

nor your fathers' fathers have seen since the day that they existed on the soil

to this very day.' "

And he turned and went out

from before Pharaoh.

Ex. 10:7 And Pharaoh's servants said to him,
"How long will this one be a snare to us?
Send forth the men themselves אֵל.
And let them serve
YAHWEH Himself אֵל their Elohim.
Do you not yet understand that Mitsraim is destroyed?"

Ex. 10:8 And Moshe himself אֵל
and Aharon himself אֵל
were brought back to Pharaoh.
And he said to them,
"Go!
Serve YAHWEH Himself אֵל, your Elohim!

Who?
Even who are going?"
Ex. 10:9 And Moshe said,
"With our young and with our old we are going.
With our sons and with our daughters,
with our flocks
and with our herds we are going because it is for us a pilgrim festival to YAHWEH."
The "pilgrim-festival"
is a very important designation.
This is the very first one so designated in Scripture.
From this moment on it is the first pilgrim-festival
that Yisra'el is to celebrate each year.

There are three,
Pesach (Passover),
Shavuot (Pentecost),
and Sukkot (Tabernacles).
Each one required every Yisra'elite male
to travel to The Temple in Yerusalaim.

Ex. 10:10 And he said to them,
"May YAHWEH therefore be with you when I send forth you yourselves אֵל and your little ones themselves אֵל!"

Watch out,
because harm is before your faces!
It may not be immediately apparent to you,
but Pharaoh is mocking Moshe and Aharon.
He has no intention of letting everyone go,
as is revealed in the following verses.

Ex. 10:11 Not so!
Go now, the men,
and serve YAHWEH Himself אֵל.
Indeed, He is seeking you yourselves אֵל."

And they themselves אֵל were driven out from the face itself אֵל of Pharaoh.

Ex. 10:12 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Stretch out your hand
over the land of Mitsraim
on account of the locusts.
And they will come upon the land of Mitsraim.
And they will eat
every plant itself אֵל of the land, everything itself אֵל that remains from the hail."

Ex. 10:13 And Moshe stretched out
his staff itself אֵל over the land of Mitsraim.
And YAHWEH drove an east wind into the land
all that day and all that night.

Morning existed.
And the east wind had carried the locusts themselves אֵל.

ruwach - means wind, or by resemblance breath.

This is the word "translated" as 'spirit'.

However, there is no concept of 'spirit' in Hebrew thought.

It was not a "spirit" that brought the locusts.

It was the wind of YAHWEH.

Ex. 10:14 And the locusts went up over all the land of Mitsraim. And they settled in all the territory of Mitsraim, exceedingly grievous. Before it there had never been locusts like this. And afterward there would not be such as this.

Ex. 10:15 And they covered the face itself נא of the whole ground. And they darkened the ground.

And they ate every plant itself נא of the land, and all the fruit itself נא of the trees which remained from the hail.

And not any green thing remained on the trees or on the plants of the field in all the land of Mitsraim.

Ex. 10:16 And hurriedly Pharaoh called for Moshe and Aharon. And he said, "I have offended against YAHWEH, your Elohim, and against you.

Ex. 10:17 And now intercede, forgiving my offense only this time! Even intercede with YAHWEH, your Elohim! And turn away from upon me at least this very death itself נא."

Ex. 10:18 And he went out from Pharaoh. And he interceded with YAHWEH.

Ex. 10:19 And YAHWEH turned about a west wind, exceedingly strong. And it carried away the locusts themselves נא. And it thrust them into The Sea of Reeds.

Not one locust remained in all the territory of Mitsraim.

Ex. 10:20 And YAHWEH strengthened the heart itself נא of Pharaoh. And he did not send forth the children of Yisra'el themselves נא.

Ex. 10:21 And YAHWEH said to Moshe, "Stretch forth your hand toward the skies. And let there be darkness over the land of Mitsraim, even a darkness which is felt."

This is the same term used in Genesis 1.2 concerning the darkness that existed at the beginning of creation. Perhaps it was also a darkness that could be felt.

Ex. 10:22 And Moshe stretched forth his hand itself נא toward the skies. And there was darkness, gloominess in all the land of Mitsraim for three days.

Ex. 10:23 One man did not see a brother himself נא. And no one rose at all from his place for three days.

But all the children of Yisra'el had light in their places.

Ex. 10:24 And Pharaoh called for Moshe.

And he said,
"Go!
Serve YAHWEH Himself nx!

Only your flocks and your herds are to stay.
Also, your children are to go with you."

Ex. 10.25 But Moshe said,
"Also, you yourself nx
are to give into our hand sacrifices and olahs
to prepare for YAHWEH our Elohim.

An olah is a surrender offering,
one that is completely burned up.
It represents a complete surrender
to the will of YAHWEH.

Ex. 10.26 Also, even our livestock are to go with us.
Not a hoof is to remain because from them we will take for serving YAHWEH Himself nx, our Elohim.
And we ourselves will not know with what we are to serve YAHWEH Himself nx until we go there."

Ex. 10.27 But YAHWEH strengthened
the heart itself nx of Pharaoh.
And he was not willing to send them forth.

Ex. 10.28 And Pharaoh said to him,
"Go from before me!
Guard yourself!
You are not seeing my face again!
Indeed, in the day of your seeing my face
you will be put to death!"

Ex. 10.29 And Moshe said,
"Rightly so you have spoken.
Never again am I seeing your face!"

Chapter 11

Ex. 11:1 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"I am bringing yet one more plague
on Pharaoh and on Mitsraim.
After that he will send forth
you yourselves nx from here.
In sending you forth
he will completely drive out,
drive out you yourselves nx from here.

Ex. 11:2 Speak now in the ears of the people.
And let every man ask from his neighbor himself nx
and every woman from her neighbor herself nx objects of silver and objects of gold."

Ex. 11:3 And YAHWEH gave favor itself nx
to the people in the eyes of the Mitsraites.

Also, the man, Moshe, was very great
in the land of Mitsraim,
in the eyes of Pharaoh's servants
and in the eyes of the people.

Ex. 11:4 And Moshe said, "Thus said YAHWEH,
'At midnight I Myself am going out into the midst of Mitsraim.

Ex. 11:5 And all the firstborn
in the land of Mitsraim will die,
from the firstborn of Pharaoh,
who sits on his throne,
even to the firstborn of the female servant,
who is behind the mill stones,
and all the firstborn of animals.

Ex. 11:6 And there will be a great cry
in all the land of Mitsraim,
the likes of which has never been,
and the likes of which will never be again!

Ex. 11:7 But for all the children of Yisra'el
no dog will move its tongue against man or against animal in order that you will know that YAHWEH makes a distinction between Mitsraim and Yisra'el.

Note: The following three verses (8-10)
should be placed at the end of Chapter 10.
They do not fit properly here.

Ex. 11:8 And all these servants of yours
will come down to me.
And they will bow down to me saying,
'Get out, you and all the people at your feet!'
And after that I will go out."
And he went out from Pharaoh in fierce anger.

Ex. 11:9 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
Pharaoh is not going to listen attentively to you.
Indeed, My awesome displays are to be increased
in the land of Mitsraim."

Ex. 11:10 And Moshe and Aharon did
all these awesome displays themselves nx before Pharaoh.
But YAHWEH strengthened
the heart itself nx of Pharaoh.
And he did not send forth
the children of Yisra'el themselves nx from his land.

Chapter 12

Ex. 12:1 And YAHWEH spoke
to Moshe and to Aharon
in the land of Mitsraim saying, Ex. 12:2 "This new moon is for you
the beginning of new moons.
It is the first new moon of the year for you.

chodesh - the new moon,
by implication a month.

There is something to note concerning this directive
from YAHWEH Himself.
YAHWEH establishes this month,
Abib/Nisan,
the month of the Exodus/Passover
as the first month of the year.
He explicitly states this.

Yet the children of Yisra'el do not observe this
as the beginning of their year.

They still cling to the old pattern which uses Rosh Hashannah
in the fall of the year
as "The Jewish New Year."

This appears to blatantly reject
what YAHWEH declares in this passage.

Ex. 12:3 Speak to the whole assembly of Yisra'el saying,
'On the tenth day of this new moon
you are also to take to yourself,
each man, a lamb,
according to the household of his father,
a lamb for each household.

On the TENTH day of the month
a lamb was to be selected.

It was on the TENTH day of the month that YAHUSHUA, our Messiah, was taken captive
prior to His crucifixion.

Ex. 12:4 And if the household is too small for the lamb
he is also to take his neighbor near to his house
according to the number of the lives.
According to each man's eating make your count for the lamb.

Ex. 12:5 The lamb is to be whole,
a male of the first year for you.
From the sheep or from the goats
you are to take it.

Ex. 12:6 And it will be for you to guard it until the fourteenth day after this new moon.
Then all the assembly of the community of Yisra'el is to slaughter it itself תא
between the evenings.

The lamb was to be slaughtered
on the FOURTEENTH DAY.
The lamb was to be with the family
four days.
They were to protect it from harm.
It also became "their" lamb,
making this a far more personal experience.

There has been much discussion concerning the phrase,
"between the evenings".
Generally it appears to indicate at twilight,
or, as the sun is setting just over the horizon,
but many also consider it to include late afternoon
as the sun is low in the western sky.

Ex. 12:7 And they are to take from the blood.
And they are to put it on the two doorposts
and on the lintel of the houses
in which they eat it itself תא.

Ex. 12:8 And they are to eat the flesh itself תא
on that night, roasted with fire.
With unleavened bread
along with bitter herbs they are to eat it.
Ex. 12:9 You are not to eat from it raw,
nor boiled, boiled with water,
but rather, roasted with fire,
its head with its legs and with its inward parts.

Ex. 12:10 And you are not to leave any of it until morning.
And what remains of it until morning
you are to burn with fire.

Ex. 12:11 And in this manner
you are to eat it itself תא,
your loins encircled,
your sandals on your feet,
and your staff in your hand.
And you are to eat it itself תא with trepidation.

It is The Passover of YAHWEH.
pesach - a pretermission,
i.e. an exemption;
used only technically
of the Jewish Passover.

The root for this word means to skip over, pass over, to bypass.

It is tied directly to the action of the messenger of death

who skips over the houses
with the blood on their doorways.

This "festival" which is established here in the story of The Exodus is the most profound
of all the festivals of YAHWEH.

Every act of offense (sin) against YAHWEH ends up being accommodated
by this specific festival.

If you are a believer in YAHWEH
this should be number one on your list of observances.

Trepidation means quickly, with anxiety.

Ex. 12:12 And I will pass over the land of Mitsraim
on that night.

And I will smite all the firstborn
in the land of Mitsraim,
from a human being to an animal.

And on all the gods of Mitsraim
I will accomplish judgment!

I am YAHWEH!

Note the shift to the first person here.
These are YAHWEH's words.

The term 'gods' is used'.
There are no 'gods' except YAHWEH.
All of the so-called 'gods' are literally nothing.
They are the imaginations of men's minds.
They do not exist.

And that's the point of stating "I am YAHWEH!"
- which literally means
I am existence itself,
The Eternally Existing One.

Ex. 12:13 And the blood
will be a sign for you upon the houses where you yourselves are.

And I will see the blood itself נא.
And I will pass over you.

And the stroke of destruction will not be on you when I strike the land of Mitsraim.

Ex. 12:14 And this day
is to be for you a memorial!
And you are to observe it itself נא
as a pilgrimage festival to YAHWEH
for your generations,
an eternal appointment.
It is a pilgrimage festival.

This is the first pilgrimage-festival
to YAHWEH each year.
It is one of His "appointed times".
It serves as an appointment with Him, personally.
It is to continue indefinitely.

But there's another very significant word
to note in this verse.
The word is zikrown.
It means a memento, a memorial
- something by which you can call to mind
over and over what it represents.

This is the very same term used as The Elohim told Moshe
that His eternal NAME is YAHWEH
- His memorial to all generations.

This festival is to carry virtually the same impact.

And as it is fulfilled in The Messiah it does indeed become
"the festival to remember"!

Ex. 12:15 Seven days
you are to eat unleavened bread.
Indeed, on the first day
you are to cause leaven
to cease from your houses.
Indeed, whoever eats leavened bread
from the first day until the seventh day,
that life will be cut off from Yisra'el.

There are three different terms
to consider in this verse.
They are all connected to each other.

matzah, or matzah - properly, sweetness;
especially, unfermented cake or loaf.
Translated as unleavened bread.

s'or - barm or yeast-cake.
Translated as leaven.
chametz - fermented.
Translated as leavened bread

Each is typically connected to the issue of the quick departure and the lack of time to allow for the normal bread to "rise" due to leavening
It's a reminder of the need for quick departure.

However, it also represents "corruption",
or contamination - defilement.

Later, it was not permitted
in sacrificial offerings dealing with offenses.

It was allowed in thanksgiving offerings,
but it could not be burned
within the sanctified places.

The actual meanings of the terms are somewhat surprising.
And some have sought to stretch the meanings
to include anything fermented.
But the fundamental understanding of Scripture points always toward the bread itself
- leavened or unleavened.

To eliminate everything fermented would mean eliminating wine
and numerous other foods from the diet, which Scripture does not appear to indicate
as being required.

There are other terms of significance:
shabath - to repose, desist from exertion.
This term is used in the phrase
"cause leaven to cease".

It is the same term used of The Elohim in the Genesis creation account of the seventh day.
This makes a rather interesting connection to that event.

Leaven is to cease being used.

karath - to cut (off, down, or asunder),
by implication, to destroy or consume.
This term is used of The Messiah
in regard to His being "cut off" from life itself.

As you note these terms and their connections you'll recognize that everything from creation to The Messiah's death is inter-connected.

Little did the children of Yisra'el realize they would be acting out in type the most significant event to occur in the entire history of the world

- Redemption by The Messiah!

Ex. 12:16 And on the first day,
a set part assembly,
and on the seventh day,
a set apart assembly is to exist for you.
Any work is not to be done on them.

Only that which is to be eaten by every life
is to be made by you.

miqra qodesh - two extremely important terms.
They refer to the "set apart assembly".

miqra means something called out,
i.e. a public meeting or convocation; an assembly.
qodesh means a sacred place or thing,
something set apart.
It's typically translated as 'holy'.

The children of Yisra'el
are a "called out" people.
They are called out of the world
by YAHWEH, for YAHWEH.
Having been called out,
they are "sanctified", set apart.

YAHWEH's people are always called out,
and always set apart for Him alone.
They are different, distinct,
separate from the rest of the world.

The other term we need to look at is mla'kah.
It means properly, deputyship; a ministry;
generally employment. or work.
It comes from mal'ak, which means to dispatch as a deputy, a messenger.
(It's normally translated as 'angel', but that's a serious error.)

There are many debates
about the meaning of this term.
Some would make it include any effort at all
- of any kind.
However, the general sense of the term,
especially in our culture,
would be "gainful employment",
your regular job where you are "working for your own benefit."
The key lies in "for your own benefit".
Nothing is to be done
that is not focused on YAHWEH.

Ex. 12:17 And you are to protect the festival of unleavened bread itself תא
because on this very same day
I have caused your assemblies themselves תא
to go out from the land of Mitsraim.

And you are to protect this day itself תא
for your generations,
an eternal appointment.

If you compare this with traditional translations
you'll notice a significant difference
at several points.
There is no reference to "observing" "The Feast/Festival of..."
in the Hebrew text.

It's not the festival that's to be protected,
it's the consumption of
the 'unleavened bread' itself.

It's also the very first day,
a day for a set apart assembly,
that's to be protected.

shamar means properly,
to hedge about (as with thorns),
i.e. guard; generally, to protect, attend to, etc.
This word is normally translated as "keep",

but it does not mean "observe"
in the sense of acting out.
It means to protect
- generally from defilement or abuse.

tsaba' means a mass of persons.
It's often associated with war,
but that's not its fundamental meaning.
It was not "armies"
that were brought out of Mitsraim,
it was the entire mass of persons, an assembly,
typically traveling in their family groupings.

chuqqah means an enactment,
hence, an appointment.
This is to be understood within the context of YAHWEH's appointed times,
His special occasions by which His actions are to be remembered in every generation.

These are "appointments with Him".
It's far more than an ordinance or custom.

Ex. 12:18 In the first new moon,
on the fourteenth day after the new moon,
at evening,
you are to eat unleavened bread
until the twenty first day after the new moon,
at evening.

Ex. 12:19 For seven days
yeast is not to be brought forth in your houses.
Indeed, anyone eating what is leavened,
that same life is to be cut off
from the assembly of Yisra'el,
foreigner or native of the land.

matsa' means properly, to come forth,
i.e. appear or exist.
It's also translated as "found", "be seen".
Given the context it means "not to be used".

This is clear from the distinction that anyone eating it is to be cut off from the assembly.
It says nothing about having it in your house.
That's a "tradition of men"
that has caused great trauma
in many lives, needlessly.

Note it's similarity in sound to matzah,
the unleavened bread itself.
This is part of a word-play in the Hebrew
that is extremely common,
and used to great effect in the original language
- yet seldom seen in the English translations.
Note: In v. 20 "Any unleavened thing" is identified.
The Hebrew word for "bread",
lechem, also means 'food'.
Thus, it is not merely 'bread'
that is identified.
It is anything "fermented".

Ex. 12:20 Any leavened thing
is not to be eaten in all your locations.
You are to eat unleavened bread.' "

Ex. 12:21 And Moshe called for all the elders of Yisra'el.
And he said to them,
"Pull out and take lambs for yourselves
according to your families.
And slaughter the exemption.

pesach - an exemption;
Passover (the festival or the victim).

This is normally translated
as "Passover lamb" or "Passover sacrifice".
But note the meaning of the word used.
It is an exemption.
This is the real meaning of the passing over by YAHWEH

of the children of Yisra'el.
They are exempted from death,
based upon the shed blood
of the sacrificed lamb.

In this period of world history
we must certainly recognize the significance of this.

YAHUSHUA, The Hebrew Messiah, is our exemption from death
when we place our trust in Him.

The children of Yisra'el were instructed to place their trust in the blood of the Passover lamb surrounding the door of their house to exempt them from the death-blow that was about to strike Mitsraim.

Ex. 12:22 And you are to take a bundle of hyssop.
And you are to dip it in the blood that is in the bowl.
And you are to apply it to the lintel
and the two doorposts
from the blood that is in the bowl.

And you yourselves are not to go out,
no one,
from the door of his house until morning.

Ex. 12:23 And YAHWEH will pass over for the sake of striking the Mitsraites themselves נא.
And He will see the blood itself נא
upon the lintel and upon the two doorposts.
And YAHWEH will pass over the door.
And He will not allow the destruction to come against your houses
for the sake of striking you.

Ex. 12:24 And you are to protect this word itself נא
as an appointment for you and your sons
for eternity.

Ex. 12:25 And it will exist
that you will come to the land which YAHWEH is giving to you
as He has spoken.
And you are to protect this service itself נא.

Ex. 12:26 And it will exist
that your children will say to you,
"What is this service to you?"

Ex. 12:27 And you are to say,
'It is a slaughter of exemption to YAHWEH
Who passed over the houses of the children of Yisra'el in Mitsraim
in His striking of the Mitsraites themselves נא.
But our households themselves נא He rescued.'

And the people bowed their heads.
And they prostrated themselves.

Ex. 12:28 And the children of Yisra'el
went and did according to what YAHWEH had directed Moshe and Aharon themselves נא.
Thus they did.

Ex. 12:29 And it was in the middle of the night.
And YAHWEH struck all the firstborn
in the land of Mitsraim,
from the firstborn of Pharaoh,
the one sitting on his throne,
to the firstborn of the captive

who was in the pit house,
and all the firstborn of the livestock.

Ex. 12:30 And Pharaoh rose up at night,
he and all his servants,
and all the Mitsraites.
And there was a great cry in Mitsraim
because there was not a house
where there was not one dead.

Ex. 12:31 And he called for Moshe and Aharon by night.
And he said, "Rise up!
Go out from the midst of my people,
even you yourselves תא,
even the children of Yisra'el.
And go!
Serve YAHWEH Himself תא
according to your word!
Ex. 12:32 Take even your flocks,
even your herds,
according to what you have spoken,
and go!
And bless me myself תא, also."

Ex. 12:33 And the Mitsraites took hold on the people
for the sake of hurrying,
for the sake of sending them away,
out of the land,
because they said,
"All of us are going to die!"

Ex. 12:34 And the people lifted up their dough
before it was leavened, their kneading bowls being tied up in their garments on their shoulders.

Ex. 12:35 And the children of Yisra'el
had done according to the word of Moshe.
And they had asked from the Mitsraites
objects of silver, and objects of gold, and garments.
Ex. 12:36 And YAHWEH had given the people
favor itself תא in the eyes of the Mitsraites.
And they requested of them.
And they snatched it away
from the Mitsraites themselves תא.

Ex. 12:37 And the children of Yisra'el
journeyed from Ra'amses to Sukkoth, about six hundred thousand soldiers,
the warriors separate from the families.
The term used for 'families'
is often translated as 'children', but it includes all those who were not soldiers.
This means the assembly was much larger than 600,000.

Ra'amses means people of the sun.
Sukkoth means booth.

Ex. 12:38 Also a great mixture went up
with they themselves תא,
and flocks and herds,
exceedingly many livestock.

Ex. 12:39 And they baked the dough itself תא
which they had brought forth from Mitsraim, unleavened cakes, because it was not leavened,
because they had been driven out of Mitsraim
and had not been able to delay.
And they also had not prepared food for themselves.

Ex. 12:40 And the time of dwelling of the children of Yisra'el who settled in Mitsraim was thirty years and four hundred years.

Ex. 12:41 And it was at the end of the thirty years and four hundred years.

And it was on that very same day that all the assemblies of YAHWEH went out from the land of Mitsraim.

Ex. 12:42 It is a night of keeping watch for YAHWEH, on account of His bringing them out from the land of Mitsraim.

This night is for YAHWEH.

It is to be protected for all the children of Yisra'el for all their generations.

Ex. 12:43 And YAHWEH said to Moshe and Aharon, "This is the appointment of The Passover.

No son of a stranger is to eat of it.

Ex. 12:44 But any servant a man has bought for silver, and he himself אֵן has been circumcised, then he may eat of it.

Ex. 12:45 A resident alien and a hired servant are not to eat of it.

The term towshab means a dweller, especially as distinguished from a native citizen; a resident alien.

When we use the literal meaning of the Hebrew term we get a wonderfully clear picture of who is in view.

The same is true of sakiyr It means a man at wages by the day or year. This is nothing other than an employee, as opposed to a slave that was owned by an individual. Hence, two classes were excluded from participation in this appointed time, the resident alien and the employee. Only "family members" were permitted to participate. This adds clarification to the text.

Ex. 12:46 In one house it is to be eaten. You are not to bring out from the house any of the flesh, outside. And a bone of it you are not to break.

Ex. 12:47 All the assembly of Yisra'el is to do it itself אֵן.

Ex. 12:48 And when a stranger sojourns with you yourself אֵן and does The Passover to YAHWEH all his males are to be circumcised. And then he may come near and do it. And he will be as a native of the land.

But anyone not circumcised is not to eat of it.

Ex. 12:49 There is one instruction for the native born and for the stranger who sojourns among you."

Ex. 12:50 And all the children of Yisra'el did according to that which YAHWEH directed Moshe himself אֵן and Aharon himself אֵן. According to this they did.

Ex. 12:51 And it was on this very same day that YAHWEH brought out the children of Yisra'el themselves nx from the land of Mitsraim by their assemblies.

If you're observing the text carefully you'll note that this appears to be an editorial insertion, provided by whomever was recording this account of the history.

It's not known when or how this record was made. It is obvious, however, that it was done after the actual events themselves. History is almost always recorded in this manner. A first hand account at the time of the events is rare.

Chapter 13

Ex. 13:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe, saying,
Ex. 13:2 "Set apart for Me all the firstborn, every womb opener among the children of Yisra'el, among human being and among animal! It is Mine!"

qadash - to be clean (ceremonially or morally). Within the context of Scripture it means to be undefiled, and therefore separated from the world, from that which is defiled, contaminated. It's often translated as 'consecrate' or 'sanctify'.

Everything related to 'holiness' is ultimately tied to purity, undefilement.

EVERY firstborn in Yisra'el belongs to YAHWEH!

"It is Mine!" is an imperative statement. It's profoundly significant. It's to be a continual reminder of the deliverance from Mitsraim.

It's ramifications for Yisra'el are pervasive within the culture, including the Levites being set apart as "replacements" for the firstborn, and dedicated to serving YAHWEH.

Ex. 13:3 And Moshe said to the people, "Remember this day itself nx in which you came out from Mitsraim, from the house of slavery! Indeed, with strength of hand YAHWEH has brought out you yourselves nx from there.

And whatever is leavened is not to be eaten.

Note how the concepts of 'set apart' and 'cleanness' fit together with leaven. Leaven represents anything that is corrupted by fermentation, and therefore defiled.

From this point on in Scripture defilement takes center-stage.

Ex. 13:4 Today you yourselves nx are going out, in the new moon of Abib.

Abib means to be tender. It refers to the newly formed head of grain on barley.

Abib is the same as Nisan in terms of names of months.

Ex. 13:5 And it will be that YAHWEH will bring you into the land of the Kena'anites,

and the Hittites,
and the Amorites,
and the Hivvites,
and the Yebusites,
which He swore to your forefathers
to give to you,
a land flowing with milk and honey.

And you are to work this work itself נח
in this new moon.

There's a word-play here
that presents itself in English to a degree.
The words are 'abad - 'abodah.
They are both formed from the same root and both mean 'work'.

Work is a 'task', so they are instructed that they are to do the same thing in the new land
they are doing here.
This will involve The Passover and its associated Feast of Unleavened Bread.

Ex. 13:6 Seven days
you are to eat unleavened bread.
And on the seventh day
is a festival to YAHWEH.

Ex. 13:7 Unleavened bread is to be eaten
the seven days themselves נח.
And leavened bread is not to be seen by you.
And leaven is not to be seen by you
in all your territory.

This aspect of leaven has been taken to ridiculous extremes
by "Pharisaic" interpretations.
They have required the 'removal' of all leaven from the houses and even from the land of Yisra'el during this time.

They "sell" the leaven to someone else,
pretending that they no longer 'own' any.
It's a ludicrous ruse.
YAHWEH knows!

It's also a physical impossibility to get rid of "every speck" of it from one's home or from the land.

The point of the instruction seems more appropriately to encourage 'purity'
on the part of the Yisra'elites
- faithfulness to YAHWEH's instructions.

No leavened bread is permitted.
It is "bread of defilement",
both through it's fermented corruption and through the refusal to do as YAHWEH instructs.

Ex. 13:8 And you are to declare it to your son in that day saying,
'It is because of what YAHWEH did for me
in bringing me out from Mitsraim.'

Ex. 13:9 And it is to be for you as a signal on your hand
and as a memorial between your eyes,
in order that the instruction of YAHWEH
will be in your mouth.

Indeed, with a strong hand
YAHWEH has brought you out from Mitsraim.
zakar is used again for 'memorial'.
It's intended as a permanent reminder.
It's the same term applied to the Name, YAHWEH, in Ex. 3.14-16.

torah also appears here, as 'instruction', which is its fundamental meaning.

Some translators use 'law', but in this instance 'the law' has not yet been given, so it is obviously not appropriate.

Torah does not mean "law".
It has far broader application than that.

This instruction has been perverted. The Yisra'elites have established the phylacteries tied to their head and their hands as a means of "complying" with this instruction. It is not required by Scripture. It is a "tradition of men".

Ex. 13:10 And you are to protect this appointment itself nx at its appointed time from year to year.
choq - an enactment; hence, an appointment. Often translated as ordinance, command, decree, etc., but having the fundamental meaning of an appointment.

mow'ed - mo'ed - an appointment, i.e. a fixed time or season; especially a festival.

The same term is used in Gen 1.14 when the sun, moon and stars are set in the skies to regulate these "appointments". The entire focus is on "appointments with YAHWEH" for special purposes.

This creates an unusual word-play, one in English, that does not appear in Hebrew.

Ex. 13:11 And it will exist that YAHWEH will bring you to the land of the Kena'anites according to what He swore to you and your fathers. And He will give it to you.

Ex. 13:12 And you are to pass over every womb opener to YAHWEH and every firstborn that comes forth from an animal which will be yours.

The males belong to YAHWEH.

Ex. 13:13 But every first born of a male ass you are to ransom with a lamb. And if you do not ransom it you are even to break its neck.

And every first born human being among your children you are to ransom.

Ex. 13:14 And it will be that your son will ask you later saying, 'What is this?' And you are to say to him, 'By strength of hand YAHWEH brought us out from Mitsraim, from the house of slavery.'

Ex. 13:15 And it existed that Pharaoh was hardened concerning sending us forth. And YAHWEH killed every firstborn in the land of Mitsraim, from the firstborn of a human being to the firstborn of an animal.

And for this reason I am slaughtering to YAHWEH
all the male womb openers.
But every firstborn of my sons I ransom.'

Ex. 13:16 And it is to exist
as a signal upon your hand
and as bands between your eyes,
because with strength of hand YAHWEH brought us out from Mitsraim."

This verse is the source for the arm bands and 'frontlets'
worn by the Yisra'elites for morning prayers.
They've translated this into physical items which are supposed to help them
remember The Exodus.

Ex. 13:17 And it was as the people themselves תא
were being sent forth from Pharaoh.
And The Elohim did not guide them by the road to the land of the Philistines,
although it was closer,
because The Elohim said,
"Perhaps the people will be sorrowed by seeing war
and they will return to Mitsraim."

Ex. 13:18 And The Elohim brought the people themselves תא around by way of the wilderness of The Sea of Reeds.
And the children of Yisra'el went up
in orderly array from the land of Mitsraim.

Ex. 13:19 And Moshe took the bones of Yoseph himself תא
with him because he had made the children of Yisra'el themselves תא swear, swear saying, "The Elohim will visit,
visit you yourselves תא.
And you are to bring up my bones themselves תא
from here, you yourselves תא."

Ex. 13:20 And they journeyed from Sukkoth.
And they camped at Etham,
at the edge of the wilderness.
Etham perhaps means sea-bound.

Ex. 13:21 And YAHWEH was going
before the face of them,
by day in a column of cloud to guide the way,
and by night in a column of fire as a light for them.
Accordingly they went by day and by night.

Ex. 13:22 The column of cloud
did not withdraw by day,
nor the column of fire by night
before the face of the people.

Chapter 14

Ex. 14:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Ex. 14:2 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el.

And have them turn back and camp before Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea,
opposite Ba'al Tzephon.
Camp opposite it, by the sea.

Pi Hahiroth means mouth of the gorges.
Migdol means tower.
Ba'al Tzephon means lord of winter.

Ex. 14:3 And Pharaoh will say
of the children of Yisra'el,
'They are confused by the land.
The wilderness has closed them in.'

Ex. 14:4 And I will strengthen the heart itself תא of Pharaoh.
And he will pursue after them.

But I will be honored on account of Pharaoh
and on account of all his might.
And the Mitsraites will know
that I am YAHWEH.”

And they did accordingly.

Ex. 14:5 And it was announced
to the king of Mitsraim
that the people had fled.
And the heart of Pharaoh and his servants
was turned against the people.
And they said, “Why have we done this,
that we have sent forth Yisra'el from serving us?”

Ex. 14:6 And he hooked up his chariot itself nx.
And he took his people themselves nx with him.
Ex. 14:7 And he took six hundred choice chariots,
even all the chariots of Mitsraim,
with third men on all of them.

shaliysh means a triple.
It's used to indicate the presence in the chariots of a third man.
This was an intensive way
of conducting warfare.

Ex. 14:8 And YAHWEH strengthened
the heart itself nx of Pharaoh, king of Mitsraim.
And he pursued after the children of Yisra'el.

But the children of Yisra'el
went out with a high hand.

Defiantly.

Ex. 14:9 And the Mitsraites pursued after them.
And they overtook they themselves nx
camping by the sea,
all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh,
and his horsemen, and his army,
beside Pi Hahiroth, opposite Ba'al Tzephon.

Ex. 14:10 And Pharaoh drew near.
And the children of Yisra'el
lifted up their eyes themselves nx.

And behold!

The Mitsraites were traveling behind them.

And they were exceedingly afraid.

And the children of Yisra'el cried out to YAHWEH.

Ex. 14:11 And they said to Moshe, “Did you take us away to die in the wilderness
because there are no graves in Mitsraim?

What is this you have done to us,
bringing us forth out of Mitsraim?

Ex. 14:12 Is this not the word
we spoke to you in Mitsraim saying, ‘Back off from us and let us serve the Mitsraites themselves nx?’

Indeed, it would have been better for us to be serving the Mitsraites themselves nx
than to be dying in the wilderness.”

Ex. 14:13 But Moshe said to the people,
“Do not be afraid.

Stand still and see the deliverance of YAHWEH
which He will do for you today!

Indeed, the Mitsraites themselves nx whom you have seen today
will not be seen again any more forever.

yshuw'ah - something saved, deliverance.
You'll recognize this as directly connected to The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

Ex. 14:14 YAHWEH will fight for you!
And you are to be silent!”

Ex. 14:15 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Why do you cry out to Me?
Speak to the children of Yisra'el
and have them go forward.
Ex. 14:16 And you yourself תָּא,
raise up your staff itself תָּא.
And stretch forth your hand itself תָּא over the sea
and split it apart!
And let the children of Yisra'el
go into the midst of the sea on dry ground.

Ex. 14:17 And I, behold!
I am strengthening the hearts themselves תָּא
of the Mitsraites.
And they will come after you.
And I will be honored on account of Pharaoh
and on account of all his might,
on account of his chariots,
and on account of his horsemen.

Ex. 14:18 And the Mitsraites will know
that I am YAHWEH
in my being honored on account of Pharaoh,
on account of his chariots,
and on account of his horsemen."

Ex. 14:19 And the messenger of YAHWEH moved,
the one who was going
before the camp of Yisra'el.
And he went behind them.
And the column of cloud went from before them.
And it stood behind them.

mal'ak - to dispatch as a deputy;
a messenger; an ambassador.
Not an 'angel'.
The word for "angel"
comes from the Greek word meaning the same thing.

Note that there is a messenger of The Elohim
who is going with the children of Yisra'el.
Other references seem to indicate this messenger is in fact The Messiah,
The Rock of Yisra'el.

Ex. 14:20 And it came between the camp of the Mitsraites
and the camp of Yisra'el.
And there the cloud and the darkness existed.
And it made light the night itself תָּא.
And one did not come near the other
all the night.

Ex. 14:21 And Moshe stretched out
his hand itself תָּא over the sea.
And YAHWEH caused the sea to move
with a powerful east wind all that night.

And He established the sea itself תָּא like a desert.
And He split apart the waters.

charabah is traditionally translated as "dry ground".
But this is a different term
than the one normally used for dry ground.
This one means desert, parched ground.
It's not merely dry to the touch, it's completely dry.
This adds a fascinating insight into what He did for Yisra'el.

Ex. 14:22 And the children of Yisra'el
went into the midst of the sea on dry ground.
And the waters were a wall of protection to them from their right and from their left.

yabbashah - dry ground.
Here we find the normal term for dry ground.
The reasons for the distinction are not clear.

The water was not merely a wall.
The Hebrew suggests a wall of protection.
This, also, adds a dimension to the story
that's not seen in English.

Ex. 14:23 And the Mitsraites pursued.
And they came in behind them,
all the horses of Pharaoh,
his chariots, and his horsemen,
into the middle of the sea.

Ex. 14:24 And it was at the morning watch.
YAHWEH looked down upon the army of the Mitsraites
in the column of fire and cloud.
And He disrupted the army of the Mitsraites.
Ex. 14:25 And He took off
their chariot wheels themselves תָּא.
And they drove them forth with difficulty.
And the Mitsraites said,
“Let us flee from the face of Yisra'el, because YAHWEH is fighting for them
against the Mitsraites.”

Ex. 14:26 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
“Stretch forth your hand itself תָּא over the sea and let the waters come back upon the Mitsraites,
upon their chariots,
and upon their horsemen.”

Ex. 14:27 And Moshe stretched forth
his hand itself תָּא over the sea.
And the sea returned to its permanent appearance
at the break of day.
And the Mitsraites were fleeing against encountering it.

Thus YAHWEH tumbled about
the Mitsraites themselves תָּא
in the midst of the sea.

Ex. 14:28 And the waters returned.
And they covered the chariots themselves תָּא
and the horsemen themselves תָּא
and all the might of Pharaoh,
those coming after them into the sea.
There remained of them not even one.

Talk about defeat!
YAHWEH destroyed
EVERY ONE of the enemy.
He will do this again!
There will come a time when YAHWEH delivers His people
every believer in YAHWEH,
from every single one of their enemies!
This is a foreshadowing of that event.

Ex. 14:29 But the children of Yisra'el walked on dry ground in the midst of the sea.
And the waters for them were a wall of protection
on their right and on their left.

Ex. 14:30 And YAHWEH liberated on that day
Yisra'el itself תָּא
from the hand of the Mitsraites.
And Yisra'el saw the Mitsraites themselves תָּא
dying on the shore of the sea.

Ex. 14:31 And Yisra'el saw the mighty hand itself תָּא
which YAHWEH had used against the Mitsraites.

This is a VERY IMPORTANT VERSE!
It identifies that Yisra'el recognized
what YAHWEH had done.
They KNEW that YAHWEH had delivered them.
They revered YAHWEH.
They believed in YAHWEH, AND in Moshe.
This is crucial to understand,
for withn DAYS they will have forgotten all this and start belly-aching about their circumstances!!

And the people were in awe of YAHWEH Himself נא.
And they trusted in YAHWEH
and in His servant, Moshe.

Chapter 15

Ex. 15:1 Then Moshe
and the children of Yisra'el
sang this song itself נא to YAHWEH.
And they spoke saying,
"I sing to YAHWEH
because He has risen, risen!

The horse and its rider
He has hurled into the sea!

ga'ah - to mount up, rise.
There are varying interpretations of this word.
It only occurs seven times in Scripture.

Some want to make this "triumphed",
but that does not fit the other uses.
"Exalted" is another interpretation
and has a certain degree of legitimacy.

However, in the overall context of Scripture
the basic sense of "rising up", especially in light of this great deliverance,
ties directly to The Risen Messiah,
by Whom deliverance comes.

Ex. 15:2 My strength and my might is YAH!
And He is deliverance for me.
This is my El,
and I will dwell with Him,
The Elohim of my father,
and I will exalt Him.

YAH is used for the first time.
It tends to be used in Hebrew poetic expressions.
It's a contracted form of YAHWEH, identified as "vehement".

zimrath is typically translated as 'song',
but there is much debate
over this word and its meaning.

The poetic form uses two-line phrasing,
often repeating the former idea
in a slightly different manner.

Some suggest strength and might,
or even fierce might,
as the proper understanding.

yshuw'ah - something saved, deliverance;
victory or prosperity.
Often translated as 'salvation'.
(and often abused by using it as "the name of The Messiah."
It is NOT His Name.)

navah - to rest (as at home).
There are other suggested meanings,
but each of the terms using these letters suggest rest, home, habitation, dwelling place.

That we will dwell with Him as our deliverer
is consistent with the rest of Scripture.

Ex. 15:3 YAHWEH is a man of battle.
YAHWEH is His Name!

Ex. 15:4 The chariots of Pharaoh and his forces
He has thrown into the sea.
And his chosen third men have sunk down in the Sea of Reeds.
Ex. 15:5 The surging waters covered them.
They went down to the depths like a stone.

Ex. 15:6 Your right hand, YAHWEH, magnificent in force,
Your right hand, YAHWEH,
shatters the adversary.

The characterization of the terms used tends to mislead somewhat in typical translations.
It follows a pattern of tradition,
rather than looking at the intent of the words.

The use of a past tense English verb
where the Hebrew uses an imperfect (not completed) aspect alters the meaning.

YAHWEH's action is not completed except in this specific event.
Yet the language actually characterizes
the on-going nature of His shattering.

Also, the use of 'enemy'
when the term means hating; an adversary, misses the connection to The Adversary.

These statements are not merely indicative of the present situation for Yisra'el,
but they also point forward, predictively,
to events yet to come.

Ex. 15:7 And in the greatness of Your majesty
You tore down those you raised up.
You sent forth Your burning anger.
It consumed them like stubble.

Ex. 15:8 And with the breath of Your nostrils
the waters were piled up.
They stood upright like a mound.
The drops of the depths were condensed
in the heart of the sea.

Ex. 15:9 The adversary said,
'I will pursue!
I will overtake!
I will apportion the plunder!
My life will be sated with them.
My sword will be emptied.
My hand will seize them.'

Ex. 15:10 You blew with Your breath.
The sea covered them.
They tumbled down like lead
in the powerful waters.

Ex. 15:11 Who is like You among the gods YAHWEH?
Who is like You,
magnificent in set apartness,
being revered with praises,
doing extraordinary acts?

"gods" is elim in the Hebrew text.
It's often translated as 'gods',
but it appears more to refer to the "gods" (divine beings)
of YAHWEH's kingdom.
It could also be a reference to the 'gods of the nations'.
The text does not give us precise clues on this.

Ex. 15:12 You stretched out Your right hand.
The earth swallows them.
Ex. 15:13 You guided with Your kindness
the people whom You have redeemed.

You led them with strength to Your set apart home.

Ex. 15:14 Peoples listened attentively.
They trembled.
Pains as of childbirth
seized those dwelling in Philistia.

Ex. 15:15 At that time
the chiefs of Edom were dismayed.

The strong ones of Moab, trembling seizes them.

All the inhabitants of Kena'an had a melt down.

muwg - means to melt, dissolve, soften.

While the phrase was not common at the time of early translations
the concept of a "melt-down"
seems most appropriate in this context.

Ex. 15:16 Terror and dread fell on them.

Because of Your great arm
they are silent, like a stone,
until Your people pass over, YAHWEH, until the people pass over whom You have acquired.

Once again we see
the frequently repeated theme of Scripture,
to pass over, or, to cross over.
It begins with Abram.
It continues until eternity.

Ex. 15:17 You will bring them in.

And You will plant them
on the mountain of Your inheritance,
the place of Your dwelling, YAHWEH,
which You have prepared.

A set apart place, My Sovereign, established with Your hands.

This is profoundly prophetic.
It looks far forward into the future establishment of The New Yerushalaim.
It's likely few ever comprehend
this wondrous aspect of this song.

Ex. 15:18 YAHWEH reigns to time without end,
even eternity!

This is present active terminology.
It is not 'future' in its sense, it's now!
And it continues without any limitations.

Ex. 15:19 Surely the horse of Pharaoh went with his chariots
and his horsemen into the sea.

And YAHWEH turned back upon them
the waters of the sea itself nx.

But the children of Yisra'el
went on dry ground
in the middle of the sea."

The Song of Moshe appears to end here.
There are two things to take note of.
The nx only appears once at the very end.
This appears to be fairly common in Hebrew poetry.

The poetry itself tends to emphasize the elements
by its very nature, so it's less significant.

The other thing to note is that no special effort has been made in this study text to attempt to 'duplicate'
the poetic style of such verses.
The focus is on the content itself,
not on the form.
The Hebrew form and style
create a great impact on the text for one familiar with Hebrew.
But it's vitrually impossible to duplicate that in English.

Ex. 15:20 And Miryam, the prophetess,
the sister of Aharon,
took the tambourine itself נח in her hand.
And all the women went out after her with tambourines and with dances.

This is the first mention of a prophetess in Scripture.
It's generally considered to be an inspired person,
and a spokesman for another, YAHWEH.

Miryam means rebellious.
In English it is Mary.

Ex. 15:21 And Miryam responded to them,
"Sing to YAHWEH!
Indeed, He has risen, risen!
The horse and its rider
He has hurled into the sea!"

Ex. 15:22 And Moshe caused Yisra'el itself נח
to journey from The Sea of Reeds.
And they went out to the Wilderness of Shur.
And they went three days in the wilderness.
And they found no water.

Shur means wall.

Ex. 15:23 And they came to Marah.
And they were unable to drink the waters of Marah,
because they were bitter.
For this reason the name of it was called Marah.

Ex. 15:24 And the people complained against Moshe saying, "What are we to drink?"

Ex. 15:25 And he cried out to YAHWEH.
And YAHWEH pointed out to him a tree.
And he threw it into the waters.
And the waters were made sweet.

There He established for Himself
a regulation and a determination for them.
And there He tested them.

Ex. 15:26 And He said,
"If you will listen attentively,
listen attentively to the voice
of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
and do what is right in His eyes,
and will listen carefully to His directives
and will protect all His rules, then all the diseases I placed on the Mitsraites
will not be placed on you,
because I, YAHWEH, will be healing you."

There's a shift in the 'voice' of the text
after 'diseases'.
It moves from a third person usage
to a first person usage.
This suggests an editorial insert
or a copyist error.

Ex. 15:27 And they came to Elim.
And there were twelve fountains of water
and seventy palm trees.
And they camped there by the waters.

Elim means strong ones.

Chapter 16

Ex. 16:1 And they journeyed from Elim.
And all the assembly of the children of Yisra'el came to the Wilderness of Sin,
which is between Elim and Sinai,
on the fifteenth day of the second month
after their going out from the land of Mitsraim.

Sin and Sinai apparently are both of Mitsraite origin.
The meaning is uncertain,

but thought to mean bush, thorn, or thorn bush
- as in the burning bush Moshe observed
when YAHWEH called him to go to Mitsraim.

Ex. 16:2 And the whole assembly
of the children of Yisra'el complained against Moshe and Aharon in the wilderness.

Within 45 days
we find Yisra'el murmuring again
against YAHWEH
after all He has done for them already!
We are much like them!

16:3 And the children of Yisra'el said to them,
"Would to The Elohim that we had died
by the hand of YAHWEH in the land of Mitsraim,
as we were sitting by the pots of flesh,
as we were eating food to satisfaction!
However, you have brought us ourselves nx
out into this wilderness for the sake of killing this whole assembly itself nx with hunger."

Ex. 16:4 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Behold!

I am going to rain food for you from the skies.
And the people will go out and pick up a day's portion every day
in order to test them,
whether they will walk
according to My instruction or not.

Ex. 16:5 And it will exist on the sixth day.
And they will prepare what they bring in itself nx.
And it will be double what they pick up day after day."

Six days you shall gather,
and on the sixth day what you gather
will be enough for the seventh day as well.
This is a very important issue
for YAHWEH and His people.
They were told to trust Him
to provide for them,
and to honor The Sabbath Day/Obviously, the Sabbath Day
is very important to YAHWEH.

Ex. 16:6 And Moshe and Aharon said
to all the children of Yisra'el,
"At evening even you will know that YAHWEH has brought you yourselves nx
out of the land of Mitsraim.

Ex. 16:7 And in the morning even you will see the glory itself nx of YAHWEH
because He is listening attentively to your complainings themselves nx
against YAHWEH.

And what are we
that you complain against us?"

Although the specific term is not used here
this is likely a reference to what's called the shekinah glory,
the brilliant radiance of YAHWEH's majesty.

Ex. 16:8 And Moshe said,
"Because of this YAHWEH is giving to you flesh to eat in the evening,
and in the morning food for full satisfaction,
in that YAHWEH is listening attentively to your complaints themselves nx
which you yourselves nx
are complaining against Him.

And what are we?
Your complaints are not against us,
but rather, against YAHWEH."

Ex. 16:9 And Moshe said to Aharon,
"Say to the whole assembly
of the children of Yisra'el,
'Come near before the face of YAHWEH,
because He has listened attentively
to your complaints themselves נא.'"

Ex. 16:10 And it was as Aharon was speaking to the whole assembly of the children of Yisra'el.
And they faced toward the wilderness.
And behold!
The glory of YAHWEH was seen in the cloud.

Ex. 16:11 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe, saying,
Ex. 16:12 "I have listened attentively to the complaints themselves נא
of the children of Yisra'el.

Speak to them saying,
'Between the evenings you will eat flesh,
and in the morning you are to be filled
to satisfaction with food.
And you will know that I am YAHWEH, your Elohim.'"

Ex. 16:13 And it was in the evening.
And quails came up.
And they covered the camp itself נא.

And in the morning the dew laid
all around the encampment.
Ex. 16:14 And the layer of the dew went up.
And behold!
On the surface of the wilderness
was a thin flaky substance,
thin like frost on the ground.

Ex. 16:15 And the children of Yisra'el saw.
And they said to one another, "What is it?", because they did not know what it was.
And Moshe said to them,
"It is the food which YAHWEH
has given to you to eat.

Ex. 16:16 This is the word
which YAHWEH has directed.
'Each man is to gather from it
according to his eating,
an omer for each head.
According to the number of lives
each man is to take
for those who are in his tent.'"

Ex. 16:17 And the children of Yisra'el
did accordingly.
And they picked up,
some too much, and some too little.

Ex. 16:18 And they measured by omer.
And he who gathered too much had no excess.
And he who gathered too little had no shortage.
Each man picked up according to his eating.

Ex. 16:19 And Moshe said,
"A man is to leave none of it until morning."

Ex. 16:20 But they did not listen attentively to Moshe.
And the men left some of it until morning.
And it was corrupted with maggots.
And it stank.

And Moshe burst out in rage against them.

Ex. 16:21 And they picked up from it itself אֵל morning by morning, each one according to his eating. But the hot sun liquefied it.

Ex. 16:22 And it was on the sixth day. And they picked up double the food, two omers instead of one.

And all the leaders of the assembly came and reported it to Moshe.

Ex. 16:23 And he said to them, "This is what YAHWEH has said.

'Tomorrow is a special sabbath, a set apart Sabbath to YAHWEH.

What you are to bake itself אֵל, bake it!

And whatever itself אֵל you will boil, boil it!

And all that is left over

set aside for yourselves,

watching over it until the morning.' "

Two special terms occur in this verse.

They are extremely important.

YAHWEH is giving specific instructions through Moshe concerning both The Sabbath Day, and "special sabbaths".

shabbathown - s sabbatism or special holiday; rest

shabbath - intermission, i.e. specifically The Sabbath.

Both terms refer to resting, to an intermission.

They are connected directly to the seventh day of creation, where The Elohim "ceased" (rested) from the 'work' of creating.

While that was the first "shabbath", the children of Yisra'el are now being given specific instructions concerning how they are to treat each Sabbath Day.

This begins with how they deal with picking up the manna. The following details outline further what was expected.

The important thing to notice is that each Sabbath Day is a "special sabbath", set apart, consecrated, to YAHWEH. From this point forward every Sabbath Day is to be so treated.

Ex. 16:24 And they set aside it itself אֵל until the morning, as Moshe had directed. And it did not stink, and no maggot was in it.

Ex. 16:25 And Moshe said, "Eat it today because today is a Sabbath to YAHWEH. Today you will not find it in the field.

Ex. 16:26 Six days you are to pick it up.

But on the seventh day,

which is the Sabbath,

there will be none of it."

Ex. 16:27 And it was on the seventh day.

Some of the people went out to pick it up.

But they found none.

Ex. 16:28 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,

"How long will you refuse to protect

My directives and My teachings?

This is a vitally important statement by YAHWEH!

It should be obvious that this statement is directed to the people and not to Moshe. He was surely not among those who went out to pick up manna.

He is the representative of the assembly, their spokesman, so YAHWEH speaks to him in order that he will in turn speak to the assembly.

Three terms deserve a bit of comment: shamar - to hedge about (as with thorns); to guard, protect, attend to. Typically, 'keep'.

mitsvah - a command, directive. Based on a root word that means to enjoin, charge (urge or direct). Traditionally, 'commandment'. More accurately, directive or precept.

torah - a precept or statute. Based on a root word that means to teach, direct. Traditionally, 'The Law'.

Traditional usage is misleading at several points.

It pushes everything into the category of "forced response". Such action eliminates free-will, choice.

The precise point being made by YAHWEH here is the rebellion against His instructions.

This was the offense of Chavvah (Eve) in the Garden of Eden. She chose to put her own desires above those stated by YAHWEH.

This is exactly what the children of Yisra'el are now also doing. It's called "selfishness", and it is the foundation of every offense (sin).

YAHWEH gives us instruction! He gives us that instruction, as the text itself has identified, to test us, to see if we will do what YAHWEH desires instead of what we desire.

This is a fundamental understanding for our relationship with YAHWEH!

Ex. 16:29 "Now, observe that YAHWEH has given to you The Sabbath. For this reason He is giving you food on the sixth day (for two days - implied). Each one is to sit down on his bottom. No man is to go out from his place on the seventh day."

There's an obvious problem with the text here. It moves from YAHWEH speaking to Moshe, back to Moshe speaking to the people - with no intervening connection.

This is likely due to an editorial adjustment to the text, perhaps based on the use of some fragmented copies being reassembled. This portion appears to belong in a different location.

A line is also apparently missing that clarifies the situation. It's also humorously interesting to see the literal instructions given regarding sitting down.

Ex. 16:30 And the people rested
on the seventh day.

shabath - to repose; to desist from exertion.
This is the exact same term used for The Elohim
on the seventh day of creation.
It does not mean He never 'worked' again.
It means He rested.

This is the function of The Sabbath Day.
It was established to provide a day of rest for human beings,
and, as a day to honor YAHWEH.

Ex. 16:31 And the house of Yisra'el called its name itself מַן Manna.
And it was like white coriander seed.
And the taste of it was like thin cakes with honey.

There's an unusual use of "house of Yisra'el"
instead of "children of Yisra'el" found here.

There's no indication of why
this different terminology suddenly shows up.
This also appears to be an inserted fragment which may be in a different location
than the original text.
That may explain the different terminology.

Manna means "what is it"?

Ex. 16:32 And Moshe said,
"This is the word which YAHWEH has directed.
'Fill an omer with it to protect it for your generations
in order that they may see the food itself מַן
with which I fed you yourselves מַן
in the wilderness,
in the going forth of you yourselves מַן
from the land of Mitsraim.'"

lechem - food (for man or beast),
especially bread or grain (for making it).
We're taught by tradition that this was bread.
It most certainly was not bread.
It was thin, flaky, small,
white like coriander seed,
and came with the dew.
Bread does not come in this manner.

The tradition of BayitLechem (Bethlehem)
as "The House of Bread"
is a contributing influence on this issue.
However, we need to be clear,
the reference is to food, not 'bread'.

Ex. 16:33 And Moshe said to Aharon,
"Take one jar
and place there a full omer of manna.
And set it itself מַן down
before the face of YAHWEH,
for the sake of protecting it for your generations."

Ex. 16:34 According to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe, Aharon placed it before The Testimony
for the sake of protection.

Yet again we see an editorial hand or a corruption in the text.
"The Testimony" is a reference to what's traditionally called
"The Ark of The Covenant".
At this point in the history
of the children of Yisra'el
it does not exist.
That makes this a later addition to the text.
It's a means of making clear the meaning of certain elements
in one's experience.

Lest we be too harsh,
this is precisely what these notes

that accompany this text also accomplish.
Hopefully these notes will never be taken as being part of the text itself.

Ex. 16:35 And the children of Yisra'el
ate the manna itself תא forty years,
until their coming to the land of their dwelling.
They ate the manna itself תא
until they came to the border of the land of Kena'an.

Ex. 16:36 And an omer
is a tenth of an ephah itself.

This also appears to be an editorial insertion.

Chapter 17

Ex. 17:1 And the whole assembly of the children of Yisra'el set out on their journey from the Wilderness of Sin
according to their departures
at the mouth of YAHWEH.

And they camped at Rephidim.
And there was no water for the people to drink.

peh - the mouth; representing the speech.
Using the literal sense places this where it belongs.

While we don't see YAHWEH in physical form
we know He speaks,
and therefore we attribute Him as having a mouth.

This is not the same term as "word".
The distinction needs to be kept clearly in mind.

Rephidim means supports, railings.

Ex. 17:2 And the people contended with Moshe.
And they said, "Give us water that we may drink!"
And Moshe said to them,
"Why do you contend with me, my people?
Why do you test YAHWEH Himself תא?"

Ex. 17:3 And the people thirsted there for water.
And the people complained against Moshe.
And they said,
"Why did you bring us out of Mitsraim,
to kill us ourselves תא
and our children themselves תא
and our livestock themselves תא with thirst?"

Ex. 17:4 Then Moshe
cried out to YAHWEH saying,
"What am I to do with this people?
A little longer and they will stone me!"

Ex. 17:5 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Pass over before the face of the people.
And you yourself תא
take from the elders of Yisra'el.
And take in your hand your staff
with which you struck The Nile itself תא and go!

Note the use of "pass over" again.
This continues to bring us back to the key concept of this entire experience,
but also even back to Abram.

Ex. 17:6 I will be here, standing before your face,
there on the rock at Horeb!
And you are to strike the rock.
And water will come out of it.
And the people will drink."

And Moshe did so before the eyes of the elders of Yisra'el.

The text literally says in the first line,
"Behold Me".

This is a Hebraism meaning "I am here."
It's normally used in response to a call from one person to another, thus acknowledging they are present
and ready to attend to the matter at hand.

In this instance it presents
a particularly emphatic and significant statement.
YAHWEH is 'personally' present,
standing before Moshe on the rock at Horeb.

Horeb means desolate.

Ex. 17:7 And he called the name of the place
Massah and Meribah because of the contention
of the children of Yisra'el,
and because they tested
YAHWEH Himself נא saying,
"Is YAHWEH in our midst or not?"
Massah means testing.
Meribah means contention.

Ex. 17:8 And Amalek came and fought with Yisra'el at Rephidim.
Amalek means troubler.

Ex. 17:9 And Moshe said to Yahoshua,
"Choose for us men and go out!
Fight with Amalek!
Tomorrow I am stationing myself
on the top of the hill with the staff of The Elohim in my hand."
Yahoshua becomes Moshe's personal attendant.
(Traditionally this is "Joshua".)
His role in this story is prophetic.

Yahoshua means YAH is deliverance.
It is the same fundamental name
as that of The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, with only a minor variation in its spelling
to make a distinction between them.

Ex. 17:10 And Yahoshua did
as Moshe had said to him.
He was fighting with Amalek.

And Moshe, Aharon, and Hur
went up to the top of the hill.
Hur means white linen.

Ex. 17:11 And it existed,
when Moshe lifted up his hand,
then Yisra'el dominated.
But when he rested his hand Amalek dominated.

Ex. 17:12 And Moshe's hands were heavy.
And they took a stone and placed it under him.
And he sat down on it.
And Aharon and Hur supported his hands,
this one and from that one.
And his hands were steady
until the going down of the sun.

Ex. 17:13 And Yahoshua defeated Amalek himself נא
and his people themselves נא
with the edge of the sword.

Ex. 17:14 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Write this as a remembrance in a writing.
And put it in the ears of Yahoshua.
'Indeed, I will erase,
erase the remembrance itself נא of Amalek
from under the skies.' "

zeker - a memento, recollection, memorial.
It comes from zakar which means
to mark so as to be recognized; to remember.

It's the very same term used in Ex. 3.14-16
in regard to the Name, YAHWEH.
It's used twice in this verse,
which increases its impact.
The Scriptural principle of "two witnesses" applies.
This thing is confirmed.
It will happen.

Ex. 17:15 And Moshe built a slaughter site.
And he called its name, YAHWEH Nissi.

Nissi means my flag, standard,
banner or signal.
It's often viewed as a form
of military banner or flag, symbolizing their leader or cause.
The tribes of Yisra'el each marched forward
under a "banner" that represented their tribe.
Moshe is indicating that he places YAHWEH as his leader.

Note that this name is for the slaughter site,
not for YAHWEH.

Ex. 17:16 And he said,
"Indeed, hand upon the throne of YAH,
a battle of YAHWEH is against Amalek
from generation to generation!"

The phrase, "hand upon the throne of YAH"
is a formulaic description of an oath.
This oath 'swears' war forever against Amalek
by YAHWEH Himself.
It affirms what's stated in v. 14.

Chapter 18

Ex. 18:1 And Yithro, priest of Midyan,
Moshe's father-in-law,
heard concerning everything itself nx
that The Elohim had done for Moshe
and for Yisra'el, His people.

Indeed, YAHWEH had brought Yisra'el itself nx
out of Mitsraim.

Ex. 18:2 And Yithro, Moshe's father-in-law,
took Tziporah herself nx, the wife of Moshe,
after he had sent her back,

Ex. 18:3 and her two sons themselves nx,
of whom the name of one was Gershom,
because he said,
"I have been a sojourner in a foreign land."

Ex. 18:4 And the name of the other was Eli'ezer,
because he said,
"The Elohim of my father is help for me.
And He has snatched me away from the sword of Pharaoh."

Ex. 18:5 And Yithro, Moshe's father-in-law,
came with his sons and his wife to Moshe in the wilderness where he was encamped at the mountain of The Elohim.

This portion of the story updates us on some of the events that took place much earlier.
It was in Ex. 4.25 that Tziporah circumcised one of her sons,
and ended up sparing the life of Moshe.
She disappeared from the text after that,
leaving us to wonder what had become of her.
Now we learn Moshe
had sent her back to her father with his sons.

Ex. 18:6 And he had said to Moshe,
"I, your father-in-law, Yithro, am coming to you, and your wife and her two sons with her."

Apparently Yithro sent word ahead somehow to Moshe.

We don't know how this was accomplished,
or how he knew where to find them.

Ex. 18:7 And Moshe went out to meet his father-in-law.
And he bowed down.
And he kissed him.
And they asked each other concerning their welfare.
And they went to the tent.

Ex. 18:8 And Moshe reported to his father-in-law
everything itself אנ
that YAHWEH had done to Pharaoh
and to the Mitsraites for Yisra'el's sake,
all the distress itself אנ
which they had acquired on the way,
and their having been snatched away by YAHWEH.

Ex. 18:9 And Yithro rejoiced for all the good which YAHWEH had done for Yisra'el, whom He had snatched away
from the hand of the Mitsraites.

Ex. 18:10 And Yithro said,
"Blessed be YAHWEH,
Who has snatched away you yourselves אנ
from the hand of the Mitsraites
and from the hand of Pharaoh, and Who has snatched away the people themselves אנ
from under the hand of the Mitsraites.

Ex. 18:11 Now I know that YAHWEH
is greater than all the gods
because of the word
by which they acted arrogantly against them."

The Hebrew is difficult in this verse.
There are several proposed interpretations.
"gods" is elohim.
But it's not always used in reference to 'gods'.

The uncertainty lies within the understanding that YAHWEH greatly reproached
the 'gods of Mitsraim' with His plagues.
Essentially, He attacked every one of their so-called gods
at the very point where they claimed superiority.
It is this point which appears to hold the best explanation for the verse.

Ex. 18:12 And Yithro, the father-in-law of Moshe, accepted an olah and other sacrifices for The Elohim.

And Aharon and all the elders of Yisra'el came to eat food with the father-in-law of Moshe
before the face of The Elohim.

The traditional translation of this verse
appears to miss the fact that Yithro is priest of Midyan.
He knows YAHWEH.
He worships YAHWEH.

What he is doing here is serving Yisra'el
in his role as a priest,
including preparing a fellowship meal.
He is participating with them
in an official manner
as he seeks to worship YAHWEH.
The context supports this perspective.

An olah is a surrender offering,
one that is completely burned up.
It represents a complete surrender
to the will of YAHWEH.

Note: Please try to keep in mind this fact:
There are many places in the text
where The Elohim is used that were ALTERED from YHWH, YAHWEH.
We know historically this was done.

What we do not know is each place
where it was done in the manuscripts.
This means that each time you encounter
"The Elohim" you can substitute YAHWEH
and it will likely be what should be in the text.

Ex. 18:13 And it was the next day.
And Moshe sat down
for the sake of judging the people themselves תא.
And the people stood before Moshe
from the morning until the evening.
Ex. 18:14 And the father-in-law of Moshe saw everything itself תא that he was doing for the people.
And he said, "What is this matter
which you yourself תא are doing for the people?
Why are you yourself תא sitting alone and all the people are standing before you from morning until evening?"
Ex. 18:15 And Moshe said to his father-in-law,
"Because the people come to me concerning asking of The Elohim.
Ex. 18:16 When there is for them a matter
they come to me.
And I judge between a man and an associate.
And I make known the directives of The Elohim
and His instructions."

Ex. 18:17 And the father-in-law of Moshe
said to him,
"The thing which you yourself תא are doing
is not good.
Ex. 18:18 Wear out, you will wear out,
both you yourself תא
and these people who are with you.
Indeed, the matter is too heavy for you.
You are not able to do it by yourself.

Ex. 18:19 Now listen attentively to my voice.
I will counsel you.
And may The Elohim be with you.
You yourself תא are to exist for the people
before The Elohim.
And you yourself תא are to bring the matters themselves תא to The Elohim.

Ex. 18:20 And you are to teach they themselves תא
the regulations themselves תא
and the instructions themselves תא.
And you are to make known to them
the way itself תא in which they are to walk,
and the things themselves תא which they are to do.

Ex. 18:21 And you yourself תא
are to seek out from all the people able men who revere The Elohim, men of truth, hating unjust gain.
Then place these over them
to be rulers of thousands,
rulers of hundreds,
rulers of fifties,
and rulers of tens.
Ex. 18:22 And they are to judge
the people themselves תא at all times.
And it will exist that every great matter
they will bring to you.
And all the small matters
they will judge themselves and make it lighter for yourself.
And they will bear it with you yourself תא.

Ex. 18:23 If you will do this word itself תא
and The Elohim directs you,
then you will be able to stand.

And also, each of these people will go to their place with shalom.”

Ex. 18:24 And Moshe listened attentively to the voice of his father-in-law.
And he did all that he said.

Ex. 18:25 And Moshe selected able men
from all Yisra'el.
And he placed them as heads over the people,
rulers of thousands,
rulers of hundreds,
rulers of fifties,
and rulers of tens.

Ex. 18:26 And they judged the people themselves nx
at all times.

The difficult matters themselves nx
they brought to Moshe.
But all the small matters they judged themselves.

Ex. 18:27 And Moshe sent away his father-in-law.
And he went to his own, to his land.

Chapter 19

Ex. 19:1 In the third month after the children of Yisra'el's going out
from the land of Mitsraim,
on this day they came to the Wilderness of Sinai.

Ex. 19:2 And they journeyed from Rephidim,
And they came to the Wilderness of Sinai.
And they camped in the wilderness.
And Yisra'el camped there in front of the mountain.

Ex. 19:3 And Moshe went up to The Elohim.
And YAHWEH called to him
from the mountain saying,
“This is what you are to say to the house of Ya'akov,
and declare to the children of Yisra'el.

Ex. 19:4 'You yourselves nx have seen
what I have done to the Mitsraitites.
And I carried you yourselves nx
upon the wings of eagles.
And I brought you yourselves nx to Me.

Ex. 19:5 And now if you listen attentively,
listen attentively to My voice,
and will protect My covenant itself nx
you also will be to Me a unique possession
out of all the peoples.

Indeed, the whole earth is Mine.

There are several concepts to address here.
The double mention of 'listen attentively' impresses upon us the extreme importance of this instruction.

To listen attentively
is to pay careful enough attention to what is said
so that you understand fully,
AND that you are agreeing to do
as you are instructed.

This is not passive listening.
It's listening as one who desires to hear what YAHWEH has to say in order that you are able to be clear about what you are to do to please Him Whom you serve.

The second is that of protection.
The concept is that of watching over in order to guard something from being taken away, destroyed, etc.

While many want to assert
it means 'compliance' by 'doing' the things,
it's more important aspect is seeing to it that the instructions themselves
(in this case The Covenant) are kept inviolate.

Interestingly, at this point in time in the text,
The Covenant has not yet been established.
Once it is established
Yisra'el will become a 'unique possession'.
The concept is not merely that of 'treasure',
the traditional word used here.
It is more specifically that of 'ownership'.

Yisra'el will BELONG to YAHWEH
as His very own personal and unique possession
among all the peoples
(tribes, nations, etc.) of the earth.

And YAHWEH declares that the whole earth belongs to Him, so Yisra'el is simply "set apart"
from the rest of the peoples on the earth
- for YAHWEH's very own unique possession.

Note: There's a very powerful condition
placed upon this relationship.
It is that of "listening attentively",
with all that it implies.
The moment one fails to do this
the "covenant" is broken,
along with its inherent relationship.

Ex. 19:6 And you yourselves תא will be to Me
a kingdom of priests and a set apart nation.'

Those are the words which you are to speak
to the children of Yisra'el."

What is a priest?
It is one who serves as a mediator
between YAHWEH and His people.
Yet Yisra'el is being told
they will be a 'kingdom of priests'.
They will all be under One King, YAHWEH.

They will all be mediators between Him and who?
The rest of the peoples of the world
- the non-Yisra'elites.

This is their designated role
IF they follow YAHWEH's instructions!
They will become a 'holy nation',
one set apart from the rest.

Ex. 19:7 And Moshe went.
And he called for the elders of the people.
And he set before their faces
all these words themselves תא
which YAHWEH had directed him.

Ex. 19:8 And all the people responded together.
And they said,
"All that YAHWEH has spoken we will do."

And Moshe returned with the words themselves תא
of the people to YAHWEH.

If you're paying careful attention to the text
you will recognize that these verses appear to be out of the proper sequence for the story.

The Covenant is not yet given.
The people have not yet, therefore,
affirmed their assent to The Covenant.
Yet that's exactly what's implied in these verses.
This reveals to us that there has been some type of editing of the text that has occurred.

Given our current level of knowledge of the text itself

it seems surprising
that someone has not "re-edited"
these misplaced verses
so they integrate better with the story line.
As you look at the following verses
this issue becomes crystal clear.

Ex. 19:9 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Behold!
I Myself am coming to you in the thick cloud.
The people are to listen attentively
as I'm speaking with you.
And also, in you they will trust, forever."

And Moshe reported the words themselves אנ
of the people to YAHWEH.

The first portion of this verse is very significant.
YAHWEH declares
He is personally coming to Moshe
within a 'thick cloud'.

The term implies heavy dark clouds,
the kind that withhold light
- in this case, the light of YAHWEH's presence.

The people are to listen attentively.
This is not a description of what will happen (will listen...), it is an instruction.
They are to listen
as YAHWEH speaks to Moshe himself.

The dialog is not directly with the people.
Moshe is their intermediary.
He is YAHWEH's Ambassador to Yisra'el.

The consequence of this dialog is that the people will trust Moshe forever.
This literally became true.
The words of Moshe
are venerated in Yisra'el even today.

Some have trusted more in the words of Moshe
than they did in those of The Messiah Himself.

The last part of the verse
makes no sense within this verse.
It's a virtual duplicate of the end of verse 8.
Just what words
are to be reported to YAHWEH?

Ex. 19:10 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Go to the people.
And cause them to be undefiled
today and tomorrow.
And have them wash their clothes.

qadash - to be clean (ceremonially or morally).
This is normally translated
as 'consecrate' or 'sanctify'.

In the overall context of Scripture
it clearly means to make them undefiled, pure and separated from the contamination of the world.
Only that which is undefiled is permitted in the presence of YAHWEH.

This has been stated before,
but it's vital that we repeat it because few understand the significance of defilement
within the culture of Yisra'el.

Ex. 19:11 And they are to be prepared by the third day
because on the third day YAHWEH will come down upon Mount Sinai
before the eyes of all the people.

Ex. 19:12 And you are to set limits
for the people themselves אנ all around saying,

'Guard against your going up on the mountain
or laying a hand on the edges of it.
Anyone laying a hand on the mountain will be put to death, put to death!

Ex. 19:13 He is not to touch it with his hand
because he will be stoned, stoned or shot, shot!
Whether animal or human being, it will not live.

At the drawing out of the trumpet sound
they may go up on the mountain."

The "trumpet" identified here is the RAM'S HORN!
The sound was the sound of a long blast.
This may foreshadow
the "trumpet sounding" of the last days
as the people of YAHWEH
are called into His presence!!

Ex. 19:14 And Moshe went down from the mountain to the people.

And he undefiled the people themselves נא.

And he had them wash their clothes.

Ex. 19:15 And he said to the people,

"Be prepared by the third day!

Do not come near to a wife."

Note the reference to the third day.
This timing occurs frequently in Scripture.
It was to be a "holy day" -
a day set apart from normal activity.
Selfish activities were not to be done.

Emission of seed causes 'contamination'
of those involved.
They become defiled.
That's the point of this instruction.

Ex. 19:16 And it was on the third day,
in the morning.

And there were loud sounds,

and lightnings,

and a heavy cloud over the mountain.

And the sound of the ram's horn

was exceedingly loud.

And all the people who were in the camp

shuddered with terror.

Ex. 19:17 And Moshe brought forth
the people themselves נא from the camp
to an encounter with The Elohim.

And they were stationed at the bottom of the mountain.

Ex. 19:18 And Mount Sinai smoked, all of it, because the presence of YAHWEH
had descended upon it in fire.

And its smoke went up

like the smoke of a smelting furnace.

And the whole mountain shook exceedingly.

Two things should be noted.
Literally, the face of YAHWEH descended.
This is an idiom for His presence.

However, the key concept of the face needs to be kept before us because it is so central to the entire focus of Scripture.
If you are "in someone's face",
you are in their presence.

The second issue is that of the furnace.
This is not just any furnace,
it is a smelting furnace.
It's a furnace used to purify, to refine.
It's the same type of smoke that rose from Sodom and Amarah

amidst their destruction.

Ex. 19:19 And the sound of the ram's horn was continuing.
And it was exceedingly powerful.

Moshe spoke.
And The Elohim responded to him with a voice.

Ex. 19:20 And YAHWEH came down upon Mount Sinai,
on the top of the mountain.

And YAHWEH called to Moshe
on the top of the mountain.
And Moshe went up.

Ex. 19:21 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Go down and repeat it to the people lest they break through toward YAHWEH
for the sake of seeing and many of them fall.

Ex. 19:22 And also, the priests who are coming near to YAHWEH
are to undefile themselves
lest YAHWEH breaks out against them."

Ex. 19:23 But Moshe said to YAHWEH,
"The people are not able to be coming up on Mount Sinai.

Indeed, You Yourself תא
have repeated to us saying,
'Set limits for the mountain itself תא
and set it apart.'

Ex. 19:24 And YAHWEH said to him,
"Go down!

And come up, you yourself תא
and Aharon with you.
But the priests and the people are not to break through for the sake of coming up toward YAHWEH
lest He breaks out against them."

Ex. 19:25 And Moshe went down to the people.
And he spoke to them.

Chapter 20

Ex. 20:1 And The Elohim spoke
all these words themselves תא saying,

YAHWEH SPOKE to the people of Yisra'el
- all at the same time!!!
This is the ONLY record
of such an event in Scripture!

What He spoke is His Instructions!
God delivered His Instructions
"personally" to His people.

Remember, torah is NOT LAW!
It is INSTRUCTION!

Ex. 20:2 "I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim,
Who brought you out from the land of Mitsraim,
from the house of slavery.

Ex. 20:3 There is not to exist for your sake
any other gods above My presence.

There are several ways
this verse could be translated.
"gods" refers to 'elohim',
normally translated as 'gods'.
This has been identified before so this should be familiar to you by this point in the text.

The literal sense is that there is to be no other being of whatever type
that is to be considered as a priority
over/before YAHWEH.

He is not to be replaced by any other being,
or, as the following verses present,
any other thing or representation of a thing.

"above My presence" could be over, upon, toward, against, etc., so there are several possibilities.

But the context takes precedence.
That phrase has been chosen to represent the concept that there is to be nothing whatsoever that is given a higher priority or greater authority over your life than YAHWEH Himself.

Please note: These verses constitute "The Ten Words" in Hebrew thought,
not "The Ten Commandments."

The Hebrews see these as words of instruction,
not as commands."

The entire concept of tora
must be considered in this specific context.

Tora means instruction, teaching.

It is that FIRST AND FOREMOST!

Only after this is firmly established in your thinking will you be able to properly understand the nature of these instructions.

Instructions are not commandments.

They are directions, guidelines,
'road signs' along the pathway of Hebrew life.
They are intended to keep one from going off the path
and into error, becoming 'lost'.

Because these instructions were written down,
and especially on stone,
human beings have interpreted them as "statutes"
- written 'laws'.

But this ignores the fact that they were spoken first,
and only written later
as a means of providing a permanent record
of what was taught.

This is a 'textbook', not a legal document.

YAHWEH created human beings
with freedom to choose what they will do, or not do.
If you remove this from them they are no longer 'free'.

Commandments remove one's freedom.

"Laws" do the same.

They require obedience.

If there is no 'obedience' there is punishment.

This leads to "legalism".

And that leads to serious problems.

With freedom to choose
it's merely a matter of watching to see if you will do what you are instructed to do - or not.

There are certainly consequences
if you do not do according to the instructions.
But you are not 'forced' to do them.
You have a choice.

Do you want the blessings that come from following the instructions, or do you want the consequences of not following them.
It's entirely up to you to make that decision.

YAHWEH will absolutely not interfere with your freedom of choice.

You are the only one who can make the decision.

Ex. 20:4 You are not to make for yourself
a carved image,
even any form
that is in the skies, from above,
or what is on the ground, from beneath,
or what is in the waters, from below the ground.

Please note that the verb senses
are not imperative.
Hence, they are not 'orders'.

The term for 'carved image' means an idol,
an object of 'worship'.
"Form" is typically translated as 'likeness',
but it means a shape, or a representation,
not necessarily an exact likeness.
There are many 'modified images'
that represent things,
but they do not look exactly like them.
This is the point expressed here.

The Hebrew uses the letter vav
before each of the phrases.
It typically means 'and'.
It can also mean 'even' or 'also'.
It's not commonly used as 'or',
but that is also legitimate.

"Even" has been used here because the text suggests
a broad characterization,
not a limited one.
It's to include everything in the skies,
on the earth,
or in the waters below the ground.

Ex. 20:5 You are not to prostrate yourself
before them.
And you are not to serve them.

Indeed, I Myself, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
am a zealous El,
paying attention to the perversion of fathers
upon children to the third and fourth generations
of those hating Me,

The whole point of the first part is 'worship', allegiance to and serving them
as if to honor them.
This is not to be done.

qanna' means jealous.
But it's root word means to be zealous.
This is the more accurate rendering here.
YAHWEH is not 'jealous' or 'envious', just as we are instructed in other portions of Scripture not to be such.
But He is indeed zealous about His honor.
This is the issue.

In His zeal for His honor he 'visits'
- pays attention to, the perversity of fathers, and more importantly,
to its effects, upon the children
- to the third and fourth in the series of offspring.
Generations is implied,
though not stated in the text.

Now, it is the perversity
of those hating YAHWEH that is involved.
The following verse helps to clarify this.

To hate someone is to act as their enemy in Hebrew thought.
Thus, it is the enemies of YAHWEH
to whom He pays very careful attention,
even to their third and fourth generations,
to see what they do.

Ex. 20:6 but doing kindness to thousands,
to those loving Me
and guarding My directives.

Many "translations" use 'showing'.
The word means to do or to make,
not to show.

Also, 'kindness' is often translated as mercy, love, or faithfulness.
This is misleading.
The term means kindness.

This kindness is done
to the thousands who are loving YAHWEH, and who are guarding His directives (principles, not commands).

Important within this is the Hebrew concept of love.
It is not an issue of 'good feelings' toward someone.
This term refers to loyalty as its primary principle.
The good feelings may be part of this,
but the loyalty, the faithfulness
that forms the Hebrew concept of love,
is far more important to comprehend.

Ex. 20:7 You are not to lift up the Name of YAHWEH itself אֱלֹהִים, your Elohim,
for the sake of emptiness.
Indeed, YAHWEH will not cause to be undefiled whoever lifts up His Name itself אֱלֹהִים
for the sake of emptiness.

This 'Word' has been exceedingly misinterpreted and abused.

It is in fact violated
by every so-called "translation"
that replaces the very Name, YAHWEH,
with "the LORD", Jehovah, Ha Shem, and every other false representation of the sacred Name of YAHWEH.

The emphasis in the Hebrew text reveals the atrocity involved in such practices.

The idea of 'lift up' can have many connotations.
In a general sense it means to use it.
In a more serious sense it means to "swear by it",
to take an oath by using it.

The word for 'emptiness' also means nothingness, vanity, worthlessness.
It means to use the Name for a meaningless purpose.

Please note that in both cases
the sense is "for", "for the sake of", reflecting an intentional abuse of the Name.

naqah means to be (or to make) clean.
The concept, with its given verb sense in the text,
is that of being made undefiled.
And YAHWEH will not cause one to be undefiled
one who abuses His Name.

This is rendered as guiltless,
innocent, etc. in many translations.
But each of these miss
the central issue of defilement.

To be defiled is to be forbidden access to YAHWEH.
To be defiled is to be held responsible for whatever it is that defiles you.

Ex. 20:8 Remember the Sabbath day itself אֱלֹהִים
to set it apart!

zakar means to mark so as to be recognized,
i.e. to remember.
Placing a mark (sign) upon something facilitates our ability to recall its purpose.
We do this in many ways.

The Sabbath is later designated as "the sign of The Covenant" for Yisra'el.
It became "the mark"
by which The Covenant was to be remembered."

qadash is a primitive root that means to be clean.
It's almost always translated as sanctify,
consecrate, dedicate, etc.
Once again we see
the concept of undefilement (cleanness).

This extremely important day in the life of Yisra'el was to be treated with great respect precisely because of what it represents, a reminder of The Covenant with YAHWEH.

This is the only Word that receives three more verses to support what is to be involved in this remembrance.

Ex. 20:9 Six days you are to work
and do all your employment,
mla'kah means deputyship,
service, i.e. employment.
The concept is that of your "paid job"
or other normal work day.
A deputy is one who works for another.

Ex. 20:10 but the seventh day
is a Sabbath to YAHWEH, your Elohim.
You are not to do any employment,
you,
or your son,
or your daughter,
or your male servant,
or your female servant,
or your livestock,
or your stranger who is within your gates,
To ensure understanding of the importance of this seventh day, this Sabbath, YAHWEH outlines who and what is to be included.

There are supporting passages of Scripture that identify this as a day for all of these to rest from their labors, efforts, work.

It's of interest to realize that virtually every culture on earth
has observed the seventh day,
the one we call Saturday, as a day of rest.
This is not confined to Yisra'el.
Only in "The Christian Era" have some places shifted to the first day of the week instead of the seventh,
and the seventh is usually closely tied to it in many ways.

Ex. 20:11 because for six days YAHWEH made
the skies themselves נא
and the earth itself נא
the sea itself נא
and everything itself נא that is in them.

And He rested on the seventh day.

For this reason YAHWEH blessed
The Sabbath day itself נא.
And He set it apart.

Ex. 20:12 You are to honor your father himself נא
and your mother herself נא
in order that your days are prolonged upon the soil
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you.

Ex. 20:13 You are not to murder.
ratsach - to dash in pieces,
i.e. to kill; especially to murder.

Ex. 20:14 You are not to commit adultery.

Ex. 20:15 You are not to steal.

Ex. 20:16 You are not to be an untruthful witness against your neighbor.

Ex. 20:17 You are not to desire for yourself your neighbor's house.
You are not to desire for yourself your neighbor's wife,
or his male servant,
or his female servant,
or his ox,
or his donkey,
or whatever belongs to your neighbor."

This is the Tenth Word.
It's the last one the people heard before they asked that YAHWEH stop speaking to them directly.

chamad means to delight in or to desire.
The desire to have something is selfishness.
It's characterized by "I want..."
It is the offense (sin) of Chavvah (Eve) in the Garden of Eden.

It is the fundamental source of every offense, everything that denies YAHWEH His proper place of authority in our lives - as The One Who has created us.

'Even' is used where the conjunction occurs to emphasize the inclusive nature of this list.

Ex. 20:18 And all the people observed the sounds themselves נא,
the lightning flashes themselves נא,
the sound of the ram's horn itself נא,
and the mountain itself נא smoking.
And the people observed.
And they trembled.
And they stood at a distance.

Ex. 20:19 And they said to Moshe, "You yourself נא speak with us!
And we will listen attentively.
But let not The Elohim speak with us lest we die."

This marks the end of The Ten Words, as terminated by the people themselves. They perceived that if they kept listening to YAHWEH they would all end up dead.

It's very important to recognize that this is the only portion of The Torah that the people actually heard spoken by YAHWEH Himself.

Everything after this essentially interprets how these things are to be carried out.

Ex. 20:20 And Moshe said to the people, "Do not be afraid!
Indeed, for the sake of proving you yourselves נא The Elohim has come, even in order that the reverence of Him will exist before your faces so that you will not offend."

Moshe lays out the purpose of YAHWEH's visit and His speaking to the people directly.

The concept is difficult to convey into English with one word. Prove comes the closest, and it means to validate, to confirm, or to assess something.

YAHWEH is interested in seeing if this experience will "prove" to be significant enough

for the children of Yisra'el
to choose to be faithful to The Covenant which He is establishing with them.

By means of this awe-inspiring,
although terrifying, display,
and by means of a direct encounter
with The Living Elohim,
a deep sense of awe and reverence is instilled within the people
so they do not 'sin' - go astray (offend).

This last phrase is key to the entire Torah!

Going astray is missing the target aimed at
- pleasing YAHWEH
by doing what He tells us He desires.
It's referred to as 'missing the mark',
but that's often taken far too lightly,
or is grossly misunderstood.

The entire focus is on rebellion
- refusal to follow YAHWEH's instructions.

This is the only full assembly of people
in all of Scripture
to whom YAHWEH speaks directly and audibly.
That has profound significance!

There are other places His voice is heard,
but it typically does not involve a large assembly of His people.

Ex. 20:21 And the people stood at a distance.
But Moshe drew near to the thick darkness
where The Elohim was.

Ex. 20:22 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Thus you are to say to the children of Yisra'el.
'You yourselves nx have seen
that I have spoken to you from The Heavens.

Ex. 20:23 You are not to make of Me Myself nx
gods of silver.
And you are not to make
gods of gold for yourselves.

This is a very different rendering of this verse.
The Hebrew uses a format here
that points directly at "Me".
Literally it says,
"You are not to make Me Myself gods sliver..."

It's common practice in Hebrew to use the following term as "of silver", for instance.
If it works for that,
then it must also work for "make Me..."
Thus, it becomes "make OF Me..."

How does this fit Scripture?
This is the key question we must ask
in this very important verse.

In the ancient cultures it was common practice
to make for yourself a "copy" of your 'god'.
Teraphim, etc. are examples of this,
such as the ones Ribkah stole from her father, Laban.
This was so common that it was extremely likely to happen with the Yisra'elites.
They had just left the culture of Mitsraim where these little 'gods and goddesses'
were everywhere.
And in fact, this very act
will shortly take place
with the "golden calf" incident.

Therefore, it's only fitting that YAHWEH would instruct His people not to do such things in regard to Him.

He is THE ETERNALLY EXISTING ONE!
He is NOT to be 'duplicated'
by any artificial means!

YAHWEH Himself is to be worshipped,
not some "image" of YAHWEH!

Even the very concept of a slaughter site
in the next two verses points in this direction.

Ex. 20:24 A slaughter site of soil
you are to make for Me.
And you are to slaughter upon it your olah itself תא
and your shelem itself תא
your sheep themselves תא
and your oxen themselves תא.

In every place where I cause
My Name itself תא to be remembered
I will come to you.
And I will bless you.

'olah means a step, an ascent,
that which goes up.
It's traditionally translated as "burnt offering".

But this idea comes from the practice
of burning the complete offering presented,
causing it to 'go up' in smoke.
It is not contained within the meaning of the word used.
In actual practice it's a consecration offering,
an offering of complete surrender.
It's used to make atonement for one's offenses, or mis-steps.

In many ways it's unfortunate
that this has been taught as a burnt offering
because it represents far more.

Everything is consumed.
It represents committing everything to YAHWEH.

shelem means to return a favor.
Essentially, it's a thanksgiving offering for YAHWEH's kindness
in providing for one's needs.

The offering was eaten
together with the priest who sacrificed it right at the time of its preparation.

The fat parts were burned on the altar
as "a pleasing aroma to YAHWEH".
Scripture teaches us that the fat belongs to YAHWEH.
It is not ours to eat.

This is the first place the shelem offering
is mentioned in Scripture.
It's often translated as a "shalom" offering.
This is associated with the concept of a 'peace' offering.

Now take note of the promise made by YAHWEH.
In every place where "I cause My Name..."
I will come, and I will bless you!

The condition is that YAHWEH
causes His Name to be remembered there.
It's His action, not that of human beings.

Ex. 20:25 And if you make for Me
a slaughter site of stone
you are not to build it itself תא of something cut,
because your tool has rubbed upon it,
causing it to be defiled.
Any slaughter site of stone
was to be of natural stone, not cut stone.

A human tool rubbing or scraping on it causes defilement of the stone.
It is no longer YAHWEH's stone.
It is 'contaminated' (defiled) by damaging it.

Ex. 20:26 And you are not to go up on steps to My slaughter site
by which your nakedness
may be exposed upon it.'

Chapter 21

Ex. 21:1 These are the regulations which you are to set before their faces.

Ex. 21:2 When you acquire a Hebrew slave,
he is to serve six years.

And in the seventh
he goes out free, without charge.

Ex. 21:3 If he comes in with just his body
he is to go out with just his body.

If he comes in as husband of a woman
his wife is also to go out with him.

The literal sense of the Hebrew is given.
The reference is to 'his back',
meaning his body, or his labor.
This carries much greater significance than "himself" does.

ba'al is the term for husband.
It means either a master or a husband,
and is often translated as 'lord'.

It's very important to recognize the real meaning of this term
because of its extensive use in connection with the false-god also identified by this term.

This forms a persuasive argument against using the term, "Lord"
in connection with YAHWEH
or YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Ex. 21:4 If his master gives to him a wife
and she has born to him sons or daughters,
the wife and her children are her master's,
and he is to go out with just his body.

'adown - sovereign, i.e. controller.
Traditionally translated as lord, master, owner.
A sovereign is one who rules over you.
That's the real meaning of this term.
It is often used as Adonai.

In old English style
this term was designated as 'lord'
to make a distinction between the role of the one involved here and the king,
the sovereign of the country.

From the standpoint of Scripture
the use of 'master' is the better choice.
It avoids the use of 'lord'
which has caused such great pollution of the text.

The term is, however, also used in regard to YAHWEH and to YAHUSHUA.
In those instances
its most appropriate form should be 'sovereign'.

Ex. 21:5 And if the slave says, says,
'I love my master himself אני,
my wife herself אני,
and my children themselves אני.

I will not go out free.'

Ex. 21:6 then his master is to bring him near,
to The Elohim.

And he is to bring him near the door,
even to the doorpost.

And his master is to pierce his ear with an awl.
And he is to serve him forever.

'ahab means to have affection for.

It's virtually always translated as 'love',
whether physical or otherwise.

Love in the Hebrew mind
was equated with loyalty, faithfulness.
It was not equated with 'nice feelings'.

There is much debate concerning to whom the slave is to be brought.
The term used is ha elohim.
It literally means "the gods".
Some perceive this to be judges,
acting on behalf of The Elohim Himself.
This term is actually used to refer to judges in some places in the text.

Ex. 21:7 And when a man
sells his daughter herself תָּא as a female slave
she is not to go out like the male slaves go out.

Ex. 21:8 If she is bad in the eyes of her master who has designated her for himself
then she is to be redeemed.
He has no authority to sell her to a foreign people
since he has been deceitful with her.

Ex. 21:9 And if he has appointed her to his son,
with the regulation of daughters he is to do to her.

Ex. 21:10 If he takes another for himself
her food, her clothing, and her marriage rights are not to be reduced.

Ex. 21:11 And if he does not do these three for her
she is to go out without charge, without silver.

Ex. 21:12 One striking a man and he dies
is to be put to death, put to death.

Ex. 21:13 But if he did not lie in wait and The Elohim brought him to his hand
then I will set a place for you where he is to flee.

Ex. 21:14 But when a man boils up against his neighbor
to kill him by craftiness, even from beside My slaughter site
you are to take him to be put to death.

The slaughter site was a place of refuge
for someone committing a grievous offense.
One would flee there and cling to the altar,
thereby claiming protection by YAHWEH.
In cases of premeditated murder
not even this last resort
was able to protect them.

Ex. 21:15 And one who strikes
his father or his mother
is to be put to death, put to death.

Ex. 21:16 And one stealing a man and he sells him,
or he is found in his hand,
is to be put to death, put to death.

The crime is kidnapping.
The intent is to sell the person or demand a ransom for them.

Ex. 21:17 And one dishonoring
his father or his mother
is to be put to death, put to death.

Ex. 21:18 And when men fight and one man strikes another man himself תָּא
with a stone or with his fist
and he does not die but lies upon his bed,
Ex. 21:19 if he gets up again
and walks outside upon his staff,

the one striking him is innocent.
Only, he is to pay for his rest
and his healing, his healing.

Ex. 21:20 And when a man strikes
his male slave himself נא or his female slave herself נא with a stick and he dies under his hand,
he is to be avenged, avenged.

Ex. 21:21 But if he remains alive a day or two
he is not avenged because he is his money.
"Money" in this instance is a reference to "property".

Ex. 21:22 And when men quarrel and they strike a woman with child, and her offspring comes out and there is no injury
he is to be fined,
fined by the woman in accord
with what the woman's husband sets.
And he is to give it by means of the judges.

Ex. 21:23 But if there is injury
then you are to give life in place of life, Ex. 21:24 eye in place of eye,
tooth in place of tooth,
hand in place of hand,
foot in place of foot,
Ex. 21:25 burn in place of burn,
wound in place of wound,
lash in place of lash.

There are limited places in Scripture
where this type of response is permitted.
It is not a general principle,
and is not to be applied indiscriminately.
Far too often it is taken out of context.

Ex. 21:26 And when a man strikes
the eye itself נא of his male slave or the eye itself נא of his female slave and ruins it
he is to send him out free
for the sake of his eye.

Ex. 21:27 And if the tooth of his male slave or his female slave falls out
he is to send him out free
for the sake of his tooth.

Ex. 21:28 And when an ox gores a man himself נא or a woman herself נא and he dies
then the ox is to be stoned, stoned.
And its flesh itself נא is not to be eaten.
And the owner of the ox will be innocent.

Ex. 21:29 But if the ox was butting
yesterday and the day before,
and its owner has been testified against,
but he has not guarded it,
and it causes the death of a man or a woman,
the ox is to be stoned.
And its owner is also to be put to death.

Ex. 21:30 If a redemption price is placed upon him
he is to give the ransom for his life,
whatever is placed upon him.

Ex. 21:31 Whether it has gored a son
or gored a daughter,
according to this regulation it is done to him.

Ex. 21:32 If the ox gores a male slave or a female slave
he is to give to his master thirty shekels of silver.
And the ox is to be stoned.

Ex. 21:33 And when a man opens a pit, or if a man digs a pit and does not cover it and an ox or a male ass falls in there Ex. 21:34 the owner of the pit
is to make restitution.
He is to give silver to its owner.
And the dead animal is his.

Ex. 21:35 And when the ox of a man strikes the ox itself נח of his neighbor and it dies
they are to sell the live ox itself נח
and split in two the silver itself נח from it.
And they are also to split in two
the dead one itself נח.

Ex. 21:36 Or if it was known that the ox was butting from yesterday and the day before and its owner has not guarded it
he is to make restitution, make restitution,
ox in place of ox.
And the dead one is to be his.

Chapter 22

Ex. 22:1 When a man steals an ox or a sheep and he slaughters it or sells it he is to restore five oxen for an ox
and four sheep for a sheep.

Ex. 22:2 If the thief is found breaking in and he is struck and he dies
there is no blood guilt for him.

Ex. 22:3 If the sun has risen over him
there is blood guilt for him.
He is to make restitution, make restitution.
If he has not the means
he is to be sold on account of his theft.

Ex. 22:4 If the stolen item is found,
found alive in his hand,
whether it is an ox or male ass, or sheep,
he is to restore double.

Ex. 22:5 When a man lets a field
or vineyard be consumed,
and sends out his animal itself נח,
and it consumes in another man's field
he is to make restitution
with the best of his field
and the best of his vineyard.

Ex. 22:6 When fire breaks out and finds thorns
and devours stacked grain,
or standing grain, or the field,
the one kindling the burning itself נח
is to make restitution, make restitution.

Ex. 22:7 When a man gives silver or goods to his neighbor to guard
and it is stolen out of the man's house,
if the thief is found he is to restore double.

Ex. 22:8 If the thief is not found then the master of the house is to be brought before the judges to see if he has put his hand
into his neighbor's goods.

ha elohim is used here again.
As in other cases,
there is debate over what this means.
Generally it's believed that this refers to "the judges"
who are acting in the place of The Ellohim
in making a determination for a case.

While this is likely what took place
it does lend an atmosphere of confusion concerning "The Elohim" and its uses.

Ex. 22:9 For every word concerning a violation,
for ox, for male ass, for sheep, for clothing,
for everything which he says
that it belongs to him,
the judges are to come to the word of the two.
Whoever the judges declare wrong
is to restore double to his neighbor.

Ex. 22:10 When a man gives to his neighbor
a donkey, or ox, or sheep,
or any animal to guard and it dies,
or is injured, or is taken captive,
no one seeing it,

Ex. 22:11 an oath of YAHWEH is to exist between the two of them that he has not put forth his hand
into his neighbor's goods.
And the owner of it is to accept it.
And he is not to make restitution.

Ex. 22:12 But if he has stolen, stolen from him,
he is to make restitution to its owner.

Ex. 22:13 If it is torn to pieces, torn to pieces,
he is to bring it for evidence.
The torn one is not to be restored.

Ex. 22:14 And when a man
asks something from his neighbor
and it is injured or dies,
the owner of it not being with it,
he is to make restitution, make restitution.

Ex. 22:15 If its owner was with it
he is not to make restitution.
If it was hired he is entitled to the hire.

Ex. 22:16 And when a man deludes a virgin,
a woman not engaged,
and he lies carnally with her
he is to pay the bride price,
the bride price for her,
to be his wife.

patah - to open wide;
figuratively, to delude.
This is often translated as 'seduce'.
However, there is also a literal sense involved here
that's less subtle.
The concept of opening wide means exposing her.

Ex. 22:17 If her father refuses,
refuses to give her to him,
he is to pay according to the bride price of virgins.

Ex. 22:18 One practicing witchcraft is not to live.

Ex. 22:19 Anyone lying carnally with an animal
is to be put to death, put to death.

Ex. 22:20 One slaughtering to a god
other than to YAHWEH alone
is to be devoted to destruction.

charam means to seclude;
specifically (by a ban) to religious uses (especially destruction).
It's often used in relation to anything not supporting the worship and honor of YAHWEH.

Spoils of war, whole communities,
or sometimes individuals

were placed "under the ban", meaning they were forbidden to be used for any purpose within Yisra'el.
The result was typically their total destruction.
This is where the concept of "devoted to destruction" comes from.

The term, by itself, means something similar to qadosh,
holy, set apart; separated.

Ex. 22:21 And a foreigner
you are not to treat violently.
And you are not to afflict them.
Indeed, you were foreigners
in the land of Mitsraim.

Ex. 22:22 Every widow or fatherless child
you are not to humiliate.

Ex. 22:23 When you humiliate,
humiliate he himself אָנ,
when he cries out, cries out to Me
I will listen attentively,
listen attentively to her cry.

Ex. 22:24 And My nostrils will blaze.
And I will kill you yourself אָנ with the sword.
And your wives will be widows.
And your children will be fatherless.

The attention given to this subject makes it very clear that YAHWEH
is extremely serious about such things.
It deserves our very careful consideration.

Ex. 22:25 If you lend silver
to My people themselves אָנ,
to the humble themselves אָנ who are with you,
you are not to be like a creditor to him.
You are not to set interest upon him.

Ex. 22:26 If you bind your neighbor's garment
as a pledge, a pledge,
you are to return it to him
at the going down of the sun

Ex. 22:27 because it is his only covering,
his covering for his skin.
In what will he lie down?
And it will be that he cries out to Me.
And I will listen attentively
because I Myself am kind.

Ex. 22:28 The Elohim
you are not to treat with disrespect.

And a leader of your people
you are not to bitterly curse.

nasiy' - an exalted one.
This refers to a leader of the people.

Many have misinterpreted this term
to include "speaking ill" against a leader.
But the injunction is very specific.
It refers to a bitter curse,
such as was placed upon the soil
after Chavvah (Eve) and Adam offended.
Some have also tried to extend this to anyone having authority over another.
There is no valid basis
for that interpretation.

Ex. 22:29 Your abundance,
and your vintage,
and your first born sons
you are not to delay giving to Me.

Ex. 22:30 Likewise you are to do with your oxen,
with your sheep.

Seven days it is to be with its mother.
On the eighth day you are to give it to Me.

These two verses
belong together as one thought.
The translation is different than most,
but it ties together the immediacy
of giving one's best to YAHWEH.
He is to be first in our lives.
There is to be no delay in giving to Him
what is rightfully His.

Ex. 22:31 And set apart men
you are to be for Me.

And flesh torn to pieces in the field
you are not to eat.
You are to throw it itself תא to the dogs.

Chapter 23

Ex. 23:1 You are not to carry an empty rumor.

You are not to put your hand
with the morally wrong
for the sake of being a malicious witness.

Ex. 23:2 You are not to follow many to do harm.

And you are not to respond to a dispute for the sake of turning after many, turning aside what is right.

The Hebrew is difficult
in the second portion of this verse.
Based on other translations
this appears to be the intent.

Ex. 23:3 And you are not to favor
a weak man in his dispute.

Ex. 23:4 When you meet your enemy's ox or his ass wandering
you are to return, return it to him.

Ex. 23:5 When you see the ass of one hating you lying under its burden
you are to refrain from leaving it to him.
You are to loose, loose it with him.

Ex. 23:6 You are not to turn aside the sentence of your destitute in his dispute.

Ex. 23:7 You are to be far from a false word.

And the innocent and the just you are not to kill because I will not clear the morally wrong.

Ex. 23:8 And you are not to take a gift
because a gift blinds the clear sighted
and twists the words of the just.

Ex. 23:9 And you are not to oppress a foreigner.
Even you yourselves תא know
the life itself תא of a foreigner because you were foreigners
in the land of Mitsraim.

Ex. 23:10 And six years you are to sow
your land itself תא,
and you are to gather its produce itself תא.
Not only was there to be a sabbath day,
there was a Sabbatical year,
and then a Jubilee year
(A sabbath year of sabbath years).

Ex. 23:11 But the seventh you are to release it.
And you are to leave it.
And the destitute of your people are to eat.

And what is left
the animals of the field are to eat.
Do the same with your vineyard and your olive grove.

Ex. 23:12 Six days you are to do your work.
And on the seventh day you are to rest
in order that your ox and your ass might sit down, and the son of your female slave
and the sojourner are able to breathe.

There are some nuances in this verse that generally get overlooked
in many translations.

There are three different terms
used to express 'resting'.
The first is to cease from exertion
and was used for the seventh day of creation.
The second means to sit down, to rest.
The third means literally to breathe,
and is often translated as 'be refreshed'.

This is likely the source for the saying
'catch your breath'.

Ex. 23:13 And according to everything that I have said to you,
you are to protect it.

And the name of other gods
you are not to take note of.
They are not to be heard from your mouth.

Ex. 23:14 Three times in a year
you are to observe a pilgrimage festival to Me.

chagag - properly, to move in a circle;
(specifically) to march in a sacred procession,
to observe a festival.
The proper concept is the pilgrimage-festival.

Once the Temple was built
three times each year the males,
and usually their families as well,
made a journey, a pilgrimage,
to Yerushalaim for these festivals.

Ex. 23:15 The Festival of Unleavened Bread itself תא
you are to protect.

Seven days you are to eat unleavened bread
as I have directed you,
at the time appointed in the month of Abib,
because in it you came out from Mitsraim.

And you are not to appear before Me
empty handed.

Ex. 23:16 Also the Festival of The Harvest of the First Fruits of your labors which you have sown in the field,
and The Festival of the Ingathering,
at the outgoing of the year,
at the ingathering of your labors themselves תא
from the field.

Unleavened Bread is Matzot.
It occurs at the same time
as Pesach, or Passover.
Harvest of First Fruits is Shavuot, or Pentecost.
The Ingathering is Sukkoth, or Tabernacles.
These are the three required festivals.

Ex. 23:17 Three times in a year
all your males are to be seen before the face of your Sovereign, YAHWEH.

Ex. 23:18 You are not to offer
the blood of My sacrifice with leaven.

And the fat of My sacrifice
is not to remain until morning.

The Hebrew in this verse is difficult in regard to the offering/sacrifice terminology.
It requires some adjustments
in order to make sense in English.
This seems to best represent what's intended.

Ex. 23:19 The first of the first fruits of your soil
you are to bring into
The House of YAHWEH, your Elohim.

A young goat you are not to boil
in its mother's milk.

Ex. 23:20 Behold!
I Myself am sending
a messenger before your face to protect you on the way and to bring you into the place
which I have established.

Ex. 23:21 Guard yourselves before his face,
and listen attentively to his voice!
Do not be bitter against Him
because He will not put up with your rebellion.
Indeed, My Name is within Him.

This is a little different than most translations of this verse.
The first word means to guard,
protect, or watch over.
It's a warning concerning how to act
in the presence of this messenger.
The messenger is not an "angel"
as many translations give it.

They are to listen attentively to his voice (typically, obey).
They are not to be bitter toward him.
That's the literal sense.
It does not mean rebel as some have it.

They are told he will not "lift up"
(some want to say pardon, or bear, carry) your rebellion.
For our comprehension of this
the more accurate sense is "put up with".
We understand that concept very well.

And the last portion points to the reality that the Name of YAHWEH is within him.

There are various ways to interpret this.
Some say 'his authority' is with him,
which YAHWEH's name certainly represents.
But the literal sense suggests
"My Name is in the middle of him."
Thus, we've used within him.
There are also those who suggest this is YAHWEH Himself in some other 'form', yet He Himself states it is His messenger.

Ex. 23:22 However, if you listen attentively, listen attentively to his voice,
and you do all that I speak,
then I will be an enemy
of your enemies themselves תא
and I will distress those distressing you.

Ex. 23:23 Indeed, My messenger
will go before your faces.
And he will bring you in to the Amorites,
and the Hittites,
and the Perizzites,
and the Canaanites,
and the Hivvites,
and the Yebusites.
And I will cause them to hide.
kachad - to secrete by act or word;
to hide, to conceal, to destroy.

Most seem to want to interpret this based on historical acts, but the literal sense is that of causing them to hide, not to be "cut off". There are other terms that would apply more accurately if that were the intent.

Ex. 23:24 You are not to bow down to their gods. And you are not to serve them.

And you are not to do according to their deeds. Instead, you are to pull them down, pull them down and break in pieces, break in pieces their monuments!

matstsebah means something standing, a column or memorial stone, an image of some kind, etc. These were virtually all objects of worship in these pagan nations. They were to be destroyed totally in order to eliminate the risk of the Yisra'elites following the practices of those they conquered.

Ex. 23:25 And you are to serve YAHWEH your Elohim, Himself תא. And He will bless your food itself תא and your water itself תא.

And I will cause sickness to turn away from your midst.

Ex. 23:26 There will not be one miscarrying or sterile in your land. I will fulfill the number of your days.

Ex. 23:27 My terror itself תא I will send out before your faces. And I will cause confusion for all the people themselves תא who come against you. And I will give to you the backs of all your adversaries themselves תא.

Ex. 23:28 And I will send out the hornet itself תא before your faces. And I will drive out the Hivvite themselves תא, the Kena'anite themselves תא, and the Hittite themselves תא from before your faces.

The term for hornet is related directly to the term for leprosy. It appears the use of 'hornet' may be a Hebraism for some type of plague or destruction.

Ex. 23:29 I will not drive them out from before your faces in one year lest the land become a devastation and the animals of the field multiply more than you.

Ex. 23:30 Little by little I will drive them out from before your faces until you bear fruit and occupy the land itself תא.

Ex. 23:31 And I will establish your boundary itself תא from The Sea of Reeds to The Sea of The Philistines, and from the wilderness to The Euphrates. Indeed, I am giving into your hand the inhabitants of the land themselves תא. And you are to drive them out from before your faces.

Ex. 23:32 You are not to cut a covenant with them or with their gods.

Ex. 23:33 They are not to dwell in your land lest they cause an offense
for you yourselves nx against Me because you are serving their gods.
Indeed, it will become a snare to you.”

Chapter 24

Ex. 24:1 And to Moshe He said,
“Come up to YAHWEH, you yourself nx
and Aharon, Nadab, and Abihu,
and seventy of the elders of Yisra'el.
And you are to bow down from a distance.

Ex. 24:2 And Moshe is to draw near to YAHWEH by himself.
But they are not to draw near.
And the people are not to go up with him.”

Ex. 24:3 And Moshe went.
And he reported to the people
all the words themselves nx of YAHWEH
and all the regulations themselves nx.

And all the people answered with one voice.
And they said,
“All the words which YAHWEH has spoken
we will do!”

Ex. 24:4 And Moshe wrote
all the Words themselves nx of YAHWEH.

And he rose up early in the morning.
And he built a slaughter site
at the foot of the mountain
and twelve standing columns for the twelve tribes of Yisra'el.

Ex. 24:5 And he sent young men themselves nx
of the children of Yisra'el.
And they sent up olahs.
And they slaughtered shelem slaughterings of bulls
to YAHWEH.
olot is the plural form of olah.
shelem is a thanksgiving offering.

Ex. 24:6 And Moshe took half the blood.
And he put it in bowls.
And half the blood
he sprinkled on the slaughter site.

Ex. 24:7 And he took The Book of The Covenant.
And he read it in the ears of the people.

And they said,
“All that YAHWEH has spoken we will do.
And we will listen attentively.”

*Once again we have evidence of an edited text.
This reiterates the lines of v. 3.
Considering the context v. 3
it is likely in a different location than its original position, or, it's a duplication from another version of the text.*

*Also, this specifies "The Book of The Covenant".
It was not likely called that when Moshe first read it to them.
That's more than likely a later change to the text,
made to clarify what he was reading to them.*

*Also, it should be called a scroll, not a 'book'.
There was no such thing
as a "book" in those days.*

Ex. 24:8 And Moshe took the blood itself וְכַל.
And he sprinkled it on the people.
And he said, "Behold!
The blood of The Covenant which YAHWEH has cut with you concerning all these Words."

It's extremely important to note
the institution of a blood-covenant.
This establishes a "non-breakable" contract
between the parties involved.
The blood symbolizes
that if either one breaks the covenant
they are subject to having their own blood shed.

This is a 'formal' contract.
It is to be taken extremely seriously.

Many fail to recognize that the "Old Covenant", as it is called,
established at Mount Sinai,
was, in fact, a "blood-covenant".
Without this recognition
the importance of this covenant is overlooked.

It's also important to note that this covenant is specifically with
the children of Yisra'el.
There is no mention of any 'gentile' involvement in it.
It is binding upon the Yisra'elites
- and no one else,
unless they swear an oath to abide by it.
This reality is often ignored.
It must NOT be overlooked.

Ex. 24:9 And Moshe went up,
and Aharon, Nadab, and Abihu,
and seventy of the elders of Yisra'el.
Ex. 24:10 And they saw
The Elohim of Yisra'el Himself וַיֵּרָא.

And under His feet... like workmanship of sapphire
and the same as the skies for brightness.

Ex. 24:11 But to the extremities
of the children of Yisra'el
He did not stretch out His hand.

And they saw The Elohim Himself וַיֵּרָא.
And they ate and they drank.

There is much debate over this passage.
It all focuses on the Scriptures which tell us no human being
has ever seen the face of YAHWEH and lived.

Some suggest a vision took place.
We don't know what actually took place,
but we are reasonably safe in assuming they did not see His face.
They saw, perhaps, His shekinah glory,
and as such they experienced
His presence with them.

But what's often missed
is that this event included a "fellowship meal"
among the contracting parties to The Covenant,
the elders acting on behalf
of the children of Yisra'el,
This is most important.
In Eastern culture you may not harm one with whom you have just shared such a meal.
This 'meal' further solidifies The Covenant.
And that's indeed worth noting.

'atsiy - means extremities.
Many have 'forced' this to mean
'nobles or chiefs', meaning the 70 elders.
But that's not what the text says.

The reference appears to mean that in spite of the fact these 70 elders "saw The Elohim"
YAHWEH did not stretch out His hand, even toward the extremities of the people. In other words, not one person was negatively affected, even though they had "seen The Elohim."

There's no need to force this to mean 'nobles or chiefs'.

Ex. 24:12 And YAHWEH said to Moshe, "Come up to Me on the mountain and stay there! And I will give to you tablets of stone themselves nx, even the instruction and the directives which I have written, for the sake of teaching them."

torah - a precept or statute.
From a root word that means to teach, instruct.
Torah = instruction.

mitsvah - a command, directive; often translated as a law, ordinance, or precept.

Once again we find a tendency to 'force' the understandings and meanings of these terms into pre-conceived ideas of what they're supposed to be.

YAHWEH does not give 'orders', He gives instructions.

The concept of one's free will has already been presented in previous notes within Exodus. Free will does not permit 'commands'. Commands require a response. There is no freedom in a requirement.

But there is definitely freedom in instruction. You choose to follow or not follow an instruction. The same is true for a directive. It's a principle - not a demand. It's a standard by which to assess your actions. It is not forced upon you.

Please, take very careful note of the last line of this verse. "for the sake of TEACHING."

That line captures perfectly what YAHWEH intends with this material, including the "written code", which has inappropriately been called "The Law".

NOTE: Legalism is NEVER YAHWEH's Intention.

Ex. 24:13 And Moshe got up, and his assistant, Yahoshua. And Moshe went up to the mountain of The Elohim.

Ex. 24:14 And he said to the elders, "Remain here for us until we return to you. And behold! Aharon and Hur are with you. Whoever has matters is to come to them."

Ex. 24:15 And Moshe went up onto the mountain. And a cloud covered the mountain itself nx.

Ex. 24:16 And the glory of YAHWEH settled down on Mount Sinai.

And the cloud covered it for six days.
And on the seventh day He called to Moshe
from the midst of the cloud.

Ex. 24:17 And the sight of the glory of YAHWEH
was like a consuming fire
on the top of the mountain
to the eyes of the children of Yisra'el.

Ex. 24:18 And Moshe went into the midst of the cloud.
And he went up onto the mountain.
And Moshe was on the mountain
forty days and forty nights.

Chapter 25

Ex. 25:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe, saying,
Ex. 25:2 "Say to the children of Yisra'el
that they are to bring an elevated gift to Me.
From everyone himself תָּא whose heart urges him
you are to accept My elevated gift itself תָּא.
truwmah - a present, specifically one lifted up.
These are freewill gifts or offerings.
They are not required.

Ex. 25:3 And this is the elevated gift which you are to accept from they themselves תָּא, gold,
and silver,
and copper,
Ex. 25:4 and blue violet,
and red-purple,
and maggot scarlet,
and fine linen,
and goats' hair,
Ex. 25:5 and rams' skins, red,
and fine leather skins,
and acacia wood,
Ex. 25:6 oil for the light,
fragrances for the anointing oil
and for the sweet incense,
Ex. 25:7 shoham stones,
and stones for setting for the ephod
and for the breast piece.

Ex. 25:8 And they are to make for Me
a set apart place.
And I will remain permanently in their midst.
miqdash - a consecrated place or thing.
It is a place set apart from everything else
for YAHWEH's own purposes.

shakan - to reside or permanently stay.
This is different than the normal word for 'dwell' or 'settle'.
It specifically points to a permanent state of YAHWEH's presence.
It foreshadows the indwelling presence of His divine nature after Shavuot (Pentecost)
under The New Covenant.

The concept of a 'mighty one'
remaining permanently
in the midst of a group of people is foreign to every other religious concept.
Not even "imaginary gods"
were considered to do this.

Ex. 25:9 According to everything that I Myself am showing you yourself, תָּא
the structure itself תָּא of The Dwelling Place itself תָּא and the structure itself תָּא
of all its implements,
even in this manner you are to make it.

The emphasis in this verse is very powerful.
It is YAHWEH Himself
Who is showing Moshe himself
the structure itself of the dwelling place and everything in it.

This was not a mere 'pattern',
it was apparently more of a precise model.
The implication is that this is an exact replica of The Dwelling Place in The Heaven.
There are some differences
from the typical translations again.
'I Myself', 'showing' (participle form - active),
'structure', 'implements'.
Each has specific terms
with specific meanings.

Ex. 25:10 And they are to make a chest of acacia wood,
two and a half cubits long,
a cubit and a half wide,
and a cubit and a half high.

'arown - a box; chest.
Typically this is "translated" as 'ark'.
This was definitely not a boat of any kind.
It was a box.
So was the building Noah made.

A cubit was the length of the forearm
from the elbow to the wrist.
There are two different sizes known,
18 inches, and 21 inches,
the longer being referred to as the 'royal cubit'.
The longer cubit
is probably the one used here.

Ex. 25:11 And you are to overlay it itself תָּא
with pure gold.
Inside and outside you are to overlay it.
And you are to make on it
a border of gold all around.

tahowr - pure.
The key concept here is 'undefiled'.
Everything related to The Dwelling Place is to be undefiled, and kept that way.
Nothing defiled, 'unclean' or 'impure'
was allowed in or near it.

There's a fascinating connection here with Noah's 'box'.
He was to cover it within and without also.
It was covered with 'pitch',
but the word used
is the same word used for "atonement".

This chest will have on top of it
"The Cover of Atonement",
often called 'the mercy seat'.

Ex. 25:12 And you are to pour out for it
four rings of gold
and set them upon its four corners,
two rings on one side,
and two rings on the other side.

yatsaq - to pour out.
Most translate this as 'cast'.
However, the concept
of something poured out has great significance in the worship processes
of The Dwelling Place,
so it seems appropriate
to use that terminology here.

Ex. 25:13 And you are to make separate sticks of acacia
and overlay they themselves תָּא with gold.

Ex. 25:14 And you are to put the sticks themselves תָּא
into the rings on the sides of the chest
for the sake of carrying the chest itself תָּא with them.

Ex. 25:15 The sticks are to be in the rings of the chest.
They are not to be removed from it.

Ex. 25:16 And you are to put into the chest
The Testimony itself תָּנִיחַ which I am giving to you.

A 'testimony' is the same as evidence.
In this case it is the written Word of YAHWEH
that contained The Covenant with Yisra'el.

It would end up serving as both a witness to them and as evidence against them
in the days and years ahead.

Ex. 25:17 And you are to make
a Cover of Atonement of pure gold,
two and a half cubits long
and a cubit and a half wide.

kapporeth - the term is used only in connection with this chest.

It's root word means to cover.
But especially in this instance
it means to cover with atonement.

Once a year the great priest entered into the most sacred place in The Dwelling and sprinkled 'the blood of atonement' directly on this cover.
That act was intended to 'cover'
the offenses of Yisra'el.

Few recognize the connection to Passover.
The blood of The Passover Lamb served as a 'cover', thereby protecting the Yisra'elites
from the destruction of their firstborn.

Likewise, this foreshadows the 'covering'
of the blood of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
by which our offenses are "atoned" (reconciled by covering).

The symbolism involved in this Dwelling Place is most significant.

Ex. 25:18 And you are to make
two cherubim of gold.

Make they themselves תָּנִיחַ of hammered work at the two ends of The Cover of Atonement.

Cherubim are found in several places in Scripture.
The exact meaning and description
are elusive.

They guard the entrance to The Garden of Eden and they are found in the vicinity of YAHWEH's Throne.

The Chest of The Testimony
represents the 'footstool' of YAHWEH.
Thus, these cherubim guard His presence symbolically.
Many believe they may look like lions,
and not like little chubby 'angels'.

Ex. 25:19 And make one cherub at one end,
and the other cherub at the other end
from The Cover of Atonement.
Make the cherubim themselves תָּנִיחַ
above The Cover of Atonement at its two ends.

Ex. 25:20 And the cherubim are to be spreading out their wings upward, shielding The Cover of Atonement,
and their faces one toward the other.
Toward The Cover of Atonement their faces are to be.

Ex. 25:21 And you are to put

The Cover of Atonement itself תא
on top of the chest, over it.
And you are to put into the chest
The Testimony itself תא which I am giving to you.

Ex. 25:22 And I will meet with you
by appointment there.
And I will speak with you yourself תא
from above The Cover of Atonement,
from between the two cherubim
which are upon The Chest of The Testimony, everything itself תא which I direct you yourself תא
for the sake of the children of Yisra'el.

Ex. 25:23 And you are to make
a table of acacia wood,
two cubits long, a cubit wide,
and a cubit and a half high.
Ex. 25:24 And you are to overlay it itself תא
with pure gold.
And you are to make a border of gold all around.
Ex. 25:25 And you are to make for it a rim,
a hand breadth all around.
And you are to make a gold moulding
for the rim all around.
Ex. 25:26 And you are to make for it
four rings of gold.
And you are to put the rings themselves תא
on the four corners which are at its four feet.
Ex. 25:27 Beside the border are the rings to be,
as holders for the sticks
to carry the table itself תא.
Ex. 25:28 And you are to make
the sticks themselves תא of acacia wood.
And you are to overlay
they themselves תא with gold.
And the table itself תא
will be carried with them.

Ex. 25:29 And you are to make its bowls,
and its ladles, and its jars, and its pitchers
which are for pouring from them.
Make they themselves תא of pure gold.

Ex. 25:30 And you are to put on the table
The Bread of The Presence
before My face continually.
[The phrase "Bread of The Presence" is literally 'bread before My face'.
It is to be kept 'before My face' continually.](#)

[While this is typically called the 'shewbread'
the term is very misleading.
It gives no sense that it is to be before the presence of YAHWEH Himself.](#)

Ex. 25:31 And you are to make
a menorah of pure gold.
The menorah is to be made of hammered work.
Its stem and its shaft, its cups,
its ornamental knobs and its blossoms
are to exist from it.
[The term, menorah, has been left here
as a transliteration of the Hebrew term.
Most people now understand what a menorah is,
whereas a 'lampstand' has less relevance today,
even though they mean the same thing.](#)

Ex. 25:32 And six stems are to come out of its sides,
three stems of the menorah out of one side,
and three stems of the menorah out of the other side,
Ex. 25:33 three almond shaped cups on one stem,
with knobs and blossoms,
and three almond-shaped cups on the other stem
with knobs and blossoms:
the same for the six stems

coming out of the menorah.

Ex. 25:34 And on the menorah itself תא,

four almond-shaped cups

with knobs and blossoms,

Ex. 25:35 and a knob beneath two stems, from it,

a knob beneath two stems, from it,

and a knob beneath two stems, from it,

according to the six stems

coming out of the menorah.

Ex. 25:36 Their knobs and their stems

are to be from it,

all of it of hammered work of pure gold.

Ex. 25:37 And you are to make its lamps themselves תא, seven.

And they are to elevate its lamps themselves תא.

And they will cause light opposite it,

before the face of it.

Ex. 25:38 And its tongs and its trays, of pure gold.

Ex. 25:39 It itself תא is to be made of a talent of undefiled gold,

all these implements themselves תא.

Ex. 25:40 Now watch and do

according to the model

which you yourself תא saw on the mountain!

Chapter 26

Ex. 26:1 And The Dwelling Place itself תא

you are to make with ten curtains

of twisted linen, and blue violet, and purple,

and maggot scarlet.

You are to make cherubim of skilled work,

they themselves תא.

Ex. 26:2 The length of one curtain

is twenty eight cubits,

and the width four cubits.

The curtain is of one measure,

one for all the curtains.

Ex. 26:3 Five curtains are to be joined

one to another,

and five curtains are to be joined

one to another.

Ex. 26:4 And you are to make loops of blue violet

at the one edge for a joint.

And you are to do the same

at the edge of the last curtain,

at the second joint.

Ex. 26:5 Fifty loops you are to make

on the first curtain

and fifty loops you are to make

on the edge of the curtain at the second joint for accepting the loops, one to another.

The Hebrew literally says

'a woman to her sister'.

This is apparently a common Hebraism.

It occurs several times here.

Ex. 26:6 And you are to make fifty clasps of gold.

And you are to join the curtains themselves תא,

one to another with the clasps.

And The Dwelling Place will be united.

Ex. 26:7 And you are to make

curtains of goats' hair

for a tent over The Dwelling Place.

Eleven curtains you are to make

they themselves תא.

Ex. 26:8 The length of each curtain, thirty cubits,

and the width, four cubits,

one measure for each of the eleven curtains.

Ex. 26:9 And you are to join the five curtains themselves תא separately, and the six curtains themselves תא separately. And you are to double over the sixth curtain at the front, in front of the tent.

Ex. 26:10 And you are to make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain, the last one, at the joint, and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain, the second curtain of the joint.
Ex. 26:11 And you are to make clasps of copper, fifty. And you are to put the clasps themselves תא into the loops.
And you are to join the tent itself תא.
And it is to be united.

Ex. 26:12 And the remnant, the excess of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, is to hang over the back of The Dwelling Place.
Ex. 26:13 And a cubit on one side and a cubit on the other side of what remains of the length of the curtains of the Tent is to hang over the sides of The Dwelling Place, on this side and on that side to cover it.

Ex. 26:14 And you are to make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of fine leather above that.

Ex. 26:15 And you are to make the boards themselves תא for The Dwelling Place of acacia wood, standing upright.
Ex. 26:16 Ten cubits, the length of a board, and a cubit and a half the width of the board, each one,
Ex. 26:17 two tenons for each board parallel one to another.
Thus you are to make all the boards of The Dwelling Place.

Ex. 26:18 And you are to make the boards themselves תא for The Dwelling Place, twenty boards for the side toward The Negev, southward.
Ex. 26:19 Forty sockets of silver you are to make under the twenty boards, two sockets under each board for its two tenons.

Ex. 26:20 And for the second side of The Dwelling Place, for the north side, twenty boards,
Ex. 26:21 and their forty sockets of silver, two sockets under one board, two sockets under another board.

Ex. 26:22 And for the end of The Dwelling Place, toward the sea, you are to make six boards.
Ex. 26:23 And two boards you are to make for the corners of The Dwelling Place, at the sides.

Ex. 26:24 And they are to be identical from the bottom.
And they are to be united at the top by the first ring.
Thus it is to be for both of them.
They are to exist as the two corners.

Ex. 26:25 And there are to be eight boards and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets, two sockets under the one board, and two sockets under the other board.

Ex. 26:26 And you are to make bars of acacia wood, five for the boards on one side of The Dwelling Place,

Ex. 26:27 and five bars for the boards on the other side of The Dwelling Place, and five bars for the boards of the side of the Dwelling Place, for the side toward the sea,

Ex. 26:28 and the bar for the center, in the middle of the boards, going through from end to end.

Ex. 26:29 And the boards themselves תא you are to overlay with gold.

And their rings themselves תא you are to make of gold

as holders for the bars.

And you are to overlay

the bars themselves תא with gold.

Ex. 26:30 And you are to erect

The Dwelling Place itself תא

according to its regulations,

which you were shown on the mountain.

Ex. 26:31 And you are to make a screen of blue violet, and purple, and maggot scarlet, and fine woven linen, the work of a skilled workman.

It itself תא is to be made with cherubim.

Ex. 26:32 And you are to put it itself תא

on the four columns of acacia, overlaying them with gold,

their clasps of gold,

upon four sockets of silver.

Ex. 26:33 And you are to put the screen itself תא under the clasps.

And you are to bring there,

within the screen,

The Chest of The Testimony itself תא.

And the screen will make a separation for you between The Set Apart Place and The Set Apart Set Apart Place.

The text literally says what is given here. It does not say "the most set apart place".

However, Hebraically, this would say something more like "The Extremely Set Apart Place." (or sacred place).

Ex. 26:34 And you are to put

The Cover of Atonement itself תא

upon The Chest of The Witness

in The Set Apart Set Apart Place.

Ex. 26:35 And you are to station the table itself תא outside the screen,

and the menorah itself תא opposite the table,

on the south side of The Dwelling Place.

And the table you are to put on the north side.

Ex. 26:36 And you are to make a covering for the door of the Tent of blue violet, and purple, and maggot scarlet, and fine linen, the work of an embroiderer.

Ex. 26:37 And you are to make for the covering five columns of acacia.

And you are to overlay they themselves תא with gold, their clasps of gold.

And you are to pour out five sockets of copper for them.

Chapter 27

Ex. 27:1 And you are to make
the slaughter site itself נח of acacia wood,
five cubits of length, and five cubits of width.

The slaughter site is to be square,
and three cubits its height.

Ex. 27:2 And you are to make its horns
on its four corners.

Its horns are from it.

And you are to overlay it itself נח with copper.

Ex. 27:3 And you are to make its pots for its fat, and its shovels,
and its bowls, and its forks, and its firepans.
You are to make them of copper.

The forks used are traditionally three-pronged meat hooks.
It's interesting that this is the implement held by 'the little red devil' that represents Lucifer.

Also, the word for copper is often translated as bronze.
Copper is the proper understanding,
and it is used in this text
for all instances of 'bronze'.
When you consider the issue of purity you'll understand that bronze is a 'polluted' material, not pure.
Copper is pure.
An impure metal would not be used in The Dwelling Place or in The Temple.

Ex. 27:4 And you are to make for it a grating,
a network of copper.

And you are to make on the network
four copper rings at its four corners.

Ex. 27:5 And you yourself נח are to put it under the rim of the slaughter site, beneath.

And the network is to be halfway up the slaughter site.

Ex. 27:6 And you are to make
sticks for the slaughter site, sticks of acacia wood.

And you are to overlay they themselves נח
with copper.

Ex. 27:7 And you are to put
the sticks themselves נח into the rings.

And the sticks are to be on the two sides of the slaughter site for carrying it itself נח.

Ex. 27:8 With hollow boards

you are to make it itself נח.

As it was shown to you yourself נח

on the mountain,

in that manner they are to make it.

Ex. 27:9 And you are to make the courtyard
of the Dwelling Place itself נח.

For the Negev side, southward,
hangings for the courtyard of fine woven linen,
one hundred cubits long for one side,

Ex. 27:10 and its columns, twenty,
and his sockets, twenty of copper,

hooks for the columns

and their binders of silver,

Ex. 27:11 and in the same manner

for the north side in length, hangings one hundred cubits long,

with its twenty columns,

and their sockets, twenty of copper,

and the hooks for the columns

and their binders of silver.

Ex. 27:12 And the width of the courtyard on the side of the sea, hangings of fifty cubits, their columns, ten and their sockets, ten.

Ex. 27:13 And the width of the courtyard on the eastward side, toward the sunrise, fifty cubits.

Ex. 27:14 And fifteen cubits, the hangings for a side, their columns three, and their sockets three.

27:15 And for the other side fifteen cubits, their columns three, and their sockets three.

Ex. 27:16 And for the gate of the courtyard, a screen, twenty cubits, of blue violet, and purple, and maggot scarlet, and fine woven linen, work of an embroiderer, its columns, four, and its sockets, four.

Ex. 27:17 All the columns around the courtyard attached with silver, their hooks of silver and their sockets of copper.

Ex. 27:18 The length of the courtyard, one hundred cubits, and the width, fifty like fifty, and the height five cubits, woven of fine linen, and its sockets of copper.

Ex. 27:19 For all the implements of The Dwelling Place for all its service, all its pegs, and all the pegs of the courtyard, copper.

Ex. 27:20 And you yourself תָּא, you are to instruct the children of Yisra'el themselves תָּא. And they are to bring to you oil, pure beaten olive oil for the light, for the light to ascend continually.

Ex. 27:21 In The Tent of Appointment, outside the screen which is in over The Testimony, Aharon and his sons are to arrange it itself תָּא from evening until morning before the face of YAHWEH, a rule forever to their generations for the sake of the children of Yisra'el themselves תָּא.

chuqqah - an appointment.
This is traditionally translated as 'a statute'.
Using that interpretation turns this into a fixed law, and many would claim it is so. However, that misses the concept of an appointment, in The Tent of Appointment (a term which is also perverted into 'tabernacle' or 'tent of meeting').

The festivals of Yisra'el are appointments with YAHWEH.

This same concept applies to everything that was done in The Tent of Appointment.

Chapter 28

Ex. 28:1 And you yourself תָּא, bring near Aharon himself תָּא, your brother, and his sons themselves תָּא, he himself תָּא from among the children of Yisra'el

to officiate as priest to Me,
Aharon, Nadab and Abihu, El'azar and Itamar,
the sons of Aharon.

Ex. 28:2 And you are to make set apart garments
for Aharon, your brother,
for honor and for beauty.

qodesh - a sacred place or thing.
Traditionally, holy, consecrated, dedicated, etc.
his word comes from qadash - to be clean.

The words are identical in form,
using the same letters.
Only the vowel pointings
that were assigned later
allow any distinction between them.

The concept of being set apart
has already been presented.
So has the concept of purity,
meaning to be undefiled.
Therefore, these items are to be undefiled,
not contaminated by the world.

beqed - a covering, i.e. clothing.
The concept of 'covering'
is extensive in Scripture.
In this instance these undefiled garments are to cover the humanness
of Aharon and his sons.
Their 'flesh' is not to be seen in the presence of YAHWEH.

Ex. 28:3 And you yourself תָּא,
you are to speak to all the wise of heart,
whom I have filled with a nature of wisdom.
And they are to make
the garments themselves תָּא of Aharon, to set him apart
for officiating as priest to Me.

Ex. 28:4 And these are the garments which they are to make,
a breastpiece,
and an ephod,
a robe,
a checkered tunic,
a turban,
and a waistband.

And they are to make
set apart garments for Aharon, your brother,
and for his sons,
for officiating as priest to Me.

Ex. 28:5 And they are to take the gold itself תָּא,
and the blue violet itself תָּא,
and the purple itself תָּא,
and the maggot scarlet itself תָּא,
and the fine linen itself תָּא.

Ex. 28:6 And they are to make the ephod itself תָּא
of gold, of blue violet, and of purple,
and of maggot scarlet, and of fine woven linen,
the work of a skilled workman.

Ex. 28:7 Two shoulder pieces are to be joined to it at its two edges, and it is to be joined.

28:8 And the strap of the ephod which is on it is to be of the same workmanship,
of gold, of blue violet, and purple,
and maggot scarlet, and fine woven linen.

Ex. 28:9 And you are to take
two shoham stones themselves תָּא.

And you are to engrave upon them
the names of the sons of Yisra'el, shoham - generally thought to be onyx,
but also thought to be beryl or chrysoprase.

Ex. 28:10 six of their names on the first stone, and the remaining six names themselves תא
on the other stone,
according to their birth order.
Ex. 28:11 With the work of a craftsman of stone,
engravings of a signet,
you are to engrave the two stones themselves תא
with the names of the sons of Yisra'el.
You are to surround they themselves תא
with braids of gold.
Ex. 28:12 And you are to put
the two stones themselves תא
on the shoulder pieces of the ephod,
memorial stones for the sons of Yisra'el.

And Aharon is to carry their names themselves תא
before the face of YAHWEH
on his two shoulders
for the sake of a memorial.

Ex. 28:13 And you are to make braids of gold.
Ex. 28:14 And two chains of pure gold cords
you are to make for they themselves תא
of braided work.
And you are to put
the braided chains themselves תא
into the settings.

Ex. 28:15 And you are to make
a breastpiece of judgment,
thoughtful work, like the work of the ephod.
And you are to make it of gold,
of blue violet, and purple,
and maggot scarlet,
and fine woven linen, it itself תא.
Ex. 28:16 Square it is to be, doubled,
a span its length and a span its width.

*A span was considered to be the spread of one's hand,
approximately six inches.*

*Four square (squared and doubled).
There is another reference to foursquare
in the book of Revelation.
It is in reference to the Holy City,
New Jerusalem. (Rev 21:16)*

Ex. 28:17 And you are to fill it with settings of stones,
four rows of stones,
a row of a ruby, a topaz, and an emerald,
the first row,
Ex. 28:18 and the second row,
a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond;
Ex. 28:19 and the third row,
a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;
Ex. 28:20 and the fourth row,
a beryl, and a shoham, and a jasper.
Braidings of gold are to be their settings.

Ex. 28:21 And the stones are to be according to the names of the sons of Yisra'el, twelve, by their names,
engravings of a signet,
one name upon each,
according to the twelve tribes.

Ex. 28:22 And you are to make
upon the breastpiece braided chains of corded work of pure gold.

Ex. 28:23 And you are to make upon the breastpiece two rings of gold. And you are to put the two rings themselves תא on the two ends of the breastpiece.

Ex. 28:24 And you are to put the two cords of gold themselves תא into the two rings at the ends of the breastpiece.

Ex. 28:25 And the two ends themselves תא of the two cords you are to put on the two settings. And you are to put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, toward the front.

Ex. 28:26 And you are to make two rings of gold. And you are to put they themselves תא on the two ends of the breastpiece, on the edge of it which is on the inner side of the ephod.

Ex. 28:27 And you are to make two rings of gold. And you are to put they themselves תא on the two shoulder pieces, underneath the ephod, toward the front of it, close to the seam, above the strap of the ephod.

Ex. 28:28 And they are to tie the breastpiece by means of its rings to the rings of the ephod using a blue violet cord, so that it is above the waistband of the ephod. And the breastpiece is not to come loose from the ephod.

Ex. 28:29 And Aharon is to carry the names themselves תא of the sons of Yisra'el on the breastpiece of judgment, over his heart, as he goes into The Set Apart Place, for a memorial before the face of YAHWEH continually.

Ex. 28:30 And you are to put into the breastpiece of judgment the Urim itself תא and the Tummim itself תא.

And they are to be over the heart of Aharon as he goes in before the face of YAHWEH.

And Aharon is to carry the judgment itself תא of the children of Yisra'el over his heart before the face of YAHWEH continually.

There's much discussion about these items, but little is known about them. They are called "the lights and the perfections", based on their usage, not on what they were.

It's believed they were likely two objects, one thought to be light and the other dark, by which yes or no answers were determined (judgments made) in matters brought before YAHWEH for clarification.

Ex. 28:31 And you are to make the robe itself תא of the ephod all of blue violet.

Ex. 28:32 And there is to be a head opening in the center of it.

There is to be around the edge a woven edge like the opening in scaled armor. It is not to become torn.

Ex. 28:33 And you are to make on its hem pomegranates of blue violet,
and purple, and maggot scarlet,
all around its hem,
and bells of gold between them all around,
Ex. 28:34 a bell of gold and a pomegranate,
a bell of gold and a pomegranate,
on the hem of the robe all around.

Ex. 28:35 And it is to be upon Aharon
for officiating as priest.
And its sound will be heard at his going into The Set Apart Place
before the face of YAHWEH
and at his coming out.
And he will not be put to death.

Ex. 28:36 And you are to make
a plate of pure gold.
And you are to engrave on it
the engraving of a signet,
"SET APART TO YAHWEH."

Ex. 28:37 And you are to put it itself תא
on a blue violet cord.
And it is to be on the turban, on the front.
On the front of the turban it is to be.

Ex. 28:38 And it is to be upon the forehead of Aharon.
And Aharon is to carry the perversion itself תא
of the set apart things
which the children of Yisra'el set apart for all their set apart gifts.
And it is to be upon his forehead continually for the sake of being pleasing on their behalf
before the face of YAHWEH.

Ex. 28:39 And you are to weave the robe
of fine linen.
And you are to make the turban
of fine linen.
And you are to make the waistband
of embroidered work.

Ex. 28:40 And for Aharon's sons
you are to make tunics.
And you are to make for them waistbands.
And caps you are to make for them,
for splendor and for beauty.

Ex. 28:41 And you are to clothe
they themselves תא,
Aharon himself תא, your brother,
and his sons themselves תא
with he himself תא.
And you are to anoint they themselves תא.
And you are to fill their hands themselves תא.
And you are to set apart they themselves תא.
And they are to officiate as priests to Me.

One phrase needs to be clarified.

It is "to fill their hands".

This is traditionally translated
as 'ordain' or 'consecrate'.

This is apparently an idiom
for filling the hands,
which was actually done
with sacrificial offerings
at the time of their being set apart for priestly service.

It may also signify filling their hands with authority, since they are acting on YAHWEH's behalf before the people.

Ex. 28:42 And make for them linen underwear
for covering their nakedness.

From the waist to the thighs they are to be.
Ex. 28:43 And they are to be on Aharon
and on his sons
as they are going into The Tent of Appointment or as they are coming near the slaughter site
to attend at The Set Apart Place.

And they are not to bring perversion
and be put to death.

It is a rule forever to him
and to his seed after him.

Chapter 29

Ex. 29:1 And this is the word which you are to do to them to set apart they themselves תא
for the sake of officiating as priests to Me.

Take one bull, a young bull,
and two rams, whole,

tamiym means entire (literally or figuratively).
As a noun it means integrity or truth.
It's often translated as 'without blemish'.
It means something that is whole,
in the sense of not being deformed,
missing body parts, sick, etc.

Over the years
the concept of "perfect"
has become the focus,
hence the idea of 'unblemished'.

The gifts and sacrifices to be offered to YAHWEH were always to be the best of what one had.

Since He is the one Who gives us everything
He is rightfully entitled to ALL of it,
not merely part of it.

He does own it all.
Yet He with great kindness permits us to have all that we have
as a gift from Him,
and we, in return
are urged to offer our very best to Him
- in everything we do.

Ex. 29:2 and bread, unleavened, mixed with oil,
and thin cakes, unleavened, anointed with oil.
Of wheat flour

you are to make they themselves תא.

Ex. 29:3 And you are to put they themselves תא
in one basket.

And you are to bring near
they themselves תא in the basket, and the bull itself תא
and the two rams themselves תא.

Ex. 29:4 And Aharon himself תא
and his sons themselves תא
you are to bring near to the entrance
of The Tent of Appointment.

And you are to wash
they themselves תא with water.

Ex. 29:5 And you are to take
the garments themselves תא.
And you are to put on Aharon himself תא
the tunic itself תא,
and the robe of the ephod itself תא,
and the ephod itself תא,
and the breastpiece itself תא.
And you are to tie it to him
with the waistband of the ephod.

Ex. 29:6 And you are to put
the turban on his head.
And you are to put
the set apart sign of dedication itself תא
upon the turban.

Ex. 29:7 And you are to take
the anointing oil itself תא.
And you are to pour it on his head.
And you are to anoint he himself תא.

Ex. 29:8 And his sons themselves תא
you are to bring near.
And you are to put on them the tunics.
Ex. 29:9 And you are to tie they themselves תא
with waistbands, Aharon and his sons.
And you are to put the turbans upon them.

And the priesthood is to be theirs,
a rule forever.

And you are to fill the hands
of Aharon and his sons.

The literal sense of the terms is given.
The implication is filling the hands with authority and responsibility, and also with the gifts
of the assembly to YAHWEH.

This is traditionally translated as 'ordain'.
But few people really comprehend
the meaning of this term.
By using the literal sense
we can more accurately recognize the authority of the priests and the awesome responsibility
'placed in their hands'.

Ex. 29:10 And you are to bring near
the bull itself תא
before The Tent of Appointment.
And Aharon and his sons are to lean
their hands themselves תא
upon the head of the bull.
Ex. 29:11 And you are to slaughter
the bull itself תא
before the face of YAHWEH
at the entrance of The Tent of Appointment.

Ex. 29:12 And you are to take
of the blood of the bull.
And you are to put it on the horns of the slaughter site
with your finger.
And all the blood itself תא
you are to pour out
at the base of the altar.

Ex. 29:13 And you are to take all the fat itself תא,
the fat covering the inner parts themselves תא,
and the lobe of the liver itself תא,
and the two kidneys themselves תא
and the fat itself תא which is on them
and turn them into smoke
upon the slaughter site.

Ex. 29:14 But the flesh itself תא of the bull,
and its skin itself תא,
and its excrement itself תא
you are to burn with fire,
separate from the camp.
It is an offense offering.

chatta'ah means an offense.
Within the context of Scripture
every violation of the instruction of YAHWEH
is an offense.

It offends because it treats Him with disrespect, refusing to do what He has instructed you to do in order to please Him.

This is traditionally called "the sin offering".
To sin is to offend YAHWEH.

The Hebrew understanding of this offering has to do with the de-contamination (undefilement)
of the person or item to which it is connected.

This is difficult to grasp in English translations,
or for those who have no real understanding of these processes within the Hebrew culture.

Defilement was always an extremely important issue.
Anything that caused defilement
to the most sacred aspects of Hebrew life
- the Tent of Meeting, The Dwelling Place,
The Holiest Place, The Temple, etc.
- required this type of offering to "cleanse" (undefile) it.

Ex. 29:15 And you are to take one ram.
And Aharon and his sons are to lean
their hands themselves תא on the head of the ram.
Ex. 29:16 And you are to slaughter the ram itself תא.
And you are to take its blood itself תא.
And you are to sprinkle it
all around on the slaughter site.

Ex. 29:17 And the ram itself תא
you are to cut in pieces.
And you are to wash
its inner parts and its legs.
And you are to put them
upon its pieces and on its head.
Ex. 29:18 And you are to turn into smoke
the whole ram itself תא
upon the slaughter site.
It is an olah to YAHWEH, a pleasing aroma,
an offering by fire to YAHWEH.

Ex. 29:19 And you are to take
the second ram itself תא.
And Aharon and his sons are to lean
their hands themselves תא
upon the head of the ram.
Ex. 29:20 And you are to slaughter
the ram itself תא.
And you are to take from its blood.
And you are to put it on the tip
of the right ear of Aharon
and on the tip of the right ear of his sons,
and upon the thumb of their right hand
and on the big toe of their right foot.

And you are to sprinkle the blood itself תא
all around on the slaughter site.

Ex. 29:21 And you are to take
from the blood that is on the slaughter site
and from the anointing oil.
And you are to sprinkle it on Aharon
and on his garments, on his sons,
and on the garments of his sons,
he himself תא.
And he and his garments will be set apart,
and his sons, and the garments of his sons,
he himself תא.

Ex. 29:22 And you are to take
the fat from the ram,
and the fat tail,
and the fat itself תא

covering the inner parts themselves תא,
and the lobe of the liver itself תא,
and the two kidneys themselves תא
and the fat itself תא that is on them,
and the right thigh itself תא

because the ram is for his installation,
Some translate this as consecration,
some as ordination.
However, the term means
an installation or setting.
Only when you apply
the religious traditions to this can you end up with ordination or consecration,
for which there are other specific Hebrew terms.

To use the same "translation" here that belongs with different words is to cause confusion.
It's not necessary.
It's also not proper translation.

Ex. 29:23 and one loaf of bread,
and one cake of oiled bread,
and one thin cake
from the basket of the unleavened bread
that is before the face of YAHWEH.

Ex. 29:24 And you are to place all of these in the hands of Aharon
and in the hands of his sons.
And you are to wave they themselves תא,
a lifted presentation before the face of YAHWEH.

What's typically called the 'wave offering'
involved a presentation of the items
before YAHWEH
in a lifting and withdrawing motion.
It's not really a 'waving',
but a lifting in presentation
as a means of thanking YAHWEH
for this gift.

Ex. 29:25 And you are to take they themselves תא
from their hands.
And you are to turn them into smoke upon
the slaughter site, upon the olah,
as a sweet aroma before the face of YAHWEH.
It is an offering by fire to YAHWEH.

Ex. 29:26 And you are to take the breast itself תא
from the ram which was for Aharon's installation,
and present it by lifting,
a lifted offering before the face of YAHWEH.
And it is to be a portion for you.

Ex. 29:27 And you are to set apart
the breast itself תא of the lifted presentation and the thigh itself תא
of the contribution which is lifted from that which is for Aharon
and from that which is for his sons.

Ex. 29:28 And it is to be for Aharon and his sons,
an appointment forever
from the children of Yisra'el themselves תא
because it is a gift.

And it is to be a gift
from the children of Yisra'el themselves תא
from their slaughterings of shelem, their gifts to YAHWEH.

Ex. 29:29 And the set apart garments of Aharon
are to be for his sons after him,
to be anointed in them
and to have their hands themselves תא filled by means of them.

Once again we see the concept of 'having the hands filled'. This time it is in regard to having one of the sons of Aharon take his place as The Great Priest.

Again, the concept is that of authority, which is represented by one's hands. The authority, and the responsibility of the office, is "placed in their hands", meaning it is placed within their authority.

Ex. 29:30 Seven days the priest from his sons who is in his place is to be clothed in them as he comes to The Tent of Appointment to attend in The Set Apart Place.

Ex. 29:31 And the ram of installation itself תא you are to take.

And you are to boil its flesh itself תא in a set apart place.

Ex. 29:32 And Aharon and his sons are to eat the flesh itself תא of the ram and the bread itself תא which is in the basket by the door of The Tent of Appointment.

Ex. 29:33 And they are to eat those themselves תא with which atonement has been made for the sake of filling their hands themselves תא for the sake of setting apart they themselves תא.

And a stranger is not to eat them. Indeed, they are set apart.

Ex. 29:34 And if there remains flesh from the installations or from the bread until the morning, then you are to burn the remainder itself תא in fire. It is not to be eaten because it is set apart.

Ex. 29:35 And you are to do to Aharon and his sons in this manner, according to everything that I have directed you yourself תא.

Seven days you are to fill their hands.

Ex. 29:36 And a bull as an offense offering you are to prepare for each day for the sake of the atonements.

And you are to offer the offense offering upon the slaughter site as your atonement upon it. And you are to anoint it itself תא to set it apart.

Because of the terms used the Hebrew in this verse is difficult to translate effectively.

What's given appears to reasonably reflect what's intended, but please understand that it may not be exactly what the Hebrews might conceive as taking place.

For seven days the process of installation into the office of the priesthood was to occur. There were multiple 'offerings' presented, each with the intent of purifying, undefiling (through making atonements - plural) for those involved.

The slaughter site itself was also atoned for, anointed, and consecrated.

Ex. 29:37 Seven days you are to make atonement upon the slaughter site.

And you are to set apart it itself תא.

And the slaughter site is to be set apart, set apart.

Whatever touches the altar is set apart.

Ex. 29:38 And this is what you are to prepare upon the slaughter site, lambs of the first year,
two, each day, continually.

Ex. 29:39 The first lamb itself תא
you are to prepare in the morning, and the other lamb itself תא
you are to prepare between the evenings,
Ex. 29:40 and one tenth measure of flour
mixed with beaten oil, one fourth of a hin,
and a drink offering,
one fourth hin of wine for the first lamb.

Ex. 29:41 And the other lamb itself תא
you are to prepare between the evenings
like the morning portion.
And likewise its drink offering
you are to prepare for it for the sake of a sweet aroma by fire to YAHWEH, Ex. 29:42 a continual olah for your generations
at the entrance to The Tent of Appointment,
before the face of YAHWEH,
where I will meet with you there,
by appointment,
to speak to you there.

Ex. 29:43 And there I will meet by appointment
with the children of Yisra'el.
And it will be set apart by My glory.

The concept is more than simply
'meet with you'.

The terms mean to meet by appointment.
These are pre-arranged meetings,
not casual, spur-of-the-moment events.

Throughout Scripture, beginning in Genesis 1,
the concept of appointed times is presented to us.
Yet because of a failure
to convey this concept
into the English translations
we miss this factor.
The Festivals Yisra'elites were to maintain were identified as "YAHWEH's appointed times".

Each meeting has a specific purpose
from YAHWEH's perspective.

It's vital that we comprehend this reality
so we can more fully appreciate what He has established for us.

Ex. 29:44 And I will set apart
The Tent of Appointment itself תא
and the slaughter site itself תא.

And Aharon himself תא
and his sons themselves תא
I will set apart
to officiate as priests to Me.

We are reminded by these last verses that ALL of the fore-going instructions are being given directly to Moshe
by YAHWEH Himself.

It is His instruction.
And He has prepared all of this as a means of establishing meeting times between Himself and His chosen people.

Ex. 29:45 And I will stay permanently
in the midst of the children of Yisra'el.

And I will be for them their Elohim.

Ex. 29:46 And they will know that
I Myself am YAHWEH, their Elohim,
Who has brought out they themselves אנ
from the land of Mitsraim
for the sake of dwelling in the midst of them.

I Myself am YAHWEH, their Elohim!

Chapter 30

Ex. 30:1 And you are to make an incense table,
a place for burning incense.

You are to make it itself אנ of acacia wood,

Note: This is a unique piece.

It's not truly an "altar",
which is a place for the sacrifice of animals,
a slaughter site.

The language used is specific to this piece,
and very different from what are typically called "altars".

More appropriately,
this should be called the "table of incense"
since it is effectively built much like the table
for the unleavened bread.

Perhaps one might claim that incense is being "sacrificed here" because it is burned on this table.
but that seems to be a bit of a stretch of terminology.

Ex. 30:2 a cubit long and a cubit wide.
It is to be square and its height two cubits,
its horns from it.

Ex. 30:3 And you are to overlay it itself אנ
with pure gold,
its top itself אנ
and its sides themselves אנ, all around,
and its horns themselves אנ.

And you are to make for it
a rim of gold all around.

Ex. 30:4 And two gold rings you are to make for it beneath the rim on two edges of it.

You are to make them on its two sides.
And they are to be holders for the sticks
with which to carry it itself אנ.

Ex. 30:5 And you are to make
the sticks themselves אנ of acacia wood.

And you are to overlay
they themselves אנ with gold.

Ex. 30:6 And you are to put it itself אנ
before the screen that is in front of
The Chest of The Testimony,
in front of The Cover of Atonement
that is on The Testimony,
where I will meet by appointment with you.

Ex. 30:7 And Aharon is to turn into smoke
sweet incense upon it in the morning.

In the morning as he is tending
the lamps themselves אנ
he is to turn incense into smoke upon it.

Ex. 30:8 And as Aharon is lighting
the lamps themselves אנ
between the evenings
he is to turn incense into smoke upon it,

a continual incense
before the face of YAHWEH
for your generations.

Ex. 30:9 You are not to cause foreign incense
to rise upon it,
or an olah,
or a contribution,
and no drink offering
is to be poured out on it.

The term for 'foreign'
is not the normal term
for stranger or foreigner.
It refers to "other formulas" of incense.
Only one specific formula was permitted to be used in the set apart Dwelling Place.

Ex. 30:10 And Aharon is to make atonement upon its horns once in a year from the blood of the offense offering.
The atonement he is to make upon it once in a year for your generations.
Set apart, set apart it is to YAHWEH.”

Ex. 30:11 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe, saying,
Ex. 30:12 “When you take up the head count itself נח
of the children of Yisra’el
for the sake of numbering them then each one is to give an atonement for his life to YAHWEH,
as you number they themselves נח.
Then there will be no infliction of disease on them
as you number they themselves נח.

Ex. 30:13 This is to be given by everyone passing over among those being numbered,
half a shekel according to the shekel
of The Set Apart Place,
twenty gerahs being a shekel.
The half shekel is a gift to YAHWEH.

This 'price' was placed on the head,
so-to-speak,
of every person who was accounted for
in a head count.

While this was often done
to determine the size of the armed forces,
it was also done at other times
to determine the size of the population of Yisra’el.

The half shekel price is considered to be a ransom
for the person so counted.
It was 'paid' as a gift to YAHWEH.
In times of war it served as an atonement
for one who had taken the life of another.

Also to be noted is the "passing over".
The atonement signifies such an event
- a passing over of the debt owed
by the person involved.

Ex. 30:14 All those passing over to be numbered from twenty years old and above
are to give a gift to YAHWEH.

Ex. 30:15 The rich is not to give more and the poor is not to give less than half a shekel
when you are giving the gift itself נח
to YAHWEH
for the sake of making atonement for your lives.

Ex. 30:16 And you are to take
the atonement silver itself תא
from the children of Yisra'el.
And you are to give it itself תא
for the work of The Tent of Appointment.
And it is to be for the children of Yisra'el
as a memorial before the face of YAHWEH
for the sake of making atonement
on behalf of your lives.”

Ex. 30:17 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe, saying,
Ex. 30:18 "And you are to make a basin of copper,
and a base of copper for washing.
And you are to put it itself תא
between The Tent of Appointment
and the slaughter site.
And you are to put water in there.
Ex. 30:19 And Aharon and his sons are to wash from it their hands themselves תא
and their feet themselves תא.

Ex. 30:20 As they are going into
The Tent of Appointment
they are to wash with water.
Then they will not die.

Also, as they come near the slaughter site
to officiate as priest,
to turn into smoke
offerings by fire to YAHWEH,
Ex. 30:21 then they are to wash
their hands and their feet.
Then they will not be put to death.

And it is to be for them
an appointment forever
to him and to his seed
for their generations.”

Ex. 30:22 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Ex. 30:23 “And you yourself תא,
take for yourself choice fragrances,
free flowing myrrh, five hundred shekels,
and fragrant cinnamon,
half of it, two hundred and fifty,
and fragrant cane, two hundred and fifty Ex. 30:24 and cassia, five hundred
according to the shekel
of The Set Apart Place,
and olive oil, a hin.

Ex. 30:25 And you are to make from it itself תא
a set apart oil of anointing,
an aromatic compound,
the work of a perfumer.
It is to be set apart for anointing.

Ex. 30:26 And you are to anoint with it
The Tent of Appointment itself תא
and The Chest of The Testimony itself תא,
Ex. 30:27 and the table itself תא
and all its utensils themselves תא,
and the menorah itself תא
and its utensils themselves תא,
and the table of incense itself תא,
30:28 and the slaughter site of the olah itself תא
and all its utensils themselves תא,
and the basin itself תא
and its base itself תא.
Ex. 30:29 And you are to set apart
they themselves תא.
And they are to be set apart, set apart.
Whatever touches them becomes set apart.

Ex. 30:30 And Aharon himself אָהָרֹן
and his sons themselves אֲשֶׁר
you are to anoint.
And you are to set apart they themselves אֲשֶׁר
for the sake of officiating as priests to Me.

Ex. 30:31 And to the children of Yisra'el
you are to speak saying,
'This set apart oil for anointing
is to exist for Me for your generations.
Ex. 30:32 Upon the flesh of a human being
it is not to be smeared.
And with composition
none is to be made like it.
It is set apart.
it is set apart for you.

Ex. 30:33 A man who compounds any like it,
and whoever puts any of it on a foreigner
will even be cut off from his people.' "

Ex. 30:34 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Take for yourself fragrant spices,
stacte and onycha
and galbanum fragrances,
and pure frankincense.
Each is to be in equal amounts.
Ex. 30:35 And you are to make of this itself אֲשֶׁר incense, an aromatic compound,
the work of a perfumer,
salted, pure, set apart.

Ex. 30:36 And you are to beat some of it very fine.
And you are to put some of it
in front of The Testimony
in The Tent of Appointment
where I will meet with you there
by appointment.
It is set apart, set apart for you.

Ex. 30:37 And the incense which you make,
according to its composition,
you are not to make for yourselves.
It is to be set apart for you, for YAHWEH.

30:38 Whoever makes any like it to smell it,
he will be cut off from his people."

Chapter 31

Ex. 31:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Ex. 31:2 "See, I have called by name
Betzal'el, son of Uri,
son of Hur, of the tribe of Yahudah.

Betzal'el means in the shadow of El.

Uri means my light.

Hur means white linen.

Ex. 31:3 And I have filled he himself אֲשֶׁר
with The Divine Nature of The Elohim,
with wisdom,
and with intelligence,
and with knowledge,
and with total stewardship

ruach - wind, by resemblance breath.

Hebraically this represents the divine nature.

mla'kah - properly, deputyship, ministry;
generally employment or work.

It's often translated as workmanship,

but it seems to imply
something more than that.

Deputyship means acting on someone else's behalf,
not your own.

That implies stewardship,
careful management,
of the activities involved.

Ex. 31:4 for the sake of designing devices,
in gold, and in silver, and in copper, 31:5 and in cutting stones for setting,
and in carving wood,
for working with total stewardship.

Ex. 31:6 And I Myself, behold!
I have given to he himself תא,
Oholiab himself תא,
son of Ahisamak of the tribe of Dan.
And into the heart of each wise hearted one
I have given wisdom.
And they are to make everything itself תא
that I have given to you as instruction,
Oholiab means tent of the father.
Ahisamak means brother of support.

Ex. 31:7 The Tent of Appointment itself תא,
and The Chest of The Testimony itself תא,
and The Cover of Atonement itself תא
that is on it,
and all the utensils themselves תא
of The Dwelling,

Ex. 31:8 and the table itself תא,
and its utensils themselves תא,
and the undefiled menorah itself תא
with all its utensils themselves תא,
and the table of incense itself תא,

Ex. 31:9 and the slaughter site of olah itself תא
with all its utensils themselves תא,
and the basin itself תא
and its base itself תא,

Ex. 31:10 and the woven garments themselves תא,
and the set apart garments themselves תא
for Aharon the priest,
and the garments themselves תא of his sons
for officiating as priests.

Ex. 31:11 and the oil of anointing itself תא
and the sweet incense itself תא
for The Set Apart Place.

According to all that I have instructed you
they are to do.”

Ex. 31:12 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Ex. 31:13 “And you yourself תא,
speak to the children of Yisra'el saying,
'Assuredly, My Sabbaths themselves תא
you are to protect.

Indeed, it is a sign between Me and you
for your generations,
for the sake of knowing
that I Myself, YAHWEH,
am setting you apart.

Ex. 31:14 And you are to protect
The Sabbath itself תא.
Indeed, it is set apart for your sakes.

One defiling it is to be put to death,
put to death!

When anyone is doing work on it then his life is to be cut off
from among his people.

Ex. 31:15 Six days your employment is to be done.
But on the seventh day is a Special Sabbath,
set apart to YAHWEH.

Everyone doing employment
on The Sabbath Day
it to be put to death,
put to death!

shabbat shabbathown

is the phrase used here.
This is very important.
Literally it means an intermission of rest.

For the Yisra'elites it is a Special Sabbath.
This is to occur every Sabbath Day.
No normal forms of 'employment'
are to be conducted.

Some have taken this to extremes, suggesting no "effort" of any kind can be made on The Sabbath.
That this is not the case
one has only to look at the actions
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
during His earthly ministry.

His actions and His words plainly teach that doing what is good and right for the sake of others
is perfectly permissible on The Sabbath Day.

Indeed, these things are
"the works of YAHWEH",
which are legitimate for one to do
on The Sabbath Day.
Otherwise, The Messiah Himself
would not have done them.

It is one's "selfish employment",
work done for one's own benefit,
that is prohibited.

Ex. 31:16 And the children of Yisra'el
are to protect The Sabbath itself nx,
for the sake of doing The Sabbath itself nx
for their generations as an eternal covenant
Ex. 31:17 between Me and the Children of Yisra'el

it is a sign to eternity.

Indeed, for six days YAHWEH made the skies themselves nx
and the earth itself nx.
But on the seventh day
He rested and He breathed.' ”

shabath - to repose, i.e. desist from exertion.
It is from this word that both shabbath,
The Sabbath Day,
and shabbathown,
a special holiday of rest,
are derived.

naphash - to breathe.
Some want to transform this into "be refreshed".
We might put it in the vernacular of today
and say, 'catch one's breath'.
In a very real sense that's what we do when we pause from our labors to rest.

MOST IMPORTANTLY:
These verses clearly establish the significance of The Sabbath Day in the eyes of YAHWEH Himself.

Twice He repeats the double injunction that one violating this instruction was to be put to death.

It is a most egregious offense to YAHWEH.
Violation brings the penalty of death.
There is no greater penalty.

All of this is set within the context of an eternal covenant with YAHWEH
to protect and to DO The Sabbath Day (meaning to act out, to perform)
according to His instructions.
It is a sign forever
between Yisra'el and YAHWEH.

And if you declare yourself
to be one who "follows YAHWEH", who "believes in YAHWEH",
then you are "grafted into" the vine of Yisra'el,
and you have become
"the seed of Abraham" along with them.

In so doing you accept the responsibility to protect The Sabbath also.

To disregard it is to disrespect YAHWEH.
It is rebellion!

Ex. 31:18 And He gave to Moshe
as He ended speaking with he himself אָנְךָ on Mount Sinai
two tables of The Testimony, tables of stone,
engraved by the finger of The Elohim.
YAHWEH engraved the tables of stone Himself.
Moshe did not engrave them.
This point is often overlooked.
It should not be ingored.

It is His Word, not Moshe's.

Many have tried to make the words belong to Moshe, especially within the Yisra'elite community.
Their loyalty then belongs to Moshe,
not to YAHWEH.
That's a very huge mistake.

Chapter 32

Ex. 32:1 And the people observed that Moshe was delayed
in coming down from the mountain.
And the people assembled before Aharon.
And they said to him, "Get up!
Make for us gods which will go before us
because this Moshe,
the man who brought us up
from the land of Mitsraim,
we do not know what has become of him!"

Ex. 32:2 And Aharon said to them,
"Break off the golden earrings
which are in the ears of your wives,
of your sons, and of your daughters,
and bring them to me."

Ex. 32:3 And all the people broke off
the golden earrings themselves אָנְכֶם
which were in their ears.

And they brought them to Aharon.

Ex. 32:4 And he took this from their hand.

And he formed it itself אָנְכֶם
with an engraving tool.

And he made a molten calf.

And they said, "These are your gods, Yisra'el,
that brought you out from the land of Mitsraim!"

It's believed the "gods" Aharon made did not involve one calf, but two.
This apparently was similar to what they had seen in Mitsraim,
a two-headed calf, or something similar.

Because it was familiar to them
they readily accepted this as their "elohim"
- to their great shame -
after what they had experienced to this point.

Ex. 32:5 And Aharon observed.
And he built a slaughter site in front of it.

And Aharon called out.

And he said,

"Tomorrow is a festival to YAHWEH."

Ex. 32:6 And they rose up early on the next day.
And they sent olahs up in smoke.
And they brought shelem offerings.

And the people sat down to eat and drink.
And they rose up to make sport.

olot is the plural of olah.
This is normally translated as 'burnt offerings',
but it fails to convey fully the concept of an olah,
which is a sacrifice of complete surrender.

They are now doing this
to a golden calf image,
and not to YAHWEH Himself,
Who is The Living Elohim!

The shelem offerings
were "thanksgiving" offerings, and they were eaten by the people along with the priests in what's understood to be a 'fellowship meal'.

tsachaq means to laugh outright.
But it's also used to refer to sexual play (make sport),
which was a duplication of the sexual activities
that formed the worship of idols.

It's the term used by Pharaoh's wife to accuse Yoseph
of trying to sexually assault her.

Take note of the fact the children of Yisra'el
did this early the next morning.
They wasted no time in abandoning YAHWEH, replacing Him with a molten idol.
This is called apostasy!

Ex. 32:7 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Go down, because your people are ruined whom you brought out
from the land of Mitsraim!

shachath - to decay, to ruin.
This is often translated as 'corrupted'.
It refers to defiling themselves.

It's the very same term YAHWEH used in regard to the people who were destroyed by the flood of Noah.

Ex. 32:8 They have turned aside quickly
from the way which I instructed them.

They have made themselves a molten calf.
And they have prostrated themselves to it.
And they have sacrificed to it.
And they have said,
'This is your god, Yisra'el,
who brought you out
from the land of Mitsraim!' "

Ex. 32:9 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"I have seen this people themselves תא.
And behold!

It is a stiff-necked people!

Ex. 32:10 And now cease with Me!
And My hot anger will flare against them.
And I will terminate them.
And I will make for you yourself תא
a great nation."

kalah - to end.
YAHWEH is not merely going to 'consume' or 'destroy' them,
He is going to make a complete end of them.

Then, for Moshe himself,
He will create a great nation.
But notice Moshe's humble response.

Ex. 32:11 But Moshe soothed the face itself נא
of YAHWEH, his Elohim.

And he said,

“YAHWEH, why does Your anger flare against Your people whom You have brought out
of the land of Mitsraim
by great force and with a powerful hand?

chalah - to be rubbed or worn.
The term is used in this instance
as an identificaion of endearment.
It represents the stroking of the face of one loved to calm and soothe them.

Ex. 32:12 Why should the Mitsraites speak saying,
‘Into mischief He brought them out, for the sake of killing they themselves נא
on the mountains
and for the sake of eliminating them from the face of the soil’?

Turn from the flaring of Your anger!
And have regret
over the harm toward Your people.

Ex. 32:13 Remember Abraham, Yitzhak,
and Yisra’el,
Your servants,
to whom You swore by Yourself.
And You said to them,
‘I will increase your seed itself נא
like the stars of the skies.
And all this land of which I have spoken
I will give to your seed.
And they will inherit it forever.’ ”

Ex. 32:14 And YAHWEH had regret over the harm which He had said
He would do to His people.

This is a passage we would do well
to consider extremely carefully.
Moshe, one person,
caused YAHWEH Himself to turn from His fierce anger
by interceding on behalf of the children of Yisra’el.
This is a phenomenal lesson!

Some might refer to this
as "standing in the gap" for the sake of others.

Moshe confronted The Elohim of all Creation
- directly, and humbly.
And his intercession spared 3-4 million people!

Ex. 32:15 And Moshe turned.
And he went down from the mountain.
And the two tablets of The Testimony
were in his hand,
the tablets being engraved
on both sides of them,
being engraved on this one and on that one.

The tables were written on both sides.
This meant that the writing
could not be “sealed” from the eyes of another.
When things were written on one side only (on a scroll)
it could be sealed
and no one could know what was in it but the party or parties who wrote it!

Ex. 32:16 And the tablets,
they were the work of The Elohim.
And the writing,
it was the writing of The Elohim,
engraved upon the tablets.

Ex. 32:17 And Yahoshua heard the sound itself תא
of the people as they shouted.
And he said to Moshe,
“A sound of battle is in the camp.”
Ex. 32:18 But he said,
“It is not the sound of the responding of force, nor is it the sound of the crying out in defeat,
but it is the sound of responding with singing that I hear.”

Ex. 32:19 And it was as he came near to the camp.
And he saw the calf itself תא,
and the dancing.
And Moshe’s anger flared.
And he threw down from his hands
the tablets themselves תא.
And he broke they themselves תא
at the foot of the mountain.

Moshe was not merely angry here.
His act is symbolic.
He is proclaiming the fact that Israel has broken
The Covenant of YAHWEH
by their actions,
which YAHWEH had just SPOKEN to them,
and which they had AGREED TO!
They were therefore guilty of great offense.

Ex. 32:20 And he took the calf itself תא
which they had made.
And he burned it with fire.
And he ground it until it was powder.
And he spread it over the face of the water.
And he caused
the children of Yisra’el themselves תא
to drink it.

Ex. 32:21 And Moshe said to Aharon,
“What did this people do to you that you have brought upon it a great offense?”
Ex. 32:22 And Aharon said,
“Do not let the hot anger of my master flare.
You yourself תא know the people itself תא,
that it is harmful.

The reference to the people is singular.
They are referred to as a single unit.
This is true in many instances in the text,
but for a more clear understanding of the text
it’s often translated as if it were plural.

Ex. 32:23 And they said to me, ‘Make us gods which will go before us
because this Moshe,
the man who brought us
out of the land of Mitsraim,
we do not know what has become of him.’
Ex. 32:24 And I said to them,
‘Whoever has gold, break it off.’
And they gave it to me.
And I threw it into the fire.
And this calf came out.”

Ex. 32:25 And Moshe observed
the people themselves תא,
that they were set free
because Aharon had set them free to scornful whispering among their enemies.

Ex. 32:26 And Moshe stood at the entrance of the camp.
And he said, “Whoever is for YAHWEH, to me!”
And all the sons of Levi gathered to him.

Moshe “took a stand”!
And he invited all who were willing to join him in that stand.
Only the tribe of Levi responded to this call to integrity!
They therefore became the priestly tribe
from that day forward!

Only those WILLING to respond and act on YAHWEH's behalf are fit to be priests before Him!

Ex. 32:27 And he said to them,
“Thus says YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el, ‘Put each man his sword upon his side.
Pass over and back
from gate to gate in the camp.
And kill each one his brother himself nx,
and each one his neighbor himself nx,
and each one his near relative himself nx.’ ”

Ex. 32:28 And the sons of Levi did
according to the word of Moshe.
And about three thousand men of the people fell that day.

Ex. 32:29 And Moshe said,
“Your hands are filled today for YAHWEH
because each one has been against his son
and against his brother.
And a blessing is given to you today.”
Once again we see the filling of the hands
as a sign of granting authority.
This time the Levites, as a group,
are granted this position
among the children of Yisra'el.
They will play a pivotal role in the community
from this day forward.

Ex. 32:30 And it was on the next day.
And Moshe said to the people,
“You yourselves nx,
you have offended a great offense.
But now I am going up to YAHWEH.
Perhaps I can make an atonement
on behalf of your offense.”

Ex. 32:31 And Moshe returned to YAHWEH.
And he said,
“Alas now,
these people have offended a great offense!
And they have made for themselves gods of gold!

Ex. 32:32 And now,
if You would, bear their offense...
But if not, please erase me from Your book which You have written.”

Moshe intercedes for the people, going so far as to ask
that if YAHWEH will not pardon their offense, then Moshe's name would be erased
from the book YAHWEH has written.

It's assumed this is The Book of Life
referred to later in Scripture.
This is an extremely bold request from one who has been offended almost as much as YAHWEH Himself.

Ex. 32:33 And YAHWEH said to Moshe, “Whoever has offended against Me,
him I will erase from My book.
YAHWEH's response is clear.
It is the one who offends against Him
that will be erased from the book.

This is a clear indication of who will spend eternity with YAHWEH and who will not.

Anyone who's offense
is "not covered" by the Blood of The Lamb will not be listed in The Book of Life.

Ex. 32:34 And now go!
Lead the people themselves תא
to the place of which I have spoken to you!
Behold!
My Messenger is going on your behalf before your face.

And in the day of My taking account of them,
indeed, I will take account of their offense!"
Perhaps it's not crystal clear,
but Moshe has just made atonement
for the children of Yisra'el - for now.

They will be held accountable
at the final judgment,
but YAHWEH has just told Moshe to go,
lead the people,
meaning they will not be obliterated - for now.

Ex. 32:35 And YAHWEH struck
the people themselves תא
on account of their having made the calf itself תא, which Aharon had made.

Chapter 33

Ex. 33:1 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Go!

Go up from here, you yourself תא,
and the people whom you have brought out
from the land of Mitsraim
to the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Yitzhak, and to Ya'akov, saying,
'To your seed I will give it.',
to a land flowing with milk and honey.

The last two lines
have been moved up from verse 3.
They do not fit there, but they do fit here.
This is apparently an editorial or copyist error.

Ex. 33:2 And I will send a messenger before you.
And I will drive out
the Kena'anite themselves תא,
and the Amorite,
and the Hittite,
and the Perizzite,
and the Hivvite,
and the Yebusite.

Ex. 33:3 Indeed,
I am not going up in your midst because you yourselves תא
are a stiff necked people,
lest I terminate you on the way."
This statement by YAHWEH
marks an important shift
in His relationship with the Yisra'elites.

The Tent of Appointment
has been in the midst of the camp.
In the following portion of the text
we see it moved outside the camp.

YAHWEH is still present,
but He is not dwelling
in the midst of the camp as before.

Ex. 33:4 And the people heard this bad word itself תא.
And they mourned.

And no one put on his ornaments.

Ex. 33:5 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Say to the children of Yisra'el,
'You yourselves nx are a stiff-necked people.
*If I go up in your midst for one moment
I will terminate you.*

And now, take off your ornaments.
And I will decide what to do with you.'"

Ex. 33:6 And the children of Yisra'el stripped off their ornaments themselves nx
at Mount Horeb.

*There's further evidence here
of the editing of the text.
If you note the flow of ideas
it's quite easy to see that this is not a natural flow of ideas.*

Ex. 33:7 And Moshe took
The Dwelling Place itself nx.
And he pitched it outside the camp,
far from the camp.
And he called it "The Tent of Appointment."

And it existed that everyone seeking YAHWEH
went out to The Tent of Appointment, which was outside the camp.

*This change in arrangement has already been noted.
But it's also important to note the designation
given to The Dwelling Place by Moshe
as it's moved outside of the camp.*

*The text has used this title before,
but only now is an explanation given concerning how this title became applied to it.*

*The Dwelling Place
and The Tent of Appointment
are the same thing.
It's just that two different designations
are given for it, depending on the context.
This new title takes on much greater significance here because of what now happens
- as the text itself explains.
When the people sought to know YAHWEH's desire for a certain matter
they would "make an appointment"
to go out of the camp to The Tent.
This provides the basis
for calling it The Tent of Appointment,
instead of The Dwelling Place, because YAHWEH is no longer dwelling in their midst.
He meets with Moshe outside the camp.*

Ex. 33:8 And it existed that as Moshe was going out to The Tent
all the people got up.
And each man stood
at his entrance to his tent.
And they looked intently at Moshe
until he went into The Tent.

Ex. 33:9 And it existed as Moshe was going into The Tent
that the column of cloud descended.
And the column stood at the entrance of The Tent.
And He would speak with Moshe.

Ex. 33:10 And all the people saw the column of cloud itself nx

standing at the entrance to The Tent.
And all the people got up.
And they prostrated themselves,
each one at the entrance of his tent.

Ex. 33:11 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe
face to face,
as a man speaks to his companion.

Then he would return to the camp.
But his servant, Yahoshua, son of Nun,
a young man,
did not withdraw from the midst of The Tent.

The concept of Moshe speaking "face-to-face,
as with a companion" is striking.

We know Moshe
did not actually see YAHWEH's face.
The following verses confirm this truth.
Yet there was a dialog between them that was like having a conversation with someone you know well.
It's this aspect of the relationship that we need to focus upon.

Few others in Scripture
are given this rare opportunity,
and virtually none of them
are spoken of in this same manner.

This is one of the few indications that reveal to us just how close Yahoshua was to Moshe
in his relationship with YAHWEH.

He was with Moshe on the mountain at Sinai.
Here we find him staying, personally,
within The Tent,
even after Moshe has left.

Yahoshua has not been "ordained"
in any special ceremony at this point in the text.
There's no real explanation for his presence,
other than his being a servant to Moshe.
And while he was one of only two who explored the land of Kena'an
that gave a good report,
there is nothing else to indicate just how he was designated as Moshe's assistant.

Ex. 33:12 And Moshe said to YAHWEH,
"See, You Yourself nx are saying to me,
'Bring up this people themselves nx.'
But You Yourself nx
have not made known to us who himself nx You are sending with us.

And You Yourself nx have said,
'I have known you by name.
And also, 'You have found favor in My eyes.'
Ex. 33:13 And now, please,
if I have now found favor in Your eyes,
please cause me to know
Your ways themselves nx, and to know You
in order that I might find favor in Your eyes.

And consider!
This nation is Your people!"

Ex. 33:14 And He said, "My Presence is going.
And I will cause you to settle."

There is some debate
about the meaning of this verse.
What's given is the literal sense.

YAHWEH's presence, literally "My face",
is going with them,

but not in the midst of the camp.
And the sense appears to be that YAHWEH
will Himself settle the Yisra'elites
in the land of promise,
just as He has said He would do.

Ex. 33:15 And he said to Him,
"If Your Presence is not going
do not bring us up from here.
Ex. 33:16 And how will it be known here
that I have found favor in Your eyes,
I and Your people?
Is it not in Your going with us
that we are distinguished, I and Your people, from all the people who are upon the face of the soil?"

Ex. 33:17 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Even this word itself אך
which you have spoken
I will do
because you have found favor in My eyes,
and I know you by name."

No other person in Scripture is identified as being "known by name", personally, by YAHWEH.

This has now been repeated for us,
confirming this matter - two witnesses.
For YAHWEH to state that He knows Moshe "by name"
means He knows His character, his reputation,
and everything there is to know about him.

Ex. 33:18 Then he said,
"Please let me see Your splendor itself אך."

Ex. 33:19 And He said,
"I Myself will cause all My goodness
to pass over in front of you.
And I will call out by name,
YAHWEH, to your face.

And I will show favor
to he himself whom I favor אך.
And I will have compassion on he himself אך on whom
I will have compassion."

Once again the concept of "pass over"
is presented to us.

YAHWEH will "pass over" Moshe
- in fulness of compassion,
and with great favor shown,
because Moshe is a human being also,
regardless of his closeness to YAHWEH.

This special revelation to Moshe
is unique in all of Scripture.

Moshe was privileged to have
"all the goodness of YAHWEH"
pass over before his face.
Astonishing!
And YAHWEH would speak
(call out or proclaim)
His very own personal Name to Moshe,
to his face!

No other human being is identified with this privilege in Scripture.

And lest we miss the significance of this event, YAHWEH Himself states plainly that He determines upon whom He shows favor and upon whom He has compassion.

He is doing both of these things for Moshe
in this specific event.
Otherwise, Moshe would not survive
a personal exposure to such splendor and majesty.

Ex. 33:20 However, He said,
“You are not able to see My face itself נא.
Indeed, no human being can see Me and live.”

This verse is placed in bold because it is of extreme importance within Scripture.

The so-called 'appearances' of YAHWEH,
where people are identified as having 'seen Him',
all must be subject
to this statement by YAHWEH Himself.
If they do not fit with this in some manner
- they are FALSE!

Moshe was allowed to see "his back side",
but not His face.
This, essentially, has to be the case
in all other portions of Scripture as well.
Something other than His face is indeed allowed to be seen
- but not His face itself.

Ex. 33:21 And YAHWEH said,
“Behold, My place itself נא!
And you are to station yourself upon the rock.

There are no verbs in the first line
other than "behold".
The literal sense suggests YAHWEH
is simply telling Moshe to see,
to look carefully at the place of His choosing.
He is to station himself there.

And we might also take note of the reference to "the rock"
upon which he is to stand.
This is an often used metaphor
for The Messiah.
Upon what better Rock could one station themselves for the purpose of observing the splendor of YAHWEH Himself?

Ex. 33:22 And it will exist
as My splendor is passing over.
And I will also place you in the cleft of the rock.
And I will shield you with the palm of My hand over you while I pass over.

Ex. 33:23 And I will turn away
the palm of My hand itself נא
and you will see My backside itself נא.
But My face will not be seen.”

Twice a reference is made to 'pass over',
and twice a reference is made to
'the palm of My hand'
as that which 'covers' Moshe,
protecting him, and covering his offense-nature.
The imagery is stunning!

Shielded by the hand of YAHWEH Himself!
Sheltered within The Rock.

This is the palm of the hand,
rather than the hand itself,
which is the normal reference to hand
found in these passages.

The palm - that was pierced...????
The Rock - that covers our offense-nature????
The passing over of our offense-debt????
The symbolism is indeed profound!

Chapter 34

Ex. 34:1 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
“Cut for yourself two tablets of stone
like the first ones.

And I will engrave upon the tablets
the words themselves נא
that were on the first tablets which you broke.

Ex. 34:2 And have them set by morning.
And you are to come up in the morning to Mount Sinai.
And you are to station yourself
before Me there
on the top of the mountain.
Ex. 34:3 And no man is to come up with you.
And also, no man is to be seen on the whole mountain.
Also, the flocks and the herds are not to feed
in front of this mountain.”

Ex. 34:4 And he cut two tablets of stone
like the first ones.

And early in the morning Moshe got up.
And he went up to Mount Sinai
as YAHWEH had directed he himself תא.
And he took in his hand two tablets of stone.

Ex. 34:5 And YAHWEH came down in a cloud.
And he stationed himself beside Him there.
And he called out by name, "YAHWEH!"

Ex. 34:6 And YAHWEH passed over before his face.
And He called out, "YAHWEH! YAHWEH!
A compassionate El,
and one showing favor,
patient with anger,
and abounding in kindness and faithfulness,
Ex. 34:7 protecting kindness toward thousands,
bearing perversity,
and rebellion,
and offense,
but by no means clearing the guilty,
accounting for the perversity of the fathers
upon the children and the children's children to the third and to the fourth generation.”

Ex. 34:8 And Moshe hurried.
And he bowed himself to the earth.
And he worshiped.

Ex. 34:9 And he said,
“If, now I have found favor
in Your eyes, my Sovereign,
may my Sovereign please go in our midst.

Indeed, it is a stiff-necked people.
But forgive our perversity and our offense.
And take us as Your permanent possession.”

Ex. 34:10 And He said,
“Behold!
I am cutting a covenant.
Before all your people
I am going to do extraordinary things which have not been created in all the earth, or in any nation.

And all the people who exist
in the midst of you yourselves תא
will see the acts themselves תא of YAHWEH.

Indeed, awesome is that which I will do for your people.

Ex. 34:11 Protect for yourselves
that itself תא which I am instructing you this day!

Behold!
I am driving out from before your faces
the Amorite themselves תא.

and the Ken'anite,
and the Hittite,
and the Perizzite,
and the Hivvite,
and the Yebusite.

Ex. 34:12 Protect yourself
lest you cut a covenant
with the inhabitants of the land
into which you yourself תַּנְּךָ are going,
lest it become a snare in your midst.

Ex. 34:13 Instead, tear down
their slaughter sites themselves תַּנְּךָ!
And smash their monuments themselves תַּנְּךָ!
And cut off their Asherim themselves תַּנְּךָ!

Ex. 34:14 Indeed, you are not to prostrate yourselves to another god because YAHWEH is zealous for His Name.
He is a zealous El.

Many seem to miss the point of this verse,
in large part because it appears
it is often mistranslated.
Jealous is used rather than zealous.

YAHWEH is zealous,
but He is not jealous (filled with envy).
That is not part of His nature.

Ex. 34:15 ...lest you cut a covenant
with the inhabitants of the land
and they go whoring after their gods,
and they slaughter to their gods,
and they invite you,
and you eat of its slaughterings,
Ex. 34:16 and you take from his daughters
for your sons,
and his daughters go whoring
after their gods,
and your sons go whoring
after their gods.

The word translated as whoring
is the word for adultery.
This terminology is used often in Scripture to characterize unfaithfulness to YAHWEH.

The worship of pagan idols
often included sexual activities.
But it's not so much those activities
that are in view here,
but rather the "apostasy" of Yisra'el that's involved in their being unfaithful to YAHWEH.

In the Hebrew culture
YAHWEH was viewed as the husband and the people were His 'bride'.
So the terminology has great significance in that context.

Ex. 34:17 Molten gods
you are not to make for yourselves.

Ex. 34:18 The Festival of Unleavened Bread itself תַּנְּךָ
you are to protect.
Seven days you are to eat unleavened bread
as I have directed you,
at the appointed time of the month of Abib
because in the month of Abib
you came out from Mitsraim.

Ex. 34:19 Every breacher of the womb is Mine,
and all the firstling males of your livestock,
ox and sheep.

Ex. 34:20 But the firstling of a male ass
you are to ransom with a lamb.

And if you do not ransom it then you are to break his neck.

Every firstborn of your sons
you are to ransom.
And he is not to be seen before My face without cause.

Ex. 34:21 Six days you are to work.
But on the seventh day you are to rest.
At plowing time and at harvest
you are to rest.

Ex. 34:22 And the Festival of Shavuot
you are to perform for yourself,
the first fruits of wheat harvest,
and the Festival of The Ingathering
at the turning of the year.

Ex. 34:23 Three times in a year
all your males are to be seen
before the face itself nx of The Sovereign, YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el,

Ex. 34:24 Indeed, I will dispossess nations
from before your faces.
And I will enlarge your borders themselves nx.
And no one will desire your land itself nx
as you go up to be seen before the face itself nx
of YAHWEH, your Elohim
three times in a year.

These two verses provide the instruction that every male is to be seen
before the face of YAHWEH
three times in a year.

They are to do this because of what He will do for them, so it is to be in gratitude
that they go up before Him.

Introduced here is the concept of YAHWEH
as The Sovereign of Yisra'el.
This has not been directly presented before.
It serves as a subtle notice
to the children of Yisra'el
that HE is their King.

In a world of kingdoms,
honoring the king is an important ritual.
It is this type of honoring that they are to consider as they go up before His face.

Ex. 34:25 You are not to slaughter with leaven
the blood of My sacrifices.

And the slaughtering
for The Festival of The Passover
is not to remain until morning.

Ex. 34:26 The first of the first fruits of your land you are to bring to The House of YAHWEH, your Elohim.

You are not to boil a young goat
in its mother's milk."

Ex. 34:27 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Write for yourself these words themselves nx, because according to the speech of these words
I have cut a covenant with you yourself nx
and with Yisra'el itself nx."

Ex. 34:28 And he was there with YAHWEH
forty days and forty nights.
He ate no food and he drank no water.

And He wrote on the tablets
the words themselves תא of the covenant,
The Ten Words.

Please take note that it is The Ten Words,
NOT "The Ten Commandments".
Torah does not give commandments,
it gives instructions.
The use of 'commandments'
does not agree with the Hebrew text!

Ex. 34:29 And it was as Moshe
was coming down from Mount Sinai.
And the two tablets of The Testimony
were in Moshe's hand as he was coming down from the mountain.
And Moshe did not know that the skin of his face radiated
on account of His speaking to He Himself תא.

Ex. 34:30 And Aharon
and all the children of Yisra'el saw Moshe himself תא.
And behold!
The skin of his face radiated.
And they were afraid to come near him.

Ex. 34:31 And Moshe called to them.
And Aharon
and all the rulers of the assembly returned to him.
And Moshe spoke to them.

Ex. 34:32 And after this all the children of Yisra'el came near.
And he gave as direction to them everything itself תא
that YAHWEH had spoken with he himself תא on Mount Sinai.

Ex. 34:33 And Moshe finished speaking
with they themselves תא.
And he put a veil over his face.

34:34 And as Moshe went in
before the face of YAHWEH
to speak with He Himself תא
he would remove the veil itself תא
until his coming out.
And having come out
he spoke to the children of Yisra'el everything itself תא that he had been directed.

Ex. 34:35 And the children of Yisra'el
saw the face itself תא of Moshe.

And Moshe returned the veil itself תא over his face,
until he went in to speak with He Himself תא.

Chapter 35

Ex. 35:1 And Moshe called together
all the assembly of the children of Yisra'el.
And he said to them,
"These are The Words
which YAHWEH has directed
you yourselves תא to do.

Ex. 35:2 Six days employment is to be done.
And the seventh day is to be set apart,
a Sabbath of rest to YAHWEH.
Anyone who does employment on it
is to be put to death.

shabath shabbathown is the phrase translated as "Sabbath of rest".

shabath - to repose, i.e. desist from exertion. It is from this word that both shabbath, The Sabbath Day, and shabbathown, a special holiday or rest, are derived.

The use of this terminology constitutes an emphatic statement. This is confirmed by stating the death penalty is the result of a violation of these things.

The Sabbath Day is to be treated with the utmost respect. Yet many today fail to even acknowledge the seventh day as important.

Ex. 35:3 You are not to kindle a fire in any of your dwelling places on The Sabbath day."

Ex. 35:4 And Moshe spoke to all the assembly of the children of Yisra'el saying, "This is the word which YAHWEH has directed saying, Ex. 35:5 'Take from you yourselves תא a gift to YAHWEH.

Everyone whose heart is willing may bring the gift itself תא to YAHWEH: gold, and silver, and copper,

Ex. 35:6 and blue violet, and purple, and maggot scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair,

Ex. 35:7 and ram skins dyed red, and fine leather, and acacia wood,

Ex. 35:8 and oil for the light, and spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense,

Ex. 35:9 and shoham stones, and stones for setting in the ephod and in the breast piece.

Ex. 35:10 And all the wise hearted among you are to come and make everything itself תא that YAHWEH has directed,

Ex. 35:11 The Dwelling Place itself תא,
its tent itself תא,

and its covering itself תא,

its clasps themselves תא,

and its boards themselves תא,

its bars themselves תא,

its columns themselves תא,

and its sockets themselves תא,

Ex. 35:12 the chest itself תא,

and its sticks themselves תא,

The Cover of Atonement itself תא,

and the curtain itself תא for the covering,

Ex. 35:13 the table itself תא,

and its sticks themselves תא,

and all its utensils themselves תא,

and the bread of the presence itself תא,

Ex. 35:14 and the menorah itself תא for the light,

and its utensils themselves תא,

and its lamps themselves תא,

and the oil itself תא for the light,

Ex. 35:15 and the table of incense itself תא,

and its sticks themselves תא,

and the anointing oil itself תא,

and the fragrant incense itself תא,

and the screen itself תא for the entrance,

at the entrance of The Dwelling Place,

Ex. 35:16 the slaughter site of olah itself תא,

and its copper grating itself תא which is for it,

its sticks themselves תא,
and all its utensils themselves תא,
the basin itself תא,
and its base itself תא,
Ex. 35:17 the hangings themselves תא
of the courtyard,
its columns themselves תא,
and their sockets themselves תא,
and the covering itself תא
for the gate of the courtyard,
Ex. 35:18 the pegs themselves תא
of The Dwelling Place,
and the pegs themselves תא
of the courtyard,
and their cords themselves תא,
Ex. 35:19 the woven garments themselves תא
for attending in The Set Apart Place,
the set apart garments themselves תא
for Aharon the priest
and the garments themselves תא
of his sons to officiate as priests.’ ”

Ex. 35:20 And all the assembly
of the children of Yisra'el
went out from before the face of Moshe.

Ex. 35:21 And everyone came whose heart lifted him up.
Even everyone
whose nature itself תא was willing came with the gift itself תא to YAHWEH
for the stewardship
of The Tent of Appointment,
and for all its work,
and for the set apart garments.

Ex. 35:22 And they came,
the men with the women.
All whose hearts were willing brought earrings and nose rings,
and rings and necklaces, all items of gold,
even everyone who made an elevated presentation of gold
to YAHWEH.
Ex. 35:23 And everyone who found, he himself תא,
blue violet, and purple, and maggot scarlet,
and fine linen, and goats' hair,
and rams' skins dyed red, and fine leather,
brought them.
Ex. 35:24 Everyone who raised a gift itself תא
of silver or copper brought it to YAHWEH.
And everyone who found, he himself תא, acacia wood for all work of the stewardship brought it.

Ex. 35:25 And all the wise hearted women
spun with their hands.
And they brought what they had spun,
the blue violet itself תא,
and the purple itself תא,
the maggot scarlet itself תא,
and the fine linen itself תא.

Ex. 35:26 And all the women whose hearts were lifted up,
they themselves תא with wisdom,
spun the goats' hair itself תא.

Ex. 35:27 And the rulers brought shoham stones themselves תא, and the stones themselves תא
for setting in the ephod
and in the breastpiece,

Ex. 35:28 and the spices themselves נח,
and the oil itself נח for the light,
and for the anointing oil,
and for the sweet incense.

Ex. 35:29 Every man and woman whose hearts were willing,
they themselves נח, brought for all the work which YAHWEH had directed them to make
by the hand of Moshe.
All the children of Yisra'el
brought spontaneously to YAHWEH.

Ex. 35:30 And Moshe said
to the children of Yisra'el,
"See, YAHWEH has called by name Betzal'el, son of Uri, son of Hur,
of the tribe of Yahudah.

Ex. 35:31 And He has filled he himself נח
with The Divine Nature of The Elohim,
with wisdom,
with intelligence,
and with knowledge,
and with total stewardship,

Ex. 35:32 to design devices to be made with gold and with silver and with copper,

Ex. 35:33 and with cutting of stones for setting,
and with carving of wood,
to do skillfully with all the work.

Ex. 35:34 And He has put in his heart
the ability to teach,
he and Oholiab, son of Ahisamak,
of the tribe of Dan.

Ex. 35:35 He has filled they themselves נח
with a heart of wisdom
to do all work of an engraver,
and a designer, and an embroiderer,
in blue violet and in purple,
and in maggot scarlet, and in fine linen,
and to do weaving, doing all the work,
and designing the devices.

Chapter 36

Ex. 36:1 And Betzal'el and Oholiab, and every wise hearted man in whom YAHWEH has given wisdom and intelligence to know how to do all work for the service of The Set Apart place itself נח, they are to make all that YAHWEH has directed."

Ex. 36:2 And Moshe called Betzal'el and Oholiab, and every wise hearted man in whose heart YAHWEH had given wisdom in their heart, everyone whose heart lifted him up,
to come near for the work itself נח.

Ex. 36:3 And they received from the face of Moshe
every gift itself נח
which the children of Yisra'el had brought for the work of the service of The Set Apart Place, for the sake of making it itself נח.

And they brought to him more,
spontaneously,
morning by morning.

Ex. 36:4 And all the craftsmen who were doing all the work of The Set Apart Place came,
each from the work itself נח
for The Set Apart Place that they were doing.

Ex. 36:5 And they spoke to Moshe saying,

“The people are bringing more than enough for the service of the work itself תא which YAHWEH has directed us to do.”

Ex. 36:6 And Moshe directed them.
And they passed over,
proclaiming throughout the camp saying,
“A man or a woman
is not to do any more work for the gift for The Set Apart Place.”
And the people
were restrained from bringing.
Ex. 36:7 And the work was enough
for all the work of making it itself תא,
more than enough.

Ex. 36:8 And all the wise hearted did the work of making for The Dwelling Place itself תא,
ten hangings of fine linen, and blue violet,
and purple, and maggot scarlet.
With cherubim of skillful work
they made they themselves תא.

Ex. 36:9 The length of each hanging
was twenty eight cubits,
and the width four cubits,
each individual hanging,
having one measure for all the hangings.

Ex. 36:10 And he joined
the five hangings themselves תא,
one to another.
And five curtains he joined,
one to another.

Ex. 36:11 And he made loops of blue violet
on the edge of the hanging at the end of one joint.
He did the same on the edge of the last hanging
at the second joint.
Ex. 36:12 Fifty loops he made on one hanging,
and fifty loops he made on the edge of the hanging which was at the second joint,
holding the loops one to another.

Ex. 36:13 And he made fifty clasps of gold.
And he joined the hangings themselves תא
one to another with the clasps.

And The Dwelling Place was united.

Ex. 36:14 And he made hangings of goat's hair
for the tent above The Dwelling Place.
Eleven curtains he made they themselves תא.

Ex. 36:15 The length of each hanging
was thirty cubits,
and the width four cubits.
The hangings were of one size
for the eleven hangings.

Ex. 36:16 And he joined
five hangings themselves תא separately,
and six hangings themselves תא separately.

Ex. 36:17 And he made fifty loops for the edge of the end hanging at the joint,
and fifty loops on the edge of the hanging
of the second joint.

Ex. 36:18 And he made hooks of copper,
fifty for joining the tent itself תא to become one.

Ex. 36:19 And he made a covering for the tent of ram's skins dyed red, and a covering of fine leather over that.

Ex. 36:20 And he made for The Dwelling Place itself תא boards of acacia wood, standing upright,
Ex. 36:21 ten cubits the length of each board and a cubit and a half the width of each board,
Ex. 36:22 two tenons for each board for joining one to another.
Thus he did to all the boards of The Dwelling Place.

Ex. 36:23 And he made the boards themselves תא for The Dwelling Place, twenty boards for the Negev side, southward.
36:24 And forty sockets of silver he made for under the twenty boards, two sockets under each board for its two tenons,
two sockets under each other board for its two tenons.

Ex. 36:25 And for the side of The Dwelling Place, the second one for the north side, he made twenty boards,
Ex. 36:26 and their forty sockets of silver, two sockets under the one board, and two sockets under another board.

Ex. 36:27 And for the side of The Dwelling Place toward the sea he made six boards.
Ex. 36:28 And he made two boards for The Dwelling Place at its sides.
Ex. 36:29 And they were double at the bottom. And they were completely united at the top by the first ring.
In this manner he made two of them for the two corners.
Ex. 36:30 And there were eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets, two sockets,
two sockets under each of the boards.

Ex. 36:31 And he made bars of acacia wood, five bars for the boards on one side of The Dwelling Place,
Ex. 36:32 and five bars for the boards on the other side of The Dwelling Place, and five bars for the boards of The Dwelling Place at its side toward the sea.

Ex. 36:33 And he made the bars themselves תא for the middle to pass through the center of the boards from one end to the other.

Ex. 36:34 And the boards themselves תא he overlaid with gold.
And their rings themselves תא he made of gold, as holders for the bars.
And he overlaid the bars themselves תא with gold.

Ex. 36:35 And he made the screen itself תא of blue violet, and purple, and maggot scarlet, and fine linen. With skillful work he made it itself תא with cherubim.

Ex. 36:36 And he made for it four columns of acacia wood.

And he overlaid them with gold,
with their hooks of gold.
And he cast for them four sockets of silver.

Ex. 36:37 And he made a covering for entrance of The Tent
of blue violet, and purple, and maggot scarlet,
and fine woven linen, of embroidered work,
Ex. 36:38 and its columns themselves תא, five,
and its hooks themselves תא.
And he overlaid their tops
and their binders with gold,
and their five sockets with copper.

Chapter 37

Ex. 37:1 And Betzal'el made The Chest itself תא
of acacia wood,
two cubits and a half its length,
a cubit and a half its width,
and a cubit and a half its height.
Ex. 37:2 And he overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside.
And he made a rim of gold all around it.
Ex. 37:3 And he cast for it four rings of gold
for its four feet,
two rings on its one side,
and two rings on its second side.
Ex. 37:4 And he made sticks of acacia wood.
And he overlaid they themselves תא with gold.
Ex. 37:5 And he put the sticks themselves תא
into the rings on the sides of The Chest,
to carry The Chest itself תא.

Ex. 37:6 And he made a Cover of Atonement
of pure gold,
two cubits and a half its length
and a cubit and a half its width.

Cover of Atonement is used in place of the traditional 'mercy seat' translation.
This title is far more descriptive and more directly connected to the function of this cover.

First, it is a cover, not a 'seat'.
No one sits on it.
Second, it covers The Testimony,
the two tablets of The Covenant,
that were placed inside.

But far more importantly,
it serves as the place
where atonement is made once a year for the offenses of the Yisra'elites.

Critical to a proper understanding is the concept that their offenses are not 'removed', they are covered
- by the blood of the sacrifices made on their behalf.

The connection between this and The New Covenant established by the shed blood
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah
as a covering for our offense-debt is most important.

Ex. 37:7 And he made two cherubim of gold.
Of hammered work he made they themselves תא
from the two ends of The Cover of Atonement, Ex. 37:8 one cherub from this end
and the other cherub from the other end.
He made the cherubim themselves תא
from the two ends.

Ex. 37:9 And the cherubim
were spreading their wings upward, covering with their wings

The Cover of Atonement,
and their faces, one toward the other.
Toward The Cover of Atonement
were the faces of the cherubim.

Ex. 37:10 And he made
the table itself תא of acacia wood,
two cubits its length, a cubit its width,
and a cubit and a half its height.

Ex. 37:11 And he overlaid it itself תא
with pure gold.

And he made for it a rim of gold all around it.

Ex. 37:12 And he made a border for it,
a handbreadth all around.

And he made a rim of gold
for its border all around it.

Ex. 37:13 And he cast for it four rings of gold.

And he put the rings themselves תא
at the four corners,
which are its four legs.

Ex. 37:14 The rings were next to the border,
holders for the sticks to carry the table.

Ex. 37:15 And he made the sticks themselves תא
of acacia wood.

And he overlaid they themselves תא with gold,
to carry the table itself תא.

37:16 And he made the utensils themselves תא
which were on the table,
its dishes themselves תא,
and its cups themselves תא,
and its bowls themselves תא,
and its jars themselves תא
which were for pouring from them,
of pure gold.

Ex. 37:17 And he made the menorah itself תא
of pure gold.

Of hammered work

he made the menorah itself תא.

Its shaft, and its stem, its cups,
its knobs, and its blossoms were from it.

Ex. 37:18 And six stems went out from its sides,
three stems of the menorah
from the first side,
and three stems of the menorah
from the other side,

Ex. 37:19 three almond shaped goblets
on one stem,

with knobs and blossoms,
and three almond shaped goblets
on the other stem,

with knobs and blossoms,
the same for the six stems
coming out of the menorah,

Ex. 37:20 and on the menorah itself תא,
four almond shaped goblets

with their knobs and blossoms,

Ex. 37:21 and a knob under the first two stems from it,

and a knob under
the second two stems from it,

and a knob under
the third two stems from it for the six stems coming out of it.

Ex. 37:22 Their knobs and their stems from it were all of one hammered work of pure gold.

Ex. 37:23 And he made

its seven lamps themselves תא,

and its tongs, and its trays, of pure gold.

37:24 He made it itself אַתּ of a talent of pure gold,
even all its utensils themselves אַתּ.

Ex. 37:25 And he made
the table of incense itself אַתּ of acacia wood,
a cubit its length
and a cubit its width, square,
and two cubits its height.
Its horns were from it.

Ex. 37:26 And he overlaid it itself אַתּ
with pure gold,
its top itself אַתּ
and its sides themselves אַתּ all around,
and its horns themselves אַתּ.
And he made a rim of gold for it
all around it.

Ex. 37:27 And two rings of gold he made for it beneath its rim on its two sides
as holders for the sticks
with which to carry it itself אַתּ upon them.

Ex. 37:28 And he made the sticks themselves אַתּ
of acacia wood.
And he overlaid they themselves אַתּ with gold.

Ex. 37:29 And he made
the set apart anointing oil itself אַתּ,
and the sweet incense itself אַתּ, pure,
the work of a perfumer.

Chapter 38

Ex. 38:1 And he made
the slaughter site of olah itself אַתּ
of acacia wood,
five cubits its length,
and five cubits its width, square,
and three cubits its height.

Ex. 38:2 And he made its horns
on its four corners.
Its horns were from it.
And he overlaid it itself אַתּ with copper.

Ex. 38:3 And he made
all the utensils themselves אַתּ
for the slaughter site,
the pots themselves אַתּ,
and the shovels themselves אַתּ,
and the bowls themselves אַתּ,
and the forks themselves אַתּ,
and the firepans themselves אַתּ.
He made all its utensils of copper.

Ex. 38:4 And he made for the slaughter site
a grating, a network of copper from beneath its rim downward at its middle.

Ex. 38:5 And he cast four rings for the four corners of the copper grating
as holders for the sticks.

Ex. 38:6 And he made the sticks themselves אַתּ
of acacia wood.
And he overlaid they themselves אַתּ
with copper.

Ex. 38:7 And he put the sticks themselves אַתּ into the rings
on the sides of the slaughter site
to carry it itself אַתּ with them.
Hollow boards he made for it itself אַתּ.

Ex. 38:8 And he made the basin itself אַתּ of copper and its stand itself אַתּ of copper from the copper mirrors
of those who were assembling,
who assembled at the door of The Tent of Meeting.

Ex. 38:9 And he made the courtyard itself תא.
For the Negev side, southward,
the hangings of the courtyard
were of fine linen,
one hundred cubits,
Ex. 38:10 their columns, twenty,
and their sockets, twenty, of copper,
the hooks of the columns
and their bands, of silver.
Ex. 38:11 And for the north side,
one hundred cubits,
their columns, twenty,
and their sockets, twenty, of copper,
the hooks of the columns and their bands, of silver.

Ex. 38:12 And for the sea side
hangings of fifty cubits,
their columns, ten, and their sockets, ten,
the hooks of the columns
and their bands, of silver.

Ex. 38:13 And for the front, toward the sunrise,
fifty cubits.
Ex. 38:14 hangings, fifteen cubits to the side,
their columns, three,
and their sockets, three,
Ex. 38:15 and on the other side,
from this one and from that one of the entrance to the courtyard,
hangings, fifteen cubits,
their columns, three,
and their sockets, three.

Ex. 38:16 All the hangings of the courtyard,
all around, were of fine linen,
Ex. 38:17 and the sockets for the columns,
of copper,
the hooks of the columns and their bands,
of silver,
and the overlay of their tops, of silver.
And they had bands of silver,
all the columns of the courtyard.

Ex. 38:18 And the covering
for the entrance of the courtyard
was the work of an embroiderer,
of blue violet, and purple,
and maggot scarlet, and of fine linen,
and twenty cubits its length,
and the height along its width, five cubits,
corresponding to the hangings of the courtyard,
Ex. 38:19 their columns, four,
and their sockets, four, of copper,
and their hooks, of silver,
and the overlay of their tops
and their binders, of silver.
Ex. 38:20 And all the pegs of The Dwelling Place,
and of the courtyard all around,
were of copper.

Ex. 38:21 These were the accountings
of The Dwelling Place,
The Tent of The Testimony,
which was accounted
by the direction of Moshe,
for the work of the Levites,
by the hand of Itamar,
son of Aharon, the priest.

Ex. 38:22 And Betzal'el son of Uri, son of Hur,
of the tribe of Yahudah,
made everything itself תא
that YAHWEH had directed Moshe himself תא.

Ex. 38:23 And with he himself תא, Oholiab, son of Ahisamak, of the tribe of Dan,
an engraver, and designer, and embroiderer
in blue violet, and in purple, and in maggot scarlet,
and in fine linen.

Ex. 38:24 All the gold, that having been used in all the work of The Set Apart Place,
and it was the gold of the elevated gifts,
was twenty nine talents
and seven hundred and thirty shekels,
according to the shekel of The Set Apart Place.

Ex. 38:25 And the silver of the numbering of the assembly was one hundred talents and one thousand seven hundred and seventy five shekels,
according to the shekel of The Set Apart Place,
Ex. 38:26 a bekah, a half a shekel per head,
according to the shekel of The Set Apart Place,
for everyone passing over
under the numbering,
from twenty years old and above,
for six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty men.

Ex. 38:27 And the hundred talents of silver were for casting the sockets themselves תא
for The Set Apart Place
and the sockets themselves תא of the hangings,
one hundred sockets
from the hundred talents,
a talent for each socket.

Ex. 38:28 And of the one thousand seven hundred and seventy five shekels themselves תא
he made hooks for the columns,
and he overlaid their tops,
and he made bands for they themselves תא.

Ex. 38:29 And the copper of the elevated gifts was seventy talents
and two thousand four hundred shekels.

Ex. 38:30 And with it he made the sockets themselves תא
for the entrance of The Tent of Meeting,
and the copper slaughter site itself תא,
and the copper grating itself תא which was for it,
and all the utensils themselves תא
for the slaughter site,

Ex. 38:31 and the sockets themselves תא
for the courtyard all around,
and the sockets themselves תא
for the entrance to the courtyard,
and all the pegs themselves תא
for The Dwelling Place,
and all the pegs themselves תא
for the courtyard all around.

Chapter 39

Ex. 39:1 And from the blue violet,
and the purple,
and the maggot scarlet
they made woven garments
for officiating in The Set Apart Place.
And they made
the set apart garments themselves תא
which were for Aharon,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.

Ex. 39:2 And he made the ephod itself תא of gold,

of blue violet, and purple, and maggot scarlet,
and of fine linen.

Ex. 39:3 And they hammered out sheets of gold itself תא.
And they cut it into threads for working it in with the blue violet, and the purple,
and the maggot scarlet, and the fine linen,
skillful work.

Ex. 39:4 They made shoulder pieces for it to join it together at its two edges.
Ex. 39:5 And the waistband of his ephod,
which was over it,
was of the same work, of gold, and blue violet,
and purple, and maggot scarlet, and fine linen,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.

Ex. 39:6 And they made
the shoham stones themselves תא, surrounded by braids of gold engravings,
engraved as signets,
according to the names of the sons of Yisra'el.

Ex. 39:7 And he put they themselves תא
on the shoulders of the ephod,
memorial stones for the sons of Yisra'el,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.

Ex. 39:8 And he made the breastpiece itself תא,
skillful work, like the work of the ephod,
of gold, blue violet, and purple,
and maggot scarlet, and fine linen.

Ex. 39:9 It was square.
They made it double,
the breastpiece itself תא,
its length a span,
its width a span,
doubled.

Ex. 39:10 And they filled it in
with four rows of stones,
a row of ruby, topaz, and emerald
was the first row;

Ex. 39:11 and the second row,
turquoise, sapphire, and diamond;

Ex. 39:12 and the third row,
jacinth, agate, and amethyst;

Ex. 39:13 and the fourth row,
beryl, shoham, and jasper,
surrounded by braided work of gold in their settings.

Ex. 39:14 And the stones
were according to the names of the sons of Yisra'el, twelve of them,
according to their names,
engravings of a signet,
one for each name,
according to the twelve tribes.

Ex. 39:15 And they made for the breastpiece
corded chains, woven work, of pure gold.

Ex. 39:16 And they made two settings of gold and two rings of gold.

And they put the two rings themselves תא
on the two ends of the breastpiece.

Ex. 39:17 And they put the two cords of gold on the two rings,
on the ends of the breastpiece.

Ex. 39:18 And the two ends of the two cords themselves תא

they fastened onto the two settings.
And they put them
on the shoulder pieces of the ephod,
on the front of it.
Ex. 39:19 And they made two rings of gold.
And they put them
on the two ends of the breastpiece,
on the edge of it

which was on the inner side of the ephod.
Ex. 39:20 And they made two rings of gold.
And they put them
on the two shoulder pieces,
at the bottom of the ephod,
on the front of it,
close to its seam,
above the waistband
of the shoulder garment.

Ex. 39:21 And they tied the breastpiece itself nx
from its rings to the rings of the ephod with a cord of blue violet so it was above
the waistband of the ephod,
and in order that the breastpiece
would not come loose from the ephod,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself nx.

Ex. 39:22 And he made
the robe itself nx of the ephod
of woven work, all of blue.

Ex. 39:23 And the opening of the robe
was in the center,
like the opening in scaled armor,
with a woven binding
all around the opening,
so that it would not tear.

Ex. 39:24 And they made on the hem of the robe pomegranates of blue violet, and purple,
and maggot scarlet, intertwined.

Ex. 39:25 And they made bells of pure gold.
And they put the bells themselves nx

in between the pomegranates
on the hem of the robe all around,
in between the pomegranates,

Ex. 39:26 a bell and a pomegranate,
a bell and a pomegranate,
on the hem of the robe all around,
for the attending,

according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself nx.

Ex. 39:27 And they made
the tunics themselves nx
of fine linen, the work of a weaver,
for Aharon and his sons,

Ex. 39:28 and the turban itself nx of fine linen,
and the ornamented caps of fine linen,
and the underwear themselves nx of woven linen,

Ex. 39:29 and the waistband itself nx
of woven linen, and blue violet,
and purple, and maggot scarlet,
the work of an embroiderer,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself nx.

Ex. 39:30 And they made the plate itself nx
of the set apart sign of dedication of pure gold.

And they wrote upon it with written engravings of a signet,
SET APARTNESS TO YAHWEH.

Ex. 39:31 And they put on it a blue cord,
to set it on the top of the turban

according to what YAHWEH had directed Moshe himself תא.

Ex. 39:32 And all the work of The Dwelling Place of The Tent of Appointment was completed.

And the children of Yisra'el did according to everything that YAHWEH had directed Moshe himself תא. Thus they did.

Ex. 39:33 And they brought The Dwelling Place itself תא to Moshe, the tent itself תא and all its furnishings themselves תא, its clasps, its boards, its bars, and its columns, and its sockets, Ex. 39:34 and the covering itself תא of rams' skins dyed red, and the covering itself תא of fine leather, and the veil of the screen itself תא, Ex. 39:35 The Chest of The Testimony itself תא and its sticks themselves תא, and The Cover of Atonement itself תא, Ex. 39:36 the table itself תא, and all its utensils themselves תא, and the bread of the presence itself תא, Ex. 39:37 the undefiled menorah itself תא its lamps of arrangement themselves תא, and all its utensils themselves תא, and the oil for light itself תא, Ex. 39:38 and the golden incense table itself תא, and the anointing oil itself תא, and the sweet incense itself תא, and the hanging itself תא for the entrance to the tent, Ex. 39:39 the copper slaughter site itself תא, and its copper grating itself תא which was for it, its sticks themselves תא, and all its utensils themselves תא, the basin itself תא, and its base itself תא, Ex. 39:40 the hangings themselves תא of the courtyard, its columns themselves תא and its sockets themselves תא, the covering for the entrance of the courtyard itself תא, its cords themselves תא, and its pegs, and all the utensils themselves תא for the service of The Dwelling Place, for The Tent of Appointment, Ex. 39:41 the woven garments themselves תא for attending in The Set Apart Place, the set apart garments themselves תא for Aharon the priest, and the garments themselves תא for his sons to officiate as priests.

Ex. 39:42 According to everything that YAHWEH had directed Moshe himself תא, thus the children of Yisra'el did all the work itself תא.

Ex. 39:43 And Moshe saw all the work itself תא. And behold! They had done it itself תא according to what YAHWEH had directed. Thus they had done.

And Moshe blessed they themselves תא.

Chapter 40

Ex. 40:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Ex. 40:2 "On the day of the first new moon,
on the first of the new moon,
you are to raise up
The Dwelling Place itself תא,
The Tent of Appointment.

We see different references
made to this complex.
At times it's referred to as The Dwelling Place.
At other times it's referred to
as The Tent of Appointment.

The Dwelling Place is The Set Apart Place
with its furnishings.
It is the location where YAHWEH
was understood to "stay"
in the midst of the assembly.

The Tent of Appointment is,
more technically speaking,
the courtyard area outside The Dwelling Place.
The Dwelling Place was entered only by the priests.
The Tent of Appointment could be entered by any undefiled person.

It's where the animals
were slaughtered for the "offerings", and where their gifts
were presented to YAHWEH.

Since The Dwelling Place is in the middle
of The Tent of Appointment.
Many references refer to it also
as The Tent of Appointment.

It was with YAHWEH
one was to have their appointment
- at His Dwelling Place.

Ex. 40:3 And you are to put there
The Chest of The Testimony itself תא.

And you are to screen off The Chest
with the veil itself תא.

Ex. 40:4 And you are to bring in the table itself תא.
And you are to arrange
its arrangement itself תא.
And you are to bring in the menorah itself תא
and you are to light its lamps themselves תא.

Ex. 40:5 And you are to put
the table of gold itself תא for the incense
in front of The Chest of The Testimony.
And you are to put up the cover itself תא
of the entrance to The Dwelling Place.

Ex. 40:6 And you are to put
the slaughter site of olah itself תא
in front of the entrance for The Dwelling Place,
The Tent of Appointment.

Ex. 40:7 And you are to put the basin itself תא
between The Tent of Meeting
and the slaughter site.
And you are to put water therein.

Ex. 40:8 And you are to put
the courtyard itself תא all around.
And you are to put up the covering itself תא
for the entrance of the courtyard.

Ex. 40:9 And you are to take
the anointing oil itself תא.
And you are to anoint

The Dwelling Place itself תא
and everything itself תא that belongs to it.
And you are to set apart it itself תא
and all its utensils themselves תא.
And it will be set apart.

Ex. 40:10 And you are to anoint
the slaughter site of the olah itself תא
and all its utensils themselves תא.
And you are to set apart
the slaughter site itself תא.
And the slaughter site
is to be set apart, set apart.
Ex. 40:11 And you are to anoint the basin itself תא
and its base itself תא.
And you are to set apart it itself תא.

Ex. 40:12 And you are to bring Aharon himself תא
and his sons themselves תא to the entrance
of The Tent of Appointment.

And you are to wash
they themselves תא with water.
Ex. 40:13 And you are to clothe Aharon himself תא
with the set apart garments themselves תא.
And you are to anoint he himself תא.
And you are to set apart he himself תא
to officiate as priest to Me.

Ex. 40:14 And his sons themselves תא
you are to bring near.
And you are to clothe they themselves תא
with tunics.
Ex. 40:15 And you are to anoint they themselves תא
according to how you anointed
their father himself תא.
And they are to officiate as priests to Me.
And their anointing will exist for the sake of them existing as an eternal priesthood
for their generations.”

Ex. 40:16 And Moshe did according to everything that YAHWEH had directed he himself תא.
Thus he did.

Ex. 40:17 And it was in the first new moon
of the second year,
on the first day of the new moon.
The Dwelling Place was erected.
Note the specific timing of this event.
We are given these times
so we can see YAHWEH's patterns for things.

Ex. 40:18 And Moshe erected
The Dwelling Place itself תא.
And he set its sockets themselves תא.
And he placed its boards themselves תא.
And he put in its bars themselves תא.
And he raised up its columns themselves תא.
Ex. 40:19 And he spread out the tent itself תא
over The Dwelling Place.
And he placed
the covering itself תא of the tent over it,
on top of it,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.

Ex. 40:20 And he took and he put
The Testimony itself תא into The Chest.
And he placed the sticks themselves תא
onto the The Chest.
And he put The Cover of Atonement itself תא
on top of The Chest.

Ex. 40: 21 And he brought The Chest itself תא
into The Dwelling Place.
And he placed the veil itself תא,
the covering.
And he screened off
The Chest of The Testimony
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.

Ex. 40:22 And he put the table itself תא
in the Tent of Appointment,
on the north side of The Dwelling Place,
outside the veil.

Ex. 40:23 And arranged the bread of the presence in order upon it before YAHWEH,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.

Ex. 40:24 And he placed the menorah itself תא
in The Tent of Appointment,
opposite the table,
on the side of The Dwelling Place,
southward.

Ex. 40:25 And he lighted the lamps
before YAHWEH,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.

Ex. 40:26 And he placed the golden table of incense itself תא
in The Tent of Meeting in front of the veil.

Ex. 40:27 And he turned into smoke
sweet incense on it,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.

Ex. 40:28 And he placed the covering itself תא
for the entrance of The Dwelling Place.

Ex. 40:29 And the slaughter site of the olah itself תא
he placed in front of the entrance of The Dwelling Place, The Tent of Appointment.

And he caused to ascend upon it
the olah itself תא
and the grain gift itself תא,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.

Ex. 40:30 And he placed the basin itself תא
between The Tent of Meeting
and the slaughter site.

And he put water therein for washing.

Ex. 40:31 And Moshe, and Aharon, and his sons washed from it their hands themselves תא
and their feet themselves תא.

Ex. 40:32 As they were going into The Tent of Appointment,
and as they came near the slaughter site
they washed, according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.

Ex. 40:33 And he raised up the courtyard itself תא
all around for The Dwelling Place
and for the slaughter site.

And he put up the covering itself תא
for the entrance to the courtyard.

And Moshe completed the work itself תא.

Ex. 40:34 And the cloud covered
The Tent of Appointment itself תא.

And the splendor of YAHWEH filled
The Dwelling Place itself תא.

Ex. 40:35 And Moshe was not able to go into The Tent of Appointment
because the cloud had settled upon it.

And the splendor of YAHWEH
filled The Dwelling Place itself תא.

Ex. 40:36 And at the ascending of the cloud
from upon The Dwelling Place
the children of Yisra'el
set out on all their journeys.
40:37 And if the cloud did not ascend then they did not set out until the day it ascended.

Ex. 40:38 Indeed, the cloud of YAHWEH
was on The Dwelling Place by day.
And fire was on it by night
before the eyes of all the house of Yisra'el, on all their journeys.

3. Leviticus - Vayyiqra (Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Lev. 1:1 And He called to Moshe.

And YAHWEH spoke to him
from the Tent of Appointment, saying:

Lev. 1:2 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el
and say to them,

"When a human being from them approaches
with an approach offering to YAHWEH
from the animals,
from the herd or from the flock,
you are to approach
with your approach offering itself תא.

adam - human being.

Obviously this is not "Adam".

It also means more than "a man".

By definition it means a human being.

qorban - something brought near the slaughter site.

Generally speaking, any offering.

These are gifts presented for the sake of drawing near

or approaching toward YAHWEH.

Because of this they will be referred to as an "approach offering".

behemah - a dumb beast (animal).

Typically, a herd-animal, but not limited to these.

Lev. 1:3 If his offering is an olah from the cattle,
a male, whole.

He is to approach

with his approach offering itself תא

to the Tent of Appointment

for the sake of being pleasing

before the face of YAHWEH.

olah - means a step or something ascending.

It's used of "burnt offerings"

because they are entirely sent up in smoke before YAHWEH.

Most importantly, this is a surrender offering

- it is surrendered 100% to YAHWEH

and it serves as one's representation of their personal total surrender to YAHWEH.

baqar - beef or ox, generally cattle.

This is often referred to as a herd animal

(as opposed to one from a flock

- which indicates sheep or goats.)

tamiym - entire, whole.
It means completely healthy.
This is often translated as 'without blemish'.

The last line, "before the face of YAHWEH"
is the literal sense of the terms used.
This is typically translated as "being accepted, or acceptable,
in the presence of YAHWEH.
This is, indeed, the very purpose of the "approach offering"
- to gain acceptance,
to be found pleasing to YAHWEH.

Lev. 1:4 He is to lay his hand
upon the head of the olah.
And it will be accepted for him
for the sake of a covering over him.

The concept of being pleasing,
being accepted, is repeated here.
The sacrificial offering is accepted
as if it were himself.
Most importantly, it's accepted as a covering over him.

kaphar - to cover (specifically with bitumen; pitch);
figuratively, to expiate or set free,
atone for, ransom, pardon, etc.
The blood of the sacrifice serves as a covering for his sinful state.

Laying his hand on its head symbolizes the transfer of his offenses to the sacrifice.

All of this is a foreshadowing of The Messiah's sacrifice on our behalf many centuries later historically.

Lev. 1:5 He is to slaughter the son of the herd
before the face of YAHWEH.

And the sons of Aharon, the priests,
are to bring near the blood itself תא.
And they are to splash the blood itself תא
against the slaughter site, all around,
which is at the entrance
of The Tent of Appointment.

Lev. 1:6 Then he is to skin the olah itself תא.

And he is to cut it itself תא into its sections.

Lev. 1:7 And the sons of Aharon, the priest,
are to put fire upon the slaughter site.

And they are to arrange wood upon the fire.

Lev. 1:8 And the Sons of Aharon, the priests,
are to arrange the sections themselves תא,
the head itself תא, and the fat itself תא,

upon the wood that is upon the fire
that is upon the slaughter site.

1:9 And its innards and its shins
he is to wash in water.

And the priest is to turn all of it itself תא
into smoke upon the slaughter site,
as an olah of fire,
a soothing aroma to YAHWEH.

Lev. 1:10 And if his approach offering
is from the flock,
from the sheep or from the goats for an olah
he is to bring near a male, whole.

Lev. 1:11 And he is to slaughter it itself תא
on the north side of the slaughter site,
before the face of YAHWEH.

And the sons of Aharon, the priests,

are to splash its blood itself תא
against the slaughter site, all around.

Lev. 1:12 And he is to cut it itself תא
into its sections,
and the head itself תא,
and its fat itself תא.

And the priest is to arrange they themselves תא
upon the wood that is upon the fire
that is upon the slaughter site.

Lev. 1:13 And the innards and the shins
he is to wash in water.
And the priest is to bring near
all of it itself תא.
And he is to turn it into smoke
upon the slaughter site.
It is an olah of fire,
a soothing aroma to YAHWEH.

Lev. 1:14 And if his approach offering of olah is from the birds for YAHWEH
then he is to bring near from turtledoves or from young pigeons
as his approach offering itself תא.

Lev. 1:15 And the priest is to bring it near,
to the slaughter site.
And he is to pinch off its head itself תא.
And he is to turn it into smoke
upon the slaughter site.

And he is to drain out its blood
against the side of the slaughter site.
Lev. 1:16 And he is to remove its crop itself תא
with its feathers.
And he is to throw it itself תא
beside the slaughter site,
eastward, in the place of the ashes.

Lev. 1:17 And he is to tear open it itself תא
by its wings, not separated.
And the priest is to turn it itself תא into smoke
upon the slaughter site
upon the wood that is upon the fire.
It is an olah by fire,
a soothing aroma to YAHWEH.

Chapter 2

Lev. 2:1 And when a breathing being approaches with an approach offering,
a gift to YAHWEH of flour,
it will be his approach offering.
And he is to pour oil on it.
And he is to put frankincense on it.
*minchah - bestow;
a donation or tribute originally,
but later used frequently of the grain offerings.*

Lev. 2:2 And he is to bring it to the sons of Aharon, the priests.
And he is to take a handful from there,
a full handful from its flour, and from its oil,
along with all its frankincense.
And the priest is to turn into smoke
its reminder portion itself תא
upon the fire of the slaughter site,
a soothing aroma to YAHWEH.

Lev. 2:3 And the remainder from the grain gift
is for Aharon and his sons,
a set apart set apart thing
from the offerings by fire for YAHWEH.

qodesh qadashim - literally "sacred of sacreds",
or "consecrated of consecrateds".

The double wording is a Hebrew way
of intensifying the concept.
These offerings are considered to be
"the holiest of the holy things",
"the set apart set apart things".

Lev. 2:4 And when you approach with an approach offering of a grain gift baked in an oven...
flour cakes, unleavened mixed with oil,
wafers, unleavened, anointed with oil.
Lev. 2:5 And if a grain gift on a pan
is your approach offering...
flour mixed with oil.
It is to be unleavened.
Lev. 2:6 Crumble it itself תא into bits
and pour oil upon it.
It is a grain gift.

Lev. 2:7 And if a grain gift by a frying pan
is your approach offering
it is to be made with flour with oil.
Lev. 2:8 And as you bring a grain gift itself תא
which is made from these to YAHWEH
then he is to bring it near, to the priest.
And he is to come near to the slaughter site.
Lev. 2:9 And the priest is to lift up
from the grain gift
its reminder portion itself תא.
And he is to turn it into smoke
upon the slaughter site,
an offering by fire,
a soothing aroma to YAHWEH.
Lev. 2:10 And the remainder from the grain gift
is for Aharon and his sons,
a set apart set apart thing
from the offerings by fire for YAHWEH.

Lev. 2:11 Every grain gift which you bring near to YAHWEH
is not to be made with leaven.
Indeed, any leaven and any honey,
you are not to turn into smoke from it
as an offering by fire to YAHWEH.

Lev. 2:12 An approach offering of first fruits
you are to bring near to YAHWEH.
But upon the slaughter site
they are not to ascend as a soothing aroma.

Lev. 2:13 And all your approach offerings of a grain gift, with salt you are to salt it.
And you are not to omit
the salt of your Elohim's covenant
from upon your grain gift.
Upon all your approach offerings
you are to bring near salt.

Lev. 2:14 And if you bring near a grain gift of first fruits to YAHWEH,
fresh heads of grain toasted with fire,
grits of fresh grain you are to bring near,
a grain gift itself תא of your first fruits.
Lev. 2:15 And you are to put oil on it.
And you are to place frankincense on it.
It is a grain gift.
Lev. 2:16 And the priest is to turn into smoke
the reminder portion itself תא
from its grits and from its oil
along with all its frankincense,
an offering by fire to YAHWEH.

Chapter 3

Lev. 3:1 And if a shelem offering
is his approach offering,
if it is from the cattle he is to bring it near,
if male, if female,
whole he is to bring it near
before the face of YAHWEH.

shelem - returning a favor,
a thanksgiving offering,
but most often termed a peace offering.
It's root word is shalam
which means to be safe or complete, whole.
While the Hebrew uses shelem
a substitution is frequently made using shalom.

Shalom means safe,
total well being in every aspect of one's life.

It also is used to mean peace.
The overlap of the meanings of these terms often causes some confusion since they are so similar in both the way they are written and in their meanings.

The peace offering was eaten in part
as a fellowship meal before YAHWEH.
This symbolized the reconciliation
between the parties involved.
There were several variations of the peace offering
- thanks, vows, free will, etc.

Lev. 3:2 And he is to lay his hand
on the head of his approach offering.
And he is to slaughter it at the entrance
of The Tent of Appointment.
And the sons of Aharon, the priests,
are to splash the blood itself תא
against the slaughter site, all around.

Lev. 3:3 And he is to bring near
from the sacrifice of the shelem offering,
an offering by fire to YAHWEH,
the fat itself תא
that covers the innards themselves תא
and all the fat itself תא that is on the innards.

Lev. 3:4 and the two kidneys themselves תא
and the fat itself תא that is on them,
that is on the loins.

And the lobe on the liver itself תא
above the kidneys he is to remove.

Lev. 3:5 And the sons of Aharon
are to turn into smoke it itself תא
upon the slaughter site,
upon the olah that is upon the wood
that is upon the fire,
an offering by fire,
a soothing aroma to YAHWEH.

Lev. 3:6 And if his approach offering
is from the flock for a sacrifice of a shelem offering to YAHWEH,
a male or a female, whole,
he is to bring near.

Lev. 3:7 And if it is a lamb that he brings near for his approach offering itself תא
he is to bring near it itself תא
before the face of YAHWEH.

Lev. 3:8 And he is to lay his hand itself תא
on the head of his approach offering.
And he is to slaughter it itself תא
in front of The Tent of Appointment.
And the Sons of Aharon
are to splash its blood itself תא
against the slaughter site, all around.

Lev. 3:9 And he is to bring near
from the sacrifice of his shelem offering,
an offering by fire to YAHWEH.
Its fat, the whole thick tail
next to the backbone he is to remove.

And the fat itself תא
that covers the innards themselves תא
and all the fat itself תא that is on the innards,
3:10 and the two kidneys themselves תא
and the fat itself תא that is on them,
that is on the loins,
and the lobe itself תא which is on the liver
above the kidneys he is to remove.

Lev. 3:11 And the priest is to turn it into smoke
upon the slaughter site as food,
an offering by fire to YAHWEH.

Note the insertion here of "as food".
It was common practice to consider sacrifices
as "food for the gods" in Eastern cultures.

This presents a problem for Western minds because we have little sense of the purpose for this,
especially when used in connection with YAHWEH, The Creator of all things.
Surely He does not need our sacrifices as "food".
Yet the concept persisted within Hebrew culture.

Lev. 3:12 And if a goat is his approach offering
he is to bring it near before the face of YAHWEH.

Lev. 3:13 And he is to lay his hand itself תא,
on the head of his approach offering.
And he is to slaughter it itself תא
in front of The Tent of Appointment.

And the Sons of Aharon
are to splash its blood itself תא
against the slaughter site, all around.

Lev. 3:14 And he is to bring near
from the sacrifice of the shelem offering
an offering by fire to YAHWEH,
the fat itself תא

that covers the innards themselves תא
and all the fat itself תא that is on the innards,
Lev. 3:15 and the two kidneys themselves תא
and the fat itself תא that is on them,
that is on the loins,
and the lobe on the liver itself תא
above the kidneys he is to remove.

Lev. 3:16 And the priest is to turn it into smoke
upon the slaughter site as food,
an offering by fire, a soothing aroma.

All the fat is for YAHWEH,

Lev. 3:17 a rule forever for your generations
in all your settlements.

Any fat, any blood, is not to be eaten!" "

The fat is considered to be
"the best part" of the animal.
It is reserved for YAHWEH alone.

But there are also health benefits
from this practice.

The blood is "sacred".
It is the source of life within the body.
It is to be treated with the utmost respect.
It is never to be eaten.

Blood was consumed in many pagan and idolatrous worship practices.

The act is detestable to YAHWEH.
He will never tolerate it.

Chapter 4

Lev. 4:1 And YAHWEH

spoke to Moshe saying,

Lev. 4:2 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el saying,

"When a breathing being errs in ignorance concerning any of YAHWEH's directives

that are not to be done,

and he does any one of them...

The end is left incomplete
because what follows outlines a variety of situations
and how they are to be handled.

nephesh - a breathing creature.

chata' - properly, to miss; generally, to sin (more correctly, to offend by violating the instructions given by YAHWEH.)

shegagah - a mistake
or inadvertent transgression.
This is an error done
without forethought or intent.
It's an accidental error.

mitsvah - a command.
However, it's root is tsavah
which means to enjoin (charge).
This is best understood in the sense of a directive or a precept (a principle).

Lev. 4:3 If The Anointed Priest should err, bringing guilt upon the people,

then he is to bring near

for the sake of his error

by which he has erred

a bull, a young of the cattle, whole,

to YAHWEH for the sake of the offense.

The Anointed Priest would be considered to be what is commonly referred to as "The High Priest".
More correctly, he is "The Great Priest."

mashiyach, mashiach - anointed.
Specifically used to refer to The Messiah.

'ashmah - guiltiness, fault.
An error such as this brings guilt
upon the entire community of Yisra'el
since he is the authoritative leader of the people.

chatta'ah - an offense, and its penalty,
occasion, sacrifice, or expiation.
(This term comes from the base word used in verse 2, chata'.)

Uniquely, these terms are often used to identify the consequences,
as well as the act itself.

Traditionally this is 'translated'
as a "sin offering".
And while in practice
that was in fact what happened,
that's not what the language places here.

The young bull is brought because of the error.
It is then sacrificed to provide the "blood of covering" (atonement) for his error.

Hebrew tradition identifies this offense
as bringing a form of "contamination" (defilement) upon the entire community.
As such it becomes a very serious matter.

Lev. 4:4 And he is to bring the bull itself תא
to the entrance of The Tent of Appointment,
before the face of YAHWEH.

And he is to lay his hand itself תא
on the head of the bull.
And he is to slaughter the bull itself תא
before the face of YAHWEH.

Lev. 4:5 And The Anointed Priest
is to take some of the blood of the bull.
And he is to bring it itself תא
into The Tent of Appointment.

Lev. 4:6 And the priest is to dip
his finger itself תא in the blood.
And he is to sprinkle some of the blood
seven times before the face of YAHWEH,
before the veil of The Set Apart Place.

Lev. 4:7 And the priest
is to put some of the blood on the horns of the table of the sweet incense
before the face of YAHWEH
that is in The Tent of Appointment.

And all the blood itself תא of the bull
he is to pour out at the foundation of the slaughter site of olah
that is at the entrance
of The Tent of Appointment.

Lev. 4:8 And all of the fat itself תא of the bull of the offense
he is to lift up from it,
the fat itself תא that covers the innards
and all the fat itself תא that is on the innards,
Lev. 4:9 the two kidneys themselves תא,
and the fat itself תא that is on them,
that is on the loins,
and the lobe itself תא of the liver
above the kidneys he is to remove
Lev. 4:10 just as it is lifted up from the ox
of the sacrifice of a shelem offering.
And the priest is to turn them into smoke
on the slaughter site of olah.

Lev. 4:11 And the skin itself תא of the bull,
and all its flesh,
with its head, and with its shins,
and its innards, and its excrement

Lev. 4:12 he is to bring out,
all the rest of the bull itself תא,
outside the camp to an undefiled place,
to the emptying place
for the sacrificial ashes.

And he is to burn it itself תא
upon wood in fire.

Upon the emptying place
for the sacrificial ashes it is to be burned.

tahowr, tahor - pure, clean.
The concept is that of an undefiled place,
one that is "ritually pure"
- has been ceremonially 'cleansed'
to make it undefiled.

Defilement is seldom used
in English translations.
However, it should take center stage.
It is the essential concept
related to the set apart things.

Whatever was undefiled (clean, pure, etc.) was acceptable.
Whatever was defiled (contaminated in any manner by any act)
was absolutely forbidden to be in contact with the set apart things and areas.
Nothing defiled was to be allowed
in the presence of YAHWEH!

Lev. 4:13 And if the entire community of Yisra'el errs
and it is concealed from the eyes of the assembly and they do one of any of YAHWEH's directives
that is not to be done and they are guilty, Lev. 4:14 and it becomes known concerning it,
the error in which they erred,
the assembly is to bring near a bull,
a young of the cattle
for the sake of the offense.
They are to bring it itself תא
to the Tent of Appointment.
Lev. 4:15 And the elders of the community
are to lay their hands themselves תא
on the head of the bull
before the face of YAHWEH.
And one is to slaughter the bull itself תא
before the face of YAHWEH.

Lev. 4:16 Then The Anointed Priest is to bring some of the blood of the bull
into The Tent of Appointment.
Lev. 4:17 And the priest is to dip his finger
in some of the blood.
And he is to sprinkle it seven times before the presence of YAHWEH,
before the veil itself תא.

Lev. 4:18 And some of the blood
he is to put on the horns of the table of incense
that is before the face of YAHWEH
that is in The Tent of Appointment.

And all the blood itself תא he is to pour out
at the foundation of the slaughter site of olah
that is at the entrance
of The Tent of Appointment.

Lev. 4:19 And all its fat itself תא
he is to lift up from it.
And he is to turn it into smoke
on the slaughter site.
Lev. 4:20 And he is to do with the bull
just as he did with the bull of offense.
Thus is he to do with it.
And the priest
is to make atonement for their sake.
And there will be forgiveness for them.

Lev. 4:21 And he is to take the bull itself תא
outside the camp.
And he is to burn it itself תא
just like he burned the first bull itself תא.

It is an offense offering of the assembly.

Lev. 4:22 When a leader errs and has done unintentionally any of the directives
of YAHWEH, his Elohim,
that is not to be done, and is guilty,
Lev. 4:23 or it is made known to him
his error by which he erred, then he is to bring
as his approach offering itself תא
a hairy one of goats, a male, whole.
Lev. 4:24 And he is to lay his hand
on the head of the hairy one.
And he is to slaughter it itself תא
at the place

where the offering of olah itself תא
is slaughtered, before the face of YAHWEH.

It is an offense offering.

Lev. 4:25 And the priest is to take
some of the blood of the offense offering
with his finger.

And he is to put it on the horns
of the slaughter site of olah.

And its blood itself תא he is to pour out
at the foundation of the slaughter site of olah.

Lev. 4:26 And all its fat itself תא
he is to turn into smoke on the slaughter site
like the fat of the sacrifice
of the shelem offering.

And the priest is to make atonement for him
for his error.

And it will be forgiveness to him.

Lev. 4:27 And if a breathing being errs by mistake
from the people of the land
by doing one of the directives of YAHWEH
that is not to be done, and is guilty,

Lev. 4:28 or it is made known to him
the error in which he erred, then he is to bring as his approach offering a hairy one of goats, whole, a female,
on account of the error in which he erred.

Lev. 4:29 And he is to lay his hand itself תא,
on the head of the offense offering.

And he is to slaughter
the offense offering itself תא
at the place of the olah.

Lev. 4:30 And the priest is to take
some of the blood of the offense offering
with his finger.

And he is to put it on the horns
of the slaughter site of olah.

And all its blood itself תא he is to pour out
at the foundation of the slaughter site of olah.

Lev. 4:31 And all its fat itself תא he is to remove,
like the fat that was removed from upon the sacrifice of the shelem offering.

And the priest is to turn it into smoke
on the slaughter site,

for a soothing aroma to YAHWEH.

And the priest will make atonement for it.

And it will be forgiveness to him.

Lev. 4:32 And if he brings a lamb
as his approach offering
for an offense offering,
a female, whole, he is to bring.

Lev. 4:33 And he is to lay his hand itself תא
on the head of the offense offering.

And he is to slaughter
the offense offering itself תא
at the place of the olah.

Lev. 4:34 And the priest is to take
some of the blood of the offense offering
with his finger.

And he is to put it on the horns
of the slaughter site of olah.

And all its blood itself תא he is to pour out
at the foundation of the slaughter site of olah.

Lev. 4:35 And all its fat itself תא he is to remove,
like the fat of the lamb that was removed from upon the sacrifice
of the shelem offering.

And the priest is to turn they themselves תא
into smoke on the slaughter site,

upon the offering by fire to YAHWEH.
And the priest will make atonement for it.
And it will be forgiveness to him.

Chapter 5

Lev. 5:1 Now a breathing being who errs,
and he hears the sound of an oath,
and he himself is a witness,
either seeing or knowing,
if he does not declare it
then he is to carry his perversion.

The flow of thought is difficult.

This seems to speak to the guilt of a witness who remains silent when he knows something,
but who fails to tell what he knows,
rather than the guilt of the one who errs.

Lev. 5:2 Or a breathing being
that touches anything defiled,
either the carcass of a defiled animal,
or the carcass of defiled cattle,
or the carcass of defiled crawling things,
and it is concealed from him
even he himself is defiled,
and he is guilty.

Lev. 5:3 Or when he touches
human defilement
concerning any of its defilement
by which one is defiled
and it is concealed, hidden from him,
when he knows it he is guilty.

Lev. 5:4 Or when a breathing being swears thoughtlessly with his lips
for bad or for good,
for everything a human being speaks thoughtlessly in swearing
and it is concealed from him,
when he knows it
he is guilty for one of these.

Lev. 5:5 And it will exist,
when he is guilty for one of these,
and he confesses how he has erred
on account of this,

Lev. 5:6 then he is to bring his liability offering itself אָח to YAHWEH
for the sake of the offense
with which he has offended,
a female from the flock,
a she lamb, or a hairy she goat,
for the sake of the offense.

And the priest is to make atonement for him
because of his offense.

'asham - guilt; by implication, a fault;
also a sin-offering.

The offering, here called an "offense-offering"
is tied to one's guilt for some action.
These actions were often evaluated by the priest
and some form of restitution was made.
Because of this it's often been called a "guilt offering".
However, since the term implies guilt
and there is a 'penalty' associated with it,
it seems better to call this a liability offering.

Lev. 5:7 But if his hand cannot reach enough for a sheep
he is to bring as his liability offering itself אָח
for what he erred,
two turtledoves,
or two young pigeons to YAHWEH,
one for an offense offering,
and one for an olah.

Lev. 5:8 And he is to bring they themselves אָח
to the priest.

And he is to bring near that itself תא
which is for the offense offering first.
And he is to pinch off its head itself תא
at the nape of the neck.
But he is not to separate it.
Lev. 5:9 And he is to sprinkle some of the blood
of the offense offering
against the side of the slaughter site.
And the remaining blood is to be drained out
at the foundation of the slaughter site.

It is an offense offering.

Lev. 5:10 And the second one itself תא
he is to do as an olah, according to regulation.
And the priest is to make atonement
on account of his error by which he has erred.
And it will be forgiveness for him.

Lev. 5:11 But if his hand cannot reach
for two turtledoves or for two young pigeons
he is to bring as his approach offering itself תא
by which he has erred
a tenth of an ephah of flour
for an offense offering.
He is not to place oil on it.
And he is not to put frankincense on it because it is an offense offering.
Lev. 5:12 And he is to bring it to the priest.
And the priest is to take a handful from it,
a full handful, a reminder portion itself תא.
And he is to turn it into smoke
on the slaughter site,
upon the offering by fire to YAHWEH.

It is an offense offering.

Lev. 5:13 And the priest
is to make atonement for him for his error
in which he erred in one of these.
And it will be forgiveness for him.
And it will be for the priest,
like the grain gift.' "

Lev. 5:14 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 5:15 "A breathing being,
when he acts unfaithfully,
he is unfaithful and errs by mistake
concerning the set apart things of YAHWEH, he is to bring
as his liability offering itself תא to YAHWEH
a ram, whole, from the flock
according to your valuation in silver shekels,
according to the set apart shekel,
for his offense offering.

Lev. 5:16 And for that itself תא
by which he offended concerning the set apart things
he is to make peace.
And a fifth of it itself תא he is to add to it.
And he is to give it itself תא to the priest.
And the priest is to make atonement for it
with the ram of the liability offering.
And it will be forgiveness for him.

Lev. 5:17 But if a breathing being,
when he errs and he does
one of the directives of YAHWEH
that are not to be done,
even if he did not know and is guilty,
he must carry his perversion.
Perversion - literally, crookedness.

Lev. 5:18 And he is to bring a ram,
whole, from the flock,
according to your valuation,
as a liability offering to the priest.
And the priest is to make atonement
for his offense by which he offended,
even if he did not know.
And it will be forgiveness for him.

Lev. 5:19 It is a liability offering.
He is guilty, guilty before YAHWEH!"

Note: In traditional English texts Chapter 6 begins here.
However, in the Hebrew text it does not begin until what is normally seen as following verse 30.

Chapter 6

Lev. 6:1 (H 5:20)

And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Lev. 6:2 (H 5:21)

"A breathing being,
when one errs and acts unfaithfully,
is unfaithful against YAHWEH,
and he lies concerning his neighbor
concerning a deposit, or concerning what is placed in one's hand for safe keeping,
or concerning robbery,
or has oppressed his neighbor,

Lev. 6:3 (H 5:22)

or has found a lost thing
and lies concerning it,
or he swears falsely about anything at all that a human being does to err concerning these,

Lev. 6:4 (H 5:23)

then it will exist,
when he has erred and is guilty,
he is to return
the stolen thing itself נא that he stole,
or the thing itself נא he got by oppression,
or the deposit itself נא
that he was to manage, it itself נא,
or the lost thing itself נא that he found,
6:5 (H 5:24)

or anything about which he swears falsely.

And he is to restore it itself נא
according to its original value.

And he is to add its fifth to it.

To him whose it is he is to give it on the day of his offense offering.

Lev. 6:6 (H 5:25)

And his liability offering itself נא
he is to bring to YAHWEH,
a ram, whole, from the flock,
according to your assessment,
for a liability offering,
to the priest.

Lev. 6:7 (H 5:26)

And the priest
is to make atonement for him
before the face of YAHWEH.
And it will be forgiven to him
for the sake of one of anything he has done, being guilty on account of it."

Lev. 6:8 (H 6:1)

And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Lev. 6:9 (H 6:2)

"Instruct Aharon himself נא
and his sons themselves נא saying,
'This is the instruction for the olah.

It is to ascend
upon the fuel of the slaughter site
all night until dawn.
And the fire of the slaughter site
is to be kept burning on it.
torah - instruction.
Note the use of this term.
This is not a commandment.
It is an instruction.

Lev. 6:10 (H 6:3)
And the priest is to clothe himself
in his extended garment of linen.
And underwear of linen he is to wear
over his "flesh".
And he is to lift up
the ashes themselves נא
by which the fire has consumed
the olah itself נא
upon the slaughter site.
And he is to set them
beside the slaughter site.
Lev. 6:11 (H 6:4)
Then he is to strip off his garments themselves נא
and clothe himself in other garments.
And he is to bring out
the ashes themselves נא
to outside the camp,
to an undefiled place.

Lev. 6:12 (H 6:5)
And the fire on the slaughter site
is to be kept burning on it.
It is not to be extinguished!

And the priest is to kindle wood on it
at dawn, at dawn!
And he is to arrange on it the olah.
And he is to turn into smoke on it
the fat of the shelem offering.

Lev. 6:13 (H 6:6)
Fire is to be continually burning
upon the slaughter site.
It is not to be extinguished!

Lev. 6:14 (H 6:7)
And this is the Instruction for the grain gift.
Aharon's sons are to bring near it itself נא,
before the face of YAHWEH,
to the front of the slaughter site.

Lev. 6:15 (H 6:8)
And he is to lift up a handful
from the flour of the grain gift,
and some of its oil,
and all of the frankincense itself נא
that is upon the grain gift.
And he is to turn it into smoke
on the slaughter site,
a soothing aroma,
its reminder portion for YAHWEH.

Lev. 6:16 (H 6:9)
And the remainder of it
Aharon and his sons are to eat.
Unleavened it is to be eaten,
in a set apart place.
In the courtyard of The Tent of Appointment
they are to eat it.

Lev. 6:17 (H 6:10)
It is not to be baked with leaven.
As their portion I have given it itself נא

from My offering by fire.
It is set apart, set apart!
As the offense offering,
so also is the liability offering.

Lev. 6:18 (H 6:11)
Every male among the children of Aharon
may eat it,
a decree to eternity for your generations
from the offering by fire to YAHWEH.
Everything that touches it is set apart! "

Lev. 6:19 (H 6:12)
And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 6:20 (H 6:13)
This is the approach offering
of Aharon and his sons
that they are to bring near to YAHWEH
on the day of his being anointed, it itself אָנֹכִי.
A tenth measure of an ephah of flour
as a continual grain gift, half of it at dawn
and half of it at sunset.
Lev. 6:21 (H 6:14)
On a pan, with oil, it is to be made.
Mixed are you to bring it,
as baked crumbled bits of grain
you are to bring it near,
a soothing aroma to YAHWEH.

Lev. 6:22 (H 6:15)
Also the priest anointed in his place from his sons is to do it itself אָנֹכִי,
a decree for eternity,
to YAHWEH, entirely turned into smoke.

Lev. 6:23 (H 6:16)
And every grain gift of a priest
is to be entirely turned into smoke.
It is not to be eaten!"

Lev. 6:24 (H 6:17)
And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 6:25 (H 6:18)
"Speak to Aharon and to his sons saying,
'This is the Instruction for the offense offering.

In the place where the olah is slaughtered
the offense offering is to be slaughtered,
before the face of YAHWEH.
It is set apart, set apart!

Lev. 6:26 (H 6:19)
The priest who is sacrificing
the offense offering itself אָנֹכִי is to eat it.
In a set apart place it is to be eaten,
in the courtyard
of The Tent of Appointment.
*The rendering of this verse gives the intent.
The Hebrew is difficult,
and does not provide a clear sense
of what is to happen in the first two lines.*

Lev. 6:27 (H 6:20)
Whatever touches its flesh is set apart.
And if some of its blood is spattered on a garment
it is to be washed in a set apart place.
Lev. 6:28 (H 6:21)
And a vessel of earthenware
in which it was boiled is to be broken.
And if it was in a copper vessel that it was boiled
it is to be scoured and rinsed with water.

Lev. 6:29 (H 6:22)
Any male among the priests
may eat it itself תא.
It is set apart, set apart!

6:30 (H 6:23)
But any offense offering from which the blood is brought
into The Tent of Appointment
to make atonement in The Set Apart Place
is not to be eaten!
In fire it is to be burned!

Chapter 7

Lev. 7.1 And this is the Instruction
for the liability offering.
It is set apart, set apart!

Lev. 7:2 In the place where they slaughter the olah itself תא
they are to slaughter
the liability offering itself תא.

And its blood itself תא is to be splashed
upon the slaughter site, all around.

Lev. 7:3 And all its fat from it itself תא
is to be brought near,
the thick tail itself תא and the fat itself תא
that covers the innards,

Lev. 7:4 and the two kidneys themselves תא
and the fat itself תא that is on them,
that is on the loins,
and the lobe of the liver itself תא
above with the kidneys is to be removed.

Lev. 7:5 And the priest
is to turn they themselves תא
into smoke on the slaughter site,
an offering by fire to YAHWEH.
It is a liability offering.

Lev. 7:6 Any male among the priests may eat it.
In a set apart place it is to be eaten.
It is set apart, set apart!

Lev. 7:7 As the offense offering,
so also the liability offering.
One Instruction for them.

The priest who makes atonement with it,
it is to be for him.

Lev. 7:8 And the priest who brings near the olah itself תא of a man,
the skin of the olah that he brings near
is for the priest.
It is to be for him.

Lev. 7:9 And any grain gift
that is baked in an oven,
and any that is done in a frying pan
or on a baking pan,
it is for the priest that brings it near,
he himself תא.
It is to be for him.

Lev. 7:10 But any grain gift,
mixed with oil or dry,
for any of the sons of Aharon it is to be,
each man like his brother.

Lev. 7:11 And this is the Instruction
for the sacrifice of the shelem offering that is brought near to YAHWEH.

Lev. 7:12 If it is on account of thanksgiving that he brings it near
he is to bring near
with the sacrifice of thanksgiving
unleavened cakes mixed with oil,

unleavened wafers anointed with oil,
and flour mixed into cakes,
overflowing with oil.
Lev. 7:13 With cakes of leavened bread
he is to bring near his approach offering,
with his sacrifice of thanksgiving
as a shelem offering.

Note the shift here
and the introduction of leavened cakes.
This should catch our attention.
This same use of both unleavened and leavened food
also occurs during Shavuot (Pentecost).

Lev. 7:14 And he is to bring near from it
one from each gift as a gift to YAHWEH.
It is for the priest who splashes the blood itself נא
of the shelem offering.
It is to be for him.

Lev. 7:15 And the flesh
of his sacrifice of thanksgiving,
his shelem offering,
on the day of his bringing it near
it is to be eaten.
He is not to leave any of it until morning.

Lev. 7:16 And if a promise offering or a spontaneous offering is his sacrifice of approach offering,
on the day of his bringing near his sacrifice itself נא it is to be eaten.
On the next day
the remainder of it may be eaten.

The promise offering is normally called the vow offering.
Since this often involved an oath of some kind
it was considered a vow.
However, the literal sense of the term is "promise".

Similarly, the spontaneous offering
is traditionally called a "freewill offering".
But using that terminology loses the sense of being a gift offered whenever one chooses.

It's not merely "freely given"
but it's done without prior contemplation.
Otherwise, it's not spontaneous,
which is what the term literally means.

Lev. 7:17 But that remaining from the flesh of the sacrifice
on the third day is to be burned in fire.

Lev. 7:18 And if it is eaten,
if any of the flesh
of his sacrifice of his shelem offerings
is eaten on the third day, what he has brought near
will not be accepted!
It itself נא will not be regarded on his behalf.
It is detestable!
And the breathing being eating from it
will carry his perversion!

Lev. 7:19 And the flesh
that touches anything defiled
is not to be eaten!
It is to be burned in fire!
But all the undefiled flesh,
he may eat of it.

Lev. 7:20 And the breathing being who eats flesh
from the sacrifice of shelem offerings

which are for YAHWEH
while his defilement is upon him,
the breathing being is even to be cut off,
that one,
from his people!

nephesh - properly, a breathing creature,
i.e. animal of (abstractly) vitality.

While often translated as "soul",
there is no such concept
in ancient Hebrew thought.
"Soul" is a Greek invention.

This could be translated as 'life' or 'person',
but it's also used of animals.

karath - to cut (off, down, or asunder).
This same term is used in connection with The Messiah,
Who was "cut off" on our behalf.
It refers to destruction.

Lev. 7:21 And a breathing being,
when he touches anything
defiled by human defilement,
or by a defiled animal,
or by anything filthy, defiled,
and he eats from the flesh
of the sacrifice of shelem offerings
which are for YAHWEH,
that breathing being is also to be cut off be from his people! "

Lev. 7:22 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 7:23 Speak to the children of Yisra'el saying,
"Any fat of an ox or a lamb or a goat
you are not to eat!

Lev. 7:24 And fat from a carcass and fat from a torn animal
may be used for any work.
But to eat, you are not to eat it!

Lev. 7:25 When anyone is eating fat from an animal from which an offering by fire is brought near for YAHWEH, even cut off from his people
is that breathing being to be who is eating!

Lev. 7:26 And any blood you are not to eat
throughout all your settlements,
of flying things or of animals!

Lev. 7:27 Any person who eats any blood, that breathing being
is to be cut off from his people! "

Lev. 7:28 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 7:29 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el saying,
'He who brings near his sacrifice itself nx
of shelem offerings to YAHWEH is to bring near

his approach offering itself nx to YAHWEH
from his sacrifice of shelem offerings.

Lev. 7:30 His hands are to bring the offerings by fire themselves nx of YAHWEH.

The fat itself nx with the breast he is to bring.
The breast itself nx for presenting it itself nx
as a presentation offering

before the face of YAHWEH.

Lev. 7:31 And the priest is to turn into smoke
the fat itself nx on the slaughter site.

And the breast is to be for Aharon
and for his sons.

Lev. 7:32 And the right thigh itself nx
of the presented gift

you are to give to the priest
from your sacrifice of shelem offerings.
Lev. 7:33 He who is bringing near the blood itself אַ of the shelem offerings and the fat itself אַ
from the sons of Aharon,
it is to be for him,
the right thigh for a portion.
Lev. 7:34 Indeed, the breast itself אַ of the elevation offering and the thigh itself אַ of the contribution I have taken from
the children of Yisra'el themselves אַ,
from their sacrifices of shelem offerings,
and I have given they themselves אַ
to Aharon, the priest, and to his sons,
as an appointment to eternity
from the children of Yisra'el themselves אַ.

Lev. 7:35 This is the anointed share of Aharon and the anointed share of his sons
from the offerings by fire of YAHWEH,
from the day He brought near they themselves אַ
to officiate as priests for YAHWEH, Lev. 7:36 which YAHWEH directed to be given to them from the day of His anointing they themselves אַ,
from the children of Yisra'el themselves אַ
as a rule to eternity for their generations.' "

Lev. 7:37 This is the Instruction
concerning the olah,
concerning the grain gift, concerning the offense offering,
and concerning the liability offering,
concerning the dedication offering,
and concerning the sacrifice of shelem offerings
Lev. 7:38 that YAHWEH gave as direction to Moshe himself אַ at Mount Sinai on the day of his directing
the children of Yisra'el themselves אַ
to bring near their approach offerings themselves אַ
to YAHWEH in the wilderness of Sinai.

Chapter 8

Lev. 8:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 8:2 "Take Aharon himself אַ
and his sons themselves אַ with he himself אַ,
the garments themselves אַ,
and the oil for anointing itself אַ,
and the bull for the offense offering itself אַ,
and the two rams themselves אַ,
and the basket of unleavened bread itself אַ.
Lev. 8:3 And the entire assembly itself אַ is to assemble at the entrance
to The Tent of Appointment."

Lev. 8:4 And Moshe did according to what YAHWEH had directed he himself אַ.
And the assembly assembled
at the entrance to The Tent of Appointment.

Lev. 8:5 And Moshe said to the assembly,
"This is the word that YAHWEH
has directed to be done."

Lev. 8:6 And Moshe brought near Aharon himself אַ
and his sons themselves אַ.
And he washed they themselves אַ with water.
Lev. 8:7 And he put on him the tunic itself אַ.
And he girded he himself אַ with the sash.

And he clothed he himself תא
with the robe itself תא.
And he put on him the ephod itself תא.
And he girded he himself תא
with the waistband of the ephod.
And he tied it to him with it.
Lev. 8:8 And he placed on him
the breastpiece itself תא.
And he put into the breastpiece
the Urim itself תא
and the Thummim itself תא.

It's not known at this point
what the Urim and the Thummim were.
Their meaning appears to be
"the Lights and the Perfections."
Many suggest they were two items,
one light and one dark,
that were used in "casting lots"
to make decisions for the children of Yisra'el.

Lev. 8:9 And he placed
the turban itself תא on his head.
And he placed on the turban
at the front of his face,
the plate of gold itself תא,
the set apart crown,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.

Lev. 8:10 And Moshe took
the oil of the anointing itself תא.
And he anointed
The Dwelling Place itself תא
and everything itself תא that was in it.
And he set apart they themselves תא.
Lev. 8:11 And he sprinkled some of it on the slaughter site seven times.
And he anointed the slaughter site itself תא,
and all its vessels themselves תא,
and the basin itself תא,
and its stand itself תא
for the sake of setting set them apart.
Lev. 8:12 And he poured
some of the oil for anointing
on the head of Aharon.
And he anointed he himself תא
for the sake of setting him apart.

Lev. 8:13 And Moshe brought near
the sons of Aharon themselves תא.
And he clothed them in robes.
And he girded
they themselves תא with sashes.
And he wrapped headbands for them
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.
Lev. 8:14 And he brought near
the bull of the offense offering itself תא.
And Aharon and his sons
laid their hands themselves תא
upon the head of the bull
of the offense offering.
Lev. 8:15 And he slaughtered it.
And Moshe took the blood itself תא.
And he put it on the horns
of the slaughter site, all around,
with his finger.
And he atoned for the offense
of the slaughter site itself תא.
And the blood itself תא he poured out
at the foundation of the slaughter site.
And he set it apart
for the sake of making atonement upon it.

The reference to the offense of the slaughter site
reflects the purpose of putting the blood upon its horns

(a symbol of its power and authority).

This is traditionally translated as "purified".
But the word used is chata,
to miss, hence, to offend.

The slaughter site cannot offend by itself.
However, it is contaminated
by the offenses that surround it.
And it is the place where atonement
for those offenses will be made.
This is a transference of the offense
for the action of "covering the offense with the blood of the sacrifice".

To look at this in straight translation would be to say Moshe
made the slaughter site offend.
That can only make sense to us when we consider that The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
"became 'sin' for us".

Like the slaughter site,
He took our place.
He took upon Himself our offenses,
and in doing so was then able to make atonement for us.

Lev. 8:16 And he took all the fat itself תא that is on the innards,
and the lobe of the liver itself תא,
and the two kidneys themselves תא,
and their fat itself תא.
And Moshe turned them into smoke
on the slaughter site.

Lev. 8:17 And the bull itself תא,
and its skin itself תא,
and its flesh itself תא,
and its excrement itself תא
he burned in fire outside the camp,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.

Lev. 8:18 And he brought near
the ram for the olah itself תא.
And Aharon and his sons
laid their hands themselves תא
upon the head of the ram.

Lev. 8:19 And he slaughtered it.
And Moshe splashed the blood itself תא
on the slaughter site, all around.

Lev. 8:20 And the ram itself תא
he cut into its pieces.
And Moshe turned into smoke
the head itself תא,
and the pieces themselves תא,
and the fat itself תא.

Lev. 8:21 And the innards themselves תא
and the shins themselves תא
he washed with water.

And Moshe turned into smoke
the entire ram itself תא
upon the slaughter site,
It is an olah, for a soothing aroma,
an offering by fire to YAHWEH,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.

Lev. 8:22 And he brought near
the second ram itself תא,
the ram for consecration.
And Aharon and his sons
laid their hands themselves תא
on the head of the ram.

Lev. 8:23 And he slaughtered it.
And Moshe took some of its blood.
And he put it on the ridge
of the right ear of Aharon,
and on the thumb of his right hand,
and on the big toe of his right foot.

Lev. 8:24 And he brought near
the sons of Aharon themselves אֵת.
And Moshe put some of the blood
on the ridge of their right ear,
on the thumb of their right hand,
and on the big toe of their right foot.
And Moshe splashed the blood itself אֵת
on the slaughter site, all around.

Lev. 8:25 And he took the fat itself אֵת,
and the fat tail itself אֵת,
and all the fat itself אֵת that is on the innards,
and the lobe of the liver itself אֵת,
and the two kidneys themselves אֵת,
and their fat itself אֵת,
and the right thigh itself אֵת.

Lev. 8:26 And from the basket of unleavened bread
that was before the face of YAHWEH
he took one cake of unleavened bread,
and one cake of oil bread, and one wafer.
And he put them on the fat
and on the right thigh.

Lev. 8:27 And he put all of this itself אֵת
upon the palms of Aharon
and upon the palms of his sons.
And they waved these themselves אֵת
as a presentation offering
before the face of YAHWEH.

Lev. 8:28 And Moshe took
these themselves אֵת from their palms.
And he turned them into smoke
on the slaughter site, on the olah,
as their consecration offerings,
for a soothing aroma.
It is an offering by fire to YAHWEH.

Lev. 8:29 Then Moshe took the breast itself אֵת.
And he waved it as a presentation offering
before the face of YAHWEH,
from the ram of consecration.
It was for Moshe as a portion,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself אֵת.

Lev. 8:30 And Moshe took
some of the oil for anointing
and some of the blood
that was upon the slaughter site.
And he sprinkled it on Aharon,
on his garments, on his sons,
and on the garments of his sons,
he himself אֵת.
And he set apart Aharon himself אֵת,
his garments themselves אֵת,
and his sons themselves אֵת,
and the garments of his sons themselves אֵת,
he himself אֵת.

Lev. 8:31 And Moshe said to Aharon
and to his sons,
"Boil the flesh itself אֵת at the entrance
to The Tent of Appointment.
And there you are to eat it itself אֵת
and the bread itself אֵת that is in the basket
of the consecrations as I have directed, saying to Aharon and his sons, "Eat it!"
Lev. 8:32 And the remainder of the flesh and of the bread

you are to burn in fire.

Lev. 8:33 And from the entrance
to The Tent of Appointment
you are not to go out for seven days, until the time of fulfilling
of the days of consecrations, because with seven days
your hands themselves אַתְּ are filled.

The hands were filled with authority for the office.

Lev. 8:34 According to what has been done this day YAHWEH has directed it to be done
for the sake of making atonement for you.

Lev. 8:35 And at the entrance
to The Tent of Appointment
you are to sit day and night
for seven days.

And you are to protect
the duty itself אַתְּ of YAHWEH!
And you will not be put to death
because according to this I have been directed.

Lev. 8:36 And Aharon and his sons did all the words themselves אַתְּ that YAHWEH had directed
by the hand of Moshe.

Chapter 9

Lev. 9:1 And it was on the eighth day.
Moshe called Aharon and his sons
and the elders of Yisra'el.

Lev. 9:2 And he said to Aharon,
"Take yourself a calf, a young of the cow,
for an offense offering,
and a ram for an olah, whole,
and bring them near,
before the face of YAHWEH.

Lev. 9:3 And to the children of Yisra'el
you are to speak saying,
"Take a hairy one of the goats
for a offense offering
and a calf and a lamb,
year old ones, whole,
for an olah,

Lev. 9:4 and an ox and a ram
for shelem offerings
to sacrifice before the face of YAHWEH,
and a grain gift mixed with oil,
because today
YAHWEH will be seen by you!" "

Lev. 9:5 And they took that itself אַתְּ which Moshe had directed to the front of The Tent of Appointment.
And the entire assembly came near
and stood before the face of YAHWEH.

Lev. 9:6 And Moshe said, "This is the word that YAHWEH has directed you to do.
Then the Splendor of YAHWEH
will be seen by you!"

Note: YAHWEH will be "seen"
in the form of His splendor made visible,
not His face!
This agrees with the Scripture principle that no one can see His face and live.

Lev. 9:7 And Moshe said to Aharon,
"Go near to the slaughter site and prepare your offense offering itself אַתְּ
and your olah itself אַתְּ

for the sake of making atonement
on your behalf and on behalf of the people.
And prepare the approach offering itself אַתָּה
of the people.
And make atonement on their behalf,
according to what YAHWEH has directed."

Lev. 9:8 And Aharon
came near to the slaughter site.
And he slaughtered the calf itself אַתָּה
for the offense offering that was for him.
Lev. 9:9 And the sons of Aharon
brought near to him the blood itself אַתָּה.
And he dipped his finger in the blood.
And he put it
on the horns of the slaughter site.
And the blood itself אַתָּה he poured out
at the foundation of the slaughter site.
Lev. 9:10 And the fat itself אַתָּה
and the kidneys themselves אַתָּה and the lobe on liver itself אַתָּה from the offense offering
he turned into smoke on the slaughter site,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself אַתָּה.

Lev. 9:11 And the flesh itself אַתָּה
and the skin itself אַתָּה
he burned in fire outside the camp.

Lev. 9:12 And he slaughtered the olah itself אַתָּה.
And the sons of Aharon presented to him
the blood itself אַתָּה.
And he splashed it on the slaughter site,
all around.

Lev. 9:13 And the olah itself אַתָּה
they presented to him in its pieces,
also the head itself אַתָּה.
And he turned them into smoke
upon the slaughter site.
Lev. 9:14 And he washed the innards themselves אַתָּה
and the shins themselves אַתָּה.
And he turned them into smoke
upon the olah
upon the slaughter site.

Lev. 9:15 And he brought near
the approach offering itself אַתָּה of the people.
And he took the hairy goat itself אַתָּה
of the offense offering
that was for the people.
And he slaughtered it.
And he sacrificed it for offense
like the first one.

Lev. 9:16 And he brought near the olah itself אַתָּה.
And he prepared it according to regulation.

Lev. 9:17 And he brought near
the grain gift itself אַתָּה.
And he filled his palm with some of it.
And he turned it into smoke
upon the slaughter site,
beside the morning olah.

Lev. 9:18 Then he slaughtered the ox itself אַתָּה
and the ram itself אַתָּה
of the sacrifice of shelem offering
that was for the people.
And the sons of Aharon presented to him
the blood itself אַתָּה.
And he splashed it on the slaughter site,
all around.

Lev. 9:19 And they took the fat itself תא of the ox and of the ram, the fat tail and what is on the kidneys, and the lobe of the liver.

Lev. 9:20 And they put the fat itself תא beside the breasts.

And he turned the fat into smoke on the slaughter site.

Lev. 9:21 And the breasts themselves תא and the right thigh itself תא Aharon waved for a presentation offering before the face of YAHWEH according to what He had directed Moshe.

Lev. 9:22 And Aharon lifted his hands themselves תא toward the people. And he blessed them. And he came down from preparing the offense offering, the olah, and the shelem offering.

Lev. 9:23 And Moshe and Aharon went into The Tent of Appointment. And they came out. And they blessed the people themselves תא.

And the Splendor of YAHWEH was seen by all the people.

Lev. 9:24 And fire went out from before YAHWEH. And it consumed upon the slaughter site the olah itself תא and the fat itself תא.

And when all the people saw they shouted for joy! And they fell on their faces.

Chapter 10

Lev. 10:1 And the sons of Aharon, Nadab and Abihu, took each man his fire pan. And they put fire in them. And they placed incense on it. And they brought it near, before the face of YAHWEH, disgusting fire, which they themselves תא had not been directed to bring.

Nadab means volunteer.

Abihu means he is my father.

Lev. 10:2 And fire went out from before the face of YAHWEH. And it consumed they themselves תא. And they died before the face of YAHWEH.

Lev. 10:3 And Moshe said to Aharon, "It is what YAHWEH spoke saying, 'By those coming near to Me I will be set apart. And before all the people I will be honored!'"

Aharon was speechless.

Lev. 10:4 And Moshe called Misha'el and Eltzafan, the sons of Uzzi'el, uncle of Aharon. And he said to them, "Come near! Carry your brothers themselves תא from the face itself תא of The Set Apart Place to outside the camp!"

Misha'el means who is what El is.

Eltzafan means El is my covering.
Uzzi'el means El is my strength.

Lev. 10:5 And they came near.
And they carried them by their tunics
outside the camp
according to what Moshe had spoken.

Lev. 10:6 And Moshe said to Aharon
and to El'azar and to Itamar, his sons,
"Your heads you are not to uncover and your garments you are not to tear
even on account of this.
Then you will not be put to death and He will not burst out in rage
upon the entire assembly!

And your kindred,
the entire House of Yisra'el,
are to weep for the burning itself תא
that YAHWEH has kindled.
El'azar means El is helper.
Itamar means coast of the palm tree.

Lev. 10:7 And from the entrance
to The Tent of Appointment
you are not to go out,
lest you be put to death,
because the oil of anointing of YAHWEH
is upon you!

And they did according to the word of Moshe.

Lev. 10:8 And YAHWEH spoke to Aharon saying,
Lev. 10:9 "Wine and intoxicant
you yourself תא are not to drink,
nor your sons themselves תא,
you yourself תא,
as you go into The Tent of Appointment
or you will be put to death.
A rule to eternity for your generations.
The unstated implication here seems to be that Nadab and Abihu were drunk
when they brought incense that was not specifically prescribed into The Set apart Place.

Lev. 10:10 And it is for a separation between the set apart and the common,
between the defiled and the undefiled,
Lev. 10:11 and for the sake of instructing
The children of Yisra'el themselves תא
according to all the directives themselves תא that YAHWEH has spoken to them
by the hand of Moshe.

This last verse appears to be a later addition to the text.
The wording doesn't fit the flow of the story.
It appears to be a clarifying statement,
inserted for later generations.

Lev. 10:12 And Moshe spoke to Aharon
and to El'azar and to Itamar,
his sons who remained,
"Take the grain gift itself תא,
the remainder of
the offerings by fire of YAHWEH, and eat it unleavened
beside the slaughter site.
Indeed it is set apart.
It is set apart!

Lev. 10:13 And you yourself תא are to eat it
in a set apart place
because it is your appointment
and the appointment of your sons
from the offerings by fire of YAHWEH.

Indeed, according to this I have been directed."

Lev. 10:14 And the breast itself נא of the presentation offering and the thigh itself נא of the elevated gift
you are to eat in an undefiled place,
you yourself נא,
and your sons, and your daughters,
you yourself נא,
because it is your appointment
and the appointment of your children, given from the shelem offerings
of the children of Yisra'el.
Lev. 10:15 The thigh of the elevated gift and the breast of the presentation offering,
and the fat for upon the fire
they are to bring to elevate as a presentation offering
before the face of YAHWEH.
It is to be for you and for your sons,
you yourself נא,
an appointment to eternity,
according to what YAHWEH has directed.

Lev. 10:16 And the hairy goat itself נא
of the liability offering Moshe sought.
He sought it!
And behold!
It had been burned!
And he burst out in rage against El'azar and against Itamar,
the sons of Aharon,
the remaining ones, saying,
Lev. 10:17 "Why did you not eat
the liability offering in The Set Apart Place
since it is set apart, set apart?
And it itself נא has been given to you for the sake of bearing the perversion itself נא of the assembly,
for the sake of making atonement for them
before the face of YAHWEH.
Lev. 10:18 Behold!
Its blood itself נא has not been brought into The Set Apart Place, inside!
You were to eat, eat it itself נא,
in The Set Apart Place as I directed!"

Lev. 10:19 And Aharon said to Moshe,
"Behold!
Today they brought near their liability offering itself נא
and their olah itself נא
before the face of YAHWEH.
And I myself נא
have encountered these things.
Had I eaten the liability offering today would it have been pleasing
in the eyes of YAHWEH?
Lev. 10:20 And Moshe listened attentively.
And it was good in his eyes.

Chapter 11

Lev. 11:1 YAHWEH spoke to Moshe
and to Aharon saying to them,
Lev. 11:2 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el
saying to them,
"These are the living things that you are to eat
from all the animals that are on the land.

This is a change from Gen 9:3
where YAHWEH said
everything that moved was good for food.
Now there are restrictions placed on clean and unclean.

Lev. 11:3 Every one splitting a hoof,
and having a split hoof bringing up the cud,
among the living things;
this itself אָת you are to eat.

Lev. 11:4 However, this itself אָת
you are not to eat
from those bringing up the cud,
or from those having a hoof:
the camel itself אָת.

Indeed, it brings up the cud,
but a hoof it does not have.
It is defiled for you.

Lev. 11:5 And the hyrax itself אָת.
Indeed, it brings up the cud,
but a hoof it does not have.
It is defiled for you.

Lev. 11:6 And the hare itself אָת.
Indeed, it brings up the cud,
but a hoof it does not have.
It is defiled for you.

Lev. 11:7 And the pig itself אָת.
Indeed, it has a hoof
and it cleaves a cleft in the hoof,
but the cud it does not bring up.
It is defiled for you.

Lev. 11:8 From their flesh you are not to eat.
And their carcass you are not to touch.
They are defiled for you!

Lev. 11:9 This itself אָת you may eat
from all that are in the waters.
Everything in the waters
that has fins and scales,
in the seas or in the streams,
they themselves אָת you are to eat.

Lev. 11:10 But everything that does not have fins and scales
in the seas or in the streams,
from all that swarm in the waters,
even from every live breathing being that is in the waters,
they are detestable for you!

Lev. 11:11 Even detestable they are for you!
From their flesh you are not to eat!
Even their carcass itself אָת you are to detest!

Lev. 11:12 Everything that does not have fins and scales in the waters,
it is detestable for you!

Lev. 11:13 And these themselves אָת
you are to detest among the birds.
They are not to be eaten!
They are detestable!

The eagle itself אָת,
and the bearded vulture itself אָת,
and the black vulture itself אָת,

Lev. 11:14 and the kite itself אָת
and the falcon itself אָת

according to its kind,

Lev. 11:15 every raven itself אָת
according to its kind,

Lev. 11:16 and the desert owl itself אָת,

and the screech owl itself אָת,

and the sea gull itself אָת,

and the hawk itself אָת according to its kind,

Lev. 11:17 and the little owl itself אָת,

and the cormorant itself אָת,

and the great owl itself אָת,

Lev. 11:18 and the barn owl itself אָת,

and the pelican itself אָת,

and the Egyptian vulture itself אָת,

Lev. 11:19 and the stork itself תא,
the heron according to its kind,
and the hoopoe itself תא,
and the bat itself תא.

Lev. 11:20 Any flying swarming creature
that goes about on all fours,
it is detestable for you!

Lev. 11:21 However, this itself תא you are to eat from any flying swarming creature
that goes about on all fours:
those having jointed legs above their feet
with which to leap over the ground.

Lev. 11:22 From these themselves תא
you are to eat:
the locust itself תא
according to its kind,
and the bald locust itself תא
according to its kind,
and the cricket itself תא
according to its kind,
and the grasshopper itself תא
according to its kind.

Lev. 11:23 But any flying swarming creature that has four legs,
it is detestable for you!

Lev. 11:24 And by these you are defiled.
Everyone touching their carcass
is defiled until sunset.

Lev. 11:25 And everyone carrying part of their carcass is to wash his garments.
And he is defiled until sunset.

Lev. 11:26 For every animal that divides a divided hoof,
but split, is not split through,
and its cud it does not bring up,
they are defiled for you.
Anyone touching them is defiled!

Lev. 11:27 And everyone that goes about on its paws among all the live animals that go about on all fours,
they are defiled for you.
Anyone laying a hand on their carcass
is defiled until sunset.

Lev. 11:28 And the one carrying their carcass itself תא
is to wash his clothes.
And he is defiled until sunset.
They are defiled for you!

Lev. 11:29 And this for you is defiled among the swarming creatures that crawl on the ground:
the weasel, and the mouse,
and the great lizard according to its kind;
Lev. 11:30 and the gecko, the monitor lizard,
and the common lizard,
the sand lizard, and the chameleon.

Lev. 11:31 These are the defiled for you among all the crawling creatures.
Anyone touching them when they are dead
is defiled until sunset.

Lev. 11:32 And anything upon which one of them falls when they are dead
is defiled,
whether any vessel of wood, or cloth,
or skin, or sackcloth.
Any vessel that can be used to work with them
is to go through water.
It is defiled until sunset,

and then it is undefiled.

Lev. 11:33 And any earthen vessel
into which one of them falls,
within it, everything within it is defiled.

And it itself nx you are to break!

Lev. 11:34 From all the food that is to be eaten,
when such water comes upon it, it is defiled.
And any beverage that might be drunk
in any such vessel, it is defiled.

Lev. 11:35 And anything upon which their carcass falls is defiled.

An oven or a two pot stove is to be demolished.
They are defiled.

And they will remain defiled for you.

Lev. 11:36 However, a spring
or a cistern for gathering water is undefiled.
But one touching their carcass is defiled.

Lev. 11:37 And when their carcass falls upon any sowing seed for sowing it is undefiled.

Lev. 11:38 But when water is put on the seed
and their carcass falls on it,
it is defiled for you.

Lev. 11:39 And when one of the animals dies
that is food for you
the one touching its carcass
is defiled until sunset.

Lev. 11:40 And anyone eating from its carcass
is to wash his garments.

And he is defiled until sunset.

And one carrying its carcass itself nx
is to wash his garments.

And he is defiled until sunset.

Lev. 11:41 And any crawling thing that crawls upon the ground,
it is detestable!

It is not to be eaten!

Lev. 11:42 Anything going about on its belly, anything going about on all fours,
up to anything with many legs
among all crawling things
that crawl upon the ground,
you are not to eat them
because they are detestable!

Lev. 11:43 You are not to cause your lives themselves nx to be detestable on account of any crawling thing that crawls.
And you are not to be contaminated by them
and become defiled by them.

Lev. 11:44 Indeed,
I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim!

And you are to be undefiled!
And you are to be set apart
because I Myself am set apart!

And your lives themselves nx
are not to be defiled
by means of any crawling thing that crawls about upon the ground.

Lev. 11:45 Indeed, I Myself am YAHWEH,
The One bringing up you yourselves nx
from the land of Mitsraim
for the sake of existing
as The Elohim to you!

You are to be set apart
because I am set apart! "

Lev. 11:46 This is the Instruction
for animals, flying things, and all the live breathing beings
that swarm in the waters,
and all the breathing beings
that crawl upon the ground
Lev. 11:47 for the sake of a separation
between the defiled and the undefiled,
between the animals for eating and the animals that you are not to eat.

Chapter 12

Lev. 12:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 12:2 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el saying,
"When a woman has seed sown and gives birth to a male
then she is defiled for seven days.
Like the days
of her menstruation and infirmity,
she is defiled.

It's known that the woman
does not have "the seed" in herself.
It must be "sown in her" by the male.

The menstrual flow was considered as "sickness", or infirmity,
because of the "contamination"
it caused for her.
It involves the sloughing off of dead tissue,
and therefore causes defilement.

Lev. 12:3 And on the eighth day
the flesh of his foreskin is to be circumcised.

Lev. 12:4 For thirty days and three days
she remains in her blood of undefilement.

On any set apart thing
she is not to lay her hand.
And to a set apart area
she is not to go until the fulfilling of the days of her undefilement.

Lev. 12:5 And if she gives birth to a female
she remains defiled for two weeks,
like the days of her menstruation.

And for sixty days and six days
she remains in her blood of undefilement.

Lev. 12:6 And the days of her undefilement being fulfilled for a son or for a daughter,
she is to bring a lamb of the first year
for an olah,
and a young pigeon or a turtledove
for a offense offering
to the entrance of The Tent of Appointment,
to the priest.

Lev. 12:7 And he is to bring it near
before the face of YAHWEH.
And he is to make atonement for her.
And she will be undefiled from her flow of blood.

This is the Instruction for the one giving birth to a male or to a female.

Lev. 12:8 And if her hand
does not find enough means for a lamb
she is to take two turtledoves
or two young pigeons,
one for an olah,
and one for an offense offering.

And the priest will make atonement for her.
And she will be undefiled.' "

Chapter 13

Lev. 13:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe
and to Aharon saying,

Lev. 13:2 "A human being,
when there is in the skin of his flesh
a swelling, or a scab, or a shiny spot and it becomes in the skin of his flesh
a contagious skin disease
he is to be brought to Aharon, the priest,
or to one of his sons, the priests.

The defects in the skin
are traditionally translated as "leprosy".
But the regulations applied to any skin disease
that might be communicable.

Some spots only involved an infected wound.
Others involved a serious diseased condition.

Lev. 13:3 And the priest is to look at the contagious skin disease itself nx
in the skin of the flesh.

And if a hair in the affliction has turned white,
and the look of the affliction is deeper than the skin of his flesh,
it is a contagious skin disease.
And if the priest sees it then it itself nx is defiled.

Lev. 13:4 And if a spot is white
in the skin of his flesh
and is not deeper appearing than the skin,
and the hair has not turned white,
then the priest is to shut up
the affliction itself nx for seven days.

Lev. 13:5 And the priest is to look at it
on the seventh day.

And behold!

The affliction has stood still in his sight.
The affliction has not spread in the skin.
The priest is to shut it up
for seven days a second time.

Lev. 13:6 And the priest is to look at it itself nx
on the seventh day a second time.

And behold!

The affliction has faded,
and the affliction has not spread in the skin.
Then the priest is to declare him undefiled.
It is a scab.

And he is to wash his garments.

And he is undefiled.

Lev. 13:7 But if the scab has spread,
spread in the skin
after having been seen by the priest
for sake of his undefilement,
he is to be seen again by the priest.

Lev. 13:8 And the priest is to look.

And behold!

The scab has spread in the skin.
And to the priest it is defiled.
It is a contagious skin disease.

Lev. 13:9 An affliction of leprosy,
when it exists on a person
and he is brought to the priest,

Lev. 13:10 and the priest looks at it,
and behold, a white swelling is in the skin,
and it has turned the hair white
and live raw flesh is in the swelling,

Lev. 13:11 it is an old affliction
in the skin of his flesh.

And he is defiled to the priest.

He is not to be shut up because he is defiled.
Lev. 13:12 And if the affliction breaks out, breaks out in the skin,
and the affliction covers
all the skin itself אָנּוּ of the diseased,
from his head and as far as his feet,
wherever the eye of the priest looks,
Lev. 13:13 and the priest looks, and behold,
the affliction has covered all his flesh itself אָנּוּ
then he is undefiled by the affliction.
All of it has turned white.
He is undefiled!
Lev. 13:14 But on the day he sees in it raw flesh
he is defiled.
Lev. 13:15 And the priest is to look at the raw flesh itself אָנּוּ.
Then he is defiled.
The raw flesh, it is defiled.
It is a contagious disease.
Lev. 13:16 Or when the raw flesh returns and it turns back to white
then he is to come to the priest.
Lev. 13:17 And the priest is to look at it.
And behold!
The affliction has turned back to white.
And to the priest he is undefiled.
The affliction itself אָנּוּ, it is undefiled.

Lev. 13:18 And flesh, when there is in its skin
a boil and it heals,
Lev. 13:19 but there exists in place of the boil
a white swelling
or a reddish white shiny spot
then it is to be seen by the priest.
Lev. 13:20 And the priest is to look.
And behold!
It appears lower than the skin
and its hair has turned white,
to the priest he is defiled.
It is a contagious affliction.
In the boil it has broken out.
Lev. 13:21 But if the priest looks at it,
and behold,
there is not in it any white hair
and it is not lower than the skin
but it has faded,
the priest is to shut it up for seven days.
Lev. 13:22 And if it spreads,
spreads in the skin,
to the priest it itself אָנּוּ is defiled.
It is a contagious disease.
Lev. 13:23 But if under it
the affliction has stood still,
the bright spot not having spread,
it is the inflammation of the boil.
To the priest it is undefiled.

Lev. 13:24 Or flesh, when there is on the skin
a burn by fire
and there exists on the live flesh of the burn
a shiny spot, reddish white or white,
Lev. 13:25 and the priest looks at it it itself אָנּוּ,
and behold,
the hair has turned white in the shiny spot
and it appears deeper than the skin,
it is an affliction.
In the burn it has broken out.
And to the priest it itself אָנּוּ is defiled.
It is a contagious disease.
Lev. 13:26 But if the priest looks at it,
and behold,
there is not in the bright spot any white hair,
and it is not lower than the skin,

and it has faded,
the priest is to shut it up for seven days.
Lev. 13:27 And the priest is to look at it
on the seventh day.
If it has spread,
spread on the skin, it itself תא,
to the priest it is defiled.
It is a contagious disease.
Lev. 13:28 But if under it
the shiny spot has stood still,
not having spread in the skin,
and it has faded,
it is a swelling from the burn.
To the priest it is undefiled
because it is an inflammation from the burn.

Lev. 13:29 And a man or a woman,
when they have an affliction on the head
or on the beard
Lev. 13:30 then the priest is to look at the affliction itself תא.
And behold,
it appears deeper than the skin,
and in it there is thin yellow hair.
Then it is defiled, it itself תא, to the priest.
It is a scale.
It is an affliction of the head or of the beard.
Lev. 13:31 But when the priest looks at the affliction itself תא of the scale,
and behold,
it does not appear deeper than the skin,
and there is no black hair in it
the priest is to shut up the affliction of scale itself תא
for seven days.
Lev. 13:32 And the priest is to look at
the affliction itself תא
on the seventh day.
And behold, the scale has not spread,
and there is not in it yellow hair,
and the appearance of the scale
is not deeper than the skin,
Lev. 13:33 then he is to shave himself.
But the scale he is not to shave.
And the priest is to shut up the scale itself תא
for seven days a second time.
Lev. 13:34 And the priest is to look at the scale itself תא
on the seventh day.
And behold,
the scale has not spread in the skin,
and its appearance
is not deeper than the skin,
to the priest it itself תא is undefiled.
And he is to wash his garments,
and he is undefiled.

Lev. 13:35 But if the scale has spread,
spread in the skin after his undefilement,
Lev. 13:36 then the priest is to look at him.
And behold,
the scale has spread in the skin.
The priest need not examine him
for the yellow hair.
He is defiled.
Lev. 13:37 And if in his eyes
the scale has stood still and black hair has sprouted in it
the scale has healed.
He is undefiled.
And to the priest he is undefiled.

Lev. 13:38 And a man or a woman,

when there is in the skin of their flesh
shiny spots, white shiny spots,
Lev. 13:39 and the priest looks, and behold,
in the skin of their flesh,
shiny spots, faded or white.
It is a rash.
It has sprouted on the skin.
He is undefiled.

Lev. 13:40 And a man,
when his head becomes smooth,
he is bald.
He is undefiled.

Lev. 13:41 And if on the edge of his face
his head becomes smooth,
he is forehead bald.
He is undefiled.

Lev. 13:42 But when there is in the bald spot
or on the forehead an affliction,
white and reddish,
it is a sprouting skin disease
on his bald spot
or on his forehead.

Lev. 13:43 And the priest is to look at it itself את.
And behold, the swelling of the disease is white and reddish,
in his bald spot or on his forehead
like the appearance of a skin disease
of the skin of his flesh,
Lev. 13:44 he is a skin diseased man.

He is defiled!

He is defiled to the priest!
On his head is his affliction.

Lev. 13:45 And the one on whom is the skin disease,
his garments are to be torn
and his head is to be made bare.
And his upper lip is to be covered.
"Defiled! Defiled!", he is to cry out!

Lev. 13:46 All the days
that the affliction is on him
he is defiled.

He is defiled.

He is to dwell alone.

Outside of the camp is his location to be.

Lev. 13:47 And a covering,
when there is in it an affliction of disease,
in a cloth of wool or a cloth of linen,

Lev. 13:48 or in the woof or in the warp
of the linen or of the wool,
or in an animal skin

or in anything used of skin,

Lev. 13:49 and if the affliction

is greenish or reddish

in the cloth or the skin,

or in the woof or in the warp,

or in any vessel of skin,

it is an affliction of disease.

And it is to be seen by the priest himself את.

Lev. 13:50 And the priest is to look at the affliction itself את.

And he is to shut up the affliction itself את
for seven days.

Lev. 13:51 And seeing the affliction itself את
on the seventh day,

if the affliction has spread in the cloth,

or in the woof or in the warp,

or in the skin,

for everything which is done with the skin

for the sake of work the disease is bitter.

The affliction is defiled.

Lev. 13:52 And it is to be burned,

the covering itself את,
or the woof itself את,
or the warp itself את
in the wool or in the linen,
or in any vessel of skin itself את
that has in it any affliction,
for it is a bitter disease!
In fire it is to be burned!

Lev. 13:53 But if the priest looks, and behold,
the affliction has not spread in the covering
whether in the woof or in the warp,
or in any vessel of skin,

Lev. 13:54 then the priest is to direct that they wash
that in which is the affliction itself את.

And it is to be shut up
for seven days a second time.

Lev. 13:55 And the priest is to look after the affliction itself את
has been washed.

And behold, the affliction has not changed to his eyes themselves את
and the affliction has not spread,
it is defiled.

In fire you are to burn it!
It is a mold on its "bald spot"
or on its "forehead."

Lev. 13:56 But if the priest looks, and behold!
The affliction has faded
after it itself את has been washed
he is to tear it itself את from the cloth, or from the skin,
or from the woof,
or from the warp.

Lev. 13:57 And if it is seen again in the covering,
whether in the woof, or in the warp,
or in any vessel of skin,
it is a sprouting thing.

In fire you are to burn it,
in whatever there is the affliction itself את.

Lev. 13:58 But the covering,
or the woof, or the warp,
or any vessel of skin that you have washed
and the affliction has departed from them,
and it has been washed a second time,
then it is undefiled.

Lev. 13:59 This is the instruction
for the affliction of disease
in a covering of wool or of linen,
or the warp or the woof,
or any vessel of skin,
for the sake of undefiling it or for the sake of defiling it.

torah is used in line one.
It means instruction, not 'law'.

The traditional terms used in this chapter
are 'clean' and 'unclean'.
They are specifically connected to defilement because any defilement causes great problems for anything that is to be set apart (holy).
It cannot enter the set apart places,
and it is not wanted in the community itself
since YAHWEH dwells in its midst.

Chapter 14

Lev. 14:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 14:2 This is the Instruction
for the one diseased.

On the day of his undefiling
he is to be brought to the priest.

Lev. 14:3 And the priest is to go outside the camp.
And the priest is to look.

And behold,
the affliction of disease has healed
on the one diseased.

Lev. 14:4 And the priest is to direct.
And he is to take for the undefiling
two birds, live, undefiled,
and wood of cedar,
and maggot scarlet,
and hyssop.

Lev. 14:5 And the priest is to direct.
And he is to slaughter
one of the birds itself את
in an earthen vessel over living water.

Lev. 14:6 The living bird itself את he is to take,
it itself את, and the cedar wood itself את,
and the maggot scarlet itself את,
and the hyssop itself את.

And he is to dip they themselves את
and the living bird itself את
in the blood of the slaughtered bird
over living water.

Lev. 14:7 And he is to sprinkle it on the one being undefiled from the disease
seven times,
and he will be undefiled.

And he is to send away
the living bird itself את
into the open field.

Lev. 14:8 And the undefiled one
is to wash his garments themselves את.

And he is to shave off
all of his hair itself את.

And he is to wash in water.
Then he is undefiled.
And afterward he is to come into the camp.
But he is to stay outside his tent
for seven days.

Lev. 14:9 And it will exist that
on the seventh day
he is to shave off all his hair itself את.
His head itself את, and his beard itself את,
and his eyebrows themselves את.
Even all his hair itself את he is to shave off.
And he is to wash his garments themselves את.
And he is to wash his flesh itself את in water.
Then he is undefiled.

Lev. 14:10 On the eighth day
he is to take two male lambs, whole,
and one female lamb in its first year, whole,
and three tenths ephah of flour
for a grain gift, mixed with oil,
and one log of oil.

Lev. 14:11 And the priest is to stand the one himself את being undefiled and they themselves את
before the face of YAHWEH
at the entrance to The Tent of Appointment.

Lev. 14:12 And the priest is to take
the one lamb itself את.
And he is to bring near it itself את
for a liability offering.

Also the log of oil itself את.
And he is to present they themselves את
for a presentation offering
before the face of YAHWEH.

Lev. 14:13 And he is to slaughter
the lamb itself את
in the place where he slaughters
the offense offering itself את
and the olah itself את,
in a set apart place,

because like the offense offering,
the liability offering is for the priest.
It is a set apart, set apart!
Lev. 14:14 And the priest is to take
some of the blood of the liability offering.
And the priest is to place it on the ridge of the right ear
of the one being undefiled,
and on the thumb of his right hand,
and on the big toe of his right foot.
Lev. 14:15 And the priest is to take some of the log of oil.

And he is to pour it
on the left palm of the priest.
Lev. 14:16 And the priest is to dip
his right finger itself תא
in some of the oil that is on his left palm.
And he is to sprinkle some of the oil
with his finger seven times
before the face of YAHWEH.

Lev. 14:17 And from the remaining oil that is in his palm
the priest is to place some
on the ridge of the right ear
of the one being undefiled,
and on the thumb of his right hand,
and on the big toe of his right foot,
on top of the blood of the liability offering.
Lev. 14:18 And the remaining oil
that is on the palm of the priest
he is to place upon the head
of the one being undefiled.
And the priest is to make atonement for him
before the face of YAHWEH.

Lev. 14:19 And the priest is to prepare
the offense offering itself תא.
And he is to make atonement for the one being undefiled from his defilement.
And afterward he is to slaughter
the olah itself תא.

Lev. 14:20 And the priest
is to send up the olah itself תא
and the grain gift itself תא
on the slaughter site.
And the priest having made atonement for him,
then he is undefiled.

Lev. 14:21 But if he is poor and his hand does not reach far he is to take one lamb
for a liability offering for presentation for making atonement for him by it,
and one tenth measure of flour
mixed with oil for a grain gift,
and a log of oil,

Lev. 14:22 and two turtledoves
or two young pigeons,
whatever his hand can reach.
And the one will be the offense offering,
and the other the olah.

Lev. 14:23 And he is to bring they themselves תא on the eighth day of his being undefiled
to the priest,
to the entrance of The Tent of Appointment
before the face of YAHWEH.

Lev. 14:24 And the priest is to take the lamb itself תא of the liability offering and the log of oil itself תא.
And the priest is to elevate
they themselves תא
for a presentation offering
before the face of YAHWEH.

Lev. 14:25 And he is to slaughter the lamb itself תא of the liability offering.
And the priest is to take
some of the blood of the liability offering.
And he is to place it
on the ridge of the right ear
of the one being undefiled,
and on the thumb of his right hand,
and on the big toe of his right foot.

Lev. 14:26 And some of the oil
the priest is to pour out
on the left palm of the priest.

Lev. 14:27 And the priest is to sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is on his left palm seven times
before the face of YAHWEH.

Lev. 14:28 And the priest is to place
some of the oil that is on his palm
on the ridge of the right ear
of the one being undefiled,
and on the thumb of his right hand,
and on the big toe of his right foot,
on the place above
the blood of the liability offering.

Lev. 14:29 And the remaining oil
that is on the palm of the priest
he is to place on the head
of the one being undefiled
for the sake of making atonement for him
before the face of YAHWEH.

Lev. 14:30 And he is to prepare the one itself תא
of the turtledoves or the young pigeons
from what his hand can reach,

Lev. 14:31 whatever itself תא his hand can reach,
the one for an offense offering itself תא,
and the other for an olah itself תא,
with the grain gift.

And the priest is to make atonement
or the one being undefiled
before the face of YAHWEH. "

Lev. 14:32 This is the Instruction for the one who has an affliction of disease whose hand cannot reach means for his undefilement.

Lev. 14:33 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe
and to Aharon saying,

Lev. 14:34 "When you enter the land of Kena'an
which I Myself

am giving to you for a possession and I put an affliction of disease in a house in the land of your holding

Lev. 14:35 and one comes whose house it is and reports to the priest saying,
'Something like a disease
has been seen by me in the house.'

Lev. 14:36 And the priest is to direct that the house itself תא

is to be cleared before the priest comes to see the disease itself תא.

Then all that is in the house will not be made defiled.

And after that the priest is to go in
to see the house itself תא.

Lev. 14:37 And he is to look at the disease itself תא.

And behold!

The disease is in the walls of the house,
a greenish or reddish depression.

And their appearance is deeper than the wall surface.

Lev. 14:38 Then the priest
is to go out of the house,
to the entrance of the house.
And he is to shut up the house itself את
for seven days.
Lev. 14:39 And he is to return on the seventh day.
And he is to look.
And behold!
The disease has spread
in the walls of the house.
Lev. 14:40 Then the priest is to direct.
And they are to pull out the stones themselves את
in which is the disease.
And they are to throw they themselves את
outside the city in a defiled place.
Lev. 14:41 And the house itself את
is to be scraped inside, all around.
And they are to pour out the dirt itself את
that has been scraped off
outside the city, in a defiled place.
Lev. 14:42 And they are to take other stones and bring them
instead of the original stones.
Other dirt they are to take.
And they are to re-plaster
the house itself את.

Lev. 14:43 And if the disease returns and sprouts in the house
after pulling out the stones themselves את, even after the house itself את
has been scraped,
and after it has been plastered,
Lev. 14:44 then the priest is to come.
And he is to look.
And behold!
The disease has spread in the house.
It is a bitter disease in the house.
It is defiled.
Lev. 14:45 And the house itself את,
its stones themselves את,
and its wood itself את is to be torn down.
And all the dirt of the house
is also to be sent away,
outside the town,
to a defiled place.
Lev. 14:46 And one going into the house
during all the days
of it itself את being shut up will be defiled until sunset.
Lev. 14:47 And one lying in the house
is to wash his garments themselves את.
And one eating in the house
is to wash his garments themselves את.
Lev. 14:48 And if the priest should go in,
go in and look.
And behold!
The disease has not spread in the house
after the re-plastering of the house itself את.
Then to the priest
the house itself את is undefiled.
Indeed, the disease has been cured.
Lev. 14:49 And he is to take
for the offense of the house itself את
two birds, and cedar wood,
maggot scarlet, and hyssop.
Lev. 14:50 And he is to slaughter
the one bird itself את
in an earthen vessel over living water.
Lev. 14:51 And he is to take
the cedar wood itself את,
and the hyssop itself את,
and the maggot scarlet itself את,

and the live bird itself תא,
and he is to dip they themselves תא
in the blood of the slaughtered bird
and in the living water.
And he is to sprinkle it on the house
seven times.

Lev. 14:52 And he is to de-offense
the house itself תא
with the blood of the bird
and with the living water,
and with the live bird,
and with the cedar wood,
and with the hyssop,
and with the maggot scarlet.

Lev. 14:53 And he is to send away
the living bird itself תא
outside the town,
into the open field.
And he is to make atonement for the house.
It is undefiled.' "

Lev. 14:54 This is the Instruction
for any affliction of disease,
for scales,
Lev. 14:55 for disease of a covering
or of a house,
Lev. 14:56 for swelling,
for scabs,
or for shiny spots,
Lev. 14:57 for the sake of teaching concerning the day of defilement
and concerning the day of undefilement.
This is the Instruction for disease.

Chapter 15

Lev. 15:1 And YAHWEH spoke
to Moshe and to Aharon saying,
Lev. 15:2 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el
and say to them,
'A man, a man when he has a flow from his flesh,
a discharge, it is defiled.
Lev. 15:3 And this is his defilement whether his discharge is flowing from his flesh
or his flesh is sealed up from his discharge itself תא.
It is his defilement.
Lev. 15:4 Any bed upon which he lies
and any device that he sits on is defiled.
Lev. 15:5 And one who touches his bed
is to wash his garments and wash in water.
And he is defiled until sunset.
Lev. 15:6 And one who sits on the device
on which he with the discharge sat upon it
is to wash his garments and wash in water.
And he is defiled until sunset.
Lev. 15:7 And one who touches the flesh of the one with the flow
is to wash his garments and wash in water.
And he is defiled until sunset.
Lev. 15:8 And if one with a flow
spits on one who is undefiled
he is to scrub his garments
and wash in water.
And he is defiled until sunset.
Lev. 15:9 And any saddle on which one with a flow rides is defiled.
Lev. 15:10 Anyone touching anything that is under him is defiled until sunset.
And one who carries they themselves תא
is to wash his garments and wash in water.
And he is defiled until sunset.

Lev. 15:11 Anyone whom the one with the flow touches and he has not rinsed his hands in water is also to wash his garments
and wash in water.
And he is defiled until sunset.
Lev. 15:12 And an earthen vessel that the one with a flow touches is to be shattered.
And any wooden vessel is to be rinsed in water.
Lev. 15:13 And when the one with a flow is undefiled from his discharge
he is to count for himself seven days
for the sake of his undefilement
And he is to wash his garments
and wash his flesh in living water.
And he is undefiled.

Lev. 15:14 On the eighth day
he is to take for himself
two turtledoves or two young pigeons.
And he is to come
before the face of YAHWEH
at the entrance to The Tent of Appointment.
And he is to give them to the priest.
Lev. 15:15 And the priest
is to prepare they themselves אֵם,
the one as a offense offering
and the other as an olah.
And the priest is to make atonement for him
before the face of YAHWEH
because of his discharge.

Lev. 15:16 And a man,
when there goes out from him
an emission of seed,
is to wash in water all of his flesh itself אֵם.
And he is defiled until sunset.
Lev. 15:17 And any garment and any animal skin
on which there is an emission of seed
is to be washed in water.
And it is defiled until sunset.

Lev. 15:18 And a woman who lies with a man,
she herself אֵם,
with an emission of seed,
they are to wash in water.
And they are defiled until sunset.

Lev. 15:19 And a woman,
when she is issuing blood from her flesh,
seven days she is to remain in her rejection.
And everything touching her
is defiled until sunset.
Lev. 15:20 Everything that lies upon her in her rejection is defiled.
And everything that she sits upon is defiled.
Lev. 15:21 And anyone who touches her bed
is to wash his garments and wash in water.
He is defiled until sunset.
Lev. 15:22 And anyone touching any device upon which she sits
is to wash his garments and wash in water.
And he is defiled until sunset.
Lev. 15:23 Whether it is on the bed or upon the device she is sitting upon,
by touching it he is defiled until sunset.
Lev. 15:24 And if a man lies down,
lies down with her herself אֵם,
and her menstruation is upon him,
then he is defiled for seven days.
Any bed upon which he lies is defiled.

Lev. 15:25 And a woman,
when she has an issue of her blood
for many days,
not at the time of her menstruation,
or when it flows beyond her menstruation,
all the days of her defiled issue
are as the days of her menstruation.
She is defiled.

Lev. 15:26 Any bed upon which she lies all the days of her discharge are to be like the bed
during her menstruation.

And any device that she sits upon is defiled
like the defilement of her menstruation.

Lev. 15:27 And anyone touching them is defiled.
He is to wash his garments
and wash in water.

And he is defiled until sunset.

Lev. 15:28 And if she is undefiled
from her discharge
she is to number seven days.

And afterward she is undefiled.

Lev. 15:29 And on the eighth day
she is to take herself

two turtledoves or two young pigeons.

And she is to bring they themselves תא
to the priest,

to the entrance of The Tent of Appointment.

Lev. 15:30 And the priest is to prepare
the one for an offense offering itself תא
and the other as an olah itself תא.

And the priest is to make atonement for her
before the face of YAHWEH
because of her defiled discharge.

Lev. 15:31 And the children of Yisra'el themselves תא
are to abstain from defilement.

Then they will not be put to death
on account of their defilement
by defiling My Dwelling itself תא
which is in their midst.

Lev. 15:32 This is the Instruction
for one with a flow
and for one from whom goes out
an emission of seed,
being defiled by it,

Lev. 15:33 and for one infirm in her menstruation,
and the one who has a discharge itself תא
for a man, even for a male or female who lies with a defiled one.

Chapter 16

Lev. 16:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe
after the death of the two sons of Aharon on account of their coming near
before the face of YAHWEH
and they were put to death.

Lev. 16:2 YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Tell Aharon, your brother, that he is not to go in at just any time
to The Set Apart Place,
within the veil
before The Cover of Atonement
that is upon The Chest.
Then he will not be put to death.

Indeed, in a cloud I will be seen above The Cover of Atonement.

Lev. 16:3 According to this is Aharon
to enter The Set Apart Place:
with a bull, a young one of the herd,
for a offense offering,

and a ram for an olah.
Lev. 16:4 A tunic of linen,
set apart, he is to wear.
And linen breeches
are to be over his "flesh".
And with a sash of linen
he is to gird himself.
And with a turban of linen
he is to wrap himself.
These are set apart garments.
And he is to wash in water his flesh itself תא.
Then he is to clothe himself with them.

Lev. 16:5 From the assembly itself תא of the Children of Yisra'el he is to take two hairy goats for a offense offering and one ram for an olah.

Lev. 16:6 And Aharon is to bring near the bull itself תא for the offense offering that is for him.

And he is to make atonement
on behalf of himself
and on behalf of his household.

Lev. 16:7 And he is to take
the two hairy goats themselves תא.

And he is to stand they themselves תא
before the face of YAHWEH
at the entrance to The Tent of Appointment.

Lev. 16:8 And Aharon is to give lots
upon the two hairy goats,
one lot for YAHWEH
and one lot for the scapegoat.

azazel - goat of departure, scapegoat.
There is considerable discussion concerning whether azazel
is a name for some location.

Some believe it was a high cliff
over which this goat was run, to destroy it.
It's also thought by some
to represent a "wilderness demon".

It seems important
to consider this instruction as we have it,
not as someone might "think" it should be.
Let Scripture speak for itself.

Perhaps in some sense
it's a foreshadowing of The Messiah taking upon Himself our offenses and removing them
from consideration before YAHWEH.

Lev. 16:9 And Aharon is to bring near
the hairy goat itself תא
upon which fell the lot for YAHWEH.

And he is to prepare it for the offense offering.

Lev. 16:10 And the hairy goat
upon which fell the lot for the scapegoat
is to be stood alive
before the face of YAHWEH
for the sake of making atonement upon it,
for the sake of sending away it itself תא
as the scapegoat, into the wilderness.

Traditionally many use azazel in this verse
as a "name"
rather than as a term of description.
However, if one is consistent in translating the term as "scapegoat"
there is nothing lost in the translation except the "traditions of men".
You'll have to decide for yourself
which makes more sense in this context.

Lev. 16:11 And Aharon is to bring near
the bull itself תא of the offense offering

that is for him.

And he is to make atonement
on behalf of himself
and on behalf of his household.
And he is to slaughter the bull itself תא
of the offense offering that is for him.

Lev. 16:12 And he is to take a fire pan
full of burning coals of fire
from upon the slaughter site,
from before the face of YAHWEH,
and two handfuls
of sweet incense, finely ground.
And he is to go inside the veil.
Lev. 16:13 And he is to put the incense itself תא
upon the fire before the face of YAHWEH.
And the cloud of the incense will cover
The Cover of Atonement itself תא
that is over The Testimony.
Then he will not be put to death.

Lev. 16:14 And he is to take
some of the blood of the bull.
And he is to sprinkle it with his finger
on the front of The Cover of Atonement, eastward.
And upon The Cover of Atonement
he is to sprinkle seven times
some of the blood with his finger.

Lev. 16:15 And he is to slaughter
the male goat itself תא
of the offense offering that is for the people.
And he is to come with its blood itself תא
within the veil.
And he is to do with its blood itself תא
as he did with the blood of the bull.
And he is to sprinkle it itself תא
upon The Cover of Atonement,
and in front of The Cover of Atonement.
Lev. 16:16 And he is to make atonement
for the sake of The Set Apart Place on account of the defilement
of the children of Yisra'el,
on account of their rebellions,
on account of all their offenses.
And thus he is to do with The Tent of Appointment
which stays permanently with they themselves תא,
in the midst of their defilement.

Lev. 16:17 And any human being is not to be in The Tent of Appointment as he goes in to make atonement
in The Set Apart Place
until he comes out.

He is to make atonement
on behalf of himself
and on behalf of his household,
and on behalf of the entire assembly of Yisra'el.

Lev. 16:18 And he is to go out
to the slaughter site
that is before the face of YAHWEH.
And he is to make atonement on it.
And he is to take
some of the blood of the bull
and some of the blood of the male goat.
And he is to put it on the horns
of the slaughter site, all around.
Lev. 16:19 And he is to sprinkle on it
some of the blood

with his finger seven times.
And he is to undefile it.
And he is to set it apart from the defilement
of the children of Yisra'el.

Lev. 16:20 And having finished from undefiling

The Set Apart Place itself אַת and The Tent of Appointment itself אַת and the slaughter site itself אַת
then he is to bring near
the live hairy goat itself אַת.

Lev. 16:21 And Aharon is to lay his two hands themselves אַת on the head of the live hairy goat.
And he is to confess over it all the perversions themselves אַת
of the children of Yisra'el,
and all their rebellions themselves אַת,
for the sake of all their offenses.
And he is to place they themselves אַת

upon the head of the hairy goat.
And he is to send it away
by the hand of a man who is ready,
into the wilderness.

Lev. 16:22 And the hairy goat
is to carry upon itself
all their perversions themselves אַת
to a separate area.
And he is to send away
the hairy goat itself אַת
into the wilderness.

Lev. 16:23 Then Aharon is to go
to The Tent of Appointment.
And he is to strip off
his linen garments themselves אַת in which he clothed himself for the sake of going into The Set Apart Place.
And he is to lay them down there.

Lev. 16:24 And he is to wash
his flesh itself אַת in water
in a set apart place.
And he is to put on
his garments themselves אַת.
And he is to go out.
And he is to prepare his olah itself אַת
and the olah itself אַת of the people.
And he is to make atonement
on behalf of himself
and on behalf of the people.

Lev. 16:25 And the fat itself אַת
of the offense offering
he is to turn into smoke
upon the slaughter site.

Lev. 16:26 And the one sending away
the hairy goat itself אַת as a scapegoat
is to wash his garments
and wash his flesh in water.
And after doing thus
he may come into the camp.

Lev. 16:27 And the bull itself אַת
of the offense offering
and the hairy goat itself אַת
of the offense offering
whose blood itself אַת has come in
for the sake of making atonement
in The Set apart Place
are to go outside the camp.
And they are to burn with fire
their skins themselves אַת,
and their flesh itself אַת,

and their excrement itself אָת.

Lev. 16:28 And one who is burning they themselves אָת
is to wash his garments
and wash his flesh itself אָת in water.
And after doing so
he may come into the camp.

Lev. 16:29 And it will be for you as an eternal rule.
In the seventh new moon,
on the tenth after the new moon
you are to humble your lives themselves אָת.

And any employment you are not to do,
the native or the sojourner
who sojourns in your midst,
Lev. 16:30 because on this day atonement is to be made for your sakes for the sake of undefiling you yourselves אָת from all your offenses
before the face of YAHWEH.
You will be undefiled.

Lev. 16:31 It is a Special Sabbath for you.
And you are to humble
your lives themselves אָת,
an eternal rule.

Lev. 16:32 The priest who has been anointed,
he himself אָת,
even whose hand itself אָת has been filled
to officiate in place of his father
will make atonement.
And he is to dress in the garments of linen themselves אָת,
the garments of The Set Apart Place.
Lev. 16:33 And he is to make atonement
for the consecrated place itself אָת,
The Set Apart Place.
And for The Tent of Appointment itself אָת and for the slaughter site itself אָת
he is to make atonement.
And for the priests
and for all the people of the assembly
he is to make atonement.

Lev. 16:34 And this will be for you
an eternal rule,
to make atonement
for the children of Yisra'el
once a year."

And he did according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself אָת.

Chapter 17

Lev. 17:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 17:2 "Speak to Aharon and to his sons
and to all the children of Yisra'el.
And say to them,
'This is the word
that YAHWEH has directed saying,
Lev. 17:3 Any man of The House of Yisra'el who slaughters an ox,
or a sheep,
or a goat,
in the camp,
or who slaughters it outside the camp,
Lev. 17:4 and to the entrance
of The Tent of Appointment
he does not come to bring it near

as an approach offering to YAHWEH
in front of The Dwelling of YAHWEH, blood is to be accounted to that man.
Blood he has shed.

And that man himself is to be cut off
from the midst of his people
Lev. 17:5 in order that the children of Yisra'el will bring their slaughterings themselves תא
that they are slaughtering
upon the face of the open field.
And they are to come to YAHWEH,
to the entrance of The Tent of Appointment,
to the priest.

And they are to slaughter them
as sacrifice of shelem offerings to YAHWEH,
they themselves תא.

Lev. 17:6 And the priest is to splash their blood itself תא
against the slaughter site of YAHWEH
at the entrance of The Tent of Appointment.
And he is to turn the fat into smoke
as a soothing aroma to YAHWEH.

Lev. 17:7 And they are no longer to slaughter their sacrifices themselves תא
to the hairy goat demons
after whom they are whoring.

An eternal statute this is to be for them
for their generations."

Lev. 17:8 And to them you are to say,
'Any man of the House of Yisra'el or from the sojourners
who sojourn in their midst
who offers up an olah or a sacrifice
Lev. 17:9 but to The Tent of Appointment does not come to prepare it itself תא for YAHWEH,
that man is to be cut off from his people!

Lev. 17:10 And any man
of The House of Yisra'el
or of the sojourners
that sojourn in their midst
who eats any blood,
even I will set My face against the person who is eating the blood itself תא!
And I will cut off he himself תא
from the midst of his people,

Lev. 17:11 because the life of the flesh
is in the blood!

And I Myself have given it to you upon the slaughter site for the sake of making atonement for your lives!
Indeed,
the blood makes atonement for life!

[This is an extremely important Truth of Scripture.
It is not to be treated with disrespect.](#)

Lev. 17:12 For this reason I have said
to the children of Yisra'el
any life among you is not to eat blood!
And the sojourner that sojourns in your midst
is not to eat blood!

Lev. 17:13 And any man of the children of Yisra'el or of the sojourner who sojourns in your midst who hunts as game a living animal or a bird that is to be eaten
is to pour out its blood itself תא.

And he is to cover it with dirt,
Lev. 17:14 because the life of all flesh,
the blood in it is life!

And I say to the children of Yisra'el,
The blood of all flesh
you are not to eat
because the life of all flesh,
it is its blood!
Anyone eating it will be cut off!

Lev. 17:15 And any life that eats a carcass
or something torn to pieces, among the natives
or among the sojourners,
is then to wash his garments.
And he is to wash in water.
And he is defiled until sunset.
Then he is undefiled.
Lev. 17:16 But if he does not wash them,
and his flesh he does not wash,
then he will carry his perversion! "

Chapter 18

Lev. 18:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 18:2 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el
and say to them,

'I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Lev. 18:3 According to acts done in the land of Egypt
in which you were settled
you are not to do!
And according to the acts done
in the land of Kena'an
to which I am bringing you yourselves תא
you are not to do!
And according to their rules
you are not to walk!

Lev. 18:4 My regulations themselves תא
you are to do!
And My rules themselves תא
you are to protect,
for the sake of walking according to them!

I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Lev. 18:5 And you are to protect
My rules themselves תא
and My regulations themselves תא,
which the human being is to do,
they themselves תא.
And he is to live according to them.

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Lev. 18:6 Any man is not to approach at all
any body of his own "flesh".
You are not to come near
for the sake of exposing their "nakedness"!

I Myself am YAHWEH!

The references here
to "flesh" and "nakedness"
are both euphemisms for one's genitals.
The concept is that of sexual relationships with members of one's own family.

Lev. 18:7 The "nakedness" of your father or the "nakedness" of your mother
you are not to expose!
She is your mother.
You are not to expose her "nakedness"!

Lev. 18:8 The "nakedness" of your father's wife
you are not to expose!

She is the "nakedness" of your father.
Lev. 18:9 The "nakedness" of your sister,
the daughter of your father,
or the daughter of your mother,
born in the house or born outside,
you are not to expose their "nakedness"!

Lev. 18:10 The "nakedness" of your son's daughter or of your daughter's daughter,
you are not to expose their "nakedness"!
Indeed, they are your "nakedness".

Lev. 18:11 The "nakedness" of the daughter of your father's wife,
born to your father, she is your sister.
You are not to expose her "nakedness"!

Lev. 18:12 The "nakedness" of your father's sister
you are not to expose!
She is the relative of your father.

Lev. 18:13 The "nakedness" of your mother's sister
you are not to expose!
Indeed, she is the relative of your mother.

Lev. 18:14 The "nakedness" of your father's brother
you are not to expose!
To his wife you are not to come near!
She is your aunt.

Lev. 18:15 The "nakedness"
of your daughter-in-law
you are not to expose!
She is your son's wife.
You are not to expose her "nakedness"!

Lev. 18:16 The "nakedness" of your brother's wife
you are not to expose!
She is the "nakedness" of your brother.

Lev. 18:17 The "nakedness" of a woman and her daughter you are not to expose!
Her son's daughter herself תא
or her daughter's daughter herself תא
you are not to take in marriage,
exposing their "nakedness"!
They are relatives.
It is treachery!

Lev. 18:18 And a woman along with her sister
you are not to take in marriage
to be distressing
by exposing her "nakedness"
in addition to her during her lifetime!

Lev. 18:19 And toward a woman
during her menstrual defilement
you are not to come near,
exposing her "nakedness"!

Lev. 18:20 And to the wife of your neighbor
you are not to give your emission of seed,
for the sake of being defiled with her!

Lev. 18:21 And your seed you are not give for the sake of passing over to Molekh!

And you are not to profane
the Name itself תא of your Elohim!

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Lev. 18:22 And a male himself תא
you are not to lie down with

as if lying with a woman!
It is detestable!

Lev. 18:23 And with any animal
you are not to give your emission of seed,
being defiled by it!

A woman is not to stand before an animal,
mating with it!
It is perversion!

Lev. 18:24 You are not to be defiled
by any of these!
Indeed, by all of these the nations
that I Myself am sending out
from before your faces
have been defiled.

Lev. 18:25 Even the land is defiled.
And I called it to account for its perversion.
And the land has vomited out its inhabitants themselves תא.

Lev. 18:26 But you yourselves are to protect
My rules themselves תא
and My regulations themselves תא.

And you are not to do
any of these detestable things,
the native or the sojourner
who sojourns in your midst.

Lev. 18:27 Indeed, all these detestable things themselves תא have been done by men of the land who were before you.
And they defiled the land.

Lev. 18:28 Then the land will not vomit out you yourselves תא in your defilement
as it vomited out the nation itself תא
that was before you.

Lev. 18:29 Indeed, anyone who does
any of these detestable things,
even cut off will those lives be who are doing them
from among their people!

Lev. 18:30 You are to keep My duty itself תא
by not doing the detestable customs that were done before you.
And you are not to be defiled by them!

I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Chapter 19

Lev. 19:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Lev. 19:2 "Speak to the entire assembly
of the children of Yisra'el.

And say to them,
'Set apart you are to be,
because I Myself am set apart,
YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Lev. 19:3 Each man,
his mother and his father you are to revere.

And My Sabbaths themselves תא
you are to protect.

I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Lev. 19:4 Do not turn to what is good for nothing.
And molten elohim
you are not to make for yourselves.

I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Lev. 19:5 Now when you slaughter
a sacrifice of shelem offering to YAHWEH,
for the sake of your acceptance
you are to slaughter it.

Lev. 19:6 On the day of your sacrifice
it is to be eaten,
and on the next day.
But what remains until the third day
is to be burned in fire.

Lev. 19:7 And if it is eaten,
eaten on the third day,
it is contaminated.

It will not be acceptable.

Lev. 19:8 And one eating it
will carry his perversion
because a set apart thing itself nx of YAHWEH
he has profaned.

And that life will be cut off from his people!

Lev. 19:9 Now when you cut down
the harvest itself nx of your land you are not to finish
to the edges of your field
by cutting it down.

And the gleanings of your harvest
you are not to gather.

Lev. 19:10 And your vineyard
you are not to glean.

And the strays of your vineyard
you are not to gather.

For the sake of the humiliated
and for the sojourner
you are to leave they themselves nx.

I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Lev. 19:11 You are not to steal!

And you are not to lie!

You are not to deal falsely,
each man with his companion!

Lev. 19:12 You are not to swear with My Name falsely and profane
the Name itself nx of your Elohim!

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Lev. 19:13 You are not to defraud
your neighbor himself nx!

And you are not to rob!

You are not to keep overnight
the wages of one hired beside you yourself nx until morning.

Lev. 19:14 You are not to insult the deaf!
And before the blind
you are not to put a stumbling block!

And you are to revere your Elohim!

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Lev. 19:15 You are not to do injustice in judgment!

You are not to lift up in favor
the face of the poor.

And you are not to honor
the face of the great.

With rightness
you are to judge your companion!

Lev. 19:16 You are not to go as a scandal monger among your people!

You are not to stand on the blood of your neighbor!

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Standing on the blood of a neighbor is a Hebraism for disrespecting your neighbor by not helping him
when he's in need or in adversity
- when his life is at stake.

Lev. 19:17 You are not to hate your brother himself תא in your heart!

Be right, be right
with your companion himself תא.
Then you will not carry an offense
because of him!

Lev. 19:18 You are not to avenge!

And you are not to carry a grudge against the children themselves תא of your people!

And you are to love your companion
as you love yourself!

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Lev. 19:19 My rules themselves תא
you are to protect!

Your animal you are not to breed
with different kinds!
Your field you are not to sow
with different seeds!
A garment of mingled threads
is not to go on you!

Lev. 19:20 And a man,
when he lies with a woman herself תא
with an emission of seed
and she is a female servant
betrothed to another man
but not redeemed,
she has not been redeemed,
or freedom has not been given her,
there is to be punishment.

They are not to be put to death
because she has not been freed.

Lev. 19:21 And he is to bring his liability offering itself תא to YAHWEH,
to the entrance of The Tent of Appointment,
a ram as a liability offering.

Lev. 19:22 And the priest
is to make atonement for him
with the ram of the liability offering
before the face of YAHWEH

because of the offense
with which he has offended.
And he will be forgiven for the offense
with which he has offended.

Lev. 19:23 And when you go into the land and you plant any tree for eating
you are to regard its fruit as uncircumcised, uncircumcised is its fruit itself nx.

For three years
it is to exist for you as uncircumcised.
It is not to be eaten!

Lev. 19:24 And in the fourth year
all its fruit is to be a set apart for rejoicing to YAHWEH.

Lev. 19:25 And in the fifth year
you are to eat its fruit itself nx,
to add to you its produce.

I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Lev. 19:26 You are not to eat anything with blood!

You are not to practice divination!

You are not to practice witchcraft!

Lev. 19:27 You are not to round off
the corners of your head!
You are not to ruin
the corners themselves nx of your beard!

Both of these were practices related to idolatry.

Lev. 19:28 And an incision for a dead life
you are not to make in your flesh!

And marks or cuttings
you are not to put on you!

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Lev. 19:29 You are not to defile
your daughter herself nx
by making her a whore!

And the land is not to go whoring
and have the land be filled with treachery.

Lev. 19:30 My Sabbaths themselves nx
you are to protect!

My Set Apart Place you are to revere!

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Lev. 19:31 You are not to turn to necromancers!
*Necromancers are mediums, spiritists.
They speak to the dead.*

And to conjurers you are not to inquire
for the sake of being defiled by them!

I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Lev. 19:32 Before gray hair you are to rise.
And you are to honor the face of the elderly.

And you are to revere your Elohim!

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Lev. 19:33 And when one sojourns
with you yourself אָתָּ,
a stranger in your land,
you are not to oppress he himself אָתָּ.
Lev. 19:34 As the native born among you
he is to be to you,
the stranger who dwells
with you yourself אָתָּ.
And you are to love him
as you love yourself.

Indeed, you were strangers
in the land of Mitsraim.

I am YAHWEH your Elohim!

Lev. 19:35 You are not to do injustice,
in measure, in weight, or in capacity.
Lev. 19:36 Just balances,
just weights,
a just ephah,
and a just hin you are to have!

I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim,
Who brought out you yourselves אָתָּ
from the land of Mitsraim!

Lev. 19:37 You are to protect
all my rules themselves אָתָּ
and all my regulations themselves אָתָּ.
And you are to do they themselves אָתָּ!

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Chapter 20

Lev. 20:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 20:2 "And to the children of Yisra'el
you are to say,
'Any man of the children of Yisra'el or of the sojourners who sojourn in Yisra'el who gives from his seed to Molekh is to be put to death, be put to death!
The people of the land
are to pelt him with stones!

Lev. 20:3 And I Myself will direct My face itself אָתָּ
against that man!
And I will cut off he himself אָתָּ
from among his people
because from his seed
he has given to Molekh,
for the sake of defiling
My Set Apart Place itself אָתָּ, even for the sake of defiling
My set apart Name itself אָתָּ!

Lev. 20:4 And if the people of the land
cause to be hidden,
cause their eyes themselves אָתָּ
to be hidden from that man himself on account of his giving from his seed to Molekh
by failing to put to death he himself אָתָּ, Lev. 20:5 then I Myself will set My face itself אָתָּ
against that man and against his family!
And I will cut off he himself אָתָּ
and everyone himself אָתָּ
who goes whoring after him,
to go whoring after the Molekh,
from among their people.

Lev. 20:6 And the life who turns to a necromancer or to wizards
for the sake of whoring after them, even I will direct My face itself תא
against that person!
And I will cut off he himself תא
from among his people!

Lev. 20:7 Now, you are to be undefiled!
And you are to be set apart because
I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Lev. 20:8 You are to protect
My rules themselves תא!
And you are to do they themselves תא!

I Myself, YAHWEH,
am the One setting you apart!

chuqqah - an enactment,
hence, an appointment
(of time, space, quantity, labor, or usage).

This term generally refers to customs or decrees.
The context seems to support
the idea of customs,
normal practices of the culture.

This is not the same term as that used for "laws",
although many translations use that term here because of the idea of "an enactment".

The concept of appointment
seems far more appropriate, YAHWEH having "appointed" these things
as what He desires of His people.
Those appointments are typically understood to be customs of the culture.

Lev. 20:9 When any man dishonors
his father himself תא
or his mother herself תא
he is to be put to death, put to death!
His father and his mother
he has dishonored.
His blood is on him!
The last line means
he is responsible for his own death.

Lev. 20:10 A man who commits adultery with the wife herself תא of another man, who commits adultery
with the wife herself תא of his neighbor
is to be put to death, put to death,
the adulterer and the adulteress!

Lev. 20:11 A man who lies with the wife herself תא of his father,
the "nakedness" of his father
he has exposed.
The two of them are to be put to death,
put to death!
Their blood is upon them!

Lev. 20:12 And a man who lies
with his daughter-in-law herself תא,
the two of them are to be put to death,
put to death!
They have done perversion!
Their blood is upon them!

Lev. 20:13 And a man who lies
with a male himself תא
as one lies with a woman,
a detestable thing
the two of them have done!

They are to be put to death,
put to death!
Their blood is upon them!

Lev. 20:14 A man who takes a woman herself אַתּ
and her mother herself אַתּ,
it is treachery!
In fire they are to be burned,
he himself אַתּ and they themselves אַתּ!
And there is to be no such treachery among you!

Lev. 20:15 And a man who gives his emission of seed to an animal
is to be put to death,
put to death!
And the animal itself אַתּ you are to slaughter!

Lev. 20:16 And a woman
who approaches any animal for the sake of mating with it itself אַתּ
you also are to kill,
the woman herself אַתּ
and the animal itself אַתּ.
They are to be put to death,
put to death!
Their blood is upon them!

Lev. 20:17 A man who takes his sister herself אַתּ,
the daughter of his father
or the daughter of his mother,
and he sees her "nakedness" itself אַתּ,
and she sees his "nakedness" itself אַתּ,
it is a disgraceful thing!
And they are to be cut off
before the eyes of their people!
The "nakedness" of his sister he has exposed.
His perversion he will carry!

Lev. 20:18 And a man who lies
with a woman herself אַתּ in her infirmity,
and exposes her "nakedness" itself אַתּ,
her source itself אַתּ he has laid bare.
And she has exposed
her source of blood itself אַתּ.
And the two of them are to be cut off
from among their people!

Lev. 20:19 And the nakedness of your mother's sister or your father's sister
you are not to expose
because his own relative herself אַתּ
he has laid bare.
Their perversion they are to carry!

Lev. 20:20 And a man who lies
with his aunt herself אַתּ,
the "nakedness" of his uncle
he has exposed.
Their offense they are to carry.
Childless will they die!

Lev. 20:21 And a man that takes the wife herself אַתּ of his brother,
she is separated.
The "nakedness" of his brother
he has exposed.
Childless they will be!

Lev. 20:22 Now you are to protect
all My rules themselves אַתּ
and all My regulations themselves אַתּ!
And you are to do they themselves אַתּ!

Then you yourselves תא
will not be vomited out of the land into which I Myself am bringing you yourselves תא
for the sake of settling in it.

Lev. 20:23 And you are not to walk
according to the customs of the nations
that I Myself am sending out
from before your faces!
Indeed, all these things themselves תא
they have done.
And I was disgusted with them!

Lev. 20:24 And I say to you,
"It is you who will occupy their soil itself תא!
And I Myself am giving it to you
for the sake of occupying it itself תא,
a land flowing with milk and honey."

I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim,
Who has separated you yourselves תא
from the nations!

Lev. 20:25 And you are to cause a separation between the undefiled animals
and the defiled ones,
and between the defiled fowl
and the undefiled.
And you are not to make your lives themselves תא detestable
on account of an animal, or a fowl, or anything which crawls on the ground which I have separated
for your sake as defiled.

Lev. 20:26 And you are to be set apart to Me because I Myself, YAHWEH, am set apart!

And I have separated you yourselves תא
from the nations
for the sake of being Mine!

Lev. 20:27 And a man or a woman,
when they have with them
a necromancer or a wizard,
are to be put to death,
put to death!
With stones you are to pelt they themselves תא!
Their blood is upon them! "

Chapter 21

Lev. 21:1 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Speak to the priests, the sons of Aharon.
And say to them,
'For the sake of a life among his people
one is not to be made defiled
Lev. 21:2 except for his relative,
one near to him,
for his mother,
or for his father,
or for his son,
or for his daughter,
or for his brother,
Lev. 21:3 or for his virgin sister,
the one near to him
who has never belonged to a man.
For her he may make himself defiled.

Lev. 21:4 A priest is not to make himself defiled among his people for the sake of profaning Him.

Lev. 21:5 They are not to make baldness on their head.
And the edge of their beard they are not to shave off.
And in their flesh they are not to make cuts.

Lev. 21:6 Set apart they are to be to their Elohim.
And they are not to defile the Name of their Elohim because the offerings by fire themselves nx of YAHWEH, the food offerings of their Elohim, they bring near!
And they are to be set apart!

Lev. 21:7 An adulterous woman or a defiled one they are not to take.
And a woman driven out from her husband they are not to take because he is set apart to his Elohim.
Lev. 21:8 And you are to set him apart because the food itself nx of your Elohim he brings near.
He is to be set apart for you.

Indeed I Myself, YAHWEH, am set apart,
The One setting you apart!

Lev. 21:9 And the daughter of a man, a priest, when she defiles herself by adultery, it is her father himself nx that she defiles.
In fire she is to be burned!

Lev. 21:10 And the priest, the one greater than his brothers, who has had poured on his head the oil of anointing and who has had filled his hands themselves nx for the sake of wearing the garments themselves nx, his head he is not to bare, and his garments he is not to tear!

Lev. 21:11 And on the account of any dying life he is not to go in.
For his father or his mother he is not to make himself defiled!

Lev. 21:12 And from The Set Apart Place he is not to go out!
And he is not to defile The Set Apart Place itself nx of his Elohim because the set apart oil of the anointing of his Elohim is upon him!

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Lev. 21:13 And he is to take a woman in her virginity.
Lev. 21:14 A widow, or a driven out woman, or one defiled by adultery, these themselves nx he is not to take.
Instead, a virgin from his people he is to take as a wife.

Lev. 21:15 And he is not to defile his seed among his people.
Indeed, I Myself, YAHWEH, am setting him apart!

Lev. 21:16 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 21:17 "Speak to Aharon saying,
'A man from your seed,
for their generations,
who has in him a defect
is not to come near
for the sake of causing to come near the food of his Elohim!

Lev. 21:18 Indeed, any man
who has in him a defect
is not to come near,
a man blind,
or lame,
or facially disfigured,
or too long limbed,
Lev. 21:19 or a man that has in him
a broken leg or a broken arm,
Lev. 21:20 or a hunchback,
or a dwarf,
or a defect in his eye,
or a scab or eruptions,
or crushed testicles.

Lev. 21:21 Any man who has in him a defect
from the seed of Aharon, the priest is not to approach
for the sake of bringing near
the offerings by fire themselves נא of YAHWEH!
A defect is in him.
The food of his Elohim itself נא
he is not to approach
for the sake of bringing it near!

Lev. 21:22 The food offerings of his Elohim,
from the most set apart,
or from the set apart portions, he may eat.

Lev. 21:23 However, the veil
he is not to enter!
And the slaughter site
he is not to approach
because a defect is in him!
He is not to defile
My Set Apart Places themselves נא!

Indeed, I Myself, YAHWEH,
am setting them apart!" "

Lev. 21:24 And Moshe spoke to Aharon
and to his sons
and to all the children of Yisra'el.

Chapter 22

Lev. 22:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 22:2 "Speak to Aharon and to his sons,
that they are to treat as dedicated the set apart gifts of the children of Yisra'el.

And they are not to defile
My Set Apart Name itself נא
with what they are setting apart to Me.

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Lev. 22:3 Say to them,
'For your generations,
any man who comes near,
from all of your seed,
to the set apart things which the children of Yisra'el set apart for YAHWEH,
and his defilement is upon him,

that person will be cut off from before My face!

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Lev. 22:4 Any man of the seed of Aharon,
if he has a disease or a discharge,
of the set apart things
he is not to eat until he is undefiled.

And anyone touching anything defiled by a dead life,
or a man from whom goes out
an emission of seed,
Lev. 22:5 or a man that touches
any crawling thing by which he is defiled, or a human being that is defiled
by whatever is his defilement, Lev. 22:6 the life who touches it
is defiled until sunset.

And he is not to eat of the set apart things
unless he washes his flesh in water.

Lev. 22:7 And at the going down of the sun,
then he is undefiled.
And afterward he may eat
from the set apart things
because they are his food.

Lev. 22:8 And a carcass or a torn animal
he is not to eat,
to be defiled by it.

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Lev. 22:9 And they are to keep My duty itself אֲנִי!
And they are not carry an offense
on account of it,
and be put to death
because they have defiled it.

I Myself, YAHWEH, am setting them apart!

Lev. 22:10 And any outsider
is not to eat the set apart things.
A sojourner of a priest or a hired servant
is not to eat the set apart things.

Lev. 22:11 But a priest,
when he buys a life with his wealth,
that one may eat of it.
And one born into his household
may eat of his food.

Lev. 22:12 And the daughter of a priest,
when she belongs to a man, an outsider,
she is not to eat of the presentation offerings,
the set apart things.

Lev. 22:13 And the daughter of a priest,
if she is a widow or one driven out,
and she has no child,
and she returns to her father's household
as in her youth,
from her father's food she may eat.

But any outsider is not to eat of it.

Lev. 22:14 And a man, when he eats
a set apart thing by mistake,
then he is to add its fifth to it.
And he is to give to the priest
the set apart thing itself אֲנִי.

Lev. 22:15 But they are not to defile
the set apart things themselves נא
of the children of Yisra'el
which they have lifted up to YAHWEH.

Lev. 22:16 And they themselves נא
will carry the perversion of an offense
by eating their set apart things themselves נא.

Indeed, I Myself, YAHWEH,
am setting you apart!

Lev. 22:17 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 22:18 "Speak to Aharon and to his sons
and to all the children of Yisra'el.

And say to them,
'A man from The House of Yisra'el or from the sojourners in Yisra'el who brings near his approach offering for any of their vows,
or for any of their spontaneous gifts
that they bring near to YAHWEH for an olah, Lev. 22:19 for your acceptance
they are to be whole,
a male among the cattle,
among the sheep,
or among goats.

Lev. 22:20 Any in which is a defect
you are not to bring near because it will not be acceptable for your sake.

Lev. 22:21 And a man, when he brings near
a sacrifice of a shelem offering to YAHWEH
for the sake of making a vow of separation or for a spontaneous offering,
from the herd or from the flock it is to be,
whole, for the sake of acceptance.
Any defect is not to be in it.

Lev. 22:22 One blind or broken, or mutilated,
or with a spotted eye, or scab, or eruptions,
you are not to bring these near to YAHWEH!

An offering by fire
you may not give from them
upon the slaughter site to YAHWEH.

Lev. 22:23 But an ox or a sheep,
long limbed or stunted,
you may sacrifice it
as a spontaneous offering.
But for a vow
it itself נא is not to be prepared.
It will not be accepted.

Lev. 22:24 And one bruised, or smashed, or torn up, or cut off in the testicles
you are not to bring near to YAHWEH.

Also, in your land
these are not to be prepared.

Lev. 22:25 And from the hand of a foreigner
you are not to bring near
the food itself נא of your Elohim from any of these.
Indeed, their corruption is in them.
A defect is in them.
They will not be accepted for your sake! "

In the ancient world sacrifices were seen as "the food of the gods".

Within the nation of Yisra'el
this is an oxymoron, yet it is still used.

Their Elohim does not need food,
since He is the very source of all food.

Lev. 22:26 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 22:27 "An ox, or a sheep, or a goat,
when it is born is to remain seven days
under its mother.
And from the eighth day and forward
it will be accepted as an approach offering,
as an offering by fire to YAHWEH.

Lev. 22:28 And an ox or a sheep,
it itself nx and its young itself nx,
you are not to slaughter on one day.

Lev. 22:29 And when you slaughter
a sacrifice of thanksgiving to YAHWEH,
for the sake of your acceptance
you are to slaughter it.
Lev. 22:30 On that day it is to be eaten.
Nothing is to remain from it until morning.

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Lev. 22:31 And you are to protect My directives!
And you are to do they themselves nx!

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Lev. 22:32 And you are not to defile
My set apart Name itself nx!
And I am to be set apart
among the children of Yisra'el!

I Myself, YAHWEH, am setting you apart,
Lev. 22:33 The One bringing out
you yourselves nx
from the land of Mitsraim
for the sake of existing for you
as The Elohim.

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Chapter 23

Lev. 23:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 23:2 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el.
And say to them,
'The appointed times of YAHWEH,
which you are to proclaim
to they themselves nx,
the set apart convocations are these.

They are My appointed times:

Lev. 23:3 Six days employment is to be done.
But on the seventh day is a Special Sabbath,
a set apart convocation.
Any employment you are not to do.
It is a Sabbath to YAHWEH
in all your settlements.

shabbath shabbathown - a Special Sabbath.
shabbath means intermission.
shabbathown is traditionally translated as "rest".
That yields "an intermission of rest"
for this combination.

The second term comes from the first.
They essentially mean the very same thing.
But when they are used in combination in Scripture
the general sense is that of a Special Sabbath, a day in which YAHWEH is to be honored
by not doing one's "normal employment" activities.

Tradition, however, has taught that this means "absolutely no effort is to be put forth (work) for ANYTHING."
This is based on their interpretation of certain events that took place on The Sabbath Day. However, those interpretations are subject to debate.

The original term used in Genesis is shabath. The spelling is only slightly different. It means the same thing, to rest.

The use of the combined term seems to indicate a "more special" Sabbath than usual. It's used in relation to only some of the appointed times of YAHWEH.

The Sabbath Day was instituted for the children of Yisra'el at Mount Sinai as part of The Torah. It was to be a special sign to the Yisra'elites to remind them each week of what YAHWEH had done and was still doing for them.

Lev. 23:4 These are the appointed times of YAHWEH, set apart convocations which you are to proclaim, they themselves תָּנִן, at their appointed times.

The appointed times of YAHWEH are traditionally referred to as "The Feasts of Israel". This is not really proper!

While they were given to Yisra'el as part of YAHWEH's Instructions to them (The Torah) they should properly be referred to as "The Appointed Times of YAHWEH." That is what they are. And that's exactly how the Hebrew text describes them. They are not called "feasts" except by translators who do not choose to follow what the text literally says.

Tradition has once again replaced The Word of YAHWEH.

Note that the text actually says, "The appointed times of YAHWEH... are to be proclaimed at their appointed times."

Lev. 23:5 On the first new moon, on the fourteenth after the new moon, between the evenings, is Passover to YAHWEH.

"Between the evenings" has been interpreted many ways. Generally it refers to sundown. But it has also been identified as late afternoon when the sun is approaching the horizon. It apparently does not mean "after dark".

Passover is the first annual appointed time. A careful study of it and all the references to it in Scripture is extremely enlightening.

Virtually everything that happens in Scripture is ultimately tied to the concept of "passing over" the penalty for one's offenses against YAHWEH.

Lev. 23:6 On the fifteenth day
after this new moon
is The Festival of Unleavened Bread
to YAHWEH.
Seven days
unleavened bread you are to eat!

Lev. 23:7 On the first day
a set apart convocation is to exist for you.
Any laborious work you are not to do.
Lev. 23:8 And you are to bring near
an offering by fire to YAHWEH
for seven days.
On the seventh day is a set apart convocation.
Any laborious work you are not to do.'

Lev. 23:9 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 23:10 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el.
And say to them,
'When you enter the land
that I Myself am giving you and you cut down its harvest itself תא
then you are to bring a sheaf itself תא
of the first of your harvest to the priest.

Lev. 23:11 And he is to elevate the sheaf itself תא
before the face of YAHWEH
for the sake of acceptance for you.
On the day after The Sabbath
the priest is to elevate it.

This is often referred to as The Feast of First Fruits.
However, it's often confused with the harvest festival that occurs 50 days later
at Shavuot (Pentecost).
This first one is for the barley harvest.
The second one is for the wheat harvest.

Lev. 23:12 You are to prepare
on the day of elevating the sheaf itself תא
a sheep, whole, in its first year,
as an olah to YAHWEH,
Lev. 23:13 and its grain gift,
two tenth measures of flour mixed with oil,
an offering by fire to YAHWEH,
a soothing aroma,
and its drink offering of wine,
a fourth of a hin.

Lev. 23:14 And bread,
or parched grain,
or groats
you are not to eat until that same day, until you have brought the approach offering itself תא of your Elohim.

A rule to eternity for your generations
in all your settlements.

Lev. 23:15 And you are to count for yourselves
from the day after The Sabbath, from the day that you bring the elevated sheaf itself תא, seven Sabbaths.
Whole weeks they are to be.
Lev. 23:16 Until the day after the seventh Sabbath
you are to count, fifty days.
Then you are to bring near a grain gift of new grain to YAHWEH.

Lev. 23:17 From your settlements
you are to bring bread
as an elevation offering, two loaves.

Two tenth measures of flour they are to be.
With leaven you are to bake them,
as first fruits to YAHWEH.

This is known as Shavuot.
Traditionally, it is called "Pentecost",
based on the concept of fifty days.
This is the only appointed time
that calls for leaven.
Leaven is typically considered to represent "an offense".

This is the only appointed time
that specifically involves the presentation of the "good news" to "the Gentiles".
As non-Yisra'elites they are perceived as being contaminated, having "leaven".

The out-pouring of The Divine Nature
took place on this date,
the sixth of Sivan on the Hebrew calendar.

Only unleavened bread
was allowed in The Tent of Appointment.

Tradition also suggests this was the date for the giving of The Torah at Sinai,
the birth of Moshe,
and The Flood of Noah.

Lev. 23:18 And you are to bring near,
along with the bread,
seven lambs, whole, a year old,
and a bull, a young of the herd,
and rams, two.

They will be an olah to YAHWEH,
and their grain gift,
and their drink offerings,
an offering by fire,
a soothing aroma to YAHWEH.

Lev. 23:19 And you are to prepare one hairy goat for an offense offering and two sheep, a year old,
for a sacrifice of shelem offering.

Lev. 23:20 And the priest is to elevate
they themselves תָּא
with the bread of the first fruits
as an elevation offering
before the face of YAHWEH
with the two lambs.

They are to be set apart to YAHWEH
for the priest.

Lev. 23:21 And you are to proclaim
on that very same day
that a set apart convocation there will be for you.
Any laborious work you are not to do!

A rule to eternity in all your settlements
for your generations.

Lev. 23:22 And when you cut down
the harvest itself תָּא of your land
you are not to complete
the edge of your field in cutting it down.
And the gleaning of your harvest
you are not to glean.
For the oppressed and for the stranger
you are to leave them.

I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim! "

Lev. 23:23 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 23:24 Speak to the children of Yisra'el saying,

'On the seventh new moon,
on day one of the new moon,
there is to be for you a Special Sabbath,
a memorial blowing,
a set apart convocation.

The day is known as Yom Teruah,
or Feast of Trumpets.
This is a preparation for the next feast
which is a vitally important harvest feast.

Lev. 23:25 Any laborious work you are not to do.
And you are to bring near
an offering by fire to YAHWEH.' "

Lev. 23:26 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 23:27 Assuredly, on the tenth
after this seventh new moon,
it is The Day of Atonement.
A set apart convocation
there is to be for you.
And you are to humble
your lives themselves תָּנָח.
And you are to bring near
an offering by fire to YAHWEH.

Lev. 23:28 And any laborious work
you are not to do on that very same day.

Indeed, it is The Day of Atonement,
for the sake of making atonement for you
before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim.

The Day of Atonement is known as Yom Kippur.
The Hebrew word for atonement is kaphar.
It means "to cover".
This same term is used in the story of Noah.
The container he built was to be covered.
It covered the 'corrupted' wood from which the container was built.

Likewise, we are taught that the blood of The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, covers the guilt of our offenses.

This day is considered to be the most holy day in Yisra'el.
It is a time to humble yourself
and pray, confessing all your offenses.

Lev. 23:29 When any life
does not humble himself
on that very same day
he is to be cut off from his people.

Lev. 23:30 And if any life does any employment
on that very same day
I will cause that life itself תָּנָח to perish
from among his people!
Lev. 23:31 Any employment you are not to do.

A rule to eternity for your generations
in all your settlements.

Lev. 23:32 It is Special Sabbath for you.
And you are to humble
your lives themselves תָּנָח.

On the ninth day after the new moon,
at sunset,
from sunset to sunset you are to rest.
It is for you a Sabbath!' "

Lev. 23:33 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 23:34 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el saying,
'On the fifteenth day
after this seventh new moon

is The Festival of Sukkot

for seven days to YAHWEH.

This festival is also known as Tabernacles.

Sukkot means booths,

in the sense of temporary shelters.

It's the last of the appointed times of YAHWEH.

It's also the final harvest of the year.

Lev. 23:35 On the first day

is a set apart convocation.

Any laborious work you are not to do.

Lev. 23:36 For seven days

you are to bring near

an offering by fire to YAHWEH.

On the eighth day, there is to be for you

a set apart convocation.

And you are to bring near

an offering by fire to YAHWEH.

It is an assembly.

Any laborious work you are not to do.

Lev. 23:37 These are

the appointed times of YAHWEH

which you are to proclaim

for you yourselves אַתְּ,

set apart convocations

for the sake of bringing near

offerings by fire to YAHWEH,

olah,

grain gift,

sacrifices,

and drink offerings,

the word for the day on its day,

Lev. 23:38 besides The Sabbaths of YAHWEH,

and besides your gifts,

and besides your vow offerings,

and besides all your spontaneous offerings

that you give to YAHWEH.

Lev. 23:39 Surely, on the fifteenth day after the seventh new moon

when you have gathered

the produce of the land אֶתְּ

you are to celebrate the festival אֶתְּ of YAHWEH

for seven days.

On the first day is a Sabbath of rest and on the eighth day is a Sabbath of rest.

shabbathown is used twice in this verse,

without shabbath.

This indicates a different type of occasion

than a normal Sabbath or a Special Sabbath.

The context suggests its meaning.

Lev. 23:40 And you are to take for yourselves

on the first day

the fruit of magnificent trees,

branches of palm trees,

and boughs of dense trees,

and willows of the brook.

And you are to rejoice

before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim,

for seven days.

Lev. 23:41 And you are to celebrate it אֶתְּ

as a festival to YAHWEH

for seven days a year.

A rule to eternity for your generations.

In the seventh new moon

you are to celebrate it אֶתְּ.

Lev. 23:42 In booths you are to dwell
for seven days.
Every native in Yisra'el
is to dwell in booths Lev. 23:43 in order that your generations may know that in booths I caused to dwell
the children of Yisra'el themselves תא
at My bringing out of they themselves תא
from the land of Mitsraim,
I Myself, YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Lev. 23:44 And Moshe declared the appointed times themselves תא of YAHWEH
to the children of Yisra'el.

Chapter 24

Lev. 24:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 24:2 "Give direction
to the children of Yisra'el themselves תא.
And they are to bring to you
oil of olives, clear, beaten,
for light, for burning lamps continually.

Lev. 24:3 Outside the veil of The Testimony,
in The Tent of Appointment,
Aharon is to arrange it itself תא
from sunset to dawn
before the face of YAHWEH continually.
A rule to eternity for your generations.

Lev. 24:4 On the undefiled menorah
he is to arrange the lamps themselves תא
before the face of YAHWEH continually.

Lev. 24:5 And you are to take flour.
And you are to bake it itself תא,
twelve loaves,
two tenth measures is to be the one loaf.
Lev. 24:6 And you are to place they themselves תא
in two rows, six per row,
on the undefiled table,
before the face of YAHWEH.
Lev. 24:7 And you are to place upon the row
pure frankincense.
And it is to be with the bread as a memorial,
an offering by fire to YAHWEH.

Lev. 24:8 On every Sabbath Day
he is to arrange it,
before the face of YAHWEH continually
from the children of Yisra'el themselves תא.
It is a covenant to eternity.

Lev. 24:9 And they are to be for Aharon
and for his sons.
And they are to eat them
in a set apart place
because they are set apart.
It is set apart for him
from the offerings by fire of YAHWEH.
A rule to eternity."

Lev. 24:10 Now the son of an Yisra'elite woman
(he was also the son of a Mitsraite man) went out among the children of Yisra'el.
And they quarreled in the camp,
the son of the Yisra'elite woman
and a man of Yisra'el.
Lev. 24:11 And the son of the Yisra'elite woman cursed The Name itself תא.
And he trivialized it.
And they brought he himself תא to Moshe.

And the name of his mother was Shelomit,
daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.

Shelomit means peaceableness.
Dibri means my word.
Dan means judge.

It's very likely this verse
has been altered from its original form.

The use of "The Name" (Ha-Shem) was not common
until much later in Yisra'elite history.
It was used as a replacement for YAHWEH.
At the very least,
it seems likely that "YAHWEH"
has been deleted from the text by an editor.

There are two words to note.
naqab - to puncture,
literally or figuratively; pierced.
The concept is that
of wounding or damaging a thing.
It's often translated as "blasphemed",
but that's not its literal sense.

qalal - to be (causatively to make)
light, trifling, etc.;
to trivialize. ("take the name in vain")

Lev. 24:12 And they set him down in custody for the sake of clarifying for themselves concerning the mouth of YAHWEH.

Lev. 24:13 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Lev. 24:14 "Bring out the trivializer himself נא,
outside the camp.

And all who heard are to lay their hands themselves נא on his head.
And the entire assembly
is to stone he himself נא!

Lev. 24:15 And to the children of Yisra'el
you are to speak saying,
"A man who trivializes his Elohim
is even to carry his offense!

Lev. 24:16 And one cursing
the Name of YAHWEH
is to be put to death,
put to death!
The entire assembly
is to stone him with stones!

As for the stranger, so for the native.
One trivializing The Name
is to be put to death!

This clearly delineates the intent of The Third Word of The Torah.
One is not to treat with disrespect
the Name of YAHWEH!

Deleting it from the text does exactly this!

Lev. 24:17 And a man,
when he strikes down any human life,
he is to be put to death,
put to death!

Lev. 24:18 One who strikes down
the life of an animal
is to make good for it,
life in place of life.

Lev. 24:19 And a man,
when he causes a defect in his companion,

as he has done,
thus it is to be done to him,
Lev. 24:20 break in place of break,
eye in place of eye,
tooth in place of tooth.
As he has rendered a defect in a human being,
thus it is to be given to him.

Lev. 24:21 And whoever strikes down an animal
is to make good for it.
But one who strikes down a human being
is to be put to death!

Lev. 24:22 One standard of judgment
there is to be for you.
As for the sojourner,
so is it to be for the native.

Indeed, I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim!"

Lev. 24:23 And Moshe spoke
to the children of Yisra'el.
And they took out the trivializer himself תא,
outside the camp.
And they stoned he himself תא with stones.

And the children of Yisra'el did
according to what YAHWEH
had given as direction to Moshe himself תא.

Chapter 25

Lev. 25:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe
at Mount Sinai saying,
Lev. 25:2 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el.
And say to them,
'When you come to the land
that I Myself am giving to you then the land is to rest,
a Sabbath to YAHWEH.

Lev. 25:3 Six years you are to sow your field.
And six years you are to prune your vineyard.
And you are to gather its produce יתא.

Lev. 25:4 And in the seventh year
it is a Special Sabbath.
It is to be for the land,
a Sabbath to YAHWEH.
Your field you are not to sow.
And your vineyard you are not to prune.

Lev. 25:5 What grows on its own
of your harvest יתא
you are not to cut down.
And the grapes themselves תא
of your consecrated vines
you are not to clip off.

A year of Sabbath
there is to be for the land!

Lev. 25:6 And the Sabbath of the land is for you,
for food for you,
and for your male slave,
and for your female slave,
for your hired servant,
and for your resident foreigner,
the one sojourning with you,
Lev. 25:7 and for your livestock,
and for wild animals that are in your land.
All its produce is to be for eating.

Lev. 25:8 And you are to count for yourselves
seven Sabbaths of years,

seven years, seven times.
And it is to be for you
seven Sabbaths of years,
nine and forty years.

Lev. 25:9 And you are to cause to pass over a shofar blast.
At the seventh new moon,
on the tenth after the new moon,
on The Day of Atonement,
you are to pass over a shofar blast
in all your land.

'abar - to cross over;
used very widely of any transition.
"Pass over" has been used because of its extreme significance in Scripture.
The shofar, a ram's horn, was to be blown
so that it "passed over" the entire land.
When connected to The Day of Atonement
it symbolizes the passing over of our offense debt that YAHWEH would accomplish much later
in sending The Messiah to earth.

Lev. 25:10 And you are to set apart
the year itself תָּנָח, the fiftieth year!

And you are to proclaim freedom in the land
for the sake of all its inhabitants.

It is to be a horn blast for you.

And you are to return,
each man to his possession.

And each man is to return to his family.

yowbel, or yobel - the blast of a horn.
Tradition translates this as "Jubilee".
That's a transliteration of the word,
not a translation of it.
Thus we've been given "The Year of Jubilee".

It should be translated, more properly,
as "The Year of The Horn Blast."

Now a distinction was indeed needed
because Yom Teruah (The Day of The Trumpet) is held once every year,
at this very same time of the year.

The Year of The Yobel needs to be distinguished from this.

But there's something else we need to identify.
The blast of the horn was heard by The Yisra'elites at Mount Sinai
when YAHWEH spoke The Torah to them.

There was a loud "noise",
like a rushing wind (horn blast?)
at Shavuot (Pentecost).

And there will be a loud horn blast sounded
at the return of The Messiah.

Each of these events proclaims a "freedom",
a release of some sort.

Lev. 25:11 A horn blast year
the fiftieth year is to be for you.

You are not to sow.

And you are not to cut down

what grows on its own תָּנָח.

And you are not to gather

its consecrated vines themselves תָּנָח.

Lev. 25:12 Indeed, it is a horn blast.

It is to be set apart for you.

From the field you are to eat

of its produce itself תָּנָח.

Lev. 25:13 In this Year of The Horn Blast

you are to return,

each man to his possession.

Lev. 25:14 And when you sell property to your companion
or purchase it
from the hand of your companion
a man is not to maltreat
his brother himself תא!

Lev. 25:15 According to the number of years
after The Horn Blast Year
you are to purchase
from your companion himself תא.
According to the amount of years of income
he is to sell it to you.

Lev. 25:16 By the speech of the multitude of years
you are to increase his purchase.
And by the speech of the few years
you are to reduce his purchase
since an amount of income is what he is selling to you.

Lev. 25:17 And you are not to maltreat,
any man, his companion himself תא.

And you are to revere your Elohim!

Indeed, I Myself, YAHWEH,
am your Elohim!

Lev. 25:18 And you are to do
My rules themselves תא!
And My regulations themselves תא
you are to protect!
And you are to do they themselves תא!
Then you will settle on the land with security.
Lev. 25:19 And the land will give its fruit.
And you will eat to satisfaction.
And you will settle with security upon it.

Lev. 25:20 And if you should say,
'What are we to eat in the seventh year?
Behold!
We are not to sow.
And we are not to gather our produce itself תא!'

Lev. 25:21 Then I will direct My blessing itself תא
to you in the sixth year.
And it will make the produce itself תא
for three years.
Lev. 25:22 And you will sow in the eighth year itself תא.
And you will eat from the old produce
until the ninth year.
Until its produce comes in you are to eat the old.

Lev. 25:23 And the land
is not to be sold with finality.
Indeed, the land is Mine!

Indeed, you yourselves are strangers
and sojourners with Me.

Lev. 25:24 And in all the land of your possessions
you are to grant redemption of the land.

Lev. 25:25 When your brother grows thin from poverty
and he sells some of his possession his redeemer of nearest kin is to come to him.

And he is to redeem
the property itself nx of his brother.

Lev. 25:26 And if there is not a man
to be his redeemer,
but his hand reaches
and brings forth enough to redeem it, Lev. 25:27 then he is to regard the years themselves nx of its sale.
And he is to return the surplus
to the man to whom he sold it.
And he is to return to his possession.

Lev. 25:28 But if his hand does not find enough to restore it
what he sold is to be in the hand of the one purchasing it itself nx
until The Year of The Horn Blast.
Then it is to go free
in The Year of The Horn Blast.
And he is to return to his possession.

Lev. 25:29 And a man,
when he sells a residential house
in a walled town,
its redemption period is until the end of the whole year of its sale.
A year of days
is to be its redemption period.
Lev. 25:30 And If it is not redeemed by him within a full year
then it is to be established forever,
the house that is in the town
which is in its wall,
to him who purchases it itself nx
for his generations.
It is not to go free
in The Year of The Horn Blast.

Lev. 25:31 And houses in villages
that do not have a wall around them, as upon open fields of the land
they are to be regarded.
There is to be redemption for them.
And in The Year of The Horn Blast
they are to go free.

Lev. 25:32 And towns of the Levites,
the houses of the towns of their possession,
redemption is to be forever
for the sake of the Levites.

Lev. 25:33 And what is to be redeemed
from the Levites,
even the house sold
and the town of their possession, is to go out free
in The Year of The Horn Blast
because houses of Levitical towns, they are their possession
among the children of Yisra'el.
Lev. 25:34 And the field around their towns is not to be sold
because it is a possession forever for them.

Lev. 25:35 And when your brother
becomes thin from poverty
and his hand wavers beside you,
then you are to strengthen him
like a stranger or a sojourner.
And he is to live with you.
Lev. 25:36 You are not to take from he himself nx
interest on debt or unjust gain.

And you are to revere your Elohim.
And your brother is to live with you!

Lev. 25:37 Your silver itself תא
you are not to give him with interest.
And for profit
you are not to give him your food.

Lev. 25:38 I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim
Who has brought out you yourselves תא
out of the land of Mitsraim
for the sake of giving to you
the land of Kena'an itself תא,
for the sake of existing for you
as The Elohim!

Lev. 25:39 And when your brother
is thin from poverty with you and he sells himself to you,
you are not to work with him
the work of a slave.

Lev. 25:40 As a hired hand, as a sojourner,
is he to be with you.
Until The Year of The Horn Blast
he is to serve with you.

Lev. 25:41 Then he himself is to go free from beside you,
and his children with him.
And he is to return to his family.
Even to the possession of his fathers
he is to return.

Lev. 25:42 Indeed, My servants are they
whom I have brought out,
they themselves תא,
from the land of Mitsraim.
They are not to be sold as slave property.

Lev. 25:43 You are not to have dominion over him with crushing labor.
And you are to revere your Elohim!

Lev. 25:44 Now your male slaves and your female slaves that are yours from the nations themselves תא which are around you,
from them you are to purchase
male slaves and female slaves.

Lev. 25:45 And also from the sons of the residents who are sojourning with you,
from them you may purchase,
or from their families that are with you
which they bear in your land.
And they will be your possessions.

Lev. 25:46 You may bequeath they themselves תא
to your children after you,
to inherit as possessions forever
as your slaves.

But concerning your brothers,
the children of Yisra'el,
a man toward his brother,
you are not to have dominion over him
with crushing labor!

Lev. 25:47 Now when the hand of a foreigner or a sojourner reaches means with you, and your brother becomes thin
from poverty with him, and he sells himself
to the resident sojourner beside you,

or to an offshoot of the sojourner's family,
Lev. 25:48 after he has sold himself
redemption may be his.
One of his brothers may redeem him,
Lev. 25:49 or his uncle,
or the son of his uncle may redeem him,
or from his flesh, from his family,
may redeem him.
Or if his hand reaches means
he may redeem himself.

Lev. 25:50 Then he is to consider with his purchaser
from the year that he was sold to him
until The Year of The Horn Blast.
And the silver from his sale
is to be according to the number of years.
Like the days of a hired hand
it is to be with him.

Lev. 25:51 If there are still many years,
according to the speech
he is to return it for his redemption
from the silver of his purchase.

Lev. 25:52 And if few remain in years
until The Year of The Horn Blast
he is to regard it to him.
According to its years he is to return it for his redemption itself תָּנָה.

Lev. 25:53 As a hired servant year by year
he is to be with him.
He is not to have dominion over him
with crushing labor before your eyes.
Lev. 25:54 And if he has not been redeemed
in these ways he is to go out free
in The Year of The Horn Blast,
he and his children with him.

Lev. 25:55 Indeed, it is to Me that the children of Yisra'el are servants.
They are My servants
whom I have brought out,
they themselves תָּנָה,
from the land of Mitsraim!

I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Chapter 26

Lev. 26:1 You are not to make idols for yourselves.
And a carved image or a standing column
you are not to raise up for yourselves.
And a stone image
you are not to place in your land for the sake
of prostrating yourselves toward it!

Indeed, I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim!

There are four different terms used here.
Each represents an idol of some sort.

'eliyl - good for nothing, vain;
specifically an idol.
(An idol is any image used to represent a 'god',
a deity of some sort.

pecel - an idol.

matstsebah - something stationed,
a column or memorial stone;
by analogy, an idol.
From a root word meaning to carve.
Hence, a carved image.

maskiyth - a figure (carved on stone, the wall, or any object).

This term is used with 'stone',
so it represents a stone figure.
Statue has been used
since it seems to represent the concept.

But the most important issue is that of 'prostrating oneself
before such an "image-reproduction".

The concept is that of paying homage to it as if it were your 'god'.
This is not to be done.

Lev. 26:2 My Sabbaths themselves תא
you are to protect!
And My Set Apart Place you are to revere!

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Lev. 26:3 If according to My rules you will walk and My directives themselves תא you will protect,
and you will do they themselves תא,

Lev. 26:4 then I will give your rains in their seasons.
And the land will give its yield.

And the trees of the field will give their fruit.

Lev. 26:5 And threshing will reach for you to the vintage itself תא.

And the vintage will reach to seeding itself תא.

And you will eat your food to satisfaction.

And you will be settled
in security in your land.

Lev. 26:6 And I will grant shalom in the land.

And you will lie down
and nothing will make you tremble.

And I will cause harmful animals to cease from the land.

And a sword will not pass over into your land.

shalom - safe, i.e. (figuratively)
well, happy, friendly;
also (abstractly)
welfare, i.e. health, prosperity, peace.

To the Hebrew mind shalom means far more than merely 'peace'.

It means total well-being
in every aspect of one's life.

Thus, the concept of safety spreads to every area of one's existence.

Lev. 26:7 And you will pursue your enemies themselves תא.
And they will fall before your faces
by the sword.

Lev. 26:8 And five of you ill pursue a hundred.

And a hundred of you will pursue a myriad.

And your enemies will fall before your faces
by the sword.

Lev. 26:9 And I will turn toward you.
And I will make fruitful you yourselves תא.
And I will increase you yourselves תא.
And I will establish My Covenant itself תא
with you yourselves תא.

Lev. 26:10 And you will eat the old
as being old.
And the old from before the new
you will send out.

Lev. 26:11 And I will put My Dwelling
in the midst of you.

And I will not detest you yourselves אַתָּה.
Lev. 26:12 And I will walk in the midst of you.
And I will exist for you as The Elohim.
And you yourselves אַתָּה
will exist for Me as a people.

Lev. 26:13 I Myself, YAHWEH, am your Elohim,
Who has brought out you yourselves אַתָּה
from the land of Mitsraim,
from your being slaves to them.
I have broken the bars of your yoke.
And I have caused you yourselves אַתָּה
to walk erectly!

The promise
if they are faithful to put YAHWEH first is overwhelmingly wondrous.

We would do well to learn from this instruction.
What follows portrays the consequences of not following YAHWEH's ways.
Study this carefully!

Lev. 26:14 But if you do not listen attentively to Me, and you do not do
all these directives themselves אַתָּה, Lev. 26:15 and if according to My rules
you reject living, and if My regulations themselves אַתָּה
your life detests,
thus failing to do
all My directives themselves אַתָּה, thus causing your breaking of My Covenant itself אַתָּה,

The promises
according to their faithfulness are countered by the following promises
if they fail to revere YAHWEH
and place Him first in their lives.

This is part of the on-going
"if...then..." statements of Scripture.
It's a very powerful reminder that there are consequences for our actions.
And this "if...then" pattern is repeated often within Scripture.

Just because YAHWEH
spoke these words to Yisra'el does not mean they do not apply to the rest of those who claim to be His people.

Lev. 26:16 then surely I Myself
will do this to you:
I will visit upon you panic,
emaciation itself אַתָּה,
and the burning fever itself אַתָּה,
causing the eyes to fail,
and weakening the life breath.

You will sow seed for nothing.
And your enemies will eat it.

Lev. 26:17 And I will set My face against you!

And you will be smitten
in the face of your enemies.
And those hating you will have dominion over you.
And you will flee,
but no one will be pursuing
you yourselves אַתָּה!

Lev. 26:18 And if after all that you do not listen attentively to Me
I will add seven times more

for the sake of punishing you yourselves תא for your offenses.

Lev. 26:19 And I will break
your mighty arrogance itself תא!
And I will set
your skies themselves תא like iron and your land itself תא like copper.
Lev. 26:20 And your might will be used for emptiness.
And your land
will not give its produce itself תא.
And the trees of the land
will not give their fruit.

Lev. 26:21 And if you walk with Me in hostility and are not willing to listen attentively to Me then I will add upon you
seven times more blows,
according to your offenses.

Lev. 26:22 And I will send against you
the wild animals themselves תא.
And they will bereave you yourselves תא.
And they will cut off
your livestock themselves תא.
And they will diminish you yourselves תא.
And the roads will be desolate.

Lev. 26:23 And if by these things you are not corrected for Me but you are walking with Me in hostility Lev. 26:24 then I will walk,
indeed I Myself,
with you in hostility!
And I will strike you yourselves תא,
I Myself,
yet seven times
on account of your offenses!

Lev. 26:25 And I will bring against you an avenging sword,
taking revenge for The Covenant!

And you will gather yourselves
into your walled villages.
And I will send pestilence
into the midst of you!
And you will be given
into the hand of your enemy.

Lev. 26:26 In My breaking
the "staff of bread" for you,
then ten women
will bake your bread in one oven.
And they will return your bread by weight.
And you will eat,
but you will not be filled to satisfaction.

Lev. 26:27 And if by this you will not listen attentively to Me,
but you walk with Me in hostility, Lev. 26:28 then I will walk with you in the heat of hostility!
And I will discipline you yourselves תא,
even I Myself,
seven times on account of your offenses!

Lev. 26:29 And you will eat
the flesh of your sons!
And the flesh of your daughters
you will eat!

Lev. 26:30 And I will make desolate
your high places themselves תא!
And I will cut down
your sun pillars themselves תא!
And I will set your corpses themselves תא
upon the corpses of your idols!

And I will detest you yourselves תא!
The "high places" were locations where idols were worshipped and often involved sexual misconduct.

chamman - a sun-pillar - idol, image.
The literal sense is given.
These were pillars
at which the sun was worshipped.
However, Scripture includes every other idol
for which such things were made.

gilluw! - properly, a log.
This is translated as "idols"
since that is what was created using a log.
If you think in terms of a "totem pole"
you'll have the proper concept of these images.

Lev. 26:31 And I will give to your walled villages themselves תא
desolation!
And I will devastate
your consecrated places themselves תא!
And I will not smell your soothing aromas!
Lev. 26:32 And I will devastate,
I Myself, the land itself תא!
And your enemies who settle in it will be astonished on account of it!

Lev. 26:33 And you yourselves תא
I will scatter among the nations!
And I will unsheath the sword after you!
And your land will be a devastation!
And your walled villages
will be a desolation.

Lev. 26:34 Then the land
will enjoy its Sabbaths themselves תא
all the days of its devastation.

And you yourselves תא
will be in the land of your enemies.
Then the land will rest.
And it will enjoy its Sabbaths themselves תא.
Lev. 26:35 All the days of its devastation
it will rest which itself תא
did not rest on your Sabbaths
in your being settled upon it.

Lev. 26:36 And those remaining among you,
I will bring faintness into their hearts
in the lands of their enemies.
And they themselves תא will be put to flight
by the sound of a leaf being blown about.
And they will flee as retreating from a sword.
And they will fall.
But there is no pursuer!
Lev. 26:37 And they will stumble,
a man against his brother,
as before the sword.
But no one is pursuing.
And you will not be able to stand before your enemies.

Lev. 26:38 And you will perish
among the nations.
And the land of your enemies
will devour you yourselves תא.

Lev. 26:39 And those remaining among you will rot away on account of their perversion in the lands of their enemies.
Even because of
he perversions of their fathers
they themselves תא will rot away.

Lev. 26:40 But if they acknowledge their perversion itself תא and the perversion itself תא of their fathers, according to their unfaithfulness
by which they have acted unfaithfully against Me,
and also in which they have walked with Me in hostility, Lev. 26:41 for which reason I said,
"Surely I Myself
will walk with them in hostility!", and I have brought they themselves תא
into the land of their enemies, then if they will humble
their uncircumcised heart, and if they will accept their perversion itself תא,

The text gives evidence of something being left out.
It shifts the tone of the statement causing some ambiguity.
The first line has been added in italics
to suggest a possible correction.

Lev. 26:42 then I will take note of My covenant itself תא with Ya'akov.
And also My covenant itself תא with Yitzhak,
and also My covenant itself תא with Abraham
I will take note of.
And I will take note of the land.

Lev. 26:43 And the land will be left by them.
And it will enjoy its Sabbaths themselves תא
by being desolate of them.
And they will accept responsibility for their perversion itself תא, because, even because My regulations they rejected
and My rules themselves תא
their lives detested!

Lev. 26:44 And even for all this,
in their being in the land of their enemies,
I will not reject them.
I will not detest them to finish them off,
for the sake of breaking My Covenant
with they themselves תא!

Indeed, I Myself am YAHWEH, their Elohim!

Lev. 26:45 And I will take note of,
for their sake,
the covenant of the former ones
whom I brought out,
they themselves תא,
from the land of Mitsraim
in the eyes of the nations,
for the sake of being for them The Elohim!.

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Lev. 26:46 These are the rules,
and the regulations,
and the instructions
that YAHWEH gave between Himself and the children of Yisra'el
at Mount Sinai by the hand of Moshe.

Chapter 27

Lev. 27:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Lev. 27:2 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el.

And say to them,

"When a man makes an extraordinary promise
according to your valuation of lives,
to YAHWEH,

Lev. 27:3 then your valuation for a male from the age of twenty years
and up to the age of sixty years, fifty shekels of silver is to be your valuation
according to The Set Apart Place shekel.

Lev. 27:4 And if it is a female your valuation is to be thirty shekels.

Lev. 27:5 And if it is from five years and up to the age of twenty years
your valuation for a male, twenty shekels,
and for a female, ten shekels.

Lev. 27:6 And If from the age of a month and up to the age of five years
then your valuation for a male is to be five shekels of silver and for a female your valuation is to be three shekels of silver.

Lev. 27:7 And if from the age
of sixty years and upward,
if it is a male then your valuation
is to be fifteen shekels,
and for a female, ten shekels.

Lev. 27:8 And If he is poorer than the valuation
then he is to be stood before the face of the priest.
And the priest is to value he himself תא.
According to the mouth concerning what the hand can reach of the one promising
the priest is to value him.

Lev. 27:9 If an animal which one has brought near
is an approach offering to YAHWEH, all of what he gives from it to YAHWEH
is to be set apart.

Lev. 27:10 He is not to replace it and he is not to exchange it itself תא, good with bad, or bad with good.
And if he exchanges it,
exchanges it animal for animal,
it will be that it and its exchanged one will be set apart.

Lev. 27:11 And If any animal is defiled which is not to be brought near
as an approach offering to YAHWEH
then the animal itself תא is to be stood
before the face of the priest.

Lev. 27:12 And the priest
is to value it itself תא,
whether good or bad.
According to your valuation by the priest,
so it will be.

Lev. 27:13 And if he is redeeming it,
he is to redeem it.
But he is to add its fifth part over your valuation.

Lev. 27:14 And when a man sets apart his house itself אָת as set apart to YAHWEH then the priest is to value it, whether good or bad. According to what the priest values it itself אָת, so will it be established.

Lev. 27:15 And if the one setting it apart is to redeem his house itself אָת then he is to add a fifth part of your silver valuation above it. And it will be his.

Lev. 27:16 And if some of the field of his possession a man has set apart to YAHWEH then your valuation is to be according to its seed requirement, the seed of a homer of barley, fifty shekels of silver.

Lev. 27:17 If as of The Year of The Horn Blast he sets apart his field, according to your assessment it will be established.

Lev. 27:18 But if it is after The Year of The Horn Blast that he sets apart his field then the priest is to reckon for him the silver itself אָת according to the years remaining until The Year of The Horn Blast. And it is to be subtracted from your valuation.

Lev. 27:19 And if redeeming it, he is to redeem the field itself אָת. The one setting it apart, he himself אָת, is also to add a fifth part of the silver of your assessment above it. And it will be established for him.

Lev. 27:20 But if he does not redeem the field itself אָת, or if he has sold the field itself אָת to another man, it cannot be redeemed any longer.

Lev. 27:21 And the field will be, in its going out in The Year of The Horn Blast, set apart to YAHWEH as a field devoted to the priest. It is to be his possession.

Lev. 27:22 And if his purchased field itself אָת which is not a field of his possession is set apart to YAHWEH

Lev. 27:23 then the priest is to reckon for him the amount of your valuation until The Year of The Horn Blast. And he is to give your valuation itself אָת at that time. It is set apart to YAHWEH.

Lev. 27:24 In The Year of The Horn Blast the field will return to the one from whom he purchased it itself אָת, to him whose possession of land it is.

Lev. 27:25 And all your assessments are to be according to the shekel

of The Set Apart Place,
twenty gerahs being the shekel.

Lev. 27:26 However, a firstborn that is already a firstborn to YAHWEH among animals, no man is to set apart it itself nx,
whether ox or sheep.
It is YAHWEH's.

Lev. 27:27 And if among the animals
one is defiled
then he is to redeem it at your valuation
and is to add its fifth part above it.
And if it is not redeemed
then it is to be sold at your valuation.

Lev. 27:28 However, everything devoted that a man devotes to YAHWEH
from everything that is his,
whether of man or of animal,
or of the field of his possession,
it is not to be sold,
and it is not to be redeemed.
Everything devoted is set apart.
It is set apart to YAHWEH.

Lev. 27:29 Anyone devoted that has been devoted from among human beings
is not to be ransomed.
He is to be put to death,
put to death!

Lev. 27:30 And every tithe of the land
from the seed of the land,
from the fruit of the tree,
it is YAHWEH's.
It is set apart to YAHWEH.

Lev. 27:31 And if a man is redeeming it,
redeeming from his tithes,
its fifth part he is to add above it.

Lev. 27:32 And every tithe of herd, or of flock,
everything that passes over under the rod,
the tenth one is to be set apart to YAHWEH.

Lev. 27:33 He is not to search between good and bad.
And he is not to exchange it.

And if he exchanges it, exchanges it,
then it is to be and its exchange is to be set apart.
They are not to be redeemed.

Lev. 27:34 These are the directives that YAHWEH gave as directions to Moshe himself nx
for the sake of the children of Yisra'el
at Mount Sinai.

4. Numbers - BEMIDBAR

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Num. 1:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe
in the Wilderness of Sinai,
in the Tent of Appointment,
on the first day of the second new moon,
in the second year after their going out from the land of Egypt saying,

Num. 1:2 "Lift up the head itself תא
of the entire assembly of the children of Yisra'el
by their families,
by their fathers' households,
according to the number of names,
by the skull of every male

The Hebrew is a bit confusing in this verse.
It speaks of lifting up the heads of the entire assembly.
But there are two terms used in this verse
that can easily get confused in translation.

The first is rosh. It means to shake; the head.
It's translated as the top,
the first (in time, rank, etc.), the head, etc.

This is often translated
as "first", or "beginning".
This may indicate a reference to the first accounting of the "men of war" within the assembly
after the giving of The Torah and the establishment of The Nation of Yisra'el at Sinai.
That would fit the overall context of Scripture.
However, this is typically "translated"
as 'sum', or, 'census'.

The second is gulgoleth - a skull.
This generally refers to a person's head.
Given the context it seems clear that a count was to be taken of every male skull, individual,
over the age of twenty.
This would provide the basis
for referring to this as a census.

Num. 1:3 from the age of twenty years and upward,
everyone going out to battle in Yisra'el.

You are to number they themselves תא
by their groupings,
you yourself תא and Aharon.

Num. 1:4 And with you yourselves תא
there is to be a man,
a man for a tribe,
a man who is himself
head of his father's household.

This is a different rendering of the verse
when compared to traditional translations.
The aleph-tav usage
dictates a different interpretation,
as given here.
The rest of the text gives the literal sense of the terms,
not an "interpretation" of the words.

Num. 1:5 Now these are the names of the men who are to stand with you yourselves תא.

For Re'uben:
'Elitzur, son of Shede'ur.

Re'uben means behold, a son.
'Elitzur means El is a rock.
Shede'ur means spreader of light.

Num. 1:6 For Shim'on:
Shelumi'el, son of Tzurishaddai.

Shim'on means to listen or to hear.
Shelumi'el means El of shalom.
Tzurishaddai means
The Mighty One is my rock.

Num. 1:7 For Yahudah:
Nahshon, son of Amminadab.

Yahudah means YAH is praised.
Nahshon means shining or glistening.
Amminadab means My people are free.

Num. 1:8 For Yissaskar:
Netan'el, son of Tzu'ar.

Yissaskar means he will bring a reward.
Netan'el means given by El.

Tzu'ar means small.

Num. 1:9 For Zebulun:

Eliab, son of Helon.

Zebulun means to dwell, dwelling place.

Eliab means El is my father.

Helon means strength, force.

Num. 1:10 For the Sons of Yosef.

For Ephraim:

Elishama, son of Ammihud.

For Menashe:

Gamli'el, son of Pedahztur.

Yosef means he will add.

Ephraim means double fruit.

Elishama means El who hears.

Ammihud means people of grandeur.

Menashe means causing to forget.

Gamli'el means El is my benefactor.

Pedahztur means rock of release.

Num. 1:11 For Binyamin:

Abidan, son of Gid'oni.

Binyamin means son of the right hand.

Abidan means my father is judge.

Gid'oni means one who cuts down;

I am cut down.

Num. 1:12 For Dan:

Ahi'ezer, son of Ammishaddai.

Dan means judge.

Ahi'ezer means my brother is help.

Ammishaddai means

mighty one of the people,

or people of the mighty one.

Num. 1:13 For Asher:

Pag'i'el, son of Okhran.

Asher means straight, level; happy.

Pag'i'el means impact of El.

Okhran means troubler.

Num. 1:14 For Gad:

Elyasaf, son of De'u'el.

Gad means invader; troop.

Elyasaf means El of my increase, addition.

De'u'el means know El; known of El.

Num. 1:15 For Naftali:

Ahira', son of Einan.

Naftali means my wrestling, struggle.

Ahira' means my bad brother;

my brother is bad.

Einan means having eyes.

Num. 1:16 These were called out of the assembly,
exalted leaders of their father's authority.

They are heads of Yisra'el's families.

'elep - family, associates.

As the first letter of the Aleph-Bet

(the first letter is א)

this represents an ox head.

There are associations to strength, leadership,
and to yoking together connected to it.

Some translate this as "thousands"

since the aleph is used as the 'number' 1,000.

But the etymology indicates it means family.

Num. 1:17 And Moshe and Aharon

took these men themselves אָנְכֶם

who had been designated

according to their names.

Num. 1:18 And the entire assembly itself אָנְכֶם

was called together

on the first day of the second new moon.

And their births were according to their families

by the house of their fathers,

according to the number of names

from the age of twenty years and upward,

by their skulls

Num. 1:19 according to what YAHWEH

had directed Moshe himself אָנְכֶם.

And he numbered them
in the Wilderness of Sinai.

Num. 1:20 And they were:
The sons of Re'uben, firstborn of Yisra'el,
their generations by their families,
by the house of their fathers,
according to the number of names,
by their skulls, every male
from the age of twenty years and upward,
everyone going out to do battle.

Num. 1:21 Their number for the tribe of Re'uben,
six and forty thousand, and five hundred.

matteh - a branch, staff. Figuratively, a tribe.
Tribe is the traditional word used.

Unfortunately this misses
the role of the staff in Yisra'elite culture.
It is the symbol of authority for the household (or person) to which it belongs.
The staff was used for counting livestock.

One can conceive that a somewhat similar process is involved here, hence the use of "staff" instead of "tribe".

Num. 1:22 For the sons of Shim'on,
their generations, by their families,
by the house of their fathers,
according to the number of names,
by their skulls, every male
from the age of twenty years and upward,
everyone going out to do battle.

Num. 1:23 Their number for the tribe of Shim'on,
nine and fifty thousand, and three hundred.

Num. 1:24 For the sons of Gad,
their generations by their families,
by the house of their fathers,
according to the number of names,
from the age of twenty years and upward,
everyone going out to do battle.

Num. 1:25 Their number for the tribe of Gad,
five and forty thousand,
and six hundred and fifty.

Num. 1:26 For the sons of Yahudah,
their generations by their families,
by the house of their fathers,
according to the number of names,
from the age of twenty years and upward,
everyone going out to do battle.

Num. 1:27 Their number for the tribe of Yahudah,
four and seventy thousand, and six hundred.

Num. 1:28 For the sons of Yissaskar,
their generations by their families,
by the house of their fathers,
according to the number of names,
from the age of twenty years and upward,
everyone going out to do battle.

Num. 1:29 Their number for the tribe of Yissaskar,
four and fifty thousand, and four hundred.

Num. 1:30 For the sons of Zebulun,
their generations by their families,
by the house of their fathers,
according to the number of names,
from the age of twenty years and upward,
everyone going out to do battle.

Num. 1:31 Their number for the tribe of Zebulun,
seven and fifty thousand, and four hundred.

Num. 1:32 For the sons of Yosef,
For the sons of Ephraim,
their generations by their families,
by the house of their fathers,
according to the number of names,
from the age of twenty years and upward,
everyone going out to do battle.
Num. 1:33 Their number for the tribe of Ephraim,
forty thousand and five hundred.

Num. 1:34 For the sons of Menashe,
their generations by their families,
by the house of their fathers,
according to the number of names,
from the age of twenty years and upward,
everyone going out to do battle.
Num. 1:35 Their number for the tribe of Menashe,
two and thirty thousand, and two hundred.

Num. 1:36 For the sons of Binyamin,
their generations by their families,
by the house of their fathers,
according to the number of names,
from the age of twenty years and upward,
everyone going out to do battle.
Num. 1:37 Their number for the tribe of Binyamin,
five and thirty thousand, and four hundred.

Num. 1:38 For the sons of Dan,
their generations by their families,
by the house of their fathers,
according to the number of names,
from the age of twenty years and upward,
everyone going out to do battle.
Num. 1:39 Their number for the tribe of Dan,
two and sixty thousand, and seven hundred.

Num. 1:40 For the sons of Asher,
their generations by their families,
by the house of their fathers,
according to the number of names,
from the age of twenty years and upward,
everyone going out to do battle.
Num. 1:41 Their number for the tribe of Asher,
one and forty thousand, and five hundred.

Num. 1:42 For the sons of Naftali,
their generations by their families,
by the house of their fathers,
according to the number of names,
from the age of twenty years and upward,
everyone going out to do battle.
Num. 1:43 Their number for the tribe of Naftali,
three and fifty thousand, and four hundred.

Num. 1:44 These are those having been numbered which Moshe and Aharon
and the leaders of Yisra'el,
twelve men, numbered;
each man for the house of his father.

Num. 1:45 And they were all numbered
of the children of Yisra'el
according to their fathers' households,
from the age of twenty and upward,
everyone going out to do battle in Yisra'el.

Num. 1:46 And they were, all those numbered,
six hundred thousand and three thousand
and five hundred and fifty.

Num. 1:47 But the Levites,
according to the tribe of their fathers,
were not counted among them.

Num. 1:48 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 1:49 Only the tribe itself תא of Levi
you are not to account for.
And their head itself תא you are not to lift up
in the midst of the children of Yisra'el.

Num. 1:50 And you yourself תא
are to make accountable
the Levites themselves תא
over The Tent of The Testimony, and over all its implements,
and over all that belongs to it.

They are to carry The Dwelling itself תא
and all its implements themselves תא.
And they are to attend to it.
And all around The Dwelling
they are to camp.

Num. 1:51 When The Dwelling is to journey
the Levites are to take down it itself תא.
And when The Dwelling is to encamp
the Levites are to set up it itself תא.

And the outsider who comes near
is to be put to death!

Num. 1:52 And the children of Yisra'el
are to camp,
each one according to his encampment,
and each one according to his banner,
according to their assemblies.

Num. 1:53 But the Levites are to camp
all around The Tent of The Testimony.
Then there will be no outrage
against the assembly of the children of Yisra'el.

And the Levites
are to protect the duty itself תא
of The Tent of The Testimony.

Num. 1:54 And the children of Yisra'el did
according to all that YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.
Thus they did.

Chapter 2

Num. 2:1 And YAHWEH spoke
to Moshe and to Aharon saying,
Num. 2:2 "A man is to camp under his banner with its insignia of the house of their father
of the children of Yisra'el.

At a distance
all around The Tent of Appointment
they are to encamp.

Num. 2:3 And those encamping at the front,
to the east,
the banner of the camp of Yahudah
according to their assemblies.
And the leader of the Sons of Yahudah,
Nahshon, son of Amminadab.
Num. 2:4 And his assembly,
even those having been numbered,
four and seventy thousand and six hundred.

Num. 2:5 And those encamping beside them.
The tribe of Yissaskar.
And the leader of Yissaskar,
Netan'el, son of Tzu'ar.

Num. 2:6 And his assembly,
even those having been numbered,
four and fifty thousand and four hundred.

Num. 2:7 The tribe of Zebulun.
And the leader of the Sons of Zebulun,
Eliab, son of Helon.

Num. 2:8 And his assembly,
even those having been numbered,
seven and fifty thousand and four hundred.

Num. 2:9 All those having been numbered
of the Camp of Yahudah,
a hundred thousand and eighty thousand,
and six thousand, and four hundred,
by their assemblies.

First are they to journey.

Num. 2:10 The banner of the Camp of Re'uben,
to the south, by their assemblies,
And the leader of the Sons of Re'uben,
Elitzur, son of Shedei'ur.

Num. 2:11 And his assembly,
even those having been numbered,
six and forty thousand and five hundred.

Num. 2:12 And those encamping beside them.
The tribe of Shim'on.

And the leader of the Sons of Shim'on,
Shelumi'el, son of Tzurishaddai.

Num. 2:13 And his assembly,
even those having been numbered,
nine and fifty thousand and three hundred.

Num. 2:14 And the tribe of Gad.
And the leader of the Sons of Gad, Elyasaf, son of Re'u'el.

Num. 2:15 And his assembly,
even those having been numbered,
five and forty thousand and six hundred and fifty.

Num. 2:16 All those having been numbered
of the camp of Re'uben,
a hundred thousand
and one and fifty thousand,
and four hundred and fifty,
by their assemblies.

And second are they to march.

Num. 2:17 Then will set out
The Tent of Appointment,
the Camp of the Levites,
in the midst of the camps.
According to how they encamp,
so are they to journey,
each one according to his position,
by their banners.

Num. 2:18 The banner of the camp of Ephraim,
according to their assemblies,
toward the sea.

And the leader of the sons of Ephraim,
Elishama, son of Ammihud.

Num. 2:19 And his assembly,
even those having been numbered,
forty thousand and five hundred.

Num. 2:20 And beside them.
The tribe of Menashe.

And the leader of the Sons of Menashe, Gamli'el, son of Pedahzur.

Num. 2:21 And his assembly,
even those having been numbered,
two and thirty thousand and two hundred.

Num. 2:22 And the tribe of Binyamin.
And the leader of the Sons of Binyamin,
Abidan, son of Gid'oni.

Num. 2:23 And his assembly,
even those having been numbered,
five and thirty thousand and four hundred.

Num. 2:24 All those having been numbered
of the Camp of Ephraim,
a hundred thousand
and eight thousand and a hundred,
by their assemblies.

And third are they to march.

Num. 2:25 The banner of the Camp of Dan,
to the north, by their assemblies.
And the leader of the Sons of Dan,
Ahi'ezer, son of Ammishaddai.

Num. 2:26 And his assembly,
even those having been numbered,
two and sixty thousand and seven hundred.

Num. 2:27 And those encamping beside them.
The tribe of Asher.

And the leader of Asher,
Pag'l'e'l, son of Okhran.

Num. 2:28 And his assembly,
even those having been numbered,
one and forty thousand and five hundred.

Num. 2:29 And the tribe of Naftali.
And the leader of the Sons of Naftali,
Ahira', son of Einan.

Num. 2:30 And his assembly,
even those having been numbered,
three and fifty thousand and four hundred.

Num. 2:31 All those having been numbered
of the Camp of Dan,
a hundred thousand,
and seven and fifty thousand,
and six hundred.

As the last are they to march,
by to their banners.

Num. 2:32 These are those having been numbered
of the children of Yisra'el
by the house of their fathers.

All those having been numbered,
the camps by their assemblies,
six hundred thousand and three thousand
and five hundred and fifty.

Num. 2:33 But the Levites were not numbered
in the midst of the children of Yisra'el
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself nx.

Num. 2:34 And the children of Yisra'el did
according to everything that YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself nx.

Thus they encamped by their banners,
and thus they journeyed,
each man by his families,
according to the house of his father.

Chapter 3

Num. 3:1 Now these are the generations of Aharon and Moshe at the time YAHWEH spoke with Moshe himself תא on Mount Sinai.

Num. 3:2 And these are the names of the sons of Aharon.

The firstborn, Nadab, and Abihu, El'azar and Itamar.

Nadab means the willing one.

Abihu means he is my father.

El'azar means El is helper.

Itamar means land of the palm tree.

Num. 3:3 These are the names of the sons of Aharon, the anointed priests, whose hands He filled for the sake of officiating as priests.

male' - to fill.

yad - hand.

This is a Hebraism.

The concept of "filling the hands" can be understood in several different ways.

Primary among them is that of filling them with authority.

The hand often represents one's authority.

In this case

it is the authority of the priesthood, thus enabling them to officiate as such.

But this can also be understood as the literal "filling of the hands" that resulted from their being priests.

The gifts dedicated to YAHWEH

at many points became theirs,

literally "filling their hands"

with all the best things of the land.

Num. 3:4 But Nadab and Abihu died before the face of YAHWEH on account of their bringing near outside fire before the face of YAHWEH in the Wilderness of Sinai. And they did not have children.

And El'azar and Itamar officiated as priests before the face of Aharon, their father.

"before the face"

represents "in his presence".

Num. 3:5 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Num. 3:6 "Bring near the tribe of Levi itself תא.

And you are to station it itself תא

before the face of Aharon the priest.

And they are to serve he himself תא.

Num. 3:7 And they are to protect his duty itself תא

and the duty itself תא of the entire assembly,

in the presence of The Tent of Appointment,

for the sake of working

the tasks themselves תא of The Dwelling.

Num. 3:8 And they are to protect

all the implements themselves תא

of The Tent of Appointment,

and the duty itself תא of the children of Yisra'el

for the sake of working

the tasks themselves תא of The Dwelling.

Num. 3:9 And you are to give

the Levites themselves תא

to Aharon and to his sons as gifts.

Gifts are they to him

from the children of Yisra'el themselves תא.

Num. 3:10 And Aharon himself תא

and his sons themselves תא

you are to make accountable.
And they are to protect their priesthood itself נא.

And the outsider who comes near
is to be put to death!"

Num. 3:11 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Num. 3:12 "And behold!

I Myself have taken the Levites themselves נא
from the midst of the children of Yisra'el
in place of every firstborn
that opens the womb
from the children of Yisra'el.

And the Levites are Mine,

Num. 3:13 because every firstborn is Mine!

At the time that I struck every firstborn
in the land of Mitsraim
I set apart as Mine
every firstborn in Yisra'el,
from man to animal.
They are Mine!

I Myself am YAHWEH!"

Num. 3:14 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe
in the Wilderness of Sinai saying,

Num. 3:15 "Number

the Sons of Levi themselves נא

by the house of their fathers,
by their families.

Every male

from the age of a month and upward
you are to number."

Num. 3:16 And Moshe numbered

they themselves נא

according to the mouth of YAHWEH,
according to what He had directed.

Num. 3:17 And these were the Sons of Levi
according to their names.

Gershon, Kohat, and Merari.

Gershon means dispossessed.

Kohat means alliance.

Merari means bitter.

Num. 3:18 And these are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families.

Libni and Shim'i.

Libni means white.

Shim'i means one who hears.

Num. 3:19 And the sons of Kohat
by their families.

Amram and Yitzhar, Hebron and Uzzi'el.

Amram means exalted people.

Yitzhar means fresh oil.

Hebron means association.

Uzzi'el means El is my strength.

Num. 3:20 And the sons of Merari
by their families.

Mahli and Mushi.

These, they are the families of the Levites,
by the house of their fathers.

Mahli means my weakness.

Mushi means my departure.

Num. 3:21 For Gershon,
the family of the Libnites

and the family of the Shim'ites.
These are they of the families of the Gershonites.

Num. 3:22 Those having been numbered
according to their number,
every male from the age of a month and upward.
Those having been numbered,
seven thousand and five hundred.

Num. 3:23 The families of the Gershonites are to encamp behind The Dwelling,
toward the sea.

Num. 3:24 And the leader of the house
of the father of the Gershonites, Elyasaf, son of Lael.

Elyasaf means El adds.
Lael means belonging to El.

Num. 3:25 And the duty of the Sons of Gershon concerning The Tent of Appointment:
The Dwelling, and the Tent of its covering,
and the cover itself נא of the entrance
to The Tent of Appointment,

Num. 3:26 and the hangings of the courtyard,
and the cover itself נא
of the entrance to the courtyard
which is beside The Dwelling
and beside the slaughter site, all around,
and its cords themselves נא for all its works.

Num. 3:27 And for Kohat,
the family of the Amramites,
and the family of the Yitzharites,
and the family of the Hebronites,
and the family of the Uzzi'elites.
These are they of the Kohathite families

Num. 3:28 according to number,
every male
from the age of a month and upward,
eight thousand and six hundred,
protecting the duty of The Set Apart Place.

Num. 3:29 The families of the Sons of Kohat are to encamp along the side of The Dwelling, to the south.

Num. 3:30 And the leader of the house
of the father for the Kohathite families, Elitzafan, son of Uzzi'el.

Num. 3:31 And their duty:
The Chest, and the table, and the Menorah,
and the slaughter sites,
and the implements of The Set Apart Place
with which they are served,
and the cover, and all the works of it.

Num. 3:32 And the leader of the Levite leaders, El'azar, son of Aharon, the priest, accountable for protecting the duty
of The Set Apart Place.

Num. 3:33 For Merari,
the family of the Mahlites,
and the family of the Mushites.
These are they of the Merarite families.

Num. 3:34 And those having been numbered
according to number, every male
from the age of a month and upward,
six thousand and two hundred.

Num. 3:35 And the leader of the house of the father

for the families of Merari, Tzuri'el, son of Abihayil.

On the side of The Dwelling they are to encamp,
to the north.

Tzuri'el means El is my rock.
Abihayil means strength of my father.

Num. 3:36 And the sons of Merari
are accountable for the duty of the boards of The Dwelling,
and its bars,
and its columns,
and its sockets,
and all its implements,
and all of its works,
Num. 3:37 and the columns of the courtyard,
all around,
and their sockets,
their pegs,
and their cords.

Num. 3:38 And encamping
in front of The Dwelling, to the east,
in front of The Tent of Appointment,
toward sunrise,
Moshe, and Aharon, and his sons,
protecting the duty of The Set Apart Place
for the sake of the duty
of the children of Yisra'el.

And the outsider who comes near
is to be put to death!

Num. 3:39 All those numbered of the Levites,
whom Moshe and Aharon numbered
according to the mouth of YAHWEH,
according to their families.
every male from the age of a month and upward,
two and twenty thousand.

Num. 3:40 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Number every firstborn male
of the children of Yisra'el,
from the age of a month and upward.
Take the number itself נא of their names.

Num. 3:41 And you are to take the Levites themselves נא for Me,
I Myself, YAHWEH,
in place of every firstborn
among the children of Yisra'el,
and the animals themselves נא of the Levites
in place of every firstborn animal
among the children of Yisra'el."

Num. 3:42 And Moshe numbered,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed he himself נא, every firstborn itself נא
among the children of Yisra'el.

Num. 3:43 And it was every firstborn male
according to the number of names
from the age of a month and upward,
according to their accountings,
two and twenty thousand and two hundred and seventy and three.

Num. 3:44 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 3:45 "Take the Levites themselves נא
in place of every firstborn
among the children of Yisra'el,

and the animals themselves תא of the Levites
in place of their animals.

And the Levites are Mine.

I Myself am YAHWEH!

Num. 3:46 And for a ransom itself תא
of the three and seventy and two hundred,
those in excess more than the Levites
from the firstborn of the children of Yisra'el
Num. 3:47 then you are to take five,
five shekels, for their skulls.
According to the shekel
of The Set apart Place
you are to take it,
twenty gerahs to the shekel.

Num. 3:48 And you are to give the silver
to Aharon and to his sons,
ransoming those in excess among them."

Num. 3:49 And Moshe took
the silver itself תא of the ransom from those themselves תא in excess of the redeemed of the Levites,
Num. 3:50 from the firstborn themselves תא
of the children of Yisra'el
he took the silver itself תא, five and sixty and three hundred and a thousand,
according to the shekel
of The Set Apart Place.

Num. 3:51 And Moshe gave the silver itself תא of the redemption
to Aharon and to his sons
according to the mouth of YAHWEH
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.

Chapter 4

Num. 4:1 And YAHWEH spoke
to Moshe and to Aharon saying,
Num. 4:2 "Lift up the head itself תא
of the Sons of Kohat
from the midst of the Sons of Levi,
by their families,
by the house of their fathers,

The idea here is to count them
so it is known how many are available for the tasks identified.
But it's also used to identify their particular responsibilities
that are unique to this family of the Levites.

The concept of lifting up the head is also a Hebraism for showing favor or specially acknowledging someone.

Num. 4:3 from the age
of thirty years and upward
until the age of fifty years,
everyone entering the assembly to do employment
in The Tent of Appointment.

Num. 4:4 This is the work of the Sons of Kohat
in The Tent of Appointment,
the set apart of the set apart things.

Typically translated as "most holy things",
the Hebraic manner of speaking involves the double mention of that which is set apart, indicating that these are indeed
the most sacred objects involved
in The Tent of Appointment

(which includes "The Dwelling", or the central Tent of The Testimony.).

Num. 4:5 Aharon and his sons are to come when the camp starts on a journey.
And they are to take down
the veil of the covering itself תא.
And they are to cover with it
The Chest of The Testimony itself תא.

This is the veil that hung between
The Chest of The Testimony
and the rest of The Dwelling place.

Num. 4:6 And they are to put over it a covering of tanned leather skin.
And they are to spread a cloth entirely of blue violet on top of it.
And they are to place its poles.

Num. 4:7 And over The Table of The Presence
they are to spread a cloth of blue violet.
And they are to put upon it
the bowls themselves תא,
and the ladles themselves תא,
and the basins themselves תא,
and the jugs themselves תא
for the drink offerings.
And the continual bread is to be on it.

Num. 4:8 And they are to spread over these
a cloth of maggot scarlet.
And they are to cover it
with a covering of tanned leather skin.
And they are to place its poles themselves תא.

Num. 4:9 And they are to take
a cloth of blue violet.
And they are to cover
the Menorah of The Light itself תא,
and its lamps themselves תא,
and its tongs themselves תא,
and its fire pans themselves תא,
and all the implements themselves תא for its oil
with which they attend to them.

Num. 4:10 And they are to put it itself תא
and all its implements themselves תא
in a covering of tanned leather skin.
And they are to put them on a yoke.

Num. 4:11 And over the golden Table of Incense
they are to spread a cloth of blue violet.
And they are to cover it itself תא
with a covering of tanned leather skin.
And they are to place its poles themselves תא.

Num. 4:12 And they are to take all the implements of the service themselves תא
with which they attend in The Set Apart Place.
And they are to put them
into a cloth of blue violet.
And they are to cover they themselves תא
with a covering of tanned leather skin.
And they are to put them on a yoke.

Num. 4:13 And they are to remove the ash
of the slaughter site itself תא.

And they are to spread over it
a cloth of purple.
Num. 4:14 And they are to put upon it all its implements themselves תא
with which they attend upon it,
the fire pans themselves תא,
the flesh hooks themselves תא,
the scrapers themselves תא,
and the bowls themselves תא,
all the implements of the slaughter site.

And they are to spread over it
a covering of tanned leather skin.
And they are to place its poles.

Num. 4:15 And Aharon and his sons are to finish covering The Set Apart Place itself תא
and all the implements themselves תא
of The Set Apart Place
as the camp starts to journey.

And after this are to come the Sons of Kohat
for the sake of carrying.
But they are not to touch
upon the set apart things
or they will be put to death.

These are the burdens of the Sons of Kohat
in The Tent of Appointment.

Num. 4:16 The accountability of El'azar,
son of Aharon, the priest,
the oil of the light,
and the sweet incense,
and the continual grain gift,
and the oil of the anointing, accountability for all The Dwelling and all that is in it,
with The Set Apart Place
and with its implements."

Num. 4:17 And YAHWEH spoke
to Moshe and to Aharon saying,
Num. 4:18 "You are not to cut off
the tribe itself תא of the families of Kohat
from the midst of the Levites.

Num. 4:19 But do this for them that they may live and not be put to death in their coming near to the set apart,
the set apart things themselves תא.

Aharon and his sons are to go in and establish they themselves תא,
each man according to his task
and to his burden.

Num. 4:20 But they are not to go in for the sake of observing as the set apart things themselves תא are being covered
or they will be put to death."

For one who violated YAHWEH's instructions
there was always the possibility one could be put to death.
This reflects the view that any offense
such as that of Chavvah (Eve)
in The Garden of Eden,
requires the forfeiture of one's life.
Death is the penalty for rebellion.
And rebellion is the willful rejection of the Word of YAHWEH.

Num. 4:21 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 4:22 "Lift up the heads themselves תא
of the Sons of Gershon,
they also, by the house of their fathers,
by their families.

Num. 4:23 From the age of thirty years
and upward to the age of fifty years
you are to number they themselves תא,
all who are going in to assemble,
to assemble for the sake of doing work
in The Tent of Appointment.

Num. 4:24 And this is the work of the families of the Gershonites,
to serve and to carry.

Num. 4:25 And they are to carry the hangings themselves תא of The Dwelling, and The Tent of Appointment itself תא,
its covering,
and the covering of tanned leather
that is over it, on top of it, and the cover itself תא
for the entrance of The Tent of Appointment,

Num. 4:26 and the hangings of the courtyard itself תא
and the cover for the entrance,
the gate of the courtyard
that is beside The Dwelling
and beside the slaughter site, all around,
and their cords themselves תא,
and all the implements themselves תא
for their work,
and everything itself תא
that is used by them and their tasks.

Num. 4:27 By the mouth of Aharon and his sons is to be all the work of the Sons of the Gershonites
for all their burdens,
and for all their tasks.
And you are to have accountability over them
according to the duty
of all their burdens themselves תא.

Num. 4:28 This is the work of the families
of the Sons of the Gershonites
in The Tent of Appointment.
And their duty is under the hand of Itamar,
son of Aharon, the priest.

Num. 4:29 The Sons of Merari, by their families,
by the house of their fathers
you are to number, they themselves תא.
Num. 4:30 From the age of thirty years and upward
until the age of fifty years you are to number them,
all who are going in to assemble
for the sake of working at the tasks themselves תא
of The Tent of Appointment.

Num. 4:31 And this is the duty of their burdens
for all their tasks in The Tent of Appointment:
the boards of The Dwelling,
and its bars,
and its columns,
and its sockets,
Num. 4:32 and the columns of the courtyard,
all around,
and their sockets,
and their pegs,
and their cords,
for all their implements,
for all their tasks.

And by designations you are to number the implements themselves תא
of their carrying duties.

Num. 4:33 This is the work
of the families of the sons of Merari,
according to all their tasks
in The Tent of Appointment
at the hand of Itamar,
son of Aharon, the priest.

Num. 4:34 And Moshe, and Aharon,
and the leaders of the assembly numbered all the Sons of Kohat themselves תא
by their families,
by the house of their fathers,
Num. 4:35 from the age of thirty years
and upward until the age of fifty years,
everyone going in to assemble
for the work in The Tent of Appointment.
Num. 4:36 And they were numbered
by their families,
two thousand seven hundred and fifty.

Num. 4:37 These are the numberings
of the Kohathite families, all who were serving
in The Tent of Appointment
whom Moshe and Aharon counted according to mouth of YAHWEH
by the hand of Moshe.

Num. 4:38 And those accounted for
of the Sons of Gershon,
by their families,
by the house of their fathers,
Num. 4:39 from the age of thirty and upward
until the age of fifty years,
everyone going in to assemble for work
in The Tent of Appointment.
Num. 4:40 And there were numbered of them
by their families,
by the house of their fathers,
two thousand six hundred and thirty.

Num. 4:41 These are the numbers of the families of the Sons of Gershon, everyone working in The Tent of Appointment
whom Moshe and Aharon numbered
according to the mouth of YAHWEH.

Num. 4:42 And they were numbered
of the sons of Merari,
by their families,
by the house of their fathers,
Num. 4:43 from the age of thirty years
and upward until the age of fifty years,
everyone going in to assemble for work
in The Tent of Appointment.
Num. 4:44 And they were accounted for them
according to their families,
according to their fathers' households,
three thousand and two hundred.
Num. 4:45 These are the accountings
of the families of the Sons of Merari,
whom Moshe and Aharon numbered
according to the mouth of YAHWEH
by the hand of Moshe.

Num. 4:46 All those numbered whom Moshe and Aharon and all the leaders of Yisra'el numbered of the Levites themselves תא
by their families, by the house of their fathers
Num. 4:47 from the age of thirty years
and upward until the age of fifty years,
everyone going in to work the works and to do the work of carrying
in The Tent of Appointment.
Num. 4:48 And there were numbered of them
eight thousand five hundred and eighty.

Num. 4:49 According to the mouth of YAHWEH
they themselves תא had been numbered
by the hand of Moshe,

each man according to his work
and according to his burden.
And each had been numbered whom YAHWEH had directed Moshe himself נא.

Chapter 5

Num. 5:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Num. 5:2 "Direct
the children of Yisra'el themselves נא
that they are to send away from the camp everyone with skin disease,
and everyone with a discharge,
and everyone defiled
by a dead breathing being!

5:3 From male to female
you are to send them away,
outside the camp.

You are to send them away.
And they are not to defile
their encampments themselves נא
in which I Myself
am dwelling in their midst."

Num. 5:4 And the children of Yisra'el
did according to this.

And they sent away they themselves נא
outside the camp.

According to what YAHWEH spoke to Moshe,
according to this the children of Yisra'el did.

Num. 5:5 And YAHWEH had spoken
to Moshe saying,

Num. 5:6 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el.

A man or a woman,
when they do any offense done by a human being
by acting unfaithfully
with an unfaithful act against YAHWEH,
and that person becomes liable,

Num. 5:7 they are to acknowledge their offense itself נא which they have done.

Then they are to make restitution
for one's liability itself נא

in its principal, adding its fifth to it.
And he is to give it to the one toward whom he became liable.

Num. 5:8 And if there does not exist for the man
a redeemer for the sake of making restitution of the liability to him
the liability payment is to be returned to YAHWEH,
to the priest,
besides the ram of the atonements
by which atonement is made over him.

Num. 5:9 And every elevated gift for all the set apart things
of the children of Yisra'el
that they bring near to the priest are to be his.

Num. 5:10 And a man's set apart things themselves נא for him
will be what a man gives to the priest.
It will be his."

Num. 5:11 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Num. 5:12 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el
and say to them,
'A man, a man when his wife turns aside and acts unfaithfully against him with an unfaithful act

Num. 5:13 and lays with a man,
she herself תא,
with an emission of seed,
and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband,
and she has been defiled,
but there is no witness against her,
and she has not been caught,
Num. 5:14 but there passes over him
the breath of jealousy,
and he is jealous of his wife herself תא,
and she was defiled,
or the breath of jealousy passes over him
and he is jealous of his wife herself תא,
but she was not defiled,
Num. 5:15 then the man is to bring his wife herself תא to the priest.
And he is to bring an approach offering for her,
a tenth of an ephah of barley meal.
There is not to be poured on it any oil and there is not to be put on it any frankincense
because it is a grain gift of jealousy,
a grain gift of memorial that remembers perversion.

Num. 5:16 And the priest
is to bring near her herself תא.
And he is to have her stand
before the face of YAHWEH.
Num. 5:17 And the priest is to take set apart waters in an earthenware vessel.
And from the dirt that exists on the floor of The Dwelling the priest is to take some and put it in the waters.

Num. 5:18 And the priest is to have the woman herself תא stand
before the face of YAHWEH.
And he is to uncover
the head itself תא of the woman.
And he is to give into her palms
the grain gift of memorial itself תא,
the grain gift of jealousy for her.
And in the hand of the priest is to be The Bitter Waters
causing the bitter curse.
Num. 5:19 And the priest
is to cause her herself תא to swear.
And he is to say to the woman,
"If no man has laid with you yourself תא,
and if you have not turned aside to defilement
under your husband's authority,
be clear from The Bitter Waters
causing the bitter curse.

Num. 5:20 But if indeed you have turned aside
under your husband's authority,
and indeed you have been defiled,
and a man has given to you sexual intercourse itself תא except your husband..."

An unfinished statement in Scripture is typically a Hebraic manner of implying dire consequences for which the one hearing it is to "fill in the blanks" concerning what will happen.

Num. 5:21 And the priest
is to cause the woman herself תא
to swear with an oath the curse.

And the priest is to say to the woman,
'May YAHWEH give you yourself תא
as a curse and as an oath
in the midst of your people by YAHWEH granting that your sexual organs themselves תא fall,
and your womb is congested.
Num. 5:22 And may these Waters of The Bitterness go into your internal organs
for the sake of causing your womb to congest
and your sexual organs to fall!'

And the woman is to say, 'Amen! Amen! '

Num. 5:23 And the priest is to write the curses themselves תא,
of the curses, on a scroll.
And he is to wipe them off into The Waters of The Bitterness.
Num. 5:24 And he is to cause the woman herself תא
to drink The Waters of The Bitterness itself תא.
And The Waters of The Bitterness
will go into her for the sake of bitterness.

Num. 5:25 And the priest is to take
from the hand of the woman
the grain gift of jealousy itself תא.
And he is to elevate the grain gift itself תא
before the face of YAHWEH.
And he is to bring near it itself תא
to the slaughter site.

Num. 5:26 And the priest is to take a handful
from the grain gift,
its reminder portion itself תא.
And he is to turn it into smoke
upon the slaughter site.
And afterward
he is to cause the woman herself תא
to drink the waters themselves תא.
Num. 5:27 And he will make her drink
the waters themselves תא.
And it will be, if she was defiled
and has acted unfaithfully, unfaithfully against her husband,
The Waters of The Bitterness
will go into her for the sake of bitterness.
And her womb will be congested.
And her sexual organs will fall.
And the woman will become as a curse
in the midst of her people.

Num. 5:28 But if the woman was not defiled,
and she is undefiled, she is innocent,
and she can be sown with seed.' "

Num. 5:29 This is the Instruction for the jealousy
in which a woman turns aside under her husband's authority and is defiled,
Num. 5:30 or when there passes over a man
a breath of jealousy,
and he is jealous of his wife herself תא.
Then he is to stand the woman herself תא
before the face of YAHWEH.
And the priest is to do to her
all this Instruction itself תא.

Num. 5:31 And the man
will be innocent of perversion.
But this woman will bear
her perversion itself תא."

Chapter 6

Num. 6:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Num. 6:2 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el

and say to them,

'A man or a woman,

when one does an extraordinary act

by vowing a vow of a Nazirite

for the sake of being separated for YAHWEH, naziyr - separate, i.e. consecrated;

from the root, nazar,
which means to hold aloof, to abstain from.

The separation involved
is for sacred purposes,
usually connected to a vow/promise to YAHWEH
to do some particular thing.
This is the source of the "Nazirite Vow"
found in Scripture.

It typically involved separation
from any product of the vine,
and was usually established
for a specified period of time.

This is not the same as being set apart by YAHWEH qodesh - being made "holy".
This is a human action, not a divine one.
Only divine action can truly make one "holy".

Num. 6:3 from wine and intoxicant
one is to abstain.

And fermented wine

and fermented intoxicant

one is not to drink.

And all liquor of grapes

one is not to drink.

Any liquid of grapes

one is not to drink.

And fresh grapes or dried

one is not to eat.

Num. 6:4 All the days of one's being separated

any wine which is made from the vine,

from seeds to skin,

one is not to eat.

Num. 6:5 All the days of one's promise of separation
a razor is not to pass over upon one's head.

Until the fulfilling of days

that one is separated to YAHWEH,

one is to be set apart.

The hair of one's head is to grow unkept.

Num. 6:6 All the days of one's separation to YAHWEH,

by the body of a dead breathing being one is not to come.

Num. 6:7 For a father or for a mother,

or for a brother or for a sister,

one is not to be defiled by them in their dying

because separation to his Elohim

is upon his head.

This is a difficult concept
for most Western minds.
The idea is based on the fact that it is with one's head that the decision to be separated to YAHWEH is made.

The hair which grows upon it is seen by the Hebrews to be "sacred"
because of the promise made.
The head is the foremost part of the body.

Num. 6:8 All the days of one's separation

one is set apart to YAHWEH.

In this verse we have a clear delineation of the difference between being "separated", nezer, and being "set apart", qadosh - sacred.

Unfortunately this is not clearly distinguished in most translations. The concept of "consecration" is used, which implies "holiness". A better term to use would perhaps be "dedicated" (committed).

Num. 6:9 And when one dies having died beside him suddenly, in a moment, and defiles one's head of separation, then he is to shave his head on the day of his becoming undefiled. On the seventh day he is to shave it.

Num. 6:10 And on the eighth day he is to bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the entrance of The Tent of Appointment. Num. 6:11 And the priest is to prepare one as an offense offering, and one as an olah. And he is to make atonement for him, the one defiled by the dead breathing being.

And he is to make his head itself נא set apart on that very day. Num. 6:12 And he is to separate to YAHWEH the days themselves נא of his separation.

And he is to bring a lamb of the first year as a liability offering. And the former days are lost because his separation was defiled.

Num. 6:13 And this is the instruction for the Nazirite. On the day of his fulfilling his days of separation he himself נא is to be brought to the entrance of The Tent of Appointment. Num. 6:14 And he is to bring near as his approach offering itself נא to YAHWEH a ram of the first year, whole, one as an olah, and one ewe lamb of the first year, whole, as an offense offering, and one ram, whole, as a sacrifice of shelem offering, Num. 6:15 and a basket of unleavened bread, flour cakes mixed with oil, and wafers of unleavened bread spread with oil, their grain gift and their drink offerings.

Num. 6:16 And the priest is to bring it near before the face of YAHWEH. And he is to prepare his offense offering itself נא and his olah itself נא. Num. 6:17 And the ram itself נא he is to prepare as a sacrifice of shelem offering to YAHWEH, beside the basket of unleavened bread. Then the priest is to prepare his grain gift itself נא and his drink offering itself נא.

Num. 6:18 And the Nazirite is to shave, at the entrance of The Tent of Appointment, his head of separation itself נא.

And he is to take
the hair of his head of separation itself אָ.
And he is to put it on the fire,
the fire that is under the sacrifice of shelem offering.

Num. 6:19 And the priest is to take
the boiled shoulder itself אָ of the ram, and one cake of unleavened bread
from the basket,
and one wafer of unleavened bread.
And he is to put them
in the palms of the Nazirite
after his shaving of separation itself אָ.

Num. 6:20 The priest is to elevate they themselves אָ as an elevation offering
before the face of YAHWEH.

It is set apart for the priest beside the breast of the elevation offering and beside the thigh of the elevated gift.

And afterward the Nazirite may drink wine.

Num. 6:21 This is the Instruction
for the Nazirite who promises
by an approach offering to YAHWEH
concerning one's separation, separate from what his hand can reach.

According to the promise that he has promised,
according to this he is to do,
in addition to the instruction of his consecration.' "

Num. 6:22 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 6:23 "Speak to Aharon
and to his sons saying,
'In this manner
you are to bless the children of Yisra'el.
Say to them,
Num. 6:24 "May YAHWEH bless you and protect you!
Num. 6:25 May YAHWEH cause His face to shine upon you
and show favor to you!
Num. 6:26 May YAHWEH
lift up His face toward you and grant to you shalom!" '

Num. 6:27 And are they to place My Name itself אָ
upon the children of Yisra'el.
And I Myself will bless them."

Chapter 7

Num. 7:1 And it was on the day
Moshe finished setting up The Dwelling itself אָ.
And he anointed it itself אָ.
And he set apart it itself אָ
and all its implements themselves אָ,
and the slaughter site itself אָ,
and all its implements themselves אָ.

And he anointed them.
And he set apart they themselves אָ.

Num. 7:2 And he brought near
the leaders of Yisra'el,
the heads of the houses of their fathers.
They are the leaders of the tribes.

They are the ones
standing over the numbering.

Num. 7:3 And they brought near their approach offering itself תא
before the face of YAHWEH,
six covered wagons and twelve oxen,
a wagon for two leaders
and an ox for each one.
And they brought near they themselves תא
before The Dwelling.

Num. 7:4 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 7:5 "Take some of they themselves תא.
And they will be for the work itself תא
of The Tent of Appointment.
And give they themselves תא to the Levites,
each man according to his work."

Num. 7:6 And Moshe took
the wagons themselves תא
and the oxen themselves תא.
And he gave they themselves תא to the Levites.

Num. 7:7 Two wagons themselves תא
and four oxen themselves תא
he gave to the sons of Gershon,
according to their work.

Num. 7:8 And four wagons themselves תא
and eight oxen themselves תא
he gave to the sons of Merari,
according to their work,
under the hand of Itamar,
son of Aharon the priest.

Num. 7:9 And to the sons of Kohat
he did not give any because the work of The Set Apart Place
they are to carry upon their shoulders.

Note that the Kohathites could NOT place their burden on carts
because it was most holy.
It MUST be born on their shoulders.

(There is a "type" found here.
The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, bore His own cross
- it was NOT carried for Him!)

Num. 7:10 And the leaders brought near a dedication offering itself תא
for the slaughter site
on the day it itself תא was being anointed.

And the leaders brought near
their approach offering itself תא
before the slaughter site.

Num. 7:11 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"One leader per day,
one leader per day they are to bring near
their approach offering itself תא
for the dedication of the slaughter site."

filled with incense,
Num. 7:57 one bull, a young of the herd,
one ram,
one lamb of the first year as an olah,
Num. 7:58 one hairy goat as an offense offering,
Num. 7:59 and as sacrifice of shelem offerings
oxen two, rams five, he goats five,
and lambs of the first year five.
This is the approach offering of Gamli'el,
son of Pedahzur.

Num. 7:60 On the ninth day the leader of the sons of Binyamin,
Abidan, son of Gid'oni.
Num. 7:61 His approach offering,
one plate of silver,
thirty and a hundred its shekel weight,
one bowl of silver, seventy shekels
according to the shekel of The Set Apart Place,
both of them full of flour mixed with oil
for a grain gift,
Num. 7:62 one ladle, ten shekels of gold,
filled with incense,
Num. 7:63 one bull, a young of the herd,
one ram,
one lamb of the first year as an olah,
Num. 7:64 one hairy goat as an offense offering,
Num. 7:65 and as sacrifice of shelem offerings
oxen two, rams five, he goats five,
and lambs of the first year five.
This was the approach offering of Abidan,
son of Gid'oni.

Num. 7:66 On the tenth day the leader of the sons of Dan,
Ahi'ezer, son of Ammishaddai.
Num. 7:67 His approach offering,
one plate of silver,
thirty and a hundred its shekel weight,
one bowl of silver, seventy shekels
according to the shekel of The Set Apart Place,
both of them full of flour mixed with oil
for a grain gift,

Num. 7:70 one hairy goat as an offense offering,
Num. 7:71 and as sacrifice of shelem offerings
oxen two, rams five, he goats five,
and lambs of the first year five.
This is the approach offering of Ahi'ezer,
son of Ammishaddai.

Num. 7:72 On the day of the eleventh day
the leader of the sons of Asher,
Pag'l'el, son of Okhran.
Num. 7:73 His approach offering,
one plate of silver,
thirty and a hundred its shekel weight,
one bowl of silver, seventy shekels
according to the shekel of The Set Apart Place,
both of them full of flour mixed with oil
for a grain gift,
Num. 7:74 one ladle, ten shekels of gold,
filled with incense,

Num. 7:75 one bull, a young of the herd,
one ram,
one lamb of the first year as an olah,
Num. 7:76 one hairy goat as an offense offering,
Num. 7:77 and as sacrifice of shelem offerings
oxen two, rams five, he goats five,
and lambs of the first year five.
This is the approach offering of Pag'l'el,
son of Okhran.

Num. 7:78 On the day of the twelfth day
the leader of the sons of Naftali,
Ahira', son of Einan.
Num. 7:79 His approach offering,
one plate of silver,
thirty and a hundred its shekel weight,
one bowl of silver, seventy shekels
according to the shekel of The Set Apart Place,
both of them full of flour mixed with oil
for a grain gift,
Num. 7:80 one ladle, ten shekels of gold,
filled with incense,
Num. 7:81 one bull, a young of the herd,
one ram,
one lamb of the first year as an olah,
Num. 7:82 one hairy goat as an offense offering,
Num. 7:83 and as sacrifice of shelem offerings
oxen two, rams five, he goats five,
and lambs of the first year five.
This is the approach offering of Ahira', son of Einan.

Num. 7:84 This is the dedication offering
of the slaughter site
on the day of the anointing of it itself תא
from the leaders of Yisra'el themselves תא, plates of silver twelve,
bowls of silver twelve,
ladles of gold twelve,
Num. 7:85 thirty and a hundred weight per one plate of silver and seventy per one bowl.

All the silver of the implements,
two thousand and four hundred,
according to the shekel of The Set Apart Place.
Num. 7:86 Golden ladles, twelve,
filled with incense.
ten, ten weight per ladle,
according to the shekel of The Set Apart Place.

All the gold of the ladles,
twenty and a hundred.

Num. 7:87 All the oxen for the olah,
twelve bulls, rams twelve,
lambs of the first year twelve,
and their grain gift,
and hairy goats twelve, for the offense offering.
Num. 7:88 And all the oxen
for the sacrifice of shelem offerings, twenty and four bulls,
rams sixty,
he goats sixty,
lambs of the first year sixty.
This is the dedication offering
of the slaughter site
after they had anointed it itself תא.

Num. 7:89 And Moshe was going into
The Tent of Appointment
to speak with He Himself תא.
And he heard the voice itself תא
speaking to him from above the cover which is on The Chest of Testimony,

from between the two cherubim.
And He spoke to him.

Chapter 8

Num. 8:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Num. 8:2 "Speak to Aharon and say to him,
'In your lighting the lamps themselves נא
in front of the Menorah

make light with the seven lamps.' "

Num. 8:3 And Aharon did so.

In front of the Menorah he caused it to ascend
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself נא.

Num. 8:4 And this is the workmanship
of the Menorah, hammered gold.

On its stem up to its petals
it was hammered work.

According to the vision that YAHWEH
had caused Moshe himself נא to see,
according to this
the Menorah itself נא was made.

Num. 8:5 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Num. 8:6 "Take the Levites themselves נא

from the midst of the children of Yisra'el,
and undefile they themselves נא.

taher - to be bright, i.e.
(by implication) to be pure.
This term is often translated
as pure, clean, etc.
But this has little to do with physical cleanliness and everything to do with moral and ethical cleanliness.

Anything that caused them to be defiled
also meant they were not permitted to approach
The Set Apart Place or The Tent of Appointment.

In this translation of the text
the references to purity and cleansing will generally be translated as "undefiled".
This will provide a consistency of thought within the text.
And although there are several different Hebrew words used for these concepts they all are focused on the issue of defilement or undefilement.

Num. 8:7 And according to this
you are to do to them for their undefiling.

Sprinkle on them the waters of offense.

And they are to pass over a razor
upon their whole body.

And they are to wash their garments.

And they themselves will be undefiled.

"the waters of offense"
is a reference to the waters for purification which involved the sacrifice of a red heifer, hyssop, etc.
This is not clearly identified
as such in this verse,
but it appears to be the intent of the text.

Note also the concept of "pass over"
in connection with the razor.
We've just seen the use of the razor
in regard to the Nazirite promises, and the sense of its use for purification
is seen again here.

Num. 8:8 And they are to take a bull,
a young of the herd,
and its grain gift, flour mixed with oil.
And a second bull, a young of the herd,
you are to take for the offense offering.

Num. 8:9 And you are to bring near
the Levites themselves תא
before The Tent of Appointment.
And you are to call together
the entire assembly
of the children of Yisra'el themselves תא.
Num. 8:10 And you are to bring near
the Levites themselves תא
before the face of YAHWEH.
And the children of Yisra'el are to lay
their hands themselves תא
upon the Levites themselves תא.

Num. 8:11 Aharon is to elevate
the Levites themselves תא
as a presentation offering
before the face of YAHWEH
from the children of Yisra'el themselves תא.

And they are to perform
the tasks themselves תא of YAHWEH.

Num. 8:12 And the Levites are to lay
their hands themselves תא
on the heads of the bulls.
And they are to prepare the one itself תא as an offense offering and the other itself תא
as an olah to YAHWEH
for the sake of making atonement
on behalf of the Levites.

Num. 8:13 And you are to have
the Levites themselves תא
stand before Aharon and before his sons.
And you are to elevate they themselves תא
as a presentation offering to YAHWEH.

Num. 8:14 And you are to separate
the Levites themselves תא
from the midst of the children of Yisra'el.
Then the Levites are Mine!

Num. 8:15 And after this the Levites are to go in for the sake of serving
The Tent of Appointment itself תא
when you have undefiled they themselves תא
and elevated they themselves תא
as a presentation offering.

Num. 8:16 Indeed, they are given,
they are given to Me
from the midst of the children of Yisra'el,
in place of the one opening every womb,
the firstborn of all the children of Yisra'el.

I have taken they themselves תא for Myself.

Num. 8:17 Indeed, Mine are all the firstborn
among the children of Yisra'el,
among human being and among animal.

In the day I struck all the firstborn
in the land of Mitsraim
I set apart they themselves תא as Mine!

Num. 8:18 And I have taken
the Levites themselves תא
in place of all the firstborn
among the children of Yisra'el.

Num. 8:19 And I have given
the Levites themselves תא,

giving them to Aharon and to his sons
from the midst of the children of Yisra'el,
for the sake of working
the tasks themselves תא
of the children of Yisra'el
in The Tent of Appointment,
and for the sake of making atonement
on behalf of the children of Yisra'el.
Then there will not exist a plague
among the children of Yisra'el
as the children of Yisra'el come near
to The Set Apart Place."

Num. 8:20 And Moshe, and Aharon,
and the entire assembly of Yisra'el
did concerning the Levites
according to everything that YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא
concerning the Levites.
According to this
the children of Yisra'el did to them.

Num. 8:21 And the Levites undefiled themselves.
And they washed their garments.

And Aharon elevated they themselves תא
as a presentation offering
before the face of YAHWEH.
And Aharon made atonement for them
for the sake of undefiling them.

Num. 8:22 And after this the Levites went in to work their tasks themselves תא
in The Tent of Appointment
in the presence of Aharon
and in the presence of his sons.

According to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא
regarding the Levites,
thus they did concerning them.

Num. 8:23 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 8:24 "This is what is for the Levites from the age
of five and twenty years and upward.
They are to go in for the sake of serving,
according to the tasks
of The Tent of Appointment.

Num. 8:25 And from the age of fifty years
they are to turn back
and they are not to work any longer.
Num. 8:26 But they can attend to their brothers themselves תא
in The Tent of Appointment
for the sake of protecting the duty.
But the tasks they are not to work.

Thus are you to do concerning the Levites
according to their duties."

Chapter 9

Num. 9:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe
in the Wilderness of Sinai
in the second year of their going out
from the land of Mitsraim,
at the first new moon saying,
Num. 9:2 "The children of Yisra'el are to do The Passover itself תא
at its appointed time.

The Passover \(Pesach\)
is of crucial importance in Scripture.
Everything connected to the redemption of YAHWEH's people is directly involved with The Passover.

This is a festival, not merely a sacrifice.
It encompassed a special meal and a vital time of remembering YAHWEH's deliverance from bondage in Egypt.

It foreshadowed the deliverance
from our bondage to our own offense debt
when The Messiah Himself was crucified, giving His own life in place of ours.

It was not to be "kept".
It was not to be "observed".
It was to be DONE!

Only in acting out the drama and remembering the deliverance YAHWEH had wondrously provided would the children of Yisra'el be able to comprehend
the awesome nature of their Elohim.

Num. 9:3 On the fourteenth day
of this new moon,
between the setting times,
you are to do it itself nx,
at its appointed time.
According to all its rules,
and according to all its regulations,
you are to do it itself nx."

Num. 9:4 And Moshe spoke
to the children of Yisra'el
concerning doing The Passover.
Num. 9:5 And they did The Passover itself nx
at the first new moon,
on the fourteenth day of the new moon,
between the setting times,
in the Wilderness of Sinai.
According to everything that YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself nx,
according to this the children of Yisra'el did.

Num. 9:6 But there were men who were defiled
by a dead human being's life.
And they were not able to do The Passover on it's day.
And they came near before the face of Moshe and before the face of Aharon
on that day.

Num. 9:7 And those men said to him,
"As mortals defiled by a dead human life
why should we be withheld from bringing near the approach offering itself nx to YAHWEH
at its appointed time
in the midst of the children of Yisra'el?"

'enowsh - properly, a mortal.
This is a very distinct term.
It's not the typically used 'ish - man.

It reflects on the frail nature of these lives,
especially as impacted by defilement.

It's vital to recognize that defilement is the central issue here.
It prevented them from being able to bring their normal sacrificial offerings
to YAHWEH.
They were excluded
from The Tent of Appointment.

Num. 9:8 And Moshe said to them, "Stand still!
And I will listen attentively to what YAHWEH will direct concerning you."

Num. 9:9 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 9:10 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el saying,

'A man, a man when he is defiled by a dead life
or is on a distant journey,
for you or for your generations,
and does Passover to YAHWEH,
Num. 9:11 in the second new moon
on the fourteenth day
between the setting times
he is to do it itself אָנְךָ.
Together with unleavened bread
and bitter herbs he is to eat it.
Num. 9:12 Nothing is to remain from it until morning.
And a bone is not to be broken in it.
According to all the rules of The Passover
they are to do it itself אָנְךָ.

Num. 9:13 But he who is undefiled or has not been on a journey and fails to do The Passover, then that life is to be cut off from his people,
he himself,
because the approach offering to YAHWEH
he has not brought near
at its appointed time.
That man is to bear his perversion.

This is VERY IMPORTANT to note:
The person who is clean,
yet does NOT participate in Passover
is to be "cut off" from his people.
He is to be exiled
for his failure to honor YAHWEH!

Num. 9:14 And when a sojourner sojourns with you yourselves אִתְּכֶם
and does Passover to YAHWEH,
according to the rules of The Passover and according to its regulations, thus he is to do.

One rule is there to be for you and for the sojourner and for the native of the land."

Num. 9:15 Now on the day
The Dwelling itself אָנְךָ was set up the cloud covered The Dwelling itself אָנְךָ
beside The Tent of The Testimony.
And at sunset it existed over The Dwelling
as an appearance of fire until dawn.
Num. 9:16 In this manner
it existed continually.
The cloud covered it
and fire appeared at night.

Num. 9:17 And when the cloud ascended from above the tent, then after this the children of Yisra'el began their journey.
And in the place where the cloud settled down,
there the children of Yisra'el encamped.

Num. 9:18 By the mouth of YAHWEH
the children of Yisra'el journeyed,
and by the mouth of YAHWEH they encamped.
All the days that the cloud
dwelt above The Dwelling they encamped.
Num. 9:19 And when the cloud was long,
above The Dwelling for many days,
the children of Yisra'el would protect the duty itself אָנְךָ of YAHWEH.
And they did not journey.

Num. 9:20 And it was as the cloud existed
a number of days above The Dwelling
by the mouth of YAHWEH they encamped.
And by the mouth of YAHWEH they journeyed.

Num. 9:21 And it was that as the cloud existed
from sunset until dawn,
and the cloud ascended at dawn,
then they journeyed.

Whether by day or by night,
when the cloud ascended then they journeyed.

Num. 9:22 Whether two days, or a month,
or a year of days,
as the cloud was long above The Dwelling,
dwelling above it,
the children of Yisra'el encamped.
And they did not journey.
But at its ascending they journeyed.

Num. 9:23 By the mouth of YAHWEH
they encamped,
and by the mouth of YAHWEH
they journeyed.
The duty itself nx of YAHWEH
they protected
by the mouth of YAHWEH
by the hand of Moshe.

Chapter 10

Num. 10:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 10:2 "Make for yourself two trumpets of silver,
of hammered work
you are to make they themselves nx.
And they are to be used by you for calling together the assembly and for the journeying
of the camps themselves nx.
Num. 10:3 And there is to be sound in them.
And they are to assemble to you,
the entire assembly,
at the entrance of The Tent of Appointment.

Num. 10:4 And if one is sounded
then the leaders,
the heads of the families of Yisra'el,
are to meet before you.

Num. 10:5 And when you sound a blast
the camps sitting on the east are to journey.
Num. 10:6 And when you sound a blast
the second time then will journey
the camps sitting on the south.
Blasts are to be blown for their departures.

Num. 10:7 And in assembling the assembly itself nx
you are to blow,
but you are not to sound an alarm.

Num. 10:8 And the Sons of Aharon, the priests,
are to sound blasts on the trumpets.
And they are to exist for you
as an eternal rule for your generations.

Num. 10:9 And when you go to battle in your land
because of the distress troubling you yourselves nx
you are to blow an alarm on the trumpets.
Then you will be brought to mind
before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim.

And you will be delivered from your adversaries.

Num. 10:10 And on the day of your joy,
and at your appointed times and the heads of your new moons
you are to blow a blast on the trumpets
over your olahs
and over your sacrifice of shelem offerings.
And they will be a reminder for your sake
before your Elohim.

I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim!"

Num. 10:11 And it was in the second year
in the second month
on the twentieth after the new moon.
The cloud ascended

from over The Tent of The Testimony.
Num. 10:12 And the children of Yisra'el
set out upon their departures from the Wilderness of Sinai.
And the cloud settled
in the Wilderness of Paran.

Num. 10:13 And they set out on their first journey
at the mouth of YAHWEH
by the hand of Moshe.

Num. 10:14 And the banner
of the camp of Yahudah
set out first by their assemblies.
And over its assemblies, Nahshon,
son of Amminadab.

Num. 10:15 And over the assembly of the tribe
of the sons of Yissaskar,
Netan'el, son of Tzu'ar.

Num. 10:16 And over the assembly of the tribe
of the sons of Zebulun, Eliab, son of Helon.

Num. 10:17 And The Dwelling was taken down.
And then set out the sons of Gershon
and the sons of Merari, carrying The Dwelling.

Num. 10:18 And then set out the banner of the camp of Re'uben
by their assemblies.
And over its assembly,
Elitzur, son of Shedei'ur.

Num. 10:19 And over the assembly
of the tribe of the sons of Shim'on,
Shelumi'el, son of Tzurishaddai.

Num. 10:20 And over the assembly
of the tribe of the sons of Gad, Elyasaf, son of De'u'el.

Num. 10:21 And the Kohathites set out carrying The Set Apart Place.
And they had set up The Dwelling itself תא
before they came.

Num. 10:22 And then set out the banner
of the camp of the sons of Ephraim
by their assemblies.
And over its assembly,
Elishama, son of Ammihud.

Num. 10:23 And over the assembly
of the tribe of the sons of Menashe, Gamli'el, son of Pedahtzur.

Num. 10:24 And over the assembly
of the tribe of the sons of Binyamin,
Abidan, son of Gid'oni.

Num. 10:25 And then set out the banner
of the camp of the sons of Dan, gathering for all the camps, by their assemblies.
And over their assembly,
Ahi'ezer, son of Ammishaddai.

Num. 10:26 And over the assembly
of the tribe of the sons of Asher,
Pag'l'el, son of Okhran.

Num. 10:27 And over the assembly
of the tribe of the sons of Naftali,
Ahira', son of Einan.

Num. 10:28 These were the departures
of the children of Yisra'el
by their assemblies.
And they set out.

Num. 10:29 And Moshe said to Hobab,
son of Re'u'el, the Midyanite,
Moshe's father in law,
"We are journeying to the place
of which YAHWEH has said,
"It itself אנכי I will give to you!"
Come with me myself אנכי!
And we will do good for you.
Indeed, YAHWEH has promised good for Yisra'el."

Num. 10:30 But he said to him, "I will not go.
But rather to my land
and to my birth place I will go."

Num. 10:31 And he said,
"Please do not leave us ourselves אנחנו
because according to this you know
our encamping in the wilderness.
And you will be for us as eyes!

Num. 10:32 And it will exist
when you go with us,
it will even exist that the good which YAHWEH is doing for us
we will do as good for you!"

Num. 10:33 And they journeyed
from the mountain of YAHWEH
a journey of three days.
And The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH
was journeying before them,
a journey of three days,
for the sake of scouting out
for them a resting place.

Num. 10:34 And the cloud of YAHWEH
was over them by day
as they journeyed from camp.

Num. 10:35 And it was at the setting out of The Chest that Moshe would say, "Arise, YAHWEH, and scatter Your adversaries!
And chase those hating You
from before Your face!"

Num. 10:36 And as it settled he would say,
"Return YAHWEH
to the myriads of Yisra'el!"

Chapter 11

Num. 11:1 And it was as the people were complaining badly
in the ears of YAHWEH.
And YAHWEH listened attentively.
And His anger flared up.
And a fire of YAHWEH
was kindled against them.
And it consumed the edges of the camp.

Num. 11:2 And the people cried out to Moshe.
And Moshe interceded to YAHWEH.
And the fire subsided.

Num. 11:3 And they called
the name of that place Tab'erah because the fire of YAHWEH
had blazed against them.
Tab'erah means burning.

Num. 11:4 And the rabble among them had a longing, an intense longing.
And they turned back.

And the children of Yisra'el wept also.
And they said, "Who will give us meat to eat?"
The sense of this appears to suggest the "rabble" turned back toward Egypt.
It's not specified in the text,
but it would tend to fit with the other things that took place here.

Num. 11:5 We remember the fish itself תא
that we ate in Mitsraim for free,
the cucumbers themselves תא,
and the melons themselves תא,
and the leeks themselves תא,
and the onions themselves תא,
and the garlic itself תא!

Num. 11:6 But now our lives are disappointed.
There is nothing at all except the manna before our eyes!
yabesh - there are two different words given in Strong's work
that are spelled the same and even have identical vowel points.

The first means to be ashamed,
confused, or disappointed.
The second means to be dry.

The second term has been used traditionally to translate this word,
but the first term is likely more accurate,
given the context.

The real issue here is not dryness.
The real issue is dissatisfaction with what they do have,
the food of the divine beings itself!
They're tired of the monotony of "the same old, same old..."
All they have is the manna.

Num. 11:7 Now the manna
is like seed of coriander.
And its sight is like the sight of bdellium.
Num. 11:8 The people roamed about and collected it.
And they ground it with millstones
or crushed it with a mortar.
And they boiled it in a pot.
And they made it itself תא into cakes.
And its taste was like the taste of fresh oil.

Num. 11:9 And as the dew descended on the camp at night,
the manna came down on top of it.

Num. 11:10 And Moshe listened attentively
to the people themselves תא
weeping among their families,
each man at the entrance to his tent.

And YAHWEH's anger
flared up exceedingly!
And in the eyes of Moshe it was bad.

Num. 11:11 And Moshe said to YAHWEH,
"For what reason
have you done badly to your servant?
And for what reason
have I not found favor in your eyes,
for the sake of placing the burden itself תא
of this entire people on me?"
Num. 11:12 Have I conceived
this entire people itself תא?

Or have I myself given birth to them?

Indeed, You say to me,
'Carry him on your chest like a nursemaid carries a tender plant itself נא.'
to the soil which You swore to their fathers?'

Num. 11:13 From where will I get meat
for the sake of giving it to this entire people?
Indeed, they weep before me saying,
'Give us meat that we may eat!'

Num. 11:14 I am not able by myself to carry by myself
this entire people itself נא
Indeed, it is too heavy for me!
Num. 11:15 And if according to this
You are going to do itself נא to me, kill me!
Please kill me
if I have found favor in your eyes!
Then I will not have to watch
on account of the evil!"

Num. 11:16 And YAHWEH said to Moshe.
"Gather before me seventy men from the elders of Yisra'el whom you know are indeed elders of the people and their officers.
And bring to The Tent of Appointment
they themselves נא.
And station them there with you.
Num. 11:17 Then I will come down.
And I will speak with you there.
I will withdraw some of The Divine Nature that is within you
and place it within them.
And they will carry you yourself נא
on account of the burden of the people.
And you yourself
will not have to carry it by yourself.

Num. 11:18 And to the people you are to say,
'Set yourselves apart for the morrow.
Then you will eat meat!
Indeed, you have wept
in the ears of YAHWEH saying,
'When will we eat meat?
Indeed, it was better for us in Mitsraim!'

However, YAHWEH will give to you meat.
And you will eat it!
Num. 11:19 Not one day will you eat it!
And not two days!
And not five days!
And not ten days!
And not twenty days!
Num. 11:20 But until a month of days,
until it comes out of your nostrils
and becomes disgusting to you, because you have treated with contempt
YAHWEH Himself נא,
He Who is in your midst.

And you have wept before His face saying,
'For what reason
have You brought us out from Mitsraim?' "

Num. 11:21 And Moshe said,
"Six hundred thousand foot soldiers
are the people among whom I am.
And You Yourself נא have said,
'Meat I will give to them.
And they will eat it for a month of days!'

Num. 11:22 Are flocks and herds to be slaughtered for them
and be found sufficient?
If all the fish of the sea itself תא
were gathered for them,
would it be found sufficient for them?"

Num. 11:23 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Is the hand of YAHWEH restricted?
Now you will see whether My word will occur for you or not!"

Num. 11:24 And Moshe went out.
And he spoke to the people
the words themselves תא of YAHWEH.

And he gathered seventy men
from the elders of the people.
And he stood they themselves תא
all around The Dwelling.

Num. 11:25 And YAHWEH
descended in a cloud.
And He spoke to him.

And YAHWEH withdrew some of The Divine Nature
that was upon him.
And He put it upon
the seventy men, the elders.

And as The Divine Nature rested upon them
they prophesied.
But they did not continue.

ruach - wind, breath.
This is the term used
where "Divine Nature" occurs.
It is not 'spirit'.
'Spirit' is a Greek term and a Greek concept.
It did not exist in the days of Moshe.

Literally one can say this is The Breath of YAHWEH.
But to understand this one needs to understand how the Hebrews conceived
of the breath of a person.
To them it was the breath that penetrated
to the innermost part of a person.
As it did this they believed it represented
the very essence,
the very "nature" of that person.

Thus, when referring to YAHWEH,
this is understood
as The Divine Nature itself.

Num. 11:26 Now two men
had remained in the camp.
The name of the first was Eldad.
And the name of the second was Medad.
And The Divine Nature rested upon them.
And they were among the records,
but they had not gone out to The Dwelling.
And they prophesied in the camp.

Eldad means El has loved.
Medad means affectionate.

Num. 11:27 A young man ran and told Moshe.
He said, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp!"

Num. 11:28 And Yahoshua, son of Nun,
Moshe's attendant from his youth, then said,
"My master, Moshe, restrain them!"

Num. 11:29 But Moshe said to him,
"Are you yourself תא being zealous for me?"

And oh that it was given that all the people of YAHWEH were prophets, that The Divine Nature itself nx of YAHWEH
was put upon them!

Num. 11:30 And Moshe gathered to the camp
he himself and the elders of Yisra'el.

Num. 11:31 And a wind had begun
from YAHWEH Himself nx.

And it brought in quails from the sea.
And they dispersed over the camp
as far as a day's journey here
and a day's journey there,
all around the camp,
and as deep as two cubits
upon the surface of the ground.

Num. 11:32 And the people rose up all that day and all night,
and all the next day.

And they gathered the quail themselves nx.
The least gathered ten homers.
And they spread them,
spreading them out all around the camp.

Num. 11:33 The meat
was still between their teeth,
not yet consumed.
And the anger of YAHWEH
flared up against the people!
And YAHWEH struck among the people with an exceedingly great blow.

Num. 11:34 And they called
the name of that place itself nx Kivvrot Hata'ava, because there they buried the people of the coveting.

*Kivvrot Hata'ava
means burial places of the craving.*

Num. 11:35 From Kivvrot Hata'ava
the people journeyed to Hazerot.
And they were at Hazerot.

Hazerot means yards or village.

Chapter 12

Num. 12:1 And Miryam and Aharon spoke against Moshe
on account of the Kushite woman he had taken.
Indeed, a Kushite woman he had taken.

*It's interesting to note that Miryam is translated here
as "Miriam" in traditional texts.
In many other places
it's translated as "Mary".
Mary Magdalene is actually Miryam,
as is the mother of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.
There's a redundancy in the text.
It's not clear if this was intentional or is a copyist error.*

A Khushite is an Ethiopian.

Num. 12:2 And they said,
"Is it only with Moshe
that YAHWEH has spoken?
Has He not also spoken with us?"

And YAHWEH listened attentively.

Num. 12:3 And the man, Moshe,
was exceedingly humble,
more than any human being
who is on the face of the soil.

Num. 12:4 And YAHWEH spoke instantly to Moshe, to Aharon, and to Miryam.

"Go out, the three of you,
to The Tent of Appointment!"

And the three of them went out.

Num. 12:5 And YAHWEH descended in a column of cloud.
And He stood at the entrance to The Tent.
And He called out Aharon and Miryam!
And the two of them went out.

Num. 12:6 And He said,
"Listen attentively now to My words!
If there is for you a prophet of YAHWEH,
in a vision to him I make Myself known.
In a dream I speak with him.

Note how YAHWEH
reveals Himself to his prophets.
This is very specific.
It provides clarification for us
concerning how they received "His Word".
It also reveals how He "was seen" by them.

Num. 12:7 Not so of My servant, Moshe.
In all My house, he is trusted.

Num. 12:8 Mouth to mouth I speak with him,
and not in riddles.
And the form of YAHWEH
he looks at intently.

And why were you not too afraid
to speak against My servant,
against Moshe?"

Num. 12:9 And the anger of YAHWEH
flared up against them.
And He went away.

Num. 12:10 And the cloud turned away
from above The Tent.
And behold!

Miryam was being stricken with a skin disease, like snow!
And Aharon turned toward Miryam.
And behold!

She was being stricken with a skin disease.

Tradition gives us "leprosy".
But there are other skin diseases
that also cause the skin to turn white.
Generally, this indicated
a communicable disease
that was a threat to the community.

Num. 12:11 And Aharon said to Moshe,
"On me my master,
do not now place against us an offense
by which we did foolishly,
and by which we offended!"

Num. 12:12 Please do not let her be like one who is dead
coming out of its mother's womb
and half its flesh is consumed!"

Num. 12:13 And Moshe
cried out to YAHWEH saying,
"E! Please heal her now!"

Num. 12:14 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"If her father spit, spit in her face,
would she not be humiliated for seven days?"

Shut her up seven days outside the camp!
And afterward she may be gathered.

Num. 12:15 And Miryam was shut up outside the camp for seven days.
And the people did not journey
until Miryam was gathered.
Num. 12:16 And afterward
the people journeyed from Hazerot.
And they encamped
in the Wilderness of Paran.

Chapter 13

Num. 13:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 13:2 "Send for yourself men.
And have them explore
the land of Kena'an itself תא
which I Myself am giving
to the children of Yisra'el.
One man, one man per tribe of their fathers
you are to send, all leaders among them."

Num. 13:3 And Moshe sent they themselves תא from the Wilderness of Paran
according to the mouth of YAHWEH.
All of the men were leaders
of the children of Yisra'el.

Num. 13:4 And these are their names
according to their tribes.
For the tribe of Re'uben, Shammu'a, son of Zakkur.

Re'uben means behold, a son.
Shammu'a means renowned.
Zakkur means remembered.

13:5 For the tribe of Shim'on, Shafat, son of Hori.

Shim'on means listening.
Shafat means judgment.
Hori means cave dweller.

Num. 13:6 For the tribe of Yahudah,
Kaleb, son of Yefunne.

Yahudah means YAH is praised.
Kaleb means to yelp.
Yefunne means he will be prepared.

Num. 13:7 For the tribe of Yissaskar, Yig'al, son of Yosef.

Yissaskar means he will bring a reward.
Yig'al means avenger.
Yosef means he will add.

Num. 13:8 For the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshe'a, son of Nun.

Ephraim means double fruit.
Hoshe'a means deliverer.
Nun means perpetuity, forever.

Num. 13:9 For the tribe of Binyamin,
Palti, son of Rafu.

Binyamin means son of the right hand.
Palti means delivered.
Rafu means healed.

Num. 13:10 For the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddi'el, son of Sodi.

Zebulun means dwelling.
Gaddi'el means fortune, or troop, of El.
Sodi means a confidant.

Num. 13:11 For the tribe of Yosef,
for the tribe of Menashe, Gaddi, son of Susi.

Yosef means he will add.
Menashe means causing to forget.
Gaddi means my fortune, or my troop.
Susi means horse-like.

Num. 13:12 For the tribe of Dan,
Ammi'el, son of Gemalli.

Dan means judge.
Ammi'el means El is my father.
Gemalli means camel driver.

Num. 13:13 For the tribe of Asher,
Setur, son of Mikha'el.

Asher means happy.
Setur means hidden.
Mikha'el means who is like El.

Num. 13:14 For the tribe of Naftali,
Nahbi, son of Vofsi.

Naftali means my wrestling.
Nahbi means occult.
Vofsi means additional.

Num. 13:15 For the tribe of Gad,
Geu'el, son of Makhi.

Gad means fortune, or troop.
Geu'el means majesty of El.
Makhi means thin, impoverished.

Num. 13:16 These are the names of the men whom Moshe sent out
for the sake of exploring the land itself תא.

And Moshe called Hoshe'a, son of Nun, Yahoshua.

This is a very significant name change.
Yahoshua means YAH is deliverer.
It's original form must surely have been YAHoshua.

The Messiah's personal name is YAHUSHUA.
It means exactly the same thing!

A name is not changed in Scripture
without a very important significance.
Such a change indicates a change in their very character and the role they will play in YAHWEH's scheme of things.

Num. 13:17 And Moshe sent out
they themselves תא
for the sake of exploring
the land of Kena'an itself תא.

And he said to them,
"Go up this way, through The Negev.
And you are to go up the hill country itself תא.

Num. 13:18 And you are to observe
the land itself תא,
what it is like,
and the people themselves תא,
those dwelling in it.

Are they strong or weak?
Are they few or many?

Num. 13:19 And what is the land like?
Where are they dwelling?
Is it good or bad?

And what are the towns like
where they are dwelling?
Are they tents or fortified places?

Num. 13:20 And is the land fat or lean?
Are there trees in it or not?

Now you are to be strong.
And you are to take some of the fruit of the land.
And these days are the days of the first ripe grapes.

Num. 13:21 And they went up.
And they explored the land itself תא
from the Wilderness of Tzyn
as far as Rehob, coming toward Hamath.

Tzyn means to prick, a crag.
Rehob means broad place.
Hamath means walled.

Num. 13:22 And they went up by The Negev.
And they went as far as Hebron.
There exist Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai,
the descendants of the Anakites.

And Hebron had been built seven years before Tzo'an of Mitsraim.

Hebron means seat of association.
Ahiman means brother of a portion.
Sheshai means white.
Talmai means ridged.
Anakim means necklace.

Note: The Anakim
are offspring of the Nephilim,
who were offspring
of divine beings and human beings.
They were part of the reason for the flood of Noah.

These are "men of ha-shem".
It means 'the name, men of renown.'
They were what are commonly called "giants."

Num. 13:23 And they went as far as the Wadi Eshkol.
And they cut down from there a vine
and one cluster of grapes.
And they carried it on a pole with two men,
and some pomegranates and some figs.
Num. 13:24 That place they called
The Wadi of Clusters
on account of the cluster of grapes
the children of Yisra'el had cut down there.

Num. 13:25 And they returned from exploring the land
at the end of forty days.

Num. 13:26 And they went.
And they came to Moshe, and to Aharon,
and to the entire assembly
of the children of Yisra'el,
to the Wilderness of Paran, at Kadesh.
And they brought back word
to they themselves אָנְכֵם
and to all the assembly itself אָתְּכֶם.
And they caused to be seen
the fruit of the land itself אָתְּכֶם.

Num. 13:27 And they reported to him.
And they said, "We went to the land
to which you sent us.
And yes, it is flowing with milk and honey.
And this is its fruit.

Num. 13:28 However,
the people are indeed strong,
those dwelling in the land.
And the cities are fortified, exceedingly large.
And also the descendants of The Anakim
we saw there!
Num. 13:29 Amalekites are dwelling
in the land of The Negev.
And the Hittites,
and the Yebusites,
and the Amorites
are dwelling in the hill country.
And the Kena'anites
are dwelling beside the sea and by the side of The Yarden!"

Num. 13:30 And Kaleb hushed
the people themselves אָנְכֵם before Moshe.
And he said, "Go up!
Go up and possess it itself אָתְּכֶם!
Indeed, we are able!
We are able to do it!"

Num. 13:31 But the men who had gone up with him said,

"We are not able to go up against the people because they are stronger than we!"

Num. 13:32 And the word of the land
that they had explored,
it itself נא,
went out to the children of Yisra'el saying,
"The land that we have passed over
for the sake of exploring it itself נא
is a land that devours its inhabitants.
And all the people that we saw in its midst were men of height.

Num. 13:33 And there we saw the Nephilim themselves נא, children of Anak, from the Nephilim.
And we were in our eyes like grasshoppers!
And likewise were we in their eyes!"

This is one of several places where the term "giants" is traditionally used instead of the proper term, Nephilim.

It's very important to identify these beings properly.
They were the offspring
of the union of "fallen angels",
benai ha-elohim, sons of the elohim,
or sons of God,
with human women.

They are the source for many folktales involving the "heroes of ancient mythology"
- 'mighty men', men of ha-shem
- the name, men of 'renown'
(because they made a name for themselves).
They are perverse creatures,
formed from an unauthorized union
of human and divine beings.
Their essential nature is one of rebellion
- which is the offense of Eve.
YAHWEH ordered them destroyed
when the children of Yisra'el entered the land.

Chapter 14

Num. 14:1 And the entire assembly rose up.
And they gave their loud sound itself נא.
And the people wept on that night.
Num. 14:2 And they grumbled against Moshe
and against Aharon,
all the children of Yisra'el.
And they said to them, the entire assembly,
"If only we had died in the land of Mitsraim,
or in this wilderness!
If only we had died!"

Num. 14:3 And why is YAHWEH
bringing us ourselves נא to this land,
To fall by the sword?
Our wives and our little ones will be for plunder!
Is it not better for us to return to Mitsraim?"

Num. 14:4 And they said, each man to his brother,
"Give us a leader and we will return to Mitsraim!"

Num. 14:5 And Moshe and Aharon
fell on their faces
before the entire assembled assembly
of the children of Yisra'el.

Num. 14:6 And Yahoshua, son of Nun,
and Kaleb, son of Yefunne,
from those who explored the land itself נא,
tore their garments.
Num. 14:7 And they spoke to the entire assembly
of the children of Yisra'el saying,

"The land that we have passed over
for the sake of exploring it itself nx,
the land is good exceedingly, exceedingly!
Num. 14:8 If YAHWEH is pleased with us
then He will bring us ourselves nx to this land.
And He will give to us a land
that is flowing with milk and honey.

Num. 14:9 However, against YAHWEH
do not rebel!

And you yourselves nx, do not be afraid of the people themselves nx of the land!
Indeed, they are food for us!
Their protection has departed from over them.

But YAHWEH is with us ourselves nx!
Do not be afraid of them!"

Num. 14:10 But the entire assembly of Yisra'el
said to stone him,
they themselves nx, with stones.

Then the splendor of YAHWEH was seen
at The Tent of Appointment
by all the children of Yisra'el!

Num. 14:11 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"How long will this very people scorn Me?
And how long will they not trust in Me
on account of all the signs themselves nx
that I have done in their midst?
Num. 14:12 I will strike them with pestilence!
And I will disinherit them!
But I will make of you yourself nx a great nation,
even more powerful than they!"

Num. 14:13 But Moshe said to YAHWEH,
"But the Mitsraites have heard that You brought up this people itself nx
by Your power from its midst.

Num. 14:14 And they have told it to the inhabitants of this land.

They have heard that You Yourself nx, YAHWEH,
are in the midst of this people,
that eye to eye You are seen,
You Yourself nx, YAHWEH!
And Your cloud is standing over them!
And in a column of cloud You Yourself nx
are going before them by day
and in a column of fire by night.

Num. 14:15 And You would put to death
this people itself nx as one man.
And the nations that have heard of Your fame itself nx will say, Num. 14:16 'It was from YAHWEH not being able to bring this people itself nx to the land
which He swore to them.
And He slaughtered them in the wilderness!

Num. 14:17 And now,
may Your power become great,
please, My Sovereign,
according to what You have spoken saying,
Num. 14:18 'YAHWEH, slow to anger
and of abundant kindness,
lifting up perversion and rebellion,
and clearing not, clearing not the guilty,
calling to account the perversion of the fathers upon the children to the third and to the fourth generation!'

Num. 14:19 Please forgive
for the moral perversion of this people!
Indeed, great is Your kindness!
And indeed, You have carried this people from Mitsraim even until now!"

Num. 14:20 And YAHWEH said,
"I have forgiven according to your words.

Num. 14:21 But surely, as I Myself live,
even as the splendor of YAHWEH
has filled the whole earth itself נא,

Num. 14:22 indeed, all the men,
those having seen My splendor itself נא
and My signs themselves נא that I did in Mitsraim and in the wilderness,
but have tested Me Myself נא these ten times,
and have not listened attentively
according to My voice,

Num. 14:23 if they see the land itself נא
which I swore to their fathers . . . !

Even all that have scorned Me
will not see it!

Num. 14:24 But My servant, Kaleb, because there was a different nature in him and he followed Me fully, even him I will bring to the land into which he has gone.
And his seed will possess it.

Num. 14:25 Now the Amalekites
and the Kena'anites
are dwelling in the valleys.
On the morrow, turn and journey into the wilderness
by way of The Reed Sea."

Num. 14:26 And YAHWEH spoke
to Moshe and Aharon saying,
Num. 14:27 "Until when for this hurtful assembly...?
They are complaining against Me!
The grumblings themselves נא ,
of the children of Yisra'el
by which they are complaining against Me
I have heard!

Num. 14:28 Say to them, 'By My life,
- An Utterance of YAHWEH -
if not according to what you have spoken in My ears...,
according to this I will do to you!

Num. 14:29 In this wilderness
your carcasses will fall,
even all of you numbered,
according to all your number
from the age of twenty and upward
who have complained against Me,
Num. 14:30 if you yourselves נא
will come to the land of which I have lifted My hand itself נא in an oath
for the sake of you yourselves נא to dwell in it, except for Kaleb, son of Yefunne,
and Yahoshua, son of Nun . . . !

Num. 14:31 And your little ones,
whom you said will be plunder,
I will bring in they themselves נא!
And they will know the land itself נא
that you have rejected on account of it.
Num. 14:32 And your carcasses,
you yourselves נא,
will fall in this wilderness!

Num. 14:33 And your children will be tended like a flock
in the wilderness for forty years.
And they will bear your adultery itself תא
until your carcasses
come to an end in the wilderness.

Num. 14:34 According to the number of the days that you explored
the land itself תא,
forty days,
a day for a year, a day for a year,
you will bear your perversions themselves תא!
Forty years!
And you will know My alienation itself תא!

Num. 14:35 I Myself am YAHWEH!
I have spoken!
If I do not do this to this whole hurtful assembly
those meeting against Me...!
In this wilderness
they will come to an end!
Even there they will die! "

*Unfinished sentences are common in the Hebrew text.
This is a form or an oath.
The consequences of failure
are left to the one hearing it.
Their imagination is to fill in the anticipated consequences.*

Num. 14:36 And the men whom Moshe had sent
for the sake of exploring the land itself תא,
even they had returned.
And they had caused the entire assembly itself תא
to complain against him
by causing a false report to go out concerning the land.
Num. 14:37 And the men who had brought a bad report concerning the land died in a plague
before the face of YAHWEH.

Num. 14:38 But Yahoshua, son of Nun,
and Kaleb, son of Yefunne,
lived among those men that had gone
for the sake of exploring the land itself תא.

Num. 14:39 And Moshe spoke
all these words themselves תא
to the children of Yisra'el.
And the people mourned exceedingly.
Num. 14:40 And they rose up
early in the morning.
And they went up
to the top of the hill country saying,
"Behold!
Even we will go up to the place
of which YAHWEH had spoken!
Indeed, we have offended!"

Num. 14:41 But Moshe said,
"For what reason now
are you yourselves תא passing over the mouth itself תא of YAHWEH?
It will not succeed!

Num. 14:42 Do not go up!

Indeed, YAHWEH is not in your midst!
And do not be defeated by your adversaries!
Num. 14:43 Indeed, the Amalekites
and the Kena'anites are there before you.

And you will fall by the sword because you have turned away from going after YAHWEH.
And YAHWEH will not be with you!

Num. 14:44 But they went up arrogantly
to the top of the hill country.

But The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH
and Moshe did not leave from the center of the camp.

Num. 14:45 And the Amalekites
and the Kena'anites,
those dwelling in that hill country,
came down.
And they struck them.
And they crushed them as far as Horma.
Horma means destruction.

Chapter 15

Num. 15:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 15:2 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el
and say to them,

"When you come to the land of your settlements
which I Myself am giving to you,

Num. 15:3 and you prepare
an offering by fire to YAHWEH,
an olah or a slaughter for a unique promise,
or with a spontaneous gift,
or at your appointed times,
for the sake of making

a soothing aroma to YAHWEH
from the herd or from the flock

Num. 15:4 and one approaches, bringing near

his approach offering to YAHWEH,
it is to be a grain gift of flour,
a tenth measure,

mixed with a fourth of a hin of oil,
Num. 15:5 and wine for a drink offering,
a fourth of a hin.

You are to prepare it with the olah or the sacrifice.

For one sheep,
Num. 15:6 or for a ram, you are to prepare a grain gift of flour,

two tenth measures mixed with oil,
a third of a hin,
Num. 15:7 and wine for a drink offering,
a third of a hin, you are to bring near
as a soothing aroma to YAHWEH.

Num. 15:8 And when you prepare a young bull as an olah
or as a sacrifice for a unique promise,
or a shelem offering to YAHWEH,

Num. 15:9 then there is to be brought near with the young bull a grain gift of flour,
three tenth measures,
mixed with oil, half a hin,

Num. 15:10 and wine you are to bring near
for a drink offering, half a hin,
an offering by fire,
a soothing aroma to YAHWEH.

Num. 15:11 According to this you are to prepare for the one bull, or for the one ram,
or for a lamb among the sheep,
or among the goats.

Num. 15:12 According to the number
that you prepare,
according to this you are to do for one,

according to their number.

Num. 15:13 Every native born is to do according to these themselves nx for the sake of bringing near an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to YAHWEH.

Num. 15:14 And when there sojourns with you yourselves nx a stranger who is in your midst for your generations, and he prepares an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to YAHWEH, what you do likewise he is to do.

Num. 15:15 The assembly is to have one rule for you and for the stranger sojourning, an eternal rule for your generations.

As it is for you, so is it to be for the stranger before the face of YAHWEH.

Num. 15:16 One instruction and one regulation is to exist for you and for the stranger, the one sojourning with you yourselves nx! "

Num. 15:17 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Num. 15:18 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el and say to them,

'In your coming to that land

to which I Myself

am bringing you yourselves nx there

Num. 15:19 then it will exist

when you're eating from the food of the land

that you are to raise an elevated gift to YAHWEH.

Num. 15:20 The first of your dough,

cakes you are to elevate as an elevated gift.

Like the elevated gift of the threshing floor,

in this manner you are to elevate it itself nx.

Num. 15:21 The best of your dough

you are to give to YAHWEH,

an elevated gift for your generations.

Num. 15:22 And when you have erred and are not doing

all of these directives themselves nx

which YAHWEH has spoken to Moshe,

Num. 15:23 every thing itself nx

which YAHWEH has directed you to do

by the hand of Moshe,

from the day that YAHWEH directed,

and forward for your generations,

Num. 15:24 then it will be that if away from the eyes of the assembly

it was done inadvertently,

then the entire assembly is to prepare one bull,

a young of the herd, as an olah,

as a soothing aroma to YAHWEH,

with its grain gift and its drink offering,

according to regulation,

and one hairy goat as a offense offering.

Num. 15:25 And the priest is to make atonement

for the entire assembly

of the children of Yisra'el.

And it will be forgiven for them

because it was inadvertent,

and they have brought their approach offering itself nx,

an offering by fire,

a soothing aroma to YAHWEH,

and their offense offering

before the face of YAHWEH,

on account of their mistake.

Num. 15:26 And there will be forgiveness
for the entire assembly
of the children of Yisra'el
and for the stranger
that is sojourning in their midst because for the sake of all the people
it was by mistake.

Num. 15:27 And if one living being offends by mistake
he is to bring near
a she goat of the first year
as an offense offering.
Num. 15:28 And the priest is to make atonement
for the living being going astray
by offending inadvertently
before the face of YAHWEH,
to make atonement for him.
And he will be forgiven.

Num. 15:29 The native
among the children of Yisra'el,
and the stranger
that is sojourning in your midst,
one instruction is to exist for you,
for his doing by mistake.

Num. 15:30 But the living being who acts arrogantly,
from the native born or from the strangers,
it is YAHWEH Himself נא that he reviles!
And that living being
is to be cut off from his people!

Num. 15:31 Indeed, the word of YAHWEH
he has despised!
And His directive itself נא he has broken!
He is to be cut off!
He is to be cut off, that living being!
His perversion is on him!

Num. 15:32 And it was as the children of Yisra'el
were in the wilderness.
And they found a man gathering wood
on The Sabbath Day.
Num. 15:33 And they brought near he himself נא,
having found he himself נא gathering wood,
to Moshe and to Aharon,
and to the entire assembly.
Num. 15:34 And they put under guard he himself נא
because it had not been determined what was to be done to him.

Num. 15:35 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Put him to death!
He is to be put to death!
He himself נא is to be stoned with stones
by the entire assembly outside the camp!"
Num. 15:36 And they brought out he himself נא,
the entire assembly, outside the camp.
And they stoned with stones he himself נא.
And he was put to death
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself נא.

Num. 15:37 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 15:38 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el
and say to them
that they are to make for themselves tassels on the corners of their garments
for their generations.
And they are to put on the corner tassel
a cord of blue violet.

Num. 15:39 And it is to be for you a tassel.
And you are to see it itself תא.
And you are to take note
of all the directives themselves תא of YAHWEH.
And you are to do they themselves תא.

And you are not to explore after your own heart
or after your own eyes,
by which you yourselves תא
are committing adultery
Num. 15:40 in order that you will take note of and do all My directives themselves תא!
Then you will be set apart for your Elohim!

Num. 15:41 I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim,
Who has brought out you yourselves תא
from the land of Mitsraim
for the sake of being for you your Elohim!

I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Chapter 16

Num. 16:1 And Korah, son of Yitzhar, son of Kohat, son of Levi,
and Datan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab and On, son of Pelet, sons of Re'uben took Num. 16:2 and stood up against the face of Moshe
fifty and two hundred men
of the children of Yisra'el,
leaders of the assembly, appointed men,
men of a name.

There are discrepancies
in these two verses
in the old manuscripts that are available.
What's given appears to be the sense of the text
when one considers the context
in which this occurs.

This is not a minor uprising of just a few.
This is a very significant challenge to the authority of Moshe,
and also to YAHWEH's authority
in choosing Moshe to lead them.

The use of men of a name
is also of interest to us.
This is also translated as "men of renown".

The connection between the act of rebellion presented here
and other uses of this concept of "men of a name" is unmistakable.

The irony lies in its direct association with ha-shem,
the name the Yisra'elites use in place of the Scripturally given personal Name of God, YAHWEH.

Korah means near, at hand.
Yitzhar means fresh oil.
Kohat means ally, alliance.
Levi means attached.
Datan means (uncertain) their decree.
Abiram means my exalted father.
Eliab means El is my father.
On means power, ability.
Pelet means to flee; swiftness.
Re'uben means behold, a son.

Num. 16:3 And they assembled
against Moshe and against Aharon.
And they said to them,
"Too much belongs to you!
Indeed, the entire assembly,

all of them, are set apart.
And in their midst is YAHWEH!
And why do you exalt yourselves
over the assembly of YAHWEH?"

Num. 16:4 And Moshe listened attentively.
And he fell on his face.
Num. 16:5 And he spoke to Korah
and to his entire assembly saying,
"At daybreak YAHWEH will make known who himself is His אָ
and who himself אָ is set apart .
And He will set him apart beside Him!
And he himself אָ .
who has been chosen by Him
He will bring near to Him.

Num. 16:6 Do this!
Take for yourselves fire pans,
Korah and his entire assembly.
Num. 16:7 And put fire on them.
And place incense on them
before the face of YAHWEH tomorrow.
And it will exist,
the man whom YAHWEH chooses,
he is set apart!
Too much belongs to you, Sons of Levi!"

Num. 16:8 And Moshe said to Korah,
"Please listen attentively, Sons of Levi!
Num. 16:9 Is it insignificant among you that The Elohim of Yisra'el has separated you yourselves אָ
from the assembly of Yisra'el
for the sake of bringing you yourselves אָ near to Him for the sake of doing the tasks themselves אָ
of The Dwelling of YAHWEH
and for the sake of standing before the assembly
to serve on their behalf?
Num. 16:10 And He has brought near you yourselves אָ
and all your brothers themselves אָ, sons of Levi, you yourselves! אָ
Now you are seeking the priesthood also!

Num. 16:11 Of a certainty, you yourself אָ
and your entire assembly are coming together against YAHWEH!
And Aharon, what is he
that you complain against him?"

Num. 16:12 And Moshe sent to call Datan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab.
But they said, "We will not go up!
Num. 16:13 Is it insignificant that you have brought us up from a land flowing with milk and honey for the sake of causing us
to die in the wilderness
that you have been given dominion over us,
even dominion?
Num. 16:14 Indeed, not to a land
flowing with milk and honey
have you brought us!
And you have not given to us
an inheritance of fields and vineyards.
The eyes of these men will you bore out?
We will not go up!"

Num. 16:15 And Moshe was exceedingly angry.
And he said to YAHWEH,
"Do not turn your face toward their grain gift.

Not one male ass of theirs have I carried off!
And I have not treated badly
one himself תָּא among them!"

Num. 16:16 And Moshe said to Korah,
"You yourself תָּא and your entire assembly,
be before the face of YAHWEH,
you yourself תָּא,
and they, and Aharon tomorrow!

Num. 16:17 And take each man his fire pan.
And you are to put on them incense.
And you are to bring it near
before the face of YAHWEH,
each man his fire pan,
fifty and two hundred pans,
even you yourself תָּא, and Aharon,
each man with his fire pan."

Num. 16:18 And they took each man his fire pan.
And they put on them fire.
And they placed upon them incense.
And they stood at the entrance
to The Tent of Appointment,
and Moshe and Aharon.

Num. 16:19 And Korah
and his entire assembly itself תָּא assembled against them at the entrance
to The Tent of Appointment.

And the splendor of YAHWEH was seen
by the entire assembly.

Num. 16:20 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe
and to Aharon saying,

Num. 16:21 "Separate from the midst of this assembly.
Then I will terminate they themselves תָּא
in an instant!"

Num. 16:22 But they fell on their faces.
And they said, "E!
The Elohim of the natures of all flesh,
will one man offend
and at the entire assembly will You be enraged?"

Num. 16:23 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Num. 16:24 "Speak to the assembly saying,
'Get up,

away from all around the dwellings
of Korah, and Datan, and Abiram!" "

Num. 16:25 And Moshe got up.
And he went to Datan and Abiram,
And after him went the elders of Yisra'el.

Num. 16:26 And he spoke to the assembly saying,
"Depart now from the dwellings
of these morally wrong men!

And do not touch anything that is theirs
lest you be swept away
on account of all their offenses!"

Num. 16:27 And they got up,
away from the dwellings
of Korah, Datan, and Abiram,
from all around.

And Datan and Abiram came out, stationing themselves
at the entrance to their dwellings;
also their wives,
their children,
and their families.

Num. 16:28 And Moshe said,

"By this you will know that YAHWEH has sent me
to do all these deeds themselves תא!
Indeed, it was not from my own heart!

Num. 16:29 If these men die
like the death of all human beings and the accounting for of all human beings is accounted for upon them,
YAHWEH has not sent me.

Num. 16:30 But if a creation is created by YAHWEH
and the soil opens its mouth itself תא
and swallows they themselves תא
and everything itself תא that is theirs
and they go down alive into She'ol,
then you will know that these men have scorned YAHWEH Himself תא!"
she'ol - Hades or the world of the dead.
Often translated as hell, grave, or pit.
For the Hebrews it represented
the "holding pen" for departed beings.
They considered them to be held there until the final judgment comes.

An analysis of the term suggests
it actually means the state of being dead.

Num. 16:31 And it was as he finished speaking
all these words themselves תא.
And the soil that was under them split open.

Num. 16:32 And the earth opened its mouth itself תא
and swallowed they themselves תא
and their households themselves תא,
and all the human beings themselves תא
that belonged to Korah,
and all the goods themselves תא.

Num. 16:33 And they descended,
they and all that was theirs,
alive into She'ol!
And the earth filled in over them.
And they perished
from the midst of the assembly.

Num. 16:34 Then all Yisra'el who were all around them fled on account of the sound of their voices.
Indeed, they said,
'Lest the earth swallow us!

Num. 16:35 And fire went out
from YAHWEH Himself תא!
And it consumed
the fifty and two hundred men themselves תא
who had brought near the incense.

The traditional text continues from here as Chapter 16.
But the Hebrew texts begin Chapter 17 after this verse.

You'll note the confusion of the proper ordering
as you look carefully at the text.
It appears there has been an editorial change to the material with the traditional version continuing through the end of the plague that follows the fire that went out from YAHWEH, thus keeping the main focus of the story together.

The Hebrew version sees this as a separate event.
The Hebrew version has been used in this translation.

Note: Chapter 17 begins here in the Hebrew Text.

Num. 16:36 (H 17:1)

And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Num. 16:37 (H 17:2)

"Speak to El'azar, son of Aharon the priest.

And he is to pick up

the fire pans themselves תא

from the remains of the fire.

And the coals themselves תא

he is to scatter at a distance

because they are set apart.

Num. 16:38 (H 17:3)

The fire pans themselves תא

of these offenders,

on account of their lives,

make of they themselves תא hammered sheets

as a covering for the slaughter site

because they have been brought near

before the face of YAHWEH

and they are set apart.

And they are to be for a sign

for the children of Yisra'el!"

Num. 16:39 (H 17:4)

And El'azar the priest

took the copper fire pans themselves תא

that had been brought near for burning.

And he hammered them

as a covering for the slaughter site,

Num. 16:40 (H 17:5)

as a reminder for the children of Yisra'el,

in order that no man who is an outsider

is to come near

who is not of the seed of Aharon

for the sake of turning incense into smoke

before the face of YAHWEH.

And he is not to be like Korah

or like his assembly,

according to what YAHWEH had spoken

by the hand of Moshe to him.

Num. 16:41 (H 17:6)

But all the children of Yisra'el complained on the next day

against Moshe and against Aharon saying,

"You yourselves תא have caused the death of the people themselves תא of YAHWEH!"

Num. 16:42 (H 17:7)

And it was as the assembly assembled

against Moshe and against Aharon.

And they turned toward The Tent of Appointment.

And behold!

It was covered by the cloud!

And the splendor of YAHWEH was seen!

Num. 16:43 (H 17:8)

And Moshe and Aharon went to the front

of The Tent of Appointment.

Num. 16:44 (H 17:9)

And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Num. 16:45 (H 17:10)

"Get up,

away from the midst of this assembly!

Then I will terminate they themselves תא

in an instant!"

And they fell upon their faces.

Num. 16:46 (H 17:11)
And Moshe said to Aharon,
"Take the fire pan itself תָּא
and put upon it fire from the slaughter site!
And set incense on it.
And go quickly to the assembly and make atonement for them!

Indeed, rage has gone out
from the face of YAHWEH!
The plague has begun!

Num. 16:47 (H 17:12)
Aharon took it
according to what Moshe had said.
And he ran to the center of the assembly.
And behold!
The plague had begun among the people!
And he put on the incense itself תָּא.
And he made atonement for the people.
Num. 16:48 (H 17:13)
And he stood
between the dying and the living.
And the plague was held back.

Num. 16:49 (H 17:14)
And those dying on account of the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred,
aside from those that died
on account of the word of Korah.

Num. 16:50 (H 17:15)
Aharon returned to Moshe,
to the entrance of The Tent of Appointment.
And the plague was held back.

Chapter 17

Num 17.16 in the Hebrew text is equivalent to Numbers 17.1 in the traditional text.

Num. 17:1 (H 17:16)
And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 17:2 (H 17:17)
"Speak to the children of Yisra'el.
And take from they themselves תָּא a staff,
a staff for a fathers' house,
from all their leaders themselves תָּא,
for their father's houses, twelve staffs.
A man's name
you are to write upon the staffs.

Num. 17:3 (H 17:18)
And the name of Aharon himself תָּא
you are to write upon the staff of Levi.
Indeed, one staff
for a head of their fathers' house.
Num. 17:4 (H 17:19)
And you are to lay them down
in The Tent of Appointment
in front of The Testimony
where I meet with you, there.
Num. 17:5 (H 17:20)
And it will exist
that the man whom I select,
his staff will bud.
And I will cause to cease from before Me
the grumbings themselves תָּא
of the children of Yisra'el
that they are complaining against you."

Num. 17:6 (H 17:21)
And Moshe spoke to the children of Yisra'el.

And they gave to him, all the leaders,
a staff for one leader,
a staff for one leader for their fathers' houses,
twelve staffs.
And the staff of Aharon
was in the midst of their staffs.

Num. 17:7 (H 17:22)
And Moshe laid the staffs themselves תא
before the face of YAHWEH
in The Tent of The Testimony.

Num. 17:8 (H 17:23)
And it was the next day.
And Moshe went into
The Tent of The Testimony.
And behold!
The staff of Aharon of the house of Levi
had sprouted!
And it had put forth blooms,
and it flourished with blossoms.
And it had produced almonds!

Num. 17:9 (H 17:24)
And Moshe brought out
the staffs themselves תא
from before the face of YAHWEH
to all the children of Yisra'el.
And they looked.
And each man took his staff.

Num. 17:10 (H 17:25)
And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Return the staff of Aharon itself תא
to the front of The Testimony for safeguarding,
for a sign for the children of bitterness.
And their grumbings are to be finished,
away from Me!
Then they will not be put to death!"

Num. 17:11 (H 17:26)
And Moshe did according to everything that YAHWEH directed he himself תא.
According to this he did.

Num. 17:12 (H 17:27)
And the children of Yisra'el
spoke to Moshe saying,
"Behold!
We are going to die.
We are going to be destroyed.
All of us are going to be destroyed!"

Num. 17:13 (H 17:28) Anyone who comes near, comes near
to The Dwelling of YAHWEH will die!
Will there be an end to our dying?"

Chapter 18

Num. 18:1 And YAHWEH said to Aharon,
"You yourself תא, and your sons,
and your father's house,
you yourselves תא are to bear
the perversion itself תא of The Set Apart Place.
And you yourself תא and your sons,
you yourselves תא, are to bear
the perversion itself תא of your priesthood.

To carry means to accept responsibility for.

Num. 18:2 And also your kindred themselves תא,
the branch of Levi, the tribe of your father,
you are to bring near, you yourself תא!

And they are to be united with you.
And they are to serve,
even you yourself תָּא,
and your sons,
you yourselves תָּא,
in the presence of The Tent of The Testimony.

Num. 18:3 And they are to protect your duty and the duty
of the entire Tent of Appointment.

However, toward the set apart implements and to the slaughter site
they are not to come near.
Then they will not be put to death,
either them, or you yourselves תָּא!

It should be noted that The Tent of The Testimony
and The Tent of Appointment
are separate entities.
The Tent of The Testimony
is the central portion
of The Tent of Appointment
where The Chest of The Testimony was kept along with the Menorah,
the Table of The Bread of The Presence and the Table of Incense.

Num. 18:4 And they are to be united with you.
And they are to protect
the duties themselves תָּא
of The Tent of Appointment
according to all the tasks of The Tent.

But an outsider is not to come near to you.

Num. 18:5 And you are to protect
the duties themselves תָּא
of The Set Apart Place
and the duties themselves תָּא
of the slaughter site.
Then there will be no more rage
against the children of Yisra'el.

Num. 18:6 And I Myself, behold!
I have taken your kindred themselves תָּא,
the Levites,
from the midst of the children of Yisra'el
for you as a gift,
given by YAHWEH
for the sake of accomplishing
the tasks themselves תָּא
of The Tent of Appointment.

Num. 18:7 And you yourself תָּא and your sons,
you yourselves תָּא,
are to protect your priesthood itself תָּא
concerning every matter of the slaughter site
and what is done within The Curtain.
And you are to accomplish the work of serving.

Your priesthood itself תָּא I have given as a gift.

But an outsider who comes near
is to be put to death!"

Num. 18:8 And YAHWEH said to Aharon,
"And I Myself, behold!
I have given to you the responsibility itself תָּא
of My contributions
according to all the set apart things
of the children of Yisra'el.
To you I have given them
as an anointed share,
and to your sons as a custom forever.

Num. 18:9 This is to be for you
from the set apart things:
the set apart things from the fire,
all of their approach offerings,
all of their grain gifts,
all of their offense offerings and all of their liability offerings by fire
that they give back to Me is set apart, set apart for you and for your sons.

Num. 18:10 As set apart,
the set apart you are to eat.
Every male is to eat it itself תא.
It is set apart for you.

The traditional rendering of this verse,
and of the repeated "holy, holy"
is to say "the holiest place",
or the holiest portion", etc.
But if you consider this carefully
it directly violates YAHWEH's instructions concerning "The Holy of Holies",
the part that is beyond the curtain (veil).
Only the "Great Priest" was able to enter it,
and that only once a year
on The Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur.

How, then, could the priests and their sons
eat these things in that area?
By specific directions of YAHWEH
such activity was forbidden.

Thus, what's given above appears to more accurately represent the intent of the text.
Once again, what we've been "handed"
is 'the traditions of men',
not The Word of YAHWEH.
The text has been distorted to reflect what human beings think rather than what YAHWEH actually said.

Num. 18:11 And this is for you,
their elevated gifts
for all the presentation offerings
of the children of Yisra'el.

To you I have given it,
and to your sons,
and to your daughters,
you yourselves תא,
as a rule to eternity.
Everyone undefiled in your household
is to eat it itself תא.

Num. 18:12 All your choicest oil,
and all your choicest wine and grain,
the premier part that they give to YAHWEH,
to you I have given it.

Num. 18:13 The first fruits of everything that is in their land that they bring to YAHWEH,
it is to be for you.

Anyone undefiled in your household
is to eat it.

Num. 18:14 Everything dedicated in Yisra'el
is to be for you.

Num. 18:15 Every opener of a womb
for all flesh that is brought near to YAHWEH
among human beings and among animals,
is to be for you.
However, you are to redeem,
you are to redeem
the firstborn themselves תא of human beings!
And the firstborn themselves תא
of defiled animals you are to redeem.

Num. 18:16 And if redeeming it,
from the age of a month
you are to redeem it,
according to your valuation of silver,
five shekels according to the shekel
of The Set Apart Place.
Twenty gerahs it is.

Num. 18:17 However, a firstborn oxen,
or a firstborn sheep,
or a firstborn goat
you are not to redeem.
They are set apart.
Their blood itself תא you are to sprinkle
on the slaughter site.
And their fat itself תא
you are to turn into smoke,
an offering by fire,
a soothing aroma to YAHWEH.

Num. 18:18 But their flesh is to be for you.
Like the breast of the presentation offering and like the right thigh, it is to be for you.

Num. 18:19 All the gifts, the set apart things that the children of Yisra'el raise for YAHWEH
I have given to you,
and to your sons,
and to your daughters,
you yourselves תא,
as a rule to eternity.
It is a "covenant of salt" to eternity
before the face of YAHWEH
for you and for your seed,
you yourselves תא."

*Salt is both a preservative and a purifier.
A "covenant of salt" was considered to be pure and permanent.*

Num. 18:20 And YAHWEH said to Aharon,
"In their land you will not inherit.
And no portion will be yours in their midst.

I Myself am your portion
and your inheritance
in the midst of the children of Yisra'el.

Num. 18:21 And to the children of Levi,
behold!
I have given all the tithes in Yisra'el
as an inheritance
in exchange for their tasks that they are performing,
the tasks themselves תא
of The Tent of Appointment.

Num. 18:22 And the children of Yisra'el
are no longer to come near
The Tent of Appointment,
for the sake of lifting up an offense,
for the sake of being put to death.

Num. 18:23 And the Levite,
he is to perform the tasks themselves תא
of The Tent of Appointment.
And they will bear their perversions.
It is a rule to eternity for their generations.

And in the midst of the children of Yisra'el
they will not inherit an inheritance.

Num. 18:24 Indeed, the tithes themselves תא
of the children of Yisra'el
that they raise to YAHWEH as a contribution
I have given to the Levites as an inheritance.

On account of this I have said to them
in the midst of the children of Yisra'el
they are not to inherit an inheritance."

Num. 18:25 And YAHWEH
spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 18:26 "To the Levites you are to speak.
And you are to say to them,
"When you take from
the children of Yisra'el themselves תא
the tithes themselves תא that I have given to you from they themselves תא
as your inherited share
you are to raise from it an elevated gift to YAHWEH,
a tenth from the tithe.
Num. 18:27 And it will be regarded for you as your elevated gift
like grain from the threshing floor
and like fullness of the wine vat.
Num. 18:28 Thus you are to raise,
even you yourselves תא,
the elevated gift to YAHWEH
from all your tithes that you accept
from the children of Yisra'el themselves תא.
And you are to give from them,
the elevated gift of YAHWEH,
to Aharon, the priest.
Num. 18:29 From all your gifts
you are to raise every elevated gift to YAHWEH,
from all its consecrated things, from them.'

Num. 18:30 And you are to say to them,
'In your raising
the choicest part itself תא from it,
then it is to be regarded for the Levites
as the produce of the threshing floor or as the produce of the wine vat.

Num. 18:31 And you are to eat it itself תא
in any place,
you yourself תא and your household,
because it is a wage for you in exchange for your tasks
in The Tent of Appointment.

Num. 18:32 And you will not lift up on account of it an offense in having elevated
its choicest part itself תא from it.
And the set apart things themselves תא
of the children of Yisra'el you will not defile.
And you will not be put to death.' "

Chapter 19

Num. 19:1 And YAHWEH spoke
to Moshe and to Aharon saying
Num. 19:2 this is the rule of the instruction
that YAHWEH has directed saying,
"Speak to the children of Yisra'el.
And they are to bring to you
a red heifer, whole,
that has in it no defect,
that has not come up to a yoke.
Num. 19:3 And you are to give it itself תא
to El'azar, the priest.
And he is to bring it itself תא outside the camp.
And it is to be slaughtered in front of him.
Num. 19:4 And El'azar, the priest,
is to take some of its blood with his finger.
And he is to sprinkle toward the front of
The Tent of Appointment
some of its blood, seven times.

Num. 19:5 And the heifer itself תא
is to be burned before his eyes.
And its skin itself תא,
and its flesh itself תא,
and its blood itself תא
with its excrement are to be burned.

Num. 19:6 And the priest is to take
wood of cedar,
and hyssop,
and maggot scarlet.
And he is to throw them
toward the center of the burning heifer.

Num. 19:7 And the priest is to wash his garments.
And he is to wash his flesh in water.
And afterward he is to come into the camp.
But the priest will be defiled until sunset.

Num. 19:8 And the one burning it itself תא
is to scrub his garments in water.
And he is to wash his flesh in water.
And he is defiled until sunset.

Num. 19:9 Then an undefiled man is to gather
the ashes themselves תא of the heifer.
And he is to deposit them outside the camp
in an undefiled place.

And it is to exist for the assembly
of the children of Yisra'el
to be watched over as waters of rejection for cleansing their offenses.

This is a difficult verse to translate accurately.
There is a Hebraism involved
that establishes the "waters of rejection", a term normally related to the impurity of menstruation,
as a cleansing element for their offenses.

It was used in a number of "purification rites"
for certain errors
by which YAHWEH was offended.
Hence, they are often referred to as "waters of purification".

Num. 19:10 And the one gathering
the ashes themselves תא of the heifer
is to wash his garments themselves תא.
And he is defiled until sunset.

And It is to be for the children of Yisra'el
and for the stranger
who is sojourning in their midst
as a rule to eternity.

Num. 19:11 A human being touching any dead life
is then defiled for seven days.

Num. 19:12 He who is defiled
is to undefile himself with it on the third day,
and on the seventh day he will be undefiled.
But if he does not undefile himself
on the third day
then on the seventh day he is not undefiled.

Tradition has interpreted this to state
one must undefile himself
on both the third and the seventh days.
But a literal reading of the Hebrew text
does not so indicate.
It appears from the text that the undefiling need only take place on the third day,
and then it takes effect on the seventh day.
You'll have to decide for yourself
which is intended
since it's not that clear in the Hebrew text.

Num. 19:13 Anyone touching a life who is dying
or the human being who has died,
but does not undefile himself,
The Dwelling of YAHWEH itself תא
he has defiled.
And that life is to be cut off from Yisra'el,
because the waters of rejection
were not sprinkled on him.
He is defiled.
His defilement remains on him.

Num. 19:14 This is the Instruction
when a human being dies in a tent.
Anyone who goes into the tent and anyone who is in the tent is defiled for seven days.
Num. 19:15 And any open vessel
that has no cover on it, it is defiled!

Num. 19:16 And anyone who touches on the surface of a field
one pierced by a sword or one dead,
or human bones, or a grave,
will be defiled for seven days.

Num. 19:17 And they are to take
for the defiled one some of the dust of the burned offense offering.
And they are to put over it living water in a vessel.

Num. 19:18 And he is to take hyssop.
And an undefiled one is to dip it into the waters.
And he is to sprinkle it on the tent,
and on all the implements,
and on the lives who were there,
or on the one touching the bones,
or the slain one,
or the dead human being,
or the grave.

Num. 19:19 And the undefiled one is to sprinkle it on the defiled one on the third day and on the seventh day.
And he will be undefiled on the seventh day.
Then he is to scrub his garments and wash with water.
And he is undefiled at sunset.

Num. 19:20 And a man who is defiled
but does not undefile himself,
then that person will be cut off from the midst of the assembly because The Set Apart Place itself תא of YAHWEH
he has defiled!
Waters of rejection have not been sprinkled on him.
He is defiled!
Num. 19:21 And it is to be for you
a rule to eternity.

And the one sprinkling the waters of rejection
is to scrub his garments.
And the one touching the waters of rejection
is defiled until sunset.

Num. 19:22 And anything that is touched by the defiled man is defiled.
And the life who touches it
is defiled until sunset."

Chapter 20

Num. 20:1 And the children of Yisra'el came,

the entire assembly,
to the Wilderness of Tzyn
in the first month.
And the people settled at Kadesh.
And Miryam died there.
And she was buried there.

Num. 20:2 And there was no water
for the assembly.
And they assembled
against Moshe and against Aharon.
Num. 20:3 And the people
contended with Moshe.
And they spoke saying,
"If only we had breathed out when our brothers breathed out
before the face of YAHWEH!

Num. 20:4 And why have you brought the assembly of YAHWEH itself אָ
to this wilderness to die there,
we and our cattle?

Num. 20:5 And why have you brought us up from Mitsraim,
bringing us ourselves אָ to this bad place,
not to a place of seeds and figs, and vines,
and pomegranates, and water?
There is nothing to drink!

Num. 20:6 And Moshe and Aharon
went away from the presence of the assembly to the entrance to The Tent of Appointment.
And they fell on their faces.
And the splendor of YAHWEH
was seen by them!

Num. 20:7 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 20:8 "Take the staff itself אָ.
And call together the assembly itself אָ,
you yourself אָ, and Aharon, your brother!
And you are to speak to the rock
before their eyes.
And it will give its water.
And you are to bring out for them
water from the rock.
And you will cause the assembly itself אָ
to drink and their animals themselves אָ."

Num. 20:9 And Moshe took the staff itself אָ
from before the face of YAHWEH
according to what he had been directed.
Num. 20:10 And Moshe and Aharon
assembled the assembly itself אָ
in front of the rock.
And he said to them,
"Now listen attentively you rebels!
From this rock
we will bring out water for you!

Num. 20:11 And Moshe raised his hand itself אָ.
And he struck the rock itself אָ
with his staff, twice.
And abundant water came out.
And the assembly and their animals drank.

Num. 20:12 But YAHWEH said
to Moshe and to Aharon,
"Because you did not have trust in Me
to set Me apart
in the eyes of the children of Yisra'el,
for this reason you two will not bring this assembly itself אָ
into the land that I have given to them!"

The language of the text is very clear.

Moshe was to speak to the rock,
he was not to strike it.
In his anger and frustration
he told the Children of Yisra'el,
"From this rock we will bring out water for you!"
There was no acknowledgment that YAHWEH would bring out the water.

Further, Moshe struck the rock.
He did not speak to it.
He even struck it twice.

The consequences for this act of rebellion against the Instructions of YAHWEH
are enormous!
Moshe and Aharon will not enter The Promised Land!

Num. 20:13 They are the Waters of Meribah
where the children of Yisra'el contended with YAHWEH Himself תָּא.
And He was set apart by them.
Meribah means quarreling.

Num. 20:14 Then Moshe sent messengers
from Kadesh to the king of Edom.
According to this says your brother, Yisra'el.
You yourself תָּא have known all the distress itself תָּא
that we have encountered,
*Edom is Esau's kingdom.
They are literally "brothers"
to Ya'akov's family, Yisra'el.*

*This passage sets the stage for long term events between Israel and Edom.
Edom's refusal to give passage to his "brother" results in a long-term strife between the two nations
that has devastating consequences.*

Num. 20:15 and that our fathers
went down to Mitsraim.
And we settled in Mitsraim for many years.
And Mitsraim treated us badly
and our fathers.

Num. 20:16 And we cried out to YAHWEH.
And He listened attentively to our voice.
And He sent a messenger.
And He brought us out from Mitsraim.
And behold!

We ourselves are at Kadesh,
a town at the extremity of your territory.
Num. 20:17 Please let us pass over your land.
We will not pass over
in the fields or in the gardens.
And we will not drink water from wells.
The King's Road we will go,
not spreading out to the right hand or the left hand until we have passed over what is your territory.

Num. 20:18 But Edom said to him,
"You will not pass over beside me
unless with a sword
I come out to encounter you!"
Num. 20:19 And the children of Yisra'el said to him,
"On the highway we will go up.
And if we drink your water,
I myself and my animals,
I will give to you its price.
Only let's not argue.
On foot we will pass over!"
Num. 20:20 But he said,
"You will not pass over!"

And Edom went out to encounter him with many people and with a strong hand.

Num. 20:21 And Edom refused to grant Yisra'el itself א
to pass over his territory.
And Yisra'el turned away from him.

Num. 20:22 And they journeyed
away from Kadesh.
And they came, the children of Yisra'el,
the entire assembly,
to Mount Hor.

Hor means hill.

Some refer to this as Hill's Hill.

Num. 20:23 And YAHWEH spoke
to Moshe and to Aharon at Mount Hor
at the border of the land of Edom saying, 20:24 "Aharon will be gathered to his people because he is not to go into the land that I Myself have given
to the children of Yisra'el
on account of your rebellion against My mouth itself א
at the Waters of Meribah!

Num. 20:25 Take Aharon himself א
and El'azar himself א, his son, and bring up they themselves א
on Mount Hor!

Num. 20:26 And strip Aharon himself א
of his garments themselves א!
And clothe in them
El'azar himself א, his son!
Aharon will be gathered to his people.
And he will die there.

Num. 20:27 And Moshe did
according to what YAHWEH had directed him.
And they went up Mount Hor
before the eyes of the entire assembly.

Num. 20:28 And Moshe stripped Aharon himself א
of his garments themselves א.
And he clothed in they themselves א
El'azar himself א, his son.

And Aharon died there on top of the mount.
And Moshe and El'azar
went down from the mount.

Num. 20:29 And the entire assembly saw that Aharon had breathed out.
And they wept for Aharon himself א
thirty days,
the whole house of Yisra'el.

Chapter 21

Num. 21:1 And the Kena'anite king of Arad who was dwelling in The Negev heard that Yisra'el had come on the Atarim Road.
And he fought with Yisra'el.
And he took some of them as captives.

Arad means fugitive.

Atarim means spies.

Num. 21:2 And Yisra'el promised
a promise to YAHWEH.
And they said, "If you will give,
give this people themselves א into my hand

I will devote to destruction
their towns themselves נח.
Num. 21:3 And YAHWEH listened attentively
to the voice of Yisra'el.
And He gave them
the Kena'anites themselves נח.
And they devoted to destruction
they themselves נח
and their cities themselves נח.
And they called the name of the place Horma.
Horma means destruction.

Num. 21:4 And they journeyed from Mount Hor
by The Reed Sea Road for the sake of going around the land of Edom itself נח.
And the lives of the people became impatient on the way.
Num. 21:5 The people spoke against The Elohim
and against Moshe,
"Why have you brought us up from Mitsraim
to die in the wilderness?
Indeed, there is no food and no water!
And our lives are disgusted
with this insubstantial food!

Num. 21:6 And YAHWEH sent upon the people
the fiery serpents themselves נח.
And they bit the people themselves נח.
And many of the people from Yisra'el died.

Literally, "the serpents the fiery".
nachash - a serpent.
However, the word is from the same root letters as nchosheth - copper (often incorrectly translated as 'bronze').

saraph - burning;
specifically, a saraph or symbolic creature (from their copper color).
seraphim is the plural form of this word.

There is considerable debate concerning this story
as it relates to "the fiery serpents".
Some believe they were not serpents at all,
but were in fact The Seraphim
mentioned elsewhere in Scripture.

The concepts connected to the seraphim involve their "shining" or "flashing" appearance
- also referred to as "fiery"
(like flashing fire or light).

As a "healing source" verses 8 and 9
identify that Moshe made a "copper serpent"
and put it on a pole.
Those who "looked at it" were healed
from the "bite/sting" of these creatures.

There are some very significant connections between this and the story of the temptation of 'Eve'
in the garden in Eden.
She was tempted, not by a serpent,
but by a "shining one" (fiery one?)

The similarities of terms and their meanings are fascinating.
They call for a profound re-thinking concerning this event, as well as that one.

Looking at a "copper serpent" for healing makes little sense
within the overall context of Scripture.

YAHWEH is, and is to be, our Healer!
But looking at the "seraphim"...?

This is also connected to the "image" (idol)
used for the medical community
- the serpent on a pole.
Does this seem to you to be appropriate within The Word of YAHWEH?

Num. 21:7 And the people came to Moshe.
And they said,
"We offended
when we spoke against YAHWEH
and against you.
Intercede to YAHWEH.
And have Him remove from among us
the serpents themselves nx."
And Moshe interceded
on behalf of the people.

Num. 21:8 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Make for yourself a saraph.
And place it itself nx on a banner pole.
And it will be whoever has been bitten
and then looks at it itself nx
then he will live."

Moshe is told to make a saraph.
There is no reference to a serpent in this verse,
only to a "saraph".

We are presented here
with a "type", a foreshadowing of The Messiah.
The serpent lifted up,
if one "looked upon it"
i.e. "believed in it"
was granted "redemption", healing.

Num. 21:9 And Moshe made a serpent of copper.
And he placed it on a banner pole.
And it existed
that if a serpent bit a man himself nx
and he looked intently at the serpent of copper,
then he would live.

In this verse we once again
find a reference to a "serpent".
But we cannot confirm which concept is correct
simply on this basis.
Due to the debates
over the meaning of these things
one must trust YAHWEH to provide a sense of understanding in this.

Num. 21:10 And the children of Yisra'el journeyed.
And they encamped at Oboth.

Oboth means water skins.

Num. 21:11 And they journeyed from Oboth.
And they encamped at Iyeyi Ha'Abarim
in the wilderness that is in front of Mo'ab,
toward the rising of the sun.

Iyeyi Ha'Abarim means ruin of those passing over.

Num. 21:12 From there they journeyed
and encamped at Wadi Zered.

A wadi is a stream or stream bed.
Zered means exuberant in growth.

Num. 21:13 From there they journeyed.
And they encamped across The Arnon
that is in the wilderness,
that goes out of the Amorite territory.
Indeed, The Arnon is the border of Mo'ab between Mo'ab and the Amorites.

Arnon means a brawling stream.

Num. 21:14 For this reason it is said
in The Scroll of The Wars of YAHWEH,
". . . Waheb in Sufa itself nx,
the wadis themselves of Arnon,

Num. 21:15 along with its canyon,
wadis that stretch along the settling of Ar
and are leaning against the territory of Mo'ab, Waheb means 'what he did'.
Sufa means a hurricane.
There is much disagreement concerning the exact meaning of this verse.
"The Scroll of The Wars of YAHWEH"
is an ancient text that has been lost.

Num. 21:16 and from there to Be'er.

That is the well at which YAHWEH said to Moshe,

"Gather the people themselves נא.

And I will give water to them."

Num. 21:17 Then Yisra'el sang this song itself נא.

"Rise up, O well!

Sing to it,

Num. 21:18 the well that was sought by princes,
that was dug by nobles of the people
with scribes tools,
with their rods!"

Then from the wilderness to Mattana.

Mattana means a present.

Num. 21:19 and from Mattana to Nahli'el,
and from Nahli'el to Bamoth,

Nahli'el means valley of El.

Bamoth means the heights.

Num. 21:20 and from Bamoth to the valley
that is at the open country of Mo'ab,
the top of Pisgah.

And Pisgah overlooks the face of the wasteland.

Pisgah means summit.

Yeshimon means wasteland.

This could be either a reference to a wasteland or to a place name.

Num. 21:21 And Yisra'el sent messengers
to Sihon, king of the Amorites, saying,

Num. 21:22 "Let me pass over your land!

We will not spread out into the fields,
or into the vineyards.

We will not drink well water.

On The King's Road we will journey
until we have passed over your territory."

Num. 21:23 But Sihon would not allow

Yisra'el itself נא

to pass over into his territory.

And Sihon gathered all his people themselves נא.

And he went out to encounter Yisra'el in the wilderness.

And he came to Yahatz.

And he fought against Yisra'el.

Yahatz means to stomp upon.

Num. 21:24 And Yisra'el struck him
with the edge of the sword.

And they occupied his land itself נא

from The Arnon as far as The Yabbok,

as far as the children of Ammon.

Indeed, great was the territory

of the children of Ammon.

Num. 21:25 And Yisra'el took all these towns themselves נא.

And Yisra'el settled

in all the towns of the Amorites,

in Heshbon and all her daughter villages.

Num. 21:26 Indeed, Heshbon itself

was the town of Sihon, king of the Amorites.

He had fought against the former king of Mo'ab

and had taken all his land itself נא from his hand

as far as The Arnon.

Num. 21:27 For this reason
the makers of proverbs say,
"Come to Heshbon!
Be built up and be established, Sihon's town,
Num. 21:28 because fire went forth from Heshbon, flame from the city of Sihon,
devouring Ar of Mo'ab,
the inhabitants of the heights of Arnon.

Num. 21:29 Woe to you, Mo'ab!
You have perished, people of Kemosh!
His sons are fugitives,
His daughters are captives
of the king of the Amorites, Sihon.

Num. 21:30 And we shot at them!
Heshbon perished as far as Dibon.
And we devastated as far as Nofah,
fire as far as Medeba!"

Heshbon means contrivance.
Dibon means pining, wasting.
Nofah means a gust.
Medeba means water of quiet.

Num. 21:31 And Yisra'el settled in the land of the Amorites.

Num. 21:32 And Moshe sent men to scout Ya'zer itself אָזַר.
And they captured its daughter villages.
And they dispossessed
the Amorites themselves אָזַר who were there.

Num. 21:33 Then they turned and went up the road to Bashan.
And Og, king of Bashan,
came out to encounter them,
he and all his people, to battle at Edre'i.

Num. 21:34 YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Do not be afraid of he himself אָזַר.
Indeed, into your hand
I have given he himself אָזַר,
and all his people themselves אָזַר,
and his land itself אָזַר!
And you will do to him as you did to Sihon,
king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon.

Num. 21:35 And they struck he himself אָזַר,
and his sons themselves אָזַר,
and all his people themselves אָזַר
until none remained of his.
And they occupied his land itself אָזַר!

Chapter 22

Num. 22:1 And the children of Yisra'el journeyed.
And they encamped in the Plains of Mo'ab,
across The Yarden by Yericho.

Yarden means to descend.
Yericho - meaning is uncertain
but some believe it refers to the moon,
others, 'his fragrance'.

Num. 22:2 And Balak, son of Tzippor, saw everything itself אָזַר
that Yisra'el had done to the Amorites.

Balak means waster.
Tzippor means a little bird.

Num. 22:3 And Mo'ab was exceedingly afraid before the people because they were many.
And Mo'ab was anxious
before the children of Yisra'el.

Num. 22:4 And Mo'ab said to the elders of Midyan,
"This time the assembly itself אָזַר will lick up everything around us

like an ox licks up
the green things of the field themselves תא!

And Balak, son of Tzippor,
was king of Mo'ab at that time.
Num. 22:5 And he sent messengers
to Bil'am, son of Be'or,
to Pethor, which is beside The River,
the land of the children of his people,
for the sake of calling him saying, "Behold!
A people has come out of Mitsraim.
Behold!

It covers the surface of the ground itself תא.
And it has settled opposite me.

Bil'am means not of the people.
Be'or means a lamp.
Pethor- mean uncertain.
The River is generally considered to be the Euphrates.

Num. 22:6 And now please go.
Curse for me this people itself תא
Indeed, it is more mighty than me!
Perhaps I will be able to strike against it and drive it out from the land.
Indeed, I know
that whomever you yourself תא bless is blessed,
and whomever you curse is cursed!"

Num. 22:7 And the elders of Mo'ab
and the elders of Midyan went.
And the reward of divination was in their hand.

And they came to Bil'am.
And they spoke to him the words of Balak.
Num. 22:8 And he said to them,
"Stay here tonight.
And I will bring back to you yourselves תא
the word according to what YAHWEH speaks to me."
And the nobles of Mo'ab stayed with Bil'am.

Num. 22:9 And The Elohim came to Bil'am.
And He said, "Who are these men with you?"
Num. 22:10 And Bil'am said to The Elohim,
"Balak, son of Tzippor, king of Mo'ab, sent to me.

22:11 "Behold!
The people, those coming from Mitsraim,
even covers the surface of the ground itself תא!
Now go!
Curse for me it itself תא!
Perhaps I will be able to fight against it and drive it out!"

Num. 22:12 And The Elohim said to Bil'am,
"You are not to go with the people!
You are not to curse the people itself תא
because it is blessed!"

Num. 22:13 And Bil'am arose at dawn.
And he said to Balak's nobles,
"Go to your land.
Indeed, YAHWEH refuses to permit me to go with you."
Num. 22:14 And the nobles of Mo'ab arose.
And they came to Balak.
And they said, "Bil'am has refused to come with us!"

Num. 22:15 And Balak again sent nobles, abundant and more important than those.
Num. 22:16 And they came to Bil'am.
And they said to him,
"Thus says Balak, son of Tzippor.
Please do not hold back from coming to me!"

Num. 22:17 Indeed, honor,
I will honor you exceedingly!
And everything that you say to me I will do!
But please come!
Curse for me this people itself נא!"

Num. 22:18 And Bil'am answered.
And he said to the servants of Balak,
"If Balak were to give me
his house full of silver and gold
I would not be able to pass over the mouth itself נא of YAHWEH, my Elohim, to do less or more.

Num. 22:19 But now please sit here,
you yourselves נא also tonight and I will learn what more YAHWEH will speak to me."

Num. 22:20 And The Elohim
came to Bil'am at night.
And He said to him.
"Since it is to call you that the men have come, rise up.
Go with they themselves נא.
But only the word itself נא that I speak to you,
it itself נא you are to do!

Num. 22:21 And Bil'am arose at dawn.
And he saddled his she ass itself נא.
And he went with the nobles of Mo'ab.
Num. 22:22 And The Elohim's anger flared up because he was going.
And YAHWEH's messenger stationed himself in the way
as an adversary to him.

And he was riding on his she ass.
And his two servants were with him.

satan - an opponent;
especially (with the article prefixed) Satan.

Note this term.
If this was translated (actually transliterated) as "Satan" we'd have a rather different sense of the text.

This is a messenger of YAHWEH,
NOT 'an angel'.
malak - to dispatch as a deputy; messenger.

Num. 22:23 And the she ass saw
the messenger himself נא of YAHWEH
stationed in the way.

And his sword was pulled out in his hand.
And the she ass turned aside from the way.
And she went into a field.
And Bil'am struck the she ass herself נא
to turn her onto the way.

Num. 22:24 But the messenger of YAHWEH
stood in the opening between the vineyard wall,
from this side to that side.

Num. 22:25 And the she ass saw
the messenger himself נא of YAHWEH.
And she pressed against the wall.
And she pressed Bil'am's foot itself נא against the wall.
And again he struck her.

Num. 22:26 And the messenger of YAHWEH
again passed over and stood in a narrow place where there was no way to turn right or left.

Num. 22:27 And the she ass saw
the messenger himself נא of YAHWEH.
And she crouched down beneath Bil'am.
And Bil'am's anger flared up.

And he struck the she ass herself nx
with his staff.

Num. 22:28 And YAHWEH opened
the mouth itself nx of the she ass.
And she said to Bil'am,
"What have I done to you that you have struck me these three times?"
Num. 22:29 And Bil'am said to his she ass,
"Because you have dealt harshly with me!
If there was a sword in my hand by now
I would have killed you!"

Num. 22:30 Then the she ass said to Bil'am,
"Am I myself not your she ass
upon whom you have ridden
from your past until this day?
Have I done service,
done service to you according to this?"
He said, "No."

Num. 22:31 And YAHWEH uncovered
the eyes themselves nx of Bil'am.
And he saw
the messenger himself nx of YAHWEH
standing in the way.
And his sword was pulled out in his hand.
And he bowed down.
And he prostrated himself to his face.

Num. 22:32 And the messenger of YAHWEH
said to him,
"For what reason have you struck your she ass herself nx these three times?"

Behold!
I myself came out as an adversary
because the way was perverse to me.
The Hebrew text language suggests this is a message from YAHWEH Himself.
As a 'deputy', or ambassador,
the messenger could indeed speak
as if it was YAHWEH Himself.

Num. 22:33 And the she ass saw me.
And she turned aside at my presence
these three times.
If she had not turned aside at my presence
by now it is you yourself nx
I would have killed.
And she herself nx
I would have caused to live!

Num. 22:34 And Bil'am said
to the messenger of YAHWEH,
"I have offended because I did not know that you yourself nx had been standing for the sake of encountering me in the way.
And now if it is bad in your eyes I will return."

Num. 22:35 And the messenger of YAHWEH
said to Bil'am, "Go with the men!
But only the word itself nx that I speak to you,
it itself nx you are to speak."
And Bil'am went with Balak's nobles.

Num. 22:36 And Balak heard that Bil'am was coming.
And he went out to meet him, to Ir of Mo'ab,
which is by The Arnon border,
that is at the edge of the border.

Num. 22:37 And Balak said to Bil'am,
"Did I not send to you,
send to you to call you!
Why did you not come to me?"

Am I truly not able to honor you?"

Num. 22:38 And Bil'am said to Balak,
"Behold!

I have come to you now!

Am I able, am I able to say anything?

The word that The Elohim places in my mouth,
it itself אני I am to speak!"

Num. 22:39 And Bil'am went with Balak.
And they came to the village of Hutzot.

Hutzot means streets.

Num. 22:40 And Balak slaughtered oxen and sheep.
And he sent them out to Bil'am
and to the nobles that were with he himself אני.

Num. 22:41 And it was at dawn.

And Balak took Bil'am himself אני.

And he had him go up on the Heights of Ba'al.

And he saw from there
the extremity of the people.

Chapter 23

Num. 23:1 And Bil'am said to Balak,
"Build for me on this seven slaughter sites.
And prepare for me on this
seven bulls and seven rams."

Num. 23:2 And Balak did according to what Bil'am had spoken to him.
And Bil'am and Balak offered up
a bull and a ram on each slaughter site.

Num. 23:3 And Bil'am said to Balak,
"Station yourself beside your olah and I will go.
Perhaps YAHWEH will encounter me
with an encounter.
And the word that He causes me to see
then I will declare to you.

And he went to a deserted place.

Num. 23:4 And The Elohim encountered Bil'am.

And he said to Him,

"Seven slaughter sites themselves אני

I have set in order.

And I have offered up a bull and a ram
on each slaughter site."

Num. 23:5 And YAHWEH placed a word in the mouth of Bil'am.

And He said, "Return to Balak.

And according to this you are to speak."

Num. 23:6 And he returned to him.

And behold!

He was standing by his olah,
he and all the nobles of Mo'ab.

Num. 23:7 And he took up his discourse.

And he said, "From Aram he guided me,
Balak, king of Mo'ab, from the hills of the east.

'Go curse Ya'akov for me!

And go be indignant against Yisra'el!"

Num. 23:8 How can I curse?

The El has not cursed.

And how can I be enraged?

YAHWEH has not been enraged.

Num. 23:9 Indeed, from the top of cliffs I see him.

And from the hills I observe him.

Behold! A people separated It abides.

And among the foreign nations

it is not regarded.

There are alternative interpretations

of this verse regarding Yisra'el.
However, the context and the Hebrew text itself
suggest what's given here.

Yisra'el is not yet considered to be a nation
by the other nations.
They have no "land" of their own.
They are separated from all other groups,
not only in this sense, but also in the sense of their unique relationship with YAHWEH.

Num. 23:10 Who can weigh out
the dust of Ya'akov
or number a fourth part itself nx of Yisra'el?
May my life die the death of the just!
And may my end be like his!"

Num. 23:11 And Balak said to Bil'am,
"What have you done to me?
To curse my adversaries I brought you.
But behold!
You have blessed, blessed them!"

Num. 23:12 And he responded.
And he said,
"Is it not whatever itself nx
YAHWEH places in my mouth?
It itself nx I must be careful to speak."

Num. 23:13 And Balak said to him,
"Please go with me myself nx to another place
where you will see them from there.
The end of their extremity you will see.
But all of them you will not see.
And you are to curse them for me
from there!"

Num. 23:14 And he took him
to the field of observing,
to the top of Pisgah.
And he built seven slaughter sites.
And he offered up a bull and a ram
on each slaughter site.

The "field of observing" and "the summit"
are often translated as place names, Zophim, and Pisgah.

What's given here
is the literal sense of the terms.
Observing is a participle form,
not the normal form used for a place name.
Pisgah is in the form of a place name
and should be so identified.

Num. 23:15 And he said to Balak,
"Stand here beside your olah.
And I myself will be encountered by this."

Num. 23:16 And YAHWEH met with Bil'am.
And He placed a message in his mouth.
And He said, "Return to Balak
and speak according to this."

Num. 23:17 And he came to him.
And behold!
He was standing beside his olah,
and the nobles of Mo'ab, he himself nx.
And Balak said to him,
"What has YAHWEH spoken?"

Num. 23:18 And he took up his discourse.
And he said,
"Stand up Balak!
And listen attentively!
Listen carefully to me, son of Tzippor!"

Num. 23:19 The Elohim is not a man that He might lie.
Nor is He a child of a human being that he might be sorry.

Will He Himself speak but not do, or speak but not establish it?

There are two different terms used here that are important.
The first is 'ish.
It means a male or an individual person.

The second is a Hebrew-hyphenated term, ben-adam.
It means child of a human being.
It is often translated as "son of man",
but that is not its literal meaning.
Tradition has warped its "translation".

nacham - to sigh, i.e. breathe strongly.
Often translated as "repent",
it means to be sorry for what one has done.

Num. 23:20 Behold!
To bless I have been brought.
And His blessing
I cannot cause to turn back.

Num. 23:21 He regards no perversion in Ya'akov.
He sees no problem in Yisra'el.
YAHWEH, their Elohim, is with them!
Fanfare for The King is among them, truw'ah - means clamor;
acclamation or battle shout.

It's used in relation to the blowing of trumpets
in acclamation of a King,
which is the significance in this instance.
YAHWEH is their King.

Num. 23:22 The El,
Who brought them out of Mitsraim
by the efforts of a wild ox for His sake.

Num. 23:23 Indeed,
there is no divination in Ya'akov,
and no interpreting of omens is in Yisra'el.

In time it will be said concerning Ya'akov and concerning Yisra'el
what The Elohim has accomplished.

nachash - incantation or interpreting of omens.
This is the same word used of a "serpent".
The root word,
which is identical except for vowel pointings,
means to hiss; to whisper a (magic) spell.

qecem - a lot; divination.

Here we observe the very common practice of Hebrew language in "poetic verse" of using two terms to define or identify the same thing.
Both words point to divination.

The last section of this verse is different than traditional translations.
The context is our guide.

While the nations turned to divination to discern what was happening
Yisra'el did not need to do so.

YAHWEH instructed them in all things.
Here the point is being made that in time others will recognize this reality.

Num. 23:24 Behold!
A people like a lion is rising up!
And like a lion it is lifting itself up.

And it will not lie down until it devours prey
and the blood of the wounded it has drunk!"

Num. 23:25 And Balak said to Bil'am,
"Neither curse them, curse them,
nor bless them, bless them!"

This is a rather unusual construction.
It's difficult to render it accurately.
Both concepts are given a double mention,
giving great emphasis to this verse.

Balak wanted Bil'am
to do neither one of these things at this point.

Num. 23:26 And Bil'am responded.
And he said to Balak,
"Did I not speak to you saying,
'All that YAHWEH speaks,
it itself נא I will do.'?"

Num. 23:27 And Balak said to Bil'am,
"Please come!
I will take you to another place.
Perhaps it will be right in the eyes of The Elohim,
and you will curse them for me from there."

Num. 23:28 And Balak took Bil'am himself נא
to the top of Pe'or.

It overlooks the face of the wasteland.

Num. 23:29 And Bil'am said to Balak,
"Build for me on this seven slaughter sites.

And prepare for me on this
seven bulls and seven rams."

Num. 23:30 And Balak did
according to what Bil'am said.
And he offered up a bull and a ram
on each slaughter site.

Chapter 24

Num. 24:1 And Bil'am saw that it was good
in the eyes of YAHWEH
to bless Yisra'el itself נא.

And he did not go forth as time after time,
to encounter divination.

And he set his face toward the wilderness.

Num. 24:2 And Bil'am lifted up
his eyes themselves נא.

And he saw Yisra'el itself נא
residing according to their tribes.

And there existed upon him
The Divine Nature of The Elohim.

ruach - wind, by resemblance breath.
This term is traditionally translated as 'spirit'.
But for the Hebrew culture
there was never anything called 'spirit'.
"Spirit" is a Greek term,
used only because of its translation
from Greek texts.

To the Hebrew mind
the breath was "the wind of man".
The breath represented
the "inner nature" of the person.
In this case it represents the Divine Nature of YAHWEH Himself.

Num. 24:3 He took up his discourse.
And he said,
"The utterance of Bil'am, son of Be'or.
Even an utterance of the person of open eyes.
Num. 24:4 An utterance of attentive listening to the sayings of The Elohim
who saw a vision of The Powerful One falling and having open eyes.

There are several nuances
in the Hebrew text

that are often missed
in traditional translations.

"Utterance" is a noun, not a verb.
It is not "acting",
but is a mere identification of what it is.

The "person of open eyes" (v. 3) theme is restated in this verse
in a slightly different fashion, but completely in agreement with Hebrew poetic writings.

Shadday is typically translated as "The Almighty".
It usually has "El" with it,
but not in this case.
It's a clear reference to The Elohim,
however, in this context.

The root word means to be burly, powerful.
It does not mean "almighty",
although that's the way
it's been interpreted by many.

"falling" and "having open eyes"
are both participle forms.
They are active, not passive (past tense) terms.

Num. 24:5 How good are your tents, Ya'akov,
your dwelling places, Yisra'el, 24:6 like valleys stretched out,
like gardens beside a river,
like aloes planted by YAHWEH,
like cedars beside the waters.

Num. 24:7 He will pour water from its buckets,
and its seed into much water.
And their king will be raised above Agag,
and their kingdom will be exalted.

Num. 24:8 The Elohim
is bringing them from Mitsraim,
like the horns of the wild ox for them!
They will consume enemy nations,
and their bones they will crush,
and their arrows they will shatter!

Num. 24:9 He crouched down like a lion,
even like the king of animals.
Who will rouse him?
Those who bless you, blessed!
Those who curse you, cursed!"

Num. 24:10 And Balak's anger flared up at Bil'am.
He smacked together his hands themselves nx.
And Balak said to Bil'am,
"To curse my adversaries I had you called!
But behold!
You have blessed them,
blessed them these three times!

Clapping ones hands together was a sign of distress and indignation
in Eastern cultures.
Note that Bil'am was called three times
to come and curse Yisra'el.
Now, instead,
he has blessed Yisra'el three times.

Num. 24:11 And now, flee suddenly to your place!
I had said I will honor you, honor you!
But behold!
YAHWEH has denied you honor!"

Num. 24:12 And Bil'am said to Balak,
"Did I not speak, even to your messengers whom you sent to me saying,
Num. 24:13 'If Balak were to give me

his house full of silver and gold
I am not be able to pass over the mouth itself נא of YAHWEH
for the sake of doing
good or bad from my heart?"

What YAHWEH speaks,
it itself נא I will speak!

Num. 24:14 And now behold!
I am going to my people.
Come!
I will advise you what this people will do to your people in the last days.

Num. 24:15 And he took up his discourse.
And he said,
"An utterance of Bil'am, son of Be'or
Even an utterance of the person of open eyes.
Num. 24:16 An utterance of attentive listening
to the sayings of The Elohim
who saw a vision of The Powerful One
falling and having open eyes.

Num. 24:17 I see it, but not now.
I observe it, but not soon.
A star has come from Ya'akov.
And a rod has arisen from Yisra'el.
It smashes the ends of Mo'ab,
even those near of all the children of Shet.
Num. 24:18 And Edom is a possession.
And a possession of its adversaries is Se'ir.
But Yisra'el is doing with force.
Num. 24:19 And one is subjugating from Ya'akov.
And he has caused the survivor
to perish from Ir."

Num. 24:20 Then he saw Amalek itself נא.
And he took up his discourse.
And he said,
"The first of nations is Amalek.
But its last days, eternal destruction!"

Num. 24:21 And he saw the Kenites themselves נא.
And he took up his discourse and said,
"Enduring is your location.
And placed in the rocks is your nest.
Num. 24:22 But consumed is the the Kenite.
How long does Asshur take you captive?"

Num. 24:23 And he took up his discourse.
And he said,
"Alas, who can exist when The Elohim acts!

Num. 24:24 And ships come from the hand of Kittim.
And they oppress Asshur.
And they oppress Eber.
But to him also, eternal destruction!"
Eber is the source for the term Hebrew.
Eber was the first "Hebrew".

Num. 24:25 Then Bil'am rose.
And he went and returned to his place.
And also Balak went on his way.

Chapter 25

Num. 25:1 And Yisra'el stayed at Shittim.
And the people profaned themselves
by committing adultery
with the women of Mo'ab.
chalal - to properly, to bore,
i.e. (by implication) to wound, to dissolve;
figuratively, to profane (a person, place or thing),

to break (one's word), etc.

While this term is often "translated" as 'begin',
that's not its true meaning
as seen in Strong's definition given here.

zanah - to commit adultery.

Shittim means acacias.

Num. 25:2 And they called the people to the slaughter offerings of their 'gods'.
And the people ate.

And they prostrated themselves to their 'gods'.

elohim - gods in the ordinary sense;
but specifically used (in the plural thus, especially with the article) of the supreme God.

shachah - to depress, i.e. prostrate (especially reflexive, in homage to royalty or God):
- bow (self) down.
This is often translated as 'worship'.

In Hebrew culture
eating the food of other 'gods'
was a very serious
offense against YAHWEH.
It called for stoning to death of the offender.

The combined actions of the Yisra'elites in these activities provides an extremely intense perspective on their rebellion against YAHWEH.

Num. 25:3 And Yisra'el joined with Ba'al of Pe'or.

And the anger of YAHWEH
flared up against Yisra'el.

tsamad - to link, i.e. gird;
figuratively, to serve; join with.
Ba'al Pe'or means
"The Lord/Master of The Gap".

ba'al - master; hence, a husband,
or (figuratively) owner.
Often translated as "lord".

Num. 25:4 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Take all the heads of the people themselves תא
and hang they themselves תא
for the sake of YAHWEH
in front of the sun.

Then the burning anger of YAHWEH will turn back from Yisra'el."

The reference to "heads"
refers to the leaders of the people who are offending against YAHWEH.
The term provided in Hebrew that's given as "hang"
means to sever oneself, to dislocate.

It's not entirely clear what was done,
but it appears this was some form of hanging,
perhaps even a form of crucifixion,
in which the body dislocated itself
from being hung up on something.

"In front of the sun"
suggests "in broad daylight"
- so everyone will see it
and decide not to do the same things.

Num. 25:5 And Moshe said to the judges of Yisra'el,
"Each man is to kill those joining themselves to Ba'al of Pe'or!"

Num. 25:6 And behold!
A man of the children of Yisra'el was coming.
And he was bringing toward his kindred a Midyanitess herself תא

before the eyes of Moshe
and before the eyes of the entire assembly
of the children of Yisra'el.
And they were weeping at the entrance
to The Tent of Appointment.

Num. 25:7 And Pin'has, son of El'azar, son of Aharon the priest, saw.
And he rose up from the midst of the assembly.
And he took a spear in his hand.
Num. 25:8 And he went after the man of Yisra'el,
into the large tent.
And he stabbed the two of them themselves תא,
the man of Yisra'el himself תא
and the woman herself תא, in the abdomen.
And the plague was contained
from upon the children of Yisra'el.
Num. 25:9 And those that died on account of the plague were four and twenty thousand.

Num. 25:10 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 25:11 "Pin'has, son of El'azar,
son of Aharon the priest,
has turned My venomous anger itself תא
from upon the children of Yisra'el
by his being zealous with My zeal in their midst.
And I did not terminate
the children of Yisra'el themselves תא
on account of My zeal.

qana' - to be zealous,
or in a bad sense, to be jealous, envious.

kalah - to end; to terminate.
The concept of "jealousy"
and the concept of zeal
are unfortunately blended
with this kind of definition.

Zeal and jealousy
have two very different connotations.
Zeal suggests enthusiasm and purposeful intent.
Jealousy suggests envy, anger, and bitterness
- in selfish response to something.

YAHWEH is zealous
for His Word and His ways.
He is not "jealous".
It's not part of His character or nature.
Yet in our human way of looking at things
we accuse Him of being like us.

Num. 25:12 Therefore say, 'Behold!
I am giving to him
My covenant of shalom itself תא!

Num. 25:13 And it will be for him and for his seed after him
a covenant of eternal priesthood because he was zealous for his Elohim and he made atonement
for the children of Yisra'el."

Num. 25:14 And the name of the man of Yisra'el,
the one struck dead, who was struck dead
with the Midyanitess herself תא,
was Zimri, son of Salu,
a leader of a father's house of the Shim'onites.
Num. 25:15 And the name of the woman,
the one struck dead, the Midyanitess,
was Kozbi, daughter of Tzur.
A head of a community in his father's house in Midyan was he.

Num. 25:16 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 25:17 "Distress the Midyanites themselves תא
and strike they themselves תא

Num. 25:18 because they distressed you with their deceit
with which they acted treacherously against you
concerning the matter of Pe'or,
and concerning the matter of Kozbi,
daughter of a leader of Midyan, their sister,
the one struck dead at the time of the plague
concerning the matter of Pe'or.

Chapter 26

Num. 26:1 And YAHWEH spoke
to Moshe and to El'azar, son of Aharon the priest, saying,

Num. 26.2 "Lift up the heads themselves אָת
of the entire assembly of the children of Yisra'el,
from the age of twenty years and upward
according to the houses of their fathers,
everyone going out to do battle in Yisra'el."

Num. 26:3 And Moshe and El'azar the priest
spoke to they themselves אָת
in the Plains of Mo'ab

beside The Yarden at Yericho saying,

Num. 26:4 "from the age
of twenty years and upward . . . !"

according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself אָת
and the children of Yisra'el,
those coming out of the land of Mitsraim.

Num. 26:8 The sons of Pallu, Eliab.

Num. 26:9 The sons of Eliab,

Nemuel, and Datan, and Abiram.

This is the Datan and Abiram,

those called by the assembly,

who quarreled against Moshe
and against Aharon

among the assembly of Korah

in their quarreling against YAHWEH.

Num. 26:10 And the earth opened its mouth itself אָת
and swallowed they themselves אָת
and Korah himself אָת

in the death of the assembly,

in a consuming by fire,

fifty and two hundred men.

And they became a sign.

Num. 26:11 But the children of Korah did not die.

Menashe and Ephraim.
Num. 26:29 The Sons of Menashe,
from Makhir, the Makhirite family.
And Makhir fathered Gil'ad himself תא.
From Gil'ad, the Gil'adite family.

Num. 26:30 These are the sons of Gil'ad,
from l'ezer, the l'ezrite family,
from Helek, the Helkite family,
Num. 26:31 from Asriel, the Asrielite family,
from Shekhem, the Shikhmite family,
Num. 26:32 from Shemida, the Shemida'ite family,
from Hefer, the Hefrite family.
Num. 26:33 But Tzelofahad, son of Hefer,
had no sons, only daughters.
And the name of the daughters of Tzelofahad, Mahla and No'a, Hogla, Milka and Tirtza.

Num. 26:34 These are the families of Menashe,
and those having been numbered,
two and fifty thousand and seven hundred.

Num. 26:35 These are the sons of Ephraim
by their families,
from Shutelah, the Shutalhite family,
from Bekher, the Bakhrite family,
from Tahan, the Tahanite family.
Num. 26:36 And these are the sons of Shutelah,
from Eiran, the Eiranite family.
Num. 26:37 These are the families of the Sons of Ephraim
of those having been numbered,
two and thirty thousand and five hundred.

These are the sons of Yosef by their families.

Ard and Naaman, the Ardite family,
from Naaman, the Naamite family.

Num. 26:41 These are the sons of Binyamin
by their families,
and those having been numbered,
five and forty thousand and six hundred.

Num. 26:42 These are the sons of Dan
by their families,
from Shuham, the Shuhamite family.
These are the families of Dan by their families,
Num. 26:43 all the Shuhamite families
of those having been numbered,
four and sixty thousand and four hundred.

Num. 26:44 The sons of Asher by their families,
from Yimna, the Yimna family,
from Yishvi, the Yishvite family,
from Beri'a, the Beri'ite family.
Num. 26:45 For the sons of Beri'a,
from Hever, the Hevrite family,
from Malkiel, the Malkielite family.
Num. 26:46 And the name of Asher's daughter was Serah.
Num. 26:47 These are the families
of the sons of Asher
of those having been numbered,
three and fifty thousand and four hundred.

Num. 26:48 The sons of Naftali by their families,
from Yahtze'el, the Yahtze'elite family,
from Guni, the Gunite family,
Num. 26:49 from Yetzer, the Yitzrite family,
from Shillem, the Shillemite family.

Num. 26:50 These are the families of Naftali
by their families,
and those having been numbered,
five and forty thousand and four hundred.

Num. 26:51 These are of those having been numbered of the children of Yisra'el, six hundred thousand
and a thousand seven hundred and thirty.

Num. 26:52 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 26:53 "To these are to be portioned by lot
the land as an inheritance
according to the numbered names.

Num. 26:54 For many
you are to increase their inheritance.
And for fewer
you are to decrease their inheritance.
Each one according to its number is to be given its inheritance.

Num. 26:55 However, by lot the land itself אֶת
is to be apportioned.
According to the names of their fathers' tribes
they are to inherit.
Num. 26:56 According to the mouth of the lot is its inheritance to be apportioned between the many and the few.

Num. 26:57 And these are those having been numbered of the Levites
by their families,
from Gershon, the Gershonite family,
from Kohat, the Kohathite family,
from Merari, the Merarite family.
Num. 26:58 These are the families of Levi,
the Livnite family,
the Hevronite family,
the Mahlite family,
the Mushite family,
the Korahite family.

And Kohat fathered Amram himself תא.
Num. 26:59 And the name of Amram's wife was Yokebed, daughter of Levi,
who bore, she herself תא to Levi in Mitsraim.
And she bore to Amram Aharon himself תא,
and Moshe himself תא,
and Miryam herself תא, their sister.

Num. 26:60 And there were born to Aharon Nadab himself תא,
and Abihu himself תא, El'azar himself תא,
and Itamar himself תא.

Num. 26:61 And Nadab and Abihu died on account of their bringing near outside fire before the face of YAHWEH.

Num. 26:62 And those having been numbered
was three and twenty thousand,
every male from the age of a month and upward.

Indeed, they had not been counted
in the midst of the children of Yisra'el
because they were not to be given an inheritance
in the midst of the children of Yisra'el.

Num. 26:63 These are those having been numbered
by Moshe and El'azar, the priest, whom they numbered
of the children of Yisra'el themselves תא
in the Plains of Mo'ab,
beside The Yarden at Yericho.

Num. 26:64 And among these not a man existed from those numbered by Moshe and Aharon, the priest, who had been numbered
of the children of Yisra'el themselves תא
in the Wilderness of Sinai.

Num. 26:65 Indeed, YAHWEH had said to them,
"They are to die, die in the wilderness!
And there will not be left a man of them except Kaleb, son of Yefunne,
and Yahoshua, son of Nun.

Chapter 27

Num. 27:1 And there approached
the daughters of Tzelofahad,
son of Hefer, son of Gil'ad,
son of Makhir, son of Menashe,
of the family of Menashe, son of Yosef.
And these are the names of his daughters:
Mahla, No'a, Hogla, Milka and Tirtza.

Num. 27:2 And they stood before the face of Moshe
and before the face of El'azar the priest,
and before the face of the leaders,
and the entire assembly

at the entrance to The Tent of Appointment saying, Num. 27:3 "Our father died in the wilderness.
But he was not in the midst of the assembly meeting against YAHWEH,
in the assembly of Korah.
Instead, on account of his own offense he died.
And sons he did not have.
Num. 27:4 For what reason has the name of our father been removed from the midst of his family
because he has no son?
Give us a holding
in the midst of our father's kindred!"

Num. 27:5 And Moshe brought near their cause for judgment itself נא
before the face of YAHWEH.
Num. 27:6 And YAHWEH spoke
to Moshe saying,
Num. 27:7 "Justly speak
the daughters of Tzelofahad!
You are to give, give to them a possession
in the midst of their father's kindred!
And you are to pass over their inheritance to them.

Num. 27:8 And to the children of Yisra'el
you are to speak saying,
'When a man dies
and a son he does not have you are to pass over his inheritance to his daughter.
Num. 27:9 And if he has no daughter
you are to give his inheritance itself נא
to his brothers.
Num. 27:10 And if he has no brothers
you are to give his inheritance itself נא
to his father's brothers.
Num. 27:11 And if his father has no brothers
you are to give his inheritance itself נא
to his flesh that is nearest to him from his family.
And he is to take possession of it itself נא."

And it is to be for the children of Yisra'el
a rule of regulation
according to what YAHWEH
has directed Moshe himself נא.

Num. 27:12 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Go up these Mountains of Abarim and observe the land that I am giving
to the children of Yisra'el.

Abarim means region across.

Num. 27:13 And having seen it itself נא
you will be gathered to your people,
even you yourself נא,
according to how Aharon,
your brother, was gathered Num. 27:14 on account of how you rebelled against My mouth
in the Wilderness of Tzyn
on account of the quarrel of the assembly,
for the sake of setting Me apart
with the waters for the sake of their eyes."

They are the waters of Meribah at Kadesh
in the Wilderness of Tzyn.

Num. 27:15 And Moshe spoke to YAHWEH saying,
Num. 27:16 "May YAHWEH, The Elohim
of the natures of all flesh,
appoint a man over the assembly
Num. 27:17 who will go out before their faces and who will come in before their faces,

and who will bring them out,
and who will bring them in.
Then the assembly of YAHWEH
will not exist
like a flock that has no shepherd."

Num. 27:18 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
"Take to yourself
Yahoshua himself תא, son of Nun,
a man who has The Divine Nature in him.
And lean your hand itself תא upon him.
Num. 27:19 And you are to cause he himself תא
to stand before El'azar, the priest,
and before the entire assembly.
And you are to charge he himself תא
before their eyes.

Num. 27:20 And you are to set
some of your authority upon him
in order that the entire assembly
of the children of Yisra'el
will listen attentively to him.
Num. 27:21 And before the face of El'azar, the priest, he is to stand.
And he will inquire for him
according to the regulations,
from the Urim,
before the face of YAHWEH.
According to His mouth he will go out,
and according to His mouth he will come in,
he and all the children of Yisra'el
with he himself תא,
even the entire assembly."

Num. 27:22 And Moshe did
according to what YAHWEH
had directed he himself תא.
And he took Yahoshua himself תא.
And he caused him to stand
before the face of El'azar, the priest,
and before the entire assembly.
Num. 27:23 And he laid his hands themselves תא upon him.
And he charged him
according to what YAHWEH had spoken
by the hand of Moshe.

Chapter 28

Num. 28:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 28:2 "Give direction
to the children of Yisra'el themselves תא
and say to them,
'My approach offering itself תא,
My food,
My offerings by fire,
My soothing aroma,
you are to protect,
for the sake of bringing it near to Me
at its appointed time.'
Num. 28:3 And you are to say to them,
'This is the offering by fire
that you are to bring near to YAHWEH, lambs of the first year, whole,
two per day, a continual olah.
Num. 28:4 One lamb itself תא
you are to prepare at dawn and the second lamb itself תא
you are to prepare between the setting times,
Num. 28:5 and a tenth of an ephah of flour,
for a grain gift, mixed with oil,
crushed, a fourth of a hin,
Num. 28:6 the continual olah prepared at Mount Sinai
for a soothing aroma,

an offering by fire to YAHWEH,
Num. 28:7 and its drink offering,
a fourth of a hin for the first lamb.
In The Set Apart Place
it is to be poured out,
a drink offering of intoxicant to YAHWEH.

Num. 28:8 And the second lamb itself תן
you are to prepare between the setting times.
Like the grain gift of the morning
and like its drink offering you are to prepare it,
an offering by fire,
a soothing aroma to YAHWEH.

Num. 28:9 And on the day of The Sabbath,
two lambs of the first year, whole,
and two tenth measures of flour,
for a grain gift, mixed with oil,
and its drink offering,
Num. 28:10 the Sabbath olah on its Sabbath
as well as the regular olah,
and its drink offering.

Num. 28:11 And on the heads of your new moons
you are to bring near an olah to YAHWEH,
two bulls, young of the herd,
one ram,
lambs of the first year, seven, whole,
Num. 28:12 and three tenth measures of flour
for a grain gift, mixed with oil for one bull,
and two tenth measures of flour
for a grain gift, mixed with oil, for one ram,
Num. 28:13 and a tenth,
a tenth of flour for a grain gift,
mixed with oil, for one lamb, an olah,
a soothing aroma,
an offering by fire to YAHWEH,
Num. 28:14 and with their drink offerings,
half a hin will be for the bull
and a third of a hin for the ram, and a fourth of a hin for the lamb, of wine.

That is the new moon olah on its new moon
for the new moons of the year.

Num. 28:15 And one hairy goat
as a offense offering to YAHWEH,
as well as the continual olah is to be prepared,
and its drink offering.

Num. 28:16 And in the first new moon
on the fourteenth day after the new moon
is Passover to YAHWEH.

Num. 28:17 And on the fifteenth day
after this new moon is a festival!
For seven days
unleavened bread is to be eaten!

Num. 28:18 On the first day
is a set apart convocation.
Any employment task is not to be done.

Num. 28:19 And you are to bring near
an offering by fire,
an olah to YAHWEH,
bulls, young of the herd, two, and one ram,
and seven lambs of the first year,
whole are they to be for you,
Num. 28:20 and their grain gift,
flour mixed with oil,
three tenth measures for the bull,
and two tenth measures for the ram
you are to prepare.

Num. 28:21 A tenth,
a tenth measure you are to prepare for one lamb, for the seven lambs, Num. 28:22 and one male goat
as an offense offering
to make atonement for you,
Num. 28:23 separate from the morning olah
which is for the continual olah.

You are to prepare these themselves nx.

Num. 28:24 According to these you are to prepare each day for seven days as food,
an offering by fire,
a soothing aroma to YAHWEH.
Upon the continual olah you are to prepare it
and its drink offering.

Num. 28:25 And on the seventh day,
a set apart convocation there is to be for you.
Any employment task you are not to do!

Num. 28:26 And on the day of The First Fruits, in your bringing near
a new grain gift to YAHWEH,
on your Shavuot,
a set apart convocation there is to be for you.
Any employment task you are not to do!

Shavuot is often called The Feast of Weeks.
It is also referred to as Pentecost since it is 50 days after Passover and Unleavened Bread (which, incidentally,
is also referred to by some
as The Feast of Weeks, confusing it with Shavuot.).

Num. 28:27 And you are to bring near as an olah,
a soothing aroma to YAHWEH,
bulls, young of the herd two, one ram,
seven lambs of the first year,
Num. 28:28 and their grain gift,
flour mixed with oil,
three tenth measures for one bull,
two tenth measures for one ram,
Num. 28:29 a tenth,
a tenth measure for one lamb
for the seven lambs,
Num. 28:30 one hairy goat
to make atonement for you,
Num. 28:31 separate from the continual olah
and its grain gift you are to prepare.
Whole are they to be for you,
with their drink offerings.

Chapter 29

Num. 29:1 And in the seventh new moon,
on the first of the New moon,
a set apart convocation there is to be for you.
Any employment task you are not to do.

A Day of Horn Blasting it is to be for you.

Yom Teru'ah - Day of Trumpets,
or Feast of Trumpets
is the traditional rendering of this day.

Teru'ah means clamor, loud noise.
It's associated with the silver trumpets used in Yisra'el for various purposes of notifying the community of an important event.

There is no mention in the text of the word for "trumpet" or for "shofar".

This has been rendered
as a day of "joyful shouting".

A Day of Horn Blasts seems fitting since there is a definite loud sound from such.

This day is also directly associated with the "Year of Jubilee", which is more properly
The Year of Yobel, or trumpet.

Tradition has overpowered the text itself.
There are many associations made with this event
that are also based on tradition.
You'll need to decide for yourself
what is to be done.

Num. 29:2 And you are to prepare an olah,
a soothing aroma to YAHWEH,
one bull, a young of the herd, one ram,
lambs of the first year seven, whole,
Num. 29:3 and their grain gift,
flour mixed with oil,
three tenth measures for a bull,
two tenth measures for a ram,
Num. 29:4 one tenth measure for one lamb
for the seven lambs,
Num. 29:5 and one hairy goat
for an offense offering
to make atonement for you,
Num. 29:6 separate from the new moon olah
and its grain gift,
and the continual olah and its grain gift
and their drink offerings
according to their regulation,
a soothing aroma,
an offering by fire to YAHWEH.

Num. 29:7 And on the tenth of this seventh new moon
a set apart convocation there is to be for you.

And you are to humble your lives themselves nx.
Any employment you are not to do!

This is traditionally referred to as The Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur.
There is no reference in this verse to 'kippur', nor to 'day'.

'anah - to depress literally or figuratively,
transitive or intransitive.
The concept is that of humbling oneself,
depressing one's attitude below that of others.

Again we find that "tradition"
has caused this to mean "afflict", not 'humble'.
There's a significant difference between these ideas.

What is to be humbled is one's nephesh
- properly, a breathing creature,
i.e. animal of (abstractly) vitality.
It refers to one's existence, being, life.

It does NOT refer to one's 'soul'.
That is a Greek concept
that did not exist in ancient Yisra'el.

Num. 29:8 And you are to bring near
an olah to YAHWEH, a soothing aroma,
one bull, a young of the herd, one ram, lambs of the first year, seven,
whole are they to be for you,
Num. 29:9 and their grain gift,
flour mixed with oil,
three tenth measures for a bull,
two tenth measures for one ram,
Num. 29:10 a tenth,
a tenth measure for one lamb
for the seven lambs,
Num. 29:11 one hairy goat

for an offense offering,
separate from the offense offering,
the atonement,
and the continual olah,
its grain gift, and their drink offerings.

Num. 29:12 And on the fifteenth day
of the seventh new moon
a set apart convocation there is to be for you.
Any employment task you are not to do!

And you are to observe a festival to YAHWEH
for seven days.

Num. 29:13 And you are to bring near
as an olah,
an offering by fire,
a soothing aroma to YAHWEH,
bulls, young of the herd, thirteen, rams two,
lambs of the first year, fourteen;
whole they are to be,

Num. 29:14 and their grain gift,
flour mixed with oil,
three tenth measures for one bull
for the thirteen bulls,
two tenth measures for one ram,
for the two rams,

Num. 29:15 and a tenth,
a tenth measure for one lamb
for the fourteen lambs,

Num. 29:16 and one hairy goat
for an offense offering,
separate from the continual olah,
its grain gift, and its drink offerings.

Num. 29:17 And on the second day, bulls, young of the herd, twelve, rams two,
lambs of the first year, fourteen, whole,
Num. 29:18 and their grain gift,
and their drink offerings for the bulls,
for the rams, and for the lambs,
according to their number,
according to the regulation,
Num. 29:19 and one hairy goat
for an offense offering,
separate from the continual olah,
its grain gift, and their drink offerings.

Num. 29:20 And on the third day, bulls eleven,
rams two, lambs of the first year fourteen, whole,
Num. 29:21 and their grain gift,
and their drink offerings for the bulls,
for the rams, and for the lambs,
according to their number,
according to the regulation,
Num. 29:22 and one hairy goat
for an offense offering,
separate from the continual olah,
its grain gift, and its drink offering.

Num. 29:23 And on the fourth day, bulls ten,
rams two, lambs of the first year, fourteen, whole,
Num. 29:24 their grain gift and their drink offerings
for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs,
according to their number,
according to the regulation,
Num. 29:25 and one hairy goat
for an offense offering,
separate from the continual olah,
its grain gift, and its drink offering.

Num. 29:26 And on the fifth day, bulls nine,
rams two, lambs of the first year, fourteen, whole,
Num. 29:27 and their grain gift
and their drink offerings for the bulls,

for the rams, and for the lambs,
according to their number,
according to the regulation,
Num. 29:28 and one hairy goat
for an offense offering,
separate from the continual olah,
and its grain gift, and its drink offering.

Num. 29:29 And on the sixth day, bulls eight,
rams two, lambs of the first year, fourteen, whole,
Num. 29:30 and their grain gift
and their drink offerings for the bulls,
for the rams, and for the lambs,
according to their number,
according to the regulation,
Num. 29:31 and one hairy goat
for an offense offering,
separate from the continual olah,
and its grain gift, and its drink offering.

Num. 29:32 And on the seventh day, bulls seven,
rams two, lambs of the first year,
for the rams, and for the lambs,
according to their number,
according to the regulation,
Num. 29:34 and one hairy goat
for an offense offering,
separate from the continual olah,
and its grain gift, and its drink offering.

Num. 29:35 On the eighth day
an assembly there is to be for you.
Any employment task you are not to do!

This is often identified as "restraint",
or "solemn assembly",
but there is no specific word
in the text for either one.

The term for assembly that's used here
is different from the normally used term.
Here it is 'atsarah - an assembly,
especially on a festival or holiday.

The root for this word
means to enclose, restrict.
It appears that it is from this connotation
that the concept of a "solemn assembly" has come,
although the text does not state this.

Num. 29:36 And you are to bring near
as an olah,
an offering by fire,
a soothing aroma to YAHWEH,
one bull, one ram,
lambs of the first year, seven, whole,
Num. 29:37 their grain gift
and their drink offerings,
for a bull, for a ram, and for the lambs,
according to their number,
according to the regulation,
Num. 29:38 and one hairy goat
for an offense offering,
separate from the continual olah,
and its grain gift, and its drink offering.

Num. 29:39 These you are to prepare for YAHWEH
at your appointed times,
separate from your promise offerings
and your spontaneous offerings,
your olahs or your grain gifts,
or your drink offerings,
or your sacrifice of shelem offerings.

Chapter 30 starts here in the Hebrew text.

Num. 29.40 (H30:1)
And Moshe spoke
to the children of Yisra'el
according to everything which YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself אָנְךָ.

Chapter 30

Num. 30:1 (H30.2)
And Moshe spoke to the heads of the tribes
of the children of Yisra'el saying,
"This is the word that YAHWEH has directed.

Num. 30:2 (H30.3)
A man who promises a promise to YAHWEH
or swears an oath to bind his life is not to profane his word.
According to everything
going out of his mouth he is to do.

Num. 30:3 (H30.4)
And a woman,
when she promises a promise to YAHWEH
or binds herself with a binding obligation
in her father's house in her youth,
Num. 30:4 (H30.5)
and her father hears her promise itself אָנְךָ
or her obligation
by which she has bound her life,
but her father is silent to her,
all her promises will stand.
And all her obligations by which
she has bound her life will stand.

Num. 30:5 (H30.6)
But if her father restrains her herself אָנְךָ
on the day of his hearing it,
all her promises and her obligations
by which she binds her life will not stand.
And YAHWEH will forgive her because her father
has restrained her herself אָנְךָ.

Num. 30:6 (H30.7)
And if she is married to a man
while her promises are upon her,
or a rash statement of her lips,
by which she has bound her life,
Num. 30:7 (H30.8)
and her husband has heard it,
and on the day of his hearing he is silent to her,
her vows will stand.

All her obligations by which
she has bound her life will stand.
Num. 30:8. (H30.9)
But if in the day of his hearing it her husband restrains her herself אָנְךָ
then he breaks
her promise itself אָנְךָ that is upon her or the rash statement of her lips itself אָנְךָ
by which she has bound her life.
And YAHWEH will forgive her.

Num. 30:9 (H30.10)
And the promise of a widow
or one driven out,
anything by which she has bound her life,
will stand upon her.

Num. 30:10 (H30.11)
And if in the house of her husband she made a promise or bound her life with an obligation by oath
Num. 30:11 (H30.12)
and her husband heard,
but was silent to her,

not restraining her herself תא,
then all her promises will stand and all the obligations by which she bound her life will stand.

Num. 30:12 (H30.13)
But if her husband has broken,
has broken they themselves תא
on the day of his hearing it,
then everything going out of her lips concerning her promises
and obligations of her life will not stand.
Her husband has broken them.
And YAHWEH will forgive her.

Num. 30:13 (H30.14)
Every promise and every oath of binding for the sake of humbling her life
her husband will cause to stand,
or her husband will break.

Num. 30:14 (H30.15)
And if her husband is silent,
silent toward her from day to day,
then he has caused to stand
all her promises themselves תא
or all her obligations themselves תא
that are upon her.
They themselves תא are caused to stand because he was silent toward her
on the day of his hearing it.

Num. 30:15 (H30.16)
And if he breaks,
breaks they themselves תא
after his hearing them,
then he will bear her perversion itself תא.

Num. 30:16 (H30.17)
These are the rules
which YAHWEH directed Moshe himself תא
between a man and his wife, between a father and his daughter in her youth
in the house of her father.

Chapter 31

Num. 31:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 31:2 "Avenge the children of Yisra'el with vengeance against the Midyanites themselves תא!
Afterward you will be gathered to your people."

Num. 31:3 And Moshe spoke
to the people saying,
"Draw out from among you yourselves תא
an assembly of men for war.
And they are to be against Midyan
to give the vengeance of YAHWEH in Midyan.

Num. 31:4 A thousand for a tribe,
a thousand for a tribe
for each of the tribes of Yisra'el,
you are to send out for battle."

Num. 31:5 And there were separated from the divisions of Yisra'el
a thousand per tribe,
twelve thousand drawn out for battle.

Num. 31:6 And Moshe sent out
they themselves תא,
a thousand per tribe, to battle,
they themselves תא, and Pin'has himself תא,
son of El'azar, the priest, to battle.

And the set apart implements and the trumpets for sounding blasts
were in his hand.

Num. 31:7 And they assembled against Midyan
as YAHWEH had directed Moshe himself אָ.
And they killed every male.

This was a serious error,
for they were supposed to kill EVERY person,
man, woman, and child!

Num. 31:8 And the kings of Midyan themselves אָ
they killed with the wounded, Evi himself אָ,
and Rekem himself אָ,
and Tzur himself אָ,
and Hur himself אָ,
and Reva himself אָ,
The five kings of Midyan
and Bil'am himself אָ, son of Be'or,
they killed with the sword.

Num. 31:9 And the children of Yisra'el
carried into captivity
the women of Midyan themselves אָ,
and their little ones themselves אָ,
and their animals themselves אָ,
and all their acquired wealth itself אָ,
and all their goods themselves אָ
they plundered.

Num. 31:10 And all their towns themselves אָ
in their settlements,
and all their fortresses themselves אָ
they burned with fire.

Num. 31:11 And they took all the spoil itself אָ
and all the prey itself אָ
among human beings and animals.
Num. 31:12 And they brought to Moshe
and to El'azar, the priest,
and to the children of Yisra'el
the captives themselves אָ,
and the prey itself אָ,
and the spoil itself אָ,
to the encampment at the plains of Mo'ab
that are along The Yarden at Yericho.

Num. 31:13 And Moshe, and El'azar, the priest,
and all the leaders of the assembly
went out to meet them outside the camp.

Num. 31:14 And Moshe burst out in rage against those accountable for forces, the officers of thousands and the officers of hundreds,
those coming from the battle of the war.

Num. 31:15 And Moshe said to them,
"Why have you let live all the females?"

Num. 31:16 These are they who caused the children of Yisra'el
by means of the word of Bil'am to commit treachery against YAHWEH
in the matter of Pe'or.

And there was a plague
against the assembly of YAHWEH!

Num. 31:17 And now, kill every male
among the little ones.
And every woman who has known a man
by lying with a male you are to kill!

Num. 31:18 And all the younger ones
among the women who have not known lying with a male

you may keep alive for yourselves.

Num. 31:19 And you yourselves תא
are to camp outside the camp
for seven days,
anyone who killed a life,
or anyone who has touched a pierced one.
You are to undefile yourselves
on the third day
and on the seventh day,
you yourselves תא and your captives.

Killing, even when directed by YAHWEH, causes a person to be defiled,
so a period of 7 days
was required for their cleansing.

NOTE: There are times
when the destruction of others,
at the express direction of YAHWEH,
is necessary, AND important.
There are reasons YAHWEH directed such things.
We typically don't get it.
We are confused by this approach to others
when directed by a God of love and compassion.
Yet, there are times when YAHWEH
acts in our best interest to eliminate potential FUTURE problems that we cannot possibly anticipate!
In this case YAHWEH wanted to remove a source of corruption from the midst of Yisra'el.
They would later pay dearly
for the mistake made here because of their own selfishness!

Num. 31:20 And any garment
and anything made with animal skin,
and anything that uses goats hair,
and every vessel using wood
you are to undefile."

Num. 31:21 And El'azar, the priest,
said to the men of the force,
those who went to war,
"This is the rule that YAHWEH
has directed Moshe himself תא.

Num. 31:22 Surely, the gold itself תא,
and the silver itself תא,
the copper itself תא,
the iron itself תא,
the tin itself תא,
and the lead itself תא,

Num. 31:23 anything that can go through fire
you are to pass over with fire.
Then it will be undefiled.
However, in waters of separation
it is to be undefiled.
And anything that cannot go through fire
you are to pass over with water.

Num. 31:24 And you are to wash your garments
on the seventh day.
Then you will be undefiled.
And afterward you may come into the camp."

Num. 31:25 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 31:26 "Lift up the heads themselves תא
of the prey,

the ones taken captive
among human beings and among animals,
you yourself תא, and El'azar, the priest,
and the heads of the fathers of the assembly.

Num. 31:27 And you are to split into two the prey itself תא
between those handling the battle,
those going out to the war,

and the entire assembly.

Num. 31:28 And you are to raise an assessment for YAHWEH from the men of battle themselves תָּא, those going out with the troops, one life from five hundred, from human beings, and from cattle, and from she asses, and from sheep.

Num. 31:29 From their half you are to take it. And you are to give it to El'azar, the priest, an elevated gift to YAHWEH.

Num. 31:30 And from the half of the children of Yisra'el you are to take one withheld from the fifty, from human beings, from cattle, from she assess, and from sheep, from all the animals. And you are to give they themselves תָּא to the Levites, those protecting the duty of YAHWEH's Dwelling.

Num. 31:31 And Moshe and El'azar, the priest, did according to what YAHWEH had directed Moshe himself תָּא.

Num. 31:32 And the spoil, the prey which had been plundered by the men of the forces was, sheep, six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand, Num. 31:33 and cattle, two and seventy thousand, Num. 31:34 and she asses, one and sixty thousand, Num. 31:35 and breathing lives, from the women who had not known lying with a male, all the lives, two and thirty thousand.

Num. 31:36 And the half portion, the portion of those going out in the forces, the number of sheep, three hundred thousand and thirty thousand and seven thousand and five hundred.

Num. 31:37 And the assessment for YAHWEH from the sheep was six hundred and five and seventy, Num. 31:38 and from the cattle, six and thirty thousand, and their assessment for YAHWEH, two and seventy.

Num. 31:39 And the she asses, thirty thousand and five hundred, and their assessment for YAHWEH, one and sixty,

Num. 31:40 And human beings, sixteen thousand, and their assessment for YAHWEH, two and thirty persons.

Num. 31:41 And Moshe gave the assessment itself תָּא of the elevated gift to YAHWEH to El'azar, the priest, according to what YAHWEH had directed Moshe himself תָּא.

Num. 31:42 And the half of the children of Yisra'el that Moshe had divided from the men waging war,
Num. 31:43 and the half for the assembly was from the sheep, three hundred thousand and thirty thousand and seven thousand and five hundred,
Num. 31:44 and cattle, six and thirty thousand,
Num. 31:45 and she asses, thirty thousand and five hundred,
Num. 31:46 and lives of human beings, sixteen thousand.

Num. 31:47 And Moshe took from the half of the children of Yisra'el the one withheld out of fifty itself תא from the human beings and from the animals.
And he gave they themselves תא to the Levites who were protecting the duties of The Dwelling of YAHWEH according to what YAHWEH had directed Moshe himself תא.

Num. 31:48 And there came near to Moshe the officers who were with the thousands of the forces, officers of thousands and officers of hundreds.
Num. 31:49 And they said to Moshe, "Your servants have lifted up the heads themselves תא of the men of the battle who are in our hand. And not a man is missing!
Num. 31:50 And we have brought near an approach offering itself תא to YAHWEH, each man who found a vessel of gold, armlets or bracelets, rings, earrings, or ornaments, for the sake of making atonement for our lives before the face of YAHWEH.

Num. 31:51 And Moshe and El'azar, the priest, took the gold itself תא from they themselves תא, all kinds of implements of fine workmanship.

Num. 31:52 And all the gold of the elevated gift that they raised for YAHWEH was sixteen thousand and seven hundred and fifty shekels from the officers of thousands themselves תא and from the officers of hundreds themselves תא.

Num. 31:53 The men of the forces kept as plunder what was his.

Num. 31:54 And Moshe and El'azar, the priest, took the gold itself תא from they themselves תא, the officers of thousands and the officers of hundreds.
And they brought it itself תא to The Tent of Appointment as a memorial for the children of Yisra'el before the face of YAHWEH.

Chapter 32

Num. 32:1 And abundant livestock existed for the Sons of Re'uben and the Sons of Gad, exceedingly numerous.
And they saw the land of Ya'zer itself תא and the land of Gil'ad itself תא.
And behold!
The place was a place for livestock.
Gil'ad means heap of witness.

Ya'zer means helpful.

Num. 32:2 And the sons of Gad
and the sons of Re'uben
came and spoke to Moshe,
and to El'azar, the priest,
and to the leaders of the assembly saying,
Num. 32:3 "Atarot and Dibon,
and Ya'zer and Nimra,
and Heshbon and El'aleh, and Sevam,
and Nebo, and Be'on,

Atarot means crowns.

Dibon means moping.

Nimra means clear water.

Heshbon means contrivance.

El'aleh means El is going up, rising.

Sevam means spice, fragrance.

Nebo is the name of a foreign deity.

Be'on means dwelling of On.

Num. 32:4 the land that YAHWEH
has caused to be struck
before the assembly of Yisra'el,
it is a land for livestock,
and your servants have livestock."
Num. 32:5 And they said,
"If we have found favor in your eyes
let this land itself נא
be given to your servants as a possession.
Do not make us pass over The Yarden itself נא!"

Num. 32:6 And Moshe said to the Sons of Gad
and to the Sons of Re'uben,
"Should your brothers go out to battle
but you yourselves נא, you stay here?
Num. 32:7 And why would you discourage the heart itself נא of the children of Yisra'el from passing over into the land that YAHWEH has given to them?

Num. 32:8 According to this did your fathers
when I sent they themselves נא
out of Kadesh Barne'a to see the land itself נא.
Num. 32:9 And they went up
as far as Wadi Eshkol.
And they saw the land itself נא.
But they discouraged the heart itself נא
of the children of Yisra'el.
And they did not go into the land that YAHWEH had given to them.

Num. 32:10 And the anger of YAHWEH
flared up on that very day.
And He swore an oath saying,
Num. 32:11 If they should see,
the men coming up from Mitsraim
from the age of twenty and upward,
the soil itself נא of which I swore an oath
to Abraham, to Yitzhak and to Ya'akov...!

Indeed, they did not fully follow Me
Num. 32:12 except Kaleb,
son of Yefunne, the Kenizzite,
and Yahoshua, son of Nun.
Indeed, they followed fully after YAHWEH.

Num. 32:13 And the anger of YAHWEH
flared up against Yisra'el.
And he caused them
to wander in the wilderness for forty years,
until it came to an end,
the whole generation that was doing what was bad in the eyes of YAHWEH.

Num. 32:14 And behold!
You have stood up in place of your fathers,

offspring of guilty men,
for the sake of adding further to the burning anger
of YAHWEH against Yisra'el!

Num. 32:15 If you turn back from following Him
He will add still more
to their dwelling in the wilderness!
And you will bring ruin upon this whole people!"

Num. 32:16 And they approached him.
And they said,
"Sheepfolds for our flocks we will build here,
and towns for our little ones.
Num. 32:17 But we ourselves will depart eagerly
before the children of Yisra'el
until we have brought them to their places.

But our little ones will dwell in towns, fortified from the face of the inhabitants of the land.

Num. 32:18 We will not return to our houses
until the children of Yisra'el have occupied each man's inheritance.

Num. 32:19 Indeed, we will not inherit with they themselves nx
on the other side of The Yarden and beyond because our inheritance has come to us
on the other side of The Yarden,
toward sunrise."

Num. 32:20 And Moshe said to them,
"If you will do these words themselves nx,
if you will depart before YAHWEH for battle,
Num. 32:21 and you will pass over
The Yarden itself nx
with all your departing men
before the face of YAHWEH
until He has dispossessed His adversaries
from before His face, Num. 32:22 and the land is subdued
before the face of YAHWEH,
then afterward you may return.
And you will be innocent
before the face YAHWEH
and in the presence of Yisra'el.
And this land will be for you for a possession
before the face of YAHWEH.

Num. 32:23 But if you do not do according to this,
behold!
You will have offended against YAHWEH.
And know your offense,
that it will be revealed to you yourselves nx!

Num. 32:24 Build for yourselves towns for your little ones
and sheepfolds for your flocks.
And do what is going out of your mouths!"

Num. 32:25 And the Sons of Gad
and the Sons of Re'uben
spoke to Moshe saying,
"Your servants will do
according to what my master directs!

Num. 32:26 Our little ones,
our wives,
our livestock
and all our animals will exist there,
in towns of The Gil'ad.
Num. 32:27 But your servants will pass over,

everyone departing of the forces,
before the face YAHWEH for battle
according to what my master has spoken."

Num. 32:28 And Moshe directed concerning them
El'azar himself תא, the priest,
and Yahoshua himself תא, son of Nun,
and the heads themselves תא of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Yisra'el.

Num. 32:29 And Moshe said to them,
"If the sons of Gad and the sons of Re'uben
pass over The Yarden itself תא
with you yourselves תא,
everyone departing for battle
before the face of YAHWEH,
and the land is conquered before you then you may give to them
the land of Gil'ad itself תא for an inheritance.

Num. 32:30 But if those departing
do not pass over with you yourselves תא
then they will receive possessions
in your midst in the land of Kena'an."

Num. 32:31 And The Sons of Gad
and the Sons of Re'uben responded saying,
The words themselves תא that YAHWEH
has spoken to your servants,
according to this will we do!

Num. 32:32 We ourselves will pass over,
departing before the face of YAHWEH
into the land of Kena'an.

And our own תא possessed inheritance
will be on the other side of The Yarden."

Num. 32:33 And Moshe gave to them,
to the Sons of Gad,
and the Sons of Re'uben,
and half the tribe of Menashe, son of Yosef,
the kingdom itself תא of Sihon,
king of the Amorites,
and the kingdom itself תא of Og,
king of Bashan,
the land beside its towns within their borders,
the towns of the land all around.

Num. 32:34 And the Sons of Gad
built Dibon itself תא, Atarot itself תא,
and Aro'er itself תא,

Aro'er means bare.

Num. 32:37 And the Sons of Re'uben built Heshbon itself תא,
and El'aleh itself תא,
and Kiryataim itself תא,

Kiryataim means double city.

Num. 32:38 and Nebo itself תא,
and Ba'al Me'on itself תא,
having changed the names,
and Sivma itself תא.

And they called by other names,
the names themselves תא
of the towns that they built.

Num. 32:39 And the sons of Makhir, son of Menashe, went to Gil'ad.
And they captured it.
And they dispossessed
the Amorites themselves תא who were in it.
Num. 32:40 And Moshe gave Gil'ad itself תא
to Makhir, son of Menashe.
And he settled there.

Num. 32:41 And Ya'ir, son of Menashe,
went and captured their villages themselves תא.
And he called they themselves תא
Havvot-ya'ir.
Ya'ir means enlightener, or enlightened one.
Havvot-ya'ir means fortified towns of Ya'ir.

Num. 32:42 And Nobah went.
And he captured Kenat itself תא
and its daughter villages themselves תא.
And he called it Nobah like his name.
Nobah means to bark.
Kenat means possession.

Chapter 33

Num. 33:1 These are the departures
of the children of Yisra'el
who came out from the land of Mitsraim
by their assemblies
by the hand of Moshe and Aharon.

in the first new moon on the fifteenth day of the first New moon.
On the day after The Passover
the children of Yisra'el went out with a high hand,
before the eyes of all Mitsraim!

Num. 33:4 And Mitsraim was burying those themselves תא whom YAHWEH
had struck dead among them,
all the firstborn!

Even against their gods
YAHWEH had made judgments.

Num. 33:5 And the children of Yisra'el

And they encamped at Mount Hor,
at the edge of the land of Edom.

Hor means hill, mountain.

Edom means red. \(Ya'akov's brother.\)

Num. 33:38 And Aharon, the priest, went up on Mount Hor
according to the mouth of YAHWEH.
And he died there in the fortieth year,
according to the going out
of the children of Yisra'el
from the land of Mitsraim,
in the fifth new moon,
on the first of the new moon.

Num. 33:39 And Aharon was three and twenty and a hundred years old when he died at Mount Hor.

Num. 33:40 And the Kena'anite king of Arad heard.
And he was dwelling in The Negev,
in the land of Kena'an.

Num. 33:41 And they journeyed from Mount Hor.
And they encamped at Tzalmona.

Tzalmona means shades, shadows.

Num. 33:42 And they journeyed from Tzalmona.
And they encamped at Punon.

Punon means perplexity.

Num. 33:43 And they journeyed from Punon.
And they encamped at Obot.

Obot means water skins.

Num. 33:44 And they journeyed from Obot.
And they encamped at Iyyei Ha-avarim,
in the territory of Mo'ab.

Iyyei Ha-avarim

means ruins of the passers.

Mo'ab means from her father \(Lot\).

Num. 33:45 And they journeyed from Iyyim.
And they encamped at Dibon Gad.

Dibon Gad means moping of Gad.

Num. 33:46 And they journeyed from Dibon Gad.
And they encamped at Almon Diblatayim.

Num. 33:47 And they journeyed
from Almon Diblatayim.
And they encamped in the Hills of Abarim,
before Nebo.

Abarim means regions across.

Nebo - meaning uncertain. Babylonian deity.

Num. 33:48 And they journeyed
from the Hills of the Abarim.
And they encamped in the Plains of Mo'ab
beside The Yarden at Yericho.

Yarden means descending.
Yericho means fragrant,
but meaning is uncertain.

Num. 33:49 And they encamped along The Yarden from Bayit Yeshimot as far as Abel Shittim/Acacia Meadow,
in the Plains of Mo'ab.

Bayit Yeshimot means house of the deserts.
Abel Shittim means acacia meadow.

Num. 33:50 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe
in the Plains of Mo'ab,
beside The Yarden at Yericho saying,
Num. 33:51 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el.

And say to them,
"When you yourself תא
pass over The Yarden itself תא
into the land of Kena'an

Num. 33:52 you are to drive out all the inhabitants themselves תא of the land
from before you.

Then you are to destroy
all their carved figures themselves תא!
And all their molten images themselves תא
you are to destroy!
And all their high places themselves תא
you are to desolate!

Num. 33:53 And you are to take possession
of the land itself תא.
And you are to settle in it.
Indeed, to you I have given the land itself תא
for the sake of possessing it itself תא.

Num. 33:54 And You are to cause yourselves to inherit the land itself תא
according to lot by your families.
For more you are to increase their inheritance itself תא.
And for the few you are to decrease
their inheritance itself תא.
To whomever the lot falls it is to be theirs.
By the tribes of your fathers you are to inherit.

Num. 33:55 But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land themselves תא
from before you,
then those who are left of them
will be as briars in your eyes,
as thorns in your sides.
And they will distress you yourselves תא
upon the land that you yourselves תא
are dwelling in.

Num. 33:56 And it will exist
that just like I am doing to them
I will do to you!"

Chapter 34

Num. 34:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Num. 34:2 "Direct the children of Yisra'el themselves תא and say to them,

"When you yourself תא
go into the land of Kena'an
this is the land
that will fall to you as an inheritance,
the land of Kena'an
according to its boundaries.

Num. 34:3 And the south boundary will be for you
from the Wilderness of Tzyn

by the side of Edom.

And the south boundary will be for you from the edge of the Sea of Salt, on the east.

Num. 34:4 And the boundary will turn for you from the ascent of Akrabim.

And it will pass over to Tzyn.

And its goings will be from the south side of Kadesh Barne'a.

And it will go to Hatzar Addar and pass over to Atzmon.

Akrabim mean scorpions.

Hatzar Addar means village of plenty.

Atzmon means bone like.

Num. 34:5 And the boundary will go around from Atzmon toward the Wadi of Mitsraim.

And its goings will be to The Sea.

Num. 34:6 And the western boundary will be for you The Great Sea.

And this boundary will be for you the western boundary.

Num. 34:7 And this will be for you the north boundary.

From the Great Sea

you are to mark off for yourselves to Mount Hor.

Num. 34:8 From Mount Hor

you are to mark out to Lebo Hamat.

And the goings of the boundary

will be to Tzedad.

Lebo Hamat means wall of the lion.

Tzedad means a siding.

Num. 34:9 And the boundary will go out to Zifron.

And its goings will be to Hatzar Einan.

This will be for you the northern boundary.

Zifron means to be fragrant.

Hatzar Einan means village of springs.

Num. 34:10 And you are to mark out for yourselves for the eastern boundary from Hatzar Einan to Shefam.

Shefam means bare spot.

Num. 34:11 And the boundary will go down from Shefam to Ribla, on the east of Ayin.

And the boundary will go down and touch on the shoulder of the Sea of Kinneret, on the east.

Ribla means to be fruitful, fertile.

Ayin means spring; fountain; eye.

Kinneret is another name

for The Sea of Galilee.

It means harp-shaped possibly.

Num. 34:12 And the boundary will go down The Yarden.

And its goings will be to The Sea of Salt.

This will be for you the land

according to its boundaries all around! "

Num. 34:13 And Moshe directed

the children of Yisra'el themselves תָּא saying,

"This is the land which you yourselves תָּא

are to inherit by lot,

which YAHWEH has directed is to be given to the nine tribes and the half tribe

Num. 34:14 because the tribe of the sons of the Re'ubenites,

according to their father's house,

and the tribe of the sons of the Gadites,

according to their fathers' house,

and half of the tribe of Menashe

have taken their inheritance.

Num. 34:15 Two tribes and the half tribe

have taken their inheritance

on the opposite side of The Yarden

by Yericho, eastward toward sunrise."

Num. 34:16 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,
Num. 34:17 "These are the names of the men who are to distribute the inheritance for you
of the land itself תא.
El'azar, the priest,
and Yahoshua, son of Nun,
Num. 34:18 and one leader,
one leader of a tribe you are to take
for the sake of distributing the inheritance
of the land itself תא.

Num. 34:19 And these are the names of the men.
For the tribe of Yahudah,
Kaleb, son of Yefunne.
Num. 34:20 And for the tribe of the sons of Shim'on, Shemu'el, son of Ammihud.
Num. 34:21 For the tribe of Binyamin,
Elidad, son of Kislou.
Num. 34:22 And for the tribe of the sons of Dan, leader Bukki, son of Yogli.
Num. 34:23 For the sons of Yosef,
for the tribe of the sons of Menashe,
leader Hanniel, son of Efod.
Num. 34:24 And for the tribe of the sons of Ephraim,
leader Kemiel, son of Shiftan.
Num. 34:25 And for the tribe of the sons of Zebulun, leader Elitzafan, son of Parnakh.
Num. 34:26 And for the tribe of the sons of Yissaskar, leader Paltiel, son of Azzan.
Num. 34:27 And for the tribe of the sons of Asher, leader Ahihud, son of Shelomi.
Num. 34:28 And for the tribe of the sons of Naftali, leader Pedah'el, son of Ammihud."

Num. 34:29 These are the ones whom YAHWEH has directed for he sake of giving inheritance
for the children of Yisra'el themselves תא
in the land of Kena'an.

Chapter 35

Num. 35:1 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe
in the Plains of Mo'ab
beside The Yarden at Yericho saying,
Num. 35:2 "Direct
the children of Yisra'el themselves תא.
And they are to give to the Levites
from their inheritance possession of towns to dwell in.
And pasture land for the towns around them
they are to give to the Levites.
Num. 35:3 And the towns are to be or them to dwell in.
And their pasture lands
are to be for their livestock,
and for their harvesting,
and for all their animals.
Num. 35:4 And the pasture lands of the towns
that you are to give to the Levites
are to be from the wall of the town and outward a thousand cubits all around.
Num. 35:5 And you are to measure
from the outside of the town,
the eastern limit itself תא
two thousand by the cubit,
and the southern limit itself תא
two thousand by the cubit,
and the western limit itself תא
two thousand by the cubit,
and the northern limit itself תא
two thousand by the cubit,
with the town in the middle.

This is to be for them
the pasture lands of the towns.

Num. 35:6 And of the towns themselves תא
that you are to give to the Levites,
six towns of refuge themselves תא you are to give for one killing another person to flee there.
And in addition you are to give
forty and two towns.

Num. 35:7 All the towns
that you are to give the Levites, forty and eight towns.
They themselves תא
and their pasture lands themselves תא.

Num. 35:8 And the towns
that you are to give to them from the possessions of the children of Yisra'el, from the many themselves תא
you are to increase,
from the few themselves תא
you are to decrease.
Each one according to his inheritance
which he has inherited is to give from his towns to the Levites."

Num. 35:9 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe saying,

Num. 35:10 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el
and say to them,
'Indeed, you yourselves תא
are passing over The Yarden itself תא
into the land of Kena'an.

Num. 35:11 And you are to select for yourselves towns.
Towns of refuge they are to be for you.
And one is to flee there for killing another,
having struck him inadvertently.

Num. 35:12 The towns are to be for you for the sake of refuge from the redeemer.
And the killer is not to be put to death
until he stands before the assembly for judgment.

The redeemer was a near kinsman who was responsible for avenging
the death of his relative.

The concept is that
of the kinsman redeemer.
It's treated differently
based upon the circumstances and what he is to redeem.
In this instance it refers to the blood of his relative.

Num. 35:13 And the towns that you are to give,
six towns of refuge there are to be for you.

Num. 35:14 Three of the towns themselves תא
you are to give on the other side of The Yarden.
And three of the towns themselves תא
you are to give in the land of Kena'an.

Towns of refuge they are to be
Num. 35:15 for the children of Yisra'el,
for the stranger,
and for the sojourner among them.
These six towns are to be for refuge,
for fleeing to for anyone who strikes a life inadvertently.

Num. 35:16 But if with an iron instrument
he struck him down and he died
he is a murderer,
He is to be put to death!
The murderer is to be put to death!

Num. 35:17 And if with a stone in hand
by which one can die
he struck him down and he died,

he is a murderer.
He is to be put to death!
The murderer is to be put to death!

Num. 35:18 Or with a wooden instrument in hand
by which one can die
he struck him down and he died
he is a murderer.
He is to be put to death!
The murderer is to be put to death!

Num. 35:19 The blood redeemer, he himself,
is to put to death the murderer himself נא.
On meeting with him
he is to put him to death.

Num. 35:20 And if in hatred he pushed him,
or threw something on him
by lying in wait and he died, Num. 35:21 or in hostility
he struck him with his hand
and he died he is to be put to death!
The one striking him, he is a murderer.
The blood redeemer is to put to death
the murderer himself נא on meeting him.

Num. 35:22 But if in an instant with no hostility he pushed him, or threw at him any implement without lying in wait,
Num. 35:23 or with any stone
by which one can die
without seeing he dropped it on him
and he died
then he was not an adversary to him.
And he was not seeking his harm.
Num. 35:24 And the assembly is to judge between the one striking and the blood redeemer
according to these regulations.
Num. 35:25 And the assembly is to snatch away
the killer himself נא from the hand of the blood redeemer.
And the assembly is to return he himself נא
to his town of refuge, there to where he fled.
And he is to dwell in it until the death of the Great Priest who was anointed,
he himself נא, with the set apart oil.

Num. 35:26 And if at the killer goes out, goes out from the boundary itself נא
of his town of refuge,
there to which he fled,
Num. 35:27 and the blood redeemer finds he himself נא outside the boundary
of his town of refuge,
then the redeemer of the blood
may kill the killer.
It is not bloodshed for him.
Num. 35:28 Indeed, in his town of refuge
he is to stay
until the death of the Great Priest.
And after the death of the Great Priest
the killer may return to the land of his possession.

Num. 35:29 And these are to be rules of judgment for you
for your generations
in all your settlements.

Num. 35:30 Anyone striking a life,
at the mouth of witnesses,
the killer himself נא is to be killed.

And one witness is not to be accepted
against the life to have him put to death.

Num. 35:31 You are not to accept a cover for the life of a murderer who is morally wrong
for the sake of being put to death.
Indeed, he is to be put to death,
put to death!

kopher - properly, a cover.
Figuratively, a redemption price.

This is a vitally important term.
It's the same term used in regard to The Messiah's redemption price,
His life itself,
which He paid for all who choose to trust fully in YAHWEH.

The guilt does not go away,
but it is covered by His shed blood!

Num. 35:32 And you are not to accept a cover for the sake of his fleeing to his town of refuge, for returning to dwell in the land
until the death of the Great Priest.

Num. 35:33 And you are not to corrupt
the land itself תא
which you yourselves תא are in because the blood itself defiles
the land itself תא.

And the land will not be covered for the blood that has been poured out in it except by his blood being being poured out.

Note the use of kopher again,
cover, in v. 32 and v. 33.
The Hebrew is awkward in v. 33,
but it means that only by shedding the blood of the one who originally shed someone's blood will the land receive a "covering" of the guilt brought about by shedding
the blood of a breathing being.

Num. 35:34 And you are not to defile
the land itself תא
in which you yourselves תא are dwelling,
in which I Myself am dwelling.

Indeed, I Myself, YAHWEH,
am dwelling in the midst
of the children of Yisra'el!"

Chapter 36

Num. 36:1 And there came near the heads of the fathers for a family of the sons of Gil'ad, son of Makhir, son of Menashe, of the families of the sons of Yosef.

And they spoke before Moshe
and before the leaders,
the heads of the fathers
of the children of Yisra'el.

Num. 36:2 And they said, "My master himself תא
has been directed by YAHWEH
to give out the land itself תא
as inheritance by lot to the children of Yisra'el.
And my master was directed by YAHWEH
to give the inheritance of Tzelofahad himself תא,
our brother, to his daughters.

Num. 36:3 And if they will be for one of the members of another tribe of the children of Yisra'el for wives then their inheritance will be removed from the inheritance of their fathers and will be added to the inheritance
of the tribe to which they exist.

And from our lot of inheritance
it will be removed.

Num. 36:4 And when there is a Horn Blast Year
for the children of Yisra'el
and their inheritance is added to the inheritance of the tribe for which they exist
then from the inheritance of our fathers' tribe their inheritance will be removed.

yowbel - the blast of a horn.
Traditionally translated as Jubilee or Year of The Jubilee.

It is the time for the return to themselves of each one's possession by lot
in the land of Kena'an.

Num. 36:5 And Moshe directed
the children of Yisra'el themselves nx
according to mouth of YAHWEH saying,
"Rightfully has the tribe
of the sons of Yosef spoken!
Num. 36:6 This is the word that YAHWEH has directed concerning the daughters of Tzelofahad saying,
'It is for goodness in their eyes for women.

However, for a family
from the tribe of their father
they are to be wives.
Num. 36:7 And the inheritance
of the children of Yisra'el
is not to revolve from tribe to tribe.
Indeed, each one is to cling to the inheritance
of his father's tribe of the children of Yisra'el.

Num. 36:8 And every daughter possessing an inheritance
from the tribes of the children of Yisra'el, to one from the family
of the tribe of her father
she is to be a wife
in order that the children of Yisra'el
are to occupy, each one,
the inheritance of his fathers.

Num. 36:9 And the inheritance from a tribe
is not to revolve to another tribe.
Indeed, each one's inheritance
is to cling to the tribes
of the children of Yisra'el.' "

Num. 36:10 According to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself nx,
according to this
did the daughters of Tzelofahad.

Num. 36:11 And they were married,
Mahla, and Tirtza, and Hogla,
and Milka, and No'a,
the daughters of Tzelofahad,
to the sons of their uncles.

Mahla means sickness.
Tirtza means delightful.
Hogla - meaning uncertain,
perhaps a partridge.
Milka means queen.
No'a means wavering.

Num. 36:12 From the families of the sons of Menashe, son of Yosef,
they were married.
And their inheritance existed within the tribe
of the family of their father.

Num. 36:13 These are the directives
and the regulations
which YAHWEH had directed
by the hand of Moshe
to the children of Yisra'el
in the Plains of Mo'ab
beside The Yarden at Yericho.

5. Deuteronomy - DEBARIM

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Deut. 1:1 These are the words which Moshe spoke to all Yisra'el
on the other side of The Yarden
in the wilderness,
in the desert before The Reed Sea
between Paran and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazerot, and Di Zahab,

debarim - words.

This is the source

for the Hebrew title for this scroll.

This is descriptive in far more than the literal sense

as will be seen

during your study of this text.

Paran means ornamental.

Tophel means

to smear of plaster with lime.

Laban means white.

Hazerot means yards, enclosures.

Di Zahab means

that which shimmers; or, gold.

Deut. 1:2 eleven days from Horeb
by way of Mount Se'ir
as far as Kadesh Barnea.

Horeb means desolate.

Se'ir means rough, hairy.

Kadesh Barnea means

sanctuary of the wandering one.

Deut. 1:3 And it was in the fortieth year
in the eleventh month
on the first day of the month
that Moshe spoke to the children of Yisra'el
according to everything that YAHWEH
had directed he himself nx concerning them

This is in the eleventh month,

40 years after he had sent the spies

into the Land of Kena'an

at Kadesh Barnea the first time,

40 years and eleven months.

Deut. 1:4 after he had struck Sihon himself nx,
king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon
and Og himself nx, king of Bashan who dwelt at Ashtarot in Edre'i.

Sihon means tempestuous.

Amorites means publicity; prominence.

Heshbon means contrivance; intelligence.

Og means round.

Bashan - meaning unknown.

Ashtarot means increase; fertility.

Edre'i means power, force.

Deut. 1:5 On the other side of The Yarden,
in the land of Mo'ab,

Moshe undertook to explain

this Torah itself nx saying,

torah - (from 3384) a precept or statute,

especially the Decalogue or Pentateuch:- law.

3384. yaw-raw; or (2 Chr. 26:15)

yaw-raw; a primitive root;

properly, to flow as water (i.e. to rain);

transitively, to lay or throw

(especially an arrow, i.e. to shoot);

figuratively, to point out (as if by aiming the finger),

to teach:

—(+) archer, cast, direct, inform, instruct,
lay, show, shoot, teach(-er,-ing), through.

The concept of torah
is extremely important to understand properly.

It means to teach, to instruct.

It does NOT mean to "command",
and it does NOT mean "law".

What's commonly called
"The Ten Commandments" in English is understood among the Hebrews to mean
"The Ten Words".

There is no commandment
in The Ten Words.

Instead there are Ten Words - Instructions.

What YAHWEH speaks to us are His "instructions".

They are intended to teach us
what He desires.

It's up to us to choose whether we will DO what He instructs us to do, or NOT DO what He instructs us to do.
Our response determines the outcome.

What's not properly understood is that there is no compulsion
on the part of YAHWEH
to MAKE US DO what He desires.
It's ENTIRELY our free choice concerning the response we make.

Failure to do His "will" (desire) is rebellion!
It is punishable by death
precisely because it is rebellion.
It is an "offense" against Him.

That "offense"
is what is traditionally referred to as "sin".
This fundamental understanding of Scripture is essential
if you're going to properly comprehend what it means to you.

Deut. 1:6 "YAHWEH, our Elohim,
spoke to us at Horeb saying,
'Enough for your dwelling at this mountain.
Deut. 1:7 Turn and start your journey.
And go to the mountains of the Amorites
and to all the neighboring places,
in the desert,
in the mountains,
and in the valleys,
and in The Negev,
and on the seacoast,
to the land of the Kena'anites
and to the Lebanon,
as far as the great river,
The River Euphrates.

The Lebanon

is not the country of Lebanon.

It's a portion of the land of Kena'an.

It's one of the more productive areas of the land.

Deut. 1:8 See! I have given before you the land itself אנ!

Go in and possess the land itself אנ
which YAHWEH swore to your forefathers,
to Abraham, to Yitzhak, and to Ya'akov,
to give to them
and to their seed after them.'

The first part of this verse reads awkwardly in English

but it is the literal sense of the Hebrew terms.
Many translations will use different language
to convey this concept.
Many use "set before you".
However, the concept
of the land as a gift is crucial.
They did not "earn" it in any manner.
It was promised to them
by a covenant of YAHWEH Himself.

The face represents many things.
In many instances it represents the "presence" of the person identified.
In this instance it points toward the placement of a gift
in front of the persons involved,
"to your faces".

Deut. 1:9 And I spoke to you
at that time saying,
'I am not able to carry by myself
you yourselves נא.

Deut. 1:10 YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has increased you yourselves נא.
And behold!

You are today
like the stars of the skies in abundance.

Deut. 1:11 YAHWEH, The Elohim of your forefathers,
is going to add to you a thousand times more.

And He will bless you yourselves נא
according to what He has spoken to you!

Deut. 1:12 How am I to carry by myself
your burden,
and your load,
and your contention?

Deut. 1:13 Provide from you men,
wise and understanding,
and known by your tribes.
And I will place them as your heads.'

Deut. 1:14 And you responded to me myself נא.
And you said, 'The word is good which you have spoken to us to do.'

Deut. 1:15 And I took the heads of your tribes themselves נא, wise men and knowing.
And I gave them to you yourselves נא
as heads over you,
leaders of thousands,
and leaders of hundreds,
and leaders of fifties,
and leaders of tens,
and officers for your tribes.

Deut. 1:16 And I charged your judges themselves נא
at that time saying,
"Listen attentively between your kindred.
And pronounce sentence rightly between a man and his brother or his stranger.

Deut. 1:17 Do not respect faces
in pronouncing sentence.
Whether little or great
you are to listen attentively.
Do not fear anyone's face
because the verdict is for the sake of The Elohim.
And the word which is too hard for you
you are to bring to me.
And I will listen attentively to it."

Deut. 1:18 And I gave as direction to you yourselves נא at that time
all the words which you are to do.

Deut. 1:19 And we journeyed from Horeb.
And we went through all that great and fearful wilderness itself נא
which you saw on the way
to the mountains of the Amorites
according to what YAHWEH, our Elohim, had directed us ourselves נא.

And we came as far as Kadesh Barnea.
Deut. 1:20 And I said to you,
"You have come
to the mountains of the Amorites
which YAHWEH, our Elohim, is giving to us.

Deut. 1:21 Behold!
YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has put before your faces
the land itself נא.
Go up!
Occupy it according to what YAHWEH,
The Elohim of your forefathers,
has spoken to you!
Do not fear!
And do not be dismayed!"

Deut. 1:22 And you came near to me,
all of you.
And you said, 'Send men before us.
And have them explore for us
the land itself נא.
And have them return word to us ourselves נא
of the way itself נא
which we are to go up into it and of the towns to which we are to go.'

Deut. 1:23 And the word was pleasant in my eyes.
And I took from you twelve men,
one man from each tribe.
Deut. 1:24 And they turned.
And they went up the mountain.
And they went as far as the River Eshkol.
And they spied on it itself נא.

Deut. 1:25 And they took with their hands
from the fruit of the land.
And they brought it down to us.
And they returned word to us ourselves נא.
And they said,
"The land which YAHWEH, our Elohim, is giving to us is good."

Many traditional translations put these statements into a series of consecutive phrases
within the same sentence.
This is not proper for Hebrew thought.
It also seems to be improper for YAHWEH's intent for the text.

Each action needs to be separated.
Doing so makes each action distinct and important in its own right.

The "English way"
of slipping everything into one sentence
destroys the significance of each step.

An effort has been made in this work
to keep the concepts separated
so one can appreciate their importance.

Deut. 1:26 But you were not willing to go up.
And you rebelled against the mouth itself נא of YAHWEH, your Elohim!

The phrase, "the mouth of YAHWEH" occurs frequently

in The Old Covenant Scriptures.
It represents His spoken word
as being specifically pronounced by Him.
To go against such a proclamation
was viewed as profoundly rebellious.

Deut. 1:27 And you grumbled in your tents.

And you said, 'With hatred YAHWEH
has brought out us ourselves נא
from the land of Mitsraim

for the sake of giving us ourselves נא
into the hand of the Amorites,
for the sake of destroying us!

Deut. 1:28 Why are we ourselves going up?

Our kindred have made
our hearts themselves נא melt by saying,
'The people are greater
and taller than we are!
The towns are great
and walled up to the skies.
And also the sons of the Anakim were seen there! "

Deut. 1:29 And I said to you,

"You are not to have dread
and you are not to be afraid of them!

Deut. 1:30 YAHWEH, your Elohim,

The One going before you,
He Himself will fight for you like everything He did for you yourselves נא
in Mitsraim for the sake of your eyes,

1:31 and in the wilderness

where you saw

how YAHWEH, your Elohim, has carried you like a man carries his child himself נא

on all the way in which you have gone
until you came to this place."

Deut. 1:32 But in this matter

you were not trusting in YAHWEH, your Elohim,

Deut. 1:33 Who was going before you on the way to seek out a place for you to pitch your tents, to show you the way you are to go with fire by night and with a cloud by day.

Deut. 1:34 And YAHWEH listened attentively
to the sound of your words themselves נא!

And He burst forth in rage.

And He swore an oath saying,

Deut. 1:35 "Not one of these men of this bad generation

will see the good land itself נא

which I swore to give to your forefathers

Deut. 1:36 except Kaleb, son of Yephunneh.

He will see it!

And to him and to his children I will give the land itself נא on which he walked

because of how he fully followed YAHWEH!"

Deut. 1:37 Also, YAHWEH was enraged with me

on account of you, saying,

"Also, you yourself נא will not go in there!

Deut. 1:38 Yahoshua, the son of Nun,

the one standing in your presence,

will go in there,

he himself נא.

Strengthen him because he will cause Yisra'el to inherit it!

Deut. 1:39 And your little ones

of whom you have said,

"They are for plunder.",

who today have no knowledge of good and bad,

they themselves will go in there.

Even to them I am giving it!

And they will occupy it!

Deut. 1:40 But you yourselves תּוּ,
turn for your sakes,
and journey to the wilderness
by the Way of The Sea of Reeds."

Deut. 1:41 And you responded.
And you said to me,
"We have offended against YAHWEH.
We ourselves will go up.
And we will fight
according to all that YAHWEH, our Elohim, has directed us."
And you girded on, each man, his battle gear.
And you were ready to go up onto the mountain.

chata' - properly, to miss;
hence (figuratively and generally)
to offend.

Sin is a very misunderstood concept.
While it does mean to miss,
meaning to go astray,
it means far more than that.

Sin is an offense - against YAHWEH.
It is an offense against Him
precisely because it is an act of rebellion against His Word, His instruction.

One who has offended owes a debt
to the one against whom he has offended.
That's the essence of "sin."
Scripturally the debt owed is one's own life - his death.

Deut. 1:42 But YAHWEH said to me,
"Say to them, 'Do not go up!
And do not fight unless I am in your midst!
Then you will not be defeated
before your enemies.' "

Deut. 1:43 And I spoke to you.
But you would not listen.
And you rebelled
against the mouth itself תּוּ of YAHWEH.
And you were insolent.

And you went up on the mountain.

Deut. 1:44 And the Amorites dwelling on that mountain
came out against you yourselves תּוּ.
And they pursued you yourselves תּוּ
like bees do.

And they violently struck you yourselves תּוּ
from Se'ir as far as Horma.

Deut. 1:45 And you returned.
And you wept before YAHWEH.
But YAHWEH did not listen to your voice.
And He did not pay attention to you.

Deut. 1:46 And you dwelt at Kadesh many days,
like the days that you dwelt there before.

Chapter 2

Deut. 2:1 And we turned.
And we journeyed into the wilderness
the way of The Sea of Reeds
according to what YAHWEH had said to me.
And we went around Mount Se'ir itself תּוּ
many days.

Deut. 2:2 And YAHWEH spoke to me saying,
2:3 'Enough of your going around this mountain itself תּוּ.

Turn to your north!

Deut. 2:4 And the people themselves תּוּ
you are to direct saying,

'You yourselves nx are passing over on the territory of your kindred,
the children of Esau, who are dwelling in Se'ir.
And they will be afraid because of you.
And you are to watch over yourselves vehemently!
Deut. 2:5 You are not to stir up strife with them.
Indeed, I will not give to you from their land
so much as one footstep.
Indeed, as a possession for Esau
I have given Mount Se'ir itself nx.
Deut. 2:6 Food you are to buy
from they themselves nx with silver.
And you will eat.
And also water you are to buy
from they themselves nx with silver.
And you will drink.'

Deut. 2:7 Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has blessed you
in all the actions of your hands.
He has known your goings
in this great wilderness itself nx.
Forty years YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has been with you.
You have not lacked a thing."

Deut. 2:8 And we passed over,
away from our kindred themselves nx,
the children of Esau, who are dwelling in Se'ir,
from the way of the desert,
away from Eylat and Etzion Geber.
And we turned and passed over by way of the Wilderness of Mo'ab.

Deut. 2:9 And YAHWEH said to me,
'Do not attack Mo'ab itself nx
and do not stir up strife against them in battle.
Indeed, I will not give to you from their land a possession because to the children of Lot
I have given Ar itself nx as a possession."

Deut. 2:10 The Emim had dwelt there formerly, a people as great and numerous and tall as the Anakim.
2:11 They were also accounted as Repha'im,
like the Anakim.
But the Mo'abites call them Emim.

Emim means terror; fright.
Anakim means to choke or strangle.
Repha'im means giant;
or - departed beings, deceased ones.

There is enough in Scripture to connect these groups to the Nephilim who existed prior to the flood of Noah's time
- "and also after that". (See Gen. 6.4)

These were the source
for "the men of ha-shem,
"men of the name" or men of 'renown'.
They were destroyed/removed
at the time of the flood,
but they returned.
We don't know when or how.

They now show up in the land of Kena'an
at the time of the arrival of the Yisra'elites, and they, specifically, are among those who are to be destroyed by the Yisra'elites
when they enter the land of the promise.

Deut. 2:12 And the Horites dwelt in Se'ir previously.
And the children of Esau occupied it.
And they destroyed them from before them.
And they dwelt in their place

like what Yisra'el did
to the land of their possession
which YAHWEH gave to them.

Verses 10-12
are an obvious editorial note inserted into the text.
This was done in several cases to clarify certain elements of the historical record.
Horites means cave dwellers.

Deut. 2:13 " 'Now Get up!
And you are to pass over River Zered itself נח.'
Then we passed over River Zered itself נח.
Deut. 2:14 And the days we walked from Kadesh Barnea
until we passed over River Zered itself נח were thirty and eight years, until all the generation of the men of battle was terminated
from the midst of the encampment
according to what YAHWEH
had sworn to them.

Deut. 2:15 Yes, even the hand of YAHWEH
was against them
for the sake of driving them
from the midst of the encampment
until they were terminated.

Deut. 2:16 And it was as all the men of battle had been put to death from among the people.
Deut. 2:17 And YAHWEH spoke to me saying,
Deut. 2:18 'You yourself נח are passing over today
the boundary itself נח of Mo'ab, Ar itself נח.
Deut. 2:19 And when you come near,
opposite the children of Ammon,
you are not to attack them
nor stir up strife against them.
Indeed, I will not give to you from the land of the children of Ammon as a possession.
Indeed, I have given it to the children of Lot as a possession.'

Deut. 2:20 It was also accounted as a land of the Repha'im.
Repha'im formerly dwelt there.
And the Ammonites called them Zamzummim,
Zamzummim means plotters; intrigue.

Deut. 2:21 a great people, and numerous,
and tall like the Anakim.
But YAHWEH destroyed them
from before their faces.
And they dispossessed them.
And they dwelt in their place,
Deut. 2:22 like what He did for the children of Esau
who are dwelling in Se'ir, who destroyed the Horites themselves נח
from before their faces.
And they dispossessed them.
And they have dwelt in their place
until this day.

Deut. 2:23 And the Avvim
who were dwelling in villages as far as Azzah,
the Kaphtorim who came from Kaphtor destroyed them and dwelt in their place.

Avvim means crooked ones;
perverted ones.
Azzah means strong, vehement, harsh.
Azzah = Gaza of today!
Kaphtor means to surround;
wreath-shaped.
Kaphtor is likely Cyprus.
It is the original home
of the Philistines!

Hence, those referred to today
as "Palestinians"
are more properly "Philistines".

Once again we find an editorial insertion in the text from verse 20-23
to explain the historical issues connected to it.

Deut. 2:24 'Get up!
Start out!
And pass over River Arnon itself תא!
Behold!
I have given into your hand
Sihon himself תא, king of Heshbon,
the Amorite and his land itself תא.
Defile it!
Occupy it!
And strive against him in battle!

Deut. 2:25 This day I will defile it, putting the dread and the fear of you upon the faces of the peoples
under all the skies,
who will hear the report of you,
and they will tremble
and writhe before your faces.'

Deut. 2:26 And I sent messengers from the Wilderness of Kedemoth
to Sihon, king of Heshbon,
with words of peace saying,
Kedemoth means beginnings.

Deut. 2:27 'Let me pass over on your land on the road.

I will walk on the road not turning
to the right or to the left.

Deut. 2:28 Food you will sell me for silver and I will eat.

And water you will give me for silver and I will drink.

Only let me pass over on foot

Deut. 2:29 like what the children of Esau dwelling in Se'ir

and the Mo'abites

dwelling in Ar have done for me,

until I pass over The Yarden itself תא

into the land YAHWEH, our Elohim, is giving to us.'

Deut. 2:30 But Sihon, king of Heshbon, was not willing to let us pass over on it.
Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
hardened his nature itself תא
and strengthened his heart itself תא
in order to give him into your hand
as it is this day.

Deut. 2:31 And YAHWEH said to me,
'Behold!

I have begun to give Sihon himself תא
and his land itself תא over to you!

He is to be mortally wounded!

Occupy it for the sake of possessing his land itself תא!

chalal - to bore,
to wound, mortally, to pierce;
to profane, defile.

yarash - to occupy
(by driving out previous tenants
and possessing in their place).

There are some additional uses for these terms
but these are the primary ones.

This entire verse is emphatic in form with the imperative sense
used more than once.

Deut. 2:32 And Sihon came out against us,
and all his people, to battle at Yahatz.

Yahatz means to stomp; threshing floor.

Deut. 2:33 And YAHWEH, our Elohim,
gave him to us.

And we struck he himself נא,
and his sons themselves נא,
and all his people themselves נא.

Deut. 2:34 And we captured
all his towns themselves נא at that very time.

And we devoted to destruction
every town itself נא,
men, and the women, and the children.
No survivor remained.

Deut. 2:35 Only the livestock was plunder for us and the booty of the towns which we captured.

Deut. 2:36 From Aro'er,
which is on the edge of River Arnon,
and the town that is by the river,
and as far as Gil'ad
there was not one town inaccessible by us.

YAHWEH, our Elohim,
gave everything itself נא to our faces.

Deut. 2:37 However, toward the land of the children of Ammon you did not approach,
by the River Yabbok,
or to the towns of the mountains,
or wherever YAHWEH, our Elohim,
had directed us.

Chapter 3

Deut. 3:1 And we turned.

And we went up the road toward Bashan.

And Og, king of Bashan,
came out to encounter us,
he himself and all his people,
for the sake of battle at Edre'i.

Bashan - meaning uncertain.

Og means round.

Edre'i means mighty.

Deut. 3:2 But YAHWEH said to me,
'Do not fear he himself נא.

Indeed, into your hand

I have given he himself נא,
and all his people themselves נא,
and his land itself נא!

And you will do to him
as you did to Sihon, king of the Amorites who were dwelling at Heshbon.'

Deut. 3:3 And YAHWEH, our Elohim,
also gave into our hands
Og himself נא, king of Bashan,
and all his people themselves נא.

And we struck him
until there remained for him no survivor.

3:4 And we captured
all his towns themselves נא
at that very time.

There was not a town which we did not capture from they themselves נא;
sixty towns, all the region of Argob,
the dominion of Og at Bashan.

Argob means stony.

Deut. 3:5 All these towns were fortified with high walls, gates, and bars,
separate from a great many unwallled villages.

Deut. 3:6 And we devoted to destruction
they themselves נא
as we did to Sihon, king of Heshbon,

devoting every town to destruction,
men, the women, and the children.
Deut. 3:7 But all the livestock and the booty of the towns
we took as plunder for ourselves.

Deut. 3:8 And at that time
we took the land itself תא
from the hand of two kings of the Amorites,
which were across The Yarden,
from River Arnon to Mount Hermon,
Hermon means abrupt.

Deut. 3:9 Tzidonians call Hermon Siryon, and the Amorites call it Senir, [Here we find yet another editorial addition to the text.
Tzidon means fishery.
Siryon means YAH has prevailed.
Senir means pointed; a peak.](#)

Deut. 3:10 all the towns of the plain,
all The Gil'ad, and all Bashan
as far as Salkah and Edre'i, towns of the dominion of Og in Bashan.

Deut. 3:11 Indeed, only Og, king of Bashan, remained from the remnant of the Repha'im.

Behold!

His bedstead was a bedstead of iron.
Is it not in Rabbah of the children of Ammon?
Nine cubits is its length and four cubits its width
according to the cubit of a man.
Rabbah means great, large, etc.

Deut. 3:12 And this land itself תא
which we occupied at that time,
from Aro'er which is by River Arnon and half the mountains of The Gil'ad and its towns,
I gave to the Re'ubenites
and to the Gadites.

Deut. 3:13 And the remainder of Gil'ad
and all of Bashan, the dominion of Og,
I gave to half the tribe of Menashe,
all the region of Argob with all Bashan,
that which is called the land of the Repha'im.

Deut. 3:14 Ya'ir, son of Menashe, took all the region of Argob itself תא
as far as the boundary of The Geshurites
and the Ma'akathites.

And he called they themselves תא
after his own name,
The Bashan of Havvot Ya'ir itself, תא
to this day.

[Ya'ir means enlightener.
Geshur means to bridge, join.
Ma'akah means depression.
Havot means villages, living places.](#)

Deut. 3:15 And to Makhir I gave The Gil'ad itself תא.

Deut. 3:16 And to the Re'ubenites
and to the Gadites
I gave from Gil'ad as far as River Arnon,
the middle of the river as the boundary,
as far as The River Yabbok,
the boundary of the children of Ammon,
Deut. 3:17 and the desert,
with The Yarden as the boundary,
from Kinneret as far as The Sea of the Arabah,
The Salt Sea,
below the slopes of Pisgah on the east.

Deut. 3:18 And I directed you yourselves תא at that time saying, 'YAHWEH, your Elohim, has given you this land itself תא for the sake of occupying it. You are to pass over armed before your kindred, the children of Yisra'el, all the sons of ability.

yarash - to occupy
(by driving out previous tenants,
and possessing in their place);
by implication, to seize, to rob, to inherit.

Many translations use "possess".
While that is
the ultimate end of these actions,
and the planned purpose of YAHWEH,
it is not the proper use of this term.
The concept is to occupy
in the place of the existing residents.

Deut. 3:19 And your wives and your little ones, and your livestock, I know that you have much livestock, are to dwell in your towns which I have given to you
Deut. 3:20 until YAHWEH has given rest to your kindred as to you, and they also have occupied the land itself תא which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to them on the other side of The Yarden. Then you will return, each man to his possession which I have given you.'

Deut. 3:21 And Yahoshua himself תא I directed at that time saying, 'Your eyes have seen everything itself תא that YAHWEH, your Elohim, has done to these two kings. According to this YAHWEH will do to all the kingdoms to which you yourself תא are passing over.
Deut. 3:22 You are not to be afraid of them! Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim, He Himself is fighting for you!'

Deut. 3:23 And I entreated YAHWEH at that time, saying,
Deut. 3:24 'My Sovereign, YAHWEH, You Yourself תא have begun to show Your servant himself תא Your greatness itself תא and Your strong hand itself תא.

Who, what 'god' in the skies or on the earth, who can do according to Your actions or according to Your power?

Deut. 3:25 Please let me pass over and see the good land itself תא which is on the other side of The Yarden, this good hill country, and The Lebanon.'
Deut. 3:26 But YAHWEH passed over against me on account of you. And He would not listen attentively to me. And YAHWEH said to me, 'Enough for you! Speak no more to Me concerning this matter!
Deut. 3:27 Go up to the top of Pisgah! And lift up your eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward! And look with your eyes.

Indeed, you will not pass over this Yarden itself אך!

Deut. 3:28 But give direction to Yahoshua himself אך!
And encourage him!
And strengthen him!
Indeed, he himself
will pass over before this people.
And he himself
will cause they themselves אך
to inherit the land itself אך which you will see.'

Deut. 3:29 And we dwelt in the valley opposite Bayit Pe'or.

Chapter 4

Deut. 4:1 And now Yisra'el, listen attentively to the rules and the regulations which I am teaching you yourselves אך to do,
teaching you to live,
and to go in and occupy the land itself אך
which YAHWEH,
The Elohim of your forefathers,
is giving to you.

Deut. 4:2 You are not to add to the Word which I am giving as directions
to you yourselves אך.
And you are not to take away from it,
for the sake of protecting
the directives themselves אך
of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
which I am giving as directions
to you yourselves אך.

Deut. 4:3 Your eyes have seen what YAHWEH did at Ba'al Pe'or itself אך.
Indeed, all the men who followed Ba'al Pe'or
YAHWEH, your Elohim
has destroyed from your midst.

Deut. 4:4 But you yourselves אך,
those clinging to YAHWEH, your Elohim,
are alive, all of you, today.

Deut. 4:5 Consider!
I have taught you yourselves אך
rules and regulations
according to what YAHWEH, my Elohim,
has directed me,
for the sake of doing according to this in the land where you yourselves אך
are going for the sake of occupying it.

Deut. 4:6 And you are to protect them.
And you are to do them.
Indeed, it is your wisdom
and your discernment
in the eyes of the peoples who will hear all these directives themselves אך.

And they will say,
'Truly a wise and discerning people
is this great nation!'

Deut. 4:7 Indeed, what great nation is there which has a god near to it
like YAHWEH, our Elohim,
whenever we call on Him?

Deut. 4:8 And what great nation is there that has just rules and regulations like all this instruction
which I am giving in your presence today?

tsaddiyq - just; right.
It means fair or equitable.
The term is far too often
"translated" as 'righteous'.

torah - a precept or statute.
However, the primary meaning of the term is instruction.
It only becomes "law" in the minds of some because it was written down, following which the human beings involved (especially translators)
have made this into something it was not within the Hebrew culture.

Deut. 4:9 However, protect yourself!
Even protect your life exceedingly lest you fail to remember
the matters themselves אנ
which your eyes have seen,
and lest they depart from your heart
all the days of your life!
And you are to make them known
to your children and to your grandchildren.

Deut. 4:10 The day when you stood
before the face
of YAHWEH, your Elohim, at Horeb,
speaking to me YAHWEH said to me,
'Assemble to Me the people themselves אנ!
And I will cause them to hear
My Words themselves אנ,
by which they will learn to revere Me Myself אנ
all the days which they live on the soil!
And their children themselves אנ
they are to teach.'

Deut. 4:11 And you came near.
And you stood at the foot of the mountain.
And the mountain was burning with fire
to the heart of the skies;
darkness, clouds, and gloom.

Deut. 4:12 And YAHWEH spoke to you
from the midst of the fire.
A voice of words
you yourselves אנ were hearing,
but a form you were not seeing,
only a voice.

Deut. 4:13 And He declared to you
His Covenant itself אנ
which He charged you yourselves אנ to do,
The Ten Words.

And He wrote them
upon two tablets of stone.

"The Ten Words"
- this is the literal translation
of the Hebrew terms.
This is what the Hebrews understood.
They did not think of them
as "commandments".

The Covenant was an agreement.
You cannot "command" a covenant.
It must be agreed to willingly
by both sides in order for it to be valid.
There is no compulsion.
It's an act of choice!

This is a crucial concept relative to The Covenant of Sinai,
as well as to the entire body of Scripture.

Deut. 4:14 And me myself אנ

YAHWEH charged at that time to teach you yourselves תא
rules and regulations
for the sake of doing they themselves תא
in the land to which you yourselves תא,
are passing over for the sake of occupying it.
Deut. 4:15 And you are to protect your lives exceedingly.

Indeed, you did not see any form on the day YAHWEH spoke to you
from the midst of the fire,
4:16 lest you do corruptly
and make for yourselves an idol,
a form of any likeness,
a model of male or female,

pecel - an idol.

tabniyth - structure, by implication,
a model, resemblance; form.

tmuwnah - something portioned out,
as a shape; likeness.

Deut. 4:17 a likeness of any animal that is on the earth,
or a likeness of any winged bird
that flies in the skies, Deut. 4:18 a likeness of any creature
that crawls on the ground
or a likeness of any fish
that is in the water under the earth, Deut. 4:19 and lest you lift up your eyes to the skies
and see the sun itself תא,
or the moon itself תא,
or the stars themselves תא,
all the assembly of the skies,
and you are driven away,
and you bow down to them,
and you serve them
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, has allotted,
they themselves תא,
for all the peoples under all the skies.

Deut. 4:20 Even you yourselves תא
YAHWEH has taken.
And He has brought out you yourselves תא
from the iron furnace, from Mitsraim
for the sake of being for Him a people,
an inheritance, as it this day.

Deut. 4:21 And YAHWEH was enraged with me
on account of of your words.
And He swore I would fail to pass over
The Yarden itself תא,
and that I would fail to go into the good land
which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is giving to you as an inheritance.

Deut. 4:22 Indeed, I am going to die in this land.
I am not passing over The Yarden itself תא.
But you yourselves תא are passing over.
And you yourselves תא will occupy that good land itself תא.

Deut. 4:23 Protect yourselves
lest you fail to remember
The Covenant itself תא
of YAHWEH your Elohim,
which He cut with you,
and you make for yourselves an idol,
a likeness of anything,
of which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has given direction to you!

Deut. 4:24 Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is a consuming fire, a zealous El.

Deut. 4:25 When you bring forth children and grandchildren,
and grow old in the land,
and you do corruptly,
and you make an idol
in the likeness of anything,
and you do what is bad
in the eyes of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
for the sake of provoking Him, Deut. 4:26 I call to witness against you
on that day
the skies themselves תא
and the earth itself תא
in order that you will perish, perish quickly from upon the land
which you yourselves תא
are passing over The Yarden itself תא
for the sake of occupying it.
You will not prolong your days in it.
Indeed, you will be destroyed, destroyed!

Deut. 4:27 And YAHWEH will disperse
you yourselves תא among the people.
And you will be left few in number among the nations where YAHWEH
will drive out you yourselves תא.
Deut. 4:28 And there you will serve as deities
the product of men's hands,
wood and stone,
which do not see
and do not hear
and do not eat
and do not smell.

Deut. 4:29 And you will search out from there
YAHWEH Himself תא, your Elohim.
And you will find Him
when you search for Him
with all your heart and with all your life.

Deut. 4:30 In your distress,
even as all these words
come upon you in the last days,
then you will return to YAHWEH, your Elohim.
And you will listen attentively to His voice.

Deut. 4:31 Indeed, an El of compassion is YAHWEH, your Elohim!
He will not abandon you!
And He will not destroy you!
And He will not forget The Covenant itself תא
with your forefathers
which He swore to them.

Deut. 4:32 Indeed, ask now concerning the former days
which were before you,
from the day on which The Elohim created a human being upon the earth,
even from one end of the skies
to the other end of the skies,
if there has been a word as great as this,
or anything has been heard like it.

Deut. 4:33 Has a people heard the voice of The Elohim
speaking from the midst of the fire
as you yourselves תא have heard,
and lived?
Deut. 4:34 Or has The Elohim attempted to go for the sake of taking for Himself a nation from the midst of a nation
by testings,

by signs,
and by awesome displays,
and by battles,
and by a strong hand,
and by an outstretched arm,
and by great fear,
according to all that YAHWEH, your Elohim, has done for you against Mitsraim
before your eyes?

gowy, goyim - a foreign nation,
hence, a Gentile.
The term used for 'nation'
is the same term used to refer to The Gentiles.
It's important to recognize the implications of this.

Deut. 4:35 You yourselves תו have been shown,
for the sake of knowing,
that YAHWEH Himself is The Elohim!
There is no one except He alone!

Deut. 4:36 From the skies He caused you to hear His voice itself תו
for the sake of disciplining you.
And on the earth He caused you to see
His great fire itself תו.
And His words you heard
from the midst of the fire.

Deut. 4:37 And because He indeed loved your forefathers themselves תו,
therefore He chose from their seed after them.
And He brought you out with His Presence,
with His great power, from Mitsraim Deut. 4:38 for the sake of driving out nations greater and stronger than you
from before your faces,
for the sake of bringing you in,
for the sake of giving to you
their land itself תו as an inheritance
as it is today.

Deut. 4:39 And you know today,
and you have recalled to your heart,
that YAHWEH Himself is The Elohim
in the skies, from above,
and on the earth, from beneath.
There is none else!

Deut. 4:40 And you are to protect
His rules themselves תו
and His directives themselves תו
with which I am charging you today
in order that it will be well with you
and with your children after you,
and in order that your days are long upon the soil
which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is giving to you for all time.”

Deut. 4:41 Then Moshe separated three towns
on the other side of The Yarden,
toward the rising of the sun,
Deut. 4:42 for the sake of fleeing there one killing who has killed his neighbor himself תו
without intent,
and he was not hating him from time past.
And he is to flee to one of these towns.
And he is to live.

Deut. 4:43 Betzer itself תו by the wilderness
in the land of the plain for the Re'ubenites,
and Ra'mot itself תו in Gil'ad for the Gadites,
and Golan itself תו in Bashan for the Menashites.

Betzer means an inaccessible spot.
Ra'mot means heights.
Golan means captive.

Deut. 4:44 And this is the instruction
which Moshe placed
before the children of Yisra'el.
Deut. 4:45 These are the testimonies,
and the rules,
and the regulations
which Moshe spoke to the children of Yisra'el
at their coming from Mitsraim,
Deut. 4:46 on the other side of The Yarden
in the valley opposite BayitPe'or
in the land of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon,
whom Moshe and the children of Yisra'el
had struck at their coming out from Mitsraim.
Deut. 4:47 And they took possession of his land itself תא
and the land of Og, king of Bashan itself תא,
two kings of the Amorites
who were on the other side of The Yarden,
toward the rising of the sun,
Deut. 4:48 from Aro'er which is on the bank of the River Arnon
even to Mount Siyon, which is Hermon, Deut. 4:49 and all the desert plain
on the other side of The Yarden
as far as the Sea of the Arabah,
below the slopes of Pisgah.

Chapter 5

Deut. 5:1 And Moshe called to all Yisra'el.
And he said to them,
"Listen attentively, Yisra'el,
to the rules themselves תא
and to the regulations themselves תא
which I am speaking in your ears today!
And you are to teach they themselves תא!
And you are to protect them
for the sake of doing them!

Deut. 5:2 YAHWEH, our Elohim,
cut a covenant with us at Horeb.
Deut. 5:3 Not with our forefathers themselves תא did YAHWEH cut this covenant itself תא
but with us ourselves תא,
we who are here today, everyone alive.

Deut. 5:4 Face to face YAHWEH spoke with you at the mountain from the midst of the fire...

Deut. 5:5 I stood between YAHWEH and you
at that time for the sake of declaring to you The Word of YAHWEH itself תא because you were afraid
on account of the presence of the fire.
And you did not go up onto the mountain,

The first part of this verse
forms a parenthetical statement by Moshe, interrupting the flow from the previous verse.

The artificial nature of the verse breaks becomes readily apparent in this situation,
and it was poorly done in this case.

The last word will be left with verse 6.

...saying,
Deut. 5:6 'I am YAHWEH, your Elohim,
Who brought you out from the land of Mitsraim,
from the house of bondage.

The preceding sets the stage for the presentation of The Ten Words.
The following verses contain the words that YAHWEH spoke in the hearing of the children of Yisra'el

at Mount Sinai.

Because this translation is different from the traditional texts
you may not recognize these
as The Ten Words.
Look very carefully at what is stated.

Deut. 5:7 There is not to be for you
other gods before My face!
"before My face"
means in My presence.

Deut. 5:8 You are not to make for yourself an idol,
any form of what is in the skies above,
or which is on the earth beneath,
or which is in the waters below the earth.

Deut. 5:9 You are not to bow down to them.
And you are not to serve them.

Indeed I, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
am a zealous El,
accounting for the perversion of the fathers
upon the children and upon the third generation and upon the fourth generation
for those hating Me,

YAHWEH is not "jealous".
He does not envy anyone.
It's not in His nature to do so.
He is, however, zealous.
He is very intense
when it comes to what matters to Him.

Deut. 5:10 but doing kindness to thousands,
to those loving Me
and protecting My directives.

Deut. 5:11 You are not to lift up
The Name itself נא of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
for the sake of nothing.

Indeed, YAHWEH will not make innocent
one who lifts up His Name itself נא
for the sake of nothing!

Taking the Name of The Elohim, YAHWEH, and using it for meaningless
is the essence of this instruction.
To do so is to trivialize the Name, YAHWEH.

There are many ways to do this,
and the translators of most modern Bibles
are guilty of this offense because they have intentionally REMOVED the Name, YAHWEH, from the text!

The Tanakh replaces this with other terms,
Adonai and Ha Shem are the primary ones.

This violates the instruction not to add to or subtract from
The Word of YAHWEH.
And It violates
this very important instruction itself!

The Word of YAHWEH proclaims that they will not be made innocent (not held accountable) for this act.

Deut. 5:12 Protect The Sabbath Day itself נא
for the sake of setting it apart,
as YAHWEH, your Elohim, has directed you!

Deut. 5:13 Six days you are to work
and do all your employment.

mla'kah - properly, deputyship, i.e. ministry;
generally, employment (never servile) or work.
This is not "effort of any kind".
It is work done
as part of one's responsibility to another,
their employment.

This has been grossly misinterpreted
by the "scribes and pharisees" themselves.
A proper understanding significantly alters what is expected of one on The Sabbath Day.

Deut. 5:14 But the seventh day
is a Sabbath to YAHWEH, your Elohim.
You are not to do any employment,
you yourself nx,
nor your son,
nor your daughter,
nor your male servant,
nor your female servant,
nor your ox,
nor your donkey,
nor any of your cattle,
nor your stranger who is within your gates.
Your male servant and your female servant
are to rest like you.

shabbath - (intensive from shabath
which means to repose,
to desist from exertion) intermission;
specifically The Sabbath Day.

Note the linkage of terminology.
Also note that this word is "transliterated", meaning it's virtually identical in English
to the Hebrew term.
Only the first 'h' has been deleted.

This is to be an "intermission",
a rest period,
that is done "to YAHWEH"
- to honor Him.

Deut. 5:15 And you are to remember
that you were a slave in the land of Mitsraim.
And YAHWEH, your Elohim,
brought you out from there
with a strong hand
and with an out stretched arm.
For this reason YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has directed you to do The Sabbath Day itself nx.

Deut. 5:16 Honor your father himself nx
and your mother herself nx
according to what YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has directed you
in order that your days may be long,
and in order that it is well with you on the soil
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you.

kabad - to be heavy; make weighty.
The concept is that of making one important,
thereby honoring them.
This is the very same term used
to refer to "the heaviness",
"the glory" of YAHWEH!
However, please note that "glory"
is nowhere mentioned in the definition.

Deut. 5:17 You are not to murder.

Deut. 5:18 You are not to commit adultery.

Deut. 5:19 You are not to steal.

Deut. 5:20 You are not to bear false witness against your neighbor.

Deut. 5:21 You are not to desire your neighbor's wife,
and you are not to wish for your neighbor's house,
his field,
or his male servant,
or his female servant,
his ox,
or his male ass,
or anything that belongs to your neighbor.'

There are two different words used in this verse

that are normally "translated" as 'covet'.
chamad - to delight in.
'avah - to wish for; desire.
The first carries with it the connotation
of an intense pleasure, or lust.
The second can imply either a mild or a strong desire.

Deut. 5:22 These Words themselves נא
YAHWEH spoke

to your entire assembly at the mountain
from the midst of the fire,
the cloud,
and the gloom,
with a loud voice.

And He added nothing.

And He wrote them on two tablets of stone.
And He gave them to me.

This is a crucial verse
to understand properly!
What's recorded here,
beginning in verse 6
and continuing through verse 21,
is Moshe's statement concerning the words YAHWEH actually spoke
to the children of Yisra'el.

There is much
that was provided to them later,
and that also has become included in what's considered to be "The Torah".
But it's absolutely essential for you to understand that these are THE TEN WORDS that YAHWEH Himself spoke
to The Children of Yisra'el.

Note the last line of this verse
- "He added nothing."

For the Hebrews
these are known even today
as "The Ten Words".
They do not refer to them
as "The Ten Commandments".
Moshe himself
did not call them "commandments".
He called them "words".

In the overall context of Scripture
this is extremely important.
Torah means instruction.
Torah does not mean "command"
or "commandment". or "law".

Deut. 5:23 And it was as you were listening attentively to the voice itself נא
from the midst of the darkness
and the mountain was burning with fire.
And you came near to me,
all the heads of your tribes and your elders.
Deut. 5:24 And you said,
'Behold!

YAHWEH, our Elohim,
has shown us His splendor itself נא
and His magnitude itself נא.
And we have heard His voice itself נא
from the midst of the fire.

This day we have seen that The Elohim speaks to the human being himself נא, yet he lives!

Deut. 5:25 And now, why should we die?
Indeed, this great fire will consume us.
If we listen attentively any longer
to the voice itself נא of YAHWEH, our Elohim, then we will die!

Deut. 5:26 Indeed, who is there of all flesh who has heard the voice of The Living Elohim speaking from the midst of the fire as we have and lived?

Deut. 5:27 You yourself תא go near and listen attentively to everything itself תא that YAHWEH, our Elohim, says!

Then you speak to us everything itself תא that YAHWEH, our Elohim, says to you!

And we will listen attentively.

And we will do it.'

Take special note of this statement.

This validates the concept of The Ten Words as being the only words the children of Yisra'el actually heard spoken to them at Sinai.

Deut. 5:28 And YAHWEH listened attentively to the voice itself תא of your words according to your speaking to me.

And YAHWEH said to me,

'I have listened attentively

to the voice itself תא

of the words of this people

which they have spoken to you.

It is pleasing, all that they have spoken.

Deut. 5:29 What would one give for their heart to be such as this,

to revere Me Myself תא

and to protect all My directives themselves תא

all the days

so that it might be well with them and with their children forever?

Deut. 5:30 Go!

Say to them, "Return to your tents!"

Deut. 5:31 But you yourself תא stand here with Me!

And I will explain to you

all the directives, and the rules,

and the regulations themselves תא

which you are to teach them.

And they are to do them in the land which I am giving to them to occupy.'

Deut. 5:32 And you are to be careful to do according to what YAHWEH, your Elohim,

has directed you yourselves תא!

You are not to turn aside

to the right or to the left!

Deut. 5:33 In all the ways

which YAHWEH, your Elohim,

has directed you yourselves תא

you are to walk

in order that you might live.

And it will be well with you.

And your days will be long in the land

which you are to occupy.

Chapter 6

Deut. 6:1 And this is the instruction

for the rules and the regulations

which YAHWEH, your Elohim,

has given directions

to teach you yourselves תא to do in the land

to which you yourselves תא

are passing over

for the sake of occupying it,

Deut. 6:2 in order that you will revere

YAHWEH Himself תא, your Elohim,

for the sake of protecting all His rules
and His directives
which I am giving you as directions,
you yourself nx,
and your son,
and your grandson,
all the days of your life,
even in order that your days are made long.

Deut. 6:3 And you are to listen attentively, Yisra'el.
And you are to protect them
for the sake of doing what is beneficial for you, and by which you will increase exceedingly
according to what YAHWEH,
The Elohim of your forefathers,
has spoken to you,
in a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deut. 6:4 Listen attentively, Yisra'el!
YAHWEH, our Elohim,
YAHWEH is one!

'echad - a numeral
from a word meaning to unify;
properly, united, i.e. one. or, first.

This verse is referred to as The Shema.
"The Shema" means 'The Name' (ha shem in Hebrew).

However, vitally important to recognize is the very Name itself, YAHWEH!

It has been eradicated by human traditions,
not by divine instruction.

This is a great error, a tragic mistake,
and a direct violation of Scripture itself!

There are varying interpretations of the meaning of this verse
in regard to 'echad.
Does it mean YAHWEH
is "alone as The Supreme Elohim"?

Does it mean He is the first in power and authority among the elohim?

Or does it mean to place Him first,
above all others?

Or does it mean
that everything He says and does forms a unity (one)?

You'll have to decide which is intended based on the context of Scripture itself.

Deut. 6:5 And you are to love
YAHWEH Himself nx, your Elohim,
with all your heart,
and with all your life,
and with all your passionateness!

Two things need to be noted here.
Love in the Hebrew mind
means loyalty, faithfulness.

It does not mean
some "warm fuzzy feeling".
There is a quality of "liking"
the one who is "loved",
but that's secondary to the issue of loyalty.

The second thing
is the term "passionateness".
This term is often used with another word
to express "exceedingly".
It means vehemence, abundance, force, etc.

In this instance
the very context suggests one's passion, one's total focus of their energies.

Deut. 6:6 And these Words
which I am giving as directions to you today
are to exist within your heart!

Deut. 6:7 And you are to hone them
for your children.

And you are to talk about them
while sitting in your house,
and while walking on the way,
and while lying down,
and while rising up.

shanan - to point, to sharpen.
It's considered to also mean to "instill"
by drilling it into someone (teach diligently).

However, the context suggests the idea of "fine tuning" the instructions for the sake of one's children
so they fully comprehend their meanings.

The second part implies that "whatever you're doing"
these things are to be the central focus of one's daily living!

Deut. 6:8 And you are to tie them
as a sign upon your hand.
And they are to be as bands between your eyes.

There is some ambiguity
in the meanings of this verse.
Some suggest
these were "figurative" terms, Hebraisms, which later
were changed by "tradition"
into actual physical objects.
The point made was that they were to be constantly with you and constantly in your thoughts
- so you would never forget them
as you went about your daily activities.

Like so many "religious" things,
they've become "ritualized",
and in the process have lost
much of their real intent.
One can "go through the motions"
of putting these things on without ever focusing on what they represent.

Deut. 6:9 And you are to engrave them
on the doorposts of your house
and on your gates.

Literally, engrave - not merely 'write'.
These were to be permanent witnesses to The Word of YAHWEH.
They were to be on one's house
and on the gates of one's town.
They served as notice to all entering that YAHWEH is your Elohim!

Deut. 6:10 And it will exist
when YAHWEH, your Elohim,
brings you into the land
which He swore to your forefathers,
to Abraham, to Yitzhak, and to Ya'akov,
to give to you great and good towns
which you did not build,
Deut. 6:11 and houses filled with all goodness
which you did not fill,
and wells dug which you did not dig,
vineyards and olive trees
which you did not plant,
and you have eaten
and are filled to satisfaction,
Deut. 6:12 protect yourselves,
lest you fail to remember YAHWEH Himself אֲנִי
Who has brought you out
from the land of Mitsraim,
from the house of bondage.

Deut. 6:13 YAHWEH Himself נא, your Elohim,
you are to revere!
And He Himself נא you are to serve!
And you are to swear by His Name.

Deut. 6:14 You are not to walk after other gods,
the gods of the peoples
who are all around you,
Deut. 6:15 because your Elohim, YAHWEH, is a zealous El in your midst,
lest the anger of YAHWEH, your Elohim, blaze up against you and He destroys you
from upon the face of the soil.

Deut. 6:16 Do not test
YAHWEH Himself נא, your Elohim,
as you tested Him at Massah.

Deut. 6:17 Protect, you are to protect the directives themselves נא
of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
and His testimonies,
and His rules
with which He has charged you!

Deut. 6:18 And you are to do the right and the good in the eyes of YAHWEH
in order that it will be well with you.
And you are to go in and occupy the good land itself נא
which YAHWEH swore to your forefathers, Deut. 6:19 driving out all your adversaries
from before your faces,
according to what YAHWEH has spoken.

Deut. 6:20 When your son asks you
in time to come saying,
'What is the meaning of the testimonies,
and the rules,
and the regulations
which YAHWEH, our Elohim,
has charged you yourself נא?'
Deut. 6:21 then you are to say to your son,
'We were slaves for Pharaoh in Mitsraim.
csAnd YAHWEH brought us out from Mitsraim
with a strong hand.
Deut. 6:22 And YAHWEH gave signs
and awesome displays,
great and hurtful,
against Mitsraim,
against Pharaoh,
and against all his household
before our eyes.

Deut. 6:23 And He Himself נא brought us out from there in order to bring us ourselves נא
for the sake of giving to us the land itself נא
which He swore to our forefathers.

Deut. 6:24 And YAHWEH charged us to do all these rules,
for the sake of revering
YAHWEH Himself נא, our Elohim,
for the sake of our good all the days,
for the sake of staying alive as it is today.

Deut. 6:25 And it is morally right for us that we protect, for the sake of doing,
all these directives themselves נא
before the face of YAHWEH, our Elohim,
according to what He has charged us.

Chapter 7

Deut. 7:1 When YAHWEH, your Elohim,
brings you into the land
that you yourselves nx
are going there to occupy
then He will clear away many nations
from before your faces,
the Hittites,
and the Girgashites,
and the Amorites,
and the Kena'anites,
and the Perizzites,
and the Hivvites,
and the Yebusites,
seven nations,
greater and more powerful than you.

Deut. 7:2 And YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will give them to you.
You are to strike them
and devote them to destruction,
devote they themselves nx to destruction!

You are not to cut a covenant with them! And you are not to show favor!

The instruction here
was to UTTERLY destroy all the enemy.
No Mercy!
There is a principle involved here.
The nations to be destroyed
were "corrupted seed"
from the union of fallen divine beings
with human women.
As such, they could not be redeemed.
YAHWEH decreed
that they should be destroyed
so that Yisra'el's seed
did not become corrupted, and so that Yisra'el
did not learn their sinful ways!
This is why the directions were so complete and specific.
YAHWEH knew what would happen
if Yisra'el did not follow this instruction!

Deut. 7:3 And you are not to marry among them!
Your daughter
you are not to give to his son,
and his daughter

you are not to take for your son!

Deut. 7:4 Indeed, they will turn away your children themselves nx
from following Me.

And they will serve other gods.

Then the anger of YAHWEH
will flare up against you.

And He will destroy you quickly.

Deut. 7:5 However, according to this
you are to do to them.

Their slaughter sites you are to tear down!

And their pillars you are to smash!

And their Asherim you are to cut down!

And their carved images

you are to burn with fire.

Deut. 7:6 Indeed, a people set apart
are you yourselves nx

to YAHWEH, your Elohim.

YAHWEH, your Elohim, has chosen you for the sake of being a people for Himself,
a treasured possession from all the peoples
that are on the face of the soil.

Deut. 7:7 Not because you were many
among all the peoples

has YAHWEH become attached to you and chosen you.
Indeed, you yourselves תא were the fewest
of all the peoples.

Deut. 7:8 Indeed, YAHWEH
loves you yourselves תא.
And He is protecting the oath itself תא
which He swore to your forefathers.

YAHWEH has brought out
you yourselves תא
with a strong hand.
And He has ransomed you
from the house of bondage,
from the hand of Pharaoh, king of Mitsraim.

Deut. 7:9 And you know
that YAHWEH, your Elohim,
He is The Elohim, The Trustworthy El,
Who is protecting The Covenant and the kindness
for the sake of His love, and protecting His directives
for a thousand generations, Deut. 7:10 but repaying those hating Him
to their faces,
causing them to perish.
He will not delay for those hating Him.
To his face He will repay it to him!

Deut. 7:11 And you are to protect the directives themselves תא,
and the rules themselves תא,
and the regulations themselves תא
which I am giving as directions to you today
for the sake of doing them.

Deut. 7:12 And it will exist that
because you are listening attentively
to these regulations themselves תא
and you are protecting them,
and doing they themselves תא
that YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will protect for you The Covenant itself תא
and the kindness itself תא
which He swore to your forefathers.

Deut. 7:13 And He will love you.
And He will bless you.
And He will increase you.
And He will bless the fruit of your womb
and the fruit of your land,
your grain, and your new wine, and your oil,
the increase of your cattle and the off spring of your flock
in the land which He swore to your forefathers to give to you.

Deut. 7:14 Blessed you will be above all peoples.
There will not be among you a barren man
or a barren woman,
even among your livestock.
Deut. 7:15 And YAHWEH will cause to depart from you every malady.
And every hurtful disease from Mitsraim which you have known
He will not place against you.
But He will set them against all those hating you.

Deut. 7:16 And you are to consume
all the peoples themselves תא

whom YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you.
Your eye is not to have compassion on them!
And you are not to serve their gods.
Indeed, that is a snare for you!

Deut. 7:17 When you say in your heart,
'These nations are greater than I.
How am I able to drive them out?',
Deut. 7:18 you are not to fear them!
Remember, remember what itself נא
YAHWEH, your Elohim,
did to Pharaoh and to all Mitsraim, Deut. 7:19 the great testings
which your eyes saw,
and the signs
and the awesome displays,
the strong hand,
and the outstretched arm
with which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
brought you out!

YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will do according to this
to all the peoples
of whom you yourself נא are afraid!

Deut. 7:20 And also, the hornet itself נא YAHWEH, your Elohim, will send against them until the remaining ones have vanished
and they are concealed from your faces!

*The meaning of this verse is debated.
Some believe it was literal hornets.
Others believe this was a Hebraism expressing some other form of harassment against an enemy.
Armies were known to use hornets
against their adversaries,
so this may in fact be quite literal.*

Deut. 7:21 Do not fear them!
Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim, is in your midst!
El, great and fearsome!

Deut. 7:22 And YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will drive out those nations themselves נא
from before your faces little by little.

You will not be able to terminate them quickly lest the animals of the field increase more than you.

Deut. 7:23 But YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will give them to your faces.
And He will agitate them with great confusion
until they are destroyed.

Deut. 7:24 And He will give their kings
into your hand.

And you will cause to perish
from under the skies
their names themselves נא.

Not a man will be able to stand before your faces
until you have destroyed they themselves נא!

Deut. 7:25 Idols of their gods
you are to burn with fire!
You are not to desire
the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it for yourselves
lest you be snared by it!
Indeed, it is detestable
to YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Deut. 7:26 And you are not to bring a detestable thing into your house or you will be devoted to destruction like it.

Loathe it!

You are to loathe it!

Indeed, it is devoted to destruction!

The emphatic nature of this verse is evident.
The "idols", carved images of other 'elohim',
were to be completely destroyed.
They are detestable to YAHWEH.

We often fail to comprehend
the significance of these things
because we live in a different culture.

To be 'devoted to destruction'
is equivalent to "being put under the ban".
Things banned were things
not permitted in the community.
They were a cause for death
if you were found with them in your possession.
This was very serious business.

The key element to consider is the "religious" significance of these items.
They were worshipped
as if they were a 'god',
even though they were nothing
but wood, stone, metal, jewels, etc.

We need to consider how many of these "things"
we "worship" in our own culture
- although that term is rarely applied to the actual practices we perform.

Chapter 8

Deut. 8:1 All the directives
with which I am charging you today
you are to protect
for the sake of doing them
in order that you might live and increase,
and go in and occupy the land itself נא
which YAHWEH swore to your forefathers.

Deut. 8:2 And you are to remember
every way itself נא
that YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has caused you to walk
these forty years in the wilderness
in order to humble you,
to test you for the sake of knowing what itself נא is in your heart,
whether you will protect His directives,
or not.

Deut. 8:3 And He humbled you.
And He caused you to hunger.
And He fed you with the manna itself נא
which you had not known,
nor had your forefathers known,
in order to cause you to know that not by food alone
does the human being live,
but instead, by everything that goes out of the mouth of YAHWEH
does a human being live!

Deut. 8:4 Your garments did not wear out on you.
And your foot did not swell
these forty years.

Deut. 8:5 And you know in your heart
that as a man disciplines his son himself נא, YAHWEH, your Elohim, disciplines you.

Deut. 8:6 And you are to protect
the directives themselves נא

of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
for the sake of walking in His ways
and for the sake of revering He Himself תא!

Deut. 8:7 Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is causing you to come to a good land,
a land of streams of water,
of fountains and springs
flowing out of valleys and hills, 8:8 a land of wheat, and barley,
and vine, and fig trees, and pomegranates,
a land of olive oil and honey,
8:9 a land in which there is no scarcity,
You will eat in it without fail.
A land whose stones are iron and from which you dig copper.

Deut. 8:10 And you will eat.
And you will be satisfied.
And you will bless
YAHWEH Himself תא, your Elohim,
on account of the good land
which He has given to you.

Deut. 8:11 Protect yourselves,
lest you fail to remember
YAHWEH Himself תא, your Elohim,
by failing to protect His directives,
and His regulations,
and His rules,
with which I am charging you today,
Deut. 8:12 lest you eat
and are filled to satisfaction,
and you build lovely houses
and you dwell there, Deut. 8:13 and your herds
and your flocks increase,
and your silver
and your gold are increased,
and all that is yours increases,
Deut. 8:14 and your heart is lifted up,
and you fail to remember
YAHWEH Himself תא, your Elohim,
Who is bringing you out
from the land of Mitsraim
from the house of bondage,
Deut. 8:15 The One causing you to walk in the great wilderness,
and the fearsome fiery serpents,
and scorpions,
and a desert where there was no water,
The One bringing forth water for you
from the rock of flint, Deut. 8:16 The One feeding you manna
in the wilderness,
which your forefathers did not know,
in order to humble you and to test you for the sake of your good at last,
Deut. 8:17 and you say in your heart,
'My vitality and the power of my hand
have made for me this wealth itself תא!'

Deut. 8:18 But you are to remember
YAHWEH Himself תא, your Elohim,
because it is He Himself Who gives to you vitality to make wealth in order to establish His Covenant itself תא
which He swore to your forefathers
as it is this day.

Deut. 8:19 And it will be,
if you fail to remember,
if you fail to remember
YAHWEH Himself תא, your Elohim,

and you walk, you yourselves תא,
with other gods,
and you serve them,
and you bow yourselves down to them,
I testify against you this day
that you will perish!
You will perish
Deut. 8:20 like the nations which YAHWEH is causing to perish
from before your faces!
According to this you will perish
because you did not listen attentively
to the voice of YAHWEH, your Elohim!

This speaks volumes
against the "once saved,
always saved" argument.
It IS possible for you to forget YAHWEH.
It is possible for YAHWEH
to become your enemy!
It is possible for YAHWEH
to destroy you off the face of the earth
for your rejection of Him!!
All it takes is a little rebellion,
refusing to follow His Instruction!

Chapter 9

Deut. 9:1 Listen attentively Yisra'el!
You yourselves תא are passing over today
The Yarden itself תא
for the sake of going in,
for the sake of driving out nations
greater and more powerful than you,
cities great and fortified into the skies, Deut. 9:2 people great and tall,
children of Anak,
whom you yourselves תא know.
And you yourselves תא have heard it said,
'Who remains standing
before the children of Anak?'

Deut. 9:3 And you will know today that YAHWEH, your Elohim, He Himself, is passing over before your faces.
A consuming fire is He!
He will destroy them.
And He will humble them before your faces!
And they will be driven out.
And they will be destroyed quickly
according to what YAHWEH has spoken to you.

Deut. 9:4 Do not say in your heart
YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has driven out they themselves תא
from before your faces saying,
'On account of my rightness YAHWEH has brought me in for the sake of occupying this land itself תא.'

Rather, on account of the moral wrong
of these nations
YAHWEH is driving them out
from before your faces.

Deut. 9:5 It is not on account of your rightness or correctness of the heart of you yourselves תא
that you are going in for the sake of occupying their land itself תא.
Because of the moral wrong of these nations
YAHWEH, your Elohim, is driving them out
from before your faces,
in order to establish the word itself תא
that YAHWEH swore to your forefathers,
to Abraham, to Yitzhak, and to Ya'akov.

Deut. 9:6 And you are to know that it is not on account of your rightness
that YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is giving to you this good land itself nx
for the sake of occupying it.
Indeed, you yourselves nx
are a stiff-necked people!

Deut. 9:7 Remember!
Do not forget how you caused to burst out in rage itself nx
YAHWEH Himself nx, your Elohim,
in the wilderness.

From the day on which you went out
from the land of Mitsraim
until you came as far as this place
you have been rebellious against YAHWEH!

Deut. 9:8 Even at Horeb
you caused YAHWEH Himself nx*
to burst out in rage!
And YAHWEH was enraged against you enough to destroy you yourselves nx.

Deut. 9:9 In my going up onto the mountain to receive the tablets of stone,
the tablets of The Covenant
which YAHWEH cut with you,
and having stayed on the mountain
forty days and forty nights,
I did not eat food nor did I drink water.

Deut. 9:10 And YAHWEH gave to me
the two tablets of stone themselves nx,
written by the finger of The Elohim.
And upon them were all the Words which YAHWEH had spoken with you on the mountain from the midst of the fire
on the day of the assembly.

Deut. 9:11 And it was at the end of forty days and forty nights.
YAHWEH gave to me
the two tablets of stone themselves nx,
the tablets of The Covenant.

Deut. 9:12 And YAHWEH said to me,
'Get up!
Go down quickly from here!
Indeed, your people whom you brought out from Mitsraim have acted corruptly!
They have turned aside quickly
from the way which I directed them!

They have made for themselves
a molded image!

Deut. 9:13 And YAHWEH spoke to me saying,
'I have seen this people themselves nx.
And behold!
They are stiff-necked!
Deut. 9:14 Leave Me alone
and I will destroy them!
And I will wipe away their name
from under the skies!
And I will make of you yourself nx a nation
more powerful
and more abundant than they!'

Deut. 9:15 And I turned.
And I went down from the mountain.
And the mountain was burning with fire.

And the two tablets of The Covenant were in my two hands.
Deut. 9:16 And I looked.
And behold!
You had offended
against YAHWEH, your Elohim!
And you had made for yourselves
a molded calf!
You had turned aside quickly from the way
which YAHWEH had directed you yourselves תא.

Deut. 9:17 And I seized the two tablets!
And I threw them down from my two hands!
And I smashed them before your own eyes!
When there is a series of actions involved many translations seek to eliminate the "And....",
inserting commas in the text.

However, it's this editor's opinion that YAHWEH chose to present these steps clearly and distinctly from one another
- for emphasis.

Each individual action is important.
Each one calls for specific attention.
To blend them together
is to lose the impact of the sequence.

Deut. 9:18 And I fell down
before the face of YAHWEH like the first time,
forty days and forty nights.
I did not eat food,
and I did not drink water
on account of all your offenses with which you had offended
in doing bad in the eyes of YAHWEH,
for the sake of troubling Him.

Deut. 9:19 Indeed, I was afraid
in the face of the anger and the rage which had caused YAHWEH
to burst out in rage
for the sake of destroying you yourselves תא.
But YAHWEH listened attentively to me,
even at that time.

Deut. 9:20 And YAHWEH
was exceedingly enraged against Aharon
for the sake of destroying him!
And I interceded concerning Aharon
at that time also.

Deut. 9:21 And your offense itself תא
which you had made,
the calf itself תא, I took.
And I burned it itself תא with fire.
And I crushed it itself תא, grinding it well until it was as fine as dust.
And I threw its dust itself תא into the stream descending from the mountain.

Deut. 9:22 And at Tab'erah,
and at Massah,
and at Kibrot Hata'ava
you caused YAHWEH Himself תא
to be enraged.

Deut. 9:23 And YAHWEH
sent out you yourselves תא
from Kadesh Barnea saying,
'Go up and occupy the land itself תא
which I have given to you!'
But you rebelled against the mouth itself תא
of YAHWEH, your Elohim!

And you did not trust Him!
And you did not listen attentively
according to His voice.
Deut. 9:24 You have been rebelling
against YAHWEH
from the day that I knew you yourselves תא.

Deut. 9:25 And I fell down
before the face of YAHWEH
the forty days themselves תא
and the forty nights themselves תא
which I myself fell down because YAHWEH had said
He was going to destroy you yourselves תא.
Deut. 9:26 And I interceded to YAHWEH.
And I said, 'Sovereign YAHWEH,
do not bring to ruin Your people,
even Your inheritance whom You have ransomed
by Your magnificence, whom You have brought out of Mitsraim
with a strong hand.

Deut. 9:27 Take note of Your servants,
Abraham, Yitzhak, and Ya'akov!
Do not turn toward the obstinacy of this people, or toward their moral wrong,
or toward their offense
9:28 lest they of the land from which You have brought us out say,
"Indeed, YAHWEH was not able to bring them to the land of which He spoke to them.
And He hated they themselves תא.
He has brought them out for the sake of killing them in the wilderness."

Deut. 9:29 Even they are Your people
and Your inheritance
whom You have brought out
by Your great power
and by Your out stretched arm.'

Chapter 10

Deut. 10:1 At that time YAHWEH said to me,
'Carve for yourself two tablets of stone
like the first.
And come up to Me on the mountain.
And you are to make for yourself
a chest of wood.

*'arown, or, 'aron - a box.
This is the very same word used to refer to the "ark" of Noah and the "basket" Moshe
was placed in as an infant.*

*It literally is a box or a container, a "chest".
It is not a 'boat'.*

Deut. 10:2 Then I will engrave upon the tablets
the words themselves תא that existed on the first tablets which you smashed.
And you are to put them into the chest.'

10:3 And I made a chest of acacia wood.
And I carved two tablets of stone
like the first.
And I went up the mountain,
the two tablets in my hands.

Deut. 10:4 And He engraved upon the tablets
according to the first writing
The Ten Words themselves תא which YAHWEH had spoken to you at the mountain

from the midst of the fire
on the day of the assembly.

And YAHWEH gave them to me.

Deut. 10:5 And I turned.
And I came down from the mountain.
And I placed the tablets themselves נא
in the chest which I had made.
And they are there,
according to what YAHWEH
had directed me.”

Deut. 10:6 And the children of Yisra'el
journeyed from the wells
of Benei Ya'akan to Moserah.
Aaron died there.
And he was buried there.
And El'azar, his son,
became priest in his place.
Benei Ya'akan means children of Akan.
Moserah means correction.

Deut. 10:7 From there they journeyed to Gudgoda,
and from Gudgoda to Yotbata,
a land of rivers of water.
Gudgoda means cleft.
Yotbata means pleasantness.

Deut. 10:8 At that time YAHWEH separated the tribe of Levi itself נא or the sake of carrying The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH itself נא, for the sake of standing
before the face of YAHWEH,
for the sake of serving Him and for the sake of blessing in His Name
until this day.

Deut. 10:9 For this reason
there will not be for Levi an allotment
nor an inheritance with his kindred.
YAHWEH is his inheritance
according to what YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has spoken to him.

Deut. 10:10 And I stayed on the mountain
like the previous time,
forty days and forty nights.
And YAHWEH listened attentively to me
at that time also.
And YAHWEH was not willing to destroy you.

Deut. 10:11 And YAHWEH said to me,
'Get up!
Go!
Depart before the people
and bring them in.
And occupy the land itself נא
which I swore to their forefathers
to give to them.'

Deut. 10:12 And now, Yisra'el,
what is YAHWEH, your Elohim,
asking from you except to revere
*YAHWEH Himself נא, your Elohim,
to walk in all His ways,
and to love He Himself נא
and to serve YAHWEH Himself נא, your Elohim,
with all your heart and with all your life,
See Micah 6.8 also.

Deut. 10:13 for the sake of protecting the directives themselves נא of YAHWEH
and His rules themselves נא

which I am giving as direction to you today
for your own good?

Deut. 10:14 Behold!
The skies and The Heaven of heavens belong to YAHWEH, your Elohim,
the earth and everything that is on it!

Deut. 10:15 Only onto your forefathers has YAHWEH clung
for the sake of loving they themselves תָּא.
And He chose their seed after them, you,
from all the peoples as it is today.

Deut. 10:16 And you are to circumcise
the foreskin of your heart itself תָּא!
And you are to stiffen your neck no longer!

Deut. 10:17 Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is The Elohim of elohim,
and The Sovereign of sovereigns,
The Great El,
The Powerful One,
and The One to be revering,
Who shows no partiality,
and He does not accept a bribe.

Deut. 10:18 He makes judgment
for the fatherless and the widow.
And He loves the stranger,
giving to him food and clothing.

Deut. 10:19 And you are to love
the stranger himself תָּא
because you were strangers
in the land of Mitsraim.

Deut. 10:20 YAHWEH Himself תָּא, your Elohim,
you are to revere!
He Himself תָּא you are to serve!
And to Him you are to cling!
And by His Name you are to swear!

Deut. 10:21 He Himself is your praise.
And He Himself is your Elohim
Who has done for you yourselves תָּא
these great things themselves תָּא
even these fearsome deeds themselves תָּא
which your eyes have seen!

Deut. 10:22 As seventy beings
your forefathers went down to Mitsraim.
But now YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has made you
like the stars of the skies for abundance!

Chapter 11

Deut. 11:1 And you are to love
YAHWEH Himself תָּא, your Elohim!
And you are to protect His charge,
and His rules,
and His regulations,
and His directives
every day!

mishmereth - watch, i.e. the act (custody),
or (concr.) the sentry, the post;
(obj.) preservation, or (concr.) safe;
(fig.) observance, i.e. (abstr.) duty.

Typically translated as "charge",
this refers to the responsibility of watching and doing what you have been taught to do.

The last phrase, "every day",
is literally "all the days".

Deut. 11:2 And you are to understand today that it is not your children themselves תא
who have not known and who have not seen
the discipline itself תא of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
His magnitude itself תא,
His strong hand itself תא
and His outstretched arm,

There seems to be something missing in this verse.
There are too many "not"
for this to read properly.
The implication is reasonably clear
by the context
that the instructions
are being given to the adults,
not to the children,
because the adults
have witnessed all these events,
although they themselves
were children at the beginning.

All of the first generation
have now died in the wilderness.
It is the second generation that is going to enter
the land of the promise.
It is this group that has witnessed
all these things from their youth.
And they are now to educate their children concerning these matters.

Deut. 11:3 and His signs themselves תא, and His actions themselves תא
which He did in the midst of Mitsraim to Pharaoh, king of Mitsraim,
and to all his land,

Deut. 11:4 and what He did
to the forces of Mitsraim,
to their horses and to their chariots,
when He caused the waters themselves תא
of the Sea of Reeds

to overflow upon their faces
as they pursued after you,
and how YAHWEH has destroyed them
to this day,

Deut. 11:5 and what He did for you
in the wilderness

until you came to this place,

Deut. 11:6 and what He had done
to Dathan and Abiram,
the sons of Eli'ab, son of Re'uben,
when the earth opened its mouth itself תא
and swallowed them,

and their households themselves תא,
and their tents themselves תא,
and all the property itself תא in their possession
in the midst of all Yisra'el.

Deut. 11:7 Indeed, your eyes have seen
all the great acts themselves תא of YAHWEH that He has done!

Deut. 11:8 And you are to protect
every directive itself תא
which I am giving as direction to you today
in order that you will be strong!

And you are to go in.

And you are to occupy the land itself תא
which you yourselves תא are passing over
for the sake of occupying it,

Deut. 11:9 even in order to prolong your days in the land which YAHWEH swore to give to your forefathers,
to them and their seed,
a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deut. 11:10 Indeed, the land which you are going in to occupy is not like the land of Mitsraim
from which you have come,
where you sowed your seed itself nx
and watered it by foot like a vegetable garden.

Deut. 11:11 But the land
to which you yourselves nx are passing over
for the sake of occupying it is a land of hills and valleys which drinks water from the rain of the skies, Deut. 11:12 a land which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is examining continually, it itself nx.

The eyes of YAHWEH, your Elohim, are upon it from the beginning of the year
to the end of the year.

Verses 13-15 are a quote from the words of YAHWEH, not Moshe.

Deut. 11:13 'And it will exist,
if you listen attentively to My directives
which I am giving as directions
to you yourselves nx
to love YAHWEH, your Elohim,
and to serve Him with all your heart
and with all your life,

Deut. 11:14 then I will give to you
the rain for your land in its season,
the early rain and the latter rain.
And you will gather in your grain,
and your new wine, and your oil.

Deut. 11:15 And I will give grass in your fields
for your livestock.
And you will eat
and be filled to satisfaction.'

Deut. 11:16 Protect yourselves
lest your heart is deceived and you turn aside
and serve other gods
and bow down to them!

Deut. 11:17 Then the anger of YAHWEH
will blaze up against you!

And He will restrain the skies themselves nx.
And there will be no rain.
And the land will not give its produce itself nx.
And you will perish quickly from the good land
which YAHWEH is giving to you.

Deut. 11:18 And you are to place
these words of mine themselves nx
within your heart and within your life.
And you are to tie they themselves nx
as a sign upon your hand.
And they are to be
as bands between your eyes.

beyn - a distinction;
but used only as a preposition, between.

This is connected to another word
with the same letters.
That word means to separate mentally (distinguish); to understand.

While this has been used traditionally for the little boxes with Scriptures inside that are bound to the forehead
of the Hebrew men, especially during prayers,
it appears this is yet another Hebraism
that means "to understand".

The issue is certainly not intended to be a literal "tying to the hands"

or "binding between the eyes".
Both are quite difficult to accomplish.
Yet "tradition" has once again taken over and made this into a physical act of "righteousness"
- which in and of itself is meaningless
if one does not place all the effort of one's life into serving and pleasing YAHWEH.

Deut. 11:19 And you are to teach they themselves nx
to your children themselves nx, speaking with them
as you sit in your house,
as you walk by the way,
and as you lie down,
and as you rise up.

Deut. 11:20 And you are to engrave them
on the doorposts of your house
and on your gates,
Deut. 11:21 in order that your days
and the days of your children are many upon the soil
which YAHWEH swore to your forefathers
to give to them,
like the days of the skies above the land.

Deut. 11:22 Indeed, if you earnestly protect all these directives themselves nx
which I am giving as direction
to you yourselves nx,
for the sake of doing them,
for the sake of loving
YAHWEH Himself nx, your Elohim,
for the sake of walking in all His ways,
and for the sake of clinging to Him,
Deut. 11:23 then YAHWEH will drive out all these nations themselves nx
from before your faces.

And you will drive out nations greater
and more powerful than you.
Deut. 11:24 Every place on which the soles of your feet tread,
it will be yours,
from the wilderness and The Lebanon,
from the river to The River Euphrates,
as far as the western sea will be your boundary.

While it's not specified here
other sections of text identify two rivers,
The Brook (River) of Egypt and The Euphrates.
For Scripture to be consistent
this is the area indicated.

Deut. 11:25 No man will be able to stand in your presence!
YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will put the terror of you and the fear of you upon the surface of the entire land where you will tread
according to what He has spoken to you.

Deut. 11:26 Behold!
I am setting before your faces today
a blessing and a curse;
Deut. 11:27 the blessing itself nx
when you listen attentively
to the directives of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
which I am giving as direction
to you yourselves nx today,
Deut. 11:28 and the curse
if you do not listen attentively
to the directives of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
and you turn aside from the way
which I am giving as direction
to you yourselves nx today

for the sake of going after other gods
which you have not known.

Deut. 11:29 And it will exist,
when YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has brought you into the land to which you yourselves תא are going
for the sake of occupying it,
then you are to put the blessing itself תא
on Mount Gerizim
and the curse itself תא
on Mount Ebal.

Gerizim means cut up, rocky.
Ebal means bald.

Deut. 11:30 Are they not
on the other side of The Yarden,
toward the setting sun,
in the land of the Kena'anites who dwell in the desert plain opposite Gilgal beside the oak trees of Moreh?

Moreh means archer.

Deut. 11:31 Indeed, you yourselves תא
are passing over The Yarden itself תא
for the sake of going in,
for the sake of occupying the land itself תא
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you!
And you are to occupy it itself תא!
And you are to dwell in it!
Deut. 11:32 And you are to keep watch
for the sake of doing
all the rules themselves תא
and the regulations themselves תא
which I am setting before your faces today.

Chapter 12

Deut. 12:1 These are the rules
and the regulations
which you are to protect
and you are to do
in the land which YAHWEH,
The Elohim of your forefathers,
has given to you for the sake of occupying it all the days that you yourselves תא
are alive upon the soil.

Deut. 12:2 Destroy, you are to destroy all the places themselves תא
where the nations
which you yourselves תא are driving out served, they themselves תא,
their gods themselves תא,
upon the high mountains,
and upon the hills,
and under every green tree!

Deut. 12:3 And you are to tear down their slaughter sites themselves תא!
And you are to smash
their standing columns themselves תא!

And you are to burn their asherim with fire!
And the idols of their elohim
you are to cut down!
And you are to destroy
their names themselves תא
from that place!

Deut. 12:4 You are not to do so
to YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Deut. 12:5 Indeed, toward the place
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, chooses

out of all your tribes
for the sake of putting there
His Name itself nx for a dwelling place
you are to inquire.
And there you are to go.

Deut. 12:6 And you are to take there your olahs,
and your sacrifices,
and your tithes themselves nx,
and the elevated gifts themselves nx
of your hands,
and your promise offerings,
and your spontaneous offerings,
and the firstlings of your herds and of your flocks.

olah - a step or (collectively, stairs, as ascending);
usually a holocaust
(as going up in smoke).
The term is traditionally translated as "burnt offering".
These were gifts sacrificed as a symbol of one's complete surrender to YAHWEH.
The entire gift was consumed by fire.

The Hebrew term, olah is left in place because it's difficult to translate its meaning with one or two words.

Deut. 12:7 And you are to eat there,
before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim.
And you are to rejoice in everything
you put forth your hand to do,
you yourselves nx and your households,
with which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has blessed you.

This is yet another concept that is often overlooked entirely by Western cultures.
The gifts presented to YAHWEH,
with some exceptions,
were gifts of thanksgiving and praise.
They were to be eaten, at Yerushalaim,
with great joy,
rejoicing for the good things
YAHWEH had provided.

The festivals provided the setting in which all Yisra'el gathered to rejoice over YAHWEH's blessings!

Deut. 12:8 You are not to do
according to everything
that we are doing here today,
each one doing
whatever is right in his own eyes.

Deut. 12:9 Indeed, until now you have not yet come to the rest or to the inheritance
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you.

Deut. 12:10 But when you have passed over
The Yarden itself nx,
and you have settled in the land
which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is giving as inheritance to you yourselves nx,
and He has given you rest
from all your adversaries round about,
and you have settled down in safety,
Deut. 12:11 then it will be that to the place
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, chooses
for the sake of His Name dwelling there you are to bring everything itself nx
that I am giving as direction
to you yourselves nx,
your olahs, and your sacrifices, your tithes,
and the elevated gifts of your hands,

and all the best promise offerings
which you promise to YAHWEH.

Deut. 12:12 And you are to rejoice
before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
you yourselves nx,
and your sons,
and your daughters,
and your male servants,
and your female servants,
and the Levite who is within your gates because he has no property or inheritance
with you yourselves nx.

Deut. 12:13 Protect yourself
lest you offer your olahs in any place you see Deut. 12:14 except at the place which YAHWEH chooses in one of your tribes.
There you are to offer your olahs.
And there you are to do all that I am directing you.

Deut. 12:15 However,
according to every desire of your life
you are to slaughter and eat,
according to the blessing
of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
which He has given you
within all your gates.
The defiled and the undefiled are to eat of it,
like a gazelle or like a deer.

Traditionally the terms "clean"
and "unclean" are used.
Within the context of a Hebrew lifestyle people understood that this referred to whatever was defiled or undefiled.
Nothing defiled was permitted
in the presence of YAHWEH.
This is a most important distinction.

In Western cultures
the use of "clean" and "unclean"
is generally considered to refer to physical cleanliness,
not moral purity,
not contamination
by offenses against YAHWEH.
For this reason
the terms "defiled" and "undefiled"
are used in this text.

Deut. 12:16 However,
the blood you are not to eat!
Upon the ground you are to pour it out like water.

Deut. 12:17 You are not allowed to eat within your gates
the tithe of your grain,
or of your new wine,
or of your oil,
or of the firstlings of your herds or your flocks,
or of any of your promise offerings
which you promise,
or of your spontaneous offerings,
or of the elevated gifts of your hands.

A word is needed about the terms used in this text for the different offerings.

A promise offering
is traditionally a "vow" offering.
The term literally means a promise.

A spontaneous offering
is traditionally called a "freewill" offering.
While it was indeed given freely,
it was one given simply because one desired to give it.

There was no "proper protocol"
that required it for any reason.
It was given spontaneously.

An elevated gift
is traditionally called a "wave" offering.
It was lifted up, elevated,
and moved forward
toward the slaughter site
in a symbolic gesture
of presenting it to YAHWEH.

Deut. 12:18 Instead, you are to eat them
before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
in the place
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, chooses,
you yourself נָךְ,
and your son,
and your daughter,
and your male servant,
and your female servant,
and the Levite who is within your gates.
And you are to rejoice
before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
in all that you put forth your hands to do.

Deut. 12:19 Protect yourself,
lest you forsake the Levite himself נָךְ
all your days upon your soil.

Deut. 12:20 When YAHWEH, your Elohim,
enlarges your borders themselves נָךְ
according to what He has spoken to you and you say, 'Let me eat meat.'
because you desire to eat meat,
you may eat as much meat as your life desires.

Deut. 12:21 When the place
where YAHWEH, your Elohim,
chooses to put His Name is far from you then you are to slaughter from your herd and from your flock which YAHWEH has given to you
as I have directed you.

And you are to eat within your gates
according to all your being desires.

Deut. 12:22 Only according to the way
the gazelle itself נָךְ
or the deer itself נָךְ are eaten,
according to this you are to eat it.
The defiled and the undefiled alike are to eat it.

Deut. 12:23 Only be strong!
You are not to eat the blood
because the blood is the life!
You are not to eat the life with the meat.

nephesh - properly, a breathing creature.
Here translated as "the life".

This is a very important verse.
Nephesh is often translated incorrectly as "soul".
Soul is a Greek term.
It has no meaning
in Old Covenant Hebrew.

To the Hebrew mind
nephesh represents the living entity that exists within a physical body.
Without this entity the body is dead.
It has no "life".
It no longer "exists" as a "being"
(It is a non-being,
if we might use that terminology.)

Thus, a being (animal in this case)
with no blood
has no "existence" any longer.

The same would be true
for a human 'being'.

Because of all the important connections to blood that are found in Scripture
this is extremely significant!

The sacrifice of an animal with no blood is not the sacrifice of a "breathing being".
It is the sacrifice of a "dead" object.

But in the process of "becoming dead
- becoming without blood" - atonement takes place
by means of the shedding of that blood.

Where all this points
is to the understanding that a "life" has been given in place of another "life".
A ransom has been paid.
A substitutionary sacrifice
has been presented before YAHWEH.

More than breath itself,
the blood becomes the central element of all of Scripture.

Deut. 12:24 You are not to eat it!
You are to pour it out upon the ground like water!

Deut. 12:25 You are not to eat it
in order that it will be well with you
and with your children after you because you are doing what is right
in the eyes of YAHWEH.

Deut. 12:26 However, the set apart things which are yours
and your promise offerings
you are to carry.

And you are to go to the place
which YAHWEH chooses.

Deut. 12:27 And you are to prepare your olahs,
the meat and the blood,
on the slaughter site
of YAHWEH, your Elohim.
And the blood of your slaughterings
is to be poured out on the slaughter site
of YAHWEH, your Elohim.
But you are to eat the meat.

Deut. 12:28 Protect and listen attentively to all these words themselves תא of The Elohim that I am giving you as direction
in order that it will be well with you
and your children after you to eternity
because you are doing the good and the right
in the eyes of YAHWEH, your Elohim.

Deut. 12:29 When YAHWEH, your Elohim,
cuts off from before your faces

the nations themselves תא
which you yourselves תא
are going to drive out.

they themselves תא
from before your faces,

and you have driven out they themselves תא,
and you are dwelling in their land,

Deut. 12:30 protect yourself,
lest you are ensnared by following them after they have been destroyed
from before your faces,

and lest you inquire about their gods saying,
'How did these nations serve
their gods themselves תא?
and, 'We will do the same ourselves.'

Deut. 12:31 You are not to do accordingly
to YAHWEH, your Elohim!
Indeed, every detestable thing which YAHWEH hates
they have done to their gods!

Indeed, even their sons themselves תא
and their daughters themselves תא
they burn in fire to their elohim!

Note: In Hebrew versions of the text verse 32 is placed as verse 1 of Chapter 13.

Deut. 12:32 (H 13.1)
All the words themselves תא
which I am giving as direction
to you yourselves תא,
they themselves תא you are to protect
for the sake of doing!

You are not to add to it!
And you are not to take away from it!

Chapter 13

Deut. 13:1 (H 13.2)
When there arises among you a prophet or a dreamer of dreams and he gives to you a sign or an awesome display,
Deut. 13:2 (H 13.3)
and the sign or the awesome display comes to exist
of which he has spoken to you saying,
'Let us go after other gods
which you have not known and serve them,'
Deut. 13:3 (H 13.4)
you are not to listen attentively to the words of that prophet himself or that dreamer of dreams himself
because YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is testing you yourselves תא
to know if it exists that you love
YAHWEH Himself תא, your Elohim,
with all your heart and with all your life.

Deut. 13:4 (H 13.5)
After YAHWEH, your Elohim,
you are to walk!
And He Himself תא
you are to revere!
And His directives themselves תא
you are to protect!
And His voice
you are to listen attentively to!
And He Himself תא
you are to serve!
And to Him
you are to cling!

Deut. 13:5 (H 13.6)
And the prophet himself or the dreamer of dreams himself
is to be put to death
because he has spoken apostasy
against YAHWEH, your Elohim,
The One bringing out you yourselves תא
from the land of Mitsraim,
and Who has redeemed you
from the house of bondage,
for the sake of driving you away from the pathway
which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has directed you to walk.

And you are to burn out the evil from your midst.

carah - apostasy
(from a root meaning to turn aside or away.)
This is very important.
Apostasy means to turn away,
to reject something that you have believed in previously.

It's never applied
to something you've never done before.
You cannot apostatize
from something you do not know,
or believe, or do!

This passage presents the case
for apostasy under The Old Covenant.
It means to leave YAHWEH
in order to follow after some other "elohim".
This is possible
because we are created with free will,
the ability to choose
what we will do or not do.

There are those who claim
"you cannot lose your salvation".
THIS IS FALSE!
You CAN lose it
- by an act of your own will!
You can CHOOSE to turn aside, reject, walk away from what you previously "believed in".

This passage is about being faithful to YAHWEH.
It demonstrates very clearly that you can indeed apostatize,
and thereby 'lose'
(give up/forfeit) your salvation!

Deut. 13:6 (H 13.7)

When your brother,
the son of your mother,
or your son or your daughter,
or the wife of your bosom,
or your friend who is like your own life,
entices you secretly saying,
'Let us go and serve other gods.',
which you yourself nx have not known,
nor your forefathers

Deut. 13:7 (H 13.8)

from the gods of the people
who are all around you,
the ones near to you
or the ones far from you,
from one end of the earth
to the other end of the earth,

Deut. 13:8 (H 13.9)

you are not to consent to him!
And you are not to listen attentively to him!
And your eye

is not to have compassion upon him!
And you are not to have pity on him!
And you are not to conceal him!

Deut. 13:9 (H 13.10)

Indeed, you are to kill him,
to kill him!

Your hand is to be first against him
for the sake of putting him to death,
and the hand of all the people
is to be against him afterward!

Deut. 13:10 (H 13.11)

And you are to stone him with stones.
And he is to die
because he sought to drive you away from YAHWEH, your Elohim,
Who has brought you out
from the land of Mitsraim,
from the house of bondage.

Deut. 13:11 (H 13.12)

And all Yisra'el is to listen attentively.

And they are to be afraid.

And they are no longer to do
according to this bad thing in your midst.

ra - bad or (as noun) evil (natural or moral).

The concept of evil,
in this case also translated in some versions as 'wickedness', needs to be re-examined.

Hebrew thought views things
as either good or bad.

And while there are varying degrees of these
the fundamental concepts do not change.

The essence of this view
is that things are either beneficial or harmful.

Since we tend to consider 'evil' or 'wickedness'
as something truly awful we fail to recognize that even the slightest harm
is covered by the same term.

Deut. 13:12 (H 13.13)

When you hear in one of your towns
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you for the sake of dwelling there, one saying,

Deut. 13:13 (H 13.14)

'Men, sons of worthlessness,
have gone out from among you.

And they have driven away
the inhabitants themselves תא

of their town saying,

"Let us go and serve other gods
whom you have not known." ,

Deut. 13:14 (H 13.15)

then you are to search.

And you are to examine thoroughly.

And you are to inquire well.

And behold!

If this word has been done,
this detestable thing, in your midst,

Deut. 13:15 (H 13.16)

you are to strike,

you are to strike the inhabitants themselves תא
of that city with the edge of the sword!

You are to devote to destruction

they themselves תא

and everything itself תא that is in it,

even its livestock themselves תא

with the edge of the sword!

Deut. 13:16 (H 13.17)

And you are to gather all its booty itself תא
into the middle of the square.

And you are to burn entirely with fire

the town itself תא and all its booty itself תא

before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim.

And it is to be a heap forever.

It is not to be built again!

Deut. 13:17 (H 13.18)

And not a speck is to cling to your hand

from what is devoted to destruction

in order that YAHWEH will turn back from the burning anger of His face.

Then He will give to you compassion.

And He will have compassion and increase you,

as He has sworn to your forefathers,

Deut. 13:18 (H 13.19)

because you are listening attentively

to the voice of YAHWEH, your Elohim,

for the sake of protecting

all His directives themselves תא

which I am giving as direction to you today,
doing what is right
in the eyes of YAHWEH, your Elohim.

Chapter 14

Deut. 14:1 You yourselves תא are the children
of YAHWEH, your Elohim.

You are not to cut yourselves.

And you are not to place a bald spot between your eyes for the dying.

The practices identified were pagan religious practices.
They were forbidden for Yisra'elites.
"Between the eyes" is apparently a Hebraism for one's forehead.

Deut. 14:2 Indeed, you yourselves תא
are a people set apart to YAHWEH, your Elohim.
And it is you YAHWEH has chosen to be for Him a treasured people
out of all the peoples
that are upon the face of the earth.

Deut. 14:3 You are not to eat anything detestable!

Deut. 14:4 These are the animals which you are to eat:

ox, lamb of sheep, and lamb of goats,

Deut. 14:5 male deer, and gazelle,
and female deer,

and wild goat, and ibex,

and antelope, and mountain sheep.

Deut. 14:6 And every animal that is dividing the hoof

and cleaving the cleft into two hooves,

chewing the cud among the animals

you yourselves תא are to eat.

Deut. 14:7 However, these themselves תא
you are not to eat.

From one chewing the cud

or dividing the hoof, split:

the camel itself תא,

and the hare itself תא,

and the rabbit itself תא.

Indeed, they chew the cud

but do not have a split hoof.

They are defiled for you!

Deut. 14:8 Also the pig itself תא.

Indeed, it has a split hoof

but does not chew the cud.

It is defiled for you!

Their meat you are not to eat!

And you are not to touch their carcass!

Deut. 14:9 These themselves תא you are to eat
from all that are in the waters:

all that have fins and scales you are to eat.

Deut. 14:10 But anything not having fins and scales

you are not to eat!

It is defiled for you!

Deut. 14:11 Any undefiled bird you are to eat.

Deut. 14:12 But these are what you are not to eat from them:

the eagle,

and the vulture,

and the black vulture,

Deut. 14:13 and the kite,

and the falcon itself תא

and the buzzard after its species,

Deut. 14:14 and every raven itself תא

after its species,

Deut. 14:15 and the daughter of an ostrich itself תא,

and the nighthawk itself תא,

and the seagull itself תא,

and the hawk itself nx after its species,
Deut. 14:16 the little owl itself nx,
and the great owl itself nx,
and the white owl,
Deut. 14:17 and the pelican,
and the carrion vulture itself nx,
and the cormorant itself nx,
Deut. 14:18 and the stork,
and the heron after its species,
and the hoopoe, and the bat.

Deut. 14:19 And every crawling thing that flies
is defiled for you!

They are not to be eaten!

The list given includes the scavengers,
those that eat other dead things.
Whatever is dead causes defilement (uncleanness in traditional texts).
Defilement excludes you from the presence of YAHWEH.
Therefore this list is given to avoid one's becoming defiled.

The use of "clean" and "unclean"
is misleading.
It does not mean clean
in the normal sense of the term,
washed, lacking dirt, etc.
Because it is so misleading
the choice has been made to use the references to defilement or undefilement in their places.

Deut. 14:20 Any undefiled bird you are to eat.

Deut. 14:21 You are not to eat
any carcass yourself.
You are to give it to the stranger
who is within your gates.
And he may eat it or sell it to a foreigner.

Indeed, you are people set apart
to YAHWEH, your Elohim.

You are not to cook a young goat
in its mother's milk.

Deut. 14:22 Tithe, you are to tithe of all the produce itself nx of your seed that the field brings forth year by year!

Deut. 14:23 And you are to eat
before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
in the place where He chooses to cause His Name to dwell,
the tithe of your grain,
your new wine,
and your oil,
and of the firstlings of your herds,
and of your flocks
in order that you will learn to revere
YAHWEH Himself nx, your Elohim, all the days.

The point of this verse
is often missed entirely by other cultures.
The tithes that were presented to YAHWEH
were to be eaten in His presence!

They were to be eaten with joy
because of what He had provided for you!
They were not simply given to the priests
or burned in fire.

The festivals of YAHWEH
were times for great celebration and praise that were always to be connected to His provision.

Deut. 14:24 But when the way is great for you,

when you are not able to carry it
because the place
which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
chooses to put His Name is too far from you,
when YAHWEH, your Elohim, blesses you,
Deut. 14:25 then you are to put it into silver.
And you are to take the silver in your hand.
And you are go to the place
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, chooses with it.
Deut. 14:26 And you are to give the silver
for anything that your life desires,
for cattle or sheep, for wine or strong drink,
or anything your life desires.
And you are to eat there
before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim!
And you are to rejoice,
you and your household!

Deut. 14:27 And the Levite
who is within your gates
you are not to abandon because he has no property
or inheritance with you.
Deut. 14:28 At the end of three years
you are to bring out all the tithe itself תא
of your increase in that year.
And you are to store it within your gates.
Deut. 14:29 And the Levite is to come
because he has no property
or inheritance with you.
And the sojourner and the fatherless,
and the widow who are within your gates are to come and eat
and be filled to satisfaction
in order that YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will bless you
in all the work of your hand which you do.

Chapter 15

Deut. 15:1 At the end of seven years
you are to make a remission of debts.
shmittah - remission of debt
or suspension of labor.
From a word that means to fling down.
To fling down means
to throw it away, to stop.

This is still supposed to be practiced today in Yisra'el, although there are some who find ways to get around this.

Deut. 15:2 And this is the word concerning the remission.
Every owner of a loan of his hand
is to fling down
what he has loaned to his neighbor.
He is not to force his neighbor himself תא
or his kindred himself תא.
Indeed, it is called The Remission of YAHWEH.

ba'al - owner, controller, husband.
Often translated as 'lord'.

This is the term used to refer to the "owner of a loan", the creditor.
A 'loan of his hand' means he is the one who has loaned something to another.

It is YAHWEH Who requires the remission.
He is entitled to do that since He is the rightful owner of everything that exists.

Deut. 15:3 A foreigner you can force or one who belongs to you.
But it is not to be so

with your kindred himself nx.
You are to fling down your hand.

Deut. 15:4 However, there will not be among you one destitute
because YAHWEH will greatly bless you
in the land which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is giving you as an inheritance
for the sake of occupying it,
Deut. 15:5 only if you listen attentively
to the voice of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
to protect for the sake of doing
all these directives themselves nx
which I am giving as directions to you today.

Deut. 15:6 Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will bless you
according to what He has spoken to you.
And you will lend to many nations,
but you yourselves nx will not borrow.
And you will rule over many nations.
But over you they will not rule.

Deut. 15:7 When there is among you one destitute of your kindred within any of the gates in your land
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you
you are not to harden your heart itself nx.
And you are not to close your hand itself nx
against your destitute kindred!
Deut. 15:8 Indeed, you are to open wide,
open wide your hand itself nx to him!
And you are to loan,
to loan to him enough for his need,
whatever he is lacking!

Deut. 15:9 Protect yourself,
lest there is a worthless thought
in your heart saying,
'Coming near is the seventh year,
the year of remission.",
and your eye is bad
against your destitute kindred,
and you do not give to him.
Then he will cry out against you to YAHWEH!
And it will be an offense against you.
A "bad eye" is a Hebraism
for being stingy.

Deut. 15:10 You are to give, give to him!
And your heart is not to do harm against giving to him.

Indeed, on account of this
YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will bless you in all your actions
even in everything
to which you put your hand.

Deut. 15:11 Indeed, the destitute one will not cease from the midst of the land.
For this reason I am charging you saying,
'Open wide, you are to open wide
your hand itself nx
for the sake of your kindred,
to your humiliated and to your destitute in your land.'

Deut. 15:12 When your kindred is sold to you,
a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman,
then he is to serve you six years.
But in the seventh year
you are to send him out free from beside you.

Deut. 15:13 And when you send him out free from beside you you are not to send him away with nothing.
Deut. 15:14 You are to fill him with supplies, fill him with supplies from your flock, and from your threshing floor, and from your winepress.
With what YAHWEH, your Elohim, has blessed you, you are to give to him.

Deut. 15:15 And you are to remember that you were a slave in the land of Mitsraim.
And YAHWEH, your Elohim, ransomed you! For this reason I am charging you with this word itself נא today.

Deut. 15:16 And it will be if he says to you, 'I will not go away from you.' because he loves you and your household itself נא because it is good with him being yours,
Deut. 15:17 then you are to take the awl itself נא.
And you are to put it through his ear and into the door.
And he will be your slave forever.
And also to your female slave you are to do likewise.

Deut. 15:18 It is not to be difficult in your eyes to send away he himself נא free from you because double the wages of a slave he has been for you in serving you six years.
And YAHWEH, your Elohim, has blessed you in everything that you are doing.

Deut. 15:19 Every firstling that comes from the herd or from the flock, the males, is to be set apart to YAHWEH, your Elohim.
You are not to do work with the firstling of your herd.
And you are not to shear the firstling of your flock.

Deut. 15:20 Before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim, you are to eat it year by year in the place which YAHWEH chooses, you yourself נא and your household.

Deut. 15:21 And if there is any defect in it, lame or blind, any bad defect, you are not to slaughter it to YAHWEH, your Elohim!
Deut. 15:22 Within your gates you are to eat it, the defiled and the undefiled together, like the gazelle, and like the deer.

Deut. 15:23 Only, the blood itself נא you are not to eat!
You are to pour it on the ground like water.

Chapter 16

Deut. 16:1 Protect the month of Abib itself נא, and do a Passover to YAHWEH, your Elohim, because in the month of Abib YAHWEH, your Elohim, brought you out of Mitsraim by night.

Deut. 16:2 And you are to slaughter The Passover to YAHWEH, your Elohim,

from the flock or the herd
in the place which YAHWEH chooses
for the sake of causing His Name to dwell there.

Deut. 16:3 You are not to eat leaven with it!
Seven days
you are to eat unleavened food with it,
food of humiliation,
because with haste you came out
from the land of Mitsraim,
in order that you will remember the day itself תא
of your being brought out
from the land of Mitsraim
all the days of your life.

chametz - ferment
- leaven, leavened bread.

matzah - properly, sweetness;
concretely, sweet
(i.e. not soured or bittered with yeast);
specifically, an unfermented cake or loaf.

lechem - food (for man or beast),
especially bread, or grain.

Tradition has once again
trumped The Word of YAHWEH.

The terms provided give you insight into what is specifically stated in the text,
not what you "have been told" is in the text.

There is NO reference to "bread"
in the first sentence.
Therefore, Scripture actually teaches
there is to be nothing fermented
eaten with the Passover meal.
(Tradition has taught
there is to be no "leavened bread" eaten.
Note the difference.)

In the second statement
the text reads matzot lechem.
Matsah is "sweet cake",
meaning unfermented,
not soured by fermentation - yeast.
From this we've ended up with Matzah
in the form of crackers or wafers with virtually no flavor to them.

But note very carefully
what the text actually says
- "you are to eat unleavened food/bread".
Lechem is not restricted to bread,
although that is the "traditional"
rendering of the text.
By limiting it to the bread alone
one permits other forms of "leaven"
to be eaten with the meal.
(However, see v. 4 - no yeast,
nothing fermented,
is to be seen in your territory/boundaries...)

You'll have to decide what this means for you personally.
The point of this festival is to remember!
Specifically, it is to remember that "you" were ransomed
"by the blood of the lamb"
on the very day you were "delivered" (saved) from your bondage - in Egypt.
And you are to remember this
all the days of your life
- by repeating The Passover Meal
and the Festival of Unleavened Bread.

Deut. 16:4 And no yeast is to be seen with you in all your territory for seven days.
And nothing is to remain from the flesh which you slaughter at sun down on the first day until dawn.

s'or - barm or yeast-cake
(as swelling by fermentation):—leaven.
This is a different term from chametz.
This one includes anything that has a form of yeast or fermentation.
Note that this would include wine or beer, etc
during this seven day period.
This presents a problem with the "traditional" way of doing Passover (and 'communion').
It appears we need to re-examine all that we've been taught
by "the traditions of men".

Deut. 16:5 You are not permitted to slaughter
The Passover itself nx within any of your gates
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you!

Deut. 16:6 Instead, at the place
where YAHWEH, your Elohim,
chooses to cause His Name to dwell,
there you are to slaughter

The Passover itself nx
at dusk, at the going down of the sun,
at the appointed time
of your going out from Mitsraim.

Deut. 16:7 And you are to roast and eat it
in the place
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, chooses.
And in the morning you are to turn and go to your tents.

Deut. 16:8 Six days
you are eat unleavened food.
And on the seventh day there is an assembly
to YAHWEH, your Elohim.
You are to do no employment.

Deut. 16:9 Seven weeks
you are to number for yourselves.
From the piercing of the sickle
into the standing grain
you are to begin to count seven weeks.

Deut. 16:10 Then you are to do
The Festival of Shavuot
to YAHWEH, your Elohim,
the abundance of the spontaneous offering of your hand, which you are to give according to how YAHWEH, your Elohim, blesses you.

shabuwa' - sevened; a week of sevens.
Traditionally called Shavuot in Yisra'el,
and/or The Feast of Weeks.

This gets somewhat confusing, however,
since the seven days of "unleavened bread"
are also called The Feast of Weeks, albeit incorrectly.
It would more properly be called
The Feast of The Week.

Deut. 16:11 And you are to rejoice
before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
you yourself nx,
and your son,
and your daughter,
and your male servant,
and your female servant,
and the Levite who is within your gates,
and the stranger,
and the fatherless,
and the widow
who are in your midst
at the place
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, chooses
for the sake of placing His Name there.

Deut. 16:12 And you are to remember
that you were a slave in Mitsraim.
And you are to protect
and you are to do
these rules themselves nx.

Deut. 16:13 The Festival of Sukkot
you are to do seven days
at the ingathering from your threshing floor
and from your wine vat.
Deut. 16:14 And you are to rejoice in your festival,
you yourself nx,
and your son,
and your daughter,
and your male servant,
and your female servant,
and the Levite,
and the stranger,
and the fatherless,
and the widow
who are within your gates.

Deut. 16:15 Seven days
you are to observe a festival
to YAHWEH, your Elohim,
in the place which YAHWEH chooses.

Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will bless you in all your produce
and in all the actions of your hands.
And you are to be only rejoicing!

Deut. 16:16 Three times a year
all your males are to be seen
before the face itself nx of YAHWEH, your Elohim, in the place which He chooses:
at the Festival of Matzot,
and at the Festival of Shavuot,
and at the Festival of Sukkot.
And one is not to be seen before the face itself nx of YAHWEH
empty handed.

The proper names of the festivals
are given here,
not the "traditional"
false identifications of the festivals.

These are "The Appointed Times of YAHWEH".
They are not to be trivialized
by making them "more convenient" for human beings.

Deut. 16:17 Each one is to be seen with the gift of his hand
according to the blessing
of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
which He has given you.

Deut. 16:18 Ones judging and scribes
you are to provide within all your gates
which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is giving to you, according to your tribes.
And they are to pronounce sentence
for the people themselves nx, just verdicts.
Deut. 16:19 You are not to distort regulations.
You are not to respect faces.
And you are not to take a bribe.
Indeed, a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise
and twists the words of the just.

Deut. 16:20 Right,
what is right you are to pursue
in order that you will live and inherit the land itself nx
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you!

Deut. 16:21 You are not to plant for yourself
an Asherah, any trees,
near the slaughter site of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
which you make for yourself!

Deut. 16:22 And you are not to erect a column which YAHWEH, your Elohim, hates!

These standing columns
were like the Washington Monument.
They were essentially obelisks.
They were objects of pagan worship
tied to sexual overtones,
typically representing a phallic symbol.

Chapter 17

Deut. 17:1 You are not to slaughter
to YAHWEH, your Elohim,
a bull or sheep which has in it a blemish,
any bad thing.
Indeed, that is detestable to your Elohim.

Deut. 17:2 When there is found in your midst,
within one of your gates
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you,
a man or a woman
who is doing what is bad itself אָ
in the eyes of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
by passing over His Covenant,

'abar - to cross over, pass over,
to cover, to go beyond.
This is typically translated as 'transgression'.
The concept is that of ignoring,
bypassing, or setting aside,
to pretend it isn't there (cover).

This term is tied very closely to the concept of The Passover.
It occurs frequently.
Transgress means to step across.
It's become a 'religious' term
that few properly understand.

Deut. 17:3 and going and serving other gods,
and is bowing down to them,
or to the sun,
or to the moon,

or to any of the assembly of the skies
which I have not directed,

Deut. 17:4 and it is declared to you,
and you have listened attentively,
and you have searched well,
and behold, truth is established that this detestable thing

has been done in Yisra'el,

Deut. 17:5 then you are to have brought out that man himself אָ

or that woman herself אָ

who has done this bad matter itself אָ

to your gates,

the man himself אָ

or the woman herself אָ.

And you are to stone them with stones.

They are to be put to death!

Deut. 17:6 By the mouth of two witnesses or three witnesses

he is to be put to death.

He is not put to death

by the mouth of one witness.

Deut. 17:7 The hands of the witnesses are to be against him first

for the sake of putting him to death,

and the hands of all the people afterward.

And you are to burn out the evil from your midst.

Deut. 17:8 When a matter for judgment is too difficult for you between blood and blood,

between cause and cause,
or between blow and blow,
words of controversy within your gates,
then you are to get up.
And you are to go up to the place
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, chooses.
17:9 And you are to go to the priests, the Levites,
and to the judge who exists in those days.
And you are to ask.
And they will declare to you
the word itself nx of the judgment.
Deut. 17:10 And you are to do according to the mouth of the word which they declare to you from that place which YAHWEH chooses.
And you are to be careful to do
according to everything that you are instructed.
Deut. 17:11 According to the mouth of the instructions which they are teaching you,
and according to the judgment
which they speak to you,
you are to do!
You are not to turn aside from the word which is declared to you
to the right or to the left!

Deut. 17:12 And the man who acts arrogantly
by failing to listen attentively to the priest standing as servant
of YAHWEH Himself nx, your Elohim,
or to the judge,
then that man is to be put to death!
And you will have burned out the evil from Yisra'el.

*This last statement is repeated many times.
The concept is that of purification.
Burning was the means of purifying.
Again we're brought to the idea of "undefiling" the community.*

Deut. 17:13 And all the people
are to listen attentively.
And they are to be afraid
and no longer act arrogantly.

Deut. 17:14 When you come to the land
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you and you occupy it, and you settle in it, and you say, 'We will place a king over us like all the nations that are around us.'
Deut. 17:15 you are to place, place a king over you whom YAHWEH, your Elohim, chooses.

With a man from among your kindred you are to place over you a king.
You are not permitted to put a stranger over you who is not himself your kindred.

Deut. 17:16 However, he is not to increase horses for himself,
and he is not to cause the people themselves nx
to return to Mitsraim in order to increase horses.
Also, YAHWEH has said to you,
'You are no longer
to go back on that path again.'

Deut. 17:17 And he is not to increase women for himself,
lest they turn away his heart.

And silver and gold
he is not to increase greatly for himself.

Deut. 17:18 And it is to exist

as he sits upon the throne of his kingdom,
then he is to write for himself
a copy itself nx of this instruction upon a scroll from before face of the priests, the Levites.

Deut. 17:19 And it is to be with him.
And he is to read in it all the days of his life
in order that he learns to revere YAHWEH Himself nx, his Elohim,
for the sake of protecting
all the words themselves nx of this instruction and these rules themselves nx of The Elohim,
for the sake of doing them,
Deut. 17:20 for the sake of not lifting up his heart above his kindred,
and for the sake of not turning aside from the directions right or left,
for the sake of prolonging
his days over his kingdom,
he and his children, in the midst of Yisra'el.

Chapter 18

Deut. 18:1 There is not to be property or inheritance for priests, the Levites,
the entire tribe of Levi, with Yisra'el.
The offerings by fire to YAHWEH
and His inheritance they are to eat.
Deut. 18:2 But there is to be no property
among his kindred.
YAHWEH is his inheritance
according to what He has spoken to him.

Deut. 18:3 And this is to be the priest's by regulation
from the people themselves nx,
from those themselves nx
slaughtering a sacrifice,
whether of bull or sheep.
They are to give to the priest the shoulder,
and the two cheeks, and the stomach.

Deut. 18:4 The first fruits of your grain,
of your wine, and of your oil,
and the best of the fleece of your sheep
you are to give to him
Deut. 18:5 because YAHWEH, your Elohim, has chosen him out of all your tribes
to stand for serving in the Name of YAHWEH, him and his sons forever.

Deut. 18:6 And when the Levite goes from one of your gates among all Yisra'el,
from where he has sojourned,
and he comes with all the desire of his life
to the place which YAHWEH chooses, Deut. 18:7 then he is to serve in the Name of YAHWEH, his Elohim, like all his kindred, the Levites,
who are standing there
before the face of YAHWEH.
Deut. 18:8 A portion like their portion they are to eat
apart from the sale of his father's property.

Deut. 18:9 When you yourselves nx
go into the land
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you
you are not to teach to do according to the detestable things of those nations.

lamad - to goad, to teach.
Traditionally translated as "learn",
this is not what the term means
in its literal sense.
To goad is to urge or force someone to do something.

To teach them is to show them
how to do something.

The context reveals that the practices of the existing nations were not to be taught to their own people.

Deut. 18:10 There is not to be found among you one causing his son or his daughter to pass through the fire,
or one practicing divination,
or practicing magic,
or one interpreting omens,
or practicing sorcery,
Deut. 18:11 or one who is conjuring spells,
or one asking of the dead,
or practicing occult arts,
or one who calls up the dead.

These are all connected to the practices of false religions.

Worse, they are all connected to rebellion against YAHWEH.

They're somewhat obscure today
because of a change of terms used for them.
Include witches, warlocks, wizards, mediums,
spiritists, fortune tellers, magicians, etc.
and you begin to understand what these things are.

They are ALL FORBIDDEN to those who trust in YAHWEH!

Deut. 18:12 Indeed, everyone doing these is detestable to YAHWEH!

And on account of these detestable things
YAHWEH, your Elohim, is driving them out
they themselves nx from before your faces.

Deut. 18:13 Be whole
before YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Deut. 18:14 Indeed, these nations which you yourselves nx are driving out, they themselves, nx listen attentively to those practicing magic
and to those practicing divination.
But you yourselves nx are not permitted to do according to this
by YAHWEH, your Elohim.

Deut. 18:15 A prophet from your midst,
from among your kindred, like myself,
YAHWEH, your Elohim, will raise up for you.

To him you are to listen attentively,
Deut. 18:16 according to all you asked
of YAHWEH, your Elohim, at Horeb
in the day of the assembly, saying,
'Let me not hear again
the voice itself nx of YAHWEH, my Elohim, nor let me see this great fire itself nx
any longer lest I die.'

Deut. 18:17 And YAHWEH said to me,
'What they have spoken is pleasing.

Deut. 18:18 A prophet I will raise up for them
from the midst of their kindred like you.
And I will put My Words in His mouth.
And He will speak to them
everything itself nx that I direct him.

Deut. 18:19 And it will exist
that the man who does not listen attentively
to My Words which He speaks in My Name,
I will seek an account of it from him.

Deut. 18:20 However, the prophet who presumes to speak a word in My Name, which itself תא I have not directed him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods, that prophet himself is to be put to death!

Deut. 18:21 And when you say in your heart, 'How are we to know the word itself תא which YAHWEH has not spoken?'

Deut. 18:22 When the prophet speaks in the Name of YAHWEH and the word does not exist, or does not come about, that is the word which YAHWEH has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it presumptuously. You are not to be afraid of him.

Chapter 19

Deut. 19:1 When YAHWEH, your Elohim, cuts off the nations themselves תא whose land itself תא

YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you and you have driven them out and are dwelling in their towns and in their houses,

Deut. 19:2 you are to separate three towns for yourself in the midst of your land which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you to occupy.

Deut. 19:3 You are to set up a road for yourselves.

And you are to divide into three parts the territory itself תא of your land which you are inheriting from YAHWEH, your Elohim.

And it will be for the sake of fleeing there for anyone killing someone.

Deut. 19:4 And this is the word concerning the killer who flees there.

Even he is to live who strikes his neighbor himself תא without intent, and who was not hateful toward him yesterday or the day before.

The last line is a Hebraism for "in time past".

Deut. 19:5 And he who goes to the forest with his neighbor himself תא to cut down a tree, and his hand swings with the axe for the sake of cutting down the tree, and the head slips from the handle and touches his neighbor himself תא and he dies, he is to flee to one of these towns.

And he is to live,

Deut. 19:6 lest he is pursued by the avenger of blood, after the one killing while his heart is hot, and he catches him because the road is long, and he strikes him, yet for him there was no judgment of death because he had not been hating him yesterday or the day before.

Deut. 19:7 For this reason I am directing you saying, 'Separate three towns for yourselves.'

Deut. 19:8 And when YAHWEH, your Elohim, enlarges your boundary itself תא as He has sworn to your forefathers and has given to you the land itself תא which He said He was giving to your forefathers,

Deut. 19:9 if you protect all these directions
by doing what I am directing you today,
to love YAHWEH Himself נא, your Elohim,
and to walk in His ways all the days,
then you are to add
three more towns for yourselves
besides these three.

Deut. 19:10 And you are not to pour out innocent blood in the midst of your land
which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is giving to you as an inheritance,
or there will be upon you accountability for blood.

Deut. 19:11 And if it exists that one is hating his neighbor,
and he lies in wait for him,
and he rises up against him,
and he strikes his life and he dies,
and he flees to one of these towns, Deut. 19:12 then the elders of his town are to send
and take he himself נא from there.
And they are to give he himself נא
into the hand of the avenger of blood.
And he is to be put to death.

Deut. 19:13 You are not to cover your eye
on account of him.
And you are to burn out
innocent blood from Yisra'el.
Then it will be well with you.

Deut. 19:14 You are not to reduce your neighbor's boundary which was a previous boundary
in your inheritance
which you are inheriting in the land that YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving you
for the sake of occupying it.

Deut. 19:15 One witness is not to rise up against a man concerning any perversion
or any offense by which he offends.
By the mouth of two witnesses or by the mouth of three witnesses
a matter is established.

Deut. 19:16 When a violent witness rises up against a man for the sake of testifying apostasy against him Deut. 19:17 then both of the men for whom there is a controversy are to stand before the face of YAHWEH, before the face of the priests and the judges who exist in those days.
Deut. 19:18 And the judges are to search well.
And they are to look intently at a false witness who has witnessed falsely against his kindred.
Deut. 19:19 And you are to do to him
according to what he planned to have done to his kindred.
And you will burn out the evil from your midst.

ba'ar - to kindle, i.e. consume.
The use of the concept of fire
as a purifying agent is very widely used in The Old Covenant Scriptures.
It is intended to remind the reader that purity of thought and action is what YAHWEH desires.

Deut. 19:20 And the remaining ones
are to listen attentively.
And they are to be afraid.
And they are not to do again
according to this hurtful word in your midst.

Deut. 19:21 And you are not to cover your eye;
life for life,
eye for eye,
tooth for tooth,
hand for hand,
foot for foot.

chuws - properly, to cover;
figuratively, to be compassionate.

This word is often translated as "have pity".
However, pity is a poor concept to convey this idea from Hebrew thought.
To cover your eye is to ignore the crime.
That is not having pity,
it's avoiding taking responsibility to punish the person for their offense.

Chapter 20

Deut. 20:1 When you go out to battle
against your adversaries
and you see horses and chariots and more people than you
do not be afraid of them!
Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is with the people He is bringing up
from the land of Mitsraim.

Deut. 20:2 And it will exist
as you are approaching toward the battle
then the priest is to come near.
And he is to speak to the people.

Deut. 20:3 And he is to say to them,
'Listen attentively, Yisra'el!

You yourselves nx are approaching today to battle against your adversaries.

Do not soften your heart!

Do not be afraid!

And do not be startled!

And do not be in dread on account of them!

Deut. 20:4 Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is going with you for the sake
of fighting for you with your adversaries,
for the sake of delivering you yourselves nx.'

Deut. 20:5 And the officers
are to speak to the people saying,
'Who is the man who has built a new house
but has not dedicated it?

Let him go and return to his house

lest he die in battle

and another man dedicates it.

Deut. 20:6 And who is the man who has planted a vineyard

and has not gathered the grapes of it?

Let him also go and return to his house

lest he die in battle and another man gathers the grapes of it.

Deut. 20:7 And who is the man who is engaged to a woman

but has not taken her?

Let him go and return to his house

lest he die in battle and another man take her.'

Deut. 20:8 And the officers
are to speak more to the people.

And they are to say,

'Who is the man who is afraid

and tender of heart?

Let him go and return to his house

and not turn to water
the hearts themselves תא of his brothers,
like his heart.'

Deut. 20:9 And it will be as the officers have finished speaking to the people then they are to appoint leaders of the assemblies
as heads of the people.

Deut. 20:10 When you approach toward a town for the sake of fighting against it then you are to call out to it 'Shalom!'

*Shalom means far more than peace,
although in this context
that becomes its primary sense.
It's an offer of total well being,
not merely an offer to avoid battle.*

Deut. 20:11 And it is to exist
that if shalom is responded to you,
and they open wide to you,
then it is to exist that all the people found in it are to be your forced labor.
And they are to serve you.

Deut. 20:12 But if they are not friendly with you and they make war with you then you are to attack it.

Deut. 20:13 And YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will give it into your hands.

And you are to strike every male himself תא
with the edge of the sword.

Deut. 20:14 Only the women,
and the children,
and the animals,
and all that exists in the town,
all its booty,
you are to plunder for yourself.

And you are to eat
the booty itself תא of your adversaries
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, has given to you.

Deut. 20:15 Like this you are to do to all the towns,
those far from you
which are not of the towns
of these nations themselves.

Deut. 20:16 However,
from the towns of these people
which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is giving to you as an inheritance
you are not to let live anything that breathes!

Deut. 20:17 Indeed, you are to devote to destruction, devote to destruction, the Hittite,
and the Amorite,
and the Kena'anite,
and the Perizzite,
and the Hivvite,
and the Jebusite,
according to what YAHWEH, your Elohim
has directed you,

Deut. 20:18 in order that they do not encourage
you yourselves תא to do
according to all their detestable things which they have done for the sake of their gods
and you offend against YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Deut. 20:19 When you lay siege against a town for a long time by fighting against it to capture it you are not to destroy its trees themselves תא
by swinging an axe against them.
Indeed, you are to eat from they themselves תא.
You are not to cut them down.

Indeed, is the tree of the field a human being to come against you in a siege?
Deut. 20:20 Only trees which you know
are not trees for something to eat,
they themselves נא
you are to destroy and cut down.
And you are to build siege works against the town
that is making war with you until it falls.

Chapter 21

Deut. 21:1 When one is found slain
on the soil which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you for the sake of occupying it,
having fallen in a field,
and it is not known who struck him Deut. 21:2 then your elders and your judges are to go out.

And they are to measure to the towns
which are around the one slain.
Deut. 21:3 And it will be that the elders of the town nearest to the slain one are to take a heifer

which has not been used for work
and which has not pulled with a yoke.
Deut. 21:4 And the elders of that town
are to bring down the heifer itself נא which is not worked nor sown
to a river with continual water.

And they are to break the neck
of the heifer itself נא there at the river.

Deut. 21:5 And the priests, the sons of Levi, are to come near.

Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has chosen them for the sake of serving Him
and for the sake of blessing
in the Name of YAHWEH.

And by their mouth every controversy
and every blow is to be determined.

Deut. 21:6 And all the elders of that town nearest to the slain one are to wash their hands themselves נא
over the heifer

whose neck was broken at the river.
Deut. 21:7 And they are to respond.

And they are to say,
'Our hands have not poured out this blood itself נא

nor have our eyes seen it.

Deut. 21:8 Make atonement
for your people, Yisra'el, Whom You have ransomed, YAHWEH!

And do not grant innocent blood
in the midst of Your people, Yisra'el.'
And the blood will be atoned for them.

padah - to sever, i.e. ransom;
gener. to release, preserve.

kaphar - a primitive root;
to cover (specifically with bitumen);
figuratively, to expiate or condone,
to placate or cancel.

The first term could be translated
"you have separated",
but the normal use of the term
is to be ransomed.

'Tradition' uses "redeemed",
but this overlooks the reality of the ransom that's involved
both here and in the future Messiah!

The second term is most interesting.
It means to cover
(so that it is no longer seen).

It was used of the container (ark)
which Noah built.
It's also used in reference to The Chest of The Covenant.

It is a covering.
It's symbolic of the covering
of our offense debt,
especially in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

It is often translated as 'pardon',
but atonement is in view
and needs to be remembered.

The comment concerning innocent blood uses a form of the word nathan.
It means to give.
It's given a very wide variety of meanings in Scripture,
but all point back to the concept of something given.

In this verse it's traditionally translated as "do not lay...",
"do not hold against...", etc.
But the context suggests that the request is to not permit/grant (give) the shedding of innocent blood
in the midst of Yisra'el.
The consequence of shed blood
is the defilement of the land itself.
This is an extremely important theme in Yisra'el.

Deut. 21:9 And you yourselves nx will burn out the innocent blood from your midst when you do what is right
in the eyes of YAHWEH.

Deut. 21:10 When you go out to battle
against your adversaries
and YAHWEH, your Elohim,
gives them into your hand,
and you take them captive as exiles, Deut. 21:11 and you see among the exiles
a woman of beautiful form,
and you delight in her,

and you take her for yourself for a wife, Deut. 21:12 and you bring her to the midst of your house,
then she is to shave her head itself nx,
and she is to do her nails themselves nx.

Deut. 21:13 And she is to put aside
the clothing itself nx of her captivity.
And she is to dwell in your house and weep
for her father himself nx
and her mother herself nx
a month of days.

And after that you may go in to her and marry her.
Then she will be your wife.

Deut. 21:14 And it will exist
that if you are not pleased with her then you are to send her out for the sake of her life.

But to sell her,
you are not to sell her for silver.
You are not to treat her harshly
since you have humbled her.

Deut. 21:15 When there exists for a man two wives,
one loved and the other hated,
and they have given birth to children for him,
the loved one and the hated one,
and the firstborn son

belongs to her who is hated Deut. 21:16 then it is to exist on the day of inheritance for his sons themselves nx who are his

that he is not to treat as firstborn
the son himself אָ of the loved one above the face of the son of the hated one,
the firstborn.

Deut. 21:17 Indeed, the firstborn himself אָ,
the son of the hated one,
he is to acknowledge
by giving to him a two thirds share
according to all that is found with him because he is the beginning of his 'own.
The regulation of the firstborn is his.

The Hebrew literally says "two mouths"
in relation to the portion the firstborn
is to receive in this instance.

This is further complicated by a Hebraism that means two thirds of the estate, leaving one third for the other son.

This is only discovered by a study of the use of these terms.
The bold italicized word, 'own
is left in the exact form of the Hebrew term because it actually conveys
the same meaning as "his own" in English.

This is the beginning of his own offspring,
who were seen as an element of his power,
ability, vigor, or authority.
Each of these terms
is used to translate the term.

Deut. 21:18 When a man has a son being rebellious and being bitter who is not listening attentively to the voice of his father
or the voice of his mother,
and they have disciplined he himself אָ,
but he does not listen attentively to them, Deut. 21:19 then his father and his mother
are to seize him.

And they are to bring out he himself אָ
to the elders of his town
and to the gate of his place.

Deut. 21:20 And they are to say
to the elders of his town,
'This son of ours
is being rebellious and being bitter.
He is not listening attentively to our voices.
He is worthless and he drinks heavily.'

Deut. 21:21 Then all the men of his town are to stone him with stones.
And he is to be put to death.
And you will burn out the evil from your midst.
And all Yisra'el will listen attentively.
And they will be afraid.

Deut. 21:22 And when there is with a man
an offense worthy of death
then he is to be put to death.
And you are to hang he himself אָ upon a tree.
Deut. 21:23 His carcass is not to stay overnight
upon the tree.
Indeed, you are to bury him,
you are to bury him that very day,
because cursed by The Elohim Is one hanged.

And you are not to defile the soil itself אָ
which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is giving to you as an inheritance.

Chapter 22

Deut. 22:1 You are not to observe the ox itself אָ of your kindred or his sheep themselves אָ being driven away

and hide yourself from them.
Return them, you are to return them
for the sake of your kindred!
Deut. 22:2 And if your kindred is not near to you or if you do not know him
then you are to gather it to the midst your house.
And it is to be with you until your kindred seeks for it itself תא.
Then you are to return it to him.

Deut. 22:3 And justly you are to do for his male ass.
And justly you are to do for his garment.
And justly you are to do for any lost thing of your kindred which has wandered away from him
and you have found it.
You may not hide yourself.

Deut. 22:4 When you see the male ass himself תא of your kindred or his ox falling down in the road
then you are not to hide yourself from them.
Raise them up,
you are to raise them up with him!

Deut. 22:5 There is not to be a man's article upon a woman and a man is not to wear
a garment of a woman.
Indeed, anyone doing these is detestable to YAHWEH, your Elohim.

Deut. 22:6 When you encounter a nest of a bird before your face by the road in any tree or on the ground with young ones or eggs, and the mother is sitting with the young or on the eggs
you are not to take the mother with the young.
Deut. 22:7 Send away, you are to send away
the mother herself תא!
But the young themselves תא
you may take for yourself
in order that it might be well with you and you will prolong your days.

Deut. 22:8 When you build a new house then you are to make a protective wall for your roof.
And you will not place
blood accountability on your house
because of one falling from it.

Deut. 22:9 You are not to sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed lest you defile the fulness of the seed which you have sown
and the produce of your vineyard.

Deut. 22:10 You are not to plough with an ox
and a male ass together.

Deut. 22:11 You are not to wear
a garment of different kinds, of wool and linen together.

Deut. 22:12 You are to make tassels for yourselves on the four corners of the covering with which you cover yourself.
ksuwth - a cover; figuratively a veil.

kasah - to cover or conceal.
These terms, used here,
are not the normal terms for clothing.

simlah - a dress or mantle, garment.

beqed - a covering, i.e. clothing.

While tradition asserts this is to be part of what you wear each day there is the suggestion in the Hebrew terms used that this refers to a covering you use when you sleep, or to keep warm, a blanket, etc. If that's true it would make a significant difference in Hebrew lifestyles.

Deut. 22:13 When any man takes a wife,
and he comes in to her,
and he hates her,
Deut. 22:14 and he places against her words of immoral actions,
and he causes a hurtful name
to go out concerning her,
and he says, 'This woman herself תא I took.
And I approached toward her.
But I did not find her virginity.'
Deut. 22:15 then the father of the girl and her mother are to bring out the evidence of the virginity itself תא of the girl
to the elders of the town, to the gate.
Deut. 22:16 And the father of the girl
is to say to the elders,
'I gave my daughter herself תא
to this man for a wife.
but he hates her.
Deut. 22:17 And behold!
He has placed words
of immoral actions against her saying,
"I did not find virginity for your daughter."
But this is the evidence of the virginity of my daughter!
And they are to spread the garment
before the faces of the elders of the town.
Deut. 22:18 And the elders of that town
are to take the man himself תא.
And they are to discipline he himself תא.
Deut. 22:19 And they are to fine he himself תא
a hundred pieces of silver.
And they are to give them to the father of the girl
because he has caused a bad name
to go out concerning a virgin of Yisra'el.
And she is to be his wife.
He may not send her away all his days.

Deut. 22:20 But if this word is true,
if virginity was not found concerning the girl, Deut. 22:21 then they are to bring out the girl herself תא
to the entrance of her father's house.
And the men of her town
are to stone her with stones.
And she is to be put to death
because she has done wickedness in Yisra'el, committing adultery in the house of her father.
And you will burn out the evil from your midst.

Deut. 22:22 When a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband
then the two of them are to be put to death,
the man who laid with the woman,
and the woman.
And you will burn out the evil from Yisra'el.

Deut. 22:23 When a girl who is a virgin is engaged to a man and a man finds her in the town

and he lies with her,
Deut. 22:24 then you are to bring out
the two of them themselves תא
to the gate of that town.
And you are to stone
they themselves תא with stones.
And they are to be put to death,
the girl herself תא on account of the word that she did not cry out in the town, and the man himself תא
because he has humbled
the wife herself תא of his neighbor.
And you will burn out the evil from your midst.

Deut. 22:25 But if a man finds in the field
the girl herself תא, the one engaged,
and the man seizes her,
and he lies with her,
then the man who laid with her
is to be put to death, him alone.
Deut. 22:26 And to the girl
you are not to do a word.
It is not for the sake of the girl
an offense worthy of death.
Indeed, the matter is like a man who rises against his neighbor and murders his life.
According to this is this word.
Deut. 22:27 Indeed, in a field she was found.
The engaged girl cried out,
but there was no one to deliver her.

Deut. 22:28 When a man finds a girl,
a virgin who is not engaged
and he seizes her,
and he lies with her,
and it is discovered,
Deut. 22:29 then the man,
the one laying with her,
is to give to the girl's father fifty pieces of silver.
And she is to be his wife
because he has humbled her.
He may not put her away all his days.

Deut. 22:30 (H 23.1)
A man is not to take the wife herself תא of his father.
And he is not to uncover
the extremity of his father.
[Note: Chapter 23 begins with this verse
in the Hebrew manuscripts.](#)

Chapter 23

Deut. 23:1 (H 23.2)
One with crushed testicles or whose male organ is cut off
is not to enter the assembly of YAHWEH.

Deut. 23:2 (H 23.3)
A child of incest
is not to enter the assembly of YAHWEH.
Even his tenth generation
is not to enter the assembly of YAHWEH.

Deut. 23:3 (H 23.4)
An Ammonite or Mo'abite
is not to enter the assembly of YAHWEH.
Even their tenth generation is not to enter the assembly of YAHWEH to eternity
Deut. 23:4 (H 23.5)
because of the word that they did not hasten to meet you yourselves תא
with food or with water on the road
at your coming forth from Mitsraim,

and because they hired against you Bil'am himself nx, son of Be'or,
from Pethor of Aram Naharaim
for the sake of cursing you.

Deut. 23:5 (H 23.6)

But YAHWEH, your Elohim,
was not willing to listen attentively to Bil'am.
And YAHWEH, your Elohim,
turned the cursing itself nx
into a blessing for you, because YAHWEH, your Elohim, loved you.

Deut. 23:6 (H 23.7)

You are not to seek their well being nor their good all your days, to eternity.

Deut. 23:7 (H 23.8)

You are not to detest an Edomite.
Indeed, he is your kindred.
You are not to detest a Mitsraite because you were a stranger in his land.

Deut. 23:8 (H 23.9)

Children which are born to them of the third generation
may enter the assembly of YAHWEH.

Deut. 23:9 (H 23.10)

When the encampment
goes out against your adversaries
then you are to protect yourself from every bad matter.

Deut. 23:10 (H 23.11)

When there is with you
a man who is not undefiled
on account of a nighttime occurrence
then he is to go outside the camp.
He is not to come into the midst of the camp.

Deut. 23:11 (H 23.12)

And it will exist that at the turn of sunset
he is to bathe with water.
And as the sun is going down
he may come into the midst of the camp.

Deut. 23:12 (H 23.13)

And there is to exist at hand for you
a place outside the camp.
And you are to go out there.

Deut. 23:13 (H 23.14)

And you are to have a stake among your tools.
And you are to sit down outside.
And you are to dig with it.
And you are to turn back.
And you are to cover your excrement itself nx.

Deut. 23:14 (H 23.15)

Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
walks in the midst of your camp
for the sake of delivering you, for the sake of giving your adversaries
into your presence.
And your camp is to be set apart.
And He is not to see among you disgraceful things and turn back from you.

Deut. 23:15 (H 23.16)

You are not to surrender a slave to his master who has escaped to you from his master.

Deut. 23:16 (H 23.17)

He is to dwell with you in your midst
in a place which he chooses
within one of your gates,
where it is pleasing to him.

You are not to oppress him.

Deut. 23:17 (H 23.18)

There is not to exist a cult prostitute
among the daughters of Yisra'el.
And there is not to exist a cult prostitute
among the sons of Yisra'el.

qadesh - a (quasi) sacred person,
i.e. (technically) a (male) devotee
(by prostitution) to licentious idolatry.

This term is often translated as sodomite, but it includes much more than this within its meaning.
The practice of sexual acts
as part of idolatrous worship was common.

Deut. 23:18 (H 23.19)

You are not to bring the hire of one committing adultery or the price of a dog
to The House of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
for any promise offering.
Indeed, both are detestable
to YAHWEH, your Elohim.

keleb - root means. to yelp,
or else to attack; a dog;
hence (by euphemism) a male prostitute.

Deut. 23:19 (H 23.20)

You are not to lend at interest to your kindred,
interest for silver,
interest for food,
interest for anything which is loaned at interest.

nashak - to strike with a sting (as a serpent);
figuratively, to oppress with interest on a loan.
This is often translated usury.
Instead of being merely oppressive interest
this refers to ANY interest at all.
The reference to a snake bite
is most interesting.

Deut. 23:20 (H 23.21)

For a stranger you may lend at interest.
But for your kindred you are not to lend at interest
in order that YAHWEH, your Elohim,
might bless you
in all that you send forth your hand to in the land which you yourselves nx
are entering for the sake of occupying it.

Deut. 23:21 (H 23.22)

When you promise a promise
to YAHWEH, your Elohim,
you are not to delay completing it!
Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will require it,
require it from you!
And it would be for you an offense.

Deut. 23:22 (H 23.23)

And when you cease to promise
it is not an offense against you.

Deut. 23:23 (H 23.24)

You are to protect
what goes forth from your lips.
And you are to do
according to what you promise
to YAHWEH, your Elohim,
the spontaneous offering
which you have promised with your mouth.

Deut. 23:24 (H 23.25)

When you go into your neighbor's vineyard
then you may eat to the satisfaction of your life.

But you are not to put it in a receptacle of yours.

Deut. 23:25 (H 23.26)

When you go into your neighbor's standing grain
you may pluck the heads with your hand,
but you are not to use a sickle
on your neighbor's standing grain.

Chapter 24

Deut. 24:1 When a man takes a woman and is married to her then it will exist that if she does not find favor in his eyes because he has found in her
a matter of "nakedness",
then he is to write for her a writing of divorce.
And he is to give it into her hand.
And he is to send her out of his house.

The reference to "nakedness"
is a Hebraism.
It refers to defilement,
in this case sexual defilement.

Deut. 24:2 And she is to leave his house and go.

And she may be another man's wife.

Deut. 24:3 And if the latter husband hates her then he is to write her a writing of divorce.

And he is to give it into her hand.

And he is to send her out of his house.

Or if the latter husband dies
who took her to be his wife

Deut. 24:4 her former husband who sent her away is not allowed to take her back to be his wife
after she has been defiled.

Indeed, it is detestable
before the face of YAHWEH.

And he is not to bring offense
upon the land itself nx
which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is giving to you as an inheritance.

Deut. 24:5 When a man has taken a new wife

he is not to go out with the assembly and no order is to be passed over upon him.
He is to be at his house for one year.

And he is to rejoice with his wife herself nx whom he has taken.

Deut. 24:6 You are not to take in pledge
a lower or upper millstone.

Indeed, it is his life you are taking in pledge.

Deut. 24:7 When a man is found stealing a life from his kindred,

from the children of Yisra'el,
and he treats him as property or he sells him
then that thief himself is to be put to death!
And you will burn out the bad from your midst.

Deut. 24:8 Be on guard against a plague of leprosy!
Be on guard exceedingly!

And do according to all that the priests,
the Levites, teach you yourselves nx.
According to what I have directed them
you are to be careful to do.

Deut. 24:9 Remember what itself nx
YAHWEH, your Elohim, did to Miryam on the way
as you were coming out of Mitsraim.

Deut. 24:10 When you lend to your neighbor anything
you are not to go into his house to take his pledge.

Deut. 24:11 You are to stand outside.

And the man to whom you yourself נָא are loaning,
he is to bring out to you the pledge itself נָא,
to the outside.

Deut. 24:12 And if the man is poor
you are not to sleep with his pledge.

Deut. 24:13 Return, return to him the pledge itself נָא
at the going down of the sun!
Then he will sleep in his garment,
and he will bless you.

And it will be rightness to you
before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim.

Deut. 24:14 You are not to oppress a hired servant
who is poor or destitute among your kindred or among strangers who are in your land, within your gates.

Deut. 24:15 On the same day
you are to give him his compensation.

And the sun is not to go down on him
because he is poor,
and it supports his life itself נָא.
Then he will not cry out against you to YAHWEH
and have it exist as an offense for you.

Deut. 24:16 Fathers are not to be put to death on account of their children.
And children are not to be put to death
on account of their fathers.
A man is to be put to death for his own offense.

Deut. 24:17 Do not twist the regulations
for a stranger or the fatherless.
And you are not to take as a pledge
the garment of a widow.

Deut. 24:18 And you are to remember
that you were a slave in Mitsraim,
and that YAHWEH, your Elohim,
ransomed you from there.
On account of this I am directing you
to do this word itself נָא.

Deut. 24:19 When you reap
your harvest in your field and you have forgotten a sheaf in the field
you are not to return to take it.
It is to be for the stranger,
for the fatherless,
and for the widow,
in order that YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will bless you in all the work of your hands.

Deut. 24:20 When you beat your olives
you are not to examine the branch behind you.
It is to be for the stranger,
for the fatherless,
and for the widow.

Deut. 24:21 When you gather in your vineyard
you are not to glean behind you.
It is to be for the stranger,
for the fatherless,
and for the widow.

Deut. 24:22 And you are to remember
that you were a slave in the land of Mitsraim.
On account of this I am directing you
to do this word itself נָא.

Chapter 25

Deut. 25:1 When there is a dispute between men then they are to come near for the sake of judgment.
And they will be judged.

And the just one himself תא
is to be justified,
And the morally wrong
is to be declared wrong.

Deut. 25:2 And it will exist that if the one morally wrong is to be beaten
then the judge will cause him to fall down.
And he is to be beaten before his face
with a number of blows according to his wrong.
Deut. 25:3 Forty times he is to be struck,
no more,
lest you add by striking him
many more than these and your kindred is shamed before your eyes.

Deut. 25:4 You are not to muzzle an ox
in its threshing.

Deut. 25:5 When brothers dwell together and one of them has died
and there is no son from him,
the wife of the dying man
is not to go outside the family to a strange man.
Her husband's brother is to go in to her.
And he is to take her to himself as a wife.
And he is to perform the duty of a husband's brother to her.

yabam - of doubtful meaning;
to marry a (deceased) brother's widow.

The last line of this verse
is based on this one term.
It's actual meaning is unclear,
but it's traditional meaning relates to raising up children in the name of his brother.

Posterity was very important in Yisra'el.
It pertained to inheritance.
If a wife had no children by her husband
when he died
it was the OBLIGATION of the man's brother to lie with her so she might have children to inherit her substance
and carry on the family name.

Deut. 25:6 And it will be that the firstborn son to which she gives birth is to be raised up according to the name of his dead brother.
And his name will not be erased from Yisra'el.

Deut. 25:7 But if the man is not inclined to take his brother's wife herself תא
then his brother's wife is to go up to the gate,
to the elders.

And she is to say, 'My husband's brother refuses to raise up one
for his brother's name in Yisra'el.
He is not willing to perform the duty
of my husband's brother.'

Deut. 25:8 And the elders of his town are to call him.

And they are to speak to him.

And he is to stand and say,
'I am not inclined to take her,'

Deut. 25:9 And his brother's wife is to come near to him
in the sight of the elders.

And she is to pull off his sandal
from upon his foot.

And she is to spit in his face.

Then she is to respond.

And she is to say, 'According to this it is to be done to the man who does not build up a household itself תא

for his brother!

Deut. 25:10 And in Yisra'el
his designation will be called,
'The house of him
who had his sandal pulled off.'

shem - an appellation,
as a mark or memorial of individuality.

This is traditionally translated as "name",
but it is far more than this.

It is a designation
(appellation - name or title).

It's obvious in this verse
that this does not refer to a "name", but rather to a way of designating that this person refused to do as he was expected to do.

The term used to replace the personal and eternal name, YAHWEH,
in Hebrew tradition is Ha Shem.
This phrase is supposed to mean "The Name",
but it is a replacement
for the personal name, YAHWEH.

It violates the very instructions
of YAHWEH Himself
not to use such a reference to Him.

Deut. 25:11 When men struggle,
a man and his brother,
and the wife of one approaches
for the sake of delivering the man himself תא
from the hand of the one striking him,
and she puts forth her hand,
and she seizes him by the genitals, Deut. 25:12 then you are to chop off
her hand itself תא!
You are not to cover your eyes!

Deut. 25:13 There is not to be in your bag
a stone and a stone, a heavy and a light.
Deut. 25:14 There is not to be in your house
an ephah and an ephah, a large and a small.
Deut. 25:15 A stone, correct and just, there is to be.
An ephah, correct and just, there is to be,
in order to make long your days on the soil
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you.

Deut. 25:16 Indeed detestable
to YAHWEH, your Elohim,
are all who are doing these,
all who are doing injustice!

Deut. 25:17 Remember what itself תא
Amalek did to you on the way
as you were coming out of Mitsraim,
Deut. 25:18 how he met you on the way
and attacked your back,
all the weak at your rear!
And you yourselves תא were faint and tired.
And he did not revere The Elohim.
Deut. 25:19 And it is to exist
when YAHWEH, your Elohim,
gives you rest from your adversaries all around
in the land which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is giving you for the sake of occupying it
as an inheritance
that you are to obliterate
the remembrance itself תא of Amalek
from under the skies!
You are not to forget!

Chapter 26

Deut. 26:1 And it will exist

when you come into the land
which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is giving to you as an inheritance,
and you occupy it,
and you settle in it,
Deut. 26:2 then you are to take from the best of all the fruits of the soil
which you bring from your land that YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you.
And you are to place it in a basket.
And you are to walk to the place
where YAHWEH, your Elohim,
chooses to cause His Name to dwell there.

Deut. 26:3 And you are to go to the priest who exists in those days.
And you are to say to him,
'I declare today to YAHWEH, your Elohim,
that I have come to the land which YAHWEH swore to our forefathers for the sake of giving it to us.'

Deut. 26:4 And the priest is to take the basket from your hand.
And he is to set it down
in front of the slaughter site
of YAHWEH, your Elohim.
Deut. 26:5 And you are to respond and say
before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
'My father was a wandering Aramean.
And he went down to Mitsraim.
And he sojourned there with few adults.
And there he became a great nation,
powerful, and abundant.

Deut. 26:6 But the Mitsraitites treated badly us ourselves nx.
And they humiliated us.
And they imposed hard labor on us.
Deut. 26:7 And we cried out to YAHWEH, The Elohim of our forefathers.
And YAHWEH listened attentively
to our voice itself nx.
And He saw our humiliation itself nx,
and our trouble itself nx,
and our distress itself nx.

Deut. 26:8 And YAHWEH
brought us out from Mitsraim
with a strong hand
and with an out stretched arm,
with great awe,
and with signs,
and with awesome displays.
Deut. 26:9 And He has brought us to this place.
And He has given to us this land itself nx,
a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deut. 26:10 And now, behold!
I have brought the first fruits themselves nx
of the fruit of the land which You, YAHWEH, have given to me.'

And you are to set it down
before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim.
And you are to bow down
before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim.
Deut. 26:11 And you are to rejoice
concerning all the good
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, has given to you
and to your household,
you yourself nx,
and the Levite,
and the stranger who is in your midst.

Deut. 26:12 When you finish tithing
all the tithe itself nx of your produce

in the third year, the year of the tithing, and you have given it to the Levite,
to the stranger,
to the fatherless,
and to the widow,
and they have eaten within your gates and have been filled to satisfaction Deut. 26:13 then you are to say
before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
'I have consumed the set apart portion from my household.
And I also have given it to the Levite,
and to the stranger,
and to the fatherless,
and to the widow,
according to all Your directives
which You have given as direction to me.
I have not passed over Your directives.
And have I not forgotten.
Deut. 26:14 I have not eaten from it in mourning.
And I have not taken from it in defilement.
And I have not given of it for the sake of the dead.
I have listened attentively
to the voice of YAHWEH, my Elohim.
I have done according to everything that You have directed me.
Deut. 26:15 Look down from Your set apart dwelling place,
from The Heaven,
and bless Your people themselves תא, Yisra'el itself תא, and the soil itself תא
which You have given to us
according to what You swore to our forefathers,
a land flowing with milk and honey.'

Deut. 26:16 Today YAHWEH, your Elohim, is directing you to do these rules themselves תא
and the regulations themselves תא.
And you are to protect
and you are to do they themselves תא
with all your heart
and with all your life!

Deut. 26:17 You have stated this day
YAHWEH Himself תא exists as your Elohim.
And you will walk in His ways
and protect His rules,
and His directives,
and His regulations.
And you will listen attentively to His voice.
Deut. 26:18 And YAHWEH has said to you today
you exist to Him as a treasured people
according to what He has spoken to you.
And you are to protect all His directives.
Deut. 26:19 And He will set you high above all the nations which He has made,
for praise,
and for renown,
and for majesty,
and for the sake of you existing
as a people set apart to YAHWEH, your Elohim, according to what He has spoken."

Chapter 27

Deut. 27:1 And Moshe and the elders of Yisra'el directed the people themselves תא saying,
"Protect all the directives themselves תא
which I am giving as directions
to you yourselves תא today!

Deut. 27:2 And it is to exist
on the day which you pass over The Yarden itself תא into the land which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you that you are to erect for yourselves large stones. And you are to plaster they themselves תא with plaster.

Deut. 27:3 And you are to write upon them all the words themselves תא of this Instruction when you have passed over in order that you may go into the land which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you, a land flowing with milk and honey, according to what YAHWEH, The Elohim of your forefathers, has spoken to you.

torah - a precept or statute.
From a root word meaning to teach, instruct.

A written instruction becomes "law" only when it is established as such by the government of a nation/group. Simply writing it does NOT make it law.

Laws are established to "govern". Even then they are a form of instruction. They instruct you concerning what is permitted and what is not permitted.

The important point here is that torah is not law!
It is instruction!
This is confirmed by a careful review of the meaning and intent of the Hebrew words used and their root meanings.

Everything Moshe is teaching them is included,
ALL of the details.

Deut. 27:4 And it is to exist, when you have passed over The Yarden itself תא, that you are to erect these stones themselves תא which I am directing you yourselves תא today on Mount Ebal. And you are to plaster they themselves תא with plaster.

Ebal means bare, bald.

Deut. 27:5 And you are to build there a slaughter site to YAHWEH, your Elohim, an altar of stones.

You are not to work with iron upon them.

Deut. 27:6 With whole stones you are to build the slaughter site itself תא of YAHWEH, your Elohim.

And you are to send up upon it olahs to YAHWEH, your Elohim.

olah - a step or (collectively, stairs, as ascending); usually a holocaust (as going up in smoke).

This term is traditionally translated as "burnt offering".
It was completely consumed and turned into smoke.
It was a symbol of total surrender to YAHWEH.

Deut. 27:7 And you are to offer sacrifice of shelem offerings. And you are to eat there.

And you are to rejoice before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim.

shelem - properly, requital, i.e. a (voluntary) sacrifice in thanks.

This comes from a root word meaning to be safe (in mind, body, or estate).
It's the same essential meaning of shalom,

which really means complete well being in every aspect of your life.

Traditionally this is the "peace offering",
but it could just as well be the "thank offering".

Deut. 27:8 And you are to write upon the stones
all the words of this Torah itself תא, explained well!"

torah - instruction!

ba'ar - to dig; by analogy, to engrave;
figuratively, to explain.

yatab - to be (causative) make well,
literally (sound, beautiful).

Deut. 27:9 And Moshe
and the priests, the Levites,
spoke to all Yisra'el saying,
"Be silent and listen attentively, Yisra'el!
This day you exist as a people
to YAHWEH, your Elohim.

Tradition once again
misdirects the meaning of this text.
Virtually all of the "translations" state,
"This day you have become...".
This is not correct!

YAHWEH chose this "people", Yisra'el,
as His own long before this.
He chose them in ABRAHAM!
Everything He spoke to Abraham is now being fulfilled.
They have been His "chosen people"
for a very long time.

At Sinai He caused them
to become a "nation" in their own right,
albeit without a homeland - yet.
Now they are about to enter their long foretold "homeland".

They are not "becoming" a people,
they ARE a people,
chosen, delivered, cared for,
and brought to the edge
of their promised homeland.

They EXIST AS a special treasure to YAHWEH - already!

"Tradition" IS WRONG!

Deut. 27:10 And you are to listen attentively
to the voice of YAHWEH, your Elohim!
And you are to do
His directives themselves תא
and His rules themselves תא which I am directing you today!"

Deut. 27:11 And Moshe directed the people themselves תא on that day saying, Deut. 27:12 "These are to stand for the sake of blessing the people themselves תא on Mount Gerizim when you have passed over
The Yarden itself תא:
Shim'on, and Levi,
and Yahudah, and Yissaskar,
and Yoseph, and Binyamin.

Gerizim means cut up, rocky.

Deut. 27:13 And these are to stand for the sake of the curse upon Mount Ebal: Re'uben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun,
Dan, and Naphtali.

Deut. 27:14 And the Levites are to respond.
And they are to say to all the men of Yisra'el
with a loud voice,
Deut. 27:15 'Cursed is the man who makes an idol or molten image,

a detestable thing to YAHWEH,
the work of the hands of a craftsman,
and sets it up in secret.’
And all the people are to respond.
And they are to say, ‘Amen!’

Deut. 27:16 ‘Cursed is he who dishonors his father or his mother.’
And all the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

Deut. 27:17 ‘Cursed is he who moves back a boundary of his neighbor.’
And all the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

Deut. 27:18 ‘Cursed is he who misleads the blind on the road.’
And all the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

Deut. 27:19 ‘Cursed is he who twists the judgment of the stranger,
the fatherless,
or a widow.’
And all the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

Deut. 27:20 ‘Cursed is he who lies with his father’s wife.
Indeed, he has exposed the skirt of his father.’
And all the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

Deut. 27:21 ‘Cursed is he who lies with any animal.’
And all the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

Deut. 27:22 ‘Cursed is he who lies with his sister,
the daughter of his father
or the daughter of his mother.’
And all the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

Deut. 27:23 ‘Cursed is he who lies with his mother-in-law.’
And all the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

Deut. 27:24 ‘Cursed is he who strikes his neighbor in secret.’
And all the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

Deut. 27:25 ‘Cursed is he who accepts a bribe
for the sake of killing an innocent life.’
And all the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

Deut. 27:26 ‘Cursed is he who does not establish the words themselves nx of this Torah
for the sake of doing they themselves nx.’
And all the people are to say, ‘Amen!’

Chapter 28

Deut. 28:1 And it will exist
that if you listen attentively,
listen attentively to the voice
of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
for the sake of protecting,
for the sake of doing
all His directives themselves nx
which I am giving as direction to you today
then YAHWEH, your Elohim, will put you high
above all nations of the earth!
Deut. 28:2 And all these blessings
will come upon you.
And they will affect you

when you listen attentively
to the voice of YAHWEH, your Elohim.

ki - a primitive particle
(the full form of the prepositional prefix) indicating causal relations of all kinds,
antecedent or consequent;
(by implication) very widely used as a relative conjunction or adverb (as below);
often largely modified
by other particles annexed:
- and, + (forasmuch, inasmuch,
where-)jas, assured(-ly),
+ but, certainly, doubtless,
+ else, even, + except, for, how,
(because, in, so, than) that,
+ nevertheless, now, rightly,
seeing, since, surely, then, therefore,
+ (al-)though, + till, truly,
+ until, when, whether,
while, whom, yea, yet.

The entire "definition" of ki is included here because of its significance in this verse
- depending on how you choose to "translate" it.

Notice how many different ways this one term can be "translated".

Everything after the (-)
is how it is actually "translated" in the KJV Bible.
It is NOT part of the definition itself.

The primary uses are "that, because, when".

There is a separate term for "if",
and it is not used here,
but it is used in verse one,
indicating a different meaning in this verse than "if".
'When' has been chosen as the term
most suggested by the context.
However, "because" might fit just as well.

Deut. 28:3 Blessed you yourselves תא
will be in the town.

And blessed you yourselves תא
will be in the field.

Deut. 28:4 Blessed will be
the fruit of your womb,
and the fruit of your soil,
and the fruit of your animals,
the offspring of your cattle,
and the young of your flocks.

Deut. 28:5 Blessed will be your basket
and your kneading bowl.

Deut. 28:6 Blessed will you be when you come in,
and blessed will you be when you go out.

Deut. 28:7 YAHWEH will give
your adversaries themselves תא
who rise up against you
to being struck before your face.
They will come out against you one way
but seven ways they will flee before your faces.

Deut. 28:8 YAHWEH will direct the blessing itself תא
for you yourselves תא into your storehouses
and into everything to which you set your hand.
And He will bless you in the land
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you.

Deut. 28:9 YAHWEH will establish you as a set apart people for Himself as He has sworn to you when you protect the directives themselves תא

of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
and you are walking in His ways.

Deut. 28:10 And all peoples of the earth will see that the Name of YAHWEH
is proclaimed over you!
And they will be afraid of you!

Deut. 28:11 And YAHWEH will cause good to remain with you
in the fruit of your womb,
in the fruit of your animals,
and in the fruit of your soil
upon the soil which YAHWEH swore to your forefathers
for the sake of giving it to you.

Deut. 28:12 YAHWEH will open wide for you
His beneficial storehouse itself נא,
the skies themselves נא,
giving the rain of your land at its time,
and blessing all the actions
of your hands themselves נא.

And you will lend to many nations,
but you will not borrow.

Deut. 28:13 And YAHWEH will set you
as the head, and not the tail.
And you will only be above,
and you will not be beneath
when you listen attentively
to the directives of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
which I am giving as direction to you today,
for the sake of protecting them,
and for the sake of doing them, Deut. 28:14 and you do not turn aside from any of the words
which I am giving as direction
to you yourselves נא today, right or left,
for the sake of going after other gods,
for the sake of serving them.

Deut. 28:15 And it will exist
if you do not listen attentively
to the voice of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
for the sake of protecting,
for the sake of doing
all His directives themselves נא
and His rules
which I am giving to you as direction today
then all these curses will come upon you
and they will affect you!

Deut. 28:16 Cursed will you be in the town.
And cursed will you be in the field.

Deut. 28:17 Cursed will be your basket
and your kneading bowl.

Deut. 28:18 Cursed will be
the fruit of your womb
and the fruit of your soil,

the offspring of your cattle,
and the young of your flocks.

Deut. 28:19 Cursed will you be when you come in.
And cursed will you be when you go out.

Deut. 28:20 YAHWEH will send against you
the curse itself נא,
the confusion itself נא,
and the rebuke itself נא
in all that you extend your hand to, whatever you are doing,
until you are destroyed

and until you perish quickly because of the presence of the evil of your doings
by which you have forsaken Me!
Note the shift to first person singular, "Me".

Deut. 28:21 YAHWEH will cause the pestilence itself תא to cling to you until He has consumed you yourselves תא
from upon the soil which you yourselves תא
are going there to occupy.

Deut. 28:22 YAHWEH will strike you
with emaciation,
and with inflammation,
and with burning fever,
and with extreme heat,
and with the sword,
and with dehydration,
and with paleness!
And they will pursue you until you perish!

Deut. 28:23 And your skies
which are above your head will be copper,
and the land which is under you iron!

Deut. 28:24 YAHWEH will give the rain itself תא of your land
as powder and dust.
From the skies it will come down on you
until you are destroyed!

Deut. 28:25 YAHWEH will give to you being stricken
before the faces of your adversaries.
You will go out one way against them
but you will flee seven ways before their faces!
And you will become an agitation
to all the kingdoms of the earth.
Deut. 28:26 And your carcasses will be for eating for all the birds of the skies
and the animals of the earth.
And no one will cause them trembling.

Deut. 28:27 YAHWEH will strike you
with the boils of Mitsraim, with hemorrhoids,
with scabs,
and with itching
from which you will not be able to be healed!

Deut. 28:28 YAHWEH will strike you
with insanity,
and blindness,
and bewilderment of heart!

Deut. 28:29 And you will be groping at noon
like how the blind gropes in darkness!

And you will not cause
your pathways themselves תא to succeed!
And you will surely be oppressed
and robbed every day with no deliverer!
moshia' - one who delivers, saves, etc.
This is a form of "Messiah"
and that is indeed its meaning.

In this specific context
this term has very profound meaning.
There will be no "Messiah"
for those who reject YAHWEH and His ways!

Deut. 28:30 You will become engaged to a woman,
but another man will lie with her.

You will build a house,
but you will not dwell in it.
You will plant a vineyard,
but you will not use its fruit.

Deut. 28:31 Your ox will be slaughtered
in your sight,
but you will not eat from it.
Your male ass will be stolen
from before your face
and it will not be returned to you.
Your sheep will be given to your adversaries
and there is no deliverer.

The prophetic dimension is obvious to those who know Scripture well.

Deut. 28:32 Your sons and your daughters
will be given to another people!
And your eyes will watch.
And you will long for them all the day.
But there will be no strength for your hands.

Deut. 28:33 The fruit of your land and all your efforts will be consumed
by a people whom you have not known.
And you will be only oppressed
and crushed every day!

Deut. 28:34 And you will be driven insane
by the sight which your eyes see!

Deut. 28:35 YAHWEH will strike you
with hurtful boils
upon the knees and upon the thighs from which you are not able to be healed
from the sole of your foot
to the top of your head!

Deut. 28:36 YAHWEH will bring
you yourselves nx
and the king himself nx
whom you have established over you to a nation which you yourselves nx
or your fathers have not known!
And there you will serve other gods
of wood and stone.

Deut. 28:37 And you will become an astonishment,
a proverb,
and an object of ridicule
among all the peoples
to which YAHWEH drives you!

Deut. 28:38 Much seed
you will take out into the field,
but little will you gather in.
Indeed, the locust will consume it!

Deut. 28:39 Vineyards you will plant.
And you will work,
but wine you will not drink.
And you will not gather because maggots will devour it!

Deut. 28:40 Olive trees you will have
in all your territory,
but with oil you will not be anointed
because your olives will drop off!

Deut. 28:41 Sons and daughters,
you will give birth to,
but they will not be yours
because they will go into captivity!

Deut. 28:42 All your trees
and the fruit of your soil
crickets will occupy!

Deut. 28:43 The foreigner who is in your midst will rise up over you, higher, higher!
But you yourselves תֵּן

will descend lower, lower!

Deut. 28:44 He will lend to you but you yourselves תֵּן will not lend to him.
He will be the head,
and you yourselves תֵּן will be the tail.

Deut. 28:45 And all these curses
will come upon you!
And they will pursue you!
And they will affect you
until you are destroyed
because you did not listen attentively
to the voice of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
for the sake of protecting
His directives and His rules
which He has given as direction to you!

Deut. 28:46 And they will be with you as a sign and as an awesome display!
And they will be with your seed until eternity

olam - properly, concealed,
i.e. the vanishing point;
generally, time out of mind (past or future),
i.e. (practically) eternity.

The impact of these "curses"
is identified as unending.
It's difficult for us to comprehend this truth of Scripture.
We simply don't perceive this to be happening.

However, it is vital that you recognize what this really says.
It states that those who refuse to listen attentively
to what YAHWEH teaches His people, Yisra'el, are rejecting His authority in their lives.

They are literally rejecting Him.

To reject Him means they will NEVER be set free
from these "curses".
They will endure them FOREVER.

That's the result of "disbelief", of failing to trust YAHWEH
with "all your heart and all your being.

This is totally in agreement with the entire corpus of Scripture.

Deut. 28:47 because you have not served YAHWEH Himself תֵּן, your Elohim, with joy and with a good heart
amidst an abundance of everything.

Deut. 28:48 You will even serve your adversaries themselves תֵּן, whom YAHWEH will send against you,
in hunger,
and in thirst,
and in nakedness,
and in need of everything!
And he will put a yoke of iron on your necks
until he has destroyed you yourselves תֵּן!

Deut. 28:49 YAHWEH will lift up over you
a nation from afar,
from the end of the earth,

like an eagle flying swiftly;
a nation whose language
you will not understand,
Deut. 28:50 a nation fierce of countenance which does not regard the elderly and does not show favor to the young!
Deut. 28:51 And they will consume
the fruit of your livestock
and the fruit of your soil
until you are destroyed!
They will not leave for you grain,
wine,
or oil,
offspring of your cattle,
or the young of your flocks
until they have destroyed you yourselves תא!

Deut. 28:52 And they will lay siege against you in all your gates until your high and fenced walls in which you yourselves תא are trusting come down in all your land!
And they will lay siege against you
in all your gates,
in all your land
which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has given to you!

Deut. 28:53 And you will eat
the fruit of your womb,
the flesh of your sons and your daughters
whom YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has given to you,
in the siege and confinement
with which your adversaries will constrain you!

*The oppression was so intense that eventually they had to eat
the flesh of their own children to survive.
Everyone turns against those of his own household
in pure and absolute selfishness
- even the most gentle of the people would end up doing this to survive.*

Deut. 28:54 The tender man among you and the one who is exceedingly gentle will have evil in his eyes against his kindred,
against the wife of his bosom,
and against the rest of his children
whom he has remaining, Deut. 28:55 against giving to any of them
the flesh of his children that he is eating on account of nothing being left for him in the siege and in the confinement with which your enemies
have oppressed you within all your gates!

Deut. 28:56 The tender among you and the gentle one who has not tried to set the sole of her foot on the ground
because of her gentleness and her tenderness, her eye will be evil
against the husband of her bosom,
and against her son,
and against her daughter,
Deut. 28:57 and against the afterbirth
coming out from between her feet,
and against her children
to whom she gives birth.
Indeed, she will eat them in secret
because of her lack of anything in the siege and in the confinement
with which your adversaries
are constraining you within your gates!

Deut. 28:58 If you do not protect,
for the sake of doing,
all the words themselves תא of this Torah,
those written on this scroll,
for the sake of revering
this honorable and awesome Name itself תא,
YAHWEH Himself תא, your Elohim.
Deut. 28:59 then YAHWEH will cause extraordinary acts,
blows themselves תא,
even blows to you yourselves תא
and blows to your seed,
great and unwavering blows,
and evil maladies,
even unwavering maladies!

Deut. 28:60 And He will return on you all the diseases themselves תא of Mitsraim which you feared!
And they will cling to you!

Deut. 28:61 Also every malady
and every blow
which is not written on the scroll of this Torah YAHWEH will bring upon you
until you are destroyed!

Deut. 28:62 And you will be left with few adults
although you had become
like the stars of the skies in abundance
because you did not listen attentively
to the voice of YAHWEH, your Elohim!

Deut. 28:63 And it will exist
that as YAHWEH rejoiced over you for the sake of doing good to you yourselves תא
and for the sake of increasing you yourselves תא, likewise, YAHWEH will rejoice over you
for the sake of destroying you yourselves תא
and laying waste you yourselves תא!

And you will be torn away from upon the soil
which you yourselves תא are going to occupy!

SPECIAL NOTE:

This is a VERY important principle of Scripture.
IF (and only if) you will NOT be faithful to YAHWEH
as one who has pledged himself to be faithful to YAHWEH,
THEN YAHWEH,
Who promised abundant goodness to you,
will become your ENEMY!

HE will REJOICE in your destruction!
HE will bring you to NOTHING!
You will be REMOVED from the promise of a future with Him!

NEVER FORGET
that rebellion against YAHWEH
failure to do His will, is SIN!

YAHWEH cannot and will not tolerate any sin in His presence!

It is not enough
that you once receive and trust
the promise of forgiveness from YAHWEH.
If you later reject YAHWEH
and His ways intentionally YAHWEH will reject you as well!

Study the Word of YAHWEH
on this matter very carefully.
You will discover that throughout the Word of YAHWEH
this concept is consistent!

There is no such thing
as "once saved always saved"
without faithfulness to YAHWEH!

Deut. 28:64 And YAHWEH will disperse you
among all the peoples,
from one end of the earth as far as the other!
And there you will serve other gods
which neither you yourselves nx
nor your fathers have known,
wood and stone.

Deut. 28:65 And in those nations
you will not be calm!
And there will be no rest for the sole of your foot!
And YAHWEH will give to you there
a heart of trembling,
and failing eyes,
and anguish of life!

Deut. 28:66 And your life will be in suspense in front of you!
And you will be startled day and night!
And you will not be certain of your life!
Deut. 28:67 In the morning you will say,
'What I would give for evening!'
And at evening you will say,
'What I would give for morning!'
because of the fear of your heart with which you fear
and from the sights which your eyes will see!

Deut. 28:68 And YAHWEH will cause you to return to Mitsraim in ships
by a way of which I said to you,
'You will not see it again.'
And there you will be sold to your adversaries
as male and female slaves,
but no one is buying."

Chapter 29

Deut. 29:1 (H28:69)
These are the words of the covenant which YAHWEH gave as direction to Moshe himself nx to cut with the children of Yisra'el themselves nx
in the land of Mo'ab
apart from The Covenant which He Himself nx cut at Horeb.

Chapter 29 starts here in the Hebrew text.

Deut. 29:2 (H29:1)
And Moshe called together all Yisra'el.
And he said to them,
"You yourselves nx have seen
everything itself nx
that YAHWEH did before your eyes
in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his servants,
and to his entire land,

Deut. 29:3 (H29:2)
the great testings
which were seen by your eyes,
the signs,
and those great awesome displays.

Deut. 29:4 (H29:3)
But YAHWEH has not given to you a heart to know,
and eyes to see,
and ears to hear
until this day.

Deut. 29:5 (H29:4)
And I have led you yourselves nx
forty years in the wilderness.

Your clothes have not worn out
from upon you,
and your sandals have not worn out
from upon your feet.

Deut. 29:6 (H29:5)

Food you have not eaten
and wine and strong drink
you have not drunk
in order that you might know that

'I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim.'

There is a shift in the "speaker" in this verse.
It reads as if YAHWEH Himself is speaking,
not Moshe.

This presents a dilemma for us.

On the one hand, Moshe was their leader.

But on the other hand,

he was acting as "spokesman" for YAHWEH,
conveying to them His intent and instructions.

He was, effectively, an ambassador.

And as an ambassador his words were to be seen as being the words of the One Who sent him.

The last two lines appear frequently
in The Old Covenant Scriptures.

They have been placed in quotes here to reflect that this portion of Moshe's message was likely a standard phrasing used to identify YAHWEH's repeated teaching that He alone is their Elohim.

Deut. 29:7 (H29:6)

And you have come to this place.

And Sihon, king of Heshbon,

and Og, king of Bashan,

encountered us for battle.

And we struck them.

Deut. 29:8 (29:7)

And we took their land itself nx.

And we gave it as an inheritance

to the Re'ubenites,

and to the Gadites,

and to half the tribe of Menashe.

Deut. 29:9 (H29:8)

And you are to protect

the words themselves nx of this Covenant.

And you are to do they themselves nx

in order that you will act wisely

in everything itself nx that you do.

Deut. 29:10 (H29:9)

You yourselves nx are standing today,

all of you,

before the face of YAHWEH, your Elohim;

your heads of your tribes,

and your elders,

and your officers,

all the men of Yisra'el,

Deut. 29:11 (H29:10)

your children,

your wives,

and your strangers

who are in the midst of your encampment,

from the hewer of wood

to the drawer of your water,

Deut. 29:12 (H29:11)

for the sake of passing over into a covenant

with YAHWEH, your Elohim,

and into His oath,

which YAHWEH, your Elohim,

is cutting with you today

Deut. 29:13 (H29:12)

for the sake of establishing

you yourselves nx today

as a people for Himself.

And He Himself is to exist as your Elohim according to what He has spoken to you and according to what He has sworn to your forefathers, to Abraham, to Yitzhak, and to Ya'akov.

Deut. 29:14 (H29:13)

And not only with you yourselves אַתְּ am I cutting this covenant itself אַתְּ
and this oath itself אַתְּ,

Deut. 29:15 (H29:14)

but instead, with whoever themselves אַתְּ is standing here with us today
before the face of YAHWEH, our Elohim,
and with whoever themselves אַתְּ
is not here with us today.

This is a most important verse.

It identifies that the covenant and oath entered into prior to passing over The Yarden into the land of the promise applies not merely to those who were standing there, but also to those who would follow YAHWEH according to the trust of Abraham.

Deut. 29:16 (H29:15)

Indeed, you yourselves אַתְּ know how we dwelt in the land of Mitsraim itself אַתְּ and how we passed through the nations themselves אַתְּ which you passed through.

Deut. 29:17 (H29:16)

And you have seen their detestable things themselves אַתְּ and their idols themselves אַתְּ, wood and stone, silver and gold, that were with them.

Deut. 29:18 (H29:17)

Beware, lest there is among you a man, or woman, or a family, or a tribe today whose heart is turning away from YAHWEH, our Elohim, for the sake of going and serving the gods themselves אַתְּ of those nations, lest there exists among you a root bearing fruit of bitterness and wormwood!

Deut. 29:19 (H29:18)

And it will exist in hearing the words themselves אַתְּ of this oath that he will bless himself in his heart saying, 'I have well being for myself because in the stubbornness of my heart I am walking.', in order to sweep away the saturated with the thirsty.

It's believed the last two lines are a Hebraism, although the meaning is uncertain. It appears to refer to the concept of destroying both the good and the bad as a result of one's stubbornness.

Deut. 29:20 (H29:19)

YAHWEH is not willing to forgive him!

Indeed, the smoke of YAHWEH's anger and His zeal will be against that man! And all the curses that are written on this scroll will pounce upon him!

And YAHWEH will erase his name itself nx
from under the skies!

Deut. 29:21 (H29:20)

And YAHWEH will separate him
for the sake of what is bad
from all the tribes of Yisra'el
according to all the curses of the covenant,
those written on this document of the instructions!

Deut. 29:22 (H29:21)

And they will say to the generation to come
of your children who will rise up after you,
and to the stranger who comes from a far land
and they see

the blows themselves nx of that land and the maladies themselves nx

which YAHWEH has laid against it saying,

Deut. 29:23 (H29:22)

'Brimstone and burning salt is the entire land.

It is not sown,

and it does not sprout,

and not any grass grows there,

like the destruction of Sodom and Amarah,

Admah and Tzeboyim,

which YAHWEH overthrew in His anger,

even His hot anger.'

Deut. 29:24 (H29:23)

And all nations will say,

'For what reason has YAHWEH

done according to this to this land?

Why this great burning anger?'

Deut. 29:25 (H29:24)

And it will be said,

'Because they have forsaken

The Covenant itself nx of YAHWEH

The Elohim of their forefathers,

which He cut with them

when He brought forth they themselves nx

from the land of Mitsraim.

Deut. 29:26 (H29:25)

And they went and served other gods.

And they bowed themselves to them,

gods that they did not know

and which He had not apportioned to them.

Deut. 29:27 (H29:26)

And the anger of YAHWEH

was kindled against this land

for the sake of bringing upon it all the curses themselves nx,

those written in this document.

Deut. 29:28 (H29:27)

And YAHWEH tore them away from from upon their soil in His anger,

even heated anger,

and in His great rage.

And He threw them into another land

as it is today.'

Deut. 29:29 (H29:28)

The hidden things

are for YAHWEH, our Elohim.

But the revealed things

are for us and for our children to eternity

for the sake of doing

all the words themselves nx of this Torah.

Chapter 30

Deut. 30:1 And it will exist

when all these words come upon you,

the blessing and the curse

which I have given before your faces,

and you have returned them to your heart
among all the nations
where YAHWEH, your Elohim, has driven you, Deut. 30:2 and you return
to YAHWEH, your Elohim,
and you listen attentively to His voice
according to all that I have given as direction today to you yourselves nx and your children,
with all your heart and with all your life
Deut. 30:3 then YAHWEH, your Elohim, will turn back your captivity itself nx.
And He will have compassion on you.
And He will return.
And He will gather you from all the peoples
where YAHWEH your Elohim,
has scattered you.
Deut. 30:4 If you are driven out to the extremities of the skies,
from there YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will gather you!
And from there He will take you!

Deut. 30:5 And YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will bring you to the land
which your forefathers occupied,
and you will occupy it.
And He will be good to you.
And He will increase you
more than your forefathers.

Deut. 30:6 And YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will circumcise your heart itself nx
and the heart itself nx of your seed
for the sake of loving YAHWEH Himself nx, your Elohim,
with all your heart
and with all your life
in order that you may live.

Deut. 30:7 And YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will put all these curses themselves nx upon your adversaries
and on those hating you who persecuted you.

Deut. 30:8 And you yourselves nx will return.
And you will listen attentively
to the voice of YAHWEH.
And you will do all His directives
which I am giving as directions to you today.
Deut. 30:9 And YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will cause you to excel
in all the actions of your hands,
in the fruit of your womb,
and in the fruit of your animals,
and in the fruit of your soil
for the sake of good.

Indeed, YAHWEH will return to rejoicing over you for good as He rejoiced over your forefathers Deut. 30:10 if you will listen attentively
to the voice of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
for the sake of protecting
His directives and His rules,
the ones written on this scroll of The Torah,
if you return to YAHWEH, your Elohim,
with all your heart
and with all your life.

Deut. 30:11 Indeed, this directive
which I am giving to you as direction today
is not too difficult for you,
and it is not remote.
Deut. 30:12 It is not in the skies

for the sake of saying,
'Who can ascend into the skies for us
and bring it to us,
and cause us to hear it itself נא?
Then we will do it?'
Deut. 30:13 And it is not beyond the sea
for the sake of saying,
'Who will pass over the sea for us,
and bring it to us,
and cause us to hear it itself נא?
Then we will do it.'

Deut. 30:14 Indeed, exceedingly near to you is the word,
in your mouth
and in your heart,
for the sake of doing it.

Deut. 30:15 Observe!
I have set before you today
the life itself נא,
and the good itself נא,
and the death itself נא,
and the bad itself נא
Deut. 30:16 by which I am directing you today
to love YAHWEH Himself נא, your Elohim,
to walk in His ways,
and to protect His directives,
and His rules,
and His regulations!

Then you will live and you will increase.
And YAHWEH, your Elohim, will bless you in the land to which you yourselves נא
are going for the sake of occupying it.

Deut. 30:17 But if your heart turns away,
and you do not listen attentively,
and you are drawn away,
and you bow down to other gods,
and you serve them,
Deut. 30:18 I have declared to you today
that you will perish,
you will perish!
You will not prolong your days upon the soil which you yourselves נא are passing over The Yarden itself נא
to go there and occupy it!

Deut. 30:19 I cause to be witnesses against you today
the skies themselves נא
and the earth itself נא!

Life and death I have set before you,
the blessing and the curse!
Now choose life for the sake of living,
you yourselves נא and your seed,

Deut. 30:20 by loving YAHWEH Himself נא,
your Elohim,
by listening attentively to His voice,
and by clinging to Him!
Indeed, He is your life
and the length of your days
for the sake of dwelling upon the soil
which YAHWEH swore to your forefathers,
to Abraham, to Yitzhak, and to Ya'akov,
to give to them!"

Chapter 31

Deut. 31:1 And Moshe went.
And he spoke these words themselves נא
to all Yisra'el.

Deut. 31:2 And he said to them,
"I am one hundred and twenty years old today.
I am no longer able to go out and to come in.
And YAHWEH has said to me,
'You will not pass over this Yarden itself nx.'

Deut. 31:3 YAHWEH, your Elohim,
He is passing over before your faces.
He will destroy these nations themselves nx
from before your faces.
And you are to drive them out.

Yahoshua, he is passing over before your faces,
according to what YAHWEH has spoken.

Yahoshua - or more correctly, YAHU-shua, means YAH is deliverer.

This is an extremely important name in Scripture!

It has clearly been modified
by 'the traditions of men'
because of its inclusion of "YAHU"
in the Hebrew form.
YAHU ha been altered to Yeho
and then "translated" as 'Joshua' -(Yehoshua) thus removing any association with YAHWEH.

The tradition of "not pronouncing"
the Name of YAHWEH
(or, YAHUWEH, as some believe it was originally pronounced)
meant that this name had to be modified to "protect" the name of YAHWEH
from being "mis-pronounced.
Thus, an 'e' was substituted for the 'a',
thereby changing the name itself.

NOTE: THIS IS ALSO THE NAME OF THE MESSIAH HIMSELF, YAHUSHUA!

Instead of 'Jesus" we should have 'Joshua"
- IF the translators were consistent in their work,
which they most certainly were not!

Note: See Acts 7.45, Col. 4.11, & Hebrews 4.8
in the King James Bible.
You will see the problem plainly.

While this was Yahoshua, son of Nun.
The Messiah is YAHUSHUA, The Son of YAHWEH!
The symbolism is most profound.

And take note of the fact that YAHWEH Himself is passing over before their faces,
as well as Yahoshua.

Deut. 31:4 And YAHWEH will do to them
as He did to Sihon and to Og,
the kings of the Amorites, and their land
when He destroyed they themselves nx.
Deut. 31:5 And YAHWEH will give them over before your faces.
And you are to do to them
according to all the directives
which I have given as instruction
to you yourselves nx.

Deut. 31:6 Be strong!
And be courageous!
Do not be afraid!
And do not be in dread because of them!
Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
He Himself, is going with you!
He will not fail you!
And He will not abandon you!

Deut. 31:7 And Moshe called Yahoshua.
And he said to him
before the eyes of all Yisra'el,

“Be strong!
And be courageous!
Indeed, you yourself תא are to go with this people themselves תא
into the land which YAHWEH
has sworn to their forefathers
for the sake of giving it to them!
And you yourself תא are to cause them
to inherit it itself תא.

Deut. 31:8 And YAHWEH Himself is The One going before your face!
He will be with you!
He will not fail you!
And He will not abandon you!
You are not to be afraid!
And you are not to fall to pieces.”
chathath - properly, to prostrate;
hence, to break down,
either (literally) by violence,
or (figuratively) by confusion and fear;
to be shattered.

This term is often translated
as dismayed or discouraged,
but it also means to be shattered.
From our frame of reference
the concept of "falling to pieces" seems to parallel
the thought behind this term.

Deut. 31:9 And Moshe wrote
this Torah itself תא.
And he gave it to the priests,
the sons of Levi, who carried The Chest of The Covenant itself תא
of YAHWEH,
and to all the elders of Yisra'el.

Deut. 31:10 And Moshe gave directions
to they themselves תא
saying, “At the end of seven years, at the appointed time of the year
of remission of debt,
at The Festival of Sukkot, Deut. 31:11 at the coming of all Yisra'el for the sake of being seen before the face of YAHWEH Himself תא,
your Elohim,
at the place which He chooses
you are to read this instruction itself תא
in front of of all Yisra'el in their hearing!

Deut. 31:12 Assemble the people themselves תא,
the men,
and the women,
and the children,
and your stranger who is within your gates in order that they may listen attentively and learn, learn to revere
YAHWEH Himself תא, your Elohim,
and protect for the sake of doing
all the words themselves תא of this Torah!

Deut. 31:13 And their children,
who have not known it,
are to listen attentively.
And they are to learn to revere
YAHWEH Himself תא, your Elohim,
all the days which you yourselves תא
live upon the soil which you yourselves תא
are passing over The Yarden itself תא
for the sake of occupying it.”

Deut. 31:14 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,

“Behold!
The days have approached
for the sake of your dying.
Call Yahoshua himself נא.
And station yourselves
at The Tent of Appointment.
And I will give him direction.”

And Moshe and Yahoshua went.
And they stationed themselves
at the Tent of Meeting.
Deut. 31:15 And YAHWEH was seen by them
at The Tent in a column of cloud.
And the column of cloud stood above the entrance of The Tent.

Deut. 31:16 And YAHWEH said to Moshe,
“Behold!
You are going to lie down with your fathers.
And this people will rise up and commit adultery
after the gods of the foreigners of the land where they are going into it's midst.

And they will abandon Me.
And they will break My Covenant itself נא
which I have cut with they themselves נא.

Deut. 31:17 And My anger
will be kindled against them in that day!
And I will abandon them!
And I will hide My face from them!.
And they will be consumed!
And abundant evils and troubles
will come to them!

And it will be said in that day,
'Is it not because our Elohim is not in our midst that these evils have come upon us?'

Deut. 31:18 And I will hide.
I will hide My face in that day
on account of all the evil which they have done
because they have turned to other gods.

Deut. 31:19 And now write for yourselves
this song itself נא!
And teach it to
the children of Yisra'el themselves נא!

Put it in their mouths
for the sake of teaching that this song is to be Mine for the sake of a witness
against the children of Yisra'el.

Deut. 31:20 When I bring them to the soil
which I swore to their forefathers,
flowing with milk and honey,
and they have eaten,
and are filled to satisfaction,
and they are fat,
then they will turn toward other gods.
And they will serve them.
And they will scorn Me.
And they will break My Covenant itself נא.

Frequently in modern "translations"
a series of statements
is turned into one continuous sentence,
using commas to separate the "clauses".
This is most unfortunate.
The verb tenses indicate specific things concerning who is identified as the acting party in these statements.
This needs to be set forth plainly.
These are separate actions!

They need to be treated separately.

When this is done
there is a far greater impact on the reader of the text concerning what is set forth.

Deut. 31:21 And when it exists that many evils and troubles
have come upon they themselves אָנְכֶם, then this song will testify against them
as a witness.

Indeed, it is not to be mislaid
from the mouths of their seed!

Indeed, I know the plans themselves אָנְכֶם
which they are making today, even before they go into the land of which I have sworn!"

Deut. 31:22 And Moshe
wrote this song itself אָנְכֶם that very day.
And he taught it
to the children of Yisra'el themselves אָנְכֶם.

Deut. 31:23 And He gave direction to Yahoshua himself אָנְכֶם, son of Nun.
And he said,
"Be strong and courageous!
Indeed, you yourself אָנְכֶם are to bring the children of Yisra'el themselves אָנְכֶם
into the land which I have sworn to them!
And I Myself will be with you."

אֲנִי אֶהְיֶה ehyeh - a form of the verb "to be" (hayah)
This is the word used in Exodus 3.14
that has often been "translated" as "I AM".

In every other instance of its usage except Exodus 3.14
it is translated as "I will be".

To do the same thing
as was done in Ex. 3.14 in this verse
we would have the text read
"And I, I AM, am with you."

Deut. 31:24 And it was as Moshe had finished writing
the words themselves אָנְכֶם of this Torah
on a scroll to their completion.

Deut. 31:25 And Moshe gave direction to the Levites themselves אָנְכֶם, those carrying The Chest
of The Covenant of YAHWEH saying,

Deut. 31:26 "Take this scroll of The Torah, it itself אָנְכֶם.
And you are to place it itself אָנְכֶם
beside The Chest of The Covenant
of YAHWEH, your Elohim!
And it is to be there as a witness against you!

Deut. 31:27 Indeed, I myself know your rebellion itself אָנְכֶם
and your stiff neck itself אָנְכֶם!

Behold!
In my being still alive with you today
you have been rebelling against YAHWEH.
And how much more after my death?

Deut. 31:28 Assemble to me
all the elders themselves אָנְכֶם
of your tribes and your officers.
And I will speak in their ears
these words themselves אָנְכֶם.

And I will cause to testify against them
the skies themselves אָ
and the earth itself אָ
Deut. 31:29 because I know after my death
you will indeed be corrupt, be corrupt!
And you will turn aside from the way
which I have given as instruction
to you yourselves אָ
And you yourselves אָ
will encounter the evil in the last days!

Indeed, you will do what is evil itself אָ
in the eyes of YAHWEH
for the sake of provoking Him to anger
with the actions of your hands.”

Deut. 31:30 And Moshe spoke in the ears of all the assembly of Yisra'el
the words themselves אָ of this song to their completion.

Chapter 32

Deut. 32:1 Listen skies, and I will speak!
And listen attentively earth,
to the words of my mouth!
Deut. 32:2 My instruction will drop like rain.
My speech will drip like dew,
like fine rain on the tender plants,
and like showers on the grass.
Deut. 32:3 Indeed, I will proclaim
the Name of YAHWEH,
ascribe greatness to our Elohim,
Deut. 32:4 The Rock!
His acts are whole!
Indeed, all His ways are justice!
El of truth and not moral perversion,
just and even is He!

Deut. 32:5 They are corrupted toward Him.
They are not His children.
Their defect is being a perverse and twisted generation.
The Hebrew is difficult.

Deut. 32:6 Is this how you treat YAHWEH,
as a people foolish and not wise?

Is He not your Father?
He created you!
He made you!
And He established you!

Deut. 32:7 Remember the days of old!
Consider the years of many generations!
Ask your father and he will declare it to you,
your elders, and they will tell you!

Deut. 32:8 As the Most High caused the nations to inherit,
as He separated the children of human beings,
He set the boundaries of the peoples
according to the number
of the children of Yisra'el.

Deut. 32:9 Indeed, the allotment of YAHWEH
is His people!
Ya'akov is the measuring line of His inheritance!

Deut. 32:10 He found him in a wilderness,
even in a desolate howling desert.
He encompassed him.
He caused him to understand.
He guarded him like the apple of His eye,

Deut. 32:11 like an eagle
waking up its nestlings,
brooding over its young.
He spread out His wings,
taking him up on His pinions.

Deut. 32:12 YAHWEH alone guided him
and no foreigner was with him.

Deut. 32:13 He caused him to ride on the high places of the land.
And he ate of the produce of the fields.
And He caused him to suck honey
from the craggy rock,
and oil from the flinty rock,
Deut. 32:14 curds of cattle,
and milk of sheep,
with fat of lambs and rams,
the off spring of Bashan,
and goats with the kidney fat of wheat,
and the blood of grapes you drank as wine.

[Kidney fat of wheat is apparently a Hebraism
for the very best of the wheat kernels.](#)

Deut. 32:15 But Yeshurun was gross and he trampled it.
You grew fat.
You were heavy.
You were gorged.
And he abandoned The Elohim,
Who had made him.
And he scorned The Rock of his deliverance.

[Yeshurun means upright.
It's a symbolic name for Yisra'el.](#)

Deut. 32:16 They caused Him to be zealous with strangers.
With detestable things
they provoked Him to anger.
Deut. 32:17 They slaughtered to demons,
not to The Elohim,
to gods they did not know,
new ones who came recently,
which were not revered by your forefathers.

Deut. 32:18 The Rock Who gave birth to you
you have disregarded.
And you have forgotten
The El Who brought you forth.

Deut. 32:19 And YAHWEH saw it!
And He despised it
on account of the provocation
of His sons and His daughters!

Deut. 32:20 And He said,
'I will hide My face from them!
I will see what their end is!
Indeed, they are a generation of perversion,
children in whom is no faithfulness!

Deut. 32:21 They caused Me to be zealous
by what is not a god.
They provoked Me to anger
by their worthlessness.

Now I Myself will make them zealous by what is not a people.
I will provoke them to anger
by a foolish nation.

Deut. 32:22 Indeed, a fire
has been lit in My nostrils
and it will burn to the bottom of Sheol!
And it will consume the earth and its produce.

And it will set ablaze the foundations of hills.

Deut. 32:23 I will sweep them away!
Upon them - what is bad!
My arrows will be exhausted upon them,
32:24 drained by famine,
and devouring heat,
and bitter destruction!

And the teeth of animals
I will send against them with the poison of things crawling in the dust!

Deut. 32:25 Outside the sword bereaves
and within is fright,
even young men,
even young women,
nursing children,
with the men of grey hairs.

Deut. 32:26 I said, 'I will blow them away!
I will cause their remembrance
to cease among mortals!'

Deut. 32:27 However, I was concerned about turning aside the adversary lest their adversaries look intently,
lest they say,
'Our exalted hand
and not YAHWEH has done all this.' "

Deut. 32:28 Indeed, they are a nation of vanishing advice
and there is no intelligence in them!

Deut. 32:29 If they were wise
they would understand this.
They would comprehend their final end!

Deut. 32:30 How will one pursue a thousand,
and two cause to flee ten thousand unless their Rock had sold them and YAHWEH had surrendered them?

Deut. 32:31 Indeed, not like our Rock is their rock!
But our adversaries are judges.

Deut. 32:32 Indeed, the vine of Sodom
is their vine,
and from the fields of Amorah
are their grapes, grapes of poison, clusters of bitterness for them.
Deut. 32:33 The heat of monsters is their wine
and the poison of violent asps.
Deut. 32:34 Is it not stored away with Me,
sealed in My storehouses?

Deut. 32:35 Revenge is Mine, and repayment,
for the time their foot slips!

Indeed, near is the day of their calamity!
And suddenly it is prepared for them!

Deut. 32:36 Indeed,
YAHWEH will judge His people!
And upon His servants
He will have compassion
when He sees that their power has disappeared and there is no end
to being confined and being abandoned.
Deut. 32:37 And He will say,

'Where are their gods,
the rocks in which they sought refuge,
Deut. 32:38 who ate the fat of their slaughterings,
and drank the wine of their libations?
Let them arise and surround you!
Let them be a hiding place for you!

Deut. 32:39 Observe now that I Myself,
I Myself am He!
And there is no Elohim besides Me!

I Myself cause one to die!
And I cause one to live!
I have smashed!
And I Myself repair!
And from My hand no one snatches away!

Deut. 32:40 Indeed, I lift My hand toward the skies in oath!
And I say, "As I live to eternity..."

Deut. 32:41 When I have sharpened
My flashing sword
and My hand seizes it in judgment
I will return punishment to My distressors!
And those hating Me I will repay!
Deut. 32:42 I will cause My arrows
to be drunk from blood!
And My sword will devour flesh
from the blood of the slain and the exiles,
from the heads of leaders of the haters!

Deut. 32:43 Rejoice nations, His people!
Indeed, the blood of His servants
He will avenge!
And He will turn back vengeance
to His distressors!
And He will make atonement for His land, His people!"

Deut. 32:44 Then Moshe went with Yahoshua, son of Nun.
And he spoke all the words themselves תא
of this song in the ears of the people.
Deut. 32:45 And Moshe finished speaking all these words themselves תא to all Yisra'el.
Deut. 32:46 And he said to them,
"Set your hearts toward all the words
with which I am testifying against you today, with which you are to direct your children themselves תא
for the sake of protecting,
for the sake of doing
all the words themselves תא of this Torah!

Deut. 32:47 Indeed,
this word is not meaningless!
Indeed, it is your life!

And by this word
you will prolong your days on the soil
which you yourselves תא
are passing over The Yarden itself תא
for the sake of occupying it!"

Deut. 32:48 And YAHWEH spoke to Moshe
that same day saying, Deut. 32:49 "Go up to the hills of the Abarim,
to Mount Nebo

which is in the land of Mo'ab,
which is opposite Yericho.
And look at the land of Kena'an itself אַח
which I Myself am giving
to the children of Yisra'el for a possession.
Deut. 32:50 Then you will die
on the mountain which you ascend.
And you will be gathered to your people
according to how Aaron, your brother, died on Mount Hor
and was gathered to his people, Deut. 32:51 on account of your acting treacherously against Me
in the midst of the children of Yisra'el
at the waters of Meribah Kadesh,
in the Wilderness of Tzyn,
on account of your
not setting apart Me Myself אַח
in the midst of the children of Yisra'el.

Deut. 32:52 Indeed, in front of you
you will see the land itself אַח!
But you will not go there,
into the land which I Myself am giving to the children of Yisra'el!"

Chapter 33

Deut. 33:1 And this is the blessing with which Moshe, the man of The Elohim, blessed the children of Yisra'el before his death.

*This is the first place in Scripture
where the phrase "man of The Elohim" (traditionally, "man of God") is used.*

*This is a very significant form of reference.
Few in Scripture, or in life itself,
are given this great honor.*

Deut. 33:2 And he said,
"YAHWEH came from Sinai.
And He appeared from Se'ir for them.
He radiated from Mount Paran.
And He arrived from Rebeboth Kadesh.

From His right hand,
a royal edict for them.

*The Hebrew is difficult
in the first five verses of this chapter.
Some believe place names are involved.
Others give a more literal meaning of the terms.
There is much debate
about the actual meanings involved.*

*Traditional renderings often include references to a myriad of saints,
fiery law or lightning, etc.
While the above seems to be the sense
it's important that you recognize the difficulty involved in these verses to convey the true
Hebraic intent of the passage.*

Deut. 33:3 Surely He is cherishing a people.
All His set apart ones are in your hand.
And they were strewn about your feet,
receiving your words.

Deut. 33:4 Directions were given to us by Moshe,
a possession of the assembly of Ya'akov.

Deut. 33:5 And He was King in Yeshurun, gathering in the heads of the people,
the tribes of Yisra'el.
Yeshurun means upright; straight, just.

Deut. 33:6 Let Re'uben live and not die.
But let his men be few in number.

Deut. 33:7 And this is for Yahudah.

Then he said, "Listen attentively, YAHWEH,
to the voice of Yahudah.
And bring him to his people.
His hands will contend for him
and You will aid him against his enemies."

Deut. 33:8 And to Levi he said,
"Your Thummim and Your Urim belong to Your Devoted One, Whom You tested at Massah, with Whom You grappled
at the waters of Meribah."

Deut. 33:9 He says of his father and mother,
'I have not seen them.'
And his kindred themselves תא
he does not acknowledge.
And his children themselves תא
he has not known.

Indeed, they have protected Your message.
And Your Covenant they have guarded.
Deut. 33:10 They teach Your regulations to Ya'akov, and Your instruction to Yisra'el.
They place incense in Your nostrils
and whole burnt offerings on Your slaughter site.

Deut. 33:11 Bless, YAHWEH, his ability!
And be pleased with the work of his hands!

Crush the loins of those rising against him,
and those hating him from rising up!"

Deut. 33:12 To Binyamin he said,
"Let the beloved of YAHWEH reside with safety beside Him,
covering him all the day,
even residing between His shoulders."

Deut. 33:13 And to Yoseph he said,
"May YAHWEH bless his land from the choicest dew of the skies,
and from the depths lying below,
Deut. 33:14 and from the choicest produce of the sun,
and from the choicest yield of the months,
Deut. 33:15 and from the tops of the ancient mountains,
and from the choicest of the everlasting hills, Deut. 33:16 and from the choicest of the earth
and from its fulness,
and the delight of Him
Who was residing in the bush!

May it come upon the head of Yoseph,
and on the crown of the head of him
who was separate from his brothers!

Deut. 33:17 Like a firstling ox is his magnificence.
And horns of the wild ox are on him.
Peoples he gores,
united to the ends of the earth.
Even they are the myriads of Ephraim.
Even they are the thousands of Menashe."

Deut. 33:18 And to Zebulun he said,
"Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going forth,
and Yissaskar in your tents!
Deut. 33:19 Peoples will be called to the hills.
There they will sacrifice sacrifices of rightness.
Indeed, abundant resources of the seas
they will suck and treasures hidden by sand!"

Deut. 33:20 And to Gad he said,

“Blessed is he who enlarges Gad!
Like a lion he will dwell!
And he will pull to pieces
the arm with the crown of the head!
Deut. 33:21 And he looked on the best for himself because there the allotment of a scribe was covered over.

And the heads of the people will arrive.
The justice of YAHWEH will be done,
even His judgments of the people of Yisra'el.”

Deut. 33:22 And to Dan he said, “Dan is a lion’s cub.
He leaps from Bashan.”

Deut. 33:23 And to Naphtali he said, “Naphtali, satiated with pleasure,
and filled with the blessing of YAHWEH,
west and south you will occupy!”

Deut. 33:24 And to Asher he said, “Blessed among sons is Asher.
May he be acceptable to his kindred,
even immersing his feet in oil!
Deut. 33:25 Iron and copper are your bolts.
And quiet are your days.”

Deut. 33:26 There is none like El, Yeshurun, mounting the skies with assistance for you and in His majesty, the firmament!
Deut. 33:27 The Elohim of old is a refuge,
and underneath, everlasting arms.
And He drives out the adversary
from before your face.
And He says, ‘Destroy!’

Deut. 33:28 Thus Yisra'el abides in safety.
Separate is the fountain of Ya'akov
in a land of grain and wine.
Indeed, his skies drip with dew!

Deut. 33:29 Happy is Yisra'el!
Who is like you,
a people delivered by YAHWEH,
shield of your assistance,
and Who is your majestic sword!

And your adversaries will lie to you,
but you yourselves תא
will tread down their high places!”

Chapter 34

Deut. 34:1 And Moshe went up from the desert plains of Mo'ab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah
which is opposite Yericho.

And YAHWEH caused him to see
all the land itself תא,
Gil'ad itself תא as far as Dan,
Deut. 34:2 and all of Naphtali itself תא,
and the land itself תא of Ephraim and Menashe,
and all the land of Yahudah itself תא
as far as the hindmost sea,
Deut. 34:3 and the Negev itself תא,
and the plain itself תא of the Valley of Yericho,
the town of palm trees, as far as Tzo'ar.

Deut. 34:4 And YAHWEH said to him,
“This is the land which I swore to Abraham,
to Yitzhak,

and to Ya'akov saying,
'To your seed I will give it.'

I have let you see it with your eyes,
but you will not pass over there."

Deut. 34:5 And Moshe, the servant of YAHWEH, died there in the land of Mo'ab
according to the mouth of YAHWEH.

Deut. 34:6 And He buried he himself nx
in a valley in the land of Mo'ab,
opposite BayitPe'or.
And not a man knows
his burial place itself nx to this day.

Deut. 34:7 And Moshe was one hundred and twenty years old at his death.
His eyes were not dim.
And his vigor had not left him.

Deut. 34:8 And the children of Yisra'el
wept for Moshe himself nx
in the desert plains of Mo'ab for thirty days.
And the days of weeping,
mourning for Moshe were completed.

Deut. 34:9 And Yahoshua, son of Nun,
was filled with The Divine Nature of wisdom.
Indeed, Moshe had laid his hands themselves nx upon him.

And the children of Yisra'el
listened attentively to him.
And they did according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself nx.
ruach - wind; by resemblance breath.
Traditionally translated incorrectly as 'spirit', which is a Greek term
and has no place in Hebrew thought.

The "wind of man" is one's breath.
To the Hebrew mind it represented
the essential nature of the individual.
In this instance it represents the divine nature itself (which tradition would improperly call 'the holy spirit').

Deut. 34:10 And no prophet has arisen in Yisra'el since then like Moshe, whom YAHWEH knew face to face, Deut. 34:11 for the sake of all the signs and awesome displays themselves nx which YAHWEH had sent him to do
in the land of Mitsraim
to Pharaoh,
and to all his servants,
and to all his land,
Deut. 34:12 even for every strong hand
and for every great fearsome deed which Moshe did before the eyes of all Yisra'el!

6. Joshua – Yahoshua

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Josh. 1:1 And it was after the death of Moshe,
the servant of YAHWEH.
And YAHWEH spoke to Yahoshua, son of Nun,
the attendant of Moshe saying,
Yahoshua means
YAH is deliverance, salvation.

This is traditionally translated
as Joshua or Yehoshua, neither of which is correct.

This name and many others were altered by tradition
as a means of preventing
"the mispronunciation"
of the sacred Name of The Elohim (God),
which is YAHWEH.
This name also was used in the form of YAH and YAHU.

By changing the vowel pointing from an "a" to an "e"
it changed the 'sound' of the Name, purportedly protecting it.

The Y was changed to a J.
There is no J in Hebrew and never has been.
There was no J in any language
until around 1500 AD
when Germany "invented" the J sound.

If you study the history of the role of names in Hebrew culture
you quickly recognize that this is a perversion of the Name,
rather than a "protection" of it.

Nun means perpetuity.
"Son of Nun" therefore gives us
"son of perpetuity" - forever, eternity".

Josh. 1:2 "Moshe, My servant, is dead.
And now, stand up!
Pass over this Yarden itself nx,
you yourself nx and this entire people,
to the land which I am giving to them,
to the children of Yisra'el.

Yarden means descender, goes down.
Yisra'el means who is upright with El.

Note: This is not
the traditional meaning given.
It's normally identified as "one who struggled with and/or prevailed with El."

However, when one examines the surrounding terms in a concordance
you discover that this interpretation is based on the story of Ya'akov's struggle with the messenger of YAH,
after which his name was changed.
The words immediately preceding this in Strong's Concordance reveal that the essential root is yashar, straight, upright, just.
This is in far greater agreement with the rest of Scripture
than any other interpretation.

The nation of Yisra'el was always intended to be those who were "straight" with YAHWEH
and in Scriptural terms
straight means on the right path, upright, just, correct, proper, etc.

Josh. 1:3 Every spot where the sole of your foot treads on it
I have given to you
according to what I have spoken to Moshe.
Josh. 1:4 From this desert and this Lebanon
and as far as the great river,
the great River Euphrates,
all the land of the Hittites,
even to the great sea
toward the entrance of the sun
will be your boundary.

Euphrates means rushing.
Hittites is from Heth which means terror.
"entrance of the sun" is a reference to the Hebrew concept of the sun "coming in", referring to its setting.

This is important.
The Hebrew day "came in" at sunset.
It began then, not at sunrise.
It therefore marked the "entrance"
or beginning of the day.
To alter this to fit
the Western concept of days
is to distort the text.

Josh. 1:5 No man will be able to stand before your face
all the days of your life.
As I was with Moshe, I will be with you!
I will not let you down!
And I will not abandon you!

Josh. 1:6 Be strong and courageous!
Indeed, you yourself nx
will cause this people themselves nx
to inherit the land itself nx
which I swore to their forefathers
to give to them!

Josh. 1:7 Only be strong and very courageous
for the sake of protecting,
for the sake of doing
according to all The Torah
which Moshe, My servant,
has given as direction to you.

You are not to turn from it to the right hand or to the left hand in order that you will act prudently wherever you go.

Josh. 1:8 This scroll of The Torah
is not to be withdrawn from your mouth.

And you are to meditate in it day and night
in order that you will protect it for the sake of doing according to all that is written in it.

Indeed, then your way itself nx
will be caused to prosper.
And then you will be caused to be prudent.

Many translations use 'book of The Law'.
The word is torah.
It does not mean "law".
It means instruction.

It is YAHWEH's instruction book for His people.
There is no 'demand' that they follow it,
only a request.
They are free to choose their response.

A "book" in Hebrew history is a SCROLL,
not a book as we Westerners think it is.
We keep changing things
to fit "our selfish ways".
It distorts the text.

hagah - to murmur; by implication, to ponder.
This word is sometimes translated as 'meditate'.
But the implication of the text is far more than that.

Yahoshua is to speak the words,
to murmur, to mutter, to utter them
- day and night.
Why?
Because speaking them out loud
imprints them more deeply in the inner man.

For this very reason:
Scripture should be read out loud
- for greater impact.

Josh. 1:9 Have I not charged you to be strong and courageous?
You are not to be afraid!
And you are not to be discouraged!

Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
is with you wherever you go!"

Josh. 1:10 And Yahoshua gave direction to the officers of the people saying,

Josh. 1:11 "Pass over
into the midst of the encampment.
And give direction
to the people themselves תא saying,

Prepare food for yourselves.

Indeed, in three more days

you yourselves תא are passing over

this Yarden itself תא

for the sake of going in to occupy the land itself תא

which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to you
for the sake of occupying it.' "

Josh. 1:12 And to the Re'ubenites,
and to the Gadites,

and to half the tribe of Menashe

Yahoshua spoke saying,

Josh. 1:13 "Remember the word itself תא

which was given as direction

to you yourselves תא by Moshe,

servant of YAHWEH saying,

'YAHWEH, your Elohim,

is causing you to rest.

And He will give to you this land itself תא.'

Josh. 1:14 Your wives,

your little ones,

and your livestock

are to settle in the land

which Moshe gave you across The Yarden.

But the able bodied of you yourselves תא

are to pass over before your kindred,

every mighty man of strength.

And you are to surround they themselves תא

Josh. 1:15 until YAHWEH

has caused your kindred to rest like you,

and they also have occupied the land itself תא

which YAHWEH, your Elohim, is giving to them.

Then you will return to the land of your possession.

And you will occupy it itself תא

which Moshe, the servant of YAHWEH,

has given to you across The Yarden

toward the rising of the sun."

Josh. 1:16 And they answered

Yahoshua himself תא saying,

"All that you have directed us we will do.

And wherever you send us we will go.

Josh. 1:17 As we listened attentively to Moshe,

likewise we will listen attentively to you.

Furthermore, let YAHWEH, your Elohim,

be with you as He was with Moshe.

Josh. 1:18 Any man who rebels against your mouth itself תא

and does not listen attentively

to your words themselves תא

according to all that you direct him

is to be put to death.

Only be strong and courageous!"

Chapter 2

Josh. 2:1 And Yahoshua, son of Nun, sent out from Shittim
two men spying secretly saying, “Go observe the land itself נא
and Yericho itself נא.”
And they went.

And they came to the house of a woman,
a prostitute.

And her name was Rahab.

And they laid down there.

Shittim is generally thought to mean acacia trees.

It's also connected to terms that mean to pierce, sticks of wood, etc.

The acacia tree is filled with spikey thorns.

Yericho - meaning uncertain.

Some suggest moon,
others suggest fragrance; flowing grief.

Rahab means roomy, broad.

Josh. 2:2 And it was reported to the king of Yericho saying,
“Behold!
Men have come in here tonight
from the children of Yisra'el
for the sake of exploring the land itself נא.”

Josh. 2:3 And the king of Yericho sent to Rahab saying, “Bring out the men,
those having come to you,
who have come to your house.
Indeed, they have come to explore all the land itself נא.”

Josh. 2:4 But the woman took the two men themselves נא and she hid them.
And she said, “Correct, the men came to me.
But I did not know where they were from.

Josh. 2:5 And it was as the gate was shutting,
at dark.

And the men went out.

I do not know where the men went.

Pursue them quickly!

Indeed, you will overtake them!”

Josh. 2:6 But she had caused them to go up to the roof.

And she had hidden them in stalks of flax
which she had arranged on the roof.

Josh. 2:7 And the men pursued them
by the way to The Yarden, over the crossings.
And the gate was shut behind them
as soon as the pursuers had gone out.

Josh. 2:8 And before they laid down
she went up to them on the roof.

Josh. 2:9 And she said to the men,

“I know that YAHWEH

has given to you the land itself נא.

And certainly fright has fallen on us.

And certainly everyone dwelling in the land
has melted from before your faces.

Josh. 2:10 Indeed, we have heard how itself נא YAHWEH
caused to be dried up the water itself נא
of the Sea of Reeds before your faces
at your coming out from Mitsraim, and what you did
to the two kings of the Amorites

who were across The Yarden, Sihon and Og, whom you devoted to destruction,
they themselves נא.
Josh. 2:11 And we heard.
And our hearts melted.
And no breath remained any longer
in anyone before your faces.

Indeed YAHWEH, your Elohim,
He is The Elohim from the skies above and upon the earth beneath!
This is a remarkable witness from one of the people of the land of the promise.
She recognizes and "confesses"
that YAHWEH is The Elohim of all creation!
And she identifies that the entire land is awestruck and in fear.
YAHWEH has prepared the way.

Josh. 2:12 And now please,
swear to me by YAHWEH
because I have done kindness with you that you yourselves נא also will do kindness to my father's household.
And you are to give to me a sign of certainty Josh. 2:13 that you will cause to live
my father himself נא,
and my mother herself נא,
and my brothers themselves נא,
and my sisters themselves נא,
and all that is theirs itself נא,
and you will snatch away
our lives themselves נא from death."

Josh. 2:14 And the men said to her,
"Our lives instead of yours if you do not declare
this matter itself נא of ours.
And it will exist as YAHWEH gives to us
the land itself נא
that we will do with you kindness and certainty."

Josh. 2:15 And she lowered them by a rope through the window
because her house was in the wall.
And she was dwelling in the wall.
Josh. 2:16 And she said to them,
"Go to the mountain
lest the pursuers meet with you!
And you can hide there three days
until the pursuers return.
And afterwards you can go on your way."

Josh. 2:17 And the men said to her,
"We are innocent concerning this oath of yours
which you have caused us to swear Josh. 2:18 unless as we come into the land
you tie this line of scarlet itself נא
in the window through which you lowered us and unless you bring your father himself נא,
and your mother herself נא,
and your kindred themselves נא,
and all your father's household itself נא
to your house.
Josh. 2:19 And it will be that anyone who goes outside the doors of your house to the street,
his blood is on his own head
and we are innocent.
And anyone who is with you yourself נא in the house,
his blood is on our head
if a hand is laid on him.

Josh. 2:20 But if you declare
this matter itself נא of ours

then we will be innocent concerning your oath which you have caused us to swear.”

Josh. 2:21 And she said,
“According to your words so let it be.”
And she sent them away.
And they went.
And she tied the scarlet line itself תא
in the window.

Josh. 2:22 And they left.
And they went to the mountain.
And they sat down there for three days
until the pursuers had returned.
And the pursuers searched for them
in every pathway.
But they were not found.

Josh. 2:23 And the two men returned.
And they went down from the mountain and passed over.
And they came to Yahoshua, son of Nun.
And they reported to him everything itself תא
that had come upon them themselves תא.
Josh. 2:24 And they said to Yahoshua,
“Assuredly, YAHWEH
has given into our hands
all the land itself תא.
And He has also melted
all the inhabitants of the land
from before our faces.”

Chapter 3

Josh. 3:1 And Yahoshua
loaded up in the morning.
And they journeyed from Shittim.
And they came to The Yarden,
he and all the children of Yisra'el.
And they stopped there before they passed over.

Josh. 3:2 And it was at the end of three days.
And the officers passed over
into the midst of the encampment.

Josh. 3:3 And they gave direction
to the people themselves תא
saying, “When you see
The Chest of The Covenant itself תא
of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
and the Levitical priests carrying it itself תא
then you yourselves תא
are to journey from your place.
And you are to walk behind it.

*'arown - a box; chest.
"The Ark" is not
a proper translation of the text.
It was not an "ark",
it was a chest, a box.*

*This Chest represented
the very presence of YAHWEH.
It is He Who was leading them.*

Josh. 3:4 Only there is to be a distance between you and it,
about two thousand cubits in measure.
You are not to approach toward it in order that you know the way itself תא
in which you are to go because you have not passed over on this way
yesterday or the day before.”

Josh. 3:5 And Yahoshua said to the people,
“Set yourselves apart because tomorrow YAHWEH will do extraordinary acts
in your midst.”

qadash - to be clean; consecrate.
The concept is to be morally undefiled.
Every aspect of "holiness"
has to do with being separate,
set apart, undefiled.
Nothing defiled (contaminated) is permitted
in the presence of YAHWEH.

Josh. 3:6 And Yahoshua spoke to the priests saying,
"Lift up The Chest of The Covenant itself תא
and pass over before the people."
And they lifted up
The Chest of The Covenant itself תא.
And they walked before the people.

Josh. 3:7 And YAHWEH said to Yahoshua,
"This day I will begin to magnify you in the eyes of all Yisra'el who will know that as I was with Moshe
I will be with you.

Josh. 3:8 And you yourself תא are to direct the priests themselves תא who are carrying The Chest of The Covenant saying,
'When you come to the edge of the water of The Yarden
you are to stand still in The Yarden.'

Josh. 3:9 And Yahoshua said
to the children of Yisra'el,
"Come near and listen attentively
to the words themselves תא
of YAHWEH, your Elohim."

Josh. 3:10 And Yahoshua said,
"By this you will know that The Living El is in your midst
and that He is driving out, is driving out from before you
the Kena'anites themselves תא,
and the Hittites themselves תא,
and the Hivvites themselves תא,
and the Perizzites themselves תא,
and the Girgashites themselves תא,
and the Amorites,
and the Yebusites!

Kena'an means humiliated.
Hittite is from Chet, meaning terror.
Hivvite means life-giver.
Perrizite means villager.
Girgashite means stranger drawing near (?).
Amorite means mountaineer.
Yebusite means trodden.

This verse provides a perfect example of the error of claiming the aleph-tav
"marks" a "direct object" of a verb.
If that's true, then why is it not used with the last two "nations"?

Josh. 3:11 Behold!
The Chest of The Covenant
of The Sovereign of all the earth is passing over before you into The Yarden.

Josh. 3:12 And now take for yourselves
twelve men from the tribes of Yisra'el,
one man, one man for a tribe.

Josh. 3:13 And it will exist
as the soles of the feet of the priests carrying The Chest of YAHWEH,
The Sovereign of all the earth,
settle down in the waters of The Yarden
the waters of The Yarden will be cut off,
the waters descending from above,
and they will stand as a wave."

Josh. 3:14 And it was as the people set out from their tents for the sake of passing over The Yarden itself נח.
And the priests were carrying
The Chest of The Covenant before the people.
Josh. 3:15 And as those carrying The Chest came to The Yarden,
and the feet of the priests carrying The Chest dipped into the edge of the water (and The Yarden overflowed all its banks
all the days of harvest), Josh. 3:16 even the waters stood,
those descending from above.
They rose up in one wave,
very far away, at Adam,
the town that is beside Tzaretan.

And the waters descending into the desert sea,
the salt sea, were completely cut off.

And the people passed over opposite Yericho.
Josh. 3:17 And the priests carrying
The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH
stood firm on parched ground
in the center of The Yarden.

And all Yisra'el passed over on dry ground,
firmly established,
until all the nation completed passing over
The Yarden itself נח.

The language used here is identical to that used in the crossing of The Reed Sea upon leaving Egypt.
This is not merely "dry" ground,
it is parched ground, desert dry!
Few translations even come close
to identifying this wondrous fact.
The insertion of "firmly established" further confirms that they were not standing in mud.

Also take note of the fact
this was during harvest time, during which The Yarden
was flooding the land.

Chapter 4

Josh. 4:1 And it was as all the people
had completely passed over The Yarden itself נח.
And YAHWEH spoke to Yahoshua, saying, Josh. 4:2 "Take for yourselves from the people
twelve men, one man, one man for a tribe.
Josh. 4:3 And give they themselves נח
direction saying,
"Take for yourselves
from the midst of this Yarden,
from the place where the priests' feet
stood firmly established,
twelve stones.
And you are to cause to pass over
they themselves נח.
And you are to set down they themselves נח
in the encampment
where you stop in it for the night.' "

Josh. 4:4 And Yahoshua called to the twelve men who had been established
from the children of Yisra'el,
one man, one man for a tribe.
Josh. 4:5 And Yahoshua said to them,
"Pass over before
The Chest of YAHWEH, your Elohim, into the center of The Yarden.
And raise for yourselves, each man,
one stone upon his shoulder

according to the number of the tribes
of the children of Yisra'el
Josh. 4:6 in order that this will be a sign in your midst
when your children ask later saying,
'What are these stones for you?'
Josh. 4:7 And you are to tell them that the waters of The Yarden were cut off by the presence of The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH
as it passed over The Yarden.
And these stones
are for the sake of a memorial for the children of Yisra'el forever."

Josh. 4:8 And the children of Yisra'el did so,
according to what Yahoshua directed.
And they lifted up twelve stones
from the center of The Yarden
according to what YAHWEH
had spoken to Yahoshua,
for the number of the tribes
of the children of Yisra'el.
And they passed them over with them to their encampment.
And they set them down there.

Josh. 4:9 And Yahoshua raised up twelve stones
in the center of The Yarden
under where the feet of the priests stood carrying The Chest of The Covenant.
And they are there to this very day.

Josh. 4:10 And the priests carrying The Chest were standing in the center of The Yarden until every word was completed which YAHWEH had given as direction to Yahoshua himself נח to speak to the people, according to everything Moshe
had given as direction to Yahoshua himself נח.

And the people hurried.
And they passed over.
Josh. 4:11 And it was as all the people
had completed passing over.
And The Chest of YAHWEH
and the priests
passed over in the presence of the people.

Josh. 4:12 And the sons of Re'uben,
and the sons of Gad,
and half the tribe of Menashe passed over,
able bodied men,
before the children of Yisra'el,
according to what Moshe had spoken to them.
Josh. 4:13 About forty thousand prepared for the war passed over before YAHWEH
for the sake of warfare
to the desert plains of Yericho.

Josh. 4:14 On that day YAHWEH magnified
Yahoshua himself נח in the eyes of all Yisra'el.
And they revered he himself נח
as they had revered Moshe himself נח
all the days of his life.

The rest of the chapter appears to be an editorial addition since it duplicates the content.
Note the shift
even of terms used for The Chest.

Josh. 4:15 And YAHWEH spoke to Yahoshua saying, Josh. 4:16 "Direct the priests themselves נח
who are carrying The Chest of The Testimony
and have them come up from The Yarden."

Josh. 4:17 And Yahoshua directed the priests themselves nx saying, "Come up from The Yarden."

Josh. 4:18 And it was as the priests came up carrying The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH
from the center of The Yarden.
The soles of the priests' feet were pulled up to the desert ground.

And the waters of The Yarden returned to their place.
And they went as yesterday
and the day before,
over all the land.

Josh. 4:19 And the people came up from The Yarden
on the tenth day of the first month.
And they camped in Gilgal
at the east border of Yericho.

The tenth day of the first month is the day
The Passover Lamb was selected.
This put this event in the month of Abib,
at the beginning of the barley harvest,
which explains the flooding of The Yarden
in the spring of the year.

Josh. 4:20 And these twelve stones themselves nx
which they had taken from The Yarden Yahoshua raised up in Gilgal.

Note the use of "these".
This indicates a later reference
than the original text.

Josh. 4:21 And he spoke to the children of Yisra'el saying,
"When your children
ask their fathers later saying,
'What are these stones?'

Josh. 4:22 then you are to cause
your children themselves nx to understand saying,
'On dry ground Yisra'el passed over this Yarden itself nx

Josh. 4:23 which YAHWEH, your Elohim, dried up before you,
the waters themselves nx of The Yarden,
until you had passed over,
according to what YAHWEH, your Elohim,
did to The Sea of Reeds which He dried up before us
until we had passed over,

Josh. 4:24 in order that all the peoples of the earth will know
the hand itself nx of YAHWEH, that it is strong,
in order that you will revere YAHWEH Himself nx, your Elohim,
all the days."

Chapter 5

Josh. 5:1 And it was as all the kings of the Amorites who were on the other side of The Yarden,
toward the sea,
and all the kings of the Kena'anites
who were by the sea
heard that YAHWEH Himself nx had dried up
the waters themselves nx of The Yarden
from before the children of Yisra'el
until we had passed over.
And their heart melted.
And there was no breath in them any longer
because of the children of Yisra'el.

ruach - wind, breath.
This is far too often translated as 'spirit'.
Spirit is a Greek term.

The Hebrews had no idea what a 'spirit' was.

The modern idiom of "take your breath away"
is far more appropriate in this context.
They were left breathless.

Josh. 5:2 At that time YAHWEH said to Yahoshua,
"Make knives of rock for yourself.
And turn back to circumcise
the sons of Yisra'el themselves תא
a second time."

It's been forty years.
The sons of Yisra'el have not been circumcised
at all during this period.
There is no explanation for why this was so.
Now it is to be done again
as the children of those who died in the wilderness are caused to enter into The Covenant with YAHWEH
as they enter the land of the promise.

The traditional translation states
"knives of flint",
but the word used
means cliff, sharp rock.

Josh. 5:3 And Yahoshua made for himself knives of sharp rock.
And he circumcised
the sons of Yisra'el themselves תא
at The Hill of The Foreskins.

Josh. 5:4 And this is the word
for which Yahoshua circumcised them.
All the people coming out of Mitsraim
who were males, all the men of battle, had died in the wilderness
on the way, having come out of Mitsraim.

Josh. 5:5 Indeed, all were circumcised,
all the people coming out.
But all the people
of those born in the wilderness on the way
in their going forth from Mitsraim had not been circumcised.

Josh. 5:6 Indeed, the children of Yisra'el had walked forty years in the wilderness
until the lives of all the people,
the men of battle coming out from Mitsraim,
had been terminated,
those who had not listened attentively
to the voice of YAHWEH,
those to whom YAHWEH had sworn to them
they would not see the land itself תא which YAHWEH had sworn to their forefathers
that He would give to us,
a land flowing with milk and honey.

Josh. 5:7 And the sons themselves תא whom He raised up instead of they themselves תא
Yahoshua circumcised
because they were uncircumcised.
Indeed, they had not circumcised
they themselves תא on the way.

If you're paying careful attention you'll take notice of the repetition involved in the text.
There is to be no mistake.
The males had not been circumcised
in forty years,
even though that was to have been done by them
on the eight day after birth.

This is one of the key elements in the rebellion of the Children of Yisra'el against the instructions YAHWEH had specifically given them.

We need to take note of the consequences,
- death in the wilderness,
- no entry into the land of the promise!

Josh. 5:8 And it was as they finished,
all the people having been circumcised.
And they sat down in their places
in the encampment until they were whole.

Josh. 5:9 And YAHWEH said to Yahoshua, “Today I have rolled away
the disgrace itself nx of Mitsraim from upon you.”
And they call the name of the place Gilgal until this very day.
Gilgal means wheel, rolling.

Josh. 5:10 And the children of Yisra'el
encamped at Gilgal.
And they prepared The Passover itself nx
on the fourteenth day of the month at dusk
on the desert plains of Yericho.
Note the timing.
The tenth day, they crossed The Yarden,
the males were circumcised.
The Tenth day was the day
The Passover Lamb was selected.
Then on the fourteenth day
Passover was prepared.
They were reminded powerfully of their deliverance from Egypt at the very time they entered into the land of the promise for the first time.

Josh. 5:11 And they ate
from the stored grain of the land on the morrow after The Passover, matsah and roasted grain,
on this very same day.
The eating of matsah
marks the Festival of Unleavened Bread.
They ate of it on this very day,
the 14th of Abib (Nisan).

Josh. 5:12 And the manna ceased on the day after their eating
from the stored grain of the land.

And there was no longer manna
for the children of Yisra'el.
And they ate the produce of the land of Kena'an in that year.

Josh. 5:13 And it was as Yahoshua was at Yericho.
And he lifted his eyes.
And he looked.
And behold!
An individual was standing in front of him.
And His sword was pulled out in His hand.

And Yahoshua walked toward him.
And he said to him,
“Are you yourself nx for us or against us?”
Josh. 5:14 And He said, “No!
Indeed, I Myself have now come as Captain of the Assembly of YAHWEH!”

And Yahoshua fell down
with his face to the ground.
And he bowed himself.
And he said to him,
“What is my Sovereign saying to His servant?”

Josh. 5:15 And the Captain of the Assembly of YAHWEH

said to Yahoshua, “Take off your sandal from upon your foot
because the place
where you yourself תָּא are standing is set apart.”
And Yahoshua did so.

Chapter 6

Josh. 6:1 And Yericho was closed up, closed up from the presence
of the children of Yisra’el.
None were going out
and none were coming in.

Josh. 6:2 And YAHWEH said to Yahoshua, “Observe!

I have given into your hand Yericho itself תָּא
and its king himself תָּא, powerful warriors.

6:3 And you are to encircle the city itself תָּא,
all the men of battle
encircling the city itself תָּא once.

According to this you are to do for six days.

Josh. 6:4 And seven priests
are to carry seven ram's horns
before The Chest.

And on the seventh day
you are to encircle the city itself תָּא seven times.
And the priests are to sound the ram's horns.

shofar - a cornet or curved horn.
These were made from the horns of rams.
They are not "trumpets"
although some refer to them as such.

*There were silver trumpets made for The Tent of Assembly
but they were not used here.*

Josh. 6:5 And it will exist
at a prolonged sounding on the ram's horn,
at your hearing the sound itself תָּא of the ram's horn,
all the people are to shout, a great noise.

And the wall of the city will fall down flat.
And the people are to go up,
each man straight before him.”

Josh. 6:6 And Yahoshua, son of Nun,
called for the priests.
And he said to them,
“Lift up The Chest of The Covenant itself תָּא.
And seven priests
are to carry seven ram's horns
for sounding blasts
before The Chest of YAHWEH.”

Josh. 6:7 And he said to the people, “Pass over and encircle the city itself תָּא.
And the armed ones are to pass over
before The Chest of YAHWEH.”

Josh. 6:8 And it was as Yahoshua
had spoken to the people.
And the seven priests carrying the seven rams' horns for sounding the blasts before YAHWEH passed over.
And they sounded with the ram's horns.
And The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH
came behind them.

Josh. 6:9 And those armed went before the priests
who sounded the ram's horns.
And the gathering walked behind The Chest,
going on and sounding on ram's horns.

You'll notice
that the people were not speaking but they were blowing ram's horns
on the six days they encircled the city.
This is different from what we traditionally "think" they were doing,
just walking around the city in silence.
They were making some noise,
but they were not speaking.
This would present a very unusual situation
for the people within the city.
They would not know what to make of this.

Josh. 6:10 And to the people themselves תא
Yahoshua had given directions saying,
"You are not to shout!
And your voice itself תא is not to be heard.
And not a word is to go out of your mouth
until the day I say to you, 'Shout!'
Then you are to shout."

Josh. 6:11 And The Chest of YAHWEH
encircled the city itself תא, going around it once.
And they went into the encampment.
And they stayed in the encampment.

Josh. 6:12 And Yahoshua rose
early in the morning.
And the priests lifted up
The Chest of YAHWEH itself תא.
Josh. 6:13 And the seven priests carrying seven ram's horns for sounding before The Chest of YAHWEH
were walking, walking.
And they sounded with the ram's horns.
And the armed men walked before them.
And those having been gathered walked behind The Chest of YAHWEH, walking and sounding on the ram's horns.

Josh. 6:14 And they encircled the city itself תא
once on the second day.
And they returned to the encampment.
According to this they did for six days.

Josh. 6:15 And it was on the seventh day.
And they rose early,
about the dawning of the day.
And they encircled the city itself תא
seven times
according to this determination.
Except on this day they encircled the city itself תא
seven times.

NOTE: This is the seventh day.
We must consider that this was The Sabbath Day.
This very fact destroys forever
every argument
that "absolutely no 'work' (effort)
is to be done on The Sabbath Day.
This task involved great 'effort'
on the part of the entire assembly of Yisra'el.
You cannot avoid noting this.

What's normally overlooked is that this was YAHWEH's WORK!

YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, confirmed that there is not one thing wrong with doing YAHWEH's work
on The Sabbath day!

Josh. 6:16 And it was at the seventh time.
The priests sounded on the ram's horns.
And Yahoshua said to the people,
"Shout!

Indeed, YAHWEH has given to you
the city itself תא!

Josh. 6:17 And the city
is to be devoted to destruction.
It and all that is in it is for YAHWEH.

Only Rahab, the prostitute, is to live, she and all who are with her herself תא
in the house,
because she hid the messengers that we sent.

Josh. 6:18 And you yourselves תא,
guard against things devoted to destruction
lest you become devoted to destruction and cause the encampment of Yisra'el itself תא
to be devoted to destruction
and you trouble it itself תא!

Josh. 6:19 And all the silver and gold and vessels of copper and iron,
they are set apart to YAHWEH.
They are to go into the treasury of YAHWEH."

Josh. 6:20 And the people shouted.
And they sounded on the ram's horns.
And it was at hearing the sound of the ram's horn.
And the people shouted a great shout.
And the wall fell down flat!
And the people went up into the city,
each man straight before him.
And they captured the city itself תא!

Josh. 6:21 And they devoted to destruction
everything itself תא that was in the city,
every man and woman, young and old,
and ox and sheep and ass,
with the mouth of the sword.

peh - mouth
This term is used frequently,
but normally translated as 'edge'.
To understand this one needs to consider that the mouth is used to consume, devour.
This is also what the sword does.

Josh. 6:22 And to the two men who had spied out the land itself תא
Yahoshua said,
"Go to the house of the woman, the prostitute,
and bring out from there the woman herself תא
and everything itself תא that is hers
according to what you swore to her."

Josh. 6:23 And the young men,
the spies, went in.
And they brought out Rahab herself תא,
and her father himself תא,
and her mother herself תא,
and her brothers themselves תא,
and everything itself תא that was hers.
And they brought out
all her kindred themselves תא.
And they settled them outside of the encampment of Yisra'el.

Josh. 6:24 And the city was burned with fire
and all that was in it.
Only the silver and the gold and the vessels of copper and of iron were given into the treasury
of The House of YAHWEH.

Josh. 6:25 And Rahab herself תא, the prostitute,
and the household itself תא of her father
and everything itself תא that was hers
Yahoshua caused to live.

And she dwells
in the midst of Yisra'el to this day because she hid the messengers themselves תא whom Yahoshua had sent to spy out Yericho itself תא.

Josh. 6:26 And Yahoshua swore at that time saying,
"Bitterly cursed is the man
before the face of YAHWEH
who stands up and builds this city itself תא, Yericho itself תא!
With his firstborn he will lay its foundation
and with his youngest he will stand up its gates!"

Josh. 6:27 And YAHWEH was with Yahoshua himself תא.
And a report of him was in all the land.

Chapter 7

Josh. 7:1 And the children of Yisra'el
acted unfaithfully with an unfaithful act
with what was devoted to destruction.
And Akan, son of Karmi,
son of Zabdi, son of Zerah,
of the tribe of Yahudah,
took from what was devoted to destruction.
And the anger of YAHWEH flared up
against the children of Yisra'el.

Akan means trouble.
Karmi means gardener.
Zabdi means giving.
Zerah means rising of light.
Yahudah means YAH be praised.

Josh. 7:2 And Yahoshua sent men from Yericho to Ai, which is beside BayitAven on the east side of Bayit El.
And he spoke to them saying,
"Go up and spy out the land itself תא."
And the men went up.
And they spied out Ai itself תא.

Ai means ruin.
BayitAven means
house of vanity/emptiness.
Bayit El means house of El (God).

Josh. 7:3 And they returned to Yahoshua.
And they said to him,
"Let not all the people go up.
Let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai itself תא.
Do not weary there all the people themselves תא
because the people are few."

Josh. 7:4 And from the people there went up about three thousand men.
But they fled before the men of Ai.
Josh. 7:5 And the men of Ai struck from among them about thirty six men.
And they pursued them from before the gate
as far as Shebarim.
And they struck them at the descent.

And the hearts of the people
liquefied and became water.
Shebarim means fracture.

macac - to liquefy.
The heart refers to the mental state or attitude.
The terms used are an idiom,
not to be taken literally.

We might say "they fell apart",
"lost their resolve."

Josh. 7:6 And Yahoshua tore his garments.

And he fell to the ground on his face
before The Chest of YAHWEH until dusk,
he and the elders of Yisra'el.
And they raised up dust on their heads.

Josh. 7:7 And Yahoshua said,
"Alas, Sovereign, YAHWEH!
For what purpose have You caused
this people itself נא, to pass over The Yarden itself נא?
For the sake of giving us ourselves נא
into the hand of the Amorites?
For the sake of causing us to perish?
And oh that we had been willing and had settled on the other side of The Yarden!
Josh. 7:8 On account of it, my Sovereign,
what do I say after Yisra'el turns its back before the face of its adversaries?

Josh. 7:9 And the Kena'anites will hear and all the inhabitants of the land.
And they will surround us.
And they will cut off
our name itself נא from the land.
And what then will You do for the sake of Your great Name?"

Josh. 7:10 And YAHWEH said to Yahoshua,
"Stand up for yourself!
For what purpose have you yourself נא fallen on your face?"

Josh. 7:11 Yisra'el has offended.
And they have also passed over My Covenant itself נא which I have given as direction to they themselves נא.
And they have also taken
from what is devoted to destruction.
And they have also stolen.
And they have also lied.
And they have also placed it among their goods.

It's very important to note
each of the accusations
involved in this verse.
This version is different than most.
It gives you the more literal sense of the terms used.

Yisra'el has offended.
Sin is an offense against YAHWEH.
It is a rejection of His instructions.
This is effectively restated
in the very next line.
Yisra'el (someone within Yisra'el)
has "passed over"
- ignored, by-passed "My Covenant"
- emphatic!

A covenant is an AGREEMENT
- entered into voluntarily.
It cannot be commanded!
If it is you do not have a covenant.

The Covenant is based on YAHWEH giving directions concerning what He desires of His people.

This Covenant
has been "passed over", ignored!
This is a personal affront against YAHWEH!
It is rebellion!

Further, they have taken
what was not theirs - stolen it.
They have lied about it.
They have placed it in the midst of their own things.

Every one of these steps
is involved in our offenses against YAHWEH.
We need to recognize our own actions
as being identical to these.

Josh. 7:12 And the children of Yisra'el
will not be able to stand
before the face of their adversaries.
They will turn their backs
before the faces of their adversaries
because they are devoted to destruction.

I am no longer going to be with you if you do not destroy that which is devoted to destruction
from your midst.

Yisra'el has become devoted to destruction because of the very act of one person taking
what was forbidden to them,
what was devoted to destruction.

This is a form of the adage,
"What you sow is what you reap."
It's an oft repeated Scripture principle.

It's also been stated as,
"You become like what you 'worship'.
This is a most serious issue
that demands our attention.

YAHWEH WILL NOT REMAIN WITH THOSE who fail to destroy
what is forbidden to them.

Josh. 7:13 Stand up!
Set apart the people themselves תא!
And you are to say,
'Undefile yourselves for tomorrow!
Indeed, thus said YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el,
"That which is devoted to destruction
is in your midst, Yisra'el.
You are not able to stand before the face of your adversaries until you cause to turn away
that which is devoted to destruction
from the midst of you!"

qadash - to be clean.
Often translated as 'sanctify',
this refers to moral purity.

It means to rid yourself
of the contamination of 'sin'
(an offense against YAHWEH).

You cannot stand in His presence
if you are defiled by these offenses.

Josh. 7:14 And you will be brought near in the morning according to your tribes.
And it will exist
that the tribe which YAHWEH catches
will come near by families.
And the family which YAHWEH catches
will come near by households.
And the household which YAHWEH catches
will come near by warriors.
Josh. 7:15 And it will exist that he who is caught with that which is devoted to destruction is to be burned with fire, he himself תא and everything itself תא that is his because he has passed over The Covenant of YAHWEH itself תא
and because he has done moral foolishness in Yisra'el.' "

Josh. 7:16 And Yahoshua rose early in the morning.

And he brought near Yisra'el itself תא
by their tribes.

And the tribe of Yahudah was caught.

Josh. 7:17 And he brought near
the family itself תא of Yahudah.

And he caught
the family itself תא of the Zarhites.

And he brought near
the family itself תא of the Zarhites by warrior.

And Zabdi was caught.

Josh. 7:18 And he brought near his household itself תא by warrior.

And Akan was caught,
son of Karmi, son of Zabdi,
son of Zerah, of the tribe of Yahudah.

Josh. 7:19 And Yahoshua said to Akan,
"My son, please give honor
to YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el,
and give to Him thanks.
And now declare to me what you have done!
Do not conceal it from me!"

Josh. 7:20 And Akan responded
to Yahoshua himself תא.

And he said, "Truly, I have offended against YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el.
And I did according to this.

Josh. 7:21 And I saw among the booty
one beautiful garment from Shin'ar,
and two hundred shekels of silver,
and one wedge of gold weighing fifty shekels.
And I delighted in them.

And I took them.

And behold!

They are hidden in the ground
in the center of my tent.

And the silver is under it."

Josh. 7:22 And Yahoshua sent messengers.

And they ran to the tent.

And behold!

It was hidden in his tent.

And the silver was under it.

Josh. 7:23 And they took them from the center of the tent.

And they came to Yahoshua
and to all the children of Yisra'el.

And they poured them out
before the face of YAHWEH.

Josh. 7:24 And Yahoshua,
and all Yisra'el with him,
took Akan himself תא, son of Zerah,
and the silver itself תא,
and the garment itself תא,
and the wedge of gold itself תא,
and his sons themselves תא,
and his daughters themselves תא,
and his oxen themselves תא,
and his asses themselves תא,
and his sheep themselves תא,
and his tent itself תא,
and everything itself תא that was his.
And they brought they themselves תא
to the Valley of Akor.

Josh. 7:25 And Yahoshua said,

"Why have you troubled us?"

YAHWEH will trouble you this day!"

And all Yisra'el stoned he himself תא with stones.

And they burned they themselves תא with fire.

And they stoned they themselves תא with stones.

There are word plays
within the Hebrew text
that make this quite emphatic.
Some of it carries through into the English,
but not all of it.
Remember that Akan's very name means trouble.

Josh. 7:26 And they raised over him
a great heap of stones which remain to this day.

And YAHWEH turned back from the burning of His anger.

On account of this
the name of that place is called the Valley of Akor until this day.

The example made of Akan
is important to us.
It identifies clearly
just how significant rebellion and disregard of His Covenant are to YAHWEH.

This result was intended to discourage others in Yisra'el,
and us, from doing the very same thing.
However, we very quickly see that even with this kind of demonstration of His anger
we still dare to "pass over"
His Covenant with us.
It's shameful!

Also, if you pay careful attention
to the text of Scripture
you'll note the theme of "burning".
It's tied to the "burning anger" of YAHWEH,
and it's tied to "burning out" rebellion
from among His people.
The very fact that this world will, in the end,
be destroyed by fire
is given to us as a reminder.

Sadly, these days,
we "pass over" such a concept
- with hardly a thought.
After all, "we are not Yisra'el."
- is our thought.

Chapter 8

Josh. 8:1 And YAHWEH said to Yahoshua,
"You are not to be afraid.

And you are not to be discouraged.

Take with you

all the people of battle themselves אָנְכֶם

and get up!

Go up to Ai!

Look!

I have given into your hand

the king of Ai himself אָנְכֶם,

and his people themselves אָנְכֶם,

and his city itself אָנְכֶם,

and his land itself אָנְכֶם.

Josh. 8:2 And you are to do to Ai and its king
according to what you did to Yericho and its king, except its booty and its animals
you are to plunder for yourselves.
Place for yourselves an ambush for the city,
from behind it."

Josh. 8:3 And Yahoshua rose up

and all the people of battle for the sake of going up to Ai.

And Yahoshua selected thirty thousand mighty men of strength.

And he sent them away by night.

Josh. 8:4 And he directed they themselves תא saying, “Look! You yourselves תא are going to lie in wait against the city,
from behind the city.
You are not to go very far from the city.
And all of you are to be prepared.
Josh. 8:5 And I and all the people who are with me myself תא
will approach the city.
And it will be that they will come out to approach us as at the first.
And we will flee before them.
Josh. 8:6 And they will come out after us until we have drawn they themselves תא
away from the city.
Indeed, they will say,
‘They are fleeing before us as at the first.’
And we will flee before them.

Josh. 8:7 And you yourselves תא
are to rise from lying in wait.
And you are to occupy the city itself תא.

And YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will give it into your hand.

Josh. 8:8 And it will exist
as you are capturing the city itself תא
that you are to set on fire
the city itself תא with fire
as YAHWEH has directed you to do.
Look!
I have directed you yourselves תא.”

Josh. 8:9 And Yahoshua sent them out.
And they went to the ambush.
And they sat between Bayit El and Ai,
from the sea side toward Ai.
And Yahoshua lodged at night
in the midst of the people.

Josh. 8:10 And Yahoshua rose up
early in the morning.
And he accounted for the people themselves תא.
And he went up,
he and the elders of Yisra’el,
before the people toward Ai.
Josh. 8:11 And all the people, the men of battle
who were with he himself תא, went up.
And they came near.
And they came toward the city.
And they pitched tents
against the north side of Ai.
And the valley was between them and Ai.

Josh. 8:12 And he took about five thousand men.
And he placed they themselves תא
lying in wait between Bayit El and Ai,
on the west side of the city.
Josh. 8:13 And they placed the people,
all the encampment itself תא
that was on the north of the city,
and its rear guard itself תא west of the city.
And Yahoshua went by night
into the middle of the valley.

Josh. 8:14 And it was as the king of Ai saw it.
And they hurried.
And they rose up early.
And the men of the city went out against Yisra’el
for the sake of battle, he and all his people,
to an appointed place by the arabah.
But he did not know that they were lying in wait for him

from behind the city.

Josh. 8:15 And Yahoshua and all Yisra'el
was beaten before them.
And they fled by the way of the wilderness.
Josh. 8:16 And they cried out to all the people who were in Ai
for the sake of pursuing them.
And they pursued after Yahoshua.
And they were pulled away from the city.
Josh. 8:17 And not a man remained in Ai or Bayit El
who did not go out after Yisra'el.
And they abandoned the open city itself תא.
And they pursued after Yisra'el.

Josh. 8:18 And YAHWEH said to Yahoshua,
"Stretch out with the spear that is in your hand toward Ai!
Indeed, into your hand I am giving it!"
And Yahoshua stretched out the spear
that was in his hand toward the city.
Josh. 8:19 And those lying in wait stood up quickly from their place.
And they ran at the stretching out of his hand.
And they went into the city.
And they captured it.
And they hurried to set the city itself תא on fire.

Josh. 8:20 And the men of Ai looked behind them.
And they looked.
And here!
Smoke of the city was going up to the skies.
And there was nothing in their hand
for the sake of fleeing here or there.

And the people who had fled to the wilderness turned back toward the pursuers.
Josh. 8:21 And Yahoshua and all Yisra'el saw that those lying in wait
had captured the city itself תא
and that the smoke of the city ascended.
And they turned back.
And they struck the men of Ai themselves תא
Josh. 8:22 and those who had come out from the city against them.
And they were in the midst of Yisra'el,
some here and some there.
And they struck they themselves תא
until no survivor remained of them or escaped.

Josh. 8:23 And the king of Ai himself תא
they seized alive.
And they brought near
he himself תא to Yahoshua.

Josh. 8:24 And it was as Yisra'el finished slaying
all the inhabitants of Ai themselves תא
in the field,
in the wilderness where they had pursued them.
And everyone fell by the mouth of the sword
until it was completed.

And all Yisra'el returned to Ai.
And they struck it itself תא
with the mouth of the sword.
Josh. 8:25 And it existed that all who fell on that day,
both men and women,
were twelve thousand, all men of Ai.

Josh. 8:26 And Yahoshua
did not draw back his hand

with which he stretched out the spear until all the inhabitants of Ai themselves תא
had been devoted to destruction.

Josh. 8:27 Only the animals and the booty of that city
did Yisra'el take as plunder for themselves according to the word of YAHWEH
which He had directed Yahoshua himself תא.

Josh. 8:28 And Yahoshua burned Ai itself תא.
And he made it a mound forever,
a desolation to this day.

Josh. 8:29 And the king of Ai himself תא
he hanged on a tree until dusk.
And at the coming in of the sun
Yahoshua gave direction.
And they lowered his corpse itself תא from the tree.
And they threw down it itself תא
at the entrance gate of the city.
And they raised over it a great heap of stones,
there to this day.

Josh. 8:30 Then Yahoshua built a slaughter site
to YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el,
at Mount Ebal

Josh. 8:31 according to what Moshe,
the servant of YAHWEH, had directed
the children of Yisra'el themselves תא,
according to what is written in The Book of Instruction of Moshe,
"a slaughter site of stones, whole,
upon which no iron has been manipulated."

And they offered up upon it olahs to YAHWEH.
And they sacrificed shelem offerings.
Ebal means bald.

torah means instruction.
It does not mean 'law'.

An "altar" is a place of slaughter.
It's not some fancy "table".
It's a place where blood is shed.
It's messy.
It stinks.
But it also serves as a place of mediation and interaction
between YAHWEH and His people.

olah - a step, as ascending.
It means to send up.
It's used to represent a sacrifice
that's completely burned up into smoke.
It represents a commitment of one's entire being to YAHWEH.

shelem - properly, requital;
i.e. a (voluntary) sacrifice in thanks.

Josh. 8:32 And he wrote there upon the stones
a copy of The Torah of Moshe itself תא
which he had written,
before the face of the children of Yisra'el.

Josh. 8:33 And all Yisra'el, both the elders,
and the officers and the judges, stood on either side of The Chest
in the presence of the Levitical priests who carried
The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH,
as for the stranger, so for the native,
half of them in front of Mount Gerizim
and half of them in front of Mount Ebal,
according to what Moshe,
the servant of YAHWEH,
had directed at the beginning

for the sake of blessing
the people of Yisra'el themselves תא.

Josh. 8:34 And afterward, according to this,
he read all the words themselves תא
of The Torah,

the blessings and the cursings,
according to everything written on the scroll of The Torah.

Josh. 8.35 There was not a word of anything that Moshe had instructed which Yahoshua did not read
in front of the entire assembly of Yisra'el,
even the women, and the little ones,
and the strangers who walked among them!

The importance of this act
cannot be overstated!

Yahoshua read every single word of The Instruction (torah) of Moshe!
They heard it all - again.

And it was now "engraved in stone" right in front of them, so they could come and read it for themselves
any time they chose to do so.
They had no excuse for not being aware of what YAHWEH desired of them!

Chapter 9

Josh. 9:1 And it was as all the kings heard
who were on the other side of The Yarden
in the hills, and in the low country,
and by all the coasts of the Great Sea toward the front of The Lebanon,
the Hittite,
and the Amorite,
the Kena'anite,
and the Perizzite,
the Hivite,
and the Yebusite.

Josh. 9:2 And they gathered themselves together for the sake of fighting against Yahoshua and Yisra'el with one mouth.

"One mouth" means they were in agreement concerning what they were to do,
and likely operating under one leader.

Josh. 9:3 And the inhabitants of Gib'on heard what itself תא Yahoshua had done to Yericho and Ai.

Josh. 9:4 And they worked by craftiness.
And they went as ambassadors.

And they took worn out sacks on their male asses,
and worn out wineskins,
both torn and mended,

Josh. 9:5 and worn out and patched sandals
on their feet,
and worn out garments on themselves.
And all the food of their provision was dry.
It was crumbs.

Josh. 9:6 And they came to Yahoshua,
to the encampment at Gilgal.
And they said to him and to the men of Yisra'el,
"We have come from a remote land.
And now cut for us a covenant."

Josh. 9:7 But the men of Yisra'el said to the Hivvites,
"Perhaps you yourselves תא dwell in our midst.
Then how could we cut a covenant for you?"

Josh. 9:8 And they said to Yahoshua,
"We are your servants."
And Yahoshua said to them,

“Who are you yourselves תא?
And from where do you come?”
Josh. 9:9 And they said to him,
“From a land very remote your servants have come for the sake of the Name of YAHWEH, your Elohim.
Indeed, we have heard a report of Him
and everything itself תא He did in Mitsraim, Josh. 9:10 and everything itself תא He has done
to the two kings of the Amorites
who were on the other side of The Yarden,
to Sihon, king of Heshbon,
and Og, king of Bashan,
who was at Ashtaroth.
Josh. 9:11 And our elders and all the inhabitants of our land spoke to us saying,
‘Take in your hand food for the way.
And go to meet them.
And say to them, “We are your servants.
And now cut a covenant for us.” ’
Josh. 9:12 This food of ours, it itself תא
was hot game from our houses on the day that we went forth
for the sake of coming to you.
But now behold.
It is dry and it is crumbly.
Josh. 9:13 And these wineskins which we filled were new.
And behold! They are torn.
And these our garments and our sandals are worn out from the very long journey.”

Josh. 9:14 And the men of Yisra’el took from their food.
But of the mouth of YAHWEH itself תא
they did not inquire.

Josh. 9:15 And Yahoshua made peace with them.
And he cut a covenant with them to let them live.
And the rulers of the assembly swore to them.

Josh. 9:16 And it was at the end of three days
after they had cut a covenant with them.
And they heard that they were neighbors to them
and dwelt in their midst.

Josh. 9:17 And the children of Yisra’el set out.
And they came to their cities on the third day.
Now their cities were Gib'on, and Kephirah,
and Be'eroth, and Kiryat Ye'arim.

Gib'on means hilly.
Kephirah means the village.
Be'eroth means wells.
Kiryat Ye'arim means city of forests.

Josh. 9:18 But the children of Yisra’el
did not strike them
because the rulers of the assembly had sworn to them by YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra’el.

And all the assembly
complained against the rulers.
Josh. 9:19 And all the rulers
said to the entire assembly, “We ourselves have sworn to them
by YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra’el.
And now we are not able to touch them.
Josh. 9:20 This is what we will do to them,
but keep them alive,
and rage will not be upon us
on account of of the oath
which we swore to them.”

Josh. 9:21 And the rulers said to them, “Let them live, but let them be woodcutters and drawers of water for the entire assembly
according to what the rulers had spoken to them.”

Josh. 9:22 And Yahoshua called for them.
And he spoke to them saying,
“For what reason have you deceived us ourselves תא saying, ‘We are remote from you.’
but you yourselves תא are dwelling in our midst?
Josh. 9:23 And now cursed are you yourselves תא!
And now not cut off for you is slavery and cutting of wood and drawing of water for the household of my Elohim.”

Josh. 9:24 And they responded
to Yahoshua himself תא.
And they said, “Indeed, it was reported,
reported to your servants what itself תא
YAHWEH, your Elohim, had given as direction to His servant, Moshe himself תא, for the sake of giving to you all the land itself תא
and for the sake of destroying all the inhabitants of the land itself תא
from before your faces.
And we were very afraid
for the sake of our lives
from before your faces.
And we did this matter itself תא.

This is another important verse to note.
These people were very aware of what YAHWEH had planned to do, long before the children of Yisra'el ever came to the land.
They had heard about Egypt.
They knew about Sihon and Og.
They were petrified.
They knew their lives were at risk.
What would you have done?

This tells us we ought not be surprised that "non-believers" know full well what YAHWEH has planned for them.
Yet not all of them
are as shrewd as the Gib'onites.

Josh. 9:25 And now, behold!
We are in your hands.
According to what is good and what is right in your eyes do to us.”
Josh. 9:26 And he did accordingly to them.
And he delivered they themselves תא
from the hand of the children of Yisra'el.
And they did not kill them.

Josh. 9:27 And on that day Yahoshua gave them
as cutters of wood and drawers of water
for the assembly
and for the slaughter site of YAHWEH,
until this day at the place that He would choose.

Chapter 10

Josh. 10:1 And it was as Adonai Tzedek, king of Yerushalaim, heard that Yahoshua had captured Ai itself תא
and had devoted it to destruction
as he had done to Yericho and its king,
and so he did to Ai and its king,
and how the inhabitants of Gib'on had made peace with Yisra'el itself תא
and were in their midst.

Adonai Tzedek means sovereign of right action,
or, controller of righteousness.

Is this the same as Malki-Tzedek,

King of Righteousness? (Gen. 14.18)
If so, then both of these are titles,
not a "names".

The time frames involved suggest this cannot be the same person Abram encountered.

Yerushalaim means
complete teaching of deliverance.
This is the proper Hebrew name of Jerusalem.

The traditional meaning given
is "city of peace",
but the root words
give a different meaning, ultimately pointing toward the final deliverance (salvation)
that will come to this place.

Josh. 10:2 And they were greatly afraid
because Gib'on was a great city,
like one of the royal cities,
and because it was greater than Ai
and all its men were powerful.

Josh. 10:3 Adonai Tzedek, king of Yerushalaim, sent to Hoham, king of Hebron,
and to Piram, king of Yarmuth,
and to Yaphiya, king of Lachish,
and to Debir, king of Eglon saying,
Hoham means - uncertain.
Hebron means seat of association.
Piram means wildly.
Yarmuth means elevation.
Yaphiya means bright.
Lachish means - uncertain.
Debir means shrine.
Eglon means calf.

Josh. 10:4 "Come up to me and help me.
And we will strike Gib'on itself נא
because it has made peace with Yahoshua himself נא and with the children of Yisra'el themselves נא."

Josh. 10:5 And they gathered together.
And they went up,
the five kings of the Amorites,
the king of Yerushalaim,
the king of Hebron,
the king of Yarmuth,
the king of Lachish,
the king of Eglon,
they and all their encampments.
And they pitched their tents before Gib'on.
And they did battle against it.

Josh. 10:6 And the men of Gib'on sent to Yahoshua,
to the encampment at Gilgal saying,
"Do not withdraw your hand from your servants.
Come up to us quickly and deliver us.
And help us because gathered against us are all the kings of the Amorites dwelling in the mountains."

Josh. 10:7 And Yahoshua went up from Gilgal,
he and all the people of battle with him,
even the entire powerful force.

Josh. 10:8 And YAHWEH said to Yahoshua,
"You are not to be afraid of them!
Indeed, I have given them into your hand.
Not a man among them
will stand before your face."

Josh. 10:9 And Yahoshua
went toward them suddenly.

All night they went up from Gilgal.
Josh. 10:10 And YAHWEH confounded them
before the face of Yisra'el.
And they struck them with great blows at Gib'on.
And they pursued them
by the way up to Bayit Horon.
And they struck them
as far as Azekah and Makkedah.
Bayit Horon means house of hollowness. Azekah means fenced in. Makkedah means marked.

Josh. 10:11 And it was as they were fleeing
before the face of Yisra'el.
And they were at the descent at BayitHoron.
And YAHWEH threw down upon them great stones from the skies,
as far as Azekah.
And many died.
And there were more who died by the hailstones than those whom the sons of Yisra'el killed with the sword.

Josh. 10:12 Then Yahoshua spoke to YAHWEH
on the day of YAHWEH giving up the Amorites themselves nx
before the children of Yisra'el.

And he said for the sake of the eyes of Yisra'el,
"Sun, stand still at Gib'on,
and moon, in the Valley of Ayalon."

Josh. 10:13 And the sun stood still!
And the moon stood
until the people had punished its enemies.

Is this not inscribed in the Book of Yashar?
And the sun stood still in the middle of the skies!
And it did not attempt to come in the entire day.
Yashar means straight, just; proper.

Josh. 10:14 And there has not been a day like that before it or after it for the sake of which YAHWEH listened attentively
to the voice of a man!
Indeed, YAHWEH did battle for Yisra'el.

Josh. 10:15 And Yahoshua returned
and all Yisra'el with him
to the encampment at Gilgal.

Josh. 10:16 And these five kings fled.
And they hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah

Josh. 10:17 And it was reported
to Yahoshua saying,
"The five kings have been found hiding in the cave at Makkedah."

Josh. 10:18 And Yahoshua said,
"Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave,
and appoint men over it
for the sake of watching them.

Josh. 10:19 And you yourselves nx
are not to remain.

And you are to pursue after your adversaries themselves nx.
And you are to attack the rear of they themselves nx.

You are not to allow them to enter their cities!

Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has given them into your hand."

Josh. 10:20 And it was as Yahoshua
and the children of Yisra'el

had completed striking them with a very great blow until it was finished.
And the survivors escaped from them into the fortified cities.

Josh. 10:21 And all the people
returned to the encampment,
to Yahoshua at Makkedah, in safety.
Not a man moved his tongue itself תא
against the children of Yisra'el.
shalom - safe; i.e. well, happy, etc.
Note that the primary meaning is to be safe.

Josh. 10:22 And Yahoshua said,
"Open the mouth itself תא of the cave.
And bring out to me
those five kings themselves תא
from the cave."

Josh. 10:23 And they did so.
And they brought forth to him
those five kings themselves תא from the cave,
the king of Yerushalaim himself תא,
the king of Hebron himself תא,
the king of Yarmuth himself תא,
the king of Lachish himself תא,
the king of Eglon himself תא.

Josh. 10:24 And it was as these kings themselves תא
were being brought out to Yahoshua.
And Yahoshua called for all the men of Yisra'el.
And he said to the leaders of the men of battle,
the ones who went with he himself תא,
"Come near!
Place your feet themselves תא
on the necks of these kings."
And they came near.
And they placed their feet themselves תא
on their necks.
Josh. 10:25 And Yahoshua said to them,
"Do not be afraid!
And do not be discouraged!
Be strong and courageous!
Indeed, according to this YAHWEH will do to all your adversaries whom you yourselves תא are fighting,
to they themselves תא."

Josh. 10:26 And after this Yahoshua struck them.
And he put them to death.
And he hanged them upon five trees.
And they were hanging upon the trees until dusk.
Josh. 10:27 And it was at the time of the coming in of the sun.
And Yahoshua gave directions.
And they took them down from the trees.
And they threw them into the cave
where they had hidden.
And they placed large stones
over the mouth of the cave until this very day.

Josh. 10:28 And Makkedah itself תא
Yahoshua captured on that day.
And he struck it with the mouth of the sword.
And its king himself תא
he devoted to destruction,
and they themselves תא,
even all the people themselves תא who were in it.
Nothing remained of the lives who were in it.
And he did to the king of Makkedah
according to what he had done
to the king of Yericho.

Josh. 10:29 And Yahoshua passed over,

and all Yisra'el with him,
from Makkedah to Libnah.
And they fought against Libnah.

Libnah means whiteness.

Josh. 10:30 And YAHWEH also gave it itself תא
and its king himself תא into the hand of Yisra'el.
And he struck it with the mouth of the sword
and all the lives themselves תא who were in it.
There did not remain in it a survivor.
And he did to its king
according to what he had done
to the king of Yericho.

Josh. 10:31 And Yahoshua passed over,
and all Yisra'el with him, from Libnah to Lachish.
And they encamped before it.
And they fought against it.

Josh. 10:32 And YAHWEH gave Lachish itself תא
into the hand of Yisra'el.
And he captured it on the second day.
And he struck it and all the lives themselves תא
who were in it with the mouth of the sword,
according to all he had done to Libnah.

Josh. 10:33 Then Horam, king of Gezer, came up to help Lachish itself תא.

And Yahoshua struck
all his people themselves תא
until there was not left to him a survivor.

Horam means high.

Gezer means something cut off.

Josh. 10:34 And Yahoshua passed over,
and all Yisra'el with him, from Lachish to Eglon.
And they encamped against it.
And fought against it.

Josh. 10:35 And they captured it on that day.
And they struck it with the mouth of the sword.
And all the lives themselves תא
who were in it on that day
he devoted to destruction
according to all that he had done to Lachish.

Josh. 10:36 Then Yahoshua went up,
and all Yisra'el with him, from Eglon to Hebron.
And they fought against it.

Josh. 10:37 And they captured it.
And they struck it with the mouth of the sword,
and its king himself תא
and all its towns themselves תא,
and all the lives themselves תא who were in it.
Not a survivor remained
according to all that he had done to Eglon.
And he devoted to destruction it itself תא
and all the lives themselves תא who were in it.

Josh. 10:38 And Yahoshua returned,
and all Yisra'el with him, to Debir.
And they fought against it.

Josh. 10:39 And they captured it,
and its king himself תא
and all its towns themselves תא.

And they struck them
with the mouth of the sword.
And they devoted to destruction
all the lives themselves תא who were in it.
Not a survivor remained.

According to what he had done to Hebron
he did to Debir and its king,
even as he had done to Libnah and its king.

Josh. 10:40 And Yahoshua struck
all the land itself תא,
the hill country,

and The Negev,
and The Shefelah,
and the ravines,
and all their kings themselves נא.
Not a survivor remained.
And everything itself נא with the breath of life
he devoted to destruction
according to what YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el, had directed.

Josh. 10:41 And Yahoshua struck them from Kadesh Barnea as far as Azzah, and all the land itself נא of Goshen,
even as far as Gib'on.

Josh. 10:42 And Yahoshua captured
all these kings themselves נא
and their land itself נא at one time,
because YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el, fought for Yisra'el.

Josh. 10:43 And Yahoshua returned,
and all Yisra'el with him,
to the encampment at Gilgal.

Chapter 11

Josh. 11:1 And it was as Yabin,
king of Hatzor, heard.
And he sent to Yobab, king of Madon,
and to the king of Shimron,
and to the king of Akshaph,
Yabin means intelligent.
Hatzor means village.
Yobab means howler.
Madon means height.
Shimron means guardianship.
Akshaph means fascination.

Josh. 11:2 and to the kings who were from the north in the mountains, and in the desert plain south of Kinneret, and in the Shefelah,
and in the heights of Dor on the west,
Kinneret means harp shaped.
It's another name for The Sea of The Galil.
Dor means dwelling.

Josh. 11:3 the Kena'anites
in the east and in the west,
and the Amorite,
and the Hittite,
and the Perizzite,
and the Yebusite in the mountains,
and the Hivvite below Hermon
in the land of Mitzpah.
Hermon means abrupt.
Mitzpah means watch tower.

Josh. 11:4 And they went out,
they and all their assemblies with them,
many people,
like the sand on the seashore in abundance,
and very many horses and chariots.

Josh. 11:5 And all these kings met by appointment.
And they came.
And they pitched camp as a unit
by the waters of Merom
for the sake of fighting with Yisra'el.
Merom means height.

Josh. 11:6 And YAHWEH said to Yahoshua,
"You are not to be afraid of their presence.
Indeed, tomorrow at this time I will give all of they themselves נא slain
before the face of Yisra'el.

You are to hamstring
their horses themselves נא.
And you are to burn
their chariots themselves נא with fire.”

Josh. 11:7 And Yahoshua
and all the people of battle with him came against them suddenly
by the waters of Merom.
And they fell upon them.
Josh. 11:8 And YAHWEH gave them
into the hand of Yisra'el.
And they struck them.
And they pursued them as far as Great Tzidon,
and as far as Misrephot Maim,
and as far as the Valley of Mitzpah to the east.
And they struck them
until no survivor remained to them.
Tzidon means fishery.
Misrephot Mayim means burning waters.

Josh. 11:9 And Yahoshua did to them
according to what YAHWEH had spoken to him.
Their horses themselves נא he hamstrung.
And their chariots themselves נא
he burned with fire.

Josh. 11:10 And Yahoshua turned back at that time.
And he captured Hatzor itself נא.
And its king himself נא he struck with the sword because Hatzor was formerly the head of all those kingdoms.

Josh. 11:11 And they struck
all the lives themselves נא that were in it
with the mouth of the sword,
devoting them to destruction.
There remained no breathing creature.
And Hatzor itself נא he burned with fire.

Josh. 11:12 And all the cities themselves נא
of those kings
and all their kings themselves נא
Yahoshua captured.
And he struck them with the mouth of the sword.
He devoted they themselves נא to destruction
according to what Moshe,
the servant of YAHWEH, had directed.

Josh. 11:13 However, all the cities that stood upon mounds Yisra'el did not burn
except Hatzor itself נא.
Only it did Yahoshua burn.

Josh. 11:14 And all the booty of these cities and the animals were plundered for themselves
by the children of Yisra'el.
Only all the human beings themselves נא
were struck with the mouth of the sword
until they had destroyed they themselves נא.
Nothing remained of all that breathed.

Josh. 11:15 According to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself נא, his servant,
according to this Moshe
had directed Yahoshua himself נא.
And according to this Yahoshua did.
He did not turn aside a word from everything that YAHWEH had directed Moshe himself נא.

Josh. 11:16 Thus Yahoshua took all this land itself נא,
the mountain country,

and all The Negev itself תא,
and all the land of The Goshen itself תא,
and The Shefelah itself תא,
and The Arabah itself תא
and the hill country of Yisra'el itself תא,
and its valleys
Josh. 11:17 from Mount Halak that goes up to Se'ir, even as far as Ba'al Gad
in the Valley of The Lebanon
below Mount Hermon.

And all their kings themselves תא he captured.
And he struck them.
And he put them to death.

Most translations fail to properly identify the various regions of Yisra'el.
They are commonly known
by the titles given here.
Each is a separate region within the land.

Halak means smooth.
Se'ir means rough.
Ba'al Gad means owner of fortune.
Lebanon means white.
Hermon means abrupt.

Josh. 11:18 Many days Yahoshua made war against all those kings themselves תא.
Josh. 11:19 There was not a city that was friendly toward the children of Yisra'el except the Hivvites,
the inhabitants of Gib'on.
All the others themselves תא they took in battle.

Josh. 11:20 Indeed, it was from YAHWEH Himself תא for the sake of hardening their hearts themselves תא
for the sake of encountering Yisra'el itself תא in battle
in order to devote them to destruction, for the sake of there being no kindness in order that he might destroy them
according to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself תא.

Josh. 11:21 And Yahoshua came at that time.
And he cut off the Anakim themselves תא
from the mountains,
from Hebron,
from Debir,
from Anab,
and from all the mountains of Yahudah,
and from all the mountains of Yisra'el.
Yahoshua devoted them to destruction
along with their cities.

Josh. 11:22 None of the Anakim remained in the land of the children of Yisra'el.
Only in Azzah, in Gath, and in Ashdod
did they remain.

The Anakim are remnants of the Nephilim, the "giants".
They were a perverse mixture
of human and divine beings.
They were one of the key elements YAHWEH caused Yisra'el to destroy
in the land of the promise.
The only ones left were in the area controlled by the Philistines ('Palestinians').

They Nephilim were a primary factor in the flood of Noah.

Josh. 11:23 And Yahoshua took the entire land itself תא
according to all that YAHWEH
had spoken to Moshe.

And Yahoshua gave it
as an inheritance to Yisra'el
according to their divisions by their tribes.
And the land had rest from battle.

Chapter 12

Josh. 12:1 And these are the kings of the land
which the children of Yisra'el struck.
And they occupied the land itself נא
on the other side of The Yarden
toward the rising of the sun,
from The River Arnon as far as Mount Hermon
and all the desert plain toward the sunrise.

Josh. 12:2 Sihon, king of the Amorites,
who was dwelling in Heshbon, ruling from Aro'er,
which is on the bank of The River Arnon,
from the middle of the river,
and half Gil'ad,

and as far as The River Yabbok,
the border of the children of Ammon,

Josh. 12:3 and the desert plain as far as the Sea of Kinneret toward the rising sun

as far as the Sea of The Arabah,
The Salt Sea, toward the rising sun
by the road to BayitYeshimot and south,
below the springs of Pisgah,

Josh. 12:4 and to the border of Og, king of Bashan,
who was of the remnant of the Repha'im,
who was dwelling at Ashtaroth and at Edre'i.

Josh. 12:5 And he ruled at Mount Hermon, and at Salkah, and in all Bashan,
as far as the border of the Geshurites
and the Ma'akathites,
and the half of Gil'ad,
as far as the border of Sihon, king of Heshbon.

Josh. 12:6 Moshe, the servant of YAHWEH,
and the children of Yisra'el had struck them.
And Moshe, the servant of YAHWEH, had given it as a possession
to the Re'ubenites, and to the Gadites,
and to half the tribe of Menashe.

Josh. 12:7 And these are the kings of the land which Yahoshua and the children of Yisra'el struck on the other side of The Yarden toward the sea, from Ba'al Gad in the valley of The Lebanon
as far as Mount Halak that goes up to Se'ir.

And Yahoshua gave it to the tribes of Yisra'el
as a possession according to their lots,

Josh. 12:8 in the mountain country,
and in The Shefelah,
and in the desert plain,
and in the ravines,
and in the wilderness,
and in The Negev,
the Hittites,
the Amorites,
and the Kena'anites,
the Perizzites,
the Hivvites,
and the Yebusites.

Josh. 12:9 The king of Yericho, one.

The king of Ai, which is beside Bayit El, one.

Josh. 12:10 The king of Yerushalaim, one.

The king of Hebron, one.

Josh. 12:11 The king of Yarmuth, one.

The king of Lachish, one.

Josh. 12:12 The king of Eglon, one.

The King of Gezer, one.

Josh. 12:13 The king of Debir, one.
 The king of Geder, one.
 Josh. 12:14 The king of Hormah, one.
 The king of Arad, one.
 Josh. 12:15 The king of Libnah, one.
 The king of Adullam, one.
 Josh. 12:16 The king of Makkedah, one.
 The king of Bayit El, one.
 The King of Yokne'am in Karmel, one.
 Josh. 12:17 The king of Tappuwah, one.
 The king of Hopher, one.
 Josh. 12:18 The king of Aphek, one.
 The king of Sharon, one.
 Josh. 12:19 The king of Madon, one.
 The king of Hatzor, one.
 Josh. 12:20 The king of Shimron Meron, one.
 The king of Akshaph, one.
 Josh. 12:21 The king of Ta'anak, one.
 The king of Megiddo, one.
 12:22 The king of Kedesh, one.
 Josh. 12:23 The king of Dor
 in the heights of Dor, one.
 The king of the nations of Gilgal, one.
 Josh. 12:24 The king of Tirtzah, one.
 Thirty one kings in all.

Chapter 13

Josh. 13:1 And Yahoshua became old in years.
 And YAHWEH said to him,

"You yourself nx have become old in years.
 And very much land remains to be occupied.

Josh. 13:2 This is the land that remains.
 The region of the Philistines and all Geshur

Josh. 13:3 from The Shihor,
 which is opposite Mitsraim,
 and up to the boundary of Ekron northward
 are regarded as Kena'anite.

The five princes of the Philistines,
 the Azzathites, and the Ashdodites,
 the Ashkelonites, the Gittites,
 and the Ekronites, and the Avvites;

Josh. 13:4 from the south,
 all the land of the Kena'anites, and Me'arah, which belongs to the Tzidonians
 as far as Aphek,

as far as the border of the Amorites,
 Josh. 13:5 and the land of the Gebalites,
 and all The Lebanon,

toward the sunrise from Ba'al Gad,
 below Mount Hermon,
 as far as the entrance to Hamath;

Josh. 13:6 all who are dwelling in the mountains,
 from The Lebanon as far as Misrephot Maim,
 and all the Tzidonians.

I Myself will cause them to be driven out
 from before the children of Yisra'el.
 Nevertheless, divide it by lot to Yisra'el
 as an inheritance
 according to what I have directed you.

Josh. 13:7 And now divide by lot this land itself nx
 as an inheritance to the nine tribes
 and half the tribe of Menashe.

Josh. 13:8 In it the Re'ubenites, and the Gadites took their inheritance
 which was given to them by Moshe
 on the other side of The Yarden
 toward the sunrise

according to what was given to them
 by Moshe, the servant of YAHWEH,

Josh. 13:9 from Aro'er which is on the bank
 of The River Arnon,
 and the city that is in the center of the river

and all the plain of Medeba as far as Dibon; Josh. 13:10 and all the cities of Sihon,
king of the Amorites,
who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the border
of the children of Ammon,
Josh. 13:11 and The Gil'ad,
and the borders of the Geshurites,
and of the Ma'akathites,
and all Mount Hermon,
and all Bashan as far as Salkah,
Josh. 13:12 all the kingdom of Og at Bashan,
who reigned in Ashtaroth and Edre'i.
He remained from the remnant of the Repha'im.

And Moshe struck them.
And he drove them out.
Josh. 13:13 But the children of Yisra'el
did not drive out the Geshurites themselves תא
nor the Ma'akathites themselves תא.
And the Geshurites and the Ma'akathites dwell in the midst of Yisra'el
until this day.

Josh. 13:14 Only to the tribe of Levi
did he not give an inheritance.
The offerings by fire to YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el, are their inheritance
according to what He had spoken to them.

Josh. 13:15 And Moshe gave to the tribe of the children of Re'uben by their families.
Josh. 13:16 And the boundary for them
was from Aro'er
which is on the bank of The River Arnon,
and the city that is in the middle of the river,
and all the plain by Medeba, Josh. 13:17 Heshbon and all its cities
that are in the plain,
Dibon, and Bamot Ba'al, and BayitBa'al Me'on, Josh. 13:18 and Yahtzah, and Kedemoth,
and Mepha'ath,
Josh. 13:19 and Kiryataim, and Sibmah,
and Tzereth HaShahar in the mountain valley, Josh. 13:20 and BayitPe'or,
and the slopes of Pisgah,
and BayitYeshimot,
Josh. 13:21 and all the cities of the plain,
and all the reign of Sihon, king of the Amorites,
who reigned in Heshbon,
whom Moshe had struck, he himself תא,
and the leaders of Midyan themselves תא,
'Ebi himself תא, and Rekem himself תא,
and Tzur himself תא, and Hur himself תא,
and Reba' himself תא,
leaders of Sihon dwelling in the land.

Josh. 13:22 And Bil'am himself תא,
son of Be'or, the diviner,
the children of Yisra'el killed with the sword
among their pierced.

Josh. 13:23 And the border of the children of Re'uben was the bank of The Yarden.
This was the inheritance
of the children of Re'uben
by their families,
the cities and their villages.

Josh. 13:24 And Moshe gave to the tribe of Gad,
to the children of Gad by their families.
Josh. 13:25 And the boundary for them was Ya'zer
and all the cities of Gil'ad, and half the land of the children of Ammon
as far as Aro'er, which is opposite Rabbah,

Josh. 13:26 and from Heshbon
to Ramat Mitspeh and Betonim,
and from Mahanaim to the border of Debir, Josh. 13:27 and in the valley, BayitHaram,
and BayitNimrah, and Sukkoth, and Tzaphon,
the rest of the kingdom of Sihon,
king of Heshbon,
The Yarden being its border,
as far as the edge of the Sea of Kinneret
on the other side of The Yarden, toward sunrise.
Josh. 13:28 This is the inheritance
of the children of Gad by their families,
the cities and their villages.

Josh. 13:29 And Moshe gave to half the tribe of Menashe.
And it was for half the tribe
of the children of Menashe by their families.
Josh. 13:30 And their boundary was from Mahanaim,
all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og,
king of Bashan,
and all the small towns of Ya'ir
which are in Bashan,
sixty cities,
Josh. 13:31 and the half of Gil'ad.
And Ashtaroth and Edre'i, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan,
were for the children of Makir, son of Menashe, to the half of the children of Makir
by their families.

Josh. 13:32 These were the inheritances
Moshe gave in the desert plains of Mo'ab
on the other side of The Yarden,
by Yericho, toward sunrise.

Josh. 13:33 But to the tribe of Levi
Moshe gave no inheritance.
YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el,
He was their inheritance
according to what He had spoken to them.

Chapter 14

Josh. 14:1 And these are what the children of Yisra'el inherited
in the land of Kena'an,
which El'azar, the priest,
and Yahoshua, son of Nun,
and the heads of the fathers of the tribes
of the children of Yisra'el
caused they themselves nx to inherit.

Josh. 14:2 Their inheritance was by lot
according to what YAHWEH had directed
by the hand of Moshe
for the nine tribes and the half tribe
Josh. 14:3 because Moshe had given an inheritance to the two tribes and the half tribe
on the other side of The Yarden.

But the Levites were not given an inheritance among them.

Josh. 14:4 Indeed, the children of Yoseph had become two tribes, Menashe and Ephraim.
And the Levites
were not given a lot in the land except cities for dwelling and open spaces for their livestock
and their possessions.

Josh. 14:5 According to what YAHWEH
had directed Moshe himself nx,

according to this the children of Yisra'el did.
And they divided by lot the land itself אָ.

Josh. 14:6 And the children of Yahudah approached Yahoshua at Gilgal.
And Kaleb, son of Yephunneh, the Kenizzite, said to him, "You know the word itself אָ
which YAHWEH spoke to Moshe,
the man of The Elohim, concerning you and concerning me at Kadesh Barnea.

Kaleb means to yelp; to attack.

Yephunneh means he will be prepared.

Kenizzites means hunters.

Kadesh Barnea means
sanctuary of the field of wandering.

Josh. 14:7 I was forty years old when Moshe,
the servant of YAHWEH, sent forth me myself אָ
from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land itself אָ.
And I brought back word to he himself אָ
according to what was within my heart.

Josh. 14:8 But my kindred who went up with me caused the hearts themselves אָ
of the people to dissolve.

But I fully followed YAHWEH, my Elohim.

Josh. 14:9 And Moshe swore on that day saying,
'Of a certainty,
the land on which your foot has trodden
will be an inheritance for you and for your children forever
because you fully followed YAHWEH, my Elohim.'

Josh. 14:10 And now behold!
YAHWEH has kept alive me myself אָ
according to what He spoke these forty five years since YAHWEH spoke this word itself אָ to Moshe
when Yisra'el walked in the wilderness.
And now behold!

I am eighty-five years old today.

Josh. 14:11 I am still as strong today as I was on the day Moshe sent me myself אָ.

As my strength was then
so my strength is now for battle, and for going out, and for coming in.

Josh. 14:12 And now give to me
this mountain itself אָ
of which YAHWEH spoke in that day.
Indeed, you yourself אָ heard on that day
that the Anakim were there and that the cities were great and inaccessible.

Also, if YAHWEH is with me myself אָ
then I will drive them out
according to what YAHWEH has spoken."

Josh. 14:13 And Yahoshua then blessed him.
And he gave Hebron itself אָ to Kaleb,
son of Yephunneh, as an inheritance.

Josh. 14:14 And Hebron became the inheritance of Kaleb,
son of Yephunneh the Kenizzite until this day because he fully followed YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el.

Josh. 14:15 And the name of Hebron
was formerly Kiryat Arba.
Arba was the greatest man among the Anakim.

And the land had rest from battle.

Chapter 15

Josh. 15:1 And the lot for the tribe of the children of Yahudah, by their families, was toward the border of Edom, the Wilderness of Tzyn to The Negev, from the south extremity.

Josh. 15:2 And the southern border for them was from the extremity of the Salt Sea, from the tongue facing toward The Negev.

Josh. 15:3 And it went out from The Negev to the Ascent of Akrabbim.

And it passed over to Tzyn.

And it went from The Negev to Kadesh Barnea.

And it passed over to Hetzron.

And it went up to Adar.

And it went around to Karka'.

Josh. 15:4 And it passed over to Atzmon.

And it went out to the River of Mitsraim.

And it was terminated at the sea coast.

This is your southern border.

Josh. 15:5 And the east border is The Salt Sea as far as the end of The Yarden.

And the border on the northern region is from the tongue of the sea, from the end of the Yarden.

Josh. 15:6 And the border went up to Bayit Hogleh.

And it passed over north of Bayit Arabah.

And the border went up to the stone of Bohan, son of Re'uben.

Josh. 15:7 And the border went up to Debir from the Valley of Akor.

And it turned northward toward Gilgal, which is in front of the Ascent of Adummim, which is on the south of the river.

And the border passed over to the waters of En Shemesh.

And it ended at En Rogel.

Josh. 15:8 And the border went up The Valley of the Son of Hinnom beside the Yebusite city, that is Yerushalaim.

And the border went up to the top of the mountain which is before The Valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of The Valley of Rephaim, to the north.

Josh. 15:9 And the border extended from the top of the hill to the fountain of the waters of Nephtoah.

And it went out to the cities of Mount Ephron.

And the border extended to Ba'alah, that is Kiryat Ye'arim.

Josh. 15:10 And the border went around from Ba'alah westward to Mount Se'ir.

And it passed over to the side of Mount Ye'arim, on the north. That is Kesalon.

And it went down to BayitShemesh.

And it passed over to Timnah.

Josh. 15:11 And the border went out to the side of Ekron, northward.

And the border went around to Shikkeron.

And it passed over to Mount Ba'alah.

And it went out to Yabne'el.

And the border ended at the sea.

Josh. 15:12 And the west border was the coastline of The Great Sea.

This is the boundary of the children of Yahudah, all around, by their families.

Josh. 15:13 And to Kaleb, son of Yephunneh, he gave a portion by lot in the midst of the children of Yahudah according to the mouth of YAHWEH to Yahoshua, Kiryat Arba itself ארבע.

He (Arba) was the father of Anak.
It is Hebron.
Josh. 15:14 And Kaleb drove out from there
the three sons of Anak themselves תא, Sheshai himself תא,
and Ahiman himself תא,
and Talmi himself תא, born by Anak.

Josh. 15:15 And he went up from there to those dwelling at Debir.
And the name of Debir formerly was Kiryat Sepher.
Josh. 15:16 And Kaleb said,
"He who strikes Kiryat Sepher itself תא
and captures it,
I will give to him Aksah herself תא,
my daughter, for a wife."
Aksah means anklet.

Josh. 15:17 And Othni'el, son of Kenaz,
the brother of Kaleb, captured it.
And he gave him Aksah herself תא,
his daughter, for a wife.
Othni'el means my force or El.
Kenaz means hunter.

Josh. 15:18 And it was at her coming to him.
And she persuaded him to ask,
from her father himself תא, for a field.
And she dismounted from the male ass.
And Kaleb said to her,
"What do you desire?"
15:19 And she said,
"Give to me a blessing.
Indeed, land in The Negev
you have given to me.
But give to me springs of water."
And he gave her
the upper springs themselves תא
and the lower springs themselves תא.

Josh. 15:20 This was the inheritance of the tribe
of the children of Yahudah by their families.

Josh. 15:21 And the cities that existed at the extremities
of the tribe of the children of Yahudah, toward the border of Edom in the South,
were Kabtze'el,
and Eder,
and Yagur,
Josh. 15:22 and Kinah,
and Dimonah,
and Ad'adah,
Josh. 15:23 and Kedesh,
and Hatzor,
and Yitnan,
Josh. 15:24 Ziph,
and Telem,
and Be'alot,
Josh. 15:25 and Hatzor, Hadattah,
and Keriyot.
Hetzron is Hatzor.
Josh. 15:26 'Amam,
and Shema,
and Moladah,
Josh. 15:27 and Hatzar Gaddah,
and Heshmon,
and BayitPalet,
Josh. 15:28 and Hatzar Shu'al,
and Be'ersheba,
and Bizyotyah,

Josh. 15:29 Ba'alah,
and 'Iyim,
and 'Atzem,
Josh. 15:30 and 'Eltolad,
and Kesil,
and Hormah,
Josh. 15:31 and Tziklag,
and Admanna,
and Sansanna,
Josh. 15:32 and Leba'ot,
and Shilhim,
and 'Ayin,
and Rimmon.
All the cities were twenty nine,
with their villages.

Josh. 15:33 In the low country,
'Eshta'ol,
and Tzor'ah,
and 'Ashnah,
Josh. 15:34 and Zanoah,
and En Gannim, Tappuah,
and 'Enam,
Josh. 15:35 Yarmut,
and 'Adullam, Sokoh,
and 'Azekah,
Josh. 15:36 and Sha'araim,
and 'Aditaim,
and Gederah,
and Gederotaim,
fourteen cities with their villages.

Josh. 15:37 Tzenan,
and Hadashah,
and Migdal Gad, Josh. 15:38 and Dil'an,
and Mitzpeh,
and Yokte'el,
Josh. 15:39 Lachish,
and Botskat,
and 'Eglon,
Josh. 15:40 and Kabbon,
and Lahmas,
and Kittish,
Josh. 15:41 and Gederot, BayitDagon,
and Na'amah,
and Makkedah,
sixteen cities with their villages.

Josh. 15:42 Libnah,
and 'Ether,
and 'Ashan,
Josh. 15:43 and Yiptah,
and 'Ashnah,
and Netsib,
Josh. 15:44 and Ke'ilah,
and 'Akzib,
and Mare'shah,
nine cities with their villages.

Josh. 15:45 Ekron with its towns and its villages
Josh. 15:46 from Ekron even to the sea,
all that were beside Ashdod,
with their villages.
Josh. 15:47 Ashdod, its towns and its villages, Azzah, its towns and its villages
as far as The River of Mitsraim, and the Great Sea with its coastline.

Josh. 15:48 And in the mountains, Shamur,

and Yattir,
and Sokoh,
Josh. 15:49 and Danna,
and Kiryat Sannah, it is Debir, Josh. 15:50 and 'Anab,
and 'Eshtemoah,
and 'Anim,
Josh. 15:51 and Goshen,
and Holon,
and Giloh,
eleven cities with their villages.

Josh. 15:52 'Arab,
and Dumah,
and 'Esh'an,
Josh. 15:53 and Yanim,
and BayitTappuah,
and 'Aphekah,
Josh. 15:54 and Humtah,
and Kiryat 'Arba, it is Hebron,
and Tzi'or,
nine cities with their villages.

Josh. 15:55 Ma'on, Karmel,
and Ziph,
and Yutah,
Josh. 15:56 and Yizre'el,
and Yokde'am,
and Zanoah,
Josh. 15:57 Kayin, Gib'ah,
and Timnah,
ten cities with their villages.

Josh. 15:58 Halhul, BayitTzur,
and Gedor,
Josh. 15:59 and Ma'arat,
and Bayit'Anot,
and 'Eltekon,
six cities with their villages.

Josh. 15:60 Kiryat Ba'al, it is Kiryat Ye'arim, and Rabbah,
two cities with their villages.

Josh. 15:61 In the wilderness, Bayit Ha Arabah, Middin,
and Sekakah,
Josh. 15:62 and Nibshan,
and The City of Salt,
and 'En Gedi,
six cities with their villages.

Josh. 15:63 But the Yebusites themselves אֵל
who were dwelling in Yerushalaim
the children of Yahudah
were not able to drive out.
And the Yebusites dwell with the children of Yahudah themselves אֵל
in Yerushalaim until this day.

Chapter 16

Josh. 16:1 And the lot went out
for the children of Yoseph
from the Yarden by Yericho
to the waters of Yericho,
from east of the wilderness,
ascending from Yericho
into the mountains to Bayit El.
Josh. 16:2 And it went out from Bayit El to Luz.
And it passed over to the border of the Arkites, to 'Atarot.

Josh. 16:3 And it descended seaward to the boundary of the Yaphletites,
as far as the boundary of Lower Bayit Horon,
and as far as Gezer.
And it was terminated at the sea.

Josh. 16:4 And this was the inheritance
of the children of Yoseph, Menashe, and Ephraim.

Josh. 16:5 And this was the border
of the children of Ephraim by their families.
And the border of their inheritance
on the sunrise side,
'Atarot 'Addar until Upper Bayit Horon.

Josh. 16:6 And the border went out to the sea,
to Mikmetat on the north.

And the border went around toward sunrise
to Ta'anat Shiloh.

And it passed over, it itself nx,
from sunrise to Yanoah.

Josh. 16:7 And it descended from Yanoah to "Atarot and Na'arat.

And it reached to Yericho and went out to The Yarden.

Josh. 16:8 From Tappuah
the border went seaward to the river Kanah.
And it ended at the sea.

This was the inheritance of the tribe
of the children of Ephraim by their families.

Josh. 16:9 And the separate cities for the children of Ephraim were in the midst of the inheritance of the children of Menashe,
all the cities with their villages.

Josh. 16:10 But they did not drive out
the Kena'anites themselves nx,
those dwelling at Gezer.
And the Kena'anites dwell
in the midst of the Ephraimites to this day.
But they serve at forced labor.

Chapter 17

Josh. 17:1 And the lot for the tribe of Menashe, because he was the firstborn of Yoseph,
was for Makir, the firstborn of Menashe,
father of Gil'ad, because he was a man of battle.
And Gil'ad and Bashan were his.

Josh. 17:2 And the rest was for the children of Menashe by their families,
for the children of Abi'ezer,
and for the children of Helek,
and for the children of Asri'el,
and for the children of Shekem,
and for the children of Hepher,
and for the children of Shemida.

These were the male children of Menashe,
son of Yoseph, by their families.

Abi'ezer means my father is help.

Helek means portion.

Asri'el means right of El.

Shekem means the neck, or back.

Hepher means ashamed.

Shemida means name of renown.

Josh. 17:3 But Tzelophahad, son of Hepher, son of Gil'ad, son of Makir, son of Menashe,
had no sons but only daughters.
And these were the names of his daughters,
Mahlah and Noah, Hoglah, Milkah and Tirtzah.

Tzelophahad means united body.

Gil'ad means heap of testimony.

Makir means salesman.
Mahlah means weakness.
Noah means movement.
Hoglah means partridge (uncertain).
Milkah means queen.
Tritzah means delightful.

Josh. 17:4 And they came near
before the face of El'azar, the priest,
before the face of Yahoshua, son of Nun,
and before the face of the rulers saying,
"YAHWEH directed Moshe himself תא to give us an inheritance among our kindred."
And he gave them an inheritance
among the kindred of their father
according to the direction of YAHWEH.

Josh. 17:5 And there fell by lot to Menashe ten portions, separate from the land of Gil'ad and Bashan
which were on the other side of The Yarden, Josh. 17:6 because the daughters of Menashe inherited among his sons.
And the land of Gil'ad
was for the rest of Menashe's sons.

Josh. 17:7 And the border of Menashe was from Asher to Mikmetat, which is in front of Shekem.
And the border went to the right,
toward those dwelling at En Tappuah.
Josh. 17:8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Menashe.
But Tappuah, on the border of Menashe,
belonged to the children of Ephraim.
Josh. 17:9 And the border descended
to the river Kanah, to the south of the river.
These cities of Ephraim were in the midst of the cities of Menashe.
But the border of Menashe was north of the river.
And it ended at the sea.

Josh. 17:10 To the south was Ephraim's and to the north was Menashe's.
And the sea was its border.
And Yissaskar was on the east.

Josh. 17:11 And in Yissaskar and in Asher Menashe had BayitShean and its towns,
and Yible'am and its towns,
and the inhabitants themselves תא
of Dor and its towns,
and the inhabitants of En Dor and its towns,
and the inhabitants of Ta'anak and its towns,
and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns,
three of the heights.

Note the use of aleph-tav
only once among these towns.
This is another example of why this cannot be the marker
of the direct object of a verb.
Otherwise it must be used for each of these places.

There is something special about Dor,
and that's what's being indicated.

Josh. 17:12 But the children of Menashe were not able to occupy those cities themselves תא
And they permitted the Kena'anites
to dwell in that land.

Josh. 17:13 And it was as the children of Yisra'el grew strong.
And they put the Kenna'anites themselves תא
to forced labor.

But drive them out,
they did not drive them out!

Josh. 17:14 And the children of Yoseph spoke to Yahoshua himself תא saying, "Why have you given us but one lot and one portion to inherit, yet we are a great people whom YAHWEH has blessed until now?"

Josh. 17:15 And Yahoshua said to them, "If you are a great people go up to the forest and create a place for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and the Repha'im, since the hill country of Ephraim is too confining for you."

Josh. 17:16 And the children of Yoseph said, "The hill country is not enough for us. And all the Kena'anites dwelling in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both from BayitShean and its towns and from the Valley of Yizre'el."

Josh. 17:17 And Yahoshua spoke to the house of Yoseph, to Ephraim and to Menashe saying, "You yourselves תא are a great people. And you have great power.

There will not be for you one lot. Josh. 17:18 Indeed, the hill country will be yours. Indeed, it is a forest. But you will cut it down. And its farthest limits will be yours. Indeed, you will drive out the Kena'anites themselves תא though they have iron chariots and are strong."

Chapter 18

Josh. 18:1 And all the assembly of the children of Yisra'el assembled at Shiloh. And they caused to reside there The Tent of Appointment itself תא.

And the land was conquered before their faces.

Josh. 18:2 And there remained among the children of Yisra'el seven tribes who had not received their inheritance itself תא.

Josh. 18:3 And Yahoshua said to the children of Yisra'el, "Until when are you yourselves תא going to fail to go and occupy the land itself תא which YAHWEH, The Elohim of your fathers, has given to you?"

Josh. 18:4 Provide for yourselves three men from a tribe. And I will send them out. And they will rise up. And they will walk through the land. And they will write down their inheritance itself תא according to their mouth. And they will come to me.

Josh. 18:5 And they are to divide it itself תא by lot into seven portions. Yahudah will stand at their border to the south. And Yoseph will stand at their border to the north.

Josh. 18:6 And you yourselves תא are to record the land itself תא as seven portions. And you are to bring it here to me. And I will cast lots here for you yourselves תא before the face of YAHWEH, our Elohim.

Josh. 18:7 However, the Levites have no portion among you, because the priesthood of YAHWEH
is their inheritance.

And Gad, and Re'uben,
and half the tribe of Menashe
have received their inheritance
on the other side of The Yarden to the east,
which Moshe, the servant of YAHWEH,
has given to them.”

Josh. 18:8 And the men rose up.
And they went.
And Yahoshua charged
those themselves nx who were going to describe the land itself nx saying, “Go and walk through the land.
And record it itself nx.
And return to me here.
And I will cast lots for you here
before the face of YAHWEH at Shiloh.”

Josh. 18:9 And the men went.
And they passed over the land.
And they recorded it according to cities,
according to seven portions on a scroll.
And they came to Yahoshua
at the encampment at Shiloh.

Josh. 18:10 And Yahoshua cast lots for them
at Shiloh before the face of YAHWEH.
And there Yahoshua divided there the land itself nx
for the children of Yisra'el
according to their divisions.

Josh. 18:11 And the lot came up for the tribe of the children of Binyamin
by their families.

And the border of their lot went out between the children of Yahudah
and the children of Yoseph.

Josh. 18:12 And the border for them
was to the north, along the side of The Yarden.
And the border went up to the north,
to beside Yericho.

And it went up into the mountains toward the sea.
And it ended at the Wilderness of BayitAven.

Josh. 18:13 And the border passed over
from there to Luz, to the side of Luz,
it is Bayit El, to the south.

And the border descended to Atarot Adar, upon the hill that lies on the south side of Lower Bayit Horon.

Josh. 18:14 And the border extended.
And it went around to the edge of the sea
on the south
from the hill which is in front of Bayit Horon,
on the south.

And it ended at Kiryat Ba'al,
that is Kiryat Ye'arim,
a city of the children of Yahudah.
This was the west side.

Josh. 18:15 And the south edge
was at the extremity of Kiryat Ye'arim.
And the border went out to the sea.
And it went out to the spring
of the waters of Nephtoah.

Josh. 18:16 And the border descended to the edge of the mountain which is in front of The Valley of the Son of Hinnom, which is in the Valley of The Rephaim,
on the north.
And it descended to The Valley of Hinnom,

to the side of the Yebusite city on the south.
And it descended to En Rogel.
Josh. 18:17 And it extended to the north.
And it went out to En Shemesh.
And it went out toward Gellilot,
which is in front of the Ascent of Adummim.
And it descended to The Stone of Bohan, son of Re'uben.
Josh. 18:18 And it passed over to the side opposite of The Arabah on the north.
And it went down to The Arabah.
Josh. 18:19 And the border passed over by the side of BayitHoglah on the north.
And the border ended at the north bay
at The Salt Sea, at the south end of The Yarden.
This was the southern boundary.

Josh. 18:20 And The Yarden borders it itself תא
on the east side.
This was the inheritance
of the children of Binyamin
according to its boundaries all around,
according to their families.

Josh. 18:21 And the cities for the tribe
of the children of Binyamin
by their families,
were Yericho,
and BayitHoglah,
and The Valley of Keziz, Josh. 18:22 and Bayit Arabah,
and Tzemaraim,
and Bayit El,
Josh. 18:23 and Avvim,
and Parah,
and Ophrah,
Josh. 18:24 and Kephah Ha Ammoni,
and Ophni,
and Gaba,
twelve cities with their villages.

Josh. 18:25 Gib'on,
and Ramah,
and Be'erot,
Josh. 18:26 and Mitzpeh,
and Kephirah,
and Motzah,
Josh. 18:27 and Rekem,
and Yirpe'el,
and Tar'alah,
Josh. 18:28 and Tzela, Ha'eleph,
and Yebusi,
that is Yerushalaim, Gib'at,
and Kiryat,
fourteen cities with their villages.
This was the inheritance
of the children of Binyamin
by their families.

Chapter 19

Josh. 19:1 And the second lot
came out for Shim'on,
for the tribe of the children of Shim'on
by their families.
And their inheritance was within the inheritance
of the children of Yahudah.
Josh. 19:2 And within their inheritance was Be'ersheba,
and Sheba,
and Moladah,
Josh. 19:3 and Hatzsar Shu'al,
and Balah,

and 'Atzem,
Josh. 19:4 and Eltolad,
and Betul,
and Hormah,
Josh. 19:5 and Tziklag,
and Bayit Markabot,
and Hatzar Susah,
Josh. 19:6 and Bayit Leba'ot,
and Sharuhen,
thirteen cities and their villages,

Josh. 19:7 'Ayin, Rimmon,
and 'Eter,
and 'Ashan,
four cities and their villages
Josh. 19:8 and all the villages that were all around these cities
as far as Ba'alath Be'er, Ramat Negev.
This was the inheritance of the tribe
of the children of Shim'on by their families.

Josh. 19:9 From the inheritance
of the children of Yahudah
the children of Shim'on had their inheritance because the portion of the children of Yahudah was too much for them.
And the inheritance of the children of Shim'on
was within their inheritance.

Josh. 19:10 And the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun by their families.
And the border of their inheritance
was as far as Sarid.

Josh. 19:11 And their border went to the sea and Mar'alah.
And it extended to Dabbeshet.
And it extended to the river
that was opposite Yokne'am.

Josh. 19:12 And it turned back from Sarid to the east, toward the sunrise,
to the border of Kislot Tabor.
And it went out to Daberath.

And it went up to Yaphia.
Josh. 19:13 And from there
it passed over eastward, toward sunrise,
to Gat Hopher, to Eth Katzin.
And it went out to Rimmon Mota'ar at Ne'ah.

Josh. 19:14 And the border went around, it itself תא, to the north of Hannathon.

And it ended at the Valley of Yiphtah El, Josh. 19:15 and Kattat,

and Nahalal,
and Shimron,
and Yid'alah,
and Bayit Lechem,
twelve cities with their villages.

Josh. 19:16 This was the inheritance of the children of Zebulun by their families,
these cities with their villages.

Josh. 19:17 The fourth lot came out for Yissaskar,
for the children of Yissaskar by their families.

Josh. 19:18 And their border was to Yizre'el, and to Kesullot,
and Shunem,

Josh. 19:19 and Hapharaim,
and Shi'on,
and 'Anaharat,

Josh. 19:20 and Rabbit,
and Kishyon,
and 'Abetz,

Josh. 19:21 and Remet,
and En Gannim,

and En Haddah,
and Bayit Patzetz.

Josh. 19:22 And the border extended to Tabor,
and Shahatzimah,
and Bayit Shemesh.
And their border ended at The Yarden,
sixteen cities with their villages.

Josh. 19:23 This was the inheritance of the tribe
of the children of Yissaskar by their families,
the cities and their villages

Josh. 19:24 And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher,
by their families.

Josh. 19:25 And their border was Helkat,
and Hali,
and Beten,
and Akshaph,

Josh. 19:26 and Alammelek,
and Am'ad,
and Mish'al.

And it extended to Mount Karmel, to the sea,
and to Shihor Libnat.

Josh. 19:27 And it turned back toward the sunrise, to Bayit Dagon.

And it extended to Zebulun
and to the Valley of Yiphtah El,
north to Bayit Emek and Ne'i'el.

And it went out to Kabul on the north,

Josh. 19:28 and Hebron,
and Rehob,
and Hammon,
and Kanah,

as far as Tzidon the Great.

Josh. 19:29 And the border turned back to Ramah
and to the strong city of Tzor.

And the border turned back to Hosah.

And it ended at the sea, by the border of Akzib,

Josh. 19:30 and 'Ummah,
and Aphek,
and Rehob,

twenty two cities with their villages.

Josh. 19:31 This was the inheritance of the tribe
of the children of Asher by their families,
these cities with their villages.

Josh. 19:32 The sixth lot came out for the children of Naphtali by their families.

Josh. 19:33 And their border was from Heleph,
from the oak in Tza'ananim,
and Adami Nekeb,
and Yabne'el, as far as Lakkum.

And it ended at The Yarden.

Josh. 19:34 And the border
turned back to the sea, to Aznot Tabor.

And it went out from there to Hukkok.

And it extended to Zebulun on the south,
and Asher on the west.

And it ended at Yahudah by the Yarden,
toward sunrise.

Josh. 19:35 And the fortified cities were Tziddim, Tzer,

and Hammat, Rakkat,
and Kinneret,

Josh. 19:36 and Adamah,
and Ramah,
and Hatzor,

Josh. 19:37 and Kedesh,
and Edre'i,
and En Hatzor,

Josh. 19:38 and Yir'on,
and Migdal El,
Horem,
and Bayit Anat,
and Bayit Shemesh,
nineteen cities with their villages.
Josh. 19:39 This was the inheritance of the tribe
of the children of Naphtali by their families,
the cities with their villages.

Josh. 19:40 The seventh lot came out for the tribe
of the children of Dan by their families.
Josh. 19:41 And the border of their inheritance was Tzor'ah,
and Eshta'ol,
and Ir Shemesh, Josh. 19:42 and Sha'alabbin,
and Ayalon,
and Yitlah,
Josh. 19:43 and Elon,
and Timnah,
and Ekron,
Josh. 19:44 and Eltekeh,
and Gibbeton,
and Ba'alath, Josh. 19:45 and Yehud,
and Benei Berak,
and Gat Rimmon,
Josh. 19:46 and Mey Yarkon,
and Rakkon,
with the border in front of Yapho.
Josh. 19:47 And the border of the children of Dan went out from them.
And the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem.
And they captured it itself נא.
And they struck it itself נא
with the edge of the sword.
And they occupied it itself נא.
And they dwelt in it.
And they called it Leshem Dan,
after the name of Dan, their father.
Josh. 19:48 This is the inheritance of the tribe
of the children of Dan by their families,
these cities with their villages.

Josh. 19:49 And they had completed
the inheritance of the land itself נא
according to its borders.
And the children of Yisra'el
gave an inheritance
to Yahoshua, son of Nun, in their midst.
Josh. 19:50 According to the mouth of YAHWEH
they gave him the city itself נא which he requested, Timnat Serah itself נא, in the mountains of Ephraim.
And he built the city itself נא and he settled in it.

Josh. 19:51 These are the inheritances
which El'azar, the priest,
and Yahoshua, son of Nun,
and the heads of the fathers of the tribes
of the children of Yisra'el divided as an inheritance by lot at Shiloh
before the face of YAHWEH
at the entrance of The Tent of Appointment.
And they finished dividing the land itself נא.

Chapter 20

Josh. 20:1 And YAHWEH
spoke to Yahoshua saying, Josh. 20:2 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el saying,
'Provide for yourselves
cities of refuge themselves נא,
of which I spoke to you by the hand of Moshe,

Josh. 20:3 for the sake of a killer
killing any life inadvertently, without forethought.
And they are to be for you for refuge
from the avenger of the blood.

Josh. 20:4 And he is to flee to one among these cities.
And he is to stand at the entrance gate of the city.
And he is to declare in the ears
of the elders of that city his words themselves נא.
And they are to receive he himself נא
into the city, to themselves.
And they are to give to him a place.
And he is to dwell with them.

Josh. 20:5 And when the avenger of the blood pursues after him
then they are not to surrender
the killer himself נא into his hand because without forethought
he struck his neighbor himself נא.
And he was not hating him
yesterday or the day before.

Josh. 20:6 And he is to dwell in that city
until he stands before the assembly for judgment,
and until the death of the one who is Great Priest in those days.
Then the killer is to return.
And he is to go to his city and his house from which he fled.' "

Josh. 20:7 And they set apart
Kedesh itself נא in Galil
in the mountains of Naphtali, and Shekem itself נא
in the mountains of Ephraim,
and Kiryat Arba itself נא, that is Hebron,
in the mountains of Yahudah.

Josh. 20:8 And on the other side of The Yarden,
at Yericho, toward sunrise,
they provided Hetzer itself נא
in the wilderness on the plain,
from the tribe of Re'uben,
and Ramot itself נא in Gil'ad,
from the tribe of Gad,
and Golan itself נא in Bashan,
from the tribe of Menashe.

Josh. 20:9 These were the cities provided for all the children of Yisra'el
and for the stranger
who sojourned in their midst to flee there,
for anyone inadvertently killing any life.
And he was not to be put to death
by the hand of the avenger of the blood
until he stood before the assembly.

Chapter 21

Josh. 21:1 And the heads of the fathers of the Levites came near to El'azar, the priest,
to Yahoshua, son of Nun,
and to the heads of the fathers of the tribes
of the children of Yisra'el.
Josh. 21:2 And they spoke to them at Shiloh
in the land of Kena'an saying,
"YAHWEH directed by the hand of Moshe to give to us cities for dwelling and their open lands for our livestock."

Josh. 21:3 And the children of Yisra'el
gave to the Levites from their inheritance

at the mouth of YAHWEH
these cities themselves תא
and their open lands themselves תא.

Josh. 21:4 And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites.
And for the children of Aharon, the priest,
from among the Levites
from the tribe of Yahudah,
from the tribe of Shim'on,
and from the tribe of Binyamin
there were thirteen cities by lot.

Josh. 21:5 And for the rest of the children of Kohath
from the families of the tribe of Ephraim,
from the tribe of Dan,
and from the half tribe of Menashe
there were ten cities by lot.

Josh. 21:6 And for the the children of Gershon from the families of the tribe of Yissaskar,
from the tribe of Asher,
from the tribe of Naphtali,
and from the half tribe of Menashe in Bashan
there were thirteen cities by lot.

Josh. 21:7 For the children of Merari
for their families,
from the tribe of Re'uben,
and from the tribe of Gad,
and from the tribe of Zebulun
there were twelve cities.

Josh. 21:8 And the children of Yisra'el
gave to the Levites by lot
these cities themselves תא
with their open lands themselves תא
according to what YAHWEH had directed
by the hand of Moshe.

Josh. 21:9 And they gave from the tribe of the children of Yahudah
and from the tribe of the children of Shim'on
these cities themselves תא which are called out,
they themselves תא, by their names.

Josh. 21:10 And it was for the children of Aharon,
from the families of the Kohathites,
from the sons of Levi
because for them was the first lot.

Josh. 21:11 And they gave to them
Kiryat Arba itself תא, that is Hebron, (Arba was the father of Anak)
in the mountains of Yahudah,
and its open lands themselves תא surrounding it.

Josh. 21:12 But the fields of the city themselves תא
and its villages themselves תא
they gave to Kaleb, son of Yephunneh,
as his possession.

Josh. 21:13 And to the children of Aharon, the priest
they gave as a city of refuge itself תא for the killer, Hebron itself תא

and its open land itself תא,
and Libnah itself תא,
and its open land itself תא,

Josh. 21:14 and Yattir itself תא,
and its open land itself תא,
and Eshtemoa itself תא

and its open land itself תא,
Josh. 21:15 and Holon itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
and Debir itself תא

and its open land itself תא,
Josh. 21:16 and Ayin itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
and Yuttah itself
ת and its open land itself תא,
and Bayit Shemesh itself
ת and its open land itself תא, nine cities from these two tribes themselves תא.

Josh. 21:17 And from the tribe of Binyamin, Gib'on itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
and Geba itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
Josh. 21:18 and Anathoth itself תא,
and its open land itself תא,
and Almon itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
four cities.

Josh. 21:19 All the cities of the children of Aharon, the priests, were thirteen cities and their open lands.

Josh. 21:20 And the families
of the children of Kohath,
the Levites remaining of the children of Kohath,
then the cities of their lot were from the tribe of Ephraim.

Josh. 21:21 And they gave them
as a city of refuge itself תא for the killer Shekem itself תא
with its open land itself תא
in the mountains of Ephraim,
and Gezer itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
Josh. 21:22 and Kibtzaim itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
and Bayit Horon itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
four cities.

Josh. 21:23 And from the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
Gibbeton itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
Josh. 21:24 Ayalon itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
and Gat Rimmon itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
four cities.

Josh. 21:25 And from the half tribe of Menashe, Ta'nak itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
and Gat Rimmon itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
two cities.

Josh. 21:26 All the ten cities and their open lands
were for the rest of the families
of the children of Kohath.

Josh. 21:27 And to the children of Gershon from the families of the Levites, from the half tribe of Menashe they gave
as a city of refuge itself תא for the killer
Golan itself תא in Bashan
and its open land itself תא
and B'eshterah itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
two cities.

Josh. 21:28 And from the tribe of Yissaskar, Kishyon itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
Dabrath itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
Josh. 21:29 Yarmuth itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
En Gannim itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
four cities.

Josh. 21:30 And from the tribe of Asher, Mish'al itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
Abdon itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
Josh. 21:31 Helkat itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
and Rehob itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
four cities.

Josh. 21:32 And from the tribe of Naphtali
as a city of refuge for the killer,
Kedesh itself תא in Galil
and its open land itself תא,
and Hammot Dor itself תא,
and its open land itself תא,
and Kartan itself תא,
and its open land itself תא,
three cities.

Josh. 21:33 All the cities of the Gershonites
by their families
were thirteen cities and their open land.

Josh. 21:34 And for the families of the children of Merari,
the remaining ones of the Levites,
from the tribe itself תא of Zebulun, Yokne'am itself תא,
and its open land itself תא,
Karta itself תא,
and its open land itself תא,
21:35 Dimnah itself תא,
and its open land itself תא,
Nahalal itself תא,
and its open land itself תא,
four cities.

Josh. 21:36 And from the tribe of Re'uben, Betzer itself תא,
and its open land itself תא,
and Yahtzah itself תא,
and its open land itself תא,
Josh. 21:37 Kedemot itself תא,
and its open land itself תא,
and Mepha'at itself תא,
and its open land itself תא,
four cities.

Josh. 21.38 And from the tribe of Gad
as a city of refuge for the killer,
Ramot itself תא in Gil'ad,
and its open land itself תא,
and Mahanaim itself תא
and its open land itself תא,
Josh. 21:39 Heshbon itself תא,
and its open land itself תא,
Ya'zer itself תא,
and its open land itself תא,
four cities in all.

Josh. 21:40 All the cities for the children of Merari by their families, those remaining from the families of the Levites, were by their lot twelve cities.

Josh. 21:41 All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Yisra'el were forty eight cities and their open lands.

Josh. 21:42 These were the cities and their open lands surrounding it. According to this it was for all these cities.

Josh. 21:43 And YAHWEH had given to Yisra'el all the land itself תא which He had sworn to give to their fathers.
And they occupied it.
And they settled in it.

Josh. 21:44 And YAHWEH caused rest for them all around according to everything that He had sworn to their fathers.
And not a man stood in front of their faces of all their adversaries.
All their adversaries themselves תא YAHWEH gave into their hand.

Josh. 21:45 Not a word fell to the ground from all the good words which YAHWEH had spoken to the house of Yisra'el! All of it existed!

Note: This is placed in bold because of its profound significance.
Not one word was left undone.
YAHWEH is FAITHFUL to do everything He speaks!

Chapter 22

Josh. 22:1 Then Yahoshua called for the Re'ubenites, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Menashe.

Josh. 22:2 And he said to them,

"You yourselves תא, have protected everything itself תא that Moshe, the servant of YAHWEH, directed you yourselves תא.

And you have listened attentively to my voice according to everything that I have directed you yourselves תא.

Josh. 22:3 You have not left your kindred themselves תא these many days up to this day.
And you have protected the duty itself תא, the directive of YAHWEH, your Elohim.

Josh. 22:4 And now YAHWEH, your Elohim, has caused your kindred to rest according to what He spoke to them.
And now go back.

And go to your own, to your tents, to the land of your possession which Moshe, the servant of YAHWEH, has given to you on the other side of The Yarden.

Josh. 22:5 However, vehemently keep watch for the sake of doing the directive itself תא and the instruction itself תא which Moshe, the servant of YAHWEH, has given as direction to you yourselves תא, to love YAHWEH Himself תא, your Elohim, and to walk in all His ways, and to protect His directives,

and to adhere to Him,
and to serve Him with all your heart
and with all your life.”

Josh. 22:6 And Yahoshua blessed them.
And he sent them away.
And they went to their tents.

Josh. 22:7 And to half the tribe of Menashe
Moshe had given in Bashan.
And to the other half Yahoshua gave land among their kindred
on the other side of The Yarden,
toward the sea.

And also when Yahoshua sent them away to their tents he blessed them.
Josh. 22:8 And he spoke to them saying, “Return to your tents with great riches,
and with very much livestock,
and with silver, and with gold,
and with copper, and with iron,
and with extremely many garments!
Divide the spoil of your adversaries with your kindred!”

'oyeb - hating; an adversary.
This is a fascinating word.
It's traditionally translated as "enemy".
It refers to one "hating you", an adversary.

There is another term
also used for "adversary", satan.
Effectively, they mean the same thing.
(satan also means opponent).

But perhaps you've heard the term "oy-vey".
It comes from a form of this very word.
It's an exclamation of distress
because of one who is "hating" you.

Josh. 22:9 And the children of Re'uben,
and the children of Gad,
and half the tribe of Menashe turned back.
And they went, they themselves תָּא,
from the children of Yisra'el,
from Shiloh, which is in the land of Kena'an,
to go to the land of The Gil'ad,
to the land of their possession
which they had seized for themselves
at the mouth of YAHWEH
by the hand of Moshe.

Josh. 22:10 And they came toward the regions of The Yarden which is in the land of Kena'an.
And the children of Re'uben,
and the children of Gad,
and half the tribe of Menashe
built a slaughter site there beside The Yarden,
a great conspicuous slaughter site.

Josh. 22:11 And having heard,
the Children of Yisra'el said, “Behold!
The children of Re'uben,
and the children of Gad,
and half the tribe of Menashe
have built a slaughter site itself תָּא
opposite the land of Kena'an,
in the regions of The Yarden
at the border of the children of Yisra'el.”

Josh. 22:12 And the children of Yisra'el heard.
And they called together the entire assembly of the children of Yisra'el to Shiloh for the sake of going up against them for the sake of war.

Josh. 22:13 And the children of Yisra'el sent to the children of Re'uben,
and to the children of Gad,
and to half the tribe of Menashe,
Pin'has himself, nx
son of El'azar, the priest,
to the land of Gil'ad,
Josh. 22:14 and ten rulers with him,
one ruler, one ruler from every tribe of Yisra'el.
And each one was the head of the house of their fathers
for the thousands of Yisra'el.

Josh. 22:15 And they came to the children of Re'uben
and to the children of Gad,
and to half the tribe of Menashe,
to the land of Gil'ad.
And they spoke with them saying,
Josh. 22:16 "Thus says
all the assembly of YAHWEH,
'What is this treachery
by which you have acted unfaithfully against The Elohim of Yisra'el
by turning away this day
from following after YAHWEH,
by building for yourselves a slaughter site
for the sake of rebelling today against YAHWEH?

Josh. 22:17 Is the moral perversity itself nx
of Pe'or not enough for us, which has not been cleansed from us
until this day?
And there was a plague
in the assembly of YAHWEH.

Josh. 22:18 Yet you yourselves nx have turned away today
from following after YAHWEH!
And you yourselves nx are rebelling today
against YAHWEH.
And tomorrow He will burst out in rage
toward the entire assembly of Yisra'el.

Josh. 22:19 And indeed,
if the land of your possession is defiled
pass over for your sakes
to the land of possession of YAHWEH
where The Dwelling Place of YAHWEH resides and have a possession among us.
But do not rebel against YAHWEH!
And do not rebel against us ourselves nx
by building for yourselves a slaughter site
besides the slaughter site
of YAHWEH, our Elohim!

Josh. 22:20 Did not Akan, son of Zerah, act treacherously
with what was devoted to destruction
and against all the assembly of Yisra'el
there was rage?
And he was not the only one who died by his moral wrong.' "

Josh. 22:21 And the children of Re'uben,
and the children of Gad,
and half the tribe of Menashe responded.
And they said to the heads themselves nx
of the thousands of Yisra'el, Josh. 22:22 "The El of Elohim, YAHWEH,
The El of Elohim, YAHWEH,
He Himself knows
and Yisra'el itself will know!

If this is in rebellion
or if it is in treachery against YAHWEH
He will not cause us to be delivered this day
Josh. 22:23 for building for ourselves
a slaughter site for the sake of turning back
from following after YAHWEH,
or if for the sake of causing to be offered upon it olahs or grain offerings
or if for the sake of offering upon it shelem offerings.
YAHWEH Himself will search it out!

Josh. 22:24 However, out of anxiety
we have done this thing itself nx saying,
'Tomorrow your sons
might speak to our sons saying,
'What is YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el to you?'

Josh. 22:25 And, "YAHWEH has put as a border between us
and the children of Re'uben,
and the children of Gad,
The Yarden itself nx.
You have no portion with YAHWEH."
And your sons would cause
our sons themselves nx
to fail to revere YAHWEH Himself nx.'

Josh. 22:26 And we said,
'Let us now prepare for ourselves
to build a slaughter site itself nx,
not for olahs, and not for sacrificing, Josh. 22:27 but rather as a witness between you and us
and our generations after us
for the sake of doing
the service of YAHWEH itself nx before His face with our olahs, and with our sacrifices,
and with our shelem offerings.
Then your sons will not say to our sons tomorrow,
"You have no portion with YAHWEH." '

Josh. 22:28 And we said,
"And it will exist when they say this to us or to our generations tomorrow
then we will say, 'Look!
The model itself nx
of the slaughter site of YAHWEH
which our fathers have made
is not for olahs and is not for sacrifices.
Indeed, it is a witness between you and us."

Josh. 22:29 Far be it from us to rebel against YAHWEH
or to turn back from following after YAHWEH
for the sake of building a slaughter site this day for burnt offerings, for grain offerings, or for sacrifices
besides the slaughter site
of YAHWEH, our Elohim,
which is before His Dwelling Place."

Josh. 22:30 And Pin'has, the priest,
and the rulers of the assembly,
and the heads of the thousands of Yisra'el
who were with he himself nx listened attentively to the words themselves nx
which the children of Re'uben,
and the children of Gad,
and the children of Menashe spoke.
And it was pleasing in their eyes.

Josh. 22:31 And Pin'has, son of El'azar, the priest,
said to the children of Re'uben,
and to the children of Gad,
and to the children of Menashe,
"Today we know that YAHWEH is in our midst!
How happy we are that you have not acted treacherously against YAHWEH in unfaithfulness.
By this you have delivered
the children of Yisra'el themselves תא
out of the hand of YAHWEH."

Josh. 22:32 And Pin'has, son of El'azar, the priest,
and the rulers returned from the children of Re'uben themselves תא
and the children of Gad themselves תא,
from the land of Gil'ad to the land of Kena'an,
to the children of Yisra'el.
And they brought back word
to they themselves תא.

Josh. 22:33 And the word was pleasing
in the eyes of the children of Yisra'el.
And the children of Yisra'el blessed The Elohim.
And they did not speak
of going up against them for battle for the sake of destroying the land itself תא
where the children of Re'uben
and of Gad were dwelling.

Josh. 22:34 And the children of Re'uben
and the children of Gad
called out concerning the slaughter site,
"It is a witness between us that YAHWEH is The Elohim."

Chapter 23

Josh. 23:1 And it was a long time after YAHWEH had caused Yisra'el to rest from all their adversaries on all sides.
And Yahoshua was coming old in days.
Josh. 23:2 And Yahoshua called for all Yisra'el,
for their elders, and for their heads,
and for their judges, and for their officers.
And he said to them, "I am coming old in days.
Josh. 23:3 And you yourselves תא,
you have seen everything itself תא
that YAHWEH, your Elohim, has done
to all these nations before your faces.
Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
He Himself has been fighting for you!

Josh. 23:4 Observe!
I have caused to fall to you by lot these remaining nations themselves תא
as an inheritance for your tribes from The Yarden, even all the nations that I have cut off,
even westward toward the setting of the sun.

Josh. 23:5 And YAHWEH, your Elohim,
He Himself has shoved them away
from before your faces.
And He has caused you yourselves תא
to occupy it before your faces.
And you have occupied their land itself תא
according to what YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has spoken to you.

Josh. 23:6 And you are to be very strong
for the sake of protecting
and for the sake of doing everything itself תא that is written on the scroll of the Torah of Moshe, lest you turn aside from it, right or left,

Josh. 23:7 lest you to go in among these nations,
these remaining with you yourselves nx.

And the name of their gods
is not to be noted.
And you are not to swear by them.
And you are not to serve them.
And you are not to bow down to them.

Josh. 23:8 Indeed to YAHWEH, your Elohim, you are to adhere
according to what you have done to this day.

Josh. 23:9 And YAHWEH has driven out
from before your faces
nations great and powerful.
And you yourselves nx,
no man has stood in your presence
up to this day.

Josh. 23:10 One man among you chases a thousand
because YAHWEH, your Elohim,
He Himself, is fighting for you
according to what He has spoken to you.

Josh. 23:11 And you are to watch well over your lives
for the sake of loving YAHWEH Himself nx,
your Elohim.

Josh. 23:12 However, if you turn back, turn back and adhere to the remnant of these nations,
these remaining with you yourselves nx,
and you marry among them
and you go in to them and they in to you, Josh. 23:13 know, you are to know,
that YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will no longer drive out
the nations themselves nx
from before your faces.
And they will be for your sakes
snares, and nooses,
and a scourge on your sides,
and thorns in your eyes
until you perish from this good land
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, has given to you.

Josh. 23:14 And behold!
I am going today the way of all the earth.
And you know in all your hearts
and in all your lives that not one word has failed
among all the good words
which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has spoken concerning you!
Everything has come for you!
Not one word from them has failed!

Josh. 23:15 And just as every good word has come upon you
which YAHWEH, your Elohim,
has spoken to you,
so also will YAHWEH bring upon you all the bad words themselves nx
until He has destroyed you yourselves nx
from upon this good land
which YAHWEH, your Elohim, has given to you, Josh. 23:16 on account of your passing over
The Covenant itself nx
of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
which He has given as direction
to you yourselves nx,

and you go and you serve other gods
and you bow down to them!

Then the anger of YAHWEH
will flare up against you!
And you will perish quickly from upon the good land
which He has given to you!"

Chapter 24

Josh. 24:1 And Yahoshua gathered
all the tribes of Yisra'el themselves תא
to Shekem.

And he called for the elders of Yisra'el,
and for their heads,
and for their judges,
and for their officers.
And they stationed themselves
before the face of The Elohim.

Josh. 24:2 And Yahoshua said to all the people,
"Thus said YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el.
'In the region across the river
your forefathers dwelt from time long past, Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor.
And they served other gods.

Josh. 24:3 And I took your forefather himself תא
Abraham himself תא from beyond the river.
And I caused he himself תא to walk on all the land of Kena'an.

And I increased his seed itself תא.
And I gave to him Yitzhak himself תא.

Josh. 24:4 And I gave to Yitzhak Ya'akov himself תא
and Esau himself תא.
And I gave to Esau himself תא Mount Se'ir
for the sake of occupying it itself תא.

And Ya'akov and his sons
went down to Mitsraim.

Josh. 24:5 And I sent Moshe himself תא
and Aharon himself תא.

And I struck Mitsraim itself תא
according to what I did in its midst.

And afterward I brought out you yourselves תא.

Josh. 24:6 And I brought your fathers themselves תא
out of Mitsraim.

And you came to the sea.

And the Mitsraites pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen to The Sea of Reeds.

Josh. 24:7 And they cried out to YAHWEH.

And I put darkness

between you and the Mitsraites.

And I brought upon them the sea itself תא.

And I covered them.

And your eyes saw

what I did with Mitsraim itself תא.

And you dwelt in the wilderness many days.

Josh. 24:8 And I brought you yourselves תא
to the land of the Amorites who were dwelling
on the other side of The Yarden.

And they fought with you yourselves תא.

And I gave they themselves תא into your hand.

And you occupied their land itself תא.

And I desolated them

from before your faces.

Josh. 24:9 And Balak, son of Tzippor,
king of Mo'ab, rose up.
And he fought against Yisra'el.

And he sent and called for Bil'am, son of Be'or,
to curse you yourselves אָ.

Josh. 24:10 But I was not willing to listen attentively to Bil'am.
And he blessed you,
he blessed you yourselves אָ!
And I delivered you yourselves אָ
out of his hand.

Josh. 24:11 And you passed over The Yarden itself אָ.
And you came to Yericho.
And the masters of Yericho,
the Amorite,
and the Perizzite,
and the Kena'anite,
and the Hittite,
and the Girgashite,
and the Hivvite,
and the Yebusite
fought against you.
And I gave they themselves אָ into your hand.

Josh. 24:12 And I sent before your faces
the hornet itself אָ.
And it drove out they themselves אָ
from before your faces,
two kings of the Amorites,
not with your sword,
not with your bow.
Hornets were often used against the enemy
in military conflicts.
This could very well have been a large infestation of hornets,
sent by YAHWEH to clear out the enemy.

Josh. 24:13 And I gave to you a land for which you did not labor and cities which you did not build.
And you dwell in them.
And vineyards and olive trees
which you did not plant
you yourselves אָ are eating'
It's easy to miss
the shift in the dialog here.
The message from YAHWEH ends.
Yahoshua continues
with his own instructions.
They come after recounting
all that YAHWEH has done
for the Children of Yisra'el.

We also need to recount
what YAHWEH has done for us, so we'll remember that we have not done
these things on our own.

Josh. 24:14 And now,
revere YAHWEH Himself אָ!
Serve He Himself אָ
with entirety and with faithfulness!
And turn away the gods themselves אָ
that your fathers served on the other side of the river and in Mitsraim!
And serve YAHWEH Himself אָ!

Josh. 24:15 And if it's bad in your eyes to serve YAHWEH Himself אָ
then choose for yourselves this day whom itself אָ you will serve, whether the gods themselves אָ
that your fathers served
that were on the other side of the river, or perhaps the gods themselves אָ
of the Amorites in whose land

you yourselves תא are dwelling.

But I and my household,
we will serve YAHWEH Himself תא.”

Josh. 24:16 And the people responded.
And they said,
“Far be it from us to abandon YAHWEH Himself תא
for the sake of serving other gods!

Josh. 24:17 Indeed, YAHWEH, our Elohim,
He has caused us ourselves תא
and our fathers themselves תא
to come up from the land of Mitsraim,
from the house of bondage!
And it is He Who did,
for the sake of our eyes,
those great signs themselves תא.

And He has protected us
in all the way that we have gone and among all the people whom we have passed over in their midst.

Josh. 24:18 And YAHWEH Himself תא
has driven out all the people themselves תא, even the Amorites themselves תא
who were dwelling in the land,
from before our faces.

We also will serve YAHWEH Himself תא!
Indeed, He is our Elohim!”

Josh. 24:19 Then Yahoshua said to the people, “You are not able to serve YAHWEH Himself תא
because He is a set apart Elohim.
He is a zealous El.
He will not carry
your rebellion or your offenses!

Josh. 24:20 When you abandon YAHWEH Himself תא
and serve foreign gods
then He will turn back.
And He will do you harm.
And He will terminate you yourselves תא
after He has done that which is good to you.”

Josh. 24:21 And the people said to Yahoshua,
“No, indeed!
We will serve YAHWEH Himself תא!”

Josh. 24:22 And Yahoshua said to the people,
“You are witnesses, you yourselves תא, against yourselves!
Indeed, you yourselves תא
have chosen for yourselves
YAHWEH Himself תא,
for the sake of serving He Himself תא!”
And they said, “Witnesses!”

There are few verses in Scripture that are more profoundly impacted by the significance of תא than this one!

It's proper application changes the sense of the verse dramatically as it calls forth the emphatic manner in which Yahoshua spoke to the Children of Yisra'el on this day.

Josh. 24:23 And now, turn away from the foreign gods themselves תא
which are in your midst!
And stretch out your heart itself תא
toward YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el!”

Josh. 24:24 And the people said to Yahoshua, “YAHWEH Himself נא, our Elohim,
we will serve!
And to His voice we will listen attentively!”

Josh. 24:25 And Yahoshua cut a covenant
for the people that day.
And he placed for them
a rule and regulation at Shekem.

Josh. 24:26 And Yahoshua wrote
these words themselves נא
in The Scroll of the Torah of The Elohim.

And he took a large stone.
And he stood it up there under the oak which was at The Set Apart Place of YAHWEH.

Josh. 24:27 And Yahoshua said to all the people,
“Behold!
This stone will be against us as a witness!
Indeed, it has heard
all the words themselves נא of YAHWEH
which He has spoken with us.
And it will exist as a witness against you lest you are untrue against your Elohim.”

Josh. 24:28 And Yahoshua sent away
the people themselves נא,
each man to his inheritance.

Josh. 24:29 And it was after these words.
And Yahoshua, son of Nun,
the servant of YAHWEH,

died at one hundred years and ten years.
Josh. 24:30 And they buried he himself נא
in the border of his inheritance, at Timnath Serah, which is in the mountains of Ephraim,
on the north side of Mount Ga'ash.

Josh. 24:31 And Yisra'el served
YAHWEH Himself נא
all the days of Yahoshua
and all the days of the elders
who lived longer than Yahoshua and who had known
all the works themselves נא of YAHWEH
which He had done for Yisra'el.

Josh. 24:32 And the bones themselves נא of Yoseph which the children of Yisra'el had brought up from Mitsraim
they buried at Shekem
in the plot of ground which Ya'akov had bought from the sons of Hamor themselves נא,
the father of Shekem,
for one hundred pieces of silver.
And it was an inheritance
for the children of Yoseph.

Josh. 24:33 And El'azar, son of Aaron, died.
And they buried he himself נא
on a hill of Pin'has, his son,
which had been given to him
in the hills of Ephraim.

7: Judges - Sophetim

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Judg. 1:1 And it was after the death of Yahoshua.

And the children of Yisra'el
inquired with YAHWEH, saying,
"Who is to go up for us against the Kena'anites at the beginning for the sake of fighting with them?"

Judg. 1:2 And YAHWEH said,
"Yahudah is to go up.
Behold!
I have given the land itself את into his hand."

Judg. 1:3 And Yahudah said
to Shim'on his brother,
"Go up with me myself את on my lot.
And we will fight with the Kena'anites.
And I myself will also go with you yourself את
on your allotment."
And Shim'on went with he himself את.

Judg. 1:4 And Yahudah went up.
And YAHWEH gave
the Kena'anites themselves את
and the Perizzites into their hand.
And they struck at Bezek ten thousand men.

Judg. 1:5 And they found
Adoni-Bezek himself את at Bezek.
And they fought against him.
And they struck
the Kena'anites themselves את
and the Perizzites themselves את.

Judg. 1:6 And Adoni-Bezek fled.
And they pursued him.
And they seized he himself את.
And they chopped off
his thumbs themselves את
and his big toes themselves את.

Judg. 1:7 And Adoni-Bezek said,
"Seventy kings with their thumbs and their big toes chopped off
were gathering food under my table.
According to what I have done,
accordingly The Elohim has repaid me."
And they brought him to Yerushalaim.
And he died there.

Yerushalaim means
complete teaching of deliverance.
It is the proper Hebrew name for "Jerusalem".

Judg. 1:8 And the children of Yahudah fought against Yerushalaim.
And they captured it itself את.
And they struck it with the mouth of the sword.
And they sent out fire upon the city itself את.

There are two unusual concepts here in the original Hebrew text.
The first is "mouth of the sword".
The word used means mouth, not "edge",
although that is how this is typically interpreted.
But doing so misses the concept of "consume",
which is the literally meaning of "struck".

The second is "sent out fire".
The term used literally means to send out or send away.
This is typically translated as "set",
but that would require a different Hebrew word to be accurate.
These are presented as the text has them,
not "reconstructed" to make it
"read better" in English.

Judg. 1:9 And afterward the children of Yahudah went down for the sake of fighting with the Kena'anites

who were dwelling in the mountains,
and in The Negev, and in The Shefelah.

These are three distinct areas in the land.
Yisra'elites know them instinctively by these terms.
The Negev is the southern part of the country.
The Shefelah is the lowlands
that sit beneath the high country, or mountains.

Judg. 1:10 And Yahudah went toward the Kena'anites
who were dwelling at Hebron.
And the name of Hebron
was formerly Kiriath Arba.
And they struck Sheshai himself תא,
and Ahiman himself תא,
and Talmai himself תא.

Judg. 1:11 And they went from there toward those dwelling at Debir.
And the name of Debir was formerly Kiriath Sepher.

Judg. 1:12 And Kaleb said,
"Whoever strikes Kiriath Sepher itself תא
and captures it,
then I will give to him Aksah herself תא,
my daughter, for a wife."
Aksah means anklet.

Judg. 1:13 And Othni'el, son of Kenaz, Kaleb's younger brother, captured it.
And he gave to him Aksah herself תא,
his daughter, for a wife.
Othni'el means force of El.

Judg. 1:14 And it was as she was going.
And she prodded him to request the field
from her father himself תא.

And she dismounted from upon the male ass.
And Kaleb said to her, "What is your desire?"
[Literally the last line says
"What is for you?"](#)

Judg. 1:15 And she said to him,
"Grant to me a blessing.
Indeed, you have given to me land in The Negev.
And give to me also springs of water."
And Kaleb gave to her
the upper springs themselves תא
and the lower springs themselves תא.

Judg. 1:16 And the children of the Kenite,
father-in-law of Moshe,
went up from the city of palm trees with the children of Yahudah themselves תא
into the Wilderness of Yahudah which is on the south of Arad.
And they went and dwelt
with the people themselves תא.
[Arad means to sequester oneself;
be a fugitive.](#)

Judg. 1:17 And Yahudah went
with Shim'on himself תא, his brother.
And they struck the Kena'anites themselves תא
dwelling at Tzephath.
And they devoted to destruction it itself תא.
And they called the name itself תא
of the city itself תא Hormah.
Hormah means devoted to destruction.

Judg. 1:18 And Yahudah captured
Azzah itself תא and its border itself תא,
and Ashkelon itself תא,
and its border itself תא,
and Ekron itself תא,
and its border itself תא.

Azzah is Gaza. It means strong.
Ashkelon means market place.
Ekron means
to hamstring or exterminate.
These were three primary cities
of the Philistines.

Judg. 1:19 And YAHWEH
was with Yahudah itself תא.
And they occupied the mountains themselves תא
because they were not able to drive out those themselves תא dwelling in the valley
because they had chariots of iron.

Judg. 1:20 And they gave to Kaleb Hebron itself תא
according to what Moshe had said.
And he drove out from there
the three sons of Anak themselves תא.

Judg. 1:21 But the Yebusites themselves תא,
those dwelling in Yerushalaim,
were not driven out by the children of Binyamin.
And the Yebusites are dwelling with the children of Binyamin themselves תא
in Yerushalaim until this day.
Yebusites means trodden ones.

Judg. 1:22 And the house of Yoseph
also went up against Bayit El.
And YAHWEH was with them.
Judg. 1:23 And the household of Yoseph spied upon Bayit El.
And the name of the city was formerly Luz.
Luz means almond or hazel tree.

Judg. 1:24 And the guards saw a man coming out from the city.
And they said to him,
"Please show us
the entrance itself תא to the city
and we will do kindness with you."

Judg. 1:25 And he showed them
the entrance itself תא to the city.
And they struck the city itself תא
with the mouth of the sword.
But the man himself תא
and all his family itself תא
they sent away.

Judg. 1:26 And the man went to the land of the Hittites.
And he built a city.
And he called its name Luz.
It is its name until this day.

Judg. 1:27 And Menashe did not occupy Bayit She'an itself תא
or its villages themselves תא,
or Ta'anak itself תא
or its villages themselves תא,
or those dwelling in Dor itself תא
or its villages themselves תא,
or those dwelling in Yible'am itself תא
or its villages themselves תא,
or those dwelling in Megiddo itself תא
and its villages themselves תא.
And they allowed the Kena'anites
to dwell in that land.

Bayi tShe'an means house of ease.
Ta'anak - meaning uncertain.
Dor means an age; or dwelling.
Yible'am means devouring people.
Meggido means rendezvous.

Judg. 1:28 And it was when Yisra'el was strong.
And they put the Kena'anites themselves תא

to forced labor.
But drive them out,
they did not drive them out.

Judg. 1:29 And Ephraim did not drive out
the Kena'anites themselves תא,
those dwelling in Gezer.
And the Kena'anites dwelt in their midst at Gezer.
Gezer means something cut off; a portion.

Judg. 1:30 Zebulun did not drive out those themselves תא dwelling at Kitron or those themselves תא dwelling at Nahalol.
And the Kena'anites dwell in their midst.
But they are forced labor.
*Kitron means fumigated.
Nahalol means run with a sparkle; flow.*

Judg. 1:31 Asher did not drive out those themselves תא dwelling at Akko, or those themselves תא dwelling at Tzidon,
or Achlab itself תא,
or Akzib itself תא,
or Helbah itself תא,
or Aphik itself תא,
or Rehob itself תא.
*Akko means to hem in.
Tzidon means to entrap.
Achlab means fatness; fertile.
Akzib means deceitful.
Helbah means fertility.
Aphik means fortress.
Rehob means broad place.*

Judg. 1:32 And the Asherites dwelt in the midst of the Kena'anites dwelling in the land
because they did not drive them out.

Judg. 1:33 Naphtali did not drive out those themselves תא dwelling at Bayit Shemesh, or those themselves תא dwelling at Bayit Anath.
And they dwelt in the midst of the Kena'anites dwelling in the land.
But those dwelling at Bayit Shemesh and at Bayit Anath
were forced labor for them.
*Bayit Shemesh means house of the sun.
Bayit Anath means house of responses.*

Judg. 1:34 And the Amorites pressed the children of Dan themselves תא
into the mountains.
Indeed, they would not allow them
to come down to the valley.

Judg. 1:35 And the Amorites let them dwell
on Mount Heres at Ayalon and in Sha'albim.
But the hand of the household of Yoseph was powerful and they became forced labor.
*Heres means shining.
Ayalon means deer field.
Sha'albim means fox holes.*

Judg. 1:36 And the border of the Amorites was from the Ascent of Akrabbim,
from the craggy rock and upward.
Akrabbim means a scourge, whip.

Chapter 2

Judg. 2:1 And a messenger of YAHWEH
went up from Gilgal to Bokim.
And he said, "I went up from Mitsraim
with you yourselves תא.
And I brought you yourselves תא to the land
which I swore to your forefathers.

And I said, 'I will not break My Covenant with you yourselves תא for eternity.

mal'ak - to dispatch as a deputy;
a messenger.

This was NOT an "angel".
It was a representative,
virtually an ambassador,
speaking on behalf of YAHWEH,
as if it was YAHWEH Himself
Who was speaking.

'olam - to the vanishing point;
time out of mind;
forever; for eternity.

Gilgal means wheel, or rolling.
Bokim means weepers.

Judg. 2:2 And you yourselves תא
are not to cut a covenant
for the sake of those dwelling in this land!
Their slaughter sites you are to tear down!

But you have not listened attentively to My voice.
Why have you done this?

Judg. 2:3 And I also said,
'I will not drive out they themselves תא
from before your faces.
And they will be against you as adversaries.
And their gods will be against you as snares.' ”

Judg. 2:4 And it was as the messenger of YAHWEH
spoke these words themselves תא
to all the children of Yisra'el.

And the people lifted up their voices themselves תא and they wept.

Judg. 2:5 And they called
the name of that place Bokim.
And they sacrificed there to YAHWEH.

Judg. 2:6 And Yahoshua sent away
the people themselves תא.
And the children of Yisra'el went,
each to his inheritance,
for the sake of occupying the land itself תא.

Judg. 2:7 And the people
served YAHWEH Himself תא
all the days of Yahoshua
and all the days of the elders
whose days were longer than Yahoshua who had seen all the great actions of YAHWEH themselves תא
which He had done for the sake of Yisra'el.

Judg. 2:8 And Yahoshua, son of Nun,
the servant of YAHWEH,
died one hundred and ten years old.

Judg. 2:9 And they buried he himself תא
in the border of his inheritance
at Timnath Heres in the mountains of Ephraim
on the north side of Mount Ga'ash.

Timnath Heres means portion of the sun.
Ga'ash means a quaking.

Judg. 2:10 And also all that generation
were gathered to their fathers.
And another generation arose after them who did not know YAHWEH Himself תא
and also the actions themselves תא
which He had done for the sake of Yisra'el.

Judg. 2:11 And the children of Yisra'el
did that itself תא which was evil
in the eyes of YAHWEH.

And they served the Ba'als themselves תא.

ba'al - a master, a husband or owner.
As a proper title, a Phoenician deity.

This term is also translated as "lord".
In old english a "lord" was a master or owner.

The use of this same concept
in relation to YAHWEH
has caused horrific confusion in Scripture
by failing to properly use
the personal Name of YAHWEH.
In many cases it has been replaced with "The LORD."
This is a travesty!

Judg. 2:12 And they abandoned
YAHWEH Himself תא,
The Elohim of their forefathers,
The One Who had brought out they themselves תא
from the land of Mitsraim.

And they walked after other gods
from the gods of the people who were all around them.
And they bowed down to them.
And they troubled YAHWEH Himself תא.

Judg. 2:13 And they abandoned

YAHWEH Himself תא.

And they served Ba'al and Ashtoreth.
Ashtoreth is a goddess of fertility.
She is also known as Astarte.

Note: If you've ever been taught
that you "cannot lose your salvation"
once you're "saved"
- it is an absolute lie!

You are born with free will,
the ability to chose how you will live.
This is NEVER taken away from you!
However, you can choose to abandon YAHWEH,
just like the Ysira'elites did.

Judg. 2:14 And the anger of YAHWEH
flared up against Yisra'el.
And He gave them into the hands of plunderers
who plundered they themselves תא.
And He sold them into the hands
of their adversaries all around.
And they were not able to stand any longer
before the face of their adversaries.

Judg. 2:15 In every going out
the hand of YAHWEH was against them
for the sake of what is bad,
according to what YAHWEH had said,
even as YAHWEH had sworn to them.
And they were distressed greatly.

Judg. 2:16 And YAHWEH raised up judges.
And they delivered them from the hand
of those plundering them.
shofetim - plural form of shaphat - to judge,
i.e. pronounce sentence for or against.
This is the Hebrew title for this book.

Judg. 2:17 But they also did not listen attentively to their judges.
Indeed, they committed adultery after other gods.
And they bowed down to them.
They turned aside quickly from the way which their fathers had walked for the sake of listening attentively to the directives of YAHWEH.
They did not do according to this.

Judg. 2:18 And because of this YAHWEH raised up judges for them.
And YAHWEH was with the judge.
And He delivered them
from the hand of their adversaries
all the days of the judge.
Indeed, YAHWEH sighed
because of their groaning before the faces of those who afflicted them and oppressed them.

Judg. 2:19 And it was at the death of the judge
they turned back.
And they were walking
more corruptly than their fathers, following after other gods
for the sake of serving them
and bowing down to them.
They did not cease from their actions
or from their harsh ways.

Judg. 2:20 And the anger of YAHWEH
flared up against Yisra'el.
And He said, "Because this foreign nation has passed over My Covenant itself אך
which I gave as direction to their fathers and has not listened attentively to My voice Judg. 2:21 I also will no longer drive out any from before them from the nations which Yahoshua left when he died
Judg. 2:22 for the purpose of testing by them, Yisra'el itself אך, whether they will protect the ways themselves of YAHWEH אך
for the sake of walking walk in them
according to how their fathers protected them,
or not!"

This is a very strong statement.
It needs to be taken as emphatic.

There are some particular things to note here.
The term goyim is used in relation to Yisra'el!!
The term refers to "Gentile nations",
foreign nations!
This is a huge slam against Yisra'el.
YAHWEH is identifying them
as the same as the "rest of the world"!

He takes note specifically that they have passed over My Covenant itself!
This challenges
the entire concept of The Covenant,
and specifically The Passover Event!

The Covenant
was "given as direction" to them,
to show them what YAHWEH
expected from them.
It was not given as a "commandment".
It was given as instruction.
That's the foundational meaning of torah.

This was not a matter of "obedience"!
It was a matter of listening attentively
- so they understood
what He had spoken to them, as instruction.
Would they do as He desired?
Or would they not do so?

This is always the issue of Scripture.
It's founded on the provision of free will.
Each of us must CHOOSE what we will do
in regard to His teachings.

Judg. 2:23 And YAHWEH left those nations themselves אך
by failing to drive them out quickly.

And He did not give them into the hand of Yahoshua.

Chapter 3

Judg. 3:1 And these are the nations which YAHWEH left for the sake of testing them,
Yisra'el itself תא,
everyone themselves תא who had not known
all the battles themselves תא of Kena'an,

Judg. 3:2 merely to teach knowledge to the generations of the children of Yisra'el;
merely to teach them of previous battles
which they did not know;
3:3 five tyrants of the Philistines,
and all the Kena'anites,
and the Tzidonians, and the Hivvites
who were dwelling
in the mountains of The Lebanon,
from the mountain of Ba'al Hermon
as far as the Lebanon of Hamat.

Judg. 3:4 And they existed for the sake of testing
Yisra'el itself תא with them,
for the sake of knowing
if they would listen attentively to the precepts themselves תא of YAHWEH
which He had given as direction to their fathers
by the hand of Moshe.

Judg. 3:5 And the children of Yisra'el
dwelt in the midst of the Kena'anites,
the Hittites, and the Amorites,
and the Perizzites,
and the Hivvites,
and the Yebusites.

Judg. 3:6 And they took their daughters themselves תא
for themselves for wives.
And their daughters themselves תא
they gave to to their sons.
And they served their gods themselves תא.

Judg. 3:7 And the children of Yisra'el
did that which was evil itself תא
in the eyes of YAHWEH!
And they forgot
YAHWEH Himself תא their Elohim.
And they served
the Ba'alim themselves תא
and the Asherahs themselves תא.

ba'alim - plural of ba'al - a ba'al
is a master, an owner, or a husband.

YAHWEH was to be their "husband",
their "master", their "owner",
not the elohim (gods) of the foreign nations
whom He sent them to destroy!

asherah means happy.
However, it also is the designation
of the goddess of fertility, Astarte (Astareth).
In this context it's an obvious reference to going after a foreign goddesses.

There is little that will anger YAHWEH more than having His chosen people "spit in His face" by turning their backs on Him,
and turning their faces toward false "gods"
- actually no-gods,
because they do not even exist
except in the form of idols, "images".

Judg. 3:8 And the anger of YAHWEH
flared up against Yisra'el!

And He sold them into the hand of Kushan-Rish'athaim, king of Aram Naharaim.
And the children of Yisra'el served Kushan-Rish'athaim himself נא eight years.

Kushan-Rish'athaim means Kushan of double wickedness (moral wrong).
Kushan refers to Kush, son of Ham.
Aram Naharaim means
Aram of two rivers.
Aram is Syria (aka Mesopotamia).

Judg. 3:9 And the children of Yisra'el
cried out to YAHWEH.

And YAHWEH raised up a deliverer
for the children of Yisra'el.

And Othni'el himself נא, son of Kenaz, Kaleb's younger brother,
delivered them from them.

moshia' - deliverer, liberator "savior".
It's connected directly to mashiach,
from which we get Messiah.
Othni'el means El is my force.
Kenaz means hunter.
Kaleb means to yelp or attack.

Judg. 3:10 And The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
was upon him.

And he judged Yisra'el itself נא.

And they went out to battle.

And YAHWEH gave into his hand

Kushan-Rish'athaim himself נא, king of Aram Naharaim.

And his hand was strong against Kushan-Rish'athaim.

ruach - wind; by resemblance, breath.
This term is often translated as "spirit".
But Yisra'elites did not have any concept of "spirit".
It's a Greek term, totally foreign to Yisra'el.

The breath of YAHWEH, however,
was seen as His inner nature,
His Divine Nature.
It was THIS that was upon Othni'el
- as it had been upon Moshe.

Judg. 3:11 And the land was at rest forty years.
And Othni'el, son of Kenaz, died.

Judg. 3:12 And again the children of Yisra'el
were doing what is bad in the eyes of YAHWEH.

And YAHWEH strengthened
Eglon himself נא, king of Mo'ab, against Yisra'el

on account of their doing what is bad itself נא
in the eyes of YAHWEH.

Judg. 3:13 And he gathered to him

the children of Ammon themselves נא and Amalek.

And he went and struck Yisra'el itself נא.

And they occupied of The City of Palms itself נא.

Judg. 3:14 And the children of Yisra'el
served Eglon himself נא, king of Mo'ab, eighteen years.

Judg. 3:15 And the children of Yisra'el
cried out to YAHWEH.

And YAHWEH raised up a deliverer for them,
Ehud himself נא, son of Gera, a Binyamite,
a man restricted in his right hand.

And the children of Yisra'el sent with him
a tribute to Eglon, king of Mo'ab.

Ehud means united.
Gera means a grain.

Restricted in his right hand implies he was left-handed.

Judg. 3:16 And Ehud made for himself a knife.
It was double edged, a cubit in length.
And he girded it itself תא under his long garment
on his right thigh.

Judg. 3:17 And he brought near the tribute itself תא
to Eglon, king of Mo'ab.
And Eglon was a very fat man.

Judg. 3:18 And it was as he finished bringing near the tribute itself תא.
And he sent away the people themselves תא,
those carrying the tribute.

Judg. 3:19 And he turned back from the idols that were at Gilgal itself תא.
And he said, "I have a secret message for you."
to the king.
And he said, "Silence!"
And all those standing beside him
went out from beside him.

Judg. 3:20 And Ehud came toward him.
And he was sitting in the cool upper room.
And Ehud said,
"I have a message from The Elohim for you."

And he arose from the seat.
Judg. 3:21 And Ehud stretched forth
his left hand itself תא.

And he took the knife itself תא
from his right thigh.
And he drove it into his belly.

Judg. 3:22 And the handle went in after the blade.
And the fat closed in over the blade
because he did not draw the knife out of his belly.
And his bowels came out.

Judg. 3:23 And Ehud went out to the porch.
And he shut the doors
of the upper room behind him.
And he locked them.
Judg. 3:24 And he went out.

And his servants came.
And they looked.
And behold!
The doors of the upper room were locked.
And they said,
"Surely he is covering his feet themselves תא
in the cool upper room."

"covering his feet"
is a euphemism for relieving himself.

Judg. 3:25 And they agonized
until they were ashamed.
And behold!
He was not opening
the doors of the upper room.
And they took the key itself תא
and they opened.
And behold!
Their king was lying down on the earth, dead.

Judg. 3:26 And Ehud escaped
while they had agonized.
And he had passed over beyond the idols themselves תא.
And he escaped to Se'irah.
Se'irah means roughness.

Judg. 3:27 And it was as he was coming.
And he blew the shofar
in the mountains of Ephraim.

And the children of Yisra'el
went down with him from the mountains.
And he was in front of them.
Judg. 3:28 And he said to them,
"Follow after me!
Indeed, YAHWEH has given
your adversaries themselves תא,
the Mo'abites themselves תא,
into your hands."
And they went down after him.
And they captured the fords themselves תא
of The Yarden to Mo'ab.
And they did not permit any man to pass over.

Judg. 3:29 And they struck of Mo'ab itself תא at that time
about ten thousand men,
all robust and able men.
And not a man escaped.

Judg. 3:30 And Mo'ab was humiliated on that day
under the hand of Yisra'el.
And the land was at rest for eighty years.

Judg. 3:31 And after him
was Shamgar, son of Anath.
And he struck of the Philistines themselves תא
six hundred men with an ox goad.
And he also delivered Yisra'el.
Shamgar - meaning unknown.
Anath means one paying attention.

Chapter 4

Judg. 4:1 And again the children of Yisra'el
did bad in the eyes of YAHWEH.
And Ehud was dead.

Judg. 4:2 And YAHWEH sold them into the hand of Yabin, the king of Kena'an, who reigned in Hatzor.
And the captain of his assembly was Sisera.
And he was dwelling in Haroshet Haggoyim.
Yabin means intelligent.
Hatzor means village.
Sisera - meaning uncertain.
Haroshet Haggoyim means mechanical work of the nations.

Judg. 4:3 And the children of Yisra'el
cried out to YAHWEH
because he had nine hundred chariots of iron and he harshly oppressed
the children of Yisra'el themselves תא
for twenty years.

Judg. 4:4 And Deborah, a woman prophetess,
wife of Lappidot,
was judging Yisra'el itself תא at that time.
Deborah means the bee.
Lappidot means to shine; a lamp or flame.

Judg. 4:5 And she was dwelling under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bayit El
in the mountains of Ephraim.
And the children of Yisra'el
went up to her for judgment.

Judg. 4:6 And she sent.
And she called to Barak, son of Abino'am,
from Kedesh in Naphtali.
And she said to him,
"Has not YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el, given direction to go and draw up onto Mount Tabor.

And you are to take with you ten thousand men of the sons of Naphtali
and of the sons of Zebulun.

Barak means lightning.

Abino'am means father of pleasantness.

Kedesh means sanctuary.

Tabor means broken region.

Judg. 4:7 And I will draw toward you,
toward the River Kishon,

Sisera himself תא,

the captain of Yabin's assembly,

and his chariots themselves תא,

and his multitude itself תא.

And I will give him into your hand?"

Judg. 4:8 And Barak said to her,

"If you go with me then I will go.

But if you will not go with me I will not go."

Judg. 4:9 And she said, "I will certainly go with you.

However, there will be no honor for you in the journey you are taking

because into the hand of a woman

YAHWEH is going to sell Sisera himself תא."

And Deborah went with Barak to Kedesh.

Judg. 4:10 And Barak called

Zebulun himself תא

and Naphtali himself תא to Kedesh.

And there went up on foot ten thousand men.

And Deborah went up with him.

Judg. 4:11 And Heber, the Kenite,

of the children of Hobab,

the father-in-law of Moshe,

had separated himself from the Kenites.

And he had pitched his tent

near the terebinth tree at Tsa'anayim,

which is beside Kedesh itself תא.

Heber means community.

Hobab means cherished.

Judg. 4:12 And they told Sisera

that Barak, son of Abino'am, had gone up to Mount Tabor.

Judg. 4:13 And Sisera called for all his chariots themselves תא, nine hundred chariots of iron,

and all the people themselves תא

who were of himself תא

from Haroshet Haggoyim to the wadi Kishon.

Judg. 4:14 And Deborah said to Barak,

"Rise up!

Indeed, this is the day in which YAHWEH

has given Sisera himself תא into your hand!

Has not YAHWEH gone out before you?"

And Barak went down from Mount Tabor.

And ten thousand men were behind him.

Judg. 4:15 And YAHWEH

destroyed Sisera himself תא,

and all his chariots themselves תא,

and all his assembly itself תא

with the mouth of the sword

before the face of Barak.

And Sisera got down from his chariot

and he fled on foot.

Judg. 4:16 And Barak pursued after the chariots

and after the assembly

as far as Haroshet Haggoyim.

And all the encampment of Sisera fell by the mouth of the sword.

Not a man remained.

Judg. 4:17 And Sisera fled on foot
to the tent of Ya'el,
wife of Heber, the Kenite,
because there was peace
with the house of Yabin, king of Hatzor,
and the house of Heber, the Kenite.
Ya'el means wild goat. \(?\)

Judg. 4:18 And Ya'el went out to meet Sisera.
And she said to him,
"Turn aside, my sovereign.
Turn aside to me.
Do not be afraid."
And he turned aside to her into the tent.
And she covered him with a rug.
Judg. 4:19 And he said to her,
"Please give me a little water to drink because I am thirsty."
And she opened a skin of milk itself נא.
And she gave him a drink.
And she covered him.

Judg. 4:20 And he said to her,
"Stand at the entrance to the tent.
And it will exist if a man comes and inquires of you and he says,
'Is there a man here?'
you are to say, 'No.'"

Judg. 4:21 But Ya'el, Heber's wife, took a tent peg itself נא.
And she put the hammer itself נא into her hand.
And she went toward him in secret.
And she drove the peg itself נא
into the side of his head.
And it went down into the ground.
But he was fast asleep and weary.
And he died.

Judg. 4:22 And behold!
Barak was pursuing Sisera himself נא.
And Ya'el went out to meet him.
And she said to him,
"Come and see for yourself
the man himself נא whom you yourself נא are seeking!"
And he went toward her.
And behold!
Sisera was lying dead.
And the peg was in the side of his head.

Judg. 4:23 And The Elohim on that day humiliated Yabin himself נא, king of Kena'an,
before the face of the children of Yisra'el.
Judg. 4:24 And the hand of the children of Yisra'el went.
It went severely against Yabin, king of Kena'an,
until they had cut off
Yabin himself נא, king of Kena'an.

Chapter 5

Judg. 5:1 And on that day Deborah and Barak, son of Abino'am, sang saying, Judg. 5:2 In freeing, freedom for Yisra'el, with spontaneity bless YAHWEH!

Judg. 5:3 Listen attentively kings!
Hear leaders!
I myself, to YAHWEH I myself will sing!
I will sing to YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el!

Judg. 5:4 YAHWEH, as You came out from Se'ir, as You marched from the field of Edom
the earth trembled.

Also the skies dripped.
Dark clouds also dripped water.
Judg. 5:5 The mountains flowed
because of the presence of YAHWEH, this Sinai, at the presence of YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el.

Judg. 5:6 In the days of Shamgar, son of Anath,
in the days of Ya'el,
the well trodden paths were deserted
and the travelers tracks were winding.
Judg. 5:7 Leadership had ceased in Yisra'el!
It had ceased until I, Deborah, arose,
a mother in Yisra'el.

Judg. 5:8 They chose new gods.
Then battle was at the gates!
Neither shield nor spear was seen among forty thousand in Yisra'el.

Judg. 5:9 My heart is to inscribe of Yisra'el
the volunteers among the people.
Bless YAHWEH!

Judg. 5:10 You, riding on white male asses,
you, who are sitting in long robes,
and you, walking upon the road,
declare it!

Judg. 5:11 From the noise of those dividing,
among the watering places,
there they recount the right acts of YAHWEH,
the right acts of His leadership in Yisra'el.

Then down to the gates will go
the people of YAHWEH!

Judg. 5:12 Wake up! Wake up, Deborah!
Wake up! Wake up!
Utter a song!
Arise, Barak, and take to captivity your exiles,
son of Abino'am!

Judg. 5:13 Then descended the surviving powerful people of YAHWEH!

They went down as warriors!
Judg. 5:14 Out of Ephraim their root against Amalek.
After you Binyamin with people from Makir scribes came down.

And from Zebulun
those handling the pen of the scribe.
Judg. 5:15 And the leaders of Yissaskar were with Deborah.

And Yissaskar, like Barak, was sent into the valley on foot
with the divisions of Re'uben.
Great were the searchings of the heart.

Judg. 5:16 Why did you sit among the sheepfolds?
To hear the bleatings of the flocks?
The divisions of Re'uben
have great searchings of heart.

Judg. 5:17 Gil'ad stayed beyond The Yarden.
And why did Dan remain on ships?
Asher sat at the seashore,
even sat by his landing places.

Judg. 5:18 Zebulun's people risked their lives to the point of death
and Naphtali on the heights of the field.

Judg. 5:19 Kings came.
They fought.
Then the kings of Kena'an fought at Ta'anak

by the waters of Megiddo.
They took no plunder of silver.

Judg. 5:20 From the skies they fought!
The stars from their courses fought with Sisera.

Judg. 5:21 The river Kishon swept them away,
that ancient river, The River Kishon.

Walk on, my life, with strength!

Judg. 5:22 Then hoofs of horses stomped
with the galloping,
galloping of his mighty ones.

Judg. 5:23 'Bitterly curse Meroz,' said a messenger of YAHWEH.
'Bitterly curse, bitterly curse its inhabitants
because they did not come to aid YAHWEH,
to aid YAHWEH against the powerful!'

Judg. 5:24 Blessed among women is Ya'el,
wife of Heber, the Kenite.
Among women in tents she is blessed!

Judg. 5:25 He asked for water.
She gave milk.
In a bowl for nobles
she brought near curdled milk.

Judg. 5:26 She stretched her hand to the tent peg
and her right hand to the workmen's hammer.
And she struck down Sisera.
She crushed his head.
She smashed and pierced through the side of his head.

Judg. 5:27 Between her feet he sank!
He fell, lying down between her feet.
He sank!
He fell where he sank!
In the place he sank,
there he fell, destroyed!

Judg. 5:28 Through the window she leaned out.
And the mother of Sisera
cried through the lattice,
'Why is his chariot delayed to come?
Why do the steps of his chariots tarry?'

Judg. 5:29 The wise mistresses responded.
She also answered herself.

Judg. 5:30 'Have they not found booty
to divide the spoil,
a girl or two for every warrior,
a booty of dyed work for Sisera,
a booty of dyed work embroidered,
dyed work richly embroidered
for the necks of the plunderer?'

Judg. 5:31 Thus will perish
all Your adversaries, YAHWEH!
And those loving Him will be like the going forth of the sun rising in its might!"

And the land was at rest forty years.

Chapter 6

Judg. 6:1 And the children of Yisra'el
did bad in the eyes of YAHWEH.
And YAHWEH gave them into the hand of Midyan for seven years.
Judg. 6:2 And the hand of Midyan
was strong against Yisra'el.

From before the faces of the Midyanites
the children of Yisra'el made for themselves
the caverns themselves תא
which are in the mountains,
and the dens themselves תא,
and the strongholds themselves תא.

Judg. 6:3 And it existed when Yisra'el had sown.
And Midyan would come up, and Amalek,
and the people of the East.
And they came up against them.
Judg. 6:4 And they encamped against them.
And they destroyed
the produce itself תא of the land
as far as coming to Azzah.
And no food remained for sustenance in Yisra'el,
not for sheep, nor for ox, nor for male ass, Judg. 6:5 because they and their livestock and their tents came like locusts for abundance.
And their camels were without number.
And they came into the land
for the sake of destroying it.

Judg. 6:6 And Yisra'el was greatly weakened
because of Midyan.
And the children of Yisra'el cried out to YAHWEH.
Judg. 6:7 And it was as the children of Yisra'el cried out to YAHWEH because of Midyan.
Judg. 6:8 And YAHWEH sent a prophet to the children of Yisra'el who said to them,
"Thus said YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el,
'I Myself have brought up you yourselves תא
from Mitsraim.
And I brought out you yourselves תא
from the house of bondage.
Judg. 6:9 And I snatched you yourselves תא
from the hand of the Mitsraites
and from the hand of all who were oppressing you.
And I drove out they themselves תא
from before your faces.
And I gave to you their land itself תא.
Judg. 6:10 And I said to you,
"I Myself am YAHWEH, your Elohim!

You are not to revere the gods themselves תא
of the Amorites in whose land
you yourselves תא are dwelling!
But you have not listened attentively to My voice!" ' "

Judg. 6:11 And a messenger of YAHWEH came.
And he sat under the oak tree
which was at Ophrah,
which belonged to Yo'ash, the Abi'ezerite.
And Gid'on, his son,
was threshing wheat in the winepress
for the sake of hiding it from the face of the Midyanites.
Ophrah means female fawn. Yo'ash is from Yaho'ash,
meaning fire of YAHWEH.
Abi'ezer means father of help.
Gid'on means feller, destroyer; warrior.

Judg. 6:12 And the messenger of YAHWEH
was seen by him.
And he said to him,
"YAHWEH is with you, valiant warrior!"
Judg. 6:13 And Gid'on said to Him,
"With us, my Sovereign?
If YAHWEH exists with us
why has all this happened to us?
And where are all His extraordinary acts which our fathers related to us saying,

'Did not YAHWEH bring us up from Mitsraim?'
But now YAHWEH has pounded us.
And He has given us into the hands of Midyan."

Judg. 6:14 And the messenger of YAHWEH
turned to him and he said,
"Go in this vigor of yours.
And you are to deliver Yisra'el itself אך
from the hand of the Midyanites.
Have I not sent you?"

Note: The story begins with a messenger of YAHWEH.
the Hebrew word is mal'ak.
It means to dispatch as a deputy.

It's "translated" as "messenger",
but it represents an ambassador,
one sent on behalf of,
and with the authority of,
the one sending them.

While the text states "YAHWEH ...said"
we must take this to mean
He does so through His messenger.
To do otherwise is to suggest Gid'on actually sees YAHWEH,
which cannot be so.

No human being
can see YAHWEH and live.
For this reason an insertion is made in the text as needed to reflect this is the messenger, ambassador,
speaking "as if he IS YAHWEH", speaking the words of YAHWEH
as if YAHWEH is doing the speaking.
In reality, He is indeed speaking,
but He is doing so
through his ambassador to Gid'on.
Otherwise you end up with a huge contradiction in Scripture that cannot stand the test of Truth.

Judg. 6:15 And he said to Him,
"My master, how am I to deliver Yisra'el itself אך?
Behold!
My family is weak among Menashe.
And I am the least in my father's household."
Judg. 6:16 And the messenger of YAHWEH
said to him,
"Indeed, I will be with you!
And you will strike the Midyanites themselves אך
as if one man."

Judg. 6:17 And he said to Him,
"If now I have found favor in Your eyes
then do for me a sign that You Yourself אך are speaking with me.
Judg. 6:18 Please do not withdraw from here
until I come to You.
And I will bring out my gift itself אך
and set it down before Your face."
And He said, "I will stay until you return."

Judg. 6:19 And Gid'on went in.
And he prepared a kid of the goats
and an ephah of matsah flour.
The flesh he placed in a basket.
And the broth he placed in a pot.
And he brought them out to him
under the oak tree.
And he brought it near.

Judg. 6:20 And the messenger of The Elohim
said to him,
"Take the flesh itself אך
and the matsah itself אך
and set them down on this rock.
And the broth itself אך, pour out."

And he did so.

Judg. 6:21 And the Messenger of YAHWEH put forth the end of the staff itself תא that was in His hand.

And he touched the flesh and the matsah.
And fire went up from the rock.
And it consumed the flesh itself תא and the matsah itself תא.

And the Messenger of YAHWEH went from his sight.

Judg. 6:22 And Gid'on perceived that he was a messenger of YAHWEH.
And Gid'on said, "Alas, Sovereign YAHWEH! Indeed, I have seen a messenger of YAHWEH face to face!"

Judg. 6:23 And YAHWEH said to him, "Shalom to you!
Do not be afraid!
You will not be put to death!"

This passage reveals the Hebrew perspective on seeing not only YAHWEH, but any "divine being". They believed that to see such a being meant they would die. How much more they would die if they were to see the very face of YAHWEH Himself. Hence, YAHWEH sends one of His messengers, as an ambassador - speaking as if he is YAHWEH Himself - rather than causing a man to die.

Also, take note of the Hebrew term used here, shalom. It means far more than "peace". It means total well-being in every aspect of one's being. It is a greeting of great respect indicating a desire for one to prosper in every way.

Judg. 6:24 And Gid'on built there a slaughter site to YAHWEH.
And he called it YAHWEH Shalom.
To this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abi'ezerites.

Please take note of this. The slaughter site is called "YAHWEH Shalom", NOT the messenger, and not God. This is NOT a "name of God" as many false teachers proclaim. It is a title given to the slaughter site by which this event is to be remembered.

Judg. 6:25 And it was the same night. And YAHWEH said to him, "Take the young bull itself תא which is your father's and the second bull of seven years.
And you are to pull down the slaughter site itself תא of Ba'al which is your father's.
And the Asherah itself תא that is beside it you are to cut down.

Judg. 6:26 And you are to build a slaughter site to YAHWEH, your Elohim, on top of this rock in an orderly manner.
And you are to take the second bull itself תא and you are to offer an olah with the wood of the Asherah which you cut down."

Judg. 6:27 And Gid'on took ten men from among his servants.
And he did according to what YAHWEH had spoken to him.
And it was because he was afraid of his father's household itself נא
and the men of the city themselves נא concerning doing it by day.
And he did it by night.

Judg. 6:28 And the men of the city
rose up early in the morning.
And behold!
The slaughter site of Ba'al was torn down.
And the Asherah that was beside it had been cut down.
And the second bull itself נא was being offered
on the slaughter site which was built.
Judg. 6:29 And they said one to another,
"Who has done this matter?"
And they sought and searched.
And they said, "Gid'on, son of Yo'ash,
has done this matter."

Judg. 6:30 And the men of the city said to Yo'ash,
"Bring out your son himself נא,
and he is to be put to death
because he has torn down
the slaughter site itself נא of Ba'al,
and because he has cut down
the Asherah that was beside it."

Judg. 6:31 And Yo'ash said
to all who stood against him,
"Would you yourself נא contend for Ba'al?
Can you yourself נא save him?
He himself נא who contends for him,
let him be put to death by morning!
If he is a god let him contend for himself because his slaughter site itself נא
has been torn down!"

Judg. 6:32 And they called him on that day
Yerubba'al saying, "He contends with Ba'al.", because he tore down his slaughter site itself נא.
Yerubba'al means Ba'al will contend.

Judg. 6:33 And all Midyan, and Amalek, and the people of the East were gathered together.
And they passed over.
And they encamped in the Valley of Yizre'el.
Yizre'el means El will sow \(plant\).
This is The Valley of Armageddon.

Judg. 6:34 And The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
clothed Gid'on himself נא.

And he blew the shofar.
And the Abi'ezerites gathered behind him.
ruach - wind, by resemblance breath.
Here identified as
the Divine Nature itself of YAHWEH.

labash - properly, wrap around;
to put on a garment or clothe one.

Judg. 6:35 And he sent messengers throughout all Menashe
who also gathered behind him.
And he sent messengers to Asher,
and to Zebulun, and to Naphtali.
And they came up to meet them.

Judg. 6:36 And Gid'on said to The Elohim,
"If You are delivering Yisra'el itself נא
by my hand
according to what You have said,

Judg. 6:37 behold, I am establishing a fleece of wool itself תא
on the threshing floor.
If the dew is upon the fleece alone,
but upon all the land it is dry
then I will know that You will deliver Yisra'el itself תא
by my hand
according to what You have said.”

Judg. 6:38 And it was so.
And he rose up early in the morning.
And he pressed together the fleece itself תא.
And he drained dew from the fleece.
The bowl was full of water.

Judg. 6:39 And Gid'on said to The Elohim,
“Do not be angry with me,
and I will speak only this time.
Now only this time with the fleece,
please let it be dry on the fleece alone
and on all the ground let there be dew.”

Judg. 6:40 And The Elohim did so that night.
And it was dry on the fleece alone.
And on all the ground there was dew.

Many have misused this passage to test YAHWEH.
Gideon was seeking confirmation for his task
– in line with his timid character.
YAHWEH honored his request
since it was an honest request
in light of what YAHWEH was asking.

Many times we want to test YAHWEH
in only minor things.
YAHWEH does not respond
because we are acting selfishly.

This story is in keeping with Scripture.
It takes two witnesses to confirm a matter
beyond a shadow of doubt.
Gideon has asked in effect for two witnesses to confirm this matter before YAHWEH.

It comes after a recognition of YAHWEH as God,
a humble act of worship,
a call from YAHWEH Himself,
and a profession of willingness to act.
These are all essential ingredients
to the story for it to be valid.

Chapter 7

Judg. 7:1 And Yerubba'al rose up early,
that is Gid'on,
and all the people who were with he himself תא.
And they encamped by the En Harod.
And the encampment of Midyan
was on the north side of them
by the hill of Moreh in the valley.

En Harod means fountain of trembling.
Moreh means an archer.

Judg. 7:2 And YAHWEH said to Gid'on, “Too many are the people who are with you yourself תא
for Me to give Midyan into their hands lest Yisra'el boast against Me saying,
'My own hand has delivered me.'

Judg. 7:3 And now call out in the hearing of the people saying,
'Whoever is afraid and trembles is to turn back.
And he is to depart from Mount Gil'ad.' ”
And twenty two thousand from the people turned back.
And ten thousand remained.

Judg. 7:4 And YAHWEH said to Gid'on,
"The people are still too many.
Bring down they themselves נא to the water.
And I will refine them for you there.
And it will be that of whom I say to you,
'This one is to go with you yourself נא.'
He is to go with you yourself נא.
And all of whom I say to you,
'This one is not to go with you.'
He is not to go."

Judg. 7:5 And he brought down
the people themselves נא to the water.
And YAHWEH said to Gid'on,
"All who lap from the water with his tongue,
as a dog laps,
you are to set apart he himself נא
from all who kneel down on his knees to drink."

Judg. 7:6 And the number of those who lapped with their hand to their mouth was three hundred men.
And all the rest of the people
kneeled down on their knees to drink water.

Judg. 7:7 And YAHWEH said to Gid'on,
"With the three hundred men who were lapping
I will deliver you yourselves נא.
And I will give Midyan itself נא into your hands.
And all the other people are to go,
each man to his place."

Judg. 7:8 And the people
took food itself נא in their hands
and their shofars themselves נא.
And all the rest of Yisra'el itself נא he sent away,
each man to his tent.
And with three hundred men
he was strengthened.

And the encampment of Midyan
was below him in the valley

7:9 And it was on that night.
And YAHWEH said to him,
Get up!
Go down against the encampment!
Indeed, I have given it into your hand!
Judg. 7:10 And if you are afraid
you yourself נא are to go down,
you yourself נא and Purah, your servant,
to the encampment.

Purah means foliage.

Judg. 7:11 And you are to listen attentively
to what they say.
And afterward your hands will be strengthened.
And you will go down against the encampment."

And he went down,
he and his servant Purah,
to the extremity of the soldiers who were in the encampment.

Judg. 7:12 And Midyan, and Amalek, and all the people of the East
were lying in the valley,
like locusts for multitude.
And their camels were as innumerable,
like the sand upon the seashore for abundance.

Judg. 7:13 And Gid'on came.
And behold!
A man was relating a dream to his companion.

And he said, "Behold!
I dreamed a dream.
And behold!
A cake of barley bread tumbled into the encampment of Midyan.
And it came as far as the tent.
And it struck it.
And it fell.
And it was turned upside down.
And the tent collapsed."
Judg. 7:14 And his companion responded.
And he said,
"This is nothing else than the sword of Gid'on,
son of Yo'ash, a man of Yisra'el.
The Elohim has given into his hand Midyan itself נא
and all the encampment itself נא."

Judg. 7:15 And it was as Gid'on listened attentively to the accounting itself נא of the dream
and its interpretation itself נא.
And he bowed himself.
And he returned to the encampment of Yisra'el.
And he said,
"Get up!
Indeed, YAHWEH has given into your hands
the encampment of Midyan itself נא!"

Judg. 7:16 And he split
the three hundred men themselves נא
to three leaders.
And he gave a shofar
into the hands of all of them,
and empty jars,
and torches within the jars.
Judg. 7:17 And he said to them,
"Watch me and do likewise.
And behold!
I am going to the edge of the camp.
And it will be according to what I do
you are to do likewise.
Judg. 7:18 And I will blow on the shofar,
I and all who are with me myself נא.
And you are to blow on the shofar also,
you yourselves נא,
all round the entire camp.
And you are to say,
'For YAHWEH and for Gid'on!' "

Judg. 7:19 And Gid'on and the hundred men who were with he himself נא
came to the edge of the encampment
at the beginning of the middle watch.
The new watch itself נא had just stood up.

And they blew on the shofars.
And they broke the jars that were in their hands.
Judg. 7:20 And the three companies
blew on the shofars.
And they broke the jars.
And they held the torches in their left hands
and in their right hands the shofars for blowing.
And they called out,
"For YAHWEH and for Gid'on!"

Judg. 7:21 And each stood in his place
all around the encampment.
And all the encampment ran.
And they cried out.
And they fled.

Judg. 7:22 And the three hundred blew the shofars.
And YAHWEH placed

the sword itself תא of each one against his companion and all the encampment.
And the encampment fled to BayitShitta, toward Tzererat, as far as the border of Abel Meholah, beside Tabbat.

Judg. 7:23 And the men of Yisra'el
were called together from Naphtali,
and from Asher, and from all Menashe.
And they pursued after Midyan.

Judg. 7:24 And Gid'on sent messengers into all the mountains of Ephraim saying,
"Come down to encounter Midyan.
And capture from them the waters themselves תא
as far as Bayit Barah and The Yarden itself תא."
And all the men of Ephraim were called together.
And they captured the waters themselves תא
as far as Bayit Barah and The Yarden itself תא.

Judg. 7:25 And they captured two chiefs of Midyan,
Oreb himself תא and Ze'eb himself תא.
And they killed Oreb himself תא
at the rock of Oreb.
And Ze'eb himself תא they killed
at the winepress of Ze'eb.
And they pursued Midyan.
And the heads of Oreb and Ze'eb
they brought to Gid'on
on the other side of The Yarden.

Chapter 8

Judg. 8:1 And the men of Ephraim said to him,
"What is this you have done to us
by not calling us
when you went to fight against Midyan?"
And they contended
with he himself תא with force.
Judg. 8:2 And he said to them,
"What have I done now like you?
Are the gleanings of Ephraim not better than the grape harvest of Abi'ezer?" Judg. 8:3 The Elohim has given into your hands
the chiefs of Midyan themselves תא,
Oreb himself תא and Ze'eb himself תא.
And what was I able to do like you?"

Then their anger against him subsided
when he had spoken these words.

Judg. 8:4 And Gid'on came to The Yarden, passing over it,
and the three hundred men
who were with he himself תא,
weary and pursuing.

Judg. 8:5 And he said to the men of Sukkot,
"Please give rounds of bread for the people who are on foot because they are weary and I am pursuing
after Zebah and Tzalmunna, kings of Midyan."

Judg. 8:6 But the leaders of Sukkot said,
"Are the hands of Zebah and Tzalmunna
now in your hand
that we should give bread to your assembly?"

Judg. 8:7 And Gid'on said,
"Because of this,
when YAHWEH has given Zebah himself תא
and Tzalmunna himself תא into my hand
then I will tear your flesh itself תא
with the thorns of the wilderness themselves תא
and with briers themselves תא!"

Judg. 8:8 And he went up from there to Penu'el.

And he spoke to them according to this.
And the men of Penu'el responded to he himself תא
according to what the men of Sukkot
had responded to him.
Judg. 8:9 And he spoke also to the men of Penu'el saying,
"When I return with shalom
I will tear down this tower itself תא!"

Judg. 8:10 And Zebah and Tzalmunna were at Karkor, and their encampment with them, about fifteen thousand, all who remained
of all the encampment of the people of the East.
And those who had fallen were one hundred and twenty thousand men drawing the sword.

Judg. 8:11 And Gid'on went up by the way of those dwelling in tents
on the east of Nobah and Yogbehah.
And he struck the encampment itself תא.
And the encampment was secure.

Judg. 8:12 And Zebah and Tzalmunna fled.
And he pursued after them.
And he captured
the two kings of Midyan themselves תא, Zebah himself תא,
and Tzalmunna himself תא.
And all the encampment shuddered with terror.

Judg. 8:13 And Gid'on, son of Yo'ash,
returned from the battle,
from the Ascent of Heres.

Judg. 8:14 And he caught a youth
from the men of Sukkot.
And he inquired of him.
And the youth wrote down for him
the leaders of Sukkot themselves תא
and its elders themselves תא,
even seventy seven men.

Judg. 8:15 And he came to the men of Sukkot.
And he said,
"Behold!
Zebah and Tzalmunna,
about whom you reproached me myself תא saying,
'Are the hands of Zebah and Tzalmunna
now in your hand that we should give bread to your men who are weary?'"

Judg. 8:16 And he took the elders of the city themselves תא,
and thorns of the wilderness themselves תא,
and briars themselves תא.
And with them he taught a lesson to the men of Sukkoth themselves תא.

Judg. 8:17 And the tower of Penu'el itself תא
he tore down.
And he killed the men of the city themselves תא.

Judg. 8:18 And he said to Zebah and Tzalmunna,
"What manner were the men whom you killed at Tabor?"
And they said, "Like you.
Like you each one appeared as the son of the king."

Judg. 8:19 And he said,
"They were my brothers, the sons of my mother.
As YAHWEH lives,
if you had let live they themselves תא
I would not kill you yourselves תא."

Judg. 8:20 And he said to Yether, his firstborn,
"Get up!
Kill they themselves תא!"
But the youth would not draw his sword
because he was afraid.
Indeed, he was still a youth.
Yether means an overhang; superior.

Judg. 8:21 Then Zebah and Tzalmunna said,
"Get up, you yourself תא and encounter us.
Indeed, as a man is so also is his power."

And Gid'on got up.
And he killed Zebah himself תא
and Tzalmunna himself תא.
And he took the crescent ornaments themselves תא
on the necks of their camels.

Judg. 8:22 And the men of Yisra'el said to Gid'on,
"Rule over us, both you, and your son,
and your son's son,
because you have delivered us
from the hand of Midyan."
Judg. 8:23 But Gid'on said to them,
"I will not rule over you,
nor will my son rule over you.
YAHWEH will rule over you!"

Judg. 8:24 And Gid'on said to them,
"I have a request to make of you.
Give to me, each man, the ring from his booty."
Indeed, they had rings of gold
because they were Ishmaelites.

Judg. 8:25 And they said,
"We will certainly give them."
And they spread out the garment itself תא.
And each man threw there
the rings from his booty.

Judg. 8:26 And the weight of the gold rings which he requested was one thousand seven hundred pieces of gold alone,
besides the crescent ornaments,
and the pendants,
and the purple robes
which belonged to the kings of Midyan, and besides the chains
that were on the necks of their camels.

Judg. 8:27 And Gid'on made it itself תא
into a ephod.
And he established it in his city, Ophrah.
And all Yisra'el committed adultery after it there.
And it was a snare for Gid'on
and for his household.

Judg. 8:28 And Midyan was humiliated
before the children of Yisra'el.
And they lifted their heads no more.
And the land was at rest forty years
in the days of Gid'on.

Judg. 8:29 And Yerubba'al, son of Yo'ash, went and dwelt in his own house.

Judg. 8:30 And Gid'on had seventy sons who were his own offspring.
Indeed, he had many wives.

Judg. 8:31 And his concubine who was in Shekem
also bore him a son.
And he gave him the name itself תא Abimelek.
Abimelek means my father is king.

Judg. 8:32 And Gid'on, son of Yo'ash,

died at a good old age.
And he was buried in the tomb
of Yo'ash, his father,
in Ophrah of the Abi'ezerites.

Judg. 8:33 And it was when Gid'on was dead.
And the children of Yisra'el again
were committing adultery after the Ba'als.
And they made Ba'al-Berit their god.

Judg. 8:34 And the children of Yisra'el
did not take note
of YAHWEH Himself נא, their Elohim,
Who had delivered they themselves נא
from the hands of all their adversaries,
from all around.

Judg. 8:35 And they did not show kindness to the house of Yerubba'al, Gid'on, according to all the good
which he had done for Yisra'el.

Chapter 9

Judg. 9:1 And Abimelek, son of Yerubba'al, went to Shekem to his mother's brothers.
And he spoke with them and with all the family of the household of his mother's father saying, Judg. 9:2 "Please speak in the ears
of all the masters of Shekem,
'Which is better for you, that seventy men,
all the sons of Yerubba'al rule over you,
or that one man rule over you?'
And you are to remember that I am your own flesh and bone."

Judg. 9:3 And his mother's brothers spoke all these words themselves נא.
And their heart stretched out to follow Abimelek
because they said, "He is our brother."

Judg. 9:4 And they gave to him seventy pieces of silver
from the house of Ba'al Berit.
And Abimelek hired with them worthless and reckless men.
And they followed him.

Judg. 9:5 And he went to his father's house,
at Ophrah.

And he killed his brothers themselves נא,
the seventy sons of Yerubba'al, on one stone.
But Yotam, the youngest son of Yerubba'al, remained because he hid.

Yotam means YAH is perfect.

Judg. 9:6 And all the masters of Shekem
gathered together,
and all the household of BayitMillo.
And they went and caused Abimelek himself נא to reign as king beside the oak pillar that was in Shekem.

Judg. 9:7 And they told Yotam.
And he went and stood on top of Mount Gerizim.
And he lifted his voice.
And he called out.

And he said to them,
"Listen attentively to me, masters of Shekem!
And may The Elohim listen attentively to you!

Judg. 9:8 The trees went forth to anoint over them a king.
And they said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us!'
9:9 And the olive tree said to them,
'Shall I cease my fatness itself נא with which they honor The Elohim and men
and go to waver above the trees?'

Judg. 9:10 And the trees said to the fig tree,
'You yourself תא come reign over us!'
Judg. 9:11 And the fig tree said to them,
'Shall I cease my sweetness itself תא
and my good produce itself תא
and go to waver above the trees?'
Judg. 9:12 And the trees said to the vine,
'You yourself תא come reign over us!'
Judg. 9:13 And the vine said to them,
'Shall I cease my new wine itself תא which cheers The Elohim and men and go waver above the trees?'
Judg. 9:14 And all the trees said to the bramble,
'You yourself תא come reign over us!'
Judg. 9:15 And the bramble said to the trees,
'If in truth you yourselves תא will anoint me myself תא as king over you come take refuge in my shade.
But if not may fire come from the bramble and consume
the cedars of Lebanon themselves תא!'

Judg. 9:16 And now,
if you have acted in truth and in integrity
you have caused Abimelek himself תא to reign, and if you have done goodness with Yerubba'al and his household and if you have treated him
as his hands did for you, Judg. 9:17 my father who fought for you and risked his life itself תא before you,
and delivered you yourselves תא
from the hand of Midyan...

Judg. 9:18 But you yourselves תא have risen up against my father's household today.
And you have killed
his seventy sons themselves תא on one stone.
And you have caused to reign Abimelek himself תא,
the son of his female servant,
over the masters of Shekem
because he is your brother.
Judg. 9:19 If you have acted in truth and integrity with Yerubba'al
and with his household this day,
then rejoice in Abimelek.
And let him also rejoice with you.
Judg. 9:20 And if not,
may fire come out from Abimelek and consume
the masters of Shekem themselves תא
and the household of BayitMillo itself תא.
And may fire come out from the masters of Shekem
and from the household of BayitMillo and consume Abimelek himself תא!"

Judg. 9:21 And Yotam escaped.
And he fled.
And he went to Be'er.
And he settled there
away from the face of Abimelek, his brother.

Judg. 9:22 And Abimelek
had dominion over Yisra'el three years.
Judg. 9:23 And The Elohim sent a bad nature between Abimelek and the masters of Shekem.
And the masters of Shekem acted treacherously against Abimelek Judg. 9:24 in order that the violence done to the seventy sons of Yerubba'al might come,
and their blood be placed on Abimelek, their brother, who killed they themselves תא

and upon the masters of Shekem who aided he himself תא
for the sake of killing his brothers themselves תא.

Judg. 9:25 And the masters of Shekem placed men in ambush
on the tops of the mountains.
And they robbed everyone himself תא
who passed over by them along that way.
And it was told to Abimelek.

Judg. 9:26 And Ga'al, son of Ebed, came with his brothers.
And he passed over to Shekem.
And the masters of Shekem put their trust in him.
Ga'al means loathing.
Ebed means a servant.

Judg. 9:27 And they went out into the fields.
And they gathered
their vineyards themselves תא.
And they trod them.
And they held a celebration.
And they went into the house of their god.
And they ate and drank.
And they cursed Abimelek himself תא.

Judg. 9:28 And Ga'al, son of Ebed, said,
"Who is Abimelek and who is Shekem
that we should serve him?
Is he not the son of Yerubba'al?
And is not Zebul his officer?
Serve the men of Hamor himself תא,
the father of Shekem!
And why should we serve him?

Zebul means dwelling.
Hamor means a male ass.

Judg. 9:29 And would to god
this people themselves תא were in my hand!
Then I would depose Abimelek himself תא."
And he said to Abimelek,
"Increase your assembly and come out!"

Judg. 9:30 And Zebul, the governor of the city, heard the words themselves תא
of Ga'al, son of Ebed.

And his anger flared.
Judg. 9:31 And he sent messengers to Abimelek
in deceit saying, "Behold!
Ga'al, son of Ebed, and his brothers are coming to Shekem.
And behold!

They are fortifying the city itself תא against you.

Judg. 9:32 And now get up by night,
you yourself תא, and the people
who are with you yourself תא.

And lie in wait in the field.

Judg. 9:33 And it will be as the morning sun appears you are to rise up early and spread out against the city.
And behold!

He and the people who are with he himself תא
will come out toward you.
And you will do to them
as your hand finds to do."

Judg. 9:34 And Abimelek got up by night,
and all the people who were with him.
And they laid in wait against Shekem
in four companies.

Judg. 9:35 And Ga'al, son of Ebed, went out.
And he stood at the entrance to the city gate.
And Abimelek and the people
who were with he himself תא
got up from lying in wait.

Judg. 9:36 And Ga'al saw the people themselves תא.

And he said to Zebul,
"Behold!

People are coming down
from the tops of the mountains!"

But Zebul said to him,

"The shadows of the mountains themselves תא
you yourself תא are seeing as men."

Judg. 9:37 And again Ga'al spoke once more.

And he said, "Behold!

People are coming down,
people from the middle of the land.
And another company is coming from the road to the Oak of Witchcraft."

Judg. 9:38 And Zebul said to him,

"Now where is your mouth with which you said,
'Who is Abimelek that we should serve him?'
Are these not the people whom you despised?
Please, go out and do battle with them."

Judg. 9:39 And Ga'al went out before the masters of Shekem.

And he fought Abimelek.

Judg. 9:40 And Abimelek chased him.

And he fled before his face.

And many fell as far as the entrance of the gate.

Judg. 9:41 And Abimelek settled at Arumah.

And Zebul drove out Ga'al himself תא

and his kindred themselves תא
from dwelling at Shekem.

Judg. 9:42 And it was the next day.

And the people went out into the field.

And they told Abimelek.

Judg. 9:43 And he took the people themselves תא

and he divided them into three companies.

And he laid in wait in the field.

And he looked.

And behold!

The people were coming out from the city.

And he rose up against them.

And he struck them.

Judg. 9:44 And Abimelek

and the company that was with him spread out.

And they stood at the entrance
of the gate of the city.

And the other two companies spread out over all who were in the fields.

And they struck them.

Judg. 9:45 And Abimelek fought against the city
all that day.

And he captured the city itself תא.

And the people themselves תא

who were in it he killed.

And he tore down the city itself תא.

And he sowed it with salt.

Judg. 9:46 And all the masters of the tower of Shekem heard.

And they entered the high place of the house of Ba'al Berit.

Judg. 9:47 And Abimelek was told that all the masters of the tower of Shekem were gathered together.

Judg. 9:48 And Abimelek went up to Mount Tzalmon,

he and all the people

who were with he himself תא.

And Abimelek took the axe itself תא in his hand.

And he cut off a branch of the trees.

And he took it and placed it on his shoulder.

And he said to the people who were his,

"What you have seen me do,

hurry to do as I have done.”

Tzalmon means shady.

Judg. 9:49 And all the people also cut off
each one his own branch.
And they followed Abimelek.
And they placed them against the high place.
And they set them on fire
against the high place itself אָא.
And all the men of the tower of Shekem died,
about a thousand men and women.

Judg. 9:50 Abimelek then went to Tebets.
And he encamped against Tebets.
And he captured it.

Tebets means whiteness.

Judg. 9:51 And there was a strong tower in the city.
And all the men and women
and all the masters of the city fled there.
And they shut themselves in.
And they went up to the top of the tower.
Judg. 9:52 And Abimelek came to the tower.
And he fought against it.
And he approached the door of the tower
for the sake of burning it with fire.
Judg. 9:53 And a certain woman dropped an upper millstone
on the head of Abimelek.
And it broke in pieces his skull itself אָא.

Judg. 9:54 And he hurriedly called the young man,
his armor bearer.
And he said to him,
“Draw your sword and kill me
lest men say of me, ‘A woman killed him.’”
And his young man thrust him through.
And he died.

9:55 And the men of Yisra'el saw that Abimelek was dead.
And each one went to his own place.

Judg. 9:56 And The Elohim returned the evil itself אָא of Abimelek which he had done to his father
by slaying his seventy brothers themselves אָא.

Judg. 9:57 And all the evil itself אָא
of the men of Shekem
The Elohim returned upon their own heads.
And the curse of Yotam, son of Yerubba'al, came upon them.

Chapter 10

Judg. 10:1 And after Abimelek
there arose to deliver Yisra'el itself אָא Tola, son of Pu'ah, son of Dodo,
a man of Yissaskar.
And he dwelt in Shamir
in the mountains of Ephraim.

Tola means worm.

Pu'ah means a blast.

Dodo means loving.

Shamir means a thorn, prickly.

Judg. 10:2 And he judged Yisra'el itself אָא
twenty three years.
And he died.
And he was buried in Shamir.

Judg. 10:3 And after him arose Ya'ir, a Gila'dite.
And he judged Yisra'el itself אָא
twenty two years.

Ya'ir means enlightener.

Judg. 10:4 And he had thirty sons riding on thirty young male asses.
And they had thirty towns for themselves.

To them it was called Havvot Ya'ir until this day,
which is in the land of Gil'ad.

10:5 And Ya'ir died.

And he was buried in Kamon.

Kamon means an elevation.

Judg. 10:6 And again the children of Yisra'el
did bad in the eyes of YAHWEH.

And they served the Ba'als themselves תא
and the Ashtorim themselves תא,
and the gods of Aram themselves תא,
and the gods of Tzidon themselves תא,
and the gods of Mo'ab themselves תא,
and the gods of
the children of Ammon themselves תא,
and the gods of the Philistines themselves תא.

And they abandoned YAHWEH.

And they did not serve Him.

The list of "elohim" (false gods)

given here is extensive.

*The actions of Yisra'el are in direct opposition to YAHWEH
and to His instructions to them.*

*It's vital to observe the consequences of such actions.
They get what they "deserve"
for such flagrant violation of the specific instructions of YAHWEH.
All who follow this course of action should expect the same response from YAHWEH.*

Note the emphatic use of תא in the text.

Judg. 10:7 And the anger of YAHWEH
flared up against Yisra'el.

And He sold them

into the hands of the Philistines
and into the hands of the children of Ammon.

Judg. 10:8 And they crushed and oppressed

the children of Yisra'el themselves תא
in that year, for eighteen years,
all the children of Yisra'el themselves תא
who were on the other side of The Yarden
in the land of the Amorites, in Gil'ad.

Judg. 10:9 And the children of Ammon

passed over The Yarden itself תא
for the sake of fighting against Yahudah,
and against Binyamin,
and against the house of Ephraim.
And Yisra'el had great distress.

Judg. 10:10 And the children of Yisra'el
cried out to YAHWEH saying,

"We have offended against You!

And indeed, we have both abandoned our Elohim Himself תא

and we have served the Ba'als themselves תא!

NOTE: It's crucial to pay very careful attention to what's identified in this verse (and many others just like it in Scripture).

*The children of Yisra'el
acknowledge here a teaching of Scripture that is often badly distorted.
It's the concept of "eternal salvation",
that you "cannot lose your salvation".
This verse reveals just how FALSE
that teaching truly is.*

*The children of Yisra'el KNEW YAHWEH!
They had "BELIEVED IN YAHWEH!
However, they ABANDONED YAHWEH
- even AFTER they had believed in Him
and trusted in Him for their "salvation".*

As a result of their forsaking Him
HE ABANDONED THEM!

The point is this:
YOU have the choice, always,
to decide if you will follow YAHWEH's instruction or if you will NOT follow it
- if you will ABANDON HIM!
That option is NEVER taken away from you!
You can ALWAYS CHOOSE to turn away from YAHWEH.
However, doing so can cause you to "lose your protection/deliverance/salvation!"

Eternal security, in the sense of "once saved, always saved",
is a FALSE TEACHING!

Judg. 10:11 And YAHWEH said
to the children of Yisra'el,
"Was it not from the Mitsraitites,
and from the Amorites,
and from the children of Ammon,
and from the Philistines,
that I delivered you?

Judg. 10:12 And the Tzidonians, and Amalek, and Ma'on
oppressed you yourselves nx.
And you cried out to Me.
And I delivered you yourselves nx
from their hand.

Judg. 10:13 But you yourselves nx
have abandoned Me Myself nx!
And you have served other gods!
For this reason I will not again deliver you yourselves nx!

Judg. 10:14 Go and cry out to the gods
which you have chosen!
Let them deliver you in your time of distress!"

Judg. 10:15 And the children of Yisra'el
said to YAHWEH,
"We have offended!
Do to us, You Yourself nx,
according to all that is good in Your eyes!
However, deliver us today please!"

chata - to miss the mark;
generally to sin (offend).
To miss the mark with YAHWEH
is to wander off the pathway of His instruction.
To do so is to refuse to listen to His instruction
and follow it carefully.
This creates an offense against YAHWEH
- for which the penalty is DEATH!

This is all detailed in the Garden of Eden.
Everything we call "sin"
is an offense against YAHWEH!

Judg. 10:16 And they put away
the foreign gods themselves nx from their midst.
And they served YAHWEH Himself nx.

And His inner being was grieved
by the suffering of Yisra'el.
nefesh - a breathing creature.
This term is incorrectly
often "translated" as 'soul'.
It's a reference to the inner being,
the essential nature of a person.
The breath flowed from deep within,
therefore representing what was the "central nature" of that creature.

In this instance

we could more properly identify this
as The Divine Nature itself.
It is in the "center of His being"
that YAHWEH was grieved (the term literally means to be curtailed, docked off).

Judg. 10:17 And the children of Ammon
were called together.
And they encamped in Gil'ad.
And the children of Yisra'el assembled.
And they encamped in Mitzpah.

Judg. 10:18 And the people of Gil'ad said to one another,
"Who is the man who is the first to fight
against the children of Ammon?
He is to be head for all the inhabitants of Gil'ad."

Chapter 11

Judg. 11:1 And Yiphtah, the Gil'adite, was a mighty man of strength.
But he was the son of an adulteress woman.
And Gil'ad gave birth to Yiphtah himself אך.
Judg. 11:2 And the wife of Gil'ad bore sons to him.
And his wife's sons grew up.
And they drove out Yiphtah himself אך.
And they said to him,
"You will not have an inheritance
in the household of our father because you yourself אך
are the son of another woman."

Judg. 11:3 And Yiphtah fled from his brothers.
And he settled in the land of Tob.
And worthless men banded together with Yiphtah.
And they went out with him.
Tob means good, valuable, useful.

Judg. 11:4 And it was after certain days.
And the children of Ammon
fought against Yisra'el.
Judg. 11:5 And it was as the children of Ammon
fought against Yisra'el.
And the elders of Gil'ad went for the sake of bringing Yiphtah himself אך
from the land of Tob.

Judg. 11:6 And they said to Yiphtah,
"Come and be for us a leader.
And we will fight against the children of Ammon."
Judg. 11:7 But Yiphtah said to the elders of Gil'ad,
"Did not you yourselves אך hate me myself אך
and drive me out from my father's house?
And why have you come to me now
when you are in distress?"

Judg. 11:8 And the elders of Gil'ad said to Yiphtah,
"For this reason now we have turned to you.
And you are to go with us.
And you are to fight against the children of Ammon.
And you will be the head
over all those dwelling in Gil'ad."
Judg. 11:9 And Yiphtah said to the elders of Gil'ad,
"If you yourselves אך are returning me myself אך
for the sake of fighting
against the children of Ammon
and YAHWEH gives they themselves אך
into my presence
I will be for you as a leader!"
Judg. 11:10 And the elders of Gil'ad
said to Yiphtah,
"YAHWEH is witness between us
if we do not do according to your words."

Judg. 11:11 And Yiphtah went with the elders of Gil'ad. And the people established he himself תא over them as head and as ruler.

And Yiphtah spoke all his words themselves תא before the face of YAHWEH at Mitzpah.

Judg. 11:12 And Yiphtah sent messengers to the king of the children of Ammon saying, "What is it for you and for me that you have come to fight against my land?"
Judg. 11:13 And the king of the children of Ammon said to the messengers of Yiphtah, "Because Yisra'el took my land itself תא as they came up from Mitsraim, from The Arnon and as far as the Yabbok, and as far as The Yarden. And now return it itself תא in peace."

Judg. 11:14 And Yiphtah again sent messengers to the king of the children of Ammon.
Judg. 11:15 And he said to him, "Thus said Yiphtah, 'Yisra'el did not take the land of Mo'ab itself תא, nor the land itself תא of the children of Ammon.

Judg. 11:16 Indeed, as they came up from Mitsraim then Yisra'el walked through the wilderness as far as The Sea of Reeds. And they came to Kadesh.
Judg. 11:17 And Yisra'el sent messengers to the king of Edom saying, "Please let me pass over on your land." But the king of Edom did not listen.

And they also sent to the king of Mo'ab. And he was not willing. And Yisra'el stayed at Kadesh.
Judg. 11:18 And they went through the wilderness. And they went around the land of Edom itself תא and the land of Mo'ab itself תא. And they came to the east side of the land of Mo'ab. And they encamped on the other side of Arnon. And they did not enter the border of Mo'ab. Indeed, Arnon was the border of Mo'ab.

Judg. 11:19 And Yisra'el sent messengers to Sihon, king of the Amorites, king of Heshbon. And Yisra'el said to him, "Please let us pass over on your land into our place."
Judg. 11:20 But Sihon did not trust Yisra'el itself תא to pass over into his border. And Sihon gathered together all his people themselves תא. And they encamped in Yahatz. And they fought with Yisra'el.

Judg. 11:21 And YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el, gave Sihon himself תא and all his people themselves תא into the hand of Yisra'el. And they struck them. And Yisra'el occupied all the land of the Amorites themselves תא, the inhabitants of that land.

Judg. 11:22 And they took possession of all the border of the Amorites themselves תא, from Arnon to The Yabbok, and from the wilderness to The Yarden.

Judg. 11:23 And now, YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el,
has driven out the Amorites themselves תא
from before the face of His people, Yisra'el.
And would you yourself תא occupy it?

Judg. 11:24 Is it not whatever itself תא
Kemosh, your god gives you, it itself תא,
that you occupy?

Even everything itself תא
which YAHWEH, our Elohim,
drives out before us,
it itself תא we will occupy.

Judg. 11:25 And now are you yourself תא
any better than Balak,
son of Tzippor, king of Mo'ab?
Did he ever contend, contend with Yisra'el?
Did he ever fight with us?

Judg. 11:26 As Yisra'el dwelt
in Heshbon and its villages,
and in Aro'er and its villages,
and in all the cities along the banks of Arnon
for three hundred years
why did you not recover them within that time?

Judg. 11:27 And I have not offended against you.
But you yourself תא are doing badly
to me myself תא by fighting against me.

May YAHWEH, The Judge, judge today between the children of Yisra'el
and the children of Ammon. ' ”

Judg. 11:28 But the king of the children of Ammon did not listen attentively to the words which Yiphtah sent him.

Judg. 11:29 And The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
existed upon Yiphtah.
And he passed over to Gil'ad itself תא
and to Menashe itself תא.
And he passed over to Mitzpeh of Gil'ad itself תא.
And from Mitzpeh of Gil'ad
he passed over
to the children of Ammon.

Judg. 11:30 And Yiphtah
vowed a vow to YAHWEH.
And he said,
“If You will give,
give the children of Ammon themselves תא
into my hands,

Judg. 11:31 then it will be that whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me
as I return in peace from the children of Ammon, even it will be for YAHWEH.
And I will offer it up as an olah.”

olah - a step up, or, usually,
a holocaust (as going up in smoke).
The olah is typically translated as "burnt offering".
The concept is that
of being completely consumed in fire
as an offering
of total dedication to YAHWEH.

Judg. 11:32 And Yiphtah passed over toward the children of Ammon
for the sake of fighting against them.
And YAHWEH gave them into his hands.
Judg. 11:33 And he struck them from Aro'er

even until you come to Minnith, twenty cities,
and as far as Abel Keramim,
with a very great blow.
And the children of Ammon were humiliated
before the face of the children of Yisra'el.

Judg. 11:34 And Yiphtah went to Mitzpah,
to his house.
And behold!
His daughter was coming out to meet him
with timbrels and dancing.
And except for her there was for him
neither son nor daughter.

Judg. 11:35 And it was as he saw her herself תא.
And he tore his garments themselves תא.
And he said,
"Alas, my daughter!
You have caused me to sink,
to sink very low.
Even you yourself תא
are among those afflicting me.

And I, I have opened my mouth to YAHWEH.
And I am not able to turn back."

Judg. 11:36 And she said to him,
"My father, if you have opened your mouth itself תא to YAHWEH
do to me according to what has gone out of your mouth
after how YAHWEH has done vengeance for you upon your adversaries, the children of Ammon..."

Judg. 11:37 And she said to her father,
"Let this word be done for me.
Release me for two months.
And I will go.
And I will go down upon the mountains.
And I will weep over my virginity,
I and my companions."

Judg. 11:38 And he said, "Go!"
And he sent away her herself תא for two months.
And she went, she and her companions.
And she wept over her virginity on the mountains.

Judg. 11:39 And it was at the end of two months.
And she returned to her father.
And he did to her
the vow itself תא which he had vowed.
And she knew no man.

And it became a rule in Yisra'el.
Judg. 11:40 Yearly, yearly the daughters of Yisra'el went to lament the daughter of Yiphtah, the Gil'adite, four days of the year.

Chapter 12

Judg. 12:1 And the men of Ephraim
gathered together.
And they passed over to Tzaphon.
And they said to Yiphtah,
"Why did you pass over for the sake of fighting with the children of Ammon
but did not call for us to go with you?
Your house we will burn over you with fire!"
Judg. 12:2 And Yiphtah said to them,
"Men of contention have my people and I been.
And the children of Ammon were vehement.
And we called to you yourselves תא.
But you did not deliver me myself תא
from their hands.
Judg. 12:3 And I saw that you were not a deliverer.
And I placed my life in my hands.

And I passed over
against the children of Ammon.
And YAHWEH gave them into my hand.
And why have you come against me this day
for the sake of fighting with me?"

Judg. 12:4 And Yiphtah gathered together
all the men of Gil'ad themselves תא.
And he fought Ephraim itself תא.
And the men of Gil'ad struck Ephraim itself תא
because they had said,
"You yourselves תא, Gil'adites,
are refugees of Ephraim in the midst of Ephraim,
in the midst of Menashe."

Judg. 12:5 And Gil'ad captured the crossing places themselves תא of The Yarden
for Ephraim.
And it was as the fugitives of Ephraim said,
"Let me pass over."
And the men of Gil'ad said to him,
"You yourself תא are an Ephraimite!"
And he said, "No."
Judg. 12:6 And they said to him,
'Now say, Shibboleth!'"
And he would say, "Sibbolet,"
And he was not prepared to pronounce correctly it itself תא.
And they seized him.
And they killed him
at the crossing places of the Yarden.
And at that time there fell from Ephraim forty two thousand.

Judg. 12:7 And Yiphtah judged Yisra'el itself תא
six years.
And Yiphtah, the Gil'adite, died.
And he was buried in one of the cities of Gil'ad.

Judg. 12:8 And Ibtsan of Bayit Lechem judged Yisra'el itself תא after him.
Ibtsan means splendid.
Judg. 12:9 And there were for him thirty sons
and thirty daughters.
He sent outside.
And he brought in thirty daughters
for his sons from outside.
And he judged Yisra'el itself תא seven years.
Judg. 12:10 And Ibtsan died.
And he was buried at Bayit Lechem.

Judg. 12:11 And after him Eylon, the Zebulunite,
judged Yisra'el itself תא.
And he judged Yisra'el itself תא ten years.
Eylon means strength.
Judg. 12:12 And Eylon, the Zebulunite, died.
And he was buried at Ayalon
in the land of Zebulun.

Judg. 12:13 And after him, Abdon, son of Hillel, the Pirathonite,
judged Yisra'el itself תא.
Abdon means servitude.
Hillel means praising El.

Judg. 12:14 And he had forty sons and thirty grandsons
riding on seventy young male asses.
And he judged Yisra'el itself תא eight years.
Judg. 12:15 And Abdon, son of Hillel,
the Pirathonite, died.
And he was buried in Pirathon
in the land of Ephraim in the mountains of the Amalekites.

Chapter 13

Judg. 13:1 And again the children of Yisra'el did evil in the eyes of YAHWEH.
And YAHWEH gave them into the hand of the Philistines forty years.

Judg. 13:2 And there was a certain man from Tzor'ah, from the family of the Danites whose name was Manoah.
And his wife was barren and had not given birth.

*Tzor'ah means wasp.
Manoah means rest, quiet.*

Judg. 13:3 And a messenger of YAHWEH was seen by the woman.
And he said to her,
"Behold now!

You yourself נָא are barren and have not given birth.
But you will conceive.
And you will bear a son.

Judg. 13:4 And now please be careful.
And you are not to drink wine or strong drink.
And you are not to eat any defiled food.

Judg. 13:5 Indeed, behold!
You will conceive.

And you will bear a son.
And a razor is not to come upon his head because the youth will be a Nazirite to The Elohim from the womb.
And he will begin to deliver Yisra'el itself נָא from the hand of the Philistines."

Judg. 13:6 And the woman went.
And she told it to her husband saying,
"A man of The Elohim came to me.
And his appearance was like the appearance of a messenger of The Elohim, very awesome.
And I did not ask him where he was from.
And his name itself נָא he did not tell to me.

Judg. 13:7 And he said to me,
'Behold!
You will conceive.
And you will bear a son.
And now, drink no wine or strong drink nor eat any defiled food.
Indeed, the youth will be a Nazirite to The Elohim from the womb until the day of his death.'

Judg. 13:8 And Manoah prayed to YAHWEH.
And he said,
"YAHWEH, to me My Sovereign, please let the man of The Elohim whom You sent come to us again and teach us what to do for the young lad that is to be born."

Judg. 13:9 And The Elohim listened attentively to the voice of Manoah.

And the messenger of The Elohim came again to the woman.
And she was sitting in the field.
But Manoah, her husband, was not with her.

Judg. 13:10 And the woman hurried.
And she ran.

And she told her husband.
And she said to him, "Behold!
He has been seen by me,
the man who came to me the other day!"

Judg. 13:11 And he got up.
And Manoah went after his wife.
And he came to the man.
And he said to Him,
"Are you yourself נָא the man who spoke to this woman?”

And He said, “I myself am he.”
Judg. 13:12 And Manoah said,
“Now may your words come about!
What is to be the young lad’s regulation and his actions?”

Judg. 13:13 And the messenger of YAHWEH
said to Manoah,
“All that I said to the woman she is to protect.

Note the shift here
from The messenger of The Elohim
in verse 9 to the messenger of YAHWEH here.
This indicates an editorial change in the text.
The scribes were known to replace YAHWEH
with "The Elohim" because of tradition and not because the text contained "ha elohim".

Judg. 13:14 From everything that comes from the vine she is not to eat.
And wine and strong drink she is not to drink.
And anything that is defiled she is not to eat.
Everything which I have directed her she is to protect.”

Judg. 13:15 And Manoah said
to the messenger of YAHWEH, “Please let us detain you yourself תָּא
and prepare for you a young goat.”

Judg. 13:16 And the messenger of YAHWEH
said to Manoah,
“If you detain Me I will not eat of your food.
But if you prepare an olah,
offer it up to YAHWEH.”

Indeed, Manoah did not know he was a messenger of YAHWEH.

Judg. 13:17 And Manoah said
to the messenger of YAHWEH,
“What is Your name?
When Your words come about
then we will honor you.”

Judg. 13:18 And the messenger of YAHWEH
said to him,
“Why is this that you ask My name?
It is even extraordinary.”

Judg. 13:19 And Manoah took the young goat itself תָּא
and the gift offering itself תָּא
and he offered it up on the rock to YAHWEH.

And He did an extraordinary act.
And Manoah and his wife saw it.
Judg. 13:20 And it was at the going up of the flame
from upon the slaughter site to the skies.
And the messenger of YAHWEH
ascended in the flame of the slaughter site.

And Manoah and his wife were watching.
And they fell on their faces to the ground.

Judg. 13:21 And the messenger of YAHWEH
was no longer seen by Manoah and his wife.
And Manoah knew that he was a messenger of YAHWEH.

Judg. 13:22 And Manoah said to his wife, “Be put to death, we are going to be put to death
because we have seen The Elohim!”

Judg. 13:23 But his wife said to him,
“If it pleased YAHWEH to put us to death

He would not have accepted from our hands
an olah and a gift offering.
And He would not have let us see all these things themselves תָּא.
And at this time He would not have let us hear such as this!”

Judg. 13:24 And the woman bore a son.
And she called his name itself תָּא Shimshon.
And the child grew.
And YAHWEH blessed him.
Shimshon means sunlight.
(Traditionally, Samson.)

Judg. 13:25 And The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
began to agitate him at Mahaneh Dan,
between Tzor'ah and Eshta'ol.

Chapter 14

Judg. 14:1 And Shimshon went down to Timnah.
And he saw a woman in Timnah
of the daughters of the Philistines.
Timnah means a portion assigned.

Judg. 14:2 And he went up and told his father and mother saying, “I have seen a woman in Timnah
from the daughters of the Philistines.
And now take her for me myself תָּא for a wife.”

Judg. 14:3 And his father and mother said to him, “Is there not among the daughters of your kindred and among all my people a woman that you yourself תָּא are going to take a wife
from the uncircumcised Philistines?”
And Shimshon said to his father,
“She herself תָּא you are to take for me because she is pleasant in my eyes.”

Judg. 14:4 And his father and mother
did not know that it was from YAHWEH.
Indeed, He was seeking an occasion to move against the Philistines.
And at that time the Philistines were ruling in Yisra'el.

Judg. 14:5 Then Shimshon
and his father and mother went down to Timnah.
And they came to the vineyards of Timnah.
And behold!
A young lion was roaring at him.

Judg. 14:6 And Yhe Divine Nature of YAHWEH
existed mightily upon him.
And he split it like tearing a young goat.
And nothing was in his hand.
But he did not tell to his father or his mother
what itself תָּא he had done.

Judg. 14:7 And he went down.
And he spoke to the woman.
And she was pleasing in the eyes of Shimshon.

Judg. 14:8 And he returned after a time for the sake of taking her.
And he turned aside for the sake of seeing the carcass itself תָּא of the lion.

And behold!
A swarm of bees was in the carcass of the lion and honey.
Judg. 14:9 And he took it into his palms.
And he walked on the road.
And he was eating it.

And he went to his father and to his mother.
And he gave to them.
And they ate.
But he did not tell them
that he had taken the honey from of the carcass of the lion.

A dead carcass is a defiled thing.
To eat from it was to violate the instructions given by the messenger of YAHWEH, both for Shimshon and for his mother.

Judg. 14:10 And his father went down to the woman.
And Shimshon made there a banquet
because thus did young men.
Judg. 14:11 And it was as they saw he himself תא.
And they brought thirty companions.
And they were with he himself תא.
Judg. 14:12 And Shimshon said to them,
"I will put forth now a riddle to you.
If you declare it, declare it itself תא to me
within the seven days of the banquet
and you can find it out,
then I will give to you thirty linen sheets
and thirty changes of garments.
Judg. 14:13 And if you are not able to declare it to me
then you yourselves תא will give to me
thirty linen sheets
and thirty changes of garments."
And they said to him,
"Propound your riddle.
And we will listen attentively to it."

Judg. 14:14 And he said to them,
"From the eater came forth meat and from the mighty came forth sweet."
And they were not able to declare the riddle
for three days.

Judg. 14:15 And it was on the seventh day.
And they said to Shimshon's wife,
"Entice your husband himself תא
and declare to us the riddle itself תא
lest we set on fire you yourself תא
and your father's household itself תא with fire.
Have you called us in order to destroy us?
Is it not so for us?"

Judg. 14:16 And Shimshon's wife wept upon him.
And she said, "You only hate me
and you do not love me!
A riddle you have propounded
to the sons of my people.
But you have not declared it to me."
And he said to her, "Behold!
To my father and my mother
I have not declared it.
And should I declare it to you?"

Judg. 14:17 And she wept upon him the seven days which was the length of their banquet.
And it was on the seventh day.
And he told her because she oppressed him.
And she declared the riddle
to the sons of her people.

Judg. 14:18 And the men of the city
said to him on the seventh day,
just before the sun came in,
"What is sweeter than honey?
And what is mightier than a lion?"
And he said to them,
"If you had not plowed on my heifer

you would not have solved my riddle!”

Judg. 14:19 And The Divine Nature of YAHWEH existed upon him mightily.
And he went down to Ashkelon.
And he struck from them thirty men.
And he took their spoils themselves אָ.
And he gave the changes of garments to those expounding the riddle.

And his anger flared up.
And he went up to his father’s house.

Judg. 14:20 And Shimshon’s wife became wife to his companion, to his friend.

Chapter 15

Judg. 15:1 And it was after some time, in the days of wheat harvest.
And Shimshon visited his wife herself אָ with a young goat.
And he said, “I will go in to my wife, into her bedroom.”
But her father would not permit him to go in.
Judg. 15:2 And her father spoke saying, “I said that you hated, you hated her. And I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister more pleasing than her? Now please let her be yours instead.”

Judg. 15:3 And Shimshon said to them, “This time I am innocent against the Philistines when I am doing harm against them!”

Judg. 15:4 And Shimshon went. And he captured three hundred foxes. And he took torches. And he turned them tail to tail. And he put torches tail between tail in their midst.
Judg. 15:5 And he set the torches on fire. And he kindled fire on the torches. And he sent them into the grain of the Philistines. And he set fire to the stacks and to the standing grain, and the gardens of olive trees.

Judg. 15:6 And the Philistines said, “Who has done this?”
And they responded, “Shimshon, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took away his wife herself אָ and gave her to his companion.”
Then the Philistines went up. And they set on fire her herself אָ and her father himself אָ with fire.

Judg. 15:7 And Shimshon said to them, “Since you have done such as this, indeed, I will take revenge on you! And afterward I will cease.”
Judg. 15:8 And he struck they themselves אָ hip and thigh, a great slaughter.

And he went down and dwelt at the cleft of the Rock of Etam.
Etam means hawk ground.

Judg. 15:9 And the Philistines then went up. And they encamped in Yahudah. And they pounded against Lehi.
Judg. 15:10 And the men of Yahudah said, “For what reason have you come up against us?”
And they said, “To bind Shimshon himself אָ.”

We have come up to do to him
according to what he has done to us.”

Judg. 15:11 And three thousand men of Yahudah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam.
And they said to Shimshon, “Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us?
And what is this you have done to us?”
And he said to them,
“According to what they did to me,
likewise I did to them.”

Judg. 15:12 And they said to him,
“We have come down to bind you to give you into the hand of the Philistines.”
And Shimshon said to them, “Swear to me lest you reach out against me,
you yourselves נא.

Judg. 15:13 And they spoke to him saying,
“No, we will bind you tightly.
And we will give you into their hand.
But put you to death,
we will not put you to death.”
And they bound him with two new ropes.
And they went up from the rock.

Judg. 15:14 He was coming to Lehi.
And the Philistines shouted at meeting him.
And The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
existed mightily upon him.
And the ropes that were on his arms
were like flax that is burned with fire.
And his bonds broke loose from upon his hands.

Judg. 15:15 And he found a fresh jawbone of a male ass.
And he put out his hand.
And he took it.
And he struck a thousand men with it.

Judg. 15:16 And Shimshon said,
“With the jawbone of a male ass,
a male ass, a male ass,
with the jawbone of a male ass
I have struck a thousand men!”

Judg. 15:17 And it was as he finished speaking.
And he threw the jawbone from his hand.
And he called that place Ramat Lehi.
Ramat Lehi means height of the jawbone.

Judg. 15:18 And he was very thirsty.
And he called out to YAHWEH.
And he said, “You Yourself נא have given by the hand of Your servant
this great deliverance itself נא.
But now I am dying of thirst.
And I will fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?”

Judg. 15:19 And The Elohim split
the hollow place itself נא that is at Lehi.
And water came out from there.
And he drank.
And his breath returned.
And he revived.
Because of this he called its name En Hakkore
which is in Lehi to this day.
En Hakkore means spring of one calling.

Judg. 15:20 And he judged Yisra'el itself נא
in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

Chapter 16

Judg. 16:1 And Shimshon went to Azzah.
And he saw a woman there, a prostitute.
And he went in to her.

Judg. 16:2 The Azzathites were saying,
"Shimshon has come here!"
And they surrounded him.
And they laid in wait for him all night
at the gate of the city.
And they kept silent all night saying until daylight of the morning,
then we will kill him.

Judg. 16:3 And Shimshon laid until midnight.
And he got up at midnight.
And he seized the doors of the gate of the city and the two gateposts.
And he pulled them up with the bar.
And he placed them on his shoulders.
And he took them to the top of the hill
that faces Hebron.

Judg. 16:4 And it was after this.
And he loved a woman in the wadi Sorek.
And her name was Delilah.

Sorek means choice vine.
Delilah means languishing.

Judg. 16:5 And the leaders of the Philistines
went up up to her.
And they said to her, "Entice he himself nx
and see in what is his great strength.
And see how we are able to overpower him.
And we will bind him
for the sake of humiliating him.
And we will give to you, each man,
eleven hundred pieces of silver."

Judg. 16:6 And Delilah said to Shimshon,
"Please tell me in what is your great strength.
And with what can you be bound for the sake of humiliating you."

Judg. 16:7 And Shimshon said to her,
"If they bind me with seven fresh cords
not yet dried then I will be weak.
And I will be like any other man."

Judg. 16:8 And the leaders of the Philistines
went up to her with seven fresh cords not yet dried.
And she bound him with them.

Judg. 16:9 And the ones lying in wait
sat with her in the bedroom.
And she said to him,
"The Philistines are upon you, Shimshon!"
And he tore off the cords themselves nx
like fire breaks flax twine as it touches fire.
And they did not know of his strength.

Judg. 16:10 And Delilah said to Shimshon,
"Behold!
You have mocked me.
And you have spoken lies to me.
Now please tell me by what you can be bound."

Judg. 16:11 And he said to her,
"If they bind me tightly with new ropes that have never been used by them
then I will be weak.
And I will be like any other man."

Judg. 16:12 And Delilah took new ropes.
And she bound him with them.
And she said to him,
"The Philistines are upon you, Shimshon!"

And those lying in wait
were sitting in the bedroom.
But he tore them off his arms like a thread.

Judg. 16:13 And Delilah said to Shimshon, “Until now you have mocked me
and spoken lies to me.
Tell me how you might be bound.”
And he said to her,
“If you weave the seven locks themselves תא
of my head with the loom.”

Judg. 16:14 And she fastened it with a pin.
And she said to him,
“The Philistines are upon you, Shimshon!”
And he awakened from his sleep.
And he pulled out the pin of the loom itself תא
and the web itself תא.

Judg. 16:15 And she said to him,
“How do you say, ‘I love you,’
but your heart is not with me myself תא?
You have mocked me these three times.
And you have not made known to me
where your great strength is.”

Judg. 16:16 And it was because she pressed him with her words every day.
And she urged him.
And his inner being was vexed to death.
Judg. 16:17 And he made known to her
all his heart itself תא.
And he said to her,
“No razor has ever come upon my head
because I have been a Nazirite to The Elohim from my mother’s womb.
If I am shaven then my strength will leave me.
And I will become as weak as any man.”

Judg. 16:18 And Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart itself תא.
And she sent.
And she called
for the leaders of the Philistines saying, “Come up once more.
Indeed, he has told me all his heart itself תא.
And the leaders of the Philistines came up to her.
And they brought the silver in their hands.

Judg. 16:19 And she caused him
to sleep on her knees.
And she called for a man.
And he shaved off
the seven locks themselves תא of his head.

And she began to humiliate him.
And his strength went from upon him.
Judg. 16:20 And she said,
“The Philistines are upon you, Shimshon!”
And he awakened from his sleep.
And he said,
“I will go out as before at other times
and shake loose!”
But he did not know that YAHWEH
had turned aside from upon him.

Judg. 16:21 And the Philistines seized him.
And they bore out his eyes themselves תא.
And they brought he himself תא down to Azzah.
And they bound him with copper.
And he was a grinder
in the house of the bound ones.
Judg. 16:22 And the hair of his head grew again
after it had been shaved.

Judg. 16:23 And the leaders of the Philistines gathered for the sake of offering a great sacrifice to Dagon, their god, and to rejoice.
And they said,
“Our god has given Shimshon himself תא,
our adversary, into our hands!”
Dagon is the fish god.

Judg. 16:24 And the people saw he himself תא.
And they boasted of their god.
Indeed they said,
“Our god has given into our hands
our adversary himself תא,
even the destroyer of our land itself תא
who killed many of us ourselves תא.”

Judg. 16:25 And it was as their hearts were glad.
And they said, “Call for Shimshon and let him make sport for us.”
And they called for Shimshon
from the house of the prisoners.
And he made sport for them.

And they caused he himself תא
to stand between the columns.
Judg. 16:26 And Shimshon said
to the young man who held him by the hand, “Let me rest, me myself תא.
And let me feel the columns themselves תא
on which the house is established.
And I will lean on them.”

Judg. 16:27 And the house was full of the men and women.
And all the leaders of the Philistines were there.
And upon the roof were about three thousand men and women
who were watching Shimshon make sport.

Judg. 16:28 And Shimshon called to YAHWEH saying,
“My Sovereign, YAHWEH, take note of me now!
Strengthen me now only this time, My Elohim,
and I will be avenged,
avenged once for my two eyes
against the Philistines!”

Judg. 16:29 And Shimshon grasped the two middle columns themselves תא
on which the house was established.
And he leaned against them,
one on his right and the other on his left.

Judg. 16:30 And Shimshon said,
“Let me put my life to death with the Philistines!”
And he spread himself out with his might.
And the house fell on the leaders and upon all the people who were in it.
And the dead that he put to death at his death
were greater than he had killed in his life.

Judg. 16:31 And his kindred and all his father’s household came down.
And they lifted up he himself תא.
And they brought him up.
And they buried he himself תא
between Tzor’ah and Eshta’ol
in the tomb of Manoah, his father.
And he had judged Yisra’el itself תא twenty years.

Chapter 17

Judg. 17:1 And there was a man from the hill country of Ephraim.

And His name was Mikayah.

Mikayah means who is like YAH.
Traditionally this is translated as Micah.
But this leaves the reference to YAHWEH
completely out of consideration
in the English text.

Judg. 17:2 And he said to his mother,
"Eleven hundred pieces of silver
were taken from you.
And you yourself nx swore.
And also you said it in my ears.

Behold!

The silver is with me myself nx.

I myself took it."

And his mother said,

"Blessed is my son by YAHWEH!"

Judg. 17:3 And he returned
the eleven hundred pieces of silver themselves nx
to his mother.

And his mother said, "Consecrated, consecrated was the silver itself nx to YAHWEH
from my hand to my son
for the sake of making an idol,
even a molded image."

And now I give it back to You.

Judg. 17:4 And he returned
the silver itself nx to his mother.

And his mother took two hundred pieces of silver and gave them to the refiner.
And he made it into an idol,
even a molded image.
And it was in the house of Mikayah.

Judg. 17:5 And the man, Mikayah, had a house of gods.

And he made an ephod and teraphim.

And he filled the hands themselves nx
of one of his sons.

And he was his priest.

There are several things to note here.
A 'house of elohim'
refers to a house of false gods.
This was a "shrine".

An ephod is a shoulder garment worn by priests,
and it is believed
they were able to "prophesy"
while wearing this garment.

The concept of "filling the hands"
is an act of consecration.
In essence it means the hands of the priest
are filled by those whom he serves.
He does not do normal work and therefore it is those who 'worship' before him
who must take care of 'filling his hands'.

Judg. 17:6 In those days
there was no king in Yisra'el.
Everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

Judg. 17:7 And there was a boy
from Bayit Lechem of Yahudah,
from the family of Yahudah.
And he was a Levite.

And he was sojourning there.

Judg. 17:8 And the man went out from the city of Bayit Lechem of Yahudah to sojourn wherever he could find.

And he came to the mountains of Ephraim.

As far as the house of Mikayah he made his way.

Judg. 17:9 And Mikayah said to him,

“Where have you come from?”
And he said to him,
“I am a Levite from Bayit Lechem of Yahudah.
And I am going to sojourn wherever I find.”
Judg. 17:10 And Mikayah said to him, “Dwell with me
and be a father and a priest to me.
And I will give you ten pieces of silver per year,
and an arrangement of garments,
and your food.”
And the Levite went in.
Judg. 17:11 And the Levite agreed to dwell
with the man himself נא.
And the young man
was like one of his sons to him.

Judg. 17:12 And Mikayah filled
the hands themselves נא of the Levite.
And the young man became his priest.
And he was in the house of Mikayah.

Judg. 17:13 And Mikayah said, “Now I know that YAHWEH
will do well toward to me because I have a Levite for a priest!”

Chapter 18

Judg. 18:1 In those days
there was no king in Yisra'el.
And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking an inheritance for them to dwell in because until that day an inheritance among the tribes of Yisra'el had not been inherited.

Judg. 18:2 And the children of Dan
sent five men from their family,
able men from Tzor'ah and Eshta'ol,
to spy out the land itself נא and examine it.
And they said to them, “Go!
Examine the land.”

And they went to the mountains of Ephraim,
to the house of Mikayah.
And they lodged there that night.
Judg. 18:3 And they were beside the house of Mikayah.
And they recognized the voice itself נא
of the young Levite.
And they turned aside there.
And they said to him, “Who brought you here?
What are you yourself נא
doing in this place?
And what is yours here?”
Judg. 18:4 And he said to them,
“Thus and thus did Mikayah do for me.
And he hired me.
And I have become for him a priest.”

Judg. 18:5 And they said to him,
“Please inquire of The Elohim.
Then we will know whether the way
upon which we are going will prosper.”
Judg. 18:6 And the priest said to them to go in peace before the face of YAHWEH
on your path on which you are going.

Judg. 18:7 And the five men went.
And they came to Laish.
And they saw the people themselves נא
who were in its midst.
They were dwelling in safety
within the customs of the Tzidonians, peaceful and secure.

And there was no humiliating word
of one possessing authority.
And they were remote from the Tzidonians.
And they had no word against them with any human being.
Laish means crushing.

Judg. 18:8 And they went to their kindred at Tzor'ah and Eshta'ol.
And their kindred said to them,
"What do you yourselves תא say?"

Judg. 18:9 And they said, "Get up!
And let us go up against them!
Indeed, we have seen the land itself תא.
And behold!
It itself תא is very good!

Be quiet!
Do not hesitate to go for the sake of entering in to occupy the land itself תא!
Judg. 18:10 As you go
you will come to a trusting people.
And the land is spacious.
Indeed, The Elohim has given it into your hands,
a place where there is no lack of any matter which is on the earth."

Judg. 18:11 And six hundred men
from the family of the Danites set out from Tzor'ah and Eshta'ol, men girded with weapons for battle.
Judg. 18:12 And they went up.
And they pitched their tents
at Kiriat Ye'arim in Yahudah.

For this reason that place is called Mahaneh Dan to this day.
Behold!
It is west of Kiriat Ye'arim.

Judg. 18:13 And they passed over from there to the mountains of Ephraim.
And they went to the house of Mikayah.
Judg. 18:14 And the five men who had gone
for the sake of spying out
the land of Laish itself תא responded.
And they said to their kindred,
"Do you know that there are in these houses
an ephod, and teraphim, and a carved image,
and a molded image?
And now you know what you are to do."
Judg. 18:15 And they turned aside there.
And they went to the house of the young Levite man, the house of Mikayah.
And they asked concerning his well being.

Judg. 18:16 And six hundred men
girded with weapons for battle who were of the children of Dan stood at the entrance of the gate.

Judg. 18:17 And the five men who had gone
for the sake of spying out the land itself תא
went in there.
And they took the idol itself תא,
and the ephod itself תא,
and the teraphim themselves תא,
and the molded image itself תא.

And the priest stood at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men who were girded with weapons for battle.
Judg. 18:18 And these went into Mikayah's house.
And they took the idol itself תא,

and the ephod itself תא,
and the teraphim themselves תא,
and the molded image itself תא.

And the priest said to them,
"What are you yourselves תא doing?"

This appears to be a copyist error, duplicating the previous verse.

Judg. 18:19 And they said to him, "Be silent!
Put your hand over your mouth
and come with us!

And be a father and a priest to us!
Is it better for you to be a priest to the household of one man or that you be a priest
to a tribe and a family in Yisra'el?"

Judg. 18:20 And the heart of the priest was happy.

And he took the ephod itself תא
and the teraphim themselves תא,
and the carved image itself תא.

And he went in the midst of the people.

Judg. 18:21 And they turned and went.

And they placed the little ones themselves תא
and the livestock themselves תא
and the valuables themselves תא in front of them.

Judg. 18:22 They were far from the house of Mikayah.

And the men who were in the houses near Mikayah's house were called together.
And they caught up with the children of Dan themselves תא.

Judg. 18:23 And they called out to the children of Dan.

And they turned around before them.

And they said to Mikayah,

"What is it for you
that you have called these together?"

Judg. 18:24 And he said,

"My gods themselves תא which I made you have taken away, and the priest,
and you have gone.

And what is left any longer for me?

And what is this you say to me,

'What is it for you?'"

Judg. 18:25 And the children of Dan said to him,

"Do not let your voice be heard by us lest you encounter bitter men and they harvest your life and the lives of your household!"

Judg. 18:26 And the children of Dan
went on their way.

And Mikayah saw

that they were stronger than him.

And he turned and went back to his house.

Judg. 18:27 And they took

what Mikayah had made itself תא,

and the priest himself תא who was his.

And they went to Laish,

against a people resting and secure.

And they struck they themselves תא

with the mouth of the sword.

And they burned the city itself תא with fire.

Judg. 18:28 And there was no deliverer

because it was remote from Tzidon.

And they had no word with human beings.

And it was in the valley

that belongs to Bayit Rehob.

And they rebuilt the city itself תא.

And they settled there.

Judg. 18:29 And they called
the name of the city Dan
after the name of Dan, their father,
who was born to Yisra'el.
However, the name of the city
at the beginning was Laish.

Judg. 18:30 And the children of Dan
set up for themselves the idol itself תא.
And Yahunathan, son of Gershom,
son of Menashe,
and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan
until the day the land was taken into exile.
Yahunathan means YAHWEH given.

Judg. 18:31 And they set up for themselves
the idol itself תא of Mikayah which he had made all the days that The House of The Elohim was in Shiloh.

Chapter 19

Judg. 19:1 And it was in those days.
And there was no king in Yisra'el.
And there was a man, a Levite, sojourning
on the side of the mountains of Ephraim.
And he took for himself a woman concubine
from Bayit Lechem of Yahudah.

Judg. 19:2 And his concubine committed adultery against him.
And she went from he himself תא to her father's house
at Bayit Lechem of Yahudah.
And she was there four months of days.

Judg. 19:3 And the man rose up and went after her for the sake of speaking to her heart to return.
And his servant
and a pair of male asses were with him.
And he went into her father's house.
And the father of the young woman saw him.
And he was glad to meet him.
Judg. 19:4 And his father-in-law,
the young woman's father, seized him.
And he stayed with he himself תא three days.
And they ate and they drank.
And they lodged there.

Judg. 19:5 And it was on the fourth day.
And they arose early in the morning.
And he stood up to go.
But the young woman's father
said to his son-in-law,
"Refresh your heart with a piece of bread.
And afterward you may go."
Judg. 19:6 And they sat down.
And the two of them ate and drank together.
And the young woman's father said to the man,
"Please agree and lodge all night.
And let your heart be glad."
Judg. 19:7 But the man stood up to go.
And his father-in-law pressed him.
And he returned and lodged there.

Judg. 19:8 And he rose up early in the morning on the fifth day for the sake of going.
But the young woman's father said,
"Please refresh your heart."
And they delayed until the spreading of the day.
And the two of them ate.

Judg. 19:9 And the man stood up to go,
he and his concubine
and his servant.

But his father-in-law, the young woman's father,
said to him, "Behold!
The day has drawn toward evening.
Please lodge tonight.
Behold!
The day is coming to an end.
Lodge here, and let your heart be glad.
And rise up early tomorrow to go your way.
And you may go to your tent."
Judg. 19:10 But the man was not willing to lodge that night.
And he stood up.
And he went.
And he went until he was opposite Yebus,
that is Yerushalaim.
And with him were the two saddled male asses.
And his concubine was with him.
Judg. 19:11 They were near Yebus.
And the day had gone down far.
And the servant said to his master,
"Come now and turn aside
into this city of the Yebusites.
And we will lodge in it."

Judg. 19:12 But his master said to him,
"We will not turn aside into a city of foreigners
who are not of the children of Yisra'el.
But we will pass over as far as Gib'ah."

Judg. 19:13 And he said to his servant,
"Go and approach one of these places.
And we will lodge in Gib'ah or in Ramah."
Judg. 19:14 And they passed over.
And they went.
And the sun went down on them near Gib'ah which belongs to Binyamin.
Judg. 19:15 And they turned aside there
to lodge in Gib'ah.
And he went in and sat down
in the square of the city.
And no man would receive they themselves תא
into his house to lodge.

Judg. 19:16 And behold!
An old man was coming in from the field at evening.
And he was also from the mountains of Ephraim.
And he was sojourning in Gib'ah.
But the men of the place were Binyamites.
Judg. 19:17 And he lifted up his eyes.
And he saw the wayfaring man himself תא
in the square of the city.
And the old man said,
"Where are you going and from where have you come?"
Judg. 19:18 And he said to him,
"We are passing over
from Bayit Lechem of Yahudah
to the other side of the mountains of Ephraim.
I am from there.
And I went to Bayit Lechem of Yahudah.
And I am going to The House of YAHWEH itself תא.
And no man is receiving me into his house.
Judg. 19:19 And there is both straw and fodder
for our male asses.
And there is bread and wine for myself,
and for your female servant,
and for the young man who is with your servant.
We lack nothing at all."
Judg. 19:20 And the old man said,
"Shalom to you!
Only let all your needs be on me.
However, do not lodge in the square."

Judg. 19:21 And he brought him into his house.
And he gave fodder to the male asses.
And they washed their feet.
And they ate and drank.
Judg. 19:22 And they were making glad their hearts themselves נא.

And behold!
Men of the city,
men of the sons of worthlessness,
surrounded the house itself, נא
pounding on the door.
And they spoke to the man,
the owner of the house,
the old man saying,
"Bring out the man himself נא
who came to your house
and we will know him carnally!"

*Bily'al means without profit, worthless.
This is often translated as 'Belial'.*

Judg. 19:23 And the man, the owner of the house,
went out to them.
And he said to them,
"No, my kindred!
Please do nothing bad after the man who has come into my house!
Do not do this foolishness itself נא!"

Judg. 19:24 Behold!
Here is my virgin daughter and the man's concubine.
I will bring out now they themselves נא.
And you may humiliate they themselves נא.
And you may do with them
as seems good in your eyes.
But to this man do not do this foolish matter!"

*As with Lot
in the story of Sedom and Amarah
we with Western mindsets
do not comprehend
how this could ever be done.
We simply do not understand the powerful requirements of Eastern hospitality.
If one came under your roof
you were required do defend them with your very life
- at whatever the cost to you personally.*

Judg. 19:25 But the men were not willing to listen attentively to him.
And the man grabbed his concubine.
And he brought her out to them outside.
And they knew carnally her herself נא.
And they maltreated her
all night until the morning.
And they sent her away as the day came up.

Judg. 19:26 And the woman came back at the dawn of the day.
And she fell down at the entrance of the man's house where her master was until it was light.
Judg. 19:27 And her master got up in the morning.
And he opened the doors of the house
and went out to go his way.
And behold!
The woman, his concubine, had fallen down
at the door of the house.
And her hands were on the threshold.
Judg. 19:28 And he said to her,
"Get up and we will go!"
But she was not responding.
And he took her on the male ass.
And the man got up and went to his place.

Judg. 19:29 And he went to his house.
And he took a knife itself תַּח.
And he grabbed his concubine.
And he dismembered her by her bones into twelve pieces.
And he sent her
throughout all the borders of Yisra'el.

Judg. 19:30 And it was when everyone saw.
"This has never been!
And like this has not been seen since the coming up of the children of Yisra'el from the land of Mitsraim until this day.
Consider it!
Take counsel concerning it!
And speak!"

Chapter 20

Judg. 20.1 And all the children of Yisra'el came out.
And the congregation assembled as one man
from Dan to Beer Sheba
and from the land of Gil'ad
to YAHWEH at Mitzpah.

Judg. 20:2 And stationed at the corners of all the people of all the tribes of Yisra'el
in the assembly of the people of The Elohim, were four hundred thousand men on foot
drawing the sword.

Judg. 20:3 And the children of Binyamin
heard that the children of Yisra'el had gone up to Mitzpah.
And the children of Yisra'el said,
"Speak!
How did this evil thing happen?"

Judg. 20:4 And the man, the Levite, husband of the woman who was killed,
responded and said,
"To Gib'ah, which belongs to Binyamin,
I myself and my concubine went to lodge.

Judg. 20:5 And the masters of Gib'ah
rose up against me.
And they surrounded the house itself תַּח at night
for me myself תַּח with the intent to kill me.
And my concubine they forced.
And she died.

Judg. 20:6 And I grabbed my concubine.
And I dismembered her.
And I sent her into all the country of the inheritance of Yisra'el because they committed a plan and foolishness in Yisra'el.

Judg. 20:7 Behold!
You are all children of Yisra'el.
Speak!
Give for yourselves advice and counsel here!"

Judg. 20:8 And all the people stood as one man saying,
"No man is to go to his tent!
And no man is to turn aside to his house!

Judg. 20:9 And now this is the word that we will do to Gib'ah.
We will go against it by lot.

Judg. 20:10 And we will take ten men for every hundred throughout all the tribes of Yisra'el
and a hundred out of every thousand,
and a thousand out of every ten thousand,
for the sake of taking food for the people,
for the sake of preparing for their going toward Gib'ah in Binyamin because of all the foolishness

they have done in Yisra'el."

Judg. 20:11 And all the men of Yisra'el
were gathered against the city
as one man, companions.

Judg. 20:12 And the tribes of Yisra'el sent men through all the tribe of Binyamin saying,
"What is this evil thing which has happened among you?"

Judg. 20:13 And now give us
the men themselves nx,
the sons of worthlessness who are in Gib'ah.
And we will put them to death.
And we will consume what is evil from Yisra'el!"

But the children of Binyamin were not willing to listen attentively to the voice of their kindred,
the Children of Yisra'el.

Judg. 20:14 And the children of Binyamin
gathered together from their cities to Gib'ah
to go out for battle with the children of Yisra'el.

Judg. 20:15 And the children of Binyamin
numbered at that time from their cities
twenty six thousand men drawing the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gib'ah
who numbered seven hundred chosen men.

Judg. 20:16 Among all this people were seven hundred chosen men who were left handed.
All of these could sling a stone
at a hair's breadth and not miss.

Judg. 20:17 And the men of Yisra'el
numbered themselves apart from Binyamin,
four hundred thousand men drawing the sword.
All of these were men of battle.

Judg. 20:18 And the children of Yisra'el got up.
And they went up to Bayit El.
And they inquired of The Elohim.
And they said,
"Of the children of Yisra'el who is to go up first for the sake of battling against the children of Binyamin?"
And YAHWEH said,
"Yahudah in the beginning."

Judg. 20:19 And the children of Yisra'el
rose up in the morning.
And they encamped against Gib'ah.
Judg. 20:20 And the men of Yisra'el went out for the sake of battling with Binyamin.
And the men of Yisra'el
arranged they themselves nx in battle array to fight against them at Gib'ah.

Judg. 20:21 And the children of Binyamin
came out from Gib'ah.
And they destroyed on that day
twenty two thousand men of the Yisra'elites of the land.
Judg. 20:22 And the people strengthened
the men of Yisra'el.
And again they arranged the battle line
at the place where they had arranged themselves
on the first day.

Judg. 20:23 And the children of Yisra'el went up.
And they wept before YAHWEH until evening.

And they inquired of YAHWEH saying,
"Shall we again draw near for battle with the children of Binyamin, my brother?"
And YAHWEH said, "Go up against him."

Judg. 20:24 And the children of Yisra'el drew near to the children of Binyamin on the second day.
Judg. 20:25 And Binyamin went out to meet those from Gib'ah on the second day.
And they destroyed eighteen thousand men of the land of the children of Yisra'el.
All these drawing the sword.

Judg. 20:26 And all the children of Yisra'el went up, even all the people.
And they went to Bayit El.
And they wept.
And they sat there before the face of YAHWEH.
And they fasted that day until evening.

And they offered olahs
and offense offerings
before the face of YAHWEH.

Judg. 20:27 And the children of Yisra'el
inquired of YAHWEH.
The Chest of The Covenant of The Elohim
was there in those days.

Judg. 20:28 And Pin'has, son of El'azar, son of Aharon, stood before it
in those days saying,
"Shall we once again go out to battle against the children of Binyamin, my brother, or should we cease?"
And YAHWEH said, Go up!
Indeed, tomorrow I will give them into your hand."

Judg. 20:29 And Yisra'el placed ambushes
all around Gib'ah.
20:30 And the children of Yisra'el went up against the children of Binyamin on the third day.
And they arranged themselves in battle array against Gib'ah as at the other times.
Judg. 20:31 And the children of Binyamin
came out to meet the people away from the city.
And they began to strike some of the people,
killing as at the other times on the highways,
one of which went up to Bayit El
and the other to Gib'ah,
in the field, about thirty men of Yisra'el.
Judg. 20:32 And the children of Binyamin said,
"They are going to be struck before us
as at the beginning."
But the children of Yisra'el said, "Let's flee.
And we will draw them away from the city
toward the highways."
Judg. 20:33 And all the men of Yisra'el
stood up from their place.
And they arranged themselves in battle array
at Ba'al Tamar.
And the ambush of Yisra'el broke forth from their places
at the meadows of Gib'ah.
Judg. 20:34 And ten thousand chosen men from all Yisra'el came against Gib'ah.
And the battle was fierce.
But they did not know that harm was close to them.

Judg. 20:35 And YAHWEH struck Binyamin itself nx
before the face of Yisra'el.
And the children of Yisra'el
estroyed among the Binyamites on that day

twenty five thousand one hundred men,
all those drawing the sword.
Judg. 20:36 And the children of Binyamin
saw that they were struck.
And the men of Yisra'el
had given place to the Binyamites
because they trusted in the ambush
that they had set against Gib'ah.
Judg. 20:37 And the ambush hurried.
And they spread out against Gib'ah.
And the ambush drew out and struck the entire city itself nx
with the mouth of the sword.

Judg. 20:38 And they had appointed a sign between the men of Yisra'el and the ambush.
And they were to cause a great cloud of smoke
to rise up from the city.
Judg. 20:39 And the men of Yisra'el
were to turn about in battle.

And Binyamin began to strike,
killing about thirty of the men of Yisra'el.
Indeed, they said,
"They are surely stricken before us
as at the first battle."

Judg. 20:40 And the cloud began to rise from the city in a column of smoke.
And the Binyamites looked behind them.
And behold!
The entire city
was going up in smoke to the skies.
Judg. 20:41 And the men of Yisra'el turned around.
And the men of Binyamin trembled inwardly
because they saw that harm had touched upon them.
Judg. 20:42 And they turned before the faces of the men of Yisra'el
toward the way of the wilderness.
But the battle caught them.
And those against the cities
were destroying it itself nx in its midst.

Judg. 20:43 They encircled
the Binyamites themselves nx.
They pursued them.
With ease they trampled them down
as far as opposite Gib'ah toward the sunrise.
Judg. 20:44 And there fell of Binyamin
eighteen thousand men.
All of these themselves nx were able men.
Judg. 20:45 And they turned.
And they fled toward the wilderness
to the rock of Rimmon.
And they cut down on the highways
five thousand men.
And they followed hard after them
as far as Gidom.
And they struck from them two thousand men.
Judg. 20:46 And all who fell from Binyamin that day
were twenty five thousand men drawing the sword.
All of these themselves nx were able men.
Judg. 20:47 And they turned.
And six hundred men fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon.
And they stayed at the rock of Rimmon four months.

Judg. 20:48 And the men of Yisra'el returned toward the children of Binyamin.
And they struck with the mouth of the sword
those from the city, men, and the animals,
all who were found.
Also they set fire to all the cities they found.

Chapter 21

Judg. 21:1 And the men of Yisra'el had sworn an oath at Mitzpah saying, "Not a man of us is to give his daughter to Binyamin for a wife."

Judg. 21:2 And the people went to Bayit El. And they sat there until evening before the face of The Elohim. And they lifted up their voices with great weeping.

Judg. 21:3 And they said, "YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el, Why does this exist in Yisra'el today that one tribe is missing from Yisra'el?"

Judg. 21:4 And it was on the next day. And the people rose early. And they built a slaughter site there. And they brought olahs and shelem offerings. Judg. 21:5 And the children of Yisra'el said, "Who is there who did not come up with the assembly from all the tribes of Yisra'el to YAHWEH?"

Indeed, there was a great oath concerning anyone who had not come up to YAHWEH at Mitzpah saying, "Put to death, he is to be put to death!"

Judg. 21:6 And the children of Yisra'el were sorry toward Binyamin, their brother. And they said, "One tribe is cut off today from Yisra'el. Judg. 21:7 What shall we do for wives for those remaining? Also, we have sworn by YAHWEH not to give to them our daughters for wives?"

Judg. 21:8 And they said, "Which one of the tribes of Yisra'el did not come up to YAHWEH at Mitzpah?" And behold! No man had come to the encampment from Yabesh Gil'ad to the assembly. Judg. 21:9 And the people were numbered. And behold! There was not a man from the inhabitants of Yabesh Gil'ad.

Judg. 21:10 And the assembly sent there twelve thousand sons of force. And they charged they themselves nx saying, "Go and strike those dwelling at Yabesh Gil'ad themselves nx with the mouth of the sword; even the women and the children. Judg. 21:11 And this is the word which you are to do. Every male and every woman who has known a man by lying with him you are to devote to destruction."

Judg. 21:12 And they found among those dwelling at Yabesh Gil'ad four hundred young virgins who had not known a man by lying with him. And they brought they themselves nx to the encampment at Shiloh which is in the land of Kena'an.

Judg. 21:13 And all the assembly sent. And they spoke to the children of Binyamin who were at the rock of Rimmon.

And they called out to them "Shalom!"
Judg. 21:14 And Binyamin returned at that time.
And they gave to them the women who had lived
from the women of Yabesh Gil'ad.
But there was not found enough for them.

Judg. 21:15 And the people were sorry for Binyamin because YAHWEH had made a breach in the tribes of Yisra'el.

Judg. 21:16 And the elders of the assembly said,
"What do we do for wives for those who remain
because the women
have been destroyed out of Binyamin?"

Judg. 21:17 And they said,

"There is an inheritance
for the delivered of Binyamin.

And no tribe is to be eliminated from Yisra'el.

Judg. 21:18 But we are not able to give to them wives from our daughters
because the children of Yisra'el have sworn an oath saying,
'Bitterly cursed is he who gives a wife to Binyamin.'

Judg. 21:19 And they said,
"Behold!

There is a yearly festival of YAHWEH at Shiloh which is north of Bayit El on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bayit El to Shekem, and south of Lebonah."

Judg. 21:20 And they charged
the children of Binyamin themselves תא saying,
"Go and lie in wait in the vineyards!

Judg. 21:21 And watch!

And behold!

If the daughters of Shiloh
come out to dance with dances
then you are to come out from the vineyards.
And a man is to catch for himself a woman
from the daughters of Shiloh.
And you are to go to the land of Binyamin.

Judg. 21:22 And it will exist that their fathers or their brothers will come to us to contend with us.

And we will say to them,

'Show favor to us for they themselves תא

because we did not take a wife
for any of them in battle.

And you yourselves תא

have not given to them this time, being guilty of your oath.'

Judg. 21:23 And the children of Binyamin
did according to this.

And they took wives for their number from those dancing whom they caught.

And they went.

And they returned to their inheritance.

And they rebuilt the cities themselves תא,
and they dwelt in them.

Judg. 21:24 And the children of Yisra'el
went from there at that time,
each man to his tribe and to his family.
And they went from there,
each man to his inheritance.

Judg. 21:25 In those days
there was no king in Yisra'el.
Each man did what was right in his own eyes.

8: 1 Samuel – Shemu'el

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

1 Sam. 1:1 And there was a certain man from Ramathaim Tzophim of the mountains of Ephraim. And his name was Elkanah, son of Yeroham, son of Elihu, son of Tohu, son of Tzuph, an Ephraimite.

Ramathaim Tzophim means high place of the watchers.
Elkanah means El has obtained.
Yeroham means compassionate.
Elihu means El of him.
Tohu means to depress; abase.
Tzuph means honeycomb.

1 Sam. 1:2 And he had two wives. The name of one was Hannah. And the name of the other was Peninnah. And Peninnah had children but Hannah had no children.

Hannah means favored.
Peninnah means a pearl.

1 Sam. 1:3 And this man went up from his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice to YAHWEH of Assemblies at Shiloh.

And there the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Pin'has, were the priests of YAHWEH.

Eli means lofty.
Hophni means a fighter.
Pin'has means mouth of a serpent.

1 Sam. 1:4 And it was time. And Elkanah sacrificed. And he gave allotments to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and daughters.

1 Sam. 1:5 And to Hanna he gave one allotment also because he loved Hannah herself nx.

But YAHWEH had shut up her womb.

1 Sam. 1:6 And her rival troubled her greatly, even vexing her for the sake of agitating her, because YAHWEH had shut up her womb.

1 Sam. 1:7 And according to this she did year after year when she went up to The House of YAHWEH.

According to this she troubled her.

And she wept.

And she did not eat.

1 Sam. 1:8 And Elkanah, her husband, said to her,

“Hannah, why do you weep?

Why do you not eat?

And why is your heart broken?

Am I not better to you than ten sons?”

1 Sam. 1:9 And Hannah rose up after eating and after drinking at Shiloh.

And Eli, the priest, was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of The Temple of YAHWEH.

1 Sam. 1:10 And she was bitter at life.

And she prayed to YAHWEH.

And she wept, she wept.

It's common practice in Hebrew to use a repeated word or phrase for emphasis. In most translations this is treated as "....greatly.....".

But it needs to be understood as an emphatic statement that amplifies
the meaning of the terms used.

1 Sam. 1:11 And she vowed a vow.
And she said, “YAHWEH of Assemblies,
if You will look, look upon the affliction
of your female servant and take note of me,
and not ignore your female servant herself נא,
and will give to your female servant seed, a male,
then I will give him to YAHWEH
all the days of his life.

And no razor will come upon his head.

This is a Nazirite vow.
It's the same as is seen
with Shimshon (Samson).
The uncut hair represented to the world
the consecration of this male child to YAHWEH.

1 Sam. 1:12 And it was as she kept on praying
before the face of YAHWEH.

And Eli was watching her mouth itself נא.

1 Sam. 1:13 And Hannah was speaking within her heart.

Only her lips moved.

But her voice was not heard.

And Eli thought her to be intoxicated.

1 Sam. 1:14 And Eli said to her,

“Until when will you be intoxicated?”

Put away your wine itself נא from within you!”

1 Sam. 1:15 But Hannah responded and said,
“No, my master!

I am a woman sorrowful in my inner being.

And wine and strong drink I have not drunk.

And I have poured out my life itself נא

before the face of YAHWEH.

1 Sam. 1:16 Do not account
your female servant herself נא before your face
as a daughter of worthlessness.

Indeed, from the abundance of my contemplation and vexation

I have spoken until this point.”

1 Sam. 1:17 And Eli responded.

And he said, “Go in shalom.

And the The Elohim of Yisra'el

grant your petition itself נא

which you have requested from Him.”

shalom - safe, well, happy,
friendly, also welfare,
i.e. health, prosperity, peace.

This term is very misunderstood
by western minds.
This is because it is “traditionally”
translated as “peace”.

It means far more than this
in the Hebrew culture.
Ultimately it covers the entire well being of every aspect of one's life.
It's often used as a greeting of blessing and well-wishing for the one you meet.

1 Sam. 1:18 And she said,

“May your female servant find favor in your eyes.”

And the woman went on her way.

And she ate.

And her face was no longer sad.

1 Sam. 1:19 And they rose up early in the morning.

And they worshipped

before the face of YAHWEH.

And they turned back.

And they went to their house at Ramah.

And Elkanah knew carnally

Hannah herself תא, his wife.
And YAHWEH took note of her.

1 Sam. 1:20 And it was at the turning of days.
And Hannah conceived.
And she bore a son.
And she called
his name itself תא Shemu'el,
"Because I have asked from YAHWEH."
Shemu'el means heard by El.

1 Sam. 1:21 And the man, Elkanah, and all his household went up
for the sake of sacrificing to YAHWEH
the yearly sacrifice itself תא
and his vow itself תא.

1 Sam. 1:22 But Hannah did not go up.
Indeed, she said to her husband,
"Until the child is weaned,
then I will bring him up.
And he will be seen before
the face YAHWEH Himself תא.
And he will remain there until time unseen."
olam - properly, concealed,
i.e. the vanishing point;
generally time out of mind; eternity.

This is another misunderstood term.
In the Hebrew mind
there were only two views of time,
that which was past - and therefore known,
and that which was yet to come
- and therefore unknown.

This term has in view
the distant horizon and beyond,
that which cannot be seen
and therefore cannot be known.
It is time beyond knowing.
It's from this concept that the western mind has generally translated this as "forever", or "eternity".

1 Sam. 1:23 And her husband, Elkanah, said to her,
"Do what is good in your eyes.
Stay until you have weaned he himself תא.
Only may YAHWEH establish His Word itself תא."

And the woman stayed.
And she nursed her son himself תא
until she had weaned he himself תא.

1 Sam. 1:24 And she went up with him whom she had weaned with three bulls and one ephah of flour and a skin of wine.
And she brought him
to The House of YAHWEH at Shiloh.
And the boy was young.

1 Sam. 1:25 And they sacrificed the bull itself תא.
And they brought the child himself תא to Eli.

1 Sam. 1:26 And she said to him,
"My master! As your being lives, my master,
I am the woman who stood with you in this place
praying to YAHWEH.
adown - sovereign, controller
- translated as lord, master, owner (traditionally).

There was no king at this point.
The head priest,
often called the "High Priest",
was in effect the sovereign of Yisra'el,
acting as the representative of YAHWEH on earth.

1 Sam. 1:27 For this boy I prayed.
And YAHWEH has granted to me
my petition itself תא which I requested from Him.

1:28 And I have caused him to be demanded for YAHWEH.
All the days that he lives
he will be demanded for YAHWEH.

And Shemu'el prostrated himself there toward YAHWEH.

sha'al - to inquire; by implication to request;
by extension to demand.

This is an unusual use of this term.
In verse 27 Hanna
"requested" the boy from YAHWEH.
Her vow was to give him to YAHWEH
for the rest of his life.
The unique use of the term here implies that she has granted YAHWEH
the right to demand
her fulfillment of her vow
- by giving him to YAHWEH
for all his days.

Chapter 2

1 Sam. 2:1 And Hannah prayed.
And she said,

"My heart jumps for joy in YAHWEH!
My horn has been exalted by YAHWEH!
My mouth is broadened over those hating me because I have been gladdened
by Your deliverance!

1 Sam. 2:2 None is set apart like YAHWEH!
Indeed, there is no one except You!
And there is no Rock like our Elohim!

1 Sam. 2:3 Do not increase speech
arrogantly, arrogantly,
impudence going forth from your mouth.
Indeed, an El of knowledge is YAHWEH
and by Him deeds are weighed.

el - strength; as adjective, mighty,
especially The Almighty
(but used of any deity).

Traditionally translated as "God".
The plural form is elohim,
which refers to the "mighty ones" or "gods"
It's also used for idols as false elohim,
and it is used of judges and "angels."

1 Sam. 2:4 A powerful bow is crushed.
And those faltering are girded with strength.

1 Sam. 2:5 Those satisfied with food have been hired.
And the hungry have ceased.
Even the barren has given birth to seven.
But she who has many children languishes.

1 Sam. 2:6 YAHWEH puts to death, and He makes alive.
He brings down to she'ol,
and He raises up.

she'ol - Hades or the world of the dead
(as if a subterranean retreat).
This is often translated as "the grave".
But it seems to refer to the state of being dead, to death itself.

1 Sam. 2:7 YAHWEH causes to be poor,
and He causes to be rich.
He causes to be brought low,
and He causes to be lifted up.
1 Sam. 2:8 He raises the poor from the dust.
The weak from the dunghill He causes to be high.
The destitute he places with nobles.
And a throne of honor He causes them to inherit.

Indeed, to YAHWEH
belong the columns of the land.
And He has established the earth upon them.

1 Sam. 2:9 The feet of His devoted ones
He protects.
But the morally wrong are silent in darkness.
Indeed, not with vigor does a man prevail.
chasid - properly, kind, i.e. pious.
Traditionally translated as saint, holy one, etc.,
it means a devoted one.

rasha - morally wrong; concretely,
an (actively) bad person.
Traditionally translated as "wicked".

The use of "wicked"
misses the point of moral error.
It is this aspect of one's character that needs to be accurately identified.

1 Sam. 2:10 YAHWEH breaks down his adversaries.
Against him from the skies He thunders.
YAHWEH corrects the ends of the earth.
And He gives strength to His king.
And He exalts the horn of His anointed."
mashiyach - anointed;
specifically, The Messiah.

1 Sam. 2:11 And Elkanah went to Ramah,
to his house.
And the boy served YAHWEH Himself נא
before the face itself נא of Eli the priest.

1 Sam. 2:12 And the sons of Eli were sons of worthlessness.
They did not know YAHWEH Himself נא.

1 Sam. 2:13 And the regulation of the priests with the people themselves נא
was for every man offering a sacrifice.
And the servant of the priest came
as the flesh was boiling.
And a flesh hook with three prongs
was in his hand.
If you ever wondered where the concept of the little red 'guy' with the three pronged fork in his hand came from,
consider this to be the source of that imagery.

1 Sam. 2:14 And he thrust it into the basin,
or kettle, or cauldron, or pot.
All that the flesh hook brought up the priest took.

According to this they did to all the Yisra'elites
who were coming to Shiloh.

1 Sam. 2:15 Also before the fat itself נא
was offered up in smoke
the priest's servant would come.
And he would say to the man sacrificing,
"Give flesh for roasting to the priest and not flesh from boiling but raw."
1 Sam. 2:16 And the man would say to him,
"An offering by smoke,
an offering by smoke of the fat is on this day.
Then take for yourself what your life desires."
But he would say to him, "Indeed, give it now!
And if not I will take it by force."

1 Sam. 2:17 And it was a very great offense for the men before the face itself נא of YAHWEH!
Indeed, the men scorned
the offering itself נא of YAHWEH.

1 Sam. 2:18 And Shemu'el was serving before the face itself נא of YAHWEH,
a boy being girded with a linen ephod,
1 Sam. 2:19 and a small robe
his mother had made for him.

And she brought it to him year by year
as she went up with her husband himself תא
to sacrifice the yearly sacrifice itself תא.

1 Sam. 2:20 And Eli blessed Elkanah himself תא
and his wife herself תא.

And he said, “YAHWEH grant to you offspring from this woman
in place of the one she requested whom she has given to YAHWEH.”
And they went to their home.

1 Sam. 2:21 Indeed, YAHWEH visited Hannah herself תא.
And she conceived.
And she gave birth to three sons and two daughters.

And the boy, Shemu'el,
grew up before YAHWEH.

1 Sam. 2:22 And Eli was very old.
And he had heard everything itself תא
that his sons were doing to all Yisra'el
and how they were lying down carnally
with the women themselves תא who were assembling at the entrance
to The Tent of Appointment.

1 Sam. 2:23 And he said to them,
“Why are you doing according to words like these of which I am hearing, words themselves תא,
from all the people themselves תא.”

1 Sam. 2:24 No, my sons!
Indeed, it is not a good report that I am hearing!
You are making the people of YAHWEH
pass over His teachings.

1 Sam. 2:25 If one man offends against another then The Elohim will judge him.
But if a man offends against YAHWEH
who will intercede for him?”

But they did not listen attentively
to the voice of their father.
Indeed, YAHWEH was inclined to put them to death.

1 Sam. 2:26 And the boy, Shemu'el, went on.
And he was growing.
And he was good
both with YAHWEH and with men.

1 Sam. 2:27 And a man of The Elohim came to Eli.
And he said to him, “Thus said YAHWEH, ‘Reveal, did I not reveal Myself to the house of your father in Mitsraim
in Pharaoh’s house?’

1 Sam. 2:28 And I chose he himself תא
from all the tribes of Yisra'el
for the sake of being My priest,
for the sake of offering upon My slaughter site,
for the sake of burning incense,
and for the sake of wearing an ephod before My face.
And I gave to the house of your father
all the offerings by fire themselves תא
of the children of Yisra'el.

1 Sam. 2:29 Why do you kick against My sacrifice and My offering which I have directed in My Dwelling Place and you honor your sons themselves תא above Me

for the sake of making yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Yisra'el, My people?

1 Sam. 2:30 For this reason
- an utterance of YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el -
'I spoke!
I said that your household and the household of your father would walk before Me until eternity.'

But now
- an utterance of YAHWEH -
'far be it from Me!
Indeed, he who is honoring me
I will honor!
But he who is dishonoring Me
I will dishonor!

n'um - an oracle.
An oracle was considered to be a unique and extremely powerful utterance made by YAHWEH
when He wished to convey
a profound concept.
The use of it here has dire implications.

1 Sam. 2:31 Behold!
The days are coming
that I will cut off your arm itself nx,
even the arm itself nx of your father's household!
An old man will not exist in your household.

1 Sam. 2:32 And you will look intently at the distress of My Dwelling Place amidst all the good which The Elohim is doing for Yisra'el itself nx.
And there will not be an old man
in your household all the days!

1 Sam. 2:33 And a man whom I will not cut off from My slaughter site
will consume your eyes themselves nx
and grieve your life itself nx.
And all the increase of your household
will be put to death as men.

1 Sam. 2:34 And this is the sign for you which is coming upon your two sons,
upon Hophni and Pin'has.
In one day they will both be put to death.

1 Sam. 2:35 And I will raise up for Myself
a trustworthy priest.
According to what is in My heart and in My inner being
he will do!
And I will build him a trustworthy household.
And he will walk
before the face of My anointed all the days.

1 Sam. 2:36 And it will exist
that all who remain in your household will come and prostrate themselves to him for a piece of silver and a cake of bread.
And they will say,
"Please, put me
in one of the offices of the priesthood for the sake of eating a piece of bread."

Chapter 3

1 Sam. 3:1 And the boy, Shemu'el, was serving YAHWEH Himself nx
before the face of Eli.
And the word of YAHWEH
was precious in those days.

No vision was breaking out.

1 Sam. 3:2 And it was at that time.
And Eli was lying down in his place.
And his eyes had begun to obscure.
He was not able to see.

1 Sam. 3:3 And the lamp of The Elohim had not been extinguished.
And Shemu'el was lying down
in The Temple of YAHWEH
where The Chest of The Elohim was.

'aron - a box.
Traditionally translated as ark, chest, coffin.
This is normally called "The Ark",
"The Ark of The Covenant", etc.
But it is not an ark
in the normal sense of a "boat".
It is very simply a box,
a chest into which one places items.

1 Sam. 3:4 And YAHWEH called to Shemu'el.
And he said, "I am here!"

The last line literally says "Behold, me!".
It's an idiom that means something like,
"Yes, I am here!"

1 Sam. 3:5 And he ran to Eli.
And he said, "I am here.
Indeed, you called for me."
But he said, "I did not call.
Lie down again."
And he went and laid down.

1 Sam. 3:6 And YAHWEH again called, "Shemu'el!"
And Shemu'el got up.
And he went to Eli.
And he said, "I am here.
Indeed, you called me."
And he said, "No, I did not call you my son.
Lie down again."

1 Sam. 3:7 And Shemu'el did not yet know
YAHWEH Himself יי.
And the word of YAHWEH
had not yet been revealed to him.

1 Sam. 3:8 And YAHWEH called Shemu'el again,
at the third time.
And he got up.
And he went to Eli.
And he said, "I am here.
Indeed, you did call me!"
And Eli discerned that YAHWEH
had called to the boy.

1 Sam. 3:9 And Eli said to Shemu'el,
"Go lie down!
And it will be if He calls to you
then you are to say,
'Speak, YAHWEH!
Indeed, Your servant is listening attentively!"
And Shemu'el went.
And he laid down in his place.

1 Sam. 3:10 And YAHWEH came.
And He stationed Himself.
And He called as at other times,
"Shemu'el! Shemu'el!"
And Shemu'el said, "Speak!
Indeed, Your servant is listening attentively!"

1 Sam. 3:11 And YAHWEH said to Shemu'el,
"Behold!
I am doing a word in Yisra'el
at which all who are listening attentively will have both their ears tingle.

1 Sam. 3:12 In that day
I will establish against Eli everything itself nx that I have spoken against his household, beginning and ending.

1 Sam. 3:13 And I have declared to him that I am judging,
I Myself,
his household itself nx for eternity
on account of the moral perversion which he knows because of his sons making themselves dishonorable.
And he has not rebuked them.
1 Sam. 3:14 And for this reason I have sworn to the household of Eli that the moral perversion of the household of Eli will not be covered by sacrifice or grain offering for eternity.”

Stop and think about this!
YAHWEH SWEARS
that the iniquity of Eli's house
SHALL NOT BE PURGED
WITH SACRIFICE OR OFFERING FOREVER!
Do you recognize what this means?
There is NO redemption for Eli and his house
- not even by The Messiah Himself!

Consider this carefully!
This is a priestly family.
They KNEW YAHWEH.
They KNEW His Word.
Yet they turned their backs
on YAHWEH and His Word
in favor of their own selfishness!

And they are condemned FOREVER
for this offense!

BE CAREFUL!
It is POSSIBLE for you to “lose your salvation”
by wilfully seeking your own self interests above those of YAHWEH
when you KNOW BETTER!

1 Sam. 3:15 And Shemu'el laid down
until the morning.
And he opened the doors themselves nx
of The House of YAHWEH.

And Shemu'el was afraid to declare the vision itself nx to Eli.

1 Sam. 3:16 And Eli called Shemu'el himself nx.

And he said, “Shemu'el, my son!”

And he said, “I am here.”

1 Sam. 3:17 And he said,

“What is the word that He spoke to you?

Please do not hide it from me.

Thus may The Elohim do to you and more also

if you hide a word from me

of all the words that He spoke to you.”

1 Sam. 3:18 And Shemu'el declared to him

all the words themselves nx.

And he hid nothing from him.

And he said,

“YAHWEH Himself will do
what is good in His eyes.”

1 Sam. 3:19 And Shemu'el grew up.

And YAHWEH was with him.

And he did not let any of His words
fall to the ground.

1 Sam. 3:20 And all Yisra'el knew,

from Dan to Beersheba,
that Shemu'el had been established
as a prophet of YAHWEH.

1 Sam. 3:21 And again YAHWEH
was seen by him at Shiloh.
Indeed, YAHWEH revealed Himself
to Shemu'el at Shiloh by the word of YAHWEH.

Chapter 4

1 Sam. 4:1 And the word of Shemu'el existed to all Yisra'el.
And Yisra'el went out
to battle against the Philistines.
And they pitched their tents beside Eben Ha'ezer
while the Philistines pitched their tents at Aphek.

Eben Ha'ezer means stone of help.

Aphek means fortress.

1 Sam. 4:2 And the Philistines arranged themselves for battle against Yisra'el.
And they engaged in battle.
And Yisra'el was defeated before the Philistines.
And they struck among the arrangement
about four thousand men.

'arak - to set in a row,

i.e. arrange, put in order.

Tradition translates this as "battle array".

But this is using the context

to set the definition of the term,

not allowing the term itself

to stand on its own.

Thus, arrangement

is the more proper term.

1 Sam. 4:3 And the people went to the encampment.
And the elders of Yisra'el said,
"Why were we defeated by YAHWEH today
before the Philistines?
Let us bring to us from Shiloh
The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH itself nx.
And He will come among us.
And He will deliver us
from the hand of our adversaries."

*Notice the concept that YAHWEH

was dwelling upon The Chest, physically.

If we bring The Chest

YAHWEH will be in our midst.*

This is a misconception

of how YAHWEH functions in our lives.

1 Sam. 4:4 And the people sent to Shiloh.
And they lifted up from there
The Chest of The Covenant
of YAHWEH of Assemblies itself nx, dwelling with the cherubim.

And the two sons of Eli were there with The Chest of The Covenant of The Elohim, Hophni and Pin'has.

1 Sam. 4:5 And it was as
The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH
came into the encampment.
And all Yisra'el cried out loudly,
a great shout.
And the ground shook.

1 Sam. 4:6 And the Philistines heard
the noise itself nx of the shout.

And they said,

"What is the noise of this great shout
in the encampment of the Hebrews?"

And they recognized that The Chest of YAHWEH
had come into the encampment.

1 Sam. 4:7 And the Philistines were afraid.
Indeed they said,

“The gods have come into the encampment!”
And they said,
“Alas for us!
Indeed, it has not been like this
yesterday or the day before.
1 Sam. 4:8 Alas for us!
Who will deliver us from the hand
of these mighty gods?
These are the the gods who struck
the Mitsraites themselves תא
with all the plagues in the wilderness.

elohim - gods in the ordinary sense,
but also used of The God, YAHWEH.

This is one of the places where carelessness in translation can lead to great confusion.

For the Philistines
this was seen as multiple gods.
They were speaking
from their own perspective,
not that of Yisra'el.
For them there was not "one God",
there were many.
It's the pagan view of the world that many still believe in.

1 Sam. 4:9 Be strong and exist as men,
you Philistines, lest you serve the Hebrews
as they have served for you.
Exist as men and fight!”
1 Sam. 4:10 And the Philistines fought.
And Yisra'el was defeated.
And every man fled to his tent.
And the blow was exceedingly great.
And there fell of Yisra'el
thirty thousand foot soldiers.

1 Sam. 4:11 And The Chest of The Elohim was taken.
And the two sons of Eli were killed,
Hophni and Pin'has.

1 Sam. 4:12 And a man of Binyamin
ran from the arrangement.
And he came to Shiloh that day.
And his garments were torn.
And soil was on his head.
1 Sam. 4:13 And he came in.
And behold!
Eli was sitting on his seat by the road,
watching because his heart was fearful concerning The Chest of The Elohim.
And the man came in to declare it in the city.
And he reported it.
And all the city cried out.

1 Sam. 4:14 And Eli heard
the noise of the cry itself תא.
And he said,
“What is the sound of this noise?”
And the man hurried.
And he came.
And he declared it to Eli.

1 Sam. 4:15 Now Eli was ninety eight years old.
And his eyes stood shut.
And he was not able to see.

1 Sam. 4:16 And the man said to Eli,
“I am the one coming from the arrangement.
And I myself fled today from the arrangement.”
And he said, “What was the word, my son?”
1 Sam. 4:17 And the herald responded.
And he said,

“Yisra’el has fled before the Philistines.
And also there has been a great defeat
among the people.
And also your two sons have died,
Hophni and Pin’has.
And The Chest of The Elohim has been taken.”

1 Sam. 4:18 And it was as he made mention of The Chest of The Elohim itself תא.
And he fell from upon the seat,
backward, behind it, beside the gate.
And his neck was broken.
And he died because the man was old and he was heavy.

And he had judged Yisra’el itself תא forty years.

1 Sam. 4:19 And his daughter-in-law, Pin’has’ wife,
was pregnant, about to bear.
And she heard the announcement itself תא concerning the taking
of The Chest of The Elohim,
and that her father-in-law
and her husband had died.
And she gave birth
because her pains came upon her.

1 Sam. 4:20 And it was at the time of her death.
And the women standing by her said to her,
“Do not be afraid!
Indeed, you have given birth to a son.”
But she did not respond.
And she did not set her heart to it.

1 Sam. 4:21 And she called the child Ikabod saying,
“The splendor has been stripped away from Yisra’el!”,
concerning the taking
of The Chest of The Elohim,
and concerning her father-in-law
and her husband.

Ikabod means no splendor.

1 Sam. 4:22 And she said, “The splendor has been stripped away from Yisra’el!
because The Chest of The Elohim has been taken.”

*This is an odd duplication of the text.
It appears to be a copyist error.*

Chapter 5

1 Sam. 5:1 And the Philistines took
The Chest of The Elohim itself תא.
And they brought it
from Eben Ha’ezer to Ashdod.

1 Sam. 5:2 And the Philistines took
The Chest of The Elohim itself תא.
And they brought it itself תא
into the house of Dagon.

And they set it itself תא beside Dagon.

1 Sam. 5:3 And early in the morning
on the next day
the Ashdodites arose.

And behold!
Dagon had fallen on its face to the ground
before The Chest of YAHWEH.

And they took Dagon itself תא.
And they returned it itself תא to its place.

*Note: The reference to Dagon is neuter.
It is not a "he",
it is an "it", a thing, not a "god",
not a living thing.*

1 Sam. 5:4 And they rose early in the morning of the next day.
And behold!

Dagon had fallen on its face to the ground before The Chest of YAHWEH.
And the head of Dagon and both its palms were cut off on the threshold.
Only Dagon remained of it.

1 Sam. 5:5 For this reason the priests of Dagon and all who come into the house of Dagon do not walk upon the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod until this day.

1 Sam. 5:6 And the hand of YAHWEH was heavy against the Ashdodites.
And He devastated them.
And He struck they themselves תא with tumors, Ashdod itself תא and its territories themselves תא.
The tumors are also referred to as emrods.
We'd know them better as hemorrhoids.

1 Sam. 5:7 And the men of Ashdod saw that it was so.
And they said,
"The Chest of the The Elohim of Yisra'el is not to remain with us because His hand has been severe upon us and upon Dagon, our god."

1 Sam. 5:8 And they sent.
And they gathered to them all the leaders of the Philistines themselves תא.
And they said, "What do we do concerning The Chest of the The Elohim of Yisra'el?"
And they said,
"The Chest of the The Elohim of Yisra'el will go to Gath."
And they moved
The Chest of The Elohim of Yisra'el.

1 Sam. 5:9 And it was after they moved it itself תא.
And the hand of YAHWEH was against the city with a very great confusion.
And He struck the men themselves תא of the city from the least to the greatest.
And tumors broke out on them.

1 Sam. 5:10 And they sent
The Chest of The Elohim itself תא to Ekron.
And it was as The Chest of The Elohim came to Ekron.
And the Ekronites cried out saying,
"They have moved
The Chest of The The Elohim of Yisra'el itself תא
to us for the sake of killing us
and our people themselves תא!"

1 Sam. 5:11 And they sent.
And they gathered all the leaders of the Philistines themselves תא.
And they said, "Send away
The Chest of the The Elohim of Yisra'el itself תא.
And return it to its own place.
Then it will not kill us ourselves תא
and our people themselves תא."
Indeed, there was a deadly confusion throughout the entire the city.
The hand of The Elohim was very heavy there.
1 Sam. 5:12 And the men who did not die were struck with tumors.
And the cry of the city went up to the skies.

Chapter 6

1 Sam. 6:1 And The Chest of YAHWEH was in the domain of the Philistines seven months.

1 Sam. 6:2 And the Philistines called for priests and diviners saying, “What are we to do with The Chest of YAHWEH?
Discern for us into what place we are to send it.”
1 Sam. 6:3 And they said,
“When you send away The Chest itself תא
of the The Elohim of Yisra’el
you are not to send it itself תא without something.
Indeed, you are to return it,
return it with a liability offering.
Then you will be healed.
And it will be known to you why His hand
has not been turned aside from you.”
1 Sam. 6:4 And they said,
“What is the liability offering,
the liability offering which we are to return to Him?”
And they said,
“The number of the leaders of the Philistines.
Five golden tumors, and five golden mice,
because the same pestilence
was upon all of you and upon your leaders.

1 Sam. 6:5 And you are to make likenesses of your tumors and likenesses of your mice
that are corrupting the land itself תא.

And you are to give honor to the The Elohim of Yisra’el.
Perhaps He will lighten His hand itself תא
from upon you,
from upon your gods,
and from upon your land.

1 Sam. 6:6 And why do you burden your hearts themselves תא
as the Mitsraites and Pharaoh burdened their hearts themselves תא
according to how He dealt with them?
And they sent them away.
And they went.

1 Sam. 6:7 And now, take and make a new cart and two milk cows
which have not come under the yoke.
And hitch the cows themselves תא to the cart.
And return their calves home from behind them.

1 Sam. 6:8 And you are to take
The Chest of YAHWEH itself תא.
And you are to set it itself תא on the cart.
And you are to put
all the objects of the gold themselves תא
which you are returning to Him
as a liability offering in a box beside it.
And you are to send away it itself תא.
And it will go.
1 Sam. 6:9 And you are to observe.
If it goes the way to its own border,
goes up to Bayit Shemesh,
He has done to us this great evil itself תא.

And if not then we will know that it was not His hand that struck against us.
A chance event has existed for us.”

1 Sam. 6:10 And the men did according to this.
And they took two milk cows.
And they hitched them to the cart.
And their calves themselves תא
they shut up at home.

1 Sam. 6:11 And they placed
The Chest of YAHWEH itself תא on the cart and the box itself תא
and the golden mice themselves תא
and the likenesses of their tumors themselves תא.
The tumors were hemorrhoids.

1 Sam. 6:12 And the cows went straight on the road upon the way to Bayit Shemesh along the one highway.
And they were bellowing.
And they did not turn aside, right or left.
And the leaders of the Philistines
walked behind them
as far as the border of Bayit Shemesh.

1 Sam. 6:13 And Bayit Shemesh was reaping their wheat harvest in the valley.
And they lifted up their eyes themselves תא.
And they saw The Chest itself תא.
And they rejoiced to see it.
Given that this was the wheat harvest
we can ascertain that this was perhaps at the time of Shavuot (Pentecost).

1 Sam. 6:14 And the cart went into the field
of Yahoshua of Bayit Shemesh.
And it stood there.
And there was a large stone.
And they split the wood of the cart itself תא.
And the cows themselves תא they offered up
as an olah to YAHWEH.
olah - a step; usually a holocaust
(as going up in smoke).
This refers to the ascent of the smoke of what's traditionally translated as "the burnt offering".
It was an offering of total consumption.
Everything was turned into smoke.
It indicated a total surrender to YAHWEH.

1 Sam. 6:15 And the Levites lowered
The Chest of YAHWEH itself תא
and the box itself תא that was with it itself תא
in which were the objects of gold.
And they placed them on the large stone.

And the men of Bayit Shemesh sent up olahs.
And they slaughtered sacrifices
on that day to YAHWEH.

1 Sam. 6:16 And the five leaders of the Philistines saw it.
And they returned to Ekron on that day.

1 Sam. 6:17 And these are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned as a liability offering to YAHWEH;
one for Ashdod,
one for Azzah,
one for Ashkelon,
one for Gath,
one for Ekron.

1 Sam. 6:18 And the golden mice
according to the number
of all the cities of the Philistines,
of the five leaders,
both walled cities and country villages,
even as far as the great meadow
in which had come to rest upon it
The Chest of YAHWEH itself תא.
To this day they are in the field
of Yahoshua of Bayit Shemesh.

1 Sam. 6:19 And He struck against the men of Bayit Shemesh because they had looked into The Chest of YAHWEH.

He struck among the people
seventy men of fifty thousand.
And the people mourned
because YAHWEH struck among the people with a great blow.

1 Sam. 6:20 And the men of Bayit Shemesh said,
"Who is able to stand before the face of YAHWEH, The Elohim, this set apart One?
And to whom will it go up from beside us?"
1 Sam. 6:21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiryat Ye'arim saying,
The Philistines have returned again
The Chest of YAHWEH itself תא.
Come down! Take it up to you!"

Chapter 7

1 Sam. 7:1 And the men of Kiryat Ye'arim came.
And they lifted up
The Chest of YAHWEH itself תא.
And they went with it itself תא
to the house of Abinadab on the hill.
And they consecrated El'azar, his son,
for the sake of protecting
The Chest of YAHWEH itself תא.
Abinadab means father of generosity.
El'azar means El is helper.

1 Sam. 7:2 And it was from that day
The Chest remained at Kiryat Ye'arim.
And it was many days.
And it was twenty years.
And all the house of Yisra'el lamented after YAHWEH.

1 Sam. 7:3 And Shemu'el spoke to all the house of Yisra'el saying,
"If with all your hearts you yourselves תא
will return to YAHWEH
and turn away the foreign gods themselves תא
and the Ashtarot from the midst of you,
and establish your hearts toward YAHWEH,
and serve Him only,
then He will deliver you yourselves תא
from the hand of the Philistines."

1 Sam. 7:4 And the children of Yisra'el
turned away from the Ba'als themselves תא
and the Ashtarot themselves תא.
And they served only YAHWEH Himself תא.

1 Sam. 7:5 And Shemu'el said,
"Gather all Yisra'el itself תא to Mitzpah.
And I will intercede over you to YAHWEH."
1 Sam. 7:6 And they gathered to Mitzpah.
And they drew water.
And they poured it out before the face of YAHWEH.
And they fasted on that day.
And they said there,
"We have offended against YAHWEH."

And Shemu'el judged
the children of Yisra'el themselves תא at Mitzpah.

chata - to miss the mark; to sin.
Missing the mark is tied to the Hebrew concept of aiming at a target.
The target is "doing the will of YAHWEH".
to 'miss the mark'
is to fail to DO the will of YAHWEH.
Missing it results
in an offense against YAHWEH
for which there is a penalty,

proscribed in The Garden of Eden, namely DEATH!

To offend YAHWEH is to create an obligation,
a debt, that you owe to Him.
It's from this that we end up with the concept of a "offense debt".

We are never able, on our own,
to repay that debt.
Our only hope lies in YAHWEH.
And He has provided the means for "redemption" from that debt
in His Promised Messiah.

1 Sam. 7:7 And the Philistines heard that the children of Yisra'el had gathered together at Mitzpah.
And the leaders of the Philistines
went up toward Yisra'el.
And the children of Yisra'el heard.
And they were afraid
before the face of the Philistines.

1 Sam. 7:8 And the children of Yisra'el
said to Shemu'el,
"Do not cease to cry out to YAHWEH, our Elohim,
that He will deliver us
from the hand of the Philistines."

1 Sam. 7:9 And Shemu'el took one sucking lamb.
And he offered it up as a whole olah to YAHWEH.
And Shemu'el cried out to YAHWEH
on behalf of Yisra'el.
And YAHWEH responded to him.

1 Sam. 7:10 And Shemu'el was offering up the olah.
And the Philistines drew near
for the sake of battling against Yisra'el.

And YAHWEH thundered with a great sound
on that day over the Philistines.
And He disturbed them.
And they were defeated
before the face of Yisra'el.

1 Sam. 7:11 And the men of Yisra'el
went out from Mitzpah.
And they pursued the Philistines themselves תא.
And they struck them as far as below Bayit Kar.

1 Sam. 7:12 And Shemu'el took one stone.
And he set it up between Mitzpah and Shen.
And called its name itself תא Eben Ha'ezer.
And he said,
"As far as this YAHWEH has helped us."

1 Sam. 7:13 And the Philistines were humiliated.
And they did not again come into the border of Yisra'el.

And the hand of YAHWEH
was against the Philistines
all the days of Shemu'el.

1 Sam. 7:14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Yisra'el itself תא
were returned to Yisra'el, from Ekron to Gath.
And the borders of Yisra'el themselves תא
were snatched away
from the hands of the Philistines.
And there was peace
between Yisra'el and the Amorites.

1 Sam. 7:15 And Shemu'el judged Yisra'el itself תא
all the days of his life.
1 Sam. 7:16 And he walked from year to year.

And he circled around to Bayit El,
and to Gilgal, and to Mitzpah.
And he judged Yisra'el itself נא
at all these places themselves נא.
1 Sam. 7:17 And he returned to Ramah
because his home was there.
And there he judged Yisra'el itself נא.
And there he built a slaughter site to YAHWEH.

Chapter 8

1 Sam. 8:1 And it was when Shemu'el was old.
And he placed his sons themselves נא
as rulers for Yisra'el.
1 Sam. 8:2 And the name of his firstborn was Yo'el.
And the name of his second, Abiyah, judges in Be'ersheba.

Yo'el means YAHWEH is El.

Abiyah means my father is YAH.

1 Sam. 8:3 But his sons did not walk in his ways.
And they turned away after the unjust gain.
And they accepted bribes.
And they turned away judgment.

1 Sam. 8:4 And all the elders of Yisra'el
gathered together.

And they came to Shemu'el at Ramah.

1 Sam. 8:5 And they said to him,
"Behold!

You yourself נא are old.

And your sons do not walk in your ways.

Now place for us a king

for the sake of judging us like all the nations."

1 Sam. 8:6 But the word was bad in the eyes of Shemu'el
according to what they had said,
"Give to us a king to judge us."

And Shemu'el prayed to YAHWEH.

1 Sam. 8:7 And YAHWEH said to Shemu'el,

"Listen attentively to the voice of the people
according to everything they say to you.

Indeed, it is not you yourself נא
they have spurned.

Indeed, it is I Myself נא they have spurned
from reigning over them!

1 Sam. 8:8 According to all the actions which they have done
since the day I brought up they themselves נא
from Mitsraim and until this day,
even abandoning Me and serving other gods,
according to this they are also doing to you.

1 Sam. 8:9 And now
listen attentively to their voice.
However, testify, testify against them!
And declare to them the regulations of the king who is to reign over them."

YAHWEH tells Shemu'el

to listen to the people,

BUT to warn them seriously about what they are really asking for!

Here is another principle found often in Scripture

- YAHWEH gives the people what they want,

but only after warning them beforehand

of the consequences

they will bring upon themselves.

1 Sam. 8:10 And Shemu'el spoke all the words of YAHWEH Himself נא to the people asking he himself נא for a king.

1 Sam. 8:11 And he said,

"This is the regulations of the king

who will reign over you.
Your sons themselves תא he will take.
And he will place them on his own chariots,
and as his horsemen.
And they will run in front of his chariots.
1 Sam. 8:12 And he will place captains over his thousands and captains over his fifties.
And they will plow his ground,
and reap his harvest,
and make his implements for war
and implements for his chariots.

1 Sam. 8:13 And your daughters themselves תא
he will take for perfumers,
and cooks,
and bakers.
1 Sam. 8:14 And the best of your fields themselves תא,
and your vineyards themselves תא,
and your olives he will take.
And he will give them to his servants.
1 Sam. 8:15 And of your seed and of your vineyards a tenth he will take.
And he will give it
to his officers and to his servants.

1 Sam. 8:16 And your male servants themselves תא and your female servants themselves תא and your best young men themselves תא
and your male asses themselves תא he will take.
And he will use them for his own tasks.
1 Sam. 8:17 A tenth of your sheep he will take.
And you yourselves תא will be his servants.
1 Sam. 8:18 And you will cry out on that day from before the face of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves.

But YAHWEH will not respond to you yourselves תא on that day.”

1 Sam. 8:19 But the people
refused to listen attentively to the voice of Shemu'el.
And they said, "Not if a king is over us!
1 Sam. 8:20 Then we will also be like all the nations.
And our king will judge us.
And he will go out before us.
And he will fight our battles themselves תא.”

1 Sam. 8:21 And Shemu'el listened attentively to all the words themselves תא of the people.
And he spoke them in the ears of YAHWEH.
1 Sam. 8:22 And YAHWEH said to Shemu'el,
"Listen attentively to their voice.
And cause a king to reign over them."
And Shemu'el said to the men of Yisra'el,
"Each man is to go to his city.”

Chapter 9

1 Sam. 9:1 And there was a man from Binyamin.
And his name was Kish,
son of Abi'el, son of Tzeror,
son of Bekorat, son of Aphyiah,
son of a Binyamite man,
a mighty man of strength.
Kish means a bow.
Abi'el means El is my father.
Tzeror means a parcel.
Bekorat means firstborn.
Aphyiah meaning uncertain.

1 Sam. 9:2 And he had a son whose name was Sha'ul,
a choice man and pleasing.
And there was not a man
more pleasing than he,

from the shoulders and upward taller than all the people.

Sha'ul means asked, requested.

1 Sam. 9:3 And the male asses of Kish,
father of Sha'ul, had wandered away.
And Kish said to his son Sha'ul,
"Please take, you yourself נא,
one of the servants themselves נא.
And get up!
Go search for the male asses themselves נא!"

1 Sam. 9:4 And he passed over into the mountains of Ephraim.
And he passed over
into the land of Shalishah.
But they were not found.
And they passed over
into the land of Sha'alim,
and nothing.
And he passed over
into the land of the Binyamites.
But they were not found.

Shalishah means triple land.

Sha'alim means foxes.

1 Sam. 9:5 And they went into the land of Tzuph.
And Sha'ul said to his servant who was with him,
"Come! Let us return lest my father stops caring about the male asses
and is anxious about us."

1 Sam. 9:6 And he said to him,
"Behold!
There is a man of The Elohim in this city.
And the man is honored.
All that he says comes, it comes.
Now let us go there.
Perhaps he will declare to us
the way itself נא which we are to go upon."

1 Sam. 9:7 And Sha'ul said to his servant,
"And behold!
We will go.
But what will we bring the man?
Indeed, the food is gone from our bags and there is not a gift to bring to the man of The Elohim.
What do we ourselves נא have?"
1 Sam. 9:8 And again the servant responded to Sha'ul himself נא.
And he said, "Behold!
I have in my hand
one fourth of a shekel of silver.
And I will give it to the man of The Elohim.
And he will declare to us our way itself נא."

1 Sam. 9:9 Formerly in Yisra'el thus a man spoke as he went to inquire of The Elohim,
"Come, and we will go to the seer."
because the prophet of today
was formerly called a seer.

9:10 And Sha'ul said to his servant,
"Your word is good.
Come, we will go."
And they went to the city where the man of The Elohim was.

1 Sam. 9:11 They were going up to the high place of the city.
And they found some young girls
going out to draw water.
And they said to them,
"Does the seer exist in this place?"

1 Sam. 9:12 And they responded
to they themselves תא.
And they said, "Behold!
He is ahead of you.
Hurry now, because he came to this city today because there is a sacrifice today for the people at the high place.

1 Sam. 9:13 As you go into the city, in this manner you will find he himself תא
before he goes up to the high place to eat.
Indeed, the people do not eat until he comes because he blesses the sacrifice.
After that they who are invited will eat.
And now go up
because you will find he himself תא
about this time, he himself תא."

1 Sam. 9:14 And they went up to the city.
They were coming into the city.
And behold!
Shemu'el was coming out toward them
for the sake of going up to the high place.

1 Sam. 9:15 And YAHWEH had revealed in the ear of Shemu'el itself תא
one day before Sha'ul came saying,
1 Sam. 9:16 "At this time tomorrow
I will send to you a man from the land of Binyamin.
And you are to anoint him leader
over My people, Yisra'el.
And he will deliver
My people themselves תא
from the hand of the Philistines.

Indeed, I have seen My people themselves תא.
Indeed, their cry has come to Me."

nagid - a commander (as occupying the front),
civil, military or religious.
This term has unique significance
among the Hebrews.
It's used in connection with the coming Messiah.
It holds a position
of supreme respect and admiration.

1 Sam. 9:17 And Shemu'el saw Sha'ul himself תא.
And YAHWEH said to him,
"Behold the man of I whom spoke to you!
This one is to rule among My people!"

The phrase "behold the man"
is most likely familiar to you.
It's of particular interest here because of its link to the nagid,
a term that connects to The Messiah,
just as this phrase also does.

Sha'ul is YAHWEH's Chosen Leader
for His people.
Hopefully you can grasp the significance.

1 Sam. 9:18 And Sha'ul came near to Shemu'el himself תא at the gate.
And he said, "Please declare to me,
where is the house of the seer?"
1 Sam. 9:19 And Shemu'el responded to Sha'ul himself תא.

And he said, "I am the seer.
Go up before me to the high place.
And you are to eat with me today.
And I will send you away tomorrow.
And all that is in your heart
I will declare to to you.
1 Sam. 9:20 And concerning your male asses
that wandered away three days ago,
do not set your heart itself תא concerning them.

Indeed, they have been found.

And for whom is all the delight of Yisra'el?
Is it not on you and on all your father's house?"

1 Sam. 9:21 And Sha'ul responded. And he said,
"Am I not a son of Binyamin,
from the least of the tribes of Yisra'el.
And my family is the smallest of all the families of the tribe of Binyamin?
And why do you speak to me according to this?"

1 Sam. 9:22 And Shemu'el took Sha'ul himself תא and his servant himself תא
and he brought them into the room.
And he gave to them a place
at the head of those who were invited.
And there were about thirty men.

1 Sam. 9:23 And Shemu'el said to the cook,
"Bring the portion itself תא which I gave you,
which I said to you, "Set it itself תא beside you."

1 Sam. 9:24 And the cook raised up the thigh itself תא
and what was on it.
And he placed it before Sha'ul.

And Shemu'el said, "Behold!
That which was reserved
has been placed before you.
Eat it!
Indeed, for this appointed time
it has been kept for you for the sake of speaking to the people I have invited.
And Sha'ul ate with Shemu'el on that day itself.
1 Sam. 9:25 And they went down from the high place into the city.
And Shemu'el spoke with Sha'ul on the roof.

1 Sam. 9:26 And they rose early.
And it was about the dawning of the day.
And Shemu'el called to Sha'ul on the roof saying,
"Get up! And I will send you away."
And Sha'ul got up.
And both of them went outside, he and Shemu'el.
1 Sam. 9:27 They were going down to the edge of the city.
And Shemu'el said to Sha'ul,
"Say to the servant, 'Pass over before us.'
And he passed over.
"But you yourself תא stand here a while and I will cause you to hear the word itself תא of The Elohim."

Chapter 10

1 Sam. 10:1 And Shemu'el took
the flask of oil itself תא.
And he poured it on his head.
And he kissed him.
And he said, "Is it not because YAHWEH
has anointed you leader over His inheritance?

Most translations merge phrases
into long sentences.
The Hebrew tends to separate each idea
into its own statement.
This adds emphasis to each specific act of the text.

1 Sam. 10:2 When you leave today from along side of me
then you will find two men
by the tomb of Rachel in the territory of Binyamin at Tzeltzah.

And they will say to you,
'The male asses have been found which you went to search for.
And behold!
Your father has left the matters themselves תא
of the male asses
and he is anxious concerning you saying,
"What am I to do concerning my son?" '

Tzeltzah means clear shade.

1 Sam. 10:3 And you are to pass over from there.
And you are to go as far as the oak of Tabor.
And you will find there three men going up to The Elohim at Bayit El.
One will be carrying three young goats.
Another will be carrying three loaves of bread.
And another will be carrying a skin of wine.

The specifics of verses like this reveal to us that there is no detail of our lives that is so insignificant that YAHWEH is not able to use them
for His purposes.

1 Sam. 10:4 And they will inquire of you concerning your welfare.
And they will give to you two loaves of bread.
And you are to accept it from their hands.

1 Sam. 10:5 After that you are to go to the hill of The Elohim
where there is a garrison of the Philistines.
And it will be as you come there to the city
that you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place.
And before them will be a stringed instrument,
and a tambourine,
and a flute,
and a harp before them.
And they will be prophesying.

naba - speak or sing by inspiration; prophesy.
This is NOT the normal
understanding of prophesying, which is typically considered to be foretelling the future.

That is NOT the purpose of prophecy.
Rather, it is speaking the word of YAHWEH
as it has been given to you by Him.
It has to do with educating people
concerning His will,
not merely predicting the future.

1 Sam. 10:6 And The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
will come mightily upon you.
And you will prophesy with them.
And you will be transformed into another kind of man.

ruach - wind; by resemblance breath.
Incorrectly translated in most cases as "spirit".
There was never a concept of "spirit"
in Hebrew thought.
That is a Greek concept.
It has no place in a Hebrew text!

The literal sense would be the breath of YAHWEH.
If you consider the creation of Adam
it will help you conceptualize this.
YAHWEH breathed into him the breath of life.

That was, as near as we can discern,
The Divine Nature being placed in the newly created human being.

What's referred to as "The Holy Spirit" is not a separate "person" at all,
but is the very nature,
the inner essence, of YAHWEH Himself!

Sha'ul was going to be transformed into "another man".
He was going to be given
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH!
This is virtually identical with "The New Birth".

In Sha'ul's case it was only for him because he had been chosen by YAHWEH
to be His representative leader of His people, Yisra'el!!!

1 Sam. 10:7 And it will be as these signs themselves nx come to you that you are to do for yourself
what your hand finds.
Indeed, The Elohim is with you.

1 Sam. 10:8 And you are to go down before me to Gilgal.
And behold!
I am coming down to you for the sake of offering up olahs
and sacrifices of shelem.

Seven days you are to wait until I come to you!
And I will make known to you what itself nx you are to do."

shelem - properly, requital (pay back),
i.e. a (voluntary) sacrifice of thanks.
This is traditionally translated
as "peace offering".
It is more properly a free will offering of thanksgiving.

1 Sam. 10:9 And it was as he had turned his back to go from Shemu'el.
And The Elohim changed his heart
to a different one.

And all these signs themselves nx
came about on that day.

In New Covenant terms
Sha'ul was transformed in his heart.
He was "changed" into a "new man".

This is virtually identical with the new birth
that was taught by YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.
(His name was never "Jesus".)

1 Sam. 10:10 And they came there to the hill.
And behold!
A group of prophets met him.
And The Divine Nature of The Elohim
came mightily upon him.
And he prophesied among them.

1 Sam. 10:11 And it was everyone that knew him
yesterday and the day before.
And they observed.
And behold!
The people of prophets were prophesying.
And the people said to each other,
"What is this that has happened to the son of Kish?
Is Sha'ul among the prophets."
1 Sam. 10:12 And a man there responded.
And he said, "And who is their father?"

For this reason it became a proverb,
"Is Sha'ul also among the prophets?"

1 Sam. 10:13 And he finished prophesying.
And he went to the high place.

1 Sam. 10:14 And the uncle of Sha'ul said to him and to his servant,
"Where did you go?"

And he said,
"To search for the male asses themselves תא.
And we saw they were nowhere.
And we went to Shemu'el."
1 Sam. 10:15 And the uncle of Sha'ul said,
"Declare to me now what Shemu'el said to you."
1 Sam. 10:16 And Sha'ul said to his uncle,
"He declared, declared to us that the male asses had been found."

But of the word of the kingdom itself תא,
he did not declare to him
what Shemu'el had said.

1 Sam. 10:17 And Shemu'el called together
the people themselves תא
to YAHWEH at Mitzpah.
1 Sam. 10:18 And he said to the children of Yisra'el,
"Thus said YAHWEH, the The Elohim of Yisra'el.
'I brought up Yisra'el itself תא out of Mitsraim.
And I delivered you yourselves תא
from the hand of the Mitsraites
and from the hand of every kingdom,
those who were oppressing you yourselves תא.'
1 Sam. 10:19 But you yourselves תא
have spurned your Elohim Himself תא,
He Who is your deliverer
out of all your bad things and your troubles!
And you have said to Him,
'Indeed, a king is to be placed over us!'

And now station yourselves
before the face of YAHWEH
by your tribes and by your families!"

1 Sam. 10:20 And Shemu'el brought near
all the tribes of Yisra'el themselves תא.
And the tribe of Binyamin was caught.
1 Sam. 10:21 And he brought near the tribe of Binyamin itself תא by their families.
And the family of Matri was caught.
And Sha'ul, son of Kish, was caught.
And they sought him.
But he was not found.
Matri means rainy.

1 Sam. 10:22 And they inquired again with YAHWEH.
"Has the man come here yet?"
And YAHWEH said, "Behold!
He is hiding beside the equipment."

1 Sam. 10:23 And they ran.
And they brought him from there.
And he stood among the people.
And he was taller than all of the people from his shoulders and upwards.

1 Sam. 10:24 And Shemu'el said
to all the people,
"Do you see him whom YAHWEH
has selected as His?
Indeed, there is no one like him
among all the people?"

And all the people shouted.
And they said, "May the king live!"

1 Sam. 10:25 And Shemu'el spoke to the people
the regulations of the kingdom.
And he wrote it in a document.
And he set it down before the face of YAHWEH.

And Shemu'el sent away
all the people themselves תא,
each man to his house.

1 Sam. 10:26 And Sha'ul also went to his house, to Gib'ah.
And able men went with him
whose hearts The Elohim had touched.

1 Sam. 10:27 But the sons of worthlessness said,
"How can this one deliver us?"
And they held him in contempt.
And they brought him no gifts.
But he was silent.

Chapter 11

1 Sam. 11:1 And Nahash the Ammonite went up.
And he encamped against Yabesh Gil'ad.
And all the men of Yabesh said to Nahash,
"Cut a covenant with us and we will serve you."

Nahash means serpent.

1 Sam. 11:2 And Nahash the Ammonite said to them,
"According to this
I will cut a covenant with you,
according to boring out all your right eyes.
And I will place disgrace upon all Yisra'el."

1 Sam. 11:3 And the elders of Yabesh said to him,
"Give us a break for seven days.
And we will send messengers
into all the borders of Yisra'el.
And if no one is delivering us ourselves תא
then we will come out to you."

1 Sam. 11:4 And the messengers went to Gib'ah of Sha'ul.
And they spoke the words
in the ears of the people.
And all the people
lifted up their voices themselves תא.
And they wept.

1 Sam. 11:5 And behold!
Sha'ul was coming behind the herd from the field.
And Sha'ul said, "What is with the people that they are weeping?
And they reported to him
the words themselves תא
of the men of Yabesh.

1 Sam. 11:6 And The Divine Nature of The Elohim
came mightily upon Sha'ul
as he was listening attentively
to these words themselves תא.
And his anger flared up exceedingly.
1 Sam. 11:7 And he took a yoke of oxen.
And he dismembered them.
And he sent them into all the territory of Yisra'el
by the hands of messengers saying,
"Whoever does not go out behind Sha'ul
and behind Shemu'el,
thus will be done to his oxen."

And the fear of YAHWEH fell upon the people.
And they came out as one man.
1 Sam. 11:8 And he numbered them at Bezek.
And the children of Yisra'el
were three hundred thousand.
And the men of Yahudah thirty thousand.

1 Sam. 11:9 And they said
to the messengers who came,
"According to this
say to the men of Yabesh Gil'ad,

'Tomorrow there will be a rescue for you when the sun is hot.' ”

And the messengers went.
And they informed the men of Yabesh.
And they rejoiced.
1 Sam. 11:10 And the men of Yabesh said, “Tomorrow we will come out to you.
And you can do to us
whatever seems good to you.”

1 Sam. 11:11 And it was the next day.
And Sha'ul placed the people themselves nx
into three companies.
And they went into the midst of the assembly
at the morning watch.
And they struck
the Ammonites themselves nx
until the heat of the day.
And it was those remaining.
And they were scattered.
And no two of them remained together.

1 Sam. 11:12 And the people said to Shemu'el,
“Who said, ‘Will Sha'ul reign over us?’
Bring the men.
And we will put them to death.”
1 Sam. 11:13 But Sha'ul said,
“No man will be put to death this day because today YAHWEH
has caused a deliverance in Yisra'el.”

1 Sam. 11:14 And Shemu'el said to the people,
“Come, and we will go to Gilgal.
And we will renew the kingdom there.”
1 Sam. 11:15 And all the people went to Gilgal.
And there they caused to reign Sha'ul himself nx
before the face of YAHWEH at Gilgal.
And there they slaughtered there sacrifices of shelem before the face of YAHWEH.
And Sha'ul rejoiced there and all the men of Yisra'el, exceedingly.

Chapter 12

1 Sam. 12:1 And Shemu'el said to all Yisra'el,
“Behold!
I have listened attentively to your voice
in all that you said to me.
And I have caused a king to reign over you.
1 Sam. 12:2 And now, behold!
The king is walking before you.
And I myself am old and gray.
And behold!
My sons are with you yourselves nx.
And I myself have walked before you from my youth until this day.
1 Sam. 12:3 Behold!
Respond against me in front of YAHWEH
and in front of His anointed.
Whose ox itself nx have I taken?
And whose male ass have I taken?
And who himself nx have I crushed?
And from whose hand have I received any bribe and blinded my eyes with it?
Then I will restore it to you.”

1 Sam. 12:4 And they said,
“You have not oppressed us.
And you have not crushed us.
And you have not taken any bribe from anyone's hand.”
1 Sam. 12:5 And he said to them, “YAHWEH is witness against you.

And His anointed is witness today
that you have not found anything in my hand.”
And they answered, “He is witness.”

1 Sam. 12:6 And Shemu'el said to the people, “It is YAHWEH Who made Moshe himself תא
and Aharon himself תא,
and Who brought up your fathers themselves תא
from the land of Mitsraim.

1 Sam. 12:7 And now station yourselves.
And I will judge you yourselves תא
before the face of YAHWEH
by all the right actions themselves תא of YAHWEH
which He has done with you yourselves תא
and with your fathers themselves תא.

1 Sam. 12:8 When Ya'akov went to Mitsraim
then your fathers cried out to YAHWEH.
And YAHWEH sent Moshe himself תא
and Aharon himself תא,
who brought out your fathers themselves תא
out of Mitsraim.
And he caused them to settle in this place.

1 Sam. 12:9 But they forgot YAHWEH Himself תא, their Elohim.
And He sold they themselves תא
into the hand of Sisera,
captain of the army of Hatzor,
and into the hand of the Philistines,
and into the hand of the king of Mo'ab.
And they fought with them.

1 Sam. 12:10 And they cried out to YAHWEH.
And they said,
'We have offended
because we have abandoned YAHWEH Himself תא,
and we have served the Ba'als themselves תא
and the Ashtarot themselves תא.
But now deliver us
from the hand of our adversaries
and we will serve You.'

1 Sam. 12:11 And YAHWEH sent Yerubba'al himself תא, and Bedan himself תא,
and Yiphtah himself תא,
and Shemu'el himself תא.
And He delivered you yourselves תא
out of the hand of your adversaries all around.
And you dwelt securely.

1 Sam. 12:12 And you saw that Nahash, king of the children of Ammon,
had come against you.
And you said to me, 'No!
Indeed, a king is to reign over us!'
However, YAHWEH, your Elohim, was your king.

1 Sam. 12:13 And now behold the king
whom you have chosen,
whom you have requested.
And behold!
YAHWEH has set a king over you.

1 Sam. 12:14 If you revere YAHWEH Himself תא
and will serve He Himself תא,
and will listen attentively to His voice,
and not rebel
against the mouth of YAHWEH itself תא,
then you yourselves תא
and also the king who reigns over you are to follow YAHWEH, your Elohim.

1 Sam. 12:15 But if you do not listen attentively to the voice of YAHWEH, and if you rebel against the mouth itself nx of YAHWEH, then the hand of YAHWEH will be against you as it was against your fathers.

There is a fundamental principle of Scripture presented in these verses.
It's repeated often in various stories.
It's the principle of "if...then".
If you'll do this, THEN this will be the result.
It's a powerful teaching method,
but it also identifies that our actions ALWAYS have consequences.

1 Sam. 12:16 And now, station yourselves, and observe this great matter which YAHWEH is doing before your eyes.

1 Sam. 12:17 Is it not the wheat harvest today? I will call to YAHWEH. And He will send thunder and rain. And you will know, and you will see that your evil is great which you have done in the eyes of YAHWEH in asking for yourselves a king."

The wheat harvest places this event at Shavuot (Pentecost).
This is noteworthy.
YAHWEH uses His appointed times to teach major lessons to His people.

1 Sam. 12:18 And Shemu'el called to YAHWEH. And YAHWEH sent thunder and rain that day. And all the people greatly feared YAHWEH Himself nx and Shemu'el himself nx.

1 Sam. 12:19 And all the people said to Shemu'el, "Pray on behalf of your servants to YAHWEH, your Elohim! Then we will not be put to death. Indeed, we have added above all our offenses the evil of asking for ourselves a king."

ra - bad or evil.
This word is traditionally translated as 'evil' in most instances.
This is unfortunate because our concept of 'evil' is very different from 'bad'.

To the Hebrew mind they are one and the same.
For them whatever was bad/evil varied only by degree.
It was seen as a continuum.
It included the mildly 'bad' and the "totally despicable".

1 Sam. 12:20 And Shemu'el said to the people, "Do not be afraid!

You yourselves nx have done all this evil itself nx.

However, do not turn aside from following YAHWEH.

And you are to serve YAHWEH Himself nx with all your heart.

1 Sam. 12:21 And you are not to turn aside after emptiness which does not profit and does not deliver. Indeed, they are emptiness.

1 Sam. 12:22 Indeed, YAHWEH will not abandon His people themselves nx

for the sake of His great Name!
Indeed, YAHWEH was willing to make you yourselves נא His people.

1 Sam. 12: 23 Also, I myself, far be it from me that I should offend against YAHWEH
in ceasing to pray on your behalf.
And I will teach you yourselves נא
the good and straight way.

1 Sam. 12:24 Nevertheless,
revere YAHWEH Himself נא!
And you are to serve He Himself נא
with faithfulness,
with all your heart,
because of what greatness itself נא
He has done with you!

1 Sam. 12:25 But if you do evil, do evil, both you yourselves נא and your king
will be swept away!"

Chapter 13

1 Sam. 13:1 Sha'ul reigned one year.
And two years he reigned over Yisra'el.
1 Sam. 13:2 And Sha'ul chose for himself
three thousand from Yisra'el.
And two thousand were with Sha'ul at Mikmash
and in the mountains of Bayit El.
And a thousand were with Yahanathan
at Gib'ah of Binyamin.
And the rest of the people he sent away,
each man to his tent.

Mikmash means hidden.

1 Sam. 13:3 And Yahanathan struck the garrison itself נא of the Philistines that was at Geba.
And the Philistines heard.
And Sha'ul blew the shofar in all the land saying,
"The Hebrews are to listen attentively!"
1 Sam. 13:4 And all Yisra'el heard saying,
"Sha'ul struck a garrison of the Philistines themselves נא
and also he has caused Yisra'el to stink among the Philistines."
And they called the people together behind Sha'ul at Gilgal.

1 Sam. 13:5 And the Philistines gathered together
for the sake of fighting with Yisra'el
thirty thousand chariots,
and six thousand horsemen,
and people as numerous
as the sand on the seashore.
And they came up.
And they encamped at Mikmash,
east of Bayit Aven.
1 Sam. 13:6 And the men of Yisra'el saw.
Indeed, they were distressed.
Indeed, the people had been driven back.
And the people hid themselves in caves,
and in thickets, and in craggy rocks,
and in strongholds, and in pits.

1 Sam. 13:7 And some Hebrews had passed over The Yarden itself נא
to the land of Gad and Gil'ad.
And Sha'ul was still at Gilgal.
And all the people followed him,
shuddering with fear.

1 Sam. 13:8 And he waited seven days
according to the appointed time for Shemu'el.

But Shemu'el did not come to Gilgal.
And the people scattered from him.

1 Sam. 13:9 And Sha'ul said,
"Bring near an olah
and shelem offerings to me."
And he offered up the olah.
1 Sam. 13:10 And it was as he finished offering the olah.
And behold!
Shemu'el came.
And Sha'ul went out to meet him to bless him.

1 Sam. 13:11 Then Shemu'el said,
"What have you done?"
And Sha'ul said,
"Indeed, I saw that the people
scattered from before me.
And you yourself nx had not come
at the appointed days.
And the Philistines were gathering together
at Mikmash.
1 Sam. 13:12 And I said, 'Now the Philistines will come down on me at Gilgal.
And before the face of YAHWEH
I have not entreated.
And I forced myself.
And I offered up the olah."

1 Sam. 13:13 And Shemu'el said to Sha'ul,
"You have been foolish.
You have not guarded
the directive itself nx of YAHWEH, your Elohim, with which He charged you.

Indeed now, YAHWEH would have established your reign itself nx over Yisra'el until eternity.
1 Sam. 13:14 But now your kingdom will not stand.
YAHWEH will seek for Himself
a man after His own heart.
And YAHWEH will direct him to be leader over His people because you have not protected
what YAHWEH Himself nx directed you."

1 Sam. 13:15 And Shemu'el got up.
And he went up from Gilgal
to Gib'ah of Binyamin.

And Sha'ul numbered the people themselves nx
who were found, about six hundred men.
1 Sam. 13:16 And Sha'ul, and Yahanathan, his son, and the people who were found with him
remained in Gib'ah of Binyamin.
And the Philistines were camped at Mikmash.

1 Sam. 13:17 And destruction went out from the encampment of the Philistines,
three companies.
The one company turned toward the way that leads to Ophrah,
to the land of Sha'ul.
1 Sam. 13:18 And another company turned toward the way of BayitHoron.
And another company turned toward the way of the border that overlooks the Valley of Tzebo'im, toward the wilderness.

1 Sam. 13:19 And no fabricator could be found in all the land of Yisra'el
because the Philistines said,
"Lest the Hebrews make swords or spears."

1 Sam. 13:20 And all Yisra'el went down to the Philistines, each man, to sharpen
his plow itself תא,
and his hoe itself תא,
and his axe itself תא,
and his sickle itself תא.

1 Sam. 13:21 And the filing was two thirds of a shekel
for the plow, and the hoes themselves תא,
and the three pronged forks, and the axes,
and to set the points of the goads.

1 Sam. 13:22 And it was on the day of battle.
And there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people who were with Sha'ul himself תא
and Yahonathan himself תא.
But they were found with Sha'ul
and Yahonathan, his son.

1 Sam. 13:23 And the garrison of the Philistines went out toward the crossing place at Mikmash.

Chapter 14

1 Sam. 14:1 And there was a day.
And Yahonathan, son of Sha'ul,
said to the young lad who was carrying his armor,
"Come!
And we will pass over
to the garrison of the Philistines
which is on the other side of this."
But he did not tell his father.

1 Sam. 14:2 And Sha'ul sat at the edge of Gib'ah
under a pomegranate tree which was at Migron.
And the people who were with him
were about six hundred men.

1 Sam. 14:3 And Ahiyah, son of Ahitub, Ikabod's brother, son of Pin'has, son of Eli,
the priest of YAHWEH at Shiloh,
was wearing an ephod.
And the people did not know that Yahonathan had gone.

1 Sam. 14:4 And between the crossing places
by which Yahonathan sought to pass over
to the garrison of the Philistines
there was a sharp rock on one side and a sharp rock on the other side.
And the name of one was Botzetz.
And the other was Seneh.

Botzetz means shining.
Seneh means thorn.

1 Sam. 14:5 The edge of the one was on the north, opposite Mikmash,
and the other on the south, opposite Gib'ah.

1 Sam. 14:6 And Yahonathan said
to the young lad
who was carrying his equipment,
"Come!
And we will pass over to the garrison of these uncircumcised ones.
Perhaps YAHWEH will prepare for us.
Indeed, there is no restriction for YAHWEH
for delivering by many or by few."
1 Sam. 14:7 And the one carrying his equipment
said to him,
"Do all that is in your heart as you are inclined.
Behold!
I am with you according to your heart."
1 Sam. 14:8 And Yahonathan said,

“Behold!
We will pass over to the men.
And we will reveal ourselves to them.
1 Sam. 14:9 If they say this to us,
‘Be silent until we come to you.’
then we will stand below
and we will not go up to them.
1 Sam. 14:10 But if they say this, ‘Come up to us,’ then we will go up because YAHWEH
has given them into our hand.
And this is the sign.”

1 Sam. 14:11 And both of them revealed themselves
to the garrison of the Philistines.
And the Philistines said, “Behold!
The Hebrews are coming out of the holes
where they have hidden themselves there.”

1 Sam. 14:12 And the men of the garrison responded to Yehonathan himself וְהוֹנָתָן
and to the one himself וְהַיֵּחִיד
carrying his equipment.
And they said, “Come up to us.
And we will cause you yourselves וְאַתֶּם
to know a word.”
And Yehonathan said
to the one carrying his equipment,
“Come up behind me!
Indeed, YAHWEH has given them
into the hand of Yisra’el.”

1 Sam. 14:13 And Yehonathan climbed up on his hands and knees
with the one carrying his equipment behind him.
And they fell before Yehonathan.
And the one carrying his equipment
was putting them to death behind him.

1 Sam. 14:14 And this was the first slaughter which Yehonathan
and the one carrying his equipment had made,
about twenty men in half an acre of land.

1 Sam. 14:15 And there was trembling
in the encampment, in the field,
and among all the people of the garrison.
And destruction shook them also.
And the ground shook.
And it was a trembling of The Elohim.

1 Sam. 14:16 And the watchers of Sha’ul
in Gib’ah of Binyamin looked.
And behold!
The multitude was disappearing.
And it went!
And it was struck down.

1 Sam. 14:17 And Sha’ul said to the people who were with he himself וְהוֹנָתָן, “Number now and see who has gone from us.”
And they numbered.
And behold!
Yehonathan and the one carrying his equipment
were not there.

1 Sam. 14:18 And Sha’ul said to Ahiyah,
“Bring near The Chest of The Elohim.”
Indeed, The Chest of The Elohim
was with the children of Yisra’el on that day.

1 Sam. 14:19 And it existed
until Sha’ul spoke to the priest.
And the tumult which was in the encampment
of the Philistines went on.

And it went on, and it increased.
And Sha'ul said to the priest,
"Withdraw your hand."

1 Sam. 14:20 And Sha'ul was called,
and all the people who were with he himself תא.
And they went as far as the battle.
And behold!
Every man's sword was against his companion,
an exceedingly great confusion.

1 Sam. 14:21 And the Hebrews who were with the Philistines before that time,
who had gone up with them into the encampment, turned around.
And they also were with Yisra'el
who were with Sha'ul and Yahonathan.

1 Sam. 14:22 And all the men of Yisra'el
who had been hiding in the mountains of Ephraim heard that the Philistines had fled.
And they also followed
close after them into battle.

1 Sam. 14:23 And YAHWEH delivered that day
Yisra'el itself תא.
And the battle passed over to Bayit Aven itself תא.

1 Sam. 14:24 And the men of Yisra'el
were distressed that day.
Sha'ul had placed under oath
the people themselves תא
saying, "Bitterly cursed is the man who eats food until the evening and I have been avenged from my adversaries."
And not any of the people had tasted food.

1 Sam. 14:25 And all they of the land went into the forest.
And there was honey on face of the ground.
1 Sam. 14:26 And the people went into the forest.
And behold!
Honey was flowing.
But no one reached his hand to his mouth
because the people feared the oath itself תא.

1 Sam. 14:27 But Yahonathan had not heard that his father had taken an oath
for the people themselves תא.
And he stretched out the end of the staff itself תא
that was in his hand.
And he dipped it itself תא
into the honey of a honeycomb.
And he returned his hand to his mouth.
And his eyes brightened.

1 Sam. 14:28 And a man from the people responded and he said,
"Your father took an oath
of the people themselves תא
saying, 'Bitterly cursed is the man who eats food today.'"

And the people were weary.
1 Sam. 14:29 And Yahonathan said,
"My father has troubled the land itself תא.
Look now!
My eyes brightened
because I tasted a little of this honey.
1 Sam. 14:30 How much better
if the people had eaten today of the spoil of their adversaries which they found.
Indeed, would not the slaughter
among the Philistines have been greater?"

1 Sam. 14:31 And they struck the Philistines that day from Mikdash to Ayalon.
But the people were exceedingly faint.
1 Sam. 14:32 And the people made for the booty.
And they took sheep, and cattle, and calves.
And they slaughtered them on the ground.
And the people fed upon the blood.

1 Sam. 14:33 And they declared it to Sha'ul saying,
"Behold!
The people are offending against YAHWEH
by feeding upon the blood!"
And he said, "You have acted treacherously.
Roll a large stone to me today."

1 Sam. 14:34 And Sha'ul said,
"Scatter among the people and say to them,
'Each man is to bring near to me his ox
and each man his sheep.
And you are to slaughter them on this.
Then you are to eat.
And you are not to offend against YAHWEH
by feeding upon the blood!'"

And everyone of the people brought his ox with him that night and slaughtered it there.
1 Sam. 14:35 And Sha'ul built
a slaughter site to YAHWEH.
It was the first slaughter site
he himself nx built to YAHWEH.

1 Sam. 14:36 And Sha'ul said,
"Let us go down after the Philistines by night
and plunder them until the morning light.
And there will not remain a man of them."
And they said, "Do all that seems good to you."

But the priest said,
"Let us draw near here to The Elohim."
1 Sam. 14:37 And Sha'ul inquired of The Elohim,
"Should I go down after the Philistines?
Will You give them into the hand of Yisra'el?"
But He did not respond to him that day.

1 Sam. 14:38 And Sha'ul said,
"Come near all you leaders of the people, and discern and observe according to what
there was an offense today.

14:39 Indeed, as YAHWEH lives
Who delivers Yisra'el itself nx
even if it exists in Yahonathan, my son,
he will be put to death, put to death!"
But no one responded from among all the people.

1 Sam. 14:40 And he said to all Yisra'el,
"You yourselves nx be on one side,
and my son, Yahonathan, and I will be on the other side.
And the people said to Sha'ul,
"Do what seems good to you."

1 Sam. 14:41 And Sha'ul said to YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el,
"Grant wholeness!"
And Sha'ul and Yahonathan were caught.
And the people went out.

1 Sam. 14:42 And Sha'ul said,
"Let it fall between my son Yahonathan and me."
And Yahonathan was caught.

1 Sam. 14:43 And Sha'ul said to Yehonathan,
"Declare to me what you have done."
And Yehonathan declared it to him.
And he said,
"I tasted, tasted a little honey
with the end of the staff that was in my hand.
Behold!
Put me to death!"
1 Sam. 14:44 And Sha'ul said,
"The Elohim do so and more also!
Indeed, put to death,
you will be put to death, Yehonathan!" 1 Sam. 14:45 But the people said to Sha'ul,
"Yehonathan will not be put to death
who has made this great deliverance in Yisra'el?
Far be it!
As YAHWEH lives, not one hair of his head will fall to the ground because he has done this with The Elohim this day."

And the people ransomed
Yehonathan himself תן.
And he was not put to death.

1 Sam. 14:46 And Sha'ul went up from following the Philistines.
And the Philistines went to their place.

1 Sam. 14:47 And Sha'ul captured
the kingdom over Yisra'el.
And he fought against all his enemies round about,
against Mo'ab,
and against the children of Ammon,
and against Edom,
and against the kings of Tzobah,
and against the Philistines.
And wherever he turned he caused trouble.

1 Sam. 14:48 And he prepared an assembly.
And he struck the Amalekites themselves תן.
And he delivered Yisra'el itself תן
from the hands of those plundering them.

1 Sam. 14:49 And the sons of Sha'ul were Yehonathan,
and Yishvi,
and Malkishua.
And the names of his two daughters were these.
The name of the firstborn Merab
and the name of the younger Mikal.

Yehonathan means given by YAHWEH.
Yishvi means level.
Malkishua means king of wealth;
or king of deliverance.
Merab means increase.
Mikal means a brook.

1 Sam. 14:50 And the name of Sha'ul's wife was Ahino'am, the daughter of Ahima'atz.
And the name of the captain of his army
was Abner, son of Ner, uncle of Sha'ul.

Ahino'am means kindred of pleasantness.
Ahima'atz means kindred of anger.
Abner means father of light.
Ner means light.

1 Sam. 14:51 And Kish was the father of Sha'ul,
and Ner, the father of Abner,
was the son of Abi'el.

Abi'el means El is my father.

1 Sam. 14:52 And there was fierce fighting against the Philistines all the days of Sha'ul.
And when Sha'ul saw any mighty man or any brave man he took him for himself.

Chapter 15

1 Sam. 15:1 And Shemu'el said to Sha'ul,
"YAHWEH sent me myself תא
to anoint you as king
over His people, over Yisra'el.
And now you are to listen attentively
to the voice of the words of YAHWEH!

1 Sam. 15:2 Thus said YAHWEH of Assemblies,
'I will attend to what Amalek himself תא
did to Yisra'el,
what he placed against him on the way
as he came up from Mitsraim.
1 Sam. 15:3 Now, go and strike Amalek himself תא!
And devote to destruction
everything itself תא that is his!
And you are not to have pity on them.
And you are to put to death
from man to woman,
from infant to nursing child,
from ox to sheep,
from camel to male ass.' "

1 Sam. 15:4 And Sha'ul called together
the people themselves תא.
And he numbered them in Tela'im,
two hundred thousand foot soldiers and ten thousand men of Yahudah themselves תא.
Tela'im means lambs.

1 Sam. 15:5 And Sha'ul went
as far as a city of Amalek.
And he laid in wait by the stream.
1 Sam. 15:6 And Sha'ul said to the Kenites,
"Go! Depart!
Go down from among the Amalekites
lest I destroy you with them.
Even you yourselves תא did kindness
to all the children of Yisra'el
as they came up from Mitsraim."
And the Kenites departed
from the midst of the Amalekites.

1 Sam. 15:7 And Sha'ul struck the Amalekites themselves תא
from Havilah as you go to Shur,
which is opposite Mitsraim.
1 Sam. 15:8 And he captured alive
Agag himself תא, king of the Amalekites.
And he devoted to destruction
all the people themselves תא
with the mouth of the sword.

1 Sam. 15:9 But Sha'ul and the people had pity on Agag,
and on the best of the sheep,
and the cattle,
and the fatlings,
and the lambs,
and all that was good.
And they were not willing to devote them to destruction.
But all despised property and waste
they devoted to destruction, it itself תא.

1 Sam. 15:10 And the word of YAHWEH
came to Shemu'el saying,
1 Sam. 15:11 "I am sorry that I have caused Sha'ul himself תא to reign as king.
Indeed, he has turned back from following Me.
And My words themselves תא
he has not established."

And the anger of Shemu'el flared up.
And he cried out to YAHWEH all night.

The key failure here
was not following the instructions of YAHWEH.
That's always the primary issue
with our offenses.

But the second one
is not much less in degree - selfishness!
Ultimately they are one and the same.
What we commonly call "sin"
always involves selfishness!
"I'll do it MY way, not YAHWEH's way!"

1 Sam. 15:12 And Shemu'el rose
early in the morning
for the sake of encountering Sha'ul.
And it was told to Shemu'el, saying,
"Sha'ul went to Carmel.
And behold!
He set up a monument for himself.
And he turned around.
And he passed over.
And he went down to Gilgal."

1 Sam. 15:13 And Shemu'el went to Sha'ul.
And Sha'ul said to him,
"Blessed are you yourself נַח of YAHWEH!
I have established
the word itself נַח of YAHWEH."

1 Sam. 15:14 And Shemu'el said,
"And what is this bleating of the sheep in my ears and the lowing of the cattle which I hear?"
1 Sam. 15:15 And Sha'ul said,
"They have come from Amalek,
where the people took pity
on the best of the sheep and the cattle for the sake of slaughtering
to YAHWEH, your Elohim.
And the rest itself נַח
we have devoted to destruction."

1 Sam. 15:16 And Shemu'el said to Sha'ul,
"Stop!
Even I will declare to you what itself נַח YAHWEH said to me last night."
And he said to him, "Speak!"
1 Sam. 15:17 And Shemu'el said,
"Were you yourself נַח not little in your own eyes?
Yet you yourself נַח are head of the tribes of Yisra'el.
And YAHWEH anointed you king over Yisra'el.
1 Sam. 15:18 And YAHWEH
sent you on your way.
And He said, 'Go!
And you are to devote to destruction
the offenders themselves נַח,
the Amalekites themselves נַח!
And you are to fight against them until they are exterminated,
they themselves נַח!"
1 Sam. 15:19 And why did you not listen attentively
to the voice of YAHWEH?

And you have swooped down upon the booty.
And you have done evil in the eyes of YAHWEH!"

1 Sam. 15:20 And Sha'ul said to Shemu'el,
"I did listen attentively to the voice of YAHWEH.
And I went on the way
on which YAHWEH sent me.
And I have brought Aqag himself נַח, king of Amalek.

And the Amalekites themselves אָ
I have devoted to destruction.
1 Sam. 15:21 And the people took from the booty
sheep and cattle,
the best of that devoted to destruction,
for the sake of sacrificing to YAHWEH, your Elohim, at Gilgal.”

1 Sam. 15:22 And Shemu'el said,
“Does YAHWEH delight in olahs and sacrifices
as He does in one listening attentively
to the voice of YAHWEH?

Behold!
To listen attentively is better than an offering!
To pay attention is better than the fat of rams!

1 Sam. 15:23 Indeed!
The offense of divination is rebellion!
And nothingness and teraphim is aggravation!

Because you have spurned
the word of YAHWEH itself אָ
He also rejects you from kingship!”

1 Sam. 15:24 And Sha'ul said to Shemu'el,
“I have offended!
Indeed, I have passed over the mouth of YAHWEH itself אָ and your words themselves אָ
because I feared the people themselves אָ
and I listened attentively to their voice.

1 Sam. 15:25 And now,
please lift up my offense itself אָ!
And return with me.
And let me prostrate myself toward YAHWEH.”

Do you notice
the whining response of Sha'ul?
Is it familiar to you?
Are you guilty of similar responses
when caught in wrongdoing?
This story is here
to teach us a vital lesson.

1 Sam. 15:26 But Shemu'el said to Sha'ul,
“I will not return with you!
Indeed, you have spurned
the word of YAHWEH itself אָ!
And YAHWEH has spurned you from being king over Yisra'el.”

1 Sam. 15:27 And Shemu'el turned around to go.
And Sha'ul seized the hem of his robe.
And it was torn.

The hem of the robe
was the symbol of one's authority in Yisra'el.
To seize it was to place yourself
under that authority.

In this case the intent is not to put himself under Shemu'el's authority, but rather to stop him from leaving.
The results are disastrous.

1 Sam. 15:28 And Shemu'el said to him, “YAHWEH has torn the kingdom of Yisra'el itself אָ
from upon you today!
And He has given it to an associate of yours,
one better than you.

1 Sam. 15:29 And also,
The Overseer of Yisra'el does not lie.
And He does not regret.
Indeed, He is not a human being for the sake of regretting.”

1 Sam. 15:30 And he said, "I have offended!
But honor me now please before the elders of my people and before Yisra'el and return with me.
And I will prostrate myself toward YAHWEH, your Elohim."

1 Sam. 15:31 And Shemu'el turned back behind Sha'ul.
And Sha'ul prostrated himself toward YAHWEH.

1 Sam. 15:32 And Shemu'el said,
"Bring near to me Agag himself נא,
king of the Amalekites."

And Agag went to him cheerfully.
And Agag said,
"Surely the bitterness of death
has been turned aside."

1 Sam. 15:33 And Shemu'el said,
"Like those women who have been bereaved by your sword,
so also may your mother
be bereaved among women!"
And Shemu'el cut in pieces Agag himself נא
before the face of YAHWEH at Gilgal.

1 Sam. 15:34 And Shemu'el went to Ramah.
But Sha'ul went up to his house
at Gib'ah of Sha'ul.

1 Sam. 15:35 And Shemu'el did not again
see Sha'ul himself נא until the day of his death.
Indeed, Shemu'el mourned for Sha'ul.

And YAHWEH was sorry that He had made Sha'ul himself נא
king over Yisra'el.

Chapter 16

1 Sam. 16:1 And YAHWEH said to Shemu'el,
"Until when will you yourself נא mourn for Sha'ul?
Even I Myself have rejected him
from reigning over Yisra'el.
Fill your horn with oil and go!
I am sending you to Yishai, the Bayit Lechemite.
Indeed, I have seen among his sons
a king for Myself."

Yishai means one who stands out.
Traditionally this is Jesse.

1 Sam. 16:2 And Shemu'el said, "How can I go?
When Sha'ul hears it he will kill me."

And YAHWEH said, "Take with you a heifer cow.
And you are to say,
'I have come for the sake
of sacrificing to YAHWEH.'

1 Sam. 16:3 And you are to call Yishai
to the sacrifice.
And I will cause you to know what itself נא you are to do.
And you are to anoint for Me
whoever himself נא I name to you."

1 Sam. 16:4 And Shemu'el did what itself נא.
YAHWEH had spoken.

And he went to Bayit Lechem.
And the elders of the town
trembled at his coming.

And they said, "Do you come in peace?"

1 Sam. 16:5 And he said, "In peace.

I have come for the sake
of sacrificing to YAHWEH.

Consecrate yourselves.

And you are to come with me myself נא
to the sacrifice."

And Yishai himself נא

and his sons themselves נא

consecrated themselves.

And he called them to the sacrifice.

1 Sam. 16:6 And it was as they were coming.

And he saw Eli'ab himself נא.

And he said, "Surely the anointed of YAHWEH is in front of Him."

Eli'ab means El is my father.

1 Sam. 16:7 But YAHWEH said to Shemu'el,

"Do not look intently at his appearance
nor at the height of his stature.

Indeed, I have rejected him.

Indeed, it is not as a human being sees.

Indeed,

a human being sees according to the eyes.

But YAHWEH sees according to the heart."

1 Sam. 16:8 And Yishai called Abinadab.

And he made him pass over before the face of Shemu'el.

And he said, "Also this one

YAHWEH has not chosen."

Abinadab means father of generosity.

1 Sam. 16:9 Next Yishai

caused to pass over Shammah.

And he said,

"Also this one YAHWEH has not chosen."

Shammah means ruin.

1 Sam. 16:10 And Yishai caused to pass over seven of his sons before the face of Shemu'el.

And Shemu'el said to Yishai,

"YAHWEH has not chosen among these."

1 Sam. 16:11 And Shemu'el said to Yishai,

"Are these all the young men?"

And he said, "There remains yet the youngest.

But behold!

He is tending the sheep."

And Shemu'el said to Yishai,

"Send and bring him!

Indeed, we will not turn round

until he comes here."

1 Sam. 16:12 And he sent.

And he brought him in.

And he was ruddy with beautiful eyes.

And he was good looking.

And YAHWEH said, "Get up!

Anoint him!

Indeed, he is the one!"

1 Sam. 16:13 And Shemu'el took

the horn of oil itself נא.

And he anointed he himself נא

in the midst of his brothers.

And The Divine Nature of YAHWEH

came mightily upon David

from that very day and onward.

And Shemu'el got up.

And he went to Ramah.

1 Sam. 16:14 And The Divine Nature of YAHWEH

departed from Sha'ul.

And he was terrified by a bad nature
from YAHWEH Himself תא.

1 Sam. 16:15 And the servants of Sha'ul
said to him, "Behold now!
A bad nature from The Elohim is terrifying you.
1 Sam. 16:16 Speak now to your servants who are before you to search out a man who knows how to play music on the harp.
And it will exist
as the bad nature from The Elohim is upon you then he will play with his hand and you will be well."

Note: This is the first instance we see in Scripture
where music is used to sooth a disturbed person.
This provides some insight into the way
in which music might affect a person.

1 Sam. 16:17 And Sha'ul said to his servants,
"See to it now for me, a man who plays well,
and bring him to me."

1 Sam. 16:18 And one of the servants responded.
And he said, "Behold!
I have seen a son of Yishai, the Bayit Lechemite,
knowing how to play.
And he is valiant, powerful, and a man of battle.
And he is understanding in words.
And he is handsome.
And YAHWEH is with him."

1 Sam. 16:19 And Sha'ul
sent messengers to Yishai.
And he said,
"Send to me David himself תא, your son who is among the sheep."
David means beloved.

1 Sam. 16:20 And Yishai took a male ass
loaded with bread,
and a skin of wine, and a young goat.
And he sent them in the hand of David, his son, to Sha'ul.

1 Sam. 16:21 And David went to Sha'ul.
And he stood before him.
And he loved him greatly.
And he became his armor bearer.

1 Sam. 16:22 And Sha'ul sent to Yishai saying,
"Please let David stand before me.
Indeed, he has found favor in my eyes."

1 Sam. 16:23 And it was as the bad nature from The Elohim was upon Sha'ul.
And David would take a harp itself תא.
And he played with his hand.
And Sha'ul was refreshed.
And it was good for him.
And the bad nature departed from upon him.

Chapter 17

1 Sam. 17:1 And the Philistines gathered their encampments themselves תא
for the sake of battle.
And they came together at Sokoh,
which belongs to Yahudah.
And they encamped between Sokoh and Azekah,
at Ephes Dammim.

1 Sam. 17:2 And Sha'ul
and the men of Yisra'el were gathered.
And they pitched their tents in the Valley of Elah.

And they arranged for battle
against the Philistines.
1 Sam. 17:3 And the Philistines were standing facing this mountain on one side, and Yisra'el was standing facing this mountain on the other side,
with the valley between them.

1 Sam. 17:4 And a champion came out
from the encampment of the Philistines
named Golyat, from Gath,
whose height was six cubits and a span.

*Golyat means exile.
(Traditionally, Goliath.)
He was approximately seven feet tall.*

1 Sam. 17:5 And a copper helmet was on his head.
And he was clothed
with a breastplate of scaled armor.
And the weight of the coat
was five thousand shekels of copper.

This is roughly 220 pounds of copper.

1 Sam. 17:6 And copper shin guards were on his legs.
And a copper spear was between his shoulders.
1 Sam. 17:7 And the shaft of his spear
was like a weaver's beam.
And its spearhead weighed six hundred shekels of iron.
And one carrying a shield went before him.

1 Sam. 17:8 And he stood.
And he called out
to the arrangement of Yisra'el.
And he said to them,
"Why have you come out to arrange for battle?
Am I not a Philistine
and you yourselves תא the servants of Sha'ul?
Choose for yourselves a man.
And let him come down to me.
1 Sam. 17:9 If he is able to fight with me myself תא
and he kills me,
then we will be your servants.
But if I overcome him and kill him
then you will be our servants.
And you will serve us ourselves תא."
1 Sam. 17:10 And the Philistine said,
"I myself will disgrace
the arrangements of Yisra'el themselves תא
this day.
Give me a man and let us fight together."

1 Sam. 17:11 And Sha'ul and all Yisra'el heard these words themselves תא of the Philistine.
And they were discouraged
and exceedingly afraid.

1 Sam. 17:12 And David was the son of a man,
this Ephrathite of Bayit Lechem in Yahudah.
And his name was Yishai.
And he had eight sons.
And in the days of Sha'ul
the man was old among men.

1 Sam. 17:13 And the three oldest sons of Yishai went behind Sha'ul for battle.
And the names of his three sons who went into battle
were Eli'ab, the firstborn,
and his second, Abinadab,
and the third, Shammah.

1 Sam. 17:14 And David was the youngest.
And the three oldest walked behind Sha'ul.

1 Sam. 17:15 And David was going.

And he was returning from behind Sha'ul
for the sake of feeding the sheep themselves תא
of his father at Bayit Lechem.

1 Sam. 17:16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening.
And he took his stand forty days.

1 Sam. 17:17 And Yishai said to his son David,
"Please take to your brothers
an ephah of this dried grain and these ten loaves.

And run to the encampment for your brothers.

1 Sam. 17:18 And ten cuts of cheeses themselves תא

bring to the captain of the thousand.

And your brothers themselves תא

you are to visit concerning their welfare.

And their pledge itself תא you are to accept."

1 Sam. 17:19 And Sha'ul, and they,
and all the men of Yisra'el
were in the Valley of Elah fighting with the Philistines.

1 Sam. 17:20 And David rose early in the morning.

And he left the sheep themselves תא

with a herdsman.

And he picked up.

And he went as Yishai had directed him.

And he came to the equipment.

And the force was going out to the fight.

And they shouted for battle.

1 Sam. 17:21 And Yisra'el set in array.

And the Philistines arranged for battle, arrangement against arrangement.

1 Sam. 17:22 And David dispersed his supplies themselves תא from upon him into the hand of the keeper of supplies.

And he ran to the arrangement.

And he went and inquired

concerning his brothers' welfare.

1 Sam. 17:23 And he was speaking with them.

And behold!

The champion, the Philistine of Gath,

Golyat by name,

was coming up

from the arrangement of the Philistines.

And he spoke according to the same words.

And David heard.

1 Sam. 17:24 And all the men of Yisra'el

were observing the man himself תא.

And they fled from before him.

And they were exceedingly afraid.

1 Sam. 17:25 And the men of Yisra'el said,

"Have you seen this man who is coming up?

Indeed, he has come up for the sake of disgracing Yisra'el itself תא.

And it will be that the man who strikes him
will be enriched by the king with great riches.

And his daughter herself תא he will give to him.

And his father's household itself תא

he will make exempt in Yisra'el."

The ordering of these verses suggests an editorial alteration of the text.

This could be caused by a damaged copy
where fragments are being put back together.

By watching the context

one can spot these errors.

1 Sam. 17:26 And David spoke to the men standing with him saying, "What is to be done for the man who strikes this Philistine himself תא and takes away disgrace from upon Yisra'el?

Indeed, who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should defame the arrangements of The Living Elohim?"

1 Sam. 17:27 And the people spoke to him according to this word saying, "This is what is done for the man who strikes him."

NOTE: There is evidence here of an edited text.

The repetition is what gives this away.

1 Sam. 17:28 And Eli'ab, his oldest brother, listened attentively as he spoke to the men. And Eli'ab's anger flared up against David. And he said, "Why did you come down here? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness?

I myself know your arrogance itself תא and the badness itself תא of your heart. Indeed, you have come down to see the battle."

1 Sam. 17:29 And David said, "Now what have I done? Was it not but a word?"

1 Sam. 17:30 And he turned around from in front of him toward another. And he spoke according to this same word. And these people returned the word according to the first word.

1 Sam. 17:31 And they listened attentively to the words which David spoke. And they declared them to Sha'ul. And he brought him.

1 Sam. 17:32 And David said to Sha'ul, "Let no man's heart fail on account of him. Your servant will go. And I will fight with this Philistine."

1 Sam. 17:33 And Sha'ul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine for the sake of fighting with him. Indeed, you yourself תא are but a youth, and he is a man of battle from his youth."

1 Sam. 17:34 And David said to Sha'ul, "Your servant has been tending sheep for his father. And a lion came, or a bear itself תא.

And it took a lamb from the flock.

1 Sam. 17:35 I went out after it. And I struck it.

And I rescued it from its mouth.

And when it stood up over me.

I seized it by its beard.

And I struck it.

And I put it to death.

1 Sam. 17:36 Even the lion itself תא, and the bear your servant has struck. And this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them because he has disgraced the arrangements of The Living Elohim."

1 Sam. 17:37 And David said, "YAHWEH, Who has delivered me from the hand of the lion and from the hand of the bear,

He will deliver me
from the hand of this Philistine!"

And Sha'ul said to David, "Go!
And YAHWEH be with you!"
1 Sam. 17:38 And Sha'ul clothed David himself תא
with his armor.
And he put a copper helmet on his head.
And he clothed he himself תא
with a breastplate of armor.

1 Sam. 17:39 And David girded
his sword itself תא over his armor.
And he tried to walk
because he had not tested them.
And David said to Sha'ul,
"I am not able to go with these because I have not tested them."
And David took them off from upon himself.

1 Sam. 17:40 And he took his staff in his hand.
And he chose for himself
five smooth stones from the stream.
And he placed they themselves תא
in a shepherd's bag which was his, even a pouch.
And his sling was in his hand.

And he drew near toward the Philistine.

The purpose of the five stones
is only discovered in later Scripture texts.
Golyat had four brothers.
David selected a stone for each of them
- in the event he needed to kill Golyat's brothers also.

1 Sam. 17:41 And the Philistine came walking onward.
And he was approaching toward David.
And the man carrying the shield was in front of him.
1 Sam. 17:42 And the Philistine looked intently.
And he looked at David himself תא.
And he held him in contempt
because he was a youth and ruddy with beautiful appearance.
1 Sam. 17:43 And the Philistine said to David,
"Am I a dog that you yourself תא
come toward me with sticks?"
And the Philistine made light of David himself תא
with his gods.
1 Sam. 17:44 And the Philistine said to David,
"Come to me!
And I will give your flesh itself תא
to the birds of the skies
and the animals of the field!"

1 Sam. 17:45 But David said to the Philistine,
"You yourself תא come toward me
with a sword,
and with a spear,
and with a javelin.
But I come toward you
in the Name of YAHWEH of Assemblies,
The Elohim of the arrangements of Yisra'el
Whom you have disgraced!

1 Sam. 17:46 This day YAHWEH
will surrender you into my hand!
And I will strike you!
And I will remove from you your head itself תא!
And I will give the carcasses of the encampment of the Philistines this day
to the birds of the skies
and the animals of the earth!

And all the earth will know that there is an Elohim for Yisra'el!

1 Sam. 17:47 And all this assembly will know that not by sword and not by spear
does YAHWEH deliver!
Indeed, the battle belongs to YAHWEH!
And He will give you yourselves אֲנִי
into our hands.”

1 Sam. 17:48 And it was as the Philistine stood up.
And he came.
And he drew near
for the sake of encountering David.

And David hurried.
And he ran toward the arrangement
for the sake of encountering the Philistine.
1 Sam. 17:49 And David put his hand itself אֲנִי
into his bag.
And took from there a stone.
And he slung it.
And it struck the Philistine himself אֲנִי
in his forehead.
And the stone sank into his forehead.
And he fell on his face to the ground.

1 Sam. 17:50 And David prevailed over the Philistine
with a sling and with a stone.
And he struck the Philistine himself אֲנִי.
And he put him to death.

And there was no sword in the hand of David.
1 Sam. 17:51 And David ran.
And he stood over the Philistine.
And he took his sword itself אֲנִי.
And he drew it out of its sheath.
And he put him to death.
And he cut off with it his head itself אֲנִי.

And the Philistines saw that he had put to death their champion.
And they fled.

1 Sam. 17:52 And the men of Yisra'el and Yahudah stood up and shouted.
And they pursued the Philistines themselves אֲנִי
as far as the entrance of the valley,
even to the gates of Ekron.
And the wounded of the Philistines fell along the way to Sha'araim,
even as far as Gath and Ekron.

1 Sam. 17:53 And the children of Yisra'el
returned from chasing the Philistines.
And they plundered
their encampments themselves אֲנִי.

1 Sam. 17:54 And David took
the head itself אֲנִי of the Philistine.
And he brought it to Yerushalaim.
And his armor itself אֲנִי he placed in his tent.

1 Sam. 17:55 And as Sha'ul saw David himself אֲנִי going out against the Philistine he said to Abner,
the captain of the assembly,
“Whose son is this youth, Abner?”
And Abner said,
“As your life lives, my king,
I do not know.”

1 Sam. 17:56 And the king said,
“Inquire whose son this young man is.”

1 Sam. 17:57 And as David returned from slaughtering the Philistine himself אֲנִי

Abner took he himself תא.

And he brought him before the face of Sha'ul.
And the head of the Philistine was in his hand.

1 Sam. 17:58 And Sha'ul said to him,

"Whose son are you, young man?"

And David said,

"The son of your servant
Yishai, the Bayit Lechemite."

These last verses
raise a concern about the text.
If Sha'ul already had David playing the harp
for his "moments of terror"
he would have already known who David was.
This may also be due to a fragmented text
that has been reconstructed incorrectly.

Chapter 18

1 Sam. 18:1 And it was as he finished speaking to Sha'ul.

And the very breath of Yahonathan was knit
to the very breath of David.

And Yahonathan loved him as his very breath.

1 Sam. 18:2 And Sha'ul took he himself that day.

And he would not permit him to return to his father's house any more.

1 Sam. 18:3 And Yahonathan
cut a covenant with David because he loved he himself תא
as his very breath.

1 Sam. 18:4 And Yahonathan removed the robe itself תא that was on him.

And he gave it to David,
and also his garments,
and also his sword,
and also his bow,
and also his belt.

1 Sam. 18:5 And David wisely went out wherever Sha'ul sent him.

And Sha'ul placed him over the men of battle.
And it was pleasing in the eyes of all the people and also in the eyes of Sha'ul's servants.

1 Sam. 18:6 And it was as David was coming and returning from striking the Philistine himself תא.

And the women came out from all the cities of Yisra'el, singing and dancing
for the sake of meeting Sha'ul, the king,
with tambourines, with joy,
and with stringed instruments.

1 Sam. 18:7 And the women responded.
They laughed.

And they said, "Sha'ul has struck his thousands
and David his myriads."

1 Sam. 18:8 And Sha'ul's anger flared exceedingly.
And this saying was bad in his eyes.

And he said,

"To David they have given myriads
and to me they have given thousands.
And what more for him except the kingdom?"

1 Sam. 18:9 And from that day
Sha'ul watched jealously David himself תא.

1 Sam. 18:10 And it was the next day.

And a bad nature from The Elohim came upon Sha'ul.

And he prophesied in the midst of the house.
And David was playing with his hand

as time after time.
And the spear was in the hand of Sha'ul.
1 Sam. 18:11 And Sha'ul threw the spear itself נא.
And he said, "I will strike through David and into the wall."
But David turned around from his presence twice.

1 Sam. 18:12 And Sha'ul was afraid before the face of David because YAHWEH was with him.
But from Sha'ul He had turned away.

1 Sam. 18:13 And Sha'ul
removed him from the people.
And he placed him as captain over a thousand.
And he went out and came in before the people.
1 Sam. 18:14 And David was being wise
in all his ways.
And YAHWEH was with him.
1 Sam. 18:15 And Sha'ul saw
that he was acting very wisely.
And he was afraid of him.

1 Sam. 18:16 But all Yisra'el and Yahudah
loved David himself נא.
Indeed, he went out and he came in before them.

1 Sam. 18:17 And Sha'ul said to David,
"Behold!
My older daughter Merab!
She herself נא I am giving to you for a wife.
Only you are to be for me a son of force.
And you are to fight the battles of YAHWEH."

And Sha'ul said,
"Let not my hand be against him
but let the hand of the Philistines be against him."

1 Sam. 18:18 But David said to Sha'ul,
"Who am I?
And what is my life
from my father's family in Yisra'el
that I will be son-in-law to the king?"

1 Sam. 18:19 And it was at the time for Merab herself נא, Sha'ul's daughter, to be given to David.
But she was given to Adri'el,
the Meholathite as a wife.
Merab means increase. Adri'el means flock of El.

1 Sam. 18:20 And Mikal, Sha'ul's daughter,
loved David himself נא.
And they told Sha'ul.
And the matter was right in his eyes.
1 Sam. 18:21 And Sha'ul said,
"Let me give her to him.
And let her be a snare to him.
And let the hand of the Philistines be against him."
And Sha'ul said to David a second time,
"Become my son-in-law today."
1 Sam. 18:22 And Sha'ul directed his servants themselves נא to speak to David secretly to say,
"Behold!
The king is pleased with you.
And all his servants love you.
And now be a son-in-law to the king!"
1 Sam. 18:23 And the servants of Sha'ul spoke these words themselves נא
in the ears of David.
And David said,

“Does it seem to you a small matter
to be a king’s son-in-law?
Also, I am a poor man and lightly esteemed?”

1 Sam. 18:24 And the servants of Sha’ul
declared it to him, saying,
“David has spoken according to these words.”
1 Sam. 18:25 And Sha’ul said, “Say to David,
‘The king has no delight
in any payment for the bride
but one hundred foreskins of the Philistines for the sake of taking vengeance
on the king’s enemies.’”
But Sha’ul intended to have David fall
by the hand of the Philistines themselves תא.

1 Sam. 18:26 And his servants declared to David these words themselves תא.
And it was pleasing in David’s eyes
to become the king’s son-in-law.

And the days had not been fulfilled.
1 Sam. 18:27 And David rose up.
And he went, he and his men.
And they struck two hundred men of the Philistines.
And David brought their foreskins themselves תא.
And they were complete for the king
for the sake of becoming the king’s son-in-law.
And Sha’ul gave to him Mikal herself תא,
his daughter, for a wife.

1 Sam. 18:28 And Sha’ul observed.
And he knew that YAHWEH was with David.

And Mikal, daughter of Sha’ul, loved him.

1 Sam. 18:29 And Sha’ul was more afraid of David.
And Sha’ul was an adversary of David himself תא
every day.

1 Sam. 18:30 And the leaders of the Philistines
went out to fight.
And it existed that David acted more wisely
than all the servants of Sha’ul.
And his name became exceedingly valuable.

Chapter 19

1 Sam. 19:1 And Sha’ul spoke
to Yehonathan, his son,
and to all his servants
concerning putting to death David himself תא.
But Yehonathan, Sha’ul’s son, delighted strongly in David.
1 Sam. 19:2 And Yehonathan declared it to David saying,
“My father, Sha’ul, is seeking to put you to death.
And now please protect yourself in the morning,
and stay in secret and hide yourself.
1 Sam. 19:3 And I myself will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you yourself תא are there.
And I myself will speak with my father about you.
And I will see what exists.
And I will declare it to you.”

1 Sam. 19:4 And Yehonathan spoke well concerning David to Sha’ul, his father.
And he said to him,
“Let not the king offend on account of his servant,
on account of David.
Indeed, he has not offended against you.
And indeed, his actions
are very good toward you.

1 Sam. 19:5 And he placed his life itself תא
in his hands.
And he struck the Philistine himself תא.
And YAHWEH caused a great deliverance
for all Yisra'el.
You saw it.
And you rejoiced.
And why will you offend against innocent blood
by putting to death David himself תא without cause?"

1 Sam. 19:6 And Sha'ul listened attentively to the voice of Yahonathan.
And Sha'ul swore,
"As YAHWEH lives, he will not be put to death!"

1 Sam. 19:7 And Yahonathan called David.
And Yahonathan declared to him
all these words themselves תא.
And Yahonathan brought David himself תא to Sha'ul.
And he was in his presence
as yesterday and the day before.

1 Sam. 19:8 And there was fighting again.
And David went out and fought with the Philistines.
And he struck them a great blow.
And they fled from before him.

1 Sam. 19:9 And a bad nature from YAHWEH
came mightily upon Sha'ul.
And he sat in his house.
And his spear was in his hand.
And David was playing with his hand.
1 Sam. 19:10 And Sha'ul sought to strike the spear into David and into the wall.
But he got away from before the face of Sha'ul.
And he struck the spear itself תא into the wall.
And David fled.
And he himself escaped that night.

1 Sam. 19:11 And Sha'ul sent messengers
to David's house to watch him
and to put him to death in the morning.
And Mikal, David's wife,
declared it to him saying,
"If you do not escape tonight with your life itself תא tomorrow you yourself תא
will be put to death."

1 Sam. 19:12 And Mikal let down David himself תא
through a window.
And he went.
And he fled.
And he escaped.

1 Sam. 19:13 And Mikal took the teraphim itself תא.
And she placed it in the bed.
And a matting of goats' hair itself תא
she placed as his head.
And she covered it with a garment.

One must wonder about the existence of the teraphim in David's house.

Teraphim means healer.
It was a household idol.
It should never have been in the house of a servant of YAHWEH!

1 Sam. 19:14 And Sha'ul sent messengers
for the sake of taking David himself תא.
And she said, "He is sick."
1 Sam. 19:15 And Sha'ul sent the messengers themselves תא

to see David himself nx saying, “Bring up he himself nx to me in bed
for the sake of putting him to death.”

1 Sam. 19:16 And the messengers went in.
And they saw the teraphim in the bed
with a matting of goats' hair for his head.

1 Sam. 19:17 And Sha'ul said to Mikal, “Why have you deceived me like this and sent away my adversary himself nx
and caused him to escape?”
And Mikal said to Sha'ul,
“He said to me, ‘Send me away!
Why should I cause you to be put to death?’ ”

1 Sam. 19:18 And David fled.
And he escaped.
And he went to Shemu'el at Ramah.
And he declared to him everything itself nx
that Sha'ul had done to him.
And he and Shemu'el went.
And they dwelt in Navith.
1 Sam. 19:19 And it was reported to Sha'ul saying,
“Behold!
David is in Navith in Ramah!”

1 Sam. 19:20 And Sha'ul sent messengers
for the sake of taking David himself nx.
And they saw a company
of the prophets themselves nx prophesying.
And Shemu'el was standing, stationed over them.
And The Divine Nature of The Elohim
was upon the messengers of Sha'ul.
And they also prophesied.
1 Sam. 19:21 And it was declared to Sha'ul.
And he sent other messengers.
And they prophesied also.
And Sha'ul sent messengers again the third time.
And they prophesied also.

*It's not evident in the text at this point,
but there is a portion of The New Covenant that declares that no one speaking
on behalf of YAHWEH
can be considered an adversary
to one of His own.*

1 Sam. 19:22 And he himself went to Ramah.
And he came to the great well that is at Seku.
And he inquired.
And he said, “Where are Shemu'el and David?”
And one said, “There at Navith in Ramah.” 1 Sam. 19:23 And he went there, to Navith in Ramah.
And The Divine Nature of The Elohim
was upon him too.
And he went on.
And he prophesied
until he came to Navith in Ramah.
1 Sam. 19:24 And he also stripped off his garments.
And he prophesied before Shemu'el.
And he laid down naked
all that day and all that night.
Therefore they say,
“Is Sha'ul also among the prophets?”

Chapter 20

1 Sam. 20:1 And David fled
from Navith in Ramah.
And he came and said to Yahanathan,
“What have I done?
What is my perversion?
And what is my offense before your father
that he seeks my life itself nx?”
1 Sam. 20:2 And he said to him,

“Far be it!
You are not going to be put to death!
Behold!
My father does no word great or small
and does not reveal it to me myself nx.
And why would my father conceal from me
this word itself nx?
It is not so!”
1 Sam. 20:3 But David swore again.
And he said,
“Your father knows, knows
that I have found favor in your eyes.
And he said,
‘Do not let Yahonathan know this lest he be displeased.’

However, as YAHWEH lives and as your life lives
there is like a step between me and death.”
1 Sam. 20:4 And Yahonathan said to David,
“Whatever your life says then I will do it for you.”
1 Sam. 20:5 And David said to Yahonathan,
“Behold!
Tomorrow is the New Moon.
And I am to sit with the king to eat.
But send me away.
And I will hide in the field
until the third day at evening.
1 Sam. 20:6 If your father accounts, accounts for me,
then you are to say,
‘David asked asked from me
to run to BayitLechem, his city, because a yearly sacrifice is made there for all the family.’

1 Sam. 20:7 If he says according to this,
‘It is well.’
your servant is safe.
But if his anger flares up, flares up,
then you will know
that he has resolved to do harm with me.
1 Sam. 20:8 And you are to do kindness to your servant because a covenant of YAHWEH
you have entered into with your servant himself nx.

And if there is perversity in me
you yourself nx put me to death.
But why should you bring me to your father?”
1 Sam. 20:9 And Yahonathan said,
“Far be it from you!
Indeed, if I knew,
if I knew that my father has determined that harm is to come upon you then would I not declare it itself nx to you?”

1 Sam. 20:10 And David said to Yahonathan,
“Who would declare it to me?
Or what if your father responds to you harshly?”
1 Sam. 20:11 And Yahonathan said to David,
“Come, and we will go out into the field!”
And they both went out into the field.
1 Sam. 20:12 And Yahonathan said to David,
“YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el, be witness!
When I have searched out my father himself nx
at this time tomorrow or the third day,
and behold,
there is good toward David and then I do not send to you or disclose it to your ear itself nx 1 Sam. 20:13 may YAHWEH do so and much more to Yahonathan!
And if it is pleasing to my father
to do you harm itself nx

then I will reveal it to your ear itself תא.
And I will send you away.
And you are to go in peace.
And may YAHWEH be with you
as He has been with my father.

1 Sam. 20:14 And if I am not still alive will you not do the kindness of YAHWEH
so that I will not die?

1 Sam. 20:15 And do not cut off your kindness itself תא
from my house until eternity, not even when YAHWEH has cut off every one of the adversaries of David themselves תא
from upon the face of the earth.”

1 Sam. 20:16 And Yehonathan cut a covenant with the house of David saying, “YAHWEH will require it at the hand of the adversaries of David.”

1 Sam. 20:17 And Yehonathan again caused David himself תא to swear since he loved he himself תא.
Indeed, he loved him
as he loved his own inner being.

1 Sam. 20:18 And Yehonathan said to him,
“Tomorrow is the New Moon.

And you will be missed
because your seat will be empty.

1 Sam. 20:19 But on the third day go down quickly.
And you are to go to the place where you hid
on the day of the action.

And you are to remain by the stone Ezel.
Ezel means departure.

1 Sam. 20:20 And I myself will shoot three arrows to the side of it
as though sending them at a mark.

1 Sam. 20:21 And behold!
I will send the young lad himself תא saying,
Go find the arrows themselves! תא

If I say, say to the young lad, ‘Behold!
The arrows are on this side of you, here!
Get them and come!’ then it is peace.
And as YAHWEH lives
there is no word against you.

1 Sam. 20:22 “But if I say thus to the young lad,
‘Behold!

The arrows are beyond you!’
go your way
because YAHWEH has sent you away.

1 Sam. 20:23 And as for the word which you yourself תא
and I myself have spoken, behold, YAHWEH is between you and me to eternity.”

1 Sam. 20:24 And David hid in the field.
And it was the New Moon.

And the king sat beside the food to eat.
1 Sam. 20:25 And the king sat on his seat
as at other times, on a seat by the wall.
And Yehonathan stood.

And Abner sat beside Sha’ul.
And the place of David was empty.

1 Sam. 20:26 And Sha’ul spoke
not a word on that day
because he said, “It is a chance event.
He is not undefiled
Indeed, he is not undefiled.”

1 Sam. 20:27 And it was the next day,
the second day of the month.
And David's place was empty.
And Sha'ul said to Yehonathan, his son,
"Why has the son of Yishai not come to eat either yesterday or today?"
1 Sam. 20:28 And Yehonathan responded
to Sha'ul himself תא,
"David asked, asked of me to go to Bayit Lechem.
1 Sam. 20:29 And he said,
'Please send me away because our family
has a sacrifice in the city.
And my brother has directed me to be there.
And now if I have found favor in your eyes
please send me away
that I may see my kindred themselves תא.'
For this reason
he has not come to the king's table."

1 Sam. 20:30 And the anger of Sha'ul flared up against Yehonathan.
And he said to him,
"You son of a crooked rebellious woman!
I know that you yourself תא
have chosen the son of Yishai to your own shame
and to the shame of your mother's nakedness!

1 Sam. 20:31 Indeed, all the days
the son of Yishai lives on the soil
you will not be established,
you yourself תא or your kingdom.
And now send away
and bring to me he himself תא
because he is a son of death."

1 Sam. 20:32 And Yehonathan responded to Sha'ul himself תא, his father.
And he said to him,
"Why should he be put to death?
What has he done?"

1 Sam. 20:33 And Sha'ul threw the spear itself תא at him
for the sake of striking him.
And Yehonathan knew that his father had determined to put David to death.

1 Sam. 20:34 And Yehonathan
got up from the table in fierce anger.
And he ate no food the second day of the month
because he was grieved for David because his father put him to shame.

1 Sam. 20:35 And it was morning.
And Yehonathan went out into the field
at the time appointed with David.
And a little boy was with him.
1 Sam. 20:36 And he said to the boy, "Now run!
Find the arrows themselves תא
which I am shooting."
The young lad ran.
And he shot the arrow beyond him.
1 Sam. 20:37 And the young lad went to the place of the arrow
which Yehonathan had shot.
And Yehonathan called out after the young lad.
And he said, "Is not the arrow beyond you?"
1 Sam. 20:38 And Yehonathan called out after the young lad,
"Hurry quickly!
Do not stand still!"
And the young lad picked up the arrows themselves תא of Yehonathan.

And he came to his master.
1 Sam. 39 And the young lad knew not a speck.
Only Yahonathan and David knew of the word.

1 Sam. 20:40 And Yahonathan
gave his equipment itself תא to the young lad.
And he said to him, "Go! Bring them to the city!"

1 Sam. 20:41 The young lad had gone.
And David stood up from beside Ezel.
And he fell on his face to the ground.
And he prostrated himself three times.
And they kissed each man
his companion himself תא.
And they wept each man
with his companion himself תא
until David did more so.

1 Sam. 20:42 And Yahonathan said to David,
"Go in peace since we have both sworn in the Name of YAHWEH saying,
'YAHWEH is between you and me and between your seed and my seed
for eternity' "

Chapter 21

1 Sam. 21:1 And David went to Nob,
to Ahimelek the priest.
And Ahimelek trembled as he met David.
And he asked him,
"Why are you yourself תא alone and no man is with you yourself תא?"

1 Sam. 21:2 And David said
to Ahimelek, the priest,
"The king has directed me with a message.
And he said to me,
'No one is to know anything concerning the message itself תא
with which I am sending you and which I have directed you.'
And my servants themselves תא
know about such and such a place.

1 Sam. 21:3 And now, what do you have on hand?
Give five loaves into my hand or whatever is found."

1 Sam. 21:4 And the priest responded to David himself תא.

And he said,
"There is no common bread on hand.
But there is set apart bread
if only the young men have kept themselves from women."

1 Sam. 21:5 And David responded to the priest himself תא.

And he said to him,
"Indeed, women have been kept from us
about three days since I came out.
And the vessels of the young men are set apart.
And it is a common path.
And also indeed,
it was set apart in the vessel today."

1 Sam. 21:6 And the priest gave to him set apart bread
because there was no bread there except the bread of The Presence, that had been taken away
from before the face of YAHWEH
in order to place hot bread
on the day it was taken away.

1 Sam. 21:7 And a man who was of the servants of Sha'ul

was there that day, detained before YAHWEH.
And his name was Do'eg, an Edomite,
the chief of the herdsmen
who belonged to Sha'ul.
Do'eg means anxious.

1 Sam. 21:8 And David said to Ahimelek,
"Is there not here on hand a spear or a sword?
Indeed, I have brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me
because the message of the king was urgent."
1 Sam. 21:9 And the priest said,
"The sword of Golyat, the Philistine whom you struck in the Valley of Elah.
Behold!
It is wrapped in a garment behind the ephod.
If you yourself nx would take it, take it,
because there is no other except this one here."
And David said, "There is none like it.
Give it to me!"

1 Sam. 21:10 And David got up.
And he fled that day from before Sha'ul.
And he went to Akish, the king of Gath.
1 Sam. 21:11 And the servants of Akish said to him,
"Is this not David, the king of the land?
Did they not sing of him to each other in dances saying, 'Sha'ul struck his thousands
and David his myriads'?"

1 Sam. 21:12 And David placed these words themselves nx in his heart.
And he was exceedingly afraid of Akish,
the king of Gath.

1 Sam. 21:13 And he transformed
his behavior itself nx in their presence.
And he became foolish in their hands.
And he scratched on the doors of the gate.
And he let his saliva run down on his beard.

1 Sam. 21:14 And Akish said to his servants,
"Behold!
You see the man is acting like a madman.
Why do you bring he himself nx to me?
1 Sam. 21:15 Do I have a lack of madmen that you have brought this one himself nx
to act as a madman near me?
Should this one come into my household?"

Chapter 22

1 Sam. 22:1 And David went from there.
And he escaped to the Cave of Adullam.
And his brothers
and all his father's house heard it.
And they went down to him there.
1 Sam. 22:2 And every man who was in distress,
and every man who was in debt,
and every man bitter at life
gathered themselves to him.
And he became head over them.
And there were about four hundred men.

1 Sam. 22:3 And David went from there to Mitzpeh of Mo'ab.
And he said to the king of Mo'ab,
"Please let my father and mother,
they themselves nx, come out until I know what The Elohim will do for me." 1 Sam. 22:4 And he brought they themselves nx
to the king of Mo'ab.
And they dwelt with him
all the time that David was in the stronghold.

1 Sam. 22:5 And the prophet Gad said to David,
"Do not stay in the stronghold.

Go! Even go to the land of Yahudah.”
And David went.
And he went to the forest of Hereth.

1 Sam. 22:6 And Sha'ul heard that David and the men who were with he himself תא
had been discovered.
And Sha'ul was sitting at Gib'ah
under a tamarisk tree at Ramah.
And his spear was in his hand.
And all his servants were standing beside him.

1 Sam. 22:7 And Sha'ul said to his servants
who were standing beside him, “Listen attentively now, you Binyamites!
Does the son of Yishai
give every one of you fields and vineyards and make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds?
1 Sam. 22:8 Indeed, all of you have conspired against me!
And no one revealed to me myself תא
my son is in covenant with the son of Yishai.
And none are grieved for me.
And none reveals it to me myself תא
that my son has stood up with my servant himself תא against me
for the sake of lying in wait as it is this day.”

1 Sam. 22:9 And Do'eg, the Edomite, who had been set over the servants of Sha'ul,
responded and said,
“I saw the son of Yishai himself תא coming to Nob,
to Ahimelek, son of Ahitub.
1 Sam. 22:10 And he inquired of YAHWEH for him.
And he gave him food.
And he gave him the sword itself תא
of Golyat, the Philistine.”

1 Sam. 22:11 And the king sent for the sake of calling Ahimelek himself תא, the priest, son of Ahitub,
and all his father's household itself תא,
the priests who were in Nob.
And they all came to the king.
1 Sam. 22:12 And Sha'ul said,
“Listen attentively now, son of Ahitub!”
And he said, “I am here, my sovereign.”

1 Sam. 22:13 And Sha'ul said to him,
“Why have you conspired against me,
you yourself תא and the son of Yishai,
by giving to him bread and a sword and have inquired of The Elohim for him for the sake of rising up against me,
for the sake of lying in wait as it is this day?”

1 Sam. 22:14 And Ahimelek responded to the king himself תא.
And he said,
“And who among all your servants
is as faithful as David?
And he is the king's son-in-law.
And he has turned aside to your counsel.
And he is honored in your household.
1 Sam. 22:15 Have I today begun to inquire of The Elohim for him?
Far be it from me!
Let not the king
place a word against his servant
or against any in the house of my father.
Indeed, your servant knew nothing concerning all this, little or much.”

1 Sam. 22:16 And the king said,
“Put to death,
you will be put to death, Ahimelek,
you yourself אָתָּךְ and all your father’s household!”

1 Sam. 22:17 And the king said
to the guards standing beside him, “Turn around and put to death
the priests of YAHWEH
because their hand also is with David,
and because they knew when he fled and did not reveal it to me myself אָתָּךְ.”

But the servants of the king were not willing to stretch out their hands themselves אָתָּךְ
for the sake of putting to death
the priests of YAHWEH.

1 Sam. 22:18 And the king said to Do’eg,
“You yourself אָתָּךְ, turn and put to death the priests!”
And Do’eg, the Edomite, turned and he put to death the priests.
And he put to death on that day
eighty-five men
who were carrying a linen ephod.

1 Sam. 22:19 And Nob,
the city of the priests itself אָתָּךְ,
he struck with the mouth of the sword,
from men even to women,
from children even to nursing infants,
and oxen, and male asses, and sheep,
with the mouth of the sword.

If you’ve been paying attention to the use of אָתָּךְ
you will have noticed the repeated references to “me myself” in regard to Sha’ul.
His arrogance is astonishing.

Now, to put to death
an entire Levitical city,
a city of priests,
is appallingly contradictory
to the teachings of YAHWEH.
This is one more act
that seals the fate of Sha’ul.

1 Sam. 22:20 And one of the sons of Ahimelek, son of Ahitub, named Ebyathar, escaped.
And he fled after David.

Ebyathar means father of abundance.

1 Sam. 22:21 And Ebyathar declared to David that Sha’ul had murdered
the priests of YAHWEH themselves אָתָּךְ.

1 Sam. 22:22 And David said to Ebyathar,
“I knew on that day
that Do’eg, the Edomite, was there that he would declare it, declare it to Sha’ul.
I have encompassed all the lives of your father’s household.

1 Sam. 22:23 Remain with me myself אָתָּךְ!
Do not be afraid!
Indeed, whoever seeks my life itself אָתָּךְ
seeks your life itself אָתָּךְ.
Indeed, the protection of you yourself אָתָּךְ
is with me.”

Chapter 23

1 Sam. 23:1 And they declared it to David saying,
“Behold!
The Philistines are fighting against Ke’liah.

And they are plundering
the threshing floors themselves תא.”

Ke'ilah means citadel.

1 Sam. 23:2 And David
inquired of YAHWEH saying,
“Shall I go and strike these Philistines?”
And YAHWEH said to David,
“Go and strike the Philistines and deliver Ke'ilah itself תא!”

1 Sam. 23:3 And David's men said to him,
“Behold!
The men here in Yahudah are afraid and more so if we go to Ke'ilah against the encampment of the Philistines?” 1 Sam. 23:4 And David inquired of YAHWEH
once again.
And YAHWEH responded to him.
And He said, “Get up!
Go down to Ke'ilah!
Indeed, I Myself am giving
the Philistines themselves תא into your hand!”

1 Sam. 23:5 And David and his men went to Ke'ilah.
And they fought with the Philistines.
And he drove away their livestock itself תא.
And he struck with a great blow.
And David delivered
those dwelling in Ke'ilah themselves תא.

1 Sam. 23:6 And it was as Ebyathar, son of Ahimelek, fled to David at Ke'ilah.
He went down with an ephod in his hand.

1 Sam. 23:7 And it was declared to Sha'ul
that David had gone to Ke'ilah.
And Sha'ul said,
“The Elohim has acknowledged that he himself תא is in my hand.
Indeed, he has shut himself in
by entering a town with gates and bars.”

1 Sam. 23:8 And Sha'ul got the attention of all the people of battle themselves תא
for the sake of going down to Ke'ilah
for the sake of attacking David and his men.

1 Sam. 23:9 And David knew that Sha'ul was against him, planning harm.
And he said to Ebyathar, the priest,
“Bring the ephod here!”
*There is a lack of full understanding concerning the use of an ephod today.
Based on this text and others like it
it seems evident that it was used as a means of communication with YAHWEH.*

Observe carefully the following verses.

1 Sam. 23:10 And David said,
“YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el,
Your servant has heard,
heard that Sha'ul is seeking to come to Ke'ilah
to destroy the city on account of your servant.
1 Sam. 23:11 Will the men of Ke'ilah cause me to be shut up in his hand
as your servant has heard?
YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el,
please reveal it to your servant.”
And YAHWEH said,
“He is coming down.”
1 Sam. 23:12 And David said,
“Will the masters of Ke'ilah surrender me myself תא
and my men themselves תא
into the hand of Sha'ul?”

And YAHWEH said,
“They will surrender you.”

1 Sam. 23:13 And David and his men,
about six hundred, got up.
And they went out from Ke'liah.
And they went wherever they could go.
And it was declared to Sha'ul that David had escaped from Ke'liah.
And he ceased to go out.

1 Sam. 23:14 And David stayed in the wilderness
in strongholds.
And he stayed in the hill country
in the Wilderness of Ziph.
And Sha'ul sought him every day.
But The Elohim did not give him into his hand.

1 Sam. 23:15 And David saw that Sha'ul had come out for the sake of seeking his life itself nx.
And David was in the Wilderness of Ziph
at Horesh.

1 Sam. 23:16 And Yahanathan,
Sha'ul's son, got up.
And he went to David at Horesh.
And he strengthened his hand itself nx
in The Elohim.

23:17 And said to him,
“Do not be afraid
because the hand of Sha'ul, my father,
is not going to find you.
And you yourself nx will reign over Yisra'el.
And I will be next to you.
Even my father, Sha'ul, knows this.”

1 Sam. 23:18 And the two cut a covenant
before the face of YAHWEH.
And David stayed at Horesh.
And Yahanathan went to his house.

1 Sam. 23:19 And the Ziphites came up to Sha'ul at Gib'ah saying, “Is David not hiding with us in strongholds of Horesh,
in the hill of Hakilah,
which is on the south of the wasteland?”

1 Sam. 23:20 And now according to all the desire of your life, king, come down!
Come down!
And as for us we will surrender him into the king's hand.”

1 Sam. 23:21 And Sha'ul said,
“Blessed are you yourselves nx of YAHWEH
because you have had compassion on me.

1 Sam. 23:22 Go now!
Prepare further and learn!
And observe the place itself nx where he walks,
who is seen with him there.
Indeed, I am told of him that he is very cunning.
1 Sam. 23:23 And observe and learn everything concerning the places where he hides himself.
And you are to return to me with certainty.
And I will go with you yourselves nx.
And it will be, if he exists in the land,
then I will search out he himself nx
among all the families of Yahudah.”

1 Sam. 23:24 And they got up.
And they went to Ziph ahead of Sha'ul.
And David and his men
were in the Wilderness of Ma'on
in the desert plain on the south of the wasteland.

1 Sam. 23:25 And Sha'ul and his men went to seek him.
And it was declared to David.
And he went down to the rock.
And he stayed in the Wilderness of Ma'on.
And Sha'ul heard this.
And he pursued David
into the Wilderness of Ma'on.

1 Sam. 23:26 And Sha'ul went on one side of the mountain,
and David and his men
on the other side of the mountain.
And David was hurrying for the sake of going away from the face of Sha'ul.
And Sha'ul and his men were surrounding David and his men for the sake of seizing them.

1 Sam. 23:27 And a messenger
came to Sha'ul saying,
"Hurry and come!
Indeed, the Philistines have invaded the land!"

1 Sam. 23:28 And Sha'ul returned from pursuing after David.
And he went to encounter the Philistines.
For this reason
the place is called Sela Hammahlekot.

Sela Hammahlekot means rock of divisions.

Note: Chapter 24 begins here in the Hebrew text.

1 Sam. 23:29 (H 24.1)
And David went up from there.
And he stayed in strongholds at En Gedi.

Chapter 24

1 Sam. 24:1(H 24.2)
And it was when Sha'ul
had returned from pursuing the Philistines.
And it was declared to him saying,
"Behold!
David is in the Wilderness of En Gedi."
1 Sam. 24:2 (H 24.3)
And Sha'ul took
three thousand chosen men from all Yisra'el.
And he went to search out David himself תא
and his men at The Rocks of the Wild Goats.
1 Sam. 24:3 (H 24.4)
And he came to the enclosures
for the sheep along the way.
And there was a cave.
And Sha'ul went in to cover his feet themselves תא.
And David and his men
were sitting on the sides of the cave.
1 Sam. 24:4 (H 24.5)
And the men of David said to him, "Behold!
The day of which YAHWEH said to you,
'Behold!
I am giving your adversaries themselves תא
into your hand.
And you are to do to them
according to what seems good to you!' "
And David got up.
And he secretly cut off the hem itself תא
of Sha'ul's robe.

[Most translations use "the edge",
or "a corner" of Sha'ul's robe.
This misses entirely
the whole point of this action.
The hem of one's robe in Yisra'el represents that person's authority.
To cut off the hem of the king's robe
was to effectively remove the king's authority.](#)

In this instance it represents David taking away the authority of Sha'ul - for himself! Observe David's remorse over this in the following verses.

1 Sam. 24:5 (H 24.6)

And it was after this.

And David's heart, it itself נא, was stricken because he had cut off the hem itself נא which was Sha'ul's.

1 Sam. 24:6 (H 24.7)

And he said to his men,

“Far be it from me apart from YAHWEH if I should do this matter itself נא to my sovereign, the anointed of YAHWEH, to stretch out my hand against him. Indeed, he is the anointed of YAHWEH.”

1 Sam. 24:7 (H 24.8)

And David separated his men themselves נא with the words.

And he did not allow them to rise up against Sha'ul.

And Sha'ul got up from the cave.

And he went on his way.

1 Sam. 24:8 (H 24.9)

And David got up after this.

And he went out of the cave.

And he called out behind Sha'ul saying,

“My sovereign the king!”

And Sha'ul looked behind him.

And David bowed his face to the ground.

And he prostrated himself.

1 Sam. 24:9 (H 24.10)

And David said to Sha'ul,

“Why do you listen attentively to the words themselves נא of men who say, ‘Behold!

David seeks to do you harm.’?”

1 Sam. 24:10 (H 24.11)

Behold!

This day your eyes have seen that YAHWEH gave you today

into my hand itself נא in the cave.

And one said to kill you.

But my eye had compassion on you.

And I said, ‘I will not stretch out my hand

against my sovereign

because he is anointed of YAHWEH.’”

1 Sam. 24:11 (H 24.12)

And my father, look also and observe the hem of your robe itself נא in my hand!

Indeed, I cut off the hem of your robe itself נא!

But I did not kill you!

Know and see that there is neither harm

nor rebellion in my hand.

And I have not offended against you.

Yet you yourself נא are hunting my life itself נא for the sake of taking it.

1 Sam. 24:12 (H 24.13)

May YAHWEH judge between you and me.

And may YAHWEH avenge me from you.

But my hand will not be against you.

1 Sam. 24:13 (H 24.14)

As the proverb of the ancients says,

‘Moral wrong comes from the morally wrong.’

But my hand is not against you.

1 Sam. 24:14 (H 24.15)
After whom has the king of Yisra'el come out?
Whom are you yourself אַתָּה pursuing?
After a dead dog?
After one flea?

1 Sam. 24:15 (H 24.16)
But YAHWEH will exist as judge.
And He will pronounce sentence
between you and me.
And may He see and decide my cause itself אַתָּה
and vindicate me from your hand."

1 Sam. 24:16 (H 24.17)
And it was as David had finished speaking these words themselves אַתָּה to Sha'ul.

And Sha'ul said,
"Is this your voice, my son David?"
And Sha'ul lifted up his voice and wept.

1 Sam. 24:17 (H 24.18)
And he said to David,
"You yourself אַתָּה are more just than I because you yourself אַתָּה have repaid me with good,
but I myself have repaid you with bad.

tsaddiyq - just.
This term is traditionally
translated as "righteous".
It's literal meaning is "just".
It means to do what is right.

Sadly, we have perverted
the meaning of "righteous"
by making it some kind of religious term that represents a false perception of what's intended.

1 Sam. 24:18 (H 24.19)
And you yourself אַתָּה have declared today how itself אַתָּה you have done goodness itself אַתָּה to me myself אַתָּה
when YAHWEH Himself אַתָּה surrendered me into your hand,
but you did not kill me.

This is a very unusual use of אַתָּה.
It's found four times in this verse.
In two instances it occurs as a self-standing term which then encompasses
the whole concept involved,
not merely a few words.
This adds extreme emphasis to this verse.

1 Sam. 24:19 (H 24.20)
And when a man finds his adversary himself אַתָּה
then does he send him away with goodness?

And may YAHWEH reward you with good this day
in place of what I have done to you.

1 Sam. 24:20 (H 24.21)
And now behold!
I know that you will reign, will reign as king.
And the kingdom of Yisra'el
will be established in your hand.

1 Sam. 24:21 (H 24.22)
And now, swear to me by YAHWEH
that you will not cut off
my seed itself אַתָּה after me, nor destroy my name itself אַתָּה
from my father's house."

1 Sam. 24:22 (H 24.23)
And David swore to Sha'ul.
And Sha'ul went home.
And David and his men
went up to the stronghold.

Chapter 25

1 Sam. 25:1 And Shemu'el died.
And all Yisra'el assembled.
And they mourned for him.
And they buried him at his home in Ramah.
And David got up and went down into the Wilderness of Paran.

1 Sam. 25:2 Now there was a man in Ma'on.
And his work was in Carmel.
And the man was exceedingly great.
And he had three thousand sheep
and a thousand goats.
And he was shearing his sheep themselves תא at Carmel.

1 Sam. 25:3 And the name of the man was Nabal.
And the name of his wife was Abigail.
And she was a woman of good intelligence.
And she was beautiful of form.
But the man was harsh and hurtful in his actions.
And he was of Kaleb.

Nabal means stupid; morally dense.
Abigail means father of joy.

1 Sam. 25:4 And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep themselves תא.

1 Sam. 25:5 And David sent ten young men.

And David said to the young men,
"Go up to Carmel.

And you are to go to Nabal.

And you are to greet him in my name,

1 Sam. 25:6 and say this, 'To life!

And to you yourself תא, shalom!

And to your house, shalom!"

And to all that you have, shalom!

Traditional translations miss
some important elements in this verse.
They do not recognize "to life"
as a typical Hebrew greeting affirming one's wish for a good life for the one being addressed.
It's sort of like a "toast" to the other person.

They also miss shalom!
Shalom means be well, be safe, be happy,
be in good health, be prosperous, etc.,
all rolled into one word.
It's a wish for well being in every dimension of the other's life.

To miss this is to miss the astonishing significance of this term
in the Hebrew culture.

1 Sam. 25:7 And now, I have heard that you have shearers.
Now your shepherds who have been with us.
were not humiliated,

and not a speck of theirs was missing
all the days they were at Carmel.

1 Sam. 25:8 Ask your young men themselves תא
and they will declare it to you.

And may my young men find favor in your eyes
because we come on a good day.

Please give whatever itself תא comes to your hand to your servants and to your son, David.' "

1 Sam. 25:9 And the young men of David went.

And they spoke to Nabal

according to all these words

in the name of David.

And they rested.

1 Sam. 25:10 And Nabal responded to the servants of David themselves תא.

And he said, "Who is David?
And who is the son of Yishai?"

Today many servants are breaking away from their masters.

1 Sam. 25:11 Am I to take my bread itself תא, and my water itself תא
and my slaughterings themselves תא
that I have slaughtered for my shearers and give it to men whom I do not know where they are from?"

1 Sam. 25:12 And the young men of David turned around on their way.
And they returned.
And they came and declared to him
all these words.

1 Sam. 25:13 And David said to his men,
"Each one gird on his sword itself תא."
And each man girded on his sword itself תא.
And David also girded on his sword itself תא.
And about four hundred men
rose up behind David.
And two hundred stayed with the equipment.

1 Sam. 25:14 And one from among the young men told Abigail, the wife of Nabal, saying,
"Behold!

David has sent messengers from the wilderness
for the sake of blessing our master himself תא.
But he insulted them.

1 Sam. 25:15 And the men were very good to us.
And they did not humiliate us.
And we did not miss any item
all the days we walked with they themselves תא
as we were in the fields.

1 Sam. 25:16 They were a wall beside us both by night and day
all the days we were with them tending the sheep.

1 Sam. 25:17 And now know and see what you should do because harm has been determined against our master
and against all his household.
And he himself is a son of worthlessness
about speaking to him."

1 Sam. 25:18 Then Abigail hurried.
And she took two hundred loaves,
and two skins of wine,
and five sheep made ready,
five measures of roasted grain,
and one hundred clusters of raisins,
and two hundred cakes of figs.
And she placed them upon the male asses.

1 Sam. 25:19 And she said to her servants,
"Pass over before me.
Behold!

I am coming behind you."
But her husband, Nabal, she did not tell.

1 Sam. 25:20 And it was as she was riding on the male ass.
And she went down under cover of the hill.
And there were David and his men,
coming down toward her.
And she met they themselves תא.

1 Sam. 25:21 And David said,
"Only without cause have I protected
all that is his itself תא in the wilderness.
And not a speck was missing of all that is his.

And he has returned to me harm instead of good.
1 Sam. 25:22 Thus may The Elohim do and more also to the adversaries of David if I leave of all who are his by morning light
one who pisses against the wall.”

1 Sam.25:23 And Abigail saw David himself nx.
And she hurried.
And she got down from upon the male ass.
And she fell before the face of David on her face.
And she prostrated herself to the ground.
1 Sam. 25:24 And she fell upon his feet.
And she said,
“On me, my master, is this perversity!
But please let your female servant
speak in your ears.
And listen attentively to the words themselves nx
of your female servant.
1 Sam. 25:25 Please do not let my master take to his heart itself nx
this man of worthlessness, Nabal.
Indeed, as his name is, so is he.
Nabal is his name.
And moral wrong is with him.

But I myself, your female servant,
did not see the young men themselves nx
of my master whom you sent.
1 Sam. 25:26 And now my master,
as YAHWEH lives and as your life lives, YAHWEH, has restrained you from coming into blood
and from avenging yourself with your own hand.

Now then may your adversaries be as Nabal,
even those seeking harm against my master.

1 Sam. 25:27 And now,
this blessing which your female servant
has brought to my master, let it be given to the young men who follow my master.

1 Sam. 25:28 Please lift up the rebellion
of your female servant.
Indeed, YAHWEH is making,
making a trustworthy house for my master
because my master fights the battles of YAHWEH.
And harm has not been found in you
all of your days.

1 Sam. 25:29 And a man stood up to pursue you and to seek your life itself nx.
But the life of my master has been bound in the bundle of the living with YAHWEH Himself nx, your Elohim.
And the lives themselves nx of your adversaries
He will sling them out like the middle of the pocket of a sling.
1 Sam. 25:30 And it will exist
because YAHWEH has done for my master
according to all the good itself nx
that He has spoken concerning you.
And He will appoint you ruler over Yisra'el.

1 Sam. 25:31 And this will not be for you a burden of conscience
or a stumbling block of heart for my master,
that you have shed blood without cause,
or that my master has avenged himself.
And YAHWEH will do good for my master.
Then take note of your female servant.”

1 Sam. 25:32 And David said to Abigail,
"Blessed be YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el,
Who sent you this day to meet me!
1 Sam. 25:33 And blessed is your discretion.
And blessed are you because you have kept me this day from coming to blood
and from avenging myself with my own hand.

1 Sam. 25:34 And truly, as YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el, lives,
Who has restrained me from doing harm
to you yourself nx,
if you had not hurried and come to meet me
none would have been left to Nabal
by the light of morning who piss against the wall."

1 Sam. 25:35 And David accepted from her hand that itself nx which she had brought to him.
And he said to her,
"Go up in shalom to your house.
Behold!
I have listened attentively to your voice.
And I have accepted your face."

1 Sam. 25:36 And Abigail went to Nabal.
And behold!
There was a banquet at his house
like the banquet of a king.
And Nabal's heart was glad within him.
And he was exceedingly drunk.
And she told him not a word, little or much,
until the morning light.

1 Sam. 25:37 And it was in the morning,
the wine having gone from Nabal.
And his wife declared to him
these words themselves nx.
And his heart died within him.
And he became like a stone.
1 Sam. 25:38 And it was about ten days.
And YAHWEH struck Nabal himself nx.
And he died.

25:39 And David heard that Nabal was dead.
And he said, "Blessed be YAHWEH,
Who has fought the battle itself nx of my disgrace
at the hand of Nabal.
And He has restrained His servant himself nx
from what is bad!
And the moral wrong of Nabal YAHWEH has returned on his own head."

And David sent.
And he spoke to Abigail
for the sake of taking her as his wife.
1 Sam. 25:40 And the servants of David went to Abigail at Carmel.
And they spoke to her saying,
"David sent us to you to ask you to become his wife."
1 Sam. 25:41 And she stood up.
And she bowed her face to the ground.
And she said, "Behold!
Your female servant,
a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my master."
1 Sam. 25:42 And she hurried.
And she got up.
And she rode on a male ass,
and five of her young women behind her.
And she went behind the messengers of David.
And she became his wife.

1 Sam. 25:43 And David took Ahino'am herself nx of Yizre'el.
And both of them were his wives.
Ahino'am means brother of pleasantness.

1 Sam. 25:44 And Sha'ul had given Mikal herself nx, his daughter, David's wife, to Palti, son of Laish,
who was from Gallim.

Chapter 26

1 Sam. 26:1 And the Ziphites came to Sha'ul
at Gib'ah saying,
"Is not David hiding himself in the hill of Hakilah
on the face of the wasteland?"

1 Sam. 26:2 And Sha'ul rose up.
And he went down to the Wilderness of Ziph.
And with he himself nx were three thousand chosen men of Yisra'el
for the sake of searching out David himself nx
in the Wilderness of Ziph.

1 Sam. 26:3 And Sha'ul pitched his tent on the hill of Hakilah
which is on the face of the wasteland
beside the road.

And David was staying in the wilderness.
And he saw that Sha'ul had come after him
into the wilderness.

1 Sam. 26:4 And David sent out spies.
And he knew that Sha'ul had come to prepare.

1 Sam. 26:5 And David got up.
And he went to the place
where Sha'ul had pitched his tent.
And David saw the place itself nx
where Sha'ul had laid down,
and Abner, son of Ner,
the captain of his assembly.
And Sha'ul was lying within the enclosure.
And the people were pitching their tents
all around him.

1 Sam. 26:6 And David responded.
And he spoke to Ahimelek, the Hittite,
and to Abishai, son of Tzeruyah,
brother of Yo'ab, saying,
"Who will go down with me myself nx to Sha'ul,
to the encampment?"
And Abishai said,
"I myself, I will go down with you."

Ahimelek means my brother is king.
Abishai means gift of the father.
Tzeruyah YAH has means wounded.
Yo'ab means fathered by YAH.

1 Sam. 26:7 And David and Abishai came to the people by night.
And behold!
Sha'ul was lying down, sleeping in the enclosure.
And his spear was stuck
in the ground beside his head.
And Abner and the people were lying down all around him.

1 Sam. 26:8 And Abishai said to David,
"The Elohim has surrendered this day
your adversary himself nx into your hand.
And now please let me strike him with the spear
even into the ground one time.
And I will not do it again."

1 Sam. 26:9 But David said to Abishai,
"Do not destroy him!
Indeed, who can stretch out his hand
against the anointed of YAHWEH
and be innocent?"

1 Sam. 26:10 And David said,
"As YAHWEH lives,

unless YAHWEH strikes him,
or his day has come and he dies,
or in battle he goes down and is swept away,
1 Sam. 26:11 far be it from me,
apart from YAHWEH,
that I will stretch out my hand
against the anointed of YAHWEH.
And now please take the spear itself נא
which is beside his head
and the jug of water itself נא that is by his head, and we will go.”
1 Sam. 26:12 And David took the spear itself נא
and the jug of water itself נא at Sha'ul's head.
And they went by themselves.
And none saw it.
And none knew it.
And none awakened.
Indeed, they were all sleeping
because a deep sleep from YAHWEH
had fallen over them.

1 Sam. 26:13 And David passed over to the other side.
And he stood on the top of a hill far off.
A great distance was in between them.

1 Sam. 26:14 And David called out to the people and to Abner, son of Ner, saying,
“Do you not respond, Abner?”
And Abner responded.
And he said, “Who are you yourself נא
to call out to the king?”
1 Sam. 26:15 And David said to Abner,
“Are you yourself נא not a man?
And who is like you in Yisra'el?
But why have you not protected
your sovereign, the king?
Indeed, one of the people came in for the sake of destroying the king himself נא, your sovereign.
1 Sam. 26:16 This thing you have done
is not good.
As YAHWEH lives,
you yourselves נא are sons of death
who have not protected your sovereign,
upon whom is the anointing of YAHWEH.

And now, look!
Where is the king's spear
and the jug of water itself נא
that was at his head?”

1 Sam. 26:17 And Sha'ul recognized
David's voice itself נא.
And he said,
“Is that your voice, my son, David?”
And David said,
“It is my voice, my sovereign the king.”
1 Sam. 26:18 And he said,
“Why is this that my master
is pursuing his servant?
Indeed, what have I done,
or what harm is in my hand?
1 Sam. 26:19 And now, please listen attentively,
my sovereign the king,
to the words themselves נא of his servant.
If YAHWEH has incited you against me
let Him accept a voluntary offering.
But if it is the children of men
then they are cursed
before the face of YAHWEH
because they have driven me out today from being joined with the inheritance of YAHWEH saying, ‘Go serve other gods!’

1 Sam. 26:20 And now, do not let my blood
fall to the ground before the face of YAHWEH.

Indeed, the king of Yisra'el has come out to seek a flea itself נא
as when one pursues
a partridge in the mountains."

1 Sam. 26:21 And Sha'ul said, "I have offended!
Return, my son David!
Indeed, I will not do harm to you again
in place of how my life
was precious in your eyes this day.
Behold!
I have acted foolishly
and I have erred exceedingly greatly!"

1 Sam. 26:22 And David responded.
And he said, "Behold!
The king's spear!
And let one of the young men
pass over and take it.
1 Sam. 26:23 And YAHWEH will return to a man his right action itself נא
and his trustworthiness itself נא
by which this day YAHWEH
gave you into my hand.
But I was not willing to stretch out my hand
against the anointed of YAHWEH.

1 Sam. 26:24 And behold!
As your life has been valued in my eyes today,
so may my life be enlarged
in the eyes of YAHWEH.
And may He deliver me from every distress."

1 Sam. 26:25 And Sha'ul said to David,
"Blessed are you yourself נא, my son, David!
Also you will do, you will do.
And you are able, you are able!"

And David went on his way.
And Sha'ul returned to his place.

The phrasing "You will do, you will do.
And you are able, you are able!"
is an odd phrasing.
The double mention intends emphasis.
That much is clear.
But the intent of the words is not as clear.
What's given is the literal terminology,
but this is likely a Hebraism that is not understood today.

Chapter 27

1 Sam. 27:1 And David said in his heart,
"Now I will be swept away one day
by the hand of Sha'ul.
There is nothing better for me except to escape,
to escape to the land of the Philistines.
And Sha'ul will desist
from searching for me any longer
in all the territory of Yisra'el.
And I will escape from his hand."

1 Sam. 27:2 And David got up.
And he passed over,
he and the six hundred men who were with him,
to Akish, son of Ma'ok, king of Gath.
1 Sam. 27:3 And David stayed with Akish at Gath,
he and his men, and David's household,
his two wives, Ahino'am, the Yizre'elitess,
and Abigail, the Carmelitess, Nabal's widow.
1 Sam. 27:4 And it was reported to Sha'ul that David had fled to Gath.

And he did not again seek him any longer.

1 Sam. 27:5 And David said to Akish,
"If I have now found favor in your eyes
let them give me a place
in some town of the country.
And I will dwell there.

And why should your servant dwell
in the royal city with you?"

1 Sam. 27:6 And that day Akish gave to him Tziklag itself תא.
For that reason Tziklag has belonged to the kings of Yahudah to this day.

1 Sam. 27:7 And the time David dwelt in the country of the Philistines
was a year and four months.

1 Sam. 27:8 And David and his men went up.
And they invaded the Geshurites,
and the Girzites,
and the Amalekites because those nations
were the inhabitants of the land from of old as you go toward Shur even as far as the land of Mitsraim.

1 Sam. 27:9 And David had struck the land itself תא.

And there was not alive a man or a woman.
And he took sheep, and cattle,
and male asses, and camels, and garments.
And he returned.
And he came to Akish.

1 Sam. 27:10 And Akish said,
"Where have you invaded today?"
And David said, "Against the south of Yahudah, or, "Against the south of the Yerahme'elites,
or, "Against the south of the Kenites."

1 Sam. 27:11 David did not keep alive man nor woman to come to Gath, saying,
"Lest they inform against us saying,
'Thus David did.'"

And this was his practice
all the days that he dwelt
in the country of the Philistines.

1 Sam. 27:12 And Akish trusted David,
saying to himself,
"He has indeed made himself a stench
to his people in Yisra'el.
And he has become my servant for eternity."

Chapter 28

1 Sam. 28:1 And it was in those days.
And the Philistines assembled
their encampments themselves תא for war,
for fighting with Yisra'el.

And Akish said to David,
"You know. You know that you yourself תא
will go out into battle,
you yourself תא and your men."

1 Sam. 28:2 And David said to Akish,
"Rightly so.

You yourself תא will know what itself תא your servant can do."

And Akish said to David,
"Rightly so.

I will make you protector of my head all the days."

1 Sam. 28:3 Now Shemu'el had died.
And all Yisra'el had mourned for him.
And they buried him at Ramah in his own city.

And Sha'ul had put away the mediums
and the wizards themselves תא from the land.

A medium is a necromancer,

one who speaks with the dead.
A wizard is one with "secret" knowledge,
also called 'a familiar spirit'.
Both are involved in "the dark arts",
also understood to be the demonic realm.

1 Sam. 28:4 And the Philistines assembled.
And they came.

And they pitched their tents at Shunem.
And Sha'ul assembled all Yisra'el itself נא.
And they encamped at Gilboa.

1 Sam. 28:5 And Sha'ul saw
the encampment itself נא of the Philistines.

And he was afraid.

And his heart trembled greatly.

1 Sam. 28:6 And Sha'ul inquired of YAHWEH.

But YAHWEH did not respond to him either by dreams,
or by Urim,
or by the prophets.

1 Sam. 28:7 And Sha'ul then said to his servants,
"Search out for me a woman who is a medium.

And I will go to her and inquire of her."

And his servants said to him, "Behold!

There is a woman who is a medium at En Dor."

1 Sam. 28:8 And Sha'ul disguised himself.

And he put on other garments.

And he went, he and two men with him.

And they came to the woman by night.

And he said, "Please determine
by divination for me as a medium.

And bring up for me the one itself נא
whom I will name to you."

1 Sam. 28:9 And the woman said to him,
"Behold!

You yourself נא know

what Sha'ul himself נא has done,

how he has cut off the mediums themselves נא
and the wizards themselves נא from the land.

And why do you yourself נא

lay a snare for my life

for the sake of putting me to death?"

1 Sam. 28:10 And Sha'ul

swore to her by YAHWEH saying,

"As YAHWEH lives,

nothing will happen to you for this matter."

1 Sam. 28:11 And the woman said,

"Who itself נא am I to bring up for you?"

And he said, "Bring up for me Shemu'el himself נא."

1 Sam. 28:12 And the woman

saw Shemu'el himself נא.

And she cried out with a loud voice.

And the woman spoke to Sha'ul saying,

"Why have you deceived me?

Even you yourself נא are Sha'ul!"

1 Sam. 28:13 And the king said to her,

"Do not be afraid!

Indeed, what did you see?"

And the woman said to Sha'ul,

"I saw a mighty one ascending from the earth."

Note: This is very important.

The woman reported that she saw "an elohim".

She saw a "mighty one" -

one of the meanings of "elohim".

It was NOT a 'spirit'!!!

An elohim is a divine being.

It can be a good one,

still associated with YAHWEH,

or it can be a 'fallen one',

associated with The Adversary.

The practice of calling up such entities

is fraught with dangers.
It's why YAHWEH forbids it for His people.

1 Sam. 28:14 And he said to her,
"What is his appearance?"
And she said, "An old man is ascending.
And he is covered with a mantle."
And Sha'ul knew that it was Shemu'el.
And he bowed his face to the ground.
And he prostrated himself.

1 Sam. 28:15 And Shemu'el said to Sha'ul,
"Why have you disturbed me for the sake of bringing up me myself אני?"
And Sha'ul said,
"I am exceedingly distressed.
And the Philistines are fighting against me.
And The Elohim has turned aside from upon me.
And He does not respond to me any more,
either by prophets or by dreams.
And I have called you for the sake of making known to me
what I am to do."

1 Sam. 28:16 And Shemu'el said,
"And why do you inquire of me?
Even YAHWEH has turned aside from upon you.
And He has become your adversary?
1 Sam. 28:17 And YAHWEH has done for Himself
according to what He spoke by me.
And YAHWEH has torn the kingdom itself אני
from your hand.
And He has given it to your neighbor, to David,
1 Sam. 28:18 because you did not listen attentively
to the voice of YAHWEH
nor execute His fierce wrath upon Amalek.
For this reason YAHWEH has done this word
to this day.

1 Sam. 28:19 And YAHWEH also has given Yisra'el itself אני with you into the hand of the Philistines.
And tomorrow you yourself אני and your sons
will be with me.
Also the assembly of Yisra'el itself אני
YAHWEH will give into the hand of the Philistines."

1 Sam. 28:20 And he hurried.
And Sha'ul fell with all the fulness of his height upon the ground.
And he was exceedingly afraid
because of the words of Shemu'el.
Also there was no strength in him because he had eaten no food
all day and all night.

1 Sam. 28:21 And the woman came to Sha'ul.
And she saw
that he trembled inwardly exceedingly.
And she said to him, "Behold!
Your female servant
has listened attentively to your voice.
And I have placed my life in my hands.
And I have listened attentively to the words themselves אני
which you spoke to me.
1 Sam. 28:22 And now, please listen attentively,
even you yourself אני,
to the voice of your female servant.
And I will place before your face a morsel of food.
And you are to eat!
And it will be strength in you
as you go on your way."
1 Sam. 28:23 But he refused.
And he said, "I am not going to eat."

But his servants, and also the woman, pressed upon him.
And he listened attentively to their voice.
And he got from the ground.
And he sat on the couch.
1 Sam. 28:24 And the woman
had a fattened calf in the house.
And she hurried.
And she slaughtered it.
And she took flour.
And she kneaded it.
And she baked matzah from it.
1 Sam. 28:25 And she brought it near to Sha'ul and his servants.
And they ate.
And they got up.
And they went that night.

Chapter 29

1 Sam. 29:1 And the Philistines assembled
all their encampments themselves nx at Aphek.
And Yisra'el pitched their tents at a fountain
which is in Yizre'el.
1 Sam. 29:2 And the leaders of the Philistines were passing over by hundreds and by thousands.
And David and his men were passing over
in the rear with Akish.
1 Sam. 29:3 And the leaders of the Philistines said,
"Who are these Hebrews?"
And Akish said to the leaders of the Philistines,
"Is this not David,
the servant of Sha'ul, king of Yisra'el,
who has been with me myself nx
these days and these years?
And to this day I have found no speck in him
from the day he came until this day."
1 Sam. 29:4 But the leaders of the Philistines were enraged at him.
And the leaders of the Philistines said to him,
"Cause the man himself nx to turn back!
And let him return to the place
which you have appointed there.
But he will not go down with us into battle.
And he will not become for us
an adversary in battle.
And what would be pleasing to his sovereign
if not with the heads of these men?"
1 Sam. 29:5 Is this not David of whom they sang to each other in dances saying,
'Sha'ul struck his thousands
and David his myriads'?"

1 Sam. 29:6 And Akish called David.
And he said to him, "As YAHWEH lives,
indeed, you yourself nx have been upright.
And your going out and your coming in with me myself nx in the encampment is good in my eyes.
Indeed, I have not found in you any harm to this day from the day of your coming to me
until this day.
But in the eyes of the leaders
you are not pleasing.
1 Sam. 29:7 And now, return.
And go in peace.
And do nothing bad in the eyes of the leaders of the Philistines."

1 Sam. 29:8 And David said to Akish,
"Indeed, what have I done?
And to this day
what have you found in your servant

from the day I was before your face
until this day
that I can not go and fight against the adversaries of my sovereign, the king?"
1 Sam. 29:9 And Akish responded.
And he said to David,
"I know that you yourself תָּא
are as good in my eyes
as a messenger of the gods.
However, the leaders of the Philistines have said,
'He is not to go up with us into battle.'

1 Sam. 29:10 And now,
you are to rise early in the morning
and your master's servants
who have come with you yourself תָּא.
And as you have risen early in the morning
and have light, then you are to go!"

1 Sam. 29:11 And David and his men
rose up early in the morning
for the sake of going in the morning,
to return to the land of the Philistines.
And the Philistines went up to Yizre'el.

Chapter 30

1 Sam. 30:1 And it was as David and his men came to Tziklag on the third day.
And the Amalekites had invaded into the south and into Tziklag.
And they had struck Tziklag itself תָּא.
And they had burned it itself תָּא with fire.
1 Sam. 30:2 And they took captive
the women themselves תָּא,
those who were from small to large.
They did not kill anyone,
but they led them away.
And they went on their way.

1 Sam. 30:3 And David and his men came to the city.
And behold!
It was burned with fire.
And their women
and their sons and their daughters
had been taken captive.
1 Sam. 30:4 And David and the people
who were with he himself תָּא
lifted up their voices themselves תָּא.
And they wept
until they had no more vitality to weep.

1 Sam. 30:5 And David's two wives
had been taken captive,
Ahino'am, the Yizre'elites,
and Abigail, the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.
1 Sam. 30:6 And David
was exceedingly distressed.
Indeed, the people spoke of stoning him,
because all of the people were bitter,
each man for his sons and his daughters.

But David strengthened himself
in YAHWEH, his Elohim.
1 Sam. 30:7 And David said to Ebyathar,
the priest, son of Ahimelek,
"Please bring the ephod to me here."
And Ebyathar brought the ephod itself תָּא to David.
1 Sam. 30:8 And David
inquired of YAHWEH saying,
"Shall I pursue after this crowd?
Will I reach them?"

And He said to him,
"Pursue!
Indeed, you will reach, reach them!
And you will rescue, rescue them!"

1 Sam. 30:9 And David went,
he and the six hundred men
who were with he himself תא.
And they came to the river Besor.
And those remaining behind stood there.
1 Sam. 30:10 And David pursued,
he and four hundred men,
And two hundred stood there
who were too weak to pass over the River Besor itself תא.

1 Sam. 30:11 And they found a Mitsraite man in the field.
And they brought he himself תא to David.
And they gave him food.
And he ate.
And they caused him to drink water.
1 Sam. 30:12 And they gave to him
a slice of figs cakes and two bunches of raisins.
And he ate.
And his breath returned to him.
Indeed, he had not eaten food nor drunk water for three days and three nights.

1 Sam. 30:13 And David said to him,
"To whom do you belong
and where are you from?"
And he said, "I am a young man from Mitsraim, servant of an Amalekite.
And my master abandoned me
because I was sick three days.
1 Sam. 30:14 We invaded the south of the Kerethites,
and against that which belongs to Yahudah,
and upon the south of Kaleb.
And Tziklag itself תא we burned with fire."

1 Sam. 30:15 And David said to him,
"Can you bring me down to this crowd?"
And he said,
"Swear to me by The Elohim
you will neither kill me nor surrender me into the hands of my master and I will bring you down to this crowd."

Many translations use "raiding party"
instead of crowd.
This is an "interpretation" of the text
based on the context,
but it is not a proper translation.

Also, many of the "translations" use "God"
Instead of "the elohim".
This is an error.
This man is Egyptian.
He lives by the 'gods' of Egypt.
He surely does not know YAHWEH.
This kind of error is a distortion of the text.

1 Sam. 30:16 And he brought him down.
And behold!
They were spread out over the whole land eating and drinking and dancing with all the great booty which they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Yahudah.

1 Sam. 30:17 And David struck them
from dusk until the evening of the next day.
And none of them escaped

except four hundred young men who rode on camels and fled.

1 Sam. 30:18 And David rescued
everything itself וְאֵל the Amalekites had taken.
And David rescued his two wives themselves וְאֵל.
1 Sam. 30:19 And nothing was missing to them, either small or great,
either sons or daughters, or booty,
or whatever they had taken from them.
David returned with everything.

1 Sam. 30:20 And David took
all the flocks and herds themselves וְאֵל,
those livestock they had driven before them.
And they said, "This is David's booty."

1 Sam. 30:21 And David came to the two hundred men who were too weak
from going after David.
And they had stayed at the river Besor.
And they went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with he himself וְאֵל.
And David came near the people themselves וְאֵל.
And he inquired of them concerning their welfare.

1 Sam. 30:22 And all the hurtful and worthless men of those who had gone with David responded.
And they said,
"Because they did not go with us
we will not give to them from the booty that we have rescued except for each man's wife herself וְאֵל
and his children themselves וְאֵל.
And they drove them away.
And they went."

1 Sam. 30:23 But David said, "My brothers, do not do so with that itself
which YAHWEH has given to us,
And He has protected us ourselves וְאֵל.
And He has given the crowd itself וְאֵל
that came against us into our hands.
1 Sam. 30:24 Also, who will listen attentively to you in this matter?
Indeed, like his allotment
who goes down to the battle,
so also is his allotment
who stays with the equipment.
The allotments will be the same."

1 Sam. 30:25 And it was so from that day and forward.
And he placed it for a rule
and for a regulation for Yisra'el to this day.

1 Sam. 30:26 And David went to Tziklag.
And he sent from the booty
to the elders of Yahudah,
to his companions saying,
"Behold!
A blessing for you from the booty
of the adversaries of YAHWEH.";
1 Sam. 30:27 to those in Bayit El,
and to those in Ramot of the South,
and to those in Yattir,
1 Sam. 30:28 and to those in Aro'er,
and to those in Siphmoth,
and to those in Eshtemoa,
1 Sam. 30:29 and to those in Rakal,
and to those in the cities of the Yerahme'elites,

and to those in the cities of the Kenites,
1 Sam. 30:30 and to those in Hormah,
and to those in Korashan,
and to those in Athak, 1 Sam. 30:31 and to those in Hebron,
and to all the places
where David had gone, he and his men.

Chapter 31

1 Sam. 31:1 And the Philistines
were fighting against Yisra'el.
And the men of Yisra'el fled from before the Philistines.
And they fell slain on Mount Gilboa.
1 Sam. 31:2 And the Philistines stuck with Sha'ul himself תא
and his sons themselves תא.
And the Philistines struck Yahonathan himself תא,
and Abinadab himself תא,
and Malkishua himself תא,
sons of Sha'ul.

1 Sam. 31:3 And the battle was heavy toward Sha'ul.
And the archers found him, men of the bow.
And he was severely wounded by the archers.
1 Sam. 31:4 And Sha'ul said
to the one carrying his equipment,
"Draw your sword and pierce me through with it lest these uncircumcised ones come and pierce me through and they abuse me."
But his equipment carrier was not willing because he was exceedingly afraid.
And Sha'ul took the sword itself תא.
And he fell on it.

1 Sam. 31:5 And the one carrying his equipment
saw that Sha'ul was dead.
And he also fell on his sword.
And he died beside him.
1 Sam. 31:6 And Sha'ul died, and his three sons,
and the one carrying his equipment,
even all his men together on that day.

1 Sam. 31:7 And they saw, the men of Yisra'el who were beyond the valley and those who were beyond The Yarden, that the men of Yisra'el had fled
and that Sha'ul and his sons were dead.
And they abandoned the cities themselves תא.
And they fled.
And the Philistines came.
And they dwelt in them.

1 Sam. 31:8 And it was the next day.
And the Philistines came
to strip the slain themselves תא.
And they found Sha'ul himself תא
and his three sons themselves תא, fallen on Mount Gilboa.
1 Sam. 31:9 And they cut off his head itself תא.
And they stripped off his armor itself תא.
And they sent word
into the land of the Philistines to announce it in the house of their idols
and to the people themselves תא.
1 Sam. 31:10 And they placed his armor itself תא
in the house of the Ashtarot.
And they fastened his body itself תא
to the wall of Bayit She'an.

1 Sam. 31:11 And the inhabitants of Yabesh Gil'ad heard

what itself תא the Philistines had done to Sha'ul.
1 Sam. 31:12 And all the able men rose up.
And they walked all night.
And they took the body itself תא of Sha'ul
and the bodies themselves תא of his sons
from the wall of Bayit She'an.
And they went to Yabesh.
And they burned there they themselves תא.
1 Sam. 31:13 And they took their bones themselves תא.
And they buried them
under the oak tree at Yabesh.
And they fasted seven days.

9: 2 Samuel – Shemu'el

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

2Sam. 1:1 And it was after the death of Sha'ul.
And David had returned from striking
the Amalekites themselves תא.
And David stayed at Ziklag two days.
2Sam. 1:2 And it was on the third day.
And behold!
A man came from the encampment,
from with Sha'ul.
And his garments were torn.
And soil was on his head.
And it was as he came to David.
And he fell to the ground and prostrated himself.
2Sam. 1:3 And David said to him,
"From where have you come?"
And he said to him, "I have escaped from the encampment of Yisra'el."
2Sam. 1:4 And David said to him,
"How was the matter?
Please declare it to me."
And he said,
"The people have fled from the battle.
And also many have fallen among the people and are dead.
And also Sha'ul and Yehonathan, his son,
are dead."
2Sam. 1:5 And David said to the young man,
the one declaring it to him,
"How do you know that Sha'ul and Yehonathan, his son, are dead?" 2Sam. 1:6 And the young man said,
the one declaring it to him,
"I happened to be on Mount Gilboa.
And behold!
Sha'ul was leaning upon his spear.
And behold!
The chariots and masters of the horses
stuck with him.
2Sam. 1:7 And he looked behind him.
And he saw me.
And he called to me.
And I said, 'I am here.'
2Sam. 1:8 And he said to me, 'Who are you?'
And I said to him, 'I am an Amalekite.'
2Sam. 1:9 And he said to me,
'Please stand over me and put me to death,
for agony has seized me but my life is still in me.'
2Sam. 1:10 And I stood over him.
And I put him to death because I knew he would not live after falling.
And I took the crown that was on his head
and the bracelet that was on his arm.
And I have brought them here to my master."

2Sam. 1:11 And David seized his own garments.
And he tore them,
and also all the men
who were with he himself נא.

2Sam. 1:12 And they mourned and wept and fasted until evening
for Sha'ul, and for Yehonathan his son, and for the people of YAHWEH,
and for the house of Yisra'el
because they had fallen by the sword.

2Sam. 1:13 And David said to the young man who had declared it to him,
"From where are you yourself נא?"
And he said, "I am the son of a foreigner, an Amalekite."

2Sam. 1:14 And David said to him,
"Why were you not afraid to stretch out your hand for the sake of destroying the anointed of YAHWEH himself נא?"

2Sam. 1:15 And David called to one of the young men.
And he said, "Draw near to encounter him!"
And he struck him.
And he put him to death.

2Sam. 1:16 And David said to him,
"Your blood is on your own head because your mouth
has witnessed against you saying,
'I myself have put to death
the anointed of YAHWEH himself נא.'"

2Sam. 1:17 And David lamented with this lamentation itself נא
over Sha'ul and over Yehonathan, his son.
2Sam. 1:18 And he said to teach "The Bow"
to the children of Yahudah.

Behold!
It is written on the scroll of Yashar:
Yashar means straight; upright.

2Sam. 1:19 "The splendor of Yisra'el is slain on your high places!
How the mighty have fallen!
2Sam. 1:20 Declare it not in Gath!
Proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon
lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised exult.

2Sam. 1:21 Mount Gilboa!
No dew or rain be upon you,
nor spread out elevation offerings because there was cast away
the shield of the mighty,
the shield of Sha'ul without anointing oil.

2Sam. 1:22 From the blood of the slain,
from the fat of the mighty,
the bow of Yehonathan did not turn back,
and the sword of Sha'ul did not return empty.

2Sam. 1:23 Sha'ul and Yehonathan were beloved and pleasant in their lives,
and in their death they were not parted.
They were swifter than eagles.
They were stronger than lions.

2Sam. 1:24 Daughters of Yisra'el, weep over Sha'ul
who wrapped you in scarlet with finery,
who decked your robes with ornaments of gold.

2Sam. 1:25 How the mighty have fallen
in the midst of the battle!
Yahonathan was slain on your high places.
2Sam. 1:26 I am distressed for you,
my brother, Yahonathan.
You have been very pleasant to me.
Your love to me was wondrous,
surpassing the love of women.

2Sam. 1:27 How the mighty have fallen
and the weapons of battle perish!"

Chapter 2

2Sam. 2:1 And it was afterwards.
And David inquired of YAHWEH saying,
"Am I to go up to one of the cities of Yahudah?"
And YAHWEH said to him, "Go up!"
And David said, "Where am I to go up?"
And He said, "To Hebron." 2Sam. 2:2 And David went up there and also his two wives,
Ahino'am, the Yizre'elites,
and Abigail, the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.
2Sam. 2:3 And the men who were with him
David brought up, each man and his household.
And they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

2Sam. 2:4 And the men of Yahudah came.
And they anointed there as king David himself תא
over the house of Yahudah.

And they reported to David saying,
"The men of Yabesh Gil'ad were the ones who buried Sha'ul himself תא." 2Sam. 2:5 And David sent messengers
to the men of Yabesh Gil'ad.
And he said to them,
"Blessed are you yourselves תא by YAHWEH
who have shown this kindness
to your sovereign, to Sha'ul,
and have buried he himself תא.
2Sam. 2:6 And now YAHWEH will do with you kindness and faithfulness.
And I also will do good to you yourselves תא
who have done this thing.

2Sam. 2:7 And now
let your hands be strengthened and be sons of force
because your sovereign, Sha'ul, is dead.
And also I myself תא have been anointed
by the house of Yahudah as king over them."

2Sam. 2:8 And Abner, son of Ner,
captain of the assembly of Sha'ul,
took Ish'boshet himself תא, the son of Sha'ul,
and caused him to pass over to Mahanaim.
Ish'boshet means man of shame.
Manahaim means double camp.

2Sam. 2:9 And he caused him to reign over Gil'ad,
and over the Asherites,
and over Yizre'el,
and over Ephraim,
and over Binyamin,
and over all Yisra'el.

2Sam. 2:10 Ish'boshet, son of Sha'ul, was forty years old
as he began to reign over Yisra'el.
And he reigned two years.
Only the house of Yahudah followed David.

2Sam. 2:11 And it was from the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Yahudah.

And it was seven years and six months.

2Sam. 2:12 And Abner, son of Ner,
and the servants of Ish'boshet, son of Sha'ul,
went out from Mahanaim to Gib'on.
2Sam. 2:13 And Yo'ab, son of Tzeruyah,
and the servants of David went out.
And they met together beside the pool of Gib'on.
And these sat down on one side of the pool
and those on the other side of the pool.

Tzeruyah means wounded by YAH.

2Sam. 2:14 And Abner said to Yo'ab,
"Let the young men stand up now and make sport before us."
And Yo'ab said, "Let them stand up."
2Sam. 2:15 And they stood up.
And they passed over by number,
twelve from Binyamin,
followers of Ish'boshet, son of Sha'ul,
and twelve from the servants of David.
2Sam. 2:16 And each one seized his companion by the head and put his sword into his companion's side.
And they fell down together.
And the place was called The Field of Flints,
which is at Gib'on.

2Sam. 2:17 And the battle was fierce on that day.
And Abner and the men of Yisra'el were defeated before the servants of David.

2Sam. 2:18 And three sons of Tzeruyah were there, Yo'ab, and Abishai, and Asah'el.
And Asah'el was light on his feet
like one of the gazelles in the field.

Yo'ab means fathered by YAH.

Abishai means gift of the father.

Asah'el means made by El.

2Sam. 2:19 And Asah'el pursued after Abner.
And in going he did not move aside
to the right or to the left from behind Abner.
2Sam. 2:20 And Abner faced behind him.
And he said, "Are you Asah'el?"
And he said, "I am."
2Sam. 2:21 And Abner said to him,
"Turn aside to your right hand or to your left and seize one of the young men.
And take for yourself his armor itself תא."
But Asah'el was not willing to turn aside from behind him.
2Sam. 2:22 And once again Abner said to Asah'el,
"Turn aside from behind me.
Why should I strike you to the ground?
How then could I lift up my face
to your brother, Yo'ab?"
2Sam. 2:23 But he refused to turn aside.
And Abner struck him with the back of the spear
into the abdomen.
And the spear came out of his back.
And he fell down there.
And he died beneath it.
And it existed that everyone was coming to the place where Asah'el fell and died.
And they stood.

2Sam. 2:24 And Yo'ab and Abishai pursued after Abner.
And the sun came in.
And they came to the hill of Ammah
which is over against Giah
by the road to the Wilderness of Gib'on.
2Sam. 2:25 And the children of Binyamin gathered together behind Abner.

And it was one group.
And they stood on top of one hill.
2Sam. 2:26 And Abner called to Yo'ab.
And he said, "Will the sword consume forever?
Do you not know
that it will be bitterness in the end?
And when are you going to speak to the people for the sake of returning from pursuing their kindred?"
2Sam. 2:27 And Yo'ab said,
"As The Elohim lives, if you had not spoken
each man then by morning would have given up
from pursuing their kindred."
2Sam. 2:28 Yo'ab then blew a shofar.
And all the people stood.
And they did not pursue Yisra'el any longer.
And they did not fight any more.

2Sam. 2:29 And Abner and his men walked in the desert plain all that night.
And they passed over The Yarden itself תא.
And they walked through all of Bitron.
And they went to Mahanaim.

2Sam. 2:30 And Yo'ab turned back from pursuing Abner.
And he gathered together
all the people themselves תא.
And there were missing of David's servants
nineteen men and Asah'el.
2Sam. 2:31 But the servants of David had struck of Binyamin and Abner's men
three hundred and sixty men who died.

2Sam. 2:32 And they lifted up Asah'el himself תא.
And they buried him in his father's tomb
which was in Bayit Lechem.
And Yo'ab and his men walked all night.
And they were at Hebron at daybreak.

Chapter 3

2Sam. 3:1 And the fighting was long
between the house of Sha'ul
and the house of David.
And David went on stronger.
And the house of Sha'ul went on weaker and weaker.

2Sam. 3:2 And sons were born to David at Hebron.
And his firstborn was Amnon
by Ahino'am, the Yizre'elitess.
Amnon means faithful.

2Sam. 3:3 And his second was Kil'ab, by Abigail,
the widow of Nabal the Carmelite.
And the third was Abshalom, son of Ma'akah,
the daughter of Talmi, king of Geshur.
Kil'ab means restraint of the father.
Abshalom means father of shalom.

2Sam. 3:4 And the fourth was Adoniyah, son of Haggith.
And the fifth was, Shephatyah, son of Abital.
Adoniyah means YAH is sovereign.
Shephatyah means YAH has judged.

2Sam. 3:5 And the sixth was Yitre'am,
by David's wife Eglah.
These were born to David at Hebron.
Yitre'am means excellence of people.

2Sam. 3:6 And it was as there was fighting
between the house of Sha'ul
and the house of David.
And Abner was strengthening himself
in the house of Sha'ul.

2Sam. 3:7 And Sha'ul had a concubine.

And her name was Ritspah, daughter of Ayah.
And Ish'boshet said to Abner,
"Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?"
2Sam. 3:8 And the anger of Abner
flared up exceedingly
over the words of Ish'boshet.
And he said, "Am I a dog's head that belongs to Yahudah that I do kindness to the house of Sha'ul, your father,
to his kindred, and to his friends today,
and have not caused you
to be in the hands of David,
yet you hold me accountable today
over a moral wrong with this woman?" 2Sam. 3:9 According to this may The Elohim do to me and more also if I do not do for David
according to what YAHWEH has sworn to him, 3:10 to cause the reign to pass over from the house of Sha'ul
and to raise up the throne of David itself תא over Yisra'el and over Yahudah
from Dan to Beersheba."

2Sam. 3:11 And he was not able any longer to respond to Abner himself תא a word
because he was afraid of he himself תא.

2Sam. 3:12 And Abner sent messengers
in place of himself to David saying,
"Whose is the land?", saying also,
"Cut your covenant with me myself תא.
And behold!
My hand will be with you for the sake of turning back to you all Yisra'el itself תא."

2Sam. 3:13 And David said, "Good!
I myself will cut a covenant with you yourself תא.
However, one word I will ask
from you yourself תא.
That is to say, you will not see my face itself תא
unless you first bring Mikal herself תא, daughter of Sha'ul,
as you come to see my face itself תא."

2Sam. 3:14 And David sent messengers
to Ish'boshet, son of Sha'ul saying,
"Give to me my wife herself תא Mikal herself תא, to whom I was engaged on account of a hundred foreskins of the Philistines."

2Sam. 3:15 And Ish'boshet sent.
And he took her from her husband,
from Palti'el, son of Laish.
2Sam. 3:16 And her husband walked with her herself תא to Bahurim,
And he was walking and weeping behind her.
And Abner said to him, "Return!"
And he returned.

2Sam. 3:17 And Abner had a word with the elders of Yisra'el saying,
"Yesterday and the day before you were seeking for David himself תא
to be king over you.
2Sam. 3:18 And now do it!
Indeed, YAHWEH has spoken to David saying,
"By the hand of My servant David My people Yisra'el themselves תא will be delivered
from the hand of the Philistines
and from the hand of all their adversaries.' "

2Sam. 3:19 And Abner also spoke in the ears of Binyamin.
And Abner also went to speak in the ears of David at Hebron everything itself אָנֹכִי that seemed good to Yisra'el and to all the house of Binyamin.

2Sam. 3:20 And Abner came to David at Hebron.
And with he himself אָנֹכִי were twenty men.
And David made a banquet for Abner
and the men who were with he himself אָנֹכִי.

2Sam. 3:21 And Abner said to David,
“Let me rise up and go.
And I will gather to my sovereign the king,
all Yisra'el itself אָנֹכִי.
And they will cut a covenant with you yourself אָנֹכִי.
And you will reign over all that your life desires.”
And David sent away Abner himself אָנֹכִי.
And he went in peace.

2Sam. 3:22 And behold!
The servants of David and Yo'ab came from a raiding party.
And great booty was with them.

And Abner was not with David at Hebron
because he had sent him away.
And he had gone in peace.

2Sam. 3:23 And Yo'ab came,
and all the assembly that was with he himself אָנֹכִי.
And they reported to Yo'ab saying,
“Abner, son of Ner, came to the king.
And he sent him away.
And he has gone in peace.”

2Sam. 3:24 And Yo'ab went to the king.
And he said, “What have you done?
Behold!

Abner came to you!
Why have you sent him away
and he has gone, he has gone?
2Sam. 3:25 You know that Abner himself אָנֹכִי, son of Ner, came to you for the sake of deceiving you and to know your going out itself אָנֹכִי
and your coming in itself אָנֹכִי,
and to know everything itself אָנֹכִי
that you yourself אָנֹכִי are doing.”

2Sam. 3:26 And Yo'ab left David.
And he sent messengers after Abner.
And he returned, he himself אָנֹכִי,
from the well of Sirah.
And David did not know it.

2Sam. 3:27 And Abner returned to Hebron.
And Yo'ab took him aside
in the middle of the gate to speak in private to he himself אָנֹכִי.
And there he struck him in the abdomen.
And he put him to death on account of the blood of Asah'el, his brother.

2Sam. 3:28 And David heard about this afterwards.
And he said,
“My kingdom and I are innocent before YAHWEH for eternity
from the blood of Abner, son of Ner.
2Sam. 3:29 Let it writhe upon the head of Yo'ab
and on all his father's house.
And let there never be cut off

from the house of Yo'ab
one who has a discharge, or is a leper,
who leans on a staff, or falls by the sword,
or who lacks food."

2Sam. 3:30 And Yo'ab and Abishai, his brother, murdered Abner on account of his killing their brother, Asah'el himself אָה,
at Gib'on in the battle.

2Sam. 3:31 And David said to Yo'ab and to all the people who were with he himself אָה,
"Tear your garments!
Gird yourselves with sackcloth!
And mourn before the face of Abner!"
And David the king walked behind the coffin.
2Sam. 3:32 And they buried Abner himself אָה
at Hebron.
And the king lifted up his voice אָה.
And he wept beside the grave of Abner.
And all the people wept.
2Sam. 3:33 And the king lamented over Abner.
And he said, "Should Abner die as a fool dies?
2Sam. 3:34 Your hands were not bound.
And your feet did not come into shackles.
As one falls before sons of moral wrong,
according to this you fell."
And all the people wept over him again.

2Sam. 3:35 And all the people came for the sake of causing David himself אָה
to eat food while it was still day.
But David swore saying,
"The Elohim do so to me and more also if I taste bread or whatever else until the sun comes in!"

2Sam. 3:36 And all the people took note of it.
And it was good in their eyes.
According to everything the king did,
it was good in the eyes of all the people.
2Sam. 3:37 And all the people and all Yisra'el knew that day that it had not been the king's intent to kill Abner himself אָה, son of Ner.

2Sam. 3:38 And the king said to his servants,
"Do you not know that a leader and a great one has fallen this day in Yisra'el?
2Sam. 3:39 And I am soft hearted today,
even as anointed king.
And these men, the sons of Tzeruyah,
are more harsh than me.
May YAHWEH repay the one who does bad
according to his harm."

Chapter 4

2Sam. 4:1 And the son of Sha'ul heard that Abner had been killed at Hebron.
And his hands weakened.
And all Yisra'el trembled inwardly.

2Sam. 4:2 And two men, captains of bands,
were Sha'ul's.
The name of the one was Ba'anah
and the name of the other Rekab, sons of Rimmon the Be'erotherite
from the children of Binyamin.
Indeed, Be'erother was also reckoned to Binyamin, Ba'anah means in affliction.
Rekab means rider.
Rimmon means set apart.
Be'erother means wells.

2Sam. 4:3 And the Be'erothites had fled to Gittaim.
And they have been sojourners there until this day.

2Sam. 4:4 And Yehonathan, son of Sha'ul, had a son who was lame in his feet.
He was five years old when the announcement came from Yizre'el about Sha'ul and Yehonathan.
And his nurse took lifted him up.
And she fled.
And it was as she hurried to flee.
And he fell. And he became lame.
And his name was Mephiboshet.
Mephiboshet means dispeller of shame.

2Sam. 4:5 And the sons of Rimmon,
the Be'erothite, Rekab and Ba'anah, walked.
And they came at the heat of the day
to the house of Ish'boshet, who was lying down on his bed itself תא at noon.
2Sam. 4:6 And they went into the midst of the house
for the sake of taking wheat.
And they struck him in the abdomen.
And Rekab and Ba'anah his brother escaped.
2Sam. 4:7 And they had gone into the house.
And he was lying on his bed in his bedroom.
And they struck him.
And they killed him.
And they took off his head itself תא.
And they took his head itself תא.
And they went by way of the desert all night.
2Sam. 4:8 And they brought the head itself תא of Ish'boshet to David at Hebron.
And they said to the king,
"Behold!
The head of Ish'boshet,
son of Sha'ul, your adversary
who sought your life itself תא.
And YAHWEH has given to my sovereign the king vengeance this day
against Sha'ul and his seed."

2Sam. 4:9 And David responded to Rekab himself תא
and to Ba'anah himself תא, his brother, sons of Rimmon the Be'erothite.
And he said to them,
"As YAHWEH lives
Who has redeemed my life itself תא
from every trouble, 2Sam. 4:10 thus it was reported to me saying,
'Behold!
Sha'ul is dead.'
And he was a bearer of good news
in his own eyes.
And I seized him.
And I killed him in Tziklag,
which is what I gave to him for his good news.
2Sam. 4:11 How much more when morally wrong men have killed a just man himself תא
in his own house on his bed?
And now,
should I not now require his blood itself תא
from your hands themselves תא
and consume you yourselves תא from the earth?"

2Sam. 4:12 And David directed his young men themselves תא.
And they killed them.

And they cut off their hands themselves תא
and their feet themselves תא.
And they hung them beside the pool at Hebron.

And they took the head of Ish'boshet itself תא.
And they buried it in the tomb of Abner at Hebron.

Chapter 5

2Sam. 5:1 And all the tribes of Yisra'el came to David at Hebron.
And they spoke saying,
"Behold!
We are your bone and your flesh.
2Sam. 5:2 Yesterday and the day before when Sha'ul was king over us
you yourself תא were bringing out and bringing in Yisra'el itself תא.
And YAHWEH said to you,
"You yourself תא, will shepherd
My people themselves תא, Yisra'el itself תא.
And you yourself תא will be ruler over Yisra'el.' "

2Sam. 5:3 And all the elders of Yisra'el
came to the king at Hebron.
And King David
cut a covenant with them at Hebron
before the face of YAHWEH.
And they anointed David himself תא
as king over Yisra'el.
2Sam. 5:4 David was thirty years old
at his reigning.
He reigned forty years.
2Sam. 5:5 In Hebron he reigned over Yahudah
seven years and six months.
And in Yerushalaim he reigned thirty-three years
over all Yisra'el and Yahudah.

2Sam. 5:6 And the king and his men went to Yerushalaim
against the Yebusites dwelling in the land.
And they spoke to David saying,
"You will not come in here!
Indeed, even the blind and the lame
will turn you aside!
That is to say, "David will not come in here."

2Sam. 5:7 But David captured the stronghold of Zion itself תא,
The City of David.

Zion means parched.
This is the first place in Scripture
this identification is used.
There is some debate
over it's actual meaning,
but it comes from a root
that means to parch.
It's also used of a desert.

It's located
on the southeast corner of Yerushalaim.
It appears that the movement
referred to as "Zionism"
refers to the concept of re-establishing the Kingdom of David.
This became "his city."

2Sam. 5:8 And David said on that day,
"If anyone is striking the Yebusites
then he is to touch by the water shaft
both the lame themselves תא
and the blind themselves תא who hated David's life."
On account of this they say,
"The blind and the lame
are not to come into the house."

2Sam. 5:9 And David dwelt in the stronghold.

And he called it The City of David.
And David built all around from the rampart even to the house.

2Sam. 5:10 And David went on.
He went on and became great.
And YAHWEH, The Elohim of Assemblies, was with him.

2Sam. 5:11 And Hiram, king of Tzor, sent messengers to David,
and cedar trees, and carpenters,
and craftsmen of stone walls.
And they built a house for David.

Tzor means rock or stone.
This is traditionally known as Tyre.
Also, traditionally,
reference is made to "masons".
The Hebrew has no word for "masons".
The literal rendering of the text is given.

2Sam. 5:12 And David understood that YAHWEH
had established him as king over Yisra'el, and that He had raised up His kingdom
for the sake of His people, Yisra'el.

2Sam. 5:13 And David took more concubines and wives from Yerushalaim
after he had come from Hebron.
And more sons and daughters were born to David.

2Sam. 5:14 And these are the names of those born to him in Yerushalaim:

Shammua,
and Shobab,
and Nathan,
and Shelomoh, 2Sam. 5:15 and Yibhar,
and Elishua,
and Nepheg,
and Yaphia, 2Sam. 5:16 and Elishama,
and Elyada,
and Eliphelet.

Shammua means renowned.
Shobab means rebellious.
Nathan means gift, or given.

Shelomoh means peaceful.
This is traditionally rendered as Solomon.
It comes from the root, shalom.

Yibhar means choice.
Elishua means delivered by my El.
Nepheg means a sprout.
Yaphia means bright.
Elishama means my El is listening.
Elyada means El knows.
Eliphelet means called out by my El.

2Sam. 5:17 And the Philistines heard that David himself נא
had been anointed king over Yisra'el.
And all the Philistines went up for the sake of searching for David himself נא.
And David heard.

And he went down to the stronghold.
2Sam. 5:18 And the Philistines came.
And they spread themselves out
in the Valley of Repha'im.

2Sam. 5:19 And David inquired of YAHWEH saying,
"Shall I go up against the Philistines?
Will You give them into my hand?"
And YAHWEH said to David,
"Go up! Indeed, I will give,

give the Philistines themselves תָּא
into your hand.”

2Sam. 5:20 And David went to Ba'al Peratzim.
And David struck them there.
And he said,
“YAHWEH has breached my enemies
before my face like a break out of water.”
Therefore he called the name of that place
Ba'al Peratzim.

Ba'al Peratzim
means master, or 'lord', of breaches.

2Sam. 5:21 And they abandoned there their images themselves תָּא.
And David and his men picked them up.

2Sam. 5:22 And the Philistines again came up.
And they were spread out
in the Valley of Repha'im.

2Sam. 5:23 And David inquired of YAHWEH.

And He said, “Do not go up!

Go around behind them!

And you are to come toward them
from in front of the weeping trees.

2Sam. 5:24 And it will be when you hear the sound itself תָּא of marching in the tops of the weeping trees

then you are to act promptly because then YAHWEH will go out before you to strike the encampment of the Philistines.”

2Sam. 5:25 And David did according to what YAHWEH had directed him.

And they struck the Philistines themselves תָּא
from Geba until you come to Gezer.

Chapter 6

2Sam. 6:1 And David again gathered every chosen man of Yisra'el, thirty thousand.

2Sam. 6:2 And he rose up.

And David went and all the people

who were with he himself תָּא

from Ba'ale Yahudah to bring up from there

The Chest of The Elohim itself תָּא

which is called by the Name,
the Name YAHWEH of Assemblies,
with the cherubim sitting upon it.

2Sam. 6:3 And they placed

The Chest of The Elohim itself תָּא on a new cart.

And they carried it from the house of Abinadab
which was at Gib'ah.

And Uzzah and Ahyo, sons of Abinadab, were leading the new cart itself תָּא.

Uzza means strength.

Ahyo means brotherly.

2Sam. 6:4 And they carried it from the house of Abinadab

which was at Gib'ah

with The Chest of The Elohim.

And Ahyo was walking in front of The Chest.

2Sam. 6:5 And David

and the whole house of Yisra'el

were celebrating before the face of YAHWEH

with every instrument of fir wood,

and with lyres,

and with harps,

and with tambourines,

and with castanets,

and with cymbals.

2Sam. 6:6 And they had gone as far as the threshing floor of Nakon.

And Uzzah reached out

toward The Chest of The Elohim.

And he grabbed it because the oxen fell down.

Nakon means prepared.

2Sam. 6:7 And the anger of YAHWEH flared up against Uzzah.

And The Elohim struck him there on account of the error.

And he died there beside The Chest of The Elohim.

2Sam. 6:8 And David was was angry over why YAHWEH had broken out, broken out against Uzzah.

And the place is called Peretz Uzzah, until this day.

2Sam. 6:9 And David was afraid of YAHWEH Himself תא on that day.

And he said,

“How can The Chest of YAHWEH come to me?”

Note the shift of name for The Chest.

This is significant

It indicates the editing of the text to REMOVE The Name, YAHWEH from the text in some of the previous verses and replacing it with "The Elohim".

We don't know every place where this was done.

Wherever "The Elohim" exists one needs to consider that YAHWEH likely at one point occurred in the original manuscripts.

Pay careful attention to the coming usages in the verses which follow, they are inconsistent.

2Sam. 6:10 And David was not willing to turn aside to himself

The Chest itself תא of YAHWEH into The City of David. And David moved it to the house of Obed Edom the Gittite.

Obed Edom means servant of Edom.

2Sam. 6:11 And The Chest of YAHWEH remained in the house of Obed Edom the Gittite three months.

And YAHWEH blessed Obed Edom himself תא and all his household itself תא.

2Sam. 6:12 And it was reported to King David saying, “YAHWEH has blessed the household of Obed Edom itself תא and everything itself תא that is his on account of The Chest of The Elohim.”

And David went.

And he brought up

The Chest of The Elohim itself תא

from the house of Obed Edom to The City of David with joy.

2Sam. 6:13 And it was as those carrying The Chest of YAHWEH marched six paces. And he slaughtered oxen and fatlings.

2Sam. 6:14 And David danced with all his strength before the face of YAHWEH.

And David was wearing a linen ephod.

2Sam. 6:15 And David and all the house of Yisra'el brought up The Chest of YAHWEH itself תא with shouting and with the sound of the shofar.

2Sam. 6:16 And it was as The Chest of YAHWEH came into The City of David.

And Mikal, daughter of Sha'ul, looked through a window.

And she saw King David himself תא

leaping and dancing before the face of YAHWEH.
And she despised him in her heart.

2Sam. 6:17 And they brought in
The Chest of YAHWEH itself nx.
And they established it itself nx in its place
in the center of the tent
that David had spread out for it.
And David offered up olahs
before the face of YAHWEH
and shelem offerings.

2Sam. 6:18 And David finished offering up the olahs and the shelem offerings.
And he blessed the people themselves nx
in the Name of YAHWEH of Assemblies.

2Sam. 6:19 And he apportioned to all the people, to all the multitude of Yisra'el,
from man even to woman,
to each man one cake of bread,
and one portion of flesh,
and one cake of raisins.
And all the people went, each man to his house.

2Sam. 6:20 And David returned to bless his household itself nx.
And Mikal, daughter of Sha'ul, came out to meet David.
And she said,
"How dignified today was the king of Yisra'el,
who uncovered himself today
in the eyes of the female servants, his servants,
as one of the worthless ones uncovers,
uncovers himself!"

2Sam. 6:21 And David said to Mikal,
"It was before YAHWEH
Who has selected me
instead of your father and all his household
for the sake of giving direction to me myself nx
as ruler over the people of YAHWEH,
over Yisra'el.

I played before the face of YAHWEH.
2Sam. 6:22 And I will be more belittled than this.
And I will be lowly in my own eyes.
And as for the female servants
of whom you spoke,
with them I will be held in honor."

2Sam. 6:23 And Mikal, daughter of Sha'ul, had no children to the day of her death.

Chapter 7

2Sam. 7:1 And it was as the king
was dwelling in his house.
And YAHWEH had given him rest
from all his adversaries all around.

2Sam. 7:2 And the king said
to Nathan the prophet,
"Observe now!
I am dwelling in a house of cedar.
But The Chest of The Elohim
dwells within curtains.
2Sam. 7:3 And Nathan said to the king,
"Do all that is in your heart.
Indeed, YAHWEH is with you."

2Sam. 7:4 And it was that night.
And the word of YAHWEH
existed to Nathan saying, 2Sam. 7:5 "Go and say to My servant David,
'Thus said YAHWEH,
'"Will you yourself nx
build a house for Me to dwell in?
2Sam. 7:6 Indeed, I have not dwelt in a house from the time that I brought up

the Children of Yisra'el themselves תא
from Mitsraim even to this day.
And I have been going in a Tent
and in a Dwelling Place.
2Sam. 7:7 Wherever I have gone with all the Children of Yisra'el have I ever spoken a word to one of the tribes of Yisra'el itself תא
which I directed to shepherd
My people themselves תא, Yisra'el itself תא, saying,
'Why have you not built for Me
a house of cedar?'"
2Sam. 7:8 And now, say to My servant David,
Thus said YAHWEH of Assemblies,
"I Myself took you from the pasture,
from following the flock,
for the sake of being ruler over My people,
over Yisra'el.
2Sam. 7:9 And I have been with you wherever you have gone.
And I have cut off
all your adversaries themselves תא
from before your face.
And I have made for you a great name,
like the name of the great ones
who are on the earth.
2Sam. 7:10 And I will establish a place for My people, for Yisra'el.
And I will plant them.
And they will dwell in it.
And they will no longer be shaken by moral harm.
And the children of moral harm
will not oppress them again as at the first, 2Sam. 7:11 even from the day I directed judges
over My people Yisra'el.
And I have caused rest for you
from all your adversaries."

And YAHWEH has declared to you that YAHWEH will make for you a house.
2Sam. 7:12 When your days are fulfilled and you sleep with your fathers themselves תא
then I will raise up your seed itself תא after you who comes out from your inward parts.
And I will set up his kingdom itself תא.
2Sam. 7:13 He will build a house for My Name.
And I will set up the throne itself תא
of his kingdom for eternity.

2Sam. 7:14 I Myself will be his Father.
And he will be My son, whom in distortion I will correct
with the rod of men
and with blows of the sons of men.
2Sam. 7:15 But My kindness will not be turned aside from him
as I turned it aside from Sha'ul whom I turned aside from before your face.
2Sam. 7:16 And your house and your kingdom will be established before you until eternity.
Your throne will established until eternity."

2Sam. 7:17 According to all these words and according to all this vision,
thus spoke Nathan to David.

2Sam. 7:18 And King David went in.
And he sat before the face of YAHWEH.
And he said,
"Who am I, my Sovereign YAHWEH?
And what is my house
that You have brought me as far as here?"

2Sam. 7:19 And yet this was a small matter in Your eyes, my Sovereign, YAHWEH.

And You have spoken also concerning Your servant's household
for a great while to come.
And is this the custom with human beings,
my Sovereign YAHWEH?

2Sam. 7:20 And what more can David say to You?
Indeed, You Yourself nx, Sovereign YAHWEH,

You know Your servant himself nx.
7:21 For the sake of Your word and according to Your own heart
You have done all this greatness itself nx
for the sake of making it known to Your servant himself nx.

2Sam. 7:22 For this reason You are great,
my Sovereign, YAHWEH!
Indeed, there is none like You!
And there is no Elohim except You
according to all that we have heard with our ears.

2Sam. 7:23 And who is like Your people, like Yisra'el,
one nation on earth whom The Elohim went to redeem for Himself as a people and to make for Himself a Name,
and to do for them the greatness,
and the fearsome acts for Your land
before the face of Your people whom You have redeemed for Yourself
from Mitsraim,
from the nations and their gods?

2Sam. 7:24 And You have established for Yourself
Your people themselves nx, Yisra'el,
as Your own people forever.
And You Yourself nx, YAHWEH,
have become for them The Elohim.

2Sam. 7:25 And now YAHWEH, The Elohim,
the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant
and concerning his house,
establish it for eternity.
And do according to what You have spoken.

2Sam. 7:26 And may Your Name
be magnified for eternity saying,
'YAHWEH of Assemblies
is The Elohim over Yisra'el.'

And let the house of Your servant David be established before Your face.
2Sam. 7:27 Indeed, You, YAHWEH of Assemblies,
The Elohim of Yisra'el,
have revealed this itself nx to Your servant saying, 'I will build you a house.'
On account of this Your servant
has found his heart itself nx
to pray to You this prayer itself nx.

2Sam. 7:28 And now, my Sovereign YAHWEH,
You Yourself nx are The Elohim!
And Your words are faithful!
And You have spoken to Your servant
this goodness itself nx.

2Sam. 7:29 And now be willing and bless the household itself nx of Your servant
for the sake of existing before Your face for eternity.

Indeed, You Yourself nx,
my Sovereign, YAHWEH, have spoken it.

And with Your blessing
the house of Your servant is blessed for eternity.”

Chapter 8

2Sam. 8:1 And it was after this.
And David struck the Philistines themselves תא.
And he humiliated them.
And David took Metheg ha'Ammah itself תא
from the hand of the Philistines.

Metheg Ha'Ammah means
the bit of the mother city.
It's another name for Gath.
It was the pride of the Philistines.

2Sam. 8:2 And he struck Mo'ab itself תא.
And he measured them with a line causing they themselves תא
to lie down on the ground.
And with two lines he measured
those to be put to death,
and with one full line those to be kept alive.
And the Mo'abites became David's servants,
bringing tributes.

2Sam. 8:3 And David struck Hadadezer himself תא,
son of Rehob, king of Tzobah,
as he was going to restore his kingdom
at the River Euphrates.
2Sam. 8:4 And David captured from him
one thousand seven hundred horsemen
and twenty thousand foot soldiers.
And David hamstringed
all the chariots themselves תא.
And there remained from them
a hundred chariots.

2Sam. 8:5 And the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer, king of Tzobah.
And David struck twenty two thousand of the Arameans.

2Sam. 8:6 And David placed garrisons
in Aram of Damascus.
And the Arameans became David's servants,
bringing tributes.
And YAHWEH delivered David himself תא
wherever he went.

2Sam. 8:7 And David took the shields of gold themselves תא
which were on the servants of Hadadezer.
And he brought them to Yerushalaim.
2Sam. 8:8 And from Bethah and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer,
King David took exceedingly much copper.

2Sam. 8:9 And To'i, king of Hamat, heard that David had struck
all the assembly of Hadadezer itself תא.
8:10 And To'i sent Yoram himself תא, his son, to King David for the sake of asking peace of him and to bless him because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him
because Hadadezer had battles with To'i.
And in his hand were objects of silver,
and objects of gold, and objects of copper.

2Sam. 8:11 King David also set apart
these themselves תא to YAHWEH
with the silver and gold that he had set apart from all the nations
which he had humiliated:
2Sam. 8:12 from Aram,
and from Mo'ab,
and from the children of Ammon,

and from the Philistines,
and from Amalek,
and from the booty of Hadadezer,
son of Rehob, king of Tzobah.

2Sam. 8:13 And David made a name
as he returned from smiting
the Arameans themselves תא
in the Valley of Salt, eighteen thousand.

2Sam. 8:14 And he placed garrisons in Edom.
In all of Edom he placed garrisons.
And all the Edomites became David's servants.

And YAHWEH delivered David himself תא
wherever he went.

2Sam. 8:15 And David reigned over all Yisra'el.
And David was making judgments
and doing justice for all his people.

2Sam. 8:16 And Yo'ab, son of Tzeruyah,
was over the assembly.
And Yahoshaphat, son of Ahilud, was recorder.
2Sam. 8:17 And Tzadok, son of Ahitub,
and Ahimelek, son of Ebyathar, were the priests.
And Serayah was the scribe.
2Sam. 8:18 And Benayah, son of Yahoyada, was over both the Kerethites and the Pelethites.
And David's sons were priests.

Chapter 9

2Sam. 9:1 And David said,
"Is there anyone who still remains of the house of Sha'ul that I might show him kindness
because of Yahnathan?"
2Sam. 9:2 And the house of Sha'ul had a servant.
And his name was Tziba.
And they had called him to David.
And the king said to him,
"Are you yourself תא Tziba?"
And he said, "Your servant!"

Tziba means stationed.

2Sam. 9:3 And the king said,
"Is there not still a man of the house of Sha'ul
so that I can do for him
the kindness of The Elohim?"
And Tziba said to the king,
"There is still a son of Yahnathan.
He is lame in his feet."

2Sam. 9:4 And the king said to him,
"Where is he?"
And Tziba said to the king,
"Behold!
He is in the house of Makir,
son of Ammi'el, in Lo Debar."

Makir means salesman.

Ammi'el means people of El.

Lo Debar means not a pasture.

2Sam. 9:5 And King David sent.
And he brought him out of the house of Makir,
son of Ammi'el, from Lo Debar.
9:6 And Mephiboshet, son of Yahnathan,
son of Sha'ul, came to David.
And he fell on his face and prostrated himself.
And David said, "Mephiboshet!"
And he answered, "Your servant is here!"
2Sam. 9:7 And David then said to him,
"Do not be afraid!
Indeed, I will do, do kindness with you for the sake of Yahnathan, your father.

And I will return to you all the land itself תָּא of Sha'ul, your grandfather.
And you yourself תָּא will eat food
at my table continually.”
2Sam. 9:8 And he prostrated himself.
And he said, “What is your servant
that you should look upon such a dead dog as I?”

2Sam. 9:9 And the king called Tziba, servant of Sha'ul.
And he said to him, “Everything that was Sha'ul's and all his household's
I have given to the son of your master.
9:10 And you yourself תָּא, and your sons,
and your servants are to work the land for him.
And you are to bring it in.
And your master's son will have food.
And he will eat.
And Mephiboshet, your master's son,
will eat food at my table continually.”

And Tziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.
2Sam. 9:11 And Tziba said to the king,
“According to everything
that my sovereign the king
has directed his servant himself תָּא, accordingly your servant will do.”
“And Mephiboshet will be eating eat at my table like one of the sons of the king.”

The Hebrew text does not provide an accurate rendering
of this portion of the text.
It appears this is an editorial change
or perhaps a copyist error.
The quotation belongs to David,
not to Tziba.

2Sam. 9:12 And Mephiboshet had a young son whose name was Mika.
And all who dwelt in the house of Tziba
were servants of Mephiboshet.

Mika means who is like YAH.

2Sam. 9:13 And Mephiboshet was dwelling at Yerushalaim.
Indeed, he ate continually at the king's table.
And he was lame in both his feet.

Chapter 10

2Sam. 10:1 And it was after this.
And the king of the children of Ammon died.
And Hanun, his son, reigned instead of him.
2Sam. 10:2 And David said,
“I will do kindness with Hanun, son of Nahash,
as his father did kindness with me.”
And David sent by the hand of his servants
to comfort him concerning his father.
And David's servants went into the land
of the children of Ammon.
2Sam. 10:3 But the leaders
of the children of Ammon
said to Hanun, their sovereign, “Is David honoring your father himself תָּא
in your eyes
because he has sent comforters to you?
Is it not for the sake of searching the city itself תָּא
even to spy it out and to overthrow it that David has sent his servants themselves תָּא to you?”
2Sam. 10:4 And Hanun took the servants of David themselves תָּא.
And he shaved off
half of their beards themselves תָּא.
And he cut off their garments themselves תָּא
in half above their buttocks.
And he sent them away.

2Sam. 10:5 And they reported it to David.
And he sent to meet them
because the men were exceedingly disgraced.
And the king said,
"Stay at Jericho until your beards have grown.
And then you are to return."

2Sam. 10:6 And the children of Ammon saw that they had become a stench to David.
And the children of Ammon sent.
And they hired
the Arameans themselves תא of BayitRehob and Arameans themselves תא of Tzoba, twenty thousand foot soldiers,
and the king of Ma'akah himself תא,
one thousand men,
and men of Tob, twelve thousand men.

2Sam. 10:7 And David heard.
And he sent Yo'ab himself תא and the entire assembly itself תא
of the mighty men.

2Sam. 10:8 And the children of Ammon came out.
And they arranged themselves for battle
at the entrance of the gate.
And the Arameans of Tzoba, and Rehob,
and men of Tob, and Ma'akah
were by themselves in the field.

2Sam. 10:9 And Yo'ab saw that the battle was against him at the front of him and behind.
And he chose from all the chosen men of Yisra'el.
And he arranged them against the Arameans.

2Sam. 10:10 And the rest of the people themselves תא
he gave into the hand of Abishai, his brother.
And he arranged them
against the children of Ammon.

2Sam. 10:11 And he said,
"If the Arameans are stronger than me
then you are my deliverance.
And if the children of Ammon are stronger than you then I will come and deliver you.

2Sam. 10:12 Be strong!
And let us show ourselves strong
on behalf of our people and on behalf of the cities of our Elohim!
And YAHWEH will do what is good in His eyes."

2Sam. 10:13 And Yo'ab came near and the people with him for the sake of battling against Aram.
And they fled before him.

2Sam. 10:14 And the children of Ammon saw that the Arameans were fleeing.
And they also fled before Abishai.
And they went into the city.
And Yo'ab returned from against the children of Ammon.
And he went to Yerushalaim.

2Sam. 10:15 And Aram saw that they were struck before Yisra'el.
And they gathered together.

10:16 And Hadadezer sent.
And he brought out the Arameans themselves תא
who were beyond the River.
And they came to Helam.
And Shobak, the captain of the assembly of Hadadezer,
was before them.

2Sam. 10:17 And it was reported to David.

And he gathered all Yisra'el itself תא.
And he passed over The Yarden itself תא.
And he went to Helam.

And Aram arranged themselves
to encounter David.
And they fought with him.
2Sam. 10:18 And Aram fled before Yisra'el.
And David killed seven hundred charioteers
and forty thousand horsemen of Aram.
And he struck Shobak himself תא,
captain of their assembly.
And he died there.

2Sam. 10:19 And all the kings,
the servants of Hadadezer,
saw that they were struck before Yisra'el.
And they made peace with Yisra'el itself תא.
And they served them.
And the Arameans were afraid to help any longer
the children of Ammon themselves תא.

Chapter 11

2Sam. 11:1 And it was at the turn of the year,
the time kings go forth.
And David sent Yo'ab himself תא
and his servants themselves תא,
and all Yisra'el itself תא.
And they destroyed
the children of Ammon themselves תא.
And they attacked against Rabbah.

But David had stayed at Yerushalaim.
2Sam. 11:2 And it was at the time of dusk.
And David got up from his bed.
And he walked about
on the roof of the king's house.
And from the roof he saw a woman bathing.
And the woman
was exceedingly good in appearance.
2Sam. 11:3 And David sent.
And he inquired concerning the woman.
And one said,
"Is this not Bat Sheba, daughter of Eli'am, wife of Uriyah the Hittite?"

Bat Sheba means daughter of the oath.
Eli'am means El of My people.
Uriyah means flame or fire of YAH.

2Sam. 11:4 And David sent messengers.
And he took her.
And she came in to him.
And he laid with her carnally.
And she was cleansing herself
from her defilement.
And she returned to her house.

What we see here is VERY important!
David, YAHWEH's anointed and chosen one,
offends - even as we do.
David is no different than any other person,
even though YAHWEH
has used him mightily for His purposes.

First - there is hope for each of us in this,
in that YAHWEH can use ANY person,
and does!
Second, even the most noted heroes of scripture
are subject to offending YAHWEH!

2Sam. 11:5 And the woman conceived.
And she sent and reported it to David.
And she said, "I am pregnant."

2Sam. 11:6 And David sent to Yo'ab,
"Send to me Uriyah himself תא, the Hittite."
And Yo'ab sent Uriyah himself תא to David.
11:7 And Uriyah came to him.
And David inquired
concerning the welfare of Yo'ab,
and concerning the welfare of the people,
and concerning the welfare of the battle.

2Sam. 11:8 And David said to Uriyah,
"Go down to your house and wash your feet."
And Uriyah went out from the king's house.
And a gift from the king followed him.

2Sam. 11:9 But Uriyah laid down at the door of the king's house with all the servants themselves תא
of his sovereign.
And he did not go down to his house.
2Sam. 11:10 And they reported it to David saying,
"Uriyah did not go down to his house,"
And David said to Uriyah,
"Did you yourself תא not come from a journey?
Why did you not go down to your house?"
2Sam. 11:11 And Uriyah said to David,
"The Chest, and Yisra'el, and Yahudah are dwelling in booths.
And my master, Yo'ab,
and the servants of my master
are encamped in the open fields.
And should I myself go to my house
to eat and to drink and to lie with my wife?
As you live and as your life lives
I will not do this matter."
2Sam. 11:12 And David said to Uriyah,
"Stay today also.
And tomorrow I will send you away."
And Uriyah stayed at Yerushalaim that day and the next.
2Sam. 11:13 And David called for him.
And he ate and drank before him.
And he made him drunk.
And he went out at dusk to lie down on his bed
with the servants of his master.
But he did not go down to his house.

2Sam. 11:14 And it was at dawn.
And David wrote a letter to Yo'ab.
And he sent it by the hand of Uriyah.
2Sam. 11:15 And he wrote in the letter saying,
"Set Uriyah himself תא toward the front of the strongest battle.
And you are to turn back from him.
And he will be struck.
And he will die."

2Sam. 11:16 And it was as Yo'ab
was watching toward the city.
And he gave Uriyah himself תא to the place where he knew there were men of strength.
2Sam. 11:17 And the men of the city came out.
And they fought Yo'ab himself תא.
And some of the people of the servants of David fell.
And Uriyah the Hittite also died.

2Sam. 11:18 And Yo'ab sent.
And he reported to David
all the words themselves תא of the battle.
2Sam. 11:19 And he directed the messenger himself תא saying,
"When you have finished reporting
all the words of the battle themselves תא
to the king,"

2Sam. 11:20 then it will be if the king's anger rises
and he says to you,
'Why did you approach toward the city to fight?
Did you not know they would shoot
from upon the wall itself נא?
2Sam. 11:21 Who struck Abimelek himself נא,
the son of Yerubbeshet?
Was it not a woman who threw upon him
a piece from the wall and he died in Tebetz?
Why did you approach the wall?'
Then you are to say also,
'Your servant, Uriyah the Hittite is dead.' "

2Sam. 11:22 And the messenger went.
And he came and reported to David everything itself נא which Yo'ab had sent.
2Sam. 11:23 And the messenger said to David,
"Indeed, the men have been strong against us.
And they came out toward us in the field.
And we were against them
as far as the entrance of the gate.
2Sam. 11:24 And the archers
shot toward your servants from upon the wall.
And some of the king's servants are dead.
And your servant, Uriyah the Hittite,
is also dead."
2Sam. 11:25 And David said to the messenger,
"Thus you are to say to Yo'ab,
'Do not let this matter itself נא
be bad in your eyes.
Indeed, the sword devours one
as well as another.
Strengthen your battle against the city
and destroy it.'
And strengthen him."

2Sam. 11:26 And the wife of Uriyah heard that Uriyah, her husband, was dead.
And she mourned for her husband.
2Sam. 11:27 And her mourning was over.
And David sent.
And he gathered her to his house.
And she became a wife for him.
And she bore a son to him.

But the matter which David had done
was morally wrong in the eyes of YAHWEH.

Chapter 12

2Sam. 12:1 And YAHWEH sent Nathan himself נא to David.
And he went to him.
And said to him,
"There were two men in one city,
one rich and the other poor.
2Sam. 12:2 The rich one had flocks and herds, exceedingly many.
2Sam. 12:3 But the poor one had nothing at all except one little ewe lamb
which he had bought and kept alive.
And it grew up with him
and with his children together.
And from his portion it ate.
And from his cup it drank.
And on his chest it laid down.
And it was like a daughter to him.
2Sam. 12:4 And a traveler came to the rich one.
And he was loathe to take from his own flock or from his own herd to prepare for the traveler,
the one coming to him.
And he took the lamb itself נא of the poor man.
And he prepared it for the man who had come to him."

2Sam. 12:5 And the anger of David flared up exceedingly against the man. And he said to Nathan, "As YAHWEH lives the man who has done this is a son of death!

2Sam. 12:6 And the lamb itself נא he is to repay fourfold because he did this thing itself נא, and because he had no pity."

2Sam. 12:7 And Nathan said to David, "You yourself נא are the man!
