

26. JUDE

Version 6.1: 2-2-17

1 Jude, a slave of YAHUSHUA, The Messiah,
and brother of Ya'akob,
to those who have been sanctified by YAHWEH, The Father, and protected by YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, invited.

Jude means the same as Judah, or more correctly, Yahudah.
Yahudah means Yah be praised.
Ya'akob means heel catcher.

2 Compassion and well being and love be multiplied to you.

3 Beloved, I made haste to write to you concerning our shared deliverance.
I needed to write to you,
encouraging you to contend for the faith which at one time was entrusted to the set apart ones.

4 Indeed, some persons have settled in alongside you who previously were written down for the sake of this judgment, ungodly persons transforming the favor of our Elohim into sexual perversity
and rejecting the only absolute ruler, YAHWEH, and our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah.

This carries the connotation of being recorded in YAHWEH's record books that are kept in Heaven for the purpose of the final judgment.
The term "ungodly" is used several times in this book. It means irreverent, and implies direct antagonism toward YAHWEH, not merely the state of disbelief.
It might be understood as the attitude of antichrist, against The Messiah, and therefore also against YAHWEH Himself.
Pagan worship often involved sexual perversities.

5 Now I want to remind you, though you once understood this,
that YAHWEH, having delivered the people out of the land of Mitsraim, afterward completely destroyed those who did not trust.

Mitsraim means dual straits, trouble. Mitsraim is Egypt.

6 Even the heavenly messengers who did not protect their beginning, but instead abandoned their own dwelling place
He has imprisoned with everlasting chains under gloom until the judgment of the great day aggelos - messenger. The word 'angel' comes from the transliteration of this word. It is not a Hebrew concept. There are no 'angels' in Hebrew culture prior to the Greek influence.

7 even like Sedom and Amorha and the cities around them, in a similar manner to these having become utterly sexually immoral and having gone after strange flesh.
These have been set forth as an example enduring the justice of eternal fire.

Strange flesh means "different" flesh, not the normal use of the flesh. It refers to homosexuality, and/or bestiality.
Sedom means fettered.
Amorha means bondage.

8 However, similarly these also dream of defiling the flesh and rejecting authority and speaking harmfully of honors.

9 Yet Michael, the chief heavenly messenger, while opposing The Adversary
when he disputed about the body of Moshe dared not bring against him a reviling condemnation, but instead said, "YAHWEH rebuke you!"

Moshe means drawing out.

10 Indeed, these speak irreverently of whatever they do not understand.
Furthermore, whatever they comprehend physically,
in the same manner as irrational animals,
in these matters they are corrupted.

11 Woe to them
because they have traveled in the way of Kayin;
they have rushed for reward
by means of the fraud of Bil'am;
and they have been fully destroyed by means of the disobedience of Korah!

Bil'am means confounding the people.
Korah means bald. His disobedience was outright rebellion.
Kayin, Bil'am and Korah were all openly rebellious against YAHWEH.

12 These exist as hidden reefs amidst your love feasts,
feasting with you, tending to themselves without fear;
waterless clouds being carried about by the winds,
late autumn trees, barren, having died twice,
having been uprooted,
13 wild billows of the sea, foaming up their own disgraces;
wandering stars for whom is preserved the gloom of darkness for eternity.

14 Now Hanoch, the seventh from Adam, even foretold these things saying,

*"Behold! YAHWEH is coming with myriads of His set apart ones to execute condemnation against all,
and fully convicting all the ungodly among them
of all their ungodly deeds
in which they have acted ungodly, and of all the harsh things which ungodly offenders have spoken against Him."*
(A Scripture reference is not known for this.)

Hanoch means dedicated.
Adam means man; red earth.

16 These are grumblers, complainers, traveling according to their own desires,
and their mouths speak great swelling words, flattering people to gain advantage.

17 But you, beloved,
remember the utterances which were spoken previously by the ambassadors of our Master YAHUSHUA, The Messiah; 18 how they said to you that there will be mockers in the final time, traveling after their own ungodly desires.
19 These are the ones who set themselves apart, natural persons, not having The Divine Nature of YAHWEH.

20 But you, beloved,
building yourselves up by your sacred trust,
praying in The Set Apart Divine Nature of YAHWEH, 21 keep yourselves in the love of YAHWEH, waiting for the compassion of our Master, YAHUSHUA, The Messiah, for the sake of Eternal Life.

22 Also on some have compassion, making a distinction.

23 But others deliver with fear, seizing them from the fire, detesting even the garment stained by the flesh.

24 Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to establish you unblemished directly in front of His magnificence with exultation, 25 to the only wise Elohim, our Deliverer, be honor and majesty, dominion and authority,
both now and for eternity. Amen.
