at the head of every street!"

Lam. 2:20 "Look, YAHWEH!
Even look attentively!
Toward whom have You acted like this,
whether the women are to eat their offspring,
infants of a hand breadth,
or the priest and prophet are to be slain
in The Set Apart Place of YAHWEH?

Lam. 2:21 The young and the old
have laid down on the ground of the streets.
My virgins and my young men
have fallen by the sword.

You have killed them
in the day of Your anger!
You have slaughtered with no pity!

Lam. 2:22 You call as in a day
of an appointed time.
Terrors are all around me
and no fugitive or survivor has existed
in the day of the anger of YAHWEH.
Those whom I have nursed and brought up my adversary has brought to an end."

Chapter 3

Lam. 3:1 I myself am the man who has seen affliction
by the rod of His wrath.

Lam. 3:2 He Himself ~~nx~~ has led me
and He caused me to walk In darkness and not light.

Lam. 3:3 Truly, He turns back His hand
against me all the day.

Lam. 3:4 He has worn out

my flesh and my skin.
He has broken my bones.
Lam. 3:5 He has built up a siege against me
and He has surrounded me
with bitterness and hardship.
Lam. 3:6 He has caused me
to dwell in dark places
like the ancient dead.
Lam. 3:7 He has hedged me in
and I can not go out.
He has caused my chain to be heavy.

Lam. 3:8 Also, when I cry out and shout for help
He shuts out my prayer.
Lam. 3:9 He has blocked my ways
with hewn stone.
He has caused my paths to be crooked.
Lam. 3:10 A bear in ambush is He to me,
a lion in hiding.
Lam. 3:11 He has distorted my ways
and He has torn me in pieces.
He has established me as desolate.
Lam. 3:12 He has bent His bow
and He has stationed me
as a target for the arrow.
Lam. 3:13 He has caused the arrows of His quiver
to pierce my kidneys.
Lam. 3:14 I have been a derision
to all my people,
their taunting song all the day.
Lam. 3:15 He has filled me with bitterness.
He has caused me
to be drunk with wormwood
Lam. 3:16 and He has broken my teeth
with gravel.
He has covered me with ashes.

Lam. 3:17 And You have removed my life
far from shalom.
I have forgotten goodness.
Lam. 3:18 And I have said, “Even my hope
has perished forever from YAHWEH.”

Lam. 3:19 Remember my affliction
and my misery,
the wormwood and the gall.
Lam. 3:20 Your life remembers.
But my life bows down over me.

3:21 This I will recall to my heart.
On account of this I am caused to hope,
Lam. 3:22 the kindnesses of YAHWEH!
Indeed, we have not been consumed,
Indeed, His compassions have not failed.
Lam. 3:23 They are new every morning.
Great is Your faithfulness!

Lam. 3:24 “YAHWEH is my Portion,”
says my life.
For this reason I will wait for Him!

Lam. 3:25 YAHWEH is good to those waiting for Him,
to the life that seeks Him!

Lam. 3:26 It is good both to hope and to be still
for the deliverance of YAHWEH.

Lam. 3:27 It is good for a man
when he carries a yoke in his youth.

Lam. 3:28 He is to sit alone and be silent.
Indeed, He has laid it on him.
Lam. 3:29 He is to put his mouth in the dust.
Perhaps there will be hope.

Lam. 3:30 He is to give his cheek
to the one striking him.
He will have his fill of rebuke.

Lam. 3:31 Indeed, YAHWEH
will not reject to eternity!
Lam. 3:32 Indeed, if He causes one to suffer
then He will show compassion
according to the abundance
of His kindnesses.

Lam. 3:33 Indeed, He has not afflicted
from His heart,
nor does He grieve the children of men
Lam. 3:34 for the sake of crushing under His feet
all the prisoners of the earth,
Lam. 3:35 for the sake of turning aside
the judgment of a man
in front of the the face of The Most High, Lam. 3:36 for the sake of overthrowing
a man in his dispute.
This YAHWEH will not approve.

Lam. 3:37 Who is this
that had spoken and it existed?
Has YAHWEH not directed it?

Lam. 3:38 Do not the bad and the good come forth from the mouth of The Most High?

Lam. 3:39 Why does
a human being complain,
a living man on account of his offenses?

Lam. 3:40 Let us search and examine our ways
and let us turn back to YAHWEH.
Lam. 3:41 Let us lift our hearts and palms
to YAHWEH in The Heavens saying, Lam. 3:42 'We, we have rebelled,
and we have provoked You Yourself תא!
You have not forgiven.
Lam. 3:43 You have covered Yourself with anger
and You have pursued us.
You have killed.
You have not pitied.
Lam. 3:44 You have covered Yourself with a cloud
so that a prayer can not pass over.

Lam. 3:45 You place us as scum and refuse
in the midst of the peoples.
Lam. 3:46 All our adversaries
have opened their mouth against us.
Lam. 3:47 Terror and a snare have been ours,
the devastation and the ruin.

Lam. 3:48 Streams of water run down my eyes
on account of the destruction
of the daughter of my people.
Lam. 3:49 My eye has poured out
and it will not cease.
It will be without interruption
Lam. 3:50 until YAHWEH looks down
and sees from The Heavens.

Lam. 3:51 My eye has been abusive to my heart

because of all the daughters of my city.

Lam. 3:52 My adversaries hunted me,
hunted me like a bird, without cause.

Lam. 3:53 They have cut off my life in a pit.
Then they threw stones at me.

Lam. 3:54 Waters overflowed my head.
I said, "I am finished!"

Lam. 3:55 I called Your Name, YAHWEH,
from the lowest pit.

Lam. 3:56 You listened attentively to my voice.
Do not cause your ear
to be concealed to my relief,
to my cry for help!

Lam. 3:57 You drew near
on the day I called You.
You said, "Do not be afraid!"

Lam. 3:58 YAHWEH, You have pleaded
the cause of my life.
You have redeemed my life.

Lam. 3:59 YAHWEH,
You have seen my oppression.
Judge my verdict.

Lam. 3:60 You have seen
all their vengeance,
all their intentions against me.

Lam. 3:61 You have heard their disgrace,
YAHWEH,

all their intentions against me;

Lam. 3:62 the lips of those
rising up against me,
and their deliberations against me all the day.

Lam. 3:63 Look intently at their sitting down
and their rising up.
I myself am their taunting song.

Lam. 3:64 Return to them
a pay back, YAHWEH,
according to the work of their hands!

Lam. 3:65 Give them a hardened heart,
Your curse to them!

Lam. 3:66 Pursue them with anger
and destroy them
from under the skies, YAHWEH!

Chapter 4

Lam. 4:1 How dim is the gold.
The best, the pure gold, has changed.
The stones of The Set Apart Place
are scattered at the head of every street.

Lam. 4:2 The precious sons of Tzion,
those being comparable to fine gold,
how they have been regarded as clay pottery,
the work of the hands of a potter!

Lam. 4:3 Even the jackals
have drawn out the breast.
Their young ones have sucked.
The daughters of my people are as cruel
as ostriches in the wilderness.

Lam. 4:4 The tongue of the infant has clung to the roof of its mouth
on account of thirst.
Children asked for food.
No one spreads it out for them.

Lam. 4:5 Those eating delicacies
have been destroyed in the streets.

Those being nurtured upon scarlet have embraced trash heaps.

Lam. 4:6 And the moral perversity
of the daughter of my people
is greater than the offense of Sedom
which was overthrown in a moment.
And no hands were wrung over her!

Lam. 4:7 Her Nazirites
were more pure than snow,
whiter than milk,
more ruddy of body than rubies,
their polishing like a sapphire.

Lam. 4:8 Blacker than soot
is their appearance.
They are not recognized in the streets.
Their skin has shriveled upon their bones.
It has withered.
It has become like a stick.

Lam. 4:9 Better off
were those killed by the sword
than those killed by hunger.
Indeed, these slip away,
being pierced through,
apart from the fruits of the field.

Lam. 4:10 The hands
of compassionate women
have boiled their own children.
They have been as food for them
on account of the destruction
of the daughter of my people.

Lam. 4:11 YAHWEH has completed
His wrath itself נא.
He has poured out His fierce anger
and He has kindled a fire in Tzion
and it has consumed her foundations.

Lam. 4:12 The kings of the earth
were not caused to believe,
nor any of those dwelling in the world,
that an oppressor or adversary
would enter the gates of Yerushalaim.

Lam. 4:13 It was because of the offenses of her prophets,
the moral perversity of her priests,
those shedding in her midst
the blood of the just.

Lam. 4:14 They wandered blindly
in the streets.
They had been defiled with blood.
One was not able to touch against their garments.

Lam. 4:15 They shouted,
"Turn aside! Defiled!
Turn aside! Turn Aside!
Do not touch!"

Indeed, they wandered off.
They even staggered.

They said among the nations,
"They will stay no longer."
Lam. 4:16 The face of YAHWEH
has scattered them.
He will no longer regard them.
They have not respected the priests,

They have not shown favor to the elders."

Lam. 4:17 We are still here.
Our eyes are failing.
No one is helping us.
There is futility in our watchfulness.
We have watched for a nation.
None can deliver us.

Lam. 4:18 They have hunted our steps,
keeping us from going in our streets.
Our end drew near.
Our days were completed.
Indeed, our end had come.

Lam. 4:19 Those pursuing us
were swifter than the eagles of the skies.
Upon the mountains they pursued after us.
In the wilderness they laid in wait for us.

Lam. 4:20 The breath of our nostrils,
the anointed of YAHWEH,
has been captured in their pits,
those of whom we had said
"In His shadow
we will live among the nations."

Lam. 4:21 Rejoice and be glad,
daughter of Edom,
those dwelling in the land of Utz!
The cup will also pass over to you.
You will be drunk,
and you will make yourself naked.

Lam. 4:22 Your moral perversity
has been completed, daughter of Tzion.
He will not cause your exile
to exist any longer.

He will visit your moral perversity,
daughter of Edom.
He has caused you to go into exile
on account of your offenses!

Chapter 5

Lam. 5:1 Remember, YAHWEH,
what has existed for us!
Look intently and see our reproach itself nx!

Lam. 5:2 Our inheritance
has been turned over to strangers
and our houses to foreigners.

Lam. 5:3 We have become orphans
with no fathers.
Our mothers are like widows.

Lam. 5:4 Our water
we have drunk with silver.
Our wood comes at a price.

Lam. 5:5 Upon our neck
we have been pursued.
We have labored with no rest for us.

Lam. 5:6 To Mitsraim we have given a hand;
to Asshur, for the sake
of being satisfied with food.

Lam. 5:7 Our fathers have offended.
They are no more.
We ourselves have borne
their moral perversities.

Lam. 5:8 Slaves have ruled over us.
No one is delivering us from their hand.

Lam. 5:9 With our lives
we cause our food to come from before the face of the sword of the wilderness.
Lam. 5:10 Our skin is like an oven,
having been agitated before the face of the burning heat of famine.
Lam. 5:11 The women in Tzion
have been ravaged,
the virgins in the cities of Yahudah.
Lam. 5:12 Leaders have been hung up
by their hands.
Elders have not been honored.
Lam. 5:13 They have taken young men to grind
and young boys have stumbled on account of wood.
Lam. 5:14 Elders have ceased from the gate,
young men from their music.
Lam. 5:15 The joy of our heart has ceased.
Our dancing has turned to mourning.
Lam. 5:16 The crown has fallen from our head.
Woe is now ours
because we have offended!
Lam. 5:17 On account of this
our heart has been sick.
On account of these
our eyes have become dim,
Lam. 5:18 on account of Mount Tzion
which has been devastated.
Foxes have been walking in it.

Lam. 5:19 You Yourself nx, YAHWEH,
will remain to eternity,
Your throne to generation after generation!
Lam. 5:20 Why do You forget us forever,
abandon us for length of days?
Lam. 5:21 Turn us back to You, YAHWEH!
Then we will return.
Renew our days like ancient times!

Lam. 5:22 Indeed, if You have rejected,
if You have rejected us....
You have been enraged against us,
even to excess!

The unfinished sentence
is common in Hebrew literature.
It leaves the result to the imagination
of the one hearing it.
It's a form of a curse.

33. Ecclesiastes - Qohelet

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Eccl. 1:1 The words of Qohelet,
son of David, king in Yerushalaim.

Qohelet refers to one who gathers or assembles wisdom.
There is some debate
concerning its actual meaning.
Some believe it means
"leader of the assembly".
Others believe it refers to Shelomoh
as the leader of Yisra'el.
For our purposes here
consider it to mean
"Leader of the assembly."

Eccl. 1:2 "Futility of futilities!" said Qohelet.
"Futility of futilities!
Everything itself is futile!"

hebel - emptiness or vanity;
figuratively, something transitory
and unsatisfactory.
Essentially, it means something meaningless,
not worthwhile for any good purpose.
It can also refer to idols.

The use of the double mention
plays an important role here.
Not only is there a double mention,
but there is a double mention
of a double mention.
In Hebrew literature this means
this is EXCEEDINGLY emphatic!!

Eccl. 1:3 What benefit is there
for a human being
in all his labor with which he labors beneath the sun?

Eccl. 1:4 A generation is passing away,
and a generation is coming,
but the earth will be standing to eternity.

Eccl. 1:5 And the sun rises up.
And the sun goes down.
And it is hurrying to the place of its rising up.

Eccl. 1:6 The wind is going to the south,
and turning round to the north,
turning around, turning around.
Travelling on its rounds the wind returns.

Eccl. 1:7 All the rivers travel to the sea,
but the sea is not full.
To the place from which the rivers have travelled,
there they return for the sake of travelling.

Eccl. 1:8 All matters are wearisome.
No one is able to speak of it.
The eye is not satisfied with seeing nor the ear filled with hearing.

Eccl. 1:9 What has existed is what will exist.
What has been done is what will be done,
and not anything is new beneath the sun.
hayah - to be; to exist.
Because we do not understand Hebrew
we miss the real significance of this word.

It forms the basis for YHWH, YAHWEH.
His very name means, in effect,
Existence Itself,
The Eternally Existing One.

Eccl. 1:10 Is there a matter of which one says,
"Look! This is new."?
It has already existed for eternity,
which has existed before our presence.
Eccl. 1:11 There is no memory for the first nor for the last which will exist.
A memory will not exist for them
with those who will exist at the last.

Eccl. 1:12 I myself, Qohelet,
have been king over Yisra'el in Yerushalaim.
Eccl. 1:13 And I set my heart itself nx
to seek and to search out with wisdom concerning all that has been done
beneath the skies;
the bad business YAHWEH has given to the children of a human being for the sake of being oppressed by it.

Eccl. 1:14 I have seen
all the actions themselves ~~nx~~
that have been done beneath the sun.
And behold!
Everything is futility
and striving over wind!

Eccl. 1:15 That being crooked
one is not able to straighten.
And what is lacking
is not able to be counted.

Eccl. 1:16 I myself spoke with my heart saying,
“I myself, behold, I have become great!
And I have increased wisdom
above all who have existed before me over Yerushalaim.
And my heart has seen much wisdom and knowledge.”

Eccl. 1:17 And I set my heart
for the sake of knowing wisdom,
and knowing madness and foolishness.
I have perceived that this also is madness,
striving over wind.

Eccl. 1:18 Indeed, with abundant wisdom
there is abundant aggravation.
And one causing knowledge to increase will cause anguish to increase.

This is an interesting insight
- In much wisdom
there is much grief,
and in much understanding
there is much pain.

Yet we are told throughout the Bible
to seek wisdom with all our strength,
and to seek understanding.
Seldom do we see
this part of the equation.

It is true that the more you know
the more you are accountable for,
and the more you recognize the effects of sin in the world
and your own helplessness
to do much about it.

Chapter 2

Eccl. 2:1 I myself said in my heart, “Come now!
I will test you with gladness
and I will look at what is good.”
But behold!
That also was futility!

Eccl. 2:2 I said of laughter,
“It is acting foolishly.”
and of joyfulness,
“What does this accomplish?”

Eccl. 2:3 I searched with my heart
how to draw out my flesh itself ~~nx~~ with wine,
even with my heart being guided with wisdom,
and to lay hold on foolishness
until I could see whether this was good for the children of a human being to do beneath the skies
all the days of their lives.

Eccl. 2:4 I caused my works to become great.
I built houses for myself.
I planted vineyards for myself.
Eccl. 2:5 I made gardens and parks for myself
and I planted all kinds of fruit trees in them.

Eccl. 2:6 I made pools of water for myself
for the sake of causing to be watered by them
a forest of sprouting trees.

Eccl. 2:7 I acquired slaves and female servants.
And children of the household existed for me.
Also, herds of livestock
and many flocks were mine,
more than all who existed
before me in Yerushalaim.

Eccl. 2:8 I also gathered for myself
silver and gold
and the treasures of the kings
and the provinces.
I made for myself male and female singers,
and the delights of the children
of the human being,
a harem of concubines.

Eccl. 2:9 And I became great.
And I increased more than all
who had existed before me in Yerushalaim.
Also, my wisdom remained with me.

Eccl. 2:10 Even everything that my eyes desired
I did not hold back from them.
I did not withhold my heart itself נא
from any pleasure.
Indeed, my heart rejoiced
because of all my labor
and this was my portion from all my labor.

Eccl. 2:11 But when I turned, I myself, unto all the works which my hands had made
and unto the labor with which I had labored
then behold!,
everything was futility and striving over wind
and there was no advantage beneath the sun!

Eccl. 2:12 And I turned, I myself, to look at wisdom,
and madness,
and foolishness.
Indeed, what will the human being do
who will come after the king
which itself נא has already been done?

Eccl. 2:13 Then I recognized, I myself,
that wisdom benefits more than foolishness
as light benefits more than darkness.

Eccl. 2:14 The wise one,
his eyes are in his head.
But the fool walks in darkness.
And I also recognized, I myself,
that one event happens
to everyone themselves נא.

Eccl. 2:15 And I myself said in my heart,
"Like an event of the fool,
it will also happen to me, to I myself.
But why have I been more wise than,
I myself?
And I said in my heart, "This also is futility!"

Eccl. 2:16 Indeed, there is no memory of the wise more than of the fool
for the sake of eternity.
In the time of the coming days
everything will be forgotten.
And how does a wise man die?
Just like the fool.

Eccl. 2:17 Then I hated life itself תא
because the work which had been done
beneath the sun was bad to me.
Indeed, everything is futility
and striving over wind!

Eccl. 2:18 And I myself hated
all my labor itself תא
with which I had labored beneath the sun
because I will leave it to a human being who will exist after me.

Eccl. 2:19 And who knows
whether he will be wise or be a fool?
Yet he will be master over all my labor
with which I have labored
and with which I have been wise
beneath the sun.
This also is futility!

Eccl. 2:20 And I changed, I myself,
for the sake of causing my heart itself תא
to despair concerning all the labor
with which I had labored beneath the sun.

Eccl. 2:21 Indeed, there is a human being whose labor is with wisdom,
and with knowledge,
and with skill.
But to a human being who has not labored for it
he will leave his portion.
This also is futility, even a great evil!

Eccl. 2:22 Indeed, what exists
for a human being
on account of all his labor
and the striving of his heart
with which he has labored beneath the sun?

Eccl. 2:23 Indeed, all his days are anguish,
and his business is grievous.
Even in the night his heart does not rest.
This also is futility to him!

Eccl. 2:24 There is nothing better
for a human being
than to eat, and to drink,
and to see the good of his life itself תא
on account of his labor!
Even this I have seen, I myself.
Indeed, it is from the hand
of YAHWEH Himself!

Eccl. 2:25 Indeed, who eats
or who enjoys without Him?

Eccl. 2:26 Indeed, to a human being who is good before His face
He has given wisdom,
and knowledge,
and joy.

But to one offending
He has given the business of gathering and of collecting
for the sake of giving to him who is good
before the face of YAHWEH.
This also is futility and striving over wind.

Chapter 3

Eccl. 3:1 For everything
there is an appointed time,

even a time

for every desire beneath the skies:

Eccl. 3:2 A time for giving birth,
and a time for dying;
a time for planting,
and a time for uprooting
what has been planted;
Eccl. 3:3 a time for killing,
and a time for healing;
a time for breaking down,
and a time for building up;
Eccl. 3:4 a time for weeping,
and a time for laughing;
a time for mourning,
and a time for dancing;
Eccl. 3:5 a time for causing stones
to be thrown away,
and a time for gathering stones;
a time for embracing,
and a time to refrain from embracing;
Eccl. 3:6 a time for seeking and a time for losing;
a time for keeping,
and a time for throwing away;
Eccl. 3:7 a time for tearing,
and a time for sewing;
a time being silent,
and a time for speaking;
Eccl. 3:8 a time to love,
and a time to hate;
a time for war,
and a time for shalom.

Eccl. 3:9 What benefit is there
to the one working
in that which is his wearying effort?

Eccl. 3:10 I have seen
the business itself nx
which YAHWEH has given
to the children of the human being
for the sake of being humbled by it.

Eccl. 3:11 Everything He has made
is beautiful in its time.
Even eternity itself nx
He has set in their hearts,
by the absence of which the human being can not discover
the work itself nx that YAHWEH has done,
from the beginning, even as far as the end.

Eccl. 3:12 I perceive that there is nothing good among them except to rejoice and to do good with their lives.

Eccl. 3:13 And also indeed,
every human being is to eat,
and to drink,
and to see the good in all his labor
as a gift of YAHWEH Himself.

Eccl. 3:14 I know that everything which YAHWEH does,
it will exist to eternity.
Concerning it, nothing is to be added
and from it, nothing is to be subtracted!

And YAHWEH has done
that which is to be revered
because it is before His face.

Eccl. 3:15 Whatever has existed
already exists.

And what will exist
has already existed.
And YAHWEH will seek whatever itself תא has been chased away.

Eccl. 3:16 And further,
I observed this beneath the sun:
in the place of judgment
- moral wrong was there.
and in the place of justice
- moral wrong was there.

Eccl. 3:17 I myself said in my heart,
“The just themselves תא
and the morally wrong themselves תא
YAHWEH will judge.
Indeed, there is an appointed time
for every desire and for every act.”

Eccl. 3:18 I myself said in my heart
concerning the case of the children
of the human being,
“It is for the sake of YAHWEH purifying them,
and for the sake of seeing for themselves
that they themselves are like the animals.”

Eccl. 3:19 Indeed, what happens
to the children of the human being
also happens to the animals.
Even one event happens to them both.
As this one dies, so also dies the other.
Even one breath belongs to all of them.
And there is no advantage
to the human being more than the animals.
Indeed, everything is futility!

Eccl. 3:20 Everything is going to one place.
Everything has existed from the dust
and everything is returning to the dust.

Eccl. 3:21 Who perceives the breath
of the children of the human being,
the one itself going up on high,
or the breath of the animal,
the one itself going down below to the earth?

Eccl. 3:22 Then I recognized that there is nothing better than for a human being to rejoice concerning his works.
Indeed, that is his portion.
Indeed, who can cause him to come to look at that which will exist after him?

Chapter 4

Eccl. 4:1 And I myself turned back.
And I looked at
all the oppressions themselves תא
which are being done beneath the sun.
And behold!
The tears of those being oppressed,
but there is not for them one comforting;
and the force on the side
of those oppressing,
but there is not for them one comforting.

Eccl. 4:2 Then I commended
the dead themselves תא who are already dead
more than the living who are still alive.
Eccl. 4:3 And better than both
is he himself תא who has not yet existed,
who has not seen the harmful work itself תא
that has been done beneath the sun.

Eccl. 4:4 And I looked at, I myself,
all the labor itself תא
and all the skill of the work itself תא.
Because of it a man is jealous
because of his neighbor.
This also is futility and striving over wind.

Eccl. 4:5 The foolish one clasps his hands themselves תא.
But he is consuming his flesh itself תא.

Eccl. 4:6 Better is a hand filled with quietness
than two hands filled with labor
and striving over wind.

Eccl. 4:7 Then I turned back, I myself,
and I looked at the futility beneath the sun.

Eccl. 4:8 One exists,
but there is no second one.
Also, there is not for him
a child or a brother.
Yet there is no end to all his labor.
Also, his eye is not satisfied with riches.
“And for whom do I myself labor and deprive my life itself תא of good?”
This also is futility
and it is a bad business.

Eccl. 4:9 The two are better than the one since they have for themselves
good compensation in their labor.
Eccl. 4:10 Indeed, if the one falls
his companion himself תא
will cause him to stand up.
But woe to him
who is the one alone when he falls.
Then there is not a second
for the sake of causing him to stand up.

Eccl. 4:11 Also, if two lie down
then they have warmth.
But for one, how will he be warm?

Eccl. 4:12 And if the one can be overpowered,
the two can withstand one opposite them.
And a threefold cord
is not broken with quickness.

Eccl. 4:13 Better is a poor but wise youth than an old and foolish king
who no longer knows how to be admonished.
Eccl. 4:14 Indeed, from the house of the prison
he has come for the sake of reigning.
Indeed, even his kingdom
has been brought forth poor.

Eccl. 4:15 I have observed
all the living themselves תא,
those walking beneath the sun
with the second youth
who will stand up in his place.
Eccl. 4:16 There was no end to all the people,
to all who existed before their presence.
However, even those afterward
will not rejoice in him.
Indeed, this also is futility
and striving over wind.

Note: Verse 1 of Chapter 5 in English texts is verse 17 of Chapter 4 in the Hebrew text.

Chapter 5

Eccl 5.1 (H 4:17)
Protect your steps

according to how you walk
to The House of YAHWEH.
And draw near
for the sake of listening attentively
rather than giving a sacrifice of the foolish.
Indeed, they do not know
they are doing what is bad.

Chapter 5 begins here in the Hebrew text.

Eccl. 5:2 (H 5.1)
Do not be hasty with your mouth
and do not hurry your heart
for the sake of uttering a word
before the face of YAHWEH.
Indeed, YAHWEH is in The Heavens,
but you yourself תא are upon the earth.
For this reason your words are to be few.

Eccl. 5:3 (H 5.2)
Indeed, the dream has come with an abundance of business and the voice of a fool
with an abundance of words.

Eccl. 5:4 (H 5.3)
According to how you have vowed a vow to YAHWEH,
do not delay to pay it.
Indeed, He has no delight with fools.
That itself תא which you have vowed, pay!

Eccl. 5:5 (H 5.4)
It is better that one not vow
than to vow and not pay.

Eccl. 5:6 (H 5.5)
Do not permit your mouth itself תא
to cause your flesh itself תא to offend!
And do not say before the face
of the messenger of YAHWEH
that it was an error.
Why should YAHWEH be enraged concerning your voice
and the work of your hands itself תא
be destroyed?

Eccl. 5:7 (H 5.6)
Indeed, in an abundance of dreams
are also vanities and many words.

Instead, revere YAHWEH Himself תא.

Eccl. 5:8 (H 5.7)
If you see oppression of those being poor
and denial of judgment and justice
in a province
do not be astonished concerning the matter.
Indeed, one higher than the highest is watching over these
and there are higher ones over them.

Eccl. 5:9 (H 5.8)
And the benefit of the land
is to be for of everyone.
The king himself
has been served from the field.

Eccl. 5:10 (H 5.9)
One loving silver is not satisfied with silver,
nor is whoever is loving abundance of goods.
He will not profit.
This also is futility.

Eccl. 5:11 (H 5.10)
With the increase of goods
those consuming them have increased.
Then what profit is there to their owners
except to look on them with their eyes?

Eccl. 5:12 (H 5.11)
Sweet is the sleep of the one working,
whether he eats little or much.
But the abundance of the wealthy
is not causing him to rest.

Eccl. 5:13 (H 5.12)
There is a sickly evil
I have seen beneath the sun,
riches being kept for their owner
to his own harm.

Eccl. 5:14 (H 5.13)
Then the riches perish
on account of bad business.
Then he causes a son to be brought forth,
but there is nothing in his hand.

Eccl. 5:15 (H 5.14)
According to how he has come forth,
naked from his mother's womb,
he will return.
As he came, according to this he will go.
And of anything on account of his labor,
he will take nothing in his hand.

Eccl. 5:16 (H 5.15)
And this also is a grievous evil.
Even with everything
that came alongside of him,
according to this he will go.
Then what benefit is his
with that for which he has labored?
Is is for the wind.

Eccl. 5:17 (H 5.16)
Also, all his days he eats in darkness,
even with much sorrow,
even with sickness,
even with wrath.

Eccl. 5:18 (H 5.17)
Behold what I have seen, I myself!
It is good, that which is pleasing,
for one to eat, and to drink,
and to look with pleasure on all his labor
with which he labors beneath the sun
the number of the days of his life which YAHWEH has given to him.
Indeed, this is his portion.

Eccl. 5:19 (H 5.18)
Also, every human being to whom YAHWEH has given riches and wealth,
and has permitted him to eat because of them,
and to receive his portion itself נח
and rejoice in his labor,
this is a gift of YAHWEH Himself.

Eccl. 5:20 (H 5.19)
Indeed, he will not remember much of the days of his life themselves נח.
Indeed, YAHWEH will bear witness
by the joy of his heart.

Chapter 6

Eccl. 6:1 There is something bad
which I have seen beneath the sun,

and it is extensive concerning the human being.
Eccl. 6:2 It is a man to whom YAHWEH
has given riches and wealth and honor,
and his life is not lacking
of anything he desires,
but YAHWEH does not cause him
to be empowered to eat from it.
Indeed, a foreigner consumes it.
This is futility.
And it is a bad disease.

Eccl. 6:3 If a man causes to be born
a hundred children,
and the years he lives are many,
and the days of his years are great,
but his life is not satisfied from the goodness,
and also no burial place exists for him,
I say a miscarriage is better than he.

Eccl. 6:4 Indeed, it comes with futility
and it goes into the darkness,
and in the darkness its name is covered.
Eccl. 6:5 Even the sun it has not seen.
More rest has this than that man.
Eccl. 6:6 And though he lived
a thousand years twice over,
yet he will not see goodness.

Do not all go to one place?

Eccl. 6:7 All the labor of the human being is for his mouth.
But even the life of him will not be satisfied.

Eccl. 6:8 Indeed,
what more is the advantage
for the wise beyond the fool?
What advantage is it for the afflicted
knowing how to walk before the living?

Eccl. 6:9 Better is what the eyes see than the traveling of the life.
This also is futility and striving over wind.

Eccl. 6:10 Whatever has existed,
its designation has been called out.
And it is has been known that he is a human being and he is unable to contend with one mightier than he.

Eccl. 6:11 When there is an abundance of words
there is an abundance of futility.
What is the advantage to a human being?

Eccl. 6:12 Indeed, who knows what is good for a human being in life?
The number of the days of life
is the number of his futilities,
They are like a shadow which passes.
Who will declare to a human being what will exist after him beneath the sun?

Chapter 7

Eccl. 7:1 A good name
is better than precious oil,
and the day of the death is better than the day of one's being born.

Eccl. 7:2 It is better to go to the house of mourning
than to go to the house of feasting,
in which is the termination of every human being,

and the living is to set it on his heart.

Eccl. 7:3 Sorrow is better than laughter.
Indeed, by the sadness of the face
the heart is improved.

Eccl. 7:4 The heart of the wise
is in the house of mourning.
But the heart of fools
is in the house of rejoicing.

Eccl. 7:5 It is better to listen attentively
to the rebuke of the wise
than for man to be listening attentively
to the song of fools.

Eccl. 7:6 Indeed, like the sound
of thorns beneath the pot,
according to this is the laughter of the fool.
And this also is futility.

Eccl. 7:7 Indeed,
the oppression maddens the wise,
but a bribe destroys the heart itself נא.

Eccl. 7:8 The end of a matter
is better than its beginning.

The patient of breath
is better than the arrogant of breath.

Eccl. 7:9 Do not be hasty with your breath
for the sake of being provoked to anger.
Indeed, provocation to anger
resides in the chest of fools.

Eccl. 7:10 Do not say,
"Why have the former days been better than these?"
Indeed, it is not from wisdom
to have asked about this.

Eccl. 7:11 Wisdom with an inheritance is good,
and it is an advantage
to those seeing the sun.

Eccl. 7:12 Indeed, wisdom is a shelter
like silver is a shelter.
But the advantage of knowledge
is that wisdom gives life
to those possessing it.

Eccl. 7:13 Observe
the work itself נא of YAHWEH!
Indeed, who is able to straighten that itself נא which He has made crooked?

Eccl. 7:14 In the day of good be pleased!
But in the day of adversity
consider even this itself נא
along with what YAHWEH has done
in order that a human being can not discover
anything that will exist after him.

Eccl. 7:15 I have seen everything itself נא
in the days of my futility.
There is a just one being destroyed
on account of his justness.
And there is the morally wrong
being caused to live long
on account of his evil.

Eccl. 7:16 Do not be overly just.
And do not be overly wise.
Why cause yourself to be destroyed?

Eccl. 7:17 Do not be overly bad.
And do not be a fool.
Why be put to death before your time?

Eccl. 7:18 It is good
that you take hold of this.
And even from this do not cause
your hand itself nx to rest.
Indeed, he who reveres YAHWEH
will go forth with all of they themselves nx.

Eccl. 7:19 Wisdom is strength for the wise,
more than ten rulers who are in the city.

Eccl. 7:20 Indeed, there is not a just human being on earth
who does good and does not offend!

Eccl. 7:21 Also, for the sake of all the words which are spoken,
do not set them on your heart
so that you do not hear your servant himself nx cursing you.

Eccl. 7:22 Indeed, many times
you have known your heart,
that you yourself nx have cursed others.

Eccl. 7:23 All of this
I have tested with wisdom.
I said, "I am wise."
But it was far from me.

7:24 That which has existed is far off
and exceedingly deep.
Who can discover it?

Eccl. 7:25 I have turned round even my heart
for the sake of knowing
and for the sake of searching,
and for the sake of seeking out wisdom,
and a reason for things,
and for the sake of knowing
the moral wrong of the stupid,
even the foolishness of madness.

Eccl. 7:26 And I myself found more bitter than death
the woman herself nx
whose heart is snares and nets,
whose hands are shackles.
One pleasing to the face of YAHWEH
will be caused to escape from her.
But the one offending
will be captured by her.

Eccl. 7:27 Observe!
This I have discovered," says Qohelet,
"one by one,
for the sake of discovering a conclusion
Eccl. 7:28 which my life has sought
but still has not found.
I have found a man among a thousand.
But a woman among all these
I have not found.

Eccl. 7:29 Look at this by itself!
I have discovered that YAHWEH has made
the human being himself nx upright!
But they have sought out many devices."

Chapter 8

Eccl. 8:1 Who is like the wise?
And who knows the interpretation of a matter?
The wisdom of a human being causes his face to be made bright.
Then the hardness of his face is changed.

Eccl. 8:2 I myself say,
"Protect the order of the king!",
even on account of the oath to YAHWEH.
Eccl. 8:3 Do not hurry
to go from his presence.
Do not take a stand in a bad matter.
Indeed, he will do what pleases him."

Eccl. 8:4 Power is according to what is the word of a king.
And who will say to him,
"What are you doing?"

8:5 One protecting the directive
will not know a bad matter.
And the heart of the wise
discerns both time and judgment.

Eccl. 8:6 Indeed, for every purpose
there is a time and a judgment,
even though the adversity
of the human being is great upon him.
Eccl. 8:7 Indeed,
he does not know what will be.
Who can declare to him when it will be?

Eccl. 8:8 No human being has power concerning the breath
for the sake of restraining
the breath itself נא.
And no one has power
in the day of the death.

There is no discharge in battle.
And there is no escape
for the masters themselves נא of moral wrong.

Eccl. 8:9 All of this itself נא I have observed.
I gave my heart itself נא to every action
which has been done beneath the sun.

There is a time in which a human being has ruled against another human being,
to his own hurt.

Eccl. 8:10 And according to this I have seen
the morally wrong being buried.
And they have gone,
even from from The Set Apart Place,
and they have caused themselves
to be forgotten in the city
where they had done according to this.
This also is futility.

Eccl. 8:11 When the sentence for an evil act
is not executed quickly, on account of this,
the heart within the children
of the human being is filled to do evil.

Eccl. 8:12 When one offending
has been doing what is bad a hundred times,
but his life is prolonged,
indeed, I also know, I myself,
that it will be well
for those revering YAHWEH,
who will be afraid before His face.

Eccl. 8:13 But it will not be well for the morally wrong.
And he will not be long.
His days will be like a shadow
when he has no fear
before the face of YAHWEH.

Eccl. 8:14 There is a futility which has been done upon earth
which is this:
there are just ones
who have been touched
according to the deeds of the morally wrong,
and there are morally wrong ones
who have been touched
according to the deeds of the just.
I said that this also is futility.

Eccl. 8:15 Then I commended
the enjoyment itself נא
in which there is nothing better for the human being beneath the sun
except to eat, and to drink, and to rejoice.

And it will accompany him in his labor
for the days of his life which YAHWEH has given him
beneath the sun.

Eccl. 8:16 On account of that I gave my heart itself נא,
for the sake of knowing wisdom
and for the sake of seeing the business itself נא
which has been done on earth,
even though one sees no sleep
day or night.

Eccl. 8:17 Then I saw
all the work itself נא of YAHWEH.

Indeed,
a human being is not able to discover the work itself נא that has been done
beneath the sun
on account of which,
though the human being might labor
for the sake of seeking,
yet he will not discover it.
And even though the wise claims to know,
he is not able to discover it.

Chapter 9

Eccl. 9:1 Indeed, all of this itself נא
I set on my heart,
even for the sake of declaring
all of this itself נא:
that the just,
and the wise,
and their actions
are in the hand of YAHWEH.

Even love,
even hatred
is not known to the human being
by anything before their faces.

Eccl. 9:2 Everything is the same for everyone.
One thing happens
to the just,
and to the morally wrong,
to the good,
and to the pure,

and to the defiled,
and to one sacrificing,
and to one who is not sacrificing.

As is the good one, so is the offender,
the one swearing, as the one fearing an oath.

Eccl. 9:3 This is bad among all that is done beneath the sun,
that there is one event happening to all.

And also, the hearts
of the children of the human being
have been full of what is bad.
Even madness is in their hearts
while they live.
And after it, they go to the dying!

Eccl. 9:4 Indeed, for him who is joined to all the living
there is hope.
Indeed, a living dog is better than the dead lion.

Eccl. 9:5 Indeed, the living
are knowing they will die.
But those having died
are not knowing anything
and there is no longer
compensation for them.
Indeed, their memory has been forgotten.

There are two important issues in this verse
that are often misrepresented
or misunderstood.
First, the dead know nothing.
They are dead.
This is contrary
to popular teaching about death
with the false hope of "instant heaven".
This is not what Scripture teaches.
it is a tradition of human beings.
It's a LIE!

Second is the Hebrew word, sakar.
It means payment of a contract,
wages, compensation.
It does NOT mean 'reward'.
A reward is a gift
for something not earned.
Wages are payment due
for service rendered.
"Reward" is a very selfish concept.
It focuses on what I can get for myself.

There are no rewards in Heaven!
There will be certain forms of compensation,
but these are NOT rewards.

Eccl. 9:6 Even their love,
even their hatred,
even their envy
have now perished.
And there is no portion for them any longer
to eternity among all
that has been done beneath the sun.

Eccl. 9:7 Go!
Eat your food with joy
and drink your wine with a glad heart!
Indeed, YAHWEH has already accepted
your actions themselves nx.

9:8 May your garments be white at all times
and may your head lack no oil.

Eccl. 9:9 Observe life
with the wife whom you have loved
all the days of your life of your futility
which have been given to you
beneath the sun,
all your days of futility.
Indeed, this is your portion in life
and in your labor
with which you yourself תא
have labored beneath the sun.

Eccl. 9:10 Everything which your hand finds to do,
do it with your might.
Indeed, there is no work, or planning,
or knowledge, or wisdom in She'ol,
to which you yourself תא are going.

Eccl. 9:11 I turned back.
And I observed beneath the sun
that the race is not to the swift,
and the battle is not to the mighty,
nor even food to the wise,
nor even riches to one of understanding,
nor even favor to one of knowledge.
Indeed, time and chance happen
to all of they themselves תא.

Eccl. 9:12 Indeed also,
the human being
does not know his time itself תא.
Like fish seized in a net of evil,
and like birds having been caught in a snare,
like those being snared at a bad time
are the children of the human being
when it falls upon them suddenly.

Eccl. 9:13 Also this I have seen
as wisdom beneath the sun,
and it is great to me.
Eccl. 9:14 There was a little city.
And few men were in it.
And a great king came against it.
And he besieged it itself תא.
And he built great siege works against it.
Eccl. 9:15 And there was found in it a poor wise man.
And he delivered the city itself תא
with his wisdom,
but not a human being remembered
that poor human being himself תא.

Eccl. 9:16 Then I said,
"Wisdom is better than might.
But the wisdom of the poor man
has been despised,
and his words were not being heard."

Eccl. 9:17 The words of the wise,
with calmness,
are to be listened to attentively,
more than the outcry
of one ruling among fools.

Eccl. 9:18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war.
But one offender destroys much good.

Chapter 10

Eccl. 10:1 Dead flies
cause the perfumer's ointment
to send forth a stink.
A little foolishness does the same
to wisdom and honor.

Eccl. 10:2 A wise man's heart
is at his right hand,
but a fool's heart is at his left.

In Hebrew culture
the right hand
is the hand of honor and the left hand
is the hand of dishonor.

Eccl. 10:3 And even as a fool walks along the way
his common sense is lacking,
and it says to everyone that he is a fool.

Eccl. 10:4 If the breath of the one ruling rises up against you do not leave your place.
Indeed, calmness causes
great offenses to rest.

Eccl. 10:5 There is an evil
I have seen beneath the sun
like an error going forth
from the face of the ruler.

Eccl. 10:6 Foolishness is set in many high places
and the rich are put in a low place.

Eccl. 10:7 I have seen servants upon horses and rulers walking
upon the ground like slaves.

Eccl. 10:8 One digging a pit
will fall into it.
And one breaking a wall
will be bitten by a snake.
Eccl. 10:9 One pulling up stones
will be injured by them.
One splitting wood
will be endangered by it.

Eccl. 10:10 If the iron tool is blunt
and one does not sharpen the edge
then only more strength will prevail.
And wisdom is advantageous
to cause success.

Eccl. 10:11 If the snake bites
without enchantment
then there is no advantage
to the master of the tongue.

Eccl. 10:12 Words of the mouth of the wise
show favor.

But the lips of a fool swallow him up.

Eccl. 10:13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness
and the end of his speech
is evil madness.

Eccl. 10:14 And a fool causes
words to be many.

The human being
does not know what will exist,
and who can tell to him
what will exist after him?

Eccl. 10:15 The labor of the foolish
wearies him who does not know how to go to the city!

Eccl. 10:16 Woe to you, land,
when your king is a child
and your princes eat in the morning!

Eccl. 10:17 Happy are you, land,
when your king is the son of nobles
and your princes eat in due season,
with self-control and not with drunkenness!

Eccl. 10:18 On account of laziness
the framework tumbles,
and with idleness of hands the house leaks.

Eccl. 10:19 Food is made for laughter
and wine gladdens life,
and the silver answers everything.

Eccl. 10:20 Do not curse the king,
even in your thought.
Do not curse the rich,
even in your bedroom.
Indeed, a bird of the skies
will cause the sound itself תא to go.
And the possessor of the wings
will cause the word to be declared.

Chapter 11

Eccl. 11:1 Send out your food
on the face of the waters.
Indeed, among the many days
you will find it.

Eccl. 11:2 Give a portion to seven,
or even to eight.
Indeed, you do not know
what evil will exist upon the earth.

Eccl. 11:3 If the clouds are filled with rain
they will be caused to empty upon the earth.

And if a tree falls in the south
or if in the north,
in the place where the tree falls,
there it will exist.

Eccl. 11:4 One watching the wind
will not sow.
And one observing the clouds
will not reap.

Eccl. 11:5 Just as it is not for you to know what is the way of the wind,
or the way bones grow in the womb
of one filled with child,
likewise, you do not know
the works themselves תא of YAHWEH,
Who makes everything itself תא.

Eccl. 11:6 In the morning,
sow your seed itself תא,
and at evening do not rest your hand.
Indeed, it is not for you to know whether this will succeed or that,
or whether both of them alike will be good.

Eccl. 11:7 Even the light is sweet.
And it is good for the eyes
to see the sun itself תא.

Eccl. 11:8 Since the human being will surely live many years,
let him rejoice among all of them.
But let him remember
the days of the darkness themselves תא.
Indeed, they will be many.
Everything that is coming is futility.

Eccl. 11:9 Rejoice, young one,
in your childhood,
and cause your heart to be good
in the days of your youth.
Then walk in the ways of your heart
and in the sight of your eyes.
But know that on account of all these things YAHWEH will cause you to come into judgment.

Eccl. 11:10 And cause provocation to anger
to be removed from your heart!
And cause what is bad to pass over
away from your flesh!
Indeed, childhood and the prime of life
are futility!

Chapter 12

Eccl. 12:1 And take note of The One creating you Himself אֵל
in the days of your youth,
as long as the bad days have not come,
or the years have been caused to draw near
when you will say,
“I have no pleasure in them!”,
Eccl. 12:2 as long as the sun,
and the light,
and the moon,
and the the stars
do not grow dim,
or the clouds return after the rain;
Eccl. 12:3 in the day when the keepers of the house tremble,
and the strength of men is bent,
when the grinders cease
because they are few,
and the ones looking through the windows
are dim,
Eccl. 12:4 and the doors into the streets
have been shut,
when the sound of the grinding is low,
and one gets up at the sound of a bird,
and all the daughters of song
are brought low.
Eccl. 12:5 Also, they are afraid
because of heights,
and they are terrified on the way.
And the almond tree is caused to bloom.
And the grasshopper is a burden to himself.
And the desire fails.

Indeed, the human being
is going to his eternal home,
and the mourners
will be going about in the streets.

Eccl. 12:6 Take note of Him
until the silver cord is loosened,
and the spring of water is burst,
and the jar is shattered beside the fountain,
and the wheel broken at the well,
Eccl. 12:7 and the dust returns to the earth
as it existed before,
and the breath returns to YAHWEH,
Who has given it.

Eccl. 12:8 “Futility of futilities!”
said the Qohelet.
“Everything is futility!”

Eccl. 12:9 And beyond having been one who is more wise
he taught knowledge
to the people themselves אֵל.

And he paid attention.
And he searched things out.
He set in order many proverbs.

Eccl. 12:10 Qohelet sought to discover delightful words,
even words of truth, rightly written.

Eccl. 12:11 The words of the wise
are like goads,
even like nails having been driven,
the gathering of masters,
having been given by one Shepherd.

Eccl. 12:12 And more than these,
my child, be warned!
The making of many scrolls has no end,
and much study is weariness to the flesh.

Eccl. 12:13 The conclusion of the entire matter is this.
Everyone, listen attentively!

Revere YAHWEH Himself נא,
and protect His directives themselves נא!

All of this is for every human being!

Eccl. 12:14 Indeed, YAHWEH will cause
every act itself נא to come into judgment,
including every concealed thing,
whether good or whether bad!

34. Esther / 'Esther

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Esth. 1:1 And it was in the days of Ahasuerus.
He is the Ahasuerus
who reigned from India to Ethiopia,
a hundred and twenty seven provinces.

Esth. 1:2 In those days as King Ahasuerus
was sitting on the throne of his kingdom
which was in the palace of Shushan.

Esth. 1:3 In the third year of his reign
he made a banquet
or all his leaders and servants.
The strength of Persia and Media,
the nobles and the leaders of the provinces,
was before his face

Esth. 1:4 as he caused to be seen the riches themselves נא
of his glorious kingdom
and the splendor itself נא
of his excellent greatness
for many days, a hundred and eighty days.
Esth. 1:5 And when these days were completed
the king made a banquet of seven days
for all the people who were found
in the capital of Shushan,
from great to insignificant,
in the courtyard of the garden
of the palace of the king.

Esth. 1:6 White and blue linen curtains
were fastened with cords of fine linen and purple
upon silver rods and marble columns.
The couches of gold and silver
were on a pavement of porphyry, alabaster,
mother-of-pearl, and black marble.

Esth. 1:7 And they were caused to drink abundant royal wine with vessels of gold. And the vessels were different from one another according to the hand of the king.

Esth. 1:8 And drinking was according to royal edict. No one was compelled. Thus the king had ordered all the officers of his household to do according to the desire of each man.

Esth. 1:9 Vashti, the queen, also made a banquet for the women in the royal house which belonged to King Ahasuerus.

Esth. 1:10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was glad with wine, he spoke to Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Karkas, the seven of the eunuchs who were ministering before the face itself nx of King Ahasuerus, Esth. 1:11 for the sake of causing Vashti herself nx, the queen, to come before the face of the king with a royal crown for the sake of causing the people and the officials to see her beauty itself nx because she was beautiful of appearance.

Esth. 1:12 But the queen, Vashti, refused to come at word of the the king which existed by the hand of the eunuchs. And the king was enraged. And his wrath was kindled within him.

Esth. 1:13 And the king said to the wise ones, those understanding the times. According to this the matter of the king was before the faces of everyone knowing law and judgment, Esth. 1:14 and those who were close to him, Karshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, Memukan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, those seeing the face of the king, those sitting as heads in the kingdom.

Esth. 1:15 "According to law what is to be done with Queen Vashti concerning what she has not done at the proclamation itself nx of Ahasuerus the king by the hand of the eunuchs?"

Esth. 1:16 And Memukan responded before the faces of the king and the leaders, "It is not only concerning the king that Vashti, the queen, has done wrong, but indeed, concerning all the leaders and all the people who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus.

Esth. 1:17 Indeed, word of the queen will go forth to all the women for the sake of causing their husbands to be despised in their eyes on account of their saying,

'King Ahasuerus said
to cause Vashti herself תא, the queen,
to be come in before their faces,
but she did not come.'

Esth. 1:18 And this very day
the royal ladies of Persia and Media will say what they have heard of the matter itself תא of the queen
to all the king's leaders,
even with abundant contempt and wrath.

Esth. 1:19 If it is well pleasing to the king
let a royal word go forth
from before his face.
And let it be written in the laws
of the Persians and the Medes,
and it can not be passed over,
by which Vashti may not come before the face of King Ahasuerus.
And let the king give her royal position
to another, to one better than she.

Esth. 1:20 And cause the decree of the king
which he makes to be heard in all his kingdom, great as it is.
Then all the wives
will give honor to their husbands,
to both great and small."

Esth. 1:21 And the word was pleasing
in the eyes of the king and the leaders.
And the king did
according to the word of Memukan.

Esth. 1:22 And he sent documents
to all the provinces of the king,
to province after province in its own writing,
and to people after people
in their own language,
for the sake of it being that every man
is to rule in his own house
and is to speak in the language of his people.

Chapter 2

Esth. 2:1 After these matters,
when the wrath of King Ahasuerus
had diminished,
he remembered Vashti herself תא
and what itself תא she had done,
and what itself תא
had been decreed concerning her.

Esth. 2:2 And the servants of the king
who were ministering to him said,
"Let young virgins, beautiful of appearance,
be sought for the king.

Esth. 2:3 And let the king appoint overseers
in all the provinces of his kingdom.

And let them gather
all the beautiful young virgins themselves תא
to the capital of Shushan,
to the house of the women,
to the hand of Hegai, the king's eunuch,
guardian of the women.
And let them be given their cosmetics.

Esth. 2:4 And let the young woman who is pleasing in the eyes of the king
be queen instead of Vashti."

And the word was pleasing to the king.
And he did according to this.

Esth. 2:5 A man of Yahudah
was in the capital of Shushan,
and his name was Mordekai,
son of Ya'ir, son of Shim'i,
son of Kish, a man of Binyamin,
Yahudah means YAH be praised.
Shushan - meaning unknown;
of foreign derivation.
Mordekai - meaning unknown;
of foreign derivation.
Ya'ir means one who enlightens.
Shim'i means famous.
Kish means a bow.
Binyamin means son of the right hand.

Esth. 2:6 who had been exiled
from Yerushalaim
with the captives who had been exiled
with Yekonyah, king of Yahudah, whom Nebukadnetzar, the king of Babel,
had exiled.
Yerushalaim means
complete teaching of deliverance.
Yekonyah means
YAHWEH will establish.
Nebukadnetzar - meaning unknown;
f foreign derivation.

Esth. 2:7 And it existed
that he was bringing up Hadassah herself תא, she is Esther,
daughter of his uncle,
because she had neither father nor mother.
The young woman
was lovely and of good appearance.
And when her father and mother died
Mordekai took her as his own daughter.
Hadassah means myrtle tree.
Esther - meaning unknown;
of foreign derivation.

Esth. 2:8 And it was as word of the king's decree was being heard and as many young women were being gathered
to the capital of Shushan,
to the hand of Hegai.
And Esther was taken
to the house of the king,
to the hand of Hegai,
guardian of the women.

Esth. 2:9 And the young woman
was pleasing in his eyes.
And she received kindness before his face.
And he hurried
to give her cosmetics themselves תא
and her portions of food themselves תא,
and seven of the favored young women
from the house of the king.
And he moved
the young women themselves תא
to the best place in the house of the women.

Esth. 2:10 Esther had not caused to be known her people themselves תא
or her lineage itself תא because Mordekai had directed her concerning
what she was not to cause to be known.

Esth. 2:11 And in the day, every day,
Mordekai walked in the presence of the courtyard of the house of the women
for the sake of knowing
the welfare itself תא of Esther
and what was being done done with her.

Esth. 2:12 And as it reached the turn of each young woman, then the young woman was to go in to King Ahasuerus at the end of there being for her twelve months, according to the law of the women. Indeed, according to this were the days of their cosmetics completed: six months with oil of the myrrh, and six months with the fragrances and with the cosmetics of the women.

Esth. 2:13 And according to this the young woman went in to the king. Anything itself נא which she desired was given to her for the sake of her going from the house of the women to the house of the king.

Esth. 2:14 In the evening she was going in. And in the morning she was returning to the second house, to the hand of Sha'ashgaz, the king's eunuch, guardian of the concubines.

She would not go in to the king again unless the king delighted in her and called for her by name.

Esth. 2:15 And as Esther, the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordekai, who had taken her as his daughter, reached her turn to go in to the king she had not requested anything except that itself נא which Hegai, the king's eunuch, guardian of the women, had said.

And it happened that Esther received favor in the eyes of all who were seeing her.
Abihail means father of might.

Esth. 2:16 And Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus, to the royal house, in the tenth month, it is the month of Tebet, in the seventh year of his reign.

Esth. 2:17 And the king loved Esther herself נא more than the other women. And she received favor and kindness before his face, more than all the other virgins. And he placed the royal crown on her head. And he caused her to reign instead of Vashti.

Esth. 2:18 And the king made a great feast for all his leaders and his servants, The Feast of Esther itself נא.

And he made a release for the provinces. And he gave gifts by the hand of the king.

Esth. 2:19 And as virgins were assembled a second time Mordekai was sitting in the gate of the king.

Esth. 2:20 Esther had not caused to be declared her lineage or her people themselves נא

according to what Mordekai
had directed concerning her.
And the word itself תא Mordekai had spoken Esther did on account of her being raised by he himself תא.

Esth. 2:21 In those days then
Mordekai was sitting in the gate of the king.
Bigthan and Teresh,
two of the king's eunuchs
who were keeping guard of the door
were enraged.
And they sought to lay a hand
on King Ahasuerus.
Esth. 2:22 And the matter
became known to Mordekai.
And he declared it to Esther, the queen.
And Esther spoke to the king
in the name of Mordekai.
Esth. 2:23 And he researched the matter.
And it was discovered.
And both were hung upon a tree.
And it was written in the scroll
of the words of the days
before the face of the king.

Chapter 3

Esth. 3:1 After these things
King Ahasuerus promoted Haman himself תא,
son of Hammedatha the Agagite.
And he raised him up.
And he placed his seat itself תא higher than all the leaders
who were with he himself תא.

Esth. 3:2 And all the servants of the king
who were in the gate of the king
were bowing down
and prostrating themselves to Haman, because according to this
the king had commanded concerning him.
But Mordekai did not bow down,
and he did not prostrate himself.

Esth. 3:3 And the servants of the king
who were in the gate of the king
said to Mordekai,
"Why do you yourself תא rebel
at the command itself תא of the king?"

Esth. 3:4 And it was
as they were speaking to him day after day
and he had not listened to them.
And they reported it to Haman
to see whether the words of Mordekai
would stand because he had told them
that he was a Yahudean.

Esth. 3:5 And Haman saw that Mordekai
did not bow or prostrate himself.
And Haman was filled with wrath.
Esth. 3:6 But it was disrespectful in his eyes
to extend a hand against Mordekai,
toward him alone,
because they had declared to him
the people themselves תא of Mordekai.

And Haman sought to destroy all the Yahudeans themselves תא
who were in the entire kingdom of Ahasuerus,
the people of Mordekai.

Esth. 3:7 In the first month,
it is the month of Nisan,

in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus,
pur was caused to fall (It is the lot.)
before the face of Haman from day to day,
and from month to month.
It fell on the twelfth month.
(It is the month of Adar.)

It's interesting to consider this process.
Apparently the lot, called pur in Hebrew,
or purim in the plural,
was cast day after day
and month after month
until it gave a favorable response to Haman.
He apparently would not act
until the lot indicated the 'right moment'.

Esth. 3:8 Then Haman
said to King Ahasuerus,
"There is a certain people having been scattered
and dispersed among the people
in all the provinces of your kingdom.
And their laws are different from all the people.
And the king's laws themselves נא
they are not doing.
And it is not equitable to the king
to cause them to remain.

Esth. 3:9 If it is pleasing to the king,
let it be written to destroy them.
And I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those doing the business for the sake of causing it to come into the treasuries of the king."

Esth. 3:10 And the king removed
his signet ring from his hand.
And he gave it to Haman,
son of Hammedatha the Agagite,
the oppressor of the Yahudeans.
Esth. 3:11 And the king said to Haman,
"The silver and the people are given to you
for the sake of doing with them
according to what is good in your eyes."

Esth. 3:12 And the scribes of the king were called on the thirteenth day of the first month.
And it was written, according to everything
which Haman had directed,
to the governors of the king,
and to the deputies
who were over a province,
and to province by province
according to its writing,
and to people after people
according to their language,
having been written
in the name of King Ahasuerus
and sealed with the signet ring of the king.

The 13th day of the first month
is the day before Passover.
Was it also a Friday?

Esth. 3:13 And the documents were sent by the hand of the runners
to all the provinces of the king
for the sake of causing to be destroyed,
for the sake of killing,
and for the sake of causing to perish
all the Yahudeans themselves נא,
from the young even to the old,
little children and women,
on one day,
on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month,
it is the month of Adar,
and to plunder their possessions.

Esth. 3:14 A copy of the writing
was to be given as law
in province after province,
having been revealed to all the peoples,
for the sake of being prepared for this very day.

Esth. 3:15 The runners went out,
hurried by word of the king.
And the decree was given
in the capital at Shushan.
And the king and Haman sat down to drink,
but the city of Shushan was in turmoil.

Chapter 4

Esth. 4:1 And Mordekai knew
everything itself תא that had been done.
And Mordekai tore his garments themselves תא.
And he put on sackcloth and ashes.
And he went out into the midst of the city.
And he cried out with a great and bitter outcry.
Esth. 4:2 And he went up to the face of the gate of the king.

Indeed, no one was to enter
the gate of the king wearing sackcloth.

Esth. 4:3 And in province after province,
in the places to which the word of the king
and the decree reached
there was great mourning for the Yahudeans,
and fasting, and weeping, and wailing.
And many laid in sackcloth and ashes.

Esth. 4:4 And Esther's young women and eunuchs came.
And they reported it to her.
And the queen was exceedingly grieved.
And she sent garments
for the sake of causing Mordekai himself תא
to put them on,
and to cause him to remove his sackcloth from upon him.
But he did not accept them.

Esth. 4:5 And Esther called to Hatakh
from the king's eunuchs whom he had caused
to stand before her face.
And she gave him a command,
concerning Mordekai,
to know what existed and why this existed.

Esth. 4:6 And Hatakh went out to Mordekai,
to a square of the city
which was before the gate of the king.
Esth. 4:7 And Mordekai reported to him
everything itself תא that happened,
and the exact amount of the silver itself תא
which Haman had said was to be paid to the treasuries of the king
on account of the Yahudeans
for the sake of causing them to perish.

Esth. 4:8 And a copy itself תא
of the written decree
which had been given at Shushan
for the sake of causing them to be destroyed was given to him for the sake of causing Esther herself תא to see it,
and for the sake of causing it
to be explained to her,
and for the sake of pressing upon her
to go in to the king

to make supplication itself to him,
and to make a request before his face
concerning her people.

Esth. 4:9 And Hatakh went.
And he reported to Esther
the words themselves נא of Mordekai.

Esth. 4:10 And Esther spoke to Hatakh.
And she gave a command to Mordekai,
Esth. 4:11 "All the servants of the king and the people of the provinces of the king know that any man or woman who goes to the king, to the inner court,
who has not been called has one law.
He is to be put to death,
except only the one to whom the king extends the golden scepter itself נא.
Then that one will live.

But I myself have not been called to come in to the king these thirty days."

Esth. 4:12 And they reported to Mordekai
the words themselves נא of Esther.

Esth. 4:13 Then Mordekai spoke for the sake of causing them
to return to Esther,
"Do not think within your life
to escape in the house of the king
any more than all the other Yahudeans.

Esth. 4:14 Indeed, if you keep silent,
keep silent at this very time,
then relief and deliverance
will arise for the Yahudeans
from another place.
And you yourself נא
and your father's house will perish.
And who knows
whether it is on account of this
you have come to the kingdom?"

Esth. 4:15 And Esther said
as a reply to Mordekai, Esth. 4:16 "Go!
Gather all the Yahudeans themselves נא,
those being found in Shushan
and fast concerning me!
And do not eat and do not drink
for three days, night or day!
I myself also and my young women
will fast according to this.
Then on account of this
I will go to the king,
which is not according to the law.
And when I have perished, I have perished."

Esth. 4:17 And Mordekai passed over.
And he did according to everything that Esther urged upon him.

Please take note of the use of the Hebrew term for "passed over".
This is traditionally translated
as "went away".
However, it's very significant to see this specific term
in this specific passage
connected to this specific event.

This word occurs frequently in Scripture.
But it is virtually always given
as something else in English translations, thereby missing the impact of the use of "pass over"

Chapter 5

Esth. 5:1 And it was on the third day.
And Esther put on the royal apparel.
And she stood in the inner courtyard
of the house of the king,
in front of the house of the king.
And the king was sitting on the throne of his kingdom
in the royal house
opposite the entrance of the house.

Esth. 5:2 And it was as the king saw Esther herself תא, the queen,
standing in the courtyard.
She received favor in his eyes.
And the king extended to Esther
the golden scepter itself תא
which was in his hand.
And Esther approached.
And she touched on the top of the scepter.

Esth. 5:3 And the king said to her,
"What is it for you, Esther, the queen?
Even whatever is your request,
up to half the kingdom,
even it will be given to you!"

Esth. 5:4 And Esther said,
"If it is good to the king
let the king and Haman come today to the banquet
which I have prepared for him."

Esth. 5:5 And the king said,
"Hurry Haman himself תא
for the sake of doing
that itself תא which Esther has said."

And the king and Haman went to the banquet
which Esther had prepared.

Esth. 5:6 And the king said to Esther
at the banquet of the wine,
"What is your petition
that it might be given to you?
And what is your request,
up to half my kingdom, and it will be done!"

Esth. 5:7 And Esther responded.
And she said,
"My petition and request is this:
Esth. 5:8 "If I have found favor
in the eyes of the king,
and if it is pleasing to the king
to grant my petition itself תא
and to perform my request itself תא,
let the king and Haman come to the banquet
which I will prepare for them.
And tomorrow I will do
according to the word of the king."

Esth. 5:9 And Haman went out on that very day
rejoicing and with a happy heart.

But when Haman saw Mordekai himself תא
in the gate of the king,
and he did not stand up,
and he did not tremble because of him,

then Haman was filled with wrath against Mordekai.

Esth. 5:10 But Haman restrained himself.
And he went to his house.
And he sent and called
those loving him themselves נא
and Zeresh herself נא, his wife.

Esth. 5:11 And Haman declared to them
the glory itself נא of his riches,
and the multitude of his children,
and everything itself נא
in which the king had promoted him,
and how itself נא the king had exalted him
above the leaders and servants of the king.

Esth. 5:12 And Haman said, “Furthermore, Esther, the queen,
did not cause any except me myself נא
to come in with the king
to the banquet which she had prepared.
And tomorrow also I myself
have been called by her with the king.

Esth. 5:13 But all this is nothing to me
as long as I see Mordekai himself נא, the Yahudean,
sitting in the gate of the king.”

Esth. 5:14 And Zeresh, his wife,
and all those loving him said to him,
“Let a post be made, fifty cubits high.
And in the morning speak to the king.
And let Mordekai himself נא
be hung upon it.
Then go with the king
to the banquet with gladness.”
And the word pleased Haman.
And he had the post made.

Note: It should not be missed
that the words used here
that are normally translated as 'gallows'
refers to a tree of wood.

The concept of the gallows
is a more modern conception
of what took place.
This "tree" comes to serve as a sort of "means of deliverance"
for the Yahudeans
when Haman himself is hung upon it.
The imagery is striking.

Chapter 6

Esth. 6:1 On that night
the sleep of the king fled.
And he spoke for the sake of bringing the scroll itself נא of the records
of the words of the days.
And they were read
before the face of the king.

Esth. 6:2 And it was found,
having been written,
what Mordekai had reported concerning Bigthan and Teresh,
two of the king's eunuchs
among the doorkeepers,
who had sought to lay a hand
on King Ahasuerus.

Esth. 6:3 Then the king said, “What has been done
of value or of respect for Mordekai concerning this?”

And the servants of the king,
those ministering to him, said,
“Not anything has been done for him.”

Esth. 6:4 And the king said,
“Who is in the courtyard?”
And Haman had come to the outer courtyard
of the house of the king
for the sake of speaking to the king
for the sake of hanging Mordekai himself אָ
upon the post which he had prepared for him.

Esth. 6:5 And the servants of the king
said to him, “Behold!
Haman is standing in the courtyard.”
And the king said, “Let him come in.”
Esth. 6:6 And Haman entered.

And the king said to him,
“What is to be done with a man with whom the king has been pleased
on account of his honor?”
And Haman thought in his heart, “Whom would the king be pleased for doing honor more than me?”

Esth. 6:7 And Haman said to the king, “For the man whom the king has been pleased

on account of his honor,
Esth. 6:8 let a royal robe be brought
which the king has worn,
and a horse upon which the king has ridden,
and who has had a royal crown
put on his head.

Esth. 6:9 And give the robe and the horse
into the hand of a man
from the most noble leaders of the king.
Let them cause the man himself אָ
whom the king has been pleased to honor
to wear the robe.

And cause him to ride upon the horse
in the streets of the city
and proclaim before his face, ‘Thus it will be done to the man
whom the king has been pleased to honor!’ ”

Esth. 6:10 And the king said to Haman, “Hurry!

Take the robe itself אָ
and the horse itself אָ
according to what you have spoken!
And do according to this
to Mordekai, the Yehudean,
who is sitting in the gate of the king!
Do not cause a word to fail
among everything you have spoken!”

Esth. 6:11 And Haman
took the robe itself אָ
and the horse itself אָ.
And he clothed Mordekai himself אָ.
And he caused him to ride horseback
in the streets of the city.
And he proclaimed before his face,
“Thus it will be done to the man
whom the king has been pleased to honor.”

Esth. 6:12 And Mordekai returned to the gate of the king.
But Haman hurried to his house,
mourning and his head having been covered.
Esth. 6:13 And Haman
reported to his wife, Zeresh,
and to all those loving him

everything itself תא
that had happened to him.
And his wise men and Zeresh, his wife,
said to him,
“If Mordekai is from the seed of the Yahudeans whom you have caused
to be profaned before your face
you will not prevail against him.
Indeed, surely you will fall before his face.”

Esth. 6:14 They were still speaking with him.
And the king's eunuchs arrived.
And they hurried
for the sake of causing Haman himself תא
to go to the banquet
which Esther had prepared.

Chapter 7

Esth. 7:1 And the king and Haman
came to drink with Esther, the queen.
Esth. 7:2 And the king said to Esther
also on the second day
at the banquet of the wine,
“What is your petition, Esther, the queen?
Then it will be given to you.
And what is your request?

Esth. 7:3 And Esther, the queen, responded.
And she said,
“If I have found favor in your eyes, oh king,
and if it is good to the king,
let my life be granted to me as my petition,
also my people, as my request.
Esth. 7:4 Indeed, we have been sold,
I myself and my people,
for the sake of being destroyed,
for the sake of being killed,
and for the sake of being caused to perish.

Even if we had been sold
as male and female slaves
I would have been caused to be silent,
although the oppressor can not offset
the damage to the king.”

Esth. 7:5 Then King Ahasuerus spoke.
And he said to Esther, the queen,
“Who is he, this one?
And where is he,
this one who has filled his heart
for the sake of doing according to this?”

Esth. 7:6 And Esther said,
“The man of oppression,
even the adversary, is Haman,
this evil one!”

And Haman was terrified
before the faces of the king and the queen.

Esth. 7:7 And the king,
having stood up in his wrath
from the banquet of the wine,
went into the garden of the palace.

And Haman stood still for the sake of asking for his life
from Esther, the queen.
Indeed, he had seen that evil
had been determined against him
by the king himself תא.

Esth. 7:8 And the king returned from the garden of the palace
to the house, to the banquet of the wine.

And Haman was falling upon the couch which Esther was upon.
And the king said,
“Will he even ravish the queen herself תא
with me in the house?”

The word went out
from the mouth of the king.
And they covered the face of Haman.
Esth. 7:9 And Harbonah, one of the eunuchs,
said to the face of the king,
“Also, behold!
The post of fifty cubits height
which Haman has made for Mordekai,
who spoke good concerning the king,
is standing at the house of Haman.”
And the king said, “Hang him on it!”
Esth. 7:10 And they hung Haman himself תא
on the post
that he had prepared for Mordekai.
Then the wrath of the king subsided.

Chapter 8

Esth. 8:1 On that very day
King Ahasuerus gave to Esther, the queen,
the house of Haman itself תא,
the oppressor of the Yahudeans.

And Mordekai came
before the face of the king
because Esther had explained
what he was to her.
Esth. 8:2 And the king removed
his signet ring itself תא
which he had caused
to pass over from Haman.
And he gave it to Mordekai.

And Esther placed Mordekai himself תא
over the house of Haman.

Esth. 8:3 And Esther added more.
And she spoke before the face of the king.
And she fell down on her face at his feet.
And she sought favor of him with tears
for the sake of putting an end
to the evil itself תא of Haman, the Agagite,
and his plot itself תא which he had devised
against the Yahudeans.

Esth. 8:4 And the king extended to Esther
the golden scepter itself תא.
And Esther stood up.
And she stationed herself
before the face of the king.
Esth. 8:5 And she said,
“If it is pleasing to the king,
and if I have found favor before his face,
and the word seems right
before the face of the king,
and I myself am pleasing in his eyes,
let it be written to turn back
the documents themselves תא,
the plot of Haman,
son of Hammedatha the Agagite,
which he had written for the sake of destroying the Yahudeans themselves תא
who are in all the provinces of the king.

Esth. 8:6 Indeed, how can I endure

if I have watched the evil
which will find my people themselves nx?
And how can I endure if I have watched
the destruction of my lineage?"

Esth. 8:7 And King Ahasuerus said
to Esther, the queen
and to Mordekai the Yahudean,
"Behold!
I have given Esther the house of Haman.
And he himself nx
they have hung upon the post
on account of his extending his hand
against the Yahudeans.

Esth. 8:8 And you yourselves nx,
write concerning the Yahudeans
according to what is good in your eyes
in the name of the king
and seal it with the signet ring of the king!
Indeed, a document which is written
in the name of the king
and has been sealed
with the signet ring of the king
no one can cause to turn back!"

Esth. 8:9 And the scribes of the king
were called at that very time,
in the third month,
which is the month of Sivan,
on the twenty third day.
And it was written according to all that Mordekai directed to the Yahudeans,
and to the governors,
and to the deputies,
and to the leaders of the provinces
which were from India to Ethiopia,
a hundred and twenty seven provinces,
province after province in its own writing,
and to people after people
in their own language,
and to the Yahudeans in their own writing,
and in their own language.

Esth. 8:10 And he wrote
in the name of King Ahasuerus.
And he sealed it
with the signet ring of the king.
And he sent documents
by the hand of the runners on horseback,
riding on the royal horses, sons of the swift,
Esth. 8:11 that the king has granted
to the Yahudeans
who were in city after city to be assembled
and to stand concerning their lives,
for the sake of causing to be destroyed,
and for the sake of killing,
and for the sake of causing to perish
all the strength itself nx
of the people or province
who were besieging they themselves nx,
their little children, and their women,
and to plunder their possessions
Esth. 8:12 on one day in all the provinces
of King Ahasuerus,
on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month,
which is the month of Adar.

Esth. 8:13 A copy of the writing
was to be given as law in every province
and the province was to reveal it to all the peoples.

And the Yahudeans were to be prepared for that very day
for the sake of being avenged
from their adversaries.

Esth. 8:14 The runners,
riding on royal horses,
went out, hurried and urged on
by the word of the king.
And the decree was given
in the capital of Shushan.

Esth. 8:15 And Mordekai went out from the presence of the king
in royal garments of blue and white,
and a great crown of gold,
and a garment of fine linen and purple.

And the city of Shushan shouted and rejoiced.

Esth. 8:16 For the Yahudeans
there was light,
and rejoicing,
and joy,
and honor.

Esth. 8:17 And in province after province
and in city after city
wherever the decree of the king came,
there was joy and gladness
for the Yahudeans,
a feast, and a day of goodness.
And many of the people of the land
caused themselves to be Yahudeans
because the dread of the Yahudeans had fallen upon them.

Chapter 9

Esth. 9:1 And in the twelfth month,
that is the month of Adar,
the thirteenth day in it had been reached whereby the word of the king
and his decree were to be done.
And that day
the adversaries of the Yahudeans
had hoped to have power against them.
But it was turned around
so that the Yahudeans
had power against those who were hating them.

Esth. 9:2 The Yahudeans assembled in their cities
in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus
for the sake of laying hands
on those who were seeking their harm.
And no man stood before their faces
because dread of them
had fallen upon all the peoples.

Esth. 9:3 And all the leaders of the provinces,
and the governors, and the deputies,
and all those doing
the stewardship for the king
were exalting the Yahudeans themselves nx.
Indeed, the dread of Mordekai
had fallen upon them.

Esth. 9:4 Indeed, Mordekai was great
in the house of the king.
And his fame had travelled into all the provinces.
Indeed, the man, Mordekai,
was becoming greater and greater.

Esth. 9:5 And the Yahudeans
struck all their adversaries

with the stroke of the sword,
and with slaughter and destruction.
And they did among those hating them
according to what was pleasing to them.

Esth. 9:6 And in Shushan, the capital,
the Yahudeans killed.
And they destroyed five hundred men.

Esth. 9:7 And they slew Parshandatha himself תא,
and Dalphon himself תא,
and Aspatha himself תא, Esth. 9:8 and Poratha himself תא,
and Adalya himself תא,
and Aridatha himself תא, Esth. 9:9 and Parmashta himself תא,
and Arisai himself תא,
and Aridai himself תא,
and Wayezatha himself תא, Esth. 9:10 the ten sons of Haman,
son of Hammedatha,
the one oppressing the Yahudeans.
But against the plunder
they did not extend a hand.

Esth. 9:11 On that very day
the number of those having been slain
in Shushan, the capital,
was before the face of the king.
Esth. 9:12 And the king said
to Esther, the queen,
“At Shushan, the capital,
the Yahudeans have killed and destroyed
five hundred men in the capital of Shushan,
and the ten sons of Haman themselves תא.
In the rest of the provinces of the king
what have they done?

And what is your petition?
And it will be granted to you.
And what is your further request?
And it will be done.”

Esth. 9:13 And Esther said,
“If it is pleasing to the king,
let it be granted to the Yahudeans
who are in Shushan
to do again tomorrow
according to today’s decree.
And let the ten sons of Haman themselves תא
be hung upon the post.”

Esth. 9:14 And the king said this was to be done.
According to this
the decree was given in Shushan.
And the ten sons of Haman themselves תא
they hung.

Esth. 9:15 And the Yahudeans
who were in Shushan
also assembled on the fourteenth day
of the month of Adar.
And they killed three hundred men
at Shushan.
But against the plunder
they did not extend
their hands themselves תא.

Esth. 9:16 And the rest of the Yahudeans
who were in the provinces of the king assembled.
And they withstood on account of their lives
and on account of rest from their adversaries,

and for the sake of killing
among their adversaries
seventy five thousand.
But against their plunder
they did not extend
their hands themselves תא.

Esth. 9:17 This was on the thirteenth day
of the month of Adar.
At the fourteenth day of the month,
then they rested.
And they made it itself תא
a day of feasting and joy.

Esth. 9:18 But the Yahudeans
who were at Shushan
assembled on the thirteenth day
as well as on the fourteenth day.
And on the fifteenth day of the month
they rested,
And they made it itself תא
a day of feasting and joy.

Esth. 9:19 For this reason
the Yahudeans of the villages,
those dwelling in the unwalled towns,
were making the fourteenth day itself תא
of the month of Adar
a day of joy and feasting,
and a good day,
even for sending portions to one another.

Esth. 9:20 And Mordekai recorded these matters themselves תא.
And he sent documents
to all the Yahudeans
who were in all the provinces
of King Ahasuerus,
those being near and those being far,
Esth. 9:21 for the sake of establishing concerning them to be observing the fourteenth day itself תא
of the month of Adar
and the fifteenth day itself תא in it
according to year after year
Esth. 9:22 as the days
on which the Yahudeans
had rest from their adversaries,
and as the month
which was turned for them
from sorrow to joy,
and from mourning to a good day,
for the sake of making they themselves תא
days of feasting and joy,
and of sending portions to one another
and gifts to the destitute.

Esth. 9:23 And the Yahudeans
accepted that itself תא
which they had begun to do,
even that itself תא which Mordekai
had written to them

Esth. 9:24 because Haman,
son of Hammedatha the Agagite,
the oppressor of all the Yahudeans,
had plotted against the Yahudeans
for the sake of causing them to perish.
And he had cast pur, that is, the lot,
for the sake of confusing them
and for the sake of causing them to perish

Esth. 9:25 But when she, Esther, went before the face of the king
he spoke with the documents

to turn back the evil plan which Haman had plotted
against the Yahudeans
upon his own head.

And they hung he himself תא
and his sons themselves תא
upon the post.

Esth. 9:26 For this reason
they have called these days 'Purim'
on account of the designation of the pur.

For this reason,
because of all the words of this letter,
and what they had seen
concerning the matter,
and what has been caused to touch them,
Esth. 9:27 the Yahudeans have established and accepted it concerning themselves,
and concerning their seed
and all those joining to them.

And the doing
of these two days themselves תא
will not fail to exist according to their writing,
even at their appointed time,
according to year after year.

Esth. 9:28 And that these days
are to be remembered and done
in every generation and family,
province after province, city after city.
And that these days of Purim
are not to be passed over from the midst of the Yahudeans.
And that the memory of them
is not to cease from their seed.

Esth. 9:29 And Esther, the queen,
the daughter of Abihail,
with Mordekai, the Yahudean,
wrote with all authority itself תא
for the sake of confirming this second letter itself תא
concerning Purim.

Esth. 9:30 And Mordekai sent letters
to all the Yahudeans,
to the hundred and twenty seven provinces
of the kingdom of Ahasuerus,
words of shalom and faithfulness,
Esth. 9:31 for the sake of establishing
these days of The Purim themselves תא
at their appointed times
according to what Mordekai the Yahudean and Esther, the queen
had established concerning them,
and according to what they had established concerning their lives
and concerning their seed,
matters of the fastings and their outcries.

Esth. 9:32 And the decree of Esther has established the matters of these,
The Purim.
And it has been written in the scroll.

Chapter 10

Esth. 10:1 And King Ahasuerus
placed compulsory labor
on the land and the islands of the sea.
Esth. 10:2 And all the acts of his power and his might,
and the exact account of the greatness of Mordekai,

with which the king made him great,
are they not written in the scroll
of the words of the days
of the kings of Media and Persia?

Esth. 10:3 Indeed, Mordekai, the Yahudean,
was second to King Ahasuerus.
And he was great among the Yahudeans,
and pleasing to his abundant kindred,
seeking the good for his people,
and speaking shalom to all his seed.

35. Daniel - Dani'el

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Dan. 1:1 In the third year of the reign
of Yahoyakim, king of Yahudah, Nebukadnetzar, king of Babel,
came to Yerushalaim.
And he laid siege against it.

Yahoyakim means

YAHWEH will cause to stand.

Yerushalaim means

complete teaching of deliverance.

Dan. 1:2 And YAHWEH gave Yahoyakim himself נח, king of Yahudah,
into his hand
and a portion of the vessels
of The House of YAHWEH.
And he caused them to go to the land of Shin'ar,
to the house of his god.
And he caused the vessels themselves נח
to go to the treasure house of his god.

The text uses adonai.

It is known to be an alteration of the text

based on the human tradition

of not allowing the people to pronounce the name, YAHWEH,

so they did not "disrespect" it.

YAHWEH will be used

where this occurs

in the book of Daniel.

Dan. 1:3 And the king spoke to Ashpenaz,
leader of his eunuchs,
for the sake of causing to come
some of the children of Yisra'el,
and some of the seed of the kingdom,
and some of the nobles,

Dan. 1:4 young men in whom
there was not a blemish,
and pleasing of appearance,
and skillful with all wisdom,
and knowing knowledge,
and understanding what is known,
with ability in them to stand in the palace of the king.
And he was to teach them the writing
and language of the Kasdim (Chaldeans).

Dan. 1:5 And the king allotted for them
a daily provision in its day
of the food of the king
and of the wine he drank,
for the sake of nourishing them for three years,
and at the end,
to stand before the face of the king.

Dan. 1:6 And there was among them
from the children of Yahudah, Dani'el, Hananyah, Misha'el, and Azaryah.

Dani'el means El is my judge.

Hananyah means YAHWEH has favored.

Misha'el means who is like El.

Azaryah means YAHWEH has sustained.

Dan. 1:7 And the leader of the eunuchs
gave them names.

Indeed, he called Dani'el, Belteshazzar;
and Hananyah, Shadrak;
and Misha'el, Meyshak;
and Azaryah, Abed-Nego.

Dan. 1:8 And Dani'el placed it upon his heart
that he would not defile himself with the allotment of the king
nor with the wine he drank.

And he made a request
from the leader of the eunuchs
that he might not defile himself.

Dan. 1:9 And YAHWEH granted to Dani'el himself תא
kindness and compassion before the face of the leader of the eunuchs.

Dan. 1:10 But the leader of the eunuchs
said to Dani'el,

"I myself am afraid

of my sovereign himself תא, the king,
who has allotted your food itself תא
and your drink itself תא.

Truly, why should he see your faces themselves תא
more emaciated than the young men who are your age?

Then you would endanger my head itself תא
before the the king!"

Dan. 1:11 And Dani'el said to the overseer whom the leader of the eunuchs had appointed over Dani'el, Hananyah, Misha'el, and Azaryah,

Dan. 1:12 "Please test
your servants themselves תא
ten days.

And we will eat vegetables
and water also we will drink.

Dan. 1:13 Then look before your faces at our appearances
and the appearances
of the other young men,
those eating

the allotment itself תא of the king .

Then according to what you see
do with your servants."

Dan. 1:14 And he listened attentively
to them in this matter.

And he tested them ten days.

Dan. 1:15 And at the end of ten days
their appearances looked better
and fatter of flesh than all the young men,
those eating the allotment itself תא
of the king.

Dan. 1:16 And it existed that the overseer was taking away their allotment itself תא

and their wine to drink.

And he gave to them vegetables.

Dan. 1:17 And for these four young men
YAHWEH gave to them knowledge and skill
in all writing and wisdom.

And Dani'el He caused to understand
according to all visions and dreams.

Dan. 1:18 And it was at the end of the days when the king said
to cause them to come in.
And the leader of the eunuchs caused them to come in before the face of Nebukadnetzar.

Dan. 1:19 And the king spoke
with with they themselves nx.
And there was not found among all of them
one like Dani'el, Hananyah, Misha'el, and Azaryah.
And they stood before the face of the king.

Dan. 1:20 And in every word of wisdom and understanding which the king sought from them
he found them ten times better than all the magicians and the astrologers
who were in all his kingdom.

Dan. 1:21 And Dani'el was there until the first year of Cyrus the king.

Chapter 2

Dan. 2:1 And in the second year
of the reign of Nebukadnetzar, Nebukadnetzar dreamed dreams.
And his breath was agitated.
And his sleep was against him.

Dan. 2:2 And the king spoke
for the sake of calling for the horoscopists,
and for the astrologers,
and for those practicing sorcery,
and for the Chaldeans
for the sake of causing his dreams
to be reported to the king.

And they came.
And they stood before the face of king.

The term, Chaldeans, is used to designate
a group of specially trained wise men
among the Chaldeans, not the general public.
They were a priestly class specializing in astrology and interpretation of signs.

This gets confusing
because the term Chaldeans
is also applied in a general sense
to all of the people of this kingdom.

Dan. 2:3 And the king said to them,
"I have dreamed a dream
and my breath is agitated
for the sake of knowing the dream itself nx."

In both verse 2 and verse 3
the word ruach appears.
Traditionally this is translated as "spirit".

This can not be a correct translation.
The word 'spirit' did not exist
until the Greek culture existed.
The term was "invented" by them.
Neither the Hebrews nor the Chaldeans
had any such concept.
To speak of the kings' breath
being agitated, however,
makes perfect sense.
He was upset,
probably breathing hard.

Additionally, in Hebrew culture
the breath was seen

as the very essence of a person.
It reflected their very nature itself,
or character.
It was viewed as penetrating
the deepest parts of the person,
and therefore represented
what was "within them".

Dan. 2:4 And the Chaldeans
spoke to the king in Aramaic,
"Oh king, live to eternity!
Tell the dream to your servants
and we will explain the interpretation."

Dan. 2:5 The king replied.
And he said to the Chaldeans,
"The word has gone forth from me.
If you do not cause to be known to me
the dream and its interpretation
you will be made pieces
and your houses will be made dunghills.

Dan. 2:6 But if you explain the dream
and its interpretation
you will receive gifts, and rewards,
and great honor from me.
Therefore, explain to me
the dream and its interpretation."

Dan. 2:7 They answered
a second time saying,
"Let the king tell to his servants the dream
and we will explain its interpretation."

Dan. 2:8 The king answered. And he said,
"I myself know for certain that you yourselves are gaining time
because you see that the word
has gone forth from me.

Dan. 2:9 However, if you do not cause me
to know the dream
there is only one decree for you!
And you have agreed to speak lying and corrupt words before me
until when the time has changed.
Therefore, tell the dream to me.
Then I will know that you can explain the interpretation for me."

Dan. 2:10 The Chaldeans
answered before the king.
And they said,

"There is not a mortal upon the earth
who is able to explain the matter of the king.
Indeed, any great king or ruler
has not asked a matter like this
of any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

Dan. 2:11 And the matter
which the king is asking is unusual.
And there is no other
who can explain it to the king
except the gods,
whose dwelling is not with flesh."

Dan. 2:12 On account of this
the king was enraged,
even very furious.
And he spoke for the sake of causing
all the wise ones of Babel to perish.

Dan. 2:13 And the decree went forth.
And the the wise men were being killed.
And they sought Dani'el and his companions
for the sake of killing them.

Dan. 2:14 Then with counsel and wisdom
Dani'el returned to Aryok,
captain of the guard of the king,

who had gone out for the sake of killing
the wise ones of Babel.

Dan. 2:15 He responded.
And he said to Aryok, the king's captain,
"Why has the decree been so urgent from before the face of the king?"
Then Aryok
made the matter known to Dani'el.

Dan. 2:16 And Dani'el went in.
And he asked the king to give him time.
Then he would explain
the interpretation to the king.

Dan. 2:17 Then Dani'el went to his house.
And he made the matter known to Hananyah, Misha'el, and Azaryah,
his companions,
Dan. 2:18 for the sake
of requesting compassions
from the face of The El of The Heavens concerning this mystery
in order that Dani'el and his companions
might not be caused to perish
with the rest of the wise ones of Babel.

Dan. 2:19 Then the mystery was revealed to Dani'el
in a vision of the night.
Then Dani'el blessed The El of The Heavens.

Dan. 2:20 Dani'el responded. And he said,
Blessed be the Name of YAHWEH
to eternity and forever,
to Whom is wisdom and power!
Indeed, they are His!
Dan. 2:21 And He is The One
changing times and seasons.
He is The One
causing kings to pass away,
and causing kings to rise up.
He gives wisdom to the wise
and knowledge
to those knowing understanding.

Dan. 2:22 He is The One revealing deep and hidden things.
He is The One knowing
what is in the darkness
and the light has been set free by Him.

Dan. 2:23 To You, El of my fathers,
I am caused to give thanks and praise,
I myself!

Wisdom and power You have given to me!
Even now You have made known to me
what we have requested from You!
Indeed, You have made known to us
the matter of the king!"

Dan. 2:24 On account of this Dani'el went to Aryok, whom the king had appointed for the sake of destroying
the wise ones of Babel.
He went and according to this
he said to him,
"Do not cause to perish
the wise ones of Babel.
Cause me to come in before the king
and I will declare the interpretation
to the king."

Dan. 2:25 Then Aryok, in haste,
caused Dani'el to come in before the king.
And according to this he said to him,
"I have found a man from the sons
of the captivity of Yahudah
who will make known to the king
the interpretation."

Dan. 2:26 The king answered.
And he said to Dani'el,
whose name was Belteshazzar,
"Are you able to cause me to know
the dream which I have seen and the interpretation?"

Dan. 2:27 Dani'el answered before the king.
And he said,
"The mystery which the king is requiring,
the wise ones,
the astrologers,
the horoscopists,
and the diviners
are not able to declare to the king.

Dan. 2:28 However,
there is an El in The Heavens.
He reveals mysteries.
And He has caused to be known to King Nebukadnetzar
that which will exist in the last days.

Your dream, even the visions of your head
upon your bed, were these:

Dan. 2:29 You yourself, the king,
your thoughts on your bed rose up.
'What is it that will exist after this?'
And The One revealing mysteries has caused you to know what it is that will exist.

Dan. 2:30 And I myself,
it is not on account of wisdom
which I have in me
being more than all the living
that this has been revealed to me,
but rather for the intent of making known
the interpretation to the king,
and that you might know
the thoughts of your heart.

Dan. 2:31 You yourself, the king,
were looking.
And you looked.
And behold!
One exceedingly large image!
This same image was great,
even with exceeding brightness.
It was standing in front of you
and its appearance was awesome.

Dan. 2:32 The head of the image
was of fine gold,
its chest and arms of silver,
its belly and thighs of copper,
Dan. 2:33 its legs of iron,
its feet some from iron and some from clay.

Dan. 2:34 You were watching
until a stone was cut out without hands.
And it stuck against the image,
upon its feet of the iron and the clay,
and it pulverized them.

Dan. 2:35 At that time
the iron, the clay, the copper,
the silver, and the gold
were pulverized as one.
And they existed as chaff
from the threshing floors of summer.
And the wind carried them away.
And they were no place.
Nothing was found of them.

And the stone
which had struck against the image
existed as a great mountain.
And it filled the whole earth.

Dan. 2:36 This is the dream.
And its interpretation
we will declare before the king.

Dan. 2:37 You yourself, the king,
are king of the kings.
Indeed, The El of The Heavens
has given you the kingdom, the power,
and the strength, and the glory.

Dan. 2:38 And among all of the children
of mortals who are living,
and the animals of the field,
and the birds of the skies,
He has given them into your hand.
And He has caused you to have dominion
among all of them.
You are the head of gold.

Dan. 2:39 And after you will rise up another kingdom,
lesser than you,
and another third kingdom of copper
that will rule over the whole earth.

Dan. 2:40 And the fourth kingdom
will be strong like iron,
on account of which iron pulverizes
and shatters everything.
Even like the iron it will pulverize all these,
shattering and pulverizing.

Dan. 2:41 And as to your having seen
the feet and toes,
some of potter's clay and some of iron,
the kingdom will have been divided.
There will be some of the strength of the iron in it according to how you have seen the iron
mixed with the miry clay.

Dan. 2:42 And as the toes of the feet
were from iron and from clay,
the kingdom will be strong,
but some of it will be fragile.

Dan. 2:43 Whereas you saw iron
mixed with the miry clay,
they will have mingled themselves
with the seed of mortals.
But they will not be adhering,
one to the other,
even as iron
does not mingle itself with the clay.

Dan. 2:44 And in these days,
those of these kings,
The El of The Heavens
will raise up a kingdom
which will not be destroyed to eternity!

And the kingdom
will not be left to other people.
It will crush and terminate
all these kingdoms
and it will stand to eternity!

Dan. 2:45 On account of your having seen a stone
which was cut out of the mountain,
which was done without hands,
and it crushed the iron, the copper,
the clay, the silver, and the gold,
The Great El has made known to the king
what will exist after this and the dream is certain
and its interpretation is trustworthy.”

Dan. 2:46 At that time the king, Nebukadnetzar,
fell upon his face.
And he worshipped toward Dani’el.
And he told them to offer to him
an offering and incense.

Dan. 2:47 The king responded to Dani’el.
And he said,
“Of a truth, your El is The El of the gods,
The Master of kings,
and a revealer of mysteries,
since you were able to reveal this mystery!”

Dan. 2:48 Then the king made Dani’el great.
And many great gifts were given to him.
And he caused him to be ruler
over all the province of Babel,
and chief of the governors
over all the wise ones of Babel.

Dan. 2:49 And Dani’el made
a request of the king.
And he appointed Shadrak,
Meysak, and Abed-Nego
over the affairs of the province of Babel.
And Dani’el was in the gate of the king.

Chapter 3

Dan. 3:1 Nebukadnetzar the king
made an image of gold.
Its height was sixty cubits
and its width six cubits.
He stood it up in the plain of Dura
in the province of Babel.
Dan. 3:2 And Nebukadnetzar the king sent word for the sake of assembling
to the administrators,
the governors,
the diviners,
the treasurers,
the judges,
the lawyers,
and all the officials of the provinces,
for the sake of coming
to the dedication of the image
which King Nebukadnetzar
had caused to be stood up.

Dan. 3:3 At that time the governors,
the diviners, the treasurers, the judges,
the lawyers, and all the officials of the provinces assembled themselves for the dedication of the image
which Nebukadnetzar the king
had caused to be stood up.
And they stood in front of the image

which Nebukadnetzar
had caused to be stood up.

Dan. 3:4 And a herald was crying out loudly,
"To you," they were saying,
"it is commanded,
the peoples,
the nations,
and the languages.

Dan. 3:5 At the time of your hearing
the sound of the horn,
the flute,
the zither,
the lyre,
the harp,
the pipes,
and all kinds of music
you are to fall down
and you are to worship
toward the gold image
which Nebukadnetzar the king
has caused to be stood up.

Dan. 3:6 And whoever does not
fall down and worship
will in that very hour
have himself thrown into the midst of the fire of the burning furnace."

Dan. 3:7 On account of this therefore,
at the very time
when the peoples,
the nations,
and the languages
were hearing the sound of the horn,
the flute,
the zither,
the lyre,
the harp,
all kinds of music,
they fell down and worshipped
toward the gold image
which Nebukadnetzar the king
had caused to be stood up.

Dan. 3:8 On account of this therefore,
at that very time,
men of the Chaldeans drew near
and they made slanderous accusations
against the Yahudeans.

Dan. 3:9 They responded.
And they said to Nebukadnetzar the king,
"May The king live to eternity!

Dan. 3:10 You yourself, the king,
have made a decree
that every mortal who hears the sound of the horn, the flute, the zither,
the lyre, the harp, the pipes,
and all kinds of music
is to fall down and worship
toward the gold image.

Dan. 3:11 And whoever does not
fall down and worship
will have himself thrown into the midst of the fire of a burning furnace.

Dan. 3:12 There are men of the Yahudeans whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babel,
Shadrak, Meyshak, and Abed-Nego.
These men do not set
regard upon themselves concerning the king.
They do not serve your gods
and they are not worshipping

toward the gold image
which you have caused to stand up.”

Dan. 3:13 At that time Nebukadnetzar,
in rage and anger,
spoke for the sake of bringing Shadrak, Meyshak, and Abed-Nego.
At that time they caused these men
to come before the king.

Dan. 3:14 Nebukadnetzar responded.
And he said to them,
“Is it intentional, Shadrak, Meyshak, and Abed-Nego,
that you are not serving my gods,
and toward the gold image
which I have caused to stand up
you are not worshipping?

Dan. 3:15 Now, if you are ready,
at the time you hear the sound of the horn, the flute, the zither, the lyre,
the harp, the pipes, and all kinds of music,
and you will fall down and worship
toward the image which I have made, good!
But if you will not worship in that very hour
you will have yourselves thrown into the midst of the fiery burning furnace.

And who is the god who can cause you to be delivered from my hands?”

Dan. 3:16 Shadrak, Meyshak,
and Abed-Nego responded.
And they said to the king, Nebukadnetzar,
“We do not need to respond to you concerning this matter.

Dan. 3:17 Indeed, there exists YAHWEH
Whom we ourselves serve.
He is able to deliver us
from the fiery burning furnace.
Even from your hand, the king,
He can deliver!

Dan. 3:18 But if not,
let it be known to you, the king,
that to your gods we will not be serving
and toward the gold image
which you have caused to stand up
we will not worship!”

Dan. 3:19 At that time Nebukadnetzar
was filled with rage.
And the form of his face
was altered concerning Shadrak, Meyshak, and Abed-Nego.
He was responding.
And he was saying
to make the heat for the furnace seven times more than it was observed to be heated.

Dan. 3:20 And to the most mighty men who were in his forces
he spoke for the sake of binding
Shadrak, Meyshak, and Abed-Nego,
for the sake of throwing them
into the fiery burning furnace.

Dan. 3:21 At that very time these men were bound in their tunics,
their trousers, and their turbans,
and their other garments
and they were thrown into the midst

of the fiery burning furnace.

Dan. 3:22 On account of this therefore,
because the word of the king was urgent
and the furnace exceedingly hot,
these men, those picking up Shadrak, Meyshak, and Abed-Nego,
were killed by the flame of the fire.

Dan. 3:23 And these three men,
Shadrak,
Meyshak,
and Abed-Nego,
fell down in the midst
of the fiery burning furnace,
having been bound.

Dan. 3:24 Then Nebukadnetzar the king
was astonished.
And he stood up with haste.
And he spoke.
And he said to his counselors,
"Were not three men thrown bound into the midst of the fire?"
They were answering
and saying to the king,
"Of a certainty, king!"

Dan. 3:25 He responded and he said,
"Behold!
I am seeing four men, loose,
walking in the midst of the fire
and there is no damage on them!
And the form of the fourth
is like a son of the gods."

Dan. 3:26 At that very time Nebukadnetzar approached the mouth
of the fiery burning furnace.
He spoke.
And he said,
"Shadrak,
Meyshak,
and Abed-Nego,
whose god is The Highest El, come forth!"

At that very time
Shadrak,
Meyshak,
and Abed-Nego
came forth from the midst of the fire.

Dan. 3:27 And the administrators,
the princes,
and the governors,
and the king's counselors assembled
were seeing these men
for whom the fire
had no power against their bodies.
Even the hair of their head was not singed,
and their garments were not altered,
and the smell of fire
had not passed over onto them.

Dan. 3:28 Nebukadnetzar responded.
And he said, "Blessed be The Elohim
of Shadrak,
Meyshak,
and Abed-Nego,
Who has sent His messenger
and has caused His servants
to be delivered who trusted upon Him!
And they changed the word of the king.
And they gave their bodies

in order that they might not serve nor worship toward any god except their own El!

Dan. 3:29 And because of this I have made a decree
that any people, nation, or language
who speaks an offense against The El
of Shadrak,
Meyshak,
and Abed-Nego,
he will be made into pieces,
and his house will be made a dunghill.

Indeed,
this is because there is no other El
who is able to deliver like this!"

Dan. 3:30 At that time the king promoted Shadrak,
Meyshak,
and Abed-Nego
in the province of Babel.

Chapter 4

Dan. 4:1 (H 3.31)
Nebukadnetzar, the king,
to all peoples, nations and languages
who are dwelling in all the earth:
Shalom be increased to you.

Dan. 4:2 (H 3.32)
It seemed good to me to declare the signs and wonders
which The Highest El has done with me.

Dan. 4:3 (H 3.33)
How great are His signs
and how mighty are His wonders!
His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom
and His dominion
is to generation after generation.

Chapter 4 of the Hebrew text begins with the following verse.

Dan. 4:4 (H 4.1)
I myself, Nebukadnetzar,
was at ease in my house
and prospering in my palace.

Dan. 4:5 (H 4.2)
I had seen a dream,
and it frightened me.
And the thoughts on my bed
and the visions of my head disturbed me.

Dan. 4:6 (H 4.3)
And I made a decree
for the sake of causing
all the wise ones of Babel
to come in before me
who were to make known to me
the interpretation of the dream.

Dan. 4:7 (H 4.4)
At that time the sorcerers,
the astrologers, the Chaldeans,
and the diviners came in.
And I myself told the dream before them,
but its interpretation they did not cause
to be made known to me.

Dan. 4:8 (H 4.5)

But at last Dani'el,
whose name is Belteshazzar
according to the name of my god,
came in before me.
In him is the breath of The Set Apart El.
And I related the dream before him saying,

ruach - breath; wind.
This word does not mean 'spirit'.
Spirit is a Greek term
that did not exist in Hebrew
or Babylonian culture.
To use it is not give
a correct translation of the text.

Breath is the proper translation
in this context.
In Hebrew culture the breath
represented the essence of a person
since it was thought to contact every portion of their inner being.
It represented their nature,
their character.

It was not something separate from them as a person
such as a "ghost" or "spirit".

This can also be referred to
as "the nature",
the inner essence of a person.

Dan. 4:9 (H 4.6)
"Belteshazzar, master of the sorcerers,
indeed, I myself know that the breath of The Set Apart El is in you,
and no mystery is distressing to you.
Declare to me the visions of my dream
that I have seen and its interpretation.

Dan. 4:10 (H 4.7)
And the visions of my head
were upon my bed.
I looked.
And behold!

There was a tree in the midst of the earth.
And its height was great.

Dan. 4:11 (H 4.8)
The tree became great and strong
and its height reached to the skies.
And it was visible
to the end of the whole earth.

Dan. 4:12 (H 4.9)
The leaves were beautiful
and its fruit abundant.
And food for all was in it.
Beneath it was shade
for the animals of the field
and the birds of the skies
dwelt in its branches.
And all flesh was fed from it.

Dan. 4:13 (H 4.10)
I was looking.
And it was in the visions of my head
upon my bed.
And Behold!

A watcher, even a set apart one,
was descending from the skies.
Dan. 4:14 (H 4.11)
He called out loud and he said this,
'Cut down the tree and cut off its branches!
Strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit!
Let the animals flee from beneath it,
and the birds from its branches.

Dan. 4:15 (H 4.12)
However, leave the stump of its roots
in the ground, even with a band

of iron and copper,
among the tender grass of the field.
And let it be wet with the dew of the skies.
And let his portion exist with the animals
among the grass of the earth.
Dan. 4:16 (H 4.13)
Let his heart be changed
from that of a mortal.
Let him be given the heart of an animal.
And let seven times pass over him.

Dan. 4:17 (H 4.14)
According to this
is the decree of the watchers,
even the word of the set apart ones.
The decision is to cause the living to know it is The Most High Who has mastery
in the realm of mortals
and He gives it to whomever He desires.
Even the lowliest of men
He causes to rise over it.'

Dan. 4:18 (H 4.15)
This is the dream I have seen,
I myself, the king, Nebukadnetzar.
And you yourself, Belteshazzar,
declare its interpretation,
because all the wise ones of my kingdom
are not able to cause to be known to me
the interpretation.
But you yourself are able,
you who have the breath
of The Set Apart El in you."

Dan. 4:19 (H 4.16)
Then Dani'el,
whose name was Belteshazzar,
was astonished in the same hour.
And his thoughts disturbed him.
The king was speaking and he said,
"Belteshazzar, do not let the dream
and its interpretation disturb you."

Belteshazzar responded.
And he said, "My master,
may the dream be for those hating you,
and its interpretation for your enemies!

Dan. 4:20 (H 4.17)
The tree you have seen
which became great and strong,
and its height reached to the skies
and it was visible to the whole earth,
Dan. 4:21 (H 4.18)
and its leaves were beautiful
and its fruit abundant,
and in it was food for all,
under it the animals of the field dwelt,
and on its branches
the birds of the skies were sitting;
Dan. 4:22 (H 4.19)
it is you yourself, the king.
It is you
who have become great and strong.
And your greatness has grown
and it has reached to the skies.
And your dominion
is to the end of the earth.

Dan. 4:23 (H 4.20)
"And as the king saw a Watcher,
even a set apart one,
descending from the skies,
and he said,

'Cut down the tree and destroy it,
but leave the stump of its roots
in the ground,
even with a band of iron and copper
among the tender grass of the field.
And let it be wet with the dew of the skies.
And let his portion exist
among the animals of the field
until seven times pass over him!';
Dan. 4:24 (H 4.21)
this is the interpretation for the king,
and this is the decree of The Most High
which has come upon my master the king.

Dan. 4:25 (H 4.22)
"Even you
are going to be driven away from mortals.
And your dwelling will exist
with the animals of the field.
And you will be given grass to eat like oxen.
And you will be wet
with the dew of the skies.
And seven times will pass over you
until you acknowledge
that The Most High is ruler
in the realm of the mortals,
and He gives it to whomever He desires.

Dan. 4:26 (H 4.23) And those who said
to leave the stump of its roots
which are of the tree,
your kingdom is assured to you after you acknowledge
the ruling of The Heavens.

Dan. 4:27 (H 4.24)
For this reason, king,
may my counsel be pleasing to you,
and renounce your offenses with integrity,
and your moral perversities
by showing favor to the afflicted.
It may be your prosperity will be extended."

Dan. 4:28 (H 4.25)
All this happened
to Nebukadnetzar, the king.

Dan. 4:29 (H 4.26)
At the end of the twelve months
he was walking within the palace
of the kingdom of Babel.

Dan. 4:30 (H 4.27)
The king spoke. And he said,
"Is not this itself Babel the great
which I myself have built as a house of the kingdom
with the power of my strength
and for the honor of my majesty?"

Dan. 4:31 (H 4.28)
The word was still in the mouth of the king.
A voice from The Heavens occurred.
"To you it is being spoken,
Nebukadnetzar, the king!
The kingdom has been removed from you!

Dan. 4:32 (H 4.29)
And from the mortals
you are being driven away!
And with the animals of the field
is your dwelling.
The grass, as for the oxen, is your food.
And seven times will pass over you
until you acknowledge

that The Most High is ruler
in the realm of mortals
and He gives it to whomever He desires.”

Dan. 4:33 (H 4.30)
In that very hour the word was fulfilled
concerning Nebukadnetzar.
And he was driven from the mortals.
And he ate the grass like oxen.
And his body was wet
with the dew of the skies
until when his hair
had grown like eagles' feathers
and his nails like birds' claws.

Dan. 4:34 (H 4.31)
And at the end of the days
I myself, Nebukadnetzar,
lifted my eyes to the skies.
And my reason returned to me.
I blessed The Most High,
and to Him Who lives to eternity
I offered praise.
And I exalted Him Whose dominion
is an everlasting dominion.
and Whose kingdom
is from generation to generation.

Dan. 4:35 (H 4.32)
And all those dwelling in the earth
are as of no account.
And according to His desire He does
with the assembly of the skies
and those dwelling in the earth.
And there is none
who can strike with his hand
or say to Him, “What have You done?”

Dan. 4:36 (H 4.33)
At that very time
my reasoning returned to me.
And for the glory of my kingdom
my majesty and splendor
were returned to me.
And my counselors and nobles
sought me out.
And I was established over my kingdom.
And exceeding majesty was added to me.

Dan. 4:37 (H 4.34)
Now I myself, Nebukadnetzar, am praising, and exalting, and honoring
The King of The Heavens!
Indeed, all His actions are faithful and His ways are just!
And those walking with arrogance
He is able to humble.

Chapter 5

Dan. 5:1 Belshazzar the king
made a great feast
for a thousand of his nobles.
And he was drinking
in front of the thousand.
Dan. 5:2 At the taste of the wine Belshazzar said to bring gold and silver vessels
which his father, Nebukadnetzar, had brought out from The Temple
which was at Yerushalaim
And the king and his nobles, his wives,
and his concubines drank from them.

Dan. 5:3 At that time they caused

the gold vessels to come
which had been brought out from The Temple
of The House of YAHWEH
which was at Yerushalaim.
And the king and his nobles, his wives,
and his concubines drank out of them.

Dan. 5:4 They drank the wine and they gave praise to the gods
of the gold,
and the silver,
the copper,
the iron,
the wood,
and the stone.

Dan. 5:5 In that very hour
the fingers of a hand of a mortal came forth
and they wrote in front of the lampstand
upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace.
And the king was watching
the part of the hand that was writing.

Dan. 5:6 Then the king's countenance changed.
And his thoughts disturbed him.
And the joints of his hips loosened themselves
and his knees struck against each other.

Dan. 5:7 The king called with loudness
for the sake of causing the astrologers,
the Chaldeans, and the diviners to come in.
The king spoke.
And he said to the wise ones of Babel,
"Whichever mortal reads this writing and declares to me its interpretation
will be clothed with purple
and will have a chain of gold upon his neck.
And he will be the third,
ruling in the kingdom."

Dan. 5:8 Then all the king's wise ones
were entering.
But they were not able to read the writing
or to make known its interpretation
to the king.

Dan. 5:9 Then Belshazzar the king
was exceedingly disturbed.
And his countenance
was changing on account of it.
And his nobles were astonished.

Dan. 5:10 The queen,
because of the words
of the king and his nobles,
came to the banquet house.
She spoke.
And she said,
"May the king live to eternity!
Do not let your thoughts disturb you
nor let your countenance be changed.
Dan. 5:11 There is a man in your kingdom
in whom is the breath
of the set apart gods.
In the days of your father,
illumination,
and understanding,
and wisdom,
like the wisdom of the gods,
were found in him.

And the king, Nebukadnetzar, your father,
your father the king,
established him as master of the sorcerers,
astrologers, Chaldeans, and diviners
Dan. 5:12 because an excellent nature,
and knowledge,
and understanding,
and interpreting dreams,
and explaining of puzzles,
and solving of difficult problems
had been found with him, in Dani'el,
for whom the king
established his name as Belteshazzar.
Now let Dani'el be called.
And let him declare the interpretation."

Dan. 5:13 At that time
Dani'el was brought in before the king.
The king spoke.
And he said to Dani'el,
"Are you yourself the Dani'el
who is from the children of the captivity from Yahudah
whom my father the king
caused to come from Yahudah?
Dan. 5:14 Even I have heard concerning you that the breath of the gods is in you,
and illumination, and understanding,
and exceeding wisdom
have been found in you.

Dan. 5:15 And now, the wise ones,
the astrologers,
have been brought in before me
who were to read this writing
and to make known to me its interpretation.
But they are not able to declare the interpretation of the matter.

Dan. 5:16 And I myself
have heard concerning you that you are able to give interpretations
and to solve difficult problems.

Now if you are able to read the writing and make known its interpretation to me
you will be clothed in purple
and a chain of gold will be upon your neck
and you will be the third one
ruling in the kingdom."

Dan. 5:17 At that time Dani'el responded.
And he said before the king,
"Let your gifts be for yourself
and give your rewards to another.
However, I will read the writing to the king and I will make known
the interpretation to him.

Dan. 5:18 You yourself, king,
The Most High El
gave to Nebukadnetzar, your father,
a kingdom,
and majesty,
and glory,
and honor.

Dan. 5:19 And because of the majesty which He gave to him
all the peoples,
the nations,
and the languages
were trembling and frightened before him.
Whom he desired he was killing.

And whom he desired he was keeping alive.
And whom he desired he was raising up.
And whom he desired he was humbling.

Dan. 5:20 But when his heart was lifted up and his nature was obstinate
for the sake of acting proudly
he was deposed
from the throne of his kingdom
and the glory was removed from him.

Dan. 5:21 And he was driven away
from the children of mortals.
And his heart was made like the animals.
And his dwelling was with the wild asses.
He fed like the oxen upon the grass.
And his body was wet
with the dew of the skies
until he acknowledged that
The Most High El
is ruling in the realm of mortals,
and whomever He desires
He establishes over it.

Dan. 5:22 But you yourself,
his son, Belshazzar,
have not humbled your heart
although you have known all of this.

Dan. 5:23 Even against The Master of The Heavens
you have exalted yourself.
And the vessels which are of His House
you have caused to come before you.
And you yourself, and your nobles,
your wives and your concubines,
have been drinking the wine with them.
And to the gods of silver, and of gold,
of copper, of iron, of wood, and of stone,
which are not seeing, and not hearing,
and not knowing you have given praise.

But YAHWEH,
Who has your breath in His hand
and all your ways,
to Him you have not given honor!

Dan. 5:24 At that time, from before Him,
the part of the hand was sent!
And this writing was inscribed.

Dan. 5:25 And this is the writing
that was inscribed:
MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

Dan. 5:26 This is
the interpretation of the matter:
MENE -

YAHWEH has numbered your kingdom
and He has caused it to be completed.

Dan. 5:27 TEKEL -

You have been weighed in the balances
and you have been found lacking.

Dan. 5:28 PERES -

Your kingdom has been divided and it has been given to the Medes and Persians.”

Dan. 5:29 At that time Belshazzar spoke.
And they clothed Dani’el in the purple.
And a chain of gold was upon his neck.
And they proclaimed concerning him
that he is the third ruling in the kingdom.

Dan. 5:30 In that very night Belshazzar,

king of the Chaldeans, was killed.

Once again the chapter breaks differ.
Chapter 6 begins here in the Hebrew text.

Dan. 5:31 (H 6.1)

And Darius, the Mede, accepted the kingdom,
at the age of sixty two years.

Chapter 6

Dan. 6:1 (H 6.2)

It was pleasing to Darius.
And he stationed over the kingdom
one hundred and twenty governors
who were in the whole kingdom.

Dan. 6:2 (H 6.3)

And among these were three chief officials,
of whom Dani'el was first.
These governors
were to give an account to them.
And no loss was to exist for the king.

Dan. 6:3 (H 6.4)

Then this Dani'el was distinguishing himself
above the chief officials and the governors
because an excellent nature was in him.
And the king was considering it for the sake of establishing him
over the entire kingdom.

Dan. 6:4 (H 6.5)

Then the chief officials and the governors
were seeking to find against Dani'el
something concerning the kingdom.
But they were unable to find a basis or a fault
because he was being faithful and no negligence or fault
was found concerning him.

Dan. 6:5 (H 6.6)

Then these men said,
"We will not find any basis
against this Dani'el
unless we find it against him
concerning The Torah of his El."

Dan. 6:6 (H 6.7)

Then the chief officials and the governors
assembled in tumult before the king.
And according to this they spoke to him,
"May Darius the king live to eternity!

Dan. 6:7 (H 6.8)

All these chief officials of the kingdom,
the governors, and princes,
the counselors and the captains,
have consulted together
for the sake of establishing a royal decree,
and for the sake
of strengthening an injunction
that anyone who makes a request
from any god or mortal until thirty days,
except from you, the king,
will have himself thrown
into a den of the lions.

Dan. 6:8 (H 6.9)

Now, king, establish the injunction and inscribe the writing
which is not to be changed
according to the law
of the Medes and Persians,
which may not be altered."

Dan. 6:9 (H 6.10)

According to this therefore

King Darius inscribed the written injunction.

Dan. 6:10 (H 6.11)

And Dani'el, when he knew
the writing had been inscribed,
went to his house.
And the windows
having been opened for him,
he went in to them, opposite Yerushalaim.
And three times in the day he did this,
kneeling upon his knees.
And he was praying
and giving thanks before The El according to how he had done
from times before this.

The Aramaic is not entirely clear in this verse.
Traditional translations
insert "upper room",
but this is not in the text.
What's given above
is a reasonable sense of the text.

Dan. 6:11 (H 6.12)

Then these men assembled in tumult.
And they found him as Dani'el was praying
and requesting favor before The El.

Dan. 6:12 (H 6.13)

At that time they approached.
And they spoke before the king
concerning injunction of the king.
"Have you not inscribed an injunction that any mortal who makes a request
from any el or mortal until thirty days,
except from you, the king,
is to have himself thrown
into a den of the lions?"

The king was responding.
And he was saying, "The word is certain
according to the law
of the Medes and Persians,
which may not be altered."

Dan. 6:13 (H 6.14)

At that time they responded.
And they said before the king,
"Dani'el, who is from the children
of the captivity of Yahudah,
has no regard concerning you, the king,
nor concerning the injunction
which you have inscribed.
And three times in the day
he is making his request."

Dan. 6:14 (H 6.15)

Then the king,
according to the words he had heard,
was greatly distressed with himself.
And he set his heart upon Dani'el
for the sake of causing him to be delivered.
And until the going down of the sun
he was exerting himself
for the sake of causing him to be delivered.

Dan. 6:15 (H 6.16)

At that time these men assembled in tumult before the king.
And they said to the king,
"Know, king, that it is the law
of the Medes and Persians
that any injunction or decree which the king establishes

is not to be altered.”

Dan. 6:16 (H 6.17)

At that time the king spoke.
And they brought Dani’el.
And they threw him into a den of the lions.

The king responded.
And he said to Dani’el,
“Your El Whom you yourself
are serving continually,
He Himself will deliver you.”

Dan. 6:17 (H 6.18)

And one stone was brought.
And it was placed upon
the mouth of the den.
And the king sealed it with his own signet
and with the signets of his nobles
in order that the matter concerning Dani’el might not be altered.

Dan. 6:18 (H 6.19)

Then the king went to his palace.
And he spent the night fasting.
And no entertainment
was brought before him.
And his sleep fled from upon him.

Dan. 6:19 (H 6.20)

At that time the king rose up,
at the dawn.

And with haste
he went to the den of the lions.

Dan. 6:20 (H 6.21)

And as he was approaching the den
he cried out to Dani’el with a troubled voice.
The king spoke.

And he said to Dani’el, “Dani’el, servant of The Living El,
has your El,
Whom you yourself serve continually,
been able to deliver you from the lions?”

Dan. 6:21 (H 6.22)

Then Dani’el spoke to the king,
“May the king live to eternity!!

Dan. 6:22 (H 6.23)

My El has sent His messenger
and He has shut the mouths of the lions.
And they have not damaged me
because I was found innocent before Him.
And also before you, the king,
I have done no hurtful thing.”

Dan. 6:23 (H 6.24)

At that time the king
was exceedingly happy concerning him.
And he commanded for Dani’el
to be brought up out of the den.
And Dani’el was brought up from the den.
And nothing hurtful was found on him
who had trusted in his El.

Dan. 6:24 (H 6.25)

And the king commanded.
And they brought those men who had obstinately accused Dani’el.
And they threw them
into the den of the lions
with their children and their wives.
And they did not reach
the bottom of the den
until the lions had power against them.

And all their bones were crushed.

Dan. 6:25 (H 6.26)

At that time Darius the king wrote
to all the peoples, the nations,
and the languages
that were dwelling in the whole earth:
"Shalom be increased to you!

Dan. 6:26 (H 6.27)

From before me a decree is made that in every dominion of my kingdom
men are to be trembling and fearing before The El which is Dani'el's

Indeed, He Himself is The Living El!
And He is faithful to eternity!
And His kingdom is one
which can not be destroyed!
And His dominion is until the end.

Dan. 6:27 (H 6.28)

He is The One delivering!
And He is The One rescuing!
And He is The One
doing signs and wonders
in the skies and on earth!
Indeed, He has delivered Dani'el
from the hand of the lions!"

Dan. 6:28 (H 6.29)

And this Dani'el prospered
in the kingdom of Darius
and in the kingdom of Cyrus, the Persian.

Chapter 7

Dan. 7:1 In the first year of Belshazzar,
king of Babel,
Dani'el had a dream
and visions of his head upon his bed.
At the time of his dream he wrote a summary of the matter he was told.

Dan. 7:2 Dani'el responded. And he said,
"I was observing in my vision in the night.
And behold!
The four winds of the skies were churning against The Great Sea.

Dan. 7:3 And four huge living creatures
were coming up out of the sea,
being different from one another.

Dan. 7:4 The first was like a lion.
And it had the wings of an eagle.
I observed until when its wings
had been pulled off.
And it was lifted up from the earth.
And it was caused to stand
on two feet like a mortal.
And a mortal's heart was given to it.

Dan. 7:5 And behold!
Another living creature, a second,
being like a bear.
And it was raised up toward one side.
And three ribs were in its mouth,
between its teeth.
They according to this were saying to it,
'Get up!
Devour much flesh!'

Dan. 7:6 After this I was observing.
And behold!
Another, like a leopard.

And it had four wings of a bird upon its back.
And the living creature had four heads.
And dominion was given to it.

Dan. 7:7 After this
I was observing in the night visions.
And behold!
A fourth living creature,
terrifying and exceedingly powerful.
And it had great teeth of iron.
It was devouring and crushing.
And it was trampling what remained with its feet.
And it was different from all the living creatures
that were before it.
And it had ten horns.

Dan. 7:8 I was contemplating concerning the horns.
And behold!
Another little horn
was coming up among them.
And three of the first horns
were uprooted from before it.
And behold!
Eyes like the eyes of the mortal
were in this very horn
and a mouth speaking great things.

Dan. 7:9 I was observing
until thrones were set.
And The Ancient of Days was seated.
His garment was white as snow.
And the hair of His head was like pure wool.
His throne was flames of fire.
Its wheels were burning fire.
Dan. 7:10 A river of fire was flowing and going forth before Him.
And thousands of thousands ministered to Him.
And myriads of myriads stood before Him.

The Judge was seated.
And books were opened.

Dan. 7:11 I was observing at that time
because of the sound of the great things which the horn was speaking.
I was observing
until the living creature was killed.
And its body was caused to perish.
And it was given to the burning fire.

Dan. 7:12 And the rest of the living creatures
had their dominion removed.
But a lengthening in life
was granted to them
until a time, even a set time.

Dan. 7:13 I was observing in the night visions.
And behold!
One like the child of a mortal
was coming in the clouds of the skies,
even to the Ancient of Days.
And they brought Him near before Him.

Dan. 7:14 And to Him was given dominion
and honor and a kingdom.
And all the peoples, the nations,
and the languages will serve Him.
His dominion is an eternal dominion

which will not pass away.
And His kingdom is one
which will not be destroyed.

Dan. 7:15 My breath was agitated,
I myself, Dani'el, within my body.
And the visions of my head disturbed me.
Dan. 7:16 I approached toward one of those standing by.
And I asked him of the certainty concerning all of this.
And he spoke to me.
And he caused me to know
the interpretation of the matters.

Dan. 7:17 'These huge living creatures,
which are four, are four kings
which will rise up from the earth.
Dan. 7:18 And the set apart ones
of The Most High will receive the kingdom.
And they will possess the kingdom
until eternity,
even to eternity after eternity.'

Dan. 7:19 "Then I longed for certainty concerning the fourth living creature
which was being different from all of them,
exceedingly terrifying,
with its teeth of iron and its nails of copper,
(It was devouring, crushing,
and trampling the rest with its feet.)
Dan. 7:20 and concerning the ten horns
that were on its head,
and the other one which came up
and three fell before it,
even this horn which had eyes
and a mouth
which was speaking great things,
and its appearance was greater than his companions.

Dan. 7:21 I was observing.
And this very horn was making war against the set apart ones.
And it was prevailing against them
Dan. 7:22 until when
The Ancient of Days came.

And judgment was given to the set apart ones of The Most High.
And the time arrived.
And the set apart ones
took possession of the kingdom.

Dan. 7:23 According to this he spoke,
'The fourth living creature
is the fourth kingdom to exist on the earth.
Indeed, it is different from all the kingdoms.
And it will devour the entire earth.
And it will trample it.
And it will crush it.

Dan. 7:24 And the ten horns
are ten kings from this kingdom.
They will rise up.
And another will rise up after them.
And he will be different from the first ones.
And he will subdue three kings.
Dan. 7:25 And he will speak things against The Most High.
And he will wear down
the set apart ones of The Most High.
And he will attempt to alter
appointed times and law.

And they will be given into its hand
until a time and times and half a time.

Dan. 7:26 But the court will sit.
And they will cause his dominion to be removed
for the sake of destroying it until the end.

Dan. 7:27 And the kingdom,
and the dominion,
and the majesty of kingdoms
under all the skies
has been granted to the people,
the set apart ones of The Most High.
His kingdom is an eternal kingdom.
And all dominions will serve Him
and listen attentively to Him.

Dan. 7:28 Until this is the end of the matter.'

I myself, Dani'el,
my thoughts exceedingly troubled me
and my countenance was altered within me.
And I kept the matter in my heart."

Chapter 8

Dan. 8:1 In the third year of the reign
of Belshazzar, the king,
a vision was shown to me myself, Dani'el,
after that one shown to me the first time.

Dan. 8:2 And I observed in the vision.
And it existed as I was observing.
And I was in the capital of Shushan
which is in the province of Elam.
And I observed in the vision.
And I myself was beside the River Ulai.

Dan. 8:3 And I lifted my eyes.
And I looked.
And behold!
One ram was standing before the river.
And it had two horns.
And the two horns were tall.
And the one was taller than the other.
And the taller one rose up at the last.

Dan. 8:4 I saw the ram itself תא
pushing westward,
and northward, and southward.
And none of the animals
could stand before him.
And no one was causing deliverance from his hand.
And he did according to his desire.
And he became great.

Dan. 8:5 And I myself was considering this.
And behold!
A male goat of the goats
was coming from the west
above the surface of the whole earth.
And it was not touching on the ground.
And the male goat had a horn,
striking in appearance,
between his eyes.

Dan. 8:6 And he came to the ram,
the possessor of two horns,
which I had seen standing before the river.
And he ran at him
in the wrath of his strength.

Dan. 8:7 And I saw him arriving at the ram.
And he embittered himself against him.

And he struck the ram itself תא.
And he shattered his two horns themselves תא.
And there was no strength in the ram
to stand before his face.
And he threw him to the ground.
And he trampled him.
And there was no one delivering the ram from his hand.

Dan. 8:8 And the male goat of the goats
became exceedingly great.
But when he was mighty
the large horn was shattered.
And there rose up four,
striking in appearance, in its place
toward the four winds of the skies.

Dan. 8:9 And from the one from them
came forth a little horn,
from one being small.
And it became exceedingly great
toward the south,
and toward the east,
and toward the Beautiful Land.

Dan. 8:10 And it became great,
as far as the assembly of the skies.
And it caused some of the assembly
and some of the stars to fall to the earth.
And it trampled them.

Dan. 8:11 Even unto the leader of the assembly
it was caused to be exalted.
And by him who was caused to be exalted
the daily sacrifice was removed.
And it threw down the foundation
of His Set Apart Place.

Dan. 8:12 And an assembly
was granted to the horn
against the continual sacrifice
on account of rebellion.
And it threw truth down to the ground.
And it acted.
And it prospered.

Dan. 8:13 Then I listened attentively
to one set apart one who was speaking.
And the one peaking
was saying to a certain set apart one, “Until when is the vision of the continual sacrifice
and the desolating rebellion granted,
even the trampling
of the sanctuary and the assembly?”

Dan. 8:14 And he said to me,
“Until two thousand three hundred evenings of days.
Then that which is set apart will be justified.”

Dan. 8:15 And it was as I was observing,
I myself, Dani’el, the vision itself תא.
And I sought understanding.
And behold!
Standing in front of me was one with the appearance of a man.

Dan. 8:16 And I heard a voice
of a human being
between the banks of Ulai.
And he called.
And he said, “Gabri’el,

cause this man to understand
the vision itself nx.”

Gabri'el means mighty one of El.

8:17 And he came beside where I was stationed.
And as he came I was frightened.
And I fell upon my face.
And he said to me,
“Understand, son of a human being!
Indeed, the vision is at the time of the end.”

Dan. 8:18 And as he was speaking with me
I fell asleep upon my face on the ground.
And he touched on me.
And caused me to stand up, upright.
Dan. 8:19 And he said,
“Behold!
I am causing you to know
what itself nx will exist at the last,
the intense anger,
assuredly at the appointed time of the end.

Dan. 8:20 The ram which you saw,
possessor of the two horns;
the horns are the kings of Media and Persia.

Dan. 8:21 And the hairy male goat
is the king of Javan.
And the great horn between its eyes,
he is the first king.

Javan is Greece.

Javan is a son of Yapheth.

Dan. 8:22 And the shattering,
and the rising up of four in its place;
there will be four kingdoms
rising up out of that nation,
but not with its strength.

Dan. 8:23 And at the end of their kingdoms,
when those rebelling
are caused to be finished,
a king, fierce of face
and understanding riddles will stand up.
Dan. 8:24 And his strength will be mighty,
but not by his own strength.
And he will be extraordinary,
causing destruction.
And he will prosper.
And he will act.
And he will cause mighty ones
to be destroyed,
even the set apart people.

Dan. 8:25 And on account of his insight
he will even cause deceit
to prosper in his hand.
And he will magnify himself in his heart.
And with prosperity
he will cause many to be destroyed.

And even against the Prince of princes
he will stand up.

But without a hand he will be broken.

Dan. 8:26 And the vision of the evenings and mornings
which has been told, it is certain!
But you yourself nx, conceal the vision!
Indeed, it is for many days.”

Dan. 8:27 Then I myself, Dani'el, existed even sick for days.
Then I got up.

And I did the king's business itself נא.
But I was astonished
on account of the vision.
And there was no comprehending.

Chapter 9

Dan. 9:1 In the first year of Darius, son of Ahasuerus
from the seed of the Medes,
who was caused to be king
over the kingdom of the Chaldeans,
Dan. 9:2 in the first year of his reigning
I myself, Dani'el, understood by the scrolls
a number of the years which existed
in the word of YAHWEH
to Yirmyah, the prophet,
for the fulfilling
of the desolations of Yerushalaim,
seventy years.

Dan. 9:3 And I set my face itself נא toward YAHWEH, The Elohim,
for the sake of seeking
with prayer and requests for favor,
with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes.

Dan. 9:4 And I prayed
to YAHWEH, my Elohim.
And I made confession.
And I said, "Alas, YAHWEH,
The great and The awesome El,
The One protecting The Covenant
and the kindness to those loving Him,
and to those protecting His directives!
Dan. 9:5 We have offended.
And we have done wrong.
And we have rebelled, even turning aside from Your directives
and from Your judgments.

Dan. 9:6 And we have not listened attentively
to Your servants, the prophets,
who have spoken in Your Name
to our kings,
our leaders,
and our fathers,
and to all the people of the land.

Dan. 9:7 To You, YAHWEH, belongs the justice.
But to us belongs shame of the faces
as it is this day,
to the men of Yahudah,
to those dwelling in Yerushalaim,
and to all Yisra'el,
those near and those far off
in all the lands where You have driven them
on account of their unfaithful acts with which they have acted unfaithfully
against You.

Dan. 9:8 YAHWEH, to us belongs
shame of the faces,
to our kings,
to our leaders,
and to our fathers,
because we have offended against You.

Dan. 9:9 To YAHWEH, our Elohim, belong the compassions and forgivenesses
because we have rebelled against Him.
Dan. 9:10 And we have not listened attentively according to the voice of YAHWEH, our Elohim,

for the sake of walking in His instructions
which He has set before our faces
by the hand of His servants, the prophets.

There are several references in these verses pertaining to what is commonly called "Torah" or "Law".

It's very important to understand that this word means instruction, teaching.

It does not mean 'law',
even though that is what tradition has taught us.

To fully appreciate the significance of this
it's important to understand
that there is not one "commandment"
given by YAHWEH to human beings.

A command requires action.
Instruction, on the other hand, offers a choice
- to do, or not to do.
This foundational principle is the essence of one's relationship with YAHWEH.

He will NEVER compel you to do what He desires.
He wants you to choose to serve Him
because you WANT to serve Him.

Dan. 9:11 And all of Yisra'el
have passed over Your Instruction itself נח, even turning aside for the sake
of not listening attentively to Your voice.

And the curse and the oath
which has been written in the instruction of Moshe,
servant of YAHWEH,
have been poured out upon us
because we have offended against Him.

Dan. 9:12 And He has caused His words themselves נח to stand which have been spoken concerning us
and concerning those judging us who have judged us
by bringing upon us a great evil,
that which has not been done
beneath all the skies,
according to what has been done
concerning Yerushalaim.

Dan. 9:13 According to what has been written
in The Torah of Moshe,
all this harm itself נח has come upon us.
Yet we have not sought favor of the face itself נח
of YAHWEH, our Elohim,
for the sake of turning back
from our moral perversities,
and for the sake of intelligence
concerning Your truth.

Dan. 9:14 And YAHWEH
has watched over the evil.
And He has caused it to come upon us.

Indeed, YAHWEH, our Elohim, is just concerning all the actions
which He has done!
But we have not listened attentively
to His voice.

Dan. 9:15 And now, YAHWEH, our Elohim,
You Who have caused
Your people themselves נח
to come out from the land of Mitsraim
with a strong hand

and have made for Yourself a Name,
as it is this day,
we have offended!
We have done wrong!

Dan. 9:16 YAHWEH,
according to all Your justice,
turn back, now, Your anger and Your wrath
from Your city, Yerushalaim,
Your set apart mountain.
Indeed, on account of our offenses,
and on account of of the moral perversities
of our fathers,
Yerushalaim and Your people are as a derision
to all those surrounding us.

Dan. 9:17 And now,
listen attentively, our Elohim,
to the prayer of Your servant
and to his requests for favor.
And cause Your face to shine upon Your Set Apart Place, the desolation,
for the sake of YAHWEH!

Dan. 9:18 My Elohim, incline Your ear,
and listen attentively!
Open Your eyes!
And look at our desolations,
even the city which is called by Your Name.

Indeed, not on account of our justness
do we cause our requests for favor
to fall before You,
but rather on account
of Your great compassions.

Dan. 9:19 YAHWEH, listen attentively!
YAHWEH, forgive!
YAHWEH, pay attention and act!
Do not delay for Your own sake, my E!
Indeed, Your city and Your people are called by Your Name!"

Dan. 9:20 And I myself was still speaking,
and praying, and confessing my defilement
and the defilement of my people, Yisra'el,
and causing my request for favor
to fall before the face YAHWEH, my Elohim, concerning the set apart mountain
of my Elohim,

Dan. 9:21 even I myself
was still speaking in prayer.
And the man, Gabri'el, whom I had seen
in the vision at the beginning,
was approaching me in swift flight,
at the time of the evening offering.

Dan. 9:22 And he caused me to understand.
And he spoke with me.
And he said,
"Dani'el, I have now come forth
for the sake of causing you to be wise with understanding.

Dan. 9:23 At the beginning of your requests for favor
a word went forth.
And I myself have come
for the sake of declaring it
because you yourself nx are delightful.
And understand concerning the word.
And understand concerning the vision.

Dan. 9:24 Seventy weeks
have been decreed concerning your people
and concerning your set apart city,
for the sake of putting an end
to the rebellion,
and for the sake of putting an end
to the defilements,
and for the sake of making atonement
for moral perversity,
and for the sake of bringing in eternal justice,
and for the sake of sealing up vision and prophet,
and for the sake of anointing
The Most Set Apart.

Dan. 9:25 And know and understand.
From the going forth of the word
for the sake of causing the restoration and the building of Yerushalaim
until an anointed leader
will be seven weeks and sixty two weeks.
It will be restored.
And it will be built
with a broad place and a moat,
but in the distress of the times.

mashiach nagid - means literally
anointed + leader.
This is traditionally translated
as "Messiah The Prince".

But within Hebrew culture
a person with this designation
has simply meant an anointed leader,
which in and of itself
carries great weight within the culture.

All of Scripture points to such a one
as The One Who will eventually deliver Yisra'el
from all its troubles.
Because of this it's easy to see why so many "interpret" this (not translate it) to be "The Messiah".

One needs to be very careful with taking such liberties.

Dan. 9:26 And after the sixty two weeks
the anointed one will be cut off.
And he will have no one.

And the people of the coming leader
he will cause to destroy the city and The Set Apart Place.
And the end of him will be in a flood.
And until the final end
desolations of war have been determined.

Dan. 9:27 And he will cause a covenant
to prevail for many for one week.
But in the middle of the week
he will cause to cease
sacrifice and meal offering.
And on account of overspreading abominations
he will be laying waste,
even until the very end.

Then that which has been determined will be poured out on the one laying waste."

Chapter 10

Dan. 10:1 In the third year
of Cyrus, king of Persia,
a word was revealed to Dani'el,
whose name was called Belteshazzar.
And the word was true.
And the assembly was great.
And he understood the word itself תא.
And he had understanding concerning the vision.

Dan. 10:2 In those days I myself, Dani'el,
had been mourning three weeks of days.
Dan. 10:3 Desirable food I did not eat and meat and wine
did not come to my mouth.
And I did not anoint myself at all until three weeks of days were completed.

Dan. 10:4 And on the twenty fourth day
of the first month,
I myself was on the side of the great river,
that is Hiddekel (Tigris).

Dan. 10:5 And I lifted up
my eyes themselves תא.
And I looked.
And behold!
A certain man clothed in linen.
And his loins had been girded
with pure gold of Uphaz!
Dan. 10:6 And his body was like beryl.
And his face was like
the appearance of lightning.
And his eyes were like torches of fire.
And his arms and feet
were like polished copper in appearance.
And the sound of his words
was like the sound of a multitude.

Dan. 10:7 And I myself, Dani'el,
as I was alone,
saw the vision itself תא.
But the men who were with me
did not see the vision itself תא.
Truly, a great trembling fell upon them.
And they ran away into hiding.

Dan. 10:8 And I myself
had been left alone, by myself.
And I saw this great vision itself תא.
And no strength remained in me.
And my vigor was changed within me
to corruption.
And I retained no strength.

Dan. 10:9 Then I heard
the sound itself תא of his words.
And as I listened attentively
to the sound itself תא of his words
then I myself was sleeping upon my face.
And my face was toward the ground.

Dan. 10:10 And behold!
A hand touched on me.
And it caused me to tremble
upon my knees and the palms of my hands.

Dan. 10:11 And he said to me,
"Dani'el, man desirable,
understand concerning the words
I am speaking to you.
And stand up, upright,
because I have now been sent to you."

And as he was speaking with me
this word itself נא I stood trembling.

Dan. 10:12 And he said to me,
"Do not be afraid, Dani'el!
Indeed, from the first day
in which you set your heart itself נא
for the sake of understanding,
and for the sake of humbling yourself
before the face of your Elohim
your words have been heard.
And I myself have come
on account of your words.

Dan. 10:13 But the leader of the kingdom of Persia
was standing in front of me twenty one days.
And behold!
Mikha'el, one of the foremost leaders,
came to help me.
And I myself had been left there
beside the kings of Persia.
Mikha'el means who is like El.

Dan. 10:14 And I have come for the sake of causing you to understand what itself נא will happen to your people
in the last days.
Indeed, the vision is yet for days to come."

Dan. 10:15 And as he was speaking with me
according to these words
I put my face toward the ground.
And I was silent.

Dan. 10:16 And behold!
One like the likeness
of the children of a human being touched upon my lips.
And I opened my mouth.
And I spoke.
And I said to the one standing in front of me,
"My master, on account of the vision
I have been churned.
Pains are within me
and I have retained no strength.
Dan. 10:17 And how is this servant of my master
able to speak with my master,
even I myself, at this time?
No strength remains in me,
and no breath is left in me."

Dan. 10:18 And he continued.
And the one
with an appearance of a human being touched on me.
And he strengthened me.
Dan. 10:19 And he said,
"Do not be afraid, desirable man!
Shalom to you!
Be strong! Even be strong!"
And as he was speaking to me
I was strengthened.
And I said, "Let my master speak.
Indeed, you have strengthened me."

Dan. 10:20 And he said,
"Have you comprehended
why I have come to you?
But now I am returning
for the sake of fighting
with the leader of Persia.
And I myself am going forth.
And behold!

The head of Yavan (Greece) has come.

Dan. 10:21 However, I will cause to be declared to you that itself nx which has been inscribed
in the writing of Truth.
And there is no one strengthening himself with me
against these except Mikha'el, your leader."

Chapter 11

Dan. 11:1 "And I myself,
in the first year of Darius the Mede,
was standing up for the sake
of strengthening and defending him.

Dan. 11:2 "And now
I will declare the truth to you.
Behold!
Three more kings are rising up for Persia.
And the fourth will be far more rich than they.
And with his power with his riches
he will stir up everyone
of the kingdom itself nx of Greece.

Dan. 11:3 And a mighty king will rise up.
And he will rule with great authority.
And he will do according to his desire.
Dan. 11:4 But when he has risen up his kingdom will then be divided
to the four winds of the skies,
but not to his descendants,
nor according to his authority
with which he has ruled.
Indeed, his kingdom will be uprooted,
even for others apart from these.

Dan. 11:5 And a king of the south
will become strong.
And from his leaders
one will become strong above him.
And he will rule with great authority.

Dan. 11:6 And at the end of years
they will join themselves together.
And a daughter of the king of the South
will come to the king of the North
for the sake of making an alliance.
But she will not retain
the strength of her arm,
nor will he stand nor his arm.
And she will be given up,
she and those bringing her,
even those bringing her forth
and those strengthening her in these times.

Dan. 11:7 But from a sprout of her roots
one will rise up to his place.
And he will come against the forces.
And he will enter into a stronghold
of the king of the North.
And he will act against them.
And he will prevail.

Dan. 11:8 And also their gods,
with their libations,
with their precious utensils
of silver and gold,
like captives, he will bring to Mitsraim.
And he will stand more years
than the king of the North.
Dan. 11:9 Then he will go into the kingdom
of the king of the South.
But he will return to his own soil.

Dan. 11:10 And his sons
will stir themselves up.
And they will assemble a multitude of forces.
And he will certainly come.
And he will overwhelm.
And he will pass over.
And he will return,
even stirring himself up,
to his own fortress.

Dan. 11:11 Then the king of the South
will be embittered.
And he will go forth.
And he will fight with him,
with the king of the North.
And he will cause
a great multitude to stand up.
And the multitude
will be given into the his hand.

Dan. 11:12 And he will carry away
the multitude,
his heart having been exalted.
And he will cause tens of thousands to fall.
But he will not prevail.

Dan. 11:13 And the king of the North will return.
And he will cause to stand up
a multitude greater than the former.
And at the end of the time of years
he will come with a great force
and many supplies.
Dan. 11:14 And in those times
many will rise up against the king of the South.
And some violent ones of your people will exalt themselves
for the sake of establishing a vision.
But they will be overthrown.

Dan. 11:15 Then the king of the North will come.
And he will build a siege mound.
And he will capture a city of fortresses.
And the powers of the South will not stand,
nor his best people.
And there is no strength
for the sake of standing.

Dan. 11:16 And the one coming against him
will do according to his desire.
And none will be standing before his face.

And he will stand in The Beautiful Land
And annihilation will be in his hand.
Dan. 11:17 And he will establish his face
for the sake of entering
with the power of his entire kingdom,
even with upright ones with him.
And he will act.
And he will give to him the daughter as wife
for the sake of destroying her.
But she will not stand nor exist as his.

Dan. 11:18 Then he will turn back his face
to the coastlands and he will capture many.
But a commander will cause
his disgrace against him to cease.
With the failure of his disgrace
he will turn back against him.

Dan. 11:19 Then he will turn back his face
toward the strongholds of his own land.
But he will be tripped up.
And he will fall.

And he will not be found.

Dan. 11:20 And one will stand up in his place
who will be one imposing taxes
for the glory of the kingdom.
But within a few days he will be broken,
but not in anger, and not in battle.

Dan. 11:21 And one being despised will stand up in his place.
But they will not give to him
the majesty of the kingdom.
But he will come with quietness
and he will seize the kingdom with flatteries.

Dan. 11:22 And the powers of the flood will be overflowing from before his face.
And they will be broken,
even a leader of a covenant.

Dan. 11:23 And after they have joined themselves to him
he will act with deceit.
And he will come up.
And he will become strong with a few people.

Dan. 11:24 He will enter with quietness
even into fattest places of the province.
And he will do
what his fathers have not done,
nor his father's fathers.
He will distribute to them
plunder and spoil and goods.
And against strongholds
he will devise his plans,
even for a time.

Dan. 11:25 And he will stir up his power and his heart
against the king of the South
with a great force.
And the king of the South
will stir himself up for the sake of battle
with a very great and mighty force.
But he will not stand
because they will devise plans against him.

Dan. 11:26 And those eating
a portion of his spoils will break him.
And his force will be overthrown.
And many will fall down killed.

Dan. 11:27 And the hearts
of both these kings are evil.
And they speak lies at the same table.
But they will not prosper
because the end is still at an appointed time.

Dan. 11:28 And he will return to his land
with much property.
But his heart will be against
The Set Apart Covenant.
And he will act.
And he will return to his own land.

Dan. 11:29 At the appointed time
he will return.
And he will go into the south.
But it will not be like the former or the latter.

Dan. 11:30 And ships will come against him
from Kittim.
And he will be disheartened.
And he will turn back.
And he will be enraged

against The Set Apart Covenant.
And he will act.
And he will turn back.
And he will be discreet concerning those forsaking The Set Apart Covenant.

Dan. 11:31 And powers will rise up from him.
And they will defile The Set Apart Place,
The Refuge.
And they will remove the daily sacrifice.
And they will set up
the abomination that is desolating.

Dan. 11:32 And those doing wrong to The Covenant
he will cause to be defiled.

But the people who know their Elohim
will be caused to be strong.
And they will act.

Dan. 11:33 And the people with insight will cause many to understand.
But they will be toppled
by sword and by flame,
by captivity, and by plundering for days.
Dan. 11:34 And when they have been toppled
they will be helped with a little help.
But many will join them with hypocrisies.

Dan. 11:35 And some of those with insight will be caused to stumble
for the sake of a refining among them,
and for the sake of purifying,
and for the sake of spotlessness
until the time of the end.
Indeed, it is still for an appointed time.

Dan. 11:36 And the king will do
according to his desire.
And he will exalt himself.
And he will magnify himself
above every god.
Even against The El of gods
he will speak extraordinary things.
And he will prosper
until the indignation has been accomplished.

Indeed, what has been determined will be done!

Dan. 11:37 And he will have no regard concerning the gods of his fathers,
nor concerning the desire of women,
nor concerning any god.
Indeed, he will magnify himself
above them all!

Dan. 11:38 But to a god of fortresses,
upon his places he will give honor.
And to a god which his fathers
have not known,
he will give honor with gold and silver,
with precious stones and desirable things.

Dan. 11:39 And he will act against the strongest of strongholds
with a foreign god
which he will acknowledge.
He will increase its honor.
And he will cause it to rule among many.
And he will divide the soil at a price.

Dan. 11:40 But at the time of the end
the king of the South

will push himself against him.
And the king of the North
will whirl himself against him
with chariots, and with horsemen,
and with many ships.
And he will enter countries.
And will overthrow them.
And he will pass over.
Dan. 11:41 And he will enter into The Beautiful Land.
And many will be overthrown.
But these will escape from his hand,
Edom, and Mo'ab,
and the leader of the sons of Ammon.

Dan. 11:42 And he will send forth his hand against countries.
Even the land of Mitsraim
will not be a deliverance.

Dan. 11:43 And he will have dominion
with treasures of the gold and the silver,
and with all the desirable things of Mitsraim.
And Libya and Kush will be at his steps.

Dan. 11:44 But reports will disturb him
from the east and the north.
And he will go forth with great wrath
to annihilate
and to devote many to destruction.

Dan. 11:45 And he will establish the tents of his pavilion between the seas
at the glorious set apart mountain.
But he will come to his end.
And none will be helping him.

Chapter 12

Dan. 12:1 And at that time it will exist
that Mikha'el will stand up,
the great leader,
the one standing up
concerning the children of your people.
And there will be a time of distress
which has not existed
since there was a nation
until that very time.

And at that time your people
will be caused to escape,
all of those being found
having been written on the scroll.

Dan. 12:2 And many from those sleeping in the dust
will be caused to awaken,
these to eternal life,
and those to disgraces,
to eternal contempt.

Dan. 12:3 And those having insight will be caused to shine
like the brilliance of the expanse.
And those causing justification of the many,
like the stars, to eternity, even forever.

Dan. 12:4 But you yourself nx, Dani'el,
close up the words and seal the scroll
until the time of the end!

Many will wander to and fro.
And the knowledge will increase.”

Dan. 12:5 Then I looked, I myself, Dani'el.

And behold!
Two others were standing,
one here on the bank of the river
and one there on the bank of the river.
12:6 And one said
to the man clothed in the linen
who was above the waters of the river, “How long until the end of the extraordinary matters?”

Dan. 12:7 And I was listening attentively
to the man himself nx clothed in the linen
who was above the waters of the river.
And he raised his right hand
and his left hand toward the skies.
And he swore by Him Who lives to eternity
that it was for an appointed time,
appointed times, and a half,
even at the completion of the shattering
of the hand of the set apart people.
Then all these will be completed.

Dan. 12:8 And I myself heard,
but I do not understand.

And I said, “My master,
what is the final end of these matters?”

Dan. 12:9 And he said, “Go, Dani’el!
Indeed, the words are closed up and sealed
until the time of the end.

Dan. 12:10 Many will be purified and made spotless
and many will be refined.
But the morally wrong will do wrong
and not any of the morally wrong
will understand.

But those being caused to have insight
will understand.

Dan. 12:11 And from the time
that which is continual is caused to be removed,
and the abomination that is desolating
is set up
is one thousand two hundred and ninety days.

Dan. 12:12 Happy is the one waiting and who reaches to the one thousand three hundred and thirty five days.

Dan. 12:13 But you yourself nx,
go to the very end!
Then you will rest.
And you will stand up for the sake of your lot
at the end of the days.”

36. Ezra - 'Ezrah

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Ezra 1:1 And in the first year of Cyrus,
king of Persia,
for the sake of fulfilling the word of YAHWEH
by the mouth of Yirmyah,
YAHWEH stirred up the breath itself nx
of Cyrus, king of Persia.

And he caused a proclamation to pass over into all his kingdom,
even also in writing, saying,

Yirmyah means YAHWEH will exalt.
ruach means wind, breath.
Traditionally,
this is translated as "spirit".
This can not be a correct translation.
The word 'spirit' did not exist
until the Greek culture existed.
The term was "invented" by them.
Neither the Hebrews nor the Persians
had any such concept.

To speak of the kings' breath
being being stirred up however,
makes perfect sense.

In Hebrew culture
the breath was seen
as the very essence of a person.
It reflected their inner nature itself,
their character.
It was viewed as penetrating
to the deepest parts of the person
and therefore represented
what was "within them".

Ezra 1:2 "Thus said Cyrus, king of Persia,
'YAHWEH, 'The Elohim of The Heavens,
has given to me
all the kingdoms of the earth.
And He Himself has given a charge to me
to build a house for Him in Yerushalaim
which is in Yahudah.

Ezra 1:3 Whoever is among
you of all His people,
may his Elohim be with His people!
And let him go up to Yerushalaim
which is in Yahudah.
And let him build
The House itself תא of YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el.
He is The Elohim Who is in Yerushalaim.

Ezra 1:4 And all those remaining from all the places where he sojourns, let the men of his place help him
with silver and with gold,
and with goods and with animals,
besides the voluntary offerings
for The House of The Elohim
which is in Yerushalaim.' "

Ezra 1:5 And the heads of the fathers
of Yahudah and Binyamin,
and the priests, and the Levites,
with all those whose breath itself תא
YAHWEH had stirred up
rose up for the sake of going up
and for the sake of building
The House itself תא of YAHWEH
which is in Yerushalaim.

1:6 And everyone all around them
strengthened them with their hands,
with objects of silver, with gold,
with goods and with animals,
and with precious things,
in addition to everything
that was voluntarily offered by itself.

Ezra 1:7 And the king, Cyrus,
brought out the utensils themselves תא
of The House of YAHWEH
which Nebukadnetzar
had brought from Yerushalaim

and put in the house of his gods.

Ezra 1:8 And Cyrus, king of Persia, brought them out
into the hand of Mithredath, the treasurer.
And he accounted for them to Sheshbazzar,
the leader of Yahudah.

Ezra 1:9 And these were their numbers.
Thirty gold dishes,
one thousand silver dishes,
twenty nine knives,
Ezra 1:10 thirty gold basins,
next, four hundred and ten silver basins,
and one thousand other utensils.
Ezra 1:11 All the utensils of gold and of silver were five thousand four hundred.
Sheshbazzar caused all of them
to go up with those of the captivity
who were going up from Babel to Yerushalaim.

Chapter 2

Ezra 2:1 And these

Sophereth means a scribe.
Peruda means break through.

Ezra 2:56 sons of Ya'ala, sons of Darkon,
sons of Giddel,

Ya'ala means climbing one.
Darkon - meaning is uncertain.
Giddel means stout.

Ezra 2:57 sons of Shephatyah, sons of Hattil,
sons of Pokereth Tzebaim, sons of Ami.

Shephatyah means YAH has judged.
Hattil means waving, fluctuating.
Pokereth Tzebaim means trapper of gazelles
Ami means my people.

Ezra 2:58 All the Nethinim
and the children of Shelomoh's servants
were three hundred and ninety two.

Ezra 2:59 And these were the ones
going up from Tel Melah,
Tel Harsha, and Kerub:
Addan, Immer.
But they were not able
to show their father's house or their seed,
whether they were from Yisra'el:

Addan means firm.
Immer means talkative.

Ezra 2:60 sons of Delayah, sons of Tobiyah,
sons of Nekoda,
six hundred and fifty two;

Delayah means YAH has delivered.
Tobiyah means
my goodness is of YAH.

Ezra 2:61 and of the sons of the priests:
sons of Habayah, sons of Hakkots,
sons of Barzillai,
who took a wife from the daughters
of Barzillai the Gil'adite,
and was called by their name.

Habayah means YAH has hidden.
Hakkots - meaning uncertain.
Barzillai means iron hearted.

Ezra 2:62 These sought their record
among they themselves
having been enrolled by genealogy.
But they were not found.
And they were defiled,
apart from the priesthood.
Ezra 2:63 And the governor said to them
they were not to eat
of the most set apart things
until a priest was standing before the Urim and Tummim.

Urim means lights.
Tummim means perfections.
These were objects kept in the breastpiece of the Great Priest.
They were used to determine
YAHWEH's directions to His people.

It is not known now what they were.
It's generally thought they consisted of two objects,
one light colored
and the other dark colored,
or one gold and one silver,
so that there was a distinct difference between them.
One represented "yes",
the other "no".

Ezra 2:64 The entire assembly as one
was forty two thousand
three hundred and sixty,
Ezra 2:65 besides their male
and female servants.
These were seven thousand
three hundred and thirty seven.
They also had two hundred
men and women singers.

Ezra 2:66 Their horses were seven hundred and thirty six,
their mules, two hundred and forty five,
Ezra 2:67 their camels,
four hundred and thirty five,
asses,
six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

Ezra 2:68 And from of the heads of the fathers,
at their coming to The House of YAHWEH
which is in Yerushalaim,
they offered themselves freely
to The House of YAHWEH
for the sake of establishing it in its place.

Ezra 2:69 According to their ability they gave to the treasury for the work
sixty one thousand gold drachmas,
and five thousand minas of silver,
and one hundred priestly garments.

Ezra 2:70 And the priests,
and the Levites,
and some of the people,
and the singers,
and the gatekeepers,
and the Nethinim,
dwelt in their cities.
And all Yisra'el was in their cities.

Chapter 3

Ezra 3:1 And the seventh month arrived.
And the children of Yisra'el
were in the cities.
The people gathered
as one man to Yerushalaim.

In the SEVENTH month
they gathered in Jerusalem.
This puts it at the Feast of Trumpets.

Ezra 3:2 And Yahshua, son of Yotzadak,
and his brothers, the priests,
and Zerubbabel, son of She'alti'el,
and his brothers rose up.
And they built the slaughter site itself nx
of The The Elohim of Yisra'el
for the sake of offering olahs upon it
as it has been written
in The Torah of Moshe,
the man of The Elohim.

Yotzadak means YAH is just mitzbeach - an altar.
The word is based on zabach
- to slaughter an animal;
by implication, a sacrifice.

It's difficult for Western minds to comprehend what it was like
to experience the function of an "altar".
For us it's viewed as a fancy platform
at the front of a church.
But the sacrificial system of the Hebrews
was a bloody, messy, and smelly affair.
For this reason the term "slaughter site"
is used in this text.
That's exactly what it was.

An olah is traditionally called a burnt offering.
It represents total surrender
to YAHWEH.

Torah does not mean 'law'.
The word means instruction.
What is given in the "Torah"
is the instruction YAHWEH gave to Moshe,
not only at Sinai,
but also at several other points
as he led the children of Yisra'el, especially as they were ready to enter the Promised Land.

Ezra 3:3 And they erected the slaughter site
upon its bases,
because of the peoples of the lands.
And they offered olahs upon it to YAHWEH, olahs for the morning
and olahs for the evening.

Ezra 3:4 And they prepared
The Festival of Succoth itself nx
as it is written,
and the daily olahs by number
according to the regulations,
the word for the day according to the day, Succoth is traditionally known as The Feast of Booths, or Tabernacles.
It served to remind the people
of their time in the wilderness
as they came out of Egypt.

Ezra 3:5 and afterward, the continual olahs,
and those for New Moons,
and those for all
the appointed times of YAHWEH
those having been set apart,
and for everyone
who willingly of themselves
offered a voluntary offering to YAHWEH.

Ezra 3:6 From the first day
of the seventh month
they began to offer olahs to YAHWEH.
But the foundation
of The Temple of YAHWEH
had not been laid.

Ezra 3:7 And they gave silver
to the rock cutters and to the craftsmen,
and food, and drink, and oil
to the Tzidonians and Tzorians
for the sake of causing them to bring cedar logs from Lebanon
to the sea at Yapho,
according to the authority
of Cyrus, king of Persia.

Ezra 3:8 And in the second month
of the second year
of their coming to The House of YAHWEH,
to Yerushalaim,
Zerubbabel, son of She'alti'el,
and Yahshua, son of Yotzadak,
and the rest of their brothers,
the priests and the Levites,
and all those who having come from the captivity to Yerushalaim, began.
And they established
the Levites themselves nx
from twenty years old and upward
for the sake of overseeing the work
of The House of YAHWEH.

Ezra 3:9 And Yahshua stood up,
his sons and his brothers,
Kadmi'el and his sons,
the sons of Yahudah together as one,
for the sake of overseeing concerning
those working on The House of YAHWEH;
the sons of Henadad with their sons
and their kindred, the Levites.

Ezra 3:10 And the builders laid the foundation
of the Temple of YAHWEH itself nx.
And they caused the priests to stand,
wearing their apparel,
with the silver trumpets,
and the Levites, the sons of Asaph,
with cymbals, for the sake of praising YAHWEH Himself nx
according to the hand
of David, king of Yisra'el.

Ezra 3:11 And they responded by praising and giving thanks to YAHWEH,
"Indeed, He is good!
Indeed, to eternity
is His kindness concerning Yisra'el!"

And all the people shouted greatly with praise to YAHWEH on account of the foundation having been laid
of The House of YAHWEH.

Ezra 3:12 But many of the priests, and Levites,
and the heads of the fathers,
the old men who had seen
the first house itself nx,
when the foundation of this house
was laid in their sight
were weeping with a loud voice.
And many were shouting with joy
as they lifted up their voices.

Ezra 3:13 And the people could not distinguish the sound of the joyful shouting from the sound of the weeping of the people because the people were shouting

with a loud shout.
And the sound was heard far away.

Chapter 4

Ezra 4:1 And the oppressors
of Yahudah and Binyamin
heard that the children of the captivity were building The Temple of YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el.

Ezra 4:2 And they came near to Zerubbabel
and to the heads of the fathers.
And they said to them, "Let us build with you.
Indeed, we seek your Elohim as you do.
But we have not been sacrificing
since the days of Esarhaddon, king of Asshur, he himself nx
having caused us to come here."

Ezra 4:3 But Zerubbabel and Yahshua
and the rest of the heads of the fathers of Yisra'el
said to them,
"It is not for you and for us
to build a house for our Elohim.
Indeed, we ourselves together will build
for the sake of YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el,
according to what King Cyrus,
king of Persia, has commanded us."

Ezra 4:4 And it existed
that the people of the land were weakening the hands of the people of Yahudah
and frightening they themselves nx
as they were building, Ezra 4:5 even hiring advisors against them
for the sake of frustrating their plans
all the days of Cyrus, king of Persia, even until the kingdom
of Darius, king of Persia.

Ezra 4:6 And in the reign of Ahasuerus,
at the beginning of his reign,
they wrote an accusation against those dwelling in Yahudah and Yerushalaim.

Ezra 4:7 And in the days of Artaxerxes Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabe'el,
and the rest of his companions
wrote to Artaxerxes, king of Persia.
And the letter had been written in Aramaic.
And it was being interpreted with Aramaic.

Ezra 4:8 Rehum, the governor,
and Shimshai, the scribe,
wrote a letter against Yerushalaim
to King Artaxerxes according to this.
Ezra 4:9 Then wrote Rehum, the governor,
and Shimshai, the scribe,
and the rest of their companions,
the Dinaites,
and the Apharsachites,
the Tarpelites,
the Apharsites,
the Archevites,
the Babylonians,
the Susanchites,
the Dehavites,
and the Elamites,
Ezra 4:10 and the rest of the nations
whom Asnapper, the great and the noble,
had taken into captivity
and had settled in the cities of Shomeron

and the rest beyond the River,
even at such a time.

Ezra 4:11 This is a copy of the letter
which they sent to him:
To Artaxerxes, the king,
from your servants,
the mortals beyond The River:

'And now,
Ezra 4:12 let it be known to the king
that the Yahudeans who came up from you have come to us at Yerushalaim.
And they are building
the rebellious and evil city.
And they are completing its walls
and repairing the foundations.

Ezra 4:13 Now let it now be known to the king that if this city is built and the walls are completed
they will not give tribute, tax, or custom.
And the revenue of the king will be damaged.

Ezra 4:14 Now then, because we have received maintenance from the palace,
then it was not appropriate for us
to witness disrespect for the king.

Therefore we have sent and caused it to be made known to the king Ezra 4:15 in order that a search may be made in the scroll of the records of your fathers,
and you find it in the scroll of the records,
and you recognize that this city
is a city of the rebellious,
even causing loss to kings and provinces.
And revolt was being done in it
from the days of long ago,
on account of which
this city was utterly destroyed.

Ezra 4:16 We ourselves
are making known to the king
that if this city is rebuilt
and its walls are completed,
then you will have no portion
beyond The River.

Ezra 4:17 The king sent a message:
To Rehum, the governor,
and Shimshai, the scribe,
to the rest of their companions
who are dwelling at Shomeron,
and the rest beyond the River:
Shalom! And now:

Ezra 4:18 The letter
which you have sent to us
has been plainly read before me.

Ezra 4:19 And I made a decree.
And it has been searched.
And it was found that this city
from the days of long ago
has lifted itself up against kings.
And rebellion and revolt
have been done in it.

Ezra 4:20 And mighty kings
have existed over Yerushalaim.
And they have ruled over everything beyond The River.
And tribute, tax, and toll
were being paid to them.

Ezra 4:21 Now, make a decree
for the sake of causing these men to cease,

and that this city is not to be built
until the command is given from me.

Ezra 4:22 And take heed of failure to do this.
Why should the damage increase
to the hurt of the kings?

Ezra 4:23 Now when a copy of the letter,
which was from King Artaxerxes,
had been read before Rehum,
and Shimshai, the scribe,
and their companions,
they went up with haste
to Yerushalaim, to the Yahudeans.
And they caused them to cease
by force and strength.

Ezra 4:24 At that time the work ceased
on The House of YAHWEH
which is at Yerushalaim.
And it existed as ceased
until the second year
of the reign of Darius, king of Persia.

Chapter 5

Ezra 5:1 Then Haggai, the prophet,
and Zekaryah, the prophet, son of Iddo, prophesied concerning the Yahudeans
who were in Yahudah and Yerushalaim
in the Name of The El of Yisra'el
Who was over them.

Haggai means festive.
Iddo means timely.
Zekaryah means
YAH has taken note of.

Ezra 5:2 At that time Zerubbabel, son of She'alti'el,
and Yahshua, son of Yotzadak, rose up.
And they began to build
The House of YAHWEH
which is in Yerushalaim.
And the prophets of YAHWEH
were being a help to them.

Ezra 5:3 At that time Tattenai,
a governor beyond The River,
and Shethar-Bozenai,
and their companions came to them.
And according to this they said this to them,
"Who has made a decree
for you to build this House
and to complete this wall?"

Ezra 5:4 Then on account of this we told them the names of the men who were building this building.

Ezra 5:5 And the eye of their El was upon the elders of the Yahudeans.
And that they did not cause them to cease
until the matter went to Darius.
And then they replied
with a letter concerning this.

Ezra 5:6 This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai,
a governor beyond the River, had sent,
he and Shethar-Bozenai,
and his companions,
the Apharsachites beyond the River,
to Darius, the king.

Ezra 5:7 They sent a letter concerning this.

And according to this it was written in it:
To Darius, the king:
Every shalom!
Ezra 5:8 Let it be known to the king
that we have gone
into the province of Yahudah,
to The House of The Great El.
And it is being built with great stones.
And timber is being placed in the walls.
And this work is going quickly.
And it is prospering in their hands.

Ezra 5:9 Then we asked the elders of these
according to this manner.
We said, "Who has made a decree for you to build this House
and to complete these walls?"

Ezra 5:10 And we also asked their names of them
for the sake of causing you to know,
whose names we are writing
of the men among their leaders.

Ezra 5:11 And according to this manner
they replied to us saying,
"We ourselves are the servants
of The El of heaven and earth.
And we are building The House which had been built
many years before this.
And a great king of Yisra'el
had built it and completed it.
Ezra 5:12 However,
our fathers provoked to anger
The El of The Heavens.
He gave them into the hand
of Nebukadnetzar, king of Babel,
the Chaldean.
And he demolished this House.
And he exiled the people to Babel.

Ezra 5:13 But in the first year of Cyrus,
the king of Babel,
Cyrus the king made a decree
to build this House of YAHWEH.
Ezra 5:14 And also the utensils
of The House of YAHWEH,
of the gold and the silver which Nebukadnetzar had taken from The Temple that was in Yerushalaim and had brought them
to the temple of Babel, Cyrus, the king, brought those out
from the temple of Babel.
And he caused them to be delivered to one named Sheshbazzar,
whom he had made governor.
Ezra 5:15 And he said to him,
'Take these utensils!
Go!
Deposit them in The Temple
which is in Yerushalaim.
And let The House of YAHWEH
be built upon its place.'

Ezra 5:16 Then this same Sheshbazzar came.
He laid the foundation
of The House of YAHWEH
which is in Yerushalaim.
And since that time, even until now,
it has been being built.
But it has not been completed."

Ezra 5:17 And now,
if it seems good to the king,
let him search in the house
of the treasure of the king
which is there in Babel
whether it is so that a decree was made by Cyrus, the king,
for the sake of building
this House of YAHWEH at Yerushalaim.
And let the decision of the king
be sent to us concerning this."

Chapter 6

Ezra 6:1 At that time Darius, the king,
made a decree.
And they searched
in the house of the scrolls
where the treasures of Babel
had been deposited there.

Ezra 6:2 And at Ahmeta, in the palace
which is in the province of Media,
a scroll was found.

And this is the record
that was written within it:

Ezra 6:3 "In the first year of Cyrus, the King,
Cyrus, the king, made a decree concerning
The House of YAHWEH in Yerushalaim.

"The house is to be built in the place where sacrifices
were being offered.

And its foundations being laid,
its height is to be sixty cubits,
its width sixty cubits,

Ezra 6:4 three rows of great stones
and a row of new timber.

The expenses are to be given
from the house of the king.

Ezra 6:5 And also, the utensils
of The House of YAHWEH,
the gold and silver which Nebukadnetzar had taken from The Temple
which is in Yerushalaim
and had brought to Babel,
they are to be returned.

And they are to go to The Temple
which is in Yerushalaim, to its place.

And you are to deposit them
in The House of YAHWEH."

Ezra 6:6 And now, Tattenai,
governor beyond The River,
and Shethar-Bozenai, and your companions,
the Apharsachites, beyond the River,
you are to be far from there!

Ezra 6:7 Leave the work of this House of YAHWEH alone!
The governor of the Yahudeans
and the elders of the Yahudeans are to build this House of YAHWEH upon its place!

Ezra 6:8 And moreover, I make a decree
as to what you are to do with the elders of these Yahudeans
for the sake of building
this House of YAHWEH.

Even from the property of the king,
of the tribute from beyond The River,
the expenses are diligently
to be given to these men,
who are not to be stopped!

Ezra 6:9 And whatever they need,

even young bulls and rams, and lambs,
for the olahs to The El of The Heavens,
wheat, salt, wine, and oil,
according to the decree of the priests
who are at Yerushalaim,
it is to be given to them day by day
without fail,
Ezra 6:10 those who are offering soothing aromas
to The El of The Heavens,
and who are praying for
the life of the king and his children.

Ezra 6:11 And I also make a decree that any mortal who causes
this word to be altered,
a timber will be pulled from his house
and it will be stood up.
He will be hung upon it.
And his house will be made a dunghill
on account of this.

Ezra 6:12 And may YAHWEH,
Who has caused His Name to dwell there,
overthrow any king or people who cause their hand to be extended
for the sake of altering,
for the sake of ruining
this House of YAHWEH
which is in Yerushalaim!
I myself, Darius, make a decree!
Let it be done diligently!

Ezra 6:13 Then Tattenai,
governor beyond The River,
Shethar-Bozenai, and their companions
who were before them diligently did according to what Darius the king had sent.

Ezra 6:14 And the elders of the Yahudeans were building.
And they prospered
on account of the prophesying
of Haggai, the prophet,
and Zekaryah, son of Iddo.
And they built it.
And they finished it because of the discretion
of The El of Yisra'el,
and because of the decree of Cyrus,
and Darius, and Artaxerxes, king of Persia.

Ezra 6:15 And this House was finished on the third day of the month of Adar,
which was in the sixth year
of the reign of Darius the king.

Ezra 6:16 And the children of Yisra'el,
the priests, and the Levites,
and the rest of the children of the captivity
made a dedication
of this House of YAHWEH with joy.

Ezra 6:17 And they caused to approach for the sake of the dedication of this House of YAHWEH,
one hundred bulls,
two hundred rams,
four hundred lambs,
and as an offense offering concerning all Yisra'el,
twelve male goats,
according to the number

of the tribes of Yisra'el.

Ezra 6:18 And they stationed the priests according to their divisions and the Levites according to their divisions concerning the service of YAHWEH at Yerushalaim according to what is written in the scroll of Moshe.

Ezra 6:19 And the children of the captivity performed The Passover itself nx on the fourteenth day of the first month.

Ezra 6:20 Indeed, the priests and the Levites as one had undefiled themselves. All of them were undefiled. And they slaughtered The Passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their kindred, the priests, and for themselves.

Ezra 6:21 And the children of Yisra'el, those returning from the exile, and all those having separated themselves from the defilement of the nations of the land for the sake of seeking YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el, ate.

Ezra 6:22 And they prepared The Festival of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy. Indeed, YAHWEH had caused them to rejoice! And He had turned around the heart of the king of Asshur concerning them, for the sake of strengthening their hands in the work of The House of YAHWEH, The El of Yisra'el.

Chapter 7

Ezra 7:1 And after these things in the kingdom of Artaxerxes, king of Persia, Ezra, son of Serayah, son of Azaryah, son of Hilkiyah, 7:2 son of Shallum, son of Tzadok, son of Ahitub,
7:3 son of Amaryah, son of Azaryah, son of Merayot,
7:4 son of Zerahyah, son of Uzzi, son of Bukki,
7:5 son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of El'azar, son of Aharon, the great priest,
Ezra 7:6 Ezra, he himself, went up from Babel. And he himself was a scribe, skillful in the Instruction of Moshe which YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el, had given.

And the king gave into his hand everything he requested on account of the hand of YAHWEH, his Elohim, being upon him.

Ezra 7:7 And some of the children of Yisra'el, and the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim went up to Yerushalaim in the seventh year of Artaxerxes, the king.

Ezra 7:8 And he came to Yerushalaim
in the fifth month.
It was in the seventh year of the king.

Ezra 7:9 Indeed, on the first day
of the first month
he himself began the ascent from Babel.
And on the first day of the fifth month
he came to Yerushalaim
on account of to the good hand
of his Elohim being over him.

Ezra 7:10 Indeed, Ezra had prepared his heart
for the sake of seeking
The Instruction itself ~~nx~~ of YAHWEH,
and for the sake of doing it,
and for the sake of teaching in Yisra'el
the rules and regulations.

It's important
to consider torah in this verse.
Traditionally it's taught to mean "law".
However, the word
actually means instruction.
It includes far more than just "laws".
Torah includes every instruction
YAHWEH has ever given to His people.
Even the teachings
of The New Covenant
are, technically speaking, "Torah".

Think of it this way,
all of Scripture is His "Owner's Manual",
His Instruction Manual
to teach His people what He desires.
If one does not follow His instructions
the "product" will be "ruined".

Ezra 7:11 And this is a copy of the letter which the king, Artaxerxes,
gave to Ezra, the priest, the scribe,
a scribe of the words of the directives of YAHWEH,
and of His rules concerning Yisra'el:

Ezra 7:12 Artaxerxes, king of kings,
to Ezra, the priest, a scribe of the law
which The El of The Heavens has perfected.

And now,

Ezra 7:13 I myself make a decree
that all those in my kingdom
from the people of Yisra'el
and the priests and Levites
who are willing to go up to Yerushalaim,
may go with you.

Ezra 7:14 Therefore, you are being sent by the king and his seven counselors
for the sake of inquiring about Yahudah and Yerushalaim concerning the law of your El
which is in your hand,

Ezra 7:15 and for the sake of carrying
the silver and the gold
which the king and his counselors
have freely offered to The El of Yisra'el,
for Whom His dwelling is in Yerushalaim, Ezra 7:16 and all the silver and the gold
that you discover in all the province of Babel,
along with the donation of the people and the priests, freely offered for The House of their El in Yerushalaim.

Ezra 7:17 Therefore, because of this,

diligently purchase with this silver
bulls, rams, lambs, and their grain offerings,
and their drink offerings,
and offer them upon the slaughter site
which is in The House of your El
in Yerushalaim.

Ezra 7:18 Whatever is good to you and your kindred
with the rest of the silver and the gold is for the sake of doing
according to the desire of your El.

Ezra 7:19 And the utensils
which are being given to you for the service of The House of your El, deliver before The El of Yerushalaim.

Ezra 7:20 And the rest of the needs of The House of your El,
which falls to you to give,
give from the treasure house of the king.

Ezra 7:21 And I, I myself, Artaxerxes the king,
do make a decree to all the treasurers
who are beyond The River
that whatever Ezra the priest,
the scribe of the law
of The El of The Heavens
requests of you, diligently perform,
Ezra 7:22 up to one hundred talents of silver,
and up to one hundred kors of wheat,
and up to one hundred baths of wine,
and up to one hundred baths of oil,
and salt without reckoning.

Ezra 7:23 Whatever is ordered by The El of The Heavens, let it be diligently done
for the sake of The House
of The El of The Heavens.
Indeed, why should there be wrath against the kingdom of the king and his sons?

Ezra 7:24 And furthermore we are making known to you that there is no authority
to impose tax, excise, or tribute
on any of the priests and Levites,
singers, gatekeepers, Nethinim,
and servants of this House of YAHWEH.

Ezra 7:25 And you yourself, Ezra,
according to the wisdom of your El
which is in your hand,
appoint magistrates and judges
who are to be judging all the people
who are beyond The River,
to everyone knowing the laws of your El.
And those who do not know, teach them.

Ezra 7:26 And anyone who does not do
the law of your El and the law of the king,
let the judgment
be diligently executed upon him,
whether it be death, or banishment,
or confiscation of goods, or imprisonment.

Ezra 7:27 Blessed be YAHWEH,
The Elohim of our fathers,
Who has put according to this
in the heart of the king,
to beautify The House of YAHWEH itself אֵל

which is in Yerushalaim,
Ezra 7:28 and has extended kindness to me
before the king and his counselors,
and before all the mighty leaders of the king.

And I myself was strengthened
according to this
by the hand of YAHWEH, my Elohim,
being upon me.

And I assembled the leaders from Yisra'el
for the sake of going up with me.

Chapter 8

Ezra 8:1 These are the heads of their fathers
and the genealogy of those going up with me from Babel,
in the kingdom of King Artaxerxes.

*Note: The meanings of the names
are not listed here
since many of them are duplicates,
already given,
and/or foreign names
whose meaning is unknown.*

Ezra 8:2 Of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom;
of the sons of Itamar, Dani'el;
of the sons of David, Hattush;
Ezra 8:3 of the sons of Shekanyah,
of the sons of Parosh, Zekaryah,
and registered with him
were one hundred and fifty males;
Ezra 8:4 of the sons of Pahath-Mo'ab, Elyeho'eynai, son of Zerahyah,
and with him two hundred males;
Ezra 8:5 of the sons of Shekanyah,
the son of Yahazi'el,
and with him three hundred males;
Ezra 8:6 and of the sons of Adin, Ebed, son of Yahnathan,
and with him fifty males;
Ezra 8:7 and of the sons of Elam, Yeshayah son of Athalyah,
and with him seventy males;
Ezra 8:8 and of the sons of Shephatyah, Zebadyah, son of Mika'el,
and with him eighty males;
Ezra 8:9 of the sons of Yo'ab, Obadyah, son of Yehi'el,
and with him two hundred
and eighteen males;
Ezra 8:10 and of the sons of Shelomith,
the son of Yosiphyah,
and with him one hundred and sixty males;
Ezra 8:11 and of the sons of Bebai, Zekaryah,
son of Bebai,
and with him twenty-eight males;
Ezra 8:12 and of the sons of Azgad, Yohanan, son of Hakkatan,
and with him one hundred and ten males;
Ezra 8:13 and of the last sons of Adonikam,
whose names are these;
Eliphelet, Yei'el, and Shemayah,
and with them sixty males;
Ezra 8:14 and of the sons of Bigwai, Uthai and Zabbud,
and with them seventy males.

Ezra 8:15 And I assembled them
at the river that flows to Ahava.
And we encamped there three days.
And I considered among the people
and among the priests.
But the sons of Levi I did not find there.
Ezra 8:16 And I sent for Eli'ezer, for Ari'el,
for Shemayah, and for Elnathan,

and for Yarib,
and for Elnathan, and for Nathan,
and for Zekaryah,
and for Meshullam, the heads;
also for Yoyarib and Elnathan,
those with understanding.
Ezra 8:17 And I sent out they themselves נא
to Iddo, the leader at the place Kasiphya.
And I placed in their mouth words to speak to Iddo and his kindred, the Nethinim,
at the place Kasiphya,
for the sake of causing him to bring to us
ministers for The House of our Elohim.

Ezra 8:18 And by the good hand
of our Elohim over us,
they caused to come to us
a man of understanding of the sons of Mahli,
son of Levi, son of Yisra'el, and Sherebyah,
with his sons and brothers, eighteen;
Ezra 8:19 and Hashabiyah himself נא,
and with he himself נא
Yeshayah of the sons of Merari,
his brothers and their sons, twenty;
Ezra 8:20 and of the Nethinim,
whom David and the leaders had appointed for the service of the Levites,
two hundred and twenty Nethinim,
all of them designated by name.

Ezra 8:21 And I proclaimed a fast there at the river of Ahava
for the sake of humbling ourselves
before the face of our Elohim
for the sake of seeking from Him
the right way for us and for our little ones,
and for all our possessions.

Ezra 8:22 Indeed, I was ashamed to request from the king
soldiers and horsemen to help us against the adversary on the way
because we had spoken to the king saying,
"The hand of our Elohim
is over all those seeking Him
for the sake of good.
But His power and His anger
are against all those abandoning Him."

Ezra 8:23 And we fasted.
And we prayed to our Elohim
concerning this.
And He answered our prayer.

Ezra 8:24 And I separated twelve from the leaders of the priests:
Sherebyah, Hashabiyah,
and with them, ten of their kindred.

Ezra 8:25 And I weighed to them
the silver itself נא,
and the gold itself נא,
and the utensils themselves נא,
the voluntary offerings
for The House of our Elohim
raised by the king, and his counselors,
and his leaders, and all Yisra'el,
those being found there.

Ezra 8:26 And I weighed into their hands
six hundred and fifty talents of silver,
and silver objects of one hundred talents,
one hundred talents of gold,
Ezra 8:27 and twenty gold basins

of a thousand drachmas,
and two utensils of fine polished copper,
as desirable as gold.

Ezra 8:28 And I said to them,
“You yourselves תַּח
are set apart to YAHWEH
and the objects are set apart.
And the silver and the gold
are a voluntary offering to YAHWEH, The Elohim of your fathers.
Ezra 8:29 Watch! And protect them until you weigh them before the leaders
of the priests, and the Levites,
and the heads of the fathers of Yisra’el
in Yerushalaim,
in the chambers of The House of YAHWEH!”

Ezra 8:30 And the priests and the Levites accepted the silver, and the gold,
and the utensils,
for the sake of causing them
to go to Yerushalaim,
to The House of our Elohim.

Ezra 8:31 Then we set out from the river Ahava
the twelfth of the first month
for the sake of going to Yerushalaim.
And the hand of our Elohim existed over us.
And He caused us to be delivered from the hand of the adversary
and from ambush upon the way.

Ezra 8:32 And we came to Yerushalaim.
And we stayed there three days.
Ezra 8:33 And on the fourth day
the silver and the gold and the utensils were weighed in The House of our Elohim
by the hand of Meremoth,
son of Uriyah, the priest.
And with him was El’azar, son of Phinehas.
And with them were the Levites, Yozabad, son of Yahshua,
and No’adyah, son of Binnui, Ezra 8:34 according to the number
and the weight of all.
And all the weight was recorded at that time.

Ezra 8:35 The children of the captivity who had come from the exile
brought near olahs
to The Elohim of Yisra’el;
twelve bulls on behalf of all Yisra’el,
ninety and six rams,
seven and seventy lambs,
and twelve male goats
as an offense offering,
everything as an olah to YAHWEH.

Ezra 8:36 And the orders of the king themselves תַּח
were given to the governors of the king
and the deputies beyond The River.
And they helped the people themselves תַּח
and The House of YAHWEH itself תַּח.

Chapter 9

Ezra 9:1 And when these things
had been done
the leaders came to me saying,
“The people of Yisra’el
and the priests and the Levites
have not separated themselves

from the peoples of the lands
concerning their detestable things,
those of the Kena'anites,
the Hittites,
the Perizzites,
the Yebusites,
the Ammonites,
the Mo'abites,
the Mitsraites,
and the Amorites.
Ezra 9:2 Indeed,
they have taken from their daughters
wives for themselves and for their sons.
And the set apart seed has mingled itself
among the peoples of the lands.
And the hand of the leaders and the rulers
has been foremost in this treachery.”

Ezra 9:3 And when I heard
this word itself nx
I tore my garment itself nx and my robe,
and I pulled out some of the hair
of my head and my beard.
And I sat down astonished.

Ezra 9:4 Then all those who trembled at the words of The Elohim of Yisra'el gathered to me concerning
the treachery of the exiles.
And I myself sat astonished
until the evening sacrifice.

Ezra 9:5 And at the evening sacrifice
I got up from my fasting.
And with my garment and my robe torn
I fell on my knees.
And I spread out my hands
to YAHWEH, my Elohim.
Ezra 9:6 And I said, “My Elohim,
I am too ashamed and humiliated
to cause my face to be lifted up toward You, my Elohim.
Indeed,
our moral perversities have increased to above our heads
and our guilt has risen to the skies.

Ezra 9:7 From the days of our fathers
we ourselves have been among great guilt,
even until this very day.
And because of our moral perversities
we ourselves, our kings, and our priests have been given into the hand
of the kings of the lands,
to the sword, to captivity, and to plunder,
and to shame of faces, as it is this day.

Ezra 9:8 And now, in a brief space of time,
favor has been granted
from YAHWEH Himself nx, our Elohim,
for the sake of leaving to us an escape,
and for the sake of giving to us
a peg in His Set Apart Place
for the sake of YAHWEH
to enlighten our eyes
and for the sake of giving to us
a little reviving in our bondage.

Ezra 9:9 Indeed, we were slaves.
But in our bondage
our Elohim did not abandon us.
And He extended kindness over us
before the faces of the kings of Persia
for the sake of giving to us a reviving,

for the sake of raising up
The House of our Elohim itself nx,
for the sake of restoring
its ruins themselves nx,
and for the sake of giving to us a wall
in Yahudah and Yerushalaim.

Ezra 9:10 And now, our Elohim,
what can we say after this?
Indeed, we have abandoned Your directives
Ezra 9:11 which You have given as direction
by the hand of Your servants
the prophets saying,
'The land which you yourselves nx
are going in to possess,
the land is defiled by their ritual defilement
of the peoples of the lands,
by their detestable things
with which they have filled it from one end to another
with their ritual defilement."

niddat - properly, rejection;
by implication, impurity.
The term is based on the concept of menstrual impurity.
tum'at - religious (ritual) impurity.

This form was related to that which contaminates everything around it.
It often referred to the contamination
of The House of YAHWEH itself, which required specific steps
to remove the defilement.

Ezra 9:12 'And now,
you are not to give your daughters
to their sons as wives,
nor are you to take their daughters
for your sons as husbands.
And you are not to seek their shalom
or their goodness even to eternity,
in order that you will be strong,
and will eat
the goodness itself nx of the land,
and leave it as an inheritance
to your children until eternity.'

Verse 12 does not fit the conversation
Ezra is having with YAHWEH.
This appears to be a fragment
inserted in the wrong place in the text.
It is addressed to the Yisra'elites.

9:13 And after all that has come upon us
on account of our bad actions
and on account of our great guilt,
since You Yourself nx, our Elohim,
have been restrained to less than our moral perversities deserve,
and have given us
a deliverance such as this,
Ezra 9:14 are we to turn back,
for the sake of breaking Your directives
and for the sake of marrying ourselves
with the people of these detestable things?
Will You not be enraged with us
until You had consumed us
so that there is no remnant or survivor?

Ezra 9:15 YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el,
You Yourself nx are just!
Indeed, we have been left as a remnant,
as it is this day.
Behold!
We are before Your face in our guilt.
Indeed, there is no one to stand before Your face concerning this!"

Chapter 10

Ezra 10:1 And as he was praying,
even as he was confessing,
weeping, and bowing himself down
before The House of YAHWEH
a very great assembly of men and women and children,
gathered to him from Yisra'el.
Indeed, the people wept with much weeping.

Ezra 10:2 And Shekanyah, son of Yehi'el,
from the sons of Elam, responded.
And he said to Ezra,
"We ourselves have acted unfaithfully
against our Elohim.
And we have taken foreign wives
from the peoples of the land.
But now there is hope in Yisra'el
concerning this.

Ezra 10:3 And now,
let us cut a covenant with our Elohim
for the sake of putting away all these wives
and those having been born to them,
according to the counsel of YAHWEH,
even those who tremble
concerning the directive of our Elohim.
And let it be done
according to The Instruction.

Ezra 10:4 Stand up!
Indeed, the matter is upon you
but we ourselves are with you.
Be strong and act!"

Ezra 10:5 And Ezra stood up.
And he caused the leaders themselves תא
of the priests, the Levites, and all Yisra'el
to swear to do according to this word.
And they swore.

Ezra 10:6 Then Ezra got up
from before The House of YAHWEH.
And he went into the chamber of Yahohanan, son of Elyashib.

Yahonahan means YAH has favored.
Elyashib means El will restore.

And he went there.
Food he did not eat
and water he did not drink
because he was mourning
on account of the unfaithful act of the exiles.

Ezra 10:7 And they caused a proclamation
to pass over into Yahudah and Yerushalaim
for all the children of the exile
to be gathered to Yerushalaim.

Ezra 10:8 And anyone who did not come by the third day according to the counsel
of the leaders and the elders,
all his property
would be devoted to destruction.
And he himself would be separated from the assembly of the exiles.

Ezra 10:9 And all the men
of Yahudah and Binyamin
assembled at Yerushalaim by three days.
It was the ninth month,
on the twentieth of the month.

And all the people sat in the square
of The House of YAHWEH,
being caused to tremble

on account of the matter,
and because of the rain.

Ezra 10:10 And Ezra the priest stood up.
And he said to them,
"You, you yourselves תא
have acted unfaithfully.
And you have taken foreign wives,
adding to the guilt of Yisra'el.
Ezra 10:11 And now, confess it to YAHWEH,
The Elohim of your fathers
and do His will
and separate from the peoples of the land
and from the foreign wives!"

Ezra 10:12 And all the assembly answered.
And they said with a loud voice,
"According to this,
according to your word concerning us
we will do!

Ezra 10:13 However, the people are many
and it is the time of rain
and we are not able to stand outside.
And the work is not for one day,
and not for two days,
because we have rebelled greatly
in this matter.

Ezra 10:14 Please let the leaders of the entire assembly stand.
And let all those in our cities
who have taken foreign wives
come at appointed times.
And with them will be the elders
and judges of their cities,
until the burning wrath of our Elohim
has been turned back from us
on account of this matter."

Ezra 10:15 Only Yonatan, son of Asah'el,
and Yahzeyah, son of Tikvah,
stood against this.
And Meshullam and Shabbethai, the Levite,
supported them.

Ezra 10:16 And the children of the captivity
did according to this.
And Ezra the priest,
with the heads of the fathers houses,
separated the men,
even all of them by name.
And they sat down
on the first day of the tenth month
for the sake of examining the matter.

Ezra 10:17 And they finished with all the men,
those having taken foreign wives,
by the first day of the second month.

Ezra 10:18 And there were found among the sons of the priests
those who had taken foreign wives
among the sons of Yahshua,
son of Yotzadak,
and his kindred, Ma'aseyah, and Eli'ezer,
and Yarib, and Gedalyah.
Ezra 10:19 And they gave their hand in pledge
to send out their wives,
and being guilty,
to offer a ram of the flock,
on account of their guilt.

Ezra 10:20 And from the sons of Immer:
Hanani and Zebadyah;
Ezra 10:21 and from the sons of Harim:
Ma'aseyah, and Eliyah, and Shemayah,
and Yehi'el, and Uzziyah;
Ezra 10:22 and from the sons of Pashhur:
Elyo'eynai, Ma'aseyah, Yishma'el, Nethane'l, Yozabad, and El'asah.
Ezra 10:23 And of the Levites:
Yozabad, Shim'i, Kelayah, he is Kelita, Pethahyah, Yahudah, and Eli'ezer.
Ezra 10:24 And of the singers:
Elyashib.
And of the gatekeepers:
Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.
Ezra 10:25 And from Yisra'el,
from the sons of Parosh: Ramyah, and Yizziyah, and Malkiyah,
and Miyamin,
and El'azar, and Malkiyah, and Benayah;
Ezra 10:26 and from the sons of Elam:
Mattanyah, Zekaryah, and Yehi'el, and Abdi,
and Yeremoth, and Eliyah;
Ezra 10:27 and from the sons of Zattu:
Elyo'eynai, Elyashib, Mattanyah,
and Yeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza;
Ezra 10:28 and from the sons of Bebai:
Yahohanan, Hananyah, Zabbai, and Athlai;
10:29 and from the sons of Bani:
Ezra Meshullam, Malluk, and Adayah, Yashub, and She'al, and Ramoth;
Ezra 10:30 and from the sons
of Pahath-Mo'ab:
Adna, and Kelal, Benayah, Ma'aseyah, Mattanyah, Betsal'el, and Binnui,
and Menashsheh;
Ezra 10:31 and from the sons of Harim:
Eli'ezer, Yishshiyah, Malkiyah,
Shemayah, Shim'on,
Ezra 10:32 Binyamin, Malluk,
and Shemaryah;
Ezra 10:33 from the sons of Hashum:
Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet,
Yeremai, Menashsheh, and Shim'i;
Ezra 10:34 from the sons of Bani:
Ma'adai, Amram, and U'el,
Ezra 10:35 Benayah, Bedeyah, Keluhu,
Ezra 10:36 Wanyah, Meremoth, Elyashib,
Ezra 10:37 Mattanyah, Mattenai, and Ya'asu,
Ezra 10:38 and Bani, and Binnui, Shim'i, Ezra 10:39 and Shelemyah, and Nathan,
and Adayah,
Ezra 10:40 Maknadebai, Shashai, Sharai,
Ezra 10:41 Azar'el, and Shelemyah, Shemaryah,
Ezra 10:42 Shallum, Amaryah, and Yoseph;
Ezra 10:43 from the sons of Nebo:
Yei'el, Mattithyah, Zabad, Zebina, Yaddu,
and Yo'el, and Benayah.

Ezra 10:44 All these
had taken foreign wives.
And some of them had wives
who had borne children.

37. Nehemiah - Nehemyah

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Neh. 1:1 The words of Nehemyah,
son of Hakalyah.

And it was in the month of Kislev,
in the twentieth year.

And I was at Shushan, the capital.

Nehemyah means comfort of YAH.

Hakalyah means brilliance of YAH.

Neh. 1:2 And Hanani, one of my brothers,
came and men from Yahudah.

And I asked them

concerning the Yahudeans,

the escaped ones

who had survived from the captivity,

and concerning Yerushalaim.

Neh. 1:3 And they said to me,

“Those remaining

who are left from the captivity

there in the province

are there in great harm and in disgrace.

And the wall of Yerushalaim

has been broken down

and its gates have been burned with fire.”

Neh. 1:4 And it was

as I was listening attentively

to these words themselves תא.

I sat down.

And I wept.

And I mourned for days.

And I was fasting and praying

before the face of The Elohim of The Heavens.

Neh. 1:5 And I said, “Alas now, YAHWEH,

Elohim of The Heavens,

great and awesome El,

The One protecting

The Covenant and kindness

for those loving You,

and for those protecting Your directives,

There are two things to note here.

“The Covenant” is capitalized

to draw attention to the fact that this is a reference to The Covenant of Sinai.

Second, “directives” is used in place of the traditional use of “commandments”.

Tradition ignores the Truth of Scripture.

YAHWEH does not give “commands”,

He gives instructions,

directions for His people to follow

of their own free will.

A command requires action.

A direction permits the one hearing it to choose to act or not act.

This fundamental understanding of YAHWEH’s relationship with His “children”

is crucial to comprehend.

It affects everything within Scripture!

“Sin” is an act of rebellion.

In its most basic form

it is a refusal to act according to

YAHWEH’s instructions, directions.

This is seen by Him as an offense

(traditionally called a ‘sin’)

against Him personally.

Neh. 1:6 Please, let Your ear be attentive

and Your eyes having been opened

for the sake of listening attentively

to the prayer of Your servant

which I myself am praying before Your face

this day, day and night,

concerning the children of Yisra’el,

Your servants,
and confessing the offenses
of the children of Yisra'el
with which we have offended against You!

I myself and my father's house
have offended.
Neh. 1:7 We have acted corruptly,
corruptly toward You.
And we have not protected
the directives themselves תא,
nor the rules themselves תא,
nor the regulations themselves תא
which You gave as direction
to Moshe himself תא, Your servant.

Neh. 1:8 Remember, now, the word itself תא
which You gave as direction
to Moshe himself תא, Your servant saying,
'If you yourselves תא act unfaithfully
I Myself will cause you yourselves תא
to be scattered among the peoples.
Neh. 1:9 But if you turn back to Me,
and protect My directives,
and do they themselves תא,
although they have been driven out into the extremity of the skies,
from there I will gather them.
And I will bring them to the place which I have chosen
for the sake of causing
My Name to dwell there.'

Neh. 1:10 And they are Your servants,
even Your people whom You have redeemed
by the greatness of Your power,
and by the strength of Your hand.

Neh. 1:11 Alas now, YAHWEH,
please let Your ear be attentive
to the prayer of Your servant,
and to the prayer of Your servants,
those delighting to revere
Your Name itself תא, and cause Your servant
to prosper now this day,
and grant him compassion
before the face of this man."
(Even I myself was cupbearer to the king.)

Chapter 2

Neh. 2:1 And it was in the month of Nisan,
in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king.
Wine was before my face.
And I lifted up the wine itself תא
and I gave it to the king.
And I had not been sad before his face.

Neh. 2:2 And the king said to me,
"Why is your face sad
but you yourself תא are not sick?
This is nothing except sadness of heart."

Then I was afraid, exceedingly afraid.
Neh. 2:3 And I said to the king,
"May the king live to eternity!
Why should my face not be sad?
The city, the place of my fathers' tombs,
is desolate, and its gates
have been consumed with fire?"

Neh. 2:4 And the king said to me,
"What are you yourself תא seeking concerning this?"

Then I prayed
to The Elohim of The Heavens.
Neh. 2:5 And I said to the king,
"If it seems good to the king,
and if your servant is pleasing before you,
I ask that you send me to Yahudah,
to the city of my fathers' tombs,
that I may build it."

Neh. 2:6 And the king,
and the queen was sitting beside him,
said to me,
"How long will your journey be?
And when will you return?"

And it seemed good
before the the face of the king
And he sent me.
And I gave to him a set time.

Neh. 2:7 And I said to the king,
"If it seems good to the king,
let letters be given to me
to the governors beyond The River,
to whom I will pass over until I come to Yahudah,
Neh. 2:8 and a letter to Asaph,
the keeper of the king's forest,
who can give to me timber
to set the beams
for the gates themselves nx
of the citadel which is at The House,
and for the wall of the city,
and for the house which I will enter."

And the king granted them to me
according to the good hand
of my Elohim upon me.

Neh. 2:9 And I came to the governors
beyond The River.
And I gave to them
the letters themselves nx of the king.

Now the king had sent with me
captains of the forces and horsemen.
Neh. 2:10 And Sanballat, the Horonite,
and Tobiyah, the Ammonite, heard of it.
And to them it was exceedingly bad
that a human being had come for the sake of seeking goodness
for the children of Yisra'el.

Neh. 2:11 And I came to Yerushalaim.
And I was there three days.
Neh. 2:12 And I got up at night,
I myself and a few men with me.
And I told no one what my Elohim
had put in my heart to do at Yerushalaim.

And no animal was with me except the animal on which I myself was riding.

Neh. 2:13 And I went out
at The Valley Gate at night,
then to before The Well of The Jackals,
then to The Dung Gate.
And I was looking at the walls of Yerushalaim
which had been broken down
and its gates

which had been consumed by fire.
Neh. 2:14 And I passed over to The Fountain Gate and to The King's Pool
but there was no room for the animal that was under me to pass over.

Neh. 2:15 And I was going up at night in the wadi.

And I was looking at the wall.

And I turned back.

And I entered into The Valley Gate.

And I returned.

Neh. 2:16 And the deputy rulers
did not know where I had gone,
nor what I myself had done.

And to the Yahudeans, or to the priests,
or to the nobles, or to the deputy rulers,
or to the others doing the work
I had not reported it.

Neh. 2:17 Then I said to them,
“You yourselves תַּכּוּ are seeing the badness which we ourselves are in,
how Yerushalaim is ruined,
and its gates have been burned with fire.
Come, and we will build
the wall itself תַּכּוּ of Yerushalaim.
Then we will not exist any longer
as a disgrace.”

Neh. 2:18 And I reported to them
of the hand itself תַּכּוּ of my Elohim
which had been good concerning me,
and also the words of the king
which he had spoken to me.

And they said,

“We will get up and we will build.”

And they strengthened their hands
for the sake of goodness.

Neh. 2:19 But Sanballat, the Horonite,
and Tobiyah the servant, the Ammonite,
and Geshem, the Arab, heard.

And they mocked at us.

And they ridiculed us.

And they said, “What is this thing

you yourselves תַּכּוּ are doing?

Are you yourselves תַּכּוּ rebelling against the king?”

Neh. 2:20 And I answered

they themselves תַּכּוּ.

And I said to them,

“The Elohim of The Heavens,

He Himself will cause us to prosper.

And we ourselves, His servants,

will stand up and build.

But for you there will be no portion,
or right, or memorial in Yerushalaim.”

Chapter 3

Neh. 3:1 And Elyashib, the great priest,
rose up, and his kindred, the priests.

And they built The Sheep Gate itself תַּכּוּ.

They set it apart.

And they stood up its doors.

And as far as The Tower of The Hundred
they set it apart,

as far as The Tower of Hanan'el.

Neh. 3:10 And next to them Yedayah, son of Harumaph, made repairs, even in front of his house. And next to him Hattush, son of Hashabneyah, made repairs.

Yedayah means praised of YAH.

Harumaph means flat of nose.

Hattush - meaning uncertain.

Hashabneyah means considered by YAH.

Neh. 3:11 Malkiyah, son of Harim, and Hashshub, son of Pahath-Mo'ab, repaired another section, and The Tower of The Ovens itself תַּח.

Malkiyah means YAH is my king.

Harim means flat nosed.

Hashshub means cunning.

Neh. 3:12 And next to him
Shallum, son of Hallohesh,
ruler of half the district of Yerushalaim,
made repairs, he and his daughters.

Shallum means repayment.

Hallohesh meaning uncertain.

Neh. 3:13 Hanun and those dwelling at Zanoah
repaired The Valley Gate itself תא.
They built it, and they stood up its doors,
its bolts and its bars,
and a thousand cubits of the wall,
as far as The Dung Gate.

Hanun means favored one.

Zanoah means rejected.

Neh. 3:14 And The Dung Gate itself תא
was repaired by Malkiyah, son of Rekab, ruler of the district of BayitHakkerem.
He built it and stood up its doors,
its bolts, and bars.

Neh. 3:15 And The Fountain Gate itself תא
was repaired by Shallum, son of Kol-Hozeh, ruler of the district of Mitzpah.
He built it and he covered it,
and he stood up its doors,
its bolts and its bars,
also the wall itself תא of The Pool of Shiloah
by the King's Garden, as far as the stairs going down from The City of David.

Shiloah means sent forth.

Neh. 3:16 After him Nehemyah, son of Azbuk,
ruler of half the district of BayitTzur,
made repairs as far as
in front of the tombs of David,
and to the man-made pool,
and as far as the house of the mighty men.

Nehemyah means comfort of YAH.

Azbuk means fierce exterminator.

Neh. 3:17 After him the Levites,
Rehum son of Bani, made repairs.
Next to him repaired Hashabyah,
ruler of half the district of Ke'ilah,
for his district.

Rehum means compassionate.

Bani means built by me.

Hashabyah means

YAH has considered.

Ke'ilah means citadel.

Neh. 3:18 After him their kindred,
Bavvai, son of Henadad,
ruler of the other half of the district of Ke'ilah,
made repairs.

Bavvai - Persian origin.

Henadad means favor of Hadad.

Neh. 3:19 And next to him Ezer,
son of Yahshua,
the ruler of Mitzpah,
repaired another section
before the going up to the armory at the corner.

Ezer means help.

Yahshua means YAH is deliverance.

Neh. 3:20 After him Baruk, son of Zabbai, eagerly repaired the other section
from the buttress to the door of the house of Elyashib, the great priest.

Baruk means blessing.

Zabbai means pure.

Neh. 3:21 After him Meremoth,
son of Uriyah, son of Hakkotz,
repaired another section
from the door of the house of Elyashib
to the end of the house of Elyashib.

Neh. 3:22 And after him the priests,
the men of the valley, made repairs.
Neh. 3:23 After him Binyamin and Hashshub
made repairs in front of their house.
After them Azaryah son of Ma'aseyah,
son of Ananyah,
made repairs near his house.

Ma'aseyah means the action of YAH.
Ananyah means YAH has covered.

Neh. 3:24 After him Binnui, son of Henadad,
repaired another section,
from the house of Azaryah to the angle,
even as far as the corner.

Binnui means built up.
Henadad means favor of Hadad.

Neh. 3:25 Palal, son of Uzai, made repairs
in front of the the corner and on the tower which projects
from the king's upper house
that was by the courtyard of the prison.
After him Pedayah, son of Parosh.

Palal means judge.
Uzai means strong.
Pedayah means
YAH has ransomed.
Parosh means a flea.

Neh. 3:26 And the Nethinim
were dwelling in Ophel
as far as in front of The Water Gate
toward the east,
and on the projecting tower.

Neh. 3:27 After him the Tekoites
repaired another section
in front of the great projecting tower
and as far as the wall of Ophel.

Neh. 3:28 Beyond The Horse Gate
the priests made repairs,
each in front of his own house.

Neh. 3:29 After them Tzadok, son of Immer,
made repairs in front of his own house.
After him Shemayah, son of Shekanyah,
keeper of the East Gate, made repairs.

Shemayah means YAH has heard.
Shekanyah means YAH has dwelt.

Neh. 3:30 After him Hananyah,
son of Shelemyah,
and Hanun, the sixth son of Tzalaph,
repaired another section.
After him Meshullam, son of Berekyah,
made repairs in front of his chamber.

Neh. 3:31 After him Malkiyah,
one of the goldsmiths,
made repairs as far as
the house of the Nethinim
and of the merchants,
in front of The Miphkad Gate,
and as far as the going up of the corner.

Neh. 3:32 And between the going up of the corner to The Sheep Gate,
the goldsmiths
and the merchants made repairs.

They are equivalent to 4:1 through 4:6 in the Hebrew text.

Chapter 4

Neh. 4:1 (H 3:33)

And it was when Sanballat heard that we ourselves

were building the wall itself נא.

And he was very angry,
even greatly enraged.

And he mocked at the Yahudeans.

Neh. 4:2 (H 3:34)

And he spoke
before the face of his kindred
and the forces of Shomeron.

And he said,

“What are these feeble Yahudeans doing?
Are they going to restore to themselves
the sacrifice?

Will they complete it in a day?

Will they revive the stones themselves נא

from the heaps of the rubbish,
those which have been burned?”

Neh. 4:3 (H 3:35)

And Tobiyah, the Ammonite,
was beside him.

And he said,

“Even whatever they build,
if a fox were to go up on it
then he will break down
the wall of their stones.”

Neh. 4:4 (H 3:36)

“Listen attentively, our Elohim!
Indeed, we have been despised.

And turn back their reproach
on their own heads!

And give them as a prey
into a land of captivity!

Neh. 4:5 (H 3:37)

And do not cover over
their moral perversity!
And do not let their offense be blotted out
from before Your face

because they have caused You to be grieved
before the faces of those building!”

Neh. 4:6 (H 3:38)

Then we built the wall itself נא.

And the entire wall was joined together
up to half of it.

And the people had a heart to work.

Note: Chapter 4 begins here in the Hebrew text.

Neh. 4:7 (H 4.1)

And it was when

Sanballat,

and Tobiyah,

and the Arabs,

and the Ammonites,

and the Ashdodites heard

that the walls of Yerushalaim

had gone up with soundness,

that the gaps had been stopped up.

And they their anger flared up exceedingly.

Neh. 4:8 (H 4.2)

And all of them conspired together

for the sake of coming

to fight against Yerushalaim

and to make a disturbance for it.

Neh. 4:9 (H 4.3)

But we prayed to our Elohim.

And we caused a guard

to stand up over them

day and night before their faces.

Neh. 4:10 (H 4.4)

And Yahudah said,
“The strength of the burden bearers
has faltered.
And there the rubbish is abundant
and we ourselves
are not able to build the wall.”

Neh. 4:11 (H 4.5)

Then our oppressors said,
“They will not know nor see
until when we come into the midst of them.
And we will kill them.
And we will cause
the work itself תא to cease.”

Neh. 4:12 (H 4.6)

And it was when
the Yahudeans came
who were dwelling beside them.
And they said to us ten times,
“From every place you turn back,
they are against us.”

Neh. 4:13 (H 4.7)

Then I stationed men
behind the lowest parts of the wall,
at the exposed places.
And I stationed the people themselves תא
by families, with their swords,
their spears, and their bows.

Neh. 4:14 (H 4.8)

And I observed.
And I stood up.
And I said to the nobles,
and to the deputy rulers,
and to the rest of the people,
“Do not be afraid because of them!
Remember YAHWEH Himself תא
the great and the awesome One,
and fight on account of your kindred,
your sons and your daughters,
your wives and your houses!”

Neh. 4:15 (H 4.9)

And it was when
our adversaries had heard
that it was known to us,
and that YAHWEH
had frustrated their conspiracy itself תא.
And all of us returned to the wall,
each man to his work.

Neh. 4:16 (H 4.10)

And it existed from that very day
that half of my young men
were doing according to the work
and the other half were strengthening them,
even with the spears, the shields,
and the bows, and the body armor.

And the leaders were behind
all the house of Yahudah,

Neh. 4:17 (H 4.11)

those building on the wall,
and those carrying burdens, those loading,
with one hand working at the work
and the other holding a weapon.

Neh. 4:18 (H 4.12)

And those building,
each man had his sword

girded upon his side as he built.
And the one sounding on the ram's horn
was beside me.

Neh. 4:19 (H 4.13)
And I said to the nobles,
and to the deputy rulers,
and to the rest of the people,
"The work is great and spread out.
And we ourselves are being separated
upon the wall, far from one another.
Neh. 4:20 (H 4.14)
In the place where you hear
the sound itself נח of the ram's horn, assemble there to us!
Our Elohim will fight for us!"

Neh. 4:21 (H 4.15)
Then we ourselves
labored with the work.
And half of them
were strengthening with spears
from the rising of the dawn
until the stars were appearing.

Neh. 4:22 (H 4.16)
Also at that time I said to the people,
"Each man and his servant
is to spend the night
in the midst of Yerushalaim.
And they will be to us a guard in the night
and labor in the day."

Neh. 4:23 (H 4.17)
And neither I myself,
nor my kindred,
nor my servants,
nor the men of the guard
who were behind me,
none of us took off our garments.
Each man had his weapon,
even at the water.

Chapter 5

Neh. 5:1 And there was a great outcry
of the people and their wives
against their kindred, the Yahudeans.

Neh. 5:2 And there were those saying,
"We, our sons, and our daughters are many.
And we will take grain.
And we will eat.
And we will live."

Neh. 5:3 And there were those
who were saying,
"Our lands,
and our vineyards,
and our houses
we ourselves have mortgaged.
And we will take grain
on account of the hunger."

Neh. 5:4 And there were those
who were saying,
"We have borrowed silver
for the king's tribute
on our lands and vineyards.
Neh. 5:5 And now our flesh
is like the flesh of our kindred,
our children like their children.
And behold!
We ourselves are subjecting
our sons themselves נח

and our daughters themselves תא
to be slaves.
And some of our daughters
have already been subjected.
And there is no power in our hands.
And our lands and our vineyards belong to other men.”

Neh. 5:6 And my anger blazed up exceedingly when I heard their outcry itself תא
and these words themselves תא.

Neh. 5:7 And my heart ruled over me.
And I contended
with the nobles themselves תא
and with the deputy rulers themselves תא.
And I said to them,
“You yourselves תא are exacting usury,
one man against his kindred.”
And I set against them a great assembly.

Neh. 5:8 Then I said to them,
“We ourselves have redeemed
our kindred themselves תא, the Yahudeans,
those having been sold to the nations,
according to our ability among us.
But you yourselves תא are even selling
your brothers themselves תא!
And they have been sold to us!”
And they were silent.
And they found no word.
Neh. 5:9 And I said, “The thing which you yourselves תא are doing is not good!
Should you not be walking in the fear of our Elohim
because of the reproach of the nations,
our adversaries?

Neh. 5:10 And also, I myself, my kindred,
and my servants,
are lending to them silver and grain.
Now abandon this usury itself תא!
Neh. 5:11 Return to them now, even today,
their lands, their vineyards,
their olive trees, and their houses,
and even the hundredth part of the silver,
and of the grain, and of the new wine,
and of the oil, which you yourselves תא
have taken from them!”
Neh. 5:12 And they said, “We will return it.
And from them we will ask nothing.
According to what
you yourself תא are saying,
according to this we will do.”

Then I called the priests themselves תא.
And I caused them to swear to do
according to this very word.
Neh. 5:13 I also shook out
the fold of my garment.
And I said, “According to this may YAHWEH
shake out any man himself תא
who does not cause
this word itself תא to stand
from his house and from his labor;
even thus may he
be shaken out and emptied!”
And all the assembly said, “Amen!”
And they praised YAHWEH Himself תא.
And the people did according to this word.

Neh. 5:14 Also, from the day

when I myself nx was appointed to be their governor in the land of Yahudah, from the twentieth year even until the thirty second year
of Artaxerxes, the king,
twelve years, I myself and my kindred
have not eaten the food of the governor.
Neh. 5:15 But the former governors who were before me
had caused heaviness upon the people.
And they had taken from them
in food and wine,
besides forty shekels of silver also.
Their servants also ruled over the people.
But I myself have not done so because of the reverence of YAHWEH.
Neh. 5:16 And I also, in the work of this wall,
I caused it to be strengthened.
And we purchased no land.
And all my servants
had been gathered there concerning the work.

Neh. 5:17 And at my table
were one hundred and fifty of the Yahudeans
and deputy rulers,
besides those who came to us
from the nations which were all around us.

Neh. 5:18 And that which was prepared for one day
was one ox, six choice sheep.
And birds were prepared for me
even every ten days
among all kinds of wine for many.
But among this
I sought no food of the governor
because the bondage
was heavy on this people.

Neh. 5:19 Take note of me, my Elohim,
for the goodness of everything that I have done concerning this people.

Chapter 6

Neh. 6:1 And it was when Sanballat,
and Tobiyah, and Geshem, the Arab,
and the rest of our adversaries heard
that I had built the wall itself nx,
and that there were no breaches left in it,
though at that time
I had not caused the doors
to be stood up in the gates.

Neh. 6:2 And Sanballat and Geshem sent to me saying,
"Come, and we will meet together
in the villages in the plain of Ono."
But they were planning to do harm to me.

Neh. 6:3 And I sent messengers
to them saying,
"I myself am doing a great work
and I am not able to come down.
Why should the work cease
on account of my I leaving it and I come down to you?"

Neh. 6:4 And they sent me
according to this word four times.
And I replied to they themselves nx
according to this word.

Neh. 6:5 And Sanballat sent to me
according to this word

a fifth time with his servant himself תא.

And an open letter was in his hand.

Neh. 6:6 In it was written:

"Among the nations it has been heard and Geshem is saying that you yourself תא
and the Yahudeans are planning to rebel.

For this reason you yourself תא
are building the wall.

And you yourself תא are going to be to them as king

according to these words.

Neh. 6:7 And you have also appointed prophets

for the sake of proclaiming concerning you
at Yerushalaim saying,
'A king is in Yahudah!'

And now it is being heard by the king
according to these words.

And now come,
and we will take counsel together.

Neh. 6:8 Then I sent to him saying,

"Such things as this do not exist
as what you yourself תא are saying.

Indeed, you yourself תא
are inventing them out of of your own heart."

Neh. 6:9 Indeed, all of them were afraid of us ourselves תא saying,

"Let their hands cease from the work.
Then it will not be done."

But now, strengthen my hands!

Neh. 6:10 Then I myself went to the house of Shemayah,

son of Delayah, son of Mehetab'el.

And he was being restrained.

And he said,

"Let us meet in The House of YAHWEH,
in the midst of The Temple.

And let us shut the doors of The Temple
because they are coming
for the sake of killing you.

Even at night they are coming
for the sake of killing you."

Shemayah means YAH has heard.

Delayah means YAH has delivered.

Mehetab'el means improved by El.

Neh. 6:11 And I said, "Will a man like me flee?

And who is there like me
who will go into The Temple and live?
I will not go in!"

Neh. 6:12 And I discerned.

And behold!

YAHWEH had not sent him!

Indeed, he had spoken
this prophecy against me.

And Tobiyah and Sanballat had hired him,

Neh. 6:13 because he was a hireling,

in order that I would be afraid,
and do according to this and offend.

Then it would exist for them
as a bad name for me
for the sake of disgracing me.

Neh. 6:14 My Elohim,

remember Tobiyah and Sanballat,
according to these works of theirs,
and also No'adyah, the prophetess,
and the rest of the prophets
who would have been afraid of me myself תא.

Neh. 6:15 And the wall was completed
on the twenty fifth of the month of Elul,
in fifty two days.

Neh. 6:16 And it existed
when all our adversaries had heard that all the nations all around were afraid.
And they fell exceedingly in their own eyes.
And they recognized that our Elohim Himself תא
had done this work.

Neh. 6:17 Also, in those days,
many of the nobles of Yahudah
were sending letters to Tobiyah.
And those of Tobiyah were coming to them.

Neh. 6:18 Indeed, many in Yahudah were sworn to him as their master
because he was the son-in-law
of Shekanyah, son of Arah,
and his son Yahohanan,
had married the daughter of Meshullam,
son of Berekyah.

Neh. 6:19 They were also speaking concerning his good deeds to my face.
And my words were being given out to him.
Tobiyah had sent letters
for the sake of frightening me.

Chapter 7

Neh. 7:1 And it was when the wall had been built
and I had stood up the doors.
And the gatekeepers, and the singers,
and the Levites had been appointed.

Neh. 7:2 And I charged Hanani himself תא, my brother,
and Hananyah himself תא,
the leader of the citadel,
concerning Yerushalaim
because he was a trustworthy man and revered YAHWEH Himself תא
more than many.

Neh. 7:3 And I said to them,
"The gates of Yerushalaim
are not to be opened until the sun rises.
And while they are standing by,
cause the doors to be shut and bolt them.
And cause guards to be appointed
of those dwelling in Yerushalaim,
each man at his watch,
and each man in front of his own house."

Neh. 7:4 And the city was wide
on both sides and large,
but the people were few within it
and the houses had not been built.

Neh. 7:5 And my Elohim set it in my heart.
And I assembled the nobles themselves תא,
and the deputy rulers themselves תא,
and the people themselves תא,
for the sake of registering them
by genealogy.

And I found a scroll of the genealogy
of those who had come up at the beginning.
And I found written in it:

Neh. 7:6 These are the children of the province,
those coming up
from the captivity of the exiles whom Nebukadnetzar, king of Babel,

had exiled,
and who have returned to Yerushalaim
and to Yahudah, each man to his city,
7:7 who came with Zerubbabel,
Yahshua, Nehemyah, Azaryah, Ra'amyah, Nahamani, Mordekai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Ba'anah.

one hundred and twenty three;
Neh. 7:33 men of the other Nebo,
fifty two;
Neh. 7:34 sons of the other Elam,
one thousand two hundred and fifty four;
Neh. 7:35 sons of Harim,
three hundred and twenty;
Neh. 7:36 sons of Yericho,

three hundred and forty five;
Neh. 7:37 sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono,
seven hundred and twenty one;
Neh. 7:38 sons of Sena'ah,
three thousand nine hundred and thirty.

Neh. 7:39 The priests:
sons of Yedayah, of the house of Yahshua,
nine hundred and seventy three;
Neh. 7:40 sons of Immer,
one thousand and fifty two;
Neh. 7:41 sons of Pashhur,
one thousand two hundred and forty seven;
Neh. 7:42 sons of Harim,
one thousand and seventeen.

Neh. 7:43 The Levites:
sons of Yahshua, of Kadmi'el,
of the sons of Hodevah, seventy four.

Neh. 7:44 The singers:
sons of Asaph,
one hundred and forty eight.

Neh. 7:45 The gatekeepers:
sons of Shallum, sons of Ater,
sons of Talmon, sons of Akkub,
sons of Hatita, sons of Shobai,
one hundred and thirty eight.

Neh. 7:46 The Nethinim: sons of Tsiha,
sons of Hasupha, sons of Tabba'oth,

Neh. 7:47 sons of Keyros, sons of Si'a,
sons of Padon,

Neh. 7:48 sons of Lebanah, sons of Hagaba,
sons of Shalmal,

Neh. 7:49 sons of Hanan, sons of Giddel,
sons of Gahar,

Neh. 7:50 sons of Re'ayah, sons of Retzin,
sons of Nekoda,

Neh. 7:51 sons of Gazzam, sons of Uzza,
sons of Paseah,

Neh. 7:52 sons of Besai, sons of Me'unim,
sons of Nephishesim,

Neh. 7:53 sons of Bakbuk, sons of Hakupha,
sons of Harhur,

Neh. 7:54 sons of Batslith, sons of Mehida,
sons of Harsha,

Neh. 7:55 sons of Barkos, sons of Sisera,
sons of Temah,

Neh. 7:56 sons of Netziyah,
and sons of Hatipha.

Neh. 7:57 The sons of Shelomoh's servants:
sons of Sotai, sons of Sophereth,
sons of Perida,

Neh. 7:58 sons of Ya'ala, sons of Darkon,
sons of Giddel,

Neh. 7:59 sons of Shephatyah, sons of Hattil,
sons of Pokereth of Tzebaim, sons of Amon.

Neh. 7:60 All the Nethinim
and the sons of Shelomoh's servants
were three hundred and ninety two.

Neh. 7:61 And these were those
going up from Tel Melah,
Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon, and Immer.
But they were not able to show their father's house
or their seed, whether they were of Yisra'el:
Neh. 7:62 sons of Delayah, sons of Tobiyah,
sons of Nekoda,
six hundred and forty two.

Neh. 7:63 And of the priests:
sons of Habayah, sons of Hakkots,
sons of Barzillai,

who took a wife of the daughters
of Barzillai the Gil'adite,
and were called by their name.

Neh. 7:64 These sought their registry
among those enrolled by genealogy,
but it was not found.
And they were defiled,
separated from the priesthood.

Neh. 7:65 And the governor said to them that they were not to eat
from the most set apart things
until a priest stood up with the Urim and Tummim.

Neh. 7:66 All the assembly together
was forty two thousand
three hundred and sixty,
Neh. 7:67 besides their male
and female servants.
These were seven thousand
three hundred and thirty seven.
And there were to them
two hundred and forty five
men and women singers.

Neh. 7:68 Their horses were seven hundred and thirty six,
their mules two hundred and forty five,
Note: This verse
is omitted from the Hebrew text.

Neh. 7:69 (H 7.68)
camels four hundred and thirty five,
asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

Neh. 7:70 (H 7.69)
And some of the heads of the fathers' houses
contributed to the work.
The governor gave to the treasury
one thousand gold drachmas, fifty basins,
and five hundred and thirty priestly garments.

Neh. 7:71 (H 7.70)
Some of the heads of the fathers' houses
gave to the treasury of the work
twenty thousand gold drachmas,
and two thousand two hundred silver minas.

Neh. 7:72 (H 7.71)
And the rest of the people
gave twenty thousand gold drachmas,
two thousand silver minas,
and sixty seven priestly garments.

Neh. 7:73 (H 7.72)
And the priests, and the Levites,
and the gatekeepers, and the singers,
and some of the people, and the Nethinim,
and all Yisra'el dwelt in their cities.
This is a very important verse.
It reveals that ALL of Yisra'el
was in their cities.

This indicates that there has never been a "lost tribe".
Scripture itself proclaims this fact!

Chapter 8

Neh. 8:1 And all the people had been gathered
as one man to the square
which was in front of The Water Gate.

And they spoke to Ezra, the scribe,
for the sake of bringing the scroll itself נא
of The Torah of Moshe
which YAHWEH had given as direction
to Yisra'el itself נא.

Neh. 8:2 And Ezra, the priest, brought The Torah itself נא
before the faces of the assembly,
from men and even to women,
even everyone with understanding,
for the sake of listening attentively,
on the first day of the seventh month.

This day is known as Yom Kippur.

Neh. 8:3 And he read it aloud
before the square
which is before The Water Gate
from dawn until the middle of the day,
in front of the men and the women,
even those with understanding.
And the ears of all the people were toward the Scroll of The Torah.

*There is great value
in reading Scripture out loud.
It impacts the mind much more profoundly than reading it silently.*

Neh. 8:4 And Ezra, the scribe, stood on a tower of wood
which had been made for the matter.
And beside him stood Mattithyah, and Shema,
and Anayah, and Uriyah,
and Hilkiyah, and Ma'aseyah
at his right hand.
And at his left stood Pedayah, and Misha'el,
and Malkiyah,
and Hashum, and Hashbaddanah, Zekaryah, Meshullam.

*Mattithyah means gift of YAH.
Shema means something heard.
Anayah means YAH as answered.
Uriyah means light of YAH.
Hilkiyah means portion of YAH.
Ma'aseyah means work of YAH.
Pedayah means YAH has ransomed.
Misha'el means who is as El.
Malkiyah means YAH is my king.
Hashum means enriched.
Hashbaddanah means considerate judge.
Zekaryah means YAH has remembered.
Meshullam means friendly.*

Neh. 8:5 And Ezra opened the scroll before the eyes of all the people
because he was above all the people.
And when he opened it
all the people stood up.

Neh. 8:6 And Ezra blessed
YAHWEH Himself נא,
The Great Elohim.
Then all the people responded,
"Amen, Amen!"
as they were lifting up their hands.

And they bowed their heads.
And they worshipped YAHWEH
with their faces to the ground.

Neh. 8:7 And Yahshua, and Bani,
and Sherebyah, Yamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiyah, Ma'aseyah, Kelita, Azaryah, Yozabad, Hanan, Pelayah,
and the Levites

caused the people themselves nx
to have understanding of The Torah.
And the people were fixed in their places.

Neh. 8:8 And they read aloud with The Scroll concerning the instructions of YAHWEH.
And they gave the sense.
And they caused them to understand
according to the reading.

There are times when it is vital to give the sense of the words of Scripture.
Many times the full meaning is not clear
from just the words themselves.

Neh. 8:9 And Nehemyah,
he was the governor,
and Ezra, the priest, the scribe,
and the Levites,
those causing understanding
for the people themselves nx,
said to all the people,
“This day is set apart
to YAHWEH, your Elohim.
You are not to mourn yourself,
and you are not to weep.”,
because all the people were weeping
as they listened attentively
to the words themselves nx of The Torah.

Neh. 8:10 Then he said to them,
“Go!
Eat the fat and drink the sweet!
And send portions to those
for whom nothing has been prepared.

Indeed, this day is set apart to YAHWEH
and you are not to be grieved
because the joy of YAHWEH,
it is your strength!”

Neh. 8:11 And the Levites
were causing all the people to be silent saying, “Be quiet!
Indeed, the day is set apart
and you are not to be grieved.”

Neh. 8:12 And all the people went to eat, and to drink, and to send portions,
and to make a great rejoicing
because they had understanding according to the words
which had been declared to them.

Neh. 8:13 And on the second day
the heads of the fathers of all the people,
the priests, and the Levites
had been gathered to Ezra, the scribe
even for the sake of causing them to have insight
concerning the words of The Torah.

Neh. 8:14 And they found
written in The Torah,
which YAHWEH had given as direction
by the hand of Moshe,
that the children of Yisra’el
were to dwell in booths
at the festival of the seventh month.

Neh. 8:15 And that they were to cause it to be heard and to pass it over into all their cities,
and into Yerushalaim saying,

“Go out to the mountains
and bring olive branches,
branches of oil trees,
and myrtle branches,
and palm branches,
and branches of leafy trees
for the sake of making booths
according to what is written.”

Neh. 8:16 And the people went out.
And they brought them.
And they made themselves booths,
each one on the roof of his house,
and in their courtyards,
and in the courtyards
of The House of YAHWEH,
and in the square of The Water Gate,
and in the square of The Gate of Ephraim.

Neh. 8:17 And the entire assembly of those having returned from the captivity
made booths.
And they sat in the booths.

Indeed, the children of Yisra'el
had not done according to this from the days of Yahoshua, son of Nun,
until that very day.
And there was exceedingly great rejoicing.

Neh. 8:18 And he read aloud
with the scroll of The Torah of YAHWEH
day by day,
from the first day until the last day.

And they prepared the festival seven days.
And on the eighth day
there was an assembly,
according to the regulations.

Chapter 9

Neh. 9:1 And on the twenty fourth day
of this month
the children of Yisra'el had gathered with fasting
and with sack cloths,
and dust upon them.

Neh. 9:2 And the seed of Yisra'el
had been separated
from all the children of foreigners.
And they stood.
And they themselves confessed concerning their offenses
and the moral perversities of their fathers,

Neh. 9:3 And they stood in their place.
And they read aloud
with The Scroll of the Torah
of YAHWEH, their Elohim,
a fourth of the day.
And a fourth
they were confessing themselves
and prostrating themselves
to YAHWEH, their Elohim.

Neh. 9:4 Then Yahshua and Bani, Kadmi'el, Shebanyah,
Bunni, Sherebyah, Bani, and Kenani
stood upon the stairs of the Levites.
And they cried out with a loud voice
to YAHWEH, their Elohim.

Neh. 9:5 Then the Levites,

Yahshua and Kadmi'el, Bani, Hashabneyah, Sherebyah, Hodayah,
Shebanyah, and Petahyah, said,
"Stand up!
Bless YAHWEH Himself תָּא, your Elohim,
from eternity to eternity!

And may they bless Your majestic Name,
And may it be exalted
above every blessing and praise!

Neh. 9:6 You Yourself תָּא are YAHWEH,
You alone!
The One Himself תָּא making the skies,
The Heavens of the skies
and all their assembly,
the earth and everything which is upon it,
the seas and everything which is in them!
And You Yourself תָּא
are The One causing to live
all of they themselves תָּא!
Even the assemblies of the skies
are bowing themselves to You!

Neh. 9:7 You Yourself תָּא are He,
YAHWEH, The Elohim, Who chose Abram.
And You brought him out
from Ur of the Chaldees.
And You gave him the name Abraham.
Neh. 9:8 And You found
his heart itself תָּא faithful
before Your face.
And You cut a covenant with him
for the sake of giving the land itself תָּא
of the Kena'anites, the Hittites, the Amorites,
and the Perizzites, and the Yebusites,
and the Girgashites,
for the sake of giving it to his seed.

And You have caused to stand
Your words themselves תָּא!
Indeed, You Yourself תָּא are just!

Neh. 9:9 And You saw the affliction itself תָּא
of our fathers in Mitsraim.
And You listened attentively to their outcry itself תָּא
beside The Sea of Reeds.

Neh. 9:10 And You gave signs and wonders against Pharaoh,
and against all his servants,
and against all the people of his land.

Indeed, You knew that they would act arrogantly against them.

And You made a Name for Yourself,
as it is this day.

Neh. 9:11 And You divided the sea
before their faces.
And they passed over
into the midst of the sea on the dry land.
And those themselves תָּא pursuing them
You caused to be thrown into the depths,
like a stone, into the mighty waters.

Neh. 9:12 And with a column of cloud
You guided them by day,
and with a column of fire by night,
to illuminate for them
the way itself תָּא in which they were to go.

Neh. 9:13 "And You descended upon Mount Sinai.
And You spoke with them from The Heavens.
And You gave to them upright regulations and instructions of truth, good rules and directives.

Neh. 9:14 And Your set apart Sabbath itself נא
You caused them to know.
And directives, and rules, and instructions You gave as direction to them by the hand of Moshe, Your servant.

Neh. 9:15 And food from The Heavens You gave to them for their hunger.
And water from the rock You brought forth to them for their thirst.

And You said to them to go in for the sake of possessing the land itself נא, for which You had lifted Your hand itself נא in an oath for the sake of giving it to them.

Neh. 9:16 But they and our fathers acted arrogantly.
And they hardened their necks themselves נא.
And they did not listen attentively to Your directives.

Neh. 9:17 And they refused to listen attentively.
And they did not remember Your extraordinary acts that You had done among them.
And they hardened their necks themselves נא.
And they appointed a leader for the sake of returning to their bondage on account of their rebellion.

But You Yourself נא are a forgiving El, showing favor, and compassionate, slow to anger, and of great kindness!
And You did not abandon them,
Neh. 9:18 even when they made for themselves a molded calf and said,
'This is your god that brought you up from Mitsraim.'
and made great blasphemies.

Neh. 9:19 And You Yourself נא, on account of Your abundant compassion, did not abandon them in the wilderness.
The column itself נא of the cloud did not depart from them by day for the sake of leading them on the way, nor the column itself נא of the fire by night for the sake of illuminating for them the way in which they were to go.

Neh. 9:20 And You gave Your beneficial Divine Nature for the sake of instructing them.
And You did not withhold Your manna from their mouths.
And You gave water to them for their thirst.

ruach - wind or breath.
While this is traditionally "translated" as 'spirit' that is not what this term means.
To do so is to incorrectly "translate" the word.

'Spirit' is a Greek term.
The concept never existed
until the Greek culture arose.

You do not have a 'spirit'.
But you do have breath.
And that is the essence of the term.

It is the "living breath of YAHWEH"
that is instilled in each being at their creation.
It is "the breath of life."

In the Hebrew culture it is viewed as that which penetrates
to the deepest parts of the person,
moving in and out of them.
As it does this it is perceived
to "pick up" the very essence of the person,
their character, or their "nature".

When considering YAHWEH
this becomes "The Divine Nature".
And it is THIS which is in view
each time the term is used in reference to Him.

Neh. 9:21 And for forty years
You sustained them in the wilderness.
They lacked nothing.
Their garments did not wear out,
and their feet did not swell.

Neh. 9:22 "And You gave to them kingdoms and peoples.
And You apportioned to them their lot.

And they took possession of the land itself נא of Sihon,
and the land itself נא of the king of Heshbon,
and the land itself נא of Og, king of Bashan.

Neh. 9:23 And You multiplied their children
like the stars of the skies.
And You brought them into the land
of which You had spoken to their fathers
for the sake of going in to possess.

Neh. 9:24 And the children went in.
And they possessed the land itself נא.
And You humbled before their faces
those themselves נא who were dwelling
in the land, the Kena'anites.
And You gave them into their hands,
and their kings themselves נא,
and the people themselves נא of the land,
for the sake of doing with them
according to their desire.

Neh. 9:25 And they captured walled cities
and a rich soil.
And they possessed houses
filled with every goodness,
wells already dug, vineyards,
and olive trees, and fruit trees,
in abundance.
And they ate.
And they were satisfied.
And they grew fat.
And they delighted themselves
on account of Your great goodness.

Neh. 9:26 But they became resistant.
And they rebelled against You.
And they cast
Your Instructions themselves נא
behind their backs.

And they killed
Your prophets themselves nx
who had testified among them
for the sake of causing them
to return to You.
And they committed great blasphemies.

Neh. 9:27 Then You gave them into the hand of their oppressors.
And they caused distress for them.
And in the time of their distress
they cried out to You.

And You Yourself nx listened attentively
from The Heavens.
And according to
Your abundant compassions
You gave them deliverers.
And they delivered them
from the hand of their oppressors.

Neh. 9:28 But on account of having rest for themselves
they turned back to doing what is bad before Your face.

Then You abandoned them
into the hand of their adversaries.
And they ruled among them.

Then they turned back.
And they cried out to You.

And You Yourself nx listened attentively
from The Heavens.
And You caused them to be delivered
according to Your compassions many times.

Neh. 9:29 And You testified against them for the sake of bringing them back to Your Instructions.
But they acted arrogantly.
And they did not listen attentively
to Your directives.
And they offended against Your regulations,
which if a human being will do them
then he will live on account of them.

And they gave a rebellious shoulder.
And they hardened their necks.
And they would not listen attentively.

There are several terms
used in this section that differ
from traditional translations.
This is due to a failure
to properly understand
the teachings of Scripture.

Scripture teaches voluntary action
for each person.
It's your choice to do, or to not do,
what YAHWEH tells you He desires.

There is no forced "obedience".
The term traditionally translated as "obey"
means to listen attentively.
That's all!

The concept of "obedience"
was ADDED BY HUMAN TRADITION
- not by YAHWEH!

If you don't listen attentively
you will not understand what YAHWEH desires.
If you do not understand then you will not do what He desires.

You have REJECTED HIS WORD!
You are in a state of rebellion!

There is no "law" that's mandatory.
Torah means instruction.
It does not mean "law" in Scripture.
That teaching is based on human tradition alone.

There is also no "commandment".
Since Torah means instruction
it means you are given directions,
NOT commandments.

You must choose.

Will you listen attentively?
Will you choose to follow
YAHWEH's instruction, His directives?

When you refuse to follow them
you are in a state of rebellion.
You also have offended Him
because He has told you
what He desires,
but you've chosen to refuse to listen to The One Who created you!

The very essence of "sin"
is this very act of self-will.

Neh. 9:30 And You drew close over them
many years.
And You testified against them
with Your Divine Nature
by the hand of Your prophets.
But they would not give ear.

Then You gave them into the hand
of the peoples of the lands.

Neh. 9:31 But on account of
Your abundant compassions
You did not make an end of them.
And You did not abandon them,
because You are an El of favor.
And You Yourself nx are compassionate.

Neh. 9:32 And now, our Elohim,
The Great,
The Mighty,
and The Awesome El,
The One protecting
The Covenant and the kindness,
not few before Your face
are all the troubles themselves nx
which have been found,
for our kings, and for our leaders,
for our priests, and for our prophets,
for our fathers, and for all Your people,
from the days of the kings of Asshur
until this very day.

Neh. 9:33 But You Yourself nx are just concerning everything
that has been coming upon us!
Indeed, You have done truth!
But we have done moral wrong!

Neh. 9:34 And our kings themselves nx,
our leaders, our priests, and our fathers,
have not done Your Instruction.
And they have not paid attention
to Your directives or to Your testimonies,
with which You have testified against them.

Neh. 9:35 And they, in their kingdom,
and according to Your great goodness
that You have given to them,

and in the spacious and rich land
which You set before their faces,
they have not served You.
And they have not turned back from their evil deeds.

Neh. 9:36 Behold!
We ourselves are servants today!
And the land which You have given to our fathers
for the sake of eating its fruit itself תא
and its goodness itself תא, behold!
We ourselves are servants upon it!
9:37 And its abundant produce is for the kings You have set over us
on account of our offenses.
And they are ruling over our bodies
and our livestock at their pleasure.
And we ourselves are in great distress!

Chapter 10 begins here in the Hebrew text.

9:38 (H 10.1)
And on account of of all this
we ourselves are cutting a covenant.
And we are writing it.
And our leaders, our Levites, our priests
are setting their seal upon it.”

Chapter 10

Neh. 10:1(H 10.2)
And those who set their seal were:
Nehemyah the governor,
son of Hakalyah, and Tzidkiyah,
Neh. 10:2 (H 10.3)
Serayah, Azaryah, Yirmeyah,
Neh. 10:3 (H 10.4)
Pashhur, Amaryah, Malkiyah,
Neh. 10:4 (H 10.5)
Hattush, Shebanyah, Malluk,
Neh. 10:5 (H 10.6)
Harim, Meremoth, Obadyah,
Neh. 10:6 (H 10.7)
Dani'el, Ginnethon, Baruk,
Neh. 10:7 (H 10.8)
Meshullam, Abiyah, Miyamin,
Neh. 10:8 (H 10.9)
Ma'azyah, Bilgai, and Shemayah.
These were the priests.

Neh. 10:9 (H 10.10)
And the Levites:
Yahshua son of Atzanyah, Binnui,
of the sons of Henadad, Kadmi'el.

Neh. 10:10 (H 10.11)
And their kindred:
Shebanyah, Hodiyah, Kelita,
Pelayah, Hanan,

Neh. 10:11 (H 10.12)
Mika, Rehob, Hashabiyah,
Neh. 10:12 (H 10.13)
Zakkur, Sherebyah, Shebanyah,
Neh. 10:13 (H 10.14)
Hodiyah, Bani, and Beninu.

Neh. 10:14 (H 10.15)
The leaders of the people:
Parosh, Pahath-Mo'ab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,
Neh. 10:15 (H 10.16)
Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,
Neh. 10:16 (H 10.17)
Adoniyah, Bigwai, Adin,
Neh. 10:17 (H 10.18)

Ater, Hizkiyah, Azzur,
Neh. 10:18 (H 10.19)
Hodiyah, Hashum, Betsai,
Neh. 10:19 (H 10.20)
Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,
Neh. 10:20 (H 10.21)
Magpi'ash, Meshullam, Hezir,
Neh. 10:21 (H 10.22)
Mesheyzab'el, Tzadok, Yaddua,
Neh. 10:22 (H 10.23)
Pelatyah, Hanan, Anayah,
Neh. 10:23 (H 10.24)
Hoshea, Hananyah, Hashshub,
Neh. 10:24 (H 10.25)
Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,
Neh. 10:25 (H 10.26)
Rehum, Hashabnah, Ma'aseyah,
Neh. 10:26 (H 10.27)
Ahiyah, Hanan, Anan,
Neh. 10:27 (H 10.28)
Malluk, Harim, Ba'anah.

Neh. 10:28 (H 10.29)
And the rest of the people,
the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers,
the singers, the Nethinim,
and all those who had separated themselves
from the peoples of the lands
according to the Instruction of YAHWEH,
their wives, their sons, and their daughters,
all who had knowledge and understanding,
Neh. 10:29 (H 10.30)
were joining with their kindred, their nobles,
and were entering into a curse and into an oath
for the sake of walking
according to The Instruction of YAHWEH
which He had given by the hand of Moshe,
the servant of of YAHWEH,
and for the sake of protecting and doing
all the directives themselves תא
of YAHWEH, our Sovereign,
and His regulations and His rules;
Neh. 10:30 (H 10.31)
and that we will not give our daughters
as wives to the peoples of the land,
nor take their daughters themselves תא
for our sons;
Neh. 10:31 (H 10.32)
and the peoples of the land,
those bringing the wares themselves תא
or any grain on The Sabbath
for the sake of selling it,
we will not accept it from them
on The Sabbath
or on a set apart day.
And we will leave alone the produce of the seventh year itself תא
and the usury of every hand.

Neh. 10:32 (H 10.33)
And we will cause directives
to stand concerning us
to set upon ourselves
one third of the shekel according to a year
for the service of The House of our Elohim,
Neh. 10:33 (H 10.34)
for the showbread,
and for the continual grain offering,
and for the continual olah of The Sabbaths,
of the New Moons, for the appointed times,
and for the set apart offerings,
and for the offense offerings

for the sake of making atonement
concerning Yisra'el,
and all the work of The House of our Elohim.

Neh. 10:34 (H 10.35)
And we cast the lots
concerning the offering of the wood
among the priests,
and the Levites,
and the people,
for the sake of bringing it
to The House of our Elohim
by the houses of our fathers
at the appointed times year by year,
for the sake of burning
on the slaughter site
of YAHWEH, our Elohim,
as it has been written in The Instructions;
Neh. 10:35 (H 10.36)
and for the sake of bringing the first fruits themselves תא of our soil
and the first fruits of all fruit of all trees,
year by year,
to the House of YAHWEH,
Neh. 10:36 (H 10.37)
and the firstborn themselves תא
of our children and our animals
as it has been written in The Instructions,
and the firstborn themselves תא
of our herds and our flocks
for the sake of causing them to come
to The House of our Elohim,
to the priests, those ministering
in The House of our Elohim.

Neh. 10:37 (H 10.38)
And the first fruits themselves תא
of our dough,
and of our elevated offerings,
and of the fruit from all kinds of trees,
of the new wine and of the oil,
we will bring for the priests,
to the chambers
of The House of our Elohim,
and the tithes of our soil to the Levites.
And they, the Levites,
are to receive the tithings
in all towns of our works.

Neh. 10:38 (H 10.39)
And the priest, a son of Aharon,
will be with the Levites
when the Levites are receiving tithes.
And the Levites are to bring up a tithe itself תא of the tithes
to The House of our Elohim,
to the chambers of the storehouse.

Neh. 10:39 (H 10.40)
Indeed, the children of Yisra'el
and the children of Levi
will bring the elevated offering itself תא,
the grain, the new wine, and the oil.
And the vessels of The Set Apart Place
will be there,
and the priests who are ministering,
and the gatekeepers, and the singers.
And we will not abandon
The House itself תא of our Elohim.

Chapter 11

Neh. 11:1 And the leaders of the people were dwelling in Yerushalaim.
And the rest of the people

caused lots to fall
for the sake of bringing one out of ten
for the sake of dwelling in Yerushalaim,
the set apart city.
And nine tenths were in the other cities.

Neh. 11:2 And the people gave a blessing to all the men
who were volunteering themselves
to dwell in Yerushalaim.

Neh. 11:3 And these are the leaders of the province
who dwelt in Yerushalaim.
And in the cities of Yahudah
each man dwelt in his possession
according to their cities in Yisra'el,
the priests,
and the Levites,
and the Nethinim,
and the sons of Shelomoh's servants.

Neh. 11:4 And in Yerushalaim dwelt
some of the children of Yahudah,
and some of the children of Binyamin.
Of the children of Yahudah:
Athayah son of Uzziyah, son of Zekaryah,
son of Amaryah, son of Shephatyah,
son of Mahalal'el, of the children of Perets;
[The meanings of the names
are not given in the lists that follow.
Most of them have already been identified.
The rest do not play
a significant role within Yisra'el.
They are recorded here
for the historical record
of the return from captivity.](#)

Neh. 11:5 and Ma'aseyah son of Baruk,
son of Kol-Hozeh, son of Hazayah,
son of Adayah, son of Yahoyarib,
son of Zekaryah, son of Shiloni.

Neh. 11:6 All the sons of Peretz
who were dwelling in Yerushalaim
were four hundred and sixty eight brave men.

Neh. 11:7 And these are the sons of Binyamin:
Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Yo'ed,
son of Pedayah, son of Kolayah,
son of Ma'aseyah, son of Iti'el,
son of Yeshayah.

Neh. 11:8 And after him, Gabbai, Sallai,
nine hundred and twenty eight.

Neh. 11:9 And Yo'el, son of Zikri,
was their overseer.
And Yahudah, son of Senuah,
was second over the city.

Neh. 11:10 Of the priests:
Yedayah son of Yoyarib, Yakin,
Neh. 11:11 Serayah son of Hilkiyah,
son of Meshullam,
son of Tzadok, son of Merayoth,
son of Ahitub,
leader of The House of YAHWEH.

Neh. 11:12 And their kindred,
those doing the work of The House,
eight hundred and twenty two.
And Adayah, son of Yeroham,
son of Pelalyah, son of Amtzi,
son of Zekaryah, son of Pashhur,
son of Malkiyah,

Neh. 11:13 and his kindred,
heads of the fathers,
two hundred and forty two.
And Amashai, son of Azar'el, son of Ahzai, son of Meshillemoth, son of Immer,
Neh. 11:14 and their kindred,
mighty men of valor,
one hundred and twenty eight.
And their overseer above them
was Zabdi'el, son of the great ones.

Neh. 11:15 Also of the Levites:
Shemayah son of Hashshub, son of Azrikam,
son of Hashabayah, son of Bunni;
Neh. 11:16 and Shabbethai and Yahozabad,
from the heads of the Levites,
were over the affairs
outside of The House of YAHWEH, Neh. 11:17 and Mattanyah, son of Mika,
son of Zabdi, son of Asaph,
who was the leader of the beginning thanksgiving, of prayer.
And Bakbukyah was second
among his kindred.
And Abda son of Shammua, son of Galal,
son of Yeduthun.

Neh. 11:18 All the Levites in the set apart city,
two hundred and eighty four.
Neh. 11:19 And the gatekeepers:
Akkub, Talmon, and their kindred,
those keeping guard at the gates,
one hundred and seventy two.

Neh. 11:20 And the rest of Yisra'el,
of the priests, Levites,
were in all the cities of Yahudah,
each man according to his inheritance.

Neh. 11:21 And the Nethinim
were dwelling in Ophel.
And Tsiha and Gishpa
were over the Nethinim.

Neh. 11:22 And the overseer of the Levites
at Yerushalaim was Uzzi, son of Bani, son of Hashabayah, son of Mattanyah,
son of Mika.
The sons of Asaph, the singers,
were over the affairs
of The House of YAHWEH.
Neh. 11:23 Indeed, the command of the king
was over them.
And support concerning the singers
was a matter of a day in its day.

Neh. 11:24 And Pethahyah,
son of Mesheyzab'el,
of the children of Zerah, son of Yahudah,
was as the hand of the king
for all matters for the people.

Neh. 11:25 And in the villages with their fields,
some of the children of Yahudah dwelt;
in Kiryat Arba and its villages,
and in Dibon and its villages,
and in Yekabtze'el and its villages,
Neh. 11:26 and in Yahshua, and in Moladah,
and in BayitPelet,
Neh. 11:27 and in Hatzar Shu'al,
and in Be'ersheba and its villages,
Neh. 11:28 and in Tziklag,
and in Mekonah and its villages,

Neh. 11:29 and in En Rimmon,
and in Tzorah, and in Yarmuth, Neh. 11:30 Zanoah, Adullam,
and their villages;
in Lachish and its fields;
in Azekah and its villages.
And they dwelt from Be'ersheba
to the Valley of Hinnom.

Neh. 11:31 And the children of Binyamin:
from Geba, Mikmash, and Ayyah,
and Bayit El, and their villages;
Neh. 11:32 Anathoth, Nob, Ananyah;
Neh. 11:33 Hatzor, Ramah, Gittaim;
Neh. 11:34 Hadid, Tzebo'im, Neballat;
Neh. 11:35 Lod, and Ono,
and the Valley of Craftsmen.

Neh. 11:36 And of the Levites,
the divisions of Yahudah were for Binyamin.

Chapter 12

Neh. 12:1 And these were the priests
and the Levites who came up with Zerubbabel, son of She'alti'el,
and Yahshua:
Serayah, Yirmeyah, Ezra,
Neh. 12:2 Amaryah, Malluk, Hattush,
Neh. 12:3 Shekanyah, Rehum, Meremoth,
Neh. 12:4 Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abiyah,
Neh. 12:5 Miyamin, Ma'adyah, Bilgah,
Neh. 12:6 Shemayah, and Yahoyarib, Yedayah,
Neh. 12:7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiyah, and Yedayah.
These were the heads of the priests
and their kindred in the days of Yahshua.

Neh. 12:8 And the Levites:
Yahshua, Binnui, Kadmi'el, Sherebyah, Yahudah, Mattanyah
were over the thanksgiving,
he and his kindred.

Neh. 12:9 And Bakbukyah and Unni,
their kindred
were in front of them as guards.

Neh. 12:10 And Yahshua brought forth
Yahoyakim himself nx,
and Yahoyakim brought forth Elyashib himself nx,
and Elyashib brought forth
Yahoyada himself nx,
Neh. 12:11 and Yahoyada brought forth
Yonathan himself nx,
and Yonathan brought forth
Yaddua himself nx.

Neh. 12:12 And in the days of Yahoyakim,
the priests, the heads of the fathers, were:
of Serayah, Merayah;
of Yirmeyah, Hananyah;
Neh. 12:13 of Ezra, Meshullam;
of Amaryah, Yahohanan;
Neh. 12:14 of Meliku, Yonathan;
of Shebanyah, Yoseph;
Neh. 12:15 of Harim, Adna;
of Merayoth, Helkai; Neh. 12:16 of Iddo, Zekaryah;
of Ginnethon, Meshullam;
Neh. 12:17 of Abiyah, Zikri, son of Minyamin;
of Mo'adyah, Piltai;
Neh. 12:18 of Bilgah, Shammua;
of Shemayah, Yahnathan;

Neh. 12:19 of Yahoyarib, Mattenai;
of Yedayah, Uzzi;
Neh. 12:20 of Sallai, Qallai;
of Amok, Eber;
Neh. 12:21 of Hilkiyah, Hashabayah;
and of Yedayah, Nethane'el.

Neh. 12:22 The Levites and priests
in the days of Elyashib, Yahoyada, and Yohanan, and Yaddua,
have been recorded as head of the fathers,
and of the priests
upon the reign of Darius the Persian.

Neh. 12:23 The sons of Levi,
the heads of the fathers
have been recorded upon the scroll of the words of the days even as far as the days of Yohanan, son of Elyashib.

Neh. 12:24 And the heads of the Levites
were Hashabayah, Sherebyah,
and Yahshua, son of Kadmi'el.
And their kindred were in front of them
for the sake of praising,
for the sake of giving thanks,
according to the directive of David,
man of The Elohim,
watch beside watch.

Neh. 12:25 Mattanyah, and Bakbukyah,
Obadyah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub were gatekeepers,
keeping watch as guards
at the storerooms of the gates.

Neh. 12:26 These were in the days
of Yahoyakim, son of Yahshua,
son of Yahotzadak,
and in the days of Nehemyah, the governor,
and of Ezra, the priest, the scribe.

Neh. 12:27 And at the dedication of the wall of Yerushalaim
they sought the Levites themselves תא
from all their places
for the sake of bringing them to Yerushalaim
for the sake of doing the dedication,
even with gladness, and with thanksgivings,
and with singing, cymbals, harps and lyres.

Neh. 12:28 And the children of those doing the singing gathered together,
even from the district all around Yerushalaim,
from the villages of the Netophathites,
Neh. 12:29 and from the house of Gilgal,
and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth,
because the singers had built for themselves
villages all around Yerushalaim.

Neh. 12:30 And the priests and Levites
undefiled themselves.
And they undefiled
the people themselves תא,
and the gates themselves תא,
and the wall itself תא.

Traditionally this is identified
as 'cleansed' or 'purified'.
It's crucial to understand, however,
that this process was not
some kind of cleaning party.

Defilement of any kind
was not permitted
in the presence of YAHWEH.

The defilement must be dealt with before one could enter His presence.
Note that even the gates and the wall
required this process of becoming undefiled.

Neh. 12:31 And I brought the leaders themselves ~~nx~~ of Yahudah
up to the top of the wall.

And I established
two large thanksgiving choirs.

And the processions went to the right
from above the wall to The Dung Gate.

Neh. 12:32 And behind them went Hoshayah
and half of the leaders of Yahudah,

Neh. 12:33 then Azaryah, Ezra,
and Meshullam,

Neh. 12:34 Yahudah, and Binyamin,
and Shemayah, and Yirmyah,

Neh. 12:35 and some of the sons
of the priests with trumpets:

Zekaryah son of Yonathan,
son of Shemayah, son of Mattanyah,
son of Mikayah, son of Zakkur, son of Asaph,

Neh. 12:36 and his kindred,
Shemayah and Azar'el, Milalai, Gilalai,
Ma'ai, Nethane'l, and Yahudah,

Hanani with instruments of songs of David,
man of The Elohim,
with Ezra the scribe before them.

Neh. 12:37 And at The Fountain Gate and opposite them
they went up upon the stairs
of The City of David,
at the ascent of the wall
beyond the house of David,
as far as The Water Gate, eastward.

Neh. 12:38 And the other thanksgiving choir
went opposite them.

And I myself was behind them.

And half of the people from on the wall
went to The Tower of The Ovens,
even as far as The Broad Wall,

Neh. 12:39 then over The Gate of Ephraim,
and over The Old Gate,

and over The Fish Gate,
and The Tower of Hanan'el,

and The Tower of the Hundred,
as far as The Sheep Gate.

And they stood still
at The Gate of The Prison.

Neh. 12:40 Then the two thanksgiving choirs
took their stand in The House of YAHWEH,
and I myself,

and half of the deputy rulers with me,

Neh. 12:41 and the priests,
Eliyakim, Ma'aseyah, Minyamin,

Mikayah, Elyo'eynai, Zekaryah,
and Hananyah, with trumpets,

Neh. 12:42 and Ma'aseyah, and Shemayah,
and El'azar, and Uzzi, and Yahohanan,
and Malkiyah, and Elam, and Ezer.

And the singers were caused to be heard,
with Yizrahyah the overseer.

Neh. 12:43 And they sacrificed
great sacrifices on that day.

And they rejoiced because YAHWEH
had caused them to rejoice with great joy.

And the women and the children
also rejoiced.

And the joy of Yerushalaim

was heard from far away.

Neh. 12:44 And they appointed men
on that day
over the chambers
for the storehouses
for the elevated offerings,
for the first fruits, and for tithes,
for the sake of gathering into them
from the fields of the cities
the portions of The Torah
for the priests and for the Levites.
Indeed, Yahudah was rejoicing
over the priests and the Levites,
those standing up.

Neh. 12:45 And the singers
and the gatekeepers
were protecting the duty of their Elohim
and the duty of the purification
according to the directive of David,
and Shelomoh, his son.

Neh. 12:46 Indeed, in the days
of David and Asaph,
from long ago
there was a leader of the singers
and the songs of praise
and thanksgiving to YAHWEH.

Neh. 12:47 And all Yisra'el,
in the days of Zerubbabel
and in the days of Nehemyah,
gave portions for the singers
and the gatekeepers,
a portion for the day according to the day.
And they set apart for the Levites.
And the Levites set apart
for the children of Aharon.

Chapter 13

Neh. 13:1 On that day
it was read aloud
in The Scroll of Moshe
in the ears of the people.
And in it was found,
having been written in it,
that an Ammonite or a Mo'abite
was not to enter into
the assembly of YAHWEH
as far as eternity

Neh. 13:2 because they had not met
the children of Yisra'el themselves nx
with food or with water.
And they had hired Bil'am himself nx
against them
for the sake of cursing them,
But our Elohim
turned the curse to a blessing.

Neh. 13:3 And it was when they had listened attentively
to The Torah itself nx.
And they caused all the mixed multitude
to be separated from Yisra'el.

Neh. 13:4 But before this, Elyashib, the priest,
having oversight concerning the storerooms
of The House of our Elohim,
was a relative of Tobiyah.

Neh. 13:5 And he had prepared for him
a great chamber.
And previously had been stored there
the grain offerings themselves nx,

the frankincense, and the utensils,
and the tithes of the grain, the new wine,
and the oil as commanded for the Levites,
and the singers, and the gatekeepers,
and the elevated offerings for the priests.

Neh. 13:6 But with all this
I was not in Yerushalaim.
Indeed, in the thirty second year
of Artaxerxes, king of Babel,
I went to the king.
And after some days
I made a request from from the king.

Neh. 13:7 And I came to Yerushalaim.
And I understood concerning the evil which Elyashib had done for Tobiyah
by preparing a chamber for him
in the courtyards of The House of YAHWEH.

Neh. 13:8 And it was exceedingly bad to me.
Therefore I threw
all the articles themselves nx
of the household of Tobiyah
out of the chamber.

Neh. 13:9 And I spoke.
And I purified the chambers.
And I returned there the utensils
of The House of YAHWEH,
the grain offering itself nx,
and the frankincense.

Neh. 13:10 Then I recognized that the portions for the Levites
had not been given.
And each man
of the Levites and the singers,
those doing the work,
had run away to his field.

Neh. 13:11 And I contended
with the deputy rulers themselves nx.
And I said to them,
"Why is The House of YAHWEH abandoned?"
And I assembled them.
And I caused them to stand in their place.

Neh. 13:12 And all Yahudah brought the tithe of the grain and the new wine
and the oil to the storehouse.

Neh. 13:13 And I put in charge
over the storehouses Shelemyah, the priest,
and Tzadok, the scribe,
and Pedayah of the Levites.
And next to them was Hanan,
son of Zakkur, son of Mattanyah
because they were considered faithful.
And it was upon them
to distribute to their kindred.

Neh. 13:14 Remember me, my Elohim,
concerning this
and do not wipe out my kindnesses
which I have done
concerning The House of my Elohim
and for its services!

Neh. 13:15 In those days I saw in Yahudah
those treading wine presses on The Sabbath,
and bringing in the sheaves,
and loading upon the asses
even also wine, grapes, and figs,

and all kinds of burdens.
And they were bringing them into Yerushalaim on the day of The Sabbath.
And I witnessed against it on the day they sold wild game.

Neh. 13:16 And men of Tzor
dwelt among them,
bringing in fish and all kinds of goods.
And they were selling them on The Sabbath
to the children of Yahudah,
and in Yerushalaim.

Neh. 13:17 Then I contended
with the nobles themselves תא of Yahudah.
And I said to them,
“What evil matter is this
that you yourselves תא are doing, even defiling
the day itself תא of The Sabbath?
Neh. 13:18 Have your fathers
not done according to this,
and caused our Elohim
to bring all this harm itself תא
on us and on this city?
And you yourselves תא
are adding more wrath upon Yisra’el
by defiling The Sabbath itself תא.”

Neh. 13:19 And it was
as the gates of Yerushalaim
began to be dark before The Sabbath.
And I spoke.
And I shut the gates.
And I said that they were not to be opened until after The Sabbath.
And I stationed some of my servants
at the gates.
No burden was brought in
on the day of The Sabbath.

Neh. 13:20 And the merchants and the sellers of all kinds of wares
spent the night outside of Yerushalaim
once or twice.
Neh. 13:21 And I testified against them.
And I said to them,
“Why are you yourselves תא
spending the night in front of the wall?
If you do so again I will lay hands on you!”
From that very time
they came no more on The Sabbath.

Neh. 13:22 And I said to the Levites
that they were to purify themselves.
And they were to be coming
and protecting the gates,
for the sake of setting apart
the day itself תא of The Sabbath.

Also for this remember me, my Elohim,
and be compassionate concerning me
according to the abundance
of Your kindness!

Neh. 13:23 Also in those days
I observed the Yahudeans themselves תא
who had dwelt with women
of Ashdod, Ammon, and Mo’ab.
Neh. 13:24 And half of their children were speaking the language of Ashdod.
And they were not speaking
the language of Yahudah,
but rather, according to the language

of people after people.

Neh. 13:25 And I contended with them.
And I cursed them.
And I struck some of their men.
And I pulled out their hair.
And I made them swear
by YAHWEH, saying,
“If you give your daughters to their sons,
or if you take their daughters
for your sons or for yourselves....

This is one of many unfinished sentences in Scripture.
They are not shown in traditional texts.

Apparently the writers did not understand that this is a form of curse.
The consequences are left to the imagination
of the one hearing such a statement.
The implication was certain disaster.

Neh. 13:26 Did not Shelomoh,
king of Yisra'el,
offend on account of these?
And among the many nations
there had not existed a king like him.
And he was being loved by his Elohim.
And YAHWEH set him as king
over all Yisra'el.
Even he himself תא
the foreign women caused to offend.

Neh. 13:27 And will you listen attentively to them
for the sake of doing
all this great evil itself תא,
by rebelling against our Elohim,
by dwelling with foreign women?”

Neh. 13:28 And one of the sons of Yahoyada,
son of Elyashib, the great priest,
was a son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite.
And I drove him away from before my face.

Neh. 13:29 Remember them, my Elohim,
on account of their defilement
of the priesthood and the covenant
of the priesthood and the Levites.

Neh. 13:30 And I purified them
from all foreigners.
And I appointed duties
to the priests and the Levites,
each man according to his task,
Neh. 13:31 even for the wood offering
according to its appointed times,
and for the first fruits.

Remember me, my Elohim,
for the goodness!

38. 1 Chronicles - Divrei

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

1Chr. 1:1 Adam, Shet, Enosh, Adam means ruddy;
human being; dirt.
He was created
from the soil, adamah.
But the term generically
means a human being,
one made from dirt.

Shet means established.
Enosh means mortal; finite.

1Chr. 1:2 Kenan, Mahalal'el, Yered,
Kenan means nest, fixed dwelling.
Mahalal'el means praise of El.
Yered means descent, to go down.

1Chr. 1:3 Hanok, Metushelah, Lemek, Hanok means
disciplined; initiated or taught.
This is "Enoch".
Metushelah means
man of the spear; missile of attack.
Lemek meaning uncertain.

1Chr. 1:4 Noah, Shem, Ham, and Yepheth.
Noah means relief, consolation.
Shem means
a designation of individuality.
Ham means hot.
Yepheth means expansion.

1Chr. 1:5 The sons of Yepheth: Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Yavan,
and Tubal, and Meshek, and Tiras.

The sons of Javan
became Gomer, Magog, Tubal, and Meshech,
which are mentioned in the Last Days scenario.

Yepheth means expansion.
Gomer means completion
Magog means covering; fear - uncertain.
Madai means sufficiency.
Yavan means effervescing one.
Tubal means brought back.
Meshek means to draw off.
Tiras means to distress.

1Chr. 1:6 And the sons of Gomer:
Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

Ashkenaz means
a fire that spreads.
Riphath means slander; fault.
Togarmah means
bone of sorrow - uncertain.

1Chr. 1:7 And the sons of Yavan:
Elishah and Tarshish, Kittim and Dodanim.

Elishah means my El is deliverance.
Tarshish means will shatter.
Kittim means my mark; crushers.
Dodanim means nipples - uncertain.

1Chr. 1:8 The sons of Ham:
Kush and Mitsrayim, Put and Kena'an.

Ham means hot.
Kush means black, dark; terror.
Mitsrayim means double straits.
(This is Egypt.)
Put means afflicted.
Kena'an means humiliated.
(also called Canaanites)

1Chr. 1:9 And the sons of Kush: Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah,
and Ra'amah, and Sabteka.

And the sons of Ra'amah:

Ra'amah means thunder; trembling.
Sabteka means the striking.
Sheba means seven; oath.
Dedan means their love.

1Chr. 1:10 And Kush brought forth
Nimrod himself נא.
He was made profane,
existing as a mighty one in the land.

Nimrod means rebellion.
chahal means to bore or pierce,
wound; to profane.
The combination of these two terms
within the context of these verses suggests a very different translation
than the one that is normally given.

There are other sources
that add information concerning Nimrod,
also identifying him as one who rebelled against YAHWEH,
and was a hunter of people lives.
As the founder of Babel,
where rebellion against YAHWEH
began after the flood,
we can even see a possible
connection with the Nephilim.
The same terminology is used of them.

From them came
"the mighty men of old", "heroes".
This is exactly how Nimrod is characterized.

1Chr. 1:11 And Mitsrayim brought forth
the Ludim themselves נא,
and the Anamim themselves נא,
and the Lehabim themselves נא,
and the Naphtuhim themselves נא,

Keep in mind
that Mitsraim is Egypt.
Mitsraim is a son of Ham.

From him we see
the development of
the "giants" of the land,
including the Philistines,
the Jebusites, the Amorites,
the Gergashites, the Hivvites, etc., whom YAHWEH later commanded Yisra'el to destroy
for their abominations against God.

Ludim means firebrands.
Anamim means afflictions.
Lehabim means flames.
Naphtuhim means struggles,
wrestlings.

1Chr. 1:12 and the Pathrusim themselves נא,

Eber means one

who crosses over (passes over).

He is the father of Abram.

His name, Eber, is the foundation for the term 'Hebrew' (Eberim),

which also means

he who crosses over.

1Chr. 1:19 And to Eber were born two sons.

The name of one was Peleg,

because in his days the earth was divided.

And his brother's name was Yoktan.

Here we have reference to the earth being "divided"

during the life of Peleg.

It is thought that it was at this point

that the continents were formed

and people were separated

from each other.

This may also be connected to the Tower of Babel experience

where God divided the peoples

into nations and tongues.

Peleg means earthquake;

from a root that means to split.

Yoktan means diminished, made little.

1Chr. 1:20 And Yoktan brought forth

to the entrance of Gedor,
as far as the east side of the valley,
for the sake of seeking pasture
for their flocks.

1Chr. 4:40 And they found rich
and good pasture.
And the land was spacious,
quiet, and peaceful
because some from Ham
had been dwelling there before.

1Chr. 4:41 And these came,
those having been written by name,
in the days of Hizkiyah, king of Yahudah.
And they struck their tents themselves תך
and the houses themselves תך
which they found there.
And they devoted them to destruction,
as it is to this day.
And they dwelt in their place
because there was pasture for their flocks there.

1Chr. 4:42 And from them,
from the sons of Shim'on,
five hundred men went to Mount Se'ir.
And Pelatyah, and Ne'aryah,
and Rephayah, and Uzzi'el,
the sons of Yishi, were as their commanders.

1Chr. 4:43 And they struck the remainder themselves תך
of the Amalekites who had escaped.

And they dwell there until this day.

Chapter 5

1Chr. 5:1 And the sons of Re'uben,
the first-born of Yisra'el.
Indeed, he himself was the first-born.
But on account of his defiling
of the bed of his father
his birthright had been given to the sons of Yoseph, son of Yisra'el.
And he himself
is not reckoned by genealogy
as the first born.

1Chr. 5:2 Indeed, Yahudah
prevailed among his brothers,
and as ruler above him.
But the birthright was for Yoseph.

1Chr. 5:3 The sons of Re'uben,
the first born of Yisra'el:
Hanok and Pallu, Hetzron and Karmi.
Hanok means initiated; disciplined.
Pallu means distinguished. Karmi means gardener.

1Chr. 5:4 The sons of Yo'el:
Shemayah his son, Gog his son,
Shim'i his son,
Shemayah means YAH has heard.
Gog - meaning uncertain.
Ba'al means possessor,
husband, master.
Shim'i means famous.

1Chr. 5:5 Miykah his son, Re'ayah his son,
Ba'al his son,
Miykah means who is like YAH.
Re'ayah means YAH has seen.

1Chr. 5:6 and Be'erah his son, whom Tiglath-Pileser, king of Asshur,
took into exile.
He was leader of the Re'ubenites.
Be'erah means a well.

1Chr. 5:7 And his brothers by families
according to the genealogy
of their generations:
the chief, Ye'i'el, and Zekaryah, Ye'i'el means carried away by El. Zekaryah means
YAH has remembered.

1Chr. 5:8 and Bela, son of Azaz,
son of Shema, son of Yo'el,
who dwelt in Aro'er,
as far as Nebo and Ba'al Me'on.
Bela means devourer.
Azaz means stout. Shema means famous.
Yo'el means YAH is El.

1Chr. 5:9 And he dwelt eastward
as far as the entrance of the wilderness
next to The River Euphrates
because their livestock had increased in the land of Gil'ad.

1Chr. 5:10 And in the days of Sha'ul
they made war with the Hagrites.
And they fell by their hand.
And they dwelt in their tents
over all the eastern surface of Gil'ad.

1Chr. 5:11 And the children of Gad dwelt opposite to them
in the land of Bashan as far as Salkhah.

1Chr. 5:12 Yo'el was the head,
and Shapham was the next,
then Ya'anai, then Shaphat in Bashan.

Yo'el means YAH is El.
Shapham means bare spot.

one who crosses over.

1Chr. 5:14 These were the children of Abihayil,
son of Huri, son of Yarowah, son of Gil'ad,
son of Mika'el, son of Yeshishai,
son of Yahdo, son of Buz;

Abihayil means
my father is mighty.
Huri means my fine linen.
Yarowah means
born at the new moon.
Gil'ad means heap of witness.
Mika'el means who is like El.
Yeshishai means an old man.
Yahdo means united.
Buz means disrespectful.

1Chr. 5:15 Ahi son of Abdi'el, son of Guni,
was chief of their father's house.

Ahi means my brother.
Abdi'el means servant of El.
Guni means protected.

1Chr. 5:16 And they dwelt in Gil'ad,
in Bashan and in its villages,
and in all the open lands of The Sharon within their borders.

1Chr. 5:17 All these were registered by genealogies
in the days of Yotam, king of Yahudah,
and in the days of Yarob'am, king of Yisra'el.

1Chr. 5:18 The sons of Re'uben,
and the Gadites,
and half the tribe of Menashe
had forty four thousand seven hundred and sixty strong men,
men carrying shield and sword,
and shooting with the bow,
and skilled with battles,
who were going out to war.

1Chr. 5:19 And they made war against the Hagrites,
and Yetur, and Naphish, and Nodab.

Yetur means enclosed.
Naphish means lively.
These two were sons of Yishma'el.
Nodab means noble.

1Chr. 5:20 And they were helped against them.
And the Hagrites were given into their hand,
and all who were with them
because they had cried out to YAHWEH
in the battle
and He listened to their prayer
because they had trusted in Him.

1Chr. 5:21 And they carried away
their livestock:
their camels, fifty thousand,
and sheep, two hundred and fifty thousand,
and asses, two thousand,
and lives, one hundred thousand.
1Chr. 5:22 Indeed, many were killed.

They fell because the battle was of YAHWEH.
And they dwelt in their place until the exile.

1Chr. 5:23 And the children
of the half-tribe of Menashe
dwelt in the land.
From Bashan to Ba'al Hermon, and Senir,
and Mount Hermon they increased.

1Chr. 5:24 And these were the heads
of the houses of their fathers:
Epher, and Yishi, and Eli'el, and Azri'el,
and Yirmeyah, Hodavyah, and Yahdi'el,
mighty brave men, men of name,
and heads of the house of their father.

Epher means a gazelle.
Yishi means deliverer.
Eli'el means El is my el.
Azri'el means help of El.
Yirmeyah means YAH will raise up.
Hodavyah means majesty of YAH.
Yahdi'el means Oneness of EL.

1Chr. 5:25 But they acted unfaithfully
against The Elohim of their fathers.
And they committed adultery after the gods
of the peoples of the land,
whom YAHWEH had caused
to be destroyed from before their faces.

1Chr. 5:26 And The Elohim of Yisra'el stirred up the breath itself נַח
of Pul, king of Asshur,
and the breath itself נַח of Tiglath-Pileser,
king of Asshur.
And he exiled the Re'ubenites,
and the Gadites,
and the half-tribe of Menashe.
And he brought them to Halah,
and Habor, and Hara,
and the river of Gozan until this very day.

ruach - breath, wind.
It does not mean 'spirit'.
'Spirit' is a Greek term.
It was unknown to Yisra'el
and the surrounding nations
prior to the Greek culture.

The Hebrews viewed the breath
as representing
the inner essence of a person,
their character, or their nature.
It was this that YAHWEH stirred up.

Chapter 6

1Chr. 6:1 (H 5.27)

The sons of Levi:

Gershom, Kohath, and Merari.

Azaryah himself תא.

1Chr. 6:14 (H 5.40)

and Azaryah brought forth

Serayah himself תא,

and Serayah brought forth

Yahotzadak himself יחזקאל.

Serayah means YAH has prevailed.
Yahotzadak means justified by YAH.

Note: It becomes difficult to discern who is being identified in other parts of Scripture when the names given here are used since there is so much duplication.

In our culture a 'last name' allows us to distinguish who is being identified. Hebrew culture did not have this feature.

1Chr. 6:15 (H 5.41)

And Yahotzadak went when YAHWEH caused Yahudah itself יחזקאל and Yerushalaim to go into exile by the hand of Nebukadnetzar.

Note: Chapter 6 begins at the next verse in the Hebrew text.

1Chr. 6:16 (H 6.1)

The sons of Levi:
Gershom, Kohath, and Merari.

1Chr. 6:17 (H 6.2)

And these are the names of the sons of Gershom:
Libni and Shim'i.

Libni means white.
Shim'i means famous.

1Chr. 6:18 (H 6.3) And the sons of Kohath: Amram, and Yitzhar,
and Hebron, and Uzzi'el.

1Chr. 6:19 (H 6.4) The sons of Merari:

Chapter 9

1Chr. 9:1 And all Yisra'el
had themselves registered by genealogy.
And behold!
They were written on the scroll
of the kings of Yisra'el.

And Yahudah was exiled to Babel
on account of their unfaithful act.

1Chr. 9:2 And the first of those dwelling in their possessions,
in their cities of Yisra'el,
were the priests, the Levites,
and the Nethinim.

1Chr. 9:3 And in Yerushalaim dwelt
some of the children of Yahudah,
and some of the children of Binyamin,
and some of the children
of Ephraim and Menashe:
1Chr. 9:4 Uthai son of Ammihud, son of Omri,
son of Imri, son of Bani,
of the sons of Peretz,
the son of Yahudah.

1Chr. 9:5 And of the Shilonites:
Asayah, the first born, and his sons.

1Chr. 9:6 And of the sons of Zerah:
Ye'u'el, and their kindred,
six hundred and ninety.

1Chr. 9:7 And of the sons of Binyamin:
Sallu, son of Meshullam, son of Hodavyah,
son of Hasenu'ah,
1Chr. 9:8 and Yibneyah, son of Yeroham,
and Elah, son of Uzzi, son of Mikri,
and Meshullam son of Shephatyah,
son of Re'u'el, son of Yibnyah;
1Chr. 9:9 and their kindred
by their generations,
nine hundred and fifty six.
All these men were heads of fathers
for their fathers' houses.

1Chr. 9:10 And from the priests:
Yedayah, and Yahoyarib, and Yakin.
1Chr. 9:11 And Azaryah, son of Hilkiyah,
son of Meshullam, son of Tzadok,

son of Merayoth, son of Ahitub,
was ruler over The House of YAHWEH;

1Chr. 9:12 and Adayah, son of Yeroham,
son of Pashhur, son of Malkiyah,
and Ma'asai, son of Adi'el, son of Yahzerah,
son of Meshullam, son of Meshillemit,
son of Immer;

1Chr. 9:13 and their kindred,
heads of the house of their fathers,
one thousand seven hundred and sixty,
able men for the work of the service
of The House of YAHWEH.

1Chr. 9:14 And of the Levites:
Shemayah, son of Hashshub,
son of Azrikam,
son of Hashabyah, of the sons of Merari, 1Chr. 9:15 and Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal,
and Mattanyah, son of Mika,
son of Zikri, son of Asaph, 1Chr. 9:16 and Obadyah, son of Shemayah,
son of Galal, son of Yeduthun,
and Berekyah, son of Asa, son of Elkanah,
were those dwelling in the villages
of the Netophathites.

1Chr. 9:17 And the gatekeepers:
Shallum, and Akkub,
and Talmon, and Ahiman,
and their kindred.
Shallum was the head.

1Chr. 9:18 And up to this they were the gatekeepers in the gate of the king
on the east toward the camps
of the children of Levi.

1Chr. 9:19 And Shallum, son of Korah,
son of Ebyasaph, son of Korah,
and his kindred from his father's house,
the Korahites, were over
the work of the service,
keepers of the gates of The Tabernacle.
And their fathers had been watching over the entrance of the camp of YAHWEH.

1Chr. 9:20 And Pinehas, son of El'azar,
had been leader over them formerly.
YAHWEH was with him.

1Chr. 9:21 Zekaryah, son of Meshelemyah,
was gatekeeper of the entrance to The Tent of Assembly.

1Chr. 9:22 All those having been chosen as gatekeepers at the gates were two hundred and twelve.
They were registered themselves
by genealogy in their villages,
they whom David and Shemu'el the seer
on account of their faithfulness.

1Chr. 9:23 And they and their sons were over the gates
to The House of YAHWEH,
to The House of The Tabernacle,
by watches.

1Chr. 9:24 The gatekeepers
were on the four sides,
east, west, north, and south.

1Chr. 9:25 And their kindred in their villages were to come for seven of the days

from time to time with these.

1Chr. 9:26 Indeed,
the four chiefs of the gatekeepers
were with faithfulness.
They were of the Levites.
And they were over the chambers
and over the treasuries
of The House of YAHWEH.

1Chr. 9:27 And they spent the night
all around The House of YAHWEH
because they had the duty over it.
And they were over the opening of it morning by morning.

1Chr. 9:28 And some of them were over the utensils of the service.
Indeed, by number they brought them in
and by number brought them out.

1Chr. 9:29 And some of them
were appointed over the utensils,
even over all the utensils
of The Set Apart Place,
and over the fine flour,
and the wine,
and the oil,
and the frankincense,
and the spices.

1Chr. 9:30 And some of the sons of the priests
prepared the compound of spices.

1Chr. 9:31 And Mattithyah, from the Levites,
the first born of Shallum, the Korahite,
on account of faithfulness,
was over the task of the pans.

1Chr. 9:32 And some of the sons of the Kohathites, from their kindred,
were over the arrangement of the showbread
for the sake of preparing it Sabbath by Sabbath.

1Chr. 9:33 And these, the ones singing,
heads of the fathers of the Levites,
were exempt in the chambers
from other duties
because by day or by night
they were at their task.

1Chr. 9:34 These heads of the father of the Levites
were heads of their generations.
These dwelt at Yerushalaim.

1Chr. 9:35 And Ye'i'el, the father of Gib'on,
whose wife's name was Ma'akah,
dwelt at Gib'on.

1Chr. 9:36 And his first born son was Abdon,
then Tzur, and Kish, and Ba'al,
and Ner, and Nadab,

1Chr. 9:37 and Gedor, and Ahyo,
and Zekaryah, and Mikloth.

1Chr. 9:38 And Mikloth brought forth
Shim'am himself nx.
And they also dwelt opposite their kindred
at Yerushalaim, with their brothers.

1Chr. 9:39 And Ner brought forth
Kish himself nx,
and Kish brought forth Sha'ul himself nx,

and Sha'ul brought forth Yahonathan himself תא,
and Malkishua himself תא,
and Abinadab himself תא,
and Esh-Ba'al himself תא.

1Chr. 9:40 And the son of Yahonathan was Merib-Ba'al.

And Merib-Ba'al brought forth
Miykah himself תא.

1Chr. 9:41 And the sons of Miykah:

Pithon, and Melek, and Tahrea, 1Chr. 9:42 and Ahaz, who brought forth Yarah,
and Yarah brought forth Alemeth,
and Azmaveth, and Zimri.

And Zimri brought forth Motza;

1Chr. 9:43 and Motza brought forth Bin'a.

And Rephayah was his son,

El'asah his son, Atzel his son.

1Chr. 9:44 And Atzel had six sons
whose names were these:

Azrikam, Bokeru, and Yishma'el,
and She'aryah, and Obadyah, and Hanan.

These were the sons of Atzel.

Chapter 10

1Chr. 10:1 And the Philistines
fought with Yisra'el.

And the men of Yisra'el fled
from the face of the Philistines.

And they fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

The concept of "face"
is used quite frequently in Scripture.
The term is traditionally "translated" as 'before' or 'in front of'.

It's true that if you're seeing someone's face
you're in front of them.
However, this misses
the thematic use of "face" in Scripture.
It's repetition, and the circumstances in which it is used
all fill a significant role in what Scripture is teaching.

An effort has been made in this edition of the text to be reasonably consistent in how this term is translated so you can be aware of just how frequently it is used by YAHWEH in His Word.

1Chr. 10:2 And the Philistines followed hard after Sha'ul and after his sons.

And the Philistines struck

Yonathan himself תא,
and Abinadab himself תא,
and Malkishua himself תא,
sons of Sha'ul.

1Chr. 10:3 And the battle
was heavy against Sha'ul.
And those shooting with the bow found him.
And he was writhing in pain
because of the archers.

1Chr. 10:4 And Sha'ul said
to the one carrying his armor,
"Draw your sword
and thrust me through with it lest these uncircumcised ones come and they deal harshly with me!"
But the one carrying his armor was not willing
because he was exceedingly afraid.

Then Sha'ul took the sword itself אָ.
And he fell upon it.

1Chr. 10:5 And the one carrying his armor
saw that Sha'ul was dead.
And he himself also fell upon the sword.
And he died.

1Chr. 10:6 And Sha'ul and his three sons died,
even all his house died together.

1Chr. 10:7 And all the men of Yisra'el
who were in the valley
saw that they had fled
and that Sha'ul and his sons had died.
And they abandoned their cities.
And they fled.
And the Philistines came.
And they settled in them.

1Chr. 10:8 And it was the next day.
And the Philistines came
to strip the slain themselves אָ.
And they found Sha'ul himself אָ
and his sons themselves אָ,
having fallen, on Mount Gilboa.

1Chr. 10:9 And they stripped him.
And they took his head itself אָ
and his armor itself אָ.
And they sent word
into the land of the Philistines,
all around,
for the sake of bringing the news
to their idols themselves אָ
and to the people themselves אָ.

1Chr. 10:10 And they placed his armor itself אָ
in the house of their gods.
And his head itself אָ they fastened
to the house of Dagon.

1Chr. 10:11 And all of Yabesh Gil'ad heard concerning that itself אָ
which the Philistines had done to Sha'ul.

1Chr. 10:12 And all the strong men rose up.
And they lifted up
the body itself אָ of Sha'ul
and the bodies themselves אָ of his sons.
And they brought them to Yabesh.
And they buried their bones themselves אָ
beneath the oak tree at Yabesh.
And they fasted seven days.

1Chr. 10:13 And Sha'ul died
on account of his unfaithful act
when he had acted unfaithfully
against YAHWEH
concerning the Word of YAHWEH
which he had not protected,
and also for inquiring with a medium
for the sake of making an inquiry.

1Chr. 10:14 But he had not inquired
with YAHWEH,
and He put him to death.
And He turned over the kingdom itself אָ
to David, son of Yishai.

Chapter 11

1Chr. 11:1 And all Yisra'el
was assembled to David,
to Hebron, saying,
"Behold!
We ourselves are your bone and your flesh!"

1Chr. 11:2 Also, in time past,
even when Sha'ul was king,
you yourself תָּא were the one going out and the one coming in with Yisra'el itself תָּא.
And YAHWEH, your Elohim, said to you,
'You yourself תָּא are to shepherd
My people, Yisra'el.
And you yourself תָּא are to be ruler over
My people, Yisra'el.' "

1Chr. 11:3 And all the elders of Yisra'el came to the king, to Hebron.
And David cut a covenant for them
at Hebron before the face of YAHWEH.
And they anointed David himself תָּא
as king over Yisra'el
according to the word of YAHWEH
by the hand of Shemu'el.

1Chr. 11:4 And David and all Yisra'el
went to Yerushalaim.
It is Yebus.
And the Yebusites were there,
those dwelling in the land.
*Yebus means trodden; threshing floor.
Yerushalaim means
complete teaching of deliverance.*

1Chr. 11:5 And those dwelling in Yebus
said to David,
"You will not come in here!"
But David captured the stronghold itself תָּא
of Tzion, The City of David.

1Chr. 11:6 And David said,
"Whoever is the one striking the Yebusites
as the first will be as the head,
even as the commander."
And Yo'ab, son of Tzeruyah,
went up as the first.
And he was the head.

1Chr. 11:7 And David dwelt in the stronghold.
For this reason
they called it The City of David.

1Chr. 11:8 And he built the city around it,
from The Millo and all around it.
And Yo'ab revived
the rest of the city itself תָּא.

1Chr. 11:9 And David went on, going greater and greater.
And YAHWEH of Assemblies was with him.

1Chr. 11:10 And these were the heads
of the mighty men who belonged to David,
those having strengthened themselves
with him in his kingdom with all Yisra'el
for the sake of causing him
to reign over Yisra'el
according to the word of YAHWEH.

1Chr. 11:11 And this is the number of the mighty men who belonged to David:
Yashob'am, son of a Hakmonite,
chief of the thirty.
He had stirred up his spear itself תָּא
against three hundred, all killed at one time.
*Yashob'am means
the people will return.*

1Chr. 11:12 And after him was El'azar,
son of Dodo, the Ahohite,
who was one of the three mighty men.
El'azar means El is helper.

Dodo means loving.

1Chr. 11:13 He was with David
at Pas Dammim.
And the Philistines had gathered there
for the sake of fighting.
And there was a portion of the field
filled with barley.
And the people had fled
before the face of Philistines.

Pas Dammim means
palm of bloodshed.

1Chr. 11:14 And they stationed themselves
in the midst of that portion.
And they delivered it.
And they struck
the Philistines themselves תַּח.
Thus YAHWEH delivered them
with a great deliverance.

1Chr. 11:15 And three from the thirty leaders went down to the rock, to David,
to the cave of Adullam.
And the assembly of the Philistines
was camping in The Valley of Repha'im.

Repha'im means giants.

1Chr. 11:16 And David was then in the stronghold.
And the garrison of the Philistines
was then at Bayit Lechem.
1Chr. 11:17 And David had a desire for himself.
And he said, "Who will cause me
to drink water from the well of Bayi tLechem
which is at the gate?"
1Chr. 11:18 And the three broke through into the camp of the Philistines.
And they drew water
from the well of Bayit Lechem
that was at the gate.
And they took it.
And they brought it to David.
But David was not willing to drink it.
And he poured out it itself תַּח to YAHWEH.
1Chr. 11:19 And he said,
"Far be it from me by my Elohim
from doing this!
Shall I drink the blood of these men
on account of their lives?
Indeed, by their lives they have brought it."
And he was not willing to drink it.

This is what the three mighty men had done.

1Chr. 11:20 And Abishai, brother of Yo'ab,
he was head of the three.
And he had lifted up his spear itself תַּח
against three hundred of the slain.
And to him

there was a name among the three.

1Chr. 11:21 From the three
he was more honored
than the other two.
And he was to them as their leader.
But he did not come as far as the first three.

1Chr. 11:22 Benayah was the son of Yahoyada,
the son of a man of strength
of many deeds from Kabtze'el.

He struck
two lion-like men of Mo'ab themselves תַּח.
And he had gone down.

And he struck the lion itself תַּח
in the midst of the pit on a day of the snow.

Benayah means YAH has built.
Yahoyada means YAH has known.

Kabtze'el means El has gathered.

1Chr. 11:23 And he struck the man himself תא,
the Mitsraite, a tall man, five by the cubit.
And in the hand of the Mitsraite
was a spear like a beam of one weaving.
And he went down to him with a staff.
And he plucked the spear itself תא
from the hand of the Mitsraite.
And he killed him with his own spear.

1Chr. 11:24 These Benayah,
son of Yahoyada had done.
And to him there was a name
among the three of the mighty men.

1Chr. 11:25 Behold!
He was more honored than the thirty.
But he did not come to the first three.
And David placed him over his guard.

1Chr. 11:26 And the mighty men of the forces were:
Asah'el the brother of Yo'ab,
Elhanan son of Dodo of Bayit Lechem,
Asah'el means El had made.
Dodo means loving.

Hanan means favored.
Ma'akah means depression.
Yoshaphat means YAH has judged.

1Chr. 11:44 Uzziyah, the Ashterathite, Shama, and Ye'i'el,
the sons of Hotham the Aro'erite, Uzziyah means
my strength is YAH.
Shama means listening one.
Ye'i'el means carried away by El.
Hotham means a seal.

1Chr. 11:45 Yediya'el, son of Shimri,
and Yoha, his brother, the Titzite, Yediya'el means known by El.
Shimri means watchful.
Yoha means life by YAH.

1Chr. 11:46 Eli'el, the Mahavite,
and Yeribai and Yoshavyah,
the sons of Elna'am, Yithmah, the Mo'abite,
Eli'el means El is his El.
Yeribai means contentious.
Yoshavyah means
leveled by YAH.
Elna'am means
El is his delight.
Yithmah means orphan.

1Chr. 11:47 Eli'el, and Obed,
and Ya'asi'el, the Metzobaite.
Obed means servant.
Ya'asi'el means made by El.

Chapter 12

1Chr. 12:1 And these are those coming to David,
to Tziklag, while he was still shut up
from the face of of Sha'ul, son of Kish.
And they were among the mighty men
helping with the battle,

1Chr. 12:2 being armed with bows,
using the right hand or the left
with stones, and with arrows, with bows,
from the kindred of Sha'ul, from Binyamin.

1Chr. 12:3 The chiefs were Ahi'ezer and Yo'ash,
the sons of Shema'ah, the Gib'athite,
and Yezav'el and Pelet,
the sons of Azmaveth,
and Berakah, and Yahu, the Anathothite,
Ahi'ezer means my father is help.
Yo'ash means fire of YAH.
Shema'ah means announcement.
Yezav'el means sprinkled by El.
Pelet means escaped one.
Azmaveth means strong one of death.
Berakah means blessing.
Yahu means YAHWEH exists.

1Chr. 12:4(a)
and Yishmayah, the Gib'onite,
a mighty man among the thirty,
and he was over the thirty,
1Chr. 12.4(b) and Yirmeyah, and Yahazi'el,
and Yohanan,
and Yozabad, the Gederathite,
Yishmayah means YAH will hear.
Yirmeyah means YAH will rise up.
Yahazi'el means contemplated by El.
Yohanan means favored by YAH.
Yozabad means bestowed by YAH.

Note: The last portion, 12.4 (b),
does not appear in the Hebrew text.
This causes a variation
in the verse numbering
for the rest of the chapter.
There is no verse 5
in the Hebrew text.

1Chr. 12:5 (H 12.6)
Eluzai, and Yerimot, and Be'alyah,
and Shemaryah, and Shephatyah,
the Haruphite;
Eluzai means El is powerful.
Yerimot means elevations.
Be'alyah means YAH is Master.
Sermaryah means YAH has protected.
Shephatayah means YAH is judge.

1Chr. 12:6 (H 12.7)
Elkanah, and Yishshiyah, and Azar'el,
and Yow'ezer, and Yashob'am, the Korahites, Elkanah means El has procured.
Yishiyah means YAH will lend.
Azar'el means El has helped.
Yow'ezer means YAH is his help.
Yashob'am means
the people will return.

1Chr. 12:7 (H 12.8)
and Yo'elah ,and Zebadyah,
the sons of Yeroham of Gedor.
Yo'elah means beneficial.
Zebadyah means YAH has given.
Yeroham means compassionate.

1Chr. 12:8 (H 12.9)
And some Gadites
had been separated to David,
to the wilderness stronghold,
mighty men of strength,
men of war for fighting,
handling shield and spear.
And their faces were like the faces of lions
and like gazelles on the mountains,
being swift.

1Chr. 12:9 (H 12.10)
Ezer was the chief,
Obadyah the second,
Eliyab the third,

Ezer means help.
Obadyah means servant of YAH.
Eliyab means El is my father.

1Chr. 12:10 (H 12.11)

Mishmannah the fourth,
Yirmeyah the fifth,

Mishmannah means fatness.
Yirmeyah means YAH will rise up.

1Chr. 12:11 (H 12.12)

Attai the sixth,
Eli'el the seventh,

Attai means timely.
Eli'el means El is my El.

1Chr. 12:12 (H 12.13)

Yohanah the eighth,
Elzabad the ninth,

Yohanah means given by YAH.
Elzabad means El has bestowed.

1Chr. 12:13 (H 12.14)

Yirmeyah the tenth,
Makbannai the eleventh.

Makbannai means a knoll.

1Chr. 12:14 (H 12.15)

These were from the sons of Gad,
captains of the assembly.
The least one was over a hundred,
and the greatest was over a thousand.

1Chr. 12:15 (H 12.16)

These were they who passed over The Yarden itself תא
in the first month.
And it was flowing over all its banks.
And they put to flight
all those themselves תא
of the valleys, to the east and to the west.

1Chr. 12:16 (H 12.17)

And some of the children of Binyamin
and Yahudah came to David,
as far as the stronghold.

1Chr. 12:17 (H 12.18)

And David went out to their faces.
And he responded. And he said to them,
"If you have come to me for peace,
for the sake of helping me,
there will exist for me
a heart concerning you,
as united with you,
but if for the sake
of betraying me to my oppressors
with there being no wrong in my hands
The Elohim of our fathers will see.
And He will reprove you."

1Chr. 12:18 (H 12.19)

And Amasai himself תא,
leader of the captains,
was clothed with The Divine Nature:
"Yours we are, David!
And we are with you, son of Yishai!
Shalom! Shalom to you!
And shalom to those helping you!
Indeed, your Elohim will help you!"

And David accepted them.
And he set them among
the captains of the raiding band.

There is a unique usage of ruach here.
It is combined with laveshah,
which means to wrap around, to clothe.
This requires special consideration.
Breath does not do this.
Wind does not do this.
Yet those are the two

common meanings of ruach.
Given the Hebrew concept of the breath representing the inner character
or nature of the person
the only reasonable explanation
in this context
is that he was miraculously clothed
with The Divine Nature.

His response to David strongly supports this concept.
This was not a natural event.
This was Divine intervention.

Since the Hebrews did not know
the meaning of the term 'spirit'
that term does not belong here.

But the "breath of YAHWEH"
would be to them "The Divine Nature".
It is that concept
which is expressed here.

1Chr. 12:19 (H 12.20)
And some from Menashe had fallen over to David when he was going with the Philistines
to fight against Sha'ul.
But they did not help them
because on account of counsel
the lords of the Philistines
had sent him away saying,
"On account of our heads
he will fall to his sovereign, Sha'ul."

1Chr. 12:20 (H 12.21)
At his going to Tziklag
there fell over to him from Menashe Adnah, and Yozabad, and Yediya'el,
and Mika'el, and Yozabad,
and Elihu, and Tzillethai, heads of the thousands who were from Menashe.

Adnah means pleasure.
Yozabad means endowed by YAH.
Yediya'el means El of knowing.
Mika'el means who is like El.
Elihu means He is my El.
Tzillethai means shady.

1Chr. 12:21 (H 12.22)
And they helped with David
against the raiding bands.
Indeed,
all of them were mighty men of strength.
And they were commanders in the army.

1Chr. 12:22 (H 12.23)
Indeed, at that time,
day by day,
they came to David
for the sake of helping him
until it was a great encampment,
like an encampment of YAHWEH.

1Chr. 12:23 (H 12.24)
And these were the numbers
of the captains of those being armed for war.
They came to David, to Hebron,
for the sake of turning over
the kingdom of Sha'ul to him,
according to the word of YAHWEH:

1Chr. 12:24 (H 12.25)
from the children of Yahudah,
carrying shield and spear,
six thousand eight hundred armed for war;
1Chr. 12:25 (H 12.26)

from the children of Shim'on,
 mighty men of strength for the army,
 seven thousand one hundred;
 1Chr. 12:26 (H 12.27)
 from the children of Levi,
 four thousand six hundred;
 1Chr. 12:27 (H 12.28)
 and Yahoyada, the ruler of the Aharonites;
 and with him were
 three thousand seven hundred;
 1Chr. 12:28 (H 12.29)
 and Tzadok, a young man,
 a mighty man of strength,
 and his father's house,
 twenty two commanders;
 1Chr. 12:29 (H 12.30)
 and from the children of Binyamin,
 kindred of Sha'ul, three thousand,
 but up to here the greatest part of them were guarding the duty of the house of Sha'ul;
 1Chr. 12:30 (H 12.31)
 and from the children of Ephraim,
 twenty thousand eight hundred mighty men of strength, men of names
 to their father's household;
 1Chr. 12:31 (H 12.32)
 and the half-tribe of Menashe,
 eighteen thousand,
 who had been designated by name
 for the sake of coming
 to cause David himself נא to reign;
 1Chr. 12:32 (H 12.33)
 and from the children of Yissaskar,
 those having understanding of the times
 for the sake of knowing
 what Yisra'el was to do,
 their leaders were two hundred.
 And all their kindred were at their direction;
 1Chr. 12:33 (H 12.34)
 from Zebulun, those going out to war,
 arranging battle with all the weapons of war,
 fifty thousand, even for the sake
 of maintaining rank with an undivided heart;
 1Chr. 12:34 (H 12.35)
 and from Naphtali,
 one thousand commanders.
 And with them, with shield and spear,
 thirty-seven thousand;
 1Chr. 12:35 (H 12.36)
 and from the Danites, those arranging war,
 twenty eight thousand six hundred;
 1Chr. 12:36 (H 12.37)
 and from Asher,
 those going out to war
 for the sake of arranging battle,
 forty thousand;
 1Chr. 12:37 (H 12.38)
 and from beyond The Yarden,
 from the Re'ubenites and the Gadites
 and the half tribe of Menashe,
 with every weapon of war,
 one hundred and twenty thousand.

 1Chr. 12:38 (H 12.39)
 All these men of war, keeping rank,
 with a whole heart came to Hebron
 for the sake of causing David himself נא
 to reign over all Yisra'el.
 And even all the rest of Yisra'el was of one heart
 for the sake of causing
David himself נא to reign.

1Chr. 12:39 (H 12.40)
And they were there with David three days,
eating and drinking,
because their kindred
had prepared for them.

1Chr. 12:40 (H 12.41)
And also those near to them,
from as far away as Yissaskar, and Zebulun,
and Naphtali, were bringing food
on asses and on camels, and on mules,
and on oxen, food of flour, and cakes of figs,
and cakes of raisins, wine, and oil,
and cattle, and sheep to abundance,
because there was joy in Yisra'el.

Chapter 13

1Chr. 13:1 And David consulted with the captains
of the thousands and the hundreds,
with every commander.

1Chr. 13:2 And David said
to all the assembly of Yisra'el,
"If it is good to you,
and if this has burst forth
from YAHWEH, our Elohim,
let us send to our kindred,
those remaining in all the land of Yisra'el,
and with them, the priests and Levites
in their cities of their open lands,
and let them be gathered to us.

1Chr. 13:3 And let us cause to turn back to us
The Chest itself nx of our Elohim.
Indeed, we have not sought Him
since the days of Sha'ul."

aron - box, chest, or ark.
The use of 'ark' is archaic.
It's generally thought of today
as some type of boat.
Chest is used to bring it more into line
with our current thinking.
Consider this to be the most precious treasure chest
in all of history.

1Chr. 13:4 And all the assembly said to do according to this because the word was right
in the eyes of all the people.

1Chr. 13:5 And David assembled
all Yisra'el itself nx,
from Shihor of Mitsraim
even as far as the entrance of Hamat,
for the sake of bringing
The Chest itself nx of YAHWEH
from Kiryat Ye'arim.

1Chr. 13:6 And David and all Yisra'el
went up to Ba'alah, to Kiryat Ye'arim,
which belongs to Yahudah,
for the sake of bringing up from there
The Chest of The Elohim,
YAHWEH,
Who is dwelling with the Cherubim,
where The Name is called out.

Most non-Hebrews
have no concept of the significance of The Chest of YAHWEH.

This is also known as
The Chest of The Covenant.
A copy of The Covenant
was placed in it at Sinai.

Upon the cover for this chest
were two cherubim.
Each had two wings outspread,
two of which covered the open space
between them above The Chest.
This very spot
was conceived to be the "seat",
The Throne of YAHWEH on earth.

It was believed that He was dwelling there continually,
and was thereby always in the midst
of the children of Yisra'el.

When The Chest
was captured by the Philistines
it was as if YAHWEH
had also been captured.

This was the most holy spot in all of Yisra'el.
It was here that the priests
ministered before YAHWEH.
It was here that they called out in His Name.
That Name is YAHWEH.
It is His ONLY name.

It was before His earthly throne
that they presented their most urgent requests.
To bring this back to Yisra'el was for them the act of bringing YAHWEH
back into their midst.

1Chr. 13:7 And they placed
The Chest itself nx of YAHWEH
on a new wagon
from the house of Abinadab.
And Uzza and Ahyo were guiding the wagon.

1Chr. 13:8 And David and all Yisra'el
were playing before the face of YAHWEH
with all their might,
and with songs, and with lyres,
and with harps, and with tambourines,
and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

1Chr. 13:9 And they came to the threshing floor of Kidon.
And Uzza put forth his hand itself nx
for the sake of holding
The Chest itself nx
because the oxen had stumbled.

1Chr. 13:10 And the anger of YAHWEH
flared up against Uzza.
And He struck him on account of having extended his hand upon The Chest.
And he died there
before the face of YAHWEH.

1Chr. 13:11 And anger flared up for David because YAHWEH had broken out against Uzza.
And that very place is called Peretz Uzza
until this very day.

1Chr. 13:12 And David was afraid of YAHWEH Himself nx
on that day saying,
"How can I bring to me
The Chest itself nx of YAHWEH?"

1Chr. 13:13 And David did not cause
The Chest itself nx
to turn aside to him to The City of David.
And he sent it aside
to the house of Obed Edom, the Gittite.

1Chr. 13:14 And The Chest of YAHWEH remained with the household of Obed Edom, in his house, three months.
And YAHWEH blessed the household itself אָה of Obed-Edom and everything itself אָה which was his.

Chapter 14

1Chr. 14:1 And Hiram, king of Tzor, sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, with craftsmen of walls, and craftsmen of wood for the sake of building a house for him.

1Chr. 14:2 And David knew that YAHWEH had established him as king over Yisra'el because his kingdom was being highly exalted for the sake of His people, Yisra'el.

1Chr. 14:3 And David took more wives in Yerushalaim.

And David brought forth more sons and daughters.

1Chr. 14:4 And these are the names of the children whom he had in Yerushalaim:

Shammua,
and Shobab,
Nathan,
and Shelomoh,

Shammua means renowned.

Shobab means rebellious

Nathan means given.

Shelomoh means peaceful.

1Chr. 14:5 and Yibhar,
and Elishua,
and Elpelet,

Yibhar means choice.

Elishua means El of my wealth.

Elpelet means El of deliverance.

1Chr. 14:6 and Nogah,
and Nepheg,
and Yaphiya,

Nogah means brilliancy.

Nepheg means a sprout.

Yaphiya means bright.

1Chr. 14:7 and Elishama,
and Ba'alyada,
and Eliphelet.

Elishama means

El of hearing.

Ba'alyada means

Ba'al has known.

Eliphelet means

El of my Deliverance.

1Chr. 14:8 And the Philistines heard that David had been anointed as king over all Yisra'el.

And all the Philistines went up for the sake of seeking David himself אָה.

And David heard.

And he went out to before their faces.

1Chr. 14:9 And the Philistines came.

And they spread out in The Valley of Repha'im.

1Chr. 14:10 And David inquired with YAHWEH saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? And will You give them into my hand?"
And YAHWEH said to him, "Go up!
And I will give them into your hand."

1Chr. 14:11 And they went up into Ba'al Peratzim.
And David struck them there.

And David said,
"YAHWEH has broken through my adversaries themselves נא
with my hand
like a breaking forth of waters."
For this reason they called the name of that place Ba'al Peratzim.

1Chr. 14:12 And they abandoned there their gods themselves נא.
And David spoke.
And they were burned with fire.

1Chr. 14:13 And once again the Philistines
spread out in the valley.

1Chr. 14:14 And David again
inquired with YAHWEH.

And YAHWEH said to him,
"Do not go up after them.
Go around from against them
and come to them
from in front of the mulberry trees.
1Chr. 14:15 And it will be at your hearing of a sound itself נא of the marching
in the tops of the mulberry trees,
then you are to go out into battle!
Indeed, YAHWEH has gone out before your faces
for the sake of striking the camp itself נא of the Philistines."

1Chr. 14:16 And David did
according to what YAHWEH
had given as direction to him.
And they struck the camp itself נא
of the Philistines
from Gib'on and as far as Gezer.

1Chr. 14:17 And the name of David went out into all lands.
And YAHWEH had put
the dread itself נא of him
upon all the nations.

Chapter 15

1Chr. 15:1 And he made for himself houses
in the City of David.
And he prepared a place
for The Chest of YAHWEH.
And he pitched a tent for it.

1Chr. 15:2 Then David said,
"No one is to carry
The Chest itself נא of YAHWEH
except the Levites
because they have been chosen by YAHWEH
for the sake of carrying
The Chest itself נא of YAHWEH,
and for the sake
of ministering to Him to eternity."

1Chr. 15:3 And David assembled
all Yisra'el itself נא at Yerushalaim,
for the sake of bringing up
The Chest itself נא of YAHWEH to its place
which he had prepared for it.

1Chr. 15:4 And David gathered the children themselves נא of Aharon
and the Levites themselves נא:

1Chr. 15:5 for the sons of Kohath:
Uri'el the head,
and one hundred and twenty of his kindred;
Uri'el means light of El.

1Chr. 15:6 for the sons of Merari:
Asayah the head,
and two hundred and twenty of his kindred;
Asayah means YAH has made.

1Chr. 15:7 for the sons of Gershom:
Yo'el the head,
and one hundred and thirty of his brothers;
Yo'el means YAH is El.

1Chr. 15:8 for the sons of Elitzaphan:
Shemayah the head,
and two hundred of his kindred;
*Elitzaphan means treasure of El.
Shemayah means YAH has listened.*

1Chr. 15:9 for the sons of Hebron:
Eli'el the head,
and eighty of his kindred;
*Hebron means seat of association.
Eli'el means El is my El.*

1Chr. 15:10 for the sons of Uzzi'el:
Amminadab the the head,
and one hundred and twelve of his brothers.
*Uzzi'el means El is my strength.
Amminadab means people of liberality.*

1Chr. 15:11 And David called for Tzadok and Ebyathar, the priests,
and for the Levites, for Uri'el, Asayah,
and Yo'el, Shemayah,
and Eli'el, and Amminadab.

1Chr. 15:12 And he said to them,
"You yourselves nx are the heads
of the fathers for the Levites.
Set yourselves apart,
you yourselves nx and your kindred.
Then you are to bring up
The Chest itself nx of YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el,
to the place I have prepared for it.

1Chr. 15:13 Because of how at the first it was not you yourselves nx YAHWEH, our Elohim,
has broken out against us,
on account of our not seeking Him
concerning the regulation."

1Chr. 15:14 And the priests and the Levites
set themselves apart
for the sake of bringing up
The Chest itself nx of YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el.

1Chr. 15:15 And the sons of the Levites carried
The Chest itself nx of YAHWEH
according to what Moshe had directed,
according to the word of YAHWEH,
upon their shoulders
with its poles upon them.

1Chr. 15:16 And David spoke to the heads of the Levites
for the sake of causing to stand
their kindred themselves nx,
the singers, with instruments of music,
harps, and lyres, and cymbals,
causing them to be heard for the sake
of causing a sound of joy to be lifted up.

1Chr. 15:17 And the Levites
stood up Heman himself nx,
son of Yo'el, and from his kindred,

Asaph, son of Berekyah,
and from the sons of Merari,
their kindred, 'Eythan, son of Kushayah,

Heman means faithful.
Yo'el means YAH is El.
Asaph means collector.
Berekyah means blessing of YAH.
'Ethan means permanent.
Kushayah means entrapped by YAH.

1Chr. 15:18 and with them their kindred
of the second rank:

Zekaryah, Ben, and Ya'azi'el,
and Shemiramoth, and Yahi'el,
and Unni, Eliyab, and Benayah,
and Ma'aseyah, and Mattithyah,
and Eliphelehu, and Mikneyah,
and Obed Edom, and Ye'i'el,
the gatekeepers.

Zekaryah means YAH has remembered.
Ben means a son.
Ya'azi'el means emboldened by El.
Shemiramot means a name of heights.
Yahi'el means YAH is my El.
Unni means afflicted.
Eliyab means El is my father.
Benayah means YAH has built.
Ma'aseyah means a work of YAH.
Mattithyah means gift of YAH.
Eliphelehu means his El is distinguished.
Mikneyah means possession of YAH.
Obed Edom means servant of Edom.
Ye'ie'el means his eyes are toward El.

1Chr. 15:19 And those doing the singing,
Heman, Asaph, and Eythan, were to cause sound
with cymbals of copper;

1Chr. 15:20 and Zekaryah, and Azi'el,
and Shemiramoth, and Yehi'el, and Unni,
and Eliyab, and Ma'aseyah, and Benayah,
with harps according to Alamothe.

The meaning of Alamothe is unknown.
It's believed to be a style of music
or perhaps a song.

1Chr. 15:21 and Mattithyah, and Eliphelehu,
and Mikneyah, and Obed Edom,
and Ye'i'el, and Azazyah
were to lead with lyres on the Sheminith.

Sheminith comes from a word meaning eighth.
It's believed to be an instruction
for those doing the music.

1Chr. 15:22 And Kenanyah
was leader of the Levites
in the music because he was skilled.

Kenanyah means YAH has planted.

1Chr. 15:23 and Berekyah and Elkanah
were doorkeepers for The Chest.

1Chr. 15:24 And Shebanyah, and Yoshaphat,
and Nethan'el, and Amasai, and Zekaryah,
and Benayah, and Eli'ezer, the priests,
were to blow with the trumpets
before The Chest of YAHWEH.

And Obed-Edom and Yahiyah
were doorkeepers for the chest.

Shebanyah means YAH has grown.
Yoshaphat means YAH is judge.
Nethan'el means given by El.
Amasai means burdensome.
Zekaryah means
YAH has remembered.
Benayah means YAH has built.
Eli'ezer means El is my help.
Yahiyah means YAH lives.

1Chr. 15:25 And it was David,
and the elders of Yisra'el,

and the commanders of the thousands who were going
for the sake of bringing up
The Chest itself נח
of The Covenant of YAHWEH
from the house of Obed Edom with joy.

1Chr. 15:26 And it was as YAHWEH was helping the Levites themselves נח who were carrying
The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH.
And they sacrificed
seven bulls and seven rams.

1Chr. 15:27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen,
also all the Levites
who were carrying The Chest itself נח,
and the singers, and Kenanyah,
the head person of the burden
of those doing the singing.
And upon David was a linen ephod.

NOTE: This is supremely important!
David, the King of Yisra'el,
is wearing Priestly Garments!
He is portraying
the extremely important concept
of The King as Priest!
He is foreshadowing The Messiah,
Who will serve
as King and as Priest in Eternity!

1Chr. 15:28 And all Yisra'el was bringing up
The Chest itself נח
of The Covenant of YAHWEH
with shouts of joy,
and with the sound of the shofar,
with trumpets, and with cymbals,
being heard with harps and with lyres.

1Chr. 15:29 And it was as
The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH
was coming to the City of David.
And Mikal, the daughter of Sha'ul,
had looked through the window.
And she saw King David himself נח
dancing and playing.
And she had contempt for him in her heart.

Chapter 16

1Chr. 16:1 And they brought
The Chest itself נח of YAHWEH.
And they set it itself נח
in the midst of the tent
which David had pitched for it.
And they caused to come near olahs
and shelem offerings
before the face of YAHWEH.

olah - a whole burnt offering.
This symbolizes
total commitment to YAHWEH.
shelem - voluntary offerings
of thanksgiving.

1Chr. 16:2 And David had ended offering
the olahs and the shelem offerings.
And he blessed the people themselves נח
in the Name of YAHWEH.

1Chr. 16:3 And he gave a portion to every man of Yisra'el
and to every woman,
to each one a loaf of bread, and a portion,
and a cake of raisins.

1Chr. 16:4 And he set some of the Levites to be ministering

before The Chest of YAHWEH,
to cause remembrance,
and to give thanks,
and to give praise
to YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el: 1Chr. 16:5 Asaph the head,
and his second Zekaryah, Ye'i'el, and Shemiramot, and Yehi'el,
and Mattithyah, and Eliyab, and Benayah,
and Obed-Edom, and Ye'i'el,
with harps and lyres.
And Asaph was sounding with cymbals.
1Chr. 16:6 And Benayah and Yahazi'el,
the priests,
with the trumpets continually before
The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH.

1Chr. 16:7 On that day itself, then,
David had given this at the beginning to give thanks to YAHWEH
by the hand of Asaph and his kindred:
1Chr. 16:8 "Give thanks to YAHWEH!
Call in His Name!
Cause His actions
to be known among the peoples!
1Chr. 16:9 Sing to Him!
Sing praise to Him!
Speak concerning all His extraordinary acts!
1Chr. 16:10 Give praise on account of His set apart Name!
Let the heart of those seeking YAHWEH rejoice!
1Chr. 16:11 Seek YAHWEH and His power!
Seek His face continually!

1Chr. 16:12 Remember His extraordinary acts
which He has done,
His signs and the judgments of His mouth,
1Chr. 16:13 seed of Yisra'el, His servant,
children of Ya'akov, His chosen!

1Chr. 16:14 He Himself
is YAHWEH, our Elohim!
His judgments are in all the earth!

1Chr. 16:15 Remember to eternity
His Covenant,
The Word He has given as direction
to a thousand generations, 16:16 which He cut
with Abraham himself nx,
and His oath to Yitzhak!

1Chr. 16:17 And He established it to Ya'akov as a rule,
to Yisra'el as an eternal Covenant, 1Chr. 16:18 saying, "To you I give the land of Kena'an,
the measuring line of your inheritance," 1Chr. 16:19 when you were few in number,
as small, and sojourners in it.

1Chr. 16:20 And they walked, themselves,
from nation to nation,
and from one kingdom to another people.

1Chr. 16:21 He permitted no man
to oppress them.
And He chastened kings
on account of them saying, 1Chr. 16:22 "You are not to touch on My anointed
and with My prophets
you are to do nothing bad!"

1Chr. 16:23 Sing to YAHWEH, all the earth!
Announce His deliverance from day to day!
1Chr. 16:24 Declare among the nations
His honor itself nx,
among all the peoples,
His extraordinary acts!

1Chr. 16:25 Indeed, great is YAHWEH!
And He is to be greatly praised!
And He is to be revered above all gods!

1Chr. 16:26 Indeed, all the gods of the peoples are worthlessnesses!
But YAHWEH has made the skies!

1Chr. 16:27 Majesty and splendor
are before His face!
Power and joy are in His place!

1Chr. 16:28 Ascribe to YAHWEH,
families of the peoples,
ascribe to YAHWEH honor and power!
1Chr. 16:29 Ascribe to YAHWEH
the honor of His Name!

Lift up a grain offering
and come before His face!
Bow yourself down to YAHWEH
in the beauty of set-apartness!

1Chr. 16:30 Writhe before His face,
all the earth!
The world also is firmly established!
It can not be moved!

1Chr. 16:31 Let the skies rejoice!
And let the earth be glad!
And let them say among the nations,
“YAHWEH has reigned!”

1Chr. 16:32 Let the sea roar, and its fulness!
Let the open space rejoice,
and everything that is in it!
1Chr. 16:33 Then let the trees of the forest
sing before the face of YAHWEH!
Indeed, He is coming
for the sake of judging the earth!

1Chr. 16:34 Give thanks to YAHWEH!
Indeed, He is good!
Indeed, His kindness is to eternity!

1Chr. 16:35 And say,
“Cause us to be delivered,
Elohim of our deliverance!
And gather us!
And rescue us from the nations
for the sake of giving thanks
to Your set-apart Name,
and for the sake of soothing ourselves
with Your praise!”

1Chr. 16:36 Blessed be YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra’el,
from the eternity to the eternity!”
And all the people said, “Amen!”
And, “Praise be to YAHWEH!”

1Chr. 16:37 And he left there before
The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH
Asaph and his kindred
for the sake of ministering
before The Chest continually,

for the days work according to the day;
1Chr. 16:38 and Obed Edom
and his sixty eight kindred,
including Obed Edom, son of Yeduthun,
and Hosah, as gatekeepers; 1Chr. 16:39 and Tzadok himself תז, the priest,
and his kindred, the priests,
before The Dwelling Place of YAHWEH
at the high place that was at Gib'on 1Chr. 16:40 for the sake of offering olahs
to YAHWEH
upon the slaughter site of the olah
continually, at morning and at evening,
and for all that had been written in The Instruction of YAHWEH
which He had given as direction to Yisra'el.

1Chr. 16:41 And with them
were Heman, and Yeduthun,
and the rest of those having been chosen
who had been designated by name
for the sake of giving thanks to YAHWEH
because His kindness is to eternity.

1Chr. 16:42 And with them
were Heman and Yeduthun
for the sake of sounding with trumpets and cymbals
and all the instruments
for the songs of YAHWEH.
And the sons of Yeduthun were at the gates.

1Chr. 16:43 And all the people went,
each to his house.
And David turned around
for the sake of blessing
his household itself תז.

Chapter 17

1Chr. 17:1 And it was at the time
when David was dwelling in his house.
And David said to Nathan, the prophet,
"Behold!
I am dwelling in a house of cedars
but The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH is under curtains."

1Chr. 17:2 And Nathan said to David,
"Do all that is in your heart!
Indeed, YAHWEH is with you."

1Chr. 17:3 And it was on that night.
And the word of YAHWEH
existed to Nathan saying, 1Chr. 17:4 "Go!
And you are to say to My servant, David,
"Thus said YAHWEH,
"You yourself תז will not build for Me
the house for the sake of My dwelling.
1Chr. 17:5 Indeed, I have not dwelt in a house from the day that I caused Yisra'el itself תז
to come up to this very day.
And I have existed from tent to tent,
even from a Tabernacle.

1Chr. 17:6 In every place where I have moved Myself with all Yisra'el have I spoken a word to one itself תז
of the judges of Yisra'el
whom I have directed to shepherd
My people themselves תז saying,
"Why have you not built for Me
a house of cedars?"

1Chr. 17:7 And now according to this

you are to say to My servant, to David,
'Thus said YAHWEH of Assemblies,
"I Myself took you from the sheepfold,
from following the sheep,
for the sake of being ruler
over My people, Yisra'el.
1Chr. 17:8 And I have been with you wherever you have gone.

And I have cut off
all your adversaries themselves תא
from before your face.
And I have made for you a name
like the name of the great men who are on the earth.

1Chr. 17:9 And I will establish a place
for My people, Yisra'el.
And I will plant them.
And they will dwell in it.
And they will not be disturbed.
And no longer
will the children of moral wrong
oppress them as at the beginning, 1Chr. 17:10 even from the day
in which I directed those judging concerning My people, Yisra'el.
And I have subdued
all your adversaries themselves תא.
And I have declared it to you.
And YAHWEH will build a house for you.

1Chr. 17:11 And it will exist when your days have been fulfilled for the sake of going to be with your fathers.
And I will cause your seed itself תא
to rise up after you
who will be from your sons.
And I will establish his kingdom itself תא.

1Chr. 17:12 He himself
will build a house for Me.
And I will establish his throne itself תא
to eternity.

1Chr. 17:13 I Myself will be to him as a father.
And he himself will be to Me as a son.
And My kindness
I will not cause to depart from him
according to how I caused it to depart
from him who was before you.

1Chr. 17:14 And I will establish him
in My house
and in My Kingdom to eternity.
And his throne has been established
to eternity." ' "

1Chr. 17:15 According to all these words
and according to all this vision,
thus Nathan spoke to David.

1Chr. 17:16 And David, the king, went in and he sat before the face of YAHWEH.
And he said,
"Who am I myself, YAHWEH, Elohim?
And what is my house
that You have brought me as far as this?
1Chr. 17:17 And this was insignificant
in Your eyes, Elohim.

And You have spoken
concerning the house of Your servant
for a great distance to come.

And You have considered me
according to the estate
of an exalted human being,
YAHWEH, Elohim.

1Chr. 17:18 What more can David add to You for the sake of honor,
Your servant himself nx?
Even You Yourself nx know
Your servant himself nx!

1Chr. 17:19 YAHWEH, with Your servant,
Your servant, even according to Your heart,
You have done all this greatness itself nx,
for the sake of making known
all the greatness itself nx.

1Chr. 17:20 YAHWEH, there is none like You!
And there is no Elohim beside You
according to everything
which we have heard
with our own ears.

1Chr. 17:21 “And who is like
Your people, Yisra’el,
the one nation on earth whom YAHWEH
has gone to redeem for Himself as a people
for the sake of making for Yourself
a Name of greatness and awesomeness
by driving out nations
from before the faces of Your people whom You have redeemed from Mitsraim?

1Chr. 17:22 And You have granted
Your people themselves nx, Yisra’el,
to be to You as a people to eternity.
And You Yourself nx, YAHWEH,
have existed for them as The Elohim.

1Chr. 17:23 “And now, YAHWEH,
the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant
and concerning his house,
let it be established to eternity!
And do according to what You have spoken!

1Chr. 17:24 And amen!
And may Your Name be magnified
to eternity saying, ‘YAHWEH of Assemblies,
The Elohim of Yisra’el,
is The Elohim to Yisra’el!”

And may the house of David, Your servant,
be established before You!

1Chr. 17:25 Indeed,
You Yourself nx, my Elohim,
have revealed it
to the ear itself nx of Your servant
for the sake of building a house for him.
For this reason Your servant has been found to pray before Your face.

1Chr. 17:26 “And now, YAHWEH,
You Yourself nx are He, The Elohim!
And You have spoken
concerning Your servant this goodness.
1Chr. 17:27 And now, You have been pleased to bless the house itself nx of Your servant
to exist to eternity before Your face!
Indeed, You Yourself nx, YAHWEH, have blessed it.
And it will be blessed to eternity!”

Chapter 18

1Chr. 18:1 And it was after this.

And David struck

the Philistines themselves תא.

And he subdued them.

And he captured Gath itself תא and its towns
from the hand of the Philistines.

1Chr. 18:2 And he struck Mo'ab itself תא.

And the Mo'abites existed

as servants to David, bringing tribute.

1Chr. 18:3 And David struck

Hadadezer himself תא,

king of Tzobah, at Hamat

as he was going to establish his authority
at the River Euphrates.

1Chr. 18:4 And David captured from him

a thousand chariots,

and seven thousand horsemen,

and twenty thousand foot soldiers.

And David also hamstrung

all the chariot horses themselves תא.

But he left from them a hundred chariots.

1Chr. 18:5 And Aram of Damascus came for the sake of helping to Hadadezer,

king of Tzobah.

And David struck among Aram

twenty two thousand.

1Chr. 18:6 And David placed men

in Aram of Damascus.

And Aram existed as David's servants,

bringing tribute.

And YAHWEH caused deliverance for David
according to wherever he went.

1Chr. 18:7 And David took the shields of gold themselves תא

which were on the servants of Hadadezer.

And he brought them to Yerushalaim.

1Chr. 18:8 And from Tibhath and from Kun,

cities of Hadadezer,

David brought exceedingly much copper.

With it Shelomoh made

the copper sea itself תא,

and the columns themselves תא,

and all the vessels of copper themselves תא.

1Chr. 18:9 And To'u, king of Hamath,

heard that David had struck

all the forces themselves תא of Hadadezer,

king of Tzobah.

1Chr. 18:10 And he sent Hadoram himself תא,

his son, to David, the king,

for the sake of requesting shalom of him,

and for the sake of blessing him

because he had fought against Hadadezer

and had struck him, because Hadadezer

had been fighting against To'u,

and all kinds of objects of gold,

and silver, and copper.

1Chr. 18:11 The king, David,

also set these themselves תא

apart to YAHWEH,

with the silver and the gold

which he had captured from all the nations,

from Edom, and from Mo'ab,

and from the children of Ammon,

and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

1Chr. 18:12 And Abishai, son of Tzeruyah, struck eighteen thousand of Edom itself nx in The Valley of Salt.

1Chr. 18:13 And he placed garrisons in Edom. And all the Edomites existed as servants to David.

And YAHWEH caused deliverance for David himself nx wherever he went.

1Chr. 18:14 And David reigned over all Yisra'el. And he was doing judgment and justice for all his people.

1Chr. 18:15 And Yo'ab, son of Tzeruyah, was over the assembly.

And Yahoshaphat, son of Ahilud was recorder.

1Chr. 18:16 And Tzadok, son of Ahitub, and Abimelek, son of Ebyathar, were the priests.

And Shavsha was the scribe,

1Chr. 18:17 And Benayah, son of Yahoyada, was over the Perethites and the Pelethites.

And the sons of David were the foremost by the hand of the king.

Chapter 19

1Chr. 19:1 And it was after this.

And Nahash, king of the children of Ammon, died. And his son reigned in his place.

1Chr. 19:2 And David said, "I will act with kindness with Hanun, son of Nahash, because his father acted with kindness with me." And David sent messengers for the sake of comforting him concerning his father.

And the servants of David went to the land of the children of Ammon, to Hanun, for the sake of comforting him.

1Chr. 19:3 And the rulers of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, "Is David honoring your father himself nx in your eyes because he has sent those comforting to you? Is it not on account of the servants searching? Have his servants not come to you for the sake of searching and overthrowing and spying out the land?"

1Chr. 19:4 And Hanun captured the servants themselves nx of David.

And he shaved them.

And he cut off their garments themselves nx in the middle, up to the buttocks.

And he sent them away.

1Chr. 19:5 And they went.

And some reported to David concerning the men.

And he sent some to meet them because the men were exceedingly ashamed.

And the king said, "Remain at Jericho until when your beards have grown. Then return."

1Chr. 19:6 And the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves

a stench with David.
And Hanun and the children of Ammon
sent a thousand talents of silver to hire for themselves
chariots and horsemen
from Aram-Naharaim,
and from Aram-Ma'akah,
and from Tzobah.

1Chr. 19:7 And they hired for themselves
thirty two thousand chariots,
and the king of Ma'akah himself תא
and his people themselves תא.
And they came.
And they encamped before Medeba.
And the children of Ammon
had been gathered from their cities.
And they had come for the sake of fighting.

1Chr. 19:8 And David had heard.
And he sent Yo'ab himself תא
and the entire assembly itself תא
of the mighty men.

1Chr. 19:9 And the children of Ammon
came out.
And they arranged themselves for battle
at the entrance of the city.
And the kings who had come
were by themselves in the field.

1Chr. 19:10 And Yo'ab saw that the face of the battle
was against him, before and behind.
And he chose from all the choice ones in Yisra'el.
And he arranged them
for the sake of encountering Aram.

1Chr. 19:11 And the rest of the people themselves תא
he gave into the hand of Abishai, his brother.
And they were arranged for the sake
of encountering the children of Ammon.

1Chr. 19:12 And he said,
"If Aram is stronger than me
then you are to be to me as a deliverance.
And if the children of Ammon
are stronger than you
then I will deliver you.

1Chr. 19:13 Be strong!
And strengthen yourselves
on behalf of our people
and on behalf of the cities of our Elohim!
And may YAHWEH do
what is good in His eyes."

1Chr. 19:14 And Yo'ab approached,
and the people who were his,
before the face of Aram
for the sake of fighting.
And they fled from before their faces.

1Chr. 19:15 And the children of Ammon
saw that the Arameans had fled.
And they also fled
from the face of Abishai, his brother.
And they went into the city.
And Yo'ab went to Yerushalaim.

1Chr. 19:16 And Aram saw that they had been struck
before the faces of Yisra'el.

And they sent messengers.
And they brought forth
the Arameans themselves תא
who were from beyond The River.
And Shophak, commander of the assembly
of Hadadezer was before their faces.

1Chr. 19:17 And it was reported to David.
And he gathered all Yisra'el itself תא.
And he passed over The Yarden.
And he came toward them.
And he arranged against them.
And David arranged for the sake
of meeting against Aram for battle.
And they fought with him.
1Chr. 19:18 And Aram fled
from before the faces of Yisra'el.
And David killed from the Arameans
seven thousand chariots
and forty thousand men of the footmen.
And Shophak himself תא,
the commander of the assembly,
he put to death.

1Chr. 19:19 And the servants of Hadadezer
saw that they had been struck
before the faces of Yisra'el.
And they made peace with David.
And they existed as his servants.
And Aram was not willing to deliver the children of Ammon themselves תא
any longer.

Chapter 20

1Chr. 20:1 And it was at the time
of the recurrence of the year,
at the time of the going out of the kings.

And Yo'ab led forth
the strength itself תא of the assembly.
And he destroyed the land itself תא
of the children of Ammon.
And he went.
And he besieged Rabbah itself תא.
But David was sitting at Yerushalaim.
And Yo'ab struck Rabbah itself תא.
And he overthrew it.
1Chr. 20:2 And David took the crown itself תא
from their king from upon his head.
And he discovered it weighed
a talent of gold.
And in it were precious stones.
And it was upon David's head.
And he brought out the spoil of the city,
exceedingly much.

1Chr. 20:3 And the people themselves תא
who were in it he brought out.
And they cut with saws,
and with sharp instruments of the iron,
and with axes.
And thus David did to all the cities
of the children of Ammon.

And David and all the people
returned to Yerushalaim.

1Chr. 20:4 And it was afterward.
And fighting arose at Gezer
with the Philistines.
Then Sibbekai, the Hushathite,
struck Sippai himself תא,
from the sons of the giant.

And they were subdued.

1Chr. 20:5 And there was fighting again with the Philistines themselves תא.
And Elhanan, son of Ya'ir, struck Lahmi himself תא
the brother of Golyat, the Gittite.
And the shaft of his spear
was like a beam of a weaver.

1Chr. 20:6 And there was fighting again at Gath.
And there was a man of great size.
And his toes and fingers were six and six,
twenty and four.
And he also had been born to the giant.

1Chr. 20:7 And he defamed Yisra'el itself תא.
And Yahonathan, son of Shim'a,
a brother of David, struck him.

1Chr. 20:8 These had been born to the giant in Gath.
And they had fallen by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

Chapter 21

1Chr. 21:1 And Satan stood up against Yisra'el.
And he provoked David himself תא to count Yisra'el itself תא.

It's seldom recognized that taking a census, counting Yisra'el, meant imposing a "tax" upon the people of ½ shekel.

This means there are two aspects of this that are seldom considered. Taking such a count served to boost David's view of himself as king. But it also brought significant money into the treasury. Both of these actions are contrary to the desires of YAHWEH as is reflected in this story.

1Chr. 21:2 And David said to Yo'ab and to the rulers of the people,
"Go! Count Yisra'el itself תא from Be'ersheba even as far as Dan and bring it to me.
Then I will know the number of them itself תא."

1Chr. 21:3 But Yo'ab said,
"May YAHWEH add over His people a hundred times more!
Is not my sovereign the king of all of them?
To my sovereign they are as servants.
Why does my sovereign seek to do this?
Why should he exist as a cause of guilt for Yisra'el?"

1Chr. 21:4 But the word of the king prevailed over Yo'ab.
And Yo'ab left.
And he went out into all Yisra'el.
And he came to Yerushalaim.
1Chr. 21:5 And Yo'ab gave the number itself תא of the census of the people to David.
And there existed of all Yisra'el one million one hundred thousand men drawing the sword,
and Yahudah,

four hundred and seventy thousand men drawing the sword.

1Chr. 21:6 But Levi and Binyamin
he had not counted among them
because the word of the king
was detestable to Yo'ab himself נא.

1Chr. 21:7 And it was bad
in the eyes of YAHWEH,
concerning this matter.
And He struck Yisra'el itself נא.

1Chr. 21:8 And David said to YAHWEH,
"I have offended exceedingly
with this thing itself נא which I have done.
And now pass over please
the moral perversity itself נא of Your servant!
Indeed, I have been exceedingly foolish!"

1Chr. 21:9 And YAHWEH spoke to Gad,
David's seer saying,
1Chr. 21:10 "Go!
And you are to speak to David saying,
'Thus said YAHWEH,
"I Myself am extending three things to you.
Choose one of them for yourself,
and I will do it for you." ' "

1Chr. 21:11 And Gad went to David.
And he said to him,
"Thus said YAHWEH,
'Choose for yourself
1Chr. 21:12 either three years of famine,
or three months being swept away
from before the faces of your oppressors
and the sword of your adversaries
for the sake of overtaking you,
or three days the sword of YAHWEH,
even the pestilence in the land and the messenger of YAHWEH destroying within all the borders of Yisra'el.'
And now consider what I am to return to The One Himself נא
sending me with the word."

1Chr. 21:13 And David said to Gad,
"The distress to me is exceeding.
Please let me fall into the hand of YAHWEH.
Indeed, His compassions
are exceedingly great.
But into the hand of a human being
do not let me fall."

1Chr. 21:14 And YAHWEH set a pestilence
among Yisra'el.
And there fell from Yisra'el
seventy thousand men.

1Chr. 21:15 And YAHWEH sent a messenger
to Yerushalaim for the sake of destroying it.
And as he was destroying YAHWEH observed.
And He relented concerning the harm.
And He said to the messenger,
the one who was destroying,
"Enough now! Stop your hand!"
And the messenger of YAHWEH
was standing beside the threshing floor of Ornan, the Yebusite.

1Chr. 21:16 And David lifted his eyes themselves נא.
And he saw the messenger himself נא

of YAHWEH

standing between earth and the skies,
and a sword having been drawn in his hand,
having been stretched out over Yerushalaim.
And David and the elders,
being covered with sackcloth,
fell on their faces.

1Chr. 21:17 And David said to YAHWEH,
“Was it not I myself
who said to count the people?
Even I myself am he who has offended
and done wrong indeed!
But these, the sheep, what have they done?
YAHWEH, My Elohim, please let Your hand be against me and against
the house of my father
and not against Your people as a pestilence.”

1Chr. 21:18 And the messenger of YAHWEH
spoke to Gad to say to David that David is go up
for the sake of raising up
a slaughter site to YAHWEH
on the threshing floor of Ornan, the Yebusite.

1Chr. 21:19 And David went up according to the word of Gad
which he had spoken
in the Name of YAHWEH.

1Chr. 21:20 And Ornan turned back.
And he saw the messenger himself nx.
And his four sons with him hid themselves.
And Ornan was threshing wheat.

1Chr. 21:21 And David came to Ornan.
And Ornan looked intently.
And he saw David himself nx.
And he went out from the threshing floor.
And he bowed down toward David
with his face to the ground.

1Chr. 21:22 And David said to Ornan,
“Grant to me the place of the threshing floor.
And I will build on it
a slaughter site to YAHWEH.
At the full price grant it to me.
Then the pestilence will be restrained
from over the people.”

1Chr. 21:23 And Ornan said to David,
“Accept it for yourself.
And let my sovereign the king do
that which is good in his eyes.
Behold!
I have given to you the oxen for olahs,
and the threshing implements for wood,
and the wheat for a grain offering.
I have given everything.”

1Chr. 21:24 But David, the king,
said to Ornan, “No.
Truly indeed, I will purchase it
at the full price.
Indeed,
I will not take what is yours for YAHWEH.
And I will not offer up an olah without cost.”

1Chr. 21:25 And David gave to Ornan
six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

1Chr. 21:26 And David built there
a slaughter site to YAHWEH.

And he offered olahs and shelem offerings.
And he called out to YAHWEH.
And He responded
with fire from The Heavens
upon the slaughter site of the olah.

1Chr. 21:27 And YAHWEH
spoke to the messenger.
And he returned his sword to its sheath.

1Chr. 21:28 At that very time,
as David was seeing that YAHWEH had answered him
on the threshing floor of Ornan, the Yebusite,
then he sacrificed there.

1Chr. 21:29 But The Tabernacle of YAHWEH
and the slaughter site of the olah
which Moshe had made in the wilderness
were at that time at the high place in Gib'on.
1Chr. 21:30 But David was not able to go before it
for the sake of inquiring of YAHWEH
because he was afraid of the sword
of the messenger of YAHWEH.

Chapter 22

1Chr. 22:1 David then said, "This itself is The House of YAHWEH, The Elohim.
And this is the slaughter site of olah
for Yisra'el."

1Chr. 22:2 And David said to gather the foreigners themselves nx
who were in the land of Yisra'el.
And he established hewers
for the sake of hewing cut stones
for the sake of building
The House of YAHWEH.

1Chr. 22:3 And iron to abundance for the nails
for the doors of the gates and for the clamps
David caused to be prepared,
and copper so abundant
it could not be weighed 1Chr. 22:4 And cedar trees
to exceeding abundance
when the Tzidonians and the Tzorites
brought cedar wood to abundance to David.

1Chr. 22:5 And David said, "Shelomoh, my son,
is young and indecisive.
And the house to be built for YAHWEH
is to be magnificent to the highest for the sake of a name to all the lands.
I will make preparation now for it."

And David made abundant preparations
before his death.

1Chr. 22:6 And he called for,
Shelomoh, his son.
And he gave direction to him
for the sake of building a house
for YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el.

1Chr. 22:7 And David said to Shelomoh,
"My son, I myself,
it has been with my heart to build a house
for the Name of YAHWEH, my Elohim, 1Chr. 22:8 But the word of YAHWEH
existed to me saying,

'Blood to abundance you have poured out.
And you have done great battles.
You will not build a house for My Name
because you have poured out much blood
on the earth before My face.

1Chr. 22:9 Behold!
A son will be born to you.
He will be a man of rest.
And I will cause rest for him
from all his adversaries all around.
Indeed, Shelomoh is to be his name.
And shalom and tranquility
I will give concerning Yisra'el in his days.

Shelomoh means peaceful.
shalom means safe, well,
happy, prosperous, etc.
Generally, it means complete well being
in every aspect of one's life.

1Chr. 22:10 He himself
will build a house for My Name.
And he himself will be to Me as a son,
and I Myself to him as a Father.

And I will establish the throne of his kingdom
over Yisra'el until eternity.'

1Chr. 22:11 Now, my son,
may YAHWEH be with you
and cause you to prosper!
Then you will build
The House of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
according to what He has spoken
concerning you.

1Chr. 22:12 Of a certainty,
YAHWEH will give to you
wisdom and understanding.
And He will direct you concerning Yisra'el,
even for the sake of protecting
The Torah itself nx of YAHWEH, your Elohim.

torah means instruction or statute.
It's traditionally translated as "law".
However, the root word
from which it comes, yarah,
means instruction.

"The Torah of Moshe"
consists of far more than "law".
It is an inclusive
series of instructions
that reveal YAHWEH's
desire for His people.

There is NEVER A DEMAND to follow them
- only an invitation,
a "calling out to one".

If you fail to understand this fundamental truth of Scripture
you will have all kinds of trouble living with it.

1Chr. 22:13 Then you will be caused to prosper,
if you watch carefully to do the rules themselves nx
and the regulations themselves nx
which YAHWEH gave as direction
to Moshe himself nx concerning Yisra'el.
Be strong and brave!
Do not fear nor be discouraged!

1Chr. 22:14 And behold!
On account of my affliction

I have prepared for The House of YAHWEH
a hundred thousand talents of gold,
and a million talents of silver,
and for copper and for iron without weight,
indeed, to abundance.
And timber and stone I have prepared.
And to them you will add.

1Chr. 22:15 And with you to abundance
are many doing the work of hewers,
and craftsmen of stone and timber,
and everyone wise in every task.

1Chr. 22:16 Of gold and of silver and of copper and of iron there is no count.
Rise up!
And act!
And YAHWEH will be with you!"

1Chr. 22:17 And David commanded all the rulers of Yisra'el
to be a help for Shelomoh, his son, saying, 1Chr. 22:18 "Is not YAHWEH, your Elohim,
with you?
And has He not caused rest for you
from all around?
Indeed, He has given into my hand
those themselves nx
who are dwelling in the land.
And the land has been subdued
before the face of YAHWEH
and before the faces of His people!

1Chr. 22:19 Now, give your heart and your life
for the sake of seeking YAHWEH your Elohim!
And rise up!
And build The Set Apart Place itself nx
of YAHWEH, The Elohim,
for the sake of bringing
The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH
itself nx
and the set apart vessels of YAHWEH
for the house that is going to be built for sake of the Name of YAHWEH!"

Chapter 23

1Chr. 23:1 And David was old
and satisfied with days.
And he caused Shelomoh himself nx, his son,
to reign over Yisra'el.

1Chr. 23:2 And he gathered
all the rulers themselves nx of Yisra'el,
and the priests, and the Levites.
1Chr. 23:3 And the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and up.
And the number of them
by their heads for a man,
was thirty eight thousand.
1Chr. 23:4 From these, twenty four thousand were to oversee concerning the work
of The House of YAHWEH,
and six thousand were officers and judges, 1Chr. 23:5 and four thousand were gatekeepers,
and four thousand
were giving praise to YAHWEH,
"with instruments which I had made for the sake of giving praise."

1Chr. 23:6 And David divided them as divisions.
Of the sons of Levi:
of Gershon, Kohath, and Merari;
Gershon means a refugee.

Kohath means an ally.
Merari means biter.

23:7 of the Gershonites:
La'dan and Shim'i.

La'adan - meaning uncertain.
Shim'i means famous.

1Chr. 23:8 The sons of La'dan:
the head, Yehi'el,
and Zetam and Yo'el, three.

Yehi'el means El lives.
Zetam means olive grove.
Yo'el means YAH is EL.

1Chr. 23:9 of the sons of Shim'i:
Shelomith, and Hazi'el, and Haran, three.
These were the heads of the fathers' houses of La'dan.

Shelomith means pacifications.
Hazi'el means I have seen El.
Haran means mountaineer.

1Chr. 23:10 And the sons of Shim'i:
Yahath, Zina, and Ye'ush, and Beri'ah.
These were the four sons of Shim'i.

Yahath means unity.
Zina means well fed.
Ye'ush means hasty.
Beri'ah means in trouble.

1Chr. 23:11 And Yahath was the head,
and Zina the second.
And Ye'ush and Beri'ah
did not have many sons.
And they were reckoned
as one house of the father.

1Chr. 23:12 The sons of Kohath:
Amram, Yitzhar, Hebron, and Uzzi'el, four.

Amram means an exalted people.
Yitzhar means anointed.
Hebron means seat of association.
Uzzi'el means my strength is El.

1Chr. 23:13 The sons of Amram:
Aharon and Moshe.

And Aharon was separated
for the sake of setting him apart
for The Most Set Apart Place,
he himself and his sons to eternity,
for the sake of offering incense
before the face of YAHWEH,
for the sake of ministering to Him,
and for the sake of blessing
with His Name to eternity.

1Chr. 23:14 And Moshe,
the man of The Elohim,
his sons were named by the tribe of Levi.

1Chr. 23:15 The sons of Moshe:
Gershom and Eli'ezer.

Gershom means a refugee.
Eli'ezer means El is my help.

1Chr. 23:16 The sons of Gershom:
Shebu'el was the head.

Shebu'el means restored by El.

1Chr. 23:17 And the sons of Eli'ezer:
Rehabyah was the head.
And Eli'ezer had no other sons.
But the sons of Rehabyah were very many.

Rehabyah means
YAH has enlarged.

1Chr. 23:18 The sons of Yitzhar:
Shelomith was the head.

1Chr. 23:19 The sons of Hebron:
Yeriyah was the head,
Amaryah the second,
Yahazi'el the third,
and Yekam'am the fourth.

Yeriyah means YAH will teach.
Amaryah means word of YAH.
Yahazi'el means I have seen El.
Yekam'am means
the people will rise up.

1Chr. 23:20 The sons of Uzzi'el:
Miykah was the head
and Yishshiyah the second.

Miykah means who is like YAH.
Yishiyah means YAH will lend.

1Chr. 23:21 The sons of Merari:
Mahli and Mushi.

Mahli means sickly.
Mushi means sensitive.

The sons of Mahli: El'azar and Kish.

1Chr. 23:22 And El'azar died.
And he had no sons, but only daughters.
And their kindred,
the sons of Kish, took them.

1Chr. 23:23 The sons of Mushi:
Mahli, Eder, and Yeremoth, three.

Eder means an arrangement.
Yeremoth means elevations.

1Chr. 23:24 These were the sons of Levi
by the house of their fathers,
the heads of the fathers
as they had been counted
according to the number of names,
by their heads, those doing the work
for the service of The House of YAHWEH,
from the age of twenty years and up.

1Chr. 23:25 Indeed, David had said “YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el, has given rest to His people.
And He will dwell in Yerushalaim to eternity.”

1Chr. 23:26 And also to the Levites,
“They will not be carrying The Tabernacle itself וְאֵל
nor all the vessels themselves וְכֵלֵי
for its service.”

1Chr. 23:27 Indeed,
by the last words of David
they counted the sons of Levi
from a son of twenty years old and up 1Chr. 23:28 because their office
was to help the sons of Aharon
in the service of The House of YAHWEH;
concerning the courtyards,
and concerning the chambers,
and concerning the purification
for everything set apart,
and the work of the service
of The House of YAHWEH, 1Chr. 23:29 and for the showbread,
and for the flour for the grain offering,
and for the unleavened wafers,
and for what is baked in the pan,
and for what has been mixed,
and for all kinds of measures and sizes, 1Chr. 23:30 and for the sake of standing every morning

to give thanks and praise to YAHWEH,
and according to this at evening, 1Chr. 23:31 and for all offering up of the olahs to YAHWEH,
for the Sabbaths, and for the New Moons,
and for the appointed times,
according to the number,
according to the regulations concerning them continually before the face of YAHWEH.

1Chr. 23:32 and they were to guard
the duty itself nx of The Tent of Assembly,
and the duty itself nx of The Set Apart Place,
and the duty of the sons of Aharon,
their kindred,
in the service of The House of YAHWEH.

Chapter 24

1Chr. 24:1 And for the sons of Aharon
the divisions of the sons of Aharon were:
Nadab and Abihu, El'azar and Ithamar.

1Chr. 24:2 But Nadab and Abihu were put to death
before the face of their father.
And there were no children for them.

And El'azar and Ithamar served as priests.

1Chr. 24:3 And David, and Tzadok,
of the sons of El'azar,
and Ahimelek, of the sons of Ithamar,
divided them as to accountability
according to their service.

1Chr. 24:4 And there were found
of the sons of El'azar
more as heads than of the sons of Ithamar.
And they divided the sons of El'azar
as sixteen heads of the house of their father,
and the sons of Ithamar
as eight heads of the house of their father.

1Chr. 24:5 And they divided them by lot,
these with those,
because there were leaders
of The Set Apart Place
and leaders of The House of YAHWEH
from the sons of El'azar
and from the sons of Ithamar.

1Chr. 24:6 And the scribe, Shemayah, son of Netan'el,
one of the Levites, recorded them
before the faces of the king,
and the princes, and Tzadok, the priest,
and Ahimelek, son of Ebyathar,
and the heads of the fathers
of the priests and Levites,
one father's house being taken for El'azar
and one being taken for Ithamar.

1Chr. 24:7 And the first lot
came forth to Yahoyarib,
the second to Yedayah, 1Chr. 24:8 the third to Harim,
the fourth to Se'orim, 1Chr. 24:9 the fifth to Malkiyah,
the sixth to Miyamin, 1Chr. 24:10 the seventh to Hakkots,
the eighth to Abiyah, 1Chr. 24:11 the ninth to Yahshua,
the tenth to Shekanyah, 1Chr. 24:12 the eleventh to Elyashib,

the twelfth to Yakim, 1Chr. 24:13 the thirteenth to Huppah,
the fourteenth to Yesheb'ab, 1Chr. 24:14 the fifteenth to Bilgah,
the sixteenth to Immer, 1Chr. 24:15 the seventeenth to Hezir,
the eighteenth to Hapitztetz, 1Chr. 24:16 the nineteenth to Pethahyah,
the twentieth to Yahezkel, 1Chr. 24:17 the twenty first to Yakin,
the twenty second to Gamul, 1Chr. 24:18 the twenty third to Delayah,
the twenty fourth to Ma'azyah.

1Chr. 24:19 These were their accountabilities for their service for the sake of coming into
The House of YAHWEH
according to their regulations
by the hand of Aharon, their father,
according to what YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el,
had given as direction to him.

1Chr. 24:20 And the rest of the sons of Levi:
of the sons of Amram, Shuba'el;
of the sons of Shuba'el, Yahdeyah.

1Chr. 24:21 Concerning Rehabyah,
of the sons of Rehabyah,
the head was Yishiyah.

1Chr. 24:22 Of the Yitsharites, Shelomoth;
of the sons of Shelomoth, Yahath.

1Chr. 24:23 Of the sons of Hebron,
Yeriyah was the head, Amaryah the second,
Yahazi'el the third, and Yekam'am the fourth.

1Chr. 24:24 Of the sons of Uzzi'el, Miykah;
of the sons of Miykah, Shamir.
1Chr. 24:25 The brother of Miykah, Yishshiyah;
of the sons of Yishshiyah, Zekaryah.

1Chr. 24:26 The sons of Merari:
Mahli and Mushi;
the son of Ya'azyah, Beno.
1Chr. 24:27 The sons of Merari by Ya'azyah:
Beno, and Shoham, and Zakkur, and Ibri.

1Chr. 24:28 Of Mahli: El'azar,
who had no sons.

1Chr. 24:29 Of Kish: the son of Kish, Yerahme'el.

1Chr. 24:30 And the sons of Mushi:
Mahli, Eder, and Yerimoth.

These were the sons of the Levites
according to their fathers' houses.

1Chr. 24:31 And they also cast lots
next for their kindred, the sons of Aharon,
before the faces of King David,
and Tzadok, and Ahimelek,
and the heads of the fathers
of the priests and Levites,
the chief of the fathers,
next to his younger kindred.

Chapter 25

1Chr. 25:1 And David and the commanders of the assembly separated for the service
some of the sons of Asaph, and Heman,

and Yeduthun, those prophesying
with lyres, with harps, and with cymbals.
And the number of the workmen
was by their service:

1Chr. 25:2 Of the sons of Asaph:
Zakkur, and Yoseph,
and Nethanyah, and Ashar'elah,
the sons of Asaph
according to the hands of Asaph,
those prophesying according to the hands of the king.

1Chr. 25:3 Of Yeduthun,
the sons of Yeduthun:
Gedalyah, and Tzeri, and Yeshayah, Hashabiah, and Mattithyah, six,
under the hands of their father, Yeduthun,
who prophesied with a lyre
for the sake of giving thanks
and for the sake of praising YAHWEH.

1Chr. 25:4 Of Heman, the sons of Heman:
Bukkiyah, Mattanyah, Uzzi'el, Shebu'el,
and Yerimoth, Hananyah, Hanani, Eliyathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-Ezer, Yoshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahaziyoth.

Heman means faithful.
Bukkiyah means poured out by YAH.
Mattanyah means gift of YAH.
Uzzi'el means El is my strength.
Shebu'el means restored by El.
Yerimoth means elevations.
Hannanyah means favored by YAH.
Hanani means YAH has favored.
Eliyathah means El has consented.
Giddalti means
I have been made great.
Romamti-Ezer means
my help has been raised up.
Yoshbekashah means a harsh seat.
Mallothi means I have spoken.
Hothir means caused to abound.
Mahaziyoth means visions.

1Chr. 25:5 All these were the sons of Heman,
the seer for the king,
according to the words of YAHWEH
for the sake of exalting his horn.
And YAHWEH gave to Heman fourteen sons
and three daughters.

1Chr. 25:6 All these were under the hands of their father
on account of singing
in The House of YAHWEH
with cymbals, harps and lyres
for the service of The House of YAHWEH
under the hand of the king:
Asaph, Yeduthun, and Heman.

1Chr. 25:7 And the number of them,
with their kindred,
those having been instructed
in song for YAHWEH,
all those having understanding,
was two hundred and eighty eight.

1Chr. 25:8 And they cast lots for duty,
the small as well as the great,
the one teaching with the student.

1Chr. 25:9 And the first lot came forth
for Asaph, for Yoseph.
Gedalyah was the second:
he himself, and his kindred,

and his sons, twelve;
1Chr. 25:10 the third was Zakkur,
his sons, and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:11 the fourth was Yitzri,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:12 the fifth Nathanyah,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:13 the sixth Bukkiyah,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:14 the seventh Yesar'elah,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
Yesar'elah means El is upright.
1Chr. 25:15 the eighth Yeshayah,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:16 the ninth Mattanyah,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:17 the tenth Shim'i,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:18 the eleventh Azar'el,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:19 the twelfth Hashabiyah,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:20 the thirteenth Shuba'el,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:21 the fourteenth Mattithyah,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:22 the fifteenth Yeremoth,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:23 the sixteenth Hananyah,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:24 the seventeenth Yoshbekashah,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:25 the eighteenth Hanani,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:26 the nineteenth Mallothi,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:27 the twentieth Eliyathah,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:28 the twenty first Hothir,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:29 the twenty second Giddalti,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:30 the twenty third Mahaziyoth,
his sons and his kindred, twelve;
1Chr. 25:31 the twenty fourth Romamti-Ezer,
his sons and his kindred, twelve.

Chapter 26

1Chr. 26:1 For the divisions
for the gatekeepers:
Of the Korahites:
Meshelemiyah son of Korah,
of the sons of Asaph.
1Chr. 26:2 And the sons of Meshelemiyah
Zekaryah the first born, Yediya'el the second,
Zebadyah the third, Yathni'el the fourth,
1Chr. 26:3 Eylam the fifth, Yahohanan the sixth,
Elyo'eynai the seventh.

1Chr. 26:4 And the sons of Obed Edom:
Shemayah the first born,
Yahozabad the second,
Yo'ah the third, Sakar the fourth,
Nethane'l the fifth,
1Chr. 26:5 Ammi'el the sixth,
Yissaskar the seventh,
Pe'ullethai the eighth.
Indeed, The Elohim had blessed him.

1Chr. 26:6 And to Shemayah, his son,
sons were born,
the rulers of the house of their father,
because they were men of strength.

1Chr. 26:7 The sons of Shemayah:
Othni, and Repha'el,
and Obed and Elzabad.
His brothers, Elihu and Semakyah,
were men of strength.

1Chr. 26:8 All these were from the sons of Obed Edom.
They and their sons and their kindred
were men of strength
with strength for the work;
sixty two of Obed Edom.

1Chr. 26:9 And Meshelemyah had sons
and kindred, eighteen men of strength.

1Chr. 26:10 And of Hosah,
from the children of Merari were sons:
Shimri the head,
even though he was not the first born.
But his father made him the head.

1Chr. 26:11 Hilkiyah the second,
Tebalyah the third, Zekaryah the fourth.
All the sons and kindred of Hosah
were thirteen.

1Chr. 26:12 To these divisions
of the gatekeepers,
to the heads of the men,
their duties were next to their kindred
for the sake of ministering
in The House of YAHWEH.

1Chr. 26:13 And they cast lots
according to the small and according to the great
of the house of their fathers for each gate.

1Chr. 26:14 And the lot of the east
fell to Shelemyah.
And for Zekaryah, his son,
a counselor with good sense, they cast lots.
And his lot went out to the north;

1Chr. 26:15 For Obed Edom, to the south.
And to his sons,
the house of the storehouse.

1Chr. 26:16 For Shuppim and Hosah,
to the west,
with the Shalleket Gate,
on the highway of the ascent,
guard beside guard.

1Chr. 26:17 For the east the Levites were six,
for the north four for the day,
on the south four for the day,
and for the storehouse two and two.

1Chr. 26:18 For the Parbar to the west
four were at the highway,
two were at the Parbar.

1Chr. 26:19 These were the divisions
of the gatekeepers
among the sons of Korah
and among the sons of Merari.

1Chr. 26:20 And of the Levites,
Ahiyah was over the treasuries
of The House of YAHWEH,
and over the treasuries of the set apart gifts.

1Chr. 26:21 The sons of La'dan,
the sons of the Gershonites of La'dan,
heads of the house of their father,

of La'dan the Gershonite: Yehi'eli, 1Chr. 26:22 The sons of Yehi'eli, Zetam, and Yo'el, his brother,
were over the treasuries
of The House of YAHWEH.

1Chr. 26:23 Of the Amramites, the Yitsharites,
the Hebronites, and the Uzzi'elites, 1Chr. 26:24 even Shebu'el, son of Gershom,
son of Moshe,
was overseer of the treasuries.

1Chr. 26:25 And his kindred by Eli'ezer
were Rehabyah, his son,
and Yeshayah, his son,
and Yoram, his son, and Zikri, his son,
and Shelomoth, his son.

1Chr. 26:26 This Shelomoth and his kindred were over all the treasuries
of the set apart gifts
which King David, and the heads of fathers,
for the commanders over the thousands
and the hundreds, and the commanders
of the assembly had set apart.

1Chr. 26:27 From the battles and from the spoils
they caused things to be set apart
for the sake of maintaining
The House of YAHWEH.

1Chr. 26:28 And everything, that which had been set apart
by Shemu'el, the seer,
and Sha'ul, son of Kish,
and Abner, son of Ner,
and Yo'ab, son of Tzeruyah,
all those having set things apart,
was under the hand
of Shelomith and his kindred.

1Chr. 26:29 Of the Yitsharites, Kenanyah and his sons were for the outward affairs
concerning Yisra'el
as officers and as judges.

1Chr. 26:30 Of the Hebronites, Hashabyah and his kindred,
sons of strength,
one thousand seven hundred
were under accountability for Yisra'el
from beside The Yarden westward,
for all the affairs of YAHWEH,
and for the service of the king.

1Chr. 26:31 Of the Hebronites,
Yeriyah was head of the Hebronites
by his generations of the fathers.

In the fortieth year of the reign of David
they had been sought.
And there were found among them
mighty men of strength in Ya'zer of Gil'ad.

1Chr. 26:32 And his kindred were sons of strength,
two thousand seven hundred,
heads of fathers.
And David, the king,
appointed them over the Re'ubenites, and the Gadites,
and the half tribe of Menashe,
for all matters of YAHWEH,

and the matters of the king.

Chapter 27

1Chr. 27:1 And the children of Yisra'el,
by their number, the heads of fathers,
and the commanders of the thousands
and of the hundreds, and their officers,
those serving the king himself תא
for all matters of the divisions,
those coming in and those going out month by month
for all the months of the year,
the division of each one
was twenty four thousand.

1Chr. 27:2 Over the first division
for the first month
was Yashob'am, son of Zabdi'el.
And within his division
were twenty four thousand.

1Chr. 27:3 And the sons of Peretz were the heads
of all the commanders of the assembly
for the first month.

1Chr. 27:4 And over the division
of the second month
was Dodai, Ahohite.
And of his division Mikloth
also was the leader.
And within his division
were over twenty four thousand.

1Chr. 27:5 Commander of the assembly
for the third month, the third was Benayah,
son of Yahoyada the priest.
He was the leader.
And within his division
were twenty four thousand.

1Chr. 27:6 This was the Benayah
who was mighty among the thirty.
And he was over the thirty.
And in his division
was Ammizabad, his son.

1Chr. 27:7 The fourth for the fourth month
was Asah'el, brother of Yo'ab,
and Zebadyah, his son, after him.
And within his division
were twenty four thousand.

1Chr. 27:8 The fifth for the fifth month,
the leader was Shammuth, the Yizrahite.
And within his division
were twenty four thousand.

1Chr. 27:9 The sixth for the sixth month was Ira, son of Ikkesh, the Tekoite.
And within his division
were twenty four thousand.

1Chr. 27:10 The seventh for the seventh month
was Heletz, the Pelonite,
of the children of Ephraim.
And in his division
were twenty four thousand.

1Chr. 27:11 The eighth for the eighth month
was Sibbekai, the Hushathite,
of the Zarahites.
And within his division
were twenty four thousand.

1Chr. 27:12 The ninth for the ninth month
was Abi'ezer, the Anathothite,
of the Binyamites.
And within his division
were twenty four thousand.

1Chr. 27:13 The tenth for the tenth month
was Maharai, the Netophathite,
of the Zarhites.
And within his division
were twenty four thousand.

1Chr. 27:14 The eleventh for the eleventh month
was Benayah, the Pirathonite,
of the children of Ephraim.
And within his division
were twenty four thousand.

1Chr. 27:15 The twelfth for the twelfth month
was Heldai, the Netophathite, of Othni'el.
And within his division
were twenty four thousand.

1Chr. 27:16 And over the tribes of Yisra'el:
of Re'uben:
the ruler was Eli'ezer, son of Zikri;
of Shim'on:
Shephatyah, son of Ma'akah;
1Chr. 27:17 of Levi:
Hashabyah, son of Kemu'el;
of Aharon: Tzadok;
1Chr. 27:18 of Yahudah:
Elihu, from the kindred of David;
of Yissaskar:
Omri, son of Mikha'el;
1Chr. 27:19 of Zebulun:
Yishmayah, son of Obadyah;
of Naphtali:
Yerimoth son of Azri'el;
1Chr. 27:20 the children of Ephraim:
Hoshea son of Azazyah;
of the half tribe of Menashe:
Yo'el, son of Pedayah;
1Chr. 27:21 of the half tribe of Menashe in Gil'ad:
Iddo, son of Zekaryah;
of Binyamin:
Ya'asi'el, son of Abner;
1Chr. 27:22 of Dan:
Azar'el, son of Yeroham.
These were the rulers
of the tribes of Yisra'el.

1Chr. 27:23 But David did not take the number of those from twenty years of age and under because YAHWEH had said He would cause Yisra'el itself תֵּכֵן
to increase like the stars of the skies.

1Chr. 27:24 Yo'ab, son of Tzeruyah,
began to count,
but he did not finish.
And on account of this
there was wrath against Yisra'el.
And the number did not go up into the count of the words of the days of King David.

1Chr. 27:25 And Azmaveth, son of Adi'el,
was over the king's treasuries.
And Yahonathan, son of Uzziyah,
was over the storehouses in the field,
in the cities,
and in the villages,

and in the watchtowers.

1Chr. 27:26 And Ezri, son of Kelub,
was over those doing the work of the field
for the sake of working the ground.

1Chr. 27:27 And Shim'l, the Ramathite,
was over the vineyards.

And Zabdi, the Shiphmite, was over
what is in the vineyards,
for the cellars of the wine.

1Chr. 27:28 And Ba'al-Hanan, the Gederite, was over the olive trees
and the sycamore trees
that were in The Shephelah.

And Yo'ash was over the stores of the oil.

1Chr. 27:29 And Shitrai, the Sharonite,
was over the herds that fed in Sharon.

And Shaphat, son of Adlai,
was over the herds that were in the valleys.

1Chr. 27:30 And Obil, the Yishma'elite,
was over the camels.

And Yahdeyah, the Meronothite,
was over the asses.

1Chr. 27:31 and Yaziz, the Hagrite,
was over the flocks.

All of these were rulers over the property which belonged to King David.

1Chr. 27:32 Also Yahanathan, David's uncle,
was a counselor; a man of understanding.

And he was a scribe.

And Yehi'el, son of Hakmoni,
was with the sons of the king.

1Chr. 27:33 And Ahithophel
was counselor to the king.

And Hushai, the Arkite,
was a companion of the king.

1Chr. 27:34 And after Ahithophel was Yahoyada, son of Benayah, and Ebyathar.

And the commander
of the assembly of the king was Yo'ab.

Chapter 28

1Chr. 28:1 And David caused to be assembled to Yerushalaim
all the rulers themselves nx of Yisra'el,
the rulers of the tribes
and the commanders of the divisions,
those serving the king himself nx,
the commanders of the thousands,
and commanders of the hundreds,
and the rulers of all the property
and livestock for the king and for his sons,
with the officials, the mighty men,
even for all the mighty men of strength.

1Chr. 28:2 And David, the king,
stood upon his feet.

And he said, "Listen attentively to me,
my kindred and my people.

I myself, it was within my heart
to build a house of rest
for The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH,
even as a footstool of the feet of our Elohim.

And I had made preparations
for the sake of building it.

1Chr. 28:3 But YAHWEH said to me,
'You will not build a house for My Name
because you yourself nx are a man of battle
and you have poured out blood.'

1Chr. 28:4 However, YAHWEH,

The Elohim of Yisra'el,
chose me from all the house of my father
for the sake of existing
as king over Yisra'el to eternity.
Indeed, He has chosen Yahudah as ruler.
And in the house of Yahudah,
the house of my father,
and among the sons of my father,
He was pleased with me
for the sake of causing cause me to reign
as king over all Yisra'el.

1Chr. 28:5 And from all my sons, indeed, YAHWEH has given
many sons to me,
but He has chosen Shelomoh, my son,
for the sake of sitting upon the throne
of the kingdom of YAHWEH, over Yisra'el.

1Chr. 28:6 And He said to me,
'Shelomoh, your son,
he himself will build
My house and My courtyards
because I have chosen him
for Myself as a son.
And I Myself will exist for him as a Father.
1Chr. 28:7 And I will establish his kingdom itself nx
to eternity if he is strong for the sake of doing My directives
and My judgments as it is this day.'

1Chr. 28:8 And now,
before the eyes of all Yisra'el,
the assembly of YAHWEH,
and in the hearing of our Elohim,
protect and seek all the directives
of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
in order that you will possess
the good land itself nx
and cause it to be inherited
by your children after you to eternity!

1Chr. 28:9 And you yourself nx,
Shelomoh, my son,
know The Elohim Himself nx of your father!
And serve Him with a whole heart
and with a pleasing life!
Indeed, YAHWEH is searching all hearts!
And He understands
all the imaginations of thoughts!
If you do seek Him
He will be found by you!
But if you abandon Him
He will reject you to forever!

1Chr. 28:10 Consider now!
Indeed, YAHWEH has chosen you
for the sake of building a house
for The Set Apart Place.
Be strong!
And act!"

1Chr. 28:11 And David gave
to Shelomoh, his son,
the plans themselves nx for the porch,
and its houses themselves nx,
and its treasuries,
and its upper chambers,
and its inner chambers,
and the place of The Seat of Atonement,

The Seat of Atonement
is also called "The Mercy Seat".
It is the place on

The Chest of The Covenant
between the Cherubim
where YAHWEH was believed to be seated.

1Chr. 28:12 and the plans
for everything which existed
by The Divine Nature concerning it;
for the courtyards of The House of YAHWEH,
and for all the chambers all around,
and for the treasuries
of The House of YAHWEH,
and for the treasuries for the set apart things, 1Chr. 28:13 and for the divisions
of the priests and the Levites,
and for all the work of the service
of The House of YAHWEH,
and for all the utensils of service
in The House of YAHWEH;
1Chr. 28:14 for gold by weight
for all the utensils of gold,
for all the utensils for every kind of service;
for silver for all utensils
of the silver by weight,
for all utensils for every kind of service;
1Chr. 28:15 and by weight
for the lampstands of the gold,
and their lamps of gold,
by weight for each lampstand and its lamps;
and for the lampstands of silver by weight,
for the lampstand and its lamps,
according to the service of each lampstand;
1Chr. 28:16 and the gold itself ~~nx~~ by weight
for the tables of the showbread,
for each table;
and silver for the tables of the silver;
1Chr. 28:17 and pure gold
for the forks,
and for the basins, and the jars,
and for the basins of the gold,
by weight for each basin,
the silver by weight for the silver basins,
silver for each basin;
1Chr. 28:18 and refined gold by weight
for the altar of the incense,
and for the pattern of the chariot
of the gold cherubim,
which were spreading out their wings
and covering over
The Chest of The Covenant of YAHWEH.

1Chr. 28:19 Everything was in writing
from the hand of YAHWEH upon me.
He caused me to understand
all the works of the plan.”

1Chr. 28:20 And David said
to Shelomoh, his son,
“Be strong!
And be courageous!
And act!
Do not be afraid!
And do not be discouraged!
Indeed, YAHWEH, The Elohim,
my Elohim, is with you!
He will not leave you!
And He will not abandon you until all the work is to completion
for the service of The House of YAHWEH.

1Chr. 28:21 And behold!
The divisions of the priests and the Levites
for all the service of The House of YAHWEH,
and with you according to every task
are all who are willing,

with skill for every task.
And the rulers and all the people are there for your every word.”

Chapter 29

1Chr. 29:1 And David, the king, said
to all the assembly, “Shelomoh, my son,
the one whom YAHWEH has chosen,
is young and tender.
And the work is great because the palace
is not for a human being,
but rather, for YAHWEH, The Elohim.

1Chr. 29:2 And with all my power
I have prepared for The House of my Elohim
the gold for the gold,
and the silver for the silver,
and the copper for the copper,
the iron for the iron,
and the wood for the wood,
shoham stones, and settings,
and glistening stones, and colored stones,
and all kinds of precious stones,
and stones of marble, to abundance.

1Chr. 29:3 And further,
on account of my delight
in The House of my Elohim
there exists to me a wealth of of gold and silver
I have given for The House of my Elohim over above all that I have prepared for The Set Apart House:

1Chr. 29:4 three thousand talents of gold
of the gold of Ophir,
and seven thousand talents of refined silver
for the sake of overlaying
the walls of the houses;

1Chr. 29:5 as gold for the gold and as silver for the silver,
and for all the work done
by the hands of craftsmen.
And who is willing to have his hand filled today
for the sake of YAHWEH?”

The "filling of the hand"
is a Hebraism meaning,
"who is willing to be consecrated".

1Chr. 29:6 And those of the rulers of the fathers,
and the rulers of the tribes of Yisra'el,
and the rulers of the thousands
and of the hundreds,
and of the rulers of the work of the king
willingly offered themselves.

1Chr. 29:7 And they gave for the service
of The House of YAHWEH,
of gold, five thousand talents
and ten thousand darics,
and of silver, ten thousand talents,
and of copper, eighteen thousand talents,
and of iron, one hundred thousand talents.

1Chr. 29:8 And he himself nx
who had been finding stones
gave them to the treasury
of The House of YAHWEH,
into the hand of Yehi'el, the Gershonite.

1Chr. 29:9 And the people rejoiced
on account of willingly
having given of themselves.

Indeed, with a whole heart
they had given of themselves voluntarily
for the sake of YAHWEH.
And David, the king,
also rejoiced with great joy.

1Chr. 29:10 And David blessed
YAHWEH Himself nx
in the eyes of the whole assembly.
And David said,
"Blessed are You Yourself nx, YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el,
our Father to eternity, even to eternity!
1Chr. 29:11 To You, YAHWEH,
is the greatness,
the power, and the glory,
the eternal excellence, and the majesty!
Indeed, all that is in the heavens
and in the earth is Yours!
Yours is The Kingdom, YAHWEH!
And You are The One exalting Himself
as the head of everything!

1Chr. 29:12 And the riches and the honor
are because of Your presence!

And You Yourself nx are ruling in everything!
And in Your hand is power and might!
And it is in Your hand to make one great
and to strengthen for the sake of everyone!

1Chr. 29:13 And now, our Elohim,
we ourselves give thanks to You!
And we give praise to Your glorious Name!

1Chr. 29:14 And who am I myself?
And who are my people,
that we retain the power
to give ourselves so willingly as this?

Indeed, everything is from You!
And from Your own hand
we have given to You!

1Chr. 29:15 Indeed, we ourselves are aliens
before You face,
and sojourners like all our fathers!.
Like a shadow are our days on earth,
and there is no hope!

1Chr. 29:16 YAHWEH, our Elohim,
all this abundance which we have prepared for the sake of building for You a house for the sake of Your Set Apart Name is from Your hand!
Even to You belongs everything!

1Chr. 29:17 And I know, my Elohim,
that You Yourself nx are testing the heart.
And uprightness pleases to You.
I myself, in the uprightness of my heart,
have willingly given all these things.
And now Your people have been found here.
I have seen with joy
those giving of themselves willingly to You.

1Chr. 29:18 YAHWEH, The Elohim
of Abraham, Yitzhak, and Yisra'el, our fathers, protect this to eternity
as the intentions of the thoughts of the heart of Your people
and establish their heart toward You!

1Chr. 29:19 And to Shelomoh, my son,

grant a whole heart
for the sake of protecting
Your directives,
Your Testimonies,
and Your rules,
even for the sake of doing everything,
and for the sake of building the palace
for which I have prepared.”

1Chr. 29:20 And David said to all the assembly, “Bless now
YAHWEH Himself nx your Elohim!”

And all the assembly gave blessing
to YAHWEH, The Elohim of their fathers.
And they bowed their heads.
And they prostrated themselves
toward YAHWEH
and toward the king.

1Chr. 29:21 And they sacrificed sacrifices to YAHWEH.
And they offered up olahs to YAHWEH
on the next day:
a thousand bulls, a thousand rams,
a thousand lambs, and their drink offerings,
even sacrifices to abundance
for the sake of all Yisra’el.

1Chr. 29:22 And they ate and they drank
before the face of YAHWEH
on that day with great joy.

And they caused Shelomoh, son of David,
to reign the second time.
And they anointed him
before the face of YAHWEH as ruler,
and Tzadok as priest.

1Chr. 29:23 And Shelomoh sat
upon the throne of YAHWEH as king,
in the place of David, his father.
And he prospered.
And all Yisra’el listened attentively to him.

1Chr. 29:24 And all the rulers
and the mighty men,
and also all the sons of the king, David,
set themselves under the hand
of Shelomoh, the king.

1Chr. 29:25 And YAHWEH magnified Shelomoh himself nx exceedingly in the eyes of all Yisra’el.
And He granted to him royal splendor which had not existed
concerning any king before him
over Yisra’el.

1Chr. 29:26 And David, son of Yishai,
had reigned over all Yisra’el.
1Chr. 29:27 And the days of which he had reigned over Yisra’el was forty years.
In Hebron he reigned seven years.
And in Yerushalaim
he reigned thirty three years.

1Chr. 29:28 And he died at a good old age,
satisfied with days,
with riches and with honor.
And Shelomoh, his son, reigned in his place.

1Chr. 29:29 And the acts of David the king,
the first and the last, behold!

They have been written in the scroll
of Shemu'el, the seer,
in the scroll of Nathan, the prophet,
and in the scroll of Gad, the seer, 1Chr. 29:30 with all his kingdom,
and his might,
and the times that passed over him,
and over Yisra'el,
and over all the kingdoms of the lands.

39. 2Chronicles - Divrei

(Version 3.1: 7-15--2021)

Chapter 1

2Chr. 1:1 And Shelomoh, son of David,
strengthened himself over his kingdom.
And YAHWEH, his Elohim, was with him.
And He caused him to be exceedingly great.

2Chr. 1:2 And Shelomoh spoke to all Yisra'el,
to the commanders of the thousands,
and of the hundreds,
and to the judges,
and to every leader for all Yisra'el,
the heads of the fathers.

2Chr. 1:3 And Shelomoh went,
and all the assembly with him,
to the high place which was at Gib'on,
because The Tent of Assembly of YAHWEH
was there
which Moshe, the servant of YAHWEH,
had made in the wilderness.

2Chr. 1:4 However, The Chest of YAHWEH
David had brought up from Kiryat Ye'arim
when David had prepared for it,
when he had pitched a tent for it
at Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 1:5 And the copper slaughter site
which Betzal'el, son of Uri, son of Hur,
had made he placed before
The Dwelling Place of YAHWEH.
And Shelomoh and the assembly sought it.
2Chr. 1:6 And Shelomoh went up there to the copper slaughter site
before the face of YAHWEH,
which was at The Tent of Assembly.
And he offered upon it a thousand olahs.

2Chr. 1:7 That night
YAHWEH was seen by Shelomoh.
And He said to him,
"Ask what I might give to you!"

2Chr. 1:8 And Shelomoh said to YAHWEH,
"You Yourself תא have done great kindness
with David, my father.
And You have caused me
to reign in his place.
Chr. 1:9 "Now, YAHWEH, Elohim,
let Your word with David, my father,
be faithful.
Indeed, You Yourself תא
have caused me to reign over a people
as abundant as the dust of the earth.

2Chr. 1:10 Now grant to me
wisdom and knowledge.
Then I can go out

before the faces of this people
and I can come in.
Indeed, who can judge
this great people themselves תא of Yours?"

2Chr. 1:11 And YAHWEH said to Shelomoh,
"Because this is what existed within your heart,
and you have not asked
for riches, wealth, or honor,
or the lives themselves תא
of those hating you,
and even long life you have not requested,
but have requested wisdom and knowledge
with which you can judge
My people themselves תא
over whom I have caused you to reign, 2Chr. 1:12 the wisdom and the knowledge
are granted to you.
And riches and wealth and honor
I will grant to you
of which such as this has not existed
for the kings who have been before you.
And after you will nothing exist such as this."

2Chr. 1:13 And Shelomoh went to Yerushalaim
from the high place which was at Gib'on,
from before The Tent of Assembly.
And he reigned over Yisra'el.

2Chr. 1:14 And Shelomoh gathered
chariots and horsemen.
And there were to him
one thousand four hundred chariots
and twelve thousand horsemen.
And he stationed them
in the cities of the chariots
and with the king at Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 1:15 And the king set the silver itself תא
and the gold itself תא
in Yerushalaim like stones.
And the cedars themselves תא
he set like the sycamores
which are in The Shefelah.

2Chr. 1:16 And the horses went out which were for Shelomoh
from Mitsraim and from Keve.
Those trading for the king
took them from Keve at a price.
Mitsraim means double straits.
This is Egypt.
Keve is in modern day
southern Turkey.

2Chr. 1:17 And they came up.
And they brought forth from Mitsraim
a chariot for six hundred pieces of silver and a horse according to a hundred and fifty.

And it was thus
for all the kings of the Hittites
and the kings of Aram.
According to their hands
they brought them out.

Chapter 2

2Chr. 2:1 (H 1.18)
And Shelomoh spoke
for the sake of building a house
for the Name of YAHWEH
and a house for his kingdom.

NOTE: Chapter 2 begins with the next verse
in the Hebrew text.

2Chr. 2:2 (H 2.1)

And Shelomoh recorded
seventy thousand men of burden,
and eighty thousand men
to hew in the mountains.
And having oversight over them
were three thousand six hundred.

2Chr. 2:3 (H 2.2)

And Shelomoh sent to Hiram, king of Tzor, saying,
"According to what you have done
with David, my father,
and you sent to him cedars
for the sake of building himself a house
for the sake of dwelling in it,

2Chr. 2:4 (H 2.3)

behold!

I myself am building a House
for the Name of YAHWEH, my Elohim,
for the sake of causing it
to be set apart to Him,
for the sake of burning
before His face sweet incense,
and for the continual showbread,
and for the olahs, morning, and evening,
for the Sabbaths, and for the New Moons,
and for the appointed times
of YAHWEH, our Elohim.
This is to eternity concerning Yisra'el.

2Chr. 2:5 (H 2.4)

And The House which I myself am building is to be great because our Elohim is greater than all the gods.

2Chr. 2:6 (H 2.5)

But who retains strength
for the sake of building for Him a House?
Indeed, the skies,
even The Heavens of The Heavens
can not contain Him!

And who am I myself
that I might build for Him a House, except for the sake of offering up
in smoke before His face?

2Chr. 2:7 (H 2.6)

And now, send to me at once a wise man
for the sake of working with gold,
and with silver,
and with copper,
and with iron,
and with purple,
and with crimson, and blue,
and knowing how to engrave engravings
with the wise ones who are with me
in Yahudah and Yerushalaim
whom David, my father, has prepared.

2Chr. 2:8 (H 2.7)

And send to me trees of cedar, fir,
and algum from The Lebanon.
Indeed, I myself know that your servants
are knowing how to cut
the timber of Lebanon.
And behold!

My servants will be with your servants
2Chr. 2:9 (H 2.8)
even for the sake of preparing for me timber to abundance
because The House
that I myself am building
will be great and wondrous.

2Chr. 2:10 (H 2.9)
And behold!
For those cutting down,
for those cutting the timber,
I have given ground wheat for your servants,
twenty thousand kors,
and barley, twenty thousand kors,
and wine, twenty thousand baths,
and oil, twenty thousand baths.”
A kor represented approximately six bushels or 100 gallons.
A bath represented
approximately 6 gallons.

2Chr. 2:11 (H 2.10)
And Hiram, the king of Tzor, spoke in writing.
And he sent to Shelomoh,
“On account of YAHWEH loving
His people themselves nx
He has set you over them as king.”

2Chr. 2:12 (H 2.11)
And Hiram said,
“Being blessed is YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra’el,
Who has made
the skies themselves nx
and the earth itself nx,
Who has given to David the king
a wise son,
knowing discretion and understanding,
who will build a House for YAHWEH
and a house for his kingdom!

2Chr. 2:13 (H 2.12)
And now I have sent a man of skill,
knowing understanding,
of Hiram, my father,
2Chr. 2:14 (H 2.13)
son of a woman from the daughters of Dan.
And his father is a man of Tzor
knowing how to make things
with gold, and with silver, with copper,
with iron, with stone, and with wood,
with purple and with blue,
and with fine linen,
and with crimson,
and for the sake of engraving any engraving
and for the sake of thinking out any device
which is given to him with your skilled men
and with the skilled men of my sovereign,
David, your father.

2Chr. :15 (H 2.14)
And now, the wheat and the barley,
the oil and the wine
of which my sovereign has spoken,
let him send it to his servants.

2Chr. 2:16 (H 2.15)
And we ourselves
will cut trees from The Lebanon
according to all you need.
And we will bring rafts to you
upon the sea to Yapho.

And you yourselves תא
will bring they themselves תא
up to Yerushalaim.”

2Chr. 2:17 (H 2.16)
And Shelomoh counted all the men,
the strangers who were in the land of Yisra’el,
after they had been counted
by David, his father.

And they were found to be one hundred and fifty three thousand six hundred.

2Chr. 2:18 (H 2.17)
And he made from them
seventy thousand for burdens,
and eighty thousand hewers
in the mountain,
and three thousand six hundred overseers
for the sake of causing
the people themselves תא to work.

Chapter 3

2Chr. 3:1 And Shelomoh began to build
The House itself תא of YAHWEH
at Yerushalaim on Mount Moriyah, where He had been seen
by David, his father,
which David had prepared at the place
of the threshing floor of Ornan, the Yebusite.
Moriyah means seen by YAH.

2Chr. 3:2 And he began to build on the second day
of the second month
in the fourth year of his reign.

2Chr. 3:3 And Shelomoh
laid these foundations for building
The House itself תא of YAHWEH:
The length by cubits
according to the former measure
was sixty cubits, and the width twenty cubits.

2Chr. 3:4 And the porch,
which was upon the front,
the length upon the width of the front
was twenty cubits.
And the height was
one hundred and twenty cubits.
And he overlaid it from within with pure gold.

2Chr. 3:5 And the great house itself תא
he paneled with fir trees.
And he overlaid it with fine gold.
And he caused to go up upon it
palm trees and chainwork.

2Chr. 3:6 And he overlaid the house itself תא
with precious stones for beauty.
And the gold was gold of Parvaim.

2Chr. 3:7 And he covered the house itself תא,
the beams, the doorposts, and its walls,
and its doors with gold.
And he carved cherubim on the walls.

2Chr. 3:8 And he made The House itself תא
of The Most Set Apart Place.
Its length was according to
the width of the house,
twenty cubits, and its width twenty cubits.

And he covered it with fine gold,
six hundred talents.

2Chr. 3:9 And the weight of the nails
was fifty shekels of gold.
And the upper chambers
he covered with gold.

2Chr. 3:10 And he made,
in The House of The Most Set Apart,
two cherubim of sculptured work.
And he overlaid they themselves תא
with gold.

2Chr. 3:11 And the wings of the cherubim,
their length was twenty cubits.
The one wing was five cubits,
causing it to touch the wall of the room.
And the other wing was five cubits,
causing it to touch

the wing of the other cherub, 2Chr. 3:12 And the wing of the other cherub
was five cubits,
causing it to touch the wall of the room.
And the other wing also was five cubits,
causing it to touch the wing
of the other cherub.

2Chr. 3:13 The wings of these cherubim
spread out twenty cubits.
And they stood upon their feet.
And their faces were to the inside.

2Chr. 3:14 And he made the veil itself תא
of blue and purple and crimson and fine linen.
And he caused cherubim to go up upon it.

2Chr. 3:15 And at the front of The House
he made two columns thirty five cubits high.
And the capital that was upon the top
was five cubits.

2Chr. 3:16 And he made chainwork
like The Speaking Place.
And he put them upon
the top of the columns.
And he made one hundred pomegranates.
And he put them on the chainwork.

*The Speaking Place is the same as The Most Set Apart Place.
It is the Inner Sanctuary.
Traditionally this is
"The Holy of Holies".*

2Chr. 3:17 And he stood up the columns themselves תא
at the front of The Temple,
one at the right and one at the left.
And called the name
of the one on the right Yakin
and the name of the left one Bo'az.

Chapter 4

2Chr. 4:1 And he made
a slaughter site of copper,
twenty cubits long, and twenty cubits wide,
and ten cubits high.

2Chr. 4:2 And he made
The Sea itself תא as a casting,
ten cubits from rim to rim, round all about.
And its height was five cubits.
And a line of thirty cubits
encompassed it itself תא all around.

2Chr. 4:3 And a likeness of oxen
was beneath it all around,

encompassing it itself תא all around,
ten to a cubit,
encompassing The Sea itself תא.
All around were two rows of the oxen.
They were cast when it was cast.

2Chr. 4:4 It was standing upon twelve oxen,
three turning north,
and three turning west,
and three turning south,
and three turning east.
And The Sea was above them, from upward.
And all their back parts were to the inside.

2Chr. 4:5 And it was a handbreadth thick.
And its rim was like the rim of a cup,
like a lily blossom.
It was holding three thousand baths.

2Chr. 4:6 And he made ten basins.
And he put five at the right
and five at the left for the sake of washing in them.
The work itself תא of the olah
they caused to be washed off in them.
And The Sea was for the sake of washing
of the priests in it.

2Chr. 4:7 And he made ten lampstands themselves תא
of gold according to their regulation.
And he put them in The Temple,
five at the right and five at the left.

2Chr. 4:8 And he made ten tables.
And he placed them in The Temple,
five at the right and five at the left.
And he made one hundred basins of gold.

2Chr. 4:9 And he made
the courtyard of the priests,
and the great courtyard,
and doors for the courtyard.
And the doors for them
he overlaid with copper.

2Chr. 4:10 And The Sea itself תא
he put on the right side,
eastward in front of the south.

2Chr. 4:11 And Hiram made the pots themselves תא,
and the shovels themselves תא,
and the basins themselves תא.

And Hiram finished making
the work itself תא
which he was to do for King Shelomoh
on account of The House of YAHWEH: 2Chr. 4:12 two columns, and the bowls,
and the capitals that were on top of the two columns,
and the two networks to cover
the two bowls themselves תא of the capitals
which were on top of the columns; 2Chr. 4:13 and four hundred pomegranates themselves תא
for the two networks,
two rows of pomegranates for each network,
to cover the two bowls themselves תא
of the capitals which were on the columns.

2Chr. 4:14 And he made
the bases themselves תא.

And the basins themselves תא
he made on the bases;
2Chr. 4:15 The Sea itself תא, one,
and the twelve oxen themselves תא
beneath it;
2Chr. 4:16 and the pots themselves תא,
and the shovels themselves תא,
and the forks themselves תא.
And all their utensils themselves תא
of his father, Hiram made of polished copper for King Shelomoh
for The House of YAHWEH.

Most translations use "brass".
Copper is used here because the root word
from which this term comes actually points to shiny copper rather than to brass.
Copper is also cast in molds,
like brass.

2Chr. 4:17 In the valley of The Yarden
the king had them cast,
in the clay of the ground
between Sukkoth and Tzeredah.

2Chr. 4:18 And Shelomoh had made
all these utensils to exceeding abundance Indeed, the weight of the copper was not searched out.

2Chr. 4:19 And Shelomoh had made all the equipment itself תא
for The House of YAHWEH,
and the altar of gold itself תא,
and the tables themselves תא,
and on them is the showbread, 2Chr. 4:20 and the lampstands themselves תא,
and their lamps of pure gold,
for the sake of burning
according to the regulations
in front of The Speaking Place,

The Speaking Place
is The Inner Sanctuary,
The Holy of Holies, traditionally.

2Chr. 4:21 and the blossoms, and the lamps,
and the snuffers of gold, of perfect gold, 2Chr. 4:22 and the snuffers, and the bowls,
and the ladles, and the fire pans
of pure gold.

And the entrance of The House,
its inner doors to The Most Set Apart Place,
and the doors of The Temple of the House,
were gold.

Chapter 5

2Chr. 5:1 And all the work that Shelomoh had done
for The House of YAHWEH was completed.
And Shelomoh brought in the set apart things themselves תא
of David, his father,
the silver itself תא and the gold itself תא
and all the utensils themselves תא.
And he put them in the treasuries
of The House of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 5:2 Then Shelomoh caused to be assembled
the elders themselves תא of Yisra'el and all the heads of the tribes themselves תא, exalted ones of the fathers
of the children of Yisra'el,
to Yerushalaim for the sake of bringing up

The Chest itself תא
of The Covenant of YAHWEH
from the City of David. It is Tzion.

2Chr. 5:3 And all the men of Yisra'el
were assembled to the king
at the festival of the seventh month.

This is the Feast of Sukkoth,
The Feast of Booths, also called
The Feast of Tabernacles.
This is most appropriate since this entire process
is about The House (booth, or dwelling place)
of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 5:4 And all the elders of Yisra'el came.
And the Levites lifted up The Chest itself תא.

2Chr. 5:5 And they brought up
The Chest itself תא,
and The Tent of Assembly itself תא,
and all the set apart utensils themselves תא
which were in The Tent.
The priests of the Levites
brought up they themselves תא.

2Chr. 5:6 And the king, Shelomoh,
and all the assembly of Yisra'el,
those having been assembled to him
before The Chest,
were slaughtering sheep and oxen
which could not be reported or counted
because of abundance.

2Chr. 5:7 And the priests brought in The Chest itself תא
of The Covenant of YAHWEH to its place,
into The Speaking Place of The House,
to The Most Set Apart Place,
to beneath the wings of the cherubim.

2Chr. 5:8 And the cherubim
were spreading their wings
above the place of The Chest.
And the cherubim covered over
The Chest and its poles.

2Chr. 5:9 And the poles were long.
And the ends of the poles from The Chest were seen at the front of The Speaking Place.
But they were not seen outside.
And they are there to this very day.

2Chr. 5:10 There was nothing in The Chest except the two tablets which Moshe had put there at Horeb
when YAHWEH cut a covenant
with the children of Yisra'el
at their coming from Mitsraim.

2Chr. 5:11 And it was as the priests were coming out
from The Most Set Apart Place.
Because all the priests
had found themselves set apart,
there was none for the sake
of watching by division.

2Chr. 5:12 And the Levites, the singers,
for all of them of Asaph
and of Heman,
and of Yeduthun,
and of their sons,
and of their kindred,

having been clothed in fine linen,
were standing at the east end
of the slaughter site
with cymbals,
and with harps,
and with lyres.
And with them were
one hundred and twenty priests
sounding on trumpets.

2Chr. 5:13 And they were as one for the sake of sounding the trumpets,
and for the sake of singing,
and for the sake of causing one sound to be heard
for the sake of praising
and for the sake of giving thanks
to YAHWEH.

And as they caused their voices
to be lifted up
with the trumpets, and with cymbals,
and with instruments of the music,
and with giving praise to YAHWEH:
“Indeed, He is good!
Indeed, His kindness is to eternity!”
Then The House was filled with a cloud,
The House of YAHWEH.
2Chr. 5:14 And the priests
were not able to stand for the sake of ministering before the cloud
because the splendor of YAHWEH
had filled The House itself nx of YAHWEH.

Chapter 6

2Chr. 6:1 Then Shelomoh said,
“YAHWEH has said
He will dwell in a thick cloud.
2Chr. 6:2 But I myself have built an exalted House for You and a place for Your dwelling for eternity.”

2Chr. 6:3 And the king
turned around his face itself nx.
And he blessed
all the assembly of Yisra’el itself nx.
And all the assembly of Yisra’el itself nx
was standing.

2Chr. 6:4 And he said,
“Being blessed is YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra’el,
Who has spoken with His mouth
to David himself nx, my father.
Even with His hands

He has fulfilled it saying, 2Chr. 6:5 ‘From the day
in which I have brought out My people themselves nx
from the land of Mitsraim
I have not chosen a city
from all the tribes of Yisra’el
for the sake of building a house
for the sake of My Name to exist there, nor have I chosen a man to be ruler
over My people, Yisra’el.
2Chr. 6:6 But I have chosen Yerushalaim
for My Name to exist there.
And I have chosen David
to be over My people, Yisra’el.’

2Chr. 6:7 And it was within the heart of my father, David, to build a House
for the Name of YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra’el.

2Chr. 6:8 And YAHWEH said to David,
my father,
'Because of what was within your heart,
to build a House for My Name,
you have done well
because it was in your heart.
2Chr. 6:9 However, you yourself nx
will not build the house.
Indeed, your son,
the one coming forth from your loins,
he himself will build
The House for My Name.'

2Chr. 6:10 And now,
YAHWEH has established
His word itself nx which He has spoken.
And I have been raised up
in the place of David, my father.
And I sit on the throne of Yisra'el
according to what YAHWEH had spoken.

And I have built The House
for the Name of YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el.
2Chr. 6:11 And I have placed there
The Chest itself nx,
in which is The Covenant of YAHWEH
which He cut with the children of Yisra'el."

2Chr. 6:12 And he stood before
the slaughter site of YAHWEH
in front of all the assembly of Yisra'el.
And he spread out his hands.

2Chr. 6:13 Indeed, Shelomoh had made a copper platform,
five cubits long, and five cubits wide,
and three cubits high.
And he had put it
in the midst of the courtyard.
And he stood upon it.
And he knelt down on his knees
in front of all the assembly of Yisra'el.
And he spread out his hands
toward the skies.

2Chr. 6:14 And he said,
"YAHWEH, Elohim of Yisra'el,
there are no gods like You
in the skies or on the earth
Who is protecting The Covenant
and the kindness for Your servants,
those walking before Your face
with all their hearts,

Note: elohim is used
twice in this verse.
The first time it refers to YAHWEH.
The second time it refers to any other so-called 'god'.
This is missed
in most English translations.
It's a vital distinction.
The term, elohim means a mighty one.

2Chr. 6:15 Who has protected
for Your servant, David, my father,
that itself nx which You have spoken to him.

And You have spoken with Your mouth.
And with Your hand You have fulfilled it,
as it is this day.

2Chr. 6:16 And now, YAHWEH,
Elohim of Yisra'el,
protect for your servant, David, my father,
that itself nx which You have spoken to him
saying,

'There will not be a man cut off for you
from before My face,
sitting on the throne of Yisra'el,
but only if your sons
will protect their way itself תא
for the sake of walking
according to My Instruction
according to how you have walked before My face.'

2Chr. 6:17 And now,
YAHWEH, Elohim of Yisra'el,
may Your word be faithful which You have spoken to Your servant, to David.

2Chr. 6:18 Indeed, truly,
will The Elohim dwell
with the human being himself תא
upon the earth?

Behold!
The skies
and The Heavens of The Heavens
can not contain You,
much less this House which I have built!

2Chr. 6:19 But turn toward the prayer of Your servant
and toward his request for favor, YAHWEH, my Elohim,
for the sake of listening attentively
to the cry and to the prayer
which Your servant is himself praying
before Your face

2Chr. 6:20 for the sake of Your eyes
being open toward this House day and night,
toward the place of which You have spoken
to place Your Name there,
for the sake of listening attentively
to the prayer which Your servant himself
prays toward this place!

2Chr. 6:21 And listen attentively to the requests for favor
of Your servant and of Your people, Yisra'el,
when they themselves
pray toward this place!
And You Yourself תא, listen attentively
from Your dwelling place in The Heavens!
And listen attentively and forgive!

2Chr. 6:22 If a man offends
against his neighbor,
and he has lifted up an oath with him
to cause him to swear, and comes to swear
before Your slaughter site in this House, 2Chr. 6:23 then You Yourself תא,
listen attentively from The Heavens!
And act.
And judge Your servants themselves תא,
repaying the morally wrong
by putting his way on his own head,
and justifying the just one
by giving to him according to his justness.

2Chr. 6:24 And if Your people, Yisra'el,
are struck before the face of an adversary
because they have offended against You,
and they return,
and they praise Your Name itself תא,
and they pray,
and they make request for favor
before Your face in this House,

2Chr. 6:25 then You Yourself תא,
listen attentively from The Heavens
and forgive for the sake of the offense
of Your people, Yisra'el.
And return to the land
which You have given to them
and to their fathers.

2Chr. 6:26 When the skies are shut up
and there is no rain
because they have offended against You,
and they pray toward this place,
and they praise Your Name itself תא,
and they turn back from their offense
because You afflict them,

2Chr. 6:27 then You Yourself תא,
listen attentively from The Heavens
and forgive for the sake of the offense
of Your servants, even Your people, Yisra'el.

Indeed, teach them about the good way
in which they are to walk.
And grant rain upon Your land which You have given to Your people
as an inheritance.

2Chr. 6:28 When there is famine in the land,
or pestilence,
when scorching, or blight, or mildew,
locusts or grasshoppers exist;
when they are oppressed
by their adversaries
in the land at its gates;
any plague or any sickness;

2Chr. 6:29 whatever prayer,
whatever request for favor
which is for any human being or for all Your people, Yisra'el,
when they know, each man
his own plague and his own grief,
and he spreads out his hands
toward this House,

2Chr. 6:30 then You Yourself תא,
listen attentively from The Heavens,
Your dwelling place, and forgive.

And give to each man
according to all his ways,
whose heart itself תא You know

Indeed, You Yourself תא alone know the hearts themselves תא
of the children of the human being!

2Chr. 6:31 in order that they will revere You
for the sake of walking
according to Your ways
all the days which they live upon the land
which You have given to our fathers.

2Chr. 6:32 And also, concerning the foreigner who is not from Your people, Yisra'el,
he himself who has come from a distant land
for the sake of Your great Name,
and Your strong hand,
and Your outstretched arm;
and they come,
and they themselves pray toward this House,

2Chr. 6:33 then You Yourself תא,
listen attentively from The Heavens,
Your dwelling place.

And do according to everything
for which the stranger calls to You in order that all the people of the earth
will know Your Name itself תא,

even for the sake of revering
You Yourself נא,
as do Your people, Yisra'el,
and for the sake of knowing that Your Name
is called upon this House which I have built.

2Chr. 6:34 When Your people go out to battle against their adversaries
according to the way which You send them,
and they pray to You by way of this city
which You have chosen,
and The House which I have built
for Your Name,
2Chr. 6:35 then listen attentively
from The Heavens
to their prayer itself נא
and their request for favor itself נא
and do judgment for them.

2Chr. 6:36 When they offend against You, indeed, there is no human being
who does not offend,
and You have been enraged with them,
and You have given them up
before the faces of adversaries,
and they have been taken away,
being captives, to a distant land, far or near,
2Chr. 6:37 and they turn back to their heart
in the land where they have been taken captive,
and they turn back,
and they themselves
make a request for favor toward You in the land of their captivity saying,
'We have offended.
We have been perverse.
And we have done moral wrong.'
2Chr. 6:38 and they have turned back to You with all their heart and with all their life
in the land of their captivity
where they have taken captive,
they themselves נא,
and they themselves pray toward their land
which You have given to their fathers,
and the city which You have chosen,
and toward The House
which I have built for Your Name, 2Chr. 6:39 then listen attentively
from The Heavens,
Your dwelling place,
to their prayer itself נא
and to their requests for favor themselves נא
and do judgment for them.
And forgive Your people who have offended against You?

2Chr. 6:40 Now, my Elohim,
please let Your eyes be open and let Your ears be attentive
to the prayer of this place.

2Chr. 6:41 And now, rise up,
YAHWEH, The Elohim,
to Your resting place,
You Yourself נא
and The Chest of Your strength!

May Your priests, YAHWEH, The Elohim,
be clothed with deliverance.
And may Your devoted ones
rejoice in goodness.

2Chr. 6:42 YAHWEH, The Elohim,
do not turn back the face of Your anointed.

Take note of the kindnesses
of David, Your servant!"

Chapter 7

2Chr. 7:1 And Shelomoh finished his praying.
And the fire came down from the skies.
And it consumed the olah and the sacrifices.

And the splendor of YAHWEH filled
The House itself נא.

2Chr. 7:2 And the priests were not able to enter The House of YAHWEH
because the splendor of YAHWEH
had filled The House of YAHWEH itself נא.

2Chr. 7:3 And all the children of Yisra'el were observing as the fire and the splendor of YAHWEH
came down upon The House.
And they bowed their faces to the ground,
upon the pavement.
And they prostrated themselves.
And they gave thanks to YAHWEH saying,
"Indeed, He is good!
Indeed, His kindness is to eternity!"

2Chr. 7:4 And the king and all the people were offering sacrifices
before the face of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 7:5 And King, Shelomoh, sacrificed a sacrifice itself נא
of the bulls, twenty two thousand,
and of the sheep,
one hundred and twenty thousand.

And the king and all the people dedicated The House itself נא of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 7:6 And the priests were standing concerning their duties,
and the Levites
with instruments of the music
to YAHWEH
which David the king had made
for the sake of giving thanks
to YAHWEH, saying,
"Indeed, His kindness is to eternity!"
as David was praising by their hand.
And the priests were sounding on trumpets
in front of them.
And all Yisra'el was standing.

2Chr. 7:7 And Shelomoh consecrated the middle of the courtyard itself נא
which was at the front
of The House of YAHWEH,
because there he made the olahs
and the fat itself נא of the shelem offerings, because the copper slaughter site
which Shelomoh had made
was not able to contain the olahs themselves נא,
and the grain offerings themselves נא,
and the fat itself נא.

2Chr. 7:8 And Shelomoh at that time observed the festival itself נא seven days,
and all Yisra'el with him,
a very great assembly,
from the entrance of Hamat
to the wadi of Mitsraim.

This is The Feast

2Chr. 7:9 And on the eighth day
they made an assembly,
because they had done
the dedication of the slaughter site
seven days,
and the festival seven days.

2Chr. 7:10 And on the twenty third day
of the seventh month
he sent the people themselves nx
to their tents,
rejoicing and glad of heart
concerning the goodness that YAHWEH had done
for David, and for Shelomoh,
and for Yisra'el, His people.

2Chr. 7:11 And Shelomoh finished
The House itself nx of YAHWEH
and the house itself nx of the king.

And everything itself nx that was coming into the heart of Shelomoh to do
in The House of YAHWEH
and in his own house
He caused to succeed.

2Chr. 7:12 And YAHWEH
was seen by Shelomoh at night.
And He said to him,
"I have listened attentively
to your prayer itself nx.
And I have chosen this place for Me
as a House of sacrifice.

2Chr. 7:13 If I shut up the skies
and there is no rain,
or if I give direction concerning locusts
for the sake of devouring the land,
or if I send a pestilence among My people, 2Chr. 7:14 and My people who have been called with My Name over them
will humble themselves,
and they themselves will pray,
and they will seek My face,
and they will turn back
from the badness of their ways,
then I Myself will listen attentively
from The Heavens.
And I will forgive their offense.
And I will heal their land itself nx.

2Chr. 7:15 Now My eyes will be open and My ears will be attentive
to the prayer of this place.

2Chr. 7:16 And now, I have chosen and I have set apart This House itself nx
for the sake of My Name
existing there until eternity.
And My eyes and My heart
will be there all the days.

2Chr. 7:17 And you yourself nx,
if you will walk before My face
according to how David, your father, walked,
even for the sake of doing
according to everything,
all that I have given you as direction,
and My rules and my regulations
you will protect,

2Chr. 7:18 then I will establish the throne itself תא of your kingdom
according to what I have covenanted
for the sake of David, your father, saying,
'There will not be a man of yours cut off
as ruler in Yisra'el.'

2Chr. 7:19 But if you turn back,
you yourself תא,
and you abandon
My rules and My directives
which I have set before your face,
and you have gone,
and you have served other gods,
and you have bowed yourself down to them, 2Chr. 7:20 then I will uproot them
from My land
which I have given to them!

And This House itself תא,
which I have set apart for My Name,
I will cause to be cast out of My sight!

And I will set it as a proverb
and a mockery among all the peoples.

2Chr. 7:21 And This House
which has been most high,
for everyone passing over beside it,
he will be astonished.

And they will say,
'Why has YAHWEH done thus
to this land and this House?'

7:22 And they will say,
'On account of how they have abandoned
YAHWEH Himself תא,
The Elohim of their fathers,
Who brought them out
from the land of Mitsraim.
And they have held on to other gods.
And they have bowed themselves to them.
And they have served them.
For this reason He has brought upon them
all this badness itself תא.' "

Chapter 8

2Chr. 8:1 And it was at the end
of twenty years,
when Shelomoh had built
The House itself תא of YAHWEH,
and his house itself תא.

2Chr. 8:2 And the cities which Hiram had given to Shelomoh, Shelomoh had built they themselves תא.
And he had caused to dwell there
the children of Yisra'el themselves תא.

2Chr. 8:3 And Shelomoh went
to Hamat Tzobah.
And he took hold upon it.
2Chr. 8:4 And he built Tadmor itself תא
in the wilderness
and all the storage cities themselves תא
which he built at Hamat.
2Chr. 8:5 And he built Upper Bayit Horon itself תא
and Lower Bayit Horon itself תא, fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars, 2Chr. 8:6 and Ba'alat itself תא
and all the storage cities themselves תא
that belonged to Shelomoh,

and all the cities of the chariot themselves תא,
and the cities of the horsemen themselves תא,
and everything that Shelomoh desired
to build at Yerushalaim,
and in The Lebanon,
and in all the land of his dominion.

2Chr. 8:7 All the people,
those remaining of the Hittites,
and the Amorites,
and the Perizzites,
and the Hivvites,
and the Yebusites,
who were not from Yisra'el, 2Chr. 8:8 from their children
who were left in the land after them,
whom the children of Yisra'el
had not destroyed,
even Shelomoh raised them up
as forced labor as it is this day.

2Chr. 8:9 And from the children of Yisra'el
Shelomoh did not make slaves for his work.
Indeed, they were men of battle,
and rulers of his officers,
and commanders of his chariots,
and his horsemen.

2Chr. 8:10 And these were the rulers of the officers
who belonged to King Shelomoh:
two hundred and fifty
who had dominion over the people.

2Chr. 8:11 And Shelomoh brought up the daughter of Pharaoh herself תא from The City of David
to the house he had built for her.
Indeed he said, "My wife is not to dwell
in the house of David, king of Yisra'el, because the place is set apart
where The Chest of YAHWEH has come."

2Chr. 8:12 Then Shelomoh offered up olahs to YAHWEH
on the slaughter site of YAHWEH
which he had built before the porch 2Chr. 8:13 according to the matter of the day,
on its day,
for the sake of offering up
according to the directive of Moshe,
for Sabbaths, and for New Moons,
and for the appointed times
three times in a year:
at The Festival of The Matzot,
at The Festival of The Shavuot,
and The Festival of The Sukkot.

The Festival of Matzot
is commonly called
The Feast of Unleavened Bread.
It immediately follows
Pesach, or Passover.
It is a seven day festival.
It occurs in the first month
of the Hebrew year.

The Festival of Shavuot
is commonly called
The Feast of The Weeks.
It is also known as Pentecost.
It occurs 50 days after Pesach.

The Festival of Sukkot
is commonly known as The feast of The Booths,
or The Feast of Tabernacles.

It is a seven day festival.
It occurs in the seventh month.
This is the festival
during which The Messiah was born.

2Chr. 8:14 And according to the regulation of David, his father, he appointed the divisions themselves נא of the priests concerning their service, and the Levites concerning their duties, for the sake of praising and for the sake of ministering in front of the priests for the sake of the duty of the day on its day, and the gatekeepers according to their divisions at each gate. Indeed, according to this was the directive of David, the man of The Elohim.

2Chr. 8:15 And they did not depart from the directive of the king concerning the priests and Levites for any matter or for the treasuries.

2Chr. 8:16 And all the work of Shelomoh had been prepared from the day of laying the foundation of The House of YAHWEH even until it was completed.

And The House of YAHWEH was complete.

2Chr. 8:17 Then Shelomoh went to Etzyon Geber and 'Eylot on the edge of the sea in the land of Edom.

2Chr. 8:18 And Hiram sent to him ships by the hand of his servants, even servants knowing the sea. And they went with the servants of Shelomoh to Ophir. And they took from there four hundred and fifty talents of gold. And they brought it to the king, Shelomoh.

Chapter 9

2Chr. 9:1 And the queen of Sheba heard of the fame itself נא of Shelomoh. And she came to test Shelomoh himself נא with difficult questions at Yerushalaim with an exceedingly great company, and camels carrying spices, and gold to abundance, and precious stones.

And she came to Shelomoh. And she spoke with him of everything itself נא which had been within her heart.

2Chr. 9:2 And Shelomoh explained to her all her words themselves נא. And no matter was hidden from Shelomoh which he did not make known to her.

2Chr. 9:3 And the queen of Sheba observed the wisdom itself נא of Shelomoh, and the house which he had built, 2Chr. 9:4 and the food of his table, and the seating of his servants, and the position of his ministers and their attire,

and his cupbearers and their attire,
and his olahs that he offered up
in The House of YAHWEH.
And there was no more breath in her.
ruach - breath or wind.
We might say,
'Shelomoh took her breath away.'

9:5 And she said to the king,
"True was the word
I had heard in my own land concerning your words
and concerning your wisdom.

2Chr. 9:6 But I did not believe their words
until I came.
And my eyes have seen.
And behold!
Half of the greatness of your wisdom
had not been told to me.
You have added more
to the report which I had heard.

2Chr. 9:7 Happy are your men and happy are these your servants who are standing
before your face continually and hearing your wisdom itself נא!

2Chr. 9:8 "Being blessed is YAHWEH, your Elohim,
Who has delighted in you for the sake of setting you upon His throne as king
for the sake of YAHWEH, your Elohim,
on account of your Elohim
loving Yisra'el itself נא,
for the sake of establishing it to eternity.

And He has set you over them as king
for the sake of doing judgment and justice."

2Chr. 9:9 And she gave to the king
one hundred and twenty talents of gold,
and spices to exceeding abundance,
and precious stones.
And there has not existed spices like those which the queen of Sheba gave to King Shelomoh.

2Chr. 9:10 And the servants of Hiram
and the servants of Shelomoh,
who brought gold from Ophir,
also brought trees of algum
and precious stones.
2Chr. 9:11 And the king made pathways of the trees of the algum themselves נא
for The House of YAHWEH
and for the house of the king,
also lyres and harps for those singing.
And there had not been seen anything like them before
in the land of Yahudah.

2Chr. 9:12 And the king, Shelomoh,
gave to the queen of Sheba
everything itself נא she desired,
whatever she requested,
apart from what she had brought to the king.
And she turned around.
And she went to her own land,
she and her servants.

2Chr. 9:13 And the weight of gold

that came to Shelomoh in a year was six hundred and sixty six talents of gold,

2Chr. 9:14 apart from that which the merchants
and those trading brought.

Take note of
the amount of the gold.
You'll recognize the number, 666.
This is the number connected with
"The Mark of The Beast" in Revelation.

Does this indicate that the name of the Antichrist (false messiah)
will be "Shelomoh"?

And all the kings of Arabia
and governors of the land
were bringing gold and silver to Shelomoh.

2Chr. 9:15 And Shelomoh the king
made two hundred large shields
of hammered gold,
six hundred pieces of hammered gold
went into one shield, 2Chr. 9:16 and three hundred bucklers
of hammered gold,
three hundred pieces of gold
went into one buckler.
And the king put them in The House of The Forest of The Lebanon.

2Chr. 9:17 And the king made a great throne of ivory.
And he overlaid it with pure gold.
2Chr. 9:18 And there were six steps to the throne
and a footstool of gold
which were fastened to the throne.
And there were armrests on this side
and on that side
beside the place of the seat.
And two lions were standing beside the armrests.
2Chr. 9:19 And twelve lions
were standing there
on the six steps,
on this side and on that side.
Nothing had been made like it
for any kingdom.

2Chr. 9:20 And all the drinking vessels
of Shelomoh the king were of gold.
And all the vessels of The House
of The Forest of The Lebanon
were of pure gold.
Silver was not considered as anything
in the days of Shelomoh.

2Chr. 9:21 Indeed, the ships for the king
went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram.
Once in three years
the ships of Tarshish came,
carrying gold, and silver,
ivory, apes, and peacocks.

2Chr. 9:22 And Shelomoh, the king,
became greater than all the kings of the earth
for riches and wisdom.

2Chr. 9:23 And all the kings of the earth
were seeking the face itself nx of Shelomoh
for the sake of hearing his wisdom itself nx
which YAHWEH had put in his heart.

2Chr. 9:24 And each man
was bringing his gift:
objects of silver, and objects of gold,
and garments of armor,
and spices, horses, and mules,
the matter of a year according to a year.

2Chr. 9:25 And Shelomoh
had four thousand stalls
of horses and chariots,
and twelve thousand horsemen.
And he stationed them
in the cities of the chariot
and with the king at Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 9:26 And he ruled over all the kings
from The River even as far as the land of the Philistines,
and as far as the border of Mitsraim.

2Chr. 9:27 And the king set the silver itself תא
in Yerushalaim like stones.
And the cedar trees themselves תא
he set like the sycamores
which are in The Shefelah,
to abundance.

2Chr. 9:28 And they were bringing horses
from Mitsraim to Shelomoh,
and from all lands.

2Chr. 9:29 And the rest
of the words of Shelomoh,
first and last, are they not written
upon the scroll of Nathan, the prophet,
and in the prophecy of Ahiyah, the Shilonite,
and in the visions of Iddo, the seer,
concerning Yarob'am, son of Nebat?

2Chr. 9:30 And Shelomoh
reigned at Yerushalaim
over all Yisra'el forty years.

2Chr. 9:31 And Shelomoh
slept with his fathers.
And he was buried
in The City of David, his father.
And Rehab'am, his son,
reigned in his place.

Rehab'am means
enlargement of the people.

Chapter 10

2Chr. 10:1 And Rehab'am went to Shekem because all Yisra'el had gone to Shekem
for the sake of causing
he himself תא to reign.

2Chr. 10:2 And it was when Yarob'am,
son of Nebat, heard it.
And he was in Mitsraim where he had fled
from before the face of Shelomoh, the king.
And Yarob'am returned from Mitsraim.

Yarob'am means
the people will contend.

2Chr. 10:3 And they sent.
And they called for him.
And Yarob'am and all Yisra'el came.
And they spoke to Rehab'am saying, 2Chr. 10:4 "Your father caused
our yoke itself תא to be difficult.
And now, ease up
from the difficult service of your father

and from the heavy yoke
which he has put upon us,
and we will serve you.”

2Chr. 10:5 And he said to them,
“Three more days.
Then return to me.”
And the people went.

2Chr. 10:6 And Rehab'am, the king, consulted the elders themselves תא
who had been standing before the face of Shelomoh, his father
while he was alive saying, “What do you yourselves תא
advise me to reply to these people a word?”
2Chr. 10:7 And they spoke to him saying,
“If you are good to these people
and will treat them favorably,
and will speak good words
then they will be servants to you
all the days.”

2Chr. 10:8 But he abandoned the advice itself תא
of the elders which they had given him.
And he consulted
the young men themselves תא
who had grown up with he himself תא,
those standing before his face.
2Chr. 10:9 And he said to them,
“What do you yourselves תא give as advice?
And what word shall we return to these people themselves תא
who have spoken to me saying,
'Ease up from the yoke
which your father has put upon us'?”

2Chr. 10:10 And the young men
who had grown up with he himself תא
spoke to he himself תא saying, “Speak according to this to the people who have spoken to you, saying,
'Your father caused
our yoke itself תא to be heavy.
But you yourself תא, cause it to ease up from upon us!’

Thus you are to say to them,
'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins!
2Chr. 10:11 And now, my father has caused a heavy yoke upon you.
But I myself,
I will add upon more your yoke!
My father chastised you yourselves תא
with whips.
But I myself, with scourges!’ ”

2Chr. 10:12 And Yarob'am and all the people came to Rehab'am on the third day,
according to what the king
had spoken saying,
“Return to me on the third day.”

2Chr. 10:13 And the king
answered them harshly.
And the king, Rehab'am, abandoned
the advice itself תא of the elders.
2Chr. 10:14 And he spoke to them
according to the counsel
of the young men saying,
“My father caused your yoke itself תא
to be heavy.

But I myself, I will add more to it!
My father chastised you yourselves nx
with whips,
but I myself, with scourges!"

2Chr. 10:15 And the king
did not listen attentively to the people.
Indeed,
the turn of events was from YAHWEH
in order for YAHWEH to establish His word itself nx which He had spoken
by the hand of Ahiyah, the Shilonite,
to Yarob'am, son of Nebat.

2Chr. 10:16 And all Yisra'el
saw that the king
had not listened attentively to them.
And the people returned
to the king himself nx saying,
"What portion have we with David?
And we have no inheritance
with the son of Yishai.
Each man to your tents, Yisra'el!
Now see to your own house, David!"

And all Yisra'el went to their tents.
Yisra'el at this point
is the Northern Kingdom.
It does not include Yahudah.

2Chr. 10:17 But some
of the children of Yisra'el
were dwelling in the cities of Yahudah.
And Rehab'am reigned over them.

2Chr. 10:18 Then the king, Rehab'am, sent Hadoram himself nx,
who was over the forced labor.
And the children of Yisra'el
threw stones upon him.
And he died.

And the king, Rehab'am,
quickly mounted his chariot
for the sake of fleeing to Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 10:19 And Yisra'el has rebelled against the house of David to this day.

Chapter 11

2Chr. 11:1 And Rehab'am
came to Yerushalaim.
And he assembled
the house of Yahudah itself nx
and Binyamin,
one hundred and eighty thousand
having been chosen, those making war,
for the sake of fighting with Yisra'el
for the sake of returning them to the kingdom itself nx, to Rehab'am.

2Chr. 11:2 And the word of YAHWEH existed
to Shemayah, a man of The Elohim, saying, 2Chr. 11:3 "Speak to Rehab'am,
son of Shelomoh,
king of Yahudah, and to all Yisra'el
in Yahudah and Binyamin, saying, 2Chr. 11:4 "Thus said YAHWEH,
"You are not to go up!
And you are not to fight with your kindred!
Return, each man to his house!
Indeed, this matter is from Me Myself nx!" ' ' "

And they listened attentively

to the words themselves תא of YAHWEH.
And they turned back
from going against Yarob'am.

2Chr. 11:5 And Rehab'am dwelt
in Yerushalaim.

And he built
cities for a defense in Yahudah.
2Chr. 11:6 And he built Bayit Lechem itself תא,

and Etam itself תא, and Tekoa itself תא, 2Chr. 11:7 and Bayit Tzur itself תא,

and Soko itself תא,
and Adullam itself תא, 2Chr. 11:8 and Gath itself תא,

and Mareshah itself תא,
and Ziph itself תא, 2Chr. 11:9 and Adoraim itself תא,

and Lachish itself תא,
and Azekah itself תא, 2Chr. 11:10 and Tzor'ah itself תא,

and Ayalon itself תא,
and Hebron itself תא,
which are in Yahudah and in Binyamin,
cities of defense.

2Chr. 11:11 And he strengthened
the strongholds themselves תא.
And he put commanders in them,
and stores of food, and oil, and wine, 2Chr. 11:12 and shields, and spears
in every city.
And strengthened them exceedingly greatly.
And Yahudah and Binyamin were his.

2Chr. 11:13 And the priests and the Levites
who were in all Yisra'el took their stand against him
beside all their borders.

2Chr. 11:14 Indeed, the Levites abandoned their open lands themselves תא
and their possessions.
And they went to Yahudah and Yerushalaim,
because Yarob'am and his sons
had excluded them from serving as priests to YAHWEH.

2Chr. 11:15 And he established for himself priests for the high places,
and for the goats devils,
and the calf idols which he had made.

2Chr. 11:16 And after them (the Levites),
from all the tribes of Yisra'el,
those having set
their hearts themselves תא
to seek YAHWEH Himself תא,
The Elohim of Yisra'el,
came to Yerushalaim
for the sake of sacrificing to YAHWEH,
The Elohim of their fathers.

2Chr. 11:17 And they strengthened
the kingdom itself תא of Yahudah.
And they strengthened Rehab'am himself תא,
son of Shelomoh, for three years
because they walked in the way of David and Shelomoh for three years.

2Chr. :18 And Rehab'am
took for himself as wife Mahalath herself תא,
the daughter of Yerimoth,
son of David,

and of Abihail, the daughter of Eliyab,
son of Yishai.

Mahalath means sickness.

2Chr. 11:19 And she bore him sons:

Ye'ush himself נא,

and Shemaryah himself נא,

and Zaham himself נא.

Ye'ush means hasty.

Shemaryah means

YAH has protected.

Zaham means loathing.

2Chr. 11:20 And after her

he took Ma'akah herself נא,

the granddaughter of Abshalom.

And she bore him Abiyah himself נא,

and Attai himself נא,

and Ziza himself נא,

and Shelomit himself נא.

Ma'akah means depression.

Abshalom means

peace of the father.

Abiyah means YAH is my father.

Attai means timely.

Ziza means prominent.

Shelomit means peaceableness.

2Chr. 11:21 And Rehab'am loved

Ma'akah herself נא,

the granddaughter of Abshalom,

more than all his wives and his concubines.

Indeed, he had taken eighteen wives and sixty concubines.

And he brought forth twenty eight sons

and sixty daughters.

2Chr. 11:22 And Rehab'am established

Abiyah himself נא, son of Ma'akah, as chief,

to be ruler among his brothers,

for the sake of causing him to reign.

2Chr. 11:23 And he understood.

And he dispersed some of all his sons

to all the lands of Yahudah and Binyamin,

to all the cities of the defense.

And he gave to them

provision to abundance.

And he requested

a multitude of wives for them.

Chapter 12

2Chr. 12:1 And it was when Rehab'am

had established the kingdom.

And in his strength he abandoned

the Instruction itself נא of YAHWEH,

and all Yisra'el with him.

2Chr. 12:2 And it was in the fifth year of King Rehab'am.

Shishak, king of Mitsraim,

came up against Yerushalaim,

because they had acted

unfaithfully against YAHWEH,

2Chr. 12:3 with twelve hundred chariots,

and sixty thousand horsemen,

and people without number from Mitsraim:

the Lubim, the Sukkites and the Kushites.

2Chr. 12:4 And he captured

the cities themselves נא of the defense

which belonged to Yahudah.

And he came as far as Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 12:5 And Shemayah, the prophet,

came to Rehab'am

and the rulers of Yahudah

who had been gathered to Yerushalaim

from before the face of Shishak.
And he said to them, "Thus said YAHWEH,
'You yourselves נא
have abandoned Me Myself נא.
And I Myself have also abandoned you yourselves נא
into the hand of Shishak.' "

2Chr. 12:6 And the rulers of Yisra'el
and the king humbled themselves.
And they said, "YAHWEH is just."

2Chr. 12:7 And when YAHWEH saw that they had been humbled
the word of YAHWEH
existed to Shemayah, saying,
"They have been humbled.
I will not destroy them.
And I will grant to them
according to a little deliverance.
And I will not pour out
My wrath on Yerushalaim
by the hand of Shishak.
2Chr. 12:8 Indeed,
they will be to him as servants.
And they will know My service
and the service
of the kingdoms of the lands."

2Chr. 12:9 And Shishak, king of Mitsraim,
came up against Yerushalaim.
And he took the treasures themselves נא
of The House of YAHWEH
and the treasures themselves נא
of the house of the king.
He took everything itself נא.
And he took
the shields themselves נא of the gold
which Shelomoh had made.

2Chr. 12:10 And Rehab'am the king
made shields of copper in their place.
And he gave accountability for them
into the hands of the runners of the guard,
those protecting the entrance
to the house of the king.

2Chr. 12:11 And it existed,
when the king entered
The House of YAHWEH
those running carried them.
And they returned them
the chamber of the guard.

2Chr. 12:12 And when he had been humbled
the wrath of YAHWEH turned back from him, even for the sake
of not destroying him completely.
And also, in Yahudah matters were good.

2Chr. 12:13 And Rehab'am the king
strengthened himself in Yerushalaim.
And Rehab'am was forty one years old
at his reigning.
And he reigned seventeen years
in Yerushalaim,
the city which YAHWEH had chosen for the sake of placing there
His Name itself נא.

And the name of his mother was Na'amah,
the Ammonitess.

2Chr. 12:14 And he did that which is bad

because he did not prepare his heart
for the sake of seeking
YAHWEH Himself נא.

2Chr. 12:15 And the words of Rehab'am,
the first and the last,
are they not written in the scroll
of Shemayah, the prophet,
and of Iddo, the seer, by his genealogies?

And there was fighting
between Rehab'am and Yarob'am
all the days.
2Chr. 12:16 And Rehab'am
slept with his fathers.
And he was buried in The City of David.
And Abiyah, his son, reigned in his place.

Chapter 13

2Chr. 13:1 It was in the eighteenth year
of King Yarob'am.
And Abiyah reigned over Yahudah.
2Chr. 13:2 He reigned three years
in Yerushalaim.
And his the name of his mother
was Mikayah,
daughter of Uri'el, from Gib'ah.

And there was fighting
between Abiyah and Yarob'am.
2Chr. 13:3 And Abiyah joined the battle itself נא
with a force of mighty men of war,
four hundred thousand
men having been chosen.

And Yarob'am arranged against him for battle
with eight hundred thousand
men having been chosen,
mighty men of strength.

2Chr. 13:4 And Abiyah stood on top of Mount Tzemaraim
which is in the mountains of Ephraim.
And he said,

"Listen attentively to me,
Yarob'am and all Yisra'el!
2Chr. 13:5 Is it not for you to know that YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el, has given the dominion over Yisra'el
to David to eternity,
to him and to his sons, by a covenant of salt?

2Chr. 13:6 But Yarob'am, son of Nebat, servant of Shelomoh, the son of David,
has risen up.

And he has rebelled against his master.

2Chr. 13:7 And vain men have been gathered to him,
sons of worthlessness.

And they have strengthened themselves
against Rehab'am, son of Shelomoh.
But Rehab'am was young and tender of heart.

And he was not strong before their faces.

2Chr. 13:8 And now you yourselves נא
are saying to stand before the faces
of the kingdom of YAHWEH
which is in the hand of the sons of David.
And you yourselves נא are a great multitude.

And with you are the calves of gold which Yarob'am has made for you as gods.

2Chr. 13:9 Have you not driven out
the priests themselves נא of YAHWEH,

the sons of Aharon themselves אָנ
and the Levites,
and made for yourselves priests
like the peoples of the lands?
Anyone coming to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams then exists as a priest of what are not gods.

2Chr. 13:10 But we ourselves,
YAHWEH is our Elohim!
And we have not abandoned Him.
And priests are ministering to YAHWEH,
the sons of Aharon and the Levites,
according to the work.
2Chr. 13:11 And they are turning into smoke
for YAHWEH morning by morning,
and evening by evening,
olahs and sweet incense.
And the showbread is upon the pure table.
And the lampstand of the gold
with its lamps
are for the sake of burning every evening.
Indeed, we are protecting the duty itself אָנ
of YAHWEH, our Elohim.
But you yourselves אָנ
have abandoned He Himself אָנ!

2Chr. 13:12 And behold!
With us as Head is YAHWEH,
and His priests, and the trumpets,
the clamor of trumpets
for the sake of sounding the alarm
against you.

Children of Yisra'el,
do not fight against YAHWEH,
The Elohim of your fathers.
Indeed, you will not prosper!"

13:13 And Yarob'am had caused an ambush itself אָנ to go around behind them.
And they were before the faces of Yahudah.
And the ambush was from behind them.

2Chr. 13:14 And Yahudah turned around.
And behold!
The battle was toward their faces
and behind them.
And they cried out to YAHWEH.
And the priests
were sounding with the trumpets.
2Chr. 13:15 And the men of Yahudah shouted.
And it was as the men of Yahudah shouted.
And YAHWEH struck Yarob'am himself אָנ
and all Yisra'el before the faces of Abiyah and Yahudah.
2Chr. 13:16 And the children of Yisra'el fled from the faces Yahudah.
And YAHWEH gave them into their hand.

2Chr. 13:17 And Abiyah and his people struck against them with a great slaughter.
And the slain from Yisra'el fell,
five hundred thousand men,
having been chosen.

2Chr. 13:18 And the children of Yisra'el
were humbled at that time.
And the children of Yahudah prevailed
because they had relied on YAHWEH,
The Elohim of their fathers.

2Chr. 13:19 And Abiyah
pursued after Yarob'am.

And he captured cities from him:
Bayit El itself תא
and its villages themselves תא,
and Yeshanah itself תא
and its villages themselves תא,
and Ephron itself תא and its villages.

2Chr. 13:20 And Yarob'am
did not regain power again
in the days of Abiyah.
And YAHWEH struck him.
And he died.

2Chr. 13:21 And Abiyah grew strong.
And he took fourteen wives.
And he brought forth
twenty two sons and sixteen daughters.

2Chr. 13:22 And the rest
of the words of Abiyah,
and his ways, and his sayings
are written in the account of the prophet, Iddo.

Chapter 14

2Chr. 14:1 (H 13.23)
And Abiyah slept with his fathers.
And they buried he himself תא
in The City of David.
And Asa, his son, reigned in his place.
In his days the land was quiet ten years.

Note: Chapter 14 begins here
in the Hebrew text.

2Chr. 14:2 (H 14.1)
And Asa did that which was good and that which was right
in the eyes of YAHWEH, his Elohim.
2Chr. 14:3 (H 14.2)
And he removed
the slaughter sites themselves תא
of the foreigner, and the high places.
And he broke in pieces
the sacred pillars themselves תא.
And he cut down
the asherim themselves תא.

The sacred pillars
served as idols.
They were similar to what we may know
as totem poles.
The asherim were also
a form of idol.
Asherah was
a Kena'inite goddess of fertility.
These were typically poles
found in a grove of trees.

2Chr. 14:4 (H 14.3)
And he spoke to Yahudah
for the sake of seeking
YAHWEH Himself תא,
The Elohim of their fathers,
and for the sake of doing
the Instructions and the directives.

2Chr. 14:5 (H 14.4)
And he removed
the high places themselves תא
and the sacred pillars themselves תא
from all the cities of Yahudah.
And the kingdom was quiet before his face.

2Chr. 14:6 (H 14.5)
And he built fortified cities in Yahudah

because the land had quiet.
And he had no fighting in those years
because YAHWEH had granted rest to him.

2Chr. 14:7 (H 14.6)
And he said to Yahudah,
“Let us build these cities themselves נח.
And let us make walls, and towers,
gates, and bars
while the land is still quiet before our faces
because we have sought
YAHWEH Himself נח our Elohim.
We have sought Him
and He has given rest to us all around.”

And they built.
And they prospered.

2Chr. 14:8 (H 14.7) And Asa had a force
carrying shields and spears:
from Yahudah, three hundred thousand,
and from Binyamin,
two hundred and eighty thousand,
carrying shields and drawing bows.
All of these were mighty men of strength.

2Chr. 14:9 (H 14.8)
And Zerah, the Kushite, came out against them
with a force of a million,
and three hundred chariots.
And he came as far as Mareshah.
2Chr. 14:10 (H 14.9)
And Asa went out against him.
And they arranged for battle
in the Valley of Tzephathah at Mareshah.

2Chr. 14:11 (H 14.10)
And Asa called
to YAHWEH, his Elohim.
And he said, “YAHWEH,
it is nothing with You to help among the many
for those with no power.
Help us, YAHWEH, our Elohim!
Indeed, we have leaned upon You!
And in Your Name
we have come against this multitude.
YAHWEH, You Yourself נח are our Elohim!
Do not let a mortal prevail against You!”

2Chr. 14:12 (H 14.11)
And YAHWEH struck the Kushites themselves נח
before the faces of Asa
and before the faces of Yahudah.
And the Kushites fled.

2Chr. 14:13 (H 14.12)
And Asa
and the people who were with him
pursued them as far as Gerar.
And there fell from Kushites until there was no recovery for them because they had been broken
before the face of YAHWEH
and before the faces of His camp.
And they carried away
exceedingly much spoil.

2Chr. 14:14 (H 14.13)
And they struck
all the cities themselves נח around Gerar.
Indeed, the fear of YAHWEH
had come upon them.

And they plundered
all the cities themselves nx
because there was much spoil in them.
2Chr. 14:15 (H 14.14)
And they also struck the tents of the herds.
And they captured sheep to abundance,
and camels.
And they returned to Yerushalaim.

Chapter 15

2Chr. 15:1 And The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
existed upon Azaryah, son of Oded.

2Chr. 15:2 And he went out
before the face of Asa.

And he said to him, "Listen attentively, Asa,
and all Yahudah and Binyamin.

YAHWEH is with you
as you are being with Him.

And if you seek Him

He will be found by you.

But if you abandon Him

He will abandon you yourself nx.

2Chr. 15:3 Even many days
Yisra'el has been without The True Elohim,
and without a teaching priest,
and without Instruction.

2Chr. 15:4 But they turned back on account of their distress
to YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el.
And they sought Him.
And He was found by them.

2Chr. 15:5 And in those days
there was no shalom
for the one going out,
nor for the one coming in.
Indeed, great disturbances
were on all those dwelling in the lands.

2Chr. 15:6 And they were beaten down,
nation by nation, and city by city.
Indeed, YAHWEH troubled them
with every distress.

2Chr. 15:7 But you yourself nx, be strong!
And do not let your hands be feeble because there is a compensation
for your work!"

2Chr. 15:8 And when Asa heard these words
and the prophecy of Oded, the prophet,
he strengthened himself.
And he caused the detestable things
to pass over out of all the land
of Yahudah and Binyamin
and from the cities which he had captured
in the mountains of Ephraim.
And he restored
the slaughter site itself nx of YAHWEH
which was in front of the porch of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 15:9 And he assembled
all Yahudah itself nx,
and Binyamin,
and those sojourning with them
from Ephraim, and Menashe, and Shim'on.
Indeed, they had fallen to him from Yisra'el to abundance at their seeing that YAHWEH, his Elohim, was with him.
2Chr. 15:10 And they assembled at Yerushalaim in the third month,
in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.

2Chr. 15:11 And he sacrificed to YAHWEH
on that day,
from the spoil which they had brought,
seven hundred bulls
and seven thousand sheep.

2Chr. 15:12 And they entered into a covenant
for the sake of seeking

YAHWEH Himself תָּא

The Elohim of their fathers,
with all their heart and with all their life.

2Chr. 15:13 And any who did not seek
for YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el,
was to be put to death,
from small even to great,
from man even to woman.

2Chr. 15:14 And they swore to YAHWEH
with a loud voice,
with shouting,
and with trumpets and with shofars.

2Chr. 15:15 And all Yahudah rejoiced concerning the oath.

Indeed,

they had sworn with all their heart.

And with all their desire

they had sought Him.

And He was found by them.

And YAHWEH gave rest to them all around.

2Chr. 15:16 And the king also removed Ma'akah,
the mother of Asa, from being queen
when she had made a horrible asherah pole.

And Asa cut down the horrid thing itself תָּא.

And he crushed it.

And he burned it by the wadi Kidron.

2Chr. 15:17 But the high places
were not removed from Yisra'el.

However, the heart of Asa was whole all his days.

2Chr. 15:18 And he brought in
the set apart things themselves תָּא
of his father

and his set apart things

to The House of YAHWEH,

silver and gold and utensils.

2Chr. 15:19 And no war existed
until the thirty fifth year
of the reign of Asa.

Chapter 16

2Chr. 16:1 In the thirty sixth year
of the reign of Asa,

Ba'asha, king of Yisra'el,
came up against Yahudah.

And he built Ramah itself תָּא

in order to permit no one to go out or to come in to Asa, king of Yahudah.

2Chr. 16:2 And Asa brought out silver and gold from the treasuries

of The House of YAHWEH

and the house of the king.

And he sent to Ben-Hadad, king of Aram,
who was dwelling in Damascus saying,

2Chr. 16:3 "Let there be a covenant between you and me as there was between my father and your father.

Behold!

I have sent to you silver and gold.
Come! Break your covenant with Ba'asha himself תא, king of Yisra'el!
Then he will withdraw from me.”

2Chr. 16:4 And Ben-Hadad listened attentively to the king, Asa.
And he sent
the commanders themselves תא
of the forces which were his
against the cities of Yisra'el.
And they struck lyon itself תא,
and Dan itself תא,
and Abel Maim itself תא,
and all the storage cities themselves תא
of Naphtali.

2Chr. 16:5 And it was as Ba'asha heard it.
And he ceased from building
Ramah itself תא.
And he rested from his work itself תא.

2Chr. 16:6 And Asa, the king, took all Yahudah itself תא.
And they carried away
the stones themselves תא of Ramah,
and the timber itself תא
with which Ba'asha was building.
And built with them Geba itself תא
and The Mitzpah itself תא.

2Chr. 16:7 And at that time Hanani, the seer, came to Asa, king of Yahudah.
And he said to him,
“On account of your having leaned upon the king of Aram and not having leaned
upon YAHWEH, your Elohim,
for this reason the force of the king of Aram
has escaped from your hand.

2Chr. 16:8 Were not the Kushites and the Lubim
as a force to abundance of chariots
and horsemen to exceeding abundance?
But when you leaned upon YAHWEH
He gave them into your hand.

2Chr. 16:9 Indeed, the eyes of YAHWEH
are roaming to and fro in all the earth
for the sake of strengthening he himself
whose heart is whole toward Him.
You have been foolish concerning this.
Indeed, from now on
you will have wars with you.”

2Chr. 16:10 And Asa was enraged
toward the seer.
And he put him in the house of the prison
because he was enraged
with him concerning this.
And Asa oppressed some of the people
at that very time.

2Chr. 16:11 And behold!
The acts of Asa, the first and the last,
Behold! They are written upon the scroll
of the kings of Yahudah and Yisra'el.

2Chr. 16:12 And in the thirty ninth year
of his reign
Asa was diseased in his feet
until his disease was severe.
But even with his disease

he had not sought YAHWEH Himself תא,
but rather, with the physicians.

2Chr. 16:13 And Asa slept with his fathers.
And he died in the forty first year of his reign.
2Chr. 16:14 And they buried him
in his own tomb
which he had made for himself
in The City of David.
And they laid him in a bed which was filled with spices and various kinds of ointments
mixed by the perfumer's work.
And they made for him
an exceedingly great burning.

Chapter 17

2Chr. 17:1 And Yahoshaphat, his son,
reigned in his place.
And he strengthened himself against Yisra'el.
2Chr. 17:2 And he put a force
in every fortified city of Yahudah.
And he set garrisons in the land of Yahudah
and in the cities of Ephraim which Asa, his father, had captured.

2Chr. 17:3 And YAHWEH
was with Yahoshaphat
because he walked in the former ways
of his father, David.
And he had not sought the Ba'als.
2Chr. 17:4 Indeed, he sought
for The Elohim of his father.
And he walked in His directives,
and not according to the deeds of Yisra'el.

2Chr. 17:5 And YAHWEH established
the kingdom itself תא in his hand.
And all Yahudah gave gifts to Yahoshaphat.
And there was for him
riches and honor to abundance.

2Chr. 17:6 And his heart was lifted up by the ways of YAHWEH.
And he again removed
the high places themselves תא
and the Asherim themselves תא
from Yahudah.

2Chr. 17:7 And in the third year of his reign
he sent for his rulers, Ben-Hayil,
and Obadyah,
and Zekaryah,
and Nethane'l,
and Mikayah,
for the sake of teaching
in the cities of Yahudah.

2Chr. 17:8 And with them he sent the Levites: Shemayah,
and Nethanyah,
and Zebadyah,
and Asah'el,
and Shemiramoth,
and Yahnathan,
and Adoniyah,
and Tobiyah,
and Tobadoniyah,
the Levites,
and with them
Elishama and Yahoram, the priests.

2Chr. 17:9 And they taught in Yahudah.
And with them was the scroll
of The Torah of YAHWEH.

And they went around
into all the cities of Yahudah.
And they taught among the people.

2Chr. 17:10 And the fear of YAHWEH existed upon all the kingdoms of the lands
which were all around Yahudah.
And they did not fight with Yahoshaphat.

2Chr. 17:11 And some of the Philistines brought gifts to Yahoshaphat
and a tribute of silver.
Even the Arabians brought him flocks,
seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred male goats.

2Chr. 17:12 And Yahoshaphat went on.
And he became exceedingly great.
And he built fortresses
and storage cities in Yahudah.
2Chr. 17:13 And there was much work for him
in the cities of Yahudah.
And men of war, mighty men of strength,
were in Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 17:14 And these were their numbers
by the house of their fathers:
for Yahudah, commanders of thousands:
Adnah the commander,
and with him three hundred thousand
mighty men of strength.

2Chr. 17:15 And next to him was Yahohanan the commander,
and with him two hundred
and eighty thousand;

2Chr. 17:16 and next to him was Amasyah, son of Zikri, the one volunteering himself to YAHWEH,
and with him two hundred thousand
mighty men of strength.

2Chr. 17:17 And from Binyamin:
Elyada, a mighty man of strength,
and with him two hundred thousand men
armed with bow and shield;
2Chr. 17:18 and next to him was Yahozabad,
and with him one hundred
and eighty thousand
prepared for battle.

2Chr. 17:19 These were the ones
serving the king himself וְאֵל, besides those whom the king had put in the fortified cities throughout all Yahudah.

Chapter 18

2Chr. 18:1 And there was for Yahoshaphat
riches and honor to abundance.

And he allied himself to Ahab by marriage.

2Chr. 18:2 And at the end of many years
he went down to visit Ahab at Shomeron.

And Ahab sacrificed sheep and oxen
to abundance for him
and for the people who were with him.
And he provoked him for the sake of going up with him
against Ramot Gil'ad.

2Chr. 18:3 And Ahab, king of Yisra'el,
said to Yahoshaphat, king of Yahudah,
"Will you go with me to Ramot Gil'ad?"

And he said to him,

"I am as you are,
and my people as your people,
even with you in battle."

2Chr. 18:4 And Yahoshaphat said
to the king of Yisra'el,
"Please request today
the word itself nx of YAHWEH."

2Chr. 18:5 And the king of Yisra'el
assembled the prophets themselves nx,
four hundred men.
And he said to them,
"Do we go to Ramot Gil'ad to battle,
or do I refrain?"
And they said, "Go up!
And YAHWEH will give it
into the king's hand."

2Chr. 18:6 And Yahoshaphat said,
"Is there no longer here
a prophet of YAHWEH
so that we may inquire
from He himself nx?"

2Chr. 18:7 And the king of Yisra'el
said to Yahoshaphat,
"There is still one man for the sake
of inquiring of YAHWEH Himself nx,
from He Himself nx.
But I myself have hated him
because he himself
does not prophesy good concerning me.
Indeed, all his days are for what is bad.
He is Mikayah, the son of Imla."
And Yahoshaphat said,
"Let not the king speak thus!"

2Chr. 18:8 And the king of Yisra'el
called to one of his officers.
And he said, "Hurry, Mikayah, son of Imla!"

2Chr. 18:9 And the king of Yisra'el
and Yahoshaphat, the king of Yahudah, sat,
each on his throne clothed in robes.
And they were sitting on a threshing floor
at the entrance gate of Shomeron.
And all the prophets themselves
were prophesying before their faces.

2Chr. 18:10 And Tzidkiyah, son of Kena'anah,
had made horns of iron for himself.
And he said, "Thus said YAHWEH,
'With these you will gore Aram itself nx
until they are destroyed.'

2Chr. 18:11 And all the prophets were prophesying according to this saying,
"Go up to Ramot Gil'ad and prosper.
And YAHWEH will give it
into the hand of the king."

2Chr. 18:12 And the messenger who had gone to call Mikayah spoke to him saying,
"Behold! The words of the prophets of one mouth are good toward the king.
Please let your word be like one of them.
And you are to speak good."

2Chr. 18:13 And Mikayah said,
"By the life of YAHWEH,
whatever itself nx my Elohim says,
that itself nx I will speak."

2Chr. 18:14 And he came to the king.
And the king said to him,
"Mikayah, do we go to Ramot Gil'ad to battle
or do we refrain?"

And he said, "Go, and prosper!
And they will be given into your hand!"

2Chr. 18:15 And the king said to him,
"How many times have I myself caused you to swear
that you will not say to me anything except the truth
in the Name of YAHWEH?"

2Chr. 18:16 And he said,
"I saw all Yisra'el itself נא scattered on the mountains
like sheep which have no shepherd.
And YAHWEH said,
'There is no master for these.
Let each man return to his house in peace.' "

2Chr. 18:17 And the king of Yisra'el
said to Yahoshaphat,
"Did I not say to you that he himself
would not prophesy good concerning me,
but rather for what is bad?"

2Chr. 18:18 Then he (Mikayah) said,
"Therefore listen attentively
to the word of YAHWEH!
I saw YAHWEH Himself נא
sitting on His throne.
And all the assembly of The Heavens
were standing on His right and His left.

2Chr. 18:19 And YAHWEH said,
'Who will deceive Ahab himself נא,
king of Yisra'el,
so that he will go up
and fall at Ramot Gil'ad?'

And one said this and another said that.
2Chr. 18:20 And an evil nature came forward.
And he stood before the face of YAHWEH.
And he said, 'I myself will deceive him.'

YAHWEH said to him, 'How?'
2Chr. 18:21 "And he said, 'I will go out and I will be as a breath of lying in the mouth of all his prophets.'
And He said, 'Deceive him,
and also prevail.
Go out and do so!'

2Chr. 18:22 "And now behold!
YAHWEH has put a breath of lying in the mouth of these prophets of yours.
And YAHWEH has spoken evil
concerning you."

2Chr. 18:23 And Tzidkiyah, son of Kena'anah,
approached.
And he struck Mikayah himself נא
on the cheek.

And he said,
"Which way did the nature of YAHWEH
pass over from me myself נא
to speak to you yourself נא?"

2Chr. 18:24 And Mikayah said, "Behold!
You will be seeing it on that day
when you go into an inner room
for the sake of being hidden!"

2Chr. 18:25 Then the king of Yisra'el said,
"Take Mikayah himself נא
and return him to Amon,
governor of the city,
and to Yo'ash, son of the king.

2Chr. 18:26 And you are to say,
'Thus said the king,

“Place this one in the house of the prison
and feed him with bread of affliction
and water of affliction until I return in peace!” ’ ”

2Chr. 18:27 And Mikayah said,
“If you return, return in peace,
YAHWEH has not spoken by me.”
And he said,
“Listen attentively, all you people!”

2Chr. 18:28 And the king of Yisra’el
and Yahoshaphat, king of Yahudah, went up to Ramot Gil’ad.
2Chr. 18:29 And the king of Yisra’el
said to Yahoshaphat,
“I will disguise myself.
And I will go into battle.
But you yourself תָּא, put on your robes.”

And the king of Yisra’el disguised himself.
And they went into battle.

2Chr. 18:30 And the king of Aram had commanded
the commanders themselves תָּא
of the chariots
who were with him, saying, “You are not to fight with the small themselves תָּא
or the great themselves תָּא,
but only with the king himself תָּא of Yisra’el.”

2Chr. 18:31 And it was as the commanders
of the chariots were observing Yahoshaphat himself תָּא.
And they said, “It is the king of Yisra’el!”
And they turned around against him
for the sake of fighting.
And Yahoshaphat cried out.
And YAHWEH helped him.
And YAHWEH enticed them away from him.

2Chr. 18:32 And it was as the commanders
of the chariots saw
that it was not the king of Yisra’el.
And they turned back from pursuing him.

2Chr. 18:33 And a man drew with a bow
in his innocence.
And he struck the king himself תָּא of Yisra’el
between the joints of his armor.
And he said to the driver of his chariot,
“Turn around with your hand
and cause me to come out from the battle!
Indeed, I have been wounded.”

2Chr. 18:34 And the battle
increased on that day.
And the king of Yisra’el
had been stood up in the chariot
in front Aram until the evening.
And he died at the time
of the coming in of the sun.

Chapter 19

2Chr. 19:1 And Yahoshaphat,
king of Yahudah,
returned to his house in peace,
to Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 19:2 And Yahu, son of Hanani, the seer, went out before his face.
And he said to the king, to Yahoshaphat, “Is it for you to love to help

the morally wrong
and those hating YAHWEH?
Even on account of this wrath is upon you from the face of YAHWEH.
2Chr. 19:3 However,
good words are found with you because you have removed the Asherahs
from the land.
And you have prepared your heart
for the sake of seeking YAHWEH.”

2Chr. 19:4 And Yahoshaphat dwelt
in Yerushalaim.
And he turned back.
And he went out again among the people
from Be'ersheba
to the hill country of Ephraim.
And he caused them to return to YAHWEH,
The Elohim of their fathers.

2Chr. 19:5 And he established judges in the land
in all the fortified cities of Yahudah,
city by city.
2Chr. 19:6 And he said to those judging,
“Observe what you yourselves תא are doing!
Indeed, you do not judge
for the sake of a human being.
Indeed, it is for the sake of YAHWEH.
And He is with you in the matter of judgment.
2Chr. 19:7 And now
may the reverence of YAHWEH be upon you.
Keep watch!
And act!
Indeed, there is no moral wrong
with YAHWEH, our Elohim,
nor respect of persons, nor taking of bribes.”

2Chr. 19:8 And also in Yerushalaim Yahoshaphat established
some of the Levites and the priests,
and some of the heads
of the fathers of Yisra'el
for the sake of the judgment of YAHWEH
and for the sake of disputes.
And they returned to Yerushalaim.
2Chr. 19:9 And he charged them saying,
“Thus you are to do
in the reverence of YAHWEH,
with faithfulness and with a whole heart.

2Chr. 19:10 And every dispute which comes to you from your kindred,
those dwelling in their cities,
between blood and blood,
between Instruction for directive, for rules,
or for regulations,
and you have warned they themselves תא,
then they will not act
unfaithfully against YAHWEH
nor will wrath exist upon you
and upon your kindred.
Do according to this
and you will not be guilty.

2Chr. 19:11 And behold!
Amaryah, the head priest, is over you
for all matters of YAHWEH,
and Zebadyah, son of Yishma'el,
the ruler of the house of Yahudah,
for all the matters of the king.
And the officers of the Levites
are before your faces.
Be strong! And act!

And YAHWEH will be with the good.”

Chapter 20

2Chr. 20:1 And it was after this.

The children of Mo'ab
and the children of Ammon,
and with them some of the Meunites,
came against Yahoshaphat for battle.

2Chr. 20:2 And they came.

And they reported to Yahoshaphat saying,
“A great multitude is coming against you
from beyond the sea, from Aram.

And behold!

They are in Hatzatzon Tamar.”

This is En Gedi.

2Chr. 20:3 And Yahoshaphat was afraid.

And he set his face itself nx
for the sake of seeking toward YAHWEH.

And he proclaimed a fast within all Yahudah.

2Chr. 20:4 And Yahudah assembled for the sake of seeking from YAHWEH.

Even from all the cities of Yahudah
they had come for the sake of seeking YAHWEH Himself nx.

2Chr. 20:5 And Yahoshaphat
stood with the assembly
of Yahudah and Yerushalaim,
in The House of YAHWEH,
in front of the new courtyard.

2Chr. 20:6 And he said,

“YAHWEH, The Elohim of our fathers, are not You Yourself nx He,
The Elohim in The Heavens?

And You Yourself nx are ruling
among all the kingdoms of the nations?
And in Your hand is power and might.

And no one can stand himself against You?

2Chr. 20:7 Are not You Yourself nx our Elohim?

You have caused to be driven out those themselves nx dwelling in this land
from before the faces of Your people, Yisra'el.

And You have given it
to the seed of Abraham,
whom You were loving, to eternity.

2Chr. 20:8 And they have dwelt in it.

And they have built for You in it a Set Apart Place for Your Name saying,

2Chr. 20:9 'If what is bad comes upon us,
the sword of judgment,
or pestilence,

or famine,
we will stand before this House,
even before Your face,
because Your Name is in this House.

And we will cry out to You

because of our affliction.

And You will listen attentively.

And you will deliver us.'

2Chr. 20:10 And now, behold!

The children of Ammon and Mo'ab,
and Mount Se'ir,
whom You did not grant to Yisra'el
to invade against them
at their coming from the land of Mitsraim, (Indeed they turned aside from them and did not destroy them.)

2Chr. 20:11 even behold!

They are repaying against us by coming for the sake of driving us out from Your possession
which You have given us to inherit.

2Chr. 20:12 Our Elohim,
will You not judge them?
Indeed, there is no power in us
before the faces of this great multitude,
those coming against us.
And we ourselves do not know what to do.
Indeed, our eyes are upon You.”

2Chr. 20:13 And all Yahudah was standing
before the face of YAHWEH,
even their little ones, their wives,
and their children.

2Chr. 20:14 And The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
existed upon Yahazi'el, son of Zekaryah, son of Benayah, son of Ye'i'el,
son of Mattanyah,
a Levite of the sons of Asaph,
in the midst of the assembly.

2Chr. 20:15 And he said,
“Pay attention, all Yahudah,
and those dwelling in Yerushalaim,
and the king, Yahoshaphat!
Thus said YAHWEH to you,
‘You yourselves nx are not to be afraid,
nor are you to be discouraged
by the faces of this great multitude.

Indeed, the battle is not yours!
It belongs to YAHWEH.

2Chr. 20:16 Tomorrow, go down against them!
Behold!
They are coming up by the ascent of Tzitz.
And you will find they themselves nx
at the end of the wadi
before the Wilderness of Yeru'el.

2Chr. 20:17 It is not for you to be fighting in this.
Station yourselves!
Stand still and observe the deliverance itself nx of YAHWEH
with you, Yahudah and Yerushalaim!
Do not be afraid!
And do not be discouraged!
Tomorrow go out against them!
Even YAHWEH is with you!”

2Chr. 20:18 And Yahoshaphat bowed his head
with his face toward the ground.
And all Yahudah
and those dwelling in Yerushalaim
fell to their faces before YAHWEH,
for the sake of worshipping toward YAHWEH.

2Chr. 20:19 And the Levites
from the children of the Kohathites
and from the children of the Korahites stood up for the sake of praising YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el,
with an exceedingly loud voice.

2Chr. 20:20 And they rose early in the morning.
And they went forth
to the Wilderness of Tekoa.
And as they were going forth
Yahoshaphat stood.
And he said,
“Listen attentively to me, Yahudah,
and those dwelling in Yerushalaim!
Trust in YAHWEH, your Elohim

and be faithful!
Trust in His prophets and prosper!”

2Chr. 20:21 And he had consulted with the people.
And he appointed those who were to be singing to YAHWEH,
and who were giving praise
for the beauty of being set apart
as they were going out before the faces of those having been armed.
And they were saying,
“Give thanks to YAHWEH!
Indeed, His kindness is to eternity!”

2Chr. 20:22 And at the time they began the singing and the praise YAHWEH was setting ambushes
against the children of Ammon, Mo’ab,
and Mount Se’ir,
those having come against Yahudah.
And they were struck.

2Chr. 20:23 And the children
of Ammon and Mo’ab stood up against those dwelling at Mount Se’ir
for the sake of devoting them to destruction,
even for the sake of annihilating them.
And when they had made an end of those dwelling at Mt. Se’ir
they helped to destroy one another.

2Chr. 20:24 And Yahudah had come to the lookout for the wilderness.
And they looked toward the multitude.
And behold!
Their corpses were fallen to the ground.
And none escaped.

2Chr. 20:25 And Yahoshaphat
and his people came
for the sake of plundering their spoil itself נא.
And they found among them
riches to abundance
and corpses, and desirable equipment.
And they stripped off for themselves
more than they could carry away.
And they were three days
plundering the spoil itself נא
because it was great.

2Chr. 20:26 And on the fourth day
they assembled at The Valley of Berakah.
Indeed,
there they blessed YAHWEH Himself נא.
On account of this
the name itself נא of that place
was called The Valley of Berakah to this day.

2Chr. 20:27 And they turned back,
every man of Yahudah and Yerushalaim.
And Yahoshaphat was at the head of them,
for the sake of returning to Yerushalaim with joy
because YAHWEH had caused them
to rejoice because of their adversaries.

2Chr. 20:28 And they came to Yerushalaim
with harps and lyres and trumpets,
to The House of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 20:29 And the dread of YAHWEH
was on all the kingdoms of the lands
as they were hearing

that YAHWEH had fought against the adversaries of Yisra'el.

2Chr. 20:30 And the kingdom of Yahoshaphat was tranquil.
And his Elohim caused rest for him
all around.

2Chr. 20:31 And Yahoshaphat
reigned over Yahudah
when he was thirty five years old.
And he reigned twenty five years
in Yerushalaim.
And his mother's name was Azubah,
daughter of Shilhi.

2Chr. 20:32 And he walked in the way of his father, Asa.
And he did not turn aside from it,
for the sake of doing what was right
in the eyes of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 20:33 However, the high places had not been removed.
And the people
had still not prepared their hearts
for the sake of The Elohim of their fathers.

2Chr. 20:34 And the rest
of the words of Yahoshaphat,
the first and the last, behold!
They are written upon the scroll
of Yahu, son of Hanani,
which has been brought up upon the scroll
of the kings of Yisra'el.

2Chr. 20:35 And after this Yahoshaphat, king of Yahudah, joined himself with Ahazyah, king of Yisra'el.
He did wrong by doing so.

2Chr. 20:36 And he joined with him for the sake of making ships
to go to Tarshish.
And they made the ships in Etzyon Geber.

2Chr. 20:37 And Eli'ezer, son of Dodavah,
from Mareshah,
prophesied against Yahoshaphat, saying,
"On account of your joining yourself with Ahazyah YAHWEH has broken your works themselves nx."
And the ships were broken.
And they were not able to go to Tarshish.

Chapter 21

2Chr. 21:1 And Yahoshaphat
slept with his fathers.
And he was buried with his fathers
in The City of David.
And Yahoram, his son, reigned in his place.
2Chr. 21:2 And he had brothers,
the sons of Yahoshaphat: Azaryah, and Yehi'el,
and Zekaryah, and Azaryah,
and Miyka'el, and Shephatyah.
All these were sons
of Yahoshaphat, king of Yisra'el.

2Chr. 21:3 And their father gave to them many gifts
of silver and of gold and of precious things,
with the fortified cities in Yahudah.
But the kingdom itself nx

he had given to Yahoram
because he was the firstborn.

2Chr. 21:4 And Yahoram rose up over the kingdom of his father.
And he strengthened himself.
And he killed all his brothers themselves אַךְ
with the sword,
and also some of the rulers of Yisra'el.

2Chr. 21:5 Yahoram was thirty two years old
at his reigning.
And he reigned eight years in Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 21:6 And he walked
according to the way of the kings of Yisra'el,
like the house of Ahab had done,
because he had the daughter of Ahab
as a wife.
And he did what was evil
in the eyes of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 21:7 But YAHWEH was not willing to destroy the house itself אַךְ of David on account of the covenant
which He had cut with David,
and on account of what He had said
for the sake of giving a lamp
to him and to his sons all the days.

2Chr. 21:8 In his days the Edomites revolted
from under the hand of Yahudah.
And they caused a king to reign over them.

2Chr. 21:9 And Yahoram passed over with his leaders
and all his chariots with him.
And it existed that he rose at night.
And he struck the Edomites themselves אַךְ
those surrounding against him,
even the commanders themselves אַךְ
of the chariots.

2Chr. 21:10 And the Edomites have revolted
from under the hand of Yahudah to this day.
Then Libnah revolted
from under his hand at that time
because he had abandoned
YAHWEH Himself אַךְ,
The Elohim of his fathers.

2Chr. 21:11 He had also had made high places
in the mountains of Yahudah.
And he had caused those themselves אַךְ
who were dwelling in Yerushalaim
to commit adultery.
And he caused Yahudah itself אַךְ
to be driven away.

2Chr. 21:12 And a letter came to him
from Eliyah, the prophet, saying,
Thus said YAHWEH,
The Elohim of David, your father,
under Whom you have not walked
according to the ways
of Yahoshaphat, your father, nor according to the ways of Asa,
king of Yahudah.

2Chr. 21:13 But you have walked
according to the way of the kings of Yisra'el
and have caused Yahudah itself אַךְ
and those dwelling in Yerushalaim itself אַךְ
to commit adultery,
like the adulteries of the house of Ahab,

and you have also killed
your brothers themselves נא,
of the household of your father,
those better than you,

2Chr. 21:14 Behold!

YAHWEH is going to strike a great blow
among your people,
and among your children,
and among your wives,
and among all your possessions,
2Chr. 21:15 and you yourself נא
with great diseases,
with a sickness of your bowels
until your bowels come out because of the sickness day after day.”

2Chr. 21:16 And YAHWEH

stirred up against Yehoram
the breath itself נא of the Philistines
and the Arabians
who were next to the Kushites.

2Chr. 21:17 And they came up into Yahudah.

And they broke it open.

And they captured

all the possessions themselves נא,

those being found for the house of the king,

and also his sons and his wives.

And not a son remained to him

except Yeho'ahaz, the youngest of his sons.

2Chr. 21:18 And after all this

YAHWEH struck him in his bowels

with a disease for which there is no cure.

2Chr. 21:19 And it existed

for days beyond days.

And at the end two years

his bowels came out

because of his sickness.

And he died on account of great diseases.

And his people did not make a burning for him

like the burning for his fathers.

2Chr. 21:20 He was thirty two years old

at his reigning.

And he reigned eight years in Yerushalaim.

And he went with no pleasure.

And they buried him in The City of David,

but not in the tombs of the kings.

Chapter 22

2Chr. 22:1 And those

dwelling in Yerushalaim

caused Ahazyah himself נא,

his youngest son, to reign in his place,

because all of the eldest

had been killed by the raiding band,

those coming with the Arabians to the camp.

And Ahazyah, son of Yehoram,

king of Yahudah, reigned.

2Chr. 22:2 Ahazyah was forty two years old

at his reigning.

And he reigned one year in Yerushalaim.

And his mother's name was Athalyah,

grand-daughter of Omri.

2Chr. 22:3 He also walked in the ways

of the house of Ahab,

because his mother was his counselor

for the sake of causing him to do wrong.

2Chr. 22:4 And he did what is evil

in the eyes of YAHWEH

like the house of Ahab.

Indeed, they existed as his counselors
after the death of his father
as destruction for him.

2Chr. 22:5 He also walked
according to their counsel.
And he went with Yahoram himself תא,
son of Ahab, king of Yisra'el,
to battle against Haza'el, king of Aram,
at Ramot Gil'ad.

And the Arameans struck
Yahoram himself תא.

2Chr. 22:6 And he turned back
for the sake of healing himself at Yizre'el
because of the wounds
with which he had been struck
as he was fighting Haza'el himself תא, king of Aram.

And Azaryah, son of Yahoram,
king of Yahudah, went down for the sake
of seeing Yahoram himself תא,
son of Ahab, at Yizre'el, because he was weak.

2Chr. 22:7 And the destruction of Ahazyah was from YAHWEH
for his coming to Yahoram.

And at his coming
he had gone out with Yahoram
against Yahu, son of Nimshi, whom YAHWEH had anointed
for the sake of cutting off
the house itself תא of Ahab.

2Chr. 22:8 And it was as Yahu
was executing judgment
on the house of Ahab.
And he found
the rulers themselves תא of Yahudah
and the sons of the brothers of Ahazyah
who served Ahazyah.
And he killed them.

2Chr. 22:9 And he searched for Ahazyah himself תא.
And they captured him.
And he had hidden himself in Shomeron.
And they brought him to Yahu.
And they put him to death.
And they buried him because they said,
"He is the son of Yahoshaphat,
who had sought YAHWEH Himself תא
with all his heart."

And there was none
in the house of Ahazyah
to retain strength
for the sake of the kingdom.

2Chr. 22:10 And Athalyah,
the mother of Ahazyah,
saw that her son was dead.
And she rose up.
And she destroyed
all the offspring themselves תא
of the kingdom of the house of Yahudah.

2Chr. 22:11 But Yahoshab'ath,
daughter of the king,
took Yo'ash himself תא, son of Ahazyah.
And she took he himself תא by stealth
from among the sons of the king,
those having been killed.
And she put he himself תא
and his wet-nurse herself תא
in an inner chamber.

And Yahoshab'ath,
daughter of King Yahoram,
the wife of Yahoyada the priest,
because she was the sister of Ahazyah,
concealed him from the face of Athalyah.
And he was not put to death.
2Chr. 22:12 And they themselves תָּא
concealed themselves
in The House of YAHWEH six years.
And Athalyah was reigning over the land.

Chapter 23

2Chr. 23:1 And in the seventh year
Yahoyada strengthened himself.
And he took
the commanders themselves תָּא
of the hundreds to Azaryah, son of Yeroham,
and to Yishma'el son of Yahohanan,
and to Azaryah, son of Obed,
and to Ma'aseyah himself תָּא,
son of Adayah,
and to Elishaphat himself תָּא, son of Zikri,
into a covenant with him.

2Chr. 23:2 And they went about in Yahudah.
And they assembled
the Levites themselves תָּא
from all the cities of Yahudah
and the heads of the fathers of Yisra'el.
And they went to Yerushalaim.
2Chr. 23:3 And the entire assembly
cut a covenant
in The House of YAHWEH with the king.
And he said to them,
"Behold!
The son of the king is to reign,
according to what YAHWEH has said
concerning the sons of David.

2Chr. 23:4 This is the word which you are to do.
The third part from you
of the priests and of the Levites
is to be coming in on The Sabbath
as gatekeepers of the thresholds, 2Chr. 23:5 and a third part
at the house of the king,
and a third part
at The Gate of The Foundation.
And all the people will be in the courtyards
of The House of YAHWEH.
2Chr. 23:6 And no one is to come into
The House of YAHWEH
except the priests and those of the Levites
who are ministering.
They may go in because they are set apart.
And all the people
are to protect the duty of YAHWEH.
2Chr. 23:7 And the Levites are to surround the king himself תָּא
all around, each man.
And his weapons are to be in his hand.
And the one coming into The House
is to be put to death.
And you are to be with the king himself תָּא
at his coming in and at his going out."

2Chr. 23:8 And the Levites and all Yahudah
did according to everything
which Yahoyada, the priest, had directed.
And each man took his men themselves תָּא,
those coming in on the Sabbath,
with those going out on the Sabbath,
because Yahoyada, the priest,

had not dismissed the divisions themselves תא.

2Chr. 23:9 And Yahoyada, the priest,
gave to the commanders of the hundreds
the spears themselves תא
and the small shields themselves תא
and the large shields themselves תא which had belonged to King David that were in The House of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 23:10 And he stationed
all the people themselves תא,
even each man with his weapon in his hand,
from the right side of The House
to the left side of The House,
by the altar and by The House,
beside the king, all around.

2Chr. 23:11 And they brought out
the son of the king himself תא.
And they set upon him the crown itself תא
and The Testimony itself תא.
And they caused he himself תא to reign.
And Yahoyada and his sons anointed him.
And they said, "May the king live!"

2Chr. 23:12 And Athalyah heard the sound itself תא of the people,
those running,
and those praising the king himself תא.
And she went to the people
in The House of YAHWEH, 2Chr. 23:13 And she looked.
And behold!
The king was standing beside his column
at the entrance.

And the commanders and the trumpets
were beside the king.
And all the people of the land
were rejoicing, and sounding on trumpets,
and those singing,
with instruments of the music,
even those knowing how
for the sake of praise.

And Athalyah tore
her garments themselves תא.
And she said, "Treason! Treason!"
2Chr. 23:14 And Yahoyada, the priest, brought out the commanders themselves תא
of the hundreds
those having been appointed over the force.
And he said to them,
"Take her out from between the ranks.
And the one following after her
you are to put to death with the sword!"

Indeed, the priest had said,
"Do not kill her in The House of YAHWEH."

2Chr. 23:15 And they placed hands on her.
And she went to the entrance of The Horse Gate
of the house of the king.
And they put her to death there.

2Chr. 23:16 And Yahoyada cut a covenant between himself and all the people and the king
for the sake of existing
as a people for YAHWEH.

2Chr. 23:17 And all the people went to the house of The Ba'al.

And they tore it down.
And its slaughter sites themselves תא
and its images themselves תא
they smashed to pieces.
And Mattan himself תא, priest of The Ba'al,
they killed before the slaughter sites.

2Chr. 23:18 And Yahoyada placed the accountabilities
of The House of YAHWEH
in the hand of the priests,
the Levites whom David had separated
for The House of YAHWEH
for the sake of offering up
the olahs of YAHWEH,
as it has been written
in The Torah of Moshe,
with rejoicing and with singing,
by the hands of David.

2Chr. 23:19 And he stood the gatekeepers
beside the gates of The House of YAHWEH.
And no one was to come in
who was defiled in any manner.

2Chr. 23:20 And he took
the commanders themselves תא
of the hundreds,
and the nobles themselves תא,
and the governors themselves תא of the people,
and all the people themselves תא of the land.
And he brought down the king himself תא
from The House of YAHWEH.
And they went into The Upper Gate
to the house of the king.
And they sat the king himself תא
upon the throne of the kingdom.
2Chr. 23:21 And all the people of the land rejoiced.
And the city had rest.

And Athalyah herself תא
had been killed with a sword.

Chapter 24

2Chr. 24:1 Yo'ash was seven years old
at his reigning.
And he reigned forty years in Yerushalaim.
And the name of his mother was Tzibyah,
from Be'ersheba.

2Chr. 24:2 And Yo'ash did what was right
in the eyes of YAHWEH
all the days of Yahoyada, the priest.

2Chr. 24:3 And Yahoyada
took for him two wives.
And he brought forth sons and daughters.

2Chr. 24:4 And it was after this.
Yo'ash had it upon his heart
to restore The House itself תא of YAHWEH.
2Chr. 24:5 And he gathered
the priests themselves תא and the Levites.
And he said to them,
"Go out to the cities of Yahudah.
And gather from all Yisra'el silver
for the sake of repairing
The House itself תא of your Elohim, enough from year by year.
And you yourselves תא
are to hurry the matter."

But the Levites did not hurry.

2Chr. 24:6 And the king called for Yahoyada, the head.
And he said to him,
“Why have you not required it concerning the Levites
for the sake of bringing in from Yahudah and from Yerushalaim
the levy itself נא of Moshe,
servant of YAHWEH
and of the assembly of Yisra’el,
for The Tent of The Testimony?”

2Chr. 24:7 Indeed, the sons of Athalyah,
the wicked woman,
had broken into
The House itself נא of YAHWEH.
And also, all the set apart things
of The House of YAHWEH
they had prepared for the Ba’als.

2Chr. 24:8 And the king spoke.
And they made one chest.
And they set it outside,
at the gate of The House of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 24:9 And they announced it in Yahudah and in Yerushalaim
for the sake of bringing to YAHWEH
the levy that Moshe, servant of The Elohim,
had set upon Yisra’el in the wilderness.

2Chr. 24:10 And all the rulers
and all the people rejoiced.
And they brought it.
And they threw it into the chest
until it was completed.

2Chr. 24:11 And it was at the time
the chest itself נא was brought to the official of the king
by the hand of the Levites.
And when they saw that much of the silver had come
the scribe of the king
and the officer of the great priest came.
And they emptied the chest itself נא.
And they picked it up it.
And they returned it to its place.
Thus they did for it day by day.
And they gathered silver to abundance.

2Chr. 24:12 And the king and Yahoyada gave it to those doing the work of service
of The House of YAHWEH.
And it existed that they were hiring hewers of stone and craftsmen
for the sake of restoring
The House of YAHWEH,
and also craftsmen of iron and copper
for the sake of strengthening
The House itself נא of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 24:13 And those doing the work worked.
And the work of restoration progressed in their hands.
And they caused
The House itself נא of YAHWEH
to be established concerning its proper form.
And they strengthened it.

2Chr. 24:14 And when they had finished they brought the rest of the silver before the faces of the king and Yahoyada.
And they made utensils from it

for The House of YAHWEH;
utensils for the service and for offering up,
and ladles and vessels of gold and silver.

And the offering up of olahs existed
in The House of YAHWEH continually
all the days of Yahoyada.

2Chr. 24:15 And Yahoyada was old and full of days.
And he died being
one hundred and thirty years at his dying.
2Chr. 24:16 And they buried him
in The City of David
among the kings
because he had done good in Yisra'el,
and with YAHWEH and His House.

2Chr. 24:17 And after the death of Yahoyada
the rulers of Yahudah came.
And they prostrated themselves
toward the king.
And the king listened attentively to them.
2Chr. 24:18 And they abandoned
The House itself nx of YAHWEH,
The Elohim of their fathers.
And they served the Asherim themselves nx
and the idols themselves nx.

And wrath existed
against Yahudah and Yerushalaim
on account of this unfaithful act.

2Chr. 24:19 And He sent prophets among them
for the sake of causing them
to return to YAHWEH.
And they testified against them,
but they did not listen.

2Chr. 24:20 And The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
existed upon Zekaryah himself nx,
son of Yahoyada, the priest,
who stood up from beside the people.
And he said to them,
"Thus said YAHWEH,
'Why are you yourselves nx passing over the directives themselves nx of YAHWEH?
But you will not be caused to prosper!

Because you have abandoned
YAHWEH Himself nx
He has abandoned you yourselves nx.' "

2Chr. 24:21 And they conspired against him.
And they stoned him with stones
at the command of the king
in the courtyard of The House of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 24:22 And Yo'ash the king
did not remember the kindness
which Yahoyada, his father,
had done with him.
And he killed his son himself nx.
And as he was dying he said,
"YAHWEH sees!
And He will require it!"

2Chr. 24:23 And it was at the turn of the year.
And the forces of Aram
came up against him.
And they came
to Yahudah and Yerushalaim.
And they destroyed
all the rulers themselves nx of the people

from among the people.
And they sent all their spoil
to the king of Damascus.

2Chr. 24:24 Indeed, the forces of Aram
had come with a few men.
But YAHWEH gave into their hand
an exceedingly great force
because they had abandoned
YAHWEH Himself תא,
The Elohim of their fathers.

And they executed judgments
for Yo'ash himself תא.
2Chr. 24:25 And when they had gone from him, (Indeed, they had abandoned he himself תא
with great diseases.)
his own servants conspired against him
on account of the blood of the sons of Yahoyada, the priest.
And they murdered him upon his own bed.
And he died.
And they buried him in The City of David.
But they did not bury him
in the tombs of the kings.

2Chr. 24:26 And these are those
who conspired themselves against him:
Zabad, son of Shim'ath, the Ammonitess,
and Yahozabad, son of Shimrith,
the Mo'abitess.

2Chr. 24:27 And of his sons,
and the greatness of the utterances
concerning him,
and the restoring of The House of YAHWEH, behold, they are written in the record
of the scroll of the kings.

And Amatzyah, his son, reigned in his place.

Chapter 25

2Chr. 25:1 Amatzyah reigned
at twenty five years of age.
And he reigned
twenty nine years in Yerushalaim.
And the name of his mother
was Yahoaddan, of Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 25:2 And he did what was right
in the eyes of YAHWEH,
but not with a whole heart.

2Chr. 25:3 And it was when he had strengthened the kingdom.
And he killed his servants themselves תא,
those having struck
the king himself תא, his father.

2Chr. 25:4 But their children themselves תא
he did not have put to death
because he did according to what has been written
in The Torah, in the Scroll of Moshe,
in which YAHWEH had directed saying,
"Fathers are not to be put to death
on account of their children.
And children are not to be put to death
on account of their fathers.
Indeed, each man is to be put to death
according to his own offense."

2Chr. 25:5 And Amatzyah assembled
Yahudah itself תא.

And he established them
by the houses of the fathers
by commanders of the thousands and by commanders of the hundreds,
for all Yahudah and Binyamin.

And he numbered them
from twenty years old and upward.
And he found of them
three hundred thousand
having been chosen,
going forth to the assembly,
handling spear and shield.

2Chr. 25:6 And he hired from Yisra'el
one hundred thousand
mighty men of strength
with one hundred talents of silver.

2Chr. 25:7 But a man of The Elohim
had come him saying,
"King, the assembly of Yisra'el
is not to go with you,
because YAHWEH is not with Yisra'el,
all the children of Ephraim.

2Chr. 25:8 Indeed, if you yourself nx go, do it!
Be strong for battle!
*However, YAHWEH will cause you to fall
before the the faces of the adversary.
Indeed, there is power with YAHWEH
to help or to cause to stumble."*

2Chr. 25:9 And Amatzyah said
to the man of The Elohim,
"But what is to be done
about the hundred talents
which I have given to the army of Yisra'el?"

And the man of Elohim said,
"There is more with YAHWEH
for the sake of giving to you than this."

2Chr. 25:10 And Amatzyah separated them for the army
who had come to him from Ephraim
for the sake of going to their place.
And their anger
flared up exceedingly at Yahudah.
And they returned to their place
in fierce anger.

2Chr. 25:11 And Amatzyah strengthened himself.
And he led forth his people themselves nx.
And he went to The Valley of Salt.
And he struck
of the sons of Se'ir themselves nx,
ten thousand.

2Chr. 25:12 And the sons of Yahudah
captured ten thousand alive.
And they brought them to the top of the rock.
And they threw them down
from the top of the rock.
And all of them were burst to pieces.

2Chr. 25:13 And the sons of the army which Amatzyah had caused to return
from going with him to war,
even they, raided in the cities of Yahudah
from Shomeron even as far as Bayit Horon.
And they struck three thousand from them.
And they looted much plunder.

2Chr. 25:14 And it was after Amatzyah came from striking the Edomites themselves תא. And he brought the gods themselves תא of the children of Se'ir. And he set them up for himself as gods. And he prostrated himself before their faces. And he burned incense to them.

2Chr. 25:15 And the anger of YAHWEH flared up against Amatzyah. And He sent to him a prophet. And he said to him, "Why have you sought the gods themselves תא of the people which did not deliver their people themselves תא from your hand?"

2Chr. 25:16 And it was as he was talking to him. And the king said to him, "Have we set you as the counselor to the king? Stop! Why should they strike you?" And the prophet stopped. And he said, "I have known that YAHWEH has counseled to destroy you because you have done this and you have not listened attentively to my counsel."

2Chr. 25:17 And Amatzyah, king of Yahudah, took counsel. And he sent to Yo'ash, son of Yaho'ahaz, son of Yahu, king of Yisra'el, saying, "Come! We will look at each other's faces!" 2Chr. 25:18 And Yo'ash, king of Yisra'el, sent to Amatzyah, king of Yahudah, saying, "The thistle which was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon saying, 'Give your daughter herself תא to my son as wife.' And a wild animal that was in Lebanon passed over. And it trampled the thistle itself תא."

2Chr. 25:19 You have said, 'Behold! I have struck Edom itself תא!' And your heart has been lifted up for the sake of boasting. Now, stay at home! Why should you stir yourself up on account of what is bad and fall, you yourself תא and Yahudah with you?"

2Chr. 25:20 But Amatzyah did not listen attentively because it was from YAHWEH Himself for the sake of giving them into their hand because they had sought the gods themselves תא of Edom.

2Chr. 25:21 And Yo'ash, king of Yisra'el, went up. And they saw faces, he and Amatzyah, king of Yahudah, at BayitShemesh, which belongs to Yahudah.

2Chr. 25:22 And Yahudah was struck before the faces of Yisra'el. And each man fled to his tents.

2Chr. 25:23 And Amatzyah himself תא king of Yahudah, son of Yo'ash, son of Yahoahaz,

captured Yo'ash, king of Yisra'el,
at BayitShemesh.
And he brought him to Yerushalaim.
And he broke down on the wall of Yerushalaim
from The Gate of Ephraim
to The Corner Gate,
four hundred cubits.
2Chr. 25:24 And he took
all the gold and the silver,
and all the vessels themselves תא
that were found in The House of YAHWEH with Obed Edom, and the treasures themselves תא
of the house of the king,
and the children themselves תא
of the hostages.
And he returned to Shomeron.

2Chr. 25:25 And Amatzyah, son of Yo'ash,
king of Yahudah,
lived fifteen years after the death of Yo'ash,
son of Yaho'ahaz, king of Yisra'el.

2Chr. 25:26 And the rest
of the words of Amatzyah,
the first and the last, behold!
Are they not written on the scroll
of the kings of Yahudah and Yisra'el?

2Chr. 25:27 And it was from the time when Amatzyah turned aside
from following YAHWEH.
And they conspired against him
at Yerushalaim.
And he fled to Lachish.
And they sent after him to Lachish.
And they put him to death there.
2Chr. 25:28 And they carried him on horses.
And they buried he himself תא
with his fathers in a city of Yahudah.

Chapter 26

2Chr. 26:1 And all the people of Yahudah took Uzziyah himself תא.
And he was sixteen years old.
And they caused he himself תא to reign
in place of his father, Amatzyah.

2Chr. 26:2 He built 'Elot itself תא.
And he returned it to Yahudah
after the king slept with his fathers.

2Chr. 26:3 Uzziyah was sixteen years old
at his reigning.
And he reigned fifty two years in Yerushalaim.
And his mother's name
was Yekolyah, from Yerushalaim.

Uzziyah means
YAH is my strength.
Yekolyah means YAH is able.

2Chr. 26:4 And he did what is right
in the eyes of YAHWEH,
according to all
that his father Amatzyah had done.

2Chr. 26:5 And he existed
as one seeking YAHWEH
in the days of Zekaryah,
the one having understanding
in visions of YAHWEH.
And in the days of his seeking
YAHWEH Himself תא

YAHWEH caused him to prosper.

2Chr. 26:6 And he went out.
And he fought against the Philistines.
And he broke down
the wall itself nx of Gath,
and the wall itself nx of Yabneh,
and the wall itself nx of Ashdod.
And he built cities at Ashdod
and among the Philistines.

2Chr. 26:7 And YAHWEH helped him against the Philistines
and against the Arabians,
those dwelling in Gur Ba'al,
and the Meunites.

2Chr. 26:8 And the Ammonites
gave tribute to Uzziyah.
And his name went as far as the entrance to Mitsraim
because he strengthened himself greatly.

2Chr. 26:9 And Uzziyah
built towers in Yerushalaim
at The Corner Gate,
and at The Valley Gate,
and at the corner buttress.
And he strengthened them.

2Chr. 26:10 And he built towers
in the wilderness.
And he dug many wells
because he had much livestock,
both in The Shefelah and in the plain,
farmers and vinedressers
in the mountains and in Carmel,
because he was one loving the soil.

2Chr. 26:11 And Uzziyah had an assembly of those making war,
going out to war as divisions
according to the number of their reckoning
by the hand of Ye'i'el, the scribe,
and Ma'aseyah, the record keeper,
under to the hand of Hananyah,
from the commanders of the king.

2Chr. 26:12 The entire number of the heads of the fathers of the mighty men of strength
was two thousand six hundred.

2Chr. 26:13 And under their hand
was a force of three hundred and seven thousand five hundred,
those making war with mighty power
for the sake of helping the king
against the adversary.

2Chr. 26:14 And Uzziyah prepared for them,
for the entire assembly, shields, and spears,
and helmets, and body armor, and bows,
even to the stones of the slings.

2Chr. 26:15 And he made devices
in Yerushalaim,
devised by inventors for the sake of existing
upon the towers and at the corners,
for the sake of shooting arrows
and large stones.
And his name spread out very far because he had been extraordinarily helped until he was strong.

2Chr. 26:16 But when he was strong
his heart was lifted up until it was causing destruction.
And he acted unfaithfully
against YAHWEH, his Elohim.
And he went into The Temple of YAHWEH
for the sake of burning incense
on the slaughter site of the incense.

2Chr. 26:17 And Azaryah, the priest,
went in after him.
And with him
were eighty priests of YAHWEH,
sons of strength.
2Chr. 26:18 And they stood up against Uzziyah, the king.
And they said to him,
"It is not for you, Uzziyah,
to turn incense into smoke for YAHWEH.
Indeed it is for the priests,
the sons of Aharon,
those who have been set apart
for the sake of turning incense into smoke!

Go out from The Set Apart Place!
Indeed, you have acted unfaithfully!
And it is not an honor for you
from YAHWEH, The Elohim."

2Chr. 26:19 And Uzziyah was enraged.
And in his hand was a censer
for the sake of burning incense.
And it was as he was raging against the priests.
And leprosy broke out on his forehead
before the faces of the priests
in The House of YAHWEH
beside the slaughter site of the incense.

2Chr. 26:20 And Azaryah, the great priest,
and all the priests looked at him.
And behold!
He was leprous in his forehead.
And they hurried him from there.
And he also hurried to go out because YAHWEH had struck him.

2Chr. 26:21 And Uzziyah the king
was a leper until the day of his death.
And he dwelt
in the separate house of a leper
because he had been cut off
from The House of YAHWEH.

And Yotam, his son,
was over the house of the king,
judging the people themselves תא of the land.

2Chr. 26:22 And the rest
of the words of Uzziyah,
the first and the last, are written by Yeshayah, son of Amotz, the prophet.

2Chr. 26:23 And Uzziyah
slept with his fathers.
And they buried he himself תא
with his fathers
in a field of burial which was for kings
because they said, "He is a leper."
And Yotam, his son, reigned in his place.

Chapter 27

2Chr. 27:1 Yotam was twenty five years old
at his reigning.

And he reigned sixteen years in Yerushalaim.
And his mother's name was Yerushah,
daughter of Tzadok.

2Chr. 27:2 And he did what is right
in the eyes of YAHWEH,
according to all that
his father, Uzziyah, had done.
However, he did not go into
The Temple of YAHWEH.

But the people were still acting corruptly.

2Chr. 27:3 He built The Upper Gate itself תא
of The House of YAHWEH
and he built much of the wall of Ophel.
2Chr. 27:4 And he built cities
in the mountains of Yahudah.
And in the forests
he built fortresses and towers.

2Chr. 27:5 And he fought with the king of the Ammonites.
And he prevailed over them.
And the children of Ammon gave to him
in that year one hundred talents of silver,
and ten thousand kors of wheat,
and of barley ten thousand.
This is what the children of Ammon returned to him
also in the second and third years.

2Chr. 27:6 And Yotam strengthened himself because he had established his ways
before the face of YAHWEH, his Elohim.

2Chr. 27:7 And the rest of the words of Yotam,
even all his battles and his ways, behold!
They are written on the scroll
of the kings of Yisra'el and Yahudah.

2Chr. 27:8 He was twenty-five years old
at his reigning.
And he reigned sixteen years in Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 27:9 And Yotam slept with his fathers.
And they buried he himself תא
in The City of David.
And his son, Ahaz, reigned in his place.

Chapter 28

2Chr. 28:1 Ahaz was twenty years old
at his reigning.
And he reigned sixteen years in Yerushalaim.
And he did not do what was right
in the eyes of YAHWEH,
like David, his father.

2Chr. 28:2 And he walked
according to the ways
of the kings of Yisra'el.
And he even made images for the Ba'als.

2Chr. 28:3 And he himself
turned incense into smoke
in the valley of The Son of Hinnom.
And he caused his children themselves תא
to be burned in fire according to the detestable acts of the nations whom YAHWEH had driven out
from before the faces
of the children of Yisra'el, 2Chr. 28:4 And he sacrificed,
and he turned incense to smoke

at the high places, and on the hills,
and under every green tree.

2Chr. 28:5 And YAHWEH, his Elohim,
gave him into the hand of the king of Aram.
And they struck against him.
And they took from them many captives.
And they brought them to Damascus.

And he had also been given into the hand
of the king of Yisra'el.
And he had struck against him
with a great slaughter.

2Chr. 28:6 And Pekah, son of Remalyah, killed one hundred and twenty thousand in Yahudah in one day,
all of them men of strength,
on account of their abandoning
YAHWEH Himself נא,
The Elohim of their fathers.

2Chr. 28:7 And Zikri,
a mighty man of Ephraim,
killed Ma'aseyah himself נא, son of the king,
and Azrikam himself נא,
ruler of the household,
and Elkanah himself נא, second to the king.

2Chr. 28:8 And the children of Yisra'el
took captive from their kindred two hundred thousand women, sons, and daughters.
And they also took much spoil from them.
And they brought the spoil itself נא
to Shomeron.

2Chr. 28:9 And there existed
a prophet of YAHWEH.
Oded was his name.
And he went out
before the faces of the assembly,
those coming to Shomeron.
And he said to them, "Behold!
On account of the wrath YAHWEH,
The Elohim of your fathers, against Yahudah,
He has given them into your hand.
But you have killed them in a rage
that reaches up to The Heavens.

2Chr. 28:10 And now you yourselves נא
are speaking for the sake of subjugating the children
of Yahudah and Yerushalaim
as male and female slaves for yourselves.

But is there not with you yourselves נא
guilt towards YAHWEH, your Elohim?

2Chr. 28:11 And now, listen attentively to me and cause the captives to return
whom you have taken captive
from your kindred
because the burning anger of YAHWEH
is against you!"

2Chr. 28:12 And men from the heads
of the children of Ephraim,
Azaryah, son of Yahohanan, Berekyah, son of Meshillemoth,
and Yahizkiyah, son of Shallum,
and Amasa, son of Hadlai, stood up against those coming from the assembly.

2Chr. 28:13 And they said to them,
"You are not to bring
the captives themselves נא here!
Indeed, it is as guilt to YAHWEH
concerning us.
You yourselves נא are speaking for the sake of adding to our offenses
and our unfaithful acts.
Indeed, our guilt is great!
And fierce anger is against Yisra'el."

2Chr. 28:14 And those having been armed abandoned the captives themselves נא
and the spoil itself נא
before the faces of the rulers
and all the assembly.

2Chr. 28:15 And the men stood up
who had been designated by name.
And they took hold of the captives.
And all who were naked among them
they clothed from the spoil.
And they clothed them.
And they put sandals on their feet.
And they caused them to eat.
And they caused them to drink.
And they anointed them.
And they led on asses everyone being weak.
And they brought them to Yericho,
the city of palm trees,
to their kindred.
And they returned to Shomeron.

2Chr. 28:16 At that time Ahaz, the king, sent to the kings of Asshur
for the sake of being a help to him.
2Chr. 28:17 And the Edomites had come.
And they had struck against Yahudah.
And they had taken captives.
2Chr. 28:18 And the Philistines had invaded against the cities of The Shefelah
and The Negev of Yahudah.
And they had captured
Bayit Shemesh itself נא,
and Ayalon itself נא,
and Gederoth itself נא,
and Soko itself נא and its villages,
and Timnah itself נא and its villages,
and Gimzo itself נא and its villages.
And they had settled there.

2Chr. 28:19 Indeed, YAHWEH had humbled Yahudah itself נא on account of Ahaz,
king of Yisra'el,
because he had caused Yahudah to be loose,
even acting unfaithfully against YAHWEH.

2Chr. 28:20 But Tiglath-Pileser,
king of Asshur, had come against him.
And he caused distress for him.
And he did not strengthen him, 2Chr. 28:21 although Ahaz had taken a portion of the treasures
of The House itself נא of YAHWEH,
and the house itself נא of the king,
and from the rulers,
and he had given it to the king of Asshur,
but he was not a help for him.

2Chr. 28:22 And in the time of his being distressed King Ahaz acted unfaithfully even more
against YAHWEH,
King Ahaz himself.

2Chr. 28:23 And he sacrificed
to the gods of Damascus,
those striking him, saying, “Indeed, the gods of the kings of Aram
are helping they themselves תא.
I will sacrifice to them and they will help me.”

But they existed for him for the sake of causing him and all Yisra'el to stumble.

2Chr. 28:24 And Ahaz gathered the furnishings themselves תא
of The House of YAHWEH.
And he cut in pieces
the furnishings themselves תא
of The House of YAHWEH.
And he shut the doors themselves תא
of The House of YAHWEH.

And he made for himself slaughter sites
on every corner in Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 28:25 And in every city and town of Yahudah
he made high places
for the sake of turning incense
into smoke to other gods.

And he provoked to anger
YAHWEH Himself תא,
The Elohim of his fathers.

2Chr. 28:26 And the rest of his words
and all his ways,
from the first to the last, behold!
They are written on the scroll
of the kings of Yahudah and Yisra'el.

2Chr. 28:27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers.
And they buried him in the city,
in Yerushalaim.
Indeed, they did not bring him
to the tombs of the kings of Yisra'el.
And Hizkiyah, his son, reigned in his place.

Chapter 29

2Chr. 29:1 Hizkiyah was twenty five years old
at his reigning.
And he reigned twenty nine years
in Yerushalaim.
And his mother's name was Abiyah,
daughter of Zekaryah.

2Chr. 29:2 And he did what was right
in the eyes of YAHWEH,
according to all
that his father David had done.

2Chr. 29:3 In the first year of his reign,
in the first month,
he opened the doors themselves תא
of The House of YAHWEH.
And he repaired them.

2Chr. 29:4 And he brought in the priests themselves תא
and the Levites themselves תא.
And he gathered them at the eastern square.

29:5 And he said to them,
“Listen attentively to me, Levites!
Now set yourselves apart!
And set apart
The House itself תא of YAHWEH,

The Elohim of your fathers.
And bring out the defilement itself nx
from The Set Apart Place.

The term used
for defilement here is nidda.
This term is normally associated with menstrual impurity.
It's usage connotes
a particularly disdainful
type of impurity.

2Chr. 29:6 Indeed, our fathers
have acted unfaithfully.
And they have done what is bad
in the eyes of YAHWEH, our Elohim.
And they have abandoned Him.
And they have turned around their faces
from The Dwelling Place of YAHWEH,
and have given their backs.

2Chr. 29:7 Also, they have shut
the doors of the porch.
And they have extinguished
the lamps themselves nx.
And they have not turned incense into smoke.
And they have not offered up olahs
in The Set Apart Place
to The Elohim of Yisra'el.

2Chr. 29:8 And the rage of YAHWEH
is upon Yahudah and Yerushalaim.
And He has given them up to trembling, to ruin, and to derision
according to what you yourselves nx
are seeing with your own eyes.

2Chr. 29:9 And behold!
Our fathers have fallen by the sword.
And our sons, and our daughters,
and our wives are in captivity
on account of this.

2Chr. 29:10 Now, it is within my heart to cut a covenant with YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el,
Then He will turn back
from us His fierce anger.

2Chr. 29:11 Now, my sons,
do not be negligent!
Indeed, YAHWEH has chosen you
for the sake of standing before His face,
for the sake of ministering to Him,
and for the sake of being ministers for Him
and turning incense to smoke."

2Chr. 29:12 And the Levites rose up; Mahath, son of Amasai,
and Yo'el, son of Azaryah,
from the sons of the Kohathites;
and from the sons of Merari:
Kish, son of Abdi,
and Azaryah, son of Yahalle'el;
and from the Gershonites:
Yo'ah, son of Zimmah,
and Eden, son of Yo'ah;
2Chr. 29:13 and from the sons of Elitsaphan:
Shimri and Ye'i'el;
and of the sons of Asaph:
Zekaryah and Mattanyah;
2Chr. 29:14 and from the sons of Heman:
Yehi'el and Shim'i;
and from the sons of Yeduthun:
Shemayah and Uzzi'el.

2Chr. 29:15 And they gathered their kindred themselves תא.
And they set themselves apart.
And they went at the command of the king,
according to the words of YAHWEH,
to cleanse The House of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 29:16 And the priests
went to the inner part
of The House of YAHWEH
for the sake of purifying it.
And they brought out
all the defilement itself תא
which they found in The Temple of YAHWEH
to the courtyard of The House of YAHWEH.
And the Levites received it for the sake of taking it outside to the wadi Kidron.

2Chr. 29:17 And they began on the first day
of the first month to set it apart.
And on the eighth day of the month
they came to the porch of YAHWEH.
And they set apart
The House itself תא of YAHWEH
in eight days.
And on the sixteenth day of the first month
they finished.

2Chr. 29:18 And they went in to Hizkiyah, the king.
And they said, "We have purified
everything itself תא
of The House of YAHWEH,
and the slaughter site itself תא of the olahs,
and all its utensils themselves תא,
and the table itself תא of the showbread,
and all its utensils themselves תא.
29:19 And all the furnishings themselves תא
which King Ahaz, in his reign,
had pushed aside
on account of his unfaithful act
we have prepared and set apart.
And behold!
They are before
the slaughter site of YAHWEH."

2Chr. 29:20 And Hizkiyah, the king,
rose up early.
And he gathered the rulers themselves תא
of the city.
And they went up
to The House of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 29:21 And they brought seven bulls,
and seven rams, and seven lambs,
and seven male goats
as an offense offering
on account of of the kingdom,
on account of The Set Apart Place,
and on account of Yahudah.
And he spoke to the sons of Aharon,
the priests,
for the sake of offering them up
on the slaughter site of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 29:22 And they slaughtered the bulls.
And the priests received the blood itself תא.
And they sprinkled the slaughter site.
And they slaughtered the rams.
And they sprinkled the blood
on the slaughter site.
And they slaughtered the lambs.

And they sprinkled the blood
on the slaughter site.

2Chr. 29:23 And they brought out the male goats themselves תִּזְבֹּחַ
of the offense offering
before the faces of king and the assembly.
And they laid their hands upon them.

2Chr. 29:24 and the priests slaughtered them.
And they made reconciliation
with the blood itself תִּזְבֹּחַ on the slaughter site for the sake of making an atonement
on account of all Yisra'el.
Indeed, the king said the olah
and the offense offering is for all Yisra'el.

2Chr. 29:25 And he stationed
the Levites themselves תִּזְבֹּחַ
in The House of YAHWEH
with cymbals, with harps, and with lyres,
according to the directive of David,
and of Gad, the seer of the king,
and of Nathan, the prophet.
Indeed, the directive
was by the hand of YAHWEH,
by the hand of His prophets.

2Chr. 29:26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David,
and the priests with the trumpets.

2Chr. 29:27 And Hizkiah said
to offer up the olah on the slaughter site.
And as the olah had begun
the singing to YAHWEH began,
and the trumpets,
and upon instruments of David,
king of Yisra'el.

2Chr. 29:28 And all the assembly
was worshipping.
And the singers were singing.
And the trumpeters were sounding.
Everything was being done
until the completion of the olah.

2Chr. 29:29 And at the completion of the olah
the king bowed down
and all who were present with he himself תִּזְבֹּחַ.
And they worshipped.

2Chr. 29:30 And King Hizkiah and the rulers spoke to the Levites
for the sake of giving praise to YAHWEH
according to the words of David and of Asaph, the seer.
And they gave praises with joyfulness.
And they bowed their heads.
And they worshipped.

2Chr. 29:31 And Hizkiah responded.
And he said, "Now that you have been consecrated to YAHWEH, come near!
And bring sacrifices and thank offerings
to The House of YAHWEH!"
And the assembly brought in sacrifices and thank offerings.
And all who were willing of heart
brought olahs.

2Chr. 29:32 And the number of the olahs which the assembly had brought

was seventy bulls, one hundred rams,
two hundred lambs for an olah to YAHWEH,
all of these.

2Chr. 29:33 And the set apart gifts were six hundred bulls
and three thousand sheep.

2Chr. 29:34 However,
the priests existed as too few.
And they were unable to skin
all the olahs themselves nx.
And their kindred, the Levites, helped them
until the work was completed,
and until the other priests
had set themselves apart
because the Levites
had been more upright of heart
for the sake of setting themselves apart
than the priests.

2Chr. 29:35 And there were also
olahs to abundance,
with the fat of the shelem offerings
and with the drink offerings for each olah.

And the service of The House of YAHWEH
was re-established.

2Chr. 29:36 And Hizkiyah
and all the people rejoiced
that YAHWEH had prepared the people.
Indeed, with suddenness
the matter had existed.

Chapter 30

2Chr. 30:1 And Hizkiyah sent to all Yisra'el and Yahudah.
And he also had written letters
to Ephraim and Menashe,
for the sake of coming
to The House of YAHWEH at Yerushalaim
for the sake of doing The Passover
to YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el.

2Chr. 30:2 And the king, and his rulers,
and all the assembly at Yerushalaim
had taken counsel
for the sake of doing The Passover
in the second month.

2Chr. 30:3 Indeed, they were not able to do it at its appointed time
because the priests
had not set themselves apart
to what was enough.
And the people had not been gathered
to Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 30:4 And the matter seemed right
in the eyes of the king
and in the eyes of all the assembly.

2Chr. 30:5 And they established the matter,
for the sake of passing over into all Yisra'el,
from Be'ersheba, even as far as Dan,
to come for the sake of doing The Passover
to YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el,
at Yerushalaim
because they had not done it for a long time
according to what had been written.

2Chr. 30:6 And the runners
went out with letters

from the king and his rulers
into all Yisra'el and Yahudah,
even with the command of the king saying
"Children of Yisra'el, return to YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Abraham, Yitzhak,
and Yisra'el!
Then He will return to the remnant of those who have escaped
from the hand of the kings of Asshur.

2Chr. 30:7 And do not be like your fathers or like your kindred who acted unfaithfully against YAHWEH,
The Elohim of their fathers.
Then He gave them up to ruin
according to what
you yourselves nx are seeing.

2Chr. 30:8 Now, do not stiffen your neck
like your fathers.
Give the hand to YAHWEH.
And come to His Set Apart Place
which He has set apart to eternity.
And serve
YAHWEH Himself nx, your Elohim!
Then He will turn back from you
His fierce anger.

2Chr. 30:9 Indeed,
if you will return to YAHWEH
your kindred and your children will have compassion
before the faces of their captors,
even for the sake of returning to this land.

Indeed, YAHWEH, your Elohim,
shows favor and is compassionate.
And he will not turn His face away from you
if you turn back to Him."

2Chr. 30:10 And the runners
were passing over from city to city in the land
of Ephraim and Menashe,
and as far as Zebulun.
But they were laughing at them
and mocking at them.

2Chr. 30:11 However, men from Asher,
and from Menashe and from Zebulun
humbled themselves.
And they came to Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 30:12 The hand of YAHWEH
was also on Yahudah
for the sake of giving to them a united heart
for the sake of doing the directive
of the king and the rulers,
according to the word of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 30:13 And many people
had been gathered to Yerushalaim
for the sake of doing
The Festival of Unleavened Bread itself nx
in the second month,
an exceedingly great assembly.

2Chr. 30:14 And they rose up.
And they removed
the slaughter sites themselves nx
which were in Yerushalaim.
And all the slaughter sites
of incense themselves nx they removed.

And they threw them into the wadi Kidron.

2Chr. 30:15 And they slaughtered
The Passover
on the fourteenth day
of the second month.
And the priests and the Levites
had been humbled.

And they set themselves apart.

And they brought the olahs
to The House of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 30:16 And they stood in their place
according to their regulations.
According to the Torah of Moshe,
the man of The Elohim,
the priests sprinkled the blood itself נא
from the hand of the Levites.

2Chr. 30:17 Indeed, many were in the assembly
who had not set themselves apart.

And the Levites were over the slaughter of The Passover lambs
for all those not undefiled
for the sake
of setting them apart to YAHWEH.

2Chr. 30:18 Indeed, a multitude of the people,
many from Ephraim and Menashe, Yissaskar and Zebulun
had not undefiled themselves
when they had eaten The Passover itself נא, contrary to what has been written.

Indeed, Hizkiyah himself

prayed for them saying,

“YAHWEH, He Who is good,
provide atonement on behalf

2Chr. 30:19 of everyone

whose heart has been prepared for the sake of seeking The Elohim,

YAHWEH, The Elohim of his fathers,

but he is not undefiled

according to the purification

of The Set Apart Place.”

2Chr. 30:20 And YAHWEH listened attentively to Hizkiyah.

And He healed the people themselves נא.

2Chr. 30:21 And the children of Yisra'el,
those being found in Yerushalaim,
did The Festival of Unleavened Bread itself נא
seven days, with great joy.

And the Levites and the priests
were giving praise to YAHWEH
day by day with mighty instruments, to YAHWEH.

2Chr. 30:22 And Hizkiyah spoke to the heart of all the Levites,
those having understanding,
good knowledge of YAHWEH.

And they ate

that which was appointed itself נא

seven days, sacrificing shelem offerings

and giving thanks to YAHWEH,

The Elohim of their fathers.

2Chr. 30:23 And all the assembly took counsel for the sake of doing it another seven days.
And they did it another seven days with joy.

2Chr. 30:24 Indeed, Hizkiyah, king of Yahudah,

raised for the assembly
a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep.
And the rulers raised for the assembly
a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep.
And priests to abundance
set themselves apart.

2Chr. 30:25 And all the assembly
of Yahudah rejoiced,
and the priests and Levites,
and all the assembly,
those having come from Yisra'el,
and the sojourners,
those having come from the land of Yisra'el
and those dwelling in Yahudah.

2Chr. 30:26 And great joy
existed in Yerushalaim.
Indeed, from the days of Shelomoh,
son of David, the king of Yisra'el,
nothing like of this had been in Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 30:27 And the priests, the Levites, stood up.
And they blessed the people themselves תא.
And according to their sound it was heard.
And their prayer went up to The Set Apart Dwelling place,
to The Heaven.

Chapter 31

2Chr. 31:1 And at the completion of all this all Yisra'el, those having been found,
went out to the cities of Yahudah.
And they smashed in pieces
the sacred columns.
And they cut down the Asherim.
And they tore down
the high places themselves תא
and the slaughter sites themselves תא
from all Yahudah, and Binyamin,
and in Ephraim and Menashe to completion.

And all the children of Yisra'el
returned to their own cities,
each man to his possession.

2Chr. 31:2 And Hizkiyah established the divisions themselves תא
of the priests and of the Levites
within their divisions,
each man according to the order of his service
for the priests, and for Levites,
for olahs, and for shelem offerings,
for the sake of ministering
and for the sake of giving thanks,
and for the sake of praising
in the gates of the tents of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 31:3 And the king appointed a portion of his possessions
for the olahs,
for the morning and evening olahs,
and the olahs for the Sabbaths,
and for the New Moons,
and for the appointed times,
according to what has been written
in The Torah of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 31:4 And he spoke to the people,
those dwelling in Yerushalaim,
for the sake of giving a portion
to the priests and the Levites
in order that they are strengthened

according to The Torah of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 31:5 And as the word was spreading
the abundance of the children of Yisra'el,
the first fruits of grain, wine,
and oil and honey,
and all the increase of the field,
and the tithe
they brought in,
everything to abundance.

2Chr. 31:6 And the children
of Yisra'el and Yahudah,
those dwelling in the cities of Yahudah,
even they,
brought in the tithe of cattle and sheep.
and a tithe of the set apart things,
those being set apart
to YAHWEH, their Elohim.
And they gave heaps, heaps.

2Chr. 31:7 In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps.
And in the seventh month they finished.

2Chr. 31:8 And Hizkiyah and the rulers came.
And they saw the heaps themselves תָּא.
And they blessed YAHWEH Himself תָּא
and His people themselves תָּא, Yisra'el.

2Chr. 31:9 And Hizkiyah inquired with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.
2Chr. 31:10 And Azaryah, the great priest
from the house of Tzadok answered him.
And he said,
"From the beginning of the bringing of the elevated gifts
to The House of YAHWEH
we have been eating, even to satisfaction.
And there remains to abundance because YAHWEH has blessed
His people themselves תָּא.
And that which is remaining
is this multitude itself תָּא

2Chr. 31:11 And Hizkiyah told them
to prepare chambers
in The House of YAHWEH.
And they prepared them.
2Chr. 31:12 And they brought in the elevated gifts themselves תָּא,
and the tithes,
and the set apart things with faithfulness.

And Konanyah, the Levite,
was ruler over them.
And Shim'l, his brother, was the next.

2Chr. 31:13 And Yehi'el, and Azazyah,
and Nahat, and Asah'el, and Yerimot,
and Yozabad, and Eli'el, and Yismakyah,
and Mahath, and Benayah were overseers
by the hand of Konanyah,
and Shim'l, his brother,
according to the appointment
of Hizkiyah, the king, and Azaryah, the ruler
of The House of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 31:14 And Kore, son of Yimnah,
the Levite,
the keeper of The East Gate,
was over the voluntary offerings of YAHWEH

for the sake of distributing the elevated offerings of YAHWEH
and the most set apart things.

2Chr. 31:15 And under his hand
were Eden, and Minyamin,
and Yahshua, and Shemayah, Amaryah, and Shekanyah,
in the cities of the priests
for the sake of giving with faithfulness
to their kindred according to divisions,
with the great as with the small.

2Chr. 31:16 Apart from their genealogies
those males from three years old and upward
to all of those entering
The House of YAHWEH
they gave a portion
day by day for their service
according to their duties,
according to their divisions,
2Chr. 31:17 and to the priests themselves תא,
those having enrolled themselves
by genealogy
by the house of their father,
and to the Levites
from twenty years old upward
according to their duties,
according to their divisions,
2Chr. 31:18 and to all those having enrolled themselves by genealogy
with their little ones,
and their wives,
their sons and daughters,
to the entire assembly
because with their faithfulness
they set themselves apart with set-apartness.

2Chr. 31:19 And for the sons of Aharon,
the priests in the fields
of the open land of their cities,
in each and every city
were men who had been called by name for the sake of giving portions
to all the males among the priests,
and to all those who had enrolled themselves
by genealogies among the Levites.

2Chr. 31:20 And Hizkiyah did this in all Yahudah.
And he did what was good,
and what was right,
and what was faithful
before the face YAHWEH, his Elohim.

2Chr. 31:21 And in every work that he began
in the service of The House of YAHWEH,
and in The Torah,
and in the directive
was for the sake of seeking his Elohim
with all his heart.
He did this.
And he prospered.

Chapter 32

2Chr. 32:1 After these matters
and this faithfulness,
Sancherib, king of Asshur came.
And he entered Yahudah.
And he encamped against the fortified cities.
And he spoke for the sake
of breaking them open to him.

2Chr. 32:2 And Hizkiyah saw that Sancherib had come,
and his face was toward war
against Yerushalaim, 2Chr. 32:3 and he took counsel
with his rulers and his mighty men
for the sake of stopping up the waters themselves תא
of the springs which were outside the city.
And they helped him.

2Chr. 32:4 And many people
had been assembled.
And they stopped up
all the springs themselves תא
and the stream itself תא that was running in the midst of the land saying, “Why should the kings of Asshur
come and find much water?”

2Chr. 32:5 And he strengthened himself.
And he built all the wall itself תא
that had been broken.
And he caused it to go up to the towers.
And to the outside of the wall was another.
And he strengthened The Millo itself תא,
The City of David.
And he made weapons to abundance
and shields.

2Chr. 32:6 And he set commanders of war
over the people.
And he assembled them to him
to the open space at the city gate.
And he spoke to their heart saying,
2Chr. 32:7 “Be strong and courageous!
Do not be afraid!
And do not be discouraged
before the face of the king of Asshur
nor before the faces of all the multitude that is with him.
Indeed, with us
there are more than with him!

2Chr. 32:8 With him is an arm of flesh.
But with us is YAHWEH, our Elohim,
for the sake of helping us,
and for the sake of fighting our battles!”

And the people leaned upon the words of Hizkiyah, king of Yahudah.

2Chr. 32:9 After this Sancherib, king of Asshur,
sent his servants to Yerushalaim, (But he himself was at Lachish and all his power with him.)
to Hizkiyah, king of Yahudah,
and to all Yahudah
who were in Yerushalaim, saying, 2Chr. 32:10 “Thus said Sancherib,
king of Asshur,
‘On what are you yourselves תא trusting and remaining with a siege
against Yerushalaim?
2Chr. 32:11 Is not Hizkiyah persuading you yourselves תא
to give you yourselves תא up for the sake of dying
by famine and by thirst saying, “YAHWEH, our Elohim, will deliver us
from the hand of the king of Asshur”?

2Chr. 32:12 ‘Has not Hizkiyah himself removed his high places themselves תא

and his slaughter sites themselves תא,
and spoken to Yahudah and Yerushalaim saying, "You are to prostrate yourselves
before one slaughter site.
And upon it
you are to turn incense into smoke."?

2Chr. 32:13 Do you not know what I myself and my fathers
have done to all the peoples of the lands?
Were the gods of the nations
of those lands able?
Have they been able to deliver their lands themselves תא from my hand?

2Chr. 32:14 Who among all
the gods of the nations,
those which my fathers
devoted to destruction,
who was able to deliver
his people themselves תא from my hand that your Elohim might be able to deliver you yourselves תא from my hand?

2Chr. 32:15 And now, do not let Hizkiyah deceive you yourselves תא
nor persuade you yourselves תא
according to this,
nor cause you to trust in Him
because no god of any nation or kingdom
is able to deliver his people from my hand
or from the hand of my fathers.

Also indeed, your Elohim,
will not deliver you yourselves תא
from my hand!"

2Chr. 32:16 And his servants
spoke even more
against YAHWEH, The Elohim,
and against Hizkiyah, His servant.

2Chr. 32:17 And he wrote letters
for the sake of defaming YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el,
and for the sake
of speaking against Him saying,
"As the gods of the nations of the lands
which have not delivered
their people from my hand,
according to this, The Elohim of Hizkiyah
will not deliver His people from my hand."

2Chr. 32:18 And they called out
with a loud voice
in the language of Yahudah
to the people of Yerushalaim
who were on the wall
for the sake of frightening them
and for the sake of causing them to tremble,
in order to capture the city itself תא.

2Chr. 32:19 And they spoke against The Elohim of Yerushalaim
as against the gods
of the peoples of the earth,
the work of the hands of the human being.

2Chr. 32:20 And King Hizkiyah,
and Yeshayah, son of Amotz, the prophet,
prayed concerning this.
And they cried out to The Heavens.

2Chr. 32:21 And YAHWEH sent a messenger.

And he cut down
every mighty man of strength,
and the ruler, and the commanders
in the camp of the king of Asshur.
And he returned with shame of face
to his own land.
And he went into the house of his gods.
And some of his offspring of his own loins
caused him to fall there by the sword.

2Chr. 32:22 And YAHWEH delivered Hizkiyah himself וְהוּא
and those themselves וְהָעָם
dwelling in Yerushalaim
from the hand of Sancherib, king of Asshur,
and from the hand of everyone.
And He guided them all around.

2Chr. 32:23 And many brought offerings to YAHWEH at Yerushalaim, and precious things
to Hizkiyah, king of Yahudah.
And he was exalted in the eyes
of all the nations from then on.

2Chr. 32:24 In those very days
Hizkiyah had been sick,
to the point of death.

And he prayed to YAHWEH.
And He spoke to him.
And He gave a sign to him.

2Chr. 32:25 But Hizkiyah did not respond
according to the good concerning him
because his heart was lifted up.
And wrath existed against him
and against Yahudah and Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 32:26 Then Hizkiyah humbled himself
on account of the pride of his heart,
he himself
and those dwelling in Yerushalaim.
And the wrath of YAHWEH
did not come upon them
in the days of Hizkiyah.

2Chr. 32:27 And there existed for Hizkiyah
exceedingly much riches and honor.
And he made treasuries for himself,
treasuries for silver, and for gold,
and for precious stones,
and for spices, and for shields,
and for all the desirable things, 2Chr. 32:28 and storehouses for the increase of grain, and new wine, and oil,
and stalls for all kinds of livestock,
and folds for flocks.

2Chr. 32:29 And he made cities for himself,
and possessions of of flocks
and herds to abundance
because YAHWEH had given to him
much property.

2Chr. 32:30 And Hizkiyah himself
had stopped up
the uppermost sources themselves וְהַמְצֻדֹת
of the waters of Gihon
and directed them to the west side
of The City of David.
And Hizkiyah prospered in all his work.

2Chr. 32:31 However, according to this,

on account of the envoys
of the rulers of Babel
who had been sent to inquire of him concerning the wonder that had been done in the land YAHWEH abandoned him
for the sake of testing him,
for the sake of knowing
everything in his heart.

2Chr. 32:32 And the rest
of the words of Hizkiyah
and his kindness, behold!
They are written in the vision
of Yeshayah, the prophet, son of Amotz,
on the scroll of the kings
of Yahudah and Yisra'el.

2Chr. 32:33 And Hizkiyah slept with his fathers.
And they buried him
in the upper tombs of the sons of David.
And all Yahudah
and the inhabitants of Yerushalaim
honored him at his death.
And Menashe, his son, reigned in his place.

Chapter 33

2Chr. 33:1 Menashe was twelve years old
at his reigning.
and he reigned fifty five years in Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 33:2 And he did what is evil
in the eyes of YAHWEH, according to the detestable things of the nations which YAHWEH had driven out
from before the faces
of the children of Yisra'el.

2Chr. 33:3 And he turned back.
And he built the high places themselves תא
which Hizkiyah, his father, had broken down.
And he erected slaughter sites for the Ba'als.
And he made Asherah poles.
And bowed himself down
to all the assembly of the skies.
And he served they themselves תא.

2Chr. 33:4 And he built slaughter sites
in The House of YAHWEH,
of which YAHWEH had said,
"My Name will be In Yerushalaim to eternity."

2Chr. 33:5 And he built slaughter sites
for all the assembly of the skies
in the two courtyards
of The House of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 33:6 And he himself caused his children themselves תא
to pass over into fire
in The Valley of The Son of Hinnom.

And he practised fortune telling
And he practiced divination and sorcery.
And he consulted mediums and wizards.
He multiplied the doing of what is evil
in the eyes of YAHWEH,
for the sake of provoking Him to anger.

2Chr. 33:7 And he placed a carved image itself תא
of the idol which he had made
in The House of YAHWEH,
of which YAHWEH had said to David
and to Shelomoh, his son,

“In this House and in Yerushalaim, which I have chosen
from all the tribes of Yisra’el,
I will put My Name itself תא to eternity!

2Chr. 33:8 And I will not again remove a foot itself תא of Yisra’el from upon the soil
which I have established
for the sake of your fathers,
if only they will keep watch
for the sake of doing
everything itself תא
which I have given
as direction to them,
to all The Instruction,
and the rules,
and the regulations,
by the hand of Moshe.”

2Chr. 33:9 And Menashe caused Yahudah itself תא
and those dwelling in Yerushalaim
to go astray
for the sake of doing more evil
than the nations which YAHWEH
had destroyed from before the faces
of the children of Yisra’el.

2Chr. 33:10 And YAHWEH spoke to Menashe
and to his people.
But they did not pay attention.

2Chr. 33:11 Then YAHWEH
brought against them
the commanders themselves תא
of the assembly of the king of Asshur.
And they captured Menashe himself תא
with hooks.
And they bound him with copper shackles.
And they caused him walk to Babel.

2Chr. 33:12 And when he was in distress
he sought the face itself תא
of YAHWEH, his Elohim.
And he humbled himself exceedingly before the face of The Elohim of his fathers, 33:13 And he prayed to Him.
And He was entreated by him
And He listened attentively
to his request for favor.
And He caused him to return to Yerushalaim,
to his kingdom.

Then Menashe knew that YAHWEH,
He Himself, is The Elohim.

2Chr. 33:14 And after this he built a wall outside by The City of David
on the west at Gihon, in the wadi,
and to the entrance of The Fish Gate.
And it went round to Ophel.
And he caused it to be exceedingly high.
And he placed commanders of the force
in all the fortified cities of Yahudah.

2Chr. 33:15 And he removed the foreign gods themselves תא
and the carved image itself תא
from The House of YAHWEH,
and all the slaughter sites which he had built on the mount of The House of YAHWEH
and in Yerushalaim.
And he threw them out of the city.

2Chr. 33:16 And he re-established
the slaughter site itself nx of YAHWEH.
And he sacrificed shelem offerings
and thank offerings on it.
And he spoke to Yahudah
for the sake serving YAHWEH Himself nx,
The Elohim of Yisra'el.

2Chr. 33:17 However,
the people were still sacrificing
at the high places,
but only to YAHWEH, their Elohim.

2Chr. 33:18 And the rest
of the words of Menashe,
his prayer to his Elohim,
and the words of the seers,
those speaking to him
in the Name of YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el, behold!
They are written on the scroll
of the kings of Yisra'el.

2Chr. 33:19 And his prayer,
and his plea for favor,
and all his offenses,
and his unfaithful acts,
and the places on which he built high places
and stood up the Asherim
and the carved images
before he had been humbled, behold!
They have been written
with the words of the seers.

2Chr. 33:20 And Menashe slept with his fathers.
And they buried him in his own house.
And his son, Amon, reigned in his place.

2Chr. 33:21 Amon was twenty two years old
at his reigning.
And he reigned two years in Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 33:22 And he did what is evil
in the eyes of YAHWEH
like his father, Menashe, had done.

And Amon sacrificed
to all the carved images
which his father, Menashe, had made.
And he served them.

33:23 And he did not humble himself
before the face of YAHWEH
as his father, Menashe, had humbled himself.
Indeed, Amon acted unfaithfully
more and more.

2Chr. 33:24 And his servants
conspired against him.
And they killed him in his own house.

2Chr. 33:25 But the people of the land struck
all those themselves nx
who had conspired against King Amon.
And the people of the land caused Yoshiyah, his son,
to reign in his place.

Chapter 34

2Chr. 34:1 Yoshiyah was eight years old
at his reigning.
And he reigned thirty one years
in Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 34:2 And he did what was right

in the eyes of YAHWEH.
And he walked in the ways
of David, his father.
And he did not turn aside, right or left.

2Chr. 34:3 And in the eighth year of his reigning, and he was still young,
he began to seek for The Elohim
of David, his father.
And in the twelfth year he began to purify Yahudah itself nx and Yerushalaim
from the high places,
and the Asherim,
and the carved images,
and the molten images.

2Chr. 34:4 And they broke down
the slaughter sites themselves nx
of the Ba'als.
And the sun pillars
which were above them he had cut down.
And the Asherim, and the carved images,
and the molten images
he had them break in pieces.
And they crushed them to powder
before his face.
And he scattered it upon the graves
of those sacrificing to them.

2Chr. 34:5 And the bones of the priests
he had burned on their slaughter sites.
And he purified Yahudah itself nx
and Yerushalaim itself nx, 2Chr. 34:6 and in the cities of Menashe,
and Ephraim, and Shim'on,
as far as Naphtali,
in the mountain of their houses all around.

2Chr. 34:7 And he broke down
the slaughter sites themselves nx
and the Asherim themselves nx.
And the carved images
he crushed into dust.
And all the sun pillars he had cut down
in all the land of Yisra'el.
And he returned to Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 34:8 And in the eighteenth year of his reign, for the sake of purifying
the land and The House,
he sent Shaphan himself nx, son of Atzalyah,
and Ma'aseyah himself nx, ruler of the city,
and Yo'ah himself nx, son of Yo'ahaz,
the recorder,
for the sake of having repaired
The House itself nx of YAHWEH, his Elohim.

2Chr. 34:9 And they went to Hilkiyah,
the great priest.
And they gave the silver itself nx
which had been brought
to The House of YAHWEH
which the Levites had collected,
those keeping watch of the doors,
from the hand of Menashe and Ephraim,
and from all the remnant of Yisra'el,
and from all of Yahudah and Binyamin,
and those dwelling Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 34:10 And they gave it into the hands
of those doing the work,
those having oversight
in The House of YAHWEH.
And they gave it itself nx to the workmen

who were working in The House of YAHWEH
for the sake of repairing
and for the sake of strengthening The House.

2Chr. 34:11 And they gave it to the craftsmen and to the builders
for the sake of buying hewn stone and timber
for couplings and for beams
for the houses themselves nx
which the kings of Yahudah had destroyed.

2Chr. 34:12 And the men were doing the work with faithfulness according to the task.
And over them were overseers, Yahath and Obadyah of the Levites,
from the sons of Merari,
and Zekaryah and Meshullam
from the sons of the Kohathites
for the sake of overseeing, and the Levites, everyone having understanding
with instruments of music, 2Chr. 34:13 and over those carrying burdens,
and overseers for everyone doing work
in any kind of service.
And from the Levites there were scribes,
and officers, and gatekeepers.

2Chr. 34:14 And when they brought out
the silver itself nx,
that which had been brought into The House of YAHWEH, Hilkiah, the priest, found
The Scroll itself nx of The Torah of YAHWEH,
by the hand of Moshe.

2Chr. 34:15 And Hilkiah responded.
And he said to Shaphan, the scribe,
"I have found The Scroll of The Torah
in The House of YAHWEH."
And Hilkiah gave
The Scroll itself nx to Shaphan.

2Chr. 34:16 And Shaphan brought
The Scroll itself nx to the king.
And he returned word again
to the king himself nx saying,
"All that has been given
into the hand of your servants
they are doing.
2Chr. 34:17 And they have poured out
the silver itself nx,
that which had been found
in The House of YAHWEH.
And they have given it into the hands
of those being overseers
and into the hands of those doing the work."

2Chr. 34:18 And Shaphan the scribe
informed the king saying,
"A scroll has been given to me
by Hilkiah, the priest."
And Shaphan read with it
before the face of the king.

2Chr. 34:19 And it was as the king
was listening attentively
to the words themselves nx of The Torah.
And he tore his garments themselves nx.

2Chr. 34:20 And the king commanded Hilkiah himself nx, Ahikam himself nx, son of Shaphan,
and Abdon himself nx, son of Miykah,
and Shaphan himself nx, the scribe,

and Asayah himself נא,
a servant of the king, saying,
2Chr. 34:21 "Go!
Inquire of YAHWEH Himself נא
on behalf of me and on behalf of those remaining in Yisra'el and in Yahudah concerning the words of the scroll which has been found.
Indeed, great is the wrath of YAHWEH
which has been poured out on us
on account of our fathers
not having protected
the word itself נא of YAHWEH
for the sake of doing according to all that has been written upon this scroll."

2Chr. 34:22 And Hilkiyah
and those who were of the king
went to Huldah, the prophetess,
wife of Shallum,
son of Tokahat, son of Hasrah,
the one keeping the wardrobe.
And she was dwelling in Yerushalaim
in the Second Quarter.
And they spoke to her according to this.

2Chr. 34:23 And she said to them,
"Thus said YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el,
'Say to the man
who sent you yourselves נא to Me, 2Chr. 34:24 "Thus said YAHWEH,
'Behold!
I am bringing evil upon this place
and on its inhabitants,
all the curses themselves נא,
those having been written upon the scroll
which they have read out loud
before face of the king of Yahudah, 2Chr. 34:25 because of how they have abandoned Me,
and have turned incense into smoke
for the sake of other gods
for the sake of provoking Me to anger
with all the works of their hands.

And I will pour out My wrath on this place.
And it will not be quenched!" " "

2Chr. 34:26 And to the king of Yahudah, the one sending you yourselves נא
for the sake of inquiring with YAHWEH,
thus you are to say to him,
'Thus said YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el,
Whose words you have heard,
2Chr. 34:27 "Because your heart was tender,
and you humbled yourself
before the face of YAHWEH
as you were hearing
His words themselves נא
against this place
and against those dwelling in it,
and you were humble before My face,
and you tore your garments themselves נא,
and you wept before My face,
I also, I Myself, have listened attentively!"
- A declaration of YAHWEH. -

2Chr. 34:28 Behold!
I am gathering you to your fathers.
And you will be gathered
to your grave in shalom.
And your eyes will not see
according to all the evil
which I Myself am bringing

against this place
and against those dwelling in it.” ’ ’ ”

And they returned word
to the king himself נא.

2Chr. 34:29 And the king sent.
And he gathered
all the elders themselves נא
of Yahudah and Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 34:30 And the king went up
to The House of YAHWEH,
and all the men of Yahudah
and the inhabitants of Yerushalaim,
and the priests, and the Levites,
and all the people, from great even to small.
And he read in their hearing
all the words themselves נא
of The Scroll of The Covenant, that having been found
in The House of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 34:31 And the king stood in his place.
And he cut The Covenant itself נא
before the face of YAHWEH
for the sake of walking after YAHWEH,
and for the sake of protecting
His directives themselves נא
and His testimonies, and His rules
with all his heart and all his life,
for the sake of doing
the words themselves נא of The Covenant,
those having been written on this scroll.

Note: Lest you miss it,
this is a complete renewal
of The Covenant of Sinai.

2Chr. 34:32 And he caused to stand
all those themselves נא having been found in Yerushalaim and Binyamin.

And those dwelling in Yerushalaim
did according to The Covenant of YAHWEH,
The Elohim of their fathers.

2Chr. 34:33 And Yoshiyah removed all the detestable things themselves נא
from all the lands
that belonged to the children of Yisra'el.
And he caused all those themselves נא
who had been found in Yisra'el
to serve YAHWEH Himself נא, their Elohim.

All his days they did not turn aside
from following YAHWEH,
The Elohim of their fathers.

Chapter 35

2Chr. 35:1 And Yoshiyah
prepared a Passover
in Yerushalaim to YAHWEH.
And they slaughtered The Passover
on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2Chr. 35:2 And he stationed the priests
over their duties.
And he strengthened them for the service
of The House of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 35:3 And he said to the Levites,
those causing understanding for all Yisra'el,
those set apart to YAHWEH, “Put The Set Apart Chest itself נא

in The House which Shelomoh, son of David,
king of Yisra'el, built.
It is no longer a burden for you
upon the shoulders.
Now, serve YAHWEH Himself תא,
your Elohim,
and His people themselves תא, Yisra'el.

2Chr. 35:4 And prepare
by the houses of the fathers
according to your divisions
by the writing of David, king of Yisra'el,
and by the writing of Shelomoh his son.

2Chr. 35:5 And stand in The Set Apart Place,
by divisions, the houses of the fathers
for your kindred, the children of the people,
and a division of the house
of the fathers for the Levites,
2Chr. 35:6 and slaughter The Passover.

And set yourselves apart.
And prepare for your kindred
for the sake of doing
according to the word of YAHWEH
by the hand of Moshe.”

2Chr. 35:7 And Yoshiyah raised for the children of the people
a flock of lambs and kids of the goats
everything for The Passover sacrifices for for all those having been found to the number of thirty thousand,
and three thousand bulls
from the king's possessions.

2Chr. 35:8 And his rulers willingly raised for the people,
for the priests,
and for the Levites.

Hilkiah, and Zekaryah, and Yehi'el, rulers of The House of YAHWEH, gave to the priests
for The Passover sacrifices
two thousand six hundred lambs,
and three hundred bulls.

2Chr. 35:9 And Konanyah, and Shemayah
and Netan'el, his brothers,
and Hashabayah, and Ye'i'el, and Yozabad, rulers of the Levites,
gave to the Levites
for The Passover sacrifices
five thousand lambs,
and five hundred bulls.

2Chr. 35:10 And the service was prepared.
And the priests stood in their places,
and the Levites in their divisions
according to the command of the king,

2Chr. 35:11 And they slaughtered
The Passover.
And the priests sprinkled from their hands.
And the Levites were skinning.

2Chr. 35:12 And they removed the olahs
for the sake of giving them to the divisions
of the houses of the fathers
for the people to bring near to YAHWEH
according to what is written
in the Book of Moshe,
and likewise with the bulls.

2Chr. 35:13 And they roasted
The Passover in fire
according to the regulation.
And the set apart things they boiled
in pots, and in cauldrons, and in pans.
And brought them quickly
to all children of the people.

2Chr. 35:14 And afterward they prepared for themselves and for the priests,
because the priests, the sons of Aharon,
were offering the olahs and the fat until night.
And the Levites prepared for themselves
and for the priests, the sons of Aharon.

2Chr. 35:15 And those singing,
the sons of Asaph, were in their places
according to the command
of David, and Asaph, and Heman,
and Yeduthun, the seer of the king.
And the gatekeepers for each gate,
it was not for them to leave their service,
because their kindred, the Levites,
had prepared for them.

2Chr. 35:16 And all the service of YAHWEH
was prepared on that day,
for the sake of doing The Passover
and to offer up olahs
on the slaughter site of YAHWEH
according to the command of the king, Yoshiyah.

2Chr. 35:17 And those having been found
of the children of Yisra'el
made The Passover itself nx at that time, and The Festival of Unleavened Bread itself nx
for seven days.

2Chr. 35:18 And a Passover like it had not been done in Yisra'el
from the days of Shemu'el, the prophet.

And none of the kings of Yisra'el had made such a Passover
like what Yoshiyah had done,
and the priests, and the Levites,
and all Yahudah and Yisra'el,
those having been found,
and those dwelling in Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 35:19 In the eighteenth year of the kingdom of Yoshiyah
this Passover was done.

2Chr. 35:20 After all this when Yoshiyah had prepared
The House itself nx, Nekho, king of Mitsraim, came up for the sake of fighting against KarKemish, beside The Euphrates.
And Yoshiyah went out to encounter him.

2Chr. 35:21 And he sent messengers
to him saying,
"What is it to me and to you,
king of Yahudah?
It does not concern you,
you yourself nx, this day,
but rather it is against
the house of my fighting.
And YAHWEH had told me to make haste.
Desist from YAHWEH, Who is with me,

Then He, will not destroy you.”

2Chr. 35:22 But Yoshiyah
did not turn his face from him.
Indeed, he disguised himself
for the sake of fighting against him.
And he did not listen attentively
to the words of Nekho
from the mouth of YAHWEH.
And he went for the sake of fighting
into The Valley of Megiddo.

2Chr. 35:23 And the archers
shot at King Yoshiyah.
And the king said to his servants,
“Cause me to pass over!
Indeed, I have been wounded exceedingly!”
2Chr. 35:24 And his servants caused him
to pass over from the chariot.
And they put him in a second chariot that was his.
And they went with him to Yerushalaim.
And he died.
And he was buried
in one of the tombs of his fathers.
And all Yahudah and Yerushalaim
were mourning themselves over Yoshiyah.

2Chr. 35:25 And Yirmyah was lamenting for Yoshiyah.
And all the men singing
with their lamentations
and the women singing
speak of Yoshiyah until this day.
And they made it a rule within Yisra’el.
And behold!
They have been written in The Lamentations.

2Chr. 35:26 And the rest
of the words of Yoshiyah,
and his kindnesses according to
what has been written
in The Torah of YAHWEH, 2Chr. 35:27 and his words,
from the first to the last, behold!
They are written on the scroll
of the kings of Yisra’el and Yahudah.

Chapter 36

2Chr. 36:1 And the people of the land
took Yaho’ahaz himself תא, son of Yoshiyah.
And they caused him to reign
in place of his father in Yerushalaim.
2Chr. 36:2 Yaho’ahaz was twenty three years old at his reigning.
And he reigned three months in Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 36:3 And the king of Mitsraim
turned him aside in Yerushalaim.
And he imposed on the land itself תא
a levy of one hundred talents
of silver and a talent of gold.

2Chr. 36:4 And the king of Mitsraim
caused his brother, Elyakim himself תא,
to reign over Yahudah and Yerushalaim.
And he changed his name itself תא
to Yahoyakim.

And Yaho’ahaz himself תא, his brother,
Nekho took.
And he brought him to Mitsraim.

2Chr. 36:5 Yahoyakim was twenty five years old at his reigning.

And he reigned eleven years in Yerushalaim.
And he did what is bad in the eyes
of YAHWEH, his Elohim.

2Chr. 36:6 Nebukadnetzar, king of Babel,
came up against him.
And he bound him in copper shackles
to cause him to go to Babel.
2Chr. 36:7 And Nebukadnetzar
brought some of the utensils
from The House of YAHWEH to Babel.
And he set them in his temple at Babel.

2Chr. 36:8 And the rest
of the words of Yahoyakim,
the detestable things which he had done,
and what was found against him, behold!
They have been written on the scroll
of the kings of Yisra'el and Yahudah.

And Yahoyakin, his son, reigned in his place.
2Chr. 36:9 Yahoyakin was eight years old
at his reigning.
And he reigned in Yerushalaim
three months and ten days.
And he did what is evil
in the eyes of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 36:10 And at the turn of the year
Nebukadnetzar the king sent.
And he brought him to Babel
with precious utensils
from The House of YAHWEH.

And he caused Tzidkiyah himself nx, Yahoyakin's brother, to reign
over Yahudah and Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 36:11 Tzidkiyah was twenty one years old at his reigning.
And he reigned eleven years in Yerushalaim.
2Chr. 36:12 And he did what is evil
in the eyes of YAHWEH, his Elohim.
He had not been humbled
before the face of Yirmyah, the prophet,
by the mouth of YAHWEH.

2Chr. 36:13 And also, he rebelled
against King Nebukadnetzar
who had caused him to swear by YAHWEH.
And he stiffened his neck itself nx.
And he hardened his heart itself nx
from turning back
to YAHWEH, The Elohim of Yisra'el.

2Chr. 36:14 Also, all the rulers of the priests and the people acted unfaithfully
more and more,
according to all the detestable things
of the nations.

And they defiled
The House itself nx of YAHWEH
which He had set apart in Yerushalaim.

2Chr. 36:15 And YAHWEH,
The Elohim of their fathers, sent to them
by the hand of His messengers,
rising up early and sending them,
because He had compassion
upon His people
and upon His dwelling place.

2Chr. 36:16 But they were mocking against the messengers of YAHWEH.
And they were dishonoring His words.
And they were scoffing at His prophets until the wrath of YAHWEH
rose up against His people
until there was no healing.

2Chr. 36:17 And He brought against them
the king himself nx of the Kasdim.
And he killed their young men
with the sword
in The House of their Set Apart Place.
And he had no pity
concerning a young man or a virgin,
or the aged or the infirm.
He gave everything into his hand.

2Chr. 36:18 And all the furnishings
from The House of YAHWEH,
the great and the small,
and the treasures
of The House of YAHWEH,
and the treasures
of the king and of his rulers,
everything, he brought to Babel.

2Chr. 36:19 And they burned
The House itself nx of YAHWEH.
And they tore down
the wall itself nx of Yerushalaim.
And all its fortresses they burned with fire.
And they all its desirable things
they destroyed.

2Chr. 36:20 And those who escaped from the sword he exiled to Babel.
And they existed as slaves
to him and to his sons
until the reigning of the kingdom of Persia 2Chr. 36:21 for the sake of fulfilling
the word of YAHWEH
by the mouth of Yirmyah,
until the land had enjoyed
her Sabbaths themselves nx.
All the days she was desolated she rested
for the sake of fulfilling seventy years.

2Chr. 36:22 And in the first year
of Cyrus, king of Persia,
for the sake of completing
the word of YAHWEH
by the mouth of Yirmyah,
YAHWEH stirred up the breath itself nx
of Cyrus, king of Persia.

And he passed over, by voice,
a proclamation into all his kingdom.
And he also put it in writing saying,
2Chr. 36:23 "Thus said Cyrus, king of Persia,
'YAHWEH, The Elohim of The Heavens,
has given to me all the kingdoms of the earth.
And He Himself has charged me
to build for Him a house in Yerushalaim,
which is in Yahudah.
Whoever is among you from all His people,
may YAHWEH, his Elohim be with him.
And let him go up!'"

The Complete New Covenant

Introduction To The New Covenant The Aleph-Tav Bible

(Version Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

This version of The New Covenant is different from traditional texts.

Please Note: This text is designed to be read OUT LOUD!

That's the same way most Hebrews learned the Scriptures within their culture.

There's a great benefit in doing this. The imprint it leaves on your mind is far more intense.

This allows you to remember it more easily.

Here are the basic differences discovered in this text:

- The personal name of God is used wherever appropriate.
- The proper Hebrew name of The Messiah is used.
- Hebrew names are utilized where possible.
- There is a new book order (only a minor change).
- The text is formatted differently to draw attention to the concepts presented.
This is quite Hebraic in its approach.
- Notes are provided in blue text right with the Scripture text to clarify certain issues that may otherwise be confusing.
- Original language words are presented in many cases with their definitions so you can see for yourself what they mean, and how they've traditionally been translated.

Tradition is not always correct.

Hebrew Names:

God has only one personal name. It is YAHWEH.

He has many titles, but only one personal and eternal Name.

This text will not use "replacements" such as "The LORD", Ha-Shem, Jehovah, G-d, etc.

In The New Covenant the Greek word theos is used where elohim would typically appear in a Hebrew text.

This is traditionally "translated" as "God".

Where the text supports its use this text will use YAHWEH.

This will add a whole new perspective on The New Covenant text.

These Scriptures are Hebrew in origin and principle.

They are not Greek, even though that's the language through which we have been given them.

The Hebrews did not think like the Greeks.

Their culture was not Greek.

Indeed, Rome actually controlled Yisra'el (the proper name) when The Messiah walked this earth.

Unfortunately, due to traditions of human beings the Greek influence has shaped our view of much of Scripture.

This has greatly distorted the proper meaning of the text in many instances.

This new text has been prepared with an effort to supply some insights into Hebrew thought, and thereby restore a more Hebraic sense to the text that is missing in most other English "translations".

Hebrew names have very particular and significant meanings.

Those meanings are vital within Hebrew culture.

Without using the Hebrew names all of this meaning is lost.

An attempt has been made to restore the Hebrew names where possible,

along with providing an effort to reveal their meanings.

This is especially important in regard to The Messiah Himself.

His name is not "Jesus"!

That "name" comes from a Greek corruption of the Hebrew word for Messiah.

It ends up being a title rather than a name. It means "anointed"

The God of all creation, YAHWEH, would NEVER give a Greek name to His Son,

Who is The Hebrew Messiah!

It's an absurdity to think this would be so.

The proper Hebrew name of The Messiah of YAHWEH is YAHUSHUA.

It means YAHU (or YAHWEH) is deliverance (salvation, rescue).

The use of Hebrew names will present a challenge for you because of what you're used to using.

However, this is important.

It will challenge you to THINK about the text.

New Book Order:

The Gospel of John matches the book of Genesis in some regards that make it extremely appropriate to be positioned as the first book of The New Covenant.

Both books begin with "In the beginning..."

Furthermore, John is unique in its perception and teaching concerning The Messiah and His origins.

Only John sets the stage properly for The New Covenant.

After "The Gospels" you'll find Acts, Galatians, Romans and Hebrews - in that order.

These are grouped together because of their intensely inter-related material.

The new order for them is very important.

Galatians is particularly important to read first when considering the writings of Sha'ul (Paul).

Without Galatians you cannot properly understand his perspective on things.

This is crucial.

He has a different perspective.

There is a reason.

He was the only "apostle" taught directly by the risen and ascended Messiah!

If you miss this truth you'll have great difficulty understanding his teaching.

It also explains why there are some differences between what he wrote and what the other books present.

New Format:

The format of this new text is different from traditional versions.

It is not set up to be read like standard books.

This is intentional.

The line breaks are established to cause you to consider each unique concept.

They will cause you to slow down as you read so you can absorb what you're reading more thoroughly.

This is done to encourage you to THINK about what you are reading.

This also helps make the text easier to read out loud.

Doing so provides a significant impact upon the reader.

This material is not to be approached casually.

Generally, the text has been organized into separate concepts.

This is not typically done.

However, this is much like the manner in which the Hebrews think and speak.

They tend to focus on concrete concepts, with limited use of abstractions.

There are many explanatory notes provided right with the text itself.

They permit instant access to information that is often very important to a better understanding of the text.

This avoids the need to go hunting for the appropriate note.

Many very important concepts are presented in these notes.

Without them you will have difficulty grasping the vital meanings of portions of the text.

Every word of the original language text has been individually reviewed in its context in an attempt to ensure an accurate rendering of its meaning.

This has been done using Accordance Bible Software.

The result is an "edited" text, not a direct "translation".

Changes are only made where it appears important for a more proper understanding of the text.

This text has been prepared by a seminary trained former pastor with over 65 years of Bible study and teaching experience.

May YAHWEH bless your study of His Word!

1: John - Yahonathan

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

John 1:1 In the beginning was The Word.

And The Word was with YAHWEH.

And The Word was YAHWEH.

In The New Covenant theos is used for both the Hebrew terms

elohim and YAHWEH.

This makes it very difficult to discern what's really being said.

Where theos occurs

YAHWEH will be used

with few exceptions,

which will be noted.

logos is the Greek term for "word".

It means something said,

a message, a word.

It's not restricted to one word only.

It's translated with many different terms

but all of them point toward a message.

It's also used as a metaphor for The Messiah.

He is referred to as

"The Logos", or, "The Word".

"In the beginning" is the same phrase found in Genesis 1:1.

It comes from the Hebrew word b'reshet.

It means first in place, time, or rank.

It comes from the word rosh,

which means head or top.

John begins with this identical concept.
At the beginning, first, at the top,
The Word/Message existed
It's very difficult for us to grasp what's being said here.
The Word was with YAHWEH,
but The Word also was (existed as) YAHWEH.
The union/unity of
The Father and The Son
eludes our full comprehension,
but it is directly involved
in these words.
You'll discover this also has a very significant impact on the concept of "The Holy Spirit".
The notes will teach you
what you need to know.

John 1:2 He was in the beginning with YAHWEH.

John 1:3 All things were created through Him and apart from Him

was not one thing created that was created.

ginomai – to cause to be, to become.
Often translated as 'made',
it really means 'created'.
Thus, everything was "created"
by "The Logos", YAHUSHUA.
YAHUSHUA is the proper
Hebrew Name of The Messiah.
It is not "Jesus" or "Yeshua".

John 1:4 In Him life was existing.

And the life was existing

as The Light of human beings.

John 1:5 And The Light shines in the darkness.

And the darkness has not apprehended it.

katalambano - to take eagerly;
to seize, possess, etc.
The concept is that of
taking into one's own possession.

Darkness is a metaphor for an offense.
The darkness (obscurity)
is not able to overcome The Light
- either physically or divinely speaking.

John 1:6 There was a human being created,

sent from YAHWEH,

whose name was Yahonathan.

Yahonathan means given by YAHWEH.
It is the Hebrew name for John.

John 1:7 This same one came for the sake of evidence given,

to be a witness concerning The Light,

in order that everyone,

because of Him, might believe.

pisteuo – to have faith, to entrust
– believe, commit, put in trust with

Faith, belief, and trust
are so closely connected
as to be inseparable.
If one does not have faith,
one does not believe.
If one does not believe,
one does not have faith.
Without faith or belief
you are not placing
your trust in something.

The context will determine the usage
since the terms tend to overlap in meaning.

The most essential element is trust.
To obtain the gift of redemption
one must trust YAHWEH
to do as He says He will do.
Without complete trust in Him
you are not "saved".

John 1:8 He was not The Light,
but rather, was here
in order to be a witness concerning The Light.

John 1:9 He, YAHUSHUA, was The True Light which illuminates every human being coming into the world.

YAHUSHUA is
the proper Hebrew name
of The Messiah.

John 1:10 He was in the world,
and the world was created through Him,
yet the world did not recognize Him.

John 1:11 He came to His own,
yet His own did not receive Him.
John 1:12 But whoever accepted Him,
to them He gave the privilege to become children of YAHWEH,
to those who are trusting in His Name,
ginomai – become.

Becoming His children
happens by means
of a non-carnal re-birth.

"Trusting" is in the present active tense.
It expresses current and on-going action.
You are either trusting or you are not.
There is no middle ground.

The trusting is not in the Name of The Messiah,
but rather,
it is in the Name of YAHWEH!
The children of YAHWEH are those who are trusting 100%
in the Name of YAHWEH
- even as Abraham did.

John 1:13 who have been conceived,
not from blood,
nor from the determination of the flesh,
nor from the determination of a human being,
but rather, from YAHWEH.

Please note the reference to a different form of birth
from YAHWEH.
This is "the new birth".

John 1:14 And The Word became flesh
and resided among us.
And we looked closely at His splendor,
splendor as of the only-born of The Father,
full of favor and truth.

en – a primary preposition
denoting position and instrumentality,
i.e. a relation of rest.;
in, at, upon, by, with, etc. Here = among.

doxa means glory, splendor
The Hebrew term would be kabowd,
and means weight, splendor, or abundance.

Splendor certainly appears to fit the context.

John 1:15 Yahanathan gave witness
concerning Him.
And he cried out saying,
"This was He of whom I said,
'He who is coming after me
is caused to be more prominent than me because He existed prior to me.' "

John 1:16 And of His fullness
we have all received,
even favor for favor,
charis – graciousness

of manner or act; favor.
This is often "translated" as 'grace'.
Grace is the act
of being favored by another.

Note: The Greek is not clear
in this last phrase.

John 1:17 because The Torah
was given through Moshe.
Favor and Truth came into being
through YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

The Messiah's name is not "Jesus".
"Jesus is a Greek transliteration
of The Old Covenant name of "Joshua",
which is Yehoshua.
More properly it was originally Yahoshua, meaning YAH is salvation (deliverance, rescue).

YAHWEH would never permit His promised Messiah
to have a Greek name - never!

The Torah is what
was given through Moshe.
It is called The Law by most,
but that is really not accurate.
torah means a precept or statute,
but its root word means
to teach, to instruct, to give direction.
That's what a precept does.

To properly understand what The Torah is one needs to understand that in the Hebrew text
the proper translation is
The Ten Words,
not the Ten Commandments.
There is no reference to "commandment".

Everything in The Torah
is based on the free choice of the people to agree to do
what they are instructed to do, or not.
If it's forced there is no freedom of choice.
Doing YAHWEH's will is a personal choice.
Without freedom there is no faith, trust.

This is absolutely crucial to understand.
It changes EVERYTHING
concerning our understanding of "The Law."

John 1:18 Not even one
has stared at YAHWEH at any time.
The only begotten Son,
Who is in the embrace of The Father,
He has declared Him.

To stare at is to look very closely,
observe, examine.
There are other terms
that might have been used.
The concept is that of
explaining or revealing YAHWEH
through teaching about Him.

John 1:19 And this is the evidence given by Yahanathan
when the Yisra'elite leaders
sent priests and Levites from Yerushalaim
in order that they might ask him,
"Who are you?"

John 1:20 He acknowledged and did not contradict
but rather acknowledged that,
"I am not The Messiah!"

John 1:21 And they asked him, "Who then?
Are you Elijah?"

He said, "I am not."

"Are you the Prophet?"

And he responded, "No."

Elijah means my El is YAHWEH.

John 1:22 Accordingly they said to him,

"Who are you

in order that we may give a response
to those who sent us?

What do you say concerning yourself?"

John 1:23 He said, "I am

'The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

'Make straight the way of YAHWEH.'

(Is. 40:3)

just as the prophet Yesha'yah said."

Yesha'yah means

YAHWEH is deliverer.

This is Isaiah.

John 1:24 Now those having been sent were from the Pharisees.

Pharisee means the separated.

John 1:25 And they asked him.

And they said to him,

"Why therefore do you baptize

if you are not The Messiah,

nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"

baptizo - immerse, submerge.

John 1:26 Yahanathan responded to them saying, "I baptize with water.

But One stands in the midst of you

Whom you do not recognize.

John 1:27 It is He Who, coming after me,

was created prior to me,

Whose sandal strap

I am not deserving to loosen."

John 1:28 These things happened
at Bayit Abara across The Yarden
where Yahanathan was baptizing.

Bayit Abara means

house of the crossing.

Yarden means descending.

John 1:29 The next day Yahanathan saw YAHUSHUA coming toward him and said,
"Behold!

The Lamb of YAHWEH

Who takes away the offense of the world!

ide – always imperative.

Lo! – behold, lo, see.

It means "Pay attention!"

Sin is an offense against YAHWEH.

It's seen as missing the mark, target.

It means straying off

the well-travelled path

of YAHWEH's instruction.

Fundamentally, it is rebellion against His will,

which is an offense

in the eyes of YAHWEH.

Such an offense

requires the death penalty.

John 1:30 This is He of Whom I said,
'After me comes a man

Who came into being prior to me

in that He is more prominent than me.'

There are two different words expressing "before".

The first is emprosthen,

which means in front of, or prior to.

The second is protos,

which is a superlative meaning foremost in time, place, etc.

It's difficult to separate the true senses

of meaning implied by these in English.

John 1:31 Even I did not recognize Him.

Nevertheless, in order that He might be rendered apparent to Yisra'el, because of this, I have come baptizing with water.”

John 1:32 Then Yahonathan testified saying,
“I observed carefully
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
descending from The Heaven like a dove.
And it remained upon Him.

pneuma - a current of air,
i.e. breath (blast) or breeze;
by analogy or figuratively, vital principle.
This is the first use the term
in The Book of John.
It is comparable to ruach in Hebrew,
which carries the same meaning.

Giving it the sense of "spirit",
as is commonly done,
causes great confusion.
The Hebrew concept of the breath (human wind)
was that it came from the inner being
and constituted the nature of a person.
It was not "the person",
but it represented
their true nature or character.

What's really being identified
is The Divine Nature.

There was no "spirit"
in Hebrew thought or language.
It's a Greek term that did not exist
under The Old Covenant
- or even in the world
until Greece became
a dominant force in the region.

Hence, to the Hebrew mind
there is no "spirit".
It's always something else
that was understood.
Look up the meaning(s) of "spirit"
to see just how confusing this concept is.

ouranos – the sky;
by extension, heaven
(as the abode of YAHWEH).

There's great confusion created by the misuse of this term.
The only way to distinguish what's intended
is to look at the context.

To alleviate some of the confusion
this work will use "The Heaven"
when the abode of YAHWEH is implied,
and "sky" otherwise.

John 1:33 And I did not recognize Him.
But He Who sent me
to baptize with water said to me, “Upon whom you see
The Divine Nature descending
and remaining upon Him,
this is He Who baptizes
with The Divine Nature.’

John 1:34 And I have seen,
and I have testified that this is The Son of YAHWEH!”

John 1:35 Again the next day Yahonathan
was standing by two of his students.

mathetes – a learner, i.e. a pupil.
– typically translated as “disciple”.

Disciple is actually a bit deceiving.

Students will be used in this work
to call attention
to the learning environment
surrounding The Messiah.
In this case it is not the “disciples” of The Messiah,
but rather, those of Yahonathan.

John 1:36 And observing YAHUSHUA
walking about he said, “Behold!
The Lamb of YAHWEH!”

This is a specific reference to The Passover Lamb.
It seems likely that this took place during The Festival of Pesach (Passover)

John 1:37 And the two students
listened to him speaking,
and they accompanied YAHUSHUA.

akoloutheo – to be in the same way with;
i.e. to accompany.
The Messiah does not really have “followers”.
A follower is one who walks behind.
One who accompanies walks beside,
“in the same way”
– acting in the same manner
as his “teacher”.

John 1:38 Then YAHUSHUA,
having turned around,
and having seen them accompanying,
said to them, “What are you seeking?”
They said to Him, “Rabbi,
(which is to say when translated, Teacher)

This is an obvious editorial insertion
that would not have appeared in the original text.

where are You staying?”
John 1:39 He said to them, “Come and see!”
They went and saw where He was staying.
And they remained with Him that day
Now it was about the tenth hour.

John 1:40 Andrew, Shim'on Peter's brother, was one of the two who was listening beside Yahanathan
and was accompanying Him.

Andrew means manly.
It's a Greek name
that is likely connected to adamah in Hebrew, Adam.
Shim'on means one who hears.
This is the proper Hebrew name.
Peter means a stone.
It's Greek in origin.

John 1:41 This one first found his own brother, Shim'on,
and said to him,
“We have found The Messiah”
(which is translated, The Christ).

This verse contains a most egregious error.
The original Greek text
rightly puts Messias
– It's of Hebrew origin (Strong's Number H4899);
(i.e. Mashiach in Hebrew).
This is THE proper term.
Messias is the term
that should be used for EVERY reference to The Messiah.

The text then it adds
“is translated, 'The Christ' ”.
There's no need to make such a “translation”.
The proper term plainly exists
in The Geek language.

This is obviously
an editorial addition to the text.

"Christ" is a Greek term.
It means the same as the Hebrew term, "anointed"
but it does not carry
the same connotation.

The Yisra'elites
looked for The Messiah,
The Anointed One.
They did not look for a "Christ".

Also, "Christ" is not His "name",
nor is it a part of His name.
It is a title, a description.

John 1:42 And he brought him to YAHUSHUA.
Now YAHUSHUA, having looked at him, said,
"You are Shim'on, the son of Yonah.
You will be called Cephas."
(which is translated, a stone).

Yonah means dove.
Cephas is the Greek form of keph,
the Hebrew term for a rock.
It's Hebrew form was perhaps Kephaz.
Note again the editorial insertion.

John 1:43 The next day YAHUSHUA
wanted to go to The Galil.
And He found Philip.
And He said to him, "Accompany Me!"

Galil means a circuit.
This is the Hebrew form.
Phillip means lover of horses.
It's Hebrew ties are not known.

John 1:44 Now Philip was from Bayit Saida,
the city of Andrew and Peter.

Bayit Saida means
house of provision/hunting.

John 1:45 Philip found Nathan'el.
And he said to him,
"We have found Him
of Whom Moshe, in The Torah,
and also The Prophets wrote,
YAHUSHUA of Nazareth,
the son of Yoseph."

Nathan'el means gift of God.
Moshe means drawing out.
Nazareth means a branch; preservation.
Yoseph means he will add.
Note the use of the Hebrew names,
which is more correct to the text.

John 1:46 And Nathan'el said to him,
"Can anything good come out of Nazareth?"
Philip said to him, "Come and see!"

John 1:47 YAHUSHUA had seen Nathan'el
coming toward Him.

And He said concerning him,
"Behold!
Truly an Yisra'elite
in whom there is no craftiness!"

John 1:48 Nathan'el said to Him,
"From where do You know me?"

YAHUSHUA responded.

And He said to him,
"Before Philip called you,
when you were under the fig tree,
I saw you."

John 1:49 Nathan'el responded
and said to Him,

"Rabbi, You are The Son of YAHWEH!
You are The King of Yisra'el!"

John 1:50 YAHUSHUA responded.

And He said to him,
"Because I said to you,
I saw you under the fig tree,'

do you believe it?
You will see greater things than these.”

John 1:51 And He said to him,
“Truly, truly, I say to you, after this day
you will see The Heaven opening and the messengers of YAHWEH
ascending and descending over The Son of Man.”

aggelos - a messenger.
This Greek word
is the source for "angel".
It's pronounced ahn-geh-los
It is a "transliteration",
not a translation, of the word.

It is the equivalent to malak in Hebrew,
which means a deputy sent
on behalf of another, a messenger.
This can be best understood
as an ambassador,
one representing
the one who has sent him.

Chapter 2

John 2:1 And on the third day
a wedding happened in Kana of The Galil.

Kana means reed like.

And the mother of YAHUSHUA was there.

John 2:2 Now both YAHUSHUA
and His students

were invited to the wedding.

John 2:3 And having run short of wine,
the mother of YAHUSHUA
said to Him, “They have no wine.”

John 2:4 YAHUSHUA said to her,
“Woman, what have I to do with you?
My hour has not yet arrived.”

John 2:5 His mother said to the servants,
“Whatever He says to you, do.”

John 2:6 Now setting there were six water pots of stone,
according to the manner of the cleansing
of the Yisra'elites,
containing twenty or thirty gallons apiece.

loudiaios - Yahudean;
i.e. belonging to Yahudah.
The nation of Yisra'el
was divided into two kingdoms
with 'Yisra'el' as the Northern Kingdom,
and Yahudah as the Southern Kingdom
for many years.
(Yahudah is incorrectly called "Judah".)

Then Yisra'el (The Northern Kingdom)
was captured and taken into captivity first.
Yahudah remained in the land.
It, in essence, became "Yisra'el"
as we understand it today.

However, This is misleading.
Many from the Twelve Tribes
lived in either kingdom.
The fall of the Northern kingdom
therefore included people from many tribes,
including some from Yahudah.

Eventually Yahudah
went into captivity as well,
taking with them many
from each of the tribes,
not just from Yahudah.
To call them all "Jews"
is to label them all as Yahudeans.
This was simply not true.
They were all "Yisra'elites".

Unfortunately, the label "Jew"
has become attached to all of them,
and this term developed
from the use of "Judah"
instead of the proper name, Yahudah.

An attempt will be made
to help us remember this reality,
although at times it will be difficult
to keep this in focus.

John 2:7 YAHUSHUA said to them,
"Entirely fill the water pots with water."
And they filled them up to the brim.

John 2:8 And He said to them,
"Draw some out now and carry it to the superintendent of the banquet."
And they carried it.

John 2:9 Then the superintendent of the banquet
tasted the water that was made wine.
And he did not understand where it came from.
But the servants
who had drawn the water understood.

The superintendent of the banquet
called the bridegroom.

John 2:10 And he said to him,
"Every person first puts out the good wine
and when they are intoxicated,
then the inferior.

You have preserved the good wine until now!"
anthropos – man-faced, a human being.
There is a separate term for "man", aner.
Here person is used
instead of human being.

John 2:11 This beginning of signs
YAHUSHUA did in Kana of The Galil.
And He rendered apparent His splendor.
And His students trusted in Him.

John 2:12 After this
He went down to Kafar'nahum,
He, His mother, His brothers,
and His students.
But they did not stay there many days.
Kafar'nahum means village of comfort.
This is the proper Hebrew designation.
Traditionally, this is Capernaum.

John 2:13 And The Passover
of the Yisra'elites was near.
And YAHUSHUA went up to Yerushalaim.
Yerushalaim means
complete teaching of deliverance.

John 2:14 And He found in The Temple
those selling oxen, and sheep, and doves.
And the money changers were sitting there.
This would have been in the Temple courtyard,
not in The Temple itself.

John 2:15 And having made a whip of small cords
He ejected everyone out of The Temple,
even the sheep and the oxen.
And He spilled the money changers' coins
and overturned the tables.

John 2:16 And He said to those selling doves,
"Take these things from here!
Do not make My Father's House
a house of merchandise!"

John 2:17 Then His students remembered that it was written,
"Zeal for Your House has consumed Me."
(Ps. 69:9)

John 2:18 Then the Yisra'elites responded.
And they said to Him,
"What sign do You show to us,
since You are doing these things?"

In this verse

"tradition" uses the term "Jews".

This is an incorrect usage!

By definition and by birth

The Messiah IS A "JEW"

if anyone is a "Jew."

He is from the tribe of YAHUDAH!

Traditionally, this is JUDAH, from which the term "Jew" is derived.

And even THAT is incorrect.

The proper term is 'Yahudean'.

The reference here

is to the Scribes and Pharisees,
the religious LEADERS

of the Hebrew people.

It is NOT to the "Jewish" people in general.

John 2:19 YAHUSHUA responded.

And He said to them,

"Destroy this temple,

and in three days I will raise it up."

John 2:20 Then the Yisra'elites said,

"It has taken forty six years

to build this Temple,

and will You raise it up in three days?"

John 2:21 But He was speaking of the temple of His body.

The Greek word

translated as "temple" is naos.

It means a shrine or a temple,

and this is how it's normally translated.

However, it's root word is naio

which has the basic meaning of a dwelling place, a house.

John 2:22 Therefore,

when He had been raised up from being dead,

His students remembered

that He had said this to them.

And they believed The Scripture

and the word which YAHUSHUA had spoken.

nekros – dead.

It does not refer to "the dead",

as a group of entities.

There is no article in the text.

it refers to the state of being dead.

John 2:23 Now as He was in Yerushalaim

at The Passover, at the festival,

many trusted in His Name

having seen the signs which He did.

This verse raises an interesting problem.

Why would anyone trust "in His Name"

if His name was "Jesus"?

It has no meaning to a Hebrew.

On the other hand,

YAHUSHUA is readily understood

by them to mean YAH is deliverance.

It is this that they came to trust in.

John 2:24 But YAHUSHUA

did not entrust Himself to them

because He knew everything,

This verse also is of interest.

The word for entrust is pisteuo.

It's the same word that's typically translated as believe.

John 2:25 and because He had no need that anyone should be a witness

concerning human beings.

Indeed, He knew

what was in human beings.

Chapter 3

John 3:1 Now there was a person of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Yisra'elites.

Nicodemus means conqueror of the people.

John 3:2 This man came to YAHUSHUA by night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we recognize that You are a teacher who has come from YAHWEH.

Indeed, not even one is able to do these signs that You are doing unless YAHWEH is with him."

John 3:3 YAHUSHUA responded and said to him, "Most assuredly I say to you, if one is not born from above he is not able to see The Kingdom of YAHWEH."

another – from above; by analogy, from the first; by implication, anew.

The concept of being "born from above" is far more powerful than that of being "born again".

John 3:4 Nicodemus said to Him, "How is a human being able to be born when he is old? Is he able to enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?"

John 3:5 YAHUSHUA responded, "Most assuredly I say to you, if one is not born of water and of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH he is not able to enter into The Kingdom of YAHWEH.

John 3:6 That which is born from the flesh is flesh.

And that which is born by means of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH has a Divine Nature.

This is most important! There are two kinds of birth – carnal (fleshly) and non-carnal (Heavenly). One must have the second in order to be able to enter into The Kingdom of YAHWEH.

The second is the "New Nature", The nature of YAHWEH Himself, "The Divine Nature" (more on this later).

John 3:7 Do not marvel that I said to you, "You must be born from above."

John 3:8 The wind blows wherever it chooses and you hear the sound of it.

And you do not know from where it comes and where it goes.

In like manner is everyone who is born by means of

The Divine Nature of YAHWEH."

John 3:9 Nicodemus responded and said to Him,

"How are these things possible?"

John 3:10 YAHUSHUA responded and said to him,

"Are you the teacher of Yisra'el and do not know these things?"

John 3:11 Most assuredly I say to you, We speak what We understand and testify to what We have observed, yet you do not receive Our testimony.

There is a usage of plural pronouns.
This does not appear to be a reference to YAHUSHUA and His students,
but rather to The Father and The Son.

John 3:12 If I tell you earthly things
and you are not believing,
how will you believe
if I tell you Heavenly things?

John 3:13 Also, not even one has gone up into The Heaven except He Who has come down
from The Heaven,
The Son of Man,
Who exists in The Heaven.

John 3:14 And just as Moshe lifted up
the serpent in the wilderness,
in the same manner it is necessary
that The Son of Man be lifted up, John 3:15 in order that anyone who is trusting in Him
will not be fully destroyed
but instead will have Eternal Life.

John 3:16 Indeed, YAHWEH so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son
in order that anyone who is trusting in Him
might not be fully destroyed,
but instead might have Eternal Life.

There is a subtle yet powerful Hebrew concept hidden
in these two verses.
A thing is confirmed by two witnesses.
A double mention
equals two witnesses, confirming it.

John 3:17 Indeed,
YAHWEH did not send His Son
into the world to condemn the world,
but rather, in order that the world
through Him, might be delivered.

sozo – to save, i.e. deliver or protect.
Through could be rendered
"by means of".

John 3:18 He who is trusting in Him
is not condemned.
But he who is not trusting
is condemned already,
because he has not trusted in the Name of the only begotten Son of YAHWEH.

John 3:19 Now this is the condemnation,
because The Light has come into the world
and human beings loved the darkness
rather than The Light
because their deeds were hurtful.

poneros - hurtful, i.e. evil.
Our concept of evil
is not like that of the Hebrews.
We consider something to be evil
only if it is extremely offensive.
In the Hebrew mind
everything bad
was identified by one word
which is translated traditionally as "evil".
Yet it is actually seen by them
as a continuum of everything from the slightly harmful to the extremely awful actions
of human beings.

John 3:20 Indeed, everyone
practicing disgusting things detests The Light.
And he does not come to The Light lest his actions might be admonished.

phaulos - "foul", disgusting.

John 3:21 But he who does the truth comes to The Light
in order that his actions
are rendered apparent,
that they have been done with YAHWEH."

John 3:22 After these things
YAHUSHUA and His students
went into the land of Yahudah.
And He remained there with them.
And He was baptizing.
Yahudah means YAH will be praised.

John 3:23 Now Yahanathan was also baptizing
in Ayin near Salim
because there was much water there.
And they were coming.
And they were being baptized
Ayin means fountain.
Salim means tossing.
Probably from the Hebrew shamat,
to throw down.

John 3:24 because Yahanathan had not yet been thrown into prison.

John 3:25 Then a dispute happened
from the students of Yahanathan
against the Yisra'elites concerning cleansing.
Yahanathan was an Yisra'elite.
The dispute is between his followers
and the leadership of the Temple.
It's incorrect to even suggest Yahanathan was not an Yisra'elite.
His father was a priest in The Temple.

To be more correct
the text should identify what groups
in The Temple leadership
were against him.
This would most likely be the Pharisees and the Scribes.

John 3:26 And they came to Yahanathan.
And they said to him, "Rabbi,
He Who was with you beyond The Yarden,
to Whom you were giving a witness...
Behold!
He is baptizing
and everyone is going to Him!"
John 3:27 Yahanathan responded and said,
"A person is not able to receive even one thing
unless it might be given to him from The Heaven.

John 3:28 You yourselves bear me witness that I said, "I am not The Messiah.", but rather, 'I have been sent ahead of Him.'
John 3:29 He who has the bride is the bridegroom.
But the friend of the bridegroom
who stands and listens to him rejoices exceedingly
because of the bridegroom's voice.
Therefore this joy of mine is full.

John 3:30 He must increase but I decrease.

John 3:31 He Who comes from above
is above everything.
He who is of the earth is earthly and speaks of the earth.
He Who comes from The Heaven
is above everything.
John 3:32 And what He has observed and heard,
to that He gives witness.
Yet no one receives His evidence.

John 3:33 He who is receiving His evidence has certified that YAHWEH is true.

John 3:34 Indeed, He whom YAHWEH has sent speaks the words of YAHWEH because YAHWEH does not give The Divine Nature of YAHWEH by measure.
"by measure" means a limited portion.

John 3:35 The Father loves The Son and has given everything into His hand.

John 3:36 He who is trusting in The Son has Eternal Life!

But he who is not trusting in The Son will not see Eternal Life, but instead the wrath of YAHWEH remains upon on him."

orge - properly, desire, violent passion; by implication punishment.
Typically translated as "wrath", it is better understood as the pure desire of YAHWEH to abolish all that amounts to an offense (rebellion against His Word).
That desire leads to judgment and punishment.

Chapter 4

John 4:1 Therefore, since The Master knew that the Pharisees had heard that YAHUSHUA made and baptized more students than Yahanathan

John 4:2 (all though really, YAHUSHUA Himself was not baptizing, but rather, His students),

John 4:3 He left Yahudah and went once more into The Galil.

John 4:4 Now it was necessary to travel through Shomeron.

John 4:5 Accordingly, He came to a town of Shomeron called Shekar, near the plot of ground that Ya'akov gave to his son, Yoseph.

Shomeron means to protect.
Traditionally, Shomeron is Samaria.
Shekar means intoxicated.
Ya'akov means he will take by the heel.
Yoseph means he will add.

John 4:6 Now Ya'akov's well was there. YAHUSHUA therefore, being wearied from travel, therefore sat down beside the well. It was about the sixth hour.

John 4:7 A woman from Shomeron came to draw water.

YAHUSHUA said to her, "Give Me a drink!"

John 4:8 because His students had gone away into the town to buy food.

John 4:9 Then the woman of Shomeron said to Him, "How is it that You, being of Yahudah, ask a drink from me, a Shomeronite woman?"

Indeed, Yahudeans have no dealings with Shomeronites.

In this instance the distinction between them is important. Shomeron was "The Northern Kingdom", formerly known as "Yisra'el". The Shomeronites (traditionally, Samaritans) were in fact "Yisra'elites", being from among the Twelve Tribes. But the conflicts between them were fierce, and the hostile attitudes remained at the time of The Messiah. Thus, this woman makes the distinction between herself as from Shomeron (Samaria) and the "Southern Kingdom of Yahudah."

John 4:10 YAHUSHUA responded.

And He said to her,

"If you understood the gift of YAHWEH

and Who it is Who says to you,

Give Me a drink!

you would have asked Him

and He would have given to you living water."

Live water, or living water, was understood to be
that which was flowing,
and therefore always fresh.
In this case it is
a metaphor for eternal life,
water of life.

John 4:11 The woman said to Him,

"Sir, You have nothing to draw with

and the well is deep.

Where then do You have living water?

John 4:12 Are You greater

than our father Ya'akov

who gave us the well

and drank from it himself,

and his children, and his livestock?"

John 4:13 YAHUSHUA responded.

And He said to her,

"Anyone drinking from this water will thirst again.

John 4:14 But whoever drinks from the water

that I will give to him will never thirst.

But rather, the water that I will give to him

will become within him a fountain of water

springing up into Eternal Life."

In this statement lies the solution
for anyone seeking "the fountain of youth".
YAHUSHUA has just told this woman
where to find it.

John 4:15 The woman said to Him,

"Sir, give me this water

in order that I might not thirst

nor come here to draw."

John 4:16 YAHUSHUA said to her, "Go!

Call your husband and come here!"

John 4:17 The woman responded and said,

"I have no husband."

YAHUSHUA said to her,

"You have said well that, 'I have no husband.'

John 4:18 because you have had five husbands.

And the one whom you now have

is not your husband.

In this you have spoken truly."

John 4:19 The woman said to Him,

"Sir, I perceive that You are a prophet.

John 4:20 Our fathers worshiped

on this mountain.

And you of Yahudah say that in Yerushalaim is the place

where one ought to worship."

John 4:21 YAHUSHUA said to her,

"Woman, trust Me!

The hour is coming when you will neither

on this mountain nor in Yerushalaim

worship The Father!

John 4:22 You worship

what you do not understand.

We of Yahudah understand what we worship
because deliverance is from Yahudah.

The Messiah is from the Tribe of Yahudah.
He is, therefore, truly of Yahudah,

as well as being an Yisra'elite.

soferia – rescue or safety (physically or morally).
– deliver, health, salvation, save, saving.

What we call salvation
is truly a rescue, a deliverance.
We're rescued from
the power of our offenses,
which requires one's death.

John 4:23 However, the hour is coming,
even now exists,
when the genuine worshipers
will worship The Father
in Divine Nature and Truth, because The Father is seeking ones of this sort to worship Him.

John 4:24 YAHWEH is Divine Nature.
And it is necessary that those who worship Him
worship in Divine Nature and Truth!”

John 4:25 The woman said to Him,
“I understand that The Messiah is coming.”
(who is called The Christ).
[See John 1:41 note.]
“When He comes
He will declare to us everything.”

John 4:26 YAHUSHUA said to her,
“I, the one speaking to you, am He!”

This is remarkable!
The first person in Yisra'el
to be told by YAHUSHUA
that He is The Messiah
is a Shomeronite woman!

No “respectable” man of Yahudah
would talk to a Shomeronite,
let alone a woman,
and especially if they knew
she had been married five times.
This made her an adulteress.

That The Messiah,
in the eyes of a “good Jew”,
would ‘stoop’ to such levels
was unthinkable – traditionally.
The implications are astounding!
They are also very reassuring
for anyone who recognizes their own offenses.

John 4:27 And at this time His students came.
And they were marveling
that He talked with a woman.
However, no one said,
“What are You seeking?”
or, “Why are You talking with her?”

John 4:28 Then the woman,
leaving her water pot,
went away into the town
and said to the men,

John 4:29 “Come!
See a person who has told me
everything I have ever done.
Is this not The Messiah?”

John 4:30 They went out of the town and came to Him.

John 4:31 In the meantime His students urged Him saying, “Rabbi, eat!”

4:32 But He said to them,

“I have food to eat of which you do not know.”

4:33 Therefore the students said to one another,

“Has anyone brought to Him something to eat?”

4:34 YAHUSHUA said to them,

“My food

is to do the will of Him Who sent Me
and to complete His work.

John 4:35 Do you not say,
“There are still four months,
then the harvest comes.”?

Behold!

I say to you raise up your eyes
and look closely at the fields
because they are already white for reaping!

John 4:36 And he who is reaping is receiving compensation
and is gathering fruit

for the sake of Eternal Life
in order that both he who is sowing and he who is reaping
might rejoice at the same time.

John 4:37 Indeed, in this the saying is true that,
“One is the sower and another is the reaper.”

*The text uses a participle form,
which can function as an adjective.
That's how it's used in this verse.*

John 4:38 I have sent you to reap
that for which you are not laboring.
Others have labored,
and you have entered into their labors.”

John 4:39 And many of the Shomeronites of that town
trusted in Him because of the word of the woman who testified,
“He told me everything that I had ever done.”

John 4:40 And when the Shomeronites had come to Him
they asked Him to stay with them.
And He stayed there two days.

John 4:41 And many more trusted
because of His word.

John 4:42 And they said to the woman that,
“We no longer trust
because of what you said.

We ourselves trust
because we have heard,
and we understand
that this is indeed

The Savior of the world, The Messiah!”

*sofer – deliverer; YAHWEH or The Messiah.
– savior.*

John 4:43 Now after the two days
He went out from there and went into The Galil.

John 4:44 Indeed, YAHUSHUA Himself gave evidence that a prophet has no honor in his own home town.

John 4:45 Therefore when He had come into The Galil
the Galil'ans received Him,
having observed everything He had done
in Yerushalaim at the feast,
because they also had gone to the feast.

John 4:46 YAHUSHUA came once more into Kana of The Galil
where He had made the water wine.
And there was a certain nobleman
whose son was sick at Kafar'nahum.

John 4:47 Having heard that YAHUSHUA had come out of Yahudah into The Galil, he went to Him.
And he asked Him in order that He might come down and cure his son.
Indeed, he was about to die.

John 4:48 Then YAHUSHUA said to him,
"Unless you see signs and wonders you will by no means believe."

John 4:49 The nobleman said to Him,
"Master, come down before my child dies!"

John 4:50 YAHUSHUA said to him,
"Go your way!
Your son is alive."

And the person believed the word that YAHUSHUA spoke to him, and he went his way.

John 4:51 Now even as he was going down his servants met him.

And they declared to him saying that,
"Your son is alive!"

John 4:52 Then he inquired of them the hour at which he had begun to improve.

And they said to him,
"Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him."

John 4:53 And the father knew that it was at the same hour in which YAHUSHUA had said to him,
"Your son is alive."

And he himself trusted, and also his whole household.

John 4:54 This again is the second sign YAHUSHUA did, having come out of Yahudah into The Galil.

Chapter 5

John 5:1 After this there was a feast of the Yisra'elites. And YAHUSHUA went up to Yerushalaim.

John 5:2 Now there is in Yerushalaim beside the Sheep Gate a pool which is called in Hebrew, Bayit Chesed, having five porches.

Bayit Chesed means house of kindness. This is the proper Hebrew form of Bethesda.

John 5:3 In these a great number of sick people, blind, lame, paralyzed, laid waiting for the stirring of the water

John 5:4 because a YAH-messenger came down to the pool according to a set time and stirred up the water.

Then the one who entered first after the stirring of the water became healthy of whatever infirmity held him.

aggelos is the Greek word normally translated as "angel". It means one sent as a deputy or messenger.

It is pronounced "ahn-geh-los", which is the source of the word 'angel'. It's the same as the Hebrew word mal'ak. That word means to dispatch as a deputy, messenger; ambassador.

*The term "YAH-messenger is used to distinguish between a messenger sent from YAHWEH

and one that comes from the adversary.
Neither of these are "angels".

John 5:5 Now a certain person was there
who had an infirmity thirty eight years.

John 5:6 YAHUSHUA,
having seen him lying down
and knowing that he had already been this way a long time, said to him,
"Do you desire to become healthy?"

John 5:7 The sick one responded to Him,
"Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool
when the water is stirred up.

But while I am coming another goes down before me."

John 5:8 YAHUSHUA said to him, "Get up!
Pick up your bed and walk about!"

5:9 And at once
the person became healthy,
picked up his bed, and walked about.

Now that day was The Sabbath.

John 5:10 The Yisra'elite leaders therefore
were saying to him who was healed,
"It is The Sabbath.

It is not right for you to carry your bed."

exesti – it is right.

Often translated as "lawful".

The legalistic attitude of the religious leaders,
a result of "the traditions of men",
was responsible for this remark.
They had, in effect, made it a "law"
that one could do no more than a certain amount of activity
on The Sabbath (shabbat).
Yet this was never part of YAHWEH's Torah.

Here's another instance where traditional terminology used is confusing.
The typical reference is to the "Jews".
The man healed is an Yisra'elite.
He's apparently living
right there in Yerushalaim.
He is as much a "Jew", or a "Yahudean",
or an "Yisra'elite",
as those who are harassing him.
He's been healed
during an Yisra'elite Festival.

Given the legal aspect of their approach
one must assume these are Pharisees,
who largely controlled
the religious aspects of the nation
at this point in history.
It may have included The Scribes,
since both groups made a point
of trying to show their superiority.

John 5:11 He responded to them,
"He Who made me healthy said to me,
'Pick up your bed and walk about!'"

John 5:12 Then they asked him,
"Who is the person Who said to you,
'Pick up your bed and walk about?'"

John 5:13 But the one who was cured
did not know who it was because YAHUSHUA had slipped away,
a crowd being in the place.

John 5:14 After this YAHUSHUA
found him in The Temple
and said to him, "Behold!
You have become healthy.
Offend no longer
lest a worse thing happen to you."

This concept is most interesting

because it suggests infirmity
is a result of one's offenses.

John 5:15 The man went away
and announced to the "Pharisees"
that it was YAHUSHUA

Who made him healthy.

John 5:16 For this reason
the Yisra'elite leaders pursued YAHUSHUA.
And they sought to kill Him because He did these things
on The Sabbath.

John 5:17 But YAHUSHUA responded to them,
"My Father is working
even until this very day.
I also am working."

Lest you think YAHWEH stopped working
after creating the world, take note.

John 5:18 Therefore, because of this,
the Yisra'elite leaders were seeking much more to kill Him because He not only broke The Sabbath,
but rather, even said
that YAHWEH is His own Father,
making Himself like YAHWEH.

Like means the same as.

John 5:19 Then YAHUSHUA responded.
And He said to them,
"Most assuredly I say to you,
The Son is able to do not even one thing by Himself
except what He sees The Father is doing.
Indeed, whatever He is doing
The Son also does in a similar manner.

John 5:20 Indeed, The Father loves The Son and shows Him everything that He Himself is doing.
And He will show Him greater works than these
in order that you may marvel.

John 5:21 Indeed, exactly as The Father
raises the dead and makes them alive,
in the same manner also
The Son makes alive whom He chooses.

John 5:22 Indeed, The Father condemns not even one, but instead has given all judgment to The Son John 5:23 in order that everyone might honor The Son
just as they honor The Father.
He who is not honoring The Son
is not honoring The Father
Who has sent Him.

John 5:24 Most assuredly I say to you,
he who is hearing My word
and is trusting in Him Who has sent Me
has Eternal Life!

Another present tense witness to the truth that one who trusts in YAHWEH
already HAS eternal life.
It has already begun.
On the basis of two witnesses
a thing is confirmed.
Thus, by the second affirmation
to this reality it is confirmed
- by The Messiah Himself.

And he does not come into judgment,
but rather is changing places,
from death into The Life!

John 5:25 Most assuredly I say to you,
the hour is coming and now exists
when the dead will hear the voice
of The Son of YAHWEH.
And those who are listening will live.

John 5:26 Indeed, exactly as The Father
has life in Himself,
even in the same way
He has granted The Son
to have life in Himself!

John 5:27 And He has given to Him authority to execute judgment also because He is a son (child) of a human being.

John 5:28 Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which everyone in the graves will hear His voice

John 5:29 and come forth;
those having done good,
into the resurrection of Life,
and those having done harm,
into the resurrection of condemnation.

This should alter
your understanding of death.
Both the good ones
and the harmful ones
are seen as being in the grave – dead.
They are not “in Heaven”
as you’ve been taught.

Also, why would you need to be raised up out of the state of being dead
if you are already in Heaven?

Scripture confirms in many places that dead is dead
- there is no life in the grave.
Only by resurrection is life restored.

John 5:30 I am not able of Myself
to do even one thing.
Just as I hear, I judge.
And My judgment is just because I do not seek My own desire,
but rather, the desire of The Father
Who has sent Me.

It's crucial to remember that YAHUSHUA is speaking
as a human being – not as divinity.
No human being is any different.

John 5:31 If I am giving evidence concerning Myself,
My evidence is not true.

This is so because
one cannot be a witness
on one's own behalf
and have it be valid.
The evidence had to come from at least two impartial witnesses before it was considered legally valid
under Hebrew Law.

John 5:32 There is another
Who gives evidence concerning Me,
and I know that the evidence to which He gives witness concerning Me is true.

John 5:33 You have sent to Yahnathan
and he has given witness to The Truth.

John 5:34 But I do not receive evidence
from human beings.
But on the other hand, I say these things

in order that you might be delivered.

John 5:35 He was the burning and shining lamp.
And you were willing for a time
to rejoice in his light.

John 5:36 But I have greater evidence than Yahanathan's.

Indeed, the works which The Father has given to Me to complete for Him,
the very works that I am doing,
give evidence concerning Me
that The Father has sent Me.

John 5:37 And the Father Himself
Who sent Me,
has given evidence concerning Me.
You have neither heard His voice
at any time
nor seen His form.

John 5:38 And you do not have His word abiding in you because whom He sent,
Him you are not trusting.

John 5:39 You search The Scriptures
because in them you think you have Eternal Life.
Yet those are they
which give evidence concerning Me.

Yahanathan,
The Father,
The works,
and The Scriptures
all give evidence
concerning The Messiah
– four witnesses.

John 5:40 But you do not desire to come to Me
in order that you may have Life.

John 5:41 I do not receive honor
from human beings.

John 5:42 Furthermore, I know you, that you do not have
the love of YAHWEH within you.

John 5:43 I have come in My father's Name
yet you do not accept Me.
If another comes in his own name,
him you will accept.

He has come under
His authority and power.
And He is carrying His Name
within The Messiah's own name.

John 5:44 How can you believe
who accept honor from one another,
yet you do not seek the honor
that is from YAHWEH alone?

John 5:45 Do not think that I will be accusing you before The Father!
There is one who is accusing you,
Moshe, in whom you are trusting.

John 5:46 However, if you were trusting Moshe
you would be trusting Me,
because he wrote about Me.

John 5:47 But if you do not trust his writings
how will you trust My words?"

Chapter 6

John 6:1 After these things YAHUSHUA
went across The Sea of Galil,
which is Tiberias.

Tiberias - There was a river-god
named Tiber,
which is the origin of this name.
The meaning is not known.

John 6:2 And a great crowd accompanied Him because they were seeing His signs which He was doing for those who were sick.

John 6:3 And YAHUSHUA went up onto the mountain and there He sat down with His students.

John 6:4 Now The Passover, a feast of the Yisra'elites, was near.

John 6:5 Then YAHUSHUA, having raised up His eyes, and seeing a great crowd coming toward Him, said to Philip,

“Where shall we buy food in order that these may eat?”

John 6:6 Now He said this to test him because He Himself knew what He was about to do.

John 6:7 Philip responded to Him, “Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them in order that each one of them might have a little.”

John 6:8 One of His students, Andrew, Shim'on Peter's brother, said to Him,

John 6:9 “There is a lad here who has five barley loaves and two small fish, but what are they among so many?”

John 6:10 Then YAHUSHUA said, “Make the persons sit down.”

Now there was much grass in the place. Therefore the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

John 6:11 Then YAHUSHUA, taking the loaves, and having given thanks, distributed them to the students,

mathetes - a learner, i.e. a pupil.
Typically translated as "disciple".
Student is used because it's the proper 'translation'.

and the students to those sitting down. And likewise from the fish, as much as they desired.

John 6:12 Now when they had been satisfied He said to His students, “Gather up the excess pieces that remain in order that some are not destroyed.

John 6:13 Accordingly they collected them. And they filled twelve baskets of pieces from the five barley loaves which were in excess from those who were eating.

John 6:14 Then the persons having seen the sign that YAHUSHUA had done said, “This is truly The Prophet who is to come into the world!”

John 6:15 YAHUSHUA therefore, knowing that they were about to come and seize Him in order to make Him king, departed once more onto the mountain by Himself alone.

John 6:16 Now when it became evening His students went down to the sea.

John 6:17 And they got into the boat
going across the sea to Kafar'nahum.
Now it was already dark,
yet YAHUSHUA had not come to them.

John 6:18 Then the sea was raised up by a great wind that was blowing.
John 6:19 Then having rowed
about three or four miles,
they observed YAHUSHUA
walking upon the sea
and coming near to the boat.
And they were frightened.
John 6:20 But He said to them, "It is I Myself.
Do not be frightened!"
John 6:21 Then they willingly received Him
into the boat.
And immediately the boat was at the land
to which they were going.

John 6:22 On the next day the crowd which was standing
on the other side of the sea,
having seen that no other boat
was in that place except that one into which His students had entered,
and that YAHUSHUA had not entered with His students into the boat,
but rather that His students
had gone away alone...
John 6:23 (However, other boats came from Tiberias
near the place where they ate bread,
The Master having given thanks.)
John 6:24 ...when the crowd now saw that YAHUSHUA was not there,
nor His students,
they also got into boats
and went to Kafar'nahum
seeking YAHUSHUA.
John 6:25 And having found Him across the sea
they said to Him,
"Rabbi, when did You come here?"
John 6:26 YAHUSHUA
responded to them and said,
"Most assuredly I say to you, you seek Me,
not because you were seeing the signs,
but rather, because you ate of the loaves
and were satisfied.

John 6:27 Do not labor
for the food which perishes,
but rather, for the food
which remains stable into Eternal Life
which The Son of Man will give to you,
because YAHWEH, The Father, has sealed Him."

*meno - to stay (in a given place, state, relation, or expectancy).
Seals were fixed in place.
They did not move.
To seal something
is to certify its validity.*

John 6:28 Then they said to Him,
"What should we do
in order that we may work
the works of YAHWEH?"

John 6:29 YAHUSHUA responded.
And He said to them,
"This is the work of YAHWEH,
that you trust in Him Whom He has sent."

John 6:30 Then they said to Him,
“What sign are You doing then in order that we may see it and might trust You?
What are You doing?”

John 6:31 Our fathers ate the manna
in the desert, just as it is written,
*‘He gave them food
from The Heaven to eat.’*”

(Ps. 78:24)

lechem - food, especially bread.
This is a Hebrew term
so it doesn't show up in the Greek New Covenant text.
But the concept in Psalms
is most definitely Hebrew in origin.
It's important to recognize that all types of food
can be included in this concept.

John 6:32 Therefore YAHUSHUA said to them,
“Most assuredly I say to you,
Moshe did not give you
the bread from The Heaven!

But on the other hand,
My Father is giving to you
the True Bread from The Heaven.
John 6:33 Indeed, the bread of YAHWEH
is He Who is coming down from The Heaven
and is giving Life to the world.”

John 6:34 Now they said to Him,
“Master, give us this bread at all times!”

John 6:35 Then YAHUSHUA said to them,
“I am ‘The Bread of Life’!
He who comes to Me will never hunger.
And he who trusts in Me will never thirst!

John 6:36 However I am saying to you that you have even seen Me,
yet have not trusted.

John 6:37 Everyone whom The Father gives to Me
will be present before Me.
And one who is coming toward Me
I will never eject outside
John 6:38 because I came down from The Heaven
not in order that I might do My own will,
but rather, the will of Him Who has sent Me.

John 6:39 Now this is the will of The Father
Who has sent Me,
that of everyone whom He gives Me
I should lose none of them,
but rather, should raise them up
at the last day.

John 6:40 Moreover, this is the will
of Him Who has sent Me,
that everyone who is observing The Son and is trusting in Him
might have Eternal Life!
And I will raise him up at the last day.”

John 6:41 Therefore the Yisra'elite leaders
grumbled concerning Him because He said, “I am the bread
which has come down from The Heaven.”
John 6:42 But they said,
“Is not this YAHUSHUA, the son of Yoseph,
whose father and mother we know?
How is it then that He says,
‘I came down from The Heaven’?”

John 6:43 YAHUSHUA therefore responded and said to them,
"Do not grumble with one another!
John 6:44 Not even one is able to come to Me
unless The Father
Who has sent Me draws him.
And I will raise him up at the last day.

John 6:45 It is written in the prophets,
"And they will all be taught by YAHWEH."
(Is. 54:13)
Therefore everyone who has been listening and has learned from The Father comes to Me.

John 6:46 Not that anyone has looked at the Father except He Who is from YAHWEH.
He has looked at the Father.

John 6:47 Most assuredly I say to you,
he who is trusting in Me
has Eternal Life.
John 6:48 I am The Bread of The Life."

John 6:49 Your fathers
ate the manna in the wilderness
and they are dead.
John 6:50 This is the bread
which is coming down from The Heaven
in order that one may eat of it and not die.
*phago – to eat.
This is the term normally used to refer to eating.
But in v. 53 it shifts to
trogo – to gnaw or chew.*

John 6:51 I am 'The Living Bread' which,
having come down from The Heaven,
if anyone eats of this bread
he will live forever!

And now, the bread that I will give
is My flesh,
which I will give for the life of the world."

John 6:52 The Yisra'elite leaders therefore fought against one another saying,
"How can this one give us His flesh to eat?"

John 6:53 Therefore YAHUSHUA said to them,
"Most assuredly I say to you,
unless you continually eat
the flesh of The Son of Man and drink His blood you have no life in you.
*trogo – to gnaw or to chew;
i.e. (generally) to eat.
The shift in language
denotes a new emphasis used to bring home YAHUSHUA's point.*

*To distinguish the two this work will use
"continually eat" for this term.*

John 6:54 Whoever continually eats My flesh
and drinks My blood
has Eternal Life!
And I will raise him up at the last day.

John 6:55 Indeed, My flesh is truly food,
and My blood is truly drink.

John 6:56 He who continually eats My flesh
and drinks My blood
stays with Me, and I with him.

*This discussion centers around Passover.
It was during the Pesach (Passover) meal
that YAHUSHUA instructed His students*

concerning His body and His blood
as the basis for a New Covenant.

John 6:57 Just as 'The Living Father' has sent Me
and I am living because of The Father, even so, he who continually eats Me
will live because of Me.

John 6:58 This is the bread
which was coming down from The Heaven,
not according to how your fathers
ate the manna and are dead.
He who continually eats this bread
will live forever."

The concept is that of being continually fed
by The Messiah and His Word.
We are to "consume it continually."

John 6:59 These things He said in the assembly
as He taught in Kafar'nahum.

sunagoge – an assemblage of persons;
specially, a Yisra'elite synagogue
(the meeting or the place);
an assembly. – assembly,
congregation, synagogue.

There were no 'churches'
among the Yisra'elites.
They always refer
to their gatherings as assemblies.

Historically YAHWEH
has referred to His people as an assembly.
The concept of a "church" is misleading.

John 6:60 Therefore many of His students having been listening said,
"This is a hard saying.
Who can hear it?"

John 6:61 Now YAHUSHUA,
understanding within Himself
that His students were grumbling concerning this,
said to them, "Does this trip you up?

skandalizo – to entrap, i.e. trip up (figuratively, stumble) – offend.

John 6:62 What if therefore you should observe The Son of Man ascending
where He was previously?

John 6:63 It is The Divine Nature of YAHWEH that is giving life!
The flesh is useful
for not even one thing.
The matters that I am telling you are Divine Nature
and they are life.

YAHUSHUA's teaching,
His instructions,
are here made equivalent
to The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
and to life.
This is because He is only teaching
what The Father instructed Him to say.

It is The Divine nature of YAHWEH
that gives life
- both the physical life
and eternal life.

John 6:64 But there are some of you who are not trusting."

Indeed, YAHUSHUA knew
from the beginning
who they were who were not trusting
and who would betray Him.

John 6:65 And He said,
"Because of this I have said to you that not even one is able to come to Me unless it would have been given to him
by My Father."

John 6:66 Concerning this many of His students went back and walked with Him no longer.

They were not willing to accept what The Messiah taught them plainly.

This is a very typical response.
Many refuse to accept the truth of what He teaches
- even today, when we have many tools by which to verify His teachings.

John 6:67 Therefore YAHUSHUA
said to the twelve,

“Do you not also desire to go away?”

John 6:68 But Shim'on Peter responded to Him, “Master, to whom will we go?

You have the message of Eternal Life!

John 6:69 And we believe and know that You are The Messiah,
The Son of The Living Elohim!”

John 6:70 YAHUSHUA responded to them,
“Have I not chosen you, the twelve?
Yet one of you is a liar?”

John 6:71 He spoke of Yahudah of Iscariot,
the son of Shim'on,
because it was he who would betray Him,
being one of the twelve.

Judas is Greek for Yahudah
which means YAH be praised.
Iscariot means strong city.

Chapter 7

John 7:1 And after these things
YAHUSHUA walked about in The Galil.
Indeed, He did not desire to be walking about in Yahudah
because the Yisra'elite leaders were seeking to kill Him.

John 7:2 Now the Yisra'elites' Feast of Sukkot was near.

sukkot means booths.
This is normally called
the Feast Of Tabernacles.
Tabernacle means
a dwelling place, a tent.

John 7:3 Therefore His brothers said to Him, “Depart from here and go into Yahudah
in order that Your students also may observe the works
which You are doing.

John 7:4 Indeed,
no one does something in secret
while he himself seeks to be out spoken.
If You are going to do these things,
render Yourself apparent to the world.”

John 7:5 Indeed,
not even even His brothers trusted in Him.

John 7:6 Then YAHUSHUA said to them,
“My time is not yet here,
but your time is always ready.

John 7:7 The world is not able to detest you.
But it detests Me

because I give witness concerning it,
that its works are hurtful.

John 7:8 You go up to this feast.
I am not yet going up to this feast
because My time has not yet been fulfilled.”

John 7:9 Then, having said these things to them,
He remained in The Galil.

John 7:10 But after His brothers went up then He also went up to the feast, not openly, but rather, as in secret.

John 7:11 Therefore the Yisra'elite leaders were seeking Him at the feast and said, "Where is He?"

John 7:12 And there was much grumbling among the people concerning Him. On the one hand, some said that He is good. But others said "No, on the contrary. He is deceiving the crowd."

goggusmos – a grumbling.
- grudging, murmuring.
Murmuring is not pleasing to YAHWEH.
He destroyed many
of the children of Yisra'el
in the wilderness
after they came out of Egypt
because of this activity.

John 7:13 However, no one was speaking openly concerning Him because of the fear of the Yisra'elite leaders.

John 7:14 Now it already being about the middle of the feast, YAHUSHUA went up into The Temple. And He was teaching.

John 7:15 And the Yisra'elite leaders marveled saying, "How does this One understand writings, not having learned?"

John 7:16 YAHUSHUA responded to them and He said, "My instruction is not Mine, but His Who has sent Me.

John 7:17 If anyone desires to do His will he will know concerning the instruction, whether it is from YAHWEH or whether I speak from Myself.

John 7:18 He who is speaking from himself is seeking his own honor. But He who is seeking the honor of The One Who has sent Him is true, and no injustice is in Him.

doxa – glory, honor.
The term signifies an opinion
or estimate of something,
and the honor resulting from such an opinion.

It's translated as dignity,
glory, honor, praise, and worship.
Generally, if you think in terms
of honor or praise you will be close.

John 7:19 Did not Moshe give The Torah to you? Yet not even one of you is keeping The Torah. Why are you seeking to kill Me?"

torah - The hebrew word comes from a root meaning to instruct, to teach.

Traditionally it's referred to as "The Law".
However, if you read
the first five books of The Old Covenant (generally considered to be "The Torah") you'll quickly see
that there is a great deal
that has nothing to do with "law",
but has everything to do with instruction.

John 7:20 The crowd responded and said,
“You have an unclean nature.
Who is seeking to kill You?”

Typically called a demon,
it is more accurately
an "unclean nature"
- a disembodied entity
with a hurtful nature.
This term will be used
in place of "demon".

John 7:21 YAHUSHUA responded.
And He said to them,
“I have done one work and you all marvel.

John 7:22 Because of this
Moshe gave you circumcision (not that it is from Moshe, but rather, from The Father)
and on The Sabbath Day
you circumcise a human being.

John 7:23 If a human being receives circumcision on The Sabbath Day in order that The Torah of Moshe might not be broken
are you angry at Me
because I have made a human being completely healthy on The Sabbath Day?

John 7:24 Do not judge according to appearance,
but instead, judge with just judgment.”

krino - distinguish, decide.

John 7:25 Accordingly,
some from Yerushalaim said,
“Is this not He

whom they are seeking to kill?

John 7:26 Yet behold!

He is speaking boldly
yet they are saying nothing to Him.
Perhaps the rulers indeed know that this is truly The Messiah.

John 7:27 On the other hand,
we recognize where this One is from.
But when The Messiah comes not even one knows where He is from.”

John 7:28 Then YAHUSHUA cried aloud
as He was teaching in The Temple.

And He said, “Indeed, you know Me!

And you know where I am from!

And I did not come by Myself!

On the contrary,

He Who sent Me is truthful,

Whom you do not know.

John 7:29 But I know Him

because I am from beside Him!

And He has set Me apart!”

apostello – set apart,
i.e. (by implication) to send out (properly on a mission).
It's the term
from which we get “apostle”.

Note that He states
He is “from beside Him”,
not merely from Him.
The reference is to a separation,
a setting apart, from The Father.
It is a most profound statement.

John 7:30 Therefore,
they were seeking to seize Him.
But not even one laid a hand upon Him
because His hour had not yet come.

John 7:31 And many from the crowd trusted in Him.

And they said that,
"When The Messiah comes will He do more signs
than what this One has done?"

John 7:32 The Pharisees heard the crowd grumbling
concerning these things
and the Pharisees and the chief priests
sent assistants to seize Him.

Here we see who is seeking to harm The Messiah
and those who follow His Instruction.
This verse accurately identifies them
as The Pharisees
and the chief priests of The Temple.
These are the ones
traditionally referred to as "The Jews" in many passages.

That reference is very misleading.
YAHUSHUA was a "Jew" (Yahudean).

John 7:33 Accordingly, YAHUSHUA said to them,
"I am with you a little while longer.
Yet I am going to Him Who has sent Me.
John 7:34 You will seek for Me,
yet you will not find Me.
And where I exist you are not able to come."

John 7:35 Then the Yisra'elite leaders
said among themselves,
"Where does He intend to go
that we will not find Him?
Does He intend to go to the dispersion
among the Greeks and teach the Greeks?
John 7:36 What saying is this of which He said,
"You will seek for Me, yet will not find Me.
And where I exist you are not able to come'?"

John 7:37 Now on the last day,
the great day of the feast,
YAHUSHUA stood.
And He cried aloud saying,
"If anyone thirsts
let him come to Me and drink.
John 7:38 He who is trusting in Me,
just as The Scripture has said,
out of his heart
will flow streams of living water!"
There is a Hebrew tradition practised
on the last day of the feast
in which flowing water is involved.
This statement ties directly to that event
and has great significance
among the Hebrews.

John 7:39 Now this He spoke concerning
The Set Apart Divine Nature
which those trusting in Him would receive,
because The Set Apart Divine Nature
had not yet been given because YAHUSHUA had not yet been rendered magnificent.

John 7:40 Therefore many from the crowd,
having heard this saying said,
"Truly this is The Prophet!"
John 7:41 Others said,
"This is The Messiah!"
But some said,
"Will The Messiah come from The Galil?
John 7:42 Has not The Scripture said that The Messiah comes from the seed of David and from the town of Bayit Lechem where David was?"
David means beloved.

Bayit Lechem
means house of bread
or house of food.

John 7:43 Accordingly there was a division
among the people because of Him.

John 7:44 Now some of them wanted to seize Him
but not even one laid hands on Him.

John 7:45 Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees,
who said to them,

“Why have you not brought Him?”

John 7:46 The officers responded,

“Not even at any time
has a person ever spoken like this person!”

John 7:47 Then the Pharisees responded to them,
“Are you also deceived?”

John 7:48 Have any from the rulers
or from the Pharisees trusted in Him?

John 7:49 On the contrary, this crowd which does not know The Torah is cursed.”

John 7:50 Nicodemus, he who had come to YAHUSHUA by night,
being one of them said to them,

John 7:51 “Our Torah does not condemn a person
prior to having heard him
and having known what he is doing.”

John 7:52 They responded and said to him,
“Are you not also from The Galil?”

Investigate and pay attention,
because no prophet arises from The Galil.”

John 7:53 And everyone went to his house.

Chapter 8

John 8:1 But YAHUSHUA
went to the Mount of Olives.

Note the odd placement
of the chapter break;
these were not in the original text,
but are for reference only.
A more logical break
is between these two statements.

John 8:2 Now early in the morning
He arrived once more at The Temple.
And all the people were coming to Him.
And He sat down.
And He was teaching them.

John 8:3 Then the scribes and the Pharisees
brought to Him a woman caught in adultery.

caught - Lit. – taken down

And when they had stood her in the middle

John 8:4 they said to Him,

“Teacher, this woman was caught in adultery,
in the very act.

John 8:5 Now Moshe, in The Torah, instructed us that such should be stoned.
Therefore, what do You say?”

John 8:6 They said this testing Him
in order that they might have something of which to accuse Him.

Then YAHUSHUA, having bent down,
wrote with a finger on the ground,
acting as if He did not hear.

An accusation is really a legal matter.
It resulted in a formal charge against someone for a violation of a law.
They were seeking
a legal reason to kill Him.

Apparently a portion of text is missing,
so a concluding thought is added
according to someone's assumption.

John 8:7 Now when they continued asking Him
He raised up, saying to them,
"The one of you who is without offense throw the first stone at her!"

John 8:8 And once more He bent down
and wrote on the ground.

John 8:9 Then those having heard,
being admonished by conscience,
went out one by one,
beginning with the oldest until the last.

And YAHUSHUA was left alone,
and the woman was standing in the middle.

John 8:10 Then YAHUSHUA, having raised up and having seen not even one except the woman, said to her, "Woman,
where are those accusers of yours?
Has not even one condemned you?"

John 8:11 Then she said, "Not even one, Master."
Then YAHUSHUA said to her,

"Neither do I condemn you.
Go!
But offend no longer!"

John 8:12 Then YAHUSHUA
spoke to them again,
saying, "I am The Light of the world.
He who accompanies Me
will never walk about in the dark,
but instead will have the light of Life."

John 8:13 The Pharisees therefore said to Him,
"You are giving witness concerning Yourself.
Your evidence given is not true."

John 8:14 YAHUSHUA responded.

And He said to them,
"Even if I give witness concerning Myself
My evidence is true
because I know from where I have come
and where I am going.
But you do not know where I come from
and where I am going.

John 8:15 You judge according to the flesh.
I judge not even one.

John 8:16 Now even if I do judge,
My judgment is true
because I am not alone,
but rather, it is I
and The Father Who has sent Me.

John 8:17 Now it is also written in your Torah that the evidence given
by two persons is true.

John 8:18 I am One
Who is giving witness concerning Myself,
and The Father, Who has sent Me,
gives witness concerning Me."

Note: This is important.

There is no reference
to any "third person"
(The Holy Spirit by tradition).
There are only
two witnesses, not three.

When Scripture is studied very carefully
it is clear there is no "third person"
referred to by tradition as "The Holy Spirit".
"The Holy Spirit" is The divine Nature itself!

Remember,
this is The Son of YAHWEH speaking!
Everything He speaks is The Truth!

John 8:19 Then they said to Him,
“Where is Your Father?”
YAHUSHUA responded,
“You know neither Me nor My Father.
If you had known Me
you would have known My Father also.”

John 8:20 These words
YAHUSHUA spoke in the treasury
as He was teaching in The Temple.
Yet not even one seized Him
because His hour had not yet come.

John 8:21 Then YAHUSHUA
said to them once more,
“I am going away.
And you will be seeking Me,
yet you will die in your offenses.
Where I am going
you are not able to come.”

John 8:22 Therefore the Yisra'elite leaders said,
“Will He kill Himself because He says,
‘Where I am going
you are not able to come’?”

John 8:23 And He said to them,
“You are from beneath.
I am from above.
You are from this world.
I am not from this world.

John 8:24 Therefore I said to you that you will die in your offenses.
Indeed, if you do not believe that I am He
you will die in your offenses.”

The reference here
is to being from above,
not being from this earth.
It follows from the flow of the text.

Traditionally "I am He" is inserted.
But this is NOT
what is implied by the text.
Verse 28 confirms this assertion.

John 8:25 Therefore, they said to Him,
“Who are You?”
And YAHUSHUA said to them,
“Even the One I have been telling you
from the beginning.

John 8:26 I have much to say
and to judge concerning you.
However, He Who has sent Me is true.
alethes - true (as not concealing).
This term comes from two others
that mean not hidden or concealed.

And I speak to the world those things which I have heard from Him.”

John 8:27 They did not understand that He spoke to them
concerning The Father.

John 8:28 Therefore YAHUSHUA said to them,
“When you lift up The Son of Man then you will know that I am He!
And I do not even one thing by Myself.
But on the contrary,
just as My Father has taught Me,
these things I speak.

John 8:29 And He Who has sent Me is with Me.
The Father has not left Me alone
because at all times I am doing
those things that are pleasing to Him.”

John 8:30 As He was speaking these words
many trusted in Him.

John 8:31 Therefore YAHUSHUA said
to those Yisra'elites who trusted in Him,

“If you continue in My word
you are indeed My students.

John 8:32 And you will know The Truth
and The Truth will liberate you.”

*eleutheroo – to liberate;
i.e. (figuratively) to exempt
(from moral, ceremonial or mortal liability).
Note the concept of “exempt”.*

Knowing The Truth exempts one from the requirement of death
that accompanies ALL rejection of YAHWEH's Torah (Instruction).

John 8:33 They responded to Him,
“We are Abraham’s descendants.

And we have never been in bondage to anyone.

How do You say, ‘You will be liberated’?”

Abraham means father of a multitude.

John 8:34 YAHUSHUA responded to them,

“Most assuredly I say to you,
anyone who commits an offense
is a slave of offenses.

John 8:35 Now a servant does not remain
in the household forever.

A son remains forever.

John 8:36 Therefore, if the Son liberates you,
you will be liberated indeed.

John 8:37 I understand that you are Abraham’s descendants.

However, you are seeking to kill Me
because My word has no place within you.

John 8:38 I am speaking of what I observe
according to My Father
and you, therefore, are doing what you have observed
according to your father.”

John 8:39 They responded.

And they said to Him,

“Abraham is our father.”

YAHUSHUA said to them,

“If you were Abraham’s seed
you would be doing the works of Abraham.

John 8:40 But now you are seeking to kill Me,
a person Who has told you The Truth
which I heard from YAHWEH.

Abraham did not do this.

John 8:41 You are doing
the deeds of your father.”

Then they said to Him,

“We were not born from fornication.

We have one Father, The Elohim!”

*‘The Elohim’ is used here because the use of the Name, YAHWEH, had been forbidden
by the priesthood at this time.
It was not used in daily conversations.*

*They would have used Elohim,
the same way “G-d”
or Adonai or Ha-Shem
is used by the Yisra'elites today.
Each of these replaces YAHWEH in the text.*

This is a “tradition of men”
that violates
the very Word of YAHWEH!
It is detestable!

John 8:42 YAHUSHUA said to them,
“If The Elohim were your Father
you would love Me because I have come and am present from The Elohim.
Indeed, I have not come by Myself,
but on the contrary,
He Himself has sent Me.

John 8:43 Why do you
not understand My speech?
Because you are not able to hear My word.

John 8:44 You are of your father,
The False Accuser,
and the desires of your father
you desire to do!
He was a murderer from the beginning and He does not stand in The Truth
because there is no truth in him.
When he speaks a lie
he speaks from himself
because he is a liar and the father of it!
*diabolos - a traducer; specially Satan.
A traducer is a false accuser.
It's used as a title for Lucifer here.*

John 8:45 But because I tell the truth
you do not trust Me!

John 8:46 Which of you admonishes Me concerning an offense?
And if I am telling the truth
why do you not trust Me?

John 8:47 He who is of YAHWEH hears YAHWEH's words.
Because of this you do not hear,
because you are not of YAHWEH.”

John 8:48 Then the Yisra'elite leaders
responded, and they said to Him, “Do we not well say that You are a Shomeronite
and have an unclean nature”
John 8:49 YAHUSHUA responded,
“I do not have an unclean nature.
But on the contrary, I honor My Father.
But you dishonor Me.
John 8:50 And I do not seek My honor.
There is One Who is seeking and judging.

John 8:51 Most assuredly I say to you,
if anyone protects My word
he will not experience death
into eternity!”

John 8:52 Then the Yisra'elite leaders said to Him,
“Now we know that You have a defiled nature!
Abraham is dead, also the prophets.
Yet You say, ‘If anyone protects My word
he will not taste death into eternity.’

John 8:53 Are You greater
than our father Abraham who is dead?
Even the prophets are dead?

Who are You making Yourself to be?”

John 8:54 YAHUSHUA responded,
“If I honor Myself My honor is nothing.
It is My Father Who honors Me,
of Whom you say that He is your Elohim,
John 8:55 yet you have not known Him.
But I have seen Him.
And if I say, ‘I have not seen Him.’

I will be a liar, like you.
But I have seen Him
and I protect His word!

eido is the Greek word used here.
It means to see.

Most translations use "know",
but it is in the sense of perception,
not knowledge itself.
The term is not the same as the one used in the first line,
which is ginosko, to know.

John 8:56 Your father, Abraham,
jumped for joy in order to see My day.
And he has seen it and rejoiced!"

John 8:57 Then the Yisra'elite leaders
said to Him,

"You are not yet fifty years old,
and have You seen Abraham?"

John 8:58 YAHUSHUA said to them,

"Most assuredly I say to you,
before Abraham was created
I was existing!"

NOTE: This is very different from traditional texts.
The verbs used express creation
and existence.

John 8:59 Therefore they took up stones
to throw at Him.

But YAHUSHUA concealed Himself.
And He went out from The Temple,
having gone through the midst of them.
Even in this manner He passed over.

Chapter 9

John 9:1 And having passed over
He saw a person blind from birth.

John 9:2 And His students asked Him saying,

"Rabbi, who has offended,
this one or his parents,

in order that he was born blind?"

John 9:3 YAHUSHUA responded,

"Neither this one
nor his parents have offended.

On the contrary,

it is in order that the works of YAHWEH
might be rendered apparent in him.

John 9:4 I must work the works
of Him Who has sent Me

as long as it is day.

Night is coming

when not even one is able to be working.

John 9:5 While I am in the world,
I am The Light of the World."

Ultimately, YAHWEH
is The Light of the world.

YAHUSHUA, Who was representing Him,
became The Light of the world
while He was in it in human form.

John 9:6 Having said these things
He spit upon the ground.

And He made clay from the saliva.

And He smeared over the eyes
of the blind one with the clay.

John 9:7 Then He said to him, "Go!
Wash in the pool of Shiloah!"

(Which is translated, to send away.)

And therefore he went.

And he washed.

And he came seeing.

John 9:8 Therefore the neighbors
and those who previously had observed that he was blind said, “Is not this one he who was sitting and begging?”
9:9 Some said, “This is he.”
Others, “He is like him.”
He said, “I am he.”

John 9:10 Therefore they said to him,
“How have your eyes been opened?”

John 9:11 He responded and said,
“A person called YAHUSHUA made clay.
And He smeared over my eyes.
Then He said to me,
‘Go to the pool of Shiloah and wash.’
So I went and washed.
And I recovered sight.”

Lit. – looked up

John 9:12 Then they said to him, “Where is He?”
He said, “I do not know.”

John 9:13 They brought him who previously had been blind
before the Pharisees.

John 9:14 Now it was a Sabbath
when YAHUSHUA made the clay
and opened his eyes.

John 9:15 Then once more the Pharisees also asked him
how he had recovered sight.

Then he said to them,
“He put clay over my eyes.
And I washed.

And I see.”

*You'll notice that these statements
are separated into discreet sentences.
This is contrary to traditional translations.
This is done to preserve a sense of the Hebraic character of the text.*

YAHWEH is very specific in His Word.

*Each act, each word,
or phrase has its purpose.
In The Old Covenant text
this becomes abundantly clear.
In the Greek New Covenant
the lines have been blurred
by changing the text into Greek.
This text seeks to restore the Hebrew character of the text
where it can reasonably be done.*

John 9:16 Therefore some of the Pharisees said,
“This person is not from The Elohim because He does not protect The Sabbath.”

Others said,

“How can a man who is an offender
do such signs?”

And there was a division among them.

tereo – to guard (from loss or injury)
properly, by keeping the eye upon.
To watch or observe
in a protective fashion.*

John 9:17 They said to the blind once more,
“What do you say concerning Him
because He has opened your eyes?”

Then he said that, “He is a prophet.”

*Take note of the text.
There is no punctuation
in the original text.
The "quotes" are a later insertion.
The text indicates that this is not truly a quotation,
but rather a suggested quotation.
This occurs in other places also.*

John 9:18 Accordingly the Yisra'elite leaders
did not believe concerning him
that he had been blind
and had recovered his sight
until they called the parents of him
who had recovered his sight.
John 9:19 And they asked them saying,
"Is this your son
whom you say was born blind?
How then does he now see?"
John 9:20 His parents responded to them and said, "We know that this is our son
and that he was born blind.
John 9:21 Now by what means he now sees
we do not know,
and who has opened his eyes
we do not know.
He is mature.
Ask him.
He will speak for himself."

John 9:22 His parents said these things
because they feared the Yisra'elite leaders.
Indeed, the Yisra'elite leaders
had already agreed that if anyone might acknowledge Him as The Messiah
he would be excommunicated.
John 9:23 Because of this his parents said,
"He is mature.
Ask him."

John 9:24 Therefore afterwards
they called the person who had been blind.
And they said to him,
"Give praise to The Elohim!
We perceive that this person is an offender."
John 9:25 He responded and said,
"If He is an offender I do not perceive it.
One thing I perceive,
that I have been blind.
Right now I am seeing."

John 9:26 But they said to him again,
"What did He do to you?
How did He open your eyes?"
John 9:27 He responded to them,
"I have already told you,
yet you were not listening.
Why do you want to hear it again?
Do you also want to become His students?"

John 9:28 Then they reproached him and said,
"You are His student
but we are students of Moshe.
John 9:29 We understand that The Elohim spoke to Moshe
but we do not understand where this one is from."
John 9:30 The man responded.
And he said to them,
"Indeed, in this is a marvelous thing
that you do not understand where He is from,
yet He has opened my eyes!
John 9:31 Now we understand that The Elohim
does not listen to offenders.
On the other hand,
if anyone reveres The Elohim
and might be doing His will
He listens to him.
John 9:32 From the beginning of the age
it has not been heard that anyone has opened the eyes
of one who was born blind."

John 9:33 If this one was not beside The Elohim
He is able to be doing not even one thing.”

John 9:34 They responded.
And they said to him,
“You have been entirely born in offenses,
yet are you teaching us?”
And they threw him out.

John 9:35 YAHUSHUA had heard that they had thrown him out.
And when He had found him
He said to him,
“Do you believe in The Son of YAHWEH?”

John 9:36 He responded and said,
“Who is He, Master,
in order that I might believe in Him?”

John 9:37 And YAHUSHUA said to him,
“You have both seen Him
and it is He who is talking with you.”

John 9:38 Then he said, “Master, I believe!”
And he worshiped Him.

John 9:39 And YAHUSHUA said,
“For the sake of judgment
I have come into this world
in order that those who do not see might see
and that those who see might become blind.”

John 9:40 And those from the Pharisees
who were with Him heard these words.
And they said to Him,
“We are not also blind.”

John 9:41 YAHUSHUA said to them,
“If you were blind
you would have no offense.
But now you say, ‘We see.’
Therefore your offense remains.

Chapter 10

John 10:1 Most assuredly I say to you,
he who is not entering the sheepfold
through the entrance,
but instead goes up from elsewhere,
that one is a thief and a robber.

John 10:2 But he who is entering in
through the entrance
is the shepherd of the sheep.

John 10:3 To him the doorkeeper opens.
And the sheep hear his voice.

And he calls his own sheep by name.
And he leads them out.

John 10:4 And when he brings out his own sheep
he goes in front of them.

And the sheep accompany him
because they recognize his voice.

John 10:5 Now another
they will not accompany
but rather will run away from him
because they do not recognize the voice of others.”

John 10:6 YAHUSHUA spoke this parable
but they did not comprehend
what He was telling them.

John 10:7 Therefore YAHUSHUA
said to them again,

“Most assuredly I say to you,
I am the entrance for the sheep.

John 10:8 All who have come before Me
are thieves and robbers.

However, the sheep did not listen to them.
John 10:9 I am the entrance.
If anyone enters through Me
he will be rescued.
And he will go in and go out and find pasture.

John 10:10 The thief does not come except to steal,
and to slaughter,
and to fully destroy.

I have come in order
that they may have Life,
and might have it superabundantly!

John 10:11 I am the good shepherd.
The good shepherd gives His life
for the sake of the sheep.

John 10:12 But one who is a hired servant,
and not the shepherd
for whom the sheep are not his own watches the wolf coming.
And he leaves the sheep.
And he runs away.
And the wolf seizes the sheep.
And it scatters the sheep.

John 10:13 The hired servant runs away
because he is a hired servant
and is not concerned about the sheep.

John 10:14 I am the good shepherd.
And I know My sheep!
And I am known by My own.

John 10:15 Just as The Father knows Me,
I also know The Father.
And I lay down My life
for the sake of the sheep.

John 10:16 And other sheep I have
which are not from this flock.
Them also I must lead.
And they will listen to My voice.
And there will become one flock
with one shepherd.

John 10:17 Because of this
My Father loves Me,
because I lay down My life
in order that I might receive it once more.
John 10:18 Not even one takes it away from Me.
On the contrary, I lay it down by Myself.
I have authority to lay it down.
And I have authority to receive it again.
This directive
I have received from My Father.”

John 10:19 There became a division therefore once more among the Yisra'elite leaders
because of these sayings.

John 10:20 Now many of them said,
“He has an unclean nature
and is a raving maniac.
Why are you listening to Him?”

John 10:21 Others said,
“These are not the words
of one who has an unclean nature.
Can an unclean nature
open the eyes of the blind?”

John 10:22 Now it was The Feast of Dedication
in Yerushalaim.

And it was the rainy season.
John 10:23 And YAHUSHUA was walking about in The Temple, in Shelomoh's porch.

Shelomoh means peaceableness.

John 10:24 Accordingly, the Yisra'elite leaders
surrounded Him and said to Him,
"How long will You keep our lives in suspense?
If You are The Messiah tell us bluntly!"

psuche – breath, i.e. spirit,
abstractly or concretely.
- heart, life, mind, spirit.

There is great confusion
about the spirit/soul issue.

Psuche has become "psyche" in English.

Few comprehend what this is.

Scripturally - there is no 'soul'.

In Genesis, The Elohim
"breathed into Adam the breath of life,
and he became a living being,"

He was "created in the image of The Elohim".

The Elohim is Divine Nature,

He is not soul! (John 4:24)

Thus, being created in His image,
and in His likeness,
Adam was of the same nature.

John 10:25 He responded to them,
"I have told you, yet you do not believe.
The works that I am doing
in My Father's Name,
they testify concerning Me.

John 10:26 But you do not believe because you are not of My sheep,
just as I have said to you.

John 10:27 My sheep listen to My voice.
And I know them.

And they accompany Me.

John 10:28 And I am giving to them Eternal Life.

And they will not ever
be completely destroyed.

Neither will anyone
seize them out of My hand.

harpazo – to seize. – catch (away, up),
pluck, pull, take (by force).

It's a derivative of a term
that means "to take for oneself."
This term is often used to mean
"the rapture", or "snatching away".

However, there is no "rapture".

The concept of a "rapture

is a false teaching

that cannot be validated by Scripture.

John 10:29 My Father, Who gives them to Me,
is greater than everything.

And not even one is able to seize them
from My Father's hand.

John 10:30 I and The Father are one."

"One" is a metaphor for union.

The Father and The Son

are united in word and in action.

Note what is not here!

There is NO mention
of a 'third person'!

John 10:31 Then the Yisra'elite leaders picked up stones once more
in order to stone Him.

John 10:32 YAHUSHUA responded to them,
"Many good works I have shown to you
from My Father.

Because of which of those works
are you stoning Me?”
John 10:33 The Yisra'elite leaders
responded to Him saying, “Concerning a good work
we are not stoning You,
but rather, concerning blasphemy;
even because You, being a human being,
make Yourself The Elohim.”

John 10:34 YAHUSHUA responded to them,
“Is it not written in your Torah,
“I said, ‘You are elohim.’” ?
(Ex. 7:1, Ps. 82:6)

John 10:35 If He called them elohim
to whom The Word of The Elohim came,
and The Scripture
is not able to be destroyed,
John 10:36 are you saying of Him
Whom The Father has consecrated and has sent out into the world,
‘You are blaspheming!’
because I said,
‘I am the Son of The Elohim?’

John 10:37 If I am not doing
the works of My Father do not trust Me.
John 10:38 But if I am doing them,
even if you do not believe Me believe the works
in order that you may know and believe that The Father is in Me, and I am in Him.”

John 10:39 Therefore they were seeking once more to seize Him.
But He went out from their hand.
John 10:40 And He went away once more beyond The Yarden to the place where Yahnathan was first baptizing.
And there He stayed.
Yarden means their descent.

John 10:41 Then many came to Him and said, “Yahnathan did no sign,
but everything whatsoever that Yahnathan spoke concerning this person was true.”
John 10:42 And many trusted in Him in that place.

Chapter 11

John 11:1 Now one was sick,
El'azar of BayitAny,
the town of Miryam and her sister Martha.
El'azar means El is helper.
His name in Greek is Lazarus.
BayitAny means date house.
Miryam means their rebellion.
Martha means she was rebellious.

John 11:2 Now it was Miryam
who had anointed The Master with myrrh
and was wiping His feet with her hair
whose brother, El'azar, was sick.
John 11:3 Therefore the sisters
sent to Him saying, “Master, behold!
He whom You love is sick.”
John 11:4 Then YAHUSHUA, having heard, said, “This infirmity is not unto death,
but rather for the sake
of the honor of YAHWEH,
in order that The Son of YAHWEH might be honored through this.”

John 11:5 Now YAHUSHUA loved Martha,
and her sister, and El'azar.

John 11:6 However,
having heard how sick he was,
He even stayed two more days
in the place where He was.

There is much speculation
on the meaning of this action.
Why did He stay two more days?
If El'azar did not die
he could not be raised up again
as a sign of YAHWEH's
power over death.

John 11:7 Then after this
He said to the students,
“Let us go to Yahudah again.”

John 11:8 The students said to Him, “Rabbi,
the Yisra'elite leaders just sought to stone You.
Then are You going there again?”

John 11:9 YAHUSHUA responded,
“Are there not twelve hours in the day?
If anyone might walk in the day
he does not trip

because he sees the light of this world.
John 11:10 But if one walks in the night he trips
because there is no light in him.”

John 11:11 Having said these things
then after this He said to them,
“Our friend El'azar sleeps,
but I am going that I might awaken him.”

John 11:12 Therefore His students said,
“Master, if he sleeps he will be delivered.”

John 11:13 Now YAHUSHUA was speaking concerning his death.

But they thought that He had spoken concerning resting by sleep.

John 11:14 Then YAHUSHUA
said to them frankly,

“El'azar is dead.
John 11:15 And I am glad for your sakes
that I was not there,
in order that you might believe.
Nevertheless, let us go to him.”

John 11:16 Then Ta'om, who is called the Twin,
said to his fellow students, “Let us also go
in order that we might die with Him.”

Ta'om means a twin.
In Greek it is Thomas.

John 11:17 Accordingly, YAHUSHUA having come found he had already been in the tomb four days
four days.

John 11:18 Now BayitAny was near Yerushalaim,
about two miles away.

John 11:19 And many of the Yisra'elites
were coming to Martha and Miryam
to comfort them concerning their brother.

John 11:20 Now Martha,
as soon as she had heard that YAHUSHUA was coming,
went to meet Him.

But Miryam was sitting in the house.

John 11:21 Then Martha said to YAHUSHUA,
“Master, if You had been here
my brother would not have died.

John 11:22 However, even now I understand that whatever You ask YAHWEH,
YAHWEH will give to You.”

John 11:23 YAHUSHUA said to her,
“Your brother will be raised up.”

John 11:24 Martha said to Him,
“I understand that he will be raised up in the resurrection at the last day.”

Lit. – resurrection is ‘standing up again’.

John 11:25 YAHUSHUA said to her,
“I am the resurrection and The Life!
He who is trusting in Me,
even if he might have died, will live.

John 11:26 And anyone who is living and trusting in Me will never die.
Do you believe this?”

John 11:27 She said to Him, “Yes, Master!
I trust that You are The Messiah,
The Son of YAHWEH,
Who is coming into the world.”

John 11:28 And having said these things
she went aside and privately called Miryam,
her sister, saying,

“The Teacher is here and is calling for you.”

John 11:29 As soon as she heard
she rose up quickly and went to Him.

John 11:30 Now YAHUSHUA had not yet gone into the town,
but rather was in the place
where Martha had met Him.

John 11:31 Then the Yisra'elites who were with her in the house
and comforting her,
having seen that Miryam rose up quickly
and went out, accompanied her saying,
“She is going to the tomb to weep there.”

John 11:32 Then as Miryam had come to the place YAHUSHUA was,
having seen Him she fell down at His feet,
saying to Him,
“Master, if You had been here
my brother would not have died.”

John 11:33 As YAHUSHUA therefore saw her weeping and the Yisra'elites
who came with her weeping
He was deeply moved in The Divine Nature
and was stirred up in Himself.

John 11:34 And He said,
“Where have you laid him?”
They said to Him, “Master, come and see.”

John 11:35 YAHUSHUA wept.

John 11:36 Then the Yisra'elites said,
“Behold how He loved him!”

John 11:37 And some of them said,
“Was this one not able,
Who opened the eyes of the blind
also to have made it
so this one might not have died?”

John 11:38 Then YAHUSHUA, once more deeply moved within Himself,
came to the tomb.
It was a cave.

And a stone rested over it.

John 11:39 YAHUSHUA said,
“Lift up the stone!”

Martha, the sister of him who died,
said to Him, “Master, already he is stinking
because he has been dead four days.”

John 11:40 YAHUSHUA said to her,
“Did I not say to you that if you would trust

you would see the magnificence of YAHWEH?”

John 11:41 Then they lifted up the stone
where the dead was lying.
And YAHUSHUA raised His eyes upward.
And He said,
“Father, I thank You that You have heard Me.
John 11:42 Now I understand that You always hear Me.
Nevertheless, because of the crowd
which is standing by I have spoken in order that they might believe
that You have sent Me.”

John 11:43 And having said these things,
He cried out with a loud voice,
“El'azar! Come out here!”
John 11:44 And he who was dead came out being bound hand and foot with grave clothes
and his face was wrapped with a towel.
YAHUSHUA said to them,
“Loose him and let him go!”
To appreciate more fully what takes place
one needs to realize El'azar
did not "walk" out of the tomb
He came out fully bound hand and foot,
still tightly wrapped in his grave cloths.

John 11:45 Then many of the Yisra'elites who had come to Mary and had seen the things YAHUSHUA did trusted in Him.
John 11:46 But some of them
went aside to the Pharisees
and told them what YAHUSHUA had done.
John 11:47 Then the chief priests
and the Pharisees convened a Sanhedrin.
And they said, “What are we to do because this person works many signs?
The Sanhedrin was the religious council.
To convene a meeting
took a significant effort
so this indicates how important
the Pharisees considered this event to be.

John 11:48 If we leave Him this way
everyone will trust in Him.
And the Romans will come and take away even our place
and the nation.”

John 11:49 And one of them,
Caiaphas, being great priest that year,
said to them,
“You understand not even one thing,
Caiaphas means attractive.

John 11:50 nor do you consider that it is expedient for us
that one person should die
for the sake of the people
and not that the whole nation
should be fully destroyed!”

John 11:51 Now he said this not by himself,
but being great priest that year
he prophesied that YAHUSHUA
was about to die for the sake of the nation;
John 11:52 and not for that nation only,
but rather even in order that He might assemble into one
the children of YAHWEH
who were scattered abroad.

John 11:53 Accordingly, from that day on

they consulted together
in order that they might kill Him.

John 11:54 Therefore YAHUSHUA
was no longer walking about openly among the Yisra'elite leaders.
On the contrary,
He went from there into the country
near the wilderness,
to a city called Ephraim.
And He remained there with His students.
Ephraim means double fruit.

John 11:55 Now The Passover
of the Yisra'elites was near.
And many had gone from the country
up to Yerushalaim before the Passover to purify themselves.

John 11:56 Accordingly,
they were seeking YAHUSHUA.
And they spoke among themselves
as they stood in The Temple.
"What do you think,
that He might not come to the feast?"

John 11:57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given an order that if anyone knew where He was he should report it
so that they might seize Him.

Chapter 12

John 12:1 Now six days
before The Passover, YAHUSHUA had come to BayitAny
where El'azar was,
who had been dead,
whom He had raised from being dead.
John 12:2 Then they made Him a supper there,
and Martha served.
Now El'azar was one of those who was sitting at the table with Him.
John 12:3 Then Miryam took
a pound of ointment of genuine spikenard,
extremely valuable,
anointed the feet of YAHUSHUA,
and wiped His feet with her hair.
And the house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment.

John 12:4 Now one of His students, Yahudah of Iscariot, Shim'on's son,
who would betray Him, said, John 12:5 "Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii
and given to the poor?"
John 12:6 Now he said this
not because he was concerned for the poor,
but rather because he was a thief
and had the money bag.
And he lifted up (stole) what was thrown in.

John 12:7 But YAHUSHUA said,
"Let her alone!
She has protected this
for the day of My burial.
John 12:8 Indeed,
the poor you have with you always,
but Me you do not have always."

John 12:9 Now therefore a large crowd of the Yisra'elites knew that He was there.
And they had come,

not because of YAHUSHUA alone,
but rather, in order
that they might also see El'azar
whom He had raised up from being dead.

John 12:10 Now the chief priests deliberated
in order that they might kill El'azar also John 12:11 because on account of him
many of the Yisra'elites were withdrawing and trusting in YAHUSHUA.

John 12:12 The next day a large crowd
which was coming to the feast,
having heard that YAHUSHUA
was coming to Yerushalaim,
John 12:13 was taking branches of palm trees
and were going out to meet Him.
And they cried out, "Hosanna!
*Blessed is He who comes
in the name of YAHWEH!
(Ps. 118:26)

The King of Yisra'el!"

Hosanna means Oh, save now.
The Hebrew form is hoshiana.
It was a custom in Yisra'el
to recognize a new king
in a manner similar to this.

The difference lay in the fact that most newly acclaimed kings
would come in with great pomp
and circumstance,
riding on a large white horse.

YAHUSHUA's entrance
was in stark contrast,
riding upon an immature donkey,
in humility, not arrogance.

John 12:14 Then YAHUSHUA,
having found a young donkey,
sat upon it, just as it is written.
John 12:15 "Fear not, daughter of Zion; Behold! Your King is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt."
(Zech. 9:9)

John 12:16 Now His students
did not know these things at the start.
However,
when YAHUSHUA had been honored
then they remembered that these things
had been written concerning Him
and that they had done these things to Him.

John 12:17 Then the crowd,
having been with Him
when He had called El'azar out of the tomb
and raised him up from being dead,
were bearing witness.
John 12:18 Because of this
the crowd also met with Him because they heard
that He had done this sign.

John 12:19 Then the Pharisees
said among themselves,
"Observe that you are not prevailing
in even one thing.
Behold!
The world has gone after Him!"

John 12:20 Now there were some Greeks among those who were coming up to worship at the feast.

John 12:21 These same ones approached Philip,
who was from Bayit Sayada of The Galil,
and asked him saying,
“Sir, we want to see YAHUSHUA.”

Bayit Sayada means fishing house.

John 12:22 Philip came and told Andrew,
and in turn Andrew and Philip told YAHUSHUA.

John 12:23 Then YAHUSHUA
responded to them saying,
“The hour has come
in order that The Son of Man might be honored.

Note that this response comes as “The Gentiles” come to the feast in Yerushalaim
seeking to see YAHUSHUA.
It is this visit
that triggers this response.
It is presented right in the midst of the rejection of The Messiah
by The Yisra'elite religious leaders and His acceptance by the Gentiles.
As such it speaks extremely loudly!

John 12:24 Most assuredly I say to you,
unless a kernel of grain
falls into the ground and dies
it remains alone.
But if it dies it produces much grain.

John 12:25 He who is fond of his life
will fully destroy it.
And he who is detesting his life in this world
will preserve it into Eternal Life.

John 12:26 If anyone would serve Me
let him accompany Me.
And wherever I am
there will My servant be also.
If anyone would serve Me,
him will The Father honor.

John 12:27 Now My life is troubled.
And what shall I say?
‘Father, deliver Me from this hour’?
On the contrary.
Because of this I have come into this hour.
John 12:28 Father, honor Your Name!”

Then a voice came from The Heaven,
“I have indeed honored it,
and I will honor it again!”

It is His Name, YAHWEH, that is to be honored,
not one of His titles,
and not some
replacement for His Name!

John 12:29 Therefore the crowd standing by and hearing it
said that thunder had happened.
Others said,
“A messenger has spoken to Him.”

John 12:30 YAHUSHUA responded and said,
“This voice did not happen because of Me,
but rather because of you.

John 12:31 Now is the judgment of this world!
Now the ruler of this world will be ejected.

John 12:32 And I, if I am lifted up from the earth,
will draw everyone to Myself.”

John 12:33 Now He said this indicating what sort of death
He was about to die.

John 12:34 The people responded to Him,
“We have heard from The Torah
that The Messiah remains forever.
Yet how do You say that,
‘The Son of Man must be lifted up’?
Who is this Son of Man?”

John 12:35 Then YAHUSHUA said to them,
“A little while longer The Light is with you.
Walk about while you have The Light
in order that darkness does not seize you.
Also, he who walks about in darkness
does not perceive where he is going.
John 12:36 While you have The Light, trust in The Light
in order that you may become children of light.”

These things YAHUSHUA spoke.
And He went aside.
And He was concealed from them.

John 12:37 Even having done
so many signs in front of them
they did not trust in Him, 12:38 in order that the word
of Yeshayah, the prophet,
might be fulfilled which he had spoken,
*“YAHWEH, who has believed our report?
And to whom has the arm of YAHWEH been revealed?”*

(Is. 53:1)

John 12:39 Because of this they could not believe
because Yeshayah said again, John 12:40 *“He has blinded their eyes
and hardened their hearts,
lest they should see with their eyes,
lest they should understand with their hearts
and turn, so that I might heal them.”*

(Is. 6:9-10)

John 12:41 These things Yeshayah had said when he had seen His magnificence
and had spoken concerning Him.

John 12:42 However, in truth,
even among the rulers
many had trusted in Him.
However, because of the Pharisees
they were not acknowledging Him
lest they might be excommunicated.

John 12:43 Indeed, they loved the praise of human beings
more than the praise of YAHWEH.

John 12:44 Then YAHUSHUA
cried out and said, “He who has trust in Me trusts not in Me
but rather in Him Who has sent Me.

John 12:45 And he who sees Me
sees Him Who has sent Me.

To see YAHUSHUA =
to see The Father!
Likewise, to trust in YAHUSHUA
is to trust in YAHWEH,
The One Who sent Him!

These are extremely important statements.
It's virtually impossible for our minds to comprehend the full reality

implied in these statements.

John 12:46 I have come as a Light into the world
in order that anyone who is trusting in Me
might not remain in the darkness.
John 12:47 And if anyone hears My words
yet does not trust
I am not condemning him
because I have not come to condemn the world,
but rather to deliver the world.

John 12:48 He who is rejecting Me
and is not receiving My words
has that which condemns him.
The Word that I have spoken
will condemn him in the last day
John 12:49 because I have not spoken by Myself,
but rather,
The Father Who has sent Me
has given to Me instruction,
what I should send forth
and how I should speak.
John 12:50 And I understand that His instruction is Eternal Life.

Therefore, whatever I speak,
just as the Father tells Me,
in this manner I speak.”

Chapter 13

John 13:1 Now before
The Feast of The Passover
YAHUSHUA knew that His hour had come that He would pass over from this world to The Father.
Having loved His own who were in the world
He loved them to the end.

John 13:2 And dinner having happened,
The Adversary having already put it into the heart of Yahudah Iscariot, Shim'on's son, to betray Him,
John 13:3 YAHUSHUA,
knowing that The Father had given everything into His hands,
and that He had come from YAHWEH
and was going to YAHWEH,
John 13:4 rose from the dinner.

And He laid aside His garments.
And taking a towel He girded Himself.
John 13:5 Next, He poured water into a basin
and began to wash the feet of the students and to wipe them with the towel
with which He was girded.

John 13:6 Then He came to Shim'on Peter.
And he said to Him,
“Master, You are washing the feet.”
John 13:7 YAHUSHUA responded
and said to him,
“What I am doing
you do not understand right now.
But you will comprehend after these things.”
John 13:8 Peter said to Him,
“You will never wash my feet!”
YAHUSHUA responded to him,
“If I do not wash you,
you have no part with Me.”

meros – a division or share.

Often applied in a legal sense connected to an inheritance.

John 13:9 Shim'on Peter said to Him,
"Master, not my feet alone,
but also the hands and the head!"

John 13:10 YAHUSHUA said to him,
"He who has been bathed has no need except to wash the feet,
but instead is completely clean.
And you are clean
but not everyone is."

John 13:11 Indeed, He understood
who would betray Him.
Because of this He said,
"Not everyone is clean."

In Hebrew thought
to be 'clean' is to be undefiled,
and therefore acceptable
in the presence of YAHWEH.
To be 'unclean' is to be defiled,
and forbidden access.

John 13:12 Then when He had washed their feet,
and taken His garments,
and sat down again,
He said to them,
"Do you know what I have done to you?
John 13:13 You call Me Teacher and Master,
and you speak well because I am.
John 13:14 If I then, a Master and Teacher, have washed your feet
you also ought to wash one another's feet.
John 13:15 Indeed,
I have given you an example
in order that you also might do
just as I have done to you.

John 13:16 Most assuredly I say to you,
a servant is not greater than his master.
Neither is he who is sent greater than he who has sent him.

John 13:17 If you understand these things,
happy are you if you do them.

John 13:18 I do not speak
concerning all of you.
I understand whom I have chosen.
But in order that The Scripture,
*'He who eats food with Me
has lifted up his heel against Me.'*
(Ps. 41:9)

might be fulfilled.

John 13:19 From now on I am telling you before it happens in order that when it happens
you may trust that I am He.

He connects the thought
back to His previous statements.

John 13:20 Most assuredly I say to you,
he who accepts whomever I send accepts Me!
And he who accepts Me
accepts Him Who has sent Me."

lambano - to take, to get hold of.
The concept is that of accepting,
receiving, or grabbing onto.

It's important to note that
there is no mention
of a "third person,"
"The Holy Spirit".

There is only discussion of
"Me and Him Who has sent Me."
There is NO "Holy Spirit"!
Scripture does not support this idea!

There is never a separate "name" identified or used regarding "The Holy Spirit"
as a 'person'.

What's 'called' "The Holy Spirit" is actually
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.
It is THIS that comes to reside in a "believer"
at "The New Birth".

John 13:21 YAHUSHUA,
having said these things,
was troubled in His Divine Nature.
And He gave witness.
And He said,
"Most assuredly I say to you,
one of you will betray Me!"

John 13:22 Therefore,
the students looked at one another,
being at a loss concerning
of whom He was speaking.

John 13:23 Now there was leaning on YAHUSHUA's chest
one of His students
whom YAHUSHUA loved.

John 13:24 Shim'on Peter therefore motioned to him
in order that he might inquire who it might possibly be concerning whom He was speaking.

John 13:25 Then that one leaning upon YAHUSHUA's chest,
said to Him, "Master, who is it?"

John 13:26 YAHUSHUA responded,
"It is that one to whom,
having dipped the morsel, I will give it."
And having dipped the morsel
He gave it to Yahudah of Iscariot,
the son of Shim'on.

John 13:27 And after the morsel
The Adversary entered into him.
Therefore YAHUSHUA said to him,
"What you are doing do quickly!"

*Satan means an adversary,
or opponent.*

John 13:28 But no one at the table
knew for what reason
He had said this to him.

John 13:29 Indeed, some thought since Yahudah had the money bag
that YAHUSHUA had said to him,
"Buy what we have need of for the feast.",
or that he should give something to the poor.

John 13:30 Having received the morsel
he then went out immediately.
Now it was night.

John 13:31 Therefore, when he had gone out,
YAHUSHUA said,

"Now The Son of Man is honored
and YAHWEH is honored by Him.

John 13:32 If YAHWEH
has been honored by Him, YAHWEH will also honor Him by Himself,
and will immediately honor Him.

doxazo - to render

(or esteem) glorious.
Glorify is defined as:
to honor or exalt, make magnificent.

It's a term rarely used
in daily language today
and is therefore difficult to grasp.
The concept of honor
is easier to understand.

John 13:33 Little children,
I will be with you a little while longer.
You will seek Me.
And just as I said to the Yisra'elite leaders,
"Where I am going
you are not able to come.",
in the same manner I now say it to you.

John 13:34 A new instruction
I am giving to you,
that you might love one another
just as I have loved you
in order that you also
might love one another.

John 13:35 By this everyone will know that you are My students,
if you have love for one another."

It's important to understand that in the Hebrew mind
love is equated
with loyalty, faithfulness.

John 13:36 Shim'on Peter said to Him,
"Master, where are You going?"
YAHUSHUA responded to him,
"Where I am going
you are not able to accompany Me now.
But you will accompany Me, eventually."
John 13:37 Peter said to Him,
"Master, why am I not able to accompany You right now?
I will lay down my life for Your sake."
John 13:38 YAHUSHUA responded to him,
"Will you lay down your life for My sake?
Most assuredly I say to you,
the rooster will not crow
until you have utterly denied Me three times!

Chapter 14

John 14:1 Do not let your heart be troubled!
You trust in YAHWEH.
Trust also in Me.

John 14:2 In My Father's house
are many residences.
And if it was not so would I have told you
I am going to prepare a place for you?

mone – a staying, i.e. residence
(the act or the place).
The concept is a "place to stay, to live".
In this case it is YAHWEH's "house".

We, apparently, will not have a "house" of our own,
but rather, will stay in His "house"
- as His guests;
or more correctly, as His children.

You will not have a "mansion of your own."
That is a LIE that only serves to feed your own selfishness.

John 14:3 And if I go and prepare a place for you
I will come once more.
And I will take you beside, to Myself,
in order that where I am you may be also.
paralambano – to receive

(or take) near;
associate with oneself.
Lit. - take beside.

John 14:4 And where I am going you understand,
and the way you understand.”

John 14:5 Ta'om said to Him, “Master, we do not understand where You are going.
Then how can we understand the way?”

14:6 YAHUSHUA said to him,
“I am The Way,
The Truth,
and The Life!
Not even one comes to The Father except through Me!

John 14:7 If you had known Me,
you would have known My Father also.
And from now on you know Him
and have experienced Him.”

Once again we see a direct reference to the unity of The Father and The Son,
with absolutely no mention
of "The Holy Spirit".

It there was such a "person"
and "he" was co-equal
with The Father and The Son
it would most certainly be mentioned here in the midst of such important teachings.

John 14:8 Philip said to Him, “Master, show us The Father and it is sufficient for us.”

John 14:9 YAHUSHUA said to him,
“Have I been with you so long,
and yet you have not known Me, Philip?
He who has experienced Me
has experienced The Father.

If there is a "Holy Spirit" as a 'person'
why is it not identified here as well?

And in what way are you saying,
‘Show us the Father.’?

This is a Hebraism, a Hebrew idiom involving the term, horao,
which literally means
to stare at, to see.

John 14:10 Do you not trust
that I exist in The Father,
and The Father exists in Me?
The words that I am speaking to you
I am not speaking from Myself.
And The Father dwelling in Me,
He Himself is doing the works.

The Father does not dwell
within YAHUSHUA in bodily form,
but rather by means of His Divine Nature.
This is the same "indwelling presence"
that comes into the life of a believer
when one is "born again."

It is the pneuma hagion - sacred breath, understood as The Divine Nature.

John 14:11 Believe Me,
that I exist in The Father
and The Father exists in Me!
Otherwise believe Me
because of the works themselves!

John 14:12 Most assuredly I say to you,
one who is trusting in Me,
the works that I am doing he will do also.

And greater than these will he do
because I am going to My Father!

John 14:13 And whatever someone might ask in My Name,
that I will do
in order that The Father
may be honored in the Son!

John 14:14 If you ask anything in My Name
I will do it!

The Greek word used here for "in" is en.
It can mean in, with, by, at, upon, etc.
It denotes a fixed place or time,
something settled and not moving.

onoma - name, title, or character.

This does not mean we are to "use the Name
of The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
(His name is not 'Jesus!')
as some kind of 'magical tool'
to get what we want!

It means we are to ask
with the complete trust, faith, belief,
that He is indeed The Messiah.
It also means we must ask for that which is in agreement with His will!

Will what you are asking honor YAHWEH
- through His Son, YAHUSHUA?

John 14:15 If you love Me
protect My Instructions!

John 14:16 Also, I will ask The Father and He will give to you a different advocate
in order that it might remain with you
into eternity,

parakletos – an intercessor,
consoler. – advocate, comforter.

Occurs four times in John and only once more in 1 John.

NOTE: It does not say
"He will send another person to you."

John 14:17 The Divine Nature of The Truth, which the world is not able to receive
because it does not discern it nor know it.

But you know it because it remains with you
and will be in you.

Literally, "the breath of the truth".

In v. 6 He declares that He is The Truth.
Traditionally translated as "the spirit of truth".
Thus His "breath", His Divine Nature,
is what will remain with the believer
to eternity.

The pronouns used
are third person neuter singular.
This means "it", not he or she.

John 14:18 I will not leave you as orphans!
I will come to you!

Note very carefully what is stated here!
"...it might remain with you..."
"...does not discern it nor know it..."
"...it remains with you and will be in you."
"I will not leave you..."
I will come to you!"
The advocate is YAHUSHUA Himself.

He is, after His ascension,
seated at the right hand of The Father, interceding for us, acting as our advocate.

But His Divine Nature dwells within us.
And The Divine Nature is our "new nature."
We are united with Him.
We are "His body"
- and His "nature" is now our "nature".

There is no separate "person"
(i.e. The Holy Spirit) dwelling in your body.
Verse 20 further confirms this concept.
Verse 23 puts it slightly differently,
but with no mention of a "Holy Spirit".

John 14:19 A little while longer
and the world will see Me no more.
But you will see Me!
Because I live you will live also!
John 14:20 At that day you will know that I exist in My Father,
and you exist in Me,
and I exist in you.

John 14:21 He who has My Instructions
and is protecting them,
this is the one who is loving Me.
And he who is loving Me
will be loved by My Father.
And I will love him.
And I will disclose Myself to him."

John 14:22 Yahudah (not Iscariot) said to Him,
"Master, how is it
that You will disclose Yourself to us
and not to the world?"

John 14:23 YAHUSHUA responded.
And He said to him,
"If anyone is loving Me
he will be protecting My word.
And My Father will love him.
And We will come to him
and make Our home with him.

The term for home is monē,
the same term used
for "residences" in John 14:2 above.
It's a "staying place".

The reference is to
the indwelling Divine Nature,
the new nature,
which "stays" in/with the believer.

Note that there is reference only to two.
And those two are a unity
- which we really do not comprehend.
It is these two that will come to us.
It is these two
Who will make their home with us.
And it is these two
Who are in complete union with each other - literally as "One".
This is in total agreement with Hebrew thought
as expressed in "The Shema":
Deut. 6:4 "Hear, O Israel:
YAHWEH, our God, YAHWEH is one!

YAHUSHUA has just taught His students that He and The Father are ONE!
They are UNITED
- in thought and purpose.
There is, again, no reference to a "third entity"
coming to make "his" home in us.

John 14:24 He who is not loving Me
is not protecting My words.
And the word which you are hearing is not Mine
but rather The Father's,
Who has sent Me.

John 14:25 These things I have spoken to you while I remain with you.

John 14:26 But the advocate, The Set Apart Divine Nature, which The Father will send on account of My Name, will teach you everything and will quietly remind you what I have said to you.

John 14:27 I am leaving peace with you. I am giving My peace to you. I am not giving to you according to how the world gives.

Let not your heart be troubled!
Neither let it be afraid!

eirene - peace; prosperity.
This Greek word is always used to translate the Hebrew term, shalom, which means total well being, far more than just "peace".

John 14:28 You have heard Me say to you, "I am going away and I am coming to you." If you had been loving Me you would have rejoiced because I said, 'I am going to The Father.' because My Father is greater than I.

John 14:29 And now I have told you before it happens in order that when it happens you might believe.

John 14:30 I will no longer talk much with you. Indeed, the ruler of this world is coming.

Yet he has not even one thing in Me.
John 14:31 However, in order that the world might know that I love The Father, and just as The Father has instructed Me, in like manner I am doing.

Arise so we might go from here!

Chapter 15

John 15:1 I am the true vine and My Father is the farmer.
John 15:2 Every branch in Me that is not bearing fruit He removes. And everything that is bearing fruit He cleanses in order that it might bear more fruit.

John 15:3 You are already cleansed because of the word which I have spoken to you.

John 15:4 You are to remain in Me and I in you.

Just as the branch is not able to be bearing fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, neither can you bear fruit unless you remain in Me.

Please note once again what's stated.
"I in you."
He does not say,
"The Holy Spirit in you."
This once again affirms His presence, His Divine Nature, dwelling in the believer.
Note the repeat of this theme in the very next verse.

John 15:5 I am the vine.
You are the branches.

He who remains in Me, and I in him,
that one is bearing much fruit,
because apart from Me
you are able to do not even one thing.

John 15:6 If anyone does not remain in Me
he is thrown out,
even like a shriveled up branch.
And they will gather them
and throw them into the fire.
And they will be burned.

Failing to "remain in" The Messiah
is called apostasy.
It is the willful walking away from what you have previously sworn
you will believe and do.
It will cost you your redemption!
If you ever do it
there is no more sacrifice
to cover your rejection of YAHWEH and His Messiah.

John 15:7 If you will remain in Me and My words will remain in you
you will ask whatever you desire and it will be done for you.

John 15:8 By this My Father is honored, that you bear much fruit
and become My students.

John 15:9 Just as The Father has loved Me
I also have loved you.
Remain in My love!

John 15:10 If you protect My Instructions
you will remain in My love
just as I have protected
My Father's Instructions
and remain in His love.

John 15:11 These things I have spoken to you,
in order that My joy may remain in you,
and that your joy may be full.

John 15:12 This is My Instruction,
that you are to love one another
just as I love you.

John 15:13 Greater love
has not even one than this,
that one lay down one's life
for the sake of his friends.

John 15:14 You are My friends
if you do whatever I am instructing you.

John 15:15 No longer do I call you servants,
because a servant does not understand what his master is doing.
But I have called you friends
because everything that I have heard from My Father
I have made known to you.

John 15:16 You have not chosen Me,
but rather, I have chosen you.
And I have placed you
in order that you might go and bear fruit,
and that your fruit might remain,
in order that whatever you might ask The Father in My Name
He might give you.

John 15:17 These things I instruct you
in order that you will love one another.

John 15:18 If the world detests you,

you know that it detested Me
before it detested you.

John 15:19 If you were from the world
the world might have been loving its own.
Yet because you are not from the world,
but I have chosen you out of the world,
therefore the world is detesting you.

John 15:20 Remember the word that I said to you,
“A servant is not greater than his master.”
If they have persecuted Me
they will also persecute you.
If they have protected My word
they will protect yours also.
John 15:21 And all these things
they will do to you because of My Name because they do not perceive Him Who sent Me.

John 15:22 If I had not come and spoken to them
they would have no offense.
But now they have no excuse
for their offense.

John 15:23 He who detests Me
detests My Father also.

John 15:24 If I had not done among them
the works which no one else has done
they would have no offense.
But now they have seen and also detested
both Me and My Father John 15:25 even in order that the word might be fulfilled
which is written in their Torah,
“They hated Me without a cause.”
(Ps. 35:19)

John 15:26 But when the advocate comes which I will send to you from The Father,
The Divine Nature of Truth,
which proceeds from the Father,
it will give witness concerning Me.
John 15:27 And you also will give witness because you have been with Me
from the beginning.

Chapter 16

John 16:1 These things I have spoken to you
in order that you might not be tripped up.

John 16:2 They will make you excommunicated.
Indeed, the time is coming
that anyone killing you would think he is carrying out a service to YAHWEH.
John 16:3 And these things they will do to you because they have not known
The Father nor Me.

John 16:4 However,
these things I have told you
so that when the time comes you might remember
that I have told you of them.

Now I did not say these things to you
from the beginning,
because I was with you.
John 16:5 But now I am going away
to Him Who has sent Me.
And not even one of you is asking Me,
‘Where are You going?’

John 16:6 But instead,
because I have said these things to you,
sadness has filled your heart.

John 16:7 Nevertheless,
I am telling you the truth.
It is to your advantage that I go away.
Indeed, if I do not go away
the advocate will not come to you.
But if I depart I will send it to you.

John 16:8 And having come it will admonish the world
concerning offenses,
and concerning justification,
and concerning judgment;
John 16:9 concerning offenses
because they are not trusting in Me;
John 16:10 concerning justification
because I am going to My Father
and you will be seeing Me no longer;
John 16:11 concerning judgment
because the ruler of this world is judged.

John 16:12 I still have many things to say to you
but you are not able to bear them right now.

John 16:13 However, when it,
The Divine Nature of The Truth,
comes it will guide you into every truth.
Indeed, it will not speak from itself
but instead,
whatever it might hear it will speak.
And it will announce to you things that are coming.

John 16:14 It will honor Me because it will take from Mine
and announce it to you.
John 16:15 Everything,
as much as The Father has,
is Mine.
Because of this I have said that it will take from Mine
and announce it to you.

John 16:16 A little while
and you will not see Me.
And again a little while
and you will see Me
because I am going to The Father.”
*optomai – to gaze
– with wide-open eyes,
as at something remarkable.*

John 16:17 Then some of His students said to each other,
“What is this that He is saying to us,
'A little while and you will not see Me.
And again a little while and you will see Me.'
and, 'because I am going to The Father.'?”
John 16:18 Therefore they were saying,
“What is this that He is saying,
'A little while'?
We do not understand what He is saying.”

John 16:19 Now YAHUSHUA knew that they desired to ask Him.
And He said to them,
“Are you inquiring among one another concerning that which I have said,
'A little while and you will not see Me.
And again a little while
and you will see Me'?”

16:20 Most assuredly I say to you
that you will weep and mourn,
but the world will rejoice.
And you will be distressed,
but your distress will be made into gladness.

John 16:21 A woman, when she is in labor,
has sadness because her hour has come.
But as soon as she has given birth to the child
she no longer remembers the stress because of gladness that a human being has been born into the world.

John 16:22 And you, therefore,
now indeed have sorrow.
But I will see you again
and your heart will rejoice.
And your joy
not even one will take from you.

John 16:23 And in that day
you will ask Me not even one thing.
Most assuredly I say to you whatever you ask The Father
in My Name He will give to you.

John 16:24 Until now you have asked not even one thing in My Name.
Ask, and you will receive,
in order that your joy may be full!

John 16:25 These things I have spoken to you in parables.
But the time is coming when I will no longer speak to you in parables, but instead,
I will tell you bluntly concerning The Father.

John 16:26 In that day
you will ask in My Name.
And I am not saying to you that I will request of The Father concerning you John 16:27 because The Father Himself loves you because you have loved Me
and have trusted
that I have come forth from YAHWEH.

John 16:28 I have come forth from The Father and have come into the world.
Once more, I am leaving the world
and I am going to The Father.”

John 16:29 His students said to Him,
“Behold!

Now You are speaking bluntly
and are speaking no parable!

John 16:30 Now we understand that You understand everything, and you have no need
that anyone should question You.
By this we believe that You came forth from YAHWEH.”

John 16:31 YAHUSHUA responded to them,
“Do you even now believe?

John 16:32 Indeed, the hour is coming and is now here
in order that you might be scattered,
each one unto his own.
And you will leave Me alone.
Yet I am not alone
because The Father is with Me.

John 16:33 These things I have spoken to you
in order that in Me
you might have well being.
In the world you will have trouble.

However, have courage!
I have overcome the world!"

nikao – to subdue.
– conquer, overcome,
prevail, get the victory.

Chapter 17

John 17:1 Having spoken these words

YAHUSHUA raised up His eyes
toward The Heaven.

And He said, "Father, the hour has arrived.
Honor Your Son

in order that Your Son may also honor You, John 17:2 inasmuch as You have given to Him
all fleshly authority

in order that He might give Eternal Life
to as many as You have given to Him.

John 17:3 Now this is Eternal Life -
that they may know You,
the only true Elohim,
and YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, Whom You have sent!

Elohim is traditionally "God".
Placed in bold to draw your attention to the profound, yet simple essence of Eternal Life.

Note that there is no mention
of "The Holy Spirit".

Only The Elohim and The Messiah
are mentioned.

John 17:4 I have honored You upon the earth.
I have finished the work

which You have given Me to do.

John 17:5 And now, You, Father, honor Me beside Yourself
with the magnificence which I had with You before this world existed.

John 17:6 I have made Your Name apparent to the human beings

whom You have given to Me from the world.

They were Yours.

You gave them to Me.

And they have protected Your word.

John 17:7 Now they have known that everything which You have given to Me is from You

John 17:8 because I have given to them
the words which You have given to Me.

And they have received them.

And they have truly known that I came forth from beside You.

And they have trusted that You sent Me.

John 17:9 I ask concerning them.

I do not ask concerning the world,

but rather concerning those

whom You have given to Me

because they are Yours.

John 17:10 And all of Mine are Yours

and Yours are Mine,

and I am honored by them.

John 17:11 Now I am no longer in the world.

Yet these are in the world.

And I am coming to You.

Set Apart Father, protect by Your Name

those whom You have given to Me

in order that they may exist as one

just as We do.

Once again we see
the issue of unity.
We do not comprehend

this great mystery of union
with YAHWEH Himself
and His Son, YAHUSHUA.

John 17:12 While I was with them in the world
I protected them by Your Name.
Those whom You gave to Me
I have protected.
And none of them is lost
except The Son of Loss
in order that The Scripture might be fulfilled.

appolumi – to destroy fully.
(reflexively, to perish, or lose)

apoleia – ruin or loss.
Typically translated here as “perdition”,
which has virtually no meaning to most today.
It’s a theological reference to “the son of hell”.

The Son of Loss is capitalized
to indicate it is a title of Satan.
It reflects the truth
that those who follow him
end up fully destroyed (or “lost”).

John 17:13 And now I am coming to You.
And these things
I am speaking in the world
in order that they may have My joy fulfilled in themselves.

John 17:14 I have given them Your Word.
And the world has detested them
because they are not from the world,
just as I am not from the world.

John 17:15 I do not ask
that You lift them up out of the world,
but rather that You protect them
from the hurtful.

Many translations try to insert “evil one”.
But there is nothing
to support this insertion.
The concept of being protected from the hurtful covers every aspect of that which is hurtful in the world.
It is sufficient.

John 17:16 They are not from the world
just as I am not from the world.

Note the repetition from v. 14:
Two witnesses.
Note also that the word
is “from”, not “of”.
The world is not
our true place of origin,
nor is it our final home.
YAHWEH is our true source of origin,
and The Heaven is our true home.
We are “sojourners” on earth.

John 17:17 Set them apart by Your Truth.
Your Word is The Truth.

hagiazō – to make holy, i.e.
(Ceremonially) purify or consecrate;
(mentally) to venerate.
- hallow, be holy, sanctify.

Sanctify is a “religious” term.
Few grasp its meaning or its significance.
To be holy is to be set apart
for YAHWEH's service.
Having been set apart (made holy)
one is dedicated to living
as He would have us to live.

John 17:18 As You have sent Me into the world,
I have also sent them into the world.

John 17:19 And for their sakes
I set Myself apart
in order that they may also be set apart by The Truth.

John 17:20 I do not ask
concerning these alone,
but also for those who will be trusting in Me
because of their word

John 17:21 in order that they all may be one,
just as You, Father, are in Me and I in You;
that they also may be one in Us,
in order that the world may believe
that You have sent Me.

Please note the concept of unity
applied to The Father and The Son,
but NOT to "the advocate",
or "the Divine Nature",
normally translated as "The Holy Spirit".
There is no third "person"
identified in this unity!

John 17:22 And the honor which You gave to Me
I have given to them
in order that they may be one just as We are one,

John 17:23 I in them and You in Me,
in order that they
may be made complete into one,
and that the world may know
that You have sent Me,
and have loved them
just as You have loved Me.

The verb, to be, means to exist.
To help you grasp
the meaning in these verses
it may be helpful to think in terms of replacing every "am", are", "be", etc.
with "exist, or exist as".

John 17:24 Father, I desire that they also
whom You have given to Me
may be with Me wherever I am in order that they may behold My honor which You have given to Me because You loved Me
before the foundation of the world.

katabole – a deposition.
Literally, the depositing of or creation of something.

John 17:25 Just Father,
the world has not known You!
But I have known You!
And these have known
that You have sent Me.

John 17:26 And I have made known to them
Your Name.

And I will make it known in order that the love
with which You have loved Me
may be in them,
and I may be in them."

This is a very important statement,
made by The Messiah Himself.
What is to be made known
is the Name of The Father.
That Name is YAHWEH!
For far too long
that Name has been concealed.

As we approach the last days
this Name must once more take center stage.
The implication of "in them"
is the indwelling presence
of the Divine Nature of YAHWEH.
When that happens
this request is fulfilled.

Chapter 18

John 18:1 YAHUSHUA,
having spoken these words,
went out with His students
across The Brook Kidron
where there was a garden
into which He and His students entered.

Kidron means
the mourner; the black one.

John 18:2 And Yahudah, who betrayed Him,
also was aware of the place
because YAHUSHUA
frequently gathered there with His students.

John 18:3 Therefore Yahudah, having received a band
of soldiers and officers
from the chief priests and Pharisees,
came there with lanterns,
torches, and weapons.

John 18:4 YAHUSHUA, therefore,
understanding everything
that would come upon Him,
went out and said to them,
"Whom are you seeking?"

John 18:5 They responded to Him,
"YAHUSHUA of Nazareth."
YAHUSHUA said to them, "I am He!"

Now Yahudah, who betrayed Him,
was also standing with them.

John 18:6 Now as soon as He had said to them, "I am He!"
they drew back and fell to the ground.

John 18:7 Then He asked them once more,
"Whom are you seeking?"

And they said, "YAHUSHUA of Nazareth."

John 18:8 YAHUSHUA responded,
"I have told you that I am He.
Therefore, if you are seeking Me,
let these go their way!",

John 18:9 in order that the saying might be fulfilled which He spoke,
"Of those whom You have given Me
I have lost none."

John 18:10 Then Shim'on Peter,
having a sword, drew it.
And he struck the high priest's slave.
And he cut off his right ear.
The slave's name was Malchus.

Malchus means kingly.

John 18:11 Then YAHUSHUA said to Peter,
"Put your sword into the sheath.
Shall I not drink the cup which My Father has given to Me?"

John 18:12 Then the soldiers,
and the captain,
and the officers of the Yisra'elite leaders arrested YAHUSHUA.
And they bound Him.

John 18:13 And they led Him away
to Hananyah first,
for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas
who was great priest that year.

Hananyah means the favor of YAH.
Annas is the Greek form.

Caiaphas means lush valley.

John 18:14 Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Yisra'elite leaders that it was expedient

that one person should die
for the sake of the people.

John 18:15 Now Shim'on Peter
accompanied YAHUSHUA;
also another student.
That student
was well known to the great priest
and went with YAHUSHUA
into the courtyard of the great priest.

John 18:16 But Peter stood before the door, outside.
Then the other student who was well known to the great priest
went out and spoke to the door keeper.
And he brought Peter in.

John 18:17 Then the female slave
who kept the door said to Peter, “Are you not also
from this person’s students?
He said, “I am not!”

John 18:18 Now the slaves and officers
were standing there
who had made a fire of coals
because it was cold.
And they were warming themselves.
Now Peter was standing with them
and warming himself.

John 18:19 The great priest
then asked YAHUSHUA
concerning His students and concerning His Instruction.

John 18:20 YAHUSHUA responded to him,
“I have spoken publicly to the world.
I have at all times taught in the assembly and in The Temple
where the Yisra’elites always convene.
And in secret

have said not even one thing.

John 18:21 Why do you ask Me?
Ask those who have heard Me
what I have said to them.
Behold!

They understand what I have said.”

John 18:22 And having said these things,
one of the officers who was standing by gave YAHUSHUA a slap
with the palm of his hand saying, “Is this the way You respond
to the great priest?”

John 18:23 YAHUSHUA responded to him,
“If I have spoken harmfully
give evidence concerning the harm,
but if well, why do you strike Me?”

John 18:24 Then Hananyah sent Him bound to Caiaphas, the great priest.

*This poses a bit of confusion for many.
There was more than one “high priest”.
There was actually a group of them.
However, there was only one Great Priest.*

John 18:25 Now Shim'on Peter
was standing and warming himself.
Therefore they said to him,
“You are not also from His students,
are you?”

He denied it and said, “I am not!”

John 18:26 One of the slaves of the great priest,
a relative of him whose ear Peter had cut off,

said, "Did I not see you
in the garden with Him?"
John 18:27 Peter then denied again.
And immediately a rooster crowed.

John 18:28 Then they led YAHUSHUA
from Caiaphas into the Praetorium.
Now it was early morning.
But they themselves
did not go into the Praetorium,
so as not to perhaps be defiled,
but rather in order
that they might eat The Passover.

The Praetorium was a Gentile facility,
the chief magistrate's court.
It was unclean to an Yisra'elite.
If they entered
they would become defiled
and then would not be able to eat The Passover meal,
which was a powerful sign
of Yisra'el's redemption.

The irony of this is overwhelming.

John 18:29 Then Pilate
went out to them and said,
"What criminal charge are you bringing against this human being?"

Pilate means compressed (like a piece of felt).

John 18:30 They responded.
And they said to him,
"If He were not injurious
we would not have delivered Him up to you."

For the sake of recognizing the true nature of this statement,
the same term
that is translated "betrayed"
also means to "deliver up."

John 18:31 Then Pilate said to them,
"You take Him
and judge Him according to your Torah!"
Therefore the Yisra'elite leaders said to him,
"It is not lawful for us
to put anyone to death."

The term for "lawful"
means, literally "it is right".

The power of the death sentence
had been removed from the Yisra'elites
under the Roman conquest.
Legally, they did indeed
not have the "right"
to put anyone to death
under their Law.
The subtle issue
of their actions not being "right"
is not lost.

John 18:32 in order that the saying of YAHUSHUA
might be fulfilled which He had spoken
indicating by what manner of death
He would die.

John 18:33 Then Pilate
entered the Praetorium again.
He called YAHUSHUA. And he said to Him,
"Are You The King of the Yisra'elites?"

John 18:34 YAHUSHUA responded to him,
"Are you speaking for yourself
concerning this,

or did others tell you this concerning Me?"

John 18:35 Pilate responded,
"Am I an Yisra'elite?

Your own nation and the chief priests
have delivered You to me.

What have You done?"

John 18:36 YAHUSHUA responded,
"My realm is not of this world.
If My realm were of this world
My servants would fight
in order that I would not be delivered up to the Yisra'elite leaders.
But at present, My realm is not from here."

basileia - properly, royalty;
i.e. (abstractly) rule,
or (concretely) a realm.

John 18:37 Pilate therefore said to Him,
"Are You a king then?"
YAHUSHUA responded,
"You have said that I am a king.
For the sake of this I was born.
And for the sake of this
I have come into the world
in order that I might be a witness of The Truth.
Everyone who is of The Truth listens to My voice."
John 18:38 Pilate said to Him, "What is truth?"

And having said this he went out again
to the Yisra'elite leaders.
And he said to them,
"I find in Him not even one crime.

John 18:39 But you have a custom that I should release someone to you at The Passover.
Do you therefore want me to release to you
The King of the Yisra'elites?"
John 18:40 Then everyone
shouted again saying,
"Not this one, but rather, Barabbas!"

Barabbas means
son of the father.

Now Barabbas was a thief.

Chapter 19

John 19:1 Then Pilate therefore took and scourged YAHUSHUA.
John 19:2 And the soldiers
twisted a wreath out of thorns,
placing it upon His head,
and they put on Him a purple robe.
stephanos – a wreath,
as a badge of royalty
or as a prize for a public game.
It's the "laurel wreath" as seen in the Greek Olympic games.
John 19:3 Then they said, "Rejoice!
The King of the Yisra'elites!"
And they slapped Him with their hands.

John 19:4 Then Pilate went out again.
And he said to them,
"Behold!
I am bringing Him out to you
in order that you may know that I find no fault in Him."

*This is the second time
he made this statement.*

John 19:5 Then YAHUSHUA came out wearing the wreath of thorns
and the purple robe.
And Pilate said to them,
"Behold the Man!"
*Lit. - the human being
This is a direct parallel to Gen. 3:22.*

YAHWEH used it of Adam
after he had offended.

John 19:6 Therefore, when the chief priests and the officers had seen Him
they cried out saying, "Crucify! Crucify!"
Pilate said to them,
"You take Him and crucify Him,
because I find no fault in Him."

This makes three times
that Pilate declared
there was no fault, or crime,
no reason for death, found in Him.

With the concept of two witnesses
from The Old Covenant
a third witness becomes virtually an absolute testimony
to the innocence of YAHUSHUA.
Because of this those Yisra'elites
will be held accountable
in the day of judgment.

John 19:7 The Yisra'elite leaders
responded to him,
"We have a law.
And according to our law He ought to die
because He has made Himself
The Son of YAHWEH."

John 19:8 Therefore,
when Pilate had heard that saying
he was the more frightened.
19:9 And he went once more into the Praetorium.
And he said to YAHUSHUA,
"Where are You from?"
But YAHUSHUA gave to him no response.

John 19:10 Then Pilate said to Him,
"Are You not speaking to me?
Do You not understand that I have authority to crucify You and authority to release You?"
John 19:11 YAHUSHUA responded,
"You could have no authority at all against Me
unless it had been given to you from above.
Therefore,
the one who delivered Me up to you
has the greater offense."

John 19:12 From then on Pilate sought to release Him.
But the Yisra'elite leaders cried out saying,
"If you let this one go
you are not a friend of The Caesar.
Anyone who is making himself a king
is speaking against The Caesar." John 19:13 Pilate, therefore,
having heard that saying,
brought YAHUSHUA out.
And he sat down upon the judgment seat
in a place called The Pavement,
but in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

Gabbatha means the high place.
Note the editorial addition here
once again.

John 19:14 Now it was the Preparation Day
for The Passover,
now about the sixth hour.
And he said to the Yisra'elite leaders,
"Behold Your King!"

Note the contrast to verse 5.

John 19:15 But they cried out,
"Take Him away!"

Take Him away!
Crucify Him!"

Pilate said to them,
"Shall I crucify your King?"
The chief priests responded,
"We have no king except Caesar!"
John 19:16 Therefore then,
he delivered Him up to them to be crucified.
Then they took YAHUSHUA
beside themselves.
And they led Him away.
John 19:17 And He, carrying His torture stake, went out to a place called
The Place of a Skull,
which is called in Hebrew Golgotha,
stauros – a stake or post
(as set upright), a pole or cross (as an instrument of capital punishment).

The "cross" is not something to be worshipped or glorified.
It is among the most cruel forms of torture
ever devised by human beings.

Sadly, it's been made
into a means of great profit,
thereby becoming an idol in its own right.

Would you hang a beautifully made electric chair or hangman's noose around your neck, or?
Think about it!

Golgotha means place of a skull.
There is a hill just north of the old city of Yerushalaim
that looks like a skull.
This is the place.
It is also referred to as Calvary.

John 19:18 where they crucified Him
and two others with Him, one on either side,
but YAHUSHUA in the middle.

John 19:19 Now Pilate also had written a title.
And he had put it upon the torture stake.
And the writing was,
YAHUSHUA OF NAZARETH
THE KING OF THE YISRA'ELITES.

John 19:20 This title therefore many of the Yisra'elites read because the place
where YAHUSHUA was crucified
was near the city.
And it had been written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin.

John 19:21 Therefore, the chief priests
of the Yisra'elites said to Pilate,
"Do not write, 'The King of the Yisra'elites.'
but rather,
'He said, "I am the King of the Yisra'elites." ' ' "
John 19:22 Pilate responded,
"What I have written I have written."

John 19:23 Then the soldiers,
when they had crucified YAHUSHUA,
took His garments.
And they made four portions,
to each soldier a portion,
and also the tunic.
Now the tunic was without seam,
woven from the top throughout all of it.

John 19:24 They said therefore to each other,
“Let us not tear it but instead cast lots for it whose it will be.”
in order that The Scripture
might be fulfilled which says,
“*They divided My garments among them,
and for My clothing they cast lots.*”
(Ps. 22:18)
Therefore, the soldiers did these things.

John 19:25 Now there was standing by the torture stake of YAHUSHUA
His mother, and His mother's sister, Miryam,
the wife of Clopas, and Miryam Magdalene.
Clopas means my exchanges.
Magdalene means a tower.

John 19:26 YAHUSHUA therefore having seen His mother and the student whom He loved standing beside said to His mother, “Woman, behold your son!”
John 19:27 Then He said to the student,
“Behold your mother!”
And from that hour
that student took her into his own home.
This indicates Yoseph
must have been dead
since there is no reference to him at all.

John 19:28 After this YAHUSHUA,
understanding that all things
were now completed
in order that The Scripture might be fulfilled
said, “I thirst!”

John 19:29 Now a vessel full of vinegar
was sitting there.
And they filled a sponge with vinegar.
And they placed it around hyssop.
And they brought it near His mouth.
John 19:30 Therefore when YAHUSHUA
had received the vinegar
He said, “It is finished!”
And having bowed His head
He gave up the breath.

pneuma - breath.
It is that which is a part of living.
This is what YAHWEH
breathed into Adam
when he became a living being.

Now YAHUSHUA allows it
to pass from Him.
Literally, He surrenders it.
He dies.

John 19:31 Therefore, because it was The Preparation Day,
in order that the bodies
might not remain upon the torture stake
on The Sabbath
(because that Sabbath was a high day),
the Yisra'elite leaders asked Pilate
that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away.

They have just murdered
their promised Messiah,
yet they're more concerned about the “sanctity” of The Sabbath and their own ritual cleanness
than anything else.

John 19:32 Therefore the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who was crucified with Him.

John 19:33 But when they came to YAHUSHUA
and saw that He was already dead
they did not break His legs.

John 19:34 However, one of the soldiers
pierced His side with a spear.
And immediately blood and water came out.

John 19:35 And he who was watching closely has given witness.
And his evidence is truthful.
And he understands
that he is telling the truth
in order that you might believe.

John 19:36 Indeed,
these things have happened
in order that The Scripture might be fulfilled,
"Not one of His bones will be broken."
(Ps. 22:14)

19:37 And again another Scripture says,
"They will look on Him whom they pierced."
(Zech. 12:10)

John 19:38 After this Yoseph of Arimathea,
being a student of YAHUSHUA,
but secretly because of fear of the Yisra'elite leaders,
asked Pilate
in order that he might take away
the body of YAHUSHUA.
And Pilate permitted it.
Therefore he came and picked up
the body of YAHUSHUA.

Arimathea means a high place.

John 19:39 Then Nicodemus also came,
who at the first had come to YAHUSHUA by night,
bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes,
about a hundred pounds.

John 19:40 Then they took
the body of YAHUSHUA.
And they bound it
in strips of linen with the spices
as the custom of the Yisra'elites is to bury.

John 19:41 Now in the place where He was crucified
there was a garden,
and in the garden a new tomb
in which no one had yet been laid.

John 19:42 Therefore, they laid YAHUSHUA there because of the Yisra'elites' Preparation Day,
because the tomb was nearby.

Chapter 20

John 20:1 Now on the first of the Special Sabbath
Miryam Magdalene went to the tomb early,
it being still dark.

And she saw the stone,
it having been taken away from the tomb.

*This refers to a shabbathown,
the Hebrew term for a special sabbath,
or day of rest.*

There were two of these during Passover.

*One was at the very beginning,
the other was seven days later
- and they were not necessarily
on the seventh day of the week.*

*This means they were not
on The Sabbath Day,
which is Saturday.*

It could be any day of the week.

*The first of sabbaton, the Greek term,
Lit. – one or first of the Special Sabbath.
simply refers to the first day
following the Special Sabbath.
This means the resurrection did NOT,*

of necessity, occur on "Sunday".
Indeed, it makes it highly probable
that it did not occur on a "Sunday",
"the first day of the week".

John 20:2 Therefore she ran.
And she came to Shim'on Peter and to the other disciple
whom YAHUSHUA loved.
And she said to them,
"They have taken away The Master from the tomb.
And we do not understand
where they have laid Him."
John 20:3 Peter, therefore, and the other disciple went out.
And they were going to the tomb.
John 20:4 Now they both ran together
yet the other disciple ran more quickly than Peter
and arrived first at the tomb.
John 20:5 And he, bending over,
looked at the linen cloths laid out.
But he did not go in.
John 20:6 Then Shim'on Peter came,
accompanying him.
And he entered into the tomb.
And he looked at the linen cloths laid out,
John 20:7 and the towel
that had been around His head,
not laid out with the linen cloths,
but wrapped together
in one separate place by itself.
John 20:8 Then the other student who had come to the tomb first entered also.
And he saw.
And he believed.

John 20:9 Indeed, they did not yet understand The Scripture
that He must be raised up from being dead.

John 20:10 Then the students departed
once more by themselves.
John 20:11 But Miryam stood outside,
weeping beside the tomb.
Then, as she was weeping,
she leaned over into the tomb.
John 20:12 And she observed
two messengers in white sitting,
one by the head and the other by the feet
where the body of YAHUSHUA had laid.
John 20:13 And they said to her,
"Woman, why are you weeping?"
She said to them,
"Because they have taken away my Master
and I do not understand
where they have laid Him."

kurios - supreme in authority;
i.e. controller, Master.
Could also be interpreted as sovereign.

John 20:14 And having said this
she turned back around.
And she saw YAHUSHUA standing, but she did not recognize
that it was YAHUSHUA.

This is remarkable!
Miryam, who had been
so close to YAHUSHUA,
did not recognize Him!!!
There is a reason for this.
It will be identified later.

John 20:15 YAHUSHUA said to her,
"Woman, why are you weeping?
Whom are you seeking?"
She, thinking that He was the gardener,
said to Him,

“Sir, if You have carried Him away
tell me where You have laid Him
and I will take Him away.”

John 20:16 YAHUSHUA said to her, “Miryam!”
She turned and said to Him, “Rabboni!”
(which is to say, Teacher).
John 20:17 YAHUSHUA said to her,
“Do not touch Me!
Indeed,
I have not yet ascended to My Father.

Now, go to My brothers and say to them,
‘I am going up to My Father and your Father,
and to My Elohim and your Elohim!’ ”

anabaino – to go up.
– arise, ascend, climb, come up, etc.
This term has occurred
many times before
but you’ll notice that in these verses
it traditionally becomes “ascend”.
This fits more politically correctly
into a ‘religious’ context
where ascension
is a buzzword of tradition.

adelphos - a brother
(literally or figuratively).
This did not mean his family members,
but rather,
those who were believers in Him.

John 20:18 Miryam Magdalene went and told the students that she had seen The Master
and He had spoken these things to her.

John 20:19 Then, it being evening
that same day,
being the first of the Special Sabbath
and the doors having been shut
where the students were assembled
because of the fear of the Yisra’elite leaders, YAHUSHUA came.

And He stood in the middle.
And He said to them, “Peace to you!”
Most likely He said “Shalom!”
as the Hebrews regularly did
to one another.

John 20:20 And having said this
He showed them His hands and His side.
Therefore the students rejoiced,
having seen The Master.

John 20:21 Therefore YAHUSHUA
said to them once more,
“Peace to you!
Just as The Father has sent Me,
I also am sending you.”

John 20:22 And having said this,
He breathed upon them.
And He said to them,
“Receive The Set Apart Divine Nature!

Please take note!
He did NOT give them a “person”.
He BREATHED upon them!
He gave them “the breath”
of The Risen Messiah
- His own Divine Nature,
when viewed the way the Hebrews conceive the breath.

Most translations tell you
this is “The Holy Spirit” (set apart Spirit).
If this were a person
would you not see reference made
to another entity being present

with the students of The Messiah?
There is NONE!
There is only
"the breath of The Messiah"
- The New Nature!

John 20:23 Anyone whose offenses
you might forgive,
they are forgiven for them.
Anyone's whose offenses you retain,
they are retained."

John 20:24 Now Ta'om, called the Twin,
one of the twelve,
was not with them when YAHUSHUA came.

John 20:25 The other students
therefore said to him,
"We have seen The Master!"
But he said to them,
"Unless I might see in His hands
the scar of the nails,
and might put my finger into
the scar of the nails,
and might put my hand into His side,
I will not believe!"

John 20:26 And after eight days
His students were once more inside.
And Ta'om was with them.

YAHUSHUA came, the doors being shut,
and was standing in the middle.
And He said, "Peace to you!"

John 20:27 Then He said to Ta'om,
"Bring your finger here and see My hands!
And bring your hand and put it into My side!
Do not be disbelieving,
but rather trusting."

The resurrected Messiah
still bears the marks of His crucifixion.
It appears He will carry them
throughout eternity.
When we see Him we will also see what Ta'om and the others saw.
And we will remember
throughout eternity
what He has done for our sake.

John 20:28 And Ta'om responded and said to Him,
"My Master and my Elohim!"

John 20:29 YAHUSHUA said to him,
"Ta'om, because you have seen Me
you have believed.
Happy are those who have not seen yet have believed."

John 20:30 And YAHUSHUA truly did many other signs in the presence of His students which are not written in this scroll.

biblion – a roll.
- bill, book, scroll, writing
By tradition - "bible".

John 20:31 But these are written
in order that you might believe
that YAHUSHUA is The Messiah,
The Son of YAHWEH,
and that trusting, you might have Life
by means of His Name.

Chapter 21

John 21:1 After these things
YAHUSHUA revealed Himself again
to the students at The Sea of Tiberias.
Now He revealed Himself in this manner.
phaneroo - to render apparent

(literally or figuratively);
to reveal, to be seen.

John 21:2 There were at the same place
Shim'on Peter,
Ta'om, called the Twin,
Nathan'el, of Kana in The Galil,
the sons of Zabidy,
and two other of His students.

Zabidy means
endowed of YAHWEH.

John 21:3 Shim'on Peter said to them,
"I am going fishing."
They said to him,
"We are going with you also."
They went out
and immediately got into the boat
And that night they caught nothing.

This is significant.
Shim'on Peter
is going back to doing
what he was doing previously,
to his old life style.
The others join him.

John 21:4 Now morning having already arrived,
YAHUSHUA was standing on the shore.
However, the students did not recognize
that it was YAHUSHUA.

Note once again that those who had been closest to Him
did not recognize Him!
Astonishing!

John 21:5 Then YAHUSHUA said to them,
"Little children, do you have any food?"
They responded to Him, "No."

John 21:6 Then He said to them,
"Throw the net on the right side of the boat
and you will find some."
So they threw it.

And now they were not able to draw it in
because of the large number of fish.

John 21:7 Therefore that disciple
whom YAHUSHUA loved
said to Peter, "It is The Master!" Now Shim'on Peter,
having heard that it was The Master,
wrapped tightly his outer garment (because he was naked)
and threw himself into the sea.

John 21:8 But the other students came in the boat (Indeed, they were not far from land, but rather, about two hundred cubits.)
dragging the net with the fish.

John 21:9 Then as soon as they had climbed out onto the land
they saw a bed of coals laid out
and fish resting on it, also bread.

John 21:10 YAHUSHUA said to them,
"Bring some of the fish
which you have just caught."

John 21:11 Shim'on Peter went up and dragged the net onto the land
full of large fish,
one hundred and fifty-three.
And as many as there were
the net was not broken.

John 21:12 YAHUSHUA said to them,
"Come! Eat breakfast!"
Yet none of the students dared ask Him,
"Who are You?",
understanding that it was The Master.

It's worth noting that on the several appearances of YAHUSHUA
after His tortured death

His very own special students (and even Mary)
did not recognize Him.

This suggests, at least,
that He was so mutilated by the torture
that He was no longer recognizable to them, physically.
They did seem to recognize
His voice however.

John 21:13 YAHUSHUA then came.
And He took the bread.
And He gave it to them,
and likewise the fish.

John 21:14 This is already the third time
YAHUSHUA has appeared to His students,
having been raised from being dead.

John 21:15 Then when they had eaten
YAHUSHUA said to Shim'on Peter, “Shim'on, son of Yonah, do you love Me more than these?”
He said to Him,
“Yes, Master!
You understand that I love You.”

The first "love"
agapao - to love
(in a social or moral sense).

The second "love"
phileo – to be a friend to (fond of an individual or an object),
i.e. have affection for.

He said to him, “Feed My little lambs.”

John 21:16 He said to him again a second time,
“Shim'on, son of Yonah, do you love Me?”
He said to Him,
“Yes, Master! You understand that I love You.”
He said to him, “Shepherd My sheep.”

The first and second "love"
are repeated in the same order.

John 21:17 He said to him the third time,
“Shim'on, son of Yonah, do you love Me?”
Peter was distressed
because He had said to him the third time,
“Do you love Me?”
And he said to Him,
“Master, You understand all things.
You know that I love You.”
YAHUSHUA said to him,
“Feed My sheep.”

This third time "love" is phileo each time.
Three times Peter denied His Master.
Three times he is challenged in this regard
– and directed to do The Master's work,
in spite of His denials.

The focus on the type
of the “love” involved is significant.
It's not the same in each instance,
though in English it typically appears to be the very same term.

John 21:18 Most assuredly I say to you,
when you were younger you girded yourself.
And you walked about wherever you desired.
But when you have become old
you will extend your hands
and another will gird you and carry you where you do not desire.”

John 21:19 This He spoke indicating by what death
he might honor YAHWEH.

And having spoken this He said to him,
"Accompany Me!"

John 21:20 Then Peter, having turned around,
saw the student whom YAHUSHUA loved accompanying who also had leaned upon His chest at the supper,
who also said,
"Master,
who is the one who is betraying You?"
John 21:21 Peter, seeing this one,
said to YAHUSHUA,
"Then Master, what about this one?"
John 21:22 YAHUSHUA said to him,
"If I desire that he remain until I come
what is it to you?
You accompany Me!"

John 21:23 Therefore, this saying went out among the brothers
that this student would not die.
Yet YAHUSHUA did not say to him
that he would not die,
but rather, "If I desire that he remain until I come,
what is it to you?"

John 21:24 This is the student who gives witness concerning these things
and has written these things.
And we understand that his evidence is true.

John 21:25 Now there are also many other things that YAHUSHUA did,
which if they might be written one by one,
I imagine that not even the world
could contain the scrolls
that might be written.
Amen.

2. Matthew - Mattiyah

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Matt. 1:1 The book of the birth of YAHUSHUA,
The Messiah, a son of David,
a son of Abraham.

genesis - nativity, birth.
iesous, of Hebrew origin (Yahoshua).
Properly, YAHUSHUA.
The word is the same as Joshua in Hebrew
- so why isn't "Jesus"
called Joshua also?
Christos - anointed, i.e. the Messiah,
a title of YAHUSHUA - not the name.
(Note: This should be messias
NOT christos!
Messias is a Greek word
and is the most appropriate word to use here.
huios - "son", inferring kinship
- also translated as child or foal.
It means an offspring in the generic sense,
not a personal child.
David means beloved.
Abraham means
father of a great multitude.

Matt. 1:2 Abraham conceived Yitzhak, Yitzhak conceived Ya'akov,
and Ya'akov conceived Yahudah

and his brothers.

Yitzhak means laughter.

Ya'akov means heel catcher, restrainer.

Yahudah means YAH be praised.

Matt. 1:3 Yahudah conceived Perez
and Zerah by Tamar.

Perez conceived Hezron,
and Hezron conceived Ram.

Perez means divided.

Zerah means a rising of light.

Tamar means a palm tree.

Hezron means enclosed.

Ram means high.

Matt. 1:4 Ram conceived Amminadab.
Amminadab conceived Nahshon,
and Nahshon conceived Salmon.

Amminadab means

my people are willing.

Nahshon means a diviner.

Salmon means image,

resemblance.

Matt. 1:5 Salmon conceived Boaz by Rahab,
Boaz conceived Obed by Ruth,
Obed conceived Yishai,

Boaz means in him is strength.

Rahab means arrogance; breadth.

Obed means serving.

Yishai means he who exists.

This is Jesse.

Matt. 1:6 and Yishai conceived David, the king.
David, the king, conceived Shelomoh
by her who had been the wife of Uriyah.

Shelomoh means peaceableness.

Uriyah means my light is YAH.

Matt. 1:7 Shelomoh conceived Rehob'am, Rehob'am conceived Abiyah,
and Abiyah conceived Asa.

Rehob'am means a people enlarged.

Abiyah means my father is YAH.

Asa means healer.

Matt. 1:8 Asa conceived Yahoshaphat.
Yahoshaphat conceived Yoram,
and Yoram conceived Uzziyah.

Yahoshaphat means YAHWEH is judge.

Yoram means YAHWEH is exalted.

Uzziyah means my strength is YAHWEH.

Matt. 1:9 Uzziyah conceived Yotam.
Yotam conceived Ahaz,
and Ahaz conceived Hizkiyah.

Yotam means YAHWEH is perfect.

Ahaz means possessor.

Hizkiyah means

strengthened by YAHWEH.

Matt. 1:10 Hizkiyah conceived Menashe.
Menashe conceived Amon,
and Amon conceived Yoshiyah.

Menashe means causing to forget.

Amon means to nourish; to be faithful.

Yoshiyah means sustained by YAHWEH.

Matt. 1:11 Yoshiyah conceived Yekonyah
and his brothers about the time
they were carried away to Babylon.

Yekonyah means

YAHWEH will establish.

Babylon means confusion

(by mixing).

Matt. 1:12 Now after they were carried away to Babylon Yekonyah conceived Shealti'el,
and Shealti'el conceived Zerubbabel.

Shealti'el means I have asked of El.

Zerubbabel means

descended from Babylon.

Matt. 1:13 Zerubbabel conceived Abiud.
Abiud conceived Elyakim,
and Elyakim conceived Azor.

Abiud means father of renown.

Elyakim means El will establish.

Azor means helped.

Matt. 1:14 Azor conceived Tzadok, Tzadok conceived Akim,
and Akim conceived Eliud.

Tzadok means to justify.
Akim means without winter.
Eliud means El of majesty.

Matt. 1:15 Eliud conceived Ele'zar, Ele'zar conceived Mattan,
and Mattan conceived Ya'akov.

Ele'zar means El is helper.
Mattan means a gift.
Ya'akov means
heel catcher, restrainer.

Matt. 1:16 And Ya'akov conceived Yoseph,
the husband of Miryam,
from whom was conceived YAHUSHUA,
Who is set forth as The Messiah.

Yoseph means let him add.
Miryam means their rebellion.
(This is translated traditionally as 'Mary'.)
The word for husband
means literally "Miryam's man".

Matt. 1:17 Accordingly, all the generations from Abraham to David
are fourteen generations.
And from David until the captivity in Babylon
are fourteen generations.
And from the captivity in Babylon until The Messiah
are fourteen generations.

Matt. 1:18 Now the birth of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah
was according to this:

Miryam (Mary), indeed His mother,
having become engaged to marry Yoseph,
but before they came together,
was found to have a child in her womb
by means of

The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

This is the first reference in Mattiyah
to what is traditionally translated
"The Holy Spirit".
The Greek wording is pneumatōs agiou.
agios (hagios) means sacred, set apart.
In Hebrew thought, undefiled, pure.
pneuma means breath.

Literally, this phrase means the set apart (consecrated - holy) breath (pneuma),
or "sacred breath".

A thorough study of the terms involved leads to the understanding that there is no "person"
known as the "Holy Spirit".

pneuma is traditionally translated as "spirit",
but this is a Greek concept.
There was no such thing as a "spirit"
in Hebrew thought.

In Hebrew thought it was believed that the breath, or wind of man, represented his innermost being
- his nature, or character.

The breath of YAHWEH, therefore,
was seen as the nature or character
of YAHWEH Himself
- His Divine Nature.

Matt. 1:19 Then Yoseph, her man, being just,
and not wanting to put her to open shame
wanted to privately divorce her.

Yoseph is literally "her man".
*dikaio*s -equitable, fair;
it also means innocent or holy.

Divorce her -
being engaged to someone in Hebrew culture was perceived as already being married.

Thus the concept of divorce
is appropriate.

Matt. 1:20 But while he pondered these things,
behold!

A messenger of YAHWEH
was seen by him in a dream saying,
"Yoseph, son of David, do not be afraid to receive to yourself Miryam as your wife because that which is conceived in her is from
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

idou – imperative – Lo! Behold!

It means "pay attention"
whenever it's used.

aggelos - a messenger,
especially an "angel".

The Greek is pronounced ahn-geh-los,
giving us "angel".

There is no article given in the text
to make this "the angel of YAHWEH."

"was seen by him" -

This is a Hebraism

common in The Old Covenant.

It's often translated as "appeared to him".

It means "was experienced by him".

We really don't know what that means.
It could represent a variety of ways
in which one might "experience" something.
What we do know is that this was in a dream,
not in a physical encounter.

Matt. 1:21 Now she will produce a son.

And you are to call His name YAHUSHUA,
because He will deliver His people
from their offenses."

sozo – save, deliver, or protect.

YAHUSHUA means YAH saves, or deliverers,
YAH being a shortened form of YAHWEH.

This is the proper

Hebrew name of The Messiah

– NOT "Jesus",

which is the English transliteration
of a Greek term, iesous."

Jesus" was never His proper Name.

If the translators were consistent
it would be rendered as "Joshua"
as is done in translating
The Old Covenant name into English.
But even that is not correct.

There is no letter "J"

in Hebrew, Or in Greek.

The letter "J" did not exist
until around 1500 A.D.

Every offense (traditionally 'sin')
is rebellion against the will of YAHWEH.

Rebellion is essentially refusal to follow directions.

It's fundamental form is "selfishness",
putting one's own desires above YAHWEH's desires.

Also, it means to miss the mark,
or the target one is aiming at.

For the Hebrew it meant going off the pathway

YAHWEH had given to them (not following His instructions),
and therefore becoming "lost".

Matt. 1:22 Now all this happened
in order that it might be fulfilled
which was spoken by YAHWEH
by means of the prophet, saying,

The Greek uses hupo, meaning under.

It directly implies

"under the direction of YAHWEH"

YAHWEH is improperly translated

as "the LORD" in most translations).

Matt. 1:23 "Behold!
A virgin will conceive and bear a son,
and they will call His name Immanu'el,"
which is translated, 'El (God) with us'
(Is. 7.14)

El is the shortened form
for "The Elohim" of Genesis 1.1

Matt. 1:24 Then Yoseph,
being fully aroused from sleep,
did as the messenger of YAHWEH
had instructed him.

And he accepted his wife.

Matt. 1:25 And he did not know her carnally
until she had produced her firstborn son.

And he called His name YAHUSHUA.

Chapter 2

Matt. 2:1 Now after YAHUSHUA was born
in Bayit Lechem of Yahudah
in the days of Herod the king, behold!
Magicians from the East came to Yerushalaim

Bayit Lechem means
house of bread; house of food.
Yahudah means land of Yahudah.
Herod means heroic.
magos – from a Hebrew term
for magicians, or sorcerers.
They were considered to be "wise men"
within their own culture.

Matt. 2:2 saying, "Where is He Who has been produced as King of the Yisra'elites, because we have seen His star in the East
and have come to worship Him?"

loudiaios - Yahudean;
i.e. belonging to Yahudah.
Yahudah is the proper Hebrew name
that is traditionally given as "Judah".
It is from "Judah"
that the term "Jew" is derived.
"Jew" is an incorrect designation.

The nation of Yisra'el
was divided into two kingdoms
with Yisra'el as the Northern Kingdom,
and Yahudah as the Southern Kingdom
for many years.
Then Yisra'el was captured
and taken into captivity.
Yahudah remained in the land.
It, in essence, became "Yisra'el"
as we understand it today.

However, even this is misleading.
Many from the Thirteen Tribes
lived in either kingdom.

Levi is the 13th tribe,
but belongs entirely to YAHWEH.
They are not viewed as united
with the rest of the tribes.
The fall of the Northern kingdom therefore included people from many tribes,
including some from Yahudah.

Eventually, Yahudah
went into captivity as well,
taking with them many
from each of the Twelve Tribes,
not just from Yahudah.

To call them all "Jews"
is to label them all as Yahudeans.
This was simply not true.
They were all "Yisra'elites", or, "Hebrews".
Unfortunately, the label "Jew"
has become attached to all of them.

An attempt will be made
to help us remember this reality,
although at times it will be difficult
to keep this in focus.

Matt. 2:3 Now having heard this Herod, the Roman king, was agitated,
and all Yerushalaim with him.
Matt. 2:4 And having gathered together
all the chief priests and scribes of the people
he inquired of them
where The Messiah was to be born.

christos – appears in the Greek text.
It means anointed, i.e. The Messiah,
a description or title
of YAHUSHUA (Jesus).
It is translated, incorrectly,
as “Christ”.
That’s a “transliteration,
not a “translation.

The Hebrews were not looking for a “Christ”,
they were looking for The Messiah.

There’s a separate Greek term
that could have,
and should have, been used here.
It is Messias, meaning messiah,
and should properly be used to describe The Messiah everywhere
that christos appears in the text.

Matt. 2:5 Then they said to him,
“In BayitLechem of Yahudah,
because in this way it is written by the prophet, Matt. 2:6 *“But you, BayitLechem,
in the land of Yahudah,
are not the least
among the rulers of Yahudah,
because out of you will come a ruler
who will shepherd My people Yisra’el.”*
(Mic. 5.2)

Matt. 2:7 Then Herod,
having privately called the magicians,
determined from them
the time the star appeared.

Matt. 2:8 And he sent them
to BayitLechem saying, “Go and search diligently concerning the young child.
And whenever you find Him
bring back word to me
so that I may go and worship Him also.”

Note that the reference is to a child,
not to an infant.

Matt. 2:9 Having listened attentively to the king
they departed.
And behold!

The star which they had seen in the East went before them
until it came and stood above the place where the young child was.

Matt. 2:10 Having seen the star they rejoiced
with exceedingly great joy.

Matt. 2:11 And having come into the house,
they saw the young child
with Miryam, His mother.
And they fell down and worshiped Him.
And having opened their treasures
they presented gifts to Him,
gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Note that they came into a house,

not a stable.
Again the reference is to a young child,
not an infant.

doron - a present,
specifically a sacrifice.

Matt. 2:12 And having been divinely warned
in a dream
that they should not return to Herod,
they departed for their own country
by means of a different way.

Matt. 2:13 Now having departed, behold!
A messenger of YAHWEH
was seen by Yoseph in a dream, saying,
"Arise!
Take the young child and His mother
and run away into Mitsraim.
And stay there until I tell you because Herod will seek the young child
to completely destroy Him."

Mitsraim is Egypt.
Mitsraim is a son of Ham,
son of Noah.

Matt. 2:14 Then he arose.

He took the young child
and His mother by night
and departed for Mitsraim.

Matt. 2:15 And he was there until the death of Herod
in order that it might be fulfilled
which was spoken by YAHWEH
by means of the prophet saying,
"Out of Mitsraim I called My Son."
(Hos 11.1)

Matt. 2:16 Then Herod, having seen that he was mocked by the magicians,
was exceedingly enraged.
And he sent out to murder all the children who were in BayitLechem and in all its borders,
from two years old and down,
according to the time
which he had ascertained from the magicians.

Note carefully what's said.
All the children, not just the males,
under the age of two were murdered.
This means YAHUSHUA
was under the age of two
when the magicians came to visit him.

It was not the night of His birth.
He was not an infant
lying in a manger at this point.
"The Traditions of men"
have LIED TO US!

Matt. 2:17 Then was fulfilled
what was spoken by Yirmyah,
the prophet, saying,

Yirmyah means YAH will elevate.
This is Jeremiah.

Matt. 2:18 "A voice was heard in Ramah.
Lamentation,
weeping, and great mourning.
Rachel weeping for her children,
refusing to be comforted
because they are no more."
(Jer. 31.15)

Ramah means the height.
Rachel means a ewe.

Matt. 2:19 Then, Herod being dead, behold!
A messenger of YAHWEH,
by means of a dream,
was seen by Yoseph in Mitsraim

Matt. 2:20 saying, "Arise!
Take the young child and His mother
and go into the land of Yisra'el
because those who sought
the young child's life are dead."
Matt. 2:21 Then he arose,
took the young child and His mother,
and came into the land of Yisra'el.
Matt. 2:22 But having heard that Archelaus
was reigning over Yahudah
instead of his father, Herod,
he was afraid to go there.

Then, being divinely warned
by means of a dream,
he turned aside into the region of The Galil.
Archelaus means ruling the people.
Galil means a circuit.

Matt. 2:23 And he went and resided in a town called Nazareth
so that it might be fulfilled
which was spoken by the prophets,
"He will be called a Nazarene."
(No reference found.)
Nazareth means a branch; preservation.

Chapter 3

Matt. 3:1 In those days
Yahonathan, the baptizer, appeared publicly proclaiming in the wilderness of Yahudah.
Yahonathan is Hebrew for Jonathan \(John\).
It means YAHWEH shows favor.
kerusso – to herald,
to announce as an official messenger.
Translated as: preach, proclaim, publish.

Matt. 3:2 And he was saying, "Reconsider, because The Kingdom of The Heavens has come near!"
metanoeo – this term is often
translated as "repent".
It means to think differently,
to reconsider, or to change your mind.

Scripturally it is used to suggest
one is to stop what they are doing that violates YAHWEH's teachings
and to begin to live as one of His people,
by faith doing what He desires.

The past tense is used regarding The Kingdom of The Heavens.
It has already arrived
by means of the coming of The Messiah.

This phrase deserves special attention.
YAHUSHUA uses it many times
as He teaches His students.
It's capitalized because there is only one Kingdom of The Heavens
– YAHWEH's Kingdom.
"Heavens" is plural in the Greek.
This seems odd to us until we remember that Paul (Sha'ul) speaks of being caught up to "the third heaven",
implying there are at least three.

Matt. 3:3 Indeed, this is the one spoken of by the prophet, Yeshayah, saying,
*"The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
'Prepare the way of YAHWEH.
Make His paths straight.'"*

(Is 40.3)

The Old Covenant text contains YAHWEH.
It's not referring to The Messiah.

To make one's paths straight meant to eliminate turning to the right or to the left,
thereby leaving the path and becoming lost.
It also means making the path

level and smooth so that travel is easier.

Yeshayah means
YAHWEH has delivered.

Matt. 3:4 Now Yahanathan himself
was clothed in camel's hair
with a leather belt around his hips.
And his food was locusts and natural honey.

Contrary to popular opinion
locusts were probably not bugs.
It was more likely the pods of the locust tree,
from which carob is made.

Matt. 3:5 Then Yerushalaim, all Yahudah,
and all the region surrounding The Yarden went out to him.

Yerushalaim means
complete teaching of well being.
Yarden means descent.

Matt. 3:6 And they were baptized by him
in The Yarden, acknowledging their offenses.

exomologeō – translated as confess, profess, or promise,
but it really means
to acknowledge or agree fully.
To acknowledge is to admit
the truth of one's offenses.
To confess is to admit guilt
for a fault of some kind.

Matt. 3:7 Now having seen many of the Pharisees and Sadducees
coming to his baptism he said to them,
"Offspring of poisonous snakes!
Who has instructed you to flee
from the wrath that is about to come?"

orge - properly, desire (as a reaching forth or excitement of the mind);
violent passion;
by implication punishment.

It's YAHWEH's desire to totally destroy rebellion against His Word.
Whenever you see "wrath"
remember that this is where it comes from.
YAHWEH cannot tolerate "offense"
in His presence.
Hence, it must ultimately
be completely destroyed.
His "desire" (wrath) will accomplish this.

Pharisees means the separated.
Sadducees means the righteous; the just.

Matt. 3:8 Accordingly, produce fruits appropriate to reconsideration.

Matt. 3:9 And do not think to say to yourselves,
'We have Abraham as our father.'

Indeed, I say to you that YAHWEH is able
to raise up children to Abraham
from these stones.

Matt. 3:10 And even now the axe
is laid against the root of the trees.
Assuredly, every tree
which does not bear good fruit
is cut down and thrown into the fire.

Matt. 3:11 I indeed baptize you with water
for the sake of reconsideration.
But He Who is coming after me
is mightier than I,
whose sandals I am not fit to carry.
He will baptize you with
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
and with fire.

Matt. 3:12 His winnowing fork is in His hand

and He will perfectly cleanse
His threshing floor
and gather His grain into the granary.
But He will totally consume the chaff
with unquenchable fire.”

Chaff is worthless waste.

Matt. 3:13 Then YAHUSHUA

came from The Galil
to Yahanathan at The Yarden
to be baptized by him.

Matt. 3:14 Now Yahanathan
strongly hindered Him saying, “I need to be baptized by You,
and are You coming to me?”

Matt. 3:15 But YAHUSHUA responding said to him, “Permit it now, because in this manner it is fitting for us
to fulfill all justification.”

Then he permitted Him.

Permit it now literally means
'leave it alone'.

dikaosune – means equity
of character or act, justification.

It is most often translated as righteousness.

Matt. 3:16 Having been baptized, YAHUSHUA ascended
straight out of the water.

And behold!

The Heavens opened for Him!

And he (Yahanathan) saw

The Divine Nature of YAHWEH

descending like a dove

and coming over Him.

Matt. 3:17 And behold!

A voice from The Heaven was saying,

“This is My beloved Son

in Whom I am well pleased.”

The reference to “The Heaven”
is to the abode of YAHWEH, not merely the sky.

YAHWEH is The Elohim of Genesis 1.1.

With these words The Messiah is identified to Yahanathan, and to us.

Chapter 4

Matt. 4:1 Then YAHUSHUA was led up
by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
into the wilderness

to be tested by The False Accuser.

diabolos – a traducer, or slanderer;
one who speaks badly
or tells lies about someone
so as to damage their reputation
– translated as the devil,
false accuser, slanderer.

The Septuagint uses this term
to translate the Hebrew word, satan,
which means an opponent, adversary.
This is not his name.

His name is Lucifer.
This is merely a title
that identifies his character.

Matt. 4:2 And having fasted forty days
and forty nights,
afterward He was hungry.

Lit. – famished.

Matt. 4.3 And the testing having come to Him,
the false accuser said,

“If You exist as a son of YAHWEH
speak to these stones to become bread.”

There is no article before “son”.
eipon – means speak or say.

The Hebrew word for bread is lechem.
It means food or bread.

Matt. 4:4 But He responded saying,
"It is written.

*'A human being is not to live merely upon bread,
but rather upon every utterance
that proceeds through the mouth of YAHWEH.'*"

(Deut 8.3)

Matt. 4:5 Then The False Accuser
took Him up into the set apart city.
And he stood Him on the pinnacle of The Temple.

A very high point on the Eastern wall of The Temple area from which the Great Priest announced the coming of the new day each morning.
It was several hundred feet
to the ground below.

Matt. 4:6 And he said to Him,
"If You are a son of YAHWEH
throw Yourself down

because indeed it is written,

*"He will give His messengers
charge over you,'*

(Ps. 91.11)

and, 'In their hands they will bear you up lest you dash your foot against a stone.'"

(Ps. 91.12)

Matt. 4:7 YAHUSHUA spoke to him,
"It is written again,

*'You are not to test
YAHWEH, your Elohim.'*"

(Deut. 6.16)

Matt. 4:8 Once more The False Accuser
took Him up up on an exceedingly high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world
and their honor.

kosmos – orderly arrangement, the world,
but may include the universe.
doxa – glory; but also translated as dignity,
honor, praise, worship, etc.

Matt. 4:9 And he said to Him,
"All these things I will give You
if You will fall down and worship me.

Implying they are within his authority.

Matt. 4:10 Then YAHUSHUA said to him,
"Get away, Adversary!

For it is written,

*'You are to worship YAHWEH, your Elohim,
and Him only you are to serve.'*"

(Deut. 5.7, etc.)

Satan means an opponent, adversary.

Matt. 4:11 Then The False Accuser let Him alone.
And behold!

YAH-messengers came and attended to Him.

aggelos - a messenger; especially an angel.
These are messengers sent by YAHWEH,
but the text does not specifically
tell us this is the case.
These would be divine beings.
to distinguish them we'll use YAH-messengers.
This will allow us to distinguish between the messengers of YAHWEH
and those of The Adversary.

Matt. 4:12 Now YAHUSHUA,
having heard that Yahanathan
had been committed to prison,
withdrew into The Galil.

Matt. 4:13 And abandoning Nazareth,
He came and resided in Kafar'nahum,
which is along the sea

within the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali, Kafar'nahum means village of comfort.
This is the proper Hebrew designation.
Traditionally, this is 'Capernaum'.
Zebulun means dwelling.
Naphtali means my wrestling.

Matt. 4:14 in order that it might be fulfilled
which was spoken
by Yeshayah, the prophet, saying,
Matt. 4:15-16

*"The land of Zebulun
and the land of Naphtali,
by the way of the sea
beyond The Yarden,
The Galil of the Gentiles,
the people who sat in darkness,
have seen a great light,
and upon those who sat in the region
and shadow of death light has dawned."*
(Is. 9.1-2)

Matt. 4:17 From that time

YAHUSHUA began to proclaim and to say,
"Reconsider, because The Kingdom of The Heavens is near."

metanoeo - to think differently
or afterwards, i.e. reconsider.
basileia - properly, royalty;
i.e. (abstractly) rule or (concretely) a realm (kingdom).
Many are not familiar with "kingdom"
because they've never had a king.
They do understand the concept of a ruler and the "territory",
either physical or mental,
over which one rules.

Matt. 4:18 And YAHUSHUA,
walking by The Sea of Galil,
saw two brothers,
Shim'on, called Peter,
and Andrew, his brother,
throwing a net into the sea
because they were fishermen.

Shim'on means hearkening,
listening carefully.
Peter means a stone.
Andrew means manly.

Matt. 4:19 And He said to them,
"Come here behind Me

and I will make you fishers of human beings."

Matt. 4:20 Then they immediately left their nets
and accompanied Him.

akoloutheo – to be in the same way with,
i.e. to accompany (specially as a student)
– follow, teach.

YAHUSHUA does not ask us to "follow" Him,
that is, to merely walk behind Him.
Rather, He invites us to accompany Him,
as partners, walking beside Him.

Matt. 4:21 And going forward from there
He saw two other brothers,
Ya'akov, the son of Zabdiy,
and Yahanathan, his brother,
in the boat with Zabdiy, their father,
repairing their nets.

And He called to them.

Zabdiy means giving one.

Matt. 4:22 And immediately they left the boat and their father.

And they accompanied Him.

Matt. 4:23 And YAHUSHUA walked around all The Galil,
teaching in their assemblies,
proclaiming the good news

concerning The Kingdom of The Heavens
and healing every ailment and every disease
among the people.

sunagoge – an assemblage of persons, synagogue.
Note that by analogy this is considered by Strong
to be “a Christian church”.
It’s translated as an assembly,
congregation, or synagogue.

Please fix it in your mind that there is no “church” in The New Covenant.
It is always an “assembly”
of the people of YAHWEH.

In The Old Covenant it was also referred to
as an assembly or congregation,
not a “church”.

Church is a term that was created much later.
It’s a “religious” term
that ought not be in Scripture because it was never used by those who wrote the original text.
It comes from a Dutch word, kurke,
and was never used until around 1200 AD.
euaggelion – a good message, i.e. the gospel.
While often translated as “the gospel”,
do not miss its real meaning.
It literally applies to everything
within The New Covenant writings
- and The Old Covenant as well.
therapeuo – to wait upon meenially,
to adore, to relieve:
– cure, heal, worship.
nosos - a malady
- disease, infirmity, sickness.
Best understood as an ailment;
something wrong with the body.
malakia - softness, i.e. enervation (debility):
- disease.

Matt. 4:24 And awareness of Him
went into all of Syria.
And they brought to Him all the sick people who were afflicted
with various ailments and torments,
and those who were possessed
by unclean natures,
and epileptics, and paralytics.
And He healed them.

akoe – hearing
– translated as audience, ear, fame,
which you heard, hearing,
preached, report, rumor.
Fame is not accurate.
He’s not merely a popular figure.
The awareness of what He was doing is what spread
– by people hearing of His acts
of love and compassion.

Syria means exalted.
Torments literally means tortures.
A “demon” is the same as an unclean nature.
It is a disembodied hurtful entity.

Matt. 4:25 And great crowds
accompanied Him from The Galil,
and Decapolis,
and Yerushalaim,
and Yahudah,
and beyond The Yarden.
Decapolis means ten cities.

Chapter 5

Matt. 5:1 And seeing the crowds,
He went up on a mountain.
And having sat down
His students came near to Him.

mathetes – a learner, pupil – disciple.
Disciple is a “religious” term.
It fails to remind us that we are learners - students.

It implies blind "followers"
which we are not to become.

Matt. 5:2 And He opened His mouth
and taught them saying,

Matt. 5:3 "Happy are those
with a humiliated nature
because theirs is The Kingdom of The Heavens.

makarios - supremely blessed;
by extension, fortunate, well off:
- blessed, happy.
ptochos - crouching; distressed.
The concept is that of humility, not poverty.

Matt. 5:4 Happy are those who grieve
because they will be comforted.

Matt. 5:5 Happy are the respectful
because they will inherit the earth.

praus – mild, humble, meek.
The word has no English equivalent.
The idea is one who is not self-centered
but other-centered.
They respect the value of those around them
– hence are respectful, though even that does not convey the full meaning.

Matt. 5:6 Happy are those who hunger and thirst for justification
because they will be satisfied.

Matt. 5:7 Happy are the compassionate
because they will obtain compassion.

Matt. 5:8 Happy are the pure in heart because they will gaze
with amazement at YAHWEH.

Matt. 5:9 Happy are the peacemakers
because they will be called children of YAHWEH.

Matt. 5:10 Happy are those who are persecuted
for the sake of justification
because theirs is The Kingdom of The Heavens.

This completes a series of blessings which begins and ends
with reference to
The Kingdom of The Heavens.
There are eight blessings in this series.

Matt. 5.11 Happy are you whenever they defame you,
and persecute you,
and say every hurtful thing
against you falsely on account of Me.

Matt. 5:12 Rejoice, even with exceeding joy, because great is your compensation
in The Heavens.

Indeed, in this manner
they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

misthos – pay for service.
– hire, reward, wages.

The concept of a reward in Heaven
is based on a very selfish orientation.
When you do your work and are paid for it
you are not receiving a "reward".
You are being paid
for your labor – compensated.
We are not going to be "rewarded" in Heaven
for doing what we were supposed to do.
The only compensation we might receive will be for doing more than we were supposed to do.

Matt. 5:13 You are the salt of the earth.
But if the salt becomes tasteless
how will it season?
It is then good for nothing except to be thrown out
and trampled underfoot by human beings.

Matt. 5:14 You are the light of the world.
A town that is laid out on a mountain
is not able to be concealed.

Matt. 5:15 Neither do they light a lamp
and put it under a basket,
but instead, on a lampstand,
and it radiates brilliantly
to everyone in the house.

Matt. 5:16 Let your light shine in this manner
before human beings
so that they might see your good works
and honor your Father
Who is in The Heavens.

Matt. 5:17 Do not think that I came to destroy The Torah or The Prophets.
I did not come to destroy them,
but rather to fulfill them.

The Torah and The Prophets
were the entire Scriptures
for the people of that day.
They had nothing else.

The concept of fulfillment
meant to "complete" them,
to cause everything predicted to exist.

Matt. 5:18 Indeed, assuredly, I say to you until the sky and the earth pass away
one jot or one tittle
will by no means perish from The Torah
until everything happens.

These are the smallest punctuation marks
within The Torah and The Prophets.
YAHWEH does nothing without a purpose
and leaves out not even the smallest detail
of what He says.

Matt. 5:19 Whoever therefore destroys
the least one of these Instructions,
and in this manner teaches human beings,
will be called least
in The Kingdom of The Heavens.
But whoever does and teaches them will be called great
in The Kingdom of The Heavens.

Matt. 5:20 Indeed, I say to you
that if your right action
does not exceed the right action of the scribes and Pharisees
you will by no means enter
The Kingdom of The Heavens.

dikaosune – equity, justification
– typically translated as righteousness.

Right action is implied by the comparison to the scribes and Pharisees
who were always flaunting
their "good works"
- thereby trying to justify themselves.

Matt. 5:21 You have heard
that it was said by the aged,
'You are not to murder.'
(Ex. 20.13, Deut. 5.17)
and, 'Whoever murders

will be in danger of the judgment.'
(Ex 21.12-14)

Matt. 5:22 But I say to you
that whoever is angry with his brother
without a reason
will be liable to the judgment!
And whoever says to his brother, 'Raca!'
will be liable to The Sanhedrin.
But whoever says, 'You fool!'
will be liable to the hell of fire.

Raca means worthless one.

The Sanhedrin is The Council of 70
who were the official leaders of Yisra'el.

moros - dull, stupid
- from which comes moron.
geena - of Hebrew origin (H1516 and H2011);
valley of (the son of) Hinnom;
ge-henna (or Ge-Hinnom),
a valley of Yerushalaim,
used as a name for the place (or state)
of everlasting punishment; hell.

Matt. 5:23 Now then,
if you bring your gift to the slaughter site
and there remember that your brother
has something against you,

An "altar" is a place of slaughter
where animals are butchered,
the blood is poured out around the site,
and part of the animal are burned.
It is not a "pretty" place.
Its purpose was to call attention to the need for blood to be shed
in order to "cover"
(make atonement) one's "offenses"
(rebellious acts against The Word of YAHWEH).

Matt. 5:24 leave your gift there before the slaughter site and withdraw.
First be reconciled to your brother
and then come and offer your gift.

Matt. 5:25 Agree with your opponent
without delay
while you are on the way with him
lest your opponent deliver you to the judge,
the judge hand you over to the officer,
and you be thrown into prison.

Matt. 5:26 Assuredly, I say to you,
you will by no means get out of there until you have paid the last penny.

Matt. 5:27 You have heard
that it was said to those of old,
'You are not to commit adultery.'
(Deut. 5.18)

Matt. 5:28 But I say to you
that whoever looks at a woman to strongly desire her
has already committed adultery with her
in his heart!

kardia – the heart, or figuratively
the thoughts or feelings; also, the middle.
One might say, "the center of one's being".

Matt. 5:29 If your right eye
entices you to be tripped up,
tear it out and throw it away from you,
because it is to your advantage
that one of your body parts
might be fully destroyed
rather than for your whole body
to be thrown into hell!

Matt. 5:30 And if your right hand
entices you to stumble,

cut it off and throw it away from you,
because it is to your advantage
that one of your body parts
might be fully destroyed
rather than for your whole body
to be thrown into hell!

Matt. 5:31 It has been said that,
*'Whoever divorces his wife,
let him give her a certificate of divorce.'*
(Deut 24.1-4)

Matt. 5:32 But I say to you
that whoever divorces his wife except for sexual immorality
causes her to commit adultery!
And whoever marries
a woman who is divorced commits adultery.

Matt. 5:33 Again, you have heard
that it was said to those of old,
*'You are not to swear falsely,
but are to perform your oaths to YAHWEH.'*
(Ex. 20.7, Lev. 19.12)

Matt. 5:34 But I say to you,
"Do not swear at all,
neither by The Heaven,
because it is YAHWEH's throne,
Matt. 5:35 nor by the earth,
because it is His footstool,
nor by Yerushalaim,
because it is the city of The Great King!

Matt. 5:36 Neither are you to swear by your head,
because you cannot make
one hair white or black.

Matt. 5:37 But let your word be
'Yes, Yes,' and 'No, No!'
Indeed, whatever is beyond these is from that which is morally wrong."

There is no verb present in the text.

[The "double mention" is a Hebraism.
Whenever such a repetition is made
it is intended to amplify the meaning,
making it emphatic.](#)

Here it means your word is to be absolutely, Yes, or No.

There is no need to add any further qualifications.

[poneros - hurtful, i.e. evil
in effect or influence.](#)

It is effectively moral wrong doing.

Our concept of evil is very different from that of The Hebrews.

For them everything was covered under one term that means "bad".

[It included everything from the slightly bad
to the extremely awful.](#)

[Every such act
represented harm to another.](#)

Matt. 5:38 You have heard that it was said,
'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.' (Lev. 24.19-20)

Matt. 5:39 But I say to you,
Do not resist the morally wrong!
But instead,
whoever strikes you on your right cheek,
turn the other to him also!

Matt. 5:40 If anyone wants to condemn you at law
and take away your shirt,
send him your coat also.

Matt. 5:41 And whoever compels you to go one mile, go with him two!

Matt. 5:42 Give to him who asks you!
And from him who wants to borrow from you do not turn away!

Matt. 5:43 You have heard that it was said,
*'You are to love your neighbor
and hate your enemy.'*
(Lev. 19.18 Deut 23.6)

Matt. 5:44 But I say to you,
"Love those who are hateful!
Speak well of those who curse you!
Do good to those who detest you!
And pray for those who slander you and persecute you Matt. 5:45 in order that you may become children of your Father in The Heavens,
because He makes His sun rise
on the harmful and on the good,
and sends rain on the just and on the unjust!

Matt. 5:46 Indeed,
if you love those who love you
what compensation do you have?
Do not even the tax collectors do the same?
*agapao - to love
(in a social or moral sense).
Love in the Hebrew mind
is not a highly emotional event.
It has more to do with loyalty
than with feelings.*

Matt. 5:47 And if you welcome
your brothers only
what do you do that's superior to others?
Do not even the tax collectors
do in this manner?

Matt. 5:48 You therefore are to be complete, exactly like your Father Who is in The Heavens is complete."
*teleios – complete (mental and moral character, etc.)
– translated as perfect, man of full age.*

*It implies maturity
of all aspects of one's life.
It's root word means the goal
or end which is sought – finished.
It does not mean without fault
because that's impossible for humans.
Coupled with other Scriptural injunctions
it refers to living a "holy" (set apart) life.*

Chapter 6

Matt. 6:1 Be cautious that you do not do your charitable deeds
in front of human beings
to be observed by them.
Otherwise you have no compensation
from your Father Who is in The Heavens.
Matt. 6:2 Therefore,
when you do a charitable deed
do not sound a trumpet blast in front of you exactly like the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets
so that they might be honored by human beings.
Assuredly, I say to you
they have their compensation!
Matt. 6:3 But when you do a charitable deed
do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing Matt. 6:4 in order that your charitable deed
may be concealed.
And your Father
Who sees into what's concealed

will Himself repay you in the open.

Matt. 6:5 And when you pray
you are not to be exactly like the hypocrites!
Indeed, they love to pray
standing in the assemblies
and on the corners of the streets
so that they might be observed by human beings.
Assuredly, I say to you
they have their compensation!
Matt. 6:6 But you, when you pray
go into your closet.
And when you have closed your door
pray to your Father Who is in private.
And your Father
Who sees into the private place
will repay you in the open.

Matt. 6:7 Now when you pray
do not use meaningless repetitions exactly like the Gentiles do because, indeed, they think they will be heard by means of their many words.
Matt. 6:8 Therefore do not become like them!

Indeed, your Father understands the things you have need of before you ask Him.

Matt. 6:9 Pray in this manner therefore:
Our Father Who is in The Heavens,
let Your Name be sanctified!
Matt. 6:10 Let Your rule come!
Let Your will be done upon the earth
as it is done in The Heaven!

NOTE: This is not
a “prayer” you are to use.
On the contrary, it's a formula
or pattern by which to pray.
It sets certain priorities in their proper order.

thelema – a determination, a choice,
purpose, decree, or inclination.
– desire, pleasure, will.

The traditional ways of interpreting this leave out the very essential aspect of the definition - a determination.

YAHWEH's will
is what He has determined.
It's more than mere desire.

Matt. 6:11 Give us this day our daily food!
Matt. 6:12 And forgive us our debts
even as we forgive our debtors!

opheliema – something owed, due;
morally, a fault. – debt.
The debt we owe to YAHWEH
is the “price” required for violating His will,
His determination.
The required penalty is death!

The penalty is “paid in full” – cancelled
– by YAHUSHUA's death,
resurrection, and ascension.
It is the only basis
for our debt being “forgiven”!

aphiemi – to send forth.
It is often translated as forgive,
but there are several other meanings.
Effectively it means to cancel or eliminate,
in this case one's debt owed to YAHWEH
for violating His will.

In the same way He has “forgiven” us
– sending away our debt
– we are to forgive others.
Debt cancelled!

Matt. 6:13 And do not lead us
into difficult trials,
but instead deliver us from the harmful
because Yours is the dominion,
and the power,
and the honor
into the ages!
Amen!

There is no reference to "evil one"
in the Greek text.
We are asking to be delivered from "the harmful" things/acts
we encounter in this world.
If "the evil one" was intended
it should read "the devil", or "Satan".
Note: The imperative mood is used throughout these verses.
It establishes a profound emphasis in each statement.

Matt. 6:14 Indeed, if you forgive human beings
their unintentional errors,
your Heavenly Father will also forgive you.

paraptoma – a side-slip,
an unintentional error
or a willful transgression.
It's translated as fall, fault,
offense, and trespass.

Matt. 6:15 But if you do not forgive human beings
their unintentional errors
neither will your Father forgive your unintentional errors.

Matt. 6:16 Now when you fast
do not become exactly like the hypocrites,
with a mournful appearance.
Indeed, they disfigure their faces
in order that they may appear
to human beings to be fasting.
Assuredly, I say to you
they have their compensation!

Matt. 6:17 But you, when you fast
anoint your head and wash your face, Matt. 6:18 so that you do not appear
to human beings to be fasting,
but rather to your Father
Who is in the private place!
And your Father Who sees in private will repay you openly.

Matt. 6:19 Do not amass for yourselves wealth upon the earth
where moth and corrosion cause to disappear
and where thieves break in and steal.

brosis – eating.
Used as a metaphor for corrosion.

Matt. 6:20 But amass for yourselves wealth in The Heaven,
where neither moth nor corrosion
cause to disappear
and where thieves do not break in and steal.

Matt. 6:21 Indeed, where your wealth is there your heart will be also.

Matt. 6:22 The lamp of the body is the eye.
If therefore your eye is clear
your whole body will be full of illumination.
Matt. 6:23 But if your eye is focused on the harmful
your whole body will be full of darkness.
If therefore the light that is in you is darkness
how great is that darkness!

Matt. 6:24 No one can serve two masters.
Indeed, either he will detest the one
and love the other,
or else he will be loyal to the one

and despise the other.

You are not able to serve YAHWEH
and serve wealth.

kurios – supreme in authority. Master
– translated as God, Lord, master and sir.
This is an example
of the confusing use of this term.
It could say “two lords”.

The use of “lord” has created a great deal of unnecessary deception
in many modern translations.

Matt. 6:25 Because of this I say to you,
do not be anxious concerning your life,
what you will eat or what you will drink;
nor about your body, what you will put on!
Is not life more than food
and the body more than clothing?

psuche – breath,
by implication the 'self'.
This is “the breath of life”
that was breathed into Adam
when he became a living being.

Matt. 6:26 Observe carefully the birds of the air
because they neither sow, nor reap,
nor gather into granaries,
yet your Heavenly Father feeds them.
Are you not of much more value than they?

Matt. 6:27 Which of you by being anxious can add one cubit to his stature?

Matt. 6:28 And why are you anxious about clothing?

Consider carefully the lilies of the field,
in what manner they grow!
They do not work hard.

Neither do they spin.

As in spinning thread to make clothing.
Most of us have lost touch
with this concept in our modern lifestyles.

Matt. 6:29 However, I say to you that not even Shelomoh in all his splendor
was arrayed like one of these.

Matt. 6:30 Now if YAHWEH so clothes
the vegetation of the field,
which exists today,
but tomorrow is thrown into the oven,
will He not much more clothe you,
incredulous ones?

Matt. 6:31 Therefore, do not be anxious saying,

“What will we eat?” or “What will we drink?” or “What will we wear?”

Matt. 6:32 because after all these things
the nations seek.

Indeed, your Heavenly Father understands that you need all these things.

ethnos – a race or a tribe,
especially a foreign one (non-Yisra'elite).
As a non-Yisra'elite
one was considered to be a pagan.
This can be translated as
– Gentile, heathen, nation, people.

Matt. 6:33 But seek first

The Kingdom of YAHWEH

and His justification,

and then all these things will be added to you!

Matt. 6:34 Therefore,

do not be anxious about tomorrow

because tomorrow will be anxious about its own things.

Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

Chapter 7

Matt. 7:1 Condemn not

in order that you be not condemned

Matt. 7:2 because by whatever decision
you condemn you will be condemned,
and with whatever measure you use,
it will be measured to you in return.

Matt. 7:3 Now why do you look at the twig
in your brother's eye
but do not fully observe the beam
in your own eye?

Matt. 7:4 Or how can you say to your brother,
'Let me remove the twig from your eye.'

But behold!

A beam is in your own eye?

Matt. 7:5 Hypocrite!

First remove the beam from your own eye.

And then you will see clearly

to remove the twig from your brother's eye.

Matt. 7:6 Do not give what is sacred to the dogs,
nor throw your pearls in front of swine
lest they trample them under their feet
and turn and tear you into pieces.

hagios – sacred (physically pure,
morally blameless or religious,
ceremonially consecrated)
– translated as holy, most holy, saint.
It means something or someone
set apart for YAHWEH's purposes.

Giving to the dogs
is a metaphor for making defiled.

Matt. 7:7 Ask and it will be given to you!

Seek and you will find!

Knock and it will be opened up to you!

Matt. 7:8 Indeed, everyone who asks receives!

And he who seeks finds!

And to him who knocks it will be opened!

Matt. 7:9 Or, what human being is there among you
who if his son asks for bread
will give him a stone?

Matt. 7:10 Or if he asks for a fish
will he give him a snake?

Matt. 7:11 If you then, being hurtful,
understand how to give
good gifts to your children,
how much more will your Father
Who is in The Heavens
give good things to those who ask Him!

Matt. 7:12 Therefore, everything you desire for human beings to do to you,

do also to them!

Indeed, this is The Torah and The Prophets.

This is "The Golden Rule"
stated slightly differently.

Matt. 7:13 Enter in by the narrow gate because wide is the gate and broad is the path
that leads to ruin or loss,

and there are many who enter through it,

Matt. 7:14 because narrow is the gate

and constricted is the path

which leads to Eternal Life,

and they are very few who find it.

Matt. 7:15 Now be cautious of false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing,

but inside they are ravenous wolves!

Matt. 7:16 You will recognize them by their fruits.

Neither does one gather grapes

off of thorn bushes
or figs off of thistles.
Matt. 7:17 Likewise, every good tree produces good fruit,
but a bad tree produces bad fruit.
Matt. 7:18 A good tree
cannot produce bad fruit,
nor can a bad tree produce good fruit.
Matt. 7:19 Every tree
that does not produce good fruit
is cut down and thrown into the fire.

Matt. 7:20 Truly,
by their fruits you will recognize them.

Matt. 7:21 Not everyone who says to Me,
'Master, Master!'
will enter The Kingdom of The Heavens,
but rather, he who is doing
the will of My Father,
Who is in The Heavens.

Matt. 7:22 Many will say to Me in that day,
'Master, Master!
Have we not prophesied in Your Name,
ejected unclean natures in Your Name,
and done many signs in Your Name?'
Matt. 7:23 Yet then I will declare to them,
'I never knew you!
Depart from Me,
you who practice lawlessness!'

Matt. 7:24 Therefore, everyone that hears
these words of Mine and does them,
I will compare him to a thoughtful man
who built his house upon the rock.
Matt. 7:25 And the rain descended.
The floods came.
And the winds blew.
And they beat on that house.
But it did not fall
because it was erected upon the rock.

Matt. 7:26 Yet everyone that hears these words of Mine
and is not doing them
is to be compared to a stupid man
who built his house upon the sand.
Matt. 7:27 And the rain descended.
The floods came.
And the winds blew.
And they beat on that house.
And it fell.
And great was its fall."

Matt. 7:28 And it happened when YAHUSHUA
had entirely completed these words that the people were astonished concerning His instruction
Matt. 7:29 because it existed
that He taught as one having authority,
and not as the scribes.

Chapter 8

Matt. 8:1 Having come down from the mountain,
great multitudes accompanied Him.
Matt. 8:2 And behold!
A leper came and worshiped Him saying,
"Master, if You desire
You are able to cleanse me."
Matt. 8:3 And YAHUSHUA extended His hand.
And He touched him saying, "I desire it.
Be cleansed!"
And at once his leprosy was cleansed.

A "righteous" Yisra'elite
would never touch an "unclean" leper.
It would cause them to be defiled.

Matt. 8:4 And YAHUSHUA said to him,
"See that you speak to not even one,
but instead withdraw.
Show yourself to the priest
and offer up the gift that Moshe instructed as evidence to them."

Matt. 8:5 Now YAHUSHUA
having entered Kafar'nahum,
a centurion approached Him imploring Him
Matt. 8:6 saying,
"Master, my child is lying at home paralyzed, terribly tormented."
Matt. 8:7 And YAHUSHUA said to him,
"I will come and will heal him."
Matt. 8:8 The centurion answered and said,
"Master, I am not worthy
for You to enter under my roof.
But merely say a word
and my child will be healed.
Matt. 8:9 Indeed,
I also am a person under authority,
having soldiers under me.
And I say to this one, 'Go!' and he goes,
and to another, 'Come!' and he comes,
and to my slave, 'Do this.' and he does it."

Matt. 8:10 Now YAHUSHUA,
having heard it marveled.
And He said to those who accompanied Him,
"Assuredly I say to you,
I have not found trust as vast as this,
not even in Yisra'el!

pistis – persuasion,
credence, moral conviction
– translates as assurance,
belief, believe, faith, fidelity.

Faith means to have complete trust
or confidence in someone or something.
Belief is acceptance
that something is true or exists.
Both concepts require trust.

Matt. 8:11 Now I say to you that many will be present
from east and west.
And they will sit down
with Abraham, Yitzhak, and Ya'akov
in The Kingdom of The Heavens,
Matt. 8:12 but the children of The Kingdom
will be ejected into the outer darkness.
In that place will be lamentation
and grating of the teeth."

Matt. 8:13 Then YAHUSHUA
said to the centurion,
"Go your way,
and as you have trusted
may it happen for you."
And his child was healed
in the very same hour.

Matt. 8:14 And YAHUSHUA,
having come into Peter's house,
saw his wife's mother lying down with a fever.
Matt. 8:15 Then He touched her hand
and the fever left her.
And she arose and waited upon them.

Matt. 8:16 Then, it having become evening,
they brought to Him many who were possessed by unclean natures.

And He ejected the unclean natures
with a word.
And He healed all that had diseases
Matt. 8:17 so that it might be fulfilled
which was spoken
by Yeshayah, the prophet, saying,
“He Himself took our infirmities and bore our sicknesses.”
(Is. 53.4)

Matt. 8:18 Now YAHUSHUA,
having seen great crowds around Him,
ordered them to go across.
Matt. 8:19 And a certain scribe approached
and said to Him,
“Teacher, I will accompany You wherever You go.”
Matt. 8:20 And YAHUSHUA said to him, “Foxes have dens
and birds of the sky have nests,
but The Son of Man
has no place to lay His head.”
Son of Man is idiomatic.
Literally it is - son, or child
of a human being.
It's in direct contrast with “son of God”
(actually YAHWEH, or The Elohim)
or “child of God”.
It remphasizes His humanity
in contrast to His deity.

Matt. 8:21 And a different one of His students said to Him, “Master,
allow me first to go and to bury my father.”
mathetes – a learner, pupil.
Often translated as disciple.

Matt. 8:22 But YAHUSHUA said to him,
“Accompany Me,
and permit the dead to bury their own dead.”

Matt. 8:23 And having entered a boat
His students accompanied Him.
Matt. 8:24 And behold!
A great shaking happened in the sea,
so that the boat was covered under the waves.
But He was asleep.
Matt. 8:25 And His students approached.
And they awakened Him saying,
“Master, save us!
We are perishing!”
Matt. 8:26 Then He said to them,
“Why are you fearful, incredulous ones?”
Then He arose.
And He rebuked the winds and the sea.
And there was a great tranquility.
Matt. 8:27 Then the men marveled saying,
“What sort of being is this that even the winds and the sea
listen attentively to Him?”
'Obedience' is the result
of listening attentively.
It results in doing what you have learned
by listening attentively.
It is not blindly doing
what you are told - obeying.

Matt. 8:28 And having come across the sea
into the area of the Gergesenes
He encountered two who were possessed
by unclean natures coming out of the tombs,
exceedingly dangerous,
so that no one was able to come near that road.
Gergesenes - probably the same as Girgashites,
meaning a stranger drawing near.

Matt. 8:29 And behold!
They cried out saying,
“What have we to do with You, YAHUSHUA,
You Son of YAHWEH?
Have You come here to torture us
before the time?”

Matt. 8:30 Now a good way off from them
there was a herd of many swine feeding.

Matt. 8:31 Then the unclean natures
begged Him saying,
“If You eject us allow us to go away
into the herd of swine.”

Matt. 8:32 And He said to them, “Go away!”
And having come out,
they went into the herd of swine.
And behold!

The whole herd of swine
rushed down the steep bank into the sea
and they died in the water.

Matt. 8:33 Now those who tended them ran away.
And they went away into the town
and announced everything,
even what had happened to the ones
possessed by the unclean natures.

Matt. 8:34 And behold!
The whole town came out to meet YAHUSHUA.
And having seen Him they begged Him
to depart from their region.

*One must wonder about this reaction.
He has just healed two men who were a total threat to the community,
yet they beg Him to leave.
Perhaps it was because of the loss of revenue involved
in the death of the swine.*

Chapter 9

Matt. 9:1 And He got into a boat, crossed over,
and went to His own town.

Matt. 9:2 And behold!
They brought to Him a paralytic
lying upon a bed.
And YAHUSHUA, seeing their trust,
said to the paralytic,
“Child, have courage!
Your offenses are forgiven you.”

Matt. 9:3 And behold!
Some of the scribes said within themselves,
“This one blasphemeth!”

Matt. 9:4 Then YAHUSHUA,
understanding their thoughts, said, “Why do you carefully think of harm in your hearts?

*As opposed to blasphemy,
which is speaking hurtful things of another.*

Matt. 9:5 Indeed, which is easier?
To say, “Your offenses are forgiven you.”
or to say, ‘Arise and walk about’?

Matt. 9:6 Now,
in order that you may understand
that The Son of Man has authority
upon the earth to forgive offenses...”
Then He said to the paralytic, “Arise! Pick up your bed and go to your house!”

*Unfinished statements
are a form of Hebraism.
This occurs often in Hebrew literature.
The ending was left to the listener
to “fill in the blanks”.
Generally it inferred
something very negative would result.*

Matt. 9:7 And he arose.
And he went off to his house.

Matt. 9:8 Now the multitudes
having seen this marveled.
And they honored YAHWEH,
Who had given such authority
to human beings.

Note that the text states this authority
was given to human beings, plural,
not merely to one "man", singular.
This is subtle, but most significant.

Matt. 9:9 And YAHUSHUA,
passing on from there,
saw a person named Mattiyah
sitting at the tax office.
And He said to him, "Accompany Me."
And he arose and accompanied Him.

Mattiyah means gift of YAHWEH.
It is normally given as Matthew.

Matt. 9:10 Now it happened that YAHUSHUA
was sitting at the table in the house.
And behold!

Many tax collectors and offenders came
and sat down with Him and His students.

Matt. 9:11 And the Pharisees, having seen it,
said to His students,

"Why does your teacher eat
with tax collectors and offenders?"

Matt. 9:12 And YAHUSHUA, having heard it,
said to them,

"Those who are strong
have no need of a physician,
but rather, those who are poorly.

Matt. 9:13 Now go learn what this is:

"I desire compassion and not sacrifice."
(Ps. 40.6)

Indeed, I did not come to invite the innocent,
but rather the offenders to reconsideration."

Matt. 9:14 Then the students of Yahanathan came to Him saying,

"Why do we and the Pharisees fast often,
but Your students do not fast?"

Matt. 9:15 And YAHUSHUA said to them,
"The friends of the bridegroom

are not able to mourn
as long as the bridegroom is with them.

But the days will come when the bridegroom
is removed from them, and then they will fast.

apairo – to lift off, remove.
Speaking of lifting off
in relation to The Messiah
is quite interesting.

Matt. 9:16 No one puts a patch of new cloth
upon an old garment because the patch pulls away from the garment
and the gap is made worse.

Matt. 9:17 Neither does one put new wine
into old wineskins.

Otherwise the wineskins break
and the wine runs out,
and the wineskins are ruined.

Instead, they put new wine into new wineskins
and both are preserved."

Matt. 9:18 As He spoke these things to them,
behold!

A ruler came and worshiped Him saying,

"My daughter has just died.

Nevertheless, come,
and lay Your hand upon her,

and she will live.”

archon – a first, in rank or power
– chief, prince, ruler, magistrate.
The context does not provide enough
to know which it was.

Matt. 9:19 And YAHUSHUA arose.
And He accompanied him;
also His students.

Matt. 9:20 And behold!

A woman having had a hemorrhage
for twelve years came from behind.
And she touched the hem of His garment
In Hebrew culture the hem,
or more correctly
the fringe of one's garment,
represented one's authority.
By touching it she was placing herself
under His authority.

Matt. 9:21 because she said to herself,
“If I merely touch His garment
I will be delivered.”

Matt. 9:22 Then YAHUSHUA turned around.
And having seen her He said,
“Have courage, daughter!
Your trust has delivered you.”
And the woman was delivered from that very same hour.

Matt. 9:23 And YAHUSHUA,
having come into the ruler's house
and seeing the flute players
and the disturbed crowd,
Matt. 9:24 said to them, “Make room!
Indeed, the girl is not dead
but rather is sleeping.”
And they laughed scornfully at Him.
Matt. 9:25 But when the crowd
had been ejected
He went in and took her by the hand.
And the girl was raised up.
Matt. 9:26 And the report of this went out into all that land.

Matt. 9:27 And YAHUSHUA
having gone from there,
two blind ones were accompanying Him
crying out and saying,
“Have compassion on us Son of David!”

Matt. 9:28 Now having come into the house,
the blind men approached Him.

And YAHUSHUA said to them,
“Do you believe that I am able to do this?”
They said to Him, “Yes, Master.”

Matt. 9:29 Then He touched their eyes saying,
“According to your belief be it done to you!”

This is an extremely significant statement.
It implies that we receive what we request
based upon the level of our belief (trust).
If our belief is solid and mature
our request will be granted.
This is affirmed by other passages of Scripture.

Matt. 9:30 And their eyes were opened up.
And YAHUSHUA sternly warned them saying,
“See to it that no one knows!”
Matt. 9:31 But having gone out,
they spread the news concerning Him
into all that country.

Matt. 9:32 Now, they having gone out, behold!
They brought to Him a person mute
and possessed by an unclean nature.
Matt. 9:33 And when the unclean nature
had been ejected the mute one spoke.
And the crowds marveled saying,
“This has never been seen in Yisra'el!”

Matt. 9:34 But the Pharisees said, “He ejects unclean natures
by the ruler of the unclean natures.”

Matt. 9:35 Then YAHUSHUA went about all the towns and villages,
teaching in their assemblies,
proclaiming the good news
concerning The Kingdom,
and healing every affliction
and every disease among the people.

Matt. 9:36 Now having seen the crowds
He was moved with compassion concerning them because they were weary and were scattered like sheep
having no shepherd.

Matt. 9:37 Then He said to His students,
“The harvest truly is great
but the laborers are few.

Matt. 9:38 Therefore,
ask The Sovereign of the harvest
to send out laborers
for the sake of His harvest.”

Chapter 10

Matt. 10:1 And having invited
His twelve students to Him,
He gave them authority over unclean natures
to expel them,
and to heal every affliction and every disease.

Matt. 10:2 Now the names of the twelve ambassadors are these:
first, Shim'on, who is called Peter,
and Andrew, his brother,
Ya'akov, the son of Zabdiy,
and Yahonathan, his brother,

Yahonathan is Greek for Yohanan.
It means YAHWEH favored.

apostolos – a delegate, specially,
an ambassador of the good news;
officially a commissioner of The Messiah
(with miraculous powers).

–apostle, messenger, he that is sent.
An ambassador is a personal delegate
of the one who sends them,
with 'legal' abilities not granted to others.
They are official representatives.
This is not considered when speaking of the twelve special students
of The Messiah.

For that reason
the term ambassador is used to cause a rethinking of their position and purpose.

Shim'on is Hebrew for Simeon.

It means he hears.
Peter means a stone.
Andrew means manly.

Ya'akov means
he will take by the heel; restrainer
This is James in Greek.
Zabdiy means gift.

Matt. 10:3 Philip and Bartalmay, Ta'om,
and Mattiyah, the tax collector, Ya'akov,
the son of Alphaeus,
and Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddaeus;

Philip means lover of horses.
Bartalmay means son of ridges.
Ta'om means twin. (Ta'om)
Mattiyah means gift of YAH.
Lebbaeus means a laver.
There is no noted Hebrew origin
for this name.

Thaddaeus means sucking plenty.
There is no noted Hebrew origin
for this name.

Matt. 10:4 Shim'on, the Canaanite,
and Yahudah of Iscariot (who also betrayed Him).

Matt. 10:5 These twelve YAHUSHUA set apart, ordering them saying,
"You are not to go into the way of the Gentiles!
And you are not to enter into a town of the Shomeronites.

ethnos – a race, a tribe,
specially, a foreign one (pagan).
- Gentile, heathen, nation, people.

Gentiles are typically seen as those who do NOT worship YAHWEH.
They were considered by Hebrews
to be "unclean".
They were not even to associate with them
in any meaningful manner.
This teaching was therefore brand new to the Hebrew culture.
YAHWEH was "theirs".
He did not belong
to anyone outside their group.
This identifies why there are certain "ethnic" issues
that show up frequently in the text.
Shomeronites were "corrupted" Hebrews,
worshipping idols,
and therefore considered to be "unclean".
No Hebrew would typically associate with them.
They are traditionally called 'Samaritans'.

Matt. 10:6 But go instead to the lost sheep
of the household of Yisra'el.

Matt. 10:7 Now as you go proclaim, saying,
'The Kingdom of The Heavens is at hand.'

Matt. 10:8 Heal the feeble, cleanse the lepers,
raise up the dead,
expel unclean natures!
Freely you have received.
Freely give!

therapeuo – to wait upon menially,
to adore YAHWEH, or to relieve (of disease)
– cure, heal, worship.
astheneo – to be feeble
– diseased, impotent, sick, weak.

Matt. 10:9 Acquire neither gold, nor silver,
nor copper in your money belts,
Matt. 10:10 nor a leather pouch
for food for your journey,
not even two shirts,
not even sandals,
not even staffs,
because a worker
is deserving of his nourishment.

Matt. 10:11 Now, into whatever town or village you enter inquire who in it is deserving
and stay in that place until you go out.

Matt. 10:12 And when you enter into a household embrace it!

Matt. 10:13 And if the household is deserving let your peace come upon it!
But if it is not deserving
let your peace return to you!

eirene - peace; prosperity.
This is the Greek word
that "translates" shalom from the Hebrew.
Shalom means total well-being,
in every dimension of one's existence.

Matt. 10:14 And whomever will not receive you nor hear your words,
as you depart from that house or town,
shake off the dust from your feet.
Matt. 10:15 Assuredly I say to you,
it will be more tolerable
for the land of Sedom and Amarah
in the day of judgment than for that town!

Sedom means fettered.
Amarah means bondage.
krisis – decision, a tribunal,
by implication, justice
– accusation, condemnation,
damnation, judgment.

Matt. 10:16 Behold!
I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves.
Therefore, be wise as snakes
and innocent as doves.

Matt. 10:17 Now pay attention to human beings
because they will deliver you up to councils
and they will flog you in their assemblies.
Matt. 10:18 You will be brought before leaders and sovereigns
on account of Me
for the sake of evidence to them and to the Gentiles.

Matt. 10:19 Now whenever they deliver you up,
do not be anxious about how
or what you should speak
because it will be given to you in that hour
what you should say.

The concept of "deliver you up"
literally means 'betray you'.

Matt. 10:20 Indeed, it is not you who are speaking, but instead,
The Divine Nature of your Father
Who is speaking through you.

Matt. 10:21 Now a brother
will betray a brother unto death;
even a father betray a child.
And children will attack parents and kill them.

Matt. 10:22 And you will be detested
by everyone
because of My Name.

onoma – a "name"
(literally or figuratively)
(authority, character)
– called, name, surname.
A name in Hebrew culture
carried with it the authority
or character of the person.

However, he who perseveres
to the end point
will be delivered.

Matt. 10:23 When they persecute you in this town
run away into a different one!
Indeed, assuredly I say to you,
you will not have completed
the towns of Yisra'el even until The Son of Man has come!

Matt. 10:24 A student is not over his teacher
nor is a servant over his master.

Matt. 10:25 It is satisfactory for a student that he be like his teacher
and a servant like his master.
If they have called
the head of the household Beelzeboul,

how much worse will they call
those of his household?

Beelzeboul - dung god.

Also a reference to The Adversary.

This is likely a scribal error.

A Hebrew person would most likely use Ba'al Zebub,

Lord of the Fly.

Matt. 10:26 Therefore, do not be afraid of them,
because
there is not even one thing covered up
that will not be uncovered,
or concealed that will not be known.

Matt. 10:27 What I tell you in the darkness speak in the light.
And what you hear in the ear
proclaim upon the roof.

Matt. 10:28 And do not fear
those who kill the body
but cannot kill the nature!
But instead fear Him
Who is able to fully destroy both nature and body in hell!

Matt. 10:29 Are not two sparrows
sold for a copper coin?
Yet not one of them will fall upon the ground
without your Father.

Matt. 10:30 Moreover,
the very hairs of your head are all counted.

Matt. 10:31 Therefore do not be afraid!
You are of more value than many sparrows.

Matt. 10:32 Therefore,
anyone who acknowledges Me
in front of human beings
I will likewise acknowledge
in front of My Father Who is in The Heavens.

Matt. 10:33 However,
anyone who disavows Me
in front of human beings
I will also disavow In front of My Father
Who is in The Heavens.

Matt. 10:34 Do not consider that I came to throw peace upon the earth.
I did not come to throw peace,
but rather a sword.

Matt. 10:35 Indeed, I have come to set a person at variance against his father,
a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law
against her mother-in-law.

Matt. 10:36 And a person's enemies
will be those from his own household.

See Micah 7.6

Matt. 10:37 He who loves father or mother above Me
is not deserving of Me.
And he who loves
son or daughter above Me
is not deserving of Me.

phileo – brotherly love.

Matt. 10:38 And he who does not take up his torture stake
and accompany Me
is not deserving of Me.

stauros – a stake or post,
a pole or cross

(as an instrument of capital punishment).

Literally - a torture stake,
a very cruel instrument of death.

Matt. 10:39 He who finds his life
will completely destroy it.
And he who completely destroys his life
on account of Me will find it.

Matt. 10:40 He who receives you receives Me.

And he who receives Me receives Him Who sent Me.

dechomai – to receive – accept.
It means to receive
by deliberate and ready actions.
It is not mere mental assent,
but actively choosing
to be involved with The Messiah.

Matt. 10:41 He who receives a prophet for the sake of the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's compensation.
And he who receives a just person
for the sake of the name of a just person will receive a just person's compensation.

Matt. 10:42 Even if one gives merely a cup of cool water
to one of these little ones
in the name of a student,
assuredly, I say to you
he will by no means lose his compensation!"

Chapter 11

Matt. 11:1 Now it happened that when YAHUSHUA had finished the arrangements for His twelve students
He left that place to teach and to proclaim in their towns.

Matt. 11:2 And Yahanathan, having heard in prison
about the acts of The Messiah,
sent two of his students.

Matt. 11:3 And they said to Him,
"Are You The Coming One
or do we anticipate a different one?"

The Coming One
is a euphemism for The Messiah.

Matt. 11:4 YAHUSHUA responded.
And He said to them,
"Go and tell Yahanathan the things
which you hear and observe.

Matt. 11:5 The blind see and the lame walk.
The lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear.
The dead are raised up and the poor
have the good news proclaimed to them.

Matt. 11:6 And happy is he who is not tripped up by Me."

Matt. 11:7 Now these having gone on their way, YAHUSHUA began to speak to the crowds
concerning Yahanathan.

"What did you go out into the wilderness to examine?
A reed shaken by the wind?

Matt. 11:8 Or else, what did you go out to see?
A human being clothed in soft garments?
Behold!

Those who wear soft clothing
are in kings' houses.

Matt. 11:9 Or else, what did you go out to see?
A prophet?

Yes, I say to you,
and much more than a prophet!

Matt. 11:10 Indeed,
this is he of whom it is written,
*“Behold!
I send My messenger before Your face,
who will prepare Your way before You.”*
(Is. 40.3, Mal. 3.1, 4.5)

Matt. 11:11 Assuredly I say to you,
among those born of women
there has not arisen one greater than Yahnathan, the baptizer!
However, he who is least
in The Kingdom of The Heavens
is greater than he.

Matt. 11:12 Now from the days
of Yahnathan, the baptizer, until now
The Kingdom of The Heavens suffers violence.
And the violent ones seize it by force.

*biazo – to force,
to crowd oneself into, to be seized.
The concept is that of one seeking to force their way
into The Heavens.*

Matt. 11:13 Indeed, all The Prophets
and The Torah
prophesied until Yahnathan.

*Prophesied - proclaimed
the word of YAHWEH.*

Matt. 11:14 And if you are inclined to accept it,
he is Eliyah, who has appeared.

Matt. 11:15 He who has ears to hear, listen!

Matt. 11:16 Now to what will I compare this generation?
It is similar to children
sitting in the town square
and speaking to their companions

Matt. 11:17 and saying,
‘We played the flute for you
and you did not dance.
We mourned for you
and you did not lament.’

Matt. 11:18 Indeed, Yahnathan came neither eating nor drinking,
and they say, ‘He has an unclean nature.’

Matt. 11:19 The Son of Man
came eating and drinking,
and they say, ‘Behold!
A glutton and a winebibber,
a friend of tax collectors and offenders!’
Even wisdom is rendered innocent
by its offspring.”

Literally, by what it produces.

Matt. 11:20 Then He began to revile the towns in which most of His mighty acts had been done
because they did not reconsider.

Matt. 11:21 “Woe to you, Chorazin!
Woe to you, Bayit Saida,
because if the mighty acts
which were done in you
had been done in Tzor and Tzidon
they would have reconsidered long ago
in sackcloth and ashes.

*Chorazin means furnace of smoke.
Bayit Sayda means house of provision.
Tzor means a rock. (It is Tyre.)
Tzidon means fishery.*

Matt. 11:22 Moreover, I say to you
it will be more endurable for Tzor and Tzidon
in the day of judgment than for you.

Matt. 11:23 And you, Kafar'nahum,
who were lifted up as far as The Heavens,
will be thrust down to She'ol
because if the mighty acts
which were done in you
had been done in Sedom
it would have remained until this very day.

She'ol - Hades or the world of the dead;
the grave; the depths.
She'ol is the proper Hebrew word
to be used here.
It refers to the place
where the dead await the final judgment.
It is not 'hell'.
It is, more properly, the state of being dead.

Matt. 11:24 And I say to you that it will be more endurable for the land of Sedom
in the day of judgment than for you.”

Matt. 11:25 At that time YAHUSHUA
responded saying, “I acknowledge You, Father, Sovereign of The Heavens and the earth,
because You have hidden these things
from the wise and prudent
and have revealed them to babies.

Matt. 11:26 Yes, Father, because in this way
it was satisfying in Your eyes.

Matt. 11:27 All things
have been delivered to Me by My Father.
And no one recognizes The Son
except The Father.
Nor does anyone recognize The Father except The Son,
and the one to whom The Son
is willing to reveal Him.

Matt. 11:28 Come to Me,
all you who are fatigued
and are overburdened
and I will give you rest!

Matt. 11:29 Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me
because I am gentle and humble in heart.
And you will find rest for your lives.

Matt. 11:30 Indeed, My yoke is useful and My load is easy to carry.”

Chapter 12

Matt. 12:1 At that time YAHUSHUA
traveled through the grain fields
on The Sabbath.

Now His students were hungry
and began to pull off the grain and eat.

Matt. 12:2 But the Pharisees, having seen it,
said to Him, “Behold!
Your students are doing what it is not right to do on The Sabbath.”

exesfi – it is right.
This is often translated as “lawful”,
but this is not correct.

Matt. 12:3 But He said to them,
“Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, he and those with him;

Matt. 12:4 how he entered into
The House of YAHWEH
and ate The Bread of The Presence
of the offering
which was not right for him to eat,
nor for those with him,
except only the priests?

Matt. 12:5 Or have you not read in The Torah that on The Sabbath
the priests in The Temple desecrate The Sabbath,
yet they are innocent?

Matt. 12:6 Now I say to you that on this spot
is One greater than The Temple.

Matt. 12:7 But if you had known what this is,
'I desire compassion and not sacrifice.',
(Hos 6.6)
you would not have pronounced
the innocent guilty.

Matt. 12:8 Indeed, The Son of Man is Master
even of The Sabbath."

Matt. 12:9 And having departed from there
He entered into their assembly.

Matt. 12:10 And behold!
There was a person who had a withered hand.
And they asked Him saying,
"Is it right to heal on The Sabbath?",
in order that they might charge Him
with some offense.

*The point made here is often missed.
They wanted to charge Him
with a legal offense, not just any error.
If they could do that they would then have a legal basis
for putting Him to death.*

Matt. 12:11 But He said to them,
"What person is there among you who has one sheep
and if it falls into a hole on The Sabbath
will not grab it and raise it up?

Matt. 12:12 How much better, then,
is a person than a sheep?

Therefore, it is right
to do good on The Sabbath."

Matt. 12:13 Then He said to the person,
"Extend your hand."
And he extended it.
And it was restored as healthy as the other.

Matt. 12:14 Then the Pharisees went out and took counsel against Him
how they might destroy Him.

Matt. 12:15 But YAHUSHUA, knowing it,
departed from there.

And great crowds accompanied Him.
And He healed them all.

Matt. 12:16 Yet He warned them
not to make Him apparent

Matt. 12:17 so that it might be fulfilled
which was spoken
by Yeshayah, the prophet, saying,

Matt. 12:18-21
*"Behold!
My Servant, whom I have chosen,
My Beloved
in whom My Divine Nature is well pleased!
I will put My Divine Nature upon Him.
And He will declare justice to the Gentiles.
He will not quarrel nor cry out,
nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets.
A bruised reed He will not break,
and smoking flax He will not quench,
until He sends forth justice to victory.
And in His Name Gentiles will trust."
(Is. 42-1-4)*

Matt. 12:22 Then one was brought to Him who was possessed by an unclean nature, blind and mute.
And He healed him.
Thus the blind and mute one both spoke and saw.
Matt. 12:23 And all the people were astounded.
And they said,

“Is this not The Son of David?”

*existemi – to put (stand) out of wits,
i.e. astound, or become astounded, insane
– amaze, be astonished,
be beside self, bewitch, wonder.*

Matt. 12:24 But the Pharisees, having heard it, said,
“This one does not expel unclean natures except by Ba'al Zebub, the ruler of the unclean natures.”

Matt. 12:25 Now YAHUSHUA understood their deliberations.
And He said to them,
“Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste.

And every town or household divided against itself will not stand.

Matt. 12:26 If The Adversary expels The Adversary he is divided against himself.
How then will his kingdom stand?

Matt. 12:27 And if I expel unclean natures by Ba'al Zebub by whom do your sons expel them?
Therefore, they will be your judges.

Matt. 12:28 But if I expel an unclean nature by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH surely The Kingdom of YAHWEH has arrived before you.

Matt. 12:29 Or, how can one enter into a strong man's house and plunder his goods unless he first binds the strong man?
And then he will plunder his house.

Matt. 12:30 He who is not with Me is against Me.
And he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad.

Matt. 12:31 Because of this I say to you every offense and blasphemy will be forgiven persons.

However, the blasphemy of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH will not be forgiven persons!

*blasphemia – vilification
(especially against YAHWEH)
– blasphemy, evil speaking, railing.*

Vilification is speaking or writing about something in an abusively disparaging manner.

Matt. 12:32 And whoever speaks a word against The Son of Man, it will be forgiven them.

But whoever speaks against The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH, it will not be forgiven them, either in this age or in the age to come!

If you want to know what the one “unpardonable offense” is, it is plainly identified in these verses.

Matt. 12:33 Either make the tree good
and its fruit good,
or else make the tree rotten
and its fruit rotten
because a tree is known by its fruit.

Matt. 12:34 Offspring of poisonous snakes!
How can you, being bad,
speak good things?

Indeed, out of the surplus of the heart
the mouth speaks.
Matt. 12:35 A good person
out of the good wealth of his heart
brings forth good things,
and a bad person out of the bad treasure
brings forth bad things.

Matt. 12:36 Now I say to you
that for every idle word
human beings may speak
they will give an account concerning it
in the day of judgment.

Matt. 12:37 Indeed, by your words
you will be rendered innocent and by your words
you will be pronounced guilty!"

Matt. 12:38 Then some of the scribes
and Pharisees responded saying,
"Teacher, we want to see a sign from You."

Matt. 12:39 And He responded.
And He said to them,
"A hurtful and adulterous generation
seeks after a sign.
And no sign will be given to it
except the sign of the prophet, Yonah.

Matt. 12:40 Indeed, just as Yonah
was three days and three nights
in the belly of the great fish,
in like manner will The Son of Man
be three days and three nights
in the heart of the earth.

Matt. 12:41 The men of Nineveh
will stand up in the judgment
against this generation and will condemn it
because they reconsidered
at the proclamation of Yonah, Nineveh means offspring of ease.
And behold!
One greater than Yonah is here!

Matt. 12:42 The queen of the South
will rise up in the judgment
against this generation and will condemn it
because she came from the ends of the earth
to hear the wisdom of Shelomoh.
And indeed,
one greater than Shelomoh is here!

Matt. 12:43 When an unclean nature goes out of a human being
it traverses through waterless places
seeking rest, but it finds none.

Matt. 12:44 Then it says,
"I will return into my dwelling place
from which I came out."
And having come he finds it empty,
swept, and decorated.

Matt. 12:45 Then he goes and takes with him
seven other natures

more harmful than himself.
And they enter and dwell there.
And the final state of that human being is more aggravated than the first.
In this manner it will also be
for this harmful generation.”

Matt. 12:46 While He was still talking to the crowds, behold!
His mother and brothers were standing outside seeking to speak with Him.

Matt. 12:47 Then one said to Him, “Behold!
Your mother and Your brothers
are standing outside seeking to speak with You.”

Matt. 12:48 But He answered.
And He said to him who spoke to Him,
“Who is My mother and who are My brothers?”

Matt. 12:49 And He extended His hand toward His students.
And He said, “Behold!
My mother and My brothers!

Matt. 12:50 Indeed, whoever does the will
of My Father Who is in The Heavens,
this one is My brother,
and sister,
and mother.”

Chapter 13

Matt. 13:1 Now on that same day
YAHUSHUA went out of the house
and sat beside the sea.

Matt. 13:2 And great crowds
gathered together beside Him
so that He got into a boat and sat down.
And the whole crowd stood upon the shore.

Matt. 13:3 And He spoke many things to them
in parables saying,
“Behold!

A sower went out to sow.

Matt. 13:4 And in his sowing
some seed fell by the road.
And the birds came and devoured them.

Matt. 13:5 Some other seed fell on rocky places
where they had not much soil.

And they soon germinated
because they had no depth of soil.

Matt. 13:6 Now when the sun arose
they were scorched,
and because they had no root they dried up.

Matt. 13:7 And some other seed fell among thorns.

And the thorns grew up and stifled them.

Matt. 13:8 But other seed fell upon good ground and yielded a crop,
even a hundredfold, or sixtyfold, or thirtyfold.

Matt. 13:9 He who has ears to hear,
let him listen!”

Matt. 13:10 And the students came
and said to Him,
“Why do You speak to them in parables?”

Matt. 13:11 Then He responded saying to them, “Because it has been given to you to know the mysteries
of The Kingdom of The Heavens.
But to them it has not been given.

Matt. 13:12 Indeed, whoever has,
to him things will be given,
and he will have an excess.

But whoever does not have,
from him will be taken away even what he has.
echo - to hold. (used in various applications).
He who "has" and "does not have"
both contain this verb.
While it can mean to possess something,
it could also mean to "hold on to".
This would make more sense in this context.

Matt. 13:13 Because of this,
I speak to them in parables
because observing, they do not see,
and listening, they do not hear.
Neither do they comprehend.

Matt. 13:14 And with them
the prophecy of Yeshayah
is completed which says,
*"Hearing you will hear
and will not understand,
and seeing you will see
and not perceive,*

Matt. 13:15 *because the hearts
of this people have grown dull.
Their ears are hard of hearing,
and their eyes they have closed,
lest they should see with their eyes
and hear with their ears,
lest they should understand with their hearts
and turn so that I might heal them.'*
(Is. 6-9-10)

Matt. 13:16 But happy are your eyes
because they see,
and your ears because they hear.

Matt. 13:17 Indeed, assuredly I say to you
that many prophets and just men desired to see what you are seeing
and did not see it,
and to hear what you are hearing
and did not hear it.

Matt. 13:18 You, therefore,
listen to the parable of the sower.
*They've already "heard" the parable.
But this time they are given the meaning of it.
This time they are to listen with understanding
– not just hearing the sounds.*

Matt. 13:19 When anyone hears the message of The Kingdom
yet does not understand it
the hurtful one comes and seizes
what was sown in his heart.
This is the seed beside the road.

Matt. 13:20 Now the seed upon rocky places
is the same as he who hears the word
and immediately receives it with joy.

Matt. 13:21 But he has no root in himself
but instead exists only for the moment.
Then when trouble or persecution arises because of the word
he is immediately tripped up.

Matt. 13:22 Now the seed sown among the thorns
is the one who hears the word,
yet the cares of this world
and the deceitfulness of riches
strangle the word,
and he becomes unfruitful.

Matt. 13:23 But that sown into the good ground is he who hears the word
and comprehends it.
Now this one bears fruit
and produces, indeed,
a hundredfold,

also sixtyfold,
also thirtyfold.”

Matt. 13:24 He presented another parable
to them saying,

“The Kingdom of The Heavens
is compared to a human being who sowed good seed in his field.

Matt. 13:25 But while the person slept his adversary came and sowed tares in the middle of the grain
and went away.

Tares were noxious weeds.

Matt. 13:26 Now the grain germinated
and produced a crop.
Then the tares also appeared.

Matt. 13:27 So the servants of the owner
came and said to him,

‘Master,
did you not sow good seed in your field?
From what does it have tares?’

Matt. 13:28 He said to them,
‘An adversary has done this.’

The servants said to him,
‘Do you want us then to go and gather them up?’

Matt. 13:29 But he said,
‘No, lest while you gather up the tares
you also uproot the grain
at the same time as them.

Matt. 13:30 Allow both to grow together
until the harvest.

And at the time of harvest
I will say to the harvesters,
‘First, gather together the tares
and bind them in bundles to burn them.
But gather the grain into my granary.’ ‘

Matt. 13:31 He presented another parable
to them saying,

“The Kingdom of The Heavens
is similar to a mustard seed
which a person took and sowed in his field.

Matt. 13:32 It certainly is the smallest of all the seeds.

But when it is grown
it is the largest among the herbs
and becomes a tree so that the birds of the sky
come and nest in its branches.”

Matt. 13:33 He spoke another parable to them.

“The Kingdom of The Heavens
is similar to leaven
which a woman took and concealed in three measures of meal
until it was all leavened.”

Matt. 13:34 All these things
YAHUSHUA spoke to the crowds in parables.

And without a parable
He did not speak to them

Matt. 13:35 in order that it might be fulfilled
which was spoken by the prophet saying,

*“I will open My mouth in parables;
I will utter things kept secret
from the foundation of the world.”*

(Ps. 78.2-3)

Matt. 13:36 Then YAHUSHUA
sent the crowds away.

And He went into the house.

And His students came to Him saying, “Explain to us the parable
of the tares of the field.”

Matt. 13:37 Then He responded.
And He said to them,
“Now He who sows the good seed
is The Son of Man.
Matt. 13:38 And the field is the world.
And the good seeds
are the children of The Kingdom.
But the tares are the children of the evil one.
Matt. 13:39 And the adversary who sowed them
is The False Accuser.
And the harvest is the end of the age.
And the harvesters are the YAH-messengers.

Matt. 13:40 Therefore, exactly as the tares
are gathered and burned in the fire,
so will it be at the end of this age.

Matt. 13:41 The Son of Man
will send out His messengers
and they will gather out of His Kingdom
everything that offends,
even those who practice lawlessness.

Matt. 13:42 And He will throw them into the furnace of fire.
There will be lamentation
and grating of the teeth.

Matt. 13:43 Then will the innocent shine forth like the sun
in The Kingdom of their Father.

He who has ears to hear, let him listen!

Matt. 13:44 Furthermore,
The Kingdom of The Heavens
is similar to wealth concealed in a field
which a person having found concealed it.
And because of delight over it he goes away.
And he sells everything he has.
And he purchases that field.

Matt. 13:45 Furthermore,
The Kingdom of The Heavens
is similar to a merchant person
seeking beautiful pearls, Matt. 13:46 who having found one pearl of extreme value
went and sold everything he had,
and purchased it.

Matt. 13:47 Furthermore,
The Kingdom of The Heavens is similar to a fishing net that was thrown into the sea.
And it collected some of every kind,
Matt. 13:48 which, when it was full,
they hauled upon the shore and sat down.
They gathered the good into containers
but threw the worthless away.

Matt. 13:49 So will it be at the end of the age.
The YAH-messengers will come forth, separate the hurtful
from the midst of the innocent, Matt. 13:50 and throw them into the furnace of fire.
There will be lamentation
and grating of the teeth.”

Matt. 13:51 YAHUSHUA said to them,
“Have you comprehended all these things?”
They said to Him, “Yes, Master.”

Matt. 13:52 Then He said to them,
“Therefore, every scribe instructed
concerning The Kingdom of The Heavens

is similar to a person, a head of the family,
who ejects out of his wealth new and old.”

ekballo - Same term as used for “casting out” unclean natures.
It means to send forth,
throw out, or throw away.

Matt. 13:53 And it happened
when YAHUSHUA had finished these parables
that He departed from there.

Matt. 13:54 And when He had come into His own home town
He taught them in their assembly
so that they were astonished.

And they said,

“From where is this wisdom and these signs?”

Matt. 13:55 Is this not the carpenter’s son?

Is not His mother called Miryam,
and His brothers Ya’akov, Yoses, Shim’on, and Yahudah?

Matt. 13:56 And His sisters,
are they not all with us?

From where then did He get all these things?”

Matt. 13:57 And they were offended by Him.

But YAHUSHUA said to them,
“A prophet is not without honor
except in his own home town
and in his own family.”

Matt. 13:58 And He did not do many signs there because of their distrust.

Chapter 14

Matt. 14:1 At that time Herod, the tetrarch,
heard the report concerning YAHUSHUA.

A tetrarch ruled one fourth of a country.

Matt. 14:2 And he said to his servants,

“This is Yahanathan, the baptizer.

He is risen from the dead

and therefore these signs

are accomplished by him.”

Matt. 14:3 Indeed, Herod had seized Yahanathan, bound him, and put him in prison

because of Herodias, wife of his brother, Philip,

Matt. 14:4 because Yahanathan had said to him,

“It is not right for you to have her.”

Matt. 14:5 And desiring to kill him he feared the crowd

because they held him to be a prophet.

Matt. 14:6 But when Herod’s birthday was celebrated

the daughter of Herodias danced before them.

And she pleased Herod,

Matt. 14:7 because of which

he agreed with an oath

to give to her whatever she might ask.

Matt. 14:8 Now she,

having been provoked by her mother, said,

“Give me here upon a platter

the head of Yahanathan, the baptizer.”

Matt. 14:9 And the king was distressed.

But because of the oaths and because of those who sat at dinner with him

he ordered it to be given to her.

Matt. 14:10 And he sent.

And he had Yahanathan

beheaded in the prison.

Matt. 14:11 And his head

was carried on a platter

and given to the girl.

And she carried it to her mother.

Matt. 14:12 Then his students came

and took away the body.

And they buried it.
And they went and reported it to YAHUSHUA.

Matt. 14:13 YAHUSHUA, having heard it, departed from there by boat
to a deserted place by Himself.
And when the crowds heard it they followed Him on foot
away from the towns.
Matt. 14:14 And as YAHUSHUA was going out
He saw a great crowd.
And He was moved with compassion for them.
And He healed their unhealthy.

Matt. 14:15 Now evening having arrived
His students came to Him saying,
"This is a deserted place
and the hour is already late.
Send the crowds away
that they may go into the villages
and buy themselves food."
Matt. 14:16 But YAHUSHUA said to them,
"They do not need to go away.
You give them something to eat."
Matt. 14:17 But they said to Him,
"We have here only five loaves and two fish."
Matt. 14:18 Then He said,
"Bring them here to Me."

Matt. 14:19 Then He directed the crowds
to sit down upon the grass.
And He took the five loaves and the two fish.
Looking up into The Heaven
He blessed and broke
and gave the loaves to the students.
The students gave them to the crowds.
Matt. 14:20 And they all ate and were satisfied.
And they picked up the remaining pieces,
twelve baskets full.
Matt. 14:21 Now those who had eaten
were about five thousand men,
besides women and children.

Matt. 14:22 Immediately YAHUSHUA
compelled His students to get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side
while He sent the crowds away.
Matt. 14:23 And having sent the crowds away
He went up on the mountain
by Himself to pray.
Now evening having come
He was there alone.
Matt. 14:24 But the boat was already in the middle of the sea,
tormented under the waves
because the wind was contrary.

Matt. 14:25 Now in the fourth watch of the night
YAHUSHUA came behind them,
walking upon the sea.
Matt. 14:26 And the students,
seeing Him walking upon the sea,
were agitated, saying, "It is a ghost"
And they cried out from fear.
Matt. 14:27 But immediately YAHUSHUA
spoke to them saying,
"Have courage!
It is I!
Do not be afraid!"

Matt. 14:28 And Peter responding to Him said,
"Master, if it is You,
urge me to come toward You
upon the water."

Matt. 14:29 Then He said, "Come!"
And Peter, having descended from the boat,
walked upon the water,
going toward YAHUSHUA.
Matt. 14:30 But looking at the powerful wind
he was afraid.
And beginning to drown he cried out saying,
"Master, save me!"

Matt. 14:31 Now immediately YAHUSHUA
extended His hand and grabbed him.
And He said to him,
"You of little trust, why did you doubt?"

Matt. 14:32 And having boarded the boat
the wind ceased.
Matt. 14:33 Now those in the boat
came and worshiped Him saying,
"Truly You are a son of YAHWEH!"
The Greek does not have the article.

Huios – means "son" (sometimes of animals)
used very widely of immediate,
remote or figuratively, kinship
– child, foal, son.

Matt. 14:34 Having crossed over
they came to the land of Gennesaret.
Gennesaret is Greek for Chinneret,
which means a harp.

Matt. 14:35 And the men of that place,
having recognized Him,
sent out into all that surrounding region
and brought to Him all who were diseased.

Matt. 14:36 And they called Him near in order that they might merely touch
the hem of His garment.
And as many as touched it
were completely cured.

The hem, or fringe, of one's garment represented their authority.
To touch it was to put oneself
under the authority of that person.

Chapter 15

Matt. 15:1 Then the scribes and Pharisees who were from Yerushalaim
came to YAHUSHUA saying, Matt. 15:2 "Why do Your students go contrary to the tradition of the elders?
Indeed, they do not wash their hands
when they eat food."

Matt. 15:3 Then He answered.
And He said to them,
"Why do you also go contrary to The Instruction of YAHWEH
because of your tradition?"
Matt. 15:4 Indeed, YAHWEH instructed saying,
'Honor your father and your mother.'
(Ex. 20.12)

And,
*'He who curses father or mother,
is to be put to death.'*
(Ex. 21.17)

Matt. 15:5 But you say,
"Whoever may say to his father or mother,
"Whatever benefit
you might have received from me
is now a sacrifice to YAHWEH," Matt. 15:6 and he need not honor his father or mother.'

Thus you have invalidated
The Instruction of YAHWEH*

by means of your tradition.

Matt. 15:7 Hypocrites!
Well did Yeshayah prophesy
concerning you saying,

Matt. 15:8 *‘These people
draw near to Me with their mouth,
and honor Me with their lips,
but their heart is far from Me.*

Matt. 15:9 *And in vain they worship Me,
teaching as doctrines the instructions of men.’* “
(Is. 29.13)

Note: This issue is a primary theme of the teaching of YAHUSHUA
during His earthly ministry.
It caused Him to use the strongest words
found coming from His mouth.

It is still a problem today.
It's at the very root of many discrepancies
within the versions of Scripture we have today.
This must be corrected.

Matt. 15:10 And He called the crowd to Himself.
And He said to them, “Listen and comprehend!

Matt. 15:11 It is not what enters into the mouth
that defiles a person,
but rather what comes out of the mouth.
This defiles a person.”

Matt. 15:12 At that time
His students approached.
And they said to Him,
“Do You understand that the Pharisees were ensnared
upon hearing this message?”

Matt. 15:13 But He, responding, said, “Every plant which My Heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted.

Matt. 15:14 Leave them alone.
They are blind leaders of the blind.
And if the blind leads the blind
both will fall into a pit.”

Matt. 15:15 Then Peter responded.
And he said to Him,
“Explain this parable to us.”

Matt. 15:16 So YAHUSHUA said,
“Are you even now without understanding?

Matt. 15:17 Do you not yet understand that whatever enters into the mouth
goes into the stomach
and is ejected into the toilet?

Matt. 15:18 But those things which are discharged out of the mouth
come from the heart.

And they defile a person.

Matt. 15:19 Indeed, out of the heart proceed hurtful discussions,
murders,
adulteries,
sexual immoralities,
thefts,
untrue testimonies,
and blasphemies.

Matt. 15:20 These are what defile a person.
But to eat with unwashed hands
defiles no person.”

Matt. 15:21 And YAHUSHUA
went out from there.
And He retired into to the region
of Tzor and Tzidon.

Matt. 15:22 And behold!
A woman of Kena'an came from that region
and cried out to Him saying,
"Have compassion on me, Master,
Son of David!
My daughter is severely possessed
by an unclean nature."

Matt. 15:23 But He responded to her
not a word.

And His disciples approached.
And they urged Him saying,
"Send her away
because she cries out after us."

Matt. 15:24 But He responded saying,
"I was not sent except to the lost sheep
of the house of Yisra'el."

This is an important statement.
The Hebrew Messiah
was not sent by His Father to anyone except His Chosen People, Yisra'el.
Yet many have benefitted from His coming.

Matt. 15:25 Then she came and worshiped Him saying,
"Master, help me!"

Matt. 15:26 But He responded saying,
"It is not proper to take the children's food and throw it to the little dogs."

Matt. 15:27 And she said,
"Yes, Master.

Yet even the little dogs eat the crumbs
which fall from their masters' table."

Matt. 15:28 Then YAHUSHUA responded.
And He said to her,
"Alas, woman, great is your trust!
May it be to you as you desire."
And her daughter was cured
from that very hour.

Matt. 15:29 And YAHUSHUA
departed from there.
And He went along The Sea of Galil.
And He went up onto a mountain.
And He sat down there.

Matt. 15:30 Then great crowds
approached Him,
having with them the lame, blind, mute,
maimed, and many others.
And they dropped them at YAHUSHUA's feet.
And He healed them,

Matt. 15:31 so much so that the crowds marveled at seeing
the mute speaking,
the maimed made whole,
the lame walking,
and the blind seeing.
And they honored The Elohim of Yisra'el.

Matt. 15:32 Then YAHUSHUA
called His students to Himself.
And He said,
"I have compassion upon on the crowds
because they have remained with Me
now three days.

And they have nothing to eat.
And I am not willing to send them away
without food lest they faint on the way."

Matt. 15:33 Then His students said to Him,
"From where will we get that much bread
in the wilderness
to satisfy such a great crowd?"

Matt. 15:34 And YAHUSHUA said to them,
"How much bread do you have?"
And they said, "Seven, and a few little fish."

Matt. 15:35 And He directed the crowd
to sit down upon the ground.
Matt. 15:36 And He took
the seven loaves and the fish.
And He gave thanks, broke them,
and gave them to His students.
And the students gave to the multitude.
Matt. 15:37 And they all ate
and were satisfied.
And they picked up seven large baskets
full of the pieces that were left.
Matt. 15:38 Now those who ate
were four thousand men,
besides women and children.
Matt. 15:39 And He sent away the crowd,
got into the boat,
and came to the region of Magdala.

Chapter 16

Matt. 16:1 And having approached the Pharisees and Sadducees
were testing Him,
asking Him to exhibit a sign to them
from The Heaven.
Matt. 16:2 Responding He said to them,
“When it is evening you say,
‘It will be fair weather because the sky is red.’
Matt. 16:3 and at dawn,
“It will be foul weather today
because the sky is red and overcast.’
Hypocrites!
You know how to discern the face of the sky,
but you are not able to discern
the signs of the times.

Matt. 16:4 A hurtful and adulterous generation seeks for a sign.
Yet no sign will be given to it
except the sign of the prophet Yonah.”
And He left them and went away.

Matt. 16:5 And His students,
having gone to the other side,
had neglected to take bread.
Matt. 16:6 And YAHUSHUA said to them, “Discern clearly, and pay attention because of the leaven
of the Pharisees and the Sadducees.” Matt. 16:7 And they deliberated
among themselves saying,
“It is because we have taken no bread.”
Matt. 16:8 But YAHUSHUA, knowing it,
said to them,
“Oh you of little trust!
Why do you deliberate among yourselves
because you have brought no bread?
Matt. 16:9 Do you not yet comprehend,
nor remember the five loaves of the five thousand
and how many small baskets you picked up, Matt. 16:10 nor the seven loaves of the four thousand
and how many large baskets you picked up?
Matt. 16:11 How is it
that you do not comprehend
that I did not speak to you concerning bread,
but rather, to pay attention to the leaven
of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

Leaven defiles things by changing them.
This is also what the religious leaders
were doing by making their traditions
more important than YAHWEH's word.

Matt. 16:12 Then they put it together that He did not tell them
to pay attention to the leaven of the bread,
but rather to the instruction
of the Pharisees and the Sadducees.

Matt. 16:13 Now YAHUSHUA,
having come into the region
of Caesarea Philippi,
asked His students saying,
“Who do human beings say that I,
The Son of Man, am?”

Matt. 16:14 Then they said,
“Some say Yahanathan, the baptizer,
some Eliyah,
and others Yirm'yah or one of the prophets.”

Yirm'yah means YAH will be elevated.

Matt. 16:15 He said to them,
“But who do you say that I am?”

Matt. 16:16 Then Shim'on Peter responded saying,
“You are The Messiah,
The Son of The Living Elohim!”

Christos – means anointed one,
or, The Messiah.

There is only one such being.
The proper Greek word
to have been used here is Messias.
He is The Messiah, NOT “the Christ”.

There is also only one living deity.
The Hebrew term is elohim
(or a variation of that term).
He is The Elohim of Genesis 1.1.
His Name is YAHWEH,
as revealed in Ex. 3.14-15.

He also has only one true Son.
Hence, the terms are all capitalized.

Matt. 16:17 And YAHUSHUA responding
said to him,
“Happy are you, Shim'on Bar-Yonah, because flesh and blood
has not revealed this to you,
but rather My Father Who is in The Heavens!

Matt. 16:18 Now I also say to you that you are Peter.

And upon this rock I will build My assembly.
And the gates of she'ol will not overpower it.

Peter is given a new name by The Messiah.
This is done in response to his testimony
to the existence of The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

Take note of the statement made by YAHUSHUA.
Shim'on did not get this by his own wisdom.
It was granted to him by YAHWEH Himself.

Our understanding of these words
is affected by the “versification”
and paragraphing of this text.
For most, this is extremely misunderstood.
Indeed, an entire “religion” has been built on the misinterpretation of this one passage
- The Roman Catholic Church.

The “rock” is not Peter.
Peter means a small stone, not a rock.
The Rock is The Messiah Himself.
It is upon Him
that the assembly will be built,
not Peter!

ekklesia - a calling out,
i.e. (concretely) a popular meeting,
especially a religious congregation (Yisra'eliteish synagogue, or community of members on earth
or saints in heaven or both).

Note that YAHUSHUA
did not use the term 'church'
because it did not exist in His day.
The use of "church" is a tradition of men.
It is not based on Scripture.

The ekklesia is the group of "called out ones"
– called out of the world
into faith/belief in YAHWEH and in YAHUSHUA.

She'ol - Hades, or the place (state) of the dead:
the grave, the depths.
This is not "hell".

Matt. 16:19 And I will give to you people
the keys of The Kingdom of The Heavens.
And whatever you bind upon the earth
will be bound in The Heavens.
And whatever you loose on the earth
will be loosed in The Heavens."

Note: The "keys" is a metaphor for the knowledge and authority that YAHUSHUA grants to those who are trusting fully in Him as The Messiah.

The statement is made to "the students",
not to people in general.
Thus, it is made to believers.

A believer can do only
what YAHWEH grants him the ability to do.
In this instance the context clearly identifies that these believers are being granted the authority of The Kingdom of The Heavens themselves
in order to accomplish
"the building of the assembly".

Matt. 16:20 Then He charged His students that they tell not even one that He was YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Matt. 16:21 From that time YAHUSHUA
began to show to His students that He must go into Yerushalaim
and experience many things
from the elders and chief priests and scribes,
and be killed,
and the third day be raised up.

Matt. 16:22 And Peter took Him aside
and began to admonish Him saying,
"YAHWEH be favorable to You, Master!
This will never happen to You!"

"YAHWEH be favorable to you"
is a Hebraism, a very common expression
that is not evident in the Greek.
It's an affirmation similar to,
"May it never be so!"

Matt. 16:23 Now He, turning around,
said to Peter,
"Get behind Me, adversary!"

Satan means opponent or adversary.
This statement expresses the concept of Peter being an adversary,
not the person of Satan himself.

You are a snare to Me,
because you are not considering
the things of YAHWEH,
but rather the things of human beings!"

Matt. 16:24 Then YAHUSHUA
said to His students,
"If anyone desires to come after Me
let him utterly deny himself
and pick up his torture stake
and accompany Me.

stauros - a stake or post (as set upright),
i.e. a pole or cross
(as an instrument of capital punishment.)

The "cross" was not a "pretty decoration".
It was an instrument of death
that caused great anguish
for the one so put to death.

We have made it "an idol"
and a money-grabbing "trinket",
demeaning its true value.

Matt. 16:25 Indeed,
whoever desires to save his life
will fully destroy it,
but whoever fully destroys his life
for My sake will find it.

Matt. 16:26 Indeed, what profit is it to a person
if he gains the whole world
yet damages his own life?
Or what will a man give
in exchange for his life?

The term used for life
is the same in verses 25 and 26.
It is psuche, which means the life essence or breath of life that was given to Adam
by YAHWEH in Genesis.

It is not "the soul",
which is a much later Greek concept.

Matt. 16:27 Indeed, The Son of Man is about to come in the magnificence of His Father
with His messengers.
And then He will give to each one
according to their practices.

Matt. 16:28 Assuredly I say to you,
there are some standing here
who will not taste death until they have seen
The Son of Man coming in His kingdom!"

Chapter 17

Matt. 17:1 Now after six days YAHUSHUA took Peter, Ya'akov, and Yahanathan, his brother, and brought them up
onto a high mountain by themselves.

Matt. 17:2 And He was transformed in front of them.
And His face shone like the sun.
And His clothes became as white as the light.

metamorphoo - transform; a change of form.
This is traditionally translated as "transfigured".
That term means little to most people.
However, the concept of 'morphing'
is now readily understood.

Matt. 17:3 And behold!
Moshe and Eliyah were seen by them
talking with Him.

Matt. 17:4 Now Peter responded,
saying to YAHUSHUA,
"Master, it is good for us to be here.
If You desire let us make here three tents,
one for You,
one for Moshe,
and one for Eliyah."

Matt. 17:5 While he was still speaking, behold!
A bright cloud overshadowed them.
And behold!
A voice from the cloud saying,
"This is My beloved Son
in Whom I am well pleased.
Listen to Him!"

Matt. 17:6 And the students, having heard it, fell upon their faces.

And they were extremely afraid.
Matt. 17:7 And YAHUSHUA approached.
And he touched them.
And He said, "Arise!
And do not be afraid!"
Matt. 17:8 And having lifted up their eyes
they saw no one except YAHUSHUA alone.

Matt. 17:9 And as they descended from the mountain
YAHUSHUA charged them saying,
"Tell the vision to not even one until The Son of Man
is raised up from being dead."

nekros – dead.

*It is a physical state
in which a body has no life in it.*

There is no article with it.

*The reference is not to belonging to some group of dead people,
but rather to His human physical condition.*

Matt. 17:10 And His students asked Him saying,
"Why then do the scribes say that Eliyah must come first?"

Matt. 17:11 Then YAHUSHUA
responded saying to them,

"Truly, Eliyah comes first
and will restore all things.

Matt. 17:12 Now I say to you
that Eliyah has already come
and they did not recognize him.

But instead they did to him
whatever they desired.

Likewise, The Son of Man
is also about to suffer under them."

Matt. 17:13 Then the students put it together
that He spoke to them
concerning Yahanathan, the baptizer.

Matt. 17:14 And having come toward the crowd
a person approached Him, kneeling down to Him and saying,

Matt. 17:15 "Master,
have compassion on my son
because he is crazy and suffers severely.
Indeed, he frequently falls into the fire
and frequently into the water.

Matt. 17:16 And I brought him to Your students
but they were not able to cure him."

Matt. 17:17 Then YAHUSHUA responded saying,
"Disbelieving and corrupt generation!

How long shall I be with you?
How long shall I put up with you?
Bring him here to Me!"

Matt. 17:18 And YAHUSHUA rebuked
the unclean nature.

And it came out of him.
And the child was cured from that very hour.

Matt. 17:19 Then the students approached YAHUSHUA privately saying,
"Why could we not eject it?"

Matt. 17:20 And YAHUSHUA said to them,
"Because of your lack of trust.

Indeed, assuredly I say to you,
if you have trust even as a mustard seed
you will say to this mountain,
'Change places from here to there!'
and it will change places.
And not even one thing
will be impossible for you.

Matt. 17:21 However, this kind is not discharged
except by prayer and fasting.”

Matt. 17:22 Now as they remained in The Galil
YAHUSHUA said to them,
“The Son of Man is about to be betrayed
into the hands of human beings.
Matt. 17:23 And they will kill Him.
Yet the third day He will be raised up.”
And they were exceedingly sad.

Matt. 17:24 Now having come to Kafar'nahum
those who received The Temple tax approached Peter and said,
“Does your teacher not pay the Temple tax?”
Matt. 17:25 He said, “Yes.”
And having come into the house
YAHUSHUA anticipated him saying,
“What do you think, Shim'on?
From whom do the kings of the earth
take customs or taxes,
from their son or from others?”
Matt. 17:26 Peter said to Him, “From others.”
YAHUSHUA said to him,
“Then the children are not obligated.

Matt. 17:27 However, lest we offend them,
go to the sea.
Throw in a hook.
And take the fish that comes up first.
And having opened its mouth
you will find a piece of money.
Take that and give it to them for Me and you.”

Chapter 18

Matt. 18:1 At that very hour
the students approached YAHUSHUA saying, “Who, then, is perhaps greater
in The Kingdom of The Heavens?”
Matt. 18:2 And YAHUSHUA
summoned a little child,
stood him in the midst of them,
Matt. 18:3 and said,
“Assuredly I say to you,
unless you are converted and become as little children
you will never enter into
The Kingdom of The Heavens!
Matt. 18:4 Therefore, whoever humbles himself like this little child
is the greater in The Kingdom of The Heavens.

Matt. 18:5 If anyone receives one little child such as this
in My Name,
he receives Me.

Matt. 18:6 But if anyone trips up one of these little ones who trusts in Me
it would be better for him if a large millstone
were hung around his neck
and he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

Matt. 18:7 Woe to the world because of snares!
Indeed, it is necessary that snares must come.
But woe to that person
by whom the snare comes!

Matt. 18:8 Now if your hand or foot ensnares you,
cut it off and throw it away from you.
It is good for you
to enter into Life lame or maimed
rather than having two hands or two feet

to be thrown into the eternal fire.
Matt. 18:9 And if your eye ensnares you,
tear it out and throw it away from you.
It is good for you to enter into Life with one eye
rather than having two eyes
to be cast into hell fire.

Matt. 18:10 Pay attention
that you do not despise
one of these little ones!
Indeed, I say to you that in The Heavens their messengers are always looking at the face of My Father
Who is in The Heavens
Matt. 18:11 because The Son of Man has come to deliver that which was being destroyed.

Matt. 18:12 What do you think?
If a person has a hundred sheep
and one of them wanders off
does he not leave the ninety nine and go to the mountains
to seek the one that is wandering?
Matt. 18:13 And if it happens that he finds it,
assuredly I say to you,
he rejoices more over that one than over the ninety nine
that did not wander off!
Matt. 18:14 In the same way,
it is not the will of your Father
Who is in The Heavens
that one of these little ones
be completely destroyed.

Matt. 18:15 Now if your brother acts unfaithfully against you go and admonish him,
between you and him alone.
If he listens to you
you have gained your brother.

hamartano - to miss the mark,
i.e. to err, especially to offend.

There are two Hebrew terms
that are typically translated as "trespass".
ma'al - an unfaithful act.
pesha - rebellion.
In the Greek there is little distinction between the terms.

The context supplies the understanding.
In this case it would be an unfaithful act
rather than rebellion
because rebellion requires
a relationship of authority.

Matt. 18:16 But if he will not listen
take with you one or two more in order that
*'by the mouth of two or three witnesses
every word may be established.'*
(Deut. 19:15)

Matt. 18:17 And if he refuses to listen to them,
tell it to the assembly.
Now if he refuses to listen to the assembly
let him be to you
as a heathen and a tax collector.

These are both understood
to be ceremonially unclean,
and one was not to associate with such a person.

Matt. 18:18 Assuredly, I say to you,
whatever you bind upon the earth
will be bound in The Heaven
and whatever you loose upon the earth will be loosed in The Heaven!

Matt. 18:19 Again I say to you that if two of you agree upon the earth
concerning any matter,
if they ask, it will happen to them
according to My Father
Who is in The Heavens.

Matt. 18:20 Indeed, where two or three are gathered together
for the sake of My Name
I am there, in the midst of them.”

Matt. 18:21 Then Peter approached Him saying, “Master, how many times will my brother act unfaithfully against me and I forgive him?
Up to seven times?”

Matt. 18:22 YAHUSHUA said to him,
“I do not say to you up to seven times,
but rather up to seventy times seven.

Matt. 18:23 For this cause
The Kingdom of The Heavens
is compared to a certain king who wanted to settle accounts
with his servants.

Matt. 18:24 Now having begun to settle accounts,
one was brought to him
who owed him ten thousand talents.

Matt. 18:25 But having nothing to pay his master ordered him to be sold,
also his wife and children
and all that he had, and payment be given.

Matt. 18:26 The servant therefore fell down
and prostrated himself saying, ‘Master, have patience with me
and I will give you everything.’

Matt. 18:27 Then the master of that servant
had compassion and released him.
And he forgave him the debt.

Matt. 18:28 But that servant went out and found one of his fellow servants
who owed him a hundred denarii.
And he seized him by the throat saying,
‘Give to me what you owe!’

Two hundred denari
is equivalent to ten donkeys.

Matt. 18:29 Therefore, his fellow servant
fell down at his feet
and implored him saying,
“Have patience with me,
and I will give you everything.’

Matt. 18:30 But he would not.
But instead he went and threw him into prison
until he should pay the debt.

Matt. 18:31 Now when his fellow servants saw what happened
they were greatly distressed.
And they went and told their master
everything that happened.

Matt. 18:32 Then his master, having called him,
said to him, “You hurtful servant!
I forgave you all that debt
because you begged me.

Matt. 18:33 Should you not also have had compassion
on your fellow servant
even as I had compassion on you?”

Matt. 18:34 And his master was enraged.
And he delivered him to the torturers
until he gave all that was due to him.

Matt. 18:35 In this same manner
My Heavenly Father will even do to you if each of you from his heart
does not forgive his brother his errors.”

Chapter 19

Matt. 19:1 Now it was after YAHUSHUA
had finished these sayings.
And He departed from The Galil.
And He went into the region of Yahudah,
across The Yarden.
Matt. 19:2 And great crowds accompanied Him.
And He healed them there.

Matt. 19:3 And the Pharisees approached Him to test Him.
And they said to Him,
“Is it right for a man to divorce his wife
according to any cause?”
Matt. 19:4 Then He responded.
And He said to them,
“Have you not read
that He Who made them
from the beginning made them male and female.
(Gen. 1.27)

Matt. 19:5 And He said,
*‘For this reason
a man will leave his father and mother
and be joined to his woman.
And the two will become one flesh.’?*
(Gen. 2.24)

Matt. 19:6 Therefore, they are no longer two,
but rather one flesh.
Therefore,
what YAHWEH has joined together let no human being separate.”

Matt. 19:7 They said to Him,
“Why then did Moshe teach to give a certificate of divorce
and to divorce her?”
Matt. 19:8 He said to them, “Moshe,
because of the hardness of your hearts,
allowed you to divorce your wives.
But from the beginning it was not this way.

Matt. 19:9 Now I say to you
whoever divorces his wife
except because of sexual immorality
and marries a different one commits adultery.
And whoever marries her
who is divorced commits adultery.”
Matt. 19:10 His students said to Him,
“If such is the case of the person with his wife
it is better not to marry.”
Matt. 19:11 Then He said to them,
“Everyone cannot accept this saying,
but rather those to whom it has been given.

Matt. 19:12 Indeed, there are eunuchs
who were born in this way
from their mother’s womb.
And there are eunuchs
who were made eunuchs by human beings.
And there are eunuchs
who have made themselves eunuchs
for the sake of The Kingdom of The Heavens.
He who is able to accept it, let him accept it.”
[Eunuchs are males
who are unable to have children.](#)

Matt. 19:13 Then little children were brought to Him in order that He might lay His hands upon them and pray.

But the students admonished them.
Matt. 19:14 Then YAHUSHUA said, “Permit the little children to come to Me,
and do not prevent them,
because of this sort
is The Kingdom of The Heavens.” Matt. 19:15 And having laid
His hands upon them
He departed from there.

Matt. 19:16 And behold!
One approached Him and said,
“Good Teacher, what good thing shall I do in order that I may have Eternal Life?”
Matt. 19:17 Then He said to him,
“Why do you call Me good?
No one is good except One, YAHWEH.

Now, if you desire to enter into eternal Life
protect The Instructions.”

tereo – to guard (from loss or injury),
properly, keeping the eye upon.

The implication is to live
in full accordance with them.
The instructions being referred to here
are those found in The Torah of Yisra'el.

The Torah is not law.
It is instruction!

This is what is to be protected
by doing according to what is taught.

Matt. 19:18 He said to Him, “Which ones?”
Then YAHUSHUA said,
“*You are not to murder.
You are not to commit adultery.
You are not to steal.*

You are not to bear false witness.

Matt. 19:19 Honor your father and your mother,
and, You are to love your neighbor as yourself.”
(Ex. 20-12-17, Deut. 5.16-21)

Matt. 19:20 The young man said to Him,
“All these things I have protected from my youth.
What do I still lack?”

Matt. 19:21 YAHUSHUA said to him,
“If you desire to be complete, go!
Sell what you have and give to the poor
and you will have wealth in The Heaven.
And come, accompany Me!”

Matt. 19:22 But the young man
having heard that saying
went away distressed
because he had many possessions.

Matt. 19:23 Then YAHUSHUA
said to His students,
“Assuredly, I say to you
that it is difficult for a wealthy one to enter into The Kingdom of The Heavens!

Matt. 19:24 And furthermore I say to you it is easier for a camel
to go through the eye of a needle
than for a wealthy one to enter into
The Kingdom of YAHWEH.”

Note the conjunction
of The Kingdom of The Heavens
and The Kingdom of YAHWEH.
This is the first time
this direct link appears in Mattiyah.
It is most important.

Matt. 19:25 Then His students,
having heard this,

were exceedingly astonished saying,
"Who then can be delivered?"
Matt. 19:26 Then YAHUSHUA
looked firmly at them.
And He said to them,
"With human beings this is impossible,
but with YAHWEH all things are possible!"

Matt. 19:27 Then Peter responded
saying to Him, "Behold!
We have left everything
and accompanied You.
What then will we be like?"
Matt. 19:28 Then YAHUSHUA said to them,
"Assuredly, I say to you
that in the non-carnal rebirth
when The Son of Man sits upon the throne of His honor
you who have accompanied Me
will also sit upon twelve thrones
judging the twelve tribes of Yisra'el.
Matt. 19:29 And everyone who has left houses
or brothers
or sisters
or father
or mother
or wife
or children
or lands
for the sake of My Name
will receive a hundredfold.
And he will inherit Eternal Life.

Matt. 19:30 But many who are first will be last,
and the last first.

protos – foremost (in time, place, order, or importance)
- before, beginning, best, chief(est),
first (of all), former.
eschatos – farthest, final (of place or time)
– ends of, last, latter end, lowest, uttermost.

The text has been left as is in this case
because of its wide-spread usage,
but It appears
there is much more to its meaning than English conveys properly.

Chapter 20

Matt. 20:1 Indeed,
The Kingdom of The Heavens
is similar to a master of a house
who went out each day at dawn
to hire laborers for his vineyard.
Matt. 20:2 Now having agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day
he sent them into his vineyard.
Matt. 20:3 He also went out around the third hour
and saw others standing idle
in the marketplace,
Matt. 20:4 Likewise he said to them,
'You also go into the vineyard
and whatever is fair I will give to you.'
And they went.
Matt. 20:5 Again he went out around the sixth and the ninth hour and did the same.
Matt. 20:6 And around the eleventh hour
he went out and found others standing idle.
And he said to them,
'Why have you been standing here idle all day?'
Matt. 20:7 They said to him,
'Because no one hired us.'

He said to them,
'You also go into the vineyard
and whatever is fair you will receive.'

Matt. 20:8 Now evening having come,
the master of the vineyard
said to his steward.
'Call the laborers and give them their wages beginning from the last until the first.'

Matt. 20:9 And those having come around the eleventh hour
each received a denarius.

Matt. 20:10 Now when the first came
they supposed that they would receive more.
Yet they also each received a denarius.

Matt. 20:11 Now having received it they grumbled against the master of the house
Matt. 20:12 saying,

"These last ones have worked only one hour
and you made them equal to us who have endured the burden
and the heat of the day.'

Matt. 20:13 Then he responded to one of them.
And he said,

"Friend, I am doing you no wrong.
Did you not agree with me for a denarius?"

Matt. 20:14 Take what is yours
and go your way.

I desire to give to this last man
the same as to you.

Matt. 20:15 Is it not right for me to do what I desire
with my own things?

Or is your eye bad because I am good?"

Matt. 20:16 Even so,
the last will be first and the first last,
for many are invited but few selected."

Matt. 20:17 Now YAHUSHUA,
going up to Yerushalaim,
drew the twelve students aside on the road.

And He said to them,

Matt. 20:18 "Behold!
We are going up to Yerushalaim.

And The Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and to the scribes.

And they will sentence Him to death.

Matt. 20:19 And they will deliver Him to the Gentiles

for the sake of ridicule,

and scourging,

and crucifixion.

Yet at the third day He will be raised up!"

Matt. 20:20 Then the mother of the sons of Zabdiy
approached Him with her sons, prostrating herself
and asking for something from Him.

Matt. 20:21 And He said to her,
"What do you desire?"

Then she said to Him,

"Direct that these, my two sons, are seated,
one by Your right hand
and the other by the left,
in Your kingdom."

Matt. 20:22 Then YAHUSHUA responded saying,
"You do not understand what you ask.

Are you able to drink the cup
that I am about to drink,
and to be baptized with the baptism
that I am to be baptized with?"

They said to Him, "We are able."

baptizo – means to immerse, submerge.
YAHUSHUA has already been baptized
by Yahnathan The Baptizer
in The Yarden River.
He is not about to have that repeated.

Thus what is represented
is the complete immersion
in the experiences that lie ahead.

Matt. 20:23 And He said to them,
“You will indeed drink My cup,
and be baptized with the baptism
that I am baptized with.

However,
to sit at My right hand and at My left
is not Mine to give,
but is for whom for which it is prepared by My Father.”

Matt. 20:24 And having heard it,
the ten were greatly displeased
concerning the two brothers.

Matt. 20:25 Then YAHUSHUA summoned them.
And He said, “You understand that the rulers of the Gentiles control them,
and those who are great
have full authority over them.

Matt. 20:26 But it will not be this way among you!
Instead, whoever desires to become great among you will be your servant!

Matt. 20:27 And whoever desires to be first among you,
let him be your servant,

Matt. 20:28 just as The Son of Man
did not come to be served,
but rather to serve,

and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

lutron – something to loosen with,
i.e. a redemption price (figuratively, atonement) – ransom.

A ransom is the price paid for one's freedom.
The loosening is from the debt owed because of rebellion (offense)
against YAHWEH's will.

Matt. 20:29 And as they went out of Yericho
a great crowd accompanied Him.

Matt. 20:30 And behold!

Two blind men sitting beside the road,
having heard that YAHUSHUA was passing by,
cried out saying,

“Have compassion on us,
Master, Son of David!”

Matt. 20:31 But the crowd admonished them
in order that they should be quiet.

But they cried in greater degree saying,
“Have compassion on us, Master, Son of David!”

Matt. 20:32 And YAHUSHUA stood.
And He called to them.

And He said,

“What do you desire that I do for you?”

Matt. 20:33 They said to Him,

“Master, that our eyes may be opened.”

Matt. 20:34 Then YAHUSHUA had compassion.

And He touched their eyes.

And at once their eyes received sight.

And they accompanied Him.

Chapter 21

Matt. 21:1 And having drawn near to Yerushalaim, and having come to BayitPhag
on the Mount of Olives,
then YAHUSHUA sent two students,

BayitPhag means house of figs.

Matt. 21:2 saying to them,
“Go into the village before you.
And immediately you will find a donkey tied
and a colt with her.
Loose them and bring them to Me.
Matt. 21:3 And if anyone says anything to you,
you are to say,
“The Master has need of them,’
And immediately he will send them.”

Matt. 21:4 Now all this happened
in order that it might be fulfilled
which was spoken by the prophet saying,
Matt. 21:5 “*Tell the daughter of Zion,
‘Behold!
Your King is coming to you humbly
and sitting on a donkey,
a colt, the foal of a donkey.’”*

(Zech 9.9-10)

Matt. 21:6 Then the students went and did
as YAHUSHUA urged them.
Matt. 21:7 They brought the donkey
and the colt,
laid their clothes over them,
and seated Him upon them.

Matt. 21:8 Then a very great crowd spread their clothes on the road.
Then others chopped branches from the trees
and spread them on the road.
Matt. 21:9 Then the crowds that went before
and those who followed cried out saying, “Hosanna to The Son of David!
‘Blessed be He Who comes
in the Name of YAHWEH!’ Hosanna in the highest!”

Hosanna means “save now!”
It is both a request for help
and an exclamation of praise.
This was typical of a crowd
acclaiming a new king in Yisra'el.

The reference to The Son of David is a direct reference to The Messiah.

Once again we find the confusing use of “The LORD” in most translations.
Is it YAHWEH, or is it YAHUSHUA?

He is not coming in His own Name,
representing Himself.
He is coming as the representative of The Most High, YAHWEH.
The context reveals this.

hupsistos – superlative meaning highest,
i.e. The Supreme (God) or the heavens
– most high, highest.

Matt. 21:10 And having entered into Yerushalaim,
the whole city was rocked saying,
“Who is this?”

seio – to rock
(vibrate, properly, sideways or to and fro),
i.e. (generally) to agitate, (figuratively, to throw into a tremor
(of fear or concern)
– move, quake, shake.

It's the term used for an earthquake.
It's use is somewhat humorous in this instance.

Matt. 21:11 Then the crowds said,
“This is YAHUSHUA, the prophet
from Nazareth of The Galil.”

Matt. 21:12 Then YAHUSHUA entered into
The Temple of YAHWEH.

And He ejected everyone who bought and sold in The Temple.
And He turned upside down
the tables of the money changers
and the benches of those who sold doves.
Matt. 21:13 And He said to them,
"It is written,
'My house is to be called a house of prayer,'
(Is. 56.7)

but you have made it 'a den of thieves.'"
(Jer. 7.11)

Matt. 21:14 Then the blind and the lame approached Him in The Temple.
And He healed them.

Matt. 21:15 But when the chief priests and scribes saw the signs that He did and the children crying out in The Temple and saying, "Hosanna to The Son of David!"
they were greatly displeased.
Matt. 21:16 And they said to Him,
"Do You hear what these are saying?"
And YAHUSHUA said to them, "Yes!
Have you never read,
'Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants
You have perfected praise?'"
(Ps. 8.2)

Matt. 21:17 Then He left them.
And He went out of the city to BayitAny.
And He spent the night there.

Matt. 21:18 Now in the morning
as He returned to the city,
He was hungry.
Matt. 21:19 And seeing a fig tree by the road,
He came to it
and found nothing on it but leaves.
And He said to it,
"May there be no fruit upon you forever."
And instantly the fig tree shriveled up.
Matt. 21:20 And the students having seen it marveled saying,
"How instantly the fig tree shriveled up!"

Matt. 21:21 Then YAHUSHUA
responded to them saying,
"Assuredly I say to you,
if you trust and do not waver
you will not only do
as was done to the fig tree,
but instead even if you say to this mountain,
'Be lifted up and be thrown into the sea.'
it will be done.
Matt. 21:22 And however much
you might ask in prayer,
trusting,
you will receive."

Matt. 21:23 And having come into The Temple,
the chief priests and the elders of the people
approached Him as He was teaching saying,
"By what authority are You doing these things?
And who gave You this authority?"
Matt. 21:24 Then YAHUSHUA responded,
saying to them,
"I also will ask you one thing,
which if you tell Me I also will tell you
by what authority I do these things.
Matt. 21:25 The baptism of Yahanathan,
where was it from?
From The Heaven or from human beings?"
Then they deliberated among themselves

saying, "If we say, 'From The Heaven.'
He will say to us,
'Why then did you not believe him?'
Matt. 21:26 But if we say, 'From human beings.'
we are afraid of the crowd because everyone holds Yahonathan to be a prophet."
Matt. 21:27 And they responded to YAHUSHUA saying,
"We do not understand."
And He said to them,
"Neither do I tell you
by what authority I do these things.

Matt. 21:28 But what do you think?
A person had two sons.
And he approached the first and said,
'Son, go! Work today in my vineyard.'
Matt. 21:29 Then He responded saying,
"I do not want to.'
But afterward he regretted it and went.
Matt. 21:30 Then he approached the second and said likewise.
Now he responded saying, "I go, sir!
But he did not go.
Matt. 21:31 Which of the two did the will of his father?"
They said to Him, "The first."
YAHUSHUA said to them,
"Assuredly I say to you
that tax collectors and prostitutes
will go into The Kingdom of YAHWEH before you.
Matt. 21:32 Indeed, Yahonathan came to you through the way of justification.
And you did not believe him.
But the tax collectors
and the prostitutes
believed him.
And having seen it
you did not afterward regret it
and believe him.

Matt. 21:33 Listen to another parable.
There was a certain landowner
who planted a vineyard,
and set a hedge around it,
and dug a winepress in it,
and built a tower.
And he leased it to farmers
and went into a far country.
Matt. 21:34 Now when the time of the fruit drew near
he sent his servants to the farmers
in order that they might receive its fruit.
Matt. 21:35 And the farmers took his servants,
beat one,
then killed one,
then stoned another.
21:36 Again he sent other servants,
more than the first.
And they did the same to them.
Matt. 21:37 Then last of all
he sent his son to them saying,
'They will respect my son.'
Matt. 21:38 But the farmers,
having seen the son,
said amongst themselves, "This is the heir.
Come on!
Let us kill him and seize his inheritance.'
Matt. 21:39 So they took him
and threw him out of the vineyard.
And they killed him.
Matt. 21:40 Therefore, when the master of the vineyard comes what will he do to those farmers?"

Matt. 21:41 They said to Him,
“He will badly destroy those worthless ones
and lease his vineyard to other farmers who will give him the fruits in their set times.”

Matt. 21:42 YAHUSHUA said to them,
“Have you never read in The Scriptures,
*‘The stone which the builders rejected
has become the chief cornerstone.
This was YAHWEH’s doing
and it is marvelous in our eyes?’*”
(Ps, 118.22)

Matt. 21:43 Because of this I say to you that
The Kingdom of YAHWEH
will be taken away from you and given to a people
producing the fruits thereof.
Matt. 21:44 And whoever falls upon this stone will be shattered.
But on whomever it falls,
it will grind him to powder.”

Matt. 21:45 And the chief priests
and the Pharisees,
having heard His parables,
perceived that He was speaking of them.
Matt. 21:46 But seeking to lay hands on Him,
they feared the crowds
because they held Him to be a prophet.

Chapter 22

Matt. 22:1 And YAHUSHUA responded,
speaking to them again by parables saying,
Matt. 22:2 “The Kingdom of The Heavens is comparable to a certain king
who arranged a marriage for his son.
Matt. 22:3 And He sent out his servants
to call those who were called to the wedding.
Yet they did not wish to come.
Matt. 22:4 Again he sent out
other servants saying, “Tell those who are called, ‘Behold!
I have prepared my dinner.
My oxen and fatted cattle have been killed
and everything is ready.
Come to the wedding.’ “
Matt. 22:5 But they were not interested.
And they went their ways,
one to his own farm,
another to his business.
Matt. 22:6 And the remaining ones
seized his servants,
abused them,
and killed them.
Matt. 22:7 Now the king, having heard this,
was enraged.
And he dispatched his armies,
destroyed those murderers,
and set their city on fire.

Matt. 22:8 Then he said to his servants,
“The wedding is indeed ready,
but those who were called were not deserving.
Matt. 22:9 Travel therefore,
upon the crossings of the roads
and as many as you find call to the wedding.’
Matt. 22:10 And those servants
went out onto the roads.
And they gathered together
all whom they found,
both bad and good.
And the wedding was filled with guests.

Matt. 22:11 Then the king,

having come in to review the guests,
saw a person there not clothed
with a wedding garment.

Matt. 22:12 And he said to him,
“Friend, how did you come in here without a wedding garment?”

And he was speechless.

Matt. 22:13 Then the king said to the servants, “Bind him hand and foot.

Carry him away
and throw him into the outer darkness.
There will be lamentation
and grinding of the teeth.’

Matt. 22:14 Indeed, many are invited,
but few are selected.”

Matt. 22:15 Then the Pharisees went.

And they plotted
how to ensnare Him in His words.

Matt. 22:16 And they sent to Him their students with the Herodians saying, “Teacher, we understand
that You are not concealed,
and also teach the way of YAHWEH in truth.
Nor are You concerned about anyone.

Indeed, You do not look
at the appearance of persons.

Matt. 22:17 Tell us, therefore what You think.
Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

Matt. 22:18 But YAHUSHUA,
knowing their depravity, said,
“Why do you test Me, you hypocrites?”

Matt. 22:19 Show Me the tax money!”
Then they brought Him a denarius.

Matt. 22:20 And He said to them,
“Whose is this image and inscription?”

Matt. 22:21 They said to Him, “Caesar’s.”

And He said to them,
“Give back therefore to Caesar
the things that are Caesar’s,
and to YAHWEH
the things that are YAHWEH’s.”

Matt. 22:22 Having heard this they marveled.
And they left Him.
And they went their way.

Matt. 22:23 On the very same day
the Sadducees,
who say there is no resurrection from death,
approached Him and asked Him

Matt. 22:24 saying,
“Teacher, Moshe said that if one dies
having no children
his brother is to marry his wife and raise up offspring
for the sake of his brother.

Matt. 22:25 Now there were among us
seven brothers.
The first died after he had married.
And having no offspring
left his wife to his brother.

Matt. 22:26 Similarly the second also,
and the third,
even to the seventh.

Matt. 22:27 Then last of all
the woman died also.

Matt. 22:28 Therefore, in the resurrection,
whose wife of the seven
will she be because they all had her?”

Matt. 22:29 Then YAHUSHUA responded.
And He said to them,
“You are mistaken,
not understanding The Scriptures
nor the power of YAHWEH
Matt. 22:30 because in the resurrection
they neither marry nor are given in marriage
but instead are the same as the messengers of YAHWEH
in The Heaven.

Matt. 22:31 Now concerning
the resurrection of the dead,
have you not read what was spoken to you
by YAHWEH saying,

Matt. 22:32 *“I am The Elohim of Abraham,
The Elohim of Yitzhak,
and The Elohim of Ya’akov.”*

(Ex. 3.6)

YAHWEH is not The Elohim of the dead
but rather, of the living.”

Matt. 22:33 And the crowds having heard this were astonished at His teaching.

Matt. 22:34 But the Pharisees, having heard that He had silenced the Sadducees, gathered together concerning this.

Matt. 22:35 And one of them, a lawyer,
asked Him a question,
testing Him, and saying,

Matt. 22:36 “Teacher,
which is the greatest teaching
in The Torah?”

Matt. 22:37 Then YAHUSHUA said to him,
*“You are to love YAHWEH, your Elohim,
with all your heart,
with all your nature,
and with all your mind.’*

(Deut. 6.5)

Matt. 22:38 This is the first and greatest teaching.

Matt. 22:39 And a second is similar to it.

“You are to love your neighbor as yourself.’

(Lev. 19.18)

Matt. 22:40 On these two teachings hang all of The Torah and The Prophets.”

There are two things to note here.
First, He speaks of “teachings”, not laws.
The Torah is entirely based on instruction.

YAHWEH does not demand obedience.
Instead, He offers us the opportunity to choose for ourselves
whether we will follow His instructions,
His teachings, or not.

Everything is determined by these choices.

Second, These two teachings are identified as the foundation of both
The Torah and The Prophets.
This was the entire Scriptures
of the Hebrew people.

The point being made is that these two teachings determine everything
in our responses to YAHWEH!
This is extremely profound!

Matt. 22:41 Now the Pharisees
having gathered together,

YAHUSHUA questioned them

Matt. 22:42 saying,

“What do you think concerning The Messiah?
Whose Son is He?”

They said to Him, "The Son of David."
Matt. 22:43 He said to them,
"How then does David,
by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
call Him Master saying,
Matt. 22:44 'YAHWEH said to my Master,
"Sit at My right hand
until I make Your enemies Your footstool." '?
(Ps. 110.1)

Matt. 22:45 If David then calls Him Master,
how is He his Son?"

Matt. 22:46 And no one was able to answer a word to Him.
Neither from that very day
did anyone dare question Him longer.

Chapter 23

Matt. 23:1 Then YAHUSHUA
spoke to the crowds and to His students,

Matt. 23:2 saying,
"The scribes and the Pharisees
are seated in Moshe's seat.

Matt. 23:3 Therefore, everything
they might tell you to observe,
that observe and do.

But do not do according to their works,
because they say, yet they do not do!

Matt. 23:4 Indeed, they bind heavy and oppressive burdens
and put them upon persons' shoulders,
but they themselves
will not move them with their fingers.

Matt. 23:5 But all their works
they do to be observed now by men.
They widen their phylacteries
and increase the borders of their garments.

*These are markers in one's life,
in this case used inappropriately for "show"
- to demonstrate how "religious"
they are to others.*

Matt. 23:6 They love the places
of importance at dinners,
the preeminent seats in the synagogues,
Matt. 23:7 and greetings in the marketplaces,
also to be called by persons, 'Rabbi, Rabbi.'

*Rabbi means My Master.
It was a title of great respect.*

Matt. 23:8 But you are not to be called "Rabbi"
because One is your Teacher, The Messiah.
And you are all His kindred.

*The use of the term 'brothers'
is found frequently in The Old Covenant.
The Hebrew term means both
'brother', in the sense of family,
and kindred', in the sense of all Yisra'elites
being related to one another.
The context suggests that it is the latter that is intended here
and not the former.*

Matt. 23:9 Do not call anyone upon the earth your father
because One is your Father,
He Who is in The Heavens.

Matt. 23:10 And do not be called guides
because one is your guide, The Messiah.

Matt. 23:11 And he who is greatest among you will be your servant.

Matt. 23:12 And whoever exalts himself
will be humiliated.
And he who humiliates himself
will be exalted.

Matt. 23:13 But woe to you,
scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites,
because you shut up
The Kingdom of The Heavens
in front of persons!
Indeed, you neither enter yourselves,
nor do you allow
those who are entering to enter.

Matt. 23:14 Woe to you scribes and Pharisees,
hypocrites,
because you devour widows' houses,
and for a pretense make long prayers.
Because of this you will receive much greater condemnation.

Matt. 23:15 Woe to you scribes and Pharisees,
hypocrites,
because you travel land and sea
to win one proselyte.
Yet when he becomes one
you make him twice as much a son of hell as yourselves.

Matt. 23:16 Woe to you blind leaders who say,
'Whoever swears by The Temple, it is nothing,
but whoever swears by the gold of The Temple,
he is under obligation.'

Matt. 23:17 Fools and blind!
Indeed, which is greater, the gold
or The Temple that sanctifies the gold?

Matt. 23:18 And,
'Whoever swears by the slaughter site,
it is nothing.
But whoever swears by the gift that is on it,
he is obligated.'

Matt. 23:19 Fools and blind!
Indeed, which is greater, the gift
or the slaughter site that sanctifies the gift?

Matt. 23:20 Therefore he who swears
by the slaughter site
swears by it and by all things on it.

Matt. 23:21 He who swears by The Temple
swears by it and by Him Who dwells in it.

Matt. 23:22 And he who swears by The Heaven swears by the throne of The Elohim
and by Him Who sits on it.

Matt. 23:23 Woe to you scribes and Pharisees,
hypocrites,
because you tithe mint and anise and cummin,
yet you have set aside
the weightier matters of The Torah,
justice, and compassion, and trust!
These you ought to do
without setting aside the others.

Matt. 23:24 Blind leaders, who strain out a gnat
and swallow a camel!

Matt. 23:25 Woe to you scribes and Pharisees,
hypocrites,
because you cleanse
the outside of the cup and dish,
but inside they are filled with extortion and self-indulgence.

Matt. 23:26 Blind Pharisee!
First cleanse the inside of the cup and dish
in order that the outside of them may be clean also.

Matt. 23:27 Woe to you scribes and Pharisees,
hypocrites,
because you resemble white washed tombs
which indeed appear beautiful outside,
but inside are full of bones of the dead
and every impurity.

Contact with anything dead
made one "unclean",
defiled under The Torah.

Matt. 23:28 Even so, you also indeed
appear just on the outside to human beings,
but inside you are full of hypocrisy
and violations of Torah.

Matt. 23:29 Woe to you scribes and Pharisees,
hypocrites,
because you build the tombs of the prophets
and decorate the monuments of the innocent.

Matt. 23:30 And you say,
'If we had lived in the days of our fathers
we would not have been partakers with them
in the blood of the prophets.'

Matt. 23:31 Therefore, you are witnesses against yourselves that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets.

Matt. 23:32 You fill up then the measure of your fathers' guilt!

Matt. 23:33 Serpents!
Offspring of poisonous snakes!
How can you escape
the condemnation of hell?

Matt. 23:34 Because of this, behold!
I send you prophets,
and wise men,
and scribes.
Some of them you will kill and crucify,
and some of them you will scourge
in your assemblies
and will persecute from city to city, Matt. 23:35 so that upon you may come
all the innocent blood shed upon the earth,
from the blood of innocent Hebel
to the blood of Zekaryah, son of Berekyah, whom you murdered between The Temple
and the slaughter site.

Hebel means transitory, emptiness.
Zakaryah means remembered by YAHWEH.
Berekyah means blessed of YAHWEH.

Matt. 23:36 Assuredly, I say to you,
all these things will come upon this generation.

Matt. 23:37 Yerushalaim! Yerushalaim!
Who kill the prophets
and stone those who are sent to her!
How often I desired
to gather your children together,
as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings!
But you were not willing!

Matt. 23:38 Behold!
Your house is left to you desolate!
Matt. 23:39 Indeed, I say to you,
you will see Me no more until you say,
"Blessed is He who comes
in the Name of YAHWEH!"
(Ps. 118.26)

Chapter 24

Matt. 24:1 Then YAHUSHUA went out.
And He went away from The Temple.
And His students approached Him
to show Him the architecture of The Temple.
Matt. 24:2 And YAHUSHUA said to them,
“Do you not see all these things?
Assuredly I say to you,
there will not be left here
a stone upon a stone
that will not be thrown down!”

Matt. 24:3 Now as He sat
upon the Mount of Olives
the students approached Him
by Himself saying,
“Tell us when will these things be?
And what will be the sign of Your coming
and of the entire completion of the age?”
parousia – being near, i.e. advent (often, return; specially of The Messiah to punish Yerushalaim, or finally the wicked)
– coming, presence.

Matt. 24:4 Then YAHUSHUA responded
saying to them,
“Watch, so that no one deceives you!
planao – to (properly, cause to) roam
(from safety, truth, or virtue)
– go astray, deceive, err, seduce,
wander, be out of the way.

Matt. 24:5 Indeed,
many will come in My Name saying,
“I am The Messiah!”
And they will deceive many.

Matt. 24:6 Then you will hear of wars
and rumors of wars.
Discern clearly so you are not frightened
because all these things must happen!
However, the end is not just yet.

Matt. 24:7 Indeed,
nation will rise against nation
and kingdom against kingdom.
And there will be famines, pestilences,
and earthquakes in various places.
*Or, race against race,
tribe against tribe,
Gentile against Gentile, etc.
This adds new meaning to the phrase.
Or, rule against rule,
royalty against royalty,
realm against realm.*

*Literally - plagues or diseases (epidemics)
Literally - a commotion,
i.e. storms, earthquakes.*

Matt. 24:8 All these are the beginning of pains.

Matt. 24:9 Then they will deliver you up into trouble.
And they will kill you.
And you will be detested by all nations
because of My Name.

Matt. 24:10 And at that time
many will be ensnared,
will betray one another,
and will detest one another.

Matt. 24:11 And many false prophets will rise up and deceive many.
Matt. 24:12 And because lawlessness will increase the love of many will grow cold.

Matt. 24:13 But he who endures to the end,
this one will be delivered.

Matt. 24:14 And this good news
concerning The Kingdom
will be proclaimed in the entire world
as a witness to all the peoples.
And at that time the end will arrive.

Matt. 24:15 Therefore, when you see
the 'abomination of desolation,'
spoken of by Daniel the prophet, (Dan. 12.11)
standing in The Set Apart Place
(Whoever reads let him comprehend.)

Matt. 24:16 at that time
let those who are in Yahudah
run away to the mountains!

Matt. 24:17 Let him who is upon the housetop,
not go down to take anything out of his house!

Matt. 24:18 Also let him who is in the field,
not go back to get his clothes!

Matt. 24:19 Now woe
to those who are pregnant
and to those who are nursing babies
in those days!

Matt. 24:20 And pray in order that your flight
may not be in winter nor on The Sabbath

Matt. 24:21 because at that time
there will exist great trouble,
of the sort that has not happened
from the beginning of the world until now!
No, nor ever will happen!

Matt. 24:22 And unless those days
were shortened
perhaps not any flesh would be delivered.
But because of the elect
those days will be shortened.

Matt. 24:23 At that time
if anyone says to you,
'Behold!
Here is The Messiah!' or 'There!'
Do not believe it!

Matt. 24:24 Indeed, false messiahs
and false prophets will arise.
And they will show great signs and wonders
to deceive if possible even the elect.

Matt. 24:25 Behold!
I have told you beforehand.

Matt. 24:26 Therefore, if they say to you,
'Behold!
He is in the desert!'
Do not go out!
Or 'Behold!
He is in the inner rooms!'
Do not believe it!

Matt. 24:27 Indeed, exactly as the lightning comes from the east and shines to the west,
in this manner also will be the coming of The Son of Man!

Matt. 24:28 Indeed,
if anywhere there is a corpse,
there will the vultures be gathered together.

[This is apparently a Hebraism that means
when you see one thing taking place](#)

the other is certain to follow.

Matt. 24:29 Now immediately after the trouble of those days
the sun will be obscured
and the moon will not give its light.
The stars will fall from the sky
and the powers of The Heavens will be shaken.

Matt. 24:30 And at that time the sign of The Son of Man will appear in the sky!
And at that time all the races of the earth will mourn.

And they will see The Son of Man coming upon the clouds of the sky with power and great splendor.

Matt. 24:31 And He will send out His messengers with a great sound of a shofar.
And they will gather together His elect from the four winds,
from one end of the skies to the other.

Matt. 24:32 Now learn this parable from the fig tree.
When its branch has already become tender and puts forth leaves
you know that summer is near.

Matt. 24:33 In this manner you also, when you see all these things, know that it is near, at the doors!

Matt. 24:34 Assuredly I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away until all these things happen!

Matt. 24:35 The sky and the earth will pass away. But My words will by no means pass away!

Matt. 24:36 Now concerning that day and hour no one knows, not even the messengers of The Heavens, except My Father alone.

Matt. 24:37 Now exactly like the days of Noah, in this manner also will be the coming of The Son of Man.

Matt. 24:38 Indeed, exactly like in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the container.

The word used for 'ark'
means a box or a chest, a container.
It was not a 'boat'.

Matt. 24:39 And they did not know until the flood came and carried them all away.

In this manner also will be the coming of The Son of Man.

Matt. 24:40 At that time two will be in the field.
One will be taken and the other one left.

Matt. 24:41 Two will be grinding at the mill.
One will be taken and the other one left.

Matt. 24:42 Be vigilant therefore because you do not understand which hour your Master comes!

Matt. 24:43 But know this,
that if the master of the house
had understood which hour
the thief would come
he would have been vigilant
and not permitted his house to be broken into.

Matt. 24:44 Because of this
you also are to be prepared
because The Son of Man is coming
at an hour you do not think!

Matt. 24:45 Who then is a faithful and wise servant
whom his master has appointed over his household
to give them food at the proper time?

Matt. 24:46 Blessed is that servant
whom his master, having come,
will find so doing.

Matt. 24:47 Assuredly, I say to you,
that he will appoint him over all his goods.

Matt. 24:48 But if that worthless servant
says in his heart,

'My master delays his coming,'

Matt. 24:49 and begins to beat his fellow servants

and to eat and drink with the drunkards,

Matt. 24:50 the master of that servant will come on a day when he is not anticipating him
and at an hour that he does not know!

Matt. 24:51 And He will cut him in two.

And He will place his portion
with the hypocrites.

There will be lamentation
and grinding of the teeth.

Chapter 25

Matt. 25:1 At that time

The Kingdom of The Heavens
will be compared to ten maidens
who took their lamps
and went out to meet the bridegroom.

Matt. 25:2 Now five of them were wise
and five were stupid.

Matt. 25:3 Those who were stupid,
taking their own lamps,
took no olive oil with them.

Matt. 25:4 But the wise
took olive oil in their vessels with their lamps.

Matt. 25:5 But since the bridegroom was delayed
they all nodded off and slept.

Matt. 25:6 Now in the middle of the night
a cry was heard.

'Behold!

The bridegroom is coming!

Go out to meet him!'

Matt. 25:7 Then all those maidens awakened
and put their lamps in order.

Matt. 25:8 Then the stupid said to the wise,
"Give to us some of your olive oil
because our lamps have gone out.'

Matt. 25:9 But the wise responded saying,
"No, lest there is not enough for us and you.
But instead, go to those who sell
and buy for yourselves.'

Matt. 25:10 Now as they went to buy the bridegroom came.

And those who were prepared entered with him into the wedding.
Then the door was shut.

Matt. 25:11 Now later the other maidens
also came saying,
'Master! Master!
Open up for us!'

Matt. 25:12 But he responded saying,
"Assuredly I say to you,
I do not know you!"

Matt. 25:13 Be vigilant therefore because you understand
neither the day nor the hour
in which The Son of Man is coming!

Matt. 25:14 Indeed, it is just like a person
traveling to a far country
who called his own servants
and delivered to them his goods.

Matt. 25:15 And to one he gave five talents,
to another two, and to another one,
to each according to his own ability.
And at once he traveled to a far country.

Matt. 25:16 Then he who had received the five talents
went and worked with them.

And he made another five talents.

Matt. 25:17 And likewise he who had two also gained two more.

Matt. 25:18 But he who had received one went and dug in the ground
and concealed his master's money.

Matt. 25:19 Now after a long time
the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them.

Matt. 25:20 And he who had received five talents
came and brought five other talents saying,
'Master, you delivered to me five talents.
Behold!

I have gained five more talents besides them.'

Matt. 25:21 His master said to him,
'Well done good and faithful servant.
You were faithful over a few things.

I will appoint you over many things.
Enter into the delight of your master.'

Matt. 25:22 He also who had received two talents
came and said,

'Master, you delivered to me two talents.
Behold!

I have gained two more talents besides them.'

Matt. 25:23 His master said to him,
"Well done good and faithful servant.
You have been faithful over a few things.

I will appoint you over many things.
Enter into the delight of your master.'

Matt. 25:24 And now he who had received the one talent came and said,
'Master, I knew you to be a hard person,
harvesting where you have not sown
and gathering where you have not scattered.

Matt. 25:25 And I was afraid.
I went and concealed your talent in the ground.
Behold!

You have what is yours.'

Matt. 25:26 And his master responded.
And he said to him, 'Hurtful and lazy servant!
You understood that I harvest
where I have not sown
and gather where I have not scattered.

Matt. 25:27 Therefore, you ought to have deposited my money with the bankers. And at my coming I would have received back my own with interest.
Matt. 25:28 Therefore, take the talent away from him and give it to him who has ten talents.

Matt. 25:29 Indeed, to everyone who has more will be given. And he will have an excess. But from him who does not have even what he has will be taken away.
Matt. 25:30 Also, throw the useless servant into the outer darkness. There will be lamentation and grinding of the teeth.'

Matt. 25:31 Now when The Son of Man comes in His splendor and all the set apart messengers with Him, at that time He will sit down upon the throne of His splendor.
Matt. 25:32 And before Him will be gathered together all the nations. And He will separate them from each other just as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.
Matt. 25:33 And He will stand the sheep on His right hand but the goats on the left hand.

Matt. 25:34 At that time The King will say to those on His right hand, 'Come here, you blessed of My Father! Inherit The Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world!

Matt. 25:35 Indeed, I was hungry and you gave Me food. I was thirsty and you gave Me drink. I was a foreigner and you took Me in.
Matt. 25:36 I was naked and you clothed Me. I was sick and you visited Me. I was in prison and you came to Me.'

Matt. 25:37 Then the innocent will respond to Him saying, 'Master, when did we see You hungry and feed You or thirsty and give You drink?
Matt. 25:38 When did we see You as a foreigner and take You in, or naked and clothe You?
Matt. 25:39 Or when did we see You sick or in prison and come to You?'
Matt. 25:40 And The King will respond. And He will say to them, 'Assuredly, I say to you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these, My kindred, you did it to Me!'

Matt. 25:41 Then He will also say to those on the left hand, 'Go away from Me you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for The False Accuser and his messengers.

Matt. 25:42 Indeed, I was hungry and you gave Me no food.

I was thirsty
and you gave Me no drink.
Matt. 25:43 I was a foreigner
and you did not take Me in, naked
and you did not clothe Me, sick and in prison
and you did not visit Me.'

Matt. 25:44 Then they also will respond to Him saying,
'Master, when did we see You hungry,
or thirsty,
or a foreigner,
or naked,
or sick,
or in prison,
and did not attend to You?'
Matt. 25:45 Then He will respond to them saying,
'Assuredly, I say to you,
inasmuch as you did not do it
to one of the least of these you did not do it to Me!'

Matt. 25:46 And these will go away
into eternal punishment,
but the innocent into Eternal Life."

Chapter 26

Matt. 26:1 Now it was as YAHUSHUA
had finished all these sayings.
And He said to His students,
Matt. 26:2 "You understand that after two days is The Passover,
and The Son of Man will be delivered up
to be crucified."

The Passover carries immense significance.
It should be observed in some manner
even by Gentile believers today.

While it is a reminder of the deliverance
from Egyptian bondage for the Yisra'elites,
what follows will establish that The Messiah fulfilled The Passover
for every believer!

Because of His death,
resurrection, and ascension
YOUR offense debt is also PASSED OVER!

It was in the midst of the very celebration of Passover
that YAHUSHUA caused this to happen
- for EVERY believer!

Matt. 26:3 Then the chief priests, the scribes,
and the elders of the people assembled together at the palace
of the great priest, who was called Caiaphas.
Matt. 26:4 And they determined to seize YAHUSHUA by deceit and kill Him.
Matt. 26:5 But they said, "Not during the feast
lest there be a disturbance among the people."

Matt. 26:6 And YAHUSHUA, being in BayitAny
at the house of Shim'on the leper,
Matt. 26:7 a woman approached Him,
having an alabaster flask
of highly valuable myrrh.
And she poured it upon His head
as He reclined at the meal.

Myrrh is the oil that is used to anoint the dead for burial.

Matt. 26:8 But His students, having seen it,
were very displeased saying,
"For what sake is this waste?"

Matt. 26:9 Indeed, this myrrh
could have been sold for much
and given to the poor.”

Matt. 26:10 But YAHUSHUA, knowing it,
said to them,
“Why do you present trouble to the woman?
Indeed, she has done a good work unto Me.
Matt. 26:11 Indeed, you always have the poor with you.
But Me you do not have always.
Matt. 26:12 Indeed, she poured this myrrh
upon My body.
She did it for My burial.

Matt. 26:13 Assuredly, I say to you,
wherever this good news is proclaimed
in the whole world
what this woman has done will also be told
as a reminder of her!”

Matt. 26:14 Then one of the twelve,
called Yahudah of Iscariot,
went to the chief priests.
Matt. 26:15 And he said,
“What will you give to me?
I will deliver Him up to you.”
And they stood with him
for thirty pieces of silver.

Matt. 26:16 And from that time
he sought a favorable occasion to betray Him.

Matt. 26:17 Now the first day of the Feast of The Unleavened Bread
the students approached YAHUSHUA
saying to Him,
“Where do You desire us to prepare for You to eat The Passover?”
Matt. 26:18 Then He said,
“Go into the city to this certain man
and say to him,
‘The Teacher says, “My time is near.
Make the Passover for you with My students.” ‘
Matt. 26:19 And the students did
as YAHUSHUA had directed them.
And they prepared The Passover meal.

Matt. 26:20 Now it having become evening,
He sat down with the twelve.
Matt. 26:21 And as they were eating He said,
“Assuredly, I say to you,
one of you will betray Me!”
Matt. 26:22 And they were exceedingly distressed.
And each of them began to say to Him,
“Master, is it I?”
Matt. 26:23 He responded saying,
“He who dipped his hand with Me in the bowl.
This same one will betray Me.

Matt. 26:24 The Son of Man indeed goes,
just as it is written concerning Him.
But woe to that person
through whom The Son of Man is betrayed!
It would be good if that human being had not been born.”

Matt. 26:25 Then Yahudah,
who was betraying Him,
responded saying, “Rabbi, is it not I?”
The literal rendering of the text.
He said to him, “You yourself have said it.”

Matt. 26:26 And as they were eating YAHUSHUA took the bread,
blessed it, and broke it,
and gave it to the students.
And He said,
"Take, eat!
This is My body."

Matt. 26:27 And He took the cup.
And He gave thanks.

And He gave it to them saying,
"Drink from it, all of you!

Matt. 26:28 Indeed, this is My blood
of The New Covenant
which is poured out concerning many
for the sake of pardon of offenses.

Tradition teaches that this is
"The Lord's Supper" - "communion".

However, this is not correct!

This cup and this bread
were part of The Passover (Pesach) meal.
They are inseparably linked to this meal.

It was this specific meal
that was to be utilized to remember the death and resurrection of YAHUSHUA.
The act of remembering
was to take place once each year
- at Passover!

It was not intended to become
a "weekly" or "monthly" ritual,
one which loses its true meaning and significance
when separated from The Festival of Pesach.

For The New Covenant believer,
the covenant that was established
at precisely this point,
in the midst of the Pesach meal,
by YAHUSHUA,

Pesach (Passover)
was given a whole new meaning.

The offense-debt of every believer
had now been "passed over"
because of the body and blood
- given in our place -
of YAHUSHUA, The Hebrew Messiah!

It took place at PASSOVER!
There is a reason!

YAHWEH used this specific event
to deliver/save/rescue us
from our bondage to our offenses (sins).

It is a despicable thing
to separate YAHUSHUA from Passover!

It is perverse
to trivialize His "body and blood"
by the manner in which
"communion" is now practised!

YAHWEH cannot be pleased
with such desecration of His sacred meal,
The Pesach meal.

And what's worse
- most so-called believers
do not even know what Pesach/Passover is,
or when it is to be celebrated.

Matt. 26:29 Now I say to you
I will not drink of this fruit of the vine
from now on until that day
when I drink it new with you in My Father's Kingdom."

Matt. 26:30 And having sung a hymn
they went out onto The Mount of Olives.

Matt. 26:31 At that time
YAHUSHUA said to them,
“All of you will be ensnared because of Me
this very night.
Indeed, it is written,
*‘I will strike The Shepherd,
and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’*
(Zech. 13.7)

Matt. 26:32 But after I have been raised up
I will go before you into The Galil.”

Matt. 26:33 Peter responded saying to Him,
“Even if all are ensnared because of You
I will never be ensnared.”

Matt. 26:34 YAHUSHUA said to him,
“Assuredly, I say to you that this very night
before the rooster crows
you will utterly deny Me three times.”

Matt. 26:35 Peter said to Him,
“Even if I must die with You
I will not deny You!”
Likewise said all the students.

Matt. 26:36 Then YAHUSHUA went with them into a place called Gethsemane.
And He said to the students,
“Sit here while I go and pray over there.”

Matt. 26:37 And He took with Him
Peter and the two sons of Zabdiy.
And He began to be grieved
and deeply distressed.

Matt. 26:38 Then He said to them,
“My life is exceedingly grieved,
even to the point of death.
Stay here and be vigilant with Me!”

Matt. 26:39 And He went a little farther.
And He fell upon His face.
And He prayed saying,
“My Father, if it is possible,
let this cup pass away from Me!
Nevertheless, not as I desire,
but rather as You desire.”

Matt. 26:40 And He came to the students.
And He found them sleeping.
And He said to Peter, “What!
Could you not be vigilant with Me one hour?”

Matt. 26:41 Be vigilant and pray
lest you enter into testing!
The nature is truly willing,
but the flesh is weak.”

Matt. 26:42 Again for the second time
He went away and prayed saying,
“My Father, if this cup
cannot pass over from Me unless I drink it,
Your will be done!”

Matt. 26:43 And He came.
And found them asleep again
because their eyes were heavy.

Matt. 26:44 And He left them,
went away again,
and prayed the third time
saying the same words.

Matt. 26:45 Then He came to His students.
And He said to them,
“Sleep on and rest.

Behold!
The hour is at hand!
And The Son of Man is being betrayed
into the hands of offenders.

Matt. 26:46 Awake!
Let us be going!
Behold!
My betrayer is at hand.”

Matt. 26:47 And while He was still speaking,
Behold!
Yahudah, one of the twelve,
came with a great crowd
with swords and clubs
from the chief priests
and elders of the people.

Matt. 26:48 Now the one who betrayed Him
had given them a sign saying, “Whomever I embrace, He is the One.
Seize Him!”

Matt. 26:49 Immediately,
he went up to YAHUSHUA.
And he said, “Greetings, Rabbi!”
And he embraced Him.
Matt. 26:50 But YAHUSHUA said to him, “Friend, for the sake of what do you draw near?”

Then they approached
and laid hands on YAHUSHUA
and seized Him.

Matt. 26:51 And behold!
One of those with YAHUSHUA
extended his hand,
drew his sword,
and struck the slave of the great priest.
And he cut off his ear.
Matt. 26:52 Then YAHUSHUA said to him,
“Return your sword into its place!
Indeed, all who take the sword
will be destroyed by the sword.
Matt. 26:53 Or do you think that I am not able even now
to pray to My Father and He will provide Me
with more than twelve legions of messengers?

Matt. 26:54 How then can The Scriptures be fulfilled that it must happen thus?”

Matt. 26:55 In that very hour
YAHUSHUA said to the crowds,
“Have you come out as against a robber
with swords and clubs to seize Me?
I sat daily with you teaching in The Temple
and you did not seize Me.
Matt. 26:56 But all this has happened
in order that The Scriptures of the prophets
might be fulfilled.”

Then all the students left Him and ran away.

Matt. 26:57 And those who had seized YAHUSHUA
led Him away to Caiaphas, the great priest,
where the scribes and the elders
were gathered together.

Matt. 26:58 Now Peter followed Him
at a distance to the great priest’s courtyard.

And he went in and sat with the slaves
to observe the end.

Matt. 26:59 Now the high priests,
the elders,
and all the Sanhedrin
sought false testimony against YAHUSHUA
so that they might kill Him.

Matt. 26:60 But they found none.
Even though many false witnesses approached
they found none.

But at last two false witnesses approached.
Matt. 26:61 And they said, "This one said,
'I am able to demolish The Temple of YAHWEH
and to build it in three days.' "

Matt. 26:62 And the great priest stood up,
saying to Him,
"Do You respond with nothing?
Why has this one testified against You?"

Matt. 26:63 But YAHUSHUA was silent.
And the great priest responded saying to Him,
"I adjure You by The Living Elohim!
Tell us if You are The Messiah,
The Son of YAHWEH!"

Matt. 26:64 YAHUSHUA said to him,
"It is as you have said.
Moreover, I say to you,
after this you will see The Son of Man sitting at the right hand of The Power
and coming upon the clouds of the sky."

Matt. 26:65 Then the great priest
tore his clothes saying,
"He has spoken blasphemy!
What further need do we have of witnesses?
Behold!
Now you have heard His blasphemy!
Matt. 26:66 What do you think?"
They responded and said,
"He is liable to death."

Matt. 26:67 Then they spit in His face.
And they beat Him.
And others slapped Him,
Matt. 26:68 saying,
"Prophecy to us, Messiah!
Who is the one who struck You?"

Matt. 26:69 Now Peter sat outside in the courtyard.
And a slave girl approached him saying,
"You also were with YAHUSHUA of The Galil." Matt. 26:70 But he denied it
in front of them all saying,
"I do not understand what you are saying."
Matt. 26:71 And having gone out into the entrance,
another girl saw him.
And she said to the ones there,
"This one was also
with YAHUSHUA of Nazareth." Matt. 26:72 And once more
he denied with an oath,
"I do not recognize the Man!"
Matt. 26:73 And after a little while those who were standing there approached.
And they said to Peter,
"Surely you also are one of them because your speech makes it clear." Matt. 26:74 Then he began to curse and swear saying,

"I do not recognize the Man!"

Immediately a rooster crowed.
Matt. 26:75 And Peter remembered
the word of YAHUSHUA
Who had said to him,
"Before the rooster crows
you will deny Me three times."
And he went outside.
And he wept bitterly.

Chapter 27

Matt. 27:1 Now morning having come,
all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against YAHUSHUA
to kill Him.

Matt. 27:2 And having bound Him
they led Him away.

And they delivered Him up to Pontius Pilate, the governor.

*Pontius means of the sea.
Pilate means pressed close (like felt).*

Matt. 27:3 Then Yahudah,
who had betrayed Him,
seeing that He had been condemned,
regretted it.
And he gave back the thirty pieces of silver
to the chief priests and the elders
Matt. 27:4 saying,
"I have offended, betraying innocent blood."
But they said,
"What is that to us?
You see to it!"
Matt. 27:5 Then he threw the pieces of silver
in The Temple and departed.
And he went out and hanged himself.

Matt. 27:6 Now the chief priests took the silver pieces saying,
"It is not right to throw them into the treasury
since they are the blood money."

Matt. 27:7 And they took counsel.
And they bought with them the potter's field
to bury foreigners in.

Matt. 27:8 Consequently,
that field has been called
The Field of Blood to this day.

Matt. 27:9-10 At that time it was fulfilled
which was spoken
by Yirmeyah the prophet saying,
*"And they took the thirty pieces of silver,
the value of Him Who was priced,
Whom they of the children of Yisra'el priced,
and gave them for the potter's field,
as YAHWEH directed me."
(Zech. 11.12-13)*

Matt. 27:11 Now YAHUSHUA
stood before the governor.
And the governor asked Him saying,
"Are You The King of the Yisra'elites?"
Then YAHUSHUA said to him,
"It is as you say."

*There's a problem with using "Jews" here,
as is traditionally done.
While the tribe of Yahudah had become dominant
it was far from the only tribe
that existed in Yisra'el at this time.*

*Further, YAHUSHUA Himself was an Yisra'elite, even though He was also
from the Tribe of Yahudah.*

The use of the term "Jew" treats with injustice the students of
and believers in The Messiah,
Who had long been promised
to "the seed of Abraham.

The term "Jew" improperly
restricts things to only one tribe.

Lit. – You said it!
We use this expression ourselves,
and we understand what it means.

Matt. 27:12 And while being charged with an offense
by the chief priests and the elders
He responded not even once.

Matt. 27:13 Then Pilate said to Him,
"Do You not hear how many things
they testify against You?"

Matt. 27:14 But He did not respond to him,
not even one word,
so that the governor marveled greatly.

Matt. 27:15 Now at the feast
the governor was accustomed to releasing to the crowd one prisoner
whom they desired.

Matt. 27:16 Now at that time
they had a notorious prisoner called Barabbas.

Matt. 27:17 Therefore, having assembled,
Pilate said to them,
"Whom do you want me to release to you?
Barabbas,
or YAHUSHUA, Who is called The Messiah?"

Matt. 27:18 Indeed, he understood that because of ill will they had delivered Him up.

Matt. 27:19 Now having sat down upon the judgment seat
his wife sent to him saying,
"You have not one thing
on that innocent Man!
Indeed, I have suffered many things today
in a dream because of Him."

Matt. 27:20 But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds
in order that they should ask for Barabbas
and completely destroy YAHUSHUA.

Matt. 27:21 The governor responded then,
saying to them,
"Which of the two
do you want me to release to you?"
Then they said, "Barabbas!"
Matt. 27:22 Pilate said to them,
"What then shall I do with YAHUSHUA,
Who is called The Messiah?"
They all said to him,
"Let Him be crucified!"

Matt. 27:23 Then the governor said,
"Why? What harm has He done?"
But they screamed exceedingly saying,
"Let Him be crucified!"

Matt. 27:24 Then Pilate,
having seen that he benefited nothing,
but rather that a disturbance was coming,
took water.
And he washed his hands
in front of the crowd saying,

"I am innocent of the blood of this just One!
You see to it!"

Matt. 27:25 And all the people
responded saying,
"Let His blood be upon us
and upon our children!"

Matt. 27:26 Then he released Barabbas to them.

Then having had YAHUSHUA scourged
he delivered Him up to be crucified.

Scourging was among the most cruel
of Roman punishments.
It involved a whip with pieces of bone
tied to the ends of the multiple strands.
It tore the flesh wide open,
inflicting horrible pain
and damage to the person.
Many died under its administration.

Matt. 27:27 Then the soldiers of the governor took YAHUSHUA with them
into the Praetorium.

And they gathered around Him
the entire band of soldiers.

Matt. 27:28 And they stripped Him.

And they put a scarlet robe on Him.

Matt. 27:29 Then having braided a wreath
out of thorns,

they put it upon His head.

And they put a reed in His right hand.

And they kneeled in front of Him.

And they jeered at Him saying,
"Hail! King of the Yisra'elites!"

Matt. 27:30 And they spit upon Him.

And they took the reed
and beat Him on the head.

Matt. 27:31 And having jeered at Him,
they stripped Him.

And they put His own clothes on Him.

And they led Him away to be crucified.

Matt. 27:32 Now as they were coming out
they found a person of Cyrene, Shim'on by name.

This one they compelled to carry His torture stake.

Cyrene means supremacy of the bridle.

The cross is not a thing of beauty.
It is a very cruel instrument of death
- literally, a torture stake.

Matt. 27:33 And having come to a place called Golgotha,
(that is to say, Place of a Skull)

Matt. 27:34 they gave Him vinegar
mingled with bile to drink.

But having tasted it He would not drink it.

Matt. 27:35 Then they crucified Him.

And they divided His garments,
casting lots in order that it might be fulfilled
which was spoken by the prophet,

*"They divided My garments among them,
and for My clothing they cast lots."*

(Ps, 22.18)

Matt. 27:36 And sitting down,
they guarded Him there.

Matt. 27:37 And they placed above His head
His written accusation:

THIS IS YAHUSHUA,
THE KING OF THE YISRA'ELITES.

Matt. 27:38 At that same time
two thieves were crucified with Him,
one on the right side
and another one on the left side.

Matt. 27:39 Then those who passed by blasphemed Him,
shaking their heads
Matt. 27:40 and saying,
“You who destroy The Temple
and build it in three days,
save Yourself!
If You are The Son of The Elohim
come down from the torture stake.”

Matt. 27:41 Now in the same way
even the chief priests were jeering
with the scribes and the elders saying,
Matt. 27:42 “He saved others.
He is not able to save Himself.
If He is The King of Yisra'el
let Him now come down from the torture stake
and we will believe Him.
Matt. 27:43 He trusted in The Elohim.
Let Him rescue Him now if He desires Him
because He said,
'I am The Son of The Elohim.'

Because of their traditions the people would not have been using YAHWEH
at that time to refer to “God”.
They had been forbidden to do so
by the “leaders” of their religion.

Properly, YAHWEH
is the correct term to use here.
It's very important to recognize the depths
to which the religious leaders
had sunken at this time.

Matt. 27:44 Even the thieves
who were crucified with Him taunted Him.

Matt. 27:45 Now from the sixth hour
there was darkness over all the land
until the ninth hour.

Matt. 27:46 And about the ninth hour
YAHUSHUA cried out
with a loud voice saying,
“Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?”
that is, “My Elohim! My Elohim!
Why have You abandoned Me?”

Aramaic, the street language of the day.

Matt. 27:47 Now some standing there having heard said
that this one calls for Elijah!

Matt. 27:48 Immediately one of them ran
and took a sponge,
filled it with vinegar,
and put it on a reed.
And he gave Him to drink.

Matt. 27:49 The remaining ones said, “Let Him alone!
Let us see if Elijah will come to save Him!”

Matt. 27:50 Then YAHUSHUA,
having cried out again with a loud voice,
sent forth the breath.

The interpretation of this verse is often conditioned by one's religious perspective.
The meaning of the literal words
is presented here.
aphiemi – means to send forth.
It is translated in a wide variety of ways

- cry, forgive, forsake, lay aside, leave,
let (alone, be, go, have), omit,
put (send) away, remit, suffer, yield up.
Take your pick.

to pneuma – means the breath.
Pneuma by itself means a current of air,
i.e. breath (blast) or a breeze;
by analogy or figuratively, a spirit.

It appears from the context
it was the sending forth
(the releasing) of the breath,
which is what keeps us alive.
The text is indicating His physical death.

Matt. 27:51 Then behold!
The veil of The Temple
was split into two parts,
from top to bottom.
And the earth shook.
And the rocks were split.

Note the direction of the split,
top to bottom.
The veil was a woven tapestry
some four inches thick.
It was a divine act that split it,
but we often miss this truth.

Matt. 27:52 And the graves were opened.
And many bodies of the set apart ones
who had fallen asleep were raised up.

Matt. 27:53 And coming out of the graves
~~after His resurrection,~~
they entered into the set apart city.
And they appeared to many.

hagios -sacred; set apart; holy.

There's a problem with
"after His resurrection" given the context.
The text places these things
as happening at the same time
YAHUSHUA released His breath.

That was prior to His burial,
not after His resurrection.
This is quite likely a "gloss",
a later addition to the text.

Matt. 27:54 Now the centurion
and those with him
who were guarding YAHUSHUA,
having seen the earthquake
and the things that had happened,
feared greatly saying,
"Truly this was The Son of The Elohim!"

Matt. 27:55 And many women were there,
observing from afar,
who had accompanied YAHUSHUA
from The Galil, ministering to Him.

Matt. 27:56 Among them were Miryam Magdalene,
Miryam, the mother of Ya'akov and Yoses,
and the mother of Zabdiy's sons.

Matt. 27:57 Now evening having happened,
a wealthy person came from Arimathea named Yoseph,
who himself had also
become a student of YAHUSHUA.

Matt. 27:58 This man approached Pilate
and asked for the body of YAHUSHUA.
Then Pilate ordered the body
to be delivered to him.

Matt. 27:59 And Yoseph, having taken the body,
wrapped it with a clean linen cloth

Matt. 27:60 and placed it in his new tomb
which he had hewn out of the rock.

And he rolled a large stone
against the entrance to the tomb.
And he went away.

Matt. 27:61 Now Miryam Magdalene was there and the other Miryam, sitting opposite the tomb.

Matt. 27:62 Now on the next day,
which was after The Day of Preparation,
the chief priests and the Pharisees
came together before Pilate

Matt. 27:63 saying,
“Master, we remember that that deceiver,
still being alive, said,
‘After three days I will rise.’

Matt. 27:64 Therefore, order that the tomb
be rendered secure until the third day
lest His students come by night and steal Him,
and say to the people,
“He has been raised up out of being dead.”
Then the last deception
will be worse than the first.”

Matt. 27:65 Then Pilate said to them,
“You have a guard.
Go! Render it as secure as you know how.”
Matt. 27:66 So they went
and rendered the tomb secure,
sealing the stone along with a guard.

Chapter 28

Matt. 28:1 Now late on the day of The Sabbath,
as it was beginning to dawn
into the first of the Special Sabbath, Miryam Magdalene and the other Miryam
came to watch the tomb.

This refers to a shabbathown,
the Hebrew term for a special sabbath,
or day of rest.

There were two of these during Passover.
One was at the very beginning,
the other was seven days later.

This means they were not necessarily
on The Sabbath Day, which is Saturday.
It could be any day of the week.

The first of sabbaton, the Greek term,
simply refers to the first day
following the Special Sabbath.

This means the resurrection did NOT,
of necessity, occur on "Sunday".
Indeed, it makes it highly probable
that it did not occur on a "Sunday",
"the first day of the week".
Lit. – one or first of the Special Sabbath.

Matt. 28:2 And behold!
A great earthquake happened.
Indeed, a messenger of YAHWEH
descended from The Heaven,
rolled the stone away from the door,
and sat upon it.
Matt. 28:3 His countenance was like lightning,
and his clothing white like snow.
Matt. 28:4 And because of the fear of him
the guards shook
and became as though dead.

Matt. 28:5 And the messenger responded,
saying to the women,
“Do not be afraid!
Indeed, I understand that you seek YAHUSHUA
Who was crucified.
Matt. 28:6 He is not here.
Indeed, He has been raised up,
just as He said.

Come here!
See the place where The Master laid!
Matt. 28:7 Also, go quickly and tell His students that He has been raised up
out of being dead!
And behold!
He is going before you Into The Galil.
There you will see Him.
Behold!
I have told you.”

Matt. 28:8 And having gone
out from the tomb quickly,
with fear and great joy,
they ran to bring word to His students.

Matt. 28:9 Now as they went to tell His disciples, behold!
YAHUSHUA met them saying, “Rejoice!”
And they approached.
And they grabbed Him by the feet.
And they worshiped Him.

Matt. 28:10 Then YAHUSHUA said to them,
“Do not be afraid!
Go and tell My brothers to go into The Galil.
And there they will see Me!”

Matt. 28:11 Now as they were going, behold!
A guard went into the city
and reported to the chief priests
all the things that had happened.
Matt. 28:12 And having assembled with the elders and consulted together, they gave a large sum of money
to the soldiers
Matt. 28:13 saying, “Say that,
'His students came at night
and stole Him while we slept.’ Matt. 28:14 And if this comes to the governor’s ears
we will appease him and render you secure.”
Matt. 28:15 So they took the money.
And they did as they were instructed.
And this word is spread among the Yisra’elites
until this day.

Matt. 28:16 Then the eleven students traveled into The Galil, onto the mountain which YAHUSHUA had appointed for them.
Matt. 28:17 And seeing Him,
they worshiped Him.
But some doubted.

Matt. 28:18 Then YAHUSHUA approached.
And He spoke to them saying,
“All authority has been given to Me in The Heaven and on the earth.
Matt. 28:19 Go, therefore, and make students
of all the nations,
baptizing them into the Name of The Father and of The Son
and of The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH,

Note: Traditional texts
use “The Holy spirit” here.
However, we’ve demonstrated,
from Scripture itself,
that there is NO “Holy Spirit”,
as a “third ‘person’ of a so-called ‘trinity’.

Consider this also:
No “name” is ever identified in Scripture
for this so-called ‘third person’.
So how is it possible for someone to be "baptized into this entity's name?"

There is NO basis in Scripture
for this concept.

Therefore, it is highly doubtful
that verse 19 originally included
a reference to "The Holy Spirit".
It is highly likely this is a "gloss",
a later addition to the text.

Matt. 28:20 teaching them to observe
all things that I have instructed you!
And behold!
I am with you every day,
even until the end of the age!
Amen.

3. Mark

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Mark 1:1 The beginning of the good news of YAHUSHUA,
The Messiah, The Son of YAHWEH,
YAHUSHUA is the proper
personal name of The Messiah.
It is not 'Jesus'.

'Jesus' is a transliteration of the Greek Jesus.
This is a corruption of "Yehoshua", 'Joshua',
which more properly should be Yahoshua.

YAHUSHUA is slightly different to distinguish The Messiah
from all of the other 'Joshua's' of that day.

It's a Hebrew name for a Hebrew Messiah.
YAHWEH would never give a Greek name
to His promised Messiah.

Mark 1:2 as it is written in The Prophets,
"Behold!

*I send My messenger before Your face,
who will prepare Your way before You.*
(Mal 3.1)

Mark 1:3 *The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
'Prepare the way of YAHWEH!
Make His paths straight.'*"

(Is. 40.3)

Mark 1:4 Yahonathan came baptizing in the wilderness
and proclaiming a baptism of reconsideration
for the pardon of offenses.

baptisma - baptism; to immerse or submerge.
metanoia - reversal of decision;
to think differently; reconsider.
ahesis - freedom; (figuratively) pardon.
hamartia - a offend; to miss the mark, to err.

In Hebrew thought to "offend"
was to fail to stay on the path
YAHWEH had told you to follow.
By wandering from the path
you end up "missing the mark"
- the end goal or target.
Ultimately however,
every offense is selfishness
- putting your desires
before YAHWEH's desires.
It is an offense against YAHWEH
because you have rejected His instructions
in order to follow our own.

Mark 1:5 And the whole region
of Yahudah and Yerushalaim went out to him.
And they were all baptized by him
in The Yarden River,

acknowledging their offenses.

Yerushalaim means
complete teaching of well being.
Yarden means descending.

Mark 1:6 Now Yahnathan was clothed with camel's hair and with a leather belt around his waist.

And he ate locusts and wild honey.

The clothing is indicative of a prophet.
His food was from pods
of the locust tree, not bugs.
The locust tree is the source for carob.

Mark 1:7 And he was proclaiming saying,
"One who is mightier than I
is coming after me,
the strap of whose sandal

I am not fit to bend forward and loosen.

Mark 1:8 I indeed baptized you with water,
but He will baptize you

with The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH."

hagio - a sacred or set apart thing.
Typically given as "holy".
To be holy is to be set apart.
In the context of Scripture it means
set apart for YAHWEH's purposes.

pneumati - from pneuma: a current of air,
i.e. breath or a breeze;
vital principle, mental disposition, etc.
(Strong's also identifies this as "an angel, demon, or (divine) God, Christ's spirit, the Holy Spirit.")

However, if you do a thorough study of this term in Scripture
you will in fact discover
there is no "Holy Spirit" as a "person".

This is very difficult for most to comprehend
since "tradition" has taught there is a "person"
called "The Holy Spirit".
How can a breath or a breeze be a "person"?
It cannot.
To interpret this as such is to cause confusion.

Simply consider the multiple definitions
Strong's gives to the term
and you'll understand there's a problem here.
In Hebrew thought the breath was considered to be connected to the character of the person.
It represents their "nature" as a person.
It is this concept
that will replace "spirit" in this work.

The term "spirit" has never existed
in the Hebrew language.
it's a Greek creation that did not exist
until the Greek philosophers created the term.

Thus, throughout the Old Covenant
there is NO "spirit"!
There was, however, the Divine Nature,
the character, of YAHWEH.
And it is His divine nature that is identified wherever "The Holy Spirit" is noted.
It is His Divine Nature,
set apart for His purposes.
This is VERY IMPORTANT to understand!

Mark 1:9 And it happened in those days that YAHUSHUA came
from Nazareth of The Galil
and was baptized by Yahnathan
in The Yarden River.

Nazareth means a branch; preservation.
Galil means a circuit.
(Traditionally, Gallilee)

Mark 1:10 And immediately,
walking up from the water,

he (Yahonathan) saw The Heavens splitting
and The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
descending upon Him as if it were a dove.

anabaino – means to go up.
It is translated as arise, ascend, climb,
go up, rise up, spring up or come up.
The root words mean up,
and, a pace, to walk.
Properly, it means to walk up.

Mark 1:11 And a voice came out of The Heavens,
“You are My beloved Son
in Whom I am well pleased.”

The Heavens denotes
the dwelling place of YAHWEH
as separate from "the skies".

Mark 1:12 And immediately
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
brought Him out into the wilderness.

Mark 1:13 And He was there in the wilderness
forty days,

being tested by The Adversary.

And He was with the dangerous animals.

And the YAH-messengers ministered to Him.

Satan means opponent or adversary.
It is a title, not a name.
His name is Lucifer.
This name is avoided in Scripture
because it is not to be our focus.

aggelos means messenger.
It's normally translated as "angel",
but this comes from the pronunciation
(ahn-geh-los) of the Greek word.
The Hebrew term is mal'ak.
It means messenger or deputy
- one sent on behalf of another.

YAH-messenger will be used to designate those sent by YAHWEH.
There are others sent by another being.

Mark 1:14. Now after Yahonathan had been put in prison

YAHUSHUA came to The Galil
proclaiming the good news
of The Kingdom of YAHWEH,

Mark 1:15 and saying,

“The time is fulfilled
and The Kingdom of YAHWEH is at hand.

Reconsider,

and trust in the good news!”

metanoeo – to think differently,
or afterwards, i.e. reconsider.
(This is traditionally translated 'repent'.
However, repentance has a different sense;
it has more to do with regret and sorrow
than it does a change of thinking.

Mark 1:16 Now as He was walking beside The Sea of The Galil
He saw Shim'on and Andrew, his brother,
throwing a net into the sea
because they were fishermen.

Shim'on is Hebrew for Simeon.
It means he hears.
Andrew means manly.

Mark 1:17 And YAHUSHUA said to them,
“Come here behind Me,
and I will cause you to become fishers of human beings.”

anthropos – man-faced,
i.e. a human being
– often translated as man,
or men in the plural.

There's a separate term for a male, aner,
so this traditional usage is misleading.
Generically this means a human being.

Mark 1:18 And immediately they left their nets and accompanied Him.

aphiemi – to send forth.
Translated as - cry, forgive, forsake, lay aside, leave, let (alone, be, go, have), omit, put (send) away, remit, suffer, yield up
One might add abandon.

akoloutheo – to be in the same way with, i.e. to accompany (specially, as a student).
To accompany is to walk beside as an equal.

Those whom YAHUSHUA called did not "follow behind Him".
The distinction is important.

Mark 1:19 Having gone a little farther from there, He saw Ya'akov, the son of Zabdiy, and Yahonathan, his brother, who also were in the boat repairing their nets.

Ya'akov means heel catcher, restrainer.
It is "James".
Zabdiy means giving. It is "Zebedee".

Mark 1:20 And immediately He called them. And they left their father Zabdiy in the boat with the hired servants and they went off after Him.

Mark 1:21 Then they entered into Kafar'nahum. And at once, on The Sabbath, He entered into the assembly to teach.

Kafar'nahum means village of comfort.

sunagoge – an assemblage of persons
– assembly, congregation, synagogue.

This is a very important term.
The people of YAHWEH have always been identified as an assembly. While the Yisra'elites refer to their assemblies as synagogues, this work will refer to them as assemblies because the "churches" of The New Covenant are actually assemblies also.

The term, church, is misleading.
It is only a very recent concept and never existed in Hebrew or Greek cultures.

Mark 1:22 And they were astonished at His instruction because He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

Mark 1:23 Now there was in their synagogue a person with an unclean nature. And he shouted anakrazo – to scream up (aloud) – cry out.

Mark 1:24 saying, "Let us alone! What have we to do with You, YAHUSHUA of Nazareth? Have You come to completely destroy us? I recognize who You are, The Set Apart One of YAHWEH!"

Mark 1:25 And YAHUSHUA admonished him saying, "Be quiet and depart from him!"

Mark 1:26 And the unclean nature, having mangled him, and screaming with a loud voice, went out of him.

An unclean nature is traditionally translated as a demon or unclean spirit, etc.
The most important concept associated with this is that of a "defiled nature".

To the Hebrews,
the concepts of clean and unclean
are tied directly to defilement.
A defiled one was not permitted to enter the Temple
since that would contaminate it.

YAHWEH was seen as One Who would not tolerate defilement
in any form.

Mark 1:27 And everyone was astounded,
so much so that they discussed it
among themselves saying, "What is this?
What new instruction is this,
because with authority He directs
even the unclean natures,
and they listen attentively to Him."

hupakouo – to hear under (as a subordinate),
i.e. to listen attentively;
by implication, to heed or conform to a command or authority. - obey
Other terms are also translated as "obey"
and they also have to do with "listening".

Mark 1:28 Now immediately
the reports of Him went out into the whole region around The Galil.

Mark 1:29 And at once,
having come out of the assembly,
they entered into the house of Shim'on and Andrew
with Ya'akov and Yahanathan.

Mark 1:30 Now Shim'on's mother-in-law
was lying down with a fever.

And immediately they spoke to Him concerning her.

Mark 1:31 And He approached.

And He grabbed her by the hand.

And He awakened her.

And immediately the fever left her.

And she ministered to them.

There's a characteristic of Scripture
that needs to be clearly identified.
YAHWEH does not do anything
without a purpose.
The steps described in this verse reveal more fully the details of this event
as they are separated into distinct statements.
This adds emphasis to the text.

"Tradition" has replaced this
with run-on sentences filled with commas, etc.
This removes the emphatic nature of the text.

Mark 1:32 Now evening having come when the sun had gone down,
they brought to Him all who were sick
and those who were controlled
by an unclean nature.

daimonizomai - to be exercised by a demon.
This term is from daimon
- a demon or supernatural spirit
of a bad nature.

As already noted above an unclean "spirit"
is an unclean nature, a defiled nature.
In Hebrew thought this made the nature "bad".
Because of our lack of proper understanding of these matters
we've perpetuated the concept of a "demon".
In Scripture this is placed in direct contrast to "The Divine Nature", especially as it relates to the "new nature"
that comes to reside in the inner being
of one who trusts fully in YAHWEH.

Mark 1:33 And the whole town
was gathered together at the entrance.

Mark 1:34 Then He healed many who were sick with various afflictions. And He ejected many unclean natures. And He did not let the unclean natures speak because they recognized Him.

Mark 1:35 And at dawn, having gotten up much before daylight, He went out.

And He went off into a solitary place. And there He prayed.

Mark 1:36 And Shim'on and those with Him searched for Him.

Mark 1:37 And having found Him they said to Him,

“Everyone is seeking for You.”

Mark 1:38 Then He said to them, “Let us go into the next towns in order that I might proclaim good news there also.

Indeed, for this purpose I have come forth!”

kerusso – to herald, as a public announcer. Scripturally it is normally associated with the good news.
– preach, proclaim, publish.
“Preaching” can have negative connotations attached to it. It also misses the concept of announcing good news.

Mark 1:39 And He was proclaiming good news in their assemblies throughout all The Galil and ejecting unclean natures.

Mark 1:40 And a leper came to Him, imploring Him, kneeling down to Him and saying to Him, “If You desire, You are able To cleanse me.”

Mark 1:41 Then YAHUSHUA, moved with compassion, extended the hand, touched him, and said to him, “I desire. Be cleansed!”

No religious Yisra'elite would touch one who was a leper because they were considered “unclean”. To be unclean was to be defiled, and therefore excluded from YAHWEH's presence.

Mark 1:42 And having spoken to him, immediately the leprosy departed from him. And he was cleansed.

Mark 1:43 And He sternly warned him, immediately sending him away.

Mark 1:44 And He said to him,

“See that you say not even one thing to anyone! But go your way!

Show yourself to the priest! And bring for your cleansing what Moshe instructed as a testimony to them.”

Mark 1:45 But he went out and began to proclaim it abundantly and to spread the matter so that YAHUSHUA was no longer able to publicly enter the town, but instead was outside in deserted places. And they came to Him from every direction.

Chapter 2

Mark 2:1 And once more He entered Kafar'nahum after some days. And it was heard that He was in the house.

Mark 2:2 And Immediately many gathered together

so that there was no longer room to hold them,
not even near the entrance.

And He spoke the word to them.

logos – something said,
a topic, reasoning, motive, etc.
Normally translated as “word”,
it also means a message,
or speech of some sort.

Mark 2:3 And they came to Him bringing a paralytic carried by four.

Mark 2:4 And not being able to come near Him
because of the crowd,
they uncovered the roof where He was.
And having removed it they lowered the bed
on which the paralytic was lying.

Mark 2:5 Then YAHUSHUA,
having seen their faith,
said to the paralytic,
“Child, your offenses are forgiven you.”

Mark 2:6 Now there were some scribes sitting there and deliberating in their hearts,

kardia – the heart,
i.e. figuratively the thoughts of feelings;
also, the middle.
Metaphorically it's the "center"
of one's being.

Mark 2:7 “Why does this one speak blasphemies like this?
Who can forgive offenses
except YAHWEH alone?”

Blasphemy means speaking
bad things about another,
thereby dishonoring them.

Mark 2:8 And immediately YAHUSHUA, having perceived in His Divine Nature
that they deliberated thus within themselves,
said to them, “Why do you deliberate
about these things in your hearts?”

Mark 2:9 Which is easier to say to the paralytic,
“Your offenses are forgiven you,”
or to say, ‘Get up!
And pick up your bed and walk about!’?

Mark 2:10 Now,
in order that you may understand
that The Son of Man has authority
upon the earth to forgive offenses...”
(He said to the paralytic)

In Hebrew literature
unfinished statements are common.
They're a form of "you fill in the blank".
They serve as a means of calling attention to the issue at hand.

Mark 2:11 I say to you, Get up!
Pick up your bed and go to your house!"

Mark 2:12 And immediately he got up,
picked up the bed,
and went out in the presence of them all
so that everyone was astounded.

And they honored YAHWEH saying,
“Not at any time
have we ever seen such as this!”

Mark 2:13 Then He went out again
beside the sea.

And the whole crowd came to Him.
And He was teaching them.

Mark 2:14 And as He went along He saw Levi,
the son of Alphaeus, sitting at the tax office.

And He said to him, “Accompany Me!”
And he got up.
And he accompanied Him.

Levi means attached.
Alphaeus means produce; gain.

Mark 2:15 And it happened
as He was dining in his house (Levi's)
that many tax collectors and offenders
also dined together
with YAHUSHUA and His students.
Indeed, there were many,
and they accompanied Him.

mathetes – a learner, i.e. pupil
– usually translated disciple.
Student is used to reflect the truth
that one who accompanies YAHUSHUA
is a learner.

They are no different than any “disciple”,
which has become a “religious” term.
Student is used intentionally
to remind you that you are as much a ‘disciple’
as were “the twelve”.
Indeed, you have more material
to learn from than they did.

Mark 2:16 Then the scribes and the Pharisees, having seen Him eating
with the tax collectors and offenders,
said to His students,
“Why is it that He eats and drinks
with tax collectors and offenders?”
Mark 2:17 And YAHUSHUA, having heard it,
said to them,
“The healthy have no need of a physician,
but rather those who are sick.
I did not come to call the innocent,
but rather offenders into reconsideration.”

Mark 2:18 Then the students of Yahanathan
and of the Pharisees were fasting.
And they came.
And they said to Him,
“Why do the students of Yahanathan
and of the Pharisees fast
but Your students do not fast?”

Pharisee means the separated.

Mark 2:19 And YAHUSHUA said to them,
“Are the friends of the bridegroom able to fast
while the bridegroom is with them?
As long as they have the bridegroom with them
they are not able to fast.
Mark 2:20 But the days will come when the bridegroom will be lifted off,
away from them,
and then they will fast in those very days.

apairo – to lift off,
i.e. remove – take (away).

Mark 2:21 Also, no one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth onto an old garment.
Otherwise the new piece that filled it up pulls away from the old
and the gap is made worse.

Mark 2:22 And no one pours new wine
into old wineskins.
Otherwise the new wine bursts the wineskins,
the wine is spilled,
and the wineskins are ruined.
But new wine must be put into new wineskins.”

Mark 2:23 And it happened that He traveled through the planted fields on The Sabbath.
And as they went His students
began to pull off the heads of grain.
Mark 2:24 And the Pharisees said to Him,
“Behold!
Why do they do
what is not right on The Sabbath?”

Ide, or idou – Lo! – behold, see.
It is always imperative.
It means, Pay attention!
exesti – it is right.
– to be lawful, let, may (permit).
The term is often used to express the idea of a thing being “lawful” by The Pharisees.

Following The Torah
was considered to be doing what is “right”.
But it did not necessarily have to involve a “lawful” act.

Mark 2:25 And He said to them,
“Have you never read what David did when he was in need and hungry,
he and those with him,

Mark 2:26 how he entered into
The House of YAHWEH
at the time of Ebyathar, the great priest,
and ate The Bread of The Presence
which it is not right to eat
except for the priests?
And he also gave some
to those who were with him.”

Ebyathar means father of abundance.

Mark 2:27 Then He said to them,
“The Sabbath was made for human beings,
and not human beings for The Sabbath.

Mark 2:28 Therefore, The Son of Man
is also Master of The Sabbath.”

Chapter 3

Mark 3:1 And He entered into the assembly again.
And there was a person there
who had a withered hand.
Mark 3:2 And they were watching Him closely,
whether He would heal him on The Sabbath,
in order that they might charge Him
with an offense.

The issue here
is that of a legal offense, not a “sin”.
If they could trap Him with such an act
it would give them a legal basis
for putting Him to death.

Mark 3:3 And He said to the man
who had the withered hand,
“Rise up into the middle.”

Mark 3:4 Then He said to them,
“Is it right on The Sabbath
to be a doer of good or to be a doer of harm,
to save life or to kill?”
But they did not speak.

psuche is used for life.
It means breath.
It's translated as – heart, life, mind, σωλ.

However, a person
does not have a soul.

That's a Greek concept that came long after Adam and Eve, Noah, Abraham, and Moshe.
This refers to the breath of life
that was breathed into Adam
by The Elohim (God).
It refers to the very essence of human existence.

kakopoieo - to be a bad-doer,
i.e. to injure, or to sin.
This term is traditionally “translated” as “evil”.
However, that misses the Hebrew concept
that is being expressed here.
For the Hebrew

things were either good or bad.
And these were seen on a continuum
from the modest to the severe.
They did not conceive of "evil" as we do today
- as something extremely awful.
Bad was bad.
It was generally something that caused harm to another.

Mark 3:5 And having looked all around at them with wrath, being grieved
because of the hardness of their hearts,
He said to the man,
"Extend your hand!"
And he extended it.
And his hand was restored,
healthy like the other one.

Mark 3:6 Then the Pharisees went out.
And they immediately consulted with the Herodians against Him,
how they might destroy Him.

Mark 3:7 But YAHUSHUA turned aside
with His students toward the sea.
And a great number from The Galil accompanied Him.
Also from Yahudah,
Mark 3:8 and Yerushalaim, and Idumea,
and beyond The Yarden,
and around Tzor and Tzidon.
A great number having heard
as much as He was doing came to Him.

Idumea is Edom.
Tzor means to distress.
Tzidon means fishery.

Mark 3:9 And He told His students that a small boat
should be kept ready for Him
because of the crowd,
lest they might crowd Him.
Mark 3:10 Indeed, He healed many,
so much so that as many as had afflictions
grabbed Him in order to touch Him.

Mark 3:11 And the unclean natures,
whenever they observed Him,
fell down before Him and shouted saying,
"You are The Son of YAHWEH!"
Mark 3:12 But He strongly admonished them
that they should not make Him apparent.

Mark 3:13 Then He went up onto the mountain.
And He called to Himself those He desired.
And they came to Him.
3:14 And He appointed twelve
in order that they might be with Him,
and in order that He might set them apart
to proclaim the good news,
kerusso – to herald (as a public crier),
especially divine truth
(the gospel, or good news/message)
– preach, proclaim, publish.

Mark 3:15 and to have authority
to heal afflictions and to eject unclean natures.

Mark 3:16 Shim'on,
to whom He gave the name Peter,
Mark 3:17 Ya'akov, the son of Zabdiy,
and Yahnathan, the brother of Ya'akov,
to whom He gave the title Boanerges,
that is, "Sons of Thunder", Mark 3:18 Andrew,
Philip,
Bar Talmay, Mattiayah,
To'am,

Ya'akov, the son of Alphaeus,
Thaddaeus,
Shim'on. the Canaanite,
Mark 3:19 and Yahudah of Iscariot,
who also betrayed Him.

Then they went into a house.

Peter means a stone.
Philip means lover of horses.
Bar Talmay means son of my ridges.
Mattiyah means gift of YAHWEH.
To'am means a twin. (Thomas)
Thaddaeus means sucking plenty.
Yahudah means YAH be praised. (Judas)
Iscariot means he will be hired.

Mark 3:20 And the crowd assembled again
so that they were not able to even eat bread.

Mark 3:21 And those around Him
having heard it went out to seize Him
because they said that He was out of His mind.

Mark 3:22 And the scribes
who came down from Yerushalaim said,
"He has Ba'al Zebub!

And by the ruler of the unclean natures
He ejects the unclean natures."

Ba'al Zebub means Lord of The Flies.
It is a reference to The Adversary.

Mark 3:23 Then He called them to Himself.

And said to them in parables,

"How is The Adversary
able to eject The Adversary?

Mark 3:24 And if a kingdom
is divided against itself
that kingdom is not able to stand.

Mark 3:25 And if a house is divided against itself
that house is not able to stand.

Mark 3:26 And if The Adversary stands up against himself and is divided
he is not able to stand,
but instead has an end.

Mark 3:27 No one is able to enter into a strong one's house and plunder his goods
unless he first binds the strong one.
And then he will plunder his house.

Mark 3:28 Assuredly I say to you,
all offenses will be forgiven
the children of human beings,
even whatever blasphemies they might utter.

Mark 3:29 But he who blasphemes against
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
does not have forgiveness even into eternity,
but rather is liable to eternal condemnation.";

Scripture teaches that there is an unpardonable offense.
It is identified here.

Mark 3:30 because they said,
"He has an unclean nature."

Mark 3:31 Accordingly,
His brothers and His mother came.

And standing outside
they sent to Him, calling Him.

Mark 3:32 And a crowd was sitting around Him.
And they said to Him, "Behold!
Your mother and Your brothers
are outside seeking You."

Mark 3:33 But He responded to them saying,
"Who is My mother or My brothers?"

Mark 3:34 And He looked all around in a circle
at those who sat around Him.

And He said,

“Here are My mother and My brothers!
Mark 3:35 Indeed, whoever is doing
the will of The Elohim
is My brother, and My sister, and mother.”

thelema - a choice, determination,
purpose, decree, inclination
– desire, pleasure, will.

This is another case where Elohim
could just as well be YAHWEH.
But since the Yisra'elites were not able to use YAHWEH
in those days
it is possible that YAHUSHUA
would have spoken
at their level of understanding
– although this is not certain.

Chapter 4

Mark 4:1 And He began to teach once more
beside the sea.

And a great crowd assembled
so that He got into a boat
and sat down on the sea.

And the whole crowd
was on the land facing the sea.

Mark 4:2 And He taught them many things through parables.

And He said to them in His instruction,

Mark 4:3 “Listen!

Behold!

A sower went out to sow.

Mark 4:4 And it happened as he sowed
that some fell beside the road.

And the birds of the sky
came and devoured it.

Mark 4:5 Now some fell upon rocky ground
where it had not much soil.

And immediately it germinated
because it had no depth of soil.

Mark 4:6 Now the sun having arisen,
it was burned.

And because it had no root it shriveled up.

Mark 4:7 And other seed fell among the thorns.

And the thorns rose up and choked it.

And it gave no fruit.

Mark 4:8 But other seed fell upon good ground
and gave fruit that rose up,
and grew and produced,
one thirtyfold, one sixtyfold,
and one a hundredfold.”

Mark 4:9 And He said to them,

“He who has ears to hear, let him listen!”

Mark 4:10 Now when He had become separate from the crowds

those around Him with the twelve questioned Him concerning the parable.

Mark 4:11 And He said to them,

“To you it has been given to know
the mystery of The Kingdom of YAHWEH.

But to those outside

everything comes by means of parables

Mark 4:12 so that,

*‘Seeing they may see and not perceive,
and hearing they may hear
and not understand lest they should turn
and their offenses be forgiven them.’”*

(Is. 6-9-10)

Mark 4:13 And He said to them,

“Do you not understand this parable?

And how then will you know all the parables?

Mark 4:14 The sower sows the word.

Mark 4:15 Now these are the ones beside the road
where the word is sown.
And whenever they have heard,
The Adversary comes immediately
and takes away the word
that was sown in their hearts.

Mark 4:16 And these are similar to the ones sown on rocky ground
who whenever they have heard the word,
immediately receive it with gladness.
Mark 4:17 Yet they have no root in themselves.
And so they exist only for a moment.
Afterward as trouble or persecution happens
because of the word
they are immediately tripped up.

skandalizo – to entrap,
i.e. trip up (figuratively, stumble)
or entice to apostasy or displeasure
– offend.

Mark 4:18 And these are the ones
sown among the thorns,
those who hear the word,
Mark 4:19 yet the cares of this world,
the delusion of wealth,
and the strong desires concerning other things
entering in choke the word,
and it becomes unfruitful.

Mark 4:20 And these are the ones
sown on good ground,
those who hear the word, accept it,
and are bearing fruit,
some thirtyfold, some sixtyfold,
and some a hundredfold.”

Mark 4:21 Also He said to them, “Is a lamp brought in
in order to be put under a basket
or under a bed
and not to be set upon a lampstand?

Mark 4:22 Indeed, there is nothing concealed that will not be rendered apparent.
Neither has anything become secret,
but instead,
in order that it might become apparent.

Mark 4:23 If anyone has ears to hear,
let him listen!”

Mark 4:24 Then He said to them,
“Examine what you hear!
By the measure with which you measure
it will be measured to you.
And to you who listen attentively
more will be added.

Mark 4:25 Indeed, whoever has,
to him more will be given.
But to him who does not have,
even what he has
will be taken away from him.”

echo - to hold (used in very various applications).
This can imply possession,
or it can mean holding onto, grasping.
If you have something,
but do not "hold on to it",
it can be taken away from you.

Mark 4:26 And He said,
"The Kingdom of YAHWEH
is as if a man throws seed upon the ground, Mark 4:27 then sleeps by night
and arises by day.
And the seed germinates and grows,
yet he knows not how.

Mark 4:28 Indeed, the earth is fertile by itself.
First the vegetation,
then the head of grain,
then the complete grain
in the head of the grain.
Mark 4:29 Now when the fruit is brought forth immediately he puts in the sickle
because the harvest is ready."

Mark 4:30 Then He said,
To what shall we compare
The Kingdom of YAHWEH?
Or with what kind of parable
shall we compare it?

Mark 4:31 It is like a grain of mustard
which when it is sown upon the ground is smaller than all the seeds upon the earth.
Mark 4:32 Yet when it is sown
it rises up and becomes greater than all the vegetables,
and produces large branches,
so that the birds of the sky
might nest under its shade."

Mark 4:33 And with many parables of this sort
He spoke the word to them
just as they were able to hear.
Mark 4:34 But without a parable
He did not speak to them.
And when they were alone
He explained everything to His students.

Mark 4:35 And on the same day,
evening having come,
He said to them,
"Let us travel to the other side."
Mark 4:36 Now having sent away the crowd
they took Him along since He was in the boat.
And other little boats were also with Him.
Mark 4:37 And a great windstorm happened.
And the waves were beating upon the boat
so that it was already filling.
Mark 4:38 But He was in the stern,
asleep on a cushion.
And they awakened Him.
And they said to Him,
"Teacher, do You not care
that we are being destroyed?"
Mark 4:39 Then He got up.
And He admonished the wind.
And He said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!"
And the wind ceased.
And there was a great calm.
Mark 4:40 And He said to them,
"Why are you so fearful?
How is it that you have no trust?"

Mark 4:41 And they feared exceedingly.
And they said to one another,
"What is this,
that even the wind and the sea
listen attentively to Him?"

Chapter 5

Mark 5:1 And they came across the sea

into the region of the Gadarenes.

Gadarenes means reward at the end.

Mark 5:2 And having come out of the boat,
He immediately met a person from the tombs
with an unclean nature

Mark 5:3 who had his residence in the tombs.
And no one was able to bind him,
not even with chains,

Mark 5:4 because he had often been bound with shackles and chains
and the chains had been pulled apart by him,
and the shackles shattered.

Neither could anyone tame him.

Mark 5:5 And constantly night and day,
he was in the mountains and in the tombs,
crying out and cutting himself with stones.

Mark 5:6 Now having seen YAHUSHUA
from a distance

he ran and worshiped Him.

Mark 5:7 And he cried out

with a loud voice saying,

“What have I to do with You, YAHUSHUA,
Son of The Most High Elohim?

I implore You by YAHWEH
that You do not torture me.”

Mark 5:8 Then He said to him,

“Come out of the person, unclean nature!”

YAHWEH is used here

in place of "The Elohim".

Unclean natures know absolutely

that YAHWEH is The Most High Elohim.

Mark 5:9 And He asked him,

“What is your name?”

And he responded saying,

“My name is Legion because we are many.”

Mark 5:10 And he implored Him greatly that He would not send them out of the region.

There are portions of Scripture
that teach a degree of territoriality
for unclean natures.

It's apparently why some regions
are more perverse than others.

Mark 5:11 Now there was a large herd of swine feeding near the mountains.

Mark 5:12 And all the unclean natures implored Him saying,

“Send us to the swine

in order that we may enter into them.”

Mark 5:13 And immediately

YAHUSHUA allowed them.

And the unclean natures went out.

And they entered into the swine

(there were about two thousand).

And the herd dashed down the steep bank
into the sea.

And they drowned in the sea.

Mark 5:14 Now those feeding the swine ran away and announced it to the town and to the region.

And they went out to see

what it was that had happened.

Mark 5:15 And they came to YAHUSHUA.

And they saw the one who had been controlled by an unclean nature

and had the legion

sitting down,

and clothed,

and in his right mind.

And they were afraid.

Mark 5:16 And those who had seen it told them what happened to him

who had been controlled by an unclean nature

and about the swine.

Mark 5:17 Then they began to implore Him to go away from their borders.

Mark 5:18 And having gotten into the boat he who had been controlled by the unclean nature implored Him in order that he might go with Him.

Mark 5:19 However, YAHUSHUA did not let him, but instead said to him, "Go home to your friends and announce to them all that YAHWEH has done for you, and that He has had compassion for you!"

Where YAHUSHUA and YAHWEH appear in the text the traditional translations use "The Lord" - on both instances.

This provides another example of the confusion that comes from using the phrase, "the Lord" in virtually all of the traditional translations.

The context suggests that YAHUSHUA was making the point that YAHWEH is The One doing the healing. The Messiah is not claiming that He had done the healing.

Mark 5:20 And he went away. And he began to proclaim in Decapolis all that YAHWEH had done for him. And everyone marveled.

Decapolis means ten cities.

Mark 5:21 And YAHUSHUA, having crossed over again by boat to the other side, a large crowd assembled by Him.

And He was beside the sea.

Mark 5:22 And behold!

One of the rulers of the assembly came, Ya'ir by name.

And having seen Him he fell at His feet.

Ya'ir means he will enlighten.

Mark 5:23 And he implored Him greatly saying, "My little daughter is dying.

The Greek is somewhat confusing.

It literally says 'holds the extremity of life'.

"Is dying" expresses the concept.

Come and lay Your hands on her in order that she might be healed and she will live."

Mark 5:24 And He went with him.

And a large crowd accompanied Him.

And they crowded Him.

Mark 5:25 Now a certain woman having had a flow of blood for twelve years,

Mark 5:26 and having suffered much under many physicians, and having spent all that she had and having not benefited

but instead was growing worse,

Mark 5:27 having heard about YAHUSHUA came behind Him in the crowd.

And she touched His garment.

Mark 5:28 Indeed, she said,

"If I might touch His garments I will be delivered."

sozo - saved, delivered

In Hebrew culture the hem of one's garment represented their authority.

Touching this portion of YAHUSHUA's garments

placed her, by her own choice, under his authority

(Read the book of Ruth for a similar story.).

Mark 5:29 And immediately

the source of her blood was dried up.

And she knew her body
had been healed of the disease.

Mark 5:30 And YAHUSHUA,
immediately recognizing within Himself
that miraculous power had gone out from Him, turned around in the crowd saying,
"Who touched My garments?"

Mark 5:31 Then His students said to Him,
"You see the crowd crowding You,
and You say, 'Who touched Me?' "

Mark 5:32 And He looked around to see the one who had done this thing.

Mark 5:33 Now the woman,
fearing and trembling,
understanding what had been done for her,
came and prostrated herself in front of Him.
And she told Him all the truth.

Prostrating oneself before another is an act of worship.

Mark 5:34 And He said to her,
"Daughter, your trust has delivered you.
Go in peace and be healed of your disease!"

Mark 5:35 While He was still speaking one came beside the ruler of the assembly
to say that, "Your daughter has died.
Why harass the Teacher any further?"

Mark 5:36 But immediately YAHUSHUA,
having heard the word that was spoken,
said to the ruler of the assembly,
"Do not be afraid!
Just trust!"

Mark 5:37 And He permitted no one to accompany Him except Peter, Ya'akov,
and Yahanathan, the brother of Ya'akov.

Mark 5:38 Then He came into the house of the ruler of the assembly.

And He saw a disturbance
and much weeping and wailing.

Mark 5:39 And having entered He said to them,
"Why make this commotion and weep?
The child is not dead but rather is sleeping."

Mark 5:40 And they mocked at Him.

But having ejected every one of them,
He took the father and the mother of the child
and those with Him.

And He entered where the child was lying.

Mark 5:41 And He grabbed the child by the hand.

And He said to her, "Talitha, cumi,"

(which is being translated
"Little girl, I say to you get up!")

Mark 5:42 And immediately the little girl got up.

And she walked about

because she was twelve years of age.

And they were astounded
with great amazement.

Mark 5:43 And He charged them greatly that no one should know it.

And He said, "Give her food to eat."

Chapter 6

Mark 6:1 And He went out from there and went to His own home town.

And His students accompanied Him.

Mark 6:2 And The Sabbath having come,
He began to teach in the assembly.

And many listening were astonished saying,
"Where did this one get these things?

And what wisdom is this
that has been given to Him,

that such signs are happening by His hands?
Mark 6:3 Is not this one the carpenter,
the son of Miryam,
and brother of Ya'akov, Yoses, Yahudah, and Shim'on?
And are not His sisters here with us?"
And they were tripped up by Him.

Miryam (Mary) means their rebellion.
Notice that no mention is made of Yoseph.
Yoses means sustained by YAHWEH.

skandalizo – to entrap, i.e. trip up.

Mark 6:4 And YAHUSHUA said to them,
"A prophet is not dishonored
except in his own home town,
among his own relatives,
and in his own household."

Mark 6:5 And He could do no signs there except that He laid His hands
upon a few sick ones and healed them.

Mark 6:6 And He marveled
because of their lack of trust.

Then He went about the villages
in a circuit, teaching.

Mark 6:7 And He called to Himself the twelve.
And He began to send them out two by two.
And He gave them authority
over unclean natures.

Mark 6:8 And He instructed them to take nothing for the journey
except only a staff;
no pouch for food,
no bread,
no copper in a belt;

Mark 6:9 but rather to wear sandals,
and not put on two tunics.

Mark 6:10 And He said to them,
"In whatever place, in case you enter a house,
stay there until you depart from there.

Mark 6:11 And whoever will not receive you nor listen to you,
as you depart from there shake off the dust under your feet
as a witness against them.
Assuredly I say to you,
it will be more endurable
for Sedom and Amorah
in the day of judgment than for that town!"

Sedom means fettered.
Amorah means bondage.

Mark 6:12 And they went out.
And they proclaimed
that they should reconsider.

Mark 6:13 And they ejected
many unclean natures.

And they anointed with oil
many who were sick
and they healed them.

Mark 6:14 Now King Herod was hearing about Him
because His name had become well known.
And he said that Yahnathan, the baptizer,
had been raised up from being dead
and therefore signs are being done by Him.

nekros – dead.
It is a state of being.
There is no article.
It does not say,
"from among the dead."

Literally it says 'raised up from dead'.
To our minds that's awkward,
so we restate it.

Mark 6:15 Others said that it is Elijah.
And others said that it is a prophet
or like one of the prophets.

Elijah means my El (God) is YAHWEH.

Mark 6:16 But Herod, having heard, said that,
"It is Yahanathan whom I beheaded.
He has been raised up from being dead!"

Mark 6:17 Indeed, Herod himself had sent and seized Yahanathan
and bound him in prison because of Herodias,
his brother Philip's wife,
because he had married her.

Mark 6:18 Indeed,
Yahanathan had said to Herod
that It is not right for you to have your brother's wife.

Mark 6:19 Therefore Herodias held it against him
and wanted to kill him.

But she was not able

Mark 6:20 because Herod feared Yahanathan, understanding that he was a just
and set apart man.

And he protected him.

And having listened to him

he did many things.

And he listened to him with pleasure.

Mark 6:21 And an opportune day happened
when Herod, on his birthday,
made a dinner for his great men,
the chief captains,
and the foremost of The Galil.

Mark 6:22 And the very daughter of Herodias,
having entered and danced,
and having pleased Herod
and those who sat with him,
the king said to the girl,
"Ask me whatever you desire and I will give it to you."

Mark 6:23 He also swore to her,
"Whatever you ask of me I will give to you,
up to half my kingdom."

Mark 6:24 And she went out.

And she said to her mother,

"What shall I ask?"

And she said,

"The head of Yahanathan, the baptizer!"

Mark 6:25 And immediately
she entered with haste before the king.

And she asked saying,

"I desire that you give to me

at once upon a plate

the head of Yahanathan, the baptizer."

Mark 6:26 And the king was exceedingly grieved.
Because of the oaths
and because of those who dined with him
he did not want to refuse her.

Mark 6:27 Immediately the king
sent for an executioner.

And he ordered that his head be brought.

And he went out

and decapitated him in the prison,

Mark 6:28 brought his head on a plate,

and gave it to the girl.

And the girl gave it to her mother.

Mark 6:29 And his students, having heard,
came and picked up his corpse.
And they laid it in a tomb.

Mark 6:30 Now the ambassadors assembled before YAHUSHUA
and told Him everything,
both what they had done
and what they had taught.

apostolos – delegate, specially
an ambassador of the good news
– apostle, messenger, he that is sent.

An ambassador, or delegate,
serves as a legal representative of another.
The reference is to the twelve,
but this is the first time it's used in Mark.

This change in terminology is important because it signifies a shift
in the way the story is related.
It calls for our careful attention.
This is not a continuation of the story above.

Mark 6:31 And He said to them,
“Come by yourselves into a deserted place
and rest a while!”,
because there were many coming and going
and they did not even have time to eat.
Mark 6:32 So they went out to a deserted place
in the boat by themselves.
Mark 6:33 But the crowds saw them going out.
And many recognized Him
and rushed there together on foot
from all the towns.
They arrived ahead of them.
And they assembled before Him.
Mark 6:34 And YAHUSHUA having come out saw a large crowd.
And He had compassion on them
because they were like sheep
not having a shepherd.
And He began to teach them many things.

Mark 6:35 And the day being now largely over,
His students came to Him saying,
“This is a deserted place
and now the hour is late.
Mark 6:36 Send them away
in order that they might go
into the fields around us
and the villages to buy themselves bread
because they have nothing to eat.”
Mark 6:37 But He responded.
And He said to them,
“You give them something to eat.”
And they said to Him,
“Shall we go and buy
two hundred denari worth of bread and give them something to eat?”
Mark 6:38 But He said to them,
“How many loaves do you have?
Go and see!”
And when they knew they said,
“Five, and two fish.”

Mark 6:39 Then He directed them
to make them all sit down
in groups upon the green grass.
Mark 6:40 So they sat down in ranks,
by hundreds and by fifties.
Mark 6:41 And having taken the five loaves
and the two fish,
He looked up into The Heaven,
blessed and broke the bread,
and gave it to His students

in order to set it before them.
And the two fish He divided for everyone.

Not the sky,
which would be meaningless
under the circumstances,
but rather into The Heaven
– the dwelling place of YAHWEH.

Mark 6:42 And they all ate and were satisfied.
Mark 6:43 And they picked up twelve baskets
full of pieces of bread and from the fish.
Mark 6:44 And those who had eaten the bread
were about five thousand men.

Women and children
were not included in the count.

Mark 6:45 And immediately
He compelled His students
to get into the boat
and to go before Him to the other side,
to Bayit Saida,
while He sent away the crowd.

Bayit Sayda means
house of provision.

Mark 6:46 And having sent them away,
He went out onto the mountain to pray.

Mark 6:47 And evening having come,
the boat was in the middle of the sea.
And He was alone upon the land.

Mark 6:48 And He saw them,
tormented at rowing
because the wind was opposing them.
And about the fourth watch of the night
He came to them,
walking upon the sea.
And He desired to pass over beside them.

Mark 6:49 But having seen Him
walking upon the sea,
they thought it was a ghost.

And they cried out
Mark 6:50 because they all saw Him
and were agitated.
But immediately He spoke with them.

And He said to them,
“Have courage!

It is I Myself!
Do not be afraid!”

Mark 6:51 Then He walked up to them
in the boat.

And the wind ceased.
And they were exceedingly astounded in themselves beyond measure.
And they marveled.

Mark 6:52 Indeed, they had not put it together concerning the loaves
because their heart was hardened.

This verse relates something about the loaves,
yet there is nothing here about loaves.
It is recorded in other books,, but not here.
This suggests that this is an editorial addition,
or else that a portion of the text is missing.

Mark 6:53 And having crossed over they went into the land of Gennesaret.
And they anchored there.

Gennesaret is Greek for Chinneret.
It means a harp.

Mark 6:54 And having come out of the boat,
immediately they recognized Him.

Mark 6:55 And they were running around that whole surrounding region.
And they began to carry around on beds
those who were sick

to wherever they heard He was.
Mark 6:56 Wherever He entered into villages, towns, or fields

they placed the sick in the town square.
And they implored Him
that they might touch, if possible,
the hem of His garment.
And as many as touched Him were delivered.

In Hebrew culture
the hem of the garment
represents one's authority.
To place yourself in contact with one's authority
was to grant them control of your life.
It was an act of submission.

Chapter 7

Mark 7:1 And the Pharisees
and some of the scribes gathered to Him,
having come from Yerushalaim.
Mark 7:2 And having seen some of His students eating defiled food,
that is with unwashed hands,
they found fault with them.

Mark 7:3 Indeed, the Pharisees
and all the Yisra'elite leaders,
unless they cleanse the hands thoroughly,
do not eat,

holding fast to the tradition of the elders.

There's a problem with this verse
and many others like it.
It's typically translated as "all the Jews".
Technically it should be "all the Yahudeans"
because that's what the Greek term used actually means.

But even this is a problem.
YAHUSHUA is a Yahudahan.
He was born in Bayit Lechem of Yahudah.
He certainly does not follow this practice
and the others like it,
and it's more than likely that there are others
who do not observe this "ritual" regularly
among the "children of Yisra'el",
The Yisra'elites.

However, Yahudah is not the only tribe.
This becomes a crucial focus for the comments The Messiah makes
in the following verses.

These practices were contrary to The Torah,
having been established by human beings,
the elders, and not by YAHWEH.

Mark 7:4 And from the marketplace
they do not eat unless they bathe.
And there are many other things
which they have received to hold fast:
the washing of cups, pitchers,
copper vessels, and couches.

Mark 7:5 After that the Pharisees
and the scribes asked Him,
"Why do Your students not walk
according to the tradition of the elders,
but instead eat bread with unwashed hands?"
Mark 7:6 Then He responded, saying to them,
"Well did Yeshayah prophesy
concerning you hypocrites, as it is written:

*'This people honors Me with their lips,
But their heart is far from Me.*

Mark 7:7 And in vain they worship Me,
teaching as doctrines
the instructions of human beings.'
(Is. 29.13)

Mark 7:8 Indeed, abandoning
The Instruction of YAHWEH,
you are holding fast
to the tradition of human beings!

The washing of pitchers and cups
and many other similar things of this sort you are doing.”

Mark 7:9 He said to them,

“Very well you set aside
The Instruction of YAHWEH
in order that you may protect your tradition.

Mark 7:10 Indeed, Moshe said,

“Honor your father and your mother”
(Ex. 20.12)

and,

*‘He who curses father or mother,
let him be put to death.’*

(Ex. 21.17)

Mark 7:11 But you say,

‘If a person says to his father or mother,

“Whatever benefit you might have received from me is corban.”

Corban was a consecrated gift to the Temple fund.

It was counted as a sacrifice.

(that is to say, a sacrifice to YAHWEH).

Mark 7:12 and you no longer let him do anything

for his father or his mother,

Mark 7:13 invalidating The Word of YAHWEH
by means of your tradition
which you have delivered.

And many things of this sort you are doing.”

Mark 7:14 And having called the entire crowd to Himself

He said to them,

“Listen to Me, everyone, and understand!

Mark 7:15 There is not even one thing

from outside a person

that entering into them is able to defile them.

But the things

which are discharged out of him,

those are what defile a person.

Mark 7:16 If anyone has ears to hear,

let him listen!”

Mark 7:17 And having entered into a house

away from the crowd,

His students asked Him

concerning the parable.

Mark 7:18 And He said to them,

“Are you likewise without understanding also?

Do you not comprehend

that anything from outside

entering into a person

is not able to defile him

Mark 7:19 because it does not enter his heart,

but rather his stomach,

and it is discharged, cleansing all foods?”

Mark 7:20 And He said,

“What is discharged from a person,
that thing defiles a person.

Mark 7:21 Indeed, from the inside,

from the heart of persons, are discharged

worthless thoughts,

adulteries,

prostitution,

murders,

Mark 7:22 stealing,

avarice,

malice,

deceit,

sexual perversion,

a hurtful eye,

blasphemy,
pride,
foolishness.

Mark 7:23 All this hurtfulness
is being discharged from within.
And it is defiling a human being.”

Mark 7:24 And from there He rose up and went to the region of Tzor and Tzidon.
And He entered into a house
yet He wanted no one to know it.
Yet He was not able to lie hidden

Mark 7:25 because a woman whose young daughter
had an unclean nature heard about Him.
And she came.

And she fell at His feet.

Mark 7:26 The woman was a Greek,
a Syro-phoenician by kin.
And she kept asking Him
to eject the unclean nature
out of her daughter.

Mark 7:27 But YAHUSHUA said to her, “Let the children be filled first because it is not good
to take the children’s bread
and throw it to puppies.”

Mark 7:28 And she responded.

And she said to Him,
“Yes, Master.

Yet even the puppies under the table
eat from the children’s crumbs.”

Mark 7:29 Then He said to her,
“Because of this saying, go your way!
The unclean nature
has gone out of your daughter.”

Mark 7:30 And having come to her house,
she found the unclean nature had gone out,
and her daughter thrown on the bed.

Mark 7:31 And once more,
departing from the borders of Tzor and Tzidon,
He came to The Sea of Galil
through the midst of the borders of Decapolis.

Mark 7:32 And they brought to Him
one who was deaf
and had an impediment in his speech.
And they implored Him to put His hand on him.

Mark 7:33 And He took him aside by himself away from the multitude.
And He put His fingers into his ears.

Then having spit He touched his tongue.
Mark 7:34 And looking up into The Heaven,
He groaned.

And He said to him,
“Ephphatha!” (That is, “Be opened!”)

Mark 7:35 And immediately
his ears were opened.
And the disability of his tongue was loosed.
And he spoke plainly.

Mark 7:36 And He charged them
that they should tell no one.
But the more He charged them
the more exuberantly they proclaimed it.
Mark 7:37 And they were exceedingly astonished saying, “He does all things well.
He makes even the deaf to hear
and the mute to speak!”

Chapter 8

Mark 8:1 In those days,
the crowd being immense

and having nothing to eat,
YAHUSHUA called His students to Himself.
And He said to them,
Mark 8:2 "I have compassion upon the crowd
because they have already stayed with Me three days.
And they have nothing to eat.
Mark 8:3 And if I send them away
not eating to their own houses
they will faint on the road
because some of them
have come from a distance."
Mark 8:4 And His students responded to Him,
"How can one satisfy these people with bread here in the wilderness?"
Mark 8:5 And He asked them,
"How many loaves do you have?"
And they said, "Seven."

Mark 8:6 Then He directed the crowd
to sit down upon the ground.
And He took the seven loaves,
gave thanks, broke them,
and gave them to His students
to present to them.
And they presented them to the crowd.
Mark 8:7 They also had a few small fish.
And having blessed them
He said to present them also.
Mark 8:8 Then they ate and were satisfied.
And they picked up seven baskets
of leftover pieces.
Mark 8:9 And those who had eaten
were about four thousand.
And He sent them away.

Mark 8:10 And immediately
He got into the boat with His students and came to the region of Dalmanutha.
Dalmanutha means poor portion.
Mark 8:11 And the Pharisees came out.
And they began to investigate Him,
seeking from Him a sign from The Heaven,
testing Him.

Mark 8:12 And His Divine Nature
sighed deeply saying,
"Why does this generation seek a sign?
Assuredly I say to you,
no sign will be given to this generation."
Mark 8:13 And He left them.
And getting into the boat again
He went away to the other side.

Mark 8:14 Now they had forgotten to take bread.
And they did not have more than one loaf
with them in the boat.
Mark 8:15 And He charged them saying,
"Discern clearly!
Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees
and the leaven of Herod."
Mark 8:16 And they deliberated
among themselves saying,
"It is because we have no bread."
Mark 8:17 And YAHUSHUA, knowing it,
said to them, "Why do you deliberate
because you have no bread?
Do you not yet comprehend
nor put it together?
Is your heart still hardened?
Mark 8:18 Having eyes, do you not see?
And having ears, do you not hear?
And do you not remember?"

Mark 8:19 When I broke the five loaves for the sake of the five thousand
how many baskets
full of pieces did you pick up?"
They said to Him, "Twelve."
Mark 8:20 "And when the seven for the sake of the four thousand
how many baskets
full of pieces did you pick up?"
And they said, "Seven."
Mark 8:21 And He said to them,
"How do you not put it together?"

Mark 8:22 And He came to BayitSaida.
And they brought a blind man to Him.
And they implored Him to touch him.
Mark 8:23 And He took the blind man by the hand.
And He led him out of the town.
And having spit on his eyes
and having put His hands on him
He asked him if he saw anything.
Mark 8:24 And he looked up and said,
"I see the human beings
walking around like trees.

Mark 8:25 Then once more
He put His hands on his eyes.
And He made him look up.
And he was restored.
And he saw absolutely everything clearly.
Mark 8:26 And He sent him away
to his house saying,
"Do not go into the village,
nor tell anyone in the village."

Mark 8:27 And YAHUSHUA and His students went out into the villages of Caesarea Philippi.
And on the road He asked His students,
saying to them,
"Who do human beings say that I am?"
Mark 8:28 And they responded,
"Yahonathan, the baptizer.
But some Elijah.
And others, one of the prophets."
Mark 8:29 And He said to them,
"But who do you say that I am?"
Peter responded saying to Him,
"You are The Messiah!"

Mark 8:30 And He admonished them
that they tell no one about Him.
Mark 8:31 And He began to teach them that The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders
and chief priests and scribes,
and be killed,
and after three days be raised up.
Mark 8:32 And He spoke this word bluntly.
And Peter took Him aside.
And he began to admonish Him.
Mark 8:33 But having turned around and seen His students
He admonished Peter saying,
"Get behind Me, adversary!
because you are not caring for the things of YAHWEH
but rather for the things of human beings."

Tradition translates this as "Satan".
The term means adversary or opponent.
YAHUSHUA was most likely admonishing Peter as an opponent.
The balance of the statement
then takes on meaning for anyone who is not caring for the things of YAHWEH.
They become His adversary.

Mark 8:34 And having called the crowd to Himself together with His students He said to them, "Whoever desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his torture stake, and accompany Me.

stauros – a stake or post.
A pole or cross,
as an instrument of capital punishment.

The "cross" is among the most cruel forms of torture ever devised by human beings. It is not a thing of beauty, except perhaps when used metaphorically. It is an instrument of death and torture!

Would you hang an electric chair or hangman's noose around your neck and make an idol out of it?

Mark 8:35 Indeed, whoever desires to save his life will destroy it. But whoever destroys his life for My sake and the sake of the good news will save it.

Mark 8:36 Indeed, what will it benefit a person if he gains the whole world yet injures his own life?

Mark 8:37 Or what will a man give in exchange for his life?

Mark 8:38 Indeed, whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and offending generation, of him the Son of Man also will be ashamed when He comes in the splendor of His Father with the set apart messengers."

Chapter 9

Mark 9:1 And He said to them, "Assuredly, I say to you that there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see The Kingdom of YAHWEH come with miraculous power."

Mark 9:2 And after six days YAHUSHUA took with Him Peter, Ya'akov, and Yahanathan. And He brought them up onto a high mountain by themselves. And He was transformed In front of them.

metamorphoo – to transform.
The term metamorphosis comes from this word.

Mark 9:3 His garments became gleaming, exceedingly white like snow, such as no launderer on earth is able to whiten them.

Mark 9:4 And they saw Eliyah with Moshe. And they were conversing with YAHUSHUA.

Mark 9:5 And Peter responded, saying to YAHUSHUA, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here! Let us even make three tents. One for You, one for Moshe, and one for Eliyah!", Mark 9:6 because he did not understand what to say because they were greatly afraid.

Mark 9:7 And a cloud came, overshadowing them. And a voice came out of the cloud saying,

“This is My beloved Son.
Listen to Him!”

Mark 9:8 And suddenly, having looked around,
they saw no one any longer
except YAHUSHUA alone with themselves.

Mark 9:9 Now coming down from the mountain,
He charged them
that they should tell not even one
what they had seen
until the Son of Man had been raised
from the state of being dead.
Mark 9:10 And they kept the word
to themselves,
discussing what it was
to be raised up from being dead.

Mark 9:11 And they asked Him saying, “Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?”
Mark 9:12 Then He responded.
And He said to them,
“Indeed, Elijah is coming first.
And he restores everything.
And how much it is written concerning The Son of Man,
that He suffers many things,
and is utterly despised!

Mark 9:13 However, I say to you that Elijah has indeed come.
And they did to him whatever they desired
just as it is written of him.”

Mark 9:14 And having come to the students
He saw a great crowd around them
and scribes discussing with them.
Mark 9:15 And at once, having seen Him,
all the people were utterly astonished.
And running toward Him they embraced Him.
Mark 9:16 And He asked the scribes,
“What are you discussing with them?”
Mark 9:17 Then one of the crowd
responded saying,
“Teacher, I have brought to You my son
who has a mute nature.
Mark 9:18 And wherever it seizes him
it lacerates him.
And he foams at the mouth,
grates his teeth, and shrivels up.
And I spoke to Your students
in order that they might eject it.
But they were not able.”

Mark 9:19 Then He responded to him saying, “Alas, unbelieving generation!
How long must I be with you?
How long must I put up with you?
Bring him to Me!”
Mark 9:20 And they brought him to Him.
And having seen Him,
immediately the nature convulsed him.
And he fell on the ground and rolled about,
foaming at the mouth.
Mark 9:21 And He asked his father,
“How long has this been happening to him?”
And he said, “From childhood.
Mark 9:22 And often it has thrown him
both into the fire and into the water
to completely destroy him.
Nevertheless, if You are able to help us
have compassion on us.”

Mark 9:23 Then YAHUSHUA said to him,
“If you are able to believe,
all things are possible to him who believes.”

Beliefs can vary
from simple acknowledgement
(lip-service) to full acceptance.
Faith is the same.
Both require trust.
Faith in The Messiah means trusting Him
and what He says.
Without trust there is no faith or belief.
And without complete trust in YAHWEH
there is no redemption.

Mark 9:24 And Immediately
the father of the child
cried out and said with tears, “Master, I believe!
Help my unbelief!”

Mark 9:25 And YAHUSHUA,
seeing that the crowd came running together,
admonished the unclean nature, saying to it, “Mute and deaf nature, I direct you,
come out of him and enter him no more!”

Mark 9:26 And it cried out, convulsed him greatly,
and came out of him.
And he became as if dead.
And many said that he had died.

Mark 9:27 But YAHUSHUA
grabbed him by the hand.
And He lifted him up.
And he awakened.

Mark 9:28 And having come into the house
His students asked Him by themselves,
“Why could we not eject it?”

Mark 9:29 And He said to them,
“This kind can come out
by nothing except by prayer and fasting.”

Mark 9:30 And they departed from there.
And they passed over into The Galil.
And He did not want anyone to know

Mark 9:31 because
He was teaching His students.
And He said to them,
“The Son of Man is being betrayed
into the hands of human beings.
And they will kill Him.
And having been killed,
the third day He will be raised up.”

Mark 9:32 But they did not understand this word.
And they were afraid to ask Him.

Mark 9:33 And He came to Kafar'nahum.
And having come into the house
He asked them,
“What did you discuss

among yourselves on the road?”
Mark 9:34 But they kept silent because on the road
they had discussed among themselves
who was greatest.

Mark 9:35 And He sat down,
called the twelve, and said to them,
“If anyone desires to be first,
he will be last of all, and servant of all.”

Mark 9:36 And He took a little child.
And He stood him in the midst of them.

And having taken him in His arms
He said to them,
Mark 9:37 “Whoever receives one of these little children in My Name
receives Me.
And whoever receives Me,
receives not Me,
but rather Him who sent Me.”

Mark 9:38 Then Yahanathan
responded to Him saying, “Teacher, we saw someone who does not accompany us
ejecting unclean natures in Your Name.
And we forbade him
because he does not accompany us.”
Mark 9:39 But YAHUSHUA said,
“Do not forbid him because no one who might do a sign in My Name
can soon afterward revile Me.

Mark 9:40 Indeed, he who is not against us
is with us.

Mark 9:41 Indeed, whoever gives you
a cup of water to drink in My Name, because you are The Messiah's,
assuredly I say to you,
he will by no means lose his compensation!
Mark 9:42 And whoever trips up
one of these little ones who trust in Me,
it would be better for him
if a millstone was hung around his neck
and he was thrown into the sea.

Mark 9:43 If your hand trips you up,
cut it off!
It is better for you to enter into Life maimed,
rather than having two hands to go to hell,
into the unquenchable fire;

Mark 9:44 in which place
*“their maggot does not die
and the fire is not quenched.”*
(Is. 66.24)
Life is capitalized here to indicate that this refers to Eternal Life.

Mark 9:45 And if your foot trips you up,
cut it off!
It is better for you to enter into Life lame,
rather than having two feet, to be cast into hell,
into the unquenchable fire;

Mark 9:46 in which place
*“their maggot does not die
and the fire is not quenched.”*
(Is. 66.24)

Mark 9:47 And if your eye trips you up, tear it out!
It is better for you
to enter into The Kingdom of YAHWEH
with one eye, rather than having two eyes,
to be cast into hell fire;

Mark 9:48 in which place
*“their maggot does not die
and the fire is not quenched.”*
(Is. 66.24)
[Note the shift here from "Life"
to "The Kingdom of YAHWEH." This equates the two
so there is no mistake
about what's being said.](#)

Mark 9:49 Indeed, everyone
will be salted with fire.
And every sacrifice will be salted with salt.

It appears to mean "seasoned".
Salt is a preservative also.
It was required with sacrifices, signaling a preserving of the action
and results of the sacrifice.

Mark 9:50 Salt is good.
But if the salt has lost its saltiness
how will you season it?
Have salt in yourselves.
And be peaceful to one another."

Chapter 10

Mark 10:1 And having arisen from there also,
He came into the borders of Yahudah
by the other side of The Yarden.
And crowds journeyed together
toward Him again.
And as He was accustomed,
He was teaching them once more.

Mark 10:2 And the Pharisees approached to ask Him,
"Is it right for a man to divorce his wife?",
testing Him.

exesti – it is right (through the figurative idea
of being out in public),
- be lawful, let, may.
While typically translated as "lawful",
there is no direct connection with any law.
It would be more correct to suggest, is it proper.
Since the Pharisees are asking the question
one can only assume they intended it to be a legal question related to their law.

Mark 10:3 Then He responded saying to them,
"What did Moshe teach you?"

Mark 10:4 Then they said,
"Moshe allowed one
to write a scroll of divorce
and to divorce her."

Mark 10:5 And YAHUSHUA responded.
And He said to them,
"Because of the hardness of your heart
he wrote you this precept.

Mark 10:6 But from the beginning of the creation
The Elohim 'made them male and female.'
(Gen. 5.2)

Mark 10:7 '*For this reason
a man is to leave his father and mother
and be joined to his wife,*

Mark 10:8 and the two will become one flesh.'
So then they are no longer two, but one flesh.'
(Gen. 2.24)

Mark 10:9 Therefore,
what The Elohim has joined together, let not a human being separate."

Mark 10:10 And in the house His students
also asked Him once more concerning this.

Mark 10:11 And He said to them,
"If anyone divorces his wife
and marries another
he commits adultery against her.

Mark 10:12 And if a woman divorces her husband
and marries another
she commits adultery."

Mark 10:13 Then they brought little children to Him
in order that He might touch them.

But the students forbid those bringing them.

Mark 10:14 Then YAHUSHUA, having seen it,
was greatly displeased.

And He said to them,
"Let the little children come to Me
and do not forbid them

because of such is The Kingdom of YAHWEH.

Mark 10:15 Assuredly I say to you,
whoever does not receive
The Kingdom of YAHWEH like a little child will by no means enter into it!"

Mark 10:16 And He took them up in His arms,
laid His hands on them, and blessed them.

Mark 10:17 And having gone out onto the road
one came running
and fell on his knees before Him.
And he asked Him,
"Good Teacher, what must I do
in order that I may inherit Eternal Life?"
Mark 10:18 And YAHUSHUA said to him,
"Why do you call Me good?
Not even one is good except one, YAHWEH.

Mark 10:19 You understand the teachings.
*'You are not to commit adultery!
You are not to murder!
You are not to steal!
You are not to bear false witness!
You are not to defraud!
Honor your father and your mother!'*
(Deut. 5.16-20)

Mark 10:20 And he responded.
And he said to Him,
"Teacher, all these things
I have observed from my youth."

Mark 10:21 Then YAHUSHUA,
looking at him loved him.
And He said to him,
"One thing you lack.
Go your way!
Sell whatever you have and give to the poor!
Then you will have wealth in The Heaven.
Then come here!
Take up the torture stake and accompany Me!"

Mark 10:22 But he was sad over this word.
And he went away grieved
because he had many possessions.

Mark 10:23 Then YAHUSHUA looked all around.
And He said to His students,
"How impractical it is for those who have wealth
to enter into The Kingdom of YAHWEH!"

Mark 10:24 Now the students were stupefied by His words.
But YAHUSHUA responded again.
And He said to them,
"Children, how impractical it is for those who trust in wealth
to enter into The Kingdom of YAHWEH!
Mark 10:25 It is easier for a camel
to go through the eye of a needle
than for a wealthy person
to enter into The Kingdom of YAHWEH."

*There is much debate
concerning this concept.
Some believe the original phrase stated it was "easier for a rope
to go through the eye of a needle".*

Mark 10:26 Then they were exceedingly astonished,
saying among themselves,
"Who then can be saved?"
sozo – to save,

i.e. deliver or protect
– heal, preserve, save, do well, be whole.
"Salvation" is a religious term.
Deliverance or protection are not such.

Mark 10:27 And YAHUSHUA,
looking upon them said,
"With human beings it is impossible,
but on the other hand, not with YAHWEH,
because
with YAHWEH all things are possible."

Mark 10:28 Then Peter began to say to Him,
"Behold!
We have left everything
and have accompanied You."
Mark 10:29 And YAHUSHUA responded saying,
"Assuredly I say to you,
there is not even one who has left
house
or brothers
or sisters
or father
or mother
or wife
or children
or lands
on account of Me and of the good news
Mark 10:30 who will not receive a hundredfold
now in this time,
houses
and brothers
and sisters
and mothers
and children
and lands,
amidst persecutions,
and in the age to come, Eternal Life.

Mark 10:31 But many foremost will be least
and the least foremost."

Mark 10:32 Now they were on the road
going up to Yerushalaim.
And YAHUSHUA was going before them.
Now they were astounded.
And as they accompanied they were afraid.
And once more He took the twelve aside.
And He began to tell them
what would happen to Him, Mark 10:33 that is:
"Behold!
We are going up to Yerushalaim.
And The Son of Man will be delivered up
unto the chief priests and unto the scribes.
And they will condemn Him to death.
And they will deliver Him up to the Gentiles.
Mark 10:34 And they will ridicule Him,
and scourge Him,
and spit upon Him,
and kill Him.
Yet the third day He will be raised up again."

Mark 10:35 And Ya'akov and Yahanathan,
the sons of Zabdiy,
approached Him saying,
"Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask."
Mark 10:36 And He said to them,
"What do you want Me to do for you?"
Mark 10:37 Then they said to Him,
"Grant us that we may sit,
one on Your right hand
and the other on Your left in Your splendor."

Mark 10:38 But YAHUSHUA said to them,
“You do not understand what you ask.
Are you able to drink the cup that I drink
and to be baptized with the baptism
that I am baptized with?”

*baptizo means to immerse.
He is not about to be baptized with water,
but rather immersed
in awful trials and suffering.
It is this to which He is referring allegorically.*

Mark 10:39 And they said to Him,
“We are able.”

Then YAHUSHUA said to them,
“You will indeed drink the cup that I drink,
and with the baptism I am baptized
you will be baptized!

Mark 10:40 But to sit on My right hand
and on My left is not Mine to give,
but rather by Whom it is prepared.”

Mark 10:41 And the ten having heard it began to be greatly displeased
with Ya'akov and Yahanathan.

Mark 10:42 But YAHUSHUA
called them to Himself.

And He said to them,
“You understand that those who are considered rulers over the Gentiles
exercise dominion over them.

And their great ones
exercise authority over them.

Mark 10:43 But it will not be so among you.
But on the contrary, whoever desires to become great among you
will be your servant.

Mark 10:44 And whoever of you desires to be foremost
will be a servant of all.

Mark 10:45 Indeed, even The Son of Man
did not come to be served,
but rather to serve,
and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

*lutron – something to loosen with;
a redemption price. – ransom.*

*A ransom always involves a price (cost).
YAHUSHUA's life is the price paid
for your ransom
– which sets the believer free
from the debt owed
because of their offenses.*

Mark 10:46 Then they came into Yericho.
And as He was going out of Yericho
with His students and a large crowd
blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus,
was sitting beside the road begging.

Mark 10:47 And having heard that it was YAHUSHUA of Nazareth,
he began to cry out and say, “YAHUSHUA, Son of David,
have compassion on me!”

*Yericho means place of fragrance.
Bartimaeus means son of one esteemed.
Timaeus means highly prized.
Nazareth means a branch; preservation.*

Mark 10:48 Then many admonished him to be quiet.
But he cried out much more,
“Son of David, have compassion on me!”

Mark 10:49 And YAHUSHUA stood still.
And He said for him to be called.
Then they called the blind man,
saying to him, “Have courage!
Get up!

He is calling you.”
Mark 10:50 And throwing aside his garment
he stood up.
And he came to YAHUSHUA.
Mark 10:51 And YAHUSHUA responded
saying to him,
“What do you want Me to do for you?”
The blind man said to Him,
“Rabboni, that I might receive my sight.”
Mark 10:52 Then YAHUSHUA said to him,
“Go your way!
Your trust has delivered you.”
And immediately he received his sight.
And he accompanied YAHUSHUA on the road.

Chapter 11

Mark 11:1 And having approached Yerushalaim,
He sent two of His students into Bayit Phag and Bayit Any
by The Mount of Olives.

*Bayit Phag means fig house.
Bayit Any means house of affliction.*

Mark 11:2 And He said to them,
“Go into the village directly opposite you.
And as soon as you have entered into it you will find a young donkey tied on which no one has sat.
Loose it and bring it.
Mark 11:3 And if anyone says to you, “Why are you doing this?’
say, ‘The Master has need of it.’
And immediately he will send it here.”

Mark 11:4 And they went.
And they found the young donkey
tied by the door outside at a fork in the road.
And they loosed it.

Mark 11:5 And some of those standing there
said to them,

“What are you doing loosing the colt?”

Mark 11:6 And they spoke to them
just as YAHUSHUA had instructed.
And they let them go.

Mark 11:7 And they brought the young donkey
to YAHUSHUA.

And they threw their garments on it.
And He sat upon it.

Mark 11:8 And many spread
their garments upon the road.
And others cut down branches from the trees
and spread them on the road.

Mark 11:9 And those going before
and those who followed cried out, saying, “Hosanna!

*‘Blessed is He Who comes
in the Name of YAHWEH!’
(Ps. 118.25-26)*

Mark 11:10 Blessed is the kingdom of our father David,
coming in the Name of YAHWEH!
Hosanna in the highest!”

*This was customary for acknowledging a new king.
However, this was no "ordinary king"
they were proclaiming.
The very words used
indicate a full recognition that this was The Promised Messiah!*

Mark 11:11 And YAHUSHUA
went into Yerushalaim
and into The Temple.
And having looked around at everything,
since evening had already come,
He went out to Bayit Any with the twelve.

Mark 11:12 And the next day,
they having come out of Bayit Any,
He was hungry.
Mark 11:13 And seeing a fig tree having leaves from a distance He went to see if perhaps He would find anything on it.
And having come toward it
He found nothing but leaves
because it was not the proper time for figs.
Mark 11:14 And YAHUSHUA responded
saying to it,
“May no one eat fruit from you any longer
into the ages.”
And His students heard it.

Mark 11:15 Then they came to Yerushalaim.
And YAHUSHUA entered into The Temple.
And He began to throw out
those selling and buying in The Temple.
And He turned upside down
the tables of the coin dealers
and the benches of those who sold doves.
Mark 11:16 And He did not permit anyone to carry a vessel through The Temple.
Mark 11:17 And He taught, saying to them,
“Is it not written,
 “My house it to be called a house of prayer for all nations?”
 (Is. 56.7)

But you have made it a ‘den of thieves.’”
 (Jer. 7.11)

Mark 11:18 And the scribes
and the chief priests heard it.
And they sought how they might completely destroy Him.
Indeed, they feared Him
because the whole crowd
was astonished by His teaching.

Mark 11:19 And evening having come,
He went out of the city.
Mark 11:20 And in the morning, passing by,
they saw the fig tree, dried up from the roots.
Mark 11:21 And Peter, remembering,
said to Him,
“Rabbi, behold!
The fig tree which You cursed is shriveled up.”
Mark 11:22 And YAHUSHUA responded,
saying to them,
“Trust in YAHWEH!
Mark 11:23 Indeed, assuredly I say to you,
whoever says to this mountain,
“Be lifted up and be thrown into the sea,’
and does not hesitate in his heart,
but instead trusts
that what he says will happen,
he will have whatever he says!

Mark 11:24 Because of this I say to you,
whatever things you ask while praying,
trust that you are receiving them
and it will be so!

Mark 11:25 And whenever you stand still praying, forgive if you have anything against anyone
in order that your Father in The Heaven
may also forgive you your side-slips.

aphiemi – to send forth.
– cry, forgive, forsake, lay aside,
leave, let (alone, be, of, have), omit,
put (send) away, remit, suffer, yield up.
Essentially, let it go.

paraptoma – a side-slip (lapse or deviation),
i.e. (unintentional) error or (willful) transgression.
– fall, fault, offence, offend, trespass.
This is often translated transgression,
which is an unfaithful action.

Mark 11:26 Now if you do not forgive neither will your Father in The Heaven
forgive your side-slips.”

Mark 11:27 And they came again into Yerushalaim.
And as He was walking in The Temple
the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders
came to Him.

Mark 11:28 And they said to Him,
“By what authority are You doing these things?
And who gave You this authority
to do these things?”

Mark 11:29 And YAHUSHUA responded,
saying to them,

“I will also ask you one question.
Then answer Me and I will tell you
by what authority I do these things.

Mark 11:30 The baptism of Yahanathan,
was it from The Heaven or from human beings?
Answer Me!”

Mark 11:31 And they reasoned
among themselves saying,

“If we say, ‘From The Heaven,’

He will say,

‘Why therefore did you not believe him?’

Mark 11:32 On the other hand.

if we say, ‘From human beings.’

they feared the people

because everyone considered that Yahanathan was certainly a prophet.

Mark 11:33 So they responded,

saying to YAHUSHUA,

“We do not perceive it.”

And YAHUSHUA responded saying to them,

“Neither will I tell you
by what authority I do these things.”

Chapter 12

Mark 12:1 And He began

to speak to them in parables.

“A person planted a vineyard
and placed a fence around it,
dug a wine vat, and built a tower,
and he leased it to farmers
and went abroad.

Mark 12:2 And at the proper time
he sent a servant to the farmers
in order that he might take from the farmers
some of the fruit of the vineyard.

Mark 12:3 And they took and scourged him.

And they sent him away empty.

Mark 12:4 Again he sent to them another servant.

And they were throwing stones
to strike him in the head.

And they sent him away maltreated.

Mark 12:5 And again he sent another.

And they killed him and many others,
indeed scourging and killing them.

Mark 12:6 Therefore, still having one son,
his beloved,

he at last even sent him to them saying,

‘They will respect my son.’

Mark 12:7 But those farmers said to themselves,

‘This is the heir.

Come! Let us kill him and the inheritance will be ours.’

Mark 12:8 And they took him.

And they killed him.

And they threw him out of the vineyard.

Mark 12:9 Therefore, what will the master of the vineyard do?
He will come and completely destroy the farmers.
And he will give the vineyard to others.

Mark 12:10 Have you not read this Scripture?
*'The stone which the builders rejected
has become the chief cornerstone.*

Mark 12:11 *This was YAHWEH's doing.
And it is marvelous in our eyes!*
(Ps. 118.22-23)

Mark 12:12 And they sought to seize Him.
But they feared the crowd
because they knew that He had spoken the parable against them.
Then they left Him and went away.

Mark 12:13 Then they sent to Him
some of the Pharisees and the Herodians
to entrap Him by His words.

Mark 12:14 And having come, they spoke to Him,
"Teacher, we perceive that You are true.
And You are not concerned about anyone.

Indeed, You do not look
upon the appearance of human beings,
but instead teach the way of The Elohim in truth.
Is it right to give tribute to Caesar, or not?

Mark 12:15 Shall we give or shall we not give?"
But He, understanding their hypocrisy,
said to them,

"Why do you test Me?
Bring Me a denarius in order that I may see it."

Mark 12:16 And they brought it.

And He said to them,

"Whose likeness and inscription is this?"

And they said to Him, "Caesar's."

Mark 12:17 Then YAHUSHUA responded,
saying to them,

"Give away to Caesar
the things that are Caesar's,

and to YAHWEH
the things that are YAHWEH's."

And they marveled at Him.

Mark 12:18 And the Sadducees,
who say there is no resurrection,
came to Him.

And they asked Him saying,

Mark 12:19 "Teacher, Moshe wrote to us that if a man's brother dies
and leaves behind a wife,

yet leaves no children,
his brother should take his wife

and raise up offspring for his brother.

Mark 12:20 Now there were seven brothers.

The first took a wife,
and dying he left no offspring.

Mark 12:21 And the second took her and he died.
Neither did he leave any offspring.

And the third likewise.

Mark 12:22 And the seven had her yet left no offspring.

Last of all the woman died also.

Mark 12:23 Therefore, in the resurrection,
when they are raised up,
whose wife will she be because all seven had her as a wife?"

Mark 12:24 And YAHUSHUA responding,
said to them,
"Because of this are you not deceived?"

You do not understand The Scriptures
nor the power of YAHWEH.

Mark 12:25 Indeed, when they are raised up
from being dead
they neither marry nor are given in marriage,
but instead are like the YAH-messengers
which are in The Heaven.

Mark 12:26 Now concerning the dead,
that they are raised up,
have you not read in The Book of Moshe,
how from the bush
The Elohim spoke to him saying,
*'I am The Elohim of Abraham,
The Elohim of Yitzhak,
and The Elohim of Ya'akov!'*?
(Ex. 3.6)

Mark 12:27 He is not The Elohim of the dead
but rather The Elohim of the living.
You are therefore greatly deceived."

Mark 12:28 Then one of the scribes approached,
and hearing them reasoning together,
and perceiving that He had responded to them well asked Him,
"Which is the foremost instruction of all?"

12:29 Then YAHUSHUA

responded to him that,

"The foremost of all the instructions is,
'Hear, Yisra'el, YAHWEH, our Elohim, YAHWEH is one.

Mark 12:30 And you are to love
YAHWEH, your Elohim,
with all your heart,
with all your nature,
with all your mind,
and with all your strength.'
(Deut. 6.4-5)

This is known in Yisra'el as "The Shema".
It is repeated daily by every good Yisra'elite.
It would be known
by everyone who was present.

This is the foremost instruction.

Mark 12:31 And the second is similar.

This. "You are to love your neighbor
as yourself.

(Lev. 19.18)

There is no other Instruction greater than these!"

Mark 12:32 And the scribe said to Him,
"Well said, Teacher!

You have spoken concerning truth
that there is one Elohim
and no other exists except Him.

Mark 12:33 And to love Him
with all the heart,
with all the intellect,
with all the nature,
and with all the strength,
and to love one's neighbor as oneself,
is more than all the whole burnt offerings
and the sacrifices."

Mark 12:34 And YAHUSHUA,
having seen that he responded prudently,
said to him,
"You are not far from The Kingdom of YAHWEH."
And after that no one dared question Him.

Mark 12:35 And YAHUSHUA responded,
saying, while teaching in The Temple,

“How do the scribes say that The Messiah is The Son of David?
Mark 12:36 Indeed, David himself said
by The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
*“YAHWEH said to my Master,
“Sit at My right hand
until I make Your enemies Your footstool.”’*
(Ps. 110.1)

Mark 12:37 Therefore, David himself calls Him ‘Master’.
How then is He his Son?”
And the great crowd listened to Him with pleasure.

Mark 12:38 Then He said to them in His teaching, “Beware of the scribes
who delight to walk about in long robes,
and in greetings in the marketplaces,
Mark 12:39 and in the best seats in the assemblies,
and in the best places at the feasts;
Mark 12:40 who devour widows’ houses,
and for a pretense make long prayers.
These will receive greater condemnation.”

Mark 12.41 Then YAHUSHUA was sitting directly opposite the treasury.
And He observed how the crowd
threw money into the treasury.

*The Treasury consisted of a courtyard
with several receptacles in it to receive the offerings.*

And many wealthy threw in much.

Mark 12:42 Then one poor widow came.

And she threw in two small coins
which make one sixteenth of a denarius.

Mark 12:43 And He called His students to Himself.
And He said to them,

“Assuredly I say to you that this poor widow has thrown in more than all of those who have thrown into the treasury.

Mark 12:44 Indeed, everyone
threw in out of their abundance.

But she, out of her poverty,
threw in everything,
as much as she had,
her entire means of livelihood.”

Chapter 13

Mark 13:1 Then as He was going out of The Temple
one of His students said to Him, “Teacher, behold what sort of stones and what buildings are these!”

Mark 13:2 And YAHUSHUA responded.

And He said to him,

“Look at these great buildings.
Not a stone at all will be left upon a stone
that will not be broken down!”

Mark 13:3 And sitting upon The Mount of Olives
directly opposite The Temple,

Peter, Ya’akov, Yahnathan, and Andrew asked Him by themselves,

Mark 13:4 “Tell us!

When will these things be?

And what is the sign that all these things are about to be completed?”

*The second part of the verse contains no future tense.
It also contains nothing that must happen first.
Instead, it asks how the sign will be recognized.*

sunteleo – to complete entirely;
generally, to execute.
– end, finish, fulfill, make.*

The sign given is what takes place just prior to the completion.

Mark 13:5 Then YAHUSHUA,
responding to them began by saying, “Watch out lest anyone deceives you!
planao – to (properly, cause to) roam
(from safety, truth, or virtue)
– go astray, deceive, err, seduce,
wander, be out of the way.

Deception is the ‘watchword’ for the last days.

Mark 13:6 Indeed, many will come in My Name saying that, ‘I am He.’
And they will deceive many.

Mark 13:7 Then, when you hear of wars
and rumors of wars,
do not be frightened!
Indeed, it must happen.
However, the end is not yet.

Mark 13:8 Indeed,
nation will rise against nation,
and kingdom against kingdom.
And there will be earthquakes
in various places.
And there will be scarcity of food
and disturbances.
These are the beginning of birth-pains.

Mark 13:9 Then watch out for yourselves
because they will deliver you up to tribunals.
And you will be beaten in the assemblies.
And you will stand before rulers and kings
on account of Me as a testimony to them.
sunedrion – a joint session,
i.e. (specially) the Sanhedrin;
by analogy, a subordinate tribunal.
– council.
The article is not present in the text
so it must be assumed this is not a direct reference to The Sanhedrin.
This sign applies to the general populace.
sunagoge – an assemblage of persons.
It can refer to a synagogue,
or to any other assembly,
generally a religious one.

Mark 13:10 Yet the good news
must first be proclaimed among all the races.
ethnos – a race, i.e. a tribe
– Gentiles, heathen, nation, people.

Mark 13:11 Now when they lead you and deliver you up
do not be anxious in advance
of what you shall speak.
But instead,
whatever is given to you in that hour,
speak that,
because it is not you who is speaking,
but rather
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

Mark 13:12 Then brother will deliver brother into death,
and a father his child.
And children will rise up against parents
and cause them to be put to death.

Mark 13:13 And you will be detested by everyone
because of My Name.

But he who endures to the end,
that one will be delivered.

Mark 13:14 Now, when you see
the 'abomination of desolation' (Dan. 9.27)

spoken of by Daniel, the prophet, standing where it should not (let the one reading comprehend)
then let those in Yahudah
run away to the mountains!

Mark 13:15 Then let one on the housetop
not go down into the house,
nor one enter

to pick up anything from his house!

Mark 13:16 And let one who is in the field
not return to pick up his clothes.

Mark 13:17 And woe to one being pregnant
and to those who are nursing babies
in those days!

Mark 13:18 And pray that your fleeing
is not in a storm.

cheimon – a storm (as pouring rain);
by implication, the rainy season, i.e. winter.
– tempest, foul weather, winter.

13:19 Indeed, those days will be trouble, truly,
of which sort there has not been since the beginning of the creation
which YAHWEH created until this time
and will never be again!

Note that the text does not say,
'in those days there will be trouble (tribulation).', but instead says
the days themselves will be trouble.

The text is also not in the dative case,
which then would permit such a rendering.
This changes the sense of the text
to show that the entire time is trouble,
not that there will be trouble in those days.
The difference is subtle, but vital.

Mark 13:20 And unless YAHWEH
had shortened those days
no flesh would be saved.
However, because of the elect whom He has chosen
He is shortening the days.

The use of kurios here,
(Traditionally translated "The Lord".)
where YAHWEH is inserted above,
again leads us to confusion if it's not corrected.

Is it The Master Who shortens the days,
or is it YAHWEH?
The context strongly suggests
YAHWEH is the One Who shortens the days.

Remember Who is speaking.
YAHUSHUA does not refer to Himself
as 'The Master' (Lord).

Mark 13:21 Then even if anyone says to you,
"Behold!
Here is The Messiah!
or, 'Behold!
He is there!'
Do not believe it!

Mark 13:22 Indeed, false messiahs
and false prophets will arise.
And they will give signs and wonders
to lead astray if possible even the chosen.

Mark 13:23 Now, watch out!
Behold!
I have told you everything ahead of time!

Mark 13:24 Furthermore,
in those very days,
after that trouble,
the sun will be obscured
and the moon will not give its light.
Mark 13:25 And the stars of the sky will fall.
And the powers in The Heavens
will be shaken.

Mark 13:26 Then they will see
The Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and splendor!

optomai – to gaze
(i.e. with wide-open eyes),
as at something remarkable.

Mark 13:27 And then
He will send His messengers
and gather together His chosen from the four winds,
from the extremity of earth
to the extremity of the sky.

Mark 13:28 Now learn this parable
from the fig tree.

When its branch is already soft and it puts forth leaves
you know that summer is near.

Mark 13:29 Thus you also,
when you see these things happening,
know that it is near, at the doors!

Mark 13:30 Assuredly I say to you,
this generation will by no means go away
until all these things happen!

Mark 13:31 The sky and the earth
will pass away!
But My words
will by no means pass away!

Mark 13:32 And of that day and hour
no one understands,
not even the messengers
who are in The Heaven,
not even The Son,
but only the Father.

Mark 13:33 Watch out!
Keep awake and pray!
Indeed, you do not understand
when the time is!

Mark 13:34 It is like one going to a far country who left his house
and gave the authority to his servants
and to each his task.
And he directed the doorkeeper
to keep awake.

Mark 13:35 You keep awake therefore,
because you do not understand
when the master of the house is coming,
in the evening,
or at midnight,

or at the crowing of the rooster,
or at day break,

Mark 13:36 lest coming unexpectedly
He finds you sleeping!

Mark 13:37 And what I say to you
I say to all.

Keep awake!”

Chapter 14

Mark 14:1 Now after two days
it was The Passover

and the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

*Pesach is the proper Hebrew term
for The Passover.*

Matza is the proper name for unleavened bread.

Matza actually means sweet (not soured by fermentation).

And the chief priests and the scribes sought how to seize Him by deceit
and kill Him.

Mark 14:2 But they said, "Not at the feast lest there should be a disturbance of the people."

Mark 14:3 And being in BayitAny
at the house of Shim'on the leper
as He was reclining at a meal
a woman came
having an alabaster box of ointment
of extremely expensive pure spikenard.
And she broke the alabaster box.
And she poured it upon His head.

Mark 14:4 Now some were very displeased
among themselves.

And they were saying,
"Why did this waste of oil happen?"

Mark 14:5 Indeed, it could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii
and given to the poor."

And they were indignant toward her.

Mark 14:6 But YAHUSHUA said,
"Let her alone!

Why do you cause her trouble?

She has done a good deed for Me.

Mark 14:7 Indeed, you have the poor with you always.

And whenever you desire

you can do good to them.

But Me you do not have always.

Mark 14:8 She has used what she had.
She has taken an opportunity in advance
to anoint My body in preparation for burying.

Mark 14:9 Assuredly I say to you,
wherever this good news is proclaimed
in the whole world
what this woman has done
will also be spoken of as a reminder of her."

Mark 14:10 Then Yahudah of Iscariot,
one of the twelve,
went to the chief priests
to betray Him to them.

Mark 14:11 Now having heard it they rejoiced
and promised to give him silver.

Then he sought how
he might conveniently betray Him.

Mark 14:12 Then on the first day
of Unleavened Bread,
when they had killed the Passover lamb,
His students said to Him,
"Where do You want us to go and prepare in order that You may eat the Passover?"

Mark 14:13 And He sent out two of His students.

And He said to them, "Go into the city.

And a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water!

This was an anomaly.

Men did not normally carry

a pitcher of water in those days.

It was left to the women normally.

Accompany him!
Mark 14:14 And at whatever place he enters,
say to the master of the house,
'The Teacher says,
"Where is the guest room
in which I may eat The Passover with My students?" '

Mark 14:15 Then he will show you
a large upper room being furnished in readiness.
Prepare for us there!"

Mark 14:16 And His students went out.
And they came into the city.
And they found it just as He had said to them.
And they prepared The Passover meal.

Tradition teaches that this is
"The Lord's Supper" - "communion".
However, this is not correct!

This cup and this bread
were part of the Passover meal.
They are inseparably linked to this meal,
and it was this meal that was to be utilized
to remember the death
and resurrection of YAHUSHUA.

The act of remembering was to take place
once each year - at Passover!
It was not intended to become
a "weekly" or "monthly" ritual,
one which loses
its true meaning and significance
when separated
from The Festival of Passover.

For the New Covenant believer,
that covenant was established
at precisely this moment by YAHUSHUA.
Passover was given a whole new meaning.

The offense-debt of every believer
had now been "passed over"
because of the body and blood
- shed in our place -
of YAHUSHUA, The Hebrew Messiah!

It took place at PASSOVER!
There is a reason!
YAHWEH used this specific event
to deliver/save/rescue us
from our bondage to our offenses.

It is a despicable thing
to separate YAHUSHUA from Passover!
It is also perverse
to trivialize His "body and blood"
by the manner in which
"communion" is now practised!
YAHWEH cannot be pleased
with such desecration of His sacred meal,
The Passover meal.

And what's worse
- most so-called believers
do not even know what Passover is
or when it is to be celebrated.

Mark 14:17 In the evening
He came with the twelve.
Mark 14:18 And as they were sitting and eating
YAHUSHUA said,
"Assuredly I say to you,
one of you who eats with Me will betray Me!"
Mark 14:19 Then they began to be distressed and to say to Him one by one, "Is it I?"
And another, "Is it I?"
Mark 14:20 And He responded saying to them,
"It is one of the twelve who dips with Me into the bowl.
Mark 14:21 The Son of Man indeed goes away,
just as it is written concerning Him.

But woe to that person
by whom The Son of Man is betrayed!
It was better for that person
if he had never been born.”

Mark 14:22 Then, as they were eating,
YAHUSHUA took bread,
blessed it, broke it, and gave it to them.
And He said,
“Take, eat!
This is My body.”

Mark 14:23 Then He took the cup.
And having given thanks He gave it to them.
And they all drank from it.

Mark 14:24 Then He said to them,
“This is My blood.

It is The New Covenant

which is poured out for the sake of many.

Note: A covenant is a contract.

It carries with it legal responsibilities.

*Covenants were often sealed with blood
with the intent that anyone who violated it was guilty of breaking a blood oath.*

Mark 14:25 Assuredly I say to you,
I will not at all drink of the fruit of the vine
until that day when I drink it new
in The Kingdom of YAHWEH!”

Mark 14:26 And having sung a hymn
they went out onto the Mount of Olives.

Mark 14:27 Then YAHUSHUA said to them that, “Everyone will be ensnared because of Me
on this very night
because it is written,

*‘I will strike the Shepherd,
and the sheep will be scattered.’
(Zech. 13.7)*

Mark 14:28 However,
after I have been raised up,
I will go before you into The Galil.”

Mark 14:29 Then Peter said to Him, “Even if everyone is ensnared,
on the contrary, I will not be!”

Mark 14:30 And YAHUSHUA said to him,
“Assuredly I say to you,
that this day,
on this night,

before the rooster has crowed twice,
you will utterly deny Me three times!”

Mark 14:31 But he spoke more vehemently,

“If I must die with You
I will not utterly deny You!”

And everyone also spoke in the same manner.

Mark 14:32 Then they went to a place
which was named Gethsemane.

And He said to His students,
“Sit down here while I pray.”

Gethsemane means oil press place.

Mark 14:33 And He took with Him
Peter, Ya'akov, and Yahanathan.

And He began to be utterly astonished and distressed.

Mark 14:34 And He said to them,
“My life is intensely sad, even unto death!
Stay here, and keep awake!”

Mark 14:35 And He went a little farther.
And He fell upon the ground.
And He prayed that if it was possible
the hour might pass over from Him.

Mark 14:36 And He said,
"Abba, Father!
All things are possible for You.
Take this cup away from Me!

Nevertheless, not what I desire,
but rather, what You desire!"

Mark 14:37 Then He came
and found them sleeping.
And He said to Peter, "Shim'on, you sleep.
Could you not stay awake one hour?
Mark 14:38 Stay awake and pray
so that you do not enter into adversity.
The nature indeed is ready,
but the flesh is weak."

Mark 14:39 And once more
He went off and prayed,
speaking the same words.
Mark 14:40 And having returned
He found them asleep again
because their eyes were heavy.
And they did not understand what to answer Him.
Mark 14:41 Then He came the third time.
And He said to them,
"Continue sleeping and resting.
It is enough!
The hour has come.
Behold!
The Son of Man is betrayed
into the hands of the offenders.

Mark 14:42 Get up!
Let us go!
Behold!
He who is delivering Me up approaches."
Mark 14:43 And immediately,
while He was still speaking,
Yahudah, one of the twelve,
arrived with a large crowd
with swords and clubs,
besides the chief priests,
and the scribes, and the elders.

Mark 14:44 Now the one who betrayed Him
had given them a prearranged signal saying,
"The one whom I kiss, He is the One.
Seize Him!
And take Him away securely!"

Mark 14:45 And coming,
he immediately approached Him.
And he said to Him, "Rabbi! Rabbi!"
And he kissed Him earnestly.

Mark 14:46 Then they laid their hands upon Him.
And they seized Him.

Mark 14:47 Now a certain one of those standing by drew his sword
and struck the slave of the great priest,
and he cut off his ear.

Mark 14:48 Then YAHUSHUA responded,
saying to them,
"Have you come out as if against a thief
with swords and clubs to catch Me?
Mark 14:49 I was before you daily,
teaching in The Temple,
and you did not seize Me.
However, In order that the Scriptures
must be fulfilled..."

Mark 14:50 Then everyone
left Him and ran away.
Mark 14:51 But a certain youth accompanied Him having a linen cloth thrown around his naked body.
And the youths seized him.
Mark 14:52 And he abandoned the linen cloth
and ran away from them naked.

Mark 14:53 Then they led YAHUSHUA away
to the great priest.
And to him were assembled
all the chief priests,
the elders,
and the scribes.
Mark 14:54 And Peter accompanied Him at a distance,
right into the courtyard of the great priest.
And he was sitting with the servants
and warming himself by the fire.

Mark 14:55 Now the chief priests
and all the Sanhedrin
sought evidence against YAHUSHUA
to put Him to death.
And they found none.
Mark 14:56 Indeed, many bore false witness against Him
but their testimonies did not agree.

Mark 14:57 Then some stood up and bore false witness against Him saying,
Mark 14:58 "We heard that He said,
'I will destroy this Temple made with hands,
and within three days I will build another made without hands.'" Mark 14:59 But not even in this did their testimony agree.

Mark 14:60 Then the great priest
stood up among them.
And he asked YAHUSHUA saying,
"Do You not respond at all to what these persons testify against You?"
Mark 14:61 But He kept silent.
And He responded not even one thing.
Once more the great priest asked Him,
saying to Him,
"Are You The Messiah,
The Son of The Adorable?"
Mark 14:62 YAHUSHUA said, "I am!
And you will gaze with eyes wide open at The Son of Man
sitting at the right hand of 'The Miraculous Power',
even coming with the clouds of the sky."

Mark 14:63 Then the great priest tore his clothes.
And he said,
"What need do we have
of any more witnesses?
Mark 14:64 You have heard the blasphemy!
What do you think?"
And everyone condemned Him
as being deserving of death.

Mark 14:65 And some began to spit upon Him,
and to blindfold Him,
and to beat Him,
and to say to Him, "Prophecy!"
And the subordinates slapped Him.

Mark 14:66 Now Peter,
being below in the courtyard,
one of the slave girls of the great priest came.

Mark 14:67 And having seen Peter warming himself she looked at him and said, "And you were also with YAHUSHUA of Nazareth."
Mark 14:68 But he denied it saying, "I do not know nor comprehend what you are saying."
And he went out into the porch, and a rooster crowed.
Mark 14:69 And the servant girl, seeing him again, began to say to those who stood by, "This one is of them."
Mark 14:70 But he denied it again. And a little later those who stood by said once more to Peter, "Surely you are of them because you are a Galil'an. Even your speech resembles theirs."
Mark 14:71 Then he began to curse and to swear, "I do not know this person of whom you speak!"
Mark 14:72 A second time a rooster crowed. Then Peter remembered the word that YAHUSHUA had spoken to him, "Before the rooster crows twice you will utterly deny Me three times."
And having reflected on it he wept.

Chapter 15

Mark 15:1 And immediately at dawn the chief priests had a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole Sanhedrin. And they bound YAHUSHUA, led Him away, and delivered Him to Pilate.
Mark 15:2 And Pilate asked Him, "Are You the King of the Yisra'elites?"
Then He, responding, said to him, "You said it."

Mark 15:3 Then the chief priests accused Him of many things. But He responded not even once.
Mark 15:4 Then Pilate asked Him again saying, "Do You not respond, not even once? Behold! They testify much against You!"
Mark 15:5 But YAHUSHUA still responded not even once, so that Pilate marveled.

Mark 15:6 Now at the feast he released to them one prisoner, whomever they requested.
Mark 15:7 And there was one named Bar'abbas, bound with fellow insurgents, who had committed murder in the insurrection.
Bar'abbas means son of a father.
Mark 15:8 And the crowd, crying out loud, began to ask for exactly what he had always done for them.
Mark 15:9 Then Pilate responded to them saying, "Do you want me to release to you The King of the Yisra'elites?", YAHUSHUA was not just King of "The Jews". The Jews were Yahudeans, and there are eleven more tribes in Yisra'el \(technically twelve more, including the Levites\). YAHUSHUA was King of all of them, not of one tribe alone.

Mark 15:10 because he knew that the chief priests had delivered Him up because of ill will.

Mark 15:11 Then the chief priests stirred up the crowd in order that he might instead release Bar'abbas to them.

Mark 15:12 Then Pilate responded.
And he said to them once more,
“What then do you desire that I do to the one whom you call
The King of the Yisra’elites?”
Mark 15:13 And they cried out again,
“Crucify Him!”
Mark 15:14 Then Pilate said to them,
“Why? What harm has He done?”
But they cried out more superabundantly,
“Crucify Him!”

Mark 15:15 Now Pilate,
willing to do enough to satisfy the crowd,
released Bar’abbas to them.
And having scourged YAHUSHUA,
he delivered Him up to be crucified.

Mark 15:16 Then the soldiers led Him away
into the hall which is the Praetorium.
And they called together
the whole band of soldiers.
Mark 15:17 And they clothed Him with purple.
And they braided a wreath of thorns,
presented it to Him,
Mark 15:18 and began to salute Him, “Rejoice!
King of the Yisra’elites!”

Mark 15:19 And they beat Him upon the head with a reed.
And they spit upon Him.
And bowing the knees
they prostrated themselves in homage to Him.

proskuneo – to fawn or crouch to,
i.e. (literally or figuratively)
prostrate oneself in homage (do reverence to, adore).
– worship.
The normal meaning of the term is worship.
However, this was certainly not the intent of their hearts.

Mark 15:20 And having jeered at Him
they took the purple off Him,
put His own clothes on Him,
and led Him out to crucify Him.

Mark 15:21 And they compelled a certain man, Shim'on, a Cyrenian,
the father of Alexander and Rufus,
as he was coming out of the field
and passing by to carry His torture stake.
stauros – a stake or post (as set upright),
i.e. (specially, a pole or cross
(as an instrument of capital punishment);
figuratively, exposure to death,
i.e. self-denial;
by implication, the atonement of The Messiah.

Virtually always it is translated as a cross.
Yet that term conceals its true nature.

It is an instrument of death
– much like the electric chair
or the gas chamber.

It is not some fancy artifact
to be honored, or adored, or worshipped.
That turns it into an IDOL!

It is an instrument of death
that causes the one hung upon it to suffer
in ways that are beyond description.
The agony it causes
is like no other means of execution!

Alexander means man-defender.
Rufus means red.

Mark 15:22 And they brought Him to the place, Golgotha, which is translated, Place of a Skull.

Mark 15:23 And they gave Him wine mingled with myrrh to drink, but He did not take it.

Mark 15:24 And having crucified Him they divided His garments, casting lots for them to determine what each one would take.

Mark 15:25 Now it was the third hour when they crucified Him.

Mark 15:26 And the inscription of His crime was written,
"THE KING OF THE YISRA'ELITES."

Mark 15:27 With Him they also crucified two thieves, one on His right hand, and the other on His left hand.

Mark 15:28 And the Scripture was fulfilled which says,

"And He was numbered with the violators."
(Is. 53.12)

Mark 15:29 And those passing by blasphemed Him, shaking their heads and saying, "Ah! He who destroys The Temple and builds it in three days, Mark 15:30 save Yourself and descend from the torture stake!"

Mark 15:31 Then likewise, even the chief priests, jeering at Him, said among themselves with the scribes, "He saved others. Himself He is not able to save.
Mark 15:32 Let The Messiah, The King of Yisra'el, descend now from the torture stake in order that we may see and believe."

And those who were crucified with Him taunted Him.

Mark 15:33 Now the sixth hour having come, there was darkness over the whole land, even until the ninth hour.

Mark 15:34 And at the ninth hour YAHUSHUA cried out with a loud voice saying, "Eloi, Eloi lama sabachthani?" which is translated, "My Elohim! My Elohim! Why have You abandoned Me?"

Mark 15:35 And some of those standing by, having listened said, "Behold!

He is calling for Elijah!"

Mark 15:36 Then one ran and filled a sponge with vinegar, also putting it on a reed. And he gave it to Him to drink saying, "Let Him alone! Let us see if Elijah will come to take Him down."

Mark 15:37 And YAHUSHUA omitted a loud noise. And He expired.

Literally, breathed out.

the other was seven days later
- and they were not necessarily
on the seventh day of the week.

This means they were not
on The Sabbath Day,
which is Saturday.
It could be any day of the week.

The first of sabbaton, the Greek term,
simply refers to the first day
following the Special Sabbath.
This means the resurrection did not,
of necessity, occur on "Sunday".
Indeed, it makes it highly probable
that it did not occur on a "Sunday",
"the first day of the week".

Lit. – one or first of the Special Sabbath.

they came to the tomb at the rising of the sun.
Mark 16:3 And they said among themselves,
"Who will roll away the stone
from the door of the tomb for us?"
Mark 16:4 Then having looked up
they saw that the stone was rolled away.
Indeed, it was very large.

Mark 16:5 And having entered into the tomb
they saw a young man
clothed in a long white robe
sitting on the right side.
And they were utterly astonished!
Mark 16:6 Then he said to them,
"Do not be utterly astonished!
You seek YAHUSHUA of Nazareth
Who was crucified.
He has been raised up!
He is not here.
Behold!
The place where they had laid Him.

Mark 16:7 Moreover, go!
Tell His students, even Peter,
that He is going ahead of you into The Galil!
There you will see Him,
just as He told you."

Mark 16:8 And they went out without delay.
And they ran away from the tomb.
Then they had trembling and bewilderment.
And they said absolutely nothing to anyone
because they were in awe.
phobeo – to frighten,
i.e. (passively) to be alarmed;
by analogy, to be in awe of, i.e. revere.
– be afraid, fear (exceedingly), reverence.
The context suggests this is not fear, but awe.

Mark 16:9 Now having been raised up
by dawn on the first of the Special Sabbath,
He appeared first to Mary Magdalene,
out of whom He had ejected seven unclean natures.
Mark 16:10 This same one went and told those who had been with Him
as they were mourning and weeping.
Mark 16:11 And having heard that He was alive and had been looked at closely by her they disbelieved.

Mark 16:12 Now after that He appeared in a different form
to two of them as they were walking,
going into the field.
Mark 16:13 And they went off
and told the remaining ones.
But they did not believe them either.

Mark 16:14 Later He appeared to the eleven

as they sat at dinner.
And He reproached their disbelief
and hard heartedness
because they did not trust those who had looked closely at Him
after He had been raised up.

Mark 16:15 And He said to them,
“Go into the whole world
and proclaim the good news
to every creature!

Creature - Lit. - original formation.

Mark 16:16 He who believes and is baptized
will be delivered.
But he who disbelieves
will be condemned.

Mark 16:17 Now these signs will follow closely
those who trust.
In My Name they will eject unclean natures,
they will speak new languages,
Mark 16:18 they will pick up snakes,
and if they drink any deadly thing
it will by no means harm them.
They will lay hands on the sick
and they will recover.”

Mark 16:19 Indeed, therefore,
after The Master had spoken to them,
He was taken up into The Heaven.
And He sat down
at the right hand of YAHWEH.

Mark 16:20 Then they went out
and proclaimed everywhere,
The Master working with them
and confirming the message
through the signs accompanying them.

Amen.

4. LUKE

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Luke 1.1 Since indeed many have attempted to set in order a narrative concerning the matters
which have been fulfilled among us, Luke 1:2 just as they were delivered to us
who from the beginning became eyewitnesses
and servants of the message,

logos – something said.

The term refers to

both spoken and written words.

It also means a message,

that conveyed by what is “said”.

in the Book of John where it states

– “The Word became flesh...”.

Luke 1:3 and having exactly traced everything from the start it seemed good to me also
to write to you a sequential account,
most excellent Theophilus,

Theophilus – friend of God.

This may, indeed, not be a specific person,

but rather be a means of addressing

anyone who is such a friend.

Luke 1:4 in order that you might recognize the security of matters concerning which you were informed.

This is a most powerful and persuasive introduction.

If you compare it with what is normally presented
you will see it is obviously quite different.

The Greek can perhaps be interpreted in several ways with the terms used.
However, the characterization normally given
does not fit the context.

Luke had a clearly defined purpose
in writing this material.
As you take the time to analyze the terms
his purpose becomes very clear.

Luke 1:5 There happened to exist
in the days of Herod, the king of Yahudah,
a certain priest named Zacharyah,
of the division of Abiyah.
His wife was of the daughters of Aharon,
and her name was Elisheba.

Zacharyah means
remembered by YAHWEH.
Abiyah means my father is YAH.
Aharon means light bringer.
Elisheba means El of the oath.

Luke 1:6 Now they were both innocent before YAHWEH,
walking in all the instructions
and decrees of YAHWEH without fault.

dikaïos – equitable (in character or act;
by implication, innocent,
holy (absolutely or relatively).
– just, meet, right(eous).

The term is translated as “righteous”.
Just, and innocent, are more accurate,
and less flavored by religious sentiments.

kurios – supreme in authority,
i.e. (as noun) controller, by implication, Master.
– God, Lord, master, Sir.

The use of “the Lord”
in the traditional translation of this verse,
is an abomination.
It perverts the text
and causes much confusion.
Does it refer to The LORD,
as in the Old Covenant,
or to The Lord, YAHUSHUA,
in the New Covenant?

In The Old Covenant “The LORD”
is used extensively as a replacement for YHWH, (YAHWEH in English).
This is a gross error in translation,
and even more egregiously,
it was intentional!

Ex. 3.15-16 declares plainly that YHWH is the personal Name of The Elohim (God) of Genesis.

The context will usually give you a clue
as to which is meant,
but most people won’t slow down long enough
to even think about it.

It’s evident that the instructions and decrees
were NOT given by YAHUSHUA,
but rather, by YAHWEH,
The Elohim, or “God” of the Old Covenant.

Luke 1:7 And they had no child
because Elisheba was sterile.
And they were both well advanced in years.

This is a most interesting parallel to Abraham and Sarah.

Luke 1:8 Now it happened
in performing his functions

as priest before YAHWEH
in the order of his course

The priests were divided into divisions called 'courses'.
Each served their time in office
for a fixed period and in a specific order.

Luke 1:9 according to the custom of the priestly office,
it was his lot to burn incense,
entering into The Temple of YAHWEH.

He was chosen by lot to burn incense
out of the members of his division.
This could only happen once
in the life of any priest,
so it is extremely significant.

Luke 1:10 And the whole multitude of the people
was praying outside at the hour of incense.

Luke 1:11 Then a messenger of YAHWEH
was seen by him,
standing at the right side of the altar of incense.

aggelos - a messenger; especially an "angel".
The term "angel" comes from this Greek word which is pronounced Ahn-geh-los.
The Hebrew term means a deputy,
a messenger sent under the authority of the person sending him.
in other words, an ambassador.

Where there is no direct mention of YAHWEH in the text
"YAH-messenger" will replace "angel".

Luke 1:12 And Zacharyah, having seen Him,
was agitated.

And fright fell upon him.

Luke 1:13 But the messenger said to him,
"Do not be frightened, Zacharyah,
because your request has been heard.

And your wife, Elisheba,
will bring forth a son to you.

And you will call his name Yahnathan.

Yahnathan means YAHWEH shows favor.

Luke 1:14 And you will have joy and exultation.
And many will rejoice over his birth.

Luke 1:15 Indeed, he will be great
in the eyes of YAHWEH.
And he will drink neither wine nor any intoxicant.
He will also be filled with
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
even from his mother's womb.

pneumatikos hagiou is the Greek
that's traditionally translated as "Holy Spirit".
It literally means "breath sacred".
To be holy means to be set apart
for a special purpose.

In Hebrew thought the breath represents
the nature or character of a person.
It comes from the center of their being.

This is not a separate "person"
(The Holy Spirit).
Instead, it is the "Divine Nature"
of The Holy One, YAHWEH.
Spirit" is a Greek creation that was never
part of the Hebrew language or culture.
It does not belong here.

What is really identified is "The Divine Nature",
the inner essence of YAHWEH Himself.

Furthermore, a thorough study of Scripture reveals that there is no "third person" of the godhead,
traditionally identified as "The Holy Spirit".

This will shock most people because it's been so ingrained in us
by "the traditions of men".

What's referred to as "The Holy Spirit"
is in fact The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

This is also referred to as "the new nature"
that indwells one who has trusted completely in YAHWEH and His Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

Note: YAHUSHUA is the proper Hebrew name of The Messiah.

His name is NOT 'Jesus'.

That 'name' comes from the Greek word
for 'anointed one', iesous.

Furthermore, there is no letter "J"
in either Hebrew or Greek.

That letter was not "invented"
until around 1500 A.D.

Hence, The Messiah could NEVER have been named 'Jesus'.

The "old nature" is the human nature
corrupted by 'sin'
(actually an offense against YAHWEH).
The new nature is The Divine Nature
which one receives when they are "born again".

There is no "person"
that comes and resides in you.
And there is no "person" who accompanies you.
You can't see it or touch it.
But you can certainly know it is there.

Further, there is no "name" ever mentioned
in connection with this term
as is done with both YAHWEH and YAHUSHUA.

If there's a third "person"
what is that 'person's' NAME?

Luke 1:16 And many of the children of Yisra'el
he will turn toward YAHWEH, their Elohim.

theos – a deity, especially the supreme Divinity;
figuratively, a magistrate. – God, god.

The Hebrew equivalent is elohim.
This is based on Hebrew Strong's #410, el.
It means mighty; especially the Almighty
(but used also of any deity);
- God (god), idol, might(-y, one), power, strong.
(See also H430.)

This will be translated,
as the context indicates,
as YAHWEH in this work.

This is God's only proper personal Name.

Luke 1:17 And He will go before Him
in the nature and miraculous power of Eliyah,

*"to turn the hearts of the fathers
to the children,
and the unpersuadable
to the prudence of the just,
preparing for YAHWEH
a people that are thoroughly ready."*
(Mal. 4.5-6)

What's provided after "to the children"
does not agree with the passage from Malachi,
which is as follows:

*And he will turn the hearts
of the fathers to the children,
and the hearts of the children to their fathers,
lest I come and strike the earth
with a curse." (Mal. 4.5-6)*

It's unclear why this is so different.
There's nothing to help us resolve this conflict.

It's known that many New Covenant quotations were more or less paraphrases
of the original material
since people did not have direct access to the written texts.

Luke 1:18 And Zacharyah said to the messenger,
"How will I know this?
Indeed, I am an old man
and my wife is well advanced in years."
Luke 1:19 And the messenger responding
said to him,
"I am Gabriel,
who stands in the presence of YAHWEH.
And I was sent to speak to you
and announce to you these glad tidings.

Gabriel means mighty man of El.

Luke 1:20 Now behold!
You will be mute, indeed not able to speak
until the day these things happen
because you did not trust my words,
which will be fulfilled in their proper time."

Idou – Lo! Always in the imperative mood.

– behold, lo, see.

It appears frequently and always means "Pay attention!"

pisteuo – to have faith

(in, upon, or with respect to, a person or thing),

*i.e. credit; by implication, to entrust

(especially one's well-being to The Messiah).

– believe(-r), commit (to trust),

put in trust with.

Faith, belief, and trust

are virtually synonymous.

If you have faith in or believe something

you are putting your trust in it.

Luke 1:21 And the people were waiting for Zacharyah.
And they marveled that he lingered in The Temple.

Luke 1:22 And having come out,
he could not speak to them.
And they recognized that he had experienced a vision in The Temple
because he nodded to them,
yet remained speechless.

Luke 1:23 And it happened when the days
of his sacred ministrations were fulfilled
that he went away to his own house.

Luke 1:24 Now after those days
his wife, Elisheba, conceived.
And she concealed herself entirely for five months saying that,

Luke 1:25 "In this manner
YAHWEH has done with me
in the days when He regarded me favorably,
to remove my disgrace among human beings."

Luke 1:26 Now in the sixth month
the messenger, Gabriel,
was sent by YAHWEH
to a town of The Galil named Nazareth,

*The timing is assumed to be
since the time Elisheba conceived.*

Galil means a circuit.

Nazareth means a branch; preservation.

Luke 1:27 to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Yoseph,
of the house of David.

And the virgin's name was Miryam.

Yoseph means he will add.

David means beloved.

Miryam means their rebellion.

Luke 1:28 And the messenger,
having entered before her, said,
"Rejoice! You are being favored!

YAHWEH is with you!

Well spoken of are you among women!"

The term for "favored" occurs only here and in Eph. 1.6, where it speaks

of those "accepted" before YAHWEH.

Luke 1:29 But having seen him,
she was totally disturbed by his message.
And she deliberated
what manner of greeting this might be.

Luke 1:30 Then the messenger said to her,
"Do not be afraid, Miryam!
Indeed, you have found favor with YAHWEH.

Luke 1:31 And behold!
You will conceive in your womb.
And you will bring forth a Son.
And you are to call His name YAHUSHUA.

Jesus, (Jesus) is a Greek corruption
of a Hebrew name.
It is the transliteration of Yehowshuwa,
which means YHWH saves.
It is translated as Jehoshua, Jehoshuah, and Joshua.

YAHUSHUA, (YAH-hu'-shoo-ah)
is the proper Hebrew form for The Messiah,
with a specific emphasis on YAH,
the abbreviated form of YAHWEH,
to emphasize the direct link.

The messenger, Gabriel,
would NEVER announce a name
that was not Hebrew
for The Messiah of Yisra'el.

Luke 1:32 He will be great.
And He will be called
'The Son of The Highest'.
And YAHWEH, The Elohim, will give to Him
the throne of His forefather David.
Luke 1:33 And He will rule
over the house of Ya'akov forever.
And of His kingdom there will be no end."

Luke 1:34 Then Miryam said to the messenger,
"How can this be since I do not know a man?"

Luke 1:35 And the messenger,
responding, said to her,
"The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
will come upon you.
And the miraculous power of The Highest will overshadow you.
And consequently the set apart One conceived by you will be called The Son of YAHWEH.
*Lit. – a child of YAHWEH

Luke 1:36 And behold!
Elisheba, your relative,
has also conceived a son in her old age.
And this is now the sixth month
for her who was called barren Luke 1:37 because with YAHWEH*
no matter will be impossible!"

Luke 1:38 Then Miryam said, "Behold!
The female servant of YAHWEH!
May it be to me according to your word."

And the messenger went away from her.

Luke 1:39 Now Miryam arose in those days.
And she went into the hill country with haste
to a city of Yahudah.

Yahudah means YAH be praised.

Luke 1:40 And she entered the house of Zacharyah.
And she greeted Elisheba.

Luke 1:41 And it happened when Elisheba heard the greeting of Miryam that the infant leaped in her womb. And Elisheba was filled with The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

The infant as well,
based on what Gabriel told Miryam.
Now consider this carefully
If "The Holy Spirit is a 'person'
how could that 'person'
fill a human being?
On the other hand,
a new "nature" can easily do so.

Luke 1:42 And she exclaimed with a loud voice. And she said,
"Well spoken of are you among women.
And well spoken of is the fruit of your womb!
Luke 1:43 And why is this granted to me,
that the mother of my Master comes to me?

Luke 1:44 Indeed, behold!
When the sound of your greeting came into my ears
the infant leaped in my womb for joy.

Luke 1:45 Happy is she who trusted because there will be a completion of that which was told her from YAHWEH."

Luke 1:46 And Miryam said,
"My life magnifies YAHWEH
Luke 1:47 and my nature exults in YAHWEH, my deliverer

Exults is literally - jumps for joy.

Luke 1:48 because He has looked with favor upon the humble state of His female slave. Indeed, behold!

Henceforth all generations will pronounce me fortunate,
Luke 1:49 because The Powerful One has done magnificent things for me. Even set apart is His Name.

Luke 1:50 And His compassion is from generation to generation upon those who revere Him.

Luke 1:51 He makes power with His arm. He scatters the arrogant in the deep thoughts of their hearts.

Luke 1:52 He lowers rulers from thrones and He exalts the lowly.

Luke 1:53 He satisfies the hungry with good things and the wealthy He sends away empty.

Luke 1:54 He supports His servant, Yisra'el, keeping in mind His compassion,

Luke 1:55 just as He spoke to our forefathers, to Abraham and to his seed, into eternity."

Abraham means father of a multitude.

Luke 1:56 Then Miryam stayed with her about three months. And she returned to her own house.

Luke 1:57 Now Elisheba's time was fulfilled for her to give birth.

And she bore a son.

Luke 1:58 And her neighbors and her relatives, having heard that YAHWEH had great compassion on her, congratulated her.

Luke 1:59 And it happened on the eighth day that they came to circumcise the child.

And they were calling him
after the name of his father, Zacharyah.

The eighth day
is the day of circumcision.
It was a custom
to name the child on that day.

Luke 1:60 Yet his mother responded saying, “Indeed not!

He will be called Yohonathan.”

Luke 1:61 And they said to her,
“There is no one among your relatives
who is called by this name.”

Luke 1:62 Then they motioned to his father
what he desired to call him.

Luke 1:63 And he asked for a tablet.
And he wrote saying, “His name is Yohonathan.”
And they all marveled.

Luke 1:64 Then immediately
his mouth was set free and his speech.
And he spoke, praising YAHWEH.

Luke 1:65 Then fear came upon all who lived around them.
And all these matters were being discussed
throughout all the hill country of Yahudah.

Luke 1:66 And everyone listening put them in their hearts saying,
“What sort of child will this be?”

And the hand of YAHWEH was upon him.

The hand, in Hebrew thought,
represents one's authority and power.
This means Yohonathan came under the authority and power of YAHWEH.

Luke 1:67 And his father, Zacharyah,
was filled with The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.
And he prophesied saying,
Luke 1:68 “Well spoken of be YAHWEH,
The Elohim of Yisra'el,
because He has visited
and ransomed His people!

Luke 1:69 And He has raised up a horn of deliverance for us in the house of His servant, David,

soteria – rescue or safety (physically or morally).
– deliver, health, salvation, save, saving.

Luke 1:70 just as He spoke through the mouth
of His set apart prophets from eternity past;

Luke 1:71 to rescue us from our adversaries
and from the hand of all who detest us;

Luke 1:72 providing compassion to our forefathers
and remembering His set apart covenant,

Luke 1:73 the oath which He swore to our forefather, Abraham;

Luke 1:74 granting to us that we,
being delivered from the hand of our enemies,
might worship Him without fear

Luke 1:75 in reverence and justification
in His presence all the days of our life.

dikaosune – equity of character or act;
especially Christian justification.
– righteousness.

Equity of character
is typically translated, “righteousness”,
but it means one who is being fair or just in their actions.

We are never truly righteous
as a result of our own acts.
But as believers we are definitely justified by YAHWEH,
and it's in a state of justification
that we are privileged to worship Him.

Luke 1:76 And you, child, will be called the prophet of The Highest!
Indeed, you will go
before the face of The Master
to prepare His paths,

kurios - supreme in authority,
i.e. controller; by implication, Master.

The reference here is to YAHUSHUA,
Whom he precedes.

The reference to face is important.
It's a term used extensively
in The Old Covenant,
a keyword, that causes many connections
in the different accounts.
It's used frequently in regard to YAHWEH.

Luke 1:77 to give knowledge of rescue
to His people
by the pardon of their offenses Luke 1:78 because of the compassionate sympathy of our Elohim,
in which the rising of light from on high
has visited us
Luke 1:79 to shine upon
those sitting in darkness and the shadow of death,
to guide our feet into the path of peace."

eirene - peace; prosperity.
This term is consistently used to translate shalom from Hebrew.
Shalom means complete well-being
in every aspect of one's life.

Luke 1:80 And the child grew
and became strong in nature.
And he was in the wildernesses
until the day of his public display to Yisra'el.

Chapter 2

Luke 2:1 And it happened in those days
that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world was to be registered.

The purpose was to collect taxes
"per capita", per head.
Caesar means severed.
Augustus means venerable.

Luke 2:2 This registration first happened
while Quirinius was governing Syria.

Quirinius, also seen as Cyrenius.
Latin origin. The meaning is uncertain.
Syria means exalted.

Luke 2:3 And everyone went to be registered,
each one to his own town.

Luke 2:4 Now Yoseph also went up from The Galil
out of the town of Nazareth into Yahudah, to the town of David
which is called Bayit Lechem,
because he was of the house
and lineage of David

Bayit Lechem means
house of bread, or house of food.
It is most fitting here
since The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, is The Bread of Life.

Luke 2:5 to be registered with Miryam,
his betrothed wife, who was pregnant.

Luke 2:6 Then it happened
that while they were there
the days were fulfilled for her to give birth.
Luke 2:7 And she gave birth to her firstborn son.
And she wrapped Him in swaddling cloths.
And she laid Him in a manger
because there was no room for them in the inn.

A manger is a feeding trough for animals.

Luke 2:8 Now there were in the same country
shepherds living out in the fields
keeping watch over their flock at night.

Keeping watch means protecting or guarding them.

Luke 2:9 And behold!

A messenger of YAHWEH stood before them!
And the magnificence of YAHWEH
shone around them!
And they were greatly afraid!

Luke 2:10 Then the messenger said to them,
"Do not be afraid!

Indeed, behold!

I bring you good news of great joy
which will be to all people

Luke 2:11 because a deliverer
has been born for you this day
in the city of David

Who is The Messiah of YAHWEH!

The Christos – anointed,
i.e. The Messiah,
an epithet (title) of YAHUSHUA.

Kurios – supreme in authority,
i.e. controller; by implication, Master
– God, Lord, master, Sir.

Note: These two terms occur in the text
without the article.

It's virtually impossible from the text
in its current form to be certain what is stated.
It has likely been altered to fit religious tradition.
However, a messenger of YAHWEH
is not likely to have announced anything
other than the birth of The Messiah
as being the One YAHWEH had long foretold.

No announcement by YAHWEH
would ever be as significant as this one.
It's extremely important that it's properly understood for what it is.

Also, the use of the term 'christos'
is improper.

There is a Greek word
that is appropriate to use here,
but it is not used.

It is messias.

It also means 'the anointed'.

It has a basis the Hebrew language
in the form of mashiach.

There is no excuse
for not using this word here.
It is THE appropriate Greek term
for this text.

It appears likely that this was altered
by those who sought to separate the believers in The Messiah from the "Jews".
Historical records show that a distinct effort was made in this regard after the death and resurrection of the Hebrew Messiah
and the establishment of "The Way",
those who followed after YAHUSHUA.

Luke 2:12 And this is the sign for you.

You will find an infant wrapped in swaddling cloths lying in a manger."

Luke 2:13 And suddenly,
there was with the messenger
a multitude of a heavenly assembly praising YAHWEH and saying,

Luke 2:14 "Honor to YAHWEH in the highest,
and on earth shalom,
goodwill to human beings!"

shalom - safe, well, happy,

friendly, welfare, health, prosperity, peace.

Shalom is used because this is the announcement of The Hebrew Messiah.
The messengers would never "speak Greek"!

Interestingly, the last line appears to be added to the text
to expand the idea of peace.
Shalom means total well being
in virtually every aspect of one's life.

Luke 2:15 And it was as the messengers
had gone away from them into The Heaven.
And the persons who were shepherds
said to one another,

"Let us travel now to BayitLechem
and see this thing that has happened
which YAHWEH has made known to us."

Luke 2:16 And they went with haste.
And they found Miryam and Yoseph,
and the infant lying in a manger.

Luke 2:17 Now having seen it
they made widely known the matter
which was told them concerning this Child.
Luke 2:18 And everyone hearing it marveled concerning what was told them by the shepherds.

Luke 2:19 And Mary preserved all these things,
pondering them in her heart.

Luke 2:20 And the shepherds returned,
honoring and praising YAHWEH
over everything they heard and saw
just as it had been told to them.

Luke 2:21 And when eight days were fulfilled
for the circumcision of the child,
His Name was called YAHUSHUA,
the Name given by the messenger
before He was conceived in the womb.

Luke 2:22 And when the days of her purification
according to The Torah of Moshe were fulfilled
they brought Him to Yerushalaim
to present Him to YAHWEH, Yerushalaim means
complete teaching of deliverance.

Luke 2:23 just as it is written
in The Torah of YAHWEH,
*"Every male who opens the womb
will be called set apart to YAHWEH."*
(Ex. 13.2),

Luke 2:24 and to offer a sacrifice
according to what is said in The Torah of YAHWEH,
"A pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."
(Gen. 15.9)

torah means precept or statute,
but it comes from a root word
that means to direct, instruct, teach.
It's very important to recognize that there is no 'command' found in The Torah,
which is traditionally called "The Law".

For the Hebrews it is called
The Ten Words,
not The Ten Commandments.
It is Ten Words of instruction,
not ten dictates of some 'law'.

One cannot be commanded to do something without being forced to do it.
Yet our relationship with YAHWEH
is based entirely upon free will,
the ability to choose to follow His ways willingly,
or not to do so.

A 'command' removes freedom of choice.

It involves an obligation.

Because of this,
where "The Law" occurs in English texts
we will use The Torah, or, Instruction.
That's the proper term
from the Hebrew perspective.

This offering is the one prescribed for those who were very poor.

Luke 2:25 And behold!
There was a person in Yerushalaim
whose name was Shim'on.
And this person was just and cautious,
waiting for The Consolation of Yisra'el.
And The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
was upon him.

The Consolation of Yisra'el
is a euphemism for the promised Messiah.
Shim'on means one who hears.

Luke 2:26 And it had been revealed to him
by The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
that he would not see death
before he would see YAHWEH's Anointed.

Luke 2:27 And he came
by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
into The Temple.

And as the parents
brought in the child, YAHUSHUA,
to do concerning Him
according to the custom of The Torah
Luke 2:28 he also took Him in his arms.
And he praised YAHWEH.

And he said,
Luke 2:29 "Now You are releasing
Your servant in peace, Master,
according to Your word,
Luke 2:30 because my eyes
have seen Your deliverance Luke 2:31 which You have prepared before the face of all peoples, Luke 2:32 a light for the sake
of revelation to the Gentiles,
and the honor of Your people, Yisra'el."

Yisra'el means who is right with El (God).

Luke 2:33 And Yoseph and His mother
marveled at what was spoken concerning Him.

Luke 2:34 And Shim'on blessed them.
And he said to Miryam, His mother,
"Behold!
This One is established
for the sake of the downfall
and rising up again of many in Yisra'el,
and for the sake of a sign
to be spoken against.

Luke 2:35 Moreover, a sword will pierce through your own life also in order that the thoughts of many hearts
might be revealed."

psuche - breath, i.e. by implication spirit.
Translated often as ~~soul~~.

Both "spirit" and "soul" are incorrect.

They are both Greek creations.
They did not exist prior to Greek culture.
Life is more correct.
More correctly, this is "the breath of life"
that The Elohim breathed into Adam
when he became "a living being".

Luke 2:36 Then there was Hannah,
a prophetess,

the daughter of Penu'el of the tribe of Asher.
She was of a great age.
And she had lived with a husband
seven years from her virginity.

Hannah means she was favored.
Penu'el means face of El (God).
Asher means happy.

Luke 2:37 And this woman was a widow of about eighty four years
who did not depart from The Temple
but rather ministered
with fastings and prayers night and day.
Luke 2:38 And this one,
herself being present at that very hour,
gave thanks to YAHWEH.
And she spoke of Him (the Child)
to everyone who was looking for redemption in Yerushalaim.

Redemption is literally a ransoming.

Luke 2:39 And when they had completed absolutely everything
according to The Torah of YAHWEH
they returned to The Galil,
to their town of Nazareth.

Galil means a circuit.
Nazareth means a branch; preservation.

Luke 2:40 And the child grew.
And He became strong in nature,
filled with wisdom.
And the favor of YAHWEH was upon Him.

Luke 2:41 And His parents went to Yerushalaim every year
at the Feast of The Passover.

Passover is Pesach in Hebrew.
It is a profoundly important festival
in Hebrew culture,
yet many have little understanding
of what it truly represents.
It warrants extensive study
to appreciate its many nuances.
It's connection to The Messiah is unmistakable.

Luke 2:42 And when He was twelve years old
they went up to Yerushalaim
according to the custom of the festival.

Luke 2:43 And having completed the days,
as they were returning,
the boy, YAHUSHUA, remained in Yerushalaim.
Yet Yoseph and His mother did not know it.

Note that Yoseph
is not referred to as His father.

Luke 2:44 Now deeming Him
to be in the caravan
they went a day's journey.
Then they sought Him
among relatives and acquaintances.

Luke 2:45 And not having found Him
they returned to Yerushalaim seeking Him.

Luke 2:46 Now it happened after three days
they found Him in The Temple sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them
and asking them questions.

Luke 2:47 And all who were listening to Him were astonished at His understanding and His answers.

Luke 2:48 And having seen Him
they were astonished.
And His mother said to Him,
"Child, why have You done
in this manner to us?"

Behold!
Your father and I have been seeking for You, grieving.” Miryam refers to Yoseph as His father
although YAHWEH is really His Father.
Luke 2:49 And He said to them,
“How is it that you were seeking Me?
Did you not understand that I must be at that which is My Father’s?”
The language is a bit awkward,
but it is what the text literally says.

Luke 2:50 And they did not comprehend
the statement that He spoke to them.

Luke 2:51 Then He went down with them.
And He went to Nazareth.
And He was submissive to them.
But His mother carefully kept
all these matters in her heart.

Luke 2:52 And YAHUSHUA advanced in wisdom and maturity,
and in favor with YAHWEH
and with human beings.

Chapter 3

Luke 3:1 Now in the fifteenth year
of the rule of Tiberias Caesar,
Pontius Pilate being governor of Yahudah,
Herod being tetrarch of The Galil,
his brother, Philip, tetrarch of Iturea
and the region of Trachonitis,
and Lysanias, tetrarch of Abilene, Luke 3:2 while Hananyah and Caiaphas
were great priests,
the word of YAHWEH existed to Yohonathan,
the son of Zacharyah, in the wilderness.
A tetrarch is a ruler of one-fourth of a country.
Tiberias means of the Tiber River.
Caesar means severed.
Pontius means the sea.
Pilate means compressed (like felt).
Yahudah means YAH be praised.
Herod means heroic.
Philip means lover of horses.
Iturea means past the limits.
Trachonitis means rocky region.
Lysanias means relaxing sadness.
Abilene means without looks.
Hananyah which means the favor of YAH.
Caiaphas means attractive.

Luke 3:3 And he went into all the region
around The Yarden
proclaiming a baptism of reconsideration
for the pardon of offenses,
hamartia - a sin - offense.
This word is based on a term
that means to miss the mark, to err.
The word 'sin' has become stigmatized
and over used.
It has little real meaning any more.
Since we don't understand what 'sin' actually is
we need to reconsider its meaning.
To miss the mark, for the Hebrew mind,
was to go off the pathway,
the very pathway that YAHWEH had outlined
for them to walk upon.
Doing so meant one had rejected
the teaching of YAHWEH.
Doing that amounts to rebellion.
Rebellion is an offense against YAHWEH.
It places us under a debt of guilt,
for which the penalty is death.
Thus an offense
is extremely troublesome for us.
This is to be kept constantly in mind
as one studies Scripture.

Luke 3:4 as it is written in the scroll
of the words of Yeshayah, the prophet, saying:
*"The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
'Prepare the way of YAHWEH!
Make His paths straight.*

Luke 3:5 *Every valley will be filled
and every mountain and hill brought low.
The crooked places will be made straight
and the rough ways smooth.*

Luke 3:6 And all flesh will see the deliverance of YAHWEH.'"

(Is. 40.3-5)

Yeshayah means
YAHWEH is deliverance.
This is Isaiah.

Luke 3:7 Then he said to the crowds
that came out to be baptized by him,
"Generation of vipers!

Who warned you to flee
from the wrath to come?

Luke 3:8 Therefore, produce fruits deserving of reconsideration.

And do not begin to say within yourselves,
"We have Abraham as our forefather.'

Indeed, I say to you that YAHWEH is able
to raise up children to Abraham
from these stones.

metanoia – compunction (for guilt, including reformation);
by implication, reversal (of decision).
– reconsideration.
Essentially, a change of mind.
Compunction is guilt over doing something bad.
Abraham means father of a multitude.

pater – father, or parent.
It is commonly applied in reference to the "fathers" of Yisra'el, the forefathers.

Luke 3:9 Moreover, even now the axe is laid
to the root of the trees.
Therefore, every tree
which does not produce good fruit
is to be cut down and thrown into the fire."

Luke 3:10 Then the crowd asked him saying,
"What then shall we do?"

Luke 3:11 He responding said to them,
"He who has two shirts,
share with him who has none.
And he who has food do likewise."

Luke 3:12 Now tax collectors
also came to be baptized.

And they said to him,
"Teacher, what shall we do?"

Luke 3:13 And he said to them,
"Collect no more than what is ordered for you."

Luke 3:14 Likewise the soldiers asked him saying,
"And what shall we do?"

And he said to them,
"Do not intimidate anyone nor accuse falsely,
and be content with your wages."

Luke 3:15 Now the people were anticipating.
And everyone deliberated in their hearts
concerning Yahanathan,
whether he might be The Messiah or not.

Luke 3:16 Yahanathan responded,
saying to everyone,
"I indeed baptize you with water.
But One mightier than I is coming,
the strap of whose sandal
I am not competent to loosen.

He will baptize you with
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
and with fire.

Luke 3:17 His winnowing fork is in His hand.
And He will thoroughly cleanse
His threshing floor.
And He will gather the wheat into His granary,
but the chaff He will burn
with unquenchable fire.”

Luke 3:18 And indeed,
admonishing with many other things,
he proclaimed the good news to the people.

Luke 3:19 Then Herod, the tetrarch,
being rebuked by him concerning Herodias,
his brother Philip’s wife,
and concerning all the harmful things
which Herod had done,
Luke 3:20 also added this above everything,
that he shut up Yahanathan in the prison.

Luke 3:21 Now it was after all the people had been baptized.
And YAHUSHUA was also being baptized.
And as He was praying
The Heaven was opened,
Luke 3:22 and The Set Apart
Divine Nature of YAHWEH
descended in physical form,
as if a dove, upon Him.
And a voice came from The Heaven saying,
“You are My beloved Son!
In You I am well pleased.”

Note the form is that of a dove,
not a "person".
The term for heaven
is ouranos – the sky;
by extension,
Heaven (as the abode of YAHWEH);
by implication, happiness, power, eternity;
specially, the Gospel (The Christian).
– air, heaven(-ly), sky.
It’s unfortunate that little attention
has been paid in most translations
to the distinctions between the sky,
and the abode of YAHWEH.
When the abode of YAHWEH
is suggested or inferred
by the text and the context
it will be presented as The Heaven,
since there is only one such place.

Luke 3:23 Now YAHUSHUA Himself began His public ministry
at about thirty years of age,
being regarded as being the son of Yoseph,
the son of Eli,

Yoseph means let him add.
Eli means my El (God).

Luke 3:24 the son of Mattat,
the son of Levi,
the son of Melki,
the son of Yanna,
the son of Yoseph,

Mattat means gift of YAHWEH.
Levi means joined.
Melki means my king.
Yanna means he oppressed.

Luke 3:25 the son of Mattatyah,
the son of Amos,
the son of Nahum,
the son of Esli,
the son of Naggai,

Mattatyah means gift of YAHWEH.
Amos means to burden.
Nahum means comforted

Esli possibly means reserved for YAHWEH.
Naggai means brilliancy.

Luke 3:26 the son of Maath,
the son of Mattatyah,
the son of Shema'yah,
the son of Yoseph,
the son of Yahudah,

Maath means from this time.
Mattatyah means gift of YAHWEH.
Shema'yah which means
the attentive listening of YAHWEH.
Yoseph means he will add.
Yahudah means YAH be praised.

Luke 3:27 the son of Yoannas,
the son of Rhephayah,
the son of Zerubbabel,
the son of Shealti'el,
the son of Neryah,

Yoannas means YAHWEH shows favor.
Rephayah means healed by YAHWEH.
Zerubbabel means melted by Babylon.
Shealti'el means I have asked of El (God).
Neryah means my lamp is YAHWEH.

Luke 3:28 the son of Melki,
the son of Adah,
the son of Cosam,
the son of Elmodam,
the son of Er,

Melki means my king.
Adah means ornament.
Cosam means divining.
Elmodam is possibly Greek for Almodad
which means not measured.
Er means stirring up; awakening.

Luke 3:29 the son of Yosiah,
the son of Eliezer,
the son of Yoram,
the son of Mattat,
the son of Levi,

Yosiah means sustained by YAHWEH.
Eliezer means El (God) of help.
Yoram is a short form of Yahoram,
and means YAHWEH is exalted.
Mattat means gift of YAHWEH.
Levi means joined.

Luke 3:30 the son of Shim'on,
the son of Yahudah,
the son of Yoseph,
the son of Yahnathan,
the son of Elyakim,

Shim'on means one who hears.
Yahudah means YAH be praised.
Yoseph means he will add.
Yahnathan means YAHWEH shows favor.
Elyakim means El is elevated.

Luke 3:31 the son of Melea,
the son of Menan,
the son of Mattatyah,
the son of Nathan,
the son of David,

Melea means my dear friend.
Menan means soothsayer; enchanted.
Mattatyah means gift of YAHWEH.
Nathan means a giver.
David means beloved.

Luke 3:32 the son of Yishai,
the son of Obed,
the son of Bo'az,
the son of Salmon,
the son of Nahshon,

Yishai means existing one. This is Jesse.
Obed means serving.
Bo'az means in him is strength.
Salmon means image, resemblance.
Nahshon means a diviner.

Luke 3:33 the son of Amminadab,
the son of Ram,
the son of Hetzron,

the son of Peretz,
the son of Yahudah,
 Amminadab means
 people of the willing giver.
 Ram means high.
 Hetzron means enclosed.
 Peretz means breach.
 Yahudah means YAH be praised.

Luke 3:34 the son of Ya'akov,
the son of Yitzhak,
the son of Abraham,
the son of Terah,
the son of Nahor,
 Ya'akov means
 he will take by the heel; restrainer.
 Yitzhak means laughter.
 Abraham means father of a multitude.
 Terah means you may breathe.
 Nahor means snorter.

Luke 3:35 the son of Serug,
the son of R'eu,
the son of Peleg,
the son of Eber,
the son of Shelah,
 Serug means intertwined.
 R'eu means associate with.
 Peleg means a channel.
 Eber means the other side;
 having crossed over.
 Shelah means quietness.

Luke 3:36 the son of Kenan,
the son of Arphaxad,
the son of Shem,
the son of Noah,
the son of Lamek,
 Kenan means their smith.
 Arphaxad means I shall fail at the breast.
 Shem means a name; character.
 Noah means rest.
 Lamek means why is it so with you?

Luke 3:37 the son of Metushelah,
the son of Enoch,
the son of Yared,
the son of Mahalal'el,
the son of Kena'an,
 Metushelah means man of the missile.
 Enoch means dedicated.
 Yared means a descender.
 Mahalal'el means praise of El (God).
 Kena'an means their smith.

Luke 3:38 the son of Enosh,
the son of Seth,
the son of Adam,
the son of YAHWEH.
 Enosh means mortal man.
 Seth means appointed.
 Adam means man; red earth.

Here we are given the full genealogy of YAHUSHUA,
tracing His lineage all the way back to YAHWEH.

Please note that "the son" is italicized,
indicating that these words do not appear in the original text. They are added for clarity.

Using the genitive case implies "belonging to".
It is a confirmation
that YAHWEH "owns" everything.

In this list we see how exactly sequentially
Luke has traced the material for his book.
We also see confirmed by the writer of Luke
the very existence of many whom certain "scholars"
have claimed never existed.
This reveals their error,
and confirms the Truth of YAHWEH's Word.

NOTE: The meaning of the names are included because in the Hebrew culture

the name represents
the essential character of the person.

Chapter 4

Luke 4:1 Then YAHUSHUA, full of
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
returned from The Yarden.
And He was led by The Divine Nature
into the wilderness,

If YAHUSHUA could be filled with "The Holy Spirit",
as most translate this,
then how could "The Holy Spirit"
be a separate "person"?
It is impossible to fill one person
with another person.

And how can "The Holy Spirit"
be separate from YAHUSHUA
if this "entity" is filling Him?

There is no "Holy spirit"
as a separate "person".

pneuma hagion means "breath sacred".
It is the very nature or essence of YAHWEH,
the divine nature - what Paul would refer to
as "the new man (person)".

Luke 4:2 being tested for forty days
by The False Accuser.

And in those days He ate not even one thing.
And having completed them He was hungry.

diabolos - a traducer; specially Satan.
A traducer is a slanderer, a false accuser.

Luke 4:3 And The False Accuser said to Him,
"If You exist as a son of YAHWEH
speak to this stone
in order that it becomes food."

There is no definite article in the text.
"The Son of YAHWEH"
is a traditionally fabricated title in this instance.

The Greek word used here is artos.
It means bread or loaf.
But the Hebrew term in Deut. 8.3 is lechem,
which means food, or bread.

Luke 4:4 Then YAHUSHUA responded to him saying,
"It is written that,

*'Man is not to live by food alone,
but by every word of YAHWEH.'*"
(Deut. 8.3)

Luke 4:5 Then The False Accuser,
leading Him up onto a high mountain,
showed Him all the kingdoms of the earth
in a moment of time.

Luke 4:6 And The False Accuser said to Him,
"Absolutely all this authority I will give to You,
and their honor,
because it has been delivered to me,
and I give it to whomever I choose.

Luke 4:7 Therefore, if You will prostrate Yourself
in homage before me everything will be Yours."

Luke 4:8 But YAHUSHUA responded to him saying,
"Get behind Me, adversary!
Indeed, it is written,

*'You are to worship YAHWEH, your Elohim,
and Him only you are to serve.'*"
(Deut. 6.13)

Luke 4:9 Then he brought Him to Yerushalaim.
And he stood Him on the pinnacle of The Temple.
And he said to Him,
"If You exist as The Son of YAHWEH
throw Yourself down from here.

The pinnacle of The Temple

is a point on the Eastern Wall of The Temple courtyard
overlooking The Kidron Valley.
It is several hundred feet above the valley floor.

From this spot The Great Priest
would watch for the first glimpse of morning light
to announce the beginning of the morning,
and also for the first sign of the new moons.

Luke 4:10 Indeed, it is written,
*"He will give His messengers
watch over you to protect you,"*
(Ps. 91.11)

Luke 4:11 and,
*"In their hands they will bear you up,
lest you dash your foot against a stone."*
(Ps. 91.12)

Luke 4:12 Then YAHUSHUA, responding,
said to him,
"It has been said,
'You are not to test YAHWEH, your Elohim.'"
(Deut 6.16)

Luke 4:13 And The False Accuser,
having completed every test,
departed from Him until an opportune time.

Luke 4:14 Then YAHUSHUA returned in the miraculous power
of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH to The Galil.
And a report concerning Him went out
through the whole surrounding region.

Luke 4:15 And He was teaching in their assemblies,
being honored by all.

sunagoge – an assemblage of persons;
specially, a Jewish "synagogue"
(the meeting of the place).
– assembly, congregation, synagogue.

The Yisra'elites from the very beginning
have been referred to as an assembly.
These were not "churches".
The term "church" did not get created
until around 1200 AD
- long after The Messiah had come.

Luke 4:16 And He came to Nazareth
where He had been brought up.
And according to His custom
He went into the assembly
on The Sabbath Day.
And He stood up to read.

This was typically by invitation of the presiding Rabbi.

Luke 4:17 And He was given the scroll of the prophet Yeshayah.
And having unrolled the scroll
He found the place where it was written,

Luke 4:18-19 *"The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
is upon Me because He has anointed Me
to proclaim the good news to the poor.
He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
to proclaim liberty to the captives,
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to set at liberty those who are oppressed,
to proclaim the acceptable
year of YAHWEH."*
(Is. 61.1-2)

Luke 4:20 And He rolled up the scroll, gave it to the assistant,
and sat down.
And the eyes of all who were in the assembly
gazed attentively at Him.

Luke 4:21 Then He began to say to them, “Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your ears!”

Luke 4:22 And all were bearing witness to Him and marveled at the favorable words
which proceeded out of His mouth.
And they said, “Is this not Yoseph’s son?”

Luke 4:23 Then He said to them,
“You will surely say this proverb to Me,
‘Physician, heal yourself!
Whatever we have heard
was being done in Kafar’nahum,
do also here in Your native town.’”

Kafar’nahum means village of comfort.

Luke 4:24 Then He said,
“Assuredly I say to you
no prophet is accepted in his own native town.

Luke 4:25 Now I tell you according to truth,
many widows were in Yisra’el
in the days of Eliyah
when the sky was closed over
three years and six months,
when a great famine was upon all the land.

Eliyah means YAHWEH is my El \(God\).

Luke 4:26 Yet to none of them was Eliyah sent,
except to Zarephath, of Tzidon;
to a woman widow.

[Zarephath means
place of refining; she refines.
Tzidon means fishery.](#)

Luke 4:27 And many lepers were in Yisra’el
in the time of Elisha, the prophet.
But none of them was cleansed
except Na’aman, the Syrian.”

[Elisha means my El \(God\) is my salvation.
Na’aman means pleasantness.](#)

Luke 4:28 Then everyone in the assembly
having heard these things
was filled with indignation.

Luke 4:29 And they stood up.
And they ejected Him out of the town.

And they brought Him
as far as the brow of the hill
on which their town was built in order that they might throw Him down.

Luke 4:30 But He,
passing through the midst of them,
went His way.

Luke 4:31 And He went down to Kafar’nahum, a town of the Galil.

And He was teaching them on The Sabbaths.

Luke 4:32 And they were astonished by His instruction
because His word was with authority.

Luke 4:33 And in the assembly was a person
having a character of an unclean nature.
And he screamed with a loud voice

[anthropos – man-faced, i.e. a human being.
– certain, man.
There is a specific term for a man \(male\)
that is different from this, aber.
To distinguish the difference
this work will use person
for anthropos in most cases.](#)

[Traditionally the texts
use 'spirit' and 'demon' here.
The Greek word for 'spirit' is pneuma.
It means breath or wind.
In the Hebrew mind it represents one's innermost character,](#)

one's essential nature.

A "demon" is a defiled form of human nature.
It's referred to as being "unclean", and/or "hurtful".

For the Hebrews any person or thing that was "unclean" (defiled)
was not permitted to be in the presence of YAHWEH.
Thus the best identification of this is an "unclean nature".

We have great difficulty comprehending a "demon".
We are so stigmatized by the media representations of such "entities"
that we've become brainwashed.
We've also been deluded by psychologists
who identify this state with other terms.
The result is confusion to the utmost.
We really have little valid comprehension
of what is referred to in Scripture as a "demon".

Luke 4:34 saying, "Let us alone!
What have we to do with You,
YAHUSHUA of Nazareth?
Have You come to fully destroy us?
I'm aware of Who You are,
the set apart one of YAHWEH!"

Luke 4:35 Then YAHUSHUA
admonished him saying,
"Be quiet and come out of him!"
And the unclean nature,
having tossed him into the middle,
came out of him and did not injure him.

Luke 4:36 And everyone was astonished.
And they conversed
between one another saying,
"What is this word,
that with authority and miraculous power
He directs the unclean natures
and they come out?"

Luke 4:37 And the noise concerning Him
went out into every place
in the surrounding region.

Luke 4:38 Then He rose up from the assembly.
And He entered into Shim'on's house.
Now Shim'on's mother in law
was afflicted with a great fever.
And they entreated Him concerning her.
Luke 4:39 And He stood over her.
And He rebuked the fever.
And it left her.
And immediately she got up
and waited upon them.

Luke 4:40 Now as the sun was setting
all those who had any that were sick with various afflictions
brought them to Him.
And He laid His hands on every one of them.
And He healed them.

Note: In most modern translations of Scripture
we encounter extremely complex run-on sentences.
They are filled with commas and other "joiners",
resulting in very long
and often difficult to comprehend sentences.

In this text you'll note
that these are often broken into discreet statements, as above.
This is more in character with Hebrew thought.
They were not complex in their speech.
They thought concretely,
not abstractly, generally speaking.

But even more important,

these simple discreet statements
add emphasis to the subject matter of the text.
It becomes far more clear as we separate the thoughts
into separate concepts.
We, like the Hebrews,
can then grasp them more concretely.

Luke 4:41 And unclean natures
also came out of many,
crying out and saying,
"You are the The Messiah,
The Son of YAHWEH!"
But He, admonishing them,
did not allow them to speak
because they were aware that He was The Messiah.

Luke 4:42 Now having become day He departed.
And He went into a deserted place.
Then the crowd sought Him.
And they came to Him.
And they seized Him in order that He might not go away from them.
Luke 4:43 But He said to them,
"I must proclaim The Kingdom of YAHWEH
to the other towns also because for this purpose I was sent."
Luke 4:44 And He was proclaiming the good news
in the assemblies of The Galil.

Chapter 5

Luke 5:1 And it was as the crowd laid about Him
to hear the word of YAHWEH.
And He was standing
beside the Lake of Gennesaret.
Sea of Galil.

Luke 5:2 And He saw two boats
standing beside the lake.
Now the fishermen had gotten out of them
and were washing nets.
Luke 5:3 Then He entered into one of the boats,
the one which was Shim'on's.
And He asked him to put out a little from the land.
And He sat down.
And He taught the crowds from the boat.

Luke 5:4 Then when He had stopped speaking
He said to Shim'on,
"Put out into the deep and lower your nets
for the sake of a catch."

Luke 5:5 And Shim'on responding said to Him,
"Master, we have worked hard
through the whole night
and have taken not even one.
However, at Your word I will lower the net."

Luke 5:6 Then having done this they inclosed a great bunch of fish.
Then their net was broken.

Luke 5:7 And they signaled to associates
who were in another boat
to come and help them.
And they came.

And they filled both of the boats
so that they were sinking.

Luke 5:8 Then Shim'on Peter, having seen it, fell down at YAHUSHUA's knees saying,
"Depart from me

because I am a man of offense, Master!"

Luke 5:9 Indeed, astonishment seized him
and everyone who was with him
over the catch of fish which they had captured.

Luke 5:10 Now likewise,
also Ya'akov and Yahanathan,

the sons of Zabdiy,
were associates with Shim'on.
And YAHUSHUA said to Shim'on,
"Do not be afraid!
From now on you will capture human beings."

Luke 5:11 And having moored their boats upon the land
they left everything and accompanied Him.
akoloutho – to be in the same way with,
i.e. to accompany (specially as a student).
– follow, reach.

Those who chose to go with YAHUSHUA.
They did not merely "follow" behind Him.
They walked along beside Him,
as partners with Him.

Believers are called to imitate Him,
not to blindly follow behind.

Luke 5:12 And it was
as He was in one of the towns.
Behold!
A man full of leprosy.
And having seen YAHUSHUA
he fell on his face.
And he begged Him saying,
"Master, if You desire
You are able to cleanse me."
Luke 5:13 And He extended a hand.
And He touched him saying,
"I desire it.
Be cleansed!"
And immediately the leprosy
departed from him.

Leprosy made one "unclean"
in the religious sense.
No properly religious Yisra'elite
would have even come near a leper, let alone touched him.
They would have become defiled.

Luke 5:14 And He charged him,
"Tell not even one.
But instead,
go and show yourself to the priest.
And bring for the sake of your cleansing
according to what Moshe instructed as a witness to them."
Moshe means drawing out.

Luke 5:15 Then, even more,
the word traveled concerning Him.
And many crowds came together to listen
and to be healed by Him of their frailties.

Luke 5:16 And He was going aside
into the wilderness and praying.

Luke 5:17 Now it was on one of the days
as He was teaching.
And sitting there were also Pharisees
and even teachers of The Torah who were coming out
from every town of The Galil, Yahudah, and Yerushalaim.
And the miraculous power of YAHWEH
was present to cure them.
Pharisee means the separated.

Luke 5:18 And behold!
Men brought on a bed
a person who was paralyzed.
And they sought to carry him in
and place him in front of Him.

Luke 5:19 And not finding by what manner they might bring him in through the crowd, they went up upon the housetop.

And they lowered him through the tiling with the bed into the middle, in front of YAHUSHUA.

Luke 5:20 And He, having seen their trust, said to him, "Person, your offenses are forgiven you."

Luke 5:21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to deliberate saying, "Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who is able to forgive offenses except YAHWEH alone?"

Luke 5:22 Now YAHUSHUA, perceiving their thoughts, responding, said to them, "Why do you deliberate in your hearts?"

Luke 5:23 Which is easier to say, "Your offenses are forgiven you," or to say, "Get up and walk!"?

Luke 5:24 Now, in order that you might understand that The Son of Man has authority upon the earth to forgive offenses...", He said to the paralytic, "I say to you, Get up! Pick up your bed! And go to your house!"

Luke 5:25 And instantly he stood up in front of them, picked up what he had been lying upon, and went to his own house honoring YAHWEH.

Luke 5:26 And absolutely every one of them were taken with amazement.

And they honored YAHWEH. And they were filled with awe saying, "We have seen extraordinary things today!"
paradoxos – contrary to expectation; extraordinary (paradox). – strange.

Luke 5:27 After these things He went out. And He saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax office.

And He said to him, "Accompany Me!"

Luke 5:28 And he put down everything, stood up, and accompanied Him.

Luke 5:29 Then Levi made Him a great reception in his own house.

And there was a great crowd of tax collectors and others who sat at dinner with them.

Luke 5:30 And the scribes and the Pharisees grumbled against His students saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and offenders?"

mathetes – a learner; i.e. a pupil. – disciple.
Disciple is a religious term.
The common understanding was a student, or a learner.

It's highly unlikely that those in Yisra'el would have used the term 'disciple', as used in traditional translations.

Luke 5:31 And YAHUSHUA, responding, said to them, "The healthy have no need for a physician,

but rather those who are ill.
Luke 5:32 I have not come to call innocent ones,
but instead, offenders to reconsideration.”

Luke 5:33 Then they said to Him,
“Why do the students of Yahanathan
fast frequently and make requests,
and likewise of the Pharisees,
but Yours eat and drink?”

Luke 5:34 And He said to them,
“Are you able to make the children of the bride chamber abstain from food
while the bridegroom is with them?”

Luke 5:35 Now the days will come when the bridegroom
will be taken away from them.
Then they will fast in those days.”

Luke 5:36 Then He also told a parable to them.
“No one sticks a patch from a new garment onto an old garment.
Otherwise the new both makes a split,
and the patch from the new
does not match the old.

Luke 5:37 And no one puts new wine
into old wineskins.
Otherwise the new wine
will burst the wineskins and be spilled.
And the wineskins will be completely destroyed.

Luke 5:38 But on the other hand,
new wine must be put into new wineskins.
Then both are preserved.

Luke 5:39 And no one having drunk old wine,
immediately desires new.
Indeed, he says, “The old is better.’ ”

Chapter 6

Luke 6:1 Now it was on the second Sabbath
after Passover.
And He went through the planted fields.
And His students pulled off the heads of grain.
And they ate, rubbing them in their hands.

Luke 6:2 But some of the Pharisees said to them, “Why are you doing what is not right to do on The Sabbath?”

Luke 6:3 And YAHUSHUA
responding to them said,
“Have you not even read what David did
when he was hungry,
he and those who were with him,

Luke 6:4 how he went into
The House of YAHWEH,
and took and ate The Bread of The Presence and also gave some to those with him which is not right for any except the priests to eat?”

Luke 6:5 And He said to them,
“The Son of Man
is also Master of The Sabbath.”

Luke 6:6 Now it also was on another Sabbath.
And He entered the assembly.
And He was teaching.
And there was also a person
whose right hand was withered.

Luke 6:7 And the scribes and the Pharisees watched Him closely,
whether He would heal on The Sabbath

in order that they might find a complaint against Him.

This would be a legal complaint,
obtained for the purpose
of enabling them to put Him to death.

Luke 6:8 But He understood their deliberations.
And He said to the person
who had the withered hand,
"Rise up and stand in the middle!"
And he rose up.
And he stood.

Luke 6:9 Then YAHUSHUA said to them,
"I will ask you one thing.
Is it right on The Sabbath
to do good or to injure,
to save a life or to destroy it?"

Luke 6:10 And having looked all around
at them all,
He said to the person,
"Extend your hand!"
And he did so.
And his hand was restored
as healthy as the other.

Luke 6:11 Then they were filled with rage.
And they conversed with one another
what they might do to YAHUSHUA.

Luke 6:12 Now it was in those days.
And He went out onto the mountain to pray.
And he sat up the whole night
in prayer to YAHWEH.

Luke 6:13 And when it was day
He called His students to Himself.
And from them He chose twelve whom He also named ambassadors.

apostolos – a delegate; specially,
an ambassador of the good news;
officially a commissioner of The Messiah ("apostle" (with miraculous powers).
– apostle, messenger, he that is sent.

An ambassador or delegate
is a legal representative
of the one sending them.
They act on His behalf.
Ambassador is used
to call attention to this important function,
and to cause you to think about this role.

Technically, each believer
is an ambassador of The Messiah.

Luke 6:14 Shim'on,
whom He also named Peter
and Andrew, his brother,
Ya'akov and Yahanathan,
Philip and Bar Tolmay,
Luke 6:15 Mattiyah and To'am,
Ya'akov, the son of Alphaeus,
and Shim'on, called the Zealot, Luke 6:16 Yahudah, the son of Ya'akov,
and Yahudah Iscariot,
who also became a traitor.

Note: Please refer to the other Gospels
for the meanings of these names.

Luke 6:17 And He went down with them.
And He stood upon a level place
with a crowd of His students and a great multitude of people from all Yahudah
and Yerushalaim
and the seacoast of Tzor and Tzidon
who came to listen to Him

and to be cured from their diseases, Luke 6:18 even those who were harassed
by unclean natures.
And they were healed.
Luke 6:19 And the whole crowd
sought to touch Him
because miraculous power
went out from Him and cured everyone.

Luke 6:20 Then He raised His eyes toward His students and said,
"Happy are the humbled,
because yours is The Kingdom of YAHWEH.

Luke 6:21 Happy are those who hunger now,
because you will be filled.

Happy are those who weep now,
because you will laugh.

Luke 6:22 Happy are you
when persons detest you,
and when they exclude you,
and reproach you,
and put forth your name as bad
on account of The Son of Man.

Remember, a Hebrew name
represents the character of the person.
Also, hurtful is typically translated as 'evil'.
The Hebrew word behind this is ra.
It means "bad".
Literally, to make something worthless
by breaking it in pieces.
Thus it is harmful or hurtful.
It is not limited
to extremely bad actions, to "evil".

Luke 6:23 Rejoice in that day and leap for joy!
Indeed, behold!
Your compensation is great in The Heaven,
Indeed, in like manner
their fathers did to the prophets.

Luke 6:24 However,
woe to you who are wealthy,
because you have received your comfort!

Luke 6:25 Woe to you who are full because you will be hungry!

Woe to you who laugh now
because you will grieve and wail aloud!

Luke 6:26 Woe to you
when all persons speak well of you because so did their fathers to the false prophets!

Luke 6:27 However,
I say to you who are listening,
Love your enemies!
Do good to those who detest you!

Luke 6:28 Speak well of those who curse you!
And pray for those who slander you!

Luke 6:29 To him who strikes you on the cheek offer the other also!
And from him who takes away your robe
do not withhold the shirt even!

Luke 6:30 Now give to everyone who asks of you!
And from him who takes away what is yours
do not demand it back!

Luke 6:31 Also, just as you desire persons do to you,
you even do to them likewise!

Luke 6:32 And if you love those who love you
what benefit is that to you?
Indeed, even offenders
love those who love them.

Luke 6:33 And if you do good to those who do good to you
what benefit is that to you?
Indeed, even offenders do the same.

Luke 6:34 And if you lend among whom you expect to receive back
what benefit is that to you?
Indeed, even offenders lend to offenders
in order to receive as much.

Luke 6:35 Moreover, love your enemies!
Do good!
And lend expecting nothing in return!
Then your compensation will be great.
And you will be children of The Most High,
because He is kind
to the ungrateful and hurtful.
Luke 6:36 Therefore, become compassionate
just as your Father also is compassionate!

Luke 6:37 Condemn not
and you will not be condemned!
Do not pronounce guilty
and you will not be pronounced guilty!
Forgive, and you will be forgiven!
Luke 6:38 Give, and it will be given to you!
Good measure, compressed,
shaken, and overflowing
will be given into your embrace.
Indeed, the same measure that you use
will be measured in return."

Luke 6:39 Then He told a parable to them.
"Can the blind lead the blind?
Will they not both fall into a hole?"

Luke 6:40 A student is not above his instructor.
But everyone who is prepared
will be like his instructor.

Luke 6:41 Now why do you look at the twig
in your brother's eye
but do not fully observe the stick of timber
in your own eye?
Luke 6:42 Or how can you say to your brother,
"Brother, let me remove the twig
that is in your eye,"
when you yourself do not see
the stick of timber that is in your own eye?
Hypocrite!
First remove the stick of timber
from your own eye
and then you will see clearly
to remove the twig
that is in your brother's eye.

Luke 6:43 Indeed, a good tree
does not bring forth worthless fruit,
nor does a bad tree bring forth good fruit.

Luke 6:44 Indeed, every tree
is known by its own fruit.
Indeed,
one does not collect figs from thorns,
nor does one gather grapes from a briar shrub.

Luke 6:45 A good man,
out of the good wealth of his heart,

brings forth good.
But a bad man,
out of the bad wealth of his heart,
brings forth that which is bad.
Indeed, from the surplus of the heart
his mouth speaks.

Luke 6:46 Now why do you
call Me 'Master! Master!',
yet do not do what I say?

Luke 6:47 Whoever comes to Me
and listens to My sayings,
and does them,
I will demonstrate to you what he is like.

Luke 6:48 He is like a person who builds a house who digs deep
and lays the foundation upon the rock.
Now when the flood happens
the stream bursts upon that house,
yet is not able to shake it
because it was erected upon the rock.

Luke 6:49 But he who is listening and does it not
is like a person
who builds a house upon the dirt
without a foundation,
which the stream bursts upon,
and immediately it falls.
And the ruin of that house was great."

Chapter 7

Luke 7:1 Now since He concluded
all His sayings in the hearing of the people
He entered into Kafar'nahum.

Luke 7:2 And a certain centurion's slave who was dear to him
was sick and about to die.

Luke 7:3 And having heard about YAHUSHUA,
he sent elders of the Yisra'elites to Him,
asking that He would come
and cure his servant.

Luke 7:4 And having come near to YAHUSHUA
they implored Him earnestly saying it was deserving to grant this,

Luke 7:5 "because he loves our nation
and has built us a synagogue."

Luke 7:6 Then YAHUSHUA went with them.

But having already gotten not far from the house,
the centurion sent friends to Him
saying to Him,

"Master, do not trouble Yourself
because I am not worthy
that You enter under my roof.

Luke 7:7 Therefore, I did not even deem myself entitled to come to You.

But instead, speak the word
and my servant will be cured.

Luke 7:8 Indeed, I also am a person appointed under authority
having soldiers under me.

And I say to this one, "Go!"

And he goes.

And to another, 'Come!'

And he comes.

And to my slave, 'Do this!'

And he does it."

Luke 7:9 Then YAHUSHUA,
having heard these things, marveled at him.
And turning around He said to the crowd
that accompanied Him,

"I say to you I have not found trust
as great as this,
not even in Yisra'el!"

Luke 7:10 And returning to the house
those who were sent
found the slave healthy who had been sick.

Luke 7:11 Now it was the next day.
And He went into a town called Nain.
And many of His students went with Him,
even a large crowd.

Nain means afflicted.

Luke 7:12 And as He came near to the gate of the town, behold!
One who had died was being carried out,
the only son of his mother.
And she was a widow.

And a large crowd from the town was with her.

Luke 7:13 Then the Master, having seen her,
had compassion on her.

And He said to her, "Do not weep!"

Luke 7:14 And He approached.

And He touched the stretcher.

And those carrying it stood still.

And He said, "Young man, I say to you arise!"

Luke 7:15 And the dead sat up.

And he began to speak.

And He gave him to his mother.

Luke 7:16 Then awe came upon absolutely everyone.

And they honored YAHWEH saying,

"A great prophet is raised up among us".

And, "The Elohim has visited His people."

Luke 7:17 And this message concerning Him went into all Yahudah
and into all the surrounding region.

Luke 7:18 Then the students of Yahnathan
reported to him concerning all these things.

Luke 7:19 And Yahnathan,
having called two of his students to himself,
sent them to YAHUSHUA saying,

"Are You The Coming One

or do we anticipate a different one?"

Luke 7:20 Then the men

having approached toward Him said,

"Yahnathan the baptizer

has sent us to You saying,

'Are You The Coming One,

or do we anticipate a different one?' "

Luke 7:21 Then in that very hour

He healed many of afflictions

and diseases, and unclean natures.

And to many blind He granted sight.

Luke 7:22 And YAHUSHUA, responding,

said to them,

"Go and tell Yahnathan

the things you have seen and heard;

that blind see,

lame walk,

lepers are cleansed,

deaf hear,

dead are raised,

poor have the good news proclaimed to them.

Luke 7:23 And happy is one who is not ensnared because of Me."

Luke 7:24 Then,

the messengers of Yahnathan having departed,

He began to speak to the crowds

concerning Yahnathan.
“What did you go out into the wilderness
to look closely at?
A reed shaken by the wind?
Luke 7:25 On the other hand,
what did you go out to see?
A person clothed in soft garments?
Behold!
Those in splendid clothing
and living in luxury are in palaces.

Luke 7:26 On the other hand,
what did you go out to see?
A prophet?
Yes, I say to you
even much more than a prophet!
Luke 7:27 This is he concerning whom it is written,
*“Behold!
I send My messenger before Your face,
who will prepare Your way before You.”*
(Mal. 3.1)

Luke 7:28 Indeed I say to you,
among those born of women
there is not even one greater prophet
than Yahnathan, the baptizer!

But he who is least
in The Kingdom of YAHWEH
is greater than he!”

Luke 7:29 And all the people listening,
even the tax collectors,
declared YAHWEH just,
having been baptized
with the baptism of Yahnathan.

Luke 7:30 But the Pharisees and the lawyers rebelled against the counsel of YAHWEH
for themselves,
not having been baptized by him.

Luke 7:31 And The Master said,
“To what then will I compare the persons of this generation,
and to what are they similar?
Luke 7:32 They are like small children
sitting in the town square
and calling to one another and saying,
“We played the flute for you,
yet you have not danced.
We mourned for you,
yet you have not wept.”

Luke 7:33 Indeed,
Yahnathan, the baptizer, has come neither eating bread nor drinking wine.
And you say, “He has an unclean nature.”
*It's notable that Yahnathan
did not eat bread or drink wine
- both of which are symbols
of YAHUSHUA's body and blood
under The New Covenant
that would soon be implemented.*

Luke 7:34 The Son of Man
has come eating and drinking.
And you say, “Behold!
A gluttonous person and an alcoholic,
a friend of tax collectors and offenders!”
Luke 7:35 Indeed, wisdom is rendered innocent
by all her children.”

Luke 7:36 Then one of the Pharisees
requested of Him that He would eat with him.
And He entered into the Pharisee's house.

And He sat down to eat.
Luke 7:37 And behold!
A woman in the town who was an offender,
having recognized that He sat at the table
in the Pharisee's house,
brought an alabaster box of myrrh.

Myrrh was used as Anointing oil for burial.

Luke 7:38 And standing back beside His feet,
sobbing aloud,
she began to wash His feet with her tears,
and to wipe them with the hair of her head.
Then she kissed His feet
and anointed them with the myrrh.

Luke 7:39 Now the Pharisee
who had invited Him,
having seen it, spoke to himself saying,
"This one, if He were a prophet,
would know who and what sort of woman
it is that touches Him
because she is an offender."

Luke 7:40 And YAHUSHUA, responding,
said to him,

"Shim'on, I have something to say to you."
And he said, "Teacher, say it."

Luke 7:41 "A certain lender had two borrowers.
One owed five hundred denarii,
and the other fifty.

Luke 7:42 But having nothing to give back
he pardoned them both.

Tell Me, therefore which of them will love him more?"

Luke 7:43 Then Shim'on responding said,
"I assume the one whom he pardoned most."

And He said to him,
"You have correctly judged."

Luke 7:44 Then He turned around
toward the woman.

And He said to Shim'on,
"Do you see this woman?"

I entered your house.
You gave Me no water for My feet.
But she has washed My feet with her tears
and wiped them with the hair of her head.

Luke 7:45 You gave Me no kiss.
But this woman

has not ceased to kiss My feet
since the time I came in.

Luke 7:46 You did not anoint My head with oil.
But this woman
has anointed My feet with myrrh.

Myrrh is expensive oil.

Luke 7:47 Therefore, I say to you,
her offenses, which are many,
are forgiven because she loved much.
But to whom little is forgiven, he loves little."

Luke 7:48 Then He said to her,
"Your offenses are forgiven."

Luke 7:49 And those who sat
at the table with Him
began to say to themselves,
"Who is this Who even forgives offenses?"

Luke 7:50 Then He said to the woman,
"Your trust has saved you.
Go in peace!"

Chapter 8

Luke 8:1 And it was afterward.
And He even traveled to each town and village

proclaiming and declaring the good news
of The Kingdom of YAHWEH.
And the twelve were with Him,
Luke 8:2 and some women who had been healed
of unclean natures and diseases,
Miryam, called Magdalene,
out of whom had gone seven unclean natures,
Luke 8:3 and Yohanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward,
and Susanna and many others
who provided for Him from their substance.
Yohanna means YAHWEH is gracious giver.
Chuza means a mound; a measure.
Susanna means a lily.

Luke 8:4 And a large crowd having assembled,
and having journeyed to Him from every town,
He spoke through a parable.
Luke 8:5 "A sower went out to sow his seed.
And as he sowed some fell beside the road.
And it was trampled.
And the birds of the sky devoured it.
Luke 8:6 Some fell upon the rock.
And as soon as it germinated it shriveled up
because it did not have moisture.
Luke 8:7 And some fell
in the middle of the thorns.
And the thorns grew along with it and choked it.
Luke 8:8 And others fell upon good soil
and germinated and produced fruit,
a hundredfold."

Having said these things He cried out,
"He who has ears to hear, let him listen!"

Luke 8:9 Then His students asked Him saying,
"What does this parable mean?"
Luke 8:10 Then He said,
"To you it has been given to know
the mysteries of The Kingdom of YAHWEH.
But to the remaining ones
it is given in parables in order that,
*'Seeing they may not see,
and hearing they may not understand.'*
(Is. 6.9)

Luke 8:11 Now the parable is this:
The seed is the word of YAHWEH.

Luke 8:12 Those beside the road
are the ones who are listening.
Afterward, the false accuser comes
and takes away the word out of their hearts,
in order that they are not trusting for deliverance.

Luke 8:13 Now those which are upon on the rock,
when they hear receive the word with joy.
Yet these having no root trust for a time,
yet in time of testing depart.

Luke 8:14 Now that which falls into the thorns
are those who having heard go out and are choked
by the cares, and wealth, and pleasures of life.
And they bring no fruit to maturity.

Luke 8:15 But those on the good soil
are those who having heard the word
with a beautiful and good heart, hold fast to it and produce fruit with consistency.

Luke 8:16 Now no one having lit a lamp

covers it with a vessel
or puts it under a bed,
but instead sets it on a lampstand
in order that those who enter may see the light.

Luke 8:17 Indeed, nothing is concealed that will not become apparent,
nor secret that will not be known and come to light.

Luke 8:18 Watch therefore how you listen!

Indeed, whoever has,
to him more will be given.
And whoever does not have,
even what he seems to have
will be taken from him.”

Luke 8:19 Then His mother and brothers
came to Him.

But they could not reach Him
because of the crowd.

Luke 8:20 And it was told Him saying,
“Your mother and Your brothers
are standing outside desiring to see You.”

Luke 8:21 But He, responding, said to them, “My mother and My brothers are these who are hearing the word of YAHWEH
and are doing it.”

Luke 8:22 Now it was on a certain day.
And He got into a boat with His students.
And He said to them,
“Cross over to the other side of the lake.”

And they sailed away.

Luke 8:23 Now as they sailed He fell asleep.
And a windstorm descended upon the lake.
And the boat was swamped.
And they were in peril.

Luke 8:24 And they approached Him.
And they awakened Him saying,
“Master! Master! We are being destroyed!”
Then He rose up, admonished the wind
and the raging of the water,
and they stopped.
And a tranquility happened.

Luke 8:25 Then He said to them,
“Where is your trust?”
And they, being afraid, marveled,
saying to one another,
“What is this,
that He orders even the winds and water
and they listen attentively to Him?”

hupakouo - to hear under,
i.e. to listen attentively.

The end result of such listening
is a willingness to do what has been said.
Because of this it's often translated as "obey",
but it has more to do with willing submission
than it does with "obedience".

Luke 8:26 And they landed in the region of the Gadarenes,
which is the opposite side of The Galil.

Gadarenes means reward at the end.

Luke 8:27 And having come out onto the the land
He met a certain man from the town
who had unclean natures for a long time.
And he wore no clothes, nor lived in a house,
but rather in the tombs.

Luke 8:28 Now having seen YAHUSHUA
he screamed
and prostrated himself before Him.

And with a loud voice he said,
"What have I to do with You, YAHUSHUA,
Son of YAHWEH, The Most High?
I beg You, do not torture me!"

Luke 8:29 Indeed, He had directed
the unclean nature
to come out of the person,
because many times it had seized him.
And he was kept shackled with chains and fetters.
And he broke the bonds
and was driven by the unclean nature
into the wilderness.

Luke 8:30 Then YAHUSHUA asked him saying,
"What is your name?"

And he said, "Legion.", because many unclean natures
had entered into him.

8:31 And they implored Him
that He would not command them
to go out into the abyss.

abussos – depthless,
i.e. (specially) (infernally) "abyss".
– deep, (bottomless) pit.
Luke refers to the abyss directly.
Other versions of this story refer to 'the deep'.

Luke 8:32 Now there was a herd of many swine
pasturing on the hill.
And they implored Him
that He would permit them to enter into them.
And He permitted them.

Luke 8:33 Then the unclean natures
went out of the person and entered the swine.
And the herd rushed down the steep place
into the lake and were drowned.

Luke 8:34 Now those who pastured them,
having seen what happened,
ran away and told it in the town
and in the country.

Luke 8:35 Then they went out to see what was happening.
And they came to YAHUSHUA.
And they found the person out of whom
the unclean natures had gone out,
sitting down beside the feet of YAHUSHUA,
clothed and in his right mind.
And they were afraid.

Luke 8:36 Now they who had seen it also told them by what means
he who had been possessed
by the unclean natures was delivered.

sozo – save, deliver, protect
– heal, preserve, save (self),
do well, be (make) whole.

Luke 8:37 Then absolutely all the populace of the surrounding region of the Gadarenes
asked Him to depart from them
because they were perplexed by great fear.
Then He got into the boat to return.

Luke 8:38 Now the person from whom the unclean natures had departed
begged Him to be His companion.

But YAHUSHUA sent him away saying,

Luke 8:39 "Return to your own house
and declare how much

YAHWEH has done for you."

And he went his way.

And he proclaimed
throughout the whole town
how much YAHUSHUA had done for him.

Take note of the change in terms here.
YAHUSHUA told the man to go and declare
what YAHWEH had done for him.
But the man declared what YAHUSHUA had done.

While this seems contradictory, it really is not,
since the Father was "in the Son",
and the Son was "in The Father".
And YAHUSHUA only did
as The Father instructed Him.

Luke 8:40 And it was as YAHUSHUA returned.
And the crowd welcomed Him
because they were all waiting for Him.
Luke 8:41 And behold!
A man named Yair came.
And he was a ruler of the assembly.
And he fell down at YAHUSHUA's feet.
And he implored Him to come into his house
Luke 8:42 because he had an only daughter about twelve years of age.
And she was dying.
Now as He went the crowds encircled Him.

Luke 8:43 Now a woman having a flow of blood for twelve years
who had spent all her livelihood on physicians and was not able to be healed by any Luke 8:44 approached behind.
And she touched the hem of His garment.
And immediately her flow of blood stopped.

In Hebrew culture
the act of touching the hem
on another's garment
meant you were surrendering yourself
to their authority.
The hem represented that authority.

Luke 8:45 And YAHUSHUA said,
"Who touched Me?"
Now as everyone was denying it Peter and those with him said, "Master!
The crowds encircle
and crowd You from every side,
and You say, 'Who touched Me?' "
Luke 8:46 But YAHUSHUA said,
"Somebody touched Me
because I know miraculous power is going out from Me."

Luke 8:47 Then the woman,
having seen that she was not hidden,
came trembling.
And prostrating herself before Him,
she declared to Him
in the presence of all the people
the reason she had touched Him
and how she was cured instantly.

Luke 8:48 Then He said to her,
"Daughter, have courage!
Your trust has delivered you.
Go in wholeness!"

Luke 8:49 While He was still speaking someone came beside
the ruler of the synagogue, saying to him,
"Since your daughter has died
do not trouble the Teacher."
Luke 8:50 But YAHUSHUA, having heard,
responded to him saying,
"Do not be afraid!
Only trust and she will be rescued."

Luke 8:51 Then having come into the house
He permitted no one to enter except Peter, Ya'akov, and Yahunathan,

and the father and mother of the girl.

Luke 8:52 Now everyone was weeping
and mourning for her.
But He said,
"Do not weep!
She is not dead but rather is sleeping."
Luke 8:53 And they laughed at Him,
understanding that she had died.

Luke 8:54 Then He sent them all outside,
grabbed her by the hand,
and cried out saying, "Little girl, arise!"
Luke 8:55 Then her breath returned.
And she arose immediately.
And He ordered that she
be given something to eat.
Luke 8:56 And her parents were astounded.
But He charged them
to tell no one what had happened.

Chapter 9

Luke 9:1 Then He called together
His twelve students.
And He gave to them
miraculous power and authority
over all unclean natures
and to heal infirmities.
Luke 9:2 And He sent them out to proclaim The Kingdom of YAHWEH
and to cure those who are feeble.
Luke 9:3 And He said to them,
"Take not even one thing for the journey,
neither staffs, nor food pouch,
nor bread, nor silver.
And do not have two shirts apiece.
Luke 9:4 And into whatever house you enter stay there and go out from there.
Luke 9:5 And whoever does not receive you,
as you are going out from that town
shake off even the dust from your feet
for the sake of evidence against them."

Luke 9:6 And they went out.
And they traveled through the towns
proclaiming the good news
and healing everywhere.

Luke 9:7 Now Herod, the tetrarch, heard of everything
that was being done by Him.
And he was perplexed
because it was said by some that Yahunathan had risen from being dead, Literally, from dead.
There is no article.
It is not referring to a group of "dead ones",
but rather to the state of being dead.
There is also the false notion
that one can rise from being dead on their own.
It cannot happen.
It takes an act of YAHWEH
to raise one from being dead.
He is the only One
Who can create, or recreate, life.

Luke 9:8 and by some that Elijah had appeared,
and by others that one of the old prophets
had been raised up.
Luke 9:9 And Herod said,
"Yahunathan I have beheaded
but who is this concerning whom I am hearing things of this sort?"
And he sought to see Him.

Luke 9:10 And the ambassadors,
having returned,
declared to Him all that they had done.
Then He took them.
And they went aside by themselves
into a deserted place
belonging to the town called BayitSaida.
Luke 9:11 But the crowds, having known it,
accompanied Him.
And He received them.
And He spoke to them
concerning The Kingdom of YAHWEH.
And He cured those who had need of healing.

Luke 9:12 And the day began to decline.
Then the twelve came and said to Him,
"Send the crowd away
in order that they might go into the surrounding towns and fields
and lodge, and get provisions,
because we are in a deserted place here."
Luke 9:13 But He said to them,
"You give them food to eat."
But they said,
"We have no more than five loaves and two fish
unless we go and buy food for all these people." Luke 9:14 Indeed, there were about five thousand men.

Then He said to His students,
"Make them sit down in groups of fifty."
Luke 9:15 And they did so.
And they made them all sit down.
Luke 9:16 Then He took the five loaves
and the two fish.
And having looked up into The Heaven,
He blessed them, and broke them,
and gave them to the students
to set before the crowd.
Luke 9:17 And they all ate and were satisfied.
And twelve baskets of the excess pieces
were picked up by them.

Luke 9:18 And it was as He was alone praying.
And His students were with Him.
And He asked them saying,
"Who do the crowds say that I am?"
Luke 9:19 Then, responding, they said,
"Yahonathan, the baptizer.
But some, Elijah.
And others that one of the old prophets
has been raised up."

Luke 9:20 Then He said to them,
"But who do you say that I am?"
Peter, responding, said,
"The Messiah of YAHWEH!"

Luke 9:21 And He admonished them.
And He directed them
to tell this to not even one, Luke 9:22 saying, "The Son of Man must suffer much and be rejected
by the elders
and chief priests
and scribes,
and be killed,
and be raised up on the third day."

Luke 9:23 Then He said to everyone,
"If anyone desires to come after Me
let him utterly deny himself

and pick up his torture stake each day
and accompany Me.

stauros – a stake or post (as set upright),
i.e. (specially), a pole or cross
(as an instrument of capital punishment);
figuratively, exposure to death,
i.e. self-denial;
by implication, the atonement of The Messiah.
– cross.

There is no other purpose for this stake
than to kill someone by torture.

Luke 9:24 Indeed,
whoever desires to protect his life
will destroy it fully.
But whoever fully destroys his life
on account of Me will protect it.

sozo – to save, i.e. deliver or protect.
In this context, protect.

psuche - breath, i.e. (by implication) spirit,
abstractly or concretely
(the animal sentient principle only.)
– heart, life, mind.

This is the life essence breathed into a person
at the moment of creation.
This is NOT a 'spirit'.
That's a Greek term
that has no place in Hebrew thought.

Luke 9:25 Indeed, what benefit is it to a person
if he gains the entire world
but is himself destroyed or is damaged?

Luke 9:26 Indeed, whoever is ashamed
of Me and of My words,
The Son of Man will be ashamed of him
when He comes in His splendor,
and the splendor of The Father
and of the set apart YAH-messengers.

Luke 9:27 Now I tell you truly,
there are some standing here
who will not taste death
until they see The Kingdom of YAHWEH.”

Luke 9:28 Now it was about eight days.
And after these sayings
He took Peter, Yahanathan, and Ya'akov.
And He went up onto the mountain to pray.
Luke 9:29 And as He prayed
the appearance of His face was altered
and His clothing was radiant white.

Luke 9:30 And behold!
Two men were talking with Him
who were Moshe and Eliyah Luke 9:31 who were being seen in splendor.
And they spoke of His exit
which He was about to fulfill at Yerushalaim.

Luke 9:32 But Peter and those with him
were burdened with sleep.
And being awakened they saw His splendor
and the two men standing with Him.

Luke 9:33 And it was as they were separating away from Him.
And Peter said to YAHUSHUA,
“Master, it is valuable for us to be here.
Let us even make three tents, one for You,
one for Moshe, and one for Eliyah.”,
not understanding what he said.

Luke 9:34 Now having said this,
a cloud came and overshadowed them.
And they were frightened
as they entered into the cloud.
Luke 9:35 And a voice
came from the cloud saying,
“This is My beloved Son.
Listen to Him!”

Luke 9:36 And the voice having happened,
YAHUSHUA was found alone.
And they kept silent.
And they told not even one in those days
not even one of the things they had seen.

Luke 9:37 Now it was on the next day,
having come down from the mountain.
And a large crowd met Him.

Luke 9:38 And behold!
A man from the crowd cried out saying, “Teacher, I beg You!

Look upon my son with favor
because he is my only child!

Luke 9:39 And behold!
A nature takes hold of him.
And he suddenly screams.

And it convulses him with froth.
And bruising him,
it goes away with great difficulty.
Luke 9:40 And I begged Your students to eject it, yet they were not able.”

Luke 9:41 Then YAHUSHUA responding said,
“Alas, disbelieving and corrupt generation!
How long will I be with you and put up with you?
Bring your son here!”

Luke 9:42 Now as he was still approaching
the unclean nature lacerated him.
And it convulsed him violently.
Then YAHUSHUA admonished
the unclean nature,
cured the child,
and gave him back to his father.

Luke 9:43 And they were all astonished at the magnificence of YAHWEH.

Now as everyone was marveling
over everything which YAHUSHUA was doing

He said to His students,
Luke 9:44 “Let these words
be established in your ears
because The Son of Man
is about to be delivered up
into the hands of human beings.”

Luke 9:45 But they did not comprehend this saying.
And it was covered with a veil,
away from them,
in order that they did not perceive it.
And they were afraid to ask Him
about this saying.

Luke 9:46 Then they entered into a discussion among themselves
as to which of them might be greater.

The contrast between the vital importance of coming events
and the bickering among the ambassadors
over who was the greater is striking in this context.
It reveals much about their (and our) humanity.

Luke 9:47 And YAHUSHUA,
understanding the discussion of their heart,
grabbed a small child.

And He stood him beside Himself.

Luke 9:48 And He said to them,
“Whoever receives this small child
for the sake of My Name receives Me.
And whoever receives Me
receives Him who sends Me.

Indeed, he who is little among all of you,
this one will be big.”

mikroteros - small (in size,
quantity, number, or dignity).
This is the source for micro, meaning tiny.

megas - big.

The comparison is yet another parable,
a metaphor.
It reflects one's significance
- little, or big, tiny or huge.

Luke 9:49 Then Yehonathan, responding, said, “Master, we saw someone ejecting unclean natures by Your Name.

And we restrained him

because he does not accompany us.”

Luke 9:50 And YAHUSHUA said to him,
“Do not restrain him

because he who is not against us is for us.”

Luke 9:51 Now it was as the time of His ascension being completed.
And He steadfastly set His face
to go to Yerushalaim.

Luke 9:52 And He sent messengers before His face.

And they traveled entering into a village
of the Shomeronites to prepare for Him.

aggelos – (to bring tidings);
a messenger; especially an “angel”;
by implication, a pastor. – angel, messenger.
A YAH-messenger is one sent by YAHWEH.
Shomeron means a guardianship.
Samaria is “Shomeron”.

Luke 9:53 Yet they did not receive Him
because His face was journeying to Yerushalaim.

The Shomeronites
had no dealings with the Yisra'elites.
Shomeron was the site
of the “Northern Kingdom” of Yisra'el.
At this point in the history of Yisra'el
they were treated as outcasts
because of their previous idol worship.
They were considered defiled
by those in the Southern Kingdom.

Luke 9:54 And having seen this,
His students, Ya'akov and Yehonathan, said,

“Master, do You want us to tell fire
to descend from The Heaven
and destroy them, even as Elijah did?”

Luke 9:55 But He turned around,
admonished them, and said,

“You do not understand what manner of nature you are!

Luke 9:56 Indeed,
The Son of Man has not come to fully destroy human beings' lives
but rather, to deliver them.”

And they went to a different village.

Luke 9:57 Now it was as they were going on the road.

And someone said to Him,

“Master, I will accompany You wherever You go.”

Luke 9:58 Then YAHUSHUA said to him,

“Foxes have burrows,
and birds of the sky nests,
but The Son of Man
has nowhere to lay His head.”

Luke 9:59 Then He said to a different one,
“Accompany Me!”

But he said, “Master,
allow me first go and bury my father.”

Luke 9:60 And YAHUSHUA said to him,
“Let the dead bury their own dead.

But you,
go and proclaim The Kingdom of YAHWEH!”

Luke 9:61 And a different one also said, “Master, I will accompany You!
But allow me first to say good bye
to those in my household.”

Luke 9:62 Then YAHUSHUA said to him,
“No one having put his hand upon the plow and looking back
is fit for The Kingdom of YAHWEH.”

Chapter 10

Luke 10:1 After these things
The Master appointed seventy others also.
And He sent them two by two before His face
into every town and place
where He Himself was about to go.

Luke 10:2 Accordingly, He said to them,
“The harvest truly is great
but the laborers are few.
Therefore, beg the master of the harvest
to send out laborers into His harvest.

Luke 10:3 Go your way!
Behold!
I send you out as lambs
in the middle of wolves.

Luke 10:4 Do not carry a money bag,
a food pouch, nor sandals.
And embrace not even one along the road.

[The concept is that
of stopping to visit along the way.
The implication is that the task is urgent.
Do not get sidetracked with trivial matters.](#)

Luke 10:5 And whatever house you enter,
first say, “Peace to this house.’

Luke 10:6 And if indeed
The Son of Peace exists there
your peace will settle upon it.
But if not it will return upon you.

[The Son of Peace is capitalized here because it suggests,
by the way it's placed in the text,
that it's an oblique reference to YAHUSHUA.
In Is. 9.6 He is referred to as the Prince of Peace.](#)

Luke 10:7 And remain in the same house,
eating and drinking what is theirs,
because the laborer
is deserving of his compensation.
Do not go from house to house.

Luke 10:8 And into whatever town you enter
and they receive you,
eat what is presented to you.

Luke 10:9 And heal the sick there.
And say to them,
‘The Kingdom of YAHWEH
has come near to you.’

Luke 10:10 But into whatever town you enter

and they do not receive you,
go out into the open squares and say,
Luke 10:11 'Even the dust of your town which sticks to us we scrape away
as a witness against you.
Moreover, know this,
that The Kingdom of YAHWEH
came near to you.'

Luke 10:12 Now I say to you
that it will be more endurable
in that day for Sodom than for that town.

Luke 10:13 Woe to you, Chorazin!
Woe to you, Bayit Sayda!
Because if the signs
which have been done in you
had been done in Tzor and Tzidon
they would have reconsidered long ago,
sitting in sackcloth and ashes.
Luke 10:14 Now it will be more endurable
for Tzor and Tzidon at the judgment
than for you.

Chorazin means a furnace of smoke.
Bayit Sayda means house of provision.
Tzor means to distress.
Tzidon means fishery.

Luke 10:15 And you, Kafar'nahum,
who have been exalted even to The Heaven,
will be caused to go down to she'ol!

She'ol is thought to be
the place of departed spirits.
Typically referred to as the grave, or hell,
it is more literally the state of being dead.

Luke 10:16 He who is listening to you is listening to Me.
He who rejects you rejects Me.
And he who rejects Me rejects Him Who sent Me."

atheto – to set aside,
i.e. (by implication) to disesteem,
neutralize or violate
– cast off, despise, disannul,
frustrate, bring to nought, reject.
It means properly to do away
with what has been laid down
– to bring to nothing.
It is very close to the concept of "taking in vain" the Name of YAHWEH.

Luke 10:17 Then the seventy returned with joy saying,
"Master, even the unclean natures
are subordinate to us in Your Name!"
Luke 10:18 And He said to them,
"I saw The Adversary
falling like lightning from The Heaven!

Luke 10:19 Behold!
I give you the authority
to trample on serpents and scorpions,
even over all the power of the enemy.
And not even one thing
will by any means harm you.
Luke 10:20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this,
that the natures are subordinate to you,
but rather rejoice because your names
are written in The Heaven."

Luke 10:21 In that hour
YAHUSHUA rejoiced greatly
in The Divine Nature of YAHWEH!
And He said, "I thank You, Father,
Master of The Heaven and of the earth,

that You have concealed these things
from the wise and prudent,
yet have revealed them to infants.
Even so, Father,
because it was pleasing in Your sight.

Luke 10:22 Everything
has been entrusted to Me by My Father.
And not even one knows
who The Son is except The Father,
and who The Father is except The Son,
and the one to whom
The Son desires to reveal Him.”

Luke 10:23 Then He turned around
toward the students, saying to each one.
“Happy are the eyes which see what you see!
Luke 10:24 Indeed, I tell you that many prophets and kings have desired to see what you observe
and have not seen them,
and to hear what you hear,
and have not heard them!.”

Luke 10:25 And behold!
A certain lawyer stood up and thoroughly tested Him saying, “Teacher,
what must I do to inherit Eternal Life?”

Luke 10:26 Then He said to him,
“What is written in The Torah?
How do you read it?”

Luke 10:27 And he responding said,
“ ‘You are to love YAHWEH, your Elohim
with all your heart,
with all your inner essence,
with all your strength,
and with all your mind,’

(Deut. 6.5)

and ‘your neighbor as yourself.’ ”
(Lev. 19.18)

Luke 10:28 And He said to him,
“You have responded correctly.
Do this and you will Live eternally.”

Luke 10:29 But he, wanting to justify himself,
said to YAHUSHUA,

“And who is my neighbor?”

Luke 10:30 Then YAHUSHUA,

continuing the dialog said,
“A certain one was going down
from Yerushalaim to Yericho.
And he fell among thieves
who stripped him of his clothing,
imposed wounds on him, and went away,
happening to leave him half dead.

Yericho means place of fragrance.

Luke 10:31 Now by chance
a certain priest came down that road.
And having seen him,
he passed by on the other side.

Luke 10:32 Then likewise a Levite happening by the place came.

And having seen him
he passed by on the other side.

Luke 10:33 Then a certain Shomeronite,
as he was traveling, came to where he was.
And having seen him he had compassion.

Luke 10:34 And he approached.
And he bandaged his wounds,
pouring on olive oil and wine.
And he set him upon his own animal,
brought him to an inn,

and took care of him.
Luke 10:35 And in the morning,
as he was going away,
he took out two denari,
gave them to the innkeeper,
and said to him, 'Take care of him.
And whatever more you spend
as I return I will give back to you.'

Luke 10:36 Therefore, which of these three do you think was a neighbor
to him who fell among the thieves?"

Luke 10:37 Then he said,
"He who showed compassion for him."
Then YAHUSHUA said to him,
"Go and do likewise!"

Luke 10:38 Now it was as they traveled.
And He entered into a certain village.
And a certain woman named Martha welcomed Him into her house.
Luke 10:39 And she had a sister called Miryam
who also sat at YAHUSHUA's feet
and listened to His word.

Luke 10:40 Now Martha was distracted over much serving.
And she approached Him and said,
"Master, do You not care that my sister
has left me to serve alone?
Therefore, tell her that she ought to help me."
Luke 10:41 And YAHUSHUA, responding,
said to her, "Martha, Martha!
You are anxious and disturbed about much.
Luke 10:42 Now one thing is needed.
And Miryam has chosen a good portion which will not be taken away from her."

Chapter 11

Luke 11:1 Now it was as He was praying
in a certain place.
When He stopped,
one of His students said to Him,
"Master, teach us to pray
just as Yahnathan also taught his students."

Luke 11:2
It is NOT "a prayer".
Your prayers are to be personal,
not "canned".](#)

Then He said to them,
"Whenever you pray say,
Our Father Who is in The Heavens,
sanctify Your Name.
Let Your kingdom come.
Let Your will happen,
as in The Heaven,
so also upon the earth.
Luke 11:3 Give us day after day
our food for subsistence.
Luke 11:4 And forgive us our offenses
as we also forgive everyone who is indebted to us.
And do not lead us into testing,
but instead, rescue us from what is bad."

Luke 11:5 And He said to them,
"Which of you will have a friend
and will go to him at midnight
and say to him,
'Friend, lend me three loaves Luke 11:6 because a friend of mine
has come to me on his journey

and I have nothing to set before him.’
Luke 11:7 And he from inside
will respond saying,
‘Do not cause trouble for me.
The door is already closed
and my children are with me in the bed.
I am not able to stand up and give to you’?

Luke 11:8 I say to you,
even though he will not stand up
and give to him because he is his friend,
yet because of his persistence he will rise up and give to him as much as he needs.

Luke 11:9 And I say to you,
Ask, and it will be given to you!
Seek, and you will find!
Knock, and it will be opened to you!
Luke 11:10 Indeed,
everyone who asks receives,
and he who seeks finds,
and to him who knocks it will be opened.

Luke 11:11 If a child asks for bread
from any father among you,
will he give him a stone?
Or for a fish,
will he give him a serpent instead of a fish?
Luke 11:12 Or if he asks for an egg,
will he offer him a scorpion?

Luke 11:13 If you then existing as bad,
understand how to give
good gifts to your children,
how much more
will The Father from The Heaven
give a Set Apart Divine Nature
to those who ask Him!”

Luke 11:14 And He was ejecting an unclean nature.
And it was mute.
And it was as the unclean nature
had gone out.
And the mute spoke.
And the crowds marveled.

Luke 11:15 But some of them said, “He casts out unclean natures
by means of Ba'al Zebub,
the ruler of the unclean natures.”
Ba'al Zebub – Lord of the Flies.

Luke 11:16 Others, testing,
sought from Him a sign from The Heaven.
Luke 11:17 But He,
understanding their thoughts,
said to them,
“Every kingdom divided against itself
is laid waste.
And a house divided against a house falls.
Luke 11:18 If The Adversary also has been divided against himself
how will his kingdom stand,
since you say I eject unclean natures
by means of Ba'al Zebub?

Luke 11:19 Now if I eject unclean natures
by means of Ba'al Zebub
by whom do your sons eject them?
Therefore they will be your judges.

Luke 11:20 But if I eject unclean natures
by the finger of YAHWEH
truly, The Kingdom of YAHWEH

has arrived before you.

Luke 11:21 When a strong man fully equipped with armor guards his own palace
his possessions are in peace.

Luke 11:22 But as soon as a stronger than he comes upon him he overcomes him,
takes from him all his armor
in which he trusted,
and divides his spoils.

Luke 11:23 He who is not with Me
is against Me.
And he who does not gather with Me scatters.

Luke 11:24 Whenever an unclean nature goes out of a man
it travels through waterless places
seeking rest.

But finding none it says,
'I will return into my dwelling
from which I came out.'

Luke 11:25 And having come
it finds it swept and in proper order.

Luke 11:26 Then it travels and takes to itself seven other natures
more hurtful than itself.
And they enter.

And they take up residence there.
And the last state of that person is worse than the first."

Luke 11:27 Now it was as He spoke these things.

And a certain woman from the crowd raised her voice saying to Him,
"Happy is the womb that carried You and the breasts which You sucked!"

Luke 11:28 But He said,
"More than that,
happy are those who hear the word of YAHWEH
and protect it!"

Luke 11:29 Then, the crowds
having accumulated, He began to say,
"This is an evil generation.

It seeks a sign.
Yet no sign will be given to it
except the sign of Yonah the prophet.
Luke 11:30 Indeed, as Yonah became a sign
to the Ninevites,
so also The Son of Man will be to this generation.

Yonah was three days in the belly of the fish.
He was dead.
He was then raised up from being dead
after being vomited out by the fish on the shore.
The Ninevites, having been aware of this,
listened to his proclamation
of doom upon their city and reconsidered.
Nineveh means offspring of ease.

Luke 11:31 The queen of the South
will rise up in the judgment
against the men of this generation and condemn them
because she came from the ends of the earth
to hear the wisdom of Shelomoh.
And behold!

One greater than Shelomoh is here!
Shelomoh means peaceableness.

Luke 11:32 The men of Nineveh
will rise up in the judgment

against this generation and condemn it
because they reconsidered
at the proclaiming of Yonah.
And behold!
One greater than Yonah is here!

Luke 11:33 Not even one having lit a lamp
puts it into concealment, nor under a bushel,
but rather upon a lampstand
in order that those who enter may see the light.

Luke 11:34 The lamp of the body is the eye.
Therefore, when your eye is clear
your whole body is also full of light.
But when your eye is bad
your body is also full of darkness.
Luke 11:35 Therefore, take heed
that the light which is in you is not darkness.

Luke 11:36 If then your whole body is full of light,
having no part dark,
the whole body will be full of light
as when the glare of a lamp gives you light.”

Luke 11:37 Now as He spoke
a certain Pharisee asked Him to dine with him.
And He entered and sat down to eat.
Luke 11:38 Then the Pharisee, having seen it, marveled that He had not
first washed before dinner.
Luke 11:39 Then The Master said to him,
“Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and the plate
but your inside
is full of extortion and hurtfulness.
Luke 11:40 Fools!
Did not He Who made the outside make the inside also?
Luke 11:41 Moreover, that being the case,
give compassionateness!

The phrase, in its literal form,
is a bit awkward,
but it does express the thought.
Be compassionate!

And behold!
Everything is clean to you.

Luke 11:42 But woe to you Pharisees!
Indeed, you tithe mint and rue and every herb,
yet pass by justice and the love of YAHWEH.
These you ought to do
without leaving the others undone.

Luke 11:43 Woe to you Pharisees
because you love
the best seats in the assemblies
and greetings in the town squares!

Luke 11:44 Woe to you scribes and Pharisees,
hypocrites,
because you are like graves which are hidden
and the persons who walk over them
do not see them.”

To walk on a grave was to become defiled.
To be defiled is to be "unclean".
No defiled person or thing
was permitted in the presence of YAHWEH.

Luke 11:45 Then responding,
one of the lawyers said to Him,
“Teacher, by saying these things
You abuse us also.”
Luke 11:46 Then He said,
“Woe also to you lawyers
because you load persons with oppressive tasks,

yet you yourselves do not touch the burdens
with one of your fingers!

Luke 11:47 Woe to you,
because you build up the tombs of the prophets!
But your fathers killed them!

Luke 11:48 Truly, you testify that you think well
of the deeds of your fathers,
because they indeed killed them,
and you are building up their tombs.

Thereby honoring them.

Luke 11:49 Therefore,
the wisdom of YAHWEH even said,
*"I will send them prophets and ambassadors.
And some of them they will kill and persecute,"*
(2 Chron. 38.16)

Luke 11:50 in order that the blood of all the prophets which has been shed
since the foundation of the world
will be required of this generation, Luke 11:51 from the blood of Hebel
to the blood of Zekaryah,
who perished between the altar and The Temple.

Hebel (traditionally, Abel)

means transitory; emptiness.

Zekaryah means remembered by YAHWEH.

Assuredly I say to you,
it will be required of this generation!

Luke 11:52 Woe to you lawyers
because you have taken away
the key of knowledge!
You did not enter in yourselves
and those who were entering in you prevented!"

Luke 11:53 Now as He was saying
these things to them
the scribes and the Pharisees began to set themselves against Him grievously
and to provoke Him concerning more things, Luke 11:54 lying in wait for Him,
and seeking to catch Him
in something He might say
in order that they might charge Him with some offense.

Chapter 12

Luke 12:1 At this time, a myriad crowd
having gathered together
so that they trampled one another,
He began to say to His students first,
"Pay attention to the leaven of the Pharisees,
which is hypocrisy!

Luke 12:2 Now there is nothing fully concealed
that will not be uncovered
nor covered that will not be known.

Luke 12:3 On the contrary,
whatever you have said in the darkness
will be heard in the light.
And what which you have whispered in the ear in inner rooms
will be proclaimed on the housetops.

Luke 12:4 Now I say to you, My friends,
do not be afraid of those who kill the body
yet after that have nothing more one can do.

Luke 12:5 But I will show you
Whom you should fear.

Fear Him Who after He has killed
has authority to throw into Gehenna!
Truly I say to you, fear Him!

Gehenna is considered to be the place of eternal punishment.

Luke 12:6 Are not five sparrows
sold for two copper coins?
Yet not one of them is forgotten
in the presence of YAHWEH.

Luke 12:7 On the contrary,
even the hairs of your head are all numbered.
Do not be afraid therefore!
You are of more value than many sparrows!

Luke 12:8 Now I say to you,
whoever covenants with Me before human beings,
him The Son of Man will also covenant with
before the messengers of YAHWEH.

homologeō – to assent,
i.e. covenant, acknowledge.
- confess, profess, confession is made,
give thanks, promise.

The typical translation uses “confess”.
This is not accurate.
In this particular case
there is a qualifying word used, en, meaning in this case, with.
One can certainly covenant with.
And this is the new covenant, in essence.
A covenant is a contract.

Luke 12:9 But he who disavows Me
before human beings
will be disavowed
before the messengers of YAHWEH.

arneomai – Literally, to speak not, to contradict,
i.e. disavow, reject, abnegate,
- deny refuse.

The concept is the failure
to covenant with Him.
Context is crucial.

Luke 12:10 And anyone who will speak a word
against The Son of Man,
it will be forgiven them.
But to him who blasphemes against
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
it will not be forgiven.

blasphemeō – to vilify;
specially, to speak impiously.
– (speak) blaspheme, defame,
rail on, revile, speak evil.

NOTE: This reveals that this is “the unpardonable sin”!
It is speaking against
the very nature and character,
The Divine Nature, of YAHWEH.

Luke 12:11 Now when they bring you
before the assemblies,
and magistrates,
and authorities,
do not be anxious how or what you will give
as an account for yourself,
nor what you are to say.

Luke 12:12 Indeed,
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
will teach you in that very hour
what you need to say.”

Luke 12:13 Then one from the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.”

Luke 12:14 But He said to him,
“Person, who made Me a judge
or an arbitrator over you?”

Luke 12:15 Then He said to them,
"Discern clearly!
And watch out for avarice
because one's life does not exist
among the abundance of possessions."

Luke 12:16 Then He told a parable to them saying,
"The ground of a certain wealthy person
produced well.

12:17 And he deliberated within himself saying,
'What will I do since I have no room
to store my produce?'

Luke 12:18 And he said, 'I will do this.
I will demolish my granaries and will build larger.
And there I will store all my produce and my goods.

Luke 12:19 And I will say to my life,
"Life, you have many goods laid up for many years.
Relax, eat, drink, be happy!" '

psuche – breath, i.e. (by implication) spirit.

– heart, life, mind, σῶμα.

One's breath is the essence of one's being.

Without it you cease to exist.

"Spirit" and "soul" are Greek terms
that did not exist prior to the Greek culture.

There is no place for them
in Hebrew thinking.

Luke 12:20 But YAHWEH said to him,
'Fool!

This very night your life
will be demanded back from you.
Then to whom will those things be which you have prepared?'

Luke 12:21 Such is one who amasses things for himself,
yet is not wealthy before YAHWEH."

Luke 12:22 Then He said to His students,
"Because of this I say to you,
do not be anxious concerning your life,
what you will eat,
nor concerning the body,
what you will put on!

Luke 12:23 The life is more than food,
and the body is more than clothing.

Luke 12:24 Observe fully the crows
because they neither sow nor harvest,
which have neither storehouse nor granary,
yet YAHWEH feeds them.
Of how much more value
are you than the birds?

Luke 12:25 Now which of you by being anxious can add to his size one cubit?

Luke 12:26 If you then are not able to do that which is least
why are you anxious concerning the rest?

Luke 12:27 Observe fully the lilies,
how they grow.
They do not work hard.
They do not spin.
But I say to you not even Shelomoh
in all his splendor
was clothed like one of these.

Luke 12:28 Now if YAHWEH in this manner clothes the vegetation
which is on this day in the field
and tomorrow is thrown into the oven,
how much more will He clothe you,
incredulous ones?

Luke 12:29 And do not seek
what you will eat
or what you will drink
nor be of doubtful mind.

Luke 12:30 Indeed, all these things
the tribes of the world seek.
And your Father understands that you need these things.

Luke 12:31 Instead,
seek The Kingdom of YAHWEH,
and all these things will be added to you.

Luke 12:32 Do not be afraid little flock
because The Father is well pleased to give to you The Kingdom.

Luke 12:33 Sell your possessions
and give compassionateness.
Provide yourselves money bags
which do not wear out,
a wealth in The Heavens that is inexhaustible,
where no thief approaches nor moth ruins it.

Luke 12:34 Indeed, where your wealth exists,
there will your heart be also.

Luke 12:35 Let your loins be girded
and your lamps burning, Luke 12:36 and yourselves like persons waiting for their Master
when he will return from the wedding
in order that He, coming and knocking,
they will open to him immediately.
Luke 12:37 Happy are those slaves whom The Master having come will find watching.

Assuredly I say to you
that He will gird Himself
and have them sit down to eat.
And He will approach and serve them.

Luke 12:38 And if He comes in the second watch
or comes in the third watch
and finds it this way,
happy are those servants.

Luke 12:39 Now know this,
that if the master of the house understood
at what hour the thief was coming he would have watched
and not allowed his house to be broken into.
Luke 12:40 Therefore, you become ready also,
because The Son of Man is coming
at an hour you do not think!"

Luke 12:41 Then Peter said to Him,
"Master, do You speak this parable
to us or to everyone?"

Luke 12:42 Then The Master said,
"Who then is the trustworthy and thoughtful steward
whom the master
will appoint over his household
to give a measure of grain
at the proper time?"

Luke 12:43 Happy is that servant
whom his master, having come,
will find doing in that manner.

Luke 12:44 Truly, I say to you that he will appoint him
over everything he has.

Luke 12:45 But if that servant
says in his heart,
'My master delays his coming.'
And he begins to beat the male and female servants
and to eat and drink and to be intoxicated Luke 12:46 the master of that servant
will arrive on a day
that he does not anticipate
and at an hour of which he does not know.
And he will severely flog him.
And he will appoint him a portion
with the disbelievers.

Luke 12:47 Now that servant
who knew his master's will,
and did not prepare,
nor do according to his will,
will be scourged greatly!
Luke 12:48 But he who did not know,
yet did things deserving of stripes,
will be scourged with few.

Now everyone to whom much is given,
from him will much be sought.
And to whom much has been entrusted,
of him they will ask the more abundantly.

Luke 12:49 I have come to throw fire upon the earth!
And how I wish perhaps even now
it had been kindled!

Luke 12:50 But I have a baptism
to be immersed in.
And how perplexed I am
until it has been accomplished!

Luke 12:51 Do you think that I have come to grant peace upon the earth?
I tell you, indeed not,
but on the contrary, dissension!

Luke 12:52 Indeed, from now on five in one household will be in dissension,
three against two, and two against three.
Luke 12:53 A father will be in dissension against a son
and a son against a father,
a mother against a daughter
and a daughter against a mother,
a mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law
and a daughter-in-law
against her mother-in-law."

Luke 12:54 Then He also said to the crowds,
"Whenever a cloud is rising out of the west
immediately you say, 'A shower is coming.'
And so it is.
Luke 12:55 And when the south wind is blowing
you say, 'There will be hot weather.'
And it happens.
Luke 12:56 Hypocrites!
You know to examine the face of the sky
and of the earth
but how do you not examine this set time?

The terms for "set time" are often used in relation to the feasts of Yisra'el.
It's a phrase that marks
a special occasion in the life of Yisra'el.
The coming of The Messiah is such a "set time",
and it appears it is this
to which The Messiah is referring.

Luke 12:57 Now why, even of yourselves,
do you not distinguish what is just?

Luke 12:58 Indeed,
as you go with your opponent
before the ruler
give diligence along the way
so that you may be released from him
lest he drag you down before the judge,
the judge deliver you to the collector,
and the collector throw you into prison.

Luke 12:59 I tell you,
you will not go out from there even until you have given back
the very last small coin.”

Chapter 13

Luke 13:1 Now there were present at that time
some who told Him concerning the Galil'ans whose blood Pilate
had mixed with their sacrifices.

Luke 13:2 And YAHUSHUA, responding,
said to them,
“Do you think that these Galil'ans
were worse offenders than all other Galil'ans
because they suffered like this?
Luke 13:3 I tell you, indeed not!
However, unless you reconsider
you will all be fully destroyed
in the same manner.

Luke 13:4 Or those eighteen upon whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them,
do you think that they were worse offenders than all persons who were living in Yerushalaim?

Siloam means a missile sent.

Luke 13:5 I tell you, indeed not!

However, unless you reconsider,
you will all be fully destroyed
in the same manner.”

Luke 13:6 He also told this parable.
“A certain one had a fig tree planted in his vineyard.
And he came seeking fruit on it yet found none.

Luke 13:7 Then he said
to the keeper of his vineyard,
'Behold!
For three years I came seeking fruit
on this fig tree and found none.
Cut it down!

Why does it occupy the ground?'

Luke 13:8 But he, responding, said to him, “Master, let it alone this year also until I dig around it and throw manure
Luke 13:9 and see if it bears fruit.
But if not it will be ready to be cut down.' ”

Luke 13:10 Now He was teaching in one of the assemblies on The Sabbath.

Luke 13:11 And behold!
There was a woman
having had feebleness of breath
for eighteen years.
And she was bent over.
And she was entirely unable to unbend.

Luke 13:12 Then YAHUSHUA,
having seen her, called to her.

And He said to her,
"Woman you are released from your infirmity."
Luke 13:13 And He laid His hands upon her.
And immediately she straightened up.
And she honored YAHWEH.

Luke 13:14 Then the ruler of the assembly, responding with indignation
because YAHUSHUA
had healed on The Sabbath,
said to the crowd,
"There are six days
on which one ought to work.
Therefore, come and be healed on them
and not on The Sabbath Day."

Luke 13:15 Therefore,
The Master responded to him.
And He said, "Hypocrite!
Does not each one of you on The Sabbath loose his ox or donkey from the stall
and lead it away to give it a drink?
Luke 13:16 And should not this woman,
being a daughter of Abraham
whom The Adversary has bound,
behold, for eighteen years,
be released from this bond on The Sabbath?"

Luke 13:17 And having said these things,
all His adversaries were put to shame.
And the whole crowd rejoiced
over all the splendid things that were being done by Him.

Luke 13:18 Then He said,
"To what is The Kingdom of YAHWEH similar?
And to what shall I compare it?
Luke 13:19 It is similar to a grain of mustard
which a man took and threw into his garden.
And it grew and became a large tree.
And the birds of the air
lodged in the branches of it."

Luke 13:20 And once more He said,
"To what shall I compare
The Kingdom of YAHWEH?
Luke 13:21 It is like leaven
which a woman took and hid
in three measures of meal
until it was all leavened."

Luke 13:22 And He traveled
through the towns and villages teaching,
and going on His way toward Yerushalaim.
Luke 13:23 Then one said to Him,
"Master, are there few who are being delivered?"
Then He said to them,
Luke 13:24 "Strive to enter
through the narrow gate
because many, I say to you,
will seek to enter and will not prevail.

Luke 13:25 From whenever the master of the house
has risen up and shut the door
and you begin to stand outside
and knock on the door saying,
'Master! Master! Open up for us!'
then He, responding, will say to you,
'I do not know you.
Where are you from?'
Luke 13:26 Then you will begin to say,
'We ate and drank in Your presence.

And You taught in our open squares.’
Luke 13:27 But He will say,
‘I tell you, I do not know you.
Where are you from?
Depart from Me all you workers of injustice!’

Luke 13:28 There will be lamentation
and grinding of the teeth
when you see Abraham,
and Yitzhak,
and Ya'akov,
and all the prophets
in The Kingdom of YAHWEH,
and you ejected outside.

Luke 13:29 And they will arrive
from the east, and the west,
from the north, and the south.
And they will sit down
in The Kingdom of YAHWEH.

Luke 13:30 And behold!
There are lowest who will be foremost
and there are foremost who will be lowest.”

Luke 13:31 On that very day
some of the Pharisees approached, saying to Him, “Depart and go away from here because Herod desires to kill You.”
Luke 13:32 And He said to them,
“Go, tell that fox, ‘Behold!
I eject unclean natures
and accomplish healings
today and tomorrow.
And the third day I will be finished.’

Luke 13:33 However, it is necessary for Me today and tomorrow and the following because it is not possible that a prophet be destroyed
outside of Yerushalaim.

Luke 13:34 Oh Yerushalaim, Yerushalaim!
The one who kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her!
How many times I desired
to gather your children together
as a hen her brood under the wings!
But you were not willing!
Luke 13:35 Behold!
Your house is left desolate for you!
And assuredly, I say to you,
you will not see Me
until the time arrives when you say, “*Blessed is He who comes
in the Name of YAHWEH!”*”
(Ps. 118.26)

Chapter 14

Luke 14:1 And it was as He went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees
to eat bread on The Sabbath.
And they were watching Him closely.
Luke 14:2 And behold!
There was a certain person before Him
who had dropsy.

*Dropsy is a condition in which fluid accumulates in the tissues
or cavities of the body.*

Luke 14:3 And YAHUSHUA, responding,
spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees saying,
“Is it right to heal on The Sabbath?”
Luke 14:4 But they kept silent.

And He laid hold on him.
And He cured him.
Then He dismissed him.

Luke 14:5 Then He, responding to them, said, “Which of you with a donkey or an ox
that has fallen into a hole
will not immediately pull him out
on The Sabbath Day?”

Luke 14:6 And they could not dispute Him
concerning these things.

Luke 14:7 Then He told a parable
to those who were invited
having noted how they chose the best places,
saying to them,

Luke 14:8 “When you are invited by anyone to a wedding feast

do not sit down in the highest place
lest one more honorable than you
be invited by him,

Luke 14:9 and he who invited you and him
come and say to you,

‘Give to this man a place!,
and then you begin with disgrace
to take the lowest place.

Luke 14:10 But instead when you are invited go and sit down in the lowest place

so that when he who invited you comes he might say to you, “Friend, go up higher.’

Then you will have honor in the presence of those who sit at the table with you,

Luke 14:11 because whoever exalts himself
will be humbled,
and he who humbles himself
will be exalted.”

Luke 14:12 Then He also said
to him who invited Him,

“When you give a dinner or a supper
do not ask your friends,

your brothers, your relatives,
nor wealthy neighbors,

lest they also invite you back
and you are repaid.

Luke 14:13 But instead,
when you give a banquet
invite the poor, the maimed,
the lame, the blind.

Luke 14:14 Then you will be happy
because they cannot repay you.

Indeed, you will be repaid
at the resurrection of the just.”

Luke 14:15 Then one of those who sat at the table with Him,

having heard these things, said to Him, “Happy is he who will eat bread

in The Kingdom of YAHWEH!”

Luke 14:16 Then He said to him,
“A certain person gave a great supper.
And he invited many.

Luke 14:17 And he sent his servant
at supper time

to say to those who were invited,

“Come, because all things are now ready!’

Luke 14:18 But everyone from the first began to make an excuse.

The first said to him,

“I have bought a piece of ground
and I must go and see it.

I ask you to have me excused.’

Luke 14:19 And another said, “I have bought five yoke of oxen
and I am going to test them.
I ask you to have me excused.’

Luke 14:20 Still another said,
“I have married a wife and therefore I am not able to come.’

Luke 14:21 So that slave came
and reported these things to his master.
Then the master of the house was enraged.
And he said to his servant, “Go out quickly into the open squares
and streets of the town
and bring in here the poor, and the maimed,
and the lame, and the blind.’

Luke 14:22 And the servant said, “Master, it is done as you ordered,
yet there is room.’

Luke 14:23 Then the master said to the servant, “Go out into the roads and hedges and compel them to come in
in order that my house may be entirely filled.

Luke 14:24 Indeed, I say to you
that none of those men who were invited
will taste of my dinner.’ ”

Luke 14:25 Now great crowds journeyed with Him.

And He, turning around, said to them,

Luke 14:26 “If anyone comes to Me
and does not detest his father and mother,
wife and children, brothers and sisters,
yes, then his own life also,
he is not able to be My student.

Luke 14:27 And whoever does not pick up his torture stake and come behind Me
is not able to be My student.

Luke 14:28 Indeed, which of you desiring to build a tower
does not sit down first and compute the cost,
whether he has enough to finish it,
Luke 14:29 lest after he has laid the foundation
then he is not able to finish,
and all who observe begin to jeer at him
Luke 14:30 saying, ‘This person began to build,
yet was not able to finish.’

Luke 14:31 Or what king
traveling to make war against another king
does not sit down first and deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand
to encounter him who comes against him
with twenty thousand?

Luke 14:32 Otherwise, the other being still at a distance,
he sends ambassadors and asks for peace.

Luke 14:33 Therefore, in this way also,
whoever of you does not set aside
all that he has
is not able to be My student.

Luke 14:34 Salt is good.
But if the salt has lost its flavor
in what way will it season?

Luke 14:35 It is neither fit for the land
nor for the manure.
It is thrown out.

He who has ears to hear, let him listen!”

Chapter 15

Luke 15:1 Then all the tax collectors and the offenders
approached Him to listen to Him.
Luke 15:2 And the Pharisees and the scribes murmured saying,
“This Man accepts offenders.
And He eats with them.”

Luke 15:3 Then He spoke this parable
to them saying,

Luke 15:4 “Which of you persons having a hundred sheep
and he loses one of them
does not abandon the ninety nine
in the wilderness
and go after the one which is lost
until he finds it?

Luke 15:5 And having found it
he puts it upon his shoulders rejoicing.

Luke 15:6 And having come home
he calls together friends and neighbors,
saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me because I have found
my sheep which was lost!’

Luke 15:7 I say to you
that in the same manner
there will be more joy in The Heaven
over one offender who reconsiders
than over ninety nine just persons who need no reconsideration.

Luke 15:8 Or what woman
having ten silver coins
if she loses one coin does not light a lamp,
and sweep the house,
and seek carefully until she finds it?

Luke 15:9 And having found it
she calls together friends and neighbors saying, ‘Rejoice with me
because I have found the piece which I lost!’

Luke 15:10 Likewise, I say to you,
joy happens in the presence of the messengers of YAHWEH
over one offender who reconsiders.”

Luke 15:11 Then He said,
“A certain person had two sons.

Luke 15:12 And the younger of them
said to the father,
‘Father, give to me the portion of property
that falls on me.’

And he distributed to them his livelihood.

Luke 15:13 And not many days after the younger son
gathered together absolutely everything,
traveled to a far country,
and there squandered his possessions
with wasteful living.

Luke 15:14 Then having spent everything
there arose a severe famine in that land.

And he began to be lacking.

Luke 15:15 And he traveled.
And he joined himself
to a citizen of that country.
And he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

*This was a great insult.
Swine were “unclean” animals.*

Luke 15:16 And he longed to fill his stomach
with the pods that the swine ate.
Yet no one gave him anything.

Luke 15:17 Then, having come to himself,
he said,
'How many of my father's hired workers
have an abundance of bread.
Yet I am perishing with hunger.
Luke 15:18 I will get up and travel to my father.
And I will say to him,
"Father, I have offended
against The Heaven and before you Luke 15:19 and I am no longer deserving
to be called your son.
Make me like one of your hired workers." '

Luke 15:20 And he got up
and went to his father.
And he still being a great way off,
his father saw him.
And he had compassion.
And he ran and fell on his neck.
And he earnestly kissed him.
Luke 15:21 Then the son said to him,
"Father, I have offended against The Heaven
and in your eyes
and I am no longer deserving
to be called your son.'
Luke 15:22 But the father said to his servants,
'Bring out the best robe and put it on him.
And give him a ring for his hand
and sandals for his feet.
Luke 15:23 And bring here the fattened calf
and slaughter it.
And let us eat and be glad Luke 15:24 because this son of mine was dead,
but he is alive again!
He was lost,
but he has been found!'
And they began to be glad.

Luke 15:25 Now his older son was in the field.
And as he came and approached the house
he heard music and dancing.
Luke 15:26 And he called to himself
one of the servants.
And he demanded
what these things might be.
Luke 15:27 Then he said to him,
'Your brother has arrived.
And your father
has slaughtered the fattened calf
because he has received him safe and sound.'

Luke 15:28 But he was enraged.
And he would not enter.
Therefore, his father came out and encouraged him.
Luke 15:29 Then he, responding,
said to the father,
"Behold!
These many years I have been serving you.
I never set aside an instruction of yours
at any time.
And yet you never gave me a young goat
that I might be glad with my friends.
Luke 15:30 But as soon as this son of yours came who has devoured your livelihood with harlots
you killed the fatted calf for him.'

Luke 15:31 Then he said to him,
'Son, you are always with me.
And all that I have is yours.
Luke 15:32 Being glad and rejoicing was necessary
because your brother was dead and is alive again.
And he was lost, but he is found.'

Chapter 16

Luke 16:1 Then He also said to His students,
“There was a certain wealthy person who had a steward.

And this one was accused
that he was wasting his possessions.

Luke 16:2 And he called him and said to him,
“What is this I hear concerning you?
Give an account of your stewardship
because you are not able any longer
to be steward.’

Luke 16:3 Then the steward said within himself,
‘What will I do because my master
is removing the stewardship from me?
I have no strength to dig.
I am ashamed to beg.

Luke 16:4 I know what to do so that when I am put out of the stewardship
they may receive me into their houses.’

Luke 16:5 And he called to himself
every one of his master’s debtors.
And he said to the first,
‘How much do you owe my master?’

Luke 16:6 And he said,
“A hundred measures of oil.’

And he said to him,
“Take your bill and sit down quickly and write fifty.’

Luke 16:7 Then he said to another,
“And how much do you owe?”
And he said, “A hundred measures of wheat.’
And he said to him,
‘Take your bill and write eighty.’

Luke 16:8 And the master commended the unjust steward
because he had done prudently,
because the children of this world
are more prudent in their generation
than the children of The Light.

Luke 16:9 And I say to you,
make friends for yourselves
from the unjust wealth so that when you fail
they might receive you into the eternal tents.

Luke 16:10 He who is trustworthy in the least is trustworthy also in much.
And he who is unjust in what is least
is unjust also in much.

Luke 16:11 Therefore, if you have not been trustworthy with the unjust wealth
who will trust you with the true wealth?

Luke 16:12 And if you have not been trustworthy
in what is another’s
who will give you what is yours?

Luke 16:13 No servant can serve two masters.
Indeed, either he will detest the one
and love the other
or else he will support the one and think against the other.

You cannot serve YAHWEH and wealth!”

Luke 16:14 Now all the Pharisees also heard this,
even those who were lovers of money,
yet they turned up their nose at Him.

Luke 16:15 And He said to them,
“You are those who justify yourselves
before human beings.

But YAHWEH knows your hearts.

That which is highly esteemed among human beings
is detestable in the sight of YAHWEH.

Luke 16:16 The Torah and The Prophets served until Yehonathan.
From that time The Kingdom of YAHWEH
has been proclaimed.
And everyone is forcing their way into it.

This is an idiom.
It suggests people are trying to get in
who do not belong there.
Many, by their works,
are trying to justify themselves.

Luke 16:17 Now, it is easier for the sky
and the earth to pass away
than for one tittle of The Torah to fail!
A tittle is a very small punctuation mark
in the Hebrew language.

Luke 16:18 Whoever divorces his wife
and marries another commits adultery.
And whoever marries her
who is divorced from a husband
commits adultery.
The context is crucial to understanding
why this statement is made here.
It appears to be unrelated to the dialog,
but it is not.

YAHWEH refers to Yisra'el
as an "adulterous generation",
because they have "left their husband",
YAHWEH,
and married another,
the world and the traditions of men.

Luke 16:19 There was a certain wealthy person who was clothed in purple and fine linen.
And he was luxuriously happy every day.
Luke 16:20 Then there was a certain beggar named Eleazar,
full of sores, who was dropped at his gate,
Eleazar which means El (God) is helper.
Luke 16:21 and longing to be fed with the crumbs
which fell from the rich man's table.
Moreover, the dogs came and licked his sores.
Luke 16:22 And it happened that the beggar died.
And he was carried by the YAH-messengers
to Abraham's embrace.

Then the wealthy person also died.
And he was buried.
Luke 16:23 And being in torture in She'ol
he raised his eyes.
And he saw Abraham at a distance
and Eleazar in his embrace.
Luke 16:24 Then he cried.
And he said, 'Father Abraham,
have compassion on me
and send Eleazar in order that he may dip the tip of his finger in water
and cool my tongue
because I am grieved by this flame.'
Luke 16:25 But Abraham said,
'Child, remember that in your life
you received your good things
and similarly Eleazar worthless things.
But now he is comforted and you are grieved.

Luke 16:26 And besides all this,
between us and you
there is a great chasm established
so that those who want to pass
from here to you are not able.
Nor can those from there pass to us.'

Luke 16:27 Then he said,
'I beg you therefore, father,

that you would send him
to my father's household
Luke 16:28 because I have five brothers
in order that he may testify to them lest they also come to this place of torture.'
Luke 16:29 Abraham said to him,
'They have Moshe and The Prophets.
Let them listen to them.'

Luke 16:30 But he said, 'No, father Abraham!
But if one goes to them from being dead
they will reconsider.'

Luke 16:31 But he said to him,
'If they do not listen
to Moshe and The Prophets neither will they be persuaded though one is raised up from being dead.' "

Note: This story is a parable.
It is used as an illustration
to teach a lesson.
It is not meant to be taken literally.
It's given to make the point of how important it is to listen carefully
to what YAHWEH has taught in His Word.

Sadly, many have taken this as a truthful literal statement
of what things are like after one dies.
That is false teaching!

Chapter 17

Luke 17:1 Then He said to the students,
"It is impossible that no entrapments come.
But woe to him through whom they do come!
Luke 17:2 It is better for him
if a large millstone was hung around his neck
and he was tossed into the sea
than that he should entrap
one of these little ones.

Luke 17:3 Pay attention to yourselves!

If your brother offends against you rebuke him!
And if he reconsiders forgive him!

hamartano – properly, to miss the mark,
i.e. to err, especially (morally) to sin.
– for your faults, offend, sin, trespass.

Luke 17:4 And if he offends against you seven times in a day
and seven times in a day returns to you saying,
"I reconsider,' you are to forgive him!"

Luke 17:5 And the ambassadors
said to The Master,
"Increase our trust."

Luke 17:6 Then The Master said,
"If you have trust like a grain of mustard
you would say to this sycamore tree,
'Be uprooted and be planted in the sea!'
and it would listen attentively to you.

Luke 17:7 Now which of you having a servant plowing
or tending sheep will say to him,
having come from the field,
"Come and sit down to eat!?"

Luke 17:8 On the contrary,
will he not say to him,
'Prepare something to eat
and gird yourself and serve me until I have eaten and have had to drink and after that you can eat and drink.?' Luke 17:9 Does he thank that servant
because he did the things that were directed to him?

I think not.

Luke 17:10 In this same way you,
when you have done all those things
which you are directed,
say that, 'We are useless slaves.
We have merely done
what was our obligation to do.'

Luke 17:11 And it happened
as He traveled to Yerushalaim that He traveled through the middle of Shomeron and of The Galil.

Luke 17:12 And entering into a certain village
ten leprous men met Him
who stood at a distance.

Luke 17:13 And they raised their voices saying,
"YAHUSHUA! Master!

Have compassion for us!"

Luke 17:14 And having seen them

He said to them,

"Go! Show yourselves to the priests!"

And it was as they were going.

And they were cleansed.

Luke 17:15 Then one of them,
having seen that he was cured,
returned and with a loud voice honored YAHWEH.

Luke 17:16 And he fell down upon his face
beside His feet, giving thanks to Him.
And he was a Shomeronite.

Luke 17:17 Then YAHUSHUA, responding said,
"Were not ten cleansed?

But where are the nine?

Luke 17:18 Were none found returning to give honor to YAHWEH except this foreigner?"

Luke 17:19 And He said to him, "Arise!

Go your way!

Your trust has delivered you."

The concept of granting deliverance to a Shomeronite (Samaritan)
was unheard of in those days.
Even in translation many versions ascribe the idea only of
"being made whole" to this person,
and not the full sense of the term, sozo,
which is – to save, deliver, or protect.

Luke 17:20 Now having been asked by the Pharisees
when The Kingdom of YAHWEH was coming,
He responded to them and said,

"The Kingdom of YAHWEH
does not come with visual evidence,

Luke 17:21 nor will it be said,

'Behold! Here!' or 'Behold! There!'

Indeed, behold!

The Kingdom of YAHWEH is inside you."

The Kingdom is non-carnal (not physical).
This is the precise difference between The Old Covenant
and The New Covenant.
It is missed by most.

The Yisra'elites missed their Messiah because they were looking for an "earthly" kingdom
in which The Messiah would reign as King,
not a kingdom in which their internal submission,
the surrender of their will,
was the primary factor.

Luke 17:22 Then He said to the students,
"The days will come when you will long to see
one of the days of The Son of Man.

Yet you will not see one.
Luke 17:23 And they will say to you,
'Behold! Here!' or 'Behold! There!'
Do not go!
And do not pursue!

Luke 17:24 Indeed,
just exactly like the lightning flashing out under the sky
shines out under the sky,
in this same way
The Son of Man will be in His day.

Luke 17:25 But first He must suffer much
and be rejected by this generation.

Luke 17:26 And exactly as it happened
in the days of Noah,
in the same manner it will be also in the days of The Son of Man!

Luke 17:27 They were eating.
They were drinking.
They were marrying wives.
They were being given in marriage
until the very day that Noah entered the ark.
Then the flood came
and completely destroyed absolutely everything.

Luke 17:28 Likewise, even as it existed
in the days of Lot.
They were eating.
They were drinking.
They were buying.
They were selling.
They were planting.
They were building.

Lot means a wrapping.

Luke 17:29 But on the very day that Lot went out of Sodom
it rained fire and brimstone from The Heaven.
And it completely destroyed everything.

Luke 17:30 Even according to this it will be on the very day
when The Son of Man is revealed.

[apokalupto – to take off the cover,
i.e. disclose. – revealed.](#)

"The Apocalypse."

Is it what you think it will be like?

Luke 17:31 In that very day
he who will be on the housetop
and his goods in the house,
let him not come down to pick it up!
And likewise the one who is in the field.
Let him not turn back toward what's behind!

Luke 17:32 Remember Lot's wife!

Luke 17:33 If anyone seeks to save his life
he will fully destroy it.
And if anyone fully destroys his life
he will preserve it.

Luke 17:34 I tell you in that very night
there will be two in one bed.
The one will be taken from beside
and the other will be left.

Luke 17:35 Two will be grinding together.
The one will be taken from beside
and the other left.

Luke 17:36 Two will be in the field.
The one will be taken from beside
and the other left."

Luke 17:37 And they, responding, said to Him,
"Where, Master?"
Then He said to them,
"Wherever the body is,
there the eagles will be assembled."

Chapter 18

Luke 18:1 Then He also told a parable to them
pertaining to who should always pray
and not become discouraged,
Luke 18:2 saying,
"There was in a certain city
a judge who did not fear YAHWEH
nor regard human beings.
Luke 18:3 Now there was a widow in that same city.
And she came to him saying,
'Vindicate me from my adversary.'
Luke 18:4 And he was not willing for a time.
But afterward he said within himself,
'Though I do not fear YAHWEH
nor regard human beings,
Luke 18:5 yet because this widow presents trouble for me I will vindicate her lest by her continual coming she annoys me.' "

Luke 18:6 Then The Master said,
"Listen to what the unjust judge said.

Luke 18:7 Now will YAHWEH
not prepare vindication for His own elect who cry out day and night to Him
and be patient with them?
Luke 18:8 I tell you that He will prepare vindication for them quickly!

Nevertheless, when The Son of Man comes,
will He therefore find trust upon the earth?"

Luke 18:9 Then He also spoke this parable to some who were being persuaded by themselves that they were just,
yet despised the rest.

Luke 18:10 "Two persons went up to The Temple to pray,
one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.
Luke 18:11 The Pharisee stood and prayed
in this manner concerning himself,
"Elohim, I thank You
that I am not exactly like other human beings,
extortioners, unjust, adulterers,
or even like this tax collector.

The Pharisee would not have used YAHWEH in his prayer
because use of the Name
was forbidden by the priests.
This does not alter the fact that he was praying to YAHWEH.

Luke 18:12 I fast twice a week.
I give tithes of all that I possess.'

Luke 18:13 And the tax collector,
standing at a distance,
would not so much as raise his eyes
toward The Heaven,
but instead struck his chest saying,
"Elohim, show favor to me, the offender!"

Luke 18:14 I tell you this very one went down to his house justified.
Not the other.
Indeed, everyone who exalts himself
will be humbled.
And he who humbles himself
will be exalted."

Luke 18:15 Then they even brought infants to Him
in order that He might touch them.
But the students, having seen it,
admonished them.

Luke 18:16 Then YAHUSHUA called them to Himself.
And He said,
“Let the infants come to Me
and do not forbid them
because of this sort is The Kingdom of YAHWEH.”

Luke 18:17 Assuredly I say to you, if one does not receive The Kingdom of YAHWEH
like a little child
he will by no means enter into it!”

Luke 18:18 And a certain ruler asked Him saying, “Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit Eternal Life?”
Luke 18:19 Then YAHUSHUA said to him,
“Why do you call Me good?
Absolutely none is good except one, YAHWEH.”

Luke 18:20 You understand the instructions.
You are not to commit adultery.
You are not to murder.
You are not to steal.
You are not to bear false witness.
Honor your father and your mother.’”
(Ex. 20.12-16)

Luke 18:21 Then he said, “All these things
I have protected from my youth.”

Luke 18:22 And YAHUSHUA,
having heard these things,
said to him, “You still lack one thing.
Sell all that you have
and distribute to the poor.
And you will have wealth in The Heaven.
And come here!
Accompany Me!”

Luke 18:23 But having heard this
he became intensely sad
because he was exceedingly wealthy.

Luke 18:24 And YAHUSHUA,
having seen that he became intensely sad, said,
“How difficult it is for those who have wealth
to enter into The Kingdom of YAHWEH!
Luke 18:25 Indeed, it is easier for a camel
to go through the eye of a needle
than for a wealthy person
to enter into The Kingdom of YAHWEH.”

Luke 18:26 Then those listening said,
“Who then is able to be delivered?”

Luke 18:27 Then He said,
“The things which are impossible with human beings
are possible with YAHWEH.”

Luke 18:28 Then Peter said, “Behold!
We have left everything and accompanied You.”

Luke 18:29 And He said to them,
“Assuredly, I say to you,
there is no one who has left
house
or parents
or brothers
or wife
or children
for the sake of The Kingdom of YAHWEH”

Luke 18:30 who will not receive very much more in this present time
and in the age to come Eternal Life.”

Luke 18:31 Then He took the twelve with Him.
And He said to them, “Behold!
We are going up to Yerushalaim.
And everything written by the prophets
concerning The Son of Man
will be accomplished.

Luke 18:32 Indeed,
He will be betrayed to the Gentiles,
and will be jeered at,
and abused,
and spit upon.

Luke 18:33 They will scourge Him
and kill Him.
Yet the on third day He will be raised up.”

Luke 18:34 And they comprehended
not even one of these things.
And the matter was concealed from them.
And they did not know what was being spoken.

Luke 18:35 Now it was as He was coming near to Yericho.
And a certain blind one
sat begging beside the road.

Luke 18:36 And hearing a crowd passing by
he inquired what it might mean.

Luke 18:37 Then they told him
that YAHUSHUA of Nazareth was passing by.

Luke 18:38 And he shouted saying,
“YAHUSHUA, Son of David,
have compassion on me!”

Luke 18:39 And those preceding admonished him that he should be silent.
But he screamed much more,
“Son of David, have compassion on me!”

Luke 18:40 Then YAHUSHUA stood still.
And He directed him to be brought to Him.
And having approached He asked him,
Luke 18:41 saying, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

He said, “Master, that I might receive my sight.”

Luke 18:42 Then YAHUSHUA said to him,
“Receive your sight!

Your trust has delivered you.”

Luke 18:43 And instantly he received his sight.
And he accompanied Him, honoring YAHWEH.
And all the people having seen it gave praise to YAHWEH.

Chapter 19

Luke 19:1 And they were coming in traveling through Yericho.

Luke 19:2 And behold!

There was a man named Zakkay
who was chief tax collector.
And he was wealthy.

Zakkay means pure.

Luke 19:3 And he sought to see who YAHUSHUA was
but was not able to from within the crowd
because he was of small stature.

Luke 19:4 And he ran ahead
and went up into a sycamore tree
in order to see Him
because He was about to pass by that place.

Luke 19:5 And when YAHUSHUA
came to the place

He looked up and saw him.
And He said to him,
“Zakkay, come down quickly
because today I need to stay at your house.”
Luke 19:6 And he came down quickly.
And he gladly received Him into his house.
Luke 19:7 And having seen it everyone murmured saying, “He has gone to be a guest
with a man who is an offender”

Luke 19:8 Then Zakkay stood up.
And he said to the Master, “Behold, Master!
I am giving one half
of what I possess to the poor.
And if I have accused anyone falsely
I am restoring fourfold.”

Luke 19:9 Then YAHUSHUA said to him,
“Today deliverance has come to this house
because he also is a child of Abraham.

Luke 19:10 Indeed, The Son of Man has come to seek and to rescue that which was lost.”

Luke 19:11 Now having heard these things
He proceeded further and told another parable
because He was near Yerushalaim
and because they thought
The Kingdom of YAHWEH
was about to appear immediately.

Luke 19:12 Accordingly He said,
“A certain high ranking person traveled into a distant area
to accept for himself a kingdom and to return.
Luke 19:13 Now he called his ten servants,
delivered to them ten minas and said to them,
“Do business until I come.’
Luke 19:14 But his townspeople detested him.
And they sent a delegation after him saying,
“We do not want this one ruling over us.’

Luke 19:15 And it was as he returned,
having received the kingdom.
And he ordered these servants
to whom he had given the money to be called to him
in order that he might know
what each one had gained by trading.
Luke 19:16 Then the first approached saying,
“Master, your mina has earned ten minas.’
Luke 19:17 And he said to him,
“Very well, good servant.
Because you were trustworthy in a very little,
you have authority over ten cities.’

Luke 19:18 And the second came saying,
“Master, your mina has earned five minas.’
Luke 19:19 Likewise he said to him,
“You also be over five cities.’

Luke 19:20 Then another came saying, ‘Master, here is your mina
which I have kept reserved in a towel.
Luke 19:21 Indeed, I feared you because you are an austere person.
You collect what you did not deposit
and harvest what you did not sow.’

Luke 19:22 And he said to him,
“From your own mouth
I will judge you, hurtful servant!

You knew that I was an austere person,
collecting what I did not deposit
and harvesting what I did not sow.
Luke 19:23 Why then did you not put my money in the bank
so that at my coming
I might have collected it with interest?
Luke 19:24 And he said to those who stood by,
'Take the mina from him
and give to him who has ten minas.'
Luke 19:25 But they said to him,
'Master, he has ten minas.'

Luke 19:26 Indeed, I say to you
that to everyone who has will be given.
And from him who does not have,
even what he has will be taken away from him.

Luke 19:27 Moreover,
bring here those enemies of mine
who did not want me to reign over them
and slaughter them in front of me.' "

Luke 19:28 And having spoken in this manner
He traveled on ahead
going up to Yerushalaim.

Luke 19:29 And it was
as He approached Bayit Phag and Bayit Any
at the mountain called Olivet.

And He sent two of His students

Luke 19:30 saying,
"Go into the village directly opposite entering into which you will find a young donkey tied up
on which no one has ever sat.
Loose it and bring it.

Bayit Phag means house of figs.

Bayit Any means house of affliction.

Luke 19:31 And if anyone asks you,
"Why are you loosing it?"
thus you are to say to him,
'Because The Master has need of it.' "

Luke 19:32 And those that were sent went and found it just as He had said to them.

Luke 19:33 Then as they were loosing the young donkey
the owners of it said to them,
"Why are you loosing the young donkey?"

Luke 19:34 And they said,
"The Master has need of him."

Luke 19:35 And they brought it to YAHUSHUA.
And they threw their own clothes
upon the young donkey
and they set YAHUSHUA upon him.

Luke 19:36 Now as He was going
they spread their garments upon the road.

Luke 19:37 Then even as He was approaching the descent of the Mount of Olives
the entire multitude of the students began to rejoice and to praise YAHWEH
with a loud voice
concerning all the signs they had seen

Luke 19:38 saying,
*'Blessed is the King who comes
in the Name of YAHWEH!'*
(Ps. 118.26)

Peace in The Heaven
and honor in the highest!"

Luke 19:39 And some of the Pharisees
called to Him from the crowd,

“Teacher, admonish Your students!”
Luke 19:40 And He, responding, said to them,
“I tell you that if these keep silent
the stones will cry out.”

Luke 19:41 And as He approached
He saw the city.
And He wept over it,
Luke 19:42 saying, “If you had known,
even you,
especially in this your very day,
the things pertaining to your well being...!
But now they are concealed from your eyes.

*"your very day" denotes
the very day their Messiah
was proclaimed King in their presence.
This was a fulfillment of prophecy.
It happened before their very eyes,
and yet they missed it.*

Their long promised Messiah had come!

*It's now referred to as "Palm Sunday",
but it was the very day YAHUSHUA
rode into Yerushalaim on a donkey
as He was being hailed as King.
All of this is tied directly to The Festival of Pesach - Passover.

Luke 19:43 Indeed, the days will come to you
when your adversaries
will build an embankment around you,
completely surround you,
and close you in on every side, Luke 19:44 and level you
and your children within you.
And they will not leave in you
one stone upon another
because you did not know
the set time of your visitation.”

*The "set time" is a phrase used to refer to what we call "the feasts" of Yisra'el.
These were times appointed by YAHWEH
for the nation to remember Who He was
and what He did for them.*

Luke 19:45 And He entered into The Temple.
And He began to drive out
those who were buying in it
and were selling in it,
Luke 19:46 saying to them,
“It is written,

*‘My house is a house of prayer,’
(Is. 56.7)*

but you have made it a *‘den of thieves.’ ”
(Jer. 7.11)*

Luke 19:47 And He was teaching daily
in The Temple.
But the chief priests, the scribes,
and the leaders of the people
sought to fully destroy Him.
Luke 19:48 But they were unable to find how to do it because all the people
were very attentively listening to Him.

Chapter 20

Luke 20:1 And it was on one of these days
that He was teaching the people
in The Temple
and proclaiming the good news.
The chief priests,
and the scribes,
with the elders,
confronted Him.

Lit. – stood upon, assaulted.

Luke 20:2 And they spoke to Him saying,
“Tell us by what sort of authority
You are doing these things
or who is it that is giving You this authority?”

Luke 20:3 Then responding He said to them,
“I will also ask of you one matter.
And you tell Me.

Luke 20:4 The baptism of Yahnathan,
was it from The Heaven
or from human beings?”

Luke 20:5 And they deliberated
between themselves saying,
“If we say, ‘From The Heaven.’
He will say,

‘Why then did you not believe him?’
Luke 20:6 But if we say, ‘From human beings.’
all the people will stone us
because they are convinced Yahnathan was a prophet.”

Luke 20:7 And they responded that they did not know where it was from.

Luke 20:8 And YAHUSHUA said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority
I am doing these things.”

Luke 20:9 Then He began
to tell the people this parable.
“A certain person planted a vineyard,
leased it to farmers,
and traveled abroad for a long time.

Luke 20:10 And at the set time
he sent a slave to the farmers
in order that they give to him
some of the fruit of the vineyard.
But the farmers beat him, scourged him,
sending him away empty.

Luke 20:11 Again he sent a different slave.
And they scourged him also.
And they dishonored him,
sending him away empty.

Luke 20:12 And again he sent a third.
And they wounded him and threw him out.

Luke 20:13 Then the master of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do?
I will send my beloved son.
Perhaps they, having seen him,
will respect him.’

Luke 20:14 But having seen him the farmers deliberated among themselves saying,
‘This is the heir.

Come! Let us kill him in order that the inheritance might become ours.’

Luke 20:15 And having thrown him out of the vineyard, they killed him.
Therefore, what will the master of the vineyard
do to them?

Luke 20:16 He will come and destroy those farmers
and give the vineyard to others.”
But having heard it they said,
“May it never be!”

Luke 20:17 Then He, looking at them, said,
“What then is this that is written,
*‘The stone which the builders rejected
has become the chief cornerstone’?*
(Ps. 118.22)

Luke 20:18 Whoever falls upon that stone will be broken.

But upon whomever it falls,
he will be ground to powder.”

Luke 20:19 And the chief priests
and the scribes
that very hour
sought to lay hands on Him
because they knew
He had spoken this parable against them.
But they feared the people.

Luke 20:20 And they were watching Him
scrupulously,
sending out spies pretending to be just,
in order that they might seize upon His words
for the sake of delivering Him up to the rule and the authority of the governor.

Luke 20:21 Then they were asking Him saying,
“Teacher, we understand
that You speak and teach correctly.
And You do not accept the appearance
but instead teach the way of YAHWEH in truth.

Luke 20:22 Is it right for us to pay tribute to Caesar or not?”

Luke 20:23 But observing their craftiness
He said to them,
“Why do you test Me?

Luke 20:24 Show Me a denarius!
Whose likeness and inscription does it have?”
Then responding they said, “Caesar’s.”

Luke 20:25 Then He said to them, “Accordingly,
give back to Caesar what is Caesar’s,
and to YAHWEH what is YAHWEH’s!”

Luke 20:26 And they were not able to seize upon His words in front of the people.
And they marveled at His response.
But they kept silent.

Luke 20:27 Then some of the Sadducees who dispute the existence of a resurrection
were approaching to ask Him

Sadducees means the righteous; just.

Luke 20:28 saying,
“Teacher, Moshe wrote to us
if anyone’s brother dies having a wife and he dies childless
that his brother should take his wife
and produce offspring for his brother.

Luke 20:29 Now there were seven brothers.
And the first having taken a wife died childless.

Luke 20:30 And the second took her as wife.
But he died childless.

Luke 20:31 Then the third took her.
Then in the same way the seven also.
Yet they left no children and died.

Luke 20:32 Then last of all
the woman died also.

Luke 20:33 Therefore,
in the resurrection of them,
whose wife does she become because all seven had her as wife?”

Luke 20:34 And YAHUSHUA, responding,
said to them,

“The sons of this age marry
and are given in marriage.

Luke 20:35 But those deemed deserving to attain to that age
and to the resurrection from the dead
neither marry nor are given in marriage.

Luke 20:36 Indeed,
they are not able to die any longer
because they are equal to the YAH-messengers.

They are also children of YAHWEH,
being children of the resurrection.

Luke 20:37 Now, that the dead are raised up,
even Moshe was shown at the bush
when YAHWEH called Himself

*'The Elohim of Abraham,
The Elohim of Yitzhak,
and The Elohim of Ya'akov.'*
(Ex. 3.6)

This verse has been revised
from the traditional rendering.
If you compare them
you'll discover the differences.
They are most significant.

Ex. 3.6 does not say "Moshe said",
but rather, YAHWEH said these things.
YAHUSHUA would not have made such an error.

Therefore, we must assume this is a "gloss",
an addition or correction to the text,
made by some scribe
who misinterpreted the words,
or filled in some missing words
from a previous manuscript.

YAHWEH does NOT make mistakes!

Luke 20:38 Indeed,
He is not The Elohim of the dead,
but rather of the living.
Indeed, by Him all are alive."

Luke 20:39 Then some of the scribes,
responding, said,

"Teacher, You have spoken well."

Luke 20:40 Then they no longer dared to ask Him even one thing.

Luke 20:41 Then He said to them,
"How can they say

The Messiah is The Son of David?

Luke 20:42 Even David himself says
in the Scroll of Psalms,

*"YAHWEH said to my master,
'Sit at My right hand*

Luke 20:43 until I make

Your enemies Your footstool."'

(Ps. 110.1)

20:44 Therefore, David calls Him 'Master'.
How is He then his Son?"

Luke 20:45 Then in the hearing of all the people,
He said to His students,

Luke 20:46 "Pay attention to the scribes
who desire to walk around in long robes,
and love greetings in the town squares,
the best seats in the assemblies,
and the preeminent places at dinners,

Luke 20:47 who devour widows' houses,
and for a pretense make long prayers.

These will receive more abundant condemnation."

Chapter 21

Luke 21:1 Then looking up He saw the wealthy throwing their gifts into the treasury.

There were chests in The Temple courtyard
for this purpose.

Luke 21:2 Then He also saw a certain poor widow throwing in two small coins.

Luke 21:3 And He said,
"Truly I say to you that this poor widow
has thrown in more than everyone.
Luke 21:4 Indeed, absolutely everyone has thrown in offerings for YAHWEH
from their abundance.
But she, from her poverty,
put in absolutely all the means of livelihood that she had."

Luke 21:5 Then as some were speaking concerning The Temple
how beautiful stones and donations decorated it,
He said,
Luke 21:6 "These things which you consider,
the days will come in which
not a stone will be left upon another
that will not be thrown down."

Luke 21:7 Then they asked Him saying,
"Teacher, now when will these things be,
and what is the sign
that these things are about to happen?"
Luke 21:8 Then He said,
"Watch out!
Do not be deceived!

Indeed, many will come in My Name saying, 'I am He,'
and, 'The time approaches.'
Accordingly, do not go after them!

Luke 21:9 And when you hear
of wars and instabilities do not be terrified!
Indeed, these things must happen first.
However, the end is not immediate."

Luke 21:10 Then He said to them,
"Nation will rise up against nation
and kingdom against kingdom.
Luke 21:11 And there will be large earthquakes in various places,
and food shortages,
and plagues.
And there will be terrors
and great signs out of the sky.
semeion – an indication,
especially ceremonially, or supernaturally,
- miracle, sign, token, wonder.
Something very unusual.

Luke 21:12 But before absolutely all of these things
they will lay their hands upon you.
And they will persecute you,
delivering you up to the assemblies and prisons.
You will be brought before kings and rulers
on account of My Name.
Lit. – pursue.
Was this already done during The Inquisition,
The Dark Ages, etc.?
Or is it beginning to happen again today?

Luke 21:13 But it will become for you
a testimony.

Luke 21:14 Therefore, settle in your hearts
not to consider beforehand a self-defense
apologeomai – to give an account of oneself.
The concept is apologetics.

Luke 21:15 because I will give to you a mouth and wisdom
which all your adversaries
will not be able to refute nor stand against.
Please note: This does not say
"The Holy Spirit" will give you what to say,
but rather it says, "I will give to you..."

Luke 21:16 You will be betrayed,
even by parents,
and brothers,
and relatives,
and friends.
And they will kill some of you.
Luke 21:17 And you will be detested
by everyone
because of My Name.

Luke 21:18 But not a hair of your head will perish.
Luke 21:19 By means of your endurance,
acquire your lives!

This is not a simple statement.
It is in the imperative voice,
indicating a directive - from The Messiah.
The language seems benign,
but it carries within it a very powerful meaning.
The concept of acquisition means to purchase.

Luke 21:20 Now, when you see Yerushalaim surrounded by armies
at that time know
that its desolation approaches!

Luke 21:21 At that time
let those who are in Yahudah
flee into the mountains.
Let those who are in the midst of it depart.
And let not those who are in the fields enter into it, Luke 21:22 because these are the very days of vengeance,
which are the fulfillment
of everything which has been written.

Luke 21:23 And woe
to those who are pregnant
and to those who are nursing babies
in those days!

Indeed, there will be great distress upon the land
and wrath upon this people.
Luke 21:24 And they will fall
by the edge of the sword.
And they will be led away captive
into all nations.
And Yerushalaim will be trampled by Gentiles
until the times of the Gentiles
have been fulfilled.

Luke 21:25 And there will be supernatural signs
in the sun,
in the moon,
and in the stars;
and upon the earth,
distress of nations with perplexity;
the sea and the waves roaring;
Luke 21:26 person's hearts failing them
from fear
and from apprehension of those things
which are occurring upon the earth.

Indeed, the powers of The Heavens
will be shaken.

Luke 21:27 And at that time
they will see The Son of Man coming in a cloud with miraculous power
and great splendor.

Luke 21:28 Now as these things
are beginning to happen straighten up!
And lift up your heads on the very account
that your redemption is approaching!"

Luke 21:29 And He told them a parable.
“Look at the fig tree and all the trees.
Luke 21:30 When they have already germinated,
seeing for yourselves,
you know that summer is already near.
Luke 21:31 You also, in this same way,
when you see these things happening,
know that The Kingdom of YAHWEH is near!

Luke 21:32 Assuredly, I say to you,
this generation will by no means pass away
until everything happens!
This refers to the generation that observes these things happening.

Luke 21:33 The sky and the earth will pass away!
But My words will never pass away!

Luke 21:34 Now pay attention to yourselves lest your hearts be burdened with carousing,
intoxication,
and cares of this life,
and that Day comes upon you unexpectedly!

Luke 21:35 Indeed, it will come like a trap
upon all those who dwell
upon the face of the whole earth!

Luke 21:36 Stay awake therefore,
praying at every opportunity
in order that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that are about to happen
and to stand in front of The Son of Man!”

Luke 21:37 Now in the day
He was teaching in The Temple.
But at night He went out,
spending the night on the mountain called Olivet.

Luke 21:38 And all the people came to Him in The Temple
early in the morning to listen to Him.

Chapter 22

Luke 22:1 Now the Feast of Unleavened Bread approached, which is called Passover (Pesach).

Luke 22:2 And the chief priests and the scribes
sought how to kill Him.
But they feared the people.

Luke 22:3 Then The Adversary
entered Yahudah surnamed Iscariot, being from the number of the twelve.

Luke 22:4 And he went and talked with the chief priests and Temple captains
how he might betray Him to them.

Luke 22:5 And they were glad.
And they agreed to give him silver.

Luke 22:6 So he agreed fully.
And he sought a favorable occasion
to betray Him to them apart from the crowd.

Luke 22:7 Then came The Day of Unleavened Bread
on which The Passover must be killed.

Luke 22:8 And He sent Peter
and Yahanathan saying, “Go and prepare The Passover for us
in order that we may eat.”

Luke 22:9 Then they said to Him,
“Where do You want us to prepare?”

Luke 22:10 Then He said to them,
"Behold!
As you are entering into the city
a person will meet you,
carrying a pitcher of water.
Accompany him into the house which he enters.
Luke 22:11 And say to the master of the house,
"The Teacher says to you,
"Where is the guest room
where I may eat The Passover with My students?" " Luke 22:12 Then he will show you
a large furnished upper room.
Prepare it there."
Luke 22:13 Then they went and found it
just as He had told them.
And they prepared The Passover.

Luke 22:14 When the hour had come
He sat down
and the twelve ambassadors with Him.

Luke 22:15 And He said to them,
"With longing I have desired
to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.

Passover - do you know what it represents?
The deliverance of Yisra'el from bondage in Egypt.
Yes.
But THIS Passover
which The Messiah Himself is administering is different!

In the midst of the story of the innocent lamb being killed
and its blood being used to alert "the messenger of death"
to "pass over" the house where it was placed,
The Messiah, The Lamb of YAHWEH,
is in the midst of giving His life, His blood,
in order that YAHWEH might "PASS OVER"
the offense-debt of every person who trusts in what The Messiah
has accomplished on our behalf.

And yet, today
most treat Passover with contempt!!!
They refuse to celebrate it.
Most don't even know
when it is to be observed.
This is detestable to YAHWEH
and to His Son, YAHUSHUA,
Who died for your sake,
and in your place!

Luke 22:16 Indeed, I say to you,
I will no longer by any means eat of it until it is fulfilled in The Kingdom of YAHWEH!"

Luke 22:17 And having taken a cup
and having given thanks
He said, "Take this
and divide it among yourselves!

Luke 22:18 Indeed, I say to you,
I will not drink of the fruit of the vine
until when The Kingdom of YAHWEH comes."

Luke 22:19 And having taken bread
and having given thanks He broke it.
And He gave it to them saying,
"This is My body
which is being given for your sakes.
Do this in the remembrance of Me."

Luke 22:20 In the same way the cup,
after supper saying,
"This cup is The New Covenant in My blood,
which is being poured out for your sakes.

Tradition teaches that this is "The Lord's Supper" - "communion".
This is not correct!

This cup and this bread
were part of the Passover meal.
They are inseparably linked to this meal.
It was this meal that was to be utilized
to remember the death
and resurrection of YAHUSHUA!
The act of remembering was to take place
once each year - at Passover!

This was not intended to become
a "weekly" or "monthly" ritual,
one which loses
its true meaning and significance
when separated from The Passover Meal.

For the New Covenant believer,
the covenant was established by means of this "appointed time"
by YAHUSHUA Himself.
Passover was given a whole new meaning.
The offense-debt of every believer
had now been "passed over"
because of the sacrifice
of the body and the blood
- shed in our place -
of YAHUSHUA, The Hebrew Messiah!
It took place at PASSOVER!
There is a reason!
YAHWEH used this specific event
to deliver us from our bondage to our offenses.

It is a TRAVESTY
to separate YAHUSHUA from Passover!

It is perversity
to trivialize His "body and blood"
by the manner in which
"communion" is now practised!
YAHWEH cannot be pleased
with such desecration of His sacred meal,
The Passover meal.
And what's worse - most so-called believers
do not even know what Passover is
or when it is to be celebrated.

Luke 22:21 However, behold!
The hand of My betrayer
is with Me on the table.
Luke 22:22 And truly,
The Son of Man goes away
according to the determination.
But woe to that person
by whom He is betrayed!"

Luke 22:23 Then they began to discuss among themselves which of them it was
who might commit this thing.

Luke 22:24 Then there also was a dispute among them
which of them was considered to be the greatest.
Luke 22:25 Then He said to them,
"The kings of the Gentiles
have dominion over them.
And those who control them
are called 'benefactors.'
Luke 22:26 But it is not this way for you.
On the contrary,
he who is greatest among you,
let him become like the newborn,
and he who is leading as he who serves.

neos – new, i.e. (of persons) youthful,
or (of things) fresh;
figuratively, regenerate. – new, young.
The concept is of the newborn infant,
the new convert, etc.

Luke 22:27 Indeed, who is greater,
he who sits at the table, or he who serves?
Is it not he who sits at the table?
Yet I am among you as He that serves.

Luke 22:28 Now you are those who are remaining with Me in My trials.
Luke 22:29 And I have set apart for you
a kingdom,
exactly as My Father has set it apart for Me, Luke 22:30 in order that you may eat and drink at My table
in My kingdom and sit on thrones judging
the twelve tribes of Yisra'el."

Luke 22:31 Then The Master said,
"Shim'on! Shim'on!
Indeed, The Adversary has demanded you,
in order that he may winnow you like grain.
Luke 22:32 But I have prayed concerning you
in order that your trust will not fail.
And you, when you have returned,
strengthen your brothers."

Luke 22:33 But he said to Him,
"Master, I am ready to go with You even to prison and to death."
Luke 22:34 Then He said,
"I tell you, Peter,
the rooster will not crow
this very day
before you will three times
renounce knowing Me."

Luke 22:35 And He said to them,
"When I sent you without money bag,
knapsack, and sandals
did you lack anything?"
And they said, "Nothing."
Luke 22:36 Then He said to them,
"On the contrary now,
he who has a money bag,
let him take it, and likewise a food pouch.
And he who has no sword,
let him sell his garment and buy one.

Luke 22:37 Indeed, I say to you
that this which is written
must still be accomplished in Me,
*'And He was numbered
with the transgressors.'*
(Is. 53.12)
And indeed, that which concerns Me
has an end."

Luke 22:38 Then they said,
"Master, behold!
Here are two swords."
But He said to them, "It is enough."

Luke 22:39 And going out
He went as He was accustomed to The Mount of Olives.
And His students also accompanied Him.
Luke 22:40 Then having come to the place,
He said to them,
"Pray you do not enter into testing!"

Luke 22:41 And He had withdrawn from them about a stone's throw.
And He knelt down and prayed
Luke 22:42 saying,
"Father, if it is Your will remove this cup from Me!

Nevertheless, not My will,
but instead, Yours be done.”

Luke 22:43 Then a YAH-messenger appeared to Him from The Heaven, strengthening Him.

Luke 22:44 And being in agony,
He prayed more earnestly.
Then His sweat became like great drops of blood
falling down upon the ground.

Luke 22:45 And having stood up from prayer,
and having come to His students
He found them sleeping from sorrow.

Luke 22:46 And He said to them,
“Why are you sleeping?
Stand up and pray
in order that you do not enter into testing.”

Luke 22:47 Then as He was still speaking, behold, a crowd.

And he who was called Yahudah,
one of the twelve,
preceded them.

And he approached YAHUSHUA to kiss Him.

Luke 22:48 Then YAHUSHUA said to him, “Yahudah, are you betraying The Son of Man with a kiss?”

Luke 22:49 Then those around Him, discerning clearly what was about to happen,
said to Him,

“Master, shall we strike with a sword?”

Luke 22:50 And one of them struck the slave
of the great priest and cut off his right ear.

Luke 22:51 But YAHUSHUA, responding said, “Permit even this.”

And He touched his ear and cured him.

Luke 22:52 Then YAHUSHUA said

to the chief priests,
captains of The Temple,
and the elders

who had approached Him,

“Have you come out as against a robber
with swords and clubs?

Luke 22:53 When I was with you daily
in The Temple

you extended no hand against Me.

However, this is your hour,
even the authority of obscurity.”

Luke 22:54 Having arrested Him
they led Him away.

And they brought Him into the great priest’s house.

And Peter accompanied at a distance.

Luke 22:55 Now having kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard
and having sat down together,
Peter sat down in the midst of them.

Luke 22:56 Now a certain female slave
seeing him sitting by the fire,
looked intently at him and said,

“This one was also with Him.”

Luke 22:57 But he denied it saying,

“Woman, I do not know Him!”

Luke 22:58 And after a short time

another saw him and said,

“You also are of them.”

But Peter said, "Person, I am not!"

Luke 22:59 Then after the space of about an hour
another confidently affirmed saying,
"Surely this one was also with Him because he is a Galil'an."
Luke 22:60 But Peter said,
"Person, I do not know what you are saying!"

And immediately, while he was still speaking,
the rooster crowed.

Luke 22:61 And The Master turned around.
And He looked at Peter.
Then Peter remembered
the word of The Master,
how He had said to him,
"Before the rooster crows
you will renounce Me three times."

Luke 22:62 And Peter went out and wept bitterly.

Luke 22:63 And the men who held YAHUSHUA
jeered at Him and scourged Him.
Luke 22:64 And having blindfolded Him,
they beat Him on the face.
And they asked Him saying, "Prophecy!
Who is the one who struck You?"
Luke 22:65 And many other things
they blasphemously spoke against Him.

Luke 22:66 And as soon as it became day
the elders of the people,
and chief priests and scribes assembled.
And they led Him into their Sanhedrin saying,
Luke 22:67 "If You are The Messiah tell us!"
But He said to them,
"If I tell you you will by no means believe it.
Luke 22:68 And if I also ask you,
you will by no means answer Me or release Me.

Luke 22:69 From now on
The Son of Man will be sitting at the right hand
of the miraculous power of YAHWEH!"
Luke 22:70 Then they all said,
"Are You then The Son of YAHWEH?"
Then He said to them,
"You say it because I am."

Luke 22:71 And they said,
"What further testimony do we need?
Indeed, we have heard it ourselves
from His own mouth."

Note: The phrase in v. 70,
which is normally translated as,
"You say that I am."
does not make a clear statement
that He is The Son of YAHWEH.

However, the words of the text
easily mean what is given above,
in which case there is a definite statement made
that YAHUSHUA is indeed The Son of YAHWEH.
It is on that basis alone
that they can proceed judicially against Him.
It was considered blasphemy
because He claimed to be The Son of YAHWEH.
He also spoke the name of YAHWEH,
which the scribes and priests had forbidden.
That was a legal cause for death.

Chapter 23

Luke 23:1 And the entire group of them stood up.
And they led Him before Pilate.

Luke 23:2 And they began to accuse Him saying,
“We found this one perverting the nation
and forbidding to give taxes to Caesar,
saying that He Himself is The Messiah, a king.” Luke 23:3 Then Pilate asked Him saying,
“Are You the King of the Yisra'elites?”
Then responding He said,
“It is as you say.”

Luke 23:4 Then Pilate said
to the chief priests and to the crowd,
“I find no fault in this human being.”

Luke 23:5 But they were strongly insistent saying,
“He stirs up the people
teaching throughout all Yahudah
beginning from The Galil even to this place.”

Luke 23:6 Then Pilate, having heard of Galil,
asked if the human being was a Galil'an.

Luke 23:7 And having recognized that He belonged to Herod's authority, sent Him to Herod
who was also in Yerushalaim at that time.

Luke 23:8 Now Herod,
having seen YAHUSHUA,
was exceedingly glad because he had been desiring for a long while to see Him because he was hearing
many things concerning Him.
And he was hoping to see some sign done by Him.

Luke 23:9 Then he questioned Him
with many words.
But He responded to him not even once.

Luke 23:10 And the chief priests
and the scribes stood.
And they intensely accused Him.

Luke 23:11 Then Herod, with his soldiers, treated Him with utter contempt.
And they jeered at Him,
arrayed Him in a magnificent robe,
and sent Him back to Pilate.

Luke 23:12 Now on that very day
Pilate and Herod
became friends with each other.
Indeed, previously they were being hostile
toward one another.

Luke 23:13 Then Pilate,
having called together the chief priests,
and the rulers, and the people,
Luke 23:14 said to them,
“You have brought this human being to me,
as one perverting the people.
And behold!
Having examined Him in your presence,
I have found not even one crime
in this human being
of which you have accused Him.
Luke 23:15 Moreover, neither did Herod.
Indeed, I sent you to him.
And behold!

Nothing deserving of death
is being done by Him.
Luke 23:16 I therefore, having chastised Him,
will release Him.”

Luke 23:17 (Now it was necessary for him to release one to them at the feast).

Luke 23:18 Then they shouted simultaneously saying,

“Take this one away
and release to us Bar Abbas!”,

Luke 23:19 who because of a certain rebellion
and for murder had been thrown into prison.

Luke 23:20 Pilate therefore,
desiring to release YAHUSHUA,

was speaking to them again.

Luke 23:21 But they shouted saying,

“Crucify Him!

Crucify Him!”

stauroo – impale on the cross [stake];
figuratively, to extinguish (subdue)
passion or selfishness.
Literally, this meant “torture Him to death upon a stake”.
It was among the most awful tortures devised by human beings.

Luke 23:22 Then he said to them the third time,
“Why? What harm has He done?
I have found no reason for death in Him.
Therefore, having chastised Him, I will release Him.”

Luke 23:23 But they were insistent,
asking with loud voices that He be crucified.
And the voices of these
and of the chief priests prevailed.

Luke 23:24 Then Pilate gave sentence
that their request might become so.

Luke 23:25 Then he released to them
the one they requested,
who for rebellion and murder
had been thrown into prison.

But he delivered up YAHUSHUA to their will.

Luke 23:26 And as they led Him away
they seized a certain Shim'on,
a Cyrenian, who was coming from the fields,
setting the torture stake upon him
to carry it behind YAHUSHUA.

Luke 23:27 Now accompanying Him
was a great multitude of the people and women who also mourned
and lamented for Him.

Luke 23:28 But YAHUSHUA,
having turned toward them, said,

“Daughters of Yerushalaim,
do not weep for Me

but rather weep for yourselves
and for your children,

Luke 23:29 because behold!
the days are coming in which they will say,

“Happy are the barren,
and the wombs that never gave birth,
and breasts which never nursed!”

Luke 23:30 At that time they will begin to say to the mountains,

‘Fall on us!’ and to the hills, ‘Cover us!’
(Hos. 10.8)

Luke 23:31 Indeed,
if they are doing these things
unto the green wood,

what will happen unto the dry?"

Luke 23:32 Now there were also two others, criminals, led with Him to be lifted up.

Signifying the lifting up on the torture stake in order to be put to death.

Luke 23:33 And having come to the place called Calvary, there they crucified Him and the criminals, one on the right hand and the other on the left.

Luke 23:34 Then YAHUSHUA said, "Father, forgive them! Indeed, they do not understand what they are doing."

Then they divided His garments, casting lots.

Luke 23:35 And the people stood observing. And even the rulers with them sneered at Him saying, "He saved others.

Let Him save Himself if He is The Messiah, The Chosen of YAHWEH."

In this they acknowledge that He had told them He was indeed The Messiah. This confirms their guilt in rejecting Him as such.

Luke 23:36 Then the soldiers also jeered at Him, approaching and offering vinegar to Him, Luke 23:37 and saying, "If You are The King of the Yisra'elites, save Yourself."

The traditional use of "King of The Jews is neither correct nor proper.

"Jew" is a contraction from "Judah. Judah is properly Yahudah. Yahudah was the primary tribe in Yisra'el at this point in history.

But there are still 12 more tribes in Yisra'el (if you include the Northern Kingdom, which was now known as Shomeron, and the tribe of Levi). And there were those who had left the Northern Kingdom and joined Yahudah and the other tribes - as part of the nation of Yisra'el.

Thus the use of Yahudah (Jew) as the identifier of an Yisra'elite is a perversion of The Truth of YAHWEH. The distortion of this fact of history is yet another one of the perversions that have taken place, based on the traditions of human beings. It denies the truth of Scripture!

Luke 23:38 Then an inscription also was written above Him in writing of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew. "THIS IS THE KING OF THE YISRA'ELITES."

Luke 23:39 Now one of the criminals, having been hung, blasphemed Him saying, "If You are The Messiah save Yourself and us."

Luke 23:40 But the other, responding, admonished him saying, "Do you not even fear YAHWEH, since you are under the same condemnation?

Luke 23:41 And we indeed justly because we are receiving what is deserving of that which we did.

But this one has done
not even one thing out of place.”

Luke 23:42 Then he said to YAHUSHUA, “Master, remember me
when You have come into Your kingdom.”
Luke 23:43 And YAHUSHUA said to him,
“Assuredly I say to you,
this day you will be with Me in Paradise.”

paradeisos – a park,
i.e. (specially) an Eden (place of future happiness; paradise.

Luke 23:44 Now it was about the sixth hour.
And there became darkness
over the entire earth
until the ninth hour.
Luke 23:45 And the sun was obscured.
And the veil of The Temple was split in two.

Luke 23:46 And YAHUSHUA,
having cried out with a loud voice,
said, “Father, ‘into Your hands I commit My life.’”
(Ps. 31.5)

And having said this He expired.

Luke 23:47 Now the centurion,
having seen what happened,
honored YAHWEH saying,
“Truly, this was a just human being!”

Luke 23:48 And the whole crowd
having come together to that spectacle,
seeing what happened,
beat their chests as they returned.
Luke 23:49 But all His acquaintances and the women
who accompanied Him from The Galil stood at a distance experiencing these things.

Luke 23:50 Now behold!
A man named Yoseph,
a member of The Sanhedrin,
a good man and just,
Luke 23:51 (This one had not consented to their decision and deed.)
was from Arimathea, a town of the Yisra'elites,
who himself was also waiting
for The Kingdom of YAHWEH,
*Arimathea means a high place.
(Where idols were worshipped.)*

Luke 23:52 approached Pilate,
asking for the body of YAHUSHUA.
Luke 23:53 And he lowered it,
wrapped it in linen,
and laid it in a tomb hewn out of the rock
where as yet no one had ever been laid.

Luke 23:54 And that day was The Preparation.
And The Sabbath was beginning to dawn.

Luke 23:55 Now the women also followed closely behind
who had come with Him from The Galil.
And they looked closely at the tomb
and how His body was laid.
Luke 23:56 Then, having returned,
they prepared spices and myrrh.
And they rested on The Sabbath
according to the teaching.

Chapter 24

Luke 24:1 Then on the first of the Special Sabbath,
very early in the morning,

they and some others with them
came to the tomb bringing the spices
which they had prepared.

This refers to a shabbathown,
the Hebrew term for a special sabbath,
or day of rest.

There were two of these during Passover.
One was at the very beginning,
the other was seven days later
- and they were not necessarily
on the seventh day of the week.

This means they were not
on The Sabbath Day, which is Saturday.
It could be any day of the week.

The first of sabbaton, the Greek term,
simply refers to the first day
following the Special Sabbath.
This means the resurrection did NOT,
of necessity, occur on "Sunday".
Indeed, it makes it highly probable
that it did not occur on a "Sunday",
"the first day of the week".
Lit. – one or first of the Special Sabbath.

Luke 24:2 Then they found the stone
having been rolled away from the tomb.

Luke 24:3 And they entered,
not finding the body
of The Master, YAHUSHUA.

Luke 24:4 And it was as they were greatly perplexed concerning this.
And behold!

Two men stood by them in shining garments.

Luke 24:5 Then becoming frightened and bowing their faces toward the ground
they said to them,

"Why do you seek the living among the dead?"

Luke 24:6 He is not here,
but rather has been raised up!

Remember how He spoke to you while still in The Galil

Luke 24:7 saying,

"The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of offending men
and be crucified,
and the third day be raised up.' "

Luke 24:8 And they remembered His words.

Luke 24:9 And they returned from the tomb.
And they announced all these things
to the eleven and to all the rest.

Luke 24:10 Now it was Miryam Magdalene, Yoanna,

Miryam, the mother of Ya'akov,
and the others with them

who told these things to the ambassadors.

Luke 24:11 And their words appeared to them
as if an incredible story.

And they did not believe them.

Luke 24:12 But Peter stood up.

And he ran to the tomb.

And having stooped down,

he looked at the linen cloths lying alone.

And he departed,

marveling to himself at what had happened.

Luke 24:13 And behold!

Two of them were traveling that same day
into a village called Emmaus
which was seven miles from Yerushalaim.

Emmaus means in earnest longing.

Luke 24:14 And they talked with each other about all these things which had happened.

Luke 24:15 And it happened
as they conversed and discussed,
that YAHUSHUA Himself approached.
And He journeyed with them.
Luke 24:16 But their eyes being restrained,
they did not recognize Him.

Luke 24:17 Then He said to them,
"What word is this
you discuss with one another as you are walking and are looking sad?"
Luke 24:18 Now responding,
the one whose name was Cleopas said to Him,
"Are You alone a stranger in Yerushalaim,
and have You not known the things which happened there in these days?"
Luke 24:19 And He said to them,
"What sort of things?"
Then they said to Him,
"The things concerning
YAHUSHUA of Nazareth,
Who was a Prophet,
mighty in deed and word
in the presence of YAHWEH
and all the people,
Luke 24:20 how the chief priests and our rulers
delivered Him up to be condemned to death.
And they crucified Him.

Luke 24:21 But we were expecting that it was He
Who was about to redeem Yisra'el.
Furthermore, besides all this,
today is the third day
since these things happened.

Luke 24:22 Furthermore, even some women
from among us astonished us,
having gone to the tomb early in the morning.
Luke 24:23 And having not found His body,
they came saying they had even seen
a vision of YAH-messengers
who said He is alive.
Luke 24:24 And some of those with us went to the tomb and found it
even as the women had said.
But Him they did not see."

Luke 24:25 Then He said to them,
"Oh fools and slow of heart to trust
in everything which the prophets have spoken!
Luke 24:26 Should not The Messiah have suffered these things
and entered into His honor?"

Luke 24:27 And beginning from Moshe
and from all the Prophets
He thoroughly explained to them,
by all The Scriptures,
the things concerning Himself.

Luke 24:28 And they drew near to the village where they were going.
And He pretended He was traveling farther.
Luke 24:29 But they compelled Him saying,
"Stay with us because it is toward evening
and the day is far spent."
And He entered to stay with them.

Luke 24:30 Now it was as He sat
at the table with them.

And He took the bread,
blessed it,

and broke it,
and gave it to them.

Luke 24:31 Then their eyes
were thoroughly opened.
And they recognized Him.
But He became invisible to them.

Luke 24:32 And they said to one another, “Did not our heart burn within us
as He talked with us on the road
and as He thoroughly opened
The Scriptures for us?”

Luke 24:33 And they stood up that very hour,
returned to Yerushalaim,
and found the eleven gathered together
and those with them

Luke 24:34 saying,
“The Master has truly been raised up and has been seen by Shim'on!”

Luke 24:35 And they declared
the things on the road
and how He was recognized by them
in the breaking of the bread.

Luke 24:36 Then as they were speaking
YAHUSHUA Himself

stood in the middle of them
and said to them, “Shalom to you!”

*Shalom means total well-being,
in every aspect of life.*

Luke 24:37 But being terrified
and having become afraid,
they thought they had seen a ghost.

*pneuma - current of air, i.e. breath.
A "nature", here called a 'ghost'.*

Luke 24:38 And He said to them,
“Why are you troubled?

And why do doubts arise in your hearts?

Luke 24:39 Observe My hands and My feet,
that it is I Myself.

Handle Me and see,
because a ghost does not have flesh and bones
just as you see I have.”

*As in v. 37, the term is pneuma.
Often translated as 'spirit',
this tells us that this is not an "embodied" being.*

Luke 24:40 And having said this
He showed them His hands and His feet.

Luke 24:41 But they, still not believing on account of joy and marveling,
He said to them,

“Do you have any food here?”

Luke 24:42 Then they gave Him
a piece of a roasted fish
and some honeycomb.

Luke 24:43 And He took it.
And He ate it in front of them.

Luke 24:44 Then He said to them,
“These are the words which I spoke to you
while I was still with you,
that all things must be fulfilled
which were written in The Torah of Moshe,
and The Prophets,
and The Psalms
concerning Me.”

This encompassed their entire Scriptures.

Luke 24:45 Then He thoroughly opened their minds
in order that they might comprehend The Scriptures.

Luke 24:46 And He said to them,
"Thus it is written.
And thus it was necessary
for The Messiah to suffer
and to be raised up from being dead
on the third day,
Luke 24:47 and that reconsideration
and pardon of offenses
be proclaimed for the sake of His Name
to all nations, beginning at Yerushalaim.

Luke 24:48 And you are witnesses
of these things.

Luke 24:49 Behold!
I am sending
The Promise of My Father upon you!
But tarry in the city of Yerushalaim
until you are endued
with miraculous power from on high!"

Luke 24:50 And He led them out
as far as BayitAny.
And He, having lifted up His hands,
blessed them.
Luke 24:51 And it was as He was blessing them.
And He was parted from them
and taken up into The Heaven.

Luke 24:52 And they, worshipping Him,
returned to Yerushalaim with great joy!

Luke 24:53 And they were continually
in The Temple,
praising and blessing YAHWEH.
Amen!

5. ACTS

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Acts 1:1 This is the first account I have made,
oh friend of YAHWEH,
of all that YAHUSHUA began,
both doing and teaching,

Theophilus – friend of "God".

This is not likely to be
the name of an individual.

It's difficult to ascribe The Book of Acts
as being written to only one person.

It seems far more likely this is a metaphor
for anyone who is a "friend of YAHWEH".

YAHUSHUA is the personal name
of The Messiah.

It means YAH saves or delivers;
YAH is deliverance.

It's a duplication of the name, Joshua, Yehoshua.
(More correctly, Yahoshua.)

Indeed, in Acts 7.45, Col. 4.11, and Heb. 4.8
there are errors involving this very name.

There, "Jesus"

is substituted for "Joshua" incorrectly
in the King James Version of The Bible.

(And many others.)

(Ya'akov is James

in most English "translations".)

This reveals the error.

The Messiah's name was NEVER "Jesus", which in Greek is Jesous.

The Hebrew Messiah
would NEVER have been given a Greek name!

Acts 1:2 until the day
in which He was taken up,
having given instructions by means of
a Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
to the ambassadors whom He had chosen

pneumatōs hagiou - by tradition "The Holy Spirit".
Literally it means. - a breath sacred.
(There is no article before it in the Greek text.).
Holy means to be sacred,
to be set apart for a special purpose, sanctified.

pneumatōs - a current of air, i.e. breath or breeze.
hagion - sacred (physically pure,
morally blameless or religious,
ceremonially consecrated)
Since the Book of Acts is central to the concept of "the pouring out of The Holy Spirit"
it's vital to identify the terms used
and to give their correct meanings.
However, this will seriously challenge
most "traditional" believers.

It means "The Holy Spirit" is something DIFFERENT than what we've been taught
by the traditions of men.
What is normally translated
as "The Holy Spirit" IS NOT CORRECT!

pneumatōs means "breath", not "spirit".
'Spirit;' is a Greek creation.
It is never found in Hebrew thought.
They had no idea what a 'spirit' was.
It's only inserted in English texts
as a result of the use of Greek texts,
and Greek concepts
not found in Hebrew thought.
To understand what this represents
it's crucial to know
how the Hebrews understood the breath.
It was considered to be "the wind of man",
and since it came from within,
it represented the person's nature, their character.
What we have in the text is a "sacred breath".
The only source for such a breath is YAHWEH,
for He alone is Holy - Sacred!
What's portrayed here is:
- His divine breath
- His divine character
- His "nature".

A thorough study of the original languages
and the terms used will clearly demonstrate
there is no separate "person"
known as "The Holy Spirit".

The reference is to the "sacred breath",
or, the Divine Nature of YAHWEH".

Unlike YAHUSHUA,
you cannot have a meeting with an "it" (usually translated as "Him", but the pronoun allows for the use of either).
Furthermore, a "person"
cannot live inside another person.
So how can "The Holy Spirit"
live inside your body if it is a "person"?
On the other hand,
it's quite possible
for the "character" of YAHWEH,
The Divine Nature - His "nature" -
to become a part of your life,
if you permit it to happen.
Tradition has lied to us!

Read the accounts carefully.
Pay very careful attention
to what the "nature" does and does not do.
Scripture itself will teach you The Truth
- if you're willing to "hear" it.
apostolos – a delegate, ambassador – apostle.
Personal legal representatives of The Messiah.

Acts 1:3 whom He also stood beside,
He Himself being alive following His suffering,
by many convincing proofs
being seen by them through forty days
and speaking to them
concerning The Kingdom of YAHWEH.

Acts 1:4 And being assembled together with them
He charged them, saying,
"Do not depart from Yerushalaim,
but instead, wait
for the promise of The Father
which you have heard from Me
Acts 1:5 because Yahanathan indeed baptized with water
but you will be baptized
with a Divine Nature of YAHWEH not many days following these."

baptizo - to immerse, submerge.

YAHWEH has been added in italics
to emphasize that it is His nature
that they were to be immersed in.
His Name is not in the Greek text.

Note: they were NOT being baptized again in water.
They were going to be immersed,
submerged, in the divine nature itself.

Yerushalaim means
complete teaching of deliverance.
Yahanathan means given by YAH.
(This is John.)

Acts 1:6 Therefore, having indeed been called together
they were asking Him saying,
"Master, will You at this time
restore The Kingdom to Yisra'el?"
Acts 1:7 Then He said to them,
"It is not for you to know times or seasons
which The Father has placed in His own authority.
Acts 1:8 But on the other hand,
you will receive miraculous power
at the coming upon you
of The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
and you will be witnesses for Me
even in Yerushalaim,
and in all Yahudah and Shomeron
and to the end of the earth."

dunamis - force; specially, miraculous power.
The article does appear with "set apart"
in this portion of the Greek text.
In this instance it is specific.

Note that this "sacred breath"
is coming upon, or over, them.
It is not standing in front of them
or beside them as a "person" would do.

This is the "bestowing" of "the new man"
- the new birth - which is non-carnal.

The "new nature" is The Divine Nature.
It replaces the "old nature".

Yahudah means YAH will be praised.
Shomeron means guardianship.
(This is "Samaria".)
Yahudah and Shomeron (Samaria)
encompass ALL of the nation of Yisra'el
(the proper Hebrew name).
Yahudah was the Southern Kingdom
and Shomeron was The Northern Kingdom
in previous times.
A split still existed
in the days of The Messiah
between these two groups.

Acts 1:9 And having spoken these things they were watching as He was taken up. And a cloud lifted Him up from beneath, away from their eyes.

'Eyes' is a key word in Scripture.
It's used repeatedly in The Old Covenant.
It's important to keep the concept of the eyes and "seeing" visible in the text since it's such a significant part of The Hebrew Scriptures.

Acts 1:10 And as they gazed intently into the skies as He was traveling, behold!
Two men in white apparel stood beside them,

Behold is a very important term.
Every time it's used
it's in the imperative form - emphatic!
It means, Pay Attention!

Acts 1:11 who also said, "Men of Galil, why are you standing gazing up into the skies? This same YAHUSHUA, Who has been taken up from you into The Heaven likewise will come in a similar manner as you have intently watched Him traveling into the skies."

Acts 1:12 At that time they returned to Yerushalaim from the mountain called Olivet which is near Yerushalaim, a Sabbath Day's distance.
About 1/2 mile

Acts 1:13 And when they had entered they went up into the upper room where they were staying, including Peter, Ya'akov, Yahnathan and Andrew, Philip and Bar Talmay and Mattiyah, Ya'akov, son of Alphaeus, and Shim'on the Zealot, and Yahudah son of Ya'akov.

Peter means a stone.
To'am means a twin.
(This is "Thomas".)
Ya'akov means heel catcher.
(This is "James".)
Yahnathan means given by YAHWEH.
(This is "John".)
Andrew means manly.
Philip means lover of horse
Bar Talmay means son of my furrows.
(This is "Bartholomew".)
Mattiyah means gift of YAHWEH.
(This is "Matthew".)
Shim'on means one who hears.
(This is "Simon" or Simeon.)
Alphaeus means produce; grain.
Yahudah means YAH is praised.
(This is "Yahudah", or "Judas".)

Acts 1:14 These all were unanimously in earnest with prayer and supplication, together with the women and Miryam, the mother of YAHUSHUA, and with His brothers.

Miryam means their rebellion.
Traditionally, this is Mary.

Acts 1:15 And during those days Peter stood up in the midst of the students. (altogether the number of names was about a hundred and twenty), And he said,

mathetes – a learner.

Acts 1:16 "Men, brothers, it was necessary that this Scripture be fulfilled which The Divine Nature of YAHWEH predicted by means of the mouth of David concerning Yahudah, who became a guide to those who arrested YAHUSHUA,

David means beloved.

Acts 1:17 because he was numbered with us and obtained a part in this ministry.”

Acts 1:18 Therefore indeed, this same one acquired a field from the wages received for the injustice.

And falling head first

he burst open in the middle.

And all his entrails poured forth.

Acts 1:19 And it became well known to all the residents of Yerushalaim.

Therefore that field is called,

in their own dialect,

Akeldama, that is, The Field of Blood.

Acts 1:20 Indeed, it is written in the Book of The Psalms:

*‘Let his dwelling place become desolate,
and let no one live in it.’*

(Psa. 69.25)

and, ‘Let another take his office.’

(Psa. 109.8)

Acts 1:21 Therefore, of these men who have associated with us

all the time that The Master, YAHUSHUA,

came in and went out among us,

Acts 1:22 beginning from the baptism of Yahanathan

even until that day

that He was taken up from us,

one must become a witness with us

of His resurrection.”

Acts 1:23 And two were stood up;

Yoseph, called Bar Tsaba,

who was surnamed Justus,

and Mattiyah.

Yoseph means he will add.

Bar Tsaba means son of pleasing

Justus means just one. It is of Latin origin.

Mattiyah - the same as Mattityah. (Mathias)

Acts 1:24 And they prayed and said,

“You, YAHWEH, Who know the hearts of all,

indicate which of these two You have chosen

Acts 1:25 to take part in this ministry and commission

to which Yahudah became contrary,

having gone into his own place.”

Acts 1:26 And they cast their lots.

And the lot fell on Mattiyah.

And he was numbered

with the eleven ambassadors.

Chapter 2

Acts 2:1 And as The Day of Shavuot

was coming to fulfillment

every one was of the same mind concerning it.

Shavuot is a Hebrew Festival,

known as Pentecost

because it took place 50 days

after the presentation of the First Fruits

during Passover week

(The Feast of Unleavened Bread).

Pentecost is the Greek term.

It's generally believed that on this same date

YAHWEH gave The Torah*

to Yisra'el at Mount Sinai.

Acts 2:2 And suddenly,

a loud noise came out of the skies,

being carried by violent wind.
And it filled the whole house
where they were sitting.
Acts 2:3 And they observed divided tongues,
as if they were flames,
sitting upon absolutely every one of them.

Note that this happened only to those who were believers in The Messiah,
those who were gathered together
in the house.
It did not happen to "non-believers".

Acts 2:4 And absolutely every one was filled
with The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH.
and began speaking with different languages
just as The Divine Nature was giving to them, enunciating plainly.

This was not a "person".
It came as "tongues of fire".
This is what Yahnathan The Baptist prophesied (Matt 3.11, Luke 3.16),
a baptism with "fire".
Languages literally means tongues.
It can refer to distinct languages
or to differing dialects.

Acts 2:5 Now there were Yisra'elites
dwelling in Yerushalaim,
devout men from every race under the skies.

Yisra'elites - This is the proper Hebrew term.
Most modern versions use "Jews".
This is not correct.
It's not correct because the term "Jew"
is taken from "Judah".
But "Judah" is, properly, YAHUDAH.

There is no "J" in the Hebrew language,
nor in the Greek language.

In fact the letter "J" did not exist
until roughly 1500 A.D.
The Germans created it.

Thus "Jew" represents only one tribe
out of the 13 tribes of Yisra'el.
(Most traditional accounts erroneously omit the tribe of Levi.)
It entirely dismisses the other tribes.

Only human tradition
has been responsible for this drastic error.
The thirteen tribes still exist.
Not one has never been "lost".
devout - careful of thought.

ethnos - tribe, nation, race, Gentiles.

Acts 2:6 And when this sound occurred
the large crowd assembled together.
And they were thrown into disorder
because everyone was hearing them
speaking in his own dialect.

The large crowd consists of those who were not in the room
with the assembly of believers.
While "language" is typically used here,
it seems more appropriate to use "dialect",
since even within each language
there are many dialects that occur.
The point is being made that everyone who was there understood what was being said.

Acts 2:7 Indeed, everyone was astounded and wondered,
saying to one another,
"Behold!

Are not all these who are speaking Galil'ans?

Acts 2:8 And how are we hearing,
each in our own dialect
into which we were born,

Acts 2:9 Parthians and Medes and Elamites,
those dwelling in Mesopotamia, Yahudah
and Cappadocia, Pontus, and Asia, Acts 2:10 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, Mitsraim
and the parts of Libya adjoining Cyrene,
visitors from Rome,
both Yisra'elites and proselytes,
Acts 2:11 Cretans and Arabs?
We hear them speaking in our own languages
of the magnificent things of YAHWEH."

Please recognize the great territory covered by these people
- who would go back and report
what they had experienced.

Parthian means of a pledge.
Mede means a measure.
Elam means of their heaps.
Mesopotamia means exalted.
Cappadocia means branded unreal.
Pontus means the sea.
Asia means slime; mire.
Phrygia means parched.
Pamphylia means all types; all tribes.
Mitsraim means double straits, trouble.
- This is Egypt.
Libya means afflicted.
Cyrene means supremacy of the bridle.
Rome means strength.
Cretans means of flesh.
Arabs means ambushes.

Acts 2:12 Indeed,
everyone was astounded and perplexed,
saying to one another,
"Whatever could this mean?"
Acts 2:13 Others jeering said,
"They are intoxicated with new wine."

Acts 2:14 But Peter,
having stood up with the eleven,
raised his voice.
And he declared to them,
"Men of Yahudah
and all who dwell in Yerushalaim,
let this be well known to you
and listen to my speech.

Acts 2:15 Indeed,
these are not drunk as you presume,
because it is only the third hour of the day.

Acts 2:16 But instead,
this is what was spoken by the prophet Ya'el:
Ya'el means YAH is El (God). (This is Joel.)

Acts 2:17 "And it will come to pass afterward that I will pour out of My Divine Nature upon all flesh.

*Your sons and your daughters will prophesy.
Your young men will see visions.
Your old men will dream dreams.*

Acts 2:18 *And on My menservants
and on My maidservants
I will pour out of My Divine Nature
in those days.*

And they will prophesy.

Acts 2:19 *I will show wonders
in the skies above
and signs in the earth beneath:
blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke.*

Acts 2:20 *The sun
will be turned into darkness,
and the moon into blood,
before the coming of the great and awesome Day of YAHWEH.

Acts 2:21 *And it will come to pass
that whoever calls on the Name of YAHWEH
will be delivered.'*

(Joel 2.28-32)

Note: This passage from Joel is vitally important.

It declares that one is "saved" by calling upon the Name of YAHWEH.

To call upon His Name is equivalent to calling upon His authority and His character. It is to acknowledge your willingness to be placed under His authority.

You are, in effect, proclaiming that He is your King!

This is directly tied to The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, Who has YAHWEH's Name "in" Him - YAHU-Shua.

Also note that YAHWEH will pour out (spill forth) "of My nature" - portions of it, and not a "person".

You cannot pour out (spill forth) a "person". This 'entity', traditionally referred to as "The Holy Spirit" NEVER is identified by a personal name, as YAHWEH is, and as YAHUSHUA is. One MUST ASK, "Why not, if this is truly a 'person'?"

Acts 2:22 "Men of Yisra'el, listen attentively to these words! YAHUSHUA, The Nazarene, a man exhibited by YAHWEH to you through miraculous powers, and wonders, and signs which YAHWEH was doing through Him in your midst, just as you yourselves also understand,

Note that it is YAHWEH Who was doing the work through (by means of) YAHUSHUA. Nazarene means branch.

Acts 2:23 this One, the One delivered by the determined will and forethought of YAHWEH, Whom you took with lawless hands, having murdered Him by crucifixion, Acts 2:24 YAHWEH has raised up, having released Him from the pangs of death because it was not possible that He could be held by it!

Acts 2:25 Indeed, David says concerning Him: "I foresaw YAHWEH always before my face, for He is at my right hand that I may not be shaken.

Acts 2:26 Therefore my heart rejoiced, and my tongue was glad.

Acts 2:27 Moreover, my flesh also will rest in hope for You will not leave my life in She'ol nor will You allow Your Holy One to see corruption.

Acts 2:28 You have made known to me the ways of life.

You will make me full of joy in Your presence.'
(Psa. 16.8-11)

Acts 2:29 Men, kindred! I would speak freely among you concerning the patriarch, David, because he is dead, and has been buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

Acts 2:30 Therefore, being a prophet, and understanding that YAHWEH had sworn by an oath to him that from the fruit of his loins

according to the flesh
He would establish The Messiah,
sitting up on his throne,
Acts 2:31 having foreseen this he spoke concerning the resurrection of The Messiah,
that His life was not left in She'ol
nor did His flesh see corruption.

Two things are to be noted.
First is the reference to the psuche, of The Messiah.
psuche - life, breath.

This is different than pneuma
in that it represents one's life breath,
one's life itself,
not one's character or essence.

Second is she'ol.
In Hebrew thought
this is the place of departed beings,
the state of being dead.
It is not "hell".

Acts 2:32 This YAHUSHUA
YAHWEH has raised up,
of which we are all witnesses.

Acts 2:33 Therefore, having been exalted to the right hand of YAHWEH,
and having also received from The Father
the promise of that which is set apart,
that which is a Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
He has bestowed this
which you now see and hear.

ekcheo - to pour; to pour forth;
figuratively, to bestow.
You do not bestow a "person".
What was poured out
was The Divine Nature.
This is the very first instance of "the new birth".
This is "the power from on high"
that the students were
to wait for in Yerushalaim.

This is not "a person".
They were not looking at a live being.
It is in fact
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH Himself,
now functioning in the lives of the 11 who were chosen by YAHUSHUA.

Acts 2:34 Indeed, David has never ascended
into The Heavens.
But he himself says,
"YAHWEH said to my Master,
'Sit at My right hand,
Acts 2:35 until I make Your enemies
Your footstool.'"

(Psa. 110.1)

Acts 2:36 Therefore,
let all the house of Yisra'el
know assuredly that YAHWEH
has made this same YAHUSHUA Whom you have crucified
both a Sovereign and The Messiah."

kurios - Lit. -supreme in authority,
i.e. controller; Master. A sovereign.
Translated improperly as "the Lord".

Note that YAHUSHUA
has been caused to fulfill three different roles.
He is a King, a Sovereign, AND The Messiah.
This is a crucial message to Yisra'el.
They have just killed their long hoped for "King",
AND their long promised Messiah!

Note their response in the very next verse.

Acts 2:37 Now having heard
they were agitated violently in the heart!
And they said to both Peter
and the rest of the ambassadors,
"Men, kindred! What shall we do?"

The heart in Hebrew thought is the center of one's being where the mind, the intellect resides.

Acts 2:38 Then Peter said to them,
"Reconsider and be baptized,
each one of you,
in regard to the Name
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
for the sake of the pardon of offenses.
And you will receive the free gift
of The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
metanoeo - to think differently or afterwards;
to reconsider.

Since YAHWEH's Name is "in" The Messiah
one is ultimately baptized (immersed)
in the Name of YAHWEH!

He alone is The One Who "saves" us.
Psa. 3:8
Salvation belongs to YAHWEH.

Keep in mind that the name represents
the authority and character of the person.

To be baptized is to be immersed in the authority and character
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah!

YAHWEH's Name
"is in His name", in Him.
His name means
"YAHWEH is deliverance."

hamartia - a sin; an offense.
It's tied to "missing the mark"
which represents going off the path.
It represents a refusal to follow
the teaching of YAHWEH
concerning His will for us.
It is an act of rebellion
which results in offending YAHWEH
because we have rejected His desire in favor of our own.
The penalty for such action is DEATH!

Now, one does not receive a "person"
as a free gift?
A gift of the divine nature, however,
is possible for one to receive.

Acts 2:39 because the promise is to you and to your children,
and to all who are afar off,
as many as might be called
by YAHWEH, our Elohim!"

Acts 2:40 And with many other words
he gave evidence.
And he encouraged them saying,
"Be delivered from this perverse generation!"

Acts 2:41 Therefore indeed,
those who with pleasure
accepted his message were baptized.
And that very day
about three thousand lives were added.

Acts 2:42 Indeed, they persevered
in the ambassadors' instruction
and partnership,
in the breaking of bread,
and in prayers.

Acts 2:43 Now awe came upon every life.

And many wonders and signs existed
by means of the ambassadors.

Acts 2:44 Indeed,
all who believed were together.
And they held everything in common.
Acts 2:45 And they sold
their possessions and property,
And they distributed them among everyone,
according to what any had need,
Acts 2:46 accordingly persevering daily
with one mind in The Temple,
and breaking bread according to households,
sharing their nourishment
with much joy and simplicity of heart,
Acts 2:47 praising YAHWEH,
and having favor with all the people.
And YAHWEH added to the assembly daily
those who were being delivered.

Chapter 3

Acts 3:1 Now Peter and Yahanathan went up together to The Temple
at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour.
The ninth hour is the hour of prayer.
It is 3 PM.

Acts 3:2 And a certain man
having been lame from his mother's womb
was carried in whom they placed daily at the gate of The Temple
which is called Beautiful to beg for compassion from those who were entering The Temple,
Acts 3:3 who having seen Peter and Yahanathan intending to enter The Temple
begged for compassion.

Acts 3:4 Now Peter, intently looking at him
together with Yahanathan, said, "Look at us."
Acts 3:5 And he gave them his attention,
anticipating receiving something from them.
Acts 3:6 Then Peter said,
"Silver and gold I do not have.
But what I do have I give to you.
In the Name of YAHUSHUA,
The Messiah from Nazareth, stand up and walk!"
Acts 3:7 And he grabbed him
by the right hand.
And he raised him up.
And instantly
his feet and ankles were stabilized.
Acts 3:8 And leaping up,
he stood and walked about.
And he entered with them into The Temple,
walking, leaping, and praising YAHWEH.

Acts 3:9 And all the people saw him
walking and praising YAHWEH.
Acts 3:10 And they even recognized that it was he who sat begging for compassion
at The Beautiful Gate of The Temple.
And they were filled with astonishment and excitement
at what had happened to him.

Acts 3:11 Now the lame man,
having been healed,
seized Peter and Yahanathan.
All the people ran together to them
in the porch which is called Shelomoh's, utterly astounded.
Shelomoh means peaceableness.

Acts 3:12 But Peter having seen this
responded to the people, “Men of Yisra’el, why do you marvel at this?
Or why look so intently at us
as though by our own ability or reverence
we had made this man walk?”

Acts 3:13 The Elohim of Abraham, Yitzhak, and Ya’akov
The Elohim of our forefathers,
has honored His servant, YAHUSHUA, Whom you betrayed and rejected
in the presence of Pilate,
that One Pilate had determined to release.

Abraham means father of a multitude.

Yitzhak means laughter

Ya’akov means he will take by the heel.

Pilate means compressed (like felt).

Acts 3:14 But you rejected
the set apart and just One!
And you begged for a murderer
to be granted to you,
Acts 3:15 and you killed The Prince of Life
Whom YAHWEH has raised up
out of being dead,
of which we are witnesses.

If you explore the Greek and the root word for “prince”

you discover it refers to “the beginning”, or “the first”.

This phrase, as given in the Greek text,

suggests the meaning:

The Beginning of Life.

This is in direct keeping with John 1.1-4.

Dead is an adjective describing His condition.

There is no article in the text.

To accurately interpret this

one would literally say,

“has raised out of deadness.

Acts 3:16 And His Name,
through trust in His Name,
has stabilized this one whom you observe for yourself
and recognize.
And the trust which exists by means of Him
has given him this physical wholeness
in front of all of you.

The Greek term for name,

just as the Hebrew term for name,

does not simply mean a proper name.

It could refer to a title,

or to one’s authority or character.

It seems most appropriate

in referring to YAHUSHUA,

to always keep His authority

as The Son of YAHWEH

within our perspective of His “name”.

Furthermore, in this instance,

the reference to “His Name”

is a reference to YAHWEH,

The One Who raised up

The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

The Greek term pistis, means

(according to James Strong)

persuasion, i.e. credence; moral conviction;

or by extension the system of religious truth itself.

It’s translated as:

assurance, belief, believe, faith, and fidelity.

The Greek term, pisteuo

is essentially the verbal action form of pistis.

It’s defined as meaning:

to have faith (in, upon,

or with respect to, a person or thing),

i.e. credit; by implication, to entrust.

It is translated as: believe(-r), commit (to trust), put in trust with.
Given these definitions
it's difficult to separate faith, belief, and trust.
Without trust you have neither faith nor belief.

Acts 3:17 And now, brothers,
I understand that you did it because of ignorance,
exactly like your rulers also.
Acts 3:18 But those things which YAHWEH had predicted
through the mouth of every one of His prophets,
the suffering of The Messiah,
He has in this manner fulfilled.

Acts 3:19 Reconsider therefore,
and be turned back
for the sake of obliterating your offenses
so that times of revival might come from the presence of YAHWEH.

Acts 3:20 And He will send
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
Who was proclaimed to you in advance,
Acts 3:21 Whom The Heaven
must truly receive
until the times of restitution of everything, of which YAHWEH has spoken through the mouth
of all His set apart prophets
since eternity past.

This is normally translated,
"since the world began".
But that's not what the Greek says.
It says, literally, "since an age"
(aion, or eon in English).
It's a reference to the previous earthly existence
alluded to in Genesis in the "creation story".

This is a subject avoided by most because they don't know how to deal with it effectively.

However, that there was a previous existence
that was also destroyed by a flood (long before the flood of Noah)
is confirmed by numerous Scripture passages.
It's believed that it was during that period
that Lucifer was cast out of The Heaven of YAHWEH
because of his rebellion,
resulting ultimately in the destruction of the first creation
and the state of things that existed
as Genesis begins the story of the "creation" of this portion of world history.

Acts 3:22 Indeed,
Moshe truly said to The Fathers,
*"YAHWEH, your Elohim,
will raise up for you a prophet
even like me out of your brothers.
Him you will listen to
according to everything,
whatever He says to you.*

Acts 3:23 *And it will happen
that every breathing creature
who will not listen to that prophet will be utterly destroyed
from among the people.'*

(Deut. 18.15,18-19)

Acts 3:24 And indeed, all the prophets,
from Shemu'el and those who follow,
as many as have spoken,
have also predicted these days.

Shemu'el means heard by El (God)

Acts 3:25 You are sons of the prophets and of The Covenant which YAHWEH established with our forefathers, saying to Abraham, *“And in your seed
all the families of the earth
will be blessed.”*

(Gen. 22.18, 26.4, 28.14)

Acts 3:26 To you first YAHWEH, having raised up His child, YAHUSHUA,
set Him apart,
blessing you
by turning back each one of you
from your depravities.”

Chapter 4

Acts 4:1 Now as they were speaking to the people the priests,
the captain of The Temple,
and the Sadducees stood before them,
Acts 4:2 being greatly disturbed
that they were teaching the people and proclaiming in YAHUSHUA
the resurrection from the dead.
Acts 4:3 And they laid hands on them.
And they put them in custody until the morning
because it was already evening.

Acts 4:4 However, many of those who heard the message believed.
And the number of the men
came to be about five thousand.

Acts 4:5 And it was now on the next day.
They were gathered at Yerushalaim
by their rulers, elders, and scribes,
Acts 4:6 and Annas, the great priest,
Caiaphas, Yahonathan, and Alexander,
and as many as were from the kindred
of the great priest.
Acts 4:7 And having placed them in the middle they asked, “With what kind of power or by what name
have you done this?”

dunamis – force, especially miraculous power.
From a root meaning ability or possibility.
- "what name" - in other words,
by who's authority.

Acts 4:8 Then Peter, having been filled with a Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
said to them,
“Rulers of the people and elders of Yisra'el,
Acts 4:9 if we this day are investigated
on behalf of a good deed to a helpless person
as to how he was delivered,
Acts 4:10 let it be well known to you all
and to all the people of Yisra'el
that in the Name of YAHUSHUA of Nazareth,
The Messiah, Whom you crucified,
Whom YAHWEH has raised up
from being dead,
through Him,
this man stands in your presence,
healthy.

Acts 4:11 This is the “stone which was rejected by you builders, which has become the chief cornerstone.”
(Ps. 118.22)

Acts 4:12 And there is no deliverance
in any other
because there is not another name

under the skies
given unto human beings
by which we might be delivered.”

The only Name
that truly fits this statement is YAHWEH.
Keep in mind that YAHUSHUA
has this Name upon Himself, YAHU meaning YAHWEH,
and His entire Name
means YAHWEH delivers!

Acts 4:13 Then, having observed the boldness
of Peter and Yahnathan
and having perceived that they were illiterate
and ignorant persons,
they marveled, also recognizing
that they had been with YAHUSHUA.

Acts 4:14 And seeing the person who had been healed standing with them
they could not refute it.

Acts 4:15 However, having ordered them to go aside out of The Sanhedrin
they conferred among themselves,
Acts 4:16 saying,
“What shall we do to these persons?
Indeed, that a notable sign
has been created through them
is apparent to all who dwell in Yerushalaim.
And we are not able to deny it.
Acts 4:17 On the other hand,
in order that it spreads no further
among the people,
let us severely threaten them
to speak no longer to any person concerning this Name.”
Acts 4:18 So they called them.
And they ordered them
not to speak at all,
nor to teach,
concerning the Name of YAHWEH.

Acts 4:19 But Peter and Yahnathan
responded, saying to them,
“Whether it is right before YAHWEH
to listen to you more than to YAHWEH,
you decide,
Acts 4:20 because we are not able not to speak about the things which we have seen and heard!”

Acts 4:21 And having threatened them further
they released them,
finding not even one way to punish them
because of the people,
because everyone honored YAHWEH
concerning what had been done.
Acts 4:22 Indeed,
the man was over forty years old
upon whom this sign of healing
had been done.

Acts 4:23 Now having been released,
they went to their own.
And they announced everything that the chief priests and elders had said to them.
Acts 4:24 And having heard this they lifted up their voice to YAHWEH
with one mind and said, “YAHWEH, You are The Elohim
Who has made the skies
and the earth,
and the sea,
and all that is in them,

Acts 4:25 Who through the mouth
of Your child, David, has said:

*“Why did the pagans rage
and the people plot vain things?”*

Acts 4:26 *The kings of the earth took their stand,
and the rulers were gathered together
against YAHWEH and against His Messiah.’* (Psalm 2.1-2)

Acts 4:27 Indeed, for the sake of truth concerning Your set apart child, YAHUSHUA, Whom You anointed,
both Herod and Pontius Pilate,
with the Gentiles and the people of Yisra'el,
have been gathered together
Acts 4:28 to do whatever Your hand and Your choice determined in advance to happen.

Acts 4:29 And now, YAHWEH, regard their threats!
And give to Your servants every boldness
to speak Your Word

doulos – a slave
(literal or figurative, voluntary or involuntary).
Translated as “servant”.
oiketēs – a menial domestic.
diakonos – an attendant, waiter,
(pastor or teacher), deacon.

There's a difference between
one who is “owned” as a slave,
and one who serves for pay,
or other compensation.

Acts 4:30 by stretching out Your hand to heal,
and that signs and wonders might be done
through the Name
of Your set apart child, YAHUSHUA.”

Acts 4:31 And having begged,
the place where they were assembled together was shaken.
And they were each filled
with The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH.
And they spoke the word of YAHWEH
with boldness.

logos - word.
Can also mean message,
and that is most likely the intent in this verse.

Acts 4:32 Now the large crowd of those who trusted
were of one heart and one being.
And not even one said that any of the things
he possessed was his own,
but instead,
absolutely everything was shared by all.

Acts 4:33 And with great power
the ambassadors gave witness to the resurrection of The Master, YAHUSHUA.
And great favor was upon them all.

Acts 4:34 Indeed,
not any of them were deficient
because all who were owners
of lands or houses sold them,
bringing the proceeds of what was sold
Acts 4:35 and placing them at the ambassadors' feet.
Then distribution was made to each
as any had a need.

While this may have been a literal act,
it should also be recognized that this phrase is symbolic of placing these proceeds
under the authority of the ambassadors.

Being at someone's feet in Eastern culture represents submission to their authority. This is a very significant concept, missed by most Westerners.

Acts 4:36 And Yosiah, who was also named Bar Nabas by the ambassadors, (which is translated Son of Encouragement), a Levite of the country of Cyprus, Yosiah means established by YAH.

Bar Nabas means son of prophecy or consolation.
Cyprus means love; a blossom.

Acts 4:37 having land, sold it bringing the money and placing it at the ambassadors' feet.

Chapter 5

Acts 5:1 Now a certain man named Hananyah, with Sappir, his wife, sold a possession.

Hananyah means favored by YAHWEH.
Sappir means a sapphire.

Acts 5:2 And he kept back part of the proceeds, his wife also being aware. And having brought a certain part he placed it at the ambassadors' feet.

Acts 5:3 But Peter said, "Hananyah, why has The Adversary filled your heart to lie to The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH and to keep back part of the price of the land?

Acts 5:4 While it remained was it not indeed still your own? And after it was sold was it not still under your own authority? Why have you placed this thing in your heart? You have not lied to human beings, but rather to YAHWEH."

Note the characterization here. Traditionally according to v. 3 he lied to "The Holy Spirit".

But here the "nature of YAHWEH" and YAHWEH are equated - the very same. This affirms the concept of a "nature", and not a "person".

Acts 5:5 Then Hananyah, hearing these words, fell down and expired. And great fright came upon all those hearing these things.

Acts 5:6 Then the young men stood up, wrapped him up, and carried him out to bury.
Acts 5:7 Now it was about three hours later and his wife came in, not understanding what had happened.
Acts 5:8 And Peter spoke to her, "Tell me if you sold the land for so much?" She said, "Yes, for so much."
Acts 5:9 Then Peter said to her, "How is it that you have agreed together to test The Divine Nature of YAHWEH?"

Behold!
The feet of those who buried your husband are at the door.
And they will carry you out."

Lit. - to test the breath of YAHWEH.
While pneuma is typically translated as "spirit" it means breath.
It must be noted that spirit is a Greek creation. It did not exist prior to Greek culture.
It is not a Hebrew concept.

Acts 5:10 Then she fell down instantly

at his feet and stopped breathing.
And the young men coming in found her dead.
And they carried her out to bury by her husband.

Acts 5:11 And great fright
came upon the whole assembly
and upon everyone hearing these things.

Acts 5:12 Now through the hands of the ambassadors
many signs and wonders
were being done among the people.
And they were all with one mind
in Shelomoh's Porch.

Acts 5:13 But none of the rest dared join them.

However, the people esteemed them highly.

Acts 5:14 And large numbers of both men and women were trusting in The Master.

Acts 5:15 Therefore, they brought the sick
out into the streets.

And they placed them on couches and mattresses
in order that perhaps the shadow of Peter passing by might cast a shadow on some of them.

Acts 5:16 Now a large crowd assembled also from the towns surrounding Yerushalaim bringing sick people and those who were tormented by unclean natures.
And absolutely all of them were healed.

These are the same thing as 'demons'.

They are defiled natures.

*Defiled means "unclean"
in the religious sense.*

*Nothing unclean was permitted
in the presence of YAHWEH.*

Acts 5:17 Then the great priest stood up,
and everyone with him,
being the party of the Sadducees,
having been filled with indignation.

Sadducees means the righteous, or just.

Acts 5:18 And they laid their hands
on the ambassadors.

And they put them in the public prison.

Acts 5:19 But during the night
a messenger of YAHWEH
opened the prison doors
and brought them out,
even saying to them,

*aggelos, from which
we get the term "angel",
means messenger, deputy;
one sent by another.*

Where YAHWEH is directly referenced this will be noted as a YAH-messenger.

Acts 5:20 "Go!
Stand in The Temple and speak to the people
all the sayings concerning this way of life."

Acts 5:21 Now having listened they entered The Temple at sunrise
and were teaching.

But the great priest
and those with him came.
And they called together The Sanhedrin
and all the elders of the children of Yisra'el.
And they sent to the prison
to have them brought.

Acts 5:22 But when the officers came near
they did not find them in the prison.
And having returned they announced it,

Acts 5:23 saying,
"We truly found the prison shut securely,
and the sentries standing outside
in front of the door.
But having opened it we found no one inside!"

Acts 5:24 Now when the great priest,
the captain of The Temple,
and the chief priests heard these things
they were completely at a loss concerning what would become of this.

Acts 5:25 But one came near.
And he announced to them saying,
"Behold!
The men whom you put in prison
are standing in The Temple
and teaching the people!"

Acts 5:26 Then the captain with the officers went and brought them without force
because they feared the people
lest they might be stoned.

Acts 5:27 Now having brought them,
they stood them
in the middle of The Sanhedrin.
The great priest asked them
Acts 5:28 saying,
"Did we not strictly command you
not to teach concerning this Name?
And behold!
You have filled Yerushalaim
with your instruction.
And you intend to bring upon us
this human being's blood!"

Literally - charge with a crime.

Acts 5:29 But Peter and the ambassadors
responded saying,
"We must obey YAHWEH
rather than human beings.

Acts 5:31 The Elohim of our fathers
has raised up YAHUSHUA,
Whom you killed by hanging on a tree.
This One YAHWEH has exalted
to His right hand,
a Prince and a deliverer,
giving reconsideration to Yisra'el,
even pardon of offenses.

Acts 5:32 And we are His witnesses
to these things,
and also to The Set Apart Divine Nature which YAHWEH has given to those who listen attentively to Him."

Acts 5:33 Now, having heard,
they were exasperated.
And they resolved to kill them.
Acts 5:34 But one in The Sanhedrin stood up,
a Pharisee named Gamali'el,
a teacher of The Torah,
respected by all the people.
And he ordered them
to put the ambassadors outside for a little while.

Pharisee means the separated.

Gamali'el means my compensator is El.

Acts 5:35 Then he said to them,
"Men of Yisra'el, you yourselves
pay attention to what you intend to practice
concerning these men

Acts 5:36 because prior to these days
Theudas rose up,
declaring himself to be somebody.

Theudas means gift of God.

A number of men, about four hundred, joined him.
He was killed.

And all who were convinced by him
were scattered and brought to nothing.

Acts 5:37 After this a man,
Yahudah of The Galil,
rose up in the days of the census
and drew away many people after him.
He also was destroyed.

And all who had been convinced by him
were dispersed.

Acts 5:38 And now I say to you keep away from these persons and let them alone
because if this purpose or this work
is from human beings it will be demolished.

Acts 5:39 But if it is from YAHWEH
you are not able to demolish it, lest you even be found to be an opponent of YAHWEH."

Acts 5:40 Now they were convinced by him.
And having called the ambassadors
and having flogged them,
they ordered that they should not speak
concerning the Name of YAHUSHUA.
And they released them.

Acts 5:41 Therefore, they departed
from the presence of The Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they had been counted worthy
to suffer shame on behalf of His Name.

Acts 5:42 And daily in The Temple and in every house
they did not stop teaching and proclaiming YAHUSHUA as The Messiah.

Chapter 6

Acts 6:1 Now in those days,
the number of students having multiplied,
there came to be a grumbling
of the Hellenists toward the Hebrews because their widows were being neglected
in the daily services.

Acts 6:2 Then the twelve called for the multitude
of the students and said,
"It is not proper that we should abandon
the word of YAHWEH
and wait upon tables.

Acts 6:3 Therefore, brothers,
select from yourselves seven men
having a good witness
full of The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
and wisdom
whom we may appoint over this business.

Acts 6:4 But we will persevere in prayer
and the ministry of the word."

Acts 6:5 And the saying was agreeable
before the whole multitude.
And they chose Stephen, a man full of trust
and The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
and Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas,
a proselyte from Antioch,

Stephen means a crown.

Philip means lover of horses.

Prochorus means

leader of the dance; or of praise.

Nicanor means untimely victory.

Timon means honorable.
Parmenas means one who abides.
Nicolas means conqueror of the people.
Antioch means driven against.

Acts 6:6 whom they set before the ambassadors.
And having prayed they laid hands on them.

Acts 6:7 Then the word of YAHWEH grew.
And the number of the students
increased greatly in Yerushalaim.
Even a great group of the priests
became obedient to the faith.

Acts 6:8 And Stephen, full of trust and power,
did great wonders and signs among the people.

Acts 6:9 Then some stood up
from what is called The Synagogue of the Freedmen,
also Cyrenians, and Alexandrians,
and those from Cilicia and Asia,
disputing with Stephen.

Acts 6:10 But they were not able to oppose the wisdom
and The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
by which he spoke.

Acts 6:11 Then they secretly
induced men to say, “We have heard him
speak blasphemous rhetoric against Moshe and YAHWEH.”

Moshe means drawing out.

Acts 6:12 They even incited the people,
the elders, and the scribes.
And they assaulted him, seized him,
and led him to The Sanhedrin.

Acts 6:13 They also set up false witnesses who said, “This man does not stop speaking blasphemous rhetoric against this Set Apart Place
and The Torah.

Acts 6:14 Indeed, we have heard him say that this YAHUSHUA of Nazareth will demolish this place and alter the customs which Moshe entrusted to us.”

Acts 6:15 Now absolutely everyone who was sitting on The Sanhedrin,
looking intently at him, saw his face
as if it was the face of a YAH-messenger.

Chapter 7

Acts 7:1 Then the great priest said,
“Are these things so?”

Acts 7:2 And he said,
“Brothers and fathers, listen.
The Elohim of glory
appeared to our father Abraham
when he was in Mesopotamia,
prior to his dwelling in Haran.

Mesopotamia means exalted.

Haran means their mountain.

Acts 7:3 And He said to him, “*Get out of your country
and from your relatives,
and come to a land
that I will show you.*”

(Gen. 12.1)

Acts 7:4 Then he came out of the land of the Chaldeans and dwelt in Haran.
And from that place,
after his father had died,
He moved him to this land
in which you now are dwelling.

Chaldeans means clod breakers.

Acts 7:5 But He gave him no inheritance in it,
not even to set his foot upon.
Yet He promised to give it to him for a possession,
and to his descendants after him,
he having no child.

Acts 7:6 And YAHWEH spoke in this way,
that his descendants
would be aliens in a foreign land,
and that they would bring them into bondage
and do harm to them four hundred years.

Acts 7:7 *“And the nation
to whom they will be in bondage
I will judge,”* (Gen. 15.14)
said YAHWEH,
‘and after that they will come out and serve Me in this place.’ (Ex. 3.12)

Acts 7:8 And He gave to him
the covenant of circumcision.
And in this way he fathered Yitzhak.
And he circumcised him on the eighth day.
And Yitzhak fathered Ya'akov.
And Ya'akov fathered the twelve patriarchs.
Yitzhak means laughter.
Ya'akov means heel catcher; restrainer.

Acts 7:9 But the patriarchs having been jealous, sold Yoseph into Mitsraim.
But YAHWEH was with him.
Yoseph means he will add.
Mitsraim means dual straits, trouble.
(This is Egypt.)
Mitsraim is a son of Ham, son of Noah.
It's important to note this connection.

Acts 7:10 And He delivered him
out of all his troubles.
And He gave him favor and wisdom
in the presence of Pharaoh, king of Mitsraim.
And he established him
as governor over Mitsraim
and over his entire house.
Pharaoh means his nakedness.

Acts 7:11 Now a famine came upon the whole land of Mitsraim and Kena'an,
even great trouble.
And our forefathers found no food.
Acts 7:12 And Ya'akov, having heard grain existed in Mitsraim,
sent out our forefathers first.
Acts 7:13 And on the second occasion
Yoseph made himself known to his brothers.
And Yoseph's kindred became known to the Pharaoh.
Acts 7:14 Then Yoseph sent.
And he summoned his father,
Ya'akov, and all his relatives,
seventy-five people.
Acts 7:15 And Ya'akov went down to Mitsraim.
And he died, he and our forefathers.
Acts 7:16 And he was carried back to Shekem
and laid him in the tomb
that he bought for a sum of money
from the sons of Hamor of Shekem.
Genesis 33 records the purchase of land
from Hamor by Ya'akov, not Abraham,
after his return from Aram,
but it does not mention a tomb.

Shekem means ridge.
Hamor means an ass.

Acts 7:17 Now just as the time of the promise which YAHWEH had sworn to Abraham drew near the people grew and multiplied in Mitsraim

Acts 7:18 until a different king stood up
who was not aware of Yoseph.
Acts 7:19 This one dealt treacherously with our people.
And he oppressed our forefathers,
making them expose their babies
so that they might not live.

Acts 7:20 At this time Moshe was born.
And he was handsome to YAHWEH.
And he was brought up in his father's house
for three months.

Acts 7:21 But when he was exposed
Pharaoh's daughter took him and adopted him.
And she brought him up as her own son.

Acts 7:22 And Moshe was educated in all the wisdom of the Mitsraites.
And he was capable in words and in deeds.

Acts 7:23 Now when he was a full forty years old it rose up upon his heart to visit his brothers,
the children of Yisra'el.

Acts 7:24 And having seen one suffer wrong he defended and avenged him
who was being oppressed,
striking down the Mitsraite.

Acts 7:25 Now he thought his brothers might comprehend that YAHWEH
was giving to them a deliverance
by means of his hand,
but they did not comprehend it.

*soteria - rescue, safety
– deliver, health, save, salvation.
It's interesting how the term is the same,
but salvation is somehow
not typically used for this story.*

Acts 7:26 Then the next day
he appeared to two of them as they quarreled.
And he was reconciling them into peace saying,
'Men, you are kindred.

Why do you do wrong to one another?'

Acts 7:27 But he who did his neighbor wrong
pushed him away saying,

'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?'

Acts 7:28 Do you want to kill me
as you killed the Mitsraite yesterday?'

Acts 7:29 Then Moshe fled at this saying.
And he became a dweller in the land of Midyan
where he fathered two sons.

Midyan means contention.

Acts 7:30 And forty years having been completed,
there was seen by him
in the wilderness of Mount Sinai,
a messenger of YAHWEH
in a blazing fiery bush.

Sinai means my thorns.

Acts 7:31 Now Moshe, having seen it,
wondered at the spectacle.
But as he approached to observe it fully
the voice of YAHWEH came to him,

Acts 7:32 saying,

*"I am The Elohim of your fathers.
The Elohim of Abraham,
The Elohim of Yitzhak,
and The Elohim of Ya'akov."*

(Ex. 3.6, 15)

And Moshe became terrified.
And he dared not look at it fully.

*Note how in this passage
the messenger seems also
to actually be The Elohim, YAHWEH,*

Who speaks to Moshe personally.
What we tend to miss
is that a messenger was sent
as a deputy, an ambassador,
of the one who sent him.
As such he carried with him
the full authority of the one who sent him.
Thus when he speaks
it is the same as if the person who sent him is speaking.

Acts 7:33 Then YAHWEH said to him,
*'Put off your sandals from your feet
because the place on which you stand is consecrated ground.*

Acts 7:34 *I have surely seen
the oppression of My people who are in Mitsraim.
I have heard their groaning
and I have come down to rescue them.
And now come here.
I will send you into Mitsraim.''*
(Ex. 3.5,7-8, 10)

Acts 7:35 This Moshe
whom they rejected saying,
'Who made you a ruler and a judge?'
(Ex. 2.14)

is the same one YAHWEH sent to be a ruler and a redeemer
by the hand of the messenger
who appeared to him in the bush.

Acts 7:36 He led them forth,
having done wonders and signs
in the land of Mitsraim,
and in The Reed Sea,
and in the wilderness forty years.

Acts 7:37 This is the same Moshe
who said to the children of Yisra'el,
*'YAHWEH, your Elohim, will raise up for you
a prophet like me from your brothers.
Him you will listen to attentively.'*
(Deut. 18.15)

Acts 7:38 This is the same one who was in the assembly in the wilderness
with the messenger who spoke to him
at Mount Sinai and to our forefathers,
the one who received

the living utterance to give to us,
Acts 7:39 to whom our forefathers
decided not to listen attentively,
but rather pushed him away from them.
And in their hearts

they had turned back to Mitsraim,
Acts 7:40 saying to Aharon,
*"Make us gods to go before us.
As for this Moshe who brought us
out of the land of Mitsraim,
we do not know what has become of him.'*
(Ex. 32.1, 23)

Acts 7:41 And they fabricated
the image of a bullock in those days,
offered sacrifices to the image,
and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

Acts 7:42 And YAHWEH turned around and surrendered them
to worshipping the host of heaven,
even as it is written in the book of The Prophets:
"Did you offer Me slaughtered animals and sacrifices

during forty years in the wilderness, Oh house of Yisra'el?

Acts 7:43 *You also took up
the tabernacle of Moloch,
and the star of your god, Remphan,
images which you made to worship.
Now I will carry you away
beyond Babylon.'*

(Amos 5. 25-27)

Moloch means a king.
Remphan means the lifeless.
Babylon means confusion.

Acts 7:44 The Tent of The Testimony existed among our fathers in the wilderness
just as He had arranged, telling Moshe to make it
according to the pattern which he had seen,
Acts 7:45 which our forefathers,
having received it in turn,
also brought in with Yahoshua
into the land possessed by the Gentiles whom YAHWEH expelled
from the presence of our fathers
until the days of David,

Special Note: Many English texts
place the name "Jesus" here.

For two reasons this is very informative:
First, Joshua, of the OT,
was certainly not "Jesus",
nor was he ever known as such.
In Hebrew his name was Yahoshua.
It means YAH is deliverer, or salvation.

Second, this reveals the error
of calling The Messiah "Jesus".

This is a Greek name,
not a Hebrew name.

It is not, and has never been,
His proper Hebrew name.

It's a perversion of the text
that has been intentionally perpetuated
by terrible scholarship on the part of translators
for centuries now!

Note: See also Col. 4.11, Heb. 4.8.

Acts 7:46 who found favor
in the presence of YAHWEH
and asked to find a dwelling
for YAHWEH in Ya'akov.

Acts 7:47 Now Shelomoh built Him a House.

Acts 7:48 However,
The Most High does not dwell
in temples of human construction
just as the prophet says:

*"Heaven is My throne,
and earth is My footstool.*

Acts 7:49 *What house will you build for Me?
says YAHWEH,*
Or what is the place of My rest?

Acts 7:50 *Has My hand
not made all these things?'*

(Is. 66.1-2)

Acts 7:51 Stiff-necked and uncircumcised
in heart and ears!

You always oppose

The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH!

As your forefathers were, so are you!

Acts 7:52 Which of the prophets
did your forefathers not persecute?

They have even killed those who predicted the coming of The Just One, of Whom you have now become
the betrayers and murderers;

Acts 7:53 those who received The Torah
by the arrangement of messengers,
yet have not preserved it!"

Acts 7:54 Now having heard these things
they were exasperated in the heart.
And they grated their teeth at him.

Acts 7:55 But he, being full of
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
stared into The Heaven.

And he saw the splendor of YAHWEH,
and YAHUSHUA standing
at the right hand of YAHWEH.

Acts 7:56 And he said, "Behold!
I see The Heavens being opened and The Son of Man standing
at the right hand of YAHWEH!"

Acts 7:57 And they yelled with a great noise,
plugging their ears.

And they ran upon him violently
with one mind.

Acts 7:58 And they ejected him from the city.
And they stoned him.

And the witnesses set aside their garments
at the feet of a young man named Sha'ul.

Sha'ul means requested.

Acts 8:1(a) Now Sha'ul was in favor of his killing.

NOTE: The last verses of Chapter 7
and the first verses of Chapter 8 appear to be fragments
that are not placed in their proper order.
This affects the chapter break,
which is not properly located.
For the sake of thought continuity
they have been rearranged here.

Acts 7:59 And they stoned Stephen
as he was calling out and saying,
"Master, YAHUSHUA, receive my life."

Acts 7:60 Then he knelt down.
And he cried out with a loud voice,
"Master, do not charge them with this offense."
And having said this he died.

Chapter 8

(See note above on verse arrangements)

Acts 8:1 (8.2)

And devout men carried Stephen away.
And they made a great mourning over him.

Acts 8:2 (8.1b) Now at that time
there became a great persecution
upon the assembly which was at Yerushalaim.
And everyone was scattered abroad
throughout the regions of Yahudah and Shomeron except the ambassadors.

Acts 8:3 (8.4)

Therefore, those who were scattered
were traveling everywhere,
announcing the good news of the word.

Acts 8:4 (8.3)

Now Sha'ul was mistreating the assembly,
entering every house,
and dragging off men and women,
committing them to prison.

ekklesia – a calling out, i.e. a popular meeting,
especially a religious congregation
(Hebrew synagogue or Christian community of members on earth or saints in heaven or both).
This was an assembly of people.
There was no "church" in Yisra'el.
The only concept they had was that of an assembly.

Church is a religious term created much later.
It's an improper concept.
It does not agree with The Word of YAHWEH,
even though it's been placed there by terrible scholarship
created by "the traditions of men".

Acts 8:5 But Philip went down to the city of Shomeron.
And he proclaimed The Messiah to them.
Acts 8:6 And the crowds with one mind
paid close attention to the things spoken by Philip,
hearing and seeing the signs which he did.
Acts 8:7 Indeed, many of those were having unclean natures
which were crying with a loud voice
come out of them.

Notice the contrast between unclean natures
and the set apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH.
Here you have the concept of the clean (set apart, pure) and the unclean,
which runs throughout Scripture.
It really points to the undefiled and the defiled.

Now many who were paralyzed and crippled
were healed.

Acts 8:8 And there was great joy in that city.

Acts 8:9 But there was a certain man named Shim'on, who previously was practicing magic in the city.
And he astonished the people of Shomeron,
claiming that he was someone great,
mageuo – to practice magic - use sorcery.

Acts 8:10 to whom they all paid attention
from the least to the greatest saying,
"This man is the great power of The Elohim."

Note: Not just to "a god".

Acts 8:11 And they paid attention to him
because for a long time
he had astonished them
with his magic practices.

Acts 8:12 Now when they believed Philip as he proclaimed the things concerning
The Kingdom of YAHWEH
and the Name of YAHUSHUA,
The Messiah, they were baptized,
both men and women.

Acts 8:13 And Shim'on himself also believed.
And having been baptized he was with Philip.
And he was astounded,
watching both the signs and wonders
which were happening.

Acts 8:14 Now when the ambassadors who were at Yerushalaim heard that Shomeron
had received the word of YAHWEH

they sent Peter and Yahanathan to them,
Acts 8:15 who, having come down,
prayed concerning them
in order that they might receive

The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
Acts 8:16 because as yet it had fallen upon none of them.

They merely had now been baptized
into the Name of The Master, YAHUSHUA.

epiipto – to embrace (with affection)
or seize with violence
– fall into/upon, lie on, press upon.
The concept is that
of being bestowed upon them.

Acts 8:17 At that time
they laid hands upon them.

And they received
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH.
Note that with the laying on of hands
these people received the nature of YAHWEH.
They did NOT see or meet any "person".

Acts 8:18 Now when Shim'on saw that through the laying on
of the ambassadors' hands
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
was given,
he offered money to them
Acts 8:19 saying,
"Give this authority even to me also so that anyone upon whom I lay hands
may receive
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH."

Acts 8:20 But Peter said to him,
"Your money be destroyed with you because you have thought that the gift of YAHWEH
is acquired through money!
Note the concept of a gift.
One does not give a "person" as a gift.
And a gift is something one retains
for their own use/benefit.

Acts 8:21 You are neither part nor parcel in this matter because your heart is not right before YAHWEH.
Acts 8:22 Reconsider your actions therefore concerning this depravity of yours!
And beg YAHWEH,
if perhaps the purpose of your heart
might be forgiven you Acts 8:23 because I discern clearly that you are poisoned by bitterness and controlled by injustice."
Acts 8:24 But Shim'on answered and said,
"Beg The Master for me
in order that none of the things which you have uttered come upon me."

Acts 8:25 Therefore,
having witnessed thoroughly
and having spoken the word of YAHWEH, they returned to Yerushalaim
also proclaiming the good news
in many villages of the Shomeronites.

Acts 8:26 Then a messenger of YAHWEH
spoke to Philip saying,
"Arise and travel toward the south
upon the road which goes down from Yerushalaim into Azzah."
(This is a desert.)
Azzah means strong.
This is modern day Gaza.

Acts 8:27 And he arose and traveled.
And behold!
A man of Ethiopia, a eunuch,
an official of Candace,
Queen of the Ethiopians,
who was over all her treasure
who had come into Yerushalaim to worship
Ethiopia means black.
Candace means a sting.

Acts 8:28 was returning.
And sitting in his chariot
he was reading Yeshayah, the prophet.

Acts 8:29 Then The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
said to Philip,
"Approach and join up with this chariot."

Acts 8:30 So Philip ran to him.
And he heard him
reading the prophet, Yeshayah,
And he said, "Do you know for certain what you are reading?"
Acts 8:31 Then he said,
"How can I
unless someone shows me the way?"
And he invited Philip
to come up and sit with him.

Acts 8:32 Now the passage in The Scripture
which he was reading was this:
*"He was led like a sheep to the slaughter;
and as a lamb before its shearer is silent,
so He opened not His mouth.*
Acts 8:33 *In His humiliation
His justice was taken away,
and who will declare His generation?
For His life is taken from the earth."*
(Is. 53.7-8)

Acts 8:34 And the eunuch
responding to Philip said,
"I beg you, concerning whom does the prophet say this;
of himself or of some other man?"
Acts 8:35 And Philip,
having opened his mouth,
and beginning at this same Scripture,
proclaimed the good news
of YAHUSHUA to him.
This is noteworthy!
Beginning with Isaiah,
Philip proclaimed the "gospel of YAHUSHUA!"

Oh that we might be so well versed in Scripture
that we could do the very same thing!

Acts 8:36 Now as they traveled on the road
they came to some water.
And the eunuch said, "Behold! Water.
What prevents me from being baptized?"
Acts 8:37 Then Philip said,
"If you trust with your whole heart it is proper."
Trust is the essence of faith or belief.
It is only through placing your trust 100% in YAHWEH
that you or anyone else
will ever be granted deliverance.

This is a point missed by many who seem to think that simply believing God exists
will somehow cause them to be "saved".

True "faith" takes a full commitment to YAHWEH
- a covenant sealed
by the blood of YAHUSHUA.

Then he responded saying,
"I believe that YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
is The Son of YAHWEH!"
Acts 8:38 And he ordered the chariot to stand still.
And they went down into the water,
both Philip and the eunuch.
And he baptized him.

Acts 8:39 Now when they had come up out of the water
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH seized Phillip.
And the eunuch saw him no longer.
Indeed, he traveled on his way rejoicing.
harpazo means to seize.
It comes from a term that means
to take for oneself; to choose.

In this instance The nature of YAHWEH grabbed Phillip and took him away.

Acts 8:40 But Philip was found at Azotus.
And traveling through
he proclaimed the good news
in all the towns until he came to Caesarea.
Azotus is the same as Ashdod,
which means I will spoil.
It's quite some distance away from the road Phillip and the
had been traveling upon.

Chapter 9

Acts 9:1 Now Sha'ul,
still breathing threats and murder
toward the students of The Master,
went to the great priest.

kurios – supreme in authority,
i.e. controller, Master.
– God, Lord, master, Sir.
It's very easy to see by this "definition"
and the identified forms of translation,
why it's so confusing.
Each time it occurs one would have to stop
and ask to which one of these it applies.
This is particularly problematic
when it's assigned to "God",
or to "The Lord (as "Jesus")".
In this passage it refers to YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.
But since He is not referred to by "name"
the term Master has been used.

Acts 9:2 And he requested letters from him
to the assemblies of Damascus
so that if he found any who were of "The Way",
whether men or women,
he might lead them bound to Yerushalaim.

YAHUSHUA is The Way
- Yahonathan 14.6.
His followers were known as "The Way"
at this point in history.
Damascus means sackcloth weaver.

Acts 9:3 Now as he was traveling
he was approaching Damascus.
And suddenly a light flashed all around him
from the skies.

Acts 9:4 And he fell upon the ground.
And he heard a voice saying to him,
"Sha'ul! Sha'ul!

Why are you persecuting Me?"

Acts 9:5 And he said, "Who are You, Master?"

Then The Master said,

"I am YAHUSHUA,

Whom you are persecuting.

It is difficult for you to kick against the goads."

recalcitrant - be in stubborn opposition;
sharp points, or, the divine impulse

Acts 9:6 He, both trembling
and being astonished, said,
"Master, what do You desire me to do?"

Then The Master said to him,

"Get up and enter into the city!

Then you will be told what you need to do."

Acts 9:7 Now the men who were traveling with him stood speechless, indeed hearing the voice,
but observing no one.

Acts 9:8 Then Sha'ul got up off the ground.
But having his eyes open
he saw not even one thing.
Then they led him by the hand.
And they brought him into Damascus.

Acts 9:9 And he existed three days without seeing.
And he neither ate nor drank.

Acts 9:10 Now there was a certain student at Damascus named Hananyah.
And The Master spoke to him in a vision, “Hananyah!”

And he said, “I am here, Master.”

Acts 9:11 Then The Master said to him,
“Get up!

Go upon the narrow way which is called Straight and seek one named Sha'ul of Tarsus
of the house of Yahudah

because, behold, he is praying to YAHWEH.

See Matt. 7.14

to grasp the significance of this instruction.

Tarsus means a flat basket.

Acts 9:12 Also, he has seen in a vision
a man named Hananyah
entering in and laying hands upon him
so that he might recover his sight.”

Acts 9:13 Then this Hananyah responded, “Master, I have heard from many concerning this very man,
how much harm he has done
to Your set apart ones in Yerushalaim.

Acts 9.14 And in this place he has authority
from the chief priests
to bind all who call upon Your Name.”

Acts 9:15 But The Master said to him, “Go, because this one is a chosen vessel of Mine
to lift My Name before Gentiles, kings,
and even the children of Yisra'el.

Acts 9:16 Indeed, I will reveal to him
how much he must endure
for the sake of My Name.”

Lit. - under his eyes,

or “right before his own eyes”,

in the vernacular.

Acts 9:17 Then Hananyah went.
And he entered into the house.
And laying his hands upon him he said,
“Brother Sha'ul, The Master, YAHUSHUA, Whom you saw on the road
as you were coming has sent me
so that you might recover your sight
and be filled
with The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.”

Acts 9:18 And immediately
there fell off from his eyes
as if it were scales.

And his sight was restored instantly.

And he got up and was baptized.

Acts 9:19 And when he had received food
he was strengthened.

Then Sha'ul spent some days
with the students at Damascus.

Acts 9:20 And immediately
he proclaimed The Messiah in the assemblies,
that He is The Son of YAHWEH.

Acts 9:21 Now all who were listening
were astounded and said, “Is this not he who was ravaging those who were calling upon this Name
in Yerushalaim
and has come here for that same thing
in order that he might lead them bound

to the chief priests?"
Acts 9:22 And Sha'ul was empowered more.
And he confounded the Yisra'elites
who dwelt in Damascus,
proving that this One is The Messiah Himself.

Acts 9:23 Now after sufficient days
were accomplished
the Yisra'elite leaders plotted to kill him.
Acts 9:24 But their plot became known to Sha'ul.
They even watched the gates
day and night to kill him.
Acts 9:25 But the students took him by night.
And they lowered him down through the wall
in a large basket.

Acts 9:26 Now when Sha'ul had come to Yerushalaim
he attempted to join the students.
But they were all afraid of him.
And they did not believe that he was a student.

This is an important thing to note.
It verifies that Sha'ul
was not taught by these people
concerning The Messiah.

Acts 9:27 Then Bar Nabas grabbed him.
And he brought him to the ambassadors.
And he related fully to them
how he had seen The Master on the road,
and that He had spoken to him,
and how he had spoken boldly at Damascus
in the Name of YAHUSHUA.

Acts 9:28 And he was among them at Yerushalaim,
coming in and going out.
Acts 9:29 And he spoke boldly
in the Name of The Master, YAHUSHUA.
And he disputed against the Hellenists.
And they undertook to kill him.
Acts 9:30 But having recognized it
the brothers brought him down to Caesarea.
And they sent him away to Tarsus.
Acts 9:31 Therefore,
the assemblies throughout all Yahudah,
Galil, and Shomeron had peace.
And they were being built up.
And traveling in the reverence of The Master
and in the encouragement
of The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
they were increasing.

Acts 9:32 Now it was as Peter traveled through everywhere.
And he also came down to the set apart ones
who were dwelling in Lydda.

Lydda means travail.

Acts 9:33 And there he found a certain person named Aeneas,
who had been bedridden eight years.
And he was paralyzed.

Aeneas means to praise.

Acts 9:34 And Peter said to him,
"Aeneas, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, cures you.
Stand up and make your bed!"
And he stood up immediately.

Acts 9:35 And all who were dwelling
at Lydda and Sharon observed this.
And they turned to The Master.

Sharon means observation.

Acts 9:36 Now there was at Yoppa
a certain student named Tabitha, which is translated Dorcas.

Yoppa means fair to him.

Tabitha means a gazelle.
Dorcas means the same.

This woman was full of good works
and charitable deeds which she did.
Acts 9:37 But it happened in those days
that she became sick and died.
And having washed her,
they laid her in an upper room.

Acts 9:38 Now Lydda was near Yoppa.
And the students having heard that Peter was there sent two men to him,
inviting him to not delay in coming to them.
Acts 9:39 Then Peter arose and went with them.
Having arrived they brought him to the upper room.
Now all the widows stood beside him sobbing and displaying the tunics and robes which Dorcas had made
while she was with them.

Acts 9:40 Then Peter put them all outside.
And he knelt down.
And he prayed to YAHWEH.
And turning to the body he said,
"Tabitha, get up!"
And she opened her eyes.
And having seen Peter she sat up.
Acts 9:41 Then he gave her a hand and stood her up.
And having called the set apart ones and widows
he presented her alive.

Acts 9:42 Now it became well known throughout all Yoppa.
And many believed concerning The Master.
Acts 9:43 And it happened that he stayed sufficient days in Yoppa
with Shim'on, a tanner.

Chapter 10

Acts 10:1 There was a certain man in Caesarea named Cornelius, a centurion
who was in the squad called Italian, Cornelius means pitiless self-satisfaction.

Acts 10:2 a devout man
and one who revered YAHWEH
with all his household,
who gave many good things to the people
and petitioned YAHWEH continually.
Acts 10:3 About the ninth hour of the day
he saw clearly in a vision
a messenger of YAHWEH
coming in and saying to him, "Cornelius!" Acts 10:4 And having gazed intently at him
he became frightened and said,
"What is it, Master?"
Then He said to him,
"Your prayers and your kindnesses to the poor
have come up as a reminder before YAHWEH.
Acts 10:5 Now also, send men to Yoppa
and summon Shim'on whose surname is Peter.
Acts 10:6 He is a guest with a certain Shim'on,
a tanner, whose house is beside the sea.
He will tell you what you must do."

Acts 10:7 Now when the messenger
who spoke to Cornelius had departed
he called for two of his household servants
and a well respected soldier
of those who served him diligently.
Acts 10:8 And having explained everything to them
he sent them to Yoppa.

Acts 10:9 Now the next day as they traveled
and were approaching the town

Peter had gone up on the housetop
to pray to YAHWEH about the sixth hour.
Acts 10:10 And he became intensely hungry.
And he wanted to eat.

But while they were preparing
he fell into a state of ecstasy.
Acts 10:11 And he observed
the skies being opened up and a certain object descending toward him
like a great linen cloth
bound at the four corners
and lowered upon the earth.

Acts 10:12 In it were all kinds of four footed animals of the earth,
even wild animals, and crawling things,
and birds of the sky.

therion – a dangerous animal. – wild beast.

Acts 10:13 And a voice came to him, “Stand up, Peter!
Kill and eat!”

Acts 10:14 But Peter said,
“By no means, Master,
because I have never eaten anything common.”

Something common is profane or ceremonially unclean - defiled.

Acts 10:15 And a voice spoke to him again
the second time,
“What YAHWEH has cleansed
you must not call common.”

Acts 10:16 Now this happened three times.
And the object was taken up into the skies again.

Acts 10:17 And while Peter was perplexed within himself
what this vision which he had seen might mean,
behold!

The men who had been sent from Cornelius
had inquired concerning Shim'on's house.
And they stood before the entrance.

Acts 10:18 And they called.
And they asked whether Shim'on,
whose surname was Peter, was lodging there.

Acts 10:19 While Peter was perplexed in himself about what the vision might mean
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH said to him,
“Behold!

Three men are seeking you.
Acts 10:20 Arise therefore and go down.
And travel with them, hesitating at nothing,
in as much as I have sent them.”

Acts 10:21 Now Peter went down to the men who had been sent to him from Cornelius.
And he said, “Behold!
I am he whom you seek.

For what reason have you come?”
Acts 10:22 Then they said, “Cornelius, a centurion,
a just man, and one who reveres YAHWEH
and has a good reputation
among the whole nation of the Yisra'elites,
was called upon by a set apart messenger
to invite you to his house
and to hear a message from you.”

Acts 10:23 Then he invited them in
and he made them guests.
Now on the next day
Peter departed with them.
And some brothers from Yoppa accompanied him.
Acts 10:24 And the following day
they entered Caesarea.
And Cornelius was waiting for them.

And he had called together
his relatives and close friends.

Acts 10:25 Now as Peter was coming in Cornelius met him.
And he fell down at his feet and worshiped.
Acts 10:26 But Peter lifted him up saying,
"Stand up.

I myself am also a human being."
Acts 10:27 And as they conversed he entered.
And he found many who had assembled.
Acts 10:28 Then he said to them,
"You comprehend that it is illegal for an Yisra'elite man to associate with or to approach one of another nation.
Yet YAHWEH has shown me that I should not call any person common or unclean.

Acts 10:29 Because of this
I came without question, having been invited.
I ask therefore
for what reason you have invited me?"
Acts 10:30 So Cornelius said,
"Four days ago I was fasting until this hour.
And at the ninth hour
I was praying to YAHWEH in my house.
And behold!
A man stood before me in radiant clothing.
Acts 10:31 And he said,
'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your kindnesses to the poor
are remembered in the presence of YAHWEH.
Acts 10:32 Send therefore to Yoppa
and summon here Shim'on,
whose surname is Peter.
He is a guest in the house of Shim'on,
a tanner, by the sea.
Having arrived he will speak to you.'

Acts 10:33 Therefore, I sent to you immediately.
And you have done well to have come.
Now therefore,
we are all present before YAHWEH
to hear everything directed to you by YAHWEH.

Acts 10:34 Then Peter opening his mouth said,
"Because of truth
I comprehend that YAHWEH shows no partiality,
Acts 10:35 but rather in every nation
whoever reveres Him and does right acts
is accepted by Him.

Acts 10:36 The word which He sent to the children of Yisra'el
proclaiming good news of peace
through YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
- He is Master of everything - that message you understand.
Acts 10:37 It was proclaimed throughout all Yahudah,
even beginning from Galil,
according to the baptism which Yathonathan proclaimed,
Acts 10:38 how YAHWEH anointed
YAHUSHUA of Nazareth
with The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
and with miraculous power.
He traveled about doing good and curing all who were oppressed by The False Accuser
because YAHWEH was with Him.

Acts 10:39 And we are witnesses
of everything which He did,
both in the land of the Yisra'elites
and in Yerushalaim.

Him they murdered,
hanging Him upon a tree.
Acts 10:40 This One YAHWEH raised up
on the third day.
And He caused Him to become visible,
Acts 10:41 not to all the people,
but to witnesses chosen in advance by YAHWEH;
to us who ate and drank with Him
after He had been raised up from being dead.
Acts 10:42 And He instructed us
to proclaim to the people,
and to testify that it is He Who was appointed by YAHWEH
as a judge of living and dead.

Acts 10:43 To Him
all the prophets give witness that through His Name
whoever is trusting in Him
will receive pardon of offenses.”

Acts 10:44 While Peter
was still speaking these words
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
embraced every one of those listening to the message.
epippito - to embrace (with affection) or seize.
A "person" cannot "fall upon" everyone at once.

Acts 10:45 And the faithful of the circumcision
were astounded,
as many as had come with Peter,
that the gift
of The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
had been bestowed upon the Gentiles also.

The importance of this event
cannot be overstated!
This event clearly establishes
The New Covenant,
because it reaches beyond Yisra'el
to The Gentiles (non-Yisra'elites).

Acts 10:46 Indeed, they heard them
speaking with tongues
and magnifying YAHWEH.

Then Peter responded,
Acts 10:47 “Can anyone forbid water
so that these might not be baptized
who have received
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
exactly like us?”

Acts 10:48 And he directed them
to be baptized in the Name of YAHWEH.
Then they asked him to remain certain days.

Here, is another instance of the gross confusion caused by the use of “The Lord”.

It is the Name of YAHWEH
into which we are to be baptized,
not “The Lord”.

YAHUSHUA Himself
was baptized by Yahanathan
and most assuredly
would not have been baptized
in His own Name.
He would have been baptized
in (or into) the Name of YAHWEH.
This is the only Name into which a believer ought to be baptized.

YAHUSHUA came,
not to do His own will,
but to do that of The Father.
He did not serve Himself,
He served YAHWEH.
We are to do as He did.

Chapter 11

Acts 11:1 Now the ambassadors and brothers who were in Yahudah heard that the Gentiles had also received The Word of YAHWEH.

A reminder: logos = Word.
Clearly The Logos,
as revealed in the opening verses of John,
is The Messiah.
It was not merely the message
(word) of YAHWEH
that was received, but The Messiah.

Acts 11:2 And when Peter went up to Yerushalaim those of the circumcision contended with him

Acts 11:3 saying,
“You went in to uncircumcised men
and ate with them!”

Acts 11:4 But Peter explained to them in order from the beginning, saying, Acts 11:5 “I was in the town of Yoppa, praying to YAHWEH.

And in a state of ecstasy I saw a vision,
a certain object descending
like a great linen cloth
lowered out of the skies by four corners.
And it came to me.

Acts 11:6 Having gazed intently at it
I contemplated it.
And I saw the four footed animals of the earth,
wild animals, creeping things,
and birds of the sky.

Acts 11:7 And I heard a voice saying to me,
‘Rise, Peter! Kill and eat!’

Acts 11:8 But I said, ‘Not so, Master, because nothing common or unclean
has at any time entered my mouth.’

Acts 11:9 But the voice responded to me
once more from skies,
‘What YAHWEH has cleansed
you must not call common.’

Acts 11:10 Now this was done three times.
And everything was drawn up again
into the skies.

Acts 11:11 And behold!
Immediately three men
stood before the house where I was,
having been sent to me from Caesarea.

Acts 11:12 Then The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
told me to go with them without hesitation.
Moreover, these six brothers went with me.

And we entered the man’s house.
Acts 11:13 And he declared to us
how he had seen a messenger
standing in his house, who said to him, ‘Send men to Yoppa, and summon Shim’on,
whose surname is Peter,

Acts 11:14 who will explain the matter to you
by which you and all your household
will be delivered.’

Acts 11:15 Now as I began to speak
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
came upon them
exactly as upon us at the beginning.

Acts 11:16 Then I remembered
the saying of The Master,
how He said,
‘Yahonathan indeed baptized with water,
but you will be baptized with
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH.’

Acts 11:17 If therefore YAHWEH has given to them the same gift as to us who are trusting concerning The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, who was I to be able to stop YAHWEH?"

Acts 11:18 Now having heard these things they kept still.
And they honored YAHWEH saying, "Without a doubt YAHWEH has also given to the Gentiles reconsideration into Eternal Life."

Acts 11:19 Those indeed who therefore had been scattered because of the persecution that happened concerning Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one but the Yisra'elites only.
Phoenicia means palm land.
Cyprus means love; a blossom.
Antioch means driven against.

Acts 11:20 And some of them were men from Cyprus and Cyrene who having come to Antioch spoke to the Hellenists proclaiming The Master, YAHUSHUA.
Acts 11:21 And the hand of YAHWEH was with them. And a great number were believing. And they turned to The Master.

Acts 11:22 Now word concerning these things was being heard in the ears of the assembly at Yerushalaim. And they sent out Bar Nabas to travel as far as Antioch, Acts 11:23 who having arrived and having seen the favor of YAHWEH was happy. And he encouraged them all that with purpose of heart they should continue with The Master.
Acts 11:24 Because he was a good man and full of The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH and of faith, even a significant group was added to The Master.

Acts 11:25 Then Bar Nabas departed for Tarsus to seek Sha'ul.
Acts 11:26 And when he had found him he brought him to Antioch. Now it happened that for a whole year they gathered with the assembly. And they taught a significant group. Also, the students were first called Christians in Antioch.

This is most unfortunate.
Early believers were, first and foremost Hebrews, not Gentiles.
It was to them that The Messiah was promised, and delivered.
History records that the term Christian was actually intended as a derogatory term, not a favorable one.
It was used by the Gnostics, a group of Yisra'elites in Antioch, who sought to discourage other Yisra'elites from following YAHUSHUA.

Also, the term "Christ" is a Greek creation, not a Hebrew term.

While it also means "anointed",
it should never have replaced Messaia,
the proper Greek word for The Messiah.
Believers in The Messiah should NEVER have been referred to as "Christians".
It is heresy!

Antioch means driven against.

Acts 11:27 And in those days prophets came from Yerushalaim to Antioch.
Acts 11:28 And one of them named Agabus stood up and indicated through
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
that there would be a great famine
upon the whole land,
even like happened in the days of Claudius Caesar.
Agabus means a grasshopper.
Claudius means whining.
Caesar means severed.

Acts 11:29 Now the students,
each according to his means,
determined to send relief
to the brothers dwelling in Yahudah.
Acts 11:30 This they also did.
And they sent it to the elders by the hands
of Bar Nabas and Sha'ul.

Chapter 12

Acts 12:1 Now about that time Herod the king stretched out a hand
to injure some from the assembly.
Acts 12:2 Now he killed Ya'akov,
the brother of Yahanathan, with a sword.
Acts 12:3 And having seen that it was pleasing to the Yisra'elite leaders
he proceeded further to seize Peter also.

Now it was the Days of Unleavened Bread.
Acts 12:4 And having arrested him,
he put him in prison,
delivering him to four squads
of soldiers to watch him,
intending to bring him out to the people
during Passover.
Acts 12:5 Peter therefore was guarded in the prison.
And fervent prayer was offered to YAHWEH for him by the assembly.

Acts 12:6 Now when Herod
was about to bring him out, that very night
Peter was sleeping between two soldiers,
bound with two manacles.
And the sentries in front of the door
were guarding the prison.
Acts 12:7 And behold!
A messenger of YAHWEH was present.
And a light shone in the prison.
Then he nudged Peter on his side.
And he awakened him saying,
"Stand up quickly!"
And his manacles fell off his hands.
Acts 12:8 The messenger also said to him,
"Gird yourself and tie on your sandals!"
And so he did.
And he said to him,
"Put on your garment and follow me!"
Acts 12:9 And he went out following him,
And he did not understand that what was done
by the messenger was real.
And it seemed he was seeing a vision.

Acts 12:10 Now having passed the first and the second guard posts

they came to the iron gate
that leads into the city
which opened up to them automatically.
And they went out.
And they proceeded down one street.
And immediately
the messenger departed from him.

Acts 12:11 And Peter,
having come to himself, said,
"Now I truly understand that YAHWEH
has sent His messenger.
And He has rescued me
out of the hand of Herod
and all the anticipated harm of the people of the Yisra'elite leadership."

Acts 12:12 Then, having contemplated,
he went to the house of Miryam,
the mother of Yahanathan,
whose surname was Mark,
where many were gathered together
and praying to YAHWEH.
Mark means a defence.

Acts 12:13 Now as Peter was knocking at the door of the gate
a girl named Rhoda approached to listen.
Rhoda means a rose.

Acts 12:14 And having recognized
Peter's voice, because of her delight,
she did not open the gate.
But she ran in announcing that Peter was standing in front of the gate.

Acts 12:15 But they said to her,
"You are raving like a maniac!"
But she confidently affirmed that it was so.
Then they said, "It is his messenger."
*This is likely a scribal correction.
More likely, they would have said,
"It is his ghost."*

Acts 12:16 But Peter continued knocking.
Then having opened and having seen him,
they were astounded.

Acts 12:17 And motioning to them with his hand
to keep silent he related fully to them
how YAHWEH had brought him out of the prison.
And he said,
"Report these things to Ya'akov
and to the brothers."
And he departed, traveling to another place.

Acts 12:18 Now daytime having happened
there was no small disturbance among the soldiers
about what had become of Peter.

Acts 12:19 And Herod, having searched for him
and not having found him,
interrogated the guards.
And he commanded they be put to death.
And he went down from Yahudah
to Caesarea and stayed.

Acts 12:20 Now Herod had been very angry
with the people of Tzor and Tzidon.
But they drew near to him with one mind.
And having befriended Blastus,
at that time the king's personal aide,
they asked for peace because their country
was supplied with food by the king's country.

Acts 12:21 Now on an appointed day Herod,
arrayed in royal apparel, sat on his throne.
And he gave a public speech to them.

Acts 12:22 And the people shouted,
"The voice of a god and not of a human being!"

Acts 12:23 Then instantly
a messenger of YAHWEH struck him
because he did not give the honor to YAHWEH.
And he became diseased with maggots and died.

Acts 12:24 And the Word of YAHWEH
grew and increased.

Acts 12:25 Then Bar Nabas and Sha'ul
returned from Yerushalaim
having fulfilled their ministry.
And they also took with them Yahonathan, surnamed Mark.

Chapter 13

Acts 13:1 Now in the assembly
that was at Antioch
there were certain prophets and teachers,
Bar Nabas, Simeon, who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen, who had been brought up with Herod, the tetrarch, and Sha'ul.

Bar Nabas means son of consolation.
Simeon means attentive listening.
Niger means black.
Lucius means light; bright.
Cyrene means supremacy of the bridle.
Manaen means comforter.
Sha'ul means requested.

Acts 13:2 And as they were ministering
to YAHWEH and fasting,
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH said,
"Now separate to Me both Bar Nabas and Sha'ul
for the work to which I have called them."

Acts 13:3 Then having fasted
and having prayed,
and having laid hands on them
they sent them away.

Acts 13:4 Therefore, having been sent away
by The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
they went down into Seleucia.

And from there they sailed to Cyprus.
Acts 13:5 And when they came into Salamis
they proclaimed the word of YAHWEH
in the assemblies of the Yisra'elites.
They also had Yahonathan as an assistant.

Acts 13:6 Then having traveled over the island
as far as Paphos,
they found a certain magician,
a false prophet,
an Yisra'elite whose name was Bar Jesus,

Seleucia means white light.
Cyprus means love; a blossom.
Salamis means a surging.
Paphos means suffering.
Bar-Jesus means Son of The anointed.
Note that he is identified as a false prophet.

Acts 13:7 who was with the proconsul,
Sergius Paulus, a perceptive man.
This man summoned Bar Nabas and Sha'ul,
desiring to hear the word of YAHWEH.

Sergius means earth-born.
Paulus means little.

Acts 13:8 But Elymas, the magician (because thus his name is translated) opposed them, seeking to turn the proconsul
away from belief.

Elymas means a wizard.

Acts 13:9 But Sha'ul, who is also Paul,
filled with
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH,

looked intently at him.

The note identifying Sha'ul as Paul is obviously a scribal addition to the text.

Acts 13:10 And he said,
"Oh full of every deceit
and every reckless act,
son of The Adversary,
enemy of all right acts,
you will not stop perverting
the straight paths of YAHWEH.

Acts 13:11 And now behold!
The hand of YAHWEH is upon you!
And you will be blind,
not seeing the sun until the proper time."
And instantly there fell upon him
dimness of sight and obscurity.
And he went around seeking someone
to lead him by the hand.

Acts 13:12 Then the proconsul
having seen what happened believed,
being astonished at the teaching of YAHWEH.

Acts 13:13 Now Sha'ul and those around him,
having set sail from Paphos,
came to Perga of Pamphylia.
But Yahanathan, departing from them,
returned to Yerushalaim.

Acts 13:14 Then having traveled from Perga,
they arrived in Antioch of Pisidia
and having entered into the assembly
on The Sabbath Day, sat down.

Pisidia means right persuasion.

Acts 13:15 And after the reading of The Torah and The Prophets
the rulers of the assembly
sent to them saying, "Men, brothers,
if you have any word of encouragement
for the people, speak."

Acts 13:16 Then Sha'ul stood up.
And motioning with a hand he said,
"Men of Yisra'el,
and you who revere YAHWEH,
listen attentively!

Acts 13:17 The Elohim of this people, Yisra'el, chose our forefathers
and exalted the people living as foreigners
in the land of Mitsraim.

And with a raised arm
He lead them forth from there.

Acts 13:18 And for a time of about forty years
He endured their habits in the wilderness.

Acts 13:19 And having demolished
seven nations in the land of Kena'an
He apportioned their land to them by lot.

Acts 13:20 After that He gave judges for about four hundred and fifty years until Shemu'el, the prophet.

Shemu'el means heard by El.

Acts 13:21 And afterward they asked for a king.
And YAHWEH gave them Sha'ul, the son of Kish,
a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years.

Kish means a snare.

Benjamin means son of the right hand.

Acts 13:22 And having deposed him
He raised up for them David as king,
to whom also He testified saying,

*"I have found David, the son of Yishai,
a man after My own heart,
who will do all My will."*

(Psa. 89.20, 1Sam. 13.14)

Acts 13:23 From this man's seed,
according to a promise,
YAHWEH raised up for Yisra'el a deliverer, YAHUSHUA,

Acts 13:24 Yahanathan having proclaimed
His coming in advance
by a baptism of reconsideration
to all the people of Yisra'el.

Acts 13:25 Now as Yahanathan
was finishing his career he said,
'Who do you think I am?

I am not He.

But on the other hand, behold!

One comes after me,
the sandals of whose feet
I am not worthy to loosen.'

Acts 13:26 Men, brothers, sons of the offspring of Abraham,
and those among you who revere YAHWEH,
to you the word of this rescue
has been set apart.

Acts 13:27 Indeed,
those dwelling in Yerushalaim
and their rulers, having not known Him,
have fulfilled even the voices of The Prophets which are being read
according to every Sabbath Day, condemning Him.

Acts 13:28 Yet having found no cause for death,
they asked Pilate to kill Him.

Acts 13:29 Now when they had fulfilled absolutely everything that was written concerning Him
they lowered Him from the tree
and placed Him in a tomb.

Acts 13:30 But YAHWEH raised Him up
from being dead.

*Lit. deadness, a noun,
with no article in the Greek.*

Acts 13:31 He was observed over many days
by those who came up with Him
from The Galil to Yerushalaim.
These are His witnesses to the people.

Acts 13:32 And we announce good news to you,
that the promise

which was made to the forefathers

Acts 13:33 YAHWEH has accomplished entirely for us, their children,

in that He has raised up YAHUSHUA,
even as it is written in the second Psalm:

"You are My Son.

Today I have begotten You.'

(Psa. 2.7)

Acts 13:34 Now,
because He has been raised up
from the state of being dead,
no longer to return to decay,
He has spoken in this manner:

"I will give you the sure mercies of David.'

(Is. 55.3)

Acts 13:35 Therefore He also says
in another place:

"You will not allow Your Set Apart One to see corruption.' (Psa. 16.10)

Acts 13:36 Indeed, David,
having served his own generation

by the will of YAHWEH, died.
He was also placed with his forefathers
and saw decay.

There is a tradition of placing the bones of a dead person
in an ossuary, or box,
with the bones of one's ancestors.

Acts 13:37 Yet He Whom YAHWEH
has raised up has seen no decay.

Acts 13:38 Therefore, let it be well known to you, brothers,
that through this One is proclaimed to you
the pardon of offenses.

Acts 13:39 And in Him everyone who trusts
is rendered innocent from everything from which you were not able to be justified
by The Torah of Moshe.

Acts 13:40 Watch out, therefore,
lest what has been spoken
by the prophets comes upon you:

Acts 13:41 *'Behold you despisers,
marvel and perish!
For I work a work in your days,
a work which you will by no means believe,
though one were to declare it to you.'*
(Hab. 1.5)

Acts 13:42 Now the Yisra'elites
having gone out of the assembly,
the Gentiles encouraged that these matters
might be told to them on the next Sabbath.
Acts 13:43 Then, the assembly having dissolved,
many of the Yisra'elites
and devout proselytes
accompanied Sha'ul and Bar Nabas,
who, talking to them,
persuaded them to continue
in the favor of YAHWEH.

Acts 13:44 Now the next Sabbath having come,
almost the whole city came together
to hear the word of YAHWEH.

Acts 13:45 But the leaders of the Yisra'elites,
having seen the crowds,
were filled with jealousy.
And they disputed
the things spoken by Sha'ul,
contradicting and blaspheming.

Acts 13:46 Then Sha'ul and Bar Nabas
became bold, saying,
"It was necessary that the word of YAHWEH
was spoken to you first.
But since you reject it
and are distinguishing yourselves
as not worthy of Eternal Life, behold!
We are turning to the Gentiles!

Acts 13:47 Indeed, in this manner
YAHWEH has directed us,
*'I have set you as a light to the Gentiles,
that you should be for deliverance
to the ends of the earth.'*
(Is. 49.6)

Acts 13:48 Now the Gentiles,
having heard this, were happy.
And they honored the word of YAHWEH.
And as many as were disposed toward Eternal Life believed.

Acts 13:49 And the word of YAHWEH
was being carried through the whole region.
Acts 13:50 But the leaders of the Yisra'elites,
having stirred up

the respected and prominent women
and the chief men of the city, aroused persecution against Sha'ul and Bar Nabas.
And they ejected them out of their region.

Acts 13:51 And they shook off
the dust from their feet
against them and went to Iconium.

Iconium means image-like.

Acts 13:52 And the students were filled with joy and with
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

Chapter 14

Acts 14:1 Now it happened at Iconium concerning them that they entered
the synagogue of the Yisra'elites.

And they spoke so that a great number both of the Yisra'elites
and of the Greeks believed.

Acts 14:2 But the disbelieving Yisra'elites stirred up and exasperated
the minds of the Gentiles
against the brothers.

Acts 14:3 However,
they stayed there a long time,
speaking concerning YAHWEH

Who was bearing witness to the message of His favor, granting signs and wonders
to be done through their hands.

Acts 14:4 And the great number of the city
was divided.

And some were with the Yisra'elites,
and some were with the ambassadors.

Acts 14:5 Now an assault was about to happen
by both the Gentiles and Yisra'elites with their ruler insulting and throwing stones at them.

Acts 14:6 They observed it and fled to Lystra and Derbe,
cities of Lycaonia,
and into the surrounding region.

Lystra means ransoming.

Derbe means tanner of skins.

Lycaonia means wolf like.

Acts 14:7 There also they proclaimed the good news.

Acts 14:8 And a certain man at Lystra
with useless feet was sitting,
having existed as lame
from his mother's womb,
who had never walked.

Acts 14:9 This same one listened to Sha'ul speaking,
who looking at him intently and perceiving
he had faith to be healed,

Acts 14:10 said with a loud voice,
"Stand up straight upon your feet!"

And he jumped up and walked about.

Acts 14:11 Now the people having seen what Sha'ul had done
raised up their voices

saying in the Lycaonian language,
"The gods have come down to us in the likeness of human beings!"

Acts 14:12 And Bar Nabas they called Zeus,
but Sha'ul Hermes
since he was the primary speaker.

Note the astral references related to the worship

of the sun, moon and stars.
Since many are inclined to think in terms of the mythological beings of Greece
this concept is often lost,
because it is associated with a "personage"
rather than the objects in the skies.
Regardless, these are "idols", false "gods".
Zeus = Jupiter.
Hermes = Mercury.

Acts 14:13 And the priest of Zeus
who was over their city
brought bulls and wreaths to the gates,
intending to sacrifice with the crowd.
Acts 14:14 But having heard of it
Bar Nabas and Sha'ul tore their clothing, rushed in among the crowd shouting Acts 14:15 and saying, "Men,
why are you doing these things?
We also are men like you.
Even we proclaim good news to you
so that you might turn from these profitless things
to The Living Elohim
Acts 14:16 Who has made the sky,
the earth,
the sea,
and everything that exists in them,
Who in bygone generations
permitted all nations to walk in their own ways.
Acts 14:17 And yet indeed,
He did not leave Himself without witness
by doing good, giving us rain from the sky
and fruitful seasons,
filling our hearts with food and happiness."
Acts 14:18 And with these sayings
they with difficulty restrained the crowd
from sacrificing to them.

Acts 14:19 But Yisra'elites arrived
from Antioch and Iconium.
And they were persuading the crowds.
And having stoned Sha'ul
they dragged him out of the city
regarding him to be dead.

There's a particularly interesting point in the Greek term used for "regarding".
Properly, it means "to do by law".
The implication is that they were acting as though they were somehow fulfilling The Torah
by getting rid of this "heretic".
Please note also that they stoned Sha'ul,
and left him, believing he was dead
– which indeed he probably was.
There is evidence to suggest this
in other things Sha'ul has written.
This means Sha'ul
also experienced a resurrection.

Acts 14:20 Now the students having surrounded him,
he was raised up.
And he went into the city.
And the next day
he departed with Bar Nabas into Derbe.

Some 30 miles away.
Amazing for one
who had just been stoned to death.
And he did not travel by car.

Acts 14:21 And when they had proclaimed the good news to that city
and made many students
they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, Acts 14:22 further supporting the lives of the students,
encouraging them to continue in the faith,
and that we must through much pressure
enter into The Kingdom of YAHWEH.

Acts 14:23 Now, having appointed elders for them for every assembly, and having prayed with fasting, they committed them to The Master in Whom they had trusted.

Acts 14:24 And having traveled to Pisidia they came to Pamphylia.

Acts 14:25 And having spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

Attalia means gentle father.

Acts 14:26 From there they sailed to Antioch from where they had been committed to the favor of YAHWEH for the work which they had completed.

Acts 14:27 And having arrived and gathered the assembly together, they reported all that YAHWEH had done with them, and that He had opened up the door of faith to the Gentiles.

Acts 14:28 Now they stayed there a long time with the students.

Chapter 15

Acts 15:1 And some came down from Yahudah to teach the brothers that unless they were circumcised according to the custom of Moshe they were not able to be delivered.

Acts 15:2 Therefore, a controversy happened and no small dispute against Sha'ul and Bar Nabas.

They determined that Sha'ul and Bar Nabas and certain others of them should go up to Yerushalaim to the ambassadors and elders concerning this debate.

Acts 15:3 Therefore, having been sent on their way by the assembly, they traveled through Phoenicia and Shomeron, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles. And they caused great joy for all the brothers.

Acts 15:4 Now having arrived at Yerushalaim they were received gladly by the assembly and the ambassadors and the elders. And they announced how much YAHWEH had accomplished among them.

Acts 15:5 But some of the sect of the Pharisees who were believing rose up, saying that it was necessary to circumcise them, commanding them also to keep The Torah of Moshe.

Acts 15:6 Now the ambassadors and elders had come together to consider this matter.

Acts 15:7 Then, having had much discussion, Peter stood up and said to them, "Men and brothers, you understand that a long time ago YAHWEH chose among us that through my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the good news and believe.

Acts 15:8 And YAHWEH, knower of hearts, gave witness, giving to them The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH, even as to us.

Acts 15:9 And He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith.

Acts 15:10 Now therefore, why do you test YAHWEH,

placing a yoke on the neck of the students
which neither our fathers nor we could bear?

Acts 15:11 On the contrary,
through the favor of The Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
we believe, being delivered,
which is the same means for them.”

Acts 15:12 Then the entire multitude kept silent.
And they listened to Bar Nabas and to Sha'ul rehearsing how many signs and wonders YAHWEH had accomplished
among the Gentiles through them.

Acts 15:13 Now after they had become silent
Ya'akov began speaking saying,
“Men, brothers, listen attentively to me!

Acts 15:14 Shim'on has rehearsed
how YAHWEH at the beginning inspected the Gentiles to take from them
a people for His Name.

Acts 15:15 And with this
the words of the prophets agree,
just as it is written,

Acts 15:16 “*After this I will return and will rebuild the tabernacle of David
which has fallen down.
I will rebuild its ruins, and I will set it up,*

Acts 15:17 *so that the rest of mankind
may seek YAHWEH, even all the Gentiles
who are called by My Name,*
says YAHWEH Who does all these things.”
(Amos 9.11-12)

Acts 15:18 Known to YAHWEH from eternity
are all His works.

Acts 15:19 Therefore, I judge
that we should not harass them any further
since the Gentiles are turning to YAHWEH, Acts 15:20 instead, writing to them to abstain from
the defilement of idols,
and sexual immorality,
and things strangled,
and blood.

Acts 15:21 Indeed, Moshe, from ancient generations
has had those who proclaim him out of every city,
being read in the assemblies every Sabbath.”

Acts 15:22 Then the ambassadors and elders, with the whole assembly decided to send chosen men of their own to Antioch
with Sha'ul and Bar Nabas, Yahudah, who was also named Bar Saba,
and Silas,

leading men among the brothers,
Acts 15:23 having written by their own hands
in this manner:

Greetings.

Acts 15:24 Since we have heard that some who went out from us
have stirred you up with words,
upsetting your lives,
telling you to be circumcised,
and to keep The Torah,
to whom we gave no such instruction,

Acts 15:25 it seemed good to us,
having become of one mind,
to send chosen men to you
with our beloved Bar Nabas and Sha'ul, Acts 15:26 men who have surrendered their lives
for the Name of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Acts 15:27 We have therefore sent Yahudah and Silas who are also reporting the same things by saying them.
Acts 15:28 Indeed, it was thought by The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH, and by us, to impose upon you no greater burden than these necessities:
Acts 15:29 that you abstain from sacrificing to idols, and blood, and things strangled, and from sexual immorality.
If you keep yourselves from these you will do well.
Farewell.

Acts 15:30 Therefore, having been dismissed, they went to Antioch.
And having gathered the multitude together they delivered the letter.
Acts 15:31 Now having read it they rejoiced over its encouragement.

Acts 15:32 Now Yahudah and Silas, themselves being prophets also, encouraged and strengthened the brothers with many words.
Acts 15:33 And having been there a while they were released with peace from the brothers to the ambassadors.
Acts 15:34 But Silas decided to remain there.

Acts 15:35 Now Sha'ul and Bar Nabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and announcing the good news, the word of YAHWEH, among many others also.

Acts 15:36 And some days later Sha'ul said to Bar Nabas, "Let us now go back and examine how our brothers are doing in every city where we have proclaimed the word of YAHWEH."

Acts 15:37 Now Bar Nabas advised taking with them Yahnathan called Mark.
Acts 15:38 But Sha'ul did not consider it good, taking the one who had departed from them in Pamphylia, having not gone with them to the work.
Acts 15:39 Therefore, a dispute happened so that they separated from one another.
So Bar Nabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus,
Acts 15:40 but Sha'ul chose Silas and departed, being commended by the brothers to the favor of YAHWEH.
Acts 15:41 Then he went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the assemblies.

Chapter 16

Acts 16:1 Then he arrived at Derbe and Lystra. And behold!
A certain student was there named Timothy, son of a certain believing Jewish woman, but his father a Greek.
Acts 16:2 He was well spoken of by the brothers who were at Lystra and Iconium.
Acts 16:3 Sha'ul wanted to have him go on with him. And he took and circumcised him because of the Yisra'elites who were in that place because they all understood that his father was Greek.

Acts 16:4 Now as they went through the cities

they delivered to them
the decrees to be observed
which had been determined by the ambassadors and elders at Yerushalaim.
Acts 16:5 And accordingly the assemblies
were strengthened in the faith,
and increased in number daily.

Acts 16:6 Now having traveled through Phrygia and the region of Galatia
they were prevented
by The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
from speaking the message in Asia.

*Galatia means milky.
Asia means mire.*

Acts 16:7 Having come down to Mysia
they endeavored to travel into Bithynia.
But The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
did not permit them.

*Mysia means obscure.
Bithynia means violent rushing.*

Acts 16:8 Then having arrived at Mysia
they went down into Troas.

Troas means a Trojan.

Acts 16:9 And a vision appeared to Sha'ul
in the night.

A man of Macedonia was standing
and inviting him saying,
"Come over to Macedonia and help us."

Macedonia means tall.

Acts 16:10 And after having seen the vision
immediately we sought to go to Macedonia, concluding that YAHWEH had called us
to proclaim the good news to them.

Acts 16:11 Therefore, sailing from Troas,
we sailed directly to Samothrace,
and the next day came to Neapolis,

Samothrace means a sign of rags.

Acts 16:12 and from there to Philippi,
which is the chief city
of that part of Macedonia, a colony.

*Neapolis means new city.
Philippi means lover of horses.*

Now we were staying in that city for some days.

Acts 16:13 And on The Sabbath Day
we went out of the city to the riverside,
where prayer was customarily made.
And we sat down.

And we spoke
to the women who were assembling.

Acts 16:14 Now a certain woman named Lydia,
a seller of purple from the city of Thyatira
who worshiped YAHWEH, listened attentively.
The Master opened her heart
to pay attention
to that which was spoken by Sha'ul.

*Lydia means travailing; labor pains.
Thyatira means odor of affliction.*

Acts 16:15 And after she and her household
were baptized she invited us saying,
"If you have judged me
to be trusting in The Master
come to my house and stay."
And she compelled us.

Acts 16:16 Now it was as we traveled to prayer.
And a certain slave girl
having a nature of divination met us who furnished her masters much profit
by fortune telling.

*Divination is "fortune-telling".
It's a counterfeit of YAHWEH's ability to accurately predict the future.
A believer is not to be involved in such things.*

Acts 16:17 This girl followed Sha'ul and us.
And she cried out saying,
“These human beings are the servants
of The Supreme One, YAHWEH,
who proclaim to us the way of deliverance.”

Note: This ungodly entity knows YAHWEH.

It also knows that Sha'ul
and the other believers with him
are slaves of YAHWEH.

This reveals the level of knowledge
found in such entities.

Acts 16:18 Now she did this over many days.
But Sha'ul being annoyed,
turned and said to the nature,
“I direct you in the Name
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
to come out of her.”
And it came out that very moment.

Acts 16:19 Now her masters,
seeing that their expectation
of profits was gone,
seized Sha'ul and Silas,
dragging them into the marketplace
to the rulers.

Acts 16:20 And having brought them
to the chief leaders they said, “These men, being Yisra'elites, exceedingly trouble our city.

Acts 16:21 And they are teaching customs which are not right for us to accept nor to practice, being Romans.”

Acts 16:22 And the crowd
rose up together against them.
And the chief leaders,
having torn off their clothes,
commanded them to be beaten with rods.

Acts 16:23 And having imposed many strokes upon them
they threw them into prison,
commanding the jailer to keep them securely,

Acts 16:24 who having received such a mandate threw them into the inner prison
and made their feet secure in the stocks.

Acts 16:25 Now at midnight
Sha'ul and Silas were praying
and singing hymns to YAHWEH.
And the prisoners listened to them.

Acts 16:26 Then unexpectedly
a great earthquake happened
so that the foundations of the prison were shaken.
And instantly all the doors were opened and everyone's shackles were loosed.

Acts 16:27 Now the jailer,
being awakened from sleep
and seeing the prison doors open drew his sword and was about to kill himself
thinking that the prisoners had fled.

Acts 16:28 But Sha'ul called
with a loud voice saying,
“Do yourself no harm because we are all here.”

Acts 16:29 Then he, having asked for a light, rushed in.

And having become terrified,
he prostrated himself before Sha'ul and Silas.

Acts 16:30 And having brought them out he said, “Sirs, what must I do to be delivered?”

Acts 16:31 And they said, “Trust in The Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
and you will be delivered,
also your household.”

Acts 16:32 And they spoke the word of YAHWEH to him
and to all who were in his house.

This short passage is another prime example of the confusion caused by the use of the Greek term, kurios.
Within three verses
we have three possible renderings
of the same term.
In v. 30 sirs, in verse 31 The Lord,
referring to YAHUSHUA, in traditional texts.
This is clarified by the use of His Name
and the identification of Him as The Messiah.
Then in verse 32 we have reference to “the word of The Lord”.
This verse is not so clear.
It may be that the message
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
is what’s being identified.
Yet in the broader context of Scripture
this phrase is distinctive
in its reference to The Word of YAHWEH,
which is all of Scripture,
but is especially used in reference to the predicted coming of The Messiah.
It seems likely that the word spoken by Sha’ul to these people included far more than the “word of YAHUSHUA”,
in that he regularly used
The Old Covenant Scriptures
to demonstrate that YAHUSHUA
was in fact The Messiah Whom YAHWEH
had promised to send to earth.

Sha’ul was an expert in The Scriptures.

Acts 16:33 And he took them
the same hour of the night
to wash off their wounds.
And immediately he
and all his family were baptized.
Acts 16:34 And having brought them into his house
he set a table before them.
And he rejoiced with his entire household,
having believed in YAHWEH.

Acts 16:35 Now when it was day
the chief leaders sent the officers saying, “Release those human beings.”
Acts 16:36 And the jailer
announced these words to Sha’ul saying,
“The chief leaders have sent to release you.
Now therefore depart and travel in peace.”
Acts 16:37 But Sha’ul said to them,
“They have beaten us human beings publicly without a legal trial, being Romans,
and have thrown us into prison.
And now do they eject us secretly?
No, indeed!
Instead, let them come themselves
and bring us out.”

Acts 16:38 Then the officers told these words
to the chief leaders.
And they were frightened
having heard that they were Romans.
Acts 16:39 And they came comforting them
and bringing them out,
asking them to depart from the city.

Acts 16:40 Then they went out of the prison.
And they entered the house of Lydia.
And having seen the brothers
they comforted them and departed.

Chapter 17

Acts 17:1 Now having traveled through Amphipolis and Apollonia

they came to Thessalonica
where there was a synagogue of the Yisra'elites.

Amphipolis means around the city.
Apollonia means utter destruction.
Thessalonica means victory
over the tossing of law;
or, victory over lies.

Acts 17:2 Then Sha'ul, according to his custom,
entered in among them.

And for three Sabbaths
he reasoned with them from The Scriptures

Acts 17:3 explaining and demonstrating that it was necessary
for The Messiah to suffer
and be raised again from being dead,
and saying,

“This same YAHUSHUA Whom I proclaim to you
is The Messiah!”

Acts 17:4 And some of them were persuaded.
And they joined together with Sha'ul and Silas,
even a great number of the respected Greeks,
and not a few of the foremost women.

Acts 17:5 But the Yisra'elites who disbelieved,
having become jealous,
took to themselves some of the evil men
from the marketplace.

And gathering a mob,
they set the whole city in tumult,
even attacking the house of Jason.
And they sought to bring them
out among the people.

Jason means healer.

Acts 17:6 But not having found them,
they dragged Jason and some brothers
to the town officers crying out, “These who have turned the world upside down
have come here also,

Acts 17:7 whom Jason has hosted.
And these are all acting contrary to the decrees of Caesar,
saying there is another king, YAHUSHUA.”

Acts 17:8 And they stirred up the crowd and the town officers
having heard these things.

Acts 17:9 And when they had taken security from Jason and the others
they released them.

Acts 17:10 Now the brothers immediately sent Sha'ul and Silas away by night into Berea.
Having arrived they went into
the synagogue of the Yisra'elites.

Berea means the pierced.

Acts 17:11 Now these were more noble
than those in Thessalonica
in that they received the word
with all readiness of mind,
scrutinizing The Scriptures daily
to find out whether these things were so.

Acts 17:12 Therefore, many of them believed and also prominent women of the Greeks
and not a few men.

Acts 17:13 But when the Yisra'elites
from Thessalonica
learned that the word of YAHWEH
was being proclaimed by Sha'ul at Berea

they came there also
and stirred up the crowds.

Acts 17:14 Now at that time the brothers immediately sent Sha'ul away
to travel upon the sea.
But both Silas and Timothy still remained there.

Acts 17:15 And those conducting Sha'ul
brought him as far as Athens.
And having received a charge
for Silas and Timothy to come to him
as quickly as possible they departed.
Athens means uncertainty.

Acts 17:16 Now while Sha'ul
was waiting for them at Athens
his nature was provoked within him, having observed that the city
was totally idolatrous.

Acts 17:17 Therefore,
he reasoned in the synagogue
with the Yisra'elites
and with the religious people
and in the marketplace each day
with those who happened to be there.

Acts 17:18 Now some Epicurean
and Stoic philosophers dialogued with him.
And some said,
What does this gossip want to say now?
He seems to be a proclaimer
of foreign deities.”,
because he proclaimed to them
the good news concerning YAHUSHUA
and His resurrection.

Epicurean means helper; defender.
Stoic means of the doorway.

Acts 17:19 And they took him.
And they brought him
to the Areopagus saying, “May we know what this new instruction is
of which you speak,

Areopagus means a martial peak.

Acts 17:20 because you are bringing some strange things to our ears?
Therefore, we want to know
what these things mean.”

Acts 17:21 Now all the Athenians
and the foreigners who were there spent their time in nothing other than either telling or listening to some new thing.

Acts 17:22 And Sha'ul stood
in the middle of the Areopagus saying,

“Men of Athens, I observe that in all things
you are more religious than others

Acts 17:23 because as I was traveling about and considering the objects of your worship

I even found an altar with this inscription:
‘TO THE UNKNOWN GOD.’,

Whom therefore you are worshipping
without knowing.

This same One I proclaim to you,

Acts 17:24 YAHWEH, Who has made the world
and everything in it.

He Who is Master of the skies and the earth
does not dwell in temples of human construction.

kurios - supreme in authority, lord.
Note the confusion created once more
by the repeated use of this term "lord"
in traditional texts.

Acts 17:25 Neither is He served with men's hands
as though He needed something.
He gives life to everything,
even all the breathing.
Acts 17:26 And He has made from one blood
every race of human beings
dwelling upon the face of the earth,
having determined the prescribed seasons
and the boundaries of their dwellings, Acts 17:27 to seek YAHWEH, if perhaps they might search for Him and find Him.

And yet, indeed,
He is not far from each one of us,
Acts 17:28 because in Him
we live, and move, and have our life,
as even some of your own poets have stated,
'Indeed, we are also His offspring.'

Acts 17:29 Therefore, since we exist
as the offspring of YAHWEH,
we ought not think god-likeness exists
in a likeness of gold, or silver, or stone,
engraved by art and man's deliberation.

Acts 17:30 Truly, times of ignorance
YAHWEH is overlooking, at present, directing all human beings everywhere
to reconsider your actions
Acts 17:31 on the very account that He has established a day
in which He will judge the world with justice
by The Man Whom He has specified, having provided assurance to everyone,
having raised Him up
from the state of being dead."

Acts 17:32 Now having heard
of the resurrection of the dead,
on the one hand some mocked,
but others said,
"We will hear you again concerning this."
Acts 17:33 And in this manner
Sha'ul departed from among them.

Acts 17:34 Now some men clung to him,
having believed,
among them Dionysius, the Areopagite,
a woman named Damaris,
and others with them.

Dionysius means a devotee of Bacchus, god of wine.
Damaris means a yoke-bearing wife.

Chapter 18

Acts 18:1 Now after these things
Sha'ul departed from Athens and went to Corinth.
Acts 18:2 And he found a certain Yisra'elite
named Aquila, born in Pontus, having recently come from Italy
with his wife Priscilla because Claudius had ordered all the Yisra'elites to depart from Rome.
And he approached them.

Aquila means I shall be nourished.
Pontus means the sea.
Priscilla means little old woman.
Claudius means whining.

Acts 18:3 And because he was of the same trade
he stayed with them and worked because by occupation they were tentmakers.

Acts 18:4 And he reasoned in the synagogue
every Sabbath.
And he persuaded both Yisra'elites and Greeks.

Acts 18:5 When Silas and Timothy had come from Macedonia Sha'ul was compelled by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH. And he attested to the Yisra'elites that YAHUSHUA is The Messiah.

Acts 18:6 But having opposed him and having blasphemed, he shook his garments saying to them, "Your blood is upon your heads! I am clean!

From now on I will go to the Gentiles!"

This is a major event in the history of believers. Sha'ul's mission was first and foremost to the Yisra'elites. While he was also teaching the Gentiles this was not his primary mission - until now. This marks a major turning point in his ministry, and in the impact his ministry has had upon the rest of the nations of the world.

Acts 18:7 And he departed from there. And he entered the house of a certain one named Justus, who worshiped YAHWEH, whose house was next door to the synagogue.

Acts 18:8 Now Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, trusted in The Master with his whole household. And many of the Corinthians hearing trusted and were baptized.
Crispus means crisp; curly haired.
Corinthians means satisfied ones.

Acts 18:9 Now The Master spoke to Sha'ul in the night through a vision, "Do not be afraid, but speak, and do not keep silent, Acts 18:10 because I am with you! And not even one will attack you to hurt you because I have many people in this city."
Acts 18:11 And he stayed a year and six months teaching the word of YAHWEH among them.

Acts 18:12 Now when Gallio was acting as proconsul of Achaia the Yisra'elites with one mind rose up against Sha'ul. And they brought him to the judgment seat, Gallio means a eunuch.
Achaia means wailing.

Acts 18:13 saying, "This man incites men to worship YAHWEH contrary to The Torah."

Acts 18:14 Then Sha'ul being about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Yisra'elites, "If it were a matter of wrongdoing or morally wrong wicked behavior, Yisra'elites, there would possibly be a reason why I should put up with you.
Acts 18:15 But if it is a question of words and names and concerning your own Torah look to it yourselves because I do not want to be a judge of these matters."
Acts 18:16 And he dismissed them from the judgment seat.

Acts 18:17 Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him in front of the judgment seat.

But Gallio was concerned about none of these things.

Sosthenes means saving strength.

Acts 18:18 And Sha'ul remained after this a good while.

Saying farewell to the brothers
he sailed for Syria,
and with him Priscilla and Aquila,
having his hair cut off at Cenchrea
because he had taken a vow.

Cenchrea means granular.

Acts 18:19 Then having arrived at Ephesus
and having left them there,
he himself entered into the synagogue
and reasoned with the Yisra'elites.

Ephesus means full purposed.

Acts 18:20 But having asked him to stay a longer time with them
he did not consent,

Acts 18:21 but instead bid them farewell saying,
"I must by all means keep
this coming feast at Yerushalaim.

But I will return again to you,
if YAHWEH determines."

And he sailed from Ephesus.

Acts 18:22 And having arrived at Caesarea
and having gone up and greeted the assembly
he went down to Antioch.

Acts 18:23 And having been some time there
he departed and traveled the regions of Galatia and Phrygia consecutively, strengthening all the students.

Acts 18:24 Now a certain Yisra'elite named Apollos,
born at Alexandria, an eloquent man
being very capable in the Scriptures, arrived at Ephesus.

Apollos means destroyer.

Alexandria means man defender.

Acts 18:25 This man had been indoctrinated
in The Way of The Master.

And being fervent

in The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,

he spoke and taught accurately concerning The Master,
understanding only the baptism of Yahnathan.

Acts 18:26 And he began to speak boldly
in the synagogue.

But having heard him, Aquila and Priscilla took him aside and explained to him
the way of YAHWEH more accurately.

[Once again we encounter potential confusion
through the use of kurios. \(Lord\) in verse 25.](#)

Was he speaking concerning YAHWEH?

Or are these references to YAHUSHUA?

It could be either.

Acts 18:27 Now wanting to travel to Achaia
the brothers wrote

encouraging the students to receive him.

And when he arrived he greatly helped those who had believed because of favor,

Acts 18:28 because he vigorously refuted the Yisra'elites publicly,
showing through The Scriptures
that YAHUSHUA is The Messiah.

Chapter 19

Acts 19:1 Now it happened
while Apollos was at Corinth that Sha'ul, having passed through the upper regions, came to Ephesus.

And having found some students
Acts 19:2 he said to them,
“Have you, having believed, received
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH?”
But they said to him,
“We have not even heard whether there is
a Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH.”

Note that there is no indication of any "person" being involved in this.
It does not say "we've not heard of him"
or refer in any manner to a separate being.

Acts 19:3 And he said to them,
“Into what then were you baptized?”
And they said, “Into Yahanathan’s baptism.”
Acts 19:4 Then Sha’ul said, “Yahanathan indeed baptized
with a baptism of reconsideration, telling the people they should believe on Him
Who was coming after him,
that is, on The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.” Acts 19:5 Now having heard, they were baptized
in the Name of The Master, YAHUSHUA.

Acts 19:6 And Sha’ul having laid hands upon them,
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
came upon them.

And they spoke with tongues and prophesied.

The Greek term used for "upon"
could mean to, toward, over, etc.
These are not terms that give any indication of this being a "person".

Acts 19:7 Now the men were about twelve in all.

Acts 19:8 Then he went into the synagogue
and spoke boldly for three months,
reasoning and persuading
concerning The Kingdom of YAHWEH.

Acts 19:9 But when some were obstinate and disbelieved,
speaking disrespectfully concerning The Way
in the presence of the multitude,
he withdrew from them,
separating the students,
reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus.

Tyrannus means absolute rule.

Acts 19:10 Now this happened for two years
so that all who dwelt in Asia heard the message
of The Master, YAHUSHUA,
both Yisra’elites and Greeks.

Acts 19:11 And YAHWEH
worked unusual signs by the hands of Sha’ul Acts 19:12 so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were brought from his body to the sick,
and the diseases were removed from them,
and the unclean natures departed from them.

Acts 19:13 Now some of the itinerant Yisra’elite exorcists took it upon themselves to name the Name
of The Master, YAHUSHUA,
over those who had unclean natures,
saying, “We adjure you by the YAHUSHUA Whom Sha’ul proclaims.”

Acts 19:14 Now there were seven sons of Sceva,
an Yisra’elite chief priest, who did this.

Sceva means mind reader.

Acts 19:15 But the unclean nature responded saying, “YAHUSHUA I know absolutely,
and Sha’ul I recognize.
But who are you?”

Again we see the knowledge level
of these entities.
They know without a doubt who The Messiah is.

They also recognize Sha'ul
as one of His followers.
But the seven sons of Sceva,
even though they are sons
of a Jewish great priest,
do not even acknowledge
being followers of YAHWEH.

Acts 19:16 And the human being in whom the unclean nature existed leaped upon them.
And he exercised dominion over them,
having power against them,
so that they fled from that house
naked and wounded.

Acts 19:17 Now this became well known even to all Yisra'elites and Greeks dwelling in Ephesus.
And fear fell upon them all.
And the Name of The Master, YAHUSHUA,
was made great.

Acts 19:18 Now many of the believing came,
acknowledging and reporting their practices.

Acts 19:19 Also many of those who had practiced magic brought their scrolls together
to burn them in front of everyone.
And they counted up the value of them.
And it totaled fifty thousand pieces of silver.

Acts 19:20 In this manner the word of YAHWEH
grew mightily and prevailed.

Acts 19:21 Now having fulfilled these things
in this manner
Sha'ul was appointed
by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
having traveled through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Yerushalaim, having said that, "After I have been there I must also see Rome."

Acts 19:22 Then he sent into Macedonia
two of those who assisted him,
Timothy and Erastus,
he himself being detained in Asia for a time.

Timothy means honoring YAHWEH.
Erastus means beloved.

Acts 19:23 And about that time there arose
no small disturbance about The Way,

The Way refers to those who are following The Way, YAHUSHUA,
following His teachings and instructions.

Acts 19:24 because one named Demetrius,
a silversmith making silver shrines of Diana
which brought no small profit to the craftsmen

Demetrius means of mother earth.
Diana means complete light.

Acts 19:25 whom he called together with the workers of this sort also said,
"Men, you recognize that we have our wealth from this trade.

Acts 19:26 And you see and hear that not only at Ephesus
but almost in all Asia,
this Sha'ul has persuaded and turned away ample crowds saying that they are not gods
which are made with hands.

Acts 19:27 Now not only is this trade of ours
in danger of coming into disrepute but also the temple of the great goddess Diana may become despised and even her splendor is about to be demolished
whom Asia and the whole world worship."

Acts 19:28 Now having heard this and becoming full of indignation

they cried out saying.
"Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"
Acts 19:29 So the whole city was filled with disorder
and rushed into the theater with one mind,
having seized Gaius and Aristarchus,
Macedonians, Sha'ul's travel companions.
Gaius means on earth.
Aristarchus means best ruler.

Acts 19:30 Now when Sha'ul wanted to go in to the people
the students would not allow him.
Acts 19:31 And even some of the officials of Asia who were his friends
sent to him encouraging him
not to venture into the theater.

Acts 19:32 Different ones cried one thing and some another
because the assembly was in an uproar.
And most of them did not understand
why they had come together.
[The term, ekklesia, does not mean "church",
even though that's how it is often translated.
It means an assembly.
This is clearly not a "church" in this instance.
To call it such is to politicize the term
to fit one's theology.](#)

Acts 19:33 And they forced Alexander out of the crowd,
the Yisra'elites pushing him forward.
Then Alexander motioned with his hand,
wanting to make his defense to the people.
Acts 19:34 But when they recognized that he was an Yisra'elite
everyone, with one voice,
cried out for about two hours,
"Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"
Acts 19:35 But the town clerk
having quelled the mob said,
"Men of Ephesus,
what human being is there
who does not know that the city of the Ephesians
is temple keeper
of the great goddess Diana
and of that which fell from the sky?"
Acts 19:36 Therefore,
since these things are indisputable,
you must calm down and do nothing rashly.
Acts 19:37 Indeed,
you have brought these men here
who are neither robbers of temples
nor blasphemers of your goddess.
Acts 19:38 Therefore, if Demetrius
and his fellow craftsmen
have a case against anyone
the market place is open
and there are proconsuls.
Let them bring charges against one another.

Formal legal charges.

Acts 19:39 But if you have any other inquiry to make it will be determined in the lawful assembly.
Acts 19:40 Indeed, we are even in danger
of being called to account for today's uproar,
there being no reason which we may give
to account for this disorderly gathering."
Acts 19:41 And having said these things
he dismissed the assembly.

Chapter 20

Acts 20:1 After the uproar had stopped
Sha'ul called the students to himself.

And having embraced them he departed,
traveling to Macedonia.
Acts 20:2 Now having traveled through that region
and encouraging them with many words
he went to Greece.

Greece means unstable; the miry one.

Acts 20:3 And he stayed three months.
The Yisra'elites having plotted against him
as he was about to sail to Syria,
he decided to return through Macedonia.

Acts 20:4 Now Sopater of Berea accompanied him to Asia,
also Aristarchus and Secundus
of the Thessalonians,
and Gaius of Derbe,
and Timothy,
and Tychicus,
and Trophimus of Asia.

Sopater means saving father.

Berea means the pierced.

Secundus means second.

Tychicus means fortunate.

Trophimus means nourishment.

Acts 20:5 These men, having gone before,
waited for us at Troas.

Acts 20:6 Then we departed by ship from Philippi
after The Days of Unleavened Bread and in five days joined them at Troas
where we stayed seven days.

Acts 20:7 Now on the first of The Special Sabbath

This refers to a shabbathown,
the Hebrew term for a special sabbath,
or day of rest.

There were two of these during Passover.

One was at the very beginning,
the other was seven days later

- and they were not necessarily
on the seventh day of the week.

This means they were not
on The Sabbath Day, which is Saturday.
It could be any day of the week.

The first of sabbaton, the Greek term,
simply refers to the first day
following the Special Sabbath.

This means the resurrection did NOT,
of necessity, occur on "Sunday".

Indeed, it makes it highly probable
that it did not occur on a "Sunday",
"the first day of the week".

Lit. – one or first of the Special Sabbath.

This story repeats the fact that there was a Special Sabbath
as part of The Feast of Unleavened Bread.
It was this very feast
that is the focus of this story.
It would be extremely unlikely that this was a "Sunday".

the students having come together to break bread, Sha'ul reasoned with them,
intending to leave the next day,
even continuing his message until midnight.

Acts 20:8 Now there were many lamps
in the upper room where they were gathering together.

Acts 20:9 And in a window sat a certain young man named Eutychus who was sinking into a deep sleep.

He was overcome by sleep,
Sha'ul, reasoning extensively concerning much.
He fell down from the third story.

And he was picked up dead.

Eutychus means well off.

Acts 20:10 But Sha'ul went down,
grabbed him,
and embracing him said,
"Do not be troubled because his life is in him."

Acts 20:12 Then they brought
the young man in alive.
And they were not a little comforted.

It appears the order of verses 12 & 13
has been reversed.
It makes more sense
to put verse 12 after verse 10.

Acts 20:11 Now coming up,
and having broken bread,
and having eaten,
he talked a long while,
even until daybreak.
In this manner he departed.

It's quite phenomenal to consider that this resurrection occurred on "the first of The "Sabbaton", Special Sabbath.
It places it on the anniversary of the resurrection of The Messiah.

Acts 20:13 Then we went ahead to the ship
and sailed to Assos,
there intending to take Sha'ul on board
because so he had arranged,
intending himself to go on foot.

Assos means nearer.

Acts 20:14 But having met us at Assos
we took him on board and went to Mitylene.

Mitylene means curtailed.

Acts 20:15 We sailed from there and the next day arrived opposite Chios.
The following day we arrived at Samos
and stayed at Trogyllium.

The next day we came to Miletus

Chios means unlucky throw of the dice.
Samos means a sign.
Trogyllium means a cache.
Miletus means cared for.

Acts 20:16 because Sha'ul had decided to sail past Ephesus
so that he would not linger in Asia
because he was hurrying to be at Yerushalaim if possible
on The Day of Shavuot.

Pentecost

Acts 20:17 Now from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, calling for the elders of the assembly.

Acts 20:18 Now when they had come to him
he said to them,

"You understand from the first day
that I arrived in Asia
how I have been among you at all times,

Acts 20:19 serving YAHWEH
with all humbleness of mind,
with many tears and trials
which happened to me

by the plotting of the Yisra'elites,
Acts 20:20 how I withheld nothing that was helpful,
but declared it to you and taught you publicly
and from house to house,

Acts 20:21 testifying to Yisra'elites
and also to Greeks
reconsideration toward YAHWEH
and trust which is in our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Acts 20:22 And now behold!

I am traveling,
bound in The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
to Yerushalaim,

not perceiving the things
that will happen to me there Acts 20:23 except that
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
testifies in every city
saying that shackles and troubles await me.
Acts 20:24 However, none of these things move me
nor do I hold my life as valuable to myself
so that I may finish my race with joy and the ministry which I received from The Master, YAHUSHUA, to testify to the good news
of the favor of YAHWEH.

Acts 20:25 And indeed,
now I know that you all,
among whom I have come proclaiming
The Kingdom of YAHWEH,
will see my face no more.

Acts 20:26 Therefore,
I am led to affirm among you this day
that I am innocent of the blood of all.

Acts 20:27 Indeed,
I have not failed to declare to you all the will of YAHWEH.

Acts 20:28 Therefore, take heed to yourselves
and to all the flock over whom
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
has made you superintendents,
to shepherd the assembly of YAHWEH
which He has purchased with His very own blood.

"His very own blood"
is an indirect allusion to
The blood of YAHUSHUA,
His only "blood relative".
The blood of His Son is His own blood.

Acts 20:29 Indeed, I perceive this,
that after my departure
savage wolves will enter in among you,
not sparing the flock.

Acts 20:30 Also, from among yourselves
men will rise up, speaking perverse things,
drawing away the students following them.

Acts 20:31 Therefore, keep awake, remembering that for three years
I did not stop warning each one of you
night and day with tears.

Acts 20:32 And now, brothers,
I present you to YAHWEH
and the message of His favor
which is able to build you up and to give you an inheritance
among everyone who is being consecrated.

hagiazō - to make holy,
i.e. purify or consecrate.
Being made "holy" is always tied to being "set apart"
for a special purpose for YAHWEH,
within Scriptural contexts.

Acts 20:33 I have longed for no one's silver,
or gold, or apparel.

Acts 20:34 Moreover, you yourselves know that these hands
have provided for my necessities,
and for those who were with me.

Acts 20:35 In everything
I have demonstrated to you that laboring like this

you must support the weak,
even remembering the words
of The Master, YAHUSHUA,
how He said,
'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' "

Acts 20:36 And having said these things,
he knelt down and prayed to YAHWEH
together with all of them.
Acts 20:37 Then they all wept greatly.
And falling upon Sha'ul's neck, they kissed him,
Acts 20:38 grieving most of all
for the words which he spoke,
that they would see his face no more.
Then they accompanied him to the ship.

Chapter 21

Acts 21:1 Now it was as we had been dragged away from them.
And having set sail we ran directly to Cos,
then the following day to Rhodes,
and from there to Patara.
Acts 21:2 And having found a ship
crossing over to Phoenicia
we went aboard, sailing away.

Cos means a thorn.

Rhodes means rosy.

Patara means suffering it seems.

Phoenicia means palm land.

Acts 21:3 When we had sighted Cyprus
we passed it on the left, sailed to Syria,
and landed at Tzor because there the ship
was to unload her cargo.

Acts 21:4 And having located the students
we stayed there seven days.

They said to Sha'ul
through The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
that he should not go up to Yerushalaim.

Acts 21:5 When we had come to the end of those days
we departed and took our journey,
them sending us on our way
with their wives and children
until we were outside the city.
And we knelt down on the shore
and prayed to YAHWEH.

Acts 21:6 And having embraced one another
we walked up into the ship.

And they returned to their own homes again.

Acts 21:7 And having finished our voyage from Tzor
we arrived at Ptolemais.

And we embraced the brothers.
And we stayed with them one day.

Ptolemais means warlike.

Acts 21:8 Now on the next day
we who were Sha'ul's companions departed.
And we went to Caesarea and entered the house of Philip, the evangelist,
who was one of the seven.

And we stayed with him.

Acts 21:9 Now this man had four unmarried daughters who prophesied.

Acts 21:10 And having stayed many days,
a certain prophet named Agabus
came down from Yahudah.

Acts 21:11 And having come to us
he lifted up Sha'ul's belt,
binding his own hands and feet and said,
"Thus says

The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
'Thus will the Yisra'elites at Yerushalaim

bind the man who owns this belt
and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.’ ”

Acts 21:12 Now having heard these things
both we and the residents
encouraged him not to go up to Yerushalaim.

Acts 21:13 But Sha'ul responded, “What do you mean by weeping
and breaking my heart?

Indeed, I am ready not only to be bound,
but also to die at Yerushalaim for the sake of the Name of The Master, YAHUSHUA.”

Acts 21:14 And when he would not be persuaded
we kept still saying,
“The will of YAHWEH be done.”

Acts 21:15 Now after those days
we packed up our baggage
and went up to Yerushalaim.

Acts 21:16 And some of the students from Caesarea also went with us.
And they brought with them
a certain Mnason of Cyprus, an original student,
with whom we were to lodge.

Mnason means solicitor.

Acts 21:17 Now having come to Yerushalaim
the brothers received us gladly.

Acts 21:18 On the following day
Sha'ul entered in with us to Ya'akov.
And all the elders were present.

Acts 21:19 And having embraced them
he declared in every detail those things which YAHWEH had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

Acts 21:20 Now having heard,
they honored The Master,
even having said to him,

“You see, brother,
how many myriads of Yisra'elites
there are who have believed.

And they are zealous for The Torah.

Acts 21:21 But they have been informed
concerning you

that you are teaching all the Yisra'elites
who are among the Gentiles
to abandon Moshe,
saying they ought not circumcise their children
nor to walk according to the customs.

Acts 21:22 What is this?

Therefore, the multitude must certainly convene
because they will hear that you have come.

Acts 21:23 Therefore, do what we tell you.

We have four men
who have taken a vow upon themselves.

Acts 21:24 Join them!

And be purified with them!

And pay their expenses

in order that they may shave their heads
and that all may know that those things

of which they have been informed concerning you are nothing,

but rather that you yourself

also walk in conformity

and are keeping The Torah.

Acts 21:25 Now concerning the Gentiles who believe we have written and determined
they should keep no such thing,
except that they should keep themselves
from things offered to idols,
from blood,
from things strangled,
and from sexual immorality.”

Acts 21:26 Then Sha'ul joined the men.
The next day, having been purified with them,
they entered The Temple
to declare the completion of the days of purification,
at which time an offering was offered for each one of them.

Acts 21:27 Now when the seven days
were about to be completed
the Yisra'elites from Asia,
having seen him in The Temple,
stirred up the whole crowd.
And they laid hands upon him,
Acts 21:28 crying out,
"Men of Yisra'el, help!
This is the human being who teaches everyone universally against the people, The Torah, and this place.
And furthermore,
he also brought Greeks into The Temple,
even defiling this set apart place."

Acts 21:29 Indeed, they had previously seen Trophimus, the Ephesian,
with him in the city,
whom they thought that Sha'ul
had brought into The Temple.

Acts 21:30 So the whole city was disturbed.
And the people ran together, seized Sha'ul,
and dragged him out of The Temple.
And immediately the doors were shut.

Acts 21:31 Now as they were seeking to kill him
news went up to the commander of the garrison
that all Yerushalaim was in an uproar.

Acts 21:32 He immediately took soldiers and centurions
and ran down to them.

Now having seen the commander
and the soldiers they quit beating Sha'ul.

Acts 21:33 Then the commander came near.
And he seized him.

And he ordered him
to be bound with two manacles.

And he asked who he was
and what he had done.

Acts 21:34 Then some among the multitude shouted one thing and some another.

Then, not being able to know for certain
because of the tumult,
he ordered him to be brought into the barracks.

Acts 21:35 And when he reached the stairway
he had to be picked up by the soldiers
because of the violence of the crowd.

Acts 21:36 Indeed, the multitude of the people followed after crying out, "Away with him!"

Acts 21:37 Then Sha'ul,
about to be led into the barracks,
said to the commander, "May I speak to you?"

He replied, "Can you speak Greek?"

Acts 21:38 Are you not the Mitsraite
who in former days created an uproar
and led out four thousand into the wilderness
who were murderers?"

Acts 21:39 But Sha'ul said,
"I am a human being,
an Yisra'elite from Tarsus, in Cilicia,
a citizen of no insignificant city.
Now I beg you,
allow me to speak to the people."

Acts 21:40 Then, having given him permission,
Sha'ul stood on the stairway.
And he motioned with his hand to the people.
And when there was a great silence
he spoke in the Hebrew language saying,

Chapter 22

Acts 22:1 "Brothers and fathers,
hear my defense before you now."
Acts 22:2 And having heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language
they kept all the more silent.
Then he said,
Acts 22:3 "I am indeed an Yisra'elite,
born in Tarsus of Cilicia,
but brought up in this city
at the feet of Gamali'el, educated according to the exactness
of The Torah of our fathers.
And I was zealous for YAHWEH,
just as you all are today.
Gamali'el means my rewarder is El.

Acts 22:4 I persecuted this Way as far as death, binding and delivering into prisons
both men and women,
Acts 22:5 as even the great priest bears me witness,
and all the council of the elders,
from whom I also received letters
concerning the brothers.
And I traveled to Damascus
to bring those who were bound there to Yerushalaim to be punished.

Acts 22:6 Now it was as I traveled.
And I came near Damascus at about noon.
Suddenly a great light from the skies shone around me.
Acts 22:7 And I fell to the ground.
And I heard a voice saying to me,
'Sha'ul! Sha'ul! Why are you persecuting Me?'
Acts 22:8 Then I answered,
'Who are You, Master?'
And He said to me,
'I am YAHUSHUA of Nazareth,
Whom you are persecuting.'

Acts 22:9 Now those who were with me
truly observed the light and were terrified.
But they did not hear the voice of Him
Who was speaking to me.

Acts 22:10 Then I said,
'What shall I do, Master?'
And The Master said to me,
'Arise and go into Damascus!
And there you will be told concerning all things
which are prepared for you to do.'

Acts 22:11 Now since I could not see
because of the splendor of that light,
being led by the hand of those who were with me,
I came into Damascus.

Acts 22:12 Then a certain Hananyah,
a devout man according to The Torah,
having a good testimony
from all the Yisra'elites who dwelt there,
Acts 22:13 came to me.
And he was standing saying to me,
'Brother Sha'ul, look up!'
At that same instant I looked up at him.

Acts 22:14 Then he said,
'The Elohim of our fathers has chosen you that you might know His will,
and see The Just One,
and hear the voice of His mouth,
Acts 22:15 because you will be His witness to all human beings
of what you have seen and heard.

Acts 22:16 And now, why are you waiting?
Arise and be baptized,
and wash away your offenses
calling upon the Name of YAHUSHUA.'

tou kuriou - Lit. the supreme in authority.
The term is traditionally translated
as "The Lord".
In many instances
this is a reference to YAHWEH.
In many others it refers to YAHUSHUA.
The result is uncertainty and confusion.

Only by reviewing the context
can one get a reasonable sense
of which one is noted.
In this instance it appears that
the correct Name is YAHUSHUA,
since it identifies the removal of offenses,
which has now been made possible
by the death and resurrection of YAHUSHUA.

Acts 22:17 Now it happened to me,
having returned to Yerushalaim,
as I was praying in The Temple
that I came into ecstasy.

Acts 22:18 And I saw Him speaking to me,
'Hurry and get out of Yerushalaim quickly because they will not accept your testimony concerning Me.'

Acts 22:19 But I said,
'Master, they comprehend
that I was imprisoning
and beating in every synagogue
those who were trusting concerning You.

Acts 22:20 And when the blood of Your witness, Stephen, was shed
I was even present
and assenting to his death,
even guarding the clothes
of those who were murdering him.'

Acts 22:21 Then He said to me,
'Go, because I will send you far away to the Gentiles.'

Acts 22:22 Now they listened to him until this word.
And raising their voices they were saying,
"Remove this sort from the earth
because it is not fitting that he should live!"

Acts 22:23 And they were crying out and throwing down their garments
and throwing dust into the air.

Acts 22:24 The commander ordered him
to be brought into the barracks.
And he said that he should be examined by scourging
in order that he might recognize
why they shouted so against him.

Acts 22:25 But as they tied him prostrate with straps Sha'ul said to the centurion who was standing by,
"Is it right for you to scourge
if a person is a Roman and is without a trial?"

Acts 22:26 Now the centurion having heard went and told the commander saying,
"Discern clearly what you are about to do because this person is a Roman."

Acts 22:27 Then the commander came.
And he said to him,
"Tell me, are you a Roman?"
He said, "Yes."
Acts 22:28 The commander responded,
"With a large sum I obtained this citizenship."
But Sha'ul said, "But I was born a citizen."
Acts 22:29 Then immediately those who were about to examine him withdrew from him.
And the commander was also afraid
having recognized that he was a Roman,
and because he had bound him.

Acts 22:30 The next day,
because he wanted to know for certain
why he was accused by the Yisra'elites,
he released him from his shackles.
And he ordered the chief priests
and all their council to come.
And he brought Sha'ul down.
And he set him among them.

Chapter 23

Acts 23:1 Then Sha'ul,
looking intently at The Sanhedrin said,
"Men and brothers,
I have lived in all good conscience
before YAHWEH up to this very day."
Acts 23:2 Then the great priest, Hannanyah, ordered those who stood beside him
to strike his mouth.
Acts 23:3 Then Sha'ul said to him,
"YAHWEH will strike you,
you white washed wall!
You even sit to judge me
according to The Torah,
but you order me to be struck
contrary to The Torah."
Acts 23:4 Now those who stood beside him said,
"Do you revile the great priest of YAHWEH?"
Acts 23:5 Then Sha'ul said,
"I did not understand, brothers,
that he was the great priest.
Indeed, it is written,
'You are not to speak badly
concerning a ruler of your people.' "

Acts 23:6 Now Sha'ul, knowing absolutely that one part were Sadducees
but the other part Pharisees,
cried out in The Sanhedrin,
"Men and brothers,
I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee.
Concerning the hope
and resurrection of the dead
I am being judged!"

Acts 23:7 And having said this,
a dissension happened
between the Pharisees and the Sadducees,
and the group was divided Acts 23:8 because Sadducees say
there is no resurrection,
nor YAH-messenger,
nor Divine Nature,
but the Pharisees acknowledge all.

Acts 23:9 Then a great tumult happened.
And the scribes of the Pharisees' portion stood up and fought fiercely saying,
"We find no intrinsic worthlessness
in this human being.
Now if a Divine Nature or a YAH-messenger
has spoken to him let us not resist YAHWEH."

Acts 23:10 Now great dissension having happened,
the commander, fearing lest Sha'ul
might be pulled to pieces by them,
ordered the soldiers to go down
and seize him out of the midst of them
and bring him into the barracks.

Acts 23:11 Now the next night
The Master stood beside him saying,
"Have courage, Sha'ul.
Indeed, as you have testified concerning Me in Yerushalaim,
so you must also be a witness at Rome."

Acts 23:12 Now day having happened,
some of the Yisra'elites conspired together.
And they vowed themselves with an oath,
saying that they would neither eat nor drink
until they had killed Sha'ul.

Acts 23:13 Now there were more than forty who had formed this plot.

Acts 23:14 They went to the chief priests
and elders saying,

"We have vowed a great oath
that we will eat nothing
until we have killed Sha'ul.

Acts 23:15 Now you, therefore,
together with The Sanhedrin,
reveal it to the commander
so that he brings him down to you in the morning so that you could know more exactly concerning him.
But we are prepared to kill him before he arrives."

Acts 23:16 And when Sha'ul's sister's son heard of their ambush
he went and entered into the barracks.
And he told Sha'ul.

Acts 23:17 Then Sha'ul called
one of the centurions to him and said,
"Take this young man to the commander
because he has something to tell him."

Acts 23:18 Therefore, he took him.
And he brought him to the commander and said,
"Sha'ul, the prisoner, called me to him.
And he asked me to bring this young man to you.
He has something to say to you."

Acts 23:19 Then the commander
took him by the hand.
And they went aside by themselves,
he asking,

"What is it that you have to tell me?"

Acts 23:20 Then he said,
"The Yisra'elite leaders have agreed to ask that you bring Sha'ul down to The Sanhedrin
in the morning so they might inquire more fully concerning him.

Acts 23:21 However, do not trust them
because more than forty of them lie in wait for him,
men who have vowed themselves with an oath
that they will neither eat nor drink
until they have killed him.

Even now they are prepared,
waiting for an announcement from you."

Acts 23:22 Therefore, the commander
dismissed the young man, having warned him,
"Tell no one that you have revealed
these things to me."

Acts 23:23 And he called for two centurions saying,
"Prepare two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen,
and two hundred spearmen to go to Caesarea
at the third hour of the night,

Acts 23:24 also providing animals to set Sha'ul upon.
And bring him safely to Felix, the governor.”

Acts 23:25 He wrote a letter in the following manner:

Acts 23:26 Claudius Lysias
To the most excellent governor, Felix.
Greetings.

Felix means delusive.

Acts 23:27 This man was seized by the Yisra'elite leaders
and was about to be killed by them.
I came with the troops and rescued him,
having learned that he was a Roman.

Acts 23:28 Now desiring to know
the reason they accused him
I brought him into their Sanhedrin.

Acts 23:29 I found that he was accused concerning questions of their law
but had nothing charged against him
deserving of death or shackles.

Acts 23:30 Now it having been revealed to me that the Yisra'elite leaders were lying in wait for the man,
I sent him immediately to you.
And I also commanded his accusers
to state before you the charges against him.
Farewell.

Acts 23:31 Therefore the soldiers,
according to what was ordered for them,
took Sha'ul and brought him by night
to Antipatris.

Antipatris means against one's country.

Acts 23:32 The next day
they allowed the horsemen to travel on with him.
And they returned to the barracks.

Acts 23:33 These horsemen
having entered Caesarea
also delivered the letter to the governor.
And they presented Sha'ul to him.

Acts 23:34 Now the governor, having read it,
asked what province he was from.
And when he determined that he was from Cilicia,

Acts 23:35 he said,

“I will hear you when your accusers
have also arrived.”

And he ordered him to be guarded
in Herod's Praetorium.

Chapter 24

Acts 24:1 Now after five days
Hannanyah, the great priest,
came down with the elders
and a certain orator, Tertullus.
These gave evidence to the governor against Sha'ul.

Tertullus means triple-hardened.

Acts 24:2 Now having been called upon,
Tertullus began to accuse him saying,
“Seeing that through you we enjoy great peace and prosperity is being brought to this nation through your foresight,

Acts 24:3 we accept it always and in all places,
most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

Acts 24:4 Now in order not to be tedious
to you any further,

I beg you to hear, by your courtesy,
a few words from us.

Acts 24:5 Indeed,
we have found this man a plague,
a creator of dissension among all the Yisra'elites throughout the world,

and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.
Acts 24:6 He even tried to desecrate The Temple.
We seized him.
And we wanted to judge him according to our law.
Acts 24:7 But the commander, Lysias, arrived
and with great force took him out of our hands,
Acts 24:8 ordering his accusers to come before you.
By examining him yourself you may ascertain
all these things of which we accuse him.”
Acts 24:9 Now the Yisra'elite leaders also concurred,
asserting that these things were so.

Acts 24:10 But Sha'ul,
the governor having nodded to him to speak,
responded,
“For many years I understand
you have been a judge of this nation.
Cheerfully I defend myself
Acts 24:11 because you can understand that it is no more than twelve days
since I went up to Yerushalaim to worship.
Acts 24:12 And they neither found me in The Temple
disputing with anyone nor stirring up the crowd,
not even in the synagogues nor in the city;
Acts Acts 24:13 nor can they prove the things concerning which they now accuse me.
Acts 24:14 But this I acknowledge to you,
that according to The Way,
which they call a heresy,
in this manner I worship The Elohim of my fathers, believing all that is written in The Torah and in The Prophets.
Acts 24:15 I have hope in YAHWEH,
which they themselves also accept,
that there will be a resurrection of the dead,
both of the just and the unjust.
Acts 24:16 Now in this I train myself,
always having a conscience without offense
toward YAHWEH and human beings.

Acts 24:17 Now after many years I came to bring alms and offerings to my nation, Acts 24:18 in the midst of which some Yisra'elites from Asia
found me purified in The Temple,
neither with a crowd nor with a disturbance.
Acts 24:19 They ought to have been here before you
to object if they had anything against me.
Acts 24:20 Or else let those who are here
say whether they found any wrong doing in me
while I stood before The Sanhedrin Acts 24:21 unless it is for this one statement which I cried out standing among them,
'Concerning the resurrection of the dead
I am being judged by you this day.'

Acts 24:22 Now Felix, having heard these things, having more accurate knowledge of The Way,
dismissed them saying,
“When Lysias the commander comes down
I will ascertain exactly concerning your case.”
Acts 24:23 So he appointed a centurion
to guard Sha'ul and to let him have liberty.
And he told him not to forbid any of his friends
to provide for or visit him.

Acts 24:24 Now after some days,
Felix having arrived
with his wife Drusilla, who is an Yisra'elite,
he sent for Sha'ul.
And he listened to him
concerning his trust in The Messiah.
Drusilla means dewy.

Acts 24:25 Now as he reasoned concerning justification, self-control, and the judgment which is coming, Felix became frightened. And he responded, "Go away for now. At an acceptable time I will call for you."

Acts 24:26 At the same time he also was anticipating that money might be given him by Sha'ul so that he might release him. Because of this he sent for him frequently and conversed with him.

Acts 24:27 But after two years Porcius Festus succeeded Felix. And Felix, wanting to do the Yisra'elite leaders a favor, left Sha'ul bound.

Porcius means swinish.
Festus means told out.

Chapter 25

Acts 25:1 Now Festus having arrived in the province, after three days he went up from Caesarea to Yerushalaim.

Acts 25:2 Then the great priest and the chief men of the Yisra'elites informed him concerning Sha'ul. And they petitioned him,

Acts 25:3 asking a favor concerning him so that he would send him to Yerushalaim, setting an ambush along the way to kill him.

Acts 25:4 However, Festus responded that Sha'ul should be kept at Caesarea and that he himself was going there shortly.

Acts 25:5 He said, "Therefore, let those among you who are able go down with me and accuse this man to see if there is any fault in him."

Acts 25:6 Then, having remained among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea. The next day sitting upon the judgment seat he ordered Sha'ul to be brought.

Acts 25:7 Now having arrived, the Yisra'elite leaders who had come down from Yerushalaim surrounded him.

And they brought many serious charges against Sha'ul which they were not able to prove,

Acts 25:8 while he answered for himself, "Neither against The Torah of the Yisra'elites, nor against The Temple, nor against Caesar have I offended in anything."

Acts 25:9 But Festus, wanting to do the Yisra'elite leaders a favor, responded to Sha'ul saying, "Are you willing to go up to Yerushalaim, there to be judged before me concerning these things?"

Acts 25:10 Then Sha'ul said, "I stand at Caesar's judgment seat where I ought to be judged.

To the Yisra'elites I have done no wrong as you very well recognize.

Acts 25:11 Indeed, if I am an offender or have committed anything deserving of death I do not object to dying.

But if there are none of these things of which these men accuse me no one can deliver me to them. I appeal to Caesar."

Acts 25:12 Then Festus,
having conferred with The Sanhedrin,
responded, "You have appealed to Caesar?
To Caesar you shall go!"

Acts 25:13 Now after some days
King Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to greet Festus.

Agrippa means horse hunter.

Bernice means carry the victory.

Acts 25:14 When they had been there many days, Festus set forth Sha'ul's matter
before the king saying,
"There is a certain man
left a prisoner by Felix

Acts 25:15 concerning whom the chief priests
and the elders of the Yisra'elites informed me
when I was in Yerushalaim,
asking for judgment against him.

Acts 25:16 To them I answered that it is not the custom of Romans
to deliver any human being to destruction
before the accused meets the accusers face to face

and has opportunity to answer for himself
concerning the alleged offense.

Acts 25:17 Accordingly,
when they had come together,
without any delay, the next day
I sat on the judgment seat

and ordered the man to be brought in.

Acts 25:18 The accusers having stood up brought no accusation concerning him
of such things as I supposed,

Acts 25:19 but had some questions against him concerning their own religion
and concerning a certain YAHUSHUA,
Who died, Whom Sha'ul asserted is alive.

Acts 25:20 Now being at a loss
concerning such questions,
I asked if he was willing to go to Yerushalaim
and there be judged concerning these matters.

Acts 25:21 But when Sha'ul had appealed to be protected

until an examination by Augustus
I ordered him to be guarded
until I could send him to Caesar."

Acts 25:22 Then Agrippa said to Festus,
"I also desire to hear the man myself."
"Tomorrow," he said, "you will hear him."

Acts 25:23 Now the next day
Agrippa and Bernice having arrived with great pomp,
and having entered the auditorium
with the commanders
and the prominent men of the city,
at Festus' command Sha'ul was brought in.

Acts 25:24 And Festus said,
"King Agrippa and all the men who are now present with us,
you see this very one concerning whom the whole assembly of the Yisra'elite leaders conferred with me,
both at Yerushalaim and here,
crying out that he was not fit to live any longer.

Acts 25:25 But having found that he had committed nothing deserving of death
and that he himself had appealed to Augustus
I decided to send him.

Acts 25:26 I have nothing certain to write to my sovereign concerning him.

Therefore, I have brought him before you,
and especially before you, King Agrippa,
so that after the examination has taken place
I might have something to write.
Acts 25:27 Indeed, it seems to me unreasonable
to send a prisoner
and not to specify the charges against him.”

Chapter 26

Acts 26:1 Then Agrippa said to Sha'ul,
“You are permitted to speak for yourself.”
Then Sha'ul, defending himself,
stretched out his hand,
Acts 26:2 “Concerning everything with which I have been accused by the Yisra'elites,
King Agrippa,
I consider myself happy, being ready
to defend myself before you today,
Acts 26:3 especially because you are an expert,
understanding all customs and questions
pertaining to the Yisra'elites.
Therefore, I beg you to hear me patiently.

Acts 26:4 My manner of life from my youth which has happened from the beginning among my own nation at Yerushalaim
all the Yisra'elite leaders know, Acts 26:5 knowing of me from the beginning,
if they were willing to testify,
that according to the strictest sect
of our religion I lived as a Pharisee.
Acts 26:6 And now I stand being judged for the hope of the promise
established by The Elohim of our fathers.
Acts 26:7 Unto this promise our twelve tribes, earnestly worshipping YAHWEH night and day,
hope to attain.
On behalf of this hope, King Agrippa,
I am accused by the Yisra'elite leaders.

Acts 26:8 Why should it be judged incredible by you that YAHWEH raises the dead?

Acts 26:9 Indeed, I myself
truly thought it was necessary to do many things antagonistic
to the Name of YAHUSHUA of Nazareth.
Acts 26:10 This I even did in Yerushalaim.
And many of the set apart ones
I shut up in prison, having received authority
from the chief priests.
Then as they were being put to death
I cast my vote against them.
Acts 26:11 And I punished them frequently in every assembly,
compelling them to blaspheme,
even being exceedingly enraged against them.
I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

The only crime of blasphemy
for which one could be tried and put to death
was to speak the Name, YAHWEH.
Under the traditions of men,
established by the priests and scribes,
one was to be stoned to death
for speaking the Name.
Only the priests were allowed to do so
- by their own determination,
not by any instruction from YAHWEH.

Acts 26:12 And being in this mode
as I traveled to Damascus
with authority and permission from the chief priests,
Acts 26:13 at midday, Oh king, along the road
I saw a light from the sky brighter than the sun

shining all around me
and those who were traveling with me.
Acts 26:14 Then,
everyone having fallen to the ground,
I heard a voice speaking to me and saying
in the Hebrew dialect, 'Sha'ul! Sha'ul!
Why are you persecuting Me?
It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

This appears to be a Hebraism, indicating that it is not wise
to oppose the divine will or purpose.

Acts 26:15 Then I said,
'Who are You, Master?'
Then He said, 'I am YAHUSHUA,
Whom you are persecuting.

Acts 26:16 However, get up and stand upon your feet
because I have appeared to you
for this purpose,
to make you a servant and a witness
of both what you have seen
and what I will yet reveal to you,
Acts 26:17 selecting you out of this people,
and out of the Gentiles
to whom I now am sending you,
Acts 26:18 to open their eyes,
to turn them from darkness to light,
and from the authority of The Adversary
to the authority of YAHWEH, that they may receive pardon of offenses
and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by trust in Me.'

Implied in this verse
is "the authority of".
Only under the authority of YAHWEH
can one receive pardon of offenses.
He alone can pardon those who have rebelled
against His instructions
- which is the very essence
and definition of sin.

Acts 26:19 Therefore, King Agrippa,
I did not become disobedient
to the Heavenly vision Acts 26:20 but rather declared it
first in Damascus and then in Yerushalaim,
and also throughout all the region of Yahudah,
and to the Gentiles,
that they should reconsider,
turn to YAHWEH,
and practice works suitable for reconsideration.

Acts 26:21 For these reasons
the Yisra'elite leaders seized me in The Temple
and tried to kill me.
Acts 26:22 Therefore,
having obtained help from YAHWEH,
I am standing to this day
witnessing both to small and to great,
saying nothing other than those things
which the prophets and Moshe said would come,
Acts 26:23 that The Messiah would suffer,
that He would be the first one resurrected from being dead,
and would proclaim light to this people
and to the Gentiles."

Acts 26:24 Now as he thus made his defense
Festus said with a loud voice,
"Sha'ul, you are a raving maniac!
Much learning is driving you crazy!"
Acts 26:25 But he said,

"I am not a raving maniac, most noble Festus,
but instead speak plainly
words of truth and sanity.
Acts 26:26 Indeed, the king before whom I even speak boldly
knows about these things.
I truly am convinced that none of these things are hidden from you
since this thing was not done in a corner.

Acts 26:27 King Agrippa,
do you believe the prophets?
I perceive that you do believe."
Acts 26:28 Then Agrippa said to Sha'ul,
"You almost persuade me
to become a follower of The Messiah."
Acts 26:29 Then Sha'ul said,
"I wish that not only you,
but also all who are listening to me today,
would become both almost and altogether
the same as I am, except for these bonds."

Acts 26:30 And having thus spoken
the king stood up and the governor, and Bernice,
and those who were seated with them.
Acts 26:31 And having gone aside
they talked among themselves
saying that this human being is doing nothing deserving of death or chains.
Acts 26:32 Then Agrippa said to Festus,
"This man could have been set free
if he had not appealed to Caesar."

Chapter 27

Acts 27:1 And when it was decided that we should sail to Italy
they delivered both Sha'ul
and some other prisoners
to one named Julius,
a centurion of the Augustan Regiment.

Julius means palm hairy.

Acts 27:2 Then having boarded a ship of Adramyttium
we put to sea, meaning to sail
along the coasts of Asia.
Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica,
was with us.

Adramyttium means not in the race.

Acts 27:3 And the next day
we moored at Tzidon.
And Julius treated Sha'ul kindly giving him liberty to go to his friends
having an opportunity to refresh himself.
Acts 27:4 And having sailed from there
we sailed under the shelter of Cyprus
because the winds were contrary.
Acts 27:5 Then having sailed through the sea
which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia,
we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.
Acts 27:6 There the centurion
found an Alexandrian ship sailing to Italy, putting us on board.
Acts 27:7 But having sailed slowly many days,
and having arrived with difficulty off Cnidus,
the wind not permitting us to proceed,
we sailed under the shelter of Crete off Salmone.

Cnidus means nettled.

Crete means fleshy.

Salmone means from the surging.

Acts 27:8 Then passing it with difficulty
we came to a place called Fair Havens,
which is near the city of Lasea.

Fair Havens means good ports.

Lasea means shaggy.

Acts 27:9 Now much time having elapsed and sailing now being dangerous
because The Fast was already over,
Sha'ul advised them,

The Fast is The Day of Atonement.

Acts 27:10 saying, "Men,
I discern that this voyage is about to end
with much injury and much damage,
not only of the cargo and ship
but also our lives."

Acts 27:11 However, the centurion
was more persuaded by the helmsman
and the owner of the ship
than what was spoken by Sha'ul.

Acts 27:12 Now because the harbor was not suitable to winter in the majority advised to set sail from there also if by any means they could arrive at Phoenix,
a harbor of Crete which looks toward south
and toward north, to winter there.

Phoenix means immortality.

Acts 27:13 Then the south wind having blown softly thinking they had obtained their desire,
they departed ,sailing very close to Crete.

Acts 27:14 But not long after a tempestuous wind arose called Euroclydon.

This wind is a typhoon.

Acts 27:15 Then, the ship having been caught and not being able to face into the wind,
we surrendered her, being driven.

Acts 27:16 Then running under the shelter
of an island called Clauda,
struggling with much difficulty we secured the skiff

Acts 27:17 which having taken on board
we used ropes to undergird the ship.

And fearing

lest they should run aground on a shoal,
they lowered the sail thus being driven.

Acts 27:18 Then we,
being exceedingly tempest tossed,
the next day worked at lightening the ship.

Acts 27:19 On the third day we threw
the ship's tackle overboard with our own hands.

Acts 27:20 Now neither sun nor stars
being visible for many days,
and no small storm being upon us,
all hope that we would be saved
was finally given up.

Acts 27:21 And after a long abstinence from food, then Sha'ul,
standing in the midst of them said,
"Men, you should have followed my advice
not having sailed from Crete
and incurred this injury and damage.

Acts 27:22 But now I urge you to cheer up because there will be no loss of life among you, only the ship.

Acts 27:23 Indeed, there stood beside me
this very night a messenger of YAHWEH,
to Whom I belong and Whom I worship,

Acts 27:24 saying, 'Do not be afraid, Sha'ul.
You must be brought before Caesar.

And indeed, YAHWEH has granted you
all those who sail with you.'

Acts 27:25 Therefore men, cheer up, because I trust in YAHWEH
that it will be just as it was told to me.

Acts 27:26 However, we must be driven off course
into a certain island."

Acts 27:27 Now when the fourteenth night had come

as we were being driven up and down in the Adriatic Sea,
about midnight the sailors surmised
that they were drawing near some land.
Acts 27:28 And taking some soundings
found it to be twenty fathoms.
And having gone a little farther
they took soundings again
and found it to be fifteen fathoms.
Acts 27:29 And being alarmed
lest we should run aground on the rocks
they dropped four anchors from the stern
and prayed for the coming of day.

Acts 27:30 Now the sailors were plotting to escape from the ship
and had lowered the skiff into the sea pretending they were casting out anchors
from the prow.

Acts 27:31 Sha'ul said to the centurion
and the soldiers,
"Unless these men stay in the ship
you cannot be saved."

Acts 27:32 Then the soldiers cut away
the ropes of the skiff and let it drop away.

Acts 27:33 Now as day was about to dawn
Sha'ul encouraged every single one of them to take food saying,
"Today is the fourteenth day you have waited and continued without food
and eaten absolutely nothing.

Acts 27:34 Therefore, I urge you to take nourishment.
Indeed, this is for your safety
because not a hair will fall
from the head of any of you."

Acts 27:35 Now having said these things
he took bread and gave thanks to YAHWEH
in front of everyone.

And having broken it he began to eat.

Acts 27:36 Then they all became cheerful,
also taking food.

Acts 27:37 Now everyone in the ship
was two hundred and seventy six persons.

Acts 27:38 Then having eaten enough
they lightened the ship.

And they threw out the wheat into the sea.

Acts 27:39 Now when it became day
they did not recognize the land
but they observed a certain bay
which had a beach onto which they resolved
if possible to run the ship.

Acts 27:40 And having cast off the anchors committing them to the sea at the same time
having loosed the rudder ropes,
and hoisting the mainsail to the wind
they held on until the beach.

Acts 27:41 But falling into a place where two seas met
they ran the ship aground,
the prow of the ship having stuck fast
and remaining immovable.
Now the stern was being broken up
under the violence of the waves.

Acts 27:42 Now the soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners lest any of them should swim away and escape.

Acts 27:43 But the centurion,
wanting to save Sha'ul,
kept them from their purpose.

And he ordered those who could swim
to jump overboard first and get to land,

Acts 27:44 and the rest, some on boards,
but others on some parts of the ship.
And so it was that everyone
was brought safely to land.

Chapter 28

Acts 28:1 And having escaped
they then recognized that the island was called Melita.

Melita means from honey.

Acts 28:2 Now the non-Greeks showed us unusual kindness.
Indeed, they kindled a fire,
showing us all hospitality
because of the rain that was falling and because of the cold.

Acts 28:3 Now Sha'ul, having gathered a bundle of dry twigs
and laying them on the fire,
a viper came out because of the heat
and fastened on his hand.

A viper is a poisonous snake.

Acts 28:4 Now when the non-Greeks saw the dangerous animal hanging from his hand
they said to one another,
"No doubt this human being is a murderer
whom having escaped the sea
justice does not permit to live."

Acts 28:5 However,
he shook off the dangerous animal
into the fire and experienced no harm.

Acts 28:6 Now they were expecting that he would swell up
or suddenly fall down dead.
But having watched for a long time
and observing no harm come to him
they changed their minds
and said he was a god.

Acts 28:7 In that region there was an estate of the leading citizen of the island
whose name was Publius,
who entertained us as guests,
hosting us with kindness for three days.

Publius means popular.

Acts 28:8 Now it happened
that the father of Publius
lay sick with a fever and dysentery,
to whom Sha'ul went in,
and praying,
laid his hands upon him and healed him.

Acts 28:9 Therefore, this having happened,
the rest of those on the island
who had diseases
also came and were healed.

Acts 28:10 They also honored us with many honors.
And when we sailed away
they provided such things as were necessary.

Acts 28:11 Now after three months
we sailed away in an Alexandrian ship
which had wintered at the island
whose figurehead was the Twin Brothers.

Acts 28:12 And landing at Syracuse
we stayed three days.

Acts 28:13 From there we circled round
and arrived at Rhegium.

And after one day the south wind blew.
The next day we came to Puteoli

Puteoli means little mineral springs.

Acts 28:14 where we found brothers
who encouraged us to stay with them seven days.
And in this manner we came to Rome.

Acts 28:15 And the brothers from there,
having heard about us, came out to meet us
from as far as Appii Forum and Three Inns,
whom Sha'ul, having seen them,
thanked YAHWEH, taking courage.

Acts 28:16 Now when we had come to Rome
the centurion delivered the prisoners
to the captain of the guard.
But Sha'ul was permitted to dwell by himself
with the soldier who guarded him.

Acts 28:17 Now it happened after three days
that Sha'ul called the leaders of the Yisra'elites together.
Then having come together he said to them,
"Men and brothers,
having done nothing against our people
or the customs of our fathers
I was delivered as a prisoner from Yerushalaim
into the hands of the Romans,
Acts 28:18 who having examined me
wanted to release me
because there was no reason
for putting me to death.
Acts 28:19 But the Yisra'elite leaders
having spoken against me,
I was compelled to appeal to Caesar,
not that I had anything
of which to accuse my nation.
Acts 28:20 For this reason therefore,
I have called for you to see you and to speak with you because for the hope of Yisra'el
I am bound with this chain."

Acts 28:21 But they said to him,
"We neither received letters
from Yahudah concerning you,
nor have any of the brothers who have come reported or spoken any hurtful thing
concerning you.
Acts 28:22 But we desire
to hear from you what you think,
because concerning this sect
we know that it is spoken against everywhere."

Acts 28:23 Now having arranged a day for him
many came to him at his lodging,
to whom he explained and solemnly testified
concerning The Kingdom of YAHWEH,
persuading them concerning YAHUSHUA
from both The Torah of Moshe
and The Prophets,
from morning until evening.
Acts 28:24 And some believed the things being spoken.
But some disbelieved.

Acts 28:25 Then having not agreed among themselves they were departing, Sha'ul saying one thing,
"The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
spoke well through Yeshayah, the prophet,
to our forefathers
Acts 28:26 saying,
'Go to this people and say,
*"Hearing you will hear,
but will not understand;
and seeing you will see,
but not perceive,*
Acts 28:27 *because the hearts of this people
have grown dull.
Their ears are hard of hearing,*

*and their eyes they have closed,
lest they should see with their eyes
and hear with their ears;
lest they should understand with their hearts
and turn, so that I should heal them.'*
(Is. 6.8-10)

Acts 28:28 Therefore let it be known to you that the deliverance of YAHWEH
has been sent to the Gentiles!
And they will hear it!"

Acts 28:29 And having said these words
the Yisra'elites departed.
And they had much disputing among themselves.

Acts 28:30 Now Sha'ul dwelt two whole years
in his own rented house.
And he received all who came in to him,
Acts 28:31 proclaiming The Kingdom of YAHWEH
and teaching the things concerning
The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
with all boldness, no one hindering him.

6. GALATIANS

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Gal. 1:1 Sha'ul, an ambassador, not because of human beings
nor through human beings,
but on the contrary,
through YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
and YAHWEH, The Father,
Who has raised Him up from being dead,

NOTE: Galatians has been moved to this position after The Gospels because it is crucial to a proper understanding of Paul's writings,
and therefore most of The New Covenant.
It reveals the basis for Paul's perspectives,
which many believe are not in agreement
with other parts of The New Covenant.
This is due to a misunderstanding of Paul's message,
AND a failure to recognize
Who taught Paul what he knows.

Sha'ul means asked, requested.

apostolos - a delegate;
specially, an ambassador of the Gospel;
officially a commissioner of The Messiah
(with miraculous powers).
An ambassador is a personal legal representative of the one who sends him.
He is authorized to speak
as the individual who sent him.

Most translations use the phrase
"raised Him from the dead".
This is not a correct translation.

egeiro is the word for "raised up".
It literally means to waken or arouse.
ex nekros is the term for "from, or out of, dead".
There is no article supplied in the text
Nekros is an adjective, not a noun.
The noun would be "death",
which is thanatos in the Greek.
It was common to refer to those who died
as those who "sleep".
Thus, the concept is that one who died
has been aroused from their state
of being asleep (dead).

Gal. 1:2 and all the brothers who are with me to the assemblies of Galatia.

Galatia means milky.

Gal. 1:3 Favor to you and well being from YAHWEH, The Father, and our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, eirene is the Greek word typically translated as peace. It also carries the connotation of prosperity. It's used to translate the Hebrew word, shalom, which means far more than peace. It means total well being in every aspect of your life.

"Grace" means to be granted favor by another.

Gal. 1:4 Who gave Himself for the sake of our offenses, in order that He might deliver us out of this present hurtful age according to the purpose of YAHWEH, even our Father,

poneros - hurtful, i.e. evil.

Typically translated as 'evil', it's important to recognize that this term includes all that's hurtful. Even slight damage or harm to another is included. It doesn't have to be something 'awful'.

This is not the traditional way this verse is translated.

However, the Greek cases indicate this is actually the sense of this phrase - a reminder that not only is YAHWEH The Father of The Messiah, but He is also OUR Father - us being "born again" through belief in Him.

Gal. 1:5 to Whom be honor from this age into ages of eternity. Amen.

Gal. 1:6 I wonder why you are so quickly carried away from Him Who called you into the favor of The Messiah into a different gospel, Gal. 1:7 which is not different except that some are agitating you and want to transform you into something other than the good news of The Messiah.

Gal. 1:8 However, even if we or a messenger from The Heaven proclaim any good news to you other than what we have proclaimed to you he is to be excommunicated!

This is a strong statement. There are many false gospels that are taught. The warning is to stay away from them - or get kicked out of the body of believers. Sha'ul knows full well the dangers of such heresies.

We are to follow The Truth of YAHWEH, and no other. Anyone who is not willing to do so needs to be put out of the fellowship.

aggelos is the Greek word for messenger. It's pronounced ahn-geh-los, from which we get 'angel'. But this is not proper. A messenger is not an 'angel'. It is one sent on behalf of another with a message.

Gal. 1:9 As we have said before,
and also say again this day,
if anyone proclaims good news to you contrary to what you have received
he is to be excommunicated!

anathema – a religious ban, excommunicated.
Second warning.
This stands with The Old Covenant practice of having two or three witnesses
to confirm something.
This is the second witness.

Gal. 1:10 Indeed, do I now
persuade human beings, or YAHWEH?
Why do I seek to please human beings?
Indeed, if I have pleased human beings
I have not ever been a slave of The Messiah.

doulos - a slave.
Most "translations" use the term "servant."
That's a "nice" way of talking about one who is in bondage to their owner as a slave.
A slave is one who has been bought
and paid for by the "owner".
In this case Sha'ul is making the point that he, as every other believer,
has been bought and paid for by the "ransom price"
that The Messiah paid for us
by means of giving His life
to set us free from our offense debt
- the "price" of which is death!

Gal. 1:11 Now I make known to you, brothers,
that the good news
which was proclaimed through me
is not according to a human being.

Gal. 1:12 Indeed, I neither received it from a human being,
nor was I taught it by such,
but rather it was received through the revelation of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

This is an extremely important statement!
Sha'ul was NOT taught by human beings!
He was taught by The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
through direct personal REVELATION!

Because of this Sha'ul knows things
that no other "apostle" knew or understood.
In effect, this gives Sha'ul a unique "gospel".
He has had revealed to him, by the risen Messiah,
secrets never before revealed.
If you understand this
you will be far better able to understand the differences between what Sha'ul teaches and the rest of The New Covenant "gospels".

Gal. 1:13 Indeed, you have heard of my former behavior in the Yisra'elite faith,
how I persecuted the assembly of YAHWEH
beyond measure and ravaged it.

The term "Judaism"
is traditionally used in this verse.
This is not correct.
It is properly "the Yisra'elite faith".
Why is this so?
It's because this faith was not exclusive to those of the tribe of Yahudah (Judah in most translations).
There are 13 tribes in Yisra'el, not one.
(Traditionally the tribe of Levi is ignored.)
Their faith is in the same One, YAHWEH.
The use of "Jew" or "Jewish" or "Judaism"
is not correct.
Yet human tradition
has promoted this lie for millennia.

Gal. 1:14 And I advanced the Yisra'elite faith beyond many of my contemporaries
among my own kind,
being more exceedingly zealous
for the traditions of my forefathers.

The "traditions of men" was an issue

against which YAHUSHUA spoke out most strongly
during His earthly ministry.

Sha'ul was taught by Gamali'el,
one of the foremost teachers of his time,
and one of the most strict Yisra'elite teachers of that day.
Sha'ul was an Yisra'elite zealot,
and was diametrically opposed to the teachings of The Messiah
– until his encounter on the road to Damascus.
It's crucial to keep this in mind
when reading Sha'ul's letters.
It's also crucial to understand that "the traditions" Sha'ul was following were the very thing that resulted in his personal encounter
with the resurrected Messiah.

Gal. 1:15 But when it pleased YAHWEH
Who set me off by a boundary
from my mother's womb,
and He called me
through His showing me favor,
Gal. 1:16 revealing His Son to me
in order that I might proclaim Him among the Gentiles,
I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood,
Gal. 1:17 nor did I go up to Yerushalaim
to those who were ambassadors prior to me.
But on the contrary, I went off into Arabia
and returned again to Damascus.

Sha'ul was not taught by "the disciples"
(here identified as 'ambassadors')
or any other human being.
He was taught by The Risen Messiah.

Yerushalaim means
complete teaching of deliverance.
Arabia means dusky; mixed.
Damascus means sackcloth weaver.

Gal. 1:18 Then after three years
I went up to Yerushalaim to see Peter.
And I remained with him fifteen days.

Peter means a stone.

Gal. 1:19 But I saw none of the other ambassadors except Ya'akov, The Master's brother.

Ya'akov means heel catcher; restrainer.

Gal. 1:20 Now concerning the things which I write to you, behold!
In the presence of YAHWEH I do not lie!

Behold is a very common Hebrew term.
It's always emphatic.
It always means "Pay attention!"

Gal. 1:21 After that I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia.

Syria means exalted.
Cilicia means hair cloth.

Gal. 1:22 But I was unknown by face to the assemblies of Yahudah
which were in The Messiah.

Gal. 1:23 But they were hearing only,
"He who formerly persecuted us
now proclaims the faith
which he once tried to ravage."

Gal. 1:24 And they praised YAHWEH
because of me.

Chapter 2

Gal. 2:1 Then after fourteen years
I went up again to Yerushalaim with Bar Nabas.
And I also took Titus with me.

Bar Nabas means son of consolation.
Titus means nurse, child rearer.

Gal. 2:2 And I went up
according to a revelation

and set forth for them that good news
which I proclaim among the Gentiles,
but privately to those who were of reputation,
lest by any means I was running,
or had run, in vain.

These details are overlooked by most today.
They ignore Sha'ul's actual experiences,
and his own explanation
that he was not taught
like the rest of the "apostles".
His education concerning faith in The Risen Messiah came directly from The Messiah Himself
– not from human beings.
This gives Sha'ul's "gospel"
a distinction no other possesses.

Gal. 2:3 And not even Titus who was with me,
being a Greek,
was required to be circumcised then Greek means unstable; the miry one.

Gal. 2:4 because of false brothers brought in unknowingly
who came in by stealth to spy out our freedom which we have in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
in order that they might bring us into bondage;
Gal. 2:5 to whom we did not yield in subjection
even for one moment,
in order that the truth of the good news
would continue to remain with you.

Gal. 2:6 Now from those who seemed to be something,
whatever they were, it matters not to me.
YAHWEH accepts no human being's appearance.
Indeed, to me those who were esteemed added nothing to me.

diaphero - to bear through, i.e. transport.
Literally, "it carries no weight with me."

Gal. 2:7 But on the contrary, having seen that the good news
for the uncircumcised
had been committed to me,
just as the good news for the circumcised
was committed to Peter,
Gal. 2:8 indeed,
He Who worked effectively in Peter
for the ambassadorship to the circumcised
also worked effectively in me
for the sake of the Gentiles.

Gal. 2:9 And when Ya'akov, Cephas,
and Yahanathan, who seemed to be pillars,
recognized the favor
that had been given to me,
they gave to me and Bar Nabas
the right hand of partnership
in order that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised.

Cephas means a a stone.
Cephas is Peter.
Yahanathan means gift of YAHWEH.
Bar Nabas means son of the prophet.

Gal. 2:10 They desired only
that we might remember the poor,
the very thing which I also was eager to do.

Gal. 2:11 Now when Peter had come to Antioch
I opposed him to his face
because he was to be blamed,
Antioch means driven against.

Gal. 2:12 because before certain men came from Ya'akov
he would eat with the Gentiles.
But when they had come
he withdrew and separated himself,
fearing those who were of the circumcision.

Gal. 2:13 And the rest of the Yisra'elites
also acted hypocritically with him,
so that even Bar Nabas
was carried away by their hypocrisy.

Gal. 2:14 And when I saw that they were not straightforward
concerning the truth of the good news
I said to Peter in front of them all,
"If you, being an Yisra'elite,
live in the manner of Gentiles and not as the Yisra'elites
why do you require the Gentiles
to live as Yisra'elites?"

Gal. 2:15 We who are Yisra'elites by nature,
and not offenders from among the Gentiles,
Gal. 2:16 understand that a human being is not rendered innocent
by means of works of The Torah
but only through trust
in YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

And we also have trusted
in the Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
in order that we might be rendered innocent
by trust in The Messiah,
and not by works of Torah,
on the very account that
by works of Torah
no flesh will be rendered innocent.

The Torah is what is commonly called
"The Law of Moshe".
The Yisra'elites were taught that by "doing" what The Torah "required"
they would be "saved".
Sha'ul is making the point
that this was not possible.
The only true deliverance comes from trusting 100% in the person and work
of The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.
Faith and belief are both based on trust.
The Greek words can be translated in all three ways.
The most important element
in your relationship with YAHWEH
is your trust in Him and in His Word.
Without trust you are not redeemed!

Gal. 2:17 Now, if while seeking to be rendered innocent by The Messiah
we ourselves also are found offenders
is The Messiah, therefore, a minister of offense?
May it never be so!

Gal. 2:18 Indeed, if I build again
those things which I demolished
I establish myself as a violator.

This would be a violator of The Torah.
The reason lies in the reality that after YAHUSHUA's death and resurrection doing the works of The Torah no longer holds sway over one's life
as it did previously.
Deliverance is by trust in YAHUSHUA,
not by the works of The Torah
- the exact point Sha'ul is making.

Gal. 2:19 Indeed, I, because of The Torah, have died to The Torah
in order that I might live to YAHWEH.

Sha'ul's being "dead to the Torah"
did not mean The Torah had become void.
It is still required for the Yisra'elites
who rejected their Messiah.
But for one who believes in and trusts The Messiah for their redemption
The Torah no longer controls one's life.

Now one is to live as belonging to YAHWEH
and being accountable to Him,
not to the works of The Torah.

Gal. 2:20 I have been crucified with The Messiah!
Nevertheless, I live!

Now it is no longer I who live, but instead,
The Messiah is living in me!

Was The Messiah
physically living in Sha'ul?
No.

But the Divine Nature of The Messiah
- which is identical
with The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
- was indeed now dwelling inside of Sha'ul.
This is the result of "the new birth".

The divine nature
is "poured out" upon a person
- they are endowed with it,
or, it is bestowed upon them.
This is where the concept of "fell upon" comes from.

This is the pneuma hagion - sacred breath
- traditionally translated as "The Holy Spirit".
This is not a separate "person",
part of some purported "trinity".
There is no trinity.
It is "the new nature",
The Divine Nature,
now dwelling within the Believer.

And that which I now am living in the flesh
I am living by trust in The Son of YAHWEH,
Who is loving me
and has surrendered Himself for my sake!

Gal. 2:21 I am not setting aside
the favor of YAHWEH!

Indeed, if justification is through Torah
then The Messiah has died in vain!

Chapter 3

Gal. 3:1 Oh foolish Galatians!
Who has manipulated you
so that you are not convinced by the truth,
before whose eyes YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
was clearly portrayed among you
as having been crucified?

Gal. 3:2 This alone I want to learn from you!
Did you receive The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
by works of The Torah,
or by the hearing of faith?

Gal. 3:3 Are you that foolish?
Having begun by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
are you now being made complete by the flesh?

Gal. 3:4 Have you experienced something as great as this in vain,
if, indeed, it was in vain?

Gal. 3:5 Now then, He that is supplying The Divine Nature of YAHWEH to you and working signs among you,
is it by works of The Torah,
or by hearing of faith,

Gal. 3:6 even as Abraham
*"believed YAHWEH,
and it was accounted to him
as justification."*?
(Gen. 15.6)

Gal. 3:7 Know therefore that those who exist by faith,
these same ones are children of Abraham.

Gal. 3:8 Now the Scripture, foreseeing that YAHWEH
would justify the Gentiles by faith,
announced the good news
to Abraham in advance:
"In you all the nations will be blessed."
(Gen. 12.3, 22.18, 26.4)

To justify means to render innocent.

Gal. 3:9 Therefore, those of faith
are blessed with trustworthy Abraham.
eulogeo - to speak well of,
i.e. (religiously) to bless.

Gal. 3:10 Now as many as exist
by works of The Torah
are under a curse

because it is written,
*"Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the scroll of The Torah,
to do them."* (Deut. 27.26)

Gal. 3:11 Now that not even one is rendered innocent by Torah
in the presence of YAHWEH
is clear because,

"the just will live by faith."
(Hab. 2.4)

Gal. 3:12 Indeed, The Torah is not from faith.

On the contrary,
*"the man who does them
must live by them."*
(Lev. 18.5)

Gal. 3:13 The Messiah has ransomed us
from the curse of The Torah,
having become a curse for our sakes...
Indeed, it is written,
"Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree."
(Deut. 21.23)

Gal. 3:14 ...in order that the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles
by means of The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
in order that we might obtain the promise
of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
through faith.

Gal. 3:15 Brothers, I am speaking
according to the manner of human beings.
At the time a human being's covenant
has been authenticated
no one sets it aside or adds to it.

Gal. 3:16 Now to Abraham and to his Seed
were the promises uttered.
He does not say,
"And to seeds,"
as of many, but as of one,
"And to your Seed."
(Gen. 13.15),
which is The Messiah.

Gal. 3:17 Now I say this,
The Covenant
having been previously authenticated
by means of YAHWEH in The Messiah,
a law having come into being four hundred and thirty years later cannot render the promise entirely meaningless.

Gal. 3:18 Indeed, if an inheritance
is the result of The Torah

it is no longer the result of a promise.
However, YAHWEH gave it to Abraham
through a promise.

Gal. 3:19 Why, therefore, The Torah?
It was added because of violations
until The Seed might come
of Whom the promise was made,
having been instituted by Divine messengers
into the hand of a mediator.

Violations are rebellions, transgressions.

Gal. 3:20 Now a mediator is not for one.
Yet YAHWEH is one.

Gal. 3:21 Is The Torah then against the promises of YAHWEH?
May it never be!
Indeed, if a law had been given which was able to give Life justification would certainly have been
by means of a law.

Life in this context is Eternal Life.

Gal. 3:22 Instead, The Scripture has confined everyone under offense
in order that the promise,
through trust in YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
might be given to those who are trusting.

Present active tense.

Current, on-going action.

You either are having faith/believing,
or you are not.

"Sin" is an offense.

It is an act of refusing to follow
the teaching and instruction of YAHWEH.
This is an act of rebellion.

It offends YAHWEH because it rejects Him
as the One Whom you respect and honor
as King of your life.

Gal. 3:23 On the other hand,
before faith came
we were kept under protection by The Torah, confined for the sake of the faith
which was going to be revealed.
Gal. 3:24 Therefore,
The Torah became our tutor
prior to The Messiah
in order that we might be justified through faith.

Gal. 3:25 But after faith has come
we are no longer under a tutor.

Gal. 3:26 Indeed,
you are all children of YAHWEH
because of your faith
in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

Gal. 3:27 Indeed, as many of you as were baptized into The Messiah have put on The Messiah.

One could present a long discussion
on how this is accomplished
and what it means.

Scripturally, it relates to
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
(normally translated as 'The Spirit'.)
which, after the resurrection
and ascension of The Messiah,
is given to those who trust in what YAHWEH has accomplished in this event.

Since The Messiah is "one with The Father",
and since The Divine Nature is given to us,
this would become the means
by which we have "put on" The Messiah.
YAHUSHUA's divine nature,

which is also that of The Father,
has become an indwelling presence in our lives.
As the very next verse states,
we are now "one" (united) with Him.

Gal. 3:28 There is neither Yisra'elite nor Greek.
There is neither slave nor free.
There is neither male nor female.
Now you are all one
in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

Gal. 3:29 And if you are The Messiah's
then you are Abraham's seed,
and heirs according to the promise.

Chapter 4

Gal. 4:1 Now, I say, one who is an heir,
as long as he is a child,
differs not at all from a servant
although he is a master of everything.

Gal. 4:2 Indeed,
he is under guardians and stewards
until the time appointed by the father.

Gal. 4:3 We also, being infants, were enslaved under
the elements of the world.

Gal. 4:4 But when the completion of the time had come,

YAHWEH sent forth His Son,
coming into being out of a woman,
coming into being under The Torah,
Gal. 4:5 to ransom those who were under Torah,
in order that we might receive
the placement as children.

To redeem is to ransom,
to pay a price for the release.

This is normally translated as "adoption as sons".
It literally means to be placed as a son/child.
This is a legal concept.

It has to do with the new birth.
It's related to being positioned as a legal heir
within the family of YAHWEH as a "son".

In this regard
we become equal with YAHUSHUA,
because He is a "son" (child) of YAHWEH.
Believers are also "sons" of YAHWEH
as a result of being placed in that position by YAHWEH
as a direct consequence of placing our trust in Him,
and as a result of our becoming a purchased possession
by means of the ransom price
paid by YAHUSHUA on the torture stake.
Note the consequence in the following verses.

Gal. 4:6 Now since you are children
YAHWEH has sent forth
The Divine Nature of His Son into your hearts, crying out to Abba, The Father!"

As "children" we are also heirs.
Here The Divine Nature of The Son
is equal to The Divine Nature of The Father.

This is what is typically
"translated" as "The Spirit".
But "spirit" is a misleading term.
It's a Greek creation
that is not found in Hebrew thought prior to the arrival of the Greek culture.

Gal. 4:7 Therefore,
you are no longer a servant,
but instead a son.

And if you are a son,
then you are an heir of YAHWEH
through The Messiah.

Gal. 4:8 On the other hand then,
when you truly did not know YAHWEH
you served as a slave those things which by nature did not exist as gods.

Gal. 4:9 But now,
having come to know YAHWEH,
or rather, to being known by YAHWEH,
why do you return
to the impotent and impoverished elements
in which you choose once again
to be in bondage?

Gal. 4:10 You observe days and months
and seasons and years.

Gal. 4:11 I am afraid for you
lest I have labored for you in vain.

Gal. 4:12 Brothers,
I urge you to become like me,
because I became like you.
No one has been unjust to me.

Gal. 4:13 You know that because of physical infirmity
I proclaimed the good news to you at the beginning.

Gal. 4:14 And my trial which was in my flesh
you did not despise or reject,
but instead you received me
as a messenger of YAHWEH,
even as The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

Gal. 4:15 Where then is the blessing?
Indeed, I bear you witness that if possible
you would have plucked out your own eyes
and given them to me.

His thorn in the flesh?

Gal. 4:16 Have I therefore become your enemy
because I tell you the truth?

Gal. 4:17 Their warm feelings for you are not good.
Indeed, they desire to shut you out
in order that you might have warm feelings for them.

The reference is obviously to those who are trying to deceive the Galatians.

They're trying to shut them out of YAHWEH's Kingdom.

They're doing this "so you will like them".

This is all about "feel-good religion"

It deceives many.

You go along with another because they make you feel good.

But the end result

*is abandoning your faith in YAHWEH
as one turns to faith in the "nice person".*

Gal. 4:18 Now, it is good to have warm feelings always concerning what is good,
and not only when I am present with you.

Gal. 4:19 My little children
for whom I labor in birth once more until The Messiah is formed within you,

Gal. 4:20 I would like to be present
with you now and to change my tone
because I have doubts about you.

Gal. 4:21 Tell me,
you who are inclined to be under law,
do you not listen to The Torah?

Gal. 4:22 Indeed, it is written
that Abraham had two sons,

the one from a female slave,
the other from a free woman.
Gal. 4:23 However, he from the female slave was born according to the flesh,
and he from the free woman
through the promise,

Gal. 4:24 which things are an allegory,
because these are the two covenants.
The first one, truly from Mount Sinai,
giving birth to slavery, is Hagar.

Gal. 4:25 Indeed,
this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia,
which corresponds to the Yerushalaim
which now exists,
but is in slavery with her children.

*Hagar means ensnaring.
Sinai means my thorns.
Arabia means dusky; mixed.*

Gal. 4:26 But the Yerushalaim above is free,
which is the mother of each of us.

Gal. 4:27 Indeed, it is written:

*“Rejoice, O barren,
you who do not bear!
Break forth and shout,
you who are not in labor!
For the desolate has many more children
than she who has a husband.”*
(Is. 54.1)

Gal. 4:28 Now we, brothers, like Yitzhak,
are children of a promise.

Yitzhak means laughter.

Gal. 4:29 However, just as it was then,
he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born
according to The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.
And thus it is even now.

Gal. 4:30 However,
what does The Scripture say?

*“Cast out the female slave and her son,
for the son of the female slave will not be heir
with the son of the free woman.”*
(Gen. 21.10)

Gal. 4:31 Therefore brothers,
we are not children of the female slave
but of the free woman.

Chapter 5

Gal. 5:1 Stand firm therefore in the freedom
wherewith The Messiah has made us free!
And do not be ensnared again
with the yoke of slavery!

Note: Chapter 5 should begin here.

Gal. 5:2 Indeed, I, Sha'ul, say to you that if you become circumcised
The Messiah will profit you nothing!

Gal. 5:3 And I testify again
to every man who becomes circumcised
that he is a debtor to keep the entire Torah.

Gal. 5:4 The Messiah
has become of no effect for you,
you who are justified by The Torah.
You have fallen away from favor.

Gal. 5:5 Now we,
by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
are fully expecting,
anticipating justification by faith.

Gal. 5:6 Indeed, in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,

neither circumcision nor uncircumcision
avails anything,
but instead faith, working through love.

Gal. 5:7 You ran well.
Who hindered you
so that you are not convinced by the truth?
Gal. 5:8 This persuasion
is not from Him Who calls you.

Gal. 5:9 A little leaven
leavens the whole mass of dough.
Leaven represents defilement.

Gal. 5:10 I have confidence in you
in The Master
that you will not think otherwise.

Now he who troubles you will bear his judgment, whoever he is.

Gal. 5:11 And I, brothers,
if I still proclaim circumcision
why do I still suffer persecution?
Without a doubt
the offense of the torture stake
has been rendered useless.
[stauros - a stake or post,
i.e. a pole of cross
\(as an instrument of capital punishment\).
It is a horrible instrument
used to cause extreme pain.
There is nothing "pretty" about it.](#)

Gal. 5:12 Oh that those who trouble you would even castrate themselves!

Gal. 5:13 Indeed, you, brothers,
have been called to freedom.
Only do not use freedom
as an opportunity for the flesh.
On the contrary,
through love serve one another as a servant,
Gal. 5:14 because the entire Torah
is fulfilled in one word,
in this:
"You are to love your neighbor as yourself."
(Lev. 19.18)

Gal. 5:15 But if you bite
and devour one another, watch out,
lest you be consumed by one another!

Gal. 5:16 Now I say,
walk in The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
and you will not complete
the longing of the flesh.

Gal. 5:17 Indeed,
the flesh sets the heart against
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
and The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
is against the flesh.
Indeed, these are opposed to one another,
so that you do not do
the things that you desire.

Gal. 5:18 Now if you are led
by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
you are not under a law.
[You are under the love of YAHWEH,
Who has redeemed you
from your refusal to live
according to His teachings.
You are now trusting Him
to help you do His will.
There is nothing to "force you" to "obey".](#)

Love alone is to guide your every act.
There's more to this
than meets the eye at first glance.

The entire concept of "law"
is truly misunderstood.
The Torah is not law!
It is instruction!

There is nothing "forced" about it.
Compliance is entirely voluntary.
Indeed, there are consequences
for not following it,
just as there are consequences
for following it.
But it is never forced.
And therefore, it is not law.

Gal. 5:19 Now the works of the flesh
are apparent.

They are:

adultery,
incest,
uncleanness, defilement

disregard for accepted rules and standards,

Gal. 5:20 image worship,

magic,

hostility,

quarreling,

jealousies,

wrath,

selfish ambitions,

dissensions,

heresies,

Gal. 5:21 envy,

murders,

drunkenness,

carousing,

and similar things,

of which I forewarn you,

just as I have even told you before,

that those who practice such things

will not inherit The Kingdom of YAHWEH.

To practice is to repeatedly perform the actions.

Gal. 5:22 Now the fruit of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH is:

love,

joy,

peace,

patience,

helpfulness,

goodness,

faith,

Gal. 5:23 gentleness,

self-control.

Against such there is no law.

Gal. 5:24 Indeed, those of The Messiah

have crucified the flesh

with its passions and longings.

Gal. 5:25 Since we live

by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH

let us also walk

by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

The Divine Nature IS the 'new man'.

Gal. 5:26 Let us not become conceited,

provoking one another,

or envying one another.

Chapter 6

Gal. 6:1 Brothers, even if a man

is overtaken in some misstep,

you who are non-carnal restore such a one

in a nature of humility,

considering yourself lest you also be tested.

Non-carnal is normally
"translated" as "spiritual."
But since the entire issue of the "spirit"
has no valid place in Hebrew thought this term is used to represent that which is not of the flesh.

Gal. 6:2 Lift one another's burdens,
and so fulfill the precept of The Messiah.

Gal. 6:3 Indeed, if anyone thinks himself to be something when he is nothing
he deceives himself.

Gal. 6:4 But let each one examine his own work.
And then he will have boasting toward himself alone
and not toward another,
Gal. 6:5 because each one
will carry his own load.

Gal. 6:6 Now let him who is taught the word share in all good things
with him who teaches.

Gal. 6:7 Do not be deceived.
YAHWEH is not to be ridiculed.
Indeed, whatever a man sows
that he will also harvest
Gal. 6:8 because he who sows to his flesh
will from the flesh harvest corruption,
but he who sows
to The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
will from The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
harvest Eternal Life.

Gal. 6:9 Now, do not grow weary
doing that which is good,
because at the proper time we will harvest.
Do not relax!

Gal. 6:10 Therefore, as we have opportunity,
be engaged in doing good to everyone,
and especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Gal. 6:11 See with what large letters
I have written to you with my own hand!
Gal. 6:12 All who desire to make a good showing in the flesh,
these require you to be circumcised,
only in order that they do not suffer persecution for the sake of the torture stake of The Messiah.

Gal. 6:13 Indeed,
not even those who are circumcised
keep The Torah.
Yet they desire to have you circumcised
so that they may boast concerning your flesh.

Gal. 6:14 Now, may it never be that I should boast
except in the torture stake of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
by Whom the world has been crucified to me
and I to the world.

Gal. 6:15 Indeed, in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
neither circumcision nor uncircumcision
avails anything,
but instead a new creation.

Gal. 6:16 And as many as walk according to this rule, well being and compassion be upon them, and upon the Yisra'el of YAHWEH.
The Yisra'el of YAHWEH includes all who are trusting in YAHUSHUA.
Every believer is now an Yisra'elite - by faith.

Gal. 6:17 From now on let no one trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Master, YAHUSHUA.

Gal. 6:18 Brothers, the favor of our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, be with your life breath.
Amen.

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Introduction to Romans

Galatians identifies Sha'ul's (Paul) very unique qualifications as an ambassador for YAHUSHUA to The Gentiles (non-Yisra'elite people). An ambassador is a personal delegate, a legal representative of the person in authority. When he arrives some place his actions are accepted as being those of the person whom he legally represents. Sha'ul was designated as such a person for the resurrected and ascended Messiah.

Sha'ul is the only "apostle" one who was called by The Messiah through a direct revelation after His resurrection and ascension. His position and training are unique. His message is also unique because of his specialized instruction and his appointed task.

Sha'ul speaks of "my gospel" (Rom. 2.16, 16.25, 2 Tim. 2.8). "Gospel" means a good message, or good news. Sha'ul's good news includes some things that were never before revealed. It's not really a different "gospel" but instead is an expansion of what had been revealed and taught previously.

Under "The New Covenant" Yisra'el is no longer the primary focus. The "Gentiles" (this includes all non-Yisra'elites) are now also granted inclusion in the promises that were originally made only to "Yisra'el" - via Abraham and those that followed as his "seed". The book of Acts plainly presents this Truth. Sha'ul's letter to the Galatians proclaims complete freedom from The Torah (called The Law of Moshe) as a direct result of one's belief and trust in The Messiah. But it does not eliminate The Torah. The Yisra'elites are still bound by it. The "Gentiles" are not. They have not entered into The Old Covenant of Sinai, but instead have entered into a New Covenant, a covenant of redemption through the poured out blood of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Sha'ul's teachings give us new insights into the meaning of this New Covenant. But we need to recognize that Sha'ul is not teaching things in the same manner as YAHUSHUA did while He was on the earth. Everything YAHUSHUA taught was in full conformity to The Torah, because prior to His death and resurrection The Torah was in full effect for anyone who wanted to have a relationship with YAHWEH. Everyone was still living with "the sin nature" that was established by the events in The Garden of Eden.

The New Covenant provides a transformation for one who chooses to trust fully in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA. With it comes a "new nature", what Sha'ul often calls "the new man". It's essential to understand what this new nature is. Many fail to grasp this concept. In essence, it's what is commonly referred to as "The Holy Spirit". This 'spirit' is actually The Divine Nature - which now "indwells" those who believe and trust in YAHUSHUA. This is the portion of Sha'ul's message that's usually overlooked or missed.

The Yisra'elites who refused to believe in their own Messiah are still under "The Law", The Torah of Moshe. They're still obligated to do what it requires. Those who have placed their trust in The Messiah are no longer bound by The Torah. They've been set free from its requirements - because there is a New Covenant in place. This is what Sha'ul is teaching in Romans. The Torah still has its place. It is not "abolished". It simply does not carry the same meaning for a New Covenant believer that it does for an Old Covenant person.

Interestingly, many fail to grasp the real meaning of t Torah. The Hebrew term means a precept (principle) or a statute (written code). But it comes from a root word that means to point in a specific direction, to instruct, direct; to teach. The Hebrews understood the things they were given at Mt. Sinai as The Ten Words, not The Ten Commandments. They are instructions, not "dictates of law".

There is no reference to 'command' anywhere in those events, EXCEPT in the English translations of them!

Further, there was never any 'commandment' in The Garden of Eden!

This is extremely important. It changes everything.

YAHWEH created us with free will - the ability to choose what we will do.

Without it we're automatons. Anything "forced" upon us, such as a command, removes our free will from the equation.

If an act is required we have no choice. If we have no choice concerning whether or not we'll do it, the doing becomes meaningless in relation to "doing YAHWEH's will". Only when we do so willingly, out of our own conscious choice, does it have any true value to YAHWEH.

With that understanding you're now ready to take a serious look at what Sha'ul teaches regarding The Messiah. As we begin there are many concepts that need a bit of explanation. Please be patient with the notes. They're important if you truly want to understand what Sha'ul has presented to us.

7. ROMANS

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Rom. 1:1 Sha'ul, a slave
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
invited to be an ambassador;
having been appointed for the sake of YAHWEH's good message

doulos – a slave.

A slave is one who is bought
and paid for by the "owner".

A servant is one who works
for wages or other compensation.

The Messiah's personal Name is not "Jesus".

That's from a Greek word, iesous.

It comes from the Hebrew, Yahoshua,
which is normally translated as Joshua.

So why not call "Jesus" Joshua?

This was actually done in Acts 7.45.

The Hebrew Messiah would NEVER have been given a non-Hebrew name.

apostolos – a delegate, an ambassador, apostle.

An ambassador or delegate

is a legal representative
of the one who sends them.

Apostle, being a religious term,
has a rather different connotation.

euaggelion – good message, good news;
normally translated as "gospel".

It's misleading.

Sha'ul's writings are also "gospels",
all of them.

So is every book of Scripture.

Rom. 1:2 which He promised long ago
through His prophets
in The Set Apart Scriptures

hagios - sacred; consecrated.

It means to be set apart for a special purpose
- in Scripture - YAHWEH's purpose.

Rom. 1:3 concerning His Son,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, our Master,
Who came into being
out of the seed of David according to flesh,

kurios – supreme in authority;

controller; Master

– God, Lord, master, sir.

The use of "the Lord",
as found in most traditional texts,
causes great confusion.

It's often difficult to know
if it's referring to The Messiah
or to The Father,
or to some other "master".

"Lord" is an archaic "Olde English" word
that is no longer properly understood.

In addition, the Master-slave connection is vital to a proper understanding of our own relationship to YAHUSHUA.

His blood has "purchased" us,
thereby making us His slaves.

While many want to use the term "servant",
it's merely a "softer" way of saying "slave".

Few want to be known as a slave
because of its negative connotations.

However, in Truth,

that is exactly what we are,
a "purchased possession" of The Messiah
- bought and paid for with His precious blood.
Yet what a blessing and honor it is to "belong to Him!"
David means beloved.

Rom. 1:4 being marked out
as The Son of YAHWEH
with miraculous power
according to a vital principle of holiness
by resurrection from being dead;

YAHWEH is the personal Name of "God".
It is His only true and proper personal Name.

It's revealed in the Hebrew text of Ex. 3.15-16, (YHWH) but not in typical English "translations".
This is a travesty of major significance
– an intentional lie,
put into most Bibles by the translators themselves
- with full knowledge
that this was not in the original text.

The text does not use the article
in reference to son, vital principle, resurrection, or dead.
The term "dead" is an adjective, not a noun.
It's descriptive of a condition,
not the condition itself.

Rom. 1:5 through Whom we have received favor and a commission
for the sake of an attentive listening of trust
in every nation,
for the sake of His Name;

charis - graciousness of manner or act; favor.
Its root word means well-being.
A commission is literally an "apostolate".
It is a setting apart for a task.

hupakoe – attentive hearkening,
compliance or submission;
- translated as obedience.
It's coupled with trust
because one listens differently
if you are trusting what YAHWEH says.
There's a different purpose
in paying careful attention to the teachings of YAHWEH.
It has to do with learning
what He desires you to do
so you can choose to do it voluntarily,
not under the compulsion of "obedience".

Love of YAHWEH is never 'required',
it is a choice.

ethnos – race, tribe,
especially non-Yisra'elite, pagan
– Gentile, nations, pagan, heathen, people.

Rom. 1:6 among whom you also
are the invited of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, kletos – invited, appointed, a saint.

Translated in the KJV as "called".
The root of the word means to be invited.
It can also mean to be appointed.
Sha'ul was appointed
by The Messiah Himself
to take the good news
of redemption to the Gentiles.
This invitation, or "calling" is a request,
not a demand.
The response is voluntary, not mandatory.
Every believer is invited to become such,
called out of the world
and into a relationship with YAHWEH
and His Son, YAHUSHUA.

Rom. 1:7 to all who are in Rome,
beloved of YAHWEH,
invited,
sacred.

Favor to you and shalom
from YAHWEH, our Father
and The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.
hagios – sacred, often translated as “saint”.
One only becomes sacred (set apart)
by accepting YAHWEH's invitation to believe,
to have faith in, or to trust in Him.

Without acceptance of The Messiah
this entire letter does not apply to you.
With acceptance
every word of this letter applies.

Shalom is inserted here in place of 'peace'.
Shalom is a Hebrew concept,
not a Greek one.
It means complete and total well being
in every aspect of one's life.

YAHWEH becomes "our Father"
by means of our new birth,
which is the result
of trusting Him fully with our lives.

Rom. 1:8 First indeed,
I give thanks to my Elohim
through YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
on behalf of all of you
that your trust is being proclaimed throughout the whole world.

Elohim is a Hebrew term
for what is normally translated as “God”.
It means “mighty one”.
It's already been identified
that His personal Name is YAHWEH.
This work will use either of these terms
based on what the context
requires or suggests.

Faith, belief and trust
are all connected to each other.
You cannot have faith or belief without trust.
The Greek terms can each
be translated in any of these ways.
Trust is the most important aspect involved.

Rom. 1:9 Indeed, YAHWEH is my witness,
Whom I worship with my Divine Nature,
in the good message of His Son,
that without ceasing I make mention of you
Rom. 1:10 always in my prayers,
asking if somehow, even now at some time,
I might succeed by the will of YAHWEH
to come to you.

pneuma means breath or breeze.
It's the term traditionally translated as 'spirit'.
In Hebrew thought
the breath is the 'wind of man',
coming from the center of his being.
It carries the connotation
of one's character, or "nature".

"Spirit" is a Greek term
that has no place in Hebrew thought.
Prior to Greek influences
the Hebrews had no idea what a 'spirit' was.

Rom. 1:11 Indeed, I long to see you in order that I might impart to you some non-carnal gift
in order that you might be established.
Rom. 1:12 Now, this is in order that I might be encouraged together with you through the mutual faith
both of you and of me.

pistis – persuasion, credence,
moral conviction; trust
– faith, assurance, belief, fidelity.

Rom. 1:13 Now, I do not want you to be unaware, brothers,

that I frequently determined to come to you,
but was prevented until this time,
in order that I might have some fruit
among you also,
just as among the other Gentiles.

The term "brothers"
is more a reference to kindred
than to actual brotherhood.
It includes sisters, aunts, and uncles, etc.
who are believers.

Rom. 1:14 I am indebted
both to Greeks and to foreigners,
both to wise and to unwise.
Rom. 1:15 Thus, as far as I'm concerned,
I am eager to proclaim the good news
to you who are in Rome also.

Rom. 1:16 Indeed, I am not ashamed
of the good news of The Messiah
because it is
the miraculous power of YAHWEH
for the sake of deliverance
to everyone who is trusting,
for the Yisra'elite first and also for the Greek.

soteria – rescue, safety
– deliver, health, salvation, save.
"is trusting" is in the present active tense.
This is a current and on-going action.
You are either having it,
or you have stopped having it.
There are no other options.

Rom. 1:17 Indeed, in it
the justification of YAHWEH is revealed from faith into faith, just as it is written,
"The just are to live by faith."
(Hab. 2.4)

dikaioisune – equity (fairness);
justification - traditionally - righteousness.
The term "righteousness"
misses the concept of justification.
It also misses the concept of fairness,
or "right action".

Rom. 1:18 Indeed, YAHWEH's desire is revealed from The Heaven
against all irreverence
and injustice of human beings
who suppress the truth by means of injustice,

orge – properly, desire (as a reaching forth or excitement of the mind)
i.e. (by analogy), violent passion (ire, or (justifiable) abhorrence);
by implication punishment:
— anger, indignation, vengeance, wrath.
While typically translated as "wrath",
it is more correctly His DESIRE that's involved.
That desire is to destroy the works of our offenses
- permanently.
"The Heaven" is used to represent the place where YAHWEH resides
as opposed to the sky.

adikia - injustice, moral wrongfulness.

Rom. 1:19 precisely because
what may be well known concerning YAHWEH
is apparent to them
because YAHWEH
has made it apparent to them.

Rom. 1:20 Indeed, since the original formation of the world
His invisible things are distinctly understood,
being recognized
by the things that have been made,
even His eternal miraculous power
and divinity,
so that they are legally indefensible,

Rom. 1:21 precisely because
having absolutely known YAHWEH
they did not honor Him as YAHWEH, nor expressed gratitude.
But on the contrary,
they became foolish in their considerations.
And their unintelligent heart
became obscured.
Rom. 1:22 Asserting they were wise
they became fools.
Rom. 1:23 And they changed the splendor
of the incorruptible YAHWEH
into a likeness similar to a corruptible human being,
and birds,
and four footed animals,
and reptiles.

Rom. 1:24 For this cause
YAHWEH also surrendered them to impurity
through the longings of their own hearts, dishonoring their own bodies
among themselves,
Rom. 1:25 who exchanged
The Truth of YAHWEH for the lie,
and worshiped and served the creature
rather than The Creator,
Who is worthy of blessing for eternity.
Amen.

Rom. 1:26 Because of this
YAHWEH surrendered them to disgraceful passions.
Indeed, even their women exchanged the instinctive use
for the sake of that which is against nature.
Rom. 1:27 Likewise also the males,
abandoning the natural use of the female,
burned in their longing for one another,
male with male
committing what is an indecency,
and receiving in themselves the repayment
for their fraudulence, which was fitting.

Rom. 1:28 And even as they did not approve holding YAHWEH in their awareness, YAHWEH surrendered them
to an unacceptable mind,
doing that which is not appropriate,
Rom. 1:29 being filled with every injustice:
sexual immorality,
depravity,
avarice, love of money
maliciousness;
being filled with every spite,
murder,
contention,
deceit,
evil-mindedness;
whisperers,
Rom. 1:30 slanderers,
haters of YAHWEH,
insulters,
arrogant,
braggarts,
contrivers of evil,
disobedient to parents,
Rom. 1:31 undiscerning,
untrustworthy,
without natural affection,
implacable,
unmerciful;
Rom. 1:32 who,
recognizing the justification of YAHWEH,

that those who practice such things
are deserving of death,
not only do the same
but also approve of those who practice them.

Chapter 2

Rom. 2:1 Because of this
you are unable to defend yourself, human being,
each one who condemns,
because in whatever you condemn another
you condemn yourself,
because you who are the condemning repeatedly do the very same things.

Rom. 2:2 And we know that the condemnation of YAHWEH
is in accord with truth upon those who repeatedly do such things.

Rom. 2:3 Now do you think this, human being who condemns those repeatedly doing such things,
yet are doing the same things yourself,
that you will escape
the condemnation of YAHWEH?

Rom. 2:4 Or do you have contempt
for the wealth of His kindness,
self-restraint, and patience,
not understanding that the kindness of YAHWEH
leads you to a change of thinking?

kataphroneo - to think against,
i.e. disesteem

metanoia – remorse over errors,
a change of thinking.
– a change of thinking.

Rom. 2:5 Now,
in accordance with your stubbornness
and your unchanged heart
you are reserving for yourself wrath
in the day of wrath and of revelation
of the just decision of YAHWEH,

Rom. 2:6 Who will give to each one
according to his actions;
Rom. 2:7 to those who by patient endurance
are seeking to do good honor, riches, and Eternal Life;

Rom. 2:8 but to those who are contentious
and disbelieve the truth,
and trust in injustice,
fierce anger and wrath,

Rom. 2:9 trouble and distress
upon every life who is accomplishing harm,
of the Yisra'elite first, and also of the Greek;

psuche – breath, spirit.
– heart, life, mind, spirit.

It is not the "soul"
as you've most likely been taught.
The soul is a Greek creation
that did not exist in ancient Yisra'el.
The Hebrew essentially refers to the "breath of life".
It's more on the order
of one's "existence", one's life-force.
YAHWEH breathed into Adam
the "breath of life",
and the man became a living being.

kakos - worthless; depraved or injurious
- bad, evil, harm.
It literally means intrinsic worthlessness.

Rom. 2:10 but also honor, riches, and well-being for everyone who is doing what is good,
to the Yisra'elite first, and also to the Greek;

Rom. 2:11 because there is no partiality with YAHWEH.

Rom. 2:12 Indeed,
as many as have offended without law
will also be destroyed without law.
And as many as have offended
with the influence of law
will be condemned by means of law,
anomos - lawlessly;
specifically, not amenable to Yisra'elite law.

Rom. 2:13 because not the hearers of The Torah
are innocent in the sight of YAHWEH,
but rather the doers of The Torah
will be rendered innocent.

Rom. 2:14 Indeed, whenever the Gentiles who do not have The Torah
by nature do the things in The Torah,
these, although not having The Torah,
are a law to themselves,

Note: The Gentiles (non-Yisra'elites)
have never been subject to The Law of Yisra'el, The Torah!
The Torah was given to the Yisra'elites
by means of a blood covenant with YAHWEH.
They were obligated to follow it faithfully.
Non-Yisra'elites were not included in that covenant.
They have no legal obligation to follow it.

There is, however, moral value
in observing what The Torah teaches since it reveals the desires of YAHWEH.
It also needs to be mentioned that what is taught as "The Law" is The Torah.

Torah means a precept or statute.
However, its root word means
to instruct, to direct, to teach.

There is nothing within the concept of torah
that involves a 'command'.

The Hebrews speak of The Ten Words, words of instruction,
not The Ten Commandments.
This is totally unrecognized by "Christians".

Commandments require action.
Instructions, or teachings suggest action,
but do not require it.

As beings created with free will,
if you are under constant requirement,
'under command' to do something,
you no longer have free will.
You become a "robot".
That has never been part of YAHWEH's plan for human beings.

He desires that we do
what He desires us to do willingly.
NOTE: There is no 'commandment'
given in Scripture to "believers".
There is only instruction.
The instruction is given as a test
to see if human beings will choose to honor YAHWEH's instructions - or not.

"Religion" turns instruction into legalism.
This is precisely what the Scribes
and Pharisees did with The Torah.
It became an extremely rigid set of "rules"
that they then enforced upon the people with great harshness.

Again, this is not YAHWEH's Way.
Think of a law as a "principle",
a guideline for action.
Some refer to these as "customs".
This will help you distinguish the difference between The Torah and other "laws",
a term which Sha'ul uses frequently in Romans.

Rom. 2:15 who are indicating the work of The Torah
is written in their hearts,
their consciousness bearing witness,
and their reasoning in the mean time accusing, or else excusing one another Rom. 2:16 in the day when YAHWEH will judge
the secrets of human beings
by YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
in accordance with my good news.

Note Sha'ul's reference to "my" good news.
His news is unique
because of how he was taught,
and by Whom,
The resurrected and ascended Messiah.

Rom. 2:17 Look!
You are called an Yisra'elite,
and you rest on The Torah,
and you boast in YAHWEH,

This letter is addressed to the believing Yisra'elites
and Gentiles in Rome.
There was no "church".
Most of the earliest believers
were Yisra'elites.
After all, it was their Messiah
Who had come.
The Gentiles did not have a messiah promised to them.

Rom. 2:18 and you absolutely know His will
and you test the things being carried about,
being indoctrinated from The Torah,

That borne by them
was the "burden" of The Torah
and its requirements.

Rom. 2:19 even being confident that you yourself are a guide to the blind,
a light to those who are in darkness,
Rom. 2:20 a trainer of the foolish,
an instructor of infants,
having the appearance of knowledge
and of the truth within The Torah.

Rom. 2:21 You, therefore,
who are teaching another,
are you not teaching yourself?
You who proclaim one should not steal,
do you steal?

Rom. 2:22 You who say,
"You are not to commit adultery",
do you commit adultery?
You who detest idols,
do you rob temples?

Temples were robbed
for the monetary value of the idols.

Rom. 2:23 You who boast in The Torah,
through breaking The Torah,
are you dishonoring YAHWEH?

Rom. 2:24 Indeed,
"the Name of YAHWEH is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you,"
(Is. 52.5, Ezek. 36.22)
just as it is written.

Rom. 2:25 Indeed,
circumcision is truly beneficial
if you repeatedly perform The Torah.
But if you are a violator of The Torah
your circumcision has become uncircumcision.

Rom. 2:26 Therefore, if the uncircumcised
observes the just requirements of The Torah
will not his uncircumcision
be counted as circumcision?

Rom. 2:27 And will not the physically uncircumcised,
if he fulfills The Torah,
condemn you who even with your written code and circumcision
are a violator of The Torah?

Rom. 2:28 Indeed, he is not an Yisra'elite
who is one externally,
nor is circumcision that which is external,
in the flesh.

Joudaios is the transliteration
of the Greek word used.
It means a Judean, one who belongs to the tribe of Yahudah (Judah).

The term, "Jew" is incorrect in many respects.
Not all Yisra'elites were from the tribe of Judah,
properly Yahudah - meaning YAH be praised.
But Yahudah became a predominant tribe
and has become the tribe used as a reference to all Yisra'elites, Hebrews
We would do better to use the term "Yisra'elites".

Rom. 2:29 On the contrary, he is a Yisra'elite
who is one privately,
and whose circumcision is of the heart,
in inner nature, not in written code,
whose commendation
is not from human beings
but from YAHWEH.

One who believes in and trusts YAHWEH
is, properly, an Yisra'elite, a Hebrew.
It's not a matter
of one's physical birth or blood line.
You are not a "Christian".
The term "Christ" is not a Hebrew term at all.
This will upset many,
but it is profoundly Scriptural,
even as Sha'ul notes it right here.
As a believer in YAHWEH
you are an Yisra'elite!

Chapter 3

Rom. 3:1 What superiority then has the Yisra'elite,
or what is the benefit of circumcision?

Rom. 3:2 Much in every way, since to them were entrusted
the utterances of YAHWEH.

Rom. 3:3 Indeed, what if some disbelieved.
Will their disbelief render useless
the truthfulness of YAHWEH?

Rom. 3:4 May it never be so!
Indeed, let YAHWEH be true,
but every human being a liar,
just as it is written,
*"That You may be justified when You speak,
and innocent when You judge."*

(Psa. 51.4)

Rom. 3:5 And if our injustice establishes the justification of YAHWEH
what shall we say?

Is YAHWEH unjust Who imposes wrath?
(I speak as a human being.)

Rom. 3:6 May it never be so!
Then in what way
will YAHWEH judge the world?

Rom. 3:7 Indeed, if The Truth of YAHWEH
has abounded through my lie
for the sake of His honor,
why am I even still judged as an offender?

Rom. 3:8 And why not say,
just as we are slandered
and just as some affirm that we say,
"Let us do harm in order that good may come."
Their decision then is proper.

Rom. 3:9 What then?
 Are we better than they?
 Not at all.
 Indeed, we have previously charged that both Yisra'elites and Greeks are all under the power of offenses
 Rom. 3:10 just as it is written,
"There is none doing good, not even one.
 Rom. 3:11 There is none who understands.
There is none who seeks YAHWEH.
 Rom. 3:12 They have all turned aside.
They have together become corrupt.
There is none who does good, not even one."
 (Psa. 14-1-3, 53.1-3, Eccl. 7.20)
 Rom. 3:13 "Their throat is an open tomb.
With their tongues they have practiced deceit.
The poison of asps is under their lips."
 (Psa. 5.9, 140.3)
 Rom. 3:14 "Whose mouth is full of cursing and oppression."
 (Psa. 10.7)
 Rom. 3:15 "Their feet are swift to shed blood.
 Rom. 3:16 Destruction and misery are in their ways,
 Rom. 3:17 and the way of shalom
they have not known."
 (Is, 59.7-8)
 Rom. 3:18 *"There is no reverence of YAHWEH before their eyes."
 (Psa. 36.1)

The verses "quoted" above are apparently Sha'ul's recitation from memory.
 When the references are checked
 there are some variations from the actual texts.
 It was apparently quite common
 for this to occur at this time in history.
 Indeed, few of us can accurately quote Scripture
 if it's not right in front of us.

Rom. 3:19 Now, we understand that whatever The Torah says
 it says to those who are within The Torah,
 in order that every mouth may be silenced
 and all the world
 might become guilty before YAHWEH.

Rom. 3:20 For this very reason,
 from acts of law
 no flesh will be rendered innocent
 in His presence,
 because by means of law
 is the recognition of offenses.
hamartia – a sin, an offense, a violation of law.
 Sin is an offense against YAHWEH
 as we've already noted.
 The Torah clarifies what is an offense
 and what is not an offense.
 Also note that there is no article
 in either use of "law".
 It is not a reference merely to The Law of Moshe (although that's likely the intent),
 but instead it's a reference to any 'law'.

Rom. 3:21 But now
 the justification of YAHWEH
 apart from law is rendered apparent, being witnessed by
 The Torah and The Prophets,
 Rom. 3:22 even the justification of YAHWEH
 through trust in YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
 to all and upon all who are trusting.
 Indeed, there is no distinction.

Rom. 3:23 Indeed, all have offended
 and fallen short of the honor of YAHWEH, Rom. 3:24 being justified without a basis

by His showing favor
through the ransom in full
that is in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, apolutrosis – ransom in full;
deliverance, redemption.
A price is always paid in a ransom.
The price paid on our behalf
was indeed most precious.

Rom. 3:25 Whom YAHWEH
has placed before us
as an atoning victim,
through trust in His shed blood
to indicate His justification
by means of the passing over
of offenses previously committed,
by means of the self restraint of YAHWEH;

The concept of passing over
is proclaimed repeatedly in Scripture.

There is a reason.

The Feast of Passover
was to play a central role in the life of an Yisra'elite.

YAHWEH passed over them,
sparing their lives,
even though He knew
they would rebel against Him
in the coming years.

Likewise, our "sins"
have been "passed over" by YAHWEH,
even though He knew
we would turn our backs on Him,
just as Yisra'el did.

Rom. 3:26 furthermore, to indicate at this present time His justness, that He exists as just
and as The One Who renders innocent
the one who is trusting in YAHUSHUA.

This passage is among the most profound in all of Scripture.

It's commonly mistranslated,
and thus misunderstood.

This is not about being religious,
or being "righteous".
It's about justification through faith,
through belief,
through trust in the shed blood of The Messiah.
He died to pay the price for your offenses.

He was completely without offense.
He never violated the will of YAHWEH.
Thus, He did not die for His own sake.
Because YAHUSHUA died for this purpose YAHWEH is willing to "pass over"
the punishment that is due to you for your personal offenses against Him.

Rom. 3:27 Where is boasting then?
It is excluded.
Through what kind of law?
Of the actions?
Indeed not,
but rather through a precept of faith.

ergon - toil (as an effort of occupation);
by implication, an act.
Translated as "works",
the real intent is that of actions taken
to stay within the requirements of a law.
It's addressing the concept of "works-righteousness",
self-effort to achieve a goal,
in this case redemption.

Redemption is never accomplished in this manner.

Please note the reference here
to "a law of faith".
The Greek is nomos.
It means a law or a principle.

The use of law in most English translations makes this very confusing.
If you remember that a law is a principle upon which one acts, you'll avoid much confusion.

Rom. 3:28 Therefore, we conclude that a human being is rendered innocent through faith, apart from actions of law.

Rom. 3:29 Neither is He The Elohim of the Yisra'elites only, but now He is also The Elohim of the Gentiles. Yes, even of the Gentiles,
Rom. 3:30 since it is true that there is one Elohim Who will render innocent the circumcised who act by means of faith and the uncircumcised because of their faith.

Rom. 3:31 Do we then render law useless because of faith? May it never be so! On the contrary, we establish a law.

The Torah had the purpose of causing us to recognize our offenses. Trust in The Messiah and His redeeming (ransoming) work confirms the validity of The Torah and fulfills its purpose.

But Sha'ul is also telling us that trust establishes a different law, or principle, the principle of trust, as opposed to The Torah of Moshe, with all its 'requirements', the doing of which can never accomplish redemption through our own efforts.

Remember, The Yisra'elites were under a contract, a covenant, to do what The Torah taught. They bound themselves to it voluntarily. It was a Covenant sealed with blood.

When you do that you become obligated to perform those actions.

Remember, torah means INSTRUCTION. It does NOT mean "law".

Chapter 4

Rom. 4:1 What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, obtained?
Abraham means father of a multitude.

Rom. 4:2 Indeed, if Abraham was justified by actions he has something to boast about. However, not to YAHWEH.

Rom. 4:3 What then does The Scripture say?
"Abraham believed YAHWEH, and it was accounted to him as justification."
(Gen. 15.6)

Rom. 4:4 Now to him who is working the wages are not accounted according to favor, but rather according to something owed.

Rom. 4:5 But to him who is not working, but is trusting upon Him Who renders innocent the ungodly, his trust is accounted as justification,
Rom. 4:6 exactly as David also describes the happiness of the human being to whom YAHWEH accounts justification apart from works.

David means beloved.

Rom. 4:7 "Happy are those whose rebellions are taken away,
and whose offenses are covered;

Rom. 4:8 Happy is the man to whom YAHWEH
will not impute sin."

(Psa. 32.1-2)

Rom. 4:9 Does this happiness then come upon the circumcised only or upon the uncircumcised also?

Indeed, we say that trust
was accounted to Abraham as justification.

Rom. 4:10 In what way then was it accounted?
While he was circumcised or uncircumcised?
Not while circumcised,
but while uncircumcised.

Rom. 4:11 And he received the sign of circumcision
as a seal of the justification by means of the trust
while still uncircumcised,
so that he exists as the father
of all those who are trusting,
even though they are uncircumcised,
so that justification might be accounted to them also,
Rom. 4:12 and as the father of circumcision
to those who are not of the circumcision alone,
but who also walk in the steps of trust which our father, Abraham, had
while still uncircumcised.

Rom. 4:13 Indeed, the promise that he would be the heir of the world
was not to Abraham or to his seed through law,
but rather through the justification of trust.

Rom. 4:14 Indeed,
if those who are of law are the heirs,
trust is made meaningless
and the promise is rendered useless
Rom. 4:15 because The Torah brings about wrath.

Indeed, where no law exists
there is no violation.

You cannot violate a law that does not exist.

Rom. 4:16 Because of this justification is the result of trust
in order that it is according to favor,
so that the promise exists as stable
for all the offspring;
not only to those who are from The Torah,
but rather also to those who are of the trust of Abraham,
who is the father of us all,

charis - graciousness of manner or act.
This word comes from a root
that means to be happy,
to be well off.

It's traditionally translated as 'grace'.
Yet when connected to the Hebrew terms
that are used for 'grace'
one discovers that it really refers
to being shown favor by another.
Favor has been used because of this.
It reflects the Divine favor of YAHWEH
that results from the promise.

Rom. 4:17 just as it is written,
"I have made you a father of many nations.",
(Gen. 17.5)

in the presence of Him
in Whom he trusted, YAHWEH,
Who gives life to the dead

and calls those things which do not exist
as though they did exist;
Rom. 4:18 Who against hope,
beyond hope,
he trusted,
so that he became the father of many nations
according to what was spoken,
“So will your descendants be.”
(Gen. 15.5)

Rom. 4:19 And not being weak in faith,
he did not consider his own body
as being already dead,
having been about a hundred years old,
nor the deadness of Sarah’s womb.

Rom. 4:20 Now he did not hesitate
at the promise of YAHWEH through unbelief,
but was strengthened in the faith,
giving honor to YAHWEH,
Rom. 4:21 and being fully convinced that what He had promised
He was also able to perform.
Rom. 4:22 And therefore,
“it was accounted to him as justification.”
(Gen. 15.6)

Rom. 4:23 Now it was not written for his sake alone
that it was accounted to him,

Rom. 4:24 but rather also because of us.

It will be accounted to us
at the time we trust upon Him Who raised up YAHUSHUA, our Master,
from being dead,

Rom. 4:25 Who has been delivered up because of our offenses
and has been raised up
because of our acquittal.

paraptoma – side-slip, error, transgression,
- fall, fault, offence, sin, trespass.
All of our offenses are tied to rebellion
against The Word of YAHWEH, whereby we “miss the mark”.
We miss the target, or goal
at which we are supposed to be aiming
- complete trust in YAHWEH
and in His kindness.
The concept of acquittal
is that of being rendered innocent.

Chapter 5

Rom. 5:1 Therefore,
having been rendered innocent by faith,
we have peace with YAHWEH
through our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,

eirene - peace, by implication, prosperity.
This term is used to translate
the Hebrew term, shalom,
which means total well-being, not merely peace.

Rom. 5:2 through Whom also we have access by faith
into this favor in which we stand.
And we rejoice over an expectation
of the honor of YAHWEH.

Rom. 5:3 And not only that, but instead,
we even rejoice amidst troubles,
understanding that trouble produces patience,
Rom. 5:4 and patience produces experience,
and experience produces hope.

Rom. 5:5 Now hope does not disappoint
because the love of YAHWEH
is poured out into our hearts
by The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
which has been given to us.

The typical translation here is "The Holy Spirit".
A literal rendering could very well be,
"The Set Apart Breath/Wind."

pneuma means breath or wind.
To the Hebrew mind
the breath (wind of man)
was connected to the very nature of the person.

hagios - sacred; consecrated.
To be "holy" is to be set apart
for a special purpose
- YAHWEH's purpose.

If you take the time to do
a very thorough study of the terms you discover
there is no "person" of "The Holy Spirit".
What's identified is the very essence,
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
that is given to us as we become "new creations" by faith/belief.

It is not "a person", but a new nature.
While this is not what most have been taught,
it is in fact what Scripture teaches.
This is "the new man" Sha'ul teaches about.

Rom. 5:6 Indeed,
while we were still without strength,
according to the proper time,
The Messiah died
for the sake of the irreverent.
asebes - irreverent, i.e. impious or wicked.
It refers to those who have no respect for YAHWEH.

Rom. 5:7 Truly, with difficulty,
for the sake of a just one, one might die;
and perhaps for a good person
someone might even dare to die.

Rom. 5:8 But YAHWEH establishes
His own love toward us
in that while we were still offenders
The Messiah died for us.

Rom. 5:9 Much more then, having now been rendered innocent by His blood,
we will be delivered from wrath through Him.

Rom. 5:10 Indeed, if while being enemies
we have been reconciled to YAHWEH
through the death of His Son,
much more, having been reconciled,
we will be delivered by His life.

Rom. 5:11 And not only that,
but we also rejoice in YAHWEH
through our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
through Whom we have now received
the restoration to Divine favor.

Rom. 5:12 Therefore, exactly as through one human being offenses entered into the world,
and death through offenses,
even so, death came to all human beings,
because all have offended.

That is, the requirement of death
as punishment for disobedience to (disregard of) The Word of YAHWEH.
That was the offense of Eve, and then Adam.

And we are counted
as having been "born in sin" (born with a nature inclined toward offenses)
because all of us are accounted as having been within the loins (his seed) of Adam when he offended.
Thus, we were born under the curse of death,

required by the original offense of Adam.

This is a Scripture principle
that's found in others after Adam.
Even while one is not yet born
they are considered to reside
within the "seed" of their forefathers.

Rom. 5:13 Indeed, until law,
offenses existed in the world.

But sin (an offense) is not attributed when no law exists.

Rom. 5:14 Therefore,
death ruled from Adam to Moshe,
even over those who had not offended
according to the likeness
of the violation of Adam,
who is a type of The Coming One.

Rom. 5:15 However,
the gift is not like the offense,
because whether by the one man's offense
the many die,
much more, the favor of YAHWEH,
even the gift,
because of the favor of the one human being,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
exceedingly abounds to the many.

Rom. 5:16 And the gift is not like that which came through the one who was offending,
because the judgment was from one offense,
resulting in condemnation.
But the gift is out of many offenses,
resulting in justification.

Rom. 5:17 Indeed, if by the one man's offense death ruled through the one,
much more, those who receive superabundant favor
and the gift of justification
will rule in life on account of The One,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Rom. 5:18 Therefore,
as through the offense of one judgment came to all human beings,
resulting in condemnation,
even so, through one Man's justification
the gift came to all human beings,
resulting in justification of life.

It should be noted that the language of the preceding verses (15-18)
is unclear in the Greek.
Some terms appear to be left out of the text
and must be inferred based on the context.
What's given appears to reflect what was intended
as it agrees with the rest of Scripture.

Rom. 5:19 Indeed, exactly as through one man's disobedience
many were designated offenders,
so also, through the obedience of One
many will be designated innocent.

Rom. 5:20 Now law came alongside in order that the offense might increase.
But where the offense increased favor increased much more,

The Torah is being referred to here
although it is not explicitly in the Greek text as such.
It was through The Torah
that it became evident

that no one can keep
the teachings of YAHWEH perfectly.
From that perspective
our offenses are seen to multiply
as we recognize our shortcomings.

Rom. 5:21 so that as offenses
ruled through death,
even so, favor rules through justification
for the sake of Eternal Life
through YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, our Master.

It should be noted that kurios,
typically translated as "Lord",
means supreme in authority; controller.
It could just as easily be translated as "Sovereign".

Chapter 6

Rom. 6:1 What shall we say then?

Shall we continue in offenses
in order that favor might increase?

Rom. 6:2 May it never be so!

How can we who have died to offenses
live any longer in it?

Rom. 6:3 Or do you not comprehend that as many as have been baptized
into The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
have been baptized into His death?

baptizo - the Greek word for baptism,
means to immerse, submerge.

Baptism is identified as symbolic of our own dying being buried,
and being resurrected,
exactly as The Messiah, YAHUSHUA
has done on our behalf.
It's representative of our agreement and belief that He has accomplished our redemption (ransom in full) through these acts.

When we are baptized
the action represents our own belief/faith
that this is true.
If it does not represent this to us
we've misconstrued the meaning of baptism
and made a mockery of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
and YAHWEH, The Father.
It has become a meaningless act.

Rom. 6:4 Therefore,
we have been buried with Him,
through baptism, into death,
in order that just as The Messiah
has been raised from the dead
through the honor of The Father,
even so, we also can walk in newness of life.

Lit. a new form, i.e. the new nature.

Rom. 6:5 Indeed, if we have been closely united with Him
by the symbolism of His death,
certainly we will also be of the resurrection,

sumphutos - grown along with;
i.e. closely united to.
The concept is one of becoming unified through growing together.
It carries the sense of becoming "one" with Him.

Note: Many translations insert
a phrase in italics implying
"the symbolism of His resurrection".
However, the text does NOT say this.
Instead, as Young's Literal Translation has it,
we, through a baptism
that truly represents our faith in Him,
will become part of the resurrection
- which is yet to come.

Rom. 6:6 absolutely knowing this,
that our old human being
has been crucified with Him

in order that the body of the offense nature,
might be rendered entirely useless
in order that we might no longer be slaves
of the offense nature

Rom. 6:7 because he who has died
has been rendered innocent of the offense.

Sha'ul's concept of "the old human being"
(old man) is important.
He's referring to our fleshly, carnal nature,
"the offense nature".

We might call this our "human nature".
He contrasts this with the new non-carnal nature
(the new man) that becomes ours
as a result of "being born from above",
as The Messiah put it.

This is "the new nature",
The Divine Nature,
imparted by the indwelling
Divine Nature of YAHWEH.
The "old nature" was crucified with The Messiah.

Rom. 6:8 Now if we have died
with The Messiah,
we trust that we will also continue to live
in common with Him,
Rom. 6:9 understanding that The Messiah,
having been raised from being dead,
dies no longer.
Death no longer has dominion over Him.

Rom. 6:10 Indeed, He has died.
He has died for the offense
upon one occasion only.
Now He lives.
He lives to YAHWEH.

Rom. 6:11 In the same manner,
you also are to account yourselves
to be existing as truly dead to the offense nature,
but alive to YAHWEH through
The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, our Master.

Special Note:
If you get nothing else out of Romans
may you at the very least comprehend
the astounding significance of these verses.

Sha'ul is teaching
what was directly revealed to him
by the resurrected
and ascended Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

This is vital knowledge for a believer
If you do not understand this you will have missed
one of the most important Truths of Scripture.

Without this knowledge your faith is impotent.
With this knowledge your whole perception of the faith/belief issue
is thereby transformed into a wondrous comprehension of exactly what The Messiah
has accomplished for you.
You, as a believer, have died to offenses
- to its power.
It no longer has dominion (rule) over you because of your trust
in YAHUSHUA, The Risen Messiah,
and in YAHWEH, The Father,
Who raised Him from being dead
- which He will also do for the believer
in the days to come.

Scripture confirms that
the power of offenses is death.
And that power has been defeated
by the death, burial, resurrection, and ascension of YAHUSHUA of Nazareth!

There is no greater Truth than this for a believer!

Rom. 6:12 Therefore, the offense nature
is not to rule in your mortal body
so that you are listening attentively to it with its longings.

The implication is that you are not to pay serious attention to the old nature,
but instead to the new nature,
the indwelling Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

Rom. 6:13 And do not present your members
as tools of injustice to the offense nature,
but instead, present yourselves to YAHWEH
as those who are alive from being dead,
and your members
as tools of justification, to YAHWEH.

Rom. 6:14 Indeed, offenses
are not to have dominion over you because you are not under a law!
But on the contrary,
you are under divine favor!

Rom. 6:15 What then?
Should we offend
because we are not under law
but on the contrary are under favor?
May it never be so!

Rom. 6:16 Do you not understand that to whom you present yourselves
as servants for the sake of submission,
you are that one's servants
to whom you listen attentively,
either of offenses leading to death,
or of attentive listening
for the sake of justification?

Note the implication.
If we are not under law
there is no obligation to it.
There is only freedom to choose.
However, there are many things
to which we can "listen to attentively".
In doing so we are free to choose how we will respond to those things
to which we are listening.
It's on this basis that judgment will be rendered.

Rom. 6:17 Now thanks be to YAHWEH
because you were servants of the offense nature,
but you have listened attentively
from the heart
to that type of instruction
which has been entrusted to you.

Rom. 6:18 Having now been liberated
from the offense nature,
you have become servants of justification.

Rom. 6:19 (I speak as a human being because of the weakness of your flesh.)
Indeed, just as you presented your members subservient to impurity and unto lawlessness
for the sake of lawlessness,
in the same manner now present your members
as subservient to justification,
for the sake of purification.

Rom. 6:20 Indeed, when you were servants
of the offense nature

you were unrestrained by justification.
Rom. 6:21 What fruit did you have then in those things of which you are now ashamed?

Indeed, the culmination of those very things is death.

Rom. 6:22 But now, having been liberated
from the offense nature,
and having become servants of YAHWEH,
you have your fruit for the sake of purification.
And the goal is Eternal Life.

Rom. 6:23 Indeed,
the wages of the offense is death!
But the gift of YAHWEH is Eternal Life
through The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, our Master!

Chapter 7

Rom. 7:1 Or do you not comprehend, brothers, (because I speak to those who know The Torah),
that The Torah has dominion over a human being
as long as he lives?

Rom. 7:2 Indeed, a married woman
who is living with a husband is bound by a law.
But if the husband dies she is delivered
from the law of the husband.

Rom. 7:3 Therefore, accordingly,
if while the husband is living
she becomes married to a different man
she will be labeled an adulteress.
But if her husband dies
she is unrestrained by that law
so that she does not exist as an adulteress,
being with a different man.

Rom. 7:4 Likewise, my brothers,
you also have been killed to The Torah
through the body of The Messiah
for the sake of being married to another,
to Him Who has been raised from being dead,
in order that we may bring forth
fruit to YAHWEH.

Rom. 7:5 Indeed, while we were in the flesh
the influence of the offenses,
which because of The Torah
was working in our members,
was bringing forth fruit unto death.

Rom. 7:6 But now,
we have been delivered from The Torah,
being dead to that
in which we were being held,
so that we might be servants
through a newness of The Divine Nature
and not in the oldness of a written code.

gramma - a writing, i.e. a letter, note,
epistle, book, etc.; plural learning.

Rom. 7:7 What shall we say then?
Is The Torah an offense?
May it never be so!
On the contrary,
I would not have known the offenses
except through a law.
Indeed, I would not have known longing
if The Torah had not said,

"You are not to desire earnestly." (Ex. 20.17, Deut. 5.21)

Rom. 7:8 But the offense nature,
taking opportunity through The Instruction,
accomplished in me every manner of longing.

Indeed, apart from a law offenses are dead.

Rom. 7:9 Now I was alive at one time
apart from law.

But The Instruction having come,
the offense recovered life,
and I was required to be put to death.

This is not the traditional way
of translating this text.
However, the effect of The Torah,
the instruction of YAHWEH,
was to cause the identification of our offenses.
In that sense, the offenses became real
in the light of The Torah.
This results in death,
because one who offends against The Torah
in even one small point is worthy of death.
Death is the penalty for rebellion.
And every 'sin'
is an act of rebellion against YAHWEH.

Rom. 7:10 And The Instruction
which was for the sake of life
I found to be for the sake of death.

Rom. 7:11 Indeed, the offense nature,
taking opportunity through The Instruction,
seduced me completely,
and through it killed me.

Rom. 7:12 Therefore The Torah
is truly set apart,
and The Instruction is set apart
and just,
and good.

Rom. 7:13 Has then what is good become death to me?
May it never be so!
Instead, the offense,
in order that it might appear as an offense,
was accomplishing death in me
by means of that which is good
in order that the offense,
by means of The Instruction,
might become exceedingly offensive.

Rom. 7:14 Indeed, we understand that The Torah is non-carnal.
But I am carnal,
being sold as merchandise under the offense.

Rom. 7:15 Indeed,
what I am doing I do not understand,
because what I choose to do,
that thing I do not practice.
Instead, what I detest, that thing I am doing.

Rom. 7:16 If then I am doing what I choose not to do
I agree with The Torah, that it is good.

Rom. 7:17 But now
it is no longer I who am doing it,
but rather the offense nature
which is residing in me.

It's not entirely clear whether Sha'ul is referring to offenses as acts
or to the offense nature.
But given the context
it certainly appears that he is once again referring to the offense nature
that still resides in him,
even though he is a redeemed man.

Rom. 7:18 Indeed, I understand that in me,
that is, in my flesh,
resides absolutely nothing good.
Indeed, choosing is present with me,
but accomplishing that which is good
I do not find.

Rom. 7:19 Indeed, the good that I choose
I do not do.
But the harm that I choose not to do,
that I practice.
Rom. 7:20 Now if I do what I choose not to do it is no longer I who accomplish it,
but rather offense nature
which is residing in me.

Rom. 7:21 I find therefore a principle,
that harmfulness is present in me,
the one who chooses to do good.
Rom. 7:22 Indeed, I delight
in The Torah of YAHWEH
according to the inner person.

Rom. 7:23 But I see a different principle
in my members,
attacking the law of my mind
and making me a captive
to the principle of the offense nature,
which is in my members.

Rom. 7:24 I am a miserable person!
Who will rescue me from this body of death?

Rom. 7:25 I give thanks to YAHWEH,
because of YAHUSHUA,
The Messiah, our Master!

No doubt, therefore, truly with the mind
I myself am a servant to YAHWEH's Torah,
but with the flesh,
to a law (principle) of offenses.

*This verse is typically mistranslated,
and therefore misunderstood.*

*Given the context,
which includes the previous discussion
of redemption in The Messiah, Sha'ul's answer to his dilemma
is to thank YAHWEH
because of what He has done
through YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.
Trusting in The Messiah provides our deliverance
from the offense nature
- eventually complete deliverance.
Without that redemption we have no hope.
The answer to Sha'ul's rhetorical question is
- The Messiah, YAHUSHUA!

*Praise YAHWEH that there is indeed an answer,
and one that satisfies
every aspect of the dilemma.*

*Remember, law is a precept or principle.
In regard to The Torah,
it is an instruction to be followed.
It is not a "fixed law"
that demands absolute "obedience".*

Chapter 8

Rom. 8:1 There is, therefore, now
not even one condemnation
to those who are in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
who are not walking according to flesh,
but according to The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,

*Because of all the preceding discussion
in which Sha'ul has laid out
the redemption granted through The Messiah
there is not even one basis for condemnation
for one who truly believes or has faith
in the atoning work of The Messiah!*

Rom. 8:2 because the law of The Divine Nature of life in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, has set me free
from the law of offenses and death.

Rom. 8:3 What The Torah indeed was unable to do,
being weak because of the flesh,
YAHWEH did by sending His own Son
in the form of flesh as an offense offering.

And concerning offenses,
He condemned the offenses in the flesh
Rom. 8:4 so that the justification of The Torah
might be fulfilled in us
who are not walking according to flesh,
but rather according to a Divine Nature.

Rom. 8:5 Indeed,
those who exist according to flesh
set their minds on the things of flesh.
But those who live
according to a Divine Nature set their minds on the things
of The Divine Nature.

Rom. 8:6 Indeed,
the mental inclination of the flesh
is death.
But the mental inclination of The Divine Nature
is life and peace,
Rom. 8:7 because the mental inclination
of the flesh is hostility against YAHWEH.
Indeed, it is not subordinate
to The Torah of YAHWEH,
nor indeed is it able to be.

Rom. 8:8 Moreover, those who are existing for the sake of flesh
are not able to be pleasing to YAHWEH.

Rom. 8:9 But you are not of flesh,
but rather are of The Divine Nature,
if it is true that The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
resides in you.

But if anyone does not have
The Divine Nature of The Messiah
he does not exist as His.

Rom. 8:10 Now if The Messiah is in you
the body truly is dead
because of offenses,
but The Divine Nature is alive
because of justification.

There is no reference to "the spirit" being in you,
but rather to The Messiah being in you.
There is a direct linking from the Divine Nature ('spirit') to The Messiah.
It's His Divine Nature that dwells in us
after we choose to trust in Him.
Also, YAHUSHUA taught that one who sees Him
has seen The Father, YAHWEH,
so we really have
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
dwelling within us.
Note v. 11.

Rom. 8:11 Now if The Divine Nature of Him
Who raised YAHUSHUA from being dead
resides in you,
then He who raised The Messiah
from being dead
will also give life to your mortal bodies
through His Divine Nature
which is residing in you.

Rom. 8:12 Therefore, brothers,
we are not persons indebted to the flesh,
living according to the flesh,

Rom. 8:13 because if you are living according to the flesh you will die.

But if by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH you have put to death the deeds of the body then you will live.

Then is implied in this verse by is very nature.
We see here
a profound Scripture principle once again.
It is the "If...Then..." dynamic.
This is repeated many times in Scripture.
It reveals to us that there are consequences
to every one of our actions and choices.
If you do this...then I will do this....,
but If you do NOT do this... then I will.....
You can fill in the blanks yourself.

Rom. 8:14 Indeed, as many as are led by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH, these are children of YAHWEH.

Rom. 8:15 Indeed, you have not received a human nature of slavery again into fear. But you have received a Divine Nature of adoption, by which we cry out, "Abba, The Father!", Rom. 8:16 The Divine Nature itself bearing witness with our Divine Nature that we are children of YAHWEH; Rom. 8:17 and if children, then also heirs, heirs of YAHWEH and joint heirs with The Messiah, if perhaps we are suffering with Him in order that we may also be honored together.

Rom. 8:18 Indeed, I consider that the difficulties of this present time are not comparable to the honor which is going to be revealed unto us.

Rom. 8:19 Indeed, the intense anticipation of the creation eagerly waits for the revelation of the children of YAHWEH.

Rom. 8:20 Indeed, the creation was subjected to depravity, not voluntarily, but because of Him Who has subjected it for the sake of hope, Rom. 8:21 because the creation itself will also be liberated from the slavery to decay into the magnificent freedom of the children of YAHWEH.

Rom. 8:22 Indeed, we understand that the whole creation is groaning and suffering with birth pangs until now. Rom. 8:23 And not only that but we also, having the first fruits of The Divine Nature, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, fully anticipating the adoption, the ransom in full of our body.

Rom. 8:24 Indeed, we have been delivered by this expectation. But an expectation that is seen is not an expectation. Indeed, why does one still expect what one is seeing?

Rom. 8:25 But if we expect what we do not see, then with patience we fully expect it.

Rom. 8:26 Now in the same way
The Divine Nature also helps in our weaknesses.
Indeed, we do not understand what we should pray to YAHWEH
concerning precisely as we should.

However, The Divine Nature itself
intercedes on behalf of us
with groanings which cannot be uttered.
Rom. 8:27 And He Who searches the hearts understands what the purpose of The Divine Nature is,
because it intercedes
for the sake of the set apart ones
according to the purpose of YAHWEH.

Rom. 8:28 And we understand that everything is working together for good for those who love YAHWEH,
for those who are the invited
according to His purpose.

Rom. 8:29 Indeed, whom He knew beforehand
He also determined in advance to be similar to the likeness of His Son
in order that He might exist as the firstborn
among many brothers.
Rom. 8:30 Moreover,
whom He determined in advance,
these He also called,
and whom He called,
these He also rendered innocent,
and whom He rendered innocent,
these He also rendered honored.

Rom. 8:31 What then shall we say to these things?
If YAHWEH is for us who is against us?

Rom. 8:32 He who did not spare His own Son,
but delivered Him up on behalf of us all,
how will He not with Him
also grant us everything?

Rom. 8:33 Who will bring a charge against YAHWEH's elect?
It is YAHWEH Who is rendering us innocent.

Rom. 8:34 Who is it that is condemning?
The Messiah has died, but even more,
has also been raised up,
Who even is existing
at the right hand of YAHWEH,
Who also is interceding for us.
*This is the same attribution
given to The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
in verses 26 & 27 above.*

Rom. 8:35 What can separate us
from the love of The Messiah?
Trouble,
or calamity,
or persecution,
or famine,
or nakedness,
or danger,
or a sword?

Rom. 8:36 As it is written:
*"For Your sake we are killed
all day long;
We are accounted
as sheep for the slaughter."*
(Psa. 44.22)

Rom. 8:37 On the contrary,

in all these things
we are decisively victorious
through Him Who is loving us.

Rom. 8:38 Indeed, I am convinced that neither death,
nor life,
nor YAH-messengers,
nor first things,
nor forces,
nor things present,
nor things to come,
Rom. 8:39 nor height,
nor depth,
nor any other created thing
will be able to separate us from the love of YAHWEH, which is in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, our Master.

aggelos means messenger, not 'angel'.

It's pronounced ahn-geh-los,
from which we were given 'angel'.

This is not correct.

YAH-messenger is used to designate a messenger sent by YAHWEH.

This passage is often cited by those who promote the concept of "eternal security".
Their use of it does not agree with Scripture,
however.

None of the things listed by Sha'ul
can separate us from YAHWEH's love.

But there is one thing
that can separate us from it,
and that is our own willing choice
to walk away from it, to "apostatize".
To do that will separate you from it permanently,
as Scripture confirms,
especially in Hebrews 6 and 10.

Chapter 9

Rom. 9:1 I speak truth concerning The Messiah.

I am not lying, my conscience testifying jointly
with The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH,

Rom. 9:2 that I have great sadness
and continual grief in my heart.

Rom. 9:3 Indeed, I might wish that I myself were excommunicated from The Messiah
for the sake of my brothers,

my country men according to flesh,
Rom. 9:4 they who are Yisra'elites,
of whom are:

the adoption,
and the honor,
and the covenants,
and the giving of The Torah,
and the worship of YAHWEH,
and the promises;

Rom. 9:5 of whom are the fathers
and from whom,
according to flesh is The Messiah,
Who is over everything.

YAHWEH be thanked into eternity.
Amen.

Rom. 9:6 Now it is not as though
the word of YAHWEH has taken no effect,
because

they are not all Yisra'el
who are from Yisra'el.

Rom. 9:7 Neither is it because they exist
as the seed of Abraham that they are all children, but rather,

"In Yitzhak your seed will be called."

(Gen. 21.12)

Rom. 9:8 That is to say,
they who are the children of the flesh,

these are not the children of YAHWEH.
Instead, the children of the promise
are counted as the seed.

Rom. 9:9 Indeed, this is the word of promise,
“At this time I will come and Sarah will have a son.”
(Gen. 18.10,14)
Sarah means princess.

Rom. 9:10 And not only this but rather also Ribkah,
having conceived by one man,
by our father, Yitzhak, Ribkah means tying, restricting.

Rom. 9:11 Indeed, the children,
not yet having been born,
nor having practiced any good or harm,
in order that the purpose of YAHWEH
according to divine election might stand,
not out of works but out of Him Who calls,

Rom. 9:12 it was said to her,
“The older will serve the younger.”
(Gen. 25.23)

Rom. 9:13 As it is written,
*“Ya’akov I have loved,
but Esau I have hated.”*
(Mal. 1.2,3)

Rom. 9:14 What shall we say then?
Is there injustice with YAHWEH?
May it never be so!

Rom. 9:15 Indeed, He says to Moshe, *“I will have mercy on whomever I will have mercy,
and I will have compassion
on whomever I will have compassion.”*
(Ex. 33.19)

Rom. 9:16 So then,
it is not of one who is willing,
nor of him who is running,
but rather *it is of YAHWEH,
Who is having compassion.

Rom. 9:17 Indeed,
The Scripture says to the Pharaoh,
*“For this very purpose I have raised you up,
that I may show My power in you,
and that My Name might be declared
in all the earth.”*
(Ex. 9.16)

Pharaoh means his nakedness.

Rom. 9:18 Therefore, He has compassion
on whom He chooses,
and whom He chooses He renders stubborn.

Rom. 9:19 You will say to me then,
“Why does He still find fault?
Indeed, who has opposed His will?”
Rom. 9:20 And indeed, human being,
who are you to dispute with YAHWEH?

Will the thing formed
say to Him Who formed it, “Why have you made me like this?”

Rom. 9:21 Does the potter
not have authority over the clay,
from the same mass to make one vessel
indeed for honor but another for dishonor?

Rom. 9:22 What if YAHWEH,

choosing to indicate wrath
even to make His capability known, endured with much fortitude vessels of wrath
prepared for destruction,
Rom. 9:23 even in order that He might make known the riches of His honor upon vessels of mercy
which He had prepared in advance for honor;
Rom. 9:24 even us whom He has called,
not out of the Yisra'elites only,
but also out of the Gentiles?

Rom. 9:25 He says also in Hosea,
*"I will call them My people who were not My people,
and her beloved
who was not beloved."*
(Hos. 2.23)

Rom. 9:26 *"And it will come to pass
in the place where it was said to them,
You are not My people,'
there they will be called sons of The Living Elohim."*
(Hos. 1.10)

Rom. 9:27 Yeshayah also cries out
concerning Yisra'el,
*"Though the number of the children of Yisra'el
be as the sand of the sea,
the remnant will be saved,*

Rom. 9:28 *because He will finish the work
and make a complete end in justification,
because YAHWEH will make a complete end
in the midst of the whole earth."*
(Is. 10.22-23)

Rom. 9:29 And as Yashaah said before,
*"Unless YAHWEH of Sabaoth
had left us a seed,
we would have become like Sedom,
and we would have been made like Amorah."*
(Is. 1.9)

Yeshay'yah means YAH has delivered.
Sedom means fettered.
Amorah means bondage.

Rom. 9:30 What shall we say then,
that Gentiles
who are not pursuing justification,
have obtained justification,
even justification which is out of faith,
Rom. 9:31 but Yisra'el,
pursuing a law of justification,
has not attained it by a law of justification?

Rom. 9:32 Why?
Because they did not seek it out of faith,
but as it were, from works of law.

Indeed, they stumbled on the stumbling stone,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Rom. 9:33 just as it is written:
*"Behold, I lay in Zion
a stumbling stone and rock of offense,
and whoever believes on Him
will not be put to shame."*
(Is. 8.14, 28.16)

Zion means parched place.

Chapter 10

Rom. 10:1 Brothers, my heart's desire and petition to YAHWEH for Yisra'el is for deliverance.

Rom. 10:2 Indeed, I testify
that they have a zeal for YAHWEH,
but not according to acknowledgement.

Rom. 10:3 Indeed they, not comprehending the justification of YAHWEH, yet seeking to establish their own justification, have not subordinated themselves to the justification of YAHWEH.

Rom. 10:4 Indeed, The Messiah is the culmination of law for the sake of justification for everyone who is trusting.

Rom. 10:5 Indeed, Moshe writes of the justification which is from The Torah,
"The man who does those things will live by them."

(Lev. 18.5)

Moshe means drawing out.

Rom. 10:6 But the justification which is from faith speaks in this way,

"Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into The Heaven?'"

(Deut. 30.13)

that is to bring The Messiah down,

Rom. 10:7 or,

"Who will descend into the abyss?"

(Deut. 30.14)

that is to bring The Messiah out from being dead.

Rom. 10:8 But instead, what does it say?

"The word is near you; in your mouth and in your heart

(Deut 30.14)

That is the word of trust which we proclaim,

Rom. 10.9 that if you acknowledge with your mouth

The Master, YAHUSHUA,

and trust in your heart

that YAHWEH has raised Him up

from being dead

you will be delivered,

Rom. 10.10 because with the heart one trusts,

for the sake of justification,

and with the mouth acknowledgement is made

for the sake of deliverance.

Rom. 10:11 Indeed, The Scripture says,

"Whoever has trust in Him will not be put to shame."

(Is. 28.16)

Rom. 10:12 Indeed, there is no distinction between Yisra'elite and Greek

because the same Master of everyone

is rich toward everyone

who is calling upon Him.

Rom. 10:13 Indeed,

"whoever calls upon the Name of YAHWEH will be delivered."

(Joel 2.32)

Note whose Name

is to be called upon for salvation.

It is YAHWEH.

It has always been YAHWEH.

In Him alone is salvation.

This is confirmed multiple times

in Psalms and Isaiah alone.

Rom. 10:14 How then will they appeal to Him

in Whom they have not believed?

And how will they believe in Him

of Whom they have not heard?

And how will they hear

without one who is proclaiming it?

Rom. 10:15 And how will they proclaim it

unless they are sent?

Just as it is written,

*“How beautiful are the feet of those who proclaim the good news of peace,
who bring glad tidings of good things!”*

(Is. 52.7, Nah. 1.15)

Rom. 10:16 However, they have not all listened attentively to the good news.

Indeed, Yeshayah says,

“YAHWEH, who has believed our report?”

(Is. 53.1)

Rom. 10:17 Therefore,
belief comes from hearing,
and hearing comes by means of
the word of YAHWEH.

Rom. 10:18 However,
I say have they not heard?

Truly indeed, without a doubt.

*“Their sound has gone out to all the earth,
and their words to the ends of the world.”*

(Psa. 19.4)

Rom. 10:19 However,
I say did Yisra'el not know?

First Moshe says,

*“I will provoke you to jealousy
by those who are not a nation.
I will move you to anger by a foolish nation.”*

(Deut. 32.21)

Rom. 10:20 Then Yeshayah
is very bold and says,

*“I was found by those who did not seek Me.
I was made manifest
to those who did not ask for Me.”*

(Is. 65.1)

Rom. 10:21 Then to Yisra'el he says,

*“All day long I have stretched out My hands
to a rebellious and disputing people.”*

(Is. 65.2)

The text obviously flows into the next chapter.

Sha'ul's dialogue does not stop at the end of Chapter 10.

This is one of many examples of the influence of artificial insertions
into the text for “human” convenience.

Chapter 11

Rom. 11:1 I say therefore,
has YAHWEH rejected His people?

May it never be so!

Indeed, I also am an Yisra'elite,
from the seed of Abraham,
of the tribe of Binyamin.

Binyamin means son of the right hand.

Rom. 11:2 YAHWEH has not rejected His people whom He has chosen ahead of time either.

Or do you not understand what The Scripture
says about Eliyah,

how he conferred with YAHWEH
concerning Yisra'el saying,

Eliyah means my El (God) is YAHWEH.

Rom. 11:3 *“YAHWEH, they have killed Your prophets and torn down Your altars,
and I alone am left.*

And they seek my life”?

(1 Kings 19.10, 14)

Rom. 11:4 However,
what does the divine response say to him?

“I have reserved for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Ba'al.”

(1 Kings 19.18)

Ba'al means a master;
hence a husband, or (figuratively) owner.

It's the name of a Phoenician idol.
It is also often translated as "lord",
adding to the confusion that's created by using that term.

Rom. 11:5 Likewise then, at this present time,
there also is a remnant
according to the divine selection of favor.

Rom. 11:6 Now if it is by favor
then it is not any longer from works.
Otherwise favor is no longer favor.
But if it is from works
then it is no longer favor.
Otherwise work is no longer work.

Rom. 11:7 What then?
Yisra'el has not obtained this thing
for which it is seeking
but the chosen have obtained it
and the rest have become calloused,

Rom. 11:8 just as it is written,
*"YAHWEH has given them a nature of stupor;
eyes that they should not see
and ears that they should not hear,
to this very day."*?
(Deut. 29.4, Is. 29.10)

Rom. 11:9 And David says,
*"Let their table become a snare and a trap,
a stumbling block and a recompense to them.*

Rom. 11:10 *Let their eyes be darkened
so that they do not see
and bow down their back always."*
(Psa. 69.22-23)

Rom. 11:11 I say then, have they stumbled in order that they might fall?
May it never be so!
But instead, through their offense,
deliverance has come to the Gentiles
to provoke them to jealousy.

Excite to rivalry the Yisra'elites

Rom. 11:12 Now if their offense
is richness for the world,
and their failure is richness for the Gentiles,
how much more will their fullness be?

Rom. 11:13 Indeed, I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am
an ambassador to the Gentiles.

I honor my ministry

Rom. 11:14 if somehow

I might provoke to jealousy my own flesh
so that I might deliver some of them,

Rom. 11:15 because if their rejection becomes the reconciliation of the world what will their acceptance become
if not life out of being dead?

Rom. 11:16 Indeed,
if the beginning of a sacrifice is set apart,
the entire batch is also set apart.
And if the root is set apart,
so are the branches.

Rom. 11:17 Now if some of the branches
have been broken off,
and you, being a wild olive tree,
have been grafted in among them,
and with them have become a partaker
of the root and plumpness of the olive tree,
Rom. 11:18 do not boast against the branches.

But if you do boast
recognize that you do not sustain the root,
but the root sustains you.

Rom. 11:19 You will say then,
“Branches were broken off
in order that I might be grafted in.”

Rom. 11:20 Well said.
Because of disbelief they were broken off.
And you stand by faith.

Do not be arrogant, but rather be in awe,

Rom. 11:21 because if YAHWEH
did not spare the natural branches
He may not spare you either.

Rom. 11:22 Therefore, understand
the gentleness and severity of YAHWEH.
On those who have fallen, severity,
but upon you, gentleness,
if you continue in His gentleness.
Otherwise you also will be cut off.

*This passage demonstrates that there is no "eternal security"
until one is actually in The Eternal Kingdom.
It is possible to "apostasize",
to fail to continue in His gentleness
- and - to be cut off, prior to reaching eternity.*

Rom. 11:23 Now they also,
if they do not remain in disbelief,
will be grafted in because YAHWEH is capable
of grafting them in again.

Rom. 11:24 Indeed, if you have been cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature,
and have been grafted against nature
into a cultivated olive tree,
how much more
will these who are natural branches
be grafted into their own olive tree?

Rom. 11:25 Indeed, I do not desire, brothers,
that you do not comprehend this mystery,
lest you become wise against yourselves,
because callousness in part
has happened to Yisra'el
until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in.

Rom. 11:26 And likewise,
all Yisra'el will be delivered,
just as it is written:

*“The Deliverer will come out of Zion,
and He will turn away
ungodliness from Ya'akov,*

Rom. 11:27 *because this is My covenant with them
when I take away their offenses.”*
(Is. 59.20-21)

Rom. 11:28 Truly, concerning the good news
they are hostile because of you.
But concerning the divine selection
they are beloved because of the forefathers.

Rom. 11:29 Indeed, the gifts and the invitation of YAHWEH
are irrevocable.

Rom. 11:30 Indeed, exactly as you
at one time disbelieved YAHWEH,
but have now obtained compassion
because of the disbelief of these,
Rom. 11:31 even so,
these also have now disbelieved
in order that by your compassion
they also may obtain compassion.

Rom. 11:32 Indeed, YAHWEH
has included them all in disbelief,
in order that He might have compassion upon them all.

Rom. 11:33 Oh the profundity of wealth, both of the wisdom
and knowledge of YAHWEH!
How unsearchable are His judgments
and His ways are untraceable!

Rom. 11:34 *“For who has known
the mind of YAHWEH?
Or who has become His counselor?*

Rom. 11:35 *Or who has first given to Him
and it will be repaid to him?”*

(Job 41.11)

Rom. 11:36 because from Him
and through Him
and to Him are all things;
to Whom be honor for eternity.
Amen.

Chapter 12

Rom. 12:1 I encourage you therefore, brothers,
because of the compassions of YAHWEH,
to present your bodies as a living sacrifice,
consecrated, acceptable to YAHWEH,
which is your logical worship.

Rom. 12:2 And do not be conformed to this world
but be transformed
by the renovation of your mind,
for the sake of testing
what is the good, and acceptable,
and complete will of YAHWEH.

Rom. 12:3 Indeed, I say
through the favor given to me
to everyone who is among you not to think more highly of himself
than he ought to think,
but on the contrary to think with a sound mind
in the manner that YAHWEH
has distributed to each one a measure of trust.

Rom. 12:4 Indeed, exactly as we have many parts within one body,
but all the parts

do not have the same function,
Rom. 12:5 so we, who are many,
are one body with The Messiah,
and individually parts of one another.

*This is a profound teaching.
Every believer is identified
as being part of “The Body of The Messiah”.
This means each one forms a part of this “corporate body”,
The Messiah being the “Head”,
and others being the other parts.*

*What’s remarkable is the recognition that believers are now already,
part of The Messiah!
Together with Him,
believers are to be performing
the acts He chooses for them to perform.
Furthermore, believers
are “members of one another”
- each part affecting all the other parts.*

Rom. 12:6 Now, we have different gifts
according to the favor
that has been given to us:

if prophecy,
according to the proportion of our faith;
The Greek is lacking any verbs
following the preceding verse which can be related to the following list of gifts.
Many translations insert the phrase
"let us use them".
While this does seem
to perhaps be the idea in view,
it is not in the original text.
Use the context to get the meanings.

Rom. 12:7 if ministry, in the ministering;
if teaching, in the teaching;
Rom. 12:8 if encouragement,
in the encouraging;
he who gives, in sincerity;
he who presides, with eagerness;
he who is compassionate, with willingness.

Rom. 12:9 Love without hypocrisy.
Utterly detest what is bad.
Stick to what is good.
Rom. 12:10 Be kindly affectionate
to one another with brotherly love,
in honor leading the way for one another,
Rom. 12:11 not lagging in diligence,
being fervent in nature,
serving as a slave to YAHWEH,
He does own you.
You have been bought and paid for
with His very life.

Rom. 12:12 rejoicing in anticipation,
enduring trouble,
persevering in prayer,
Rom. 12:13 sharing in the needs
of the set apart ones,
pursuing hospitality.

Rom. 12:14 Speak well of those who are persecuting you.
Speak well and do not curse.

Rom. 12:15 Rejoice with those who are rejoicing,
and weep with those who are weeping.
Rom. 12:16 Be of the same mind
toward one another,
not setting your mind on lofty things,
but rather removing humiliation.
Do not be wise according to yourself.
Rom. 12:17 Repay not even one bad for bad.
Take thought in advance for what is good
before all human beings.

Rom. 12:18 If it is possible,
as much as it depends on you,
live peacefully with all human beings.

Rom. 12:19 Beloved,
do not vindicate yourselves,
but rather give place to wrath
because it is written,
"Vengeance is Mine, I will repay,"
(Deut 32.35)
says YAHWEH.

Rom. 12:20 Therefore,
*"If your enemy is hungry, feed him.
If he is thirsty, give him a drink,
because in so doing
you will heap coals of fire on his head."*
(Prov. 25.21-22)

Rom. 12:21 Do not be overcome by harmfulness,
but overcome harmfulness with good.

Chapter 13

Rom. 13:1 Every being is to be subordinate to superior authorities, because there is no authority except from YAHWEH, and the authorities that exist are determined by YAHWEH.

Rom. 13:2 Therefore, whoever opposes the authority is opposed to the arrangement of YAHWEH, and those who are opposing will bring judgment upon themselves.

Rom. 13:3 Indeed, chief rulers are not a terror to good works, but rather to the bad. Do you want to be unafraid of the authority? Do what is good and you will have praise from the same. Rom. 13:4 Indeed, he is YAHWEH's minister to you for good. But if you do what is bad, be afraid, because he does not bear the sword without reason. Indeed, he is a servant of YAHWEH, carrying out justice for the sake of wrath on him who is practicing intrinsic worthlessness.

Rom. 13:5 Therefore, you must necessarily be subordinate, not only because of wrath, but also because of the conscience.

Rom. 13:6 Indeed, because of this you also pay taxes, because they are YAHWEH's public servants, persevering in this very thing.

Rom. 13:7 Deliver therefore to everyone that which is owed: taxes to whom taxes, customs to whom customs, fear to whom fear, honor to whom honor.

Rom. 13:8 Do not be obligated, to not even one, to not even one, except to love one another, because he who loves another has fulfilled The Torah.

The repetition in the first portion of this verse is not an error. Most English translations do not show this double statement. This repetition is a Hebraic manner of expression that is made to add special emphasis to a concept. It's like saying, "absolutely, unequivocally, to not even one".

Incidentally, this indicates the book of Romans was most likely written in Hebrew originally. No Greek writer would understand this Hebraic concept.

Note the one exception to the preceding emphatic injunction. It is proper to be obligated to love one another - because it alone fulfills both the Old Covenant Torah and the teaching of YAHUSHUA.

Rom. 13:9 Indeed, "You are not to commit adultery," "You are not to murder," "You are not to steal,"

"You not to bear false witness,"
You are not to covet,"
(Ex. 20.13-15, 17, Deut. 5.17-19, 21)

and if there is any other instruction,
are all summed up in this saying,
"You are to love your neighbor as yourself."
(Lev. 19.18)

Rom. 13:10 Love works nothing harmful to one who is a neighbor.
Therefore, love is the fulfillment of The Torah.

agapao - to love (in a social or moral sense).
From a Hebraic perspective,
this is not "emotional love", a type of passion,
but rather is an abiding loyalty to another
that seeks never to do them any harm.

Note that doing nothing harmful to another fulfills The Torah.

This is exactly the way YAHUSHUA lived!
And it does not need to be put into the form of a 'commandment'.
All we need is the "instruction"
to understand how we are to live
so that we are doing
what's pleasing to YAHWEH.

Rom. 13:11 And do this understanding the occasion,
because even now it is time for us
to awaken out of sleep.
Indeed, now our deliverance is nearer than when we first believed.

The term for sleep is hupnou.
It is the root for hypnosis.
Figuratively it refers to mental torpor.
Torpor means dormancy or inactivity.

Rom. 13:12 The night is indeed well advanced.
The day is approaching.
Therefore, put away the works of darkness and clothe yourself
with the implements of The Light.

YAHUSHUA is The Light of the world.

Rom. 13:13 Walk properly, as in the day,
not in carousing and drunkenness,
not in sexual promiscuity and indecency,
not in quarreling and jealousy.

Rom. 13:14 Instead, clothe yourself
with The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.
And make no provision for the flesh
leading into its longings!

Chapter 14

Rom. 14:1 Accept one who is weak in trust,
but not for the sake of discriminating debates.

Rom. 14:2 Indeed,
one believes he may eat all things,
but he who is weak eats only vegetables.

Rom. 14:3 He who is eating is not to despise him who is not eating.

And he who is not eating
is not to condemn him who is eating
because YAHWEH has accepted him.

Rom. 14:4 Who are you
to condemn another's servant?
To his own master he stands or falls.

Indeed, he will stand,
because YAHWEH is capable
of making him stand.

Rom. 14:5 One person condemns
one day against another.

Another condemns every day.
Let each one be fully convinced
in his own mind.

Rom. 14:6 He who has
an opinion about the day
has that opinion unto YAHWEH, and he who does not have
an opinion about the day
unto YAHWEH he does not have an opinion about it.
He who is eating is eating as unto YAHWEH
because he expresses gratitude to YAHWEH.
And he who is not eating
is not eating as unto YAHWEH.
He also expresses gratitude to YAHWEH.

In this passage YAHWEH is used instead of "the Lord"
because the context points clearly to Him
as the intended reference,
not to YAHUSHUA.
It's an excellent example of the confusion
caused by applying this title
to both The Father and The Son.
It is terrible scholarship.

The term translated as
"have an opinion" is phroneo.
Its fundamental meaning
is to exercise the mind, to think.
It refers to having an opinion about something

It's translated by others
using at least eleven different words,
which is most confusing.
The context provides the means
by which to understand what's intended.

Rom. 14:7 Indeed,
not even one of us lives to himself,
and not even one of us dies to himself.

Rom. 14:8 Indeed,
if we live we live to YAHWEH,
and if we die we die to YAHWEH.
Therefore, whether we live or die,
we are YAHWEH's.

Rom. 14:9 Indeed, for this purpose
The Messiah died,
and was raised up,
and lived again,
in order that He might rule
over both the dead and the living.

Rom. 14:10 Now why do you condemn your brother?
Or why do you despise your brother?
Indeed, we will all stand
before the judgment seat of The Messiah

Rom. 14:11 because it is written,
"As I live, says YAHWEH,
every knee will bow to Me,
and every tongue
will swear an oath to YAHWEH."
(Is. 45:23)

In this quotation
the original does not say "confess".
It says "swear an oath".
In the Greek the word translated "confess"
in other translations means "to acknowledge".

Rom. 14:12 Certainly then, each of us
will give an account concerning himself to YAHWEH.
logos - word, account; message.

Rom. 14:13 Therefore, do not condemn one another any longer,
but rather decide this,

do not set a stumbling block
or a snare for a brother.

Rom. 14:14 I understand and am convinced
by The Master, YAHUSHUA,
that not even one thing is profane by itself
except to one who considers it to be profane.
To him it is profane.

koinos - common, i.e. (literally)
shared by all or several,
or (ceremonially) profane.

The concept of the profane
is the same as being "unclean", defiled,
under The Old Covenant.
Being defiled one was refused access to the "holy" things.

One could not approach YAHWEH in this state.
Common means ordinary, not "set apart".

All who follow YAHWEH are "called out" (it's the meaning of the assembly
- called out ones) of the world
and "set apart" by Him for His purposes.

Rom. 14:15 But if your brother is distressed because of food
you are no longer walking according to love.
Do not destroy that one with your food
for whom The Messiah has died!

Rom. 14:16 Accordingly, do not let your good be slandered,
Rom. 14:17 because The Kingdom of YAHWEH
is not eating and drinking,
but rather it is justification, and peace, and joy,
in The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

Rom. 14:18 Indeed,
he who is serving The Messiah
in these things is acceptable to YAHWEH
and acceptable to human beings.

Rom. 14:19 Certainly then,
pursue that which is of peace
and that which builds up another.

Rom. 14:20 On behalf of food,
do not destroy the work of YAHWEH
for the sake of food.

All things are indeed are pure.
However, it is hurtful for the human being
who is eating because of a stumbling block.
Rom. 14:21 It is not good to eat meat,
nor to drink wine,
nor to do anything
by which your brother is tripped up,
or is entrapped,
or is made weak.

Rom. 14:22 Do you have faith?
Have it for the sake of yourself
before YAHWEH.
Happy is he who does not condemn himself
in what he approves.

Rom. 14:23 But he who makes a distinction is condemned if he is eating
because he is not eating from faith.

Indeed, whatever is not from faith is an offense.

This is most profound, yet very subtle.
It's easy to slip right past this statement.
Yet it identifies the essence of offenses,
'sin' = lack of faith,

lack of trust in YAHWEH
for every aspect of your life.
By faith... Go read Hebrews Chapter 11,
the hall of faith.

Remember Abraham,
whose faith (trust) entitled him
to be counted as justified.
ALL justification comes by faith (trust)
- and not by anything else!

Chapter 15

Rom. 15:1 Now we being capable ought to be lifting up
the scruples of conscience of the incapable,
and not be seeking to please ourselves.
Rom. 15:2 Each one of us
is to please his neighbor
for that which is good toward building up.

Rom. 15:3 Indeed, even The Messiah
did not please Himself,
but as it is written,
"The reproaches of those who reproached You fell on Me."
(Psa. 69.9)

Rom. 15:4 Indeed,
whatever has been previously written
has been written for our instruction
in order that we, through the endurance
and encouragement of The Scriptures,
might have hope.

Rom. 15:5 Now may The Elohim of endurance
and encouragement
give you the same opinion toward one another
as that of The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, Rom. 15:6 in order that you might unanimously,
with one mouth,
honor The Elohim and Father
of our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Rom. 15:7 Therefore, accept one another,
just as The Messiah has also accepted us,
to the honor of YAHWEH.

Rom. 15:8 Now I say
that YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
has become a minister to the circumcision
for the sake of The Truth of YAHWEH,
to confirm the promises made to the fathers, Rom. 15:9 and a minister to the Gentiles who are honoring YAHWEH
for the sake of compassion,
just as it is written,
"For this reason I will give thanks to You among the Gentiles, and sing to Your Name."
(2 Sam 22.50, Psa. 18.49)

Rom. 15:10 And again he says,
"Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people!"
(Deut, 32.43)

Rom. 15:11 And again,
*"Praise YAHWEH all you Gentiles!
Laud Him all you peoples!"*
(Psa. 117.1)

Rom. 15:12 And again, Yeshayah says,
*"There will be a root of Yishai,
and He will rise to reign over the Gentiles.
In Him the Gentiles will hope."*
(Is. 11.10)

Rom. 15:13 Now may The Elohim of hope fill you with all joy and peace in trusting

so that you might superabound in hope
through the power
of The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

Rom. 15:14 Indeed, I myself
am convinced concerning you, my brothers,
that you also are full of goodness,
filled with all knowledge,
able also to admonish one another.

Rom. 15:15 Now I have written
more boldly to you, brothers, after a fashion,
so that you are being reminded through the favor given to me by YAHWEH
15:16 that I am a public servant
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, to the Gentiles, ministering the good news of YAHWEH,
so that the offering of the Gentiles
might become acceptable,
being sanctified
by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

Note the linkage Sha'ul is making
to the Temple sacrifices
that were so much a part of the lives of The Yisra'elites.
He is making the Gentiles
similar to The Yisra'elites in so doing.

Rom. 15:17 Therefore, I have reason to boast
in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
in that which pertains to YAHWEH.

Rom. 15:18 Indeed, I will not venture to speak of any of those things which The Messiah has not accomplished through me
in word and deed

for the sake of the obedience of the Gentiles
Rom. 15:19 in mighty signs and wonders
through the power

of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

Thus from Yerushalaim
and all around as far as Illyricum
I have fully proclaimed
the good news of The Messiah.

Rom. 15:20 Indeed, I have made it my aim
to proclaim the good news,
not where The Messiah was named,
lest I should build
on another man's foundation,

Rom. 15:21 but rather, as it is written,
*"To whom He was not announced,
they will see,
and those who have not heard
will understand."*

(Is. 52.15)

Rom. 15:22 For this reason
I also have been greatly hindered from coming to you.

Rom. 15:23 But now, no longer
having a place in these parts,
but having a great longing these many years
to come to you

Rom. 15:24 whenever I travel to Spain
I will come to you.

Indeed, I expect to see you as I travel through
and to be helped on my way there by you,
if first I might be satisfied by your company.

Rom. 15:25 But now
I am traveling to Yerushalaim
to minister to the set apart ones.

Rom. 15:26 Indeed, it pleased those from Macedonia and Achaia
to make a certain contribution
for the poor set apart ones
who are in Yerushalaim.

Rom. 15:27 It pleased them indeed,
and they are their debtors.
Indeed, if the Gentiles have been partakers
of their non-carnal things,
they are under obligation also
to serve them in material things.

Rom. 15:28 Therefore, having performed this
and having sealed to them this fruit,
I will come by way of you into Spain.

Rom. 15:29 But I understand that when I come to you I will come in the fullness of the blessing
of the good news of The Messiah.

Rom. 15:30 Now I encourage you, brothers,
through our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
and through the love
of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,

that you struggle together with me
in prayers to YAHWEH for my sake

Rom. 15:31 in order that I may be delivered from those in Yahudah who disbelieve,
and in order that my service for Yerushalaim
may be acceptable to the set apart ones,

Rom. 15:32 in order that I may come to you with joy through the will of YAHWEH,
and may be refreshed together with you.

Rom. 15:33 Now The Elohim of well being
be with you all. Amen.

Chapter 16

Rom. 16:1 I commend to you Phoebe our sister,
who is a servant of the assembly in Cencrea,

Phoebe means radiant.

Cencrea means granular.

Rom. 16:2 in order that you might accept her in YAHWEH
in a manner worthy of the set apart ones,
and stand beside her in whatever matter
she has need of you.

Indeed,
she has been a helper of many,
even of myself also.

Rom. 16:3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila,
my fellow workers in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,

Priscilla means little old woman.

Aquila means I shall be nourished.

Rom. 16:4 who risked their own necks
for the sake of my life,
to whom not only I express gratitude,
but also all the assemblies of the Gentiles.

Rom. 16:5 Likewise, greet the assembly
that is in their house.

Greet my beloved Epaenetus,
who is the first fruits of Achaia to The Messiah.

Epaenetus means praiseworthy.

Rom. 16:6 Greet Miryam
who labored much for us.

Rom. 16:7 Greet Andronicus and Junia,
my countrymen and my fellow prisoners,
who are of note among the ambassadors;
who also were in The Messiah before me.

Andronicus means victory of man.

Junia means YAHWEH continue.

Rom. 16:8 Greet Amplias,
my beloved in The Master.

Amplias means enlarged.

Rom. 16:9 Greet Urbanus,
our fellow worker in The Messiah,
and Stachys, my beloved.

Urbanus means of the city.

Stachys means an ear of corn.

Rom. 16:10 Greet Apelles,
approved by The Messiah.

Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus.

Apelles means without a receptacle.
Aristobulus means best counselor

Rom. 16:11 Greet Herodion, my countryman.

Greet those who are of the household of Narcissus
who are in The Master.

Herodian means heroic.
Narcissus means narcotic.

Rom. 16:12 Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa,
who have labored in The Master.

Greet the beloved Persis,
who labored much in The Master.

Tryphena means luxurious.
Tryphosa means luxuriating.
Persis means a Persian woman.

Rom. 16:13 Greet Rufus,
chosen in The Master,
and his mother and mine.

Rufus means red.

Rom. 16:14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes,
and the brothers who are with them.

Phlegon means burning.
Hermas means sand bank.
Patrobas means father's walk.
Hermes means bringer of good luck.

Rom. 16:15 Greet Philologus and Julia,
Nereus and his sister, and Olympas,
and all the set apart ones who are with them.

Philologus means lover of the word.
Julia means downy.
Nereus means a water nymph
(an ancient sea-god).

Rom. 16:16 Greet one another with a holy kiss.
The assemblies of The Messiah greet you.

Rom. 16:17 Now I urge you, brothers,
note those who are causing divisions and offenses
contrary to the instruction
which you have learned
and avoid them,

Rom. 16:18 because those who are of this sort
do not serve our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
but rather their own belly,
and by smooth words and eloquent speech
they are deceiving the hearts of the unsuspecting.

Rom. 16:19 Indeed, your attentive listening
has gone forth to everyone.
Therefore, I am happy for your sakes.
Now I want you to exist as wise concerning what is good,
and as innocent concerning harm.

Rom. 16:20 Now The Elohim of peace
will completely crush The Adversary
under your feet in a brief space of time.

The favor of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
be with you!
Amen.

Rom. 16:21 Timothy, my fellow worker,
and Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater,
my countrymen, greet you.

Timothy means honoring YAHWEH.
Lucius means light.
Jason means healer.
Sosipater means saving father.

Rom. 16:22 I, Tertius, who wrote this letter,
greet you in The Master.

Tertius means the third.

Rom. 16:23 Gaius, my host and the host of the whole assembly greets you.

Erastus, the treasurer of the city greets you,
and Quartus, a brother.

Gaius means on earth.

Erastus means beloved.

Quartus means fourth.

Rom. 16:24 The favor of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
be with you all. Amen.

Rom. 16:25 Now to Him
Who is able to establish you
according to my gospel
and according to the proclamation
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
according to the revelation of the mystery
kept silent from eternal times,

*“eternal times” is generally considered to be “the beginning of the world”,
although the phrase can refer
to past or future time.*

Rom. 16:26 but which now
has been rendered apparent
even through the prophetic Scriptures,
and according to The Instruction
of The Eternal Elohim,
has been made known to all nations
for the sake of listening attentively to the faith, Rom. 16:27 to YAHWEH, alone wise, be honor
through YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, for eternity.
Amen.

8. HEBREWS

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Heb. 1:1 YAHWEH has spoken many times
and many ways to the forefathers
by means of the prophets.

Heb. 1:2 In these last days

He has spoken to us by means of a Son Whom He has established
as heir of all things;

through Whom also He made the ages;

*An heir is literally one who shares by lot
a designated portion of an estate.*

aionas – eons, ages; past, present, and future.*

This is significant.

*It goes beyond the concept of “worlds”
and implies multiple periods of existence,
including prior to Genesis 1.1, eternity past,
and even into eternity future.*

Heb. 1:3 Who being
the shining forth of the magnificence,
even the exact copy of His nature,
and bringing forth all things
by the utterance of His miraculous power,
by Himself having accomplished the work
of cleansing our offenses
sat down at the right hand of The Majesty on high.

hamartia - a sin; an offense.*

*Every "sin" is an offense against YAHWEH.
It is an open rebellion against Him
which results in a penalty of death.
It offends Him because it rejects
His teaching and instruction.*

Heb. 1:4 Having become so much better than the YAH-messengers He has inherited a more excellent Name compared to theirs.

While onoma means a name, it also includes one's character or authority.

Especially in Hebrew culture, one's name represents one's character and one's authority.

aggelos is the Greek word from which 'angel' comes. It's actually the way the word is pronounced (ahn-geh-los) that gives us 'angel'. The word means messenger, deputy, one sent by another.

YAH-messenger will be used to designate one sent by YAHWEH.

Heb. 1:5 Indeed, to which of the YAH-messengers did He ever say:

*"You are My Son.
Today I have begotten You."* (Psa. 2.7)

And again:

*"I will be to Him a Father,
and He will be to Me a Son."?* (2 Sam. 7.14)

Heb. 1:6 Then again when He introduces the firstborn to the world He says:

"Let all the elohim worship Him." (Psa. 97.7)
The quote given in many translations appears to be a paraphrasing of the original text. It refers to "all the YAH-messengers".

What's given here is the translation of the Hebrew text of the referenced verse. It's known that The New Covenant writers often paraphrased their quotations, not having easy access to the precise text.

elohim means mighty one. It appears all the divine beings are referred to as elohim. But we really do not have a clear concept of what this means.

Heb. 1:7 And of the YAH-messengers He says:

"Who makes His messengers natures, even ministering blazing fire." (Psa. 104.4)
ruach is the Hebrew term for 'nature'. It literally means breath or current of air.

Traditionally it's 'translated' as 'spirit', but that's a Greek creation that the Hebrews never had in their language. It refers to one's inner essence, their nature, including their character and their authority in Hebrew thought.

1:8 But to the Son:

*"Your throne, Elohim, is for eternity.
The scepter of your kingdom
is a just scepter.*

Heb. 1:9 *You have loved right and hated wrong;
Therefore The Elohim, Your Elohim,
has anointed You with the oil of gladness
more than Your companions."*
(Psa. 45.6-7)

Heb. 1:10 And,

*"In Your presence
the foundation of the earth was laid,
and the skies are the work of Your hands.*

Heb. 1:11 *They will perish, but You will remain.
And they will all grow old like clothing.*

Heb. 1:12 *Like a garment You will change them,
and they will be changed.
But You Yourself and Your years will have no end."*

(Psa. 102-25-27)

Heb. 1:13 And to which of the messengers
has He ever said:

*"Sit at My right hand,
until I make Your enemies Your footstool."*?

(Psa. 110.1)

Heb. 1:14 Are they not indeed
all beneficent natures,
sent forth to minister for the sake of those who will be inheriting deliverance?

Chapter 2

Heb. 2:1 Because of this it is necessary
that we give superabundant attention to the things we have been hearing
lest at any time we carelessly miss them.

Heb. 2:2 Indeed, if the message spoken through YAH-messengers became certain,
and every violation and disobedience
received a just repayment,

Heb. 2:3 then how will we escape
if we are careless about a deliverance as great as this,

which you first received

as being spoken by The Master;
and it has been confirmed by us

to whom you have been listening,

Heb. 2:4 YAHWEH also having testified

even by signs and wonders,

and by various miraculous powers,

and distributions

of The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH

according to His own will?

Not everyone received

the set apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH

upon accepting The Messiah.

Some did not receive it until later,

as Sha'ul (Paul) writes in some of his letters.

Holy = set apart, consecrated;

dedicated for or to a special purpose.

pneuma means a current of air,

i.e. breath or a breeze.

It's the Greek equivalent of ruach.

Heb. 2:5 Indeed, He has not subjected to YAH-messengers the world to come
of which we speak.

Heb. 2:6 Now one has testified
in a certain place having said:

*"What is man that You are mindful of him,
or the son of man that You take care of him?"*

Heb. 2:7 You have made him a little lower than the YAH-messengers.

You have crowned him

with splendor and honor,

and set him over the works of Your hands.

Heb. 2:8 You have put everything

in subjection under his feet." (Psa. 8.4-6)

Now in that He put everything

in subjection under Him,

He left nothing

that is not put in subjection to Him.

But at this time we do not yet experience

everything put in subjection to Him.

horao - to stare at, i.e., to discern clearly.
There is a Hebraism involved in this verse.
The term used, by means of Hebraic thought,
is to experience, not stare at,
everything put in subjection.

Heb. 2:9 However, we do see YAHUSHUA,
Who was made a little lower
than the YAH-messengers
through the suffering of death,
crowned with splendor and honor
so that He, by the favor of YAHWEH, has experienced death
for the sake of everyone.

Heb. 2:10 Indeed, it was fitting for Him
for Whom are all things
and through Whom are all things,
in leading many children to honor
to make the leader of their deliverance
complete through hardships.

Many translations use "perfect" here.
The Greek is teleioo.
It means to complete,
to accomplish, consummate.
From this we get the concept of a "perfected" contract
– one which is completed.

Heb. 2:11 Now both He Who is sanctifying and those who are being sanctified
are all of one,
for which reason He is not ashamed
to call them brothers,

Heb. 2:12 saying,

*"I will declare Your Name to My brothers.
In the midst of the assembly
I will sing praise to You."*
(Psa. 22.22)

Heb. 2:13 And again:

"I will put My trust in Him."
(2 Sam 22.3, Is. 8.17)

And again:

"Here am I and the children whom YAHWEH has given Me."
(Is. 8.18)

Heb. 2:14 Certainly then,
since the children share flesh and blood,
He Himself, in a similar manner,
participated in the same
in order that through death
He might render entirely useless
him who has "the power of death",
that is, The False Accuser,

The words used here
convey the same thought
that Sha'ul uses in his other letters.
He writes of offenses as a noun,
being the "power of death".

It's not an offense as an act on our part,
but rather an offense which results
in our physical and eternal death.

It perhaps could be more properly considered as "the offense nature"
rather than the act of offending.

Perhaps it's one of the reasons
many believe Sha'ul wrote Hebrews.
It's authorship is widely debated,
no one knowing for certain who wrote it,
but it appears very likely that Sha'ul was the anonymous author.

Heb. 2:15 and release those,
as many as fear death,
because all their lives

they were held in bondage.

Heb. 2:16 Now, indeed,
He did not take upon Himself
the form of YAH-messengers.
But on the contrary, He did take upon Himself
the form of the seed of Abraham.

Note the contrast here
- not a divine form, but a human one.
Abraham means father of a multitude.

Heb. 2:17 Therefore, concerning all this,
it was necessary for Him
to become similar to His brothers,
in order that He might become a compassionate and trustworthy
Great Priest Who is before YAHWEH
atoning for the offenses of the people.

The reference to the Great Priest
is crucial to this verse.
The letter is addressed to Hebrews.
They knew very well who and what the Great Priest represented.
It was a most significant role in their culture.
To identify The Messiah
as their new Great Priest has a multitude of consequences
for their thinking and acting.
It represented a major change
within their daily living.

Heb. 2:18 Indeed
in that He Himself has suffered,
having been tested,
He is able to be helping
those who are being tested.

Note the verb tenses.
He's been tested.
We're still being tested.
And He is able to be helping us
- while we are being tested.
(present tense)

Chapter 3

Heb. 3:1 Therefore, consecrated brothers,
participants of the Heavenly invitation,
consider carefully The Ambassador
and Great Priest of our covenant,
The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,

Consecrated brothers means
"set apart family members".
It includes all of His "relatives",
male and female.
Brethren in Hebraic thought
is equivalent to kindred in English thought.

Heb. 3:2 Who has been trustworthy
to Him Who made Him such,
just as Moshe also was in all His household.

homologia means consent,
covenant, acknowledgement.
Moshe means drawing out.

Heb. 3:3 Indeed,
this One has become entitled
to more honor than Moshe, inasmuch as He who has thoroughly prepared this house
has more honor than the house itself.

Heb. 3:4 Indeed,
every house is prepared by someone.
But He Who has prepared all things is YAHWEH.

Heb. 3:5 And Moshe truly was trustworthy
in all His household as a servant
to give evidence to that which was yet to be spoken.

Heb. 3:6 However,
The Messiah was trustworthy
as a Son over His own household, Whose household we are
if in fact we hold firmly onto the secure boldness
and the boasting concerning the expectation
until the end.

Believers are His own household!
But note the qualifying note:
"IF...we hold firmly onto..."

This statement, coupled with others
in Chapters 6 and 10,
identify clearly that it is entirely possible
for us to "NOT" hold firmly onto...
In other words, we can "apostatize",
turn our back on YAHUSHUA,
and His Father, YAHWEH,
and walk away from them,
choosing to no longer believe in them,
just as we have the right
to choose to believe in them.

In light of this it is indeed possible
"to lose one's salvation".
It's not lost in the sense
of someone taking it from you,
but it is lost by your own choices.
Note verses 12, 14, and 18.

Heb. 3:7 Therefore, just as The Set Apart
Divine Nature of YAHWEH says,
"Today if you will hear His voice,
Heb. 3:8 do not harden your hearts
as in the rebellion,
in the day of trial in the wilderness,
Heb. 3:9 where your fathers tested Me,
tried Me, and saw My works forty years.
Heb. 3:10 Therefore,
I was angry with that generation,
and said, 'They always go astray in their heart,
and they have not known My ways.'
Heb. 3:11 So I swore in My wrath,
'They will not enter My rest.'"
(Psa. 95.7-11)

Heb. 3:12 Watch out, brothers,
so there will not ever be in any of you
a hurtful heart of distrust,
resulting in withdrawing from The Living Elohim!

Heb. 3:13 Instead,
encourage one another each day,
as long as it is called "today",
lest any of you might be rendered stubborn
by the deceitfulness of the offense nature.

Here, once more,
is a unique reference to offenses.
It's in the style Sha'ul uses.
It's difficult to distinguish its sense in English.
Instead of it being a verb, implying action,
he uses a noun.
The way he uses it represents the power of an offense
rather than the act of offending,
hence, the 'offense nature',
or, "the old nature" of a non-believer.

Heb. 3:14 Now, we have become participants with The Messiah,
if indeed we hold firmly
the secure beginning of the assurance until the end,
Heb. 3:15 as it is said,
"Today, if you will hear His voice,
do not harden your hearts
as in the controversy."
(Psa. 95.7-8)

Heb. 3:16 Indeed, some having heard
were embittered concerning it.
However, not everyone came out of Mitsraim
because of Moshe.

Mitsraim means double straits, trouble.
Mitsraim is Egypt.

Heb. 3:17 Now with whom was He angry forty years?
Was it not those who offended
whose corpses fell in the wilderness?

Heb. 3:18 Indeed, to whom did He swear that they would not be entering His rest
if not those who disbelieved?

Heb. 3:19 And we see that they were not able to enter in because of distrust.

Chapter 4

Heb. 4:1 Be alarmed therefore,
lest having been left a promise of entering His rest
any of you thinks he has fallen short of it

Heb. 4:2 because indeed,
the good news has been proclaimed to us
exactly as it was to them.

However, the message did not benefit
those who heard it,
not being mingled with trust
by those who heard it.

Heb. 4:3 Indeed, we who have trusted are entering into that rest
just as He has said:

*“So I swore in My wrath,
“They will not enter My rest.””*
(Psa. 95.11)

And yet His works came into being at the conception of the world.

Heb. 4:4 Indeed,
He has spoken in a certain place
of the seventh day in this way,

“And YAHWEH rested on the seventh day from all His works.”
(Gen 2.2);

Heb. 4:5 and again in this,

“They will not enter My rest.”
(Psa. 95.11)

Heb. 4:6 Therefore, since it remains that some are entering into that same rest,
and those to whom the good news
was previously proclaimed
did not enter because of distrust,

Heb. 4:7 once more

He designates a certain day,
saying by means of David, “Today”, after such a long time;
just as it has been said:

*“Today, if you will hear His voice,
do not harden your hearts.”*
(Psa. 95.7-8)

David means beloved.

Heb. 4:8 Now if this very same Yahoshua
had caused them to rest
then He would not after that have been speaking of another day.

The King James Version of The Bible has “Jesus” instead of Yahoshua.

This is an error!

The same error occurs
in Acts 7.45, and Col. 4.11.

The reference is obviously to Yahoshua (Joshua),
the forerunner of The Messiah,
who, like The Messiah,
brings the people into
"The Rest" [the abode] of YAHWEH.
The error is informative however.
It calls our attention to the similarity between the names of YAHUSHUA, and Yahoshua.

Take note of the "if...then" relationship identified here.
This is a common theme of Scripture.

Heb. 4:9 There remains, therefore,
a Special Sabbath for the people of YAHWEH, sabbatism – a Hebrew concept of great significance.
It refers to a shabbathown,
a special time of rest
that's different than the weekly Sabbath.
Sometimes it encompassed an entire week.
It's the term used in direct connection to the resurrection of The Messiah
- not the weekly Sabbath.

Heb. 4:10 because he who has entered into his own rest
has himself also ceased
from his own works,
exactly as YAHWEH ceased from His.

Heb. 4:11 Be eager, therefore,
in entering into that rest
in order that no one falls
into the same example of distrust.

Heb. 4:12 Indeed, the word of YAHWEH
is living,
and active,
and sharper than any two edged sword,
penetrating even to the division of life,
and even of nature,
and even of joints,
and even of marrow,
and is a discerner of the deliberations
and intentions of the heart.

Note Who this is!
The Word of YAHWEH, YAHUSHUA,
The Logos of John 1.1-4.
He is our Great Priest.
He is The Living Word of YAHWEH.

Heb. 4:13 And there is not one created thing
that is not visible in His presence.
Indeed, all things are naked and exposed to the eyes of Him of Whom we speak.

Heb. 4:14 Having then a supreme Great Priest
Who has traversed The Heavens, YAHUSHUA, The Son of YAHWEH,
hold on to your acknowledgement of Him

Heb. 4:15 because we do not have a Great Priest Who is not able to sympathize with our weaknesses,
but was in everything tested
in the same manner as us,
yet without offense.

Heb. 4:16 We may approach with boldness therefore
to the throne of favor,
in order that we might obtain compassion
and find favor to help at the proper time.

Chapter 5

Heb. 5:1 Now every great priest
taken from among humans
is appointed over humans
for the sake of YAHWEH,

in order that he might offer
both gifts and sacrifices for offenses.
Heb. 5:2 He is able to have compassion
on those who are ignorant and going astray
since he himself is also encircled with weakness.
Heb. 5:3 Because of this he is obligated,
just as for the people,
so also for himself,
to make offerings for the sake of offenses.
Heb. 5:4 And no man takes this honor to himself
except he who is called by YAHWEH, even as Aharon was.

Aharon means light bringer.

Heb. 5:5 In this same manner also
The Messiah did not honor Himself
by becoming a Great Priest.
On the contrary, it was He Who said to Him,

*"You are My Son.
Today I have begotten You."*
(Psa. 2.7),

Heb. 5:6 just as He also says in another place,
*"You are a priest forever
according to the order of Melki-Zedek."*
(Psa. 110.4)

Melki-Zedek means
king of righteousness; justification.

Heb. 5:7 This One, in the days of His flesh,
having offered up petitions and entreaties
with vehement outcries and tears
to Him Who was able to save Him from death,
and was heard because of His reverence,

Heb. 5:8 even though He was a Son, learned submission
from the things which He experienced.

Heb. 5:9 And having accomplished this He became the author of eternal deliverance
to all who listen attentively to Him,

Heb. 5:10 having been called by YAHWEH
as a Great Priest
"according to the order of Melki-Zedek,"
(Psa. 110.4).

Heb. 5:11 Concerning this we have much to say.
Yet it's difficult to explain
since you have become sluggish of hearing.

This is a state of mind, not of the ears.
It refers to mental refusal to listen.
It is similar in concept to being hard-hearted.

Heb. 5:12 And even though you ought to be teachers at this time
you once again need someone to teach you those which are the first principles of the utterances of YAHWEH.
Also, you have come to need milk
and not solid food.

Heb. 5:13 Indeed, everyone who drinks milk
is inexperienced in the word of justification.
Indeed, he is an infant.

Heb. 5:14 But solid food
is for those who are mature,
those who because of habit
have their senses trained to discern both good and intrinsic worthlessness.

Chapter 6

Heb. 6:1 Therefore,
leaving behind the first principles of the message of The Messiah,
we will go on to maturity,
not laying again the foundation

of reversed thinking from dead works
and of trust in YAHWEH, Heb. 6:2 of the teaching of baptisms,
and of laying on of hands,
and of resurrection of the dead,
and of eternal judgment.
Heb. 6:3 And this we will do
if indeed YAHWEH permits.

Heb. 6:4 Indeed, it is impossible for those who at one time have been enlightened,
even having experienced the Heavenly gift,
and having become sharers
of The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH, Heb. 6:5 and having experienced
the good message of YAHWEH,
even the miraculous powers of the age to come,
Heb. 6:6 if they have apostatized,
to restore them again to reversed thinking,
they themselves having crucified once more
The Son of YAHWEH,
even having put Him to open shame.

parapipto - to fall aside; apostatize.
The concept in the Hebrew mind
is that of "falling by the wayside."
The way is the path of YAHWEH's teaching,
The Torah.

If one stops following the instruction of The Torah
they end up "beside the way".
They have left the faith!

There is no such thing as "eternal security"
BEFORE one is actually in Eternity.

You cannot have "eternal security" in this life!

Otherwise, why does Scripture itself teach that you can "apostasize" - fall away?

Apostasy - turning your back and walking away from the redemption
that is provided in YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
is the unforgiveable offense!
It is the action that
"grieves the Divine Nature of YAHWEH".
There is no way
for another sacrifice to be offered for one who does this!

Can you imagine ANYTHING that would grieve YAHWEH
more than this act?

Heb. 6:7 Now the earth which drinks in the rain that frequently comes upon it and produces herbs useful for those by whom it is cultivated receives a blessing from YAHWEH.
Heb. 6:8 But if it bears thorns and thistles
it is rejected and near to being cursed,
that which ends in burning.

Heb. 6:9 Now, beloved, we are convinced of better things concerning you,
even things that hold deliverance,
even though we are speaking in this manner.

Heb. 6:10 Indeed, YAHWEH is not unjust, forgetting your work and labor of love
which you have demonstrated toward His Name,
you having ministered to the set apart ones
and are yet ministering.

Heb. 6:11 Now we desire that each one of you demonstrate the same eagerness
toward the full assurance of hope

until the end,
Heb. 6:12 in order that you do not become lazy,
but become imitators of those who through trust and patience inherit the promises.

Heb. 6:13 Indeed, when YAHWEH
had made a promise to Abraham,
since He could take an oath
according to no one greater,
He took an oath according to Himself,
Heb. 6:14 saying,
 *“Surely, blessing I will bless you,
 and increasing I will increase you.”*
 (Gen. 22.17)

Heb. 6:15 And so, having patiently endured,
Abraham obtained the promise.

Heb. 6:16 Now human beings truly take an oath
according to one greater than themselves.

And every dispute ends
with the oath of confirmation

Heb. 6:17 in which YAHWEH,
more abundantly willing to demonstrate to the heirs of the promise
the immutability of His will,
ratified it by an oath

Heb. 6:18 in order that through two immutable deeds,
in which it was impossible
for YAHWEH to be lying,
we have mighty encouragement
who having fled from the power of offenses
are laying hold on the hope
which lies before us,

The italicized phrase is inserted since it appears a portion of the original text is missing.
It may not be what was in the original,
but it presents a reasonable idea
that fits with the rest of Scripture.

Heb. 6:19 which we have
as an anchor of the life,
both secure and stable,
and which enters into the interior of the veil,

psuche is the Greek word.
It means “breath of life”,
that which was breathed into Adam when he was created.
It is not the “soul”.
Soul is a Greek concept
that is foreign to Hebrew thought.

The veil represents
the inner sanctuary of The Temple.
In this instance it represents
the inner sanctuary
in The Heavenly Kingdom itself.

Heb. 6:20 into which place
the forerunner, YAHUSHUA,
has entered for our sakes,
having become a Great Priest for eternity
according to the order of Melki-Zedek.

Chapter 7

Heb. 7:1 Now this Melki-Zedek,
- King of Salem,
- priest of The Highest, YAHWEH,
- who met Abraham
returning from the slaughter of the kings
and blessed him,

Melki-Zedek means
king of righteousness; justification.

basileus is the Greek term, meaning a sovereign.
In this passage (and most others)
it is translated as “king”.

A sovereign is a supreme ruler,
typically a monarch.
Because we're not very familiar with kings
we fail to comprehend
the significance of the literal meaning.
There is much implied by its usage.
Always consider the context.
Salem means complete well being.

Heb. 7:2 - to whom also Abraham apportioned
a tenth part of everything,
- first being translated "king of justification,"
- and then also "king of Salem",
which is "king of peace",
Heb. 7:3 - without father,
- without mother
- without genealogy,
- having neither beginning of days
nor end of life,
- indeed, resembling The Son of YAHWEH,
remains a priest perpetually.

Melki-Zedek is an extremely unique individual.
Consider the meaning of his name/title.
Consider his position before YAHWEH
as great priest.
Consider that he has no genealogy
- no parents, no descendants, etc.
Consider his extremely unique attributes.
There is no one like him in Scripture.
The writer's knowledge of him
once again suggests Sha'ul
as the author of Hebrews
because of his specialized education
through direct Divine revelation.

Heb. 7:4 Now observe how great this one is to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth of the spoils.

Heb. 7:5 And indeed,
those who are of the sons of Levi,
who have received the office of the priesthood,
have an instruction to receive tithes from the people
according to The Torah,
that is, from their brothers,
even though they have come from the loins of Abraham.

torah is typically translated as "law".
This is done because what was given to Moshe
was "carved in stone", written,
thereby making it a "statute".

However, the term means precept, a principle.
The root word for it means
to direct, instruct, teach.

The Hebrew concept of The Torah
is far more accurate than the use of 'The Law'.
The Hebrew view is also quite different
than what we've been taught.
For them it is The Ten Words
that take center stage.
It is not 'The Ten Commandments'.

Indeed, there is no reference to a command
found in the original teachings at Mount Sinai.
It's grounded in The Ten Words of YAHWEH,
which He spoke audibly to the people.
The details, what's referred to
as "the Law of Moshe",
came later.
Levi means joined.

Heb. 7:6 However, he whose genealogy
is not derived from them received tithes from Abraham
and blessed him who had the promises.

Heb. 7:7 Now beyond all dispute,
the lesser is blessed by the better.

A reversal of the worldly order,
but common to YAHWEH's order.

Heb. 7:8 And indeed, here
human beings who die receive tithes,
but there
he receives them
of whom it is witnessed that he is living!
He has neither beginning
nor ending of days.
His existence is eternal.

Heb. 7:9 And as I am saying,
according to these words,
through Abraham even Levi,
who now receives tithes,
paid tithes,
Heb. 7:10 because he was still in the loins of his father
when Melki-Zedek met him.

Take note of this concept.
It teaches that
the seed of the male constitutes LIFE,
and that, long before conception even.

Heb. 7:11 Therefore, if perfection was achieved
through the Levitical priesthood (Indeed, by them the people were given The Torah),
what further need is there
that another priest be established
according to the order of Melki-Zedek,
and not be set forth
according to the order of Aharon?

Heb. 7:12 Indeed,
if the priesthood is being replaced,
it becomes necessary also
to replace The Torah.

Pay attention!
A new priesthood requires new Torah,
new instructions.
Instead of a law of works
we now have the law of trust
- justification by faith.
Yet most interestingly,
this goes back to Abraham
who was granted justification
on the basis of his trust.
The Aharonic priesthood
was not established until long after Abraham,
and it was done with a new torah,
that given to Moshe as Sinai.

Heb. 7:13 Indeed, he of Whom these things are spoken belongs to another tribe
from which not even one has paid attention to the earthly slaughter site.

An 'altar' is a place of ritual sacrifice
involving slaughter of animals
and shedding and pouring out of blood.
It is not a "pretty" place.
But it is a meaningful place.

Heb. 7:14 Now it is obvious that our Master
arose from Yahudah,
about which tribe Moshe spoke nothing concerning the priesthood.

Yahudah means YAHWEH be praised.
Common usage shifted it to Judah,
from which comes 'Jew'.

Heb. 7:15 And this is still more abundantly apparent
if, according to the likeness of Melki-Zedek,
there is established another priest

Heb. 7:16 Who has come,
not according to a torah of a fleshly directive,
but instead according to the miraculous power
of an endless life.

Heb. 7:17 Indeed, He testifies:
"You are a priest forever
according to the order of Melki-Zedek."
(Psa. 110.4)

Heb. 7:18 Now there is truly a cancellation of the preceding instruction
because of the weakness
and uselessness thereof.

Heb. 7:19 Indeed,
The Torah accomplished nothing
except the introduction of a better hope,
by means of which we are drawing near to YAHWEH.

Heb. 7:20 And inasmuch as it was not without an oath
Heb. 7:21 Indeed, they became priests
without an oath,
but this One with an oath
through Him Who said to Him:
"YAHWEH has sworn and will not relent,
You are a priest forever
according to the order of Melki-Zedek' "
(Ps. 110.4),

Heb. 7:22 by so much more YAHUSHUA has become a guarantee of a better covenant.

Heb. 7:23 And there were many priests
because they were prevented by death
from continuing.

Heb. 7:24 But He,
because He continues forever,
has a permanent priesthood.

Heb. 7:25 Therefore, He is even able to deliver to the uttermost
those who draw near
to YAHWEH through Him,
at all times living,
making intercession on their behalf.

Notice Who it is
that is making intercession for us.
It is not "The Holy Spirit",
but rather it is YAHUSHUA!
He, by means of His indwelling Divine Nature,
is "the different comforter".

Heb. 7:26 Now such a Great Priest
is appropriate for us:
set apart,
innocent,
undefiled,
being separate from the offenders,
and having become higher than The Heavens.

Heb. 7:27 He does not need daily,
as those high priests did,
to offer up sacrifice,
first for His own offense,
and then for the people's,
because this He has done on one occasion,
having offered up Himself.

Heb. 7:28 Now The Torah appoints as Great Priests
persons who have weakness.
But the word of the oath
which came after The Torah
has appointed The Son
Who has been made perfect for eternity.

Chapter 8

Heb. 8:1 Now the main point
of the things we are saying is truly this:

We have a Great Priest
Who is seated at the right hand
of the throne of The Greatness in The Heavens, Heb. 8:2 a minister of The Set Apart Place
and of The True Tabernacle which YAHWEH set up
and not human beings.

Heb. 8:3 Indeed, every Great Priest
is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices.
Therefore, it is necessary that this One also have something to offer.

Heb. 8:4 Indeed, if He were on earth
He would not be a priest,
there already being priests who offer the gifts
according to The Torah,
Heb. 8:5 which things are an imitation and shadow
of The Heavenly things,
just as Moshe was divinely instructed
when he was about to complete The Tabernacle.
Indeed, He said,
*"See that you make all things
according to the pattern (model)
shown to you on the mountain."*
(Ex. 25.40)

Heb. 8:6 But now He has attained
a more excellent ministry,
inasmuch as He is also mediator
of a better covenant
which was established on better promises.

Heb. 8:7 Indeed,
if that first Covenant had been faultless
then no place would have been sought for a second.

Heb. 8:8 Indeed,
finding fault with them He says.
*"Behold!
The days are coming, says YAHWEH,
when I will make a new covenant
with the house of Yisra'el
and with the house of Yahudah, Heb. 8.9 not according to the covenant
that I made with their fathers
in the day when I took them by the hand
to lead them out of the land of Mitsraim, because they did not continue in My Covenant,
and I disregarded them, says YAHWEH.*

Heb. 8.10 Indeed, *this is the covenant
that I will make with the house of Yisra'el
after those days, says YAHWEH:
I will put My Torah in their mind
and write them on their hearts.
And I will be their Elohim,
and they will be My people.*

Heb. 8.11 *None of them will teach his neighbor,
and none his brother, saying,
'Know YAHWEH!',
because everyone will know Me,
from the least of them
to the greatest of them,*

Heb. 8:12 *because I will forgive their evil
and I will remember their offensiveness
no more."*

(Jer. 31.31-34)

The text has been altered
to reflect what is actually stated in Jer. 31
in order to grant better understanding of what the passages states.
The quotation was apparently from memory.

Heb. 8:13 In that He says,
"A new covenant,"
(Jer. 31.31)

He has declared the first obsolete.

Now what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to disappear.

Chapter 9

Heb. 9:1 Certainly, even the first Covenant
had ordinances of worship
and also the earthly sanctuary.

Heb. 9:2 Indeed, a tent was constructed,
in the first part of which were even
the menorah,
the table,
and The Bread of The Presence,
which is called The Set Apart Place.

"The Tabernacle" was a tent,
a temporary dwelling place.
The lampstand is best understood as a menorah.
The 'shewbread' is more properly
"The Bread of The Presence".
And "The Holy of Holies" is more correctly
"The Inner Sanctuary".
Tradition has altered the original meanings
of virtually every one of these terms.

Heb. 9:3 And within the second veil
was the part of The Tent which is called
"The Inner Sanctuary",

hagia hagiown - literally sacred sacred;
holy holy.

This is a unique Hebrew phrasing.
When they wanted to emphasize something they repeated the same term.
It could be understood as "exceedingly sacred",
or "The set apart Set Apart Place".
While it's been referred to as "The Holy of Holies" traditionally,
it means "The Set Apart Set Apart Place".
Some have translated it as "the holiest of all."

Keep in mind that to be holy means to be set apart for a special purpose.
In order to help you recognize that truth
we have used "set apart" in most places
where it is normally given as "holy".
This has been done because you can be set apart for a special purpose
- without it having any "religious" connotation.
But we do not typically consider that to be "holy".

Heb. 9:4 which had the golden censer
and The Chest of The Covenant
overlaid on all sides with gold;
in which were
the golden jar that had the manna, Aaron's rod that budded,
and the tablets of The Covenant.

An ark is a box or a storage chest.
It is not a boat.
The same word is used here
that was used for the 'container'
that Noah built,
and also the 'basket'
in which Moshe was floated on The Nile.

Heb. 9:5 And over it were the cherubim of splendor overshadowing The Cover of Atonement.

Concerning these things
we can not now speak in detail.

Once again tradition has altered
the meaning of this last item.
The Hebrew literally says
it was a cover of atonement.
It is never a 'seat' in the normal sense.
It is a 'seat' in terms of it being a location,
but no one ever "sat" there.
This Cover of Atonement

was placed above (over)
the tablets of "The Testimony"
- the literal term for what YAHWEH wrote
upon the stone tablets.

Heb. 9:6 These things then,
having been prepared in this manner,
the priests regularly entered into the first part of The Tent,
fulfilling the worship of YAHWEH.

Heb. 9:7 But into the second part
the Great Priest entered alone,
once a year,
not without blood,
which he offered for himself
and the ignorant errors of the people.
agnoema – a thing ignored;
shortcoming - error.

Heb. 9:8 It was made plain
by The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
that the way into The Inner Sanctuary
had not yet been rendered apparent
while the first Tent was still standing.

Heb. 9:9 It was symbolic for the time at hand,
according to which both gifts and sacrifices
were being offered

which were not able to make complete one who was performing the service
according to moral consciousness

Heb. 9:10 concerning foods and drinks,
various washings, and fleshly ordinances,
which were being imposed
until the time of rectification.

*Rectification refers to the Messianic re-ordering of things
into their proper form.
It is sometimes translated as re-formation.*

Heb. 9:11 But The Messiah,
having arrived as Great Priest
of the good things which are coming by means of a greater and more complete tabernacle
not made with human hands,
(that is to say, not of this creation)

Heb. 9:12 not through the blood of goats and calves,
but through His own blood,
has entered only once into
The True Set Apart Set Apart Place,
having obtained an eternal ransom.

Heb. 9:13 Now if the blood of bulls and goats
and the ashes of a heifer being sprinkled on those who have been defiled
makes one set apart

by the purifying of the flesh,

Heb. 9:14 how much more

will the blood of The Messiah,

Who through the eternal
Divine Nature of YAHWEH

having offered Himself

without spot to YAHWEH,

cleansing your moral consciousness
from dead works

for the sake of serving The Living Elohim?

Heb. 9:15 So then,
because of this new covenant,
a mediator exists
in that His death has occurred
for the sake of the ransom in full of the first covenant violations,

so that those who are called might receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.

Heb. 9:16 Indeed, where there is a will,
of necessity there must come
the death of the will maker.

Heb. 9:17 Indeed, death brings about
the establishment of the will,
since it has no power at all
while the will maker lives.

Heb. 9:18 Therefore,
not even the first Covenant
was dedicated without blood.

Heb. 9:19 Indeed, when Moshe had spoken every instruction to all the people concerning The Torah

he took the blood of calves and goats,
with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop,
and sprinkled both the book itself
and all the people,

Heb. 9:20 saying,

*"This is the blood of The Covenant
of which YAHWEH has instructed you."*
(Ex. 24.8)

Heb. 9:21 Then, likewise,
he sprinkled with blood
both The Tent
and all the implements of the ministry.

Heb. 9:22 Indeed, according to The Torah
virtually everything is purified with blood,
and without shedding of blood
no pardon comes into being.

Heb. 9:23 Therefore, it was necessary that the copies of the things in The Heavens should be purified with these,
but The Heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

Heb. 9:24 Indeed,
The Messiah has not entered
the set apart places made with hands,
representatives of the truthful,
but rather into The Heaven itself,
now to appear in the presence of YAHWEH
on our behalf;

Heb. 9:25 not, however, in order that He might offer Himself frequently, exactly like the Great Priest
who enters The Set Apart Set Apart Place
each year by the blood of other things.

Heb. 9:26 He then would have had to suffer frequently
since the foundation of the world.

But now one time, at the end of the ages,
He has appeared to cancel offenses
through the sacrifice of Himself.

Offenses are cancelled
by the ransom paid,
the blood of The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.
The cancellation is applied to the "offense debt"
- the price we owe
and are required to pay because of our rebellion against YAHWEH's Word.
So what is really cancelled
is the "offense debt".
It is the legal equivalent of a court ordered death penalty.

Heb. 9:27 And exactly as it is appointed for human beings to die one time,
and after this the judgment,
Heb. 9:28 in this same way The Messiah
has been offered one time,
having taken up the offenses of the many.

The second time
He will appear without offenses
to those who are waiting with expectation for deliverance.

Chapter 10

Heb. 10:1 Indeed, The Torah,
having a shadow of the good which is coming,
certainly not being
the likeness itself of those matters,
is not able, not even at any time,
by these same sacrifices
which are being offered continually year after year
to make those who approach complete.

Heb. 10:2 Otherwise, why would they not have ceased to be offered since those who are worshipping
having been once purified
would no longer have consciousness of offenses?

Heb. 10:3 On the contrary, in those sacrifices
is a reminder of offenses every year.

Heb. 10:4 Indeed, it is not possible for the blood of bulls and goats
to remove offenses.

Heb. 10:5 Therefore,
having come into the world, He said:
*"Sacrifice and offering You did not desire,
but a body You have prepared for Me.*

Heb. 10:6 *In burnt offerings
and sacrifices for offenses
You had no pleasure.*

Heb. 10:7 *Then I said, 'Behold!
I have come,
in the volume of the book it is written of Me,
to do Your will, My Elohim.'*"
(Psa. 40. 6-8)

Heb. 10:8 Beyond that He was saying,
*"Sacrifice and offering, burnt offerings,
and offerings for offenses You did not desire,
nor had pleasure in them,"*
which offerings were being offered
according to The Torah.

Heb. 10:9 Then stating,
*"Behold!
I have come to do Your will, My Elohim."*

He took away the first
in order that He may establish the second.

Heb. 10:10 Through this determination
we have been sanctified
by means of the offering of the body
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
upon one occasion.

Heb. 10:11 Also, every priest
truly stands ministering daily
and offering many times the same sacrifices
which can never take away offenses.

Heb. 10:12 But this One, having made only one sacrifice for sins,
has sat down at the right hand of YAHWEH.
Heb. 10:13 He remains there,
waiting expectantly,
until His adversaries have themselves
been placed under the footstool for His feet.

Heb. 10:14 Indeed, by one sacrifice
He has completed in perpetuity
those who are being sanctified,
*Remember His Word from the torture stake -
"It is finished!"
What was finished was the complete redemption
of all who are sanctified (made holy) through faith/belief
in His sacrifice of Himself on our behalf.
Every believer is thereby "complete" in Him!*

Heb. 10:15 being witnessed now even by
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
according to the prediction,

Heb. 10:16 *"This is the covenant
that I will make with them
after those days, says YAHWEH.
I will put My torahs into their hearts,
and in their minds I will write them,"*
(Jer. 31.33).

Heb. 10:17 "Their offenses and their violations of The Torah I will remember no more."
(Jer. 31.34)

Heb. 10:18 Now wherever there is a pardon of these
there is no longer a sacrifice
on behalf of offenses.

Heb. 10:19 Therefore, brothers,
having boldness to enter into The Set Apart Place
by the blood of YAHUSHUA

Heb. 10:20 having initiated for us
by a new and living way,
by means of the veil, that is His flesh,
Heb. 10:21 Him even being Great Priest
over the household of YAHWEH,

Heb. 10:22 let us draw near with a truthful heart
in complete confidence,
our hearts having been sprinkled
from a hurtful conscience
and our bodies having been bathed with clean water,

*Sprinkling is the concept of purification,
revealed by the sprinkling of blood by Moshe.
It helps if you understand that being 'unclean'
meant being defiled, contaminated.
Nothing 'unclean', or defiled,
was/is allowed in the presence of YAHWEH.
He is not willing to tolerate defilement in His presence.*

Heb. 10:23 holding firmly
the acknowledgement of anticipation
without wavering,
because He Who has promised is trustworthy.

Heb. 10:24 Also let us consider one another in order to promote love and good works,

Heb. 10:25 not deserting the gathering of ourselves together
as is the custom of some,
but rather encouraging it,
and so much the more
as you see The Day approaching.

Heb. 10:26 Indeed,
if we are offending willfully
after having accepted
the recognition of The Truth

there no longer remains a sacrifice for offenses,
Heb. 10:27 but instead,
a certain frightful expectation of judgment
and a zealous fire which will consume
those who are opposed.

Heb. 10:28 One who has set aside
The Torah of Moshe
dies without compassion
on the testimony of two or three witnesses.

Heb. 10:29 Of how much more intense punishment
do you think he will be deemed worthy who has trampled under foot
The Son of YAHWEH,
counted the blood of The Covenant
by which he has been sanctified
a defiled thing,
and has insulted The Divine Nature of favor?

Heb. 10:30 Indeed, we understand
Him Who has said,
"Vengeance is Mine, I will repay!"
says YAHWEH.
(Deut 32.35)

And again,
"YAHWEH will judge His people."
(Deut 32.36)

Heb. 10:31 It is frightful to fall into the hands
of The Living Elohim!

Heb. 10:32 Now remember the former days
in which, having been illuminated,
you endured a great struggle with hardships,
Heb. 10:33 partly while you were made a spectacle
both by reproaches and difficulties,
and partly while you became companions
of those who were so treated.

Heb. 10:34 Indeed, you had compassion
on me in my shackles,
and cheerfully accepted
the plundering of your goods,
knowing that you have in The Heaven
a better and an abiding possession for yourselves.

Heb. 10:35 Therefore, do not throw away your boldness,
which holds great repayment
Heb. 10:36 because you have occasion for patience
so that having done the will of YAHWEH
you might receive the promise.

Heb. 10:37 *"For yet a little while,
and He Who is coming will come
and will not tarry.*

Heb. 10:38 *Now the just will live by faith;
but if anyone draws back,
My Divine Nature has no pleasure in him."*
(Hab. 2.3-4)

Heb. 10:39 Indeed, we are not of those who shrink back into destruction,
but rather are of those who trust,
for the sake of the preservation of life.

Chapter 11

Heb. 11:1 Now, faith is the foundation
for what we are expecting,

the conviction of things not seen.
Heb. 11:2 Indeed,
to this the elders have given witness.

Heb. 11:3 By faith we comprehend that the ages were thoroughly completed
by the utterance of YAHWEH,
so that the things which are seen
were not made of things which are visible.

Heb. 11:4 By faith Hebel offered to YAHWEH
a more excellent sacrifice than Kayin,
through which he gave witness that he was just,
YAHWEH giving witness concerning his sacrifice.
And because of this,
though being dead, he still speaks.
Hebel means transitory.
Kayin means fabricator.

Heb. 11:5 By faith Hanoch was transported away
thereby not seeing death,
*"and was not found
because YAHWEH had transported him."*
(Gen. 5.24)

because before having been transferred he gave evidence that he was entirely pleasing to YAHWEH.
Hanoch means dedicated.

Heb. 11:6 Indeed, without faith
one is not able to please Him entirely,
because he who is approaching YAHWEH
must have faith that He exists,
and is a compensator of those who are diligently seeking Him.
Emphasis on diligent!
*If one is not diligent (earnest and sincere)
in seeking YAHWEH
they will not find Him
nor follow Him faithfully.*

Heb. 11:7 By faith Noah,
being divinely warned of things not yet seen,
acting reverently,
prepared a container
for the deliverance of his household,
by which he condemned the world
and became an heir of justification
which is according to faith.

*The deliverance theme in the story of Noah
foreshadowed the deliverance
provided by The Messiah long in advance.
A careful review of the details of the container in the Hebrew text will reveal amazing insights
that parallel the story of The Messiah.
What's called "the ark"
was not a boat at all.
The Hebrew word means a box or chest;
a container.
Noah means rest.*

Heb. 11:8 By faith Abraham,
having been called to go out to the place
which he was about to receive as an inheritance, listened attentively.
And he went out,
not comprehending where he was going.

Heb. 11:9 By faith he dwelt in the land of promise
as a foreign country,
dwelling permanently in tents
with Yitzhak and Ya'akov,
the heirs with him of the same promise,
Yitzhak means he will laugh.

Ya'akov means he will take by the heel;
restrainer.

Heb. 11:10 because he waited for the city
which has foundations,
whose craftsman and mechanic is YAHWEH.

Heb. 11:11 By faith Sarah herself
also received miraculous power
to conceive an offspring.
And she produced a child
when she was at a mature time
because she deemed Him trustworthy
Who had promised,

Sarah means a princess.

Heb. 11:12 consequently, having fathered
from just one,
and him being as good as dead,
even as the stars of the sky in number,
as the sand which is by the seashore,
innumerable.

Heb. 11:13 These all died in faith,
not having received the promises,
but having seen them from a distance
and being convinced of them,
and having welcomed them,
even acknowledged that they were aliens
and resident foreigners upon the earth.

Heb. 11:14 Indeed, those saying such things declare plainly that they seek a homeland.

Heb. 11:15 And truly if they had remembered that from which they had come out,
they might have had an opportunity to return.

Heb. 11:16 But now they desire a better one,
that is a Heavenly one.

Consequently, YAHWEH is not ashamed
to be called their Elohim,
because He has prepared a city for them.

Heb. 11:17 By faith Abraham, being tested,
offered up Yitzhak,
even the only one he had received
according to the promises,

Heb. 11:18 of whom it had been said,
"In Yitzhak your offspring will be called,"
(Gen. 21.12)

Heb. 11:19 counting that even from the dead
YAHWEH was able to raise him up,
from which he also received him
in a figurative sense.

Heb. 11:20 By faith Yitzhak
blessed Ya'akov and Esau concerning things to come.

Esau means shaggy.

Heb. 11:21 By faith Ya'akov,
when he was dying,
blessed each of the sons of Yoseph,
and worshipped leaning on the top of his staff.

Yoseph means he will add.

Heb. 11:22 By faith Yoseph,
when he was dying,
called to mind the exit
of the children of Yisra'el,
and gave orders concerning his bones.

Yisra'el means
he who is right with El.

Heb. 11:23 By faith Moshe, having been born,
was concealed three months by his parents,
in as much as they saw

he was a handsome infant.
And they were not afraid of the king's edict.

Heb. 11:24 By faith Moshe,
having become of age,
rejected being called a son of Pharaoh's daughter,
Pharaoh means his nakedness.

Heb. 11:25 choosing instead to suffer persecution
with the people of YAHWEH
instead of having enjoyment of offenses
for the moment,

Heb. 11:26 considering the reproach of The Messiah
greater riches than the wealth in Mitsraim, because he looked away from everything else
toward the repayment.

Heb. 11:27 By faith he abandoned Mitsraim,
not fearing the fierceness of the king,
because he endured by means of discerning Him Who is invisible.

Heb. 11:28 By faith they kept The Passover
and the sprinkling of blood, lest he Who destroyed the firstborn
might harm them.

Heb. 11:29 By faith they passed through The Reed Sea as on dry ground, by which the Mitsraitites attempting to do so were swallowed up.

Heb. 11:30 By faith the walls of Yericho fell down,
having been encircled for seven days.
Yericho means place of fragrance.

Heb. 11:31 By faith the harlot Rahab
was not destroyed
with those who did not believe,
having received the spies with peace.
Rahab means breadth.

Heb. 11:32 And what more shall I say?
Indeed, the time would fail me to tell of Gid'on
and Barak
and Shimshon
and Yephthah,
also of David and Shemu'el
and the prophets,
Gid'on means one who cuts down.
Barak means lightning.
Shimshon means little sun.
Yephthah means he will open.
David means beloved.
Shemu'el means his name is from El \(God\).

Heb. 11:33 who through faith
subdued kingdoms,
worked justification,
obtained promises,
stopped the mouths of lions,
Heb. 11:34 extinguished the power of fire,
escaped the edge of the sword,
in the midst of weakness were empowered,
became forceful in battle,
turning over the encampments of others.

Heb. 11:35 Women received their dead
through resurrection.
Others were tortured,
not having accepted being ransomed,
in order that they might obtain
a better resurrection.

Heb. 11:36 Still others had experience

of derisions and whippings,
even further, of chains and imprisonment.
Heb. 11:37 They were stoned,
they were sawn in two,
they were tested,
they were killed, being murdered by a sword.
They wandered about
in sheepskins and goatskins,
being destitute,
afflicted,
tormented,
Heb. 11:38 of whom the world
was not deserving.
They wandered in deserts and mountains,
dens and caves of the earth.

Heb. 11:39 And all these having born witness through faith
had not received the promise, Heb. 11:40 YAHWEH
having provided in advance
something better concerning us,
in order that without us
they were not made complete.

Chapter 12

Heb. 12:1 Truly then, we also,
having been surrounded
by so great a cloud of witnesses,
putting away every burden,
and the offense which so easily ensnares,
may we run with patience
the race that is set before us,
Heb. 12:2 considering attentively YAHUSHUA,
the first leader and finisher of faith,
Who for the joy that was set before Him endured the torture stake,
despising the shame,
and is even now seated at the right hand
of The Throne of YAHWEH.

Heb. 12:3 Indeed, consider Him
Who has endured such antagonism from offenders against Himself
in order that you do not become weary, discouraged with your life.

Heb. 12:4 You have not yet resisted to the point of bloodshed
in the struggle against offenses, Heb. 12:5 and you are utterly oblivious
to the pleading

which speaks to you as to children,
*"My child, do not despise
the reproof of YAHWEH,
nor be disgusted with His chastisement;*
Heb. 12:6 *for whom YAHWEH loves He corrects,
like a father does to a son
with whom He is pleased."*

(Prov. 3.11-12)

Heb. 12:7 If you endure disciplinary correction
YAHWEH treats you as children.
Indeed, what son is there
whom a father does not discipline?
Heb. 12:8 But if you are without discipline
of which all have become participants then you are illegitimate children
and not legitimate children.

Heb. 12:9 Furthermore,
we have had fleshly fathers
who disciplined us and we respected them.
Shall we not to a much greater degree

be in subjection
to The Father of Breaths and live?

Heb. 12:10 Now they indeed,
for a few days disciplined us
according to their own thinking,
but He for our benefit,
so that we might participate in His holiness.

Heb. 12:11 Indeed, no disciplining
is thought to be delightful for the moment,
but instead is grievous.
Nevertheless, afterward it yields
the peaceful fruit of justification
to those who have been trained by it.

Heb. 12:12 Therefore, lift up
the hands that are hanging down,
and the paralyzed knees,
Heb. 12:13 and make level paths for your feet,
so that what is lame might not be dislocated,
but instead is healed.

Heb. 12:14 Pursue peace with everyone,
and purification,
without which no one will see YAHWEH,
Heb. 12:15 watching carefully so that:
- not any fall short of the favor of YAHWEH;
- not any root of bitterness sprouting upward crowds in
and by it many become defiled;
Heb. 12:16 - there is not any male prostitute
or hurtful person like Esau,
who because of one meal
gave away his birthright.
Heb. 12:17 Indeed,
you understand that afterward,
when he wanted to inherit the blessing,
he was not approved
because he found no place
for changing his mind
though he sought it diligently with tears.

*This is a foreshadowing
of those who reject The Messiah
and despise their promised inheritance
that comes through Him.
There is no second chance,
no second act of redemption,
available for them.*

Heb. 12:18 Indeed, you have not approached a mountain that could be touched
or that burned with fire,
or unto gloom, or darkness, or storm,
Heb. 12:19 or the blast of a trumpet,
or the sound of speech,
so that those who heard begged that The Word
would not be presented further to them
Heb. 12:20 because they could not bear
being given strict instructions,
*“And if so much as an animal touches the mountain,
it will be stoned
or shot with an arrow.”*

(Ex. 19.12-13)

Heb. 12:21 And so frightful was the appearance
that Moshe said,
“I am exceedingly afraid and trembling.”
(Duet. 9.19)

Heb. 12:22 On the other hand,
you have come to Mount Zion
and to the city of The Living Elohim,
to The Heavenly Yerushalaim,

and to a myriad of YAH-messengers,
Heb. 12:23 to a mass meeting
and assembly of the firstborn
as one legally entitled to the rights of the firstborn
who have been registered in The Heaven,
to YAHWEH, The Judge of everyone,
to Divine Natures of innocent ones
who have been made complete,
Heb. 12:24 to YAHUSHUA,
mediator of a new covenant,
and to the blood of sprinkling
that speaks better things than that of Hebel.

Heb. 12:25

See that you do not reject Him who speaks!

Indeed,
if they did not escape who rejected Him,
having had business dealings
with Him on earth,
much more us, if we turn away
from The One Who is from Heaven,
Heb. 12:26 Whose sound then shook the earth,
but now He has promised saying,
*"Yet once more I shake
not only the earth, but also the sky."*
(Hag. 2.6)

Heb. 12:27 Now this "Yet once more,"
declares the transposition
of that which has been shaken,
(like the things that have been made)
in order that that which remains will not be shaken.

Heb. 12:28 Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which is immovable,
let us have favor
through which we might serve YAHWEH
acceptably, with humility and reverence
Heb. 12:29 because our Elohim
is an utterly consuming fire.

Chapter 13

Heb. 13:1 Continue brotherly love!
Heb. 13:2 Do not forget hospitality
because through this some have unwittingly
been a host to YAH-messengers!
Heb. 13:3 Remember the prisoners
as if bound with them,
those who are being mistreated,
since you yourselves are in the body also!

Heb. 13:4 Marriage is worthwhile among all,
and the marital relations are to be undefiled.

But male prostitutes and adulterers
YAHWEH will judge.

Heb. 13:5 Your conduct
is to be without avarice,
being satisfied with what you have,
because He Himself has said,
"I will never fail you nor leave you."
(Deut. 31.6, 8, Josh. 1.5)

Heb. 13:6 Thus we may boldly say,
*"YAHWEH is my helper!
I will not fear!
What can a human being do to me?"*
(Psa. 118.6)

Heb. 13:7 Remember those who lead you,

who have spoken the word of YAHWEH to you,
whose faith imitate,
looking again at the outcome of their conduct.

But not those who teach you men's traditions
as the scribes and Pharisees did yet do not teach correctly concerning YAHWEH
in truth and faithfulness.
Test what you are taught against Scripture.

Heb. 13:8 YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
is the same
yesterday, today, and into eternity.

Heb. 13:9 Do not be carried about
by diverse and foreign teachings!

Indeed, it is good
to establish the heart by favor,
not with nourishments
which have not benefited
those who have been walking in them.

Heb. 13:10 We have a slaughter site
from which those who minister in The Tent
have no right to eat

Heb. 13:11 because the bodies of those animals
whose blood is brought into The Set Apart Set Apart Place by The Great Priest
for the sake of offenses
are burned outside the camp.

Heb. 13:12 Therefore, YAHUSHUA also,
in order that He might purify the people
with His own blood,
suffered outside the gate.

This refers to the offering of Atonement which The Great priest offered once a year
on Yom Kippur, The Day of Atonement.
The comparison places YAHUSHUA
in the position of being the offering for Atonement,
but this time for only one occasion,
and for the benefit
of everyone who trusts in Him.

Heb. 13:13 Therefore,
we are to go forth to Him,
outside the camp,
bearing His reproach,

Heb. 13:14 because in this place
we have no continuing city,
but rather we are seeking
the one that is coming.

Heb. 13:15 Therefore, through Him,
we constantly offer
the sacrifice of praise to YAHWEH,
that is to say, the fruit of our lips
that are acknowledging His Name.

Heb. 13:16 Now, do not forget doing that which is good,
and do not forget to share,
because with such sacrifices
YAHWEH is entirely gratified!

Heb. 13:17 Trust those who lead you,
and surrender yourselves,
because they keep watch over your lives
as those who must give a report,
so that they might do so with joy,
and not with grief,
because that would be unprofitable for you.

Heb. 13:18 Pray for us,
because we are confident that we have a good conscience,

in all things desiring to behave well.
Heb. 13:19 Now I encourage you even more abundantly to do this
so that I might be restored to you more swiftly.

Heb. 13:20 Now may The Elohim of well being Who brought up our Master, YAHUSHUA,
from being dead,
that Great Shepherd of the sheep,
through the blood of the eternal covenant,
Heb. 13:21 make you thoroughly complete in every good work by doing His will,
working in you
that which is well pleasing in His sight,
through YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
to Whom be honor into the eternity of eternities.
Amen.

Heb. 13:22 Now I encourage you, brothers,
hold yourself up against this word of encouragement,
because I have written to you briefly.

Heb. 13:23 Know that brother Timothy
has been set free,
with whom I will see you if he comes soon.

Heb. 13:24 Embrace all who lead you
and all the set apart ones.
Those from Italy greet you.
Heb. 13:25 Favor be with you all.
Amen.

9. 1 Corinthians

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

1Cor. 1:1 Sha'ul, invited to be an ambassador
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah
by means of the determination of YAHWEH,
and Sosthenes, our brother,

Sosthenes means saving strength; strong savior.

1Cor. 1:2 to the assembly of YAHWEH
which is at Corinth;
to those who are consecrated
by The Messiah, YAHUSHUA;
invited to be set apart
with all who in every place
call upon the name
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
our Master, both theirs and ours.

Corinth means satiated, satisfied.

1Cor. 1:3 Favor to you and well being
from YAHWEH, our Father
and The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

1Cor. 1:4 I thank my Elohim
at all times concerning you,
regarding the favor of YAHWEH
which was given to you
in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, 1Cor. 1:5 that you were enriched
in everything in Him,
in all reasoning and all understanding, 1Cor. 1:6 just as the testimony of The Messiah
was established in you.
1Cor. 1:7 Therefore,
you do not come behind in any gift,
fully expecting the revelation of our Master,

YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
1Cor. 1:8 Who will also establish you to the end,
being blameless in the day of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

1Cor. 1:9 YAHWEH is trustworthy,
through Whom you were called into the partnership of His Son,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, our Master.
koinonia – partnership; participation.
Usually treated as "fellowship",
which ignores the shared responsibilities
involved in a partnership.

1Cor. 1:10 Now I implore you, brothers,
by the Name of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
that you all speak the same thing
and that there be no divisions among you,
but that you be thoroughly united
in the same mind and in the same opinion.

1Cor. 1:11 Indeed, it has been declared to me concerning you, my brothers,
by those of Chloe's household
that there are quarrels among you.

Chloe means verdant; lush.

1Cor. 1:12 Now it is said thus,
that each of you is saying,
"I am of Sha'ul,"
or "I am of Apollos," or "I am of Cephas,"
or "I am of The Messiah."

Sha'ul means requested.

Apollos means destroyer.

Cephas means a stone.

Cephas is Peter.

1Cor. 1:13 Is The Messiah divided?
Was Sha'ul crucified for your sake?
Or were you baptized into the name of Sha'ul?

1Cor. 1:14 I thank YAHWEH
that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius,
Crispus means crisp; curly haired.
Gaius means on earth.

1Cor. 1:15 lest anyone might say that I had baptized into my own name.

1:16 Now I also baptized
the household of Stephanas.
Besides that I do not know whether I baptized any other.

Stephanas means crowned.

1Cor. 1:17 Indeed, The Messiah
did not send me to baptize,
but rather to announce the good news,
not with wisdom of words,
lest the torture stake of The Messiah
might be made meaningless.

1Cor. 1:18 Indeed,
the message of the torture stake
is absurd to those who are perishing.
But to us who are being delivered
it is the miraculous power of YAHWEH.

1Cor. 1:19 Indeed, it is written:
*"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
and bring to nothing
the understanding of the prudent."*
(Is. 29.14)

1:20 Where is the wise?
Where is the scribe?
Where is the disputer of this age?

Has not YAHWEH made foolish
the wisdom of this world?
1Cor. 1:21 For since
through the wisdom of YAHWEH
the world through its wisdom
did not know YAHWEH,
it pleased YAHWEH
through the absurdity of the good news
to deliver those who believe.

1Cor. 1:22 Indeed,
Yisra'elites request a sign
and Greeks seek after wisdom.
1Cor. 1:23 But we proclaim
The Messiah crucified,
to the Yisra'elites a scandal,
and to the Greeks an absurdity, 1Cor. 1:24 but to those who are invited,
both Yisra'elites and Greeks,
The Messiah,
the miraculous power of YAHWEH
and the wisdom of YAHWEH, 1Cor. 1:25 because the absurdity of YAHWEH
is wiser than human beings,
and the weakness of YAHWEH
is mightier than human beings.

1Cor. 1:26 Observe, therefore,
your own calling, brothers,
because not many are wise
according to the flesh,
not many are powerful,
not many are high in rank.
1Cor. 1:27 On the contrary,
YAHWEH has chosen
the absurd things of the world
to put to dishonor the wise.
And YAHWEH has chosen
the weak things of the world
to dishonor the things which are strong, 1Cor. 1:28 even the base things of the world.
And that which is despised YAHWEH has chosen,
even things that do not exist,
to render useless things that exist, 1Cor. 1:29 in order that no flesh
might boast in His presence.

1Cor. 1:30 Now because of Him
you are in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, Who apart from YAHWEH has become for us
even wisdom,
and justification,
and sanctification,
and redemption

Justification is dikaiosisune.

It means equity of character or act,
but is often translated as "righteousness".

Sanctification is hagiasmos.

It means purification (from sin typically);
also holiness.

Redemption is apolutrosis.

It means to ransom in full.
It may be translated as salvation,
or deliverance also,
but there are other terms for those that are more specific.

1Cor. 1:31 in order that just as it is written,
"He who glories,
let him glory in YAHWEH."

(Jer. 9.24)

It's known that many of the "quotations" in The New Covenant
were not exact,
having been quoted from memory.

Chapter 2

1Cor. 2:1 And I, brothers, having come to you, did not come with superiority of words or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the evidence of YAHWEH.

1Cor. 2:2 Indeed, I determined not to understand anything among you except YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, and Him crucified.

1Cor. 2:3 And I came to you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling.

1Cor. 2:4 And my words and my proclamation were not with persuasive words of human wisdom, but rather in a demonstration of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH and of miraculous power

Lit. - of Divine nature and miraculous power.
There is no definite article in the Greek text.

The typical term is "spirit".
But spirit is a Greek invention.
It did not exist prior to the Greek culture,
and it is not a Hebrew concept.
Even in the time of Sha'ul
it's doubtful the concept existed yet.

The Greek term is pneuma.
It means a current of air,
i.e. breath, or a breeze.
The Hebrew concept of one's breath
viewed it as "the wind of man".
Because it came from deep within a person
it was believed to represent their "nature" or "character".
Thus it also represents
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

1Cor. 2:5 in order that your trust might not be in the wisdom of human beings but instead, in the miraculous power of YAHWEH.

1Cor. 2:6 Now we speak wisdom among those who are mature, but not the wisdom of this age, nor the wisdom of the rulers of this age, which have been rendered useless.

1Cor. 2:7 On the contrary, we speak the wisdom of YAHWEH in a mystery, the hidden wisdom, which YAHWEH predetermined before the ages

for the sake of our honor,

1Cor. 2:8 which none of the rulers of this age knew.

Indeed, had they known they would not have crucified The Master of Honor.

1Cor. 2:9 On the other hand, just as it is written:

*"Eye has not seen,
nor ear heard,
nor have entered into the heart of man
the things which YAHWEH has prepared for those who love Him."*

(Is. 64.4)

1Cor. 2:10 Now YAHWEH has revealed them to us through His Divine Nature.

Indeed, The Divine Nature of YAHWEH searches all things, even the profound things of YAHWEH.

1Cor. 2:11 Indeed, what human being understands the things of a human being except the nature of the human being which is within him?

In this same manner,
no one understands the things of YAHWEH
except The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

1Cor. 2:12 Now we have not received
the nature of the world,
but rather, the nature which is from YAHWEH,
in order that we might understand the things that have been granted to us
as a favor by YAHWEH.

It's worth noting that the traditional translation of this verse speaks of "the spirit of the world"
and "the spirit of God".

But who or what is "the spirit of the world"?
Is it a "person",
like the purported third person of the Trinity?
Or is it a "mind set",
a character or 'nature' of the world?

This further identifies the problem with trying to make the
"sacred breath of YAHWEH",
His divine nature,
into a separate person called "The Holy Spirit".

There is no person called "The Holy Spirit"!
It's a false teaching!

1Cor. 2:13 These things we also speak, not in words which
a human being's wisdom teaches,
but rather, in words which
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
teaches,
comparing non-carnal to non-carnal.

pneumatikos - non-carnal,
i.e. ethereal, supernatural.
Tradition uses "spiritual",
but since "spirit" is only a Greek creation
this is not appropriate.
The term literally means
not of the earth or human flesh.

1Cor. 2:14 But the natural person does not receive the things
of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
because they are an absurdity to him.
Neither can he understand them
because they are non-carnally discerned.

1Cor. 2:15 Now He Who is non-carnal
indeed examines everything,
but He Himself is rightly examined by no one.

1Cor. 2:16 Indeed,
"who has known the mind of YAHWEH
that he may instruct Him?" (Rom. 11.34)

Now we possess the mind of The Messiah.

This is another fascinating concept.
Do you ever stop to consider that as a believer who is trusting in The Messiah
you now have received
the very mind of The Messiah?
This is part of "the new birth",
the new nature.
It is the result of the indwelling of The Divine Nature.

Chapter 3

1Cor. 3:1 And I, brothers, am not able to speak to you as non-carnal people
but rather, as fleshly people,
as infants in The Messiah.

1Cor. 3:2 I gave you milk to drink
and not solid food;
because until now
you were not able to receive it.
Indeed, even now
you are still not able to receive it, 1Cor. 3:3 because you are still carnal.
Indeed, where envy, strife, and divisions exist among you are you not carnal
and living as human beings?
1Cor. 3:4 Indeed, whenever one says,
"I am of Sha'ul,"
and another, "I am of Apollos,"
are you not carnal?

1Cor. 3:5 Who then is Sha'ul,
and who is Apollos,
other than servants
through whom you have believed,
even as YAHWEH has given to each one?

1Cor. 3:6 I planted. Apollos watered.
But on the other hand,
YAHWEH caused the growth.

1Cor. 3:7 So then,
neither he who plants is anything,
nor he who waters,
but on the contrary,
YAHWEH causes the growth.

1Cor. 3:8 And he who plants
and he who waters are one.
And each one will receive his own compensation
according to his own labor.

1Cor. 3:9 Indeed,
we are co-laborers with YAHWEH.
You are YAHWEH's field,
YAHWEH's building.

1Cor. 3:10 According to the favor of YAHWEH
which was given to me
as a wise master builder
I have laid the foundation,
but another builds upon it.
But let each one observe
in what manner he builds on it.

1Cor. 3:11 Indeed, no other foundation can anyone put down
other than that which is established which is YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

1Cor. 3:12 Now,
if anyone builds on this foundation
with gold, silver, precious stones,
wood, hay, straw,
1Cor. 3:13 each one's work
will become apparent.
Indeed, the daylight will make it plain because it will be revealed by fire.
And the fire will test each one's work,
of what sort it is.

1Cor. 3:14 If anyone's work remains which he has built upon it
he will receive compensation.
1Cor. 3:15 If anyone's work is burned
he will suffer loss,
but he himself will be delivered,
yet as through fire.

1Cor. 3:16 Do you not understand that you are the temple of YAHWEH,

and that The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
dwells in you?

Note: This cannot be
"the 'person' of The Holy Spirit"
because no "person" can dwell in you.
Only the Divine Nature of YAHWEH
can do this.
And that is not a separate person.

1Cor. 3:17 If anyone corrupts
the temple of YAHWEH,
YAHWEH will corrupt this very one,
because the dwelling place of YAHWEH,
which you are,
is set apart.

Since The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
is dwelling in you,
you have become a "temple".
A temple is a place
where something is worshiped.
It is set apart, "holy", "sacred".

1Cor. 3:18 Let no one deceive himself!
If anyone among you thinks himself to be wise
according to this age
let him become stupid
in order that he may become wise, 1Cor. 3:19 because the wisdom of this world
is absurdity in the presence of YAHWEH.
Indeed, it is written,

*"He catches the wise
in their own craftiness."*

(Job 5.13)

1Cor. 3:20 and again,
*"YAHWEH knows the thoughts of the wise,
that they are futile."*

(Ps 94.11)

1Cor. 3:21 Therefore, let no one boast
concerning human beings
because everything is yours, 1Cor. 3:22 whether Sha'ul, or Apollos,
or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death,
or things present, or things to come.
Everything is yours!

1Cor. 3:23 And you are The Messiah's,
and The Messiah is YAHWEH's.

Chapter 4

1Cor. 4:1 Thus, let human beings
consider us as assistants of The Messiah
and stewards of YAHWEH's mysteries.
1Cor. 4:2 Moreover, it is desired of stewards
that one be found trustworthy.

1Cor. 4:3 But with me it is a very small thing that I might be scrutinized by you or by a human court.

On the contrary,
I do not even scrutinize myself 1Cor. 4:4 because I am aware of nothing against myself.
However, I am not rendered innocent by this.
But He Who scrutinizes me is The Master.

1Cor. 4:5 Therefore, decide not even one thing
before the proper time,
even until The Master comes
Who will even illuminate
the hidden things of obscurity
and will reveal the purposes of the hearts.
Then each one's praise will be from YAHWEH.

1Cor. 4:6 Now these things, brothers,

I have applied to myself
and to Apollos for your sakes
in order that you might learn through us not to think beyond that which is written,
so that none of you
becomes arrogant toward one another.

1Cor. 4:7 Indeed,
why do you oppose one another?
And what do you possess
that you did not receive?
And if you did indeed receive it
why do you boast
as if you had not received it?

1Cor. 4:8 You already have enough!
You are already wealthy!
You already reign apart from us,
and without a doubt I want you to reign,
so that we also might reign with you!

1Cor. 4:9 Indeed, I think that YAHWEH
has displayed us, the ambassadors, last,
as ones appointed to death,
because we have become
a spectacle to the creation,
both to YAH-messengers and to human beings.
kosmos - orderly arrangement; the world.

aggelos means messenger, deputy;
one sent on behalf of another.
It's from this word that we get the term 'angel'.
It comes from the pronunciation
of the Greek word - ahn-geh-los.
Divine messengers are YAH-messengers.

1Cor. 4:10 We are fools
for the sake of The Messiah,
but you are prudent in The Messiah!
We are weak, but you are strong!
You are held in honor, but we are dishonored!

1Cor. 4:11 To the present hour
we both hunger and thirst,
and we are poorly clothed,
and beaten,
and homeless.

1Cor. 4:12 And we work hard,
laboring with our own hands.
Being reviled, we speak well.
Being persecuted, we put up with it.

1Cor. 4:13 Being defamed, we encourage.
We have become like the refuse of the world,
the offscouring of all things until this hour.

1Cor. 4:14 I do not write these things to upset you
but rather, as my beloved children,
I caution you,
1Cor. 4:15 because although you might have very many tutors in The Messiah,
nevertheless, you do not have many fathers.

Indeed, in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
I have given new life to you
through the good news.
1Cor. 4:16 Therefore, I encourage you to become imitators of me.

1Cor. 4:17 Because of this
I have sent Timothy to you,
who is my beloved and trustworthy child
in The Master,
who will remind you
of my ways in The Messiah

just as I teach universally in every assembly.
Timothy means honoring YAHWEH.

1Cor. 4:18 Now some are arrogant,
as though I was not coming to you.
1Cor. 4:19 But I will come to you shortly,
if The Master so chooses,
and I will know not the word
of those who are arrogant,
but the power.

1Cor. 4:20 Indeed, The Kingdom of YAHWEH
is not in word,
but on the contrary, in miraculous power.

1Cor. 4:21 Which do you choose?
Shall I come to you with a rod, or with love,
even a nature of gentleness?

Chapter 5

1Cor. 5:1 Everywhere it is reported that there is sexual immorality
among you, and such sexual immorality
as is not even mentioned among the Gentiles,
that a man is having sexual relations
with his father's wife!

1Cor. 5:2 Also, you are arrogant and instead have indeed not been grieved
in order that he who has done this might be removed from your midst.

1Cor. 5:3 Indeed I truly, being absent in the body
but present in The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
have already condemned as if I were present,
the one who has acted in this manner.

1Cor. 5:4 In the Name of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
when you have come together,
and with my nature in union
with the miraculous power of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
1Cor. 5:5 surrender such a one to The Adversary
for the destruction of the flesh
in order that his nature may be delivered
in the day of YAHWEH.

This refers to the "Day of The Lord"
that is prophesied in Scripture,
that being The Day of YAHWEH's judgment.

1Cor. 5:6 Your boasting is not good.
Do you not understand that a little leaven
leavens the whole mass of dough?
1Cor. 5:7 Therefore, purge out the old leaven,
in order that you might be
a fresh mass of dough
since you truly are unleavened.

Now also, The Messiah, our Passover,
has been sacrificed for our sake.
Sha'ul is making a point here
that is very easily missed
if one does not take time
to carefully consider what he's saying.

The Messiah IS our Passover!

Because of His willingness to take our place,
to die for us,
when we are deserving of that death,
He becomes the means by which YAHWEH
passes over our offense debt!
Because of Him
we no longer owe the debt
- which can only be paid by a death.

And this was done precisely in the midst of The Feast of Passover (Pesach)

- delivering us from our offense debt in the same manner in which Yisra'el was delivered from the bondage of slavery in Egypt.

Every believer ought to be most careful to observe The Festival of Passover with this in mind.

And in connection with this, what we call "communion" truly ought to be celebrated ONLY ONCE EACH YEAR
- AT PASSOVER!

Why?. Because YAHUSHUA established His directions concerning this as He shared in The Passover meal with His students. And He told them "do this as often as you drink it/eat it in remembrance of ME.

We are to remember His gift of His life in place of ours
- during PASSOVER!

Note the following words very carefully!

1Cor. 5:8 Therefore, let us observe the festival, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of depravity and harmfulness, but with unleavened sincerity and truth.

1Cor. 5:9 I wrote to you in a letter not to associate with sexually immoral people, 1Cor. 5:10 but not entirely with the sexually immoral of this world, nor with those who are greedy, or extortioners, or idolaters, because then you would need to go out of the world.

1Cor. 5:11 But now I have written to you not to associate with anyone called a brother who is sexually immoral, or greedy, or an idolater, or an abuser, or a drunkard, or an extortioner.

Do not even eat with such a person.

1Cor. 5:12 Indeed, why should I condemn those also who are outside? Are you not to condemn those who are inside?

1Cor. 5:13 But those who are outside YAHWEH condemns.

Therefore,

"put away from yourselves the hurtful person."

(Deut. 22.22)

Chapter 6

1Cor. 6:1 Dare any of you having a matter against another be tried before the heathen and not before the set apart ones?

The term used for heathen means unjust, wicked, or treacherous, but especially means the heathen, or non-believing people.

1Cor. 6:2 Do you not understand that the set apart ones will judge the world?

And if the world will be judged by you,
are you unfit to be a judge of the smallest matters?

krino – distinguish; decide.
The concept is that of making a distinction
or an assessment of something.
It's not about issuing an order that might condemn someone.

1Cor. 6:3 Do you not understand that we will judge YAH-messengers,
not to mention things
that pertain to this existence?

1Cor. 6:4 If on the one hand
you possess criteria pertaining to this life
do you then place those who are least esteemed
into the assembly for this?

1Cor. 6:5 I say this to your shame.
Is it so that there is not a wise man among you;
not even one who will be able to discriminate about these matters
in the midst of his brothers?

1Cor. 6:6 Instead, brother
goes to court against brother,
and that before the unbelieving!

1Cor. 6:7 Indeed, it is therefore already an utter failure for you
that you decide against one another.
Why do you not instead suffer wrong?
Why do you not instead
let yourselves be defrauded?

1Cor. 6:8 On the contrary,
you yourselves are doing wrong
and defrauding,
and these things to your brothers!

1Cor. 6:9 Do you not understand that the unjust
will not inherit The Kingdom of YAHWEH?

Do not be deceived!

Neither the sexually immoral,
nor idolaters,
nor adulterers,
nor homosexuals,

1Cor. 6:10 nor sodomites,

nor thieves,
nor greedy,
nor drunkards,
nor abusers,
nor extortioners

will inherit The Kingdom of YAHWEH.

1Cor. 6:11 And some of you were these things.
However, you have been fully cleansed.
However, you have been purified.
However, you have been rendered innocent
through the Name of The Master, YAHUSHUA,
and through The Divine Nature our Elohim.

Cleansing and purification
refer to the concept of being defiled.
Nothing defiled
(unclean, corrupted, polluted, etc.)
was permitted in the presence of YAHWEH.

1Cor. 6:12 All things are permitted for me.
However, all things are not beneficial.
All things are permitted for me.
However, I will not be controlled by anything.

1Cor. 6:13 Foods are for the stomach and the stomach is for foods,
but YAHWEH will destroy both it and them.

Indeed, the body is not for sexual immorality
but for The Master,
and The Master is for the body.

1Cor. 6:14 Indeed, YAHWEH
has even raised up The Master,
and will also raise us up
by means of His own miraculous power.

1Cor. 6:15 Do you not understand that your bodies
are part of the body of The Messiah?

Should I then take the parts
of the body of The Messiah
and make them parts of the body of a whore?
Certainly not!

1Cor. 6:16 Or do you not understand that he who is joined to a whore
has become one body with her.
Indeed, it says,
 "the two will become one flesh."
 (Gen. 2.24)

1Cor. 6:17 Indeed,
he who is joined to The Master
has become one nature with Him.

1Cor. 6:18 Run away from sexual immorality.
Every offense that a person does
is outside the body.
But he who commits sexual immorality
offends against his own body.

1Cor. 6:19 Or do you not understand that your body is the temple
of The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
which is in you,
which you have from YAHWEH,
and you are not your own.

1Cor. 6:20 Indeed, you have been purchased for a price!
Therefore, honor YAHWEH
with your body and with your nature,
which are YAHWEH's.

Chapter 7

1Cor. 7:1 Now concerning the things
of which you wrote to me,
it is good for a man not to touch a woman.

1Cor. 7:2 Nevertheless,
because of sexual immorality
each man is to have his own wife
and each woman is to have her own husband.

1Cor. 7:3 The man is to give to his wife
the affection due to her,
and likewise also the wife to her husband.

1Cor. 7:4 The wife does not have control over her own body,
but instead, the husband does.

And likewise,
the husband does not have control
over his own body, but instead, the wife does.

1Cor. 7:5 Do not deprive one another except with consent for a set time
in order that you may devote yourselves to fasting and prayer
and then come together again

so that The Adversary does not test you through your lack of self-control.

1Cor. 7:6 Now I say this as a concession, not as a command.

1Cor. 7:7 Indeed, I prefer that all persons were even as I myself.

But each one has his own gift from YAHWEH, one in this manner and another in that.

1Cor. 7:8 And I say to the unmarried and to the widows, it is good for them if they remain even as I am.

1Cor. 7:9 But if they cannot exercise self-control let them marry, because it is better to marry than to burn with lust.

1Cor. 7:10 Now to the married I declare, yet not I, but The Master, that a wife is not to depart from her husband.

1Cor. 7:11 But even if she does depart let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband. And a husband is not to divorce his wife.

1Cor. 7:12 Now to the rest I say, not The Master, that if any brother has a wife who disbelieves, and she is pleased to live with him, let him not send her away.

1Cor. 7:13 And a woman who has a husband who disbelieves, if he is pleased to live with her, let her not send him away.

1Cor. 7:14 Indeed, the disbelieving husband is sanctified by the believing wife, and the disbelieving wife is sanctified by the believing husband. Otherwise your children would be ceremonially unclean. But now they are ceremonially clean.

1Cor. 7:15 Now if the disbeliever departs, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases, but YAHWEH has called us to peace.

1Cor. 7:16 Indeed, how do you know, woman, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, man, whether you will save your wife?

1Cor. 7:17 More than this, as YAHWEH has apportioned to each one, as The Master has called forth each one, so let him live.

And thus I recommend in all the assemblies.

1Cor. 7:18 Was anyone called while circumcised?

Let him not become uncircumcised. Was anyone called while uncircumcised? Let him not be circumcised.

1Cor. 7:19 Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing, but rather, the observance of the precepts of YAHWEH is what matters.

1Cor. 7:20 Let each one remain in the same calling in which he was called.

1Cor. 7:21 Were you called while a slave?

Do not be concerned about it.
And if you become free,
rather use it to advantage.
1Cor. 7:22 Indeed,
he who is called by The Master
while a slave is The Master's freedman.
Likewise, he who is called while free
is The Messiah's slave.

1Cor. 7:23 You have been bought with a price.
Do not become slaves of human beings.

1Cor. 7:24 Brothers, let each one remain with YAHWEH
in that state in which he was called.

1Cor. 7:25 Now, concerning unmarried daughters,
I have no directive from The Master,
yet I give my opinion as one whom,
by the compassion of The Master,
exists as trustworthy.

1Cor. 7:26 I therefore regard that it is good,
because of the present distress,
for a person to remain as he is.

1Cor. 7:27 Are you bound to a wife?
Do not seek to be loosed.
Are you loosed from a wife?
Do not seek a wife.

1Cor. 7:28 But even if you do marry
you have not offended.
And if an unmarried woman marries
she has not offended.
Nevertheless,
such will have trouble in the flesh.
And I would spare you.

1Cor. 7:29 Now this I say, brothers.
The time is short.
From now on even those who have wives
should be as though they had none, 1Cor. 7:30 those who weep
as though they did not weep,
those who rejoice
as though they did not rejoice,
those who buy
as though they did not possess, 1Cor. 7:31 and those who use this world
as not misusing it.

Indeed, the condition of this world
is passing away.

1Cor. 7:32 Indeed,
I want you to be without anxiety.
He who is unmarried
cares for the things of The Master,
how he may please The Master.
1Cor. 7:33 But he who is married
cares about the things of the world,
how he may please his wife.

1Cor. 7:34 There is a difference between a wife and an unmarried daughter.
The unmarried woman
cares about the things of The Master,
in order that she may be set apart
both in body and in nature.
But she who is married
cares about the things of the world,
how she may please her husband.

1Cor. 7:35 And this I say for your own benefit,

not that I may put a leash on you,
but rather for the sake of what is honorable,
and in order that you may serve The Master
without distraction.

1Cor. 7:36 Now if any man thinks he is behaving improperly toward his unmarried daughter,
if she is past the age of marriage
and it becomes necessary,
let him do what he chooses.
He does not offend.
Let her marry.

1Cor. 7:37 Nevertheless, he who stands
steadfast in his heart, having no necessity,
but having authority over his own choice,
and has so determined in his heart
that he will keep his unmarried daughter does well.

1Cor. 7:38 So then,
he who gives her in marriage does well,
and he who does not give her in marriage
does better.

1Cor. 7:39 A wife is bound by law
as long as her husband lives.
But if her husband dies
she is at liberty to be married to whom she chooses,
yet only in The Master.
1Cor. 7:40 But she is happy
if she remains as she is according to my opinion.
And I think I also have the nature of YAHWEH.

Chapter 8

1Cor. 8:1 Now, concerning things
offered to idols,
we understand that we all possess knowledge.
Knowledge makes one arrogant.
But love builds one up.

1Cor. 8:2 Now if anyone thinks he understands anything
he knows nothing yet as he ought to know.

1Cor. 8:3 But if anyone loves YAHWEH
this one is known by Him.

1Cor. 8:4 Therefore, concerning the eating
of things offered to idols,
we understand that an idol
is nothing in the world,
and that no other elohim exists except One.

1Cor. 8:5 Indeed, even if there are those described as deities,
whether in the sky or on the ground,
or even as there are many deities
and many masters,
1Cor. 8:6 on the other hand,
for us there is One,
YAHWEH, The Father,
from Whom all things exist,
and we ourselves exist in Him,
and one Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah
through Whom all things exist,
and we exist through Him.

1Cor. 8:7 However, there is not in everyone
this knowledge.

Indeed some, being aware of the idol,
even to this time eat what is offered to an idol,

and their conscience, being weak,
becomes corrupted.

1Cor. 8:8 But food does not bring us to YAHWEH
because neither if we eat are we the better,
nor if we do not eat are we the worse.

1Cor. 8:9 But beware,
lest somehow this competence of yours
becomes a stumbling block
for one who is weak!

1Cor. 8:10 Indeed, if anyone sees you who have knowledge
eating in an idol's temple,
will not the conscience of him who is weak
be strengthened to eat
those things offered to idols?

1Cor. 8:11 And because of your knowledge should the weak brother perish
for whom The Messiah died?

1Cor. 8:12 But when you thus offend against the brothers
and damage their weak conscience
you are offending against The Messiah.

1Cor. 8:13 Therefore, if food
entices my brother to offend
I will never eat meat into the ages,
lest I entice my brother to offend.

Chapter 9

1Cor. 9:1 Am I not an ambassador?
Am I not free?

Have I not experienced YAHUSHUA,
The Messiah, our Master?

Are you not my work in The Master?

1Cor. 9:2 If I am not an ambassador to others,
yet doubtless, I am to you.

Indeed, you are the seal
of my commission in The Master.

1Cor. 9:3 My plea to those who question me is this,

1Cor. 9:4 Do we have no right
to eat and drink?

1Cor. 9:5 Do we have no right
to take along a believing wife,
as do also the other ambassadors,
the brothers of The Master and Cephas?

1Cor. 9:6 Or is it only Bar Nabas and I who have no right to refrain from working?

Bar Nabas means son of consolation.

1Cor. 9:7 Who ever goes to war
at his own expense?

Who plants a vineyard
and does not eat of its fruit?

Or who tends a flock
and does not drink of the milk of the flock?

1Cor. 9:8 Do I say these things as a mere man?
Or does not The Torah

say this same thing also?

1Cor. 9:9 Indeed,

it is written in The Torah of Moshe,

*"You are not to muzzle an ox
while it treads out the grain."*

(Deut. 25.4)

Is it oxen YAHWEH is concerned about?

1Cor. 9:10 Or does He, by all means,
say it for our sakes?

For our sakes no doubt this is written.

He who plows should plow in expectation.
And he who threshes in expectation
should be a participant in his expectation.

1Cor. 9:11 If we have sown
non-carnal things for you,
is it a great thing
if we reap your material things?

1Cor. 9:12 If others are participants
of this right over you,
are we not even more?
Nevertheless, we have not used this right,
but endure all things lest we hinder
the good news of The Messiah.

1Cor. 9:13 Do you not understand
that those who work with the set apart things
eat of the things of the sanctuary,
and those who attend at the slaughter site participate in the offerings
of the slaughter site?

1Cor. 9:14 Even so The Master has directed,
that those who proclaim the good news
should live from the good news.

1Cor. 9:15 Now I have done
not even one of these things.
Nor have I written these things
that it might be done so to me.
Indeed, it would be better for me to die
rather than have anyone
make my boasting empty.

1Cor. 9:16 Indeed, if I proclaim the good news
I have nothing to boast about because a necessity is placed upon me.
Indeed, woe is me
if I do not proclaim the good news!

1Cor. 9:17 Indeed,
if I accomplish this voluntarily
I have compensation.
But if I do this unwillingly
I have been entrusted with a stewardship.

1Cor. 9:18 What is my compensation then?
That when I proclaim the good news
I may present the good news of The Messiah without cost,
in order that I may not abuse
my authority in the good news.

1Cor. 9:19 Indeed,
though I am free from everyone,
I have made myself a servant to everyone,
in order that I might win more of them.

1Cor. 9:20 Thus to the Yisra'elites
I became as a Yisra'elite,
so that I might win Yisra'elites;
to those who are subject to torah,
as subject to torah,

so that I might win those
who are subject to torah;
1Cor. 9:21 to those who are not subject to torah
as not subject to torah

(not being not subject to torah for YAHWEH, but being subject to torah for The Messiah)
so that I might win those who are not subject to torah;

1Cor. 9:22 to the weak I became as weak,
so that I might win the weak.

I have become all things to everyone

in order that I might
by all means deliver some.

1Cor. 9:23 Now this I do
for the sake of the good news
so that I may be a participant of this with you.

1Cor. 9:24 Do you not understand
that those who run in a race all run the course,
but only one receives the prize?
Run in such a manner that you may obtain it.

1Cor. 9:25 Now everyone who competes for the prize
is disciplined in all things.
And they do it to obtain a perishable prize.
But we do it for an imperishable prize.

1Cor. 9:26 Therefore, I run in this same manner,
with no uncertainty.

I fight in this same manner,
not as one who beats the air.

1Cor. 9:27 But I subdue my body
and bring it into subjection lest somehow
having proclaimed truth to others,
I myself might become disqualified.

Chapter 10

1Cor. 10:1 Now brothers,
I do not want you to be uninformed
because our forefathers
were all under the cloud,
and all traveled through the sea, 1Cor. 10:2 and all were immersed with Moshe
in the cloud and in the sea, 1Cor. 10:3 and all ate
the same non-carnal food, 1Cor. 10:4 and all drank
the same non-carnal drink.
Indeed, they drank
from the non-carnal Rock
that was accompanying them
and that Rock was The Messiah.

[The Messiah accompanied The Children of Israel
in the wilderness journeying.
This is subtle, but important.](#)

1Cor. 10:5 However, with most of them
YAHWEH was not well pleased.
Indeed, they were scattered in the wilderness.

1Cor. 10:6 Now, these things
became our examples,
so that we might not become those who long for worthless things
just as they even longed for them.

[tupos. It means stamp or scar,
a shape or statue; a type.](#)

1Cor. 10:7 Do not become image worshippers
in the same manner as some of them,
for it is written,
*"The people sat down to eat and drink,
and rose up to play."*
(Ex. 32.6)

1Cor. 10:8 Let us not commit sexual immorality
as some of them committed sexual immorality,
and in one day twenty three thousand fell.

1Cor. 10:9 Let us not thoroughly test The Messiah
as some of them also thoroughly tested Him
and were destroyed by serpents.

1Cor. 10:10 Let us not grumble
as some of them also grumbled
and were destroyed by the destroyer.

1Cor. 10:11 Now all these things happened to them as examples,
and they were written for our admonition,
upon whom the ends of the ages have come.

1Cor. 10:12 Therefore,
let him who thinks he stands
take heed lest he fall.

1Cor. 10:13 No temptation has overtaken you except that which is common to human beings.

Indeed, YAHWEH is trustworthy,
Who will not allow you to be tested
beyond that which you are able to endure,
but on the contrary
will also make with the testing,
even the way out from it
so that you may be able to endure it.

1Cor. 10:14 Therefore, my beloved,
run away from image worship.

1Cor. 10:15 I speak as to thoughtful people.
Decide for yourselves what I say.

1Cor. 10:16 The cup of blessing
which we bless,
is it not the partnership
of the blood of The Messiah?
The bread which we break,
is it not the partnership
of the body of The Messiah?
koinonia - partnership, or participation.
It's often translated
as fellowship or communion.

Consider carefully what this really means.
We are sharing in the comprehension
of what His suffering and death,
and His resurrection, truly mean.

1Cor. 10:17 Indeed we, though many,
are one bread and one body.
Indeed, we are all participating in that one bread.

1Cor. 10:18 Observe Yisra'el
according to the flesh.
Are not those who eat of the sacrifices
participants in the sacrifices
of the slaughter site?

1Cor. 10:19 What am I saying then,
that an image is anything,
or what is sacrificed to images is anything?

1Cor. 10:20 On the contrary,
the things which the Gentiles sacrifice
they sacrifice to unclean natures,
and not to YAHWEH.
Now I do not want you
to become participants with unclean natures.

1Cor. 10:21 You are not able to drink the cup of The Master
and the cup of unclean natures.

You are not able to participate in The Master's table
and of the table of unclean natures.

1Cor. 10:22 Neither should we provoke The Master to jealousy.
We are not more powerful than He is.

1Cor. 10:23 All things are permitted for me,
but not all things are beneficial.
All things are permitted for me,
but not all things build me up.

1Cor. 10:24 Let no one seek his own welfare.
On the contrary,
let each one seek the other's welfare.

1Cor. 10:25 Eat whatever is sold in the meat market,
asking no questions for conscience' sake.

1Cor. 10:26 Indeed,
*"the earth is YAHWEH's,
and all its fullness."*
(Ps. 24.1)

1Cor. 10:27 If anyone who disbelieves
invites you to dinner and you desire to go,
eat whatever is set before you.
Ask no question for conscience' sake.

1Cor. 10:28 But if anyone says to you,
"This was offered to idols."
do not eat it for the sake
of the one who told you,
and for conscience' sake because,
*"the earth is YAHWEH's,
and all its fullness."*
(Ps. 24.1)

1Cor. 10:29 But I say,
not your own conscience
but rather that of the other,
because why is my freedom determined
by another man's conscience?
1Cor. 10:30 And if I participate with favor
why am I criticized
over that for which I give thanks?

1Cor. 10:31 Therefore, whether you eat,
or drink,
or whatever you do,
do all to the honor of YAHWEH.

1Cor. 10:32 Give no offense,
either to the Yisra'elites
or to the Greeks,
or to the assembly of YAHWEH, 1Cor. 10:33 just as I also please everyone in everything,
not seeking my own benefit,
but that of the many
that they might be delivered.

Chapter 11

1Cor. 11:1 Imitate me
just as I also imitate The Messiah.

1Cor. 11:2 Now I applaud you, brothers,
that you remember me in everything
and are keeping the precepts
just as I have delivered them to you.

1Cor. 11:3 Now I want you to understand that the head of every male is The Messiah,
and the head of a woman is the man,
and the head of The Messiah is YAHWEH.

1Cor. 11:4 Every man praying or prophesying

having his head covered dishonors his head.
1Cor. 11:5 But every woman praying or prophesying
with her head uncovered dishonors her head,
because that is one and the same
as if her head had been shaved.
1Cor. 11:6 Indeed, if a woman is not covered
let her also be shorn.
And if it is shameful for a woman
to be shorn or shaved
let her be covered.

1Cor. 11:7 Indeed, a man, truly,
must not cover his head,
being that he is the likeness
and honor of YAHWEH.

Have you ever considered this in light of the Yisra'elite practice of wearing skull caps?
According to this they are in error.

But a woman is the honor of man 1Cor. 11:8 because man is not out of woman,
but woman is out of man.

1Cor. 11:9 Neither was man created because of the woman,
but the woman was created
because of the man.

1Cor. 11:10 Because of this
the woman ought to have a symbol of authority upon her head,
because of the YAH-messengers.

1Cor. 11:11 However,
man is not independent of woman,
nor woman independent of man
before YAHWEH.

1Cor. 11:12 Indeed, just as the woman
came forth from the man,
even so a man
also comes forth through the woman.

However, all things are from YAHWEH.

1Cor. 11:13 Decide for yourselves.
Is it proper for a woman to pray to YAHWEH
with her head uncovered?

1Cor. 11:14 Does not nature itself teach you that if a man wears long hair
it is disgraceful to him?

1Cor. 11:15 But if a woman wears long hair
it is an honor to her,
for her hair is given to her for a covering.

1Cor. 11:16 But if anyone seems to be quarrelsome,
we have no such custom.
Neither do the assemblies of YAHWEH.

1Cor. 11:17 Now this I declare.

I do not praise you
because you come together
not for the better but for the worse.

1Cor. 11:18 Now first of all
when you come together as an assembly,
I hear that divisions exist among you
and in part I believe it.

1Cor. 11:19 Indeed, there must also be factions among you,
in order that those who are approved
might become apparent to you.

1Cor. 11:20 Therefore,
having gathered together in one place,
it is not to eat The Master's Supper.

There is a misunderstanding of this passage.
Some translations phrase it as a question,
but it is a statement.
The gathering was not to eat
"The Master's Supper"
(or, it could also mean "YAHWEH's Supper").
That was done only at Passover.

Here, they came together
simply to share a fellowship meal.

1Cor. 11:21 Indeed, in eating
each one takes dinner for himself
ahead of others, and one is hungry,
and another is drunk.

1Cor. 11:22 Indeed, do you not have houses
to eat and drink in?

And do you despise the assembly of YAHWEH,
even dishonoring those who have nothing?

What should I say to you?

Should I praise you in this?

I do not praise you.

1Cor. 11:23 Indeed, I received from The Master
that which I also delivered to you:

that The Master, YAHUSHUA,
in the same night in which He was betrayed,
took bread.

1Cor. 11:24 And when He had given thanks,
He broke it and said,

*"Take! Eat! This is My body which is broken for your sake.
Do this in remembrance of Me."*

1Cor. 11:25 In the same manner

He also took the cup,

having eaten supper, saying,

*"This cup is The New Covenant in My blood.
Do this as often as you drink it,
in remembrance of Me."*

1Cor. :26 Indeed,
as often as you eat this bread
and drink this cup
you proclaim The Master's death
until He comes.

1Cor. 11:27 Therefore,
whoever eats this bread
or drinks this cup of The Master irreverently
will become liable for dishonoring
the body and blood of The Master.

1Cor. 11:28 Now, let a person examine himself,
and in this manner let him eat of this bread
and drink of this cup

1Cor. 11:29 because he who eats
and drinks irreverently

eats and drinks condemnation to himself,
having not discerned The Master's body.

NOTE: Sha'ul's use of this review of what YAHUSHUA taught on the night of The Passover meal has been taken by many to suggest a "regular" re-enactment of this event.

The ONLY proper re-enactment
is the celebration of Passover!

Reference is made to
"the same night in which He was betrayed".
That night was the night of The Passover.
It was the very same night
The Passover Lamb was sacrificed and eaten
- in remembrance of the deliverance from Egypt.

Likewise, it is that night,

and that meal,
which we are to remember.

And we are to re-enact
the sharing of that meal
as a commemoration of The Messiah, Our Passover!
ONLY once a year - at Passover!

YAHWEH has "passed-over" our offense debt,
granting us eternal life.
He has done this through the sacrificial death and resurrection
of The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

Note the result of improperly partaking of The Passover Meal
the bread and the cup in what follows.

1Cor. 11:30 Because of this many are weak
and sick among you and many have died.

1Cor. 11:31 Indeed,
if we would discern ourselves
we would not be judged.

1Cor. 11:32 Now when we are judged
we are disciplined by The Master,
in order that we may not be sentenced
with the world.

1Cor. 11:33 Therefore, my brothers,
when you come together to eat,
wait for one another.

1Cor. 11:34 And if anyone is hungry
let him eat at home,
in order that you do not come together
amidst condemnation.
Now the rest I will set in order when I come.

Chapter 12

1Cor. 12:1 Now concerning the non-carnal, brothers,
I do not want you to be ignorant.

1Cor. 12:2 You understand that you were Gentiles, carried away to these voiceless images
however you were led.

1Cor. 12:3 Therefore, I make known to you that no one speaking
by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH declares,
"YAHUSHUA is accursed."

And no one is able to declare,
"YAHUSHUA is Master." except by
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

anathema means
to ban or excommunicate, curse.
Both of the declarations
are identified in the Greek text as quotations.

1Cor. 12:4 Now there are varieties of gifts
but the same Divine Nature.

1Cor. 12:5 There are varieties of service
but the same Master.

1Cor. 12:6 And there are varieties of effects, but it is the same YAHWEH
Who accomplishes everything
through everyone.

Note Who it is that "accomplishes everything
through everyone."
It is YAHWEH!

1Cor. 12:7 Now each person is given the manifestation of The Divine Nature
for the benefit of all.

1Cor. 12:8 Indeed, on the one hand to one is given the word of wisdom
through The Divine Nature,
and to another the word of knowledge
according to the same Divine Nature,

1Cor. 12:9 and to another trust
by the same Divine Nature,
and to another gifts of healings
by the same Divine Nature, 1Cor. 12:10 and to another
the working of miracles,
and to another prophecy,
and to another discerning of natures,
and to another a diversity of languages,
and to another the translation of languages.

1Cor. 12:11 Now all these things operate through one, even the same, Divine Nature distributing to each one individually,
just as He desires.

1Cor. 12:12 Therefore, exactly as the body exists as one unit, but contains many parts
and exactly as all the parts of that one body,
being many, exist as one body,
so also is The Messiah.

1Cor. 12:13 And indeed,
through one Divine Nature
we have all been immersed into one body.
whether Yisra'elites or Greeks,
whether slaves or free,
and have all imbibed from one Divine Nature.

1Cor. 12:14 Indeed, even the body is not one part but many.

1Cor. 12:15 If the foot would say,
"Because I am not a hand
I am not of the body."

is it therefore not of the body?

1Cor. 12:16 And if the ear would say,
"Because I am not an eye
I am not of the body."

is it therefore not of the body?

1Cor. 12:17 If the whole body were an eye
where would be the hearing?
If the whole body were hearing
where would be the smelling?

1Cor. 12:18 But now YAHWEH
has placed the parts,
each one of them in the body,
just as He determined.

1Cor. 12:19 Now if they were all one kind of part,
where would the body be?

1Cor. 12:20 But now indeed,
there are many parts, yet only one body.

1Cor. 12:21 And the eye cannot say to the hand,
"I have no need of you"
nor again the head to the feet,
"I have no need of you."

1Cor. 12:22 No, much more,
those parts of the body
which seem to be weak are necessary.

1Cor. 12:23 And those parts of the body
which seem to be despised,
on these we place more abundant value.

And our unrepresentable parts
have more abundant attractiveness,

1Cor. 12:24 but our presentable parts have no need.

Now YAHWEH assembled the body
having given greater honor
to that part which lacks it

1Cor. 12:25 so that there might be no division in the body

but that the parts might have the same concern for one another.

1Cor. 12:26 And if one part suffers,
then all the parts experience the same pain.
If one part is honored,
then all the parts rejoice with it.

1Cor. 12:27 Now, you are the body of The Messiah,
even parts sharing with other parts.

1Cor. 12:28 Now YAHWEH
has appointed these in the assembly:
first apostles,
second prophets,
third teachers,
after that miracles,
then gifts of healings,
relief workers,
administrators,
varieties of languages.

1Cor. 12:29 Are all apostles?
Are all prophets?
Are all teachers?
Are all workers of miracles?
1Cor. 12:30 Do all have gifts of healings?
Do all speak with tongues?
Do all interpret?

1Cor. 12:31 Now, earnestly desire
the better gifts.
I also show you a still more excellent way.

This appears to belong with Ch. 13
and seems to refer to the "way of agape", YAHWEH's way of love.

The understanding of this term
is not easily expressed in an English translation.
It's a profound, all-pervading
type of concern for another with a strong foundation
based on loyalty/dedication to the other.
Love causes no harm whatever to another.
This agrees with the Hebrew concept of love
which focuses on loyalty, not emotion.

Chapter 13

1Cor. 13:1 If I speak with the languages of the human beings
and of the YAH-messengers
but do not possess love
I have become noisy brass or a clanging cymbal.

agape means affection or benevolence.
In the Hebrew mind
love is focused on loyalty.
And while that may include affection,
that is not its primary focus.

1Cor. 13:2 And if I have the gift of prophecy,
and understand all mysteries
and all knowledge,
and if I have all trust,
so that I could move mountains,
but do not possess love,
I am nothing.

1Cor. 13:3 And if I give all my possessions to feed others
and if I surrender my body
in order that it might be set on fire,
but do not have love,
it benefits me none.

1Cor. 13:4 This love is patient, kind.
This love is not jealous.
This love does not boast,
is not arrogant,
1Cor. 13:5 does not behave rudely,
does not seek for oneself,
does not provoke,
takes into account no depravity, 1Cor. 13:6 is not happy over injustice
but is happy with truthfulness, 1Cor. 13:7 patiently endures everything,
believes everything,
anticipates everything,
endures everything.

1Cor. 13:8 This Love
never at any time disappears.

Now, if there are predictions,
they will be rendered entirely useless.
If there are languages,
they will cease.
If there is knowledge,
it will be rendered entirely useless.

1Cor. 13:9 Indeed, we know from a portion and we predict from a portion.
1Cor. 13:10 But whenever that which is complete has come then that which is a portion
will be rendered entirely useless.

1Cor. 13:11 When I was a child
I spoke as a child,
I understood as a child,
I thought as a child.
But when I became an adult male
I rendered childish things entirely useless.

1Cor. 13:12 Indeed, now we look at things
in a mirror with obscurity.
But at that time
we will look at them face to face.
Now I know in part.
But then I will see,
just as I also am seen.

1Cor. 13:13 Indeed, now abide faith, hope, love, these three.
But the greatest of these is love.

Chapter 14

1Cor. 14:1 Pursue love,
and desire supernatural gifts,
but especially that you may prophesy.

1Cor. 14:2 Indeed, he who speaks
in a foreign language
does not speak to men,
but instead speaks to YAHWEH
because no one understands him,
even though by a Divine Nature
he speaks of mysteries.

1Cor. 14:3 But he who prophesies
speaks edification,
and encouragement,
and comfort to human beings.

1Cor. 14:4 He who speaks
in a foreign language edifies himself.
But he who prophesies
edifies the assembly.

1Cor. 14:5 I wish you all spoke with foreign languages,
but even more that you prophesied
because he who prophesies is greater than he who speaks with foreign languages,
unless, indeed, he interprets
so that the assembly may receive edification.

Note: To prophesy does not mean merely to make predictions of the future.
To prophesy means to speak
what YAHWEH has spoken,
what He has given to you
as instruction or direction.

There is much confusion
about the meaning of this term
because of the extensive abuse
of the concept of prophecy.

1Cor. 14:6 And now, brothers,
if I come to you
speaking with foreign languages
how will I benefit you unless I speak to you either by revelation,
or by knowledge,
or by prophesying,
or by teaching?

1Cor. 14:7 Even things without life,
whether flute or harp,
when they make a sound,
unless they make a distinction in the sounds,
how will it be known what is piped or played?

1Cor. 14:8 Indeed, if the battle trumpet makes an uncertain sound
who will prepare for battle?

1Cor. 14:9 So likewise, you, unless you utter by the tongue
words easy to understand,
how will it be known what is spoken?
Indeed, you will be speaking into the air.

1Cor. 14:10 There are perhaps many kinds of languages in the world.
And none of them is without significance.

1Cor. 14:11 However, if I do not know
the meaning of the language
I will be a foreigner to him who speaks,
and he who speaks will be a foreigner to me.

1Cor. 14:12 Even so, you,
since you are zealous for supernatural gifts,
let it be for the edification of the assembly
that you seek to excel.

1Cor. 14:13 Therefore, let him
who speaks in a foreign language
pray so that he may interpret.

1Cor. 14:14 Now if I pray in a foreign language
my vital Divine Nature prays,
but my understanding is unfruitful.

1Cor. 14:15 What is the conclusion then?
I will pray with The Divine Nature.
And I will also pray with the understanding.
I will sing with the Divine Nature.
And I will also sing with the understanding.

1Cor. 14:16 Otherwise,
if you bless with The Divine Nature
how will he who occupies
the place of the uninformed say "Amen" at your giving of thanks
since he does not understand what you say?

1Cor. 14:17 Now you, indeed,
are giving thanks well.
But the other is not edified.

1Cor. 14:18 I thank my Elohim
that I speak with foreign languages
more than you all.
1Cor. 14:19 However, in the assembly
I would rather speak five words with my understanding that I may teach others also than ten thousand words
in a foreign language.

1Cor. 14:20 Brothers, do not be infants toward understanding!
On the contrary,
toward depravity act as babes.
But in understanding be mature.

1Cor. 14:21 In The Torah it is written:
*"With men of other tongues and other lips
I will speak to this people;
and yet, for all that, they will not hear Me,"*
says YAHWEH.
(Is. 28.11)

1Cor. 14:22 Therefore,
foreign languages are for a sign,
not to those who believe, but to disbelievers.
And prophesying is not for disbelievers,
but for those who believe.
1Cor. 14:23 Therefore, if the whole assembly comes together in one place
and all speak with foreign languages,
and there come in
those who are uninformed or disbelievers,
will they not say that you are out of your mind?

1Cor. 14:24 But if all prophesy
and a disbeliever
or an uninformed person comes in,
he is convinced by all,
he is scrutinized by all.
1Cor. 14:25 And in this manner
the secrets of his heart are revealed.
And so, falling down on his face,
he will worship YAHWEH.
And he will report that YAHWEH
is truly among you.

1Cor. 14:26 How is it then, brothers,
that whenever you come together
each of you has a psalm,
has a teaching,
has a tongue,
has a revelation,
has an interpretation.
Let all things be done for edification.

1Cor. 14:27 If anyone speaks
in a foreign language
let there be two or at the most three,
each in turn.
And let one interpret.
1Cor. 14:28 But if there is no interpreter
let him keep silent in the assembly.
And let him speak to himself and to YAHWEH.

1Cor. 14:29 Let two or three prophets speak.
And let the others judge.
1Cor. 14:30 But if anything is revealed to another who sits by
let the first keep silent.

1Cor. 14:31 Now, you can all prophesy
one by one
that all may learn
and all may be encouraged.
1Cor. 14:32 And The Divine Nature of the prophets
are subject to the prophets.

1Cor. 14:33 Indeed, YAHWEH
is not the source of disorder,
but is the source of peace,
as in all the assemblies of the set apart ones.

1Cor. 14:34 Your women
are to keep silent in the assemblies.
Indeed, they are not permitted to speak.
But on the contrary,
they are to be subordinate
as even The Torah says.

1Cor. 14:35 And if they want to learn something let them ask their own husbands at home
because it is a shameful thing
for women to speak in the assembly.

1Cor. 14:36 What, did the word of YAHWEH
come originally from you?
What, was it you only that it reached?

1Cor. 14:37 If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or non-carnal let him acknowledge that the things which I write to you are the decrees of The Master.

1Cor. 14:38 Now if anyone is ignorant,
let him be ignorant.

1Cor. 14:39 Therefore brothers,
desire earnestly to prophesy.
But do not forbid
to speak with foreign languages.
1Cor. 14:40 Let all things be done
decently and in order.

Chapter 15

1Cor. 15:1 Now brothers,
I declare to you the good news
which I proclaimed to you,
which also you received,
and in which you stand, 1Cor. 15:2 through which also you have been delivered
if you hold fast the word
which I proclaimed to you,
unless you believed without reason.

1Cor. 15:3 Indeed,
I entrusted to you in the beginning
that which I also received,
that The Messiah died
on behalf of our offenses
according to The Scriptures, 1Cor. 15:4 and that He was buried,
and that He was raised up the third day
according to The Scriptures,
1Cor. 15:5 and that He was seen by Cephas,
then by the twelve.
1Cor. 15:6 Afterward He was seen by over five hundred brothers
on one occasion,
of whom the greater part
remain to the present.
However, some have died.

1Cor. 15:7 After that He was seen by Ya'akov,
after that by all the ambassadors.

1Cor. 15:8 Then last of all
He was seen by me also,
as by one untimely born.

1Cor. 15:9 Indeed,
I am the least of the ambassadors,
who am not worthy
to be called an ambassador,
because I persecuted
the assembly of YAHWEH.
1Cor. 15:10 But by the favor of YAHWEH
I am what I am!
And His favor toward me was not in vain.
On the contrary,
I labored more abundantly than they all,
yet not I,
but the favor of YAHWEH which was with me.

1Cor. 15:11 Therefore, whether it was I or they,
so we proclaim and so you have believed.

1Cor. 15:12 Now if The Messiah is proclaimed
as having been raised from being dead,
how is it that some among you say
there is no resurrection of the dead?
1Cor. 15:13 And if there is no resurrection of the dead
then The Messiah has not been raised up.
1Cor. 15:14 And if The Messiah
has not been raised up
then our proclamation is meaningless
and your faith is also meaningless.
1Cor. 15:15 And we also are found to be false witnesses of YAHWEH
because we have testified of YAHWEH
that He raised up The Messiah, Whom He did not raise up
if, in fact, the dead are not raised up.

1Cor. 15:16 Therefore,
if the dead are not raised up
then The Messiah has not been raised up.
1Cor. 15:17 And if The Messiah
has not been raised up
your faith is meaningless!
You are still in your offenses!

1Cor. 15:18 Truly,
those also who sleep in The Messiah
have perished.
15:19 If in this life only
we have hope in The Messiah
we are of all persons most pitiable.

1Cor. 15:20 But now The Messiah
has been raised up from being dead!
And He has become the first fruits
of those who have died.

1Cor. 15:21 Indeed, since death came
by means of a human being,
by a human being also came
the resurrection of the dead.

1Cor. 15:22 Indeed, just as in Adam all die,
even so in The Messiah will all be made alive,
1Cor. 15:23 but each one in his own order.
The Messiah is the first fruits;
afterward, those who are The Messiah's
at His coming.

1Cor. 15:24 After that comes the end,
when He delivers the kingdom to YAHWEH,
even The Father,
when He will render useless
all dominion and all authority and power.

1Cor. 15:25 Indeed, He must reign until He has put all the adversaries
under His feet.

1Cor. 15:26 The last adversary
will be rendered useless, death.

1Cor. 15:27 Now when it says,
"He has put all things under His feet."
it is evident that He
Who has put all things under Him is excepted.

1Cor. 15:28 Now when all things are made subject to Him
then The Son Himself
will also be subject to Him
Who put all things under Him,
in order that YAHWEH may be all in all.

1Cor. 15:29 Otherwise, what will they do
who are baptized for the dead?
If the dead are not raised up at all
why then are they baptized for the dead?
1Cor. 15:30 And why do we experience danger every hour?

1Cor. 15:31 I affirm by the boasting in you which I have in The Messiah, AHUSHUA, our Master,
I die daily.

1Cor. 15:32 If in the manner of men
I have fought as a gladiator with beasts at Ephesus
what benefit is it to me
if the dead are not raised up?
*"Let us eat and drink
for tomorrow we die!"*
(Is. 22.13)
Ephesus means full purposed.

1Cor. 15:33 Do not be deceived!
Intrinsically worthless companionship
corrupts good habits.

1Cor. 15:34 Wake up to justification!
And do not offend!
Indeed, some are ignorant of YAHWEH.
I say it to your shame.

1Cor. 15:35 Now someone will say,
"How are the dead raised up?
And with what body do they come?"
1Cor. 15:36 Foolish one!

What you sow
is not made alive unless it dies.
1Cor. 15:37 And what you sow
you do not sow as the body that it will be,
but as mere grain,
perhaps wheat or some other grain.
1Cor. 15:38 But YAHWEH gives it a body
as He pleases,
even to each seed its own body.

1Cor. 15:39 All flesh
is not the same kind of flesh.
On the contrary,
there is one kind of flesh of human beings,
another flesh of animals,

another of fish,
and another of birds.
1Cor. 15:40 There are also celestial bodies
and terrestrial bodies.

However,
the splendor of the celestial is one kind,
and the splendor of the terrestrial is another.
1Cor. 15:41 There is one splendor of the sun,
another splendor of the moon,
and another splendor of the stars.
Indeed, one star differs from another star in splendor.

1Cor. 15:42 In this manner also is the resurrection of the dead.

The body is sown in corruption.

It is raised in incorruption.

1Cor. 15:43 It is sown in dishonor.

It is raised in honor.

It is sown in weakness.

It is raised in miraculous power.

1Cor. 15:44 It is sown a natural body.

It is raised a supernatural body.

There is a natural body,

and there is a supernatural body.

1Cor. 15:45 And so it is written,

*"The first human being, Adam,
became a living being."*

(Possibly Gen. 2.7)

The Last Adam became a life giving nature.

Lit. - a life-giving breath.

In YAHUSHUA is new life.

What is "breathed into" the believer

is The Divine Nature of YAHWEH

- as had been seen in The Messiah
during His life

and is now in us who are reborn.

It is HE that is in us

- His nature, His character

- and not some third "person"

called "The Holy Spirit".

1Cor. 15:46 However,
the supernatural is not first
but the natural,
and afterward the supernatural.

1Cor. 15:47 The first human being was out of the earth,
out of dust.

The second Man is The Master,
out of The Heaven.

1Cor. 15:48 As was the man of dust,
so also are those who are made of dust.

And as is the Heavenly Man,

so also are those who are Heavenly.

1Cor. 15:49 Even as we have borne the image of the man of dust,
so we will also bear the image of the Heavenly Man.

1Cor. 15:50 Now this I say, brothers,
that flesh and blood cannot inherit
the kingdom of YAHWEH.
Neither does that which is corrupt inherit incorruptibility.

1Cor. 15:51 Behold!

I tell you a mystery.

We will not all sleep.

But we will all be made different

1Cor. 15:52 in an instant, in the blink of an eye
at the last trumpet.

Indeed, the trumpet will sound!

And the dead will be raised incorruptible!
And we who are alive will be made different!

Note that there are only two groups here,
the living and the dead.
There is nothing to indicate a separate "rapture".

1Cor. 15:53 Indeed, this corruptible
must put on incorruption,
and this mortal
must put on immortality.
1Cor. 15:54 Now when this corruptible
has put on incorruption,
and this mortal
has put on immortality,
then will be brought to pass
the saying that is written

"Death is swallowed up in victory."
(Is. 25.8)

1Cor. 15:55 *"Oh Death, where is your sting?
Oh She'ol, where is your victory?"*
(Hos. 13.14)

1Cor. 15:56 The sting of death is offenses.
And the power of offenses is The Torah.

1Cor. 15:57 But thanks be to YAHWEH
Who gives us the victory
through our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah!

1Cor. 15:58 Therefore, my beloved brothers,
be settled, immovable,
always abounding in the work of The Master,
knowing that your labor
is not in vain in The Master.

Chapter 16

1Cor. 16:1 Now concerning the contribution
for the set apart ones,
just as I have given direction
to the assemblies of Galatia,
so you must do also.

Galatia means milky.

1Cor. 16:2 According to each week
each one of you
is to set beside himself a reserve,
whatever he desires from his prosperity,
in order that no contributions are made when I come.

1Cor. 16:3 Now when I arrive, provided that you approve
by means of your letters,
I will send these
to carry your gift to Yerushalaim.

1Cor. 16:4 And if it is fitting that I travel also they will go with me.

1Cor. 16:5 Now I will come to you when I pass through Macedonia
because I am passing through Macedonia.

Macedonia means tall.

1Cor. 16:6 And perhaps I will stay,
or even spend the winter with you that you may send me on my journey
wherever I may go.

1Cor. 16:7 Indeed, I do not wish to see you right now on the way,
but I hope to stay a while with you
if YAHWEH permits.

1Cor. 16:8 But I will stay in Ephesus until Shavuot.
The Hebrew festival is called Shavuot,
not Pentecost.
Pentecost is a Greek term.
Shavuot, the feast of the wheat harvest,

occurs 50 days after the Feast of First Fruits (barley harvest).
It includes two loaves of bread,
one leavened and one unleavened
- symbolizing the union
of Yisra'elite and Gentile.

1Cor. 16:9 Indeed,
a great and effective doorway
has opened to me,
but there is much opposition.

1Cor. 16:10 Now if Timothy comes see that he may be with you without fear,
because he does the work of YAHWEH
as I also do.

1Cor. 16:11 Therefore, let no one despise him.
And send him on his journey in peace
that he may come to me,
because I am waiting for him with the brothers.

1Cor. 16:12 Now concerning our brother Apollos,
I strongly urged him
to come to you with the brothers
but he was quite unwilling to come at this time.
However, he will come when he has a convenient time.

1Cor. 16:13 Keep alert!
Stand fast in the faith!
Be brave!
Be strong!

1Cor. 16:14 Let all you do be done with love!

1Cor. 16:15 Now I urge you, brothers,
(You know the household of Stephanas,
that it is the first fruits of Achaia,
and that they have devoted themselves to the ministry of the set apart ones.)

Stephanas means crowned.
Achaia means wailing.

1Cor. 16:16 that you also submit to such,
and to everyone who works
and labors with us.

1Cor. 16:17 I am glad about the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus,
for what was lacking on your part
they have supplied.

Fortunatus means well loaded.
Achaicus means wailing.

1Cor. 16:18 Indeed, they refreshed my nature
and yours.
Therefore, acknowledge such men.

1Cor. 16:19 The assemblies of Asia greet you.
Aquila and Priscilla
greet you heartily in The Master,
with the assembly that is in their house.

Asia means slime, mire.
Aquila means I shall be nourished.
Priscilla means little old woman.

1Cor. 16:20 All the brothers greet you.
Greet one another with a holy kiss.

1Cor. 16:21 The salutation
with my own hand
- Sha'ul's.

1Cor. 16:22 If anyone does not love
The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
let him be excommunicated!
Maranatha!

anathema - ban, excommunicate.

Maranatha is an exclamation
of the approaching divine judgment

according to Strong.
According to Vines Expository Dictionary
the meaning is not entirely clear.
Many believe it means, "Master, come!,
or perhaps "Our Master comes!"

1Cor. 16:23 The favor of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, be with you.
1Cor. 16:24 My love be with you all
in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.
Amen.

10. 2 CORINTHIANS

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

2Cor. 1:1 Sha'ul, an ambassador
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah
by the will of YAHWEH,
and Timothy, our brother,
to the assembly of YAHWEH which is at Corinth,
with all the set apart ones who are in all Achaia.

Sha'ul means requested.

Timothy means honoring YAHWEH.

Corinth means satisfied.

Achaia means wailing.

2Cor. 1:2 Favor to you and well-being
from YAHWEH, our Father
and The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

2Cor. 1:3 Blessed is The Elohim and Father
of our Master YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
The Father of compassions
and The Elohim of every encouragement, 2Cor. 1:4 Who encourages us in all our trouble in order that we may be able to encourage those who are in any trouble
with the encouragement with which we ourselves
are encouraged by YAHWEH.

2Cor. 1:5 Indeed,
just as the hardships of The Messiah
abound in us,
so our encouragement also abounds
through The Messiah.

2Cor. 1:6 Now even if we are oppressed
it is for the sake of your encouragement
and deliverance,
which is effective for enduring
the same hardships which we also experience.
Or if we are encouraged,
it is for the sake of your encouragement
and deliverance.

2Cor. 1:7 And our expectation for you is stable because we understand that as you are partners in the hardships
so also are you partners in the encouragement.

2Cor. 1:8 Indeed, we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers,
about our trouble which came to us in Asia,
that we were burdened beyond measure,
beyond ability,
so much that we despaired even of this life.

Asia means slime; mire.

2Cor. 1:9 Furthermore, we had the sentence of death in ourselves
in order that we might not trust in ourselves,
but rather in YAHWEH Who raises the dead;
2Cor. 1:10 Who rescued us
from so great a death

and continues to rescue us,
in Whom we trust that He will yet rescue us, 2Cor. 1:11 you also assisting
by petition for our sakes,
in order that thanks may be given by many persons
on our behalf for the gift to us by many.

2Cor. 1:12 Indeed, our boasting is this,
the evidence given by our conscience
that we conducted ourselves in the world
in sincerity and reverent clarity,
not with fleshly wisdom,
but in the favor of YAHWEH,
and have remained in the world
even more earnestly for your sakes.

2Cor. 1:13 Indeed, we are not writing
any other things to you
than what you read or understand.
Now I trust you will understand
even to the end

2Cor. 1:14 as also you have understood us
in part,
that we are your boast as you also are ours,
in the day of The Master, YAHUSHUA.

2Cor. 1:15 And in this confidence
I intended to come to you previously
in order that you might have a second benefit, 2Cor. 1:16 even to travel by way of you to Macedonia,
and come to you again from Macedonia,
and be helped by you on my way to Yahudah.

Macedonia means tall.

Yahudah means YAH be praised.

Traditionally 'Judea' is used.

It refers specifically to the tribe of Judah,
which is, properly, Yahudah.

There has never been a 'J'
in the Hebrew language.

There has never been a 'J'
in the Greek language.

The letter 'J' was not used until 1500 A.D.

Therefore it cannot be correct
in either a Hebrew or Greek text.

2Cor. 1:17 Therefore, when I was planning this,
did I do it lightly?
Or the things I plan,
do I plan according to the flesh
that with me there should be
Yes, Yes, and No, No?

This is a Hebraic expression
wherein the duplication is like saying,
"absolutely yes" or "absolutely no."

2Cor. 1:18 But because YAHWEH is trustworthy
our word to you was not Yes and No.

2Cor. 1:19 Indeed, The Son of YAHWEH,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
Who was proclaimed among you by us,
by me, Silvanus, and Timothy,
was not Yes and No.

On the contrary, in Him it was Yes!

Silvanus means woody.

2Cor. 1:20 Indeed,
all the promises of YAHWEH
in Him are Yes, and in Him amen
to the praise of YAHWEH through us.

2Cor. 1:21 Now, He Who establishes us
with you in The Messiah,
and He Who has anointed us is YAHWEH,

2Cor. 1:22 Who also has sealed us
and has given us the pledge

of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
in our hearts.

Sealed literally means stamped for security or preservation.
Pledge means
earnest money deposit, down payment.

pneuma - a current of air, i.e. breath; vital principle.

The reference here using pneuma
is traditionally given as "Spirit".
For the Hebrews the breath
was seen as "the wind of man".
It moved in and out of him
from the depths of his being.
It was seen to represent his character,
his inner nature or essence.
In this instance the reference is not to the "breath of man",
but is to "the breath of YAHWEH".
Therefore it is the very essence
and character of YAHWEH Himself.
This is more properly known as The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

There is no such concept as "spirit"
in Hebrew thought.

'Spirit' is a Greek term.
It would not be used by a Hebrew person.

2Cor. 1:23 Now I call upon YAHWEH
as a witness concerning my life
that to spare you I came no more to Corinth, 2Cor. 1:24 not because we have dominion
over your faith,
but instead, we are fellow workers
in regard to your joy.
Indeed, by faith you stand.

Chapter 2

2Cor. 2:1 Now I determined this within myself,
that I would not come again to you in sadness.
2Cor. 2:2 Indeed, if I make you sad
then who is he who makes me glad
but the one who is made sad by me?
2Cor. 2:3 And I wrote this very thing to you so that when I came I might not have sadness
over those from whom I ought to have joy,
being convinced concerning all of you
that my joy is the joy of all of you.
2Cor. 2:4 Indeed, out of much sadness
and anguish of heart
I wrote to you with many tears,
not that you might be sad,
but instead, that you might know the love
which I have so abundantly for you.

2Cor. 2:5 Now if anyone has caused sadness
he has not saddened me, except in part,
so that I might not be too severe toward you.

2Cor. 2:6 This punishment,
which was inflicted by many,
is sufficient for such a man, 2Cor. 2:7 so that on the contrary, even better,
you forgive and encourage him
lest perhaps such a one
be swallowed up with too much sorrow.
2Cor. 2:8 Therefore, I urge you to reaffirm your love to him.
2Cor. 2:9 Indeed, to this end I also wrote that I might know by a test
whether you are listening attentively in all things.

2Cor. 2:10 Now whom you forgive anything
I also forgive.
Now if indeed I have forgiven anything
I have forgiven that one for your sakes

in the presence of The Messiah 2Cor. 2:11 lest The Adversary
might take advantage of us.
Indeed, we are not ignorant of his devices.

2Cor. 2:12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas
to proclaim The Messiah's good news
and a doorway was opened to me
by The Master

Troas means a Trojan.

2Cor. 2:13 I had no rest in my Divine Nature
because I did not find Titus, my brother.
But taking my leave of them,
I departed for Macedonia.

Titus means nurse; rearer.

2Cor. 2:14 Now praise be to YAHWEH

Who always gives victory to us
through The Messiah,
and renders apparent
the fragrance of His knowledge

through us in every place, 2Cor. 2:15 because we are to YAHWEH

the sweet fragrance of The Messiah
among those who are being delivered,
and also among those who are being destroyed,

2Cor. 2:16 to the one the aroma of death
leading to death,
and to the other the aroma of life
leading to life.

And who is sufficient for these things?

2Cor. 2:17 Indeed, we are not as so many,
peddling The Word of YAHWEH.
But on the other hand, according to clarity,
and on the other hand, according to YAHWEH,
in the very presence of YAHWEH
we speak about The Messiah.

Peddling means selling for a profit.

Chapter 3

2Cor. 3:1 Do we begin anew
to commend ourselves?

Or is there need of some letters
of recommendation to you,
or recommendations from you?

2Cor. 3:2 You are our letter,
written upon our hearts,
known and read by all human beings,
2Cor. 3:3 because you have been revealed
as a letter of The Messiah, ministering through us,
written not with ink
but with The Divine Nature
of The Living Elohim;
not on tablets of stone,
but rather on fleshly tablets of the heart.

2Cor. 3:4 Now we truly have this confidence toward YAHWEH
because of The Messiah.

2Cor. 3:5 Not that we are competent by ourselves
to think of anything as being from ourselves.

On the contrary, our ability is from YAHWEH

2Cor. 3:6 Who also has enabled us
as attendants of The New Covenant,
not of a letter,
but of a Divine Nature,
because the letter kills
but The Divine Nature gives life.

2Cor. 3:7 Now if the ministry of death,
written on stones,

came with splendor
so that the children of Yisra'el
were not able to look intently at the face of Moshe
because of the splendor of his face,
which splendor was being rendered useless,
2Cor. 3:8 how will the ministry
of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
not be more magnificent?

2Cor. 3:9 Indeed,
if the ministry of condemnation had splendor,
the ministry of justification
exceeds much more in splendor.

2Cor. 3:10 Indeed,
even what was made magnificent
had no splendor in this respect
because of the surpassing splendor.

2Cor. 3:11 Indeed,
if what is being rendered useless was magnificent,
that which remains is much more magnificent.

2Cor. 3:12 Therefore, having such anticipation,
we use great boldness of speech, 2Cor. 3:13 unlike Moshe
who put a veil over his face
so that the children of Yisra'el
could not look intently at the end of what was being rendered useless.

Moshe means drawing out.
Yisra'el means
he who is right with El (God).

2Cor. 3:14 On the other hand,
their minds were hardened.
Indeed, until this very day
the same veil remains unremoved
in the reading of The Old Covenant.
This same thing is rendered useless
by means of The Messiah.
2Cor. 3:15 In other words,
even until this very day,
when Moshe is read
a veil is on their heart.

2Cor. 3:16 However,
when the heart reverts to YAHWEH
the veil is completely removed.

2Cor. 3:17 Now YAHWEH is The Divine Nature.
And where The Divine Nature of YAHWEH exists,
there is freedom!

Plainly stated -
AHWEH is The Divine Nature!

Here, YAHWEH is identified plainly by Sha'ul
as The Divine nature.

However, traditional translations
all use "Spirit".
But what's called "spirit"
is actually His Divine Nature.
This is the so-called "Holy Spirit".
There is no third "person",
and no Trinity.

A careful study
of all the references of Scripture
will reveal this plainly.

2Cor. 3:18 Now each of us,
having an unveiled face
that is reflecting the splendor of YAHWEH,
is being transformed into the same likeness,
from splendor into splendor,

in exactly the same way
by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

The translation of this verse
is different than what's found in most Bibles.
The context is our guide.
The discussion is about the splendor
seen in the face of Moshe,
which was covered by a veil.
Today believers do not need to wear such a veil
because it has been completely removed in The Messiah.
Hence, our faces are allowed to reflect the splendor of YAHWEH openly.

Chapter 4

2Cor. 4:1 Because of this
we have this particular ministry.

Since we have been granted compassion
we do not become discouraged.

2Cor. 4:2 On the contrary,
we have disowned
the concealed things of shame,
not walking in cleverness,
nor adulterating The Word of YAHWEH,
but rather, by exhibition of the truth,
are commending ourselves
to every man's conscience
in the presence of YAHWEH.

2Cor. 4:3 But even if our good news is covered up,
it is covered up to those who are perishing,

2Cor. 4:4 whose minds
the god of this age has blinded,
who disbelieve, lest the light of the splendor
of the good news of The Messiah,
Who is the likeness of YAHWEH,
might shine on them.

2Cor. 4:5 Therefore, we do not proclaim ourselves,
but instead, The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, The Master, and ourselves as your servants
for the sake of YAHUSHUA.

2Cor. 4:6 Indeed, YAHWEH,
Who told light to shine out of darkness,
has radiated brightness into our hearts
for the sake of illuminating the knowledge of the splendor of YAHWEH
by means of the presence
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

2Cor. 4:7 Now we have this treasure in clay vessels in order that the preeminence
of the miraculous power
is of YAHWEH, and not of us.

2Cor. 4:8 We are constricted on every side,
yet not cramped.

We have no way out, but are not despondent, 2Cor. 4:9 persecuted, but not deserted,
thrown down, but not completely destroyed;, 2Cor. 4:10 always carrying about in the body
the dying of The Master, YAHUSHUA,
in order that the life of YAHUSHUA
may also be rendered apparent in our body.

2Cor. 4:11 Indeed, we who live are always delivered unto death
because of YAHUSHUA,
in order that the life of YAHUSHUA
also may be rendered apparent
in our mortal body.

2Cor. 4:12 So then,
death is working in us,
but life in you.

2Cor. 4:13 Now we also,
having the same Divine Nature of belief
according to what is written,
"I believed and therefore I spoke,"
(Ps. 116.10)

we also believe,
and therefore we speak, 2Cor. 4:14 understanding that He Who has raised up The Master, YAHUSHUA,
will also raise us up because of YAHUSHUA,
and will stand beside us with you.

2Cor. 4:15 Now all things are for your sakes,
in order that favor,
having spread through the many,
might cause thanksgiving to abound
to the honor of YAHWEH.
2Cor. 4:16 Consequently, we are not discouraged.
And even though our outward person
is utterly decaying, yet the inner being
is being renovated day by day.

2Cor. 4:17 Indeed, our light trouble,
which is but for a moment,
is working for us a far more exceeding eternal abundance of honor 2Cor. 4:18 while we do not consider the things that are seen,
but the things which are not seen.

Indeed,
the things which are seen are temporary,
but the things which are not seen are eternal.

Chapter 5

2Cor. 5:1 Indeed, we understand that if our worldly residence,
the human body, is demolished
we have a structure from YAHWEH,
a residence made without hands,
eternal in The Heavens.

2Cor. 5:2 Indeed, in this we also sigh, intensely craving to be clothed
with our residence which is from The Heaven 2Cor. 5:3 if indeed, having been clothed,
we will not be found naked.

2Cor. 5:4 Indeed,
we who are in temporary residence
also groan, being weighed down,
not because we want to be unclothed,
but rather further clothed,
in order that mortality
may be swallowed up by The Life.

*Mortality is not merely swallowed up by living/life.
It is swallowed up by Eternal Life.
Hence, The Life is capitalized
to reflect this distinction.*

2Cor. 5:5 Now He Who has fashioned us
for this very thing is YAHWEH, Who also has given to us
the earnest money deposit
of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.
2Cor. 5:6 So also, accordingly,
we are always courageous,
understanding that while we are at home in the body,
we are absent from The Master.

2Cor. 5:7 Indeed, we walk by trust,
not by sight.

2Cor. 5:8 We are courageous,
but we also think it even better
to be absent from the body
and to be present with The Master.

2Cor. 5:9 Consequently, we are eager,
whether present or absent,
to be fully acceptable to Him 2Cor. 5:10 because we must all appear in front of the judgment seat of The Messiah,
so that each one might be responsible for the things done in the body
in accordance with
what he has performed habitually,
whether good or bad.

2Cor. 5:11 Knowing, therefore,
the reverence of The Master,
we persuade human beings.

But we are well known to YAHWEH.
And I also trust are well known in your consciences.

2Cor. 5:12 Indeed, we do not commend ourselves again to you,
but give you opportunity to boast on our behalf
so that you might have an answer for those who boast in appearance and not in heart.

2Cor. 5:13 Indeed, if we are beside ourselves,
it is for YAHWEH.
If we are of sound mind,
it is for you.

2Cor. 5:14 Indeed, the love of The Messiah
compels us, deciding in this way,
that if One died for every one,
then every one died.

2Cor. 5:15 And He died, above all else,
that those who live
might no longer live for themselves, but rather for Him
Who has died for their sake
and has been raised up.

2Cor. 5:16 Therefore, from now on,
we consider no one according to flesh.
Even though we have known The Messiah
according to flesh,
yet now we know Him thus no longer.

2Cor. 5:17 Therefore,
if anyone is in The Messiah
he is a new creation.
The old has passed away.
Behold!
Everything has become new!

This is very important to comprehend.
The old that has passed away
is the old "human nature".
We now have a "new nature".

Sha'ul (Paul) refers to this
as "the new man".

In reality this is
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
which now dwells within a believer.
In the state of forgiveness our offenses
are no longer counted against us.
We are set free from the debt we owe
by the death, resurrection, and ascension
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.
This indeed makes everything "new".

2Cor. 5:18 Now everything is from YAHWEH,
Who has reconciled us to Himself
through YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
and has given us
the ministry of reconciliation.

To reconcile is to reunite,
to bring into agreement.
It's the resolution of the offense debt,
now no longer causing us
to be responsible for it
because the "account" has been "settled".

2Cor. 5:19 That's how YAHWEH was,
by means of The Messiah,
reconciling the world to Himself,
not counting their lapses against them.

And He has placed in us
the message of the reconciliation.

2Cor. 5:20 Truly then, we act as representatives on behalf of The Messiah
in accordance with YAHWEH
having invited you through us,
begging for the sake of The Messiah
that you be reconciled to YAHWEH.

2Cor. 5:21 Indeed, the One Who has not known offenses,
for our sakes
has been made an offense offering,
in order that we might become justified
by YAHWEH through Him.

The concept of the offense offering was extremely well known to the early believers.
It's not that The Messiah
was made to "become an offense",
or "to offend", but rather,
that He became "the offense offering"
in the sense of becoming "the sacrifice"
by which our offense debt was paid in full.
hamartia – a sin, an offense.
It can also refer to an offense offering.
What is traditionally called "sin"
is more accurately identified as an offense.

It's an offense against YAHWEH
because it is a direct act of rebellion
against His instruction.

Traditional translations
fail to identify the Truth
that there are only two choices in life
- to do according to YAHWEH's instructions,
or to do according to YOUR way.
The second is rebellion.
It is offensive to YAHWEH, Your Creator!

Chapter 6

2Cor. 6:1 Now we, being fellow workers, urge you not to receive the favor of YAHWEH in vain.

2Cor. 6:2 Indeed, He says:

*"In an approved time I have heard you,
and in the day of deliverance I have helped you."*
(Is. 49.8)

Behold!

Now is the accepted time!

Behold!

Now is the day of deliverance!

2Cor. 6:3 Give not even one,
in any thing,
a cause to offend
in order that our ministry may not be blamed!

2Cor. 6:4 On the contrary, in everything
we ourselves are standing together
as attendants of YAHWEH
in much cheerful endurance,
in troubles,
in constraints,
in calamities,
2Cor. 6:5 in wounds,
in imprisonments,
in instabilities,
in labors,
in sleeplessness,
in fastings;
2Cor. 6:6 in purity,
in knowledge,
in fortitude,
in usefulness,
in The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
in sincere love, 2Cor. 6:7 in the word of truth,
in the miraculous power of YAHWEH,
through the armor of right actions,
on the right hand and on the left, 2Cor. 6:8 through honor and dishonor,
through bad report and good report;
as impostors, yet true;
2Cor. 6:9 as unknown, yet well known;
as dying, yet behold, we are living;
as disciplined, yet not put to death;
2Cor. 6:10 as sorrowful, yet always cheerful;
as beggars, yet making many rich;
as possessing nothing,
yet possessing everything.

2Cor. 6:11 We have spoken openly to you, Corinthians.
Our heart is enlarged.
2Cor. 6:12 You are not restricted by us.
But you are restricted by your inner affections.
2Cor. 6:13 Now in return for the same
(I am speaking as to children),
you also be enlarged.

2Cor. 6:14 Do not become unequally yoked together with disbelievers!

Indeed, what participation has justification with illegality?

This is a significant issue with Sha'ul.
He knows the dangers of doing this.
We are warned to "come out from among them"
(Is. 52.11),
to be set apart.

Yet today it's common practice among us
for believers to participate with unbelievers
in "Christian fellowship" every day.
This ought not be so!

And what partnership has light with darkness?
2Cor. 6:15 And what accord has The Messiah
with worthlessness?

Or what portion has a believer
with a disbeliever?

Traditionally used here
is a transliteration
of the Hebrew term, bliya'al.
It means without profit or benefit, worthlessness.

2Cor. 6:16 And what agreement has The Temple of YAHWEH with idols.

Indeed, you are the temple
of The Living Elohim.

As YAHWEH has said:

"I will dwell in them and walk among them.

*I will be their Elohim,
and they will be My people.”*
(Lev. 26.12, Jer. 32.38, Ezek 37.27)

2Cor. 6:17 Therefore,
“Come out from among them
and be separate, says YAHWEH.
Do not touch what is unclean,
and I will receive you.”
(Is. 52.11)

2Cor. 6:18 *“I will be a Father to you,
and you will be My sons and daughters,
says YAHWEH, The Almighty.”*
(2 Sam 7.14)

Chapter 7

2Cor. 7:1 Therefore,
having these promises, beloved,
cleanse yourselves from all filthiness
of flesh and of nature,
further fulfilling sacredness
in the reverence of YAHWEH.

Traditional translations refer to
"the fear of The Lord" here.
The term for fear indeed conveys
the idea of alarm or fright.
But it also means awe, or reverence.
It's appropriate to be afraid of what YAHWEH can do to us
as a result of our sin
– our rebellion against his authority.
Remember that there are consequences for such actions.
However, a healthy reverence,
helps us to remember Who He is
and the awesome power
He has at His disposal.

2Cor. 7:2 Make room for us.
We have wronged no one.
We have corrupted no one.
We have cheated no one.
2Cor. 7:3 I do not say this to condemn.
Indeed, I have said before that you are in our hearts
to die together and to live together.

2Cor. 7:4 Great is my bluntness toward you.
Great is my boasting on your behalf.
I am filled with encouragement.
I am exceedingly happy amidst all our trouble.

2Cor. 7:5 And indeed,
when we came into Macedonia
our bodies had no rest, but rather,
we were squeezed on every side.
Outside were controversies.
Inside were fears.

2Cor. 7:6 Nevertheless, YAHWEH,
Who encourages the humiliated,
encouraged us by the coming of Titus, 2Cor. 7:7 but not only by his coming,
but also by the encouragement
with which he was encouraged by you,
having told us of your earnest desire,
your mourning,
your zeal for me,
so that I rejoiced even more.

2Cor. 7:8 And even though
I made you sorry with my letter
I do not regret it.
Although I did regret it,
because I perceive that the same letter made you sad,
though only for a while.

2Cor. 7:9 Now I am glad,
not that you were made sad,
but that your sadness
led to a change of mind.
Indeed, you were made sad
in a reverent manner,
in order that you might suffer loss
from us in nothing.

2Cor. 7:10 Indeed, according to YAHWEH
sadness accomplishes a change of mind
leading into irrevocable salvation.
But the sadness of the world
accomplishes death.

2Cor. 7:11 Indeed, observe this very thing,
that having been saddened in a godly manner,
how much eagerness it produced in you,
how much self defense,
how much indignation,
how much reverence,
how much earnest desire,
how much zeal,
how much vindication!
In all things you proved yourselves
to be innocent in this matter.

2Cor. 7:12 Therefore, although I wrote to you,
I did not do it for the sake of him
who had done the wrong,
nor for the sake of him who suffered wrong,
but that our care for you
in the sight of YAHWEH
might be rendered apparent to you.

2Cor. 7:13 For this reason
we have been encouraged
through your encouragement.
And we rejoiced exceedingly more
for the joy of Titus,
because his nature
has been refreshed by you all.

2Cor. 7:14 Indeed, if in anything
I have bragged to him over you,
I am not ashamed.
On the contrary,
as we spoke all things to you in truth,
even so our boasting to Titus
has been found to be truth.

2Cor. 7:15 And his affections
are greater for you as he remembers
the attentive listening of all of you;
how with fear and trembling you received him.

2Cor. 7:16 Therefore, I rejoice
that I have confidence in you in everything.

Chapter 8

2Cor. 8:1 Now brothers,
we make known to you the favor of YAHWEH
that was given to the assemblies of Macedonia,

2Cor. 8:2 because in a great trial of affliction
the abundance of their joy
and their profound poverty abounded
through the riches of their sincerity.

2Cor. 8:3 Because I give witness that according to their ability,
and voluntarily beyond their ability,

2Cor. 8:4 they were begging us
with much encouragement,
that we would receive the gift
and the partnership of the ministering
to the set apart ones,

2Cor. 8:5 and not as we had expected.
Indeed,
they first gave themselves to YAHWEH

and then to us by the will of YAHWEH.

2Cor. 8:6 So we urged Titus that as he had begun
so he might also complete this favor
among you as well.

2Cor. 8:7 Therefore,
as you abound in everything,
in faith,
in speech,
in knowledge,
in all earnestness,
and in your love for us,
see that you abound in this favor also.

2Cor. 8:8 I do not speak this as an order,
but because of the eagerness of others,
and to prove the genuineness of your love.

2Cor. 8:9 Indeed,
you know the favor of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
that although He was rich,
for your sakes He became poor,
in order that you, through His poverty,
have become rich.

2Cor. 8:10 And in this I give my opinion,
that it is to your advantage
not only to be doing what you began
and were desiring to do a year ago, 2Cor. 8:11 but now you also must complete the doing of it,
in order that as there was
a readiness to desire it,
so there also may be a fulfillment
out of what you have.

2Cor. 8:12 Indeed,
if there is first a willing mind,
it is accepted according to what one has
and not according to what one does not have.

2Cor. 8:13 But I do not mean that others should be eased
and you burdened,
2Cor. 8:14 but rather with an equality,
that now, at this time,
your abundance might supply their lack,
so that their abundance
also might supply your lack,
in order that there may be equality.

2Cor. 8:15 Just as it is written,
*“He who gathered much had nothing left over,
and he who gathered little had no lack.”*
(Ex. 16.18)

2Cor. 8:16 Now thanks be to YAHWEH
Who placed the same earnest care for you
into the heart of Titus,

2Cor. 8:17 because he not only received encouragement,
but being more diligent,
he went to you of his own accord.

2Cor. 8:18 Now we have sent with him
the brother who has commendation
in the good news throughout all the assemblies.

2Cor. 8:19 And not only that,
but he was also chosen by the assemblies
to travel with us with this gift
which is administered by us
to the honor of YAHWEH Himself

and your readiness, 2Cor. 8:20 avoiding this,
lest anyone might blame us
because of this abundance
which is administered by us, 2Cor. 8:21 providing good things not only in the sight of YAHWEH
but also in the sight of men.
2Cor. 8:22 And we have sent with them
our brother whom we have frequently proved diligent in many things,
but now much more earnestly
by the great confidence
which we have in you.

2Cor. 8:23 If anyone inquires about Titus,
he is my partner and fellow worker
concerning you.

Or if our brothers are inquired about,
they are messengers of the assemblies,
the honor of The Messiah.

2Cor. 8:24 Therefore, indicate to them
before the assemblies
the proof of your love
and of our boasting on your behalf.

Chapter 9

2Cor. 9:1 Now concerning the ministering
to the set apart ones
it is superfluous for me to write to you.
2Cor. 9:2 Indeed, I know your willingness,
about which I boast of you to the Macedonians,
that Achaia was ready a year ago,
and your enthusiasm has stirred up the majority.

2Cor. 9:3 But I have sent the brothers lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this respect,
in order that as I said,
you may be prepared.

2Cor. 9:4 Perhaps if some Macedonians
come with me and find you unprepared,
we, not to mention you,
would be ashamed of this confident boasting.

2Cor. 9:5 Therefore, I thought it necessary to encourage the brothers
to come to you ahead of time
and prepare your generous gift beforehand which you had previously promised
so that it may be ready
as a matter of generosity
and not as of a grudging obligation.

2Cor. 9:6 Now this I say,
that one who sows sparingly
will also harvest sparingly,
and he who sows bountifully
will also harvest bountifully.

2Cor. 9:7 Let each one give
just as he intends from the heart,
not from grief or from distress.
Indeed, YAHWEH loves a willing giver.

2Cor. 9:8 Moreover, YAHWEH is able to make every favor abound toward you,
in order that you,
always having every contentment in everything,
abound in every good work.

2Cor. 9:9 Just as it is written:

*"He has dispersed abroad.
He has given to the poor.
His right actions endure forever."
(Psa. 112.9)*

2Cor. 9:10 Now may He Who fully supplies seed for the sowing and also supplies bread for eating
also increase the scattering of your seed
and increase the produce of your right actions, 2Cor. 9:11 being enriched in everything
for every generosity,
which causes, through us, gratitude to YAHWEH.

2Cor. 9:12 Indeed,
the administration of this service
not only supplies the needs of the set apart ones,
but also is abounding
through many thanksgivings to YAHWEH.
2Cor. 9:13 Through the approval of this ministry
they honor YAHWEH
on behalf of your acknowledged subjection
to the good news of The Messiah,
and for your sincere participation
with them and with all men.
2Cor. 9:14 And they pray for you,
earnestly longing after you
because of the exceeding favor of YAHWEH
which is upon you.
2Cor. 9:15 Now thanks be to YAHWEH
for His indescribable gift!

Chapter 10

2Cor. 10:1 Now I, Sha'ul,
am myself encouraging you,
through the gentleness and fairness
of The Messiah,
Who according to my presence
am indeed humble among you,
but being absent am bold toward you.
2Cor. 10:2 But I ask you that when I am present
I may not be bold
with the confidence
with which I intend to be bold concerning some who think of us
as if we walked according to flesh.
2Cor. 10:3 Although we walk in flesh
we do not conduct warfare according to flesh.
2Cor. 10:4 Indeed, the weapons of our warfare
are not fleshly,
but on the contrary,
are powerful through YAHWEH,
for the demolition of fortresses, 2Cor. 10:5 demolishing reasonings
and every exalted thing
that is raising itself up against the knowledge of YAHWEH
and capturing every perception
for the sake of attentive listening to The Messiah; 2Cor. 10:6 also being ready to punish all disobedience whenever your obedience
has been made full.

2Cor. 10:7 Do you look at things
according to the outward appearance?
If anyone is convinced in himself
that he is The Messiah's
let him consider in himself again
that just as he is The Messiah's,
even so we are The Messiah's.

2Cor. 10:8 Indeed, even if I might boast more abundantly of this authority,
which The Master has given us for edification
and not for your destruction,
I will not be ashamed,

2Cor. 10:9 in order that you might not think
I would terrify you by my letters.
2Cor. 10:10 "For his letters," they say,
"are weighty and powerful,
but his bodily presence is weak,
and his speech contemptible."

2Cor. 10:11 Let such a person consider this,
that what we are in word
by letters when we are absent
such we will also be in deed
when we are present.

2Cor. 10:12 Indeed, we dare not count ourselves among or compare ourselves with those who commend themselves.
On the contrary, they,
measuring themselves by themselves,
and comparing themselves to themselves
do not understand.

2Cor. 10:13 We, however,
will not boast beyond measure,
but rather according to
the measure of the standard
which YAHWEH has appointed for us;
a measure which extends even to you.

2Cor. 10:14 Indeed,
we do not over extend ourselves
as though our authority did not extend to you,
because we came even to you with the good news of The Messiah, 2Cor. 10:15 not boasting of things
beyond measure about other men's labor,
but having hope
that as your trust is increased
we will be greatly increased by you within our boundary 2Cor. 10:16 to proclaim the good news
in the regions beyond you,
and not to boast in another man's sphere of accomplishment.

2Cor. 10:17 Now
*"he who boasts,
let him boast upon YAHWEH."*
(Jer. 9.24)

2Cor. 10:18 Indeed, not he who commends himself is acceptable,
but whom YAHWEH commends.

Chapter 11

2Cor. 11:1 Oh, that you might put up with me
in a little foolishness.

And indeed, you do put up with me.

2Cor. 11:2 Indeed, I am jealous for you with YAHWEH's jealousy,
because I have betrothed you to One Man, presenting you as an undefiled maiden
to The Messiah.

2Cor. 11:3 But I fear lest somehow,
as The Adversary seduced Eve
through the very same trickery,
in this same way your thoughts
might be corrupted from the singleness
that is in The Messiah.

Eve (actually, Chavvah) means life giver.

2Cor. 11:4 Indeed, if one comes proclaiming a different YAHUSHUA
whom we have not proclaimed,
or if you receive a different nature
which you have not received,

or a different good news
which you have not accepted,
you might well put up with it!

There are many counterfeits in the world.
It is The Adversary's key strategy to deceive by providing something that "looks" like the real thing, but is not.
Be very careful that you are not deceived by such things.
This is what Sha'ul is warning about.

2Cor. 11:5 Indeed, I consider that I am not at all inferior to the most eminent ambassadors.
2Cor. 11:6 Even though I am untrained in speech,
yet I am not in knowledge.
Furthermore, we have in everything
been revealed in your midst by everything.

2Cor. 11:7 Did I commit an offense
in humiliating myself
in order that you might be exalted because I proclaimed the good news of YAHWEH
to you free of charge?

2Cor. 11:8 I robbed other assemblies,
taking wages from them to minister to you.
2Cor. 11:9 And when I was present with you and in need I was a burden to no one.

Indeed, what I lacked the brothers
who came from Macedonia supplied.
Also in everything I protected myself
from being burdensome to you,
and so I will protect myself.

2Cor. 11:10 Because the truth of The Messiah
is in me,

no one will stop me from this boasting
in the regions of Achaia.

2Cor. 11:11 Why? Because I do not love you?
YAHWEH knows!

2Cor. 11:12 But what I do
I will also continue to do that I might cut off the opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be regarded just as we are in the things of which they boast.

2Cor. 11:13 Indeed,
such are false ambassadors,
deceitful workers,
transforming themselves into ambassadors of The Messiah.

2Cor. 11:14 And this is nothing to be wondered at because The Adversary himself
disguises himself as a messenger of illumination.

2Cor. 11:15 Accordingly, it is no great thing
if his servants are also disguised
as servants of justification,
whose end will be according to their works.

2Cor. 11:16 I say again,
let not even one think I am stupid.
If otherwise,
at least accept me as being stupid
so that I also might boast a little.

2Cor. 11:17 What I speak
I do not speak according to The Master,
but rather as if in senselessness
in the essence of this boasting.

2Cor. 11:18 Since many boast according to the flesh
I also will boast.

2Cor. 11:19 Indeed,
you put up with stupid ones
sweetly, being thoughtful.

2Cor. 11:20 You even put up with it
if anyone utterly enslaves you,
if anyone devours you,
if anyone takes from you,
if anyone exalts himself,
if anyone strikes you on the face.

2Cor. 11:21 To our shame I say that we were too weak for that!

However, in whatever anyone is bold
(I speak senselessly.)
I am bold also.

2Cor. 11:22 Are they Hebrews? So am I.
Are they Yisra'elites? So am I.
Are they the seed of Abraham? So am I.

2Cor. 11:23 Are they servants of The Messiah?
(I speak as insane.)

I more so:

in labors more abundant,
in stripes above measure,
in prisons more frequently,
in deaths often.

2Cor. 11:24 From the Yisra'elites five times
I received forty stripes minus one.

Considered to be one stroke short of killing or badly humiliating
the person being beaten.

2Cor. 11:25 Three times I was beaten with rods.
Once I was stoned.

Three times I was shipwrecked.
A night and a day I have spent in the deep.

2Cor. 11:26 Traveling frequently, dangers from rivers,
dangers of robbers,
dangers of my own countrymen,
dangers of the Gentiles,
dangers in the city,
dangers in the wilderness,
dangers in the sea,
dangers among pretended associates,

2Cor. 11:27 in weariness and stress,
in sleeplessness often,
in hunger and thirst,
in fastings often,
in cold and nakedness;

2Cor. 11:28 besides the other things,
what comes upon me daily,
my deep concern for all the assemblies.

2Cor. 11:29 Who is weak
and I am not weak?
Who is made to stumble
and I do not burn with indignation?

2Cor. 11:30 If I need to boast
I will boast in the things which concern my weakness.

2Cor. 11:31 The Elohim and Father
of our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
Who is blessed for eternity,
knows that I am not lying.

2Cor. 11:32 In Damascus the governor
under Aretas, the king, was guarding
the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desiring to arrest me.

2Cor. 11:33 But I was let down in a basket
through a window in the wall
and escaped from his hands.

Chapter 12

2Cor. 12:1 Now, being that it's not profitable
for me to boast
I will then go on to visions
and revelations of The Master.

2Cor. 12:2 I knew a man in The Messiah
about fourteen years ago.
Whether in the body I do not know
or whether out of the body I do not know.

YAHWEH knows.

Truly, this one was taken even into the Third Heaven.

harpazo - to seize.

It comes from a word that means
to take for oneself; to choose.

It's not clear by anything we have in Scripture
what the "Third Heaven" specifically refers to.

2Cor. 12:3 And I knew truly this man.
Whether in the body or out of the body
I do not know.

YAHWEH knows.

2Cor. 12:4 He was taken into Paradise
and heard inexpressible utterances which it is not right for a human being to utter.

2Cor. 12:5 Of such a one I will boast,
but of myself I will not boast except in my weakness.

2Cor. 12:6 Indeed, though I desire to boast
I will not be stupid.

Indeed, I will speak the truth.

But I refrain lest anyone might think of me beyond what he observes me to be or hears from me.

2Cor. 12:7 And in order that I did not become arrogant
by the abundance of the revelations
a thorn in the flesh was given to me,
a messenger of The Adversary,
in order to buffet me
lest I become arrogant.

Note the shift to the first person account,
following the discussion of the revelations.

It was Sha'ul to whom
the revelations were given,
by YAHUSHUA Himself.

Other portions of Scripture confirm this truth.
This is a most profound and important point
to recognize about Sha'ul's experiences.
No other "apostle" had this experience.

Sha'ul was taught by The Messiah Himself through direct revelation
– and even more importantly,
after His ascension.

2Cor. 12:8 Concerning this thing
I pleaded with The Master three times
that it might depart from me.

2Cor. 12:9 Yet He said to me,
"My showing favor is sufficient for you because My miraculous power is made complete in weakness."

teleioo – to complete;
to accomplish; to finish.

This has often been translated as "perfect",
but that's an improper connotation.

Therefore, with great pleasure,
I will rather boast in my weaknesses
that the miraculous power of The Messiah
may abide upon me.

2Cor. 12:10 Therefore, I am well pleased with weaknesses,

with insults,
with distresses,
with persecutions,
with calamities,
for the sake of The Messiah,
because when I am weak, then I am powerful.

2Cor. 12:11 I have become stupid by boasting.
You have made it necessary for me.
Indeed, I ought to have been commended by you because I am inferior to not even one of the most eminent ambassadors,
even though I am a nobody.

2Cor. 12:12 Truly the signs of an ambassador were accomplished among you
with all perseverance,
in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

2Cor. 12:13 Indeed, in what were you inferior to other assemblies,
except that I myself
was not burdensome to you?
Forgive me this wrong!

2Cor. 12:14 Look, for the third time
I am prepared to come to you.
And I will not be burdensome to you because I do not seek what is yours,
but rather I seek you.

Indeed, the children ought not to lay up wealth for the parents,
but instead the parents for the children.

2Cor. 12:15 And I will very gladly incur cost and be spent for your lives,
although the more abundantly I love you
the less I am loved.

2Cor. 12:16 But be that as it may,
I did not burden you.

Nevertheless, being crafty,
I caught you by cunning!

2Cor. 12:17 Did I take advantage of you
by any of those whom I sent to you?

2Cor. 12:18 I urged Titus,
and sent our brother with him.
Did Titus take advantage of you?
Did we not walk in the same Divine Nature?
Did we not walk in the same steps?

2Cor. 12:19 Again do you think that we give an account of ourselves to you?

We speak in the presence of YAHWEH in The Messiah.
Now everything, beloved,
is for your edification.

2Cor. 12:20 But I fear
lest somehow when I come
I will not find you such as I wish and that I will be found by you
such as you do not wish, lest somehow there are
contentions,
jealousies,
indignations,
selfish ambitions,
backbitings,
whisperings,
conceits,
instabilities;

2Cor. 12:21 lest somehow when I come again
my Elohim will humiliate me in front of you,

and I grieve many who have already offended and have not reconsidered concerning the uncleanness, fornication, and lewdness
which they have practiced.

Chapter 13

2Cor. 13:1 This is the third time
I am coming to you.

*"By the mouth of two or three witnesses
every word will be established."*

(Deut. 19.15)

2Cor. 13:2 I told you before and now forewarn you
as if I were present the second time.
Even now being absent I write to those who have already offended and to all the rest
that when I come again I will not be lenient

2Cor. 13:3 because you seek a proof of The Messiah speaking through me,
Who is not weak toward you
but powerful in you.

2Cor. 13:4 And even though He was crucified out of weakness,
yet He lives by means of
the miraculous power of YAHWEH.

Indeed, we also are weak in Him.
But on the other hand, we will live with Him
by means of the miraculous power of YAHWEH
on your behalf.

2Cor. 13:5 Examine yourselves,
whether you are in the faith!
Test even your own selves!

Do you not recognize for yourselves
that YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, is in you,
unless you are still unapproved?

[Here Sha'ul identifies
that YAHUSHUA, The Messiah is in you.](#)

Previously he identified that YAHWEH is The Divine Nature that resides in you.

[Hence, YAHUSHUA is here
equated with YAHWEH.](#)

[Since they are "one" \(unified\),
it is the same Divine Nature,
whether of The Father or of The Son.](#)

2Cor. 13:6 Now I trust that you will understand that we are not unapproved.

2Cor. 13:7 Now I want you to do nothing intrinsically worthless,
not so that we might appear approved,
but so that you might do what is honorable,
even though we might seem unapproved.

2Cor. 13:8 Indeed, we can do nothing
against The Truth,
but rather what is for The Truth.

2Cor. 13:9 Now we are glad when we are weak and you are strong.

And this also we desire, your completeness.
karatisis – thorough equipment; perfection.

2Cor. 13:10 For this reason
I write these things being absent
lest being present I act with abruptness
according to the authority
which The Master has given to me
for the sake of edification,
and not for destruction.

2Cor. 13:11 Finally, brothers, farewell.
Be complete!
Be encouraged!
Be of the same thinking!
Be peaceful,
and The Elohim of love and peace
will be with you.

2Cor. 13:12 Greet one another
with a sacred kiss.
2Cor. 13:13 All the set apart ones greet you.

2Cor. 13:14 The favor of The Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
and the love of YAHWEH,
and the partnership
of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
be with you all.
Amen.

11. EPHESIANS

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Eph. 1:1 Sha'ul, an ambassador
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
by the determination of YAHWEH,
to the set apart ones who are in Ephesus
and faithful to The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

Sha'ul means requested.

Ephesus means full purposed.

Eph. 1:2 Favor to you and complete well being
from YAHWEH, our Father,
and The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Eph. 1:3 Blessed be The Elohim and Father
of our Master YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
Who has blessed us
with every supernatural blessing in The Heavens
by means of The Messiah.

Eph. 1:4 Inasmuch as He selected us in Him
before the foundation of the world,
we are existing as set apart
and without a flaw or a blot in His presence
because of love,

In the following verses

*a slightly unique structure has been adopted
in an attempt to help clarify Paul's comments.*

*The ideas tend to run together
in a long "monologue".*

It can be a bit overwhelming.

*It's been separated into segments
to help grasp what's here.*

Eph. 1:5 a) having marked us out in advance for placement as children to Himself
because of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
according to the delight of His purpose,
Eph. 1:6 to the praise of the honor of His favor,
by which He has honored us with The Beloved.

Eph. 1:7 b) In Him we have redemption
through His blood,
the forgiveness of the unfaithful acts
according to the riches of His favor

paraptoma - a side-slip,

i.e. error or (willful) unfaithful act.

Eph. 1:8 which He has made to abound toward us
in all wisdom and understanding,

Eph. 1:9 c) having made known to us
the mystery of His purpose
according to His satisfaction
which He has exhibited in Him
Eph. 1:10 in order that in the dispensation of the fullness of the times
He might sum up everything in The Messiah,
even that which is in The Heaven
and that which is upon the earth; Eph. 1:11d) by Him in Whom even we have obtained an inheritance,
having been marked out in advance
according to the setting forth of Him Who works all things
according to the counsel
of His own determination, Eph. 1:12 e) in order that we who first trusted in The Messiah
might be to the praise of His honor; Eph. 1:13 f) In Whom you also have heard the word of truth,
the good news of your deliverance,
and in which you have trusted.

You have been sealed with
The Set Apart Divine Nature of the promise,
Tradition translates this using "Holy Spirit".
The literal rendering of the Greek is "sacred breath".
"Holy Spirit" is used to affirm
the concept of the "trinity".

However, Scripture
does not support this concept.
There is no trinity.

There are several problems
with the concept of 'spirit'.
It was never found in Hebrew thought.
It is a Greek invention,
and likely did not appear prior to the writing of the Scriptures.
In Hebrew thought the breath
was viewed as "the wind of man
which flowed in and out of his body.
It was thought to represent
his "inner nature", his character.
In The New Covenant we are confronted with the concept of the "new birth",
also referred to as the "new man".
In truth what this represents
is the indwelling presence
of The Divine Nature.
It is this new nature that was promised.

And it is this new nature,
The Divine Nature,
by which we can be sealed
- certified as genuine
- as believers in The Messiah.

Eph. 1:14 which is the earnest money deposit of our inheritance
for the sake of the redemption
of the purchased possession,
unto the praise of His honor.

Eph. 1:15 Because of this I also,
having heard of your trust
in The Master, YAHUSHUA,
and your love toward all the set apart ones,
Eph. 1:16 do not stop giving thanks over you,
making mention of you in my prayers
Eph. 1:17 in order that The Elohim of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
The Father of the honor,
might give to you The Divine Nature
of wisdom and revelation
in the knowledge of Him,

Eph. 1:18 the eyes of your mind
being illuminated
so that you might understand what is the anticipation of His invitation and what is the wealth of the magnificence of His inheritance
among the set apart ones, and
Eph. 1:19 what is the surpassing magnitude
of His miraculous power
toward us who are trusting,
according to the effectiveness
of His vigorous strength
Eph. 1:20 which He actively demonstrated
in The Messiah
when He raised Him up from being dead
and placed Him at His right hand
in The Heavens,
Eph. 1:21 far above
every first thing,
and every privilege,
and every force,
and every authority,
and every name that is being named,
not only in this age,
but also in that which is to come,
A name in Hebrew thought represents the person himself
and his authority.
It's an extremely important concept.
Eph. 1:22 and has subordinated everything
under His feet,
and has given Him as The Head
over the entire assembly
ekklesia – translated as church
- improperly.
"Church" is a much later designation
that did not exist in Hebrew
belief, language, or culture.
Eph. 1:23 which exists as His body,
the fullness of Him Who fills all in all.

Chapter 2

Eph. 2:1 And you are dead
to the errors and the offenses
"Sin" is an offense against YAHWEH.
It's a refusal to follow His teachings.
Eph. 2:2 in which you formerly walked
according to this worldly age, according to the chief ruler
of the authority of the air,
the human nature which is now working in the children of disbelief, aer – air. From a root meaning to breathe unconsciously; respire.
This appears to be a reference to one's ability to breathe;
hence, the ability to continue to live
– the power over death
– which has been defeated by The Messiah.
Eph. 2:3 among whom we also
all formerly lived in the longings of our flesh,
doing the choices
of the flesh and of the mind,
and were by nature children of wrath
even like the rest.
Eph. 2:4 Now YAHWEH,
Who is abundant in compassion,
because of His great love
with which He loves us,
Eph. 2:5 even when we were dead
because of the errors,
has made us alive together with The Messiah
(by divine favor you have been delivered),
Eph. 2:6 and has raised us up together
and made us sit together in The Heavens

with The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, Eph. 2:7 in order that in the ages yet to occur
He might show
the exceeding abundance of His favor
by means of His goodness concerning us
through The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
Eph. 2:8 because by favor
you have been delivered, through trust,
and that is not of yourselves.

The gift is of YAHWEH, Eph. 2:9 not of works,
lest anyone should boast.

Eph. 2:10 Indeed, we are His workmanship, created in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
for good works,
which YAHWEH prepared in advance
in order that we might walk in them.

Eph. 2:11 Consequently remember that you
at one time were pagans in the flesh,
who are called uncircumcision
by what is called "The Circumcision"
made in the flesh by hands,
Eph. 2:12 because at that time
you were apart from The Messiah,
being alienated
from the citizenship of Yisra'el,
even foreigners
to the covenants of The Promise,
having no hope,
and atheists in the world.

Eph. 2:13 But now in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
you who once were far off
have been brought near by means of the blood of The Messiah.

Eph. 2:14 Indeed, He Himself is our peace,
Who has made the two as one
and has removed the partition,
the wall between us,

Eph. 2:15 having rendered useless
through His flesh
the hostility,

The Torah of instructions
contained in the dogma,
in order to create by Himself
one new humanity from the two,
thus making peace,

Eph. 2:16 even that He might reconcile them both to YAHWEH
in one body through the torture stake,
thereby putting to death the hostility.

The hostility is created by rebellion against His word.
This results in a decree being set against us
– a decree of eternal death
– because we have rejected His Word.

The torture stake,
whereupon The Messiah was put to death,
acted as the means
by which the hostility of the decree
that required we must die
because of our rebellion and disbelief
was, once and forever, put to death!
It is DEAD!
It no longer has authority over believers!

Eph. 2:17 And He came.
And He proclaimed good news,
complete well being,
to you who were far off
and to those who were near,

Eph. 2:18 because through Him
we both have access through one Divine Nature to The Father.

Eph. 2:19 Truly now, you are no longer foreigners and illegal aliens,
but rather, fellow citizens
with the set apart ones,
and relatives of YAHWEH,
Eph. 2:20 having been built upon the foundation
of the ambassadors and prophets,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, Himself
being the chief corner stone,
Eph. 2:21 by Whom the entire structure,
being tightly joined together,
grows into a sacred temple
by means of The Master;
Eph. 2:22 in Whom you also are being constructed
into a dwelling place of YAHWEH
by means of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

Chapter 3

Eph. 3:1 For this reason I, Sha'ul,
am the prisoner of The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
for the sake of you, the pagans,
Eph. 3:2 if, indeed,
you have heard of the stewardship
of the favor of YAHWEH
which was given to me for you, Eph. 3:3 because
according to a direct revelation
He made known to me the mystery,
even as I have briefly written previously.

*Galatians gives a detailed account of Sha'ul's education.
He was not taught by human beings,
but was directly instructed by The Risen Messiah - Divine teaching.
No other "apostle"
has had this kind of teaching.
The rest were all taught
while YAHUSHUA was living among them.
After the resurrection
certain things changed - dramatically.*

*Likewise, Sha'ul's "gospel"
is different than that of other "apostles"
in some regards because there is now
some additional information made available
that could not be revealed
prior to the death
and resurrection of The Messiah.
Sha'ul is revealing part of that message in this letter.*

Eph. 3:4 Because you have read this you are able to understand
my comprehension of the mystery of The Messiah, Eph. 3:5 which in other generations
was not made known to the children of human beings
as it has now been revealed to His set apart ambassadors and prophets
through The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
Eph. 3:6 that the Gentiles will be joint heirs
and of the same body,
and joint partakers of His promise in The Messiah
through the good news
Eph. 3:7 of which I have become a minister
according to the gift of the favor of YAHWEH, having been given to me
according to the effectiveness
of His miraculous power.

Eph. 3:8 To me who am less than the least of all the set apart ones,
this favor was granted,

that I should proclaim among the Gentiles
the unsearchable riches of The Messiah,
Eph. 3:9 and to illuminate for everyone
what is the partnership of the mystery
which from eternity past has been concealed by YAHWEH,
Who created everything
through YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
Eph. 3:10 in order that now
the many variations of the wisdom of YAHWEH
might be made known through the assembly
to the chief rulers and authorities in The Heavens

*It's not clear what this truly refers to,
but it's generally thought to mean
the divine beings in The Heavenly realms.*

Eph. 3:11 according to the eternal proposal
which He accomplished in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, our Master,
Eph. 3:12 by Whom we have boldness
and access in confidence
because of His faith.

*The Greek reads literally as it is put here,
though many "translations"
redirect the thought to involve our faith,
rather than His faith.*

*We have boldness and access, in confidence,
because YAHUSHUA had faith in His Father that enabled Him to endure
all that He endured on our behalf.*

He had faith that The Father would do exactly as He had promised.

*Thus, our faith is only possible
because of His faith.
And our faith is to become exactly like His faith.
Faith and trust are the same.*

Eph. 3:13 Therefore,
I ask that you do not grow weary because of my troubles on your behalf which are for your honor.
Eph. 3:14 For this reason I bend my knees
before The Father of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
Eph. 3:15 by Whom every family
in The Heavens and upon earth is named,
Eph. 3:16 in order that He might give to you
according to the abundance of His splendor,
an empowering with miraculous power
through His Divine Nature
in the inner human being,
Eph. 3:17 The Messiah thereby dwelling in your hearts through trust,
in order that you,
being rooted and grounded in love,
Eph. 3:18 may be able to comprehend
with all the set apart ones
what is the width
and length
and depth
and height;
Eph. 3:19 knowing absolutely
the surpassing love of The Messiah,
in order that you might be filled with all the fullness of YAHWEH.

Eph. 3:20 Now to the One Who is able to do exceedingly abundantly
above everything that we ask or think,
according to the miraculous power
that is working in us,
Eph. 3:21 to Him be honor in the assembly
through The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
among every generation, eternity to eternity.
Amen.

Chapter 4

Eph. 4:1 I, the prisoner of The Master,
encourage you therefore,
to walk worthy of the calling
to which you were called,
Eph. 4:2 with all humility and gentleness,
with patience
putting up with one another in love,
Eph. 4:3 earnestly protecting the oneness of
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
in the bond of peace;
Eph. 4:4 one body, and one Divine Nature,
even as you were called
with the one expectation from your calling;
Eph. 4:5 one Master,
one faith,
one baptism,
Eph. 4:6 one Elohim and Father of all,
Who is above all,
and through all,
and in all of you.

Who is in you?
YAHWEH!

It is His Divine Nature
that is sent from Him into the being (the life-breathing existence)
of every person
who chooses to believe Him
and trust Him
with every fiber of their being.
This includes YAHUSHUA because He is equal to The Father - a UNITY with Him.
Thus, YAHUSHUA is in you,
just as He said,
"I wil come to you."

Eph. 4:7 Indeed, to each one of us
favor has been granted
according to the measure of The Messiah's gift.

Eph. 4:8 Consequently He says:
*"When He ascended on high
He led captivity captive,
and gave gifts to men."*
(Psa. 68.18)

Eph. 4:9 Now this "He ascended",
what does it mean except that He also first descended into the lower sections of the earth?

Eph. 4:10 He Who descended is also the One Who ascended far above all The Heavens
in order that He might fulfill everything.

Eph. 4:11 And He Himself indeed has given
the ambassadors,
and the prophets,
and the proclaimers of the good news,
and the shepherds
and instructors,

Eph. 4:12 for the complete preparation of the set apart ones for the work of ministry,
for the structuring of the body of The Messiah,

Eph. 4:13 until we each arrive at the oneness of the trust
and of the full discernment
of the Son of YAHWEH,
to a complete man,
unto a measure of maturity,
the fullness of The Messiah,
Eph. 4:14 in order that we might no longer be infants, fluctuating and carried about
by every wind of instruction,

by the fraud of humanity,
by shrewdness,
by methodical deceit,
Eph. 4:15 but speaking the truth in love,
may grow up in all things
into Him Who is the head, The Messiah, Eph. 4:16 from Whom the whole body,
tightly joined together
and united by what every joint contributes,
according to the efficiency
through the measure of each individual portion,
causing the growth of the body
into the structuring of itself in love.

Eph. 4:17 This I say accordingly
and testify in The Master,
that you might no longer walk
as the rest of the Gentiles walk,
in the futility of their mind,
Eph. 4:18 having their understanding obscured,
being alienated from the life of YAHWEH
through the ignorance that is in them
because of the callousness of their heart;
Eph. 4:19 who, being apathetic,
have surrendered to indecency
to work all uncleanness with avarice.

Eph. 4:20 But you have not learned in this manner from The Messiah
Eph. 4:21 if indeed you have listened to Him
and have been taught by Him.
Just as The Yruth is in YAHUSHUA,
Eph. 4:22 you have put away, accordingly,
your former behavior,
the old human nature,
which has been ruined
because of the deceitful lusts.

Eph. 4:23 Now be renovated
in the nature of your mind
Eph. 4:24 and put on the new humanity,
which according to YAHWEH
has been created in justification
and true devotion.

hosiotēs - piety - holiness.
Piety refers to being completely faithful to the rights and requirements
of one's relationship with YAHWEH.
We've used "devotion"
to indicate this concept better.

Eph. 4:25 Consequently, put away lying,
"Let each one of you speak truth with his neighbor,"
(Zech. 8.16)

because we are parts of one another.
Eph. 4:26 *"Be angry, yet do not offend.
Do not let the sun go down on your wrath,"*
(Psa. 4.4)

Eph. 4:27 nor give space to The Adversary.

Eph. 4:28 Let him who stole steal no longer,
but instead let him work hard,
working with his hands at what is good,
in order that he might have something
to give to him who has a need.

Eph. 4:29 Let no worthless word proceed out of your mouth,
but rather what is good
for necessary edification
that it might impart favor
to the ones who are listening.

Eph. 4:30 And do not grieve
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH,

by which you have been sealed
for the day of redemption.

Eph. 4:31 Put away from you
all bitterness,
and rage,
and anger,
and outcries,
and blaspheming,
along with all depravity.

Eph. 4:32 Indeed, be helpful to one another,
sympathetic,
forgiving one another
just as YAHWEH, in The Messiah, has forgiven you.

Chapter 5

Eph. 5:1 Therefore,
become imitators of YAHWEH,
as beloved children.

Eph. 5:2 And walk in love
just as The Messiah also has loved us
and has given Himself for us,
an offering and a sacrifice to YAHWEH
as a sweet smelling fragrance.

Eph. 5:3 Also fornication and all uncleanness or avarice
is not even to be named among you
as is fitting for set apart ones;

porneia - harlotry (including adultery and incest);
figuratively, idolatry.

The source for the term 'pornography'.

Eph. 5:4 also obscenity,
and foolish talking,
or vulgar jesting,
which are not proper,
but rather giving of thanks.

Eph. 5:5 Indeed,
it has been made known to you
that no male prostitute,
morally unclean person,
nor greedy person (who is an idolater)
has any inheritance
in The Kingdom of The Messiah and of YAHWEH.

Eph. 5:6 Let not even one deceive you with empty words!

Indeed, because of these things
the wrath of YAHWEH is coming upon the children of disbelief.

apeitheia - disbelief.
From which comes apathy.

Eph. 5:7 Therefore,
do not be participants with them
Eph. 5:8 because you were
at one time darkness,
but now you are light in The Master.
Walk as children of light!

Eph. 5:9 Indeed, the fruit
of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
exists in every goodness,
and justification,
and truth.

Eph. 5:10 Test what is fully agreeable with The Master.

Eph. 5:11 And do not participate in the unfruitful works of obscurity,
but instead expose them,

Eph. 5:12 because it is a shameful thing
even to speak
of what's done by them privately.

Eph. 5:13 Now everything exposed is rendered apparent under the light because light is what makes everything apparent.

Eph. 5:14 Therefore, He says:
 *"Awake, you who sleep.
 Arise from the dead,
 and The Messiah will give you light."*
 (Is. 26.19, 60.1)

Eph. 5:15 Therefore,
see that you walk carefully,
not as unwise, but rather as wise,
Eph. 5:16 redeeming the time
because the days are hurtful.
Eph. 5:17 Because of this do not be unwise,
but instead comprehend
what is the desire of YAHWEH.

Eph. 5:18 And do not be drunk with wine
in which is dissipation
but instead, be filled
with The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
Eph. 5:19 speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and non-carnal songs, singing and making melody in your heart
to YAHWEH,
Eph. 5:20 giving thanks always for all things
to The Elohim and Father
in the Name of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
Eph. 5:21 subordinating yourselves to one another
in the reverence of YAHWEH.

hupotasso – to subordinate.
From roots that mean
to arrange in order under.
A subordinate is lower in rank or position.
They are under the authority
of one who has a higher rank.
However, this does not imply
one "obeys" another blindly.
It simply means
to respect their authority over you.

Eph. 5:22 Wives, subordinate yourselves
to your own husbands as your master
Eph. 5:23 because the husband
is head of the wife,
even as The Messiah is head of the assembly.
He also is the deliverer of the body.
Eph. 5:24 Therefore,
just exactly as the assembly
is subordinated to The Messiah,
so the wives are to be subordinated
to their own husbands in everything.

The implication is that of responding in love and faithfulness – voluntarily.

Eph. 5:25 Husbands, love your wives
just as The Messiah also loved the assembly and gave Himself for her
Eph. 5:26 so that she has been sanctified, cleansed by the baptism of water
through the word,
Eph. 5:27 in order that He might present her to Himself as a magnificent assembly,
having no stain, nor wrinkle,
nor any such thing,
but on the contrary,
that she should be set apart
and without blemish.

Eph. 5:28 In this way husbands are to love their own wives
as their own bodies.
He who loves his wife loves himself.

Eph. 5:29 Indeed, no one has ever detested his own flesh,
but rather cherishes it and broods over it,
even as The Master does the assembly
Eph. 5:30 because we are parts of His body,
from His flesh and from His bones.
Eph. 5:31 *"For this reason a man is to leave his father and mother
and be joined to his wife,
and the two will become one flesh."*
(Gen 2.24)

Eph. 5:32 This is a great mystery!
Indeed, I am speaking concerning The Messiah
and the assembly.

Eph. 5:33 And furthermore,
let each one of you in particular
so love his own wife as he loves himself;
and the wife love the husband
in order that she reveres her husband.

Chapter 6

Eph. 6:1 Children, listen attentively
to your parents
through YAHWEH because this is right.
Eph. 6:2 "Honor your father and mother,"
which is the first teaching with a promise:
Eph. 6:3 "that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth."
(Deut. 5.16)

Eph. 6:4 And fathers,
do not provoke your children to anger,
but rather bring them to maturity
by The Master's training and admonition.

Eph. 6:5 Those who are slaves,
be obedient to those who are your masters
according to the flesh,
with fear and trembling,
in sincerity of heart, as to The Messiah;
Eph. 6:6 not according to one
that needs watching as men pleasers,
but rather as slaves of The Messiah, performing the desire of YAHWEH
from the heart,
Eph. 6:7 with good will doing service
as to YAHWEH
and not to human beings;
Eph. 6:8 understanding that whatever good anyone does
he will receive the same from YAHWEH,
whether he is a slave or a free person.

Eph. 6:9 And you masters,
do the same things to them,
giving up threatening,
understanding that your own Master
is even in The Heavens.
And there is no partiality with Him.

Eph. 6:10 Finally, my brothers,
be strong in YAHWEH
and in the vigor of His power.
Eph. 6:11 Put on the whole armor of YAHWEH
so that you may be able to stand against the trickery of The Adversary.

Eph. 6:12 Indeed, we do not wrestle against flesh and blood,

but rather, we wrestle
against chief rulers,
against authorities
against the world rulers
of the darkness of this age,
against supernatural depravity in The Heavens.

Eph. 6:13 Because of this take up the whole armor of YAHWEH
in order that you might be able to resist
in the hurtful day,
and having accomplished
absolutely everything, to stand firm.

Eph. 6:14 Accordingly, stand firm
having girded your waist with truth,
and having put on the breastplate of justification,
Eph. 6:15 and having shod your feet
with the preparation of the good news of peace, Eph. 6:16 above all,
having taken up the shield of trust,
with which you will be able to extinguish
all the burning missiles of the hurtful.
Eph. 6:17 And accept
the helmet of deliverance,
and the sword
of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
which is the spoken word of YAHWEH, Eph. 6:18 praying at every opportunity,
with every prayer and request
by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
and in these very things being alert
with total persistence.

Also petition for all the set apart ones,
Eph. 6:19 and for me
that words are given to me
in opening my mouth boldly
to make known the mystery of the good news
Eph. 6:20 for which I am an ambassador in chains
so that in this I may speak boldly
as I ought to speak.

Eph. 6:21 Now in order that you also might know about me, how I am doing, Tychicus, a beloved brother
and faithful minister in The Master,
will make everything known to you,
Eph. 6:22 whom I have sent to you
for this very purpose,
so that you might know about us,
and so that he might encourage your hearts.

Eph. 6:23 Well being to the brothers
and love with trust, from YAHWEH, The Father,
and The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Eph. 6:24 Favor be with all those who love
our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
in sincerity.
Amen.

12. Philippians

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Phil. 1:1 Sha'ul and Timothy,
servants of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
to all the set apart ones
in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
who are in Philippi together with the superintendents and attendants.

Sha'ul means requested.

Timothy means honoring YAHWEH.

Philippi means lover of horses.

The last two terms can be translated as bishops and deacons,

both of which are "religious" terms.

The above terms identify their functions

rather than their "religious position",

which is a more honest approach

to understanding their roles

within the body of The Messiah.

There is no particular "honor"

attached to these terms.

Phil. 1:2 Favor to you and well being from YAHWEH, our Father and The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Phil. 1:3 I thank my Elohim

concerning every recollection of you,

Phil. 1:4 at all times in every petition of mine

making a petition for you all with joy

Phil. 1:5 for your partnership in the good news from the first day even until now

Phil. 1:6 being convinced of this very thing,

that He Who has begun a good work in you will accomplish it completely,

even until the day of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,

Phil. 1:7 even as it is proper for me to think this concerning you all because I hold you in my heart.

Both in my shackles and in the defense

and confirmation of the good news

you are all co-participants of my favor.

The concept of grace

literally means to be shown favor.

Phil. 1:8 Indeed, YAHWEH is my witness

how I deeply long for you all

with the inner affection

of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Phil. 1:9 And this I pray,

that your love might abound

still more and more

in recognition and all discernment

Phil. 1:10 for the sake of verifying what is different in order that you may be pure

and without offense

in the day of The Messiah,

To be pure means, literally,

to be judged with sunlight.

Phil. 1:11 having been filled with the fruits of justification

because of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,

for the sake of the honor

and praise of YAHWEH.

Phil. 1:12 Now I want you to know, brothers,

that what has come upon me

has actually turned out for the furtherance of the good news.

Phil. 1:13 Therefore, my shackles

for the sake of The Messiah

have become apparent

in the entire governor's courtroom

and everywhere else.

Phil. 1:14 And most of the brothers in The Master,

having been convinced by my shackles,

are exceedingly bold

to speak The Word fearlessly.

* This phrase, to v logov, the logos,

occurs in many places in Scripture.

The true meaning is revealed in John 1.1-2, 14.

"The Word" became flesh

– YAHUSHUA, The Messiah!

Every time we see this phrase
it's a reminder that YAHUSHUA
has come in the flesh to pay in full
the price of our sin debt – our ransom.

Phil. 1:15 Some indeed announce The Messiah
even through ill will and quarreling,
and some also through delight.

Phil. 1:16 The former proclaim The Messiah
out of provocation, not honestly,
thinking to add stress to my being in shackles,

Phil. 1:17 but the latter out of love,
understanding that I am appointed for the defense of the good news.

Phil. 1:18 Why, indeed?

Rather, that in every way,
whether in pretense or whether in truth,
The Messiah is proclaimed.

And in this I rejoice and indeed will rejoice,

Phil. 1:19 because I understand that this will turn out for my deliverance
through your petition

and through the provision of The Divine Nature of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,

Phil. 1:20 according to my intense anticipation and expectation that in not even one thing
will I be ashamed.

But on the contrary, with all boldness,
as always, even now also,

The Messiah will be magnified in my body,
whether through life or through death.

Phil. 1:21 Indeed, to me living is The Messiah,
and dying is gain.

Phil. 1:22 Now if I am living in the flesh
this will mean fruit from my labor.

Yet which I would choose I do not know

Phil. 1:23 because I am hard pressed between the two.

Having the longing to depart
and to be with The Messiah is far better.

Phil. 1:24 But remaining in the flesh
is more necessary for your sakes.

Phil. 1:25 And being convinced of this
I understand that I will stay and remain in company with you all for the sake of your progress
and joy in the faith,

Phil. 1:26 in order that your boasting
in YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
may be more abundant
because of my coming to you again.

Phil. 1:27 Only live as is appropriate for the good news of The Messiah
so that whether I come and see you or I am absent

I might hear of your affairs,
that you stand fast in one nature,
with one mind striving together
for the trust of the good news,

Phil. 1:28 and in absolutely no way frightened by your adversaries
which to them is an indication of ruin or loss,
but to you of rescue or deliverance,
and that is from YAHWEH,

Phil. 1:29 because to you it has been given,
for the sake of The Messiah,
not only to trust in Him,

but also to suffer for His sake,
Phil. 1:30 having the same conflict
which you saw in me and now hear in me.

Chapter 2

Phil. 2:1 Therefore,
if there is any encouragement in The Messiah,
if any consolation of love,
if any partnership
of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
if any inner affections and compassions,
Phil. 2:2 then fulfill my joy
in order that you might be thinking the same,
having the same love,
having one nature,
Phil. 2:3 having not even one thing
according to strife or conceit,
but rather, in deep humility
considering one another
as more important than themselves.
Phil. 2:4 Do not, each of you,
watch out for his own interests,
but on the contrary,
even for the interests of others!

Phil. 2:5 Let this thinking be in you which was also in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, Phil. 2:6 Who having come into existence
in the essence of YAHWEH,
did not consider it crucial
to exist as equal to YAHWEH, Phil. 2:7 but instead, emptied Himself,
taking the form of a servant,
having come in a resemblance to human beings.

Phil. 2:8 And having been found in external conditions
to be like a human being,
He humbled Himself
and became submissive to the point of death,
even the death of the torture stake.

This passage is difficult to translate.
English does not carry the ability to convey the concept of "being equal" to YAHWEH
in one or two words.

What's intended is to convey that having been created
as The Son of YAHWEH,
The Messiah was equivalent in nature to Him.

The point then needs to be made that He did not consider it to be of critical importance
to remain in that state (divine).
Instead, He set aside His Divinity
for the purpose of becoming
the means of redemption, a fully paid ransom,
by which He covered the "cost"
of the offenses of the entire creation.

The "cross" is an instrument of death.
It is, literally, a torture stake.
It is not a "thing of beauty."

Phil. 2:9 Because of this YAHWEH
has also highly exalted Him
and granted to Him a Name
which is above every name,
Phil. 2:10 that at the Name of YAHUSHUA
every knee might bend,
Heavenly, earthly, and subterranean,
Phil. 2:11 and every tongue acknowledge that YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, is Master,
to the honor of YAHWEH, The Father.

The Greek for "name" is onoma.
It refers to far more than what one is called.
In the Middle East a "name"
conveyed the essence of the person, including their role in life

and/or their authority.

It's important to recognize that the "Name"
is not some magic incantation.
The "name", by itself, does nothing.

It more importantly represents the person,
in this case the person and work
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.
However, it's in this capacity
that the "Name" commands great respect.
It's under YAHUSHUA's authority and power that every knee will bow
and every tongue acknowledge
His supreme authority to rule over us.

Phil. 2:12 Therefore, my beloved,
just as you have always listened attentively,
not only in my presence
but also much more now in my absence, accomplish your deliverance
amidst fear and trembling,
Phil. 2:13 because it is YAHWEH
Who is being active in you both to desire and to perform His purpose!

Phil. 2:14 Do all things
without grumbling and arguing, Phil. 2:15 in order that you might become without fault and innocent,
children of YAHWEH,
blameless in the midst
of a warped and distorted generation,
among whom you shine as lights in the world,
Phil. 2:16 holding on to The Word of Life,
for the sake of my boasting
in the day of The Messiah
in order that I have not run in vain
or labored in vain.

The phrase, "The Word of Life",
is placed with capitals to draw attention to the special character of this phrase.
Literally, The Word is YAHUSHUA.
Through Him we are granted eternal Life.
The Word = The Message = YAHUSHUA.
He is The Word of Life.

Phil. 2:17 On the other hand,
even if I am being poured out
as a drink offering
upon the sacrifice and ministry of your trust,
I sympathize in gladness with all of you.
Phil. 2:18 Now you do the same
and rejoice and be glad with me.

Phil. 2:19 Now I anticipate
through The Master, YAHUSHUA,
sending Timothy to you shortly,
in order that I also might be encouraged,
knowing your circumstances.

Phil. 2:20 Indeed,
I have no one of a similar nature
who will genuinely be anxious about your circumstances

Phil. 2:21 because all of them
are seeking things for themselves,
not the things of The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

Phil. 2:22 Now, you know his proven character,
how as a son he has served with me
like a father in the good news.

Phil. 2:23 Therefore, I hope to send him shortly after I look after my circumstances.

Phil. 2:24 Indeed,
I am persuaded in The Master
that I myself will also come soon.

Phil. 2:25 Now I considered it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother,
and fellow worker, and associate,
but your ambassador
and the one who attended to my affairs,

Epaphroditus means lovely; fascinating.

Phil. 2:26 since he was yearning for all of you and was distressed
because you had heard that he was sick.

Phil. 2:27 And indeed, he was sick,
close to death,
but YAHWEH had compassion on him,
and not only on him but on me also,
lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

Phil. 2:28 Therefore, I sent him the sooner
so that when you see him again
you may rejoice,
and I may be less sorrowful.

Phil. 2:29 Receive him therefore in The Master
with all joy,

and hold one such as this as precious,

Phil. 2:30 because as a result of the work of The Messiah
he came close to death, disregarding life
in order to supply what was lacking
in your service toward me.

Chapter 3

Phil. 3:1 Finally, my brothers,
rejoice in YAHWEH.
For me to write the same things to you
is not tedious,
but for you it is safe.

Phil. 3:2 Beware of dogs!
Beware of workers of harm!
Beware of the mutilation!

Phil. 3:3 Indeed, we ourselves
are the true circumcision
who worship YAHWEH by Divine Nature,
and boast in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
and have no confidence in the flesh.

Phil. 3:4 And indeed,
I could even have confidence in flesh.
If anyone else thinks
he may have confidence in flesh
I more so;

Phil. 3:5 circumcision on the eighth day,
a kin of Yisra'el,
an offshoot of Binyamin,
a Hebrew among Hebrews,
concerning The Torah, a Pharisee,

Yisra'el means

he who is right with El \(God\).

Binyamin means son of the right hand.

Pharisee means the separated.

Phil. 3:6 concerning zeal,
persecuting the assembly,
concerning the justification
that comes from The Torah, blameless.

References to 'The Law'

should properly refer to The Torah.

It's the term the Hebrew people know it by,

and it is far more correct to use it

instead of 'The Law'.

torah means precept or statute,

but it comes from a root word that means

to direct, instruct, teach.

It does not mean to 'command'.

Phil. 3:7 However,
whatever things were gain to me,
these I have considered as a detriment
for the sake of The Messiah.

Phil. 3:8 Indeed, at the very least,
I even count everything that exists
as a detriment
for the sake of the superiority
of the knowledge of The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, my Master,
for Whom I have suffered
the detriment of everything
and consider them to exist as refuse
in order that I might gain The Messiah
Phil. 3:9 and be found in Him,
not possessing my own justification
which is from The Torah,
but rather that which is through
trust in The Messiah;
the justification which is from YAHWEH
because of trust;
Phil. 3:10 coming to know Him
and the miraculous power of His resurrection,
and the partnership of His sufferings,
being conformed to His death,
Phil. 3:11 if somehow I might attain
to the resurrection of the dead.

Phil. 3:12 Not that I have already been accepted,
or am already complete,
but I press onward that I might grasp that for which The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, has also grasped me.

Phil. 3:13 Brothers, I do not consider myself
as having attained.

But number one, indeed,
forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things
which are ahead,

Phil. 3:14 I press toward the goal,
reaching for the prize
of the upward calling of YAHWEH
in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

The resurrection to eternal life.

Phil. 3:15 Accordingly, as many as are mature,
have this same mind.
And if in anything you think otherwise
YAHWEH will reveal even this to you.

Phil. 3:16 Nevertheless, in that which you have already attained,
stay in line with this same rule,
thinking this very thing.

Phil. 3:17 Become co-imitators with me, brothers,
and note those who walk in this manner
just as you have us for a pattern.

Phil. 3:18 Indeed, many walk
of whom I have told you often,
but now tell you even sobbing,
as hateful toward
the torture stake of The Messiah;
Phil. 3:19 whose end is destruction,
whose god is their belly,
and who boast in their disgrace,
who set their mind on earthly things.

Phil. 3:20 Indeed,
our citizenship is in The Heavens,
from which we also
are eagerly expecting a deliverer,
The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
Phil. 3:21 Who will transform our humiliated body
into one being conformed to His magnificent body, according to the working by which He is able
even to subdue all things to Himself.

Chapter 4

Phil. 4:1 Therefore, my beloved
and longed for brothers,
my joy and prize,
in this same manner
stand fast in The Master, beloved.
stephanos – victory wreath; prize.

Phil. 4:2 I encourage Euodia
and I encourage Syntyche
to be of the same mind in The Master.
Euodia means a sweet smell.
Syntyche means well-met; friendly.

Phil. 4:3 And I urge you also, true companion,
help these women
who labored with me in the good news
with Clement also
and the rest of my fellow workers whose names are in The Book of Life.
Clement means merciful.

Phil. 4:4 Rejoice in The Master always!
Again I say, rejoice!
Phil. 4:5 Let your gentleness be known to all persons.
The Master is near.

Phil. 4:6 Be anxious about not even one thing,
but in everything by prayer and petition
with gratitude
let your requests be made known to YAHWEH!
Phil. 4:7 And the well being of YAHWEH,
which surpasses all understanding,
will protect your hearts and minds
by means of The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

Phil. 4:8 Finally, brothers,
whatever is true,
whatever is honorable,
whatever is just,
whatever is pure,
whatever is toward friendliness,
whatever is well spoken of,
if it is morally excellent
and if it is commendable,
consider these things.

Phil. 4:9 The things which you have learned and have received
and have heard
and have seen in me,
practice these!
And The Elohim of well being will be with you.

Phil. 4:10 Now I rejoiced in The Master greatly that even now at length
your thinking of me has revived,
although you surely did think of me
but you lacked opportunity.

Phil. 4:11 Not that I speak concerning a lack,
because I have learned
in whatever state I exist to be content.

Phil. 4:12 I know how to be humiliated,
and I know how to abound.
Everywhere and in all things
I have learned both to be full and to be hungry,
both to abound and to suffer need.

Phil. 4:13 I have the strength to do everything in The Messiah Who empowers me!

Phil. 4:14 Nevertheless, you have done well
that you shared in my distress.
Phil. 4:15 Now you Philippians understand also that in the beginning of the good news

when I departed from Macedonia
no assembly shared with me in the topic
of giving and receiving except you alone,
Phil. 4:16 because even in Thessalonica
you sent aid once or twice for my necessities,

Thessalonica means victory over lies.

Phil. 4:17 not that I desire a present,
but I desire the fruit that abounds to your account.

Phil. 4:18 Indeed, I have everything and abound.
I am full, having received from Epaphroditus
the things sent from you,
a sweet smelling fragrance,
an approved sacrifice,
well pleasing to YAHWEH.

Phil. 4:19 Now my Elohim will provide all your need according to His riches in honor
in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA!

Phil. 4:20 Now to our Elohim and Father
be honor into the ages of eternity.
Amen.

Phil. 4:21 Embrace every set apart one
in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

The brothers who are with me embrace you.

Phil. 4:22 All the set apart ones embrace you,
but especially those who are of Caesar's household.

Phil. 4:23 The favor of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
be with you all. Amen.

13. COLOSSIANS

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Col. 1:1 Sha'ul, an ambassador
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
by the will of YAHWEH,
and Timothy, the brother,

Sha'ul means requested.

Timothy means honoring YAHWEH.

Col. 1:2 to the set apart ones
and faithful brothers in The Messiah at Colosse.
Favor to you and well being
from YAHWEH, our Father,
and The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Colosse means monstrosities.

Col. 1:3 We give thanks to The Elohim and Father
of our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
praying always concerning you,

Col. 1:4 having heard of your trust
in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,

and of your love to all the set apart ones

Col. 1:5 because of the hope
which is being reserved for you in The Heaven,
of which you have already heard
in the message of the truth of the good news

Col. 1:6 which is near to you,
just as even in all the world,
and is bringing forth fruit

just as it also is in you
from the day you heard it and recognized
the favor of YAHWEH in truth,

Col. 1:7 just as you also have learned from Epaphras, our dear fellow servant
who is over you
as a faithful servant of The Messiah;

Epaphras means lovely.

Col. 1:8 who also is declaring to us your love
in The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

pneuma - a current of air,
i.e. breath or a breeze,
vital principle, mental disposition, etc.

There is no "spirit" in Hebrew thought.
Spirit is a Greek creation
that did not exist until well after the Greek culture was established.
In Hebrew thought the breath
represented the "essence" of a person
their character or "nature".
In reference to YAHWEH,
this is His Divine Nature.
It is the "New Nature" of the believer,
the "new man".

The Greek influence
has permeated our own culture
to the point it is difficult to separate it
from our own thinking.
This was not true for the Hebrews.
They knew nothing of Greek thought
as their own culture developed.

Col. 1:9 For this reason we also,
from the day we heard it,
do not cease to pray concerning you,
and to ask that you might be filled with the recognition of His will
in all wisdom and supernatural comprehension,
Col. 1:10 you walking in a manner
worthy of The Master desiring to be pleasing in everything,
being fruitful in every good work
and increasing in the knowledge of YAHWEH, Col. 1:11 enabled with every ability
according to the vigor of His glorious power for the sake of all endurance and patience
amidst cheerfulness,
Col. 1:12 giving thanks to The Father
Who has enabled us to be a sharer
of the inheritance of the set apart ones
by means of The Light.

YAHUSHUA is The Light.

Col. 1:13 He has delivered us
from the authority of the darkness
and has transferred us into the kingdom of The Son of His love,
Col. 1:14 in Whom we have redemption
through His blood,
the pardon of the offenses.

aphesis – freedom; pardon.
Translated as deliverance, forgiveness,
liberty, remission.

Pardon is a legal concept of freedom.
Sin is rebellion,
refusing to do what YAHWEH
has taught us He desires.
As such it is an offense to Him.
It's important to consider the ways in which we offend Him,
and the consequences of such action.
It requires our death!

Col. 1:15 He is the representation of the not able to be seen YAHWEH,
the firstborn of every created thing,
Col. 1:16 because by Him
everything has been created;
that which is in the skies
and that which is on the earth,
that capable of being seen,
and that not capable of being seen,

whether thrones or dominions
or first in rank or authorities.

arche – a commencement
or chief in order, time, place, or rank.
The context suggests “first in rank” – leaders.

Everything has been created by means of Him
and for His sake.

Col. 1:17 And He is above everything.
And by Him everything is held together.

sunistemi – to set together;
Lit. – stand with;
i.e. by implication
to introduce or to exhibit;
to stand near or to constitute.
While the Greek leaves us
with some options on how to interpret this,
it seems to suggest the idea
of establishment and consistency.

Col. 1:18 And He is the head of the body,
the assembly,
Who is the beginning,
the firstborn from the dead,
in order that in everything
He might become the first in rank,

ekklesia – a calling out. An assembly.

Synagogues are defined as assemblies.
There was no church in those days.
That term did not exist in Hebrew or Greek.

Col. 1:19 because it was pleasing that in Him
all the fullness resides permanently.

Col. 1:20 And because of Him
everything is reconciled to Himself,
whether on the earth or in the skies,
having made peace
through the blood of His torture stake.

Col. 1:21 And you,
having been at one time alienated
and hateful in the mind in hurtful works,
He has now already reconciled
Col. 1:22 by means of the body of His flesh
through death,
presenting you set apart,
and unblemished,
and unaccused in His presence,

hagios –sacred; physically pure,
morally blameless; consecrated.
– holy, saint.
To be holy is to be set apart
for a special purpose.

Col. 1:23 if indeed you remain in the faith,
grounded and settled,
and not being moved away
from the hope of the good news
which you have heard,
which has been proclaimed
to every creature under the sky,
of which I, Sha’ul, have become a servant.

This “if” is very important.
It reminds us that it is indeed possible
to not remain in the faith;
in other words, to apostatize (which means to walk away from).
Your redemption is not secure
until you are in Eternity with YAHWEH.

It is not guaranteed just because you at one point believe in the good news
of YAHUSHUA's life, death, and resurrection.

The doctrine of “Eternal Security”
is not supported by Scripture.

Col. 1:24 I now am happy

in my sufferings for your sake,
and am supplementing in my flesh
that which is lacking
in the troubles of The Messiah,
for the sake of His body,
which is the assembly,

The belief was held
that as members of "His body",
as His followers,
one would endure "troubles".
These were considered, in effect,
to be a part of His own sufferings.
Since He dwells within us
one might comprehend this idea.

Col. 1:25 of which I have become a servant
according to the stewardship of YAHWEH
which has been given to me for your sake,
to fulfill The Word of YAHWEH, Col. 1:26 the mystery
which has been fully concealed from ages and from generations,
but now has been rendered apparent
to His set apart ones.

Col. 1:27 To them YAHWEH has chosen to make known what is the abundance of the magnificence of this mystery
among the Gentiles,
which is The Messiah in you,
the anticipation of the magnificence.

Sha'ul's calling was to take the message of The Hebrew Messiah
to the Gentiles (pagans, non-Yisra'elites).
This concept was given in Scripture long ago,
but how it was to be accomplished
few were able to recognize.

As a zealous Hebrew Pharisee, Sha'ul was uniquely positioned to know The Scriptures well enough to be used to take the full message
of deliverance to the Gentiles
- after he first tried to present it
only to the Yisra'elites.

And he received his qualification for this task
directly from the risen
and ascended Messiah.

How the reconciliation
of Yisra'elite and Gentile
in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
was to happen was indeed a mystery.
Now it is revealed.

Col. 1:28 Him we proclaim,
cautioning every person
and teaching every person by all wisdom,
in order that we might present every person
complete in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

Col. 1:29 Toward this goal I also work hard, struggling according to His energy
which is working in me in miraculous power.

Chapter 2

Col. 2:1 Indeed, I want you to understand how much anxiety I have
for you and those at Laodicea,
and for as many as have not looked intently
at my appearance in the flesh,

Laodicea means the people's rights.

Col. 2:2 in order that their hearts
might be comforted,
having been united by love,
and for the sake of all the abundance of the full assurance of comprehension
in the recognition of the mystery of YAHWEH,
both of The Father and of The Messiah;

Col. 2:3 in Whom are hidden
all the abundance of wisdom and knowledge.

Col. 2:4 Now, I say this so that no one
deludes you with persuasive words.

Col. 2:5 Indeed, even if I am absent in the flesh,
on the other hand, I am with you in nature,
rejoicing and observing your orderly manner
and the stability of your trust in The Messiah.

Col. 2:6 In the manner therefore that you have received The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, The Master,
walk about in Him,

Col. 2:7 being rooted and built up in Him
and established in the faith
as you have been taught,
superabounding in it with thanksgiving.

Col. 2:8 Watch out so that not anyone will lead you captive
through philosophy and empty delusion,
according to the traditions of men,
according to the basic principles of the world,
and not according to The Messiah,

The concept is more than mere philosophy.
It points toward "Jewish sophistry",
which means false arguments
based on religious principles.

The concept of
"the traditions of men"
is a very serious problem,
even with our current copies of The Scriptures.
Those traditions have modified what YAHWEH gave to those who were inspired to write His Word.
It's extremely easy
to become misled by those traditions.
One must study His Word on their own and let His Divine Nature
guide you into all Truth,
just as His Word declares.

Do not accept something just because someone you respect has told you it is so.
Do your own homework!

Col. 2:9 because in Him resides permanently
all the fullness of the divinity bodily.

theotes – divinity.
It is translated, incorrectly, as "godhead".
That term is a religious creation intended to convey a religious concept
It's not necessary.
All that needs to be stated
is what the word means.

Significant, however, is the identification
that all of this divinity
(the divine nature of The Supreme Being) resides permanently in The Messiah.

Col. 2:10 And you are complete in Him
Who is the head

of every principality and authority,

Col. 2:11 by Whom

you also have been circumcised
with the circumcision not made with hands,
by putting off the body

of the offenses of the flesh,
by means of the circumcision of The Messiah,

Col. 2:12 having been buried with Him in baptism,

in which you also

have been raised up with Him
through trust in the working of YAHWEH,

Who has raised Him from the dead.

Baptism symbolizes our death
– the death of the old nature.
It symbolizes the removal of the penalty for offenses.
It's like a circumcision,
a cutting off – in this case,
of our offense debt.
Fleshly circumcision is symbolic of this supernatural truth.

Col. 2:13 And you, being dead in your errors
and the uncircumcision of your flesh,
He has made alive together with Him,
having pardoned you from all errors,

paraptoma – a side-slip; error;
transgression. fall, fault,
sin, offence, trespass.

Col. 2:14 having erased
the handwriting of ordinances
which exist against us,
and He has taken it from our midst,
nailing it to His torture stake.

The handwriting still exists.
The verb is present tense,
meaning it's still in place.
It's a permanent record of our offenses.
(acts of rebellion
against The Word of YAHWEH.)
The penalty for each offense is death.

However, now, we are no longer
held guilty for them
because of the shed blood of YAHUSHUA.

The "handwriting against us"
is the legal basis
by which we deserve to die.
It is this offense debt
that has been passed-over,
by the blood of YAHUSHUA.

It was accomplished
during The Festival of Passover!
It's the most important festival of all!

Col. 2:15 Having plundered
principalities and authorities,
He made a public spectacle of them,
triumphing over them by it.

Col. 2:16 Therefore, let no one condemn you
in food or in drink,
or in regard to a festival,
or a new moon or Sabbaths, Col. 2:17 which are a foreshadowing
of things to come.

However, the substance is The Messiah's.

The substance is the "real thing",
which takes precedence over
the symbolic things that have preceded it.

Col. 2:18 Let not even one defraud you of salvation
through delighting in humility
and worship of the YAH-messengers, intruding into that
which he has not discerned clearly,
puffed up without cause
for the sake of his fleshly mind,

"delighting in humility" is a Hebraism
for pride in one's great level of humility;
hence, an oxymoron.

aggelos is the Greek work used here.
It means messenger, deputy,
one sent by another.
It is pronounced ahn-geh-los,

from which we get 'angel'.
In Hebrew thought
there is no such thing as an 'angel'.
Messenger is the exact same meaning for the Hebrew term used in parallel with the Greek term.

One sent by YAHWEH is a YAH-messenger.

Sha'ul is teaching the Colossians not to get caught up in the Gnostic teachings that were being pushed upon them.
The above elements were involved in that teaching.

Col. 2:19 and not holding fast to The Head
from Whom the entire body,
through the joints and ligaments
being supplied and being knit together,
is growing by the growth of YAHWEH.

Col. 2:20 Therefore,
if you have died with The Messiah
from the basic principles of the world,
why, as though living in the world,
are you subject to regulations,
This is also part of Sha'ul's message.
Baptism is the symbolism
of our personal death and resurrection
in The Messiah.

As we trust in Him
and what He's done for us
we receive His substitutionary death,
His "atonement" for our offense debt.

We are to consider that we have died to offenses
by means of The Messiah.

Col. 2:21 do not touch,
do not taste,
do not handle,

Col. 2:22 which all are rotting away
with their usage
according to the injunctions
and instructions of human beings?

Col. 2:23 These things,
certainly holding a message of wisdom
in piety,
false humility,
and neglect of the body,
are not of any value
for the maturing of the flesh.

Chapter 3

Col. 3:1 Therefore, if you have been raised up with The Messiah seek those things which are above
where The Messiah is,
sitting at the right hand of YAHWEH!

Col. 3:2 Exercise your mind
on that which is above,
not on that which is on the earth!

Col. 3:3 Indeed, you have died,
and your life is concealed
with The Messiah in YAHWEH.

Col. 3:4 When The Messiah, our life,
is rendered apparent
then you also will have been rendered apparent with Him
amidst great honor.

This is a most interesting verse.
The first "rendered apparent"
is in the subjunctive mood.
It implies an event that has the possibility of taking place – it might happen.

The verse is not suggesting

it won't happen,
but rather that we don't know
when it will occur.

However, the second "rendered apparent"
is in the future passive indicative mood
– which means what is stated.

When The Messiah
is rendered apparent next time
we will also have been rendered apparent with Him.
This is an amazing concept!

Col. 3:5 Therefore, put to death
your members which are on the earth,
immoral sex,
impurity,
lust,
desire for what is forbidden,
and avarice, which is idolatry.

Have you ever thought of these things
as your body parts?
If you're "married" to them
you become one with them.

Col. 3:6 Because of these things
the determined anger of YAHWEH
is coming upon the children of disbelief,
Col. 3:7 in which you yourselves
have also walked at one time
when you were living in them.

Col. 3:8 But now, put away also all determined anger,
rage,
harm,
blasphemy,
vile conversation from your mouth!

Col. 3:9 Do not lie to one another since you have wholly divested yourself
of the old human nature with its practices,

Col. 3:10 and have been clothed with the new nature,
which is being renovated

for the sake of full discernment
according to the likeness
of Him Who is creating it,

Col. 3:11 in which there is neither Greek nor Yisra'elite, circumcised nor uncircumcised,
foreigner, savage,

slave, nor free, but instead,
The Messiah is everything,
and is in everything.

The new nature
is The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.
It is His nature,
now dwelling in you
as a result of your trusting fully in the work
of YAHUSHUA's redeeming love.

It's traditionally translated as "The Holy Spirit".
However, "spirit" is a Greek creation
that was unknown to Hebrew thought.
Instead, the Hebrews saw this
as the "sacred breath"
(the literal translation of the words)
of YAHWEH.

The breath represented
the inner essence,
the nature or character, of the person.
Thus, it is YAHWEH's nature,
His character,
that is given to us by Him
as a result of our trust
in Him and in His Son.

Col. 3:12 Therefore, as the chosen of YAHWEH, set apart and beloved,
put on tender compassions,
kindness,
humbleness,
gentleness,
patience,

"tender compassions" is literally
intestines of compassion.

The Hebrews believed the emotions
resided in the "guts", the intestines.

Col. 3:13 putting up with one another,
and granting favor to one another
if anyone has a complaint against another.

Just as even The Messiah
has granted favor to you,
so you also do the same.

Col. 3:14 Now above all these is love
which is the uniting principle of completeness.

Col. 3:15 And let the well being of YAHWEH
arbitrate in your hearts,
into which also
you have been called as one body.
And be thankful!

brabeuo – to arbitrate; to govern.
An arbitrator does not dominate,
but rather, advises.

Col. 3:16 Let the word of The Messiah dwell within you abundantly,
in all wisdom
teaching and warning one another with psalms and hymns
and non-carnal songs,
singing with gratitude in your hearts
to The Master.

Col. 3:17 And everything
that you might ever do in word or deed,
do it all
in the Name of The Master, YAHUSHUA,
giving thanks to YAHWEH,
even The Father,
because of Him.

Col. 3:18 Wives,
be subordinate to your own husbands,
as is fitting in The Master!

Subordinate - lower in rank.
It does not mean blind obedience.
It means to respect his authority,
which has been given to him
by YAHWEH Himself.

Col. 3:19 Husbands, love the wife
and do not be bitter toward her!
angry, resentful, harsh, unpleasant, etc.

Col. 3:20 Children,
listen attentively to your parents
in everything
because this is well pleasing to YAHWEH.

Pay attention to what they ask you or tell you,
and do not rebel against them.

Col. 3:21 Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger
lest they become discouraged.

Col. 3:22 Hired servants,
listen attentively in all things
to your masters according to the flesh,
not with service that needs watching
like "men-pleasers",
but rather in sincerity of heart,
revering YAHWEH.

Col. 3:23 And if you do anything at all,
work with your whole life as unto The Master
and not as unto human beings,
Col. 3:24 understanding that from The Master
you will receive the reward of the inheritance.

Indeed, you serve The Master, The Messiah,
as a servant.

Col. 3:25 Now he who is doing wrong
will be taken care of for what he has done.
And there is no favoritism.

Chapter 4

Col. 4:1 Masters, give your hired slaves
what is just and fair, understanding that you also have a Master in The Heaven.

Col. 4:2 Persevere in prayer,
keeping alert in it with thanksgiving,
Col. 4:3 at the same time
praying also concerning us
in order that YAHWEH might open to us
an entrance for the word
to speak the mystery of The Messiah,
because of which I am even in chains,
Col. 4:4 in order that I might make it clearly known
as I ought to speak.

Col. 4:5 Walk with wisdom
toward those outside,
redeeming the time,
Col. 4:6 your speech being always
according to favor,
being seasoned with salt,
understanding how you ought to respond to each one.

[Salt is a preservative.
It's also a symbol of the bond of a covenant,
preserving it forever.](#)

Col. 4:7 Tychicus, a beloved brother,
a reliable servant,
and fellow slave in The Master,
will tell you everything concerning me.

Tychicus means fortunate.

Col. 4:8 I am sending him to you
for this very purpose,
that he might know your circumstances
and comfort your hearts,
Col. 4:9 together with Onesimus,
a trustworthy and beloved brother,
who is from among you.

They will make known to you everything that is here.

Onesimus means profitable.

Col. 4:10 Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner,
greet you,
together with Mark, the cousin of Bar Nabas,
about whom you have received instructions.
If he comes to you, welcome him,

Aristarchus means best ruler.

Mark means a defence.

Bar Nabas means son of consolation.

Col. 4:11 and Yahoshua who is called Justus.
These are the only fellow workers
for The Kingdom of YAHWEH
from the circumcision
who have come along side of me.

[This is the second of three places
in which "Jesus"
is substituted for "Joshua"](#)

- correctly, Yahoshua.
It is a gross error in translation!
And is directly related to the perversion of YAHUSHUA,
the personal Name of The Messiah.
See Acts 7.45, Heb. 4.8.

Col. 4:12 Epaphras, who is from among you,
a slave of The Messiah, greets you,
always struggling on your behalf in prayers,
in order that you might stand mature and complete
in every desire of YAHWEH.

Col. 4:13 Indeed, I bear him witness that he has a great zeal on behalf of you,
and those in Laodicea,
and those in Hierapolis.

Hierapolis means temple city.

Col. 4:14 Luke, the beloved physician,
and Demas greet you.

Luke is Greek for Lucan,
which means a light.
Demas means popular.

Col. 4:15 Greet the brothers
who are in Laodicea,
and Nymphas and the assembly
that is in his house.

Nymphas means bridal.

Col. 4:16 And when this letter
has been read among you,
work in order that it might be read also in the assembly of the Laodiceans,
and that you likewise might read
the letter from Laodicea.

Col. 4:17 And say to Archippus,
"Watch over the ministry
which you have received in The Master,
in order that you might fulfill it."

Archippus means horse chief.

Col. 4:18 This salutation
by my own hand, Sha'ul.
Remember my chains.
Favor be with you.
Amen.

14. 1 THESSALONIANS

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

1Thess. 1:1 Sha'ul, Silvanus, and Timothy,
to the assembly of the Thessalonians,
in YAHWEH The Father
and The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Sha'ul means requested.
Silvanus means woody.
Timothy means honoring YAHWEH.
Thessalonians means victory over lies.

Favor to you and well being
from YAHWEH, our Father,
and The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

1Thess. 1:2 We are grateful to YAHWEH always
concerning all of you,
making mention of you in our prayers,

1Thess. 1:3 remembering without ceasing
your work of faith,
labor of love,
and patience of anticipation
for our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
in the presence of YAHWEH, even our Father,

1Thess. 1:4 understanding, beloved brothers,
your election by YAHWEH.

1Thess. 1:5 Indeed, our good news has not come to you in word only,
but also in miraculous power, and in
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
and in much confidence,
just as you understand
what we have been among you for your sake.

The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
is the New Nature
that now dwells in everyone
who is trusting fully in YAHWEH.

1Thess. 1:6 And you have become imitators
of us and of The Master,
having accepted the word
through much trouble, with the joy
of The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH,

1Thess. 1:7 so that you have become examples
to everyone in Macedonia and Achaia
who are trusting.

Macedonia means tall.
Achaia means wailing.

1Thess. 1:8 Indeed, from you
the word of The Master has resounded,
not only in Macedonia and Achaia,
but also in every place your faith
concerning YAHWEH has gone out
so that we do not need to say anything.

1Thess. 1:9 Indeed, they themselves declare concerning us
what manner of entrance we had among you,
and how you converted to YAHWEH from idols
to serve The Living and True Elohim,

1Thess. 1:10 and are awaiting
His Son from The Heavens,
Whom He has raised up from being dead,
YAHUSHUA, Who is delivering us
from the wrath which is coming.

Chapter 2

1Thess. 2:1 Indeed, you yourselves understand, brothers,
that our coming in to you
did not happen in vain,

1Thess. 2:2 but on the contrary,
even having already experienced hardship,
and having been violently treated at Philippi,
even as you understand,
we were bold through our Elohim
to speak to you the good news of YAHWEH
amidst much anxiety.

1Thess. 2:3 Indeed, our encouragement was not from deceit,
nor impurity,
nor by trickery,

1Thess. 2:4 but rather, just as we were tested by YAHWEH,
having trusted in the good news,
in this manner we speak,
not as pleasing human beings,
but rather YAHWEH, Who tests our hearts.

1Thess. 2:5 Indeed, not at any time
have we come with flattering words,
just as you understand,
nor with a pretext of greed.
YAHWEH is a witness.

1Thess. 2:6 Nor were we seeking praise
from human beings,
either from you or from others,
having been able to be a burden
as ambassadors of The Messiah.

1Thess. 2:7 On the contrary,
we became kind in your midst,
just as a nurse
might brood over her own children.

1Thess. 2:8 In this manner,
affectionately longing for you,
we were well pleased to impart to you
not only the good news of YAHWEH,
but also our own lives
because you had become beloved by us.

1Thess. 2:9 Indeed, you remember, brothers,
our labor and toil.

Indeed, laboring night and day
that we might not be a burden to any of you,
we proclaimed to you
the good news of YAHWEH.

1Thess. 2:10 You are witnesses,
and so is YAHWEH,
how devoutly, and justly, and blamelessly
we became toward you who are trusting.

1Thess. 2:11 You understand exactly how we urged,
and encouraged,

and bore witness to every one of you,
even as a father to his own children,

1Thess. 2:12 to be walking
as is fitting for YAHWEH,

Who is calling you into His own kingdom and magnificence.

1Thess. 2:13 For this reason
we also thank YAHWEH without ceasing that having received the word of YAHWEH
which you heard from us
you accepted it, not as the word of humans,
but as it is in truth, the word of YAHWEH,
which also effectively works
in you who are trusting.

You'll notice that the verb tenses
relating to this are present active tense.
This indicates a current action
that is also on going.

You either are trusting,
and thus having faith or believing,
or you are not.
If you are not then you are not "saved".

1Thess. 2:14 Indeed, brothers,
you have become imitators
of the assemblies of YAHWEH
which are in Yahudah
in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
because you also have suffered the same things
from your own countrymen,
just as they also did from the Yahudeans,

1Thess. 2:15 who killed both
The Master, YAHUSHUA,
and their own prophets,
and have persecuted us.

And they are not pleasing to YAHWEH
and are antagonistic to all human beings,
ekdioko – to pursue out;
expel, or persecute without ceasing.

1Thess. 2:16 preventing us
from speaking to the Gentiles
in order that they might be delivered,
multiplying their offenses at all times.
Indeed, the wrath is coming upon them
to the uttermost.

1Thess. 2:17 Now we, brothers,

having been separated from you
for a short time,
in presence, not in heart,
endeavored more eagerly to see your face
with great desire.
1Thess. 2:18 Therefore,
we wanted to come to you,
even I, Sha'ul, time and again,
but The Adversary detained us.

1Thess. 2:19 Indeed, what is our hope, or joy,
or crown of boasting?
Is it not even you in the presence of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, at His coming?
1Thess. 2:20 Indeed, you are our praise and joy.

Chapter 3

1Thess. 3:1 Therefore, being no longer able to endure it,
we thought it good to be left in Athens alone

Athens means uncertainty.

1Thess. 3:2 and sent Timothy, our brother and servant of YAHWEH,
and our fellow laborer
in the good news of The Messiah,
to establish you and to encourage you concerning your faith,

*Faith, belief, and trust
are all terms used to translate
a single Greek word.
They are virtually equivalent.*

1Thess. 3:3 in order that no one might be shaken by these troubles.

Indeed, you yourselves understand that we are appointed to this.

1Thess. 3:4 And even when we were among you
we told you beforehand
that we would be afflicted,
just as it has happened,
and just as you understand.

1Thess. 3:5 Because of this,
when I could no longer endure it,
I sent to know for certain your trust
lest somehow the tempter had tempted you,
and our labor had become meaningless.

1Thess. 3:6 But now that Timothy has come to us from you and brought us good news
concerning your trust and love,
and that you always have good memories of us,
greatly desiring to see us
as we also do to see you,

1Thess. 3:7 because of this, brothers,
we were encouraged concerning you amidst all our trouble and distress,
by your trust,

1Thess. 3:8 so that now we live,
provided that you stand fast in YAHWEH.

1Thess. 3:9 Indeed, what gratitude
we render to YAHWEH concerning you amidst all the joy
with which we are rejoicing because of you
in the presence of our Elohim,

1Thess. 3:10 night and day
begging most excessively to see your face
and to complete thoroughly
what is missing in your trusting.

1Thess. 3:11 Now may our Elohim and Father Himself,
and our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
straighten our path to you.

The concept of a "straight path"

is a very Hebraic concept.
For them, it was used to refer to preparing the way
for The Messiah to come.
It involved not only "straightening",
but removing obstacles
and leveling the road to make it smooth.

1Thess. 3:12 And may The Master
make you increase and abound in love toward one another and to all,
even exactly as we do toward you,
1Thess. 3:13 so that He may establish your hearts blameless in devotion
in the presence of our Elohim,
even our Father, at the coming of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
amidst all His set apart ones.
parousia – a being near; advent; return.

Chapter 4

1Thess. 4:1 Finally then, we ask you, brothers,
and encourage you in The Master, YAHUSHUA,
that just as you have received from us
the manner in which you ought to be walking and to be pleasing YAHWEH
you might abound more and more.

1Thess. 4:2 Indeed, you understand what mandates we have given to you
through The Master, YAHUSHUA.

1Thess. 4:3 Indeed, this is the will of YAHWEH, Your Purifier,
abstain from sexual immorality.
porneias – from which comes pornography.

1Thess. 4:4 Each one of you is to understand how to be keeping his own vessel
in purity and dignity,
4:5 not in passionate longing like the Gentiles who do not acknowledge YAHWEH.

1Thess. 4:6 No one is to take advantage of or defraud his brother in this matter,
because YAHWEH is the punisher of all such,
just as we also forewarned you and testified.

1Thess. 4:7 Indeed, YAHWEH has not called us
for the sake of impurity,
but on the contrary into purity.
Purity, cleanness, is extremely important in the Hebrew culture.
To be unclean or impure is to be defiled.
That would prevent you
from being part of Temple worship,
or being in the presence of YAHWEH.

1Thess. 4:8 Truly then, one who is rejecting this is not rejecting a human being,
but rather YAHWEH,
Who even gives to us
His Set Apart Divine Nature.

1Thess. 4:9 Now concerning brotherly love
you have no need for me to write to you.
Indeed, you yourselves
have been divinely instructed to love one another.
1Thess. 4:10 And indeed, you are doing so toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia.
Now we encourage you, brothers,
that you abound more and more,
1Thess. 4:11 and that you also aspire to be quiet,
to accomplish your own affairs,
and work with your own hands
as we instructed you,

1Thess. 4:12 in order that you might walk properly among those who are outside, and that you might lack nothing.

1Thess. 4:13 Now I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have died in order that you are not sad like the others who have no hope.

1Thess. 4:14 Indeed, if we trust that YAHUSHUA has died and has been raised up, in this same way YAHWEH will also bring with Him those who have died for the sake of YAHUSHUA.

1Thess. 4:15 Indeed, this we say to you by the word of YAHWEH, that we who are alive, surviving until the coming of The Master, by no means will precede those who are dead,

1Thess. 4:16 because The Master Himself will descend from The Heaven with a shout, with the sound of a Chief YAH-Messenger, and with the trumpet of YAHWEH.

And the dead in The Messiah will be raised up first.

There are no 'angels' in Hebrew thought.
It is strictly a Greek term meaning messenger.
A YAH-Messenger is one sent by YAHWEH.

1Thess. 4:17 After that, we who are alive and surviving will be seized at the same time, together with them, into the clouds to meet The Master in the air. And thus we will always be with The Master.

harpazo - to seize.
From a word that means to take for oneself; to prefer or choose.

Look carefully at the context.
The timing of this activity is crucial to one's understanding of what it means.

The dead are raised up, and as soon as that happens any living believers are grabbed, along with them, to meet YAHUSHUA in the air.
This is at the second coming of The Messiah - not before it.

This means THERE IS NO 'RAPTURE'!
That teaching is FALSE!

1Thess. 4:18 Therefore, encourage one another with these words.

Chapter 5

1Thess. 5:1 Now, concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no requirement that I write to you, 1Thess. 5:2 because you yourselves understand exactly that The Day of YAHWEH comes like a thief in the night.

1Thess. 5:3 Indeed, when they say, "Peace and security!", at that time unexpected destruction is coming upon them, exactly like labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they will not escape!

1Thess. 5:4 But you, brothers,
are not in darkness,
so that this day might seize you
as if you are a thief.

1Thess. 5:5 You all are sons of light
and sons of the day.
We are not of the night nor of darkness.

1Thess. 5:6 Therefore,
we are not to sleep like the rest,
but instead,

we are to keep alert and be sober

1Thess. 5:7 because those who sleep
sleep at night,
and those who get drunk are drunk at night.

1Thess. 5:8 But we who are of the day
are to be sober,
putting on the breastplate of trust and love,
and as a helmet, the anticipation of deliverance,

1Thess. 5:9 because YAHWEH
has not appointed us to wrath,
but rather for the acquisition of deliverance
through our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,

1Thess. 5:10 Who has died for us
in order that whether we keep alert or sleep,
we might live together with Him.

1Thess. 5:11 Consequently,
encourage one another and build up one another
just as you also are doing.

1Thess. 5:12 Now we ask you, brothers, to consider those who are working hard among you,
and presiding over you in The Master,
and are warning you,

1Thess. 5:13 even to regard them
very highly in love
because of their work.

Be at peace among yourselves!

1Thess. 5:14 Now we encourage you, brothers.
Warn those who are unruly.
Encourage the fainthearted.
Support the weak.

Be patient with everyone.

1Thess. 5:15 See that no one gives harm for harm to anyone,
but on the other hand,
always pursue that which is good,
both for yourselves and for everyone.

This verse normally is rendered 'evil for evil'.

*The concept of evil in Hebrew thought has to do with anything that is 'bad', that causes damage or destruction
to something or someone.*

Harm is just as 'evil' as total destruction.

Evil is not merely something that is horrible or awful.

1Thess. 5:16 Rejoice always!

1Thess. 5:17 Pray constantly!

1Thess. 5:18 In everything be grateful
because this is the will of YAHWEH
in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, concerning you.

1Thess. 5:19 Do not extinguish
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH!

1Thess. 5:20 Do not make utterly nothing of prophecies!

1Thess. 5:21 Test everything!
Hold fast what is good!

1Thess. 5:22 Refrain from every form of harm!

1Thess. 5:23 Now may The Elohim
of well being Himself
purify you absolutely perfectly,
and may your entire nature,
and life breath,
and body
be protected faultlessly
until the coming of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

The typical terms used cause confusion.
Those given here provide a more clear insight into what's intended.
You do not have a spirit or a soul.

Both are Greek inventions
and do not occur in Hebrew thought.

The nature is your character, your essence.
The life breath is that which was breathed into Adam, giving him life.

1Thess. 5:24 He Who calls you is trustworthy
Who will even do this!

1Thess. 5:25 Brothers, pray for us.

1Thess. 5:26 Greet all the brothers
with a sacred kiss.

1Thess. 5:27 I solemnly charge you by The Master
that this epistle be read
to all the set apart ones, brothers.

1Thess. 5:28 The favor of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
be with you.
Amen.

15. 2 Thessalonians

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

2Thess. 1:1 Sha'ul, Silvanus, and Timothy,
to the assembly of the Thessalonians
in YAHWEH, our Father,
and The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Sha'ul means requested.
Silvanus means woody.
Timothy means honoring YAHWEH.
Thessalonians means victory over lies.

2Thess. 1:2 Favor to you and well being
from YAHWEH, our Father,
and from The Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

2Thess. 1:3 We are obligated to be grateful to YAHWEH always concerning you, brothers,
just as it is deserving,
because your trust is increasing exceedingly,
and the love of each one of you
toward one another is increasing.

2Thess. 1:4 Therefore, we ourselves
also are boasting about you
among the assemblies of YAHWEH, concerning your endurance and trust
amidst all your persecutions and troubles
that you put up with,

2Thess. 1:5 an indication of YAHWEH's right decision, to the end that you might be deemed entirely deserving of The Kingdom of YAHWEH
for which you also are suffering.

2Thess. 1:6 Perhaps it is just with YAHWEH
to repay with trouble
those who are troubling you, 2Thess. 1:7 and to repay you who are being troubled with relief among us at the revelation
of The Master, YAHUSHUA, from The Heaven
with His mighty messengers, 2Thess. 1:8 in blazing fire delivering retribution
upon those who do not recognize YAHWEH,
and upon those who are not paying attention
to the good news of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

2Thess. 1:9 These will pay the price of justice
by means of eternal destruction away from the presence of YAHWEH
and away from the magnificence of His might 2Thess. 1:10 when He comes,
being honored by His set apart ones
and being marveled at by all those who are trusting at that time,
because our testimony concerning Him
has been believed.

2Thess. 1:11 In this we also pray
at all times for you
in order that you might be deserving of the calling of our Elohim,
and might fill up all the delight of His goodness
and the work of trust with miraculous power, 2Thess. 1:12 so that the Name of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
might have been honored by you,
and you by Him
according to the favor of our Elohim,
and of the Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Chapter 2

2Thess. 2:1 We ask you now, brothers,
concerning the coming of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
and our complete gathering to Him,
2Thess. 2:2 not to be soon disturbed in the mind
nor frightened,
either by a nature,
nor by a message,
nor by a letter as if from us,
as though the day of The Messiah is at hand.

2Thess. 2:3 Not even one of you is to be deceived by any means,
because that day will not come unless the falling away comes first,
and The Man of Offense has been revealed,
The Son of Destruction,

Note the reference to DECEPTION.
We are warned that deception
will be the first thing to come.
Then there will be a "falling away - apostasy."

This must happen
before the next step takes place.

apostasias – defection from truth; apostasy.
– falling away, forsake.

Please note: One must believe in something before one can fall away from it.

There's no guarantee in Scripture that once you trust The Messiah
you can't "lose your salvation".
Man of Offense and The Son of Destruction
are the same person.

The falling away happens first,
perhaps along with the revelation
of The Man of Offense
(Literally - human being of offense.)

The Man of Offense is a reference to the one referred to as "The Antichrist".

Note the contrasting
of The Son of Destruction
to that of The Son of Man.

apoleia – ruin or loss; destruction.
Sometimes translated
as "perdition" or "damnation".
See. Rev. 9.11 and note the connection.

This passage makes it very clear that these things must occur
before "that day",
meaning The Day of YAHWEH.

2Thess. 2:4 the one who is opposing and exalting himself above everything that is identified as a god
or that is an object of worship,
so that he, in the manner of YAHWEH,
is sitting in The Temple of YAHWEH
as YAHWEH,
exhibiting himself as YAHWEH.

In order for this to occur
The Temple of YAHWEH must be rebuilt.
He cannot sit in what is not there.

2Thess. 2:5 Do you not remember that being yet with you
I told you these things?
2Thess. 2:6 And now you understand
Who is restraining him
in order that he might be revealed
in his own set time.
2Thess. 2:7 Indeed, the mystery of lawlessness
is already active.
Only He is restraining it until it becomes absent from the midst.
"it" is 'the mystery of lawlessness.'

2Thess. 2:8 And then "The Lawless One"
will be revealed,
whom YAHWEH will consume
with the breath of His mouth,
and will render entirely useless
by the appearance of His presence; 2Thess. 2:9 whose coming is according to the operation of The Adversary,
by every force,
and by signs,
and by lying wonders,
2Thess. 2:10 and with every delusion of injustice
among those who are being totally destroyed
because they did not accept the love of The Truth
in order that they might have been delivered.

sothenai - save, maintain, preserve.
To be saved is to be removed from harm.
"Being saved" has become so abused within religious contexts
that it's lost its real meaning.

2Thess. 2:11 And for this reason YAHWEH will send them effective deception
so that they believe The Lie 2Thess. 2:12 in order that everyone might be condemned
who does not trust In The Truth,
but instead has pleasure in injustice.

2Thess. 2:13 However, we are obligated
to give thanks to YAHWEH

always for you, brothers,
beloved of The Master,
because YAHWEH, from the beginning,
has chosen you for deliverance
through purification
of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
and through true faith, 2Thess. 2:14 into which He has called you through our good news
in order to obtain honor from our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

2Thess. 2:15 Truly therefore, brothers, stand fast!
And hold on to the precepts
which you were taught,
whether by speech or by our letter.

2Thess. 2:16 Now may our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah Himself,
and our Elohim and Father,
Who has loved us
and has given eternal encouragement
and a good hope through showing favor, 2:17 encourage your hearts
and establish you
in every good word and work.

Chapter 3

2Thess. 3:1 Finally, brothers, pray for us
in order that the word of YAHWEH
may move swiftly and be honored,
even as it is with you,
2Thess. 3:2 and that we might be delivered from unreasonable and bad human beings, because everyone is not of the faith.

2Thess. 3:3 But YAHWEH is trustworthy,
Who will establish you
and protect you from the evil.

2Thess. 3:4 Moreover,
we have been assured by YAHWEH
concerning you that you are both doing
and will be doing the things we urge you.
2Thess. 3:5 Now may YAHWEH direct your hearts
into the love of YAHWEH
and into the endurance of The Messiah.

2Thess. 3:6 However, we urge you, brothers,
in the Name of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
to withdraw yourselves from every brother
who is walking disorderly
and not according to the precepts
which were received from us.

2Thess. 3:7 Indeed, you yourselves understand how you need to imitate us because we ourselves
were not disorderly among you.
2Thess. 3:8 Neither did we eat anyone's food
free of charge, but instead labored with grief and difficulty night and day
that we might not be a burden to any of you;
2Thess. 3:9 not because we do not have authority,
but to make ourselves an example
for you to imitate.

2Thess. 3:10 Indeed, even when we were with you
we instructed you in this,
that if anyone will not work
neither should he eat.

2Thess. 3:11 Indeed, we hear some are walking among you

in a disorderly manner,
not working at all, but instead are meddling.
2Thess. 3:12 Now those who are such we order and encourage
through our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
that they work without meddling
and eat their own food.

2Thess. 3:13 But you, brothers,
do not become weary doing good.

2Thess. 3:14 Indeed, if anyone does not submit to our word in this letter,
identify that person,
and do not associate with him,
in order that he might be put to shame.
2Thess. 3:15 But do not consider him
as an enemy.
But instead, reprove him gently,
as a brother.

2Thess. 3:16 Now may The Master
of well being Himself
give you well being in all things in every way.
The Master be with you all.

2Thess. 3:17 The salutation of Sha'ul
with my own hand,
which is a sign in every letter.
In this manner I write.

2Thess. 3:18 The favor of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
be with you all.
Amen.

16. 1 TIMOTHY

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

1Tim. 1:1 Sha'ul, an ambassador
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
by the decree of YAHWEH,
our Deliverer,
and The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
our hope,

Sha'ul means requested.

1Tim. 1:2 to Timothy, a genuine child by faith.
Favor, compassion, well being
from YAHWEH, our Father,
and YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, our Master.

Timothy means honoring YAHWEH.

1Tim. 1:3 Just as I have encouraged you,
remain in Ephesus,
having gone into Macedonia,
in order that you might charge some
to teach no differently,

Ephesus means full purposed.

Macedonia means tall.

1Tim. 1:4 nor to pay attention to myths
and endless genealogies
which cause disputes
rather than to YAHWEH's stewardship
which is by faith.

*oikonomia - administration (of a household or estate);
specifically, a (religious) economy.
A steward of YAHWEH
looks after His affairs with diligence.*

1Tim. 1:5 Now the goal of the charge
is love from a pure heart,
a good conscience, and sincere trust, 1Tim. 1:6 from which some,
having deviated from truth,
have turned aside to idle talk, 1Tim. 1:7 desiring to be Rabbis,
not thinking concerning either
what they are saying
nor what they affirm.

1Tim. 1:8 But we recognize that The Torah is good
if one uses it legitimately, 1Tim. 1:9 understanding this,
that The Torah is not laid down
for a just person,
but for the lawless and insubordinate,
for the irreverent offenders,
for the incorrect and profane,
for patricide and matricide,
for murderers,

Offenders are those who rebel against the teachings of YAHWEH,
commonly known as The Torah.
This causes an offense against YAHWEH.
It's traditionally called 'sin'.

1Tim. 1:10 for male prostitutes,
for homosexuals,
for kidnappers,
for liars,
for perjurers,
and whatever else is opposed to sound instruction 1Tim. 1:11 according to the magnificent good news of the supremely blessed YAHWEH
with which I have been entrusted.

1Tim. 1:12 And I have gratitude to the One Who has empowered me,
The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, our Master,
because He considered me faithful,
putting into service 1Tim. 1:13 one who was previously a blasphemer,
a persecutor,
and an insulter.

However, I obtained compassion
because I did it ignorantly in disbelief.

1Tim. 1:14 Now the favor of our Master has superabounded with trust and love
which are in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

1Tim. 1:15 It is a faithful saying and deserving of every acceptance,
that The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
has come into the world to deliver offenders,
of whom I am chief.

1Tim. 1:16 However, because of this I was shown compassion,
in order that in me first
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
might exhibit every patient restraint
for the sake of a pattern
to those who are going to trust in Him
for the sake of Eternal Life.

1Tim. 1:17 Now to the Sovereign, eternal,
immortal,
invisible,
to YAHWEH, Who alone is wise,
be honor and splendor forever and ever.
Amen.

1Tim. 1:18 This charge I set before you, son Timothy,
according to the prophecies
previously made concerning you,
in order that by them
you might wage the good warfare, 1Tim. 1:19 having trust and a good conscience,
by which some,
having rejected things concerning the faith,
have suffered shipwreck;
1Tim. 1:20 of whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have delivered to The Adversary
in order that they might be disciplined
not to blaspheme.

Hymenaeus means a wedding song.
Alexander means man defender.

Chapter 2

1Tim. 2:1 Therefore, I encourage first of all that petitions, prayers, intercessions,
and gratitude be made for the sake of all human beings, 1Tim. 2:2 for the sake of rulers
and anyone being in prominence,
in order that we might live
a tranquil and undisturbed life
amidst all reverence and honesty.

1Tim. 2:3 Indeed, this is good and acceptable
in the sight of YAHWEH, our Deliverer, 1Tim. 2:4 Who desires all persons to be delivered
and to come into the recognition of the truth.

1Tim. 2:5 Indeed, there is one Elohim and one Mediator for YAHWEH
and for human beings,
a human being, The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, 1Tim. 2:6 Who gave Himself as a ransom
for the sake of everyone,
the evidence in its own time, 1Tim. 2:7 into which I have been placed
as a proclaimer and an ambassador,
(I am speaking the truth in The Messiah.
I am not lying.)
a teacher of the Gentiles in trust and truth.

1Tim. 2:8 Therefore, I desire that the men pray in every place,
lifting up consecrated hands,
separated from desire and debate.

1Tim. 2:9 In like manner also that the women adorn themselves
in modest apparel,
with modesty and self control,
not with braided hair, or gold,
or pearls, or costly clothing, 1Tim. 2:10 but rather by means of good works
which is proper for women asserting devotion.

1Tim. 2:11 A woman is to learn in calmness
with all subordination!

Be careful here.
While this is often translated
as "silence" and "subjection",
the terms are not oriented that way.

Stillness is traditionally used here.
It means calm and quiet, not silence.

The term used for subjection
really means to recognize one's rank.
It's a military term.
It is not intended to make a woman
less than a person of value.

1Tim. 2:12 Now I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man, but instead, to be in calmness.

1Tim. 2:13 Indeed, Adam was formed first, then Eve.

Adam means man; red earth.
He was made from dust,
so perhaps he is "man of red earth".
Eve (Chavvah) means life giver.

1Tim. 2:14 And Adam was not deceived. But the woman, having been deceived, came into violation.

Take special note of this.
It's often missed.

Adam was not misled
in what he was doing.
Eve was, however.

Many do not like
what Sha'ul teaches here.
Yet it is the truth.

Eve was the first one to become deceived
and to enter into a violation of the instruction of The Elohim, YAHWEH.

This is called rebellion.
It's what defines "sin".

Adam then joined her
in this act of rebellion,
so it became "sin" for Adam as well.

1Tim. 2:15 But they will be delivered through the duties of parenting if they remain in faith, love, and purity, with self-control.

It may surprise you to consider that each one of us is redeemed
when we remain within these boundaries.

Even men are constrained
by these requirements.

Note also the qualification of the phrase
"if they remain in faith."
This affirms the reality
that one can choose to not remain in faith.
That act is "apostasy".

Chapter 3

1Tim. 3:1 This saying is trustworthy. If anyone reaches to attain the position of a superintendent he desires a good work.

1Tim. 3:2 A superintendent then must be above reproach, a husband of one woman, without intoxicants, of sound mind, of good behavior, hospitable, able to teach,

The concept is that
of what we would call a "pastor",
the leader of an assembly.
It is not what one
would normally consider a "bishop".
That "traditional term"
is very misleading.

1Tim. 3:3 not given to wine,
not violent,
not greedy for money,
but instead, considerate,
peaceable,
not covetous,

1Tim. 3:4 managing his own house well,
having his children in submission

with all honesty, 1Tim. 3:5 (Now if one does not understand how to preside over his own house
how will he take care of the assembly of YAHWEH?) 1Tim. 3:6 not a novice, lest being conceited he might fall into the same condemnation as The False Accuser
diabolos - a traducer (slanderer).
A traducer is a false accuser.

Selfishness is the sin of Lucifer
(also known as hasatan - the adversary).
Selfishness is at the top of the list
for trouble for a believer.

1Tim. 3:7 Moreover, he must have a good testimony of those outside,
lest he fall into reproach
and the snare of The False Accuser.

1Tim. 3:8 Likewise, deacons must be honest,
not equivocal,
not about much wine,
not greedy for money,
A deacon is the same as an "elder",
or one that is to have wisdom enough
to help handle the affairs of an assembly.
We easily get confused
because of the current usages
given to this term.

1Tim. 3:9 holding the mystery of the faith
with a pure conscience.

1Tim. 3:10 Now these also are first to be tested!
Then let them serve as deacons,
being without reproach.

1Tim. 3:11 In the same manner
their wives must be honest,
not slanderers,
without intoxicants,
faithful in all things.

1Tim. 3:12 Deacons are to be the husbands of one woman,
presiding over their children
and their own houses well.
These qualification of the leaders of YAHWEH's assemblies are often ignored
or seriously compromised in today's world.
This is not right.

1Tim. 3:13 Indeed,
those having served well as deacons
obtain for themselves a good standing and great boldness by means of trust
which is in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

1Tim. 3:14 These things I write to you,
hoping to come to you soon.
1Tim. 3:15 But if I might be delayed
I write in order that you might understand how you ought to conduct yourself
in the house of YAHWEH,
which is the assembly of The Living Elohim,
the pillar and ground of The Truth.

1Tim. 3:16 And without controversy, great is the mystery
of deep devotion to YAHWEH.

The Elohim
has been rendered apparent in flesh,
rendered just in Divine Nature,
gazed upon by YAH-Messengers,
proclaimed by Gentiles,

believed on in the world,
taken up into honor.

Note what this says.
The Elohim (God)...
This was done in the person
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.
YAH-messengers are traditionally translated as 'angels'.
Both the Hebrew and Greek terms
identify them as messengers,
deputies or ambassadors sent by another.

Chapter 4

1Tim. 4:1 Now The Divine Nature of YAHWEH distinctly says that in latter times
some will desert the faith,
paying attention to deceitful natures,
even teachings about unclean natures,

Unclean natures
is traditionally translated as "Demons".
This is a Greek creation
used to attempt to translate the Hebrew understanding of an unclean, impure, or defiled nature.
These are entities connected to Lucifer and those who were cast out of The Heaven with him
because of their rebellion against YAHWEH.

The Hebrew term literally means
"bad (harmful) breath" or wind.

There is no "spirit" in Hebrew thought.
The breath is considered to be "The wind of man",
and represents his character, or "nature".
It is basically the mental and emotional state of the person.

1Tim. 4:2 speaking lies with hypocrisy, having their own conscience
seared with a hot iron,

kauteriazō – to brand; cauterize;
render insensitive.

1Tim. 4:3 preventing one to marry,
abstaining from foods which YAHWEH
has created for participation with thanksgiving
by those who have faith
and recognize the truth,

1Tim. 4:4 because everything
created by YAHWEH is good,
and not even one thing is to be rejected
when being received with thanksgiving.

Note: In today's world there are many things that are not created by YAHWEH.
They are the perversions
and distortions of His Creation (GMO foods, hybrids, robots, etc.) which cannot be safely treated in the same manner as His creations.

1Tim. 4:5 Indeed, it is sanctified by means of the word of YAHWEH and prayer.

1Tim. 4:6 If you remind the brothers in these things
you will be a good servant
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
nurtured in the words of the faith
and of the good instruction
which you have closely followed.

1Tim. 4:7 Now what are profane
and old wives' fables, avoid!
But exercise yourself toward reverence.

1Tim. 4:8 Indeed, bodily exercise
is to a little advantage,
but reverence is advantageous for everything,
having a promise of the life that now is
and of that which is to come.

1Tim. 4:9 This is a faithful saying and deserving every acceptance.
1Tim. 4:10 Indeed, for the sake of this we both work hard and are reviled
because we have an expectation
in The Living Elohim
Who is a deliverer of all persons,
particularly believers.

4:11 These things urge and teach.

1Tim. 4:12 Let no one despise your youth,
but rather be an example to the faithful
by word,
by conduct,
by love,
by nature,
by trust,
by purity.

1Tim. 4:13 Until I come pay attention
to reading,
to encouragement,
to instruction.

This would be a great verse to read
as if it were being said
by The Messiah, YAHUSHUA Himself to each believer.

1Tim. 4:14 Do not disregard the gift that is in you
which has been given to you through a prophecy
with the laying on of the hands of the elders.

1Tim. 4:15 Meditate on these things!
Exist in them in order that your progress
may be evident to everyone!

1Tim. 4:16 Pay attention to yourself and to the Instruction!
Continue in them!
Indeed, in doing this
you will deliver both yourself
and those who are listening to you.

Chapter 5

1Tim. 5:1 Do not chastise an elder,
but instead, encourage him like a father.

Encourage younger men as brothers.

1Tim. 5:2 Encourage older women as mothers.

Encourage younger women as sisters,
with all purity.

1Tim. 5:3 Honor widows who are really widows.

1Tim. 5:4 Now if any widow has children or grandchildren,
let them first learn
to show respect in their own homes
and to give back to their parents.
Indeed, this is good and acceptable before YAHWEH.

1Tim. 5:5 Now she who is really a widow and left alone hopes in YAHWEH
and continues in petitions and prayers
night and day.

1Tim. 5:6 But she who lives in pleasure
is living only to die.

1Tim. 5:7 Also urge these things
in order that they might be without reproach.

1Tim. 5:8 Now if anyone
does not provide for his own,

and particularly those of his household,
he has rejected the faith
and is worse than a disbeliever.

1Tim. 5:9 A widow is not to be enrolled under sixty years old
having been the wife of one man, 1Tim. 5:10 testified of for good works;
if she has raised children,
if she has been hospitable,
if she has washed the feet
of the set apart ones,
if she has helped the afflicted,
if she has been accompanied by every good work.

1Tim. 5:11 But refuse younger widows.
Indeed, when they have become sensual against The Messiah
they desire to marry,

katastreniao - to become voluptuous against.
From a word meaning luxurious.
It is the idea of pleasure-seeking
in all aspects of life.
It's not merely a sexual term.

1Tim. 5:12 having condemnation,
because they have set aside
their primary trust.
1Tim. 5:13 Now at the same time
they also learn to be idle,
going around from house to house.
And not only idle,
but also gossips and busybodies,
saying things which they ought not.
1Tim. 5:14 Therefore,
I desire that younger ones marry,
bear children,
manage the house,
giving no opportunity to the adversary
to speak reproachfully.
1Tim. 5:15 Indeed, some have already turned aside after The Adversary.

1Tim. 5:16 If any believing man or woman
has widows they are to help them.
And the assembly is not to be burdened in order that it might help those who are really widows.

1Tim. 5:17 The elders who are presiding well
are to be deemed worthy of double honor, particularly those who work hard
in the word and instruction.

1Tim. 5:18 Indeed, The Scripture says,
*"You are not to muzzle an ox
while it treads out the grain,"*
(Deut. 25.4)

and,

"The laborer is worthy of his wages." (Matt. 10.10)

1Tim. 5:19 Do not accept an accusation against an elder except from two or three witnesses!

1Tim. 5:20 Those who are offending admonish in the presence of everyone
in order that the rest also have fear!

1Tim. 5:21 I charge you before YAHWEH
and The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
and the elect YAH-messengers
that you protect these things
without prejudice,
doing not even one thing
according to partiality!

1Tim. 5:22 Lay hands on not even one quickly!
Neither be a partaker in the offenses of others!
Keep yourself pure!

1Tim. 5:23 No longer drink only water,
but use a little wine for your stomach's sake
and your frequent infirmities.

1Tim. 5:24 Some person's offenses
are clearly evident,
going before them into judgment,
but some also follow after.

1Tim. 5:25 In the same way,
the good works are clearly evident,
and those that are otherwise
are not able to be hidden.

Chapter 6

1Tim. 6:1 Let as many slaves
as are under the yoke
consider their own masters deserving of all honor
so that the Name of YAHWEH
and His Instruction
may not be blasphemed!

1Tim. 6:2 And those having faithful masters,
do not despise them
because they are brothers,
but instead serve them even better
because they are faithful and beloved!

Teach and encourage these things!

1Tim. 6:3 If anyone is teaching differently
and does not approach with healthy words,
those of our Master,

YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
and The Instruction,
which is according to deep reverence,

1Tim. 6:4 he is arrogant,
comprehending nothing,
but instead is sick concerning questions
and disputes over words
out of which come envy,

quarreling, revilings, hurtful suspicions, 1Tim. 6:5 perverse arguments of human beings
with corrupt minds and destitute of the truth
who think procuring money is deep reverence.

Remove yourself from this sort!

1Tim. 6:6 Now devotion with contentment
is a great acquisition.

1Tim. 6:7 Indeed, we bring not even one thing into the world.
It is clear that we are not able to carry anything out.

1Tim. 6:8 Now having food and clothing,
with these we will be content.

1Tim. 6:9 But those who are desiring to become wealthy fall into testing and a trap,
even many unwise and harmful longings,
which sink human beings
into destruction and loss.

1Tim. 6:10 Indeed, the love of money is a root of every bad thing
which some, having coveted it,
have strayed away from the faith
and pierced themselves through with much grief.

1Tim. 6:11 But you, oh person of YAHWEH,
run away from these things

and pursue justification,
devotion,
trust,
love,
endurance,
gentleness.

1Tim. 6:12 Fight the good fight of trust!
Seize The Eternal Life
into which you have also been called and have acknowledged
the good acknowledgement
in the presence of many witnesses!

homologeō – to assent;
covenant, acknowledge.

The concept of covenant
is particularly appropriate to consider.
When you acknowledge your faith
you acknowledge that you have made a Covenant with YAHWEH!
Many translations use confession,
but that implies a crime,
not acceptance of freedom from all guilt
by means of The Messiah.

1Tim. 6:13 I urge you
in the presence of YAHWEH,
Who gives life to all things,
and The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
Who before Pontius Pilate testified
with the beautiful acknowledgement,

Pontius means of the sea.
Pilate means pressed close (like felt).

1Tim. 6:14 that you keep The Instruction
unblemished, blameless,
until the appearing of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,

epiphaneia – manifestation, advent.
The source for “epiphany”.

1Tim. 6:15 which in His own seasons
He will show,
the supremely blessed
and only powerful ruler,
the King of kings,
and Master of masters;

The context is crucial!
The reference is to YAHWEH,
not to The Messiah!
Sha'ul, in verse 13, sets the context.
This statement is made
“in the presence of YAHWEH”,
and thus refers to Him.

If it does not,
then the rest of this statement is wrong.
The Messiah has been seen.
Only The Father, YAHWEH,
has never been seen,
nor is able to be seen,
by a human being! V.16

1Tim. 6:16 Who alone holds immortality,
dwelling in inaccessible light.
Whom not even one human being has seen
nor is able to see.
To Whom be honor and power forever.
Amen.

1Tim. 6:17 Urge those who are wealthy in this world
not to be arrogant,
nor to have confidence over uncertain wealth,
but rather in The Living Elohim,
Who provides us all things abundantly
for the sake of full enjoyment.

1Tim. 6:18 Urge them to be doing good,
being wealthy in good works,

willing to share,
being generous,
1Tim. 6:19 storing up for themselves
a good foundation
for the sake of what's coming in order that they might seize Eternal Life.

1Tim. 6:20 Indeed, Timothy,
protect what has been committed to your trust,
avoiding the profane idle babblings
and contradictions
of what is falsely called knowledge!
1Tim. 6:21 By professing it
some have missed the mark
of the truth in regard to the faith.

This is a classic Hebrew idea related to "offenses"
- missing the mark/target/goal,
straying off the pathway
given by YAHWEH to His people.

Favor be with you!
Amen.

17. 2 TIMOTHY

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

2Tim. 1:1 Sha'ul, an ambassador
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
by the determination of YAHWEH,
according to the promise of Eternal Life
which is in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, 2Tim. 1:2 to Timothy, a beloved son.
Favor, compassion, well being
from YAHWEH, The Father,
and The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, our Master.

2Tim. 1:3 I have gratitude toward YAHWEH,
Whom, as my ancestors,
I have served with a clean conscience,
holding continual remembrance of you
in my petitions night and day;
2Tim. 1:4 earnestly desiring to see you,
being mindful of your tears,
in order that I might be filled with joy, 2Tim. 1:5 calling to remembrance
the genuine trust that is in you which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois
and your mother Eunice.
And I am convinced it is in you also.

Lois means not a standard bearer.
Eunice means happy victory.

2Tim. 1:6 For this cause I remind you to rekindle the gift of YAHWEH
which is in you
through the laying on of my hands.

2Tim. 1:7 Indeed, YAHWEH has not given us a nature of timidity,
but rather of miraculous power,
and of love,
and of self control.

2Tim. 1:8 Therefore, do not be ashamed of the witness given concerning our Master,
nor of me, His prisoner.
Instead, share with me in the hardships
for the sake of the good news
in accordance with
the miraculous power of YAHWEH.

2Tim. 1:9 He is delivering us

and inviting us with a sacred invitation,
not according to our works,
but rather according to His own purpose and favor
which has been given to us
through The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
before time eternal.

2Tim. 1:10 And now
it has been rendered apparent
by the revelation of our Deliverer,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
Who has truly rendered death entirely useless
and illuminated life and immortality
through the good news,
2Tim. 1:11 into which I have been appointed a proclaimer and an ambassador,
and a teacher of the Gentiles.
2Tim. 1:12 Because of this
I also am suffering these things.
However, I am not ashamed
because I understand in Whom I have trusted and I am convinced that He is able to protect what I have committed to Him
until that very day.

The day of His second revelation.

2Tim. 1:13 Hold on to the pattern of sound words
which you have heard from me
with trust and love
which are in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.
2Tim. 1:14 That good thing
which was committed to you,
protect for the sake of
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
which dwells in us.

2Tim. 1:15 This you understand, that all those in Asia
have turned away from me,
among whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

Asia means slime; mire.

Phygellus means a little fugitive.

Hermogenes means born lucky.

2Tim. 1:16 May the Master provide compassion to the household of Onesiphorus,
because he often refreshed me
and was not ashamed of my chain.

Onesiphorus means profit bringing.

2Tim. 1:17 Indeed, even when he was in Rome
he sought me out very earnestly and found me.

Rome means strength.

2Tim. 1:18 May YAHWEH grant to him to find compassion
in the presence of The Master in that day.
And you know very well how many ways
he ministered at Ephesus.

Ephesus means full purposed.

Chapter 2

2Tim. 2:1 You then, my son, be empowered by the favor that is in

The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

2Tim. 2:2 And the things that you have heard from me
by means of many witnesses, commit these to trustworthy persons who will be competent to teach others also.

2Tim. 2:3 You then, undergo hardship
as a good warrior of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah!

2Tim. 2:4 No one engaged in warfare

entangles himself with the affairs of life
in order that he might please him
who enlisted him as a soldier.

2Tim. 2:5 Now if anyone competes in a contest
he is not crowned
unless he competes according to the rules.

2Tim. 2:6 The hardworking farmer must be first to participate in the fruits.

2Tim. 2:7 Comprehend what I am saying!
Indeed, may The Master give you comprehension in everything.

2Tim. 2:8 Remember,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
out of the seed of David,
has been raised from being dead
according to my good news,

Sha'ul speaks of "my good news".
This may seem odd unless you understand that he did, indeed,
have a slightly different "good news" (gospel)
than the other students
of The Messiah had been given.

He is the ONLY person
to have been taught by direct revelation
from the resurrected and ascended Messiah.
(See Galatians for the details on this.)

Everyone else was taught by the human Messiah
while He was on the earth.
What Sha'ul was taught
was a more complete revelation
of the mysteries of The Kingdom.
He is, therefore, able to teach things
no one else could teach, prior to him.

2Tim. 2:9 for which I undergo hardship,
even like a criminal, to the point of chains.

But on the other hand,
The Word of YAHWEH is not chained.

2Tim. 2:10 Because of this I endure all things for the sake of the elect
in order that they also might secure the deliverance
which is in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
with eternal honor.

2Tim. 2:11 This message is trustworthy,
because if we have died with Him,
we will also continue to live with Him.

2Tim. 2:12 If we endure these things
we will also reign with Him.

If we disavow Him
He also will disavow us.

Some teach a concept of "eternal security";
once saved, always saved.

Scripture in several places testifies against this concept.

We are seriously warned
about "falling away", apostasy.
If you cannot lose your salvation
why are we warned about that very thing?

If we cannot disavow YAHWEH
why does Sha'ul identify the consequences of such an action?

2Tim. 2:13 If we disbelieve

He remains trustworthy.
He is not able to disavow Himself.

2Tim. 2:14 Remind them of these things,
urging them in the presence of The Master,
not to strive about words to no profit,
to the ruin of the hearers.

2Tim. 2:15 Be diligent to present yourself
acceptable to YAHWEH,
a worker who is not ashamed,
correctly dividing The Word of Truth.

2Tim. 2:16 And shun profane fruitless discussions
because they will move forward
toward more irreverence, 2Tim. 2:17 and their message
will spread like gangrene.

Hymenaeus and Philetus are of this sort,
Hymenaeus means a wedding song.
Philetus means beloved.

2Tim. 2:18 who have deviated concerning the truth,
saying that the resurrection has already happened,
and they are overthrowing the trust of some.

2Tim. 2:19 Nevertheless,
the solid foundation of YAHWEH stands stable,
having this seal,

"The Master knows absolutely those who are His."

(John 10.14)

and, "Let everyone who names the Name of The Messiah depart from injustice."
No cross reference found in Scripture.

2Tim. 2:20 Now in a great house
there are not only vessels of gold and silver,
but also of wood and clay;
and some are for honor
and some are for dishonor.

2Tim. 2:21 Therefore, if anyone thoroughly cleanses himself from these
he will be a vessel for honor,
sanctified and useful for the absolute ruler's use,
prepared for every good work.

2Tim. 2:22 Run away now from youthful longings,
but pursue justification,
trust,
love,
and well being
with those who call upon The Master
from a pure heart.

2Tim. 2:23 Indeed,
avoid foolish and ignorant disputes,
knowing that they generate battles.

2Tim. 2:24 Now a servant of The Master
must not quarrel,
but instead be kind to all,
able to teach,
enduring of ill,

2Tim. 2:25 in humility educating those who are in opposition,
if YAHWEH perhaps might give them a change of mind
for the sake of recognition of the truth, 2Tim. 2:26 and they might come to their senses
and escape the snare of The Adversary, having been taken captive by him into his will.

Chapter 3

2Tim. 3:1 But know this absolutely, that in the final days

grievous times will be at hand,

2Tim. 3:2 because persons will be self centered,

greedy,

braggers,

arrogant,

blasphemers,

disrespectful of parents,

ungrateful,

irreverent,

2Tim. 3:3 without natural affection,

implacable,

slanderers,

without self-control,

brutal,

despisers of that which is good,

2Tim. 3:4 traitors,

headstrong,

conceited,

pleasure loving rather than YAHWEH loving,

2Tim. 3:5 having an appearance of devotedness but rejecting its miraculous power.

Indeed, from such ones turn away!

2Tim. 3:6 Indeed, this sort are those who are sneaking into households,

even captivating foolish women,

piled up with offenses,

led by various strong desires,

2Tim. 3:7 always learning,

yet never able to come to the recognition of the truth.

2Tim. 3:8 Now just as Yannes and Yambres opposed Moshe,

so do these also oppose The Truth,

people of corrupt minds

rejected concerning the faith.

Yannes means he oppressed.

Yambres is Egyptian;

it's meaning is uncertain.

2Tim. 3:9 Indeed, they will progress no further

because their stupidity

will be wholly evident to everyone

like theirs also was.

2Tim. 3:10 But you have carefully followed

my instruction,

lifestyle,

purpose,

trust,

fortitude,

love,

perseverance,

2Tim. 3:11 persecutions,

afflictions,

such as what happened to me

at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra;

which persecutions I endured,

and out of everything

YAHWEH has delivered me.

2Tim. 3:12 Indeed, even everyone who desires to live devotedly

in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,

will be persecuted.

2Tim. 3:13 Now hurtful persons and wizards

will become more hurtful,

deceiving and being deceived.

2Tim. 3:14 But you are to continue in that which you have learned
and have been assured,
understanding from whom you have learned, 2Tim. 3:15 and that from childhood
you have understood The Set Apart Scriptures, which are able to make you wise concerning deliverance through trust
which is in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

2Tim. 3:16 All Scripture is divinely inspired,
and helpful for instruction,
for conviction,

for correction,

for training in justification,

2Tim. 3:17 in order that the person of YAHWEH

might be complete,

thoroughly equipped for every good work.

Chapter 4

2Tim. 4:1 I charge you therefore
in the presence of YAHWEH
and The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
Who will judge the living and the dead
at His revealing and in His kingdom, 2Tim. 4:2 proclaim the word!

Be ready in season and out of season!

Convince,

admonish,

rebuke,

encourage,

with all patience and instruction,

2Tim. 4:3 because the time will come when they will not put up with healthy instruction,

but instead,

according to their own strong desires

they will collect to themselves

teachers who are "tickling their ears"!

An idiom - telling them

what they want to hear.

2Tim. 4:4 And they will turn their listening

away from even The Truth,

and will be turned aside into myths.

2Tim. 4:5 But you, be discreet in all things!

Endure difficulties!

Do the work of an evangelist!

Entirely accomplish your ministry!

2Tim. 4:6 Indeed, I am already being poured out as a drink offering,
and the time of my departure is at hand.

2Tim. 4:7 I have fought the good fight.

I have finished the race.

I have protected the faith.

2Tim. 4:8 Finally, there is reserved for me

the wreath of justification,

which The Master, The Righteous Judge,

will give to me in that Day,

and not to me only,

but rather also to all who are loving His revealing.

2Tim. 4:9 Be diligent to come to me shortly

2Tim. 4:10 because Demas has left me,

having loved this present world,

and has traveled to Thessalonica,

Crescens to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia.

Demas means popular.

Crescens means growing.

Galatia means milky.

Titus means nurse; nursemaid.

Dalmatia means a priestly robe.

2Tim. 4:11 Only Luke is with me.
Get Mark and bring him with you,
because he is useful to me in ministering.

Luke means a light.
Mark means a defense.

2Tim. 4:12 Now Tychicus I have sent to Ephesus.

Tychicus means fortunate.

2Tim. 4:13 Bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas when you come,
and the books, most of all the parchments.

Carpus means fruit.
Troas means a Trojan.

2Tim. 4:14 Alexander the coppersmith,
did me much harm.

May YAHWEH repay him
according to his works.

Alexander means man defender.

2Tim. 4:15 You also must watch him
because he has greatly opposed our message.

2Tim. 4:16 At my first defense
no one stood with me or strengthened me,
but instead all left me.

May it not be accounted against them.

2Tim. 4:17 Yet The Master stood with me
and strengthened me so that the message
might be proclaimed fully through me
and that all the Gentiles might hear.

Indeed, I have been rescued
out of the mouth of the lion.

2Tim. 4:18 And The Master will deliver me
from every hurtful work
and deliver me into His Heavenly Kingdom.
To Him be honor forever and ever!
Amen!

2Tim. 4:19 Greet Prisca and Aquila
and the household of Onesiphorus.

Prisca means ancient.
Aquila means I shall be nourished.

2Tim. 4:20 Erastus stayed in Corinth,
but Trophimus I have left in Miletus sick.

Corinth means satisfied.
Miletus means cared for.

2Tim. 4:21 Do your utmost to come before winter.

Eubulus greets you,
as well as Pudens, Linus, Claudia,
and all the brothers.

Eubulus means of good counsel.
Pudens means modest.
Linus means linen.
Claudia means surging.

2Tim. 4:22 The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
be with your nature.

Favor be with you.
Amen.

18. TITUS

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Titus 1:1 Sha'ul, a slave of YAHWEH,
but an ambassador
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
according to the trust of YAHWEH's chosen and the recognition of the truth
which is according to deep reverence

Sha'ul means requested.

Titus 1:2 for the sake of anticipation
of Eternal Life

which YAHWEH, Who cannot lie, promised before time began,
Titus 1:3 but has rendered
His message apparent
in these very times by a proclamation
which has been entrusted to me
according to the instruction
of YAHUSHUA, our Deliverer; YAHWEH is the ultimate source
of our deliverance.
HE is The One
Who sent YAHUSHUA into the world
to accomplish what was necessary
in order that we might receive
our promised inheritance.
If you read The Old Covenant
you quickly see that YAHWEH is The One Who is continually providing deliverance.

Titus 1:4 to Titus, a genuine son
according to a shared faith.
Favor, compassion, well being
from YAHWEH, The Father,
and The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
our deliverer.
Titus means nurse, or nurturer.

Titus 1:5 For this cause I left you in Crete,
in order that you might straighten out what's left to do
and designate elders in every city
as I directed you,
Crete means fleshy.

Titus 1:6 if any is blameless,
the husband of one wife,
having trustworthy children,
not accused of wastefulness or disobedience.

Titus 1:7 Indeed,
a superintendent must be blameless
as a steward of YAHWEH, not self willed,
not quick tempered,
not given to wine,
not violent,
not greedy,

Titus 1:8 but instead,
hospitable,
fond of what is good,
sober-minded,
just,
set apart,
self controlled;

Titus 1:9 adhering to the faithful message
according to the way he has been instructed in order that he is able through sound teaching
both to encourage and to admonish
those who are contradicting it.

Titus 1:10 Indeed,
there are many insubordinate,
and idle talkers,
and deceivers,
especially those of the circumcision,
Titus 1:11 whose mouths must be silenced,
who subvert whole households,
teaching things which they ought not for the sake of dishonest gain.

Titus 1:12 One of them,
a prophet of their own said,
"Cretans are always liars,
harmful beasts, lazy gluttons."
Titus 1:13 This testimony is true.
For this cause rebuke them sharply
so that they may be sound in the faith,

Titus 1:14 not paying attention to Yisra'elite myths and precepts of men
who turn away from the truth.

Titus 1:15 Indeed, on the one hand,
to the pure all things are pure.
But on the other hand,
to those being defiled and disbelieving
not one thing is pure.
Indeed, even their mind
and conscience are defiled.

Titus 1:16 They profess to know YAHWEH
yet by works they deny Him,
being detestable and disobedient,
and disqualified for every good work.

Chapter 2

Titus 2:1 But you are to speak the things which are appropriate to sound instruction.

Titus 2:2 Older men are to be sober,
serious,
self controlled,
being not corrupt in faith,
in love,
in patience.

Titus 2:3 Older women, likewise,
are to be reverent in behavior,
not slanderers,
not given to much wine,
teachers of what is right,

Titus 2:4 in order that they might train the young women
to love their husbands,
to love their children,

Titus 2:5 to be of sound mind,
pure,
housekeepers,
good,
subordinate to their own husbands,
in order that the word of YAHWEH
may not be spoken of impiously.

Titus 2:6 Likewise, encourage young men
to be of sound mind,

Titus 2:7 in all things holding yourself up
as a pattern of good works
in which instruction is pure,
serious,
incorruptible,

Titus 2:8 a healthy message
with which no one can find fault,
so that one who is opposed is confounded,
having not one bad thing
to say concerning you.

Titus 2:9 Servants are to be subordinate to their own masters,
being well pleasing in everything,
not talking back,

Titus 2:10 not taking things for oneself,
but instead, showing all good faithfulness,
in order that they might put in proper order
The Instruction of YAHWEH, our Deliverer,
in everything.

Titus 2:11 Indeed, the favor of YAHWEH
has appeared,

bringing deliverance to all persons,
Titus 2:12 training us up in order that,
rejecting irreverence and worldly longings,
we are to live soberly, justly, and reverently
in this present age,

Titus 2:13 waiting for the happy expectation
and magnificent revealing
of The Great Elohim
and our deliverer, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, epiphaneia – epiphany, being made visible.
Titus 2:14 Who has given Himself
for our sakes
in order that He might ransom us away
from every illegality
and purify for Himself His own special people zealous for good works.

Titus 2:15 Speak these things!
Also encourage and admonish
with all authoritativeness!
Let no one put you down!

Chapter 3

Titus 3:1 Remind them to be subordinate
to rulers and authorities,
submitting to authority,
being ready for every good work,
Titus 3:2 speaking irreverently of no one,
not being contentious,
considerate,
showing every respectfulness
toward all human beings Titus 3:3 because we ourselves
were also at one time unwise,
stubborn,
deceived,
being a slave to various strong desires
and sensual delights,
living in malice and ill will,
hateful,
detesting one another.

Titus 3:4 But when the goodness and benevolence
of YAHWEH, our Deliverer,
became visible to human beings,
Titus 3:5 not by works of right actions
which we have done,
but rather according to His compassion,
He delivered us by means of the washing of non-carnal rebirth and renovation
by The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH

Washing is always associated with purification or cleansing.
To be unclean was to be defiled.
To be defiled meant you had no right to enter into the presence of YAHWEH.

What's normally translated as "washing of regeneration"
is far more significant than we realize.
It refers to a cleansing
that's part of a rebirth.
It's a total purification.
It makes us undefiled.
There is no more offense debt!

Sin is an offense against YAHWEH.
It's been covered by the blood of The Messiah,
thereby purifying us.
We are now a brand new creation
because of The Messiah.

And we are being renovated - remodeled,
in the sense of being remade.
It will be completed in eternity.
"The Holy Spirit" is an incorrect "translation".
Literally it is "sacred breath".
It refers to the inner nature
of YAHWEH Himself.

It is, in fact, His Divine Nature
that's being referred to.
A detailed study of Scripture affirms this conclusion.

There is no "trinity"
because His Divine Nature
is not a separate "person".

The 'new nature' found in a believer
is The Divine Nature
implanted within them.
It is the "new man".

Titus 3:6 which He bestowed on us abundantly
through YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
our deliverer,
Titus 3:7 in order that having been rendered innocent
by that very favor
we might become heirs
in accordance with
the anticipation of Eternal Life.

Titus 3:8 This is a faithful saying.
And concerning these things
I want you to assert them strongly in order that those who have trusted in YAHWEH
might be careful to maintain good works!
These things are good
and helpful to human beings.

Titus 3:9 But avoid foolish disputes, genealogies,
contentions,
and strivings about The Torah
because they are useless and profitless.
You are literally dead to The Torah.
It's useless to argue about it any longer.
Scripture affirms that when a new great priest is designated
the old "law" must be replaced by a new one.
YAHUSHUA is our new great priest.
Therefore there is a new order of things.

Titus 3:10 Avoid a divisive person
after the first and second warning, Titus 3:11 knowing that such a person
is perverted and is offending,
being self condemned.

Titus 3:12 When I send Artemas to you or Tychicus
be diligent to come to me at Nicopolis, because I have decided to spend the winter there.

Artemas means safe and sound.
Tychicus means fortunate.
Nicopolis means conquest of the city.

Titus 3:13 Send Zenas, the lawyer, and Apollos
on their journey with haste,
so that they might lack nothing.
Zenas means Jupiter, who was the father of the "gods".
Apollos means a destroyer.

Titus 3:14 And let ours also learn to maintain good works,
to meet urgent needs,
so that they might not be unfruitful.

Titus 3:15 All who are with me greet you.
Greet those who love us in the faith.
Favor be with you all.
Amen.

19. PHILEMON

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Philem. 1 Sha'ul, a prisoner
for The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
and Timothy, a brother,
to Philemon our beloved and fellow laborer,

Sha'ul means requested.

Timothy means honoring YAHWEH.

Philemon means one who kisses.

Philem. 2 to the beloved Apphia, Archippus, our fellow soldier,
and to the assembly in your house.

Apphia means dear one.

Archippus means horse chief.

Philem. 3 Favor to you and well being
from YAHWEH, our Father,
and The Master YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Philem. 4 I am grateful to my Elohim,
always making mention of you in my prayers,

Philem. 5 hearing of your love and the trust which you have toward The Master, YAHUSHUA,

and toward all the set apart ones,
Philem. 6 so that the sharing of your trust might become energized

by the full discernment of every good thing
which is in you in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

Philem. 7 Now we have great joy
and comfort in your love,
because the inner affections
of the set apart ones
have been refreshed by you, brother.

Philem. 8 Therefore, I have much boldness
in The Messiah

to order you to do what is proper.

Philem. 9 Because of love, however, I appeal,
being such a one as Sha'ul the aged,
and now also a prisoner
for YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Philem. 10 I appeal to you concerning my son, Onesimus,
whom I have begotten while in my shackles.

Onesimus means profitable.

Philem. 11 He at one time
was not useful to you,
but now is useful to you and to me.

Philem. 12 I have sent him back.
You therefore receive him to yourself,
that is, this one who exists

as my own inner affections, Philem. 13 whom I desire to keep with me
in order that on your behalf
he might serve me while in my shackles
for the sake of the good news.

Philem. 14 But without your consent
I wanted to do nothing,
in order that your good
might not be according to compulsion,
but instead voluntary.

Philem. 15 Indeed,
perhaps he departed for a while,
in order that you might keep him forever,

Philem. 16 no longer as a slave,
but rather, more than a slave,
a beloved brother, especially to me,
but how much more to you
both in the flesh and in The Master.

Philem. 17 If then you consider me

as a companion,
receive him to yourself as if it were me.

Philem. 18 Indeed, if he has wronged you or owes anything, attribute that to me.

Philem. 19 I, Sha'ul,
am writing with my own hand.
I will pay it in full (not to mention to you that you owe me even your very own self).

Philem. 20 Truly, brother,
let me be gratified by you in The Master.
Refresh my inner affections in The Master.

Philem. 21 Having confidence
in your attentive listening
I have written to you,
understanding that you will do
even more than I say.

Philem. 22 Now meanwhile also prepare a guest room for me, because I trust that through your prayers
I will be granted to you.

Philem. 23 Epaphras, my fellow prisoner
in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, greets you, Epaphras means fascinating.

Philem. 24 as do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, Luke, my fellow laborers.
Mark means a defence.
Aristarchus means best ruler.
Demas means popular.
Luke means a light.

Philem. 25 The favor of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
be with your nature.
Amen.

20. JAMES

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

James 1:1 Ya'akov, a servant of YAHWEH
and of The Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
to the twelve tribes in the dispersion.

Be well.

Ya'akov means heel catcher; restrainer.
(This is James.)

It's important to remember
that these were Hebrew people
writing a Hebrew Scripture.
They were not Greeks.

diaspora - resident in pagan nations.

The 12 tribes were NEVER "lost".
Note: There are, technically, 13 tribes.
Levi is not counted separately
because they belonged to YAHWEH.

That leaves 12 tribes,
of which 11 have been claimed to be "lost".
They were indeed scattered into other lands,
but they were never "lost".
Anyone who tells you otherwise
is not being faithful to YAHWEH's Word.

James 1:2 My brothers,
consider it all gladness
whenever you fall into various trials,

James 1:3 knowing that
the testing of your faith produces endurance.
James 1:4 Indeed, let endurance
have a complete effect
in order that you may be mature,
even complete in every part,
lacking not even one thing.

James 1:5 If any of you lacks wisdom
let him ask of YAHWEH,
Who gives to everyone bountifully
and without reproach,
and it will be given to him.

James 1:6 But ask with trust
with no hesitation,
because he who hesitates
is like a wave of the sea,
being blown by the wind and tossed about.

James 1:7 Indeed, let not that person think that he will receive anything from YAHWEH.

James 1:8 A double minded man
is unstable in all his ways.

James 1:9 Let the humble brother boast in his exaltation,

James 1:10 but let the wealthy boast in his humiliation, because like a blossom of a garden
he will pass away.

James 1:11 Indeed,
the sun rises with a burning heat
and dries up the garden.

The blossom falls off
and the beauty of its appearance
is fully destroyed.

In this manner the wealthy
will also pass away amidst his pursuits.

James 1:12 Happy is the man who endures testing
because having been approved
he will receive the wreath of Life which YAHWEH has promised to those who love Him.

This is not a kingly crown,
but a victory wreath, a prize given to the victor of a competition.
The prize here is Eternal Life.

James 1:13 Let no one say when he is tested,
"I am tested by YAHWEH",
because YAHWEH cannot be tested
by intrinsic worthlessness
nor does He Himself test anyone.

James 1:14 But each one is tested
by being enticed by his own desires.
And he is entrapped.

James 1:15 After desire has been conceived it gives birth to an offense
and an offense
being brought to its completion,
produces death.

Traditionally this verse uses 'sin'.
However, 'sin' is not properly understood.
It is an offense against YAHWEH.
He is offended because we have refused to follow His instructions to us.

This was the same thing Eve (Chavvah)
did in the Garden of Eden.
She rejected YAHWEH's instruction
and acted upon her own desires.
This is called 'sin' in traditional texts.
It results in a penalty of death,
just as YAHWEH declares in Genesis.

James 1:16 Do not be deceived,
my beloved brothers!
James 1:17 All good giving
and every complete gift is from above,
coming down from The Father of Lights,
within Whom there is no variation
or shadow of turning.

This may be an oblique reference to the sun and moon,
with which there are such things,
and which were the focus of much false religious worship
during this period.

James 1:18 He was willing to bring us forth
by The Word of Truth
to exist as a kind of first fruits
of His created things.

James 1:19 So then, my beloved brothers, let each of you human beings be swift to hear,
slow to speak,
slow to anger,

James 1:20 because the anger of a man
does not accomplish
the justification of YAHWEH.

The term is dikaioisune.
It means equity of character or action.
It's most often translated as righteousness.
It might also be seen "right action".
Right actions establish justification before YAHWEH.

James 1:21 Therefore, put away
all filthiness and excessive depravity.

Receive in humility the implanted word
which is able to deliver your life.

The word of truth is YAHUSHUA.
His nature is placed in you
at the time of your rebirth.
It is 'the new nature',
which replaces the 'offense nature',
or 'the old man'.

James 1:22 Indeed, become doers of the word
and not merely hearers,
being deceived by yourselves,
James 1:23 because if anyone is a hearer of the word
and not a doer,

he resembles a man considering
his natural appearance in a mirror.

James 1:24 Indeed, he observes himself.
But he goes away
and immediately forgets what he was.

James 1:25 But whoever looks into the perfect law of freedom
and is continuing in it,
not being a forgetful hearer
but being a doer of the work,
this one will be
supremely blessed by his actions.

James 1:26 If anyone among you thinks he is religious and does not bridle his tongue
but instead deceives his own heart,
this one's religion is useless.

James 1:27 Pure and undefiled religion
before our Elohim and Father is this,
visiting orphans and widows in their distress;
keeping oneself unblemished by the world.

This is a vital Hebrew concept.

Defilement was a primary issue
under The Old Covenant.
It meant you could not enter into the presence of YAHWEH.

Chapter 2

James 2:1 My brothers,
do not hold the trust in our Master YAHUSHUA, The Messiah of glory,
with partiality.

James 2:2 Indeed,
if there came into your assembly
a man with gold rings in magnificent clothing and there also came in a poor beggar in filthy clothing,
James 2:3 and you looked with favor
upon the one wearing the magnificent clothing and said to him, "You sit here in a good place,"
and said to the poor man, "You stand there."
or, "Sit here at my footstool."
James 2:4 you are discriminating among yourselves
and have become judges
with hurtful considerations.

James 2:5 Listen, my beloved brothers.
Has YAHWEH not chosen
the poor of this world
to be rich in trust and heirs of the kingdom
which He promised to those who love Him?
James 2:6 But you have dishonored the poor one.

Do not the wealthy oppress you
and drag you into the courts?
James 2:7 Do they not speak irreverently
of the good name by which you are called?

The Greek implies a name or title
by which someone is known.
Properly, we are called
by the Name of YAHWEH.
He places His Name upon His people,
as Scripture confirms in many locations.
And to have His Name placed upon you means you are now under His authority.

His is the only Name
by which deliverance comes.

Unfortunately, most have allowed themselves
to be labeled "Christian",
and not "a believer in YAHWEH."
In part, this is because the Name, YAHWEH,
has been removed intentionally
from most Bibles.

James 2:8 If, indeed, you fulfill The Royal Torah
according to The Scripture,
*"You are to love your neighbor
as (you love) yourself,"*
(Lev. 19.34)

you do well.
James 2:9 But if you show partiality
you are engaged in an offense
and admonished under The Torah
as violators.

James 2:10 Indeed, whoever will keep the whole Torah,
yet stumble in one point
is liable for all of it.

James 2:11 Indeed, He Who said,
"You are not to commit adultery,"
(Ex. 20.14)
also said,
"You are not to murder."

(Ex. 20.13)

Now if you do not commit adultery
but you do murder
you have become a violator of The Torah.

The issue of torah is vital.
The entire Hebrew system
revolved around it.

We have been taught
that is is "The Law of Moshe".
But this misses a vital aspect of Torah.

torah means a precept or statute
(written code).

But the root word from which it comes means to direct, instruct, teach.

The Yisra'elites are under a blood covenant
to do according to all that's in The Torah

Yet there is no "command" mentioned anywhere in the concept of torah.

Indeed, they understand it to be
The Ten Words,
and not, 'The Ten Commandments'.
It only became 'law' for them
when they entered into The Covenant,
making it legally binding on them.

To violate even one small portion of it meant they were guilty
of breaking The Covenant itself,
and therefore liable for all of it.

James 2:12 Therefore speak and therefore do
as those who will be judged by the law of freedom,
James 2:13 because judgment
is without compassion
to the one who has shown no compassion.

Compassion triumphs over judgment.

James 2:14 What benefit is it, my brothers,
if someone says he has faith
but does not have works?
Is faith able to deliver him?

James 2:15 If a brother or sister was naked
and lacking daily nourishment
James 2:16 and one of you said to them,
"Go your way in peace.
Warm yourself and satisfy yourself.",
but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body
what does it benefit?

James 2:17 Even so, faith by itself,
unless it has works, is dead.

James 2:18 On the other hand, some will say,
"You have faith and I have works."
Show me your faith without your works
and I will show you my faith by my works.

James 2:19 You have believed
that there is one Elohim.
You do well.
Even the unclean natures believe,
and they tremble!

An unclean nature is what's traditionally referred to as a 'demon'.
The term, 'demon' is a transliteration
of the Greek word used.
There are no 'demons' in The Old Covenant.
But there are unclean (defiled) entities.

James 2:20 But do you want to know,
useless person,
that faith without works is dead?

James 2:21 Was not Abraham our forefather,
rendered innocent by works
when he offered Yitzhak, his son,
on the slaughter site?

Abraham means father of a multitude.
Yitzhak means laughter.

An 'altar' is a slaughter site.
It's not a pretty place.
It's a place of blood and fire and smoke
where animals were slaughtered
and then offered up
as a form of partial satisfaction
for one's offenses.

James 2:22 Do you see that faith
was cooperating with his works
and by works faith was made complete?
James 2:23 And The Scripture was fulfilled
which says,

*"Abraham believed YAHWEH,
and it was accounted to him
as justification."*

(Gen. 15.6),

And he was called a friend of YAHWEH.

James 2:24 Discern clearly, therefore,
that by works
a person is rendered innocent
and not by faith alone.

James 2:25 Likewise,
was not Rahab, the prostitute,
also rendered innocent by works
when she hospitably received the messengers
and sent them out another way?

Rahab means breadth.

James 2:26 Indeed, exactly as the body without breath is dead,
in like manner,
faith without works is also dead.

pneuma means breath or wind.

Chapter 3

James 3:1 My brothers,
let not many of you become teachers,
understanding that we will receive a stricter judgment.

James 3:2 Indeed, in many things
every one of us errs.

The one that does not err in word,
the same one is complete,
even able to control the entire body.

James 3:3 Behold!

We throw bits in horses' mouths
so they are persuaded by us,
and we control their entire body.

James 3:4 Look also at the ships.

Being so large
and being driven by fierce winds,
they are turned about by a very small rudder
wherever one desires to steer them.

James 3:5 Even in this same manner,
the tongue is a very small member
yet boasts great things.

Look how great a forest a tiny fire ignites!

James 3:6 And the tongue is a fire,
a world of injustice.

In this same manner,
the tongue is set among our body parts.
It defiles the entire body
and ignites the wheel of nature.
And it is set ablaze by hell.

Obscure reference.
There is much speculation
about the meaning of the "wheel of nature".

The word for nature is genesis.
It refers to procreation, or birth.

The wheel is considered to be symbolic
of a continuing movement of one's life.
Some translate this as the "course of nature"
- life's ongoing path.

A dry hub causes a wheel to ignite,
setting the entire wheel on fire and destroying it.
Thus we have an analogy
between the tongue
and the hub destroying the cycle of life.

geena is the Greek for Gehenna,
or the Valley of Hinnom.
This valley was the rubbish dump for Yerushalaim
where trash was burned.
It was virtually always burning.
Symbolically it is used to represent "hell".

James 3:7 Now every kind of dangerous animals and birds,
of reptiles and creatures of the sea is tamed
and has been tamed
by the natural human being.
James 3:8 But no human being can tame the tongue,
worthless,
impossible to restrain,
full of deadly poison.

James 3:9 With it we bless YAHWEH,
even The Father,
and with it we curse persons who have been made
according to the likeness of YAHWEH.

James 3:10 Out of the same mouth
comes blessing and cursing.
My brothers, these things ought not be so.

James 3:11 Does a fountain send forth
fresh water and bitter water from the same opening?

James 3:12 Can a fig tree, my brothers,
make olives,
or a grapevine make figs?
Likewise, no fountain yields
both briny and fresh water.

James 3:13 Who is wise
and intelligent among you?
Let him show from good behavior
his works of wisdom amidst humility.

James 3:14 Now if you have bitter envy
and strife in your hearts do not boast.

And do not lie concerning The Truth.
James 3:15 Wisdom such as this does not come down from above,
but rather is earthly, physical, hurtful.

James 3:16 Indeed,
wherever bitter envy and strife exist,
in that place is disorder
and every contemptible act.

James 3:17 However, the wisdom from above
is first of all truly pure,
then peaceable,

appropriate,
good for persuasion,
full of compassion and good fruits,
impartial,
and without hypocrisy.
James 3:18 Indeed, the fruit of justification
is sown in peace by peace makers.

Chapter 4

James 4:1 Where do warfare and battles
come from among you?

Is it not from your sensual desires that wage war in your members?

James 4:2 You set your heart on things,
yet do not have them.

You murder and long for them,
yet are not able to attain them.

You quarrel and wage war,
but you do not possess
because you do not ask.

James 4:3 You ask and do not receive because you ask badly,
in order that you may waste it
on your own sensual pleasures.

James 4:4 Adulterers and adulteresses!

Do you not know
that friendship with the world
is hatred toward YAHWEH?

Whoever, therefore, is desiring to be a friend of the world is established as being hateful of YAHWEH.

James 4:5 Or do you think that The Scripture says for no purpose,
"The Divine Nature which dwells in us yearns jealously"?

(Prov. 3.34)

James 4:6 However, He gives more favor.

Therefore He says:

*"YAHWEH resists the proud,
but gives favor to the humble."*

(Prov. 3.34)

James 4:7 Therefore,
surrender yourselves to YAHWEH!

Stand against The False Accuser
and he will run away from you!

James 4:8 Draw near to YAHWEH
and He will draw near to you!

Cleanse your hands, offenders,
and purify your hearts, double minded!

James 4:9 Be wretched,
and grieve,
and cry out loud,
your laughter having been turned to sorrow
and your cheerfulness to sadness!

James 4:10 Humble yourselves
in the presence of YAHWEH,
and He will exalt you!

Lit. - before the face of YAHWEH.

James 4:11 Do not slander one another, brothers.
He who slanders a brother
and condemns his brother,
slanders The Torah
and condemns The Torah.
But if you condemn The Torah
you are not a doer of The Torah,
but rather a judge.

James 4:12 There is one Lawgiver
Who is able to save or to destroy.
Who are you to be condemning another?

James 4:13 Come on now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go into such and such a city,
abide there for a year,
buy and sell,
and make a profit.”,
James 4:14 whereas you do not comprehend
what will happen tomorrow.

Indeed, what is your life?
It is but a mist that appears for a little while but then disappears.

James 4:15 Instead, you ought to say,
“If YAHWEH determines
we will live and do this or that.”

James 4:16 But now you boast
in your arrogance.
All such boasting is hurtful.

James 4:17 Assuredly, to one who understands to do good
and does not do it,
to them it is an offense.

Chapter 5

James 5:1 Come now, you who are wealthy,
wail aloud and shriek
because of your calamities
that are coming upon you!
James 5:2 Your wealth has rotted
and your garments have become moth eaten.
James 5:3 Your gold and silver have been corroded and their corrosion
will be evidence against you
and will eat your flesh like fire.
You have stored it up in the last days.

James 5:4 Look!
The wages of the laborers
who have reaped your fields,
who have been defrauded by you,
scream aloud!
And the calls for help
of those who have harvested
have entered into the ears
of YAHWEH of Assemblies!
An Old Covenant term.
It's often translated as “The LORD of Hosts”.
A ‘host’ is always an assembly of persons.
It is not always a military term.

James 5:5 You have lived in self indulgence upon the earth
and have lived in pleasure.
You have fattened your hearts
as in a day of slaughter.

James 5:6 You have condemned.
You have murdered the innocent
who does not oppose you.

James 5:7 Be patient now, brothers,
until the coming of The Master!
Take notice!
The farmer waits
for the valuable fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it
until it receives the early and latter rain.
Parousia – coming.

The second coming in this case.

James 5:8 You also wait patiently!
Establish your hearts because the coming of The Master approaches!

Note the imperative mood.

James 5:9 Do not murmur
against one another, brothers,
lest you be condemned.
Take notice!
The Judge is standing at the door!

James 5:10 My brothers, take the prophets who have spoken in the Name of YAHWEH
as an example of hardship and fortitude.

James 5:11 Take notice!
We pronounce them fortunate who have endured.
You have heard of the endurance of Iyowb
and have seen YAHWEH's end result because YAHWEH is extremely sympathetic and compassionate.

Iyowb means he will cry. (Job)

James 5:12 Now above all, my brothers,
do not take an oath,
not even by The Heaven,
not even by earth,
not even by any other oath!
But instead let your "Yes" be "Yes"
and your "No," be "No"
lest you fall into hypocrisy.

James 5:13 Is anyone among you undergoing hardship?
Let him pray.

Is anyone cheerful?

Let him sing psalms.

James 5:14 Is anyone among you sick?

Let him call to himself
the elders of the assembly,
and let them pray concerning him,
having anointed him with oil
in the Name of YAHWEH,

James 5:15 and the prayer of faith
will deliver the sick.

And YAHWEH will raise him up.
Even if he has committed offenses
they will be forgiven.

James 5:16 Acknowledge to one another your errors

and pray concerning one another
so that you might be cured.

The petition of a just person
is able to work very powerfully.

dikaiois – without prejudice or partiality.

James 5:17 Elijah was a human being with a nature like ours

and he prayed to YAHWEH,
praying earnestly that it would not rain.

And it did not rain upon the land
for three years and six months.

Elijah means, YAHWEH is my El (God).

James 5:18 And he prayed to YAHWEH again
and the sky gave rain

and the earth yielded its fruit.

James 5:19 Brothers, if anyone among you wanders from the truth

and someone turns him back,

James 5:20 let him know that he who turns back an offender

from the error of his way

will save a life from death

and cover up a multitude of offenses.

21. 1 PETER

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

1Pet. 1:1 Peter, an ambassador
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
to the elect foreigners of the dispersion
in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia

Foreigners literally means
aliens alongside, or resident foreigner.
The elect (chosen) are all resident foreigners.
Earth is not their home, Heaven is.
They are merely "sojourning", temporary residents
in a strange and foreign land.

Peter means stone.
Pontus means the sea.
Galatia means milky.
Cappadocia means labeled unreal.
Asia means slime; mire.
Bithynia means violent rushing.

1Pet. 1:2 according to the forethought of The Father,
YAHWEH,
by purification of the nature
for the sake of attentive listening and by sprinkling of the blood
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

hagiasmos pneumatos
- purification of breath,
or, purification of wind.
This is a difficult phrase to translate.
It's traditionally done incorrectly.
hagiasmos is in the dative case.
pneumatos is in the genitive case.
The first means to be done by or with,
the second means to be done to.
What's expressed appears to mean that our human nature (referred to traditionally as 'spirit', incorrectly) is purified by YAHWEH
in order that we can pay more careful attention to Him.

This is not "the Holy Spirit"
as most translations lead you to believe.
It is your inner nature, "the old man",
being purified through trusting
in the shed blood of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

The reference to sprinkling with blood
is most important.
It refers to the Old Covenant sacrificial practice
of sprinkling the people, etc.
with the blood of the sacrificial lamb.
As a believer, one has been purified
and "sprinkled" by the blood of YAHUSHUA, thereby making one set apart
and acceptable in the sight of YAHWEH.
This is to be followed by attentive listening
– doing what we are instructed to do.

Favor and well being be increased to you.

1Pet. 1:3 Blessed is The Elohim and Father
of our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
Who according to His great compassion
has regenerated us into a living expectation
by means of the resurrection
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, from being dead,

We often misunderstand the literal text
in reference to "the dead".
There is no article.
The Greek is nekros.
It means dead, not death.
The text literally says "from dead".
There are other terms for death,
and they are used in a different manner.
What's referred to here
is the "condition" of being dead.

1Pet. 1:4 for the sake of receiving an inheritance,
incorruptible,
and undefiled,
and unfading,
being protected in The Heaven
for the sake of those 1Pet. 1:5 who are being protected by the miraculous power of YAHWEH
through trust
for the sake of a deliverance
prepared to be revealed in the final time.

1Pet. 1:6 In this you rejoice greatly though it is necessary now for a little while to have been distressed by various trials 1Pet. 1:7 in order that the testing of your trust,
being much more valuable than gold
which is being fully destroyed,
though it is tested by fire,
might be found in praise, honor, and glory
at the revelation of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, apokalupsis – disclosure.

1Pet. 1:8 Whom having not seen you love;
in Whom, although not right now
discerning Him clearly,
but having trust, you are rejoicing greatly with joy inexpressible and glorious,
1:9 preparing for the culmination of your trust,
the deliverance of your lives.

psuche – breath.
Without the breath you do not exist
- you have no life.
This is not the "soul".
The soul is a Greek concept developed long after the creation of Adam,
who was given life
by the breath of The Elohim.

1Pet. 1:10 Concerning this deliverance
the prophets who were prophesying to you concerning that favor
have investigated and have explored carefully, 1Pet. 1:11 exploring what place or what time
The Divine Nature of The Messiah
which was in them was indicating,
predicting the hardships of The Messiah
and the honors that would follow.

Note that this Divine Nature was "in them".
It is not a physical being,
but instead is the indwelling "Divine Nature",
the "new man" that Sha'ul writes about.

1Pet. 1:12 To them it was revealed that not to themselves,
but to us,
they were ministering the things which now have been announced in detail to you through those who have proclaimed
the good news to you
through The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
sent from The Heaven, things which YAH-messengers long to look into.

This is clearly a reference to the set apart (holy) Divine Nature of YAHWEH.
This is not referring to your old human nature.

aggelos means a messenger.
The Hebrew here, mal'ak, means a deputy,
one sent with a message by another, a messenger.
The Greek word is transliterated, not translated.
It's pronounced ahn-geh-los,
from which we get 'angel'.
There are no angels in Hebrew thought
prior to the Greek influences.
A messenger of YAHWEH is,
more correctly, a YAH-messenger.

1Pet. 1:13 Therefore, having bound up
the loins of your mind, being sober,
have absolute confidence concerning the favor
which is being brought to you
at the revelation of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, 1Pet. 1:14 as submissive children,
not being conformed as formerly in your ignorance
to selfish desires.

1Pet. 1:15 Indeed, since He Who called you
is set apart,
you also be set apart in all your behavior, 1Pet. 1:16 because it is written,
"Be set apart, because I am set apart."
(Lev. 11.44, 45, 19.2, 20.7)

Note: hagios means sacred or consecrated
- set apart for a special purpose.
It's most often translated as "holy",
but the concept of holiness
has become so trivialized today
that it's lost its impact on us.
We need to re-think what it means to be set apart for YAHWEH's purposes.

1Pet. 1:17 And if you are calling on The Father,
Who without partiality judges
according to each one's work,
pass the time of your foreign residence
in reverence,
1Pet. 1:18 understanding that you have not been ransomed
with corruptible things,
by silver or gold,
from your profitless behavior
received by tradition,

That which was received
by tradition from your forefathers;
"the traditions of men",
which The Messiah vehemently opposed.

1Pet. 1:19 but instead,
you have been ransomed
with the costly blood of The Messiah,
as of a lamb without a flaw and without a spot, 1Pet. 1:20 Who truly was known beforehand,
before the foundation of the world,
but has been rendered apparent
in these final times
for the sake of you 1Pet. 1:21 who through Him
are trusting in YAHWEH,
Who has raised Him up from being dead
and has given Him honor
so that your trust and expectation might be in YAHWEH.

1Pet. 1:22 Having purified your lives
by listening attentively to the truth
through The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
for the sake of sincere love of the brothers,
love one another intently from a pure heart, 1Pet. 1:23 having been born again,
not of perishable seed, but of imperishable,
through The Word of YAHWEH,
Who lives and abides for eternity, 1Pet. 1:24-25 because

*"All flesh is as grass,
and all the splendor of man
is as the flower of the grass.
The grass withers, and its flower falls away,
but The Word of YAHWEH stands up for eternity."*

(Is. 40.6-8)

Now this is the message, the good news,
which has been proclaimed to you.

Chapter 2

1Pet. 2:1 Therefore, having put away
all depravity,
all deceit,
and hypocrisy,
and jealousies,
and every slander;

1Pet. 2:2 as newborn infants,
intensely desire the rational undeceitful milk
in order that you may grow by it,

1Pet. 2:3 if indeed you have experienced that The Master is useful,

1Pet. 2:4 drawing near to Him,
a living stone,
truly rejected by human beings,
but selected by YAHWEH, valuable.

1Pet. 2:5 You also, like living stones,
are being built up as a non-carnal dwelling,
a sacred priesthood
offering up non-carnal sacrifices to YAHWEH, approved because of

YAHUSHUA, The Messiah;

1Pet. 2:6 for which reason

it is even included in The Scripture,

*"Behold, I lay in Zion a chief cornerstone,
elect, precious,
and he who believes on Him
will by no means be put to shame."*

(Is. 28.16)

1Pet. 2:7 Therefore,
to you who are trusting, precious.

But to those who are disbelieving

*"The stone which the builders rejected
has become the chief cornerstone,"*

(Ps. 118.22)

1Pet. 2:8 and

"A stone of stumbling and a rock of offense."

(Is. 8.14)

They are stumbling, disbelieving The Word
into which they were even appointed.

[The reference is to the Yisra'elites
as The Chosen People of YAHWEH.](#)

1Pet. 2:9 But you are a selected relative,
a kingly priesthood,
a set apart race,
a people acquired,

in order that you might publish
the moral excellence of Him

Who has called you out of darkness
into His wonderful light,

1Pet. 2:10 who at one time were not a people,
but now are the people of YAHWEH;
who had not been shown compassion
but now have been shown compassion.

1Pet. 2:11 Beloved, I beg you,
as sojourners and foreigners,

to refrain from fleshly longings
which war against your life,

1Pet. 2:12 keeping your lifestyle virtuous
among the nations,

so that when they slander you like criminals
they may, from the good works

they have been observing,

honor YAHWEH in the day of His inspection.

Some use the term visitation here.

[It comes from the concept of a superintendent or boss
coming to inspect, or check up on,
those under his/her supervision.](#)

It's not a mere "visit".

It's more like an "inspection".

1Pet. 2:13 Therefore, subordinate yourself to every creation of human beings
for the sake of YAHWEH,
whether to a king as a superior, 1Pet. 2:14 or to leaders,
because they are sent by Him
for the sake of the punishment
of doers of harm,
but for praise of those who are doing good;
1Pet. 2:15 because this is the will of YAHWEH,
that by doing good you may muzzle
the ignorance of mindless persons 1Pet. 2:16 as unrestrained,
yet not holding your freedom
as a cover for depravity,
but instead as slaves of YAHWEH.

1Pet. 2:17 Respect everyone!
Love the brotherhood!
Revere YAHWEH!
Respect the king!
1Pet. 2:18 Slaves, be subject to masters
with all fear,
not merely to the good and kind,
but also to the perverse.

1Pet. 2:19 Indeed, it is favorable that for the sake
of a consciousness of YAHWEH
one endures sorrow, suffering unjustly.

1Pet. 2:20 Indeed, what credit is it
if you are even beaten for your own faults,
enduring it patiently?
But on the other hand, if you have done good
and you are suffering, and you endure it,
this is pleasing to YAHWEH.

1Pet. 2:21 Indeed,
into this you have been called in that The Messiah
also suffered for our sakes,
leaving an example for us
in order that you might follow in His path, 1Pet. 2:22 *"Who committed no offense,
nor was deceit found in His mouth."*
(Is. 53.9)

1Pet. 2:23 He, having been reproached, reproached not in return.
Having suffered, He did not threaten,
but surrendered to Him Who judges justly.

1Pet. 2:24 He Himself took up our offenses within His own body upon the tree
in order that we, having died to the offenses,
might live according to justification.

By His stripes you have been healed.

"Sin" is an offense against YAHWEH.
The term, 'sin',
has become so over-used and abused
that it means little any longer.

Offense is used here
to help you reconsider
what your actions mean
when they are in conflict with the teachings of YAHWEH.
When you disregard His teachings
you offend Him.
The penalty for that is death.

And that penalty is the reason
YAHUSHUA died - in your place!
He paid the price for what YOU owe!
The concept of stripes includes wounds,

blows or the marks left by them - scars.
The concept of healing includes
the concept of being made whole.
That appears to be what's in view here.

1Pet. 2:25 Indeed,
you were like wandering sheep.
But now you have returned to The Shepherd
and Superintendent of your lives.

Chapter 3

1Pet. 3:1 Similarly,
wives are to be subordinate
to their own husbands,
so that even if any disbelieve The Word,
they may be gained
through the behavior of their wives
without a word, 1Pet. 3:2 observing in reverence
your innocent behavior, 1Pet. 3:3 which is not the external,
elaborate braiding of the hair,
wearing gold, or putting on worldly apparel;
1Pet. 3:4 but instead,
is the concealed person of the heart,
in the incorruptibleness
of a gentle and calm nature which is very precious
in the sight of YAHWEH.

1Pet. 3:5 Indeed,
in this manner in former times
the set apart wives
who also trusted in YAHWEH
also adorned themselves,
being subordinate to their own husbands, 1Pet. 3:6 even like Sarah,
who listened attentively to Abraham,
calling him master,
whose daughters you have become
if you do good
and are not frightened by any alarm.
Sarah means princess.
Abraham means father of a multitude.

1Pet. 3:7 Likewise,
husbands are to live with them
according to knowledge,
granting value to the wife
even as to a weaker vessel
and as joint heirs of the favor of life,
in order that your prayers
might not be hindered.

1Pet. 3:8 Now the goal is everyone being like minded,
sympathetic,
brother loving,
compassionate,
considerate;
1Pet. 3:9 not returning harm against harm
nor slander against slander,
but on the contrary blessing,
understanding that you have been called to this
in order that you might inherit a blessing.

1Pet. 3:10-12 Indeed,
*"He who would love life and see good days,
let him refrain his tongue from harm,
and his lips from speaking deceit.*
1Pet. 3:11 *Let him turn away from harm and do good.
Let him seek peace and pursue it* 1Pet. 3:12 for the eyes of YAHWEH are on the just,

*and His ears are open to their prayers.
But the face YAHWEH
is against those who do harm.”*
(Psa. 34.12-16)

1Pet. 3:13 And who is he who will harm you if you become imitators of what is good?

1Pet. 3:14 But on the other hand,
even if you should suffer
for the sake of justification
you are blessed.

*“And do not be afraid of their threats
nor be troubled.”*

(Is. 8.12)

1Pet. 3:15 Now, sanctify YAHWEH, The Elohim,
in your hearts,
and always be ready to give a defense
to everyone who asks you a word concerning the expectation that is in you,
with gentleness and reverence,

*“Sanctify YAHWEH, The Elohim” is a purely Hebrew phrase
that gets lost in the Greek.*

*It means to set apart your trust in YAHWEH
for His purposes, not yours.*

1Pet. 3:16 having a good conscience,
so that when they slander you
as doers of harm,
those who insult
your good behavior in The Messiah
are put to shame.

1Pet. 3:17 Indeed, it is better,
if it is the desire of YAHWEH,
to suffer for doing good
rather than for doing harm,

1Pet. 3:18 because The Messiah
has also suffered,
a single time for offenses,
the just for the unjust,
in order that He might lead us to YAHWEH,
truly having become dead in His flesh,
but having been made alive
by The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

1Pet. 3:19 Because of this He also went and proclaimed it to the lives under guard,

*Notice that He did not go to the “souls” in prison.
There are none.
They are lives, not souls.
“Soul” is a Greek creation.
It does not belong in a Hebrew text.*

*Further, we really do not comprehend who these lives are.
The concept appears to be that of lives being kept protected
since the time of Noah.*

1Pet. 3:20 who at one time were unbelieving
when at one time
the patient endurance of YAHWEH waited
in the days of Noah
while the container was being thoroughly prepared
in which a few, that is eight lives,
were preserved by means of water.

*The Hebrew word for ‘ark’
literally means a box or a chest.
It is a container, not a ‘boat’.
It took 120 years to build.
Noah means rest.*

1Pet. 3:21 Corresponding to this,
baptism now delivers us,
not by the removal of dirt from the flesh,

but by an appeal for a good conscience
in the presence of YAHWEH
because of the resurrection
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
1Pet. 3:22 Who has gone into The Heaven
and is at the right hand of YAHWEH, YAH-messengers and authorities and powers
having been made subject to Him.

Chapter 4

1Pet. 4:1 The Messiah, therefore,
having suffered on our behalf in the flesh,
arm yourselves also with the same thinking,
because he who has suffered in the flesh
has ceased from offenses

1Pet. 4:2 so that he no longer lives
the remainder of his time in the flesh
according to the longings of human beings,
but instead, lives
according to the desire of YAHWEH.

1Pet. 4:3 Sufficient indeed is our past existence
in doing the desire of the pagans,
having trafficked in lewdness,
longings,
drunkenness,
carousing,
drinking parties,
and unlawful idolatries.

1Pet. 4:4 In this they think it's strange that you do not go headlong
into the same excess of the unsaved,
speaking disrespectfully of you.

1Pet. 4:5 They will give an account to Him Who holds in readiness
judgment of the living and the dead.

1Pet. 4:6 Because of this the good news
has been proclaimed
even to those who are dead
in order that they might truly be judged
according to human flesh,
yet be made alive according to
The Divine Nature by YAHWEH.

1Pet. 4:7 Now the culmination of everything is approaching.

Therefore, be of sound mind
and sober in regard to the prayers.

1Pet. 4:8 But above all things have intense love among yourselves
because "love will cover a multitude of sins."
(Prov. 10.12)

1Pet. 4:9 Be hospitable to one another without grumbling.

1Pet. 4:10 Just as each one has received a gift for his own sake, minister the same to others
as good stewards
of the diverse favor of YAHWEH.

1Pet. 4:11 If anyone speaks,
do it as the utterance of YAHWEH.

If anyone ministers,
do it as with the strength
which YAHWEH supplies
so that in everything YAHWEH may be honored

through YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
to Whom is due the honor and the power
for the eternity of eternities.
Amen.

1Pet. 4:12 Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the refining which is coming for the purpose of proving you,
as though some strange thing
is happening to you.

1Pet. 4:13 Instead, be calmly happy to the extent you are sharing with others in the sufferings of The Messiah
so that at His magnificent revelation
you may also be glad with great joy!

1Pet. 4:14 If you are ridiculed
on behalf of the Name of The Messiah happy are you because the honor
and The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
rests upon you.

The nature is traditionally translated "The Spirit".
It refers to the essential character
or "nature" of YAHWEH.
It does not refer to a "spirit"
because that's a Greek creation
that has no place in Hebrew thought.

The concept of "spirit" did not exist
prior to the coming of the Greek culture
- indeed, long after that arrived.

The reference is to "the new nature",
The Divine Nature,
which is what was 'poured out' at 'Pentecost'.

Truly, they are speaking irreverently
but you are honoring Him.

1Pet. 4:15 Indeed, let none of you suffer
as a murderer,
or a thief,
or a doer of harm,
or as a meddler
in other people's affairs.

1Pet. 4:16 But if anyone suffers
as a believer in The Messiah
let him not be ashamed,
but let him honor YAHWEH with this portion.

This is a share, a divided portion,
in the suffering that The Messiah endured.

1Pet. 4:17 Indeed, it is time for judgment
to begin with the household of YAHWEH.
And if it begins with us first what will be the end for those who disbelieve the good news of YAHWEH?

1Pet. 4:18 Now
*"If the just one is scarcely saved,
where will the ungodly
and the offender appear?"*
(Prov. 11.31)

1Pet. 4:19 Therefore, let those who suffer
according to the will of YAHWEH
commit their lives to doing good
as to a trustworthy Creator.

Chapter 5

1Pet. 5:1 I, who am a fellow elder and witness of the sufferings of The Messiah,
and also a participant in the magnificence
that is about to be revealed,
encourage the elders who are among you

1Pet. 5:2 to tend as a shepherd
the flock of YAHWEH which is among you,
overseeing not by compulsion,
but instead willingly,
not for dishonest gain,
but instead eagerly,
1Pet. 5:3 not as subjugating
those entrusted to you,
but instead as being examples to the flock.

1Pet. 5:4 When The Chief Shepherd
has been rendered apparent
you will receive the wreath of honor
that does not fade away.

There are no "rewards"
you can "earn" in Heaven.
There are honors given,
but you do not earn them.
They are gifts from YAHWEH.
If you're seeking "rewards",
here or in The Kingdom of Heaven,
you are being selfish!
And that's an offense against YAHWEH!

1Pet. 5:5 Likewise, you young people,
be subordinate to the elders.
Indeed, each of you be subordinate
to one another,
having been surrounded with humility,
because "YAHWEH *resists the proud,
but gives favor to the humble.*"
(Prov. 3.34)

1Pet. 5:6 Be humbled therefore under the powerful hand of YAHWEH
in order that He may exalt you
at the proper time, 1Pet. 5:7 quickly placing all your concerns upon Him
because He is concerned about you!

1Pet. 5:8 Be sober!
Stay alert,
because your opponent, The False Accuser,
is walking about like a roaring lion,
seeking whom he may swallow up, 1Pet. 5:9 whom you are to resist,
being stable in the faith,
understanding that the same sufferings
are being fulfilled by your brotherhood amidst the world.

1Pet. 5:10 Now may The Elohim of all favor
Who has called us into His eternal honor
through The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
having suffered a little,
complete you thoroughly,
establish you,
strengthen you,
and support you.

1Pet. 5:11 To Him be the honor
and the dominion
into the eternity of eternities.
Amen.

1Pet. 5:12 Through Silvanus,
to you people a faithful brother
just as I consider him,
I have written to you briefly,
encouraging and corroborating
that it is the true favor of YAHWEH
in which you stand.
1Pet. 5:13 Those in Babylon,
elect together with you,

embrace you, also Mark, my son.

Babylon means confusion.

Mark means a defense.

1Pet. 5:14 Embrace one another with a kiss of love.

Well being to you all

in The Messiah, YAHUSHUA.

AMEN.

Note: Wherever "peace" occurs,
in Hebrew it would be "shalom".

This term carries the meaning of complete and total well being in every dimension of one's life.

Thus it means far more than "peace" (calmness).

22. 2 PETER

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

2Pet. 1:1 Shim'on Peter,
a servant and ambassador
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
to those who have been granted
equally precious trust with us in the justification of our Elohim
and of our deliverer,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Shim'on means one who hears.

Peter means a stone.

2Pet. 1:2 Favor and well being be multiplied to you
in the full discernment of YAHWEH
and of YAHUSHUA, our Master, 2Pet. 1:3 since His divine power has granted to us everything concerning life and devotion
by means of the full discernment
of Him Who has called us
for the sake of honor and excellence.

2Pet. 1:4 Through this we have been granted exceedingly great and valuable promises that through these you might become sharers
of the divine nature,
having escaped the corruption
that is in the world
because of selfish longings.

There are several things
in this verse to note.

- First is the promises.

They include all that was promised to Abraham and his offspring.

- Second is The Divine Nature.

This is, traditionally, 'The Holy Spirit'
in traditional understandings.

But this concept is incorrect.

It is the indwelling presence of
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
and it constitutes
the 'new nature' of a believer.

-Third is the corruption,
which means defilement.

For a Hebrew person,
anyone or any thing that was defiled
was forbidden to enter into
the presence of YAHWEH.

- And fourth is the 'selfish longings'.

Selfishness is the root of every offense (sin).

It is the desire to put what you want ahead of what YAHWEH wants in your life.

2Pet. 1:5 Now also, for this very reason,
having added every speed,
supply moral virtue to your trust,
and to virtue add knowledge, 2Pet. 1:6 and to knowledge add self control,
and to self control add perseverance,
and to perseverance
add devotion to YAHWEH, 2Pet. 1:7 and to devotion to YAHWEH
add brotherly affection,
and to brotherly affection add love.

2Pet. 1:8 Indeed, if these things are coming into existence
in you and are increasing they establish you
as neither useless nor unfruitful
in the full knowledge of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

2Pet. 1:9 Indeed, he who is not coming close to these things is blind,
being near-sighted,
having forgotten that he has already been cleansed from his offenses.
"Sin" is an offense against YAHWEH.
It is the willful failure to follow His instructions.

2Pet. 1:10 Therefore, brothers,
be even more quick
to make your calling and election certain.
Indeed, if you are doing these things
you will never ever stumble.

2Pet. 1:11 Indeed, in this manner
an entrance will be abundantly supplied to you into the eternal kingdom
of our Master and Deliverer,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

2Pet. 1:12 Consequently, I will not be negligent to always quietly remind you
concerning these things,
although you understand them
and are established in the truth at hand.

2Pet. 1:13 Indeed, I think it is right
as long as I am in this tabernacle
to arouse you by reminding you, 2Pet. 1:14 knowing that very soon
I will lay aside my tabernacle,
just as our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah
has made plain to me.

In the Old Covenant
we see The Tabernacle
as the temporary dwelling place
of YAHWEH here on the earth.
What's significant in Peter's reference lies in the fact that
as believers in The Messiah
we have become
"the dwelling place of YAHWEH
(via His indwelling nature) on earth".

2Pet. 1:15 Moreover, I will be quick to ensure that you always have, after my departure,
a working reminder of these things.
2Pet. 1:16 Indeed, we have not followed cunningly devised myths
in making known to you the miraculous power
and coming near of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,

but were eyewitnesses of His magnificence.

2Pet. 1:17 Indeed, He received
from YAHWEH, The Father,
honor and splendor,
having been delivered to Him
by so great a voice
from the Majestic Splendor:
*"This is My beloved Son,
in whom I am well pleased."*
(Matt. 17.5)

2Pet. 1:18 We even heard this voice which was delivered to Him
out of The Heaven,
being with Him on the set apart mountain.

2Pet. 1:19 And we possess
a stable prophetic message
to which you do well to pay attention
like a lamp that shines in a dark place until the day dawns and The Morning Star arises in your hearts

2Pet. 1:20 knowing this first,
that no prophecy of Scripture
is of any personal explanation.

The reference is to one's own explanation,
or interpretation.
It's not up to you to decide what is said.
It is up to you to learn
what YAHWEH means by what is provided.
His explanation is the only one that matters
in relation to prophecy of any kind.

2Pet. 1:21 Indeed, prophecy has never been brought forth by the will of man.
On the contrary,
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH
brought forth what was spoken by YAHWEH
to human beings.

The Greek is not fully clear.
What's given appears to be close to the intent of the passage,
given the context.

Chapter 2

2Pet. 2:1 Now false prophets
also came into existence among the people, even as there will be false teachers among you who will secretly bring in choices of destruction,
even denying the very same absolute ruler
Who has redeemed them,
inflicting upon themselves
impending destruction.

despotes – absolute ruler.
This reference is to YAHWEH,
not to YAHUSHUA.
Kurios is the normal term
translated as Master,
and is typically used of YAHUSHUA.

Ultimately, it's YAHWEH
Who has provided for our redemption,
even though YAHUSHUA
was the direct means
by which this was accomplished.

And YAHWEH is the absolute ruler,
to Whom even YAHUSHUA
will one day surrender everything.

2Pet. 2:2 And many will follow
their destructive ways,
by which The Way of Truth will be blasphemed.

The Way of Truth is the way of YAHWEH.
Early believers were identified as being part of "The Way" - YAHWEH's Way.

Blasphemy is not
a commonly used term today.
It means to speak ill
or irreverently of another; disrespectful.

2Pet. 2:3 And by means of avarice,
by means of deceptive words
they will exploit you.

For a long time
their judgment has not been idle,
and their destruction does not slumber.

2Pet. 2:4 Indeed, if YAHWEH did not spare
the heavenly messengers who offended,
but instead, has incarcerated them
in eternal torture,
having delivered them into chains of gloom
to be guarded until judgment, 2Pet. 2:5 and did not spare the ancient world,
but on the other hand,
protected eight with Noah,
an announcer of justification,
inflicting a deluge
upon the world of the irreverent, 2Pet. 2:6 and incinerated to ashes
the cities of Sodom and Amarah,
sentencing them to destruction,
making them an exhibit for a warning
to those who afterward
would become irreverent

*Sedom means fettered.
Amorha means bondage.*

2Pet. 2:7 and rescued innocent Lot,
who was worn down
by the lewd behavior of the criminals, 2Pet. 2:8 (Indeed, that innocent one dwelling among them
tormented his just life
from day to day by seeing and hearing lawless deeds.) 2Pet. 2:9 then YAHWEH knows how to deliver the reverent out of trials,
and to confine the unjust
until the day of judgment
in order to be punished, 2Pet. 2:10 indeed, especially those who are walking according to flesh
in contaminated longings,
even despising authority,
audacious,
self-centered,
not afraid to speak evil of honored ones, 2Pet. 2:11 whereas heavenly messengers who are greater
in miraculous power and strength,
do not bring a hurtful spoken condemnation concerning them before YAHWEH.

2Pet. 2:12 But these,
like instinctive irrational animals
born to be captured and destroyed,
speak harm concerning the things
they do not know.
And they will be utterly destroyed
because of their own corruption.

2Pet. 2:13 Considering it sensual pleasure
to carouse in the day,
they will be receiving the wages of injustice.

They are spots and blemishes,
reveling in their own delusions
while feasting with you, 2Pet. 2:14 having eyes full of adultery
and unceasing offense,

entrapping unstable lives,
having a heart trained in avarice,
accursed children,
2Pet. 2:15 having forsaken the straight path,
being deceived,
following the path of Bi'lam, son of Be'or,
who loved the wages of injustice

Bi'lam means confounding the people.

Be'or means a burning.

2Pet. 2:16 and was rebuked for his rebellion,
a mute donkey uttering words
with a clear sound
in a human voice
having stopped the madness of the prophet.

2Pet. 2:17 These are waterless fountains,
clouds driven by a squall,
for whom the gloom of darkness
is preserved into eternity.

2Pet. 2:18 Indeed,
speaking insolent words of vanity
they are entrapping,
through the desires of the flesh,
through lewdness,
those who have actually escaped
from those remaining in error.

2Pet. 2:19 While promising them freedom
they themselves are slaves of corruption.

Now by whom a person is overcome,
by the same he is brought into bondage.

2Pet. 2:20 Indeed, if having escaped
the pollutions of the world through the recognition of The Master and Deliverer,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
but having again become entangled in them and overcome,
the end is worse for them than the beginning.

2Pet. 2:21 Indeed,
it would have been better for them
to exist not having known
the way of justification,
than having known it to turn back from the set apart Instruction
that had been entrusted to them.

This concept plainly supports the idea
that one can in fact 'apostatize',
walk away from their faith.

If you think you "cannot lose your salvation"
this Scripture should change your mind.
It clearly states this is possible.

2Pet. 2:22 The true adage
has happened to them:

"A dog returns to his own vomit," (Prov. 26.11)

and,

*"a sow, having washed,
to her wallowing in the mire."*

Chapter 3

2Pet. 3:1 Beloved, I now write to you this second letter
in which I arouse
your sincere minds by reminder, 2Pet. 3:2 remembering the predictions
of the set apart prophets,
and the instruction of us,
the ambassadors of The Master,
even our Deliverer;
2Pet. 3:3 knowing this first,
that concerning the last days

scoffers will come pursuing their own desires 2Pet. 3:4 and saying,
*"Where is the promise of His coming?
For since the fathers died,
all things continue as they were
from the beginning of creation."*
(See Ezek 12.22-27 for similar ideas.)

2Pet. 3:5 Now this they willfully conceal, that by the word of YAHWEH
the skies existed long ago,
even the earth standing out of water
and through water, 2Pet. 3:6 by which the world
that at that time existed
was fully destroyed,
having been deluged with water.

*This passage appears to refer to the time prior to Genesis 1.1,
not to the flood of Noah.*

2Pet. 3:7 But the present skies and the earth
are being preserved by the same word, being kept under guard for fire
until the day of judgment
and destruction of the irreverent persons.

2Pet. 3:8 But beloved,
do not be unaware of this one thing,
that with YAHWEH
one day is as a thousand years,
and a thousand years as one day.

2Pet. 3:9 YAHWEH is not tardy concerning His promise
as some count tardiness,
but instead is patient toward us,
not willing that any
should be fully destroyed,
but that all should enter into repentance.
*Repentance is the reconsideration, with humility,
of one's actions; a change of mind.*

2Pet. 3:10 Moreover, The Day of YAHWEH
will arrive like a thief in the night,
in which the skies will depart
with a rushing sound,
and the elements, being set on fire,
will disintegrate.
And the earth and the works that are in it will be completely burned up.

2Pet. 3:11 Therefore, with all these things
about to be disintegrated,
what manner of persons should you become in regard to set apart behavior
and devotion to YAHWEH, 2Pet. 3:12 anticipating and urging on the coming of The Day of YAHWEH, because of which the skies, being on fire,
will be disintegrated
and the elements will melt,
being set on fire?

2Pet. 3:13 But we, according to His promise, anticipate new skies and a new earth
in which justification dwells.

2Pet. 3:14 Therefore, beloved,
be anticipating these things!
Make an effort to be found by Him in peace,
unblemished and blameless!

2Pet. 3:15 And consider the patience of our Master as deliverance,

just as our beloved brother, Sha'ul,
according to the wisdom given to him
has also written to you 2Pet. 3:16 as even in all his letters, speaking in them of these things
in which some things
are difficult to understand,
which those who are ignorant and vacillating
twist to their own destruction, as they do also
with the rest of The Scriptures.

This is a very profound statement.
Sha'ul does teach some things that are difficult to understand
- unless you consider Who taught him, and when.
Once you understand Sha'ul was taught by The risen and ascended Messiah,
his teachings become easier to comprehend.
Yet there are many who distort his teachings,
just like they do the rest of The Scriptures,
because they've never taken the time
to examine them thoroughly for themselves.

2Pet. 3:17 You therefore, beloved,
knowing beforehand,
beware lest you also fall
from your own steadfastness,
being led away
by the fraudulence of the lawless!

2Pet. 3:18 But grow in the favor and knowledge
of our Master and Deliverer,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.
To Him be the honor,
both now and into the days of eternity.
Amen.

23. 1 JOHN

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

1John 1:1 That which was from the beginning,
that which we have heard,
that which we have seen with our eyes,
that which we have looked closely upon,
and that which our hands have touched concerning The Word of Life; 1John 1:2 indeed, that Life
has been rendered apparent.

And we have seen,
and we bear witness,
and we declare to you
The Eternal Life that was with The Father
and has been rendered apparent to us.

The concept of life in this verse
is the same term applied to life in general.
However, in this instance
there is a specific connection made to Eternal Life.
The reference is clear.
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah
IS the means to obtain Eternal Life!

What is declared,
and what has been rendered apparent
to the entire world in Him
is the pathway into it.

1John 1:3 That which we have seen and heard
we announce to you

in order that you also
may have a partnership with us.
And that partnership is also with The Father and with His Son, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

koinonia – partnership. – fellowship.
While this is normally translated as fellowship,
the concept of a partnership is more to the point.
Fellowship is more like having a good time together.
Partnership puts personal responsibility
into the relationship.

Please note that it makes no reference to a partnership with any other "person"
beyond The Father and YAHUSHUA.

This affirms the truth that "the holy spirit",
as it is so often translated,
is not a "third person" of "the trinity".
The 'trinity' is heresy - false teaching!
The Word of YAHWEH
does not support that concept,
even though many translators
have included the concept.

1John 1:4 And these things we write to you
in order that your joy may be full.

1John 1:5 And this is the announcement that we have heard from Him
and announce to you,
that YAHWEH is light
and in Him is no obscurity at all.

1John 1:6 If we say that we have a partnership with Him,
yet walk in obscurity,
we are uttering an untruth
and are not doing the truth.

1John 1:7 But if we walk in the light in the manner in which He is in the light
we have a partnership with each other,
and the blood of YAHUSHUA,
The Messiah, His Son,
cleanses us from every offense.

Cleansing in Hebrew thought
always has to do with defilement.
To be cleansed is to become undefiled.
No one who was defiled
was permitted to enter
the presence of YAHWEH
which resided in His Tabernacle, or His Temple.

An offense is traditionally referred to as 'sin'.
It is an offense against YAHWEH
caused by our rejection of His teachings.
We refuse to follow them,
and instead choose to do things "our way."
This offends YAHWEH
because we are rejecting Him
as the Supreme Authority in our lives.
The result is a penalty of death.

1John 1:8 If we say that we have no offenses
we are deceiving ourselves,
and The Truth is not in us.

1John 1:9 When we acknowledge our offenses
He is trustworthy and just in order that He might forgive us our offenses
and might cleanse us from all injustice.

At the time this letter was written
the death, resurrection,
and ascension of The Messiah,
and the sending of
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
were all completed actions.

The offense debt for each of us
has already been paid in full!
Injustice is literally moral wrong.

1John 1:10 When we say that we have not offended
we make Him a liar,
and His word is not in us.

Chapter 2

1John 2:1 My newborns,
these things I write to you
so that you might not offend.
Even if anyone might offend
we have an advocate with The Father, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, The Just.

The reference to "newborns"
is literally to infants, little children.
There's an implication in this manner
of addressing his audience.
Given the context, this is referring to the new birth one experiences
when we trust in YAHUSHUA.

hamartano - to miss the mark,
i.e. to err, especially to sin.
In Hebrew thought offending
has to do with missing the mark,
the target one is shooting at.
It is a deviation from
the intended path one is traveling.

The path is YAHWEH's teaching and instruction
By failing to follow that path one ends up offending, thereby rebelling against The Word of YAHWEH.

One goes "off the path" and "ends up lost".
Thus, to sin is to fail to stay on the path
YAHWEH has put before you,
doing what He desires you to do.

Note Who the advocate is.
It is not "The Holy Spirit"!
It is YAHUSHUA Himself!
There is no "trinity".

"The advocate"
is the indwelling Divine Nature
of YAHWEH and YAHUSHUA
- both of which are identical in nature.

1John 2:2 And He Himself exists
as the atonement
on behalf of our offenses.
Indeed, not merely for ours,
but also on behalf of the whole world.

Atonement is a reparation
(a repayment or settlement) for a wrong.
The Messiah has paid the price required
to cover our offense debt
– our obligation to suffer death
for violating the instructions of YAHWEH.
It re-unites us with YAHWEH.
Literally, at-one-ment.

1John 2:3 And through this
we know that we know Him,
if we are protecting His precepts.

1John 2:4 He who says, "I know Him," yet does not protect His precepts is a liar,
and The Truth is not in him.

1John 2:5 But whoever protects His word,
truly the love of YAHWEH is completed in him.
By this we know that we are in Him.

tereo means to guard from loss or injury;
to watch over in protective fashion.
We are to protect what He has given to us.
This includes all of His teaching.

1John 2:6 He who says he is abiding in Him should himself also walk
in the same manner as He is walking.

1John 2:7 Brothers, I am writing
no new precept to you,

but instead an old precept
that you have had from the beginning.
The old precept is The Word
which you have heard from the beginning.
Capitalized here to draw attention to the reality
it is indeed The Word of YAHWEH,
the message He has given to all.
The Hebrew understanding of The Torah
is The Ten Words.

1John 2:8 On the other hand,
a new precept I am writing to you
which is true in Him and in you,
because the darkness is passing away
and the true light is already shining.

1John 2:9 He who says
he is existing in the light
yet is detesting his brother
is existing in darkness until now.
1John 2:10 He who is loving his brother remains in the light,
and there is no cause for stumbling in him.
1John 2:11 But he who is detesting his brother
is existing in darkness,
and is walking in darkness,
and does not understand where he is going
because the darkness has blinded his eyes.
Note the present active tense of the verbs.
This is current on-going action.
We are to be doing this.

1John 2:12 I write to you infants because your offenses
have been forgiven you
for His Name's sake.
By contrast, note the past tense
in this verse - have been forgiven.
It is a completed action.
"It is finished!"

1John 2:13 I write to you fathers
because you have known Him
since the beginning.

I write to you young men
because you have overcome the hurtful.

I write to you infants because you have known The Father.

1John 2:14 I have written to you fathers
because you have known Him
since the beginning.

I have written to you young men
because you are mighty,
and the word of YAHWEH remains in you,
and you have overcome the hurtful.

1John 2:15 Do not love the world
or the things in the world!
If anyone loves the world
the love of The Father is not in him 1John 2:16 because everything
that is in the world,
the intense desire of the flesh,
the intense desire of the eyes,
and the boasting of life,
is not from The Father,
but instead is from the world.
1John 2:17 And the world is passing away,
even the intense desire of it.
But he who is doing the will of YAHWEH
remains for eternity.

There's a point being made.
This world will be "dissolved"
and replaced with new skies
and a new earth.
This makes the things in this realm "terminal".
They will all cease to exist.

1John 2:18 Newborns, it is the last hour.
And just as you have heard that The Antichrist is coming,
even now many antichrists have come,
from which we know that it is the last hour.

*Antichrist means an opponent of The Messiah.
Literally - opposite of the anointed one.*

1John 2:19 They have gone out from us
but they were not of us.
Indeed, if they had been of us
they would have stayed with us.
However, they have gone out
in order that it might be rendered apparent that they were not all of us.

1John 2:20 You also have an anointing
from The Set Apart One,
and you understand everything.

1John 2:21 I have not written to you because you do not understand The Truth,
but instead, because you do understand it,
even that no lie is from The Truth.

1John 2:22 Who is a liar if not he who rejects
that YAHUSHUA is The Messiah?

He is an antichrist
who rejects The Father and The Son.

Note: He is an antichrist
who rejects The Father and The Son!

You can't reject one without rejecting the other.
Note how encompassing this is.

All who reject both The Father and
The Son ARE "antichrists"

(Note verse 18:
MANY "antichrists" have come!
They are already here!)

Note that "the holy spirit" is not mentioned.
This is critically important.
There is no "third person"
known as "the holy spirit".

This is, instead, the very nature of YAHWEH
that He bestows upon those who believe in Him.
THIS is "the comforter".

THIS is "the teacher" that reminds us
of everything YAHWEH has taught us
- His own Divine Nature.

Throughout this passage
there is reference to The Father and to The Son
- but there is absolutely NOTHING about any other "person"!

1John 2:23 Whoever rejects The Son,
the same one does not have The Father.

He who acknowledges The Son has The Father also.

1John 2:24 Therefore, let that remain in you
which you have heard from the beginning.
If what you have heard from the beginning remains in you,
you also will remain in The Son
and in The Father.

1John 2:25 And this is the promise that He has promised us, Eternal Life.

1John 2:26 These things I have written to you concerning those who deceive you.

1John 2:27 But the anointing which you have received from Him remains in you.

And you have no need that anyone teach you. But on the contrary, since the same anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is not hidden, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you will remain in Him.

The anointing is the bestowing of "The Divine Nature", "the new man", - YAHWEH's Divine Nature.

It is no longer our "human nature" that dominates our lives, but it is now "the nature of YAHWEH that becomes the controlling influence.

1John 2:28 And now newborns, remain in Him in order that when He has appeared we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before Him at His arrival.

parousia – coming

1John 2:29 If you understand that He is just you know that everyone who practices justice is born by Him.

This refers to the New Birth – the non-carnal birth.

It means to be regenerated. Without it one cannot enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

Chapter 3

1John 3:1 Consider what manner of love The Father has given to us in order that we might be called children of YAHWEH! For this reason, the world does not know us, because it did not know Him.

1John 3:2 Beloved, we are now children of YAHWEH! And it has not yet been rendered apparent what we will be. But we understand that when He has been rendered apparent we will be similar to Him because we will see Him just as He exists.

1John 3:3 And everyone who has this expectation in Him purifies himself, just as He Himself is pure.

Removes every defilement.

1John 3:4 Whoever practices offenses also practices lawlessness because an offense is the violation of The Torah.

It's important to recognize that in Hebrew thought 'The Law' is torah. The Hebrews see it as The Ten Words. Violation of those, The Words of YAHWEH, is exactly what Eve, and then Adam, did in The Garden of Eden.

They refused to live according to what YAHWEH had instructed them.

The Words are the teachings of YAHWEH. He desires us to follow them willingly.

Torah is instruction, not demand!

If your "obedience" is forced
you are not surrendered to YAHWEH, thereby willingly doing what He desires,
you are still in your offenses.

Note what follows.

1John 3:5 And you understand that He has been rendered apparent
in order that He might take away our offenses.

Also, an offense does not exist in Him.

1John 3:6 Whoever remains in Him
does not offend.
Whoever offends
has neither seen Him nor known Him.
The acts of offending must be intentional
for them to be counted against you.
Things done in ignorance He will overlook.

1John 3:7 Newborns, let no one deceive you!
He who practices justification is just,
even as He is just.

1John 3:8 He who offends is of The Adversary because The Adversary has offended
since the beginning.

For this reason, The Son of YAHWEH
has been rendered apparent,
in order that He might destroy the works of The Adversary.

1John 3:9 Everyone who has been born of YAHWEH
does not offend
because His offspring remain in Him,
and he is not able to offend
because he has been born of YAHWEH.
This passage requires a very special note.
The offense debt is "passed over".
As long as we do not reject YAHWEH
by willfully walking away from Him,
our offense debt is covered for eternity.
It's in this sense that we "cannot offend".

It doesn't mean we don't unintentionally violate His will.
We do.
But it does mean that
all of our offense debt
is already covered, unseen by Him,
as long as we remain faithful to Him,
trusting in His redemption.

1John 3:10 In this the children of YAHWEH
and the children of The False Accuser
are rendered apparent:
whoever does not practice justification
is not of YAHWEH,
nor is he who does not love his brother, 1John 3:11 because this is the announcement that you have heard since the beginning,
that we should love one another, 1John 3:12 not just as Kayin did,
who was of the hurtful
and murdered his brother.
And why did he murder him?
Because his works were hurtful
and his brother's were just.

1John 3:13 Do not marvel, my brothers,
if the world detests you!
1John 3:14 We understand
that we have exchanged places,

from death into Life,
because we love the brothers.
He who does not love his brother
remains in death.
1John 3:15 Everyone who detests his brother is a murderer.
And you know that no murderer
has Eternal Life remaining for him.

1John 3:16 By this we know love,
in that He laid down His life for our sake.
Therefore, we ought to lay down our lives
for the sake of our brothers.

1John 3:17 Now,
whoever has the life of the world
and observes his brother having a need
but closes off his inner affections from him,
how does the love of YAHWEH remain in him?

1John 3:18 My newborns,
let us not love in word or in speech,
but in deed and in truth.
1John 3:19 And by this we know that we are of The Truth,
and will assure our hearts before Him, 1John 3:20 because even if our heart
finds fault with us, YAHWEH is greater than our heart,
and knows all things.

1John 3:21 Beloved, if our heart
does not find fault with us
we have boldness toward YAHWEH, 1John 3:22 and whatever we ask
we receive from Him
because we are guarding His precepts and doing those things that are pleasing in His sight.

1John 3:23 And this is His Instruction,
that we should trust in the Name of His Son
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
and love one another,
just as He gave us a precept.

Belief is trust.
To trust in the Name
is also to accept the authority over our lives
that is carried by that Name.

It's vital that you know what His Name is,
and what it represents
in order to trust in it.

In Hebrew thought,
when the name is there,
the person is also considered to be present.
To "invoke" the name of another is to place yourself
under their authority and power.

1John 3:24 Now, he who guards His precepts remains in Him,
and He in him.
And by this we know that He abides in us,
by means of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
which He has given to us.

Chapter 4

1John 4:1 Beloved, do not believe every nature,
but instead, test the natures,
whether they are from YAHWEH,
because many false prophets
have gone out into the world.

Each person has a "nature", a character.
There are also unclean natures
(some call them demons).
It's this aspect of their existence
that we are to test.

1John 4:2 By this you know
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH:
every nature that acknowledges
that YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
has come in the flesh is from YAHWEH.

1John 4:3 And every nature that does not acknowledge
that YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
has come in the flesh
is not from YAHWEH.
This one is even from The Antichrist,
whom you have heard would come,
and now is already in the world.

1John 4:4 You are from YAHWEH, newborns,
and have overcome them,
because He Who is in you
is greater than he who is in the world.

1John 4:5 They are from the world.
Therefore, they speak as if from the world.
And the world listens to them.

1John 4:6 We are from YAHWEH.
He who knows YAHWEH listens to us.
He who is not from YAHWEH
does not listen to us.
By this we know the nature of truth
and the nature of error.

1John 4:7 Beloved,
we should love one another
because love is from YAHWEH.
And everyone who loves is born by YAHWEH
and knows YAHWEH.

1John 4:8 He who does not love
does not know YAHWEH, because YAHWEH is love.
Just a reminder
- the type of love identified here
is not an "emotional feeling" for another.
In Hebrew thought love is equated
with loyalty to the other, faithfulness.

Also, Scripture identifies love
as that which fulfills The Torah entirely.
Love does no harm to another.

1John 4:9 In this the love of YAHWEH
has been rendered apparent among us,
in that YAHWEH has sent His only begotten Son into the world
in order that we might live because of Him.

1John 4:10 In this is love,
not that we loved YAHWEH,
but rather, that He loved us
and set apart His Son
as an atonement for our offenses.

1John 4:11 Beloved, if YAHWEH so loved us
we also ought to love one another.

1John 4:12 No one
has looked closely at YAHWEH at any time.
If we love one another YAHWEH remains in us
and His love is fulfilled in us.

There are eleven Greek words translated as "see".
Theoamai is the one used here.
It means to look closely at, to perceive, or to visit.
It's a personal form of "seeing".
It requires one's undivided attention.
There is nothing superficial about it.

1John 4:13 By this we know that we remain in Him and He in us, in that He has given us of His Divine Nature.

1John 4:14 And we have examined and give evidence that The Father has set apart The Son to be the deliverer of the world.

Note: This verse does not appear in many bibles. It is found in some ancient manuscripts. It's authenticity is uncertain.

1John 4:15 Whoever acknowledges that YAHUSHUA is The Son of YAHWEH, YAHWEH abides in him, and he in YAHWEH.

1John 4:16 And we have known and have trusted in the love that YAHWEH possesses for us.

YAHWEH exists as love.

And he who abides in love abides in YAHWEH, and YAHWEH in him.

1John 4:17 In this love is fulfilled in our midst in order that we may have boldness in the day of condemnation because just as He exists, so also are we in this world.

We, as new creations in The Messiah by rebirth, are completed in love. The fullness of His love now resides within us in the form of The Divine Nature of YAHWEH. Further, we are made just exactly like Him in our new nature, and therefore we exist in the same essential form (divine nature) as He does. We are set apart, pure, and undefiled, just as He is!

1John 4:18 There is no terror in love. But on the contrary, complete love throws out terror because the terror contains punishment. But he who is terrified has not been made complete in love.

1John 4:19 We love Him because He first loved us.

1John 4:20 If someone says, "I love YAHWEH," yet detests his brother he is a liar, because he who does not love his brother, whom he has seen, how can he love YAHWEH Whom he has not seen?

1John 4:21 And this precept we have from Him, that he who loves YAHWEH should love his brother also.

Chapter 5

1John 5:1 All who trust
that YAHUSHUA is The Messiah
are born by YAHWEH.

And everyone who is loving Him
Who has given birth to them
also is to love one who is born of Him.

1John 5:2 By this we know that we love the children of YAHWEH,
when we love YAHWEH
and do according to His precepts.

1John 5:3 Indeed, this is the love of YAHWEH,
that we guard His precepts.

And His precepts are not burdensome

1John 5:4 because all who are born of YAHWEH
subdue the world.

And this is the victory
that has subdued the world, our trust.

1John 5:5 Who is it who subdues the world
if not he who trusts
that YAHUSHUA is The Son of YAHWEH?

1John 5:6 This is He Who has come
by means of water and blood,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.
Not by means of water alone,
but rather by means of water and blood.

And it is The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
Who bears witness, because
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH is The Truth.

YAHUSHUA said, I am The Truth.

This verse says The Divine Nature is The Truth.

That means The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
is equivalent to YAHUSHUA.

And we are told that after His ascension

He dwells in us.

Notice the next verse also.

1John 5:7 Concerning this,
there are three that bear witness in The Heaven:
The Father,
The Word,
and The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

And these three are united.

1John 5:8 And there are three
that bear witness on the earth,
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
the water,
and the blood.

And these three agree as one.

Lit. – are into one; a unity.

This is the primary passage upon which the concept of "The Trinity" is established.

It's unclear whether this was an editorial alteration

of the original text or not.

However, the rest of Scripture,

including portions of 1 John,
both before and after these two verses,

make no mention of "The Holy Spirit" as a "person".

Only The Father and The Son are identified.

The Father has given Eternal Life,

and The Life is in His Son

- with no reference to any third entity.

Also, there is no personal name

ever given for this purported

"third person" in Scripture.

If it were a "person"

it would have a personal name

because without a name

one cannot know "his" character

or authority in Hebrew thought.

1John 5:9 If we receive the evidence given by human beings, the evidence given by YAHWEH is greater because it is the evidence given by YAHWEH by which He has given evidence of His Son.

1John 5:10 He who trusts in The Son of YAHWEH has the evidence within himself.

He who does not trust in YAHWEH has made Him a liar because he has not trusted in the evidence that YAHWEH has given concerning His Son.

1John 5:11 And this is the evidence that YAHWEH has given to us, Eternal Life. And this, The Life, is in His Son.

1John 5:12 He who has The Son has The Life.

He who does not have The Son of YAHWEH does not have The Life.

"The Life" is capitalized because it refers specifically to Eternal Life.

1John 5:13 These things I have written to you who trust in the Name of The Son of YAHWEH in order that you might understand that you have Eternal Life, and in order that you might trust in the Name of The Son of YAHWEH.

1John 5:14 And this is the boldness that we have toward Him, that if we ask anything according to His will He hears us.

1John 5:15 And if we understand that He hears us, whatever we ask, we understand that we have the requests that we have asked for from Him.

1John 5:16 If anyone sees his brother committing an offense not leading into death he is to ask. And He will give him life for those who commit an offense not leading into death.

There is an offense leading into death. I do not direct that he is to intercede concerning that.

1John 5:17 All injustice is an offense. And there is offense not leading into death.
The reference is to offenses done in ignorance. YAHWEH will overlook offenses done in ignorance if we ask Him to do so.

1John 5:18 We understand that all who are born by YAHWEH do not commit offenses, but instead, he who has been born by YAHWEH protects himself. And the hurtful does not touch him.

1John 5:19 We understand that we exist from YAHWEH, yet the whole world lies outstretched amidst the hurtful.

1John 5:20 Also we understand that The Son of YAHWEH has arrived and has given us a mind

in order that we may know The Truth.
And we exist in Him Who is The Truth,
in His Son, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.
This is The True Elohim
and The Life Eternal.

heko – to arrive; be present.
The presence of the indwelling
Divine Nature of YAHWEH
is the result of YAHUSHUA
having gone back to The Heaven.
He told us that if He did not go away
The Divine Nature of YAHWEH could not come.
He also told us that if we believe in Him
we become “one” with Him, and with The Father.

Note that He did not mention
oneness with "The Holy Spirit".
That omission is critical
to our proper understanding of things.
His presence, His Divine Nature,
now dwells within the believer
– meaning He is present within us!

1John 5:21 Newborns, keep yourselves away from idols!
Amen!

24. 2 JOHN

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

2 John 1 The Elder, to a chosen lady and her children
whom I love in truth.
And not only I, but also all those who have known the truth,
2 John 2 because the truth
which remains among us
will be in our midst for eternity.

2 John 3 Favor, compassion, well being
from YAHWEH, The Father,
and from The Master, YAHUSHUA,
The Messiah,
The Son of The Father, in truth and love.

2 John 4 I was very happy because I found some of your children
walking in truth,
just as we have received a precept
from The Father.

entole means injunction;
an authoritative prescription.
It's translated both
as commandment and precept.
Since following YAHWEH's instructions is voluntary
the concept of a precept
is more proper to our walk.
We follow His precepts willingly,
not under compulsion.
If it's forced it's artificial.

2 John 5 And now I request of you, lady,
not as though I am writing
a new precept to you,
but rather that which we have had
from the beginning,
that we might love one another.

2 John 6 And this is love,
that we walk according to His precepts.
This is the precept
in order that just as you have heard from the beginning you should walk in it 2 John 7 because many deceivers have entered into the world who do not acknowledge

YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
as having come in flesh.
This one is The Deceiver and The Antichrist.

The word translated as deceiver is plano.
It carries the meaning of an impostor.
The Adversary is always the impostor,
pretending to be what he is not.
The term antichrist means one who is either opposed to or is a replacement (impersonator)
for The Messiah.

2 John 8 Look at yourselves
in order that we do not fully destroy
what we have worked for,
but rather that we might receive full compensation.

2 John 9 Whoever violates the precept and does not remain
in the instruction of The Messiah
does not have YAHWEH.
He who remains
in the instruction of The Messiah
has both The Father and The Son.

Please note that there is no reference to "The Holy Spirit".
Only The Father and The Son are mentioned, and only their Names (which carry their authority)
are identified in Scripture.
Also note that if you have one
you also have the other.

2 John 10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this instruction
do not receive him into a house
and do not wish him well,
2 John 11 because he who wishes him well shares in his hurtful deeds.

koinonia – participates as a partner.

2 John 12 Having many things to write to you
I choose not to use paper and ink,
but instead, I expect to come to you
and speak face to face,
that our joy may be full.
2 John 13 The children
of your chosen sister greet you.
Amen.

25. 3 JOHN

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

3John 1 The Elder to the beloved Gaius,
whom I love in truth.

Gaius means on earth.

3John 2 Beloved, I desire above all that you are prospering
and having sound health,
just as your life is prospering.

psuche - It refers to the life essence,
the being, not the soul.

It is the breath of a person
that which is breathed into them
by YAHWEH at birth.

3John 3 Indeed, I rejoiced greatly

when brothers came
and gave witness to the truth concerning you,
that you are walking in the truth.
3John 4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in truth.

3John 5 Beloved, do faithfully
whatever you might do
for the sake of the brothers
and for the sake of strangers.
3John 6 These have borne witness of your love before the assembly.
You will do well to send them forward
on their journey
in a manner worthy of YAHWEH.

3John 7 Indeed,
they go forth for His Name's sake,
taking not even one thing
away from the Gentiles.
3John 8 We therefore ought to accept these in order that we might become fellow workers in the truth.

3John 9 I wrote to the assembly, but Diotrefes,
who is fond of being first among them,
does not welcome us.

Diotrefes means nourished by Jove.

3John 10 Therefore, when I come
I will remind him of the things he does,
berating us with hurtful words.
And not content with that,
he himself does not welcome the brothers,
and prevents those who are willing,
ejecting them from the assembly.

3John 11 Beloved,
do not imitate what is hurtful,
but rather what is good.
He who does good is from YAHWEH.
But he who does harm
has not experienced YAHWEH.

3John 12 Demetrius has given witness concerning everyone
and concerning the truth itself.
And we also bear witness.
And you know that our testimony is true.

Demetrius means of mother earth.

3John 13 I had much to write.
However, I do not wish to write to you
with pen and ink,
14 but I expect to see you shortly,
and we will speak face to face.
Well being to you!

26. JUDE

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Jude 1 Jude, a servant
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
and brother of Ya'akov,
to those who have been sanctified
by YAHWEH, The Father,
and protected by YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
invited.

[Jude means the same as Judah,
or more correctly, Yahudah.
Yahudah means YAH be praised.
Ya'akov means heel catcher; restrainer.](#)

Jude 2 Compassion and well being and love be multiplied to you.

Jude 3 Beloved, I made haste to write to you concerning our shared deliverance.
I needed to write to you,
encouraging you to contend for the faith
which at one time was entrusted
to the set apart ones.

Jude 4 Indeed, some persons have settled in alongside you who previously were written down
for the sake of this judgment, ungodly persons
transforming the favor of our Elohim
into sexual perversity
and rejecting the only absolute ruler,
YAHWEH,
and our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

This carries the connotation
of being recorded in YAHWEH's record books
that are kept in Heaven
for the purpose of the final judgment.
The term "ungodly"
is used several times in this book
It means irreverent,
and implies direct antagonism toward YAHWEH,
not merely the state of disbelief.
It might be understood
as the attitude of antichrist, against The Messiah,
and therefore also against YAHWEH Himself.
Pagan worship often involved sexual perversities.

Jude 5 Now I want to remind you,
though you once understood this,
that YAHWEH, having delivered the people
out of the land of Mitsraim,
afterward completely destroyed
those who did not trust.

Mitsraim means dual straits, trouble.
Mitsraim is Egypt.

Jude 6 Even the heavenly messengers
who did not protect their beginning, but instead abandoned
their own dwelling place,
He has imprisoned with everlasting chains
under gloom
until the judgment of the great day,

aggelos - messenger.
The word 'angel' comes from the transliteration of this word.

It is not a Hebrew concept.
There are no 'angels' in Hebrew culture
prior to the Greek influence.

Jude 7 even like Sodom and Amorha
and the cities around them,
in a similar manner to these having become utterly sexually immoral
and having gone after strange flesh.

These have been set forth as an example,
enduring the justice of eternal fire.

Strange flesh means "different" flesh,
not the normal use of the flesh.
It refers to homosexuality, and/or bestiality.
Sodom means fettered.
Amorha means bondage.

Jude 8 However, similarly these also dream of defiling the flesh,
and rejecting authority,
and speaking harmfully of honors.

Jude 9 Yet Michael,
the chief heavenly messenger,
while opposing The Adversary
when he disputed about the body of Moshe, dared not bring against him
a reviling condemnation,
but instead said, "YAHWEH rebuke you!"
Moshe means drawing out.

Jude 10 Indeed, these speak irreverently
of whatever they do not understand.
Furthermore,
whatever they comprehend physically,
in the same manner as irrational animals,
in these matters they are corrupted.

Jude 11 Woe to them
because they have traveled
in the way of Kayin;
they have rushed for reward
by means of the fraud of Bil'am;
and they have been fully destroyed
by means of the disobedience of Korah!
Bil'am means confounding the people.
Korah means bald.
His disobedience was outright rebellion.
Kayin, Bil'am and Korah
were all openly rebellious against YAHWEH.

Jude 12 These exist as hidden reefs
amidst your love feasts,
feasting with you,
tending to themselves without fear;
waterless clouds
being carried about by the winds,
late autumn trees, barren, having died twice,
having been uprooted,
Jude 13 wild billows of the sea,
foaming up their own disgraces;
wandering stars for whom is preserved
the gloom of darkness for eternity.

Jude 14 Now Hanoch, the seventh from Adam,
even foretold these things saying,

*"Behold! YAHWEH is coming
with myriads of His set apart ones*

Jude 15 *to execute condemnation against all,
and fully convicting
all the ungodly among them
of all their ungodly deeds
in which they have acted ungodly,
and of all the harsh things which ungodly offenders
have spoken against Him."*

(A Scripture reference is not known for this.)

Hanoch means dedicated.
(This is "Enoch".)
Adam means man; red earth.

Jude 16 These are grumblers, complainers,
traveling according to their own desires,
and their mouths speak great swelling words,
flattering people to gain advantage.

Jude 17 But you, beloved,
remember the utterances
which were spoken previously
by the ambassadors of our Master,

YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
Jude 18 how they said to you that there will be mockers in the final time,
traveling after their own ungodly desires.

Jude 19 These are the ones
who set themselves apart, natural persons,
not having The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

Jude 20 But you, beloved,
building yourselves up by your sacred trust,
praying in
The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
Jude 21 keep yourselves
in the love of YAHWEH,
waiting for the compassion of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
for the sake of Eternal Life.

Jude 22 Also on some have compassion,
making a distinction.
Jude 23 But others deliver with fear,
seizing them from the fire,
detesting even the garment
stained by the flesh.

Jude 24 Now to Him Who is able to keep you from stumbling,
and to establish you unblemished directly in front of His magnificence
with exultation,
Jude 25 to the only wise Elohim, our Deliverer,
be honor and majesty,
omnipotence and authority,
both now and for eternity. Amen.

27. Revelation

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Introduction to The Revelation

The Greek word which is typically translated as revelation is apokalupsis. It means disclosure, to take off the cover. According to James Strong's Greek Concordance it is translated, in the King James Bible, as appearing, coming, lighten, manifestation, be revealed, revelation. The way it's translated does not always give the best concept of what's intended.

This book is not "The Book of Revelations".
The term is singular.
There is only one revelation.
It has several aspects to it, but The Revelation is singular.

Further, this is The Revelation of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.
It is a revelation, a disclosure, given by "His messenger".
The Greek word is aggelos. It means a messenger, not an 'angel'.
The word 'angel' comes from the pronunciation of this Greek word, ahn-geh-los.
The Hebrew term for the same entity is ma'lak.
It means a deputy, one sent by another with a message; a messenger.
Technically, this is an ambassador.

The opening words can just as easily be translated as "The Revelation of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah".
That would actually be a more appropriate title for this book.
Many have failed to comprehend this truth.

In order to gain a more complete understanding of this book it's vital that one looks carefully at what the text actually says, not at what you "think" it says, or what you've been told it says.
Please do your best to set aside your previous ideas and preconceived notions about this book.
Take a deeper look at it.
This is not a novel.
This is THE Revelation, THE Disclosure, that belongs to none other than YAHUSHUA, The Messiah of Yisra'el.
There is no other Messiah.
He alone is the fulfillment of The Word of YAHWEH to His prophets.
Because there is no other Messiah this book holds extremely significant information.
Please do not treat it lightly.

This Revelation was given to The Messiah, YAHUSHUA, by YAHWEH Himself.
It was given to Him to show to His "slaves" (believers)
certain things that would "shortly" take place.
Literally - in an instant of time, suddenly

This is not our normal understanding of the term. It does not mean “soon”, it means suddenly, rapidly, in the twinkling of an eye.
This concept alone will change your understanding of the details set forth.

This Revelation was then given to a slave (servant) named Yahnathan (John). However, this is not Yahnathan The Baptizer, nor is it Yahnathan The Apostle, the beloved “disciple” of The Messiah. It's a different man named Yahnathan. This understanding is based on the best known methods of dating the writing. Some refer to him as Yahnathan The Elder. He was on the Isle of Patmos when this was given to him, apparently as a prisoner or slave, resulting from his trust in The Messiah. We might refer to him as Yahnathan of Patmos in order to distinguish him from other men named Yahnathan.

This Yahnathan wrote down what was revealed to him - by The Messiah Himself - through His messenger, after The Messiah had been given this disclosure by His Father.
This disclosure was apparently only able to be made after The Messiah had ascended into The Heaven of YAHWEH and sat down at His right hand, in the position of the highest honor and authority.

This is the only book in YAHWEH's Word that contains a promise of a supreme blessing to the one who reads it and/or to those who listen attentively to the words of the text.
As you read it ask YAHWEH to help you comprehend what is presented.

May you truly receive the promised blessing as you read it.

27. REVELATION

(Version 3.1: 7-15-2021)

Chapter 1

Rev. 1:1 The Revelation
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
which YAHWEH gave to Him
to show to His servants,
things which of necessity will happen rapidly.
And He signified it by means of sending it
by His messenger to His slave Yahnathan,

doulos – a slave.

A slave is a “purchased possession”.
It's one who has been bought and paid for.
Every believer is a slave,
one purchased with the blood
of The Messiah, YAHUSHUA,
and therefore “owned” by Him.

tachos – a brief space of time;
in haste – quickly, speedily.
Yahnathan means favored by YAHWEH.

Rev. 1:2 who was a witness of the word of YAHWEH
and the evidence of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
as much as he experienced.

Yahnathan gives a testimony.
He serves as a witness to all that he experienced
concerning the Word of YAHWEH
and the evidence presented
about YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

His is a first person account of the things revealed by the messenger.
There is no filtering this through another person.
It is a direct reporting of what he experienced.

While most translations use 'saw',
Strong's Concordance identifies this as a Hebraism,
a unique Hebrew idiom,
which means to experience a thing.

This was far more than merely watching (observing) these things.
Yahnathan became a participant in them.

Rev. 1:3 Happy is one who reads
and those who hear
the words of this prophecy
and are protecting those things which are written in it.

Indeed, the time is near.

Rev. 1:4 Yahonathan to the seven assemblies
which are in Asia.

Favor to you and well being
from Him Who is,
and Who was,
and Who is to come,
and from the seven divine natures
which are in the presence of His throne,

ekklesia – a calling out; a popular meeting,
especially a religious congregation,
synagogue,
or "Christian" community of members.

It's essential that you clearly understand
there were no "churches"
that existed in this time period.
They were all assemblies,
most of them very Hebraic in their orientation.

Since the very beginning of Scripture
the "people of YAHWEH"
have been referred to as an assembly.

"Church" is a much later term,
having roots in early Greek, kuriakon.
From that came the German, kirche,
and then the Dutch, kerk,
to the English, church - around 1200 AD.

Note that these assemblies are in Asia,
not Yisra'el.
This means they would at the very least
be likely to contain many Gentiles,
as well as the Yisra'elite believers
who lived there.

The throne is the seat of His authority.
It carries great importance.
There are seven distinct "natures",
dimensions of the Divine nature.
They are not necessarily
"in front of the throne",
but are in its presence.

Asia means slime; mire.

Rev. 1:5 and from YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
the faithful witness,
the firstborn from the dead,
and the first in rank
of the sovereigns of the earth.

To Him Who loved us
and has washed our offenses from us
with His own blood,

basileus - a sovereign; most commonly, a king.
One who has supreme authority over others.

YAHUSHUA is first in rank,
now having authority
over every sovereign on the earth
in His ascended state.

Firstborn from the dead
means the first resurrected
and now having an immortal body.

There were others "raised from death",
but they did not have immortal bodies.

"Sin" is an offense against YAHWEH.
It is an act of rebellion against His instructions.
This is certainly offensive to Him.

Rev. 1:6 and has made us sovereigns
and priests of His Elohim and Father,
to Him be honor and dominion
into the ages of eternity!
Amen.

dominion means sovereignty or control.

Rev. 1:7 Behold!
He is coming amidst the clouds.
And every eye will see Him,
even they who pierced Him.
And all the tribes of the soil
will mourn over Him.
Even so Amen.

Behold is a very important term.
Every time it's used
it's in the imperative form - emphatic!
It means, "Pay Attention!"
Each time you see it
an important matter is being presented
that calls for your very serious consideration.

"See Him" is literally, with eyes wide open.

Note the reference to the soil.
We are made from the soil. We are dirt!

AMEN! is a very strong statement.
It literally means, Yes, so be it!
Or, most assuredly.
It is a most emphatic affirmation
attesting to the reality of this prophecy.

Not one person, living or dead,
will escape seeing The Messiah
when He comes!

Rev. 1:8 "I am The Aleph and The Tav,
The Beginning and The End,"

says YAHWEH,
"Who is,
and Who was,
and Who is to come,
The Almighty."

See Isaiah. 41.4, 43.10-13, 44.6, 48.12.
Aleph is the first letter of the Hebrew "aleph-bet".
Tav is the last letter.

The phrase signifies that everything from beginning to end
is under the authority of YAHWEH.

Alpha and Omega are the corresponding first and last letters of Greek.
However, it's important to see the Hebrew understanding of "The First and The Last",
The Aleph and the Tav.

Also, see Chapter 22.

Where "YAHWEH" exists
the Greek text uses kurios
- supreme in authority, i.e. controller;
by implication, Master.
- God, Lord, master, Sir.

The traditional text usually has "The Lord".
But which "Lord" is it?
In this instance there is only one clear answer
- given by the context - it is YAHWEH.
He is the one giving The Revelation,
and He is the one
identified in The Old Covenant.

prantokrator – the all-ruling, i.e. God (as absolute and universal sovereign):
- Almighty, Omnipotent.

Here we find "The Almighty" identified as "the all-ruling, i.e. God".
This can only be YAHWEH.

Rev. 1:9 I, Yahanathan, both your brother and companion in the trouble and the kingdom and endurance
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,

was on the island called Patmos
because of the word of YAHWEH
and because of the evidence given
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

thlipsis – pressure.

Translated as - afflicted(-tion), anguish,
burdened, persecution, tribulation, trouble.

Note: this is not a reference to The Great Tribulation, but rather to the difficulties
of being a believer in the world.

Patmos means my killing.

Rev. 1:10 I existed,
by means of the Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
in The Day of YAHWEH.
And I heard behind me
a noise like a great shofar

pneuma, means a current of air, breath.

Traditionally translated as "spirit".

"Divine Nature" is used in place of "spirit"
because there is no such term as 'spirit' in Hebrew.

It's a Greek creation that never existed
prior to Greek culture.
The term refers to the nature or character
of the being involved.

The Greek preposition, en,
can mean in, with, by, and by means of.

"The Day of YAHWEH" is a direct reference to the prophesied "Day of Wrath"
(or, incorrectly, The Day of The Lord).
It is not a reference to either The Sabbath
or to a 'Sunday'.

Where trumpet is given by the Greek text
it is most likely a reference to the Hebrew shofar.
This is the instrument used to get the attention of the people of YAHWEH.

Rev. 1:11 saying,
"I am The Aleph and The Tav,
The First and The Last."
and, "What you see write on a scroll and send it to the seven assemblies
which are in Asia,
to Ephesus,
to Smyrna,
to Pergamos,
to Thyatira,
to Sardis,
to Philadelphia,
and to Laodicea."

See Rev. 1.4 concerning the assemblies.

Ephesus means full purposed.

Smyrna means myrrh.

Pergamos means much marriage.

Thyatira means odor of affliction.

Sardis means red ones.

Philadelphia means brotherly love.

Laodicea means the people's rights.

Rev. 1:12 Then, I turned to look at the voice that had spoken with me.
And having turned,
I saw seven golden lampstands.
Rev. 1:13 And in the midst of the seven lampstands,
one like a son of man,
clothed with a garment down to the feet
and girded about the chest
with a golden belt.

This phrase "son of man"

is common in The Old Covenant.

It refers most often to a prophet of YAHWEH.

In The New Covenant

it is a reference to The Messiah.

Rev. 1:14 Now the hairs of His head
were white like wool, as white as snow,
and His eyes were like a flame of fire.
Rev. 1:15 His feet were like fine copper,
as if refined in a furnace,
and His voice was like
the sound of many waters.

Rev. 1:16 He held in His right hand
seven stars.
Out of His mouth
projected a sharp two edged sword.
And His appearance was like the sun shining in its power.

Rev. 1:17 And when I saw Him
I fell at His feet as if dead.
Then He placed His right hand upon me,
saying to me,
"Do not be afraid.

I am The First and The Last.

The First = Aleph,
The Last = Tav.
These are the same terms used to refer to YAHWEH Himself.
(See Isaiah 44.6)

Rev. 1:18 I am even He Who lives.
I even became dead.
Yet behold!
I am alive into the ages of eternity.
Amen.
And I hold the keys of Hades and of death.

hades - properly, unseen,
i.e. "Hades" of the place (state)
of departed beings
(sic - Strong uses "souls") - grave, hell.
Hades corresponds to sheol in Hebrew.
It's the place of departed beings,
or the state of being dead.
It's often referred to or translated, incorrectly,
as the grave or hell.
It is neither.

Those terms are used interchangeably
and it makes this quite confusing.
The grave holds the physical body.
Hades is the place
where the nature of a person is apparently retained until Judgment Day.

The key of death is the power of offenses,
which separates us from YAHWEH.
Death is separation.

Rev. 1:19 Write
the things which you have seen,
and the things which are,
and the things which will take place after this.

What Yahnathan is told to write
is very important.
It establishes three categories of things
that he is to write down.
There are many interpretations
of the meanings of these three things,
but the context should be utilized to understand them properly.

Rev. 1:20 The mystery of the seven stars
which you saw in My right hand,
and the seven golden lampstands:
The seven stars are the messengers
of the seven assemblies.
And the seven lampstands which you saw
are the seven assemblies.

Chapter 2

Rev. 2:1 To the messenger

of the assembly of The Ephesians write:
These things says He
Who holds the seven stars
in His right hand,
Who walks about in the midst
of the seven golden lampstands:
Rev. 2:2 I have seen your works,
and your hard labor,
and your endurance,
and that you are not able to put up with worthlessness.
And you have tested those who assert that they are ambassadors,
yet are not,
and have discovered they are liars.
Rev. 2:3 And you have put up with it.
And you have endured patiently.
And you have labored hard
because of My Name.
And you have not become weary.

Note the duplication of the terms
in these two verses.

A double mention is always emphatic,
drawing our attention twice
to the same things for emphasis.
This is a very common practice
in Hebrew writings and thought.

Note also the separation of phrases
into distinct statements.
This is very Hebraic.
It's common to find this
in the Hebrew text of The Old Covenant.
It's an emphatic way of expressing the concepts.
Far too many traditional texts run these into long
and complicated sentences filled with commas.
That approach misses the emphatic nature
of Hebraic expression.

Rev. 2:4 Nevertheless, I hold this against you,
that you have sent away your foremost love.

A special comment is needed.

The verb echo,
which is typically translated as "have",
is a primary verb that means "to hold".
The concept of holding something is far more powerful than that of simply having something.
It infers ownership
rather than mere possession.
In this instance its value is crucial.

A second verb is just as crucial.
It is aphiemi.
It means to send forth or send away.
The typical translation says "you have left".
It's one thing to leave.
It's far more significant to "send away".
Leaving is a more or less passive act.
Sending away is always an intentional act.

Finally, there's the issue
of the type of love involved.
The adjective is protos.
It means foremost in time, place,
order, or importance.
It's typically translated as "first",
signifying importance.
Foremost carries a far stronger representation of the literal sense of the word.

Rev. 2:5 Remember, therefore,
from where you have dropped away.
Reconsider your actions
and do the first works,
or else I will come to you suddenly,
and I will move your lampstand
from its place
unless you reconsider your actions.

ekpipto means to drop away

or to be driven off course.
It can figuratively mean
to lose or to become inefficient.
Apply those concepts to this verse
to get its significance.

Repent is a term we seldom understand properly.
It's a religious term.
In the Greek it means to think differently;
to change one's mind; to reconsider.
It doesn't mean to get all weepy
and apologize to YAHWEH,
feeling bad because of what you've done.
That may be part of what you experience,
but it involves a decision to change
your priorities and your actions.

The implication of the last line
is that this assembly would be eliminated
if they did not change their minds, reconsider,
and restore their foremost love,
the love of YAHWEH.

Rev. 2:6 On the other hand,
you do hold to this,
that you detest the works of the Nicolaitans
which I also detest.

Nicolaitans means conqueror of the people.
The Nicolaitans believed
we are released from the necessity of being doers of The Word of YAHWEH.
This led to eating things sacrificed to idols,
sexual immorality, and many other things.

This was, in its essence, a "tradition of men"
rather than The Word of YAHWEH.
For this reason it was detestable to The Messiah,
Who suffered and died
as a direct result of such practices
among the Scribes and Pharisees of His time.

Rev. 2:7 He who has an ear,
let him listen attentively
to what The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
is saying to the assemblies!

To him who conquers
I will give to eat from The Tree of Life
which is in the midst of the paradise of YAHWEH.

Note who is to listen attentively.
And note that The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
is speaking to the assemblies - plural,
not just to the one at Ephesus.
This is true of the comments to each assembly.

Each message applies to all the assemblies.

The reference to "paradise"
takes us directly back to Genesis 3.22-24.
The word for paradise
means a park, or specifically an Eden.
Go back and look at what Genesis says
about eating from this tree.

Rev. 2:8 And to the messenger
of the Smyrnian assembly write:
These things says The First and The Last,
Who had become dead
yet has come to life.

Rev. 2:9 I have seen your works,
and your troubles,
and your poverty
(however, you are wealthy).
And I know the defamatory speech
of those who say they are Yisra'elites,
yet are not,
but instead,
are a congregation of The Adversary.
"Jews" is really not proper.

It comes from the name for the tribe of Judah, Yahudah in Hebrew.

Yet properly, this should be "Yisra'elites",
because there are 13 tribes, not one.

sunagoge – an assemblage of persons;
a Yisra'elite synagogue;
by analogy, a "Christian church".

Satan is a direct transliteration
from the Hebrew.
It means opponent or adversary.

Rev. 2:10 Do not fear
even one of those things
which you are about to experience.

Behold!
The False Accuser
is about to throw some of you into prison
in order that you might be tested.
And you will have trouble for ten days.
Be faithful until death!
And I will give to you the wreath of The Life.

The Greek word is stephanos
It does not refer to a crown as of a king,
but rather refers to a prize
for winning a contest,
typically symbolized
by a wreath among the Greeks.
In this verse it's actually used as a synonym for a prize.

The phrase, "The Life" is a figure of speech meaning "the prize of Eternal Life".

Rev. 2:11 He who has an ear,
let him listen attentively
to what The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
is saying to the assemblies!

He who conquers
is by no means morally wronged
by the second death.

Each repetition of the opening phrase
adds more emphasis to it.
It's similar to the Hebrew concept of "two witnesses" to confirm a matter.
More witnesses means greater confirmation.

Rev. 2:12 And to the messenger
of the assembly in Pergamos write,
These things says He
Who has the sharp two edged sword.

Rev. 2:13 I have seen your works
and where you reside,
where The Adversary's throne is.
Yet you hold fast to My Name
and have not disavowed the trust of Me
even in the days in which Antipas
was My faithful witness,
who was killed among you
where The Adversary resides.

A throne is a seat of authority.
Antipas means against all.

Rev. 2:14 Nevertheless,
I hold a little against you because you have there
those who hold fast to the instruction of Bil'am,
who taught Balak to throw a snare
in front of the children of Yisra'el;
to eat things sacrificed to idols,
and to commit sexual immorality.

Bil'am means confounding the people.
Balak means one who wastes.
Yisra'el means he who is right with El (God).

Rev. 2:15 In this same manner,
you also have those who hold fast
to the teaching of the Nicolaitans,
which thing I detest.

Rev. 2:16 Reconsider your actions,
or else I will come to you suddenly
and will battle against them with the sword of My mouth!

Rev. 2:17 He who has an ear,
let him listen attentively
to what The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
is saying to the assemblies!

To him who conquers
I will give to eat from the concealed manna.
And I will give him a white pebble,
and on the stone a new name written which no one has known except the one who is receiving it.

Rev. 2:18 And to the messenger
of the assembly in Thyatira write:
These things says The Son of YAHWEH,
Who has eyes like a flame of fire,
and His feet are like fine copper:

Rev. 2:19 I have seen your works,
and your love,
and your service,
and your trust,
and your endurance.
And your last works
are even better than the first.

Rev. 2:20 Nevertheless,
I have a little against you
because you allow the woman, Izebel,
who describes herself as a prophetess,
to teach and to mislead My servants
to commit sexual immorality
and to eat things sacrificed to idols.

*A reminder: These two things,
even from Old Covenant times,
have always been detestable to YAHWEH.
Izabel means unchaste.
(Traditionally, Jezebel.)*

Rev. 2:21 Also, I gave her time to repent
of her sexual immorality.

But she did not repent.

Rev. 2:22 Behold!

I will throw her into a sickbed,
and those who commit adultery with her into great trouble
unless they reconsider their works.

Rev. 2:23 And I will destroy her children
with death.

And all the assemblies will know
that I am He

Who searches the minds and hearts.

And I will give to each one of you
according to your works.

*Lit. - the kidneys and the hearts.
This is a metaphor for the innermost thoughts and desires
in Hebrew thought.*

Rev. 2:24 Now to you I say,
and to the remainder in Thyatira,
as many as do not hold to this teaching,
who have not known
the "depths of Satan" as they say;
I will throw upon you no other burden.

Rev. 2:25 However, hold fast what you have until I arrive.

This is the second time
this type of warning is given.
It's very significant.

Rev. 2:26 And he who conquers
and protects My works until the end,
to him I will give authority over the nations
Rev. 2:27 even as I have received
from My Father.

*"He will rule them with a rod of iron;
They will be dashed to pieces
like the potter's vessels"*
(Ps. 2.8-9)

The text has been slightly adjusted to give a more proper flow
to the thoughts involved.
No change in meaning is created.

Rev. 2:28 And I will give to him
the morning star.

day star; see 2 Pet. 1.9

Rev. 2:29 He who has an ear,
let him listen attentively
to what The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
is saying to the assemblies!

Chapter 3

Rev. 3:1 And to the messenger
of the assembly in Sardis write,
These things says He Who has the seven Divine Natures of YAHWEH
and the seven stars.

I have seen your works,
that you have a name that you are alive,
but you are dead.

There are seven assemblies,
seven messengers
and now seven Divine Natures.

We know The seven stars
are the messengers
of the seven assemblies.
The seven natures
are seven "characteristics" of YAHWEH.
See Isaiah 11.2.

The concept of "name" is important here.
The Hebrew word for name means name, title, character, authority.
It is a designation,
that which identifies a person in some manner.
It is not necessarily only a "name".

Rev. 3:2 Be vigilant!
And firmly establish those who remain
and are about to die.
Indeed, I have not found your works satisfactory before YAHWEH.

Rev. 3:3 Remember, therefore,
how much you have received
and have heard,
and hold fast,
and reconsider!

However, if you will not be vigilant
I will come upon you like a thief,
and you will not know at what hour
I will come upon you.

Rev. 3:4 You have a few names even in Sardis
who have not defiled their garments.
And they will walk with Me in white because they are deserving.

Rev. 3:5 He who conquers
will be clothed in white garments.
And I will not erase his name
from The Book of Life.
And I will acknowledge his name
in the presence of My Father and in the presence of His messengers.

Rev. 3:6 He who has an ear,
let him listen attentively
to what The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
is saying to the assemblies!

Note that this is always plural.
It refers to all assemblies,
including those of today,
not merely to the current one being addressed.

Rev. 3:7 And to the messenger
of the assembly in Philadelphia write:
These things says He Who is set apart,
He Who is truthful,
He Who holds the key of David,
Who opens up and not even one closes,
and closes and not even one opens up.

David means beloved.

Rev. 3:8 I have seen your works!
Behold!
I have provided before you
an open entrance.
And not even one is able to close it
because you have a little ability.
And you have protected My word.
And you have not denied My Name.

Rev. 3:9 Behold!
I will give up those of the synagogue of The Adversary
who say they are Yisra'elites,
yet are not, but instead lie.
Behold!
I will make them to come
and worship before your feet
and to know that I have loved you.

Rev. 3:10 Because you have protected
the message of My endurance
I will also protect you from the hour of trial
which is about to come upon the whole world
to test those who are residing upon the earth.

Rev. 3:11 Behold!
I am coming suddenly!
Hold fast what you have
in order that no one might take your prize!

Rev. 3:12 He who conquers,
I will make a pillar
in The Temple of My Elohim.
And he will no longer go out.
I will engrave upon him
the Name of My Elohim
and the name of the city of My Elohim,
The New Yerushalaim,
which descends out of The Heaven
from My Elohim.
And I will engrave upon him My new Name.

Yerushalaim means
complete teaching of deliverance.

Rev. 3:13 He who has an ear,
let him listen attentively
to what The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
is saying to the assemblies!

Rev. 3:14 And to the messenger
of the Laodicean assembly write:
These things says The Amen,
The faithful and truthful witness,
the beginning of the creation of The Elohim:

Amen means firm, certain, true.
Figuratively it means trustworthy.
Given the context,
it appears to mean The Trustworthy One.

Rev. 3:15 I have seen your works,
that you are neither cold nor hot.
Oh, that you would be cold or hot!

Rev. 3:16 Accordingly,
because you are lukewarm
and neither cold nor hot,
I will vomit you out of My mouth

Rev. 3:17 because you say,
"I am rich,
have become wealthy,
and have need of nothing.",
yet do not understand that you
are wretched,
and miserable,
and pitiable,
and blind,
and naked.

Rev. 3:18 I advise you to purchase from Me
gold refined in the fire
so that you may become wealthy,
and white garments
so that you may become clothed.
Then the disgrace of your nakedness
will not be rendered apparent.
And rub in your eyes eye salve
in order that you might see.

Rev. 3:19 As many as I care about
I admonish and discipline.
Therefore be zealous
and reconsider your actions!

The word in this verse is phileo.
It is brotherly love, not agape,
which is YAHWEH's type of love.
It means to be a friend.
The distinction is very important.

Rev. 3:20 Behold!
I stand at the door and knock.
If anyone hears My voice
and opens the door
I will come in to him and dine with him and he with Me.

Rev. 3:21 To him who conquers
I will grant to sit with Me at My throne,
just as I also have conquered
and have sat down with My Father
at His throne.

Rev. 3:22 He who has an ear,
let him listen attentively
to what The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
is saying to the assemblies!

Chapter 4

Rev. 4:1 After these things I looked,
and behold!
A door was standing open in The Heaven.
And the first voice
which I had heard like a shofar
was speaking with me saying,
"Come up here and I will show you what must take place after these things!"

Rev. 4:2 Instantly I was caused to be
in The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.
And behold!

A throne had been set in The Heaven.
And One was sitting upon the throne.
Rev. 4:3 And He Who was sitting thereon was in appearance like a jasper stone
and a sardius stone.

And there was a rainbow around the throne,
in appearance like an emerald.

Rev. 4:4 Around the throne
were twenty four thrones.
And on the thrones I saw twenty four elders sitting,
clothed in white robes.
And they had wreaths of gold
upon their heads.

The concept is that of a laurel wreath,
obtained as a prize
for winning a competitive event.
These are not kingly styled crowns.

Rev. 4:5 And from the throne proceeded lightnings
and thunderings
and sounds.
And seven lamps of fire
were burning in front of the throne,
which are the seven
Divine Natures of YAHWEH.

Aspects of His "Divine nature".

Rev. 4:6 And in front of the throne
was a transparent sea, like crystal.
And in the midst of the throne
and around the throne
were four living beings
full of eyes in front and in back.

Rev. 4:7 The first living being was like a lion.
The second living being like a young bull.
The third living being had a face like a man.
And the fourth living being
was like a flying eagle.

Rev. 4:8 The four living beings
each had six wings surrounding them.
And they were full of eyes within.
And they do not rest day or night, saying:
"Holy, holy, holy, Sovereign Elohim,
The Almighty,
Who was
and Who is
and Who is coming!"

Rev. 4:9 And whenever the living beings give praise and honor and gratitude to Him Who sits on the throne,
Who lives into the ages of eternity,
Rev. 4:10 the twenty four elders fall down before Him Who sits on the throne and worship Him Who lives
into the ages of eternity.
And they throw their wreaths
in front of the throne saying,
Rev. 4:11 "You are worthy, Sovereign, to receive praise
and honor
and power
because You created all things,
and by Your will they exist
and have been created."

Chapter 5

Rev. 5:1 And I saw in the right hand

of Him Who sat on the throne
a scroll written inside and on the back,
sealed with seven seals.

Such a scroll was used as a "title deed" to one's property
in Hebrew culture.
The seals are literally signets as on a ring.
Seven is the number of completion or perfection,
indicating a complete and perfect seal.

Rev. 5:2 Then I saw a mighty messenger
proclaiming with a loud voice,
"Who is worthy to open the scroll
and to loose its seals?"

Rev. 5:3 And no one in The Heaven or on the earth
or under the earth
was able to open the scroll,
nor even to look at it.

Rev. 5:4 And I sobbed greatly because not even one was found worthy to open and to read the scroll
nor even to look at it.

Rev. 5:5 Then one of the elders said to me,
"Do not sob.
Behold!
The Lion Who is from the tribe of Yahudah,
the root of David,
has prevailed to open the scroll
and to loose its seven seals."

Yahudah, means YAH be praised.

Rev. 5:6 Then I looked.
And behold!
In the midst of the throne
and of the four living beings,
and in the midst of the elders,
stood a Lamb, as if it had been butchered,
having seven horns and seven eyes,
which are the seven
Divine Natures of YAHWEH
sent out into all the earth.

The term means butchered or slaughtered.
The Lamb is revealed in The Heaven
in the same manner it existed after being killed!
It appears The Lamb will bear the marks
of torture and death for Eternity.
Horns represent power or authority.

Rev. 5:7 And He came and took the scroll out of the right hand
of Him Who sat on the throne.

Rev. 5:8 Now when He had taken the scroll
the four living animals
and the twenty four elders
fell down before The Lamb,
each having a harp
and golden bowls full of incense,
which are the prayers of the set apart ones.

Rev. 5:9 And they sang a new song saying,
"You are worthy to take the scroll
and to open its seals
because You have been slaughtered
and have purchased us for YAHWEH
by means of Your blood
out of every family,
and language
and people,
and nation.

Rev. 5:10 And you have made us kings
and priests of our Elohim.
And we will rule upon the earth."

Note who is identified as kings and priests.
It is the four living beings and the 24 elders.

Rev. 5:11 Then I looked.
And I heard the sound of many messengers
surrounding the throne,
the living beings, and the elders.
And the number of them
was ten thousand times ten thousand;
even thousands of thousands
Rev. 5:12 saying with a loud voice,
"Worthy is The Lamb Who was slaughtered to receive power
and wealth
and wisdom,
and strength
and honor
and magnificence
and blessing!"

Rev. 5:13 And every creature
which is in the sky
and on the earth
and under the earth
and such as are upon the sea
and all that are in it I heard saying,
"Blessing
and honor
and glory
and dominion
be to Him Who sits on the throne
and to The Lamb
into the ages of eternity!"

Rev. 5:14 Then the four living beings said,
"Amen!"
And the twenty four elders
fell down and worshiped
Him Who is alive into the ages of eternity.

Chapter 6

Rev. 6:1 And I saw when The Lamb
had opened one of the seals.
And I heard one of the four living beings saying with a sound like thunder,
"Come and look!"
Rev. 6:2 And I looked.
And behold!
A white horse,
and he who was sitting on it having a bow.
And a wreath had been given to him.
And he had come out conquering,
even in order that he might conquer.
stephanos - a victory wreath,
not a kingly crown.

Rev. 6:3 When He had opened the second seal
I heard the second living being saying,
"Come and look!"
Rev. 6:4 And a different horse,
fiery red, had come out.
And it was granted
to the one who was sitting on it
to take peace away from the earth,
even in order that
people might slaughter one another.
And there had been given to him a great sword.

Rev. 6:5 When He had opened the third seal
I heard the third living being saying,
"Come and look!"
And I saw.
And behold!
A black horse.
And he who was sitting on it had a pair of scales in his hand.

Rev. 6:6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living beings saying,
“A quart of wheat for a denarius,
and three quarts of barley for a denarius.
Yet do not harm the olive oil and the wine.”

A denarius was a day's wages.
What's indicated
is a very costly price for food.

Rev. 6:7 And when He had opened
the fourth seal
I heard the voice
of the fourth living being saying,
“Come and look!”

Rev. 6:8 And I saw.
And behold!

A pale green horse.
And the designation of him
who was sitting on it was Death.
And Hades followed after him.
And authority had been given to them
over a fourth of the earth
to kill with a sword,
and with hunger,
and with death,
and with the dangerous animals of the earth.

This could include pestilences
caused by even minute "dangerous animals";
viruses, bacteria, etc.

Rev. 6:9 And when He had opened
the fifth seal
I saw under the altar the lives of those who had been slaughtered
because of the word of YAHWEH
and because of the testimony which they held.

Rev. 6:10 And they shouted
with a loud voice saying,
“How long, Master,
the holy and truthful One,
until You judge and avenge our blood
on those who are dwelling on the earth?”

despotes - absolute ruler.

Rev. 6:11 And white robes
had been given to each of them.
And it had been said to them
that they should rest a little while longer
until their fellow servants and their brothers
who would be killed as they were was finished.

Rev. 6:12 And I saw
when He had opened the sixth seal.
And behold!
There was a great earthquake.
And the sun became black
like sackcloth of hair.
And the moon became like blood.

There's a subtle shift
in the wording at this point.
This indicates a change
in the way things are being done.
This is always indicative
of something new and different.
Pay attention to such shifts.

Rev. 6:13 And the stars of the sky
fell to the earth
like a fig tree drops its late figs
when it is shaken by a great wind.
Rev. 6:14 And the sky was removed
like a scroll when it is rolled up.
And every mountain and island
was moved out of its place.

Rev. 6:15 And the rulers of the earth,
and the chief men,
and the wealthy,
and the commanders,
and the powerful,
and every slave,
and every free man
hid themselves in the caves
and in the rocks of the mountains.

Rev. 6:16 And they were saying
to the mountains and rocks,
"Fall upon us and hide us
from the face of Him
Who is sitting upon the throne
and from the wrath of The Lamb,
Rev. 6:17 because The Great Day
of His wrath has come,
and who is able to stand?"

orge is translated as wrath.
It really represents a settled, determined anger,
not a sudden burst of rage.
There's a different word for that.
This is much more deliberate in its nature.

But it's also interesting to note that orge properly means desire.
It's only by analogy that it becomes "wrath".
Ultimately the destruction of all that is hurtful ("evil")
is the true desire of YAHWEH.
Thus in sending forth His wrath
He is fulfilling His desire.

Chapter 7

Rev. 7:1 And after these things
I saw four messengers
standing at the four corners of the earth,
restraining the four winds of the earth
in order that the wind might not blow
upon the earth,
upon the sea,
or upon any tree.

Rev. 7:2 And I saw another messenger
ascending from the east
having the seal of The Living Elohim.
And he cried with a loud voice
to the four messengers
to whom it was granted
to harm the earth and the sea,

Rev. 7:3 saying,
"Do not harm the earth, the sea, or the trees
until we have sealed
the servants of our Elohim
upon their foreheads!"

Rev. 7:4 And I heard the number of those who were being sealed.
One hundred and forty four thousand
from all the tribes of the children of Yisra'el
were sealed,

7:5 from the tribe of Yahudah
twelve thousand were sealed;
from the tribe of Re'uben
twelve thousand were sealed;
from the tribe of Gad
twelve thousand were sealed;

Rev. 7:6 from the tribe of Asher
twelve thousand were sealed;
from the tribe of Naphtali
twelve thousand were sealed;
from the tribe of Menashe
twelve thousand were sealed;

Rev. 7:7 from the tribe of Shim'on
twelve thousand were sealed;
from the tribe of Levi

twelve thousand were sealed;
from the tribe of Yisasskar
twelve thousand were sealed;
Rev. 7:8 from the tribe of Zebulun
twelve thousand were sealed;
from the tribe of Yoseph
twelve thousand were sealed;
from the tribe of Binyamin
twelve thousand were sealed.

Yahudah means YAH be praised,

Re'uben means look, a son.

Gad means a troop.

Asher means happy.

Naphtali means my wrestling.

Manasseh means causing to forget.

Shim'on means listening attentively.

Levi means joined.

Yisasskar means he will bring a reward.

Yoseph means he will add.

Zebulun means dwelling.

Binyamin means son of the right hand.

Note: The tribe of Ephraim is missing,
likely due to the extreme rebellion
on the part of Ephraim

- which was the "Northern Tribe of Yisra'el",
otherwise known as Shomer'on (Samaria).

The tribe of Dan is also missing.

Rev. 7:9 After these things I looked.

And behold!

A large crowd

which no one was able to count

from all races, and clans,

and peoples, and languages,

standing before the throne

and before The Lamb,

having been clothed with white garments,

and with palm branches in their hands.

Rev. 7:10 And they were crying out

with a loud voice saying,

"Our deliverance is of YAHWEH,

Who is sitting upon the throne,

and of The Lamb!"

Rev. 7:11 And all the messengers

stood around the throne,

and the elders and the four living beings.

And they fell on their faces before the throne

and worshiped YAHWEH,

Rev. 7:12 saying,

"Amen!

Blessing

and honor

and wisdom

and thanksgiving

and preciousness

and power

and might,

be to our Elohim into the ages of eternity.

Amen!"

Rev. 7:13 And one of the elders responded,
saying to me,

"Who are these

that are clothed in white robes?

And where did they come from?"

Rev. 7:14 And I said to him,

"Master, you understand."

Then he said to me,

"These are the ones

who come out of the great trouble,

and have washed their robes

and have whitened them

by means of the blood of The Lamb.

thlipsis means pressure.

Often translated as tribulation,

it's also translated as affliction,
anguish, persecution, or trouble.
Regardless of what term you use
the concept involves difficulty.
In this instance it points
toward one specific time of major trouble.

Tribulation is the term traditionally used.
It has become a "religious" word
that few truly understand.
See Jer. 30.7 which points
to the time of Ya'akov's Trouble.
This is the event in view here.
It is related to Yisra'el specifically.

Rev. 7:15 Because of this
they are before the throne of YAHWEH
and serve Him day and night in His temple.

And He Who is sitting upon the throne
will dwell among them.

Lit. - "tabernacle", pitch His tent.
This connects Revelation to The Exodus,
the wilderness wanderings,
and the entry into The Promised Land.

Rev. 7:16 They will not be hungry anymore
nor will they be thirsty anymore.
The sun will not fall upon them
nor burn any one

The language is a bit vague here,
but the sense appears to be that the sun,
which becomes a serious problem
in the last days in particular,
will no longer bring a burning heat
to oppress them.
Indeed, in eternity there will be no sun or moon any longer.
See Rev. 21.23, 22.5.

Rev. 7:17 because The Lamb
Who is in the midst of the throne
ill shepherd them.

And He will guide them
to living fountains of waters.
And YAHWEH will wipe away
every tear from their eyes."

Chapter 8

Rev. 8:1 And when He had opened
the seventh seal
there was silence in The Heaven
for about half an hour.

Rev. 8:2 And I saw the seven messengers
who were standing before YAHWEH.
And to them had been given seven shofars.

Rev. 8:3 Then another messenger
holding a golden censer
came and stood at the altar.
He was given much incense
in order that he might offer it with the prayers of all the set apart ones
upon the golden altar
which was before the throne.

This is the "table of incense"
that stood just outside
the inner sanctuary of The Temple.

Rev. 8:4 And the smoke of the incense,
with the prayers of the set apart ones,
ascended from the hand of the messenger
in the presence of YAHWEH.

Rev. 8:5 Then the messenger took the censer, completely filled it
with the fire from the altar,
and threw it upon the earth.

And there were noises,

and thunderings,
and lightnings,
and an earthquake.

Rev. 8:6 Then the seven messengers
who had the seven shofars
prepared themselves to sound a blast.

Rev. 8:7 And the first messenger
sounded a blast.
And it became hail and fire mixed with blood.
And they were thrown upon the earth.
And a third of the trees
were burned to the ground.
And all green grass
was burned to the ground.

Rev. 8:8 Then the second messenger
sounded a blast.
And something like a great mountain burning with fire
was thrown into the sea.
And a third of the sea became blood.
Rev. 8:9 And a third of the creatures in the sea,
those that had life, died.
And a third of the ships were destroyed.

The creatures that died
were those with psuche, breath, life.
One third of these died.
This Implies that some creatures
do not have this characteristic.
Destroyed - Lit. means thoroughly rotted.

Rev. 8:10 Then the third messenger
sounded a blast.
And a great star fell from the sky
burning like a lamp.
And it fell upon a third of the rivers
and upon the springs of water.

This could mean like a torch,
or it could also mean
it was burning very brightly.

Rev. 8:11 The name of the star is Wormwood.
Wormwood means bitterness

A third of the waters became wormwood.
And many human beings
died from the waters
because they were made bitter.

Rev. 8:12 Then the fourth messenger
sounded a blast.
And a third of the sun was struck,
also a third of the moon,
and a third of the stars,
so that a third of them were obscured.
A third of the daylight did not shine,
and likewise the night.

Rev. 8:13 And I observed.
And I heard one messenger flying
in the midst of the sky
saying with a loud voice,
"Woe, woe, woe
to those who reside on the earth,
because of the remaining sounds of the shofar
of the three messengers
who are about to sound a blast!"

Chapter 9

Rev. 9:1 Then the fifth messenger
sounded a blast.
And I saw a star
falling from the sky onto the earth.

To him was given the key to the bottomless pit.

abusso – the abyss

Rev. 9:2 And he opened the bottomless pit.
And smoke arose out of the pit
like the smoke of a large furnace.
And the sun and the air were obscured
because of the smoke of the pit.
Rev. 9:3 And out of the smoke
came locusts upon the earth.
And to them was given power
like the power of the scorpions of the earth.
Rev. 9:4 And they were told not to harm
the vegetation of the earth (not any green thing, nor any tree)
but only those persons who do not have the seal of YAHWEH
on their foreheads.

Rev. 9:5 And they were not given
authority to kill them,
but rather to torture them for five months.
And their torture was like the torture of a scorpion
when it strikes a person.
Rev. 9:6 And in those days
persons will seek death and will not find it.
They will even long for death,
but death will run away from them.

Rev. 9:7 And the resemblances of the locusts
was like horses prepared for warfare.
On their heads were wreaths similar to gold ones
and their faces were like
the faces of human beings.
Rev. 9:8 And they had hair like women's hair
and their teeth were like lions' teeth.
Rev. 9:9 And they had chests like chests of iron.
And the sound of their wings
was like the sound of chariots
with many horses running into warfare.
Rev. 9:10 They had tails like scorpions
and there were sharp points in their tails.
Their authority was to hurt persons
five months.

Rev. 9:11 And they had as king over them
the messenger of the bottomless pit,
whose name in the Hebrew language
is Abaddon,
and in Greek he has the name Apollyon.

Rev. 9:12 One woe is past.
Behold!
Still two more woes
are coming after these things.

Rev. 9:13 Then the sixth messenger
sounded a blast.
And I heard a voice from the four horns
of the golden altar which is before YAHWEH
Rev. 9:14 saying to the sixth messenger
who had the shofar,
"Release the four messengers
who are restricted
at the great river Euphrates."

Euphrates means fruitfulness.

Rev. 9:15 And the four messengers who had been prepared for the hour
and day
and month

and year

were released to kill a third of mankind.

Note the intensity and the specificity

- the hour, day, month, and year.

There is no "coincidence" in this timing.

It's planned with certainty.

Rev. 9:16 And the number of the troops of the horsemen
was two hundred million.
I even heard the number of them.

Rev. 9:17 And this is how I saw the horses in the vision
and those who were sitting on them.
They had chests of flaming fire,
hyacinth blue, and of sulfur yellow.
And the heads of the horses
were like the heads of lions.
And out of their mouths
came fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

Rev. 9:18 By these three plagues
a third of humanity was killed,
by the fire, and the smoke, and the brimstone which came out of their mouths.

Rev. 9:19 Indeed, their power
is in their mouth and in their tails.
Indeed, their tails are like serpents,
having heads.

And with them they do harm.

adikeo - to be unjust, i.e. (actively) do wrong.

Rev. 9:20 But the rest of humanity
who were not killed by these calamities
did not reconsider of the works of their hands,
in order that they
might not worship unclean natures,
and images of gold, silver,
copper, stone, and wood,
which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk.

Rev. 9:21 And they did not reconsider their murders
or their sorceries
or their sexual immorality
or their thefts.

Chapter 10

Rev. 10:1 Then I saw another mighty messenger
coming down out of The Heaven
clothed with a cloud.
And a rainbow was over his head.
His face was like the sun,
and his feet were like columns of fire.

Rev. 10:2 And He had a small book
open in his hand.
And he placed his right foot on the sea
and his left foot on the land.

Rev. 10:3 And he shouted with a loud voice
like when a lion roars.

And when he had shouted
the seven thunders uttered their voices.

Rev. 10:4 And when the seven thunders
had uttered their voices I was about to write.

But I heard a voice from The Heaven
saying to me,

"Seal up

what the seven thunders have uttered
and do not write them."

Note the significance of this.

Not everything is able to be revealed even yet.

There are things coming

that we do not yet know about.
YAHWEH speaks of "doing new things,
things which you have not known before".
See Is. 42.9, 48.6.

Rev. 10:5 Then the messenger
whom I saw standing on the sea
and on the land
raised up his hand to The Heaven
Rev. 10:6 and swore by Him Who lives
into the ages of eternity,
Who created the sky
and the things that are in it,
and the earth
and the things that are in it,
and the sea
and the things that are in it,
that time will no longer exist.

This is very significant.
Consider the implications
for the end of "time" as you know it.

Rev. 10:7 Instead, in the days of the sound of the seventh messenger,
when he is about to sound,
the mystery of YAHWEH
will have been finished,
even as He has declared
to His servants, the prophets.

Rev. 10:8 Then the voice
which I heard from The Heaven spoke to me again and said,
"Go!
Take the small book
which is open in the hand of the messenger
who stands on the sea and on the land."

Rev. 10:9 And I went to the messenger.
And I said to him,
"Give me the small book."
And he said to me,
"Take it and devour it!
And it will make your stomach bitter,
but it will be as sweet as honey
in your mouth."

See Ezek 3. 1-5 where this same concept is presented to another prophet.

Rev. 10:10 Then I took the small book
out of the messenger's hand.
And I devoured it.
And it was as sweet
as honey in my mouth.
Yet as soon as I had devoured it
my stomach became bitter.

Rev. 10:11 Then he said to me,
"You must prophesy again
over many peoples,
and races, and languages, and kings."

Chapter 11

Rev. 11:1 Then a reed similar to a staff
was given to me.
And the messenger stood saying,
"Wake up and measure
The Temple of YAHWEH,
the altar,
and those who are worshipping there!
Rev. 11:2 But leave out the court which is outside The Temple and do not measure it
because it has been given to the Gentiles.
And they will trample the set apart city
for forty two months.

Rev. 11:3 And I will provide My two witnesses.
And they will prophesy
one thousand two hundred and sixty days clothed in sackcloth.”

42 months stated in terms of days,
30 days per month.
42 months is 3 1/2 years.
Being clothed in sackcloth is significant.
Traditionally it represents mourning.

Rev. 11:4 These are the two olive trees
and the two lampstands
standing before The Elohim of the earth.

Rev. 11:5 And if anyone wants to harm them
fire proceeds from their mouth
and devours their enemies.
And if anyone wants to harm them
he must be killed in this manner.

Rev. 11:6 These have authority to shut up the sky
so that rain does not moisten
in the days of their prophecy.
They also have authority over the waters
to turn them to blood
and to strike the earth with every calamity
whenever they desire.

The Greek term is plege
and means a stroke or wound.
It's often translated as plague,
but more appropriately it means a calamity.

Rev. 11:7 When they have finished their testimony
the wild beast that ascends
out of the bottomless pit
will make war against them,
conquer them, and kill them.
Rev. 11:8 And their dead bodies will lie
upon the street of the great city which non-carnally is called Sedom and Egypt,
in which place also
our Master was crucified.

Lit. - impaled on the torture stake.
Obviously this means Yerushalaim.
Sedom means fettered.
Egypt means double straits, trouble.

Rev. 11:9 And those from the peoples,
and tribes,
and languages,
and nations
will look at their dead bodies
three and one half days.
And they will not allow their dead bodies
to be put into graves.

Rev. 11:10 And those who are dwelling upon the earth
will rejoice over them,
and be glad,
and send gifts to one another
because these two prophets tortured
those who are dwelling upon the earth.

Rev. 11:11 And after the three and one half days
the breath of life from YAHWEH entered them.
And they stood upon their feet.

And great fright fell upon those who were watching them.

Lit. - were spectators

Rev. 11:12 Then they heard a great voice
from The Heaven saying to them,

“Come up here!”
And they ascended to The Heaven
in a cloud.
And their enemies watched them.

Rev. 11:13 In that same hour
there was a great earthquake.
And a tenth of the city fell.
In the earthquake
seven thousand persons were killed.
And the remaining ones were terrified
and gave praise
to The Elohim of The Heaven.

Rev. 11:14 The second woe has past.
Behold!
The third woe comes without delay.

Rev. 11:15 Then the seventh messenger
sounded a blast.
And there were great voices
in The Heaven saying,
“The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Supreme Authority
and of His Messiah!
And They will reign into the ages of eternity!”

Rev. 11:16 And the twenty four elders
who were sitting upon their thrones
in the presence of YAHWEH
fell upon their faces and worshiped YAHWEH
Rev. 11:17 saying,
“We are grateful to You,
Sovereign YAHWEH, The Almighty,
Who is
and Who was
and Who is to come,
because You have taken Your great power
and are reigning.

Rev. 11:18 And the nations
have become enraged.
And Your wrath has come,
even the occasion for the dead to be judged,
and compensation to be given
to Your servants, the prophets,
and to the set apart ones,
and to those who revere Your Name,
small and great,
and to destroy those who destroy the earth.”

Rev. 11:19 Then The Temple of YAHWEH
was opened in The Heaven,
and The Chest of His Covenant
appeared in His Temple.

And there were lightnings,
and sounds,
and thunderings,
and an earthquake,
and great hail.

The word for chest
is the same word used for "the Ark" of Noah.
Literally, it is a box, or chest, a container.
It is not a 'boat'.
The same term is used for the 'basket'
in which Moses was floated on The Nile.

Now, take special note
that this very specific item
is opened in The Heaven,
not on the earth.

Chapter 12

Rev. 12:1 Then a great sign
appeared in the sky,
a woman having been clothed with the sun.
And the moon was under her feet,
and upon her head
was a wreath of twelve stars.
Rev. 12:2 And having a child in her womb
she cried out experiencing labor pains
and being tormented as she gave birth.

Rev. 12:3 Then another sign
appeared in the sky.
Behold!
A great fire-like dragon
having seven heads and ten horns,
and seven diadems upon his heads.
*A diadem is indeed a kingly crown.
It's different from the victory wreath
given to competitors in a contest.*

Rev. 12:4 And his tail dragged one third of the stars of The Heaven
and threw them onto the earth.

And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth
to devour her child as soon as it was born.
*It's believed this represents the fallen angels who followed Lucifer
and were thrown out of The Heaven.*

Rev. 12:5 And she gave birth to a male child
Who would rule all nations with a rod of iron.
And her child was taken to YAHWEH
and to His throne.
*A reference to The Messiah.
"harpazo" - to seize.
This term is traditionally
applied to "the rapture".
But it is often misinterpreted in that process.*

*In this instance the Greek states
the child is seized to (or toward) YAHWEH.
This implies it is "taken" to Him.
Thus, it represents The Messiah
Who is now in His presence.*

Rev. 12:6 Then the woman ran away into the wilderness
where she has a place
prepared by YAHWEH
in order that she might be nourished there
for one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

Rev. 12:7 Then warfare happened
in The Heaven.
Michael and his messengers
battled with the dragon.
And the dragon and his messengers battled,
Michael means who is like El (God).

Rev. 12:8 but they had no strength,
nor was a place found for them
in The Heaven any longer.

Rev. 12:9 So the great dragon
was thrown out,
the ancient serpent
called The False Accuser
and The Adversary,
who deceives the whole world.
He was thrown onto the earth.
And his messengers
were thrown down with him.

*This is Lucifer.
His name means light bearer.
He is often referred to as Satan (the adversary)
and the devil (the false accuser).
He has messengers also,*

but they are harmful messengers,
not good ones.

The concept of the 'serpent' is questionable.
It may indeed mean 'The Shining One'.
The Hebrew terms come from the same root.
This would connect more properly to Lucifer as the 'light-bearer'
and the anointed cherub.
He was certainly not snake-like.
We are told he was extremely beautiful.

Rev. 12:10 Then I heard a loud voice saying in The Heaven,
"This day deliverance has come,
even the miraculous power
and the kingdom of our Elohim
and the authority of His Messiah
because the accuser of our brothers who brought charges against them
in the presence of our Elohim day and night,
has been thrown down.

Rev. 12:11 And they conquered him
by the blood of The Lamb
and by the message of their testimony.
And they had not loved their lives
even up to death.

Rev. 12:12 For this reason rejoice Heavens,
and you who are dwelling in them!

Woe to the residents of the earth and the sea
because The False Accuser
has come down to you,
having great indignation,
knowing he has a brief time."

Rev. 12:13 And when the dragon saw that he had been thrown onto the earth
he pursued the woman
who gave birth to the male child.

Rev. 12:14 And the woman was given two wings of a great eagle
in order that she might fly into the wilderness,
into her place where she is nourished
for a time and times and half a time away from the presence of the serpent.

Rev. 12:15 Then the serpent spewed water
like a river out of his mouth
behind the woman
in order that he might cause her
to be overwhelmed by the river.

Rev. 12:16 But the earth helped the woman.
And the earth opened its mouth
and swallowed up the river
which the dragon had spewed
out of his mouth.

Rev. 12:17 And the dragon
was enraged against the woman.
And he went to make war
with the rest of her offspring
who are keeping
the precepts of YAHWEH
and have the testimony
of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

Chapter 13

Rev. 13:1 Then I stood on
the sand of the sea.
And I saw a beast rising up out of the sea
having seven heads and ten horns,
and upon his horns ten diadems,

and upon his heads a blasphemous name.
Rev. 13:2 And the beast which I saw
was like a leopard.
His feet were like the feet of a bear
and his mouth like the mouth of a lion.
The dragon gave to him his power,
and his throne,
and great authority.

Rev. 13:3 And I saw one of his heads
as if it had been mortally wounded,
but his deadly wound was healed.
And all the world marveled after the beast.

Rev. 13:4 And they worshipped the dragon
who had given authority to the beast.
And they worshiped the beast saying,
"Who is like the beast?
Who is able to wage war against him?"

Rev. 13:5 And he was given a mouth
speaking great things and defamations.
And he was given authority to continue
for forty two months.

Rev. 13:6 Then he opened his mouth
in blasphemy against YAHWEH
to defame His Name,
His tabernacle,
and those who are dwelling in The Heaven.

Rev. 13:7 And it was granted to him
to make war against the set apart ones
and to conquer them.

And authority was given to him
over every tribe, and language, and nation.

Rev. 13:8 And everyone who is residing on the earth will worship him
whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of The Lamb
Who was to be slaughtered
since the establishment of the creation.

The concept of residing
is that of being housed permanently.
It's different than the term used in 13.6,
which involves "tabernacling", occupying.

This ties in to the concept that we will not have permanent houses in Heaven,
but rather, will be permanent guests
of YAHWEH in His House.
The language is difficult to translate accurately.

The verse states
The Lamb was to be slaughtered
right from the start of creation.
In light of the story of Adam and Eve
this is essentially what took place.
Their offense created
the necessity of His death.
From that moment His death
was certified as being essential in order to accomplish redemption
from all offenses since the first one.
This is extremely profound.

Rev. 13:9 If anyone has an ear,
let him listen attentively!

Rev. 13:10 If anyone leads others into captivity
he goes into captivity.
If anyone kills with the sword
he must be killed with the sword.

Herein is the endurance and the trust
of the set apart ones.

The concept is:
"what you sow is what you reap".

Rev. 13:11 Then I saw another beast
rising up from the land.
And he had two horns like a lamb
but he spoke like a dragon.
Rev. 13:12 And he exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence.
And he makes the earth
and those who are residing on it to worship the first beast
whose deadly wound was healed.

Rev. 13:13 He does great signs,
even such that he makes fire
come down from the sky onto the earth
in the sight of men.

Rev. 13:14 And he deceives those who are residing on the earth
by those signs
which he had been given to do in the presence of the beast, telling those who are residing upon the earth
to make an image to the beast
which had the wound by a sword yet lived.

Rev. 13:15 And he gave the gift of breath
to the image of the beast,
in order that the image of the beast
might even speak.
And he caused as many
as would not worship
the image of the beast to be killed.

pneuma – a current of air, breath.

Rev. 13:16 He causes everyone,
the small and the great,
the rich and the poor,
the free and the slave,
to intentionally receive for themselves
a mark (or, a stamp)
upon their right hand
or upon their foreheads,

Rev. 13:17 even in order that no one is able to buy or sell
who does not have the mark
or the name of the beast,
or the number of his name.

Consider this very carefully.

Everyone knows about
the "Mark Of The Beast".
But how many understand that the "system" is not confined to
"The Mark" alone?

It includes his name or number as well.

Rev. 13:18 In this is wisdom.
Let him who has intelligence
compute the number of the beast.
Indeed, it is the number of a human being.
And his number is 1047
(The Hebrew equivalent of the Greek word used here.)

Tradition tells us the number of "the mark of the beast" is 666.
However, Strong's Geek Dictionary states that is is 600, not 666.
It appears someone has taken the letters of the Greek word used here and used the individual letters to add up to 666.
Yet even that is speculation.

To do this one must use what's referred to as "gematria".
It involves taking the individual values of each letter,
again based on "tradition" and not on biblically stated principles,
to arrive at the stated result.

There are three letters, essentially equivalent to xss,
 where x = 600 and s = 6.
 To arrive at 666 you must make the first s = 60
 and the second s = 6, simply based on their position in the word.
 But this is ridiculous.
 If you're calculating a value using the individual letter's value
 you should end up with 612, 600+6+6.
 In gematria calculations you could also end up with 18. 6+6+6 = 18.
 18 is then also seen as 9, 1+8.
 This is the way gematria is traditionally done,
 but there are even potential issues with this since nowhere in Scripture does it instruct us to do this with words of the text.
 This is ALL based on human tradition,
 and more specifically "Jewish Mysticism".
 Add to that the fact that these are GREEK letters,
 not HEBREW letters.
 To be accurate it seems important that HEBREW letters should be used here,
 not Greek ones,
 since gematria was traditionally only used for Hebrew letters within "Jewish Mysticism".

You'll need to decide for yourself which is most likely correct.

Is it 18, or 9, or 600, or 612, or 666? שש מאות
 This is the Hebrew for six hundred.
 The letter values are:
 300 = ש
 40 = מ
 1 = א
 6 = ו
 400 = ת

300+300+40+1+6+400 = 1047

THIS IS THE NUMBER OF THE BEAST
- IF one is using Hebrew and not Greek.
Logically, and spiritually, THIS makes more sense.
YAHWEH is The God of The Hebrew people by His own declaration!

What's left for us then is to determine
 WHAT MAN'S NAME has this value!

Chapter 14

Rev. 14:1 And I looked.

And behold!

A Lamb was standing on Mount Zion,
 and with Him
 one hundred and forty four thousand
 having His Father's Name
 inscribed upon their foreheads.

Rev. 14:2 And I heard
 a voice from The Heaven
 like the sound of many waters
 and like the sound of great thunder.
 And I heard the sound of harpists playing their lyres.

Rev. 14:3 And they sang,
 as it were, a new song

before the throne,
 before the four living beings and the elders.
 And not even one was able to learn that song
 except the hundred and forty four thousand
 who had been redeemed away from the earth.

Rev. 14:4 These are the ones
 who were not defiled with women.

Indeed, they are virgins.

These are the ones
 who accompany The Lamb
 wherever He leads them.

These have been redeemed
 from among human beings,
 first fruits to YAHWEH and to The Lamb.

The reference to virgins,
 which normally means
 an unmarried daughter,
 refers to their physical purity.

Rev. 14:5 And in their mouth
was found no deceit.
Indeed, they are without fault
before the throne of YAHWEH.

Rev. 14:6 Then I saw another messenger
flying in mid-sky,
having the eternal good news to proclaim
to those who are residing on the earth,
to every nation, tribe, language, and people;
Rev. 14:7 saying with a loud voice,
“Revere YAHWEH and give praise to Him
for the hour of His tribunal has come!

Also, worship Him Who made the sky
and the earth,
and the sea
and springs of water.”

Rev. 14:8 And another messenger
followed saying, “Babylon has fallen,
has fallen that great city,
because she has made all nations
drink from the wine of the indignation
of her immoral sex!”

Babylon means confusion.
There is a Hebraism expressed here
that is not clear unless you understand
the concept of the “double mention”.
This involves repeating the same word twice
for special emphasis.
In this case it means,
“Babylon has fallen mightily, or dramatically!

Rev. 14:9 And a third messenger followed them saying with a loud voice, “If anyone worships
the beast and his image
and receives a mark

upon his forehead or upon his hand
Rev. 14:10 he himself will also drink
from the wine of the indignation of YAHWEH
which is poured out undiluted
into the cup of His wrath.

He will be tortured with fire and brimstone
in the presence of the set apart messengers
and in the presence of The Lamb.

Rev. 14:11 And the smoke of their torture
ascends into the ages of eternity.
And they have no intermission day or night
who worship the beast and his image,
even whoever accepts the mark of his name.”

Rev. 14:12 Here is the endurance
of the set apart ones.
Here are those who keep
the precepts of YAHWEH
and the trust of YAHUSHUA.

Rev. 14:13 Then I heard
a voice from The Heaven
saying to me, “Write:
‘Happy are the dead who are dying
for the sake of The Master from now on.
Yes, says The Divine Nature of YAHWEH,
so that they may rest from their labors,
and their works accompany them.”

Rev. 14:14 Then I looked.
And behold!
A white cloud.
And on the cloud was sitting
one like a son of man,

having on his head a golden wreath
and in his hand a sharp sickle.

Many translations use capital letters here,
seeking to make this into "The Son of Man."
However, there is no article.
And this refers to a messenger,
not to The Messiah.

Rev. 14:15 And another messenger
came out of The Temple
crying with a loud voice
to him who was sitting on the cloud,
"Send out your sickle and harvest
because the time has come for you to harvest,
because the crop of the earth is mature!"
Rev. 14:16 And he who was sitting on the cloud sent out his sickle upon the earth.
And the earth was harvested.

Rev. 14:17 Then another messenger
came out of The Temple
which is in The Heaven,
also having a sharp sickle.
Rev. 14:18 And another messenger
came out from the altar,
having authority over fire.
And he cried with a loud cry
to him who had the sharp sickle saying,
"Send out your sharp sickle
and gather the bunches of grapes
of the vine of the earth,
for her clusters of grapes are fully mature."

Note: There are two separate harvests identified.
One is the "crop of the earth"
and the other is the clusters of grapes.
Yisra'el is portrayed in Scripture
as the vineyard of YAHWEH.

Rev. 14:19 So the messenger
thrust his sickle into the earth
and gathered the vine of the earth.
And he threw it into the great winepress
of the indignation of YAHWEH.
Rev. 14:20 And the winepress
was trampled outside the city.
And blood came out of the winepress
up to the bridles of the horses
for one thousand six hundred furlongs.

The distance is 200 miles.
Surely this is the source of the concept of "the grapes of wrath".

Chapter 15

Rev. 15:1 And I saw
another sign in The Heaven,
great and wondrous,
seven messengers
holding the seven final calamities,
because in them
the indignation of YAHWEH is completed.

Rev. 15:2 And I saw something like a transparent sea mixed with fire,
and those who have won the victory
from the beast,
and from his image
and from his mark,
from the number of his name
standing on the transparent sea
holding YAHWEH's lyres.
Rev. 15:3 And they are singing
The Song of Moshe,
the servant of YAHWEH,
and The Song of The Lamb saying,
"Great and wondrous are Your works,

Sovereign YAHWEH, The Almighty One!
Just and true are Your ways,
The Sovereign of the set apart ones!
Rev. 15:4 Who will not revere You, Master,
and honor Your Name,
because You alone are set apart
since all nations will come and worship in Your presence, since Your justifications
have been rendered apparent.”

Rev. 15:5 After these things I observed.
And behold!
The Temple of The Tent of The Testimony
in The Heaven was opened.

*This is the Heavenly Tabernacle (Tent of The Testimony).
The earthly one built by Moshe
was a copy of this.*

Rev. 15:6 And out of The Temple
came the seven messengers
having the seven calamities, clothed in pure bright linen and having their chests girded
with golden belts.

Rev. 15:7 And one of the four living beings
gave to the seven messengers
seven golden bowls
full of the indignation of YAHWEH,
Who lives into the ages of eternity.

Rev. 15:8 Then The Temple
was entirely filled with smoke
by the magnificence of YAHWEH
and by His miraculous power.
And no one was able to enter The Temple
until the seven calamities of the seven messengers
have been completed.

Chapter 16

Rev. 16:1 And I heard
a loud voice from The Temple
saying to the seven messengers, “Go out and pour out the bowls
of the indignation of YAHWEH upon the earth.”

Rev. 16:2 And the first one went out.
And he poured out his bowl upon the earth.
And a harmful and hurtful ulcer
came upon the persons who had the mark of the beast
and upon those who worshiped his image.

Rev. 16:3 And the second messenger
poured out his bowl upon the sea.
And it became like the blood of a corpse.
And every thing in the sea
which breathes died.

Rev. 16:4 And the third messenger
poured out his bowl
upon the rivers and springs of water.
And they became blood.

Rev. 16:5 And I heard
the messenger of the waters saying,
“You are just, Master,
The One Who is
and Who was
and Who is to be,
because You have condemned these Rev. 16:6 because they have poured out the blood

of set apart ones and prophets.
And You have given to them blood to drink.
Indeed, they are deserving of this!”
Rev. 16:7 And I heard another
from the altar saying, “Even so, Sovereign YAHWEH,
The Almighty One,
truthful and just are Your condemnations.”

Rev. 16:8 And the fourth messenger poured out his bowl on the sun.
And he was permitted
to burn persons with fire.
Rev. 16:9 And persons were burned
with great burns.
And they blasphemed the Name of YAHWEH
Who has authority over these calamities, yet they did not reconsider
and give praise to Him.

Rev. 16:10 And the fifth messenger
poured out his bowl
on the throne of the beast.
And his kingdom became full of darkness.
And they chewed their tongues
because of the pain.
Rev. 16:11 And they blasphemed
The Elohim of The Heaven
because of their pains and their ulcers.
But they did not reconsider their actions.

Rev. 16:12 And the sixth messenger
poured out his bowl
on the great river Euphrates.
And its water was dried up
so that the way of the kings from the east
might be prepared.

Rev. 16:13 And I saw three hurtful natures
similar to frogs
coming out of the mouth of the dragon,
out of the mouth of the beast,
and out of the mouth of the false prophet.
Rev. 16:14 Indeed, they are natures
of supernatural beings performing signs,
being sent out to the kings of the earth
and of the whole world,
to gather them to the battle
of that great day of YAHWEH, The Almighty.

Rev. 16:15 “Behold!
I am coming like a thief!
Happy is he who is staying alert
and is guarding his garments
in order that he does not walk naked
and they look at his indecency!”

Rev. 16:16 And He gathered them together to the place called Har Megiddo
in the Hebrew language.
Har Megiddo means hill of slaughter.

Rev. 16:17 And the seventh messenger
poured out his bowl into the air.
And a loud voice came out of The Heavenly Temple,
from the throne saying,
“It is finished!”
[The very same words used by YAHUSHUA
upon the torture stake!](#)

Rev. 16:18 And there were noises
and thunderings and lightnings.

And there was a great earthquake,
such a mighty and great earthquake
as had not occurred
since human beings came upon the earth.

Rev. 16:19 And the great city
was divided into three parts.
And the cities of the nations fell.

And mighty Babylon was remembered
in the presence of YAHWEH,
to give to her the cup of the wine
of the fierceness of His indignation.
Rev. 16:20 And every island fled away.
And mountains were not found.
Rev. 16:21 And great hail from the sky
fell upon persons,
about the weight of a talent.

About 95 pounds each.

And human beings blasphemed YAHWEH
because of the calamity of the hail,
since that calamity was exceedingly great.

Chapter 17

Rev. 17:1 And one of the seven messengers
who had the seven bowls
came and talked with me,
saying to me, "Come!
I will show you the condemnation of the great whore
who is sitting on many waters,
Rev. 17:2 with whom the kings of the earth
have committed sexual immorality.
And the inhabitants of the earth
have been intoxicated with the wine
of her sexual immorality."

Rev. 17:3 And he carried me away
in The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
into the wilderness.
And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet dangerous animal
which was full of blasphemous names,
having seven heads and ten horns.
Rev. 17:4 The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet
and adorned with gold
and precious stones and pearls,
having in her hand a golden cup
full of abominations
and the filthiness of her sexual immorality.

Rev. 17:5 And upon her forehead
a title was engraved:
MYSTERY BABYLON THE GREAT,
THE MOTHER OF THE WHORES
AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

Rev. 17:6 And I saw the woman
being drunk with the blood
of the set apart ones
and with the blood
of the witnesses of YAHUSHUA.
And when I saw her
I wondered with great wonder.

Rev. 17:7 Then the messenger said to me,
"Why do you wonder?
I will tell you the mystery of the woman
and of the wild animal that carries her which has the seven heads
and the ten horns.

Rev. 17:8 The wild animal that you saw
was, and is not,
but will ascend out of the bottomless pit
and go into ruin.
And those who are residing on the earth
will wonder,
whose names have not been written
in The Book of Life
since the establishment of the world
when they see the dangerous animal
that was, and is not,
and nevertheless exists.

Rev. 17:9 Here is the mind which has wisdom,
The seven heads are seven mountains
upon which the woman is sitting.

Rev. 17:10 There are also seven kings.
Five have fallen.

One exists.

And another has not yet come.

And when he comes

he must remain a short time.

Rev. 17:11 And the dangerous animal
that was, and is not,
is himself also the eighth,
but is of the seven,
and he is going into ruin.

Rev. 17:12 The ten horns which you saw are ten kings
who have received no kingdom as yet,
but instead they receive authority
for one hour
as kings with the dangerous animal.

Rev. 17:13 These have one purpose.

And they will deliver their power and authority
to the dangerous animal.

Rev. 17:14 These will make war against The Lamb.

But The Lamb will conquer them because He is Master of masters and Ruler of rulers.

And those who are with Him
are invited,
and chosen,
and faithful.”

Rev. 17:15 Then he said to me,
“The waters which you saw where the whore is sitting
are peoples, and crowds,
and nations, and languages.

Rev. 17:16 And the ten horns which you saw upon the dangerous animal,
these will detest the whore.
And they will make her desolate and naked.
And they will consume her flesh.
And they will burn her completely with fire.

Rev. 17:17 Indeed, YAHWEH
has put it into their hearts to do His will,
to form one purpose,
and to give their kingdom
to the dangerous animal
until the words of YAHWEH
have been completed.

Rev. 17:18 And the woman whom you saw is that great city
which reigns over the kings of the earth.”

Chapter 18

Rev. 18:1 And after these things
I saw another messenger
coming down from The Heaven,
having great authority.
And the earth was illuminated
by his magnificence.
Rev. 18:2 And he cried mightily
with a loud voice saying,
"Babylon the great has fallen, has fallen,
and has become a dwelling place
of unclean natures,
and a prison for every unclean nature,
and a prison
for every unclean and detestable bird,
Rev. 18:3 because all the nations
have drunk of the wine of the indignation
of her sexual immorality.
The kings of the earth have committed sexual immorality with her,
and the merchants of the earth
have become wealthy
through the power of her insolent luxuries."

Rev. 18:4 And I heard another voice
from The Heaven saying,
"Come out of her, My people,
in order that you do not become
co-participants in her offenses,
and in order that you do not receive from her calamities,
Rev. 18:5 because her offenses
have reached to The Heaven and YAHWEH has remembered her wrong doings!
Rev. 18:6 Give back to her
just as she given to you!
Even render to her two fold, twice,
according to her works!
In the cup which she has mixed,
mix double for her,
Rev. 18:7 as much as she has honored herself
and has lived luxuriously,
as much as this,
give to her torture and grief,
because she says in her heart,
'I sit as queen!
And I am not a widow.
And I will not see grief.!'!

Rev. 18:8 Because of this
her calamities will arrive in one day,
death, and grief, and hunger.
And she will be utterly burned with fire
because mighty is Sovereign YAHWEH
Who condemns her.

Rev. 18:9 The kings of the earth
who committed sexual immorality
and have lived luxuriously with her will wail aloud for her and mourn for her
when they see the smoke of her burning,
Rev. 18:10 standing a distance away
because of the terror of her torture saying,
"Alas! Alas!
That great city Babylon, that mighty city,
because in one hour
your condemnation has come!'

Rev. 18:11 And the merchants of the earth will wail aloud and grieve over her because no one buys
their merchandise anymore,

Rev. 18:12 merchandise of gold and silver,
precious stones and pearls,
fine linen and purple,
silk and scarlet,
every kind of citron wood,
every kind of object of ivory, every kind of object
of most precious wood,
and copper,
and iron,
and marble;
Rev. 18:13 and cinnamon
and incense,
and fragrant oil
and frankincense,
and wine,
and oil,
and fine flour
and wheat,
and cattle,
and sheep,
and horses,
and chariots,
and bodies,
even lives of human beings.
Rev. 18:14 The fruit that your life longed for
has gone away from you.
And all the things which are sumptuous and splendid
have gone away from you,
And you will find them no more,
not at all!

Rev. 18:15 The merchants of these things
who became wealthy by means of her will stand a distance away
because of the terror of her torture,
wailing aloud and grieving,
Rev. 18:16 and saying,
"Alas! Alas!
That great city that was clothed in fine linen,
and purple,
and scarlet,
and adorned with gold
and precious stones
and pearls.",
Rev. 18:17 because in one hour
such great wealth has been laid waste.

Every captain, all those on the ships,
and the sailors,
and as many as work by means of the sea,
stood a distance away.
Rev. 18:18 And they screamed
when they saw
the smoke of her blazing saying,
"What is like this great city?"
Rev. 18:19 They threw dust on their heads and screamed, wailing aloud and grieving,
and saying, 'Alas, alas!
That great city in which all who had ships on the sea
became wealthy through her magnificence.',
because in one hour
she has been laid waste.'

Rev. 18:20 Rejoice over her, Heaven,
and you set apart ambassadors and prophets,
because YAHWEH has determined
the condemnation upon her on your behalf!

Many translations use "avenged" in this verse.
That's not what the Greek states.
It may be the desire of many to have it so,

and the literal sense actually might be understood in such a manner,
but it's not what the text states.

Rev. 18:21 And a mighty messenger took up a stone
like a large millstone
and threw it into the sea saying, “In this manner, with violence,
the great city, Babylon, will be thrown down!
And it will be found no more, not at all!

Rev. 18:22 The sound of harpists,
and minstrels,
and flutists,
and trumpeters

will be heard in you no more at all!
And no craftsman of any trade
will be found in you no more at all!
And the sound of a millstone
will be heard in you no more at all!

Rev. 18:23 And the light of a lamp
will shine in you no more at all!
And the voice of bridegroom and bride
will be heard in you no more at all!
Because your merchants
were the great men of the earth,
because through your medications
all the nations have been deceived.

pharmakeia is the Greek word that is usually translated
as sorceries or witchcraft.
But note that it really means medications.
This has far-reaching implications in our days.

Rev. 18:24 And in her was found
the blood of prophets,
and set apart ones,
and of all who were slaughtered
upon the earth.”

Chapter 19

Rev. 19:1 After these things
I heard a loud voice
of many groups in The Heaven saying, “Hallelu-YAH!

Deliverance
and praise
and honor
and miraculous power
to our Sovereign, YAHWEH, Rev. 19:2 because true and just
are His condemnations;
because He has condemned
the great whore
who has corrupted the earth
with her sexual immorality,
and He has avenged
the blood of His servants
shed by her hand.”

Rev. 19:3 Again they said, “Hallelu-YAH!
Her smoke rises up
into the ages of eternity!”

Rev. 19:4 And the twenty four elders
and the four living beings
fell down and worshiped YAHWEH,
Who is sitting upon His throne, saying,
“Amen!
Hallelu-YAH!”

Rev. 19:5 Then a voice
came from the throne saying,

"Praise our Elohim, all His servants,
even those who revere Him,
both small and great!"

Rev. 19:6 Then I heard as it were
the sound of a great multitude,
like the sound of many waters
and like the sound of mighty thunders saying, "Hallelu-YAH!
because Sovereign YAHWEH
The Almighty reigns!

Rev. 19:7 Rejoice, and jump for joy,
and give Him praise
because the marriage of The Lamb has come and His wife has prepared herself!
Rev. 19:8 And to her it has been granted
to be arrayed in fine linen, clean and bright.
Indeed, the fine linen is the justification
of the set apart ones."

Rev. 19:9 Then he said to me,
"Write!
Happy are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb!"

And he said to me,
"These are the true words of YAHWEH."

Rev. 19:10 Then I fell at his feet to worship him.
But he said to me, "Behold!
No!
I am your fellow servant and of your kindred
who have the witness of YAHUSHUA.
Worship YAHWEH!
Indeed, the witness of YAHUSHUA
is The Divine Nature of prophecy."

Rev. 19:11 Then I saw The Heaven opened.
And behold!
A white horse.
And He Who is sitting upon it is called Faithful and True.
And in justification He condemns
and engages in warfare.
Rev. 19:12 His eyes are like a flame of fire
and upon His head are many diadems
having a title engraved that no one understands except He Himself.

Rev. 19:13 He was arrayed with a garment completely covered with blood.
And His designation is called
The Word of YAHWEH.

Rev. 19:14 And the armies in The Heaven
accompanied Him upon white horses,
clothed in fine linen, white and clean.
Rev. 19:15 And out of His mouth
proceeds a sharp sword,
that with it He might strike the nations.
And He Himself will shepherd them
with a rod of iron.
And He tramples the winepress
of the wine of the indignation and of the wrath
of YAHWEH, The Almighty.

The concept is that of a gentle shepherd
leading and tending to His flock,
but with strict firmness in his manner.
There is no room for foolishness
with a staff of iron.
Likewise, it will never break
as a wooden one might.

Rev. 19:16 And He has on His garment
and on His thigh a title written:

KING OF KINGS

AND SOVEREIGN OF SOVEREIGNS.

Or, Ruler of rulers
and Master of masters.

Rev. 19:17 And I saw a messenger
standing in the sun.

And he shouted with a loud voice saying to all the birds that fly
in the midst of the sky,
"Come here!

Even gather together for the supper
of The Mighty YAHWEH,

Rev. 19:18 so that you may eat
the flesh of kings,
the flesh of captains,
the flesh of mighty ones,
the flesh of horses
and of those who are sitting on them,
even the flesh of everyone,
free and slave,
both small and great."

Rev. 19:19 And I saw the dangerous animal,
the kings of the earth,
and their armies gathered together
to make war against Him Who is sitting on the horse and against His army.

Rev. 19:20 Then the dangerous animal
was captured,
and with him the false prophet
who worked signs in his presence,
by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast
and those who worshiped his image.
These two were thrown alive
into the lake of fire burning with brimstone.

Rev. 19:21 And the remaining ones
were killed with the sword which proceeds from the mouth of Him
Who is sitting on the horse.
And all the birds were filled with their flesh.

Chapter 20

Rev. 20:1 And I saw a messenger
coming down from The Heaven
holding the key to the bottomless pit
and a great chain in his hand.

Rev. 20:2 And he seized the dragon,
the ancient serpent
who is The False Accuser and The Adversary,
and bound him for a thousand years.

Rev. 20:3 And he threw him
into the bottomless pit.
And he shut him up.
And he set a seal over him
in order that he might deceive the nations no more until the thousand years
have been completed.

And after these things he must be released
for a brief period of time.

Rev. 20:4 Then I saw thrones.
And they sat on them.
And judgment was committed to them.

And I saw the lives of those who had been beheaded
because of the witness of YAHUSHUA
and because of The Word of YAHWEH, who had not worshiped
the dangerous animal
nor his image,
nor received his mark on their foreheads
nor on their hands.

And they lived and reigned with The Messiah
for a thousand years.

Rev. 20:5 But the rest of the dead
did not live again
until the thousand years were completed.

This is the first resurrection.

Rev. 20:6 Happy and set apart
is one who has a part in the first resurrection.

Over these the second death
has no authority.

On the contrary, they will be priests
of YAHWEH and of The Messiah, and will reign with Him
for a thousand years.

Rev. 20:7 And when the thousand years
have been completed

The Adversary
will be released from his prison.

Rev. 20:8 And he will go out to deceive the nations
which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog,
to gather them together into battle
whose number is like the sand of the sea.

Gog means to cover.

Magog means a covering.

Rev. 20:9 And they went up upon the breadth of the land and surrounded the camp
of the set apart ones
and the beloved city.

And fire came down
from YAHWEH, out of The Heaven,
and devoured them.

Rev. 20:10 And The False Accuser
who was deceiving them,
was thrown into the lake
of fire and brimstone
where the dangerous animal
and the false prophet are.
And they will be tortured day and night
into the ages of eternity.

Rev. 20:11 And I saw a great white throne
and Him Who is sitting upon it,
from Whose face
the earth and the sky fled away.
And there was found no place for them.

Rev. 20:12 And I saw the dead,
small and great,
standing in the presence of YAHWEH.
And books were opened.
And a different book was opened
which is The Book of Life.

And the dead were judged
according to their works

from the things
which were written in the books.

Note who is being judged.
It's the dead, not the living.
The concept is the unregenerate (not reborn) dead.

Rev. 20:13 And the sea gave up
the dead who were in it,
and death and Hades gave up
the dead who were in them.
And they were judged,
each one according to their works.

Death apparently represents the grave.
Hades is the place of departed beings.
Thus it appears the bodies and the natures
are reunited for eternity
just prior to their judgment.

Rev. 20:14 Then death and Hades
were thrown into the lake of fire.

This is the second death.

Note that it's the lake of fire
that is the second death.
It's what is commonly referred to as "Hell."

Rev. 20:15 And if anyone
was not found written
in The Book of Life
he was thrown into the lake of fire.

Chapter 21

Rev. 21:1 Then I saw a new heaven
and a new earth.

Indeed, the first heaven
and the first earth had passed away.
Also, there was no more sea.

The New Heaven and the New Earth
do not appear until after the 1,000 years
and the final judgments.
In this way, sin is completely eliminated
and/or judged prior to the coming of the New Heaven and New Earth.

Rev. 21:2 Then I, Yahonathan,
saw the sacred city, New Yerushalaim,
coming down out of The Heaven
from YAHWEH,
prepared as a bride
adorned for her husband.

Note that it's the city, New Yerushalaim (and would include those who dwell therein)
that is prepared as a bride.
This also is not presented until after the final judgment. See v. 9-11.

Rev. 21:3 And I heard a loud voice
from The Heaven saying,
"Behold!

The Tabernacle of YAHWEH

is in the midst of human beings.
And He will dwell in their midst.
And they will be His people.
And YAHWEH Himself
will be among them
as their Elohim.

The term for tabernacle means tent.
It represents the presence of YAHWEH
as dwelling in the midst of the people.

Rev. 21:4 And YAHWEH will wipe away
every tear from their eyes.
There will be no more death,
nor grief,
nor crying.
And there will be no more pain
because the former things have passed away."

Rev. 21:5 Then He
Who is sitting upon the throne said,

“Behold!
I make all things new.”

And He said to me,
“Write, because these words
are truthful and faithful!”

Rev. 21:6 And He said to me,
“It is finished!
I am The Aleph and The Tav,
The Beginning and The End!

I will give freely to him who is thirsty
from the fountain of the water of life.
Everyone searches the world in vain
for the “fountain of youth”.
THIS IS IT!
It's not found on the earth.
It's found in YAHWEH!

Rev. 21:7 He who conquers
will be an heir of everything.
And I will be his Elohim.
And he will be My child.

Rev. 21:8 But cowardly
and unbelieving,
and disgusting,
and murderers,
and sexually immoral
and sorcerers,
and idol worshippers,
and all liars
will have their part in the lake which burns
with fire and brimstone,
which is the second death.”

Rev. 21:9 Then one of the seven messengers
who had the seven bowls
filled with the seven last calamities
came to me and talked with me saying, “Come!
I will show you the bride, The Lamb's wife.”

Rev. 21:10 And he carried me away
in The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
to a great and high mountain.
And he showed me the mighty city,
The Set Apart Yerushalaim, descending out of The Heaven
from YAHWEH,

Rev. 21:11 having the magnificence of YAHWEH.
Her light was like a most precious stone,
even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal.

Rev. 21:12 Also she had a great and high wall
with twelve gates,
and twelve messengers at the gates,
and names engraved upon them
which are those of the twelve tribes
of the sons of Yisra'el,

Rev. 21:13 three gates on the east,
three gates on the north,
three gates on the south,
and three gates on the west.

Rev. 21:14 And the wall of the city
had twelve foundations.

And on them were the names
of the twelve ambassadors of the Lamb.
apostolos - means delegate, ambassador.

Rev. 21:15 And he who was talking with me
had a gold reed to measure the city
and its gates and its wall.

Rev. 21:16 And the city is laid out as a square.
Its length is as great as its breadth.
And he measured the city with the reed,
twelve thousand furlongs.
Its length,
breadth,
and height
are equal.

1500 miles approximately

Rev. 21:17 Then he measured its wall.
One hundred and forty four cubits
according to the measure of a human being,
that is, of a messenger.

Note this relationship.

Rev. 21:18 And the structure of its wall was of jasper.

And the city was pure gold,
like clean glass.

Rev. 21:19 And the foundations of the wall of the city
were adorned with all kinds of precious stones.

The first foundation was jasper.

The second sapphire.

The third chalcedony.

The fourth emerald.

Rev. 21:20 The fifth sardonyx.

The sixth sardius.

The seventh chrysolite.

The eighth beryl.

The ninth topaz.

The tenth chrysoprase.

The eleventh jacinth.

And the twelfth amethyst.

Rev. 21:21 The twelve gates were twelve pearls.

Each individual gate was of one pearl.

And the street of the city was pure gold,
like transparent glass.

Rev. 21:22 And I saw no temple in it
because Sovereign YAHWEH, The Almighty,
and The Lamb are its temple.

Rev. 21:23 The city has no need of the sun
or of the moon to shine in it.
Indeed,
the magnificence of YAHWEH illuminates it and The Lamb is its light.

Rev. 21:24 And the nations
of those who have been delivered
will walk by His light.
And the kings of the earth
bring their praise and honor into it.

Rev. 21:25 And its gates
will not be shut at all by day.
Indeed, there will be no night there.
Rev. 21:26 And they will bring the praise
and the honor of the nations into it.

Rev. 21:27 And there will
by no means enter into it anything that defiles,
or makes any thing detestable,
or a lie;
but only those who are written in The Lamb's Book of Life.

Chapter 22

Rev. 22:1 And he showed me

a pure river of living water,
radiant as crystal,
proceeding from the throne
of YAHWEH and of The Lamb.
Rev. 22:2 In the middle of its street
and on both sides of the river was The Tree of Life which bore twelve fruits yielding its fruit
according to one each month.
And the leaves of the tree
were for the healing of the nations.

Rev. 22:3 And every curse
will not exist any more.

And the throne of YAHWEH
and of The Lamb will be in it.

And His servants will worship Him.
Rev. 22:4 And they will see His face.
And His Name will be on their foreheads.

Rev. 22:5 And there will be no night there.
And they need no lamp
or even the light of the sun
because Sovereign YAHWEH
shines as their light.

And they will reign into the ages of eternity.

Rev. 22:6 Then he said to me,
“These words are faithful and true.
And YAHWEH,
Sovereign of the set apart prophets
has sent His messenger
to show His servants the things which must happen swiftly.
[This repeats what was stated
at the beginning of this book.](#) [Thus, on the basis of “two witnesses”
the prophecy is confirmed as valid and true.](#)

Rev. 22:7 Behold!
I am coming suddenly!

Happy is he who keeps the words
of the prophecy of this book.”

Rev. 22:8 And I, Yahonathan,
saw and heard these things.
And when I had heard and seen
I fell down to worship
before the feet of the messenger
who had shown me these things.

Rev. 22:9 But he said to me,
“Behold!
No!
Indeed, I am your fellow servant
and of your brothers, the prophets, and of those who keep
the words of this book!
Worship YAHWEH!”

Rev. 22:10 Then He said to me,
“Do not seal the words
of the prophecy of this book
because the time is near.

Rev. 22:11 He who is being unjust
is still unjust!
And he who is filthy
is still filthy!

And he who is justified
is still justified!
And he who is set apart
is still set apart!

The mood is imperative in each of these.
Contrary to typical translations,
it seems appropriate to state these as above,
given the context.
This is part of the parting statement
which deals with the end state of these things.
It suggests nothing is now going to change
- for eternity.

Rev. 22:12 And behold!
I am coming suddenly!
And My compensation is with Me
to give to every one
according to how his work shall be.

Rev. 22:13 I am The Aleph and The Tav,
The Beginning and The End,
The First and The Last.

Rev. 22:14 Happy are those who are doing these precepts
in order that they will have the privilege to The Tree of Life
and may enter into the gates into the city.

Rev. 22:15 However, outside are dogs
and sorcerers
and sexually immoral
and murderers
and idol worshippers,
and whoever is fond of and practices lying.

Rev. 22:16 I, YAHUSHUA,
have sent My Messenger
to testify to you these things
for the sake of the assemblies.

I am The Root and The Offspring of David,
The Bright and Morning Star."

There is an enigma here.
Note the following:
v. 6. YAHWEH sends His messenger.
Here YAHUSHUA says
He has sent His messenger.
v. 9. He is a fellow servant
like the rest who are in The New Heaven and New earth.
v. 12. He is coming.
v. 13. He is the Aleph and Tav, Beginning and End, First and Last.
v. 16. He has sent His messenger,
and He is the root and offspring of David, etc.
This makes YAHUSHUA identical with YAHWEH.
Perhaps this is the result of an editing of the text (either at the beginning or at the end - or both),
or an error in it.
Perhaps this reveals to us the UNITY
of The Father and The Son.
The Father is "in The Son",
and The Son is "in The Father."
Scripture states this fact multiple times.

Rev. 22:17 And The Divine Nature of YAHWEH
and of the bride say, 'Come!' And he who is listening,
'Come!'
And he who is thirsting,
'Come!
And whoever is desiring,
receive the water of life freely!

Rev. 22:18 Indeed, I testify to everyone who is listening to the words

of the prophecy of this book:
If anyone adds to these things,
YAHWEH will add to him the calamities
that are written in this book.

Rev. 22:19 And if anyone
takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy YAHWEH will take away his part
from The Book of Life,
from The Holy City,
and away from the things
which are written in this book.

Rev. 22:20 He who testifies
to these things says,
'Surely I am coming suddenly!' "
Amen.

Even so, come Master, YAHUSHUA!

Rev. 22:21 The favor of our Master,
YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
be with you all.
Amen.
